- He looked up "triple jump" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "triple jump" to mean an athletic contest in which a competitor must....

---

united arab republic (noun)

A republic in northeastern Africa known as the United Arab Republic until 1971; site of an ancient civilization that flourished from 2600 to 30 BC.

- They discussed "united arab republic" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "united arab republic" to mean a republic in northeastern africa known as the....

---

vancouver (noun)

A town in southwestern Washington on the Columbia River across from Portland, Oregon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vancouver."
- He looked up "vancouver" because he had never seen it before.

---

background radiation (noun)

Radiation coming from sources other than those being observed.

- The article explained what "background radiation" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "background radiation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

belgium (noun)

A monarchy in northwestern Europe; headquarters for the European Union and for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

- The article explained what "belgium" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "belgium" to mean a monarchy in northwestern europe; headquarters for....

---

bombs (noun)

An event that fails badly or is totally ineffectual.

- The article explained what "bombs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bombs" to mean an event that fails badly or is totally ineffectual.

---

capital of hawaii (noun)

The capital and largest city of Hawaii; located on a large bay on the island of Oahu.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of hawaii" to mean the capital and largest city of hawaii; located on....
- They discussed "capital of hawaii" during the group presentation.

---

capital of tennessee (noun)

Capital of the state of Tennessee; located in the north central part of the state on the Cumberland River; known for country music.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of tennessee."
- Understanding "capital of tennessee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

corn field (noun)

A field planted with corn.

- He looked up "corn field" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "corn field" to mean a field planted with corn.

---

egyptian capital (noun)

The capital of Egypt and the largest city in Africa; a major port just to the south of the Nile delta; formerly the home of the Pharaohs.

- They discussed "egyptian capital" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "egyptian capital" because he had never seen it before.

---

fuel consumption rate (noun)

The ratio of the number of miles traveled to the number of gallons of gasoline burned.

- They discussed "fuel consumption rate" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fuel consumption rate" means with a simple example.

---

hawaii island (noun)

The largest and southernmost of the Hawaii islands; has several volcanic peaks.

- He looked up "hawaii island" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "hawaii island" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jet plane (noun)

An airplane powered by one or more jet engines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jet plane."
- He looked up "jet plane" because he had never seen it before.

kennedy international airport (noun)

A large airport on Long Island to the east of New York City.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kennedy international airport."
- He looked up "kennedy international airport" because he had never seen it before.

nerve center (noun)

A center that provides information and control.

- The nerve center of the diamond industry is in Amsterdam.
- In most people the speech center is in the left hemisphere.

norway (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in northern Europe on the western side of the Scandinavian Peninsula; achieved independence from Sweden in 1905.

- In class, the teacher used "norway" to mean a constitutional monarchy in northern europe on the....
- He looked up "norway" because he had never seen it before.

palm beach (noun)

A resort town in southeast Florida on an island on the Atlantic coast.

- The article explained what "palm beach" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "palm beach."

southeast (noun)

The southeastern region of the United States.

- Understanding "southeast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "southeast" during the group presentation.

strain (noun)

The general meaning or substance of an utterance.

- She endured the stresses and strains of life.
- His responsibilities were a constant strain.

sunshine state (noun)

A state in southeastern United States between the Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico; one of the Confederate states during the American Civil War.

- Understanding "sunshine state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sunshine state" because he had never seen it before.

top dressing (noun)

A layer of fertilizer or manure not plowed in.

- He looked up "top dressing" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "top dressing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

twins (noun)

The third sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about May 21 to June 20.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twins."
- He looked up "twins" because he had never seen it before.

western roman empire (noun)

The western part after the Roman Empire was divided in 395; it lasted only until 476.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western roman empire."
- He looked up "western roman empire" because he had never seen it before.

blast wave (noun)

A region of high pressure travelling through a gas at a high velocity.

- The explosion created a shock wave.
- They discussed "blast wave" during the group presentation.

---

bomb blast (noun)

The explosion of a bomb.

- He looked up "bomb blast" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bomb blast" to mean the explosion of a bomb.

---

buffalo (noun)

A city on Lake Erie in western New York (near Niagara Falls).

- The article explained what "buffalo" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "buffalo" during the group presentation.

---

centre of gravity (noun)

The point within something at which gravity can be considered to act; in uniform gravity it is equal to the center of mass.

- In class, the teacher used "centre of gravity" to mean the point within something at which gravity can be....
- He looked up "centre of gravity" because he had never seen it before.

---

commons (noun)

A piece of open land for recreational use in an urban area.

- Understanding "commons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "commons" because he had never seen it before.

---

ga (noun)

A state in southeastern United States; one of the Confederate states during the American Civil War.

- Understanding "ga" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ga" to mean a state in southeastern united states; one of the....

---

grain field (noun)

A field where grain is grown.

- The article explained what "grain field" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grain field."

---

grand canal (noun)

An inland waterway 1000 miles long in eastern China; extends from Tianjin in the north to Hangzhou in the south.

- They discussed "grand canal" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grand canal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

heights (noun)

A high place.

- He doesn't like heights.
- He looked up "heights" because he had never seen it before.

---

hotel detective (noun)

A private detective employed by a hotel or retail store.

- They discussed "hotel detective" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hotel detective."

---

lean (verb)

To incline or bend from a vertical position.

- She leaned over the banister.
- He leaned his rifle against the wall.

---

nancy (noun)

A city in northeastern France in Lorraine.

- The article explained what "nancy" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “nancy.”

---

northwest (noun)

The northwestern region of the United States.

- He looked up “northwest” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “northwest” during the group presentation.

---

railroad ticket (noun)

A ticket good for a ride on a railroad train.

- He looked up “railroad ticket” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “railroad ticket” to mean a ticket good for a ride on a railroad train.

---

rifle shot (noun)

The distance that a rifle bullet will carry.

- The target was out of rifle range.
- In class, the teacher used “rifle shot” to mean the distance that a rifle bullet will carry.

---

san jose (noun)

The capital and largest city of Costa Rica.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “san jose.”
- The article explained what “san jose” means with a simple example.

---

scratch line (noun)

A line indicating the location of the start of a race or a game.

- In class, the teacher used “scratch line” to mean a line indicating the location of the start of a....
- Understanding “scratch line” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scream (noun)

A high-pitched noise resembling a human cry.

- He heard the scream of the brakes.
- Her screaming attracted the neighbors.

---

tours (noun)

An industrial city in western France on the Loire River.

- The article explained what “tours” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “tours” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tragedy (noun)

An event resulting in great loss and misfortune.

- Understanding “tragedy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “tragedy” during the group presentation.

---

breach (noun)

A personal or social separation (as between opposing factions).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “breach.”
- He looked up “breach” because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of alaska (noun)

The state capital of Alaska.

- In class, the teacher used “capital of alaska” to mean the state capital of alaska.
- He looked up “capital of alaska” because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of louisiana (noun)

Capital of Louisiana.

- Understanding “capital of louisiana” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “capital of louisiana.”

---

capital of mississippi (noun)

Capital of the state of Mississippi on the Pearl River.

- He looked up "capital of mississippi" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "capital of mississippi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of the russian federation (noun)

A city of central European Russia; formerly capital of both the Soviet Union and Soviet Russia; since 1991 the capital of the Russian Federation.

- He looked up "capital of the russian federation" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "capital of the russian federation" during the group presentation.

---

cattle car (noun)

A freight car for transporting cattle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cattle car."
- They discussed "cattle car" during the group presentation.

---

colorado desert (noun)

An arid region of southeastern California.

- In class, the teacher used "colorado desert" to mean an arid region of southeastern california.
- Understanding "colorado desert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

congressional district (noun)

A territorial division of a state; entitled to elect one member to the United States House of Representatives.

- The article explained what "congressional district" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "congressional district" to mean a territorial division of a state; entitled to....

---

cuba (noun)

A communist state in the Caribbean on the island of Cuba.

- The article explained what "cuba" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cuba" to mean a communist state in the caribbean on the island of....

---

filling station (noun)

A service station that sells gasoline.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "filling station."
- He looked up "filling station" because he had never seen it before.

---

gaining (verb)

Reach a destination, either real or abstract.

- The home team was gaining ground.
- Can you use "gaining" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

hot springs national park (noun)

A national park in Arkansas featuring ancient hot springs; bathing is said to have therapeutic effects.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hot springs national park."
- He looked up "hot springs national park" because he had never seen it before.

---

kenya (noun)

A republic in eastern Africa; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1963; major archeological discoveries have been made in the Great Rift Valley in Kenya.

- Understanding "kenya" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kenya."

---

lean back (verb)

Move the upper body backwards and down.

- In everyday English, people use "lean back" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "lean back" in real sentences.

---

mandatory (noun)

A territory surrendered by Turkey or Germany after World War I and put under the tutelage of some other European power until they are able to stand by themselves.

- The article explained what "mandatory" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "mandatory" during the group presentation.

---

mason city (noun)

A town in north central Iowa.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mason city."
- He looked up "mason city" because he had never seen it before.

---

miracle (noun)

A marvellous event manifesting a supernatural act of a divine agent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "miracle."
- He looked up "miracle" because he had never seen it before.

---

new haven (noun)

A city in southwestern Connecticut; site of Yale University.

- He looked up "new haven" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "new haven" to mean a city in southwestern connecticut; site of yale....

---

operational damage (noun)

Loss of military equipment in field operations.

- The article explained what "operational damage" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "operational damage" to mean loss of military equipment in field operations.

---

pittsburgh (noun)

A city in southwestern Pennsylvania where the confluence of the Allegheny River and Monongahela River forms the Ohio River; long an important urban industrial area; site of Carnegie Mellon University and the University of Pittsburgh.

- Understanding "pittsburgh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pittsburgh" to mean a city in southwestern pennsylvania where the....

---

rifle range (noun)

The distance that a rifle bullet will carry.

- The target was out of rifle range.
- During the war they turned the bowling alleys into rifle ranges.

---

separation (noun)

The space where a division or parting occurs.

- He hid in the separation between walls.
- Fragile items require separation and cushioning.

---

united states army rangers (noun)

A specially trained elite unit of the United States Army.

- Understanding "united states army rangers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "united states army rangers" to mean a specially trained elite unit of the united states....

---

visa (noun)

An endorsement made in a passport that allows the bearer to enter the country issuing it.

- The article explained what "visa" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "visa" during the group presentation.

---

arabia (noun)

A peninsula between the Red Sea and the Persian Gulf; strategically important for its oil resources.

- Understanding "arabia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "arabia" means with a simple example.

---

beijing (noun)

Capital of the People's Republic of China in the Hebei province in northeastern China; 2nd largest Chinese city.

- Understanding "beijing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "beijing" means with a simple example.

big bend (noun)

A triangular area in southwestern Texas on the Mexican border; formed by a bend in the Rio Grande.

- The article explained what "big bend" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "big bend."

blew (verb)

Cause to move by means of an air current.

- The wind blew the leaves around in the yard.
- The wind blew from the West.

car horn (noun)

A device on an automobile for making a warning noise.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "car horn."
- Understanding "car horn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chasing (verb)

Go after with the intent to catch.

- Can you use "chasing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "chasing" and when to wait.

climbing (noun)

An event that involves rising to a higher point (as in altitude or temperature or intensity etc.).

- The article explained what "climbing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "climbing."

colony (noun)

A place where a group of people with the same interest or occupation are concentrated.

- A nudist colony.
- An artists' colony.

dining car (noun)

A passenger car where food is served in transit.

- The article explained what "dining car" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dining car" during the group presentation.

divide (noun)

A ridge of land that separates two adjacent river systems.

- They discussed "divide" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "divide."

great lakes state (noun)

A midwestern state in north central United States in the Great Lakes region.

- In class, the teacher used "great lakes state" to mean a midwestern state in north central united states....
- They discussed "great lakes state" during the group presentation.

jungle (noun)

A location marked by an intense competition and struggle for survival.

- The article explained what "jungle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "jungle" during the group presentation.

kingdom of the netherlands (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in western Europe on the North Sea; half the country lies below sea level.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kingdom of the netherlands."
- Understanding "kingdom of the netherlands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lip off (verb)

Speak spontaneously and without restraint.

- She always shoots her mouth off and says things she later regrets.
- Learners should practice how to use "lip off" in real sentences.

---

nerve centre (noun)

A center that provides information and control.

- The nerve center of the diamond industry is in Amsterdam.
- They discussed "nerve centre" during the group presentation.

---

parade ground (noun)

An area for holding parades.

- In class, the teacher used "parade ground" to mean an area for holding parades.
- They discussed "parade ground" during the group presentation.

---

patrol car (noun)

A car in which policemen cruise the streets; equipped with radiotelephonic communications to headquarters.

- He looked up "patrol car" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patrol car."

---

republic of the philippines (noun)

A republic on the Philippine Islands; achieved independence from the United States in 1946.

- The article explained what "republic of the philippines" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "republic of the philippines" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

richmond (noun)

Capital of the state of Virginia located in the east central part of the state; was capital of the Confederacy during the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "richmond" to mean capital of the state of virginia located in the....
- He looked up "richmond" because he had never seen it before.

---

shoot one's mouth off (verb)

Speak spontaneously and without restraint.

- She always shoots her mouth off and says things she later regrets.
- In everyday English, people use "shoot one's mouth off" when talking about this idea.

---

state boundary (noun)

The boundary between two states.

- They discussed "state boundary" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "state boundary" means with a simple example.

---

streams (verb)

To extend, wave or float outward, as if in the wind.

- He did not know how to use "streams" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "streams" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

toxic waste area (noun)

A site where toxic wastes have been dumped and the Environmental Protection Agency has designated them to be cleaned up.

- In class, the teacher used "toxic waste area" to mean a site where toxic wastes have been dumped and the....
- He looked up "toxic waste area" because he had never seen it before.

---

virgin islands (noun)

A group of islands in northeastern West Indies (east of Puerto Rico) discovered by Christopher Columbus in 1493; owned by United States and Britain.

- The article explained what "virgin islands" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "virgin islands."

---

west palm beach (noun)

A town in southeast Florida on the mainland opposite Palm Beach; founded as a commercial center for Palm Beach.

- In class, the teacher used "west palm beach" to mean a town in southeast florida on the mainland....

- Understanding “west palm beach” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

zones (noun)

A locally circumscribed place characterized by some distinctive features.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “zones.”
- They discussed “zones” during the group presentation.

arrives (verb)

Reach a destination; arrive by movement or progress.

- She tried to use “arrives” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “arrives” and when to wait.

boundary line (noun)

A line that indicates a boundary.

- He looked up “boundary line” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “boundary line” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cabin car (noun)

A car on a freight train for use of the train crew; usually the last car on the train.

- They discussed “cabin car” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “cabin car” because he had never seen it before.

connecticut (noun)

A New England state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “connecticut.”
- He looked up “connecticut” because he had never seen it before.

cow town (noun)

A small town in a cattle-raising area of western North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cow town.”
- The article explained what “cow town” means with a simple example.

ct (noun)

A New England state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- They discussed “ct” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “ct” means with a simple example.

dressing station (noun)

(military) a station located near a combat area for giving first aid to the wounded.

- The article explained what “dressing station” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “dressing station” during the group presentation.

eastern roman empire (noun)

A continuation of the Roman Empire in the Middle East after its division in 395.

- The article explained what “eastern roman empire” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “eastern roman empire” to mean a continuation of the roman empire in the middle....

fighter pilot (noun)

A military or naval pilot of fighter planes.

- The article explained what “fighter pilot” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “fighter pilot” to mean a military or naval pilot of fighter planes.

fort wayne (noun)

A city in northeastern Indiana.

- The article explained what “fort wayne” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “fort wayne” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

great divide (noun)

That part of the continental divide formed by the Rocky Mountains in the United States.

- He looked up "great divide" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "great divide" to mean that part of the continental divide formed by the....

---

great victoria desert (noun)

A desert region in south central Australia to the north of the Nullarbor Plain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great victoria desert."
- The article explained what "great victoria desert" means with a simple example.

---

mechanical engineer (noun)

A person trained to design and construct machines.

- He looked up "mechanical engineer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mechanical engineer" during the group presentation.

---

navy seal (noun)

A member of a Naval Special Warfare unit who is trained for unconventional warfare.

- SEAL is an acronym for Sea Air and Land.
- They discussed "navy seal" during the group presentation.

---

observation post (noun)

An elevated post affording a wide view.

- Understanding "observation post" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "observation post" during the group presentation.

---

old colony (noun)

A state in New England; one of the original 13 colonies.

- The article explained what "old colony" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "old colony" to mean a state in new england; one of the original 13 colonies.

---

outer planet (noun)

(astronomy) a major planet whose orbit is outside the asteroid belt (Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Pluto).

- They discussed "outer planet" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "outer planet" means with a simple example.

---

parish (noun)

The local subdivision of a diocese committed to one pastor.

- They discussed "parish" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "parish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pittsburgh of the south (noun)

The largest city in Alabama; located in northeastern Alabama.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pittsburgh of the south."
- He looked up "pittsburgh of the south" because he had never seen it before.

---

san antonio (noun)

A city of south central Texas; site of the Alamo; site of several military bases and a popular haven for vacationers.

- He looked up "san antonio" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "san antonio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

south bend (noun)

A city in northern Indiana.

- Understanding "south bend" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "south bend" because he had never seen it before.

---

traveling wave (noun)

A wave in which the medium moves in the direction of propagation of the wave.

- They discussed "traveling wave" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "traveling wave."

---

american virgin islands (noun)

More than 130 southeastern Virgin Islands; a dependent territory of the United States.

- The article explained what "american virgin islands" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american virgin islands" to mean more than 130 southeastern virgin islands; a....

---

canal zone (noun)

A zone consisting of a strip of land across the Isthmus of Panama that contains the Panama Canal.

- The article explained what "canal zone" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canal zone."

---

capital of maine (noun)

The capital of the state of Maine.

- The article explained what "capital of maine" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "capital of maine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chapters (noun)

A series of related events forming an episode.

- In class, the teacher used "chapters" to mean a series of related events forming an episode.
- They discussed "chapters" during the group presentation.

---

disc space (noun)

(computer science) the space available on a magnetic disk.

- The article explained what "disc space" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "disc space" during the group presentation.

---

eternal city (noun)

Capital and largest city of Italy; on the Tiber; seat of the Roman Catholic Church; formerly the capital of the Roman Republic and the Roman Empire.

- Understanding "eternal city" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "eternal city" to mean capital and largest city of italy; on the tiber;....

---

federal republic of nigeria (noun)

A republic in West Africa on the Gulf of Guinea; gained independence from Britain in 1960; most populous African country.

- They discussed "federal republic of nigeria" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "federal republic of nigeria" because he had never seen it before.

---

holland (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in western Europe on the North Sea; half the country lies below sea level.

- In class, the teacher used "holland" to mean a constitutional monarchy in western europe on the....
- They discussed "holland" during the group presentation.

---

iranian capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Iran; located in northern Iran.

- He looked up "iranian capital" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "iranian capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

manhattan island (noun)

An island at the north end of New York Bay where the borough of Manhattan is located.

- The article explained what "manhattan island" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "manhattan island" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nuclear explosion (noun)

The explosion of an atomic bomb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nuclear explosion."
- Understanding "nuclear explosion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pole jump (noun)

A competition that involves jumping over a high crossbar with the aid of a long pole.

- Understanding "pole jump" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pole jump" means with a simple example.

polls (noun)

The place where people vote.

- Understanding "polls" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "polls" because he had never seen it before.

portugal (noun)

A republic in southwestern Europe on the Iberian Peninsula; Portuguese explorers and colonists in the 15th and 16th centuries created a vast overseas empire (including Brazil).

- Understanding "portugal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "portugal" means with a simple example.

pour out (verb)

Express without restraint.

- The woman poured out her frustrations as the judge listened.
- The crowds spilled out into the streets.

power-dive (verb)

Make a power dive.

- The airplane power-dived.
- Learners should practice how to use "power-dive" in real sentences.

rewards (noun)

A recompense for worthy acts or retribution for wrongdoing.

- Reaping the rewards of generosity.
- He looked up "rewards" because he had never seen it before.

seven hills of rome (noun)

The hills on which the ancient city of Rome was built.

- They discussed "seven hills of rome" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seven hills of rome."

test instrument vehicle (noun)

A rocket fired for test purposes.

- The article explained what "test instrument vehicle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "test instrument vehicle" to mean a rocket fired for test purposes.

toxic waste site (noun)

A location where toxic wastes can be or have been disposed of (often illegally).

- He looked up "toxic waste site" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toxic waste site."

vancouver island (noun)

An island off southwestern Canada (off the southwestern coast of British Columbia); the largest island off the west coast of North America.

- Understanding "vancouver island" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "vancouver island" during the group presentation.

athletic field (noun)

A piece of land prepared for playing a game.

- The home crowd cheered when Princeton took the field.
- Understanding "athletic field" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of belgium (noun)

The capital and largest city of Belgium; seat of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of belgium" to mean the capital and largest city of belgium; seat of....
- He looked up "capital of belgium" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of norway (noun)

The capital and largest city of Norway; the country's main port; located at the head of a fjord on Norway's southern coast.

- The article explained what "capital of norway" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "capital of norway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carlos (noun)

Venezuelan master terrorist raised by a Marxist-Leninist father; trained and worked with many terrorist groups (born in 1949).

- Understanding "carlos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "carlos" because he had never seen it before.

---

casino-hotel (noun)

A building that houses both a hotel and a casino.

- He looked up "casino-hotel" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "casino-hotel" to mean a building that houses both a hotel and a casino.

---

city of bridges (noun)

A city in northwestern Belgium that is connected by canal to the North Sea; in the 13th century it was a leading member of the Hanseatic League; the old city (known as the City of Bridges) is a popular tourist attraction.

- Understanding "city of bridges" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "city of bridges" because he had never seen it before.

---

comic strip (noun)

A sequence of drawings telling a story in a newspaper or comic book.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "comic strip."
- The article explained what "comic strip" means with a simple example.

---

fl (noun)

A state in southeastern United States between the Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico; one of the Confederate states during the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "fl" to mean a state in southeastern united states between the....
- Understanding "fl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flies (noun)

(theater) the space over the stage (out of view of the audience) used to store scenery (drop curtains).

- The article explained what "flies" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "flies" to mean (theater) the space over the stage (out of view of....

---

hotel-casino (noun)

A building that houses both a hotel and a casino.

- He looked up "hotel-casino" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hotel-casino" to mean a building that houses both a hotel and a casino.

---

leak (noun)

The discharge of a fluid from some container.

- He had to clean up the leak.
- One of the tires developed a leak.

---

radio beam (noun)

A signal transmitted along a narrow path; guides airplane pilots in darkness or bad weather.

- He looked up "radio beam" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "radio beam" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

republic of indonesia (noun)

A republic in southeastern Asia on an archipelago including more than 13,000 islands; achieved independence from the Netherlands in 1945; the principal oil producer in the Far East and Pacific regions.

- The article explained what "republic of indonesia" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "republic of indonesia" during the group presentation.

---

shooting preserve (noun)

A preserve on which hunting is permitted during certain months of the year.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shooting preserve."
- He looked up "shooting preserve" because he had never seen it before.

---

smash-up (noun)

A serious collision (especially of motor vehicles).

- He looked up "smash-up" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "smash-up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tax haven (noun)

A country or independent region where taxes are low.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tax haven."
- He looked up "tax haven" because he had never seen it before.

---

the great hunger (noun)

A famine in Ireland resulting from a potato blight; between 1846 and 1851 a million people starved to death and 1.6 million emigrated (most to America).

- They discussed "the great hunger" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "the great hunger" means with a simple example.

---

traffic jam (noun)

A number of vehicles blocking one another until they can scarcely move.

- They discussed "traffic jam" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "traffic jam."

---

transit zone (noun)

A six million square mile area that includes the Caribbean and the Gulf of Mexico and the eastern Pacific Ocean; includes the principal routes used by drug smugglers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transit zone."
- They discussed "transit zone" during the group presentation.

---

turkish empire (noun)

A Turkish sultanate of southwestern Asia and northeastern Africa and southeastern Europe; created by the Ottoman Turks in the 13th century and lasted until the end of World War I; although initially small it expanded until it superseded the Byzantine Empire.

- In class, the teacher used "turkish empire" to mean a turkish sultanate of southwestern asia and....
- He looked up "turkish empire" because he had never seen it before.

---

wi (noun)

A midwestern state in north central United States.

- Understanding "wi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wi" because he had never seen it before.

---

beat a retreat (verb)

Depart hastily.

- Learners should practice how to use "beat a retreat" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "beat a retreat" and when to wait.

---

british virgin islands (noun)

More than 40 northeastern Virgin Islands (15 inhabited); a dependent territory of the United Kingdom.

- In class, the teacher used "british virgin islands" to mean more than 40 northeastern virgin islands (15....
- The article explained what "british virgin islands" means with a simple example.

---

broadway (noun)

A street in Manhattan that passes through Times Square; famous for its theaters.

- They discussed "broadway" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "broadway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cape province (noun)

A former province of southern South Africa that was settled by the Dutch in 1652 and ceded to Great Britain in 1814; in 1994 it was split into three new provinces of South Africa.

- The article explained what "cape province" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cape province" to mean a former province of southern south africa that was....

capital of cuba (noun)

The capital and largest city of Cuba; located in western Cuba; one of the oldest cities in the Americas.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of cuba" to mean the capital and largest city of cuba; located in....
- He looked up "capital of cuba" because he had never seen it before.

capital of kenya (noun)

The capital and largest city of Kenya; a center for tourist safaris.

- They discussed "capital of kenya" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "capital of kenya" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

car rental (noun)

A rented car.

- She picked up a hire car at the airport and drove to her hotel.
- He looked up "car rental" because he had never seen it before.

connecting flight (noun)

A flight with an intermediate stop and a change of aircraft (possibly a change of airlines).

- In class, the teacher used "connecting flight" to mean a flight with an intermediate stop and a change of....
- The article explained what "connecting flight" means with a simple example.

dubai (noun)

Port city in the United Arab Emirates on the Persian Gulf.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dubai."
- The article explained what "dubai" means with a simple example.

dublin (noun)

Capital and largest city and major port of the Irish Republic.

- Understanding "dublin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dublin" means with a simple example.

hub (noun)

A center of activity or interest or commerce or transportation; a focal point around which events revolve.

- The playground is the hub of parental supervision.
- The airport is the economic hub of the area.

inevitable (noun)

An unavoidable event.

- Don't argue with the inevitable.
- The article explained what "inevitable" means with a simple example.

kingdom of thailand (noun)

A country of southeastern Asia that extends southward along the Isthmus of Kra to the Malay Peninsula.

- Thailand is the official name of the former Siam.
- They discussed "kingdom of thailand" during the group presentation.

loading area (noun)

A stop where carriers can be loaded and unloaded.

- They discussed "loading area" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "loading area" means with a simple example.

loss of consciousness (noun)

The occurrence of a loss of the ability to perceive and respond.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loss of consciousness."
- They discussed "loss of consciousness" during the group presentation.

observation station (noun)

A station set up for making observations of something.

- In class, the teacher used "observation station" to mean a station set up for making observations of something.
- They discussed "observation station" during the group presentation.

off-broadway (noun)

Low-budget theaters located outside the Broadway area in Manhattan.

- They discussed "off-broadway" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "off-broadway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

power loading (noun)

The ratio of the weight of an airplane to its engine power.

- The article explained what "power loading" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "power loading" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

republic of poland (noun)

A republic in central Europe; the invasion of Poland by Germany in 1939 started World War II.

- They discussed "republic of poland" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of poland."

rotation (noun)

A single complete turn (axial or orbital).

- The plane made three rotations before it crashed.
- The rotation of the dancer kept time with the music.

silk road (noun)

An ancient trade route between China and the Mediterranean (4,000 miles); followed by Marco Polo in the 13th century to reach Cathay.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silk road."
- They discussed "silk road" during the group presentation.

throws (verb)

To put into a state or activity hastily, suddenly, or carelessly.

- Can you use "throws" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "throws" until he saw an example.

toll (noun)

The sound of a bell being struck.

- She heard the distant toll of church bells.
- They discussed "toll" during the group presentation.

united states virgin islands (noun)

More than 130 southeastern Virgin Islands; a dependent territory of the United States.

- Understanding "united states virgin islands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "united states virgin islands" to mean more than 130 southeastern virgin islands; a....

a horizon (noun)

The top layer of a soil profile; usually contains humus.

- In class, the teacher used "a horizon" to mean the top layer of a soil profile; usually contains humus.
- The article explained what "a horizon" means with a simple example.

a-horizon (noun)

The top layer of a soil profile; usually contains humus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "a-horizon."

- They discussed "a-horizon" during the group presentation.

---

austria (noun)

A mountainous republic in central Europe; under the Habsburgs (1278-1918) Austria maintained control of the Holy Roman Empire and was a leader in European politics until the 19th century.

- They discussed "austria" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "austria" because he had never seen it before.

---

belly-land (verb)

Land on the underside without the landing gear.

- Learners should practice how to use "belly-land" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "belly-land" when talking about this idea.

---

caribbean island (noun)

An island in the Caribbean Sea.

- Understanding "caribbean island" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caribbean island."

---

flame-out (noun)

A complete or conspicuous failure.

- The spectacular flame-out of the company's stock cost many people their life savings.
- In class, the teacher used "flame-out" to mean a complete or conspicuous failure.

---

grabbed (verb)

Make a grasping or snatching motion with the hand.

- The passenger grabbed for the oxygen mask.
- She grabbed the child's hand and ran out of the room.

---

gravity wave (noun)

(physics) a wave that is hypothesized to propagate gravity and to travel at the speed of light.

- They discussed "gravity wave" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "gravity wave" because he had never seen it before.

---

horn of africa (noun)

A peninsula of northeastern Africa (the easternmost part of Africa) comprising Somalia and Djibouti and Eritrea and parts of Ethiopia.

- He looked up "horn of africa" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horn of africa."

---

islamic republic of iran (noun)

A theocratic Islamic republic in the Middle East in western Asia; Iran was the core of the ancient empire that was known as Persia until 1935; rich in oil.

- They discussed "islamic republic of iran" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "islamic republic of iran" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

montreal (noun)

A city in southern Quebec province on the Saint Lawrence River; the largest city in Quebec and 2nd largest in Canada; the 2nd largest French-speaking city in the world.

- Understanding "montreal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "montreal."

---

naval academy (noun)

An academy for training naval officers.

- Understanding "naval academy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "naval academy."

---

newcastle (noun)

A port city in northeastern England on the River Tyne; a center for coal exports (giving rise to the expression 'carry coals to Newcastle' meaning to do something unnecessary).

- In class, the teacher used "newcastle" to mean a port city in northeastern england on the river....
- The article explained what "newcastle" means with a simple example.

---

painted desert (noun)

A desert on a high plateau in northeastern Arizona.

- He looked up "painted desert" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "painted desert."

---

ports (verb)

Turn or go to the port or left side, of a ship.

- The coach explained when to use "ports" and when to wait.
- Can you use "ports" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

south dakota (noun)

A state in north central United States.

- They discussed "south dakota" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "south dakota" to mean a state in north central united states.

---

tropical zone (noun)

The part of the Earth's surface between the Tropic of Cancer and the Tropic of Capricorn; characterized by a hot climate.

- In class, the teacher used "tropical zone" to mean the part of the earth's surface between the tropic....
- They discussed "tropical zone" during the group presentation.

---

us naval academy (noun)

A school for training men and women to become officers in the United States Navy.

- Understanding "us naval academy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "us naval academy" to mean a school for training men and women to become....

---

big bend national park (noun)

A large national park in Texas featuring mountains and desert and canyons and wildlife.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "big bend national park."
- He looked up "big bend national park" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of connecticut (noun)

The state capital of Connecticut; located in central Connecticut on the Connecticut river; a center of the insurance business.

- He looked up "capital of connecticut" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "capital of connecticut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cemetery (noun)

A tract of land used for burials.

- He looked up "cemetery" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cemetery" to mean a tract of land used for burials.

---

chile (noun)

A republic in southern South America on the western slopes of the Andes on the south Pacific coast.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chile."
- The article explained what "chile" means with a simple example.

---

corners (noun)

The point where two lines meet or intersect.

- The corners of a rectangle.
- The corners of a cube.

---

democratic people's republic of korea (noun)

A communist country in the northern half of the Korean Peninsula; established in 1948.

- They discussed "democratic people's republic of korea" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "democratic people's republic of korea" means with a simple example.

---

exploring (verb)

Travel to or penetrate into.

- Scientists are exploring the nature of consciousness.
- Learners should practice how to use "exploring" in real sentences.

---

flight of stairs (noun)

A stairway (set of steps) between one floor or landing and the next.

- They discussed "flight of stairs" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "flight of stairs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flight surgeon (noun)

A medical officer specializing in aviation medicine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flight surgeon."
- Understanding "flight surgeon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

guilt trip (noun)

Remorse caused by feeling responsible for some offense.

- Understanding "guilt trip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "guilt trip" means with a simple example.

---

hull (noun)

A large fishing port in northeastern England.

- They discussed "hull" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "hull" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

new guinea (noun)

A Pacific island to the north of Australia; the 2nd largest island in the world; the western part is governed by Indonesia and the eastern part is Papua New Guinea.

- They discussed "new guinea" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "new guinea" means with a simple example.

---

north dakota (noun)

A state of north central United States bordering on Canada.

- The article explained what "north dakota" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "north dakota" during the group presentation.

---

northeast (noun)

The northeastern region of the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "northeast" to mean the northeastern region of the united states.
- The article explained what "northeast" means with a simple example.

---

pulse (noun)

The rhythmic contraction and expansion of the arteries with each beat of the heart.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pulse."
- He looked up "pulse" because he had never seen it before.

---

queens (noun)

A borough of New York City.

- The article explained what "queens" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "queens."

---

san juan (noun)

The capital and largest city of Puerto Rico.

- He looked up "san juan" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "san juan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ticket holder (noun)

Holder of a ticket (for admission or for passage).

- In class, the teacher used "ticket holder" to mean holder of a ticket (for admission or for passage).
- The article explained what "ticket holder" means with a simple example.

tourists (noun)

Someone who travels for pleasure.

- The article explained what "tourists" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tourists" to mean someone who travels for pleasure.

virgin islands national park (noun)

A national park in the Virgin Islands having tropical plants and animals; sandy beaches and coral reefs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "virgin islands national park."
- He looked up "virgin islands national park" because he had never seen it before.

arkansas (noun)

A state in south central United States; one of the Confederate states during the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "arkansas" to mean a state in south central united states; one of the....
- He looked up "arkansas" because he had never seen it before.

b horizon (noun)

Immediately below the A-horizon; contains deposits of organic matter leached from surface soils.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "b horizon."
- The article explained what "b horizon" means with a simple example.

b-horizon (noun)

Immediately below the A-horizon; contains deposits of organic matter leached from surface soils.

- Understanding "b-horizon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "b-horizon" to mean immediately below the a-horizon; contains deposits....

beam-ends (noun)

(nautical) at the ends of the transverse deck beams of a vessel; means heeled over on the side so that the deck is almost vertical.

- On her beam-ends.
- In class, the teacher used "beam-ends" to mean (nautical) at the ends of the transverse deck beams....

breeding ground (noun)

A place where animals breed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breeding ground."
- They discussed "breeding ground" during the group presentation.

buzz off (verb)

Leave immediately; used usually in the imperative form.

- She tried to use "buzz off" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "buzz off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

c horizon (noun)

Beneath the B-horizon and above the bedrock; consisting of weathered rock.

- Understanding "c horizon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "c horizon" means with a simple example.

c-horizon (noun)

Beneath the B-horizon and above the bedrock; consisting of weathered rock.

- The article explained what "c-horizon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "c-horizon" to mean beneath the b-horizon and above the bedrock;....

capital of portugal (noun)

Capital and largest city and economic and cultural center of Portugal; a major port in western Portugal on Tagus River where it broadens and empties into the Atlantic.

- They discussed "capital of portugal" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of portugal."

fled (verb)

Run away quickly.

- He threw down his gun and fled.
- In everyday English, people use "fled" when talking about this idea.

---

islamic republic of pakistan (noun)

A Muslim republic that occupies the heartland of ancient south Asian civilization in the Indus River valley; formerly part of India; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1947.

- In class, the teacher used "islamic republic of pakistan" to mean a muslim republic that occupies the heartland of....
- Understanding "islamic republic of pakistan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marshall islands (noun)

A group of coral islands in eastern Micronesia.

- Understanding "marshall islands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "marshall islands" because he had never seen it before.

---

milan (noun)

The capital of Lombardy in northern Italy; has been an international center of trade and industry since the Middle Ages.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "milan."
- They discussed "milan" during the group presentation.

---

montana (noun)

A state in northwestern United States on the Canadian border.

- In class, the teacher used "montana" to mean a state in northwestern united states on the....
- Understanding "montana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nc (noun)

A state in southeastern United States; one of the original 13 colonies.

- They discussed "nc" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nc."

---

planets (noun)

A person who follows or serves another.

- The article explained what "planets" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "planets" to mean a person who follows or serves another.

---

rope down (verb)

Lower oneself with a rope coiled around the body from a mountainside.

- The ascent was easy–roping down the mountain would be much more difficult and dangerous.
- The coach explained when to use "rope down" and when to wait.

---

sport utility vehicle (noun)

A high-performance four-wheel drive car built on a truck chassis.

- Understanding "sport utility vehicle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sport utility vehicle."

---

static (noun)

A crackling or hissing noise caused by electrical interference.

- They will probably give you a lot of static about your editorial.
- In class, the teacher used "static" to mean a crackling or hissing noise caused by electrical....

---

tide (noun)

Something that may increase or decrease (like the tides of the sea).

- A rising tide of popular interest.
- Understanding "tide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bolt out (verb)

Leave suddenly and as if in a hurry.

- The listeners bolted when he discussed his strange ideas.

- When she started to tell silly stories, I ran out.

---

clips (noun)

An instance or single occasion for some event.

- They discussed "clips" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clips."

---

columbus (noun)

A town in eastern Mississippi near the border with Alabama.

- He looked up "columbus" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "columbus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

compact car (noun)

A small and economical car.

- They discussed "compact car" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "compact car" means with a simple example.

---

crashed (verb)

Move with, or as if with, a crashing noise.

- The car crashed through the glass door.
- The branch crashed down on my car.

---

daily variation (noun)

Fluctuations that occur between one day and the next.

- In class, the teacher used "daily variation" to mean fluctuations that occur between one day and the next.
- The article explained what "daily variation" means with a simple example.

---

denmark (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in northern Europe; consists of the mainland of Jutland and many islands between the North Sea and the Baltic Sea.

- In class, the teacher used "denmark" to mean a constitutional monarchy in northern europe;....
- They discussed "denmark" during the group presentation.

---

egyptian empire (noun)

An ancient empire to the west of Israel; centered on the Nile River and ruled by a Pharaoh; figured in many events described in the Old Testament.

- The article explained what "egyptian empire" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "egyptian empire" to mean an ancient empire to the west of israel; centered....

---

high tide (noun)

The tide when the water is highest.

- In class, the teacher used "high tide" to mean the tide when the water is highest.
- Understanding "high tide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

las vegas (noun)

Largest city in Nevada; located in southeastern Nevada; originally settled by Mormons but is now famous for entertainment and gambling and general excess.

- He looked up "las vegas" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "las vegas" during the group presentation.

---

nevada (noun)

A state in the southwestern United States.

- They discussed "nevada" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "nevada" to mean a state in the southwestern united states.

---

origins (noun)

The place where something begins, where it springs into being.

- He comes from good origins.
- Vegetable origins.

---

orlando (noun)

A city in central Florida; site of Walt Disney World.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orlando."
- Understanding "orlando" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

subway system (noun)

An electric railway operating below the surface of the ground (usually in a city).

- In Paris the subway system is called the 'metro' and in London it is called the 'tube' or the 'underground'.
- Understanding "subway system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sunset (noun)

The daily event of the sun sinking below the horizon.

- Understanding "sunset" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sunset" because he had never seen it before.

---

taiwan (noun)

An island in southeastern Asia 100 miles off the coast of mainland China in the South China Sea.

- Understanding "taiwan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "taiwan" because he had never seen it before.

---

thunder bay (noun)

A port city in Ontario on Lake Superior.

- In class, the teacher used "thunder bay" to mean a port city in ontario on lake superior.
- Understanding "thunder bay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

united states naval academy (noun)

A school for training men and women to become officers in the United States Navy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states naval academy."
- They discussed "united states naval academy" during the group presentation.

---

yorkshire (noun)

A former large county in northern England; in 1974 it was divided into three smaller counties.

- Understanding "yorkshire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "yorkshire" during the group presentation.

---

amsterdam (noun)

An industrial center and the nominal capital of the Netherlands; center of the diamond-cutting industry; seat of an important stock exchange; known for its canals and art museum.

- He looked up "amsterdam" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amsterdam."

---

bennett (noun)

United States aviator who (with Richard E. Byrd) piloted the first flight over the North Pole (1890-1928).

- Understanding "bennett" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bennett" during the group presentation.

---

boston harbor (noun)

The seaport at Boston.

- They discussed "boston harbor" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "boston harbor" because he had never seen it before.

---

bristol (noun)

An industrial city and port in southwestern England near the mouth of the River Avon.

- They discussed "bristol" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bristol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

colorado springs (noun)

A city in east central Colorado on the eastern edge of the Rocky Mountains; popular tourist center and site of the United States Air Force Academy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "colorado springs."
- The article explained what "colorado springs" means with a simple example.

---

del rio (noun)

A town in southwest Texas on the Rio Grande to the west of San Antonio.

- They discussed "del rio" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "del rio" because he had never seen it before.

---

distinguished flying cross (noun)

A United States Air Force decoration for heroism while participating in an aerial flight.

- They discussed "distinguished flying cross" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "distinguished flying cross" to mean a united states air force decoration for heroism....

---

eager (noun)

A high wave (often dangerous) caused by tidal flow (as by colliding tidal currents or in a narrow estuary).

- In class, the teacher used "eager" to mean a high wave (often dangerous) caused by tidal flow....
- The article explained what "eager" means with a simple example.

---

foul line (noun)

A line from which basketball players take penalty shots.

- In class, the teacher used "foul line" to mean a line from which basketball players take penalty shots.
- The article explained what "foul line" means with a simple example.

---

ladder (noun)

A row of unravelled stitches.

- He climbed the career ladder.
- Understanding "ladder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

low tide (noun)

The lowest (farthest) ebb of the tide.

- In class, the teacher used "low tide" to mean the lowest (farthest) ebb of the tide.
- He looked up "low tide" because he had never seen it before.

---

migration route (noun)

The geographic route along which birds customarily migrate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "migration route."
- Understanding "migration route" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mph (noun)

A speedometer reading for the momentary rate of travel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mph."
- He looked up "mph" because he had never seen it before.

---

mud flat (noun)

A tract of low muddy land near an estuary; covered at high tide and exposed at low tide.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mud flat."
- Understanding "mud flat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

new amsterdam (noun)

A settlement established by the Dutch near the mouth of Hudson River and the southern end of Manhattan Island; annexed by the English in 1664 and renamed New York.

- In class, the teacher used "new amsterdam" to mean a settlement established by the dutch near the....
- Understanding "new amsterdam" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

provincial capital (noun)

The capital city of a province.

- The article explained what "provincial capital" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "provincial capital" during the group presentation.

seventh avenue (noun)

An avenue in Manhattan that runs north and south.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seventh avenue."
- Understanding "seventh avenue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ski-plane (noun)

An airplane equipped with skis so it can land on a snowfield.

- In class, the teacher used "ski-plane" to mean an airplane equipped with skis so it can land on a....
- Understanding "ski-plane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

socks (noun)

A truncated cloth cone mounted on a mast; used (e.g., at airports) to show the direction of the wind.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "socks."
- The article explained what "socks" means with a simple example.

southeast asia (noun)

A geographical division of Asia that includes Indochina plus Indonesia and the Philippines and Singapore.

- He looked up "southeast asia" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "southeast asia."

travelling wave (noun)

A wave in which the medium moves in the direction of propagation of the wave.

- They discussed "travelling wave" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "travelling wave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

arch over (verb)

Form an arch over.

- Big rocks overarch the stream.
- She tried to use "arch over" carefully so everyone would understand.

bowling green (noun)

A field of closely mowed turf for playing bowls.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bowling green."
- He looked up "bowling green" because he had never seen it before.

cape ann (noun)

A Massachusetts peninsula to the north of Boston extending into the Atlantic Ocean.

- Understanding "cape ann" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cape ann" means with a simple example.

capital of austria (noun)

The capital and largest city of Austria; located on the Danube in northeastern Austria; was the home of Beethoven and Brahms and Haydn and Mozart and Schubert and Strauss.

- Understanding "capital of austria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "capital of austria" during the group presentation.

capital of north dakota (noun)

Capital of the state of North Dakota; located in south central North Dakota overlooking the Missouri river.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of north dakota" to mean capital of the state of north dakota; located in....
- The article explained what "capital of north dakota" means with a simple example.

capital of south dakota (noun)

Capital of the state of South Dakota; located in central South Dakota on the Missouri river.

- Understanding "capital of south dakota" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "capital of south dakota" because he had never seen it before.

diving (noun)

An athletic competition that involves diving into water.

- They discussed "diving" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "diving" because he had never seen it before.

---

drum roll (noun)

The sound of a drum (especially a snare drum) beaten rapidly and continuously.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drum roll."
- He looked up "drum roll" because he had never seen it before.

---

environments (noun)

The area in which something exists or lives.

- In class, the teacher used "environments" to mean the area in which something exists or lives.
- Understanding "environments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flowing (noun)

The motion characteristic of fluids (liquids or gases).

- Understanding "flowing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "flowing" means with a simple example.

---

french guinea (noun)

A republic in western Africa on the Atlantic; formerly a French colony; achieved independence from France in 1958.

- They discussed "french guinea" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "french guinea" means with a simple example.

---

goat (noun)

The tenth sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about December 22 to January 19.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goat."
- The article explained what "goat" means with a simple example.

---

kingdom of belgium (noun)

A monarchy in northwestern Europe; headquarters for the European Union and for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

- They discussed "kingdom of belgium" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "kingdom of belgium" to mean a monarchy in northwestern europe; headquarters for....

---

kingdom of norway (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in northern Europe on the western side of the Scandinavian Peninsula; achieved independence from Sweden in 1905.

- Understanding "kingdom of norway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "kingdom of norway" because he had never seen it before.

---

north yorkshire (noun)

A county in northern England.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north yorkshire."
- They discussed "north yorkshire" during the group presentation.

---

palestinian national authority (noun)

Combines the Gaza Strip and the West Bank under a political unit with limited autonomy and a police force; created in 1993 by an agreement between Israel and the PLO.

- They discussed "palestinian national authority" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "palestinian national authority" means with a simple example.

---

paths (noun)

A line or route along which something travels or moves.

- Our paths in life led us apart.
- He looked up "paths" because he had never seen it before.

---

premises (noun)

Land and the buildings on it.

- Bread is baked on the premises.

- The were evicted from the premises.

---

santa barbara (noun)

A town in southwestern California on the Pacific Ocean.

- He looked up "santa barbara" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "santa barbara" to mean a town in southwestern california on the pacific ocean.

---

sky dive (verb)

Jump from an airplane and perform various maneuvers before opening one's parachute.

- Can you use "sky dive" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "sky dive" until he saw an example.

---

south yorkshire (noun)

A metropolitan county in northern England.

- The article explained what "south yorkshire" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south yorkshire."

---

table lifting (noun)

Manipulation of a table during a seance; attributed to spirits.

- They discussed "table lifting" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "table lifting" because he had never seen it before.

---

technical sergeant (noun)

A noncommissioned officer ranking below a master sergeant in the air force or marines.

- He looked up "technical sergeant" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "technical sergeant."

---

territories (noun)

The geographical area under the jurisdiction of a sovereign state.

- In class, the teacher used "territories" to mean the geographical area under the jurisdiction of a....
- He looked up "territories" because he had never seen it before.

---

thread maker (noun)

Someone who spins (who twists fibers into threads).

- He looked up "thread maker" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "thread maker" to mean someone who spins (who twists fibers into threads).

---

tl (noun)

A soft grey malleable metallic element that resembles tin but discolors on exposure to air; it is highly toxic and is used in rodent and insect poisons; occurs in zinc blende and some iron ores.

- Understanding "tl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tl" because he had never seen it before.

---

towers (verb)

Appear very large or occupy a commanding position.

- The coach explained when to use "towers" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "towers" until he saw an example.

---

unit matrix (noun)

A scalar matrix in which all of the diagonal elements are unity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "unit matrix."
- Understanding "unit matrix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

utility routine (noun)

A routine that can be used as needed.

- He looked up "utility routine" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "utility routine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

utterly (adverb)

Completely and without qualification; used informally as intensifiers.

- Utterly miserable.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "utterly" naturally.

---

value orientation (noun)

The principles of right and wrong that are accepted by an individual or a social group.

- A person with old-fashioned values.
- They discussed "value orientation" during the group presentation.

---

van allen belt (noun)

A belt of charged particles (resulting from cosmic rays) above the Earth trapped by the Earth's magnetic field.

- He looked up "van allen belt" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "van allen belt" during the group presentation.

---

veteran soldier (noun)

A serviceman who has seen considerable active service.

- The veterans laughed at the new recruits.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "veteran soldier."

---

warn (verb)

Notify of danger, potential harm, or risk.

- The director warned him that he might be fired.
- The doctor warned me about the dangers of smoking.

---

west yorkshire (noun)

A metropolitan county in northern England.

- They discussed "west yorkshire" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "west yorkshire" means with a simple example.

---

yellow journalism (noun)

Sensationalist journalism.

- He looked up "yellow journalism" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "yellow journalism" to mean sensationalist journalism.

---

aa (noun)

An international organization that provides a support group for persons trying to overcome alcoholism.

- Understanding "aa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "aa" because he had never seen it before.

---

accounting principle (noun)

A principle that governs current accounting practice and that is used as a reference to determine the appropriate treatment of complex transactions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "accounting principle."
- He looked up "accounting principle" because he had never seen it before.

---

advisor (noun)

An expert who gives advice.

- The United States sent military advisors to Guatemala.
- He looked up "advisor" because he had never seen it before.

---

aluminum (noun)

A silvery ductile metallic element found primarily in bauxite.

- Understanding "aluminum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "aluminum" during the group presentation.

---

application-oriented language (noun)

A language whose statements resemble terminology of the user.

- The article explained what "application-oriented language" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "application-oriented language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

attorney-client relation (noun)

The responsibility of a lawyer to act in the best interests of the client.

- He looked up "attorney-client relation" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "attorney-client relation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

attorneys (noun)

A professional person authorized to practice law; conducts lawsuits or gives legal advice.

- They discussed "attorneys" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "attorneys" because he had never seen it before.

---

basic assumption (noun)

An assumption that is basic to an argument.

- The article explained what "basic assumption" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "basic assumption" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bell pepper (noun)

Large bell-shaped sweet pepper in green or red or yellow or orange or black varieties.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bell pepper."
- They discussed "bell pepper" during the group presentation.

---

belonged (verb)

Be rightly classified in a class or category.

- The uniform looks like it belonged to a museum collection.
- The coach explained when to use "belonged" and when to wait.

---

belt maker (noun)

A maker of belts.

- They discussed "belt maker" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "belt maker" to mean a maker of belts.

---

bench warrant (noun)

A warrant authorizing law enforcement officials to apprehend an offender and bring that person to court.

- The article explained what "bench warrant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bench warrant" to mean a warrant authorizing law enforcement officials to....

---

billy graham (noun)

United States evangelical preacher famous as a mass evangelist (born in 1918).

- Understanding "billy graham" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "billy graham."

---

bradley (noun)

United States politician who was elected the first black mayor of Los Angeles (1917-1998).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bradley."
- They discussed "bradley" during the group presentation.

---

british monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Great Britain.

- In class, the teacher used "british monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in great britain.
- They discussed "british monetary unit" during the group presentation.

---

broadcasting company (noun)

A company that manages tv or radio stations.

- He looked up "broadcasting company" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "broadcasting company" during the group presentation.

buck (verb)

To strive with determination.

- John is bucking for a promotion.
- Buck the trend.

buffalo wing (noun)

Crisp spicy chicken wings.

- He looked up "buffalo wing" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "buffalo wing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of chile (noun)

The capital and largest city of Chile; located in central Chile; one of the largest cities in South America.

- He looked up "capital of chile" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of chile."

capital of guinea (noun)

A port and the capital of Guinea.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of guinea" to mean a port and the capital of guinea.
- The article explained what "capital of guinea" means with a simple example.

caroline (adjective)

Of or relating to the life and times of kings Charles I or Charles II of England.

- A "caroline" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "caroline" because it captured the feeling precisely.

characterized (verb)

Describe or portray the character or the qualities or peculiarities of.

- This poem can be characterized as a lament for a dead lover.
- Can you use "characterized" in a sentence that fits this situation?

chicken sandwich (noun)

A sandwich made with a filling of sliced chicken.

- He looked up "chicken sandwich" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "chicken sandwich" during the group presentation.

circuit court of appeals (noun)

One of the twelve federal United States courts of appeals that cover a group of states known as a 'circuit'.

- They discussed "circuit court of appeals" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "circuit court of appeals" to mean one of the twelve federal united states courts of....

civilization (noun)

A particular society at a particular time and place.

- Early Mayan civilization.
- The people slowly progressed from barbarism to civilization.

club soda (noun)

Effervescent beverage artificially charged with carbon dioxide.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "club soda."
- The article explained what "club soda" means with a simple example.

confirmation hearing (noun)

A hearing held by the US Senate to gather information on whether to approve or reject candidates for high federal office who are nominated by the president.

- The article explained what "confirmation hearing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "confirmation hearing" during the group presentation.

counsel to the crown (noun)

A barrister selected to serve as counsel to the British ruler.

- Understanding "counsel to the crown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "counsel to the crown" means with a simple example.

---

creativity (noun)

The ability to create.

- In class, the teacher used "creativity" to mean the ability to create.
- He looked up "creativity" because he had never seen it before.

---

den (noun)

A hiding place; usually a remote place used by outlaws.

- They discussed "den" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "den" because he had never seen it before.

---

dental assistant (noun)

An assistant to a dentist.

- In class, the teacher used "dental assistant" to mean an assistant to a dentist.
- Understanding "dental assistant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

diesel oil (noun)

A heavy mineral oil used as fuel in diesel engines.

- Understanding "diesel oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diesel oil."

---

disk (noun)

Something with a round shape resembling a flat circular plate.

- The moon's disk hung in a cloudless sky.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disk."

---

divine right of kings (noun)

The doctrine that kings derive their right to rule directly from God and are not accountable to their subjects; rebellion is the worst of political crimes.

- The doctrine of the divine right of kings was enunciated by the Stuarts in Britain in the 16th century.
- Understanding "divine right of kings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

enters (verb)

Register formally as a participant or member.

- In everyday English, people use "enters" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "enters" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

factor xi (noun)

Coagulation factor whose deficiency results in a hemorrhagic tendency.

- Understanding "factor xi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "factor xi."

---

fixing agent (noun)

A chemical compound that sets or fixes something (as a dye or a photographic image).

- He looked up "fixing agent" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fixing agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flip chart (noun)

A chart with several sheets hinged at the top; sheets can be flipped over to present information sequentially.

- They discussed "flip chart" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flip chart."

---

formally (adverb)

With official authorization.

- The club will be formally recognized.

- He was dressed rather formally.

fruit salad (noun)

Salad composed of fruits.

- They discussed "fruit salad" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fruit salad" to mean salad composed of fruits.

goat god (noun)

(Greek mythology) god of fields and woods and shepherds and flocks; represented as a man with goat's legs and horns and ears; identified with Roman Sylvanus or Faunus.

- They discussed "goat god" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "goat god" to mean (greek mythology) god of fields and woods and....

goddess (noun)

A female deity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goddess."
- He looked up "goddess" because he had never seen it before.

graph paper (noun)

Paper that has lines to permit drawing graphs.

- In class, the teacher used "graph paper" to mean paper that has lines to permit drawing graphs.
- They discussed "graph paper" during the group presentation.

graphic designer (noun)

Someone who specializes in graphic design.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "graphic designer."
- He looked up "graphic designer" because he had never seen it before.

ham actor (noun)

An unskilled actor who overacts.

- The article explained what "ham actor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ham actor" to mean an unskilled actor who overacts.

hampshire (noun)

A county of southern England on the English Channel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hampshire."
- Understanding "hampshire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

harry bridges (noun)

United States labor leader who organized the longshoremen (1901-1990).

- He looked up "harry bridges" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harry bridges."

in the adjacent apartment (adverb)

At or in or to the adjacent residence.

- The criminal had been living next door all this time.
- He answered "in the adjacent apartment," which changed the tone of the conversation.

iron ore (noun)

An ore from which iron can be extracted.

- In class, the teacher used "iron ore" to mean an ore from which iron can be extracted.
- They discussed "iron ore" during the group presentation.

islamic state of afghanistan (noun)

A mountainous landlocked country in central Asia; bordered by Iran to the west and Russia to the north and Pakistan to the east and south.

- Soviet troops invaded Afghanistan in 1979.
- In class, the teacher used "islamic state of afghanistan" to mean a mountainous landlocked country in central asia;....

junk food (noun)

Food that tastes good but is high in calories having little nutritional value.

- Understanding "junk food" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "junk food."

lamp oil (noun)

A flammable hydrocarbon oil used as fuel in lamps and heaters.

- Understanding "lamp oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "lamp oil" during the group presentation.

leaf soil (noun)

Soil composed mainly of decaying leaves.

- The article explained what "leaf soil" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "leaf soil" to mean soil composed mainly of decaying leaves.

lebanon (noun)

An Asian republic at east end of Mediterranean.

- The article explained what "lebanon" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lebanon" during the group presentation.

leeds (noun)

A city on the River Aire in West Yorkshire in northern England; a center of the clothing industry.

- The article explained what "leeds" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "leeds" during the group presentation.

leonard (noun)

United States writer of thrillers (born in 1925).

- The article explained what "leonard" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "leonard" to mean united states writer of thrillers (born in 1925).

linear measure (noun)

A unit of measurement of length.

- They discussed "linear measure" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "linear measure" because he had never seen it before.

liquid oxygen (noun)

A bluish translucent magnetic liquid obtained by compressing gaseous oxygen and then cooling it below its boiling point; used as an oxidizer in rocket propellants.

- Understanding "liquid oxygen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liquid oxygen."

liquor (noun)

A liquid substance that is a solution (or emulsion or suspension) used or obtained in an industrial process.

- Waste liquors.
- Understanding "liquor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

little dictionary (noun)

A dictionary that is small enough to carry in your pocket.

- In class, the teacher used "little dictionary" to mean a dictionary that is small enough to carry in your....
- The article explained what "little dictionary" means with a simple example.

little slam (noun)

Winning all but one of the tricks in a hand of bridge.

- They discussed "little slam" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "little slam" means with a simple example.

loading zone (noun)

A stop where carriers can be loaded and unloaded.

- He looked up “loading zone” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “loading zone.”

---

loser (noun)

A person with a record of failing; someone who loses consistently.

- The article explained what “loser” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “loser” to mean a person with a record of failing; someone who....

---

lost tribes (noun)

The ten Tribes of Israel that were deported into captivity in Assyria around 720 BC (leaving only the tribes of Judah and Benjamin).

- The article explained what “lost tribes” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “lost tribes” to mean the ten tribes of israel that were deported into....

---

mathematical space (noun)

(mathematics) any set of points that satisfy a set of postulates of some kind.

- Assume that the topological space is finite dimensional.
- Understanding “mathematical space” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

measuring block (noun)

A unit of measurement.

- Understanding “measuring block” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “measuring block.”

---

mild steel (noun)

Steel with less than 0.15% carbon.

- They discussed “mild steel” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “mild steel” means with a simple example.

---

milwaukee (noun)

Largest city of Wisconsin; located in southeastern Wisconsin on the western shore of Lake Michigan; a flourishing agricultural center known for its breweries.

- He looked up “milwaukee” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “milwaukee” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mutual savings bank (noun)

A state-chartered savings bank owned by its depositors and managed by a board of trustees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mutual savings bank.”
- He looked up “mutual savings bank” because he had never seen it before.

---

nato (noun)

An international organization created in 1949 by the North Atlantic Treaty for purposes of collective security.

- Understanding “nato” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “nato” because he had never seen it before.

---

nephew (noun)

A son of your brother or sister.

- They discussed “nephew” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “nephew” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

new hampshire (noun)

A state in New England; one of the original 13 colonies.

- The article explained what “new hampshire” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “new hampshire” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nigerian capital (noun)

Capital of Nigeria in the center of the country.

- The article explained what “nigerian capital” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “nigerian capital” to mean capital of nigeria in the center of the country.

night rider (noun)

Member of a secret mounted band in United States South after the American Civil War; committed acts of intimidation and revenge.

- In class, the teacher used "night rider" to mean member of a secret mounted band in united states....
- The article explained what "night rider" means with a simple example.

notably (adverb)

Especially; in particular.

- Notably in the social sciences, the professors teach too much.
- The narrator describes the scene "notably" in the final chapter.

pacific northwest (noun)

A region of the northwestern United States usually including Washington and Oregon and sometimes southwestern British Columbia.

- They discussed "pacific northwest" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pacific northwest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

packages (noun)

A collection of things wrapped or boxed together.

- The article explained what "packages" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "packages" to mean a collection of things wrapped or boxed together.

packing material (noun)

Any material used especially to protect something.

- He looked up "packing material" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "packing material" to mean any material used especially to protect something.

pad (verb)

Walk heavily and firmly, as when weary, or through mud.

- Pad a bra.
- Pad the seat of the chair.

pakistani (adjective)

Of or relating to Pakistan or its people or language.

- Pakistani mountain passes.
- Pakistani soldiers.

parliamentary democracy (noun)

A democracy having a parliament.

- Understanding "parliamentary democracy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "parliamentary democracy" because he had never seen it before.

participated (verb)

Become a participant; be involved in.

- She tried to use "participated" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "participated" and when to wait.

pie chart (noun)

A circular chart divided into triangular areas proportional to the percentages of the whole.

- He looked up "pie chart" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pie chart."

placement center (noun)

An office that finds suitable employment for applicants.

- In class, the teacher used "placement center" to mean an office that finds suitable employment for applicants.
- The article explained what "placement center" means with a simple example.

priests (noun)

A person who performs religious duties and ceremonies in a non-Christian religion.

- He looked up "priests" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "priests."

---

privately (adverb)

Kept private or confined to those intimately concerned.

- It was discussed privately between the two men.
- Privately, she thought differently.

---

prizes (verb)

To move or force, especially in an effort to get something open; :.

- In everyday English, people use "prizes" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "prizes" in real sentences.

---

quantum theory (noun)

(physics) a physical theory that certain properties occur only in discrete amounts (quanta).

- Understanding "quantum theory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "quantum theory" means with a simple example.

---

ranch hand (noun)

A hired hand on a ranch.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ranch hand."
- The article explained what "ranch hand" means with a simple example.

---

re-experiencing (noun)

A recurrence of a prior experience.

- They discussed "re-experiencing" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "re-experiencing" because he had never seen it before.

---

reasoning (noun)

Thinking that is coherent and logical.

- In class, the teacher used "reasoning" to mean thinking that is coherent and logical.
- The article explained what "reasoning" means with a simple example.

---

reporters (noun)

A person who investigates and reports or edits news stories.

- Understanding "reporters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "reporters" means with a simple example.

---

rumors (noun)

Gossip (usually a mixture of truth and untruth) passed around by word of mouth.

- Understanding "rumors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rumors" to mean gossip (usually a mixture of truth and untruth)....

---

sail (verb)

Move with sweeping, effortless, gliding motions.

- Shreds of paper sailed through the air.
- We sailed the Atlantic.

---

school dictionary (noun)

A dictionary specially written for those learning a foreign language.

- In class, the teacher used "school dictionary" to mean a dictionary specially written for those learning a....
- They discussed "school dictionary" during the group presentation.

---

secretly (adverb)

Not openly; inwardly.

- They were secretly delighted at his embarrassment.

- Hoped secretly she would change her mind.

---

sen (noun)

A fractional monetary unit of Japan and Indonesia and Cambodia; equal to one hundredth of a yen or rupiah or riel.

- Understanding "sen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sen."

---

sheer (verb)

Turn sharply; change direction abruptly.

- She sheered her car around the obstacle.
- Can you use "sheer" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

shelf life (noun)

The length of time a packaged food or drug will last without deteriorating.

- In class, the teacher used "shelf life" to mean the length of time a packaged food or drug will....
- They discussed "shelf life" during the group presentation.

---

simpson (noun)

United States divorcee whose marriage to Edward VIII created a constitutional crisis leading to his abdication.

- The article explained what "simpson" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "simpson."

---

slip one's mind (verb)

Pass out of one's memory.

- Learners should practice how to use "slip one's mind" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "slip one's mind" when talking about this idea.

---

speaker identification (noun)

Identification of a person from the sound of their voice.

- They discussed "speaker identification" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "speaker identification" because he had never seen it before.

---

specially (adverb)

To a distinctly greater extent or degree than is common.

- An especially (or specially) cautious approach to the danger.
- A specially arranged dinner.

---

standard of measurement (noun)

Accepted or approved instance or example of a quantity or quality against which others are judged or measured or compared.

- In class, the teacher used "standard of measurement" to mean accepted or approved instance or example of a....
- The article explained what "standard of measurement" means with a simple example.

---

sticking point (noun)

A point at which an impasse arises in progress toward an agreement or a goal.

- In class, the teacher used "sticking point" to mean a point at which an impasse arises in progress....
- The article explained what "sticking point" means with a simple example.

---

straight shooter (noun)

A frank and honest person.

- In class, the teacher used "straight shooter" to mean a frank and honest person.
- The article explained what "straight shooter" means with a simple example.

---

strike-slip fault (noun)

A geological fault in which one of the adjacent surfaces appears to have moved horizontally.

- They discussed "strike-slip fault" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "strike-slip fault" means with a simple example.

---

struggled (verb)

To exert strenuous effort against opposition.

- He struggled to get free from the rope.
- She struggled for years to survive without welfare.

---

sympathy (noun)

An inclination to support or be loyal to or to agree with an opinion.

- The two of them were in close sympathy.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sympathy."

---

teenagers (noun)

A juvenile between the onset of puberty and maturity.

- He looked up "teenagers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teenagers."

---

thumb (verb)

Look through a book or other written material.

- He thumbed through the report.
- The coach explained when to use "thumb" and when to wait.

---

toilet tissue (noun)

A soft thin absorbent paper for use in toilets.

- Understanding "toilet tissue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "toilet tissue" means with a simple example.

---

triple sec (noun)

Type of curacao having higher alcoholic content.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "triple sec."
- He looked up "triple sec" because he had never seen it before.

---

tx (noun)

The second largest state; located in southwestern United States on the Gulf of Mexico.

- Understanding "tx" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tx."

---

upside (noun)

The highest or uppermost side of anything.

- Understanding "upside" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "upside" to mean the highest or uppermost side of anything.

---

urged (verb)

Force or impel in an indicated direction.

- I urged him to finish his studies.
- Can you use "urged" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

visitor (noun)

Someone who visits.

- He looked up "visitor" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "visitor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

visual perception (noun)

Perception by means of the eyes.

- The article explained what "visual perception" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "visual perception" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vitamin (noun)

Any of a group of organic substances essential in small quantities to normal metabolism.

- He looked up “vitamin” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “vitamin.”

---

vitamin a (noun)

Any of several fat-soluble vitamins essential for normal vision; prevents night blindness or inflammation or dryness of the eyes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “vitamin a.”
- They discussed “vitamin a” during the group presentation.

---

wave mechanics (noun)

The modern form of quantum theory; an extension of quantum mechanics based on Schrodinger’s equation; atomic events are explained as interactions between particle waves.

- Understanding “wave mechanics” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wave mechanics.”

---

winning streak (noun)

A streak of wins.

- He looked up “winning streak” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “winning streak” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wipe up (verb)

To wash or wipe with or as if with a mop.

- She tried to use “wipe up” carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use “wipe up” when talking about this idea.

---

wolves (noun)

A man who is aggressive in making amorous advances to women.

- In class, the teacher used “wolves” to mean a man who is aggressive in making amorous advances....
- He looked up “wolves” because he had never seen it before.

---

admiral (noun)

The supreme commander of a fleet; ranks above a vice admiral and below a fleet admiral.

- He looked up “admiral” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “admiral.”

---

aluminum business (noun)

Manufacturers of aluminum considered as a group.

- He looked up “aluminum business” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “aluminum business.”

---

arnold (noun)

English poet and literary critic (1822-1888).

- He looked up “arnold” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “arnold.”

---

arthur evans (noun)

British archaeologist who excavated the palace of Knossos in Crete to find what he called Minoan civilization (1851-1941).

- They discussed “arthur evans” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “arthur evans” means with a simple example.

---

ash cake (noun)

Corn bread wrapped in cabbage leaves and baked in hot ashes (southern).

- Understanding “ash cake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “ash cake” during the group presentation.

---

banana (noun)

Elongated crescent-shaped yellow fruit with soft sweet flesh.

- The article explained what “banana” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “banana” to mean elongated crescent-shaped yellow fruit with soft....

bar graph (noun)

A chart with bars whose lengths are proportional to quantities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bar graph."
- Understanding "bar graph" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bedroom suite (noun)

A suite of furniture for the bedroom.

- He looked up "bedroom suite" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bedroom suite."

blair (noun)

British statesman who became prime minister in 1997 (born in 1953).

- In class, the teacher used "blair" to mean british statesman who became prime minister in 1997....
- He looked up "blair" because he had never seen it before.

busy bee (noun)

An alert and energetic person.

- The article explained what "busy bee" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "busy bee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of arkansas (noun)

The state capital and largest city of Arkansas in the central part of Arkansas on the Arkansas River.

- The article explained what "capital of arkansas" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "capital of arkansas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of montana (noun)

Capital of the state of Montana; located in western Montana.

- The article explained what "capital of montana" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of montana" to mean capital of the state of montana; located in western....

capital of nevada (noun)

Capital of the state of Nevada; located in western Nevada.

- Understanding "capital of nevada" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "capital of nevada" because he had never seen it before.

capital of taiwan (noun)

The capital of Nationalist China; located in northern Taiwan.

- They discussed "capital of taiwan" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "capital of taiwan" means with a simple example.

car tire (noun)

A tire consisting of a rubber ring around the rim of an automobile wheel.

- He looked up "car tire" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "car tire."

car-ferry (noun)

A ferry that transports motor vehicles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "car-ferry."
- The article explained what "car-ferry" means with a simple example.

cattle cake (noun)

A concentrated feed for cattle; processed in the form of blocks or cakes.

- They discussed "cattle cake" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cattle cake" to mean a concentrated feed for cattle; processed in the....

celtic (noun)

A branch of the Indo-European languages that (judging from inscriptions and place names) was spread widely over Europe in the pre-Christian era.

- He looked up "celtic" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "celtic."

---

chin up (verb)

Raise oneself while hanging from one's hands until one's chin is level with the support bar.

- Can you use "chin up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "chin up" until he saw an example.

---

chinese monetary unit (noun)

The monetary unit in the People's Republic of China.

- Understanding "chinese monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chinese monetary unit."

---

civic (adjective)

Of or relating to or befitting citizens as individuals.

- Civic duties.
- Civic pride.

---

clerk (noun)

An employee who performs clerical work (e.g., keeps records or accounts).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clerk."
- They discussed "clerk" during the group presentation.

---

cognitive factor (noun)

Something immaterial (as a circumstance or influence) that contributes to producing a result.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cognitive factor."
- They discussed "cognitive factor" during the group presentation.

---

command line interface (noun)

A user interface in which you type commands instead of choosing them from a menu or selecting an icon.

- Understanding "command line interface" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "command line interface" means with a simple example.

---

complex quantity (noun)

(mathematics) a number of the form a+bi where a and b are real numbers and i is the square root of -1.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "complex quantity."
- The article explained what "complex quantity" means with a simple example.

---

comprehensive examination (noun)

An intensive examination testing a student's proficiency in some special field of knowledge.

- The article explained what "comprehensive examination" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "comprehensive examination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

considerably (adverb)

To a great extent or degree.

- Painting the room white made it seem considerably (or substantially) larger.
- The house has fallen considerably in value.

---

contacted (verb)

Be in direct physical contact with; make contact.

- He never contacted his children after he emigrated to Australia.
- Can you use "contacted" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

convenience food (noun)

Any packaged dish or food that can be prepared quickly and easily as by thawing or heating.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "convenience food."

- Understanding "convenience food" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

criticized (verb)

Find fault with; express criticism of; point out real or perceived flaws.

- The paper criticized the new movie.
- The coach explained when to use "criticized" and when to wait.

crude (noun)

A dark oil consisting mainly of hydrocarbons.

- The article explained what "crude" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "crude" to mean a dark oil consisting mainly of hydrocarbons.

cut of pork (noun)

Cut of meat from a hog or pig.

- The article explained what "cut of pork" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cut of pork" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

defended (verb)

Be the defense counsel for someone in a trial.

- He did not know how to use "defended" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "defended" when talking about this idea.

demons (noun)

An evil supernatural being.

- He looked up "demons" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "demons" during the group presentation.

dental surgery (noun)

The branch of dentistry involving surgical procedures.

- The article explained what "dental surgery" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dental surgery" to mean the branch of dentistry involving surgical procedures.

disclosure (noun)

The speech act of making something evident.

- They discussed "disclosure" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "disclosure" means with a simple example.

dive-bomb (verb)

Bomb from a diving airplane.

- In everyday English, people use "dive-bomb" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "dive-bomb" until he saw an example.

dot product (noun)

A real number (a scalar) that is the product of two vectors.

- In class, the teacher used "dot product" to mean a real number (a scalar) that is the product of two....
- They discussed "dot product" during the group presentation.

dragged (verb)

Persuade to come away from something attractive or interesting.

- He dragged me away from the television set.
- He dragged the big suitcase behind him.

drill steel (noun)

Carbon steel used for rock drills and dowels.

- He looked up "drill steel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drill steel."

drone on (verb)

Talk in a monotonous voice.

- In everyday English, people use "drone on" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "drone on" in real sentences.

---

encounters (noun)

A casual or unexpected convergence.

- Understanding "encounters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "encounters" because he had never seen it before.

---

ensuring (verb)

Be careful or certain to do something; make certain of something.

- He did not know how to use "ensuring" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "ensuring" when talking about this idea.

---

enterprises (noun)

An organization created for business ventures.

- He looked up "enterprises" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "enterprises" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

epic poem (noun)

A long narrative poem telling of a hero's deeds.

- In class, the teacher used "epic poem" to mean a long narrative poem telling of a hero's deeds.
- He looked up "epic poem" because he had never seen it before.

---

escort (noun)

An attendant who is employed to accompany someone.

- Understanding "escort" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "escort."

---

fatal accident (noun)

An accident that causes someone to die.

- They discussed "fatal accident" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fatal accident."

---

firmly (adverb)

In a secure manner; in a manner free from danger.

- We firmly believed it.
- The narrator describes the scene "firmly" in the final chapter.

---

geneva (noun)

A city in southwestern Switzerland at the western end of Lake Geneva; it is the headquarters of various international organizations.

- In class, the teacher used "geneva" to mean a city in southwestern switzerland at the western....
- Understanding "geneva" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

global warming (noun)

An increase in the average temperature of the earth's atmosphere (especially a sustained increase that causes climatic changes).

- He looked up "global warming" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "global warming" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

great-nephew (noun)

A son of your niece or nephew.

- They discussed "great-nephew" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "great-nephew" to mean a son of your niece or nephew.

---

hard liquor (noun)

An alcoholic beverage that is distilled rather than fermented.

- They discussed "hard liquor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hard liquor" means with a simple example.

---

hindu (adjective)

Of or relating to or supporting Hinduism.

- The Hindu faith.
- Would you call this situation "hindu"? Explain why.

---

holy roman emperor (noun)

Sovereign of the Holy Roman Empire.

- They discussed "holy roman emperor" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "holy roman emperor" because he had never seen it before.

---

hunting and gathering society (noun)

Group that supports itself by hunting and fishing and by gathering wild fruits and vegetables; usually nomadic.

- The article explained what "hunting and gathering society" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hunting and gathering society" to mean group that supports itself by hunting and fishing....

---

indie (noun)

A pop group not affiliated with a major record company.

- They discussed "indie" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "indie" because he had never seen it before.

---

industry analyst (noun)

An analyst of conditions affecting a particular industry.

- Understanding "industry analyst" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "industry analyst" because he had never seen it before.

---

inspire (verb)

Spur on or encourage especially by cheers and shouts.

- The article about the artist inspired the exhibition of his recent work.
- The lung cancer patient cannot inspire air very well.

---

institutional (adjective)

Relating to or constituting or involving an institution.

- Institutional policy.
- Institutional religion.

---

interim (noun)

The time between one event, process, or period and another.

- He looked up "interim" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "interim."

---

international monetary fund (noun)

A United Nations agency to promote trade by increasing the exchange stability of the major currencies.

- In class, the teacher used "international monetary fund" to mean a united nations agency to promote trade by....
- He looked up "international monetary fund" because he had never seen it before.

---

inventory item (noun)

An item listed in an inventory.

- They discussed "inventory item" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inventory item."

---

java (noun)

A beverage consisting of an infusion of ground coffee beans.

- He looked up "java" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "java."

jesse james (noun)

United States outlaw who fought as a Confederate soldier and later led a band of outlaws that robbed trains and banks in the West until he was murdered by a member of his own gang (1847-1882).

- In class, the teacher used "jesse james" to mean united states outlaw who fought as a confederate....
- They discussed "jesse james" during the group presentation.

judicial branch (noun)

The branch of the United States government responsible for the administration of justice.

- The article explained what "judicial branch" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "judicial branch" to mean the branch of the united states government....

king harold i (noun)

Illegitimate son of Canute who seized the throne of England in 1037 (died in 1040).

- He looked up "king harold i" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "king harold i."

king's english (noun)

English as spoken by educated persons in southern England.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "king's english."
- The article explained what "king's english" means with a simple example.

lawyer-client relation (noun)

The responsibility of a lawyer to act in the best interests of the client.

- In class, the teacher used "lawyer-client relation" to mean the responsibility of a lawyer to act in the best....
- They discussed "lawyer-client relation" during the group presentation.

line of reasoning (noun)

A course of reasoning aimed at demonstrating a truth or falsehood; the methodical process of logical reasoning.

- I can't follow your line of reasoning.
- They discussed "line of reasoning" during the group presentation.

lion-hunter (noun)

Someone who tries to attract social lions as guests.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lion-hunter."
- Understanding "lion-hunter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

little red riding hood (noun)

A girl in a fairy tale who meets a wolf while going to visit her grandmother.

- He looked up "little red riding hood" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little red riding hood."

lottery (noun)

Something that is regarded as a chance event.

- The election was just a lottery to them.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lottery."

lucy stone (noun)

United States feminist and suffragist (1818-1893).

- He looked up "lucy stone" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lucy stone."

mad anthony wayne (noun)

American general during the American Revolution (1745-1796).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mad anthony wayne."
- The article explained what "mad anthony wayne" means with a simple example.

major axis (noun)

The longest axis of an ellipse or ellipsoid; passes through the two foci.

- He looked up "major axis" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "major axis" during the group presentation.

---

malcolm little (noun)

Militant civil rights leader (1925-1965).

- They discussed "malcolm little" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "malcolm little" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mc (noun)

One million periods per second.

- He looked up "mc" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mc."

---

mercury program (noun)

A program of rocket-powered flights undertaken by US between 1961 and 1963 with the goal of putting a man in orbit around the earth.

- Under the Mercury program each flight had one astronaut.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mercury program."

---

newspaper publisher (noun)

A business firm that publishes newspapers.

- Murdoch owns many newspapers.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "newspaper publisher."

---

nhs (noun)

A state in New England; one of the original 13 colonies.

- They discussed "nhs" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nhs."

---

noting (verb)

Observe with care or pay close attention to.

- Can you use "noting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "noting" and when to wait.

---

optical glass (noun)

Clear homogeneous glass of known refractive index; used to make lenses.

- He looked up "optical glass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "optical glass."

---

parameters (noun)

A constant in the equation of a curve that can be varied to yield a family of similar curves.

- Understanding "parameters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parameters."

---

partial tone (noun)

A harmonic with a frequency that is a multiple of the fundamental frequency.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "partial tone."
- They discussed "partial tone" during the group presentation.

---

party whip (noun)

A legislator appointed by the party to enforce discipline.

- In class, the teacher used "party whip" to mean a legislator appointed by the party to enforce....
- He looked up "party whip" because he had never seen it before.

---

pause (verb)

Interrupt temporarily an activity before continuing.

- The speaker paused.
- We pause for station identification.

personality inventory (noun)

A questionnaire that is supposed to yield a description of a person's personality traits.

- A personality inventory is a direct test of personality, as contrasted with a projective test.
- He looked up "personality inventory" because he had never seen it before.

plant fiber (noun)

Fiber derived from plants.

- The article explained what "plant fiber" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "plant fiber" during the group presentation.

platinum black (noun)

A fine black powder of platinum; used as a catalyst in chemical reactions.

- They discussed "platinum black" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "platinum black" means with a simple example.

prime quantity (noun)

A number that has no factor but itself and 1.

- He looked up "prime quantity" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prime quantity."

protesters (noun)

A person who dissents from some established policy.

- They discussed "protesters" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "protesters" means with a simple example.

proving (verb)

Put to the test, as for its quality, or give experimental use to.

- He did not know how to use "proving" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "proving" in real sentences.

puppy (noun)

An inexperienced young person.

- He looked up "puppy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "puppy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

republic of cuba (noun)

A communist state in the Caribbean on the island of Cuba.

- In class, the teacher used "republic of cuba" to mean a communist state in the caribbean on the island of....
- He looked up "republic of cuba" because he had never seen it before.

republic of kenya (noun)

A republic in eastern Africa; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1963; major archeological discoveries have been made in the Great Rift Valley in Kenya.

- They discussed "republic of kenya" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "republic of kenya" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

reserve officers training corps (noun)

A training program to prepare college students to be commissioned officers.

- In class, the teacher used "reserve officers training corps" to mean a training program to prepare college students to....
- Understanding "reserve officers training corps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

revenue stamp (noun)

A small piece of adhesive paper that is put on an object to show that a government tax has been paid.

- They discussed "revenue stamp" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "revenue stamp" to mean a small piece of adhesive paper that is put on an....

rob roy (noun)

A manhattan cocktail made with Scotch whiskey.

- They discussed "rob roy" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rob roy" because he had never seen it before.

---

running headline (noun)

A heading printed at the top of every page (or every other page) of a book.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "running headline."
- The article explained what "running headline" means with a simple example.

---

russian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Russia.

- He looked up "russian monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "russian monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sail through (verb)

Succeed at easily.

- She sailed through her exams.
- She tried to use "sail through" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

saint christopher (noun)

The largest of the islands comprising Saint Christopher-Nevis.

- In class, the teacher used "saint christopher" to mean the largest of the islands comprising saint....
- Understanding "saint christopher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

screwed (verb)

Cause to penetrate, as with a circular motion.

- He did not know how to use "screwed" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "screwed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

self-starter (noun)

An energetic person with unusual initiative.

- Understanding "self-starter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "self-starter" because he had never seen it before.

---

shades of (noun)

Something that reminds you of someone or something.

- Aren't there shades of 1948 here?
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shades of."

---

shakespeare (noun)

English poet and dramatist considered one of the greatest English writers (1564-1616).

- In class, the teacher used "shakespeare" to mean english poet and dramatist considered one of the....
- The article explained what "shakespeare" means with a simple example.

---

silicon (noun)

A tetravalent nonmetallic element; next to oxygen it is the most abundant element in the earth's crust; occurs in clay and feldspar and granite and quartz and sand; used as a semiconductor in transistors.

- The article explained what "silicon" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "silicon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sir james clark ross (noun)

British explorer of the Arctic and Antarctic; located the north magnetic pole in 1831; discovered the Ross Sea in Antarctica; nephew of Sir John Ross (1800-1862).

- In class, the teacher used "sir james clark ross" to mean british explorer of the arctic and antarctic;....
- They discussed "sir james clark ross" during the group presentation.

---

skull session (noun)

A session (as of executives or advisors) to discuss policy or strategy or to solve problems or exchange ideas.

- The article explained what "skull session" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used “skull session” to mean a session (as of executives or advisors) to discuss....

---

slice (noun)

A serving that has been cut from a larger portion.

- A slice of bread.
- A slice of the company's revenue.

---

slice into (verb)

Move through a body or an object with a slicing motion.

- His hand sliced through the air.
- Learners should practice how to use “slice into” in real sentences.

---

slice up (verb)

Cut into slices.

- Slice the salami, please.
- In everyday English, people use “slice up” when talking about this idea.

---

small slam (noun)

Winning all but one of the tricks in a hand of bridge.

- Understanding “small slam” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “small slam” means with a simple example.

---

snake in the grass (noun)

A deceitful or treacherous person.

- Understanding “snake in the grass” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “snake in the grass.”

---

spelling (noun)

Forming words with letters according to the principles underlying accepted usage.

- He looked up “spelling” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “spelling” to mean forming words with letters according to the....

---

spurs (noun)

A verbalization that encourages you to attempt something.

- Cowboys know not to squat with their spurs on.
- The article explained what “spurs” means with a simple example.

---

square matrix (noun)

A matrix with the same number of rows and columns.

- In class, the teacher used “square matrix” to mean a matrix with the same number of rows and columns.
- Understanding “square matrix” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

subway station (noun)

A terminal where subways load and unload passengers.

- They discussed “subway station” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “subway station.”

---

subway train (noun)

A train that runs in a subway system.

- They discussed “subway train” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “subway train” because he had never seen it before.

---

taxi rank (noun)

A place where taxis park while awaiting customers.

- In England the place where taxis wait to be hired is called a ‘taxi rank’.
- He looked up “taxi rank” because he had never seen it before.

---

thousand island dressing (noun)

Mayonnaise with chili sauce or catsup and minced olives and peppers and hard-cooked egg.

- Understanding "thousand island dressing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "thousand island dressing" during the group presentation.

---

timber line (noun)

Line marking the upper limit of tree growth in mountains or northern latitudes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "timber line."
- They discussed "timber line" during the group presentation.

---

toll agent (noun)

Someone employed to collect tolls.

- In class, the teacher used "toll agent" to mean someone employed to collect tolls.
- He looked up "toll agent" because he had never seen it before.

---

trades union (noun)

An organization of employees formed to bargain with the employer.

- You have to join the union in order to get a job.
- He looked up "trades union" because he had never seen it before.

---

trading stamp (noun)

A token resembling a stamp given by a retailer to a buyer; the token is redeemable for articles on a special list.

- In class, the teacher used "trading stamp" to mean a token resembling a stamp given by a retailer to a....
- The article explained what "trading stamp" means with a simple example.

---

transmission mechanism (noun)

Any mechanism whereby an infectious agent is spread from a reservoir to a human being.

- They discussed "transmission mechanism" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "transmission mechanism" to mean any mechanism whereby an infectious agent is spread....

---

tribal chief (noun)

The head of a tribe or clan.

- They discussed "tribal chief" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tribal chief" because he had never seen it before.

---

tribal society (noun)

A society with the social organization of a tribe.

- He looked up "tribal society" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tribal society."

---

unit of measurement (noun)

Any division of quantity accepted as a standard of measurement or exchange.

- The dollar is the United States unit of currency.
- A unit of wheat is a bushel.

---

united states border patrol (noun)

The mobile law enforcement arm of the Immigration and Naturalization Service that detects and prevents illegal entry of aliens into the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states border patrol."
- Understanding "united states border patrol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

upside down (adverb)

In an inverted manner.

- The box was lying on the floor upside down.
- He answered "upside down," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

vertical circle (noun)

A great circle on the celestial sphere passing through the zenith and perpendicular to the horizon.

- He looked up "vertical circle" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "vertical circle" during the group presentation.

---

vinyl (noun)

A univalent chemical radical derived from ethylene.

- He looked up "vinyl" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "vinyl" to mean a univalent chemical radical derived from ethylene.

---

virginia ham (noun)

A lean hickory-smoked ham; has dark red meat.

- They discussed "virginia ham" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "virginia ham."

---

westminster (noun)

A borough of Greater London on the Thames; contains Buckingham Palace and the Houses of Parliament and Westminster Abbey.

- The article explained what "westminster" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "westminster" to mean a borough of greater london on the thames; contains....

---

whip through (verb)

Go through very fast.

- We whipped through the last papers that we had to read before the weekend.
- He did not know how to use "whip through" until he saw an example.

---

william chambers (noun)

English architect (1723-1796).

- In class, the teacher used "william chambers" to mean english architect (1723-1796).
- Understanding "william chambers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

william richard morris (noun)

British industrialist who manufactured automobiles and created a philanthropic foundation (1877-1963).

- Understanding "william richard morris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "william richard morris."

---

wipe away (verb)

Remove by wiping.

- In everyday English, people use "wipe away" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "wipe away" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

wipe off (verb)

Remove by or as if by rubbing or erasing.

- The coach explained when to use "wipe off" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "wipe off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

accurately (adverb)

With few mistakes.

- He works very accurately.
- Repeated the order accurately.

---

adelaide (noun)

The state capital of South Australia.

- They discussed "adelaide" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adelaide."

---

affiliate (noun)

A subsidiary or subordinate organization that is affiliated with another organization.

- Network affiliates.
- The article explained what "affiliate" means with a simple example.

alfred (noun)

King of Wessex; defeated the Vikings and encouraged writing in English (849-899).

- He looked up "alfred" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "alfred" to mean king of wessex; defeated the vikings and encouraged....

arab republic of egypt (noun)

A republic in northeastern Africa known as the United Arab Republic until 1971; site of an ancient civilization that flourished from 2600 to 30 BC.

- He looked up "arab republic of egypt" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "arab republic of egypt" to mean a republic in northeastern africa known as the....

arabic language (noun)

The Semitic language of the Arabs; spoken in a variety of dialects.

- Understanding "arabic language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "arabic language" means with a simple example.

assumption of mary (noun)

Celebration in the Roman Catholic Church of the Virgin Mary's being taken up into heaven when her earthly life ended; corresponds to the Dormition in the Eastern Orthodox Church.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assumption of mary."
- He looked up "assumption of mary" because he had never seen it before.

b vitamin (noun)

Originally thought to be a single vitamin but now separated into several B vitamins.

- Understanding "b vitamin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "b vitamin" to mean originally thought to be a single vitamin but now....

bacon and eggs (noun)

Eggs (fried or scrambled) served with bacon.

- In class, the teacher used "bacon and eggs" to mean eggs (fried or scrambled) served with bacon.
- They discussed "bacon and eggs" during the group presentation.

benjamin rush (noun)

Physician and American Revolutionary leader; signer of the Declaration of Independence (1745-1813).

- He looked up "benjamin rush" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "benjamin rush."

bent (noun)

A relatively permanent inclination to react in a particular way.

- He had a bent for it.
- They discussed "bent" during the group presentation.

black and tan (noun)

An English recruit (who wore a uniform that was black and tan) serving in the Irish constabulary to suppress the Sinn Fein rebellion of 1919 to 1921.

- The article explained what "black and tan" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "black and tan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blue cheese dressing (noun)

Creamy dressing containing crumbled blue cheese.

- He looked up "blue cheese dressing" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "blue cheese dressing" to mean creamy dressing containing crumbled blue cheese.

brussels (noun)

The capital and largest city of Belgium; seat of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brussels."
- He looked up "brussels" because he had never seen it before.

cape kennedy (noun)

A sandy promontory (formerly Cape Kennedy) extending into the Atlantic Ocean from a barrier island off the eastern coast of Florida; the site of a NASA center for spaceflight.

- The article explained what "cape kennedy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cape kennedy" to mean a sandy promontory (formerly cape kennedy)....

---

carl anderson (noun)

United States physicist who discovered antimatter in the form of an antielectron that is called the positron (1905-1991).

- In class, the teacher used "carl anderson" to mean united states physicist who discovered antimatter....
- They discussed "carl anderson" during the group presentation.

---

chief petty officer (noun)

A person with the senior noncommissioned naval rank.

- The article explained what "chief petty officer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chief petty officer" during the group presentation.

---

city of westminster (noun)

A borough of Greater London on the Thames; contains Buckingham Palace and the Houses of Parliament and Westminster Abbey.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "city of westminster."
- They discussed "city of westminster" during the group presentation.

---

clause (noun)

A separate section of a legal document (as a statute or contract or will).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clause."
- The article explained what "clause" means with a simple example.

---

cluster (noun)

A grouping of a number of similar things.

- A cluster of admirers.
- Understanding "cluster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coastal plain (noun)

A plain adjacent to a coast.

- They discussed "coastal plain" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "coastal plain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

command sergeant major (noun)

A noncommissioned officer serving as chief administrative officer of a headquarters unit of the Army.

- The article explained what "command sergeant major" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "command sergeant major" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

complained (verb)

Make a formal accusation; bring a formal charge.

- The plaintiff's lawyer complained that he defendant had physically abused his client.
- She tried to use "complained" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

consulting firm (noun)

A firm of experts providing professional advice to an organization for a fee.

- Understanding "consulting firm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "consulting firm."

---

continuous creation theory (noun)

(cosmology) the theory that the universe maintains a constant average density with matter created to fill the void left by galaxies that are receding from each other.

- The steady state theory has been abandoned in favor of the big bang theory.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "continuous creation theory."

---

corn belt (noun)

The midwestern states where corn is grown; Iowa and Illinois are excellent for raising corn and corn-fed livestock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corn belt."

- They discussed "corn belt" during the group presentation.

---

cr (noun)

A hard brittle multivalent metallic element; resistant to corrosion and tarnishing.

- The article explained what "cr" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cr" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

credit analyst (noun)

An analyst who studies the financial statements and financial history of applicants for credit in order to evaluate their creditworthiness.

- The article explained what "credit analyst" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "credit analyst" to mean an analyst who studies the financial statements and....

---

crown colony (noun)

A British colony controlled by the British Crown, represented by a governor.

- The article explained what "crown colony" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "crown colony" during the group presentation.

---

crushed rock (noun)

Rock fragments and pebbles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crushed rock."
- He looked up "crushed rock" because he had never seen it before.

---

cut of lamb (noun)

Cut of meat from a lamb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cut of lamb."
- Understanding "cut of lamb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dash down (verb)

Write down hastily.

- She dashed off a letter to her lawyer.
- Learners should practice how to use "dash down" in real sentences.

---

deaf (noun)

People who have severe hearing impairments.

- Many of the deaf use sign language.
- He looked up "deaf" because he had never seen it before.

---

denial (noun)

The act of refusing to comply (as with a request).

- It resulted in a complete denial of his privileges.
- The article explained what "denial" means with a simple example.

---

difference threshold (noun)

The smallest change in stimulation that a person can detect.

- In class, the teacher used "difference threshold" to mean the smallest change in stimulation that a person....
- Understanding "difference threshold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

direct tide (noun)

The occurrence of high tide on one side of the earth coinciding with high tide on the opposite side.

- The article explained what "direct tide" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "direct tide" to mean the occurrence of high tide on one side of the....

---

diving event (noun)

An athletic competition that involves diving into water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diving event."
- They discussed "diving event" during the group presentation.

---

drag one's feet (verb)

Postpone doing what one should be doing.

- Learners should practice how to use "drag one's feet" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "drag one's feet" when talking about this idea.

---

experimental psychology (noun)

The branch of psychology that uses experimental methods to study psychological issues.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "experimental psychology."
- Understanding "experimental psychology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

expressing (verb)

Indicate through a symbol, formula, etc.

- The coach explained when to use "expressing" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "expressing" until he saw an example.

---

extends (verb)

Span an interval of distance, space or time.

- My land extends over the hills on the horizon.
- My memory extends back to my fourth year of life.

---

failures (noun)

An event that does not accomplish its intended purpose.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "failures."
- They discussed "failures" during the group presentation.

---

federal deposit insurance corporation (noun)

A federally sponsored corporation that insures accounts in national banks and other qualified institutions.

- The article explained what "federal deposit insurance corporation" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal deposit insurance corporation."

---

financial analyst (noun)

An analyst who studies the financial performance of corporations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "financial analyst."
- They discussed "financial analyst" during the group presentation.

---

full admiral (noun)

The supreme commander of a fleet; ranks above a vice admiral and below a fleet admiral.

- The article explained what "full admiral" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "full admiral."

---

german monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Germany.

- The article explained what "german monetary unit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "german monetary unit" during the group presentation.

---

gospel of luke (noun)

One of the four Gospels in the New Testament; contains details of Jesus's birth and early life.

- He looked up "gospel of luke" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gospel of luke."

---

guides (verb)

Be a guiding or motivating force or drive.

- He did not know how to use "guides" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "guides" and when to wait.

---

harold ii (noun)

King of England who succeeded Edward the Confessor in 1066 and was the last of the Anglo-Saxon monarchs; he was killed fighting the invasion by William the Conqueror (1045-1066).

- In class, the teacher used "harold ii" to mean king of england who succeeded edward the confessor....
- The article explained what "harold ii" means with a simple example.

---

hop-skip (verb)

Jump lightly.

- Can you use "hop-skip" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "hop-skip" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

id est (adverb)

That is to say; in other words.

- The narrator describes the scene "id est" in the final chapter.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "id est" naturally.

---

indian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in India.

- Understanding "indian monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "indian monetary unit" means with a simple example.

---

inevitable accident (noun)

A natural and unavoidable catastrophe that interrupts the expected course of events.

- He looked up "inevitable accident" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inevitable accident."

---

infant (noun)

A very young child (birth to 1 year) who has not yet begun to walk or talk.

- He looked up "infant" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "infant."

---

insult (noun)

A rude expression intended to offend or hurt.

- They yelled insults at the visiting team.
- Turning his back on me was a deliberate insult.

---

jefferson city (noun)

Capital of the state of Missouri; located in central Missouri on the Missouri river.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jefferson city."
- He looked up "jefferson city" because he had never seen it before.

---

jerk off (verb)

Get sexual gratification through self-stimulation.

- Can you use "jerk off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "jerk off" and when to wait.

---

jerk-off (noun)

Terms of abuse for a masturbator.

- Understanding "jerk-off" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jerk-off" means with a simple example.

---

jordan curve (noun)

A closed curve that does not intersect itself.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jordan curve."
- They discussed "jordan curve" during the group presentation.

---

julian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Julius Caesar.

- The Julian calendar.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "julian."

jumping gene (noun)

A segment of DNA that can become integrated at many different sites along a chromosome (especially a segment of bacterial DNA that can be translocated as a whole).

- The article explained what "jumping gene" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jumping gene" to mean a segment of dna that can become integrated at many....

linux (noun)

An open-source version of the UNIX operating system.

- Understanding "linux" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "linux" to mean an open-source version of the unix operating system.

losing streak (noun)

A streak of losses.

- Understanding "losing streak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "losing streak" because he had never seen it before.

magical spell (noun)

A verbal formula believed to have magical force.

- He whispered a spell as he moved his hands.
- He looked up "magical spell" because he had never seen it before.

maria mitchell (noun)

United States astronomer who studied sunspots and nebulae (1818-1889).

- In class, the teacher used "maria mitchell" to mean united states astronomer who studied sunspots and....
- The article explained what "maria mitchell" means with a simple example.

mates (noun)

A pair of people who live together.

- It was his first start against his former teammates.
- He loved the mare and all her mates.

mathematical product (noun)

A quantity obtained by multiplication.

- The product of 2 and 3 is 6.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mathematical product."

mathematical statement (noun)

A statement of a mathematical relation.

- The article explained what "mathematical statement" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mathematical statement" to mean a statement of a mathematical relation.

mediterranean (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of or located near the Mediterranean Sea.

- Mediterranean countries.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "mediterranean."

mineral oil (noun)

A distillate of petroleum (especially one used medicinally as a laxative or stool softener).

- Understanding "mineral oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mineral oil" to mean a distillate of petroleum (especially one used....

mortgage holder (noun)

The person who accepts a mortgage.

- The bank became our mortgagee when it accepted our mortgage on our new home.
- In class, the teacher used "mortgage holder" to mean the person who accepts a mortgage.

nicholas ii (noun)

The last czar of Russia who was forced to abdicate in 1917 by the Russian Revolution; he and his family were executed by the Bolsheviks (1868-1918).

- They discussed "nicholas ii" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "nicholas ii" because he had never seen it before.

---

nicholas v (noun)

Italian pope from 1447 to 1455 who founded the Vatican library (1397-1455).

- The article explained what "nicholas v" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nicholas v" to mean italian pope from 1447 to 1455 who founded the....

---

nude person (noun)

A naked person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nude person."
- He looked up "nude person" because he had never seen it before.

---

nut bar (noun)

Paste of nuts and sugar on a pastry base cut into bars.

- In class, the teacher used "nut bar" to mean paste of nuts and sugar on a pastry base cut into bars.
- The article explained what "nut bar" means with a simple example.

---

offset (noun)

The time at which something is supposed to begin.

- They discussed "offset" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "offset" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

one-dimensional language (noun)

A programming language whose expressions are represented by strings of characters.

- In class, the teacher used "one-dimensional language" to mean a programming language whose expressions are....
- The article explained what "one-dimensional language" means with a simple example.

---

outbreak (noun)

A sudden violent spontaneous occurrence (usually of some undesirable condition).

- The outbreak of hostilities.
- The article explained what "outbreak" means with a simple example.

---

pal (noun)

A close friend who accompanies his buddies in their activities.

- They discussed "pal" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pal up (verb)

Become friends; act friendly towards.

- She tried to use "pal up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "pal up" when talking about this idea.

---

palestine (noun)

A former British mandate on the east coast of the Mediterranean; divided between Jordan and Israel in 1948.

- They discussed "palestine" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "palestine" means with a simple example.

---

passive voice (noun)

The voice used to indicate that the grammatical subject of the verb is the recipient (not the source) of the action denoted by the verb.

- 'The ball was thrown by the boy' uses the passive voice.
- 'The ball was thrown' is an abbreviated passive.

---

pigs (noun)

A person regarded as greedy and pig-like.

- The article explained what "pigs" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "pigs" during the group presentation.

---

pirates (verb)

Take arbitrarily or by force.

- The coach explained when to use "pirates" and when to wait.
- Can you use "pirates" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

pizza pie (noun)

Italian open pie made of thin bread dough spread with a spiced mixture of e.g. tomato sauce and cheese.

- Understanding "pizza pie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pizza pie" means with a simple example.

---

politically correct (adjective)

Exhibiting political correctness.

- Would you call this situation "politically correct"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "politically correct."

---

posters (noun)

A sign posted in a public place as an advertisement.

- He looked up "posters" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "posters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

practicing (verb)

Carry out or practice; as of jobs and professions.

- The coach explained when to use "practicing" and when to wait.
- Can you use "practicing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

praying (verb)

Address a deity, a prophet, a saint or an object of worship; say a prayer.

- Learners should practice how to use "praying" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "praying" and when to wait.

---

private instructor (noun)

A person who gives private instruction (as in singing, acting, etc.).

- He looked up "private instructor" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "private instructor" to mean a person who gives private instruction (as in....

---

probe (noun)

An inquiry into unfamiliar or questionable activities.

- There was a congressional probe into the scandal.
- Understanding "probe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

propose (verb)

Make a proposal, declare a plan for something.

- The senator proposed to abolish the sales tax.
- He proposed a new plan for dealing with terrorism.

---

publicity man (noun)

Someone employed to arrange publicity (for a firm or a public figure).

- The article explained what "publicity man" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "publicity man" to mean someone employed to arrange publicity (for a firm....

---

quarterly (adjective)

Of or relating to or consisting of a quarter.

- Quarterly report.
- A "quarterly" approach may work better in this case.

---

random variable (noun)

A variable quantity that is random.

- They discussed "random variable" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "random variable" because he had never seen it before.

---

rapid climb (noun)

A rapid rise.

- They discussed "rapid climb" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rapid climb."

---

recipes (noun)

Directions for making something.

- The article explained what "recipes" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "recipes."

---

record-keeper (noun)

Someone responsible for keeping records.

- In class, the teacher used "record-keeper" to mean someone responsible for keeping records.
- Understanding "record-keeper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

recruiting (verb)

Cause to assemble or enlist in the military.

- The coach explained when to use "recruiting" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "recruiting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

refusing (verb)

Resist immunologically the introduction of some foreign tissue or organ.

- In everyday English, people use "refusing" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "refusing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

reid (noun)

Scottish philosopher of common sense who opposed the ideas of David Hume (1710-1796).

- In class, the teacher used "reid" to mean scottish philosopher of common sense who opposed....
- Understanding "reid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

religious orientation (noun)

An attitude toward religion or religious practices.

- They discussed "religious orientation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "religious orientation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

riders (noun)

A clause that is appended to a legislative bill.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "riders."
- They discussed "riders" during the group presentation.

---

robert owen (noun)

Welsh industrialist and social reformer who founded cooperative communities (1771-1858).

- They discussed "robert owen" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "robert owen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roman catholic pope (noun)

The head of the Roman Catholic Church.

- Understanding "roman catholic pope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "roman catholic pope" to mean the head of the roman catholic church.

---

samuel houston (noun)

United States politician and military leader who fought to gain independence for Texas from Mexico and to make it a part of the United States (1793-1863).

- They discussed "samuel houston" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "samuel houston" to mean united states politician and military leader who....

---

san juan hill (noun)

A hill in eastern Cuba (near Santiago de Cuba) that was captured during the Spanish-American War.

- Theodore Roosevelt and his Rough Riders became famous for their charge up San Juan Hill.
- They discussed "san juan hill" during the group presentation.

---

sandwich plate (noun)

A serving consisting of a sandwich or sandwiches with garnishes.

- They discussed "sandwich plate" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sandwich plate" means with a simple example.

---

second banana (noun)

A performer who acts as stooge to a comedian.

- They discussed "second banana" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "second banana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

second earl grey (noun)

Englishman who as Prime Minister implemented social reforms including the abolition of slavery throughout the British Empire (1764-1845).

- They discussed "second earl grey" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "second earl grey."

---

senior master sergeant (noun)

A senior noncommissioned officer in the Air Force with a rank comparable to master sergeant in the Army.

- The article explained what "senior master sergeant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "senior master sergeant" to mean a senior noncommissioned officer in the air force....

---

shoe leather (noun)

Leather used to make shoes.

- He looked up "shoe leather" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "shoe leather" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

skinny (noun)

Confidential information about a topic or person.

- He wanted the inside skinny on the new partner.
- Understanding "skinny" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

slice through (verb)

Move through a body or an object with a slicing motion.

- His hand sliced through the air.
- In everyday English, people use "slice through" when talking about this idea.

---

sneak (verb)

To go stealthily or furtively.

- ..stead of sneaking around spying on the neighbor's house.
- Sneak a look.

---

sneak in (verb)

Enter surreptitiously.

- He sneaked in under cover of darkness.
- In everyday English, people use "sneak in" when talking about this idea.

---

sneak out (verb)

Leave furtively and stealthily.

- The lecture was boring and many students slipped out when the instructor turned towards the blackboard.
- Learners should practice how to use "sneak out" in real sentences.

sneak up (verb)

Advance stealthily or unnoticed.

- He did not know how to use "sneak up" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "sneak up" and when to wait.

speech rhythm (noun)

The arrangement of spoken words alternating stressed and unstressed elements.

- The rhythm of Frost's poetry.
- In class, the teacher used "speech rhythm" to mean the arrangement of spoken words alternating....

stevens (noun)

United States psychologist and psychophysicist who proposed Stevens' power law to replace Fechner's law (1906-1973).

- Understanding "stevens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stevens."

straw (verb)

Cover or provide with or as if with straw.

- Cows were strawed to weather the snowstorm.
- Straw.

structural formula (noun)

An expanded molecular formula showing the arrangement of atoms within the molecule.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "structural formula."
- He looked up "structural formula" because he had never seen it before.

successor (noun)

A person who follows next in order.

- He was President Lincoln's successor.
- Understanding "successor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sugar ray robinson (noun)

United States prizefighter who won the world middleweight championship five times and the world welterweight championship once (1921-1989).

- He looked up "sugar ray robinson" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sugar ray robinson" during the group presentation.

systems analyst (noun)

A person skilled at systems analysis.

- He looked up "systems analyst" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "systems analyst."

take it on the chin (verb)

Undergo failure or defeat.

- She tried to use "take it on the chin" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "take it on the chin" in real sentences.

take kindly to (verb)

Be willing or inclined to accept.

- He did not take kindly to my critical remarks.
- Can you use "take kindly to" in a sentence that fits this situation?

targeting (verb)

Intend (something) to move towards a certain goal.

- He did not know how to use "targeting" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "targeting" when talking about this idea.

the skinny (noun)

Slang terms for inside information.

- Is that the straight dope?
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "the skinny."

---

thermal spring (noun)

A natural spring of water at a temperature of 70 F or above.

- In class, the teacher used "thermal spring" to mean a natural spring of water at a temperature of 70 f....
- Understanding "thermal spring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

to perfection (adverb)

In every detail.

- Place "to perfection" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "to perfection" naturally.

---

top banana (noun)

The leading comedian in a burlesque show.

- Understanding "top banana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "top banana" to mean the leading comedian in a burlesque show.

---

two-dimensional figure (noun)

A two-dimensional shape.

- He looked up "two-dimensional figure" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "two-dimensional figure" during the group presentation.

---

vector (noun)

A variable quantity that can be resolved into components.

- Mosquitos are vectors of malaria and yellow fever.
- Fleas are vectors of the plague.

---

viewing audience (noun)

The audience reached by television.

- The article explained what "viewing audience" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "viewing audience" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vinyl group (noun)

A univalent chemical radical derived from ethylene.

- They discussed "vinyl group" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "vinyl group" because he had never seen it before.

---

vitamin b (noun)

Originally thought to be a single vitamin but now separated into several B vitamins.

- Understanding "vitamin b" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "vitamin b" to mean originally thought to be a single vitamin but now....

---

vitamin c (noun)

A vitamin found in fresh fruits (especially citrus fruits) and vegetables; prevents scurvy.

- The article explained what "vitamin c" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vitamin c" to mean a vitamin found in fresh fruits (especially citrus....

---

vitamin d (noun)

A fat-soluble vitamin that prevents rickets.

- He looked up "vitamin d" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "vitamin d" to mean a fat-soluble vitamin that prevents rickets.

---

vitamin m (noun)

A B vitamin that is essential for cell growth and reproduction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vitamin m."

- Understanding "vitamin m" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

weigh (verb)

To be oppressive or burdensome; ,.

- Weigh heavily on the mind.
- The butcher weighed the chicken.

whole-wheat (adjective)

Of or relating to or derived from wheat.

- The speaker chose "whole-wheat" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "whole-wheat" approach may work better in this case.

william ashley sunday (noun)

United States evangelist (1862-1935).

- The article explained what "william ashley sunday" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "william ashley sunday" to mean united states evangelist (1862-1935).

x-axis (noun)

The horizontal axis in a plane coordinate system.

- Understanding "x-axis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "x-axis" during the group presentation.

young buck (noun)

A teenager or a young adult male.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "young buck."
- He looked up "young buck" because he had never seen it before.

abraham (noun)

The first of the Old Testament patriarchs and the father of Isaac; according to Genesis, God promised to give Abraham's family (the Hebrews) the land of Canaan (the Promised Land); God tested Abraham by asking him to sacrifice his son.

- Judaism, Christianity, and Islam each has a special claim on Abraham.
- Understanding "abraham" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

academy of television arts and sciences (noun)

An academy that gives annual awards for outstanding achievements in television.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "academy of television arts and sciences."
- Understanding "academy of television arts and sciences" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

acoustic (adjective)

Of or relating to the science of acoustics.

- Acoustic properties of a hall.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "acoustic."

alfred the great (noun)

King of Wessex; defeated the Vikings and encouraged writing in English (849-899).

- Understanding "alfred the great" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "alfred the great" means with a simple example.

alice hamilton (noun)

United States toxicologist known for her work on industrial poisons (1869-1970).

- He looked up "alice hamilton" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "alice hamilton" to mean united states toxicologist known for her work on....

aluminum industry (noun)

Manufacturers of aluminum considered as a group.

- Understanding "aluminum industry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "aluminum industry" during the group presentation.

ancestors (noun)

Someone from whom you are descended (but usually more remote than a grandparent).

- In class, the teacher used "ancestors" to mean someone from whom you are descended (but usually....
- They discussed "ancestors" during the group presentation.

atomic (adjective)

Of or relating to or comprising atoms.

- Atomic structure.
- Atomic hydrogen.

barbara ward (noun)

English economist and conservationist (1914-1981).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barbara ward."
- The article explained what "barbara ward" means with a simple example.

benjamin harris (noun)

Publisher of the first newspaper printed in America (1673-1713).

- They discussed "benjamin harris" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "benjamin harris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

billy mitchell (noun)

United States aviator and general who was an early advocate of military air power (1879-1936).

- In class, the teacher used "billy mitchell" to mean united states aviator and general who was an early....
- He looked up "billy mitchell" because he had never seen it before.

blessed virgin (noun)

The mother of Jesus; Christians refer to her as the Virgin Mary; she is especially honored by Roman Catholics.

- The article explained what "blessed virgin" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "blessed virgin" during the group presentation.

broad arrow (noun)

An arrowhead mark identifying British government property.

- The article explained what "broad arrow" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "broad arrow."

broadcasting station (noun)

A station equipped to broadcast radio or television programs.

- The article explained what "broadcasting station" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "broadcasting station."

bryan (noun)

A town of east central Texas.

- In class, the teacher used "bryan" to mean a town of east central texas.
- Understanding "bryan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

buck private (noun)

An enlisted man of the lowest rank in the Army or Marines.

- Our prisoner was just a private and knew nothing of value.
- He looked up "buck private" because he had never seen it before.

bug-hunter (noun)

A zoologist who studies insects.

- They discussed "bug-hunter" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bug-hunter" means with a simple example.

bump (noun)

An impact (as from a collision).

- The bump threw him off the bicycle.
- He looked up "bump" because he had never seen it before.

---

bump into (verb)

Collide violently with an obstacle.

- I ran into the telephone pole.
- The coach explained when to use "bump into" and when to wait.

---

bureau of customs (noun)

The agency of the Treasury Department that enforces import tariffs.

- They discussed "bureau of customs" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bureau of customs" to mean the agency of the treasury department that enforces....

---

bureau of the census (noun)

The bureau of the Commerce Department responsible for taking the census; provides demographic information and analyses about the population of the United States.

- They discussed "bureau of the census" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bureau of the census" because he had never seen it before.

---

camping area (noun)

A site where people on holiday can pitch a tent.

- In class, the teacher used "camping area" to mean a site where people on holiday can pitch a tent.
- The article explained what "camping area" means with a simple example.

---

census bureau (noun)

The bureau of the Commerce Department responsible for taking the census; provides demographic information and analyses about the population of the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "census bureau."
- He looked up "census bureau" because he had never seen it before.

---

circus (noun)

A travelling company of entertainers; including trained animals.

- He ran away from home to join the circus.
- The children always love to go to the circus.

---

cold fusion (noun)

Nuclear fusion at or near room temperatures; claims to have discovered it are generally considered to have been mistaken.

- In class, the teacher used "cold fusion" to mean nuclear fusion at or near room temperatures; claims....
- Understanding "cold fusion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

complications (noun)

A development that complicates a situation.

- They discussed "complications" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "complications" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

construct (verb)

Draw with suitable instruments and under specified conditions.

- Construct an equilateral triangle.
- Some eccentric constructed an electric brassiere warmer.

---

continental army (noun)

The American army during the American Revolution.

- In class, the teacher used "continental army" to mean the american army during the american revolution.
- The article explained what "continental army" means with a simple example.

---

crash-dive (verb)

Descend steeply and rapidly.

- She tried to use "crash-dive" carefully so everyone would understand.

- In everyday English, people use "crash-dive" when talking about this idea.

---

customs bureau (noun)

The agency of the Treasury Department that enforces import tariffs.

- In class, the teacher used "customs bureau" to mean the agency of the treasury department that enforces....
- They discussed "customs bureau" during the group presentation.

---

deaf person (noun)

A person with a severe auditory impairment.

- The article explained what "deaf person" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "deaf person" during the group presentation.

---

debates (noun)

A discussion in which reasons are advanced for and against some proposition or proposal.

- Understanding "debates" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "debates" means with a simple example.

---

declaration of independence (noun)

The document recording the proclamation of the second Continental Congress (4 July 1776) asserting the independence of the Colonies from Great Britain.

- The article explained what "declaration of independence" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "declaration of independence" during the group presentation.

---

delays (noun)

Time during which some action is awaited.

- In class, the teacher used "delays" to mean time during which some action is awaited.
- He looked up "delays" because he had never seen it before.

---

desperately (adverb)

With great urgency.

- The soil desperately needed potash.
- The child clung desperately to her mother.

---

disk space (noun)

(computer science) the space available on a magnetic disk.

- They discussed "disk space" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "disk space" to mean (computer science) the space available on a....

---

doctrine (noun)

A belief (or system of beliefs) accepted as authoritative by some group or school.

- He looked up "doctrine" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "doctrine" during the group presentation.

---

drop anchor (verb)

Secure a vessel with an anchor.

- We anchored at Baltimore.
- Learners should practice how to use "drop anchor" in real sentences.

---

duck hunter (noun)

Hunter of ducks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "duck hunter."
- The article explained what "duck hunter" means with a simple example.

---

dylan thomas (noun)

Welsh poet (1914-1953).

- Understanding "dylan thomas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dylan thomas" to mean welsh poet (1914-1953).

---

east pakistani (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Bangladesh or its people or language.

- The speaker chose "east pakistani" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "east pakistani" approach may work better in this case.

---

expose (verb)

To show, make visible or apparent.

- Expose your students to art.
- Expose the blanket to sunshine.

---

financially (adverb)

From a financial point of view.

- This was financially unattractive.
- Place "financially" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

finger lakes (noun)

A geographical area in central New York State that is named for a series of narrow glacial lakes that lie parallel in a north-south direction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "finger lakes."
- He looked up "finger lakes" because he had never seen it before.

---

freshman (noun)

A first-year undergraduate.

- In class, the teacher used "freshman" to mean a first-year undergraduate.
- He looked up "freshman" because he had never seen it before.

---

geography (noun)

Study of the earth's surface; includes people's responses to topography and climate and soil and vegetation.

- In class, the teacher used "geography" to mean study of the earth's surface; includes people's....
- The article explained what "geography" means with a simple example.

---

great sandy desert (noun)

A desert region in northwestern Australia to the north of the Gibson Desert.

- The article explained what "great sandy desert" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "great sandy desert" during the group presentation.

---

high roller (noun)

One who spends lavishly and ostentatiously on entertainment.

- In class, the teacher used "high roller" to mean one who spends lavishly and ostentatiously on....
- The article explained what "high roller" means with a simple example.

---

hydrogen (noun)

A nonmetallic univalent element that is normally a colorless and odorless highly flammable diatomic gas; the simplest and lightest and most abundant element in the universe.

- In class, the teacher used "hydrogen" to mean a nonmetallic univalent element that is normally a....
- The article explained what "hydrogen" means with a simple example.

---

ice shelf (noun)

Ice that is attached to land but projects out to sea.

- The article explained what "ice shelf" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice shelf."

---

implies (verb)

Have as a necessary feature.

- He did not know how to use "implies" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "implies" when talking about this idea.

---

infant school (noun)

British school for children aged 5-7.

- In class, the teacher used "infant school" to mean british school for children aged 5-7.
- Understanding "infant school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jaw (verb)

Chew (food); to bite and grind with the teeth.

- He jawed his bubble gum.
- The coach explained when to use "jaw" and when to wait.

---

joint chiefs (noun)

The executive agency that advises the President on military questions; composed of the chiefs of the United States Army and the United States Navy and the United States Air Force and the commandant of the United States Marine Corps.

- In class, the teacher used "joint chiefs" to mean the executive agency that advises the president on....
- The article explained what "joint chiefs" means with a simple example.

---

king salmon (noun)

Pink or white flesh of large Pacific salmon.

- The article explained what "king salmon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "king salmon."

---

lawn (noun)

A field of cultivated and mowed grass.

- Understanding "lawn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lawn" because he had never seen it before.

---

malcolm x (noun)

Militant civil rights leader (1925-1965).

- They discussed "malcolm x" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "malcolm x" to mean militant civil rights leader (1925-1965).

---

meat and potatoes (noun)

The fundamental part.

- Successful negotiation is the meat and potatoes of arbitration.
- They discussed "meat and potatoes" during the group presentation.

---

medals (noun)

An award for winning a championship or commemorating some other event.

- In class, the teacher used "medals" to mean an award for winning a championship or....
- Understanding "medals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

metal filing (noun)

A fragment of metal rubbed off by the use of a file.

- Understanding "metal filing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "metal filing."

---

military advisor (noun)

A military officer who serves as an adviser to the troops of an allied nation.

- They discussed "military advisor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "military advisor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nashville (noun)

Capital of the state of Tennessee; located in the north central part of the state on the Cumberland River; known for country music.

- In class, the teacher used "nashville" to mean capital of the state of tennessee; located in the....
- The article explained what "nashville" means with a simple example.

---

nebraska (noun)

A midwestern state on the Great Plains.

- They discussed "nebraska" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nebraska."

needle (verb)

Goad or provoke,as by constant criticism.

- He needled her with his sarcastic remarks.
- In everyday English, people use "needle" when talking about this idea.

olds (noun)

Past times (especially in the phrase 'in days of old').

- Understanding "olds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "olds" because he had never seen it before.

oral presentation (noun)

Delivering an address to a public audience.

- In class, the teacher used "oral presentation" to mean delivering an address to a public audience.
- Understanding "oral presentation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ottawa (noun)

A member of the Algonquian people of southern Ontario.

- Understanding "ottawa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ottawa."

oval (noun)

A closed plane curve resulting from the intersection of a circular cone and a plane cutting completely through it.

- Understanding "oval" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "oval" because he had never seen it before.

pie shell (noun)

Pastry used to hold pie fillings.

- He looked up "pie shell" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pie shell" during the group presentation.

porter (noun)

A person employed to carry luggage and supplies.

- Understanding "porter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "porter" means with a simple example.

prey (noun)

A person who is the aim of an attack (especially a victim of ridicule or exploitation) by some hostile person or influence.

- He fell prey to muggers.
- He looked up "prey" because he had never seen it before.

prophet (noun)

An authoritative person who divines the future.

- Understanding "prophet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "prophet" to mean an authoritative person who divines the future.

quantum jump (noun)

A sudden large increase or advance.

- This may not insure success but it will represent a quantum leap from last summer.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quantum jump."

refugee (noun)

An exile who flees for safety.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "refugee."
- They discussed "refugee" during the group presentation.

room clerk (noun)

A hotel clerk who is responsible for room assignments to guests.

- He looked up "room clerk" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "room clerk" during the group presentation.

---

ruby (noun)

A transparent deep red variety of corundum; used as a gemstone and in lasers.

- In class, the teacher used "ruby" to mean a transparent deep red variety of corundum; used as....
- Understanding "ruby" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

salmon oil (noun)

A fatty oil obtained from the wastes in canning salmon; used in making soap and dressing leather.

- He looked up "salmon oil" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "salmon oil" during the group presentation.

---

sandwich islands (noun)

A group of volcanic and coral islands in the central Pacific.

- They discussed "sandwich islands" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sandwich islands" because he had never seen it before.

---

satisfy (verb)

Meet the requirements or expectations of.

- In everyday English, people use "satisfy" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "satisfy" in real sentences.

---

scale of measurement (noun)

An ordered reference standard.

- Judging on a scale of 1 to 10.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scale of measurement."

---

scales (noun)

The ratio between the size of something and a representation of it.

- They discussed "scales" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "scales" means with a simple example.

---

segments (noun)

One of the parts into which something naturally divides.

- In class, the teacher used "segments" to mean one of the parts into which something naturally divides.
- Understanding "segments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shelf ice (noun)

Ice that is attached to land but projects out to sea.

- The article explained what "shelf ice" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shelf ice."

---

single-valued function (noun)

(mathematics) a mathematical relation such that each element of a given set (the domain of the function) is associated with an element of another set (the range of the function).

- He looked up "single-valued function" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "single-valued function."

---

slower (adverb)

More slowly.

- She spoke "slower," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "slower" can make your explanation more exact.

---

sneak away (verb)

Leave furtively and stealthily.

- Learners should practice how to use "sneak away" in real sentences.

- In everyday English, people use "sneak away" when talking about this idea.

---

sneak off (verb)

Leave furtively and stealthily.

- Can you use "sneak off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "sneak off" when talking about this idea.

---

soda pop (noun)

A sweet drink containing carbonated water and flavoring.

- In New England they call sodas tonics.
- He looked up "soda pop" because he had never seen it before.

---

spanish guinea (noun)

A country of west central Africa (including islands in the Gulf of Guinea); became independent from Spain in 1968.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spanish guinea."
- He looked up "spanish guinea" because he had never seen it before.

---

square shooter (noun)

A frank and honest person.

- The article explained what "square shooter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "square shooter" to mean a frank and honest person.

---

station keeper (noun)

The police sergeant on duty in a police station.

- He looked up "station keeper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "station keeper."

---

stepping (verb)

Move with one's feet in a specific manner.

- She is always stepping on others to get ahead.
- The coach explained when to use "stepping" and when to wait.

---

straw man (noun)

A weak or sham argument set up to be easily refuted.

- The article explained what "straw man" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "straw man" to mean a weak or sham argument set up to be easily refuted.

---

telegraph form (noun)

A form to use when sending a telegram.

- Understanding "telegraph form" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "telegraph form" because he had never seen it before.

---

theoretical account (noun)

A hypothetical description of a complex entity or process.

- The article explained what "theoretical account" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "theoretical account" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

three-dimensional figure (noun)

A three-dimensional shape.

- Understanding "three-dimensional figure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "three-dimensional figure."

---

threshold operation (noun)

An operation performed on operands in order to obtain the value of a threshold function.

- Understanding "threshold operation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "threshold operation" during the group presentation.

---

ticket booth (noun)

The office where tickets of admission are sold.

- He looked up "ticket booth" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ticket booth" during the group presentation.

town clerk (noun)

The official who keeps a town's records.

- The article explained what "town clerk" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "town clerk."

township (noun)

An administrative division of a county.

- He looked up "township" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "township" to mean an administrative division of a county.

urban vi (noun)

Italian pope from 1378 to 1389 whose contested election began the Great Schism; he alienated his political allies by his ruthless treatment of his opponents (1318-1389).

- They discussed "urban vi" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "urban vi" because he had never seen it before.

vienna (noun)

The capital and largest city of Austria; located on the Danube in northeastern Austria; was the home of Beethoven and Brahms and Haydn and Mozart and Schubert and Strauss.

- They discussed "vienna" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "vienna" because he had never seen it before.

vitamin p (noun)

A vitamin that maintains the resistance of cell and capillary walls to permeation.

- He looked up "vitamin p" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "vitamin p" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wade (verb)

Walk (through relatively shallow water).

- Can we wade across the river to the other side?
- Wade the pond.

weigh down (verb)

Exert a force with a heavy weight.

- The snow bore down on the roof.
- She tried to use "weigh down" carefully so everyone would understand.

whale (noun)

A very large person; impressive in size or qualities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whale."
- They discussed "whale" during the group presentation.

wheat field (noun)

A field planted with wheat.

- They discussed "wheat field" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "wheat field" means with a simple example.

wing loading (noun)

The ratio of the weight of an airplane to its wing area.

- The article explained what "wing loading" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wing loading" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

writings (noun)

The third of three divisions of the Hebrew Scriptures.

- The idea occurs with increasing frequency in Hemingway's writings.
- They discussed "writings" during the group presentation.

---

y-axis (noun)

The vertical axis in a plane coordinate system.

- The article explained what "y-axis" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "y-axis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

admire (verb)

Look at with admiration.

- She tried to use "admire" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "admire" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

amber (noun)

A hard yellowish to brownish translucent fossil resin; used for jewelry.

- An amber light illuminated the room.
- The article explained what "amber" means with a simple example.

---

armor (noun)

A military unit consisting of armored fighting vehicles.

- They discussed "armor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "armor" means with a simple example.

---

atomic number (noun)

The order of an element in Mendeleyev's table of the elements; equal to the number of protons in the nucleus or electrons in the neutral state of an atom of an element.

- He looked up "atomic number" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "atomic number."

---

autism (noun)

(psychiatry) an abnormal absorption with the self; marked by communication disorders and short attention span and inability to treat others as people.

- They discussed "autism" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "autism."

---

banana oil (noun)

A liquid ester derived from amyl alcohol; has the odor of bananas.

- They discussed "banana oil" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "banana oil" means with a simple example.

---

billions (noun)

A very large indefinite number (usually hyperbole).

- Understanding "billions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "billions" to mean a very large indefinite number (usually hyperbole).

---

billy-ho (noun)

An unimaginably large amount.

- Understanding "billy-ho" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "billy-ho" to mean an unimaginably large amount.

---

bitter principle (noun)

Any one of several hundred compounds having a bitter taste; not admitting of chemical classification.

- He looked up "bitter principle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bitter principle."

---

black bean (noun)

Black-seeded bean of South America; usually dried.

- They discussed "black bean" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "black bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bond servant (noun)

Someone bound to labor without wages.

- He looked up "bond servant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bond servant" to mean someone bound to labor without wages.

brisbane (noun)

Capital and largest city of Queensland state; located in the southeastern corner of Queensland on the Pacific; settled by British as a penal colony; 3rd largest city in Australia.

- He looked up "brisbane" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brisbane."

bump around (verb)

Shock physically.

- Can you use "bump around" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "bump around" when talking about this idea.

bump off (verb)

Kill intentionally and with premeditation.

- In everyday English, people use "bump off" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "bump off" carefully so everyone would understand.

camping ground (noun)

A site where people on holiday can pitch a tent.

- In class, the teacher used "camping ground" to mean a site where people on holiday can pitch a tent.
- He looked up "camping ground" because he had never seen it before.

camping site (noun)

A site where people on holiday can pitch a tent.

- He looked up "camping site" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "camping site" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of lebanon (noun)

Capital and largest city of Lebanon; located in western Lebanon on the Mediterranean.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of lebanon" to mean capital and largest city of lebanon; located in....
- The article explained what "capital of lebanon" means with a simple example.

capital of new hampshire (noun)

Capital of the state of New Hampshire; located in south central New Hampshire on the Merrimack river.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of new hampshire" to mean capital of the state of new hampshire; located in....
- The article explained what "capital of new hampshire" means with a simple example.

capitalism (noun)

An economic system based on private ownership of capital.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capitalism."
- He looked up "capitalism" because he had never seen it before.

cart away (verb)

Take away by means of a vehicle.

- They carted off the old furniture.
- The coach explained when to use "cart away" and when to wait.

cart off (verb)

Take away by means of a vehicle.

- They carted off the old furniture.
- He did not know how to use "cart off" until he saw an example.

celtic language (noun)

A branch of the Indo-European languages that (judging from inscriptions and place names) was spread widely over Europe in the pre-Christian era.

- Understanding "celtic language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "celtic language."

characteristic (noun)

A prominent attribute or aspect of something.

- Generosity is one of his best characteristics.
- They discussed "characteristic" during the group presentation.

christmas carol (noun)

Joyful religious song celebrating the birth of Christ.

- They discussed "christmas carol" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "christmas carol" means with a simple example.

clash (noun)

A loud resonant repeating noise.

- Her dress was a disturbing clash of colors.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clash."

columns (noun)

A page or text that is vertically divided.

- The newspaper devoted several columns to the subject.
- The bookkeeper used pages that were divided into columns.

condemned (verb)

Declare or judge unfit for use or habitation.

- The building was condemned by the inspector.
- His devotion to his sick wife condemned him to a lonely existence.

configuration (noun)

An arrangement of parts or elements.

- The outcome depends on the configuration of influences at the time.
- Understanding "configuration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

continental congress (noun)

The legislative assembly composed of delegates from the rebel colonies who met during and after the American Revolution; they issued the Declaration of Independence and framed Articles of Confederation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "continental congress."
- He looked up "continental congress" because he had never seen it before.

continuously (adverb)

With unflagging resolve.

- The function is continuously differentiable.
- She spoke "continuously," and the audience immediately understood her point.

crude oil (noun)

A dark oil consisting mainly of hydrocarbons.

- They discussed "crude oil" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "crude oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

curiosity (noun)

A state in which you want to learn more about something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "curiosity."
- He looked up "curiosity" because he had never seen it before.

diesel fuel (noun)

A heavy mineral oil used as fuel in diesel engines.

- He looked up "diesel fuel" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “diesel fuel.”

distinguished service medal (noun)

A United States military decoration for meritorious service in wartime duty of great responsibility.

- He looked up “distinguished service medal” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “distinguished service medal.”

earth goddess (noun)

A goddess of fertility and vegetation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “earth goddess.”
- They discussed “earth goddess” during the group presentation.

earth-goddess (noun)

A goddess of fertility and vegetation.

- Understanding “earth-goddess” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “earth-goddess” during the group presentation.

ego trip (noun)

An act undertaken to increase your own power and influence or to draw attention to your own importance.

- Understanding “ego trip” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “ego trip” because he had never seen it before.

emperor francis ii (noun)

The last Holy Roman Emperor (1768-1835).

- Understanding “emperor francis ii” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “emperor francis ii” means with a simple example.

entities (noun)

That which is perceived or known or inferred to have its own distinct existence (living or nonliving).

- They discussed “entities” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “entities.”

exceptions (noun)

An instance that does not conform to a rule or generalization.

- He looked up “exceptions” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “exceptions.”

execution of instrument (noun)

(law) the completion of a legal instrument (such as a contract or deed) by signing it (and perhaps sealing and delivering it) so that it becomes legally binding and enforceable.

- In class, the teacher used “execution of instrument” to mean (law) the completion of a legal instrument (such as....
- Understanding “execution of instrument” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

facial index (noun)

The ratio (in percent) of the maximum width to the maximum height of the face.

- In class, the teacher used “facial index” to mean the ratio (in percent) of the maximum width to the....
- The article explained what “facial index” means with a simple example.

file transfer protocol (noun)

Protocol that allows users to copy files between their local system and any system they can reach on the network.

- They discussed “file transfer protocol” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “file transfer protocol” because he had never seen it before.

fortunately (adverb)

By good fortune.

- Fortunately the weather was good.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “fortunately” naturally.

foundations (noun)

The basis on which something is grounded.

- In class, the teacher used "foundations" to mean the basis on which something is grounded.
- The article explained what "foundations" means with a simple example.

---

founding father (noun)

A person who founds or establishes some institution.

- George Washington is the father of his country.
- In class, the teacher used "founding father" to mean a person who founds or establishes some institution.

---

freight car (noun)

A railway car that carries freight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freight car."
- The article explained what "freight car" means with a simple example.

---

frontier (noun)

A wilderness at the edge of a settled area of a country.

- The individualism of the frontier in Andrew Jackson's day.
- He worked at the frontier of brain science.

---

geographic (adjective)

Of or relating to the science of geography.

- The north and south geographic poles.
- A "geographic" approach may work better in this case.

---

glenn (noun)

Made the first orbital rocket-powered flight by a United States astronaut in 1962; later in United States Senate (1921-).

- He looked up "glenn" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "glenn" to mean made the first orbital rocket-powered flight by a....

---

gospel according to luke (noun)

One of the four Gospels in the New Testament; contains details of Jesus's birth and early life.

- He looked up "gospel according to luke" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gospel according to luke" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grand slam (noun)

Winning all of the tricks in a hand of bridge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grand slam."
- He looked up "grand slam" because he had never seen it before.

---

graphic symbol (noun)

A written symbol that is used to represent speech.

- In class, the teacher used "graphic symbol" to mean a written symbol that is used to represent speech.
- They discussed "graphic symbol" during the group presentation.

---

hack driver (noun)

Someone who drives a taxi for a living.

- They discussed "hack driver" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hack driver" because he had never seen it before.

---

hack-driver (noun)

Someone who drives a taxi for a living.

- In class, the teacher used "hack-driver" to mean someone who drives a taxi for a living.
- The article explained what "hack-driver" means with a simple example.

---

ham and eggs (noun)

Eggs (scrambled or fried) served with ham.

- They discussed "ham and eggs" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ham and eggs" to mean eggs (scrambled or fried) served with ham.

high-strength brass (noun)

A brass with from 1-4% manganese to harden it.

- The article explained what "high-strength brass" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "high-strength brass" to mean a brass with from 1-4% manganese to harden it.

hispanic (noun)

An American whose first language is Spanish.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hispanic."
- The article explained what "hispanic" means with a simple example.

identical twin (noun)

Either of two twins developed from the same fertilized ovum (having the same genetic material).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "identical twin."
- He looked up "identical twin" because he had never seen it before.

identity matrix (noun)

A scalar matrix in which all of the diagonal elements are unity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "identity matrix."
- The article explained what "identity matrix" means with a simple example.

indirect evidence (noun)

Evidence providing only a basis for inference about the fact in dispute.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indirect evidence."
- The article explained what "indirect evidence" means with a simple example.

irish potato (noun)

An edible tuber native to South America; a staple food of Ireland.

- Understanding "irish potato" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "irish potato" means with a simple example.

iron filing (noun)

A fragment of iron rubbed off by the use of a file.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iron filing."
- He looked up "iron filing" because he had never seen it before.

jack of all trades (noun)

A man skilled in various odd jobs and other small tasks.

- In class, the teacher used "jack of all trades" to mean a man skilled in various odd jobs and other small tasks.
- The article explained what "jack of all trades" means with a simple example.

japanese monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Japan.

- He looked up "japanese monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese monetary unit."

jerry lee lewis (noun)

United States rock star singer and pianist (born in 1935).

- Understanding "jerry lee lewis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jerry lee lewis" means with a simple example.

joel (noun)

An Old Testament book telling Joel's prophecies.

- In class, the teacher used "joel" to mean an old testament book telling joel's prophecies.
- The article explained what "joel" means with a simple example.

keep one's shoulder to the wheel (verb)

Work doggedly or persistently.

- She keeps plugging away at her dissertation.
- She tried to use "keep one's shoulder to the wheel" carefully so everyone would understand.

launching site (noun)

A place for launching pads.

- In class, the teacher used "launching site" to mean a place for launching pads.
- He looked up "launching site" because he had never seen it before.

law of moses (noun)

The laws (beginning with the Ten Commandments) that God gave to the Israelites through Moses; it includes many rules of religious observance given in the first five books of the Old Testament (in Judaism these books are called the Torah).

- In class, the teacher used "law of moses" to mean the laws (beginning with the ten commandments) that....
- He looked up "law of moses" because he had never seen it before.

lawn party (noun)

A party of people assembled for social interaction out of doors.

- In class, the teacher used "lawn party" to mean a party of people assembled for social interaction....
- The article explained what "lawn party" means with a simple example.

lemon cheese (noun)

A conserve with a thick consistency; made with lemons and butter and eggs and sugar.

- He looked up "lemon cheese" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lemon cheese" to mean a conserve with a thick consistency; made with....

licence (noun)

A legal document giving official permission to do something.

- The article explained what "licence" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "licence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

main clause (noun)

A clause in a complex sentence that can stand alone as a complete sentence.

- He looked up "main clause" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "main clause."

mandate (noun)

A document giving an official instruction or command.

- He looked up "mandate" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mandate."

mathematical function (noun)

(mathematics) a mathematical relation such that each element of a given set (the domain of the function) is associated with an element of another set (the range of the function).

- In class, the teacher used "mathematical function" to mean (mathematics) a mathematical relation such that....
- Understanding "mathematical function" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

message pad (noun)

A pad of paper on which messages can be written.

- Understanding "message pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "message pad" during the group presentation.

minus sign (noun)

A sign indicating the operation of subtraction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "minus sign."
- Understanding "minus sign" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

night porter (noun)

A porter on duty during the night.

- Understanding "night porter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "night porter" means with a simple example.

nj (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state on the Atlantic; one of the original 13 colonies.

- In class, the teacher used "nj" to mean a mid-atlantic state on the atlantic; one of the....
- The article explained what "nj" means with a simple example.

non-resistant (noun)

A reformer who believes in passive resistance.

- The article explained what "non-resistant" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "non-resistant" during the group presentation.

north atlantic treaty organization (noun)

An international organization created in 1949 by the North Atlantic Treaty for purposes of collective security.

- The article explained what "north atlantic treaty organization" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "north atlantic treaty organization" during the group presentation.

occurring (verb)

To be found to exist.

- Learners should practice how to use "occurring" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "occurring" and when to wait.

oil-industry analyst (noun)

An analyst of the oil industry.

- They discussed "oil-industry analyst" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "oil-industry analyst" to mean an analyst of the oil industry.

organic compound (noun)

Any compound of carbon and another element or a radical.

- Understanding "organic compound" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "organic compound" to mean any compound of carbon and another element or a radical.

pad of paper (noun)

A number of sheets of paper fastened together along one edge.

- In class, the teacher used "pad of paper" to mean a number of sheets of paper fastened together along....
- He looked up "pad of paper" because he had never seen it before.

piano maker (noun)

A person who makes pianos.

- The article explained what "piano maker" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "piano maker" during the group presentation.

pipe-clay (verb)

Whiten or clean with pipe-clay.

- Pipe-clay leather.
- Learners should practice how to use "pipe-clay" in real sentences.

problem solving (noun)

The thought processes involved in solving a problem.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "problem solving."
- He looked up "problem solving" because he had never seen it before.

pull strings (verb)

Influence or control shrewdly or deviously.

- Can you use “pull strings” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “pull strings” and when to wait.

---

quebec (noun)

The French-speaking capital of the province of Quebec; situated on the Saint Lawrence River.

- They discussed “quebec” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “quebec.”

---

randomly (adverb)

In a random manner.

- The houses were randomly scattered.
- He answered “randomly,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

realizing (verb)

Perceive (an idea or situation) mentally.

- He did not know how to use “realizing” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “realizing” when talking about this idea.

---

revealing (noun)

The speech act of making something evident.

- The article explained what “revealing” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “revealing.”

---

rico (noun)

Law intended to eradicate organized crime by establishing strong sanctions and forfeiture provisions.

- The article explained what “rico” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “rico” to mean law intended to eradicate organized crime by....

---

rock salmon (noun)

Any of several coarse fishes (such as dogfish or wolffish) when used as food.

- The article explained what “rock salmon” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “rock salmon” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rub out (verb)

Remove by or as if by rubbing or erasing.

- In everyday English, people use “rub out” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “rub out” until he saw an example.

---

runners (noun)

A person who is employed to deliver messages or documents.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “runners.”
- Understanding “runners” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sally out (verb)

Jump out from a hiding place and surprise (someone).

- The attackers leapt out from the bushes.
- Can you use “sally out” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

salt merchant (noun)

Someone who makes or deals in salt.

- He looked up “salt merchant” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “salt merchant.”

---

sauce albert (noun)

Creamy white sauce with horseradish and mustard.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sauce albert.”
- He looked up “sauce albert” because he had never seen it before.

scout (noun)

A person employed to keep watch for some anticipated event.

- In class, the teacher used "scout" to mean a person employed to keep watch for some....
- They discussed "scout" during the group presentation.

searched (verb)

Try to locate or discover, or try to establish the existence of.

- He searched for information on his relatives on the web.
- The police searched the suspect.

shouting (noun)

Encouragement in the form of cheers from spectators.

- It's all over but the shouting.
- They discussed "shouting" during the group presentation.

slap (noun)

A blow from a flat object (as an open hand).

- In class, the teacher used "slap" to mean a blow from a flat object (as an open hand).
- He looked up "slap" because he had never seen it before.

slap on (verb)

Apply carelessly.

- Slap some paint onto the wall.
- Can you use "slap on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

stanford white (noun)

United States architect (1853-1906).

- Understanding "stanford white" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "stanford white" during the group presentation.

stepping down (noun)

A formal resignation and renunciation of powers.

- Understanding "stepping down" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stepping down."

sugar cookie (noun)

Cookies sprinkled with granulated sugar.

- In class, the teacher used "sugar cookie" to mean cookies sprinkled with granulated sugar.
- He looked up "sugar cookie" because he had never seen it before.

superintendent (noun)

A person who directs and manages an organization.

- He looked up "superintendent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "superintendent."

suspicion (noun)

An impression that something might be the case.

- He tried to shield me from suspicion.
- They discussed "suspicion" during the group presentation.

sweep (verb)

To cover or extend over an area or time period; ,.

- Sweep the crumbs off the table.
- Sweep under the bed.

sweep up (verb)

Force into some kind of situation, condition, or course of action.

- He did not know how to use "sweep up" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "sweep up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sympathy card (noun)

A card expressing sympathy.

- They discussed "sympathy card" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sympathy card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tactical (adjective)

Of or pertaining to tactic or tactics.

- A tactical error.
- The speaker chose "tactical" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

talents (noun)

A person who possesses unusual innate ability in some field or activity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "talents."
- He looked up "talents" because he had never seen it before.

---

taxi strip (noun)

A paved surface in the form of a strip; used by planes taxiing to or from the runway at an airport.

- In class, the teacher used "taxi strip" to mean a paved surface in the form of a strip; used by....
- He looked up "taxi strip" because he had never seen it before.

---

term infant (noun)

Infant born at a gestational age between 37 and 42 completed weeks.

- Understanding "term infant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "term infant" during the group presentation.

---

therapist (noun)

A person skilled in a particular type of therapy.

- Understanding "therapist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "therapist" to mean a person skilled in a particular type of therapy.

---

thereafter (adverb)

From that time on.

- Thereafter he never called again.
- Place "thereafter" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

thousand-fold (adverb)

By three orders of magnitude.

- This poison is a thousand-fold more toxic.
- Place "thousand-fold" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

to a lesser extent (adverb)

Used to form the comparative of some adjectives and adverbs.

- Place "to a lesser extent" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "to a lesser extent" naturally.

---

variables (noun)

A star that varies noticeably in brightness.

- They discussed "variables" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "variables" to mean a star that varies noticeably in brightness.

---

vitamin g (noun)

A B vitamin that prevents skin lesions and weight loss.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vitamin g."

- He looked up "vitamin g" because he had never seen it before.

western civilization (noun)

The modern culture of western Europe and North America.

- When Ghandi was asked what he thought of Western civilization he said he thought it would be a good idea.
- The article explained what "western civilization" means with a simple example.

white bean (noun)

White-seeded bean; usually dried.

- They discussed "white bean" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "white bean" to mean white-seeded bean; usually dried.

writing pad (noun)

A pad of paper on which messages can be written.

- The article explained what "writing pad" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "writing pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

angle of reflection (noun)

The angle between a reflected ray and a line perpendicular to the reflecting surface at the point of incidence.

- The article explained what "angle of reflection" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "angle of reflection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

apples (noun)

Fruit with red or yellow or green skin and sweet to tart crisp whitish flesh.

- The article explained what "apples" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "apples" during the group presentation.

architectural (adjective)

Of or pertaining to the art and science of architecture.

- Architectural history.
- Architectural design.

artillery (noun)

A means of persuading or arguing.

- In class, the teacher used "artillery" to mean a means of persuading or arguing.
- The article explained what "artillery" means with a simple example.

bachelor party (noun)

Stag party held for a bachelor (usually on the night before he is married).

- Understanding "bachelor party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bachelor party" because he had never seen it before.

bangladesh (noun)

A Muslim republic in southern Asia bordered by India to the north and west and east and the Bay of Bengal to the south; formerly part of India and then part of Pakistan; it achieved independence in 1971.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bangladesh."
- He looked up "bangladesh" because he had never seen it before.

bean town (noun)

State capital and largest city of Massachusetts; a major center for banking and financial services.

- In class, the teacher used "bean town" to mean state capital and largest city of massachusetts; a....
- The article explained what "bean town" means with a simple example.

bees (verb)

To remain unmolested, undisturbed, or uninterrupted – used only in infinitive form.

- Can you use "bees" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "bees" and when to wait.

book of joel (noun)

An Old Testament book telling Joel's prophecies.

- Understanding "book of joel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "book of joel" to mean an old testament book telling joel's prophecies.

boston cream pie (noun)

Layer cake filled with custard.

- The article explained what "boston cream pie" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "boston cream pie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

british thermal unit (noun)

A unit of heat equal to the amount of heat required to raise one pound of water one degree Fahrenheit at one atmosphere pressure; equivalent to 251.997 calories.

- Understanding "british thermal unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "british thermal unit" means with a simple example.

bronze star medal (noun)

A United States military decoration awarded for meritorious service (except in aerial flight).

- The article explained what "bronze star medal" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bronze star medal."

carl david anderson (noun)

United States physicist who discovered antimatter in the form of an antielectron that is called the positron (1905-1991).

- In class, the teacher used "carl david anderson" to mean united states physicist who discovered antimatter....
- Understanding "carl david anderson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

catherine howard (noun)

Queen of England as the fifth wife of Henry VIII who was accused of adultery and executed (1520-1542).

- He looked up "catherine howard" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "catherine howard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chapel hill (noun)

A town in central North Carolina; site of the University of North Carolina.

- He looked up "chapel hill" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chapel hill."

cincinnati (noun)

A city in southern Ohio on the Ohio river.

- In class, the teacher used "cincinnati" to mean a city in southern ohio on the ohio river.
- The article explained what "cincinnati" means with a simple example.

circular (noun)

An advertisement (usually printed on a page or in a leaflet) intended for wide distribution.

- He mailed the circular to all subscribers.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "circular."

circulation (noun)

Number of copies of a newspaper or magazine that are sold.

- By increasing its circulation the newspaper hoped to increase its advertising.
- Ocean circulation is an important part of global climate.

closes (noun)

The last section of a communication.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "closes."
- They discussed "closes" during the group presentation.

co-defendant (noun)

A defendant who has been joined together with one or more other defendants in a single action.

- He looked up "co-defendant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "co-defendant" to mean a defendant who has been joined together with one....

---

come in handy (verb)

Be useful for a certain purpose.

- Can you use "come in handy" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "come in handy" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

comedian (noun)

A professional performer who tells jokes and performs comical acts.

- He looked up "comedian" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "comedian" to mean a professional performer who tells jokes and....

---

cooler (noun)

An iced drink especially white wine and fruit juice.

- Understanding "cooler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cooler" because he had never seen it before.

---

counter-drill (verb)

Drill in an opposite direction.

- The coach explained when to use "counter-drill" and when to wait.
- Can you use "counter-drill" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cult of personality (noun)

Intense devotion to a particular person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cult of personality."
- The article explained what "cult of personality" means with a simple example.

---

dame (noun)

A woman of refinement.

- They discussed "dame" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dame" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dean swift (noun)

An English satirist born in Ireland (1667-1745).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dean swift."
- The article explained what "dean swift" means with a simple example.

---

deceased (noun)

Someone who is no longer alive.

- He looked up "deceased" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "deceased" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

declaration of estimated tax (noun)

Return required of a taxpayer whose tax withheld from income does not meet the tax liability for the year.

- In class, the teacher used "declaration of estimated tax" to mean return required of a taxpayer whose tax withheld....
- Understanding "declaration of estimated tax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

defining (noun)

Any process serving to define the shape of something.

- Understanding "defining" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defining."

---

disputes (noun)

A disagreement or argument about something important.

- They discussed "disputes" during the group presentation.

- He looked up "disputes" because he had never seen it before.

---

drake (noun)

English explorer and admiral who was the first Englishman to circumnavigate the globe and who helped to defeat the Spanish Armada (1540-1596).

- The article explained what "drake" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "drake" to mean english explorer and admiral who was the first....

---

dude ranch (noun)

A holiday resort offering ranch activities (riding and camping).

- Understanding "dude ranch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dude ranch" because he had never seen it before.

---

easter egg (noun)

An egg-shaped candy used to celebrate Easter.

- They discussed "easter egg" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "easter egg" to mean an egg-shaped candy used to celebrate easter.

---

enforce (verb)

Compel to behave in a certain way.

- Learners should practice how to use "enforce" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "enforce" until he saw an example.

---

explicitly (adverb)

In an explicit manner.

- In his foreword Professor Clark puts it explicitly.
- Using "explicitly" can make your explanation more exact.

---

five-star admiral (noun)

An admiral of the highest rank.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "five-star admiral."
- He looked up "five-star admiral" because he had never seen it before.

---

florence (noun)

A town in northeast South Carolina; transportation center.

- In class, the teacher used "florence" to mean a town in northeast south carolina; transportation....
- The article explained what "florence" means with a simple example.

---

fossil oil (noun)

A dark oil consisting mainly of hydrocarbons.

- He looked up "fossil oil" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fossil oil" to mean a dark oil consisting mainly of hydrocarbons.

---

fourth dimension (noun)

The fourth coordinate that is required (along with three spatial dimensions) to specify a physical event.

- In class, the teacher used "fourth dimension" to mean the fourth coordinate that is required (along with....
- He looked up "fourth dimension" because he had never seen it before.

---

freedom rider (noun)

One of an interracial group of civil rights activists who rode buses through parts of the South in order to protest racial segregation.

- Understanding "freedom rider" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "freedom rider" because he had never seen it before.

---

freshman class (noun)

The first class in college or high school.

- Understanding "freshman class" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "freshman class" means with a simple example.

---

furniture maker (noun)

A woodworker who specializes in making furniture.

- Understanding "furniture maker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "furniture maker."

---

garbage carter (noun)

Someone employed to collect and dispose of refuse.

- In class, the teacher used "garbage carter" to mean someone employed to collect and dispose of refuse.
- The article explained what "garbage carter" means with a simple example.

---

geographic area (noun)

A demarcated area of the Earth.

- Understanding "geographic area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "geographic area" to mean a demarcated area of the earth.

---

geographic point (noun)

A point on the surface of the Earth.

- The article explained what "geographic point" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "geographic point" during the group presentation.

---

hack writer (noun)

A mediocre and disdained writer.

- He looked up "hack writer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hack writer."

---

hes (noun)

A very light colorless element that is one of the six inert gasses; the most difficult gas to liquefy; occurs in economically extractable amounts in certain natural gases (as those found in Texas and Kansas).

- Understanding "hes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hes" to mean a very light colorless element that is one of the....

---

high explosive (noun)

A powerful chemical explosive that produces gas at a very high rate.

- They discussed "high explosive" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high explosive."

---

hispanic american (noun)

An American whose first language is Spanish.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hispanic american."
- Understanding "hispanic american" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hub of the universe (noun)

State capital and largest city of Massachusetts; a major center for banking and financial services.

- In class, the teacher used "hub of the universe" to mean state capital and largest city of massachusetts; a....
- Understanding "hub of the universe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

infantry (noun)

An army unit consisting of soldiers who fight on foot.

- They discussed "infantry" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "infantry" means with a simple example.

---

instrumental role (noun)

The semantic role of the entity (usually inanimate) that the agent uses to perform an action or start a process.

- Understanding "instrumental role" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "instrumental role" because he had never seen it before.

---

integral (noun)

The result of a mathematical integration; F(x) is the integral of f(x) if dF/dx = f(x).

- Understanding “integral” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “integral” because he had never seen it before.

---

investor (noun)

Someone who commits capital in order to gain financial returns.

- Understanding “investor” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “investor” to mean someone who commits capital in order to gain....

---

judged (verb)

Judge tentatively or form an estimate of (quantities or time).

- In everyday English, people use “judged” when talking about this idea.
- Can you use “judged” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

kidnapped (verb)

Take away to an undisclosed location against their will and usually in order to extract a ransom.

- The industrialist’s son was kidnapped.
- She tried to use “kidnapped” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

kidney stone (noun)

A calculus formed in the kidney.

- They discussed “kidney stone” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “kidney stone.”

---

king harold ii (noun)

King of England who succeeded Edward the Confessor in 1066 and was the last of the Anglo-Saxon monarchs; he was killed fighting the invasion by William the Conqueror (1045-1066).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “king harold ii.”
- He looked up “king harold ii” because he had never seen it before.

---

last frontier (noun)

A state in northwestern North America; the 49th state admitted to the union.

- The article explained what “last frontier” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “last frontier” to mean a state in northwestern north america; the 49th....

---

law of constant proportion (noun)

(chemistry) law stating that every pure substance always contains the same elements combined in the same proportions by weight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “law of constant proportion.”
- He looked up “law of constant proportion” because he had never seen it before.

---

lectures (noun)

A speech that is open to the public.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lectures.”
- Understanding “lectures” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lightly (adverb)

Indulging with temperance.

- We eat lightly in the morning.
- One cannot say such things lightly.

---

line of succession (noun)

The order in which individuals are expected to succeed one another in some official position.

- In class, the teacher used “line of succession” to mean the order in which individuals are expected to....
- They discussed “line of succession” during the group presentation.

---

linking (verb)

Connect, fasten, or put together two or more pieces.

- The coach explained when to use “linking” and when to wait.
- Can you use “linking” in a sentence that fits this situation?

maintains (verb)

Keep in a certain state, position, or activity; e.g.,.

- The coach explained when to use "maintains" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "maintains" carefully so everyone would understand.

maritime (adjective)

Relating to or involving ships or shipping or navigation or seamen.

- Maritime law.
- Students compared "maritime" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

melt (noun)

The process whereby heat changes something from a solid to a liquid.

- The power failure caused a refrigerator melt that was a disaster.
- Understanding "melt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mexican black cherry (noun)

Mexican black cherry.

- They discussed "mexican black cherry" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mexican black cherry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mumbai (noun)

A city in western India just off the coast of the Arabian Sea; India's 2nd largest city (after Calcutta); has the only natural deep-water harbor in western India.

- They discussed "mumbai" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mumbai" means with a simple example.

nominee (noun)

A politician who is running for public office.

- The article explained what "nominee" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nominee."

norman architecture (noun)

A Romanesque style first appearing in Normandy around 950 AD and used in Britain from the Norman Conquest until the 12th century.

- He looked up "norman architecture" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "norman architecture" during the group presentation.

oath (noun)

A solemn promise, usually invoking a divine witness, regarding your future acts or behavior.

- They took an oath of allegiance.
- Understanding "oath" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

oral exam (noun)

An examination conducted by spoken communication.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oral exam."
- They discussed "oral exam" during the group presentation.

oral examination (noun)

An examination conducted by spoken communication.

- They discussed "oral examination" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "oral examination" to mean an examination conducted by spoken communication.

packaging (noun)

A message issued in behalf of some product or cause or idea or person or institution.

- The packaging of new ideas.
- His business is packaging for transport.

patent leather (noun)

Leather with a hard glossy surface.

- The article explained what “patent leather” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “patent leather” during the group presentation.

---

pee (noun)

Informal terms for urination.

- He took a pee.
- Understanding “pee” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pirate (verb)

Take arbitrarily or by force.

- In everyday English, people use “pirate” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “pirate” until he saw an example.

---

pitch accent (noun)

Emphasis that results from pitch rather than loudness.

- Understanding “pitch accent” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “pitch accent” to mean emphasis that results from pitch rather than loudness.

---

plug-ugly (noun)

Someone who bullies weaker people.

- He looked up “plug-ugly” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “plug-ugly” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prediction (noun)

The act of predicting (as by reasoning about the future).

- They discussed “prediction” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “prediction” to mean the act of predicting (as by reasoning about the....

---

probability theory (noun)

The branch of applied mathematics that deals with probabilities.

- In class, the teacher used “probability theory” to mean the branch of applied mathematics that deals with....
- The article explained what “probability theory” means with a simple example.

---

puzzle (noun)

A particularly baffling problem that is said to have a correct solution.

- He loved to solve chessmate puzzles.
- That’s a real puzzler.

---

puzzle out (verb)

Find the solution to (a problem or question) or understand the meaning of.

- Work out your problems with the boss.
- This unpleasant situation isn’t going to work itself out.

---

puzzle over (verb)

Try to solve.

- Learners should practice how to use “puzzle over” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “puzzle over” until he saw an example.

---

quebec city (noun)

The French-speaking capital of the province of Quebec; situated on the Saint Lawrence River.

- He looked up “quebec city” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “quebec city” to mean the french-speaking capital of the province of....

---

rebecca (noun)

(Old Testament) wife of Isaac and mother of Jacob and Esau.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rebecca.”

- They discussed “rebecca” during the group presentation.

republic of austria (noun)

A mountainous republic in central Europe; under the Habsburgs (1278-1918) Austria maintained control of the Holy Roman Empire and was a leader in European politics until the 19th century.

- Understanding “republic of austria” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “republic of austria” during the group presentation.

revelation (noun)

An enlightening or astonishing disclosure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “revelation.”
- Understanding “revelation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

robin hood (noun)

Legendary English outlaw of the 12th century; said to have robbed the rich to help the poor.

- In class, the teacher used “robin hood” to mean legendary english outlaw of the 12th century; said....
- The article explained what “robin hood” means with a simple example.

rocket scientist (noun)

An engineer who builds and tests rockets.

- You do not have to be a rocket scientist to figure that out.
- In class, the teacher used “rocket scientist” to mean an engineer who builds and tests rockets.

scholar (noun)

A learned person (especially in the humanities); someone who by long study has gained mastery in one or more disciplines.

- He looked up “scholar” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scholar.”

school superintendent (noun)

The superintendent of a school system.

- In class, the teacher used “school superintendent” to mean the superintendent of a school system.
- They discussed “school superintendent” during the group presentation.

scout car (noun)

Fast armored military vehicle with four-wheel drive and open top.

- In class, the teacher used “scout car” to mean fast armored military vehicle with four-wheel drive....
- Understanding “scout car” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

scout group (noun)

A unit of Girl or Boy Scouts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scout group.”
- The article explained what “scout group” means with a simple example.

sharks (noun)

A person who is unusually skilled in certain ways.

- He looked up “sharks” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “sharks” to mean a person who is unusually skilled in certain ways.

shoe polish (noun)

A substance used to produce a shiny protective surface on footwear.

- Understanding “shoe polish” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “shoe polish” means with a simple example.

sir william chambers (noun)

English architect (1723-1796).

- In class, the teacher used “sir william chambers” to mean english architect (1723-1796).
- The article explained what “sir william chambers” means with a simple example.

skirt (verb)

Pass around or about; move along the border.

- The boat skirted the coast.
- She skirted the problem.

---

socially (adverb)

By or with respect to society.

- Socially accepted norms.
- Socially unpopular.

---

south african monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in South Africa.

- He looked up "south african monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south african monetary unit."

---

spike (noun)

A sharp rise followed by a sharp decline.

- The seismograph showed a sharp spike in response to the temblor.
- Spikes provide greater traction.

---

sprint (verb)

Run very fast, usually for a short distance.

- Learners should practice how to use "sprint" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "sprint" and when to wait.

---

state capitalism (noun)

An economic system that is primarily capitalistic but there is some degree of government ownership of the means of production.

- Understanding "state capitalism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "state capitalism" to mean an economic system that is primarily capitalistic....

---

state's attorney (noun)

A prosecuting attorney for a state.

- The article explained what "state's attorney" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "state's attorney."

---

straw vote (noun)

An unofficial vote taken to determine opinion on some issue.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "straw vote."
- They discussed "straw vote" during the group presentation.

---

substantially (adverb)

To a great extent or degree.

- Painting the room white made it seem considerably (or substantially) larger.
- The price went up substantially.

---

suburbs (noun)

A residential district located on the outskirts of a city.

- In class, the teacher used "suburbs" to mean a residential district located on the outskirts of....
- The article explained what "suburbs" means with a simple example.

---

supposedly (adverb)

Believed or reputed to be the case.

- She spoke "supposedly," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- The narrator describes the scene "supposedly" in the final chapter.

---

sweep through (verb)

Succeed at easily.

- She sailed through her exams.
- He did not know how to use "sweep through" until he saw an example.

---

tendency (noun)

A general direction in which something tends to move.

- The shoreward tendency of the current.
- A tendency to be too strict.

---

theory of probability (noun)

The branch of applied mathematics that deals with probabilities.

- They discussed "theory of probability" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theory of probability."

---

threshold function (noun)

A function that takes the value 1 if a specified function of the arguments exceeds a given threshold and 0 otherwise.

- The article explained what "threshold function" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "threshold function" during the group presentation.

---

toast (noun)

A person in desperate straits; someone doomed.

- One mistake and you're toast.
- He was the toast of the town.

---

trash pile (noun)

An accumulation of refuse and discarded matter.

- Understanding "trash pile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "trash pile" because he had never seen it before.

---

trek (verb)

Journey on foot, especially in the mountains.

- We spent the summer trekking in the foothills of the Himalayas.
- They trekked towards the North Pole with sleds and skis.

---

tribes of israel (noun)

Twelve kin groups of ancient Israel each traditionally descended from one of the twelve sons of Jacob.

- In class, the teacher used "tribes of israel" to mean twelve kin groups of ancient israel each....
- The article explained what "tribes of israel" means with a simple example.

---

triumph (noun)

A successful ending of a struggle or contest.

- The agreement was a triumph for common sense.
- The article explained what "triumph" means with a simple example.

---

victoria sandwich (noun)

A cake consisting of two layers of sponge cake with a jelly filling in between.

- In class, the teacher used "victoria sandwich" to mean a cake consisting of two layers of sponge cake with....
- The article explained what "victoria sandwich" means with a simple example.

---

welcomed (verb)

Bid welcome to; greet upon arrival.

- She tried to use "welcomed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "welcomed" when talking about this idea.

---

wreck (noun)

A serious accident (usually involving one or more vehicles).

- The house was a wreck when they bought it.
- Thanks to that quack I am a human wreck.

zero tolerance (noun)

Extreme intolerance of antisocial behavior (usually by an uncompromising application of the law).

- He urged zero tolerance for priests who abuse children sexually.
- The article explained what "zero tolerance" means with a simple example.

academic administrator (noun)

An administrator in a college or university.

- He looked up "academic administrator" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "academic administrator."

adrian (noun)

English physiologist who conducted research into the function of neurons; 1st baron of Cambridge (1889-1997).

- They discussed "adrian" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "adrian" to mean english physiologist who conducted research into....

advocates (noun)

A person who pleads for a cause or propounds an idea.

- In class, the teacher used "advocates" to mean a person who pleads for a cause or propounds an idea.
- The article explained what "advocates" means with a simple example.

ag (noun)

A soft white precious univalent metallic element having the highest electrical and thermal conductivity of any metal; occurs in argentite and in free form; used in coins and jewelry and tableware and photography.

- Understanding "ag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ag" to mean a soft white precious univalent metallic element....

anchor ring (noun)

A toroidal shape.

- A ring of ships in the harbor.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anchor ring."

arctic zone (noun)

The regions to the north of the Arctic Circle centered on the North Pole.

- Understanding "arctic zone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arctic zone."

bachelor girl (noun)

A young unmarried woman who lives alone.

- He looked up "bachelor girl" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bachelor girl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

banana skin (noun)

The skin of a banana (especially when it is stripped off and discarded).

- He slipped on a banana skin and almost fell.
- He looked up "banana skin" because he had never seen it before.

bargain (noun)

An agreement between parties (usually arrived at after discussion) fixing obligations of each.

- He made a bargain with the devil.
- She got a bargain at the auction.

binary (noun)

A pre-compiled, pre-linked program that is ready to run under a given operating system; a binary for one operating system will not run on a different operating system.

- The article explained what "binary" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "binary" during the group presentation.

blend (noun)

A new word formed by joining two others and combining their meanings.

- 'smog' is a blend of 'smoke' and 'fog'.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blend."

---

blogs (noun)

A shared on-line journal where people can post diary entries about their personal experiences and hobbies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blogs."
- He looked up "blogs" because he had never seen it before.

---

boarding school (noun)

A private school where students are lodged and fed as well as taught.

- In class, the teacher used "boarding school" to mean a private school where students are lodged and fed....
- They discussed "boarding school" during the group presentation.

---

bob dylan (noun)

United States songwriter noted for his protest songs (born in 1941).

- They discussed "bob dylan" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bob dylan" means with a simple example.

---

book of revelation (noun)

The last book of the New Testament; contains visionary descriptions of heaven and of conflicts between good and evil and of the end of the world; attributed to Saint John the Apostle.

- The article explained what "book of revelation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "book of revelation" during the group presentation.

---

businessman (noun)

A person engaged in commercial or industrial business (especially an owner or executive).

- He looked up "businessman" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "businessman" to mean a person engaged in commercial or industrial....

---

cast anchor (verb)

Secure a vessel with an anchor.

- We anchored at Baltimore.
- She tried to use "cast anchor" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

ch'in (noun)

The Chinese dynasty (from 246 BC to 206 BC) that established the first centralized imperial government and built much of the Great Wall.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ch'in."
- The article explained what "ch'in" means with a simple example.

---

charles lamb (noun)

English essayist (1775-1834).

- In class, the teacher used "charles lamb" to mean english essayist (1775-1834).
- He looked up "charles lamb" because he had never seen it before.

---

civic leader (noun)

A leader in municipal affairs.

- The article explained what "civic leader" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "civic leader" to mean a leader in municipal affairs.

---

collision (noun)

A conflict of opposed ideas or attitudes or goals.

- A collision of interests.
- The collision of the particles resulted in an exchange of energy and a change of direction.

---

colombia (noun)

A republic in northwestern South America with a coastline on the Pacific Ocean and the Caribbean Sea; achieved independence from Spain in 1821 under the leadership of Simon Bolivar; Spanish is the official language.

- He looked up "colombia" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “colombia.”

concrete jungle (noun)

An area in a city with large modern buildings that is perceived as dangerous and unpleasant.

- He looked up “concrete jungle” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “concrete jungle.”

consumed (verb)

Use up (resources or materials).

- The fire consumed the building.
- The effort to pass the exam consumed all his energy.

cousins (noun)

The child of your aunt or uncle.

- He looked up “cousins” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “cousins” to mean the child of your aunt or uncle.

czech (adjective)

Of or relating to Czechoslovakia or its people or their language.

- The Czech border.
- Czechoslovak nationalists.

deceased person (noun)

Someone who is no longer alive.

- I wonder what the dead person would have done.
- The article explained what “deceased person” means with a simple example.

defenders (noun)

A person who cares for persons or property.

- Understanding “defenders” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “defenders” because he had never seen it before.

documentation (noun)

Program listings or technical manuals describing the operation and use of programs.

- His documentation of the results was excellent.
- He looked up “documentation” because he had never seen it before.

dramatically (adverb)

In a very impressive manner.

- Your performance will improve dramatically.
- He confessed dramatically.

drank (verb)

Drink excessive amounts of alcohol; be an alcoholic.

- Learners should practice how to use “drank” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “drank” until he saw an example.

drawing ink (noun)

A black liquid ink used for printing or writing or drawing.

- He looked up “drawing ink” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “drawing ink” to mean a black liquid ink used for printing or writing or....

dried milk (noun)

Dehydrated milk.

- The article explained what “dried milk” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “dried milk” to mean dehydrated milk.

duck sauce (noun)

A thick sweet and pungent Chinese condiment.

- In class, the teacher used "duck sauce" to mean a thick sweet and pungent chinese condiment.
- The article explained what "duck sauce" means with a simple example.

---

dudes (noun)

An informal form of address for a man.

- They discussed "dudes" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dudes" to mean an informal form of address for a man.

---

eats (noun)

Informal terms for a meal.

- The article explained what "eats" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "eats" to mean informal terms for a meal.

---

economic geography (noun)

The branch of geography concerned with the production and distribution of commodities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "economic geography."
- He looked up "economic geography" because he had never seen it before.

---

edward vi (noun)

King of England and Ireland from 1547 to 1553; son of Henry VIII and Jane Seymour; died of tuberculosis (1537-1553).

- He looked up "edward vi" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "edward vi" during the group presentation.

---

excuses (noun)

A defense of some offensive behavior or some failure to keep a promise etc.

- He kept finding excuses to stay.
- In class, the teacher used "excuses" to mean a defense of some offensive behavior or some....

---

execute (verb)

Kill as a means of socially sanctioned punishment.

- In some states, criminals are executed.
- The Mafioso who collaborated with the police was executed.

---

feast (noun)

A meal that is well prepared and greatly enjoyed.

- The Thanksgiving feast.
- A feast for the eyes.

---

feast day (noun)

A day designated for feasting.

- They discussed "feast day" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "feast day" because he had never seen it before.

---

finland (noun)

Republic in northern Europe; achieved independence from Russia in 1917.

- In class, the teacher used "finland" to mean republic in northern europe; achieved independence....
- He looked up "finland" because he had never seen it before.

---

folk tale (noun)

A tale circulated by word of mouth among the common folk.

- In class, the teacher used "folk tale" to mean a tale circulated by word of mouth among the common....
- He looked up "folk tale" because he had never seen it before.

---

forbidden city (noun)

A walled section of Beijing that encloses the palace that was formerly the residence of the emperor of China.

- He looked up "forbidden city" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "forbidden city" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

francis bacon (noun)

English statesman and philosopher; precursor of British empiricism; advocated inductive reasoning (1561-1626).

- They discussed "francis bacon" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "francis bacon."

---

frederick (noun)

A town in northern Maryland to the west of Baltimore.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frederick."
- He looked up "frederick" because he had never seen it before.

---

frederick i (noun)

Son of Frederick William who in 1701 became the first king of Prussia (1657-1713).

- In class, the teacher used "frederick i" to mean son of frederick william who in 1701 became the....
- Understanding "frederick i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

freight train (noun)

A railroad train consisting of freight cars.

- They discussed "freight train" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freight train."

---

french bean (noun)

Very small and slender green bean.

- In class, the teacher used "french bean" to mean very small and slender green bean.
- They discussed "french bean" during the group presentation.

---

frost (noun)

The formation of frost or ice on a surface.

- In class, the teacher used "frost" to mean the formation of frost or ice on a surface.
- They discussed "frost" during the group presentation.

---

george stevens (noun)

United States filmmaker (1905-1975).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "george stevens."
- Understanding "george stevens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

girl scout (noun)

A girl who is a member of the Girl Scouts.

- In class, the teacher used "girl scout" to mean a girl who is a member of the girl scouts.
- Understanding "girl scout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gulf of thailand (noun)

An arm of the South China Sea between Indochina and the Malay Peninsula.

- Understanding "gulf of thailand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "gulf of thailand" because he had never seen it before.

---

harvest moon (noun)

The full moon nearest the September equinox.

- Understanding "harvest moon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "harvest moon" means with a simple example.

---

herald (noun)

(formal) a person who announces important news.

- The chieftain had a herald who announced his arrival with a trumpet.
- In class, the teacher used "herald" to mean (formal) a person who announces important news.

hollow (noun)

A cavity or space in something.

- Hunger had caused the hollows in their cheeks.
- He built himself a cabin in a hollow high up in the Appalachians.

hollow out (verb)

Remove the interior of.

- Hollow out a tree trunk.
- He did not know how to use "hollow out" until he saw an example.

homeland (noun)

The country where you were born.

- In class, the teacher used "homeland" to mean the country where you were born.
- Understanding "homeland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hotel clerk (noun)

A hotel receptionist.

- The article explained what "hotel clerk" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hotel clerk" to mean a hotel receptionist.

hudson bay (noun)

An inland sea in northern Canada.

- The article explained what "hudson bay" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hudson bay" during the group presentation.

in the bargain (adverb)

In addition; over and above what is expected.

- He lost his wife in the bargain.
- Place "in the bargain" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

innocent xi (noun)

Italian pope from 1676 to 1689 whose papacy was marked by the struggle with Louis XIV of France over papal authority over French Catholics; known for saintliness and canonized in 1956 (1611-1689).

- The article explained what "innocent xi" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "innocent xi" to mean italian pope from 1676 to 1689 whose papacy was....

intelligence analyst (noun)

A government analyst of information about an enemy or potential enemy.

- They discussed "intelligence analyst" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "intelligence analyst" to mean a government analyst of information about an enemy....

international association of lions clubs (noun)

Club dedicated to promoting responsible citizenship and good government and community and national and international welfare.

- In class, the teacher used "international association of lions clubs" to mean club dedicated to promoting responsible citizenship....
- They discussed "international association of lions clubs" during the group presentation.

internationally (adverb)

Throughout the world.

- She is internationally known.
- Using "internationally" can make your explanation more exact.

into the bargain (adverb)

In addition; over and above what is expected.

- He lost his wife in the bargain.
- Using "into the bargain" can make your explanation more exact.

iraqi (adjective)

Of or relating to Iraq or its people or culture.

- Iraqi oil.
- Iraqi refugees.

---

italian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Italy.

- They discussed "italian monetary unit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "italian monetary unit."

---

john glenn (noun)

Made the first orbital rocket-powered flight by a United States astronaut in 1962; later in United States Senate (1921-).

- They discussed "john glenn" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "john glenn" means with a simple example.

---

joint chiefs of staff (noun)

The executive agency that advises the President on military questions; composed of the chiefs of the United States Army and the United States Navy and the United States Air Force and the commandant of the United States Marine Corps.

- They discussed "joint chiefs of staff" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "joint chiefs of staff" means with a simple example.

---

junk mail (noun)

Third-class mail consisting of advertising and often addressed to 'resident' or 'occupant'.

- The article explained what "junk mail" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "junk mail" to mean third-class mail consisting of advertising and....

---

licensing (verb)

Authorize officially.

- She tried to use "licensing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "licensing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

limiting (noun)

The grammatical relation that exists when a word qualifies the meaning of the phrase.

- The article explained what "limiting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "limiting" to mean the grammatical relation that exists when a word....

---

low explosive (noun)

An explosive with a low rate of combustion.

- They discussed "low explosive" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "low explosive" because he had never seen it before.

---

mainland (noun)

The main land mass of a country or continent; as distinguished from an island or peninsula.

- Understanding "mainland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mainland."

---

mathematical proof (noun)

Proof of a mathematical theorem.

- He looked up "mathematical proof" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mathematical proof."

---

mechanical mixture (noun)

A mixture whose components can be separated by mechanical means.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mechanical mixture."
- He looked up "mechanical mixture" because he had never seen it before.

---

medieval mode (noun)

Any of a system of modes used in Gregorian chants up until 1600; derived historically from the Greek mode.

- Understanding "medieval mode" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "medieval mode" during the group presentation.

---

mediterranean sea (noun)

The largest inland sea; between Europe and Africa and Asia.

- He looked up "mediterranean sea" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mediterranean sea."

---

merchant marine (noun)

The crew of a merchant vessel.

- In class, the teacher used "merchant marine" to mean the crew of a merchant vessel.
- They discussed "merchant marine" during the group presentation.

---

messenger (noun)

A person who carries a message.

- The article explained what "messenger" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "messenger" to mean a person who carries a message.

---

metals (noun)

A mixture containing two or more metallic elements or metallic and nonmetallic elements usually fused together or dissolving into each other when molten.

- He looked up "metals" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "metals" during the group presentation.

---

miracle worker (noun)

A person who claims or is alleged to perform miracles.

- The article explained what "miracle worker" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "miracle worker" to mean a person who claims or is alleged to perform miracles.

---

molecular formula (noun)

A chemical formula based on analysis and molecular weight.

- Understanding "molecular formula" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "molecular formula" because he had never seen it before.

---

munich (noun)

The capital and largest city of Bavaria in southwestern Germany.

- Understanding "munich" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "munich" because he had never seen it before.

---

new norwegian (noun)

One of two official languages of Norway; based on rural dialects.

- In class, the teacher used "new norwegian" to mean one of two official languages of norway; based on....
- He looked up "new norwegian" because he had never seen it before.

---

norwegian (adjective)

Of or relating to Norway or its people or culture or language.

- Norwegian herring.
- Students compared "norwegian" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

optical crown (noun)

Optical glass of low dispersion and low refractive index.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "optical crown."
- He looked up "optical crown" because he had never seen it before.

---

philosophical (adjective)

Of or relating to philosophy or philosophers.

- Philosophical writing.
- A considerable knowledge of philosophical terminology.

photo-offset (noun)

A method of offset printing using photomechanical plates.

- He looked up "photo-offset" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "photo-offset" during the group presentation.

pierre (noun)

Capital of the state of South Dakota; located in central South Dakota on the Missouri river.

- They discussed "pierre" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pierre" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pit-a-pat (adverb)

Describing a rhythmic beating.

- His heart went pit-a-pat.
- He came running pit-a-pat down the hall.

plasma (noun)

A green slightly translucent variety of chalcedony used as a gemstone.

- Particles in space exist in the form of a plasma.
- Understanding "plasma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

plea (noun)

A humble request for help from someone in authority.

- He looked up "plea" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plea."

pull up stakes (verb)

Remove oneself from an association with or participation in.

- After 20 years with the same company, she pulled up stakes.
- In everyday English, people use "pull up stakes" when talking about this idea.

punish (verb)

Impose a penalty on; inflict punishment on.

- We had to punish the dog for soiling the floor again.
- In everyday English, people use "punish" when talking about this idea.

rabbit hole (noun)

A hole in the ground as a nest made by wild rabbits.

- He looked up "rabbit hole" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rabbit hole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

reagan (noun)

40th President of the United States (1911-2004).

- He looked up "reagan" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "reagan" to mean 40th president of the united states (1911-2004).

replies (noun)

The speech act of continuing a conversational exchange.

- He wrote replies to several of his critics.
- In class, the teacher used "replies" to mean the speech act of continuing a conversational exchange.

republic of chile (noun)

A republic in southern South America on the western slopes of the Andes on the south Pacific coast.

- He looked up "republic of chile" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of chile."

republic of guinea (noun)

A republic in western Africa on the Atlantic; formerly a French colony; achieved independence from France in 1958.

- In class, the teacher used "republic of guinea" to mean a republic in western africa on the atlantic;....
- The article explained what "republic of guinea" means with a simple example.

---

retained object (noun)

An object in a passive construction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "retained object."
- The article explained what "retained object" means with a simple example.

---

revolutionary people's struggle (noun)

An extreme leftist terrorist group formed in Greece in 1971 to oppose the military junta that ruled Greece from 1967 to 1974; a revolutionary group opposed to capitalism and imperialism and the United States.

- The article explained what "revolutionary people's struggle" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "revolutionary people's struggle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rico act (noun)

Law intended to eradicate organized crime by establishing strong sanctions and forfeiture provisions.

- They discussed "rico act" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rico act" to mean law intended to eradicate organized crime by....

---

roger bacon (noun)

English scientist and Franciscan monk who stressed the importance of experimentation; first showed that air is required for combustion and first used lenses to correct vision (1220-1292).

- He looked up "roger bacon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roger bacon."

---

rub along (verb)

Manage one's existence barely.

- She tried to use "rub along" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "rub along" in real sentences.

---

saint vincent (noun)

An island in the center of the Windward Islands; the largest of the islands comprising Saint Vincent and the Grenadines.

- Understanding "saint vincent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "saint vincent" because he had never seen it before.

---

self-report personality inventory (noun)

A personality inventory in which a person is asked which of a list of traits and characteristics describe her or him or to indicate which behaviors and hypothetical choices he or she would make.

- They discussed "self-report personality inventory" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-report personality inventory."

---

sigh (noun)

A sound like a person sighing.

- She heard the sigh of the wind in the trees.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sigh."

---

signal detection (noun)

The detection that a signal is being received.

- The article explained what "signal detection" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "signal detection" to mean the detection that a signal is being received.

---

sir arthur john evans (noun)

British archaeologist who excavated the palace of Knossos in Crete to find what he called Minoan civilization (1851-1941).

- In class, the teacher used "sir arthur john evans" to mean british archaeologist who excavated the palace of....
- The article explained what "sir arthur john evans" means with a simple example.

---

sir william wallace (noun)

Scottish insurgent who led the resistance to Edward I; in 1297 he gained control of Scotland briefly until Edward invaded Scotland again and defeated Wallace and subsequently executed him (1270-1305).

- In class, the teacher used "sir william wallace" to mean scottish insurgent who led the resistance to edward....
- They discussed "sir william wallace" during the group presentation.

---

sixteen (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of fifteen and one.

- In class, the teacher used "sixteen" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of fifteen and one.
- They discussed "sixteen" during the group presentation.

---

skilled worker (noun)

A worker who has acquired special skills.

- Understanding "skilled worker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "skilled worker" during the group presentation.

---

snake pit (noun)

Any place of pain and turmoil.

- When you're alone Christmas is the pits.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snake pit."

---

sovereign (noun)

A nation's ruler or head of state usually by hereditary right.

- In class, the teacher used "sovereign" to mean a nation's ruler or head of state usually by....
- They discussed "sovereign" during the group presentation.

---

special weapons and tactics squad (noun)

A squad of policemen who have been trained to deal with violent and dangerous situations.

- He looked up "special weapons and tactics squad" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "special weapons and tactics squad" during the group presentation.

---

specifications (noun)

A detailed description of design criteria for a piece of work.

- He looked up "specifications" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "specifications" to mean a detailed description of design criteria for a....

---

spends (verb)

Pass time in a specific way.

- He did not know how to use "spends" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "spends" in real sentences.

---

spouse (noun)

A person's partner in marriage.

- They discussed "spouse" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "spouse" because he had never seen it before.

---

syrian desert (noun)

A desert of northern Arabia occupying western Iraq, southern Syria, eastern Jordan, and northern Saudi Arabia.

- The article explained what "syrian desert" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "syrian desert" to mean a desert of northern arabia occupying western iraq,....

---

thomas bradley (noun)

United States politician who was elected the first black mayor of Los Angeles (1917-1998).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thomas bradley."
- He looked up "thomas bradley" because he had never seen it before.

---

tom bradley (noun)

United States politician who was elected the first black mayor of Los Angeles (1917-1998).

- The article explained what "tom bradley" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tom bradley."

tom thumb (noun)

An imaginary hero of English folklore who was no taller than his father's thumb.

- In class, the teacher used "tom thumb" to mean an imaginary hero of english folklore who was no....
- He looked up "tom thumb" because he had never seen it before.

toyota (noun)

An industrial city of Japan in southern Honshu.

- In class, the teacher used "toyota" to mean an industrial city of japan in southern honshu.
- He looked up "toyota" because he had never seen it before.

troy (noun)

An ancient city in Asia Minor that was the site of the Trojan War.

- In class, the teacher used "troy" to mean an ancient city in asia minor that was the site of....
- He looked up "troy" because he had never seen it before.

varieties (noun)

A collection containing a variety of sorts of things.

- Varieties are frequently recognized in botany.
- In class, the teacher used "varieties" to mean a collection containing a variety of sorts of things.

vertical angle (noun)

Either of two equal and opposite angles formed by the intersection of two straight lines.

- They discussed "vertical angle" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vertical angle."

waist-high (adverb)

Up to the waist.

- The water rose waist-high.
- The narrator describes the scene "waist-high" in the final chapter.

waking (noun)

The state of remaining awake.

- Days of danger and nights of waking.
- They discussed "waking" during the group presentation.

whale oil (noun)

A white to brown oil obtained from whale blubber; formerly used as an illuminant.

- The article explained what "whale oil" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "whale oil" during the group presentation.

wilderness (noun)

A wild and uninhabited area left in its natural condition.

- It was a wilderness preserved for the hawks and mountaineers.
- He led the Democratic party back from the wilderness.

william shakespeare (noun)

English poet and dramatist considered one of the greatest English writers (1564-1616).

- The article explained what "william shakespeare" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "william shakespeare."

admits (verb)

Declare to be true or admit the existence or reality or truth of.

- This pipe admits air.
- This problem admits of no solution.

adviser (noun)

An expert who gives advice.

- An adviser helped students select their courses.
- In class, the teacher used "adviser" to mean an expert who gives advice.

---

aggregate (noun)

A sum total of many heterogenous things taken together.

- They discussed "aggregate" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "aggregate" means with a simple example.

---

allied command europe (noun)

A major strategic headquarters of NATO; safeguards an area extending from Norway to Turkey.

- He looked up "allied command europe" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "allied command europe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

anal (adjective)

Of or related to the anus.

- Anal thermometer.
- Students compared "anal" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

announces (verb)

Announce publicly or officially.

- The coach explained when to use "announces" and when to wait.
- Can you use "announces" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

applicants (noun)

A person who requests or seeks something such as assistance or employment or admission.

- The article explained what "applicants" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "applicants" to mean a person who requests or seeks something such as....

---

au pair (noun)

A young foreigner who lives with a family in return for doing light housework.

- Understanding "au pair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "au pair" because he had never seen it before.

---

b-complex vitamin (noun)

Originally thought to be a single vitamin but now separated into several B vitamins.

- The article explained what "b-complex vitamin" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "b-complex vitamin" during the group presentation.

---

bachelor of science (noun)

A bachelor's degree in science.

- The article explained what "bachelor of science" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bachelor of science" to mean a bachelor's degree in science.

---

bacon strip (noun)

A slice of bacon.

- They discussed "bacon strip" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bacon strip."

---

bare bones (noun)

(plural) the most basic facts or elements.

- He told us only the bare bones of the story.
- They discussed "bare bones" during the group presentation.

---

big businessman (noun)

A very wealthy or powerful businessman.

- In class, the teacher used "big businessman" to mean a very wealthy or powerful businessman.

- Understanding "big businessman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

binary system (noun)

A positional system of numeration that uses binary digits and a radix of two.

- He looked up "binary system" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "binary system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

boy scout (noun)

A man who is considered naive.

- Understanding "boy scout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "boy scout" to mean a man who is considered naive.

camping bus (noun)

A recreational vehicle equipped for camping out while traveling.

- They discussed "camping bus" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "camping bus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

candy corn (noun)

A small yellow and white candy shaped to resemble a kernel of corn.

- The article explained what "candy corn" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "candy corn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of nebraska (noun)

Capital of the state of Nebraska; located in southeastern Nebraska; site of the University of Nebraska.

- Understanding "capital of nebraska" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of nebraska" to mean capital of the state of nebraska; located in....

capitol hill (noun)

A hill in Washington, D.C., where the Capitol Building sits and Congress meets.

- They are debating the budget today on Capitol Hill.
- They discussed "capitol hill" during the group presentation.

cement (noun)

Concrete pavement is sometimes referred to as cement.

- They stood on the grey cement beside the pool.
- In class, the teacher used "cement" to mean concrete pavement is sometimes referred to as cement.

cheese dip (noun)

A dip made of cheeses.

- He looked up "cheese dip" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheese dip."

citing (verb)

Refer to for illustration or proof.

- She tried to use "citing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "citing" when talking about this idea.

clan member (noun)

A member of a clan.

- He looked up "clan member" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clan member."

club steak (noun)

Small steak from the front of the short loin of beef.

- In class, the teacher used "club steak" to mean small steak from the front of the short loin of beef.
- Understanding "club steak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

collision course (noun)

A course of a moving object that will lead to a collision if it continues unchanged.

- They discussed "collision course" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "collision course" because he had never seen it before.

---

colonies (noun)

A place where a group of people with the same interest or occupation are concentrated.

- Understanding "colonies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "colonies" to mean a place where a group of people with the same....

---

common fraction (noun)

The quotient of two integers.

- They discussed "common fraction" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "common fraction" means with a simple example.

---

composite (noun)

A conceptual whole made up of complicated and related parts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "composite."
- They discussed "composite" during the group presentation.

---

consequently (adverb)

(sentence connectors) because of the reason given.

- Consequently, he didn't do it.
- He had good reason to be grateful for the opportunities which they had made available to him and which consequently led to the good position he now held.

---

consist (verb)

Be consistent in form, tenor, or character; be congruous.

- Desires are to be satisfied only so far as consists with an approved end.
- The payment consists in food.

---

constant quantity (noun)

A quantity that does not vary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "constant quantity."
- Understanding "constant quantity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

corn beef (noun)

Beef cured or pickled in brine.

- He looked up "corn beef" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corn beef."

---

corn chip (noun)

Thin piece of cornmeal dough fried.

- He looked up "corn chip" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "corn chip" during the group presentation.

---

cox (noun)

The helmsman of a ship's boat or a racing crew.

- In class, the teacher used "cox" to mean the helmsman of a ship's boat or a racing crew.
- Understanding "cox" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cream soda (noun)

Sweet carbonated drink flavored with vanilla.

- The article explained what "cream soda" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cream soda" during the group presentation.

---

curtis (noun)

English botanical writer and publisher (1746-1799).

- In class, the teacher used "curtis" to mean english botanical writer and publisher (1746-1799).
- The article explained what "curtis" means with a simple example.

---

delegates (noun)

A person appointed or elected to represent others.

- In class, the teacher used "delegates" to mean a person appointed or elected to represent others.
- He looked up "delegates" because he had never seen it before.

---

desk sergeant (noun)

The police sergeant on duty in a police station.

- He looked up "desk sergeant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "desk sergeant" to mean the police sergeant on duty in a police station.

---

dirty laundry (noun)

Personal matters that could be embarrassing if made public.

- They discussed "dirty laundry" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dirty laundry" means with a simple example.

---

distinctive feature (noun)

An odd or unusual characteristic.

- Understanding "distinctive feature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "distinctive feature" to mean an odd or unusual characteristic.

---

distress call (noun)

An internationally recognized signal sent out by a ship or plane indicating that help is needed.

- They discussed "distress call" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "distress call" means with a simple example.

---

douglas moore (noun)

United States composer of works noted for their use of the American vernacular (1893-1969).

- The article explained what "douglas moore" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "douglas moore" to mean united states composer of works noted for their use....

---

elevator car (noun)

Where passengers ride up and down.

- The car was on the top floor.
- Understanding "elevator car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

elevator man (noun)

A man employed to operate an elevator.

- In England they call an elevator man a liftman.
- Understanding "elevator man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fare (noun)

An agenda of things to do.

- In class, the teacher used "fare" to mean an agenda of things to do.
- The article explained what "fare" means with a simple example.

---

float (verb)

Be in motion due to some air or water current.

- He floated the logs down the river.
- The boy floated his toy boat on the pond.

---

frederick the great (noun)

King of Prussia from 1740 to 1786; brought Prussia military prestige by winning the War of the Austrian Succession and the Seven Years' War (1712-1786).

- They discussed "frederick the great" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frederick the great."

fried rice (noun)

Boiled rice mixed with scallions and minced pork or shrimp and quickly scrambled with eggs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fried rice."
- He looked up "fried rice" because he had never seen it before.

frozen orange juice (noun)

Orange juice that has been concentrated and frozen.

- He looked up "frozen orange juice" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frozen orange juice."

gentleman johnny (noun)

British general in the American Revolution who captured Fort Ticonderoga but lost the battle of Saratoga in 1777 (1722-1792).

- They discussed "gentleman johnny" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gentleman johnny."

gospel according to matthew (noun)

One of the Gospels in the New Testament; includes the Sermon on the Mount.

- The article explained what "gospel according to matthew" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "gospel according to matthew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grind down (verb)

Rule a country as a tyrant.

- She tried to use "grind down" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "grind down" and when to wait.

grinding (noun)

Material resulting from the process of grinding.

- Vegetable grindings clogged the drain.
- He looked up "grinding" because he had never seen it before.

guessing (noun)

An estimate based on little or no information.

- They discussed "guessing" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guessing."

gum (verb)

Cover, fill, fix or smear with or as if with gum.

- If you gum the tape it is stronger.
- These trees gum in the Spring.

gum up (verb)

Stick together as if with gum.

- The inside of the pipe has gummed up.
- She tried to use "gum up" carefully so everyone would understand.

half-wit (noun)

A stupid incompetent person.

- He looked up "half-wit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "half-wit" during the group presentation.

hard-cooked egg (noun)

An egg boiled gently until both the white and the yolk solidify.

- In class, the teacher used "hard-cooked egg" to mean an egg boiled gently until both the white and the....
- They discussed "hard-cooked egg" during the group presentation.

heavy hydrogen (noun)

An isotope of hydrogen which has one neutron (as opposed to zero neutrons in hydrogen).

- The article explained what "heavy hydrogen" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heavy hydrogen."

---

holy roller (noun)

A member of a religion that expresses ecstatic fervor.

- He looked up "holy roller" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "holy roller" to mean a member of a religion that expresses ecstatic fervor.

---

hostile witness (noun)

A witness whose relationship to the opposing party is such that his or her testimony may be prejudiced against the opposing party.

- A hostile witness can be asked leading questions and cross-examined.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hostile witness."

---

hunters (noun)

A person who searches for something.

- The article explained what "hunters" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hunters."

---

illusion (noun)

Something many people believe that is false.

- They have the illusion that I am very wealthy.
- The article explained what "illusion" means with a simple example.

---

independent clause (noun)

A clause in a complex sentence that can stand alone as a complete sentence.

- They discussed "independent clause" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "independent clause" means with a simple example.

---

italian peninsula (noun)

A boot-shaped peninsula in southern Europe extending into the Mediterranean Sea.

- They discussed "italian peninsula" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "italian peninsula" means with a simple example.

---

killer bee (noun)

An investment banker who devises strategies to make a target company less attractive for takeover.

- The article explained what "killer bee" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "killer bee" during the group presentation.

---

kingdom of denmark (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in northern Europe; consists of the mainland of Jutland and many islands between the North Sea and the Baltic Sea.

- Understanding "kingdom of denmark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "kingdom of denmark" to mean a constitutional monarchy in northern europe;....

---

lance (verb)

Move quickly, as if by cutting one's way.

- Planes lanced towards the shore.
- Lance a boil.

---

leap (noun)

A sudden and decisive increase.

- A successful leap from college to the major leagues.
- A leap of 10 feet.

---

leap day (noun)

The name of the day that is added during a leap year.

- In class, the teacher used "leap day" to mean the name of the day that is added during a leap year.

- They discussed “leap day” during the group presentation.

leap out (verb)

Jump out from a hiding place and surprise (someone).

- The attackers leapt out from the bushes.
- She tried to use “leap out” carefully so everyone would understand.

leap year (noun)

In the Gregorian calendar: any year divisible by 4 except centenary years divisible by 400.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “leap year.”
- He looked up “leap year” because he had never seen it before.

leo the lion (noun)

The fifth sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about July 23 to August 22.

- They discussed “leo the lion” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “leo the lion.”

lottery winner (noun)

The winner of a lottery.

- Understanding “lottery winner” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “lottery winner” means with a simple example.

lynch (verb)

Kill without legal sanction.

- The blood-thirsty mob lynched the alleged killer of the child.
- She tried to use “lynch” carefully so everyone would understand.

manages (verb)

Be successful; achieve a goal.

- Learners should practice how to use “manages” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “manages” and when to wait.

masses (noun)

The common people generally.

- He looked up “masses” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “masses” to mean the common people generally.

mother wit (noun)

Sound practical judgment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mother wit.”
- The article explained what “mother wit” means with a simple example.

motive (noun)

The psychological feature that arouses an organism to action toward a desired goal; the reason for the action; that which gives purpose and direction to behavior.

- He acted with the best of motives.
- In class, the teacher used “motive” to mean the psychological feature that arouses an organism....

nazis (noun)

A German member of Adolf Hitler’s political party.

- The article explained what “nazis” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “nazis” to mean a german member of adolf hitler’s political party.

neighbourhood (noun)

A surrounding or nearby region.

- The article explained what “neighbourhood” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “neighbourhood” to mean a surrounding or nearby region.

networking (verb)

Communicate with and within a group.

- The coach explained when to use "networking" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "networking" until he saw an example.

---

newton (noun)

A unit of force equal to the force that imparts an acceleration of 1 m/sec/sec to a mass of 1 kilogram; equal to 100,000 dynes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "newton."
- The article explained what "newton" means with a simple example.

---

nuclear fusion (noun)

A nuclear reaction in which nuclei combine to form more massive nuclei with the simultaneous release of energy.

- He looked up "nuclear fusion" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nuclear fusion."

---

oppose (verb)

Set into opposition or rivalry.

- We oppose the ban on abortion.
- The senator said he would oppose the bill.

---

orange soda (noun)

Orange-flavored carbonated drink.

- They discussed "orange soda" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "orange soda" because he had never seen it before.

---

ore processing (noun)

Crushing and separating ore into valuable substances or waste by any of a variety of techniques.

- The article explained what "ore processing" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ore processing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

packs (noun)

A large indefinite number.

- Understanding "packs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "packs" to mean a large indefinite number.

---

philosophical system (noun)

A belief (or system of beliefs) accepted as authoritative by some group or school.

- In class, the teacher used "philosophical system" to mean a belief (or system of beliefs) accepted as....
- Understanding "philosophical system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

physical geography (noun)

The study of physical features of the earth's surface.

- They discussed "physical geography" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "physical geography."

---

polar star (noun)

The brightest star in Ursa Minor; at the end of the handle of the Little Dipper; the northern axis of the earth points toward it.

- Understanding "polar star" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polar star."

---

pops (noun)

A sweet drink containing carbonated water and flavoring.

- In class, the teacher used "pops" to mean a sweet drink containing carbonated water and flavoring.
- Understanding "pops" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

postal (adjective)

Of or relating to the system for delivering mail.

- Postal delivery.
- A "postal" approach may work better in this case.

---

predictions (noun)

The act of predicting (as by reasoning about the future).

- In class, the teacher used "predictions" to mean the act of predicting (as by reasoning about the....
- They discussed "predictions" during the group presentation.

---

president reagan (noun)

40th President of the United States (1911-2004).

- Understanding "president reagan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "president reagan" means with a simple example.

---

prosecutor (noun)

A government official who conducts criminal prosecutions on behalf of the state.

- In class, the teacher used "prosecutor" to mean a government official who conducts criminal....
- Understanding "prosecutor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rap sheet (noun)

The daily written record of events (as arrests) in a police station.

- He looked up "rap sheet" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rap sheet" to mean the daily written record of events (as arrests) in....

---

rebecca west (noun)

British writer (born in Ireland) (1892-1983).

- He looked up "rebecca west" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rebecca west" to mean british writer (born in ireland) (1892-1983).

---

recipient (noun)

The semantic role of the animate entity that is passively involved in the happening denoted by the verb in the clause.

- The article explained what "recipient" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "recipient" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reconstruction period (noun)

The period after the American Civil War when the southern states were reorganized and reintegrated into the Union; 1865-1877.

- They discussed "reconstruction period" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "reconstruction period" to mean the period after the american civil war when the....

---

remembering (noun)

The cognitive processes whereby past experience is remembered.

- He enjoyed remembering his father.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "remembering."

---

republic of the marshall islands (noun)

A republic (under United States protection) on the Marshall Islands.

- He looked up "republic of the marshall islands" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of the marshall islands."

---

round steak (noun)

A lean cut of beef from between the rump and the shank.

- He looked up "round steak" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "round steak."

---

sailing master (noun)

The ship's officer in charge of navigation.

- They discussed "sailing master" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sailing master" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

scare quote (noun)

The use of quotation marks to indicate that it is not the authors preferred terminology.

- In class, the teacher used "scare quote" to mean the use of quotation marks to indicate that it is....
- The article explained what "scare quote" means with a simple example.

sea scout (noun)

A Boy Scout enrolled in programs for water activities.

- The article explained what "sea scout" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sea scout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

senior chief petty officer (noun)

A senior noncommissioned officer in the Navy or Coast Guard with a rank comparable to master sergeant in the Army.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "senior chief petty officer."
- He looked up "senior chief petty officer" because he had never seen it before.

sep (noun)

The month following August and preceding October.

- He looked up "sep" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sep."

shallow-draft (adjective)

Of vessels whose keel is not far below the waterline.

- A shallow-draft river boat.
- Students compared "shallow-draft" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

shareholders (noun)

Someone who holds shares of stock in a corporation.

- In class, the teacher used "shareholders" to mean someone who holds shares of stock in a corporation.
- The article explained what "shareholders" means with a simple example.

sided (verb)

Take sides for or against; ; m siding against the current candidate".

- He did not know how to use "sided" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "sided" and when to wait.

sir richard owen (noun)

English comparative anatomist and paleontologist who was an opponent of Darwinism (1804-1892).

- In class, the teacher used "sir richard owen" to mean english comparative anatomist and paleontologist....
- He looked up "sir richard owen" because he had never seen it before.

slave dealer (noun)

A person engaged in slave trade.

- He looked up "slave dealer" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "slave dealer" to mean a person engaged in slave trade.

small businessman (noun)

A businessman who runs a business employing less than 100 people.

- The article explained what "small businessman" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "small businessman" to mean a businessman who runs a business employing less....

sober (verb)

Become sober after excessive alcohol consumption.

- Keep him in bed until he sobers up.
- A sobering thought.

sober up (verb)

Become sober after excessive alcohol consumption.

- Keep him in bed until he sobers up.
- After thinking about the potential consequences of his plan, he sobered up.

---

soviet socialist republic (noun)

One of the states that formerly made up the former Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (1922-1991).

- They discussed "soviet socialist republic" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "soviet socialist republic" means with a simple example.

---

speed bump (noun)

A hindrance to speeding created by a crosswise ridge in the surface of a roadway.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "speed bump."
- The article explained what "speed bump" means with a simple example.

---

spice up (verb)

Make more interesting or flavorful.

- Spice up the evening by inviting a belly dancer.
- Can you use "spice up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

squeeze (verb)

To compress with violence, out of natural shape or condition.

- Squeeze a lemon.
- He squeezed my hand.

---

squeeze by (verb)

Manage one's existence barely.

- I guess I can squeeze by on this lousy salary.
- Can you use "squeeze by" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

squeeze out (verb)

Extract (liquid) by squeezing or pressing.

- Wring out the washcloth.
- Some employees were squeezed out by the recent budget cuts.

---

suspects (verb)

Imagine to be the case or true or probable.

- She tried to use "suspects" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "suspects" in real sentences.

---

technological revolution (noun)

The transformation from an agricultural to an industrial nation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "technological revolution."
- He looked up "technological revolution" because he had never seen it before.

---

tense system (noun)

A system of tenses used in a particular language.

- He looked up "tense system" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tense system" to mean a system of tenses used in a particular language.

---

terrain (noun)

A piece of ground having specific characteristics or military potential.

- They decided to attack across the rocky terrain.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "terrain."

---

threaten (verb)

To be a menacing indication of something:.

- The clouds threaten rain.

- Danger threatens.

tire iron (noun)

Hand tool consisting of a lever that is used to force the casing of a pneumatic tire onto a steel wheel.

- Understanding "tire iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tire iron" means with a simple example.

toilet soap (noun)

Soap used as a toiletry.

- Understanding "toilet soap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "toilet soap" because he had never seen it before.

towel (noun)

A rectangular piece of absorbent cloth (or paper) for drying or wiping.

- The article explained what "towel" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "towel" during the group presentation.

trunk route (noun)

Line that is the main route on a railway.

- The article explained what "trunk route" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "trunk route" during the group presentation.

tubes (noun)

An electric railway operating below the surface of the ground (usually in a city).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tubes."
- The article explained what "tubes" means with a simple example.

unknown quantity (noun)

A factor in a given situation whose bearing and importance is not apparent.

- I don't know what the new man will do; he's still an unknown quantity.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "unknown quantity."

upper cannon (noun)

Cannon that provides plate armor for the upper arm.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "upper cannon."
- He looked up "upper cannon" because he had never seen it before.

vacuum chamber (noun)

A chamber from which nearly all matter (especially air) has been removed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vacuum chamber."
- Understanding "vacuum chamber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

vector product (noun)

A vector that is the product of two other vectors.

- Understanding "vector product" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "vector product" to mean a vector that is the product of two other vectors.

vegetable (noun)

Edible seeds or roots or stems or leaves or bulbs or tubers or nonsweet fruits of any of numerous herbaceous plant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vegetable."
- He looked up "vegetable" because he had never seen it before.

victorian architecture (noun)

A style of architecture used in Britain during the reign of Queen Victoria; characterized by massive construction and elaborate ornamentation.

- He looked up "victorian architecture" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "victorian architecture."

vitamin b complex (noun)

Originally thought to be a single vitamin but now separated into several B vitamins.

- Understanding "vitamin b complex" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "vitamin b complex" during the group presentation.

---

well-wishing (noun)

An expression of good will from one person to another.

- Much hand-shaking and well-wishing.
- In class, the teacher used "well-wishing" to mean an expression of good will from one person to another.

---

wet blanket (noun)

Someone who spoils the pleasure of others.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wet blanket."
- He looked up "wet blanket" because he had never seen it before.

---

william carlos williams (noun)

United States poet (1883-1963).

- The article explained what "william carlos williams" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "william carlos williams" during the group presentation.

---

william henry harrison (noun)

9th President of the United States; caught pneumonia during his inauguration and died shortly after (1773-1841).

- The article explained what "william henry harrison" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "william henry harrison" during the group presentation.

---

wing nut (noun)

A threaded nut with winglike projections for thumb and forefinger leverage in turning.

- Understanding "wing nut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wing nut" during the group presentation.

---

wing-nut (noun)

A threaded nut with winglike projections for thumb and forefinger leverage in turning.

- The article explained what "wing-nut" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wing-nut" during the group presentation.

---

workforce (noun)

The force of workers available.

- In class, the teacher used "workforce" to mean the force of workers available.
- They discussed "workforce" during the group presentation.

---

workout suit (noun)

Garment consisting of sweat pants and a sweatshirt.

- Understanding "workout suit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "workout suit" to mean garment consisting of sweat pants and a sweatshirt.

---

zombie (noun)

Someone who acts or responds in a mechanical or apathetic way.

- He looked up "zombie" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "zombie" during the group presentation.

---

acre (noun)

A territory of western Brazil bordering on Bolivia and Peru.

- The article explained what "acre" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "acre" to mean a territory of western brazil bordering on bolivia....

---

ad interim (adverb)

For an intervening time; temporarily.

- Elected to serve ad interim.
- The narrator describes the scene "ad interim" in the final chapter.

---

airports (noun)

An airfield equipped with control tower and hangars as well as accommodations for passengers and cargo.

- Understanding "airports" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "airports" because he had never seen it before.

---

amen (noun)

A primeval Egyptian personification of air and breath; worshipped especially at Thebes.

- The article explained what "amen" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amen."

---

anchor chain (noun)

The chain or rope that attaches an anchor to a vessel.

- In class, the teacher used "anchor chain" to mean the chain or rope that attaches an anchor to a vessel.
- He looked up "anchor chain" because he had never seen it before.

---

andrews (noun)

United States naturalist who contributed to paleontology and geology (1884-1960).

- In class, the teacher used "andrews" to mean united states naturalist who contributed to....
- The article explained what "andrews" means with a simple example.

---

architectural style (noun)

Architecture as a kind of art form.

- In class, the teacher used "architectural style" to mean architecture as a kind of art form.
- Understanding "architectural style" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

arise (verb)

Come into existence; take on form or shape.

- The coach explained when to use "arise" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "arise" in real sentences.

---

ashes (noun)

The residue that remains when something is burned.

- He looked up "ashes" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ashes" to mean the residue that remains when something is burned.

---

association of southeast asian nations (noun)

An association of nations dedicated to economic and political cooperation in southeastern Asia and who joined with the United States to fight against global terrorism.

- He looked up "association of southeast asian nations" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "association of southeast asian nations" to mean an association of nations dedicated to economic and....

---

atomic theory (noun)

(chemistry) any theory in which all matter is composed of tiny discrete finite indivisible indestructible particles.

- The ancient Greek philosophers Democritus and Epicurus held atomic theories of the universe.
- He looked up "atomic theory" because he had never seen it before.

---

au pair girl (noun)

A foreign girl serving as an au pair.

- Understanding "au pair girl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "au pair girl."

---

audit programme (noun)

A listing of audit procedures to be performed in completing an audit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "audit programme."
- The article explained what "audit programme" means with a simple example.

automotive (adjective)

Of or relating to motor vehicles.

- Automotive supplies.
- The speaker chose "automotive" because it captured the feeling precisely.

battlefield (noun)

A region where a battle is being (or has been) fought.

- They made a tour of Civil War battlefields.
- In class, the teacher used "battlefield" to mean a region where a battle is being (or has been) fought.

bed pillow (noun)

A soft pillow for use on a bed.

- He looked up "bed pillow" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bed pillow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

berkeley (noun)

A city in California on the eastern shore of San Francisco Bay; site of the University of California at Berkeley.

- They discussed "berkeley" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "berkeley" because he had never seen it before.

binary number system (noun)

A positional system of numeration that uses binary digits and a radix of two.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "binary number system."
- He looked up "binary number system" because he had never seen it before.

binary program (noun)

A pre-compiled, pre-linked program that is ready to run under a given operating system; a binary for one operating system will not run on a different operating system.

- The article explained what "binary program" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "binary program."

binary star (noun)

A system of two stars that revolve around each other under their mutual gravitation.

- The article explained what "binary star" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "binary star" to mean a system of two stars that revolve around each....

boarding card (noun)

A pass that allows you to board a ship or plane.

- Understanding "boarding card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "boarding card" to mean a pass that allows you to board a ship or plane.

bore (verb)

Make a hole, especially with a pointed power or hand tool.

- The apple tree bore delicious apples this year.
- The unidentified plant bore gorgeous flowers.

brake light (noun)

A red light on the rear of a motor vehicle that signals when the brakes are applied to slow or stop.

- They discussed "brake light" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "brake light" means with a simple example.

brass hat (noun)

A high-ranking military officer.

- In class, the teacher used "brass hat" to mean a high-ranking military officer.
- They discussed "brass hat" during the group presentation.

broadcasting studio (noun)

A studio where broadcasts originate.

- They discussed "broadcasting studio" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "broadcasting studio" because he had never seen it before.

---

bundle off (verb)

Send off unceremoniously.

- In everyday English, people use "bundle off" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "bundle off" in real sentences.

---

butterfly (verb)

Cut and spread open, as in preparation for cooking.

- In everyday English, people use "butterfly" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "butterfly" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cargo vessel (noun)

A ship designed to carry cargo.

- Understanding "cargo vessel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cargo vessel" because he had never seen it before.

---

carpet knight (noun)

A knight who spends his time in luxury and idleness (knighted on the carpet at court rather than on the field of battle).

- Understanding "carpet knight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carpet knight."

---

casualties (noun)

A decrease of military personnel or equipment.

- Understanding "casualties" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "casualties" to mean a decrease of military personnel or equipment.

---

cell doctrine (noun)

(biology) the theory that cells form the fundamental structural and functional units of all living organisms; proposed in 1838 by Matthias Schleiden and by Theodor Schwann.

- Understanding "cell doctrine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cell doctrine" because he had never seen it before.

---

clown (noun)

A person who amuses others by ridiculous behavior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clown."
- The article explained what "clown" means with a simple example.

---

coat closet (noun)

A closet for storing outerwear.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coat closet."
- He looked up "coat closet" because he had never seen it before.

---

committees (noun)

A special group delegated to consider some matter; - Milton Berle.

- Understanding "committees" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "committees" during the group presentation.

---

composite number (noun)

An integer that is divisible without remainder by at least one positive integer other than itself and one.

- He looked up "composite number" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "composite number."

---

composite school (noun)

A large British or Canadian secondary school for children of all abilities.

- The article explained what "composite school" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "composite school" to mean a large british or canadian secondary school for....

---

congress of racial equality (noun)

An organization founded by James Leonard Farmer in 1942 to work for racial equality.

- They discussed "congress of racial equality" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "congress of racial equality" means with a simple example.

---

cooling tower (noun)

A cooling system used in industry to cool hot water (by partial evaporation) before reusing it as a coolant.

- Understanding "cooling tower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cooling tower" to mean a cooling system used in industry to cool hot water....

---

cuban (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Cuba or the people of Cuba.

- Cuban rum.
- A "cuban" approach may work better in this case.

---

cycles (noun)

A periodically repeated sequence of events.

- Schubert's song cycles.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cycles."

---

davies (noun)

English chemist who was a pioneer in electrochemistry and who used it to isolate elements sodium and potassium and barium and boron and calcium and magnesium and chlorine (1778-1829).

- In class, the teacher used "davies" to mean english chemist who was a pioneer in....
- The article explained what "davies" means with a simple example.

---

deer hunter (noun)

Hunter of deer.

- In class, the teacher used "deer hunter" to mean hunter of deer.
- Understanding "deer hunter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

descent (noun)

The descendants of one individual.

- He looked up "descent" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "descent" to mean the descendants of one individual.

---

dial (verb)

Operate a dial to select a telephone number.

- You must take the receiver off the hook before you dial.
- Dial a telephone number.

---

dictionary entry (noun)

The entry in a dictionary of information about a word.

- He looked up "dictionary entry" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dictionary entry" to mean the entry in a dictionary of information about a word.

---

diesel motor (noun)

An internal-combustion engine that burns heavy oil.

- They discussed "diesel motor" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "diesel motor" to mean an internal-combustion engine that burns heavy oil.

---

dip circle (noun)

A measuring instrument for measuring the angle of magnetic dip (as from an airplane).

- The article explained what "dip circle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dip circle" during the group presentation.

---

directory (noun)

An alphabetical list of names and addresses.

- The article explained what "directory" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "directory" to mean an alphabetical list of names and addresses.

discharge (verb)

Pronounce not guilty of criminal charges.

- Discharge one's duties.
- Discharge liquids.

discusses (verb)

To consider or examine in speech or writing.

- The coach explained when to use "discusses" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "discusses" in real sentences.

disk operating system (noun)

An operating system that is on a disk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disk operating system."
- The article explained what "disk operating system" means with a simple example.

divine unity (noun)

An Islamic terrorist cell that originated in Jordan but operates in Germany; goal is to attack Europe and Russia with chemical weapons.

- He looked up "divine unity" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "divine unity."

dodge (noun)

An elaborate or deceitful scheme contrived to deceive or evade.

- They discussed "dodge" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dodge" means with a simple example.

downs (verb)

Improve or perfect by pruning or polishing.

- In everyday English, people use "downs" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "downs" until he saw an example.

dressed ore (noun)

The desired mineral that is left after impurities have been removed from mined ore.

- In class, the teacher used "dressed ore" to mean the desired mineral that is left after impurities....
- The article explained what "dressed ore" means with a simple example.

dried fruit (noun)

Fruit preserved by drying.

- Understanding "dried fruit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dried fruit."

drums (noun)

A bulging cylindrical shape; hollow with flat ends.

- He could hear the drums before he heard the fifes.
- The article explained what "drums" means with a simple example.

du barry (noun)

Courtier and influential mistress of Louis XV who was guillotined during the French Revolution (1743-1793).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "du barry."
- He looked up "du barry" because he had never seen it before.

edward the elder (noun)

King of Wessex whose military success against the Danes made it possible for his son Athelstan to become the first king of all England (870-924).

- He looked up "edward the elder" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edward the elder."

---

elevator girl (noun)

A girl employed to operate an elevator.

- Understanding "elevator girl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "elevator girl" means with a simple example.

---

elimination (noun)

The bodily process of discharging waste matter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elimination."
- The article explained what "elimination" means with a simple example.

---

es (noun)

A radioactive transuranic element produced by bombarding plutonium with neutrons.

- In class, the teacher used "es" to mean a radioactive transuranic element produced by....
- The article explained what "es" means with a simple example.

---

explosive charge (noun)

A quantity of explosive to be set off at one time.

- This cartridge has a powder charge of 50 grains.
- The article explained what "explosive charge" means with a simple example.

---

explosive unit (noun)

Any unit for measuring the force of explosions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "explosive unit."
- Understanding "explosive unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

exposure meter (noun)

Photographic equipment that measures the intensity of light.

- In class, the teacher used "exposure meter" to mean photographic equipment that measures the intensity....
- The article explained what "exposure meter" means with a simple example.

---

face towel (noun)

A small towel used to dry the hands or face.

- Understanding "face towel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "face towel."

---

feast of weeks (noun)

(Judaism) Jewish holy day celebrated on the sixth of Sivan to celebrate Moses receiving the Ten Commandments.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "feast of weeks."
- Understanding "feast of weeks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

file clerk (noun)

A clerk who is employed to maintain the files of an organization.

- They discussed "file clerk" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "file clerk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

finger scan (noun)

Biometric identification by automatically scanning a person's fingerprints electronically.

- Understanding "finger scan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "finger scan" means with a simple example.

---

fixed disk (noun)

A rigid magnetic disk mounted permanently in a drive unit.

- The article explained what "fixed disk" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fixed disk."

floating-point representation system (noun)

A radix numeration system in which the location of the decimal point is indicated by an exponent of the radix; in the floating-point representation system, 0.0012 is represented as 0.12-2 where -2 is the exponent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "floating-point representation system."
- He looked up "floating-point representation system" because he had never seen it before.

frederick north (noun)

British statesman under George III whose policies led to rebellion in the American colonies (1732-1792).

- In class, the teacher used "frederick north" to mean british statesman under george iii whose policies....
- Understanding "frederick north" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

french toast (noun)

Bread slice dipped in egg and milk and fried; topped with sugar or fruit or syrup.

- They discussed "french toast" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "french toast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

future tense (noun)

A verb tense that expresses actions or states in the future.

- In class, the teacher used "future tense" to mean a verb tense that expresses actions or states in....
- He looked up "future tense" because he had never seen it before.

geographic region (noun)

A demarcated area of the Earth.

- The article explained what "geographic region" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "geographic region" during the group presentation.

ginger (verb)

Add ginger to in order to add flavor.

- Ginger the soup.
- Learners should practice how to use "ginger" in real sentences.

ginger up (verb)

Make more interesting or lively.

- In everyday English, people use "ginger up" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "ginger up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

governors (noun)

A control that maintains a steady speed in a machine (as by controlling the supply of fuel).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "governors."
- The article explained what "governors" means with a simple example.

grind away (verb)

Study intensively, as before an exam.

- She tried to use "grind away" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "grind away" when talking about this idea.

guild (noun)

A formal association of people with similar interests.

- They discussed "guild" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "guild" to mean a formal association of people with similar interests.

hall porter (noun)

Someone who guards an entrance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hall porter."
- The article explained what "hall porter" means with a simple example.

han (noun)

Imperial dynasty that ruled China (most of the time from 206 BC to AD 220) and expanded its boundaries and developed its bureaucracy; remembered as one of the great eras of Chinese civilization.

- They discussed "han" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "han" because he had never seen it before.

---

hand towel (noun)

A small towel used to dry the hands or face.

- Understanding "hand towel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "hand towel" means with a simple example.

---

homeland security (noun)

The federal department that administers all matters relating to homeland security.

- Understanding "homeland security" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "homeland security" to mean the federal department that administers all matters....

---

howard hughes (noun)

United States industrialist who was an aviator and a film producer; during the last years of his life he was a total recluse (1905-1976).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "howard hughes."
- Understanding "howard hughes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hurricane deck (noun)

A deck at the top of a passenger ship.

- Understanding "hurricane deck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hurricane deck" to mean a deck at the top of a passenger ship.

---

imaging (noun)

The ability to form mental images of things or events.

- In class, the teacher used "imaging" to mean the ability to form mental images of things or events.
- He looked up "imaging" because he had never seen it before.

---

implied (verb)

Have as a necessary feature.

- She tried to use "implied" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "implied" in real sentences.

---

impress (verb)

Mark or stamp with or as if with pressure.

- To make a batik, you impress a design with wax.
- This child impressed me as unusually mature.

---

inability (noun)

Lack of ability (especially mental ability) to do something.

- They discussed "inability" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "inability" means with a simple example.

---

indirect request (noun)

An expression of some desire or inclination.

- His crying was an indirect request for attention.
- The article explained what "indirect request" means with a simple example.

---

isaac (noun)

(Old Testament) the second patriarch; son of Abraham and Sarah who was offered by Abraham as a sacrifice to God; father of Jacob and Esau.

- The article explained what "isaac" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "isaac" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

james earl carter (noun)

39th President of the United States (1924-).

- The article explained what "james earl carter" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "james earl carter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jar (noun)

The quantity contained in a jar.

- He drank a jar of beer.
- All the jars and jolts were smoothed out by the shock absorbers.

---

jesse jackson (noun)

United States civil rights leader who led a national campaign against racial discrimination and ran for presidential nomination (born in 1941).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jesse jackson."
- He looked up "jesse jackson" because he had never seen it before.

---

judicial principle (noun)

(law) a principle underlying the formulation of jurisprudence.

- They discussed "judicial principle" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "judicial principle" means with a simple example.

---

ladder truck (noun)

A fire engine carrying ladders.

- They discussed "ladder truck" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ladder truck" means with a simple example.

---

launch pad (noun)

A platform from which rockets or space craft are launched.

- He looked up "launch pad" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "launch pad" during the group presentation.

---

lb (noun)

16 ounces avoirdupois.

- Understanding "lb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lb."

---

lead pencil (noun)

Pencil that has graphite as the marking substance.

- They discussed "lead pencil" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lead pencil" to mean pencil that has graphite as the marking substance.

---

leap second (noun)

A second (as measured by an atomic clock) added to or subtracted from Greenwich Mean Time in order to compensate for slowing in the Earth's rotation.

- In class, the teacher used "leap second" to mean a second (as measured by an atomic clock) added to....
- The article explained what "leap second" means with a simple example.

---

leg of lamb (noun)

Lamb leg suitable for roasting.

- They discussed "leg of lamb" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "leg of lamb" because he had never seen it before.

---

leicester (noun)

A largely agricultural county in central England.

- In class, the teacher used "leicester" to mean a largely agricultural county in central england.
- Understanding "leicester" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

linear programming (noun)

A mathematical technique used in economics; finds the maximum or minimum of linear functions in many variables subject to constraints.

- In class, the teacher used "linear programming" to mean a mathematical technique used in economics; finds....
- The article explained what "linear programming" means with a simple example.

---

literary genre (noun)

A style of expressing yourself in writing.

- The article explained what "literary genre" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "literary genre."

---

locker room (noun)

A room (as at an athletic facility or workplace) where you can change clothes and which contains lockers for the temporary storage of your clothing and personal possessions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "locker room."
- The article explained what "locker room" means with a simple example.

---

locker-room (adjective)

Relating to or appropriate for a locker room.

- Locker-room humor.
- Would you call this situation "locker-room"? Explain why.

---

log cabin (noun)

A cabin built with logs.

- They discussed "log cabin" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "log cabin" to mean a cabin built with logs.

---

margaret mitchell (noun)

United States writer noted for her novel about the South during the American Civil War (1900-1949).

- They discussed "margaret mitchell" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "margaret mitchell" to mean united states writer noted for her novel about the....

---

marine corps intelligence activity (noun)

An agency of the United States Marine Corps that provides responsive and broad intelligence support for the worldwide Marine Corps organization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marine corps intelligence activity."
- The article explained what "marine corps intelligence activity" means with a simple example.

---

mass rapid transit (noun)

An urban public transit system using underground or elevated trains.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mass rapid transit."
- Understanding "mass rapid transit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mentor (noun)

A wise and trusted guide and advisor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mentor."
- Understanding "mentor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

miners (noun)

Laborer who works in a mine.

- In class, the teacher used "miners" to mean laborer who works in a mine.
- The article explained what "miners" means with a simple example.

---

minute steak (noun)

A thin steak that can be cooked quickly.

- Understanding "minute steak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "minute steak."

---

monk (noun)

A male religious living in a cloister and devoting himself to contemplation and prayer and work.

- They discussed "monk" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "monk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

monkey bread (noun)

African gourd-like fruit with edible pulp.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monkey bread."
- Understanding "monkey bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

neighborhoods (noun)

The approximate amount of something (usually used prepositionally as in 'in the region of').

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neighborhoods."
- The article explained what "neighborhoods" means with a simple example.

---

newspaper headline (noun)

The heading or caption of a newspaper article.

- The article explained what "newspaper headline" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "newspaper headline" to mean the heading or caption of a newspaper article.

---

ni (noun)

A hard malleable ductile silvery metallic element that is resistant to corrosion; used in alloys; occurs in pentlandite and smaltite and garnierite and millerite.

- They discussed "ni" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ni" means with a simple example.

---

norm (noun)

A standard or model or pattern regarded as typical.

- The current middle-class norm of two children per family.
- It set the norm for American homes.

---

obtaining (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- Can you use "obtaining" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "obtaining" and when to wait.

---

occupy (verb)

March aggressively into another's territory by military force for the purposes of conquest and occupation.

- The young prince will soon occupy the throne.
- He did not know how to use "occupy" until he saw an example.

---

old fashioned (noun)

A cocktail made of whiskey and bitters and sugar with fruit slices.

- In class, the teacher used "old fashioned" to mean a cocktail made of whiskey and bitters and sugar....
- The article explained what "old fashioned" means with a simple example.

---

orthodox (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of Judaism.

- Orthodox Judaism.
- An orthodox view of the world.

---

overhead (noun)

A transparency for use with an overhead projector.

- In class, the teacher used "overhead" to mean a transparency for use with an overhead projector.
- The article explained what "overhead" means with a simple example.

---

palestine authority (noun)

Combines the Gaza Strip and the West Bank under a political unit with limited autonomy and a police force; created in 1993 by an agreement between Israel and the PLO.

- In class, the teacher used "palestine authority" to mean combines the gaza strip and the west bank under a....
- They discussed "palestine authority" during the group presentation.

---

palestinian arab (noun)

A descendant of the Arabs who inhabited Palestine.

- In class, the teacher used "palestinian arab" to mean a descendant of the arabs who inhabited palestine.
- The article explained what "palestinian arab" means with a simple example.

past tense (noun)

A verb tense that expresses actions or states in the past.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "past tense."
- He looked up "past tense" because he had never seen it before.

pencil lead (noun)

Mixture of graphite with clay in different degrees of hardness; the marking substance in a pencil.

- They discussed "pencil lead" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pencil lead" to mean mixture of graphite with clay in different degrees....

perfect tense (noun)

A tense of verbs used in describing action that has been completed (sometimes regarded as perfective aspect).

- In class, the teacher used "perfect tense" to mean a tense of verbs used in describing action that has....
- Understanding "perfect tense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

perth (noun)

The state capital of Western Australia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "perth."
- The article explained what "perth" means with a simple example.

petty criticism (noun)

A petty disparagement.

- They discussed "petty criticism" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "petty criticism" means with a simple example.

petty jury (noun)

A jury of 12 to determine the facts and decide the issue in civil or criminal proceedings.

- In class, the teacher used "petty jury" to mean a jury of 12 to determine the facts and decide the....
- The article explained what "petty jury" means with a simple example.

pistol (noun)

A firearm that is held and fired with one hand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pistol."
- The article explained what "pistol" means with a simple example.

po box (noun)

A numbered compartment in a post office where mail is put to be called for.

- Understanding "po box" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "po box" because he had never seen it before.

po box no (noun)

The number of a letter box at the post office where mail is collected.

- The article explained what "po box no" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "po box no."

po box number (noun)

The number of a letter box at the post office where mail is collected.

- They discussed "po box number" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "po box number" means with a simple example.

pole jumping (noun)

A competition that involves jumping over a high crossbar with the aid of a long pole.

- Understanding "pole jumping" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pole jumping."

portable computer (noun)

A personal computer that can easily be carried by hand.

- He looked up "portable computer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "portable computer."

portuguese republic (noun)

A republic in southwestern Europe on the Iberian Peninsula; Portuguese explorers and colonists in the 15th and 16th centuries created a vast overseas empire (including Brazil).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "portuguese republic."
- He looked up "portuguese republic" because he had never seen it before.

postal service (noun)

The system whereby messages are transmitted via the post office.

- He works for the United States mail service.
- He looked up "postal service" because he had never seen it before.

prep school (noun)

A private secondary school.

- The article explained what "prep school" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "prep school" to mean a private secondary school.

present tense (noun)

A verb tense that expresses actions or states at the time of speaking.

- In class, the teacher used "present tense" to mean a verb tense that expresses actions or states at....
- The article explained what "present tense" means with a simple example.

president william henry harrison (noun)

9th President of the United States; caught pneumonia during his inauguration and died shortly after (1773-1841).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "president william henry harrison."
- Understanding "president william henry harrison" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

press of canvas (noun)

The greatest amount of sail that a ship can carry safely.

- In class, the teacher used "press of canvas" to mean the greatest amount of sail that a ship can carry....
- Understanding "press of canvas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

printer (noun)

(computer science) an output device that prints the results of data processing.

- He looked up "printer" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "printer" to mean (computer science) an output device that prints the....

public prosecutor (noun)

A government official who conducts criminal prosecutions on behalf of the state.

- They discussed "public prosecutor" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "public prosecutor" because he had never seen it before.

raiders (noun)

A corporate investor who intends to take over a company by buying a controlling interest in its stock and installing new management.

- Understanding "raiders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "raiders."

readily (adverb)

In a punctual manner.

- These snakes can be identified readily.
- She spoke "readily," and the audience immediately understood her point.

recreation facility (noun)

A public facility for recreation.

- The article explained what "recreation facility" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "recreation facility" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

regiment (verb)

Subject to rigid discipline, order, and systematization.

- Regiment one's children.
- Regiment soldiers.

relative quantity (noun)

A quantity relative to some purpose.

- They discussed "relative quantity" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "relative quantity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

remembers (verb)

Keep in mind for attention or consideration.

- She tried to use "remembers" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "remembers" until he saw an example.

revolutionary calendar (noun)

The calendar adopted by the first French Republic in 1793 and abandoned in 1805; dates were calculated from Sept. 22, 1792.

- The article explained what "revolutionary calendar" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "revolutionary calendar" to mean the calendar adopted by the first french republic....

rifle butt (noun)

The butt end of a rifle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rifle butt."
- They discussed "rifle butt" during the group presentation.

right triangle (noun)

A triangle with one right angle.

- In class, the teacher used "right triangle" to mean a triangle with one right angle.
- They discussed "right triangle" during the group presentation.

rubber bullet (noun)

A bullet made of hard rubber; designed for use in crowd control.

- Understanding "rubber bullet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "rubber bullet" during the group presentation.

salt pork (noun)

Fat from the back and sides and belly of a hog carcass cured with salt.

- In class, the teacher used "salt pork" to mean fat from the back and sides and belly of a hog....
- He looked up "salt pork" because he had never seen it before.

sanctuary (noun)

A consecrated place where sacred objects are kept.

- Understanding "sanctuary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sanctuary."

santa cruz (noun)

A town in western California on Monterey Bay; a tourist center.

- They discussed "santa cruz" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "santa cruz."

satan (noun)

(Judeo-Christian and Islamic religions) chief spirit of evil and adversary of God; tempter of mankind; master of Hell.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "satan."
- He looked up "satan" because he had never seen it before.

securing (verb)

Fill or close tightly with or as if with a plug.

- Learners should practice how to use "securing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "securing" when talking about this idea.

---

self-evident truth (noun)

An assumption that is basic to an argument.

- The article explained what "self-evident truth" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "self-evident truth" to mean an assumption that is basic to an argument.

---

sensors (noun)

Any device that receives a signal or stimulus (as heat or pressure or light or motion etc.) and responds to it in a distinctive manner.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sensors."
- Understanding "sensors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seoul (noun)

The capital of South Korea and the largest city of Asia; located in northwestern South Korea.

- In class, the teacher used "seoul" to mean the capital of south korea and the largest city of....
- He looked up "seoul" because he had never seen it before.

---

shell entity (noun)

A company that is incorporated but has no assets or operations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shell entity."
- The article explained what "shell entity" means with a simple example.

---

shells (noun)

A rigid covering that envelops an object.

- The article explained what "shells" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shells" to mean a rigid covering that envelops an object.

---

silent butler (noun)

A small receptacle with a handle and a hinged lid; used for collecting crumbs or ashes.

- The article explained what "silent butler" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "silent butler" to mean a small receptacle with a handle and a hinged lid;....

---

simple fraction (noun)

The quotient of two integers.

- In class, the teacher used "simple fraction" to mean the quotient of two integers.
- The article explained what "simple fraction" means with a simple example.

---

sir james young simpson (noun)

Scottish obstetrician and surgeon who pioneered in the use of ether and discovered the anesthetic effects of chloroform (1811-1870).

- They discussed "sir james young simpson" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sir james young simpson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sixty (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and six.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sixty."
- The article explained what "sixty" means with a simple example.

---

ski resort (noun)

A resort with lodging and facilities for skiing.

- He looked up "ski resort" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ski resort."

---

sleeve (noun)

The part of a garment that is attached at the armhole and that provides a cloth covering for the arm.

- Understanding "sleeve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sleeve" because he had never seen it before.

---

soda bottle (noun)

A bottle for holding soft drinks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soda bottle."
- He looked up "soda bottle" because he had never seen it before.

---

soundtrack (noun)

Sound recording on a narrow strip of a motion picture film.

- In class, the teacher used "soundtrack" to mean sound recording on a narrow strip of a motion....
- The article explained what "soundtrack" means with a simple example.

---

speeches (noun)

The mental faculty or power of vocal communication.

- He could hear them uttering merry speeches.
- Understanding "speeches" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spinning machine (noun)

A textile machine for spinning yarn and thread.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spinning machine."
- The article explained what "spinning machine" means with a simple example.

---

substances (noun)

The real physical matter of which a person or thing consists.

- The immune response recognizes invading substances.
- Shigella is one of the most toxic substances known to man.

---

sullivan (noun)

United States host on a well known television variety show (1902-1974).

- Understanding "sullivan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sullivan" means with a simple example.

---

sustain (verb)

Be the physical support of; carry the weight of.

- We sustained the diplomatic negotiations as long as possible.
- We sustained ourselves on bread and water.

---

sydney harbor bridge (noun)

A steel arch bridge in Sydney, Australia.

- They discussed "sydney harbor bridge" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sydney harbor bridge" because he had never seen it before.

---

synthetic thinking (noun)

The combination of ideas into a complex whole.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "synthetic thinking."
- They discussed "synthetic thinking" during the group presentation.

---

t-junction (noun)

A junction where two roads or pipes etc. meet to form a T.

- The article explained what "t-junction" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "t-junction" during the group presentation.

---

tab key (noun)

The key on a typewriter or a word processor that causes a tabulation.

- In class, the teacher used "tab key" to mean the key on a typewriter or a word processor that....
- He looked up "tab key" because he had never seen it before.

telephone booth (noun)

Booth for using a telephone.

- In class, the teacher used "telephone booth" to mean booth for using a telephone.
- The article explained what "telephone booth" means with a simple example.

tenure (noun)

The term during which some position is held.

- They discussed "tenure" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tenure."

the halt (noun)

(archaic) lame persons collectively; –Luke 14:21.

- The poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.
- He looked up "the halt" because he had never seen it before.

thomas reid (noun)

Scottish philosopher of common sense who opposed the ideas of David Hume (1710-1796).

- In class, the teacher used "thomas reid" to mean scottish philosopher of common sense who opposed....
- The article explained what "thomas reid" means with a simple example.

translate (verb)

Change from one form or medium into another.

- Braque translated collage into oil.
- I have to translate when my in-laws from Austria visit the U.S.

treasurer (noun)

An officer charged with receiving and disbursing funds.

- They discussed "treasurer" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "treasurer."

triangle (noun)

Something approximating the shape of a triangle.

- The coastline of Chile and Argentina and Brazil forms two legs of a triangle.
- Understanding "triangle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

turkish tobacco (noun)

A dark aromatic tobacco of eastern Europe that is used in cigarettes.

- They discussed "turkish tobacco" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "turkish tobacco" because he had never seen it before.

unconscious mind (noun)

That part of the mind wherein psychic activity takes place of which the person is unaware.

- The article explained what "unconscious mind" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "unconscious mind" during the group presentation.

upgraded (verb)

To improve what was old or outdated.

- I've upgraded my computer so I can run better software.
- The company upgraded their personnel.

venezuela (noun)

A republic in northern South America on the Caribbean; achieved independence from Spain in 1811; rich in oil.

- The article explained what "venezuela" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "venezuela" during the group presentation.

venice (noun)

The provincial capital of Veneto; built on 118 islands within a lagoon in the Gulf of Venice; has canals instead of streets; one of Italy's major ports and a famous tourist attraction.

- He looked up "venice" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "venice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vertical tail (noun)

The vertical airfoil in the tail assembly of an aircraft.

- Understanding "vertical tail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vertical tail."

---

very pistol (noun)

A pistol for firing Very-light flares.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "very pistol."
- He looked up "very pistol" because he had never seen it before.

---

voice of conscience (noun)

An inner voice that judges your behavior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "voice of conscience."
- Understanding "voice of conscience" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

waist-deep (adverb)

Up to the waist.

- Using "waist-deep" can make your explanation more exact.
- He answered "waist-deep," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

wizard (noun)

Someone who is dazzlingly skilled in any field.

- The article explained what "wizard" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wizard."

---

yankees (noun)

An American (especially to non-Americans).

- Understanding "yankees" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "yankees" during the group presentation.

---

zero-tolerance policy (noun)

Any policy that allows no exception.

- A zero-tolerance policy toward pedophile priests.
- Understanding "zero-tolerance policy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

airplane (noun)

An aircraft that has a fixed wing and is powered by propellers or jets.

- The flight was delayed due to trouble with the airplane.
- He looked up "airplane" because he had never seen it before.

---

alexander vi (noun)

Pope and father of Cesare Borgia and Lucrezia Borgia (1431-1503).

- The article explained what "alexander vi" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "alexander vi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alpha bronze (noun)

An alloy of copper and tin that can be worked.

- In class, the teacher used "alpha bronze" to mean an alloy of copper and tin that can be worked.
- The article explained what "alpha bronze" means with a simple example.

---

arctic circle (noun)

A line of latitude near but to the south of the north pole; it marks the northernmost point at which the sun is visible on the northern winter solstice and the southernmost point at which the midnight sun can be seen on the northern summer solstice.

- He looked up "arctic circle" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “arctic circle.”

artillery unit (noun)

An army unit that uses big guns.

- In class, the teacher used “artillery unit” to mean an army unit that uses big guns.
- The article explained what “artillery unit” means with a simple example.

athens (noun)

The capital and largest city of Greece; named after Athena (its patron goddess).

- In the 5th century BC ancient Athens was the world’s most powerful and civilized city.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “athens.”

attributes (noun)

A construct whereby objects or individuals can be distinguished.

- The article explained what “attributes” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “attributes” during the group presentation.

automobile industry (noun)

The manufacturers of automobiles considered collectively.

- They discussed “automobile industry” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “automobile industry” to mean the manufacturers of automobiles considered....

bachelor of laws (noun)

A three-year law degree.

- In class, the teacher used “bachelor of laws” to mean a three-year law degree.
- They discussed “bachelor of laws” during the group presentation.

beautifully (adverb)

In a beautiful manner.

- Her face was beautifully made up.
- She spoke “beautifully,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

bell arch (noun)

A round arch resting on corbels.

- The article explained what “bell arch” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “bell arch” to mean a round arch resting on corbels.

bicycle seat (noun)

A seat for the rider of a bicycle.

- He looked up “bicycle seat” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “bicycle seat” to mean a seat for the rider of a bicycle.

bicycle traffic (noun)

Bicycles coming and going.

- He looked up “bicycle traffic” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bicycle traffic.”

binary code (noun)

Code using a string of 8 binary digits to represent characters.

- Understanding “binary code” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “binary code” means with a simple example.

blue-pencil (verb)

Cut or eliminate.

- Learners should practice how to use “blue-pencil” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “blue-pencil” when talking about this idea.

boo (noun)

A cry or noise made to express displeasure or contempt.

- Understanding "boo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "boo" to mean a cry or noise made to express displeasure or contempt.

---

buffalo chip (noun)

A piece of dried bovine dung.

- They discussed "buffalo chip" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "buffalo chip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of bangladesh (noun)

The capital and largest city of Bangladesh.

- He looked up "capital of bangladesh" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "capital of bangladesh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cardiff (noun)

The capital and largest city of Wales.

- They discussed "cardiff" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cardiff."

---

chinese puzzle (noun)

Intricate or ingenious puzzle consisting of boxes within boxes.

- The article explained what "chinese puzzle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chinese puzzle" to mean intricate or ingenious puzzle consisting of boxes....

---

collapsed (verb)

Lose significance, effectiveness, or value.

- The stock market collapsed.
- The wall collapsed.

---

commissioned officer (noun)

A military officer holding a commission.

- He looked up "commissioned officer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "commissioned officer" during the group presentation.

---

continental breakfast (noun)

A breakfast that usually includes a roll and coffee or tea.

- Understanding "continental breakfast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "continental breakfast" during the group presentation.

---

continued fraction (noun)

A fraction whose numerator is an integer and whose denominator is an integer plus a fraction whose numerator is an integer and whose denominator is an integer plus a fraction and so on.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "continued fraction."
- He looked up "continued fraction" because he had never seen it before.

---

countryside (noun)

Rural regions.

- The article explained what "countryside" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "countryside" to mean rural regions.

---

cow chip (noun)

A piece of dried bovine dung.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cow chip."
- Understanding "cow chip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cracking (noun)

The process whereby heavy molecules of naphtha or petroleum are broken down into hydrocarbons of lower molecular weight (especially in the oil-refining process).

- He heard the cracking of the ice.
- In class, the teacher used "cracking" to mean the process whereby heavy molecules of naphtha or....

---

crane (noun)

A small constellation in the southern hemisphere near Phoenix.

- They discussed "crane" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "crane" because he had never seen it before.

---

deaf-aid (noun)

An electronic device that amplifies sound and is worn to compensate for poor hearing.

- The article explained what "deaf-aid" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deaf-aid."

---

debris (noun)

The remains of something that has been destroyed or broken up.

- The article explained what "debris" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "debris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

delegation (noun)

A group of representatives or delegates.

- Understanding "delegation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "delegation" during the group presentation.

---

demographic (noun)

A statistic characterizing human populations (or segments of human populations broken down by age or sex or income etc.).

- The article explained what "demographic" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "demographic" during the group presentation.

---

descriptions (noun)

A statement that represents something in words.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "descriptions."
- He looked up "descriptions" because he had never seen it before.

---

detention centre (noun)

A large cell where prisoners (people awaiting trial or sentence or refugees or illegal immigrants) are confined together temporarily.

- They discussed "detention centre" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "detention centre" to mean a large cell where prisoners (people awaiting trial....

---

dish the dirt (verb)

Wag one's tongue; speak about others and reveal secrets or intimacies.

- She won't dish the dirt.
- She tried to use "dish the dirt" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

disk pack (noun)

(computer science) a portable pack of magnetic disks used in a disk storage device.

- He looked up "disk pack" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "disk pack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

diving bell (noun)

Diving apparatus for underwater work; has an open bottom and is supplied with compressed air.

- Understanding "diving bell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "diving bell" means with a simple example.

---

dodge city (noun)

A town of southwestern Kansas on the Arkansas River; formerly a rowdy cow town.

- He looked up "dodge city" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dodge city."

driving licence (noun)

A license authorizing the bearer to drive a motor vehicle.

- He looked up "driving licence" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "driving licence."

dry dock (noun)

A large dock from which water can be pumped out; used for building ships or for repairing a ship below its waterline.

- He looked up "dry dock" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dry dock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dry-dock (verb)

Maneuver (a ship) into a drydock.

- He did not know how to use "dry-dock" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "dry-dock" carefully so everyone would understand.

earl warren (noun)

United States jurist who served as chief justice of the United States Supreme Court (1891-1974).

- The article explained what "earl warren" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earl warren."

educate (verb)

Teach or refine to be discriminative in taste or judgment.

- We must educate our youngsters better.
- He did not know how to use "educate" until he saw an example.

edward james hughes (noun)

English poet (born in 1930).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edward james hughes."
- The article explained what "edward james hughes" means with a simple example.

electric outlet (noun)

Receptacle providing a place in a wiring system where current can be taken to run electrical devices.

- Understanding "electric outlet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "electric outlet" because he had never seen it before.

elevator boy (noun)

A man employed to operate an elevator.

- In England they call an elevator man a liftman.
- He looked up "elevator boy" because he had never seen it before.

enrolled (verb)

Register formally as a participant or member.

- Can you use "enrolled" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "enrolled" and when to wait.

essex (noun)

A county in southeastern England on the North Sea and the Thames estuary.

- In class, the teacher used "essex" to mean a county in southeastern england on the north sea....
- He looked up "essex" because he had never seen it before.

exceed (verb)

Be superior or better than some standard.

- She exceeded our expectations.
- Their loyalty exceeds their national bonds.

excluding (verb)

Prevent from being included or considered or accepted.

- In everyday English, people use "excluding" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "excluding" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

expansion bolt (noun)

A bolt that has an attachment that expands as the bolt is driven into a surface.

- In class, the teacher used "expansion bolt" to mean a bolt that has an attachment that expands as the....
- The article explained what "expansion bolt" means with a simple example.

---

filing cabinet (noun)

Office furniture consisting of a container for keeping papers in order.

- They discussed "filing cabinet" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "filing cabinet" because he had never seen it before.

---

fish steak (noun)

Cross-section slice of a large fish.

- He looked up "fish steak" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fish steak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flesh wound (noun)

A wound that does not damage important internal organs or shatter any bones.

- The article explained what "flesh wound" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "flesh wound" to mean a wound that does not damage important internal....

---

forgetting (verb)

Leave behind unintentionally.

- Can you use "forgetting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "forgetting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fossil fuel (noun)

Fuel consisting of the remains of organisms preserved in rocks in the earth's crust with high carbon and hydrogen content.

- In class, the teacher used "fossil fuel" to mean fuel consisting of the remains of organisms....
- The article explained what "fossil fuel" means with a simple example.

---

fresh bean (noun)

Beans eaten before they are ripe as opposed to dried.

- Understanding "fresh bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fresh bean" because he had never seen it before.

---

fuel injection (noun)

Mechanical system to inject atomized fuel directly into the cylinders of an internal-combustion engine; avoids the need for a carburetor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fuel injection."
- He looked up "fuel injection" because he had never seen it before.

---

fusion bomb (noun)

A nuclear weapon that releases atomic energy by union of light (hydrogen) nuclei at high temperatures to form helium.

- He looked up "fusion bomb" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fusion bomb."

---

gabriel (noun)

(Bible) the archangel who was the messenger of God.

- In class, the teacher used "gabriel" to mean (bible) the archangel who was the messenger of god.
- The article explained what "gabriel" means with a simple example.

---

garden roller (noun)

Heavy cast-iron cylinder used to flatten lawns.

- They discussed "garden roller" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "garden roller" to mean heavy cast-iron cylinder used to flatten lawns.

gaza (noun)

A coastal region at the southeastern corner of the Mediterranean bordering Israel and Egypt.

- He is a Palestinian from Gaza.
- They discussed "gaza" during the group presentation.

get cracking (verb)

Start to be active.

- Get cracking, please!
- The coach explained when to use "get cracking" and when to wait.

grave accent (noun)

A mark (') placed above a vowel to indicate pronunciation.

- They discussed "grave accent" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grave accent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

guide fossil (noun)

A fossil known to have lived in a particular geologic age that can be used to date the rock layer in which it is found.

- Understanding "guide fossil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "guide fossil" because he had never seen it before.

hail (noun)

Many objects thrown forcefully through the air.

- A hail of pebbles.
- A hail of bullets.

heroin (noun)

A narcotic that is considered a hard drug; a highly addictive morphine derivative; intravenous injection provides the fastest and most intense rush.

- The article explained what "heroin" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "heroin" during the group presentation.

horse barn (noun)

A farm building for housing horses or other livestock.

- In class, the teacher used "horse barn" to mean a farm building for housing horses or other livestock.
- The article explained what "horse barn" means with a simple example.

hunting lodge (noun)

A small (rustic) house used as a temporary shelter.

- In class, the teacher used "hunting lodge" to mean a small (rustic) house used as a temporary shelter.
- Understanding "hunting lodge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

illustration (noun)

An item of information that is typical of a class or group.

- Understanding "illustration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "illustration" during the group presentation.

impose (verb)

Impose something unpleasant.

- Social relations impose courtesy.
- He did not know how to use "impose" until he saw an example.

indicator (noun)

A device for showing the operating condition of some system.

- The article explained what "indicator" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indicator."

ins (noun)

An agency in the Department of Justice that enforces laws and regulations for the admission of foreign-born persons to the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "ins" to mean an agency in the department of justice that....
- Understanding "ins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

instruction manual (noun)

A manual usually accompanying a technical device and explaining how to install or operate it.

- He looked up "instruction manual" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instruction manual."

---

irish monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Eire.

- Understanding "irish monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "irish monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

jamaica (noun)

An island in the West Indies to the south of Cuba and to the west of Haiti.

- Understanding "jamaica" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "jamaica" to mean an island in the west indies to the south of cuba....

---

jar against (verb)

Collide violently with an obstacle.

- Learners should practice how to use "jar against" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "jar against" and when to wait.

---

john stuart mill (noun)

English philosopher and economist remembered for his interpretations of empiricism and utilitarianism (1806-1873).

- He looked up "john stuart mill" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john stuart mill."

---

jonathan swift (noun)

An English satirist born in Ireland (1667-1745).

- In class, the teacher used "jonathan swift" to mean an english satirist born in ireland (1667-1745).
- Understanding "jonathan swift" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

joshua (noun)

A book in the Old Testament describing how Joshua led the Israelites into Canaan (the Promised Land) after the death of Moses.

- Understanding "joshua" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "joshua" to mean a book in the old testament describing how joshua....

---

journals (noun)

A periodical dedicated to a particular subject.

- He reads the medical journals.
- Understanding "journals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lady emma hamilton (noun)

English beauty who was the mistress of Admiral Nelson (1765-1815).

- Understanding "lady emma hamilton" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lady emma hamilton."

---

lengths (noun)

A section of something that is long and narrow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lengths."
- The article explained what "lengths" means with a simple example.

---

leon (noun)

A historical area and former kingdom in northwestern Spain.

- He looked up “leon” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “leon.”

line of descent (noun)

The descendants of one individual.

- His entire lineage has been warriors.
- The article explained what “line of descent” means with a simple example.

line of merchandise (noun)

A particular kind of product or merchandise.

- A nice line of shoes.
- Understanding “line of merchandise” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

line printer (noun)

Printer that serves as an output device on a computer; prints a whole line of characters at a time.

- He looked up “line printer” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “line printer.”

line-at-a-time printer (noun)

Printer that serves as an output device on a computer; prints a whole line of characters at a time.

- He looked up “line-at-a-time printer” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “line-at-a-time printer” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lip reader (noun)

Someone who can understand spoken words by watching the movements of a speaker’s lips.

- In class, the teacher used “lip reader” to mean someone who can understand spoken words by watching....
- The article explained what “lip reader” means with a simple example.

logical relation (noun)

A relation between propositions.

- They discussed “logical relation” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “logical relation” means with a simple example.

long sleeve (noun)

A sleeve extending from shoulder to wrist.

- He looked up “long sleeve” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “long sleeve.”

lounge (noun)

An upholstered seat for more than one person.

- Understanding “lounge” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “lounge” to mean an upholstered seat for more than one person.

lounge about (verb)

Be lazy or idle.

- In everyday English, people use “lounge about” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “lounge about” in real sentences.

luckily (adverb)

By good fortune.

- Using “luckily” can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene “luckily” in the final chapter.

mail clerk (noun)

A clerk in a post office.

- Understanding “mail clerk” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “mail clerk” to mean a clerk in a post office.

mainland china (noun)

A communist nation that covers a vast territory in eastern Asia; the most populous country in the world.

- The article explained what "mainland china" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mainland china" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

manuscript (noun)

The form of a literary work submitted for publication.

- Understanding "manuscript" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "manuscript" because he had never seen it before.

marines (noun)

Members of a body of troops trained to serve on land or at sea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marines."
- Understanding "marines" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

marriage licence (noun)

A license authorizing two people to marry.

- They discussed "marriage licence" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "marriage licence" means with a simple example.

mary ann evans (noun)

British writer of novels characterized by realistic analysis of provincial Victorian society (1819-1880).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mary ann evans."
- He looked up "mary ann evans" because he had never seen it before.

medieval greek (noun)

The Greek language from about 600 to 1200 AD.

- They discussed "medieval greek" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "medieval greek" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

merger agreement (noun)

Contract governing the merger of two or more companies.

- In class, the teacher used "merger agreement" to mean contract governing the merger of two or more companies.
- The article explained what "merger agreement" means with a simple example.

military adviser (noun)

A military officer who serves as an adviser to the troops of an allied nation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military adviser."
- The article explained what "military adviser" means with a simple example.

minor axis (noun)

The shorter or shortest axis of an ellipse or ellipsoid.

- He looked up "minor axis" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "minor axis."

mint (noun)

A candy that is flavored with a mint oil.

- He made a mint on the stock market.
- Understanding "mint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

molecules (noun)

(nontechnical usage) a tiny piece of anything.

- The article explained what "molecules" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "molecules" to mean (nontechnical usage) a tiny piece of anything.

moment magnitude scale (noun)

A logarithmic scale of 1 to 10 (a successor to the Richter scale) that enables seismologists to compare the energy released by different earthquakes on the basis of the area of the geological fault that ruptured in the quake.

- Understanding "moment magnitude scale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "moment magnitude scale" means with a simple example.

---

montgomery (noun)

The state capital of Alabama on the Mobile River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "montgomery."
- He looked up "montgomery" because he had never seen it before.

---

naval radar (noun)

Naval equipment consisting of a shipboard radar.

- He looked up "naval radar" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "naval radar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ni-hard (noun)

Cast iron to which nickel has been added to make it resist abrasion.

- The article explained what "ni-hard" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ni-hard" during the group presentation.

---

norwegian sea (noun)

The part of the Atlantic that lies off the Norwegian coast to the north of the North Sea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "norwegian sea."
- He looked up "norwegian sea" because he had never seen it before.

---

oakland (noun)

A city in western California on San Francisco Bay opposite San Francisco; primarily and industrial urban center.

- He looked up "oakland" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oakland."

---

one-tenth (noun)

A tenth part; one part in ten equal parts.

- Understanding "one-tenth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "one-tenth" because he had never seen it before.

---

outline (noun)

The line that appears to bound an object.

- In class, the teacher used "outline" to mean the line that appears to bound an object.
- They discussed "outline" during the group presentation.

---

palestine national authority (noun)

Combines the Gaza Strip and the West Bank under a political unit with limited autonomy and a police force; created in 1993 by an agreement between Israel and the PLO.

- He looked up "palestine national authority" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "palestine national authority" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pasta (noun)

A dish that contains pasta as its main ingredient.

- The article explained what "pasta" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pasta."

---

pencil box (noun)

A box for holding pencils.

- In class, the teacher used "pencil box" to mean a box for holding pencils.
- The article explained what "pencil box" means with a simple example.

---

pi (noun)

The scientist in charge of an experiment or research project.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pi."

- The article explained what "pi" means with a simple example.

pill bottle (noun)

A small bottle for holding pills.

- They discussed "pill bottle" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pill bottle" means with a simple example.

pilot lamp (noun)

Indicator consisting of a light to indicate whether power is on or a motor is in operation.

- Understanding "pilot lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pilot lamp" to mean indicator consisting of a light to indicate whether....

pirate ship (noun)

A ship that is manned by pirates.

- The article explained what "pirate ship" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pirate ship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

polar region (noun)

The part of the Earth's surface forming a cap over a pole; characterized by frigid climate.

- In class, the teacher used "polar region" to mean the part of the earth's surface forming a cap over....
- They discussed "polar region" during the group presentation.

pour forth (verb)

Pour out in drops or small quantities or as if in drops or small quantities.

- Can you use "pour forth" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "pour forth" and when to wait.

power steering (noun)

Automotive steering where engineer power amplifies the torque applied to the steering wheel.

- Understanding "power steering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "power steering" because he had never seen it before.

president pierce (noun)

14th President of the United States (1804-1869).

- In class, the teacher used "president pierce" to mean 14th president of the united states (1804-1869).
- They discussed "president pierce" during the group presentation.

professors (noun)

Someone who is a member of the faculty at a college or university.

- In class, the teacher used "professors" to mean someone who is a member of the faculty at a college....
- Understanding "professors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

quicker (adverb)

More quickly.

- He answered "quicker," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using "quicker" can make your explanation more exact.

recognise (verb)

Express obligation, thanks, or gratitude for.

- He did not know how to use "recognise" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "recognise" in a sentence that fits this situation?

red hand defenders (noun)

A paramilitary group of Protestants in Northern Ireland that tries to prevent any political settlement with the Irish Republic; attacks interests of Catholic civilians in Northern Ireland; responsible for arson and bombing and murder.

- In class, the teacher used "red hand defenders" to mean a paramilitary group of protestants in northern....
- The article explained what "red hand defenders" means with a simple example.

refugee camp (noun)

Shelter for persons displaced by war or political oppression or for religious beliefs.

- In class, the teacher used "refugee camp" to mean shelter for persons displaced by war or political....
- They discussed "refugee camp" during the group presentation.

researcher (noun)

A scientist who devotes himself to doing research.

- He looked up "researcher" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "researcher."

reviewing (verb)

Look back upon (a period of time, sequence of events); remember.

- The coach explained when to use "reviewing" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "reviewing" until he saw an example.

richard morris hunt (noun)

United States architect (1827-1895).

- He looked up "richard morris hunt" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "richard morris hunt" to mean united states architect (1827-1895).

riding lamp (noun)

A light in the rigging of a ship that is riding at anchor.

- The article explained what "riding lamp" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "riding lamp" during the group presentation.

rising tide (noun)

The occurrence of incoming water (between a low tide and the following high tide); -Shakespeare.

- A tide in the affairs of men which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune.
- Understanding "rising tide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

romans (noun)

A New Testament book containing an exposition of the doctrines of Saint Paul; written in AD 58.

- Understanding "romans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "romans."

runway (noun)

A strip of level paved surface where planes can take off and land.

- In class, the teacher used "runway" to mean a strip of level paved surface where planes can....
- They discussed "runway" during the group presentation.

salvation army (noun)

A charitable and religious organization to evangelize and to care for the poor and homeless.

- He looked up "salvation army" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salvation army."

samuel adams (noun)

American Revolutionary leader and patriot; an organizer of the Boston Tea Party and signer of the Declaration of Independence (1722-1803).

- The article explained what "samuel adams" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "samuel adams."

sea purse (noun)

The seaward undercurrent created after waves have broken on the shore.

- He looked up "sea purse" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sea purse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sea-purse (noun)

The seaward undercurrent created after waves have broken on the shore.

- They discussed "sea-purse" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sea-purse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

senses (noun)

The faculty through which the external world is apprehended.

- In the dark he had to depend on touch and on his senses of smell and hearing.
- The dictionary gave several senses for the word.

---

sensor (noun)

Any device that receives a signal or stimulus (as heat or pressure or light or motion etc.) and responds to it in a distinctive manner.

- In class, the teacher used "sensor" to mean any device that receives a signal or stimulus (as....
- The article explained what "sensor" means with a simple example.

---

seth (noun)

(Old Testament) third son of Adam and Eve; given by God in place of the murdered Abel.

- He looked up "seth" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "seth" during the group presentation.

---

shore patrol (noun)

The military police of the navy.

- They discussed "shore patrol" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "shore patrol" means with a simple example.

---

silicon valley (noun)

A region in California to the south of San Francisco that is noted for its concentration of high-technology industries.

- He looked up "silicon valley" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silicon valley."

---

silk screen print (noun)

A print made using a stencil process in which an image or design is superimposed on a very fine mesh screen and printing ink is squeegeed onto the printing surface through the area of the screen that is not covered by the stencil.

- He looked up "silk screen print" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "silk screen print" during the group presentation.

---

sir francis bacon (noun)

English statesman and philosopher; precursor of British empiricism; advocated inductive reasoning (1561-1626).

- They discussed "sir francis bacon" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sir francis bacon" means with a simple example.

---

snake fence (noun)

Rail fence consisting of a zigzag of interlocking rails.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snake fence."
- He looked up "snake fence" because he had never seen it before.

---

soap opera (noun)

A serialized program usually dealing with sentimentalized family matters that is broadcast on radio or television (frequently sponsored by a company advertising soap products).

- In class, the teacher used "soap opera" to mean a serialized program usually dealing with....
- He looked up "soap opera" because he had never seen it before.

---

speech therapist (noun)

A therapist who treats speech defects and disorders.

- In class, the teacher used "speech therapist" to mean a therapist who treats speech defects and disorders.
- The article explained what "speech therapist" means with a simple example.

---

stamp mill (noun)

A mill in which ore is crushed with stamps.

- The article explained what "stamp mill" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "stamp mill" to mean a mill in which ore is crushed with stamps.

state treasurer (noun)

The treasurer for a state government.

- In class, the teacher used "state treasurer" to mean the treasurer for a state government.
- The article explained what "state treasurer" means with a simple example.

steering system (noun)

A mechanism by which something is steered (especially a motor vehicle).

- Understanding "steering system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "steering system" because he had never seen it before.

stepping stone (noun)

A stone in a marsh or shallow water that can be stepped on in crossing.

- The job was just a stepping stone on his way to fame and riches.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stepping stone."

straw boss (noun)

A member of a work gang who supervises the other workers.

- In class, the teacher used "straw boss" to mean a member of a work gang who supervises the other....
- He looked up "straw boss" because he had never seen it before.

straw wine (noun)

Sweet wine from grapes partially sun-dried on the vine or on straw mats.

- Understanding "straw wine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "straw wine" means with a simple example.

swap space (noun)

The disk space that is set aside for virtual memory.

- The article explained what "swap space" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "swap space" to mean the disk space that is set aside for virtual memory.

tampa (noun)

A resort city in western Florida; located on Tampa Bay on the Gulf of Mexico.

- The article explained what "tampa" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tampa" to mean a resort city in western florida; located on tampa....

telephone receiver (noun)

Earphone that converts electrical signals into sounds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone receiver."
- They discussed "telephone receiver" during the group presentation.

tenth (noun)

A tenth part; one part in ten equal parts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tenth."
- The article explained what "tenth" means with a simple example.

theology (noun)

A particular system or school of religious beliefs and teachings.

- Jewish theology.
- Roman Catholic theology.

tin plate (noun)

A thin sheet of metal (iron or steel) coated with tin to prevent rusting; used especially for cans, pots, and tins.

- The article explained what "tin plate" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tin plate."

tobacco pipe (noun)

A tube with a small bowl at one end; used for smoking tobacco.

- They discussed "tobacco pipe" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tobacco pipe" to mean a tube with a small bowl at one end; used for....

---

trails (noun)

A track or mark left by something that has passed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trails."
- He looked up "trails" because he had never seen it before.

---

transmission control protocol (noun)

A protocol developed for the internet to get data from one network device to another.

- TCP uses a retransmission strategy to insure that data will not be lost in transmission.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transmission control protocol."

---

trash dump (noun)

A piece of land where waste materials are dumped.

- Understanding "trash dump" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trash dump."

---

unconscious process (noun)

A mental process that you are not directly aware of.

- The process of denial.
- He looked up "unconscious process" because he had never seen it before.

---

us mint (noun)

The mint that manufactures and distributes United States coins for circulation through Federal Reserve Banks; processes gold and silver bullion.

- Understanding "us mint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "us mint" because he had never seen it before.

---

us postal service (noun)

An independent federal agency that provides mail processing and delivery service for individuals and businesses in the United States.

- He looked up "us postal service" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "us postal service."

---

vegetable matter (noun)

Matter produced by plants or growing in the manner of a plant.

- Understanding "vegetable matter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "vegetable matter" means with a simple example.

---

velocity (noun)

Distance travelled per unit time.

- The article explained what "velocity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "velocity" to mean distance travelled per unit time.

---

venues (noun)

The scene of any event or action (especially the place of a meeting).

- Understanding "venues" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "venues" during the group presentation.

---

vice admiral (noun)

An admiral ranking below a full admiral and above a rear admiral.

- The article explained what "vice admiral" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "vice admiral" during the group presentation.

---

wave equation (noun)

A differential equation that describes the passage of harmonic waves through a medium.

- They discussed “wave equation” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “wave equation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wide-angle lens (noun)

A camera lens having a wider than normal angle of view (and usually a short focal length); produces an image that is foreshortened in the center and increasingly distorted in the periphery.

- The article explained what “wide-angle lens” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “wide-angle lens” during the group presentation.

---

witch-hunter (noun)

Someone who identifies and punishes people for their opinions.

- Understanding “witch-hunter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “witch-hunter” to mean someone who identifies and punishes people for....

---

yay (noun)

A branch of the Tai languages.

- The article explained what “yay” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “yay” to mean a branch of the tai languages.

---

absolute threshold (noun)

The lowest level of stimulation that a person can detect.

- Understanding “absolute threshold” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “absolute threshold” means with a simple example.

---

age norm (noun)

The average age at which particular performances are expected to appear.

- The article explained what “age norm” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “age norm.”

---

air-sleeve (noun)

A truncated cloth cone mounted on a mast; used (e.g., at airports) to show the direction of the wind.

- The article explained what “air-sleeve” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “air-sleeve” during the group presentation.

---

alcoholic (noun)

A person who drinks alcohol to excess habitually.

- In class, the teacher used “alcoholic” to mean a person who drinks alcohol to excess habitually.
- He looked up “alcoholic” because he had never seen it before.

---

algorithm error (noun)

Error resulting from the choice of the wrong algorithm or method for achieving the intended result.

- They discussed “algorithm error” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “algorithm error” to mean error resulting from the choice of the wrong....

---

ammunition (noun)

Information that can be used to attack or defend a claim or argument or viewpoint.

- His admission provided ammunition for his critics.
- The article explained what “ammunition” means with a simple example.

---

anal stage (noun)

(psychoanalysis) the second sexual and social stage of a child’s development during which bowel control is learned.

- He looked up “anal stage” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “anal stage” during the group presentation.

---

anthem (noun)

A song of praise (to God or to a saint or to a nation).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “anthem.”
- The article explained what “anthem” means with a simple example.

architects (noun)

Someone who creates plans to be used in making something (such as buildings).

- He looked up "architects" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "architects" during the group presentation.

at first glance (adverb)

Immediately.

- It was love at first sight.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "at first glance" naturally.

atomic energy commission (noun)

A former executive agency (from 1946 to 1974) that was responsible for research into atomic energy and its peacetime uses in the United States.

- He looked up "atomic energy commission" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "atomic energy commission."

banana split (noun)

A banana split lengthwise and topped with scoops of ice cream and sauces and nuts and whipped cream.

- The article explained what "banana split" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "banana split."

batch (noun)

A collection of things or persons to be handled together.

- A batch of letters.
- He looked up "batch" because he had never seen it before.

benjamin thompson (noun)

English physicist (born in America) who studied heat and friction; experiments convinced him that heat is caused by moving particles (1753-1814).

- He looked up "benjamin thompson" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "benjamin thompson" during the group presentation.

bill of fare (noun)

A list of dishes available at a restaurant.

- In class, the teacher used "bill of fare" to mean a list of dishes available at a restaurant.
- Understanding "bill of fare" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

binary operation (noun)

An operation that follows the rules of Boolean algebra; each operand and the result take one of two values.

- He looked up "binary operation" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "binary operation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bio lab (noun)

A laboratory for biological research.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bio lab."
- They discussed "bio lab" during the group presentation.

book of joshua (noun)

A book in the Old Testament describing how Joshua led the Israelites into Canaan (the Promised Land) after the death of Moses.

- He looked up "book of joshua" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "book of joshua" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

boot maker (noun)

A maker of boots.

- In class, the teacher used "boot maker" to mean a maker of boots.
- The article explained what "boot maker" means with a simple example.

bore bit (noun)

A drill for penetrating rock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bore bit."
- He looked up "bore bit" because he had never seen it before.

---

bow and arrow (noun)

A weapon consisting of arrows and the bow to shoot them.

- In class, the teacher used "bow and arrow" to mean a weapon consisting of arrows and the bow to shoot them.
- The article explained what "bow and arrow" means with a simple example.

---

brake band (noun)

A band that can be tightened around a shaft to stop its rotation.

- In class, the teacher used "brake band" to mean a band that can be tightened around a shaft to stop....
- The article explained what "brake band" means with a simple example.

---

bureau of diplomatic security (noun)

The bureau in the State Department that is responsible for the security of diplomats and embassies overseas.

- They discussed "bureau of diplomatic security" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bureau of diplomatic security" to mean the bureau in the state department that is....

---

cape horn (noun)

A rocky headland belonging to Chile at the southernmost tip of South America (south of Tierra del Fuego).

- He looked up "cape horn" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cape horn."

---

capital of colombia (noun)

Capital and largest city of Colombia; located in central Colombia on a high fertile plain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of colombia."
- They discussed "capital of colombia" during the group presentation.

---

capital of finland (noun)

The capital and largest city of Finland; located in southern Finland; a major port and commercial and cultural center.

- The article explained what "capital of finland" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "capital of finland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carson (noun)

United States biologist remembered for her opposition to the use of pesticides that were hazardous to wildlife (1907-1964).

- He looked up "carson" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "carson" during the group presentation.

---

catalog (noun)

A book or pamphlet containing an enumeration of things.

- He found it in the Sears catalog.
- It does not pretend to be a catalog of his achievements.

---

catalogue (noun)

A book or pamphlet containing an enumeration of things.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "catalogue."
- They discussed "catalogue" during the group presentation.

---

central intelligence machinery (noun)

The United Kingdom's central unit for the tasking and coordination and funding of intelligence and security agencies.

- In class, the teacher used "central intelligence machinery" to mean the united kingdom's central unit for the tasking....
- The article explained what "central intelligence machinery" means with a simple example.

---

cloth cap (noun)

A flat woolen cap with a stiff peak.

- Understanding "cloth cap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what “cloth cap” means with a simple example.

collector (noun)

A crater that has collected cosmic material hitting the earth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “collector.”
- The article explained what “collector” means with a simple example.

compatible software (noun)

Software that can run on different computers without modification.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “compatible software.”
- He looked up “compatible software” because he had never seen it before.

complex fraction (noun)

A fraction with fractions in the numerator or denominator.

- Understanding “complex fraction” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “complex fraction.”

compliment (verb)

Say something to someone that expresses praise.

- He complimented her on her last physics paper.
- Learners should practice how to use “compliment” in real sentences.

conducting wire (noun)

A metal conductor that carries electricity over a distance.

- They discussed “conducting wire” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “conducting wire” because he had never seen it before.

consisted (verb)

Be consistent in form, tenor, or character; be congruous.

- Learners should practice how to use “consisted” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “consisted” and when to wait.

continually (adverb)

Seemingly without interruption.

- Complained continually that there wasn’t enough money.
- She spoke “continually,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

coordinator (noun)

Someone whose task is to see that work goes harmoniously.

- In class, the teacher used “coordinator” to mean someone whose task is to see that work goes....
- They discussed “coordinator” during the group presentation.

crash helmet (noun)

A padded helmet worn by people riding bicycles or motorcycles; protects the head in case of accidents.

- In class, the teacher used “crash helmet” to mean a padded helmet worn by people riding bicycles or....
- Understanding “crash helmet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

czech capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of the Czech Republic in the western part of the country; a cultural and commercial center since the 14th century.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “czech capital.”
- Understanding “czech capital” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

danish (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Denmark or the Danes or their language.

- Danish furniture.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “danish.”

department of homeland security (noun)

The federal department that administers all matters relating to homeland security.

- They discussed "department of homeland security" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "department of homeland security" to mean the federal department that administers all matters....

---

depth gauge (noun)

A gauge for measuring the depth of grooves or holes or other concavities.

- In class, the teacher used "depth gauge" to mean a gauge for measuring the depth of grooves or holes....
- The article explained what "depth gauge" means with a simple example.

---

detention cell (noun)

A large cell where prisoners (people awaiting trial or sentence or refugees or illegal immigrants) are confined together temporarily.

- Understanding "detention cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "detention cell" means with a simple example.

---

dial phone (noun)

A telephone with a dial for registering the number to be called.

- Understanding "dial phone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dial phone" to mean a telephone with a dial for registering the number....

---

dictionary definition (noun)

A definition that reports the standard uses of a word or phrase or symbol.

- The article explained what "dictionary definition" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dictionary definition" during the group presentation.

---

drafted (verb)

Draw up an outline or sketch for something.

- The coach explained when to use "drafted" and when to wait.
- Can you use "drafted" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

drilling bit (noun)

A bit used in drilling for oil.

- He looked up "drilling bit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "drilling bit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drinking straw (noun)

A thin paper or plastic tube used to suck liquids into the mouth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drinking straw."
- The article explained what "drinking straw" means with a simple example.

---

electric cord (noun)

A light insulated conductor for household use.

- The article explained what "electric cord" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "electric cord" to mean a light insulated conductor for household use.

---

electronic dictionary (noun)

A machine-readable version of a standard dictionary; organized alphabetically.

- Understanding "electronic dictionary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "electronic dictionary" because he had never seen it before.

---

ellis island (noun)

An island in New York Bay that was formerly the principal immigration station for the United States.

- Some twelve millions immigrants passed through Ellis Island.
- He looked up "ellis island" because he had never seen it before.

---

feminine (noun)

A gender that refers chiefly (but not exclusively) to females or to objects classified as female.

- The article explained what "feminine" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "feminine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

firearms (noun)

A portable gun.

- They discussed "firearms" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "firearms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

folk poet (noun)

A folk writer who composes in verse.

- In class, the teacher used "folk poet" to mean a folk writer who composes in verse.
- Understanding "folk poet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fountain (noun)

A plumbing fixture that provides a flow of water.

- He looked up "fountain" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fountain."

---

fried egg (noun)

Eggs cooked by sauteing in oil or butter; sometimes turned and cooked on both sides.

- The article explained what "fried egg" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fried egg" to mean eggs cooked by sauteing in oil or butter; sometimes....

---

fuel injection system (noun)

Mechanical system to inject atomized fuel directly into the cylinders of an internal-combustion engine; avoids the need for a carburetor.

- Understanding "fuel injection system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fuel injection system" during the group presentation.

---

fur hat (noun)

A hat made of fur.

- He looked up "fur hat" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fur hat" to mean a hat made of fur.

---

future perfect tense (noun)

A perfective tense used to describe action that will be completed in the future.

- 'I will have finished' is an example of the future perfect.
- The article explained what "future perfect tense" means with a simple example.

---

garden cart (noun)

A cart for carrying small loads; has handles and one or more wheels.

- The article explained what "garden cart" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "garden cart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gb (noun)

An island comprising England and Scotland and Wales.

- The article explained what "gb" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gb" to mean an island comprising england and scotland and wales.

---

generally accepted accounting principles (noun)

A collection of rules and procedures and conventions that define accepted accounting practice; includes broad guidelines as well as detailed procedures.

- In class, the teacher used "generally accepted accounting principles" to mean a collection of rules and procedures and....
- He looked up "generally accepted accounting principles" because he had never seen it before.

---

glance (verb)

Throw a glance at; take a brief look at.

- She only glanced at the paper.
- Learners should practice how to use "glance" in real sentences.

glance over (verb)

Examine hastily.

- She tried to use "glance over" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "glance over" and when to wait.

goat cheese (noun)

Made from goats' milk.

- In class, the teacher used "goat cheese" to mean made from goats' milk.
- Understanding "goat cheese" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grand canyon state (noun)

A state in southwestern United States; site of the Grand Canyon.

- They discussed "grand canyon state" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "grand canyon state" because he had never seen it before.

greek monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Greece.

- The article explained what "greek monetary unit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greek monetary unit."

hay (verb)

Convert (plant material) into hay.

- The coach explained when to use "hay" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "hay" in real sentences.

headlines (noun)

The heading or caption of a newspaper article.

- They discussed "headlines" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "headlines" because he had never seen it before.

hebrew (adjective)

Of or relating to the language of the Hebrews.

- Hebrew vowels.
- The old Hebrew prophets.

helen hunt jackson (noun)

United States writer of romantic novels about the unjust treatment of Native Americans (1830-1885).

- He looked up "helen hunt jackson" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "helen hunt jackson."

hometown (noun)

The town (or city) where you grew up or where you have your principal residence.

- He never went back to his hometown again.
- They discussed "hometown" during the group presentation.

hook of holland (noun)

A cape on the southwestern coast of the Netherlands near Rotterdam.

- Understanding "hook of holland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "hook of holland" means with a simple example.

horse cart (noun)

Heavy cart; drawn by a horse; used for farm work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse cart."
- He looked up "horse cart" because he had never seen it before.

horse-cart (noun)

Heavy cart; drawn by a horse; used for farm work.

- Understanding "horse-cart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse-cart."

---

humanitarian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of humanitarianism.

- Humanitarian aid.
- The speaker chose "humanitarian" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

hungary (noun)

A republic in central Europe.

- He looked up "hungary" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hungary" during the group presentation.

---

ian douglas smith (noun)

Rhodesian statesman who declared independence of Zimbabwe from Great Britain (born in 1919).

- Understanding "ian douglas smith" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ian douglas smith."

---

idaho (noun)

A state in the Rocky Mountains.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "idaho."
- The article explained what "idaho" means with a simple example.

---

implementing (verb)

Pursue to a conclusion or bring to a successful issue.

- He did not know how to use "implementing" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "implementing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

in all likelihood (adverb)

With considerable certainty; without much doubt.

- In all likelihood we are headed for war.
- She spoke "in all likelihood," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

instruction execution (noun)

(computer science) the process of carrying out an instruction by a computer.

- He looked up "instruction execution" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instruction execution."

---

ion pump (noun)

A vacuum pump that removes gas by ionizing the atoms or molecules and adsorbing them on a metal surface.

- He looked up "ion pump" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ion pump."

---

lemon juice (noun)

Usually freshly squeezed juice of lemons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lemon juice."
- They discussed "lemon juice" during the group presentation.

---

linear operator (noun)

An operator that obeys the distributive law: A(f+g) = Af + Ag (where f and g are functions).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "linear operator."
- He looked up "linear operator" because he had never seen it before.

---

lords spiritual (noun)

The clergy in France and the heads of the church in Britain.

- The article explained what "lords spiritual" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "lords spiritual" to mean the clergy in france and the heads of the church in....

---

lounge around (verb)

Be lazy or idle.

- Her son is just bumming around all day.
- He did not know how to use "lounge around" until he saw an example.

---

lounge car (noun)

Railroad car having a bar and tables and lounge chairs.

- Understanding "lounge car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "lounge car" during the group presentation.

---

make hay (verb)

Turn to one's advantage.

- The environmentalist lobby made hay of the nuclear plant accident.
- Learners should practice how to use "make hay" in real sentences.

---

massacre (verb)

Kill a large number of people indiscriminately.

- The Hutus massacred the Tutsis in Rwanda.
- Can you use "massacre" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

medieval latin (noun)

Latin used for liturgical purposes during the Middle Ages.

- The article explained what "medieval latin" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medieval latin."

---

meme (noun)

A cultural unit (an idea or value or pattern of behavior) that is passed from one person to another by non-genetic means (as by imitation).

- Memes are the cultural counterpart of genes.
- In class, the teacher used "meme" to mean a cultural unit (an idea or value or pattern of....

---

mild silver protein (noun)

Antiseptic consisting of a compound of protein and silver (trade name Argyrol).

- Understanding "mild silver protein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mild silver protein."

---

mod (noun)

A British teenager or young adult in the 1960s; noted for their clothes consciousness and opposition to the rockers.

- Understanding "mod" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mod" to mean a british teenager or young adult in the 1960s;....

---

nationalist (noun)

An advocate of national independence of or a strong national government.

- Understanding "nationalist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "nationalist" to mean an advocate of national independence of or a strong....

---

nationals (noun)

A person who owes allegiance to that nation.

- The article explained what "nationals" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nationals" to mean a person who owes allegiance to that nation.

---

nickname (noun)

A familiar name for a person (often a shortened version of a person's given name).

- Joe's mother would not use his nickname and always called him Joseph.
- Henry's nickname was Slim.

---

nixon (noun)

Vice president under Eisenhower and 37th President of the United States; resigned after the Watergate scandal in 1974 (1913-1994).

- He looked up "nixon" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "nixon" during the group presentation.

nut bread (noun)

Bread containing chopped nuts.

- The article explained what "nut bread" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "nut bread" during the group presentation.

observer (noun)

An expert who observes and comments on something.

- Understanding "observer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "observer" during the group presentation.

of necessity (adverb)

In such a manner as could not be otherwise.

- Place "of necessity" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "of necessity" naturally.

oral roberts (noun)

United States evangelist (born 1918).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oral roberts."
- Understanding "oral roberts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

orthodox church (noun)

Derived from the Byzantine Church and adhering to Byzantine rites.

- Understanding "orthodox church" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orthodox church."

papa (noun)

An informal term for a father; probably derived from baby talk.

- He looked up "papa" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "papa."

paper towel (noun)

A disposable towel made of absorbent paper.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paper towel."
- He looked up "paper towel" because he had never seen it before.

parked (adjective)

That have been left.

- There were four parked cars across the street.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "parked."

past perfect tense (noun)

A perfective tense used to express action completed in the past.

- 'I had finished' is an example of the past perfect.
- He looked up "past perfect tense" because he had never seen it before.

paste (noun)

A hard, brilliant lead glass that is used in making artificial jewelry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paste."
- Understanding "paste" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

paste-up (noun)

A composition of flat objects pasted on a board or other backing.

- They showed him a paste-up of the book jacket.
- They discussed "paste-up" during the group presentation.

---

pepper sauce (noun)

For venison: brown sauce with sauteed vegetables and trimmings and marinade and plenty of pepper.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pepper sauce."
- He looked up "pepper sauce" because he had never seen it before.

---

pillow block (noun)

A cast-iron or steel block for supporting a journal or bearing.

- In class, the teacher used "pillow block" to mean a cast-iron or steel block for supporting a journal....
- They discussed "pillow block" during the group presentation.

---

pilot cloth (noun)

A thick blue cloth used to make overcoats and coats for sailors etc.

- In class, the teacher used "pilot cloth" to mean a thick blue cloth used to make overcoats and coats....
- He looked up "pilot cloth" because he had never seen it before.

---

pilot ladder (noun)

(nautical) a hanging ladder of ropes or chains supporting wooden or metal rungs or steps.

- He looked up "pilot ladder" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pilot ladder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pioneer (noun)

One the first colonists or settlers in a new territory.

- They went west as pioneers with only the possessions they could carry with them.
- He looked up "pioneer" because he had never seen it before.

---

plaza (noun)

A public square with room for pedestrians.

- They met at Elm Plaza.
- A good plaza should have a movie house.

---

pond apple (noun)

Ovoid yellow fruit with very fragrant peach-colored flesh; related to custard apples.

- They discussed "pond apple" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pond apple" means with a simple example.

---

postal card (noun)

A card for sending messages by post without an envelope.

- The article explained what "postal card" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "postal card" to mean a card for sending messages by post without an envelope.

---

postal code (noun)

A code of letters and digits added to a postal address to aid in the sorting of mail.

- He looked up "postal code" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "postal code" to mean a code of letters and digits added to a postal....

---

quebec bridge (noun)

A cantilever bridge in Quebec.

- He looked up "quebec bridge" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "quebec bridge" to mean a cantilever bridge in quebec.

---

reagan administration (noun)

The executive under President Reagan.

- He looked up "reagan administration" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "reagan administration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

recipient role (noun)

The semantic role of the animate entity that is passively involved in the happening denoted by the verb in the clause.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "recipient role."
- They discussed "recipient role" during the group presentation.

record sleeve (noun)

A sleeve for storing a phonograph record.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "record sleeve."
- He looked up "record sleeve" because he had never seen it before.

recreational (adjective)

Of or relating to recreation.

- A recreational area with a pool and ball fields.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "recreational."

religions (noun)

An institution to express belief in a divine power.

- In class, the teacher used "religions" to mean an institution to express belief in a divine power.
- He looked up "religions" because he had never seen it before.

revolutionary calendar month (noun)

A month in the Revolutionary calendar.

- The article explained what "revolutionary calendar month" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "revolutionary calendar month" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rider plate (noun)

A horizontal beam (or plate) connected to the top of a ship's vertical keel or to the keelson.

- Understanding "rider plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rider plate" to mean a horizontal beam (or plate) connected to the top....

ring armor (noun)

(Middle Ages) flexible armor made of interlinked metal rings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ring armor."
- They discussed "ring armor" during the group presentation.

rode (verb)

Harass with persistent criticism or carping.

- The moon rode high in the night sky.
- His glasses rode high on his nose.

roman collar (noun)

A stiff white collar with no opening in the front; a distinctive symbol of the clergy.

- He looked up "roman collar" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roman collar."

rubber boot (noun)

A high boot made of rubber.

- In class, the teacher used "rubber boot" to mean a high boot made of rubber.
- Understanding "rubber boot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sailing boat (noun)

A small sailing vessel; usually with a single mast.

- The article explained what "sailing boat" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sailing boat."

saint bride (noun)

Irish abbess; a patron saint of Ireland (453-523).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saint bride."
- He looked up "saint bride" because he had never seen it before.

---

scheme arch (noun)

An arch whose height is less than half its width.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scheme arch."
- He looked up "scheme arch" because he had never seen it before.

---

sheffield (noun)

A steel manufacturing city in northern England famous for its cutlery industry.

- Understanding "sheffield" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sheffield" means with a simple example.

---

short sleeve (noun)

A sleeve extending from the shoulder to the elbow.

- In class, the teacher used "short sleeve" to mean a sleeve extending from the shoulder to the elbow.
- The article explained what "short sleeve" means with a simple example.

---

ski jacket (noun)

A parka to be worn while skiing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ski jacket."
- He looked up "ski jacket" because he had never seen it before.

---

skies (noun)

The atmosphere and outer space as viewed from the earth.

- The article explained what "skies" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "skies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

slide valve (noun)

Valve that opens and closes a passageway by sliding over a port.

- They discussed "slide valve" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "slide valve" to mean valve that opens and closes a passageway by sliding....

---

soap powder (noun)

Soap in powdered form mixed with alkaline builders.

- Understanding "soap powder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "soap powder" because he had never seen it before.

---

soil horizon (noun)

A layer in a soil profile.

- In class, the teacher used "soil horizon" to mean a layer in a soil profile.
- They discussed "soil horizon" during the group presentation.

---

solar thermal system (noun)

A system that converts sunlight into heat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solar thermal system."
- He looked up "solar thermal system" because he had never seen it before.

---

square toes (noun)

A formal and conservative person with old-fashioned views.

- He looked up "square toes" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "square toes" to mean a formal and conservative person with old-fashioned....

---

stamps (noun)

The distinctive form in which a thing is made.

- He looked up "stamps" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "stamps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stare down (verb)

Overcome or cause to waver or submit by (or as if by) staring.

- He simply stared down his opponent.
- Can you use "stare down" in a sentence that fits this situation?

storage-battery grid (noun)

A perforated or corrugated metal plate used in a storage battery as a conductor and support for the active material.

- The article explained what "storage-battery grid" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "storage-battery grid" to mean a perforated or corrugated metal plate used in a....

subsidiary company (noun)

A company that is completely controlled by another company.

- In class, the teacher used "subsidiary company" to mean a company that is completely controlled by another....
- They discussed "subsidiary company" during the group presentation.

suburban (adjective)

Relating to or characteristic of or situated in suburbs.

- Suburban population.
- Would you call this situation "suburban"? Explain why.

sung (noun)

The imperial dynasty of China from 960 to 1279; noted for art and literature and philosophy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sung."
- He looked up "sung" because he had never seen it before.

suppliers (noun)

Someone whose business is to supply a particular service or commodity.

- The article explained what "suppliers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "suppliers" to mean someone whose business is to supply a particular....

swing voter (noun)

A voter who has no allegiance to any political party and whose unpredictable decisions can swing the outcome of an election one way or the other.

- He looked up "swing voter" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "swing voter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tablets (noun)

A small flat compressed cake of some substance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tablets."
- Understanding "tablets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tea cart (noun)

Serving cart for serving tea or light refreshments.

- He looked up "tea cart" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tea cart" to mean serving cart for serving tea or light refreshments.

tenth part (noun)

A tenth part; one part in ten equal parts.

- He looked up "tenth part" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tenth part."

terribly (adverb)

Used as intensifiers.

- Terribly interesting.
- She sings terribly.

territorial (adjective)

Of or relating to a territory.

- The territorial government of the Virgin Islands.
- Territorial claims made by a country.

---

throw pillow (noun)

A small cushion that is used for decorative purposes.

- They discussed "throw pillow" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "throw pillow."

---

tin hat (noun)

A lightweight protective helmet (plastic or metal) worn by construction workers.

- Understanding "tin hat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tin hat" to mean a lightweight protective helmet (plastic or metal)....

---

tire tool (noun)

Hand tool consisting of a lever that is used to force the casing of a pneumatic tire onto a steel wheel.

- Understanding "tire tool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tire tool" because he had never seen it before.

---

tony blair (noun)

British statesman who became prime minister in 1997 (born in 1953).

- He looked up "tony blair" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tony blair" to mean british statesman who became prime minister in 1997....

---

toss (verb)

Lightly throw to see which side comes up.

- Toss me newspaper.
- Toss the salad.

---

toss back (verb)

Throw back with a quick, light motion.

- She tossed back her head.
- She tried to use "toss back" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

toss in (verb)

Add casually to a conversation.

- 'I don't agree with this,' she tossed in.
- She tried to use "toss in" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

toss off (verb)

Write quickly.

- She dashed off a note to her husband saying she would not be home for supper.
- He scratched off a thank-you note to the hostess.

---

train depot (noun)

Terminal where trains load or unload passengers or goods.

- He looked up "train depot" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "train depot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

travel bargain (noun)

A bargain rate for travellers on commercial routes (usually air routes).

- In class, the teacher used "travel bargain" to mean a bargain rate for travellers on commercial routes....
- Understanding "travel bargain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trip the light fantastic toe (verb)

Move in a pattern; usually to musical accompaniment; do or perform a dance.

- My husband and I like to dance at home to the radio.
- He did not know how to use "trip the light fantastic toe" until he saw an example.

---

troy unit (noun)

Any of the unit of the troy system of weights.

- In class, the teacher used "troy unit" to mean any of the unit of the troy system of weights.
- He looked up "troy unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

turtle (noun)

A sweater or jersey with a high close-fitting collar.

- In class, the teacher used "turtle" to mean a sweater or jersey with a high close-fitting collar.
- He looked up "turtle" because he had never seen it before.

---

twelve noon (noun)

The middle of the day.

- The article explained what "twelve noon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twelve noon."

---

two-thirds (noun)

Two of three equal parts of a divisible whole.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "two-thirds."
- He looked up "two-thirds" because he had never seen it before.

---

ur (noun)

An ancient city of Sumer located on a former channel of the Euphrates River.

- The article explained what "ur" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ur" to mean an ancient city of sumer located on a former....

---

vegetable oil (noun)

Any of a group of liquid edible fats that are obtained from plants.

- The article explained what "vegetable oil" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vegetable oil" to mean any of a group of liquid edible fats that are....

---

verbal (adjective)

Of or relating to or formed from words in general.

- Verbal ability.
- Verbal adjectives like 'running' in 'hot and cold running water'.

---

vienna roll (noun)

Yeast-raised roll with a hard crust.

- He looked up "vienna roll" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "vienna roll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wash-hand basin (noun)

A basin for washing the hands ('wash-hand basin' is a British expression).

- Understanding "wash-hand basin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wash-hand basin" means with a simple example.

---

wedding licence (noun)

A license authorizing two people to marry.

- They discussed "wedding licence" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "wedding licence" to mean a license authorizing two people to marry.

---

wool (noun)

A fabric made from the hair of sheep.

- They discussed "wool" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wool."

yang (noun)

The bright positive masculine principle in Chinese dualistic cosmology.

- Yin and yang together produce everything that comes into existence.
- They discussed "yang" during the group presentation.

acoustic device (noun)

A device for amplifying or transmitting sound.

- The article explained what "acoustic device" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "acoustic device" during the group presentation.

activated carbon (noun)

Powdered or granular carbon used for purifying by adsorption; given orally (as a slurry) it is an antidote for some kinds of poisons.

- Understanding "activated carbon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "activated carbon" to mean powdered or granular carbon used for purifying by....

air-raid shelter (noun)

A chamber (often underground) reinforced against bombing and provided with food and living facilities; used during air raids.

- Understanding "air-raid shelter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "air-raid shelter" means with a simple example.

angles (verb)

To incline or bend from a vertical position.

- The coach explained when to use "angles" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "angles" carefully so everyone would understand.

architectural engineering (noun)

The branch of engineering that deals with the construction of buildings (as distinguished from architecture as a design art).

- Understanding "architectural engineering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "architectural engineering" during the group presentation.

arguably (adverb)

As can be shown by argument.

- She is arguably the best.
- Using "arguably" can make your explanation more exact.

armies (noun)

A large number of people united for some specific purpose.

- They discussed "armies" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "armies" because he had never seen it before.

armstrong (noun)

United States pioneering jazz trumpeter and bandleader (1900-1971).

- They discussed "armstrong" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "armstrong."

arthur holmes (noun)

English geologist and supporter of the theory of continental drift (1890-1965).

- He looked up "arthur holmes" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "arthur holmes" to mean english geologist and supporter of the theory of....

assessed (verb)

Estimate the value of (property) for taxation.

- Our house hasn't been assessed in years.
- Can you use "assessed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

attractions (noun)

An entertainer who attracts large audiences.

- Understanding "attractions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "attractions."

---

bachelor of arts (noun)

A bachelor's degree in arts and sciences.

- The article explained what "bachelor of arts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bachelor of arts" to mean a bachelor's degree in arts and sciences.

---

banana republic (noun)

A small country (especially in Central America) that is politically unstable and whose economy is dominated by foreign companies and depends on one export (such as bananas).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "banana republic."
- He looked up "banana republic" because he had never seen it before.

---

barrel maker (noun)

A craftsman who makes or repairs wooden barrels or tubs.

- He looked up "barrel maker" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "barrel maker" to mean a craftsman who makes or repairs wooden barrels or tubs.

---

beers (noun)

A general name for alcoholic beverages made by fermenting a cereal (or mixture of cereals) flavored with hops.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beers."
- They discussed "beers" during the group presentation.

---

bells (noun)

The sound of a bell being struck.

- She heard the distant toll of church bells.
- Understanding "bells" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bicycle chain (noun)

A chain that transmits the power from the pedals to the rear wheel of a bicycle.

- In class, the teacher used "bicycle chain" to mean a chain that transmits the power from the pedals to....
- They discussed "bicycle chain" during the group presentation.

---

blunt (verb)

Make less lively, intense, or vigorous; impair in vigor, force, activity, or sensation.

- Terror blunted her feelings.
- Blunted emotions.

---

boobs (verb)

Commit a faux pas or a fault or make a serious mistake.

- He did not know how to use "boobs" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "boobs" in real sentences.

---

brakes (noun)

A braking device consisting of a combination of interacting parts that work to slow a motor vehicle.

- She wan not ready to put the brakes on her life with a marriage.
- New legislation will put the brakes on spending.

---

breast drill (noun)

A portable drill with a plate that is pressed against the chest to force the drill point into the work.

- Understanding "breast drill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "breast drill" means with a simple example.

---

brigade (verb)

Form or unite into a brigade.

- The coach explained when to use "brigade" and when to wait.

- Can you use “brigade” in a sentence that fits this situation?

broad gauge (noun)

A railroad track (or its width) broader than the standard 56.5 inches.

- They discussed “broad gauge” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “broad gauge” to mean a railroad track (or its width) broader than the....

bulgaria (noun)

A republic in the eastern part of the Balkan Peninsula in southeastern Europe.

- They discussed “bulgaria” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bulgaria.”

burial (noun)

The ritual placing of a corpse in a grave.

- The article explained what “burial” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “burial” to mean the ritual placing of a corpse in a grave.

bus depot (noun)

A terminal that serves bus passengers.

- Understanding “bus depot” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “bus depot” during the group presentation.

butter cookie (noun)

Cookie containing much butter.

- Understanding “butter cookie” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “butter cookie” means with a simple example.

canceled (verb)

Postpone indefinitely or annul something that was scheduled.

- He did not know how to use “canceled” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “canceled” when talking about this idea.

cape colony (noun)

A former province of southern South Africa that was settled by the Dutch in 1652 and ceded to Great Britain in 1814; in 1994 it was split into three new provinces of South Africa.

- The article explained what “cape colony” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cape colony” to mean a former province of southern south africa that was....

capital of chad (noun)

The capital and largest city of Chad; located in the southwestern on the Shari river.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “capital of chad.”
- Understanding “capital of chad” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of venezuela (noun)

The capital and largest city of Venezuela.

- In class, the teacher used “capital of venezuela” to mean the capital and largest city of venezuela.
- The article explained what “capital of venezuela” means with a simple example.

cardinal (noun)

The number of elements in a mathematical set; denotes a quantity but not the order.

- Understanding “cardinal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “cardinal” to mean the number of elements in a mathematical set;....

carson city (noun)

Capital of the state of Nevada; located in western Nevada.

- The article explained what “carson city” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “carson city” to mean capital of the state of nevada; located in western....

cartoon strip (noun)

A sequence of drawings telling a story in a newspaper or comic book.

- Understanding "cartoon strip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cartoon strip" during the group presentation.

---

champ (noun)

Someone who has won first place in a competition.

- They discussed "champ" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "champ" because he had never seen it before.

---

champagne (noun)

A white sparkling wine either produced in Champagne or resembling that produced there.

- Understanding "champagne" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "champagne" during the group presentation.

---

character printer (noun)

A printer that prints a single character at a time.

- They discussed "character printer" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "character printer" means with a simple example.

---

character-at-a-time printer (noun)

A printer that prints a single character at a time.

- They discussed "character-at-a-time printer" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "character-at-a-time printer" because he had never seen it before.

---

cheated (verb)

Be sexually unfaithful to one's partner in marriage.

- We were cheated by their clever-sounding scheme.
- The coach explained when to use "cheated" and when to wait.

---

chinese fried rice (noun)

Boiled rice mixed with scallions and minced pork or shrimp and quickly scrambled with eggs.

- In class, the teacher used "chinese fried rice" to mean boiled rice mixed with scallions and minced pork or....
- Understanding "chinese fried rice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chorus (noun)

A group of people assembled to sing together.

- A chorus of boos.
- In class, the teacher used "chorus" to mean a group of people assembled to sing together.

---

chrome (noun)

Another word for chromium when it is used in dyes or pigments.

- Understanding "chrome" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "chrome" means with a simple example.

---

circular function (noun)

Function of an angle expressed as a ratio of the length of the sides of right-angled triangle containing the angle.

- The article explained what "circular function" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "circular function" during the group presentation.

---

classics (noun)

Study of the literary works of ancient Greece and Rome.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "classics."
- He looked up "classics" because he had never seen it before.

---

cleaner (noun)

A preparation used in cleaning something.

- He looked up “cleaner” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cleaner.”

---

co-educate (verb)

Educate persons of both sexes together.

- She tried to use “co-educate” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use “co-educate” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cognitive psychology (noun)

An approach to psychology that emphasizes internal mental processes.

- They discussed “cognitive psychology” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “cognitive psychology” means with a simple example.

---

colour supplement (noun)

(British) a magazine that is printed in color and circulated with a newspaper (especially on weekends).

- They discussed “colour supplement” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “colour supplement” to mean (british) a magazine that is printed in color and....

---

commissioned military officer (noun)

A commissioned officer in the Army or Air Force or Marine Corps.

- They discussed “commissioned military officer” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “commissioned military officer” to mean a commissioned officer in the army or air force or....

---

composite material (noun)

Strong lightweight material developed in the laboratory; fibers of more than one kind are bonded together chemically.

- He looked up “composite material” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “composite material.”

---

computer simulation (noun)

(computer science) the technique of representing the real world by a computer program.

- A simulation should imitate the internal processes and not merely the results of the thing being simulated.
- In class, the teacher used “computer simulation” to mean (computer science) the technique of representing....

---

conclude (verb)

Decide by reasoning; draw or come to a conclusion.

- The committee concluded the meeting.
- They concluded an economic agreement.

---

congressional medal of honor (noun)

The highest U.S. military decoration awarded for bravery and valor in action ‘above and beyond the call of duty’.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “congressional medal of honor.”
- He looked up “congressional medal of honor” because he had never seen it before.

---

cookie sheet (noun)

A cooking utensil consisting of a flat rectangular metal sheet used for baking cookies or biscuits.

- The article explained what “cookie sheet” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “cookie sheet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coordination (noun)

The skillful and effective interaction of movements.

- They discussed “coordination” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coordination.”

---

cottage cheese (noun)

Mild white cheese made from curds of soured skim milk.

- He looked up “cottage cheese” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “cottage cheese” during the group presentation.

course catalog (noun)

A catalog listing the courses offered by a college or university.

- He looked up "course catalog" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "course catalog."

course catalogue (noun)

A catalog listing the courses offered by a college or university.

- In class, the teacher used "course catalogue" to mean a catalog listing the courses offered by a college....
- They discussed "course catalogue" during the group presentation.

cs (noun)

A soft silver-white ductile metallic element (liquid at normal temperatures); the most electropositive and alkaline metal.

- He looked up "cs" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cuban capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Cuba; located in western Cuba; one of the oldest cities in the Americas.

- The article explained what "cuban capital" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cuban capital."

delaware (noun)

The Algonquian language spoken by the Delaware.

- The article explained what "delaware" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "delaware."

detention camp (noun)

An institution where juvenile offenders can be held temporarily (usually under the supervision of a juvenile court).

- The article explained what "detention camp" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "detention camp" to mean an institution where juvenile offenders can be held....

disk error (noun)

Error resulting from malfunction of a magnetic disk.

- They discussed "disk error" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "disk error" to mean error resulting from malfunction of a magnetic disk.

dome (noun)

A concave shape whose distinguishing characteristic is that the concavity faces downward.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dome."
- Understanding "dome" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dope (verb)

Add impurities to (a semiconductor) in order to produce or modify its properties.

- The resistors have been doped.
- The athletes were dope by the coach before the race.

drag through the mud (verb)

Speak unfavorably about.

- Learners should practice how to use "drag through the mud" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "drag through the mud" when talking about this idea.

ducks (verb)

To move (the head or body) quickly downwards or away.

- The coach explained when to use "ducks" and when to wait.
- Can you use "ducks" in a sentence that fits this situation?

echo chamber (noun)

An enclosed space for producing reverberation of a sound.

- They discussed "echo chamber" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "echo chamber."

---

elevation (noun)

The event of something being raised upward.

- An elevation of the temperature in the afternoon.
- There was snow at the higher elevations.

---

enabling act (noun)

A provision in a law that confers on appropriate officials the power to implement or enforce the law.

- In class, the teacher used "enabling act" to mean a provision in a law that confers on appropriate....
- The article explained what "enabling act" means with a simple example.

---

entrepreneurs (noun)

Someone who organizes a business venture and assumes the risk for it.

- He looked up "entrepreneurs" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "entrepreneurs" during the group presentation.

---

epa (noun)

An independent federal agency established to coordinate programs aimed at reducing pollution and protecting the environment.

- He looked up "epa" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "epa."

---

explored (verb)

Travel to or penetrate into.

- In everyday English, people use "explored" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "explored" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

facial tissue (noun)

Tissue paper suitable for use on the face.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "facial tissue."
- They discussed "facial tissue" during the group presentation.

---

finishes (noun)

The place designated as the end (as of a race or journey).

- They discussed "finishes" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "finishes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flash lamp (noun)

A lamp for providing momentary light to take a photograph.

- In class, the teacher used "flash lamp" to mean a lamp for providing momentary light to take a....
- The article explained what "flash lamp" means with a simple example.

---

foot brake (noun)

Hydraulic brake operated by pressing on a foot pedal.

- They discussed "foot brake" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foot brake."

---

frederick william (noun)

The Elector of Brandenburg who rebuilt his domain after its destruction during the Thirty Years' War (1620-1688).

- He looked up "frederick william" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "frederick william" during the group presentation.

---

frederick william i (noun)

Son of Frederick I who became king of Prussia in 1713; reformed and strengthened the Prussian army (1688-1740).

- The article explained what "frederick william i" means with a simple example.

- Understanding “frederick william i” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

frequency-response curve (noun)

(electronics) a graph of frequency response with signal amplitude or gain plotted against frequency.

- They discussed “frequency-response curve” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “frequency-response curve” to mean (electronics) a graph of frequency response with....

fucks (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- Learners should practice how to use “fucks” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “fucks” carefully so everyone would understand.

garlic press (noun)

A press for extracting juice from garlic.

- The article explained what “garlic press” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “garlic press” during the group presentation.

gesture (verb)

Show, express or direct through movement.

- He gestured his desire to leave.
- He did not know how to use “gesture” until he saw an example.

ghana (noun)

A republic in West Africa on the Gulf of Guinea.

- Ghana was colonized as the Gold Coast by the British.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ghana.”

gibson (noun)

Australian actor (born in the United States in 1956).

- In class, the teacher used “gibson” to mean australian actor (born in the united states in 1956).
- He looked up “gibson” because he had never seen it before.

gilbert (noun)

A unit of magnetomotive force equal to 0.7958 ampere-turns.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gilbert.”
- He looked up “gilbert” because he had never seen it before.

give the sack (verb)

Terminate the employment of; discharge from an office or position.

- The boss fired his secretary today.
- The company terminated 25% of its workers.

globe pepper (noun)

Round sweet pepper.

- They discussed “globe pepper” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “globe pepper” means with a simple example.

good shepherd (noun)

A teacher and prophet born in Bethlehem and active in Nazareth; his life and sermons form the basis for Christianity (circa 4 BC - AD 29).

- In class, the teacher used “good shepherd” to mean a teacher and prophet born in bethlehem and active....
- They discussed “good shepherd” during the group presentation.

grass widow (noun)

A divorced woman or a woman who is separated from her husband.

- Understanding “grass widow” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “grass widow” to mean a divorced woman or a woman who is separated from....

historian (noun)

A person who is an authority on history and who studies it and writes about it.

- They discussed "historian" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "historian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hostage (noun)

A prisoner who is held by one party to insure that another party will meet specified terms.

- The article explained what "hostage" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hostage."

ice-cream soda (noun)

A drink with ice cream floating in it.

- They discussed "ice-cream soda" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ice-cream soda" means with a simple example.

in chorus (adverb)

Speaking or singing at the same time; simultaneously.

- They responded in chorus to the teacher's questions.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in chorus" naturally.

indian reservation (noun)

A reservation set aside for the use of Indians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian reservation."
- Understanding "indian reservation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

individually (adverb)

Apart from others.

- Taken individually, the rooms were, in fact, square.
- Place "individually" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

inevitably (adverb)

In such a manner as could not be otherwise.

- The narrator describes the scene "inevitably" in the final chapter.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "inevitably" naturally.

instrument of torture (noun)

An instrument of punishment designed and used to inflict torture on the condemned person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instrument of torture."
- They discussed "instrument of torture" during the group presentation.

international maritime organization (noun)

The United Nations agency concerned with international maritime activities.

- The article explained what "international maritime organization" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "international maritime organization" to mean the united nations agency concerned with....

jacket potato (noun)

A baked potato served with the jacket on.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jacket potato."
- Understanding "jacket potato" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

junk dna (noun)

Stretches of DNA that do not code for genes.

- Most of the genome consists of junk DNA.
- They discussed "junk dna" during the group presentation.

korean peninsula (noun)

An Asian peninsula (off Manchuria) separating the Yellow Sea and the Sea of Japan; the Korean name is Dae-Han-Min-Gook or Han-Gook.

- The article explained what "korean peninsula" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "korean peninsula."

---

lad (noun)

A male child (a familiar term of address to a boy).

- They discussed "lad" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lad" means with a simple example.

---

landscape architect (noun)

Someone who arranges features of the landscape or garden attractively.

- Understanding "landscape architect" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "landscape architect" during the group presentation.

---

lasts (noun)

The last or lowest in an ordering or series.

- They discussed "lasts" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "lasts" because he had never seen it before.

---

lawn chair (noun)

Chair left outside for use on a lawn or in a garden.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lawn chair."
- He looked up "lawn chair" because he had never seen it before.

---

lawrence of arabia (noun)

Welsh soldier who from 1916 to 1918 organized the Arab revolt against the Turks; he later wrote an account of his adventures (1888-1935).

- In class, the teacher used "lawrence of arabia" to mean welsh soldier who from 1916 to 1918 organized the....
- The article explained what "lawrence of arabia" means with a simple example.

---

leagues (noun)

An obsolete unit of distance of variable length (usually 3 miles).

- He looked up "leagues" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "leagues" to mean an obsolete unit of distance of variable length....

---

lens maker (noun)

A worker who makes glasses for remedying defects of vision.

- He looked up "lens maker" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lens maker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

licensing agreement (noun)

Contract giving someone the legal right to use a patent or trademark.

- Understanding "licensing agreement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "licensing agreement" to mean contract giving someone the legal right to use a....

---

listings (noun)

A database containing an ordered array of items (names or topics).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "listings."
- The article explained what "listings" means with a simple example.

---

lone hand (noun)

A person who avoids the company or assistance of others.

- The article explained what "lone hand" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lone hand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

magnetic pole (noun)

One of the two ends of a magnet where the magnetism seems to be concentrated.

- Understanding "magnetic pole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "magnetic pole" because he had never seen it before.

mental reservation (noun)

An unstated doubt that prevents you from accepting something wholeheartedly.

- The article explained what "mental reservation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "mental reservation" during the group presentation.

migrants (noun)

Traveler who moves from one region or country to another.

- They discussed "migrants" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "migrants."

mins (noun)

A unit of time equal to 60 seconds or 1/60th of an hour.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mins."
- They discussed "mins" during the group presentation.

missouri compromise (noun)

An agreement in 1820 between pro-slavery and anti-slavery factions in the United States concerning the extension of slavery into new territories.

- They discussed "missouri compromise" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "missouri compromise."

monument (noun)

A burial vault (usually for some famous person).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monument."
- He looked up "monument" because he had never seen it before.

mortality (noun)

The ratio of deaths in an area to the population of that area; expressed per 1000 per year.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mortality."
- The article explained what "mortality" means with a simple example.

national anthem (noun)

A song formally adopted as the anthem for a nation.

- They discussed "national anthem" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "national anthem" to mean a song formally adopted as the anthem for a nation.

naval installation (noun)

Military installation servicing naval forces.

- In class, the teacher used "naval installation" to mean military installation servicing naval forces.
- Understanding "naval installation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

neutral spirits (noun)

Nonflavored alcohol of 95 percent or 190 proof used for blending with straight whiskies and in making gin and liqueurs.

- They discussed "neutral spirits" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "neutral spirits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ng (noun)

One billionth (1/1,000,000,000) gram.

- The article explained what "ng" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ng" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

northwest passage (noun)

A water route between the Atlantic Ocean and the Pacific Ocean along the northern coast of North America; Europeans since the 16th century had searched for a short route to the Far East before it was successfully traversed by Roald Amundsen (1903-1906).

- Understanding "northwest passage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "northwest passage" means with a simple example.

notices (noun)

A sign posted in a public place as an advertisement.

- The play received good notices.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "notices."

obsession (noun)

An irrational motive for performing trivial or repetitive actions, even against your will.

- The article explained what "obsession" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "obsession" to mean an irrational motive for performing trivial or....

opt (verb)

Select as an alternative over another.

- She opted for the job on the East coast.
- In everyday English, people use "opt" when talking about this idea.

optical bench (noun)

Apparatus for observation and measurement of optical phenomena.

- Understanding "optical bench" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "optical bench" during the group presentation.

optical crown glass (noun)

Optical glass of low dispersion and low refractive index.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "optical crown glass."
- He looked up "optical crown glass" because he had never seen it before.

output-to-input ratio (noun)

The output power of a transducer divided by the input power.

- They discussed "output-to-input ratio" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "output-to-input ratio" because he had never seen it before.

page printer (noun)

A printer that prints one page at a time.

- They discussed "page printer" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "page printer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

page-at-a-time printer (noun)

A printer that prints one page at a time.

- They discussed "page-at-a-time printer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "page-at-a-time printer" to mean a printer that prints one page at a time.

particle (noun)

A function word that can be used in English to form phrasal verbs.

- In class, the teacher used "particle" to mean a function word that can be used in english to form....
- He looked up "particle" because he had never seen it before.

pen-and-ink (noun)

A drawing executed with pen and ink.

- He looked up "pen-and-ink" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pen-and-ink" to mean a drawing executed with pen and ink.

penn (noun)

A university in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "penn."
- He looked up "penn" because he had never seen it before.

petroleum (noun)

A dark oil consisting mainly of hydrocarbons.

- They discussed "petroleum" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "petroleum."

pharmaceutical (adjective)

Of or relating to pharmacy or pharmacists.

- The pharmaceutical industry.
- A "pharmaceutical" approach may work better in this case.

philosophical theory (noun)

A doctrine accepted by adherents to a philosophy.

- Understanding "philosophical theory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "philosophical theory" to mean a doctrine accepted by adherents to a philosophy.

potato chip (noun)

A thin crisp slice of potato fried in deep fat.

- They discussed "potato chip" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "potato chip" means with a simple example.

present perfect tense (noun)

A perfective tense used to express action completed in the present.

- 'I have finished' is an example of the present perfect.
- The article explained what "present perfect tense" means with a simple example.

president nixon (noun)

Vice president under Eisenhower and 37th President of the United States; resigned after the Watergate scandal in 1974 (1913-1994).

- Understanding "president nixon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "president nixon" during the group presentation.

princess diana (noun)

English aristocrat who was the first wife of Prince Charles; her death in an automobile accident in Paris produced intense national mourning (1961-1997).

- Understanding "princess diana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "princess diana" during the group presentation.

principal axis (noun)

A line that passes through the center of curvature of a lens so that light is neither reflected nor refracted.

- In a normal eye the optic axis is the direction in which objects are seen most distinctly.
- The article explained what "principal axis" means with a simple example.

progression (noun)

A series with a definite pattern of advance.

- They discussed "progression" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "progression" because he had never seen it before.

quantum physics (noun)

The branch of physics based on quantum theory.

- He looked up "quantum physics" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "quantum physics" to mean the branch of physics based on quantum theory.

ra (noun)

An intensely radioactive metallic element that occurs in minute amounts in uranium ores.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ra."
- Understanding "ra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rack (noun)

The destruction or collapse of something.

- Wrack and ruin.
- The newspapers were arranged on a rack.

rear lamp (noun)

Lamp (usually red) mounted at the rear of a motor vehicle.

- Understanding "rear lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "rear lamp" because he had never seen it before.

---

rebuild (verb)

Build again.

- The house was rebuild after it was hit by a bomb.
- He did not know how to use "rebuild" until he saw an example.

---

reservoir (noun)

A large or extra supply of something.

- A reservoir of talent.
- An infectious agent depends on a reservoir for its survival.

---

respects (noun)

(often used with 'pay') a formal expression of esteem.

- He paid his respects to the mayor.
- Be sure to give my respects to the dean.

---

revival meeting (noun)

An evangelistic meeting intended to reawaken interest in religion.

- Understanding "revival meeting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "revival meeting" means with a simple example.

---

riley (noun)

United States poet (1849-1916).

- The article explained what "riley" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "riley" to mean united states poet (1849-1916).

---

robert frost (noun)

United States poet famous for his lyrical poems on country life in New England (1874-1963).

- Understanding "robert frost" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "robert frost" because he had never seen it before.

---

roman arch (noun)

A round arch drawn from a single center.

- The article explained what "roman arch" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roman arch."

---

russian orthodox (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of the Eastern Orthodox Church.

- It is useful to describe something as "russian orthodox" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of the eastern....
- Students compared "russian orthodox" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

saudi arabia (noun)

An absolute monarchy occupying most of the Arabian Peninsula in southwest Asia; vast oil reserves dominate the economy.

- He looked up "saudi arabia" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "saudi arabia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sensation (noun)

An unelaborated elementary awareness of stimulation.

- A sensation of touch.
- Anticipation produced in me a sensation somewhere between hope and fear.

---

shaft (noun)

An aggressive remark directed at a person like a missile and intended to have a telling effect.

- She threw shafts of sarcasm.
- In class, the teacher used "shaft" to mean an aggressive remark directed at a person like a....

---

shepherd (noun)

A clergyman who watches over a group of people.

- They discussed "shepherd" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "shepherd" because he had never seen it before.

---

shuttle (verb)

Travel back and forth between two points.

- In everyday English, people use "shuttle" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "shuttle" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sir bernard williams (noun)

English philosopher credited with reviving the field of moral philosophy (1929-2003).

- In class, the teacher used "sir bernard williams" to mean english philosopher credited with reviving the....
- They discussed "sir bernard williams" during the group presentation.

---

south korean monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in South Korea.

- He looked up "south korean monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "south korean monetary unit" during the group presentation.

---

specialists (noun)

An expert who is devoted to one occupation or branch of learning.

- In class, the teacher used "specialists" to mean an expert who is devoted to one occupation or....
- They discussed "specialists" during the group presentation.

---

spike mike (noun)

A contact microphone for listening through walls.

- He looked up "spike mike" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "spike mike" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spirit rapper (noun)

Someone who claims to receive messages from the dead in the form of raps on a table.

- They discussed "spirit rapper" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spirit rapper."

---

stabbed (verb)

Poke or thrust abruptly.

- He did not know how to use "stabbed" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "stabbed" when talking about this idea.

---

starter motor (noun)

An electric motor for starting an engine.

- He looked up "starter motor" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "starter motor" during the group presentation.

---

statue of liberty (noun)

A large monumental statue symbolizing liberty on Liberty Island in New York Bay.

- He looked up "statue of liberty" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "statue of liberty" to mean a large monumental statue symbolizing liberty on....

---

stephen samuel wise (noun)

United States Jewish leader (born in Hungary) (1874-1949).

- Understanding "stephen samuel wise" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "stephen samuel wise" to mean united states jewish leader (born in hungary)....

striker (noun)

An employee on strike against an employer.

- A fine striker of the ball.
- He looked up "striker" because he had never seen it before.

suburban area (noun)

A residential district located on the outskirts of a city.

- They discussed "suburban area" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "suburban area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sudan (noun)

A republic in northeastern Africa on the Red Sea; achieved independence from Egypt and the United Kingdom in 1956.

- They discussed "sudan" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sudan."

sued (verb)

Institute legal proceedings against; file a suit against.

- Can you use "sued" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "sued" and when to wait.

sums (noun)

A set containing all and only the members of two or more given sets.

- In class, the teacher used "sums" to mean a set containing all and only the members of two or....
- The article explained what "sums" means with a simple example.

theres (noun)

A location other than here; that place.

- The article explained what "theres" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "theres" to mean a location other than here; that place.

threshold gate (noun)

A logic element that performs a threshold operation.

- In class, the teacher used "threshold gate" to mean a logic element that performs a threshold operation.
- He looked up "threshold gate" because he had never seen it before.

thumb index (noun)

One of a series of rounded notches in the fore edge of a book to indicate sections.

- Understanding "thumb index" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "thumb index" during the group presentation.

titans (noun)

A person of exceptional importance and reputation.

- They discussed "titans" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "titans."

tomatoes (noun)

Mildly acid red or yellow pulpy fruit eaten as a vegetable.

- In class, the teacher used "tomatoes" to mean mildly acid red or yellow pulpy fruit eaten as a....
- The article explained what "tomatoes" means with a simple example.

tory (noun)

An American who favored the British side during the American Revolution.

- In class, the teacher used "tory" to mean an american who favored the british side during the....
- He looked up "tory" because he had never seen it before.

towel bar (noun)

A horizontal bar a few inches from a wall for holding towels.

- Understanding "towel bar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "towel bar."

---

train fare (noun)

The fare charged for traveling by train.

- He looked up "train fare" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "train fare."

---

trinity (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of one and one and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trinity."
- The article explained what "trinity" means with a simple example.

---

turn indicator (noun)

A blinking light on a motor vehicle that indicates the direction in which the vehicle is about to turn.

- In class, the teacher used "turn indicator" to mean a blinking light on a motor vehicle that indicates....
- The article explained what "turn indicator" means with a simple example.

---

unemployed (noun)

People who are involuntarily out of work (considered as a group).

- The long-term unemployed need assistance.
- He looked up "unemployed" because he had never seen it before.

---

unemployed people (noun)

People who are involuntarily out of work (considered as a group).

- The long-term unemployed need assistance.
- The article explained what "unemployed people" means with a simple example.

---

unite (verb)

Bring together for a common purpose or action or ideology or in a shared situation.

- The Democratic Patry platform united several splinter groups.
- She unites charm with a good business sense.

---

united states marines (noun)

An amphibious division of the United States Navy.

- In class, the teacher used "united states marines" to mean an amphibious division of the united states navy.
- The article explained what "united states marines" means with a simple example.

---

united states mint (noun)

The mint that manufactures and distributes United States coins for circulation through Federal Reserve Banks; processes gold and silver bullion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states mint."
- He looked up "united states mint" because he had never seen it before.

---

united states postal service (noun)

An independent federal agency that provides mail processing and delivery service for individuals and businesses in the United States.

- The article explained what "united states postal service" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states postal service."

---

unlock (verb)

Become unlocked.

- The door unlocked from the inside.
- Unlock the door.

---

vacuum tube (noun)

Electronic device consisting of a system of electrodes arranged in an evacuated glass or metal envelope.

- They discussed "vacuum tube" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “vacuum tube” because he had never seen it before.

vault (noun)

An arched brick or stone ceiling or roof.

- He looked up “vault” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “vault” during the group presentation.

visible horizon (noun)

The line at which the sky and Earth appear to meet.

- They discussed “visible horizon” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “visible horizon.”

wagon (noun)

A child’s four-wheeled toy cart sometimes used for coasting.

- In class, the teacher used “wagon” to mean a child’s four-wheeled toy cart sometimes used for....
- Understanding “wagon” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

water fountain (noun)

A public fountain to provide a jet of drinking water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water fountain.”
- The article explained what “water fountain” means with a simple example.

wax light (noun)

Stick of wax with a wick in the middle.

- He looked up “wax light” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “wax light” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

william franklin graham (noun)

United States evangelical preacher famous as a mass evangelist (born in 1918).

- In class, the teacher used “william franklin graham” to mean united states evangelical preacher famous as a mass....
- He looked up “william franklin graham” because he had never seen it before.

william henry hudson (noun)

English naturalist (born in Argentina) (1841-1922).

- In class, the teacher used “william henry hudson” to mean english naturalist (born in argentina) (1841-1922).
- He looked up “william henry hudson” because he had never seen it before.

yellow bean (noun)

Snap beans with yellow pods.

- Understanding “yellow bean” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “yellow bean.”

acoustic wave (noun)

(acoustics) a wave that transmits sound.

- In class, the teacher used “acoustic wave” to mean (acoustics) a wave that transmits sound.
- The article explained what “acoustic wave” means with a simple example.

aiming (verb)

Direct (a remark) toward an intended goal.

- He did not know how to use “aiming” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “aiming” in a sentence that fits this situation?

air cleaner (noun)

A filter that removes dust from the air that passes through it.

- He looked up “air cleaner” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “air cleaner.”

air shaft (noun)

A shaft for ventilation.

- In class, the teacher used "air shaft" to mean a shaft for ventilation.
- He looked up "air shaft" because he had never seen it before.

---

allah (noun)

Muslim name for the one and only God.

- He looked up "allah" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "allah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alumni (noun)

A person who has received a degree from a school (high school or college or university).

- He looked up "alumni" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "alumni" during the group presentation.

---

ana (noun)

A collection of anecdotes about a person or place.

- He looked up "ana" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ash bin (noun)

A bin that holds rubbish until it is collected.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ash bin."
- Understanding "ash bin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ash-bin (noun)

A bin that holds rubbish until it is collected.

- Understanding "ash-bin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ash-bin" because he had never seen it before.

---

atomic bomb (noun)

A nuclear weapon in which enormous energy is released by nuclear fission (splitting the nuclei of a heavy element like uranium 235 or plutonium 239).

- They discussed "atomic bomb" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "atomic bomb" means with a simple example.

---

atomic mass unit (noun)

Unit of mass for expressing masses of atoms or molecules.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "atomic mass unit."
- He looked up "atomic mass unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

auto tire (noun)

A tire consisting of a rubber ring around the rim of an automobile wheel.

- The article explained what "auto tire" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "auto tire" to mean a tire consisting of a rubber ring around the rim....

---

automobile engine (noun)

The engine that propels an automobile.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "automobile engine."
- He looked up "automobile engine" because he had never seen it before.

---

automobile traffic (noun)

Cars coming and going.

- He looked up "automobile traffic" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "automobile traffic."

---

awhile (adverb)

For a short time.

- Sit down and stay awhile.
- They settled awhile in Virginia before moving West.

---

bar printer (noun)

An impact printer that uses a bar to carry the type slugs.

- The article explained what "bar printer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bar printer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bass drum (noun)

A large drum with two heads; makes a sound of indefinite but very low pitch.

- The article explained what "bass drum" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bass drum."

---

bastard (noun)

The illegitimate offspring of unmarried parents.

- The architecture was a kind of bastard suggesting Gothic but not true Gothic.
- They discussed "bastard" during the group presentation.

---

bikes (noun)

A motor vehicle with two wheels and a strong frame.

- He looked up "bikes" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bikes" during the group presentation.

---

binary file (noun)

(computer science) a computer file containing machine-readable information that must be read by an application; characters use all 8 bits of each byte.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "binary file."
- He looked up "binary file" because he had never seen it before.

---

biography (noun)

An account of the series of events making up a person's life.

- They discussed "biography" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "biography" means with a simple example.

---

br (noun)

A nonmetallic heavy volatile corrosive dark brown liquid element belonging to the halogens; found in sea water.

- Understanding "br" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "br" during the group presentation.

---

brown betty (noun)

Baked pudding of apples and breadcrumbs.

- Understanding "brown betty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brown betty."

---

bury (verb)

Enclose or envelop completely, as if by swallowing.

- I tried to bury these unpleasant memories.
- Learners should practice how to use "bury" in real sentences.

---

bus fare (noun)

The fare charged for riding a bus or streetcar.

- Understanding "bus fare" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bus fare."

---

capital of jamaica (noun)

Capital and largest city of Jamaica.

- They discussed "capital of jamaica" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "capital of jamaica" because he had never seen it before.

cardinal number (noun)

The number of elements in a mathematical set; denotes a quantity but not the order.

- They discussed "cardinal number" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cardinal number" because he had never seen it before.

caroline islands (noun)

A long archipelago of more than 500 islands in Micronesia to the east of the Philippines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caroline islands."
- The article explained what "caroline islands" means with a simple example.

casey jones (noun)

United States railroad engineer who died trying to stop his train from crashing into another train; a friend wrote a famous ballad describing the incident (1864-1900).

- He looked up "casey jones" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "casey jones."

chain armor (noun)

(Middle Ages) flexible armor made of interlinked metal rings.

- In class, the teacher used "chain armor" to mean (middle ages) flexible armor made of interlinked....
- He looked up "chain armor" because he had never seen it before.

chocolate liquor (noun)

The liquid or paste that is produced when cocoa beans are roasted and ground; the basis of all chocolate.

- Understanding "chocolate liquor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chocolate liquor."

circular file (noun)

A container with an open top; for discarded paper and other rubbish.

- They discussed "circular file" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "circular file" because he had never seen it before.

circular plane (noun)

A plane with a flexible face that can plane concave or convex surfaces.

- The article explained what "circular plane" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "circular plane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

classical mechanics (noun)

The branch of mechanics based on Newton's laws of motion.

- In class, the teacher used "classical mechanics" to mean the branch of mechanics based on newton's laws of....
- The article explained what "classical mechanics" means with a simple example.

cloth covering (noun)

A covering made of cloth.

- The article explained what "cloth covering" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cloth covering" to mean a covering made of cloth.

cluster bomb (noun)

Bomb consisting of a canister that is dropped from a plane and that opens to release a cluster of bomblets (usually fragmentation bombs) over a wide area.

- Cluster bombs cannot be targeted precisely.
- In class, the teacher used "cluster bomb" to mean bomb consisting of a canister that is dropped from....

cocktail (noun)

An appetizer served as a first course at a meal.

- Understanding "cocktail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cocktail" during the group presentation.

cod (verb)

Harass with persistent criticism or carping.

- The coach explained when to use "cod" and when to wait.
- Can you use "cod" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

confidential information (noun)

An indication of potential opportunity.

- Understanding "confidential information" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "confidential information."

---

counseling (noun)

Something that provides direction or advice as to a decision or course of action.

- They discussed "counseling" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "counseling."

---

cubs (noun)

A male child (a familiar term of address to a boy).

- The article explained what "cubs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cubs" to mean a male child (a familiar term of address to a boy).

---

date-nut bread (noun)

Bread containing chopped dates and nuts.

- In class, the teacher used "date-nut bread" to mean bread containing chopped dates and nuts.
- The article explained what "date-nut bread" means with a simple example.

---

dependent variable (noun)

(statistics) a variable in a logical or mathematical expression whose value depends on the independent variable.

- If f(x)=y, y is the dependent variable.
- The article explained what "dependent variable" means with a simple example.

---

desktop computer (noun)

A personal computer small enough to fit conveniently in an individual workspace.

- They discussed "desktop computer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "desktop computer" to mean a personal computer small enough to fit....

---

determining factor (noun)

A determining or causal element or factor.

- The article explained what "determining factor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "determining factor" during the group presentation.

---

develops (verb)

Elaborate, as of theories and hypotheses.

- The embryo develops into a fetus.
- The perfect climate here develops the grain.

---

dining-room furniture (noun)

Furniture intended for use in a dining room.

- The article explained what "dining-room furniture" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dining-room furniture" to mean furniture intended for use in a dining room.

---

donor card (noun)

A card that you carry on your person and that authorizes the use of your organs for transplantation after your death.

- He looked up "donor card" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "donor card."

---

dutch monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in the Netherlands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dutch monetary unit."

- The article explained what "dutch monetary unit" means with a simple example.

---

dutch oven (noun)

An oven consisting of a metal box for cooking in front of a fire.

- In class, the teacher used "dutch oven" to mean an oven consisting of a metal box for cooking in....
- They discussed "dutch oven" during the group presentation.

---

earth wax (noun)

A waxy mineral that is a mixture of hydrocarbons and occurs in association with petroleum; some varieties are used in making ceresin and candles.

- In class, the teacher used "earth wax" to mean a waxy mineral that is a mixture of hydrocarbons....
- Understanding "earth wax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

egg-and-anchor (noun)

A decorative molding; a series of egg-shaped figures alternating with another shape.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "egg-and-anchor."
- They discussed "egg-and-anchor" during the group presentation.

---

emerge (verb)

Come up to the surface of or rise.

- He felt new emotions emerge.
- Suddenly, the proprietor emerged from his office.

---

ex-spouse (noun)

A person who was formerly a spouse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ex-spouse."
- The article explained what "ex-spouse" means with a simple example.

---

excluded (verb)

Prevent from being included or considered or accepted.

- The bad results were excluded from the report.
- The unruly student was excluded from the game.

---

expects (verb)

Look forward to the probable occurrence of.

- She tried to use "expects" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "expects" and when to wait.

---

experimental variable (noun)

(statistics) a variable whose values are independent of changes in the values of other variables.

- He looked up "experimental variable" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "experimental variable" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

explosive device (noun)

Device that bursts with sudden violence from internal energy.

- The article explained what "explosive device" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "explosive device."

---

extension ladder (noun)

A ladder whose length can be extended.

- The article explained what "extension ladder" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "extension ladder" to mean a ladder whose length can be extended.

---

feeds (verb)

Provide with fertilizers or add nutrients to.

- Her success feeds her vanity.
- This dish feeds six.

---

frog (noun)

A person of French descent.

- He looked up "frog" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frog."

---

gibson girl (noun)

The idealized American girl of the 1890s as pictured by C. D. Gibson.

- In class, the teacher used "gibson girl" to mean the idealized american girl of the 1890s as....
- The article explained what "gibson girl" means with a simple example.

---

great plains (noun)

A vast prairie region extending from Alberta and Saskatchewan and Manitoba in Canada south through the west central United States into Texas; formerly inhabited by Native Americans.

- He looked up "great plains" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great plains."

---

hacking (verb)

Be able to manage or manage successfully.

- I'm not very good at hacking but I'll give it my best.
- The patient with emphysema is hacking all day.

---

hawks (noun)

An advocate of an aggressive policy on foreign relations.

- Understanding "hawks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hawks" during the group presentation.

---

heir (noun)

A person who inherits some title or office.

- He looked up "heir" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "heir" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

highlighted (verb)

Move into the foreground to make more visible or prominent.

- The introduction highlighted the speaker's distinguished career in linguistics.
- Can you use "highlighted" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

hopkins (noun)

United States educator and theologian (1802-1887).

- Understanding "hopkins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hopkins" because he had never seen it before.

---

hydrogen bomb (noun)

A nuclear weapon that releases atomic energy by union of light (hydrogen) nuclei at high temperatures to form helium.

- He looked up "hydrogen bomb" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hydrogen bomb" to mean a nuclear weapon that releases atomic energy by....

---

hydrogen-bomb (verb)

Attack with a hydrogen bomb.

- He did not know how to use "hydrogen-bomb" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "hydrogen-bomb" when talking about this idea.

---

impact printer (noun)

A printer that prints by mechanical impacts.

- Understanding "impact printer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "impact printer" during the group presentation.

---

in the midst (adverb)

The middle or central part or point.

- In the midst of the forest.
- Could he walk out in the midst of his piece?

---

index fossil (noun)

A fossil known to have lived in a particular geologic age that can be used to date the rock layer in which it is found.

- In class, the teacher used "index fossil" to mean a fossil known to have lived in a particular....
- The article explained what "index fossil" means with a simple example.

---

indirect expression (noun)

An indirect way of expressing something.

- In class, the teacher used "indirect expression" to mean an indirect way of expressing something.
- The article explained what "indirect expression" means with a simple example.

---

indirect object (noun)

The object that is the recipient or beneficiary of the action of the verb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indirect object."
- He looked up "indirect object" because he had never seen it before.

---

indonesian (noun)

The dialect of Malay used as the national language of the Republic of Indonesia or of Malaysia.

- Understanding "indonesian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "indonesian" because he had never seen it before.

---

international atomic energy agency (noun)

The United Nations agency concerned with atomic energy.

- In class, the teacher used "international atomic energy agency" to mean the united nations agency concerned with atomic energy.
- The article explained what "international atomic energy agency" means with a simple example.

---

irs (noun)

The bureau of the Treasury Department responsible for tax collections.

- He looked up "irs" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "irs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jenny (noun)

United States architect who designed the first skyscraper in which a metal skeleton was used (1832-1907).

- Understanding "jenny" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jenny" means with a simple example.

---

ji (noun)

A clandestine group of southeast Asian terrorists organized in 1993 and trained by al-Qaeda; supports militant Muslims in Indonesia and the Philippines and has cells in Singapore and Malaysia and Indonesia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ji."
- Understanding "ji" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

job-oriented terminal (noun)

A terminal designed for a particular application.

- He looked up "job-oriented terminal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "job-oriented terminal."

---

julian bond (noun)

United States civil rights leader who was elected to the legislature in Georgia but was barred from taking his seat because he opposed the Vietnam War (born 1940).

- Understanding "julian bond" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "julian bond" because he had never seen it before.

---

landlord (noun)

A landowner who leases to others.

- Understanding "landlord" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "landlord" means with a simple example.

launches (noun)

A motorboat with an open deck or a half deck.

- They discussed "launches" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "launches" because he had never seen it before.

leading indicator (noun)

One of 11 indicators for different sections of the economy; used by the Department of Commerce to predict economic trends in the near future.

- The article explained what "leading indicator" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "leading indicator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

legendary creature (noun)

A monster that is unverifiable but popularly accepted as possibly factual.

- He looked up "legendary creature" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "legendary creature" during the group presentation.

lens hood (noun)

A tubular attachment used to keep stray light out of the lens of a camera.

- He looked up "lens hood" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lens hood" to mean a tubular attachment used to keep stray light out....

loose cannon (noun)

A person who is expected to perform a particular task but who is out of control and dangerous.

- The article explained what "loose cannon" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "loose cannon" during the group presentation.

machine pistol (noun)

A fully automatic pistol; a small submachine gun.

- Understanding "machine pistol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "machine pistol" because he had never seen it before.

memorial tablet (noun)

A memorial made of brass.

- He looked up "memorial tablet" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "memorial tablet" to mean a memorial made of brass.

memphis (noun)

An ancient city of Egypt on the Nile (south of Cairo).

- They discussed "memphis" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "memphis" means with a simple example.

mexican monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Mexico.

- Understanding "mexican monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mexican monetary unit" during the group presentation.

midst (noun)

The location of something surrounded by other things.

- In the midst of the crowd.
- They discussed "midst" during the group presentation.

mineral processing (noun)

Crushing and separating ore into valuable substances or waste by any of a variety of techniques.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mineral processing."
- Understanding "mineral processing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

module (noun)

A self-contained component (unit or item) that is used in combination with other components.

- He looked up "module" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "module" during the group presentation.

---

mommy (noun)

Informal terms for a mother.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mommy."
- They discussed "mommy" during the group presentation.

---

monroe (noun)

A town of southeast Michigan on Lake Erie.

- Understanding "monroe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monroe."

---

mosque (noun)

(Islam) a Muslim place of worship that usually has a minaret.

- In class, the teacher used "mosque" to mean (islam) a muslim place of worship that usually has....
- The article explained what "mosque" means with a simple example.

---

motorcycle cop (noun)

A policeman who rides a motorcycle (and who checks the speeds of motorists).

- The article explained what "motorcycle cop" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "motorcycle cop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

national monument (noun)

Memorial consisting of a structure or natural landmark of historic interest; set aside by national government for preservation and public enjoyment.

- They discussed "national monument" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "national monument."

---

natural theology (noun)

A theology that holds that knowledge of God can be acquired by human reason without the aid of divine revelation.

- He looked up "natural theology" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "natural theology" during the group presentation.

---

naval missile (noun)

Naval weaponry consisting of a missile carried on a warship.

- In class, the teacher used "naval missile" to mean naval weaponry consisting of a missile carried on a....
- Understanding "naval missile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nonsense verse (noun)

Nonsensical writing (usually verse).

- Understanding "nonsense verse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "nonsense verse" because he had never seen it before.

---

north korean monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in North Korea.

- Understanding "north korean monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "north korean monetary unit" means with a simple example.

---

organ pipe (noun)

The flues and stops on a pipe organ.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "organ pipe."
- The article explained what "organ pipe" means with a simple example.

---

p-n junction (noun)

The junction between a p-type semiconductor and an n-type semiconductor.

- A p-n junction has marked rectifying characteristics.
- The article explained what "p-n junction" means with a simple example.

parallel interface (noun)

An interface between a computer and a printer where the computer sends multiple bits of information to the printer simultaneously.

- He looked up "parallel interface" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "parallel interface" to mean an interface between a computer and a printer where....

perspectives (noun)

A way of regarding situations or topics etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "perspectives."
- They discussed "perspectives" during the group presentation.

peru (noun)

A republic in western South America; achieved independence from Spain in 1821; was the heart of the Inca empire from the 12th to 16th centuries.

- In class, the teacher used "peru" to mean a republic in western south america; achieved....
- The article explained what "peru" means with a simple example.

phrases (noun)

An expression consisting of one or more words forming a grammatical constituent of a sentence.

- Understanding "phrases" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "phrases" means with a simple example.

plague (noun)

A swarm of insects that attack plants.

- A plague of grasshoppers.
- Those children are a damn plague.

plains (verb)

Express complaints, discontent, displeasure, or unhappiness.

- My mother complains all day.
- He did not know how to use "plains" until he saw an example.

pocket dictionary (noun)

A dictionary that is small enough to carry in your pocket.

- He looked up "pocket dictionary" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pocket dictionary" during the group presentation.

pointed arch (noun)

An arch with a pointed apex; characteristic of Gothic architecture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pointed arch."
- Understanding "pointed arch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

polar zone (noun)

The part of the Earth's surface forming a cap over a pole; characterized by frigid climate.

- He looked up "polar zone" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polar zone."

portrait lens (noun)

A compound camera lens with a relatively high aperture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "portrait lens."
- Understanding "portrait lens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

positively (adverb)

So as to be positive; in a positive manner.

- She intended her remarks to be interpreted positively.
- It was positively monumental.

powell (noun)

English physicist who discovered the pion (the first known meson) which is a subatomic particle involved in holding the nucleus together (1903-1969).

- They discussed "powell" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "powell."

---

prevents (verb)

Keep from happening or arising; make impossible.

- He did not know how to use "prevents" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "prevents" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

profiles (noun)

An analysis (often in graphical form) representing the extent to which something exhibits various characteristics.

- He looked up "profiles" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "profiles."

---

proper fraction (noun)

A fraction with a numerator smaller than the denominator.

- Understanding "proper fraction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "proper fraction" to mean a fraction with a numerator smaller than the....

---

pursued (noun)

A person who is being chased.

- The film jumped back and forth from the pursuer to the pursued.
- Understanding "pursued" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

recruit (verb)

Cause to assemble or enlist in the military.

- Recruit new soldiers.
- The party recruited many new members.

---

resting (verb)

Stay the same; remain in a certain state.

- The committee is resting over the summer.
- She tried to use "resting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

reviewing stand (noun)

A stand from which a parade or military force can be reviewed.

- He looked up "reviewing stand" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "reviewing stand" during the group presentation.

---

rex (noun)

A male sovereign; ruler of a kingdom.

- They discussed "rex" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rex" means with a simple example.

---

rogue (noun)

A deceitful and unreliable scoundrel.

- In class, the teacher used "rogue" to mean a deceitful and unreliable scoundrel.
- The article explained what "rogue" means with a simple example.

---

roosevelt (noun)

26th President of the United States; hero of the Spanish-American War; Panama Canal was built during his administration; (1858-1919).

- Theodore Roosevelt said 'Speak softly but carry a big stick'.
- They discussed "roosevelt" during the group presentation.

---

rough rider (noun)

A member of the volunteer cavalry regiment led by Theodore Roosevelt in the Spanish-American War (1898).

- They discussed "rough rider" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what “rough rider” means with a simple example.

---

sacred cow (noun)

A person unreasonably held to be immune to criticism.

- The article explained what “sacred cow” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sacred cow.”

Work & School

schedule (noun)

A plan that shows the times when things will happen or when work must be done.

- My schedule is very busy this week, but I am free on Friday.
- The teacher gave us a schedule of all the exams this semester.

---

break (noun)

A short period of rest when you stop working or studying.

- Let’s take a ten-minute break and have some coffee.
- The students go outside during their lunch break.

---

practice (verb)

To do an activity again and again in order to become better at it.

- She practices the piano for an hour every day.
- If you want to speak English well, you need to practice speaking every day.

---

homework (noun)

Schoolwork that a student is given to do at home.

- I have a lot of homework tonight.
- Did you finish your math homework?

---

classroom (noun)

A room in a school where students have lessons.

- The classroom was quiet during the test.
- Please raise your hand in the classroom.

---

meeting (noun)

An occasion when people come together to discuss something, usually for work.

- We have a meeting at three o’clock.
- The meeting lasted for two hours.

---

boss (noun)

The person who is in charge of you at work.

- My boss asked me to finish the report today.
- She is a kind and fair boss.

---

office (noun)

A room or building where people work at desks.

- He works in an office downtown.
- The office is closed on Sundays.

---

exam (noun)

A formal test of a student’s knowledge or skill.

- She is studying hard for the final exam.
- The English exam will be next Monday.

---

pencil (noun)

A tool for writing or drawing that uses a thin stick of graphite.

- I need a sharp pencil for the test.
- He wrote his name with a pencil.

lesson (noun)

A period of time in which a teacher teaches something to students.

- Today's lesson is about the past tense.
- She takes piano lessons every Thursday.

salary (noun)

The money that you receive regularly for doing your job, usually every month.

- His new job has a higher salary.
- Teachers' salaries vary by country.

classmate (noun)

A person who is in the same class as you at school.

- My classmate helped me with the homework.
- She has been my classmate since first grade.

one-and-one (noun)

A foul shot that must be made in order to earn the right to a second foul shot.

- The article explained what "one-and-one" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "one-and-one" to mean a foul shot that must be made in order to earn the....

go (noun)

A time for working (after which you will be relieved by someone else).

- It's my go.
- He looked up "go" because he had never seen it before.

time out (noun)

A pause from doing something (as work).

- He took time out to recuperate.
- The article explained what "time out" means with a simple example.

go to (verb)

Be present at (meetings, church services, university), etc.

- Did you go to the meeting?
- He did not know how to use "go to" until he saw an example.

know-all (noun)

Someone who thinks he knows everything and refuses to accept advice or information from others.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "know-all."
- He looked up "know-all" because he had never seen it before.

work (noun)

The total output of a writer or artist (or a substantial part of it).

- Picasso's work can be divided into periods.
- She checked several points needing further work.

year (noun)

A body of students who graduate together.

- She was in my year at Hoehandle High.
- She is 4 years old.

work in (verb)

Add by mixing or blending on or attaching.

- Work in the butter and the dough will get the right consistency.
- In his speech, the presidential candidate worked in a lot of learned words.

work-in (noun)

Occasion when workers continue to work as a protest against e.g. proposed dismissal or closure of the factory.

- The article explained what "work-in" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "work-in" to mean occasion when workers continue to work as a protest....

---

know-it-all (noun)

Someone who thinks he knows everything and refuses to accept advice or information from others.

- The article explained what "know-it-all" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "know-it-all" to mean someone who thinks he knows everything and refuses....

---

work on (verb)

To exert effort in order to do, make, or perform something.

- The child worked at the multiplication table until she had it down cold.
- Work stone into tools.

---

take-in (noun)

The act of taking in as by fooling or cheating or swindling someone.

- The article explained what "take-in" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "take-in" to mean the act of taking in as by fooling or cheating or....

---

make-do (noun)

Something contrived to meet an urgent need or emergency.

- He looked up "make-do" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "make-do."

---

work at (verb)

To exert effort in order to do, make, or perform something.

- The child worked at the multiplication table until she had it down cold.
- Learners should practice how to use "work at" in real sentences.

---

great (noun)

A person who has achieved distinction and honor in some field.

- He is one of the greats of American music.
- The article explained what "great" means with a simple example.

---

don't-know (noun)

A person who responds 'I don't know' in a public opinion poll.

- 70% in favor, 13% opposed and 17% don't-knows.
- Understanding "don't-know" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

best (noun)

The person who is most outstanding or excellent; someone who tops all others.

- He could beat the best of them.
- They did their best.

---

man (noun)

An adult person who is male (as opposed to a woman).

- It was every man for himself.
- He awaited word from his man in Havana.

---

work out (verb)

Find the solution to (a problem or question) or understand the meaning of.

- Work out your problems with the boss.
- This unpleasant situation isn't going to work itself out.

---

work up (verb)

Form or accumulate steadily.

- We worked up an as of an appetite.

- We worked up courage.

---

do work (verb)

Be employed.

- Is your husband working again?
- My wife never worked.

---

out of work (adjective)

Not having a job.

- Many people in the area were out of work.
- Students compared "out of work" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

take-up (noun)

The action of taking up as by tightening or absorption or reeling in.

- A take-up that winds photographic film on a spool.
- They discussed "take-up" during the group presentation.

---

work time (noun)

A time period when you are required to work.

- Understanding "work time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "work time" because he had never seen it before.

---

time off (noun)

A time period when you are not required to work.

- He requested time off to attend his grandmother's funeral.
- He looked up "time off" because he had never seen it before.

---

better (noun)

A superior person having claim to precedence.

- The common man has been kept in his place by his betters.
- A change for the better.

---

he-man (noun)

A man who is virile and sexually active.

- Understanding "he-man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "he-man."

---

go over (verb)

Examine so as to determine accuracy, quality, or condition.

- How did your talk go over?
- The old woman went over without a sound.

---

help (noun)

A person who contributes to the fulfillment of a need or furtherance of an effort or purpose.

- They hired additional help to finish the work.
- Offered his help in unloading.

---

make-work (noun)

Active work of little value.

- He looked up "make-work" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "make-work."

---

work over (verb)

Give a beating to; subject to a beating, either as a punishment or as an act of aggression.

- In everyday English, people use "work over" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "work over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

school (noun)

A building where young people receive education.

- The school was built in 1932.
- He walked to school every morning.

---

going-over (noun)

A careful and thorough inspection.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "going-over."
- Understanding "going-over" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

first in first out (noun)

Inventory accounting in which the oldest items (those first acquired) are assumed to be the first sold.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first in first out."
- They discussed "first in first out" during the group presentation.

---

take over (verb)

Take on titles, offices, duties, responsibilities.

- They would like to take it over again.
- In everyday English, people use "take over" when talking about this idea.

---

show (noun)

The act of publicly exhibiting or entertaining.

- A remarkable show of skill.
- A show of impatience.

---

high-up (noun)

An important or influential (and often overbearing) person.

- In class, the teacher used "high-up" to mean an important or influential (and often overbearing)....
- Understanding "high-up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

work day (noun)

A day on which work is done.

- The article explained what "work day" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "work day" to mean a day on which work is done.

---

day off (noun)

A day when you are not required to work.

- Thursday is his day off.
- They discussed "day off" during the group presentation.

---

put-on (noun)

A ludicrous or grotesque act done for fun and amusement.

- They discussed "put-on" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "put-on" because he had never seen it before.

---

way of life (noun)

A course of conduct.

- We went our separate ways.
- Our paths in life led us apart.

---

work off (verb)

Cause to go away through effort or work.

- Work off the extra pounds you have gained over the holidays.
- We must work off the debt.

---

look into (verb)

Examine so as to determine accuracy, quality, or condition.

- He did not know how to use “look into” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “look into” and when to wait.

---

the way of the world (noun)

The manner in which people typically behave or things typically happen.

- The ordinary reader is endowed with considerable wisdom and knowledge of the way of the world.
- She was well-versed in the ways of the world before she had taken the veil.

---

look-over (noun)

A swift cursory examination or inspection.

- Understanding “look-over” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “look-over.”

---

out-of-school (adjective)

Not attending school and therefore free to work.

- Opportunities for out-of-school youth.
- A “out-of-school” approach may work better in this case.

---

work through (verb)

Apply thoroughly; think through.

- We worked through an example.
- The coach explained when to use “work through” and when to wait.

---

no-show (noun)

A guest who fails to notify a hotel or restaurant when canceling a reservation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “no-show.”
- He looked up “no-show” because he had never seen it before.

---

set (noun)

The act of putting something in position.

- He gave a final set to his hat.
- A set of books.

---

go-around (noun)

An approach that fails and gives way to another attempt.

- Understanding “go-around” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “go-around” means with a simple example.

---

go-between (noun)

A negotiator who acts as a link between parties.

- The article explained what “go-between” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “go-between” during the group presentation.

---

last in first out (noun)

Inventory accounting in which the most recently acquired items are assumed to be the first sold.

- They discussed “last in first out” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “last in first out” to mean inventory accounting in which the most recently....

---

set-to (noun)

A brief but vigorous fight.

- He looked up “set-to” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “set-to” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

show time (noun)

The point in time at which an entertainment (a movie or television show etc.) is scheduled to begin.

- In class, the teacher used “show time” to mean the point in time at which an entertainment (a....
- He looked up “show time” because he had never seen it before.

getting (noun)

The act of acquiring something.

- He's much more interested in the getting than in the giving.
- He looked up "getting" because he had never seen it before.

god (noun)

A man of such superior qualities that he seems like a deity to other people.

- He was a god among men.
- Money was his god.

government (noun)

The act of governing; exercising authority.

- He had considerable experience of government.
- The government reduced taxes.

looking (noun)

The act of directing the eyes toward something and perceiving it visually.

- He gave it a good looking at.
- His camera does his looking for him.

women (noun)

An adult female person (as opposed to a man).

- He looked up "women" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "women."

after-school (adjective)

Outside regular school hours.

- A special after-school class.
- A "after-school" approach may work better in this case.

business (noun)

The principal activity in your life that you do to earn money.

- He's not in my line of business.
- He bought his brother's business.

care (noun)

The work of providing treatment for or attending to someone or something.

- No medical care was required.
- He handled the vase with care.

free-for-all (noun)

A noisy fight in a crowd.

- Understanding "free-for-all" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "free-for-all" means with a simple example.

looking for (noun)

The act of searching visually.

- He looked up "looking for" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "looking for" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

week (noun)

Hours or days of work in a calendar week.

- They worked a 40-hour week.
- It rained for a week.

case (noun)

A person requiring professional services.

- A typical case was the suburban housewife described by a marriage counselor.
- It was a case of bad judgment.

---

free time (noun)

Time that is free from duties or responsibilities.

- They discussed "free time" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "free time" because he had never seen it before.

---

looking at (noun)

The act of directing the eyes toward something and perceiving it visually.

- He gave it a good looking at.
- His camera does his looking for him.

---

making (noun)

The act that results in something coming to be.

- The making of measurements.
- It was already in the making.

---

man of the world (noun)

A worldly-wise person.

- He looked up "man of the world" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "man of the world."

---

take time off (verb)

Take time off from work; stop working temporarily.

- Can you use "take time off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "take time off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

best man (noun)

The principal groomsman at a wedding.

- He looked up "best man" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "best man."

---

support (noun)

The act of bearing the weight of or strengthening.

- He leaned against the wall for support.
- His support kept the family together.

---

power (noun)

A very wealthy or powerful businessman.

- The deterrent power of nuclear weapons.
- The power of his love saved her.

---

school year (noun)

The period of time each year when the school is open and people are studying.

- The article explained what "school year" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "school year" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

day school (noun)

A private school taking day students only.

- Understanding "day school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "day school" means with a simple example.

---

high life (noun)

Excessive spending.

- In class, the teacher used "high life" to mean excessive spending.

- The article explained what "high life" means with a simple example.

---

men (noun)

The force of workers available.

- There were two women and six men on the bus.
- Two men stood sentry duty.

---

national (noun)

A person who owes allegiance to that nation.

- Understanding "national" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "national" because he had never seen it before.

---

school day (noun)

The period of instruction in a school; the time period when school is in session.

- Stay after school.
- He didn't miss a single day of school.

---

job (noun)

A state of difficulty that needs to be resolved.

- It is always a job to contact him.
- Estimates of the city's loss on that job ranged as high as a million dollars.

---

service (noun)

The performance of duties by a waiter or servant.

- That restaurant has excellent service.
- Budget separately for goods and services.

---

show-off (noun)

Someone who deliberately behaves in such a way as to attract attention.

- They discussed "show-off" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "show-off."

---

back-number (noun)

Someone who is no longer popular.

- The article explained what "back-number" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "back-number" during the group presentation.

---

old man (noun)

An informal term for your father.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old man."
- The article explained what "old man" means with a simple example.

---

on the job (adjective)

Actively engaged in paid work.

- The working population.
- The ratio of working men to unemployed.

---

on-the-job (adjective)

Relating to or associated with a job or employment.

- On-the-job training.
- On-the-job requirements.

---

put to work (verb)

Cause to work.

- He is working his servants hard.
- Can you use "put to work" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

try-on (noun)

Putting clothes on to see whether they fit.

- They discussed "try-on" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "try-on" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

children (noun)

A human offspring (son or daughter) of any age.

- They had three children.
- She writes books for children.

---

using (noun)

An act that exploits or victimizes someone (treats them unfairly).

- He looked up "using" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "using."

---

following (noun)

The act of pursuing in an effort to overtake or capture.

- They discussed "following" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "following" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

war (noun)

The waging of armed conflict against an enemy.

- Thousands of people were killed in the war.
- War was declared in November but actual fighting did not begin until the following spring.

---

going away (noun)

The act of departing.

- Understanding "going away" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "going away" means with a simple example.

---

good person (noun)

A person who is good to other people.

- He looked up "good person" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good person."

---

in-law (noun)

A relative by marriage.

- Understanding "in-law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "in-law" because he had never seen it before.

---

president (noun)

The office of the United States head of state.

- A President is elected every four years.
- The President likes to jog every morning.

---

trying on (noun)

Putting clothes on to see whether they fit.

- He looked up "trying on" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "trying on" to mean putting clothes on to see whether they fit.

---

course (noun)

A body of students who are taught together.

- He took a course in basket weaving.
- The government took a firm course.

---

end man (noun)

A man at one end of line of performers in a minstrel show; carries on humorous dialogue with the interlocutor.

- They discussed "end man" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "end man."

---

know nothing (noun)

An ignorant person.

- Understanding "know nothing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "know nothing" means with a simple example.

---

people in power (noun)

The class of people exerting power or authority.

- They discussed "people in power" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "people in power" because he had never seen it before.

---

white people (noun)

A light-skinned race.

- He looked up "white people" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "white people" to mean a light-skinned race.

---

friends (noun)

A person who backs a politician or a team etc.

- They are friends of the library.
- We are friends of the family.

---

getting even (noun)

A reciprocal group action.

- He looked up "getting even" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "getting even" during the group presentation.

---

good-for-nothing (noun)

An idle worthless person.

- They discussed "good-for-nothing" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "good-for-nothing" because he had never seen it before.

---

high school (noun)

A public secondary school usually including grades 9 through 12.

- He goes to the neighborhood highschool.
- He looked up "high school" because he had never seen it before.

---

night life (noun)

The activity of people seeking nighttime diversion (as at the theater, a nightclub, etc.).

- A futile search for intelligent nightlife.
- In the summer the nightlife shifts to the dance clubs.

---

old school (noun)

A class of people favoring traditional ideas.

- The article explained what "old school" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "old school" to mean a class of people favoring traditional ideas.

---

post (noun)

The delivery and collection of letters and packages.

- It came by the first post.
- If you hurry you'll catch the post.

---

thanks (noun)

With the help of or owing to.

- Thanks to hard work it was a great success.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thanks."

do a job on (verb)

Destroy completely or make ugly or useless.

- The dog did a job on my pillow.
- The seamstress did a job on my wedding gown.

second best (noun)

The competitor who finishes second.

- In class, the teacher used "second best" to mean the competitor who finishes second.
- They discussed "second best" during the group presentation.

using up (noun)

The act of consuming something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "using up."
- Understanding "using up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

day care (noun)

Childcare during the day while parents work.

- They discussed "day care" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "day care" because he had never seen it before.

guys (noun)

An informal term for a youth or man.

- In class, the teacher used "guys" to mean an informal term for a youth or man.
- The article explained what "guys" means with a simple example.

make-believe (noun)

The enactment of a pretense.

- The article explained what "make-believe" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "make-believe" to mean the enactment of a pretense.

mind (noun)

An important intellectual.

- The great minds of the 17th century.
- His mind wandered.

about-face (noun)

A major change in attitude or principle or point of view.

- An about-face on foreign policy.
- They discussed "about-face" during the group presentation.

call-back (noun)

The recall of an employee after a layoff.

- In class, the teacher used "call-back" to mean the recall of an employee after a layoff.
- They discussed "call-back" during the group presentation.

city man (noun)

A financier who works in one of the banks in the City of London.

- The article explained what "city man" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "city man" to mean a financier who works in one of the banks in the....

coming (noun)

The act of drawing spatially closer to something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coming."
- The article explained what "coming" means with a simple example.

guy (noun)

An informal term for a youth or man.

- A nice guy.
- The guy's only doing it for some doll.

---

working out (noun)

Developing in intricate and painstaking detail.

- They discussed "working out" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "working out" means with a simple example.

---

business life (noun)

A career in industrial or commercial or professional activities.

- He looked up "business life" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "business life" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

company man (noun)

An employee whose first loyalty is to the company rather than to fellow workers.

- The article explained what "company man" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "company man."

---

face time (noun)

Work time spent at the location of or in the presence of other people.

- Instead of working on the problem at home he devoted face time to it at the office.
- He looked up "face time" because he had never seen it before.

---

great care (noun)

More attention and consideration than is normally bestowed by prudent persons.

- The pilot exercised great care in landing.
- Understanding "great care" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

taking (noun)

The act of someone who picks up or takes something.

- Clothing could be had for the taking.
- Understanding "taking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

university (noun)

The body of faculty and students at a university.

- In class, the teacher used "university" to mean the body of faculty and students at a university.
- He looked up "university" because he had never seen it before.

---

girl (noun)

A friendly informal reference to a grown woman.

- Mrs. Smith was just one of the girls.
- The baby was a girl.

---

government man (noun)

A special law-enforcement agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "government man."
- Understanding "government man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

talk about (verb)

To consider or examine in speech or writing.

- The author talks about the different aspects of this question.
- In everyday English, people use "talk about" when talking about this idea.

---

call off (verb)

Postpone indefinitely or annul something that was scheduled.

- Call off the engagement.

- In everyday English, people use "call off" when talking about this idea.

---

friend (noun)

A person who backs a politician or a team etc.

- They are friends of the library.
- He was my best friend at the university.

---

hit (noun)

The act of contacting one thing with another.

- Repeated hitting raised a large bruise.
- After three misses she finally got a hit.

---

class (noun)

A body of students who graduate together.

- The class of '97.
- There are two classes of detergents.

---

line of work (noun)

The principal activity in your life that you do to earn money.

- He's not in my line of business.
- In class, the teacher used "line of work" to mean the principal activity in your life that you do to....

---

night school (noun)

A school that holds classes in the evenings for students who cannot attend during the day.

- In class, the teacher used "night school" to mean a school that holds classes in the evenings for....
- They discussed "night school" during the group presentation.

---

point man (noun)

Someone who is the forefront of an important enterprise.

- He is the president's point man on economic issues.
- Understanding "point man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

work party (noun)

An organized group of workmen.

- They discussed "work party" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "work party" to mean an organized group of workmen.

---

move (noun)

The act of changing location from one place to another.

- The movement of people from the farms to the cities.
- His move put him directly in my path.

---

series (noun)

A group of postage stamps having a common theme or a group of coins or currency selected as a group for study or collection.

- The Post Office issued a series commemorating famous American entertainers.
- His coin collection included the complete series of Indian-head pennies.

---

wait (noun)

The act of waiting (remaining inactive in one place while expecting something).

- The wait was an ordeal for him.
- They discussed "wait" during the group presentation.

---

woman (noun)

An adult female person (as opposed to a man).

- The woman kept house while the man hunted.
- He was faithful to his woman.

---

change of state (noun)

The act of changing something into something different in essential characteristics.

- Understanding “change of state” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “change of state.”

---

leave (noun)

The period of time during which you are absent from work or duty.

- A ten day’s leave to visit his mother.
- She was granted leave to speak.

---

old person (noun)

An elderly person.

- In class, the teacher used “old person” to mean an elderly person.
- The article explained what “old person” means with a simple example.

---

school of thought (noun)

A belief (or system of beliefs) accepted as authoritative by some group or school.

- He looked up “school of thought” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “school of thought” during the group presentation.

---

special (noun)

A television production that features a particular person or work or topic.

- The last of a series of BBC specials on Iran is being shown tonight.
- They are having a special on pork chops.

---

wait on (verb)

Work for or be a servant to.

- Can you wait on our table, please?
- Learners should practice how to use “wait on” in real sentences.

---

white man (noun)

A man who is White.

- They discussed “white man” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “white man” to mean a man who is white.

---

business school (noun)

A graduate school offering study leading to a degree of Master in Business Administration.

- Understanding “business school” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “business school.”

---

police (noun)

The force of policemen and officers.

- In class, the teacher used “police” to mean the force of policemen and officers.
- The article explained what “police” means with a simple example.

---

public school (noun)

A tuition free school in the United States supported by taxes and controlled by a school board.

- They discussed “public school” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “public school.”

---

school system (noun)

Establishment including the plant and equipment for providing education from kindergarten through high school.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “school system.”
- The article explained what “school system” means with a simple example.

---

side-look (noun)

A glance sideways.

- The article explained what "side-look" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "side-look" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

working day (noun)

The amount of time that a worker must work for an agreed daily wage.

- They work an 8-hour day.
- The article explained what "working day" means with a simple example.

---

yes-man (noun)

A person of unquestioning obedience.

- Understanding "yes-man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "yes-man" means with a simple example.

---

deal (noun)

A particular instance of buying or selling.

- It was a package deal.
- He's a master of the business deal.

---

good guy (noun)

Any person who is on your side.

- In class, the teacher used "good guy" to mean any person who is on your side.
- They discussed "good guy" during the group presentation.

---

great war (noun)

A war between the allies (Russia, France, British Empire, Italy, United States, Japan, Rumania, Serbia, Belgium, Greece, Portugal, Montenegro) and the Central Powers (Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey, Bulgaria) from 1914 to 1918.

- They discussed "great war" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "great war" to mean a war between the allies (russia, france, british....

---

head of state (noun)

The chief public representative of a country who may also be the head of government.

- In class, the teacher used "head of state" to mean the chief public representative of a country who....
- The article explained what "head of state" means with a simple example.

---

party man (noun)

A member of a political party who follows strictly the party line.

- Understanding "party man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "party man" means with a simple example.

---

service man (noun)

A skilled worker whose job is to repair things.

- The article explained what "service man" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "service man" to mean a skilled worker whose job is to repair things.

---

world war (noun)

A war in which the major nations of the world are involved.

- Understanding "world war" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "world war" because he had never seen it before.

---

world war i (noun)

A war between the allies (Russia, France, British Empire, Italy, United States, Japan, Rumania, Serbia, Belgium, Greece, Portugal, Montenegro) and the Central Powers (Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey, Bulgaria) from 1914 to 1918.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "world war i."
- Understanding "world war i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

check-in (noun)

The act of reporting your presence (as at an airport or a hotel).

- Understanding "check-in" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "check-in" to mean the act of reporting your presence (as at an....

---

form (noun)

A body of students who are taught together.

- The inflected forms of a word can be represented by a stem and a list of inflections to be attached.
- Sculpture is a form of art.

---

minutes (noun)

A written account of what transpired at a meeting.

- The secretary keeps the minutes of the meeting.
- Its just 10 minutes away.

---

services (noun)

Performance of duties or provision of space and equipment helpful to others.

- The mayor tried to maintain city services.
- The medical services are excellent.

---

social work (noun)

Any of various services designed to aid the poor and aged and to increase the welfare of children.

- Understanding "social work" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "social work" means with a simple example.

---

taking over (noun)

Acquisition of property by descent or by will.

- He looked up "taking over" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "taking over" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black man (noun)

A man who is Black.

- They discussed "black man" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "black man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

child (noun)

A human offspring (son or daughter) of any age.

- They had three children.
- She writes books for children.

---

major (noun)

The principal field of study of a student at a university.

- Her major is linguistics.
- She is a linguistics major.

---

media (noun)

An occupation for which you are especially well suited.

- Understanding "media" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "media" during the group presentation.

---

music school (noun)

A school specializing in music.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "music school."
- He looked up "music school" because he had never seen it before.

---

players (noun)

An important participant (as in a business deal).

- In class, the teacher used "players" to mean an important participant (as in a business deal).
- They discussed "players" during the group presentation.

---

school of music (noun)

A school for the study of music.

- In class, the teacher used "school of music" to mean a school for the study of music.
- Understanding "school of music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

working man (noun)

An employee who performs manual or industrial labor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "working man."
- The article explained what "working man" means with a simple example.

---

about turn (noun)

Act of pivoting 180 degrees, especially in a military formation.

- Understanding "about turn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "about turn" means with a simple example.

---

art (noun)

The creation of beautiful or significant things.

- Art does not need to be innovative to be good.
- I was never any good at art.

---

body of work (noun)

The total output of a writer or artist (or a substantial part of it).

- Picasso's work can be divided into periods.
- In class, the teacher used "body of work" to mean the total output of a writer or artist (or a....

---

building (noun)

The commercial activity involved in repairing old structures or constructing new ones.

- Workers in the building trades.
- There was a three-story building on the corner.

---

first class (noun)

The most expensive accommodations on a ship or train or plane.

- Understanding "first class" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "first class" means with a simple example.

---

first-class (adjective)

Very good;of the highest quality.

- A first-class mind.
- The speaker chose "first-class" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

man of means (noun)

A man who is wealthy.

- The article explained what "man of means" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "man of means" during the group presentation.

---

take office (verb)

Assume an office, duty, or title.

- When will the new President take office?
- He did not know how to use "take office" until he saw an example.

---

final (noun)

An examination administered at the end of an academic term.

- In class, the teacher used "final" to mean an examination administered at the end of an....
- He looked up "final" because he had never seen it before.

---

first cause (noun)

An agent that is the cause of all things but does not itself have a cause.

- God is the first cause.
- The article explained what “first cause” means with a simple example.

---

kids (noun)

A human offspring (son or daughter) of any age.

- They were able to send their kids to college.
- They’re just kids.

---

life office (noun)

Life assurance office.

- In class, the teacher used “life office” to mean life assurance office.
- They discussed “life office” during the group presentation.

---

son (noun)

The divine word of God; the second person in the Trinity (incarnate in Jesus).

- Their son became a famous judge.
- In class, the teacher used “son” to mean the divine word of god; the second person in the....

---

t-man (noun)

A special law-enforcement agent of the United States Treasury.

- The article explained what “t-man” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “t-man.”

---

young man (noun)

A man who is the lover of a girl or young woman.

- He looked up “young man” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “young man.”

---

by right of office (adverb)

By virtue of position.

- Place “by right of office” carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “by right of office” naturally.

---

college (noun)

The body of faculty and students of a college.

- They discussed “college” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “college” because he had never seen it before.

---

example (noun)

An item of information that is typical of a class or group.

- This patient provides a typical example of the syndrome.
- There is an example on page 10.

---

law school (noun)

A graduate school offering study leading to a law degree.

- Understanding “law school” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “law school” because he had never seen it before.

---

life history (noun)

The general progression of your working or professional life.

- He looked up “life history” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “life history” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

baby (noun)

A project of personal concern to someone.

- This project is his baby.
- The baby began to cry again.

check up on (verb)

Examine so as to determine accuracy, quality, or condition.

- Check the brakes.
- Check out the engine.

father (noun)

A person who founds or establishes some institution.

- George Washington is the father of his country.
- His father was born in Atlanta.

first world war (noun)

A war between the allies (Russia, France, British Empire, Italy, United States, Japan, Rumania, Serbia, Belgium, Greece, Portugal, Montenegro) and the Central Powers (Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey, Bulgaria) from 1914 to 1918.

- He looked up "first world war" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first world war."

for example (adverb)

As an example.

- Take ribbon snakes, for example.
- Using "for example" can make your explanation more exact.

good turn (noun)

A favor for someone.

- He did me a good turn.
- Understanding "good turn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

march (noun)

The act of marching; walking with regular steps (especially in a procession of some kind).

- It was a long march.
- We heard the sound of marching.

night-stop (noun)

A break in a journey for the night.

- They discussed "night-stop" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "night-stop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

school of law (noun)

A graduate school offering study leading to a law degree.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "school of law."
- They discussed "school of law" during the group presentation.

study (noun)

A room used for reading and writing and studying.

- He knocked lightly on the closed door of the study.
- No schools offer graduate study in interior design.

better half (noun)

A person's partner in marriage.

- The article explained what "better half" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "better half" to mean a person's partner in marriage.

check into (verb)

Examine so as to determine accuracy, quality, or condition.

- Check the brakes.
- Check out the engine.

day watch (noun)

Workers who work during the day (as 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.).

- The article explained what "day watch" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "day watch" during the group presentation.

---

job lot (noun)

A miscellaneous collection of things sold together.

- He looked up "job lot" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "job lot" to mean a miscellaneous collection of things sold together.

---

life class (noun)

An art class using a live human model.

- He looked up "life class" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "life class" to mean an art class using a live human model.

---

old hand (noun)

An experienced person who has been through many battles; someone who has given long service.

- In class, the teacher used "old hand" to mean an experienced person who has been through many....
- He looked up "old hand" because he had never seen it before.

---

self (noun)

A person considered as a unique individual.

- One's own self.
- In class, the teacher used "self" to mean a person considered as a unique individual.

---

students (noun)

A learner who is enrolled in an educational institution.

- Understanding "students" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "students" to mean a learner who is enrolled in an educational institution.

---

world-class (adjective)

Ranking above all others.

- The speaker chose "world-class" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "world-class" when it is ranking above all others.

---

bad person (noun)

A person who does harm to others.

- In class, the teacher used "bad person" to mean a person who does harm to others.
- Understanding "bad person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

best friend (noun)

The one friend who is closest to you.

- Understanding "best friend" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "best friend" because he had never seen it before.

---

case in point (noun)

An example that is used to justify similar occurrences at a later time.

- The article explained what "case in point" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "case in point" during the group presentation.

---

check over (verb)

Examine so as to determine accuracy, quality, or condition.

- Check the brakes.
- Check out the engine.

---

cut (noun)

The act of reducing the amount or number.

- The mayor proposed extensive cuts in the city budget.
- Everyone got a cut of the earnings.

---

cut-in (noun)

(broadcasting) a local announcement inserted into a network program.

- He looked up "cut-in" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cut-in" to mean (broadcasting) a local announcement inserted into a....

---

hit man (noun)

A professional killer who uses a gun.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hit man."
- He looked up "hit man" because he had never seen it before.

---

little office (noun)

A Roman Catholic office honoring the Virgin Mary; similar to but shorter than the Divine Office.

- He looked up "little office" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "little office" during the group presentation.

---

police work (noun)

The investigation of criminal activities.

- The article explained what "police work" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "police work" to mean the investigation of criminal activities.

---

road (noun)

A way or means to achieve something.

- The road to fame.
- Understanding "road" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

support system (noun)

A network of facilities and people who interact and remain in informal communication for mutual assistance; a network that enables you to live in a certain style.

- In class, the teacher used "support system" to mean a network of facilities and people who interact and....
- The article explained what "support system" means with a simple example.

---

fight (noun)

The act of fighting; any contest or struggle.

- A fight broke out at the hockey game.
- There was fighting in the streets.

---

little girl (noun)

A youthful female person.

- The baby was a girl.
- The girls were just learning to ride a tricycle.

---

little john (noun)

Legendary follower of Robin Hood; noted for his size and strength.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little john."
- The article explained what "little john" means with a simple example.

---

on the road (noun)

Travelling about.

- They took the show on the road.
- They lost all their games on the road.

---

public service (noun)

A service that is performed for the benefit of the public or its institutions.

- Understanding "public service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "public service" because he had never seen it before.

running (noun)

The act of running; traveling on foot at a fast pace.

- The coach put great emphasis on running.
- The engine is running smoothly.

shows (noun)

The act of publicly exhibiting or entertaining.

- They wanted to see some of the shows on Broadway.
- In class, the teacher used "shows" to mean the act of publicly exhibiting or entertaining.

small person (noun)

A person of below average size.

- Understanding "small person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "small person" during the group presentation.

white person (noun)

A member of the Caucasoid race.

- He looked up "white person" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white person."

wife (noun)

A married woman; a man's partner in marriage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wife."
- The article explained what "wife" means with a simple example.

goes (noun)

A time for working (after which you will be relieved by someone else).

- He looked up "goes" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goes."

line of business (noun)

A particular kind of commercial enterprise.

- A nice line of shoes.
- They discussed "line of business" during the group presentation.

order of business (noun)

A list of matters to be taken up (as at a meeting).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "order of business."
- He looked up "order of business" because he had never seen it before.

project (noun)

Any piece of work that is undertaken or attempted.

- The article explained what "project" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "project" to mean any piece of work that is undertaken or attempted.

rest on (verb)

Be based on; of theories and claims, for example.

- In everyday English, people use "rest on" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "rest on" in real sentences.

time study (noun)

An analysis of a specific job in an effort to find the most efficient method in terms of time and effort.

- In class, the teacher used "time study" to mean an analysis of a specific job in an effort to find....
- He looked up "time study" because he had never seen it before.

cut-up (noun)

Someone who plays practical jokes on others.

- In class, the teacher used "cut-up" to mean someone who plays practical jokes on others.
- The article explained what "cut-up" means with a simple example.

---

god of war (noun)

A god worshipped as giving victory in war.

- The article explained what "god of war" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "god of war" to mean a god worshipped as giving victory in war.

---

good example (noun)

Something to be imitated.

- They discussed "good example" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "good example" means with a simple example.

---

high-class (adjective)

Pretentiously elegant.

- A "high-class" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "high-class" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

war god (noun)

A god worshipped as giving victory in war.

- He looked up "war god" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "war god" during the group presentation.

---

black person (noun)

A person with dark skin who comes from Africa (or whose ancestors came from Africa).

- He looked up "black person" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "black person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

easy going (noun)

Easy unobstructed progress.

- Understanding "easy going" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "easy going" means with a simple example.

---

full general (noun)

A general officer of the highest rank.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "full general."
- Understanding "full general" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

military (adjective)

Of or relating to the study of the principles of warfare.

- Military law.
- Military uniforms.

---

national service (noun)

Compulsory service in the military during peacetime.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "national service."
- They discussed "national service" during the group presentation.

---

next friend (noun)

(law) a person who acts on behalf of an infant or disabled person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "next friend."
- Understanding "next friend" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

red man (noun)

(slang) offensive term for Native Americans.

- The article explained what "red man" means with a simple example.

- Understanding “red man” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

second hand (noun)

An intermediate person; used in the phrase ‘at second hand’.

- He could learn at second hand from books.
- They discussed “second hand” during the group presentation.

---

service call (noun)

A trip made by a repairman to visit the location of something in need of service.

- The article explained what “service call” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “service call.”

---

share (noun)

The allotment of some amount by dividing something.

- Death gets more than its share of attention from theologians.
- He wanted his share in cash.

---

work of art (noun)

Art that is a product of one of the fine arts (especially a painting or sculpture of artistic merit).

- They discussed “work of art” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “work of art” means with a simple example.

---

working group (noun)

A group of people working together temporarily until some goal is achieved.

- The working group was supposed to report back in two weeks.
- Understanding “working group” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

working person (noun)

An employee who performs manual or industrial labor.

- In class, the teacher used “working person” to mean an employee who performs manual or industrial labor.
- The article explained what “working person” means with a simple example.

---

high-low (noun)

Poker in which the high and low hands split the pot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “high-low.”
- They discussed “high-low” during the group presentation.

---

important person (noun)

A person whose actions and opinions strongly influence the course of events.

- They discussed “important person” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “important person” means with a simple example.

---

industry (noun)

The organized action of making of goods and services for sale.

- American industry is making increased use of computers to control production.
- Each industry has its own trade publications.

---

player (noun)

An important participant (as in a business deal).

- He was a major player in setting up the corporation.
- They discussed “player” during the group presentation.

---

private (noun)

An enlisted man of the lowest rank in the Army or Marines.

- Our prisoner was just a private and knew nothing of value.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “private.”

---

return (noun)

The act of going back to a prior location.

- They set out on their return to the base camp.
- His gross income was enough that he had to file a tax return.

---

right-hand man (noun)

The most helpful assistant.

- Understanding "right-hand man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right-hand man."

---

star (noun)

A performer who receives prominent billing.

- He looked up "star" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "star" to mean a performer who receives prominent billing.

---

view (noun)

The act of looking or seeing or observing.

- He tried to get a better view of it.
- Consider what follows from the positivist view.

---

weeks (noun)

Hours or days of work in a calendar week.

- The article explained what "weeks" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "weeks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

break-in (noun)

Trespassing for an unlawful purpose; illegal entrance into premises with criminal intent.

- The article explained what "break-in" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "break-in."

---

change of course (noun)

A change in the direction that you are moving.

- In class, the teacher used "change of course" to mean a change in the direction that you are moving.
- They discussed "change of course" during the group presentation.

---

government office (noun)

An office where government employees work.

- They discussed "government office" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "government office" means with a simple example.

---

man-child (noun)

A child who is male.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "man-child."
- The article explained what "man-child" means with a simple example.

---

no-account (noun)

An idle worthless person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "no-account."
- He looked up "no-account" because he had never seen it before.

---

open order (noun)

A military formation leaving enough space between ranks to allow an inspecting officer to pass.

- He looked up "open order" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "open order" during the group presentation.

---

public office (noun)

A position concerning the people as a whole.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public office."
- Understanding "public office" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

work song (noun)

A usually rhythmical song to accompany repetitious work.

- He looked up "work song" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "work song" to mean a usually rhythmical song to accompany repetitious work.

---

work study (noun)

An analysis of a specific job in an effort to find the most efficient method in terms of time and effort.

- Understanding "work study" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "work study" during the group presentation.

---

young person (noun)

A young person (especially a young man or boy).

- The article explained what "young person" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "young person."

---

black american (noun)

An American whose ancestors were born in Africa.

- They discussed "black american" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "black american" to mean an american whose ancestors were born in africa.

---

boy (noun)

A friendly informal reference to a grown man.

- He likes to play golf with the boys.
- The baby was a boy.

---

business office (noun)

Place of business where professional or clerical duties are performed.

- He rented an office in the new building.
- He looked up "business office" because he had never seen it before.

---

front man (noun)

A person used as a cover for some questionable activity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "front man."
- Understanding "front man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

girls (noun)

A friendly informal reference to a grown woman.

- Mrs. Smith was just one of the girls.
- The girls were just learning to ride a tricycle.

---

king (noun)

A very wealthy or powerful businessman.

- The lion is the king of beasts.
- They discussed "king" during the group presentation.

---

learn (verb)

Get to know or become aware of, usually accidentally.

- I learned that she has two grown-up children.
- She learned dancing from her sister.

---

second class (noun)

A class of accommodations on a ship or train or plane that are less expensive than first class accommodations.

- Understanding "second class" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "second class" during the group presentation.

second-class (adjective)

Of inferior status or quality.

- A second-class citizen.
- Second-class accommodations.

share-out (noun)

A distribution in shares.

- Understanding "share-out" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "share-out" to mean a distribution in shares.

working party (noun)

A group of people working together temporarily until some goal is achieved.

- The working group was supposed to report back in two weeks.
- They discussed "working party" during the group presentation.

bad guy (noun)

Any person who is not on your side.

- Understanding "bad guy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bad guy" means with a simple example.

big deal (noun)

An important influential person.

- He thinks he's a big shot.
- She's a big deal in local politics.

book of job (noun)

A book in the Old Testament containing Job's pleas to God about his afflictions and God's reply.

- They discussed "book of job" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book of job."

case history (noun)

Detailed record of the background of a person or group under study or treatment.

- In class, the teacher used "case history" to mean detailed record of the background of a person or....
- Understanding "case history" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

church (noun)

A service conducted in a house of worship.

- Don't be late for church.
- The church was empty.

college man (noun)

A student (or former student) at a college or university.

- They discussed "college man" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "college man."

field work (noun)

An investigation carried out in the field rather than in a laboratory or headquarters.

- The article explained what "field work" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "field work" to mean an investigation carried out in the field rather....

hands (noun)

(with 'in') guardianship over; in divorce cases it is the right to house and care for and discipline a child.

- My fate is in your hands.
- Too much power in the president's hands.

higher-up (noun)

One of greater rank or station or quality.

- They discussed "higher-up" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "higher-up" means with a simple example.

---

large person (noun)

A person of greater than average size.

- In class, the teacher used "large person" to mean a person of greater than average size.
- They discussed "large person" during the group presentation.

---

longer (noun)

A person with a strong desire for something.

- A longer for money.
- They discussed "longer" during the group presentation.

---

man in the street (noun)

A hypothetical average man.

- The article explained what "man in the street" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "man in the street" to mean a hypothetical average man.

---

medical (noun)

A thorough physical examination; includes a variety of tests depending on the age and sex and health of the person.

- They discussed "medical" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medical."

---

work force (noun)

The force of workers available.

- Understanding "work force" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "work force" to mean the force of workers available.

---

work-board (noun)

A horizontal board that provides a supported surface for manual work.

- Understanding "work-board" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "work-board."

---

art school (noun)

A school specializing in art.

- They discussed "art school" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "art school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

director (noun)

The person who directs the making of a film.

- Understanding "director" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "director" to mean the person who directs the making of a film.

---

english people (noun)

The people of England.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english people."
- He looked up "english people" because he had never seen it before.

---

great mother (noun)

Great nature goddess of ancient Phrygia in Asia Minor; counterpart of Greek Rhea and Roman Ops.

- In class, the teacher used "great mother" to mean great nature goddess of ancient phrygia in asia....
- They discussed "great mother" during the group presentation.

---

hand job (noun)

Slang for masturbation.

- Understanding "hand job" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "hand job" means with a simple example.

home study (noun)

A course of study carried out at home rather than in a classroom.

- In class, the teacher used "home study" to mean a course of study carried out at home rather than....
- The article explained what "home study" means with a simple example.

job control (noun)

A program that is called to prepare each job to be run.

- In class, the teacher used "job control" to mean a program that is called to prepare each job to be run.
- The article explained what "job control" means with a simple example.

line single (noun)

A single resulting from a line drive.

- In class, the teacher used "line single" to mean a single resulting from a line drive.
- They discussed "line single" during the group presentation.

near thing (noun)

Something that barely avoids failure or disaster.

- Understanding "near thing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "near thing" during the group presentation.

social service (noun)

An organized activity to improve the condition of disadvantaged people in society.

- He looked up "social service" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social service."

watch night (noun)

A devotional service (especially on New Year's Eve).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "watch night."
- He looked up "watch night" because he had never seen it before.

british people (noun)

The people of Great Britain.

- In class, the teacher used "british people" to mean the people of great britain.
- The article explained what "british people" means with a simple example.

call girl (noun)

A female prostitute who can be hired by telephone.

- He looked up "call girl" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "call girl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

close support (noun)

Close-in firing by one unit against an enemy engaged by another unit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "close support."
- He looked up "close support" because he had never seen it before.

due care (noun)

The care that a reasonable man would exercise under the circumstances; the standard for determining legal duty.

- They discussed "due care" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "due care" because he had never seen it before.

large order (noun)

A formidable task or requirement.

- Finishing in time was a tall order but we did it.
- The article explained what "large order" means with a simple example.

man of action (noun)

Someone inclined to act first and think later.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "man of action."
- Understanding "man of action" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

official (noun)

A worker who holds or is invested with an office.

- The golfer asked for an official who could give him a ruling.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "official."

---

press-up (noun)

An arm exercise performed lying face to the floor and pushing the body up and down with the arms.

- The article explained what "press-up" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "press-up" to mean an arm exercise performed lying face to the floor....

---

production (noun)

The act or process of producing something.

- Shakespeare's production of poetry was enormous.
- The production of white blood cells.

---

stand-in (noun)

Someone who takes the place of another (as when things get dangerous or difficult).

- The star had a stand-in for dangerous scenes.
- In class, the teacher used "stand-in" to mean someone who takes the place of another (as when....

---

close call (noun)

Something achieved (or escaped) by a narrow margin.

- In class, the teacher used "close call" to mean something achieved (or escaped) by a narrow margin.
- They discussed "close call" during the group presentation.

---

coming together (noun)

The social act of assembling for some common purpose.

- They discussed "coming together" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "coming together" means with a simple example.

---

david (noun)

French neoclassical painter who actively supported the French Revolution (1748-1825).

- He looked up "david" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "david."

---

drive (noun)

The act of applying force to propel something.

- After reaching the desired velocity the drive is cut off.
- A variable speed drive permitted operation through a range of speeds.

---

management (noun)

The act of managing something.

- He was given overall management of the program.
- The article explained what "management" means with a simple example.

---

model (noun)

A woman who wears clothes to display fashions.

- The computer program was based on a model of the circulatory and respiratory systems.
- His car was an old model.

---

open university (noun)

A British university that is open to people without formal academic qualifications and where teaching is by correspondence or broadcasting or summer school.

- He looked up "open university" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "open university."

---

party girl (noun)

An attractive young woman hired to attend parties and entertain men.

- Understanding "party girl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "party girl" during the group presentation.

---

picture (noun)

A typical example of some state or quality.

- The very picture of a modern general.
- She was the picture of despair.

---

point woman (noun)

A woman who is the forefront of an important enterprise.

- He looked up "point woman" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "point woman" to mean a woman who is the forefront of an important enterprise.

---

self-help (noun)

The act of helping or improving yourself without relying on anyone else.

- Understanding "self-help" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-help."

---

very important person (noun)

An important or influential (and often overbearing) person.

- They discussed "very important person" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "very important person" because he had never seen it before.

---

world record (noun)

The best record in the whole world.

- They discussed "world record" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "world record" to mean the best record in the whole world.

---

business deal (noun)

A particular instance of buying or selling.

- It was a package deal.
- He's a master of the business deal.

---

long shot (noun)

A venture that involves great risk but promises great rewards.

- He looked up "long shot" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long shot."

---

mom (noun)

Informal terms for a mother.

- They discussed "mom" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mom."

---

page (noun)

A youthful attendant at official functions or ceremonies such as legislative functions and weddings.

- They discussed "page" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "page" to mean a youthful attendant at official functions or....

---

review (noun)

A formal or official examination.

- The platoon stood ready for review.
- He looked up "review" because he had never seen it before.

trade (noun)

A particular instance of buying or selling.

- I had no further trade with him.
- Venice was an important center of trade with the East.

white woman (noun)

A woman who is White.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white woman."
- He looked up "white woman" because he had never seen it before.

brother (noun)

A male with the same parents as someone else.

- My brother still lives with our parents.
- None of his brothers would betray him.

chief (noun)

A person who exercises control over workers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chief."
- Understanding "chief" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

child care (noun)

A service involving care for other people's children.

- They discussed "child care" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "child care."

class war (noun)

Conflict between social or economic classes (especially between the capitalist and proletariat classes).

- Understanding "class war" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "class war."

common man (noun)

A person who holds no title.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common man."
- The article explained what "common man" means with a simple example.

community service (noun)

A service that is performed for the benefit of the public or its institutions.

- In class, the teacher used "community service" to mean a service that is performed for the benefit of the....
- He looked up "community service" because he had never seen it before.

fast one (noun)

A cunning or deceitful action or device.

- He pulled a fast one and got away with it.
- He looked up "fast one" because he had never seen it before.

hold-down (noun)

A limitation or constraint.

- Taxpayers want a hold-down on government spending.
- Understanding "hold-down" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

man-about-town (noun)

A man devoted to the pursuit of pleasure.

- The article explained what "man-about-town" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "man-about-town" to mean a man devoted to the pursuit of pleasure.

military man (noun)

Someone who serves in the armed forces; a member of a military force.

- They discussed “military man” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “military man” to mean someone who serves in the armed forces; a member of....

---

post office (noun)

A local branch where postal services are available".

- Understanding “post office” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “post office.”

---

school board (noun)

A board in charge of local public schools.

- In class, the teacher used “school board” to mean a board in charge of local public schools.
- Understanding “school board” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

school term (noun)

The time during which a school holds classes.

- They had to shorten the school term.
- He looked up “school term” because he had never seen it before.

---

social control (noun)

Control exerted (actively or passively) by group action.

- Understanding “social control” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “social control.”

---

step-up (noun)

The act of increasing something.

- He looked up “step-up” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “step-up.”

---

summer school (noun)

An academic session during the summer; usually for remedial or supplementary study.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “summer school.”
- He looked up “summer school” because he had never seen it before.

---

working girl (noun)

A woman who engages in sexual intercourse for money.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “working girl.”
- Understanding “working girl” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black woman (noun)

A woman who is Black.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “black woman.”
- The article explained what “black woman” means with a simple example.

---

city father (noun)

An important municipal official.

- The article explained what “city father” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “city father.”

---

dog (noun)

A dull unattractive unpleasant girl or woman.

- She’s a real dog.
- The dog barked all night.

---

hot-work (verb)

Roll, press, forge, or shape (metal) while hot.

- He did not know how to use “hot-work” until he saw an example.

- She tried to use “hot-work” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

key out (verb)

Identify as in botany or biology, for example.

- In everyday English, people use “key out” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “key out” until he saw an example.

---

lord (noun)

A person who has general authority over others.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lord.”
- He looked up “lord” because he had never seen it before.

---

road show (noun)

A show on tour.

- The article explained what “road show” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “road show” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stage (noun)

A section or portion of a journey or course.

- Then we embarked on the second stage of our Caribbean cruise.
- We are in a transitional stage in which many former ideas must be revised or rejected.

---

title (noun)

The name of a work of art or literary composition etc.

- He looked for books with the word ‘jazz’ in the title.
- He refused to give titles to his paintings.

---

water development (noun)

Making an area of water more useful.

- Understanding “water development” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water development.”

---

working class (noun)

A social class comprising those who do manual labor or work for wages.

- The article explained what “working class” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “working class” during the group presentation.

---

working-class (adjective)

Of those who work for wages especially manual or industrial laborers; - G.B.Shaw.

- Working-class occupations include manual as well as industrial labor.
- Students compared “working-class” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

young girl (noun)

A girl or young woman who is unmarried.

- He looked up “young girl” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “young girl” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

big shot (noun)

An important influential person.

- He thinks he’s a big shot.
- She’s a big deal in local politics.

---

business college (noun)

A school for teaching the clerical aspects of business and commerce.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “business college.”
- They discussed “business college” during the group presentation.

---

call fire (noun)

Fire delivered on a specific target in response to a request from the supported unit.

- Understanding “call fire” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “call fire.”

decision (noun)

The act of making up your mind about something.

- The burden of decision was his.
- A decision unfavorable to the opposition.

fall into (verb)

Be included in or classified as.

- This falls under the rubric 'various'.
- Can you use “fall into” in a sentence that fits this situation?

father-god (noun)

God when considered as the first person in the Trinity.

- The article explained what “father-god” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “father-god” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

first step (noun)

The first of a series of actions.

- Understanding “first step” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “first step” means with a simple example.

friend of the court (noun)

An adviser to the court on some matter of law who is not a party to the case; usually someone who wants to influence the outcome of a lawsuit involving matters of wide public interest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “friend of the court.”
- They discussed “friend of the court” during the group presentation.

go-to-meeting (adjective)

Used of clothing.

- Her Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes.
- Students compared “go-to-meeting” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

kill (noun)

The destruction of an enemy plane or ship or tank or missile.

- The pilot reported two kills during the mission.
- Understanding “kill” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

man hour (noun)

A time unit used in industry for measuring work.

- Understanding “man hour” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “man hour” because he had never seen it before.

social class (noun)

People having the same social, economic, or educational status.

- The working class.
- An emerging professional class.

street person (noun)

Someone who sleeps in any convenient place.

- Understanding “street person” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “street person” means with a simple example.

talking head (noun)

A talker on television who talks directly into the cameras and whose upper body is all that is shown on the screen.

- He looked up "talking head" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "talking head."

---

war between the states (noun)

Civil war in the United States between the North and the South; 1861-1865.

- They discussed "war between the states" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "war between the states" to mean civil war in the united states between the north....

---

young woman (noun)

A young woman.

- A young lady of 18.
- In class, the teacher used "young woman" to mean a young woman.

---

case study (noun)

A detailed analysis of a person or group from a social or psychological or medical point of view.

- They discussed "case study" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "case study" to mean a detailed analysis of a person or group from a....

---

choice (noun)

The act of choosing or selecting.

- Your choice of colors was unfortunate.
- My only choice is to refuse.

---

election (noun)

A vote to select the winner of a position or political office.

- The results of the election will be announced tonight.
- Her election of medicine as a profession.

---

group action (noun)

Action taken by a group of people.

- The article explained what "group action" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "group action."

---

major-general (noun)

A general officer ranking above a brigadier general and below a lieutenant general.

- Understanding "major-general" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "major-general."

---

medical man (noun)

Someone who practices medicine.

- They discussed "medical man" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "medical man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

michael (noun)

(Old Testament) the guardian archangel of the Jews.

- The article explained what "michael" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "michael" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

private school (noun)

A school established and controlled privately and supported by endowment and tuition.

- The article explained what "private school" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "private school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

running away (noun)

The act of leaving (without permission) the place you are expected to be.

- They discussed "running away" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "running away" means with a simple example.

simple (noun)

A person lacking intelligence or common sense.

- Understanding "simple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "simple" to mean a person lacking intelligence or common sense.

staff (noun)

The body of teachers and administrators at a school.

- The dean addressed the letter to the entire staff of the university.
- The hospital has an excellent nursing staff.

super (noun)

A caretaker for an apartment house; represents the owner as janitor and rent collector.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "super."
- They discussed "super" during the group presentation.

union (noun)

The act of making or becoming a single unit.

- The union of opposing factions.
- You have to join the union in order to get a job.

walk (noun)

The act of traveling by foot.

- Walking is a healthy form of exercise.
- He had a funny walk.

water program (noun)

Making an area of water more useful.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water program."
- They discussed "water program" during the group presentation.

by-election (noun)

A special election between regular elections.

- They discussed "by-election" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "by-election" means with a simple example.

career (noun)

The general progression of your working or professional life.

- The general had had a distinguished career.
- He had a long career in the law.

daughter (noun)

A female human offspring.

- Her daughter cared for her in her old age.
- In class, the teacher used "daughter" to mean a female human offspring.

information age (noun)

A period beginning in the last quarter of the 20th century when information became easily accessible through publications and through the manipulation of information by computers and computer networks.

- They discussed "information age" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "information age" to mean a period beginning in the last quarter of the 20th....

leave office (verb)

Give up or retire from a position.

- The Secretary of the Navy will leave office next month.
- Can you use "leave office" in a sentence that fits this situation?

lost cause (noun)

A defeated cause or a cause for which defeat is inevitable.

- The article explained what "lost cause" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lost cause" to mean a defeated cause or a cause for which defeat is....

---

middle school (noun)

A school for students intermediate between elementary school and college; usually grades 9 to 12.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "middle school."
- He looked up "middle school" because he had never seen it before.

---

old boy (noun)

A former male pupil of a school.

- The article explained what "old boy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "old boy" to mean a former male pupil of a school.

---

training school (noun)

A school providing practical vocational and technical training.

- He looked up "training school" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "training school."

---

voice (noun)

An advocate who represents someone else's policy or purpose.

- A shrill voice sounded behind us.
- A singer takes good care of his voice.

---

writing (noun)

The activity of putting something in written form.

- She did the thinking while he did the writing.
- Writing was a form of therapy for him.

---

b-girl (noun)

A woman employed by a bar to act as a companion to men customers.

- The article explained what "b-girl" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "b-girl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cover-up (noun)

Concealment that attempts to prevent something scandalous from becoming public.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cover-up."
- The article explained what "cover-up" means with a simple example.

---

first language (noun)

One's native language; the language learned by children and passed from one generation to the next.

- He looked up "first language" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first language."

---

follow-through (noun)

The act of carrying a stroke to its natural completion.

- His follow-through was straight down the line toward the target.
- Squash can be dangerous if your opponent has a long follow-through.

---

french people (noun)

The people of France.

- They discussed "french people" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "french people" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

job action (noun)

A temporary action by workers to protest management decision or to make demands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "job action."

- He looked up “job action” because he had never seen it before.

---

leave-taking (noun)

The act of departing politely.

- Understanding “leave-taking” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “leave-taking” means with a simple example.

---

service of process (noun)

The act of delivering a writ or summons upon someone.

- He accepted service of the subpoena.
- The article explained what “service of process” means with a simple example.

---

sir (noun)

A title used before the name of knight or baronet.

- He looked up “sir” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “sir” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

son-in-law (noun)

The husband of your daughter.

- They discussed “son-in-law” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “son-in-law” means with a simple example.

---

step-down (noun)

The act of decreasing or reducing something.

- They discussed “step-down” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “step-down.”

---

trade-off (noun)

An exchange that occurs as a compromise.

- In class, the teacher used “trade-off” to mean an exchange that occurs as a compromise.
- They discussed “trade-off” during the group presentation.

---

us post office (noun)

An independent agency of the federal government responsible for mail delivery (and sometimes telecommunications) between individuals and businesses in the United States.

- Understanding “us post office” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “us post office” to mean an independent agency of the federal government....

---

waiting (noun)

The act of waiting (remaining inactive in one place while expecting something).

- They discussed “waiting” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “waiting” means with a simple example.

---

church school (noun)

A private religious school run by a church or parish.

- The article explained what “church school” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “church school.”

---

created (verb)

Invest with a new title, office, or rank.

- The company was created 25 years ago.
- He created a new movement in painting.

---

department head (noun)

The head of a department.

- He looked up “department head” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “department head.”

---

father-in-law (noun)

The father of your spouse.

- The article explained what “father-in-law” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “father-in-law” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fire control (noun)

Preparation for the delivery of shellfire on a target.

- They discussed “fire control” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “fire control” to mean preparation for the delivery of shellfire on a target.

low-class (adjective)

Occupying the lowest socioeconomic position in a society.

- A “low-class” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “low-class”? Explain why.

medical school (noun)

A graduate school offering study leading to a medical degree.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “medical school.”
- They discussed “medical school” during the group presentation.

meeting place (noun)

A public facility to meet for open discussion.

- He looked up “meeting place” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “meeting place” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pass (noun)

A flight or run by an aircraft over a target.

- The plane turned to make a second pass.
- He had a pass for three days.

risk (noun)

A venture undertaken without regard to possible loss or injury.

- He saw the rewards but not the risks of crime.
- The article explained what “risk” means with a simple example.

self-service (noun)

The practice of serving yourself (as in a grocery or cafeteria).

- In class, the teacher used “self-service” to mean the practice of serving yourself (as in a grocery....
- The article explained what “self-service” means with a simple example.

war baby (noun)

Conceived or born during war.

- Understanding “war baby” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “war baby.”

water project (noun)

Making an area of water more useful.

- In class, the teacher used “water project” to mean making an area of water more useful.
- They discussed “water project” during the group presentation.

age class (noun)

People in the same age range.

- The article explained what “age class” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “age class.”

box (noun)

A blow with the hand (usually on the ear).

- I gave him a good box on the ear.
- He rummaged through a box of spare parts.

---

cases (noun)

A person requiring professional services.

- The musicians left their instrument cases backstage.
- The cases that we studied were drawn from two different communities.

---

check girl (noun)

A female checker.

- In class, the teacher used "check girl" to mean a female checker.
- He looked up "check girl" because he had never seen it before.

---

city boy (noun)

A city dweller with sophisticated manners and clothing.

- They discussed "city boy" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "city boy" to mean a city dweller with sophisticated manners and clothing.

---

common person (noun)

A person who holds no title.

- In class, the teacher used "common person" to mean a person who holds no title.
- The article explained what "common person" means with a simple example.

---

course of study (noun)

An integrated course of academic studies.

- He took a course in basket weaving.
- The article explained what "course of study" means with a simple example.

---

george (noun)

King of Great Britain and Elector of Hanover from 1727 to 1760 (1683-1760).

- The article explained what "george" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "george" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

george i (noun)

Elector of Hanover and the first Hanoverian King of Great Britain and Ireland from 1714 to 1727 (1660-1727).

- Understanding "george i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "george i" to mean elector of hanover and the first hanoverian king of....

---

john major (noun)

British statesman who was prime minister from 1990 until 1997 (born in 1943).

- He looked up "john major" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john major."

---

minister (noun)

A person authorized to conduct religious worship.

- Clergymen are usually called ministers in Protestant churches.
- Minister of Finance.

---

office building (noun)

A building containing offices where work is done.

- He looked up "office building" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "office building."

---

personal care (noun)

Care for someone who is disabled or is otherwise unable to care for themselves; can including bathing and cooking and managing bodily functions.

- The article explained what "personal care" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "personal care" to mean care for someone who is disabled or is otherwise....

third class (noun)

Inexpensive accommodations on a ship or train.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "third class."
- He looked up "third class" because he had never seen it before.

visit (noun)

The act of going to see some person in a professional capacity.

- A visit to the dentist.
- He dropped by for a visit.

war to end war (noun)

A war between the allies (Russia, France, British Empire, Italy, United States, Japan, Rumania, Serbia, Belgium, Greece, Portugal, Montenegro) and the Central Powers (Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey, Bulgaria) from 1914 to 1918.

- He looked up "war to end war" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "war to end war" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

action at law (noun)

A judicial proceeding brought by one party against another; one party prosecutes another for a wrong done or for protection of a right or for prevention of a wrong.

- The article explained what "action at law" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "action at law" to mean a judicial proceeding brought by one party against....

boys (noun)

A friendly informal reference to a grown man.

- He likes to play golf with the boys.
- Most soldiers are only boys in uniform.

build on (verb)

Be based on; of theories and claims, for example.

- Can you use "build on" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "build on" carefully so everyone would understand.

chief of state (noun)

The chief public representative of a country who may also be the head of government.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chief of state."
- He looked up "chief of state" because he had never seen it before.

class act (noun)

Someone who shows impressive and stylish excellence.

- Understanding "class act" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "class act" means with a simple example.

course of action (noun)

A mode of action.

- If you persist in that course you will surely fail.
- Once a nation is embarked on a course of action it becomes extremely difficult for any retraction to take place.

dead person (noun)

Someone who is no longer alive.

- I wonder what the dead person would have done.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dead person."

english person (noun)

A native or inhabitant of England.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english person."
- Understanding "english person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fall under (verb)

Be included in or classified as.

- This falls under the rubric 'various'.
- He did not know how to use "fall under" until he saw an example.

---

form class (noun)

One of the traditional categories of words intended to reflect their functions in a grammatical context.

- In class, the teacher used "form class" to mean one of the traditional categories of words intended....
- He looked up "form class" because he had never seen it before.

---

good old boy (noun)

A white male Southerner with an unpretentious convivial manner and conservative or intolerant attitudes and a strong sense of fellowship with and loyalty to other members of his peer group.

- He looked up "good old boy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good old boy."

---

married (noun)

A person who is married.

- We invited several young marrieds.
- Understanding "married" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mother-in-law (noun)

The mother of your spouse.

- In class, the teacher used "mother-in-law" to mean the mother of your spouse.
- The article explained what "mother-in-law" means with a simple example.

---

officer (noun)

A person authorized to serve in a position of authority on a vessel.

- He is the officer in charge of the ship's engines.
- An officer is responsible for the lives of his men.

---

paul (noun)

(New Testament) a Christian missionary to the Gentiles; author of several Epistles in the New Testament; even though Paul was not present at the Last Supper he is considered an Apostle.

- Paul's name was Saul prior to his conversion to Christianity.
- Understanding "paul" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

person hour (noun)

A time unit used in industry for measuring work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "person hour."
- Understanding "person hour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

property man (noun)

Member of the stage crew in charge of properties.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "property man."
- They discussed "property man" during the group presentation.

---

street girl (noun)

A prostitute who attracts customers by walking the streets.

- The article explained what "street girl" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "street girl" during the group presentation.

---

test case (noun)

A representative legal action whose outcome is likely to become a precedent.

- He looked up "test case" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "test case" to mean a representative legal action whose outcome is....

---

three-point turn (noun)

The act of turning a vehicle around in a limited space by moving in a series of back and forward arcs.

- He looked up “three-point turn” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “three-point turn” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

art class (noun)

A class in which you learn to draw or paint.

- They discussed “art class” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “art class” to mean a class in which you learn to draw or paint.

---

class list (noun)

A list issued by examiners that categorizes students according to the class of honours they achieved in their degree examinations.

- Understanding “class list” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “class list” to mean a list issued by examiners that categorizes....

---

college girl (noun)

A female student at a coeducational college or university.

- They discussed “college girl” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “college girl” to mean a female student at a coeducational college or....

---

create (verb)

Invest with a new title, office, or rank.

- Create one a peer.
- Create a furor.

---

field hand (noun)

A hired hand on a farm.

- They discussed “field hand” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “field hand.”

---

inside job (noun)

Some transgression committed with the assistance of someone trusted by the victim.

- The police decided that the crime was an inside job.
- They discussed “inside job” during the group presentation.

---

little brother (noun)

A younger brother.

- My little brother just had his 50th birthday.
- He looked up “little brother” because he had never seen it before.

---

local department (noun)

A permanent department created to perform the work of a local government.

- They discussed “local department” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “local department” because he had never seen it before.

---

moving in (noun)

The act of occupying or taking possession of a building.

- The article explained what “moving in” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “moving in” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

policy change (noun)

A major change in attitude or principle or point of view.

- An about-face on foreign policy.
- In class, the teacher used “policy change” to mean a major change in attitude or principle or point of....

---

student (noun)

A learner who is enrolled in an educational institution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “student.”
- He looked up “student” because he had never seen it before.

trade school (noun)

A secondary school teaching the skilled trades.

- Understanding "trade school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "trade school" means with a simple example.

walk of life (noun)

Careers in general.

- It happens in all walks of life.
- Understanding "walk of life" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

watching (noun)

The act of observing; taking a patient look.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "watching."
- He looked up "watching" because he had never seen it before.

anti (noun)

A person who is opposed (to an action or policy or practice etc.).

- The antis smelled victory after a long battle.
- Understanding "anti" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

association (noun)

The act of consorting with or joining with others.

- You cannot be convicted of criminal guilt by association.
- He joined the Modern Language Association.

big science (noun)

Scientific research that requires massive capital investment but is expected to yield very significant results.

- In class, the teacher used "big science" to mean scientific research that requires massive capital....
- They discussed "big science" during the group presentation.

first base (noun)

The initial stage in accomplishing something.

- We didn't get to first base with that approach.
- They discussed "first base" during the group presentation.

group meeting (noun)

A formally arranged gathering.

- Next year the meeting will be in Chicago.
- The meeting elected a chairperson.

half-term (noun)

A short vacation about halfway through a school term.

- He came to visit at half-term.
- Understanding "half-term" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

main office (noun)

(usually plural) the office that serves as the administrative center of an enterprise.

- They discussed "main office" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "main office" to mean (usually plural) the office that serves as the....

medical care (noun)

Professional treatment for illness or injury.

- He looked up "medical care" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "medical care" to mean professional treatment for illness or injury.

normal (noun)

Something regarded as a normative example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "normal."
- They discussed "normal" during the group presentation.

---

one of the boys (noun)

A man who has been socially accepted into a group of other men.

- He quickly became one of the boys.
- They discussed "one of the boys" during the group presentation.

---

red fire (noun)

Combustible material (usually salts of lithium or strontium) that burns bright red; used in flares and fireworks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red fire."
- They discussed "red fire" during the group presentation.

---

six day war (noun)

Tension between Arabs and Israeli erupted into a brief war in June 1967; Israel emerged as a major power in the Middle East.

- Understanding "six day war" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "six day war" during the group presentation.

---

six-day war (noun)

Tension between Arabs and Israeli erupted into a brief war in June 1967; Israel emerged as a major power in the Middle East.

- The article explained what "six-day war" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "six-day war" during the group presentation.

---

special education (noun)

Education of physically or mentally handicapped children whose needs cannot be met in an ordinary classroom.

- The article explained what "special education" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "special education" during the group presentation.

---

text (noun)

A book prepared for use in schools or colleges.

- His economics textbook is in its tenth edition.
- The professor wrote the text that he assigned students to buy.

---

walk-through (noun)

The act of walking in order to view something.

- The realtor took her on a walk-through of the apartment.
- She gave me a walk-through of my new duties.

---

water boy (noun)

An assistant who supplies drinking water.

- The article explained what "water boy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "water boy" to mean an assistant who supplies drinking water.

---

woman of the street (noun)

A woman who engages in sexual intercourse for money.

- The article explained what "woman of the street" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "woman of the street" to mean a woman who engages in sexual intercourse for money.

---

big brother (noun)

An authoritarian leader and invader of privacy.

- He looked up "big brother" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "big brother" during the group presentation.

---

campaign (noun)

A race between candidates for elective office.

- I managed his campaign for governor.

- He supported populist campaigns.

career man (noun)

A man who is a careerist.

- Understanding "career man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "career man" because he had never seen it before.

class action (noun)

A lawsuit brought by a representative member of a large group of people on behalf of all members of the group.

- He looked up "class action" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "class action" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dog show (noun)

A competitive exhibition of dogs.

- The article explained what "dog show" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dog show" during the group presentation.

due process (noun)

(law) the administration of justice according to established rules and principles; based on the principle that a person cannot be deprived of life or liberty or property without appropriate legal procedures and safeguards.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "due process."
- The article explained what "due process" means with a simple example.

female (noun)

A person who belongs to the sex that can have babies.

- In class, the teacher used "female" to mean a person who belongs to the sex that can have babies.
- They discussed "female" during the group presentation.

free trade (noun)

International trade free of government interference.

- In class, the teacher used "free trade" to mean international trade free of government interference.
- They discussed "free trade" during the group presentation.

high technology (noun)

Highly advanced technological development (especially in electronics).

- Understanding "high technology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "high technology" during the group presentation.

husband (noun)

A married man; a woman's partner in marriage.

- The article explained what "husband" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "husband" to mean a married man; a woman's partner in marriage.

land office (noun)

A government office where business relating to public lands is transacted.

- They discussed "land office" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "land office" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

language school (noun)

A school for teaching foreign languages.

- He looked up "language school" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "language school" during the group presentation.

leading (noun)

The activity of leading.

- He looked up "leading" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "leading" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

means test (noun)

An inquiry into the financial position of someone applying for financial aid.

- He looked up "means test" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "means test" to mean an inquiry into the financial position of someone....

---

one-night stand (noun)

A brief sexual encounter lasting only for a single night.

- He ran through a series of loveless one-night stands.
- They discussed "one-night stand" during the group presentation.

---

president of the united states (noun)

The office of the United States head of state.

- A President is elected every four years.
- The President likes to jog every morning.

---

research project (noun)

Research into questions posed by scientific theories and hypotheses.

- He looked up "research project" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "research project" during the group presentation.

---

social security (noun)

Social welfare program in the U.S.; includes old-age and survivors insurance and some unemployment insurance and old-age assistance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social security."
- He looked up "social security" because he had never seen it before.

---

sort (noun)

A person of a particular character or nature.

- What sort of person is he?
- He's a good sort.

---

term of office (noun)

The term during which some position is held.

- They discussed "term of office" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "term of office" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

the ways of the world (noun)

The manner in which people typically behave or things typically happen.

- The ordinary reader is endowed with considerable wisdom and knowledge of the way of the world.
- She was well-versed in the ways of the world before she had taken the veil.

---

united states president (noun)

The person who holds the office of head of state of the United States government.

- The President likes to jog every morning.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states president."

---

word class (noun)

One of the traditional categories of words intended to reflect their functions in a grammatical context.

- Understanding "word class" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "word class" to mean one of the traditional categories of words intended....

---

church service (noun)

A service conducted in a house of worship.

- Don't be late for church.
- In class, the teacher used "church service" to mean a service conducted in a house of worship.

---

jesus (noun)

A teacher and prophet born in Bethlehem and active in Nazareth; his life and sermons form the basis for Christianity (circa 4 BC - AD 29).

- Understanding “jesus” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “jesus” because he had never seen it before.

---

kid (noun)

A human offspring (son or daughter) of any age.

- They were able to send their kids to college.
- They’re just kids.

---

loved one (noun)

A person who you love, usually a member of your family.

- He looked up “loved one” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “loved one” to mean a person who you love, usually a member of your family.

---

military control (noun)

The control of a country by military forces of a foreign power.

- Understanding “military control” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “military control.”

---

military court (noun)

A judicial court of commissioned officers for the discipline and punishment of military personnel.

- In class, the teacher used “military court” to mean a judicial court of commissioned officers for the....
- The article explained what “military court” means with a simple example.

---

piece of work (noun)

A product produced or accomplished through the effort or activity or agency of a person or thing.

- It is not regarded as one of his more memorable works.
- The symphony was hailed as an ingenious work.

---

police action (noun)

A local military action without declaration of war; against violators of international peace and order.

- He looked up “police action” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “police action” during the group presentation.

---

professional life (noun)

A career in industrial or commercial or professional activities.

- The article explained what “professional life” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “professional life” to mean a career in industrial or commercial or....

---

send away (verb)

Terminate the employment of; discharge from an office or position.

- The coach explained when to use “send away” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “send away” in real sentences.

---

street child (noun)

A homeless child especially one forsaken or orphaned.

- Street children beg or steal in order to survive.
- They discussed “street child” during the group presentation.

---

throughout (adverb)

Used to refer to cited works.

- Using “throughout” can make your explanation more exact.
- She spoke “throughout,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

tour (noun)

A journey or route all the way around a particular place or area.

- They took an extended tour of Europe.
- Understanding “tour” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

class period (noun)

A regularly scheduled session as part of a course of study.

- The article explained what "class period" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "class period" to mean a regularly scheduled session as part of a course....

double first (noun)

A first-class honours degree in two subjects.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double first."
- They discussed "double first" during the group presentation.

leaving (noun)

The act of departing.

- He looked up "leaving" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "leaving" to mean the act of departing.

make-peace (noun)

Someone who tries to bring peace.

- The article explained what "make-peace" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "make-peace" to mean someone who tries to bring peace.

office of the dead (noun)

An office read or sung before a burial mass in the Roman Catholic Church.

- He looked up "office of the dead" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "office of the dead."

on tour (noun)

Travelling about.

- The article explained what "on tour" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "on tour" to mean travelling about.

police force (noun)

The force of policemen and officers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "police force."
- He looked up "police force" because he had never seen it before.

school paper (noun)

A newspaper written and published by students in a school.

- He looked up "school paper" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "school paper" during the group presentation.

sort out (verb)

Arrange or order by classes or categories.

- The coach explained when to use "sort out" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "sort out" in real sentences.

taking hold (noun)

The act of gripping something firmly with the hands (or the tentacles).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "taking hold."
- He looked up "taking hold" because he had never seen it before.

winning (noun)

Succeeding with great difficulty.

- Winning is not everything.
- In class, the teacher used "winning" to mean succeeding with great difficulty.

works program (noun)

A program to provide jobs on public works paid for by government funds.

- Understanding "works program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "works program" means with a simple example.

---

write-off (noun)

The act of cancelling from an account a bad debt or a worthless asset.

- The article explained what "write-off" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "write-off" during the group presentation.

---

central american (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Central America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central american."
- They discussed "central american" during the group presentation.

---

cold work (verb)

Shape (metal) without heat.

- Can you use "cold work" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "cold work" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

company union (noun)

A union of workers for a single company; a union not affiliated with a larger union.

- In class, the teacher used "company union" to mean a union of workers for a single company; a union....
- The article explained what "company union" means with a simple example.

---

drop out (verb)

Leave school or an educational program prematurely.

- Many students drop out because they are not prepared for our challenging program.
- She hasn't heard from her brother in years–he dropped out after moving to California.

---

justice (noun)

A public official authorized to decide questions brought before a court of justice.

- The article explained what "justice" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "justice" to mean a public official authorized to decide questions....

---

line management (noun)

Administration of the activities contributing directly to an organization's output.

- The article explained what "line management" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "line management" to mean administration of the activities contributing....

---

manager (noun)

Someone who controls resources and expenditures.

- They discussed "manager" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "manager" because he had never seen it before.

---

office boy (noun)

A young man who is employed to do odd jobs in a business office.

- He looked up "office boy" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "office boy" to mean a young man who is employed to do odd jobs in a....

---

oil change (noun)

Replacing dirty oil with clean.

- He looked up "oil change" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oil change."

---

stage business (noun)

Incidental activity performed by an actor for dramatic effect.

- His business with the cane was hilarious.

- In class, the teacher used “stage business” to mean incidental activity performed by an actor for....

straight man (noun)

A performer who acts as stooge to a comedian.

- In class, the teacher used “straight man” to mean a performer who acts as stooge to a comedian.
- They discussed “straight man” during the group presentation.

top dog (noun)

A person who is in charge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “top dog.”
- He looked up “top dog” because he had never seen it before.

blue law (noun)

A statute regulating work on Sundays.

- In class, the teacher used “blue law” to mean a statute regulating work on sundays.
- Understanding “blue law” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

board of education (noun)

A board in charge of local public schools.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “board of education.”
- He looked up “board of education” because he had never seen it before.

calling (noun)

The particular occupation for which you are trained.

- He looked up “calling” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “calling.”

collection (noun)

A publication containing a variety of works.

- In class, the teacher used “collection” to mean a publication containing a variety of works.
- They discussed “collection” during the group presentation.

double take (noun)

A delayed reaction indicating surprise.

- Understanding “double take” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “double take” means with a simple example.

french person (noun)

A person of French nationality.

- They discussed “french person” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “french person” means with a simple example.

friday (noun)

The sixth day of the week; the fifth working day.

- The article explained what “friday” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “friday” to mean the sixth day of the week; the fifth working day.

great russian (noun)

A member of the chief stock of Russian people living in European Russia; used to distinguish ethnic Russians from other peoples incorporated into Russia.

- He looked up “great russian” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “great russian” during the group presentation.

hair care (noun)

Care for the hair: the activity of washing or cutting or curling or arranging the hair.

- They discussed “hair care” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “hair care” to mean care for the hair: the activity of washing or....

king john (noun)

Youngest son of Henry II; King of England from 1199 to 1216; succeeded to the throne on the death of his brother Richard I; lost his French possessions; in 1215 John was compelled by the barons to sign the Magna Carta (1167-1216).

- In class, the teacher used "king john" to mean youngest son of henry ii; king of england from 1199....
- They discussed "king john" during the group presentation.

---

knowledge (noun)

The psychological result of perception and learning and reasoning.

- In class, the teacher used "knowledge" to mean the psychological result of perception and learning....
- Understanding "knowledge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

land development (noun)

Making an area of land more useful.

- Understanding "land development" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "land development" because he had never seen it before.

---

married man (noun)

A married man; a woman's partner in marriage.

- Understanding "married man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "married man" means with a simple example.

---

middle class (noun)

The social class between the lower and upper classes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "middle class."
- They discussed "middle class" during the group presentation.

---

middle-class (adjective)

Occupying a socioeconomic position intermediate between those of the lower classes and the wealthy.

- Would you call this situation "middle-class"? Explain why.
- A "middle-class" approach may work better in this case.

---

poor person (noun)

A person with few or no possessions.

- The article explained what "poor person" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "poor person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

school district (noun)

A district whose public schools are administered together.

- Understanding "school district" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "school district" to mean a district whose public schools are administered....

---

search (noun)

The examination of alternative hypotheses.

- His search for a move that would avoid checkmate was unsuccessful.
- A thorough search of the ledgers revealed nothing.

---

sex act (noun)

The act of sexual procreation between a man and a woman; the man's penis is inserted into the woman's vagina and excited until orgasm and ejaculation occur.

- Understanding "sex act" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sex act" to mean the act of sexual procreation between a man and a....

---

spend-all (noun)

Someone who spends money prodigally.

- Understanding "spend-all" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spend-all."

---

subject (noun)

A person who owes allegiance to that nation.

- A monarch has a duty to his subjects.
- He didn't want to discuss that subject.

---

water dog (noun)

A person who enjoys being in or on the water.

- They discussed "water dog" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "water dog" to mean a person who enjoys being in or on the water.

---

author (noun)

Someone who originates or causes or initiates something.

- They discussed "author" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "author."

---

brother-in-law (noun)

A brother by marriage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brother-in-law."
- The article explained what "brother-in-law" means with a simple example.

---

dad (noun)

An informal term for a father; probably derived from baby talk.

- The article explained what "dad" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dad."

---

department of education (noun)

The United States federal department that administers all federal programs dealing with education (including federal aid to educational institutions and students); created 1979.

- They discussed "department of education" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of education."

---

director of research (noun)

A supervisor in a research center.

- Understanding "director of research" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "director of research" during the group presentation.

---

education department (noun)

The United States federal department that administers all federal programs dealing with education (including federal aid to educational institutions and students); created 1979.

- In class, the teacher used "education department" to mean the united states federal department that....
- The article explained what "education department" means with a simple example.

---

field of study (noun)

A branch of knowledge.

- Anthropology is the study of human beings.
- In class, the teacher used "field of study" to mean a branch of knowledge.

---

fit (noun)

A sudden flurry of activity (often for no obvious reason).

- A fit of housecleaning.
- He had a fit.

---

information science (noun)

The sciences concerned with gathering, manipulating, storing, retrieving, and classifying recorded information.

- Understanding "information science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "information science" during the group presentation.

---

judge (noun)

An authority who is able to estimate worth or quality.

- They discussed "judge" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "judge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lady (noun)

A polite name for any woman.

- A nice lady at the library helped me.
- A chauffeur opened the door of the limousine for the grand lady.

leader (noun)

A person who rules or guides or inspires others.

- The article explained what "leader" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "leader" to mean a person who rules or guides or inspires others.

leading off (noun)

The act of enticing others into sinful ways.

- The article explained what "leading off" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "leading off" to mean the act of enticing others into sinful ways.

letter (noun)

An award earned by participation in a school sport.

- He won letters in three sports.
- Mailed an indignant letter to the editor.

material (noun)

A person judged suitable for admission or employment.

- He was university material.
- She was vice-presidential material.

nobody (noun)

A person of no influence.

- The article explained what "nobody" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nobody" to mean a person of no influence.

plus (noun)

The arithmetic operation of summing; calculating the sum of two or more numbers.

- Four plus three equals seven.
- Understanding "plus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

public figure (noun)

A well-known or notable person.

- She is an important figure in modern music.
- They discussed "public figure" during the group presentation.

regular (noun)

A dependable follower (especially in party politics).

- He is one of the party regulars.
- He looked up "regular" because he had never seen it before.

research director (noun)

A supervisor in a research center.

- The article explained what "research director" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "research director."

secretary (noun)

A person who is head of an administrative department of government.

- In class, the teacher used "secretary" to mean a person who is head of an administrative....
- They discussed "secretary" during the group presentation.

significant other (noun)

A person (not necessarily a spouse) with whom you cohabit and share a long-term sexual relationship.

- They discussed "significant other" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "significant other" means with a simple example.

---

sister (noun)

A female person who has the same parents as another person.

- My sister married a musician.
- The Sisters taught her to love God.

---

workers (noun)

A person who works at a specific occupation.

- Workers of the world–unite!
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "workers."

---

battle (noun)

An energetic attempt to achieve something.

- He fought a battle for recognition.
- Grant won a decisive victory in the battle of Chickamauga.

---

central office (noun)

(usually plural) the office that serves as the administrative center of an enterprise.

- They discussed "central office" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "central office" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coming upon (noun)

A casual meeting with a person or thing.

- The article explained what "coming upon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "coming upon" to mean a casual meeting with a person or thing.

---

earth god (noun)

A god of fertility and vegetation.

- Understanding "earth god" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "earth god" means with a simple example.

---

earth-god (noun)

A god of fertility and vegetation.

- The article explained what "earth-god" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "earth-god" to mean a god of fertility and vegetation.

---

fall guy (noun)

A person who is gullible and easy to take advantage of.

- Understanding "fall guy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fall guy" means with a simple example.

---

families (noun)

A person having kinship with another or others.

- Understanding "families" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "families" during the group presentation.

---

federal office (noun)

A department of the federal government of the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal office."
- He looked up "federal office" because he had never seen it before.

---

g-man (noun)

A special law-enforcement agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

- Understanding "g-man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “g-man” because he had never seen it before.

group practice (noun)

(medicine) the practice of medicine by a group of physicians who share their premises and other resources.

- He looked up “group practice” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “group practice” to mean (medicine) the practice of medicine by a group of....

hit the books (verb)

Learn by reading books.

- I have an exam next week; I must hit the books now.
- The coach explained when to use “hit the books” and when to wait.

hurt (noun)

The act of damaging something or someone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hurt.”
- Understanding “hurt” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

leading man (noun)

Actor who plays the leading male role.

- He looked up “leading man” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “leading man” to mean actor who plays the leading male role.

living dead (noun)

A dead body that has been brought back to life by a supernatural force.

- They discussed “living dead” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “living dead.”

local post office (noun)

A local branch where postal services are available".

- They discussed “local post office” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “local post office” because he had never seen it before.

management control (noun)

An internal control performed by one or more managers.

- In class, the teacher used “management control” to mean an internal control performed by one or more managers.
- The article explained what “management control” means with a simple example.

picture taking (noun)

The act of taking and printing photographs.

- In class, the teacher used “picture taking” to mean the act of taking and printing photographs.
- The article explained what “picture taking” means with a simple example.

sea god (noun)

A deity that personifies the sea and is usually believed to live in or to control the sea.

- They discussed “sea god” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sea god.”

section man (noun)

Someone who teaches a section of a large college course.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “section man.”
- He looked up “section man” because he had never seen it before.

sports (noun)

A person known for the way she (or he) behaves when teased or defeated or subjected to trying circumstances.

- They discussed “sports” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “sports” to mean a person known for the way she (or he) behaves when....

stupid (noun)

A person who is not very bright.

- The economy, stupid!
- They discussed "stupid" during the group presentation.

active (noun)

A person who is a participating member of an organization.

- The club issues a list of members, both the actives and the retirees.
- 'The boy threw the ball' uses the active voice.

administration (noun)

The act of governing; exercising authority.

- He claims that the present administration is corrupt.
- Things were quiet during the Eisenhower administration.

approach (noun)

The act of drawing spatially closer to something.

- The hunter's approach scattered the geese.
- His approach to every problem is to draw up a list of pros and cons.

class feeling (noun)

Feelings of envy and resentment of one social or economic class for toward another.

- In class, the teacher used "class feeling" to mean feelings of envy and resentment of one social or....
- The article explained what "class feeling" means with a simple example.

general election (noun)

A national or state election; candidates are chosen in all constituencies.

- The article explained what "general election" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general election."

general staff (noun)

Military officers assigned to assist a senior officer in planning military policy.

- Understanding "general staff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "general staff" means with a simple example.

government minister (noun)

A person appointed to a high office in the government.

- Minister of Finance.
- Understanding "government minister" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

half brother (noun)

A brother who has only one parent in common with you.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half brother."
- Understanding "half brother" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

half-brother (noun)

A brother who has only one parent in common with you.

- Understanding "half-brother" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "half-brother" because he had never seen it before.

higher education (noun)

Education provided by a college or university.

- They discussed "higher education" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "higher education."

independent (noun)

A neutral or uncommitted person (especially in politics).

- Understanding "independent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "independent."

---

master (noun)

An artist of consummate skill.

- A master of the violin.
- One of the old masters.

---

medical report (noun)

A report of the results of a medical examination of a patient.

- The article explained what "medical report" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "medical report" to mean a report of the results of a medical examination of....

---

natural history (noun)

The scientific study of plants or animals (more observational than experimental) usually published in popular magazines rather than in academic journals.

- They discussed "natural history" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "natural history" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

normal school (noun)

A two-year school for training elementary teachers.

- The article explained what "normal school" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "normal school" to mean a two-year school for training elementary teachers.

---

president washington (noun)

1st President of the United States; commander-in-chief of the Continental Army during the American Revolution (1732-1799).

- Understanding "president washington" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "president washington."

---

professional person (noun)

A person engaged in one of the learned professions.

- He looked up "professional person" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "professional person" during the group presentation.

---

quality control (noun)

Maintenance of standards of quality of manufactured goods.

- In class, the teacher used "quality control" to mean maintenance of standards of quality of manufactured....
- They discussed "quality control" during the group presentation.

---

school text (noun)

A book prepared for use in schools or colleges.

- His economics textbook is in its tenth edition.
- The professor wrote the text that he assigned students to buy.

---

school-age child (noun)

A young person attending school (up through senior high school).

- In class, the teacher used "school-age child" to mean a young person attending school (up through senior....
- He looked up "school-age child" because he had never seen it before.

---

back judge (noun)

A football official.

- In class, the teacher used "back judge" to mean a football official.
- Understanding "back judge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

case officer (noun)

An operative who also serves as an official staffer of an intelligence service.

- Understanding "case officer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "case officer" means with a simple example.

college boy (noun)

A student (or former student) at a college or university.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "college boy."
- He looked up "college boy" because he had never seen it before.

compared (verb)

Examine and note the similarities or differences of.

- John compared his haircut to his friend's.
- We compared notes after we had both seen the movie.

daughter-in-law (noun)

The wife of your son.

- They discussed "daughter-in-law" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "daughter-in-law" because he had never seen it before.

david low (noun)

British political cartoonist (born in New Zealand) who created the character Colonel Blimp (1891-1963).

- Understanding "david low" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "david low" to mean british political cartoonist (born in new zealand)....

effort (noun)

A series of actions advancing a principle or tending toward a particular end.

- Contributed to the war effort.
- Made an effort to cover all the reading material.

fall short of (verb)

Fail to satisfy, as of expectations, for example.

- The coach explained when to use "fall short of" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "fall short of" in real sentences.

fighting (noun)

The act of fighting; any contest or struggle.

- There was fighting in the streets.
- Understanding "fighting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

first lady (noun)

The leading woman in an art or profession.

- Understanding "first lady" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "first lady" to mean the leading woman in an art or profession.

ice show (noun)

Any entertainment performed by ice skaters.

- In class, the teacher used "ice show" to mean any entertainment performed by ice skaters.
- The article explained what "ice show" means with a simple example.

impact (noun)

The violent interaction of individuals or groups entering into combat.

- The book had an important impact on my thinking.
- Understanding "impact" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

in-fighting (noun)

Conflict between members of the same organization (usually concealed from outsiders).

- He looked up "in-fighting" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "in-fighting."

learning (noun)

The cognitive process of acquiring skill or knowledge.

- Understanding “learning” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “learning” means with a simple example.

---

lower class (noun)

The social class lowest in the social hierarchy.

- The article explained what “lower class” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “lower class” to mean the social class lowest in the social hierarchy.

---

lower-class (adjective)

Occupying the lowest socioeconomic position in a society.

- Students compared “lower-class” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as “lower-class” when it is occupying the lowest socioeconomic position in a....

---

married person (noun)

A person’s partner in marriage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “married person.”
- He looked up “married person” because he had never seen it before.

---

military action (noun)

A military engagement.

- He saw action in Korea.
- The article explained what “military action” means with a simple example.

---

operation (noun)

A business especially one run on a large scale.

- A large-scale farming operation.
- A multinational operation.

---

organization (noun)

The act of forming or establishing something.

- He still remembers the organization of the club.
- The facts were familiar but it was in the organization of them that he was original.

---

pictures (noun)

A typical example of some state or quality.

- They showed us the pictures of their wedding.
- His pictures hang in the Louvre.

---

senior (noun)

An undergraduate student during the year preceding graduation.

- Understanding “senior” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “senior.”

---

straight person (noun)

A heterosexual person; someone having a sexual orientation to persons of the opposite sex.

- They discussed “straight person” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “straight person” means with a simple example.

---

wear (noun)

The act of having on your person as a covering or adornment.

- She bought it for everyday wear.
- The tires showed uneven wear.

---

work-study program (noun)

An educational plan in which students alternate between paid employment and formal study.

- The article explained what “work-study program” means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "work-study program."

---

air attack (noun)

An attack by armed planes on a surface target.

- Understanding "air attack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "air attack" to mean an attack by armed planes on a surface target.

---

analysis (noun)

A set of techniques for exploring underlying motives and a method of treating various mental disorders; based on the theories of Sigmund Freud.

- His physician recommended psychoanalysis.
- He looked up "analysis" because he had never seen it before.

---

art director (noun)

The director in charge of the artistic features of a theatrical production (costumes and scenery and lighting).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "art director."
- They discussed "art director" during the group presentation.

---

board member (noun)

A member of a governing board.

- Understanding "board member" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "board member" because he had never seen it before.

---

commission (noun)

A special assignment that is given to a person or group.

- He works on commission.
- Put the ships into commission.

---

competition (noun)

The act of competing as for profit or a prize.

- Business competition can be fiendish at times.
- He wanted to know what the competition was doing.

---

department of local government (noun)

A permanent department created to perform the work of a local government.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of local government."
- Understanding "department of local government" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

foreign office (noun)

The government department in charge of foreign relations.

- In class, the teacher used "foreign office" to mean the government department in charge of foreign....
- They discussed "foreign office" during the group presentation.

---

law practice (noun)

The practice of law.

- They discussed "law practice" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "law practice."

---

march king (noun)

A United States bandmaster and composer of military marches (1854-1932).

- Understanding "march king" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "march king" to mean a united states bandmaster and composer of military....

---

marriage (noun)

The act of marrying; the nuptial ceremony.

- Their marriage was conducted in the chapel.
- A long and happy marriage.

---

no-trump (noun)

A version of contract bridge in which no suit is designated as trump for the duration of the hand.

- In class, the teacher used "no-trump" to mean a version of contract bridge in which no suit is....
- The article explained what "no-trump" means with a simple example.

---

office staff (noun)

Professional or clerical workers in an office.

- The whole office was late the morning of the blizzard.
- Understanding "office staff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

patients (noun)

A person who requires medical care.

- The number of emergency patients has grown rapidly.
- Understanding "patients" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

police chief (noun)

A policeman in charge of a precinct.

- The article explained what "police chief" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "police chief" to mean a policeman in charge of a precinct.

---

practice of law (noun)

The learned profession that is mastered by graduate study in a law school and that is responsible for the judicial system.

- He studied law at Yale.
- He looked up "practice of law" because he had never seen it before.

---

research staff (noun)

A group of associated research workers in a university or library or laboratory.

- They discussed "research staff" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "research staff."

---

security department (noun)

A department responsible for the security of the institution's property and workers.

- The head of security was a former policeman.
- He looked up "security department" because he had never seen it before.

---

staff office (noun)

The department responsible for hiring and training and placing employees and for setting policies for personnel management.

- Understanding "staff office" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "staff office" because he had never seen it before.

---

work unit (noun)

A unit of measurement for work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "work unit."
- Understanding "work unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air cover (noun)

The use of military aircraft to provide protection against attack by enemy aircraft during ground or naval operations.

- The article explained what "air cover" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "air cover" to mean the use of military aircraft to provide protection....

---

career girl (noun)

A woman who is a careerist.

- Understanding "career girl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "career girl" means with a simple example.

---

co-star (noun)

One of two actors who are given equal status as stars in a play or film.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "co-star."
- The article explained what "co-star" means with a simple example.

---

cover girl (noun)

A very pretty girl who works as a photographer's model.

- The article explained what "cover girl" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cover girl" during the group presentation.

---

drink (noun)

The act of drinking alcoholic beverages to excess.

- Drink was his downfall.
- I asked for a hot drink.

---

french leave (noun)

An abrupt and unannounced departure (without saying farewell).

- They discussed "french leave" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "french leave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

general officer (noun)

Officers in the Army or Air Force or Marines above the rank of colonel.

- In class, the teacher used "general officer" to mean officers in the army or air force or marines above....
- Understanding "general officer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

line officer (noun)

A commissioned officer with combat units (not a staff officer or a supply officer).

- Understanding "line officer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "line officer" to mean a commissioned officer with combat units (not a....

---

man friday (noun)

The most helpful assistant.

- The article explained what "man friday" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "man friday."

---

planning (noun)

An act of formulating a program for a definite course of action.

- The planning was more fun than the trip itself.
- His planning for retirement was hindered by several uncertainties.

---

political science (noun)

The study of government of states and other political units.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "political science."
- He looked up "political science" because he had never seen it before.

---

professor (noun)

Someone who is a member of the faculty at a college or university.

- They discussed "professor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "professor" means with a simple example.

---

sit-in (noun)

A form of civil disobedience in which demonstrators occupy seats and refuse to move.

- Understanding "sit-in" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sit-in."

---

u-turn (noun)

Complete reversal of direction of travel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "u-turn."
- They discussed "u-turn" during the group presentation.

work to rule (noun)

A job action in which workers cause a slowdown by doing only the minimum amount required by the rules of the workplace.

- In class, the teacher used "work to rule" to mean a job action in which workers cause a slowdown by....
- He looked up "work to rule" because he had never seen it before.

anti-american (noun)

A person who is opposed to the United States and its policies.

- The article explained what "anti-american" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "anti-american" during the group presentation.

basic (noun)

A popular programming language that is relatively easy to learn; an acronym for beginner's all-purpose symbolic instruction code; no longer in general use.

- He looked up "basic" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "basic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blue baby (noun)

An infant born with a bluish color; usually has a defective heart.

- In class, the teacher used "blue baby" to mean an infant born with a bluish color; usually has a....
- Understanding "blue baby" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

board meeting (noun)

A meeting for administrative purposes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "board meeting."
- The article explained what "board meeting" means with a simple example.

captain (noun)

The leader of a group of people.

- A captain of industry.
- He looked up "captain" because he had never seen it before.

club member (noun)

Someone who is a member of a club.

- In class, the teacher used "club member" to mean someone who is a member of a club.
- The article explained what "club member" means with a simple example.

crime (noun)

An evil act not necessarily punishable by law.

- Crimes of the heart.
- A long record of crimes.

female person (noun)

A person who belongs to the sex that can have babies.

- They discussed "female person" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "female person" to mean a person who belongs to the sex that can have babies.

film star (noun)

A star who plays leading roles in the cinema.

- He looked up "film star" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "film star."

fire chief (noun)

The head of a fire department.

- They discussed "fire chief" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fire chief" means with a simple example.

land-office business (noun)

Very large and profitable volume of commercial activity.

- Understanding "land-office business" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "land-office business" means with a simple example.

---

law officer (noun)

An officer of the law.

- He looked up "law officer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "law officer."

---

law student (noun)

A student in law school.

- The article explained what "law student" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "law student" to mean a student in law school.

---

limited war (noun)

A war whose objective is less than the unconditional defeat of the enemy.

- Understanding "limited war" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "limited war."

---

line double (noun)

A double resulting from a line drive.

- They discussed "line double" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "line double" because he had never seen it before.

---

little sister (noun)

A younger sister.

- Understanding "little sister" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "little sister" during the group presentation.

---

military training (noun)

Training soldiers in military procedures.

- The article explained what "military training" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military training."

---

old lady (noun)

Your own wife.

- Meet my old lady.
- The article explained what "old lady" means with a simple example.

---

secretary of state (noun)

The position of the head of the State Department.

- The position of Secretary of State was established in 1789.
- The first Secretary of State was Thomas Jefferson.

---

sit-up (noun)

A stomach exercise in which a person sits up from a supine position without using the arms for leverage.

- He looked up "sit-up" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sit-up."

---

smith (noun)

Someone who works at something specified.

- The article explained what "smith" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "smith" to mean someone who works at something specified.

---

stock-take (noun)

An instance of stocktaking.

- In class, the teacher used "stock-take" to mean an instance of stocktaking.

- The article explained what "stock-take" means with a simple example.

---

tax cut (noun)

The act of reducing taxation.

- The new administration's large tax cut was highly controversial.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tax cut."

---

town meeting (noun)

A meeting of the inhabitants of a town.

- The article explained what "town meeting" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "town meeting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tv star (noun)

A star in a television show.

- In class, the teacher used "tv star" to mean a star in a television show.
- They discussed "tv star" during the group presentation.

---

big gun (noun)

An important influential person.

- He thinks he's a big shot.
- She's a big deal in local politics.

---

box office (noun)

The office where tickets of admission are sold.

- The article explained what "box office" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "box office" to mean the office where tickets of admission are sold.

---

christian (noun)

A religious person who believes Jesus is the Christ and who is a member of a Christian denomination.

- They discussed "christian" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "christian" means with a simple example.

---

city manager (noun)

The head of a city government.

- He looked up "city manager" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "city manager" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

killing (noun)

The act of terminating a life.

- Understanding "killing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "killing."

---

military press (noun)

A weightlift in which the barbell is lifted to shoulder height and then smoothly lifted overhead.

- In class, the teacher used "military press" to mean a weightlift in which the barbell is lifted to....
- The article explained what "military press" means with a simple example.

---

open-class word (noun)

A word to which an independent meaning can be assigned.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "open-class word."
- They discussed "open-class word" during the group presentation.

---

peter (noun)

Disciple of Jesus and leader of the Apostles; regarded by Catholics as the vicar of Christ on earth and first Pope.

- He looked up "peter" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "peter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

peter i (noun)

Czar of Russia who introduced ideas from western Europe to reform the government; he extended his territories in the Baltic and founded St. Petersburg (1682-1725).

- The article explained what "peter i" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "peter i" to mean czar of russia who introduced ideas from western....

---

plan of attack (noun)

Ideas or actions intended to deal with a problem or situation.

- An attack on inflation.
- His plan of attack was misguided.

---

required course (noun)

A course that all students are required to take.

- In class, the teacher used "required course" to mean a course that all students are required to take.
- The article explained what "required course" means with a simple example.

---

showing (noun)

Something shown to the public.

- They discussed "showing" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "showing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

teacher (noun)

A personified abstraction that teaches.

- Books were his teachers.
- Experience is a demanding teacher.

---

william i (noun)

Duke of Normandy who led the Norman invasion of England and became the first Norman to be King of England; he defeated Harold II at the battle of Hastings in 1066 and introduced many Norman customs into England (1027-1087).

- In class, the teacher used "william i" to mean duke of normandy who led the norman invasion of....
- They discussed "william i" during the group presentation.

---

big sister (noun)

An older sister.

- Understanding "big sister" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "big sister" because he had never seen it before.

---

catch (noun)

The act of catching an object with the hands.

- Mays made the catch with his back to the plate.
- It sounds good but what's the catch?

---

church member (noun)

A religious person who goes to church regularly.

- They discussed "church member" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "church member" because he had never seen it before.

---

coast (noun)

The act of moving smoothly along a surface while remaining in contact with it.

- The children lined up for a coast down the snowy slope.
- When it snowed they made a coast on the golf course.

---

course credit (noun)

Recognition by a college or university that a course of studies has been successfully completed; typically measured in semester hours.

- He looked up "course credit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "course credit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

due process of law (noun)

(law) the administration of justice according to established rules and principles; based on the principle that a person cannot be deprived of life or liberty or property without appropriate legal procedures and safeguards.

- Understanding "due process of law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "due process of law" means with a simple example.

---

economy (noun)

An act of economizing; reduction in cost.

- It was a small economy to walk to work every day.
- Economy of effort.

---

executive (noun)

A person responsible for the administration of a business.

- In class, the teacher used "executive" to mean a person responsible for the administration of a....
- They discussed "executive" during the group presentation.

---

film director (noun)

The person who directs the making of a film.

- Understanding "film director" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "film director."

---

final decision (noun)

A judgment disposing of the case before the court; after the judgment (or an appeal from it) is rendered all that remains is to enforce the judgment.

- Understanding "final decision" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "final decision" to mean a judgment disposing of the case before the court;....

---

had crime (noun)

(Islam) serious crimes committed by Muslims and punishable by punishments established in the Koran.

- Had crimes include apostasy from Islam and murder and theft and adultery.
- The article explained what "had crime" means with a simple example.

---

john paul i (noun)

The first Pope to assume a double name; he reigned for only 34 days (1912-1978).

- Understanding "john paul i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "john paul i" because he had never seen it before.

---

john rock (noun)

United States gynecologist and devout Catholic who conducted the first clinical trials of the oral contraceptive pill (1890-1984).

- In class, the teacher used "john rock" to mean united states gynecologist and devout catholic who....
- The article explained what "john rock" means with a simple example.

---

mission (noun)

An operation that is assigned by a higher headquarters.

- The planes were on a bombing mission.
- A confidential mission to London.

---

officers (noun)

A person authorized to serve in a position of authority on a vessel.

- The club elected its officers for the coming year.
- The article explained what "officers" means with a simple example.

---

old master (noun)

A great European painter prior to 19th century.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old master."
- He looked up "old master" because he had never seen it before.

---

operations (noun)

Financial transactions at a brokerage; having to do with the execution of trades and keeping customer records.

- They had to consolidate their operations.

- Consolidate the companies various operations.

organization man (noun)

An employee who sacrifices his own individuality for the good of an organization.

- They discussed "organization man" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "organization man."

politics (noun)

The activities and affairs involved in managing a state or a government.

- Unemployment dominated the politics of the inter-war years.
- Government agencies multiplied beyond the control of representative politics.

role player (noun)

A person who makes deceitful pretenses.

- The article explained what "role player" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "role player" to mean a person who makes deceitful pretenses.

security director (noun)

Head of a private security force working for a business or industry.

- He looked up "security director" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "security director."

sense of the meeting (noun)

General agreement reached by an assembled group.

- No vote was taken, but after each discussion the chair summed up the sense of the meeting.
- The article explained what "sense of the meeting" means with a simple example.

university student (noun)

A student enrolled in a college or university.

- The article explained what "university student" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "university student" to mean a student enrolled in a college or university.

works council (noun)

(chiefly Brit) a council representing employer and employees of a plant or business to discuss working conditions etc; also: a committee representing the workers elected to negotiate with management about grievances and wages etc.

- The article explained what "works council" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "works council."

application (noun)

The action of putting something into operation.

- The application of maximum thrust.
- Massage has far-reaching medical applications.

dance school (noun)

A school where students are taught to dance.

- They discussed "dance school" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dance school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

john brown (noun)

Abolitionist who was hanged after leading an unsuccessful raid at Harper's Ferry, Virginia (1800-1859).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john brown."
- He looked up "john brown" because he had never seen it before.

legal action (noun)

A judicial proceeding brought by one party against another; one party prosecutes another for a wrong done or for protection of a right or for prevention of a wrong.

- They discussed "legal action" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "legal action" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

location (noun)

A determination of the place where something is.

- They shot the film on location in Nevada.
- They discussed "location" during the group presentation.

married woman (noun)

A married woman; a man's partner in marriage.

- He looked up "married woman" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "married woman."

population control (noun)

Control over the growth of population; a government program.

- He looked up "population control" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "population control."

queen (noun)

A competitor who holds a preeminent position.

- Paris is the queen of cities.
- The queen of ocean liners.

report card (noun)

A written evaluation of a student's scholarship and deportment.

- His father signed his report card.
- In class, the teacher used "report card" to mean a written evaluation of a student's scholarship and....

rich man (noun)

A man who is wealthy.

- Understanding "rich man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rich man" to mean a man who is wealthy.

school ship (noun)

A ship used to train students as sailors.

- In class, the teacher used "school ship" to mean a ship used to train students as sailors.
- The article explained what "school ship" means with a simple example.

section hand (noun)

A laborer assigned to a section gang.

- In class, the teacher used "section hand" to mean a laborer assigned to a section gang.
- Understanding "section hand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

security review (noun)

Counterintelligence achieved by banning or deleting any information of value to the enemy.

- In class, the teacher used "security review" to mean counterintelligence achieved by banning or deleting....
- They discussed "security review" during the group presentation.

senior high (noun)

A public secondary school usually including grades 9 through 12.

- He goes to the neighborhood highschool.
- In class, the teacher used "senior high" to mean a public secondary school usually including grades....

sit-down (noun)

A strike in which workers refuse to leave the workplace until a settlement is reached.

- They discussed "sit-down" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sit-down" because he had never seen it before.

sitting (noun)

The act of assuming or maintaining a seated position.

- He read the mystery at one sitting.
- He wanted his portrait painted but couldn't spare time for the sitting.

---

stars (noun)

A performer who receives prominent billing.

- They discussed "stars" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "stars" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

walking (noun)

The act of traveling by foot.

- Walking is a healthy form of exercise.
- They discussed "walking" during the group presentation.

---

also-ran (noun)

A contestant who loses the contest.

- They discussed "also-ran" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "also-ran" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

attempt (noun)

Earnest and conscientious activity intended to do or accomplish something.

- They made an attempt on his life.
- They discussed "attempt" during the group presentation.

---

business leader (noun)

A very wealthy or powerful businessman.

- They discussed "business leader" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "business leader."

---

catch up with (verb)

Make up work that was missed due to absence at a later point.

- Can I catch up with the material or is it too late?
- The coach explained when to use "catch up with" and when to wait.

---

easy mark (noun)

A defenseless victim.

- They discussed "easy mark" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "easy mark" to mean a defenseless victim.

---

eating (noun)

The act of consuming food.

- Understanding "eating" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "eating" during the group presentation.

---

exchange (noun)

The act of changing one thing for another thing.

- Adam was promised immortality in exchange for his disobedience.
- They had a bitter exchange.

---

father figure (noun)

A man who takes over all the functions of the real father.

- In class, the teacher used "father figure" to mean a man who takes over all the functions of the real....
- They discussed "father figure" during the group presentation.

---

father-figure (noun)

A man (often a powerful or influential man) who arouses emotions usually felt for your real father and with whom you identify psychologically.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "father-figure."

- Understanding "father-figure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fell (noun)

The act of felling something (as a tree).

- They discussed "fell" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fell."

finding (noun)

The act of determining the properties of something, usually by research or calculation.

- The findings in the gastrointestinal tract indicate that he died several hours after dinner.
- An area rich in archaeological findings.

gay man (noun)

A homosexual man.

- The article explained what "gay man" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gay man" to mean a homosexual man.

general manager (noun)

The highest ranking manager.

- The article explained what "general manager" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general manager."

line coach (noun)

An assistant football coach in charge of the linemen.

- In class, the teacher used "line coach" to mean an assistant football coach in charge of the linemen.
- The article explained what "line coach" means with a simple example.

major form class (noun)

Any of the major parts of speech of traditional grammar.

- They discussed "major form class" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "major form class" because he had never seen it before.

mother figure (noun)

A woman who evokes the feelings usually reserved for a mother.

- The article explained what "mother figure" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mother figure" to mean a woman who evokes the feelings usually reserved....

police officer (noun)

A member of a police force.

- It was an accident, officer.
- He looked up "police officer" because he had never seen it before.

prior (noun)

The head of a religious order; in an abbey the prior is next below the abbot.

- He looked up "prior" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "prior" during the group presentation.

protection (noun)

The activity of protecting someone or something.

- The witnesses demanded police protection.
- They had no protection from the fallout.

ride (noun)

A journey in a vehicle (usually an automobile).

- In class, the teacher used "ride" to mean a journey in a vehicle (usually an automobile).
- Understanding "ride" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

robert (noun)

United States parliamentary authority and author (in 1876) of Robert's Rules of Order (1837-1923).

- In class, the teacher used "robert" to mean united states parliamentary authority and author....
- The article explained what "robert" means with a simple example.

robert i (noun)

King of Scotland from 1306 to 1329; defeated the English army under Edward II at Bannockburn and gained recognition of Scottish independence (1274-1329).

- They discussed "robert i" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "robert i" because he had never seen it before.

space walk (noun)

Any kind of physical activity outside a spacecraft by one of the crew.

- The article explained what "space walk" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "space walk."

sunday school (noun)

School meeting on Sundays for religious instruction.

- Understanding "sunday school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sunday school" to mean school meeting on sundays for religious instruction.

two-base hit (noun)

A base hit on which the batter stops safely at second base.

- He hit a double to deep centerfield.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "two-base hit."

united states post office (noun)

An independent agency of the federal government responsible for mail delivery (and sometimes telecommunications) between individuals and businesses in the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states post office."
- They discussed "united states post office" during the group presentation.

wearing (noun)

The act of having on your person as a covering or adornment.

- They discussed "wearing" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wearing."

calling together (noun)

The act of convoking.

- Understanding "calling together" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "calling together" means with a simple example.

cross-question (noun)

A question asked in cross-examination.

- They discussed "cross-question" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cross-question" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dead language (noun)

A language that is no longer learned as a native language.

- In class, the teacher used "dead language" to mean a language that is no longer learned as a native....
- The article explained what "dead language" means with a simple example.

driving school (noun)

A school where people are taught to drive automobiles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "driving school."
- He looked up "driving school" because he had never seen it before.

earth mother (noun)

The earth conceived of as the female principle of fertility.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earth mother."
- They discussed "earth mother" during the group presentation.

---

fire watching (noun)

(during World War II in Britain) watching for fires started by bombs that dropped from the sky.

- They discussed "fire watching" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fire watching" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

german american (noun)

An American who was born in Germany or whose ancestors were German.

- He looked up "german american" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "german american."

---

give notice (verb)

Terminate the employment of; discharge from an office or position.

- In everyday English, people use "give notice" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "give notice" in real sentences.

---

keeping (noun)

The responsibility of a guardian or keeper.

- He left his car in my keeping.
- His behavior was not in keeping with the occasion.

---

kept woman (noun)

An adulterous woman; a woman who has an ongoing extramarital sexual relationship with a man.

- In class, the teacher used "kept woman" to mean an adulterous woman; a woman who has an ongoing....
- The article explained what "kept woman" means with a simple example.

---

king of england (noun)

The sovereign ruler of England.

- The article explained what "king of england" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "king of england" to mean the sovereign ruler of england.

---

leading question (noun)

A question phrased in such a way as to suggest the desired answer; a lawyer may ask leading questions on cross-examination.

- In class, the teacher used "leading question" to mean a question phrased in such a way as to suggest the....
- The article explained what "leading question" means with a simple example.

---

lie-in (noun)

A long stay in bed in the morning.

- He looked up "lie-in" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lie-in" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

line judge (noun)

Football official who assists the referee by keeping track of the official time during the game.

- They discussed "line judge" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "line judge" to mean football official who assists the referee by....

---

line-drive single (noun)

A single resulting from a line drive.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line-drive single."
- Understanding "line-drive single" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

national insurance (noun)

Social insurance program in Britain; based on contributions from employers and employees; provides payments to unemployed and sick and retired people as well as medical services.

- In class, the teacher used "national insurance" to mean social insurance program in britain; based on....
- The article explained what "national insurance" means with a simple example.

national leader (noun)

A man who is a respected leader in national or international affairs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "national leader."
- The article explained what "national leader" means with a simple example.

partner (noun)

An associate in an activity or endeavor or sphere of common interest.

- Sexual partners.
- Understanding "partner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

peter the great (noun)

Czar of Russia who introduced ideas from western Europe to reform the government; he extended his territories in the Baltic and founded St. Petersburg (1682-1725).

- Understanding "peter the great" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "peter the great" to mean czar of russia who introduced ideas from western....

plays (noun)

A dramatic work intended for performance by actors on a stage.

- He wrote several plays but only one was produced on Broadway.
- The coach drew up the plays for her team.

role model (noun)

Someone worthy of imitation.

- Every child needs a role model.
- They discussed "role model" during the group presentation.

runs (noun)

A race between candidates for elective office.

- The Yankees scored 3 runs in the bottom of the 9th.
- In class, the teacher used "runs" to mean a race between candidates for elective office.

safe sex (noun)

Sexual activity (especially sexual intercourse) with the use of measures (such as latex condoms) to avoid the transmission of disease (especially AIDS).

- The article explained what "safe sex" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "safe sex" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

secretary general (noun)

A person who is a chief administrator (as of the United Nations).

- He looked up "secretary general" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "secretary general" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

side judge (noun)

A football official.

- Understanding "side judge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "side judge" to mean a football official.

solution (noun)

The successful action of solving a problem.

- The solution took three hours.
- He used a solution of peroxide and water.

stupid person (noun)

A person who is not very bright.

- The economy, stupid!
- He looked up "stupid person" because he had never seen it before.

term paper (noun)

A composition intended to indicate a student's progress during a school term.

- In class, the teacher used "term paper" to mean a composition intended to indicate a student's....
- They discussed "term paper" during the group presentation.

---

thomas (noun)

The Apostle who would not believe the resurrection of Jesus until he saw Jesus with his own eyes.

- He looked up "thomas" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "thomas" to mean the apostle who would not believe the resurrection....

---

via media (noun)

A middle way between two extremes.

- In class, the teacher used "via media" to mean a middle way between two extremes.
- The article explained what "via media" means with a simple example.

---

action officer (noun)

The case officer designated to perform an act during a clandestine operation (especially in a hostile area).

- In class, the teacher used "action officer" to mean the case officer designated to perform an act....
- The article explained what "action officer" means with a simple example.

---

americans (noun)

A native or inhabitant of the United States.

- They discussed "americans" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "americans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

art student (noun)

Someone studying to be an artist.

- In class, the teacher used "art student" to mean someone studying to be an artist.
- The article explained what "art student" means with a simple example.

---

big fish (noun)

An important influential person.

- He thinks he's a big shot.
- She's a big deal in local politics.

---

bill of review (noun)

A proceeding brought to obtain an explanation or an alteration or a reversal of a decree by the court that rendered it.

- He looked up "bill of review" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bill of review" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

c-section (noun)

The delivery of a fetus by surgical incision through the abdominal wall and uterus (from the belief that Julius Caesar was born that way).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "c-section."
- Understanding "c-section" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

change of direction (noun)

The act of changing the direction in which something is oriented.

- He looked up "change of direction" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "change of direction" to mean the act of changing the direction in which....

---

college student (noun)

A student enrolled in a college or university.

- Understanding "college student" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "college student" means with a simple example.

---

council member (noun)

A member of a council.

- The article explained what "council member" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "council member" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

count (noun)

The act of counting; reciting numbers in ascending order.

- The counting continued for several hours.
- A blood count.

---

cross-check (verb)

Check out conflicting sources; crosscheck facts, for example.

- He did not know how to use "cross-check" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "cross-check" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

federal official (noun)

Any federal law-enforcement officer.

- In class, the teacher used "federal official" to mean any federal law-enforcement officer.
- The article explained what "federal official" means with a simple example.

---

four-minute man (noun)

Someone who has run the mile in less that 4 minutes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "four-minute man."
- He looked up "four-minute man" because he had never seen it before.

---

gun control (noun)

Efforts to regulate or control sales of guns.

- The article explained what "gun control" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gun control" to mean efforts to regulate or control sales of guns.

---

holy man (noun)

Person of exceptional holiness.

- In class, the teacher used "holy man" to mean person of exceptional holiness.
- He looked up "holy man" because he had never seen it before.

---

law degree (noun)

Degree conferred on someone who successfully completes law school.

- He looked up "law degree" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "law degree" during the group presentation.

---

leading light (noun)

A celebrity who is an inspiration to others.

- Understanding "leading light" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "leading light" during the group presentation.

---

may queen (noun)

The girl chosen queen of a May Day festival.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "may queen."
- Understanding "may queen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mouth (noun)

A person conceived as a consumer of food.

- He has four mouths to feed.
- He stuffed his mouth with candy.

---

owner (noun)

A person who owns something.

- They are searching for the owner of the car.
- Who is the owner of that friendly smile?

---

press lord (noun)

A powerful newspaper proprietor.

- Understanding "press lord" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "press lord" during the group presentation.

queen of the may (noun)

The girl chosen queen of a May Day festival.

- They discussed "queen of the may" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "queen of the may."

secretary of war (noun)

Head of a former executive department; combined with the Navy Secretary to form the Defense Secretary in 1947.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secretary of war."
- He looked up "secretary of war" because he had never seen it before.

separate (verb)

Arrange or order by classes or categories.

- He separated the fighting children.
- Separate the wheat from the chaff.

sister-in-law (noun)

The sister of your spouse.

- They discussed "sister-in-law" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sister-in-law" means with a simple example.

staff member (noun)

An employee who is a member of a staff of workers (especially a member of the staff that works for the President of the United States).

- Understanding "staff member" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "staff member."

thomas more (noun)

English statesman who opposed Henry VIII's divorce from Catherine of Aragon and was imprisoned and beheaded; recalled for his concept of Utopia, the ideal state.

- The article explained what "thomas more" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "thomas more" to mean english statesman who opposed henry viii's divorce....

three-base hit (noun)

A base hit at which the batter stops safely at third base.

- They discussed "three-base hit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "three-base hit."

tom (noun)

(ethnic slur) offensive and derogatory name for a Black man who is abjectly servile and deferential to Whites.

- In class, the teacher used "tom" to mean (ethnic slur) offensive and derogatory name for a....
- The article explained what "tom" means with a simple example.

union member (noun)

A worker who belongs to a trade union.

- They discussed "union member" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "union member" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

views (noun)

The act of looking or seeing or observing.

- The most desirable feature of the park are the beautiful views.
- Figure 2 shows photographic and schematic views of the equipment.

war secretary (noun)

Head of a former executive department; combined with the Navy Secretary to form the Defense Secretary in 1947.

- Understanding "war secretary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "war secretary" to mean head of a former executive department; combined....

---

wedding (noun)

The act of marrying; the nuptial ceremony.

- In class, the teacher used "wedding" to mean the act of marrying; the nuptial ceremony.
- They discussed "wedding" during the group presentation.

---

young lady (noun)

A young woman.

- A young lady of 18.
- In class, the teacher used "young lady" to mean a young woman.

---

acting (noun)

The performance of a part or role in a drama.

- In class, the teacher used "acting" to mean the performance of a part or role in a drama.
- Understanding "acting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brown study (noun)

A state of deep absorption or thoughtfulness.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brown study."
- He looked up "brown study" because he had never seen it before.

---

change of color (noun)

An act that changes the light that something reflects.

- In class, the teacher used "change of color" to mean an act that changes the light that something reflects.
- The article explained what "change of color" means with a simple example.

---

city planning (noun)

Determining and drawing up plans for the future physical arrangement and condition of a community.

- Understanding "city planning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "city planning" means with a simple example.

---

civil service (noun)

Government workers; usually hired on the basis of competitive examinations.

- In class, the teacher used "civil service" to mean government workers; usually hired on the basis of....
- Understanding "civil service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

civil war (noun)

A war between factions in the same country.

- The article explained what "civil war" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "civil war."

---

direct support (noun)

A mission requiring one force to support another specific force and authorizing it to answer directly the supported force's request for assistance.

- In class, the teacher used "direct support" to mean a mission requiring one force to support another....
- The article explained what "direct support" means with a simple example.

---

father brown (noun)

A Catholic priest who was the hero of detective stories by G. K. Chesterton.

- In class, the teacher used "father brown" to mean a catholic priest who was the hero of detective....
- They discussed "father brown" during the group presentation.

---

female child (noun)

A youthful female person.

- Understanding "female child" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "female child."

field officer (noun)

An officer holding the rank of major or lieutenant colonel or colonel.

- He looked up "field officer" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "field officer" to mean an officer holding the rank of major or lieutenant....

football official (noun)

An official who enforces the rules at a football game.

- Understanding "football official" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "football official" during the group presentation.

girl friday (noun)

A female assistant who has a range of duties.

- The article explained what "girl friday" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "girl friday" to mean a female assistant who has a range of duties.

go-slow (noun)

A form of protest by workers in which they deliberately slow down in order to cause problem from their employers.

- He looked up "go-slow" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "go-slow" to mean a form of protest by workers in which they....

ground attack (noun)

An attack by ground troops.

- They discussed "ground attack" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground attack."

half sister (noun)

A sister who has only one parent in common with you.

- They discussed "half sister" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half sister."

half-sister (noun)

A sister who has only one parent in common with you.

- In class, the teacher used "half-sister" to mean a sister who has only one parent in common with you.
- He looked up "half-sister" because he had never seen it before.

job-control language (noun)

A problem-oriented language used to describe job requirements to an operating system.

- They discussed "job-control language" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "job-control language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

louis (noun)

United States prizefighter who was world heavyweight champion for 12 years (1914-1981).

- He looked up "louis" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "louis" during the group presentation.

louis i (noun)

Third son of Charlemagne and king of France and Germany and Holy Roman Emperor (778-840).

- The article explained what "louis i" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "louis i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mid-on (noun)

The fielding position in cricket closest to the bowler on the on side.

- He looked up "mid-on" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mid-on."

oil production (noun)

The act of drilling a hole in the earth in the hope of producing petroleum.

- They discussed "oil production" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "oil production" because he had never seen it before.

---

peace march (noun)

A protest march against (a particular) war and in favor of peace.

- The article explained what "peace march" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "peace march" during the group presentation.

---

person of color (noun)

(formal) any non-European non-white person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "person of color."
- He looked up "person of color" because he had never seen it before.

---

political campaign (noun)

A race between candidates for elective office.

- I managed his campaign for governor.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "political campaign."

---

primary school (noun)

A school for young children; usually the first 6 or 8 grades.

- In class, the teacher used "primary school" to mean a school for young children; usually the first 6 or....
- He looked up "primary school" because he had never seen it before.

---

private practice (noun)

The practice of a profession independently and not as an employee.

- He teaches at the medical school but his fortune came from private practice.
- Lawyers in private practice are in business and must make a profit to survive.

---

product research (noun)

Marketing research that yields information about desired characteristics of the product or service.

- Understanding "product research" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "product research."

---

pull (noun)

The act of pulling; applying force to move something toward or with you.

- The pull up the hill had him breathing harder.
- His strenuous pulling strained his back.

---

religious right (noun)

United States political faction that advocates social and political conservativism, school prayer, and federal aid for religious groups and schools.

- They discussed "religious right" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "religious right" to mean united states political faction that advocates....

---

rich person (noun)

A person who possesses great material wealth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rich person."
- The article explained what "rich person" means with a simple example.

---

school teacher (noun)

A teacher in a school below the college level.

- Understanding "school teacher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "school teacher" during the group presentation.

---

site visit (noun)

A visit in an official capacity to examine a site to determine its suitability for some enterprise.

- Understanding "site visit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "site visit" means with a simple example.

skin care (noun)

Care for the skin.

- He looked up "skin care" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skin care."

social insurance (noun)

Government provision for unemployed, injured, or aged people; financed by contributions from employers and employees as well as by government revenue.

- The article explained what "social insurance" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "social insurance" during the group presentation.

social secretary (noun)

A personal secretary who handles your social correspondence and appointments.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social secretary."
- He looked up "social secretary" because he had never seen it before.

speech day (noun)

An annual day in the schools when speeches are made and prizes are distributed.

- He looked up "speech day" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "speech day" to mean an annual day in the schools when speeches are made....

stage director (noun)

Someone who supervises the actors and directs the action in the production of a stage show.

- Understanding "stage director" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "stage director" because he had never seen it before.

working rule (noun)

A rule that is adequate to permit work to be done.

- They discussed "working rule" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "working rule" because he had never seen it before.

american indian (noun)

A member of the race of people living in America when Europeans arrived.

- The article explained what "american indian" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american indian" to mean a member of the race of people living in america....

authority (noun)

An expert whose views are taken as definitive.

- He is an authority on corporate law.
- He has the authority to issue warrants.

bar girl (noun)

A woman employed by a bar to act as a companion to men customers.

- The article explained what "bar girl" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bar girl" to mean a woman employed by a bar to act as a companion to....

black operation (noun)

A covert operation not attributable to the organization carrying it out.

- In class, the teacher used "black operation" to mean a covert operation not attributable to the....
- They discussed "black operation" during the group presentation.

card player (noun)

Someone who plays (or knows how to play) card games.

- The article explained what "card player" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "card player" during the group presentation.

draw (noun)

An entertainer who attracts large audiences.

- He was the biggest drawing card they had.
- The game ended in a draw.

dude (noun)

An informal form of address for a man.

- He looked up "dude" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dude."

employees (noun)

A worker who is hired to perform a job.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "employees."
- They discussed "employees" during the group presentation.

ex (noun)

A woman who was formerly a particular man's wife.

- All his exes live in Texas.
- They discussed "ex" during the group presentation.

father of radio (noun)

United States electrical engineer who in 1907 patented the first triode vacuum tube, which made it possible to detect and amplify radio waves (1873-1961).

- He looked up "father of radio" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "father of radio."

full professor (noun)

A professor of the highest rank.

- He looked up "full professor" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "full professor" to mean a professor of the highest rank.

games-master (noun)

The teacher in charge of games at a school.

- He looked up "games-master" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "games-master" to mean the teacher in charge of games at a school.

group captain (noun)

A commissioned officer (especially one in the Royal Air Force) equivalent in rank to a colonel in the army.

- They discussed "group captain" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "group captain" means with a simple example.

lady friend (noun)

A girl or young woman with whom a man is romantically involved.

- His girlfriend kicked him out.
- He looked up "lady friend" because he had never seen it before.

least effort (noun)

The least effortful way to do something.

- The article explained what "least effort" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "least effort" during the group presentation.

long division (noun)

The operation of division in which the sequence of steps are indicated in detail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long division."
- He looked up "long division" because he had never seen it before.

medical practice (noun)

The practice of medicine.

- He looked up "medical practice" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "medical practice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

military officer (noun)

Any person in the armed services who holds a position of authority or command.

- An officer is responsible for the lives of his men.
- The article explained what "military officer" means with a simple example.

---

natural science (noun)

The sciences involved in the study of the physical world and its phenomena.

- The article explained what "natural science" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "natural science" to mean the sciences involved in the study of the physical....

---

projects (noun)

Any piece of work that is undertaken or attempted.

- He looked up "projects" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "projects" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

race meeting (noun)

A regular occasion on which a number of horse races are held on the same track.

- The Epsom race meeting was an important social event.
- In class, the teacher used "race meeting" to mean a regular occasion on which a number of horse races....

---

sea king (noun)

A Viking pirate chief.

- Understanding "sea king" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sea king" to mean a viking pirate chief.

---

selling (noun)

The exchange of goods for an agreed sum of money.

- In class, the teacher used "selling" to mean the exchange of goods for an agreed sum of money.
- Understanding "selling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

show trial (noun)

A trial held for show; the guilt of the accused person has been decided in advance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "show trial."
- Understanding "show trial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

water-color (noun)

The art or technique of painting with watercolors.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water-color."
- He looked up "water-color" because he had never seen it before.

---

adult (noun)

A fully developed person from maturity onward.

- He looked up "adult" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adult."

---

air defense (noun)

Defensive measures designed to destroy attacking enemy aircraft or missiles or to nullify their effectiveness.

- He looked up "air defense" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "air defense."

---

artist (noun)

A person whose creative work shows sensitivity and imagination.

- The article explained what "artist" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "artist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chairman (noun)

The officer who presides at the meetings of an organization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chairman."
- He looked up "chairman" because he had never seen it before.

civil wrong (noun)

(law) any wrongdoing for which an action for damages may be brought.

- Understanding "civil wrong" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "civil wrong" because he had never seen it before.

daily round (noun)

The usual activities in your day.

- The doctor made his rounds.
- They discussed "daily round" during the group presentation.

favorite son (noun)

A United States politician favored mainly in his or her home state.

- Understanding "favorite son" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "favorite son" during the group presentation.

george guess (noun)

Cherokee who created a notation for writing the Cherokee language (1770-1843).

- He looked up "george guess" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "george guess" during the group presentation.

girl wonder (noun)

An extremely talented young female person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "girl wonder."
- The article explained what "girl wonder" means with a simple example.

grade (noun)

A body of students who are taught together.

- Lumber of the highest grade.
- The road had a steep grade.

holy person (noun)

Person of exceptional holiness.

- They discussed "holy person" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "holy person."

male person (noun)

A person who belongs to the sex that cannot have babies.

- In class, the teacher used "male person" to mean a person who belongs to the sex that cannot have babies.
- Understanding "male person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

monday (noun)

The second day of the week; the first working day.

- In class, the teacher used "monday" to mean the second day of the week; the first working day.
- They discussed "monday" during the group presentation.

opening move (noun)

The first of a series of actions.

- They discussed "opening move" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "opening move" to mean the first of a series of actions.

option (noun)

The act of choosing or selecting.

- What option did I have?
- They discussed "option" during the group presentation.

---

political movement (noun)

A group of people working together to achieve a political goal.

- Understanding "political movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "political movement" means with a simple example.

---

primary care (noun)

The medical care received on first contact with the medical system (before being referred elsewhere).

- The article explained what "primary care" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "primary care" during the group presentation.

---

private eye (noun)

Someone who can be employed as a detective to collect information.

- Understanding "private eye" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "private eye" means with a simple example.

---

quick march (noun)

Marching at quick time.

- He looked up "quick march" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "quick march" during the group presentation.

---

quick study (noun)

Someone able to acquire new knowledge and skills rapidly and easily.

- Understanding "quick study" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "quick study" during the group presentation.

---

rock star (noun)

A famous singer of rock music.

- They discussed "rock star" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rock star" means with a simple example.

---

senior high school (noun)

A public secondary school usually including grades 9 through 12.

- He goes to the neighborhood highschool.
- Understanding "senior high school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stock-taking (noun)

Making an itemized list of merchandise or supplies on hand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stock-taking."
- Understanding "stock-taking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

student center (noun)

A center for student activities at a college or university.

- Understanding "student center" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "student center" means with a simple example.

---

track star (noun)

A star runner.

- They discussed "track star" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "track star" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trade union (noun)

An organization of employees formed to bargain with the employer.

- You have to join the union in order to get a job.

- The article explained what “trade union” means with a simple example.

---

users (noun)

A person who uses something or someone selfishly or unethically.

- He looked up “users” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “users” to mean a person who uses something or someone selfishly or....

---

winner (noun)

A person with a record of successes.

- Only winners need apply.
- They discussed “winner” during the group presentation.

---

work surface (noun)

A horizontal surface for supporting objects used in working or playing games.

- He looked up “work surface” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “work surface.”

---

art collection (noun)

A collection of art works.

- They discussed “art collection” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “art collection” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

business executive (noun)

An executive in a business corporation.

- Understanding “business executive” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “business executive.”

---

camera care (noun)

Keeping a camera in good working order.

- He looked up “camera care” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “camera care.”

---

chief of staff (noun)

The senior officer of a service of the armed forces.

- In class, the teacher used “chief of staff” to mean the senior officer of a service of the armed forces.
- Understanding “chief of staff” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

christ (noun)

A teacher and prophet born in Bethlehem and active in Nazareth; his life and sermons form the basis for Christianity (circa 4 BC - AD 29).

- They discussed “christ” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “christ” to mean a teacher and prophet born in bethlehem and active....

---

church officer (noun)

A church official.

- They discussed “church officer” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “church officer” to mean a church official.

---

committee member (noun)

A member of a committee.

- They discussed “committee member” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “committee member” because he had never seen it before.

---

count down (verb)

Count backwards; before detonating a bomb, for example.

- He did not know how to use “count down” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “count down” when talking about this idea.

---

fair sex (noun)

Women as a class.

- The fair sex gathered on the veranda.
- In class, the teacher used "fair sex" to mean women as a class.

---

head teacher (noun)

The educator who has executive authority for a school.

- Understanding "head teacher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "head teacher."

---

leaves (noun)

The period of time during which you are absent from work or duty.

- He looked up "leaves" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leaves."

---

master class (noun)

A class (especially in music) given to talented students by an expert.

- In class, the teacher used "master class" to mean a class (especially in music) given to talented....
- They discussed "master class" during the group presentation.

---

medical officer (noun)

A medical practitioner in the armed forces.

- The article explained what "medical officer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "medical officer" during the group presentation.

---

mid-off (noun)

The fielding position in cricket closest to the bowler on the off side.

- Understanding "mid-off" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mid-off" because he had never seen it before.

---

military campaign (noun)

Several related operations aimed at achieving a particular goal (usually within geographical and temporal constraints).

- They discussed "military campaign" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military campaign."

---

music teacher (noun)

Someone who teaches music.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "music teacher."
- They discussed "music teacher" during the group presentation.

---

past master (noun)

Someone who has long and thorough experience in a given activity.

- Understanding "past master" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "past master" because he had never seen it before.

---

political leader (noun)

A person active in party politics.

- In class, the teacher used "political leader" to mean a person active in party politics.
- The article explained what "political leader" means with a simple example.

---

product development (noun)

Improving an existing product or developing new kinds of products.

- Understanding "product development" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "product development" means with a simple example.

---

push back (noun)

The act of forcing the enemy to withdraw.

- They discussed "push back" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "push back" because he had never seen it before.

---

question master (noun)

The host or chairman of a radio or tv quiz show or panel game.

- In class, the teacher used "question master" to mean the host or chairman of a radio or tv quiz show or....
- He looked up "question master" because he had never seen it before.

---

religious school (noun)

A school run by a religious body.

- The article explained what "religious school" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "religious school" to mean a school run by a religious body.

---

richard i (noun)

Son of Henry II and King of England from 1189 to 1199; a leader of the Third Crusade; on his way home from the crusade he was captured and held prisoner in the Holy Roman Empire until England ransomed him in 1194 (1157-1199).

- In class, the teacher used "richard i" to mean son of henry ii and king of england from 1189 to....
- Understanding "richard i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sales event (noun)

An occasion (usually brief) for buying at specially reduced prices.

- He looked up "sales event" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sales event" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

senior class (noun)

Final grade or class in high school or college.

- He looked up "senior class" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "senior class" to mean final grade or class in high school or college.

---

specific performance (noun)

The performance of a legal contract as specified by its terms.

- In class, the teacher used "specific performance" to mean the performance of a legal contract as specified by....
- Understanding "specific performance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

top executive (noun)

A very wealthy or powerful businessman.

- They discussed "top executive" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "top executive."

---

war crime (noun)

A crime committed in wartime; violation of rules of war.

- Understanding "war crime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "war crime" to mean a crime committed in wartime; violation of rules of war.

---

waste of time (noun)

The devotion of time to a useless activity.

- The waste of time could prove fatal.
- Understanding "waste of time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

william tell (noun)

A Swiss patriot who lived in the early 14th century and who was renowned for his skill as an archer; according to legend an Austrian governor compelled him to shoot an apple from his son's head with his crossbow (which he did successfully without mishap).

- He looked up "william tell" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "william tell" during the group presentation.

---

wonder woman (noun)

A woman who can be a successful wife and have a professional career at the same time.

- The article explained what "wonder woman" means with a simple example.

- Understanding “wonder woman” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blue wall (noun)

The secrecy of police officers who lie or look the other way to protect other police officers.

- The blue wall cracked when some officers refused to take part in the cover-up.
- In class, the teacher used “blue wall” to mean the secrecy of police officers who lie or look the....

---

build upon (verb)

Be based on; of theories and claims, for example.

- She tried to use “build upon” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “build upon” in real sentences.

---

business activity (noun)

Activity undertaken as part of a commercial enterprise.

- The article explained what “business activity” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “business activity” during the group presentation.

---

credit hour (noun)

A unit of academic credit; one hour a week for an academic semester.

- The article explained what “credit hour” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “credit hour” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

customers (noun)

Someone who pays for goods or services.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “customers.”
- The article explained what “customers” means with a simple example.

---

damage control (noun)

An effort to minimize or curtail damage or loss.

- He looked up “damage control” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “damage control.”

---

education secretary (noun)

The position of the head of the Education Department.

- The post of Education Secretary was created in 1979.
- Carter appointed Shirley Hufstedler as the first Secretary of Education.

---

forward pass (noun)

A pass to a receiver downfield from the passer.

- He looked up “forward pass” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “forward pass.”

---

government activity (noun)

The act of governing; exercising authority.

- He had considerable experience of government.
- He looked up “government activity” because he had never seen it before.

---

louis the great (noun)

King of France from 1643 to 1715; his long reign was marked by the expansion of French influence in Europe and by the magnificence of his court and the Palace of Versailles (1638-1715).

- Understanding “louis the great” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “louis the great” during the group presentation.

---

man jack (noun)

A single individual.

- Every man jack.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “man jack.”

---

marketing (noun)

The commercial processes involved in promoting and selling and distributing a product or service.

- Most companies have a manager in charge of marketing.
- Does the weekly marketing at the supermarket.

---

mary (noun)

The mother of Jesus; Christians refer to her as the Virgin Mary; she is especially honored by Roman Catholics.

- The article explained what "mary" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mary" to mean the mother of jesus; christians refer to her as the....

---

mary i (noun)

Daughter of Henry VIII and Catherine of Aragon who was Queen of England from 1553 to 1558; she was the wife of Philip II of Spain and when she restored Roman Catholicism to England many Protestants were burned at the stake as heretics (1516-1558).

- Understanding "mary i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mary i" means with a simple example.

---

materials (noun)

A person judged suitable for admission or employment.

- Writing materials.
- Useful teaching materials.

---

medical student (noun)

A student in medical school.

- Understanding "medical student" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medical student."

---

open primary (noun)

A primary in which any registered voter can vote (but must vote for candidates of only one party).

- Understanding "open primary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "open primary" means with a simple example.

---

part-owner (noun)

A person who owns something in common with others.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "part-owner."
- They discussed "part-owner" during the group presentation.

---

progress (noun)

Gradual improvement or growth or development.

- Great progress in the arts.
- He listened for the progress of the troops.

---

road construction (noun)

The construction of roads.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "road construction."
- The article explained what "road construction" means with a simple example.

---

school bus (noun)

A bus used to transport children to or from school.

- Understanding "school bus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "school bus" to mean a bus used to transport children to or from school.

---

sea dog (noun)

A man who serves as a sailor.

- They discussed "sea dog" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea dog."

---

secretary of education (noun)

The position of the head of the Education Department.

- The post of Education Secretary was created in 1979.
- Carter appointed Shirley Hufstedler as the first Secretary of Education.

---

shooting (noun)

The act of firing a projectile.

- His shooting was slow but accurate.
- When the shooting stopped there were three dead bodies.

---

shut-in (noun)

Someone who is incapacitated by a chronic illness or injury.

- He looked up "shut-in" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "shut-in" to mean someone who is incapacitated by a chronic illness....

---

test-cross (noun)

A cross between an organism whose genotype for a certain trait is unknown and an organism that is homozygous recessive for that trait so the unknown genotype can be determined from that of the offspring.

- The article explained what "test-cross" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "test-cross."

---

wonder child (noun)

A prodigy whose talents are recognized at an early age.

- Mozart was a child prodigy.
- The article explained what "wonder child" means with a simple example.

---

working agreement (noun)

An informal agreement to work together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "working agreement."
- He looked up "working agreement" because he had never seen it before.

---

charles (noun)

The eldest son of Elizabeth II and heir to the English throne (born in 1948).

- In class, the teacher used "charles" to mean the eldest son of elizabeth ii and heir to the....
- They discussed "charles" during the group presentation.

---

charles i (noun)

As Charles II he was Holy Roman Emperor and as Charles I he was king of France (823-877).

- They discussed "charles i" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "charles i" means with a simple example.

---

classes (noun)

A body of students who graduate together.

- There are two classes of detergents.
- Early morning classes are always sleepy.

---

committee meeting (noun)

A meeting for administrative purposes.

- He looked up "committee meeting" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "committee meeting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dear (noun)

A beloved person; used as terms of endearment.

- He looked up "dear" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dear" to mean a beloved person; used as terms of endearment.

---

degree program (noun)

A course of study leading to an academic degree.

- Understanding "degree program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "degree program" during the group presentation.

dogs (noun)

A dull unattractive unpleasant girl or woman.

- The article explained what "dogs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dogs" to mean a dull unattractive unpleasant girl or woman.

drug war (noun)

Conflict between law enforcement and those who deal in illegal drugs.

- He looked up "drug war" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "drug war" during the group presentation.

efforts (noun)

A series of actions advancing a principle or tending toward a particular end.

- They discussed "efforts" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "efforts" because he had never seen it before.

energy secretary (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Energy.

- The post of Energy Secretary was created in 1977.
- The first Secretary of Energy was James R. Schlesinger who was appointed by Carter.

energy unit (noun)

A unit of measurement for work.

- Understanding "energy unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "energy unit" to mean a unit of measurement for work.

fast track (noun)

A rapid means of achieving a goal.

- They saw independence as the fast track to democracy.
- He took a fast track to the top of the corporate ladder.

fat person (noun)

A rotund individual.

- Understanding "fat person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fat person" to mean a rotund individual.

field judge (noun)

A football official.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "field judge."
- He looked up "field judge" because he had never seen it before.

gay woman (noun)

A female homosexual.

- They discussed "gay woman" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gay woman."

good spirit (noun)

A benevolent spirit.

- Understanding "good spirit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "good spirit" because he had never seen it before.

job application (noun)

An application for a job.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "job application."
- They discussed "job application" during the group presentation.

job interview (noun)

An interview to determine whether an applicant is suitable for a position of employment.

- He looked up "job interview" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "job interview" during the group presentation.

---

john smith (noun)

English explorer who helped found the colony at Jamestown, Virginia; was said to have been saved by Pocahontas (1580-1631).

- He looked up "john smith" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "john smith" to mean english explorer who helped found the colony at....

---

labor (noun)

A social class comprising those who do manual labor or work for wages.

- There is a shortage of skilled labor in this field.
- His labor did not require a great deal of skill.

---

learned person (noun)

Someone who has been admitted to membership in a scholarly field.

- He looked up "learned person" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "learned person" during the group presentation.

---

man-at-arms (noun)

A heavily armed and mounted soldier in medieval times.

- He looked up "man-at-arms" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "man-at-arms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

office block (noun)

A building containing offices where work is done.

- They discussed "office block" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "office block" means with a simple example.

---

post-office box (noun)

A numbered compartment in a post office where mail is put to be called for.

- He looked up "post-office box" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "post-office box."

---

power walking (noun)

A form of cardiopulmonary exercise consisting of rapid walking accompanied by vigorous swinging of the arms.

- In class, the teacher used "power walking" to mean a form of cardiopulmonary exercise consisting of....
- They discussed "power walking" during the group presentation.

---

red indian (noun)

A member of the race of people living in America when Europeans arrived.

- Understanding "red indian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "red indian" because he had never seen it before.

---

religious person (noun)

A person who manifests devotion to a deity.

- In class, the teacher used "religious person" to mean a person who manifests devotion to a deity.
- The article explained what "religious person" means with a simple example.

---

secretary of energy (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Energy.

- The post of Energy Secretary was created in 1977.
- The first Secretary of Energy was James R. Schlesinger who was appointed by Carter.

---

ship building (noun)

The construction of ships.

- In class, the teacher used "ship building" to mean the construction of ships.

- The article explained what "ship building" means with a simple example.

---

society of jesus (noun)

A Roman Catholic order founded by Saint Ignatius of Loyola in 1534 to defend Catholicism against the Reformation and to do missionary work among the heathen; it is strongly committed to education and scholarship.

- The article explained what "society of jesus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "society of jesus" to mean a roman catholic order founded by saint ignatius of....

---

tough (noun)

An aggressive and violent young criminal.

- They discussed "tough" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tough" because he had never seen it before.

---

agent-in-place (noun)

An operative serving as a penetration into an intelligence target.

- They discussed "agent-in-place" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "agent-in-place."

---

civil action (noun)

Legal action to protect a private civil right or to compel a civil remedy (as distinguished from criminal prosecution).

- They discussed "civil action" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "civil action" means with a simple example.

---

direct fire (noun)

Fire delivered on a target that is visible to the person aiming it.

- The article explained what "direct fire" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "direct fire" to mean fire delivered on a target that is visible to the....

---

famous person (noun)

A widely known person.

- Understanding "famous person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "famous person."

---

fellow (noun)

A man who is the lover of a girl or young woman.

- There's a fellow at the door.
- He sent e-mail to his fellow hackers.

---

foreign minister (noun)

A government minister for foreign relations.

- The article explained what "foreign minister" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "foreign minister" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

george washington (noun)

1st President of the United States; commander-in-chief of the Continental Army during the American Revolution (1732-1799).

- The article explained what "george washington" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "george washington" during the group presentation.

---

james ii (noun)

The last Stuart to be king of England and Ireland and Scotland; overthrown in 1688 (1633-1701).

- Understanding "james ii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "james ii" to mean the last stuart to be king of england and ireland....

---

magic (noun)

An illusory feat; considered magical by naive observers.

- The article explained what "magic" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "magic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

military leader (noun)

A leader of military forces.

- He looked up "military leader" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military leader."

operations research (noun)

Research designed to determine most efficient way to do something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "operations research."
- They discussed "operations research" during the group presentation.

police captain (noun)

A policeman in charge of a precinct.

- In class, the teacher used "police captain" to mean a policeman in charge of a precinct.
- The article explained what "police captain" means with a simple example.

religious service (noun)

The act of public worship following prescribed rules.

- The Sunday service.
- In class, the teacher used "religious service" to mean the act of public worship following prescribed rules.

self-defense (noun)

The act of defending yourself.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-defense."
- Understanding "self-defense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

shop class (noun)

A course of instruction in a trade (as carpentry or electricity).

- I built a birdhouse in shop.
- In class, the teacher used "shop class" to mean a course of instruction in a trade (as carpentry or....

single-foot (noun)

A rapid gait of a horse in which each foot strikes the ground separately.

- They discussed "single-foot" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "single-foot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wake (noun)

A vigil held over a corpse the night before burial.

- There's no weeping at an Irish wake.
- In the wake of the accident no one knew how many had been injured.

west indian (noun)

A native or inhabitant of the West Indies.

- In class, the teacher used "west indian" to mean a native or inhabitant of the west indies.
- Understanding "west indian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wild man (noun)

A person who is not socialized.

- In class, the teacher used "wild man" to mean a person who is not socialized.
- Understanding "wild man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

work camp (noun)

A camp for trustworthy prisoners employed in government projects.

- In class, the teacher used "work camp" to mean a camp for trustworthy prisoners employed in....
- Understanding "work camp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

aid (noun)

The work of providing treatment for or attending to someone or something.

- Visual aids in teaching.
- Rescue party went to their aid.

---

bank manager (noun)

Manager of a branch office of a bank.

- They discussed "bank manager" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bank manager" means with a simple example.

---

beauty (noun)

An outstanding example of its kind.

- Understanding "beauty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "beauty" to mean an outstanding example of its kind.

---

best and greatest (noun)

An epithet for Jupiter.

- Understanding "best and greatest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "best and greatest" because he had never seen it before.

---

buying (noun)

The act of buying.

- Buying and selling fill their days.
- In class, the teacher used "buying" to mean the act of buying.

---

direct action (noun)

A protest action by labor or minority groups to obtain their demands.

- The article explained what "direct action" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "direct action" during the group presentation.

---

economy class (noun)

A class of accommodations on a ship or train or plane that are less expensive than first class accommodations.

- Understanding "economy class" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "economy class" means with a simple example.

---

engineering school (noun)

A technical school offering instruction in many industrial arts and applied sciences.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "engineering school."
- He looked up "engineering school" because he had never seen it before.

---

fair trade (noun)

Trade that satisfies certain criteria on the supply chain of the goods involved, usually including fair payment for producers; often with other social and environmental considerations.

- In class, the teacher used "fair trade" to mean trade that satisfies certain criteria on the supply....
- They discussed "fair trade" during the group presentation.

---

father christmas (noun)

The legendary patron saint of children; an imaginary being who is thought to bring presents to children at Christmas.

- Understanding "father christmas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "father christmas" to mean the legendary patron saint of children; an....

---

field of operation (noun)

A particular kind of commercial enterprise.

- They are outstanding in their field.
- In class, the teacher used "field of operation" to mean a particular kind of commercial enterprise.

---

financial officer (noun)

An officer charged with receiving and disbursing funds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "financial officer."

- They discussed "financial officer" during the group presentation.

finding of law (noun)

A finding as to the applicability of a rule of law to particular facts.

- He looked up "finding of law" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "finding of law" during the group presentation.

fix (noun)

A determination of the place where something is.

- He got a good fix on the target.
- He got into a terrible fix.

fly-by (noun)

A flight at a low altitude (usually of military aircraft) over spectators on the ground.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fly-by."
- He looked up "fly-by" because he had never seen it before.

free agent (noun)

Someone acting freely or even irresponsibly.

- They discussed "free agent" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "free agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

george v (noun)

King of Great Britain and Ireland and emperor of India from 1910 to 1936; gave up his German title in 1917 during World War I (1865-1936).

- The article explained what "george v" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "george v" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grade school (noun)

A school for young children; usually the first 6 or 8 grades.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grade school."
- He looked up "grade school" because he had never seen it before.

male child (noun)

A youthful male person.

- The article explained what "male child" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "male child" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mental case (noun)

A person suffering from neurosis.

- They discussed "mental case" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mental case" means with a simple example.

old bag (noun)

An ugly or ill-tempered woman.

- He was romancing the old bag for her money.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old bag."

piece of writing (noun)

The work of a writer; anything expressed in letters of the alphabet (especially when considered from the point of view of style and effect).

- The writing in her novels is excellent.
- That editorial was a fine piece of writing.

putting to death (noun)

The act of terminating a life.

- He looked up "putting to death" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "putting to death."

raise (noun)

The act of raising something.

- Fireman learn several different raises for getting ladders up.
- He got a 3% raise.

---

self-analysis (noun)

A penetrating examination of your own beliefs and motives.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-analysis."
- They discussed "self-analysis" during the group presentation.

---

self-organization (noun)

Organizing yourself (especially organizing your own labor union).

- Understanding "self-organization" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "self-organization" during the group presentation.

---

social activity (noun)

Activity considered appropriate on social occasions.

- Understanding "social activity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "social activity" because he had never seen it before.

---

spot check (noun)

A check on work performance or product quality made at random times without warning.

- Spot checks ensure a high level of performance by employees.
- In class, the teacher used "spot check" to mean a check on work performance or product quality made....

---

spot-check (verb)

Pick out random samples for examination in order to ensure high quality.

- Can you use "spot-check" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "spot-check" until he saw an example.

---

staff officer (noun)

A commissioned officer assigned to a military commander's staff.

- Understanding "staff officer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "staff officer" means with a simple example.

---

stock issue (noun)

(corporation law) the authorization and delivery of shares of stock for sale to the public or the shares thus offered at a particular time.

- They discussed "stock issue" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "stock issue" to mean (corporation law) the authorization and delivery of....

---

student union (noun)

A building on a college campus dedicated to social and organizational activities of the student body.

- He looked up "student union" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "student union."

---

violence (noun)

An act of aggression (as one against a person who resists).

- He may accomplish by craft in the long run what he cannot do by force and violence in the short one.
- The storm's violence.

---

work in progress (noun)

A piece of work that is not yet finished.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "work in progress."
- He looked up "work in progress" because he had never seen it before.

---

african american (noun)

An American whose ancestors were born in Africa.

- He looked up "african american" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "african american."

---

african-american (noun)

An American whose ancestors were born in Africa.

- They discussed "african-american" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "african-american" because he had never seen it before.

---

army officer (noun)

An officer in the armed forces.

- He's a retired army officer.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "army officer."

---

art teacher (noun)

Someone who teaches art.

- They discussed "art teacher" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "art teacher" because he had never seen it before.

---

baby-sit (verb)

Work or act as a baby-sitter.

- I cannot baby-sit tonight; I have too much homework to do.
- I baby-sit the neighbor's plants when she is out of town.

---

breaking (noun)

The act of breaking something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breaking."
- He looked up "breaking" because he had never seen it before.

---

business agent (noun)

An agent who handles business affairs for another; especially one who deals with employers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "business agent."
- He looked up "business agent" because he had never seen it before.

---

charles the great (noun)

King of the Franks and Holy Roman Emperor; conqueror of the Lombards and Saxons (742-814).

- He looked up "charles the great" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "charles the great" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cost analysis (noun)

Breaking down the costs of some operation and reporting on each factor separately.

- The article explained what "cost analysis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cost analysis" to mean breaking down the costs of some operation and....

---

dry (noun)

A reformer who opposes the use of intoxicating beverages.

- They discussed "dry" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dry" means with a simple example.

---

east german (noun)

A native or inhabitant of the former republic of East Germany.

- The article explained what "east german" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "east german" during the group presentation.

---

figure eight (noun)

A skating figure that carves an 8 in the ice.

- The article explained what "figure eight" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "figure eight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

finding of fact (noun)

(law) the findings of a jury on issues of fact submitted to it for decision; can be used in formulating a judgment.

- He looked up "finding of fact" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "finding of fact" during the group presentation.

government agent (noun)

A representative or official of a government or administrative department of a government.

- Understanding "government agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "government agent" during the group presentation.

helps (noun)

A person who contributes to the fulfillment of a need or furtherance of an effort or purpose.

- In class, the teacher used "helps" to mean a person who contributes to the fulfillment of a....
- Understanding "helps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

henry (noun)

A leader of the American Revolution and a famous orator who spoke out against British rule of the American colonies (1736-1799).

- He looked up "henry" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry."

henry i (noun)

King of England from 1100 to 1135; youngest son of William the Conqueror; conquered Normandy in 1106 (1068-1135).

- The article explained what "henry i" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry i."

king of france (noun)

The sovereign ruler of France.

- They discussed "king of france" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "king of france" means with a simple example.

louis the far (noun)

King of France whose military victories consolidated his reign (1081-1137).

- In class, the teacher used "louis the far" to mean king of france whose military victories....
- The article explained what "louis the far" means with a simple example.

lovely (noun)

A very pretty girl who works as a photographer's model.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lovely."
- The article explained what "lovely" means with a simple example.

martin (noun)

United States actor and comedian (born in 1945).

- The article explained what "martin" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "martin" to mean united states actor and comedian (born in 1945).

military operation (noun)

Activity by a military or naval force (as a maneuver or campaign).

- It was a joint operation of the navy and air force.
- In class, the teacher used "military operation" to mean activity by a military or naval force (as a....

models (noun)

A woman who wears clothes to display fashions.

- Understanding "models" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "models" because he had never seen it before.

network army (noun)

A group of like-minded people united by the internet; a new kind of social or political of business group that may exert broad influence on a shared concern.

- A network army of software programmers contribute free software to those who want it.
- The article explained what "network army" means with a simple example.

---

old boy network (noun)

An exclusive informal network linking members of a social class or profession or organization in order to provide connections and information and favors (especially in business or politics).

- Professional women have developed an old boy network of their own.
- The article explained what "old boy network" means with a simple example.

---

old-age insurance (noun)

Insurance paid to the elderly.

- The article explained what "old-age insurance" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "old-age insurance" during the group presentation.

---

order arms (noun)

A position in the manual of arms; the rifle is held vertically on the right side with the butt on the ground; often used as a command.

- They discussed "order arms" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "order arms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

put option (noun)

The option to sell a given stock (or stock index or commodity future) at a given price before a given date.

- He looked up "put option" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "put option" to mean the option to sell a given stock (or stock index or....

---

tax collection (noun)

The collection of taxes.

- They discussed "tax collection" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tax collection" to mean the collection of taxes.

---

teachers (noun)

A personified abstraction that teaches.

- Books were his teachers.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teachers."

---

thomas young (noun)

British physicist and Egyptologist; he revived the wave theory of light and proposed a three-component theory of color vision; he also played an important role in deciphering the hieroglyphics on the Rosetta Stone (1773-1829).

- He looked up "thomas young" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "thomas young" during the group presentation.

---

town planning (noun)

Determining and drawing up plans for the future physical arrangement and condition of a community.

- They discussed "town planning" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "town planning" to mean determining and drawing up plans for the future....

---

traffic control (noun)

Control of the flow of traffic in a building or a city.

- In class, the teacher used "traffic control" to mean control of the flow of traffic in a building or a city.
- The article explained what "traffic control" means with a simple example.

---

american civil war (noun)

Civil war in the United States between the North and the South; 1861-1865.

- The article explained what "american civil war" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american civil war" to mean civil war in the united states between the north....

---

black african (noun)

An African who is Black.

- They discussed "black african" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "black african" means with a simple example.

boy wonder (noun)

An extremely talented young male person.

- The article explained what "boy wonder" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boy wonder."

chief justice (noun)

The judge who presides over a supreme court.

- In class, the teacher used "chief justice" to mean the judge who presides over a supreme court.
- He looked up "chief justice" because he had never seen it before.

class structure (noun)

The organization of classes within a society.

- The article explained what "class structure" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "class structure" during the group presentation.

closer (noun)

A person who closes something.

- Whoever is the closer has to turn out the lights and lock up.
- In class, the teacher used "closer" to mean a person who closes something.

driving force (noun)

The act of applying force to propel something.

- In class, the teacher used "driving force" to mean the act of applying force to propel something.
- The article explained what "driving force" means with a simple example.

first aid (noun)

Emergency care given before regular medical aid can be obtained.

- He looked up "first aid" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "first aid" during the group presentation.

football coach (noun)

A coach of football players.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "football coach."
- He looked up "football coach" because he had never seen it before.

forms (noun)

A body of students who are taught together.

- The inflected forms of a word can be represented by a stem and a list of inflections to be attached.
- They built elaborate forms for pouring the foundation.

free spirit (noun)

Someone acting freely or even irresponsibly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "free spirit."
- The article explained what "free spirit" means with a simple example.

george ii (noun)

King of Great Britain and Elector of Hanover from 1727 to 1760 (1683-1760).

- They discussed "george ii" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "george ii" means with a simple example.

holy father (noun)

The head of the Roman Catholic Church.

- In class, the teacher used "holy father" to mean the head of the roman catholic church.
- Understanding "holy father" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jones (noun)

American naval commander in the American Revolution (1747-1792).

- The article explained what "jones" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "jones" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lower-middle-class (adjective)

Occupying the lower part of the middle socioeconomic range in a society.

- It is useful to describe something as "lower-middle-class" when it is occupying the lower part of the middle....
- Would you call this situation "lower-middle-class"? Explain why.

military commission (noun)

An official document issued by a government and conferring on the recipient the rank of an officer in the armed forces.

- He looked up "military commission" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "military commission" during the group presentation.

paying back (noun)

A reciprocal group action.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paying back."
- Understanding "paying back" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rise to power (noun)

The act of attaining or gaining access to a new office or right or position (especially the throne).

- They discussed "rise to power" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rise to power" to mean the act of attaining or gaining access to a new....

shoot (noun)

The act of shooting at targets.

- They hold a shoot every weekend during the summer.
- They discussed "shoot" during the group presentation.

short division (noun)

The operation of division in which the sequence of steps is performed without writing them out.

- The article explained what "short division" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "short division" to mean the operation of division in which the sequence of....

sports meeting (noun)

A meeting at which a number of athletic contests are held.

- Understanding "sports meeting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sports meeting" to mean a meeting at which a number of athletic contests....

spring break (noun)

A week or more of recess during the spring term at school.

- Understanding "spring break" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "spring break" means with a simple example.

stage manager (noun)

Someone who supervises the physical aspects in the production of a show and who is in charge of the stage when the show is being performed.

- They discussed "stage manager" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "stage manager" means with a simple example.

wonder boy (noun)

A man who is unusually successful at an early age.

- The article explained what "wonder boy" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wonder boy."

arms control (noun)

A limitation on the size and armament of the armed forces of a country.

- In class, the teacher used "arms control" to mean a limitation on the size and armament of the armed....
- The article explained what "arms control" means with a simple example.

---

assistant (noun)

A person who contributes to the fulfillment of a need or furtherance of an effort or purpose.

- My invaluable assistant.
- Understanding "assistant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

book agent (noun)

A book salesman.

- Understanding "book agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book agent."

---

boss around (verb)

Be bossy towards.

- The coach explained when to use "boss around" and when to wait.
- Can you use "boss around" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

call option (noun)

The option to buy a given stock (or stock index or commodity future) at a given price before a given date.

- They discussed "call option" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "call option."

---

chief secretary (noun)

A member of the British Cabinet.

- The article explained what "chief secretary" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chief secretary" to mean a member of the british cabinet.

---

citizens (noun)

A native or naturalized member of a state or other political community.

- The article explained what "citizens" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "citizens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

decisions (noun)

The act of making up your mind about something.

- The team dropped three decisions in a row.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "decisions."

---

east indian (noun)

A native or inhabitant of the East Indies.

- Understanding "east indian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "east indian" means with a simple example.

---

english professor (noun)

Someone who teaches English.

- The article explained what "english professor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "english professor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ex-president (noun)

A former president.

- He looked up "ex-president" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ex-president."

---

festival (noun)

An organized series of acts and performances (usually in one place).

- A drama festival.
- He looked up "festival" because he had never seen it before.

field trial (noun)

A test of young hunting dogs to determine their skill in pointing and retrieving.

- Understanding "field trial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "field trial" means with a simple example.

general agent (noun)

An agent who sells insurance.

- The article explained what "general agent" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "general agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

johnson (noun)

English writer and lexicographer (1709-1784).

- They discussed "johnson" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "johnson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

kick (noun)

The act of delivering a blow with the foot.

- He gave the ball a powerful kick.
- The team's kicking was excellent.

la tour (noun)

French painter of religious works (1593-1652).

- They discussed "la tour" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "la tour" means with a simple example.

law agent (noun)

A solicitor in Scotland.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "law agent."
- He looked up "law agent" because he had never seen it before.

mail (noun)

The system whereby messages are transmitted via the post office.

- The mail handles billions of items every day.
- He works for the United States mail service.

missing link (noun)

Hypothetical organism formerly thought to be intermediate between apes and human beings.

- In class, the teacher used "missing link" to mean hypothetical organism formerly thought to be....
- The article explained what "missing link" means with a simple example.

peace officer (noun)

An officer of the law.

- He looked up "peace officer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "peace officer" during the group presentation.

piece of ass (noun)

Slang for sexual intercourse.

- In class, the teacher used "piece of ass" to mean slang for sexual intercourse.
- He looked up "piece of ass" because he had never seen it before.

post-office box number (noun)

The number of a letter box at the post office where mail is collected.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "post-office box number."
- Understanding "post-office box number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

prince (noun)

A male member of a royal family other than the sovereign (especially the son of a sovereign).

- They discussed "prince" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "prince" because he had never seen it before.

---

say hey kid (noun)

United States baseball player (born in 1931).

- The article explained what "say hey kid" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "say hey kid" during the group presentation.

---

scott (noun)

Award-winning United States film actor (1928-1999).

- They discussed "scott" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "scott" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

session (noun)

A meeting devoted to a particular activity.

- A filming session.
- A gossip session.

---

sex crime (noun)

A statutory offense that provides that it is a crime to knowingly cause another person to engage in an unwanted sexual act by force or threat.

- Most states have replaced the common law definition of rape with statutes defining sexual assault.
- Understanding "sex crime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spanish people (noun)

The people of Spain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spanish people."
- He looked up "spanish people" because he had never seen it before.

---

study hall (noun)

A period of time during the school day that is set aside for study.

- He looked up "study hall" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "study hall."

---

teaching (noun)

The activities of educating or instructing; activities that impart knowledge or skill.

- Good classroom teaching is seldom rewarded.
- He prepared for teaching while still in college.

---

transfer (noun)

The act of transfering something from one form to another.

- The transfer of the music from record to tape suppressed much of the background noise.
- The best student was a transfer from LSU.

---

water spirit (noun)

A fairy that inhabits water.

- He looked up "water spirit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "water spirit" during the group presentation.

---

willing (noun)

The act of making a choice.

- Understanding "willing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "willing" means with a simple example.

---

working memory (noun)

Memory for intermediate results that must be held during thinking.

- Understanding "working memory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "working memory."

account executive (noun)

Someone in charge of a client's account for an advertising agency or brokerage or other service business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "account executive."
- They discussed "account executive" during the group presentation.

air force officer (noun)

An officer in the airforce.

- The article explained what "air force officer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "air force officer" to mean an officer in the airforce.

baby sitting (noun)

The work of a baby sitter; caring for children when their parents are not home.

- He looked up "baby sitting" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "baby sitting" during the group presentation.

basic training (noun)

The initial period of training for new military personnel; involves intense physical activity and behavioral discipline.

- Understanding "basic training" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basic training."

breaking off (noun)

An instance of sudden interruption.

- In class, the teacher used "breaking off" to mean an instance of sudden interruption.
- He looked up "breaking off" because he had never seen it before.

bringing (noun)

The act of delivering or distributing something (as goods or mail).

- Understanding "bringing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bringing" means with a simple example.

corner man (noun)

A man at one end of line of performers in a minstrel show; carries on humorous dialogue with the interlocutor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corner man."
- The article explained what "corner man" means with a simple example.

drinking (noun)

The act of drinking alcoholic beverages to excess.

- Understanding "drinking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "drinking" because he had never seen it before.

duty (noun)

The social force that binds you to the courses of action demanded by that force; ; - John D.Rockefeller Jr.

- We must instill a sense of duty in our children.
- Every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity, an obligation; every possession, a duty.

english teacher (noun)

Someone who teaches English.

- He looked up "english teacher" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english teacher."

final solution (noun)

The mass murder of Jews under the German Nazi regime from 1941 until 1945.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "final solution."
- The article explained what "final solution" means with a simple example.

flying (noun)

An instance of traveling by air.

- Flying was still an exciting adventure for him.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flying."

---

henry the great (noun)

King of France from 1589 to 1610; although he was leader of the Huguenot armies, when he succeeded the Catholic Henry III and founded the Bourbon dynasty in 1589 he established religious freedom in France.

- Understanding "henry the great" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry the great."

---

housing start (noun)

The act of starting to construct a house.

- They discussed "housing start" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "housing start" means with a simple example.

---

iron man (noun)

A strong man of exceptional physical endurance.

- Understanding "iron man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "iron man" means with a simple example.

---

long fly (noun)

A gymnastic exercise involving a long leap from a vaulting horse.

- The article explained what "long fly" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "long fly" during the group presentation.

---

options (noun)

The act of choosing or selecting.

- In class, the teacher used "options" to mean the act of choosing or selecting.
- Understanding "options" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

party spirit (noun)

Devotion to a political party.

- They discussed "party spirit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "party spirit."

---

property master (noun)

Member of the stage crew in charge of properties.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "property master."
- He looked up "property master" because he had never seen it before.

---

queen mother (noun)

A queen dowager who is mother of the reigning sovereign.

- They discussed "queen mother" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "queen mother."

---

reference work (noun)

A book to which you can refer for authoritative facts.

- He contributed articles to the basic reference work on that topic.
- He looked up "reference work" because he had never seen it before.

---

ring girl (noun)

A young woman who holds up cards indicating the number of the next round at prize fights.

- In class, the teacher used "ring girl" to mean a young woman who holds up cards indicating the....
- The article explained what "ring girl" means with a simple example.

---

sales campaign (noun)

An advertising campaign intended to promote sales.

- Understanding "sales campaign" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sales campaign" to mean an advertising campaign intended to promote sales.

---

section eight (noun)

A soldier who received a Section Eight discharge as unfit for military service.

- He looked up "section eight" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "section eight."

---

shape-up (noun)

A way of hiring longshoremen by the day; applicants gather around a union boss who selects those to be hired.

- They discussed "shape-up" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "shape-up" to mean a way of hiring longshoremen by the day; applicants....

---

south american indian (noun)

A member of a native Indian group in South America.

- He looked up "south american indian" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "south american indian" during the group presentation.

---

spending (noun)

The act of spending or disbursing money.

- He looked up "spending" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "spending" during the group presentation.

---

supporting (noun)

The act of bearing the weight of or strengthening.

- They discussed "supporting" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "supporting" means with a simple example.

---

technical school (noun)

A school teaching mechanical and industrial arts and the applied sciences.

- They discussed "technical school" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "technical school."

---

turning (noun)

The act of changing or reversing the direction of the course.

- The law took many turnings over the years.
- The turning of the wind.

---

vice (noun)

A specific form of evildoing.

- Vice offends the moral standards of the community.
- The article explained what "vice" means with a simple example.

---

word division (noun)

Division of a word especially at the end of a line on a page.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "word division."
- He looked up "word division" because he had never seen it before.

---

written material (noun)

The work of a writer; anything expressed in letters of the alphabet (especially when considered from the point of view of style and effect).

- He looked up "written material" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "written material."

---

arms deal (noun)

A deal to provide military arms.

- The article explained what "arms deal" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "arms deal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bringing up (noun)

Helping someone grow up to be an accepted member of the community.

- They discussed "bringing up" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bringing up."

dating (noun)

Use of chemical analysis to estimate the age of geological specimens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dating."
- Understanding "dating" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

district manager (noun)

A manager who supervises the sales activity for a district.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "district manager."
- He looked up "district manager" because he had never seen it before.

double cross (noun)

An act of betrayal.

- He gave us the old double cross.
- I could no longer tolerate his impudent double-crossing.

enemy (noun)

An armed adversary (especially a member of an opposing military force).

- The enemy attacked at dawn.
- He viewed lawyers as the real enemy.

eye contact (noun)

A meeting of the eyes between two people that expresses meaningful nonverbal communication.

- It was a mere glance, but the eye contact was enough to tell her that he was desperate to leave.
- A teacher should make eye contact with the students.

eye-drop (noun)

A method of irrigating the eye used by ophthalmologists.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eye-drop."
- He looked up "eye-drop" because he had never seen it before.

indian chief (noun)

The leader of a group of Native Americans.

- In class, the teacher used "indian chief" to mean the leader of a group of native americans.
- Understanding "indian chief" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

labour (noun)

A social class comprising those who do manual labor or work for wages.

- The article explained what "labour" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "labour" during the group presentation.

lady-in-waiting (noun)

A lady appointed to attend to a queen or princess.

- He looked up "lady-in-waiting" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lady-in-waiting" during the group presentation.

language learning (noun)

Learning to use a language.

- In class, the teacher used "language learning" to mean learning to use a language.
- The article explained what "language learning" means with a simple example.

military mission (noun)

An operation that is assigned by a higher headquarters.

- The planes were on a bombing mission.
- The article explained what "military mission" means with a simple example.

---

mix-up (noun)

A mistake that results from taking one thing to be another.

- Understanding "mix-up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mix-up" means with a simple example.

---

powers (noun)

A very wealthy or powerful businessman.

- Danger heightened his powers of discrimination.
- In class, the teacher used "powers" to mean a very wealthy or powerful businessman.

---

republican (noun)

An advocate of a republic (usually in opposition to a monarchy).

- They discussed "republican" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "republican" because he had never seen it before.

---

royal road (noun)

An auspicious way or means to achieve something.

- The royal road to success.
- The article explained what "royal road" means with a simple example.

---

self-protection (noun)

The act of defending yourself.

- In class, the teacher used "self-protection" to mean the act of defending yourself.
- The article explained what "self-protection" means with a simple example.

---

sex activity (noun)

Activities associated with sexual intercourse.

- They had sex in the back seat.
- The article explained what "sex activity" means with a simple example.

---

shoot-down (noun)

Murder by shooting someone down in cold blood.

- He looked up "shoot-down" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "shoot-down" to mean murder by shooting someone down in cold blood.

---

soldiers (noun)

An enlisted man or woman who serves in an army.

- The soldiers stood at attention.
- They discussed "soldiers" during the group presentation.

---

special agent (noun)

Someone whose authority is limited to the special undertaking they have been instructed to perform.

- In class, the teacher used "special agent" to mean someone whose authority is limited to the special....
- The article explained what "special agent" means with a simple example.

---

sunday-go-to-meeting (adjective)

Used of clothing.

- Her Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sunday-go-to-meeting."

---

technology administration (noun)

An agency in the Department of Commerce that works with United States industries to promote competitiveness and maximize the impact of technology on economic growth.

- He looked up "technology administration" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "technology administration" during the group presentation.

---

warm up (verb)

Run until the normal working temperature is reached.

- We warmed up the car for a few minutes.
- She warmed up after we had lunch together.

---

warm-up (noun)

Exercising in preparation for strenuous activity.

- They discussed "warm-up" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "warm-up" to mean exercising in preparation for strenuous activity.

---

work-clothes (noun)

Clothing worn for doing manual labor.

- Understanding "work-clothes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "work-clothes" to mean clothing worn for doing manual labor.

---

appearance (noun)

The act of appearing in public view.

- The rookie made a brief appearance in the first period.
- It was Bernhardt's last appearance in America.

---

attorney (noun)

A professional person authorized to practice law; conducts lawsuits or gives legal advice.

- He looked up "attorney" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "attorney" during the group presentation.

---

banks (noun)

English botanist who accompanied Captain Cook on his first voyage to the Pacific Ocean (1743-1820).

- They discussed "banks" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "banks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

breaking away (noun)

The act of breaking away or withdrawing from.

- There was a breakaway by the discontented members.
- A breaking away from family and neighborhood.

---

brothers (noun)

A male with the same parents as someone else.

- None of his brothers would betray him.
- The article explained what "brothers" means with a simple example.

---

buildings (noun)

The commercial activity involved in repairing old structures or constructing new ones.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buildings."
- Understanding "buildings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

contract offer (noun)

Offer by an employer to contract to pay an employee at a given rate.

- Understanding "contract offer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "contract offer" because he had never seen it before.

---

creating (verb)

Invest with a new title, office, or rank.

- Don't disturb him–he is creating.
- He did not know how to use "creating" until he saw an example.

---

david smith (noun)

United States sculptor (1906-1965).

- The article explained what "david smith" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "david smith" to mean united states sculptor (1906-1965).

---

executive director (noun)

A person responsible for the administration of a business.

- He looked up "executive director" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "executive director."

---

eye movement (noun)

The movement of the eyes.

- In class, the teacher used "eye movement" to mean the movement of the eyes.
- Understanding "eye movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

facts of life (noun)

The sexual activity of conceiving and bearing offspring.

- He looked up "facts of life" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "facts of life" to mean the sexual activity of conceiving and bearing offspring.

---

file system (noun)

A system of classifying into files (usually arranged alphabetically).

- The article explained what "file system" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "file system" during the group presentation.

---

fly-by-night (noun)

A debtor who flees to avoid paying.

- Understanding "fly-by-night" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fly-by-night" means with a simple example.

---

french foreign office (noun)

The French department in charge of foreign affairs; referred to familiarly by its address in Paris.

- Understanding "french foreign office" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "french foreign office" to mean the french department in charge of foreign affairs;....

---

helping hand (noun)

Physical assistance.

- Give me a hand with the chores.
- He looked up "helping hand" because he had never seen it before.

---

historical (adjective)

Of or relating to the study of history.

- Historical scholars.
- A historical perspective.

---

jack london (noun)

United States writer of novels based on experiences in the Klondike gold rush (1876-1916).

- They discussed "jack london" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "jack london" because he had never seen it before.

---

join forces (verb)

Work together on a common enterprise of project.

- We joined forces with another research group.
- She tried to use "join forces" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

jump (noun)

The act of jumping; propelling yourself off the ground.

- He advanced in a series of jumps.
- The jumping was unexpected.

---

justice of the peace (noun)

A local magistrate with limited powers.

- The article explained what "justice of the peace" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "justice of the peace" to mean a local magistrate with limited powers.

---

labor party (noun)

A left-of-center political party formed to represent the interest of ordinary working people.

- He looked up "labor party" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labor party."

---

line-drive double (noun)

A double resulting from a line drive.

- In class, the teacher used "line-drive double" to mean a double resulting from a line drive.
- The article explained what "line-drive double" means with a simple example.

---

machine language (noun)

A programming language designed for use on a specific class of computers.

- The article explained what "machine language" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "machine language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mass meeting (noun)

A large gathering of people intended to arouse enthusiasm.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mass meeting."
- He looked up "mass meeting" because he had never seen it before.

---

native (noun)

A person born in a particular place or country.

- He is a native of Brazil.
- The art of the natives of the northwest coast.

---

not-for-profit (noun)

An organization chartered for other than profit-making activities.

- He looked up "not-for-profit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "not-for-profit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

party boss (noun)

A leader in a political party who controls votes and dictates appointments.

- Party bosses have a reputation for corruption.
- They discussed "party boss" during the group presentation.

---

pm (noun)

The person who holds the position of head of the government in the United Kingdom.

- They discussed "pm" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pm" because he had never seen it before.

---

public violence (noun)

A public act of violence by an unruly mob.

- In class, the teacher used "public violence" to mean a public act of violence by an unruly mob.
- The article explained what "public violence" means with a simple example.

---

reading teacher (noun)

Someone who teaches students to read.

- In class, the teacher used "reading teacher" to mean someone who teaches students to read.
- The article explained what "reading teacher" means with a simple example.

real-estate business (noun)

The business of selling real estate.

- The article explained what "real-estate business" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "real-estate business" to mean the business of selling real estate.

school of medicine (noun)

A graduate school offering study leading to a medical degree.

- The article explained what "school of medicine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "school of medicine" during the group presentation.

sets (noun)

The act of putting something in position.

- He did four sets of the incline bench press.
- The sets were meticulously authentic.

silver age (noun)

(classical mythology) the second age of the world, characterized by opulence and irreligion; by extension, a period secondary in achievement to a golden age.

- He looked up "silver age" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "silver age" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

survey (noun)

The act of looking or seeing or observing.

- His survey of the battlefield was limited.
- Understanding "survey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tech (noun)

A school teaching mechanical and industrial arts and the applied sciences.

- In class, the teacher used "tech" to mean a school teaching mechanical and industrial arts....
- Understanding "tech" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

user (noun)

A person who uses something or someone selfishly or unethically.

- The article explained what "user" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "user."

william green (noun)

United States labor leader who was president of the American Federation of Labor from 1924 to 1952 and who led the struggle with the Congress of Industrial Organizations (1873-1952).

- He looked up "william green" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "william green" to mean united states labor leader who was president of the....

writer (noun)

A person who is able to write and has written something.

- The article explained what "writer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "writer" to mean a person who is able to write and has written something.

adult education (noun)

A course (via lectures or correspondence) for adults who are not otherwise engaged in formal study.

- Understanding "adult education" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adult education."

ancient (noun)

A person who lived in ancient times.

- In class, the teacher used "ancient" to mean a person who lived in ancient times.
- They discussed "ancient" during the group presentation.

birth control (noun)

Limiting the number of children born.

- In class, the teacher used "birth control" to mean limiting the number of children born.
- They discussed "birth control" during the group presentation.

---

block vote (noun)

A vote proportional in magnitude to the number of people that a delegate represents.

- They discussed "block vote" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "block vote" because he had never seen it before.

---

budget cut (noun)

The act of reducing budgeted expenditures.

- The article explained what "budget cut" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "budget cut" to mean the act of reducing budgeted expenditures.

---

charges (noun)

An impetuous rush toward someone or something.

- The teacher led her charges across the street.
- The charges against the estate.

---

civil officer (noun)

A person who exercises authority over civilian affairs.

- They discussed "civil officer" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "civil officer" because he had never seen it before.

---

drive-by killing (noun)

Homicide committed by shooting from a moving automobile.

- Understanding "drive-by killing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "drive-by killing" to mean homicide committed by shooting from a moving automobile.

---

executive office of the president (noun)

The branch of the United States government that is responsible for carrying out the laws.

- In class, the teacher used "executive office of the president" to mean the branch of the united states government that is....
- The article explained what "executive office of the president" means with a simple example.

---

girlfriend (noun)

A girl or young woman with whom a man is romantically involved.

- His girlfriend kicked him out.
- Mary and her girlfriend organized the party.

---

hero (noun)

A man distinguished by exceptional courage and nobility and strength.

- RAF pilots were the heroes of the Battle of Britain.
- He looked up "hero" because he had never seen it before.

---

marketing research (noun)

Research that gathers and analyzes information about the moving of good or services from producer to consumer.

- The article explained what "marketing research" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "marketing research" to mean research that gathers and analyzes information....

---

mass production (noun)

The production of large quantities of a standardized article (often using assembly line techniques).

- The article explained what "mass production" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mass production" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

officials (noun)

A worker who holds or is invested with an office.

- Understanding "officials" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “officials” because he had never seen it before.

---

planet (noun)

A person who follows or serves another.

- Understanding “planet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “planet” because he had never seen it before.

---

poor fish (noun)

A person who is not very bright.

- In class, the teacher used “poor fish” to mean a person who is not very bright.
- The article explained what “poor fish” means with a simple example.

---

roll call (noun)

Calling out an official list of names.

- The article explained what “roll call” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “roll call” during the group presentation.

---

science teacher (noun)

Someone who teaches science.

- In class, the teacher used “science teacher” to mean someone who teaches science.
- The article explained what “science teacher” means with a simple example.

---

sex-change operation (noun)

Surgical procedures and hormonal treatments designed to alter a person’s sexual characteristics so that the resemble those of the opposite sex.

- In class, the teacher used “sex-change operation” to mean surgical procedures and hormonal treatments....
- The article explained what “sex-change operation” means with a simple example.

---

sir david low (noun)

British political cartoonist (born in New Zealand) who created the character Colonel Blimp (1891-1963).

- Understanding “sir david low” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sir david low.”

---

tough guy (noun)

Someone who bullies weaker people.

- In class, the teacher used “tough guy” to mean someone who bullies weaker people.
- The article explained what “tough guy” means with a simple example.

---

william james (noun)

United States pragmatic philosopher and psychologist (1842-1910).

- The article explained what “william james” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “william james” to mean united states pragmatic philosopher and....

---

wine making (noun)

The craft and science of growing grapes and making wine.

- In class, the teacher used “wine making” to mean the craft and science of growing grapes and making wine.
- They discussed “wine making” during the group presentation.

---

affairs (noun)

Transactions of professional or public interest.

- News of current affairs.
- Great affairs of state.

---

artists (noun)

A person whose creative work shows sensitivity and imagination.

- He looked up “artists” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “artists.”

---

chief executive (noun)

The office of the United States head of state.

- The article explained what "chief executive" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chief executive" to mean the office of the united states head of state.

---

drama (noun)

A dramatic work intended for performance by actors on a stage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drama."
- The article explained what "drama" means with a simple example.

---

drug lord (noun)

A person who controls an organization dealing in illegal drugs.

- They discussed "drug lord" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drug lord."

---

entry (noun)

The act of beginning something new.

- Beggars waited just outside the entryway to the cathedral.
- He looked up "entry" because he had never seen it before.

---

ex-wife (noun)

A woman who was formerly a particular man's wife.

- The article explained what "ex-wife" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ex-wife" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

eye operation (noun)

Any surgical procedure involving the eyes.

- In class, the teacher used "eye operation" to mean any surgical procedure involving the eyes.
- He looked up "eye operation" because he had never seen it before.

---

first appearance (noun)

The act of beginning something new.

- He looked up "first appearance" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "first appearance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flying school (noun)

A school for teaching students to fly airplanes.

- The article explained what "flying school" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "flying school" to mean a school for teaching students to fly airplanes.

---

french teacher (noun)

Someone who teaches French.

- Understanding "french teacher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "french teacher" because he had never seen it before.

---

land agent (noun)

A person who is authorized to act as an agent for the sale of land.

- In England they call a real estate agent a land agent.
- Understanding "land agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lawyer (noun)

A professional person authorized to practice law; conducts lawsuits or gives legal advice.

- In class, the teacher used "lawyer" to mean a professional person authorized to practice law;....
- Understanding "lawyer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leading lady (noun)

Actress who plays the leading female role.

- In class, the teacher used "leading lady" to mean actress who plays the leading female role.
- He looked up "leading lady" because he had never seen it before.

---

library science (noun)

The study of the principles and practices of library administration.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "library science."
- They discussed "library science" during the group presentation.

---

louis x (noun)

King of France (1289-1316).

- In class, the teacher used "louis x" to mean king of france (1289-1316).
- They discussed "louis x" during the group presentation.

---

lying (noun)

The deliberate act of deviating from the truth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lying."
- The article explained what "lying" means with a simple example.

---

mental test (noun)

Any standardized procedure for measuring sensitivity or memory or intelligence or aptitude or personality etc.

- The test was standardized on a large sample of students.
- They discussed "mental test" during the group presentation.

---

ms (noun)

The form of a literary work submitted for publication.

- Understanding "ms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ms" because he had never seen it before.

---

organizations (noun)

The act of forming or establishing something.

- In class, the teacher used "organizations" to mean the act of forming or establishing something.
- The article explained what "organizations" means with a simple example.

---

primary election (noun)

A preliminary election where delegates or nominees are chosen.

- They discussed "primary election" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "primary election" means with a simple example.

---

progress report (noun)

A report of work accomplished during a specified time period.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "progress report."
- He looked up "progress report" because he had never seen it before.

---

queen of england (noun)

The sovereign ruler of England.

- In class, the teacher used "queen of england" to mean the sovereign ruler of england.
- They discussed "queen of england" during the group presentation.

---

road agent (noun)

A holdup man who stops a vehicle and steals from it.

- The article explained what "road agent" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "road agent" to mean a holdup man who stops a vehicle and steals from it.

---

sea captain (noun)

An officer who is licensed to command a merchant ship.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea captain."
- Understanding "sea captain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

smoke (noun)

The act of smoking tobacco or other substances.

- He went outside for a smoke.
- The fire produced a tower of black smoke that could be seen for miles.

supreme being (noun)

The supernatural being conceived as the perfect and omnipotent and omniscient originator and ruler of the universe; the object of worship in monotheistic religions.

- He looked up "supreme being" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supreme being."

testing (noun)

An examination of the characteristics of something.

- There are laboratories for commercial testing.
- It involved testing thousands of children for smallpox.

war criminal (noun)

An offender who violates international law during times of war.

- The article explained what "war criminal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "war criminal" to mean an offender who violates international law during....

waste of energy (noun)

A useless effort.

- They discussed "waste of energy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "waste of energy" means with a simple example.

williams (noun)

United States country singer and songwriter (1923-1953).

- Understanding "williams" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "williams."

businesses (noun)

The principal activity in your life that you do to earn money.

- In class, the teacher used "businesses" to mean the principal activity in your life that you do to....
- He looked up "businesses" because he had never seen it before.

candidate (noun)

A politician who is running for public office.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "candidate."
- He looked up "candidate" because he had never seen it before.

chairman of the board (noun)

The chairman of the board of directors of a corporation.

- They discussed "chairman of the board" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chairman of the board" means with a simple example.

change of shape (noun)

An action that changes the shape of something.

- He looked up "change of shape" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "change of shape."

class fellow (noun)

An acquaintance that you go to school with.

- The article explained what "class fellow" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "class fellow" during the group presentation.

co-option (noun)

The act of appointing summarily (with or without the appointee's consent).

- Understanding "co-option" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "co-option" to mean the act of appointing summarily (with or without....

---

cold fish (noun)

An aloof unemotional person.

- In class, the teacher used "cold fish" to mean an aloof unemotional person.
- The article explained what "cold fish" means with a simple example.

---

county agent (noun)

An advisor employed by the government to assist people in rural areas with methods of farming and home economics.

- The article explained what "county agent" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "county agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dead soul (noun)

Someone who is no longer alive.

- I wonder what the dead person would have done.
- They discussed "dead soul" during the group presentation.

---

discuss (verb)

To consider or examine in speech or writing.

- The class discussed Dante's 'Inferno'.
- We discussed our household budget.

---

elections (noun)

A vote to select the winner of a position or political office.

- In class, the teacher used "elections" to mean a vote to select the winner of a position or....
- The article explained what "elections" means with a simple example.

---

english civil war (noun)

Civil war in England between the Parliamentarians and the Royalists under Charles I; 1644-1648.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english civil war."
- He looked up "english civil war" because he had never seen it before.

---

farm girl (noun)

A girl who has grown up on a farm.

- Understanding "farm girl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "farm girl" because he had never seen it before.

---

high command (noun)

The highest leaders in an organization (e.g. the commander-in-chief and senior officers of the military).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high command."
- He looked up "high command" because he had never seen it before.

---

holiday (noun)

A day on which work is suspended by law or custom.

- No mail is delivered on federal holidays.
- It's a good thing that New Year's was a holiday because everyone had a hangover.

---

job description (noun)

Description of the responsibilities associated with a given job.

- They discussed "job description" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "job description" means with a simple example.

---

law-breaking (noun)

(criminal law) an act punishable by law; usually considered an evil act.

- He looked up "law-breaking" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "law-breaking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

leg (noun)

A section or portion of a journey or course.

- In class, the teacher used "leg" to mean a section or portion of a journey or course.
- He looked up "leg" because he had never seen it before.

liberal (noun)

A person who favors an economic theory of laissez-faire and self-regulating markets.

- They discussed "liberal" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "liberal" because he had never seen it before.

listening (noun)

The act of hearing attentively.

- You can learn a lot by just listening.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "listening."

long jump (noun)

The act of jumping as far as possible from a running start.

- Understanding "long jump" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "long jump" means with a simple example.

mail call (noun)

A call of names of those receiving mail.

- They discussed "mail call" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mail call" to mean a call of names of those receiving mail.

physical contact (noun)

The act of touching physically.

- Her fingers came in contact with the light switch.
- The article explained what "physical contact" means with a simple example.

practice teacher (noun)

A college student who is teaching under the supervision of a certified teacher in order to qualify for a degree in education.

- They discussed "practice teacher" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "practice teacher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spanish american (noun)

An American whose first language is Spanish.

- Understanding "spanish american" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "spanish american" during the group presentation.

spanish war (noun)

A war between the United States and Spain in 1898.

- He looked up "spanish war" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spanish war."

state attorney (noun)

A prosecuting attorney for a state.

- They discussed "state attorney" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "state attorney" to mean a prosecuting attorney for a state.

tour de force (noun)

A masterly or brilliant feat.

- Understanding "tour de force" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tour de force" to mean a masterly or brilliant feat.

trade protection (noun)

The imposition of duties or quotas on imports in order to protect domestic industry against foreign competition.

- He made trade protection a plank in the party platform.
- They discussed "trade protection" during the group presentation.

---

turning away (noun)

Deliberately avoiding; keeping away from or preventing from happening.

- They discussed "turning away" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "turning away" because he had never seen it before.

---

united states civil war (noun)

Civil war in the United States between the North and the South; 1861-1865.

- Understanding "united states civil war" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "united states civil war" to mean civil war in the united states between the north....

---

work flow (noun)

Progress (or rate of progress) in work being done.

- They discussed "work flow" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "work flow" to mean progress (or rate of progress) in work being done.

---

yellow man (noun)

Offensive term for an Asian man.

- Understanding "yellow man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow man."

---

actor (noun)

A person who acts and gets things done.

- He's a principal actor in this affair.
- The article explained what "actor" means with a simple example.

---

black prince (noun)

Son of Edward III who defeated the French at Crecy and Poitiers in the Hundred Years' War (1330-1376).

- In class, the teacher used "black prince" to mean son of edward iii who defeated the french at crecy....
- He looked up "black prince" because he had never seen it before.

---

bottom dog (noun)

A person of low status.

- They discussed "bottom dog" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bottom dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

closed-class word (noun)

A word that is uninflected and serves a grammatical function but has little identifiable meaning.

- The article explained what "closed-class word" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "closed-class word" to mean a word that is uninflected and serves a grammatical....

---

co-ed (noun)

A female student at a coeducational college or university.

- In class, the teacher used "co-ed" to mean a female student at a coeducational college or....
- The article explained what "co-ed" means with a simple example.

---

end user (noun)

The ultimate user for which something is intended.

- He looked up "end user" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "end user."

---

fashion model (noun)

A woman who wears clothes to display fashions.

- The article explained what "fashion model" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fashion model" during the group presentation.

---

finance (noun)

The commercial activity of providing funds and capital.

- He looked up "finance" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "finance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

golden years (noun)

The time of life after retirement from active work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golden years."
- He looked up "golden years" because he had never seen it before.

---

grand tour (noun)

A sightseeing tour of a building or institution.

- In class, the teacher used "grand tour" to mean a sightseeing tour of a building or institution.
- The article explained what "grand tour" means with a simple example.

---

hall pass (noun)

Written permission from a teacher for a student to be out the classroom and in the halls of the school.

- In class, the teacher used "hall pass" to mean written permission from a teacher for a student to....
- They discussed "hall pass" during the group presentation.

---

high jump (noun)

The act of jumping as high as possible over a horizontal bar.

- He looked up "high jump" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "high jump" to mean the act of jumping as high as possible over a....

---

high tech (noun)

Highly advanced technological development (especially in electronics).

- He looked up "high tech" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high tech."

---

historical school (noun)

A school of 19th century German economists and legal philosophers who tried to explain modern economic systems in evolutionary or historical terms.

- Understanding "historical school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "historical school" because he had never seen it before.

---

hits (noun)

The act of contacting one thing with another.

- WordNet gets many hits from users worldwide.
- Understanding "hits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

john henry (noun)

Hero of American folk tales; portrayed as an enormously strong black man who worked on the railroads and died from exhaustion after winning a contest with a steam drill.

- They discussed "john henry" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "john henry" to mean hero of american folk tales; portrayed as an....

---

mail service (noun)

The system whereby messages are transmitted via the post office.

- The mail handles billions of items every day.
- He works for the United States mail service.

---

owners (noun)

A person who owns something.

- He looked up "owners" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "owners."

point duty (noun)

The control of traffic by a policeman stationed at an intersection.

- Understanding "point duty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "point duty" to mean the control of traffic by a policeman stationed at....

police investigation (noun)

The investigation of criminal activities.

- He looked up "police investigation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "police investigation."

political boss (noun)

A leader in a political party who controls votes and dictates appointments.

- Party bosses have a reputation for corruption.
- He looked up "political boss" because he had never seen it before.

posts (noun)

The delivery and collection of letters and packages.

- He set a row of posts in the ground and strung barbwire between them.
- A pair of posts marked the goal.

president johnson (noun)

36th President of the United States; was elected vice president and succeeded Kennedy when Kennedy was assassinated (1908-1973).

- The article explained what "president johnson" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "president johnson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

press agent (noun)

Someone employed to arrange publicity (for a firm or a public figure).

- In class, the teacher used "press agent" to mean someone employed to arrange publicity (for a firm....
- The article explained what "press agent" means with a simple example.

property owner (noun)

A holder or proprietor of land.

- In class, the teacher used "property owner" to mean a holder or proprietor of land.
- They discussed "property owner" during the group presentation.

second-in-command (noun)

Someone who relieves a commander.

- Understanding "second-in-command" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "second-in-command."

task (noun)

A specific piece of work required to be done as a duty or for a specific fee.

- The endless task of classifying the samples.
- The article explained what "task" means with a simple example.

taxes (noun)

The surgical procedure of manually restoring a displaced body part.

- The article explained what "taxes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "taxes" to mean the surgical procedure of manually restoring a....

taylor (noun)

United States composer and music critic (1885-1966).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "taylor."
- The article explained what "taylor" means with a simple example.

applications (noun)

The action of putting something into operation.

- Massage has far-reaching medical applications.
- December 31 is the deadline for applications.

---

civil leader (noun)

A leader in municipal affairs.

- In class, the teacher used "civil leader" to mean a leader in municipal affairs.
- They discussed "civil leader" during the group presentation.

---

course session (noun)

A regularly scheduled session as part of a course of study.

- The article explained what "course session" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "course session" to mean a regularly scheduled session as part of a course....

---

defense secretary (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Defense.

- The position of Defense Secretary was created in 1947.
- The first Defense Secretary was James V. Forrestal who was appointed by Truman.

---

department of labor (noun)

The federal department responsible for promoting the working conditions of wage earners in the United States; created in 1913.

- The article explained what "department of labor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "department of labor" to mean the federal department responsible for promoting....

---

discovered check (noun)

A check on the opponent's king that is delivered by moving a piece out of the line of attack by a queen or rook or bishop.

- He looked up "discovered check" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "discovered check" during the group presentation.

---

executive officer (noun)

The officer second in command.

- He looked up "executive officer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "executive officer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

federal agent (noun)

Any agent or representative of a federal agency or bureau.

- He looked up "federal agent" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "federal agent" to mean any agent or representative of a federal agency or....

---

fill-in (noun)

Someone who takes the place of another (as when things get dangerous or difficult).

- We need extra employees for summer fill-ins.
- They discussed "fill-in" during the group presentation.

---

first strike (noun)

The initial use of nuclear weapons to attack a country that also has nuclear weapons; considered feasible only when the attacker can destroy the other country's ability to retaliate.

- The Pakistani president promised no first strike against India.
- In class, the teacher used "first strike" to mean the initial use of nuclear weapons to attack a....

---

governor general (noun)

A governor of high rank.

- He looked up "governor general" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "governor general."

---

honest woman (noun)

A wife who has married a man with whom she has been living for some time (especially if she is pregnant at the time).

- He made an honest woman of her.

- They discussed "honest woman" during the group presentation.

iron age (noun)

(classical mythology) the last and worst age of the world.

- They discussed "iron age" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "iron age" to mean (classical mythology) the last and worst age of the....

john paul ii (noun)

The first Pope born in Poland; the first Pope not born in Italy in 450 years (1920-2005).

- They discussed "john paul ii" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john paul ii."

jump-start (noun)

Starting an automobile engine that has a weak battery by means of jumper cables to another car.

- The article explained what "jump-start" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jump-start."

labor department (noun)

The federal department responsible for promoting the working conditions of wage earners in the United States; created in 1913.

- He looked up "labor department" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "labor department" during the group presentation.

ladies (noun)

A polite name for any woman.

- Understanding "ladies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ladies."

learning ability (noun)

Mental ability.

- He looked up "learning ability" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "learning ability."

line of duty (noun)

All that is normally required in some area of responsibility.

- The article explained what "line of duty" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "line of duty" during the group presentation.

majority leader (noun)

Leader of the majority party in a legislature.

- Understanding "majority leader" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "majority leader" during the group presentation.

man of affairs (noun)

A person engaged in commercial or industrial business (especially an owner or executive).

- They discussed "man of affairs" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "man of affairs" means with a simple example.

phase i (noun)

A clinical trial on a few persons to determine the safety of a new drug or invasive medical device; for drugs, dosage or toxicity limits should be obtained.

- In class, the teacher used "phase i" to mean a clinical trial on a few persons to determine the....
- The article explained what "phase i" means with a simple example.

residents (noun)

A physician (especially an intern) who lives in a hospital and cares for hospitalized patients under the supervision of the medical staff of the hospital.

- They discussed "residents" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "residents" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

secretary of defense (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Defense.

- The position of Defense Secretary was created in 1947.
- The first Defense Secretary was James V. Forrestal who was appointed by Truman.

---

split up (noun)

An increase in the number of outstanding shares of a corporation without changing the shareholders' equity.

- They announced a two-for-one split of the common stock.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "split up."

---

student teacher (noun)

A college student who is teaching under the supervision of a certified teacher in order to qualify for a degree in education.

- The article explained what "student teacher" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "student teacher" to mean a college student who is teaching under the....

---

talent (noun)

A person who possesses unusual innate ability in some field or activity.

- In class, the teacher used "talent" to mean a person who possesses unusual innate ability in....
- They discussed "talent" during the group presentation.

---

television star (noun)

A star in a television show.

- He looked up "television star" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "television star" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vice president (noun)

An executive officer ranking immediately below a president; may serve in the president's place under certain circumstances.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vice president."
- They discussed "vice president" during the group presentation.

---

wild west show (noun)

A spectacular show organized in 1883 by William F. Cody that featured horseback riding and marksmanship on a large scale; toured the United States and Europe.

- He looked up "wild west show" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wild west show" during the group presentation.

---

william ii (noun)

The second son of William the Conqueror who succeeded him as King of England (1056-1100).

- The article explained what "william ii" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "william ii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

world affairs (noun)

Affairs between nations.

- You can't really keep up with world affairs by watching television.
- Understanding "world affairs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

asian american (noun)

An American who is of Asian descent.

- Understanding "asian american" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "asian american" means with a simple example.

---

bob (noun)

A short abrupt inclination (as of the head).

- He gave me a short bob of acknowledgement.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bob."

---

born-again christian (noun)

A Christian who has experienced a dramatic conversion to faith in Jesus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "born-again christian."
- The article explained what "born-again christian" means with a simple example.

---

bridge player (noun)

A card player in a game of bridge.

- We need a 4th hand for bridge.
- He looked up "bridge player" because he had never seen it before.

---

camp meeting (noun)

Religious (usually evangelistic) meeting held in a large tent or outdoors and lasting several days.

- In class, the teacher used "camp meeting" to mean religious (usually evangelistic) meeting held in a....
- The article explained what "camp meeting" means with a simple example.

---

chicken (noun)

A person who lacks confidence, is irresolute and wishy-washy.

- They discussed "chicken" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chicken" means with a simple example.

---

civil defense (noun)

Activities organized by civilians for their own protection in time of war or disaster.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "civil defense."
- The article explained what "civil defense" means with a simple example.

---

examples (noun)

An item of information that is typical of a class or group.

- You must work the examples at the end of each chapter in the textbook.
- They discussed "examples" during the group presentation.

---

labour party (noun)

A left-of-center political party formed to represent the interest of ordinary working people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labour party."
- The article explained what "labour party" means with a simple example.

---

learned response (noun)

A reaction that has been acquired by learning.

- He looked up "learned response" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "learned response" to mean a reaction that has been acquired by learning.

---

man of letters (noun)

A man devoted to literary or scholarly activities.

- Understanding "man of letters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "man of letters" because he had never seen it before.

---

ministry (noun)

The work of a minister of religion.

- He is studying for the ministry.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ministry."

---

phase-out (noun)

The act or instance of a planned discontinuation.

- In class, the teacher used "phase-out" to mean the act or instance of a planned discontinuation.
- They discussed "phase-out" during the group presentation.

---

power user (noun)

(computing) a computer user who needs the fastest and most powerful computers available.

- He looked up "power user" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "power user" during the group presentation.

sexual union (noun)

The act of pairing a male and female for reproductive purposes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sexual union."
- He looked up "sexual union" because he had never seen it before.

sir thomas more (noun)

English statesman who opposed Henry VIII's divorce from Catherine of Aragon and was imprisoned and beheaded; recalled for his concept of Utopia, the ideal state.

- The article explained what "sir thomas more" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sir thomas more" during the group presentation.

soul brother (noun)

A fellow Black man.

- They discussed "soul brother" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "soul brother" because he had never seen it before.

split down (noun)

A decrease in the number of outstanding shares of a corporation without changing the shareholders' equity.

- Understanding "split down" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "split down" means with a simple example.

sports fan (noun)

An enthusiastic devotee of sports.

- He looked up "sports fan" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sports fan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

teachers college (noun)

A two-year school for training elementary teachers.

- Understanding "teachers college" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "teachers college" to mean a two-year school for training elementary teachers.

trading (noun)

Buying or selling securities or commodities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trading."
- He looked up "trading" because he had never seen it before.

tuesday (noun)

The third day of the week; the second working day.

- They discussed "tuesday" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tuesday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

upper class (noun)

The class occupying the highest position in the social hierarchy.

- In class, the teacher used "upper class" to mean the class occupying the highest position in the....
- He looked up "upper class" because he had never seen it before.

upper-class (adjective)

Occupying the highest socioeconomic position in a society.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "upper-class."
- Students compared "upper-class" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

valley girl (noun)

A girl who grew up in the tract housing in the San Fernando Valley.

- They discussed "valley girl" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "valley girl" means with a simple example.

anti-war movement (noun)

A campaign against entering or continuing a war.

- In class, the teacher used "anti-war movement" to mean a campaign against entering or continuing a war.
- Understanding "anti-war movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

attorney general (noun)

The person who holds the position of secretary of the Justice Department.

- Edmund Randolph was the first Attorney General, appointed by President Washington.
- The post of Attorney General was created in 1789.

---

authority figure (noun)

Someone who is regarded as an authority by someone else.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "authority figure."
- He looked up "authority figure" because he had never seen it before.

---

champion (noun)

A person who backs a politician or a team etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "champion."
- The article explained what "champion" means with a simple example.

---

civil marriage (noun)

A marriage performed by a government official rather than by a clergyman.

- The article explained what "civil marriage" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "civil marriage."

---

confidence man (noun)

A swindler who exploits the confidence of his victim.

- In class, the teacher used "confidence man" to mean a swindler who exploits the confidence of his victim.
- The article explained what "confidence man" means with a simple example.

---

cross-division (noun)

Classification according to more than one attribute at the same time.

- He looked up "cross-division" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cross-division."

---

crowd control (noun)

Activity of controlling a crowd.

- In class, the teacher used "crowd control" to mean activity of controlling a crowd.
- The article explained what "crowd control" means with a simple example.

---

daniel (noun)

A wise and upright judge; – Shakespeare.

- A Daniel come to judgment.
- The article explained what "daniel" means with a simple example.

---

drive-by shooting (noun)

Shooting someone from a car as it is driven past the victim.

- They discussed "drive-by shooting" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drive-by shooting."

---

editor (noun)

A person responsible for the editorial aspects of publication; the person who determines the final content of a text (especially of a newspaper or magazine).

- They discussed "editor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "editor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fellow member (noun)

One of the persons who compose a social group (especially individuals who have joined and participate in a group organization).

- Only members will be admitted.

- A member of the faculty.

---

first-class mail (noun)

Mail that includes letters and postcards and packages sealed against inspection.

- He looked up "first-class mail" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "first-class mail" to mean mail that includes letters and postcards and....

---

foreign agent (noun)

A spy for a foreign country.

- The article explained what "foreign agent" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "foreign agent" during the group presentation.

---

french and indian war (noun)

A war in North America between France and Britain (both aided by American Indian tribes); 1755-1760.

- He looked up "french and indian war" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french and indian war."

---

high finance (noun)

Large and complex financial transactions (often used with the implication that those individuals or institutions who engage in them are unethical).

- Understanding "high finance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "high finance" during the group presentation.

---

kick turn (noun)

A standing turn made in skiing; one ski is raised to the vertical and pivoted backward to become parallel with the other ski but headed in the opposite direction and then the other ski is aligned with the first.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kick turn."
- The article explained what "kick turn" means with a simple example.

---

literature (noun)

The humanistic study of a body of literature.

- The technical literature.
- One aspect of Waterloo has not yet been treated in the literature.

---

louis v (noun)

The last Carolingian king of France (967-987).

- He looked up "louis v" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "louis v" during the group presentation.

---

mayor (noun)

The head of a city government.

- In class, the teacher used "mayor" to mean the head of a city government.
- He looked up "mayor" because he had never seen it before.

---

minor (noun)

A young person of either sex.

- The article explained what "minor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "minor" to mean a young person of either sex.

---

pages (noun)

A youthful attendant at official functions or ceremonies such as legislative functions and weddings.

- In class, the teacher used "pages" to mean a youthful attendant at official functions or....
- They discussed "pages" during the group presentation.

---

robert brown (noun)

Scottish botanist who first observed the movement of small particles in fluids now known a Brownian motion (1773-1858).

- Understanding "robert brown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "robert brown" means with a simple example.

---

serving (noun)

The act of delivering a writ or summons upon someone.

- There's enough for two servings each.
- He looked up "serving" because he had never seen it before.

---

sexual practice (noun)

Activities associated with sexual intercourse.

- The article explained what "sexual practice" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sexual practice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

struggle (noun)

An energetic attempt to achieve something.

- Getting through the crowd was a real struggle.
- The struggle to get through the crowd exhausted her.

---

suicide (noun)

The act of killing yourself.

- It is a crime to commit suicide.
- He looked up "suicide" because he had never seen it before.

---

target practice (noun)

Practice in shooting at targets.

- He looked up "target practice" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "target practice" to mean practice in shooting at targets.

---

test driver (noun)

A driver who drives a motor vehicle to evaluate its performance.

- He looked up "test driver" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "test driver" to mean a driver who drives a motor vehicle to evaluate its....

---

thursday (noun)

The fifth day of the week; the fourth working day.

- Understanding "thursday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "thursday" because he had never seen it before.

---

united mine workers (noun)

An industrial union of mine workers in North America.

- They discussed "united mine workers" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united mine workers."

---

voting (noun)

A choice that is made by counting the number of people in favor of each alternative.

- The article explained what "voting" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "voting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wave (noun)

A movement like that of a sudden occurrence or increase in a specified phenomenon.

- A wave of settlers.
- Troops advancing in waves.

---

zone fire (noun)

Artillery or mortar fire delivered in a constant direction at several quadrant elevations.

- He looked up "zone fire" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zone fire."

---

assembly (noun)

The social act of assembling.

- They demanded the right of assembly.
- In class, the teacher used "assembly" to mean the social act of assembling.

---

benefit album (noun)

Concept album compiling a performer's work or work supporting some worthy cause.

- He looked up "benefit album" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "benefit album" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

board of trade unit (noun)

A unit of energy equal to the work done by a power of 1000 watts operating for one hour.

- They discussed "board of trade unit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "board of trade unit" means with a simple example.

---

conservative (noun)

A person who is reluctant to accept changes and new ideas.

- The article explained what "conservative" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "conservative" during the group presentation.

---

contract killing (noun)

A murder carried out on agreement with a hired killer.

- Understanding "contract killing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "contract killing" to mean a murder carried out on agreement with a hired killer.

---

emotional person (noun)

A person subject to strong states of emotion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emotional person."
- He looked up "emotional person" because he had never seen it before.

---

executive secretary (noun)

A secretary having administrative duties and responsibilities.

- Understanding "executive secretary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "executive secretary" means with a simple example.

---

familiar (noun)

A friend who is frequently in the company of another.

- The article explained what "familiar" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "familiar."

---

farm boy (noun)

A boy who has grown up on a farm.

- He looked up "farm boy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "farm boy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

federal job safety law (noun)

A law passed by the United States Congress that created the Occupational Safety and Health Administration to prevent employees from being injured or contracting diseases in the course of their employment.

- He looked up "federal job safety law" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal job safety law."

---

hearing officer (noun)

An official appointed by a government agency to conduct an investigation or administrative hearing so that the agency can exercise its statutory powers.

- In class, the teacher used "hearing officer" to mean an official appointed by a government agency to....
- Understanding "hearing officer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

louis ii (noun)

King of France and Germany (846-879).

- In class, the teacher used "louis ii" to mean king of france and germany (846-879).
- They discussed "louis ii" during the group presentation.

medical aid (noun)

Professional treatment for illness or injury.

- The article explained what "medical aid" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "medical aid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

medium (noun)

An occupation for which you are especially well suited.

- Fish require an aqueous medium.
- The dissolving medium is called a solvent.

member of parliament (noun)

An elected member of the British Parliament: a member of the House of Commons.

- He looked up "member of parliament" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "member of parliament."

mother jones (noun)

United States labor leader (born in Ireland) who helped to found the Industrial Workers of the World (1830-1930).

- In class, the teacher used "mother jones" to mean united states labor leader (born in ireland) who....
- Understanding "mother jones" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

prime minister (noun)

The person who is head of state (in several countries).

- Understanding "prime minister" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "prime minister" means with a simple example.

public holiday (noun)

Authorized by law and limiting work or official business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public holiday."
- The article explained what "public holiday" means with a simple example.

search mission (noun)

A mission to discover something.

- He looked up "search mission" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "search mission" to mean a mission to discover something.

sending (noun)

The act of causing something to go (especially messages).

- In class, the teacher used "sending" to mean the act of causing something to go (especially....
- The article explained what "sending" means with a simple example.

solo (noun)

A flight in which the aircraft pilot is unaccompanied.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solo."
- He looked up "solo" because he had never seen it before.

split end (noun)

(football) an offensive end who lines up at a distance from the other linemen.

- They discussed "split end" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "split end."

supply officer (noun)

A commissioned officer responsible for logistics.

- They discussed "supply officer" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "supply officer" because he had never seen it before.

supporting fire (noun)

Fire delivered by supporting units to protect or assist a unit in combat.

- The article explained what "supporting fire" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "supporting fire" to mean fire delivered by supporting units to protect or....

---

thomas kid (noun)

English dramatist (1558-1594).

- In class, the teacher used "thomas kid" to mean english dramatist (1558-1594).
- The article explained what "thomas kid" means with a simple example.

---

trial judge (noun)

A judge in a trial court.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trial judge."
- They discussed "trial judge" during the group presentation.

---

us attorney general (noun)

The person who holds the position of secretary of the Justice Department.

- Edmund Randolph was the first Attorney General, appointed by President Washington.
- Understanding "us attorney general" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

whole-word method (noun)

Teaching reading by training beginners to associate printed words with spoken words.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whole-word method."
- He looked up "whole-word method" because he had never seen it before.

---

work-shirt (noun)

Heavy-duty shirts worn for manual or physical work.

- In class, the teacher used "work-shirt" to mean heavy-duty shirts worn for manual or physical work.
- Understanding "work-shirt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beat generation (noun)

A United States youth subculture of the 1950s; rejected possessions or regular work or traditional dress; for communal living and psychedelic drugs and anarchism; favored modern forms of jazz (e.g., bebop).

- In class, the teacher used "beat generation" to mean a united states youth subculture of the 1950s;....
- He looked up "beat generation" because he had never seen it before.

---

black muslim (noun)

An activist member of a largely American group of Blacks called the Nation of Islam.

- He looked up "black muslim" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "black muslim" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carrying out (noun)

The act of accomplishing some aim or executing some order.

- The article explained what "carrying out" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "carrying out" to mean the act of accomplishing some aim or executing some....

---

chicken little (noun)

A fictional character who was hit on the head with an acorn and believed that the sky was falling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chicken little."
- Understanding "chicken little" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chief financial officer (noun)

The corporate executive having financial authority to make appropriations and authorize expenditures for a firm.

- He looked up "chief financial officer" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chief financial officer" to mean the corporate executive having financial authority....

---

current intelligence (noun)

Intelligence of all types and forms of immediate interest; usually disseminated without delays for evaluation or interpretation.

- In class, the teacher used "current intelligence" to mean intelligence of all types and forms of immediate....

- Understanding "current intelligence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cutting out (noun)

Surgical removal of a body part or tissue.

- Understanding "cutting out" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cutting out" during the group presentation.

dealing (noun)

The act of transacting within or between groups (as carrying on commercial activities).

- He has always been honest is his dealings with me.
- Honest dealing.

desire to know (noun)

Curiosity that motivates investigation and study.

- In class, the teacher used "desire to know" to mean curiosity that motivates investigation and study.
- The article explained what "desire to know" means with a simple example.

developing country (noun)

A country that is poor and whose citizens are mostly agricultural workers but that wants to become more advanced socially and economically.

- They discussed "developing country" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "developing country."

double agent (noun)

A spy who works for two mutually antagonistic countries.

- In class, the teacher used "double agent" to mean a spy who works for two mutually antagonistic countries.
- The article explained what "double agent" means with a simple example.

entertainment (noun)

An activity that is diverting and that holds the attention.

- Understanding "entertainment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "entertainment."

fields (noun)

United States comedian and film actor (1880-1946).

- They made a tour of Civil War battlefields.
- He longed for the fields of his youth.

film festival (noun)

A cinematic festival that features films (usually films produced during the past year).

- He looked up "film festival" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "film festival."

heat unit (noun)

A unit of measurement for work.

- He looked up "heat unit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heat unit."

horse trade (noun)

The swapping of horses (accompanied by much bargaining).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse trade."
- He looked up "horse trade" because he had never seen it before.

job candidate (noun)

An applicant who is being considered for a job.

- In class, the teacher used "job candidate" to mean an applicant who is being considered for a job.
- He looked up "job candidate" because he had never seen it before.

labor union (noun)

An organization of employees formed to bargain with the employer.

- You have to join the union in order to get a job.
- The article explained what "labor union" means with a simple example.

---

loan office (noun)

An office where loans are negotiated and repaid.

- He looked up "loan office" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loan office."

---

ma'am (noun)

A woman of refinement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ma'am."
- Understanding "ma'am" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

national holiday (noun)

Authorized by law and limiting work or official business.

- In class, the teacher used "national holiday" to mean authorized by law and limiting work or official....
- He looked up "national holiday" because he had never seen it before.

---

offering (noun)

The act of contributing to the funds of a church or charity.

- Noteworthy new offerings for investors included several index funds.
- Understanding "offering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

painting (noun)

The occupation of a house painter.

- House painting was the only craft he knew.
- A small painting by Picasso.

---

president grant (noun)

18th President of the United States; commander of the Union armies in the American Civil War (1822-1885).

- He looked up "president grant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "president grant" during the group presentation.

---

religious leader (noun)

Leader of a religious order.

- In class, the teacher used "religious leader" to mean leader of a religious order.
- He looked up "religious leader" because he had never seen it before.

---

returns (noun)

The act of going back to a prior location.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "returns."
- The article explained what "returns" means with a simple example.

---

security guard (noun)

A guard who keeps watch.

- They discussed "security guard" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "security guard" because he had never seen it before.

---

shares (noun)

The allotment of some amount by dividing something.

- He bought 100 shares of IBM at the market price.
- He looked up "shares" because he had never seen it before.

---

single entry (noun)

A simple bookkeeping system; transactions are entered in only one account.

- In class, the teacher used "single entry" to mean a simple bookkeeping system; transactions are....
- The article explained what "single entry" means with a simple example.

---

spanish-american war (noun)

A war between the United States and Spain in 1898.

- They discussed "spanish-american war" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "spanish-american war" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spending cut (noun)

The act of reducing spending.

- Understanding "spending cut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "spending cut" to mean the act of reducing spending.

---

switch (noun)

The act of changing one thing or position for another.

- His switch on abortion cost him the election.
- He looked up "switch" because he had never seen it before.

---

wave-off (noun)

An approach that fails and gives way to another attempt.

- The article explained what "wave-off" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wave-off" during the group presentation.

---

yellow woman (noun)

Offensive term for an Asian woman.

- He looked up "yellow woman" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "yellow woman" during the group presentation.

---

adult female (noun)

An adult female person (as opposed to a man).

- In class, the teacher used "adult female" to mean an adult female person (as opposed to a man).
- They discussed "adult female" during the group presentation.

---

adults (noun)

A fully developed person from maturity onward.

- They discussed "adults" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "adults" to mean a fully developed person from maturity onward.

---

assistance (noun)

The activity of contributing to the fulfillment of a need or furtherance of an effort or purpose.

- Could not walk without assistance.
- Understanding "assistance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bank guard (noun)

A security guard at a bank.

- The article explained what "bank guard" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bank guard" during the group presentation.

---

battle royal (noun)

A noisy riotous fight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battle royal."
- They discussed "battle royal" during the group presentation.

---

blow (noun)

A powerful stroke with the fist or a weapon.

- A blow on the head.
- He gave his nose a loud blow.

boyfriend (noun)

A man who is the lover of a girl or young woman.

- If I'd known he was her boyfriend I wouldn't have asked.
- Understanding "boyfriend" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

by-blow (noun)

The illegitimate offspring of unmarried parents.

- He looked up "by-blow" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "by-blow."

closed primary (noun)

A primary in which only registered members of a particular political party can vote.

- Closed primaries strengthen party unity.
- He looked up "closed primary" because he had never seen it before.

commercial activity (noun)

Activity undertaken as part of a commercial enterprise.

- They discussed "commercial activity" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "commercial activity" because he had never seen it before.

crazy horse (noun)

A chief of the Sioux who resisted the invasion of the Black Hills and joined Sitting Bull in the defeat of General Custer at Little Bighorn (1849-1877).

- Understanding "crazy horse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "crazy horse" to mean a chief of the sioux who resisted the invasion of....

cutting off (noun)

The act of shortening something by chopping off the ends.

- The article explained what "cutting off" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cutting off" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

deals (noun)

A particular instance of buying or selling.

- He rose to prominence through a series of shady deals.
- They discussed "deals" during the group presentation.

delivery (noun)

The act of delivering or distributing something (as goods or mail).

- His reluctant delivery of bad news.
- She had a difficult delivery.

direct primary (noun)

A primary where voters directly select the candidates who will run for office.

- They discussed "direct primary" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "direct primary."

duty period (noun)

The time period during which you are at work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "duty period."
- They discussed "duty period" during the group presentation.

ex-husband (noun)

A man who was formerly a certain woman's husband.

- They discussed "ex-husband" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ex-husband" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fine arts (noun)

The study and creation of visual works of art.

- A fine collection of art.
- He looked up "fine arts" because he had never seen it before.

---

for instance (adverb)

As an example.

- Take ribbon snakes, for example.
- He answered "for instance," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

grade point average (noun)

A measure of a student's academic achievement at a college or university; calculated by dividing the total number of grade points received by the total number attempted.

- He looked up "grade point average" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "grade point average" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

half-holiday (noun)

A day on which half is free from work or duty.

- Understanding "half-holiday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "half-holiday" during the group presentation.

---

henry james (noun)

Writer who was born in the United States but lived in England (1843-1916).

- In class, the teacher used "henry james" to mean writer who was born in the united states but lived....
- Understanding "henry james" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

instance (noun)

An item of information that is typical of a class or group.

- Another instance occurred yesterday.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instance."

---

internal control (noun)

An accounting procedure or system designed to promote efficiency or assure the implementation of a policy or safeguard assets or avoid fraud and error etc.

- In class, the teacher used "internal control" to mean an accounting procedure or system designed to....
- He looked up "internal control" because he had never seen it before.

---

international affairs (noun)

Affairs between nations.

- You can't really keep up with world affairs by watching television.
- He looked up "international affairs" because he had never seen it before.

---

little giant (noun)

United States politician who proposed that individual territories be allowed to decide whether they would have slavery; he engaged in a famous series of debates with Abraham Lincoln (1813-1861).

- They discussed "little giant" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "little giant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lying in wait (noun)

The act of concealing yourself and lying in wait to attack by surprise.

- The article explained what "lying in wait" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lying in wait" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

medical assistant (noun)

A person trained to assist medical professionals.

- The article explained what "medical assistant" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medical assistant."

---

mental ability (noun)

The power to learn or retain knowledge; in law, the ability to understand the facts and significance of your behavior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mental ability."

- He looked up "mental ability" because he had never seen it before.

---

military governor (noun)

The head of a government established by the military (as in a defeated country).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military governor."
- They discussed "military governor" during the group presentation.

---

moon shot (noun)

The launching of a spacecraft to the moon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moon shot."
- They discussed "moon shot" during the group presentation.

---

motion (noun)

The act of changing location from one place to another.

- Police controlled the motion of the crowd.
- The reflex motion of his eyebrows revealed his surprise.

---

moves (noun)

The act of changing location from one place to another.

- They say that three moves equal one fire.
- Understanding "moves" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

president taylor (noun)

12th President of the United States; died in office (1784-1850).

- They discussed "president taylor" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "president taylor" to mean 12th president of the united states; died in office....

---

public relations man (noun)

Someone employed to arrange publicity (for a firm or a public figure).

- He looked up "public relations man" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "public relations man" during the group presentation.

---

register (verb)

Record in a public office or in a court of law.

- Register for an election.
- Did you register any change when I pressed the button?

---

resolution (noun)

A decision to do something or to behave in a certain manner.

- He always wrote down his New Year's resolutions.
- It was his unshakeable resolution to finish the work.

---

richard ii (noun)

King of England from 1377 to 1399; he suppressed the Peasant's Revolt in 1381 but his reign was marked by popular discontent and baronial opposition in British Parliament and he was forced to abdicate in 1399 (1367-1400).

- The article explained what "richard ii" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "richard ii" during the group presentation.

---

saving (noun)

An act of economizing; reduction in cost.

- There was a saving of 50 cents.
- A surgeon's job is the saving of lives.

---

scientific research (noun)

Research into questions posed by scientific theories and hypotheses.

- Understanding "scientific research" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "scientific research" because he had never seen it before.

---

surprise attack (noun)

An attack without warning.

- The article explained what "surprise attack" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surprise attack."

---

text edition (noun)

A book prepared for use in schools or colleges.

- His economics textbook is in its tenth edition.
- The professor wrote the text that he assigned students to buy.

---

tools (noun)

The means whereby some act is accomplished.

- Science has given us new tools to fight disease.
- The article explained what "tools" means with a simple example.

---

wars (noun)

The waging of armed conflict against an enemy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wars."
- He looked up "wars" because he had never seen it before.

---

wednesday (noun)

The fourth day of the week; the third working day.

- He looked up "wednesday" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wednesday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

work papers (noun)

A legal document giving information required for employment of certain people in certain countries.

- In class, the teacher used "work papers" to mean a legal document giving information required for....
- The article explained what "work papers" means with a simple example.

---

carry nation (noun)

United States prohibitionist who raided saloons and destroyed bottles of liquor with a hatchet (1846-1911).

- Understanding "carry nation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carry nation."

---

charles ii (noun)

King of England and Scotland and Ireland during the Restoration (1630-1685).

- Understanding "charles ii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "charles ii" to mean king of england and scotland and ireland during the....

---

city editor (noun)

The newspaper editor in charge of editing local news.

- He looked up "city editor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "city editor."

---

crew member (noun)

A member of a flight crew.

- They discussed "crew member" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "crew member" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cup of tea (noun)

An activity that you like or at which you are superior.

- Chemistry is not my cup of tea.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cup of tea."

---

dark horse (noun)

A political candidate who is not well known but could win unexpectedly.

- They discussed “dark horse” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “dark horse” means with a simple example.

---

drawing (noun)

The creation of artistic pictures or diagrams.

- He learned drawing from his father.
- It is shown by the drawing in Fig. 7.

---

guest (noun)

A customer of a hotel or restaurant etc.

- In class, the teacher used “guest” to mean a customer of a hotel or restaurant etc.
- He looked up “guest” because he had never seen it before.

---

industrial bank (noun)

A finance company that makes small loans to industrial workers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “industrial bank.”
- Understanding “industrial bank” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

institutions (noun)

The act of starting something for the first time; introducing something new.

- The article explained what “institutions” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “institutions” to mean the act of starting something for the first time;....

---

intelligence test (noun)

A psychometric test of intelligence.

- They used to think that intelligence is what an intelligence test tests.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “intelligence test.”

---

jesus christ (noun)

A teacher and prophet born in Bethlehem and active in Nazareth; his life and sermons form the basis for Christianity (circa 4 BC - AD 29).

- The article explained what “jesus christ” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “jesus christ” to mean a teacher and prophet born in bethlehem and active....

---

kiss (noun)

The act of caressing with the lips (or an instance thereof).

- There was a brief kiss of their hands in passing.
- He looked up “kiss” because he had never seen it before.

---

listening watch (noun)

A watch established for the reception of traffic of interest to the unit maintaining the watch.

- He looked up “listening watch” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “listening watch.”

---

louis the german (noun)

King of France and Germany (846-879).

- The article explained what “louis the german” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “louis the german” during the group presentation.

---

make a motion (verb)

Propose formally; in a debate or parliamentary meeting.

- Can you use “make a motion” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “make a motion” when talking about this idea.

---

mary ii (noun)

Queen of England and Scotland and Ireland; she was the eldest daughter of James II and ruled jointly with her husband William III (1662-1694).

- They discussed “mary ii” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “mary ii” to mean queen of england and scotland and ireland; she was....

office of management and budget (noun)

The executive agency that advises the President on the federal budget.

- He looked up "office of management and budget" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "office of management and budget" during the group presentation.

recovery (noun)

The act of regaining or saving something lost (or in danger of becoming lost).

- The recovery of the forest after the fire was surprisingly rapid.
- The article explained what "recovery" means with a simple example.

reviews (noun)

A formal or official examination.

- They discussed "reviews" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "reviews" to mean a formal or official examination.

security intelligence (noun)

Intelligence on the identity and capability and intentions of hostile individuals or organizations that may be engaged in espionage or sabotage or subversion or terrorism.

- The article explained what "security intelligence" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "security intelligence."

seeking (noun)

The act of searching for something.

- He looked up "seeking" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "seeking" to mean the act of searching for something.

senator (noun)

A member of a senate.

- Understanding "senator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "senator" because he had never seen it before.

space writer (noun)

A writer paid by the area of the copy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "space writer."
- He looked up "space writer" because he had never seen it before.

teaching reading (noun)

Teaching beginners to read.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teaching reading."
- The article explained what "teaching reading" means with a simple example.

test suit (noun)

A representative legal action whose outcome is likely to become a precedent.

- The article explained what "test suit" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "test suit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

trade union movement (noun)

An organized attempt by workers to improve their status by united action (particularly via labor unions) or the leaders of this movement.

- He looked up "trade union movement" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trade union movement."

academic (noun)

An educator who works at a college or university.

- The article explained what "academic" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "academic."

andrew (noun)

(New Testament) disciple of Jesus; brother of Peter; patron saint of Scotland.

- They discussed "andrew" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "andrew" because he had never seen it before.

---

business editor (noun)

The newspaper editor responsible for business news.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "business editor."
- He looked up "business editor" because he had never seen it before.

---

chief assistant (noun)

The most helpful assistant.

- They discussed "chief assistant" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chief assistant."

---

child abuse (noun)

The physical or emotional or sexual mistreatment of children.

- Understanding "child abuse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "child abuse."

---

claim agent (noun)

One who investigates insurance claims or claims for damages and recommends an effective settlement.

- The article explained what "claim agent" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "claim agent."

---

detail (noun)

A crew of workers selected for a particular task.

- A detail was sent to remove the fallen trees.
- Several of the details are similar.

---

film writer (noun)

Someone who writes screenplays.

- The article explained what "film writer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "film writer" during the group presentation.

---

frame-up (noun)

An act that incriminates someone on a false charge.

- They discussed "frame-up" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "frame-up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

henry v (noun)

Son of Henry IV and King of England from 1413 to 1422; reopened the Hundred Years' War and defeated the French at Agincourt (1387-1422).

- He looked up "henry v" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry v."

---

insurance agent (noun)

An agent who sells insurance.

- The article explained what "insurance agent" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "insurance agent."

---

king of great britain (noun)

The sovereign ruler of England.

- In class, the teacher used "king of great britain" to mean the sovereign ruler of england.
- Understanding "king of great britain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

language teaching (noun)

Teaching people to speak and understand a foreign language.

- They discussed "language teaching" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "language teaching" to mean teaching people to speak and understand a foreign....

---

last mile (noun)

The last walk of a condemned person to the execution place.

- The article explained what "last mile" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "last mile" to mean the last walk of a condemned person to the....

---

martin v (noun)

Italian pope from 1417 to 1431 whose election as pope ended the Great Schism (1368-1431).

- The article explained what "martin v" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "martin v" to mean italian pope from 1417 to 1431 whose election as....

---

master-at-arms (noun)

The senior petty officer; responsible for discipline aboard ship.

- He looked up "master-at-arms" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "master-at-arms."

---

office of intelligence support (noun)

Agency that oversees the intelligence relationships of the Treasury's offices and bureaus and provides a link between the Intelligence Community and officials responsible for international economic policy.

- They discussed "office of intelligence support" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "office of intelligence support" to mean agency that oversees the intelligence relationships....

---

old salt (noun)

A man who serves as a sailor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old salt."
- The article explained what "old salt" means with a simple example.

---

opposition (noun)

The act of hostile groups opposing each other.

- The invaders encountered stiff opposition.
- Despite opposition from the newspapers he went ahead.

---

public relations person (noun)

A person employed to establish and promote a favorable relationship with the public.

- The article explained what "public relations person" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "public relations person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

representative (noun)

An item of information that is typical of a class or group.

- The article explained what "representative" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "representative" to mean an item of information that is typical of a class....

---

school newspaper (noun)

A newspaper written and published by students in a school.

- They discussed "school newspaper" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "school newspaper" because he had never seen it before.

---

shift (noun)

The act of moving from one place to another.

- His constant shifting disrupted the class.
- Understanding "shift" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

waste of material (noun)

A useless consumption of material.

- He looked up "waste of material" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "waste of material" to mean a useless consumption of material.

weird sister (noun)

(Norse mythology) any of the three goddesses of destiny; identified with Anglo-Saxon Wyrd; similar to Greek Moirae and Roman Parcae.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weird sister."
- The article explained what "weird sister" means with a simple example.

youth culture (noun)

Young adults (a generational unit) considered as a cultural class or subculture.

- They discussed "youth culture" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "youth culture" to mean young adults (a generational unit) considered as a....

active air defense (noun)

Air defense by the use aircraft or missiles or artillery or electronic countermeasures.

- In class, the teacher used "active air defense" to mean air defense by the use aircraft or missiles or....
- The article explained what "active air defense" means with a simple example.

ad campaign (noun)

An organized program of advertisements.

- They discussed "ad campaign" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ad campaign" because he had never seen it before.

bag lady (noun)

A homeless woman who carries all her possessions with her in shopping bags.

- In class, the teacher used "bag lady" to mean a homeless woman who carries all her possessions....
- The article explained what "bag lady" means with a simple example.

beauty treatment (noun)

Enhancement of someone's personal beauty.

- In class, the teacher used "beauty treatment" to mean enhancement of someone's personal beauty.
- He looked up "beauty treatment" because he had never seen it before.

bringing close together (noun)

The act of bringing near or bringing together especially the cut edges of tissue.

- Understanding "bringing close together" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bringing close together" during the group presentation.

candidates (noun)

A politician who is running for public office.

- Understanding "candidates" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "candidates" to mean a politician who is running for public office.

civil authority (noun)

A person who exercises authority over civilian affairs.

- Understanding "civil authority" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "civil authority" means with a simple example.

civil engineering (noun)

The branch of engineering concerned with the design and construction of such public works as dams or bridges.

- Understanding "civil engineering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "civil engineering" to mean the branch of engineering concerned with the design....

combat (noun)

The act of fighting; any contest or struggle.

- In class, the teacher used "combat" to mean the act of fighting; any contest or struggle.
- Understanding "combat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

commercial artist (noun)

An illustrator who is supported by advertising.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commercial artist."
- The article explained what "commercial artist" means with a simple example.

---

constitution (noun)

The act of forming or establishing something.

- The constitution of a PTA group last year.
- They discussed "constitution" during the group presentation.

---

consumer (noun)

A person who uses goods or services.

- In class, the teacher used "consumer" to mean a person who uses goods or services.
- The article explained what "consumer" means with a simple example.

---

crying (noun)

The process of shedding tears (usually accompanied by sobs or other inarticulate sounds).

- I hate to hear the crying of a child.
- He looked up "crying" because he had never seen it before.

---

drawing off (noun)

Act of getting or draining something such as electricity or a liquid from a source.

- The drawing of water from the well.
- The article explained what "drawing off" means with a simple example.

---

drivers (noun)

A golfer who hits the golf ball with a driver.

- They discussed "drivers" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "drivers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drug traffic (noun)

Traffic in illegal drugs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drug traffic."
- Understanding "drug traffic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

evil eye (noun)

A look that is believed to have the power of inflicting harm.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "evil eye."
- The article explained what "evil eye" means with a simple example.

---

fresh fish (noun)

Soldiers who are regarded as expendable in the face of artillery fire.

- He looked up "fresh fish" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fresh fish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

henry ii (noun)

King of France from 1547 to 1559; regained Calais from the English; husband of Catherine de Medicis and father of Charles IX (1519-1559).

- In class, the teacher used "henry ii" to mean king of france from 1547 to 1559; regained calais....
- He looked up "henry ii" because he had never seen it before.

---

hot-work steel (noun)

An alloy steel that remains hard at a red heat; used to make metal-cutting tools.

- Understanding "hot-work steel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hot-work steel" to mean an alloy steel that remains hard at a red heat;....

---

indian agent (noun)

A representative of the federal government to American Indian tribes (especially on Indian reservations).

- He looked up "indian agent" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "indian agent" during the group presentation.

---

industrial union (noun)

A labor union that admits all workers in a given industry irrespective of their craft.

- He looked up "industrial union" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "industrial union" to mean a labor union that admits all workers in a given....

---

labor movement (noun)

An organized attempt by workers to improve their status by united action (particularly via labor unions) or the leaders of this movement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labor movement."
- He looked up "labor movement" because he had never seen it before.

---

legal assistant (noun)

A person with specialized training who assists lawyers.

- They discussed "legal assistant" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "legal assistant" means with a simple example.

---

legal duty (noun)

Acts which the law requires be done or forborne.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal duty."
- He looked up "legal duty" because he had never seen it before.

---

legal transfer (noun)

The voluntary transfer of something (title or possession) from one party to another.

- Understanding "legal transfer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "legal transfer" means with a simple example.

---

manufacturing (noun)

The act of making something (a product) from raw materials.

- Manufacturing is vital to Great Britain.
- He looked up "manufacturing" because he had never seen it before.

---

mass murder (noun)

The savage and excessive killing of many people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mass murder."
- He looked up "mass murder" because he had never seen it before.

---

mess-up (noun)

Something badly botched or muddled.

- In class, the teacher used "mess-up" to mean something badly botched or muddled.
- The article explained what "mess-up" means with a simple example.

---

mining (noun)

The act of extracting ores or coal etc from the earth.

- In class, the teacher used "mining" to mean the act of extracting ores or coal etc from the earth.
- He looked up "mining" because he had never seen it before.

---

minister of religion (noun)

A person authorized to conduct religious worship.

- Clergymen are usually called ministers in Protestant churches.
- They discussed "minister of religion" during the group presentation.

---

old nick (noun)

(Judeo-Christian and Islamic religions) chief spirit of evil and adversary of God; tempter of mankind; master of Hell.

- He looked up "old nick" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "old nick" to mean (judeo-christian and islamic religions) chief....

---

part-singing (noun)

Singing with three or more voice parts.

- They discussed "part-singing" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "part-singing" means with a simple example.

---

partner in crime (noun)

Someone who assists in a plot.

- They discussed "partner in crime" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "partner in crime" because he had never seen it before.

---

partners (noun)

An associate in an activity or endeavor or sphere of common interest.

- Sexual partners.
- The article explained what "partners" means with a simple example.

---

pattern (noun)

A customary way of operation or behavior.

- They changed their dietary pattern.
- A visual pattern must include not only objects but the spaces between them.

---

performing (noun)

The performance of a part or role in a drama.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "performing."
- Understanding "performing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pool player (noun)

Someone who shoots pool.

- They discussed "pool player" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pool player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

practice session (noun)

Systematic training by multiple repetitions.

- Practice makes perfect.
- The article explained what "practice session" means with a simple example.

---

premier (noun)

The person who is head of state (in several countries).

- In class, the teacher used "premier" to mean the person who is head of state (in several countries).
- The article explained what "premier" means with a simple example.

---

school bell (noun)

A bell rung to announce beginning or ending of class.

- The article explained what "school bell" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "school bell" during the group presentation.

---

secret agent (noun)

A person secretly employed in espionage for a government.

- They discussed "secret agent" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "secret agent" means with a simple example.

---

security measures (noun)

Measures taken as a precaution against theft or espionage or sabotage etc.

- Military security has been stepped up since the recent uprising.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "security measures."

---

self-abuse (noun)

Manual stimulation of your own genital organ for sexual pleasure.

- The article explained what "self-abuse" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "self-abuse" to mean manual stimulation of your own genital organ for....

---

sexual congress (noun)

The act of sexual procreation between a man and a woman; the man's penis is inserted into the woman's vagina and excited until orgasm and ejaculation occur.

- He looked up "sexual congress" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sexual congress."

---

sleeping (noun)

The suspension of consciousness and decrease in metabolic rate.

- The article explained what "sleeping" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sleeping" during the group presentation.

---

tool (noun)

The means whereby some act is accomplished.

- Science has given us new tools to fight disease.
- Understanding "tool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

turkey (noun)

A person who does something thoughtless or annoying.

- The first experiment was a real turkey.
- He looked up "turkey" because he had never seen it before.

---

victim (noun)

An unfortunate person who suffers from some adverse circumstance.

- He looked up "victim" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "victim" to mean an unfortunate person who suffers from some adverse....

---

victims (noun)

An unfortunate person who suffers from some adverse circumstance.

- They discussed "victims" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "victims" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

waste of effort (noun)

A useless effort.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "waste of effort."
- Understanding "waste of effort" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

work load (noun)

Work that a person is expected to do in a specified time.

- They discussed "work load" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "work load."

---

academic year (noun)

The period of time each year when the school is open and people are studying.

- In class, the teacher used "academic year" to mean the period of time each year when the school is....
- He looked up "academic year" because he had never seen it before.

---

care delivery (noun)

The provision of health care.

- The article explained what "care delivery" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "care delivery" to mean the provision of health care.

---

class struggle (noun)

Conflict between social or economic classes (especially between the capitalist and proletariat classes).

- The article explained what "class struggle" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "class struggle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

creative person (noun)

A person whose creative work shows sensitivity and imagination.

- He looked up "creative person" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "creative person" during the group presentation.

cross-reference (noun)

A reference at one place in a work to information at another place in the same work.

- In class, the teacher used "cross-reference" to mean a reference at one place in a work to information....
- He looked up "cross-reference" because he had never seen it before.

cultural movement (noun)

A group of people working together to advance certain cultural goals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cultural movement."
- He looked up "cultural movement" because he had never seen it before.

day shift (noun)

The work shift during the day (as 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.).

- He looked up "day shift" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "day shift" to mean the work shift during the day (as 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.).

deputy (noun)

An assistant with power to act when his superior is absent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deputy."
- The article explained what "deputy" means with a simple example.

doctors (noun)

A person who holds Ph.D. degree (or the equivalent) from an academic institution.

- The Doctors of the Church greatly influenced Christian thought down to the late Middle Ages.
- He looked up "doctors" because he had never seen it before.

economy of scale (noun)

The saving in cost of production that is due to mass production.

- They discussed "economy of scale" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "economy of scale."

error (noun)

A wrong action attributable to bad judgment or ignorance or inattention.

- She was quick to point out my errors.
- The book was full of errors.

french canadian (noun)

A Canadian descended from early French settlers and whose native language is French.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french canadian."
- The article explained what "french canadian" means with a simple example.

friendly fire (noun)

Fire that injures or kills an ally.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "friendly fire."
- He looked up "friendly fire" because he had never seen it before.

golden boy (noun)

A man who is unusually successful at an early age.

- They discussed "golden boy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "golden boy" means with a simple example.

heart surgery (noun)

Any surgical procedure involving the heart.

- They discussed "heart surgery" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heart surgery."

---

jr (noun)

A son who has the same first name as his father.

- He looked up "jr" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jr."

---

labor coach (noun)

An assistant (often the father of the soon-to-be-born child) who provides support for a woman in labor by encouraging her to use techniques learned in childbirth-preparation classes.

- Understanding "labor coach" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "labor coach" to mean an assistant (often the father of the....

---

labor contract (noun)

Contract between labor and management governing wages and benefits and working conditions.

- In class, the teacher used "labor contract" to mean contract between labor and management governing....
- He looked up "labor contract" because he had never seen it before.

---

labor leader (noun)

A leader of a labor movement.

- They discussed "labor leader" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "labor leader" because he had never seen it before.

---

labor secretary (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Labor.

- The post of Labor Secretary was created in 1913.
- The first Labor Secretary was William B. Wilson who was appointed by President Wilson.

---

maintenance (noun)

The act of sustaining life by food or providing a means of subsistence.

- Unlike champerty, criminal maintenance does not necessarily involve personal profit.
- The article explained what "maintenance" means with a simple example.

---

major surgery (noun)

Any surgical procedure that involves anesthesia or respiratory assistance.

- He looked up "major surgery" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "major surgery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mate (noun)

The partner of an animal (especially a sexual partner).

- He loved the mare and all her mates.
- Camels hate leaving their mates.

---

navy man (noun)

A serviceman in the navy.

- Understanding "navy man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "navy man" because he had never seen it before.

---

practices (noun)

A customary way of operation or behavior.

- He looked up "practices" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "practices."

---

public assistance (noun)

Governmental provision of economic assistance to persons in need.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public assistance."

- Understanding "public assistance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

quick fix (noun)

Hurried repair.

- In class, the teacher used "quick fix" to mean hurried repair.
- Understanding "quick fix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reasonable care (noun)

The care that a reasonable man would exercise under the circumstances; the standard for determining legal duty.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reasonable care."
- He looked up "reasonable care" because he had never seen it before.

---

relief (noun)

The act of freeing a city or town that has been besieged.

- He asked for troops for the relief of Atlanta.
- As he heard the news he was suddenly flooded with relief.

---

resistance (noun)

The military action of resisting the enemy's advance.

- The enemy offered little resistance.
- He encountered a general feeling of resistance from many citizens.

---

retail (noun)

The selling of goods to consumers; usually in small quantities and not for resale.

- They discussed "retail" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "retail" because he had never seen it before.

---

sea-duty (noun)

Naval service aboard a ship at sea.

- Understanding "sea-duty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sea-duty" during the group presentation.

---

secretary of labor (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Labor.

- The post of Labor Secretary was created in 1913.
- The first Labor Secretary was William B. Wilson who was appointed by President Wilson.

---

serving girl (noun)

A girl who is a servant.

- He looked up "serving girl" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "serving girl."

---

stage crew (noun)

Crew of workers who move scenery or handle properties in a theatrical production.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stage crew."
- The article explained what "stage crew" means with a simple example.

---

state senator (noun)

A member of a state senate.

- The article explained what "state senator" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "state senator" to mean a member of a state senate.

---

sub-test (noun)

One of a battery of related tests.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sub-test."
- He looked up "sub-test" because he had never seen it before.

---

third-class mail (noun)

Mail consisting of printed matter qualifying for reduced postal rates.

- The article explained what "third-class mail" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "third-class mail" to mean mail consisting of printed matter qualifying for....

---

tour guide (noun)

A guide who leads others on a tour.

- Understanding "tour guide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tour guide."

---

work shift (noun)

The time period during which you are at work.

- They discussed "work shift" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "work shift" means with a simple example.

---

working papers (noun)

Records kept of activities involved in carrying out a project.

- The auditor was required to produce his working papers.
- In class, the teacher used "working papers" to mean records kept of activities involved in carrying out....

---

writers (noun)

A person who is able to write and has written something.

- He looked up "writers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "writers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

youth movement (noun)

Political or religious or social reform movement or agitation consisting chiefly of young people.

- In class, the teacher used "youth movement" to mean political or religious or social reform movement or....
- The article explained what "youth movement" means with a simple example.

---

adult male (noun)

An adult person who is male (as opposed to a woman).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adult male."
- He looked up "adult male" because he had never seen it before.

---

art editor (noun)

An editor who is responsible for illustrations and layouts in printed matter.

- He looked up "art editor" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "art editor" during the group presentation.

---

back circle (noun)

A feat in which an acrobat arches the back from a prone position and bends the knees until the toes touch the head.

- The article explained what "back circle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "back circle" to mean a feat in which an acrobat arches the back from a....

---

battle of wake (noun)

In December 1941 the island was captured by the Japanese after a gallant last-ditch stand by a few hundred United States marines.

- They discussed "battle of wake" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "battle of wake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

big cheese (noun)

An important influential person.

- He thinks he's a big shot.
- She's a big deal in local politics.

---

case load (noun)

The number of cases handled in a given period of time (as by a court or agency).

- Understanding "case load" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "case load" to mean the number of cases handled in a given period of....

---

championship (noun)

The act of providing approval and support.

- They discussed "championship" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "championship" to mean the act of providing approval and support.

---

client (noun)

A person who seeks the advice of a lawyer.

- The article explained what "client" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "client" to mean a person who seeks the advice of a lawyer.

---

close supporting fire (noun)

Fire on enemy troops or weapons or positions that are near the supported unit and are the most immediate and serious threat to it.

- They discussed "close supporting fire" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "close supporting fire" means with a simple example.

---

da (noun)

An official prosecutor for a judicial district.

- They discussed "da" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "da" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

democrats (noun)

A member of the Democratic Party.

- Understanding "democrats" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "democrats" during the group presentation.

---

direct marketing (noun)

Marketing via a promotion delivered directly to the individual prospective customer.

- The article explained what "direct marketing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "direct marketing" to mean marketing via a promotion delivered directly to the....

---

first mate (noun)

The officer below the master on a commercial ship.

- They discussed "first mate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "first mate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flying visit (noun)

A visit that last for only a very short time.

- He wanted to hear all about my flying visit to his old stamping grounds.
- He looked up "flying visit" because he had never seen it before.

---

football hero (noun)

A football player who has achieved a reputation for success.

- They discussed "football hero" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "football hero" to mean a football player who has achieved a reputation for....

---

general delivery (noun)

The part of a post office that handles mail for persons who call for it.

- Understanding "general delivery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "general delivery" because he had never seen it before.

---

mess around (verb)

Do random, unplanned work or activities or spend time idly.

- He did not know how to use "mess around" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "mess around" and when to wait.

national assistance (noun)

Benefits paid to bring incomes up to minimum levels established by law.

- In class, the teacher used "national assistance" to mean benefits paid to bring incomes up to minimum levels....
- The article explained what "national assistance" means with a simple example.

politicians (noun)

A leader engaged in civil administration.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "politicians."
- He looked up "politicians" because he had never seen it before.

program trading (noun)

A trading technique involving large blocks of stock with trades triggered by computer programs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "program trading."
- The article explained what "program trading" means with a simple example.

sexual activity (noun)

Activities associated with sexual intercourse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sexual activity."
- The article explained what "sexual activity" means with a simple example.

sight (noun)

The act of looking or seeing or observing.

- The sight of his wife brought him back to reality.
- The train was an unexpected sight.

tight end (noun)

(football) an offensive end who lines up close to the tackle.

- They discussed "tight end" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tight end" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bar fly (noun)

A drinker who frequents bars.

- In class, the teacher used "bar fly" to mean a drinker who frequents bars.
- He looked up "bar fly" because he had never seen it before.

causing (noun)

The act of causing something to happen.

- Understanding "causing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "causing."

civil rights leader (noun)

A leader of the political movement dedicated to securing equal opportunity for members of minority groups.

- They discussed "civil rights leader" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "civil rights leader" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

discussion section (noun)

A small class of students who are part of a larger course but are taught separately.

- A graduate student taught sections for the professor's lecture course.
- The article explained what "discussion section" means with a simple example.

district attorney (noun)

An official prosecutor for a judicial district.

- In class, the teacher used "district attorney" to mean an official prosecutor for a judicial district.
- They discussed "district attorney" during the group presentation.

face saving (noun)

An act that avoids a loss of face (of dignity or prestige).

- They discussed "face saving" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "face saving."

---

hat (noun)

An informal term for a person's role.

- He took off his politician's hat and talked frankly.
- They discussed "hat" during the group presentation.

---

holy joe (noun)

A chaplain in one of the military services.

- Understanding "holy joe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "holy joe" because he had never seen it before.

---

holy spirit (noun)

The third person in the Trinity; Jesus promised the Apostles that he would send the Holy Spirit after his Crucifixion and Resurrection; it came on Pentecost.

- The article explained what "holy spirit" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "holy spirit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

index case (noun)

The earliest documented case of a disease that is included in an epidemiological study.

- Understanding "index case" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "index case" to mean the earliest documented case of a disease that is....

---

intelligence officer (noun)

A person secretly employed in espionage for a government.

- They discussed "intelligence officer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "intelligence officer" to mean a person secretly employed in espionage for a....

---

irish people (noun)

People of Ireland or of Irish extraction.

- Understanding "irish people" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "irish people" to mean people of ireland or of irish extraction.

---

iron lady (noun)

British stateswoman; first woman to serve as Prime Minister (born in 1925).

- He looked up "iron lady" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iron lady."

---

law of motion (noun)

One of three basic laws of classical mechanics.

- The article explained what "law of motion" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "law of motion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

maintenance man (noun)

A skilled worker whose job is to repair things.

- The article explained what "maintenance man" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "maintenance man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

night shift (noun)

The work shift during the night (as midnight to 8 a.m.).

- Understanding "night shift" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "night shift" during the group presentation.

---

open frame (noun)

Any frame in which a bowler fails to make a strike or spare.

- The break in the eighth frame cost him the match.

- They discussed "open frame" during the group presentation.

---

passing shot (noun)

A tennis return that passes an opponent who has approached the net.

- They discussed "passing shot" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "passing shot" means with a simple example.

---

princess (noun)

A female member of a royal family other than the queen (especially the daughter of a sovereign).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "princess."
- Understanding "princess" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reform (noun)

A campaign aimed to correct abuses or malpractices.

- The reforms he proposed were too radical for the politicians.
- Justice was for sale before the reform of the law courts.

---

retirement (noun)

Withdrawal for prayer and study and meditation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "retirement."
- The article explained what "retirement" means with a simple example.

---

sleeping around (noun)

Indulging in promiscuous (casual and indiscriminate) sexual relations.

- In class, the teacher used "sleeping around" to mean indulging in promiscuous (casual and....
- The article explained what "sleeping around" means with a simple example.

---

social assistance (noun)

Benefits paid to bring incomes up to minimum levels established by law.

- The article explained what "social assistance" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social assistance."

---

united mine workers of america (noun)

An industrial union of mine workers in North America.

- Understanding "united mine workers of america" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "united mine workers of america" means with a simple example.

---

vice president of the united states (noun)

The vice president of the United States who presides over the United States Senate.

- He looked up "vice president of the united states" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vice president of the united states."

---

attorney general of the united states (noun)

The position of the head of the Justice Department and the chief law enforcement officer of the United States.

- The post of Attorney General was created in 1789.
- They discussed "attorney general of the united states" during the group presentation.

---

captain john smith (noun)

English explorer who helped found the colony at Jamestown, Virginia; was said to have been saved by Pocahontas (1580-1631).

- He looked up "captain john smith" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "captain john smith."

---

catholic school (noun)

A parochial school maintained by the Catholic Church.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "catholic school."
- They discussed "catholic school" during the group presentation.

---

character actor (noun)

An actor who specializes in playing supporting roles.

- He looked up "character actor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "character actor."

class-action suit (noun)

A lawsuit brought by a representative member of a large group of people on behalf of all members of the group.

- He looked up "class-action suit" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "class-action suit" to mean a lawsuit brought by a representative member of a....

cost cutting (noun)

The act of cutting costs.

- The article explained what "cost cutting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cost cutting" to mean the act of cutting costs.

criminal congress (noun)

Forbidden or tabu sexual intercourse between individuals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "criminal congress."
- The article explained what "criminal congress" means with a simple example.

debut (noun)

The act of beginning something new.

- They looked forward to the debut of their new product line.
- He looked up "debut" because he had never seen it before.

edward (noun)

Third son of Elizabeth II (born in 1964).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edward."
- Understanding "edward" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

edward i (noun)

King of England from 1272 to 1307; conquered Wales (1239-1307).

- In class, the teacher used "edward i" to mean king of england from 1272 to 1307; conquered wales....
- They discussed "edward i" during the group presentation.

experts (noun)

A person with special knowledge or ability who performs skillfully.

- They discussed "experts" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "experts."

grab (noun)

The act of catching an object with the hands.

- He made a grab for the ball before it landed.
- He looked up "grab" because he had never seen it before.

henry sweet (noun)

English phonetician; one of the founders of modern phonetics (1845-1912).

- In class, the teacher used "henry sweet" to mean english phonetician; one of the founders of modern....
- The article explained what "henry sweet" means with a simple example.

introduction (noun)

The act of starting something for the first time; introducing something new.

- They resisted the introduction of impractical alternatives.
- In class, the teacher used "introduction" to mean the act of starting something for the first time;....

joseph (noun)

Leader of the Nez Perce in their retreat from United States troops (1840-1904).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joseph."
- They discussed "joseph" during the group presentation.

---

labor agreement (noun)

Contract between labor and management governing wages and benefits and working conditions.

- In class, the teacher used "labor agreement" to mean contract between labor and management governing....
- He looked up "labor agreement" because he had never seen it before.

---

legal holiday (noun)

Authorized by law and limiting work or official business.

- They discussed "legal holiday" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "legal holiday" means with a simple example.

---

license (noun)

The act of giving a formal (usually written) authorization.

- When liberty becomes license dictatorship is near.
- The intolerable license with which the newspapers break...the rules of decorum.

---

max born (noun)

British nuclear physicist (born in Germany) honored for his contributions to quantum mechanics (1882-1970).

- They discussed "max born" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "max born" because he had never seen it before.

---

mission impossible (noun)

An extremely dangerous or difficult mission.

- The article explained what "mission impossible" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mission impossible" to mean an extremely dangerous or difficult mission.

---

old catholic (noun)

A member of the church formed in the 19th century by German Catholics who refused to accept the infallibility of the Pope.

- Understanding "old catholic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "old catholic" to mean a member of the church formed in the 19th century....

---

pink (noun)

A person with mildly leftist political views.

- Understanding "pink" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pink" because he had never seen it before.

---

president clinton (noun)

42nd President of the United States (1946-).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "president clinton."
- He looked up "president clinton" because he had never seen it before.

---

principal (noun)

The educator who has executive authority for a school.

- She sent unruly pupils to see the principal.
- Understanding "principal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

representatives (noun)

An item of information that is typical of a class or group.

- He looked up "representatives" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "representatives" during the group presentation.

---

sea lawyer (noun)

An argumentative and contentious seaman.

- The article explained what "sea lawyer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sea lawyer" during the group presentation.

shipping (noun)

The commercial enterprise of moving goods and materials.

- Understanding "shipping" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shipping."

singer (noun)

United States inventor of an improved chain-stitch sewing machine (1811-1875).

- In class, the teacher used "singer" to mean united states inventor of an improved chain-stitch....
- They discussed "singer" during the group presentation.

smoking (noun)

The act of smoking tobacco or other substances.

- Smoking stinks.
- He looked up "smoking" because he had never seen it before.

technical analysis (noun)

(stock exchange) analysis of past price changes in the hope of forecasting future price changes.

- The article explained what "technical analysis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "technical analysis" to mean (stock exchange) analysis of past price changes in....

united states attorney general (noun)

The person who holds the position of secretary of the Justice Department.

- Edmund Randolph was the first Attorney General, appointed by President Washington.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states attorney general."

upper-middle-class (adjective)

Occupying the upper part of the middle socioeconomic range in a society.

- The speaker chose "upper-middle-class" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "upper-middle-class"? Explain why.

witness (noun)

A close observer; someone who looks at something (such as an exhibition of some kind).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "witness."
- Understanding "witness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

aim (noun)

The action of directing something at an object.

- He took aim and fired.
- It was created with the conscious aim of answering immediate needs.

american revolution (noun)

The revolution of the American Colonies against Great Britain; 1775-1783.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american revolution."
- He looked up "american revolution" because he had never seen it before.

battle of britain (noun)

The prolonged bombardment of British cities by the German Luftwaffe during World War II and the aerial combat that accompanied it.

- Understanding "battle of britain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "battle of britain" means with a simple example.

carrying into action (noun)

The act of performing; of doing something successfully; using knowledge as distinguished from merely possessing it.

- The article explained what "carrying into action" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carrying into action."

chief executive officer (noun)

The corporate executive responsible for the operations of the firm; reports to a board of directors; may appoint other managers (including a president).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chief executive officer."
- The article explained what "chief executive officer" means with a simple example.

color guard (noun)

A ceremonial escort for the (regimental) colors.

- Understanding "color guard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "color guard."

commander (noun)

An officer in command of a military unit.

- Understanding "commander" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "commander" to mean an officer in command of a military unit.

comparison (noun)

The act of examining resemblances.

- They made a comparison of noise levels.
- The fractions selected for comparison must require pupils to consider both numerator and denominator.

covered option (noun)

A put or call option backed by the shares underlying the option.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "covered option."
- Understanding "covered option" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

directed study (noun)

A course of study that is supervised and controlled by a specialist in the subject.

- He registered for directed study.
- He got credit for directed study.

double entry (noun)

Bookkeeper debits the transaction to one account and credits it to another.

- They discussed "double entry" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double entry."

dumb show (noun)

A performance using gestures and body movements without words.

- They discussed "dumb show" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dumb show" means with a simple example.

elected official (noun)

Official who won the office in a free election.

- The article explained what "elected official" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elected official."

estate agent (noun)

A person who is authorized to act as an agent for the sale of land.

- In England they call a real estate agent a land agent.
- They discussed "estate agent" during the group presentation.

fat cat (noun)

A wealthy and privileged person.

- They discussed "fat cat" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fat cat."

field-grade officer (noun)

An officer holding the rank of major or lieutenant colonel or colonel.

- In class, the teacher used "field-grade officer" to mean an officer holding the rank of major or lieutenant....

- He looked up "field-grade officer" because he had never seen it before.

george fox (noun)

English religious leader who founded the Society of Friends (1624-1691).

- Understanding "george fox" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "george fox" means with a simple example.

joint author (noun)

A writer who collaborates with others in writing something.

- The article explained what "joint author" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "joint author" to mean a writer who collaborates with others in writing....

letting down (noun)

The act of causing something to move to a lower level.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "letting down."
- Understanding "letting down" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

method acting (noun)

An acting technique introduced by Stanislavsky in which the actor recalls emotions or reactions from his or her own life and uses them to identify with the character being portrayed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "method acting."
- He looked up "method acting" because he had never seen it before.

motion study (noun)

An analysis of a specific job in an effort to find the most efficient method in terms of time and effort.

- The article explained what "motion study" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "motion study" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

north american free trade agreement (noun)

An agreement for free trade between the United States and Canada and Mexico; became effective in 1994 for ten years.

- They discussed "north american free trade agreement" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "north american free trade agreement" to mean an agreement for free trade between the united....

recording (noun)

The act of making a record (especially an audio record).

- She watched the recording from a sound-proof booth.
- The article explained what "recording" means with a simple example.

robert william service (noun)

Canadian writer (born in England) who wrote about life in the Yukon Territory (1874-1958).

- Understanding "robert william service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "robert william service" during the group presentation.

selling agent (noun)

Someone who sells goods (on commission) for others.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "selling agent."
- They discussed "selling agent" during the group presentation.

sex bomb (noun)

A young woman who is thought to have sex appeal.

- He looked up "sex bomb" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sex bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

upper-lower-class (adjective)

Occupying the upper part of the lower class.

- A "upper-lower-class" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "upper-lower-class" when it is occupying the upper part of the lower class.

urban v (noun)

French pope from 1362 to 1370 who tried to reestablish the papacy in Rome but in 1367 returned to Avignon hoping to end the war between France and England; canonized in 1870 (1310-1370).

- Understanding "urban v" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "urban v."

---

write-in candidate (noun)

A candidate for public office whose name does not appear on the ballot and so must be written on the ballot by the voters.

- Understanding "write-in candidate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "write-in candidate" during the group presentation.

---

assistant professor (noun)

A teacher or lower rank than an associate professor.

- The article explained what "assistant professor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "assistant professor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

attempts (noun)

Earnest and conscientious activity intended to do or accomplish something.

- In class, the teacher used "attempts" to mean earnest and conscientious activity intended to do....
- He looked up "attempts" because he had never seen it before.

---

bridge partner (noun)

One of a pair of bridge players who are on the same side of the game.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bridge partner."
- The article explained what "bridge partner" means with a simple example.

---

burning (noun)

The act of burning something.

- The burning of leaves was prohibited by a town ordinance.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "burning."

---

champions (noun)

A person who backs a politician or a team etc.

- Understanding "champions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "champions" during the group presentation.

---

civil suit (noun)

A lawsuit alleging violations of civil law by the defendant.

- In class, the teacher used "civil suit" to mean a lawsuit alleging violations of civil law by the....
- Understanding "civil suit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

consumer research (noun)

Marketing research that yields information about the motives and needs of different classes of consumers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "consumer research."
- He looked up "consumer research" because he had never seen it before.

---

convention (noun)

Something regarded as a normative example.

- The convention of not naming the main character.
- Political convention.

---

dirty old man (noun)

A middle-aged man with lecherous inclinations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dirty old man."
- He looked up "dirty old man" because he had never seen it before.

---

dirty war (noun)

An offensive conducted by secret police or the military of a regime against revolutionary and terrorist insurgents and marked by the use of kidnapping and torture and murder with civilians often being the victims.

- Thousands of people disappeared and were killed during Argentina's dirty war in the late 1970s.
- In class, the teacher used "dirty war" to mean an offensive conducted by secret police or the....

editor in chief (noun)

A person responsible for the editorial aspects of publication; the person who determines the final content of a text (especially of a newspaper or magazine).

- The article explained what "editor in chief" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "editor in chief."

employee (noun)

A worker who is hired to perform a job.

- In class, the teacher used "employee" to mean a worker who is hired to perform a job.
- The article explained what "employee" means with a simple example.

employment office (noun)

An agency that finds people to fill particular jobs or finds jobs for unemployed people.

- He looked up "employment office" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "employment office."

engineer (noun)

A person who uses scientific knowledge to solve practical problems.

- They discussed "engineer" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "engineer" means with a simple example.

finance minister (noun)

The minister responsible for state finances.

- They discussed "finance minister" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "finance minister" because he had never seen it before.

hand-to-hand struggle (noun)

The act of engaging in close hand-to-hand combat.

- Understanding "hand-to-hand struggle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "hand-to-hand struggle" means with a simple example.

hanging (noun)

The act of suspending something (hanging it from above so it moves freely).

- There was a small ceremony for the hanging of the portrait.
- The cold castle walls were covered with hangings.

intelligence operation (noun)

The operation of gathering information about an enemy.

- Understanding "intelligence operation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intelligence operation."

irish person (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Ireland.

- Understanding "irish person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "irish person" means with a simple example.

joe louis (noun)

United States prizefighter who was world heavyweight champion for 12 years (1914-1981).

- In class, the teacher used "joe louis" to mean united states prizefighter who was world....
- The article explained what "joe louis" means with a simple example.

least resistance (noun)

The least effortful way to do something.

- He looked up "least resistance" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "least resistance" to mean the least effortful way to do something.

letter writer (noun)

Someone who communicates by means of letters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "letter writer."
- The article explained what "letter writer" means with a simple example.

lock out (verb)

Prevent employees from working during a strike.

- In everyday English, people use "lock out" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "lock out" in real sentences.

minister of finance (noun)

The minister responsible for state finances.

- He looked up "minister of finance" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "minister of finance" during the group presentation.

numbers pool (noun)

An illegal daily lottery.

- Understanding "numbers pool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "numbers pool" means with a simple example.

on approval (adverb)

For examination (with an option to buy).

- They took the VCR on approval.
- He answered "on approval," which changed the tone of the conversation.

open-heart surgery (noun)

Heart surgery in which the rib cage is spread open, the heart is stopped and blood is detoured through a heart-lung machine while a heart valve or coronary artery is surgically repaired.

- He looked up "open-heart surgery" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "open-heart surgery."

permission (noun)

The act of giving a formal (usually written) authorization.

- He asked permission to leave.
- They discussed "permission" during the group presentation.

personnel office (noun)

The department responsible for hiring and training and placing employees and for setting policies for personnel management.

- Understanding "personnel office" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "personnel office" because he had never seen it before.

porn (noun)

Creative activity (writing or pictures or films etc.) of no literary or artistic value other than to stimulate sexual desire.

- The article explained what "porn" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "porn."

reform school (noun)

Correctional institution for the detention and discipline and training of young or first offenders.

- They discussed "reform school" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "reform school" because he had never seen it before.

regulations (noun)

The act of controlling or directing according to rule.

- Fiscal regulations are in the hands of politicians.
- The article explained what "regulations" means with a simple example.

republicans (noun)

An advocate of a republic (usually in opposition to a monarchy).

- In class, the teacher used "republicans" to mean an advocate of a republic (usually in opposition to....
- The article explained what "republicans" means with a simple example.

---

scientists (noun)

A person with advanced knowledge of one or more sciences.

- They discussed "scientists" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "scientists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

secondary school (noun)

A school for students intermediate between elementary school and college; usually grades 9 to 12.

- He looked up "secondary school" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secondary school."

---

single combat (noun)

A fight between two people.

- In all armies there were officers who needed to prove their bravery by single combat.
- Understanding "single combat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

solutions (noun)

The successful action of solving a problem.

- In class, the teacher used "solutions" to mean the successful action of solving a problem.
- They discussed "solutions" during the group presentation.

---

sons (noun)

The divine word of God; the second person in the Trinity (incarnate in Jesus).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sons."
- Understanding "sons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sports writer (noun)

A journalist who writes about sports.

- He looked up "sports writer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sports writer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stations (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) a devotion consisting of fourteen prayers said before a series of fourteen pictures or carvings representing successive incidents during Jesus' passage from Pilate's house to his crucifixion at Calvary.

- The article explained what "stations" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stations" during the group presentation.

---

stephen (noun)

English writer (1832-1904).

- The article explained what "stephen" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stephen" to mean english writer (1832-1904).

---

time and motion study (noun)

An analysis of a specific job in an effort to find the most efficient method in terms of time and effort.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "time and motion study."
- He looked up "time and motion study" because he had never seen it before.

---

time-and-motion study (noun)

An analysis of a specific job in an effort to find the most efficient method in terms of time and effort.

- The article explained what "time-and-motion study" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "time-and-motion study" to mean an analysis of a specific job in an effort to find....

---

time-motion study (noun)

An analysis of a specific job in an effort to find the most efficient method in terms of time and effort.

- They discussed "time-motion study" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "time-motion study."

urban ii (noun)

French pope from 1088 to 1099 whose sermons called for the First Crusade (1042-1099).

- He looked up "urban ii" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "urban ii."

william henry (noun)

English chemist who studied the quantities of gas absorbed by water at different temperatures and under different pressures (1775-1836).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "william henry."
- He looked up "william henry" because he had never seen it before.

appointment (noun)

The job to which you are (or hope to be) appointed.

- He applied for an appointment in the treasury.
- The appointment had to be approved by the whole committee.

authors (noun)

Someone who originates or causes or initiates something.

- In class, the teacher used "authors" to mean someone who originates or causes or initiates something.
- The article explained what "authors" means with a simple example.

bad hat (noun)

Someone who deliberately stirs up trouble.

- Understanding "bad hat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bad hat" because he had never seen it before.

bridge agent (noun)

An operative who acts as a courier or go-between from a case officer to a secret agent in a hostile area.

- He looked up "bridge agent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bridge agent."

contemporary (noun)

A person of nearly the same age as another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "contemporary."
- He looked up "contemporary" because he had never seen it before.

criticism (noun)

A serious examination and judgment of something.

- Constructive criticism is always appreciated.
- The senator received severe criticism from his opponent.

davis (noun)

United States jazz musician; noted for his trumpet style (1926-1991).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "davis."
- He looked up "davis" because he had never seen it before.

defense attorney (noun)

The lawyer representing the defendant.

- He looked up "defense attorney" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defense attorney."

delivery boy (noun)

Someone employed to make deliveries.

- In class, the teacher used "delivery boy" to mean someone employed to make deliveries.
- Understanding "delivery boy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

double fault (noun)

(tennis) two successive faults in serving resulting in the loss of the point.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double fault."
- The article explained what "double fault" means with a simple example.

---

engine driver (noun)

The operator of a railway locomotive.

- In class, the teacher used "engine driver" to mean the operator of a railway locomotive.
- The article explained what "engine driver" means with a simple example.

---

family therapy (noun)

Any of several therapeutic approaches in which a family is treated as a whole.

- They discussed "family therapy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "family therapy."

---

formation (noun)

The act of forming or establishing something.

- A defensive formation.
- A formation of planes.

---

gender role (noun)

The overt expression of attitudes that indicate to others the degree of your maleness or femaleness.

- Your gender role is the public expression of your gender identity.
- The article explained what "gender role" means with a simple example.

---

george iii (noun)

King of Great Britain and Ireland from 1760 to 1820; the American colonies were lost during his reign; he became insane in 1811 and his son (later George IV) acted as regent until 1820 (1738-1820).

- Understanding "george iii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "george iii" to mean king of great britain and ireland from 1760 to....

---

hard hat (noun)

A worker skilled in building offices or dwellings etc.

- Understanding "hard hat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hard hat" because he had never seen it before.

---

industrial workers of the world (noun)

A former international labor union and radical labor movement in the United States; founded in Chicago in 1905 and dedicated to the overthrow of capitalism; its membership declined after World War I.

- He looked up "industrial workers of the world" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "industrial workers of the world" to mean a former international labor union and radical....

---

john paul jones (noun)

American naval commander in the American Revolution (1747-1792).

- Understanding "john paul jones" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "john paul jones" during the group presentation.

---

junior (noun)

The younger of two persons.

- She is two years my junior.
- Look here, junior, it's none of your business.

---

marks (noun)

English businessman who created a retail chain (1888-1964).

- She made good marks in algebra.
- Some previous reader had covered the pages with dozens of marks.

---

monster (noun)

A person or animal that is markedly unusual or deformed.

- Understanding “monster” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “monster.”

---

native australian (noun)

A dark-skinned member of a race of people living in Australia when Europeans arrived.

- The article explained what “native australian” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “native australian” during the group presentation.

---

owner-driver (noun)

A motorist who owns the car that he/she drives.

- He looked up “owner-driver” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “owner-driver” to mean a motorist who owns the car that he/she drives.

---

phase ii (noun)

A clinical trial on more persons than in phase I; intended to evaluate the efficacy of a treatment for the condition it is intended to treat; possible side effects are monitored.

- The article explained what “phase ii” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “phase ii” to mean a clinical trial on more persons than in phase i;....

---

santa (noun)

The legendary patron saint of children; an imaginary being who is thought to bring presents to children at Christmas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “santa.”
- He looked up “santa” because he had never seen it before.

---

school principal (noun)

The educator who has executive authority for a school.

- She sent unruly pupils to see the principal.
- He looked up “school principal” because he had never seen it before.

---

scientific knowledge (noun)

Knowledge accumulated by systematic study and organized by general principles.

- Mathematics is the basis for much scientific knowledge.
- The article explained what “scientific knowledge” means with a simple example.

---

settlement (noun)

The act of colonizing; the establishment of colonies.

- They finally reached a settlement with the union.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “settlement.”

---

speaker (noun)

The presiding officer of a deliberative assembly.

- The leader of the majority party is the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
- The speaker at commencement.

---

vice crime (noun)

A vice that is illegal.

- They discussed “vice crime” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “vice crime” to mean a vice that is illegal.

---

visitors (noun)

Someone who visits.

- They discussed “visitors” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “visitors.”

---

wise man (noun)

A wise and trusted guide and advisor.

- Understanding “wise man” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “wise man” means with a simple example.

academic department (noun)

A division of a school that is responsible for a given subject.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "academic department."
- He looked up "academic department" because he had never seen it before.

academic term (noun)

The time during which a school holds classes.

- They had to shorten the school term.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "academic term."

account representative (noun)

Someone in charge of a client's account for an advertising agency or brokerage or other service business.

- He looked up "account representative" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "account representative" to mean someone in charge of a client's account for an....

american war of independence (noun)

The revolution of the American Colonies against Great Britain; 1775-1783.

- The article explained what "american war of independence" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american war of independence" to mean the revolution of the american colonies against....

blind person (noun)

A person with a severe visual impairment.

- He looked up "blind person" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "blind person" during the group presentation.

combined operation (noun)

A military operation carried out cooperatively by two or more allied nations or a military operation carried out by coordination of sea, land, and air forces.

- In class, the teacher used "combined operation" to mean a military operation carried out cooperatively by....
- He looked up "combined operation" because he had never seen it before.

deep supporting fire (noun)

Fire on objectives not in the immediate vicinity of your forces but with the objective of destroying enemy reserves and weapons and interfering with the enemy command and supply and communications.

- They discussed "deep supporting fire" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "deep supporting fire" means with a simple example.

defense lawyer (noun)

The lawyer representing the defendant.

- In class, the teacher used "defense lawyer" to mean the lawyer representing the defendant.
- He looked up "defense lawyer" because he had never seen it before.

edward white (noun)

United States jurist appointed chief justice of the United States Supreme Court in 1910 by President Taft; noted for his work on antitrust legislation (1845-1921).

- Understanding "edward white" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "edward white" means with a simple example.

eye surgery (noun)

Any surgical procedure involving the eyes.

- In class, the teacher used "eye surgery" to mean any surgical procedure involving the eyes.
- Understanding "eye surgery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

forward motion (noun)

The act of moving forward (as toward a goal).

- They discussed "forward motion" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "forward motion" because he had never seen it before.

group therapy (noun)

Psychotherapy in which a small group of individuals meet with a therapist; interactions among the members are considered to be therapeutic.

- He looked up "group therapy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "group therapy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

howard (noun)

English actor of stage and screen (1893-1943).

- The article explained what "howard" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "howard" during the group presentation.

james bond (noun)

British secret operative 007 in novels by Ian Fleming.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "james bond."
- They discussed "james bond" during the group presentation.

learned reaction (noun)

A reaction that has been acquired by learning.

- Understanding "learned reaction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "learned reaction."

lewis (noun)

United States rock star singer and pianist (born in 1935).

- Understanding "lewis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lewis" means with a simple example.

meetings (noun)

The social act of assembling for some common purpose.

- Understanding "meetings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "meetings" to mean the social act of assembling for some common purpose.

motor control (noun)

Control of muscles.

- In class, the teacher used "motor control" to mean control of muscles.
- He looked up "motor control" because he had never seen it before.

non-catholic (noun)

A religious person who is not a Catholic.

- The article explained what "non-catholic" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "non-catholic" during the group presentation.

offices (noun)

A religious rite or service prescribed by ecclesiastical authorities.

- The offices of the mass.
- The article explained what "offices" means with a simple example.

oil painting (noun)

The art or method of painting with oil paints.

- Understanding "oil painting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "oil painting" because he had never seen it before.

paul iii (noun)

Italian pope from 1534 to 1549 who excommunicated Henry VIII of England in 1538 and initiated the Council of Trent in 1545; was active in the Counter Reformation and promoted the Society of Jesus for this purpose (1468-1549).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paul iii."
- Understanding "paul iii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

personal representative (noun)

A person who manages the affairs of another.

- The article explained what "personal representative" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "personal representative" to mean a person who manages the affairs of another.

---

president wilson (noun)

28th President of the United States; led the United States in World War I and secured the formation of the League of Nations (1856-1924).

- In class, the teacher used "president wilson" to mean 28th president of the united states; led the united....
- The article explained what "president wilson" means with a simple example.

---

re-creation (noun)

The act of creating again.

- The article explained what "re-creation" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "re-creation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

real estate agent (noun)

A person who is authorized to act as an agent for the sale of land.

- In England they call a real estate agent a land agent.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "real estate agent."

---

relative (noun)

A person related by blood or marriage.

- Police are searching for relatives of the deceased.
- Understanding "relative" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rescue (noun)

Recovery or preservation from loss or danger.

- They discussed "rescue" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rescue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

robert scott (noun)

English explorer who reached the South Pole just a month after Amundsen; he and his party died on the return journey (1868-1912).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robert scott."
- He looked up "robert scott" because he had never seen it before.

---

sarah (noun)

(Old Testament) the wife of Abraham and mother of Isaac.

- They discussed "sarah" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sarah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sessions (noun)

United States composer who promoted 20th century music (1896-1985).

- They discussed "sessions" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sessions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

simon (noun)

One of the twelve Apostles (first century).

- He looked up "simon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "simon."

---

soft touch (noun)

A person who is gullible and easy to take advantage of.

- The article explained what "soft touch" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "soft touch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

strike leader (noun)

Someone who leads a strike.

- The article explained what "strike leader" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "strike leader" to mean someone who leads a strike.

---

tall order (noun)

A formidable task or requirement.

- Finishing in time was a tall order but we did it.
- They discussed "tall order" during the group presentation.

---

temporary (noun)

A worker (especially in an office) hired on a temporary basis.

- They discussed "temporary" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "temporary" means with a simple example.

---

trick (noun)

An attempt to get you to do something foolish or imprudent.

- That offer was a dirty trick.
- He played a trick on me.

---

war of american independence (noun)

The revolution of the American Colonies against Great Britain; 1775-1783.

- The article explained what "war of american independence" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "war of american independence" to mean the revolution of the american colonies against....

---

big wheel (noun)

An important influential person.

- He thinks he's a big shot.
- She's a big deal in local politics.

---

bill clinton (noun)

42nd President of the United States (1946-).

- He looked up "bill clinton" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bill clinton."

---

bone up (verb)

Study intensively, as before an exam.

- I had to bone up on my Latin verbs before the final exam.
- In everyday English, people use "bone up" when talking about this idea.

---

charles william post (noun)

United States manufacturer of breakfast cereals and Postum (1854-1914).

- The article explained what "charles william post" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charles william post."

---

communications technology (noun)

The activity of designing and constructing and maintaining communication systems.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "communications technology."
- They discussed "communications technology" during the group presentation.

---

dancing school (noun)

A school in which students learn to dance.

- In class, the teacher used "dancing school" to mean a school in which students learn to dance.
- The article explained what "dancing school" means with a simple example.

---

drug user (noun)

A person who takes drugs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drug user."
- He looked up "drug user" because he had never seen it before.

---

edward young (noun)

English poet (1683-1765).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edward young."
- He looked up "edward young" because he had never seen it before.

---

elizabeth (noun)

Daughter of George VI who became the Queen of England and Northern Ireland in 1952 on the death of her father (1926-).

- Elizabeth II is the head of state in Great Britain.
- He looked up "elizabeth" because he had never seen it before.

---

english revolution (noun)

The revolution against James II; there was little armed resistance to William and Mary in England although battles were fought in Scotland and Ireland (1688-1689).

- They discussed "english revolution" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english revolution."

---

fishing (noun)

The act of someone who fishes as a diversion.

- In class, the teacher used "fishing" to mean the act of someone who fishes as a diversion.
- The article explained what "fishing" means with a simple example.

---

golf player (noun)

Someone who plays the game of golf.

- They discussed "golf player" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golf player."

---

graduate school (noun)

A school in a university offering study leading to degrees beyond the bachelor's degree.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "graduate school."
- He looked up "graduate school" because he had never seen it before.

---

healthcare (noun)

The preservation of mental and physical health by preventing or treating illness through services offered by the health profession.

- The article explained what "healthcare" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "healthcare" to mean the preservation of mental and physical health by....

---

honor killing (noun)

An ancient tradition still sometimes observed; a male member of the family kills a female relative for tarnishing the family image.

- Understanding "honor killing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "honor killing" means with a simple example.

---

injured party (noun)

Someone injured or killed in an accident.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "injured party."
- He looked up "injured party" because he had never seen it before.

---

intelligence activity (noun)

The operation of gathering information about an enemy.

- He looked up "intelligence activity" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "intelligence activity" during the group presentation.

---

jews (noun)

A person belonging to the worldwide group claiming descent from Jacob (or converted to it) and connected by cultural or religious ties.

- The article explained what "jews" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jews" to mean a person belonging to the worldwide group claiming....

---

joining (noun)

The act of bringing two things into contact (especially for communication).

- The joining of hands around the table.
- In class, the teacher used "joining" to mean the act of bringing two things into contact....

joseph black (noun)

British chemist who identified carbon dioxide and who formulated the concepts of specific heat and latent heat (1728-1799).

- Understanding "joseph black" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "joseph black" to mean british chemist who identified carbon dioxide and....

junior high (noun)

A secondary school usually including 7th and 8th grades.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "junior high."
- Understanding "junior high" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

managers (noun)

Someone who controls resources and expenditures.

- In class, the teacher used "managers" to mean someone who controls resources and expenditures.
- The article explained what "managers" means with a simple example.

miami (noun)

A member of the extinct Algonquian people formerly living in northern Indiana and southern Michigan.

- The article explained what "miami" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "miami" during the group presentation.

military personnel (noun)

Someone who serves in the armed forces; a member of a military force.

- They discussed "military personnel" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military personnel."

nose job (noun)

Cosmetic surgery to improve the appearance of your nose.

- He looked up "nose job" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "nose job" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

parking (noun)

The act of maneuvering a vehicle into a location where it can be left temporarily.

- There is plenty of parking behind the store.
- He looked up "parking" because he had never seen it before.

prison-breaking (noun)

An escape from jail.

- They discussed "prison-breaking" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "prison-breaking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

public-relations campaign (noun)

An advertising campaign intended to improve public relations.

- They discussed "public-relations campaign" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "public-relations campaign" means with a simple example.

registered post (noun)

Mail that is registered by the post office when sent in order to assure safe delivery.

- Understanding "registered post" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "registered post."

rolling (noun)

The act of robbing a helpless person.

- He was charged with rolling drunks in the park.
- The article explained what "rolling" means with a simple example.

running mate (noun)

A nominee for the lesser of two closely related political offices.

- In class, the teacher used "running mate" to mean a nominee for the lesser of two closely related....
- The article explained what "running mate" means with a simple example.

salt mine (noun)

A job involving drudgery and confinement.

- They discussed "salt mine" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "salt mine" to mean a job involving drudgery and confinement.

sex object (noun)

Any person regarded simply as an object of sexual gratification.

- The article explained what "sex object" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sex object" to mean any person regarded simply as an object of sexual....

shipping office (noun)

The office of a shipping agent; an office where seamen are hired.

- In class, the teacher used "shipping office" to mean the office of a shipping agent; an office where....
- They discussed "shipping office" during the group presentation.

spanish civil war (noun)

Civil war in Spain in which Franco succeeded in overthrowing the republican government; during the war Spain became a battleground for fascists and socialists from all countries; 1936-1939.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spanish civil war."
- The article explained what "spanish civil war" means with a simple example.

stock split (noun)

An increase in the number of outstanding shares of a corporation without changing the shareholders' equity.

- They announced a two-for-one split of the common stock.
- Understanding "stock split" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

straight hang (noun)

A hang performed on the rings or parallel bars with the body erect and the arms at the sides.

- Understanding "straight hang" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "straight hang."

tears (noun)

The process of shedding tears (usually accompanied by sobs or other inarticulate sounds).

- She was in tears.
- His story brought tears to her eyes.

text editor (noun)

An editor who prepares text for publication.

- He looked up "text editor" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "text editor" to mean an editor who prepares text for publication.

trial attorney (noun)

A lawyer who specializes in defending clients before a court of law.

- In class, the teacher used "trial attorney" to mean a lawyer who specializes in defending clients....
- They discussed "trial attorney" during the group presentation.

us military academy (noun)

A school for training men and women to become officers in the United States Army.

- They discussed "us military academy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "us military academy" means with a simple example.

wrong-site surgery (noun)

A surgical operation performed on the wrong part of the body.

- Understanding "wrong-site surgery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wrong-site surgery."

---

accused (noun)

A defendant in a criminal proceeding.

- Understanding "accused" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "accused" means with a simple example.

---

assessment (noun)

The act of judging or assessing a person or situation or event.

- The assessment for repairs outraged the club's membership.
- Understanding "assessment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

block grant (noun)

A grant of federal money to state and local governments to support social welfare programs.

- Block grants reduce federal responsibility for social welfare.
- The article explained what "block grant" means with a simple example.

---

brain surgery (noun)

Any surgical procedure involving the brain.

- The article explained what "brain surgery" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "brain surgery" to mean any surgical procedure involving the brain.

---

breaks (noun)

An act of delaying or interrupting the continuity.

- It was presented without commercial breaks.
- He was up two breaks in the second set.

---

ceo (noun)

The corporate executive responsible for the operations of the firm; reports to a board of directors; may appoint other managers (including a president).

- They discussed "ceo" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ceo" because he had never seen it before.

---

chief operating officer (noun)

The corporate executive responsible for the operations of the firm; reports to a board of directors; may appoint other managers (including a president).

- He looked up "chief operating officer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chief operating officer."

---

choices (noun)

The act of choosing or selecting.

- Understanding "choices" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "choices" because he had never seen it before.

---

courses (noun)

A body of students who are taught together.

- He looked up "courses" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "courses" to mean a body of students who are taught together.

---

director of central intelligence (noun)

The head of the United States Intelligence Community and director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "director of central intelligence."
- Understanding "director of central intelligence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

domestic partner (noun)

A person (not necessarily a spouse) with whom you cohabit and share a long-term sexual relationship.

- Understanding "domestic partner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "domestic partner" during the group presentation.

---

double-dealing (noun)

Acting in bad faith; deception by pretending to entertain one set of intentions while acting under the influence of another.

- In class, the teacher used "double-dealing" to mean acting in bad faith; deception by pretending to....
- The article explained what "double-dealing" means with a simple example.

---

drew (noun)

United States actor (born in Ireland); father of Georgiana Emma Barrymore (1827-1862).

- Understanding "drew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "drew" because he had never seen it before.

---

establish (verb)

Establish the validity of something, as by an example, explanation or experiment.

- Establish a new department.
- The trompe l'oeil-illusion establishes depth.

---

evil spirit (noun)

A spirit tending to cause harm.

- The article explained what "evil spirit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "evil spirit" to mean a spirit tending to cause harm.

---

founder (noun)

A person who founds or establishes some institution.

- They discussed "founder" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "founder" means with a simple example.

---

french kiss (noun)

An openmouthed kiss in which your tongue is inserted into the other's mouth.

- In class, the teacher used "french kiss" to mean an openmouthed kiss in which your tongue is....
- The article explained what "french kiss" means with a simple example.

---

hitting (noun)

The act of contacting one thing with another.

- Repeated hitting raised a large bruise.
- The article explained what "hitting" means with a simple example.

---

interior design (noun)

The trade of planning the layout and furnishings of an architectural interior.

- In class, the teacher used "interior design" to mean the trade of planning the layout and furnishings of....
- He looked up "interior design" because he had never seen it before.

---

jason (noun)

(Greek mythology) the husband of Medea and leader of the Argonauts who sailed in quest of the Golden Fleece.

- They discussed "jason" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jason."

---

junior school (noun)

British school for children aged 7-11.

- They discussed "junior school" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "junior school" to mean british school for children aged 7-11.

---

locations (noun)

A determination of the place where something is.

- In class, the teacher used "locations" to mean a determination of the place where something is.
- He looked up "locations" because he had never seen it before.

---

mary martin (noun)

United States actress (1913-1990).

- Understanding "mary martin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mary martin" because he had never seen it before.

---

michael jackson (noun)

United States singer who began singing with his four brothers and later became a highly successful star during the 1980s (born in 1958).

- In class, the teacher used "michael jackson" to mean united states singer who began singing with his....
- Understanding "michael jackson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

old school tie (noun)

Necktie indicating the school the wearer attended.

- The article explained what "old school tie" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "old school tie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

personality test (noun)

Any test that is intended to assess personality.

- He looked up "personality test" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "personality test."

---

prison guard (noun)

Someone who guards prisoners.

- In class, the teacher used "prison guard" to mean someone who guards prisoners.
- Understanding "prison guard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reaching (noun)

The act of physically reaching or thrusting out.

- They discussed "reaching" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "reaching" to mean the act of physically reaching or thrusting out.

---

riding school (noun)

A school where horsemanship is taught and practiced.

- The article explained what "riding school" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "riding school."

---

secondary education (noun)

Education beyond the elementary grades; provided by a high school or college preparatory school.

- In class, the teacher used "secondary education" to mean education beyond the elementary grades; provided by....
- The article explained what "secondary education" means with a simple example.

---

sensitive (noun)

Someone who serves as an intermediary between the living and the dead.

- Understanding "sensitive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sensitive."

---

server (noun)

A person whose occupation is to serve at table (as in a restaurant).

- The article explained what "server" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "server" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

soldier (noun)

An enlisted man or woman who serves in an army.

- The soldiers stood at attention.
- He looked up "soldier" because he had never seen it before.

---

supporters (noun)

A person who backs a politician or a team etc.

- All their supporters came out for the game.
- They discussed "supporters" during the group presentation.

trial lawyer (noun)

A lawyer who specializes in defending clients before a court of law.

- Understanding "trial lawyer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "trial lawyer" during the group presentation.

voters (noun)

A citizen who has a legal right to vote.

- The article explained what "voters" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "voters" during the group presentation.

wise guy (noun)

An upstart who makes conceited, sardonic, insolent comments.

- The article explained what "wise guy" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wise guy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

work-clothing (noun)

Clothing worn for doing manual labor.

- Understanding "work-clothing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "work-clothing" during the group presentation.

actress (noun)

A female actor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "actress."
- The article explained what "actress" means with a simple example.

babies (noun)

A project of personal concern to someone.

- Understanding "babies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "babies" because he had never seen it before.

clients (noun)

A person who seeks the advice of a lawyer.

- He looked up "clients" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "clients" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

close-quarter fighting (noun)

Hand-to-hand fighting at close quarters.

- They discussed "close-quarter fighting" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "close-quarter fighting" because he had never seen it before.

closing off (noun)

The act of isolating something; setting something apart from others.

- In class, the teacher used "closing off" to mean the act of isolating something; setting something....
- They discussed "closing off" during the group presentation.

compare (verb)

Examine and note the similarities or differences of.

- John compared his haircut to his friend's.
- We compared notes after we had both seen the movie.

cooking (noun)

The act of preparing something (as food) by the application of heat.

- Cooking can be a great art.
- Understanding "cooking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

criminal conversation (noun)

Extramarital sex that willfully and maliciously interferes with marriage relations.

- Understanding "criminal conversation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "criminal conversation."

---

deep kiss (noun)

An openmouthed kiss in which your tongue is inserted into the other's mouth.

- In class, the teacher used "deep kiss" to mean an openmouthed kiss in which your tongue is....
- They discussed "deep kiss" during the group presentation.

---

direct-grant school (noun)

Formerly a school that charged tuition fees and also received government grants in return for admitting certain non-paying students who were nominated by the local authorities.

- He looked up "direct-grant school" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "direct-grant school."

---

directors (noun)

The person who directs the making of a film.

- The article explained what "directors" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "directors" during the group presentation.

---

discovery (noun)

The act of discovering something.

- In class, the teacher used "discovery" to mean the act of discovering something.
- The article explained what "discovery" means with a simple example.

---

discussed (verb)

To consider or examine in speech or writing.

- The class discussed Dante's 'Inferno'.
- We discussed our household budget.

---

drawing card (noun)

An entertainer who attracts large audiences.

- He was the biggest drawing card they had.
- Understanding "drawing card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drug abuse (noun)

Excessive use of drugs.

- He looked up "drug abuse" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "drug abuse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

duke (noun)

A nobleman (in various countries) of high rank.

- They discussed "duke" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "duke" means with a simple example.

---

economic expert (noun)

An expert in the science of economics.

- They discussed "economic expert" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "economic expert" because he had never seen it before.

---

enforcement (noun)

The act of enforcing; ensuring observance of or obedience to.

- He looked up "enforcement" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "enforcement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

face lift (noun)

A renovation that improves the outward appearance (as of a building) but usually does not involve major changes.

- Give your home a facelift.

- More than a facelift, the new model marks a fundamental change of direction.

finals (noun)

An examination administered at the end of an academic term.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "finals."
- The article explained what "finals" means with a simple example.

flag officer (noun)

A senior naval officer above the rank of captain.

- In class, the teacher used "flag officer" to mean a senior naval officer above the rank of captain.
- The article explained what "flag officer" means with a simple example.

foreign direct investment (noun)

A joint venture between a foreign company and a United States company.

- Understanding "foreign direct investment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foreign direct investment."

formula (noun)

Something regarded as a normative example.

- His formula for impressing visitors.
- He gave us a general formula for attacking polynomials.

french revolution (noun)

The revolution in France against the Bourbons; 1789-1799.

- The article explained what "french revolution" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "french revolution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

good egg (noun)

(old-fashioned slang) a good person.

- Understanding "good egg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "good egg" because he had never seen it before.

governments (noun)

The act of governing; exercising authority.

- Understanding "governments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "governments" means with a simple example.

innocent (noun)

A person who lacks knowledge of evil.

- He looked up "innocent" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "innocent" to mean a person who lacks knowledge of evil.

intelligence agent (noun)

A person secretly employed in espionage for a government.

- Understanding "intelligence agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intelligence agent."

john ford (noun)

United States film maker (1896-1973).

- Understanding "john ford" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "john ford" to mean united states film maker (1896-1973).

korean war (noun)

A war between North and South Korea; South Korea was aided by the United States and other members of the United Nations; 1950-1953.

- In class, the teacher used "korean war" to mean a war between north and south korea; south korea....
- He looked up "korean war" because he had never seen it before.

land reform (noun)

A redistribution of agricultural land (especially by government action).

- In class, the teacher used "land reform" to mean a redistribution of agricultural land (especially....
- They discussed "land reform" during the group presentation.

legal expert (noun)

A legal scholar versed in civil law or the law of nations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal expert."
- He looked up "legal expert" because he had never seen it before.

legal representative (noun)

A personal representative with legal standing (as by power of attorney or the executor of a will).

- In class, the teacher used "legal representative" to mean a personal representative with legal standing (as....
- Understanding "legal representative" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

line of least resistance (noun)

The easiest way.

- In marrying him she simply took the path of least resistance.
- The article explained what "line of least resistance" means with a simple example.

minds (noun)

An important intellectual.

- The great minds of the 17th century.
- They discussed "minds" during the group presentation.

october revolution (noun)

The coup d'etat by the Bolsheviks under Lenin in November 1917 that led to a period of civil war which ended in victory for the Bolsheviks in 1922.

- The article explained what "october revolution" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "october revolution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

olympic god (noun)

A classical Greek god after the overthrow of the Titans.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "olympic god."
- Understanding "olympic god" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

passes (noun)

A flight or run by an aircraft over a target.

- The media representatives had special passes.
- The star got passes for his family.

person of colour (noun)

(formal) any non-European non-white person.

- He looked up "person of colour" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "person of colour."

photography (noun)

The act of taking and printing photographs.

- They discussed "photography" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "photography" means with a simple example.

president ford (noun)

38th President of the United States; appointed vice president and succeeded Nixon when Nixon resigned (1913-).

- They discussed "president ford" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "president ford" to mean 38th president of the united states; appointed vice....

public speaker (noun)

A person who delivers a speech or oration.

- Understanding “public speaker” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “public speaker” means with a simple example.

---

publication (noun)

A copy of a printed work offered for distribution.

- Understanding “publication” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “publication” means with a simple example.

---

senior vice president (noun)

The ranking vice president in a firm that has more than one.

- They discussed “senior vice president” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “senior vice president” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sit-down strike (noun)

A strike in which workers refuse to leave the workplace until a settlement is reached.

- They discussed “sit-down strike” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “sit-down strike” because he had never seen it before.

---

social dancing (noun)

Dancing as part of a social occasion.

- They discussed “social dancing” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “social dancing” because he had never seen it before.

---

sports editor (noun)

The newspaper editor responsible for sports news.

- In class, the teacher used “sports editor” to mean the newspaper editor responsible for sports news.
- He looked up “sports editor” because he had never seen it before.

---

spring chicken (noun)

A young person (especially a young man or boy).

- In class, the teacher used “spring chicken” to mean a young person (especially a young man or boy).
- The article explained what “spring chicken” means with a simple example.

---

supreme authority (noun)

Someone with the power to settle matters at will.

- Understanding “supreme authority” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “supreme authority” during the group presentation.

---

uncle (noun)

A source of help and advice and encouragement.

- He played uncle to lonely students.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “uncle.”

---

union representative (noun)

A representative for a labor union.

- In class, the teacher used “union representative” to mean a representative for a labor union.
- The article explained what “union representative” means with a simple example.

---

vice chairman (noun)

One ranking below or serving in the place of a chairman.

- In class, the teacher used “vice chairman” to mean one ranking below or serving in the place of a chairman.
- Understanding “vice chairman” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vote counter (noun)

An official appointed to count the votes (especially in legislative assembly).

- He looked up “vote counter” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “vote counter” during the group presentation.

water-colour (noun)

The art or technique of painting with watercolors.

- He looked up "water-colour" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "water-colour" to mean the art or technique of painting with watercolors.

yellow metal (noun)

A brass that has more zinc and is stronger than alpha brass; used in making castings and hot-worked products.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow metal."
- Understanding "yellow metal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

arrival (noun)

The act of arriving at a certain place.

- They awaited her arrival.
- The article explained what "arrival" means with a simple example.

blind date (noun)

A participant in a blind date (someone you meet for the first time when you have a date with them).

- She never goes on blind dates.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blind date."

captain bob (noun)

United States explorer who accompanied Peary's expedition to the North Pole and who led many other Arctic trips (1875-1946).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "captain bob."
- He looked up "captain bob" because he had never seen it before.

chase (noun)

The act of pursuing in an effort to overtake or capture.

- In class, the teacher used "chase" to mean the act of pursuing in an effort to overtake or capture.
- The article explained what "chase" means with a simple example.

co-pilot (noun)

A relief pilot on an airplane.

- The article explained what "co-pilot" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "co-pilot."

cold storage (noun)

Refrigerated storage for preservation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cold storage."
- The article explained what "cold storage" means with a simple example.

corporate executive (noun)

An executive in a business corporation.

- They discussed "corporate executive" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "corporate executive" means with a simple example.

dirty dog (noun)

A person who is deemed to be despicable or contemptible.

- Understanding "dirty dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dirty dog" during the group presentation.

executive vice president (noun)

A vice president holding executive power.

- The article explained what "executive vice president" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "executive vice president" to mean a vice president holding executive power.

harris (noun)

Publisher of the first newspaper printed in America (1673-1713).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harris."
- They discussed "harris" during the group presentation.

---

john davis (noun)

English navigator who explored the Arctic while searching for the Northwest Passage (1550-1605).

- Understanding "john davis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "john davis" means with a simple example.

---

junior high school (noun)

A secondary school usually including 7th and 8th grades.

- The article explained what "junior high school" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "junior high school" to mean a secondary school usually including 7th and 8th grades.

---

kelly (noun)

United States dancer who performed in many musical films (1912-1996).

- They discussed "kelly" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "kelly" means with a simple example.

---

latin american (noun)

A native of Latin America.

- Understanding "latin american" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "latin american" to mean a native of latin america.

---

lieutenant (noun)

An assistant with power to act when his superior is absent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lieutenant."
- Understanding "lieutenant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mental testing (noun)

Any standardized procedure for measuring sensitivity or memory or intelligence or aptitude or personality etc.

- They discussed "mental testing" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mental testing."

---

middle ages (noun)

The period of history between classical antiquity and the Italian Renaissance.

- The article explained what "middle ages" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "middle ages" to mean the period of history between classical antiquity....

---

multiple voting (noun)

The act of voting in more than one place by the same person at the same election (illegal in U.S.).

- They discussed "multiple voting" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "multiple voting" because he had never seen it before.

---

muscle (noun)

A bully employed as a thug or bodyguard.

- The drug lord had his muscleman to protect him.
- The senators used their muscle to get the party leader to resign.

---

muslims (noun)

A believer in or follower of Islam.

- He looked up "muslims" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "muslims."

---

pilot project (noun)

Activity planned as a test or trial.

- They funded a pilot project in six states.

- They discussed "pilot project" during the group presentation.

---

president bush (noun)

Vice president under Reagan and 41st President of the United States (born in 1924).

- In class, the teacher used "president bush" to mean vice president under reagan and 41st president of....
- Understanding "president bush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prince charles (noun)

The eldest son of Elizabeth II and heir to the English throne (born in 1948).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prince charles."
- Understanding "prince charles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

procedure (noun)

A particular course of action intended to achieve a result.

- The procedure of obtaining a driver's license.
- The article explained what "procedure" means with a simple example.

---

producer (noun)

Someone who finds financing for and supervises the making and presentation of a show (play or film or program or similar work).

- Maine is a leading producer of potatoes.
- This microorganism is a producer of disease.

---

pushing (noun)

The act of applying force in order to move something away.

- The pushing is good exercise.
- He looked up "pushing" because he had never seen it before.

---

railway man (noun)

An employee of a railroad.

- They discussed "railway man" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "railway man."

---

relative-in-law (noun)

A relative by marriage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "relative-in-law."
- They discussed "relative-in-law" during the group presentation.

---

self-defence (noun)

The act of defending yourself.

- The article explained what "self-defence" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "self-defence" during the group presentation.

---

teaching fellow (noun)

A graduate student with teaching responsibilities.

- He looked up "teaching fellow" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "teaching fellow" during the group presentation.

---

test pilot (noun)

A pilot hired to fly experimental airplanes through maneuvers designed to test them.

- In class, the teacher used "test pilot" to mean a pilot hired to fly experimental airplanes through....
- He looked up "test pilot" because he had never seen it before.

---

visiting (noun)

The activity of making visits.

- The purpose was to promote homes, clubs, visiting, and other services.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visiting."

---

william iii (noun)

King of England and Scotland and Ireland; he married the daughter of James II and was invited by opponents of James II to invade England; when James fled, William III and Mary II were declared joint monarchs (1650-1702).

- In class, the teacher used "william iii" to mean king of england and scotland and ireland; he....
- They discussed "william iii" during the group presentation.

---

wings (noun)

A means of flight or ascent.

- Necessity lends wings to inspiration.
- He preferred the drumsticks to the wings.

---

beating (noun)

The act of inflicting corporal punishment with repeated blows.

- He looked up "beating" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beating."

---

boring (noun)

The act of drilling a hole in the earth in the hope of producing petroleum.

- They discussed "boring" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "boring" because he had never seen it before.

---

chinese revolution (noun)

The republican revolution against the Manchu dynasty in China; 1911-1912.

- In class, the teacher used "chinese revolution" to mean the republican revolution against the manchu....
- They discussed "chinese revolution" during the group presentation.

---

clinical test (noun)

A rigorously controlled test of a new drug or a new invasive medical device on human subjects; in the United States it is conducted under the direction of the FDA before being made available for general clinical use.

- The article explained what "clinical test" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "clinical test" to mean a rigorously controlled test of a new drug or a new....

---

clock in (verb)

Register one's arrival at work.

- In everyday English, people use "clock in" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "clock in" in real sentences.

---

clock on (verb)

Register one's arrival at work.

- In everyday English, people use "clock on" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "clock on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

commissioner (noun)

A government administrator.

- Understanding "commissioner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "commissioner" because he had never seen it before.

---

crimes (noun)

An evil act not necessarily punishable by law.

- Crimes of the heart.
- A long record of crimes.

---

direct supporting fire (noun)

Fire delivered in support of part of a force (as opposed to general supporting fire delivered in support of the force as a whole).

- He looked up "direct supporting fire" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "direct supporting fire" during the group presentation.

---

distribution channel (noun)

A way of selling a company's product either directly or via distributors.

- Possible distribution channels are wholesalers or small retailers or retail chains or direct mailers or your own stores.
- The article explained what "distribution channel" means with a simple example.

---

drinks (noun)

The act of drinking alcoholic beverages to excess.

- The article explained what "drinks" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "drinks" to mean the act of drinking alcoholic beverages to excess.

---

farmers (noun)

An expert on cooking whose cookbook has undergone many editions (1857-1915).

- Understanding "farmers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "farmers" during the group presentation.

---

february revolution (noun)

The revolution against the czarist government which led to the abdication of Nicholas II and the creation of a provisional government in March 1917.

- The article explained what "february revolution" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "february revolution."

---

female parent (noun)

A woman who has given birth to a child (also used as a term of address to your mother).

- He looked up "female parent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "female parent."

---

first lieutenant (noun)

A commissioned officer in the Army or Air Force or Marines ranking above a 2nd lieutenant and below a captain.

- The article explained what "first lieutenant" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "first lieutenant" during the group presentation.

---

gang fight (noun)

A fight between rival gangs of adolescents.

- The article explained what "gang fight" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gang fight" during the group presentation.

---

great-uncle (noun)

An uncle of your father or mother.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great-uncle."
- Understanding "great-uncle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

head of household (noun)

The head of a household or family or tribe.

- In class, the teacher used "head of household" to mean the head of a household or family or tribe.
- Understanding "head of household" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

henry lee (noun)

Soldier of the American Revolution (1756-1818).

- He looked up "henry lee" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "henry lee" to mean soldier of the american revolution (1756-1818).

---

james wilson (noun)

American Revolutionary leader who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence (1742-1798).

- He looked up "james wilson" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "james wilson."

---

junior class (noun)

Penultimate class in high school or college.

- They discussed "junior class" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "junior class."

---

leg-pull (noun)

As a joke: trying to make somebody believe something that is not true.

- He looked up "leg-pull" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "leg-pull" to mean as a joke: trying to make somebody believe....

---

loose end (noun)

Work that is left incomplete.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loose end."
- They discussed "loose end" during the group presentation.

---

low-birth-weight baby (noun)

An infant born weighing less than 5.5 pounds (2500 grams) regardless of gestational age.

- A low-birth-weight infant is at risk for developing lack of oxygen during labor.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "low-birth-weight baby."

---

music lesson (noun)

A lesson in performing music.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "music lesson."
- The article explained what "music lesson" means with a simple example.

---

pitch (noun)

The action or manner of throwing something.

- His pitch fell short and his hat landed on the floor.
- He was employed to see that his paper's news pitches were not trespassed upon by rival vendors.

---

right of first publication (noun)

A document granting exclusive right to publish and sell literary or musical or artistic work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right of first publication."
- Understanding "right of first publication" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

road gang (noun)

A gang of road workers.

- The article explained what "road gang" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "road gang."

---

romantic (noun)

An artist of the Romantic Movement or someone influenced by Romanticism.

- The article explained what "romantic" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "romantic" to mean an artist of the romantic movement or someone....

---

russian revolution (noun)

The coup d'etat by the Bolsheviks under Lenin in November 1917 that led to a period of civil war which ended in victory for the Bolsheviks in 1922.

- Understanding "russian revolution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "russian revolution."

---

sexual abuse (noun)

A statutory offense that provides that it is a crime to knowingly cause another person to engage in an unwanted sexual act by force or threat.

- Most states have replaced the common law definition of rape with statutes defining sexual assault.
- In class, the teacher used "sexual abuse" to mean a statutory offense that provides that it is a....

---

sisters (noun)

A female person who has the same parents as another person.

- The Sisters taught her to love God.
- None of her sisters would betray her.

---

stages (noun)

A section or portion of a journey or course.

- They discussed "stages" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "stages" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

suicide mission (noun)

Killing or injuring others while annihilating yourself; usually accomplished with a bomb.

- Understanding "suicide mission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "suicide mission" because he had never seen it before.

---

theatre director (noun)

Someone who supervises the actors and directs the action in the production of a show.

- The article explained what "theatre director" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "theatre director" to mean someone who supervises the actors and directs the....

---

thin person (noun)

A person who is unusually thin and scrawny.

- Understanding "thin person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "thin person" to mean a person who is unusually thin and scrawny.

---

tool-and-die work (noun)

The craft of making special tools and dies.

- In class, the teacher used "tool-and-die work" to mean the craft of making special tools and dies.
- He looked up "tool-and-die work" because he had never seen it before.

---

trading operations (noun)

Financial transactions at a brokerage; having to do with the execution of trades and keeping customer records.

- The article explained what "trading operations" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trading operations" to mean financial transactions at a brokerage; having to do....

---

william of orange (noun)

King of England and Scotland and Ireland; he married the daughter of James II and was invited by opponents of James II to invade England; when James fled, William III and Mary II were declared joint monarchs (1650-1702).

- Understanding "william of orange" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "william of orange" because he had never seen it before.

---

winners (noun)

A person with a record of successes.

- Only winners need apply.
- In class, the teacher used "winners" to mean a person with a record of successes.

---

worker (noun)

A person who works at a specific occupation.

- He is a good worker.
- Workers of the world–unite!

---

assist (noun)

The activity of contributing to the fulfillment of a need or furtherance of an effort or purpose.

- He gave me an assist with the housework.
- Could not walk without assistance.

---

bad egg (noun)

(old-fashioned slang) a bad person.

- He looked up "bad egg" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bad egg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

behalf (noun)

As the agent of or on someone's part (usually expressed as rather than).

- On behalf of.
- In behalf of.

---

bottle collection (noun)

The activity of collecting bottles.

- Bottle collection is a hobby of hers.
- Her bottle collection is arranged on glass shelves in the window.

---

character witness (noun)

A witness who testifies under oath as to the good reputation of another person in the community where that person lives.

- Understanding "character witness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "character witness" because he had never seen it before.

---

charity case (noun)

A case for a welfare worker.

- In class, the teacher used "charity case" to mean a case for a welfare worker.
- Understanding "charity case" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chief joseph (noun)

Leader of the Nez Perce in their retreat from United States troops (1840-1904).

- He looked up "chief joseph" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chief joseph" to mean leader of the nez perce in their retreat from....

---

clock off (verb)

Register one's departure from work.

- Can you use "clock off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "clock off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

clock out (verb)

Register one's departure from work.

- Learners should practice how to use "clock out" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "clock out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

continuing education (noun)

A program of instruction designed primarily for adult students who participate part-time.

- He looked up "continuing education" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "continuing education" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cops (noun)

Uncomplimentary terms for a policeman.

- They discussed "cops" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cops" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

criminal suit (noun)

A lawsuit alleging violations of criminal law by the defendant.

- In class, the teacher used "criminal suit" to mean a lawsuit alleging violations of criminal law by....
- He looked up "criminal suit" because he had never seen it before.

---

cuts (noun)

The act of reducing the amount or number.

- The mayor proposed extensive cuts in the city budget.
- Cuts do not bother a good tennis player.

---

designer (noun)

A person who devises plots or intrigues.

- He is believed to be the principal designer of the terrorist bombing attack.
- The article explained what "designer" means with a simple example.

domestic violence (noun)

Violence or physical abuse directed toward your spouse or domestic partner; usually violence by men against women.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "domestic violence."
- Understanding "domestic violence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

establishment (noun)

The act of forming or establishing something.

- It was the establishment of his reputation.
- He quickly became recognized as a member of the establishment.

extension course (noun)

A course offered as part of an extension service.

- He looked up "extension course" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "extension course."

extension service (noun)

An educational opportunity provided by colleges and universities to people who are not enrolled as regular students.

- He looked up "extension service" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "extension service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fat tuesday (noun)

A carnival held in some countries on Shrove Tuesday (the last day before Lent) but especially in New Orleans.

- He looked up "fat tuesday" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fat tuesday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grant wood (noun)

United States painter noted for works based on life in the Midwest (1892-1942).

- They discussed "grant wood" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "grant wood" to mean united states painter noted for works based on life....

guard duty (noun)

The duty of serving as a sentry.

- He was on guard that night.
- The article explained what "guard duty" means with a simple example.

guests (noun)

A customer of a hotel or restaurant etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guests."
- The article explained what "guests" means with a simple example.

history lesson (noun)

A lesson in the facts of history.

- Understanding "history lesson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "history lesson" means with a simple example.

industries (noun)

The organized action of making of goods and services for sale.

- In class, the teacher used "industries" to mean the organized action of making of goods and....
- They discussed "industries" during the group presentation.

lady of pleasure (noun)

A woman who engages in sexual intercourse for money.

- Understanding "lady of pleasure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lady of pleasure" means with a simple example.

low latin (noun)

Any dialect of Latin other than the classical.

- In class, the teacher used "low latin" to mean any dialect of latin other than the classical.
- The article explained what "low latin" means with a simple example.

---

military engineer (noun)

A member of the military who is trained in engineering and construction work.

- In class, the teacher used "military engineer" to mean a member of the military who is trained in....
- He looked up "military engineer" because he had never seen it before.

---

most valuable player (noun)

The player judged to be the most important to the sport.

- Understanding "most valuable player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "most valuable player" during the group presentation.

---

navy secretary (noun)

Head of a former executive department; combined with the War Secretary to form the Defense Secretary in 1947.

- He looked up "navy secretary" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "navy secretary" during the group presentation.

---

prayer (noun)

The act of communicating with a deity (especially as a petition or in adoration or contrition or thanksgiving).

- The priest sank to his knees in prayer.
- They discussed "prayer" during the group presentation.

---

racist (noun)

A person with a prejudiced belief that one race is superior to others.

- He looked up "racist" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "racist" during the group presentation.

---

rating system (noun)

A system of classifying according to quality or merit or amount.

- He looked up "rating system" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rating system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

re-formation (noun)

Forming again (especially with improvements or removal of defects); renewing and reconstituting.

- They discussed "re-formation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "re-formation" means with a simple example.

---

secretary of the navy (noun)

Head of a former executive department; combined with the War Secretary to form the Defense Secretary in 1947.

- Understanding "secretary of the navy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "secretary of the navy" because he had never seen it before.

---

self-improvement (noun)

The act of improving yourself.

- The article explained what "self-improvement" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-improvement."

---

silent person (noun)

A person who does not talk.

- In class, the teacher used "silent person" to mean a person who does not talk.
- Understanding "silent person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

steve martin (noun)

United States actor and comedian (born 1945).

- He looked up "steve martin" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "steve martin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

studying (noun)

Reading carefully with intent to remember.

- They discussed "studying" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "studying" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

superior general (noun)

The head of a religious order or congregation.

- They discussed "superior general" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "superior general" means with a simple example.

---

supports (noun)

The act of bearing the weight of or strengthening.

- There was no place to attach supports for a shelf.
- In class, the teacher used "supports" to mean the act of bearing the weight of or strengthening.

---

unusual person (noun)

A person who is unusual.

- In class, the teacher used "unusual person" to mean a person who is unusual.
- The article explained what "unusual person" means with a simple example.

---

us air force academy (noun)

A school for training men and women to become officers in the United States Air Force.

- They discussed "us air force academy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "us air force academy" means with a simple example.

---

welfare work (noun)

An organized activity to improve the condition of disadvantaged people in society.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "welfare work."
- He looked up "welfare work" because he had never seen it before.

---

academic degree (noun)

An award conferred by a college or university signifying that the recipient has satisfactorily completed a course of study.

- He earned his degree at Princeton summa cum laude.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "academic degree."

---

acid head (noun)

Someone who takes LSD.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acid head."
- He looked up "acid head" because he had never seen it before.

---

advertising campaign (noun)

An organized program of advertisements.

- Understanding "advertising campaign" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "advertising campaign" means with a simple example.

---

anthony (noun)

Roman general under Julius Caesar in the Gallic wars; repudiated his wife for the Egyptian queen Cleopatra; they were defeated by Octavian at Actium (83-30 BC).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anthony."
- They discussed "anthony" during the group presentation.

---

arthur (noun)

A legendary king of the Britons (possibly based on a historical figure in the 6th century but the story has been retold too many times to be sure); said to have led the Knights of the Round Table at Camelot.

- Understanding "arthur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "arthur" during the group presentation.

basketball coach (noun)

A coach of basketball players.

- The article explained what "basketball coach" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basketball coach."

battle of wake island (noun)

In December 1941 the island was captured by the Japanese after a gallant last-ditch stand by a few hundred United States marines.

- In class, the teacher used "battle of wake island" to mean in december 1941 the island was captured by the....
- The article explained what "battle of wake island" means with a simple example.

bell captain (noun)

The supervisor of bellboys in a hotel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bell captain."
- He looked up "bell captain" because he had never seen it before.

boost (noun)

The act of giving hope or support to someone.

- He gave her a boost over the fence.
- They discussed "boost" during the group presentation.

chemical analysis (noun)

The act of decomposing a substance into its constituent elements.

- In class, the teacher used "chemical analysis" to mean the act of decomposing a substance into its....
- He looked up "chemical analysis" because he had never seen it before.

chemical defense (noun)

Procedures involved in taking defensive measures against attacks using chemical agents.

- In class, the teacher used "chemical defense" to mean procedures involved in taking defensive measures....
- The article explained what "chemical defense" means with a simple example.

colonel (noun)

A commissioned military officer in the United States Army or Air Force or Marines who ranks above a lieutenant colonel and below a brigadier general.

- He looked up "colonel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "colonel."

commander in chief (noun)

The officer who holds the supreme command.

- In the U.S. the president is the commander in chief.
- In class, the teacher used "commander in chief" to mean the officer who holds the supreme command.

cousin (noun)

The child of your aunt or uncle.

- The article explained what "cousin" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cousin."

creative activity (noun)

The human act of creating.

- Understanding "creative activity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "creative activity" to mean the human act of creating.

dark ages (noun)

The period of history between classical antiquity and the Italian Renaissance.

- Understanding "dark ages" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dark ages."

dragon (noun)

A fiercely vigilant and unpleasant woman.

- They discussed "dragon" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dragon" means with a simple example.

---

educational activity (noun)

The activities of educating or instructing; activities that impart knowledge or skill.

- In class, the teacher used "educational activity" to mean the activities of educating or instructing;....
- Understanding "educational activity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

edward v (noun)

King of England who was crowned at the age of 13 on the death of his father Edward IV but was immediately confined to the Tower of London where he and his younger brother were murdered (1470-1483).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edward v."
- Understanding "edward v" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electrical work (noun)

The craft of an electrician.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrical work."
- Understanding "electrical work" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

employment contract (noun)

Contract between employer and employee.

- In class, the teacher used "employment contract" to mean contract between employer and employee.
- He looked up "employment contract" because he had never seen it before.

---

engineers (noun)

A person who uses scientific knowledge to solve practical problems.

- In class, the teacher used "engineers" to mean a person who uses scientific knowledge to solve....
- Understanding "engineers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flag captain (noun)

The captain of a flagship.

- Understanding "flag captain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "flag captain" means with a simple example.

---

golf pro (noun)

Someone who earns a living by playing or teaching golf.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golf pro."
- He looked up "golf pro" because he had never seen it before.

---

grant-in-aid (noun)

A grant from a central government to a local government.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grant-in-aid."
- The article explained what "grant-in-aid" means with a simple example.

---

guard of honor (noun)

An escort for a distinguished guest or for the casket at a military funeral.

- Understanding "guard of honor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "guard of honor" means with a simple example.

---

help desk (noun)

A service that provides information and assistance to the users of a computer network.

- He looked up "help desk" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "help desk."

---

high commissioner (noun)

A senior diplomat from one country to another who is assigned ambassadorial rank.

- In class, the teacher used "high commissioner" to mean a senior diplomat from one country to another who....

- He looked up "high commissioner" because he had never seen it before.

higher criticism (noun)

The scientific study of biblical writings to determine their origin and meaning.

- He looked up "higher criticism" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "higher criticism."

honor guard (noun)

An escort for a distinguished guest or for the casket at a military funeral.

- The article explained what "honor guard" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "honor guard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

house-raising (noun)

Construction by a group of neighbors.

- He looked up "house-raising" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "house-raising" to mean construction by a group of neighbors.

information processing (noun)

The sciences concerned with gathering, manipulating, storing, retrieving, and classifying recorded information.

- The article explained what "information processing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "information processing."

institution (noun)

The act of starting something for the first time; introducing something new.

- The institution of marriage.
- The institution of slavery.

john drew (noun)

United States actor (born in Ireland); father of Georgiana Emma Barrymore (1827-1862).

- The article explained what "john drew" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john drew."

kings (noun)

A very wealthy or powerful businessman.

- In class, the teacher used "kings" to mean a very wealthy or powerful businessman.
- Understanding "kings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

law enforcement (noun)

Ensuring obedience to the laws.

- In class, the teacher used "law enforcement" to mean ensuring obedience to the laws.
- Understanding "law enforcement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

loose woman (noun)

A woman adulterer.

- Understanding "loose woman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "loose woman" because he had never seen it before.

louis iii (noun)

Son of Louis II and king of the France and Germany (863-882).

- The article explained what "louis iii" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "louis iii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

patterns (noun)

A customary way of operation or behavior.

- The traffic patterns around O'Hare are very crowded.
- They discussed "patterns" during the group presentation.

piece of cake (noun)

Any undertaking that is easy to do.

- They discussed "piece of cake" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "piece of cake."

---

readers (noun)

A person who can read; a literate person.

- He looked up "readers" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "readers" to mean a person who can read; a literate person.

---

religious offering (noun)

The act of offering the bread and wine of the Eucharist.

- They discussed "religious offering" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "religious offering."

---

retired person (noun)

Someone who has retired from active working.

- In class, the teacher used "retired person" to mean someone who has retired from active working.
- The article explained what "retired person" means with a simple example.

---

saint (noun)

A person who has died and has been declared a saint by canonization.

- The article explained what "saint" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "saint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

second lieutenant (noun)

A commissioned officer in the Army or Air Force or Marine Corps holding the lowest rank.

- The article explained what "second lieutenant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "second lieutenant" to mean a commissioned officer in the army or air force or....

---

step dancing (noun)

Dancing in which the steps are more important than gestures or postures.

- In class, the teacher used "step dancing" to mean dancing in which the steps are more important than....
- Understanding "step dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

talent agent (noun)

An agent who represents performers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "talent agent."
- The article explained what "talent agent" means with a simple example.

---

titles (noun)

The name of a work of art or literary composition etc.

- He refused to give titles to his paintings.
- I can never remember movie titles.

---

university extension (noun)

An educational opportunity provided by colleges and universities to people who are not enrolled as regular students.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "university extension."
- He looked up "university extension" because he had never seen it before.

---

actors (noun)

A person who acts and gets things done.

- He looked up "actors" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "actors" to mean a person who acts and gets things done.

---

adam smith (noun)

Scottish economist who advocated private enterprise and free trade (1723-1790).

- In class, the teacher used "adam smith" to mean scottish economist who advocated private enterprise....
- The article explained what "adam smith" means with a simple example.

---

alexander (noun)

King of Macedon; conqueror of Greece and Egypt and Persia; founder of Alexandria (356-323 BC).

- In class, the teacher used "alexander" to mean king of macedon; conqueror of greece and egypt and....
- They discussed "alexander" during the group presentation.

---

alexander i (noun)

The czar of Russia whose plans to liberalize the government of Russia were unrealized because of the wars with Napoleon (1777-1825).

- They discussed "alexander i" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "alexander i" means with a simple example.

---

annoying (noun)

The act of troubling or annoying someone.

- The article explained what "annoying" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "annoying."

---

baseball coach (noun)

A coach of baseball players.

- Understanding "baseball coach" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "baseball coach" because he had never seen it before.

---

baseball manager (noun)

A coach of baseball players.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baseball manager."
- He looked up "baseball manager" because he had never seen it before.

---

bid (noun)

An attempt to get something.

- He made a bid to gain attention.
- The article explained what "bid" means with a simple example.

---

buddy (noun)

A close friend who accompanies his buddies in their activities.

- Understanding "buddy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buddy."

---

butter (noun)

A fighter who strikes the opponent with his head.

- Understanding "butter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "butter" during the group presentation.

---

cares (noun)

The work of providing treatment for or attending to someone or something.

- He looked up "cares" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cares" during the group presentation.

---

conclusion (noun)

The act of making up your mind about something.

- He drew his conclusions quickly.
- His conclusion took the evidence into account.

---

dean (noun)

A man who is the senior member of a group.

- He is the dean of foreign correspondents.
- In class, the teacher used "dean" to mean a man who is the senior member of a group.

death penalty (noun)

Putting a condemned person to death.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "death penalty."
- He looked up "death penalty" because he had never seen it before.

double blind (noun)

A test procedure in which the identity of those receiving the intervention is concealed from both the administrators and the subjects until after the test is completed; designed to reduce or eliminate bias in the results.

- In class, the teacher used "double blind" to mean a test procedure in which the identity of those....
- They discussed "double blind" during the group presentation.

dramatic work (noun)

A play for performance on the stage or television or in a movie etc.

- In class, the teacher used "dramatic work" to mean a play for performance on the stage or television....
- Understanding "dramatic work" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

drawing lots (noun)

Making a chance decision by using lots (straws or pebbles etc.) that are thrown or drawn.

- In class, the teacher used "drawing lots" to mean making a chance decision by using lots (straws or....
- Understanding "drawing lots" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dutch people (noun)

The people of the Netherlands.

- The Dutch are famous for their tulips.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dutch people."

edward ii (noun)

King of England from 1307 to 1327 and son of Edward I; was defeated at Bannockburn by the Scots led by Robert the Bruce; was deposed and died in prison (1284-1327).

- The article explained what "edward ii" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "edward ii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

elite (noun)

A group or class of persons enjoying superior intellectual or social or economic status.

- The article explained what "elite" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "elite" to mean a group or class of persons enjoying superior....

enemies (noun)

An armed adversary (especially a member of an opposing military force).

- A soldier must be prepared to kill his enemies.
- He looked up "enemies" because he had never seen it before.

ex-mayor (noun)

A former mayor.

- Understanding "ex-mayor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ex-mayor" means with a simple example.

first cousin (noun)

The child of your aunt or uncle.

- They discussed "first cousin" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "first cousin" because he had never seen it before.

gods (noun)

A man of such superior qualities that he seems like a deity to other people.

- The article explained what "gods" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gods" to mean a man of such superior qualities that he seems like....

guitar player (noun)

A musician who plays the guitar.

- They discussed "guitar player" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "guitar player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hard worker (noun)

Someone who works as hard as a slave.

- The article explained what "hard worker" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hard worker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hire (noun)

The act of hiring something or someone.

- He signed up for a week's car hire.
- The new hires need special training.

---

industrial arts (noun)

A course in the methods of using tools and machinery as taught in secondary schools and technical schools.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "industrial arts."
- Understanding "industrial arts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

installed (verb)

Put into an office or a position.

- The new president was installed immediately after the election.
- Learners should practice how to use "installed" in real sentences.

---

interior secretary (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of the Interior.

- The position of Interior Secretary was created in 1849.
- President Taylor appointed Thomas Ewing as the first Secretary of the Interior.

---

islamic law (noun)

The code of law derived from the Koran and from the teachings and example of Mohammed.

- Under Islamic law there is no separation of church and state.
- Understanding "islamic law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

landing (noun)

The act of coming down to the earth (or other surface).

- The plane made a smooth landing.
- His landing on his feet was catlike.

---

lieutenant general (noun)

A general officer ranking above a major general and below a full general.

- They discussed "lieutenant general" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lieutenant general" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

live wire (noun)

An alert and energetic person.

- The article explained what "live wire" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "live wire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lower criticism (noun)

The study of existing manuscripts of the Scriptures in order to determine the original text.

- He looked up "lower criticism" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lower criticism" to mean the study of existing manuscripts of the scriptures....

---

mail-order buying (noun)

Buying goods to be shipped through the mail.

- He looked up "mail-order buying" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mail-order buying."

---

male parent (noun)

A male parent (also used as a term of address to your father).

- They discussed "male parent" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "male parent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

middle-aged man (noun)

A man who is roughly between 45 and 65 years old.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "middle-aged man."
- The article explained what "middle-aged man" means with a simple example.

---

new mexican (noun)

A native or resident of New Mexico.

- They discussed "new mexican" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "new mexican" to mean a native or resident of new mexico.

---

odd man out (noun)

Someone regarded as eccentric or crazy and standing out from a group.

- The article explained what "odd man out" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "odd man out" during the group presentation.

---

ownership (noun)

The act of having and controlling property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ownership."
- Understanding "ownership" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

participants (noun)

A person who participates in or is skilled at some game.

- Understanding "participants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "participants" means with a simple example.

---

power worker (noun)

A worker at a power station.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "power worker."
- He looked up "power worker" because he had never seen it before.

---

process-server (noun)

Someone who personally delivers a process (a writ compelling attendance in court) or court papers to the defendant.

- They discussed "process-server" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "process-server" means with a simple example.

---

rank order (noun)

An arrangement according to rank.

- He looked up "rank order" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rank order."

---

richard iii (noun)

King of England from 1483 to 1485; seized the throne from his nephew Edward V who was confined to the Tower of London and murdered; his reign ended when he was defeated by Henry Tudor (later Henry VII) at the battle of Bosworth Field (1452-1485).

- In class, the teacher used "richard iii" to mean king of england from 1483 to 1485; seized the....
- Understanding "richard iii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

secondary modern school (noun)

A former British secondary school emphasizing practical rather than academic education.

- The article explained what "secondary modern school" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "secondary modern school" during the group presentation.

---

secretary of the interior (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of the Interior.

- The position of Interior Secretary was created in 1849.
- President Taylor appointed Thomas Ewing as the first Secretary of the Interior.

---

soccer player (noun)

An athlete who plays soccer.

- He looked up "soccer player" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "soccer player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stage dancing (noun)

A show involving artistic dancing.

- He looked up "stage dancing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stage dancing."

---

united states military academy (noun)

A school for training men and women to become officers in the United States Army.

- He looked up "united states military academy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "united states military academy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vacation (noun)

The act of making something legally void.

- We get two weeks of vacation every summer.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vacation."

---

welfare case (noun)

A case for a welfare worker.

- He looked up "welfare case" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "welfare case" during the group presentation.

---

yellow-dog contract (noun)

A labor contract (now illegal) whereby the employee agrees not to join a trade union.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow-dog contract."
- Understanding "yellow-dog contract" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

academic freedom (noun)

The freedom of teachers and students to express their ideas in school without religious or political or institutional restrictions.

- They discussed "academic freedom" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "academic freedom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alexander the great (noun)

King of Macedon; conqueror of Greece and Egypt and Persia; founder of Alexandria (356-323 BC).

- He looked up "alexander the great" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "alexander the great" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

any-and-all bid (noun)

A takeover bid where the acquirer offers to buy any and all shares outstanding.

- They discussed "any-and-all bid" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "any-and-all bid" to mean a takeover bid where the acquirer offers to buy any....

---

army engineer (noun)

A member of the military who is trained in engineering and construction work.

- He looked up "army engineer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "army engineer."

---

associate (noun)

A friend who is frequently in the company of another.

- He had to consult his associate before continuing.
- Associates in the law firm bill at a lower rate than do partners.

---

chemical operations (noun)

Warfare using chemical agents to kill or injure or incapacitate the enemy.

- Understanding "chemical operations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chemical operations."

---

citizen (noun)

A native or naturalized member of a state or other political community.

- Understanding "citizen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "citizen" means with a simple example.

---

cleaning (noun)

The act of making something clean.

- He gave his shoes a good cleaning.
- They discussed "cleaning" during the group presentation.

---

closed-heart surgery (noun)

Heart surgery in which a small incision is made (the chest cavity is not opened).

- In class, the teacher used "closed-heart surgery" to mean heart surgery in which a small incision is made....
- They discussed "closed-heart surgery" during the group presentation.

---

cold shoulder (noun)

A refusal to recognize someone you know.

- In class, the teacher used "cold shoulder" to mean a refusal to recognize someone you know.
- Understanding "cold shoulder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

combat mission (noun)

A mission to capture or defend something.

- He looked up "combat mission" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "combat mission" to mean a mission to capture or defend something.

---

common soldier (noun)

An enlisted man of the lowest rank in the Army or Marines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common soldier."
- He looked up "common soldier" because he had never seen it before.

---

consumers (noun)

A person who uses goods or services.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "consumers."
- Understanding "consumers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

copy editor (noun)

An editor who prepares text for publication.

- In class, the teacher used "copy editor" to mean an editor who prepares text for publication.
- He looked up "copy editor" because he had never seen it before.

---

covering fire (noun)

Fire that makes it difficult for the enemy to fire on your own individuals or formations.

- Artillery provided covering fire for the withdrawal.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "covering fire."

---

critics (noun)

A person who is professionally engaged in the analysis and interpretation of works of art.

- The article explained what "critics" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "critics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

disney (noun)

United States film maker who pioneered animated cartoons and created such characters as Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck; founded Disneyland (1901-1966).

- He looked up "disney" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "disney" to mean united states film maker who pioneered animated....

employment agreement (noun)

Contract between employer and employee.

- In class, the teacher used "employment agreement" to mean contract between employer and employee.
- He looked up "employment agreement" because he had never seen it before.

evening shift (noun)

The work shift during the evening (as 4 p.m. to midnight).

- Understanding "evening shift" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "evening shift" during the group presentation.

ex-boyfriend (noun)

A man who is no longer a woman's boyfriend.

- He looked up "ex-boyfriend" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ex-boyfriend."

false labor (noun)

Painless contractions of the muscles of the uterus that continue throughout pregnancy with increasing frequency.

- The article explained what "false labor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "false labor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

familiar spirit (noun)

A spirit (usually in animal form) that acts as an assistant to a witch or wizard.

- In class, the teacher used "familiar spirit" to mean a spirit (usually in animal form) that acts as an....
- The article explained what "familiar spirit" means with a simple example.

graduate student (noun)

A student who continues studies after graduation.

- Understanding "graduate student" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "graduate student" during the group presentation.

grand circle (noun)

A gymnastic exercise performed on the horizontal bar by swinging around it with the body fully extended.

- In class, the teacher used "grand circle" to mean a gymnastic exercise performed on the horizontal....
- He looked up "grand circle" because he had never seen it before.

handling (noun)

The management of someone or something.

- The handling of prisoners.
- The article explained what "handling" means with a simple example.

hired help (noun)

Employee hired for domestic or farm work (often used in the singular to refer to several employees collectively).

- The article explained what "hired help" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hired help" to mean employee hired for domestic or farm work (often....

hired man (noun)

A hired laborer on a farm or ranch.

- The hired hand fixed the railing.
- Understanding "hired man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

horse trading (noun)

The swapping of horses (accompanied by much bargaining).

- Understanding "horse trading" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "horse trading" during the group presentation.

---

idiot (noun)

A person of subnormal intelligence.

- The article explained what "idiot" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "idiot."

---

lawyers (noun)

A professional person authorized to practice law; conducts lawsuits or gives legal advice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lawyers."
- He looked up "lawyers" because he had never seen it before.

---

line worker (noun)

An employee who works on an assembly line.

- In class, the teacher used "line worker" to mean an employee who works on an assembly line.
- He looked up "line worker" because he had never seen it before.

---

mother superior (noun)

The superior of a group of nuns.

- He looked up "mother superior" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mother superior" during the group presentation.

---

odd-job (adjective)

Not regular or skilled.

- Found only odd-job employment.
- A "odd-job" approach may work better in this case.

---

ordinary care (noun)

The care that a reasonable man would exercise under the circumstances; the standard for determining legal duty.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ordinary care."
- He looked up "ordinary care" because he had never seen it before.

---

police lieutenant (noun)

An officer in a police force.

- The article explained what "police lieutenant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "police lieutenant" to mean an officer in a police force.

---

protest march (noun)

Occasion when you can express opposition by marching (usually on some government institution) without a license.

- Understanding "protest march" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "protest march" to mean occasion when you can express opposition by....

---

red tape (noun)

Needlessly time-consuming procedure.

- They discussed "red tape" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "red tape" to mean needlessly time-consuming procedure.

---

reduction (noun)

The act of decreasing or reducing something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reduction."
- He looked up "reduction" because he had never seen it before.

---

research worker (noun)

A scientist who devotes himself to doing research.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "research worker."

- He looked up "research worker" because he had never seen it before.

---

researchers (noun)

A scientist who devotes himself to doing research.

- They discussed "researchers" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "researchers" means with a simple example.

---

robert adam (noun)

Scottish architect who designed many public buildings in England and Scotland (1728-1792).

- The article explained what "robert adam" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "robert adam" to mean scottish architect who designed many public....

---

ross (noun)

A politician in Wyoming who was the first woman governor in the United States (1876-1977).

- They discussed "ross" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ross" means with a simple example.

---

scheduled fire (noun)

Prearranged fire delivered at a predetermined time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scheduled fire."
- They discussed "scheduled fire" during the group presentation.

---

self-discovery (noun)

Discovering your own individuality.

- The article explained what "self-discovery" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "self-discovery" during the group presentation.

---

silly (noun)

A word used for misbehaving children.

- Don't be a silly.
- They discussed "silly" during the group presentation.

---

social welfare (noun)

Governmental provision of economic assistance to persons in need.

- She lives on welfare.
- They discussed "social welfare" during the group presentation.

---

social worker (noun)

Someone employed to provide social services (especially to the disadvantaged).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social worker."
- He looked up "social worker" because he had never seen it before.

---

spiritual being (noun)

An incorporeal being believed to have powers to affect the course of human events.

- Understanding "spiritual being" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "spiritual being" means with a simple example.

---

thomas jackson (noun)

General in the Confederate Army during the American Civil War whose troops at the first Battle of Bull Run stood like a stone wall (1824-1863).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thomas jackson."
- They discussed "thomas jackson" during the group presentation.

---

time sheet (noun)

A record of the hours worked by employees.

- He looked up "time sheet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "time sheet."

---

translation (noun)

The act of changing in form or shape or appearance.

- A photograph is a translation of a scene onto a two-dimensional surface.
- They discussed "translation" during the group presentation.

---

truck driver (noun)

Someone who drives a truck as an occupation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "truck driver."
- The article explained what "truck driver" means with a simple example.

---

wedding guest (noun)

A guest at a wedding.

- Understanding "wedding guest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wedding guest" during the group presentation.

---

white trash (noun)

(slang) an offensive term for White people who are impoverished.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white trash."
- He looked up "white trash" because he had never seen it before.

---

allen (noun)

A soldier of the American Revolution whose troops helped capture Fort Ticonderoga from the British (1738-1789).

- Understanding "allen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "allen" because he had never seen it before.

---

bank closing (noun)

Act of closing down a bank because of a fiscal emergency or failure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bank closing."
- He looked up "bank closing" because he had never seen it before.

---

belong (verb)

Be rightly classified in a class or category.

- The whales belong among the mammals.
- This book belongs to me.

---

bishop (noun)

A senior member of the Christian clergy having spiritual and administrative authority; appointed in Christian churches to oversee priests or ministers; considered in some churches to be successors of the twelve Apostles of Christ.

- The article explained what "bishop" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bishop" during the group presentation.

---

black belt (noun)

A person who attained the rank of expert in the martial arts (judo or karate).

- He looked up "black belt" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "black belt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cabinet minister (noun)

The job of a senior minister who is a member of the cabinet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cabinet minister."
- He looked up "cabinet minister" because he had never seen it before.

---

check-out procedure (noun)

The act of inspecting or verifying.

- The pilot ran through the check-out procedure.
- He looked up "check-out procedure" because he had never seen it before.

---

clark (noun)

Canadian politician who served as prime minister (1939-).

- The article explained what "clark" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "clark" during the group presentation.

---

draft copy (noun)

Any of the various versions in the development of a written work.

- A preliminary draft.
- The final draft of the constitution.

---

federal soldier (noun)

A member of the Union Army during the American Civil War.

- The article explained what "federal soldier" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "federal soldier" to mean a member of the union army during the american....

---

females (noun)

A person who belongs to the sex that can have babies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "females."
- He looked up "females" because he had never seen it before.

---

french lesson (noun)

Instruction in the French language.

- Understanding "french lesson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "french lesson" during the group presentation.

---

full cousin (noun)

The child of your aunt or uncle.

- Understanding "full cousin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "full cousin" because he had never seen it before.

---

george bush (noun)

Vice president under Reagan and 41st President of the United States (born in 1924).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "george bush."
- They discussed "george bush" during the group presentation.

---

grass (noun)

A police informer who implicates many people.

- He looked up "grass" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

henry iii (noun)

Son of Henry II of France and the last Valois to be king of France (1551-1589).

- The article explained what "henry iii" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry iii."

---

jay (noun)

United States diplomat and jurist who negotiated peace treaties with Britain and served as the first chief justice of the United States Supreme Court (1745-1829).

- In class, the teacher used "jay" to mean united states diplomat and jurist who negotiated....
- The article explained what "jay" means with a simple example.

---

journalist (noun)

A writer for newspapers and magazines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "journalist."
- They discussed "journalist" during the group presentation.

---

language lesson (noun)

A period of instruction learning a language.

- He looked up "language lesson" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "language lesson."

lessons (noun)

The significance of a story or event.

- He took driving lessons.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lessons."

material witness (noun)

A witness whose testimony is both relevant to the matter at issue and required in order to resolve the matter.

- He looked up "material witness" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "material witness."

muscle building (noun)

Exercise that builds muscles through tension.

- The article explained what "muscle building" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "muscle building."

physical therapy (noun)

Therapy that uses physical agents: exercise and massage and other modalities.

- Understanding "physical therapy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "physical therapy" means with a simple example.

police commissioner (noun)

A civil commissioner appointed to supervise the duties and discipline of the police.

- He looked up "police commissioner" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "police commissioner" to mean a civil commissioner appointed to supervise the....

pope (noun)

The head of the Roman Catholic Church.

- He looked up "pope" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pope" during the group presentation.

possession (noun)

The act of having and controlling property.

- They took possession of the ball on their own goal line.
- In class, the teacher used "possession" to mean the act of having and controlling property.

prayer service (noun)

A service at which people sing hymns and pray together.

- He looked up "prayer service" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "prayer service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

prize winner (noun)

The winner of a lottery.

- The article explained what "prize winner" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "prize winner" during the group presentation.

product introduction (noun)

The introduction (usually by an advertising campaign) of a new product or product line.

- The article explained what "product introduction" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "product introduction" during the group presentation.

races (verb)

To work as fast as possible towards a goal, sometimes in competition with others.

- The coach explained when to use "races" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "races" until he saw an example.

regulation (noun)

The act of controlling or directing according to rule.

- Fiscal regulations are in the hands of politicians.
- Short haircuts were the regulation.

---

resident (noun)

A physician (especially an intern) who lives in a hospital and cares for hospitalized patients under the supervision of the medical staff of the hospital.

- The resident was receiving special clinical training at the hospital.
- He looked up "resident" because he had never seen it before.

---

returning officer (noun)

The official in each electorate who holds the election and returns the results.

- He looked up "returning officer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "returning officer" during the group presentation.

---

second cousin (noun)

A child of a first cousin.

- They discussed "second cousin" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "second cousin" means with a simple example.

---

section gang (noun)

A work crew assigned to a section of a railroad.

- Understanding "section gang" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "section gang" during the group presentation.

---

sleeping partner (noun)

A partner (who usually provides capital) whose association with the enterprise is not public knowledge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sleeping partner."
- Understanding "sleeping partner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

soul kiss (noun)

An openmouthed kiss in which your tongue is inserted into the other's mouth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soul kiss."
- He looked up "soul kiss" because he had never seen it before.

---

spin (noun)

A distinctive interpretation (especially as used by politicians to sway public opinion).

- The campaign put a favorable spin on the story.
- He gave the crank a spin.

---

stations of the cross (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) a devotion consisting of fourteen prayers said before a series of fourteen pictures or carvings representing successive incidents during Jesus' passage from Pilate's house to his crucifixion at Calvary.

- They discussed "stations of the cross" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stations of the cross."

---

subjects (noun)

A person who owes allegiance to that nation.

- A monarch has a duty to his subjects.
- The subjects for this investigation were selected randomly.

---

trial and error (noun)

Experimenting until a solution is found.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trial and error."
- He looked up "trial and error" because he had never seen it before.

---

work bench (noun)

A strong worktable for a carpenter or mechanic.

- They discussed "work bench" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "work bench" means with a simple example.

---

abandoned person (noun)

Someone for whom hope has been abandoned.

- They discussed "abandoned person" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "abandoned person."

---

administrative official (noun)

An official of a bureaucracy.

- They discussed "administrative official" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "administrative official."

---

atlanta (noun)

A siege in which Federal troops under Sherman cut off the railroads supplying the city and then burned it; 1864.

- The article explained what "atlanta" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "atlanta" to mean a siege in which federal troops under sherman cut....

---

card sharp (noun)

A professional card player who makes a living by cheating at card games.

- In class, the teacher used "card sharp" to mean a professional card player who makes a living by....
- The article explained what "card sharp" means with a simple example.

---

checking program (noun)

A program that examines other computer programs for syntax errors.

- In class, the teacher used "checking program" to mean a program that examines other computer programs for....
- Understanding "checking program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chemical engineering (noun)

The activity of applying chemistry to the solution of practical problems.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chemical engineering."
- The article explained what "chemical engineering" means with a simple example.

---

christians (noun)

A religious person who believes Jesus is the Christ and who is a member of a Christian denomination.

- In class, the teacher used "christians" to mean a religious person who believes jesus is the christ....
- Understanding "christians" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

collect (noun)

A short prayer generally preceding the lesson in the Church of Rome or the Church of England.

- He looked up "collect" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "collect" to mean a short prayer generally preceding the lesson in....

---

commerce (noun)

The United States federal department that promotes and administers domestic and foreign trade (including management of the census and the patent office); created in 1913.

- The article explained what "commerce" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "commerce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cop (noun)

Uncomplimentary terms for a policeman.

- He looked up "cop" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cop" to mean uncomplimentary terms for a policeman.

---

daniel jones (noun)

English phonetician (1881-1967).

- Understanding "daniel jones" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daniel jones."

---

elite group (noun)

A group or class of persons enjoying superior intellectual or social or economic status.

- He looked up "elite group" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elite group."

employment agent (noun)

Someone who runs an employment agency.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "employment agent."
- The article explained what "employment agent" means with a simple example.

exhibition (noun)

A collection of things (goods or works of art etc.) for public display.

- A remarkable exhibition of musicianship.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exhibition."

film producer (noun)

A producer of motion pictures.

- He looked up "film producer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "film producer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fire walker (noun)

Someone who walks barefoot on burning coals.

- Understanding "fire walker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fire walker" to mean someone who walks barefoot on burning coals.

fire-raising (noun)

Malicious burning to destroy property.

- The British term for arson is fire-raising.
- He looked up "fire-raising" because he had never seen it before.

flash-forward (noun)

A transition (in literary or theatrical works or films) to a later event or scene that interrupts the normal chronological development of the story.

- Understanding "flash-forward" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "flash-forward" means with a simple example.

fraud (noun)

A person who makes deceitful pretenses.

- Understanding "fraud" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fraud" to mean a person who makes deceitful pretenses.

hired hand (noun)

A hired laborer on a farm or ranch.

- The hired hand fixed the railing.
- A ranch hand.

honey (noun)

A beloved person; used as terms of endearment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "honey."
- The article explained what "honey" means with a simple example.

hook (noun)

A golf shot that curves to the left for a right-handed golfer.

- He took lessons to cure his hooking.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hook."

hunter (noun)

A person who searches for something.

- A treasure hunter.
- Understanding "hunter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

immigrants (noun)

A person who comes to a country where they were not born in order to settle there.

- The article explained what "immigrants" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "immigrants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

industrial loan company (noun)

A finance company that makes small loans to industrial workers.

- Understanding "industrial loan company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "industrial loan company."

---

joe blow (noun)

A hypothetical average man.

- In class, the teacher used "joe blow" to mean a hypothetical average man.
- The article explained what "joe blow" means with a simple example.

---

john walker (noun)

New Zealand runner who in 1975 became the first person to run a mile in less that 3 minutes and 50 seconds (born in 1952).

- They discussed "john walker" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john walker."

---

joseph smith (noun)

Religious leader who founded the Mormon Church in 1830 (1805-1844).

- In class, the teacher used "joseph smith" to mean religious leader who founded the mormon church in....
- Understanding "joseph smith" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kansas (noun)

A member of the Siouan people of the Kansas river valley in Kansas.

- They discussed "kansas" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "kansas" because he had never seen it before.

---

meeting of minds (noun)

A state of cooperation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "meeting of minds."
- Understanding "meeting of minds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mental object (noun)

The sum or range of what has been perceived, discovered, or learned.

- Understanding "mental object" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mental object" because he had never seen it before.

---

mexican war (noun)

After disputes over Texas lands that were settled by Mexicans the United States declared war on Mexico in 1846 and by treaty in 1848 took Texas and California and Arizona and New Mexico and Nevada and Utah and part of Colorado and paid Mexico $15,000,000.

- They discussed "mexican war" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mexican war" to mean after disputes over texas lands that were settled....

---

mexican-american (noun)

A Mexican (or person of Mexican descent) living in the United States.

- He looked up "mexican-american" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mexican-american."

---

miles davis (noun)

United States jazz musician; noted for his trumpet style (1926-1991).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "miles davis."
- He looked up "miles davis" because he had never seen it before.

odd-job man (noun)

A man skilled in various odd jobs and other small tasks.

- They discussed "odd-job man" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "odd-job man."

patrick (noun)

Apostle and patron saint of Ireland; an English missionary to Ireland in the 5th century.

- In class, the teacher used "patrick" to mean apostle and patron saint of ireland; an english....
- Understanding "patrick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

paul simon (noun)

United States singer and songwriter (born in 1942).

- Understanding "paul simon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paul simon."

pitch shot (noun)

A high approach shot in golf.

- In class, the teacher used "pitch shot" to mean a high approach shot in golf.
- The article explained what "pitch shot" means with a simple example.

president arthur (noun)

Elected vice president and became 21st President of the United States when Garfield was assassinated (1830-1886).

- In class, the teacher used "president arthur" to mean elected vice president and became 21st president of....
- They discussed "president arthur" during the group presentation.

prisoners (noun)

A person who is confined; especially a prisoner of war.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prisoners."
- The article explained what "prisoners" means with a simple example.

programming (noun)

Setting an order and time for planned events.

- They discussed "programming" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "programming" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

publishing (noun)

The business of issuing printed matter for sale or distribution.

- The article explained what "publishing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "publishing."

senior pilot (noun)

The pilot in charge of an airship.

- He looked up "senior pilot" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "senior pilot."

telephone order (noun)

Receiving orders via telephone.

- In class, the teacher used "telephone order" to mean receiving orders via telephone.
- The article explained what "telephone order" means with a simple example.

throwing away (noun)

Getting rid something that is regarded as useless or undesirable.

- He looked up "throwing away" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "throwing away."

union soldier (noun)

A member of the Union Army during the American Civil War.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "union soldier."
- They discussed "union soldier" during the group presentation.

---

waves (noun)

A movement like that of a sudden occurrence or increase in a specified phenomenon.

- Troops advancing in waves.
- He looked up "waves" because he had never seen it before.

---

wayne (noun)

American general during the American Revolution (1745-1796).

- Understanding "wayne" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wayne" means with a simple example.

---

achievement (noun)

The action of accomplishing something.

- The article explained what "achievement" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "achievement" to mean the action of accomplishing something.

---

anderson (noun)

United States contralto noted for her performance of spirituals (1902-1993).

- In class, the teacher used "anderson" to mean united states contralto noted for her performance....
- They discussed "anderson" during the group presentation.

---

bank commissioner (noun)

A commissioner appointed to supervise banks; a state superintendent of banks.

- Understanding "bank commissioner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bank commissioner" means with a simple example.

---

boston tea party (noun)

Demonstration (1773) by citizens of Boston who (disguised as Indians) raided three British ships in Boston harbor and dumped hundreds of chests of tea into the harbor; organized as a protest against taxes on tea.

- The article explained what "boston tea party" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "boston tea party" to mean demonstration (1773) by citizens of boston who....

---

civil engineer (noun)

An engineer trained to design and construct and maintain public works (roads or bridges or harbors etc.).

- Understanding "civil engineer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "civil engineer" during the group presentation.

---

co-worker (noun)

An associate that one works with.

- The article explained what "co-worker" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "co-worker" to mean an associate that one works with.

---

comfort woman (noun)

A woman forced into prostitution for Japanese servicemen during World War II.

- She wrote a book about her harsh experiences as a comfort woman.
- Understanding "comfort woman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

comprehensive (noun)

An intensive examination testing a student's proficiency in some special field of knowledge.

- Understanding "comprehensive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "comprehensive" to mean an intensive examination testing a student's....

---

conclusion of law (noun)

A finding as to the applicability of a rule of law to particular facts.

- In class, the teacher used "conclusion of law" to mean a finding as to the applicability of a rule of law....

- The article explained what "conclusion of law" means with a simple example.

---

daddy (noun)

An informal term for a father; probably derived from baby talk.

- Understanding "daddy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "daddy" means with a simple example.

---

dancing-master (noun)

A professional teacher of dancing.

- They discussed "dancing-master" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dancing-master" because he had never seen it before.

---

doc (noun)

A licensed medical practitioner.

- I felt so bad I went to see my doctor.
- He looked up "doc" because he had never seen it before.

---

elizabeth ii (noun)

Daughter of George VI who became the Queen of England and Northern Ireland in 1952 on the death of her father (1926-).

- Elizabeth II is the head of state in Great Britain.
- In class, the teacher used "elizabeth ii" to mean daughter of george vi who became the queen of....

---

fate (noun)

The ultimate agency regarded as predetermining the course of events (often personified as a woman).

- Deserved a better fate.
- Understanding "fate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gold-worker (noun)

An artisan who makes jewelry and other objects out of gold.

- They discussed "gold-worker" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gold-worker" to mean an artisan who makes jewelry and other objects out....

---

initiative (noun)

The first of a series of actions.

- He looked up "initiative" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "initiative."

---

kong the master (noun)

Chinese philosopher whose ideas and sayings were collected after his death and became the basis of a philosophical doctrine known a Confucianism (circa 551-478 BC).

- He looked up "kong the master" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kong the master."

---

last resort (noun)

An expedient adopted only in desperation.

- They discussed "last resort" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "last resort."

---

light colonel (noun)

A commissioned officer in the United States Army or Air Force or Marines holding a rank above major and below colonel.

- Understanding "light colonel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light colonel."

---

medical procedure (noun)

A procedure employed by medical or dental practitioners.

- He looked up "medical procedure" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medical procedure."

---

organisation (noun)

The act of forming or establishing something.

- He looked up "organisation" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "organisation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

park commissioner (noun)

A commissioner in charge of public parks.

- Understanding "park commissioner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "park commissioner."

---

performing artist (noun)

An entertainer who performs a dramatic or musical work for an audience.

- In class, the teacher used "performing artist" to mean an entertainer who performs a dramatic or musical....
- The article explained what "performing artist" means with a simple example.

---

princess royal (noun)

The eldest daughter of a British sovereign.

- Understanding "princess royal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "princess royal" because he had never seen it before.

---

procedures (noun)

A particular course of action intended to achieve a result.

- He looked up "procedures" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "procedures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

re-establishment (noun)

Restoration to a previous state.

- Regular exercise resulted in the re-establishment of his endurance.
- They discussed "re-establishment" during the group presentation.

---

riding master (noun)

Someone who teaches horsemanship.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "riding master."
- Understanding "riding master" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

service abroad (noun)

Naval service aboard a ship at sea.

- He looked up "service abroad" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "service abroad" to mean naval service aboard a ship at sea.

---

sir henry wood (noun)

English conductor (1869-1944).

- The article explained what "sir henry wood" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sir henry wood" to mean english conductor (1869-1944).

---

soul mate (noun)

Someone for whom you have a deep affinity.

- In class, the teacher used "soul mate" to mean someone for whom you have a deep affinity.
- The article explained what "soul mate" means with a simple example.

---

united states air force academy (noun)

A school for training men and women to become officers in the United States Air Force.

- He looked up "united states air force academy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "united states air force academy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

universities (noun)

The body of faculty and students at a university.

- Understanding "universities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "universities" during the group presentation.

---

wall of silence (noun)

The secrecy of police officers who lie or look the other way to protect other police officers.

- The blue wall cracked when some officers refused to take part in the cover-up.
- Understanding "wall of silence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

walter (noun)

German conductor (1876-1962).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "walter."
- He looked up "walter" because he had never seen it before.

---

ambassador (noun)

An informal representative.

- An ambassador of good will.
- The article explained what "ambassador" means with a simple example.

---

banking (noun)

Transacting business with a bank; depositing or withdrawing funds or requesting a loan etc.

- He looked up "banking" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "banking."

---

business enterprise (noun)

The activity of providing goods and services involving financial and commercial and industrial aspects.

- Computers are now widely used in business.
- They discussed "business enterprise" during the group presentation.

---

carter (noun)

39th President of the United States (1924-).

- They discussed "carter" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "carter" because he had never seen it before.

---

clinical trial (noun)

A rigorously controlled test of a new drug or a new invasive medical device on human subjects; in the United States it is conducted under the direction of the FDA before being made available for general clinical use.

- They discussed "clinical trial" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "clinical trial" to mean a rigorously controlled test of a new drug or a new....

---

co-op (noun)

A jointly owned commercial enterprise (usually organized by farmers or consumers) that produces and distributes goods and services and is run for the benefit of its owners.

- He looked up "co-op" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "co-op."

---

consumption (noun)

The process of taking food into the body through the mouth (as by eating).

- The consumption of energy has increased steadily.
- The article explained what "consumption" means with a simple example.

---

crack shot (noun)

Someone skilled in shooting.

- He looked up "crack shot" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "crack shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flash card (noun)

A card with words or numbers or pictures that is flashed to a class by the teacher.

- Understanding "flash card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "flash card" means with a simple example.

german lesson (noun)

Instruction in the German language.

- In class, the teacher used "german lesson" to mean instruction in the german language.
- The article explained what "german lesson" means with a simple example.

ground-controlled approach (noun)

Aircraft landing in bad weather in which the pilot is talked down by ground control using precision approach radar.

- He looked up "ground-controlled approach" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ground-controlled approach" during the group presentation.

hell raising (noun)

Making trouble just for the fun of it.

- Understanding "hell raising" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hell raising" during the group presentation.

heroes (noun)

A man distinguished by exceptional courage and nobility and strength.

- RAF pilots were the heroes of the Battle of Britain.
- He looked up "heroes" because he had never seen it before.

hockey player (noun)

An athlete who plays hockey.

- Understanding "hockey player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "hockey player" means with a simple example.

impression (noun)

An impressionistic portrayal of a person.

- He did a funny impression of a politician.
- His impression of her was favorable.

initial offering (noun)

A corporation's first offer to sell stock to the public.

- In class, the teacher used "initial offering" to mean a corporation's first offer to sell stock to the public.
- The article explained what "initial offering" means with a simple example.

john ross (noun)

Scottish explorer who led Arctic expeditions that yielded geographic discoveries while searching for the Northwest Passage (1777-1856).

- In class, the teacher used "john ross" to mean scottish explorer who led arctic expeditions that....
- They discussed "john ross" during the group presentation.

johnny (noun)

'Johnny' was applied as a nickname for Confederate soldiers by the Federal soldiers in the American Civil War; 'greyback' derived from their grey Confederate uniforms.

- Understanding "johnny" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "johnny" during the group presentation.

knife fight (noun)

Fighting with knives.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "knife fight."
- The article explained what "knife fight" means with a simple example.

lady killer (noun)

A man who takes advantage of women.

- The article explained what "lady killer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lady killer" to mean a man who takes advantage of women.

masters (noun)

United States poet (1869-1950).

- One of the old masters.
- They discussed "masters" during the group presentation.

---

motion-picture fan (noun)

Someone who goes to see movies.

- In class, the teacher used "motion-picture fan" to mean someone who goes to see movies.
- He looked up "motion-picture fan" because he had never seen it before.

---

murder suspect (noun)

Someone suspected of committing murder.

- He looked up "murder suspect" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "murder suspect" to mean someone suspected of committing murder.

---

poll (noun)

The counting of votes (as in an election).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poll."
- They discussed "poll" during the group presentation.

---

prayer meeting (noun)

A service at which people sing hymns and pray together.

- Understanding "prayer meeting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prayer meeting."

---

prince of wales (noun)

The male heir apparent of the British sovereign.

- In class, the teacher used "prince of wales" to mean the male heir apparent of the british sovereign.
- They discussed "prince of wales" during the group presentation.

---

pulling (noun)

The act of pulling; applying force to move something toward or with you.

- His strenuous pulling strained his back.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pulling."

---

pulling out (noun)

A method of birth control in which coitus is initiated but the penis is deliberately withdrawn before ejaculation.

- They discussed "pulling out" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pulling out."

---

question sheet (noun)

A written examination.

- They discussed "question sheet" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "question sheet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

raising hell (noun)

Making trouble just for the fun of it.

- Understanding "raising hell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "raising hell" during the group presentation.

---

removal (noun)

The act of removing.

- He had surgery for the removal of a malignancy.
- Understanding "removal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reporter (noun)

A person who investigates and reports or edits news stories.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reporter."

- He looked up “reporter” because he had never seen it before.

---

rescue operation (noun)

An operation organized to free from danger or confinement.

- In class, the teacher used “rescue operation” to mean an operation organized to free from danger or....
- The article explained what “rescue operation” means with a simple example.

---

revenue sharing (noun)

Distribution of part of the federal tax income to states and municipalities.

- In class, the teacher used “revenue sharing” to mean distribution of part of the federal tax income to....
- He looked up “revenue sharing” because he had never seen it before.

---

risks (noun)

A venture undertaken without regard to possible loss or injury.

- He saw the rewards but not the risks of crime.
- He looked up “risks” because he had never seen it before.

---

shock treatment (noun)

Treatment of certain psychotic states by the administration of shocks that are followed by convulsions.

- In class, the teacher used “shock treatment” to mean treatment of certain psychotic states by the....
- They discussed “shock treatment” during the group presentation.

---

speech therapy (noun)

Any therapy intended to correct a disorder of speech.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “speech therapy.”
- They discussed “speech therapy” during the group presentation.

---

tank driver (noun)

A soldier who drives a tank.

- He looked up “tank driver” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “tank driver” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

terrorist (noun)

A radical who employs terror as a political weapon; usually organizes with other terrorists in small cells; often uses religion as a cover for terrorist activities.

- He looked up “terrorist” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “terrorist” during the group presentation.

---

the virgin (noun)

The mother of Jesus; Christians refer to her as the Virgin Mary; she is especially honored by Roman Catholics.

- In class, the teacher used “the virgin” to mean the mother of jesus; christians refer to her as the....
- They discussed “the virgin” during the group presentation.

---

three-point landing (noun)

A landing in which all three wheels of the aircraft touch the ground at the same time.

- He looked up “three-point landing” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “three-point landing.”

---

voices (noun)

An advocate who represents someone else’s policy or purpose.

- The incessant voices of the artillery.
- Conservatism has many voices.

---

wolf (noun)

A man who is aggressive in making amorous advances to women.

- Understanding “wolf” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “wolf” to mean a man who is aggressive in making amorous advances....

---

yellow pages (noun)

A telephone directory or section of a directory (usually printed on yellow paper) where business products and services are listed alphabetically by field along with classified advertising.

- He looked up "yellow pages" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow pages."

---

academic session (noun)

The time during which a school holds classes.

- The article explained what "academic session" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "academic session" to mean the time during which a school holds classes.

---

andrew johnson (noun)

17th President of the United States; was elected vice president and succeeded Lincoln when Lincoln was assassinated; was impeached but acquitted by one vote (1808-1875).

- In class, the teacher used "andrew johnson" to mean 17th president of the united states; was elected....
- Understanding "andrew johnson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ate (noun)

Goddess of criminal rashness and its punishment.

- Understanding "ate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ate" because he had never seen it before.

---

athletes (noun)

A person trained to compete in sports.

- In class, the teacher used "athletes" to mean a person trained to compete in sports.
- They discussed "athletes" during the group presentation.

---

boxes (noun)

A blow with the hand (usually on the ear).

- The flowchart contained many boxes.
- They discussed "boxes" during the group presentation.

---

bruce (noun)

Australian physician and bacteriologist who described the bacterium that causes undulant fever or brucellosis (1855-1931).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bruce."
- They discussed "bruce" during the group presentation.

---

bull (noun)

A serious and ludicrous blunder.

- He made a bad bull of the assignment.
- He was a bull of a man.

---

cleaning woman (noun)

A human female employed to do housework.

- I have a woman who comes in four hours a day while I write.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cleaning woman."

---

color-blind person (noun)

A person unable to distinguish differences in hue.

- He looked up "color-blind person" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "color-blind person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

communications intelligence (noun)

Technical and intelligence information derived from foreign communications by other than the intended recipients.

- He looked up "communications intelligence" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "communications intelligence" to mean technical and intelligence information derived from....

---

comprehensive school (noun)

A large British or Canadian secondary school for children of all abilities.

- He looked up "comprehensive school" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "comprehensive school."

---

contrast material (noun)

A substance that is opaque to x-rays; when administered it allows a radiologist to examine the organ or tissue it fills.

- They discussed "contrast material" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "contrast material" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

corporate finance (noun)

The financial activities of corporation.

- The article explained what "corporate finance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "corporate finance" to mean the financial activities of corporation.

---

criminal maintenance (noun)

The unauthorized interference in a legal action by a person having no interest in it (as by helping one party with money or otherwise to continue the action) so as to obstruct justice or promote unnecessary litigation or unsettle the peace of the community.

- Unlike champerty, criminal maintenance does not necessarily involve personal profit.
- In class, the teacher used "criminal maintenance" to mean the unauthorized interference in a legal action by....

---

cross-country riding (noun)

Riding horses across country over obstructions to demonstrate horsemanship.

- He looked up "cross-country riding" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cross-country riding" during the group presentation.

---

dance lesson (noun)

A lesson in dancing.

- They discussed "dance lesson" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dance lesson."

---

dancing partner (noun)

One of a pair of people who dance together.

- Understanding "dancing partner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dancing partner" to mean one of a pair of people who dance together.

---

double-blind study (noun)

An experimental procedure in which neither the subjects of the experiment nor the persons administering the experiment know the critical aspects of the experiment.

- A double-blind procedure is used to guard against both experimenter bias and placebo effects.
- Understanding "double-blind study" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dramatic performance (noun)

The act of performing a drama.

- The group joined together in a dramatic production.
- They discussed "dramatic performance" during the group presentation.

---

dramatic production (noun)

The act of performing a drama.

- The group joined together in a dramatic production.
- Understanding "dramatic production" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

factory farm (noun)

A large-scale farming enterprise.

- Understanding "factory farm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "factory farm" because he had never seen it before.

---

fancy man (noun)

Someone who procures customers for whores (in England they call a pimp a ponce).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fancy man."
- The article explained what "fancy man" means with a simple example.

fraud in law (noun)

Fraud that is presumed from the circumstances although the one who commits it need not have had any evil intent.

- They discussed "fraud in law" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fraud in law" to mean fraud that is presumed from the circumstances....

george sand (noun)

French writer known for works concerning women's rights and independence (1804-1876).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "george sand."
- The article explained what "george sand" means with a simple example.

investors (noun)

Someone who commits capital in order to gain financial returns.

- The article explained what "investors" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "investors" during the group presentation.

john jay (noun)

United States diplomat and jurist who negotiated peace treaties with Britain and served as the first chief justice of the United States Supreme Court (1745-1829).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john jay."
- The article explained what "john jay" means with a simple example.

john mill (noun)

English philosopher and economist remembered for his interpretations of empiricism and utilitarianism (1806-1873).

- They discussed "john mill" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "john mill" to mean english philosopher and economist remembered for....

kills (noun)

The destruction of an enemy plane or ship or tank or missile.

- The pilot reported two kills during the mission.
- The article explained what "kills" means with a simple example.

king arthur (noun)

A legendary king of the Britons (possibly based on a historical figure in the 6th century but the story has been retold too many times to be sure); said to have led the Knights of the Round Table at Camelot.

- The article explained what "king arthur" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "king arthur" to mean a legendary king of the britons (possibly based on....

liberty (noun)

Leave granted to a sailor or naval officer.

- Liberty of opinion.
- Liberty of worship.

mill-girl (noun)

A girl who works in a mill.

- They discussed "mill-girl" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mill-girl" means with a simple example.

mill-hand (noun)

A workman in a mill or factory.

- He looked up "mill-hand" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mill-hand" during the group presentation.

ministers (noun)

A person authorized to conduct religious worship.

- Clergymen are usually called ministers in Protestant churches.
- In class, the teacher used "ministers" to mean a person authorized to conduct religious worship.

monitoring (noun)

The act of observing something (and sometimes keeping a record of it).

- The monitoring of enemy communications plays an important role in war times.
- Understanding "monitoring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nose count (noun)

A periodic count of the population.

- Understanding "nose count" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "nose count" during the group presentation.

---

observed fire (noun)

Fire for which the point of impact (the burst) can be seen by an observer; fire can be adjusted on the basis of the observations.

- He looked up "observed fire" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "observed fire" to mean fire for which the point of impact (the burst) can....

---

patrick white (noun)

Australian writer (1912-1990).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patrick white."
- The article explained what "patrick white" means with a simple example.

---

pen-friend (noun)

A person you come to know by frequent friendly correspondence.

- He looked up "pen-friend" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pen-friend."

---

producers (noun)

Someone who finds financing for and supervises the making and presentation of a show (play or film or program or similar work).

- They discussed "producers" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "producers" to mean someone who finds financing for and supervises the....

---

punishment (noun)

The act of punishing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "punishment."
- They discussed "punishment" during the group presentation.

---

rally (noun)

The feat of mustering strength for a renewed effort.

- He singled to start a rally in the 9th inning.
- He feared the rallying of their troops for a counterattack.

---

reader (noun)

A person who can read; a literate person.

- The article explained what "reader" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reader."

---

shipping agent (noun)

The agent of a shipowner.

- The article explained what "shipping agent" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "shipping agent" during the group presentation.

---

shops (noun)

A course of instruction in a trade (as carpentry or electricity).

- They discussed "shops" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "shops" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

silent treatment (noun)

An aloof refusal to speak to someone you know.

- They discussed "silent treatment" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "silent treatment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

square dancing (noun)

American country dancing in which couples form squares.

- The article explained what "square dancing" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "square dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

standard procedure (noun)

A prescribed procedure to be followed routinely.

- Rote memorization has been the educator's standard operating procedure for centuries.
- Understanding "standard procedure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

street arab (noun)

(sometimes offensive) a homeless boy who has been abandoned and roams the streets.

- The article explained what "street arab" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "street arab" to mean (sometimes offensive) a homeless boy who has been....

---

texts (noun)

A book prepared for use in schools or colleges.

- He looked up "texts" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "texts."

---

veterans (noun)

A serviceman who has seen considerable active service.

- The veterans laughed at the new recruits.
- Understanding "veterans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alcohol abuse (noun)

Excessive use of alcohol and alcoholic drinks.

- Understanding "alcohol abuse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "alcohol abuse" means with a simple example.

---

boots (noun)

The act of delivering a blow with the foot.

- They discussed "boots" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "boots" because he had never seen it before.

---

charles james fox (noun)

English statesman who supported American independence and the French Revolution (1749-1806).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charles james fox."
- He looked up "charles james fox" because he had never seen it before.

---

clock-watching (noun)

Paying excessive attention to the clock (in anticipation of stopping work).

- In class, the teacher used "clock-watching" to mean paying excessive attention to the clock (in....
- He looked up "clock-watching" because he had never seen it before.

---

compensation (noun)

The act of compensating for service or loss or injury.

- In class, the teacher used "compensation" to mean the act of compensating for service or loss or injury.
- The article explained what "compensation" means with a simple example.

---

crown prince (noun)

A male heir apparent to a throne.

- Understanding "crown prince" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crown prince."

desk officer (noun)

A military officer who is not assigned to active duty.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "desk officer."
- They discussed "desk officer" during the group presentation.

elementary (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of elementary school or elementary education.

- The elementary grades.
- Elementary teachers.

ethnic (noun)

A person who is a member of an ethnic group.

- They discussed "ethnic" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ethnic" means with a simple example.

fraud in fact (noun)

Actual deceit; concealing something or making a false representation with an evil intent to cause injury to another.

- They discussed "fraud in fact" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fraud in fact" to mean actual deceit; concealing something or making a....

genius (noun)

Someone who has exceptional intellectual ability and originality.

- Mozart was a child genius.
- He has a genius for interior decorating.

guest of honor (noun)

The person in whose honor a gathering is held.

- They discussed "guest of honor" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guest of honor."

home banking (noun)

Banking in which transactions are conducted by means of electronic communication (via telephone or computer).

- They discussed "home banking" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "home banking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

initial public offering (noun)

A corporation's first offer to sell stock to the public.

- They discussed "initial public offering" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "initial public offering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

intention (noun)

An act of intending; a volition that you intend to carry out.

- My intention changed once I saw her.
- Good intentions are not enough.

john wayne (noun)

United States film actor who played tough heroes (1907-1979).

- The article explained what "john wayne" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "john wayne" to mean united states film actor who played tough heroes....

life principle (noun)

A hypothetical force to which the functions and qualities peculiar to living things are sometimes ascribed.

- He looked up "life principle" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "life principle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

managing director (noun)

Someone who controls resources and expenditures.

- He looked up "managing director" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "managing director" during the group presentation.

---

parks (noun)

United States civil rights leader who refused to give up her seat on a bus to a white man in Montgomery (Alabama) and so triggered the national Civil Rights movement (born in 1913).

- They discussed "parks" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "parks" means with a simple example.

---

participation (noun)

The act of sharing in the activities of a group.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "participation."
- They discussed "participation" during the group presentation.

---

phase iii (noun)

A large clinical trial of a treatment or drug that in phase I and phase II has been shown to be efficacious with tolerable side effects; after successful conclusion of these clinical trials it will receive formal approval from the FDA.

- In class, the teacher used "phase iii" to mean a large clinical trial of a treatment or drug that....
- The article explained what "phase iii" means with a simple example.

---

practical application (noun)

The act of bringing something to bear; using it for a particular purpose.

- He advocated the application of statistics to the problem.
- A novel application of electronics to medical diagnosis.

---

pretend (noun)

The enactment of a pretense.

- It was just pretend.
- He looked up "pretend" because he had never seen it before.

---

priest (noun)

A person who performs religious duties and ceremonies in a non-Christian religion.

- The article explained what "priest" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "priest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

private citizen (noun)

A citizen who does not hold any official or public position.

- They discussed "private citizen" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "private citizen" to mean a citizen who does not hold any official or public....

---

rail technology (noun)

The activity of designing and constructing and operating railroads.

- He looked up "rail technology" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rail technology."

---

russell (noun)

United States basketball center (born in 1934).

- He looked up "russell" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "russell."

---

saint david (noun)

Patron saint of Wales (circa 520-600).

- The article explained what "saint david" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "saint david" during the group presentation.

---

saint james (noun)

(New Testament) disciple of Jesus; brother of John; author of the Epistle of James in the New Testament.

- They discussed "saint james" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used “saint james” to mean (new testament) disciple of jesus; brother of john;....

---

satellite (noun)

A person who follows or serves another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “satellite.”
- The article explained what “satellite” means with a simple example.

---

scoring system (noun)

A system of classifying according to quality or merit or amount.

- Understanding “scoring system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scoring system.”

---

self-employed person (noun)

A writer or artist who sells services to different employers without a long-term contract with any of them.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “self-employed person.”
- They discussed “self-employed person” during the group presentation.

---

shake-up (noun)

The imposition of a new organization; organizing differently (often involving extensive and drastic changes).

- In class, the teacher used “shake-up” to mean the imposition of a new organization; organizing....
- They discussed “shake-up” during the group presentation.

---

simon peter (noun)

Disciple of Jesus and leader of the Apostles; regarded by Catholics as the vicar of Christ on earth and first Pope.

- He looked up “simon peter” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “simon peter” during the group presentation.

---

sixth-former (noun)

A student in the sixth form.

- Understanding “sixth-former” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sixth-former.”

---

teen (noun)

A juvenile between the onset of puberty and maturity.

- Understanding “teen” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “teen” means with a simple example.

---

anne (noun)

Queen of England and Scotland and Ireland; daughter if James II and the last of the Stuart monarchs; in 1707 she was the last English ruler to exercise the royal veto over parliament (1665-1714).

- He looked up “anne” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “anne.”

---

break one’s back (verb)

Work very hard, like a slave.

- Learners should practice how to use “break one’s back” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “break one’s back” until he saw an example.

---

carbon dating (noun)

A chemical analysis used to determine the age of organic materials based on their content of the radioisotope carbon-14; believed to be reliable up to 40,000 years.

- Understanding “carbon dating” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “carbon dating” during the group presentation.

---

combat intelligence (noun)

Intelligence that is required for the planning and conduct of tactical operations.

- The article explained what “combat intelligence” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “combat intelligence” to mean intelligence that is required for the planning and....

---

communist (noun)

A member of the communist party.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "communist."
- Understanding "communist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

construction worker (noun)

A worker skilled in building offices or dwellings etc.

- They discussed "construction worker" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "construction worker" because he had never seen it before.

desperate (noun)

A person who is frightened and in need of help.

- They prey on the hopes of the desperate.
- The article explained what "desperate" means with a simple example.

duties (noun)

The social force that binds you to the courses of action demanded by that force; ; - John D.Rockefeller Jr.

- The duties of the job.
- They signed a treaty to lower duties on trade between their countries.

e-commerce (noun)

Commerce conducted electronically (as on the internet).

- They discussed "e-commerce" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "e-commerce."

faculty (noun)

The body of teachers and administrators at a school.

- He looked up "faculty" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "faculty."

foot soldier (noun)

An assistant subject to the authority or control of another.

- Understanding "foot soldier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foot soldier."

grand duke (noun)

A prince who rules a territory.

- The article explained what "grand duke" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "grand duke" to mean a prince who rules a territory.

innovation (noun)

The act of starting something for the first time; introducing something new.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "innovation."
- He looked up "innovation" because he had never seen it before.

instruments (noun)

The means whereby some act is accomplished.

- He looked up "instruments" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instruments."

james dean (noun)

United States film actor whose moody rebellious roles made him a cult figure (1931-1955).

- Understanding "james dean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "james dean" means with a simple example.

joseph henry (noun)

United States physicist who studied electromagnetic phenomena (1791-1878).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joseph henry."
- Understanding "joseph henry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mark anthony (noun)

Roman general under Julius Caesar in the Gallic wars; repudiated his wife for the Egyptian queen Cleopatra; they were defeated by Octavian at Actium (83-30 BC).

- He looked up "mark anthony" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mark anthony."

---

medical social worker (noun)

An official in a British hospital who looks after the social and material needs of the patients.

- Understanding "medical social worker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "medical social worker" because he had never seen it before.

---

minor surgery (noun)

Any surgical procedure that does not involve anesthesia or respiratory assistance.

- He looked up "minor surgery" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "minor surgery" during the group presentation.

---

mother tongue (noun)

One's native language; the language learned by children and passed from one generation to the next.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother tongue."
- He looked up "mother tongue" because he had never seen it before.

---

mother's son (noun)

A male person.

- Every mother's son who could walk was there.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother's son."

---

network architecture (noun)

Specification of design principles (including data formats and procedures) for creating a network configuration of data processors.

- They discussed "network architecture" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "network architecture" to mean specification of design principles (including data....

---

nursing (noun)

The work of caring for the sick or injured or infirm.

- In class, the teacher used "nursing" to mean the work of caring for the sick or injured or infirm.
- The article explained what "nursing" means with a simple example.

---

operator (noun)

An agent that operates some apparatus or machine.

- The operator of the switchboard.
- Who is the operator of this franchise?

---

organized labor (noun)

Employees who are represented by a labor union.

- They discussed "organized labor" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "organized labor" to mean employees who are represented by a labor union.

---

paid vacation (noun)

A vacation from work by an employee with pay granted.

- The article explained what "paid vacation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "paid vacation" to mean a vacation from work by an employee with pay granted.

---

plant closing (noun)

Act of shutting down operation of a plant.

- In class, the teacher used "plant closing" to mean act of shutting down operation of a plant.
- The article explained what "plant closing" means with a simple example.

president carter (noun)

39th President of the United States (1924-).

- The article explained what "president carter" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "president carter."

punch in (verb)

Register one's arrival at work.

- In everyday English, people use "punch in" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "punch in" in real sentences.

punch out (verb)

Register one's departure from work.

- Learners should practice how to use "punch out" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "punch out" until he saw an example.

punch-up (noun)

A fistfight.

- The quarrel ended in a punch-up.
- In class, the teacher used "punch-up" to mean a fistfight.

saint george (noun)

Christian martyr; patron saint of England; hero of the legend of Saint George and the Dragon in which he slew a dragon and saved a princess (?-303).

- Understanding "saint george" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "saint george" means with a simple example.

saint mark (noun)

Apostle and companion of Saint Peter; assumed to be the author of the second Gospel.

- In class, the teacher used "saint mark" to mean apostle and companion of saint peter; assumed to be....
- He looked up "saint mark" because he had never seen it before.

saint paul (noun)

(New Testament) a Christian missionary to the Gentiles; author of several Epistles in the New Testament; even though Paul was not present at the Last Supper he is considered an Apostle.

- Paul's name was Saul prior to his conversion to Christianity.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saint paul."

thought-reader (noun)

A magician who seems to discern the thoughts of another person (usually by clever signals from an accomplice).

- The article explained what "thought-reader" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "thought-reader" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tower of strength (noun)

A person who can be relied on to give a great deal of support and comfort.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tower of strength."
- The article explained what "tower of strength" means with a simple example.

trend setting (noun)

The initiating or popularizing of a trend or fashion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trend setting."
- They discussed "trend setting" during the group presentation.

universal agent (noun)

Someone authorized to transact every kind of business for the principal.

- Understanding "universal agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "universal agent" because he had never seen it before.

wage claim (noun)

The wage demanded from management for workers by their union representatives.

- He looked up "wage claim" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wage claim."

---

walks (noun)

The act of traveling by foot.

- It happens in all walks of life.
- In class, the teacher used "walks" to mean the act of traveling by foot.

---

alexander ii (noun)

The son of Nicholas I who, as czar of Russia, introduced reforms that included limited emancipation of the serfs (1818-1881).

- Understanding "alexander ii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "alexander ii" to mean the son of nicholas i who, as czar of russia,....

---

ali (noun)

The fourth caliph of Islam who is considered to be the first caliph by Shiites; he was a cousin and son-in-law of Muhammad; after his assassination Islam was divided into Shiite and Sunnite sects.

- He looked up "ali" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ali."

---

arab chief (noun)

The leader of an Arab village or family.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arab chief."
- They discussed "arab chief" during the group presentation.

---

attending (noun)

The act of being present (at a meeting or event etc.).

- He looked up "attending" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "attending."

---

baby doc (noun)

Son and successor of Francois Duvalier as president of Haiti; he was overthrown by a mass uprising in 1986 (born in 1951).

- In class, the teacher used "baby doc" to mean son and successor of francois duvalier as president....
- The article explained what "baby doc" means with a simple example.

---

bond trading (noun)

Trading in bonds (usually by a broker on the floor of an exchange).

- Understanding "bond trading" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bond trading."

---

brain-worker (noun)

Someone whose profession involves using his head to solve problems.

- They discussed "brain-worker" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "brain-worker" means with a simple example.

---

bye-election (noun)

A special election between regular elections.

- He looked up "bye-election" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bye-election" during the group presentation.

---

cabinet wood (noun)

Moderately dense wood used for cabinetwork.

- Teak and other heavy cabinet wood.
- They discussed "cabinet wood" during the group presentation.

---

charles martin hall (noun)

United States chemist who developed an economical method of producing aluminum from bauxite (1863-1914).

- He looked up "charles martin hall" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “charles martin hall.”

commerce department (noun)

The United States federal department that promotes and administers domestic and foreign trade (including management of the census and the patent office); created in 1913.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “commerce department.”
- Understanding “commerce department” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

department of commerce (noun)

The United States federal department that promotes and administers domestic and foreign trade (including management of the census and the patent office); created in 1913.

- In class, the teacher used “department of commerce” to mean the united states federal department that promotes....
- The article explained what “department of commerce” means with a simple example.

destruction fire (noun)

Fire delivered for the sole purpose of destroying material objects.

- Understanding “destruction fire” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “destruction fire” means with a simple example.

elementary school (noun)

A school for young children; usually the first 6 or 8 grades.

- In class, the teacher used “elementary school” to mean a school for young children; usually the first 6 or....
- They discussed “elementary school” during the group presentation.

engagement (noun)

The act of sharing in the activities of a group.

- The teacher tried to increase his students’ engagement in class activities.
- He lost his romantic ideas about war when he got into a real engagement.

fancy woman (noun)

A woman who engages in sexual intercourse for money.

- The article explained what “fancy woman” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fancy woman.”

foster care (noun)

Supervised care for delinquent or neglected children usually in an institution or substitute home.

- He looked up “foster care” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “foster care” to mean supervised care for delinquent or neglected....

group participation (noun)

Participation by all members of a group.

- Understanding “group participation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “group participation” means with a simple example.

high priest (noun)

A preeminent authority or major proponent of a movement or doctrine.

- He’s the high priest of contemporary jazz.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “high priest.”

high-angle fire (noun)

Fire from a cannon that is fired at an elevation greater than that for the maximum range.

- In class, the teacher used “high-angle fire” to mean fire from a cannon that is fired at an elevation....
- The article explained what “high-angle fire” means with a simple example.

hockey coach (noun)

A coach of hockey players.

- The article explained what “hockey coach” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “hockey coach” during the group presentation.

implementation (noun)

The act of accomplishing some aim or executing some order.

- The agency was created for the implementation of the policy.
- He looked up "implementation" because he had never seen it before.

---

james iv (noun)

A Stuart king of Scotland who married a daughter of Henry VII; when England and France went to war in 1513 he invaded England and died in defeat at Flodden (1473-1513).

- The article explained what "james iv" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "james iv" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

james mill (noun)

Scottish philosopher who expounded Bentham's utilitarianism; father of John Stuart Mill (1773-1836).

- In class, the teacher used "james mill" to mean scottish philosopher who expounded bentham's....
- Understanding "james mill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mask (noun)

Activity that tries to conceal something.

- No mask could conceal his ignorance.
- They moved in under a mask of friendship.

---

math teacher (noun)

Someone who teaches mathematics.

- Understanding "math teacher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "math teacher" to mean someone who teaches mathematics.

---

mind reader (noun)

A magician who seems to discern the thoughts of another person (usually by clever signals from an accomplice).

- The article explained what "mind reader" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mind reader" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mother's boy (noun)

A boy excessively attached to his mother; lacking normal masculine interests.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother's boy."
- Understanding "mother's boy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

news reader (noun)

Someone who reads out broadcast news bulletin.

- In class, the teacher used "news reader" to mean someone who reads out broadcast news bulletin.
- The article explained what "news reader" means with a simple example.

---

newspaper editor (noun)

The editor of a newspaper.

- He looked up "newspaper editor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "newspaper editor."

---

offensive activity (noun)

A lack of politeness; a failure to show regard for others; wounding the feelings or others.

- Understanding "offensive activity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "offensive activity" because he had never seen it before.

---

original sin (noun)

A sin said to be inherited by all descendants of Adam.

- Adam and Eve committed the original sin when they ate the forbidden fruit in the Garden of Eden.
- The article explained what "original sin" means with a simple example.

---

pet sitting (noun)

The work of a pet sitter; caring for pets in their own home while their owners are away from home.

- The article explained what "pet sitting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pet sitting" to mean the work of a pet sitter; caring for pets in their....

---

poor white trash (noun)

(slang) an offensive term for White people who are impoverished.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poor white trash."
- He looked up "poor white trash" because he had never seen it before.

---

president andrew johnson (noun)

17th President of the United States; was elected vice president and succeeded Lincoln when Lincoln was assassinated; was impeached but acquitted by one vote (1808-1875).

- He looked up "president andrew johnson" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "president andrew johnson" during the group presentation.

---

prince edward (noun)

Third son of Elizabeth II (born in 1964).

- Understanding "prince edward" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "prince edward" because he had never seen it before.

---

railroad man (noun)

An employee of a railroad.

- In class, the teacher used "railroad man" to mean an employee of a railroad.
- The article explained what "railroad man" means with a simple example.

---

registered mail (noun)

Mail that is registered by the post office when sent in order to assure safe delivery.

- The article explained what "registered mail" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "registered mail" to mean mail that is registered by the post office when....

---

relation (noun)

A person related by blood or marriage.

- He has distant relations back in New Jersey.
- He was the hero according to his own relation.

---

robert gray (noun)

American navigator who twice circumnavigated the globe and who discovered the Columbia River (1755-1806).

- They discussed "robert gray" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "robert gray" because he had never seen it before.

---

salary cut (noun)

The act of reducing a salary.

- Understanding "salary cut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salary cut."

---

school crossing (noun)

A pedestrian crossing where school children cross a street on the way to school.

- He looked up "school crossing" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "school crossing" to mean a pedestrian crossing where school children cross a....

---

searching fire (noun)

Fire distributed in depth by successive changes in the elevation of the gun.

- He looked up "searching fire" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "searching fire" to mean fire distributed in depth by successive changes in....

---

self-destruction (noun)

The act of killing yourself.

- His insistence was pure self-destruction.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-destruction."

self-organisation (noun)

Organizing yourself (especially organizing your own labor union).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-organisation."
- He looked up "self-organisation" because he had never seen it before.

sky pilot (noun)

A chaplain in one of the military services.

- The article explained what "sky pilot" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sky pilot."

slave (noun)

Someone entirely dominated by some influence or person.

- A slave to fashion.
- A slave to cocaine.

split shift (noun)

A working shift divided into two periods of time with several hours in between.

- Understanding "split shift" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "split shift" to mean a working shift divided into two periods of time....

student nurse (noun)

A nurse in training who is undergoing a trial period.

- Understanding "student nurse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "student nurse" because he had never seen it before.

toilet (noun)

The act of dressing and preparing yourself.

- He made his morning toilet and went to breakfast.
- Pensions are in the toilet.

trash collection (noun)

The collection and removal of garbage.

- Understanding "trash collection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trash collection."

viewed (verb)

Look at carefully; study mentally.

- She tried to use "viewed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "viewed" and when to wait.

visiting professor (noun)

A professor visiting another college or university to teach for a limited time.

- Understanding "visiting professor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "visiting professor" because he had never seen it before.

working principle (noun)

A rule that is adequate to permit work to be done.

- The article explained what "working principle" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "working principle."

administrative hearing (noun)

A hearing that takes place outside the judicial process before hearing examiners who have been granted judicial authority specifically for the purpose of conducting such hearings.

- In class, the teacher used "administrative hearing" to mean a hearing that takes place outside the judicial....
- The article explained what "administrative hearing" means with a simple example.

agenda (noun)

A list of matters to be taken up (as at a meeting).

- Understanding "agenda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "agenda" means with a simple example.

---

behavior therapy (noun)

Psychotherapy that seeks to extinguish or inhibit abnormal or maladaptive behavior by reinforcing desired behavior and extinguishing undesired behavior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "behavior therapy."
- He looked up "behavior therapy" because he had never seen it before.

---

blind flying (noun)

Using only instruments for flying an aircraft because you cannot see through clouds or mists etc.

- Understanding "blind flying" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "blind flying" during the group presentation.

---

broad jump (noun)

The act of jumping as far as possible from a running start.

- In class, the teacher used "broad jump" to mean the act of jumping as far as possible from a....
- The article explained what "broad jump" means with a simple example.

---

charles grey (noun)

Englishman who as Prime Minister implemented social reforms including the abolition of slavery throughout the British Empire (1764-1845).

- The article explained what "charles grey" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "charles grey" to mean englishman who as prime minister implemented social....

---

company operator (noun)

An operator who works for a company.

- They discussed "company operator" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "company operator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cooperation (noun)

The practice of cooperating.

- Economic cooperation.
- They agreed on a policy of cooperation.

---

cousin-german (noun)

The child of your aunt or uncle.

- He looked up "cousin-german" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cousin-german" during the group presentation.

---

craft (noun)

The skilled practice of a practical occupation.

- He represented the craft of brewers.
- In class, the teacher used "craft" to mean the skilled practice of a practical occupation.

---

escape expert (noun)

An entertainer who is expert in the art of escaping.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "escape expert."
- Understanding "escape expert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

extension agent (noun)

An advisor employed by the government to assist people in rural areas with methods of farming and home economics.

- In class, the teacher used "extension agent" to mean an advisor employed by the government to assist....
- They discussed "extension agent" during the group presentation.

---

failing (noun)

Failure to reach a minimum required performance.

- His failing the course led to his disqualification.

- He was quick to point out his wife's failings.

flood control (noun)

(engineering) the art or technique of trying to control rivers with dams etc in order to minimize the occurrence of floods.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flood control."
- He looked up "flood control" because he had never seen it before.

francis ii (noun)

The last Holy Roman Emperor (1768-1835).

- In class, the teacher used "francis ii" to mean the last holy roman emperor (1768-1835).
- The article explained what "francis ii" means with a simple example.

funeral director (noun)

One whose business is the management of funerals.

- The article explained what "funeral director" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "funeral director" to mean one whose business is the management of funerals.

gates (noun)

United States computer entrepreneur whose software company made him the youngest multi-billionaire in the history of the United States (born in 1955).

- He looked up "gates" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "gates" to mean united states computer entrepreneur whose software....

graham (noun)

United States evangelical preacher famous as a mass evangelist (born in 1918).

- In class, the teacher used "graham" to mean united states evangelical preacher famous as a mass....
- The article explained what "graham" means with a simple example.

henry ford (noun)

United States manufacturer of automobiles who pioneered mass production (1863-1947).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry ford."
- They discussed "henry ford" during the group presentation.

henry miller (noun)

United States novelist whose novels were originally banned as pornographic (1891-1980).

- The article explained what "henry miller" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry miller."

hillary (noun)

New Zealand mountaineer who in 1953 first attained the summit of Mount Everest with his Sherpa guide Tenzing Norgay (born in 1919).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hillary."
- The article explained what "hillary" means with a simple example.

hired gun (noun)

A professional killer who uses a gun.

- He looked up "hired gun" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hired gun" during the group presentation.

hurts (noun)

The act of damaging something or someone.

- Understanding "hurts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hurts."

jail delivery (noun)

The use of force to liberate prisoners.

- Understanding "jail delivery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jail delivery."

john bull (noun)

A man of English descent.

- In class, the teacher used "john bull" to mean a man of english descent.
- The article explained what "john bull" means with a simple example.

---

leave of absence (noun)

The period of time during which you are absent from work or duty.

- A ten day's leave to visit his mother.
- They discussed "leave of absence" during the group presentation.

---

literary work (noun)

Imaginative or creative writing.

- The article explained what "literary work" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "literary work" to mean imaginative or creative writing.

---

magic trick (noun)

An illusory feat; considered magical by naive observers.

- In class, the teacher used "magic trick" to mean an illusory feat; considered magical by naive observers.
- The article explained what "magic trick" means with a simple example.

---

mark clark (noun)

United States general who was Allied commander in Africa and Italy in World War II and was commander of the United Nations forces in Korea (1896-1984).

- In class, the teacher used "mark clark" to mean united states general who was allied commander in....
- The article explained what "mark clark" means with a simple example.

---

marriage ceremony (noun)

The act of marrying; the nuptial ceremony.

- Their marriage was conducted in the chapel.
- He looked up "marriage ceremony" because he had never seen it before.

---

master of architecture (noun)

A degree granted for the successful completion of advanced study of architecture.

- He looked up "master of architecture" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "master of architecture" to mean a degree granted for the successful completion of....

---

minority leader (noun)

Leader of the minority party in a legislature.

- Understanding "minority leader" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "minority leader" because he had never seen it before.

---

nursing care (noun)

Care by a skilled nurse.

- They discussed "nursing care" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "nursing care" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nursing school (noun)

A school for training nurses.

- Understanding "nursing school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "nursing school" because he had never seen it before.

---

odd fish (noun)

Someone regarded as eccentric or crazy and standing out from a group.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "odd fish."
- They discussed "odd fish" during the group presentation.

---

queen victoria (noun)

Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and empress of India from 1837 to 1901; the last Hanoverian ruler of England (1819-1901).

- They discussed "queen victoria" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "queen victoria."

---

school of nursing (noun)

A school for training nurses.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "school of nursing."
- They discussed "school of nursing" during the group presentation.

---

silent partner (noun)

A partner (who usually provides capital) whose association with the enterprise is not public knowledge.

- They discussed "silent partner" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "silent partner" because he had never seen it before.

---

straight and narrow (noun)

The way of proper and honest behavior.

- He taught his children to keep strictly to the straight and narrow.
- He looked up "straight and narrow" because he had never seen it before.

---

street theater (noun)

Dramatization of a social issue; enacted outside in a park or on the street.

- He looked up "street theater" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "street theater" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

terrorist act (noun)

The calculated use of violence (or the threat of violence) against civilians in order to attain goals that are political or religious or ideological in nature; this is done through intimidation or coercion or instilling fear.

- In class, the teacher used "terrorist act" to mean the calculated use of violence (or the threat of....
- Understanding "terrorist act" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

the devil (noun)

Something difficult or awkward to do or deal with.

- It will be the devil to solve.
- The article explained what "the devil" means with a simple example.

---

thomas gray (noun)

English poet best known for his elegy written in a country churchyard (1716-1771).

- The article explained what "thomas gray" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "thomas gray" to mean english poet best known for his elegy written in a....

---

tiger (noun)

A fierce or audacious person.

- He's a tiger on the tennis court.
- It aroused the tiger in me.

---

uncle tom (noun)

A servile black character in a novel by Harriet Beecher Stowe.

- The article explained what "uncle tom" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "uncle tom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

up-bow (noun)

An upward stroke from the tip to the heel of the bow.

- Understanding "up-bow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "up-bow" during the group presentation.

---

visits (noun)

The act of going to see some person in a professional capacity.

- Understanding "visits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "visits" because he had never seen it before.

warriors (noun)

Someone engaged in or experienced in warfare.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "warriors."
- They discussed "warriors" during the group presentation.

water conservation (noun)

The conservation of water resources.

- Understanding "water conservation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water conservation."

alien (noun)

A form of life assumed to exist outside the Earth or its atmosphere.

- They discussed "alien" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "alien" because he had never seen it before.

blue wall of silence (noun)

The secrecy of police officers who lie or look the other way to protect other police officers.

- The blue wall cracked when some officers refused to take part in the cover-up.
- Understanding "blue wall of silence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

celebration (noun)

The public performance of a sacrament or solemn ceremony with all appropriate ritual.

- The celebration of marriage.
- Understanding "celebration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

coaching (noun)

The job of a professional coach.

- In class, the teacher used "coaching" to mean the job of a professional coach.
- They discussed "coaching" during the group presentation.

colleagues (noun)

A person who is member of one's class or profession.

- The surgeon consulted his colleagues.
- He looked up "colleagues" because he had never seen it before.

conservation of matter (noun)

A fundamental principle of classical physics that matter cannot be created or destroyed in an isolated system.

- They discussed "conservation of matter" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "conservation of matter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

down-bow (noun)

A downward stroke from the heel to the tip of the bow.

- The article explained what "down-bow" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "down-bow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

drag (noun)

The act of dragging (pulling with force).

- The drag up the hill exhausted him.
- Taxation is a drag on the economy.

edward teach (noun)

An English pirate who operated in the Caribbean and off the Atlantic coast of North America (died in 1718).

- He looked up "edward teach" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edward teach."

election fraud (noun)

Misrepresentation or alteration of the true results of an election.

- The article explained what "election fraud" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "election fraud" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

employee-owned business (noun)

A commercial enterprise owned by the people who work for it.

- In class, the teacher used "employee-owned business" to mean a commercial enterprise owned by the people who....
- They discussed "employee-owned business" during the group presentation.

execution (noun)

The act of accomplishing some aim or executing some order.

- Understanding "execution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "execution" to mean the act of accomplishing some aim or executing some....

fly-fishing (noun)

Angling with an artificial fly as a lure.

- He looked up "fly-fishing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fly-fishing."

fool (noun)

A person who is gullible and easy to take advantage of.

- In class, the teacher used "fool" to mean a person who is gullible and easy to take advantage of.
- He looked up "fool" because he had never seen it before.

foster child (noun)

A child who is raised by foster parents.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foster child."
- The article explained what "foster child" means with a simple example.

foster-child (noun)

A child who is raised by foster parents.

- Understanding "foster-child" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "foster-child" to mean a child who is raised by foster parents.

framework (noun)

A hypothetical description of a complex entity or process.

- Providing a factual framework for future research.
- Understanding "framework" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

george iv (noun)

King of Great Britain and Ireland and Hanover from 1820 to 1830; his attempt to divorce his estranged wife undermined the prestige of the Crown (1762-1830).

- In class, the teacher used "george iv" to mean king of great britain and ireland and hanover from....
- They discussed "george iv" during the group presentation.

grand dragon (noun)

A high ranking person in the Ku Klux Klan.

- The article explained what "grand dragon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "grand dragon" to mean a high ranking person in the ku klux klan.

gun for hire (noun)

A professional killer who uses a gun.

- They discussed "gun for hire" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gun for hire" means with a simple example.

holy ghost (noun)

The third person in the Trinity; Jesus promised the Apostles that he would send the Holy Spirit after his Crucifixion and Resurrection; it came on Pentecost.

- They discussed "holy ghost" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "holy ghost" means with a simple example.

---

interaction (noun)

A mutual or reciprocal action; interacting.

- Understanding "interaction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "interaction" because he had never seen it before.

---

journalists (noun)

A writer for newspapers and magazines.

- Understanding "journalists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "journalists" because he had never seen it before.

---

jury duty (noun)

The civic duty to serve on a jury.

- Understanding "jury duty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "jury duty" because he had never seen it before.

---

landing approach (noun)

The approach to a landing field by an airplane.

- The article explained what "landing approach" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "landing approach" to mean the approach to a landing field by an airplane.

---

legal fraud (noun)

Comprises all acts or omissions or concealments involving breach of equitable or legal duty or trust or confidence.

- They discussed "legal fraud" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal fraud."

---

lighting (noun)

The craft of providing artificial light.

- An interior decorator must understand lighting.
- As long as the lighting was good.

---

michael joe jackson (noun)

United States singer who began singing with his four brothers and later became a highly successful star during the 1980s (born in 1958).

- Understanding "michael joe jackson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "michael joe jackson" to mean united states singer who began singing with his....

---

mother's daughter (noun)

A daughter who is favored by and similar to her mother.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother's daughter."
- He looked up "mother's daughter" because he had never seen it before.

---

path of least resistance (noun)

The easiest way.

- In marrying him she simply took the path of least resistance.
- Understanding "path of least resistance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ruling (noun)

The reason for a court's judgment (as opposed to the decision itself).

- The article explained what "ruling" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ruling."

---

self-punishment (noun)

Punishment inflicted on yourself.

- He looked up "self-punishment" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-punishment."

---

sexual assault (noun)

A statutory offense that provides that it is a crime to knowingly cause another person to engage in an unwanted sexual act by force or threat.

- Most states have replaced the common law definition of rape with statutes defining sexual assault.
- The article explained what "sexual assault" means with a simple example.

---

she-devil (noun)

A cruel woman.

- The article explained what "she-devil" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "she-devil."

---

shore leave (noun)

Leave granted to a sailor or naval officer.

- He looked up "shore leave" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "shore leave" to mean leave granted to a sailor or naval officer.

---

spiritual leader (noun)

A leader in religious or sacred affairs.

- He looked up "spiritual leader" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spiritual leader" to mean a leader in religious or sacred affairs.

---

tennis player (noun)

An athlete who plays tennis.

- He looked up "tennis player" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tennis player" to mean an athlete who plays tennis.

---

theater director (noun)

Someone who supervises the actors and directs the action in the production of a show.

- The article explained what "theater director" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "theater director" to mean someone who supervises the actors and directs the....

---

tv reporter (noun)

Someone who reports news stories via television.

- The article explained what "tv reporter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tv reporter" to mean someone who reports news stories via television.

---

volunteers (noun)

A native or resident of Tennessee.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "volunteers."
- Understanding "volunteers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wage scale (noun)

A schedule of wages paid for different jobs.

- In class, the teacher used "wage scale" to mean a schedule of wages paid for different jobs.
- He looked up "wage scale" because he had never seen it before.

---

walker smith (noun)

United States prizefighter who won the world middleweight championship five times and the world welterweight championship once (1921-1989).

- The article explained what "walker smith" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "walker smith."

---

witnesses (noun)

A close observer; someone who looks at something (such as an exhibition of some kind).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "witnesses."
- The article explained what "witnesses" means with a simple example.

---

wolf boy (noun)

A male person assumed to have been raised by wolves.

- He looked up "wolf boy" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "wolf boy" to mean a male person assumed to have been raised by wolves.

---

worthy (noun)

An important, honorable person (word is often used humorously).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "worthy."
- He looked up "worthy" because he had never seen it before.

---

absence without leave (noun)

Unauthorized military absence.

- He looked up "absence without leave" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "absence without leave."

---

active citizen (noun)

A citizen who takes an active role in the community (as in crime prevention and neighborhood watch).

- He looked up "active citizen" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "active citizen" during the group presentation.

---

bass (noun)

An adult male singer with the lowest voice.

- They discussed "bass" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bass" means with a simple example.

---

beef man (noun)

A man who raises (or tends) cattle.

- In class, the teacher used "beef man" to mean a man who raises (or tends) cattle.
- Understanding "beef man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

breathing (noun)

The bodily process of inhalation and exhalation; the process of taking in oxygen from inhaled air and releasing carbon dioxide by exhalation.

- In class, the teacher used "breathing" to mean the bodily process of inhalation and exhalation;....
- They discussed "breathing" during the group presentation.

---

breathing in (noun)

The act of inhaling; the drawing in of air (or other gases) as in breathing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breathing in."
- He looked up "breathing in" because he had never seen it before.

---

breathing out (noun)

The act of expelling air from the lungs.

- He looked up "breathing out" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "breathing out" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cleaning lady (noun)

A human female employed to do housework.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cleaning lady."
- Understanding "cleaning lady" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

collaboration (noun)

Act of cooperating traitorously with an enemy that is occupying your country.

- They worked either in collaboration or independently.
- They discussed "collaboration" during the group presentation.

---

con (noun)

A person serving a sentence in a jail or prison.

- Understanding "con" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "con" to mean a person serving a sentence in a jail or prison.

consideration (noun)

A discussion of a topic (as in a meeting).

- Consideration of the traffic problem took more than an hour.
- Another consideration is the time it would take.

counts (noun)

The act of counting; reciting numbers in ascending order.

- Understanding "counts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "counts" means with a simple example.

creates (verb)

Invest with a new title, office, or rank.

- He did not know how to use "creates" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "creates" in real sentences.

daughters (noun)

A female human offspring.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daughters."
- The article explained what "daughters" means with a simple example.

dependent (noun)

A person who relies on another person for support (especially financial support).

- The article explained what "dependent" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dependent" to mean a person who relies on another person for support....

drives (noun)

The act of applying force to propel something.

- They discussed "drives" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "drives" to mean the act of applying force to propel something.

elementary education (noun)

Education in elementary subjects (reading and writing and arithmetic) provided to young students at a grade school.

- Understanding "elementary education" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elementary education."

fbi agent (noun)

A special law-enforcement agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

- In class, the teacher used "fbi agent" to mean a special law-enforcement agent of the federal....
- The article explained what "fbi agent" means with a simple example.

feeding (noun)

The act of supplying food and nourishment.

- Understanding "feeding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "feeding" during the group presentation.

finishing school (noun)

A private school for girls that emphasizes training in cultural and social activities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "finishing school."
- They discussed "finishing school" during the group presentation.

fire fighter (noun)

A member of a fire department who tries to extinguish fires.

- They discussed "fire fighter" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire fighter."

foster father (noun)

A man who is a foster parent.

- They discussed "foster father" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "foster father" means with a simple example.

---

foster mother (noun)

A woman who is a foster parent and raises another's child.

- Understanding "foster mother" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foster mother."

---

foster son (noun)

Someone who is raised as a son although not related by birth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foster son."
- The article explained what "foster son" means with a simple example.

---

foster-father (noun)

A man who is a foster parent.

- In class, the teacher used "foster-father" to mean a man who is a foster parent.
- They discussed "foster-father" during the group presentation.

---

foster-mother (noun)

A woman who is a foster parent and raises another's child.

- The article explained what "foster-mother" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "foster-mother" to mean a woman who is a foster parent and raises another's....

---

foster-son (noun)

Someone who is raised as a son although not related by birth.

- Understanding "foster-son" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "foster-son" to mean someone who is raised as a son although not related....

---

grades (noun)

A body of students who are taught together.

- In class, the teacher used "grades" to mean a body of students who are taught together.
- Understanding "grades" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

judgment (noun)

The act of judging or assessing a person or situation or event.

- They criticized my judgment of the contestants.
- He was reluctant to make his judgment known.

---

king of swing (noun)

United States clarinetist who in 1934 formed a big band (including black as well as white musicians) and introduced a kind of jazz known as swing (1909-1986).

- In class, the teacher used "king of swing" to mean united states clarinetist who in 1934 formed a big....
- The article explained what "king of swing" means with a simple example.

---

line triple (noun)

A triple resulting from a line drive.

- Understanding "line triple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "line triple" during the group presentation.

---

loan approval (noun)

Formal authorization to get a loan (usually from a bank).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loan approval."
- The article explained what "loan approval" means with a simple example.

---

mature (verb)

Develop and work out fully in one's mind.

- I need to mature my thoughts.

- He matured fast.

---

moore (noun)

United States poet noted for irony and wit (1887-1872).

- In class, the teacher used "moore" to mean united states poet noted for irony and wit (1887-1872).
- The article explained what "moore" means with a simple example.

---

naked option (noun)

A put or call option for which the seller or buyer has no underlying security position.

- In class, the teacher used "naked option" to mean a put or call option for which the seller or buyer....
- He looked up "naked option" because he had never seen it before.

---

native speaker (noun)

A speaker of a particular language who has spoken that language since earliest childhood.

- Native speakers of French.
- He looked up "native speaker" because he had never seen it before.

---

network programming (noun)

The schedule of programs to be broadcast on a network.

- They discussed "network programming" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "network programming" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

philip (noun)

Englishman and husband of Elizabeth II (born 1921).

- He looked up "philip" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "philip" during the group presentation.

---

photographer (noun)

Someone who takes photographs professionally.

- The article explained what "photographer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "photographer" to mean someone who takes photographs professionally.

---

pin-up (noun)

A very pretty girl who works as a photographer's model.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pin-up."
- Understanding "pin-up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

positive fraud (noun)

Actual deceit; concealing something or making a false representation with an evil intent to cause injury to another.

- They discussed "positive fraud" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "positive fraud" means with a simple example.

---

preparation fire (noun)

Fire delivered on a target in preparation for an assault.

- They discussed "preparation fire" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "preparation fire" to mean fire delivered on a target in preparation for an....

---

president lincoln (noun)

16th President of the United States; saved the Union during the American Civil War and emancipated the slaves; was assassinated by Booth (1809-1865).

- They discussed "president lincoln" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "president lincoln" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prevention (noun)

The act of preventing.

- Money was allocated to study the cause and prevention of influenza.
- In class, the teacher used "prevention" to mean the act of preventing.

---

printing (noun)

All the copies of a work printed at one time.

- They ran off an initial printing of 2000 copies.
- They discussed "printing" during the group presentation.

registration fire (noun)

Fire delivered to obtain accurate data for subsequent effective engagement of targets.

- The article explained what "registration fire" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "registration fire" to mean fire delivered to obtain accurate data for....

religious ceremony (noun)

A ceremony having religious meaning.

- They discussed "religious ceremony" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "religious ceremony" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

richard henry lee (noun)

Leader of the American Revolution who proposed the resolution calling for independence of the American Colonies (1732-1794).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "richard henry lee."
- The article explained what "richard henry lee" means with a simple example.

saint peter (noun)

Disciple of Jesus and leader of the Apostles; regarded by Catholics as the vicar of Christ on earth and first Pope.

- The article explained what "saint peter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "saint peter" to mean disciple of jesus and leader of the apostles;....

salary increase (noun)

The amount a salary is increased.

- Understanding "salary increase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salary increase."

senior citizen (noun)

An elderly person.

- In class, the teacher used "senior citizen" to mean an elderly person.
- The article explained what "senior citizen" means with a simple example.

silver-worker (noun)

Someone who makes or repairs articles of silver.

- He looked up "silver-worker" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "silver-worker" to mean someone who makes or repairs articles of silver.

slip-up (noun)

A minor inadvertent mistake usually observed in speech or writing or in small accidents or memory lapses etc.

- In class, the teacher used "slip-up" to mean a minor inadvertent mistake usually observed in....
- The article explained what "slip-up" means with a simple example.

spare time (noun)

Time that is free from duties or responsibilities.

- In class, the teacher used "spare time" to mean time that is free from duties or responsibilities.
- He looked up "spare time" because he had never seen it before.

specialist (noun)

An expert who is devoted to one occupation or branch of learning.

- They discussed "specialist" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "specialist" to mean an expert who is devoted to one occupation or....

speed cop (noun)

A policeman who rides a motorcycle (and who checks the speeds of motorists).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "speed cop."
- He looked up "speed cop" because he had never seen it before.

---

spring-cleaning (noun)

The activity of cleaning a house thoroughly at the end of winter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spring-cleaning."
- The article explained what "spring-cleaning" means with a simple example.

---

stranger (noun)

An individual that one is not acquainted with.

- In class, the teacher used "stranger" to mean an individual that one is not acquainted with.
- Understanding "stranger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

terrorist attack (noun)

A surprise attack involving the deliberate use of violence against civilians in the hope of attaining political or religious aims.

- Understanding "terrorist attack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "terrorist attack" to mean a surprise attack involving the deliberate use of....

---

thompson (noun)

United States classical archaeologist (born in Canada) noted for leading the excavation of the Athenian agora (1906-2000).

- In class, the teacher used "thompson" to mean united states classical archaeologist (born in....
- They discussed "thompson" during the group presentation.

---

tourism (noun)

The business of providing services to tourists.

- Tourism is a major business in Bermuda.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tourism."

---

trail boss (noun)

The person responsible for driving a herd of cattle.

- The article explained what "trail boss" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trail boss" to mean the person responsible for driving a herd of cattle.

---

uncle joe (noun)

United States general who commanded the Allied forces in China and Burma and India during World War II (1883-1946).

- The article explained what "uncle joe" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "uncle joe" during the group presentation.

---

vietnam war (noun)

A prolonged war (1954-1975) between the communist armies of North Vietnam who were supported by the Chinese and the armies of South Vietnam who were supported by the United States.

- Understanding "vietnam war" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "vietnam war" means with a simple example.

---

white slave (noun)

A woman sold into prostitution.

- In class, the teacher used "white slave" to mean a woman sold into prostitution.
- The article explained what "white slave" means with a simple example.

---

wild pitch (noun)

An errant pitch that the catcher cannot be expected to catch and that allows a base runner to advance a base.

- He looked up "wild pitch" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild pitch."

---

worship of man (noun)

The worship of human beings.

- They discussed "worship of man" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "worship of man" to mean the worship of human beings.

agriculture secretary (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Agriculture.

- The post of Secretary of Agriculture was established in 1889.
- The first Secretary of Agriculture was Norman J. Colman, who was appointed by Cleveland.

andrew jackson (noun)

7th president of the US; successfully defended New Orleans from the British in 1815; expanded the power of the presidency (1767-1845).

- Understanding "andrew jackson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "andrew jackson" means with a simple example.

armed combat (noun)

An engagement fought between two military forces.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "armed combat."
- He looked up "armed combat" because he had never seen it before.

associate professor (noun)

A teacher lower in rank than a full professor but higher than an assistant professor.

- The article explained what "associate professor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "associate professor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

auction (noun)

The public sale of something to the highest bidder.

- They discussed "auction" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "auction" means with a simple example.

battle of atlanta (noun)

A siege in which Federal troops under Sherman cut off the railroads supplying the city and then burned it; 1864.

- He looked up "battle of atlanta" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "battle of atlanta" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bill russell (noun)

United States basketball center (born in 1934).

- They discussed "bill russell" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bill russell."

biological research (noun)

Scientific research conducted by biologists.

- Understanding "biological research" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "biological research" during the group presentation.

churches (noun)

A service conducted in a house of worship.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "churches."
- He looked up "churches" because he had never seen it before.

commerce secretary (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Commerce.

- The position of Commerce Secretary was created in 1913.
- The first Commerce Secretary was William C. Redfield who was appointed by Wilson.

commercial enterprise (noun)

The activity of providing goods and services involving financial and commercial and industrial aspects.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commercial enterprise."
- He looked up "commercial enterprise" because he had never seen it before.

con man (noun)

A swindler who exploits the confidence of his victim.

- Understanding "con man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "con man" means with a simple example.

---

counting (noun)

The act of counting; reciting numbers in ascending order.

- The counting continued for several hours.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "counting."

---

david bruce (noun)

Australian physician and bacteriologist who described the bacterium that causes undulant fever or brucellosis (1855-1931).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "david bruce."
- Understanding "david bruce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

distributed fire (noun)

Fire dispersed so as to engage effectively an area target.

- The article explained what "distributed fire" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "distributed fire" to mean fire dispersed so as to engage effectively an area....

---

editing (noun)

Putting something (as a literary work or a legislative bill) into acceptable form.

- Understanding "editing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "editing" to mean putting something (as a literary work or a....

---

electric shock (noun)

The use of electricity to administer punishment or torture.

- They used cattle prods to administer electric shocks.
- Subjects received a small electric shock when they made the wrong response.

---

false witness (noun)

A person who deliberately gives false testimony.

- He looked up "false witness" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "false witness" during the group presentation.

---

fashion designer (noun)

Someone who designs clothing.

- They discussed "fashion designer" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fashion designer" means with a simple example.

---

firing (noun)

The act of firing weapons or artillery at an enemy.

- The article explained what "firing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "firing" to mean the act of firing weapons or artillery at an enemy.

---

fits (noun)

A sudden flurry of activity (often for no obvious reason).

- In class, the teacher used "fits" to mean a sudden flurry of activity (often for no obvious....
- They discussed "fits" during the group presentation.

---

flying colors (noun)

Complete success.

- They passed inspection with flying colors.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flying colors."

---

frank harris (noun)

Irish writer noted for his sexually explicit but unreliable autobiography (1856-1931).

- They discussed "frank harris" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “frank harris” because he had never seen it before.

housing commissioner (noun)

A commissioner in charge of public housing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “housing commissioner.”
- Understanding “housing commissioner” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

iron duke (noun)

British general and statesman; he defeated Napoleon at Waterloo; subsequently served as Prime Minister (1769-1852).

- The article explained what “iron duke” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “iron duke.”

isis (noun)

Egyptian goddess of fertility; daughter of Geb; sister and wife of Osiris.

- Understanding “isis” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “isis” to mean egyptian goddess of fertility; daughter of geb;....

lay witness (noun)

Any witness who does not testify as an expert witness.

- They discussed “lay witness” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lay witness.”

mechanism (noun)

The technical aspects of doing something.

- A mechanism of social control.
- Mechanisms of communication.

moderate (noun)

A person who takes a position in the political center.

- The article explained what “moderate” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “moderate” to mean a person who takes a position in the political center.

non-engagement (noun)

Withdrawing from the activities of a group.

- They discussed “non-engagement” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “non-engagement” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

operating procedure (noun)

A procedure for operating something or for dealing with a given situation.

- Understanding “operating procedure” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “operating procedure” to mean a procedure for operating something or for dealing....

peace initiative (noun)

Opening move in negotiating a peace treaty.

- In class, the teacher used “peace initiative” to mean opening move in negotiating a peace treaty.
- Understanding “peace initiative” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

peter pan (noun)

A boyish or immature man; after the boy in Barrie’s play who never grows up.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “peter pan.”
- He looked up “peter pan” because he had never seen it before.

place-worship (noun)

The worship of places.

- He looked up “place-worship” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “place-worship” to mean the worship of places.

publications (noun)

A copy of a printed work offered for distribution.

- The article explained what "publications" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "publications" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

radiation (noun)

The act of spreading outward from a central source.

- He was suffering from radiation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radiation."

---

rest-cure (noun)

Rest as a medical treatment for stress or anxiety etc.

- He looked up "rest-cure" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rest-cure" to mean rest as a medical treatment for stress or anxiety etc.

---

saint thomas (noun)

The Apostle who would not believe the resurrection of Jesus until he saw Jesus with his own eyes.

- The article explained what "saint thomas" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saint thomas."

---

secretary of agriculture (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Agriculture.

- The post of Secretary of Agriculture was established in 1889.
- The first Secretary of Agriculture was Norman J. Colman, who was appointed by Cleveland.

---

secretary of commerce (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Commerce.

- The position of Commerce Secretary was created in 1913.
- The first Commerce Secretary was William C. Redfield who was appointed by Wilson.

---

sir john ross (noun)

Scottish explorer who led Arctic expeditions that yielded geographic discoveries while searching for the Northwest Passage (1777-1856).

- In class, the teacher used "sir john ross" to mean scottish explorer who led arctic expeditions that....
- The article explained what "sir john ross" means with a simple example.

---

street fighter (noun)

A contestant who is very aggressive and willing to use underhand methods.

- In class, the teacher used "street fighter" to mean a contestant who is very aggressive and willing to....
- Understanding "street fighter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

student residence (noun)

A college or university building containing living quarters for students.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "student residence."
- He looked up "student residence" because he had never seen it before.

---

traveling (noun)

The act of going from one place to another.

- In class, the teacher used "traveling" to mean the act of going from one place to another.
- He looked up "traveling" because he had never seen it before.

---

tune-up (noun)

Exercising in preparation for strenuous activity.

- He looked up "tune-up" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tune-up."

---

alabama (noun)

A member of the Muskhogean people formerly living in what is now the state of Alabama.

- The Alabamas were members of the Creek Confederacy.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alabama."

---

capital punishment (noun)

Putting a condemned person to death.

- They discussed "capital punishment" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "capital punishment" means with a simple example.

---

chip shot (noun)

(golf) a low running approach shot.

- He looked up "chip shot" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chip shot."

---

civil rights worker (noun)

A leader of the political movement dedicated to securing equal opportunity for members of minority groups.

- Understanding "civil rights worker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "civil rights worker" during the group presentation.

---

classical (adjective)

Of or relating to the study of the literary works of ancient Greece and Rome.

- A classical scholar.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "classical."

---

classified (noun)

A short ad in a newspaper or magazine (usually in small print) and appearing along with other ads of the same type.

- The article explained what "classified" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "classified."

---

coaching job (noun)

The job of a professional coach.

- They discussed "coaching job" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "coaching job" means with a simple example.

---

confidence trick (noun)

A swindle in which you cheat at gambling or persuade a person to buy worthless property.

- The article explained what "confidence trick" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "confidence trick" to mean a swindle in which you cheat at gambling or....

---

cooper (noun)

A craftsman who makes or repairs wooden barrels or tubs.

- In class, the teacher used "cooper" to mean a craftsman who makes or repairs wooden barrels or tubs.
- They discussed "cooper" during the group presentation.

---

emergency procedure (noun)

(medicine) a procedure adopted to meet an emergency (especially a medical emergency).

- He looked up "emergency procedure" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emergency procedure."

---

examination (noun)

A set of questions or exercises evaluating skill or knowledge.

- They discussed "examination" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "examination" because he had never seen it before.

---

faculty member (noun)

An educator who works at a college or university.

- Understanding "faculty member" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "faculty member" because he had never seen it before.

farm worker (noun)

A hired hand on a farm.

- He looked up "farm worker" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "farm worker."

fellow worker (noun)

An associate that one works with.

- The article explained what "fellow worker" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fellow worker."

firing off (noun)

The act of discharging a gun.

- Understanding "firing off" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firing off."

forced landing (noun)

An unscheduled airplane landing that is made under circumstances (engine failure or adverse weather) not under the pilot's control.

- In class, the teacher used "forced landing" to mean an unscheduled airplane landing that is made under....
- He looked up "forced landing" because he had never seen it before.

foster brother (noun)

Your foster brother is a male who is not a son of your parents but who is raised by your parents.

- The article explained what "foster brother" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "foster brother" to mean your foster brother is a male who is not a son of....

foster daughter (noun)

Someone who is raised as a daughter although not related by birth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foster daughter."
- He looked up "foster daughter" because he had never seen it before.

foster-brother (noun)

Your foster brother is a male who is not a son of your parents but who is raised by your parents.

- He looked up "foster-brother" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "foster-brother" to mean your foster brother is a male who is not a son of....

foster-daughter (noun)

Someone who is raised as a daughter although not related by birth.

- Understanding "foster-daughter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foster-daughter."

greek mode (noun)

Any of the descending diatonic scales in the music of classical Greece.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greek mode."
- They discussed "greek mode" during the group presentation.

guardian (noun)

A person who cares for persons or property.

- The article explained what "guardian" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "guardian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ice-hockey player (noun)

An athlete who plays hockey.

- He looked up "ice-hockey player" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice-hockey player."

instrument (noun)

The means whereby some act is accomplished.

- My greed was the instrument of my destruction.
- The article explained what "instrument" means with a simple example.

---

intervention (noun)

The act of intervening (as to mediate a dispute, etc.).

- It occurs without human intervention.
- The purpose of intervention is to prevent unnecessary duplication of lawsuits.

---

jerry (noun)

Offensive term for a person of German descent.

- He looked up "jerry" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "jerry" during the group presentation.

---

law of conservation of matter (noun)

A fundamental principle of classical physics that matter cannot be created or destroyed in an isolated system.

- In class, the teacher used "law of conservation of matter" to mean a fundamental principle of classical physics that....
- They discussed "law of conservation of matter" during the group presentation.

---

literary study (noun)

The humanistic study of literature.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "literary study."
- The article explained what "literary study" means with a simple example.

---

lover (noun)

A person who loves someone or is loved by someone.

- In class, the teacher used "lover" to mean a person who loves someone or is loved by someone.
- He looked up "lover" because he had never seen it before.

---

non-involvement (noun)

Withdrawing from the activities of a group.

- They discussed "non-involvement" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "non-involvement" to mean withdrawing from the activities of a group.

---

odd fellow (noun)

Someone regarded as eccentric or crazy and standing out from a group.

- Understanding "odd fellow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "odd fellow" during the group presentation.

---

office furniture (noun)

Furniture intended for use in an office.

- He looked up "office furniture" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "office furniture."

---

oil conservation (noun)

The conservation of petroleum resources.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oil conservation."
- He looked up "oil conservation" because he had never seen it before.

---

pack riding (noun)

Riding with a pack.

- He looked up "pack riding" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pack riding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

piano player (noun)

A person who plays the piano.

- Understanding "piano player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "piano player" to mean a person who plays the piano.

---

piece of tail (noun)

Slang for sexual intercourse.

- The article explained what "piece of tail" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "piece of tail" to mean slang for sexual intercourse.

---

plastic surgery (noun)

Surgery concerned with therapeutic or cosmetic reformation of tissue.

- The article explained what "plastic surgery" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "plastic surgery" to mean surgery concerned with therapeutic or cosmetic....

---

princess of wales (noun)

English aristocrat who was the first wife of Prince Charles; her death in an automobile accident in Paris produced intense national mourning (1961-1997).

- Understanding "princess of wales" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "princess of wales" means with a simple example.

---

refugees (noun)

An exile who flees for safety.

- Understanding "refugees" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "refugees" because he had never seen it before.

---

ruling class (noun)

The class of people exerting power or authority.

- They discussed "ruling class" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ruling class" to mean the class of people exerting power or authority.

---

search and destroy mission (noun)

An operation developed for United States troops in Vietnam; troops would move through a designated area destroying troops as they found them.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "search and destroy mission."
- Understanding "search and destroy mission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sex symbol (noun)

A person (especially a celebrity) who is well-known for their sexual attractiveness.

- He looked up "sex symbol" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sex symbol."

---

stem turn (noun)

A turn made in skiing; the back of one ski is forced outward and the other ski is brought parallel to it.

- In class, the teacher used "stem turn" to mean a turn made in skiing; the back of one ski is....
- Understanding "stem turn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

strip search (noun)

Searching someone for concealed weapons or illegal drugs by having them remove their clothes.

- In class, the teacher used "strip search" to mean searching someone for concealed weapons or illegal....
- The article explained what "strip search" means with a simple example.

---

ted (noun)

A tough youth of 1950's and 1960's wearing Edwardian style clothes.

- They discussed "ted" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ted" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tennis coach (noun)

A coach of tennis players.

- They discussed "tennis coach" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tennis coach."

---

terror (noun)

The use of extreme fear in order to coerce people (especially for political reasons).

- He used terror to make them confess.
- He was the terror of the neighborhood.

---

test-tube baby (noun)

A baby conceived by fertilization that occurs outside the mother's body; the woman's ova are removed and mixed with sperm in a culture medium - if fertilization occurs the blastocyte is implanted in the woman's uterus.

- The article explained what "test-tube baby" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "test-tube baby" to mean a baby conceived by fertilization that occurs....

---

toilet training (noun)

Training a young child to use the toilet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toilet training."
- They discussed "toilet training" during the group presentation.

---

utility man (noun)

A workman expected to serve in any capacity when called on.

- Understanding "utility man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "utility man."

---

war of the grand alliance (noun)

An aggressive war waged by Louis XIV against Spain and the Holy Roman Empire and England and Holland and other states (1689-1697).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "war of the grand alliance."
- Understanding "war of the grand alliance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

william clark (noun)

United States explorer who (with Meriwether Lewis) led an expedition from St. Louis to the mouth of the Columbia River; Clark was responsible for making maps of the area (1770-1838).

- In class, the teacher used "william clark" to mean united states explorer who (with meriwether lewis)....
- They discussed "william clark" during the group presentation.

---

william iv (noun)

King of England and Ireland; son of George III who ascended the throne after a long naval career (1765-1837).

- He looked up "william iv" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "william iv" during the group presentation.

---

wing commander (noun)

(RAF rank) one who is next below a group captain.

- The article explained what "wing commander" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wing commander" to mean (raf rank) one who is next below a group captain.

---

actual possession (noun)

(law) immediate and direct physical control over property.

- In class, the teacher used "actual possession" to mean (law) immediate and direct physical control over....
- The article explained what "actual possession" means with a simple example.

---

actual sin (noun)

A sin committed of your own free will (as contrasted with original sin).

- In class, the teacher used "actual sin" to mean a sin committed of your own free will (as....
- The article explained what "actual sin" means with a simple example.

---

applied math (noun)

The branches of mathematics that are involved in the study of the physical or biological or sociological world.

- They discussed "applied math" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "applied math" to mean the branches of mathematics that are involved in....

---

approaches (noun)

The act of drawing spatially closer to something.

- In class, the teacher used "approaches" to mean the act of drawing spatially closer to something.
- He looked up "approaches" because he had never seen it before.

---

arrangement (noun)

An organized structure for arranging or classifying.

- He changed the arrangement of the topics.
- They made arrangements to meet in Chicago.

---

bat boy (noun)

(baseball) a boy who takes care of bats and other baseball equipment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bat boy."
- He looked up "bat boy" because he had never seen it before.

---

breaking and entering (noun)

Trespassing for an unlawful purpose; illegal entrance into premises with criminal intent.

- Understanding "breaking and entering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breaking and entering."

---

brick (noun)

A good fellow; helpful and trustworthy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brick."
- He looked up "brick" because he had never seen it before.

---

colleges (noun)

The body of faculty and students of a college.

- In class, the teacher used "colleges" to mean the body of faculty and students of a college.
- The article explained what "colleges" means with a simple example.

---

database management (noun)

Creation and maintenance of a database.

- He looked up "database management" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "database management" during the group presentation.

---

double-crossing (noun)

An act of betrayal.

- I could no longer tolerate his impudent double-crossing.
- He looked up "double-crossing" because he had never seen it before.

---

dutch treat (noun)

A dinner where each person pays for his own.

- Understanding "dutch treat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dutch treat" during the group presentation.

---

elizabeth taylor (noun)

United States film actress (born in England) who was a childhood star; as an adult she often co-starred with Richard Burton (born in 1932).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elizabeth taylor."
- Understanding "elizabeth taylor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

emperor (noun)

The male ruler of an empire.

- In class, the teacher used "emperor" to mean the male ruler of an empire.
- He looked up "emperor" because he had never seen it before.

---

employers (noun)

A person or firm that employs workers.

- Understanding "employers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "employers" during the group presentation.

errors (noun)

A wrong action attributable to bad judgment or ignorance or inattention.

- She was quick to point out my errors.
- The book was full of errors.

fire-worship (noun)

The worship of fire.

- They discussed "fire-worship" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fire-worship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gathering (noun)

The social act of assembling.

- They discussed "gathering" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gathering" to mean the social act of assembling.

gulf war (noun)

A war fought between Iraq and a coalition led by the United States that freed Kuwait from Iraqi invaders; 1990-1991.

- In class, the teacher used "gulf war" to mean a war fought between iraq and a coalition led by....
- He looked up "gulf war" because he had never seen it before.

henry morgan (noun)

A Welsh buccaneer who raided Spanish colonies in the West Indies for the English (1635-1688).

- Understanding "henry morgan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry morgan."

hunting guide (noun)

Guide to people hunting in unfamiliar territory.

- The article explained what "hunting guide" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hunting guide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

indians (noun)

A member of the race of people living in America when Europeans arrived.

- He looked up "indians" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "indians" to mean a member of the race of people living in america....

inspector (noun)

An investigator who observes carefully.

- They discussed "inspector" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "inspector" to mean an investigator who observes carefully.

khan (noun)

A title given to rulers or other important people in Asian countries.

- He looked up "khan" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "khan."

lieutenant governor (noun)

An elected official serving as deputy to the governor of a state of the United States.

- The article explained what "lieutenant governor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lieutenant governor" during the group presentation.

lion (noun)

A celebrity who is lionized (much sought after).

- Understanding "lion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lion" because he had never seen it before.

little terror (noun)

A very troublesome child.

- In class, the teacher used "little terror" to mean a very troublesome child.
- The article explained what "little terror" means with a simple example.

---

louis iv (noun)

King of France (921-954).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "louis iv."
- Understanding "louis iv" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

medal winner (noun)

(golf) the winner at medal play of a tournament.

- In class, the teacher used "medal winner" to mean (golf) the winner at medal play of a tournament.
- The article explained what "medal winner" means with a simple example.

---

out-and-outer (noun)

Someone who is excellent at something.

- He looked up "out-and-outer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "out-and-outer."

---

outside loop (noun)

A loop consisting of a dive followed by inverted flight followed by a climb that returns to horizontal flight.

- The article explained what "outside loop" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "outside loop" to mean a loop consisting of a dive followed by inverted....

---

pit stop (noun)

A stop during an automobile trip for rest and refreshment.

- The article explained what "pit stop" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pit stop" to mean a stop during an automobile trip for rest and....

---

president kennedy (noun)

35th President of the United States; established the Peace Corps; assassinated in Dallas (1917-1963).

- He looked up "president kennedy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "president kennedy" during the group presentation.

---

rip-off (noun)

The act of stealing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rip-off."
- Understanding "rip-off" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

self-sacrifice (noun)

Acting with less concern for yourself than for the success of the joint activity.

- He looked up "self-sacrifice" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-sacrifice."

---

self-worship (noun)

The worship of yourself.

- The article explained what "self-worship" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "self-worship" to mean the worship of yourself.

---

sheet-metal work (noun)

The craft of doing sheet metal work (as in ventilation systems).

- In class, the teacher used "sheet-metal work" to mean the craft of doing sheet metal work (as in....
- The article explained what "sheet-metal work" means with a simple example.

---

sooner (noun)

A native or resident of Oklahoma.

- Understanding "sooner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "sooner" during the group presentation.

---

stewart (noun)

Scottish philosopher and follower of Thomas Reid (1753-1828).

- He looked up "stewart" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stewart."

---

supply-side economics (noun)

The school of economic theory that stresses the costs of production as a means of stimulating the economy; advocates policies that raise capital and labor output by increasing the incentive to produce.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supply-side economics."
- He looked up "supply-side economics" because he had never seen it before.

---

tea ceremony (noun)

An ancient ritual for preparing and serving and drinking tea.

- In class, the teacher used "tea ceremony" to mean an ancient ritual for preparing and serving and....
- He looked up "tea ceremony" because he had never seen it before.

---

tennis pro (noun)

Someone who earns a living playing or teaching tennis.

- In class, the teacher used "tennis pro" to mean someone who earns a living playing or teaching tennis.
- The article explained what "tennis pro" means with a simple example.

---

tracking (noun)

The pursuit (of a person or animal) by following tracks or marks they left behind.

- They discussed "tracking" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tracking" because he had never seen it before.

---

traffic cop (noun)

A policeman who controls the flow of automobile traffic.

- The article explained what "traffic cop" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "traffic cop" to mean a policeman who controls the flow of automobile traffic.

---

tribute (noun)

Payment extorted by gangsters on threat of violence.

- They discussed "tribute" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tribute" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trigger (noun)

An act that sets in motion some course of events.

- In class, the teacher used "trigger" to mean an act that sets in motion some course of events.
- The article explained what "trigger" means with a simple example.

---

wells (noun)

Prolific English writer best known for his science-fiction novels; he also wrote on contemporary social problems and wrote popular accounts of history and science (1866-1946).

- They discussed "wells" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wells" because he had never seen it before.

---

woman-worship (noun)

The worship of women.

- The article explained what "woman-worship" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "woman-worship" to mean the worship of women.

---

word-worship (noun)

The worship of words.

- The article explained what "word-worship" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "word-worship" to mean the worship of words.

---

x-ray therapy (noun)

The therapeutic use of X rays.

- He looked up "x-ray therapy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "x-ray therapy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

abortion (noun)

Termination of pregnancy.

- He looked up "abortion" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "abortion" to mean termination of pregnancy.

---

albert (noun)

Prince consort of Queen Victoria of England (1819-1861).

- He looked up "albert" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "albert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

belongs (verb)

Be rightly classified in a class or category.

- This book belongs to me.
- Let's put health care where it belongs–under the control of the government.

---

bill gates (noun)

United States computer entrepreneur whose software company made him the youngest multi-billionaire in the history of the United States (born in 1955).

- They discussed "bill gates" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bill gates" to mean united states computer entrepreneur whose software....

---

biological attack (noun)

The use of bacteria or viruses or toxins to destroy men and animals or food.

- They discussed "biological attack" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "biological attack."

---

burns (noun)

United States comedian and film actor (1896-1996).

- Understanding "burns" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "burns" because he had never seen it before.

---

chemical defence (noun)

Procedures involved in taking defensive measures against attacks using chemical agents.

- Understanding "chemical defence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "chemical defence" means with a simple example.

---

clothes designer (noun)

Someone who designs clothing.

- The article explained what "clothes designer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "clothes designer" during the group presentation.

---

combat pilot (noun)

Airplane pilot who fights in an action between two military forces.

- Understanding "combat pilot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "combat pilot" because he had never seen it before.

---

copyright (noun)

A document granting exclusive right to publish and sell literary or musical or artistic work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "copyright."
- He looked up "copyright" because he had never seen it before.

---

cost accounting (noun)

Keeping account of the costs of items in production.

- He looked up "cost accounting" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cost accounting."

---

crown princess (noun)

The wife of a crown prince.

- He looked up "crown princess" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "crown princess" during the group presentation.

---

dean martin (noun)

United States singer (1917-1995).

- They discussed "dean martin" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dean martin" because he had never seen it before.

---

democrat (noun)

A member of the Democratic Party.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "democrat."
- The article explained what "democrat" means with a simple example.

---

devil dog (noun)

A member of the United States Marine Corps.

- Understanding "devil dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "devil dog" means with a simple example.

---

divine (noun)

A clergyman or other person in religious orders.

- The article explained what "divine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "divine" to mean a clergyman or other person in religious orders.

---

encounter group (noun)

A meeting of people to develop mutual understanding by freely expressing emotions.

- Understanding "encounter group" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "encounter group" means with a simple example.

---

expert witness (noun)

A witness who has knowledge not normally possessed by the average person concerning the topic that he is to testify about.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "expert witness."
- The article explained what "expert witness" means with a simple example.

---

final judgment (noun)

A judgment disposing of the case before the court; after the judgment (or an appeal from it) is rendered all that remains is to enforce the judgment.

- In class, the teacher used "final judgment" to mean a judgment disposing of the case before the court;....
- The article explained what "final judgment" means with a simple example.

---

foster sister (noun)

Your foster sister is a female who is not a daughter of your parents but who is raised by your parents.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foster sister."
- The article explained what "foster sister" means with a simple example.

---

foster-sister (noun)

Your foster sister is a female who is not a daughter of your parents but who is raised by your parents.

- Understanding "foster-sister" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "foster-sister" to mean your foster sister is a female who is not a....

---

government accounting office (noun)

An independent nonpartisan federal agency that acts as the investigative arm of Congress making the executive branch accountable to Congress and the government accountable to citizens of the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "government accounting office" to mean an independent nonpartisan federal agency that acts....
- The article explained what "government accounting office" means with a simple example.

grandfather (noun)

The father of your father or mother.

- In class, the teacher used "grandfather" to mean the father of your father or mother.
- They discussed "grandfather" during the group presentation.

heart specialist (noun)

A specialist in cardiology; a specialist in the structure and function and disorders of the heart.

- They discussed "heart specialist" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "heart specialist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

homeless person (noun)

Someone unfortunate without housing.

- A homeless was found murdered in Central Park.
- They discussed "homeless person" during the group presentation.

inside loop (noun)

A loop consisting of a climb followed by inverted flight followed by a dive that returns to horizontal flight.

- In class, the teacher used "inside loop" to mean a loop consisting of a climb followed by inverted....
- Understanding "inside loop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

joe clark (noun)

Canadian politician who served as prime minister (1939-).

- They discussed "joe clark" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "joe clark" means with a simple example.

mama (noun)

A name under which Ninkhursag was worshipped.

- He looked up "mama" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mama" to mean a name under which ninkhursag was worshipped.

marshall (noun)

A law officer having duties similar to those of a sheriff in carrying out the judgments of a court of law.

- In class, the teacher used "marshall" to mean a law officer having duties similar to those of a....
- He looked up "marshall" because he had never seen it before.

materials handling (noun)

Act of loading and unloading and moving goods within e.g. a factory especially using mechanical devices.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "materials handling."
- Understanding "materials handling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mill agent (noun)

The responsible official at a mill that is under absentee ownership.

- They discussed "mill agent" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mill agent."

mitchell (noun)

English aeronautical engineer (1895-1937).

- He looked up "mitchell" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mitchell."

nelson (noun)

English admiral who defeated the French fleets of Napoleon but was mortally wounded at Trafalgar (1758-1805).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nelson."
- He looked up "nelson" because he had never seen it before.

poor devil (noun)

Someone you feel sorry for.

- He looked up "poor devil" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "poor devil" to mean someone you feel sorry for.

---

president cleveland (noun)

22nd and 24th President of the United States (1837-1908).

- He looked up "president cleveland" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "president cleveland."

---

professionals (noun)

An authority qualified to teach apprentices.

- In class, the teacher used "professionals" to mean an authority qualified to teach apprentices.
- The article explained what "professionals" means with a simple example.

---

radio operator (noun)

Someone who operates a radio transmitter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radio operator."
- He looked up "radio operator" because he had never seen it before.

---

registered representative (noun)

Someone in charge of a client's account for an advertising agency or brokerage or other service business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "registered representative."
- He looked up "registered representative" because he had never seen it before.

---

search and rescue mission (noun)

A rescue mission to search for survivors and to rescue them.

- Understanding "search and rescue mission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "search and rescue mission" to mean a rescue mission to search for survivors and to....

---

speakers (noun)

The presiding officer of a deliberative assembly.

- He looked up "speakers" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "speakers" to mean the presiding officer of a deliberative assembly.

---

spy (noun)

A secret watcher; someone who secretly watches other people.

- In class, the teacher used "spy" to mean a secret watcher; someone who secretly watches....
- They discussed "spy" during the group presentation.

---

strategic intelligence (noun)

Intelligence that is required for forming policy and military plans at national and international levels.

- The article explained what "strategic intelligence" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "strategic intelligence" during the group presentation.

---

summit meeting (noun)

A meeting of heads of governments.

- Understanding "summit meeting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "summit meeting" means with a simple example.

---

suspension (noun)

The act of suspending something (hanging it from above so it moves freely).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "suspension."
- Understanding "suspension" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

terrorism (noun)

The calculated use of violence (or the threat of violence) against civilians in order to attain goals that are political or religious or ideological in nature; this is done through intimidation or coercion or instilling fear.

- The article explained what "terrorism" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "terrorism" to mean the calculated use of violence (or the threat of....

---

unions (noun)

The act of making or becoming a single unit.

- Understanding "unions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "unions" means with a simple example.

---

upgrade (noun)

The act of improving something (especially machinery) by raising it to a higher grade (as by adding or replacing components).

- The power plant received a new upgrade.
- I got an upgrade to first class when coach class was full.

---

van allen (noun)

United States physicist who discovered two belts of charged particles from the solar wind trapped by the Earth's magnetic field (born in 1914).

- They discussed "van allen" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "van allen" because he had never seen it before.

---

wage schedule (noun)

A schedule of wages paid for different jobs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wage schedule."
- The article explained what "wage schedule" means with a simple example.

---

aaron (noun)

United States professional baseball player who hit more home runs than Babe Ruth (born in 1934).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aaron."
- They discussed "aaron" during the group presentation.

---

arrangements (noun)

An organized structure for arranging or classifying.

- They made arrangements to meet in Chicago.
- The article explained what "arrangements" means with a simple example.

---

backing (noun)

The act of providing approval and support.

- His vigorous backing of the conservatives got him in trouble with progressives.
- They discussed "backing" during the group presentation.

---

baker (noun)

Someone who bakes commercially.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baker."
- The article explained what "baker" means with a simple example.

---

billy sunday (noun)

United States evangelist (1862-1935).

- Understanding "billy sunday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "billy sunday" during the group presentation.

---

book lover (noun)

Someone who loves (and usually collects) books.

- The article explained what "book lover" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "book lover" to mean someone who loves (and usually collects) books.

---

brush (noun)

The act of brushing your hair.

- He gave his hair a quick brush.
- The dentist recommended two brushes a day.

---

campbell (noun)

United States mythologist (1904-1987).

- He looked up "campbell" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "campbell" to mean united states mythologist (1904-1987).

---

contrast medium (noun)

A substance that is opaque to x-rays; when administered it allows a radiologist to examine the organ or tissue it fills.

- The article explained what "contrast medium" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "contrast medium" to mean a substance that is opaque to x-rays; when....

---

craft union (noun)

A labor union whose membership is restricted to workers in a particular craft.

- The article explained what "craft union" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "craft union" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

creating by mental acts (noun)

The act of creating something by thinking.

- Understanding "creating by mental acts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "creating by mental acts" means with a simple example.

---

criminal possession (noun)

(law) possession for which criminal sanctions are provided because the property may not lawfully be possessed or may not be possessed under certain circumstances.

- The article explained what "criminal possession" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "criminal possession" to mean (law) possession for which criminal sanctions are....

---

discussing (verb)

To consider or examine in speech or writing.

- The coach explained when to use "discussing" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "discussing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

dj (noun)

A person who announces and plays popular recorded music.

- Understanding "dj" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dj."

---

dry cleaning (noun)

The act of cleaning (fabrics) with a solvent other than water.

- In class, the teacher used "dry cleaning" to mean the act of cleaning (fabrics) with a solvent other....
- Understanding "dry cleaning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electrical skin response (noun)

A change in the electrical properties of the skin in response to stress or anxiety; can be measured either by recording the electrical resistance of the skin or by recording weak currents generated by the body.

- He looked up "electrical skin response" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrical skin response."

---

emergency landing (noun)

An unscheduled airplane landing that is made under circumstances (engine failure or adverse weather) not under the pilot's control.

- Understanding "emergency landing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "emergency landing" because he had never seen it before.

---

fundamental analysis (noun)

(stock exchange) the use of fundamentals as an investment strategy.

- The article explained what "fundamental analysis" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fundamental analysis."

---

government printing office (noun)

An agency of the legislative branch that provides printing and binding services for Congress and the departments and establishments of the federal government.

- In class, the teacher used "government printing office" to mean an agency of the legislative branch that provides....
- He looked up "government printing office" because he had never seen it before.

---

great grandfather (noun)

A father of your grandparent.

- They discussed "great grandfather" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "great grandfather" because he had never seen it before.

---

healthcare delivery (noun)

The provision of health care.

- The article explained what "healthcare delivery" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "healthcare delivery" to mean the provision of health care.

---

henry ford ii (noun)

Grandson of Henry Ford (1917-1987).

- The article explained what "henry ford ii" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "henry ford ii" to mean grandson of henry ford (1917-1987).

---

innocent iii (noun)

Italian pope from 1198 to 1216 who instituted the Fourth Crusade and under whom papal intervention in European politics reached its height (1161-1216).

- The article explained what "innocent iii" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "innocent iii" to mean italian pope from 1198 to 1216 who instituted the....

---

inspector general (noun)

A military officer responsible for investigations.

- The article explained what "inspector general" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "inspector general" to mean a military officer responsible for investigations.

---

jacob (noun)

French biochemist who (with Jacques Monod) studied regulatory processes in cells (born in 1920).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jacob."
- Understanding "jacob" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

james thomas harris (noun)

Irish writer noted for his sexually explicit but unreliable autobiography (1856-1931).

- The article explained what "james thomas harris" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "james thomas harris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jumping (noun)

The act of jumping; propelling yourself off the ground.

- The jumping was unexpected.
- In class, the teacher used "jumping" to mean the act of jumping; propelling yourself off the ground.

---

kate smith (noun)

United States singer noted for her rendition of patriotic songs (1909-1986).

- In class, the teacher used "kate smith" to mean united states singer noted for her rendition of....
- He looked up "kate smith" because he had never seen it before.

---

leo i (noun)

Italian pope from 440 to 461 who extended the authority of the papacy to the west and persuaded Attila not to attack Rome (440-461).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leo i."
- The article explained what "leo i" means with a simple example.

---

line-drive triple (noun)

A triple resulting from a line drive.

- The article explained what "line-drive triple" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "line-drive triple" during the group presentation.

medical specialist (noun)

Practices one branch of medicine.

- In class, the teacher used "medical specialist" to mean practices one branch of medicine.
- The article explained what "medical specialist" means with a simple example.

military volunteer (noun)

(military) a person who freely enlists for service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military volunteer."
- He looked up "military volunteer" because he had never seen it before.

mining engineer (noun)

An engineer concerned with the construction and operation of mines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mining engineer."
- They discussed "mining engineer" during the group presentation.

opponents (noun)

A contestant that you are matched against.

- Understanding "opponents" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "opponents" means with a simple example.

parker (noun)

United States writer noted for her sharp wit (1893-1967).

- The article explained what "parker" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "parker" during the group presentation.

personal judgment (noun)

A judgment rendered against an individual (or corporation) for the payment of money damages.

- He looked up "personal judgment" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "personal judgment" to mean a judgment rendered against an individual (or....

press photographer (noun)

A photographer who works for a newspaper.

- He looked up "press photographer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "press photographer."

rangers (noun)

A member of a military unit trained as shock troops for hit-and-run raids.

- He looked up "rangers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rangers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sir joseph banks (noun)

English botanist who accompanied Captain Cook on his first voyage to the Pacific Ocean (1743-1820).

- Understanding "sir joseph banks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sir joseph banks" because he had never seen it before.

sitting bull (noun)

A chief of the Sioux; took up arms against settlers in the northern Great Plains and against United States Army troops; he was present at the Battle of Little Bighorn (1876) when the Sioux massacred General Custer's troops (1831-1890).

- The article explained what "sitting bull" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sitting bull" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

soul-searching (noun)

A penetrating examination of your own beliefs and motives.

- He looked up "soul-searching" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "soul-searching" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stealing (noun)

The act of taking something from someone unlawfully.

- The article explained what "stealing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stealing" during the group presentation.

---

tasks (noun)

A specific piece of work required to be done as a duty or for a specific fee.

- He looked up "tasks" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tasks."

---

trips (noun)

An unintentional but embarrassing blunder.

- He looked up "trips" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "trips" to mean an unintentional but embarrassing blunder.

---

uncle sam (noun)

A personification of the United States government.

- In class, the teacher used "uncle sam" to mean a personification of the united states government.
- They discussed "uncle sam" during the group presentation.

---

value judgment (noun)

An assessment that reveals more about the values of the person making the assessment than about the reality of what is assessed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "value judgment."
- He looked up "value judgment" because he had never seen it before.

---

work shoe (noun)

A thick and heavy shoe.

- Understanding "work shoe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "work shoe" because he had never seen it before.

---

amateur (noun)

An athlete who does not play for pay.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amateur."
- Understanding "amateur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

anti-intellectual (noun)

A person who is uninterested in intellectual pursuits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anti-intellectual."
- They discussed "anti-intellectual" during the group presentation.

---

batman (noun)

An orderly assigned to serve a British military officer.

- The article explained what "batman" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "batman."

---

beats (noun)

A United States youth subculture of the 1950s; rejected possessions or regular work or traditional dress; for communal living and psychedelic drugs and anarchism; favored modern forms of jazz (e.g., bebop).

- The signal was two beats on the steam pipe.
- They discussed "beats" during the group presentation.

---

bell founder (noun)

A person who casts metal bells.

- Understanding "bell founder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bell founder" during the group presentation.

---

biological defense (noun)

Procedures involved in taking defensive measures against attacks using biological agents.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "biological defense."

- The article explained what "biological defense" means with a simple example.

bobby (noun)

An informal term for a British policeman.

- He looked up "bobby" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bobby" during the group presentation.

brush-off (noun)

A curt or disdainful rejection.

- Understanding "brush-off" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "brush-off" means with a simple example.

christopher (noun)

Christian martyr and patron saint of travellers (3rd century).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "christopher."
- He looked up "christopher" because he had never seen it before.

climb (noun)

The act of climbing something.

- It was a difficult climb to the top.
- The article explained what "climb" means with a simple example.

conservation of mass (noun)

A fundamental principle of classical physics that matter cannot be created or destroyed in an isolated system.

- He looked up "conservation of mass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conservation of mass."

craft fair (noun)

A fair at which objects made by craftsmen are offered for sale.

- In class, the teacher used "craft fair" to mean a fair at which objects made by craftsmen are....
- They discussed "craft fair" during the group presentation.

departure time (noun)

The time at which a public conveyance is scheduled to depart from a given point of origin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "departure time."
- He looked up "departure time" because he had never seen it before.

divine service (noun)

The act of public worship following prescribed rules.

- The Sunday service.
- Understanding "divine service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

double leg circle (noun)

A gymnastic exercise performed on the pommel horse when the gymnast (with legs together) swings his legs in a circle while alternating hands on the pommels.

- They discussed "double leg circle" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "double leg circle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

employer (noun)

A person or firm that employs workers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "employer."
- The article explained what "employer" means with a simple example.

evans (noun)

United States anatomist who identified four pituitary hormones and discovered vitamin E (1882-1971).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "evans."
- Understanding "evans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

explosion (noun)

The act of exploding or bursting.

- The explosion of the firecrackers awoke the children.
- The population explosion.

---

film editing (noun)

The activity of selecting the scenes to be shown and putting them together to create a film.

- Understanding "film editing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "film editing."

---

final exam (noun)

An examination administered at the end of an academic term.

- The article explained what "final exam" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "final exam" to mean an examination administered at the end of an....

---

final examination (noun)

An examination administered at the end of an academic term.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "final examination."
- He looked up "final examination" because he had never seen it before.

---

fox hunting (noun)

Mounted hunters follow hounds in pursuit of a fox.

- Understanding "fox hunting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fox hunting" to mean mounted hunters follow hounds in pursuit of a fox.

---

full nelson (noun)

A wrestling hold in which the holder puts both arms under the opponent's arms and exerts pressure on the back of the neck (illegal in amateur wrestling).

- In class, the teacher used "full nelson" to mean a wrestling hold in which the holder puts both arms....
- He looked up "full nelson" because he had never seen it before.

---

fund-raising drive (noun)

A campaign to raise money for some cause.

- They discussed "fund-raising drive" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fund-raising drive" to mean a campaign to raise money for some cause.

---

greek catholic (noun)

A member of the Greek Orthodox Church.

- They discussed "greek catholic" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "greek catholic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

henry iv (noun)

The first Lancastrian king of England from 1399 to 1413; deposed Richard II and suppressed rebellions (1367-1413).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry iv."
- He looked up "henry iv" because he had never seen it before.

---

holidays (noun)

A day on which work is suspended by law or custom.

- No mail is delivered on federal holidays.
- The article explained what "holidays" means with a simple example.

---

home invasion (noun)

Burglary of a dwelling while the residents are at home.

- Understanding "home invasion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "home invasion" means with a simple example.

---

ian smith (noun)

Rhodesian statesman who declared independence of Zimbabwe from Great Britain (born in 1919).

- They discussed "ian smith" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ian smith" to mean rhodesian statesman who declared independence of....

---

information gathering (noun)

The act of collecting information.

- The article explained what "information gathering" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "information gathering" during the group presentation.

---

integration (noun)

The act of combining into an integral whole.

- In class, the teacher used "integration" to mean the act of combining into an integral whole.
- They discussed "integration" during the group presentation.

---

internal revenue agent (noun)

Someone who collects taxes for the government.

- In class, the teacher used "internal revenue agent" to mean someone who collects taxes for the government.
- The article explained what "internal revenue agent" means with a simple example.

---

jerry-building (noun)

Construction of inferior buildings for a quick profit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jerry-building."
- The article explained what "jerry-building" means with a simple example.

---

john adams (noun)

2nd President of the United States (1735-1826).

- The article explained what "john adams" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "john adams" to mean 2nd president of the united states (1735-1826).

---

jumping up and down (noun)

Jumping in one spot (as in excitement).

- The wailing and jumping up and down exhausted him.
- He looked up "jumping up and down" because he had never seen it before.

---

leo the great (noun)

Italian pope from 440 to 461 who extended the authority of the papacy to the west and persuaded Attila not to attack Rome (440-461).

- In class, the teacher used "leo the great" to mean italian pope from 440 to 461 who extended the....
- The article explained what "leo the great" means with a simple example.

---

mills (noun)

United States architect who was the presidentially appointed architect of Washington D.C. (1781-1855).

- They discussed "mills" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mills" means with a simple example.

---

oliver (noun)

United States jazz musician who influenced the style of Louis Armstrong (1885-1938).

- The article explained what "oliver" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oliver."

---

opera star (noun)

Singer of lead role in an opera.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "opera star."
- They discussed "opera star" during the group presentation.

---

outdoor man (noun)

Someone who enjoys outdoor activities.

- In class, the teacher used "outdoor man" to mean someone who enjoys outdoor activities.
- They discussed "outdoor man" during the group presentation.

permit (noun)

The act of giving a formal (usually written) authorization.

- The article explained what "permit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "permit."

president adams (noun)

2nd President of the United States (1735-1826).

- In class, the teacher used "president adams" to mean 2nd president of the united states (1735-1826).
- The article explained what "president adams" means with a simple example.

professional tennis player (noun)

Someone who earns a living playing or teaching tennis.

- They discussed "professional tennis player" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "professional tennis player" means with a simple example.

robert the bruce (noun)

King of Scotland from 1306 to 1329; defeated the English army under Edward II at Bannockburn and gained recognition of Scottish independence (1274-1329).

- Understanding "robert the bruce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "robert the bruce" means with a simple example.

self-examination (noun)

The contemplation of your own thoughts and desires and conduct.

- Understanding "self-examination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "self-examination" during the group presentation.

skin and bones (noun)

A person who is unusually thin and scrawny.

- They discussed "skin and bones" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "skin and bones" to mean a person who is unusually thin and scrawny.

slight (noun)

A deliberate discourteous act (usually as an expression of anger or disapproval).

- The article explained what "slight" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "slight" to mean a deliberate discourteous act (usually as an....

social lion (noun)

A celebrity who is lionized (much sought after).

- The article explained what "social lion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "social lion" to mean a celebrity who is lionized (much sought after).

sunday punch (noun)

A hard punch that renders the opponent unable to continue boxing.

- He looked up "sunday punch" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sunday punch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tension (noun)

The action of stretching something tight.

- Tension holds the belt in the pulleys.
- He suffered from fatigue and emotional tension.

transactions (noun)

A written account of what transpired at a meeting.

- No transactions are possible without him.
- The article explained what "transactions" means with a simple example.

us government printing office (noun)

An agency of the legislative branch that provides printing and binding services for Congress and the departments and establishments of the federal government.

- In class, the teacher used "us government printing office" to mean an agency of the legislative branch that provides....
- The article explained what "us government printing office" means with a simple example.

---

virtual reality (noun)

A hypothetical three-dimensional visual world created by a computer; user wears special goggles and fiber optic gloves etc., and can enter and move about in this world and interact with objects as if inside it.

- The article explained what "virtual reality" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "virtual reality" to mean a hypothetical three-dimensional visual world....

---

advocate (noun)

A person who pleads for a cause or propounds an idea.

- They discussed "advocate" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "advocate."

---

agricultural agent (noun)

An advisor employed by the government to assist people in rural areas with methods of farming and home economics.

- In class, the teacher used "agricultural agent" to mean an advisor employed by the government to assist....
- The article explained what "agricultural agent" means with a simple example.

---

aims (noun)

The action of directing something at an object.

- In class, the teacher used "aims" to mean the action of directing something at an object.
- The article explained what "aims" means with a simple example.

---

bank examination (noun)

An examination of the affairs and records of a bank by a state or federal bank examiner.

- They discussed "bank examination" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bank examination" means with a simple example.

---

camera operator (noun)

A photographer who operates a movie camera.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "camera operator."
- He looked up "camera operator" because he had never seen it before.

---

campaigns (noun)

A race between candidates for elective office.

- He supported populist campaigns.
- They discussed "campaigns" during the group presentation.

---

charter school (noun)

An experimental public school for kindergarten through grade 12; created and organized by teachers and parents and community leaders; operates independently of other schools.

- The article explained what "charter school" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "charter school" during the group presentation.

---

collections (noun)

A publication containing a variety of works.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "collections."
- He looked up "collections" because he had never seen it before.

---

creator (noun)

A person who grows or makes or invents things.

- Understanding "creator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "creator" during the group presentation.

---

creatures (noun)

A human being; 'wight' is an archaic term.

- Understanding "creatures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “creatures” because he had never seen it before.

---

daniel morgan (noun)

Soldier in the American Revolution who defeated the British in the battle of Cowpens, South Carolina (1736-1802).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “daniel morgan.”
- The article explained what “daniel morgan” means with a simple example.

---

desert fox (noun)

German field marshal noted for brilliant generalship in North Africa during World War II (1891-1944).

- He looked up “desert fox” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “desert fox” to mean german field marshal noted for brilliant....

---

detective (noun)

A police officer who investigates crimes.

- The article explained what “detective” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “detective.”

---

diamond jim (noun)

United States financier noted for his love of diamonds and his extravagant lifestyle (1856-1917).

- He looked up “diamond jim” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “diamond jim” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dig into (verb)

Examine physically with or as if with a probe.

- She tried to use “dig into” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “dig into” until he saw an example.

---

dirty trick (noun)

An unkind or aggressive trick.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dirty trick.”
- They discussed “dirty trick” during the group presentation.

---

divine office (noun)

Canonical prayers recited daily by priests (e.g. the breviary of the Roman Catholic Church).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “divine office.”
- Understanding “divine office” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

double stopping (noun)

Stopping two strings and producing two notes at the same time.

- The article explained what “double stopping” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “double stopping” to mean stopping two strings and producing two notes at the....

---

douglas (noun)

United States politician who proposed that individual territories be allowed to decide whether they would have slavery; he engaged in a famous series of debates with Abraham Lincoln (1813-1861).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “douglas.”
- Understanding “douglas” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

farming (noun)

The practice of cultivating the land or raising stock.

- Farming is a strenuous life.
- Understanding “farming” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

foot-pound (noun)

A unit of work equal to a force of one pound moving through a distance of one foot.

- The article explained what “foot-pound” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “foot-pound” during the group presentation.

---

forcing out (noun)

The act of expelling or projecting or ejecting.

- He looked up "forcing out" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forcing out."

---

franklin (noun)

A landowner (14th and 15th centuries) who was free but not of noble birth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "franklin."
- He looked up "franklin" because he had never seen it before.

---

freedom fighter (noun)

A person who takes part in an armed rebellion against the constituted authority (especially in the hope of improving conditions).

- The article explained what "freedom fighter" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "freedom fighter" during the group presentation.

---

fund-raising campaign (noun)

A campaign to raise money for some cause.

- They discussed "fund-raising campaign" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fund-raising campaign" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

golf lesson (noun)

A lesson in playing golf.

- In class, the teacher used "golf lesson" to mean a lesson in playing golf.
- The article explained what "golf lesson" means with a simple example.

---

half nelson (noun)

A wrestling hold in which the holder puts an arm under the opponent's arm and exerts pressure on the back of the neck.

- In class, the teacher used "half nelson" to mean a wrestling hold in which the holder puts an arm....
- They discussed "half nelson" during the group presentation.

---

holder (noun)

The person who is in possession of a check or note or bond or document of title that is endorsed to him or to whoever holds it.

- A towel holder.
- A cigarette holder.

---

hood (noun)

An aggressive and violent young criminal.

- There are powerful engines under the hoods of new cars.
- In class, the teacher used "hood" to mean an aggressive and violent young criminal.

---

industrial enterprise (noun)

The development of industry on an extensive scale.

- In class, the teacher used "industrial enterprise" to mean the development of industry on an extensive scale.
- They discussed "industrial enterprise" during the group presentation.

---

international terrorism (noun)

Terrorism practiced in a foreign country by terrorists who are not native to that country.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "international terrorism."
- Understanding "international terrorism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

james murray (noun)

Scottish philologist and the lexicographer who shaped the Oxford English Dictionary (1837-1915).

- Understanding "james murray" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "james murray" during the group presentation.

---

john harvard (noun)

American philanthropist who left his library and half his estate to the Massachusetts college that now bears his name (1607-1638).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john harvard."
- The article explained what "john harvard" means with a simple example.

---

john marshall (noun)

United States jurist; as chief justice of the Supreme Court he established the principles of United States constitutional law (1755-1835).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john marshall."
- He looked up "john marshall" because he had never seen it before.

---

john mitchell (noun)

United States labor leader; president of the United Mine Workers of America from 1898 to 1908 (1870-1919).

- They discussed "john mitchell" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "john mitchell" to mean united states labor leader; president of the united....

---

john the divine (noun)

(New Testament) disciple of Jesus; traditionally said to be the author of the 4th Gospel and three epistles and the book of Revelation.

- The article explained what "john the divine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "john the divine" during the group presentation.

---

key stroke (noun)

The stroke of a key; one depression of a key on a keyboard.

- The number of keystrokes was used as a measure of work.
- They discussed "key stroke" during the group presentation.

---

mail fraud (noun)

Use of the mails to defraud someone.

- The article explained what "mail fraud" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mail fraud" to mean use of the mails to defraud someone.

---

marine engineer (noun)

A naval officer responsible for the operation and maintenance of the ship's engines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marine engineer."
- He looked up "marine engineer" because he had never seen it before.

---

medical exam (noun)

A thorough physical examination; includes a variety of tests depending on the age and sex and health of the person.

- Understanding "medical exam" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "medical exam" means with a simple example.

---

medical examination (noun)

A thorough physical examination; includes a variety of tests depending on the age and sex and health of the person.

- In class, the teacher used "medical examination" to mean a thorough physical examination; includes a variety....
- He looked up "medical examination" because he had never seen it before.

---

object lesson (noun)

Punishment intended as a warning to others.

- The article explained what "object lesson" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "object lesson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oral sex (noun)

Oral stimulation of the genitals.

- In class, the teacher used "oral sex" to mean oral stimulation of the genitals.
- They discussed "oral sex" during the group presentation.

---

orleans (noun)

A long siege of Orleans by the English was relieved by Joan of Arc in 1429.

- In class, the teacher used "orleans" to mean a long siege of orleans by the english was relieved....
- The article explained what "orleans" means with a simple example.

patrick henry (noun)

A leader of the American Revolution and a famous orator who spoke out against British rule of the American colonies (1736-1799).

- In class, the teacher used "patrick henry" to mean a leader of the american revolution and a famous....
- He looked up "patrick henry" because he had never seen it before.

philip ii (noun)

King of ancient Macedonia and father of Alexander the Great (382-336 BC).

- In class, the teacher used "philip ii" to mean king of ancient macedonia and father of alexander....
- They discussed "philip ii" during the group presentation.

philip v (noun)

King of ancient Macedonia whose confrontations with the Romans led to his defeat and his loss of control over Greece.

- He looked up "philip v" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "philip v" during the group presentation.

piano teacher (noun)

Someone who teaches students to play the piano.

- The article explained what "piano teacher" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "piano teacher" to mean someone who teaches students to play the piano.

pipe major (noun)

The chief piper in a band of bagpipes.

- The article explained what "pipe major" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pipe major" to mean the chief piper in a band of bagpipes.

poet (noun)

A writer of poems (the term is usually reserved for writers of good poetry).

- Understanding "poet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "poet" to mean a writer of poems (the term is usually reserved for....

robinson (noun)

United States poet; author of narrative verse (1869-1935).

- He looked up "robinson" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "robinson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

roger williams (noun)

English clergyman and colonist who was expelled from Massachusetts for criticizing Puritanism; he founded Providence in 1636 and obtained a royal charter for Rhode Island in 1663 (1603-1683).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roger williams."
- Understanding "roger williams" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sam houston (noun)

United States politician and military leader who fought to gain independence for Texas from Mexico and to make it a part of the United States (1793-1863).

- The article explained what "sam houston" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sam houston."

scientist (noun)

A person with advanced knowledge of one or more sciences.

- He looked up "scientist" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "scientist" to mean a person with advanced knowledge of one or more....

sex offense (noun)

A statutory offense that provides that it is a crime to knowingly cause another person to engage in an unwanted sexual act by force or threat.

- Most states have replaced the common law definition of rape with statutes defining sexual assault.
- In class, the teacher used "sex offense" to mean a statutory offense that provides that it is a....

sir david bruce (noun)

Australian physician and bacteriologist who described the bacterium that causes undulant fever or brucellosis (1855-1931).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir david bruce."
- The article explained what "sir david bruce" means with a simple example.

---

skip (noun)

A gait in which steps and hops alternate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skip."
- They discussed "skip" during the group presentation.

---

snake god (noun)

A god of voodoo cults of African origin worshipped especially in West Indies.

- In class, the teacher used "snake god" to mean a god of voodoo cults of african origin worshipped....
- The article explained what "snake god" means with a simple example.

---

snap (noun)

The act of catching an object with the hands.

- The infielder's snap and throw was a single motion.
- A cold snap in the middle of May.

---

sorts (noun)

A person of a particular character or nature.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sorts."
- Understanding "sorts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

swiss people (noun)

The natives or inhabitants of Switzerland.

- He looked up "swiss people" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "swiss people" during the group presentation.

---

television reporter (noun)

Someone who reports news stories via television.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "television reporter."
- He looked up "television reporter" because he had never seen it before.

---

time of departure (noun)

The time at which a public conveyance is scheduled to depart from a given point of origin.

- In class, the teacher used "time of departure" to mean the time at which a public conveyance is scheduled....
- Understanding "time of departure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

transaction (noun)

The act of transacting within or between groups (as carrying on commercial activities).

- No transactions are possible without him.
- Understanding "transaction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

transformation (noun)

The act of changing in form or shape or appearance.

- The article explained what "transformation" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transformation."

---

veteran (noun)

A serviceman who has seen considerable active service.

- The veterans laughed at the new recruits.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "veteran."

---

virgin mary (noun)

The mother of Jesus; Christians refer to her as the Virgin Mary; she is especially honored by Roman Catholics.

- In class, the teacher used "virgin mary" to mean the mother of jesus; christians refer to her as the....

- They discussed "virgin mary" during the group presentation.

war of greek independence (noun)

The Greeks rebelled against Turkish rule in 1821; with the support of England and France and Russia they won independence in 1828 at Navarino (although the country included only half its present size).

- The article explained what "war of greek independence" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "war of greek independence" during the group presentation.

work permit (noun)

A legal document giving information required for employment of certain people in certain countries.

- In class, the teacher used "work permit" to mean a legal document giving information required for....
- Understanding "work permit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

x-ray photography (noun)

Radiography that uses X-rays to produce a roentgenogram.

- In class, the teacher used "x-ray photography" to mean radiography that uses x-rays to produce a roentgenogram.
- The article explained what "x-ray photography" means with a simple example.

act of terrorism (noun)

The calculated use of violence (or the threat of violence) against civilians in order to attain goals that are political or religious or ideological in nature; this is done through intimidation or coercion or instilling fear.

- He looked up "act of terrorism" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "act of terrorism."

aircraft landing (noun)

Landing an aircraft.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aircraft landing."
- They discussed "aircraft landing" during the group presentation.

alexander iii (noun)

Son of Alexander II who was czar of Russia (1845-1894).

- They discussed "alexander iii" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "alexander iii" means with a simple example.

backup man (noun)

Someone who takes the place of another (as when things get dangerous or difficult).

- In class, the teacher used "backup man" to mean someone who takes the place of another (as when....
- They discussed "backup man" during the group presentation.

bond-trading activity (noun)

Trading in bonds (usually by a broker on the floor of an exchange).

- In class, the teacher used "bond-trading activity" to mean trading in bonds (usually by a broker on the floor....
- They discussed "bond-trading activity" during the group presentation.

catching (noun)

The act of detecting something; catching sight of something.

- Catching cold is sometimes unavoidable.
- They discussed "catching" during the group presentation.

change of integrity (noun)

The act of changing the unity or wholeness of something.

- He looked up "change of integrity" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "change of integrity" to mean the act of changing the unity or wholeness of something.

cheating (noun)

A deception for profit to yourself.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheating."
- He looked up "cheating" because he had never seen it before.

collective agreement (noun)

Contract between labor and management governing wages and benefits and working conditions.

- He looked up "collective agreement" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "collective agreement."

custody case (noun)

A legal action to determine custody (usually of children following a divorce).

- They discussed "custody case" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "custody case" to mean a legal action to determine custody (usually of....

detective work (noun)

A police investigation to determine the perpetrator.

- In class, the teacher used "detective work" to mean a police investigation to determine the perpetrator.
- Understanding "detective work" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

exam paper (noun)

A written examination.

- They discussed "exam paper" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "exam paper" means with a simple example.

examination paper (noun)

A written examination.

- The article explained what "examination paper" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "examination paper" to mean a written examination.

faith cure (noun)

Care provided through prayer and faith in God.

- The article explained what "faith cure" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "faith cure."

fire marshall (noun)

An official who is responsible for the prevention and investigation of fires.

- He looked up "fire marshall" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fire marshall" during the group presentation.

fish-worship (noun)

The worship of fish.

- The article explained what "fish-worship" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fish-worship" to mean the worship of fish.

flesh out (verb)

Add details, as to an account or idea; clarify the meaning of and discourse in a learned way, usually in writing.

- We will plump out that poor starving child.
- The young woman is fleshing out.

grace kelly (noun)

United States film actress who retired when she married into the royal family of Monaco (1928-1982).

- They discussed "grace kelly" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "grace kelly" because he had never seen it before.

guest worker (noun)

A person with temporary permission to work in another country.

- A Moroccan guestworker in Canada was accused of aiding terrorists.
- Understanding "guest worker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

house detective (noun)

A private detective employed by a hotel or retail store.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house detective."
- The article explained what "house detective" means with a simple example.

---

illegal possession (noun)

Possession of controlled substances.

- In class, the teacher used "illegal possession" to mean possession of controlled substances.
- He looked up "illegal possession" because he had never seen it before.

---

jumping-off point (noun)

A beginning from which an enterprise is launched.

- Reality provides the jumping-off point for his illusions.
- The point of departure of international comparison cannot be an institution but must be the function it carries out.

---

language requirement (noun)

A requirement that a student know certain languages.

- They discussed "language requirement" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "language requirement."

---

law of conservation of mass (noun)

A fundamental principle of classical physics that matter cannot be created or destroyed in an isolated system.

- They discussed "law of conservation of mass" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "law of conservation of mass" because he had never seen it before.

---

legal guardian (noun)

A person (or institution) to whom legal title to property is entrusted to use for another's benefit.

- In class, the teacher used "legal guardian" to mean a person (or institution) to whom legal title to....
- He looked up "legal guardian" because he had never seen it before.

---

letter carrier (noun)

A man who delivers the mail.

- He looked up "letter carrier" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "letter carrier" to mean a man who delivers the mail.

---

life scientist (noun)

(biology) a scientist who studies living organisms.

- Understanding "life scientist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "life scientist" to mean (biology) a scientist who studies living organisms.

---

managing editor (noun)

The editor in charge of all editorial activities of a newspaper or magazine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "managing editor."
- He looked up "managing editor" because he had never seen it before.

---

manual of arms (noun)

(military) a prescribed drill in handling a rifle.

- In class, the teacher used "manual of arms" to mean (military) a prescribed drill in handling a rifle.
- Understanding "manual of arms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

map-reader (noun)

A person who can read maps.

- He is a good map-reader.
- In class, the teacher used "map-reader" to mean a person who can read maps.

---

margaret court (noun)

Australian woman tennis player who won many major championships (born in 1947).

- In class, the teacher used "margaret court" to mean australian woman tennis player who won many major....

- Understanding "margaret court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

md (noun)

A licensed medical practitioner.

- They discussed "md" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "md."

---

missions (noun)

An operation that is assigned by a higher headquarters.

- The article explained what "missions" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "missions" during the group presentation.

---

narrow escape (noun)

Something achieved (or escaped) by a narrow margin.

- Understanding "narrow escape" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "narrow escape" during the group presentation.

---

occupation (noun)

The act of occupying or taking possession of a building.

- Occupation of a building without a certificate of occupancy is illegal.
- He missed the bell in his occupation with the computer game.

---

office of inspector general (noun)

The investigative arm of the Federal Trade Commission.

- In class, the teacher used "office of inspector general" to mean the investigative arm of the federal trade commission.
- The article explained what "office of inspector general" means with a simple example.

---

opponent (noun)

A contestant that you are matched against.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "opponent."
- He looked up "opponent" because he had never seen it before.

---

paintings (noun)

The occupation of a house painter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paintings."
- He looked up "paintings" because he had never seen it before.

---

point of departure (noun)

A beginning from which an enterprise is launched.

- Reality provides the jumping-off point for his illusions.
- The point of departure of international comparison cannot be an institution but must be the function it carries out.

---

prisoner (noun)

A person who is confined; especially a prisoner of war.

- In class, the teacher used "prisoner" to mean a person who is confined; especially a prisoner of war.
- He looked up "prisoner" because he had never seen it before.

---

punk (noun)

An aggressive and violent young criminal.

- Understanding "punk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "punk."

---

relatives (noun)

A person related by blood or marriage.

- Police are searching for relatives of the deceased.
- The article explained what "relatives" means with a simple example.

---

robert edward lee (noun)

American general who led the Confederate Armies in the American Civil War (1807-1870).

- The article explained what "robert edward lee" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "robert edward lee" to mean american general who led the confederate armies in....

---

robert indiana (noun)

United States pop artist (born 1928).

- In class, the teacher used "robert indiana" to mean united states pop artist (born 1928).
- Understanding "robert indiana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sacrifice operation (noun)

Killing or injuring others while annihilating yourself; usually accomplished with a bomb.

- Understanding "sacrifice operation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sacrifice operation."

---

scheduled maintenance (noun)

Maintenance at a regularly scheduled time.

- Understanding "scheduled maintenance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "scheduled maintenance" during the group presentation.

---

slave owner (noun)

Someone who holds slaves.

- He looked up "slave owner" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "slave owner" during the group presentation.

---

slight care (noun)

Such care as a careless or inattentive person would exercise.

- Understanding "slight care" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "slight care" because he had never seen it before.

---

standard operating procedure (noun)

A prescribed procedure to be followed routinely.

- Rote memorization has been the educator's standard operating procedure for centuries.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "standard operating procedure."

---

striking (noun)

The act of contacting one thing with another.

- They discussed "striking" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "striking" means with a simple example.

---

terrorists (noun)

A radical who employs terror as a political weapon; usually organizes with other terrorists in small cells; often uses religion as a cover for terrorist activities.

- They discussed "terrorists" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "terrorists" because he had never seen it before.

---

th (noun)

The fifth day of the week; the fourth working day.

- He looked up "th" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "th."

---

tourist (noun)

Someone who travels for pleasure.

- Understanding "tourist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tourist" because he had never seen it before.

---

trained worker (noun)

A worker who has acquired special skills.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trained worker."
- Understanding "trained worker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

transit (noun)

A journey usually by ship.

- They discussed "transit" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "transit" to mean a journey usually by ship.

---

villa (noun)

Mexican revolutionary leader (1877-1923).

- Understanding "villa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "villa."

---

walter scott (noun)

British author of historical novels and ballads (1771-1832).

- Understanding "walter scott" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "walter scott" because he had never seen it before.

---

wealthy man (noun)

A man who is wealthy.

- He looked up "wealthy man" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wealthy man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wright (noun)

Influential United States architect (1869-1959).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wright."
- Understanding "wright" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yoga (noun)

A system of exercises practiced as part of the Hindu discipline to promote control of the body and mind.

- In class, the teacher used "yoga" to mean a system of exercises practiced as part of the....
- He looked up "yoga" because he had never seen it before.

---

alice paul (noun)

United States feminist (1885-1977).

- He looked up "alice paul" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "alice paul" during the group presentation.

---

boot (noun)

The act of delivering a blow with the foot.

- What a boot!
- He looked up "boot" because he had never seen it before.

---

bruce lee (noun)

United States actor who was an expert in kung fu and starred in martial arts films (1941-1973).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bruce lee."
- Understanding "bruce lee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital offense (noun)

A crime so serious that capital punishment is considered appropriate.

- Understanding "capital offense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "capital offense" means with a simple example.

---

cave man (noun)

Someone who lives in a cave.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cave man."
- He looked up "cave man" because he had never seen it before.

census (noun)

A periodic count of the population.

- The article explained what "census" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "census."

clock golf (noun)

A form of golf in which you putt from positions arranged on the circumference of a circle around the hole.

- Understanding "clock golf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "clock golf" to mean a form of golf in which you putt from positions....

colored (noun)

A United States term for Blacks that is now considered offensive.

- In class, the teacher used "colored" to mean a united states term for blacks that is now....
- The article explained what "colored" means with a simple example.

confusion (noun)

A mistake that results from taking one thing to be another.

- He changed his name in order to avoid confusion with the notorious outlaw.
- The army retreated in confusion.

cross-examination (noun)

(law) close questioning of a hostile witness in a court of law to discredit or throw a new light on the testimony already provided in direct examination.

- He looked up "cross-examination" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cross-examination."

dealer (noun)

A seller of illicit goods.

- A dealer in stolen goods.
- The article explained what "dealer" means with a simple example.

defensive measure (noun)

(military) military action or resources protecting a country against potential enemies.

- They discussed "defensive measure" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defensive measure."

destiny (noun)

The ultimate agency regarded as predetermining the course of events (often personified as a woman).

- We are helpless in the face of destiny.
- In class, the teacher used "destiny" to mean the ultimate agency regarded as predetermining the....

divorce lawyer (noun)

A lawyer specializing in actions for divorce or annulment.

- In class, the teacher used "divorce lawyer" to mean a lawyer specializing in actions for divorce or....
- Understanding "divorce lawyer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ethics (noun)

The philosophical study of moral values and rules.

- He looked up "ethics" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ethics."

fights (noun)

The act of fighting; any contest or struggle.

- The article explained what "fights" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fights" during the group presentation.

filming (noun)

The act of making a film.

- He looked up "filming" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "filming" to mean the act of making a film.

---

fox hunter (noun)

A mounted hunter who follows the hounds in pursuit of a fox.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fox hunter."
- The article explained what "fox hunter" means with a simple example.

---

fund-raising effort (noun)

A campaign to raise money for some cause.

- They discussed "fund-raising effort" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "fund-raising effort" because he had never seen it before.

---

helen (noun)

(Greek mythology) the beautiful daughter of Zeus and Leda who was abducted by Paris; the Greek army sailed to Troy to get her back which resulted in the Trojan War.

- Understanding "helen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "helen" because he had never seen it before.

---

henry russell (noun)

United States astronomer who developed a theory of stellar evolution (1877-1957).

- He looked up "henry russell" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry russell."

---

hi-fi (noun)

The reproduction of sound with little or no distortion.

- They discussed "hi-fi" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hi-fi" because he had never seen it before.

---

highway engineer (noun)

A civil engineer who specializes in the design and construction of roads and highways.

- He looked up "highway engineer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "highway engineer."

---

invested (verb)

Place ceremoniously or formally in an office or position.

- She tried to use "invested" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "invested" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

iran-iraq war (noun)

A dispute over control of the waterway between Iraq and Iran broke out into open fighting in 1980 and continued until 1988, when they accepted a UN cease-fire resolution.

- Understanding "iran-iraq war" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "iran-iraq war" during the group presentation.

---

leaf-book (noun)

An unbound manuscript of some ancient classic (as distinguished from a scroll).

- He looked up "leaf-book" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leaf-book."

---

lit (noun)

The humanistic study of a body of literature.

- He took a course in Russian lit.
- They discussed "lit" during the group presentation.

---

literary agent (noun)

An agent who represents an author in dealings with publishers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "literary agent."

- He looked up "literary agent" because he had never seen it before.

---

manual labor (noun)

Labor done with the hands.

- He looked up "manual labor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manual labor."

---

mouse click (noun)

Depression of a button on a computer mouse.

- A click on the right button for example.
- They discussed "mouse click" during the group presentation.

---

new dealer (noun)

A supporter of the economic policies in the United States known as the New Deal.

- They discussed "new dealer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "new dealer" to mean a supporter of the economic policies in the united....

---

non-christian priest (noun)

A person who performs religious duties and ceremonies in a non-Christian religion.

- Understanding "non-christian priest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "non-christian priest."

---

operators (noun)

An agent that operates some apparatus or machine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "operators."
- Understanding "operators" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

phase iv (noun)

Sometimes the FDA approves a drug for general use but requires the manufacturer to continue to monitor its effects; during this phase the drug may be tried on slightly different patient populations than those studied in earlier trials.

- He looked up "phase iv" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "phase iv" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

president john adams (noun)

2nd President of the United States (1735-1826).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "president john adams."
- The article explained what "president john adams" means with a simple example.

---

raid (noun)

An attempt by speculators to defraud investors.

- Understanding "raid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "raid."

---

reverse split (noun)

A decrease in the number of outstanding shares of a corporation without changing the shareholders' equity.

- Understanding "reverse split" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "reverse split" during the group presentation.

---

saint nick (noun)

The legendary patron saint of children; an imaginary being who is thought to bring presents to children at Christmas.

- In class, the teacher used "saint nick" to mean the legendary patron saint of children; an....
- The article explained what "saint nick" means with a simple example.

---

samuel (noun)

(Old Testament) Hebrew prophet and judge who anointed Saul as king.

- They discussed "samuel" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "samuel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

self-discipline (noun)

The act of denying yourself; controlling your impulses.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-discipline."
- Understanding "self-discipline" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

self-suggestion (noun)

A system for self-improvement developed by Emile Coue which was popular in the 1920s and 1930s.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-suggestion."
- The article explained what "self-suggestion" means with a simple example.

sexual discrimination (noun)

Discrimination (usually in employment) that excludes one sex (usually women) to the benefit of the other sex.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sexual discrimination."
- Understanding "sexual discrimination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sexual relation (noun)

The act of sexual procreation between a man and a woman; the man's penis is inserted into the woman's vagina and excited until orgasm and ejaculation occur.

- He looked up "sexual relation" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sexual relation" to mean the act of sexual procreation between a man and a....

sheep (noun)

A docile and vulnerable person who would rather follow than make an independent decision.

- His students followed him like sheep.
- They discussed "sheep" during the group presentation.

shock therapy (noun)

Treatment of certain psychotic states by the administration of shocks that are followed by convulsions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shock therapy."
- He looked up "shock therapy" because he had never seen it before.

sir henry morgan (noun)

A Welsh buccaneer who raided Spanish colonies in the West Indies for the English (1635-1688).

- Understanding "sir henry morgan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sir henry morgan" during the group presentation.

slaves (noun)

Someone entirely dominated by some influence or person.

- In class, the teacher used "slaves" to mean someone entirely dominated by some influence or person.
- The article explained what "slaves" means with a simple example.

stanley (noun)

United States inventor who built a steam-powered automobile (1849-1918).

- In class, the teacher used "stanley" to mean united states inventor who built a steam-powered....
- They discussed "stanley" during the group presentation.

sugar daddy (noun)

A wealthy older man who gives a young person expensive gifts in return for friendship or intimacy.

- He looked up "sugar daddy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sugar daddy" during the group presentation.

supreme headquarters (noun)

The highest leaders in an organization (e.g. the commander-in-chief and senior officers of the military).

- Understanding "supreme headquarters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "supreme headquarters" to mean the highest leaders in an organization (e.g. the....

taking into custody (noun)

The act of apprehending (especially apprehending a criminal).

- The article explained what "taking into custody" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "taking into custody" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

turner (noun)

A tumbler who is a member of a turnverein.

- In class, the teacher used "turner" to mean a tumbler who is a member of a turnverein.
- He looked up "turner" because he had never seen it before.

---

unknown soldier (noun)

An unidentified soldier whose body is honored as a memorial.

- He looked up "unknown soldier" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "unknown soldier."

---

wealthy person (noun)

A person who possesses great material wealth.

- The article explained what "wealthy person" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wealthy person" to mean a person who possesses great material wealth.

---

alexander bell (noun)

United States inventor (born in Scotland) of the telephone (1847-1922).

- The article explained what "alexander bell" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "alexander bell" during the group presentation.

---

bar exam (noun)

An examination conducted at regular intervals to determine whether a candidate is qualified to practice law in a given jurisdiction.

- Applicants may qualify to take the New York bar examination by graduating from an approved law school.
- He passed the bar exam on his third try.

---

bar examination (noun)

An examination conducted at regular intervals to determine whether a candidate is qualified to practice law in a given jurisdiction.

- Applicants may qualify to take the New York bar examination by graduating from an approved law school.
- He passed the bar exam on his third try.

---

battles (noun)

An energetic attempt to achieve something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battles."
- Understanding "battles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

calendar method (noun)

Natural family planning in which ovulation is assumed to occur 14 days before the onset of a period (the fertile period would be assumed to extend from day 10 through day 18 of her cycle).

- They discussed "calendar method" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calendar method."

---

charter member (noun)

One of the original members when an organization was founded.

- They discussed "charter member" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charter member."

---

classification (noun)

A group of people or things arranged by class or category.

- Understanding "classification" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "classification" because he had never seen it before.

---

collecting (noun)

The act of gathering something together.

- He looked up "collecting" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “collecting.”

creating by removal (noun)

The act of creating by removing something.

- Understanding “creating by removal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “creating by removal.”

creating from raw materials (noun)

The act of creating something that is different from the materials that went into it.

- They discussed “creating from raw materials” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “creating from raw materials.”

crossing guard (noun)

Someone who helps people (especially children) at a traffic crossing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “crossing guard.”
- He looked up “crossing guard” because he had never seen it before.

cutting angle (noun)

The angle between the face of a cutting tool and the surface of the work.

- The article explained what “cutting angle” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cutting angle.”

desperate criminal (noun)

A bold outlaw (especially on the American frontier).

- In class, the teacher used “desperate criminal” to mean a bold outlaw (especially on the american frontier).
- The article explained what “desperate criminal” means with a simple example.

earl (noun)

A British peer ranking below a marquess and above a viscount.

- In class, the teacher used “earl” to mean a british peer ranking below a marquess and above a....
- Understanding “earl” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

examine (verb)

Observe, check out, and look over carefully or inspect.

- The customs agent examined the baggage.
- He did not know how to use “examine” until he saw an example.

exposure therapy (noun)

A form of behavior therapy in which a survivor confronts feelings or phobias or anxieties about a traumatic event and relives it in the therapy situation.

- Understanding “exposure therapy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “exposure therapy” means with a simple example.

factory worker (noun)

A workman in a mill or factory.

- In class, the teacher used “factory worker” to mean a workman in a mill or factory.
- They discussed “factory worker” during the group presentation.

film maker (noun)

A producer of motion pictures.

- In class, the teacher used “film maker” to mean a producer of motion pictures.
- The article explained what “film maker” means with a simple example.

first lord of the treasury (noun)

The British cabinet minister responsible for economic strategy.

- He looked up “first lord of the treasury” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “first lord of the treasury” to mean the british cabinet minister responsible for....

floating (noun)

The act of someone who floats on the water.

- In class, the teacher used "floating" to mean the act of someone who floats on the water.
- He looked up "floating" because he had never seen it before.

george burns (noun)

United States comedian and film actor (1896-1996).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "george burns."
- They discussed "george burns" during the group presentation.

george marshall (noun)

United States general and statesman who as Secretary of State organized the European Recovery Program (1880-1959).

- They discussed "george marshall" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "george marshall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

interior designer (noun)

A person who specializes in designing architectural interiors and their furnishings.

- They discussed "interior designer" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "interior designer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

john roy major (noun)

British statesman who was prime minister from 1990 until 1997 (born in 1943).

- He looked up "john roy major" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john roy major."

leg-pulling (noun)

As a joke: trying to make somebody believe something that is not true.

- He looked up "leg-pulling" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leg-pulling."

leo x (noun)

Son of Lorenzo de'Medici and pope from 1513 to 1521 who excommunicated Martin Luther and who in 1521 bestowed on Henry VIII the title of Defender of the Faith (1475-1521).

- He looked up "leo x" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "leo x" to mean son of lorenzo de'medici and pope from 1513 to 1521....

lions (noun)

A celebrity who is lionized (much sought after).

- The article explained what "lions" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lions" to mean a celebrity who is lionized (much sought after).

liver (noun)

A person who has a special life style.

- A high liver.
- A liver in cities.

lord nelson (noun)

English admiral who defeated the French fleets of Napoleon but was mortally wounded at Trafalgar (1758-1805).

- He looked up "lord nelson" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lord nelson."

mexican revolution (noun)

A revolution for agrarian reforms led in northern Mexico by Pancho Villa and in southern Mexico by Emiliano Zapata (1910-1911).

- In class, the teacher used "mexican revolution" to mean a revolution for agrarian reforms led in northern....
- The article explained what "mexican revolution" means with a simple example.

naval officer (noun)

An officer in the navy.

- In class, the teacher used "naval officer" to mean an officer in the navy.
- The article explained what "naval officer" means with a simple example.

---

physician (noun)

A licensed medical practitioner.

- Understanding "physician" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "physician" means with a simple example.

---

police detective (noun)

A police officer who investigates crimes.

- They discussed "police detective" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "police detective" means with a simple example.

---

policy maker (noun)

Someone who sets the plan pursued by a government or business etc.

- Policy makers often make the right decision for the wrong reason.
- He looked up "policy maker" because he had never seen it before.

---

political scientist (noun)

A social scientist specializing in the study of government.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "political scientist."
- He looked up "political scientist" because he had never seen it before.

---

pr man (noun)

Someone employed to arrange publicity (for a firm or a public figure).

- He looked up "pr man" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pr man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prisoner of war (noun)

A person who surrenders to (or is taken by) the enemy in time of war.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prisoner of war."
- They discussed "prisoner of war" during the group presentation.

---

proceedings (noun)

A written account of what transpired at a meeting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "proceedings."
- Understanding "proceedings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

psychological operation (noun)

Military actions designed to influence the perceptions and attitudes of individuals, groups, and foreign governments.

- Understanding "psychological operation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "psychological operation" during the group presentation.

---

pupils (noun)

A learner who is enrolled in an educational institution.

- The article explained what "pupils" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pupils" to mean a learner who is enrolled in an educational institution.

---

rival (noun)

The contestant you hope to defeat.

- He had respect for his rivals.
- Understanding "rival" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

runner (noun)

A person who is employed to deliver messages or documents.

- He sent a runner over with the contract.
- In class, the teacher used "runner" to mean a person who is employed to deliver messages or....

runner-up (noun)

The competitor who finishes second.

- He looked up "runner-up" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "runner-up."

saint andrew (noun)

(New Testament) disciple of Jesus; brother of Peter; patron saint of Scotland.

- He looked up "saint andrew" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "saint andrew" during the group presentation.

shore duty (noun)

Naval service at land bases.

- They discussed "shore duty" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "shore duty" because he had never seen it before.

simon marks (noun)

English businessman who created a retail chain (1888-1964).

- Understanding "simon marks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "simon marks" because he had never seen it before.

slave driver (noun)

A cruel employer who demands excessive work from the employees.

- They discussed "slave driver" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "slave driver" to mean a cruel employer who demands excessive work from....

social scientist (noun)

Someone expert in the study of human society and its personal relationships.

- They discussed "social scientist" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social scientist."

spare-time activity (noun)

An auxiliary activity.

- He looked up "spare-time activity" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "spare-time activity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tribute album (noun)

Concept album compiling a performer's work or work supporting some worthy cause.

- Understanding "tribute album" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tribute album" means with a simple example.

united states government printing office (noun)

An agency of the legislative branch that provides printing and binding services for Congress and the departments and establishments of the federal government.

- They discussed "united states government printing office" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "united states government printing office" means with a simple example.

verse (verb)

Familiarize through thorough study or experience.

- She versed herself in Roman archeology.
- In everyday English, people use "verse" when talking about this idea.

victor (noun)

A combatant who is able to defeat rivals.

- The article explained what "victor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "victor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

warrant officer (noun)

Holds rank by virtue of a warrant.

- The article explained what "warrant officer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "warrant officer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

watson (noun)

United States psychologist considered the founder of behavioristic psychology (1878-1958).

- Understanding "watson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "watson" means with a simple example.

---

william thompson (noun)

British physicist who invented the Kelvin scale of temperature and pioneered undersea telegraphy (1824-1907).

- The article explained what "william thompson" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "william thompson" to mean british physicist who invented the kelvin scale of....

---

adoption (noun)

The act of accepting with approval; favorable reception.

- Its adoption by society.
- He looked up "adoption" because he had never seen it before.

---

beloved (noun)

A beloved person; used as terms of endearment.

- They discussed "beloved" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "beloved" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black sheep (noun)

A reckless and unprincipled reprobate.

- In class, the teacher used "black sheep" to mean a reckless and unprincipled reprobate.
- The article explained what "black sheep" means with a simple example.

---

boxing (noun)

The enclosure of something in a package or box.

- They discussed "boxing" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "boxing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bronze age (noun)

(classical mythology) the third age of the world, marked by war and violence.

- They discussed "bronze age" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bronze age."

---

colored person (noun)

A United States term for Blacks that is now considered offensive.

- They discussed "colored person" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "colored person."

---

comics (noun)

A professional performer who tells jokes and performs comical acts.

- Understanding "comics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "comics" means with a simple example.

---

compliance (noun)

Acting according to certain accepted standards.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "compliance."
- Understanding "compliance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crash landing (noun)

An emergency landing under circumstances where a normal landing is impossible (usually damaging the aircraft).

- He looked up "crash landing" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "crash landing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

decision maker (noun)

Someone who administers a business.

- Understanding "decision maker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "decision maker."

demand feeding (noun)

Feeding a baby or animal whenever it shows a need.

- The article explained what "demand feeding" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "demand feeding" to mean feeding a baby or animal whenever it shows a need.

direct examination (noun)

(law) the initial questioning of a witness by the party that called the witness.

- In class, the teacher used "direct examination" to mean (law) the initial questioning of a witness by the....
- They discussed "direct examination" during the group presentation.

dressing (noun)

The activity of getting dressed; putting on clothes.

- They discussed "dressing" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dressing" to mean the activity of getting dressed; putting on clothes.

forced feeding (noun)

Feeding that consists of the delivery of a nutrient solution (as through a nasal tube) to someone who cannot or will not eat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forced feeding."
- Understanding "forced feeding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

francis scott key (noun)

United States lawyer and poet who wrote a poem after witnessing the British attack on Baltimore during the War of 1812; the poem was later set to music and entitled 'The Star-Spangled Banner' (1779-1843).

- In class, the teacher used "francis scott key" to mean united states lawyer and poet who wrote a poem....
- He looked up "francis scott key" because he had never seen it before.

garbage man (noun)

Someone employed to collect and dispose of refuse.

- They discussed "garbage man" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "garbage man" because he had never seen it before.

holy terror (noun)

A very troublesome child.

- In class, the teacher used "holy terror" to mean a very troublesome child.
- The article explained what "holy terror" means with a simple example.

house physician (noun)

A physician (especially an intern) who lives in a hospital and cares for hospitalized patients under the supervision of the medical staff of the hospital.

- In class, the teacher used "house physician" to mean a physician (especially an intern) who lives in a....
- They discussed "house physician" during the group presentation.

jack kennedy (noun)

35th President of the United States; established the Peace Corps; assassinated in Dallas (1917-1963).

- The article explained what "jack kennedy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jack kennedy" to mean 35th president of the united states; established....

jazz festival (noun)

A festival that features performances by jazz artists.

- The article explained what "jazz festival" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jazz festival" to mean a festival that features performances by jazz artists.

king oliver (noun)

United States jazz musician who influenced the style of Louis Armstrong (1885-1938).

- He looked up "king oliver" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "king oliver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

latter-day saint (noun)

A member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

- In class, the teacher used "latter-day saint" to mean a member of the church of jesus christ of....
- Understanding "latter-day saint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lieutenant commander (noun)

A commissioned officer in the Navy ranking above a lieutenant and below a commander.

- They discussed "lieutenant commander" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lieutenant commander" to mean a commissioned officer in the navy ranking above a....

loyalty (noun)

The act of binding yourself (intellectually or emotionally) to a course of action.

- They felt no loyalty to a losing team.
- Understanding "loyalty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

manual labour (noun)

Labor done with the hands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manual labour."
- He looked up "manual labour" because he had never seen it before.

monsters (noun)

A person or animal that is markedly unusual or deformed.

- The article explained what "monsters" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "monsters" to mean a person or animal that is markedly unusual or deformed.

moral philosophy (noun)

The philosophical study of moral values and rules.

- In class, the teacher used "moral philosophy" to mean the philosophical study of moral values and rules.
- The article explained what "moral philosophy" means with a simple example.

naval campaign (noun)

An operation conducted primarily by naval forces in order to gain or extend or maintain control of the sea.

- Understanding "naval campaign" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "naval campaign" because he had never seen it before.

peter cooper (noun)

United States industrialist who built the first American locomotive; founded Cooper Union in New York City to offer free courses in the arts and sciences (1791-1883).

- In class, the teacher used "peter cooper" to mean united states industrialist who built the first....
- The article explained what "peter cooper" means with a simple example.

phase i clinical trial (noun)

A clinical trial on a few persons to determine the safety of a new drug or invasive medical device; for drugs, dosage or toxicity limits should be obtained.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phase i clinical trial."
- Understanding "phase i clinical trial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

piss-up (noun)

Vulgar expression for a bout of heavy drinking.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "piss-up."
- Understanding "piss-up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

political prisoner (noun)

Someone who is imprisoned because of their political views.

- The article explained what "political prisoner" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "political prisoner" during the group presentation.

---

private detective (noun)

Someone who can be employed as a detective to collect information.

- In class, the teacher used "private detective" to mean someone who can be employed as a detective to....
- He looked up "private detective" because he had never seen it before.

---

radar fire (noun)

Gunfire aimed a target that is being tracked by radar.

- He looked up "radar fire" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "radar fire" during the group presentation.

---

rat (noun)

A person who is deemed to be despicable or contemptible.

- Kill the rat.
- The article explained what "rat" means with a simple example.

---

record-holder (noun)

Someone who breaks a record.

- Understanding "record-holder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "record-holder" during the group presentation.

---

reverse hang (noun)

A hang with the arms extended in back.

- He looked up "reverse hang" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reverse hang."

---

revolutionary (noun)

A radical supporter of political or social revolution.

- The article explained what "revolutionary" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "revolutionary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

school assignment (noun)

A school task performed by a student to satisfy the teacher.

- The article explained what "school assignment" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "school assignment" to mean a school task performed by a student to satisfy the....

---

shower bath (noun)

Washing yourself by standing upright under water sprayed from a nozzle.

- He took a shower after the game.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shower bath."

---

sir tim rice (noun)

English lyricist who frequently worked with Andrew Lloyd Webber (born in 1944).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir tim rice."
- The article explained what "sir tim rice" means with a simple example.

---

spectrum analysis (noun)

The use of spectroscopes to analyze spectra.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spectrum analysis."
- He looked up "spectrum analysis" because he had never seen it before.

---

split-brain technique (noun)

Brain surgery on animals in which the corpus callosum (and sometimes the optic chiasm) is severed so that communication between the cerebral hemispheres is interrupted.

- They discussed "split-brain technique" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "split-brain technique" to mean brain surgery on animals in which the corpus....

standing operating procedure (noun)

A prescribed procedure to be followed routinely.

- Rote memorization has been the educator's standard operating procedure for centuries.
- Understanding "standing operating procedure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stem-cell research (noun)

Research on stem cells and their use in medicine.

- The article explained what "stem-cell research" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stem-cell research" to mean research on stem cells and their use in medicine.

surveillance (noun)

Close observation of a person or group (usually by the police).

- The article explained what "surveillance" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "surveillance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

thomas moore (noun)

Irish poet who wrote nostalgic and patriotic verse (1779-1852).

- In class, the teacher used "thomas moore" to mean irish poet who wrote nostalgic and patriotic verse....
- Understanding "thomas moore" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tourist class (noun)

Inexpensive accommodations on a ship or train.

- He looked up "tourist class" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tourist class."

trail riding (noun)

Riding along a roughly blazed path.

- The article explained what "trail riding" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trail riding" to mean riding along a roughly blazed path.

unemployment rate (noun)

The percentage of the work force that is unemployed at any given date.

- The article explained what "unemployment rate" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "unemployment rate" during the group presentation.

advisory service (noun)

A consulting service in which a CPA develops findings and conclusions and recommendations that are presented to the client for consideration and decision making.

- He looked up "advisory service" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "advisory service" during the group presentation.

air raid (noun)

An attack by armed planes on a surface target.

- Understanding "air raid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "air raid" because he had never seen it before.

alexander wilson (noun)

Scottish ornithologist in the United States (1766-1813).

- He looked up "alexander wilson" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alexander wilson."

art dealer (noun)

A dealer in works of art requiring esthetic evaluation.

- Understanding "art dealer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "art dealer" to mean a dealer in works of art requiring esthetic evaluation.

aunt (noun)

The sister of your father or mother; the wife of your uncle.

- Understanding “aunt” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “aunt” to mean the sister of your father or mother; the wife of....

birth prevention (noun)

Limiting the number of children born.

- They discussed “birth prevention” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “birth prevention” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blake (noun)

Visionary British poet and painter (1757-1827).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blake.”
- Understanding “blake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blind landing (noun)

Using only instruments for flying an aircraft because you cannot see through clouds or mists etc.

- Understanding “blind landing” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blind landing.”

buyers (noun)

A person who buys.

- In class, the teacher used “buyers” to mean a person who buys.
- The article explained what “buyers” means with a simple example.

catholic pope (noun)

The head of the Roman Catholic Church.

- They discussed “catholic pope” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “catholic pope” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

charge of quarters (noun)

An enlisted man who handles his unit’s administrative matters after hours.

- In class, the teacher used “charge of quarters” to mean an enlisted man who handles his unit’s....
- He looked up “charge of quarters” because he had never seen it before.

classification system (noun)

A system for classifying things.

- The article explained what “classification system” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “classification system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

con artist (noun)

A swindler who exploits the confidence of his victim.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “con artist.”
- He looked up “con artist” because he had never seen it before.

counsel (noun)

A lawyer who pleads cases in court.

- They discussed “counsel” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “counsel” because he had never seen it before.

creature (noun)

A human being; ‘wight’ is an archaic term.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “creature.”
- They discussed “creature” during the group presentation.

determination (noun)

The act of making up your mind about something.

- The determination of molecular structures.
- His determination showed in his every movement.

---

efficiency expert (noun)

An expert in increasing the efficient use of machines and personnel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "efficiency expert."
- Understanding "efficiency expert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electrical engineer (noun)

A person trained in practical applications of the theory of electricity.

- They discussed "electrical engineer" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "electrical engineer" means with a simple example.

---

fits and starts (noun)

Repeated bursts of activity.

- They worked in fits and starts.
- In class, the teacher used "fits and starts" to mean repeated bursts of activity.

---

free-liver (noun)

Someone who gratifies physical appetites (especially for food and drink) with more than the usual freedom.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "free-liver."
- They discussed "free-liver" during the group presentation.

---

gentleman (noun)

A manservant who acts as a personal attendant to his employer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gentleman."
- He looked up "gentleman" because he had never seen it before.

---

george william russell (noun)

Irish writer whose pen name was A.E. (1867-1935).

- In class, the teacher used "george william russell" to mean irish writer whose pen name was a.e. (1867-1935).
- The article explained what "george william russell" means with a simple example.

---

grammar school (noun)

A school for young children; usually the first 6 or 8 grades.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grammar school."
- He looked up "grammar school" because he had never seen it before.

---

hammer (noun)

The act of pounding (delivering repeated heavy blows).

- The sudden hammer of fists caught him off guard.
- He looked up "hammer" because he had never seen it before.

---

henry clay (noun)

United States politician responsible for the Missouri Compromise between free and slave states (1777-1852).

- They discussed "henry clay" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "henry clay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hitler (noun)

German Nazi dictator during World War II (1889-1945).

- In class, the teacher used "hitler" to mean german nazi dictator during world war ii (1889-1945).
- They discussed "hitler" during the group presentation.

---

installation (noun)

The act of installing something (as equipment).

- The telephone installation took only a few minutes.
- He gave a speech as part of his installation into the hall of fame.

interactions (noun)

A mutual or reciprocal action; interacting.

- The article explained what "interactions" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "interactions" to mean a mutual or reciprocal action; interacting.

kicking (noun)

The act of delivering a blow with the foot.

- The team's kicking was excellent.
- The swimmer's kicking left a wake behind him.

king of the germans (noun)

The sovereign ruler of the Germans.

- He looked up "king of the germans" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "king of the germans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

knight of the round table (noun)

In the Arthurian legend, a knight of King Arthur's court.

- The article explained what "knight of the round table" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "knight of the round table" to mean in the arthurian legend, a knight of king arthur's....

lay reader (noun)

A layman who is authorized by the bishop to read parts of the service in an Anglican or Episcopal church.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lay reader."
- He looked up "lay reader" because he had never seen it before.

laying on (noun)

The act of contacting something with your hand.

- Peonies can be blighted by the laying on of a finger.
- The article explained what "laying on" means with a simple example.

marathon (noun)

A battle in 490 BC in which the Athenians and their allies defeated the Persians.

- In class, the teacher used "marathon" to mean a battle in 490 bc in which the athenians and their....
- They discussed "marathon" during the group presentation.

medical diagnosis (noun)

Identification of a disease from its symptoms.

- Understanding "medical diagnosis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "medical diagnosis" during the group presentation.

medical scientist (noun)

A scientist who studies disease processes.

- They discussed "medical scientist" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "medical scientist" to mean a scientist who studies disease processes.

mercy killing (noun)

The act of killing someone painlessly (especially someone suffering from an incurable illness).

- Understanding "mercy killing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mercy killing" during the group presentation.

motion-picture photography (noun)

The act of making a film.

- Understanding "motion-picture photography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "motion-picture photography" means with a simple example.

natural scientist (noun)

A biologist knowledgeable about natural history (especially botany and zoology).

- The article explained what "natural scientist" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "natural scientist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

naval battle (noun)

A pitched battle between naval fleets.

- He looked up "naval battle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "naval battle."

---

organisations (noun)

The act of forming or establishing something.

- They discussed "organisations" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "organisations."

---

patent office (noun)

The government bureau in the Department of Commerce that keeps a record of patents and trademarks and grants new ones.

- Understanding "patent office" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "patent office" because he had never seen it before.

---

politician (noun)

A leader engaged in civil administration.

- In class, the teacher used "politician" to mean a leader engaged in civil administration.
- They discussed "politician" during the group presentation.

---

poster child (noun)

A child afflicted by some disease or deformity whose picture is used on posters to raise money for charitable purposes.

- She was the poster child for muscular dystrophy.
- They discussed "poster child" during the group presentation.

---

poster girl (noun)

A female poster child.

- The article explained what "poster girl" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "poster girl" to mean a female poster child.

---

prince of darkness (noun)

(Judeo-Christian and Islamic religions) chief spirit of evil and adversary of God; tempter of mankind; master of Hell.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prince of darkness."
- The article explained what "prince of darkness" means with a simple example.

---

roberts (noun)

A Welsh pirate credited with having taken more than 400 ships (1682-1722).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roberts."
- They discussed "roberts" during the group presentation.

---

saints (noun)

A person who has died and has been declared a saint by canonization.

- He looked up "saints" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saints."

---

secretary of the treasury (noun)

The position of the head of the Treasury Department.

- The position of Treasury Secretary was created in 1789.
- Alexander Hamilton was the first Secretary of the Treasury.

---

sheriff (noun)

The principal law-enforcement officer in a county.

- They discussed "sheriff" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "sheriff" to mean the principal law-enforcement officer in a county.

sir james murray (noun)

Scottish philologist and the lexicographer who shaped the Oxford English Dictionary (1837-1915).

- Understanding "sir james murray" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sir james murray" means with a simple example.

tier up (noun)

A worker who ties something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tier up."
- The article explained what "tier up" means with a simple example.

title-holder (noun)

Someone who has won first place in a competition.

- They discussed "title-holder" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "title-holder."

travelling (noun)

The act of going from one place to another.

- In class, the teacher used "travelling" to mean the act of going from one place to another.
- Understanding "travelling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

treasury secretary (noun)

The position of the head of the Treasury Department.

- The position of Treasury Secretary was created in 1789.
- Alexander Hamilton was the first Secretary of the Treasury.

warrior (noun)

Someone engaged in or experienced in warfare.

- In class, the teacher used "warrior" to mean someone engaged in or experienced in warfare.
- The article explained what "warrior" means with a simple example.

admission (noun)

The act of admitting someone to enter.

- The surgery was performed on his second admission to the clinic.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "admission."

arthur miller (noun)

United States playwright (1915-2005).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arthur miller."
- They discussed "arthur miller" during the group presentation.

bill poster (noun)

Someone who pastes up bills or placards on walls or billboards.

- He looked up "bill poster" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bill poster."

burst (noun)

A sudden flurry of activity (often for no obvious reason).

- A burst of applause.
- The burst of an atom bomb creates enormous radiation aloft.

casting (noun)

The act of creating something by casting it in a mold.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "casting."
- He looked up "casting" because he had never seen it before.

charles francis hall (noun)

United States explorer who led three expeditions to the Arctic (1821-1871).

- They discussed "charles francis hall" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "charles francis hall" because he had never seen it before.

---

class-conscious (adjective)

(used of society) socially hierarchical.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "class-conscious."
- Would you call this situation "class-conscious"? Explain why.

---

clip artist (noun)

A swindler who fleeces the victim.

- The article explained what "clip artist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "clip artist" to mean a swindler who fleeces the victim.

---

criminals (noun)

Someone who has committed a crime or has been legally convicted of a crime.

- Understanding "criminals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "criminals" during the group presentation.

---

desperate measure (noun)

Desperate actions taken as a means to an end.

- He had to resort to desperate measures.
- The article explained what "desperate measure" means with a simple example.

---

employee ownership (noun)

Ownership of a business by the people who work for it.

- The article explained what "employee ownership" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "employee ownership."

---

farmer (noun)

An expert on cooking whose cookbook has undergone many editions (1857-1915).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "farmer."
- The article explained what "farmer" means with a simple example.

---

francis joseph (noun)

Emperor of Austria and king of Hungary; was defeated by Napoleon III at the battle of Magenta (1830-1916).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "francis joseph."
- He looked up "francis joseph" because he had never seen it before.

---

francis joseph i (noun)

Emperor of Austria and king of Hungary; was defeated by Napoleon III at the battle of Magenta (1830-1916).

- In class, the teacher used "francis joseph i" to mean emperor of austria and king of hungary; was....
- Understanding "francis joseph i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

front-runner (noun)

A competitor thought likely to win.

- He looked up "front-runner" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "front-runner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

great-aunt (noun)

An aunt of your father or mother.

- Understanding "great-aunt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great-aunt."

---

guardian spirit (noun)

An angel believed to have special affection for a particular individual.

- In class, the teacher used "guardian spirit" to mean an angel believed to have special affection for a....
- He looked up "guardian spirit" because he had never seen it before.

harvey (noun)

English physician and scientist who described the circulation of the blood; he later proposed that all animals originate from an ovum produced by the female of the species (1578-1657).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harvey."
- He looked up "harvey" because he had never seen it before.

henry moore (noun)

British sculptor whose works are monumental organic forms (1898-1986).

- In class, the teacher used "henry moore" to mean british sculptor whose works are monumental organic....
- They discussed "henry moore" during the group presentation.

kick in the butt (noun)

Punishment inflicted by kicking the victim in the behind.

- The article explained what "kick in the butt" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kick in the butt."

lovers (noun)

A person who loves someone or is loved by someone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lovers."
- The article explained what "lovers" means with a simple example.

mail carrier (noun)

A man who delivers the mail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mail carrier."
- He looked up "mail carrier" because he had never seen it before.

mary harris jones (noun)

United States labor leader (born in Ireland) who helped to found the Industrial Workers of the World (1830-1930).

- They discussed "mary harris jones" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mary harris jones" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

medication (noun)

The act of treating with medicines or remedies.

- The article explained what "medication" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "medication" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

moon-worship (noun)

The worship of the moon.

- In class, the teacher used "moon-worship" to mean the worship of the moon.
- The article explained what "moon-worship" means with a simple example.

morris (noun)

United States suffragist in Wyoming (1814-1902).

- Understanding "morris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "morris" means with a simple example.

population scientist (noun)

A scientist who studies the growth and density of populations and their vital statistics.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "population scientist."
- He looked up "population scientist" because he had never seen it before.

portfolio (noun)

The role of the head of a government department.

- He holds the portfolio for foreign affairs.
- He remembered her because she was carrying a large portfolio.

poster boy (noun)

A male poster child.

- They discussed "poster boy" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "poster boy" because he had never seen it before.

president madison (noun)

4th President of the United States; member of the Continental Congress and rapporteur at the Constitutional Convention in 1776; helped frame the Bill of Rights (1751-1836).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "president madison."
- He looked up "president madison" because he had never seen it before.

president tyler (noun)

Elected vice president and became the 10th President of the United States when Harrison died (1790-1862).

- In class, the teacher used "president tyler" to mean elected vice president and became the 10th....
- The article explained what "president tyler" means with a simple example.

prince philip (noun)

Englishman and husband of Elizabeth II (born 1921).

- They discussed "prince philip" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prince philip."

rachel (noun)

(Old Testament) the second wife of Jacob and mother of Joseph and Benjamin.

- They discussed "rachel" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rachel" to mean (old testament) the second wife of jacob and mother....

replacing (noun)

The act of furnishing an equivalent person or thing in the place of another.

- Replacing the star will not be easy.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "replacing."

robert burns (noun)

Celebrated Scottish poet (1759-1796).

- He looked up "robert burns" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robert burns."

screening (noun)

The act of concealing the existence of something by obstructing the view of it.

- He looked up "screening" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "screening."

secretary of commerce and labor (noun)

Head of a former executive department created in 1903 and divided into two departments in 1913.

- The article explained what "secretary of commerce and labor" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secretary of commerce and labor."

sir walter scott (noun)

British author of historical novels and ballads (1771-1832).

- Understanding "sir walter scott" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sir walter scott" to mean british author of historical novels and ballads....

sound ranging (noun)

Locating a source of sound (as an enemy gun) by measurements of the time the sound arrives at microphones in known positions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sound ranging."
- The article explained what "sound ranging" means with a simple example.

sporting man (noun)

Someone who leads a merry existence; especially a gambler on the outcome of sporting events.

- He looked up "sporting man" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sporting man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

strip mining (noun)

The mining of ore or coal from an open mine.

- In class, the teacher used "strip mining" to mean the mining of ore or coal from an open mine.
- The article explained what "strip mining" means with a simple example.

---

swift (noun)

An English satirist born in Ireland (1667-1745).

- They discussed "swift" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "swift" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

teaching certificate (noun)

A certificate saying that the holder is qualified to teach in the public schools.

- In class, the teacher used "teaching certificate" to mean a certificate saying that the holder is qualified....
- He looked up "teaching certificate" because he had never seen it before.

---

temporary worker (noun)

A worker (especially in an office) hired on a temporary basis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "temporary worker."
- He looked up "temporary worker" because he had never seen it before.

---

torture (noun)

The deliberate, systematic, or wanton infliction of physical or mental suffering by one or more persons in an attempt to force another person to yield information or to make a confession or for any other reason.

- The article explained what "torture" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "torture" to mean the deliberate, systematic, or wanton infliction of....

---

tricks (noun)

An attempt to get you to do something foolish or imprudent.

- Understanding "tricks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tricks."

---

violation (noun)

An act that disregards an agreement or a right.

- He claimed a violation of his rights under the Fifth Amendment.
- The article explained what "violation" means with a simple example.

---

water rat (noun)

A person who enjoys being in or on the water.

- In class, the teacher used "water rat" to mean a person who enjoys being in or on the water.
- The article explained what "water rat" means with a simple example.

---

william mitchell (noun)

United States aviator and general who was an early advocate of military air power (1879-1936).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "william mitchell."
- He looked up "william mitchell" because he had never seen it before.

---

work-shy (adjective)

Disinclined to work or exertion.

- The unemployed are not necessarily work-shy.
- Would you call this situation "work-shy"? Explain why.

---

workshop (noun)

A brief intensive course for a small group; emphasizes problem solving.

- They discussed "workshop" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "workshop" to mean a brief intensive course for a small group;....

---

world premiere (noun)

(music) the first public performance (as of a dramatic or musical work) anywhere in the world.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "world premiere."
- Understanding "world premiere" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

addiction (noun)

(Roman law) a formal award by a magistrate of a thing or person to another person (as the award of a debtor to his creditor); a surrender to a master.

- Under Roman law addiction was the justification for slavery.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "addiction."

---

associates (noun)

A friend who is frequently in the company of another.

- Associates in the law firm bill at a lower rate than do partners.
- The article explained what "associates" means with a simple example.

---

attendance check (noun)

A call of students' names in a classroom.

- They discussed "attendance check" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "attendance check."

---

classified ad (noun)

A short ad in a newspaper or magazine (usually in small print) and appearing along with other ads of the same type.

- He looked up "classified ad" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "classified ad" during the group presentation.

---

conservatives (noun)

A person who is reluctant to accept changes and new ideas.

- He looked up "conservatives" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conservatives."

---

criminal offense (noun)

(criminal law) an act punishable by law; usually considered an evil act.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "criminal offense."
- Understanding "criminal offense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cross-country jumping (noun)

Riding horses across country over obstructions to demonstrate horsemanship.

- The article explained what "cross-country jumping" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cross-country jumping" to mean riding horses across country over obstructions to....

---

custody battle (noun)

Litigation to settle custody of the children of a divorced couple.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "custody battle."
- The article explained what "custody battle" means with a simple example.

---

dining (noun)

The act of eating dinner.

- The article explained what "dining" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dining" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

disability insurance (noun)

Social insurance for the disabled.

- In class, the teacher used "disability insurance" to mean social insurance for the disabled.
- Understanding "disability insurance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

edward iv (noun)

King of England from 1461 to 1470 and from 1471 to 1483; was dethroned in 1470 but regained the throne in 1471 by his victory at the battle of Tewkesbury (1442-1483).

- He looked up "edward iv" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "edward iv" during the group presentation.

---

electrical shock (noun)

A reflex response to the passage of electric current through the body.

- Subjects received a small electric shock when they made the wrong response.
- Electricians get accustomed to occasional shocks.

---

employee savings plan (noun)

A plan that allows employees to contribute to an investment pool managed the employer.

- In class, the teacher used "employee savings plan" to mean a plan that allows employees to contribute to an....
- They discussed "employee savings plan" during the group presentation.

---

frank cooper (noun)

United States film actor noted for his portrayals of strong silent heroes (1901-1961).

- He looked up "frank cooper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frank cooper."

---

grandmother (noun)

The mother of your father or mother.

- The article explained what "grandmother" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "grandmother" to mean the mother of your father or mother.

---

hiring hall (noun)

A union-operated placement office where jobs are allotted to applicants according to seniority or rotation.

- He looked up "hiring hall" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hiring hall."

---

immune (noun)

A person who is immune to a particular infection.

- The article explained what "immune" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "immune" to mean a person who is immune to a particular infection.

---

in-migration (noun)

Migration into a place (especially migration to a country of which you are not a native in order to settle there).

- In class, the teacher used "in-migration" to mean migration into a place (especially migration to a....
- Understanding "in-migration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inquiry agent (noun)

A private detective.

- In class, the teacher used "inquiry agent" to mean a private detective.
- The article explained what "inquiry agent" means with a simple example.

---

inspection (noun)

A formal or official examination.

- We had to wait for the inspection before we could use the elevator.
- He looked up "inspection" because he had never seen it before.

---

install (verb)

Put into an office or a position.

- The new president was installed immediately after the election.
- Install the washer and dryer.

---

john tyler (noun)

Elected vice president and became the 10th President of the United States when Harrison died (1790-1862).

- The article explained what "john tyler" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "john tyler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

judge advocate (noun)

An officer assigned to the judge advocate general.

- In class, the teacher used "judge advocate" to mean an officer assigned to the judge advocate general.
- They discussed "judge advocate" during the group presentation.

---

judicial (adjective)

Belonging or appropriate to the office of a judge.

- Judicial robes.
- Judicial system.

---

mason (noun)

A craftsman who works with stone or brick.

- Understanding "mason" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mason" during the group presentation.

---

mechanical drawing (noun)

The craft of drawing blueprints.

- The article explained what "mechanical drawing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mechanical drawing" to mean the craft of drawing blueprints.

---

migration (noun)

The movement of persons from one country or locality to another.

- He looked up "migration" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "migration."

---

muscles (noun)

A bully employed as a thug or bodyguard.

- Understanding "muscles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "muscles" because he had never seen it before.

---

mutual aid (noun)

Arrangements made between nations to assist each other.

- Understanding "mutual aid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mutual aid" means with a simple example.

---

nurses (noun)

A woman who is the custodian of children.

- In class, the teacher used "nurses" to mean a woman who is the custodian of children.
- He looked up "nurses" because he had never seen it before.

---

out-migration (noun)

Migration from a place (especially migration from your native country in order to settle in another).

- The article explained what "out-migration" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "out-migration" to mean migration from a place (especially migration from....

---

peer (noun)

A person who is of equal standing with another in a group.

- Understanding "peer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "peer" means with a simple example.

---

pig (noun)

A person regarded as greedy and pig-like.

- Understanding "pig" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pig" to mean a person regarded as greedy and pig-like.

re-examine (verb)

Question after cross-examination by opposing counsel.

- Re-examine one's witness.
- Can you use "re-examine" in a sentence that fits this situation?

road runner (noun)

Someone who participates in long-distance races (especially in marathons).

- He looked up "road runner" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "road runner."

shy person (noun)

Someone who shrinks from familiarity with others.

- The article explained what "shy person" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "shy person" during the group presentation.

signals intelligence (noun)

Intelligence information gathered from communications intelligence or electronics intelligence or telemetry intelligence.

- In class, the teacher used "signals intelligence" to mean intelligence information gathered from....
- He looked up "signals intelligence" because he had never seen it before.

sir thomas lawrence (noun)

English portrait painter remembered for the series of portraits of the leaders of the alliance against Napoleon (1769-1830).

- The article explained what "sir thomas lawrence" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sir thomas lawrence" to mean english portrait painter remembered for the series....

solo blast (noun)

A home run with no runners on base.

- The article explained what "solo blast" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "solo blast" to mean a home run with no runners on base.

strangers (noun)

An individual that one is not acquainted with.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strangers."
- He looked up "strangers" because he had never seen it before.

swing shift (noun)

The work shift during the evening (as 4 p.m. to midnight).

- He looked up "swing shift" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "swing shift" during the group presentation.

tattoo (noun)

The practice of making a design on the skin by pricking and staining.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tattoo."
- The article explained what "tattoo" means with a simple example.

teacher-student relation (noun)

The academic relation between teachers and their students.

- He looked up "teacher-student relation" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "teacher-student relation" during the group presentation.

wine lover (noun)

A connoisseur of fine wines; a grape nut.

- They discussed "wine lover" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wine lover."

wrestling (noun)

The act of engaging in close hand-to-hand combat.

- We watched his grappling and wrestling with the bully.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wrestling."

---

accomplished fact (noun)

An irreversible accomplishment.

- Understanding "accomplished fact" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "accomplished fact."

---

activist (noun)

A militant reformer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "activist."
- Understanding "activist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

activists (noun)

A militant reformer.

- Understanding "activists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "activists."

---

american revolutionary war (noun)

The revolution of the American Colonies against Great Britain; 1775-1783.

- They discussed "american revolutionary war" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american revolutionary war."

---

artistic production (noun)

The creation of beautiful or significant things.

- Understanding "artistic production" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "artistic production" because he had never seen it before.

---

benjamin west (noun)

English painter (born in America) who became the second president of the Royal Academy (1738-1820).

- They discussed "benjamin west" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "benjamin west."

---

chancellor (noun)

The honorary or titular head of a university.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chancellor."
- Understanding "chancellor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

christian scientist (noun)

A member of the Protestant church founded in the United States by Mary Baker Eddy.

- They discussed "christian scientist" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "christian scientist."

---

comparing (noun)

The act of examining resemblances.

- In class, the teacher used "comparing" to mean the act of examining resemblances.
- Understanding "comparing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

consultant (noun)

An expert who gives advice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "consultant."
- They discussed "consultant" during the group presentation.

---

courtesy (noun)

A courteous or respectful or considerate act.

- In class, the teacher used "courtesy" to mean a courteous or respectful or considerate act.

- The article explained what "courtesy" means with a simple example.

---

cow man (noun)

A man who raises (or tends) cattle.

- They discussed "cow man" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cow man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

designated driver (noun)

The member of a party who is designated to refrain from alcohol and so is sober when it is time to drive home.

- He looked up "designated driver" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "designated driver" to mean the member of a party who is designated to refrain....

---

dishes (noun)

An activity that you like or at which you are superior.

- We gave them a set of dishes for a wedding present.
- He looked up "dishes" because he had never seen it before.

---

double-dealer (noun)

A person who says one thing and does another.

- They discussed "double-dealer" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "double-dealer" because he had never seen it before.

---

dutch uncle (noun)

A counselor who admonishes frankly and sternly.

- They discussed "dutch uncle" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dutch uncle" to mean a counselor who admonishes frankly and sternly.

---

efficiency engineer (noun)

An expert in increasing the efficient use of machines and personnel.

- Understanding "efficiency engineer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "efficiency engineer" during the group presentation.

---

faith healing (noun)

Care provided through prayer and faith in God.

- In class, the teacher used "faith healing" to mean care provided through prayer and faith in god.
- The article explained what "faith healing" means with a simple example.

---

financing (noun)

The act of financing.

- They discussed "financing" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "financing" because he had never seen it before.

---

foster parent (noun)

A person who acts as parent and guardian for a child in place of the child's natural parents but without legally adopting the child.

- The article explained what "foster parent" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "foster parent" to mean a person who acts as parent and guardian for a....

---

foster-parent (noun)

A person who acts as parent and guardian for a child in place of the child's natural parents but without legally adopting the child.

- He looked up "foster-parent" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "foster-parent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gentlemen (noun)

A manservant who acts as a personal attendant to his employer.

- They discussed "gentlemen" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gentlemen."

---

graphic artist (noun)

An artist who designs and makes prints.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "graphic artist."
- They discussed "graphic artist" during the group presentation.

great grandmother (noun)

A mother of your grandparent.

- Understanding "great grandmother" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "great grandmother" during the group presentation.

house organ (noun)

A periodical published by a business firm for its employees and customers.

- They discussed "house organ" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "house organ" means with a simple example.

instrument flying (noun)

Navigation of an airplane solely by instruments.

- In class, the teacher used "instrument flying" to mean navigation of an airplane solely by instruments.
- The article explained what "instrument flying" means with a simple example.

james watson (noun)

United States geneticist who (with Crick in 1953) helped discover the helical structure of DNA (born in 1928).

- He looked up "james watson" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "james watson."

joint venture (noun)

A venture by a partnership or conglomerate designed to share risk or expertise.

- A joint venture between the film companies to produce TV shows.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joint venture."

liberals (noun)

A person who favors an economic theory of laissez-faire and self-regulating markets.

- In class, the teacher used "liberals" to mean a person who favors an economic theory of....
- The article explained what "liberals" means with a simple example.

life peer (noun)

A British peer whose title lapses at death.

- In class, the teacher used "life peer" to mean a british peer whose title lapses at death.
- The article explained what "life peer" means with a simple example.

mechanics (noun)

The technical aspects of doing something.

- The mechanics of prose style.
- The article explained what "mechanics" means with a simple example.

plant scientist (noun)

A biologist specializing in the study of plants.

- The article explained what "plant scientist" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plant scientist."

plug away (verb)

Work doggedly or persistently.

- She keeps plugging away at her dissertation.
- Students must plug away at this problem.

profession (noun)

The body of people in a learned occupation.

- The news spread rapidly through the medical profession.
- A profession of disagreement.

---

providers (noun)

Someone who provides the means for subsistence.

- In class, the teacher used "providers" to mean someone who provides the means for subsistence.
- Understanding "providers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

publisher (noun)

A person engaged in publishing periodicals or books or music.

- Understanding "publisher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "publisher" because he had never seen it before.

---

putin (noun)

Russian statesman chosen as president of the Russian Federation in 2000; formerly director of the Federal Security Bureau (born in 1952).

- Understanding "putin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "putin" to mean russian statesman chosen as president of the....

---

reading assignment (noun)

The reading of a passage assigned by the teacher.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reading assignment."
- He looked up "reading assignment" because he had never seen it before.

---

retreat (noun)

Withdrawal for prayer and study and meditation.

- The religious retreat is a form of vacation activity.
- The disorderly retreat of French troops.

---

robert mills (noun)

United States architect who was the presidentially appointed architect of Washington D.C. (1781-1855).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robert mills."
- Understanding "robert mills" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roger sessions (noun)

United States composer who promoted 20th century music (1896-1985).

- He looked up "roger sessions" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "roger sessions" to mean united states composer who promoted 20th century....

---

rookie (noun)

An awkward and inexperienced youth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rookie."
- They discussed "rookie" during the group presentation.

---

saint luke (noun)

(New Testament) the Apostle closely associated with St. Paul and traditionally assumed to be the author of the third Gospel.

- In class, the teacher used "saint luke" to mean (new testament) the apostle closely associated with....
- They discussed "saint luke" during the group presentation.

---

schedule feeding (noun)

Feeding a baby or animal according to a fixed schedule (e.g., every 4 hours).

- The article explained what "schedule feeding" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "schedule feeding" to mean feeding a baby or animal according to a fixed....

---

sir henry joseph wood (noun)

English conductor (1869-1944).

- In class, the teacher used "sir henry joseph wood" to mean english conductor (1869-1944).
- Understanding "sir henry joseph wood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

small farmer (noun)

A farmer on a small farm.

- In class, the teacher used "small farmer" to mean a farmer on a small farm.
- The article explained what "small farmer" means with a simple example.

stuart (noun)

A member of the royal family that ruled Scotland and England.

- The article explained what "stuart" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stuart" during the group presentation.

surgeon (noun)

A physician who specializes in surgery.

- The article explained what "surgeon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "surgeon" to mean a physician who specializes in surgery.

theft (noun)

The act of taking something from someone unlawfully.

- They discussed "theft" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theft."

trophy wife (noun)

A wife who is an attractive young woman; seldom the first wife of an affluent older man.

- His trophy wife was an asset to his business.
- The article explained what "trophy wife" means with a simple example.

washing (noun)

The work of cleansing (usually with soap and water).

- The article explained what "washing" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "washing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

washing-up (noun)

The washing of dishes etc after a meal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "washing-up."
- The article explained what "washing-up" means with a simple example.

welfare worker (noun)

Someone employed to provide social services (especially to the disadvantaged).

- In class, the teacher used "welfare worker" to mean someone employed to provide social services....
- Understanding "welfare worker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

writing assignment (noun)

An assignment to write something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "writing assignment."
- He looked up "writing assignment" because he had never seen it before.

written assignment (noun)

An assignment to write something.

- He looked up "written assignment" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "written assignment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

baby farmer (noun)

Someone who runs an establishment that houses and cares for babies for a fee.

- The article explained what "baby farmer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "baby farmer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blocking (noun)

The act of obstructing or deflecting someone's movements.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blocking."
- Understanding "blocking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coin collection (noun)

The collection and study of money (and coins in particular).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coin collection."
- He looked up "coin collection" because he had never seen it before.

---

course of instruction (noun)

Education imparted in a series of lessons or meetings.

- He took a course in basket weaving.
- He looked up "course of instruction" because he had never seen it before.

---

cross examine (verb)

Question closely, or question a witness that has already been questioned by the opposing side.

- The witness was cross-examined by the defense.
- In everyday English, people use "cross examine" when talking about this idea.

Health & Body

headache (noun)

A pain that you feel inside your head.

- I have a terrible headache, so I am going to lie down.
- Working on the computer too long gives me a headache.

---

medicine (noun)

Something you drink, swallow, or take to treat an illness or pain.

- The doctor gave me some medicine for my cough.
- Remember to take your medicine twice a day, after meals.

---

tired (adjective)

Feeling that you need to rest or sleep.

- I was so tired after work that I fell asleep on the sofa.
- The children were tired after playing outside all afternoon.

---

doctor (noun)

A person whose job is to treat people who are ill or injured.

- You should see a doctor if the pain continues.
- The doctor listened to my heartbeat.

---

hospital (noun)

A place where sick or injured people are treated by doctors and nurses.

- She was taken to the hospital after the accident.
- The new hospital opened last year.

---

fever (noun)

A high body temperature caused by illness.

- The child has a fever and should stay in bed.
- Take this medicine to bring down the fever.

---

cough (noun / verb)

To force air from the lungs with a sudden sharp sound; also, the act of doing this.

- He has had a bad cough for a week.
- Cover your mouth when you cough.

---

healthy (adjective)

In good physical condition; not ill.

- Eating vegetables helps you stay healthy.
- She looks healthy after her vacation.

---

exercise (noun / verb)

Physical activity done to stay strong and healthy; to do such activity.

- Daily exercise is good for your heart.
- I exercise at the gym three times a week.

---

pain (noun)

An unpleasant feeling in a part of your body when you are hurt or ill.

- He felt a sharp pain in his back.
- This cream helps reduce the pain.

---

nurse (noun)

A person whose job is to care for people who are ill or injured, often in a hospital.

- The nurse checked my blood pressure.
- She wants to become a nurse.

---

blood (noun)

The red liquid that flows through your body.

- The nurse took a blood sample.
- He turned pale at the sight of blood.

---

sleep (verb / noun)

To rest with your eyes closed and your mind inactive; also, the state of doing this.

- I need to sleep at least eight hours tonight.
- Babies need a lot of sleep.

---

people (noun)

The body of citizens of a state or country.

- The Spanish people.
- Old people.

---

want (noun)

The state of needing something that is absent or unavailable.

- For want of a nail the shoe was lost.
- I tried to supply his wants.

---

need (noun)

A state of extreme poverty or destitution.

- A general state of need exists among the homeless.
- She satisfied his need for affection.

---

be well (verb)

Be healthy; feel good.

- She has not been well lately.
- Can you use “be well” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

right (noun)

The hand that is on the right side of the body.

- He writes with his right hand but pitches with his left.
- Hit him with quick rights to the body.

---

get into (verb)

Put clothing on one’s body.

- He got into his jeans.
- He really got into semantics.

life (noun)

A characteristic state or mode of living.

- Social life.
- City life.

make as if (verb)

Begin or appear to begin an action.

- In everyday English, people use "make as if" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "make as if" in a sentence that fits this situation?

do well (verb)

Act in one's own or everybody's best interest.

- You will do well to arrive on time tomorrow!
- Can you use "do well" in a sentence that fits this situation?

get back (verb)

Get one's revenge for a wrong or an injury.

- We got back the money after we threatened to sue the company.
- He got back his son from the kidnappers.

high (noun)

An air mass of higher than normal pressure.

- The east coast benefits from a Bermuda high.
- Summer temperatures reached an all-time high.

had best (verb)

Act in one's own or everybody's best interest.

- Can you use "had best" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "had best" and when to wait.

well-being (noun)

A contented state of being happy and healthy and prosperous.

- Understanding "well-being" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "well-being" means with a simple example.

left (noun)

The hand that is on the left side of the body.

- Jab with your left.
- She stood on the left.

let in (verb)

Allow participation in or the right to be part of; permit to exercise the rights, functions, and responsibilities of.

- She tried to use "let in" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "let in" until he saw an example.

put up (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- Put up a good fight.
- The dealer put up three of his most valuable paintings for auction.

big time (noun)

The highest level of an occupation (especially in entertainment).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "big time."
- They discussed "big time" during the group presentation.

public (noun)

A body of people sharing some common interest.

- The reading public.
- He is a hero in the eyes of the public.

---

group a (noun)

The blood group whose red cells carry the A antigen.

- Understanding "group a" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "group a."

---

care for (verb)

Provide treatment for.

- The nurses cared for the bomb victims.
- She tried to use "care for" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

person (noun)

A human body (usually including the clothing).

- A weapon was hidden on his person.
- There was too much for one person to do.

---

come to life (verb)

Be lifelike, as of a painting.

- If you look at it long enough, this portrait comes to life!
- All these flowers come to life when the rains come.

---

hard-on (noun)

An erect penis.

- The article explained what "hard-on" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hard-on" to mean an erect penis.

---

tell on (verb)

Give away information about somebody.

- She tried to use "tell on" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "tell on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

try on (verb)

Put on a garment in order to see whether it fits and looks nice.

- Try on this sweater to see how it looks.
- The coach explained when to use "try on" and when to wait.

---

area (noun)

A particular environment or walk of life.

- It was a closed area of employment.
- It was a mountainous area.

---

hard time (noun)

A difficulty that can be overcome with effort.

- We had a hard time getting here.
- Understanding "hard time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

health (noun)

A healthy state of wellbeing free from disease.

- Physicians should be held responsible for the health of their patients.
- His delicate health.

---

fact (noun)

An event known to have happened or something known to have existed.

- Your fears have no basis in fact.
- How much of the story is fact and how much fiction is hard to tell.

make water (verb)

Eliminate urine.

- In everyday English, people use "make water" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "make water" carefully so everyone would understand.

a level (noun)

The advanced level of a subject taken in school (usually two years after O level).

- They discussed "a level" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "a level" means with a simple example.

body (noun)

The body excluding the head and neck and limbs.

- He felt as if his whole body were on fire.
- The whole body filed out of the auditorium.

problem (noun)

A state of difficulty that needs to be resolved.

- She and her husband are having problems.
- Urban problems such as traffic congestion and smog.

the true (noun)

Conformity to reality or actuality.

- They debated the truth of the proposition.
- The situation brought home to us the blunt truth of the military threat.

put under (verb)

Administer an anesthetic drug to.

- Can you use "put under" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "put under" until he saw an example.

good health (noun)

The state of being vigorous and free from bodily or mental disease.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good health."
- The article explained what "good health" means with a simple example.

in the air (adverb)

On everybody's mind.

- Christmas was in the air.
- Place "in the air" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

make a face (verb)

Contort the face to indicate a certain mental or emotional state.

- She tried to use "make a face" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "make a face" and when to wait.

members (noun)

An external body part that projects from the body.

- Only members will be admitted.
- She was introduced to all the members of his family.

pretty up (verb)

Use special care in dressing, making-up, etc.

- He did not know how to use "pretty up" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "pretty up" and when to wait.

saw (noun)

A condensed but memorable saying embodying some important fact of experience that is taken as true by many people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saw."
- Understanding "saw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

talk into (verb)

Persuade somebody to do something.

- She tried to use "talk into" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "talk into" until he saw an example.

---

keep company (verb)

Be a companion to somebody.

- Learners should practice how to use "keep company" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "keep company" and when to wait.

---

low (noun)

An air mass of lower pressure; often brings precipitation.

- A low moved in over night bringing sleet and snow.
- The stock market fell to a new low.

---

stay (noun)

The state of inactivity following an interruption.

- The momentary stay enabled him to escape the blow.
- They had a nice stay in Paris.

---

living (noun)

The condition of living or the state of being alive.

- Save your pity for the living.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "living."

---

right hand (noun)

The hand that is on the right side of the body.

- He writes with his right hand but pitches with his left.
- Hit him with quick rights to the body.

---

act as (verb)

Pretend to have certain qualities or state of mind.

- He acted the idiot.
- This heap of stones will act as a barrier.

---

behind (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- In class, the teacher used "behind" to mean the fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.
- They discussed "behind" during the group presentation.

---

state of war (noun)

A legal state created by a declaration of war and ended by official declaration during which the international rules of war apply.

- War was declared in November but actual fighting did not begin until the following spring.
- In class, the teacher used "state of war" to mean a legal state created by a declaration of war and....

---

stay up (verb)

Not go to bed.

- Don't stay up so late–you have to go to work tomorrow.
- She tried to use "stay up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

report out (verb)

Return a bill after consideration and revision to a legislative body.

- Learners should practice how to use "report out" in real sentences.

- In everyday English, people use “report out” when talking about this idea.

---

bring to (verb)

Return to consciousness.

- These pictures bring back sad memories.
- In everyday English, people use “bring to” when talking about this idea.

---

type a (noun)

The blood group whose red cells carry the A antigen.

- The article explained what “type a” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “type a” to mean the blood group whose red cells carry the a antigen.

---

chance (noun)

A possibility due to a favorable combination of circumstances.

- Now is your chance.
- We ran into each other by pure chance.

---

body part (noun)

Any part of an organism such as an organ or extremity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “body part.”
- Understanding “body part” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

field (noun)

A particular environment or walk of life.

- He planted a field of wheat.
- They made a tour of Civil War battlefields.

---

wants (noun)

The state of needing something that is absent or unavailable.

- I tried to supply his wants.
- They discussed “wants” during the group presentation.

---

energy (noun)

A healthy capacity for vigorous activity.

- Jogging works off my excess energy.
- Energy can take a wide variety of forms.

---

state of matter (noun)

(chemistry) the three traditional states of matter are solids (fixed shape and volume) and liquids (fixed volume and shaped by the container) and gases (filling the container).

- The solid state of water is called ice.
- They discussed “state of matter” during the group presentation.

---

life form (noun)

The characteristic bodily form of a mature organism.

- Understanding “life form” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “life form” because he had never seen it before.

---

bring back (verb)

Return to consciousness.

- These pictures bring back sad memories.
- In everyday English, people use “bring back” when talking about this idea.

---

free hand (noun)

Freedom to do as you see fit.

- Many have doubts about giving him a free hand to attack.
- The article explained what “free hand” means with a simple example.

---

health care (noun)

The preservation of mental and physical health by preventing or treating illness through services offered by the health profession.

- They discussed "health care" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "health care" to mean the preservation of mental and physical health by....

---

left hand (noun)

The hand that is on the left side of the body.

- Jab with your left.
- In class, the teacher used "left hand" to mean the hand that is on the left side of the body.

---

security (noun)

The state of being free from danger or injury.

- We support the armed services in the name of national security.
- His pension gave him security in his old age.

---

hold (noun)

A state of being confined (usually for a short time).

- The prisoner is on hold.
- She kept a firm hold on the railing.

---

problems (noun)

A state of difficulty that needs to be resolved.

- She and her husband are having problems.
- Urban problems such as traffic congestion and smog.

---

rights (noun)

The hand that is on the right side of the body.

- Hit him with quick rights to the body.
- They are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights.

---

states general (noun)

Assembly of the estates of an entire country especially the sovereign body of the Dutch republic from 16th to 18th centuries.

- He looked up "states general" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "states general" during the group presentation.

---

take it easy (verb)

Settle into a comfortable sitting position.

- Learners should practice how to use "take it easy" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "take it easy" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

test (noun)

A set of questions or exercises evaluating skill or knowledge.

- When the test was stolen the professor had to make a new set of questions.
- The test was standardized on a large sample of students.

---

war power (noun)

An extraordinary power exercised (usually by the executive branch) in the prosecution of a war and involving an extension of the powers that the government normally has in peacetime.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "war power."
- They discussed "war power" during the group presentation.

---

member (noun)

An external body part that projects from the body.

- Only members will be admitted.
- A member of the faculty.

---

live body (noun)

The body of a living animal or person.

- In class, the teacher used "live body" to mean the body of a living animal or person.
- The article explained what "live body" means with a simple example.

---

press (noun)

The state of demanding notice or attention.

- The press of business matters.
- He gave the button a press.

---

state of the art (noun)

The highest degree of development of an art or technique at a particular time.

- The state of the art in space travel.
- Understanding "state of the art" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

areas (noun)

A particular environment or walk of life.

- Areas of interest include...
- Understanding "areas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

body of water (noun)

The part of the earth's surface covered with water (such as a river or lake or ocean).

- They invaded our territorial waters.
- They were sitting by the water's edge.

---

group b (noun)

The blood group whose red cells carry the B antigen.

- The article explained what "group b" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "group b."

---

business community (noun)

The body of individuals who manage businesses.

- The article explained what "business community" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "business community" during the group presentation.

---

lives (noun)

A characteristic state or mode of living.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lives."
- The article explained what "lives" means with a simple example.

---

white matter (noun)

Whitish nervous tissue of the CNS consisting of neurons and their myelin sheaths.

- In class, the teacher used "white matter" to mean whitish nervous tissue of the cns consisting of....
- Understanding "white matter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black body (noun)

A hypothetical object capable of absorbing all the electromagnetic radiation falling on it.

- A black body maintained at a constant temperature is a full radiator at that temperature because the radiation reaching and leaving it must be in equilibrium.
- They discussed "black body" during the group presentation.

---

black death (noun)

The epidemic form of bubonic plague experienced during the Middle Ages when it killed nearly half the people of western Europe.

- The article explained what "black death" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "black death" to mean the epidemic form of bubonic plague experienced....

---

health problem (noun)

A state in which you are unable to function normally and without pain.

- They discussed "health problem" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "health problem" means with a simple example.

human head (noun)

The head of a human being.

- They discussed "human head" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "human head" because he had never seen it before.

size of it (noun)

The actual state of affairs.

- That's the size of the situation.
- She hates me, that's about the size of it.

international law (noun)

The body of laws governing relations between nations.

- He looked up "international law" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "international law" during the group presentation.

red water (noun)

A disease of cattle; characterized by hematuria.

- In class, the teacher used "red water" to mean a disease of cattle; characterized by hematuria.
- The article explained what "red water" means with a simple example.

human face (noun)

The front of the human head from the forehead to the chin and ear to ear.

- He washed his face.
- I wish I had seen the look on his face when he got the news.

add (noun)

A condition (mostly in boys) characterized by behavioral and learning disorders.

- The article explained what "add" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "add."

attack (noun)

A sudden occurrence of an uncontrollable condition.

- An attack of diarrhea.
- The attack began at dawn.

situation (noun)

A complex or critical or unusual difficulty.

- The dangerous situation developed suddenly.
- That's quite a situation.

council (noun)

A body serving in an administrative capacity.

- Student council.
- Emergency council.

fall over (verb)

Fall forward and down.

- The old woman went over without a sound.
- In everyday English, people use "fall over" when talking about this idea.

hair (noun)

A covering for the body (or parts of it) consisting of a dense growth of threadlike structures (as on the human head); helps to prevent heat loss.

- He combed his hair.
- Each hair consists of layers of dead keratinized cells.

self-government (noun)

Government of a political unit by its own people.

- He looked up "self-government" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "self-government" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cause of death (noun)

The causal agent resulting in death.

- He looked up "cause of death" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cause of death" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dead end (noun)

A situation in which no progress can be made or no advancement is possible.

- The article explained what "dead end" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dead end" to mean a situation in which no progress can be made or no....

---

health check (noun)

A thorough physical examination; includes a variety of tests depending on the age and sex and health of the person.

- Understanding "health check" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "health check" during the group presentation.

---

human body (noun)

Alternative names for the body of a human being.

- Leonardo studied the human body.
- The article explained what "human body" means with a simple example.

---

stand-down (noun)

A suspension and relaxation from an alert state or a state of readiness.

- The article explained what "stand-down" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "stand-down" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ground state (noun)

(physics) the lowest energy state of an atom or other particle.

- Understanding "ground state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ground state" during the group presentation.

---

whole works (noun)

Everything available; usually preceded by 'the'.

- We saw the whole shebang.
- A hotdog with the works.

---

high ground (noun)

A position of superiority over opponents or competitors.

- They discussed "high ground" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "high ground" to mean a position of superiority over opponents or competitors.

---

living death (noun)

A state of constant misery.

- They discussed "living death" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "living death."

---

public security (noun)

The general security of public places.

- They discussed "public security" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public security."

---

sleep in (verb)

Live in the house where one works.

- On Sundays, I sleep in.

- The coach explained when to use “sleep in” and when to wait.

---

art history (noun)

The academic discipline that studies the development of painting and sculpture.

- They discussed “art history” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “art history” means with a simple example.

---

build (noun)

Alternative names for the body of a human being.

- In class, the teacher used “build” to mean alternative names for the body of a human being.
- They discussed “build” during the group presentation.

---

quality of life (noun)

Your personal satisfaction (or dissatisfaction) with the cultural or intellectual conditions under which you live (as distinct from material comfort).

- The new art museum is expected to improve the quality of life.
- In class, the teacher used “quality of life” to mean your personal satisfaction (or dissatisfaction)....

---

sleep with (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- This student sleeps with everyone in her dorm.
- Were you ever intimate with this man?

---

body process (noun)

An organic process that takes place in the body.

- They discussed “body process” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “body process.”

---

body type (noun)

A category of physique.

- In class, the teacher used “body type” to mean a category of physique.
- He looked up “body type” because he had never seen it before.

---

college level (noun)

The level of education that college students are assumed to have attained.

- The article explained what “college level” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “college level” to mean the level of education that college students are....

---

natural state (noun)

A wild primitive state untouched by civilization.

- He looked up “natural state” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “natural state” during the group presentation.

---

pass out (verb)

Lose consciousness due to a sudden trauma, for example.

- The teacher handed out the exams.
- He did not know how to use “pass out” until he saw an example.

---

sleep out (verb)

Work in a house where one does not live.

- Our cook lives out; he can easily commute from his home.
- Can you use “sleep out” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

effect (noun)

A symptom caused by an illness or a drug.

- The effects of sleep loss.
- The effect of the anesthetic.

---

business relationship (noun)

A formal contractual relationship established to provide for regular banking or brokerage or business services.

- He looked up "business relationship" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "business relationship" during the group presentation.

---

military law (noun)

The body of laws and rules of conduct administered by military courts for the discipline, trial, and punishment of military personnel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military law."
- Understanding "military law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

out-of-body experience (noun)

The dissociative experience of observing yourself from an external perspective as though your mind or soul had left and was observing your body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "out-of-body experience."
- He looked up "out-of-body experience" because he had never seen it before.

---

potential (noun)

The inherent capacity for coming into being.

- He looked up "potential" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "potential" during the group presentation.

---

pressure (noun)

The state of demanding notice or attention.

- The compressed gas exerts an increased pressure.
- The public brought pressure to bear on the government.

---

sleep over (verb)

Stay overnight.

- The boy's friends were allowed to sleep over after the birthday party.
- He did not know how to use "sleep over" until he saw an example.

---

type b (noun)

The blood group whose red cells carry the B antigen.

- He looked up "type b" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "type b."

---

art form (noun)

(architecture) a form of artistic expression (such as writing or painting or architecture).

- The article explained what "art form" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "art form" during the group presentation.

---

ass (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- The article explained what "ass" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ass."

---

content (noun)

The state of being contented with your situation in life.

- He relaxed in sleepy contentedness.
- They could read to their heart's content.

---

go to sleep (verb)

Prepare for sleep.

- The coach explained when to use "go to sleep" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "go to sleep" in real sentences.

---

health club (noun)

A place of business with equipment and facilities for exercising and improving physical fitness.

- He looked up “health club” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “health club” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hot water (noun)

A dangerous or distressing predicament.

- His views on race got him into political hot water.
- He looked up “hot water” because he had never seen it before.

---

sleep off (verb)

Get rid of by sleeping.

- Sleep off a hangover.
- She tried to use “sleep off” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

group o (noun)

The blood group whose red cells carry neither the A nor B antigens.

- He looked up “group o” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “group o.”

---

welcome (noun)

The state of being welcome.

- Don’t outstay your welcome.
- The proposal got a warm welcome.

---

body english (noun)

A motion of the body by a player as if to make an object already propelled go in the desired direction.

- Understanding “body english” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “body english” means with a simple example.

---

conditions (noun)

The set of circumstances that affect someone’s welfare.

- Hazardous working conditions.
- Harsh living conditions.

---

dead body (noun)

A natural object consisting of a dead animal or person.

- They found the body in the lake.
- Understanding “dead body” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hot war (noun)

Actual fighting between the warring parties.

- The article explained what “hot war” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “hot war” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jobs (noun)

A state of difficulty that needs to be resolved.

- He looked up “jobs” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “jobs.”

---

write off (verb)

Concede the loss or worthlessness of something or somebody.

- Write it off as a loss.
- For tax purposes you can write off the laser printer.

---

bill of health (noun)

A certificate saying that a departing ship’s company is healthy (to be presented at the next port of arrival).

- In class, the teacher used “bill of health” to mean a certificate saying that a departing ship’s....
- The article explained what “bill of health” means with a simple example.

blood group (noun)

Human blood cells (usually just the red blood cells) that have the same antigens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blood group."
- The article explained what "blood group" means with a simple example.

city council (noun)

A municipal body that can pass ordinances and appropriate funds etc.

- He looked up "city council" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "city council" to mean a municipal body that can pass ordinances and....

full blood (noun)

Descent from parents both of one pure breed.

- They discussed "full blood" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "full blood" means with a simple example.

full-blood (adjective)

Of unmixed ancestry.

- Full-blooded Native American.
- It is useful to describe something as "full-blood" when it is of unmixed ancestry.

safety (noun)

The state of being certain that adverse effects will not be caused by some agent under defined conditions.

- Insure the safety of the children.
- The reciprocal of safety is risk.

scene (noun)

A situation treated as an observable object.

- The religious scene in England has changed in the last century.
- The police returned to the scene of the crime.

sleep around (verb)

Be sexually active with more than one partner.

- Learners should practice how to use "sleep around" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "sleep around" until he saw an example.

standard of life (noun)

A level of material comfort in terms of goods and services available to someone or some group.

- They enjoyed the highest standard of living in the country.
- The lower the standard of living the easier it is to introduce an autocratic production system.

tax law (noun)

The body of laws governing taxation.

- They discussed "tax law" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tax law."

bad blood (noun)

A feeling of ill will arousing active hostility.

- The article explained what "bad blood" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bad blood" during the group presentation.

medical history (noun)

The case history of a medical patient as recalled by the patient.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medical history."
- The article explained what "medical history" means with a simple example.

non-issue (noun)

The state of something that has outlived its relevance.

- They discussed "non-issue" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "non-issue."

---

blood line (noun)

The descendants of one individual.

- His entire lineage has been warriors.
- In class, the teacher used "blood line" to mean the descendants of one individual.

---

hospital care (noun)

Placing in medical care in a hospital.

- The article explained what "hospital care" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hospital care" to mean placing in medical care in a hospital.

---

natural law (noun)

A rule or body of rules of conduct inherent in human nature and essential to or binding upon human society.

- They discussed "natural law" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "natural law" means with a simple example.

---

opportunity (noun)

A possibility due to a favorable combination of circumstances.

- The holiday gave us the opportunity to visit Washington.
- The article explained what "opportunity" means with a simple example.

---

put to sleep (verb)

Kill gently, as with an injection.

- The cat was very ill and we had to put it to sleep.
- Mother put the baby to sleep.

---

central body (noun)

Small region of cytoplasm adjacent to the nucleus; contains the centrioles and serves to organize the microtubules.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central body."
- The article explained what "central body" means with a simple example.

---

drop off (verb)

Change from a waking to a sleeping state.

- The number of students in this course dropped off after the first test.
- Drop off the passengers at the hotel.

---

head of hair (noun)

Growth of hair covering the scalp of a human being.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "head of hair."
- They discussed "head of hair" during the group presentation.

---

language area (noun)

A large cortical area (in the left hemisphere in most people) containing all the centers associated with language.

- They discussed "language area" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "language area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

medical community (noun)

The body of individuals who are qualified to practice medicine.

- Understanding "medical community" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "medical community" means with a simple example.

---

o level (noun)

The basic level of a subject taken in school.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "o level."

- They discussed "o level" during the group presentation.

---

whole blood (noun)

Blood that has not been modified except for the addition of an anticoagulant.

- Whole blood is normally used in blood transfusions.
- They discussed "whole blood" during the group presentation.

---

half blood (noun)

One of siblings who have only one parent in common.

- They discussed "half blood" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "half blood" because he had never seen it before.

---

pain-free (adjective)

Not accompanied by pain sensations.

- Pain-free surgery.
- A "pain-free" approach may work better in this case.

---

stock (noun)

The reputation and popularity a person has.

- His stock was so high he could have been elected mayor.
- He owns a controlling share of the company's stock.

---

be active (verb)

Be in a state of action.

- In everyday English, people use "be active" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "be active" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

body language (noun)

Communication via the movements or attitudes of the body.

- Understanding "body language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "body language" means with a simple example.

---

health code (noun)

Set of standards established and enforced by government for health requirements as in plumbing etc.

- They discussed "health code" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "health code" to mean set of standards established and enforced by....

---

heart rate (noun)

The rate at which the heart beats; usually measured to obtain a quick evaluation of a person's health.

- Understanding "heart rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "heart rate" during the group presentation.

---

lack (noun)

The state of needing something that is absent or unavailable.

- There is a serious lack of insight into the problem.
- The article explained what "lack" means with a simple example.

---

pass water (verb)

Eliminate urine.

- The coach explained when to use "pass water" and when to wait.
- Can you use "pass water" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

protect (verb)

Shield from danger, injury, destruction, or damage.

- Weatherbeater protects your roof from the rain.
- Can you use "protect" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

rules of order (noun)

A body of rules followed by an assembly.

- He looked up "rules of order" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rules of order" to mean a body of rules followed by an assembly.

---

activities (noun)

An organic process that takes place in the body.

- The article explained what "activities" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "activities."

---

body hair (noun)

Short hair growing over a person's body.

- In class, the teacher used "body hair" to mean short hair growing over a person's body.
- He looked up "body hair" because he had never seen it before.

---

dream (noun)

A series of mental images and emotions occurring during sleep.

- I had a dream about you last night.
- He lives in a dream that has nothing to do with reality.

---

public eye (noun)

A focus of public attention.

- When Congress investigates it brings the full glare of publicity to the agency.
- He looked up "public eye" because he had never seen it before.

---

skin (noun)

A natural protective body covering and site of the sense of touch.

- Your skin is the largest organ of your body.
- The skin of an airplane.

---

sleep together (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- This student sleeps with everyone in her dorm.
- Can you use "sleep together" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

wear out (verb)

Exhaust or get tired through overuse or great strain or stress.

- We wore ourselves out on this hike.
- The gears wore out.

---

blood-red (adjective)

Of a color at the end of the color spectrum (next to orange); resembling the color of blood or cherries or tomatoes or rubies.

- It is useful to describe something as "blood-red" when it is of a color at the end of the color spectrum (next....
- A "blood-red" approach may work better in this case.

---

disease (noun)

An impairment of health or a condition of abnormal functioning.

- Understanding "disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "disease" because he had never seen it before.

---

full treatment (noun)

Everything available; usually preceded by 'the'.

- For $10 you get the full treatment.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "full treatment."

---

head cold (noun)

A common cold affecting the nasal passages and resulting in congestion and sneezing and headache.

- In class, the teacher used “head cold” to mean a common cold affecting the nasal passages and....
- He looked up “head cold” because he had never seen it before.

---

health professional (noun)

A person who helps in identifying or preventing or treating illness or disability.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “health professional.”
- He looked up “health professional” because he had never seen it before.

---

pressure point (noun)

An area on the skin that is highly sensitive to pressure.

- You must know the pressure points in order to administer shiatsu.
- A key pressure point in the controversy was the building permit.

---

right brain (noun)

The cerebral hemisphere to the right of the corpus callosum that controls the left half of the body.

- In class, the teacher used “right brain” to mean the cerebral hemisphere to the right of the corpus....
- They discussed “right brain” during the group presentation.

---

side effect (noun)

A secondary and usually adverse effect of a drug or therapy.

- Severe headaches are one of the side effects of the drug.
- In class, the teacher used “side effect” to mean a secondary and usually adverse effect of a drug or....

---

black eye (noun)

A swollen bruise caused by a blow to the eye.

- His behavior gave the whole family a black eye.
- In class, the teacher used “black eye” to mean a swollen bruise caused by a blow to the eye.

---

cold war (noun)

A state of political hostility between countries using means short of armed warfare.

- In class, the teacher used “cold war” to mean a state of political hostility between countries....
- Understanding “cold war” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

doctor up (verb)

Alter and make impure, as with the intention to deceive.

- Learners should practice how to use “doctor up” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “doctor up” and when to wait.

---

heart attack (noun)

A sudden severe instance of abnormal heart function.

- Understanding “heart attack” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “heart attack.”

---

legal community (noun)

The body of individuals qualified to practice law in a particular jurisdiction.

- He looked up “legal community” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “legal community” during the group presentation.

---

reality (noun)

The state of the world as it really is rather than as you might want it to be.

- For them demons were as much a part of reality as trees were.
- The reality of his situation slowly dawned on him.

---

type o (noun)

The blood group whose red cells carry neither the A nor B antigens.

- People with type O blood are universal donors.
- They discussed “type o” during the group presentation.

association area (noun)

Cortical areas that are neither motor or sensory but are thought to be involved in higher processing of information.

- Understanding "association area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "association area" during the group presentation.

blood type (noun)

Human blood cells (usually just the red blood cells) that have the same antigens.

- Understanding "blood type" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "blood type" to mean human blood cells (usually just the red blood....

body-build (noun)

Constitution of the human body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "body-build."
- He looked up "body-build" because he had never seen it before.

challenge (noun)

A demanding or stimulating situation.

- They reacted irrationally to the challenge of Russian power.
- His challenge of the assumption that Japan is still our enemy.

health and human services (noun)

The United States federal department that administers all federal programs dealing with health and welfare; created in 1979.

- Understanding "health and human services" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "health and human services" means with a simple example.

medical record (noun)

The case history of a medical patient as recalled by the patient.

- He looked up "medical record" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medical record."

send word (verb)

Inform (somebody) of something.

- She tried to use "send word" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "send word" until he saw an example.

sick (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- Learners should practice how to use "sick" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "sick" when talking about this idea.

sick of (adjective)

Having a strong distaste from surfeit.

- Sick of it all.
- Sick to death of flattery.

skin over (verb)

Grow new skin over an injury.

- Can you use "skin over" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "skin over" and when to wait.

wear down (verb)

Exhaust or get tired through overuse or great strain or stress.

- In everyday English, people use "wear down" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "wear down" carefully so everyone would understand.

agency (noun)

The state of being in action or exerting power.

- The agency of providence.
- She has free agency.

---

be sick (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- In everyday English, people use "be sick" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "be sick" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

body weight (noun)

The weight of a person's body.

- In class, the teacher used "body weight" to mean the weight of a person's body.
- Understanding "body weight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cause to sleep (verb)

Make fall asleep.

- The soft music caused us to fall asleep.
- Can you use "cause to sleep" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

peter out (verb)

Use up all one's strength and energy and stop working.

- At the end of the march, I pooped out.
- The music just petered out–there was no proper ending.

---

sex drive (noun)

A physiological need for sexual activity.

- Testosterone is responsible for the male sex drive.
- In class, the teacher used "sex drive" to mean a physiological need for sexual activity.

---

short sleep (noun)

Sleeping for a short period of time (usually not in bed).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "short sleep."
- They discussed "short sleep" during the group presentation.

---

sleep late (verb)

Sleep later than usual or customary.

- On Sundays, I sleep in.
- Can you use "sleep late" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

status (noun)

The relative position or standing of things or especially persons in a society.

- He had the status of a minor.
- The novel attained the status of a classic.

---

activity (noun)

An organic process that takes place in the body.

- Respiratory activity.
- They avoided all recreational activity.

---

condition (noun)

An illness, disease, or other medical problem.

- A heart condition.
- A skin condition.

---

freedom (noun)

The condition of being free; the power to act or speak or think without externally imposed restraints.

- In class, the teacher used "freedom" to mean the condition of being free; the power to act or....

- They discussed “freedom” during the group presentation.

left brain (noun)

The cerebral hemisphere to the left of the corpus callosum that controls the right half of the body.

- They discussed “left brain” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “left brain” to mean the cerebral hemisphere to the left of the corpus....

seeing red (noun)

A state of irritation or annoyance.

- He looked up “seeing red” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “seeing red” to mean a state of irritation or annoyance.

standing (noun)

Social or financial or professional status or reputation.

- Of equal standing.
- A member in good standing.

female body (noun)

The body of a female human being.

- In class, the teacher used “female body” to mean the body of a female human being.
- Understanding “female body” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

field hospital (noun)

A temporary military hospital near the battle lines.

- In class, the teacher used “field hospital” to mean a temporary military hospital near the battle lines.
- The article explained what “field hospital” means with a simple example.

sleep talking (noun)

Uttering speech while asleep.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sleep talking.”
- He looked up “sleep talking” because he had never seen it before.

blood test (noun)

A serologic analysis of a sample of blood.

- In class, the teacher used “blood test” to mean a serologic analysis of a sample of blood.
- They discussed “blood test” during the group presentation.

bottom (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- They started at the bottom of the hill.
- They did much of their overseas trade in foreign bottoms.

lie in (verb)

Be in confinement for childbirth.

- In everyday English, people use “lie in” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “lie in” in real sentences.

medical science (noun)

The science of dealing with the maintenance of health and the prevention and treatment of disease.

- They discussed “medical science” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “medical science” because he had never seen it before.

standard of living (noun)

A level of material comfort in terms of goods and services available to someone or some group.

- They enjoyed the highest standard of living in the country.
- The lower the standard of living the easier it is to introduce an autocratic production system.

structure (noun)

A particular complex anatomical part of a living thing.

- He has good bone structure.
- The structure consisted of a series of arches.

---

third eye (noun)

A sensory structure capable of light reception located on the dorsal side of the diencephalon in various reptiles.

- In class, the teacher used "third eye" to mean a sensory structure capable of light reception....
- The article explained what "third eye" means with a simple example.

---

blood bank (noun)

A place for storing whole blood or blood plasma.

- The Red Cross created a blood bank for emergencies.
- In class, the teacher used "blood bank" to mean a place for storing whole blood or blood plasma.

---

county council (noun)

The elected governing body of a county.

- The article explained what "county council" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "county council" during the group presentation.

---

military hospital (noun)

Hospital for soldiers and other military personnel.

- They discussed "military hospital" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "military hospital" means with a simple example.

---

smart (noun)

A kind of pain such as that caused by a wound or a burn or a sore.

- They discussed "smart" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "smart" because he had never seen it before.

---

square one (noun)

The situation in which you begin an endeavor and to which you return if your efforts fail.

- The police are now back at square one after having arrested and released 27 men.
- She has tried to diet but always ends up back at square one.

---

wide-body (noun)

A commercial airliner with two aisles.

- In class, the teacher used "wide-body" to mean a commercial airliner with two aisles.
- Understanding "wide-body" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

civil law (noun)

The body of laws established by a state or nation for its own regulation.

- The article explained what "civil law" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "civil law" to mean the body of laws established by a state or nation....

---

civil order (noun)

The form of government of a social organization.

- The article explained what "civil order" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "civil order."

---

health insurance (noun)

Insurance against loss due to ill health.

- He looked up "health insurance" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "health insurance."

---

high status (noun)

A position of superior status.

- Understanding "high status" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "high status" because he had never seen it before.

---

material body (noun)

Alternative names for the body of a human being.

- Leonardo studied the human body.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "material body."

---

private parts (noun)

External sex organ.

- They discussed "private parts" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "private parts."

---

rule of law (noun)

A state of order in which events conform to the law.

- The article explained what "rule of law" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rule of law" to mean a state of order in which events conform to the law.

---

self-limited (adjective)

Relating to a disease that tends to run a definite course without treatment.

- The speaker chose "self-limited" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "self-limited" approach may work better in this case.

---

social contract (noun)

An implicit agreement among people that results in the organization of society; individual surrenders liberty in return for protection.

- They discussed "social contract" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social contract."

---

throw up (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- In everyday English, people use "throw up" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "throw up" until he saw an example.

---

blue blood (noun)

A member of the aristocracy.

- In class, the teacher used "blue blood" to mean a member of the aristocracy.
- The article explained what "blue blood" means with a simple example.

---

commercial law (noun)

The body of rules applied to commercial transactions; derived from the practices of traders rather than from jurisprudence.

- He looked up "commercial law" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commercial law."

---

doctor of music (noun)

A doctor's degree in music.

- The article explained what "doctor of music" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "doctor of music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leaders (noun)

The body of people who lead a group.

- The national leadership adopted his plan.
- He looked up "leaders" because he had never seen it before.

---

open marriage (noun)

A marriage in which each partner is free to enter into extraneous sexual relationships without guilt or jealousy from the other.

- He looked up "open marriage" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "open marriage" during the group presentation.

physical body (noun)

Alternative names for the body of a human being.

- Leonardo studied the human body.
- The article explained what "physical body" means with a simple example.

slow down (verb)

Become less tense, rest, or take one's ease.

- Production slowed.
- The illness slowed him down.

blood brother (noun)

A male with the same parents as someone else.

- My brother still lives with our parents.
- He looked up "blood brother" because he had never seen it before.

blood cup (noun)

A scarlet European fungus with cup-shaped ascocarp.

- In class, the teacher used "blood cup" to mean a scarlet european fungus with cup-shaped ascocarp.
- They discussed "blood cup" during the group presentation.

blood-related (adjective)

Related by blood.

- Would you call this situation "blood-related"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "blood-related" when it is related by blood.

cancer body (noun)

An inclusion body found in plasma cells in cases of cancer.

- Understanding "cancer body" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cancer body" during the group presentation.

civil death (noun)

The legal status of a person who is alive but who has been deprived of the rights and privileges of a citizen or a member of society; the legal status of one sentenced to life imprisonment.

- They discussed "civil death" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "civil death" means with a simple example.

common cold (noun)

A mild viral infection involving the nose and respiratory passages (but not the lungs).

- Will they never find a cure for the common cold?
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common cold."

country doctor (noun)

A doctor who practices in the country (rather than in a city) usually remote from a modern hospital.

- Do country doctors still make house calls?
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "country doctor."

g-force (noun)

A unit of force equal to the force exerted by gravity; used to indicate the force to which a body is subjected when it is accelerated.

- The article explained what "g-force" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "g-force" during the group presentation.

prison (noun)

A prisonlike situation; a place of seeming confinement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prison."
- The article explained what "prison" means with a simple example.

remains (noun)

The dead body of a human being.

- I threw out the remains of my dinner.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "remains."

---

sick person (noun)

A person suffering from an illness.

- They discussed "sick person" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sick person" because he had never seen it before.

---

somebody (noun)

A human being.

- Understanding "somebody" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "somebody."

---

united states public health service (noun)

An agency that serves as the office of Surgeon General; includes agencies whose mission is to improve the public health.

- The article explained what "united states public health service" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "united states public health service" to mean an agency that serves as the office of surgeon....

---

wild (noun)

A wild primitive state untouched by civilization.

- He lived in the wild.
- They collected mushrooms in the wild.

---

black disease (noun)

A disease of the liver (especially in sheep and cattle) caused by liver flukes and their by-products.

- The article explained what "black disease" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "black disease" during the group presentation.

---

black spot (noun)

Any of several fungous diseases of plants that produce small black spots on the plant.

- They discussed "black spot" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "black spot" means with a simple example.

---

ed (noun)

Impotence resulting from a man's inability to have or maintain an erection of his penis.

- The article explained what "ed" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ed" to mean impotence resulting from a man's inability to have....

---

hair style (noun)

The arrangement of the hair (especially a woman's hair).

- They discussed "hair style" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "hair style" to mean the arrangement of the hair (especially a woman's hair).

---

sick call (noun)

The daily military formation at which individuals report to the medical officer as sick.

- In class, the teacher used "sick call" to mean the daily military formation at which individuals....
- Understanding "sick call" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

social disease (noun)

A communicable infection transmitted by sexual intercourse or genital contact.

- The article explained what "social disease" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "social disease" to mean a communicable infection transmitted by sexual....

---

holy order (noun)

(usually plural) the status or rank or office of a Christian clergyman in an ecclesiastical hierarchy.

- Theologians still disagree over whether 'bishop' should or should not be a separate Order.

- Understanding "holy order" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

low-water mark (noun)

An extreme state of adversity; the lowest point of anything.

- The article explained what "low-water mark" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "low-water mark" to mean an extreme state of adversity; the lowest point of....

---

mental state (noun)

(psychology) a mental condition in which the qualities of a state are relatively constant even though the state itself may be dynamic.

- A manic state.
- In class, the teacher used "mental state" to mean (psychology) a mental condition in which the....

---

white cell (noun)

Blood cells that engulf and digest bacteria and fungi; an important part of the body's defense system.

- The article explained what "white cell" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "white cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

background (noun)

The state of the environment in which a situation exists.

- He is a lawyer with a sports background.
- He posed her against a background of rolling hills.

---

high profile (noun)

A position attracting much attention and publicity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high profile."
- Understanding "high profile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leadership (noun)

The body of people who lead a group.

- The national leadership adopted his plan.
- His leadership inspired the team.

---

male body (noun)

The body of a male human being.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "male body."
- The article explained what "male body" means with a simple example.

---

patient (noun)

A person who requires medical care.

- The number of emergency patients has grown rapidly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patient."

---

patient of (adjective)

Showing the capacity for endurance.

- A man patient of distractions.
- It is useful to describe something as "patient of" when it is showing the capacity for endurance.

---

self-rule (noun)

Government of a political unit by its own people.

- They discussed "self-rule" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "self-rule" because he had never seen it before.

---

world health organization (noun)

A United Nations agency to coordinate international health activities and to help governments improve health services.

- The article explained what "world health organization" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "world health organization."

---

air sick (adjective)

Experiencing motion sickness.

- It is useful to describe something as "air sick" when it is experiencing motion sickness.
- The speaker chose "air sick" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

fresh start (noun)

An opportunity to start over without prejudice.

- He looked up "fresh start" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fresh start" during the group presentation.

---

heart disease (noun)

A disease of the heart.

- Understanding "heart disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "heart disease" means with a simple example.

---

in cold blood (adverb)

In a cold unemotional manner.

- He killed her in cold blood.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in cold blood" naturally.

---

power structure (noun)

The organization of people at different ranks in an administrative body.

- Understanding "power structure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "power structure" means with a simple example.

---

self-direction (noun)

Personal independence.

- He looked up "self-direction" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "self-direction" to mean personal independence.

---

sense of movement (noun)

The ability to feel movements of the limbs and body.

- Understanding "sense of movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sense of movement" because he had never seen it before.

---

social status (noun)

Position in a social hierarchy.

- The British are more aware of social status than Americans are.
- They discussed "social status" during the group presentation.

---

t cell (noun)

A small lymphocyte developed in the thymus; it orchestrates the immune system's response to infected or malignant cells.

- In class, the teacher used "t cell" to mean a small lymphocyte developed in the thymus; it....
- The article explained what "t cell" means with a simple example.

---

air cell (noun)

A tiny sac for holding air in the lungs; formed by the terminal dilation of tiny air passageways.

- Understanding "air cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "air cell" because he had never seen it before.

---

air mass (noun)

A large body of air with uniform characteristics horizontally.

- He looked up "air mass" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "air mass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

b cell (noun)

A lymphocyte derived from bone marrow that provides humoral immunity; it recognizes free antigen molecules in solution and matures into plasma cells that secrete immunoglobulin (antibodies) that inactivate the antigens.

- In class, the teacher used “b cell” to mean a lymphocyte derived from bone marrow that provides....
- The article explained what “b cell” means with a simple example.

---

blood pressure (noun)

The pressure of the circulating blood against the walls of the blood vessels; results from the systole of the left ventricle of the heart; sometimes measured for a quick evaluation of a person’s health.

- Adult blood pressure is considered normal at 120/80 where the first number is the systolic pressure and the second is the diastolic pressure.
- The article explained what “blood pressure” means with a simple example.

---

critical point (noun)

A crisis situation or point in time when a critical decision must be made.

- He must be made to realize that the company stands at a critical point.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “critical point.”

---

dead letter (noun)

The state of something that has outlived its relevance.

- In class, the teacher used “dead letter” to mean the state of something that has outlived its relevance.
- The article explained what “dead letter” means with a simple example.

---

doctor of education (noun)

A doctor’s degree in education.

- In class, the teacher used “doctor of education” to mean a doctor’s degree in education.
- The article explained what “doctor of education” means with a simple example.

---

human foot (noun)

The part of the leg of a human being below the ankle joint.

- Armored from head to foot.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “human foot.”

---

lose weight (verb)

Take off weight.

- He did not know how to use “lose weight” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “lose weight” when talking about this idea.

---

responsibility (noun)

The proper sphere or extent of your activities.

- Every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity, an obligation; every possession, a duty.
- He holds a position of great responsibility.

---

sick leave (noun)

A leave of absence from work because of illness.

- They discussed “sick leave” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “sick leave” to mean a leave of absence from work because of illness.

---

simple eye (noun)

An eye having a single lens.

- The article explained what “simple eye” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “simple eye” during the group presentation.

---

stick out (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- She stuck out two years in a miserable marriage.
- His sharp nose jutted out.

---

take the fifth (verb)

Refuse to testify by invoking the Fifth Amendment, which states that nobody may be forced to testify as a witness against himself or herself.

- In everyday English, people use “take the fifth” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “take the fifth” until he saw an example.

voice box (noun)

A cartilaginous structure at the top of the trachea; contains elastic vocal cords that are the source of the vocal tone in speech.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "voice box."
- He looked up "voice box" because he had never seen it before.

wake up (verb)

Cause to become awake or conscious.

- Please wake me at 6 AM.
- Can you use "wake up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

baby doctor (noun)

A specialist in the care of babies.

- They discussed "baby doctor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "baby doctor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

feeling of movement (noun)

The perception of body position and movement and muscular tensions etc.

- He looked up "feeling of movement" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "feeling of movement" to mean the perception of body position and movement and....

heart block (noun)

Recurrent sudden attacks of unconsciousness caused by impaired conduction of the impulse that regulates the heartbeat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heart block."
- The article explained what "heart block" means with a simple example.

low status (noun)

A position of inferior status; low in station or rank or fortune or estimation.

- Understanding "low status" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "low status."

walking on air (noun)

A state of extreme happiness.

- In class, the teacher used "walking on air" to mean a state of extreme happiness.
- Understanding "walking on air" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

body count (noun)

A count of troops killed in an operation or time period.

- The daily body count increased as the war went on.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "body count."

body structure (noun)

A particular complex anatomical part of a living thing.

- He has good bone structure.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "body structure."

carry to term (verb)

Carry out a pregnancy.

- She decided to carry the child to term, even though the foetus was shown to be defective.
- The coach explained when to use "carry to term" and when to wait.

mental health (noun)

The psychological state of someone who is functioning at a satisfactory level of emotional and behavioral adjustment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mental health."
- He looked up "mental health" because he had never seen it before.

pull a face (verb)

Contort the face to indicate a certain mental or emotional state.

- In everyday English, people use "pull a face" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "pull a face" until he saw an example.

---

read method (noun)

A method of natural childbirth that assumes it is a normal process and that the pain is largely psychological; involves education and breathing exercises to foster relaxation and other exercises.

- They discussed "read method" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "read method" means with a simple example.

---

sense of touch (noun)

The faculty by which external objects or forces are perceived through contact with the body (especially the hands).

- Only sight and touch enable us to locate objects in the space around us.
- He looked up "sense of touch" because he had never seen it before.

---

sick list (noun)

A list of those who are ill (e.g. on a warship or in a regiment etc).

- Understanding "sick list" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sick list" during the group presentation.

---

skin test (noun)

Any test to determine immunity or sensitivity to a disease by introducing small amounts on or into the skin.

- They discussed "skin test" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "skin test" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spanish (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Spain or the people of Spain.

- Spanish music.
- Would you call this situation "spanish"? Explain why.

---

come alive (verb)

Stop sleeping.

- In everyday English, people use "come alive" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "come alive" in real sentences.

---

department of health and human services (noun)

The United States federal department that administers all federal programs dealing with health and welfare; created in 1979.

- They discussed "department of health and human services" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "department of health and human services" because he had never seen it before.

---

doctor of public health (noun)

A doctor's degree in preventive medicine.

- The article explained what "doctor of public health" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "doctor of public health" to mean a doctor's degree in preventive medicine.

---

facts (noun)

An event known to have happened or something known to have existed.

- First you must collect all the facts of the case.
- He supported his argument with an impressive array of facts.

---

ill (noun)

An often persistent bodily disorder or disease; a cause for complaining.

- The article explained what "ill" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ill" to mean an often persistent bodily disorder or disease; a....

---

accident (noun)

An unfortunate mishap; especially one causing damage or injury.

- Winning the lottery was a happy accident.

- It was due to an accident or fortuity.

---

bear (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- I cannot bear his constant criticism.
- Bear a resemblance.

---

body and soul (adverb)

With complete faith.

- She was with him heart and soul.
- Place "body and soul" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

body waste (noun)

Waste matter (as urine or sweat but especially feces) discharged from the body.

- Understanding "body waste" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "body waste" to mean waste matter (as urine or sweat but especially....

---

capacity (noun)

The susceptibility of something to a particular treatment.

- Among his gifts is his capacity for true altruism.
- Limited runway capacity.

---

complex body part (noun)

A particular complex anatomical part of a living thing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "complex body part."
- He looked up "complex body part" because he had never seen it before.

---

cross-eye (noun)

Strabismus in which one or both eyes turn inward toward the nose.

- He looked up "cross-eye" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cross-eye" to mean strabismus in which one or both eyes turn inward....

---

doctor of the church (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) a title conferred on 33 saints who distinguished themselves through the orthodoxy of their theological teaching.

- The Doctors of the Church greatly influenced Christian thought down to the late Middle Ages.
- He looked up "doctor of the church" because he had never seen it before.

---

high blood pressure (noun)

A common disorder in which blood pressure remains abnormally high (a reading of 140/90 mm Hg or greater).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high blood pressure."
- The article explained what "high blood pressure" means with a simple example.

---

ill will (noun)

The feeling of a hostile person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ill will."
- He looked up "ill will" because he had never seen it before.

---

law of nations (noun)

The body of laws governing relations between nations.

- The article explained what "law of nations" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "law of nations" during the group presentation.

---

local option (noun)

Freedom of a local government to determine by popular vote the applicability of a controversial law in their jurisdiction.

- Understanding "local option" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "local option" to mean freedom of a local government to determine by....

---

pain in the ass (noun)

Something or someone that causes trouble; a source of unhappiness.

- A bit of a bother.
- The article explained what "pain in the ass" means with a simple example.

primary health care (noun)

Health care that is provided by a health care professional in the first contact of a patient with the health care system.

- They discussed "primary health care" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "primary health care" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sex cell (noun)

A spermatozoon or an ovum; a cell responsible for transmitting DNA to the next generation.

- He looked up "sex cell" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sex cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tired of (adjective)

Having a strong distaste from surfeit.

- Tired of the noise and smoke.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tired of."

wear upon (verb)

Exhaust or get tired through overuse or great strain or stress.

- Can you use "wear upon" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "wear upon" and when to wait.

adult body (noun)

The body of an adult human being.

- He looked up "adult body" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adult body."

cancer of the blood (noun)

Malignant neoplasm of blood-forming tissues; characterized by abnormal proliferation of leukocytes; one of the four major types of cancer.

- Understanding "cancer of the blood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cancer of the blood" means with a simple example.

civil union (noun)

A voluntary union for life (or until divorce) of adult parties of the same sex.

- Parties to a civil union have all the same benefits, protections, and responsibilities under Vermont law as spouses in a marriage.
- He looked up "civil union" because he had never seen it before.

command (noun)

A position of highest authority.

- The corporation has just undergone a change in command.
- An admiral in command.

crew (noun)

An informal body of friends.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crew."
- He looked up "crew" because he had never seen it before.

higher status (noun)

Higher rank than that of others especially by reason of longer service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "higher status."
- They discussed "higher status" during the group presentation.

human waste (noun)

The body wastes of human beings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “human waste.”
- The article explained what “human waste” means with a simple example.

---

ill-being (noun)

Lack of prosperity or happiness or health.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ill-being.”
- He looked up “ill-being” because he had never seen it before.

---

low profile (noun)

A state of low visibility in which public notice is avoided.

- He was never one to keep a low profile.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “low profile.”

---

medicine man (noun)

A Native American shaman.

- Understanding “medicine man” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “medicine man” means with a simple example.

---

balance of power (noun)

An equilibrium of power between nations.

- Understanding “balance of power” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “balance of power” because he had never seen it before.

---

behavior (noun)

The action or reaction of something (as a machine or substance) under specified circumstances.

- The behavior of small particles can be studied in experiments.
- Understanding “behavior” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blood disease (noun)

A disease or disorder of the blood.

- He looked up “blood disease” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “blood disease” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bodies (noun)

The body excluding the head and neck and limbs.

- They moved their arms and legs and bodies.
- In class, the teacher used “bodies” to mean the body excluding the head and neck and limbs.

---

body bag (noun)

A bag in which the body of a dead soldier is placed.

- He looked up “body bag” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “body bag.”

---

doctor of science (noun)

An honorary degree in science.

- Understanding “doctor of science” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “doctor of science” means with a simple example.

---

hospital ship (noun)

A ship built to serve as a hospital; used for wounded in wartime.

- He looked up “hospital ship” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “hospital ship” during the group presentation.

---

ill-use (verb)

Treat badly.

- In everyday English, people use “ill-use” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “ill-use” in real sentences.

ill-used (adjective)

Of persons; taken advantage of.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ill-used."
- A "ill-used" approach may work better in this case.

pain unit (noun)

A unit measuring the intensity of pain.

- He looked up "pain unit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pain unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

solid state (noun)

The state in which a substance has no tendency to flow under moderate stress; resists forces (such as compression) that tend to deform it; and retains a definite size and shape.

- In class, the teacher used "solid state" to mean the state in which a substance has no tendency to....
- The article explained what "solid state" means with a simple example.

attacks (noun)

A sudden occurrence of an uncontrollable condition.

- Attacks on women increased last year.
- The article explained what "attacks" means with a simple example.

body length (noun)

The length of your body.

- In class, the teacher used "body length" to mean the length of your body.
- The article explained what "body length" means with a simple example.

family medicine (noun)

Medical practice that provides health care regardless of age or sex while placing emphasis on the family unit.

- He looked up "family medicine" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "family medicine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flow (noun)

The monthly discharge of blood from the uterus of nonpregnant women from puberty to menopause; ; –Hippocrates; –Aristotle.

- The semen begins to appear in males and to be emitted at the same time of life that the catamenia begin to flow in females.
- The museum had planned carefully for the flow of visitors.

sleep-learning (noun)

Teaching during sleep (as by using recordings to teach a foreign language to someone who is asleep).

- Understanding "sleep-learning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sleep-learning" to mean teaching during sleep (as by using recordings to....

blood cell (noun)

Either of two types of cells (erythrocytes and leukocytes) and sometimes including platelets.

- He looked up "blood cell" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "blood cell" during the group presentation.

criminal law (noun)

The body of law dealing with crimes and their punishment.

- The article explained what "criminal law" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "criminal law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

factor i (noun)

A protein present in blood plasma; converts to fibrin when blood clots.

- Understanding "factor i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "factor i."

lower status (noun)

The state of being inferior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lower status.”
- Understanding “lower status” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lying-in (noun)

Concluding state of pregnancy; from the onset of contractions to the birth of a child.

- The article explained what “lying-in” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lying-in.”

---

real presence (noun)

(Christianity) the Christian doctrine that the body of Christ is actually present in the Eucharist.

- The article explained what “real presence” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “real presence” during the group presentation.

---

saw wood (verb)

Breathe noisily during one’s sleep.

- Learners should practice how to use “saw wood” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “saw wood” when talking about this idea.

---

shoes (noun)

A particular situation.

- In class, the teacher used “shoes” to mean a particular situation.
- The article explained what “shoes” means with a simple example.

---

tests (noun)

A set of questions or exercises evaluating skill or knowledge.

- They discussed “tests” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “tests” to mean a set of questions or exercises evaluating skill or....

---

back exercise (noun)

Exercise designed to strengthen the back muscles.

- They discussed “back exercise” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “back exercise.”

---

blood heat (noun)

Temperature of the body; normally 98.6 F or 37 C in humans; usually measured to obtain a quick evaluation of a person’s health.

- In class, the teacher used “blood heat” to mean temperature of the body; normally 98.6 f or 37 c in....
- They discussed “blood heat” during the group presentation.

---

common-law marriage (noun)

A marriage relationship created by agreement and cohabitation rather than by ceremony.

- In class, the teacher used “common-law marriage” to mean a marriage relationship created by agreement and....
- Understanding “common-law marriage” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

economic condition (noun)

The condition of the economy.

- Understanding “economic condition” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “economic condition” because he had never seen it before.

---

eye disease (noun)

Any disease of the eye.

- The article explained what “eye disease” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “eye disease” to mean any disease of the eye.

---

eye doctor (noun)

A medical doctor specializing in the diagnosis and treatment of diseases of the eye.

- He looked up “eye doctor” because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "eye doctor" during the group presentation.

---

financial condition (noun)

The condition of (corporate or personal) finances.

- In class, the teacher used "financial condition" to mean the condition of (corporate or personal) finances.
- He looked up "financial condition" because he had never seen it before.

---

general medicine (noun)

The branch of medicine that deals with the diagnosis and (nonsurgical) treatment of diseases of the internal organs (especially in adults).

- In class, the teacher used "general medicine" to mean the branch of medicine that deals with the....
- The article explained what "general medicine" means with a simple example.

---

hair cell (noun)

A sensory epithelial cell present in the organ of Corti.

- He looked up "hair cell" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hair cell."

---

hole (noun)

Informal terms for a difficult situation.

- He played 18 holes.
- He shot holes in my argument.

---

legal status (noun)

A status defined by law.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal status."
- He looked up "legal status" because he had never seen it before.

---

pack on (verb)

Gain (weight).

- He packed on two pounds over the summer.
- She tried to use "pack on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

body guard (verb)

Accompany and protect from physical harm.

- In everyday English, people use "body guard" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "body guard" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

ill service (noun)

An act intended to help that turns out badly.

- He did them a disservice.
- Understanding "ill service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sexual relationship (noun)

A relationship involving sexual intimacy.

- Understanding "sexual relationship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sexual relationship" means with a simple example.

---

blood count (noun)

The number of red and white corpuscles in a blood sample.

- The article explained what "blood count" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "blood count" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blood profile (noun)

Counting the number of white and red blood cells and the number of platelets in 1 cubic millimeter of blood.

- They discussed "blood profile" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "blood profile" to mean counting the number of white and red blood cells....

---

catch cold (verb)

Come down with a cold.

- He did not know how to use "catch cold" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "catch cold" when talking about this idea.

---

ill health (noun)

A state in which you are unable to function normally and without pain.

- They discussed "ill health" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ill health" to mean a state in which you are unable to function....

---

measure out (verb)

Determine the measurements of something or somebody, take measurements of.

- Measure the length of the wall.
- She tried to use "measure out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pull a fast one on (verb)

Deceive somebody.

- He did not know how to use "pull a fast one on" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "pull a fast one on" in real sentences.

---

state of affairs (noun)

The general state of things; the combination of circumstances at a given time; ; ; - Franklin D.Roosevelt.

- Wondered how such a state of affairs had come about.
- In class, the teacher used "state of affairs" to mean the general state of things; the combination of....

---

context (noun)

The set of facts or circumstances that surround a situation or event.

- The historical context.
- They discussed "context" during the group presentation.

---

exercise set (noun)

Several exercises intended to be done in series.

- He did four sets of the incline bench press.
- Understanding "exercise set" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

eye condition (noun)

The condition of the optical properties of the eye.

- Understanding "eye condition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "eye condition" during the group presentation.

---

hearing loss (noun)

Partial or complete loss of hearing.

- The article explained what "hearing loss" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hearing loss" during the group presentation.

---

mental hospital (noun)

A hospital for mentally incompetent or unbalanced person.

- They discussed "mental hospital" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mental hospital" because he had never seen it before.

---

mode (noun)

A particular functioning condition or arrangement.

- Switched from keyboard to voice mode.
- Their nomadic mode of existence.

---

body suit (noun)

A tight-fitting garment of stretchy material that covers the body from the shoulders to the thighs (and may have long sleeves or legs reaching down to the ankles); worn by ballet dancers and acrobats for practice or performance.

- The article explained what "body suit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "body suit" during the group presentation.

---

brain damage (noun)

Injury to the brain that impairs its functions (especially permanently); can be caused by trauma to the head, infection, hemorrhage, inadequate oxygen, genetic abnormality, etc.

- They discussed "brain damage" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "brain damage" to mean injury to the brain that impairs its functions....

---

brain disease (noun)

Any disorder or disease of the brain.

- In class, the teacher used "brain disease" to mean any disorder or disease of the brain.
- Understanding "brain disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brain doctor (noun)

A medical specialist in the nervous system and the disorders affecting it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brain doctor."
- The article explained what "brain doctor" means with a simple example.

---

crisis (noun)

An unstable situation of extreme danger or difficulty.

- They went bankrupt during the economic crisis.
- After the crisis the patient either dies or gets better.

---

half-moon (noun)

The crescent-shaped area at the base of the human fingernail.

- The article explained what "half-moon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half-moon."

---

heart failure (noun)

Inability of the heart to pump enough blood to sustain normal bodily functions.

- In class, the teacher used "heart failure" to mean inability of the heart to pump enough blood to....
- They discussed "heart failure" during the group presentation.

---

ill turn (noun)

An act intended to help that turns out badly.

- In class, the teacher used "ill turn" to mean an act intended to help that turns out badly.
- Understanding "ill turn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kingdom (noun)

A domain in which something is dominant.

- The untroubled kingdom of reason.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kingdom."

---

patient role (noun)

The semantic role of an entity that is not the agent but is directly involved in or affected by the happening denoted by the verb in the clause.

- They discussed "patient role" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "patient role" to mean the semantic role of an entity that is not the....

---

skin cancer (noun)

A malignant neoplasm of the skin.

- The article explained what "skin cancer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "skin cancer" to mean a malignant neoplasm of the skin.

---

british parliament (noun)

The British legislative body.

- He looked up "british parliament" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "british parliament."

date of reference (noun)

(astronomy) an arbitrarily fixed date that is the point in time relative to which information (as coordinates of a celestial body) is recorded.

- Understanding "date of reference" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "date of reference" because he had never seen it before.

opportunities (noun)

A possibility due to a favorable combination of circumstances.

- They discussed "opportunities" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "opportunities" means with a simple example.

secretary of health and human services (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Health and Human Services.

- The post of Secretary of Health and Human Services was created by Congress in 1979.
- The first Secretary of Health and Human Services was Patricia Roberts Harris who was appointed by Carter.

space medicine (noun)

The branch of medicine concerned with the effects of space flight on human beings.

- In class, the teacher used "space medicine" to mean the branch of medicine concerned with the effects....
- The article explained what "space medicine" means with a simple example.

upset (noun)

A physical condition in which there is a disturbance of normal functioning.

- Everyone gets stomach upsets from time to time.
- She didn't realize the upset she caused me.

white blood cell (noun)

Blood cells that engulf and digest bacteria and fungi; an important part of the body's defense system.

- They discussed "white blood cell" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "white blood cell" to mean blood cells that engulf and digest bacteria and....

bob under (verb)

Disappear suddenly, as if under the surface of a body of water.

- He did not know how to use "bob under" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "bob under" and when to wait.

brain cell (noun)

A nerve cell in the brain.

- In class, the teacher used "brain cell" to mean a nerve cell in the brain.
- He looked up "brain cell" because he had never seen it before.

cancer cell (noun)

A cell that is part of a malignant tumor.

- In class, the teacher used "cancer cell" to mean a cell that is part of a malignant tumor.
- They discussed "cancer cell" during the group presentation.

christmas disease (noun)

A clotting disorder similar to hemophilia A but caused by a congenital deficiency of factor IX.

- In class, the teacher used "christmas disease" to mean a clotting disorder similar to hemophilia a but....
- Understanding "christmas disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

disease of the skin (noun)

A disease affecting the skin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disease of the skin."
- Understanding "disease of the skin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

doctor-fish (noun)

Surgeon fish of the West Indies.

- In class, the teacher used "doctor-fish" to mean surgeon fish of the west indies.
- He looked up "doctor-fish" because he had never seen it before.

---

fish doctor (noun)

Brightly colored scaleless Arctic eelpout.

- They discussed "fish doctor" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fish doctor."

---

holds (noun)

A state of being confined (usually for a short time).

- He looked up "holds" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "holds."

---

physical condition (noun)

The condition or state of the body or bodily functions.

- In class, the teacher used "physical condition" to mean the condition or state of the body or bodily functions.
- Understanding "physical condition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

skin disease (noun)

A disease affecting the skin.

- The article explained what "skin disease" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "skin disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

skin doctor (noun)

A doctor who specializes in the physiology and pathology of the skin.

- He looked up "skin doctor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skin doctor."

---

white leg (noun)

Painful thrombosis of the femoral vein in the leg following childbirth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white leg."
- They discussed "white leg" during the group presentation.

---

bank failure (noun)

The inability of a bank to meet its credit obligations.

- In class, the teacher used "bank failure" to mean the inability of a bank to meet its credit obligations.
- They discussed "bank failure" during the group presentation.

---

cat sleep (noun)

Sleeping for a short period of time (usually not in bed).

- They discussed "cat sleep" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cat sleep" because he had never seen it before.

---

crew cut (noun)

A closely cropped haircut; usually for men.

- They discussed "crew cut" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "crew cut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

danger (noun)

The condition of being susceptible to harm or injury.

- You are in no danger.
- There was widespread danger of disease.

---

doctor of laws (noun)

An honorary law degree.

- They discussed "doctor of laws" during the group presentation.

- Understanding "doctor of laws" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dreams (noun)

A series of mental images and emotions occurring during sleep.

- In class, the teacher used "dreams" to mean a series of mental images and emotions occurring....
- The article explained what "dreams" means with a simple example.

---

physical structure (noun)

The entire structure of an organism (an animal, plant, or human being).

- In class, the teacher used "physical structure" to mean the entire structure of an organism (an animal,....
- He looked up "physical structure" because he had never seen it before.

---

plant disease (noun)

A disease that affects plants.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plant disease."
- They discussed "plant disease" during the group presentation.

---

senior status (noun)

Higher rank than that of others especially by reason of longer service.

- Understanding "senior status" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "senior status" because he had never seen it before.

---

skin cell (noun)

Any of the cells making up the skin.

- The article explained what "skin cell" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "skin cell" during the group presentation.

---

temperature change (noun)

A process whereby the degree of hotness of a body (or medium) changes.

- Understanding "temperature change" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "temperature change" because he had never seen it before.

---

time bomb (noun)

A problematic situation that will eventually become dangerous if not addressed.

- India is a demographic time bomb.
- The refugee camp is a ticking bomb waiting to go off.

---

call the shots (verb)

Exercise authority or be in charge.

- Who is calling the shots in this house?
- She tried to use "call the shots" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

community of interests (noun)

Agreement as to goals.

- The preachers and the bootleggers found they had a community of interests.
- They discussed "community of interests" during the group presentation.

---

foot doctor (noun)

A specialist in care for the feet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foot doctor."
- He looked up "foot doctor" because he had never seen it before.

---

labor pain (noun)

Pain and discomfort associated with contractions of the uterus during labor.

- In class, the teacher used "labor pain" to mean pain and discomfort associated with contractions of....
- The article explained what "labor pain" means with a simple example.

---

legal injury (noun)

Any harm or injury resulting from a violation of a legal right.

- He looked up "legal injury" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "legal injury" to mean any harm or injury resulting from a violation of a....

---

red blood cell (noun)

A mature blood cell that contains hemoglobin to carry oxygen to the bodily tissues; a biconcave disc that has no nucleus.

- The article explained what "red blood cell" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "red blood cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scenes (noun)

A situation treated as an observable object.

- The first act has three scenes.
- He painted scenes from everyday life.

---

teeth (noun)

The kind and number and arrangement of teeth (collectively) in a person or animal.

- The treaty had no teeth in it.
- He looked up "teeth" because he had never seen it before.

---

beauty sleep (noun)

Sleep before midnight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beauty sleep."
- They discussed "beauty sleep" during the group presentation.

---

body temperature (noun)

Temperature of the body; normally 98.6 F or 37 C in humans; usually measured to obtain a quick evaluation of a person's health.

- He looked up "body temperature" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "body temperature."

---

em (noun)

A quad with a square body.

- Since 'em quad' is hard to distinguish from 'en quad', printers sometimes called it a 'mutton quad'.
- In class, the teacher used "em" to mean a quad with a square body.

---

language zone (noun)

A large cortical area (in the left hemisphere in most people) containing all the centers associated with language.

- He looked up "language zone" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "language zone" to mean a large cortical area (in the left hemisphere in....

---

mess (noun)

A state of confusion and disorderliness.

- The house was a mess.
- A mess of porridge.

---

permanent (noun)

A series of waves in the hair made by applying heat and chemicals.

- He looked up "permanent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "permanent."

---

stood (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- Can you use "stood" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "stood" and when to wait.

---

arrested development (noun)

An abnormal state in which development has stopped prematurely.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arrested development."

- The article explained what "arrested development" means with a simple example.

---

cross-dress (verb)

Dress in the clothes of the other sex.

- The coach explained when to use "cross-dress" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "cross-dress" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

dog-tired (adjective)

Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely exhausted.

- He went to bed dog-tired.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dog-tired."

---

employment (noun)

The state of being employed or having a job.

- They are looking for employment.
- He is looking for employment.

---

fat cell (noun)

Cells composed of fat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fat cell."
- He looked up "fat cell" because he had never seen it before.

---

identify (verb)

Consider (oneself) as similar to somebody else.

- She tried to use "identify" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "identify" in real sentences.

---

ill-considered (adjective)

Not given careful consideration.

- Ill-considered actions often result in disaster.
- It is useful to describe something as "ill-considered" when it is not given careful consideration.

---

medicine ball (noun)

Heavy ball used in physical training.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medicine ball."
- He looked up "medicine ball" because he had never seen it before.

---

mental disease (noun)

Any disease of the mind; the psychological state of someone who has emotional or behavioral problems serious enough to require psychiatric intervention.

- The article explained what "mental disease" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mental disease."

---

practice of medicine (noun)

The learned profession that is mastered by graduate training in a medical school and that is devoted to preventing or alleviating or curing diseases and injuries.

- He studied medicine at Harvard.
- In class, the teacher used "practice of medicine" to mean the learned profession that is mastered by graduate....

---

ring of color (noun)

Small circular area such as that around the human nipple or an inflamed area around a pimple or insect bite.

- He looked up "ring of color" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ring of color" to mean small circular area such as that around the human....

---

animal disease (noun)

A disease that typically does not affect human beings.

- In class, the teacher used "animal disease" to mean a disease that typically does not affect human beings.
- He looked up "animal disease" because he had never seen it before.

---

arrest (noun)

The state of inactivity following an interruption.

- The negotiations were in arrest.
- The article explained what "arrest" means with a simple example.

blood-filled (adjective)

Containing blood.

- The blood-filled centers of arteries and veins.
- The speaker chose "blood-filled" because it captured the feeling precisely.

cold medicine (noun)

Medicine intended to relieve the symptoms of the common cold.

- Understanding "cold medicine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cold medicine" to mean medicine intended to relieve the symptoms of the....

existence (noun)

The state or fact of existing.

- Laws in existence for centuries.
- The biggest tree in existence.

ring disease (noun)

Disease of tomatoes and potatoes and tobacco etc caused by the bacterium Pseudomonas solanacearum.

- He looked up "ring disease" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ring disease."

sick benefit (noun)

Money paid (by the government) to someone who is too ill to work.

- The article explained what "sick benefit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sick benefit" to mean money paid (by the government) to someone who is....

agencies (noun)

The state of being in action or exerting power.

- The article explained what "agencies" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "agencies" to mean the state of being in action or exerting power.

blood sugar (noun)

Glucose in the bloodstream.

- Understanding "blood sugar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blood sugar."

health facility (noun)

Building where medicine is practiced.

- The article explained what "health facility" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "health facility" during the group presentation.

ill-treatment (noun)

Cruel or inhumane treatment.

- Understanding "ill-treatment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ill-treatment."

incident (noun)

A public disturbance.

- The police investigated an incident at the bus station.
- In class, the teacher used "incident" to mean a public disturbance.

mental condition (noun)

(psychology) a mental condition in which the qualities of a state are relatively constant even though the state itself may be dynamic.

- Understanding “mental condition” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “mental condition” to mean (psychology) a mental condition in which the....

---

target cell (noun)

An abnormal red blood cell with the appearance of a dark ring surrounding a dark center; associated with anemia.

- The article explained what “target cell” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “target cell” during the group presentation.

---

wet (verb)

Make one’s bed or clothes wet by urinating.

- This eight year old boy still wets his bed.
- Wet your face.

---

adult female body (noun)

The body of an adult woman.

- In class, the teacher used “adult female body” to mean the body of an adult woman.
- Understanding “adult female body” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

burn (verb)

Cause a sharp or stinging pain or discomfort.

- The sun burned his face.
- They burned the house and his diaries.

---

chicken-fight (verb)

Fight while sitting on somebody’s shoulders.

- The coach explained when to use “chicken-fight” and when to wait.
- Can you use “chicken-fight” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

conflict of interest (noun)

A situation in which a public official’s decisions are influenced by the official’s personal interests.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “conflict of interest.”
- He looked up “conflict of interest” because he had never seen it before.

---

height (noun)

The highest level or degree attainable; the highest stage of development.

- At the height of her career.
- The article explained what “height” means with a simple example.

---

raw (noun)

Informal terms for nakedness.

- In the raw.
- In class, the teacher used “raw” to mean informal terms for nakedness.

---

sick bag (noun)

A bag provided on an airplane for passengers who are suffering from airsickness and need to vomit.

- In class, the teacher used “sick bag” to mean a bag provided on an airplane for passengers who....
- The article explained what “sick bag” means with a simple example.

---

state of grace (noun)

(Christian theology) a state of sanctification by God; the state of one who is under such divine influence.

- The conception of grace developed alongside the conception of sin.
- It was debated whether saving grace could be obtained outside the membership of the church.

---

suffering (noun)

A state of acute pain.

- The article explained what “suffering” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “suffering” to mean a state of acute pain.

tough luck (noun)

An unfortunate state resulting from unfavorable outcomes.

- In class, the teacher used "tough luck" to mean an unfortunate state resulting from unfavorable....
- The article explained what "tough luck" means with a simple example.

chest (noun)

The front of the trunk from the neck to the abdomen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chest."
- He looked up "chest" because he had never seen it before.

end-plate (noun)

The flattened end of a motor neuron that transmits neural impulses to a muscle.

- Understanding "end-plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "end-plate" to mean the flattened end of a motor neuron that transmits....

first law of motion (noun)

A body remains at rest or in motion with a constant velocity unless acted upon by an external force.

- They discussed "first law of motion" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "first law of motion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

frame of mind (noun)

A temporary psychological state.

- In class, the teacher used "frame of mind" to mean a temporary psychological state.
- The article explained what "frame of mind" means with a simple example.

friendly relationship (noun)

The state of being friends (or friendly).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "friendly relationship."
- Understanding "friendly relationship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

full employment (noun)

The economic condition when everyone who wishes to work at the going wage rate for their type of labor is employed.

- They discussed "full employment" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "full employment" means with a simple example.

hollywood (noun)

A flashy vulgar tone or atmosphere believed to be characteristic of the American film industry.

- Some people in publishing think of theirs as a glamorous medium so they copy the glitter of Hollywood.
- The article explained what "hollywood" means with a simple example.

horse doctor (noun)

A veterinarian who treats horses.

- He looked up "horse doctor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse doctor."

sports medicine (noun)

The branch of medicine concerned with the treatment of injuries or illness resulting from athletic activities.

- The article explained what "sports medicine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sports medicine" during the group presentation.

suffered (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- He suffered the penalty.
- Many saints suffered martyrdom.

chances (noun)

A possibility due to a favorable combination of circumstances.

- They discussed "chances" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chances" means with a simple example.

---

clinical (adjective)

Relating to a clinic or conducted in or as if in a clinic and depending on direct observation of patients.

- Clinical observation.
- Clinical case study.

---

complete blood count (noun)

Counting the number of white and red blood cells and the number of platelets in 1 cubic millimeter of blood.

- He looked up "complete blood count" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "complete blood count" to mean counting the number of white and red blood cells....

---

doctor of medicine (noun)

A doctor's degree in medicine.

- In class, the teacher used "doctor of medicine" to mean a doctor's degree in medicine.
- They discussed "doctor of medicine" during the group presentation.

---

factor ii (noun)

A protein in blood plasma that is the inactive precursor of thrombin.

- They discussed "factor ii" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "factor ii" because he had never seen it before.

---

mixed-blood (noun)

A person whose ancestors belonged to two or more races.

- He looked up "mixed-blood" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mixed-blood."

---

wealth (noun)

The state of being rich and affluent; having a plentiful supply of material goods and money.

- Great wealth is not a sign of great intelligence.
- She has a wealth of talent.

---

word-painting (noun)

A graphic or vivid verbal description.

- The article explained what "word-painting" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "word-painting."

---

blood stream (noun)

The blood flowing through the circulatory system.

- In class, the teacher used "blood stream" to mean the blood flowing through the circulatory system.
- He looked up "blood stream" because he had never seen it before.

---

closed session (noun)

A session (usually of a legislative body) that is closed to the public.

- He looked up "closed session" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "closed session."

---

economic crisis (noun)

A long-term economic state characterized by unemployment and low prices and low levels of trade and investment.

- In class, the teacher used "economic crisis" to mean a long-term economic state characterized by....
- Understanding "economic crisis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ill luck (noun)

An unfortunate state resulting from unfavorable outcomes.

- He looked up "ill luck" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding “ill luck” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

le (noun)

A chronic inflammatory collagen disease affecting connective tissue (skin or joints).

- They discussed “le” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “le.”

---

operate on (verb)

Perform surgery on.

- The doctors operated on the patient but failed to save his life.
- In everyday English, people use “operate on” when talking about this idea.

---

take a breath (verb)

Draw air into, and expel out of, the lungs.

- I can breathe better when the air is clean.
- Learners should practice how to use “take a breath” in real sentences.

---

tie-up (noun)

A social or business relationship.

- Understanding “tie-up” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tie-up.”

---

adult male body (noun)

The body of an adult man.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “adult male body.”
- The article explained what “adult male body” means with a simple example.

---

challenges (noun)

A demanding or stimulating situation.

- Understanding “challenges” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “challenges.”

---

doctor of arts (noun)

A doctor’s degree with a special disciplinary focus.

- Understanding “doctor of arts” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “doctor of arts” to mean a doctor’s degree with a special disciplinary focus.

---

executive session (noun)

A session (usually of a legislative body) that is closed to the public.

- In class, the teacher used “executive session” to mean a session (usually of a legislative body) that is....
- He looked up “executive session” because he had never seen it before.

---

health care delivery (noun)

The provision of health care.

- They discussed “health care delivery” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “health care delivery” to mean the provision of health care.

---

improvement (noun)

A condition superior to an earlier condition.

- The new school represents a great improvement.
- Their improvements increased the value of the property.

---

industrial disease (noun)

Disease or disability resulting from conditions of employment (usually from long exposure to a noxious substance or from continuous repetition of certain acts).

- They discussed “industrial disease” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “industrial disease” to mean disease or disability resulting from conditions of....

---

mental balance (noun)

The healthy psychological state of someone with good judgment.

- The article explained what "mental balance" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mental balance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

physical exercise (noun)

The activity of exerting your muscles in various ways to keep fit.

- The doctor recommended regular exercise.
- The physical exertion required by his work kept him fit.

---

smell (noun)

The general atmosphere of a place or situation and the effect that it has on people.

- It had the smell of treason.
- She loved the smell of roses.

---

double vision (noun)

Visual impairment in which an object is seen as two objects.

- They discussed "double vision" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "double vision" because he had never seen it before.

---

dry mouth (noun)

Abnormal dryness of the mouth resulting from decreased secretion of saliva.

- In class, the teacher used "dry mouth" to mean abnormal dryness of the mouth resulting from....
- The article explained what "dry mouth" means with a simple example.

---

motor area (noun)

The cortical area that influences motor movements.

- In class, the teacher used "motor area" to mean the cortical area that influences motor movements.
- He looked up "motor area" because he had never seen it before.

---

pain in the neck (noun)

A bothersome annoying person.

- That kid is a terrible pain.
- A bit of a bother.

---

structures (noun)

A particular complex anatomical part of a living thing.

- Understanding "structures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "structures" because he had never seen it before.

---

tone up (verb)

Give a healthy elasticity to.

- Let's tone our muscles.
- In everyday English, people use "tone up" when talking about this idea.

---

yellow spot (noun)

A small yellowish central area of the retina that is rich in cones and that mediates clear detailed vision.

- Understanding "yellow spot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "yellow spot" because he had never seen it before.

---

environmental condition (noun)

The state of the environment.

- The article explained what "environmental condition" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "environmental condition" to mean the state of the environment.

---

extent (noun)

The point or degree to which something extends.

- The extent of the damage.
- The full extent of the law.

---

immigration (noun)

The body of immigrants arriving during a specified interval.

- The increased immigration strengthened the colony.
- Understanding "immigration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

killer (noun)

The causal agent resulting in death.

- Heart disease is the biggest killer in the United States.
- That exam was a real killer.

---

membership (noun)

The body of members of an organization or group.

- They polled their membership.
- In class, the teacher used "membership" to mean the body of members of an organization or group.

---

province (noun)

The proper sphere or extent of your activities.

- It was his province to take care of himself.
- In class, the teacher used "province" to mean the proper sphere or extent of your activities.

---

referred pain (noun)

Pain that is felt at a place in the body different from the injured or diseased part where the pain would be expected.

- Angina pectoris can cause referred pain in the left shoulder.
- Pain in the right shoulder can be referred pain from gallbladder disease.

---

sick joke (noun)

A joke in bad taste.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sick joke."
- He looked up "sick joke" because he had never seen it before.

---

situations (noun)

A complex or critical or unusual difficulty.

- The article explained what "situations" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "situations."

---

trick out (verb)

Put on special clothes to appear particularly appealing and attractive.

- He did not know how to use "trick out" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "trick out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

trick up (verb)

Put on special clothes to appear particularly appealing and attractive.

- The coach explained when to use "trick up" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "trick up" in real sentences.

---

atmosphere (noun)

A particular environment or surrounding influence.

- There was an atmosphere of excitement.
- There was great heat as the comet entered the atmosphere.

---

egg (noun)

One of the two male reproductive glands that produce spermatozoa and secrete androgens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "egg."
- The article explained what "egg" means with a simple example.

hip (noun)

The ball-and-socket joint between the head of the femur and the acetabulum.

- The article explained what "hip" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hip" to mean the ball-and-socket joint between the head of the....

little finger (noun)

The finger farthest from the thumb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little finger."
- Understanding "little finger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

poverty (noun)

The state of having little or no money and few or no material possessions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poverty."
- He looked up "poverty" because he had never seen it before.

silence (noun)

The state of being silent (as when no one is speaking).

- There was a shocked silence.
- He gestured for silence.

temporary state (noun)

A state that continues for a limited time.

- In class, the teacher used "temporary state" to mean a state that continues for a limited time.
- He looked up "temporary state" because he had never seen it before.

visual system (noun)

The sensory system for vision.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visual system."
- They discussed "visual system" during the group presentation.

wash (verb)

To cleanse (itself or another animal) by licking.

- The cat washes several times a day.
- Wash the towels, please!

external body part (noun)

Any body part visible externally.

- In class, the teacher used "external body part" to mean any body part visible externally.
- Understanding "external body part" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

face-lift (verb)

Perform cosmetic surgery on someone's face.

- He did not know how to use "face-lift" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "face-lift" when talking about this idea.

first visual area (noun)

The part of the occipital cortex that receives the fibers of the optic radiation from the lateral geniculate body and is the primary receptive area for vision.

- They discussed "first visual area" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "first visual area" means with a simple example.

long bone (noun)

In limbs of vertebrate animals: a long cylindrical bone that contains marrow.

- Understanding "long bone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "long bone" because he had never seen it before.

milk-sick (adjective)

Affected with or related to milk sickness.

- It is useful to describe something as "milk-sick" when it is affected with or related to milk sickness.
- Would you call this situation "milk-sick"? Explain why.

---

national library of medicine (noun)

The world's largest medical library.

- Understanding "national library of medicine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "national library of medicine" to mean the world's largest medical library.

---

rough water (noun)

Used of the sea during inclement or stormy weather.

- In class, the teacher used "rough water" to mean used of the sea during inclement or stormy weather.
- They discussed "rough water" during the group presentation.

---

suffer (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- He suffered the penalty.
- Many saints suffered martyrdom.

---

temple (noun)

The flat area on either side of the forehead.

- The veins in his temple throbbed.
- They discussed "temple" during the group presentation.

---

visual area (noun)

The cortical area that receives information from the lateral geniculate body of the thalamus.

- The article explained what "visual area" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "visual area" to mean the cortical area that receives information from....

---

waters (noun)

The serous fluid in which the embryo is suspended inside the amnion.

- Before a woman gives birth her waters break.
- They invaded our territorial waters.

---

alternative birth (noun)

A method of childbirth that avoids intrusive high-tech medicine in favor of more natural and homely settings.

- In class, the teacher used "alternative birth" to mean a method of childbirth that avoids intrusive....
- He looked up "alternative birth" because he had never seen it before.

---

exposure (noun)

The state of being vulnerable or exposed.

- His exposure to ridicule.
- Exposure to the weather.

---

fish bowl (noun)

A state of affairs in which you have no privacy.

- The president lives in a goldfish bowl.
- In class, the teacher used "fish bowl" to mean a state of affairs in which you have no privacy.

---

rank (noun)

The body of members of an organization or group.

- They found dissension in their own ranks.
- He joined the ranks of the unemployed.

---

thinking cap (noun)

A state in which one thinks.

- In class, the teacher used "thinking cap" to mean a state in which one thinks.

- Understanding “thinking cap” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

birthday suit (noun)

Informal terms for nakedness.

- In his birthday suit.
- Understanding “birthday suit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ear (noun)

The sense organ for hearing and equilibrium.

- He had a keen ear.
- A good ear for pitch.

grey matter (noun)

Greyish nervous tissue containing cell bodies as well as fibers; forms the cerebral cortex consisting of unmyelinated neurons.

- Understanding “grey matter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “grey matter” because he had never seen it before.

ill-treat (verb)

Treat badly.

- The coach explained when to use “ill-treat” and when to wait.
- Can you use “ill-treat” in a sentence that fits this situation?

nuclear medicine (noun)

The branch of medicine that uses radioactive materials either to image a patient’s body or to destroy diseased cells.

- In class, the teacher used “nuclear medicine” to mean the branch of medicine that uses radioactive....
- They discussed “nuclear medicine” during the group presentation.

persons (noun)

A human body (usually including the clothing).

- He looked up “persons” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “persons.”

welfare (noun)

A contented state of being happy and healthy and prosperous.

- She lives on welfare.
- He looked up “welfare” because he had never seen it before.

alternative medicine (noun)

The practice of medicine without the use of drugs; may involve herbal medicines or self-awareness or biofeedback or acupuncture.

- They discussed “alternative medicine” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “alternative medicine” means with a simple example.

clear and present danger (noun)

A standard for judging when freedom of speech can be abridged.

- No one has a right to shout ‘fire’ in a crowded theater when there is no fire because such an action would pose a clear and present danger to public safety.
- In class, the teacher used “clear and present danger” to mean a standard for judging when freedom of speech can....

emergency medicine (noun)

The branch of medicine concerned with the prompt diagnosis and treatment of injuries or trauma or sudden illness.

- The article explained what “emergency medicine” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “emergency medicine” to mean the branch of medicine concerned with the prompt....

ordinary (noun)

The expected or commonplace condition or situation.

- Not out of the ordinary.
- Understanding “ordinary” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

paint a picture (verb)

Call to mind.

- Can you use “paint a picture” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “paint a picture” and when to wait.

---

thin air (noun)

Nowhere to be found in a giant void.

- It vanished into thin air.
- The article explained what “thin air” means with a simple example.

---

wide-body aircraft (noun)

A commercial airliner with two aisles.

- In class, the teacher used “wide-body aircraft” to mean a commercial airliner with two aisles.
- The article explained what “wide-body aircraft” means with a simple example.

---

administrative law (noun)

The body of rules and regulations and orders and decisions created by administrative agencies of government.

- He looked up “administrative law” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “administrative law” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

comfort (noun)

A state of being relaxed and feeling no pain.

- He is a man who enjoys his comfort.
- She longed for the comfortableness of her armchair.

---

doctor of fine arts (noun)

An honorary degree in fine arts.

- Understanding “doctor of fine arts” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “doctor of fine arts” to mean an honorary degree in fine arts.

---

get dressed (verb)

Put on clothes.

- Learners should practice how to use “get dressed” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “get dressed” until he saw an example.

---

ill-treated (adjective)

Subjected to cruel treatment.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “ill-treated.”
- Would you call this situation “ill-treated”? Explain why.

---

illness (noun)

Impairment of normal physiological function affecting part or all of an organism.

- In class, the teacher used “illness” to mean impairment of normal physiological function....
- He looked up “illness” because he had never seen it before.

---

muscle system (noun)

The muscular system of an organism.

- Understanding “muscle system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “muscle system” means with a simple example.

---

noise conditions (noun)

The condition of being noisy (as in a communication channel).

- In class, the teacher used “noise conditions” to mean the condition of being noisy (as in a communication....
- The article explained what “noise conditions” means with a simple example.

---

priority (noun)

Status established in order of importance or urgency.

- National independence takes priority over class struggle.
- He looked up "priority" because he had never seen it before.

---

rear end (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rear end."
- They discussed "rear end" during the group presentation.

---

repair (noun)

A formal way of referring to the condition of something.

- The building was in good repair.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "repair."

---

short bone (noun)

A bone that is of approximately equal dimension in all directions.

- He looked up "short bone" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "short bone" to mean a bone that is of approximately equal dimension in....

---

welfare state (noun)

A government that undertakes responsibility for the welfare of its citizens through programs in public health and public housing and pensions and unemployment compensation etc.

- They discussed "welfare state" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "welfare state."

---

administrative body (noun)

A unit with administrative responsibilities.

- Understanding "administrative body" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "administrative body" to mean a unit with administrative responsibilities.

---

arm exercise (noun)

Exercise designed to strengthen the arm muscles.

- Understanding "arm exercise" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "arm exercise" means with a simple example.

---

body covering (noun)

Any covering for the body or a body part.

- The article explained what "body covering" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "body covering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chest pain (noun)

Pain in the chest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chest pain."
- Understanding "chest pain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crack-up (noun)

A mental or physical breakdown.

- He looked up "crack-up" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crack-up."

---

deck out (verb)

Put on special clothes to appear particularly appealing and attractive.

- In everyday English, people use "deck out" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "deck out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

deck up (verb)

Put on special clothes to appear particularly appealing and attractive.

- She tried to use "deck up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "deck up" when talking about this idea.

female chest (noun)

The chest of a woman.

- The article explained what "female chest" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "female chest" during the group presentation.

gray matter (noun)

Greyish nervous tissue containing cell bodies as well as fibers; forms the cerebral cortex consisting of unmyelinated neurons.

- He looked up "gray matter" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gray matter."

hot pants (noun)

A state of sexual arousal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hot pants."
- He looked up "hot pants" because he had never seen it before.

ill-formed (adjective)

Not grammatical; not conforming to the rules of grammar or accepted usage.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ill-formed."
- Students compared "ill-formed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

middle finger (noun)

The second finger; between the index finger and the ring finger.

- In class, the teacher used "middle finger" to mean the second finger; between the index finger and the....
- Understanding "middle finger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

motor region (noun)

The cortical area that influences motor movements.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "motor region."
- The article explained what "motor region" means with a simple example.

multiple personality (noun)

A relatively rare dissociative disorder in which the usual integrity of the personality breaks down and two or more independent personalities emerge.

- In class, the teacher used "multiple personality" to mean a relatively rare dissociative disorder in which....
- They discussed "multiple personality" during the group presentation.

nowhere (noun)

An insignificant place.

- He came out of nowhere.
- He looked up "nowhere" because he had never seen it before.

social rank (noun)

Position in a social hierarchy.

- The British are more aware of social status than Americans are.
- The article explained what "social rank" means with a simple example.

blood relative (noun)

One related by blood or origin; especially on sharing an ancestor with another.

- He looked up "blood relative" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blood relative."

foot-and-mouth disease (noun)

Acute contagious disease of cloven-footed animals marked by ulcers in the mouth and around the hoofs.

- In class, the teacher used "foot-and-mouth disease" to mean acute contagious disease of cloven-footed animals....
- Understanding "foot-and-mouth disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

friendship (noun)

The state of being friends (or friendly).

- In class, the teacher used "friendship" to mean the state of being friends (or friendly).
- They discussed "friendship" during the group presentation.

---

heart muscle (noun)

The muscle tissue of the heart; adapted to continued rhythmic contraction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heart muscle."
- He looked up "heart muscle" because he had never seen it before.

---

holding pattern (noun)

A state of inaction with no progress and no change.

- You should go into a holding pattern until he gets over his disappointment.
- The article explained what "holding pattern" means with a simple example.

---

internal medicine (noun)

The branch of medicine that deals with the diagnosis and (nonsurgical) treatment of diseases of the internal organs (especially in adults).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "internal medicine."
- He looked up "internal medicine" because he had never seen it before.

---

round bone (noun)

Bones that are round in shape.

- Understanding "round bone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "round bone" because he had never seen it before.

---

royal academy (noun)

An honorary academy in London (founded in 1768) intended to cultivate painting and sculpture and architecture in Britain.

- They discussed "royal academy" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "royal academy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

take a crap (verb)

Have a bowel movement.

- She tried to use "take a crap" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "take a crap" and when to wait.

---

adds (noun)

A condition (mostly in boys) characterized by behavioral and learning disorders.

- He looked up "adds" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "adds" to mean a condition (mostly in boys) characterized by....

---

first-degree burn (noun)

Burn causing redness of the skin surface.

- Understanding "first-degree burn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "first-degree burn" means with a simple example.

---

give forth (verb)

Give out (breath or an odor).

- The coach explained when to use "give forth" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "give forth" until he saw an example.

---

ill-affected (adjective)

Discontented as toward authority.

- Would you call this situation "ill-affected"? Explain why.
- Students compared "ill-affected" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

military rating (noun)

Rank in a military organization.

- He looked up "military rating" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used “military rating” to mean rank in a military organization.

---

whole kit (noun)

Everything available; usually preceded by ‘the’.

- We saw the whole shebang.
- We took on the whole caboodle.

---

accident surgery (noun)

The branch of medicine that deals with the surgical repair of injuries and wounds arising from accidents.

- In class, the teacher used “accident surgery” to mean the branch of medicine that deals with the surgical....
- The article explained what “accident surgery” means with a simple example.

---

blind spot (noun)

A subject about which you are ignorant or prejudiced and fail to exercise good judgment.

- Golf is one of his blind spots and he’s proud of it.
- They discussed “blind spot” during the group presentation.

---

ca-ca (verb)

Have a bowel movement.

- He did not know how to use “ca-ca” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “ca-ca” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

crazy bone (noun)

A point on the elbow where the ulnar nerve passes near the surface; a sharp tingling sensation results when the nerve is knocked against the bone.

- The funny bone is not humerus.
- The article explained what “crazy bone” means with a simple example.

---

god’s will (noun)

The omnipotence of a divine being.

- He looked up “god’s will” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “god’s will.”

---

head nurse (noun)

The person in charge of nursing in a medical institution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “head nurse.”
- Understanding “head nurse” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

higher rank (noun)

Higher rank than that of others especially by reason of longer service.

- They discussed “higher rank” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “higher rank” because he had never seen it before.

---

hot flash (noun)

Sudden brief sensation of heat (associated with menopause and some mental disorders).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hot flash.”
- They discussed “hot flash” during the group presentation.

---

leg exercise (noun)

Exercise designed to strengthen the leg muscles.

- In class, the teacher used “leg exercise” to mean exercise designed to strengthen the leg muscles.
- Understanding “leg exercise” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

liquid state (noun)

The state in which a substance exhibits a characteristic readiness to flow with little or no tendency to disperse and relatively high incompressibility.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “liquid state.”
- He looked up “liquid state” because he had never seen it before.

---

male chest (noun)

The chest of a man.

- He looked up "male chest" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "male chest" to mean the chest of a man.

---

military rank (noun)

Rank in a military organization.

- The article explained what "military rank" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "military rank" during the group presentation.

---

muscle sense (noun)

The ability to feel movements of the limbs and body.

- They discussed "muscle sense" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "muscle sense" to mean the ability to feel movements of the limbs and body.

---

pink disease (noun)

Serious bark disease of many tropical crop trees (coffee, citrus, rubber); branches have a covering of pink hyphae.

- In class, the teacher used "pink disease" to mean serious bark disease of many tropical crop trees....
- Understanding "pink disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roof of the mouth (noun)

The upper surface of the mouth that separates the oral and nasal cavities.

- They discussed "roof of the mouth" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "roof of the mouth" means with a simple example.

---

asleep (adverb)

Into a sleeping state.

- He fell asleep.
- Place "asleep" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

behaviour (noun)

The action or reaction of something (as a machine or substance) under specified circumstances.

- They discussed "behaviour" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "behaviour" means with a simple example.

---

body forth (verb)

Represent in bodily form.

- Can you use "body forth" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "body forth" until he saw an example.

---

diseases (noun)

An impairment of health or a condition of abnormal functioning.

- The article explained what "diseases" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "diseases" to mean an impairment of health or a condition of abnormal....

---

ears (noun)

The sense organ for hearing and equilibrium.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ears."
- The article explained what "ears" means with a simple example.

---

funny bone (noun)

A point on the elbow where the ulnar nerve passes near the surface; a sharp tingling sensation results when the nerve is knocked against the bone.

- The funny bone is not humerus.
- He looked up "funny bone" because he had never seen it before.

---

gene (noun)

(genetics) a segment of DNA that is involved in producing a polypeptide chain; it can include regions preceding and following the coding DNA as well as introns between the exons; it is considered a unit of heredity.

- Genes were formerly called factors.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gene."

---

health maintenance organization (noun)

Group insurance that entitles members to services of participating hospitals and clinics and physicians.

- In class, the teacher used "health maintenance organization" to mean group insurance that entitles members to services....
- Understanding "health maintenance organization" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ill-chosen (adjective)

Not elegant or graceful in expression.

- Students compared "ill-chosen" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "ill-chosen" approach may work better in this case.

---

lower rank (noun)

The state of being inferior.

- They discussed "lower rank" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lower rank" to mean the state of being inferior.

---

middle ear (noun)

The main cavity of the ear; between the eardrum and the inner ear.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "middle ear."
- The article explained what "middle ear" means with a simple example.

---

milk leg (noun)

Painful thrombosis of the femoral vein in the leg following childbirth.

- They discussed "milk leg" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "milk leg" to mean painful thrombosis of the femoral vein in the leg....

---

privacy (noun)

The condition of being concealed or hidden.

- He looked up "privacy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "privacy" during the group presentation.

---

regard (noun)

The condition of being honored (esteemed or respected or well regarded).

- A man who has earned high regard.
- Give him my kind regards.

---

second-degree burn (noun)

Burn causing blisters on the skin and superficial destruction of the dermis.

- Understanding "second-degree burn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "second-degree burn" during the group presentation.

---

body mass index (noun)

A measure of someone's weight in relation to height; to calculate one's BMI, multiply one's weight in pounds and divide that by the square of one's height in inches; overweight is a BMI greater than 25; obese is a BMI greater than 30.

- Understanding "body mass index" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "body mass index."

---

breast (noun)

The front of the trunk from the neck to the abdomen.

- He beat his breast in anger.
- They discussed "breast" during the group presentation.

---

doctor of philosophy (noun)

A doctorate awarded for original contributions to knowledge.

- The article explained what "doctor of philosophy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "doctor of philosophy" to mean a doctorate awarded for original contributions to....

factor iii (noun)

An enzyme liberated from blood platelets that converts prothrombin into thrombin as blood starts to clot.

- Understanding "factor iii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "factor iii."

fancy up (verb)

Put on special clothes to appear particularly appealing and attractive.

- The coach explained when to use "fancy up" and when to wait.
- Can you use "fancy up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

holes (noun)

Informal terms for a difficult situation.

- He played 18 holes.
- He shot holes in my argument.

knock up (verb)

Make pregnant.

- In everyday English, people use "knock up" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "knock up" until he saw an example.

narrow-body (noun)

A commercial airliner with a single aisle.

- In class, the teacher used "narrow-body" to mean a commercial airliner with a single aisle.
- Understanding "narrow-body" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

neck exercise (noun)

Exercise designed to strengthen the neck muscles.

- The article explained what "neck exercise" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "neck exercise" during the group presentation.

pressure-wash (verb)

Wash before painting to remove old paint and mildew.

- Pressure-wash the house.
- Can you use "pressure-wash" in a sentence that fits this situation?

salt flat (noun)

A flat expanse of salt left by the evaporation of a body of salt water.

- The article explained what "salt flat" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "salt flat" to mean a flat expanse of salt left by the evaporation of a....

strip down (verb)

Get undressed.

- She strips in front of strangers every night for a living.
- She tried to use "strip down" carefully so everyone would understand.

visual cell (noun)

One of the cells of the retina that is sensitive to light.

- He looked up "visual cell" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visual cell."

absence (noun)

The time interval during which something or somebody is away.

- He visited during my absence.
- He was surprised by the absence of any explanation.

bears (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- She bears the title of Duchess.
- In everyday English, people use "bears" when talking about this idea.

---

black tongue (noun)

A benign side effect of some antibiotics; dark overgrowth of the papillae of the tongue.

- They discussed "black tongue" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black tongue."

---

combat injury (noun)

A casualty to military personnel resulting from combat.

- The article explained what "combat injury" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "combat injury" during the group presentation.

---

commonwealth (noun)

A politically organized body of people under a single government.

- He looked up "commonwealth" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "commonwealth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ease (noun)

A freedom from financial difficulty that promotes a comfortable state.

- A life of luxury and ease.
- He rose through the ranks with apparent ease.

---

eye muscle (noun)

One of the small muscles of the eye that serve to rotate the eyeball.

- Understanding "eye muscle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "eye muscle" because he had never seen it before.

---

fame (noun)

The state or quality of being widely honored and acclaimed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fame."
- They discussed "fame" during the group presentation.

---

junior status (noun)

In a junior position.

- The article explained what "junior status" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "junior status" to mean in a junior position.

---

medical institution (noun)

An institution created for the practice of medicine.

- The article explained what "medical institution" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medical institution."

---

raw wood (noun)

Wood that is not finished or painted.

- They discussed "raw wood" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "raw wood" to mean wood that is not finished or painted.

---

representation (noun)

A body of legislators that serve in behalf of some constituency.

- A Congressional vacancy occurred in the representation from California.
- The sales contract contains several representations by the vendor.

---

roots (noun)

The condition of belonging to a particular place or group by virtue of social or ethnic or cultural lineage.

- His roots in Texas go back a long way.

- He went back to Sweden to search for his roots.

---

sleeping beauty (noun)

A potential takeover target that has not yet been put in play.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sleeping beauty."
- The article explained what "sleeping beauty" means with a simple example.

---

swing (noun)

A state of steady vigorous action that is characteristic of an activity.

- The party went with a swing.
- It took time to get into the swing of things.

---

tail (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- The tail of the storm.
- In class, the teacher used "tail" to mean the fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

---

third-degree burn (noun)

Burn characterized by destruction of both epidermis and dermis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "third-degree burn."
- He looked up "third-degree burn" because he had never seen it before.

---

arena (noun)

A particular environment or walk of life.

- The article explained what "arena" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "arena" to mean a particular environment or walk of life.

---

identity crisis (noun)

Distress and disorientation (especially in adolescence) resulting from conflicting pressures and uncertainty about one's self and one's role in society.

- They discussed "identity crisis" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "identity crisis."

---

ill-defined (adjective)

Poorly stated or described.

- He confuses the reader with ill-defined terms and concepts.
- A "ill-defined" approach may work better in this case.

---

naked eye (noun)

The eye unaided by any optical instrument that alters the power of vision or alters the apparent size or distance of objects.

- It is not safe to look directly at the sun with the naked eye.
- In class, the teacher used "naked eye" to mean the eye unaided by any optical instrument that....

---

over-the-counter medicine (noun)

A drug that is sold without a prescription.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "over-the-counter medicine."
- He looked up "over-the-counter medicine" because he had never seen it before.

---

pregnancy (noun)

The state of being pregnant; the period from conception to birth when a woman carries a developing fetus in her uterus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pregnancy."
- The article explained what "pregnancy" means with a simple example.

---

radical (noun)

An atom or group of atoms with at least one unpaired electron; in the body it is usually an oxygen molecule that has lost an electron and will stabilize itself by stealing an electron from a nearby molecule.

- In the body free radicals are high-energy particles that ricochet wildly and damage cells.
- In class, the teacher used "radical" to mean an atom or group of atoms with at least one....

---

shore (noun)

The land along the edge of a body of water.

- They discussed "shore" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "shore" means with a simple example.

---

spots (noun)

Spots before the eyes caused by opaque cell fragments in the vitreous humor and lens.

- A leopard's spots.
- They discussed "spots" during the group presentation.

---

transmission (noun)

An incident in which an infectious disease is transmitted.

- Understanding "transmission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "transmission" during the group presentation.

---

art exhibition (noun)

An exhibition of art objects (paintings or statues).

- In class, the teacher used "art exhibition" to mean an exhibition of art objects (paintings or statues).
- The article explained what "art exhibition" means with a simple example.

---

bone cell (noun)

A cell that is part of a bone.

- He looked up "bone cell" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bone cell."

---

egg cell (noun)

The female reproductive cell; the female gamete.

- They discussed "egg cell" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "egg cell" means with a simple example.

---

hiding (noun)

The state of being hidden.

- He went into hiding.
- The article explained what "hiding" means with a simple example.

---

killer cell (noun)

T cell with CD8 receptor that recognizes antigens on the surface of a virus-infected cell and binds to the infected cell and kill it.

- They discussed "killer cell" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "killer cell" because he had never seen it before.

---

rick (noun)

A painful muscle spasm especially in the neck or back ('rick' and 'wrick' are British).

- They discussed "rick" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rick" means with a simple example.

---

sword-cut (noun)

A scar from a cut made by a sword.

- In class, the teacher used "sword-cut" to mean a scar from a cut made by a sword.
- The article explained what "sword-cut" means with a simple example.

---

tail end (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- The fag end of this crisis-ridden century.
- The tail of the storm.

---

transmission time (noun)

The coordinated universal time when a transmission is sent from Earth to a spacecraft or other celestial body.

- The article explained what "transmission time" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "transmission time" during the group presentation.

---

attracted (verb)

Exert a force on (a body) causing it to approach or prevent it from moving away.

- The beautiful garden attracted many people.
- She tried to use "attracted" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

database (noun)

An organized body of related information.

- They discussed "database" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "database" because he had never seen it before.

---

disorder (noun)

A condition in which things are not in their expected places.

- The files are in complete disorder.
- The doctor prescribed some medicine for the disorder.

---

domain (noun)

A particular environment or walk of life.

- His domain extended into Europe.
- Understanding "domain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electric burn (noun)

A burn caused by heat produced by an electric current.

- In class, the teacher used "electric burn" to mean a burn caused by heat produced by an electric current.
- The article explained what "electric burn" means with a simple example.

---

free radical (noun)

An atom or group of atoms with at least one unpaired electron; in the body it is usually an oxygen molecule that has lost an electron and will stabilize itself by stealing an electron from a nearby molecule.

- In the body free radicals are high-energy particles that ricochet wildly and damage cells.
- In class, the teacher used "free radical" to mean an atom or group of atoms with at least one....

---

medicine chest (noun)

Cabinet that holds medicines and toiletries.

- They discussed "medicine chest" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "medicine chest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ring finger (noun)

The third finger (especially of the left hand).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ring finger."
- They discussed "ring finger" during the group presentation.

---

ruin (noun)

An irrecoverable state of devastation and destruction.

- You have brought ruin on this entire family.
- They explored several Roman ruins.

---

bow (verb)

Bend one's knee or body, or lower one's head.

- He bowed before the King.
- She bowed her head in shame.

---

ear doctor (noun)

A physician who specializes in the ear and its diseases.

- They discussed "ear doctor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ear doctor" means with a simple example.

exercise bike (noun)

An exercise device resembling a stationary bike.

- The article explained what “exercise bike” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “exercise bike” to mean an exercise device resembling a stationary bike.

ill-fed (adjective)

Not getting adequate food.

- The speaker chose “ill-fed” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “ill-fed” when it is not getting adequate food.

man’s body (noun)

The body of an adult man.

- Understanding “man’s body” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “man’s body” during the group presentation.

muscle cell (noun)

An elongated contractile cell that forms the muscles of the body.

- They discussed “muscle cell” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “muscle cell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

split personality (noun)

A relatively rare dissociative disorder in which the usual integrity of the personality breaks down and two or more independent personalities emerge.

- He looked up “split personality” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “split personality.”

vital sign (noun)

Sign of life; usually an indicator of a person’s general physical condition.

- He was still alive but his vital signs were weak.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “vital sign.”

water on the knee (noun)

Hydrarthrosis affecting the knee.

- Understanding “water on the knee” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “water on the knee” because he had never seen it before.

air alert (noun)

The condition in which combat aircraft are airborne and ready for an operation.

- Aircraft in the Mideast are on air alert.
- Understanding “air alert” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bow down (verb)

Bend one’s knee or body, or lower one’s head.

- He bowed before the King.
- She bowed her head in shame.

celebrity (noun)

The state or quality of being widely honored and acclaimed.

- He was a baseball celebrity.
- The article explained what “celebrity” means with a simple example.

clay (noun)

The dead body of a human being.

- Honor comes to bless the turf that wraps their clay.
- They discussed “clay” during the group presentation.

fall asleep (verb)

Change from a waking to a sleeping state.

- He always falls asleep during lectures.
- Can you use "fall asleep" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

good fortune (noun)

An auspicious state resulting from favorable outcomes.

- He looked up "good fortune" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good fortune."

---

handle-bars (noun)

A large bushy moustache (with hair growing sometimes down the sides of the mouth).

- The article explained what "handle-bars" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "handle-bars" to mean a large bushy moustache (with hair growing....

---

hospital ward (noun)

Block forming a division of a hospital (or a suite of rooms) shared by patients who need a similar kind of care.

- They put her in a 4-bed ward.
- He looked up "hospital ward" because he had never seen it before.

---

human knee (noun)

Hinge joint in the human leg connecting the tibia and fibula with the femur and protected in front by the patella.

- He looked up "human knee" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "human knee."

---

killer t cell (noun)

T cell with CD8 receptor that recognizes antigens on the surface of a virus-infected cell and binds to the infected cell and kill it.

- The article explained what "killer t cell" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "killer t cell" to mean t cell with cd8 receptor that recognizes antigens....

---

legislative body (noun)

Persons who make or amend or repeal laws.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legislative body."
- They discussed "legislative body" during the group presentation.

---

medicine cabinet (noun)

Cabinet that holds medicines and toiletries.

- He looked up "medicine cabinet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medicine cabinet."

---

permanent wave (noun)

A series of waves in the hair made by applying heat and chemicals.

- The article explained what "permanent wave" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "permanent wave."

---

polish (noun)

A highly developed state of perfection; having a flawless or impeccable quality; ; ; –Joseph Conrad.

- They performed with great polish.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polish."

---

political arena (noun)

A sphere of intense political activity.

- In class, the teacher used "political arena" to mean a sphere of intense political activity.
- He looked up "political arena" because he had never seen it before.

---

political liberty (noun)

One's freedom to exercise one's rights as guaranteed under the laws of the country.

- He looked up "political liberty" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "political liberty" during the group presentation.

---

red alert (noun)

The highest level of alert when an attack by the enemy seems imminent (or more generally a state of alert resulting from imminent danger).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red alert."
- He looked up "red alert" because he had never seen it before.

---

relax (verb)

Become less tense, rest, or take one's ease.

- He relaxed in the hot tub.
- Let's all relax after a hard day's work.

---

shoulder joint (noun)

A ball-and-socket joint between the head of the humerus and a cavity of the scapula.

- He looked up "shoulder joint" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shoulder joint."

---

wore (verb)

Exhaust or get tired through overuse or great strain or stress.

- We wore ourselves out on this hike.
- He wore a red ribbon.

---

acted (verb)

Pretend to have certain qualities or state of mind.

- He acted the idiot.
- The nanny acted quickly by grabbing the toddler and covering him with a wet towel.

---

arm bone (noun)

A bone in the arm.

- He looked up "arm bone" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "arm bone" to mean a bone in the arm.

---

butt (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- He deserves a good kick in the butt.
- The article explained what "butt" means with a simple example.

---

ill-gotten (adjective)

Obtained illegally or by improper means.

- Ill-gotten gains.
- The speaker chose "ill-gotten" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

legislative act (noun)

An act passed by a legislative body.

- The article explained what "legislative act" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "legislative act" to mean an act passed by a legislative body.

---

passion of christ (noun)

The suffering of Jesus at the Crucifixion.

- The article explained what "passion of christ" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "passion of christ" during the group presentation.

---

pump (noun)

The hollow muscular organ located behind the sternum and between the lungs; its rhythmic contractions move the blood through the body.

- In class, the teacher used "pump" to mean the hollow muscular organ located behind the....
- Understanding "pump" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

slip on (verb)

Put on with ease or speed.

- Slip into something more comfortable after work.
- Slip on one's shoes.

---

anxiety reaction (noun)

An anxiety disorder characterized by chronic free-floating anxiety and such symptoms as tension or sweating or trembling or lightheadedness or irritability etc that has lasted for more than six months.

- They discussed "anxiety reaction" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "anxiety reaction" means with a simple example.

---

chaos (noun)

A state of extreme confusion and disorder.

- He looked up "chaos" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "chaos" during the group presentation.

---

corps (noun)

A body of people associated together.

- Diplomatic corps.
- They discussed "corps" during the group presentation.

---

hip joint (noun)

The ball-and-socket joint between the head of the femur and the acetabulum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hip joint."
- Understanding "hip joint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

improvements (noun)

A condition superior to an earlier condition.

- Their improvements increased the value of the property.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "improvements."

---

legal representation (noun)

Personal representation that has legal status.

- An person who has been declared incompetent should have legal representation.
- Understanding "legal representation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mental illness (noun)

Any disease of the mind; the psychological state of someone who has emotional or behavioral problems serious enough to require psychiatric intervention.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mental illness."
- He looked up "mental illness" because he had never seen it before.

---

simple absence (noun)

An absence seizure without other complications; followed by 3-per-sec brainwave spikes.

- They discussed "simple absence" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "simple absence" to mean an absence seizure without other complications;....

---

slip off (verb)

Take off with ease or speed.

- She slipped off her jacket.
- Can you use "slip off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

stroke (noun)

A mark made on a surface by a pen, pencil, or paintbrush.

- She applied the paint in careful strokes.
- It took two strokes to get out of the bunker.

---

balance-of-payments problem (noun)

An economic problem caused by payments for imports being greater than receipts for exports.

- The article explained what "balance-of-payments problem" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "balance-of-payments problem" to mean an economic problem caused by payments for imports....

---

breathe (verb)

Draw air into, and expel out of, the lungs.

- I can breathe better when the air is clean.
- Every creature that breathes.

---

breathe in (verb)

Draw in (air).

- Learners should practice how to use "breathe in" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "breathe in" until he saw an example.

---

cancer juice (noun)

A milky substance found in certain cancerous growths.

- He looked up "cancer juice" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cancer juice."

---

crossed eye (noun)

Strabismus in which one or both eyes turn inward toward the nose.

- In class, the teacher used "crossed eye" to mean strabismus in which one or both eyes turn inward....
- Understanding "crossed eye" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

equality (noun)

A state of being essentially equal or equivalent; equally balanced.

- Understanding "equality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "equality" means with a simple example.

---

organic structure (noun)

The entire structure of an organism (an animal, plant, or human being).

- He looked up "organic structure" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "organic structure."

---

psychological state (noun)

(psychology) a mental condition in which the qualities of a state are relatively constant even though the state itself may be dynamic.

- A manic state.
- Understanding "psychological state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scope (noun)

The state of the environment in which a situation exists.

- Within the scope of an investigation.
- He looked up "scope" because he had never seen it before.

---

spin doctor (noun)

A public relations person who tries to forestall negative publicity by publicizing a favorable interpretation of the words or actions of a company or political party or famous person.

- His title is Director of Communications but he is just a spin doctor.
- The article explained what "spin doctor" means with a simple example.

---

aids (noun)

A serious (often fatal) disease of the immune system transmitted through blood products especially by sexual contact or contaminated needles.

- Visual aids in teaching.
- The article explained what "aids" means with a simple example.

---

blood disorder (noun)

A disease or disorder of the blood.

- He looked up "blood disorder" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blood disorder."

blood relation (noun)

One related by blood or origin; especially on sharing an ancestor with another.

- In class, the teacher used "blood relation" to mean one related by blood or origin; especially on....
- He looked up "blood relation" because he had never seen it before.

breast cancer (noun)

Cancer of the breast; one of the most common malignancies in women in the US.

- The article explained what "breast cancer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "breast cancer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

call the tune (verb)

Exercise authority or be in charge.

- Who is calling the shots in this house?
- He did not know how to use "call the tune" until he saw an example.

clear the throat (verb)

Clear mucus or food from one's throat.

- He cleared his throat before he started to speak.
- She tried to use "clear the throat" carefully so everyone would understand.

collective security (noun)

A system for international peace.

- In class, the teacher used "collective security" to mean a system for international peace.
- The article explained what "collective security" means with a simple example.

cross infection (noun)

An infection that is acquired at a hospital or other healthcare facility.

- The article explained what "cross infection" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cross infection" during the group presentation.

des (noun)

A potent estrogen used in medicine and in feed for livestock and poultry.

- He looked up "des" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "des" during the group presentation.

dog bite (noun)

A bite inflicted by a dog.

- He looked up "dog bite" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dog bite" during the group presentation.

eye infection (noun)

An infection of the sebaceous gland of the eyelid.

- In class, the teacher used "eye infection" to mean an infection of the sebaceous gland of the eyelid.
- The article explained what "eye infection" means with a simple example.

leg bone (noun)

A bone of the leg.

- Understanding "leg bone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "leg bone" because he had never seen it before.

medical relation (noun)

The professional relation between a health care professional and a patient.

- They discussed "medical relation" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "medical relation" to mean the professional relation between a health care....

rip off (verb)

Deprive somebody of something by deceit.

- This salesman ripped us off!
- Learners should practice how to use "rip off" in real sentences.

---

shelter (noun)

The condition of being protected.

- The article explained what "shelter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shelter" to mean the condition of being protected.

---

total darkness (noun)

Total absence of light.

- They fumbled around in total darkness.
- They discussed "total darkness" during the group presentation.

---

civil liberty (noun)

One's freedom to exercise one's rights as guaranteed under the laws of the country.

- He looked up "civil liberty" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "civil liberty."

---

comfort zone (noun)

The temperature range (between 28 and 30 degrees Centigrade) at which the naked human body is able to maintain a heat balance without shivering or sweating.

- Understanding "comfort zone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "comfort zone" means with a simple example.

---

dirt (noun)

The state of being covered with unclean things.

- The article explained what "dirt" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dirt" during the group presentation.

---

dry nurse (noun)

A nurse who cares for but does not suckle an infant.

- In class, the teacher used "dry nurse" to mean a nurse who cares for but does not suckle an infant.
- The article explained what "dry nurse" means with a simple example.

---

dry-nurse (verb)

Take care of an infant without breastfeeding it.

- Can you use "dry-nurse" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "dry-nurse" when talking about this idea.

---

finger wave (noun)

A wave made with the fingers.

- He looked up "finger wave" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "finger wave" to mean a wave made with the fingers.

---

genetic disease (noun)

A disease or disorder that is inherited genetically.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genetic disease."
- Understanding "genetic disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ill-dressed (adjective)

Not well dressed.

- Would you call this situation "ill-dressed"? Explain why.
- A "ill-dressed" approach may work better in this case.

---

iron-storage disease (noun)

Pathology in which iron accumulates in the tissues; characterized by bronzed skin and enlarged liver and diabetes mellitus and abnormalities of the pancreas and the joints.

- He looked up "iron-storage disease" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “iron-storage disease.”

laughed (verb)

Produce laughter.

- The coach explained when to use “laughed” and when to wait.
- Can you use “laughed” in a sentence that fits this situation?

neck bone (noun)

One of 7 vertebrae in the human spine located in the neck region.

- They discussed “neck bone” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “neck bone.”

quarter crack (noun)

A crack on the inside of a horse’s forefoot.

- In class, the teacher used “quarter crack” to mean a crack on the inside of a horse’s forefoot.
- Understanding “quarter crack” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

securities (noun)

The state of being free from danger or injury.

- He held several valuable securities.
- Understanding “securities” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sleep disorder (noun)

A disturbance of the normal sleep pattern.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sleep disorder.”
- They discussed “sleep disorder” during the group presentation.

clinical depression (noun)

A state of depression and anhedonia so severe as to require clinical intervention.

- The article explained what “clinical depression” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “clinical depression.”

complex absence (noun)

An absence seizure accompanied by other abnormalities (atonia or automatisms or vasomotor changes).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “complex absence.”
- He looked up “complex absence” because he had never seen it before.

direct transmission (noun)

A transmission mechanism in which the infectious agent is transferred directly into the body via touching or biting or kissing or sexual intercourse or by droplets entering the eye or nose or mouth.

- The article explained what “direct transmission” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “direct transmission” to mean a transmission mechanism in which the infectious....

dominant (noun)

An allele that produces the same phenotype whether its paired allele is identical or different.

- In class, the teacher used “dominant” to mean an allele that produces the same phenotype whether....
- They discussed “dominant” during the group presentation.

healing (noun)

The natural process by which the body repairs itself.

- Understanding “healing” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “healing” means with a simple example.

internal ear (noun)

A complex system of interconnecting cavities; concerned with hearing and equilibrium.

- They discussed “internal ear” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “internal ear” means with a simple example.

priest-doctor (noun)

In societies practicing shamanism: one acting as a medium between the visible and spirit worlds; practices sorcery for healing or divination.

- The article explained what "priest-doctor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "priest-doctor" to mean in societies practicing shamanism: one acting as a....

---

ranks (noun)

The body of members of an organization or group.

- They found dissension in their own ranks.
- He joined the ranks of the unemployed.

---

stomach exercise (noun)

An exercise designed to strengthen the abdominal muscles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stomach exercise."
- They discussed "stomach exercise" during the group presentation.

---

swimming hole (noun)

A small body of water (usually in a creek) that is deep enough to use for swimming.

- They discussed "swimming hole" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "swimming hole" because he had never seen it before.

---

take the fifth amendment (verb)

Refuse to testify by invoking the Fifth Amendment, which states that nobody may be forced to testify as a witness against himself or herself.

- The coach explained when to use "take the fifth amendment" and when to wait.
- Can you use "take the fifth amendment" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

brain disorder (noun)

Any disorder or disease of the brain.

- In class, the teacher used "brain disorder" to mean any disorder or disease of the brain.
- The article explained what "brain disorder" means with a simple example.

---

canal (noun)

A bodily passage or tube lined with epithelial cells and conveying a secretion or other substance.

- The alimentary canal.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canal."

---

custody (noun)

A state of being confined (usually for a short time).

- He is in the custody of police.
- The suspect is in custody.

---

down syndrome (noun)

A congenital disorder caused by having an extra 21st chromosome; results in a flat face and short stature and mental retardation.

- The article explained what "down syndrome" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "down syndrome" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

how-d'ye-do (noun)

An awkward situation.

- That's a fine how-d'ye-do.
- In class, the teacher used "how-d'ye-do" to mean an awkward situation.

---

index finger (noun)

The finger next to the thumb.

- The article explained what "index finger" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "index finger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

motor end plate (noun)

The flattened end of a motor neuron that transmits neural impulses to a muscle.

- In class, the teacher used "motor end plate" to mean the flattened end of a motor neuron that transmits....
- Understanding "motor end plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

touching (noun)

The event of something coming in contact with the body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "touching."
- He looked up "touching" because he had never seen it before.

---

unemployment (noun)

The state of being unemployed or not having a job.

- Unemployment is a serious social evil.
- The rate of unemployment is an indicator of the health of an economy.

---

woke (verb)

Cause to become awake or conscious.

- She woke up to the sound of the alarm clock.
- His words woke us to terrible facts of the situation.

---

acid-base balance (noun)

(physiology) the normal equilibrium between acids and alkalis in the body.

- With a normal acid-base balance in the body the blood is slightly alkaline.
- The article explained what "acid-base balance" means with a simple example.

---

black-body radiation (noun)

The electromagnetic radiation that would be radiated from an ideal black body; the distribution of energy in the radiated spectrum of a black body depends only on temperature and is determined by Planck's radiation law.

- The article explained what "black-body radiation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "black-body radiation" to mean the electromagnetic radiation that would be....

---

blood vessel (noun)

A vessel in which blood circulates.

- In class, the teacher used "blood vessel" to mean a vessel in which blood circulates.
- They discussed "blood vessel" during the group presentation.

---

brain stem (noun)

The part of the brain continuous with the spinal cord and comprising the medulla oblongata and pons and midbrain and parts of the hypothalamus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brain stem."
- The article explained what "brain stem" means with a simple example.

---

brain-stem (noun)

The part of the brain continuous with the spinal cord and comprising the medulla oblongata and pons and midbrain and parts of the hypothalamus.

- Understanding "brain-stem" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "brain-stem" to mean the part of the brain continuous with the spinal....

---

castle in spain (noun)

Absentminded dreaming while awake.

- Understanding "castle in spain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "castle in spain" because he had never seen it before.

---

clinic (noun)

A healthcare facility for outpatient care.

- Understanding "clinic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clinic."

---

disability (noun)

The condition of being unable to perform as a consequence of physical or mental unfitness.

- Reading disability.
- Understanding "disability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

excess (noun)

The state of being more than full.

- The article explained what "excess" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "excess" to mean the state of being more than full.

learning disorder (noun)

A disorder found in children of normal intelligence who have difficulties in learning specific skills.

- In class, the teacher used "learning disorder" to mean a disorder found in children of normal intelligence....
- Understanding "learning disorder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rapid eye movement (noun)

A recurring sleep state during which dreaming occurs; a state of rapidly shifting eye movements during sleep.

- Understanding "rapid eye movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rapid eye movement" to mean a recurring sleep state during which dreaming....

royal academy of arts (noun)

An honorary academy in London (founded in 1768) intended to cultivate painting and sculpture and architecture in Britain.

- He looked up "royal academy of arts" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "royal academy of arts" during the group presentation.

salt plain (noun)

A flat expanse of salt left by the evaporation of a body of salt water.

- He looked up "salt plain" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salt plain."

securities law (noun)

The body of laws governing the issuance and selling of securities.

- He looked up "securities law" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "securities law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

skin disorder (noun)

A disease affecting the skin.

- The article explained what "skin disorder" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "skin disorder" to mean a disease affecting the skin.

slavery (noun)

The state of being under the control of another person.

- In class, the teacher used "slavery" to mean the state of being under the control of another person.
- The article explained what "slavery" means with a simple example.

attract (verb)

Exert a force on (a body) causing it to approach or prevent it from moving away.

- The gravitational pull of a planet attracts other bodies.
- Her good looks attract the stares of many men.

bitter end (noun)

The final extremity (however unpleasant it may be).

- He was determined to fight to the bitter end.
- The article explained what "bitter end" means with a simple example.

body substance (noun)

The substance of the body.

- Understanding "body substance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "body substance" to mean the substance of the body.

doctor of musical arts (noun)

A doctor's degree in musical arts.

- He looked up "doctor of musical arts" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "doctor of musical arts" to mean a doctor's degree in musical arts.

eating disorder (noun)

A disorder of the normal eating routine.

- In class, the teacher used "eating disorder" to mean a disorder of the normal eating routine.
- The article explained what "eating disorder" means with a simple example.

factor iv (noun)

Ion of calcium; a factor in the clotting of blood.

- In class, the teacher used "factor iv" to mean ion of calcium; a factor in the clotting of blood.
- The article explained what "factor iv" means with a simple example.

flag rank (noun)

The rank of a flag officer.

- In class, the teacher used "flag rank" to mean the rank of a flag officer.
- Understanding "flag rank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flesh (noun)

Alternative names for the body of a human being.

- The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak.
- Understanding "flesh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

living substance (noun)

The substance of a living cell (including cytoplasm and nucleus).

- They discussed "living substance" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "living substance."

regards (noun)

The condition of being honored (esteemed or respected or well regarded).

- Give him my kind regards.
- In class, the teacher used "regards" to mean the condition of being honored (esteemed or....

roman nose (noun)

A nose with a prominent slightly aquiline bridge.

- Understanding "roman nose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "roman nose" to mean a nose with a prominent slightly aquiline bridge.

sacred college (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) the body of cardinals who advise the Pope and elect new Popes.

- The article explained what "sacred college" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sacred college" to mean (roman catholic church) the body of cardinals who....

snap back (verb)

Recover quickly.

- After the surgery, the patient snapped back in a few days.
- In everyday English, people use "snap back" when talking about this idea.

speech disorder (noun)

A disorder of oral speech.

- In class, the teacher used "speech disorder" to mean a disorder of oral speech.
- The article explained what "speech disorder" means with a simple example.

stem cell (noun)

An undifferentiated cell whose daughter cells may differentiate into other cell types (such as blood cells).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stem cell."

- They discussed “stem cell” during the group presentation.

---

stomach upset (noun)

A disorder of digestive function characterized by discomfort or heartburn or nausea.

- In class, the teacher used “stomach upset” to mean a disorder of digestive function characterized by....
- The article explained what “stomach upset” means with a simple example.

---

upset stomach (noun)

A disorder of digestive function characterized by discomfort or heartburn or nausea.

- In class, the teacher used “upset stomach” to mean a disorder of digestive function characterized by....
- The article explained what “upset stomach” means with a simple example.

---

beings (noun)

The state or fact of existing.

- Understanding “beings” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “beings” during the group presentation.

---

body fluid (noun)

The liquid parts of the body.

- He looked up “body fluid” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “body fluid” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brush cut (noun)

A short haircut with hairs standing up like a brush.

- In class, the teacher used “brush cut” to mean a short haircut with hairs standing up like a brush.
- He looked up “brush cut” because he had never seen it before.

---

christianity (noun)

The collective body of Christians throughout the world and history (found predominantly in Europe and the Americas and Australia).

- They discussed “christianity” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “christianity” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cried (verb)

Shed tears because of sadness, rage, or pain.

- She cried bitterly when she heard the news of his death.
- She cried with pain when the doctor inserted the needle.

---

hearing disorder (noun)

Impairment of the sense of hearing.

- In class, the teacher used “hearing disorder” to mean impairment of the sense of hearing.
- The article explained what “hearing disorder” means with a simple example.

---

ill at ease (adjective)

Socially uncomfortable; unsure and constrained in manner.

- Ill at ease among eddies of people he didn’t know.
- Students compared “ill at ease” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ill fame (noun)

The state of being known for some unfavorable act or quality.

- In class, the teacher used “ill fame” to mean the state of being known for some unfavorable act....
- He looked up “ill fame” because he had never seen it before.

---

mother’s milk (noun)

Milk secreted by a woman who has recently given birth.

- He looked up “mother’s milk” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mother’s milk.”

---

nightmare (noun)

A situation resembling a terrifying dream.

- They discussed "nightmare" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nightmare."

---

ranking (noun)

Position on a scale in relation to others in a sport.

- Understanding "ranking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ranking."

---

wasted (adjective)

(of an organ or body part) diminished in size or strength as a result of disease or injury or lack of use.

- It is useful to describe something as "wasted" when it is (of an organ or body part) diminished in size or....
- A "wasted" approach may work better in this case.

---

artificial blood (noun)

A liquid that can carry large amounts of oxygen and can serve as a temporary substitute for blood.

- In class, the teacher used "artificial blood" to mean a liquid that can carry large amounts of oxygen and....
- They discussed "artificial blood" during the group presentation.

---

collapse (noun)

An abrupt failure of function or complete physical exhaustion.

- The roof is in danger of collapse.
- The collapse of the old star under its own gravity.

---

dynamic balance (noun)

(aeronautics) the state of equilibrium in which centrifugal forces due to a rotating mass (e.g., a propeller) do not produce force in the shaft and so vibration is reduced.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dynamic balance."
- He looked up "dynamic balance" because he had never seen it before.

---

ground substance (noun)

The body substance in which tissue cells are embedded.

- They discussed "ground substance" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ground substance" means with a simple example.

---

knee joint (noun)

Hinge joint in the human leg connecting the tibia and fibula with the femur and protected in front by the patella.

- The article explained what "knee joint" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "knee joint" to mean hinge joint in the human leg connecting the tibia....

---

lap (noun)

The upper side of the thighs of a seated person.

- He picked up the little girl and plopped her down in his lap.
- The job fell right in my lap.

---

nerve end (noun)

The terminal structure of an axon that does not end at a synapse.

- They discussed "nerve end" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "nerve end" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oral cancer (noun)

Malignant neoplasm of the lips of mouth; most common in men over the age of 60.

- Understanding "oral cancer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "oral cancer" during the group presentation.

---

packed cells (noun)

A preparation of blood cells separated from the liquid plasma.

- Packed cells are given to severely anemic patients in order to avoid overloading the circulatory system with too much fluid.
- The article explained what "packed cells" means with a simple example.

---

ram home (verb)

Make clear by special emphasis and try to convince somebody of something.

- Drive home a point or an argument.
- I'm trying to drive home these basic ideas.

---

shed blood (verb)

Lose blood from one's body.

- They will never stop shedding the blood of their enemies.
- She tried to use "shed blood" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

shoulder bone (noun)

Either of two flat triangular bones one on each side of the shoulder in human beings.

- Understanding "shoulder bone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "shoulder bone" during the group presentation.

---

slept (verb)

Be able to accommodate for sleeping.

- Learners should practice how to use "slept" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "slept" and when to wait.

---

trained nurse (noun)

Someone who has completed the course of study (including hospital practice) at a nurses training school.

- In class, the teacher used "trained nurse" to mean someone who has completed the course of study....
- He looked up "trained nurse" because he had never seen it before.

---

vital statistics (noun)

Data relating to births and deaths and health and diseases and marriages.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vital statistics."
- He looked up "vital statistics" because he had never seen it before.

---

water pollution (noun)

Pollution of the water in rivers and lakes.

- They discussed "water pollution" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "water pollution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air pollution (noun)

Pollution of the atmosphere.

- Air pollution reduced the visibility.
- Understanding "air pollution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bottom-feeding (adjective)

Of or relating to fish and marine life that feed on the bottom of a body of water.

- It is useful to describe something as "bottom-feeding" when it is of or relating to fish and marine life that feed on....
- A "bottom-feeding" approach may work better in this case.

---

chicken breast (noun)

Abnormal protrusion of the breastbone caused by rickets.

- In class, the teacher used "chicken breast" to mean abnormal protrusion of the breastbone caused by rickets.
- They discussed "chicken breast" during the group presentation.

---

chuck (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- Chuck the ball.
- Chuck these old notes.

dead duck (noun)

Something doomed to failure.

- He finally admitted that the legislation was a dead duck.
- The idea of another TV channel is now a dead duck.

diabetes (noun)

A polygenic disease characterized by abnormally high glucose levels in the blood; any of several metabolic disorders marked by excessive urination and persistent thirst.

- They discussed "diabetes" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "diabetes" to mean a polygenic disease characterized by abnormally....

external ear (noun)

The part of the ear visible externally.

- They discussed "external ear" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "external ear" because he had never seen it before.

gold fever (noun)

Greed and the contagious excitement of a gold rush.

- In class, the teacher used "gold fever" to mean greed and the contagious excitement of a gold rush.
- Understanding "gold fever" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jam (noun)

Informal terms for a difficult situation.

- In class, the teacher used "jam" to mean informal terms for a difficult situation.
- He looked up "jam" because he had never seen it before.

narrow-body aircraft (noun)

A commercial airliner with a single aisle.

- In class, the teacher used "narrow-body aircraft" to mean a commercial airliner with a single aisle.
- The article explained what "narrow-body aircraft" means with a simple example.

psychological condition (noun)

(psychology) a mental condition in which the qualities of a state are relatively constant even though the state itself may be dynamic.

- He looked up "psychological condition" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "psychological condition" to mean (psychology) a mental condition in which the....

united nations children's fund (noun)

An agency of the United Nations responsible for programs to aid education and the health of children and mothers in developing countries.

- They discussed "united nations children's fund" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "united nations children's fund" to mean an agency of the united nations responsible for....

acceptance (noun)

The state of being acceptable and accepted.

- Torn jeans received no acceptance at the country club.
- Acceptance of Newtonian mechanics was unquestioned for 200 years.

accidents (noun)

An unfortunate mishap; especially one causing damage or injury.

- In class, the teacher used "accidents" to mean an unfortunate mishap; especially one causing....
- He looked up "accidents" because he had never seen it before.

bull neck (noun)

A thick short powerful neck.

- He looked up "bull neck" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bull neck."

concentration camp (noun)

A situation characterized by crowding and extremely harsh conditions.

- In class, the teacher used "concentration camp" to mean a situation characterized by crowding and extremely....
- They discussed "concentration camp" during the group presentation.

---

inner ear (noun)

A complex system of interconnecting cavities; concerned with hearing and equilibrium.

- Understanding "inner ear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "inner ear" because he had never seen it before.

---

mps (noun)

A widely distributed system of free and fixed macrophages derived from bone marrow.

- In class, the teacher used "mps" to mean a widely distributed system of free and fixed....
- The article explained what "mps" means with a simple example.

---

muscle tone (noun)

Normal tonicity of the muscles.

- Exercise improves muscle tone.
- The article explained what "muscle tone" means with a simple example.

---

parliamentary law (noun)

A body of rules followed by an assembly.

- They discussed "parliamentary law" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "parliamentary law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pure absence (noun)

An absence seizure without other complications; followed by 3-per-sec brainwave spikes.

- The article explained what "pure absence" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pure absence."

---

reading clinic (noun)

A clinic for people with reading disabilities.

- Understanding "reading clinic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "reading clinic" means with a simple example.

---

registered nurse (noun)

A graduate nurse who has passed examinations for registration.

- The article explained what "registered nurse" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "registered nurse" to mean a graduate nurse who has passed examinations for....

---

rock fever (noun)

Infectious bacterial disease of human beings transmitted by contact with infected animals or infected meat or milk products; characterized by fever and headache.

- The article explained what "rock fever" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rock fever" to mean infectious bacterial disease of human beings....

---

sound pollution (noun)

Annoying and potentially harmful environmental noise.

- They discussed "sound pollution" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sound pollution" to mean annoying and potentially harmful environmental noise.

---

tier (noun)

A relative position or degree of value in a graded group.

- The sail is fastened to the yard with tiers.
- Tier upon tier of huge casks.

---

wet nurse (noun)

A woman hired to suckle a child of someone else.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wet nurse."

- He looked up “wet nurse” because he had never seen it before.

wet-nurse (noun)

A woman hired to suckle a child of someone else.

- Understanding “wet-nurse” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “wet-nurse” means with a simple example.

bow legs (noun)

Outward curvature of the legs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bow legs.”
- The article explained what “bow legs” means with a simple example.

costa (noun)

A riblike part of a plant or animal (such as a middle rib of a leaf or a thickened vein of an insect wing).

- He looked up “costa” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “costa.”

earthquake (noun)

A disturbance that is extremely disruptive.

- Selling the company caused an earthquake among the employees.
- They discussed “earthquake” during the group presentation.

eye clinic (noun)

A clinic where specialist care for a patient’s eyes.

- The article explained what “eye clinic” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “eye clinic” to mean a clinic where specialist care for a patient’s eyes.

false pregnancy (noun)

Physiological state in which a woman exhibits symptoms of pregnancy but is not pregnant.

- He looked up “false pregnancy” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “false pregnancy” to mean physiological state in which a woman exhibits....

graduate nurse (noun)

Someone who has completed the course of study (including hospital practice) at a nurses training school.

- In class, the teacher used “graduate nurse” to mean someone who has completed the course of study....
- The article explained what “graduate nurse” means with a simple example.

ill-equipped (adjective)

Poorly supplied with physical equipment.

- The school was ill-equipped.
- The speaker chose “ill-equipped” because it captured the feeling precisely.

in everyone’s thoughts (adverb)

On everybody’s mind.

- He answered “in everyone’s thoughts,” which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using “in everyone’s thoughts” can make your explanation more exact.

incidents (noun)

A public disturbance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “incidents.”
- Understanding “incidents” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

par (noun)

A state of being essentially equal or equivalent; equally balanced.

- On a par with the best.
- A par-5 hole.

rapid eye movement sleep (noun)

A recurring sleep state during which dreaming occurs; a state of rapidly shifting eye movements during sleep.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rapid eye movement sleep."
- They discussed "rapid eye movement sleep" during the group presentation.

---

responsibilities (noun)

The proper sphere or extent of your activities.

- Understanding "responsibilities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "responsibilities."

---

snake doctor (noun)

Slender-bodied non-stinging insect having iridescent wings that are outspread at rest; adults and nymphs feed on mosquitoes etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snake doctor."
- He looked up "snake doctor" because he had never seen it before.

---

toxic condition (noun)

The physiological state produced by a poison or other toxic substance.

- Understanding "toxic condition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "toxic condition" to mean the physiological state produced by a poison or....

---

bow leg (noun)

A leg bowed outward at the knee (or below the knee).

- In class, the teacher used "bow leg" to mean a leg bowed outward at the knee (or below the knee).
- He looked up "bow leg" because he had never seen it before.

---

brain fever (noun)

Meningitis caused by bacteria and often fatal.

- In class, the teacher used "brain fever" to mean meningitis caused by bacteria and often fatal.
- He looked up "brain fever" because he had never seen it before.

---

disorders (noun)

A condition in which things are not in their expected places.

- The article explained what "disorders" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "disorders" during the group presentation.

---

flows (noun)

The monthly discharge of blood from the uterus of nonpregnant women from puberty to menopause; ; –Hippocrates; –Aristotle.

- The article explained what "flows" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "flows" during the group presentation.

---

genes (noun)

(genetics) a segment of DNA that is involved in producing a polypeptide chain; it can include regions preceding and following the coding DNA as well as introns between the exons; it is considered a unit of heredity.

- Genes were formerly called factors.
- Understanding "genes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hurry (noun)

A condition of urgency making it necessary to hurry.

- In a hurry to lock the door.
- In class, the teacher used "hurry" to mean a condition of urgency making it necessary to hurry.

---

lakes (noun)

A body of (usually fresh) water surrounded by land.

- In class, the teacher used "lakes" to mean a body of (usually fresh) water surrounded by land.
- They discussed "lakes" during the group presentation.

---

leaf disease (noun)

Any plant disease localized in the foliage.

- He looked up “leaf disease” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “leaf disease” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

practical nurse (noun)

A nurse who has enough training to be licensed by a state to provide routine care for the sick.

- In class, the teacher used “practical nurse” to mean a nurse who has enough training to be licensed by a....
- The article explained what “practical nurse” means with a simple example.

---

psychological medicine (noun)

The branch of medicine dealing with the diagnosis and treatment of mental disorders.

- They discussed “psychological medicine” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “psychological medicine” means with a simple example.

---

texas fever (noun)

An infectious disease of cattle transmitted by the cattle tick.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “texas fever.”
- The article explained what “texas fever” means with a simple example.

---

toxic waste (noun)

Poisonous waste materials; can cause injury (especially by chemical means).

- The article explained what “toxic waste” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “toxic waste” to mean poisonous waste materials; can cause injury....

---

type i diabetes (noun)

Severe diabetes mellitus with an early onset; characterized by polyuria and excessive thirst and increased appetite and weight loss and episodic ketoacidosis; diet and insulin injections are required to control the disease.

- In class, the teacher used “type i diabetes” to mean severe diabetes mellitus with an early onset;....
- He looked up “type i diabetes” because he had never seen it before.

---

woman’s body (noun)

The body of an adult woman.

- He looked up “woman’s body” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “woman’s body” to mean the body of an adult woman.

---

end organ (noun)

A specialized structure at the peripheral end of some motor or sensory nerve fibers.

- Understanding “end organ” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “end organ” means with a simple example.

---

guilt (noun)

The state of having committed an offense.

- The article explained what “guilt” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “guilt” to mean the state of having committed an offense.

---

learning disability (noun)

A disorder found in children of normal intelligence who have difficulties in learning specific skills.

- In class, the teacher used “learning disability” to mean a disorder found in children of normal intelligence....
- Understanding “learning disability” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

low spirits (noun)

A state of mild depression.

- In class, the teacher used “low spirits” to mean a state of mild depression.
- He looked up “low spirits” because he had never seen it before.

---

self-determination (noun)

Government of a political unit by its own people.

- In class, the teacher used “self-determination” to mean government of a political unit by its own people.
- The article explained what “self-determination” means with a simple example.

sweat off (verb)

Lose weight by sweating.

- I sweated off 3 pounds in the sauna.
- Can you use "sweat off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

tongue tie (noun)

A congenital anomaly in which the mucous membrane under the tongue is too short limiting the mobility of the tongue.

- He looked up "tongue tie" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tongue tie" to mean a congenital anomaly in which the mucous membrane....

beta cell (noun)

A cell that produces insulin in the isles of Langerhans in the pancreas.

- Understanding "beta cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "beta cell" to mean a cell that produces insulin in the isles of....

bull nose (noun)

A disease of pigs resulting in swelling of the snout.

- In class, the teacher used "bull nose" to mean a disease of pigs resulting in swelling of the snout.
- Understanding "bull nose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

compound eye (noun)

In insects and some crustaceans: composed of many light-sensitive elements each forming a portion of an image.

- In class, the teacher used "compound eye" to mean in insects and some crustaceans: composed of many....
- The article explained what "compound eye" means with a simple example.

conversion reaction (noun)

A mental disorder characterized by the conversion of mental conflict into somatic forms (into paralysis or anesthesia having no apparent cause).

- They discussed "conversion reaction" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conversion reaction."

delta (noun)

A low triangular area of alluvial deposits where a river divides before entering a larger body of water.

- The Mississippi River delta.
- The Nile delta.

disability of walking (noun)

A disability that interferes with or prevents walking.

- Understanding "disability of walking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disability of walking."

heal (verb)

Provide a cure for, make healthy again.

- The quack pretended to heal patients but never managed to.
- The wound is healing slowly.

immune system (noun)

A system (including the thymus and bone marrow and lymphoid tissues) that protects the body from foreign substances and pathogenic organisms by producing the immune response.

- He looked up "immune system" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "immune system."

leaf cast (noun)

A disease of conifers causing the needles to fall.

- The article explained what "leaf cast" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leaf cast."

sand crack (noun)

A fissure in the wall of a horse's hoof often causing lameness.

- He looked up "sand crack" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sand crack."

---

shell shock (noun)

A mental disorder caused by stress of active warfare.

- In class, the teacher used "shell shock" to mean a mental disorder caused by stress of active warfare.
- The article explained what "shell shock" means with a simple example.

---

smooth muscle (noun)

A muscle that contracts without conscious control and found in walls of internal organs such as stomach and intestine and bladder and blood vessels (excluding the heart).

- The article explained what "smooth muscle" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smooth muscle."

---

triple crown (noun)

(horse racing) a title won by a horse that can win the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont Stakes and the Preakness.

- They discussed "triple crown" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "triple crown" because he had never seen it before.

---

visiting nurse (noun)

A nurse who is paid to visit the sick in their homes.

- Understanding "visiting nurse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visiting nurse."

---

bankruptcy (noun)

A state of complete lack of some abstract property.

- Spiritual bankruptcy.
- Moral bankruptcy.

---

birth canal (noun)

A passage in the uterus and vagina through which a fetus passes during vaginal birth.

- In class, the teacher used "birth canal" to mean a passage in the uterus and vagina through which a....
- Understanding "birth canal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cancer of the liver (noun)

Malignant neoplastic disease of the liver usually occurring as a metastasis from another cancer; symptoms include loss of appetite and weakness and bloating and jaundice and upper abdominal discomfort.

- Understanding "cancer of the liver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cancer of the liver."

---

canon (noun)

A rule or especially body of rules or principles generally established as valid and fundamental in a field or art or philosophy.

- The neoclassical canon.
- Canons of polite society.

---

capabilities (noun)

The susceptibility of something to a particular treatment.

- He looked up "capabilities" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capabilities."

---

health profession (noun)

The body of individuals whose work helps to maintain the health of their clients.

- In class, the teacher used "health profession" to mean the body of individuals whose work helps to....
- They discussed "health profession" during the group presentation.

---

hurting (noun)

A symptom of some physical hurt or disorder.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hurting."

- They discussed "hurting" during the group presentation.

ill-usage (noun)

Cruel or inhumane treatment.

- They discussed "ill-usage" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ill-usage."

lens of the eye (noun)

Biconvex transparent body situated behind the iris in the eye; its role (along with the cornea) is to focuses light on the retina.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lens of the eye."
- The article explained what "lens of the eye" means with a simple example.

liver cancer (noun)

Malignant neoplastic disease of the liver usually occurring as a metastasis from another cancer; symptoms include loss of appetite and weakness and bloating and jaundice and upper abdominal discomfort.

- He looked up "liver cancer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liver cancer."

locally (adverb)

To a restricted area of the body.

- It was locally decided.
- She spoke "locally," and the audience immediately understood her point.

nerve cell (noun)

A cell that is specialized to conduct nerve impulses.

- Understanding "nerve cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "nerve cell" during the group presentation.

oxygen debt (noun)

A cumulative deficit of oxygen resulting from intense exercise; the deficit must be made up when the body returns to rest.

- The article explained what "oxygen debt" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "oxygen debt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

personality disorder (noun)

Inflexible and maladaptive patterns of behavior.

- Understanding "personality disorder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "personality disorder" during the group presentation.

restoration (noun)

The state of being restored to its former good condition.

- The restoration looked exactly like the original.
- He looked up "restoration" because he had never seen it before.

stephen foster (noun)

United States songwriter whose songs embody the sentiment of the South before the American Civil War (1826-1864).

- He looked up "stephen foster" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stephen foster."

touch perception (noun)

The faculty of perceiving (via the skin) pressure or heat or pain.

- He looked up "touch perception" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "touch perception."

wasting (noun)

A decrease in size of an organ caused by disease or disuse.

- The article explained what "wasting" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wasting" during the group presentation.

citizenship (noun)

The status of a citizen with rights and duties.

- Award for good citizenship.
- In class, the teacher used "citizenship" to mean the status of a citizen with rights and duties.

clinical psychology (noun)

The branch of psychology concerned with the treatment of abnormal mentation and behavior.

- In class, the teacher used "clinical psychology" to mean the branch of psychology concerned with the....
- They discussed "clinical psychology" during the group presentation.

consensus (noun)

Agreement in the judgment or opinion reached by a group as a whole.

- The lack of consensus reflected differences in theoretical positions.
- Those rights and obligations are based on an unstated consensus.

doctor-patient relation (noun)

The responsibility of a physician to act in the best interests of the patient.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "doctor-patient relation."
- The article explained what "doctor-patient relation" means with a simple example.

eternal life (noun)

Life without beginning or end.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eternal life."
- He looked up "eternal life" because he had never seen it before.

fig out (verb)

Put on special clothes to appear particularly appealing and attractive.

- She tried to use "fig out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "fig out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

fig up (verb)

Put on special clothes to appear particularly appealing and attractive.

- Can you use "fig up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "fig up" carefully so everyone would understand.

governing body (noun)

The persons (or committees or departments etc.) who make up a body for the purpose of administering something.

- The article explained what "governing body" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "governing body."

heart valve (noun)

A valve to control one-way flow of blood.

- Understanding "heart valve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heart valve."

informed consent (noun)

Consent by a patient to undergo a medical or surgical treatment or to participate in an experiment after the patient understands the risks involved.

- Understanding "informed consent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "informed consent."

les (noun)

A chronic inflammatory collagen disease affecting connective tissue (skin or joints).

- In class, the teacher used "les" to mean a chronic inflammatory collagen disease affecting....
- The article explained what "les" means with a simple example.

life eternal (noun)

Life without beginning or end.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "life eternal."
- He looked up "life eternal" because he had never seen it before.

---

little potato (noun)

Rhizoctinia disease of potatoes.

- They discussed "little potato" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little potato."

---

liver disease (noun)

A disease affecting the liver.

- He looked up "liver disease" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "liver disease" to mean a disease affecting the liver.

---

liver spot (noun)

A type of skin disease that causes brown spots on the skin.

- In class, the teacher used "liver spot" to mean a type of skin disease that causes brown spots on....
- He looked up "liver spot" because he had never seen it before.

---

lung (noun)

Either of two saclike respiratory organs in the chest of vertebrates; serves to remove carbon dioxide and provide oxygen to the blood.

- In class, the teacher used "lung" to mean either of two saclike respiratory organs in the....
- They discussed "lung" during the group presentation.

---

mountain fever (noun)

Caused by rickettsial bacteria and transmitted by wood ticks.

- The article explained what "mountain fever" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mountain fever" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

packed cell volume (noun)

The ratio of the volume occupied by packed red blood cells to the volume of the whole blood as measured by a hematocrit.

- Understanding "packed cell volume" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "packed cell volume" to mean the ratio of the volume occupied by packed red....

---

raw throat (noun)

Inflammation of the fauces and pharynx.

- In class, the teacher used "raw throat" to mean inflammation of the fauces and pharynx.
- Understanding "raw throat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sense organ (noun)

An organ having nerve endings (in the skin or viscera or eye or ear or nose or mouth) that respond to stimulation.

- They discussed "sense organ" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sense organ."

---

sex organ (noun)

Any organ involved in sexual reproduction.

- The article explained what "sex organ" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sex organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

soul patch (noun)

A small patch of facial hair just below the lower lip and above the chin.

- The article explained what "soul patch" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "soul patch" to mean a small patch of facial hair just below the lower....

---

surveillance of disease (noun)

The ongoing systematic collection and analysis of data about an infectious disease that can lead to action being taken to control or prevent the disease.

- In class, the teacher used "surveillance of disease" to mean the ongoing systematic collection and analysis of....

- The article explained what "surveillance of disease" means with a simple example.

tail bone (noun)

The end of the vertebral column in humans and tailless apes.

- Understanding "tail bone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tail bone" means with a simple example.

valley fever (noun)

An infection of the lungs and skin characterized by excessive sputum and nodules.

- The article explained what "valley fever" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "valley fever" to mean an infection of the lungs and skin characterized by....

wasting away (noun)

A decrease in size of an organ caused by disease or disuse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wasting away."
- Understanding "wasting away" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

williams syndrome (noun)

A rare congenital disorder associated with deletion of genetic material in chromosome 7; characterized by mental deficiency and some growth deficiency and elfin faces but an overly social personality and a remarkable gift for vocabulary.

- The article explained what "williams syndrome" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "williams syndrome" to mean a rare congenital disorder associated with deletion....

x-linked gene (noun)

A gene located on an X chromosome.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "x-linked gene."
- He looked up "x-linked gene" because he had never seen it before.

canon law (noun)

The body of codified laws governing the affairs of a Christian church.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canon law."
- He looked up "canon law" because he had never seen it before.

community of scholars (noun)

The body of individuals holding advanced academic degrees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "community of scholars."
- The article explained what "community of scholars" means with a simple example.

diplomatic service (noun)

The body of diplomatic personnel.

- They discussed "diplomatic service" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "diplomatic service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

disagree with (verb)

Not be very easily digestible.

- Spicy food disagrees with some people.
- The coach explained when to use "disagree with" and when to wait.

electoral college (noun)

The body of electors who formally elect the United States president and vice president.

- Understanding "electoral college" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "electoral college" means with a simple example.

medical profession (noun)

The body of individuals who are qualified to practice medicine.

- They discussed "medical profession" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "medical profession" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mentally ill (adjective)

Suffering from severe mental illness.

- A "mentally ill" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "mentally ill" when it is suffering from severe mental illness.

pleasure-pain principle (noun)

(psychoanalysis) the governing principle of the id; the principle that an infant seeks gratification and fails to distinguish fantasy from reality.

- He looked up "pleasure-pain principle" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pleasure-pain principle" to mean (psychoanalysis) the governing principle of the id;....

poverty trap (noun)

A situation in which an increase in income results in a loss of benefits so that you are no better off.

- He looked up "poverty trap" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "poverty trap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sentenced (verb)

Pronounce a sentence on (somebody) in a court of law.

- He did not know how to use "sentenced" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "sentenced" in real sentences.

skull (noun)

The bony skeleton of the head of vertebrates.

- The article explained what "skull" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "skull" during the group presentation.

solid body substance (noun)

The solid parts of the body.

- The article explained what "solid body substance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "solid body substance" to mean the solid parts of the body.

tunnel vision (noun)

Visual impairment involving a loss of peripheral vision.

- Understanding "tunnel vision" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tunnel vision" means with a simple example.

visual disorder (noun)

Impairment of the sense of sight.

- He looked up "visual disorder" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "visual disorder" to mean impairment of the sense of sight.

vocal band (noun)

Either of two pairs of folds of mucous membrane projecting into the larynx.

- He looked up "vocal band" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vocal band."

woman's doctor (noun)

A specialist in gynecology.

- The article explained what "woman's doctor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "woman's doctor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

y-linked gene (noun)

A gene located on a Y chromosome.

- Understanding "y-linked gene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "y-linked gene" because he had never seen it before.

yellow fever (noun)

Caused by a flavivirus transmitted by a mosquito.

- In class, the teacher used "yellow fever" to mean caused by a flavivirus transmitted by a mosquito.
- The article explained what "yellow fever" means with a simple example.

---

allegations (noun)

(law) a formal accusation against somebody (often in a court of law).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "allegations."
- Understanding "allegations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

back tooth (noun)

A tooth situated at the back of the mouth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "back tooth."
- Understanding "back tooth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black lung (noun)

Lung disease caused by inhaling coal dust.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black lung."
- They discussed "black lung" during the group presentation.

---

bleeding (noun)

The flow of blood from a ruptured blood vessel.

- He looked up "bleeding" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bleeding" during the group presentation.

---

book lung (noun)

Organ in many arachnids containing many thin folds of membrane resembling the leaves of a book.

- The article explained what "book lung" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book lung."

---

celebrities (noun)

The state or quality of being widely honored and acclaimed.

- They discussed "celebrities" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "celebrities" to mean the state or quality of being widely honored and....

---

eternal rest (noun)

Euphemisms for death (based on an analogy between lying in a bed and in a tomb).

- She was laid to rest beside her husband.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eternal rest."

---

guilt by association (noun)

The attribution of guilt (without proof) to individuals because the people they associate with are guilty.

- The article explained what "guilt by association" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "guilt by association" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ill humor (noun)

An angry and disagreeable mood.

- Understanding "ill humor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ill humor" means with a simple example.

---

legal profession (noun)

The body of individuals qualified to practice law in a particular jurisdiction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal profession."
- He looked up "legal profession" because he had never seen it before.

---

minimal art (noun)

An art movement in sculpture and painting that began in the 1950s and emphasized extreme simplification of form and color.

- He looked up "minimal art" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "minimal art" to mean an art movement in sculpture and painting that....

nurse log (noun)

A large decomposing tree trunk that has fallen, usually in a forest; the decaying wood provides moisture and nutrients for a variety of insects and plants.

- They discussed "nurse log" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "nurse log" because he had never seen it before.

repairs (noun)

A formal way of referring to the condition of something.

- Understanding "repairs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "repairs" means with a simple example.

seventh heaven (noun)

A state of extreme happiness.

- In class, the teacher used "seventh heaven" to mean a state of extreme happiness.
- They discussed "seventh heaven" during the group presentation.

sex-linked disorder (noun)

Any disease or abnormality that is determined by the sex hormones.

- Understanding "sex-linked disorder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sex-linked disorder" because he had never seen it before.

sick parade (noun)

The daily military formation at which individuals report to the medical officer as sick.

- They discussed "sick parade" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sick parade."

take a leak (verb)

Eliminate urine.

- He did not know how to use "take a leak" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "take a leak" when talking about this idea.

type ii diabetes (noun)

Mild form of diabetes mellitus that develops gradually in adults; can be precipitated by obesity or severe stress or menopause or other factors; can usually be controlled by diet and hypoglycemic agents without injections of insulin.

- The article explained what "type ii diabetes" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "type ii diabetes."

white lung (noun)

Acute lung injury characterized by coughing and rales; inflammation of the lungs which become stiff and fibrous and cannot exchange oxygen; occurs among persons exposed to irritants such as corrosive chemical vapors or ammonia or chlorine etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white lung."
- He looked up "white lung" because he had never seen it before.

william blake (noun)

Visionary British poet and painter (1757-1827).

- He looked up "william blake" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "william blake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

william harvey (noun)

English physician and scientist who described the circulation of the blood; he later proposed that all animals originate from an ovum produced by the female of the species (1578-1657).

- He looked up "william harvey" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "william harvey."

anxiety disorder (noun)

A cover term for a variety of mental disorders in which severe anxiety is a salient symptom.

- In class, the teacher used "anxiety disorder" to mean a cover term for a variety of mental disorders in....
- He looked up "anxiety disorder" because he had never seen it before.

body servant (noun)

A valet or personal maid.

- The article explained what "body servant" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "body servant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capability (noun)

The susceptibility of something to a particular treatment.

- The capability of a metal to be fused.
- He worked to the limits of his capability.

chiefs (noun)

A person who exercises control over workers.

- Understanding "chiefs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chiefs."

copper nose (noun)

Enlargement of the nose with dilation of follicles and redness and prominent vascularity of the skin; often associated with excessive consumption of alcohol.

- Understanding "copper nose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "copper nose" means with a simple example.

health care provider (noun)

A person who helps in identifying or preventing or treating illness or disability.

- In class, the teacher used "health care provider" to mean a person who helps in identifying or preventing or....
- Understanding "health care provider" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hot potato (noun)

A difficult situation.

- He dropped the topic like a hot potato.
- In class, the teacher used "hot potato" to mean a difficult situation.

ill-advised (adjective)

Without careful prior deliberation or counsel.

- Ill-advised efforts.
- It would be ill-advised to accept the offer.

matrix (noun)

The formative tissue at the base of a nail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matrix."
- Understanding "matrix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

moving ridge (noun)

One of a series of ridges that moves across the surface of a liquid (especially across a large body of water).

- They discussed "moving ridge" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "moving ridge" because he had never seen it before.

nerve ending (noun)

The terminal structure of an axon that does not end at a synapse.

- They discussed "nerve ending" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "nerve ending" means with a simple example.

patent medicine (noun)

Medicine that is protected by a patent and available without a doctor's prescription.

- Understanding "patent medicine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "patent medicine" because he had never seen it before.

phd (noun)

A doctorate usually based on at least 3 years graduate study and a dissertation; the highest degree awarded graduate study.

- He looked up "phd" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "phd" during the group presentation.

---

ski conditions (noun)

The amount and state of snow for skiing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ski conditions."
- Understanding "ski conditions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stretch forth (verb)

Thrust or extend out.

- Learners should practice how to use "stretch forth" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "stretch forth" when talking about this idea.

---

submission (noun)

The condition of having submitted to control by someone or something else.

- The union was brought into submission.
- His submission to the will of God.

---

tropical medicine (noun)

The branch of medicine that deals with the diagnosis and treatment of diseases that are found most often in tropical regions.

- Understanding "tropical medicine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tropical medicine" because he had never seen it before.

---

virus infection (noun)

Infection by a virus that is pathogenic to humans.

- In class, the teacher used "virus infection" to mean infection by a virus that is pathogenic to humans.
- Understanding "virus infection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

aviation medicine (noun)

The study and treatment of disorders associated with flight (especially with space flight).

- They discussed "aviation medicine" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "aviation medicine" because he had never seen it before.

---

big toe (noun)

The first largest innermost toe.

- In class, the teacher used "big toe" to mean the first largest innermost toe.
- The article explained what "big toe" means with a simple example.

---

cell organ (noun)

A specialized part of a cell; analogous to an organ.

- The first organelle to be identified was the nucleus.
- They discussed "cell organ" during the group presentation.

---

cheer up (verb)

Cause (somebody) to feel happier or more cheerful.

- She tried to cheer up the disappointed child when he failed to win the spelling bee.
- Learners should practice how to use "cheer up" in real sentences.

---

deficit (noun)

A deficiency or failure in neurological or mental functioning.

- The people concerned have a deficit in verbal memory.
- They have serious linguistic deficits.

---

doll up (verb)

Use special care in dressing, making-up, etc.

- She dolled herself up for the night out with her friends.

- The coach explained when to use “doll up” and when to wait.

---

drug addiction (noun)

An addiction to a drug (especially a narcotic drug).

- They discussed “drug addiction” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “drug addiction.”

---

eternal sleep (noun)

Euphemisms for death (based on an analogy between lying in a bed and in a tomb).

- They had to put their family pet to sleep.
- Understanding “eternal sleep” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

facial hair (noun)

Hair on the face (especially on the face of a man).

- He looked up “facial hair” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “facial hair.”

---

foster-nurse (noun)

A nurse who raises another woman’s child as her own.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “foster-nurse.”
- Understanding “foster-nurse” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

free nerve ending (noun)

Microscopic sensory nerve endings in the skin that are not connected to any specific sensory receptor.

- They discussed “free nerve ending” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “free nerve ending” means with a simple example.

---

great toe (noun)

The first largest innermost toe.

- The article explained what “great toe” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “great toe” to mean the first largest innermost toe.

---

industrial air pollution (noun)

Pollution resulting from an industrial plant discharging pollutants into the atmosphere.

- They discussed “industrial air pollution” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “industrial air pollution” means with a simple example.

---

law merchant (noun)

The body of rules applied to commercial transactions; derived from the practices of traders rather than from jurisprudence.

- In class, the teacher used “law merchant” to mean the body of rules applied to commercial....
- The article explained what “law merchant” means with a simple example.

---

lie awake (verb)

Lie without sleeping.

- She was so worried, she lay awake all night long.
- In everyday English, people use “lie awake” when talking about this idea.

---

little toe (noun)

The fifth smallest outermost toe.

- In class, the teacher used “little toe” to mean the fifth smallest outermost toe.
- The article explained what “little toe” means with a simple example.

---

organ of hearing (noun)

The part of the ear that is responsible for sensations of sound.

- He looked up “organ of hearing” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “organ of hearing” during the group presentation.

---

organ of speech (noun)

Any of the organs involved in speech production.

- He looked up "organ of speech" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "organ of speech" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

philip ii of spain (noun)

King of Spain and Portugal and husband of Mary I; he supported the Counter Reformation and sent the Spanish Armada to invade England (1527-1598).

- In class, the teacher used "philip ii of spain" to mean king of spain and portugal and husband of mary i;....
- The article explained what "philip ii of spain" means with a simple example.

priorities (noun)

Status established in order of importance or urgency.

- In class, the teacher used "priorities" to mean status established in order of importance or urgency.
- They discussed "priorities" during the group presentation.

q fever (noun)

An acute disease resembling influenza.

- The article explained what "q fever" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "q fever" to mean an acute disease resembling influenza.

raw wound (noun)

A wound that exposes subcutaneous tissue.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "raw wound."
- They discussed "raw wound" during the group presentation.

rod cell (noun)

A visual receptor cell that is sensitive to dim light.

- They discussed "rod cell" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rod cell" to mean a visual receptor cell that is sensitive to dim light.

soft-soap (verb)

Use flattering talk on somebody.

- Learners should practice how to use "soft-soap" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "soft-soap" when talking about this idea.

speech organ (noun)

Any of the organs involved in speech production.

- They discussed "speech organ" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "speech organ."

target organ (noun)

(radiology) organ intended to receive the therapeutic dose of a radioactive substance.

- Understanding "target organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "target organ" because he had never seen it before.

tissue layer (noun)

A pliable sheet of tissue that covers or lines or connects the organs or cells of animals or plants.

- In class, the teacher used "tissue layer" to mean a pliable sheet of tissue that covers or lines or....
- He looked up "tissue layer" because he had never seen it before.

abstract artist (noun)

A painter of abstract pictures.

- They discussed "abstract artist" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "abstract artist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

baby tooth (noun)

One of the first temporary teeth of a young mammal (one of 20 in children).

- Understanding "baby tooth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "baby tooth" because he had never seen it before.

---

basketball clinic (noun)

A meeting at which basketball players receive special evaluation and instruction.

- They discussed "basketball clinic" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "basketball clinic" to mean a meeting at which basketball players receive....

---

birth trauma (noun)

Physical injury to an infant during the birth process.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "birth trauma."
- They discussed "birth trauma" during the group presentation.

---

blood-brain barrier (noun)

A mechanism that creates a barrier between brain tissues and circulating blood; serves to protect the central nervous system.

- The brain was protected from the large molecules of the virus by the blood-brain barrier.
- In class, the teacher used "blood-brain barrier" to mean a mechanism that creates a barrier between brain....

---

brass (noun)

The persons (or committees or departments etc.) who make up a body for the purpose of administering something.

- They discussed "brass" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brass."

---

crop failure (noun)

The failure of crops to produce a marketable surplus.

- In class, the teacher used "crop failure" to mean the failure of crops to produce a marketable surplus.
- He looked up "crop failure" because he had never seen it before.

---

ear specialist (noun)

A physician who specializes in the ear and its diseases.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ear specialist."
- The article explained what "ear specialist" means with a simple example.

---

front tooth (noun)

A tooth situated at the front of the mouth.

- The article explained what "front tooth" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "front tooth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

group ab (noun)

The blood group whose red cells carry both the A and B antigens.

- He looked up "group ab" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "group ab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

organic disorder (noun)

Disorder caused by a detectable physiological or structural change in an organ.

- They discussed "organic disorder" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "organic disorder" because he had never seen it before.

---

penis (noun)

The male organ of copulation ('member' is a euphemism).

- The article explained what "penis" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "penis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

potato disease (noun)

A blight of potatoes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "potato disease."
- They discussed "potato disease" during the group presentation.

shipping fever (noun)

A deadly form of septicemia in cattle and sheep; involves high fever and pneumonia; contracted under conditions of exposure or exhaustion (as often happens when the animals are shipped to market).

- In class, the teacher used "shipping fever" to mean a deadly form of septicemia in cattle and sheep;...
- The article explained what "shipping fever" means with a simple example.

slim down (verb)

Take off weight.

- In everyday English, people use "slim down" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "slim down" in real sentences.

smooth muscle cell (noun)

Cells of the smooth muscles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smooth muscle cell."
- He looked up "smooth muscle cell" because he had never seen it before.

strip alert (noun)

A state of readiness for domestic defense aircraft.

- The Air Force will keep fighters on strip alert at bases around the country.
- Understanding "strip alert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wasting disease (noun)

Involving the lungs with progressive wasting of the body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wasting disease."
- Understanding "wasting disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

witch doctor (noun)

Someone who is believed to heal through magical powers.

- Understanding "witch doctor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "witch doctor."

baseball clinic (noun)

A meeting at which baseball players receive special evaluation and instruction.

- A summer baseball clinic for promising young players.
- He looked up "baseball clinic" because he had never seen it before.

cum (noun)

The thick white fluid containing spermatozoa that is ejaculated by the male genital tract.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cum."
- He looked up "cum" because he had never seen it before.

drop like flies (verb)

Rapidly collapse, die, or drop out in large numbers.

- The contestants dropped like flies when the thermometer hit one hundred degrees.
- Can you use "drop like flies" in a sentence that fits this situation?

grey substance (noun)

Greyish nervous tissue containing cell bodies as well as fibers; forms the cerebral cortex consisting of unmyelinated neurons.

- They discussed "grey substance" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grey substance."

knock-knee (noun)

An inward slant of the thigh.

- Understanding "knock-knee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "knock-knee" means with a simple example.

lung cancer (noun)

Carcinoma of the lungs; one of the commonest forms of cancer.

- He looked up "lung cancer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lung cancer."

---

martial law (noun)

The body of law imposed by the military over civilian affairs (usually in time of war or civil crisis); overrides civil law.

- He looked up "martial law" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "martial law" to mean the body of law imposed by the military over....

---

noise pollution (noun)

Annoying and potentially harmful environmental noise.

- In class, the teacher used "noise pollution" to mean annoying and potentially harmful environmental noise.
- He looked up "noise pollution" because he had never seen it before.

---

operator gene (noun)

A gene that activates the production of messenger RNA by adjacent structural genes.

- The article explained what "operator gene" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "operator gene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pit of the stomach (noun)

A slight depression in the midline just below the sternum (where a blow can affect the solar plexus).

- He looked up "pit of the stomach" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pit of the stomach" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

smells (noun)

The general atmosphere of a place or situation and the effect that it has on people.

- Understanding "smells" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smells."

---

strengthen (verb)

Give a healthy elasticity to.

- This exercise will strengthen your upper body.
- Strengthen the relations between the two countries.

---

top brass (noun)

The most important persons in a governing body.

- He looked up "top brass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "top brass."

---

yelling (noun)

Uttering a loud inarticulate cry as of pain or excitement.

- In class, the teacher used "yelling" to mean uttering a loud inarticulate cry as of pain or....
- The article explained what "yelling" means with a simple example.

---

case-to-infection ratio (noun)

The number of cases of a disease divided by the number of infections with the agent that causes the disease.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "case-to-infection ratio."
- He looked up "case-to-infection ratio" because he had never seen it before.

---

chemical diabetes (noun)

A mild form of diabetes mellitus in which there are no overt symptoms but there are abnormal responses to some diagnostic procedures.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chemical diabetes."
- The article explained what "chemical diabetes" means with a simple example.

---

eye tooth (noun)

One of the four pointed conical teeth (two in each jaw) located between the incisors and the premolars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eye tooth."

- He looked up “eye tooth” because he had never seen it before.

financial obligation (noun)

An obligation to pay money to another party.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “financial obligation.”
- They discussed “financial obligation” during the group presentation.

genetic disorder (noun)

A disease or disorder that is inherited genetically.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “genetic disorder.”
- The article explained what “genetic disorder” means with a simple example.

god’s wisdom (noun)

The omniscience of a divine being.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “god’s wisdom.”
- They discussed “god’s wisdom” during the group presentation.

gray substance (noun)

Greyish nervous tissue containing cell bodies as well as fibers; forms the cerebral cortex consisting of unmyelinated neurons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gray substance.”
- He looked up “gray substance” because he had never seen it before.

identifying (verb)

Consider (oneself) as similar to somebody else.

- She tried to use “identifying” carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use “identifying” when talking about this idea.

internal organ (noun)

A main organ that is situated inside the body.

- In class, the teacher used “internal organ” to mean a main organ that is situated inside the body.
- They discussed “internal organ” during the group presentation.

iron cage (noun)

A cage from which there is no escape.

- Understanding “iron cage” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “iron cage” during the group presentation.

kidney (noun)

Either of two bean-shaped excretory organs that filter wastes (especially urea) from the blood and excrete them and water in urine.

- Urine passes out of the kidney through ureters to the bladder.
- Understanding “kidney” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

motor nerve (noun)

A nerve that conveys impulses toward or to muscles or glands.

- The article explained what “motor nerve” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “motor nerve.”

orbit (noun)

A particular environment or walk of life.

- He’s out of my orbit.
- He plotted the orbit of the moon.

outer ear (noun)

The part of the ear visible externally.

- The article explained what “outer ear” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “outer ear” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

peninsula (noun)

A large mass of land projecting into a body of water.

- The article explained what “peninsula” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “peninsula” during the group presentation.

provinces (noun)

The proper sphere or extent of your activities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “provinces.”
- He looked up “provinces” because he had never seen it before.

pulse rate (noun)

The rate at which the heart beats; usually measured to obtain a quick evaluation of a person’s health.

- They discussed “pulse rate” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “pulse rate” to mean the rate at which the heart beats; usually measured....

tires (verb)

Lose interest or become bored with something or somebody.

- He did not know how to use “tires” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “tires” and when to wait.

toxic industrial waste (noun)

Poisonous waste materials; can cause injury (especially by chemical means).

- In class, the teacher used “toxic industrial waste” to mean poisonous waste materials; can cause injury....
- Understanding “toxic industrial waste” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

trunk (noun)

The body excluding the head and neck and limbs.

- He put his golf bag in the trunk.
- In class, the teacher used “trunk” to mean the body excluding the head and neck and limbs.

type ab (noun)

The blood group whose red cells carry both the A and B antigens.

- They discussed “type ab” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “type ab” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

vampire (noun)

(folklore) a corpse that rises at night to drink the blood of the living.

- In class, the teacher used “vampire” to mean (folklore) a corpse that rises at night to drink....
- The article explained what “vampire” means with a simple example.

black lung disease (noun)

Lung disease caused by inhaling coal dust.

- They discussed “black lung disease” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “black lung disease” means with a simple example.

cleaned (verb)

Clean one’s body or parts thereof, as by washing.

- The dentist cleaned my teeth.
- The other players cleaned him completely.

convenience (noun)

The state of being suitable or opportune.

- Chairs arranged for his own convenience.
- They offered the convenience of an installment plan.

dental medicine (noun)

The branch of medicine dealing with the anatomy and development and diseases of the teeth.

- In class, the teacher used “dental medicine” to mean the branch of medicine dealing with the anatomy and....
- The article explained what “dental medicine” means with a simple example.

---

equation (noun)

A state of being essentially equal or equivalent; equally balanced.

- In class, the teacher used “equation” to mean a state of being essentially equal or equivalent;....
- Understanding “equation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fusion (noun)

The state of being combined into one body.

- In class, the teacher used “fusion” to mean the state of being combined into one body.
- Understanding “fusion” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gut (noun)

The part of the alimentary canal between the stomach and the anus.

- In class, the teacher used “gut” to mean the part of the alimentary canal between the....
- The article explained what “gut” means with a simple example.

---

mask of pregnancy (noun)

A tan discoloration of a woman’s face that is associated with pregnancy or with the use of oral contraceptives.

- He looked up “mask of pregnancy” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “mask of pregnancy” to mean a tan discoloration of a woman’s face that is....

---

nerves (noun)

An uneasy psychological state.

- He suffered an attack of nerves.
- This kind of tension is not good for my nerves.

---

primary tooth (noun)

One of the first temporary teeth of a young mammal (one of 20 in children).

- In class, the teacher used “primary tooth” to mean one of the first temporary teeth of a young mammal....
- He looked up “primary tooth” because he had never seen it before.

---

ruins (noun)

An irrecoverable state of devastation and destruction.

- They explored several Roman ruins.
- The article explained what “ruins” means with a simple example.

---

shoulder blade (noun)

Either of two flat triangular bones one on each side of the shoulder in human beings.

- Understanding “shoulder blade” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “shoulder blade.”

---

spend a penny (verb)

Eliminate urine.

- He did not know how to use “spend a penny” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “spend a penny” in real sentences.

---

tire (verb)

Lose interest or become bored with something or somebody.

- I’m so tired of your mother and her complaints about my food.
- The coach explained when to use “tire” and when to wait.

---

tire out (verb)

Exhaust or get tired through overuse or great strain or stress.

- We wore ourselves out on this hike.
- She tried to use “tire out” carefully so everyone would understand.

tooth doctor (noun)

A person qualified to practice dentistry.

- They discussed "tooth doctor" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tooth doctor" because he had never seen it before.

alcohol addiction (noun)

Habitual intoxication; prolonged and excessive intake of alcoholic drinks leading to a breakdown in health and an addiction to alcohol such that abrupt deprivation leads to severe withdrawal symptoms.

- The article explained what "alcohol addiction" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "alcohol addiction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cat scratch disease (noun)

A disease thought to be transmitted to humans by a scratch from a cat.

- In class, the teacher used "cat scratch disease" to mean a disease thought to be transmitted to humans by a....
- The article explained what "cat scratch disease" means with a simple example.

cease-fire (noun)

A state of peace agreed to between opponents so they can discuss peace terms.

- Understanding "cease-fire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cease-fire" to mean a state of peace agreed to between opponents so....

deputy sheriff (noun)

Someone authorized to exercise the powers of sheriff in emergencies.

- Understanding "deputy sheriff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "deputy sheriff" during the group presentation.

ear canal (noun)

Either of the passages in the outer ear from the auricle to the tympanic membrane.

- The article explained what "ear canal" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ear canal" during the group presentation.

fever pitch (noun)

A state of extreme excitement.

- The crowd was at fever pitch.
- In class, the teacher used "fever pitch" to mean a state of extreme excitement.

ill-fitting (adjective)

Not the right size or shape.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ill-fitting."
- Students compared "ill-fitting" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

massage (verb)

Manually manipulate (someone's body), usually for medicinal or relaxation purposes.

- She massaged his sore back.
- He did not know how to use "massage" until he saw an example.

newcastle disease (noun)

Disease of domestic fowl and other birds.

- He looked up "newcastle disease" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "newcastle disease" to mean disease of domestic fowl and other birds.

preservation (noun)

The condition of being (well or ill) preserved.

- In class, the teacher used "preservation" to mean the condition of being (well or ill) preserved.
- The article explained what "preservation" means with a simple example.

tan (noun)

A browning of the skin resulting from exposure to the rays of the sun.

- They discussed “tan” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “tan” to mean a browning of the skin resulting from exposure to....

---

throat infection (noun)

An infection of the oral pharynx and tonsils by streptococcus.

- They discussed “throat infection” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “throat infection.”

---

wrist (noun)

A joint between the distal end of the radius and the proximal row of carpal bones.

- They discussed “wrist” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wrist.”

---

adult tooth (noun)

Any of the 32 teeth that replace the deciduous teeth of early childhood and (with luck) can last until old age.

- In class, the teacher used “adult tooth” to mean any of the 32 teeth that replace the deciduous....
- They discussed “adult tooth” during the group presentation.

---

bare bone (noun)

Bone stripped of flesh.

- He looked up “bare bone” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “bare bone” to mean bone stripped of flesh.

---

behave (verb)

Behave in a certain manner; show a certain behavior; conduct or comport oneself.

- Don’t behave like a fool.
- The children must learn to behave.

---

chin (noun)

The protruding part of the lower jaw.

- He looked up “chin” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chin.”

---

exams (noun)

A set of questions or exercises evaluating skill or knowledge.

- Understanding “exams” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “exams” during the group presentation.

---

fall over backwards (verb)

Try very hard to please someone.

- She falls over backwards when she sees her mother-in-law.
- In everyday English, people use “fall over backwards” when talking about this idea.

---

hammer nose (noun)

Enlargement of the nose with dilation of follicles and redness and prominent vascularity of the skin; often associated with excessive consumption of alcohol.

- They discussed “hammer nose” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “hammer nose” to mean enlargement of the nose with dilation of follicles....

---

hockey clinic (noun)

A meeting at which hockey players receive special evaluation and instruction.

- They discussed “hockey clinic” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “hockey clinic” because he had never seen it before.

---

inclusion body (noun)

Any small intracellular body found within another (characteristic of certain diseases).

- An inclusion in the cytoplasm of the cell.

- Understanding "inclusion body" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

intensive care unit (noun)

A hospital unit staffed and equipped to provide intensive care.

- Understanding "intensive care unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "intensive care unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

jerk (verb)

Make an uncontrolled, short, jerky motion.

- He turned the handle and jerked the door open.
- The patient's legs were jerkings.

---

lady with the lamp (noun)

English nurse remembered for her work during the Crimean War (1820-1910).

- The article explained what "lady with the lamp" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lady with the lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

make relaxed (verb)

Cause to feel relaxed.

- He did not know how to use "make relaxed" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "make relaxed" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

nude (noun)

Without clothing (especially in the phrase 'in the nude').

- They swam in the nude.
- Understanding "nude" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

orbit period (noun)

The time it takes to complete one full orbit around a celestial body.

- The orbit period depends on the altitude of the satellite.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orbit period."

---

root canal (noun)

The passage in the root of a tooth through which its nerve and blood vessels enter the pulp cavity.

- They discussed "root canal" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "root canal" means with a simple example.

---

tits (noun)

The small projection of a mammary gland.

- Understanding "tits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tits" during the group presentation.

---

trace element (noun)

An element that occurs at very small quantities in the body but is nonetheless important for many biological processes.

- The article explained what "trace element" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "trace element" during the group presentation.

---

tube-shaped structure (noun)

(anatomy) any hollow cylindrical body structure.

- They discussed "tube-shaped structure" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tube-shaped structure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

body pad (noun)

A pad worn by hockey goalkeeper.

- The article explained what "body pad" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "body pad" to mean a pad worn by hockey goalkeeper.

---

debts (noun)

The state of owing something (especially money).

- Understanding "debts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "debts" to mean the state of owing something (especially money).

dominant gene (noun)

Gene that produces the same phenotype in the organism whether or not its allele identical.

- The dominant gene for brown eyes.
- The article explained what "dominant gene" means with a simple example.

estate of the realm (noun)

A major social class or order of persons regarded collectively as part of the body politic of the country (especially in the United Kingdom) and formerly possessing distinct political rights.

- They discussed "estate of the realm" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "estate of the realm" means with a simple example.

external organ (noun)

An organ that is situated on or near the surface of the body.

- In class, the teacher used "external organ" to mean an organ that is situated on or near the surface of....
- The article explained what "external organ" means with a simple example.

ill-breeding (noun)

Impoliteness resulting from ignorance.

- He looked up "ill-breeding" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ill-breeding."

linked genes (noun)

Any pair of genes that tend to be transmitted together.

- The genes of Drosophila fall into four linkage groups.
- They discussed "linked genes" during the group presentation.

mad cow disease (noun)

A fatal disease of cattle that affects the central nervous system; causes staggering and agitation.

- They discussed "mad cow disease" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mad cow disease" to mean a fatal disease of cattle that affects the central....

minimal brain damage (noun)

A condition (mostly in boys) characterized by behavioral and learning disorders.

- In class, the teacher used "minimal brain damage" to mean a condition (mostly in boys) characterized by....
- They discussed "minimal brain damage" during the group presentation.

obligations (noun)

The state of being obligated to do or pay something.

- The article explained what "obligations" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "obligations" to mean the state of being obligated to do or pay something.

pain pill (noun)

A medicine used to relieve pain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pain pill."
- They discussed "pain pill" during the group presentation.

pain threshold (noun)

The lowest intensity of stimulation at which pain is experienced.

- Some people have much higher pain thresholds than do other people.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pain threshold."

parliamentary procedure (noun)

A body of rules followed by an assembly.

- Understanding “parliamentary procedure” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “parliamentary procedure” during the group presentation.

---

perfection (noun)

The state of being without a flaw or defect.

- The article explained what “perfection” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “perfection” to mean the state of being without a flaw or defect.

---

portal system (noun)

System of veins that carry blood from the abdominal organs to the liver.

- They discussed “portal system” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “portal system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

regulatory gene (noun)

A gene that produces a repressor substance that inhibits an operator gene.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “regulatory gene.”
- They discussed “regulatory gene” during the group presentation.

---

reynolds (noun)

English portrait painter and first president of the Royal Academy (1723-1792).

- He looked up “reynolds” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “reynolds.”

---

sore (noun)

An open skin infection.

- The article explained what “sore” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “sore” to mean an open skin infection.

---

taste bud (noun)

An oval sensory end organ on the surface of the tongue.

- He looked up “taste bud” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “taste bud” to mean an oval sensory end organ on the surface of the tongue.

---

vitamin e (noun)

A fat-soluble vitamin that is essential for normal reproduction; an important antioxidant that neutralizes free radicals in the body.

- They discussed “vitamin e” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “vitamin e” to mean a fat-soluble vitamin that is essential for normal....

---

brass ring (noun)

A rich opportunity or a prize.

- He missed the brass ring at the Miami convention.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “brass ring.”

---

green monkey disease (noun)

A viral disease of green monkeys caused by the Marburg virus; when transmitted to humans it causes serious or fatal illness.

- In class, the teacher used “green monkey disease” to mean a viral disease of green monkeys caused by the....
- The article explained what “green monkey disease” means with a simple example.

---

hazard (noun)

A source of danger; a possibility of incurring loss or misfortune.

- Drinking alcohol is a health hazard.
- He looked up “hazard” because he had never seen it before.

---

liquid body substance (noun)

The liquid parts of the body.

- He looked up “liquid body substance” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “liquid body substance.”

milk tooth (noun)

One of the first temporary teeth of a young mammal (one of 20 in children).

- They discussed "milk tooth" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "milk tooth."

moses (noun)

United States painter of colorful and primitive rural scenes (1860-1961).

- They discussed "moses" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "moses" because he had never seen it before.

nurse-patient relation (noun)

The responsibility of a nurse to act in the best interests of the patient.

- The article explained what "nurse-patient relation" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "nurse-patient relation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

panic disorder (noun)

An anxiety disorder characterized by unpredictable panic attacks; the attacks are usually severe but brief.

- They discussed "panic disorder" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "panic disorder" means with a simple example.

plastic surgeon (noun)

A surgeon who beautifies the body (especially the face).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plastic surgeon."
- He looked up "plastic surgeon" because he had never seen it before.

surgical spirit (noun)

Methylated spirit used in the practice of medicine (especially for cleansing the skin before injections or before surgery).

- The article explained what "surgical spirit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surgical spirit."

ankle (noun)

A gliding joint between the distal ends of the tibia and fibula and the proximal end of the talus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ankle."
- He looked up "ankle" because he had never seen it before.

belly button (noun)

A scar where the umbilical cord was attached.

- She had a tattoo just above her bellybutton.
- In class, the teacher used "belly button" to mean a scar where the umbilical cord was attached.

child's body (noun)

The body of a human child.

- He looked up "child's body" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "child's body" to mean the body of a human child.

clan (noun)

Group of people related by blood or marriage.

- In class, the teacher used "clan" to mean group of people related by blood or marriage.
- The article explained what "clan" means with a simple example.

conversion disorder (noun)

A mental disorder characterized by the conversion of mental conflict into somatic forms (into paralysis or anesthesia having no apparent cause).

- In class, the teacher used "conversion disorder" to mean a mental disorder characterized by the conversion....
- The article explained what "conversion disorder" means with a simple example.

functional disorder (noun)

Disorder showing symptoms for which no physiological or anatomical cause can be identified.

- They discussed "functional disorder" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "functional disorder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

graduation exercise (noun)

An academic exercise in which diplomas are conferred.

- Understanding "graduation exercise" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "graduation exercise" means with a simple example.

---

health hazard (noun)

Hazard to the health of those exposed to it.

- In class, the teacher used "health hazard" to mean hazard to the health of those exposed to it.
- The article explained what "health hazard" means with a simple example.

---

infant death (noun)

Sudden and unexpected death of an apparently healthy infant during sleep.

- Understanding "infant death" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "infant death" to mean sudden and unexpected death of an apparently....

---

kidney disease (noun)

A disease affecting the kidneys.

- In class, the teacher used "kidney disease" to mean a disease affecting the kidneys.
- Understanding "kidney disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lap of the gods (noun)

Beyond human control or responsibility.

- There is nothing more I can do; it's in the lap of the gods now.
- Understanding "lap of the gods" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lungs (noun)

Either of two saclike respiratory organs in the chest of vertebrates; serves to remove carbon dioxide and provide oxygen to the blood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lungs."
- He looked up "lungs" because he had never seen it before.

---

rankings (noun)

Position on a scale in relation to others in a sport.

- The article explained what "rankings" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rankings" to mean position on a scale in relation to others in a sport.

---

rehabilitation program (noun)

A program for restoring someone to good health.

- They discussed "rehabilitation program" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rehabilitation program."

---

resident physician (noun)

A physician (especially an intern) who lives in a hospital and cares for hospitalized patients under the supervision of the medical staff of the hospital.

- The resident was receiving special clinical training at the hospital.
- Understanding "resident physician" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stuart davis (noun)

United States painter who developed an American version of cubism (1894-1964).

- In class, the teacher used "stuart davis" to mean united states painter who developed an american....
- He looked up "stuart davis" because he had never seen it before.

---

tin disease (noun)

The transformation of ordinary white tin into powdery grey tin at very cold temperatures.

- They discussed "tin disease" during the group presentation.

- Understanding "tin disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tobacco juice (noun)

Saliva colored brown by tobacco (snuff or chewing tobacco).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tobacco juice."
- Understanding "tobacco juice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tumor (noun)

An abnormal new mass of tissue that serves no purpose.

- The article explained what "tumor" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tumor."

---

vitamin h (noun)

A B vitamin that aids in body growth.

- Understanding "vitamin h" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vitamin h."

---

wet lung (noun)

Acute lung injury characterized by coughing and rales; inflammation of the lungs which become stiff and fibrous and cannot exchange oxygen; occurs among persons exposed to irritants such as corrosive chemical vapors or ammonia or chlorine etc.

- Understanding "wet lung" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wet lung."

---

bone-forming cell (noun)

A cell from which bone develops.

- They discussed "bone-forming cell" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bone-forming cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

canvas (noun)

The setting for a narrative or fictional or dramatic account.

- The crowded canvas of history.
- The movie demanded a dramatic canvas of sound.

---

cheek (noun)

Either of the two large fleshy masses of muscular tissue that form the human rump.

- Understanding "cheek" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cheek" during the group presentation.

---

commands (noun)

A position of highest authority.

- He looked up "commands" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commands."

---

curry (verb)

Give a neat appearance to.

- Curry tanned leather.
- Can you use "curry" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

detention (noun)

A state of being confined (usually for a short time).

- His detention was politically motivated.
- The detention of tardy pupils.

---

doctor of dental medicine (noun)

A doctor's degree in dental medicine.

- He looked up "doctor of dental medicine" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "doctor of dental medicine" to mean a doctor's degree in dental medicine.

---

double chin (noun)

A fold of fatty tissue under the chin.

- They discussed "double chin" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "double chin" means with a simple example.

---

employ (noun)

The state of being employed or having a job.

- They are looking for employment.
- He was in the employ of the city.

---

flu (noun)

An acute febrile highly contagious viral disease.

- The article explained what "flu" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flu."

---

lap of luxury (noun)

In conditions of wealth and comfort.

- He was raised in the lap of luxury.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lap of luxury."

---

melt off (verb)

Take off weight.

- Can you use "melt off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "melt off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

modes (noun)

A particular functioning condition or arrangement.

- Understanding "modes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "modes."

---

organic brain syndrome (noun)

Mental abnormality resulting from disturbance of the structure or function of the brain.

- In class, the teacher used "organic brain syndrome" to mean mental abnormality resulting from disturbance of....
- They discussed "organic brain syndrome" during the group presentation.

---

permanent tooth (noun)

Any of the 32 teeth that replace the deciduous teeth of early childhood and (with luck) can last until old age.

- In class, the teacher used "permanent tooth" to mean any of the 32 teeth that replace the deciduous....
- Understanding "permanent tooth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

potato nose (noun)

Enlargement of the nose with dilation of follicles and redness and prominent vascularity of the skin; often associated with excessive consumption of alcohol.

- He looked up "potato nose" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "potato nose" to mean enlargement of the nose with dilation of follicles....

---

rub down (verb)

Manually manipulate (someone's body), usually for medicinal or relaxation purposes.

- She rubbed down her child with a sponge.
- In everyday English, people use "rub down" when talking about this idea.

---

spanish monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Spain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spanish monetary unit."
- They discussed "spanish monetary unit" during the group presentation.

---

stir (noun)

A prominent or sensational but short-lived news event.

- In class, the teacher used "stir" to mean a prominent or sensational but short-lived news event.
- Understanding "stir" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

structural gene (noun)

A gene that controls the production of a specific protein or peptide.

- In class, the teacher used "structural gene" to mean a gene that controls the production of a specific....
- Understanding "structural gene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vitamin k (noun)

A fat-soluble vitamin that helps in the clotting of blood.

- They discussed "vitamin k" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vitamin k."

---

waist (noun)

The narrowing of the body between the ribs and hips.

- In class, the teacher used "waist" to mean the narrowing of the body between the ribs and hips.
- He looked up "waist" because he had never seen it before.

---

absurd (noun)

A situation in which life seems irrational and meaningless; –Albert Camus.

- The absurd is the essential concept and the first truth.
- They discussed "absurd" during the group presentation.

---

body armor (noun)

Armor that protects the wearer's whole body.

- They discussed "body armor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "body armor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

builds (noun)

Alternative names for the body of a human being.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "builds."
- He looked up "builds" because he had never seen it before.

---

ch'i (noun)

The circulating life energy that in Chinese philosophy is thought to be inherent in all things; in traditional Chinese medicine the balance of negative and positive forms in the body is believed to be essential for good health.

- They discussed "ch'i" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ch'i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chi (noun)

The circulating life energy that in Chinese philosophy is thought to be inherent in all things; in traditional Chinese medicine the balance of negative and positive forms in the body is believed to be essential for good health.

- Understanding "chi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "chi" means with a simple example.

---

church doctrine (noun)

The written body of teachings of a religious group that are generally accepted by that group.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "church doctrine."
- He looked up "church doctrine" because he had never seen it before.

---

cold sore (noun)

Caused by herpes simplex virus type 1 (HSV-1).

- The article explained what "cold sore" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cold sore" to mean caused by herpes simplex virus type 1 (hsv-1).

---

cord blood (noun)

Blood obtained from the umbilical cord at birth.

- In class, the teacher used "cord blood" to mean blood obtained from the umbilical cord at birth.

- The article explained what "cord blood" means with a simple example.

---

cough out (verb)

Discharge (phlegm or sputum) from the lungs and out of the mouth.

- The coach explained when to use "cough out" and when to wait.
- Can you use "cough out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cough up (verb)

Discharge (phlegm or sputum) from the lungs and out of the mouth.

- He coughed up some money for his children's tuition.
- In everyday English, people use "cough up" when talking about this idea.

---

distress (noun)

A state of adversity (danger or affliction or need).

- A ship in distress.
- She was the classic maiden in distress.

---

economics profession (noun)

The body of professional economists.

- In class, the teacher used "economics profession" to mean the body of professional economists.
- They discussed "economics profession" during the group presentation.

---

health spa (noun)

A place of business with equipment and facilities for exercising and improving physical fitness.

- Understanding "health spa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "health spa."

---

hollow-back (noun)

An abnormal inward (forward) curvature of the vertebral column.

- The article explained what "hollow-back" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hollow-back."

---

kidney failure (noun)

Inability of the kidneys to excrete wastes and to help maintain the electrolyte balance.

- He looked up "kidney failure" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kidney failure."

---

king's evil (noun)

A form of tuberculosis characterized by swellings of the lymphatic glands.

- They discussed "king's evil" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "king's evil" to mean a form of tuberculosis characterized by swellings....

---

kissed (verb)

Touch with the lips or press the lips (against someone's mouth or other body part) as an expression of love, greeting, etc.

- The newly married couple kissed.
- She kissed her grandfather on the forehead when she entered the room.

---

lower jaw (noun)

The jaw in vertebrates that is hinged to open the mouth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lower jaw."
- The article explained what "lower jaw" means with a simple example.

---

nerve tissue (noun)

Tissue composed of neurons.

- The article explained what "nerve tissue" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "nerve tissue" during the group presentation.

---

pressure sore (noun)

A chronic ulcer of the skin caused by prolonged pressure on it (as in bedridden patients).

- In class, the teacher used "pressure sore" to mean a chronic ulcer of the skin caused by prolonged....
- He looked up "pressure sore" because he had never seen it before.

---

sleep terror disorder (noun)

A disorder of sleep characterized by a dream of terrifying dimensions far worse than a typical nightmare; they occur during NREM sleep.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sleep terror disorder."
- Understanding "sleep terror disorder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tense (verb)

Cause to be tense and uneasy or nervous or anxious.

- He got a phone call from his lawyer that tensed him up.
- The bodybuilder's neck muscles tensed;.

---

tense up (verb)

Cause to be tense and uneasy or nervous or anxious.

- He got a phone call from his lawyer that tensed him up.
- He tensed up when he saw his opponent enter the room.

---

the absurd (noun)

A situation in which life seems irrational and meaningless; –Albert Camus.

- The absurd is the essential concept and the first truth.
- He looked up "the absurd" because he had never seen it before.

---

anatomy (noun)

Alternative names for the body of a human being.

- He studied the anatomy of crimes.
- They discussed "anatomy" during the group presentation.

---

blood berry (noun)

Bushy houseplant having white to pale pink flowers followed by racemes of scarlet berries; tropical Americas.

- He looked up "blood berry" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blood berry."

---

bradley method (noun)

A method that prepares a mother for natural childbirth by providing education and exercises and nutrition and techniques of breathing and relaxation (with the assistance of the father).

- Understanding "bradley method" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bradley method" during the group presentation.

---

breasts (noun)

The front of the trunk from the neck to the abdomen.

- In class, the teacher used "breasts" to mean the front of the trunk from the neck to the abdomen.
- The article explained what "breasts" means with a simple example.

---

councils (noun)

A body serving in an administrative capacity.

- In class, the teacher used "councils" to mean a body serving in an administrative capacity.
- The article explained what "councils" means with a simple example.

---

doctor of dental surgery (noun)

A doctor's degree in dental surgery.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "doctor of dental surgery."
- The article explained what "doctor of dental surgery" means with a simple example.

---

dreaming (noun)

A series of mental images and emotions occurring during sleep.

- They discussed "dreaming" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dreaming."

---

facial muscle (noun)

Any of the skeletal muscles of the face.

- They discussed "facial muscle" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "facial muscle."

---

gulf war syndrome (noun)

A medical condition of uncertain origin that affected many veterans of the 1991 Gulf War; characterized by fatigue and headache and dizziness and nausea and rashes and joint pain and respiratory disorders.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gulf war syndrome."
- He looked up "gulf war syndrome" because he had never seen it before.

---

polar body (noun)

A small cell containing little cytoplasm that is produced along with the oocyte and later discarded.

- Understanding "polar body" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "polar body" because he had never seen it before.

---

puppy fat (noun)

Fat on the body of a baby or child; disappears at adolescence.

- The article explained what "puppy fat" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "puppy fat" to mean fat on the body of a baby or child; disappears at....

---

storms (noun)

A violent commotion or disturbance.

- The storms that had characterized their relationship had died away.
- Understanding "storms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

suspended animation (noun)

A temporary cessation of vital functions with loss of consciousness resembling death; usually resulting from asphyxia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "suspended animation."
- He looked up "suspended animation" because he had never seen it before.

---

vital organ (noun)

A bodily organ that is essential for life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vital organ."
- Understanding "vital organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

art critic (noun)

A critic of paintings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "art critic."
- The article explained what "art critic" means with a simple example.

---

brain tumor (noun)

A tumor in the brain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brain tumor."
- He looked up "brain tumor" because he had never seen it before.

---

bundle of his (noun)

A bundle of modified heart muscle that transmits the cardiac impulse from the atrioventricular node to the ventricles causing them to contract.

- They discussed "bundle of his" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bundle of his" means with a simple example.

---

bundle up (verb)

Dress warmly.

- Mother bundled up the children for the long way to school.
- He bundled up his few possessions.

disabilities (noun)

The condition of being unable to perform as a consequence of physical or mental unfitness.

- He looked up "disabilities" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disabilities."

duncan grant (noun)

Scottish painter; cousin of Lytton Strachey and member of the Bloomsbury Group (1885-1978).

- They discussed "duncan grant" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "duncan grant" means with a simple example.

halt (noun)

The state of inactivity following an interruption.

- During the halt he got some lunch.
- A halt in the arms race.

motor fiber (noun)

A nerve fiber that carries impulses toward the muscles or glands.

- The article explained what "motor fiber" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "motor fiber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

painter (noun)

A worker who is employed to cover objects with paint.

- They discussed "painter" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "painter" means with a simple example.

physical therapist (noun)

Therapist who treats injury or dysfunction with exercises and other physical treatments of the disorder.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "physical therapist."
- He looked up "physical therapist" because he had never seen it before.

prescription medicine (noun)

A drug that is available only with written instructions from a doctor or dentist to a pharmacist.

- He told the doctor that he had been taking his prescription regularly.
- He looked up "prescription medicine" because he had never seen it before.

rope burn (noun)

Abrasion (usually on the hands) caused by friction from a rope.

- The article explained what "rope burn" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rope burn" to mean abrasion (usually on the hands) caused by friction....

sleeping tablet (noun)

A soporific drug in the form of a pill (or tablet or capsule).

- They discussed "sleeping tablet" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sleeping tablet" to mean a soporific drug in the form of a pill (or tablet....

spine (noun)

The series of vertebrae forming the axis of the skeleton and protecting the spinal cord.

- The title and author were printed on the spine of the book.
- The article explained what "spine" means with a simple example.

transit instrument (noun)

A telescope mounted on an axis running east and west and used to time the transit of a celestial body across the meridian.

- He looked up "transit instrument" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transit instrument."

wrist joint (noun)

A joint between the distal end of the radius and the proximal row of carpal bones.

- The article explained what "wrist joint" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wrist joint" to mean a joint between the distal end of the radius and....

---

blast trauma (noun)

Injury caused the explosion of a bomb (especially in enclosed spaces).

- He looked up "blast trauma" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "blast trauma" during the group presentation.

---

blood lily (noun)

Any of various deciduous or evergreen herbs of the genus Haemanthus; South Africa and Namibia.

- In class, the teacher used "blood lily" to mean any of various deciduous or evergreen herbs of the....
- He looked up "blood lily" because he had never seen it before.

---

blood plasma (noun)

The colorless watery fluid of the blood and lymph that contains no cells, but in which the blood cells (erythrocytes, leukocytes, and thrombocytes) are suspended.

- He looked up "blood plasma" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blood plasma."

---

clown around (verb)

Act as or like a clown.

- The coach explained when to use "clown around" and when to wait.
- Can you use "clown around" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

donor (noun)

(medicine) someone who gives blood or tissue or an organ to be used in another person (the host).

- In class, the teacher used "donor" to mean (medicine) someone who gives blood or tissue or an....
- The article explained what "donor" means with a simple example.

---

enrollment (noun)

The body of people (such as students) who register or enroll at the same time.

- Understanding "enrollment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "enrollment" means with a simple example.

---

house painter (noun)

A painter of houses a similar buildings.

- The article explained what "house painter" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "house painter" during the group presentation.

---

kissing disease (noun)

An acute disease characterized by fever and swollen lymph nodes and an abnormal increase of mononuclear leucocytes or monocytes in the bloodstream; not highly contagious; some believe it can be transmitted by kissing.

- Understanding "kissing disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kissing disease."

---

needle cast (noun)

A disease of conifers causing the needles to fall.

- In class, the teacher used "needle cast" to mean a disease of conifers causing the needles to fall.
- Understanding "needle cast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nurse shark (noun)

Small bottom-dwelling shark of warm shallow waters on both coasts of North America and South America and from southeast Asia to Australia.

- He looked up "nurse shark" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "nurse shark" during the group presentation.

---

oval window (noun)

Fenestra that has the base of the stapes attached to it.

- Understanding "oval window" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "oval window" to mean fenestra that has the base of the stapes attached to it.

---

religious doctrine (noun)

The written body of teachings of a religious group that are generally accepted by that group.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "religious doctrine."
- The article explained what "religious doctrine" means with a simple example.

---

showcase (noun)

A setting in which something can be displayed to best effect.

- It was a showcase for democracy in Africa.
- The article explained what "showcase" means with a simple example.

---

sick headache (noun)

A severe recurring vascular headache; occurs more frequently in women than men.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sick headache."
- Understanding "sick headache" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

skin tumor (noun)

A neoplasm originating in the epidermis.

- He looked up "skin tumor" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "skin tumor" during the group presentation.

---

sleeping pill (noun)

A soporific drug in the form of a pill (or tablet or capsule).

- In class, the teacher used "sleeping pill" to mean a soporific drug in the form of a pill (or tablet....
- Understanding "sleeping pill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cough drop (noun)

A medicated lozenge used to soothe the throat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cough drop."
- He looked up "cough drop" because he had never seen it before.

---

immune carrier (noun)

(medicine) a person (or animal) who has some pathogen to which he is immune but who can pass it on to others.

- They discussed "immune carrier" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "immune carrier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

killers (noun)

The causal agent resulting in death.

- Understanding "killers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "killers" means with a simple example.

---

muscle fiber (noun)

An elongated contractile cell that forms the muscles of the body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "muscle fiber."
- Understanding "muscle fiber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

necessity (noun)

The condition of being essential or indispensable.

- They discussed "necessity" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "necessity" to mean the condition of being essential or indispensable.

---

pressures (noun)

The state of demanding notice or attention.

- Understanding "pressures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pressures" because he had never seen it before.

---

prosperity (noun)

The condition of prospering; having good fortune.

- They discussed “prosperity” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “prosperity” because he had never seen it before.

---

ranging pole (noun)

Surveying instrument consisting of a straight rod painted in bands of alternate red and white each one foot wide; used for sightings by surveyors.

- In class, the teacher used “ranging pole” to mean surveying instrument consisting of a straight rod....
- The article explained what “ranging pole” means with a simple example.

---

sack out (verb)

Prepare for sleep.

- She tried to use “sack out” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “sack out” and when to wait.

---

sphere (noun)

A particular environment or walk of life.

- His social sphere is limited.
- They discussed “sphere” during the group presentation.

---

toe crack (noun)

A crack on the forepart of a horse’s hindfoot.

- In class, the teacher used “toe crack” to mean a crack on the forepart of a horse’s hindfoot.
- The article explained what “toe crack” means with a simple example.

---

tooth root (noun)

The part of a tooth that is embedded in the jaw and serves as support.

- He looked up “tooth root” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “tooth root” to mean the part of a tooth that is embedded in the jaw and....

---

upper jaw (noun)

The jaw in vertebrates that is fused to the cranium.

- He looked up “upper jaw” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “upper jaw.”

---

word-painter (noun)

A writer of vivid or graphic descriptive power.

- Understanding “word-painter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “word-painter” because he had never seen it before.

---

ankle joint (noun)

A gliding joint between the distal ends of the tibia and fibula and the proximal end of the talus.

- They discussed “ankle joint” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “ankle joint” to mean a gliding joint between the distal ends of the....

---

bachelor of medicine (noun)

(a British degree) a bachelor’s degree in medicine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bachelor of medicine.”
- They discussed “bachelor of medicine” during the group presentation.

---

blind gut (noun)

The cavity in which the large intestine begins and into which the ileum opens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blind gut.”
- They discussed “blind gut” during the group presentation.

---

bosses (noun)

A person who exercises control over workers.

- Party bosses have a reputation for corruption.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bosses."

---

case-to-infection proportion (noun)

The number of cases of a disease divided by the number of infections with the agent that causes the disease.

- He looked up "case-to-infection proportion" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "case-to-infection proportion" during the group presentation.

---

dope off (verb)

Change from a waking to a sleeping state.

- In everyday English, people use "dope off" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "dope off" in real sentences.

---

dope up (verb)

Give a narcotic to.

- The athletes were dope by the coach before the race.
- Can you use "dope up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

esteem (noun)

The condition of being honored (esteemed or respected or well regarded).

- It is held in esteem.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "esteem."

---

fog (noun)

An atmosphere in which visibility is reduced because of a cloud of some substance.

- He looked up "fog" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fog" during the group presentation.

---

griffin (noun)

Winged monster with the head of an eagle and the body of a lion.

- The article explained what "griffin" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "griffin" to mean winged monster with the head of an eagle and the....

---

high-vitamin diet (noun)

A diet designed to patients with vitamin deficiencies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high-vitamin diet."
- He looked up "high-vitamin diet" because he had never seen it before.

---

hospitality (noun)

Kindness in welcoming guests or strangers.

- He looked up "hospitality" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hospitality."

---

moisture (noun)

Wetness caused by water.

- In class, the teacher used "moisture" to mean wetness caused by water.
- They discussed "moisture" during the group presentation.

---

nude painting (noun)

A painting of a naked human figure.

- He looked up "nude painting" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nude painting."

---

oil painter (noun)

A painter who uses oil paints.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oil painter."
- Understanding "oil painter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

orthodox sleep (noun)

A recurring sleep state during which rapid eye movements do not occur and dreaming does not occur; accounts for about 75% of normal sleep time.

- He looked up "orthodox sleep" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "orthodox sleep" during the group presentation.

plasma cell (noun)

A cell that develops from a B lymphocyte in reaction to a specific antigen; found in bone marrow and sometimes in the blood.

- In class, the teacher used "plasma cell" to mean a cell that develops from a b lymphocyte in....
- The article explained what "plasma cell" means with a simple example.

sign painter (noun)

Someone who paints signs and billboards etc.

- Understanding "sign painter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sign painter" to mean someone who paints signs and billboards etc.

spotlight (noun)

A focus of public attention.

- In class, the teacher used "spotlight" to mean a focus of public attention.
- Understanding "spotlight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spotted fever (noun)

Any of several severe febrile diseases characterized by skin rashes or spots on the skin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spotted fever."
- They discussed "spotted fever" during the group presentation.

steering committee (noun)

A committee to arrange the order of business for some larger (legislative) body.

- He looked up "steering committee" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "steering committee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stern (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- He looked up "stern" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "stern" during the group presentation.

stiff (noun)

The dead body of a human being.

- The murderer confessed that he threw the stiff in the river.
- A lucky stiff.

suit of armor (noun)

Armor that protects the wearer's whole body.

- The article explained what "suit of armor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "suit of armor" during the group presentation.

vet (noun)

A doctor who practices veterinary medicine.

- They discussed "vet" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "vet" means with a simple example.

behaviors (noun)

The action or reaction of something (as a machine or substance) under specified circumstances.

- The article explained what "behaviors" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "behaviors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blood donor (noun)

Someone who gives blood to be used for transfusions.

- Understanding "blood donor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blood donor."

---

chorus line (noun)

A body of dancers or singers who perform together.

- In class, the teacher used "chorus line" to mean a body of dancers or singers who perform together.
- The article explained what "chorus line" means with a simple example.

---

crews (noun)

An informal body of friends.

- Understanding "crews" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "crews" means with a simple example.

---

dangers (noun)

The condition of being susceptible to harm or injury.

- He feared the dangers of traveling by air.
- Understanding "dangers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

day nursery (noun)

A nursery for the supervision of preschool children while the parents work.

- Understanding "day nursery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "day nursery" during the group presentation.

---

fist (noun)

A hand with the fingers clenched in the palm (as for hitting).

- In class, the teacher used "fist" to mean a hand with the fingers clenched in the palm (as....
- They discussed "fist" during the group presentation.

---

hit the hay (verb)

Prepare for sleep.

- He goes to bed at the crack of dawn.
- Learners should practice how to use "hit the hay" in real sentences.

---

hit the sack (verb)

Prepare for sleep.

- He goes to bed at the crack of dawn.
- Learners should practice how to use "hit the sack" in real sentences.

---

ill-judged (adjective)

Not given careful consideration.

- An ill-judged attempt.
- The speaker chose "ill-judged" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

imprisonment (noun)

The state of being imprisoned.

- The imprisonment of captured soldiers.
- The article explained what "imprisonment" means with a simple example.

---

lacks (noun)

The state of needing something that is absent or unavailable.

- He looked up "lacks" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lacks" during the group presentation.

---

life imprisonment (noun)

A sentence of imprisonment until death.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "life imprisonment."

- He looked up "life imprisonment" because he had never seen it before.

---

misery (noun)

A state of ill-being due to affliction or misfortune.

- The misery and wretchedness of those slums is intolerable.
- She was exhausted by her misery and grief.

---

nursery (noun)

A building with glass walls and roof; for the cultivation and exhibition of plants under controlled conditions.

- In class, the teacher used "nursery" to mean a building with glass walls and roof; for the....
- He looked up "nursery" because he had never seen it before.

---

political sphere (noun)

A sphere of intense political activity.

- Understanding "political sphere" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "political sphere" to mean a sphere of intense political activity.

---

satellite receiver (noun)

A receiver on a communications satellite.

- He looked up "satellite receiver" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "satellite receiver" to mean a receiver on a communications satellite.

---

say farewell (verb)

Say good-bye or bid farewell.

- In everyday English, people use "say farewell" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "say farewell" until he saw an example.

---

scene painter (noun)

An artist specializing in scenic subjects.

- They discussed "scene painter" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "scene painter" to mean an artist specializing in scenic subjects.

---

sd (noun)

A state in north central United States.

- They discussed "sd" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sd" means with a simple example.

---

serving cart (noun)

A handcart for serving food.

- In class, the teacher used "serving cart" to mean a handcart for serving food.
- The article explained what "serving cart" means with a simple example.

---

sharply (adverb)

Changing suddenly in direction and degree.

- The road twists sharply after the light.
- She was being sharply questioned.

---

shipping clerk (noun)

An employee who ships and receives goods.

- They discussed "shipping clerk" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "shipping clerk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shooting brake (noun)

Another name for a station wagon.

- Understanding "shooting brake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "shooting brake" because he had never seen it before.

---

showers (noun)

A plumbing fixture that sprays water over you.

- They discussed "showers" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "showers."

---

sincerely (adverb)

With sincerity; without pretense.

- She praised him sincerely for his victory.
- She spoke "sincerely," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

sings (verb)

Make a whining, ringing, or whistling sound.

- My brother sings very well.
- She tried to use "sings" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

snack food (noun)

Food for light meals or for eating between meals.

- In class, the teacher used "snack food" to mean food for light meals or for eating between meals.
- The article explained what "snack food" means with a simple example.

---

soap dish (noun)

A bathroom or kitchen fixture for holding a bar of soap.

- The article explained what "soap dish" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "soap dish" to mean a bathroom or kitchen fixture for holding a bar of soap.

---

software documentation (noun)

Program listings or technical manuals describing the operation and use of programs.

- They discussed "software documentation" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "software documentation."

---

sounding line (noun)

(nautical) plumb line for determining depth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sounding line."
- The article explained what "sounding line" means with a simple example.

---

spark counter (noun)

An instrument that detects ionizing radiation from elementary particles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spark counter."
- He looked up "spark counter" because he had never seen it before.

---

spelling contest (noun)

A contest in which you are eliminated if you fail to spell a word correctly.

- In class, the teacher used "spelling contest" to mean a contest in which you are eliminated if you fail....
- He looked up "spelling contest" because he had never seen it before.

---

spike lee (noun)

United States filmmaker whose works explore the richness of black culture in America (born in 1957).

- In class, the teacher used "spike lee" to mean united states filmmaker whose works explore the....
- He looked up "spike lee" because he had never seen it before.

---

supernatural (noun)

Supernatural forces and events and beings collectively.

- She doesn't believe in the supernatural.
- He looked up "supernatural" because he had never seen it before.

---

supernatural being (noun)

An incorporeal being believed to have powers to affect the course of human events.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “supernatural being.”
- The article explained what “supernatural being” means with a simple example.

---

surgical knife (noun)

A very sharp knife used in surgery.

- They discussed “surgical knife” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “surgical knife” means with a simple example.

---

tax collector (noun)

Someone who collects taxes for the government.

- In class, the teacher used “tax collector” to mean someone who collects taxes for the government.
- He looked up “tax collector” because he had never seen it before.

---

tens (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of nine and one; the base of the decimal system.

- He looked up “tens” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “tens” to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of nine and....

---

thirteen (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twelve and one.

- The article explained what “thirteen” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “thirteen.”

---

threshold element (noun)

A logic element that performs a threshold operation.

- They discussed “threshold element” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “threshold element” because he had never seen it before.

---

time-delay measuring system (noun)

Chronoscope for measuring the time difference between two events.

- The article explained what “time-delay measuring system” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “time-delay measuring system” during the group presentation.

---

tomb (noun)

A place for the burial of a corpse (especially beneath the ground and marked by a tombstone).

- Understanding “tomb” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “tomb” because he had never seen it before.

---

tracked vehicle (noun)

A self-propelled vehicle that moves on tracks.

- Understanding “tracked vehicle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “tracked vehicle” during the group presentation.

---

trim (noun)

A state of arrangement or appearance.

- In good trim.
- The trimming on a hat.

---

trim back (verb)

Cut down on; make a reduction in.

- The employer wants to cut back health benefits.
- Can you use “trim back” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

trim down (verb)

Cut down on; make a reduction in.

- The coach explained when to use “trim down” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “trim down” until he saw an example.

unemployed person (noun)

Someone who is jobless.

- The article explained what "unemployed person" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "unemployed person" during the group presentation.

upside-down cake (noun)

Batter baked atop a layer of sweetened fruit then turned upside down so fruit is on top.

- They discussed "upside-down cake" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "upside-down cake" because he had never seen it before.

viral infection (noun)

Infection by a virus that is pathogenic to humans.

- The article explained what "viral infection" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "viral infection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

vitamin bc (noun)

A B vitamin that is essential for cell growth and reproduction.

- They discussed "vitamin bc" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vitamin bc."

walter reed (noun)

United States physician who proved that yellow fever is transmitted by mosquitoes (1851-1902).

- They discussed "walter reed" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "walter reed" to mean united states physician who proved that yellow....

war advocacy (noun)

A policy of advocating war.

- He looked up "war advocacy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "war advocacy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

warming pan (noun)

A long-handled covered pan holding live coals to warm a bed.

- He looked up "warming pan" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "warming pan."

water wagon (noun)

A wagon that carries water (as for troops or work gangs or to sprinkle down dusty dirt roads in the summertime).

- The article explained what "water wagon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "water wagon" to mean a wagon that carries water (as for troops or work....

wax figure (noun)

An effigy (usually of a famous person) made of wax.

- Understanding "wax figure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "wax figure" to mean an effigy (usually of a famous person) made of wax.

wax paper (noun)

Paper that has been waterproofed by treatment with wax or paraffin.

- He looked up "wax paper" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wax paper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

william curtis (noun)

English botanical writer and publisher (1746-1799).

- The article explained what "william curtis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "william curtis" to mean english botanical writer and publisher (1746-1799).

wine cooler (noun)

A bucket of ice used to chill a bottle of wine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wine cooler."
- Understanding "wine cooler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

z-axis (noun)

The third axis in a 3-dimensional coordinate system.

- He looked up "z-axis" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "z-axis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

abbey (noun)

A church associated with a monastery or convent.

- They discussed "abbey" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "abbey" means with a simple example.

---

acoustic storage (noun)

A storage device consisting of acoustic delay lines.

- He looked up "acoustic storage" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acoustic storage."

---

acre-foot (noun)

The volume of water that would cover 1 acre to a depth of 1 foot; 43,560 cubic feet or 1233.5 cubic meters.

- Understanding "acre-foot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acre-foot."

---

air conditioning (noun)

A system that keeps air cool and dry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "air conditioning."
- He looked up "air conditioning" because he had never seen it before.

---

angle of dip (noun)

(physics) the angle that a magnetic needle makes with the plane of the horizon.

- The article explained what "angle of dip" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "angle of dip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

apparent horizon (noun)

The line at which the sky and Earth appear to meet.

- In class, the teacher used "apparent horizon" to mean the line at which the sky and earth appear to meet.
- They discussed "apparent horizon" during the group presentation.

---

art historian (noun)

A historian of art.

- He looked up "art historian" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "art historian" during the group presentation.

---

attachment (noun)

A connection that fastens things together.

- Attachment to a formal agenda.
- The article explained what "attachment" means with a simple example.

---

bachelor of literature (noun)

A bachelor's degree in literature.

- Understanding "bachelor of literature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bachelor of literature" means with a simple example.

---

bachelor of science in engineering (noun)

A bachelor's degree in engineering.

- They discussed "bachelor of science in engineering" during the group presentation.

- He looked up "bachelor of science in engineering" because he had never seen it before.

---

banana bread (noun)

Moist bread containing banana pulp.

- They discussed "banana bread" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "banana bread" because he had never seen it before.

---

bank vault (noun)

A strongroom or compartment (often made of steel) for safekeeping of valuables.

- He looked up "bank vault" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bank vault."

---

baron (noun)

A very wealthy or powerful businessman.

- An oil baron.
- Understanding "baron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bean counter (noun)

An accountant or bureaucrat who is believed to place undue emphasis on the control of expenditures.

- In class, the teacher used "bean counter" to mean an accountant or bureaucrat who is believed to....
- The article explained what "bean counter" means with a simple example.

---

beatles (noun)

A rock group from Liverpool who between 1962 and 1970 produced a variety of hit songs and albums (most of them written by Paul McCartney and John Lennon).

- He looked up "beatles" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "beatles" during the group presentation.

---

belfast (noun)

Capital and largest city of Northern Ireland; the center of Protestantism in Northern Ireland.

- They discussed "belfast" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "belfast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black plague (noun)

The epidemic form of bubonic plague experienced during the Middle Ages when it killed nearly half the people of western Europe.

- The article explained what "black plague" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "black plague" to mean the epidemic form of bubonic plague experienced....

---

blah (noun)

Pompous or pretentious talk or writing.

- They discussed "blah" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "blah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blaming (verb)

Attribute responsibility to.

- The coach explained when to use "blaming" and when to wait.
- Can you use "blaming" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

bomber (noun)

A military aircraft that drops bombs during flight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bomber."
- Understanding "bomber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

book of the prophet daniel (noun)

An Old Testament book that tells of the apocalyptic visions and the experiences of Daniel in the court of Nebuchadnezzar.

- Understanding "book of the prophet daniel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "book of the prophet daniel" to mean an old testament book that tells of the apocalyptic....

---

brake failure (noun)

Brakes fail to stop a vehicle.

- The article explained what "brake failure" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "brake failure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

built-soap powder (noun)

Soap in powdered form mixed with alkaline builders.

- The article explained what "built-soap powder" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "built-soap powder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bunny (noun)

A young waitress in a nightclub whose costume includes the tail and ears of a rabbit.

- He looked up "bunny" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bunny" during the group presentation.

---

burial ground (noun)

A tract of land used for burials.

- In class, the teacher used "burial ground" to mean a tract of land used for burials.
- The article explained what "burial ground" means with a simple example.

---

burial site (noun)

A tract of land used for burials.

- He looked up "burial site" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "burial site."

---

cam stroke (noun)

The maximum movement available to a pivoted or reciprocating piece by a cam.

- They discussed "cam stroke" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cam stroke" because he had never seen it before.

---

can opener (noun)

A device for cutting cans open.

- The article explained what "can opener" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "can opener."

---

candle (noun)

The basic unit of luminous intensity adopted under the Systeme International d'Unites; equal to 1/60 of the luminous intensity per square centimeter of a black body radiating at the temperature of 2,046 degrees Kelvin.

- The article explained what "candle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "candle" during the group presentation.

---

capital of idaho (noun)

The capital and largest city of Idaho.

- He looked up "capital of idaho" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of idaho."

---

card catalog (noun)

A library catalog in which each publication is described on a separate file card.

- The article explained what "card catalog" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "card catalog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

card catalogue (noun)

A library catalog in which each publication is described on a separate file card.

- They discussed "card catalogue" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "card catalogue" because he had never seen it before.

---

choir (noun)

A chorus that sings as part of a religious ceremony.

- They discussed “choir” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “choir” to mean a chorus that sings as part of a religious ceremony.

---

christian theology (noun)

The teachings of Christian churches.

- In class, the teacher used “christian theology” to mean the teachings of christian churches.
- He looked up “christian theology” because he had never seen it before.

---

chrome green (noun)

Any of a class of green pigments consisting of chrome yellow and iron blue.

- They discussed “chrome green” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chrome green.”

---

circular measure (noun)

Measurement of angles in radians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “circular measure.”
- They discussed “circular measure” during the group presentation.

---

clutch (noun)

A pedal or lever that engages or disengages a rotating shaft and a driving mechanism.

- He smoothely released the clutch with one foot and stepped on the gas with the other.
- He is a good man in the clutch.

---

co-opt (verb)

Choose or elect as a fellow member or colleague.

- The church members co-opted individuals from similar backgrounds to replenish the congregation.
- We co-opted the independent minority tribes by pulling them into the Northern Alliance.

---

cocktail party (noun)

An afternoon party at which cocktails are served.

- In class, the teacher used “cocktail party” to mean an afternoon party at which cocktails are served.
- The article explained what “cocktail party” means with a simple example.

---

coconut (noun)

The edible white meat of a coconut; often shredded for use in e.g. cakes and curries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coconut.”
- He looked up “coconut” because he had never seen it before.

---

combining form (noun)

A bound form used only in compounds.

- ‘hemato-’ is a combining form in words like ‘hematology’.
- Understanding “combining form” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

comprising (verb)

Include or contain; have as a component.

- In everyday English, people use “comprising” when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use “comprising” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

confession (noun)

A written document acknowledging an offense and signed by the guilty party.

- They discussed “confession” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “confession.”

---

conservation of momentum (noun)

The principle that the total linear momentum in a closed system is constant and is not affected by processes occurring inside the system.

- In class, the teacher used “conservation of momentum” to mean the principle that the total linear momentum in a....
- The article explained what “conservation of momentum” means with a simple example.

consume (verb)

Use up (resources or materials).

- This car consumes a lot of gas.
- The fire consumed the building.

corporate investor (noun)

A company that invests in (acquires control of) other companies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corporate investor."
- The article explained what "corporate investor" means with a simple example.

corridor (noun)

An enclosed passageway; rooms usually open onto it.

- He looked up "corridor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corridor."

cotton fiber (noun)

Soft silky fibers from cotton plants in their raw state.

- The article explained what "cotton fiber" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cotton fiber" during the group presentation.

critically (adverb)

In a critical manner.

- This must be examined critically.
- Place "critically" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

cruise missile (noun)

An unmanned aircraft that is a self-contained bomb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cruise missile."
- Understanding "cruise missile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cylinder lock (noun)

A lock in which a cylinder rotates to move a bolt; tumblers are pins; inserting the key lifts and aligns the pins to free the cylinder to rotate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cylinder lock."
- He looked up "cylinder lock" because he had never seen it before.

danish blue (noun)

Blue cheese of Denmark.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "danish blue."
- The article explained what "danish blue" means with a simple example.

danish capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Denmark; located on the island of Zealand.

- They discussed "danish capital" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "danish capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

desk dictionary (noun)

An abridged dictionary of a size convenient to hold in the hand.

- The article explained what "desk dictionary" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "desk dictionary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

diplomatic corps (noun)

The body of diplomatic personnel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diplomatic corps."
- He looked up "diplomatic corps" because he had never seen it before.

dm (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to one tenth of a meter.

- They discussed "dm" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dm."

---

doctor of theology (noun)

A doctor's degree in theology.

- The article explained what "doctor of theology" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "doctor of theology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ear-nose-and-throat doctor (noun)

A specialist in the disorders of the ear or nose or throat.

- In class, the teacher used "ear-nose-and-throat doctor" to mean a specialist in the disorders of the ear or nose or....
- He looked up "ear-nose-and-throat doctor" because he had never seen it before.

---

ego ideal (noun)

(psychoanalysis) the part of the ego that contains an ideal of personal excellence toward which a person strives.

- In class, the teacher used "ego ideal" to mean (psychoanalysis) the part of the ego that contains....
- They discussed "ego ideal" during the group presentation.

---

emergency brake (noun)

A brake operated by hand; usually operates by mechanical linkage.

- Understanding "emergency brake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "emergency brake" means with a simple example.

---

eric blair (noun)

Imaginative British writer concerned with social justice (1903-1950).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eric blair."
- He looked up "eric blair" because he had never seen it before.

---

exterior door (noun)

A doorway that allows entrance to or exit from a building.

- In class, the teacher used "exterior door" to mean a doorway that allows entrance to or exit from a....
- Understanding "exterior door" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

finger spelling (noun)

An alphabet of manual signs.

- They discussed "finger spelling" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "finger spelling."

---

fire brigade (noun)

A private or temporary organization of individuals equipped to fight fires.

- Understanding "fire brigade" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fire brigade" during the group presentation.

---

floor wax (noun)

A preparation containing wax and used to polish and preserve the finish of floors.

- Understanding "floor wax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "floor wax" because he had never seen it before.

---

foolish woman (noun)

A female fool.

- Understanding "foolish woman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "foolish woman" because he had never seen it before.

---

fools (noun)

A person who is gullible and easy to take advantage of.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fools."

- The article explained what "fools" means with a simple example.

---

fourteen (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of thirteen and one.

- Understanding "fourteen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fourteen" during the group presentation.

---

freedom of the seas (noun)

The right of merchant ships to travel freely in international waters.

- Understanding "freedom of the seas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freedom of the seas."

---

fundamental quantity (noun)

One of the four quantities that are the basis of systems of measurement.

- In class, the teacher used "fundamental quantity" to mean one of the four quantities that are the basis of....
- The article explained what "fundamental quantity" means with a simple example.

---

geneva convention (noun)

An agreement first drawn up in Geneva in 1864 and later revised concerning the treatment of captured and wounded military personnel and civilians in wartime.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geneva convention."
- He looked up "geneva convention" because he had never seen it before.

---

geometry (noun)

The pure mathematics of points and lines and curves and surfaces.

- In class, the teacher used "geometry" to mean the pure mathematics of points and lines and curves....
- The article explained what "geometry" means with a simple example.

---

ghosts (noun)

A mental representation of some haunting experience.

- He looked up "ghosts" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ghosts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ginger pop (noun)

Ginger-flavored carbonated drink.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ginger pop."
- He looked up "ginger pop" because he had never seen it before.

---

golf cart (noun)

A small motor vehicle in which golfers can ride between shots.

- In class, the teacher used "golf cart" to mean a small motor vehicle in which golfers can ride....
- He looked up "golf cart" because he had never seen it before.

---

gossip (noun)

A report (often malicious) about the behavior of other people.

- The divorce caused much gossip.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gossip."

---

gp (noun)

A physician who is not a specialist but treats all illnesses.

- They discussed "gp" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gp" means with a simple example.

---

grandparents (noun)

A parent of your father or mother.

- They discussed "grandparents" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grandparents."

---

greg norman (noun)

Australian golfer (born in 1955).

- In class, the teacher used "greg norman" to mean australian golfer (born in 1955).
- The article explained what "greg norman" means with a simple example.

haul (noun)

The quantity that was caught.

- The haul up the hill went very slowly.
- In class, the teacher used "haul" to mean the quantity that was caught.

haul off (verb)

Take away by means of a vehicle.

- They carted off the old furniture.
- He did not know how to use "haul off" until he saw an example.

header (noun)

A line of text serving to indicate what the passage below it is about.

- He took a header into the shrubbery.
- They discussed "header" during the group presentation.

headphones (noun)

Electro-acoustic transducer for converting electric signals into sounds; it is held over or inserted into the ear.

- They discussed "headphones" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "headphones" means with a simple example.

heir-at-law (noun)

The person legally entitled to inherit the property of someone who dies intestate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heir-at-law."
- Understanding "heir-at-law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

imports (noun)

An imported person brought from a foreign country.

- Understanding "imports" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "imports" during the group presentation.

interfere (verb)

Come between so as to be hindrance or obstacle.

- Your talking interferes with my work!
- The coach explained when to use "interfere" and when to wait.

intersection (noun)

The set of elements common to two or more sets.

- The set of red hats is the intersection of the set of hats and the set of red things.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intersection."

investigators (noun)

A police officer who investigates crimes.

- He looked up "investigators" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "investigators" during the group presentation.

israeli monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Israel.

- In class, the teacher used "israeli monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in israel.
- The article explained what "israeli monetary unit" means with a simple example.

japan wax (noun)

A yellow wax obtained from sumac berries; used in polishes.

- Understanding "japan wax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "japan wax" to mean a yellow wax obtained from sumac berries; used in....

---

jefferson davis (noun)

American statesman; president of the Confederate States of America during the American Civil War (1808-1889).

- They discussed "jefferson davis" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jefferson davis."

---

jesse louis jackson (noun)

United States civil rights leader who led a national campaign against racial discrimination and ran for presidential nomination (born in 1941).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jesse louis jackson."
- He looked up "jesse louis jackson" because he had never seen it before.

---

juvenile (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of or appropriate for children or young people.

- Juvenile diabetes.
- Juvenile fashions.

---

karma (noun)

(Hinduism and Buddhism) the effects of a person's actions that determine his destiny in his next incarnation.

- Understanding "karma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "karma" because he had never seen it before.

---

ki (noun)

The circulating life energy that in Chinese philosophy is thought to be inherent in all things; in traditional Chinese medicine the balance of negative and positive forms in the body is believed to be essential for good health.

- Understanding "ki" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ki" during the group presentation.

---

knocking (noun)

The sound of knocking (as on a door or in an engine or bearing).

- The knocking grew louder.
- In class, the teacher used "knocking" to mean the sound of knocking (as on a door or in an engine....

---

lawn tool (noun)

Used for working in gardens or yards.

- In class, the teacher used "lawn tool" to mean used for working in gardens or yards.
- He looked up "lawn tool" because he had never seen it before.

---

leaks (noun)

The discharge of a fluid from some container.

- In class, the teacher used "leaks" to mean the discharge of a fluid from some container.
- They discussed "leaks" during the group presentation.

---

lightning rod (noun)

A metallic conductor that is attached to a high point and leads to the ground; protects the building from destruction by lightning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lightning rod."
- Understanding "lightning rod" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lining (noun)

A protective covering that protects an inside surface.

- They discussed "lining" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "lining" because he had never seen it before.

---

loan-blend (noun)

A word that is composed of parts from different languages (e.g., 'monolingual' has a Greek prefix and a Latin root).

- He looked up "loan-blend" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loan-blend."

lone-star state (noun)

The second largest state; located in southwestern United States on the Gulf of Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used "lone-star state" to mean the second largest state; located in southwestern....
- The article explained what "lone-star state" means with a simple example.

long haul (noun)

A period of time sufficient for factors to work themselves out.

- In the long run we will win.
- In the long run we will all be dead.

louis sullivan (noun)

United States architect known for his steel framed skyscrapers and for coining the phrase 'form follows function' (1856-1924).

- Understanding "louis sullivan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "louis sullivan."

luther (noun)

German theologian who led the Reformation; believed that salvation is granted on the basis of faith rather than deeds (1483-1546).

- In class, the teacher used "luther" to mean german theologian who led the reformation; believed....
- Understanding "luther" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

manila (noun)

The capital and largest city of the Philippines; located on southern Luzon.

- Understanding "manila" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manila."

master of theology (noun)

A master's degree in theology.

- He looked up "master of theology" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "master of theology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

med (noun)

A master's degree in education.

- He looked up "med" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "med."

metric (noun)

A decimal unit of measurement of the metric system (based on meters and kilograms and seconds).

- Convert all the measurements to metric units.
- It is easier to work in metric.

micro chip (noun)

Electronic equipment consisting of a small crystal of a silicon semiconductor fabricated to carry out a number of electronic functions in an integrated circuit.

- In class, the teacher used "micro chip" to mean electronic equipment consisting of a small crystal....
- Understanding "micro chip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

militia (noun)

The entire body of physically fit civilians eligible by law for military service; ; –United States Constitution.

- Their troops were untrained militia.
- Congress shall have power to provide for calling forth the militia.

mineral pitch (noun)

A dark bituminous substance found in natural beds and as residue from petroleum distillation; consists mainly of hydrocarbons.

- He looked up "mineral pitch" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mineral pitch" to mean a dark bituminous substance found in natural beds....

modern hebrew (noun)

Hebrew used in Israel today; revived from ancient Hebrew.

- In class, the teacher used "modern hebrew" to mean hebrew used in israel today; revived from ancient....
- The article explained what "modern hebrew" means with a simple example.

monkey jacket (noun)

Waist-length jacket tapering to a point at the back; worn by officers in the mess for formal dinners.

- The article explained what "monkey jacket" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monkey jacket."

mortality rate (noun)

The ratio of deaths in an area to the population of that area; expressed per 1000 per year.

- They discussed "mortality rate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mortality rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mud brick (noun)

A brick made from baked mud.

- They discussed "mud brick" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mud brick" because he had never seen it before.

mud-brick (adjective)

Of or incorporating mud bricks.

- It is useful to describe something as "mud-brick" when it is of or incorporating mud bricks.
- The speaker chose "mud-brick" because it captured the feeling precisely.

munich beer (noun)

A dark lager produced in Munich since the 10th century; has a distinctive taste of malt.

- He looked up "munich beer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "munich beer."

nationalist china (noun)

A government on the island of Taiwan established in 1949 by Chiang Kai-shek after the conquest of mainland China by the Communists led by Mao Zedong.

- The article explained what "nationalist china" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nationalist china."

natural immunity (noun)

Immunity to disease that occurs as part of an individual's natural biologic makeup.

- The article explained what "natural immunity" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "natural immunity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

navy bean (noun)

White-seeded bean; usually dried.

- Understanding "navy bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "navy bean" because he had never seen it before.

nike (noun)

(Greek mythology) winged goddess of victory; identified with Roman Victoria.

- The article explained what "nike" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "nike" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

node (noun)

A connecting point at which several lines come together.

- Understanding "node" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "node" during the group presentation.

nuclear fusion reaction (noun)

A nuclear reaction in which nuclei combine to form more massive nuclei with the simultaneous release of energy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nuclear fusion reaction."

- He looked up "nuclear fusion reaction" because he had never seen it before.

---

nursery school (noun)

A small preschool for small children.

- Understanding "nursery school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "nursery school" during the group presentation.

---

nut butter (noun)

Ground nuts blended with a little butter.

- They discussed "nut butter" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "nut butter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

obstacles (noun)

Something immaterial that stands in the way and must be circumvented or surmounted.

- In class, the teacher used "obstacles" to mean something immaterial that stands in the way and....
- Understanding "obstacles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

one-sixty-fourth (noun)

One part in sixty-four equal parts.

- The article explained what "one-sixty-fourth" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "one-sixty-fourth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

opener (noun)

A person who unfastens or unwraps or opens.

- She played Chopin for her opener.
- The season's opener was a game against the Yankees.

---

outer boundary (noun)

The outside boundary or surface of something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "outer boundary."
- They discussed "outer boundary" during the group presentation.

---

overwhelmed (verb)

Cover completely or make imperceptible.

- The coach explained when to use "overwhelmed" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "overwhelmed" until he saw an example.

---

paint roller (noun)

A roller that has an absorbent surface used for spreading paint.

- He looked up "paint roller" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paint roller."

---

particle board (noun)

Wallboard composed of wood chips or shavings bonded together with resin and compressed into rigid sheets.

- In class, the teacher used "particle board" to mean wallboard composed of wood chips or shavings bonded....
- The article explained what "particle board" means with a simple example.

---

perry mason (noun)

Fictional detective in novels by Erle Stanley Gardner.

- Understanding "perry mason" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "perry mason."

---

poles (noun)

One of two divergent or mutually exclusive opinions.

- They are at opposite poles.
- They are poles apart.

---

port-au-prince (noun)

The capital and largest city of Haiti.

- In class, the teacher used "port-au-prince" to mean the capital and largest city of haiti.
- They discussed "port-au-prince" during the group presentation.

power broker (noun)

A person who is important by virtue of the people or votes they control.

- A power broker who does you a favor will expect you to return it.
- He looked up "power broker" because he had never seen it before.

power module (noun)

Module that provides power to operate other modules.

- They discussed "power module" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "power module" means with a simple example.

preferences (noun)

The right or chance to choose.

- His sexual preferences.
- In class, the teacher used "preferences" to mean the right or chance to choose.

president monroe (noun)

5th President of the United States; author of the Monroe Doctrine (1758-1831).

- In class, the teacher used "president monroe" to mean 5th president of the united states; author of the....
- He looked up "president monroe" because he had never seen it before.

president roosevelt (noun)

26th President of the United States; hero of the Spanish-American War; Panama Canal was built during his administration; (1858-1919).

- Theodore Roosevelt said 'Speak softly but carry a big stick'.
- The article explained what "president roosevelt" means with a simple example.

prompted (verb)

Give an incentive for action.

- She prompted me to call my relatives.
- He did not know how to use "prompted" until he saw an example.

proximity (noun)

The region close around a person or thing.

- They discussed "proximity" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "proximity" to mean the region close around a person or thing.

qualification (noun)

A statement that limits or restricts some claim.

- Her qualifications for the job are excellent.
- One of the qualifications for admission is an academic degree.

qualifications (noun)

A statement that limits or restricts some claim.

- Her qualifications for the job are excellent.
- One of the qualifications for admission is an academic degree.

rabbit ears (noun)

An indoor TV antenna; consists of two extendible rods that form a V.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rabbit ears."
- The article explained what "rabbit ears" means with a simple example.

radio aerial (noun)

Omnidirectional antenna comprising the part of a radio receiver by means of which radio signals are received.

- They discussed “radio aerial” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “radio aerial” because he had never seen it before.

---

rat-tail file (noun)

A thin round file shaped like the tail of a rat.

- He looked up “rat-tail file” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “rat-tail file” during the group presentation.

---

rock wool (noun)

A light fibrous material used as an insulator.

- In class, the teacher used “rock wool” to mean a light fibrous material used as an insulator.
- He looked up “rock wool” because he had never seen it before.

---

rogue state (noun)

A state that does not respect other states in its international actions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rogue state.”
- He looked up “rogue state” because he had never seen it before.

---

scenarios (noun)

A postulated sequence of possible events.

- Planners developed several scenarios in case of an attack.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scenarios.”

---

scheduled territories (noun)

The group of countries whose currencies are tied to the British pound sterling.

- They discussed “scheduled territories” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scheduled territories.”

---

sealed instrument (noun)

A contract that is signed and has the (wax) seal of the signer attached.

- The article explained what “sealed instrument” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sealed instrument.”

---

seniors (noun)

An undergraduate student during the year preceding graduation.

- The article explained what “seniors” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “seniors” to mean an undergraduate student during the year preceding....

---

seven wonders of the ancient world (noun)

Impressive monuments created in the ancient world that were regarded with awe.

- They discussed “seven wonders of the ancient world” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “seven wonders of the ancient world.”

---

ski pole (noun)

A pole with metal points used as an aid in skiing.

- They discussed “ski pole” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “ski pole” because he had never seen it before.

---

skin senses (noun)

The faculty by which external objects or forces are perceived through contact with the body (especially the hands).

- He looked up “skin senses” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “skin senses” during the group presentation.

---

small fry (noun)

A young person of either sex.

- In class, the teacher used “small fry” to mean a young person of either sex.
- The article explained what “small fry” means with a simple example.

socialism (noun)

An economic system based on state ownership of capital.

- He looked up "socialism" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "socialism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sounding board (noun)

A person whose reactions to something serve as an indication of its acceptability.

- I would use newspapermen as a sounding board for such policies.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sounding board."

sounding lead (noun)

A metal bob at the end of a sounding line.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sounding lead."
- They discussed "sounding lead" during the group presentation.

southern triangle (noun)

A small bright constellation in the polar region of the southern hemisphere near Circinus and Apus.

- He looked up "southern triangle" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "southern triangle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

space shuttle (noun)

A reusable spacecraft with wings for a controlled descent through the Earth's atmosphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "space shuttle."
- He looked up "space shuttle" because he had never seen it before.

spirit gum (noun)

An adhesive solution made of gum and ether and used to attach false hair to skin.

- Understanding "spirit gum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "spirit gum" means with a simple example.

spoon (noun)

A piece of cutlery with a shallow bowl-shaped container and a handle; used to stir or serve or take up food.

- He added two spoons of sugar.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spoon."

static tube (noun)

A measuring instrument used to measure static pressure in a stream of fluid.

- Understanding "static tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "static tube" during the group presentation.

steel arch bridge (noun)

A steel bridge constructed in the form of an arch.

- Understanding "steel arch bridge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "steel arch bridge" to mean a steel bridge constructed in the form of an arch.

straw hat (noun)

A stiff hat made of straw with a flat crown.

- He looked up "straw hat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "straw hat."

stuffed shirt (noun)

A bore who is extremely formal, pompous, and old-fashioned.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stuffed shirt."
- They discussed "stuffed shirt" during the group presentation.

swap file (noun)

The disk space that is set aside for virtual memory.

- The article explained what "swap file" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "swap file" to mean the disk space that is set aside for virtual memory.

---

tactical warning (noun)

(military) a warning after the initiation of a hostile act.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tactical warning."
- The article explained what "tactical warning" means with a simple example.

---

teddy (noun)

A woman's sleeveless undergarment.

- He looked up "teddy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teddy."

---

tenants (noun)

A holder of buildings or lands by any kind of title (as ownership or lease).

- The article explained what "tenants" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tenants" during the group presentation.

---

territorial army (noun)

British unit of nonprofessional soldiers organized for the defense of Great Britain.

- In class, the teacher used "territorial army" to mean british unit of nonprofessional soldiers organized....
- The article explained what "territorial army" means with a simple example.

---

tin ear (noun)

An inability to distinguish differences in pitch.

- He has a tin ear for dialogue.
- The article explained what "tin ear" means with a simple example.

---

touring car (noun)

Large open car seating four with folding top.

- Understanding "touring car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "touring car" means with a simple example.

---

towel horse (noun)

A rack consisting of one or more bars on which towels can be hung.

- He looked up "towel horse" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "towel horse" to mean a rack consisting of one or more bars on which....

---

towel ring (noun)

A circular hoop for holding a towel.

- They discussed "towel ring" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "towel ring."

---

tribunal (noun)

An assembly (including one or more judges) to conduct judicial business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tribunal."
- He looked up "tribunal" because he had never seen it before.

---

undoubtedly (adverb)

Without doubt; certainly.

- It's undoubtedly very beautiful.
- The narrator describes the scene "undoubtedly" in the final chapter.

---

uniforms (noun)

Clothing of distinctive design worn by members of a particular group as a means of identification.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "uniforms."

- He looked up “uniforms” because he had never seen it before.

university of california at berkeley (noun)

A university in Berkeley, California.

- They discussed “university of california at berkeley” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “university of california at berkeley” means with a simple example.

vegetable garden (noun)

A small garden where vegetables are grown.

- He looked up “vegetable garden” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “vegetable garden.”

verify (verb)

To declare or affirm solemnly and formally as true.

- Please verify that the doors are closed.
- Verify a claim.

villain (noun)

The principal bad character in a film or work of fiction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “villain.”
- Understanding “villain” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

waist pack (noun)

A small pouch (usually with a zipper) that attaches to a belt and is worn around the waist.

- The article explained what “waist pack” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “waist pack” to mean a small pouch (usually with a zipper) that attaches....

washing powder (noun)

Soap in powdered form mixed with alkaline builders.

- Understanding “washing powder” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “washing powder” during the group presentation.

whistle (noun)

The act of signalling (e.g., summoning) by whistling or blowing a whistle.

- The whistle signalled the end of the game.
- In class, the teacher used “whistle” to mean the act of signalling (e.g., summoning) by....

white plague (noun)

An addiction to a drug (especially a narcotic drug).

- The article explained what “white plague” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “white plague” during the group presentation.

whole wheat bread (noun)

Bread made with whole wheat flour.

- He looked up “whole wheat bread” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “whole wheat bread” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wire cloth (noun)

Fabric woven of metallic wire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wire cloth.”
- They discussed “wire cloth” during the group presentation.

wire gauge (noun)

Gauge for measuring the diameter of wire.

- Understanding “wire gauge” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “wire gauge” during the group presentation.

wisdom tooth (noun)

Any of the last 4 teeth on each side of the upper and lower jaw; the last of the permanent teeth to erupt (between ages 16 and 21).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wisdom tooth."
- They discussed "wisdom tooth" during the group presentation.

---

wool oil (noun)

Any oil used to oil wool before spinning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wool oil."
- He looked up "wool oil" because he had never seen it before.

---

wrist bone (noun)

Any of the eight small bones of the wrist of primates.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wrist bone."
- Understanding "wrist bone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yale (noun)

A university in Connecticut.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yale."
- The article explained what "yale" means with a simple example.

---

yearly (noun)

A reference book that is published regularly once every year.

- Understanding "yearly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "yearly" during the group presentation.

---

zombie spirit (noun)

(voodooism) a spirit or supernatural force that reanimates a dead body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zombie spirit."
- He looked up "zombie spirit" because he had never seen it before.

---

active immunity (noun)

A form of acquired immunity in which the body produces its own antibodies against disease-causing antigens.

- In class, the teacher used "active immunity" to mean a form of acquired immunity in which the body....
- Understanding "active immunity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alcoholic drink (noun)

A liquor or brew containing alcohol as the active agent.

- Alcohol (or drink) ruined him.
- He looked up "alcoholic drink" because he had never seen it before.

---

amen corner (noun)

Area reserved for persons leading the responsive 'amens'.

- In class, the teacher used "amen corner" to mean area reserved for persons leading the responsive....
- They discussed "amen corner" during the group presentation.

---

announcing (verb)

Announce publicly or officially.

- The coach explained when to use "announcing" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "announcing" in real sentences.

---

applied anatomy (noun)

The practical application of anatomical knowledge to diagnosis and treatment.

- He looked up "applied anatomy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "applied anatomy."

---

armor plate (noun)

Specially hardened steel plate used to protect fortifications or vehicles from enemy fire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “armor plate.”
- Understanding “armor plate” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

atomic weapon (noun)

A weapon of mass destruction whose explosive power derives from a nuclear reaction.

- They discussed “atomic weapon” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “atomic weapon.”

---

automotive vehicle (noun)

A self-propelled wheeled vehicle that does not run on rails.

- The article explained what “automotive vehicle” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “automotive vehicle” to mean a self-propelled wheeled vehicle that does not run....

---

backyard (noun)

The grounds in back of a house.

- They discussed “backyard” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “backyard” to mean the grounds in back of a house.

---

beth (noun)

The 2nd letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

- They discussed “beth” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “beth.”

---

bicycle wheel (noun)

The wheel of a bicycle.

- In class, the teacher used “bicycle wheel” to mean the wheel of a bicycle.
- The article explained what “bicycle wheel” means with a simple example.

---

billboard (noun)

Large outdoor signboard.

- The article explained what “billboard” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “billboard” to mean large outdoor signboard.

---

blades (noun)

The part of the skate that slides on the ice.

- Gay young blades bragged of their amorous adventures.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blades.”

---

bloom of youth (noun)

The best time of youth.

- The article explained what “bloom of youth” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “bloom of youth” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bully (noun)

A cruel and brutal fellow.

- In class, the teacher used “bully” to mean a cruel and brutal fellow.
- He looked up “bully” because he had never seen it before.

---

bunny girl (noun)

A young waitress in a nightclub whose costume includes the tail and ears of a rabbit.

- He looked up “bunny girl” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bunny girl.”

---

burke (verb)

Get rid of, silence, or suppress.

- Burke an issue.
- In everyday English, people use “burke” when talking about this idea.

cables (noun)

A television system that transmits over cables.

- In class, the teacher used "cables" to mean a television system that transmits over cables.
- They discussed "cables" during the group presentation.

calculate (verb)

Have faith or confidence in.

- Learners should practice how to use "calculate" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "calculate" and when to wait.

calculations (noun)

Planning something carefully and intentionally.

- He looked up "calculations" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "calculations" to mean planning something carefully and intentionally.

capital of delaware (noun)

The capital of the state of Delaware.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of delaware" to mean the capital of the state of delaware.
- They discussed "capital of delaware" during the group presentation.

capital of ghana (noun)

The capital and largest city of Ghana with a deep-water port.

- He looked up "capital of ghana" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of ghana" to mean the capital and largest city of ghana with a....

capital of saudi arabia (noun)

Joint capital (with Mecca) of Saudi Arabia located in the central oasis; largest city in Saudi Arabia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of saudi arabia."
- He looked up "capital of saudi arabia" because he had never seen it before.

capital of sudan (noun)

The capital of Sudan located at the confluence of the Blue Nile and White Nile.

- Understanding "capital of sudan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of sudan" to mean the capital of sudan located at the confluence of....

cellular phone (noun)

A hand-held mobile radiotelephone for use in an area divided into small sections, each with its own short-range transmitter/receiver.

- In class, the teacher used "cellular phone" to mean a hand-held mobile radiotelephone for use in an....
- He looked up "cellular phone" because he had never seen it before.

champagne cup (noun)

A punch containing a sparkling wine.

- Understanding "champagne cup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "champagne cup" during the group presentation.

charles christopher parker (noun)

United States saxophonist and leader of the bop style of jazz (1920-1955).

- Understanding "charles christopher parker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "charles christopher parker" during the group presentation.

charles frederick worth (noun)

French couturier (born in England) regarded as the founder of Parisian haute couture; noted for introducing the bustle (1825-1895).

- They discussed "charles frederick worth" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charles frederick worth."

chicks (noun)

Informal terms for a (young) woman.

- They discussed "chicks" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chicks."

choir school (noun)

A school that is part of a cathedral or monastery where boys with singing ability can receive a general education.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "choir school."
- He looked up "choir school" because he had never seen it before.

coconut water (noun)

Clear to whitish fluid from within a fresh coconut.

- He looked up "coconut water" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "coconut water" to mean clear to whitish fluid from within a fresh coconut.

compound lens (noun)

A lens system consisting of two or more lenses on the same axis.

- The article explained what "compound lens" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "compound lens" during the group presentation.

conceived (verb)

Judge or regard; look upon; judge.

- He conceived of a robot that would help paralyzed patients.
- This library was well conceived.

consult (verb)

Have a conference in order to talk something over.

- Consult your local broker.
- They had to consult before arriving at a decision.

cool one's heels (verb)

Wait or pass the time aimlessly or futilely; be kept waiting.

- She kicked her heels for hours at the gate of the Embassy.
- The coach explained when to use "cool one's heels" and when to wait.

coup de theatre (noun)

A highly successful theatrical production.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coup de theatre."
- He looked up "coup de theatre" because he had never seen it before.

crashes (noun)

A serious accident (usually involving one or more vehicles).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crashes."
- He looked up "crashes" because he had never seen it before.

crowds (noun)

A large number of things or people considered together.

- He looked up "crowds" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crowds."

cs gas (noun)

A tear gas that is stronger than CN gas but wears off faster; can be deployed by grenades or cluster bombs; can cause skin burns and fatal pulmonary edema.

- The article explained what "cs gas" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cs gas" to mean a tear gas that is stronger than cn gas but wears....

curry favor (verb)

Seek favor by fawning or flattery.

- This employee is currying favor with his superordinates.

- He did not know how to use "curry favor" until he saw an example.

---

damned (noun)

People who are condemned to eternal punishment.

- He felt he had visited the realm of the damned.
- They discussed "damned" during the group presentation.

---

deaf-and-dumb person (noun)

A deaf person who is unable to speak.

- Understanding "deaf-and-dumb person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deaf-and-dumb person."

---

deep-dish pie (noun)

A pie made of fruit with rich biscuit dough usually only on top of the fruit.

- The article explained what "deep-dish pie" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "deep-dish pie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

distinguish (verb)

Be a distinctive feature, attribute, or trait; sometimes in a very positive sense.

- His modesty distinguishes him from his peers.
- We distinguish several kinds of maple.

---

distinguished conduct medal (noun)

A British military decoration for distinguished conduct in the field.

- The article explained what "distinguished conduct medal" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "distinguished conduct medal."

---

distress signal (noun)

An internationally recognized signal sent out by a ship or plane indicating that help is needed.

- The article explained what "distress signal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "distress signal" to mean an internationally recognized signal sent out by a....

---

dominate (verb)

Have dominance or the power to defeat over.

- Hispanics predominate in this neighborhood.
- Her husband completely dominates her.

---

drama critic (noun)

A critic of theatrical performances.

- They discussed "drama critic" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "drama critic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dynasty (noun)

A sequence of powerful leaders in the same family.

- In class, the teacher used "dynasty" to mean a sequence of powerful leaders in the same family.
- Understanding "dynasty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

eastern orthodox (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of the Eastern Orthodox Church.

- A "eastern orthodox" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "eastern orthodox" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of the eastern....

---

economist (noun)

An expert in the science of economics.

- They discussed "economist" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "economist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ed sullivan (noun)

United States host on a well known television variety show (1902-1974).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ed sullivan."
- Understanding "ed sullivan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electric automobile (noun)

A car that is powered by electricity.

- He looked up "electric automobile" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric automobile."

elimination reaction (noun)

A chemical reaction in which a molecule decomposes to two different molecules.

- He looked up "elimination reaction" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "elimination reaction" to mean a chemical reaction in which a molecule decomposes....

endorsed (verb)

Give support or one's approval to.

- Learners should practice how to use "endorsed" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "endorsed" and when to wait.

estates general (noun)

Assembly of the estates of all France; last meeting in 1789.

- The article explained what "estates general" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "estates general."

europeans (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Europe.

- In class, the teacher used "europeans" to mean a native or inhabitant of europe.
- They discussed "europeans" during the group presentation.

examining (verb)

Observe, check out, and look over carefully or inspect.

- Learners should practice how to use "examining" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "examining" carefully so everyone would understand.

explicit definition (noun)

A definition that gives an exact equivalent of the term defined.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "explicit definition."
- He looked up "explicit definition" because he had never seen it before.

extensively (adverb)

In a widespread way.

- Oxidation ponds are extensively used for sewage treatment in the Midwest.
- Place "extensively" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

eye of ra (noun)

A lion-headed Egyptian goddess; typifies life-destroying power of the sun.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eye of ra."
- Understanding "eye of ra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fairy tale (noun)

A story about fairies; told to amuse children.

- The article explained what "fairy tale" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fairy tale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fallen arch (noun)

An instep flattened so the entire sole rests on the ground.

- He looked up "fallen arch" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fallen arch" to mean an instep flattened so the entire sole rests on the....

---

fda (noun)

A federal agency in the Department of Health and Human Services established to regulate the release of new foods and health-related products.

- They discussed "fda" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fda."

---

flight indicator (noun)

A navigational instrument based on a gyroscope; it artificially provides a simulated horizon for the pilot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flight indicator."
- The article explained what "flight indicator" means with a simple example.

---

flood lamp (noun)

Light that is a source of artificial illumination having a broad beam; used in photography.

- In class, the teacher used "flood lamp" to mean light that is a source of artificial illumination....
- Understanding "flood lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flood tide (noun)

The highest point of anything conceived of as growing or developing or unfolding.

- In the flood tide of his success.
- A tide in the affairs of men which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune.

---

fluid mechanics (noun)

Study of the mechanics of fluids.

- The article explained what "fluid mechanics" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fluid mechanics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

forehead (noun)

The large cranial bone forming the front part of the cranium: includes the upper part of the orbits.

- Understanding "forehead" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "forehead" to mean the large cranial bone forming the front part of....

---

foreigners (noun)

A person who comes from a foreign country; someone who does not owe allegiance to your country.

- Understanding "foreigners" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foreigners."

---

fortune cookie (noun)

Thin folded wafer containing a maxim on a slip of paper.

- The article explained what "fortune cookie" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fortune cookie."

---

frederick william ii (noun)

King of Prussia who became involved in a costly war with France (1744-1797).

- In class, the teacher used "frederick william ii" to mean king of prussia who became involved in a costly war....
- They discussed "frederick william ii" during the group presentation.

---

french sudan (noun)

A landlocked republic in northwestern Africa; achieved independence from France in 1960; Mali was a center of West African civilization for more than 4,000 years.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french sudan."
- Understanding "french sudan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

funeral chapel (noun)

A mortuary where those who knew the deceased can come to pay their last respects.

- He looked up "funeral chapel" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "funeral chapel" to mean a mortuary where those who knew the deceased can....

funny wagon (noun)

An ambulance used to transport patients to a mental hospital.

- He looked up "funny wagon" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "funny wagon" to mean an ambulance used to transport patients to a mental....

gem (noun)

A crystalline rock that can be cut and polished for jewelry.

- He had the gem set in a ring for his wife.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gem."

graves (noun)

English writer known for his interest in mythology and in the classics (1895-1985).

- In class, the teacher used "graves" to mean english writer known for his interest in mythology....
- They discussed "graves" during the group presentation.

green onion (noun)

A young onion before the bulb has enlarged; eaten in salads.

- He looked up "green onion" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green onion."

gregory (noun)

The pope who sponsored the introduction of the modern calendar (1572-1585).

- They discussed "gregory" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "gregory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gregory i (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) an Italian pope distinguished for his spiritual and temporal leadership; a saint and Doctor of the Church (540?-604).

- He looked up "gregory i" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gregory i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gregory the great (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) an Italian pope distinguished for his spiritual and temporal leadership; a saint and Doctor of the Church (540?-604).

- The article explained what "gregory the great" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "gregory the great" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

half-yearly (adverb)

Every half year, every six months.

- She spoke "half-yearly," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "half-yearly" can make your explanation more exact.

hand over fist (adverb)

At a tremendous rate.

- Made money hand over fist.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "hand over fist" naturally.

haul away (verb)

Take away by means of a vehicle.

- The coach explained when to use "haul away" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "haul away" in real sentences.

hayes (noun)

Acclaimed actress of stage and screen (1900-1993).

- He looked up "hayes" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hayes."

horizontal section (noun)

A mechanical drawing of an object as if made by a plane cutting through it horizontally.

- The article explained what "horizontal section" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horizontal section."

---

horse pistol (noun)

A large pistol (usually in a holster) formerly carried by horsemen.

- Understanding "horse pistol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "horse pistol" because he had never seen it before.

---

horse-pistol (noun)

A large pistol (usually in a holster) formerly carried by horsemen.

- The article explained what "horse-pistol" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse-pistol."

---

ice wagon (noun)

(formerly) a horse-drawn wagon that delivered ice door to door.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice wagon."
- The article explained what "ice wagon" means with a simple example.

---

ice-wagon (noun)

(formerly) a horse-drawn wagon that delivered ice door to door.

- Understanding "ice-wagon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ice-wagon" to mean (formerly) a horse-drawn wagon that delivered ice....

---

illegally (adverb)

In an illegal manner.

- They dumped the waste illegally.
- The narrator describes the scene "illegally" in the final chapter.

---

illustrations (noun)

An item of information that is typical of a class or group.

- The article explained what "illustrations" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "illustrations."

---

inherited disease (noun)

A disease or disorder that is inherited genetically.

- In class, the teacher used "inherited disease" to mean a disease or disorder that is inherited genetically.
- He looked up "inherited disease" because he had never seen it before.

---

ink-jet (adjective)

Of or relating to an ink-jet printer.

- It is useful to describe something as "ink-jet" when it is of or relating to an ink-jet printer.
- Would you call this situation "ink-jet"? Explain why.

---

international candle (noun)

A former international unit of luminous intensity; now replaced by the candela.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "international candle."
- The article explained what "international candle" means with a simple example.

---

intersection point (noun)

A point where lines intersect.

- They discussed "intersection point" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intersection point."

---

interstate highway (noun)

One of the system of highways linking major cities in the 48 contiguous states of the United States.

- He looked up "interstate highway" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "interstate highway" during the group presentation.

iraqi intelligence service (noun)

The most notorious and possibly the most important arm of Iraq's security system.

- The Iraqi Mukhabarat has been involved in numerous terrorist activities.
- Understanding "iraqi intelligence service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

j particle (noun)

A neutral meson with a large mass.

- In class, the teacher used "j particle" to mean a neutral meson with a large mass.
- Understanding "j particle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jew (noun)

A person belonging to the worldwide group claiming descent from Jacob (or converted to it) and connected by cultural or religious ties.

- Understanding "jew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jew."

jewelry maker (noun)

Someone who makes jewelry.

- He looked up "jewelry maker" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jewelry maker."

jungle fever (noun)

Severe form of malaria occurring in tropical regions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jungle fever."
- He looked up "jungle fever" because he had never seen it before.

juvenile body (noun)

The body of a young person.

- Understanding "juvenile body" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "juvenile body" means with a simple example.

juvenile court (noun)

A court having jurisdiction over dependent and delinquent children.

- The article explained what "juvenile court" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "juvenile court" during the group presentation.

juvenile person (noun)

A young person, not fully developed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "juvenile person."
- Understanding "juvenile person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

kenya fever (noun)

A disease (common in India and around the Mediterranean area) caused by a rickettsia that is transmitted to humans by a reddish brown tick (ixodid) that lives on dogs and other mammals.

- In class, the teacher used "kenya fever" to mean a disease (common in india and around the....
- The article explained what "kenya fever" means with a simple example.

law of proximity (noun)

A Gestalt principle of organization holding that (other things being equal) objects or events that are near to one another (in space or time) are perceived as belonging together as a unit.

- In class, the teacher used "law of proximity" to mean a gestalt principle of organization holding that....
- The article explained what "law of proximity" means with a simple example.

learnt (verb)

Get to know or become aware of, usually accidentally.

- The coach explained when to use "learnt" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "learnt" until he saw an example.

lighter-than-air craft (noun)

Aircraft supported by its own buoyancy.

- Understanding "lighter-than-air craft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lighter-than-air craft" because he had never seen it before.

---

low-birth-weight infant (noun)

An infant born weighing less than 5.5 pounds (2500 grams) regardless of gestational age.

- A low-birth-weight infant is at risk for developing lack of oxygen during labor.
- They discussed "low-birth-weight infant" during the group presentation.

---

marker (noun)

Some conspicuous object used to distinguish or mark something.

- The buoys were markers for the channel.
- In class, the teacher used "marker" to mean some conspicuous object used to distinguish or mark....

---

marsh (noun)

Low-lying wet land with grassy vegetation; usually is a transition zone between land and water.

- Thousands of acres of marshland.
- They discussed "marsh" during the group presentation.

---

marshal (noun)

A law officer having duties similar to those of a sheriff in carrying out the judgments of a court of law.

- In class, the teacher used "marshal" to mean a law officer having duties similar to those of a....
- The article explained what "marshal" means with a simple example.

---

mathematical logic (noun)

Any logical system that abstracts the form of statements away from their content in order to establish abstract criteria of consistency and validity.

- He looked up "mathematical logic" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mathematical logic" during the group presentation.

---

maturity (noun)

The date on which an obligation must be repaid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maturity."
- He looked up "maturity" because he had never seen it before.

---

maya (noun)

A member of an American Indian people of Yucatan and Belize and Guatemala who had a culture (which reached its peak between AD 300 and 900) characterized by outstanding architecture and pottery and astronomy.

- Mayans had a system of writing and an accurate calendar.
- He looked up "maya" because he had never seen it before.

---

medical specialty (noun)

The branches of medical science that deal with nonsurgical techniques.

- The article explained what "medical specialty" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "medical specialty" during the group presentation.

---

metric system (noun)

A decimal system of weights and measures based on the meter and the kilogram and the second.

- The article explained what "metric system" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "metric system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

military recruit (noun)

A recently enlisted soldier.

- They discussed "military recruit" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "military recruit" to mean a recently enlisted soldier.

---

morrison (noun)

United States writer whose novels describe the lives of African-Americans (born in 1931).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morrison."
- They discussed "morrison" during the group presentation.

---

mortality table (noun)

An actuarial table indicating life expectancy and probability of death as a function or age and sex and occupation etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mortality table."
- They discussed "mortality table" during the group presentation.

---

mouse nest (noun)

Where mice bear and raise their young.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mouse nest."
- The article explained what "mouse nest" means with a simple example.

---

muhammad (noun)

The Arab prophet who, according to Islam, was the last messenger of Allah (570-632).

- Understanding "muhammad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "muhammad" during the group presentation.

---

narrow gauge (noun)

A railroad track (or its width) narrower than the standard 56.5 inches.

- In class, the teacher used "narrow gauge" to mean a railroad track (or its width) narrower than the....
- They discussed "narrow gauge" during the group presentation.

---

national liberation army (noun)

A Marxist terrorist group formed in 1963 by Colombian intellectuals who were inspired by the Cuban Revolution; responsible for a campaign of mass kidnappings and resistance to the government's efforts to stop the drug trade.

- In class, the teacher used "national liberation army" to mean a marxist terrorist group formed in 1963 by....
- The article explained what "national liberation army" means with a simple example.

---

national socialism (noun)

A form of socialism featuring racism and expansionism and obedience to a strong leader.

- Understanding "national socialism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "national socialism" to mean a form of socialism featuring racism and....

---

nationalist leader (noun)

The leader of a nationalist movement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nationalist leader."
- He looked up "nationalist leader" because he had never seen it before.

---

natural elevation (noun)

A raised or elevated geological formation.

- In class, the teacher used "natural elevation" to mean a raised or elevated geological formation.
- They discussed "natural elevation" during the group presentation.

---

neighbours (noun)

A nearby object of the same kind.

- He looked up "neighbours" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neighbours."

---

neo-latin (noun)

Latin since the Renaissance; used for scientific nomenclature.

- The article explained what "neo-latin" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "neo-latin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

orange toast (noun)

Buttered toast with sugar and grated orange rind and a little orange juice.

- They discussed "orange toast" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "orange toast" to mean buttered toast with sugar and grated orange rind....

pain sensation (noun)

A somatic sensation of acute discomfort.

- As the intensity increased the sensation changed from tickle to pain.
- Understanding "pain sensation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

peace advocacy (noun)

Any policy that advocates maintaining peaceful international relations.

- He looked up "peace advocacy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "peace advocacy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

peaks (noun)

The most extreme possible amount or value.

- He looked up "peaks" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "peaks" to mean the most extreme possible amount or value.

peanut oil (noun)

An oil from peanuts; used in cooking and making soap.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peanut oil."
- They discussed "peanut oil" during the group presentation.

pharmacy (noun)

A retail shop where medicine and other articles are sold.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pharmacy."
- He looked up "pharmacy" because he had never seen it before.

philip vi (noun)

King of France who founded the Valois dynasty; his dispute with Edward III over his succession led to the Hundred Years' War (1293-1350).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "philip vi."
- Understanding "philip vi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pipe fitting (noun)

Fitting consisting of threaded pieces of pipe for joining pipes together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pipe fitting."
- They discussed "pipe fitting" during the group presentation.

pirate flag (noun)

A flag usually bearing a white skull and crossbones on a black background; indicates a pirate ship.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pirate flag."
- The article explained what "pirate flag" means with a simple example.

plate armor (noun)

Specially hardened steel plate used to protect fortifications or vehicles from enemy fire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plate armor."
- Understanding "plate armor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

point of intersection (noun)

A point where lines intersect.

- He looked up "point of intersection" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "point of intersection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pools (noun)

An organization of people or resources that can be shared.

- They discussed "pools" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pools" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

postal rate commission (noun)

An independent federal agency that recommends changes in postal rates.

- Understanding "postal rate commission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "postal rate commission" to mean an independent federal agency that recommends....

---

preparations (noun)

A substance prepared according to a formula.

- Preparations for the ceremony had begun.
- Understanding "preparations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pressure dome (noun)

A dome-shaped building that is pressurized.

- He looked up "pressure dome" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pressure dome" to mean a dome-shaped building that is pressurized.

---

pressure sensation (noun)

The somatic sensation that results from applying force to an area of skin.

- The sensitivity of his skin to pressure and temperature was normal.
- They discussed "pressure sensation" during the group presentation.

---

promotional (adjective)

Of or relating to advancement.

- Promotional exams.
- Promotional fares.

---

psychiatric (adjective)

Relating to or used in or engaged in the practice of psychiatry.

- Psychiatric disorder.
- Psychiatric hospital.

---

racing gig (noun)

A light narrow racing boat for two or more oarsmen.

- They discussed "racing gig" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "racing gig" because he had never seen it before.

---

re-emerge (verb)

Appear again.

- Can you use "re-emerge" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "re-emerge" until he saw an example.

---

recreational drug (noun)

A narcotic drug that is used only occasionally and is claimed to be nonaddictive.

- They discussed "recreational drug" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "recreational drug."

---

red onion (noun)

Flat mild onion having purplish tunics; used as garnish on hamburgers and salads.

- In class, the teacher used "red onion" to mean flat mild onion having purplish tunics; used as....
- The article explained what "red onion" means with a simple example.

---

regional anatomy (noun)

The study of anatomy based on regions or divisions of the body and emphasizing the relations between various structures (muscles and nerves and arteries etc.) in that region.

- He looked up "regional anatomy" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "regional anatomy" to mean the study of anatomy based on regions or divisions....

---

regulate (verb)

Fix or adjust the time, amount, degree, or rate of.

- Regulate the temperature.

- We cannot regulate the way people dress.

---

relative clause (noun)

A clause introduced by a relative pronoun.

- 'who visits frequently' is a relative clause in the sentence 'John, who visits frequently, is ill'.
- They discussed "relative clause" during the group presentation.

---

renaissance (noun)

The period of European history at the close of the Middle Ages and the rise of the modern world; a cultural rebirth from the 14th through the middle of the 17th centuries.

- In class, the teacher used "renaissance" to mean the period of european history at the close of the....
- The article explained what "renaissance" means with a simple example.

---

renaissance man (noun)

A modern scholar who is in a position to acquire more than superficial knowledge about many different interests.

- In class, the teacher used "renaissance man" to mean a modern scholar who is in a position to acquire....
- He looked up "renaissance man" because he had never seen it before.

---

roast (noun)

A piece of meat roasted or for roasting and of a size for slicing into more than one portion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roast."
- He looked up "roast" because he had never seen it before.

---

rubber stamp (noun)

A stamp (usually made of rubber) for imprinting a mark or design by hand.

- They discussed "rubber stamp" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rubber stamp" to mean a stamp (usually made of rubber) for imprinting a....

---

rubbish (noun)

Worthless material that is to be disposed of.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rubbish."
- Understanding "rubbish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

russian orthodox church (noun)

An independent church with its own Patriarch; until 1917 it was the established church or Russia.

- The article explained what "russian orthodox church" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "russian orthodox church" to mean an independent church with its own patriarch; until....

---

saga (noun)

A narrative telling the adventures of a hero or a family; originally (12th to 14th centuries) a story of the families that settled Iceland and their descendants but now any prose narrative that resembles such an account.

- He looked up "saga" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "saga" to mean a narrative telling the adventures of a hero or a....

---

scale wax (noun)

Partly refined paraffin wax.

- In class, the teacher used "scale wax" to mean partly refined paraffin wax.
- They discussed "scale wax" during the group presentation.

---

selective service (noun)

An independent federal agency that administers compulsory military service.

- The article explained what "selective service" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "selective service" to mean an independent federal agency that administers....

---

self-rising flour (noun)

A commercially prepared mixture of flour and salt and a leavening agent.

- The article explained what "self-rising flour" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-rising flour."

---

seth thomas (noun)

United States clockmaker who introduced mass production (1785-1859).

- He looked up "seth thomas" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seth thomas."

---

seventeen (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of sixteen and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seventeen."
- He looked up "seventeen" because he had never seen it before.

---

sheet anchor (noun)

Spare anchor for use in emergency.

- He looked up "sheet anchor" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sheet anchor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shields (noun)

A protective covering or structure.

- He looked up "shields" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shields."

---

soap bubble (noun)

A bubble formed by a thin soap film.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soap bubble."
- The article explained what "soap bubble" means with a simple example.

---

socialist republic of vietnam (noun)

A communist state in Indochina on the South China Sea; achieved independence from France in 1945.

- He looked up "socialist republic of vietnam" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "socialist republic of vietnam."

---

sodium (noun)

A silvery soft waxy metallic element of the alkali metal group; occurs abundantly in natural compounds (especially in salt water); burns with a yellow flame and reacts violently in water; occurs in sea water and in the mineral halite (rock salt).

- The article explained what "sodium" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sodium."

---

spark chamber (noun)

An instrument that detects ionizing radiation from elementary particles.

- The article explained what "spark chamber" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spark chamber" to mean an instrument that detects ionizing radiation from....

---

spark gap (noun)

The gap between two high-potential terminals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spark gap."
- They discussed "spark gap" during the group presentation.

---

spinning wheel (noun)

A small domestic spinning machine with a single spindle that is driven by hand or foot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spinning wheel."
- He looked up "spinning wheel" because he had never seen it before.

---

spoon food (noun)

A diet that does not require chewing; advised for those with intestinal disorders.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spoon food."
- He looked up "spoon food" because he had never seen it before.

---

state socialism (noun)

An economic system in which the government owns most means of production but some degree of private capitalism is allowed.

- They discussed "state socialism" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "state socialism" because he had never seen it before.

---

station wagon (noun)

A car that has a long body and rear door with space behind rear seat.

- He looked up "station wagon" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "station wagon" to mean a car that has a long body and rear door with space....

---

stepping motor (noun)

A motor (especially an electric motor) that moves or rotates in small discrete steps.

- The article explained what "stepping motor" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stepping motor."

---

swallow (noun)

A small amount of liquid food.

- One swallow of the liquid was enough.
- The article explained what "swallow" means with a simple example.

---

swallow up (verb)

Enclose or envelop completely, as if by swallowing.

- The huge waves swallowed the small boat and it sank shortly thereafter.
- Learners should practice how to use "swallow up" in real sentences.

---

systematic (adjective)

Of or relating to taxonomy.

- The investigation was very systematic.
- A systematic administrator.

---

tablet-armed chair (noun)

A chair with an arm that has been widened for writing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tablet-armed chair."
- He looked up "tablet-armed chair" because he had never seen it before.

---

tail lamp (noun)

Lamp (usually red) mounted at the rear of a motor vehicle.

- Understanding "tail lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tail lamp" because he had never seen it before.

---

tea towel (noun)

A towel for drying dishes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tea towel."
- Understanding "tea towel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

the three estates (noun)

A major social class or order of persons regarded collectively as part of the body politic of the country (especially in the United Kingdom) and formerly possessing distinct political rights.

- Understanding "the three estates" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "the three estates" during the group presentation.

---

theaters (noun)

A region in which active military operations are in progress.

- In class, the teacher used "theaters" to mean a region in which active military operations are in....
- The article explained what "theaters" means with a simple example.

---

unit of ammunition (noun)

A charge of ammunition for a single shot.

- Understanding "unit of ammunition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "unit of ammunition" because he had never seen it before.

united self-defense group of colombia (noun)

A terrorist organization in Colombia formed in 1997 as an umbrella for local and regional paramilitary groups; is financed by earnings from narcotics and serves to protect the economic interests of its members.

- He looked up "united self-defense group of colombia" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "united self-defense group of colombia" during the group presentation.

upstairs (noun)

The part of a building above the ground floor.

- No one was allowed to see the upstairs.
- The article explained what "upstairs" means with a simple example.

vacuum pump (noun)

A pump that moves air in or out of something.

- They discussed "vacuum pump" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vacuum pump."

voluntary muscle (noun)

Striated muscle that can be controlled voluntarily.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "voluntary muscle."
- He looked up "voluntary muscle" because he had never seen it before.

washington monument (noun)

A stone obelisk built in Washington in 1884 to honor George Washington; 555 feet tall.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "washington monument."
- He looked up "washington monument" because he had never seen it before.

wee (noun)

A short time.

- Bide a wee.
- The article explained what "wee" means with a simple example.

welcome wagon (noun)

A wheeled vehicle carrying information and gifts from local merchants for new residents in an area.

- In class, the teacher used "welcome wagon" to mean a wheeled vehicle carrying information and gifts....
- Understanding "welcome wagon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

woo (verb)

Make amorous advances towards.

- China is wooing Russia.
- He did not know how to use "woo" until he saw an example.

word of farewell (noun)

An acknowledgment or expression of goodwill at parting.

- They discussed "word of farewell" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "word of farewell" because he had never seen it before.

yale university (noun)

A university in Connecticut.

- The article explained what "yale university" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "yale university" to mean a university in connecticut.

zip (noun)

A quantity of no importance.

- He's full of zip.
- The article explained what "zip" means with a simple example.

zip up (verb)

Close with a zipper.

- Zip up your jacket–it's cold.
- Learners should practice how to use "zip up" in real sentences.

---

abs (noun)

Any of a class of composite plastics used to make car bodies and cases for computers and other appliances.

- He looked up "abs" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "abs."

---

acoustic guitar (noun)

Sound is not amplified by electrical means.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acoustic guitar."
- He looked up "acoustic guitar" because he had never seen it before.

---

alberta (noun)

One of the three prairie provinces in western Canada; rich in oil and natural gas and minerals.

- They discussed "alberta" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "alberta" because he had never seen it before.

---

anal phase (noun)

(psychoanalysis) the second sexual and social stage of a child's development during which bowel control is learned.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anal phase."
- He looked up "anal phase" because he had never seen it before.

---

antique (verb)

Give an antique appearance to.

- Antique furniture.
- In everyday English, people use "antique" when talking about this idea.

---

ave maria (noun)

A salutation to the Virgin Mary now used in prayers to her.

- In class, the teacher used "ave maria" to mean a salutation to the virgin mary now used in prayers....
- Understanding "ave maria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

baptist (noun)

Follower of Baptistic doctrines.

- The article explained what "baptist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "baptist" to mean follower of baptistic doctrines.

---

beach wagon (noun)

A car that has a long body and rear door with space behind rear seat.

- The article explained what "beach wagon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "beach wagon" to mean a car that has a long body and rear door with space....

---

behavioral (adjective)

Of or relating to behavior.

- Behavioral sciences.
- The speaker chose "behavioral" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

blank verse (noun)

Unrhymed verse (usually in iambic pentameter).

- The article explained what "blank verse" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "blank verse" to mean unrhymed verse (usually in iambic pentameter).

---

bore-hole (noun)

A hole or passage made by a drill; usually made for exploratory purposes.

- They discussed "bore-hole" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "bore-hole" to mean a hole or passage made by a drill; usually made for....

---

breeze through (verb)

Succeed at easily.

- She sailed through her exams.
- The coach explained when to use "breeze through" and when to wait.

---

capital of peru (noun)

Capital and largest city and economic center of Peru; located in western Peru; was capital of the Spanish empire in the New World until the 19th century.

- The article explained what "capital of peru" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "capital of peru" during the group presentation.

---

career counseling (noun)

Counseling on career opportunities.

- The article explained what "career counseling" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "career counseling."

---

cargo helicopter (noun)

A helicopter that carries cargo.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cargo helicopter."
- The article explained what "cargo helicopter" means with a simple example.

---

carl rogers (noun)

United States psychologist who developed client-centered therapy (1902-1987).

- He looked up "carl rogers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carl rogers."

---

cattle grid (noun)

A bridge over a ditch consisting of parallel metal bars that allow pedestrians and vehicles to pass, but not cattle.

- They discussed "cattle grid" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cattle grid" because he had never seen it before.

---

cleaning pad (noun)

A pad used as a cleaning implement.

- He looked up "cleaning pad" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cleaning pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cocktail table (noun)

Low table where magazines can be placed and coffee or cocktails are served.

- Understanding "cocktail table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cocktail table" because he had never seen it before.

---

cod oil (noun)

An inferior cod-liver oil that is used in leather manufacturing.

- In class, the teacher used "cod oil" to mean an inferior cod-liver oil that is used in leather....
- The article explained what "cod oil" means with a simple example.

---

cognitive scientist (noun)

A scientist who studies cognitive processes.

- Understanding "cognitive scientist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cognitive scientist" during the group presentation.

---

coin blank (noun)

A flat metal disk ready for stamping as a coin.

- They discussed "coin blank" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "coin blank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

command overhead (noun)

(computer science) the processing time required by a device prior to the execution of a command.

- They discussed "command overhead" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "command overhead" to mean (computer science) the processing time required by....

---

commodity (noun)

Articles of commerce.

- The article explained what "commodity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "commodity" to mean articles of commerce.

---

congressman (noun)

A member of the United States House of Representatives.

- Understanding "congressman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "congressman" because he had never seen it before.

---

cooperative (noun)

An association formed and operated for the benefit of those using it.

- The article explained what "cooperative" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cooperative" during the group presentation.

---

coral (noun)

The hard stony skeleton of a Mediterranean coral that has a delicate red or pink color and is used for jewelry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coral."
- They discussed "coral" during the group presentation.

---

coupon (noun)

A negotiable certificate that can be detached and redeemed as needed.

- In class, the teacher used "coupon" to mean a negotiable certificate that can be detached and....
- Understanding "coupon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cow pie (noun)

Fecal matter of a cow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cow pie."
- They discussed "cow pie" during the group presentation.

---

crosses (verb)

To cover or extend over an area or time period; ,.

- She tried to use "crosses" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "crosses" in real sentences.

---

czech republic (noun)

A landlocked republic in central Europe; separated from Slovakia in 1993.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "czech republic."
- Understanding "czech republic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

data processor (noun)

A machine for performing calculations automatically.

- In class, the teacher used "data processor" to mean a machine for performing calculations automatically.
- The article explained what "data processor" means with a simple example.

---

day of judgement (noun)

(New Testament) day at the end of time following Armageddon when God will decree the fates of all individual humans according to the good and evil of their earthly lives.

- He looked up "day of judgement" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "day of judgement."

---

deep-fry (verb)

Cook by immersing in fat.

- The coach explained when to use "deep-fry" and when to wait.

- He did not know how to use “deep-fry” until he saw an example.

defines (verb)

Give a definition for the meaning of a word.

- What defines a good wine?
- She tried to use “defines” carefully so everyone would understand.

demonstrates (verb)

March in protest; take part in a demonstration.

- This decision demonstrates his sense of fairness.
- In everyday English, people use “demonstrates” when talking about this idea.

dentist (noun)

A person qualified to practice dentistry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dentist.”
- He looked up “dentist” because he had never seen it before.

desk clerk (noun)

A hotel receptionist.

- In class, the teacher used “desk clerk” to mean a hotel receptionist.
- The article explained what “desk clerk” means with a simple example.

diplomatic negotiations (noun)

Negotiation between nations.

- In class, the teacher used “diplomatic negotiations” to mean negotiation between nations.
- The article explained what “diplomatic negotiations” means with a simple example.

do the honors (verb)

Act as the host and receive or introduce one’s guests.

- Can you use “do the honors” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “do the honors” carefully so everyone would understand.

dock worker (noun)

A laborer who loads and unloads vessels in a port.

- They discussed “dock worker” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “dock worker” means with a simple example.

dodgers (noun)

A shifty deceptive person.

- In class, the teacher used “dodgers” to mean a shifty deceptive person.
- The article explained what “dodgers” means with a simple example.

dough (noun)

A flour mixture stiff enough to knead or roll.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dough.”
- He looked up “dough” because he had never seen it before.

drilling platform (noun)

Drilling rig consisting of an offshore platform (floating or fixed to the sea bed) from which many oil wells can be bored radially.

- Understanding “drilling platform” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “drilling platform” because he had never seen it before.

dutch leonard (noun)

United States writer of thrillers (born in 1925).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dutch leonard.”
- They discussed “dutch leonard” during the group presentation.

electrical outlet (noun)

Receptacle providing a place in a wiring system where current can be taken to run electrical devices.

- The article explained what "electrical outlet" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "electrical outlet" to mean receptacle providing a place in a wiring system....

---

element of a cylinder (noun)

A straight line running the length of the cylinder.

- In class, the teacher used "element of a cylinder" to mean a straight line running the length of the cylinder.
- Understanding "element of a cylinder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

exhibited (verb)

To show, make visible or apparent.

- She tried to use "exhibited" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "exhibited" in real sentences.

---

extension cord (noun)

An electric cord used to extend the length of a power cord.

- They discussed "extension cord" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "extension cord" means with a simple example.

---

fade out (verb)

Become weaker.

- The sound faded out.
- She tried to use "fade out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fatigue (verb)

Lose interest or become bored with something or somebody.

- In everyday English, people use "fatigue" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "fatigue" in real sentences.

---

fellowship (noun)

An association of people who share common beliefs or activities.

- The church welcomed new members into its fellowship.
- They discussed "fellowship" during the group presentation.

---

fictional (adjective)

Related to or involving literary fiction.

- Clever fictional devices.
- A fictional treatment of the train robbery.

---

food processor (noun)

A kitchen appliance with interchangeable blades; used for shredding or blending or chopping or slicing food.

- Understanding "food processor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "food processor" means with a simple example.

---

french-fry (verb)

Cook by immersing in fat.

- French-fry the potatoes.
- The coach explained when to use "french-fry" and when to wait.

---

fringe (noun)

A part of the city far removed from the center.

- Members of the fringe believe we should be armed with guns at all times.
- They discussed "fringe" during the group presentation.

---

frontier settlement (noun)

A settlement on the frontier of civilization.

- In class, the teacher used "frontier settlement" to mean a settlement on the frontier of civilization.
- They discussed "frontier settlement" during the group presentation.

---

fuel indicator (noun)

An indicator of the amount of fuel remaining in a vehicle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fuel indicator."
- The article explained what "fuel indicator" means with a simple example.

---

fulfill (verb)

Meet the requirements or expectations of.

- Learners should practice how to use "fulfill" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "fulfill" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fur coat (noun)

A coat made of fur.

- Understanding "fur coat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fur coat" means with a simple example.

---

gaps (noun)

An open or empty space in or between things.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gaps."
- The article explained what "gaps" means with a simple example.

---

ginger beer (noun)

Carbonated slightly alcoholic drink flavored with fermented ginger.

- Understanding "ginger beer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ginger beer" during the group presentation.

---

glass wool (noun)

Glass fibers spun and massed into bundles resembling wool.

- They discussed "glass wool" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "glass wool."

---

glenn miller (noun)

United States bandleader of a popular big band (1909-1944).

- The article explained what "glenn miller" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "glenn miller" to mean united states bandleader of a popular big band....

---

greens (noun)

Any of various leafy plants or their leaves and stems eaten as vegetables.

- Understanding "greens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "greens" because he had never seen it before.

---

hail mary (noun)

A salutation to the Virgin Mary now used in prayers to her.

- They discussed "hail mary" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "hail mary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

handbook (noun)

A concise reference book providing specific information about a subject or location.

- He looked up "handbook" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "handbook."

---

heavy particle (noun)

Any of the elementary particles having a mass equal to or greater than that of a proton and that participate in strong interactions; a hadron with a baryon number of +1.

- The article explained what "heavy particle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "heavy particle" during the group presentation.

holy trinity (noun)

The union of the Father and Son and Holy Ghost in one Godhead.

- The article explained what "holy trinity" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "holy trinity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

honors (noun)

A tangible symbol signifying approval or distinction.

- They discussed "honors" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "honors" means with a simple example.

horizontal bar (noun)

Gymnastic apparatus consisting of a bar supported in a horizontal position by uprights at both ends.

- They discussed "horizontal bar" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horizontal bar."

insights (noun)

The clear (and often sudden) understanding of a complex situation.

- The article explained what "insights" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "insights" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

instinct (noun)

Inborn pattern of behavior often responsive to specific stimuli.

- The spawning instinct in salmon.
- Altruistic instincts in social animals.

ivan the great (noun)

Grand duke of Muscovy whose victories against the Tartars laid the basis for Russian unity (1440-1505).

- Understanding "ivan the great" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ivan the great."

jamaica apple (noun)

Large heart-shaped tropical fruit with soft acid pulp.

- In class, the teacher used "jamaica apple" to mean large heart-shaped tropical fruit with soft acid pulp.
- He looked up "jamaica apple" because he had never seen it before.

james monroe (noun)

5th President of the United States; author of the Monroe Doctrine (1758-1831).

- He looked up "james monroe" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "james monroe" during the group presentation.

joyce (noun)

Influential Irish writer noted for his many innovations (such as stream of consciousness writing) (1882-1941).

- He looked up "joyce" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joyce."

judgement (noun)

The legal document stating the reasons for a judicial decision.

- The article explained what "judgement" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "judgement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

judgement day (noun)

(New Testament) day at the end of time following Armageddon when God will decree the fates of all individual humans according to the good and evil of their earthly lives.

- They discussed "judgement day" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "judgement day" to mean (new testament) day at the end of time following....

judiciary (noun)

The system of law courts that administer justice and constitute the judicial branch of government.

- He looked up "judiciary" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "judiciary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

k particle (noun)

An unstable meson produced as the result of a high-energy particle collision.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "k particle."
- Understanding "k particle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lads (noun)

A male child (a familiar term of address to a boy).

- In class, the teacher used "lads" to mean a male child (a familiar term of address to a boy).
- Understanding "lads" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

last judgement (noun)

(New Testament) day at the end of time following Armageddon when God will decree the fates of all individual humans according to the good and evil of their earthly lives.

- The article explained what "last judgement" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "last judgement" to mean (new testament) day at the end of time following....

---

legion (noun)

A large military unit.

- The French Foreign Legion.
- The American Legion.

---

library catalog (noun)

An enumeration of all the resources of a library.

- Understanding "library catalog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "library catalog" to mean an enumeration of all the resources of a library.

---

library catalogue (noun)

An enumeration of all the resources of a library.

- He looked up "library catalogue" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "library catalogue."

---

library paste (noun)

An adhesive made from water and flour or starch; used on paper and paperboard.

- He looked up "library paste" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "library paste."

---

lime (noun)

A caustic substance produced by heating limestone.

- The article explained what "lime" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

literary hack (noun)

A mediocre and disdained writer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "literary hack."
- He looked up "literary hack" because he had never seen it before.

---

maid (noun)

An unmarried girl (especially a virgin).

- The article explained what "maid" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "maid" to mean an unmarried girl (especially a virgin).

---

manning (verb)

Take charge of a certain job; occupy a certain work place.

- Students were manning the booths.

- Learners should practice how to use “manning” in real sentences.

marble cake (noun)

Made of light and dark batter very lightly blended.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “marble cake.”
- He looked up “marble cake” because he had never seen it before.

mark hopkins (noun)

United States educator and theologian (1802-1887).

- They discussed “mark hopkins” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “mark hopkins” to mean united states educator and theologian (1802-1887).

metric space (noun)

A set of points such that for every pair of points there is a nonnegative real number called their distance that is symmetric and satisfies the triangle inequality.

- In class, the teacher used “metric space” to mean a set of points such that for every pair of points....
- Understanding “metric space” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mickey (noun)

(ethnic slur) offensive term for a person of Irish descent.

- In class, the teacher used “mickey” to mean (ethnic slur) offensive term for a person of irish....
- He looked up “mickey” because he had never seen it before.

milk float (noun)

A van (typically powered by electricity) with an open side that is used to deliver milk to houses.

- They discussed “milk float” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “milk float” means with a simple example.

mindset (noun)

A habitual or characteristic mental attitude that determines how you will interpret and respond to situations.

- In class, the teacher used “mindset” to mean a habitual or characteristic mental attitude that....
- The article explained what “mindset” means with a simple example.

mistress (noun)

A woman master who directs the work of others.

- Understanding “mistress” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “mistress” to mean a woman master who directs the work of others.

molecular biology (noun)

The branch of biology that studies the structure and activity of macromolecules essential to life (and especially with their genetic role).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “molecular biology.”
- He looked up “molecular biology” because he had never seen it before.

moms (noun)

Informal terms for a mother.

- In class, the teacher used “moms” to mean informal terms for a mother.
- The article explained what “moms” means with a simple example.

mon (noun)

The Mon-Khmer language spoken by the Mon.

- In class, the teacher used “mon” to mean the mon-khmer language spoken by the mon.
- Understanding “mon” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

monkeys (verb)

Do random, unplanned work or activities or spend time idly.

- Learners should practice how to use “monkeys” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “monkeys” when talking about this idea.

moral hazard (noun)

(economics) the lack of any incentive to guard against a risk when you are protected against it (as by insurance).

- Insurance companies are exposed to a moral hazard if the insured party is not honest.
- They discussed "moral hazard" during the group presentation.

---

morality (noun)

Motivation based on ideas of right and wrong.

- They discussed "morality" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "morality" because he had never seen it before.

---

mounting (noun)

An event that involves rising to a higher point (as in altitude or temperature or intensity etc.).

- They discussed "mounting" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mounting" because he had never seen it before.

---

mud pie (noun)

A mass of mud that a child has molded into the shape of pie.

- He looked up "mud pie" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mud pie" during the group presentation.

---

newspaper critic (noun)

A critic who writes a column for the newspapers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "newspaper critic."
- Understanding "newspaper critic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ni-hard iron (noun)

Cast iron to which nickel has been added to make it resist abrasion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ni-hard iron."
- The article explained what "ni-hard iron" means with a simple example.

---

night owl (noun)

A person who likes to be active late at night.

- Understanding "night owl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "night owl" means with a simple example.

---

non-metric (adjective)

Not based on the meter as a standard of measurement.

- It is useful to describe something as "non-metric" when it is not based on the meter as a standard of measurement.
- Would you call this situation "non-metric"? Explain why.

---

nsa (noun)

The United States cryptologic organization that coordinates and directs highly specialized activities to protect United States information systems and to produce foreign intelligence information.

- He looked up "nsa" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "nsa" to mean the united states cryptologic organization that....

---

oils (noun)

A dark oil consisting mainly of hydrocarbons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oils."
- They discussed "oils" during the group presentation.

---

operative (noun)

A person secretly employed in espionage for a government.

- The article explained what "operative" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "operative" during the group presentation.

---

outs (verb)

To state openly and publicly one's homosexuality.

- In everyday English, people use “outs” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “outs” in real sentences.

---

owed (verb)

Be indebted to, in an abstract or intellectual sense.

- He did not know how to use “owed” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “owed” and when to wait.

---

panama (noun)

A stiff hat made of straw with a flat crown.

- He looked up “panama” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “panama” to mean a stiff hat made of straw with a flat crown.

---

patches (noun)

A small area of ground covered by specific vegetation.

- Patches of thin ice.
- In class, the teacher used “patches” to mean a small area of ground covered by specific vegetation.

---

peanut bar (noun)

Bar of peanuts in taffy.

- He looked up “peanut bar” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “peanut bar” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pepper spray (noun)

A nonlethal aerosol spray made with the pepper derivative oleoresin capiscum; used to cause temporary blindness and incapacitate an attacker; also used as a bear deterrent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pepper spray.”
- He looked up “pepper spray” because he had never seen it before.

---

plain flour (noun)

Flour that does not contain a raising agent.

- In class, the teacher used “plain flour” to mean flour that does not contain a raising agent.
- The article explained what “plain flour” means with a simple example.

---

plastic explosive (noun)

An explosive material that is easily molded around the object it is intended to destroy.

- They discussed “plastic explosive” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “plastic explosive” means with a simple example.

---

polar circle (noun)

A line of latitude at the north or south poles.

- In class, the teacher used “polar circle” to mean a line of latitude at the north or south poles.
- Understanding “polar circle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

polar opposition (noun)

An opposition that can be graded between two extremes or poles.

- Understanding “polar opposition” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “polar opposition” during the group presentation.

---

portraits (noun)

A word picture of a person’s appearance and character.

- The photographer made excellent portraits.
- He looked up “portraits” because he had never seen it before.

---

positive magnetic pole (noun)

The pole of a magnet that points toward the north when the magnet is suspended freely.

- They discussed “positive magnetic pole” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “positive magnetic pole.”

post-maturity (noun)

The state in which women have stopped ovulating.

- Understanding "post-maturity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "post-maturity" because he had never seen it before.

pot liquor (noun)

The liquid in which vegetables or meat have be cooked.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pot liquor."
- They discussed "pot liquor" during the group presentation.

president hayes (noun)

19th President of the United States; his administration removed federal troops from the South and so ended the Reconstruction Period (1822-1893).

- Understanding "president hayes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "president hayes" because he had never seen it before.

printing ink (noun)

A semisolid quick drying ink made especially for use in printing.

- They discussed "printing ink" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "printing ink."

processed cheese (noun)

Made by blending several lots of cheese.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "processed cheese."
- Understanding "processed cheese" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

prompt (noun)

A cue given to a performer (usually the beginning of the next line to be spoken).

- The audience could hear his prompting.
- Understanding "prompt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

radius (noun)

A circular region whose area is indicated by the length of its radius.

- They located it within a radius of 2 miles.
- In class, the teacher used "radius" to mean a circular region whose area is indicated by the....

rear admiral (noun)

An admiral junior to a vice admiral.

- In class, the teacher used "rear admiral" to mean an admiral junior to a vice admiral.
- They discussed "rear admiral" during the group presentation.

red-header (noun)

Someone who has red hair.

- They discussed "red-header" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "red-header" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

referee (noun)

An attorney appointed by a court to investigate and report on a case.

- Understanding "referee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "referee" because he had never seen it before.

republic of colombia (noun)

A republic in northwestern South America with a coastline on the Pacific Ocean and the Caribbean Sea; achieved independence from Spain in 1821 under the leadership of Simon Bolivar; Spanish is the official language.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of colombia."
- They discussed "republic of colombia" during the group presentation.

republic of finland (noun)

Republic in northern Europe; achieved independence from Russia in 1917.

- The article explained what "republic of finland" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "republic of finland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

richard nixon (noun)

Vice president under Eisenhower and 37th President of the United States; resigned after the Watergate scandal in 1974 (1913-1994).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "richard nixon."
- Understanding "richard nixon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rig out (verb)

Put on special clothes to appear particularly appealing and attractive.

- She tried to use "rig out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "rig out" when talking about this idea.

---

rig up (verb)

Erect or construct, especially as a temporary measure.

- Can he rig up a P.A. system?
- Can you use "rig up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

robbery suspect (noun)

Someone suspected of committing robbery.

- He looked up "robbery suspect" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "robbery suspect" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rows (noun)

A long continuous strip (usually running horizontally).

- A mackerel sky filled with rows of clouds.
- Rows of barbed wire protected the trenches.

---

saint joan (noun)

French heroine and military leader inspired by religious visions to organize French resistance to the English and to have Charles VII crowned king; she was later tried for heresy and burned at the stake (1412-1431).

- The article explained what "saint joan" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "saint joan" to mean french heroine and military leader inspired by....

---

salad dressing (noun)

Savory dressings for salads; basically of two kinds: either the thin French or vinaigrette type or the creamy mayonnaise type.

- Understanding "salad dressing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "salad dressing" during the group presentation.

---

san sebastian (noun)

A city in northern Spain on the Bay of Biscay near the French border; a fashionable seaside resort.

- In class, the teacher used "san sebastian" to mean a city in northern spain on the bay of biscay near....
- They discussed "san sebastian" during the group presentation.

---

scroll (noun)

A document that can be rolled up (as for storage).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scroll."
- He looked up "scroll" because he had never seen it before.

---

searches (noun)

The examination of alternative hypotheses.

- In class, the teacher used "searches" to mean the examination of alternative hypotheses.
- The article explained what "searches" means with a simple example.

---

selective service system (noun)

An independent federal agency that administers compulsory military service.

- He looked up "selective service system" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “selective service system.”

simpson desert (noun)

A desert region of central Australia.

- He looked up “simpson desert” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “simpson desert” during the group presentation.

ski boot (noun)

A stiff boot that is fastened to a ski with a ski binding.

- The article explained what “ski boot” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “ski boot” during the group presentation.

skin sensation (noun)

A sensation localized on the skin.

- The article explained what “skin sensation” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “skin sensation” to mean a sensation localized on the skin.

smiled (verb)

Change one’s facial expression by spreading the lips, often to signal pleasure.

- She smiled her thanks.
- She tried to use “smiled” carefully so everyone would understand.

snacks (noun)

A light informal meal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “snacks.”
- He looked up “snacks” because he had never seen it before.

snakes (noun)

A long faint constellation in the southern hemisphere near the equator stretching between Virgo and Cancer.

- The article explained what “snakes” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “snakes” during the group presentation.

storage locker (noun)

A storage compartment for clothes and valuables; usually it has a lock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “storage locker.”
- They discussed “storage locker” during the group presentation.

strips (noun)

A relatively long narrow piece of something.

- They discussed “strips” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “strips” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

subjected (verb)

Cause to experience or suffer or make liable or vulnerable to.

- He subjected me to his awful poetry.
- The sergeant subjected the new recruits to many drills.

symbolic (adjective)

Relating to or using or proceeding by means of symbols.

- Symbolic logic.
- Symbolic operations.

sync (verb)

Make synchronous and adjust in time or manner.

- Let’s synchronize our efforts.
- Can you use “sync” in a sentence that fits this situation?

syrian arab republic (noun)

An Asian republic in the Middle East at the east end of the Mediterranean; site of some of the world's most ancient centers of civilization.

- In class, the teacher used "syrian arab republic" to mean an asian republic in the middle east at the east....
- The article explained what "syrian arab republic" means with a simple example.

---

tampa bay (noun)

An arm of the Gulf of Mexico in west central Florida.

- The article explained what "tampa bay" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tampa bay" to mean an arm of the gulf of mexico in west central florida.

---

taxpayer (noun)

Someone who pays taxes.

- Understanding "taxpayer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "taxpayer" means with a simple example.

---

ted hughes (noun)

English poet (born in 1930).

- The article explained what "ted hughes" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ted hughes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

teddy boy (noun)

A tough youth of 1950's and 1960's wearing Edwardian style clothes.

- In class, the teacher used "teddy boy" to mean a tough youth of 1950's and 1960's wearing....
- Understanding "teddy boy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

telegraph wire (noun)

The wire that carries telegraph and telephone signals.

- They discussed "telegraph wire" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "telegraph wire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

territorial division (noun)

A district defined for administrative purposes.

- Understanding "territorial division" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "territorial division" during the group presentation.

---

tooth powder (noun)

A dentifrice in the form of a powder.

- They discussed "tooth powder" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tooth powder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

touch sensation (noun)

The sensation produced by pressure receptors in the skin.

- She likes the touch of silk on her skin.
- They discussed "touch sensation" during the group presentation.

---

trilogy (noun)

A set of three literary or dramatic works related in subject or theme.

- He looked up "trilogy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trilogy."

---

trinity sunday (noun)

Eighth Sunday after Easter.

- The article explained what "trinity sunday" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trinity sunday" to mean eighth sunday after easter.

---

uncertainty principle (noun)

(quantum theory) the theory that it is impossible to measure both energy and time (or position and momentum) completely accurately at the same time.

- Understanding "uncertainty principle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "uncertainty principle" because he had never seen it before.

---

united self-defense force of colombia (noun)

A terrorist organization in Colombia formed in 1997 as an umbrella for local and regional paramilitary groups; is financed by earnings from narcotics and serves to protect the economic interests of its members.

- He looked up "united self-defense force of colombia" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "united self-defense force of colombia" during the group presentation.

---

url (noun)

The address of a web page on the world wide web.

- The article explained what "url" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "url" to mean the address of a web page on the world wide web.

---

wheelchair (noun)

A movable chair mounted on large wheels; for invalids or those who cannot walk; frequently propelled by the occupant.

- Understanding "wheelchair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wheelchair" during the group presentation.

---

whole meal flour (noun)

Flour made by grinding the entire wheat berry including the bran; ('whole meal flour' is British usage).

- Understanding "whole meal flour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "whole meal flour" because he had never seen it before.

---

william gilbert (noun)

A librettist who was a collaborator with Sir Arthur Sullivan in a famous series of comic operettas (1836-1911).

- He looked up "william gilbert" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "william gilbert."

---

william penn (noun)

Englishman and Quaker who founded the colony of Pennsylvania (1644-1718).

- He looked up "william penn" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "william penn" during the group presentation.

---

wiped (verb)

Rub with a circular motion.

- In everyday English, people use "wiped" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "wiped" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

yahoo (noun)

A person who is not very intelligent or interested in culture.

- He looked up "yahoo" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "yahoo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

abandoned infant (noun)

A child who has been abandoned and whose parents are unknown.

- In class, the teacher used "abandoned infant" to mean a child who has been abandoned and whose parents....
- The article explained what "abandoned infant" means with a simple example.

---

accusations (noun)

An assertion that someone is guilty of a fault or offence.

- They discussed "accusations" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "accusations" because he had never seen it before.

---

acid hydrogen (noun)

A hydrogen atom in an acid that forms a positive ion when the acid dissociates.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acid hydrogen."
- The article explained what "acid hydrogen" means with a simple example.

acute angle (noun)

An angle less than 90 degrees but more than 0 degrees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acute angle."
- Understanding "acute angle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

administrators (noun)

The party appointed by a probate court to distribute the estate of someone who dies without a will or without naming an executor.

- In class, the teacher used "administrators" to mean the party appointed by a probate court to....
- The article explained what "administrators" means with a simple example.

adverse opinion (noun)

An opinion concerning financial statements (usually based on an audit by a CPA) that the statements as a whole do not present results fairly or are not in conformity with the generally accepted accounting practices of the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "adverse opinion" to mean an opinion concerning financial statements (usually....
- He looked up "adverse opinion" because he had never seen it before.

american legion (noun)

The largest organization of United States war veterans.

- Understanding "american legion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "american legion" during the group presentation.

apologies (noun)

An expression of regret at having caused trouble for someone.

- The article explained what "apologies" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "apologies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

artificial horizon (noun)

A navigational instrument based on a gyroscope; it artificially provides a simulated horizon for the pilot.

- The article explained what "artificial horizon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "artificial horizon."

atm (noun)

A means of digital communications that is capable of very high speeds; suitable for transmission of images or voice or video as well as data.

- ATM is used for both LAN and WAN.
- He looked up "atm" because he had never seen it before.

atomic clock (noun)

A timepiece that derives its time scale from the vibration of atoms or molecules.

- They discussed "atomic clock" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "atomic clock" to mean a timepiece that derives its time scale from the....

averaged (verb)

Amount to or come to an average, without loss or gain.

- He averaged a C.
- In everyday English, people use "averaged" when talking about this idea.

back porch (noun)

A porch for the back door.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "back porch."
- He looked up "back porch" because he had never seen it before.

bait (verb)

Harass with persistent criticism or carping.

- She tried to use "bait" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "bait" in a sentence that fits this situation?

bark (verb)

Speak in an unfriendly tone.

- She barked into the dictaphone.
- The dogs barked at the stranger.

---

bell-shaped curve (noun)

A symmetrical curve representing the normal distribution.

- Understanding "bell-shaped curve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bell-shaped curve" to mean a symmetrical curve representing the normal....

---

bets (verb)

Have faith or confidence in.

- The coach explained when to use "bets" and when to wait.
- Can you use "bets" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

bitter lemon (noun)

Tart lemon-flavored carbonated drink.

- The article explained what "bitter lemon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bitter lemon" to mean tart lemon-flavored carbonated drink.

---

blogger (noun)

A person who keeps and updates a blog.

- In class, the teacher used "blogger" to mean a person who keeps and updates a blog.
- They discussed "blogger" during the group presentation.

---

body-surf (verb)

Ride the crest of a wave without a surfboard.

- He did not know how to use "body-surf" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "body-surf" in real sentences.

---

bowling pin (noun)

A club-shaped wooden object used in bowling; set up in triangular groups of ten as the target.

- The article explained what "bowling pin" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bowling pin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bra (noun)

An undergarment worn by women to support their breasts.

- The article explained what "bra" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bra" to mean an undergarment worn by women to support their breasts.

---

breast of lamb (noun)

A cut of lamb including the breastbone and attached muscles dressed as meat.

- He looked up "breast of lamb" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breast of lamb."

---

brighton (noun)

A city in East Sussex in southern England that is a popular resort; site of the University of Sussex.

- The article explained what "brighton" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "brighton" to mean a city in east sussex in southern england that is a....

---

brotherhood (noun)

An organization of employees formed to bargain with the employer.

- Understanding "brotherhood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "brotherhood" because he had never seen it before.

---

buddhist (adjective)

Of or relating to or supporting Buddhism.

- Buddhist sculpture.

- The speaker chose “buddhist” because it captured the feeling precisely.

builder (noun)

A person who creates a business or who organizes and develops a country.

- Empire builder.
- They discussed “builder” during the group presentation.

cakes (noun)

A block of solid substance (such as soap or wax).

- The article explained what “cakes” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cakes” to mean a block of solid substance (such as soap or wax).

cellular division (noun)

The process in reproduction and growth by which a cell divides to form daughter cells.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cellular division.”
- He looked up “cellular division” because he had never seen it before.

central processor (noun)

(computer science) the part of a computer (a microprocessor chip) that does most of the data processing.

- The CPU and the memory form the central part of a computer to which the peripherals are attached.
- They discussed “central processor” during the group presentation.

cf (noun)

A radioactive transuranic element; discovered by bombarding curium with alpha particles.

- The article explained what “cf” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cf” to mean a radioactive transuranic element; discovered by....

chain printer (noun)

An impact printer that carries the type slugs by links of a revolving chain.

- They discussed “chain printer” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chain printer.”

cigarette butt (noun)

Small part of a cigarette that is left after smoking.

- The article explained what “cigarette butt” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cigarette butt” to mean small part of a cigarette that is left after smoking.

cl (noun)

A metric unit of volume equal to one hundredth of a liter.

- The article explained what “cl” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cl.”

clarify (verb)

Make clear by removing impurities or solids, as by heating.

- Clarify the butter.
- Clarify beer.

coconut oil (noun)

Oil from coconuts.

- The article explained what “coconut oil” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “coconut oil” to mean oil from coconuts.

comp (noun)

An intensive examination testing a student’s proficiency in some special field of knowledge.

- She took her comps in English literature.
- They discussed “comp” during the group presentation.

comprises (verb)

Include or contain; have as a component.

- In everyday English, people use "comprises" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "comprises" in real sentences.

---

connecting rod (noun)

A rod that transmits motion (especially one that connects a rotating wheel to a reciprocating shaft).

- They discussed "connecting rod" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "connecting rod" because he had never seen it before.

---

constitute (verb)

Create and charge with a task or function.

- These constitute my entire belonging.
- She tried to use "constitute" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

correspondence (noun)

The relation of corresponding in degree or size or amount.

- The results of two tests were in correspondence.
- He looked up "correspondence" because he had never seen it before.

---

covered wagon (noun)

A large wagon with broad wheels and an arched canvas top; used by the United States pioneers to cross the prairies in the 19th century.

- Understanding "covered wagon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "covered wagon."

---

cowboy (noun)

A hired hand who tends cattle and performs other duties on horseback.

- They discussed "cowboy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cowboy."

---

dash-pot (noun)

A mechanical damper; the vibrating part is attached to a piston that moves in a chamber filled with liquid.

- Understanding "dash-pot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dash-pot" to mean a mechanical damper; the vibrating part is attached....

---

death instinct (noun)

(psychoanalysis) an unconscious urge to die.

- He looked up "death instinct" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "death instinct" during the group presentation.

---

defendants (noun)

A person or institution against whom an action is brought in a court of law; the person being sued or accused.

- Understanding "defendants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "defendants" during the group presentation.

---

diagram (noun)

A drawing intended to explain how something works; a drawing showing the relation between the parts.

- They discussed "diagram" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "diagram" means with a simple example.

---

dismiss (verb)

Cease to consider; put out of judicial consideration.

- This case is dismissed!
- She dismissed his advances.

---

drinking fountain (noun)

A public fountain to provide a jet of drinking water.

- Understanding “drinking fountain” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “drinking fountain” because he had never seen it before.

---

drug cocktail (noun)

A combination of protease inhibitors taken with reverse transcriptase inhibitors; used in treating AIDS and HIV.

- In class, the teacher used “drug cocktail” to mean a combination of protease inhibitors taken with....
- They discussed “drug cocktail” during the group presentation.

---

eastern orthodox church (noun)

Derived from the Byzantine Church and adhering to Byzantine rites.

- Understanding “eastern orthodox church” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “eastern orthodox church” during the group presentation.

---

editions (noun)

Something a little different from others of the same type.

- They discussed “editions” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “editions” to mean something a little different from others of the....

---

erected (verb)

Construct, build, or erect.

- Learners should practice how to use “erected” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “erected” and when to wait.

---

explorer (noun)

Someone who travels into little known regions (especially for some scientific purpose).

- They discussed “explorer” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “explorer” because he had never seen it before.

---

eye opener (noun)

An alcoholic drink intended to wake one up early in the morning.

- Understanding “eye opener” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “eye opener” because he had never seen it before.

---

fade away (verb)

Become weaker.

- The sound faded out.
- She tried to use “fade away” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

farther (adverb)

To or at a greater distance in time or space (‘farther’ is used more frequently than ‘further’ in this physical sense).

- Farther north.
- Moved farther away.

---

fatigue party (noun)

A group of soldiers on fatigue duty.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fatigue party.”
- He looked up “fatigue party” because he had never seen it before.

---

field marshal (noun)

An officer holding the highest rank in the army.

- Understanding “field marshal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “field marshal” during the group presentation.

---

fig leaf (noun)

A covering consisting of anything intended to conceal something regarded as shameful.

- In class, the teacher used “fig leaf” to mean a covering consisting of anything intended to....
- Understanding “fig leaf” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fire marshal (noun)

The head of a fire department.

- He looked up "fire marshal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire marshal."

first-order correlation (noun)

A partial correlation in which the effects of only one variable are removed (held constant).

- The article explained what "first-order correlation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "first-order correlation" during the group presentation.

fish fry (noun)

A cookout where fried fish is the main course.

- The article explained what "fish fry" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fish fry" during the group presentation.

fishing licence (noun)

A license authorizing the bearer to fish during a specified period of time.

- They discussed "fishing licence" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fishing licence."

flaws (noun)

An imperfection in an object or machine.

- He had his flaws, but he was great nonetheless.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flaws."

forums (noun)

A public facility to meet for open discussion.

- Understanding "forums" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "forums" means with a simple example.

fountain of youth (noun)

A fountain described in folk tales as able to make people young again.

- Ponce de Leon discovered Florida while searching for the Fountain of Youth.
- He looked up "fountain of youth" because he had never seen it before.

freed (verb)

Make (information) available for publication.

- She tried to use "freed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "freed" when talking about this idea.

galleries (noun)

A horizontal (or nearly horizontal) passageway in a mine.

- He looked up "galleries" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "galleries" to mean a horizontal (or nearly horizontal) passageway in a....

gasoline (noun)

A volatile flammable mixture of hydrocarbons (hexane and heptane and octane etc.) derived from petroleum; used mainly as a fuel in internal-combustion engines.

- He looked up "gasoline" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gasoline."

general baptist (noun)

Group of Baptist congregations believing the teachings of the Dutch theologian Jacobus Arminius (who opposed the doctrine of strict predestination of the Calvinists).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general baptist."
- He looked up "general baptist" because he had never seen it before.

genesis (noun)

The first book of the Old Testament: tells of Creation; Adam and Eve; the Fall of Man; Cain and Abel; Noah and the flood; God's covenant with Abraham; Abraham and Isaac; Jacob and Esau; Joseph and his brothers.

- In class, the teacher used "genesis" to mean the first book of the old testament: tells of....
- Understanding "genesis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

geographical (adjective)

Of or relating to the science of geography.

- It is useful to describe something as "geographical" when it is of or relating to the science of geography.
- The speaker chose "geographical" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

governed (noun)

The body of people who are citizens of a particular government; –Declaration of Independence.

- Governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed.
- In class, the teacher used "governed" to mean the body of people who are citizens of a particular....

---

grandson (noun)

A male grandchild.

- Understanding "grandson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "grandson" to mean a male grandchild.

---

granite state (noun)

A state in New England; one of the original 13 colonies.

- The article explained what "granite state" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "granite state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gravity meter (noun)

A measuring instrument for measuring variations in the gravitational field of the earth.

- The article explained what "gravity meter" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gravity meter."

---

great grandson (noun)

A son of your grandson or granddaughter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great grandson."
- He looked up "great grandson" because he had never seen it before.

---

great plains of north america (noun)

A vast prairie region extending from Alberta and Saskatchewan and Manitoba in Canada south through the west central United States into Texas; formerly inhabited by Native Americans.

- In class, the teacher used "great plains of north america" to mean a vast prairie region extending from alberta and....
- The article explained what "great plains of north america" means with a simple example.

---

gulf of guinea (noun)

A gulf off the southwest coast of Africa.

- Understanding "gulf of guinea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "gulf of guinea" to mean a gulf off the southwest coast of africa.

---

halls (noun)

A large room for gatherings or entertainment.

- Halls of learning.
- He looked up "halls" because he had never seen it before.

---

handles (noun)

The appendage to an object that is designed to be held in order to use or move it.

- The article explained what "handles" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "handles" during the group presentation.

---

hints (noun)

A slight but appreciable amount.

- He looked up "hints" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hints."

home-builder (noun)

Someone who builds houses as a business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home-builder."
- He looked up "home-builder" because he had never seen it before.

horizontal surface (noun)

A flat surface at right angles to a plumb line.

- The article explained what "horizontal surface" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "horizontal surface" during the group presentation.

in large quantities (adverb)

On a large scale without careful discrimination.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in large quantities" naturally.
- Using "in large quantities" can make your explanation more exact.

incorporate (verb)

Make into a whole or make part of a whole.

- She incorporated his suggestions into her proposal.
- Incorporate this document with those pertaining to the same case.

insane asylum (noun)

A hospital for mentally incompetent or unbalanced person.

- They discussed "insane asylum" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "insane asylum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

james harvey robinson (noun)

United States historian who stressed the importance of intellectual and social events for the course of history (1863-1936).

- The article explained what "james harvey robinson" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "james harvey robinson" to mean united states historian who stressed the importance....

jewish-orthodox (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of Judaism.

- Students compared "jewish-orthodox" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "jewish-orthodox" when it is of or pertaining to or characteristic of judaism.

john the baptist (noun)

(New Testament) a preacher and hermit and forerunner of Jesus (whom he baptized); was beheaded by Herod at the request of Salome.

- The article explained what "john the baptist" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "john the baptist" during the group presentation.

jonathan edwards (noun)

American theologian whose sermons and writings stimulated a period of renewed interest in religion in America (1703-1758).

- The article explained what "jonathan edwards" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jonathan edwards" to mean american theologian whose sermons and writings....

kirk (noun)

A Scottish church.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kirk."
- He looked up "kirk" because he had never seen it before.

licensed practical nurse (noun)

A nurse who has enough training to be licensed by a state to provide routine care for the sick.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "licensed practical nurse."
- The article explained what "licensed practical nurse" means with a simple example.

louis armstrong (noun)

United States pioneering jazz trumpeter and bandleader (1900-1971).

- They discussed "louis armstrong" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "louis armstrong" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lounge chair (noun)

A comfortable upholstered armchair.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lounge chair."
- Understanding "lounge chair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

manila paper (noun)

A strong paper or thin cardboard with a smooth light brown finish made from e.g. Manila hemp.

- In class, the teacher used "manila paper" to mean a strong paper or thin cardboard with a smooth....
- The article explained what "manila paper" means with a simple example.

---

marriage broker (noun)

Someone who arranges (or tries to arrange) marriages for others.

- They discussed "marriage broker" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "marriage broker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marriage counseling (noun)

Counseling on marital problems and disagreements.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marriage counseling."
- Understanding "marriage counseling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mathematical relation (noun)

A relation between mathematical expressions (such as equality or inequality).

- He looked up "mathematical relation" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mathematical relation" to mean a relation between mathematical expressions (such....

---

mathematical symbol (noun)

A character that is used to indicates a mathematical relation or operation.

- Understanding "mathematical symbol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mathematical symbol" during the group presentation.

---

matthew arnold (noun)

English poet and literary critic (1822-1888).

- In class, the teacher used "matthew arnold" to mean english poet and literary critic (1822-1888).
- The article explained what "matthew arnold" means with a simple example.

---

maturity date (noun)

The date on which an obligation must be repaid.

- The article explained what "maturity date" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "maturity date" to mean the date on which an obligation must be repaid.

---

measuring instrument (noun)

Instrument that shows the extent or amount or quantity or degree of something.

- He looked up "measuring instrument" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "measuring instrument" during the group presentation.

---

mental rejection (noun)

Doubt about the truth of something.

- He looked up "mental rejection" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mental rejection" during the group presentation.

---

merchants (noun)

A businessperson engaged in retail trade.

- They discussed “merchants” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “merchants” means with a simple example.

---

misses (noun)

A form of address for an unmarried woman.

- In class, the teacher used “misses” to mean a form of address for an unmarried woman.
- Understanding “misses” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mock up (verb)

Construct a model of.

- In everyday English, people use “mock up” when talking about this idea.
- Can you use “mock up” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

necklace (noun)

Jewelry consisting of a cord or chain (often bearing gems) worn about the neck as an ornament (especially by women).

- In class, the teacher used “necklace” to mean jewelry consisting of a cord or chain (often....
- He looked up “necklace” because he had never seen it before.

---

negative magnetic pole (noun)

The pole of a magnet that points toward the south when the magnet is suspended freely.

- The article explained what “negative magnetic pole” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “negative magnetic pole.”

---

niche (noun)

A position particularly well suited to the person who occupies it.

- He found his niche in the academic world.
- The article explained what “niche” means with a simple example.

---

nina (noun)

The Babylonian goddess of the watery deep and daughter of Ea.

- Understanding “nina” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “nina” during the group presentation.

---

non-jew (noun)

A Christian as contrasted with a Jew.

- In class, the teacher used “non-jew” to mean a christian as contrasted with a jew.
- He looked up “non-jew” because he had never seen it before.

---

o’brien (noun)

Irish writer (born in 1932).

- In class, the teacher used “o’brien” to mean irish writer (born in 1932).
- They discussed “o’brien” during the group presentation.

---

obscure (verb)

Make undecipherable or imperceptible by obscuring or concealing.

- The stars are obscured by the clouds.
- The big elm tree obscures our view of the valley.

---

optical instrument (noun)

An instrument designed to aid vision.

- The article explained what “optical instrument” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “optical instrument” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ordinary bicycle (noun)

An early bicycle with a very large front wheel and small back wheel.

- The article explained what “ordinary bicycle” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “ordinary bicycle” during the group presentation.

paint the lily (verb)

Make unnecessary additions to what is already complete.

- He did not know how to use "paint the lily" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "paint the lily" carefully so everyone would understand.

panama city (noun)

A resort and fishing town on the Gulf of Mexico in northwest Florida.

- The article explained what "panama city" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "panama city" during the group presentation.

para (noun)

(obstetrics) the number of liveborn children a woman has delivered.

- A bipara is a woman who has given birth to two children.
- In class, the teacher used "para" to mean (obstetrics) the number of liveborn children a....

para i (noun)

(obstetrics) woman who has been delivered of a child for the first time.

- They discussed "para i" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "para i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pearl ash (noun)

An impure form of potassium carbonate.

- He looked up "pearl ash" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pearl ash."

plague spot (noun)

A spot on the skin characteristic of the plague.

- Understanding "plague spot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "plague spot" because he had never seen it before.

plains indian (noun)

A member of one of the tribes of American Indians who lived a nomadic life following the buffalo in the Great Plains of North America.

- He looked up "plains indian" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "plains indian" during the group presentation.

plasma protein (noun)

Any of the proteins in blood plasma.

- They discussed "plasma protein" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plasma protein."

polish monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Poland.

- In class, the teacher used "polish monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in poland.
- The article explained what "polish monetary unit" means with a simple example.

popped (verb)

Burst open with a sharp, explosive sound.

- The balloon popped.
- His eyes popped.

porch (noun)

A structure attached to the exterior of a building often forming a covered entrance.

- In class, the teacher used "porch" to mean a structure attached to the exterior of a building....
- Understanding "porch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

powder monkey (noun)

Someone who carries explosives (as from the magazine to the guns on board a warship).

- He looked up "powder monkey" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "powder monkey."

---

princeton (noun)

A university in New Jersey.

- In class, the teacher used "princeton" to mean a university in new jersey.
- They discussed "princeton" during the group presentation.

---

proposition (noun)

A proposal offered for acceptance or rejection.

- Securing adequate funding is a time-consuming proposition.
- He looked up "proposition" because he had never seen it before.

---

railways (noun)

A line of track providing a runway for wheels.

- In class, the teacher used "railways" to mean a line of track providing a runway for wheels.
- The article explained what "railways" means with a simple example.

---

readings (noun)

A particular interpretation or performance.

- The teacher assigned new readings.
- They discussed "readings" during the group presentation.

---

recreational vehicle (noun)

A motorized wheeled vehicle used for camping or other recreational activities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "recreational vehicle."
- Understanding "recreational vehicle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

red coral (noun)

The hard stony skeleton of a Mediterranean coral that has a delicate red or pink color and is used for jewelry.

- In class, the teacher used "red coral" to mean the hard stony skeleton of a mediterranean coral....
- The article explained what "red coral" means with a simple example.

---

reed pipe (noun)

Organ pipe with a vibrating reed.

- Understanding "reed pipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "reed pipe" means with a simple example.

---

reign of terror (noun)

The historic period (1793-94) during the French Revolution when thousands were executed.

- The Reign of the Bourbons ended and the Reign of Terror began.
- He looked up "reign of terror" because he had never seen it before.

---

republic of chad (noun)

A landlocked desert republic in north-central Africa; was under French control until 1960.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of chad."
- Understanding "republic of chad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

republic of venezuela (noun)

A republic in northern South America on the Caribbean; achieved independence from Spain in 1811; rich in oil.

- In class, the teacher used "republic of venezuela" to mean a republic in northern south america on the....
- The article explained what "republic of venezuela" means with a simple example.

---

richards (noun)

English literary critic who collaborated with C. K. Ogden and contributed to the development of Basic English (1893-1979).

- Understanding "richards" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what “richards” means with a simple example.

---

rim (noun)

The top edge of a vessel or other container.

- The ball hit the rim and bounced off.
- He looked up “rim” because he had never seen it before.

---

rogue nation (noun)

A state that does not respect other states in its international actions.

- The article explained what “rogue nation” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rogue nation.”

---

roll in the hay (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- In everyday English, people use “roll in the hay” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “roll in the hay” until he saw an example.

---

scrap metal (noun)

Discarded metal suitable for reprocessing.

- He finally sold the car for scrap metal.
- Understanding “scrap metal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scroll saw (noun)

Fine-toothed power saw with a narrow blade; used to cut curved outlines.

- He looked up “scroll saw” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scroll saw.”

---

seals (noun)

The pelt or fur (especially the underfur) of a seal.

- Understanding “seals” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “seals.”

---

secondly (adverb)

In the second place.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “secondly” naturally.
- Place “secondly” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

self-raising flour (noun)

A commercially prepared mixture of flour and salt and a leavening agent.

- He looked up “self-raising flour” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “self-raising flour” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

settling (noun)

A gradual sinking to a lower level.

- He looked up “settling” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “settling” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sherman (noun)

A town in northeastern Texas near the Oklahoma border.

- In class, the teacher used “sherman” to mean a town in northeastern texas near the oklahoma border.
- Understanding “sherman” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ship broker (noun)

An agent for the ship owner; obtains cargo and may arrange for its loading or discharge.

- The article explained what “ship broker” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “ship broker” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shuttle bus (noun)

Shuttle consisting of a bus that travels between two points.

- They discussed "shuttle bus" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shuttle bus."

---

song dynasty (noun)

The imperial dynasty of China from 960 to 1279; noted for art and literature and philosophy.

- The article explained what "song dynasty" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "song dynasty" to mean the imperial dynasty of china from 960 to 1279;....

---

sphere of influence (noun)

The geographical area in which one nation is very influential.

- They discussed "sphere of influence" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sphere of influence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spinal (adjective)

Of or relating to the spine or spinal cord.

- Spinal cord.
- Spinal injury.

---

spiral (noun)

A structure consisting of something wound in a continuous series of loops.

- The article explained what "spiral" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spiral" to mean a structure consisting of something wound in a....

---

spit (noun)

A narrow strip of land that juts out into the sea.

- He looked up "spit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spit."

---

spit out (verb)

Discharge (phlegm or sputum) from the lungs and out of the mouth.

- She tried to use "spit out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "spit out" and when to wait.

---

spit up (verb)

Discharge (phlegm or sputum) from the lungs and out of the mouth.

- Can you use "spit up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "spit up" until he saw an example.

---

splash (noun)

A small quantity of something moist or liquid.

- Just a splash of whiskey.
- He made a great splash and then disappeared.

---

spring onion (noun)

A young onion before the bulb has enlarged; eaten in salads.

- Understanding "spring onion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "spring onion" means with a simple example.

---

standard candle (noun)

The basic unit of luminous intensity adopted under the Systeme International d'Unites; equal to 1/60 of the luminous intensity per square centimeter of a black body radiating at the temperature of 2,046 degrees Kelvin.

- Understanding "standard candle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "standard candle."

---

statue maker (noun)

An artist who creates sculptures.

- He looked up “statue maker” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “statue maker” to mean an artist who creates sculptures.

---

steel wool (noun)

A mass of woven steel fibers used as an abrasive.

- Understanding “steel wool” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “steel wool” during the group presentation.

---

system of weights (noun)

A system of units used to express the weight of something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “system of weights.”
- The article explained what “system of weights” means with a simple example.

---

taxpayers (noun)

Someone who pays taxes.

- The article explained what “taxpayers” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “taxpayers” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

therapeutic (noun)

A medicine or therapy that cures disease or relieve pain.

- In class, the teacher used “therapeutic” to mean a medicine or therapy that cures disease or relieve....
- He looked up “therapeutic” because he had never seen it before.

---

threads (noun)

Informal terms for clothing.

- The article explained what “threads” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “threads.”

---

tomato (noun)

Mildly acid red or yellow pulpy fruit eaten as a vegetable.

- In class, the teacher used “tomato” to mean mildly acid red or yellow pulpy fruit eaten as a....
- Understanding “tomato” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tourist attraction (noun)

A characteristic that attracts tourists.

- They discussed “tourist attraction” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “tourist attraction” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tub (noun)

The amount that a tub will hold.

- A tub of water.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tub.”

---

twenty-two pistol (noun)

A .22-caliber pistol.

- The article explained what “twenty-two pistol” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “twenty-two pistol” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

twin towers (noun)

Twin skyscrapers 110 stories high in New York City; built 1368 feet tall in 1970 to 1973; destroyed by a terrorist attack on September 11, 2001.

- In class, the teacher used “twin towers” to mean twin skyscrapers 110 stories high in new york city;....
- They discussed “twin towers” during the group presentation.

---

twist drill (noun)

A bit or drill having deep helical grooves.

- He looked up “twist drill” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “twist drill.”

undergraduate (noun)

A university student who has not yet received a first degree.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "undergraduate."
- The article explained what "undergraduate" means with a simple example.

undertaken (verb)

Promise to do or accomplish.

- He did not know how to use "undertaken" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "undertaken" in real sentences.

uranium (noun)

A heavy toxic silvery-white radioactive metallic element; occurs in many isotopes; used for nuclear fuels and nuclear weapons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "uranium."
- They discussed "uranium" during the group presentation.

utter (verb)

Express audibly; utter sounds (not necessarily words).

- He uttered strange sounds that nobody could understand.
- He uttered a curse.

verbal description (noun)

A statement that represents something in words.

- Understanding "verbal description" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "verbal description."

vietnamese (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Vietnam or its people or its language ; ; the Vietnamese tonesVietnamese boat people".

- The Vietnamese countryside.
- A "vietnamese" approach may work better in this case.

vocal organ (noun)

Any of the organs involved in speech production.

- Understanding "vocal organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "vocal organ" to mean any of the organs involved in speech production.

war correspondent (noun)

A journalist who sends news reports and commentary from a combat zone or place of battle for publication or broadcast.

- In class, the teacher used "war correspondent" to mean a journalist who sends news reports and commentary....
- The article explained what "war correspondent" means with a simple example.

warren burger (noun)

United States jurist appointed chief justice of the United States Supreme Court by Richard Nixon (1907-1995).

- Understanding "warren burger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "warren burger" because he had never seen it before.

william jefferson clinton (noun)

42nd President of the United States (1946-).

- He looked up "william jefferson clinton" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "william jefferson clinton" during the group presentation.

wires (noun)

A metal conductor that carries electricity over a distance.

- Understanding "wires" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wires" because he had never seen it before.

word processor (noun)

An application that provides the user with tools needed to write and edit and format text and to send it to a printer.

- He looked up "word processor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "word processor."

---

yell (noun)

A loud utterance; often in protest or opposition.

- A yell of pain.
- In class, the teacher used "yell" to mean a loud utterance; often in protest or opposition.

---

advertisement (noun)

A public promotion of some product or service.

- They discussed "advertisement" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "advertisement" to mean a public promotion of some product or service.

---

airplane ticket (noun)

A ticket good for a trip on an airplane.

- Understanding "airplane ticket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "airplane ticket" to mean a ticket good for a trip on an airplane.

---

allied command atlantic (noun)

A major strategic headquarters of NATO located in the United States; is under the authority of the North Atlantic Council.

- He looked up "allied command atlantic" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "allied command atlantic" during the group presentation.

---

alpha brass (noun)

An alloy of brass and zinc; used mainly for cold working.

- The article explained what "alpha brass" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "alpha brass" to mean an alloy of brass and zinc; used mainly for cold....

---

analysts (noun)

A licensed practitioner of psychoanalysis.

- The article explained what "analysts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "analysts" to mean a licensed practitioner of psychoanalysis.

---

analyze (verb)

Break down into components or essential features.

- Analyze today's financial market.
- Analyze a sonnet by Shakespeare.

---

army of muhammad (noun)

A terrorist organization founded in 2000; a militant Islamic group active in Kashmir and closely aligned with al-Rashid Trust; seeks to secure release of imprisoned fellow militants by kidnappings.

- In class, the teacher used "army of muhammad" to mean a terrorist organization founded in 2000; a....
- Understanding "army of muhammad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

atmospheric (adjective)

Relating to or located in the atmosphere.

- Atmospheric tests.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "atmospheric."

---

atmospheric state (noun)

The weather or climate at some place.

- Understanding "atmospheric state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "atmospheric state" to mean the weather or climate at some place.

---

atomic physics (noun)

The branch of physics that studies the internal structure of atomic nuclei.

- In class, the teacher used "atomic physics" to mean the branch of physics that studies the internal....

- Understanding "atomic physics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

attention deficit disorder (noun)

A condition (mostly in boys) characterized by behavioral and learning disorders.

- In class, the teacher used "attention deficit disorder" to mean a condition (mostly in boys) characterized by....
- The article explained what "attention deficit disorder" means with a simple example.

---

automobile battery (noun)

A lead-acid storage battery in a motor vehicle; usually a 12-volt battery of six cells; the heart of the car's electrical system.

- Understanding "automobile battery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "automobile battery" means with a simple example.

---

automobile factory (noun)

A factory where automobiles are manufactured.

- They discussed "automobile factory" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "automobile factory" means with a simple example.

---

baked goods (noun)

Foods (like breads and cakes and pastries) that are cooked in an oven.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baked goods."
- He looked up "baked goods" because he had never seen it before.

---

bangkok (noun)

The capital and largest city and chief port of Thailand; a leading city in southeastern Asia; noted for Buddhist architecture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bangkok."
- He looked up "bangkok" because he had never seen it before.

---

baptist church (noun)

Any of various evangelical Protestant churches that believe in the baptism of voluntary believers.

- In class, the teacher used "baptist church" to mean any of various evangelical protestant churches that....
- They discussed "baptist church" during the group presentation.

---

basket maker (noun)

Early Amerindians related to the Pueblo; known for skill in making baskets.

- In class, the teacher used "basket maker" to mean early amerindians related to the pueblo; known for....
- The article explained what "basket maker" means with a simple example.

---

bb (noun)

A small pellet fired from an air rifle or BB gun.

- He looked up "bb" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bb" during the group presentation.

---

be at pains (verb)

Try very hard to do something.

- Can you use "be at pains" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "be at pains" and when to wait.

---

bitches (noun)

A person (usually but not necessarily a woman) who is thoroughly disliked.

- In class, the teacher used "bitches" to mean a person (usually but not necessarily a woman) who....
- They discussed "bitches" during the group presentation.

---

blunt file (noun)

A file with parallel edges.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blunt file."
- The article explained what "blunt file" means with a simple example.

---

book of genesis (noun)

The first book of the Old Testament: tells of Creation; Adam and Eve; the Fall of Man; Cain and Abel; Noah and the flood; God's covenant with Abraham; Abraham and Isaac; Jacob and Esau; Joseph and his brothers.

- Understanding "book of genesis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "book of genesis" because he had never seen it before.

---

bracket (noun)

A category falling within certain defined limits.

- In class, the teacher used "bracket" to mean a category falling within certain defined limits.
- He looked up "bracket" because he had never seen it before.

---

bracket out (verb)

Place into brackets.

- Please bracket this remark.
- The coach explained when to use "bracket out" and when to wait.

---

butter bean (noun)

Small flat green bean similar to lima beans.

- Understanding "butter bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "butter bean" to mean small flat green bean similar to lima beans.

---

cardiac (adjective)

Of or relating to the heart.

- Cardiac arrest.
- The speaker chose "cardiac" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

cargo cult (noun)

A religious cult that anticipates a time of joy, serenity, and justice when salvation comes.

- In class, the teacher used "cargo cult" to mean a religious cult that anticipates a time of joy,....
- The article explained what "cargo cult" means with a simple example.

---

carriage house (noun)

A small building for housing coaches and carriages and other vehicles.

- In class, the teacher used "carriage house" to mean a small building for housing coaches and carriages....
- Understanding "carriage house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

catholics (noun)

A member of a Catholic church.

- In class, the teacher used "catholics" to mean a member of a catholic church.
- The article explained what "catholics" means with a simple example.

---

cheek muscle (noun)

A muscle that flattens the cheek and retracts the angle of the mouth.

- They discussed "cheek muscle" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cheek muscle" to mean a muscle that flattens the cheek and retracts the....

---

clinical anatomy (noun)

The practical application of anatomical knowledge to diagnosis and treatment.

- He looked up "clinical anatomy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "clinical anatomy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cocktail dress (noun)

A dress suitable for formal occasions.

- The article explained what "cocktail dress" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cocktail dress" to mean a dress suitable for formal occasions.

---

coin slot (noun)

A slot through which coins can be inserted into a slot machine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coin slot."
- The article explained what "coin slot" means with a simple example.

---

confirms (verb)

Establish or strengthen as with new evidence or facts.

- Can you use "confirms" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "confirms" and when to wait.

---

confronted (verb)

Oppose, as in hostility or a competition.

- The two enemies finally confronted each other.
- We confronted him with the evidence.

---

correspondence school (noun)

A school that teaches nonresident students by mail.

- In class, the teacher used "correspondence school" to mean a school that teaches nonresident students by mail.
- They discussed "correspondence school" during the group presentation.

---

couch potato (noun)

An idler who spends much time on a couch (usually watching television).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "couch potato."
- He looked up "couch potato" because he had never seen it before.

---

crack cocaine (noun)

A purified and potent form of cocaine that is smoked rather than snorted; highly addictive.

- He looked up "crack cocaine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crack cocaine."

---

crawford (noun)

United States neoclassical sculptor (1814-1857).

- He looked up "crawford" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "crawford" during the group presentation.

---

creep in (verb)

Enter surreptitiously.

- In this essay, the author's personal feelings creep in.
- Learners should practice how to use "creep in" in real sentences.

---

daylight (noun)

The time after sunrise and before sunset while it is light outside.

- Understanding "daylight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "daylight" because he had never seen it before.

---

devon (noun)

A county in southwestern England.

- In class, the teacher used "devon" to mean a county in southwestern england.
- Understanding "devon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

disclose (verb)

Make known to the public information that was previously known only to a few people or that was meant to be kept a secret.

- The auction house would not disclose the price at which the van Gogh had sold.
- The curtain rose to disclose a stunning set.

---

doe (noun)

The federal department responsible for maintaining a national energy policy of the United States; created in 1977.

- In class, the teacher used "doe" to mean the federal department responsible for maintaining....
- He looked up "doe" because he had never seen it before.

donna (noun)

An Italian woman of rank.

- In class, the teacher used "donna" to mean an italian woman of rank.
- They discussed "donna" during the group presentation.

drug baron (noun)

A person who controls an organization dealing in illegal drugs.

- In class, the teacher used "drug baron" to mean a person who controls an organization dealing in....
- The article explained what "drug baron" means with a simple example.

dry cleaner (noun)

The operator of dry-cleaning establishment.

- They discussed "dry cleaner" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dry cleaner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

elbow (noun)

The part of a sleeve that covers the elbow joint.

- His coat had patches over the elbows.
- The article explained what "elbow" means with a simple example.

elimination tournament (noun)

A tournament in which losers are eliminated in successive rounds.

- In class, the teacher used "elimination tournament" to mean a tournament in which losers are eliminated in....
- Understanding "elimination tournament" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

encourages (verb)

Contribute to the progress or growth of.

- Learners should practice how to use "encourages" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "encourages" until he saw an example.

escape velocity (noun)

The minimum velocity needed to escape a gravitational field.

- In class, the teacher used "escape velocity" to mean the minimum velocity needed to escape a....
- The article explained what "escape velocity" means with a simple example.

facial nerve (noun)

Cranial nerve that supplies facial muscles.

- Understanding "facial nerve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "facial nerve" because he had never seen it before.

federal judiciary (noun)

The judiciary of the United States which is responsible for interpreting and enforcing federal laws.

- The article explained what "federal judiciary" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "federal judiciary" to mean the judiciary of the united states which is....

floating voter (noun)

A voter who has no allegiance to any political party and whose unpredictable decisions can swing the outcome of an election one way or the other.

- He looked up "floating voter" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "floating voter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

futures (noun)

A verb tense that expresses actions or states in the future.

- Understanding "futures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "futures" during the group presentation.

garlic salt (noun)

Ground dried garlic and salt.

- Understanding "garlic salt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "garlic salt" because he had never seen it before.

---

gel (noun)

A colloid in a more solid form than a sol.

- In class, the teacher used "gel" to mean a colloid in a more solid form than a sol.
- He looked up "gel" because he had never seen it before.

---

genetics (noun)

The branch of biology that studies heredity and variation in organisms.

- He looked up "genetics" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genetics."

---

geographical area (noun)

A demarcated area of the Earth.

- The article explained what "geographical area" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "geographical area" during the group presentation.

---

geographical point (noun)

A point on the surface of the Earth.

- He looked up "geographical point" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geographical point."

---

geometry teacher (noun)

Someone who teaches geometry.

- Understanding "geometry teacher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "geometry teacher" to mean someone who teaches geometry.

---

goose (noun)

A man who is a stupid incompetent fool.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goose."
- Understanding "goose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grounded (verb)

Use as a basis for; found on.

- After the accident, they grounded the plane and the pilot.
- The storm grounded the ship.

---

harbor patrol (noun)

Patrol of officers who police a harbor area.

- Understanding "harbor patrol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "harbor patrol" means with a simple example.

---

have-to doe with (verb)

Be relevant to.

- Learners should practice how to use "have-to doe with" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "have-to doe with" and when to wait.

---

heel (noun)

The bottom of a shoe or boot; the back part of a shoe or boot that touches the ground and provides elevation.

- In class, the teacher used "heel" to mean the bottom of a shoe or boot; the back part of a....
- The article explained what "heel" means with a simple example.

---

house-builder (noun)

Someone who builds houses as a business.

- He looked up "house-builder" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "house-builder" during the group presentation.

hudson seal (noun)

Muskrat fur dressed to simulate sealskin.

- In class, the teacher used "hudson seal" to mean muskrat fur dressed to simulate sealskin.
- Understanding "hudson seal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hut (noun)

Temporary military shelter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hut."
- The article explained what "hut" means with a simple example.

inmates (noun)

A person serving a sentence in a jail or prison.

- The article explained what "inmates" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "inmates" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

instructed (verb)

Give instructions or directions for some task.

- She instructed the students to work on their pronunciation.
- He instructed me in building a boat.

ira (noun)

A retirement plan that allows you to contribute a limited yearly sum toward your retirement; taxes on the interest earned in the account are deferred.

- He looked up "ira" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ira" during the group presentation.

ivory black (noun)

A black pigment made from grinding burnt ivory in oil.

- In class, the teacher used "ivory black" to mean a black pigment made from grinding burnt ivory in oil.
- Understanding "ivory black" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

james joyce (noun)

Influential Irish writer noted for his many innovations (such as stream of consciousness writing) (1882-1941).

- In class, the teacher used "james joyce" to mean influential irish writer noted for his many....
- They discussed "james joyce" during the group presentation.

joel harris (noun)

United States author who wrote the stories about Uncle Remus (1848-1908).

- The article explained what "joel harris" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joel harris."

johns (noun)

United States artist and proponent of pop art (born in 1930).

- In class, the teacher used "johns" to mean united states artist and proponent of pop art (born....
- The article explained what "johns" means with a simple example.

judicial admission (noun)

(law) an agreement or concession made by parties in a judicial proceeding (or by their attorneys) relating to the business before the court; must be in writing unless they are part of the court record.

- In class, the teacher used "judicial admission" to mean (law) an agreement or concession made by parties in....
- The article explained what "judicial admission" means with a simple example.

key lime (noun)

Small yellow-green limes of southern Florida.

- He looked up "key lime" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "key lime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

kissing cousin (noun)

A more or less distant relative; familiar enough to be greeted with a kiss.

- The article explained what "kissing cousin" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "kissing cousin" to mean a more or less distant relative; familiar enough to....

---

knives (noun)

Any long thin projection that is transient.

- Rifles exploded quick knives of fire into the dark.
- Understanding "knives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

letter opener (noun)

Dull knife used to cut open the envelopes in which letters are mailed or to slit uncut pages of books.

- They discussed "letter opener" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "letter opener" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

long johns (noun)

Warm underwear with long legs.

- Understanding "long johns" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "long johns" to mean warm underwear with long legs.

---

louis harold gray (noun)

English radiobiologist in whose honor the gray (the SI unit of energy for the absorbed dose of radiation) was named (1905-1965).

- The article explained what "louis harold gray" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "louis harold gray" to mean english radiobiologist in whose honor the gray (the....

---

malaysian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Malaysia.

- Malaysian police crack down hard on drug smugglers.
- A "malaysian" approach may work better in this case.

---

margins (noun)

The blank space that surrounds the text on a page.

- The article explained what "margins" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "margins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marina (noun)

A fancy dock for small yachts and cabin cruisers.

- Understanding "marina" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "marina" during the group presentation.

---

marsh gas (noun)

Methane gas produced when vegetation decomposes in water.

- He looked up "marsh gas" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "marsh gas" during the group presentation.

---

massachusetts bay colony (noun)

One of the British colonies that formed the United States.

- Understanding "massachusetts bay colony" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "massachusetts bay colony."

---

mat (noun)

A mass that is densely tangled or interwoven.

- A mat of weeds and grass.
- He looked up "mat" because he had never seen it before.

---

mat up (verb)

Change texture so as to become matted and felt-like.

- Can you use “mat up” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “mat up” and when to wait.

---

merchant vessels (noun)

Conveyance provided by the ships belonging to one country or industry.

- They discussed “merchant vessels” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “merchant vessels” means with a simple example.

---

metric unit (noun)

A decimal unit of measurement of the metric system (based on meters and kilograms and seconds).

- Convert all the measurements to metric units.
- It is easier to work in metric.

---

ml (noun)

A metric unit of volume equal to one thousandth of a liter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ml.”
- The article explained what “ml” means with a simple example.

---

nash (noun)

United States writer noted for his droll epigrams (1902-1971).

- In class, the teacher used “nash” to mean united states writer noted for his droll epigrams....
- The article explained what “nash” means with a simple example.

---

nationally (adverb)

With regard to a nation taken as a whole.

- A nationally uniform culture.
- Nationally advertised.

---

nobel (noun)

Swedish chemist remembered for his invention of dynamite and for the bequest that created the Nobel prizes (1833-1896).

- In class, the teacher used “nobel” to mean swedish chemist remembered for his invention of....
- They discussed “nobel” during the group presentation.

---

north vietnamese (adjective)

Of or relating to North Vietnam or its people or culture.

- Students compared “north vietnamese” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “north vietnamese.”

---

oil rig (noun)

Rig used in drilling for oil or gas.

- In class, the teacher used “oil rig” to mean rig used in drilling for oil or gas.
- They discussed “oil rig” during the group presentation.

---

operative field (noun)

The area that is open during surgery.

- They discussed “operative field” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “operative field” to mean the area that is open during surgery.

---

outrage (verb)

Force (someone) to have sex against their will.

- In everyday English, people use “outrage” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “outrage” in real sentences.

---

oxford english dictionary (noun)

An unabridged dictionary constructed on historical principles.

- Understanding “oxford english dictionary” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “oxford english dictionary.”

parking brake (noun)

A brake operated by hand; usually operates by mechanical linkage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parking brake."
- The article explained what "parking brake" means with a simple example.

pearl harbor (noun)

A harbor on Oahu to the west of Honolulu; location of a United States naval base that was attacked by the Japanese on 7 Dec 1941.

- Understanding "pearl harbor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pearl harbor" during the group presentation.

pen pal (noun)

A person you come to know by frequent friendly correspondence.

- In class, the teacher used "pen pal" to mean a person you come to know by frequent friendly....
- He looked up "pen pal" because he had never seen it before.

peter pan collar (noun)

A flat collar with rounded ends that meet in front.

- He looked up "peter pan collar" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "peter pan collar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

physician-patient privilege (noun)

The right of a physician to refuse to divulge confidential information from a patient without the consent of the patient.

- The article explained what "physician-patient privilege" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "physician-patient privilege" to mean the right of a physician to refuse to divulge....

pitched (adjective)

(of sound) set to a certain pitch or key; usually used as a combining form.

- High-pitched.
- A "pitched" approach may work better in this case.

poets (noun)

A writer of poems (the term is usually reserved for writers of good poetry).

- The article explained what "poets" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "poets" during the group presentation.

poisoning (noun)

The physiological state produced by a poison or other toxic substance.

- He looked up "poisoning" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "poisoning" to mean the physiological state produced by a poison or....

port sudan (noun)

Port city in Sudan on the Red Sea.

- He looked up "port sudan" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "port sudan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

powder compact (noun)

A small cosmetics case with a mirror; to be carried in a woman's purse.

- He looked up "powder compact" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "powder compact" to mean a small cosmetics case with a mirror; to be carried....

pregnant chad (noun)

A chad that has been punched or dimpled but all four corners are still attached.

- They discussed "pregnant chad" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pregnant chad" means with a simple example.

princeton university (noun)

A university in New Jersey.

- Understanding "princeton university" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "princeton university" during the group presentation.

---

promotional material (noun)

A message issued in behalf of some product or cause or idea or person or institution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "promotional material."
- He looked up "promotional material" because he had never seen it before.

---

promptly (adverb)

At once (usually modifies an undesirable occurrence).

- He promptly forgot the address.
- The rescue squad arrived promptly.

---

psychiatric hospital (noun)

A hospital for mentally incompetent or unbalanced person.

- They discussed "psychiatric hospital" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "psychiatric hospital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rabbit warren (noun)

A series of connected underground tunnels occupied by rabbits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rabbit warren."
- He looked up "rabbit warren" because he had never seen it before.

---

random number generator (noun)

A routine designed to yield a random number.

- They discussed "random number generator" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "random number generator" because he had never seen it before.

---

raw vegetable (noun)

An uncooked vegetable.

- The article explained what "raw vegetable" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "raw vegetable" during the group presentation.

---

rifles (noun)

A shoulder firearm with a long barrel and a rifled bore.

- The article explained what "rifles" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rifles" during the group presentation.

---

robert lee frost (noun)

United States poet famous for his lyrical poems on country life in New England (1874-1963).

- Understanding "robert lee frost" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robert lee frost."

---

rope-maker (noun)

A craftsman who makes ropes.

- The article explained what "rope-maker" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rope-maker" to mean a craftsman who makes ropes.

---

ruler (noun)

A person who rules or commands.

- Understanding "ruler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ruler" because he had never seen it before.

---

sand tumor (noun)

A tumor derived from fibrous tissue of the meninges or choroid plexus or certain other structures associated with the brain; characterized by sandlike particles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sand tumor."

- Understanding “sand tumor” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scrap iron (noun)

Iron to be melted again and reworked.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scrap iron.”
- They discussed “scrap iron” during the group presentation.

---

screams (noun)

A high-pitched noise resembling a human cry.

- In class, the teacher used “screams” to mean a high-pitched noise resembling a human cry.
- Understanding “screams” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sights (noun)

An optical instrument for aiding the eye in aiming, as on a firearm or surveying instrument.

- They went to Paris to see the sights.
- He looked up “sights” because he had never seen it before.

---

single-reed instrument (noun)

A beating-reed instrument with a single reed (as a clarinet or saxophone).

- He looked up “single-reed instrument” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “single-reed instrument.”

---

sky burial (noun)

A traditional Tibetan funeral ritual in which the corpse is exposed to the open air to be eaten by sacred vultures.

- In class, the teacher used “sky burial” to mean a traditional tibetan funeral ritual in which the....
- The article explained what “sky burial” means with a simple example.

---

slam-bang (adverb)

In a careless or reckless manner.

- The pans fell slam-bang and woke the whole house.
- He answered “slam-bang,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

sliding door (noun)

A door that opens by sliding instead of swinging.

- Understanding “sliding door” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “sliding door” because he had never seen it before.

---

sperm (noun)

The male reproductive cell; the male gamete.

- A sperm is mostly a nucleus surrounded by little other cellular material.
- They discussed “sperm” during the group presentation.

---

spice cake (noun)

Cake flavored with spices.

- Understanding “spice cake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “spice cake” means with a simple example.

---

spouse equivalent (noun)

A person (not necessarily a spouse) with whom you cohabit and share a long-term sexual relationship.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spouse equivalent.”
- They discussed “spouse equivalent” during the group presentation.

---

steadily (adverb)

At a steady rate or pace.

- His interest eroded steadily.
- He could still walk steadily.

---

steak knife (noun)

A sharp table knife used in eating steak.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steak knife."
- He looked up "steak knife" because he had never seen it before.

---

string bean (noun)

Green beans with strings that must be removed.

- The article explained what "string bean" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "string bean" to mean green beans with strings that must be removed.

---

supplier (noun)

Someone whose business is to supply a particular service or commodity.

- Understanding "supplier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "supplier" because he had never seen it before.

---

supreme allied commander europe (noun)

Commanding officer of ACE; NATO's senior military commander in Europe.

- In class, the teacher used "supreme allied commander europe" to mean commanding officer of ace; nato's senior military....
- Understanding "supreme allied commander europe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

surgical instrument (noun)

A medical instrument used in surgery.

- They discussed "surgical instrument" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "surgical instrument" to mean a medical instrument used in surgery.

---

swamp (noun)

A situation fraught with difficulties and imponderables.

- He was trapped in a medical swamp.
- In class, the teacher used "swamp" to mean a situation fraught with difficulties and imponderables.

---

swan (verb)

To declare or affirm solemnly and formally as true.

- Airplanes were swanning over the mountains.
- In everyday English, people use "swan" when talking about this idea.

---

synthesis (noun)

The combination of ideas into a complex whole.

- In class, the teacher used "synthesis" to mean the combination of ideas into a complex whole.
- He looked up "synthesis" because he had never seen it before.

---

t-bone steak (noun)

Small steak from the thin end of the short loin containing a T-shaped bone and small piece of tenderloin.

- The article explained what "t-bone steak" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "t-bone steak" to mean small steak from the thin end of the short loin....

---

take pains (verb)

Try very hard to do something.

- She tried to use "take pains" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "take pains" until he saw an example.

---

taste sensation (noun)

The sensation that results when taste buds in the tongue and throat convey information about the chemical composition of a soluble stimulus.

- The candy left him with a bad taste.
- The melon had a delicious taste.

---

tea wagon (noun)

Serving cart for serving tea or light refreshments.

- He looked up "tea wagon" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tea wagon" during the group presentation.

---

telephone cord (noun)

The telephone wire that connects to the handset.

- He looked up "telephone cord" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone cord."

---

testify (verb)

Provide evidence for.

- She tried to use "testify" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "testify" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

texas ranger (noun)

A member of the Texas state highway patrol; formerly a mounted lawman who maintained order on the frontier.

- Understanding "texas ranger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "texas ranger" to mean a member of the texas state highway patrol;....

---

thrust stage (noun)

A theater stage that extends out into the audience's part of a theater and has seats on three sides.

- He looked up "thrust stage" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "thrust stage" during the group presentation.

---

tolerate (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- He learned to tolerate the heat.
- We must tolerate the religions of others.

---

tooth and nail (adverb)

With force and ferocity.

- She fought tooth and nail.
- The narrator describes the scene "tooth and nail" in the final chapter.

---

tournaments (noun)

A series of jousts between knights contesting for a prize.

- He looked up "tournaments" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tournaments" during the group presentation.

---

travelers (noun)

A person who changes location.

- In class, the teacher used "travelers" to mean a person who changes location.
- The article explained what "travelers" means with a simple example.

---

trustees (noun)

A person (or institution) to whom legal title to property is entrusted to use for another's benefit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trustees."
- He looked up "trustees" because he had never seen it before.

---

turkish monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Turkey.

- The article explained what "turkish monetary unit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "turkish monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in turkey.

---

typing (noun)

Writing done with a typewriter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "typing."
- The article explained what "typing" means with a simple example.

urine (noun)

Liquid excretory product.

- There was blood in his urine.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "urine."

vanilla (noun)

A distinctive fragrant flavor characteristic of vanilla beans.

- They discussed "vanilla" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "vanilla" to mean a distinctive fragrant flavor characteristic of....

verbal intelligence (noun)

Intelligence in the use and comprehension of language.

- The article explained what "verbal intelligence" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "verbal intelligence" during the group presentation.

vermont (noun)

A state in New England.

- They discussed "vermont" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vermont."

vii (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of six and one.

- He looked up "vii" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vii."

weighing (noun)

Careful consideration.

- He looked up "weighing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weighing."

zip code (noun)

A code of letters and digits added to a postal address to aid in the sorting of mail.

- Understanding "zip code" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "zip code" during the group presentation.

zip gun (noun)

A crude homemade pistol.

- They discussed "zip gun" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "zip gun" because he had never seen it before.

abstract entity (noun)

A general concept formed by extracting common features from specific examples.

- They discussed "abstract entity" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "abstract entity" to mean a general concept formed by extracting common....

acoustic delay line (noun)

A delay line based on the time of propagation of sound waves.

- Understanding "acoustic delay line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "acoustic delay line" because he had never seen it before.

afghan (noun)

A blanket knitted or crocheted in strips or squares; sometimes used as a shawl.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "afghan."
- He looked up "afghan" because he had never seen it before.

after-shave (noun)

A fragrant lotion for a man's face after shaving.

- In class, the teacher used "after-shave" to mean a fragrant lotion for a man's face after shaving.
- Understanding "after-shave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

afterward (adverb)

Happening at a time subsequent to a reference time.

- It didn't happen until afterward.
- He answered "afterward," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

age bracket (noun)

A group of people having approximately the same age.

- The article explained what "age bracket" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "age bracket" during the group presentation.

---

appealed (verb)

Take a court case to a higher court for review.

- He was found guilty but appealed immediately.
- She appealed the verdict.

---

applause (noun)

A demonstration of approval by clapping the hands together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "applause."
- They discussed "applause" during the group presentation.

---

automotive engineer (noun)

An engineer concerned with the design and construction of automobiles.

- He looked up "automotive engineer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "automotive engineer."

---

baby carriage (noun)

A small vehicle with four wheels in which a baby or child is pushed around.

- He looked up "baby carriage" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "baby carriage" during the group presentation.

---

bachelor of arts in library science (noun)

A bachelor's degree in library science.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bachelor of arts in library science."
- They discussed "bachelor of arts in library science" during the group presentation.

---

bald (verb)

Grow bald; lose hair on one's head.

- He is balding already.
- Can you use "bald" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

barrels (noun)

The amount that many barrels might hold.

- The article explained what "barrels" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barrels."

---

battle fatigue (noun)

A mental disorder caused by stress of active warfare.

- They discussed "battle fatigue" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battle fatigue."

---

bearing brass (noun)

A brass bushing or a lining for a bearing.

- The article explained what "bearing brass" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used “bearing brass” to mean a brass bushing or a lining for a bearing.

blood brotherhood (noun)

The friendship characteristic of blood brothers.

- He looked up “blood brotherhood” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “blood brotherhood” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

boil down (verb)

Be cooked until very little liquid is left.

- The proposal boils down to a compromise.
- The cook reduced the sauce by boiling it for a long time.

boil over (verb)

Overflow or cause to overflow while boiling.

- The milk is boiling over.
- The coach explained when to use “boil over” and when to wait.

borough (noun)

An English town that forms the constituency of a member of parliament.

- Understanding “borough” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “borough” means with a simple example.

bowling shoe (noun)

A special shoe worn when bowling.

- They discussed “bowling shoe” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “bowling shoe” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

brazilian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Brazil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “brazilian monetary unit.”
- The article explained what “brazilian monetary unit” means with a simple example.

calif (noun)

The civil and religious leader of a Muslim state considered to be a representative of Allah on earth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “calif.”
- Understanding “calif” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cape york peninsula (noun)

A peninsula in Queensland in northeastern Australia between the Gulf of Carpentaria and the Coral Sea.

- They discussed “cape york peninsula” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “cape york peninsula” because he had never seen it before.

capital of panama (noun)

The capital and largest city of Panama.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “capital of panama.”
- He looked up “capital of panama” because he had never seen it before.

ce (adverb)

Of the period coinciding with the Christian era; preferred by some writers who are not Christians.

- In 200 CE.
- She spoke “ce,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

cheering (noun)

Encouragement in the form of cheers from spectators.

- The article explained what “cheering” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cheering.”

chooses (verb)

Pick out, select, or choose from a number of alternatives.

- Learners should practice how to use "chooses" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "chooses" when talking about this idea.

---

chrome yellow (noun)

Any of several yellow pigments consisting of normal lead chromate and other lead compounds.

- In class, the teacher used "chrome yellow" to mean any of several yellow pigments consisting of normal....
- They discussed "chrome yellow" during the group presentation.

---

cigarette holder (noun)

A tube that holds a cigarette while it is being smoked.

- Understanding "cigarette holder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cigarette holder" during the group presentation.

---

clutch bag (noun)

A woman's strapless purse that is carried in the hand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clutch bag."
- He looked up "clutch bag" because he had never seen it before.

---

combinations (noun)

A group of people (often temporary) having a common purpose.

- Understanding "combinations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "combinations."

---

command module (noun)

A space module in which astronauts can live and control the spacecraft and communicate with earth.

- The article explained what "command module" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "command module" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

commenting (verb)

Provide interlinear explanations for words or phrases.

- He did not know how to use "commenting" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "commenting" in real sentences.

---

cone (noun)

A shape whose base is a circle and whose sides taper up to a point.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cone."
- Understanding "cone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

connects (verb)

Join by means of communication equipment.

- The President of this university really connects with the faculty.
- In everyday English, people use "connects" when talking about this idea.

---

container vessel (noun)

A cargo ship designed to hold containerized cargoes.

- The weight of the documentation of all the consignments on board a contemporary container ship can exceed 90 pounds.
- The article explained what "container vessel" means with a simple example.

---

convey (verb)

Serve as a means for expressing something.

- She conveyed the message to me.
- Learners should practice how to use "convey" in real sentences.

---

coral sea (noun)

An arm of the South Pacific to the northeast of Australia.

- He looked up “coral sea” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “coral sea” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cyber-terrorist (noun)

A programmer who breaks into computer systems in order to steal or change or destroy information as a form of cyber-terrorism.

- In class, the teacher used “cyber-terrorist” to mean a programmer who breaks into computer systems in....
- The article explained what “cyber-terrorist” means with a simple example.

---

cyrus (noun)

Persian prince who was defeated in battle by his brother Artaxerxes II (424-401 BC).

- Understanding “cyrus” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cyrus.”

---

cyrus the great (noun)

King of Persia and founder of the Persian Empire (circa 600-529 BC).

- In class, the teacher used “cyrus the great” to mean king of persia and founder of the persian empire....
- He looked up “cyrus the great” because he had never seen it before.

---

decay (noun)

An inferior state resulting from the process of decaying.

- The corpse was in an advanced state of decay.
- The house had fallen into a serious state of decay and disrepair.

---

declining (verb)

Show unwillingness towards.

- He did not know how to use “declining” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “declining” and when to wait.

---

diagnostic (adjective)

Concerned with diagnosis; used for furthering diagnosis.

- A diagnostic reading test.
- A “diagnostic” approach may work better in this case.

---

dining companion (noun)

Someone you dine with.

- The article explained what “dining companion” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “dining companion” to mean someone you dine with.

---

discourse (verb)

To consider or examine in speech or writing.

- He did not know how to use “discourse” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “discourse” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

distances (noun)

The interval between two times.

- He looked up “distances” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “distances.”

---

donors (noun)

(medicine) someone who gives blood or tissue or an organ to be used in another person (the host).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “donors.”
- Understanding “donors” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dot com (noun)

A company that operates its business primarily on the internet using a URL that ends in ‘.com’.

- In class, the teacher used “dot com” to mean a company that operates its business primarily on....
- They discussed “dot com” during the group presentation.

dot-com (noun)

A company that operates its business primarily on the internet using a URL that ends in '.com'.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dot-com."
- Understanding "dot-com" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

drop curtain (noun)

A curtain that can be lowered and raised onto a stage from the flies; often used as background scenery.

- The article explained what "drop curtain" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drop curtain."

economically (adverb)

With respect to economic science.

- Economically this proposal makes no sense.
- Economically the country is worse off.

elbow room (noun)

Space for movement.

- Room to pass.
- Hardly enough elbow room to turn around.

enabling legislation (noun)

Legislation that gives appropriate officials the authority to implement or enforce the law.

- The article explained what "enabling legislation" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "enabling legislation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

error correction code (noun)

(telecommunication) a coding system that incorporates extra parity bits in order to detect errors.

- The article explained what "error correction code" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "error correction code" to mean (telecommunication) a coding system that....

federation of tribes (noun)

A federation (as of American Indians).

- The article explained what "federation of tribes" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "federation of tribes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fireworks (noun)

(usually plural) a device with an explosive that burns at a low rate and with colored flames; can be used to illuminate areas or send signals etc.

- He looked up "fireworks" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fireworks."

fleet admiral (noun)

An admiral of the highest rank.

- In class, the teacher used "fleet admiral" to mean an admiral of the highest rank.
- Understanding "fleet admiral" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

food poisoning (noun)

Illness caused by poisonous or contaminated food.

- He looked up "food poisoning" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "food poisoning."

foreign correspondent (noun)

A journalist who sends news reports and commentary from a foreign country for publication or broadcast.

- Understanding "foreign correspondent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "foreign correspondent" during the group presentation.

foreign legion (noun)

A military unit composed of foreign volunteers who serve the state.

- In class, the teacher used "foreign legion" to mean a military unit composed of foreign volunteers who....
- The article explained what "foreign legion" means with a simple example.

founders (noun)

A person who founds or establishes some institution.

- In class, the teacher used "founders" to mean a person who founds or establishes some institution.
- Understanding "founders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

frederick william iii (noun)

King of Prussia who became involved in the Napoleonic Wars (1770-1840).

- The article explained what "frederick william iii" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "frederick william iii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

freeman (noun)

A person who is not a serf or a slave.

- Understanding "freeman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "freeman" because he had never seen it before.

front porch (noun)

A porch for the front door.

- The article explained what "front porch" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "front porch" during the group presentation.

gandhi (noun)

Daughter of Nehru who served as prime minister of India from 1966 to 1977 (1917-1984).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gandhi."
- They discussed "gandhi" during the group presentation.

garbage dump (noun)

A piece of land where waste materials are dumped.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "garbage dump."
- He looked up "garbage dump" because he had never seen it before.

gateway (noun)

An entrance that can be closed by a gate.

- He looked up "gateway" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gateway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ge (noun)

A brittle grey crystalline element that is a semiconducting metalloid (resembling silicon) used in transistors; occurs in germanite and argyrodite.

- In class, the teacher used "ge" to mean a brittle grey crystalline element that is a....
- The article explained what "ge" means with a simple example.

greek orthodox (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of the Eastern Orthodox Church.

- A "greek orthodox" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "greek orthodox" because it captured the feeling precisely.

grinding wheel (noun)

A wheel composed of abrasive material; used for grinding.

- They discussed "grinding wheel" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "grinding wheel" means with a simple example.

ground bait (noun)

Bait scattered on the water to attract fish.

- They discussed "ground bait" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used “ground bait” to mean bait scattered on the water to attract fish.

guarantees (noun)

An unconditional commitment that something will happen or that something is true.

- The article explained what “guarantees” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “guarantees” to mean an unconditional commitment that something will....

hanging chad (noun)

A chad that is incompletely removed and hanging by one corner.

- In class, the teacher used “hanging chad” to mean a chad that is incompletely removed and hanging by....
- The article explained what “hanging chad” means with a simple example.

hot tub (noun)

A very large tub (large enough for more than one bather) filled with hot water.

- He looked up “hot tub” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “hot tub” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hotel desk clerk (noun)

A hotel receptionist.

- Understanding “hotel desk clerk” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hotel desk clerk.”

human elbow (noun)

Hinge joint between the forearm and upper arm and the corresponding joint in the forelimb of a quadruped.

- Understanding “human elbow” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “human elbow.”

humidity (noun)

Wetness in the atmosphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “humidity.”
- The article explained what “humidity” means with a simple example.

ice-cream float (noun)

A drink with ice cream floating in it.

- Understanding “ice-cream float” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ice-cream float.”

imagery (noun)

The ability to form mental images of things or events.

- In class, the teacher used “imagery” to mean the ability to form mental images of things or events.
- Understanding “imagery” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

imperial beard (noun)

A small tufted beard worn by Emperor Napoleon III.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “imperial beard.”
- He looked up “imperial beard” because he had never seen it before.

imply (verb)

Have as a necessary feature.

- In everyday English, people use “imply” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “imply” until he saw an example.

indicators (noun)

A device for showing the operating condition of some system.

- He looked up “indicators” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “indicators” to mean a device for showing the operating condition of....

indirect transmission (noun)

A transmission mechanism in which the infectious agent is transferred to the person by a fomite of vector.

- Understanding "indirect transmission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "indirect transmission" because he had never seen it before.

---

inland (adverb)

Towards or into the interior of a region.

- The town is five miles inland.
- He answered "inland," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

innocence (noun)

A state or condition of being innocent of a specific crime or offense.

- The trial established his innocence.
- He looked up "innocence" because he had never seen it before.

---

investigator (noun)

A police officer who investigates crimes.

- The article explained what "investigator" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "investigator" to mean a police officer who investigates crimes.

---

isle (noun)

A small island.

- The article explained what "isle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "isle" to mean a small island.

---

isle of man (noun)

One of the British Isles in the Irish Sea.

- Understanding "isle of man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "isle of man" during the group presentation.

---

john doe (noun)

An unknown or fictitious man who is a party to legal proceedings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john doe."
- He looked up "john doe" because he had never seen it before.

---

judicial separation (noun)

A judicial decree regulating the rights and responsibilities of a married couple living apart.

- The article explained what "judicial separation" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "judicial separation."

---

ka (noun)

Unknown god; an epithet of Prajapati and Brahma.

- In class, the teacher used "ka" to mean unknown god; an epithet of prajapati and brahma.
