- The article explained what "ka" means with a simple example.

---

kick one's heels (verb)

Wait or pass the time aimlessly or futilely; be kept waiting.

- She kicked her heels for hours at the gate of the Embassy.
- He did not know how to use "kick one's heels" until he saw an example.

---

kingdom of saudi arabia (noun)

An absolute monarchy occupying most of the Arabian Peninsula in southwest Asia; vast oil reserves dominate the economy.

- In class, the teacher used "kingdom of saudi arabia" to mean an absolute monarchy occupying most of the arabian....
- The article explained what "kingdom of saudi arabia" means with a simple example.

---

lego (noun)

(trademark) a child's plastic construction set for making mechanical models.

- The article explained what “lego” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “lego” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lending library (noun)

Library that provides books for use outside the building.

- Understanding “lending library” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lending library.”

---

mafia (noun)

A crime syndicate in the United States; organized in families; believed to have important relations to the Sicilian Mafia.

- In class, the teacher used “mafia” to mean a crime syndicate in the united states; organized....
- Understanding “mafia” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

magnitude relation (noun)

A relation between magnitudes.

- He looked up “magnitude relation” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “magnitude relation” to mean a relation between magnitudes.

---

make merry (verb)

Celebrate noisily, often indulging in drinking; engage in uproarious festivities.

- The members of the wedding party made merry all night.
- In everyday English, people use “make merry” when talking about this idea.

---

metric function (noun)

A function of a topological space that gives, for any two points in the space, a value equal to the distance between them.

- He looked up “metric function” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “metric function” during the group presentation.

---

mick (noun)

(ethnic slur) offensive term for a person of Irish descent.

- In class, the teacher used “mick” to mean (ethnic slur) offensive term for a person of irish....
- Understanding “mick” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

milk wagon (noun)

Wagon for delivering milk.

- They discussed “milk wagon” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “milk wagon” because he had never seen it before.

---

missionary (noun)

Someone who attempts to convert others to a particular doctrine or program.

- He looked up “missionary” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “missionary” to mean someone who attempts to convert others to a....

---

naval brass (noun)

Alpha-beta brass containing tin; resistant to sea water; Admiralty Metal is a trademark.

- The article explained what “naval brass” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “naval brass” to mean alpha-beta brass containing tin; resistant to sea....

---

ne’er (adverb)

Not ever; at no time in the past or future.

- Using “ne’er” can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene “ne’er” in the final chapter.

---

ne’er-do-well (noun)

An idle worthless person.

- Understanding “ne’er-do-well” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “ne’er-do-well” during the group presentation.

nepal (noun)

A small landlocked Asian country high in the Himalayas between India and China.

- In class, the teacher used "nepal" to mean a small landlocked asian country high in the....
- They discussed "nepal" during the group presentation.

newman (noun)

English prelate and theologian who (with John Keble and Edward Pusey) founded the Oxford movement; Newman later turned to Roman Catholicism and became a cardinal (1801-1890).

- He looked up "newman" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "newman" during the group presentation.

notified (verb)

Inform (somebody) of something.

- The coach explained when to use "notified" and when to wait.
- Can you use "notified" in a sentence that fits this situation?

obey (verb)

Be obedient to.

- He did not know how to use "obey" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "obey" and when to wait.

onion roll (noun)

Yeast-raised roll flavored with onion.

- In class, the teacher used "onion roll" to mean yeast-raised roll flavored with onion.
- Understanding "onion roll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ore dressing (noun)

Crushing and separating ore into valuable substances or waste by any of a variety of techniques.

- The article explained what "ore dressing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ore dressing" to mean crushing and separating ore into valuable....

organizational (adjective)

Of or relating to an organization.

- Organizational structure.
- It is useful to describe something as "organizational" when it is of or relating to an organization.

outfits (noun)

A set of clothing (with accessories).

- Understanding "outfits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "outfits" during the group presentation.

outright (adverb)

Without restrictions or stipulations or further payments.

- Buy outright.
- She asked him outright for a divorce.

overly (adverb)

To a degree exceeding normal or proper limits.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "overly" naturally.
- Place "overly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

oversight (noun)

An unintentional omission resulting from failure to notice something.

- The article explained what "oversight" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oversight."

particular baptist (noun)

Group of Baptist congregations believing the teachings of the French theologian John Calvin who believed in strict predetermination.

- He looked up “particular baptist” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “particular baptist.”

persian (adjective)

Of or relating to Iran or its people or language or culture.

- Students compared “persian” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation “persian”? Explain why.

phases (verb)

Adjust so as to be in a synchronized condition.

- She tried to use “phases” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “phases” and when to wait.

phillips screw (noun)

A screw with a special head having crossed slots.

- The article explained what “phillips screw” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “phillips screw” to mean a screw with a special head having crossed slots.

photographers (noun)

Someone who takes photographs professionally.

- He looked up “photographers” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “photographers” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

place mat (noun)

A mat serving as table linen for an individual place setting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “place mat.”
- Understanding “place mat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

poison oak (noun)

Dermatitis resulting from contact with a poison oak plant.

- The article explained what “poison oak” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “poison oak” to mean dermatitis resulting from contact with a poison oak....

polling (verb)

Vote in an election at a polling station.

- Can you use “polling” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “polling” when talking about this idea.

polling day (noun)

The day appointed for an election; in the United States it is the 1st Tuesday after the 1st Monday in November.

- The article explained what “polling day” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “polling day.”

popping (noun)

A sharp explosive sound as from a gunshot or drawing a cork.

- The article explained what “popping” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “popping” during the group presentation.

positive correlation (noun)

A correlation in which large values of one variable are associated with large values of the other and small with small; the correlation coefficient is between 0 and +1.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “positive correlation.”
- Understanding “positive correlation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

potato salad (noun)

Any of various salads having chopped potatoes as the base.

- In class, the teacher used “potato salad” to mean any of various salads having chopped potatoes as....

- He looked up “potato salad” because he had never seen it before.

printer cable (noun)

A cable between a computer and a printer.

- They discussed “printer cable” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “printer cable” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

prisons (noun)

A prisonlike situation; a place of seeming confinement.

- Understanding “prisons” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “prisons” during the group presentation.

prompt box (noun)

A booth projecting above the floor in the front of a stage where the prompter sits; opens toward the performers on stage.

- The article explained what “prompt box” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “prompt box” during the group presentation.

prototype (noun)

A standard or typical example.

- He is the prototype of good breeding.
- In class, the teacher used “prototype” to mean a standard or typical example.

pumps (noun)

The hollow muscular organ located behind the sternum and between the lungs; its rhythmic contractions move the blood through the body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pumps.”
- He looked up “pumps” because he had never seen it before.

punched (verb)

Make a hole into or between, as for ease of separation.

- He punched me in the stomach.
- The nail punched through the wall.

rabbit fever (noun)

A highly infectious disease of rodents (especially rabbits and squirrels) and sometimes transmitted to humans by ticks or flies or by handling infected animals.

- Understanding “rabbit fever” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rabbit fever.”

railway junction (noun)

A junction where two or more railway lines meet or cross.

- They discussed “railway junction” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “railway junction” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ramp (noun)

An inclined surface connecting two levels.

- In class, the teacher used “ramp” to mean an inclined surface connecting two levels.
- He looked up “ramp” because he had never seen it before.

ramp up (verb)

Bolster or strengthen.

- Ramp up security in the airports.
- In everyday English, people use “ramp up” when talking about this idea.

re-incorporate (verb)

Incorporate again or anew.

- The coach explained when to use “re-incorporate” and when to wait.
- Can you use “re-incorporate” in a sentence that fits this situation?

reactor (noun)

An electrical device used to introduce reactance into a circuit.

- Understanding "reactor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "reactor" during the group presentation.

---

real ira (noun)

A radical terrorist group that broke away in 1997 when the mainstream Provisional IRA proposed a cease-fire; has continued terrorist activities in opposition to any peace agreement.

- In class, the teacher used "real ira" to mean a radical terrorist group that broke away in 1997....
- They discussed "real ira" during the group presentation.

---

recreational facility (noun)

A public facility for recreation.

- He looked up "recreational facility" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "recreational facility."

---

reef (noun)

A submerged ridge of rock or coral near the surface of the water.

- He looked up "reef" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reef."

---

refusal (noun)

A message refusing to accept something that is offered.

- He looked up "refusal" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "refusal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

relay link (noun)

An amplifier for restoring the strength of a transmitted signal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "relay link."
- He looked up "relay link" because he had never seen it before.

---

relay station (noun)

An amplifier for restoring the strength of a transmitted signal.

- They discussed "relay station" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "relay station" to mean an amplifier for restoring the strength of a....

---

remedies (noun)

A medicine or therapy that cures disease or relieve pain.

- In class, the teacher used "remedies" to mean a medicine or therapy that cures disease or relieve....
- The article explained what "remedies" means with a simple example.

---

rent collector (noun)

A person who goes from house to house collecting rents for the owner.

- In class, the teacher used "rent collector" to mean a person who goes from house to house collecting....
- Understanding "rent collector" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

republic of hungary (noun)

A republic in central Europe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of hungary."
- The article explained what "republic of hungary" means with a simple example.

---

reset (noun)

Device for resetting instruments or controls.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reset."
- The article explained what "reset" means with a simple example.

---

road builder (noun)

Someone whose business is to build roads.

- The article explained what "road builder" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "road builder."

---

robert graves (noun)

English writer known for his interest in mythology and in the classics (1895-1985).

- Understanding "robert graves" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "robert graves" because he had never seen it before.

---

safety curtain (noun)

A fireproof theater curtain to be dropped in case of fire.

- Understanding "safety curtain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "safety curtain" during the group presentation.

---

sage (noun)

A mentor in spiritual and philosophical topics who is renowned for profound wisdom.

- Understanding "sage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sage."

---

samuel butler (noun)

English novelist who described a fictitious land he called Erewhon (1835-1902).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "samuel butler."
- He looked up "samuel butler" because he had never seen it before.

---

shave (verb)

Cut or remove with or as if with a plane.

- The machine shaved off fine layers from the piece of wood.
- Shave the radish.

---

shoe collar (noun)

The stitching that forms the rim of a shoe or boot.

- Understanding "shoe collar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "shoe collar" to mean the stitching that forms the rim of a shoe or boot.

---

sickness (noun)

Defectiveness or unsoundness.

- Drugs have become a sickness they cannot cure.
- A great sickness of his judgment.

---

silicon chip (noun)

Electronic equipment consisting of a small crystal of a silicon semiconductor fabricated to carry out a number of electronic functions in an integrated circuit.

- They discussed "silicon chip" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "silicon chip" means with a simple example.

---

silver spoon (noun)

The inherited wealth of established upper-class families.

- He was born with a silver spoon in his mouth.
- He looked up "silver spoon" because he had never seen it before.

---

sincerely yours (adverb)

Written formula for ending a letter.

- He answered "sincerely yours," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using "sincerely yours" can make your explanation more exact.

---

sir william gilbert (noun)

A librettist who was a collaborator with Sir Arthur Sullivan in a famous series of comic operettas (1836-1911).

- He looked up "sir william gilbert" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sir william gilbert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ski binding (noun)

One of a pair of mechanical devices that are attached to a ski and that will grip a ski boot; the bindings should release in case of a fall.

- He looked up "ski binding" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ski binding."

skip rope (noun)

A length of rope (usually with handles on each end) that is swung around while someone jumps over it.

- The article explained what "skip rope" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "skip rope" to mean a length of rope (usually with handles on each end)....

slots (noun)

A slot machine that is used for gambling.

- They spend hours and hours just playing the slots.
- The PC had three slots for additional memory.

spanish onion (noun)

Large mild and succulent onion; often eaten raw.

- They discussed "spanish onion" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "spanish onion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spare tire (noun)

Excess fat around the waistline.

- They discussed "spare tire" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "spare tire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spice islands (noun)

A group of island in eastern Indonesia between Celebes and New Guinea; settled by the Portuguese but taken by the Dutch who made them the center for a spice monopoly, at which time they were known as Spice Islands.

- In class, the teacher used "spice islands" to mean a group of island in eastern indonesia between....
- The article explained what "spice islands" means with a simple example.

sq in (noun)

A unit of area equal to one inch by one inch square.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sq in."
- He looked up "sq in" because he had never seen it before.

statistical mechanics (noun)

The branch of physics that makes theoretical predictions about the behavior of macroscopic systems on the basis of statistical laws governing its component particles.

- In class, the teacher used "statistical mechanics" to mean the branch of physics that makes theoretical....
- Understanding "statistical mechanics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

steering wheel (noun)

A handwheel that is used for steering.

- Understanding "steering wheel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "steering wheel" to mean a handwheel that is used for steering.

stems (verb)

Grow out of, have roots in, originate in.

- The increase in the national debt stems from the last war.
- The coach explained when to use "stems" and when to wait.

stephen collins foster (noun)

United States songwriter whose songs embody the sentiment of the South before the American Civil War (1826-1864).

- In class, the teacher used "stephen collins foster" to mean united states songwriter whose songs embody the....
- They discussed "stephen collins foster" during the group presentation.

stomach flu (noun)

Inflammation of the stomach and intestines; can be caused by Salmonella enteritidis.

- In class, the teacher used "stomach flu" to mean inflammation of the stomach and intestines; can be....
- Understanding "stomach flu" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

strange particle (noun)

An elementary particle with non-zero strangeness.

- Understanding "strange particle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "strange particle" to mean an elementary particle with non-zero strangeness.

---

straw poll (noun)

An unofficial vote taken to determine opinion on some issue.

- In class, the teacher used "straw poll" to mean an unofficial vote taken to determine opinion on....
- He looked up "straw poll" because he had never seen it before.

---

suffers (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- Every time her husband gets drunk, she suffers.
- She suffers from a tendency to talk too much.

---

superstar (noun)

Someone who is dazzlingly skilled in any field.

- They discussed "superstar" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "superstar" because he had never seen it before.

---

telecommunications (noun)

(often plural) systems used in transmitting messages over a distance electronically.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telecommunications."
- They discussed "telecommunications" during the group presentation.

---

telegraph operator (noun)

Someone who transmits messages by telegraph.

- He looked up "telegraph operator" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "telegraph operator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

territorial reserve (noun)

A territorial military unit.

- They discussed "territorial reserve" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "territorial reserve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tissues (verb)

Create a piece of cloth by interlacing strands of fabric, such as wool or cotton.

- The coach explained when to use "tissues" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "tissues" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

toddler (noun)

A young child.

- In class, the teacher used "toddler" to mean a young child.
- Understanding "toddler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

university of vermont (noun)

A university in Burlington, Vermont.

- In class, the teacher used "university of vermont" to mean a university in burlington, vermont.
- They discussed "university of vermont" during the group presentation.

---

vector sum (noun)

A vector that is the sum of two or more other vectors.

- In class, the teacher used "vector sum" to mean a vector that is the sum of two or more other vectors.

- He looked up “vector sum” because he had never seen it before.

victories (noun)

A successful ending of a struggle or contest.

- In class, the teacher used “victories” to mean a successful ending of a struggle or contest.
- The article explained what “victories” means with a simple example.

vikings (noun)

Any of the Scandinavian people who raided the coasts of Europe from the 8th to the 11th centuries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “vikings.”
- He looked up “vikings” because he had never seen it before.

vinyl radical (noun)

A univalent chemical radical derived from ethylene.

- In class, the teacher used “vinyl radical” to mean a univalent chemical radical derived from ethylene.
- The article explained what “vinyl radical” means with a simple example.

vodka (noun)

Unaged colorless liquor originating in Russia.

- They discussed “vodka” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “vodka” to mean unaged colorless liquor originating in russia.

web browser (noun)

A program used to view HTML documents.

- In class, the teacher used “web browser” to mean a program used to view html documents.
- He looked up “web browser” because he had never seen it before.

wee small voice (noun)

An inner voice that judges your behavior.

- He looked up “wee small voice” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “wee small voice” during the group presentation.

wholly (adverb)

To a complete degree or to the full or entire extent (‘whole’ is often used informally for ‘wholly’).

- He was wholly convinced.
- The narrator describes the scene “wholly” in the final chapter.

william sydney porter (noun)

United States writer of short stories whose pen name was O. Henry (1862-1910).

- The article explained what “william sydney porter” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “william sydney porter” to mean united states writer of short stories whose pen....

zoom in (verb)

Examine closely; focus one’s attention on.

- He zoomed in on the book.
- The coach explained when to use “zoom in” and when to wait.

abortion pill (noun)

An abortion-inducing drug (trade name RU_486) developed in France; when taken during the first five weeks of pregnancy it blocks the action of progesterone so that the uterus sloughs off the embryo.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “abortion pill.”
- The article explained what “abortion pill” means with a simple example.

accounted (verb)

To give an account or representation of in words.

- She tried to use “accounted” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “accounted” in real sentences.

acre inch (noun)

One twelfth of an acre-foot.

- The article explained what "acre inch" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "acre inch" to mean one twelfth of an acre-foot.

air sickness (noun)

Motion sickness experienced while traveling by air (especially during turbulence).

- The article explained what "air sickness" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "air sickness" during the group presentation.

airplane pilot (noun)

Someone who is licensed to operate an aircraft in flight.

- In class, the teacher used "airplane pilot" to mean someone who is licensed to operate an aircraft in....
- They discussed "airplane pilot" during the group presentation.

arc lamp (noun)

A lamp that produces light when electric current flows across the gap between two electrodes.

- In class, the teacher used "arc lamp" to mean a lamp that produces light when electric current....
- They discussed "arc lamp" during the group presentation.

artificial kidney (noun)

A machine that uses dialysis to remove impurities and waste products from the bloodstream before returning the blood to the patient's body.

- Understanding "artificial kidney" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "artificial kidney" because he had never seen it before.

artillery shell (noun)

A shell fired by artillery.

- He looked up "artillery shell" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "artillery shell" to mean a shell fired by artillery.

assassination (noun)

An attack intended to ruin someone's reputation.

- He looked up "assassination" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assassination."

bachelor of science in architecture (noun)

A bachelor's degree in architecture.

- They discussed "bachelor of science in architecture" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bachelor of science in architecture" because he had never seen it before.

baking chocolate (noun)

Pure unsweetened chocolate used in baking and icings and sauces and candy.

- Understanding "baking chocolate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "baking chocolate" means with a simple example.

basics (noun)

A statement of fundamental facts or principles.

- Let's get down to basics.
- They discussed "basics" during the group presentation.

bath towel (noun)

A large towel; to dry yourself after a bath.

- In class, the teacher used "bath towel" to mean a large towel; to dry yourself after a bath.
- He looked up "bath towel" because he had never seen it before.

bb shot (noun)

A small pellet fired from an air rifle or BB gun.

- Understanding "bb shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bb shot" because he had never seen it before.

---

belgian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Belgium or the Belgian people.

- The Belgian Queen.
- Would you call this situation "belgian"? Explain why.

---

benjamin harrison (noun)

23rd President of the United States (1833-1901).

- He looked up "benjamin harrison" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "benjamin harrison."

---

betting odds (noun)

The ratio by which one better's wager is greater than that of another.

- He offered odds of two to one.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "betting odds."

---

bibliography (noun)

A list of writings with time and place of publication (such as the writings of a single author or the works referred to in preparing a document etc.).

- He looked up "bibliography" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bibliography" during the group presentation.

---

black humour (noun)

The juxtaposition of morbid and farcical elements (in writing or drama) to give a disturbing effect.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black humour."
- He looked up "black humour" because he had never seen it before.

---

black panthers (noun)

A militant Black political party founded in 1965 to end political dominance by Whites.

- In class, the teacher used "black panthers" to mean a militant black political party founded in 1965 to....
- Understanding "black panthers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blanket jam (verb)

Jam a broad spectrum of frequencies to affect all communications in the area except for directional antenna communications.

- Can you use "blanket jam" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "blanket jam" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

blood poisoning (noun)

Invasion of the bloodstream by virulent microorganisms from a focus of infection.

- In class, the teacher used "blood poisoning" to mean invasion of the bloodstream by virulent....
- He looked up "blood poisoning" because he had never seen it before.

---

blood typing (noun)

Determining a person's blood type by serological methods.

- The article explained what "blood typing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blood typing."

---

board of trustees (noun)

A governing board elected or appointed to direct the policies of an educational institution.

- In class, the teacher used "board of trustees" to mean a governing board elected or appointed to direct....
- He looked up "board of trustees" because he had never seen it before.

---

boat whistle (noun)

A whistle on a boat that is sounded as a warning.

- He looked up "boat whistle" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "boat whistle" to mean a whistle on a boat that is sounded as a warning.

---

bomb rack (noun)

A device on an aircraft for carrying bombs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bomb rack."
- He looked up "bomb rack" because he had never seen it before.

---

bomber crew (noun)

The crew of a bomber.

- He looked up "bomber crew" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bomber crew" during the group presentation.

---

breeze block (noun)

A light concrete building block made with cinder aggregate.

- Cinder blocks are called breeze blocks in Britain.
- He looked up "breeze block" because he had never seen it before.

---

broadly (adverb)

Without regard to specific details or exceptions.

- He interprets the law broadly.
- He smiled broadly.

---

calvin (noun)

United States chemist noted for discovering the series of chemical reactions in photosynthesis (1911-).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calvin."
- The article explained what "calvin" means with a simple example.

---

candles (noun)

The basic unit of luminous intensity adopted under the Systeme International d'Unites; equal to 1/60 of the luminous intensity per square centimeter of a black body radiating at the temperature of 2,046 degrees Kelvin.

- He looked up "candles" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "candles."

---

capita (noun)

A headlike protuberance on an organ or structure.

- Understanding "capita" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capita."

---

car sickness (noun)

Motion sickness experienced while traveling in a car.

- The article explained what "car sickness" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "car sickness" to mean motion sickness experienced while traveling in a car.

---

certainty (noun)

The state of being certain.

- His certainty reassured the others.
- His victory is a certainty.

---

channel-surf (verb)

Switch channels, on television.

- The coach explained when to use "channel-surf" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "channel-surf" in real sentences.

---

cheeks (noun)

Either of the two large fleshy masses of muscular tissue that form the human rump.

- The article explained what "cheeks" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheeks."

chickens (noun)

A person who lacks confidence, is irresolute and wishy-washy.

- In class, the teacher used "chickens" to mean a person who lacks confidence, is irresolute and....
- Understanding "chickens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

christopher columbus (noun)

Italian navigator who discovered the New World in the service of Spain while looking for a route to China (1451-1506).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "christopher columbus."
- Understanding "christopher columbus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

citation (noun)

A short note recognizing a source of information or of a quoted passage.

- The student's essay failed to list several important citations.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "citation."

clues (noun)

Evidence that helps to solve a problem.

- In class, the teacher used "clues" to mean evidence that helps to solve a problem.
- Understanding "clues" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

collectively (adverb)

In conjunction with; combined.

- The narrator describes the scene "collectively" in the final chapter.
- Using "collectively" can make your explanation more exact.

commercials (noun)

A commercially sponsored ad on radio or television.

- The article explained what "commercials" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commercials."

compression (noun)

The process or result of becoming smaller or pressed together.

- Understanding "compression" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "compression" during the group presentation.

comprised (verb)

Include or contain; have as a component.

- A totally new idea is comprised in this paper.
- The land he conquered comprised several provinces.

confess (verb)

Confess to God in the presence of a priest, as in the Catholic faith.

- She confessed that she had taken the money.
- In everyday English, people use "confess" when talking about this idea.

coordinate (verb)

Bring into common action, movement, or condition.

- Coordinate the painters, masons, and plumbers.
- Coordinate his actions with that of his colleagues.

coordinates (verb)

Bring into common action, movement, or condition.

- In everyday English, people use "coordinates" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "coordinates" in real sentences.

cube (noun)

A hexahedron with six equal squares as faces.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cube."
- He looked up "cube" because he had never seen it before.

---

dairy farmer (noun)

The owner or manager of a dairy.

- In class, the teacher used "dairy farmer" to mean the owner or manager of a dairy.
- The article explained what "dairy farmer" means with a simple example.

---

dana (noun)

Celtic goddess who was the mother of the Tuatha De Danann; identified with the Welsh Don.

- Understanding "dana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dana" because he had never seen it before.

---

declaring (verb)

Proclaim one's support, sympathy, or opinion for or against.

- Can you use "declaring" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "declaring" when talking about this idea.

---

decoration (noun)

An award for winning a championship or commemorating some other event.

- Understanding "decoration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "decoration" because he had never seen it before.

---

decoration day (noun)

Legal holiday in the United States, last Monday in May; commemorates the members of the United States armed forces who were killed in war.

- He looked up "decoration day" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "decoration day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

decree (noun)

A legally binding command or decision entered on the court record (as if issued by a court or judge).

- He looked up "decree" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "decree" during the group presentation.

---

deep-fat-fry (verb)

Fry in deep fat.

- The coach explained when to use "deep-fat-fry" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "deep-fat-fry" until he saw an example.

---

definitions (noun)

A concise explanation of the meaning of a word or phrase or symbol.

- He looked up "definitions" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "definitions."

---

deliberate (verb)

Think about carefully; weigh.

- In everyday English, people use "deliberate" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "deliberate" in real sentences.

---

dental surgeon (noun)

A dentist qualified to perform surgical procedures.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dental surgeon."
- He looked up "dental surgeon" because he had never seen it before.

---

direct correlation (noun)

A correlation in which large values of one variable are associated with large values of the other and small with small; the correlation coefficient is between 0 and +1.

- They discussed "direct correlation" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "direct correlation" to mean a correlation in which large values of one variable....

discovering (verb)

See for the first time; make a discovery.

- He did not know how to use "discovering" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "discovering" and when to wait.

dot com company (noun)

A company that operates its business primarily on the internet using a URL that ends in '.com'.

- They discussed "dot com company" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dot com company."

drift (noun)

A general tendency to change (as of opinion).

- Caught the general drift of the conversation.
- They dug a drift parallel with the vein.

drift off (verb)

Change from a waking to a sleeping state.

- She tried to use "drift off" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "drift off" and when to wait.

dye (noun)

A usually soluble substance for staining or coloring e.g. fabrics or hair.

- He looked up "dye" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dye" to mean a usually soluble substance for staining or....

educators (noun)

Someone who educates young people.

- He looked up "educators" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "educators."

egyptian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Egypt.

- In class, the teacher used "egyptian monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in egypt.
- The article explained what "egyptian monetary unit" means with a simple example.

electron (noun)

An elementary particle with negative charge.

- Understanding "electron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "electron" to mean an elementary particle with negative charge.

endangered species (noun)

A species whose numbers are so small that the species is at risk of extinction.

- They discussed "endangered species" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "endangered species" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

endure (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- The new secretary had to endure a lot of unprofessional remarks.
- The legend of Elvis endures.

enzyme (noun)

Any of several complex proteins that are produced by cells and act as catalysts in specific biochemical reactions.

- He looked up "enzyme" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "enzyme" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

evolutionary (adjective)

Of or relating to or produced by evolution.

- Evolutionary biology.
- The speaker chose "evolutionary" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

exhibits (verb)

To show, make visible or apparent.

- He exhibits a great talent.
- Learners should practice how to use "exhibits" in real sentences.

---

field hut (noun)

Temporary military shelter.

- The article explained what "field hut" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "field hut" during the group presentation.

---

fragments (noun)

A piece broken off or cut off of something else.

- Fragments of a play.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fragments."

---

francis drake (noun)

English explorer and admiral who was the first Englishman to circumnavigate the globe and who helped to defeat the Spanish Armada (1540-1596).

- The article explained what "francis drake" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "francis drake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

french heel (noun)

A fairly high narrow heel on women's shoes.

- Understanding "french heel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french heel."

---

frog legs (noun)

Hind legs of frogs used as food; resemble chicken and cooked as chicken.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frog legs."
- They discussed "frog legs" during the group presentation.

---

fry cook (noun)

A cook who specializes in fried foods.

- They discussed "fry cook" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fry cook" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fuels (noun)

A substance that can be consumed to produce energy.

- They developed alternative fuels for aircraft.
- The article explained what "fuels" means with a simple example.

---

gambling casino (noun)

A public building for gambling and entertainment.

- Understanding "gambling casino" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gambling casino" during the group presentation.

---

garlic bread (noun)

French or Italian bread sliced and spread with garlic butter then crisped in the oven.

- He looked up "garlic bread" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "garlic bread."

---

geographical region (noun)

A demarcated area of the Earth.

- He looked up “geographical region” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “geographical region.”

---

geological (adjective)

Of or relating to or based on geology.

- Geological formations.
- Would you call this situation “geological”? Explain why.

---

geological time (noun)

The time of the physical formation and development of the earth (especially prior to human history).

- The article explained what “geological time” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “geological time” to mean the time of the physical formation and development....

---

graham flour (noun)

Flour made by grinding the entire wheat berry including the bran; (‘whole meal flour’ is British usage).

- Understanding “graham flour” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “graham flour” means with a simple example.

---

grams (noun)

A metric unit of weight equal to one thousandth of a kilogram.

- He looked up “grams” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “grams.”

---

grass skirt (noun)

A skirt made of long blades of grass.

- They discussed “grass skirt” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “grass skirt” to mean a skirt made of long blades of grass.

---

great-niece (noun)

A daughter of your niece or nephew.

- In class, the teacher used “great-niece” to mean a daughter of your niece or nephew.
- He looked up “great-niece” because he had never seen it before.

---

gross anatomy (noun)

The study of the structure of the body and its parts without the use of a microscope.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gross anatomy.”
- Understanding “gross anatomy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gun carriage (noun)

A framework on which a gun is mounted for firing.

- He looked up “gun carriage” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “gun carriage” to mean a framework on which a gun is mounted for firing.

---

guru (noun)

A recognized leader in some field or of some movement.

- A guru of genomics.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “guru.”

---

hacked (verb)

Be able to manage or manage successfully.

- He hacked his way through the forest.
- She tried to use “hacked” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

hair gel (noun)

Toiletry consisting of an aerosol foam used in hair styling.

- Understanding “hair gel” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “hair gel” because he had never seen it before.

ham sandwich (noun)

A sandwich made with a filling of sliced ham.

- The article explained what "ham sandwich" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ham sandwich" to mean a sandwich made with a filling of sliced ham.

hans (noun)

Imperial dynasty that ruled China (most of the time from 206 BC to AD 220) and expanded its boundaries and developed its bureaucracy; remembered as one of the great eras of Chinese civilization.

- In class, the teacher used "hans" to mean imperial dynasty that ruled china (most of the time....
- The article explained what "hans" means with a simple example.

hatch (verb)

Draw, cut, or engrave lines, usually parallel, on metal, wood, or paper.

- Hatch the sheet.
- Young birds, fish, and reptiles hatch.

hindi (adjective)

Of or relating to or supporting Hinduism.

- Would you call this situation "hindi"? Explain why.
- Students compared "hindi" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

hindu calendar (noun)

The lunisolar calendar governing the religious life of Hindus; an extra month is inserted after every month in which there are two new moons (once every three years).

- Understanding "hindu calendar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hindu calendar" because he had never seen it before.

historians (noun)

A person who is an authority on history and who studies it and writes about it.

- In class, the teacher used "historians" to mean a person who is an authority on history and who....
- He looked up "historians" because he had never seen it before.

hm (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to 100 meters.

- The article explained what "hm" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hormone (noun)

The secretion of an endocrine gland that is transmitted by the blood to the tissue on which it has a specific effect.

- He looked up "hormone" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hormone."

i timothy (noun)

A New Testament book containing Saint Paul's first epistle to Timothy; contains advice on pastoral matters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "i timothy."
- They discussed "i timothy" during the group presentation.

import barrier (noun)

Any regulation or policy that restricts international trade.

- Understanding "import barrier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "import barrier" during the group presentation.

indirect lighting (noun)

A concealed lighting fixture.

- Understanding "indirect lighting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indirect lighting."

infinity (noun)

Time without end.

- He looked up "infinity" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "infinity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

intentionally (adverb)

With intention; in an intentional manner.

- He used that word intentionally.
- She spoke "intentionally," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

internet explorer (noun)

A commercial browser.

- He looked up "internet explorer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "internet explorer" during the group presentation.

---

irish soda bread (noun)

Round loaf made with soda and buttermilk; often containing caraway seeds and raisins.

- He looked up "irish soda bread" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "irish soda bread."

---

john churchill (noun)

English general considered one of the greatest generals in history (1650-1722).

- They discussed "john churchill" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "john churchill" because he had never seen it before.

---

joints (noun)

The shape or manner in which things come together and a connection is made.

- The article explained what "joints" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "joints" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

julian calendar (noun)

The solar calendar introduced in Rome in 46 b.c. by Julius Caesar and slightly modified by Augustus, establishing the 12-month year of 365 days with each 4th year having 366 days and the months having 31 or 30 days except for February.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "julian calendar."
- Understanding "julian calendar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kilometers (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to 1000 meters (or 0.621371 miles).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kilometers."
- The article explained what "kilometers" means with a simple example.

---

labs (noun)

A workplace for the conduct of scientific research.

- He looked up "labs" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labs."

---

lace (noun)

A delicate decorative fabric woven in an open web of symmetrical patterns.

- The article explained what "lace" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lace" during the group presentation.

---

lace into (verb)

Hit violently, as in an attack.

- In everyday English, people use "lace into" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "lace into" in real sentences.

---

lace up (verb)

Draw through eyes or holes.

- Lace the shoelaces.
- Learners should practice how to use "lace up" in real sentences.

---

lead poisoning (noun)

Toxic condition produced by the absorption of excessive lead into the system.

- He looked up "lead poisoning" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lead poisoning."

---

lego set (noun)

(trademark) a child's plastic construction set for making mechanical models.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lego set."
- The article explained what "lego set" means with a simple example.

---

libya (noun)

A military dictatorship in northern Africa on the Mediterranean; consists almost entirely of desert; a major exporter of petroleum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "libya."
- They discussed "libya" during the group presentation.

---

losers (noun)

A person with a record of failing; someone who loses consistently.

- He looked up "losers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "losers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

louis henry sullivan (noun)

United States architect known for his steel framed skyscrapers and for coining the phrase 'form follows function' (1856-1924).

- Understanding "louis henry sullivan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "louis henry sullivan" means with a simple example.

---

magic marker (noun)

A pen with a writing tip made of felt (trade name Magic Marker).

- They discussed "magic marker" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "magic marker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

magnetic bubble memory (noun)

A nonvolatile storage device that holds information in the form of bubbles on a thin film of magnetic silicate; no longer used in most computers.

- They discussed "magnetic bubble memory" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic bubble memory."

---

magnetic ink (noun)

An ink that contains particles of a magnetic substance whose presence can be detected by magnetic sensors.

- In class, the teacher used "magnetic ink" to mean an ink that contains particles of a magnetic....
- The article explained what "magnetic ink" means with a simple example.

---

magnetic variation (noun)

The angle (at a particular location) between magnetic north and true north.

- The article explained what "magnetic variation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "magnetic variation" during the group presentation.

---

maiden (noun)

An unmarried girl (especially a virgin).

- He looked up "maiden" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "maiden" to mean an unmarried girl (especially a virgin).

---

marijuana cigarette (noun)

Marijuana leaves rolled into a cigarette for smoking.

- He looked up "marijuana cigarette" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "marijuana cigarette" during the group presentation.

martin luther (noun)

German theologian who led the Reformation; believed that salvation is granted on the basis of faith rather than deeds (1483-1546).

- They discussed "martin luther" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "martin luther" to mean german theologian who led the reformation; believed....

membrane (noun)

A pliable sheet of tissue that covers or lines or connects the organs or cells of animals or plants.

- They discussed "membrane" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "membrane."

messing (verb)

Make a mess of or create disorder in.

- She tried to use "messing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "messing" when talking about this idea.

metallic (noun)

A fabric made of a yarn that is partly or entirely of metal.

- The article explained what "metallic" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "metallic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

methodology (noun)

The system of methods followed in a particular discipline.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "methodology."
- He looked up "methodology" because he had never seen it before.

metric weight unit (noun)

A decimal unit of weight based on the gram.

- He looked up "metric weight unit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "metric weight unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

missionary post (noun)

An organization of missionaries in a foreign land sent to carry on religious work.

- He looked up "missionary post" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "missionary post."

modifications (noun)

An event that occurs when something passes from one state or phase to another.

- The neighborhood had undergone few modifications since his last visit years ago.
- They discussed "modifications" during the group presentation.

monitors (verb)

Keep tabs on; keep an eye on; keep under surveillance.

- In everyday English, people use "monitors" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "monitors" in real sentences.

morning sickness (noun)

Nausea early in the day; a characteristic symptom in the early months of pregnancy.

- They discussed "morning sickness" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "morning sickness" because he had never seen it before.

mother goose (noun)

The imaginary author of a collection of nursery rhymes.

- He looked up "mother goose" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother goose."

multiple correlation (noun)

A statistical technique that predicts values of one variable on the basis of two or more other variables.

- In class, the teacher used "multiple correlation" to mean a statistical technique that predicts values of one....
- The article explained what "multiple correlation" means with a simple example.

---

murderer (noun)

A criminal who commits homicide (who performs the unlawful premeditated killing of another human being).

- In class, the teacher used "murderer" to mean a criminal who commits homicide (who performs the....
- Understanding "murderer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nap (noun)

The yarn (as in a rug or velvet or corduroy) that stands up from the weave.

- There wasn't time for a nap.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nap."

---

natural language processor (noun)

An application program that deals with natural language text.

- They discussed "natural language processor" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "natural language processor" because he had never seen it before.

---

naval special warfare (noun)

The agency that provides units to conduct unconventional and counter-guerilla warfare.

- They discussed "naval special warfare" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "naval special warfare" means with a simple example.

---

neo jazz (noun)

Any of various styles of jazz that appeared after 1940.

- The article explained what "neo jazz" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "neo jazz" to mean any of various styles of jazz that appeared after 1940.

---

nerve fiber (noun)

A threadlike extension of a nerve cell.

- He looked up "nerve fiber" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "nerve fiber" during the group presentation.

---

niece (noun)

A daughter of your brother or sister.

- In class, the teacher used "niece" to mean a daughter of your brother or sister.
- The article explained what "niece" means with a simple example.

---

nm (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to one billionth of a meter.

- The article explained what "nm" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nm" to mean a metric unit of length equal to one billionth of a....

---

northern baptist (noun)

A member of the American Baptist Convention.

- The article explained what "northern baptist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "northern baptist" to mean a member of the american baptist convention.

---

numbered (verb)

Add up in number or quantity.

- The coach explained when to use "numbered" and when to wait.
- Can you use "numbered" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

object-oriented database (noun)

A database in which the operations carried out on information items (data objects) are considered part of their definition.

- They discussed "object-oriented database" during the group presentation.

- Understanding "object-oriented database" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

optical lens (noun)

A lens that focuses the image in a camera.

- Understanding "optical lens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "optical lens" because he had never seen it before.

---

orange-juice concentrate (noun)

Orange juice that has been concentrated and frozen.

- The article explained what "orange-juice concentrate" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "orange-juice concentrate" during the group presentation.

---

orchestra pit (noun)

Lowered area in front of a stage where an orchestra accompanies the performers.

- He looked up "orchestra pit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "orchestra pit" during the group presentation.

---

orthodox catholic church (noun)

Derived from the Byzantine Church and adhering to Byzantine rites.

- The article explained what "orthodox catholic church" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orthodox catholic church."

---

particular proposition (noun)

(logic) a proposition that asserts something about some (but not all) members of a class.

- They discussed "particular proposition" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "particular proposition" to mean (logic) a proposition that asserts something about....

---

partnerships (noun)

A cooperative relationship between people or groups who agree to share responsibility for achieving some specific goal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "partnerships."
- He looked up "partnerships" because he had never seen it before.

---

people's liberation army (noun)

A radical terrorist group dedicated to the removal of British forces from Northern Ireland and the unification of Ireland.

- They discussed "people's liberation army" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "people's liberation army."

---

persuade (verb)

Cause somebody to adopt a certain position, belief, or course of action; twist somebody's arm.

- You can't persuade me to buy this ugly vase!
- He did not know how to use "persuade" until he saw an example.

---

philip warren anderson (noun)

United States physicist who studied the electronic structure of magnetic and disordered systems (1923-).

- The article explained what "philip warren anderson" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "philip warren anderson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pier (noun)

A platform built out from the shore into the water and supported by piles; provides access to ships and boats.

- In class, the teacher used "pier" to mean a platform built out from the shore into the water....
- He looked up "pier" because he had never seen it before.

---

plane geometry (noun)

The geometry of 2-dimensional figures.

- Understanding "plane geometry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plane geometry."

---

plasma physics (noun)

The branch of physics concerned with matter in its plasma phase.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plasma physics."
- Understanding "plasma physics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

polling place (noun)

A place where voters go to cast their votes in an election.

- He looked up "polling place" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "polling place" during the group presentation.

predecessor (noun)

One who precedes you in time (as in holding a position or office).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "predecessor."
- He looked up "predecessor" because he had never seen it before.

premise (noun)

A statement that is assumed to be true and from which a conclusion can be drawn.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "premise."
- The article explained what "premise" means with a simple example.

purse string (noun)

A drawstring used to close the mouth of a purse.

- In class, the teacher used "purse string" to mean a drawstring used to close the mouth of a purse.
- The article explained what "purse string" means with a simple example.

quiz (verb)

Examine someone's knowledge of something.

- We got quizzed on French irregular verbs.
- Can you use "quiz" in a sentence that fits this situation?

raw wool (noun)

Wool in its natural condition; not refined or processed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "raw wool."
- Understanding "raw wool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

recipients (noun)

The semantic role of the animate entity that is passively involved in the happening denoted by the verb in the clause.

- He looked up "recipients" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "recipients."

relates (verb)

Be in a relationship with.

- She relates well to her peers.
- She tried to use "relates" carefully so everyone would understand.

relied (verb)

Have confidence or faith in.

- He did not know how to use "relied" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "relied" in a sentence that fits this situation?

republic of bulgaria (noun)

A republic in the eastern part of the Balkan Peninsula in southeastern Europe.

- Understanding "republic of bulgaria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "republic of bulgaria" to mean a republic in the eastern part of the balkan....

republic of ghana (noun)

A republic in West Africa on the Gulf of Guinea.

- Ghana was colonized as the Gold Coast by the British.
- He looked up "republic of ghana" because he had never seen it before.

---

republic of the sudan (noun)

A republic in northeastern Africa on the Red Sea; achieved independence from Egypt and the United Kingdom in 1956.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of the sudan."
- He looked up "republic of the sudan" because he had never seen it before.

---

scent out (verb)

Recognize or detect by or as if by smelling.

- He can smell out trouble.
- He did not know how to use "scent out" until he saw an example.

---

securities analyst (noun)

An analyst who studies the financial performance of corporations.

- In class, the teacher used "securities analyst" to mean an analyst who studies the financial performance of....
- The article explained what "securities analyst" means with a simple example.

---

ship builder (noun)

A carpenter who helps build and launch wooden vessels.

- They discussed "ship builder" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ship builder" because he had never seen it before.

---

sir oliver lodge (noun)

English physicist who studied electromagnetic radiation and was a pioneer of radiotelegraphy (1851-1940).

- In class, the teacher used "sir oliver lodge" to mean english physicist who studied electromagnetic....
- They discussed "sir oliver lodge" during the group presentation.

---

slate (verb)

Enter on a list or slate for an election.

- He was slated for borough president.
- He slated his talk for 9 AM.

---

sliding scale (noun)

A wage scale that fluctuates in response to the cost-of-living index.

- Understanding "sliding scale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sliding scale" means with a simple example.

---

sliding seat (noun)

Rower's seat that slides fore and aft.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sliding seat."
- The article explained what "sliding seat" means with a simple example.

---

solar collector (noun)

A concave mirror that concentrates the rays of the sun; can produce high temperatures.

- Understanding "solar collector" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "solar collector" because he had never seen it before.

---

solid geometry (noun)

The geometry of 3-dimensional space.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solid geometry."
- The article explained what "solid geometry" means with a simple example.

---

sore throat (noun)

Inflammation of the fauces and pharynx.

- The article explained what "sore throat" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sore throat" to mean inflammation of the fauces and pharynx.

southern baptist (noun)

A member of the Southern Baptist Convention.

- They discussed "southern baptist" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "southern baptist."

spells (noun)

A verbal formula believed to have magical force.

- They discussed "spells" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spells."

sperm bank (noun)

A depository for storing sperm.

- They discussed "sperm bank" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sperm bank" means with a simple example.

statute book (noun)

A record of the whole body of legislation in a given jurisdiction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "statute book."
- The article explained what "statute book" means with a simple example.

statute law (noun)

Law enacted by a legislative body.

- In class, the teacher used "statute law" to mean law enacted by a legislative body.
- The article explained what "statute law" means with a simple example.

steering gear (noun)

A gear that couples the steering wheel to the steering linkage of a motor vehicle.

- He looked up "steering gear" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "steering gear" to mean a gear that couples the steering wheel to the....

stephen crane (noun)

United States writer (1871-1900).

- He looked up "stephen crane" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "stephen crane" to mean united states writer (1871-1900).

strip steak (noun)

Steak from upper part of the short loin.

- Understanding "strip steak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "strip steak" to mean steak from upper part of the short loin.

sugar spoon (noun)

A spoon for serving sugar; often made in the shape of a seashell.

- The article explained what "sugar spoon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sugar spoon."

superior conjunction (noun)

(astronomy) the alignment of the Earth and a planet on the opposite side of the sun.

- The article explained what "superior conjunction" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "superior conjunction" during the group presentation.

swedish monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Sweden.

- Understanding "swedish monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "swedish monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in sweden.

tags (noun)

A label associated with something for the purpose of identification.

- Semantic tags were attached in order to identify different meanings of the word.
- They discussed "tags" during the group presentation.

---

tapes (noun)

A long thin piece of cloth or paper as used for binding or fastening.

- He took along a dozen tapes to record the interview.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tapes."

---

tax bracket (noun)

A category of taxpayers based on the amount of their income.

- They discussed "tax bracket" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tax bracket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tee (noun)

The starting place for each hole on a golf course.

- They were waiting on the first tee.
- In class, the teacher used "tee" to mean the starting place for each hole on a golf course.

---

tee up (verb)

Make detailed arrangements or preparations.

- Tee golf balls.
- In everyday English, people use "tee up" when talking about this idea.

---

terry cloth (noun)

A pile fabric (usually cotton) with uncut loops on both sides; used to make bath towels and bath robes.

- Understanding "terry cloth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "terry cloth."

---

testified (verb)

Provide evidence for.

- Her behavior testified to her incompetence.
- Can you use "testified" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

thomas hardy (noun)

English novelist and poet (1840-1928).

- Understanding "thomas hardy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "thomas hardy" to mean english novelist and poet (1840-1928).

---

timothy (noun)

A disciple of Saint Paul who became the leader of the Christian community at Ephesus.

- Understanding "timothy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "timothy" during the group presentation.

---

token (noun)

An individual instance of a type of symbol.

- The word'error' contains three tokens of 'r'.
- They discussed "token" during the group presentation.

---

tongue-in-cheek (adverb)

In a bantering fashion.

- The narrator describes the scene "tongue-in-cheek" in the final chapter.
- Using "tongue-in-cheek" can make your explanation more exact.

---

tornado (noun)

A purified and potent form of cocaine that is smoked rather than snorted; highly addictive.

- The article explained what "tornado" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "tornado" to mean a purified and potent form of cocaine that is....

---

tracy (noun)

United States film actor who appeared in many films with Katharine Hepburn (1900-1967).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tracy."
- The article explained what "tracy" means with a simple example.

---

tunes (noun)

A succession of notes forming a distinctive sequence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tunes."
- They discussed "tunes" during the group presentation.

---

twilight (noun)

A condition of decline following successes.

- In the twilight of the empire.
- He loved the twilight.

---

universal donor (noun)

A person whose type O Rh-negative blood may be safely transfused into persons with other blood types.

- The article explained what "universal donor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "universal donor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vagina (noun)

The lower part of the female reproductive tract; a moist canal in female mammals extending from the labia minora to the uterus.

- The vagina receives the penis during coitus.
- The vagina is elastic enough to allow the passage of a fetus.

---

vault of heaven (noun)

The apparent surface of the imaginary sphere on which celestial bodies appear to be projected.

- In class, the teacher used "vault of heaven" to mean the apparent surface of the imaginary sphere on....
- The article explained what "vault of heaven" means with a simple example.

---

verbal expression (noun)

The communication (in speech or writing) of your beliefs or opinions.

- Expressions of good will.
- He helped me find verbal expression for my ideas.

---

verses (verb)

Familiarize through thorough study or experience.

- The coach explained when to use "verses" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "verses" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

vocabulary (noun)

The system of techniques or symbols serving as a means of expression (as in arts or crafts).

- He introduced a wide vocabulary of techniques.
- In class, the teacher used "vocabulary" to mean the system of techniques or symbols serving as a....

---

vocal fold (noun)

Either of two pairs of folds of mucous membrane projecting into the larynx.

- Understanding "vocal fold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vocal fold."

---

wellington (noun)

The capital of New Zealand.

- They discussed "wellington" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wellington" because he had never seen it before.

---

wrist pin (noun)

Pin joining a piston to a connecting rod.

- He looked up "wrist pin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wrist pin."

---

aberdeen (noun)

A city in northeastern Scotland on the North Sea.

- In class, the teacher used "aberdeen" to mean a city in northeastern scotland on the north sea.
- He looked up "aberdeen" because he had never seen it before.

---

abraham lincoln (noun)

16th President of the United States; saved the Union during the American Civil War and emancipated the slaves; was assassinated by Booth (1809-1865).

- They discussed "abraham lincoln" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "abraham lincoln."

---

absorb (verb)

Devote (oneself) fully to.

- The liquids, light, and gases absorb.
- He absorbed the knowledge or beliefs of his tribe.

---

accompany (verb)

Be present or associated with an event or entity.

- Can you use "accompany" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "accompany" and when to wait.

---

accord (noun)

A written agreement between two states or sovereigns.

- We are in accord with your proposal.
- Understanding "accord" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

albany (noun)

A town in southwest Georgia; processing center for peanuts and pecans.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "albany."
- Understanding "albany" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

algorithms (noun)

A precise rule (or set of rules) specifying how to solve some problem.

- Understanding "algorithms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "algorithms" during the group presentation.

---

alt (noun)

Angular distance above the horizon (especially of a celestial object).

- The article explained what "alt" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "alt" to mean angular distance above the horizon (especially of a....

---

alternatively (adverb)

In place of, or as an alternative to.

- Alternatively we could buy a used car.
- She spoke "alternatively," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

ammunition chest (noun)

A chest to hold ammunition.

- In class, the teacher used "ammunition chest" to mean a chest to hold ammunition.
- The article explained what "ammunition chest" means with a simple example.

---

archer (noun)

A person who is expert in the use of a bow and arrow.

- They discussed "archer" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "archer."

---

army hut (noun)

Temporary military shelter.

- In class, the teacher used "army hut" to mean temporary military shelter.
- Understanding "army hut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

arthur sullivan (noun)

English composer of operettas who collaborated with the librettist William Gilbert (1842-1900).

- In class, the teacher used "arthur sullivan" to mean english composer of operettas who collaborated with....
- He looked up "arthur sullivan" because he had never seen it before.

---

asap (adverb)

As soon as possible.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "asap" naturally.
- She spoke "asap," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

assurance (noun)

A statement intended to inspire confidence.

- The President's assurances were not respected.
- His assurance in his superiority did not make him popular.

---

baked egg (noun)

Egg cooked individually in cream or butter in a small ramekin.

- Understanding "baked egg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "baked egg" during the group presentation.

---

barber (noun)

A hairdresser who cuts hair and shaves beards as a trade.

- He looked up "barber" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "barber" to mean a hairdresser who cuts hair and shaves beards as a....

---

bash (noun)

A vigorous blow.

- He took a bash right in his face.
- In class, the teacher used "bash" to mean a vigorous blow.

---

bathroom cleaner (noun)

A preparation for cleaning bathrooms.

- Understanding "bathroom cleaner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bathroom cleaner" during the group presentation.

---

battalion (noun)

A large indefinite number.

- A battalion of ants.
- He looked up "battalion" because he had never seen it before.

---

bb gun (noun)

An air gun in which BBs are propelled by compressed air.

- In class, the teacher used "bb gun" to mean an air gun in which bbs are propelled by compressed air.
- They discussed "bb gun" during the group presentation.

---

biblical latin (noun)

The form of Latin written between the 3rd and 8th centuries.

- In class, the teacher used "biblical latin" to mean the form of latin written between the 3rd and 8th....
- The article explained what "biblical latin" means with a simple example.

bidding (noun)

An authoritative direction or instruction to do something.

- They came at his bidding.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bidding."

block diagram (noun)

A diagram showing the interconnections between the components of system (especially an electronic system).

- Understanding "block diagram" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "block diagram" to mean a diagram showing the interconnections between the....

book token (noun)

A gift voucher that can be exchanged for books costing up to an amount given on the voucher.

- Understanding "book token" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "book token" because he had never seen it before.

booking agent (noun)

Someone who engages a person or company for performances.

- Understanding "booking agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "booking agent" because he had never seen it before.

borrow pit (noun)

A pit created to provide earth that can be used as fill at another site.

- In class, the teacher used "borrow pit" to mean a pit created to provide earth that can be used as....
- He looked up "borrow pit" because he had never seen it before.

bricks (noun)

A good fellow; helpful and trustworthy.

- Understanding "bricks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bricks" means with a simple example.

bruno (noun)

German pope from 1049 to 1054 whose papacy was the beginning of papal reforms in the 11th century (1002-1054).

- He looked up "bruno" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bruno."

buddies (noun)

A close friend who accompanies his buddies in their activities.

- He looked up "buddies" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "buddies" during the group presentation.

bulgarian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Bulgaria or its people.

- The Bulgarian capital is Sofia.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bulgarian."

calcium light (noun)

A lamp consisting of a flame directed at a cylinder of lime with a lens to concentrate the light; formerly used for stage lighting.

- In class, the teacher used "calcium light" to mean a lamp consisting of a flame directed at a cylinder....
- He looked up "calcium light" because he had never seen it before.

capital of vermont (noun)

Capital of the state of Vermont; located in north central Vermont.

- Understanding "capital of vermont" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of vermont" to mean capital of the state of vermont; located in north....

carpenter (noun)

A woodworker who makes or repairs wooden objects.

- He looked up “carpenter” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “carpenter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cat rig (noun)

Rig of a catboat.

- In class, the teacher used “cat rig” to mean rig of a catboat.
- The article explained what “cat rig” means with a simple example.

---

ceased (verb)

Have an end, in a temporal, spatial, or quantitative sense; either spatial or metaphorical.

- Can you use “ceased” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “ceased” and when to wait.

---

charles edward berry (noun)

United States rock singer (born in 1931).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “charles edward berry.”
- Understanding “charles edward berry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chronic wasting disease (noun)

A wildlife disease (akin to bovine spongiform encephalitis) that affects deer and elk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chronic wasting disease.”
- He looked up “chronic wasting disease” because he had never seen it before.

---

citation form (noun)

The form of a word that heads a lexical entry and is alphabetized in a dictionary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “citation form.”
- The article explained what “citation form” means with a simple example.

---

clock dial (noun)

The face of a clock showing hours and minutes of the day.

- In class, the teacher used “clock dial” to mean the face of a clock showing hours and minutes of....
- The article explained what “clock dial” means with a simple example.

---

coconut cream (noun)

White liquid obtained from compressing fresh coconut meat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coconut cream.”
- He looked up “coconut cream” because he had never seen it before.

---

coconut meat (noun)

The edible white meat of a coconut; often shredded for use in e.g. cakes and curries.

- In class, the teacher used “coconut meat” to mean the edible white meat of a coconut; often shredded....
- They discussed “coconut meat” during the group presentation.

---

coconut milk (noun)

Clear to whitish fluid from within a fresh coconut.

- In class, the teacher used “coconut milk” to mean clear to whitish fluid from within a fresh coconut.
- The article explained what “coconut milk” means with a simple example.

---

commanding officer (noun)

An officer in command of a military unit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “commanding officer.”
- They discussed “commanding officer” during the group presentation.

---

coordinate system (noun)

A system that uses coordinates to establish position.

- The article explained what “coordinate system” means with a simple example.

- Understanding “coordinate system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

counter conditioning (noun)

Conditioning in which a second incompatible response is conditioned to an already conditioned stimulus.

- Counter conditioning lies behind many of the procedures used in behavior therapy.
- The article explained what “counter conditioning” means with a simple example.

creators (noun)

A person who grows or makes or invents things.

- The article explained what “creators” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “creators.”

curtain ring (noun)

A circular ring for holding up a curtain.

- He looked up “curtain ring” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “curtain ring” to mean a circular ring for holding up a curtain.

deer fly fever (noun)

A highly infectious disease of rodents (especially rabbits and squirrels) and sometimes transmitted to humans by ticks or flies or by handling infected animals.

- The article explained what “deer fly fever” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “deer fly fever.”

dependent clause (noun)

A clause in a complex sentence that cannot stand alone as a complete sentence and that functions within the sentence as a noun or adjective or adverb.

- In class, the teacher used “dependent clause” to mean a clause in a complex sentence that cannot stand....
- Understanding “dependent clause” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

detained (verb)

Cause to be slowed down or delayed.

- She tried to use “detained” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “detained” in real sentences.

diagnostic program (noun)

A program that recognizes and explains faults in the equipment or mistakes in a computer program.

- They discussed “diagnostic program” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “diagnostic program” to mean a program that recognizes and explains faults in....

diagnostic test (noun)

An assay conducted for diagnostic purposes.

- They discussed “diagnostic test” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “diagnostic test” because he had never seen it before.

dial telephone (noun)

A telephone with a dial for registering the number to be called.

- Understanding “dial telephone” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dial telephone.”

dioxide (noun)

An oxide containing two atoms of oxygen in the molecule.

- He looked up “dioxide” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “dioxide” to mean an oxide containing two atoms of oxygen in the molecule.

dolls (noun)

A small replica of a person; used as a toy.

- Understanding “dolls” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “dolls” during the group presentation.

doom (noun)

An unpleasant or disastrous destiny.

- Everyone was aware of the approaching doom but was helpless to avoid it.
- They discussed "doom" during the group presentation.

---

drill rod (noun)

Carbon steel used for rock drills and dowels.

- He looked up "drill rod" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "drill rod" to mean carbon steel used for rock drills and dowels.

---

drone pipe (noun)

A pipe of the bagpipe that is tuned to produce a single continuous tone.

- Understanding "drone pipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "drone pipe" means with a simple example.

---

dubbed (verb)

Raise (someone) to knighthood.

- She tried to use "dubbed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "dubbed" and when to wait.

---

ea (noun)

The Babylonian god of wisdom; son of Apsu and father of Marduk; counterpart of the Sumerian Enki; as one of the supreme triad including Anu and Bel he was assigned control of the watery element.

- In class, the teacher used "ea" to mean the babylonian god of wisdom; son of apsu and....
- They discussed "ea" during the group presentation.

---

eclipse (verb)

Cause an eclipse of (a celestial body) by intervention.

- The Sun eclipses the moon today.
- In everyday English, people use "eclipse" when talking about this idea.

---

eighteen (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of seventeen and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eighteen."
- Understanding "eighteen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electrical discharge (noun)

A discharge of electricity.

- Understanding "electrical discharge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "electrical discharge" means with a simple example.

---

elephants (noun)

The symbol of the Republican Party; introduced in cartoons by Thomas Nast in 1874.

- He looked up "elephants" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "elephants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

empty tomb (noun)

A monument built to honor people whose remains are interred elsewhere or whose remains cannot be recovered.

- They discussed "empty tomb" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "empty tomb" means with a simple example.

---

exhaust (verb)

Use up the whole supply of.

- We have exhausted the food supplies.
- This kind of work exhausts me.

---

fast reactor (noun)

Nuclear reactor in which nuclear fissions are caused by fast neutrons because little or no moderator is used.

- Understanding “fast reactor” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “fast reactor” because he had never seen it before.

---

forwards (adverb)

At or to or toward the front; ; ; ; (‘forrad’ and ‘forrard’ are dialectal variations).

- She spoke “forwards,” and the audience immediately understood her point.
- The narrator describes the scene “forwards” in the final chapter.

---

free electron (noun)

Electron that is not attached to an atom or ion or molecule but is free to move under the influence of an electric field.

- Understanding “free electron” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “free electron” to mean electron that is not attached to an atom or ion or....

---

freezing mixture (noun)

A mixture of substances (usually salt and ice) to obtain a temperature below the freezing point of water.

- He looked up “freezing mixture” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “freezing mixture” to mean a mixture of substances (usually salt and ice) to....

---

french foreign legion (noun)

A former foreign legion in the French army that was used for military duties outside of France.

- Understanding “french foreign legion” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “french foreign legion” means with a simple example.

---

fries (noun)

Strips of potato fried in deep fat.

- The article explained what “fries” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fries.”

---

fruit cocktail (noun)

A mixture of sliced or diced fruits.

- In class, the teacher used “fruit cocktail” to mean a mixture of sliced or diced fruits.
- They discussed “fruit cocktail” during the group presentation.

---

gal (noun)

A unit of gravitational acceleration equal to one centimeter per second per second (named after Galileo).

- Understanding “gal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “gal” means with a simple example.

---

gas bracket (noun)

A pipe with one or more burners projecting from a wall.

- They discussed “gas bracket” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gas bracket.”

---

gasoline engine (noun)

An internal-combustion engine that burns gasoline; most automobiles are driven by gasoline engines.

- In class, the teacher used “gasoline engine” to mean an internal-combustion engine that burns gasoline;....
- He looked up “gasoline engine” because he had never seen it before.

---

gates of the arctic national park (noun)

A large national park in Alaska featuring the Great Mendenhall Glacier.

- Understanding “gates of the arctic national park” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “gates of the arctic national park” to mean a large national park in alaska featuring the great....

---

glimpse (noun)

A brief or incomplete view.

- From the window he could catch a glimpse of the lake.
- He caught only a glimpse of the professor’s meaning.

greek orthodox church (noun)

State church of Greece; an autonomous part of the Eastern Orthodox Church.

- Understanding "greek orthodox church" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "greek orthodox church" because he had never seen it before.

hand-dye (verb)

Dye by hand.

- This fabric is hand-dyed.
- The coach explained when to use "hand-dye" and when to wait.

hawk (noun)

An advocate of an aggressive policy on foreign relations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hawk."
- The article explained what "hawk" means with a simple example.

henry spencer moore (noun)

British sculptor whose works are monumental organic forms (1898-1986).

- He looked up "henry spencer moore" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "henry spencer moore" to mean british sculptor whose works are monumental organic....

hindu calendar month (noun)

Any lunisolar month in the Hindu calendar.

- Understanding "hindu calendar month" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hindu calendar month."

home fries (noun)

Sliced pieces of potato fried in a pan until brown and crisp.

- He looked up "home fries" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "home fries" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ill-conceived (adjective)

Poorly conceived or thought out.

- An ill-conceived plan to take over the company.
- Would you call this situation "ill-conceived"? Explain why.

inclined plane (noun)

A simple machine for elevating objects; consists of plane surface that makes an acute angle with the horizontal.

- In class, the teacher used "inclined plane" to mean a simple machine for elevating objects; consists of....
- They discussed "inclined plane" during the group presentation.

income bracket (noun)

A category of taxpayers based on the amount of their income.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "income bracket."
- They discussed "income bracket" during the group presentation.

infectious (adjective)

Of or relating to infection.

- Infectious hospital.
- Infectious disease.

inferior (noun)

A character or symbol set or printed or written beneath or slightly below and to the side of another character.

- He looked up "inferior" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "inferior" to mean a character or symbol set or printed or written....

inherited wealth (noun)

Wealth that is inherited rather than earned.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inherited wealth."
- He looked up "inherited wealth" because he had never seen it before.

---

inquiries (noun)

An instance of questioning.

- We made inquiries of all those who were present.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inquiries."

---

insulin (noun)

Hormone secreted by the isles of Langerhans in the pancreas; regulates storage of glycogen in the liver and accelerates oxidation of sugar in cells.

- Understanding "insulin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "insulin" to mean hormone secreted by the isles of langerhans in the....

---

interpret (verb)

Restate (words) from one language into another language.

- Can you interpret the speech of the visiting dignitaries?
- How do you interpret his behavior?

---

iron curtain (noun)

An impenetrable barrier to communication or information especially as imposed by rigid censorship and secrecy; used by Winston Churchill in 1946 to describe the demarcation between democratic and communist countries.

- In class, the teacher used "iron curtain" to mean an impenetrable barrier to communication or....
- Understanding "iron curtain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ivory coast (noun)

A republic in western Africa on the Gulf of Guinea; one of the most prosperous and politically stable countries in Africa.

- They discussed "ivory coast" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ivory coast."

---

ivy league (noun)

A league of universities and colleges in the northeastern United States that have a reputation for scholastic achievement and social prestige.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ivy league."
- He looked up "ivy league" because he had never seen it before.

---

jackets (noun)

An outer wrapping or casing.

- Phonograph records were sold in cardboard jackets.
- The article explained what "jackets" means with a simple example.

---

kick upstairs (verb)

Give a promotion to or assign to a higher position.

- John was kicked upstairs when a replacement was hired.
- In everyday English, people use "kick upstairs" when talking about this idea.

---

lawn furniture (noun)

Furniture intended for use on a lawn or in a garden.

- He looked up "lawn furniture" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lawn furniture" to mean furniture intended for use on a lawn or in a garden.

---

lethal agent (noun)

An agent capable of causing death.

- They discussed "lethal agent" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lethal agent" to mean an agent capable of causing death.

---

lid (noun)

A movable top or cover (hinged or separate) for closing the opening at the top of a box, chest, jar, pan, etc.

- He raised the piano lid.

- His lids would stay open no longer.

---

logs (noun)

A written record of messages sent or received.

- They discussed "logs" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "logs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

maiden name (noun)

A woman's surname before marriage.

- The article explained what "maiden name" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "maiden name" to mean a woman's surname before marriage.

---

major premise (noun)

The premise of a syllogism that contains the major term (which is the predicate of the conclusion).

- In class, the teacher used "major premise" to mean the premise of a syllogism that contains the major....
- The article explained what "major premise" means with a simple example.

---

marching order (noun)

Equipage for marching.

- The company was dressed in full marching order.
- The article explained what "marching order" means with a simple example.

---

masterpiece (noun)

The most outstanding work of a creative artist or craftsman.

- In class, the teacher used "masterpiece" to mean the most outstanding work of a creative artist or....
- Understanding "masterpiece" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

media guru (noun)

Someone who advises about the use of communication media.

- They discussed "media guru" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "media guru" means with a simple example.

---

melody (noun)

A succession of notes forming a distinctive sequence.

- Understanding "melody" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "melody" to mean a succession of notes forming a distinctive sequence.

---

memo (noun)

A written proposal or reminder.

- He looked up "memo" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "memo."

---

merry-go-round (noun)

A never-ending cycle of activities and events (especially when they seem to have little purpose).

- If we lose the election the whole legislative merry-go-round will have to start over.
- They discussed "merry-go-round" during the group presentation.

---

miranda rule (noun)

The rule that police (when interrogating you after an arrest) are obliged to warn you that anything you say may be used as evidence and to read you your constitutional rights (the right to a lawyer and the right to remain silent until advised by a lawyer).

- He looked up "miranda rule" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "miranda rule" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mirrors (noun)

A faithful depiction or reflection.

- Understanding "mirrors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mirrors" during the group presentation.

---

narrator (noun)

Someone who tells a story.

- The article explained what "narrator" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "narrator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

negative correlation (noun)

A correlation in which large values of one variable are associated with small values of the other; the correlation coefficient is between 0 and -1.

- They discussed "negative correlation" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "negative correlation."

---

nets (noun)

A goal lined with netting (as in soccer or hockey).

- He looked up "nets" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "nets" to mean a goal lined with netting (as in soccer or hockey).

---

nsw (noun)

The agency that provides units to conduct unconventional and counter-guerilla warfare.

- Understanding "nsw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "nsw" because he had never seen it before.

---

object-oriented programming language (noun)

(computer science) a programming language that enables the programmer to associate a set of procedures with each type of data structure.

- C++ is an object-oriented programming language that is an extension of C.
- The article explained what "object-oriented programming language" means with a simple example.

---

offset printing (noun)

A plate makes an inked impression on a rubber-blanketed cylinder, which in turn transfers it to the paper.

- In class, the teacher used "offset printing" to mean a plate makes an inked impression on a....
- The article explained what "offset printing" means with a simple example.

---

onion salt (noun)

Ground dried onion and salt.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "onion salt."
- He looked up "onion salt" because he had never seen it before.

---

par excellence (adverb)

To a degree of excellence.

- He is the honest politician par excellence.
- The narrator describes the scene "par excellence" in the final chapter.

---

partisan (noun)

A fervent and even militant proponent of something.

- Understanding "partisan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "partisan."

---

people's republic of bangladesh (noun)

A Muslim republic in southern Asia bordered by India to the north and west and east and the Bay of Bengal to the south; formerly part of India and then part of Pakistan; it achieved independence in 1971.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "people's republic of bangladesh."
- He looked up "people's republic of bangladesh" because he had never seen it before.

---

plate rack (noun)

A rack for holding plates to dry after they have been washed.

- They discussed "plate rack" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "plate rack" to mean a rack for holding plates to dry after they have....

---

point lace (noun)

Lace worked with a needle in a buttonhole stitch on a paper pattern.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “point lace.”
- Understanding “point lace” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

posed (adjective)

Arranged for pictorial purposes.

- A “posed” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “posed.”

---

president benjamin harrison (noun)

23rd President of the United States (1833-1901).

- Understanding “president benjamin harrison” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “president benjamin harrison” because he had never seen it before.

---

private investigator (noun)

Someone who can be employed as a detective to collect information.

- In class, the teacher used “private investigator” to mean someone who can be employed as a detective to....
- The article explained what “private investigator” means with a simple example.

---

protestant (adjective)

Of or relating to Protestants or Protestantism.

- Protestant churches.
- A Protestant denomination.

---

pull wires (verb)

Influence or control shrewdly or deviously.

- He did not know how to use “pull wires” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “pull wires” and when to wait.

---

pumping (verb)

Operate like a pump; move up and down, like a handle or a pedal.

- Learners should practice how to use “pumping” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “pumping” until he saw an example.

---

pupil (noun)

A learner who is enrolled in an educational institution.

- Understanding “pupil” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “pupil” because he had never seen it before.

---

radar echo (noun)

An electronic signal that has been reflected back to the radar antenna; contains information about the location and distance of the reflecting object.

- The article explained what “radar echo” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “radar echo” to mean an electronic signal that has been reflected back....

---

recruited (verb)

Cause to assemble or enlist in the military.

- The party recruited many new members.
- The lab director recruited an able crew of assistants.

---

reliance (noun)

The state of relying on something.

- He wrote the paper with considerable reliance on the work of other scientists.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “reliance.”

---

relies (verb)

Have confidence or faith in.

- She tried to use “relies” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “relies” and when to wait.

relying (verb)

Have confidence or faith in.

- Learners should practice how to use “relying” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “relying” and when to wait.

republic of peru (noun)

A republic in western South America; achieved independence from Spain in 1821; was the heart of the Inca empire from the 12th to 16th centuries.

- The article explained what “republic of peru” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “republic of peru” during the group presentation.

respiratory (adjective)

Pertaining to respiration.

- Respiratory assistance.
- Would you call this situation “respiratory”? Explain why.

retention (noun)

The power of retaining and recalling past experience.

- In class, the teacher used “retention” to mean the power of retaining and recalling past experience.
- The article explained what “retention” means with a simple example.

rewarded (verb)

Bestow honor or rewards upon.

- The scout was rewarded for courageous action.
- Learners should practice how to use “rewarded” in real sentences.

ribbon (noun)

An award for winning a championship or commemorating some other event.

- A mere ribbon of land.
- The lighted ribbon of traffic.

rochester (noun)

A city in western New York; a center of the photographic equipment industry.

- The article explained what “rochester” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “rochester” during the group presentation.

roommate (noun)

An associate who shares a room with you.

- He looked up “roommate” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “roommate.”

root vegetable (noun)

Any of various fleshy edible underground roots or tubers.

- They discussed “root vegetable” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “root vegetable” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rubber tire (noun)

A tire consisting of a rubber ring around the rim of an automobile wheel.

- In class, the teacher used “rubber tire” to mean a tire consisting of a rubber ring around the rim....
- Understanding “rubber tire” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

schedules (verb)

Make a schedule; plan the time and place for events.

- Learners should practice how to use “schedules” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “schedules” carefully so everyone would understand.

selecting (verb)

Pick out, select, or choose from a number of alternatives.

- The coach explained when to use "selecting" and when to wait.
- Can you use "selecting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

self-justification (noun)

A defense of some offensive behavior or some failure to keep a promise etc.

- His transparent self-justification was unacceptable.
- The article explained what "self-justification" means with a simple example.

---

shah (noun)

Title for the former hereditary monarch of Iran.

- In class, the teacher used "shah" to mean title for the former hereditary monarch of iran.
- Understanding "shah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shark-liver oil (noun)

A fatty yellow to brown oil obtained from the livers of sharks; used for dressing leather and as a source of vitamin A.

- Understanding "shark-liver oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "shark-liver oil" because he had never seen it before.

---

sheep dip (noun)

A liquid mixture containing pesticides in which sheep are dipped to kill parasites.

- In class, the teacher used "sheep dip" to mean a liquid mixture containing pesticides in which....
- He looked up "sheep dip" because he had never seen it before.

---

shotgun (noun)

Firearm that is a double-barreled smoothbore shoulder weapon for firing shot at short ranges.

- Understanding "shotgun" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shotgun."

---

singers (noun)

United States inventor of an improved chain-stitch sewing machine (1811-1875).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "singers."
- He looked up "singers" because he had never seen it before.

---

slap-bang (adverb)

In a violent or sudden or noisy manner.

- It hit slap-bang in the middle.
- Using "slap-bang" can make your explanation more exact.

---

snapped (verb)

To grasp hastily or eagerly.

- The sales clerk snapped a reply at the angry customer.
- The rope snapped.

---

sofa (noun)

An upholstered seat for more than one person.

- They discussed "sofa" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sofa" means with a simple example.

---

solomon (noun)

(Old Testament) son of David and king of Israel noted for his wisdom (10th century BC).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solomon."
- He looked up "solomon" because he had never seen it before.

---

sour cream (noun)

Artificially soured light cream.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sour cream."

- They discussed "sour cream" during the group presentation.

---

sour milk (noun)

Milk that has turned sour.

- In class, the teacher used "sour milk" to mean milk that has turned sour.
- They discussed "sour milk" during the group presentation.

---

sour orange (noun)

Highly acidic orange used especially in marmalade.

- The article explained what "sour orange" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sour orange" during the group presentation.

---

spiral spring (noun)

A spring that is wound like a spiral.

- He looked up "spiral spring" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spiral spring" to mean a spring that is wound like a spiral.

---

statute title (noun)

A heading that names a statute or legislative bill; may give a brief summary of the matters it deals with.

- Title 8 provided federal help for schools.
- In class, the teacher used "statute title" to mean a heading that names a statute or legislative bill;....

---

suburb (noun)

A residential district located on the outskirts of a city.

- They discussed "suburb" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "suburb."

---

suicide bomber (noun)

A terrorist who blows himself up in order to kill or injure other people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "suicide bomber."
- He looked up "suicide bomber" because he had never seen it before.

---

surgeons (noun)

A physician who specializes in surgery.

- He looked up "surgeons" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "surgeons" during the group presentation.

---

table mat (noun)

A pad for use under a hot dish to protect a table.

- He looked up "table mat" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "table mat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

telephone dial (noun)

A disc on a telephone that is rotated a fixed distance for each number called.

- Understanding "telephone dial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone dial."

---

telephone directory (noun)

A directory containing an alphabetical list of telephone subscribers and their telephone numbers.

- The article explained what "telephone directory" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone directory."

---

thermal pollution (noun)

Harm to lakes and rivers resulting from the release of excessive waste heat into them.

- The article explained what "thermal pollution" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "thermal pollution" to mean harm to lakes and rivers resulting from the release....

---

towel rail (noun)

A horizontal bar a few inches from a wall for holding towels.

- The article explained what "towel rail" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "towel rail" to mean a horizontal bar a few inches from a wall for....

---

toxic waste dump (noun)

A location where toxic wastes can be or have been disposed of (often illegally).

- They discussed "toxic waste dump" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "toxic waste dump" because he had never seen it before.

---

transparent substance (noun)

A material having the property of admitting light diffusely; a partly transparent material.

- In class, the teacher used "transparent substance" to mean a material having the property of admitting light....
- He looked up "transparent substance" because he had never seen it before.

---

true vocal fold (noun)

Either of the two lower vocal folds that come together to form the glottis; produce a vocal tone when they are approximated and air from the lungs passes between them.

- Understanding "true vocal fold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "true vocal fold."

---

twelve tribes of israel (noun)

Twelve kin groups of ancient Israel each traditionally descended from one of the twelve sons of Jacob.

- They discussed "twelve tribes of israel" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "twelve tribes of israel" because he had never seen it before.

---

typing paper (noun)

Writing paper suitable for use in a typewriter.

- They discussed "typing paper" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "typing paper" means with a simple example.

---

undergo (verb)

Pass through.

- The chemical undergoes a sudden change.
- The fluid undergoes shear.

---

venus (noun)

The second nearest planet to the sun; it is peculiar in that its rotation is slow and retrograde (in the opposite sense of the Earth and all other planets except Uranus); it is visible from Earth as an early 'morning star' or an 'evening star'.

- Before it was known that they were the same object the evening star was called Venus and the morning star was called Lucifer.
- The article explained what "venus" means with a simple example.

---

wall bracket (noun)

A support projecting from a wall (as to hold a shelf).

- Understanding "wall bracket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wall bracket."

---

weighed (verb)

To be oppressive or burdensome; ,.

- The butcher weighed the chicken.
- Can you use "weighed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

welcome mat (noun)

A mat placed outside an exterior door for wiping the shoes before entering.

- He looked up "welcome mat" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "welcome mat" to mean a mat placed outside an exterior door for wiping....

---

wire printer (noun)

An impact printer in which each character is represented by a pattern of dots made by wires or styli.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wire printer."
- He looked up "wire printer" because he had never seen it before.

---

wu (noun)

A dialect of Chinese spoken in the Yangtze delta.

- Understanding "wu" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wu."

---

additions (noun)

A component that is added to something to improve it.

- They discussed "additions" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "additions."

---

admiral nelson (noun)

English admiral who defeated the French fleets of Napoleon but was mortally wounded at Trafalgar (1758-1805).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "admiral nelson."
- The article explained what "admiral nelson" means with a simple example.

---

admitting (verb)

Declare to be true or admit the existence or reality or truth of.

- Can you use "admitting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "admitting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

adverse witness (noun)

A witness whose relationship to the opposing party is such that his or her testimony may be prejudiced against the opposing party.

- A hostile witness can be asked leading questions and cross-examined.
- They discussed "adverse witness" during the group presentation.

---

afl (noun)

A federation of North American labor unions that merged with the Congress of Industrial Organizations in 1955.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "afl."
- The article explained what "afl" means with a simple example.

---

alaska peninsula (noun)

A peninsula of southwestern Alaska (a continuation of the Aleutian Islands).

- Understanding "alaska peninsula" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "alaska peninsula" means with a simple example.

---

altar (noun)

The table in Christian churches where communion is given.

- He looked up "altar" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "altar" to mean the table in christian churches where communion is....

---

amp (noun)

The basic unit of electric current adopted under the Systeme International d'Unites.

- A typical household circuit carries 15 to 50 amps.
- In class, the teacher used "amp" to mean the basic unit of electric current adopted under....

---

anglo-american (noun)

An American who was born in Britain or one whose ancestors were British.

- Understanding "anglo-american" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anglo-american."

---

anna howard shaw (noun)

United States physician and suffragist (1847-1919).

- He looked up "anna howard shaw" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anna howard shaw."

apollo program (noun)

A program of space flights undertaken by US to land a man on the Moon.

- The first lunar landing was achieved by the Apollo program on July 20, 1969.
- They discussed "apollo program" during the group presentation.

arrows (noun)

A mark to indicate a direction or relation.

- He looked up "arrows" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arrows."

atlas (noun)

A figure of a man used as a supporting column.

- They discussed "atlas" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "atlas" to mean a figure of a man used as a supporting column.

austrian (adjective)

Of or relating to Austria or its people or culture.

- Austrian music.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "austrian."

automation (noun)

The condition of being automatically operated or controlled.

- Automation increases productivity.
- Automation replaces human workers by machines.

banning (noun)

An official prohibition or edict against something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "banning."
- He looked up "banning" because he had never seen it before.

batch processing (noun)

The serial execution of computer programs.

- They discussed "batch processing" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "batch processing" because he had never seen it before.

bicycle clip (noun)

A clip worn around a cyclist's ankles that keeps trousers from becoming caught in the bicycle chain.

- They discussed "bicycle clip" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bicycle clip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bicycle pump (noun)

A small pump that fills bicycle tires with air.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bicycle pump."
- He looked up "bicycle pump" because he had never seen it before.

black hawk (noun)

Sauk leader who in 1832 led Fox and Sauk warriors against the United States (1767-1838).

- Understanding "black hawk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "black hawk" means with a simple example.

bottle opener (noun)

An opener for removing caps or corks from bottles.

- They discussed "bottle opener" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bottle opener" because he had never seen it before.

buck fever (noun)

Nervous excitement of an inexperienced hunter.

- They discussed "buck fever" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buck fever."

---

builders (noun)

A person who creates a business or who organizes and develops a country.

- In class, the teacher used "builders" to mean a person who creates a business or who organizes....
- They discussed "builders" during the group presentation.

---

burial chamber (noun)

A chamber that is used as a grave.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "burial chamber."
- He looked up "burial chamber" because he had never seen it before.

---

burton (noun)

A strong dark English ale.

- In class, the teacher used "burton" to mean a strong dark english ale.
- The article explained what "burton" means with a simple example.

---

caesar (noun)

Conqueror of Gaul and master of Italy (100-44 BC).

- They discussed "caesar" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "caesar" to mean conqueror of gaul and master of italy (100-44 bc).

---

cans (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cans."
- Understanding "cans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of nepal (noun)

The capital and largest city of Nepal.

- The article explained what "capital of nepal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of nepal" to mean the capital and largest city of nepal.

---

cargo container (noun)

A large container for freight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cargo container."
- They discussed "cargo container" during the group presentation.

---

carroll (noun)

English author; Charles Dodgson was an Oxford don of mathematics who is remembered for the children's stories he wrote under the pen name Lewis Carroll (1832-1898).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carroll."
- Understanding "carroll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cavalry (noun)

A highly mobile army unit.

- He looked up "cavalry" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cavalry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

character assassination (noun)

An attack intended to ruin someone's reputation.

- They discussed "character assassination" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "character assassination" because he had never seen it before.

---

charles herbert best (noun)

Canadian physiologist (born in the United States) who assisted F. G. Banting in research leading to the discovery of insulin (1899-1978).

- In class, the teacher used "charles herbert best" to mean canadian physiologist (born in the united states)....

- Understanding "charles herbert best" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coding system (noun)

A system of signals used to represent letters or numbers in transmitting messages.

- They discussed "coding system" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "coding system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coffin (noun)

Box in which a corpse is buried or cremated.

- They discussed "coffin" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coffin."

---

collectors (noun)

A crater that has collected cosmic material hitting the earth.

- Understanding "collectors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "collectors" during the group presentation.

---

command prompt (noun)

(computer science) a symbol that appears on the computer screen to indicate that the computer is ready to receive a command.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "command prompt."
- Understanding "command prompt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

communism (noun)

A form of socialism that abolishes private ownership.

- In class, the teacher used "communism" to mean a form of socialism that abolishes private ownership.
- The article explained what "communism" means with a simple example.

---

conductor (noun)

The person who collects fares on a public conveyance.

- They discussed "conductor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "conductor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

confront (verb)

Oppose, as in hostility or a competition.

- You must confront your opponent.
- The two enemies finally confronted each other.

---

conservative jew (noun)

Jew who keeps some requirements of Mosaic law but adapts others to suit modern circumstances.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conservative jew."
- He looked up "conservative jew" because he had never seen it before.

---

crow (noun)

An instance of boastful talk.

- They discussed "crow" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "crow" to mean an instance of boastful talk.

---

curry favour (verb)

Seek favor by fawning or flattery.

- This employee is currying favor with his superordinates.
- She tried to use "curry favour" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

curry sauce (noun)

Allemande sauce with curry powder and coconut milk instead of stock.

- He looked up "curry sauce" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "curry sauce" during the group presentation.

---

cyrus ii (noun)

King of Persia and founder of the Persian Empire (circa 600-529 BC).

- He looked up "cyrus ii" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cyrus ii."

---

deep-dye (verb)

Dye thoroughly.

- Can you use "deep-dye" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "deep-dye" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

direct discourse (noun)

A report of the exact words used in a discourse (e.g.,).

- In class, the teacher used "direct discourse" to mean a report of the exact words used in a discourse....
- The article explained what "direct discourse" means with a simple example.

---

displaced (verb)

Take the place of or have precedence over.

- The refugees were displaced by the war.
- Can you use "displaced" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

elevator operator (noun)

An operator of an elevator.

- He looked up "elevator operator" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "elevator operator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

eternity (noun)

A seemingly endless time interval (waiting).

- Understanding "eternity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "eternity" because he had never seen it before.

---

evolve (verb)

Undergo development or evolution.

- Modern man evolved a long time ago.
- In everyday English, people use "evolve" when talking about this idea.

---

explode (verb)

Be unleashed; emerge with violence or noise.

- His anger exploded.
- We exploded the nuclear bomb.

---

factory whistle (noun)

A whistle at a factory that is sounded to announce times for starting or stopping work.

- In class, the teacher used "factory whistle" to mean a whistle at a factory that is sounded to announce....
- Understanding "factory whistle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fast dye (verb)

Dye with fast colors.

- These shirts should be fast-dyed.
- The coach explained when to use "fast dye" and when to wait.

---

fletcher (noun)

Prolific English dramatist who collaborated with Francis Beaumont and many other dramatists (1579-1625).

- They discussed "fletcher" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fletcher" means with a simple example.

---

flour bin (noun)

A bin for holding flour.

- The article explained what “flour bin” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “flour bin.”

---

flush down (verb)

Flow freely.

- The body washed down the river.
- The coach explained when to use “flush down” and when to wait.

---

flush it (verb)

Fail to get a passing grade.

- Can you use “flush it” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use “flush it” until he saw an example.

---

font (noun)

A specific size and style of type within a type family.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “font.”
- They discussed “font” during the group presentation.

---

frequency-response characteristic (noun)

(electronics) a graph of frequency response with signal amplitude or gain plotted against frequency.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “frequency-response characteristic.”
- He looked up “frequency-response characteristic” because he had never seen it before.

---

futures exchange (noun)

A commodity exchange where futures contracts are traded.

- They discussed “futures exchange” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “futures exchange.”

---

geographical zone (noun)

Any of the regions of the surface of the Earth loosely divided according to latitude or longitude.

- Understanding “geographical zone” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “geographical zone” to mean any of the regions of the surface of the earth....

---

geological period (noun)

A unit of geological time during which a system of rocks formed.

- Ganoid fishes swarmed during the earlier geological periods.
- They discussed “geological period” during the group presentation.

---

geological process (noun)

(geology) a natural process whereby geological features are modified.

- The article explained what “geological process” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “geological process” during the group presentation.

---

gilbert islands (noun)

A group of islands in Micronesia to the southwest of Hawaii; formerly part of the British colony of Gilbert and Ellice Islands until it became part of the Republic of Kiribati in 1979.

- The article explained what “gilbert islands” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gilbert islands.”

---

glue (verb)

Join or attach with or as if with glue.

- His eyes were glued on her.
- In everyday English, people use “glue” when talking about this idea.

---

god’s acre (noun)

The yard associated with a church.

- They discussed “god’s acre” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “god’s acre” because he had never seen it before.

gp bomb (noun)

A large bomb (500 to 2,000 pounds that is 50% explosive) whose explosion creates a blast and whose metal casing creates some fragmentation effect.

- The article explained what "gp bomb" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "gp bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grandfather clause (noun)

An exemption based on circumstances existing prior to the adoption of some policy; used to enfranchise illiterate whites in south after the American Civil War.

- The article explained what "grandfather clause" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grandfather clause."

grandpa (noun)

The father of your father or mother.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grandpa."
- He looked up "grandpa" because he had never seen it before.

guided missile (noun)

A rocket-propelled missile whose path can be controlled during flight either by radio signals or by internal homing devices.

- In class, the teacher used "guided missile" to mean a rocket-propelled missile whose path can be....
- The article explained what "guided missile" means with a simple example.

guinea pig (noun)

A person who is subjected to experimental or other observational procedures; someone who is an object of investigation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guinea pig."
- He looked up "guinea pig" because he had never seen it before.

hair dye (noun)

A dye or tint for the hair.

- In class, the teacher used "hair dye" to mean a dye or tint for the hair.
- The article explained what "hair dye" means with a simple example.

high altar (noun)

The main altar in a church.

- Understanding "high altar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "high altar" to mean the main altar in a church.

horns (noun)

A device having the shape of a horn.

- Horns at the ends of a new moon.
- The cleat had two horns.

ie (noun)

A commercial browser.

- Understanding "ie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ie."

inclined fault (noun)

A geological fault in which one side is above the other.

- In class, the teacher used "inclined fault" to mean a geological fault in which one side is above the other.
- Understanding "inclined fault" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

inferior court (noun)

Any court whose decisions can be appealed to a higher court.

- They discussed "inferior court" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "inferior court" because he had never seen it before.

introduces (verb)

Bring in or establish in a new place or environment.

- She tried to use "introduces" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "introduces" when talking about this idea.

---

iranian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Iran.

- They discussed "iranian monetary unit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iranian monetary unit."

---

italian renaissance (noun)

The early period when Italy was the center of the Renaissance.

- Understanding "italian renaissance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "italian renaissance" because he had never seen it before.

---

ivan the terrible (noun)

The first czar of Russia (1530-1584).

- He looked up "ivan the terrible" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ivan the terrible" to mean the first czar of russia (1530-1584).

---

jim morrison (noun)

United States rock singer (1943-1971).

- They discussed "jim morrison" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "jim morrison" because he had never seen it before.

---

joan of arc (noun)

French heroine and military leader inspired by religious visions to organize French resistance to the English and to have Charles VII crowned king; she was later tried for heresy and burned at the stake (1412-1431).

- The article explained what "joan of arc" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "joan of arc" to mean french heroine and military leader inspired by....

---

juan carlos (noun)

King of Spain since 1975 (born in 1938).

- Understanding "juan carlos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "juan carlos."

---

kidney pie (noun)

Like steak and kidney pie but without steak.

- He looked up "kidney pie" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "kidney pie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lamp shade (noun)

A protective ornamental shade used to screen a light bulb from direct view.

- The article explained what "lamp shade" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lamp shade" during the group presentation.

---

leslie howard (noun)

English actor of stage and screen (1893-1943).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leslie howard."
- He looked up "leslie howard" because he had never seen it before.

---

like royalty (adverb)

In a royal manner.

- The narrator describes the scene "like royalty" in the final chapter.
- Place "like royalty" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

lin (noun)

United States sculptor and architect whose public works include the memorial to veterans of the Vietnam War in Washington (born in 1959).

- They discussed "lin" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "lin" to mean united states sculptor and architect whose public....

literary pirate (noun)

Someone who uses another person's words or ideas as if they were his own.

- They discussed "literary pirate" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "literary pirate" to mean someone who uses another person's words or ideas as....

louis vii (noun)

King of France who led the unsuccessful Second Crusade and fought frequent wars with Henry II of England (1120-1180).

- He looked up "louis vii" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "louis vii" during the group presentation.

madame (noun)

Title used for a married Frenchwoman.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "madame."
- He looked up "madame" because he had never seen it before.

magnetic dip (noun)

(physics) the angle that a magnetic needle makes with the plane of the horizon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic dip."
- They discussed "magnetic dip" during the group presentation.

maid of honor (noun)

An unmarried woman who attends the bride at a wedding.

- Understanding "maid of honor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "maid of honor" means with a simple example.

manor house (noun)

The mansion of a lord or wealthy person.

- They discussed "manor house" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "manor house" because he had never seen it before.

martin luther king (noun)

United States charismatic civil rights leader and Baptist minister who campaigned against the segregation of Blacks (1929-1968).

- In class, the teacher used "martin luther king" to mean united states charismatic civil rights leader and....
- Understanding "martin luther king" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

martin luther king day (noun)

Observed on the Monday closest to January 15.

- Understanding "martin luther king day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "martin luther king day" to mean observed on the monday closest to january 15.

measuring rod (noun)

Measuring instrument having a sequence of marks at regular intervals; used as a reference in making measurements.

- Understanding "measuring rod" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "measuring rod" means with a simple example.

melting (noun)

The process whereby heat changes something from a solid to a liquid.

- Understanding "melting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "melting" during the group presentation.

mental synthesis (noun)

The creation of a construct; the process of combining ideas into a congruous object of thought.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mental synthesis."
- He looked up "mental synthesis" because he had never seen it before.

messaging (noun)

The sending and processing of e-mail by computer.

- He looked up "messaging" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "messaging."

midwest (noun)

The north central region of the United States (sometimes called the heartland or the breadbasket of America).

- The article explained what "midwest" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "midwest" during the group presentation.

minimize (verb)

Make small or insignificant.

- Let's minimize the risk.
- She tried to use "minimize" carefully so everyone would understand.

missionary station (noun)

An organization of missionaries in a foreign land sent to carry on religious work.

- Understanding "missionary station" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "missionary station" because he had never seen it before.

mortal enemy (noun)

An enemy who wants to kill you.

- They discussed "mortal enemy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mortal enemy."

ne plus ultra (noun)

The state of being without a flaw or defect.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ne plus ultra."
- They discussed "ne plus ultra" during the group presentation.

old bulgarian (noun)

The Slavic language into which the Bible was translated in the 9th century.

- He looked up "old bulgarian" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old bulgarian."

organisms (noun)

A system considered analogous in structure or function to a living body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "organisms."
- They discussed "organisms" during the group presentation.

originated (verb)

Come into existence; take on form or shape.

- A new religious movement originated in that country.
- Learners should practice how to use "originated" in real sentences.

patent of invention (noun)

A document granting an inventor sole rights to an invention.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patent of invention."
- He looked up "patent of invention" because he had never seen it before.

paul newman (noun)

United States film actor (born in 1925).

- Understanding "paul newman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "paul newman" during the group presentation.

peanut gallery (noun)

(figurative) people whose criticisms are regarded as irrelevant or insignificant (resembling uneducated people who throw peanuts on the stage to express displeasure with a performance).

- He ignored complaints from the peanut gallery.
- The article explained what "peanut gallery" means with a simple example.

---

pearl bailey (noun)

United States singer (1918-1990).

- In class, the teacher used "pearl bailey" to mean united states singer (1918-1990).
- The article explained what "pearl bailey" means with a simple example.

---

peel (noun)

The rind of a fruit or vegetable.

- Understanding "peel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "peel" during the group presentation.

---

peel off (verb)

Take off, as with some difficulty.

- He peeled off his blood-soaked shirt.
- The paint in my house is peeling off.

---

peer of the realm (noun)

A peer who is entitled to sit in the House of Lords.

- The article explained what "peer of the realm" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peer of the realm."

---

pickup arm (noun)

Mechanical device consisting of a light balanced arm that carries the cartridge.

- Understanding "pickup arm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pickup arm" because he had never seen it before.

---

picnic (noun)

A day devoted to an outdoor social gathering.

- Marketing this product will be no picnic.
- In class, the teacher used "picnic" to mean a day devoted to an outdoor social gathering.

---

pier table (noun)

A low table set below a pier glass.

- In class, the teacher used "pier table" to mean a low table set below a pier glass.
- The article explained what "pier table" means with a simple example.

---

pins (verb)

To hold fast or prevent from moving.

- The coach explained when to use "pins" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "pins" in real sentences.

---

polling station (noun)

A place where voters go to cast their votes in an election.

- They discussed "polling station" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polling station."

---

practitioners (noun)

Someone who practices a learned profession.

- They discussed "practitioners" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "practitioners" means with a simple example.

---

predominantly (adverb)

Much greater in number or influence.

- The patients are predominantly indigenous.
- Place "predominantly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

president abraham lincoln (noun)

16th President of the United States; saved the Union during the American Civil War and emancipated the slaves; was assassinated by Booth (1809-1865).

- The article explained what "president abraham lincoln" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "president abraham lincoln" during the group presentation.

primitive (noun)

A word serving as the basis for inflected or derived forms.

- 'pick' is the primitive from which 'picket' is derived.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "primitive."

progressive tense (noun)

A tense of verbs used in describing action that is on-going.

- Understanding "progressive tense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "progressive tense" because he had never seen it before.

protective fold (noun)

A flap of tissue that protects what it covers.

- He looked up "protective fold" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "protective fold" during the group presentation.

psychic (noun)

A person apparently sensitive to things beyond the natural range of perception.

- They discussed "psychic" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "psychic" means with a simple example.

punched card (noun)

A card on which data can be recorded in the form of punched holes.

- The article explained what "punched card" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "punched card" during the group presentation.

puppet (noun)

A small figure of a person operated from above with strings by a puppeteer.

- He looked up "puppet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "puppet."

puppet state (noun)

A government that is appointed by and whose affairs are directed by an outside authority that may impose hardships on those governed.

- They discussed "puppet state" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "puppet state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

quantum mechanics (noun)

The branch of quantum physics that accounts for matter at the atomic level; an extension of statistical mechanics based on quantum theory (especially the Pauli exclusion principle).

- He looked up "quantum mechanics" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quantum mechanics."

reed organ (noun)

A free-reed instrument in which air is forced through the reeds by bellows.

- They discussed "reed organ" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "reed organ" to mean a free-reed instrument in which air is forced....

requesting (verb)

Inquire for (information).

- In everyday English, people use "requesting" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "requesting" until he saw an example.

respiratory system (noun)

The system for taking in oxygen and giving off carbon dioxide; in terrestrial animals this is accomplished by breathing.

- The article explained what "respiratory system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "respiratory system" to mean the system for taking in oxygen and giving off....

---

restrict (verb)

Place under restrictions; limit access to.

- Restrict the use of this parking lot.
- The coach explained when to use "restrict" and when to wait.

---

retrieved (verb)

Run after, pick up, and bring to the master.

- The coach explained when to use "retrieved" and when to wait.
- Can you use "retrieved" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

ribbon development (noun)

Building complex in a continuous row along a road.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ribbon development."
- He looked up "ribbon development" because he had never seen it before.

---

ribs (noun)

A riblike supporting or strengthening part of an animal or plant.

- In class, the teacher used "ribs" to mean a riblike supporting or strengthening part of an....
- He looked up "ribs" because he had never seen it before.

---

safety isle (noun)

A curbed area in a roadway from which traffic is excluded; provides safe area for pedestrians.

- The article explained what "safety isle" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "safety isle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

salt marsh (noun)

Low-lying wet land that is frequently flooded with saltwater.

- They discussed "salt marsh" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "salt marsh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

santa fe (noun)

Capital of the state of New Mexico; located in north central New Mexico.

- Understanding "santa fe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "santa fe" to mean capital of the state of new mexico; located in....

---

saw logs (verb)

Breathe noisily during one's sleep.

- She tried to use "saw logs" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "saw logs" in real sentences.

---

sex hormone (noun)

Any hormone affecting the development and growth of sex organs.

- In class, the teacher used "sex hormone" to mean any hormone affecting the development and growth of....
- They discussed "sex hormone" during the group presentation.

---

shoot the breeze (verb)

Talk socially without exchanging too much information.

- The men were sitting in the cafe and shooting the breeze.
- Can you use "shoot the breeze" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sir francis drake (noun)

English explorer and admiral who was the first Englishman to circumnavigate the globe and who helped to defeat the Spanish Armada (1540-1596).

- The article explained what "sir francis drake" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used “sir francis drake” to mean english explorer and admiral who was the first....

---

skeleton (noun)

The internal supporting structure that gives an artifact its shape.

- The building has a steel skeleton.
- The battalion was a mere skeleton of its former self.

---

ski lodge (noun)

A hotel at a ski resort.

- In class, the teacher used “ski lodge” to mean a hotel at a ski resort.
- He looked up “ski lodge” because he had never seen it before.

---

snake-rail fence (noun)

Rail fence consisting of a zigzag of interlocking rails.

- Understanding “snake-rail fence” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “snake-rail fence” because he had never seen it before.

---

soda ash (noun)

A sodium salt of carbonic acid; used in making soap powders and glass and paper.

- The article explained what “soda ash” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “soda ash” to mean a sodium salt of carbonic acid; used in making soap....

---

spanish lime (noun)

Round one-inch Caribbean fruit with green leathery skin and sweet juicy translucent pulp; eaten like grapes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spanish lime.”
- He looked up “spanish lime” because he had never seen it before.

---

sperm cell (noun)

The male reproductive cell; the male gamete.

- A sperm is mostly a nucleus surrounded by little other cellular material.
- The article explained what “sperm cell” means with a simple example.

---

sperm count (noun)

The number of sperm in an ejaculate.

- The sperm count is used as an indicator of male fertility.
- Understanding “sperm count” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

splash guard (noun)

A curved piece above the wheel of a bicycle or motorcycle to protect the rider from water or mud thrown up by the wheels.

- Understanding “splash guard” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “splash guard” because he had never seen it before.

---

splash-guard (noun)

A curved piece above the wheel of a bicycle or motorcycle to protect the rider from water or mud thrown up by the wheels.

- The article explained what “splash-guard” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “splash-guard.”

---

spray-dried (adjective)

Dried by bringing a sprayed substance (e.g. milk or soap) into contact with hot air and recovering it in the form of a powder.

- Would you call this situation “spray-dried”? Explain why.
- Students compared “spray-dried” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

square bracket (noun)

Either of two punctuation marks ([or]) used to enclose textual material.

- They discussed “square bracket” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “square bracket” because he had never seen it before.

---

steak sauce (noun)

Pungent bottled sauce for steak.

- They discussed "steak sauce" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "steak sauce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sting (noun)

A kind of pain; something as sudden and painful as being stung.

- The sting of death.
- He felt the stinging of nettles.

---

sufficiently (adverb)

To a sufficient degree.

- She was sufficiently fluent in Mandarin.
- The narrator describes the scene "sufficiently" in the final chapter.

---

sunrise industry (noun)

A new industry that is expanding rapidly (especially telecommunications or electronics).

- The article explained what "sunrise industry" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sunrise industry."

---

surgical dressing (noun)

A loosely woven cotton dressing for incisions made during surgery.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surgical dressing."
- He looked up "surgical dressing" because he had never seen it before.

---

swallow hole (noun)

A depression in the ground communicating with a subterranean passage (especially in limestone) and formed by solution or by collapse of a cavern roof.

- The article explained what "swallow hole" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "swallow hole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

telegraph pole (noun)

Tall pole supporting telephone wires.

- He looked up "telegraph pole" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telegraph pole."

---

territorial waters (noun)

The waters surrounding a nation and its territories over which that nation exercises sovereign jurisdiction.

- They discussed "territorial waters" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "territorial waters" means with a simple example.

---

thai monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Thailand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thai monetary unit."
- He looked up "thai monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

thankfully (adverb)

In a thankful manner; with thanks.

- He accepted thankfully my apologies.
- Thankfully he didn't come to the party.

---

theater critic (noun)

A critic of theatrical performances.

- The article explained what "theater critic" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "theater critic" to mean a critic of theatrical performances.

---

thomas crawford (noun)

United States neoclassical sculptor (1814-1857).

- He looked up "thomas crawford" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thomas crawford."

---

three-dimensional radar (noun)

Radar that will report altitude as well as azimuth and distance of a target.

- Understanding "three-dimensional radar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "three-dimensional radar."

---

tick (noun)

A mark indicating that something has been noted or completed etc.

- He counted the ticks of the clock.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tick."

---

tick off (verb)

Put a check mark on or near or next to.

- Tick off the items.
- Mark off the units.

---

tick over (verb)

Run disconnected or idle.

- In everyday English, people use "tick over" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "tick over" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tie rack (noun)

A rack for storing ties.

- The article explained what "tie rack" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tie rack" to mean a rack for storing ties.

---

troy pound (noun)

An apothecary weight equal to 12 ounces or 373.242 grams.

- In class, the teacher used "troy pound" to mean an apothecary weight equal to 12 ounces or 373.242....
- The article explained what "troy pound" means with a simple example.

---

turkish delight (noun)

A jellied candy typically flavored with rose water.

- They discussed "turkish delight" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "turkish delight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tutorial (noun)

A session of intensive tuition given by a tutor to an individual or to a small number of students.

- Understanding "tutorial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tutorial" because he had never seen it before.

---

twentieth (noun)

Position 20 in a countable series of things.

- He looked up "twentieth" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twentieth."

---

twilight sleep (noun)

A state of general anesthesia in which the person retains a slight degree of consciousness; can be induced by injection of scopolamine or morphine.

- They discussed "twilight sleep" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "twilight sleep" means with a simple example.

---

vent (verb)

Expose to cool or cold air so as to cool or freshen.

- She vented her anger.
- The graduates gave vent to cheers.

vicinity (noun)

A surrounding or nearby region.

- The plane crashed in the vicinity of Asheville.
- The article explained what "vicinity" means with a simple example.

visual sensation (noun)

The perceptual experience of seeing.

- He had a visual sensation of intense light.
- He looked up "visual sensation" because he had never seen it before.

wagon wheel (noun)

A wheel of a wagon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wagon wheel."
- He looked up "wagon wheel" because he had never seen it before.

wan (noun)

A computer network that spans a wider area than does a local area network.

- Understanding "wan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wan."

war hawk (noun)

An advocate of an aggressive policy on foreign relations.

- The article explained what "war hawk" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "war hawk" to mean an advocate of an aggressive policy on foreign....

wardrobe (noun)

A tall piece of furniture that provides storage space for clothes; has a door and rails or hooks for hanging clothes.

- Understanding "wardrobe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wardrobe" because he had never seen it before.

weighing machine (noun)

A measuring instrument for weighing; shows amount of mass.

- They discussed "weighing machine" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "weighing machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

welsh rabbit (noun)

Cheese melted with ale or beer served over toast.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "welsh rabbit."
- The article explained what "welsh rabbit" means with a simple example.

wines (verb)

Be the winner in a contest or competition; be victorious.

- The coach explained when to use "wines" and when to wait.
- Can you use "wines" in a sentence that fits this situation?

wire wool (noun)

A mass of woven steel fibers used as an abrasive.

- Understanding "wire wool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "wire wool" to mean a mass of woven steel fibers used as an abrasive.

yacht club (noun)

Club that promotes and supports yachting and boating.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yacht club."
- Understanding "yacht club" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

acute brain disorder (noun)

Any disorder (as sudden confusion or disorientation) in an otherwise normal person that is due to reversible (temporary) impairment of brain tissues (as by head injuries or drugs or infection).

- He looked up "acute brain disorder" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acute brain disorder."

---

aluminum bronze (noun)

An alloy of copper and aluminum with high tensile strength and resistance to corrosion.

- In class, the teacher used "aluminum bronze" to mean an alloy of copper and aluminum with high tensile....
- Understanding "aluminum bronze" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

amendments (noun)

A statement that is added to or revises or improves a proposal or document (a bill or constitution etc.).

- In class, the teacher used "amendments" to mean a statement that is added to or revises or improves....
- They discussed "amendments" during the group presentation.

---

anglo-french (noun)

The French (Norman) language used in medieval England.

- He looked up "anglo-french" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "anglo-french" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

asses (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- The article explained what "asses" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "asses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

assisting (verb)

Work for or be a servant to.

- Is a salesperson assisting you?
- In everyday English, people use "assisting" when talking about this idea.

---

athletic supporter (noun)

A support for the genitals worn by men engaging in strenuous exercise.

- In class, the teacher used "athletic supporter" to mean a support for the genitals worn by men engaging in....
- Understanding "athletic supporter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

attack submarine (noun)

A military submarine designed and armed to attack enemy shipping.

- He looked up "attack submarine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "attack submarine."

---

automatic pistol (noun)

A pistol that will keep firing until the ammunition is gone or the trigger is released.

- He looked up "automatic pistol" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "automatic pistol" during the group presentation.

---

axe (noun)

An edge tool with a heavy bladed head mounted across a handle.

- In class, the teacher used "axe" to mean an edge tool with a heavy bladed head mounted....
- They discussed "axe" during the group presentation.

---

backgrounds (noun)

The state of the environment in which a situation exists.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "backgrounds."
- Understanding "backgrounds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

baldwin (noun)

An American eating apple with red or yellow and red skin.

- They discussed "baldwin" during the group presentation.

- Understanding “baldwin” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

banning-order (noun)

An order that bans something.

- He looked up “banning-order” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “banning-order.”

belgian capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Belgium; seat of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

- In class, the teacher used “belgian capital” to mean the capital and largest city of belgium; seat of....
- They discussed “belgian capital” during the group presentation.

belle (noun)

A young woman who is the most charming and beautiful of several rivals.

- She was the belle of the ball.
- In class, the teacher used “belle” to mean a young woman who is the most charming and....

belt ammunition (noun)

Ammunition (usually of small caliber) loaded in flexible linked strips for use in a machine gun.

- Understanding “belt ammunition” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “belt ammunition” because he had never seen it before.

bites (noun)

A small amount of solid food; a mouthful.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bites.”
- He looked up “bites” because he had never seen it before.

blue ribbon (noun)

An honor or award gained for excellence.

- In class, the teacher used “blue ribbon” to mean an honor or award gained for excellence.
- He looked up “blue ribbon” because he had never seen it before.

bombers (noun)

A military aircraft that drops bombs during flight.

- Understanding “bombers” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bombers.”

bred (verb)

Have young (animals) or reproduce (organisms).

- He did not know how to use “bred” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “bred” in real sentences.

broadly speaking (adverb)

Without regard to specific details or exceptions.

- He interprets the law broadly.
- The narrator describes the scene “broadly speaking” in the final chapter.

bubbles (noun)

A speculative scheme that depends on unstable factors that the planner cannot control.

- The article explained what “bubbles” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “bubbles” during the group presentation.

buddha (noun)

One who has achieved a state of perfect enlightenment.

- He looked up “buddha” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “buddha” during the group presentation.

bulletin (noun)

A brief report (especially an official statement issued for immediate publication or broadcast).

- They discussed "bulletin" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bulletin" to mean a brief report (especially an official statement....

cap opener (noun)

A bottle opener to pry off caps.

- They discussed "cap opener" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cap opener."

capital of libya (noun)

The capital and chief port and largest city of Libya; in northwestern Libya on the Mediterranean Sea; founded by the Phoenicians in the 7th century BC.

- He looked up "capital of libya" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of libya."

capitalist (adjective)

Of or relating to capitalism or capitalists.

- A capitalist nation.
- Capitalistic methods and incentives.

carpet pad (noun)

A pad placed under a carpet.

- Understanding "carpet pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "carpet pad" to mean a pad placed under a carpet.

charles evans hughes (noun)

United States jurist who served as chief justice of the United States Supreme Court (1862-1948).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charles evans hughes."
- The article explained what "charles evans hughes" means with a simple example.

charles vii (noun)

King of France who began his reign with most of northern France under English control; after the intervention of Jeanne d'Arc the French were able to defeat the English and end the Hundred Years' War (1403-1461).

- In class, the teacher used "charles vii" to mean king of france who began his reign with most of....
- They discussed "charles vii" during the group presentation.

clean slate (noun)

An opportunity to start over without prejudice.

- He looked up "clean slate" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "clean slate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

clinics (noun)

A healthcare facility for outpatient care.

- The article explained what "clinics" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "clinics" to mean a healthcare facility for outpatient care.

coconut cake (noun)

Cake containing shredded coconut in batter and frosting.

- They discussed "coconut cake" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coconut cake."

companions (noun)

A friend who is frequently in the company of another.

- Drinking companions.
- They discussed "companions" during the group presentation.

computer guru (noun)

An authority on computers and computing.

- In class, the teacher used "computer guru" to mean an authority on computers and computing.
- He looked up "computer guru" because he had never seen it before.

---

cone cell (noun)

A visual receptor cell in the retina that is sensitive to bright light and to color.

- They discussed "cone cell" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cone cell."

---

constable (noun)

A lawman with less authority and jurisdiction than a sheriff.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "constable."
- He looked up "constable" because he had never seen it before.

---

cooperate (verb)

Work together on a common enterprise of project.

- She tried to use "cooperate" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "cooperate" until he saw an example.

---

copied (verb)

Reproduce or make an exact copy of.

- The coach explained when to use "copied" and when to wait.
- Can you use "copied" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

corn liquor (noun)

Whiskey illegally distilled from a corn mash.

- In class, the teacher used "corn liquor" to mean whiskey illegally distilled from a corn mash.
- The article explained what "corn liquor" means with a simple example.

---

counselor (noun)

A lawyer who pleads cases in court.

- Understanding "counselor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "counselor."

---

crown roast (noun)

A roast of the rib section of lamb.

- He looked up "crown roast" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crown roast."

---

defense logistics agency (noun)

A logistics combat support agency in the Department of Defense; provides worldwide support for military missions.

- Understanding "defense logistics agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "defense logistics agency" during the group presentation.

---

devils (noun)

A word used in exclamations of confusion.

- They discussed "devils" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "devils" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

direct dye (noun)

Dye with a high affinity for cellulose fibers (cotton or rayon etc.).

- They discussed "direct dye" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "direct dye."

---

displaced person (noun)

A person forced to flee from home or country.

- In class, the teacher used "displaced person" to mean a person forced to flee from home or country.
- He looked up "displaced person" because he had never seen it before.

distribute (verb)

To arrange in a systematic order.

- The publisher wants to distribute the book in Asia.
- The function distributes the values evenly.

drift ice (noun)

Masses of ice floating in the open sea.

- He looked up "drift ice" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "drift ice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

earth's surface (noun)

The outermost level of the land or sea.

- Earthquakes originate far below the surface.
- Three quarters of the Earth's surface is covered by water.

edgar (noun)

The younger brother of Edwy who became king of Northumbria when it renounced Edwy; on Edwy's death he succeeded to the throne of England (944-975).

- They discussed "edgar" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "edgar" means with a simple example.

efficiently (adverb)

With efficiency; in an efficient manner.

- He functions efficiently.
- He answered "efficiently," which changed the tone of the conversation.

elbow joint (noun)

Hinge joint between the forearm and upper arm and the corresponding joint in the forelimb of a quadruped.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elbow joint."
- The article explained what "elbow joint" means with a simple example.

electron gun (noun)

The electrode that is the source of electrons in a cathode-ray tube or electron microscope; consists of a cathode that emits a stream of electrons and the electrostatic or electromagnetic apparatus that focuses it.

- He looked up "electron gun" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "electron gun" to mean the electrode that is the source of electrons in a....

eliminating (verb)

Terminate, end, or take out.

- He did not know how to use "eliminating" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "eliminating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

en-lil (noun)

God of the air and king of the Sumerian gods.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "en-lil."
- The article explained what "en-lil" means with a simple example.

explosives (noun)

A chemical substance that undergoes a rapid chemical change (with the production of gas) on being heated or struck.

- Understanding "explosives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "explosives."

faction (noun)

A clique (often secret) that seeks power usually through intrigue.

- Understanding "faction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "faction" to mean a clique (often secret) that seeks power usually....

fascist (noun)

An adherent of fascism or other right-wing authoritarian views.

- They discussed "fascist" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fascist."

father of the submarine (noun)

American inventor who in 1775 designed a man-propelled submarine that was ineffectual but subsequently earned him recognition as a submarine pioneer (1742-1824).

- He looked up "father of the submarine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "father of the submarine."

flow diagram (noun)

A diagram of the sequence of operations in a computer program or an accounting system.

- The article explained what "flow diagram" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flow diagram."

french fries (noun)

Strips of potato fried in deep fat.

- They discussed "french fries" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french fries."

fry bread (noun)

Usually cooked in a skillet over an open fire: especially cornbread with ham bits and sometimes Irish soda bread.

- The article explained what "fry bread" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fry bread" to mean usually cooked in a skillet over an open fire:....

fuller (noun)

A workman who fulls (cleans and thickens) freshly woven cloth for a living.

- Understanding "fuller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fuller" to mean a workman who fulls (cleans and thickens) freshly....

future progressive tense (noun)

A progressive tense used to express action that will be on-going in the future.

- 'I will be running' is an example of the future progressive.
- They discussed "future progressive tense" during the group presentation.

gateway drug (noun)

A habit-forming drug that is not addictive but its use may lead to the use of other addictive drugs.

- One college athlete recently called beer a gateway drug for young people.
- Understanding "gateway drug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gathered skirt (noun)

A skirt whose fabric is drawn together around the waist.

- The article explained what "gathered skirt" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gathered skirt" during the group presentation.

gaza strip (noun)

A coastal region at the southeastern corner of the Mediterranean bordering Israel and Egypt.

- He is a Palestinian from Gaza.
- They discussed "gaza strip" during the group presentation.

give vent (verb)

Give expression or utterance to.

- She vented her anger.
- The graduates gave vent to cheers.

grandchildren (noun)

A child of your son or daughter.

- The article explained what "grandchildren" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "grandchildren" during the group presentation.

---

growth hormone (noun)

A hormone produced by the anterior pituitary gland; promotes growth in humans.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "growth hormone."
- They discussed "growth hormone" during the group presentation.

---

guardians (noun)

A person who cares for persons or property.

- He looked up "guardians" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guardians."

---

hand luggage (noun)

Luggage that is light enough to be carried by hand.

- They discussed "hand luggage" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hand luggage" means with a simple example.

---

hand puppet (noun)

A puppet with a cloth body and hollow head; fits over the hand.

- The article explained what "hand puppet" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hand puppet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

headache powder (noun)

A powdered form of aspirin.

- He looked up "headache powder" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "headache powder" to mean a powdered form of aspirin.

---

hearings (noun)

The ability to hear; the auditory faculty.

- The investigative committee will hold hearings in Chicago.
- The article explained what "hearings" means with a simple example.

---

heating pad (noun)

Heater consisting of electrical heating elements contained in a flexible pad.

- The article explained what "heating pad" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heating pad."

---

henry vii (noun)

King of the Germans and Holy Roman Emperor (1275-1313).

- He looked up "henry vii" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry vii."

---

hesitate (verb)

Pause or hold back in uncertainty or unwillingness.

- Authorities hesitate to quote exact figures.
- In everyday English, people use "hesitate" when talking about this idea.

---

hid (verb)

Make undecipherable or imperceptible by obscuring or concealing.

- A hidden message.
- Muslim women hide their faces.

---

hips (noun)

The ball-and-socket joint between the head of the femur and the acetabulum.

- He looked up "hips" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hips" during the group presentation.

hungarian (noun)

The official language of Hungary (also spoken in Rumania); belongs to the Ugric family of languages.

- The article explained what "hungarian" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hungarian."

hygiene (noun)

A condition promoting sanitary practices.

- Personal hygiene.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hygiene."

ice cube (noun)

A small cube of artificial ice; used for cooling drinks.

- Understanding "ice cube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ice cube" during the group presentation.

ice yacht (noun)

A sailing vessel with runners and a cross-shaped frame; suitable for traveling over ice.

- He looked up "ice yacht" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ice yacht" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

iceland (noun)

A volcanic island in the North Atlantic near the Arctic Circle.

- In class, the teacher used "iceland" to mean a volcanic island in the north atlantic near the....
- Understanding "iceland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ii timothy (noun)

A New Testament book containing Saint Paul's second epistle to Timothy; contains advice on pastoral matters.

- He looked up "ii timothy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ii timothy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

imaginary being (noun)

A creature of the imagination; a person that exists only in legends or myths or fiction.

- He looked up "imaginary being" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "imaginary being."

imaginary part (noun)

The part of a complex number that has the square root of -1 as a factor.

- He looked up "imaginary part" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "imaginary part" to mean the part of a complex number that has the square....

income tax bracket (noun)

A category of taxpayers based on the amount of their income.

- In class, the teacher used "income tax bracket" to mean a category of taxpayers based on the amount of....
- The article explained what "income tax bracket" means with a simple example.

irish national liberation army (noun)

A radical terrorist group dedicated to the removal of British forces from Northern Ireland and the unification of Ireland.

- They discussed "irish national liberation army" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "irish national liberation army."

iron heel (noun)

An instrument of torture that is used to heat or crush the foot and leg.

- He looked up "iron heel" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "iron heel" during the group presentation.

ivan iii (noun)

Grand duke of Muscovy whose victories against the Tartars laid the basis for Russian unity (1440-1505).

- The article explained what "ivan iii" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ivan iii."

---

jared (verb)

Be incompatible; be or come into conflict.

- She tried to use "jared" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "jared" when talking about this idea.

---

john fletcher (noun)

Prolific English dramatist who collaborated with Francis Beaumont and many other dramatists (1579-1625).

- In class, the teacher used "john fletcher" to mean prolific english dramatist who collaborated with....
- They discussed "john fletcher" during the group presentation.

---

johnston (noun)

Confederate general in the American Civil War; led the Confederate troops in the West (1807-1891).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "johnston."
- He looked up "johnston" because he had never seen it before.

---

kilometers per hour (noun)

The ratio of the distance traveled (in kilometers) to the time spent traveling (in hours).

- He looked up "kilometers per hour" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "kilometers per hour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kindergarten (noun)

A preschool for children age 4 to 6 to prepare them for primary school.

- In class, the teacher used "kindergarten" to mean a preschool for children age 4 to 6 to prepare them....
- They discussed "kindergarten" during the group presentation.

---

king's counsel (noun)

Counsel to the Crown when the British monarch is a king.

- He looked up "king's counsel" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "king's counsel" to mean counsel to the crown when the british monarch is a king.

---

kit carson (noun)

United States frontiersman who guided Fremont's expeditions in the 1840s and served as a Union general in the American Civil War (1809-1868).

- He looked up "kit carson" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "kit carson" during the group presentation.

---

labor pains (noun)

A regularly recurrent spasm of pain that is characteristic of childbirth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labor pains."
- They discussed "labor pains" during the group presentation.

---

latino (noun)

An artificial language based on words common to the Romance languages.

- They discussed "latino" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "latino" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lean-to tent (noun)

Tent that is attached to the side of a building.

- They discussed "lean-to tent" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lean-to tent" to mean tent that is attached to the side of a building.

---

leaning tower (noun)

A tall round marble campanile in Pisa that is not perpendicular; construction was begun in 1174.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leaning tower."

- The article explained what "leaning tower" means with a simple example.

---

li po (noun)

Chinese lyric poet (700-762).

- In class, the teacher used "li po" to mean chinese lyric poet (700-762).
- They discussed "li po" during the group presentation.

---

literary critic (noun)

A critic of literature.

- He looked up "literary critic" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "literary critic" during the group presentation.

---

loudly (adverb)

With relatively high volume.

- The band played loudly.
- She spoke loudly and angrily.

---

man of deeds (noun)

Someone inclined to act first and think later.

- In class, the teacher used "man of deeds" to mean someone inclined to act first and think later.
- Understanding "man of deeds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mechanic (noun)

A craftsman skilled in operating machine tools.

- Understanding "mechanic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mechanic" because he had never seen it before.

---

mediterranean fever (noun)

Infectious bacterial disease of human beings transmitted by contact with infected animals or infected meat or milk products; characterized by fever and headache.

- They discussed "mediterranean fever" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mediterranean fever" to mean infectious bacterial disease of human beings....

---

mental imagery (noun)

The ability to form mental images of things or events.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mental imagery."
- He looked up "mental imagery" because he had never seen it before.

---

metric capacity unit (noun)

A capacity unit defined in metric terms.

- He looked up "metric capacity unit" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "metric capacity unit" to mean a capacity unit defined in metric terms.

---

microsoft disk operating system (noun)

An operating system developed by Bill Gates for personal computers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "microsoft disk operating system."
- Understanding "microsoft disk operating system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mineral dressing (noun)

Crushing and separating ore into valuable substances or waste by any of a variety of techniques.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mineral dressing."
- They discussed "mineral dressing" during the group presentation.

---

mls (noun)

A master's degree in library science.

- Understanding "mls" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mls" during the group presentation.

---

modify (verb)

Cause to change; make different; cause a transformation.

- Please modify this letter to make it more polite.
- Learners should practice how to use “modify” in real sentences.

---

montgomery ward (noun)

United States businessman who in 1872 established a successful mail-order business (1843-1913).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “montgomery ward.”
- The article explained what “montgomery ward” means with a simple example.

---

nathan bailey (noun)

English lexicographer who was the first to treat etymology consistently; his work was used as a reference by Samuel Johnson (died in 1742).

- In class, the teacher used “nathan bailey” to mean english lexicographer who was the first to treat....
- The article explained what “nathan bailey” means with a simple example.

---

neglect (noun)

The state of something that has been unused and neglected.

- The house was in a terrible state of neglect.
- In class, the teacher used “neglect” to mean the state of something that has been unused and....

---

offenders (noun)

A person who transgresses moral or civil law.

- Understanding “offenders” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “offenders.”

---

onion bread (noun)

Bread containing finely minced onions.

- The article explained what “onion bread” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “onion bread” to mean bread containing finely minced onions.

---

oppression (noun)

The state of being kept down by unjust use of force or authority:.

- After years of oppression they finally revolted.
- The tyrant’s oppression of the people.

---

past progressive tense (noun)

A progressive tense used to describe on-going action in the past.

- ‘I had been running’ is an example of the past progressive.
- In class, the teacher used “past progressive tense” to mean a progressive tense used to describe on-going....

---

pickup truck (noun)

A light truck with an open body and low sides and a tailboard.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pickup truck.”
- The article explained what “pickup truck” means with a simple example.

---

picnic area (noun)

A tract of land set aside for picnicking.

- The article explained what “picnic area” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “picnic area” to mean a tract of land set aside for picnicking.

---

piece-dye (verb)

Dye after weaving.

- In everyday English, people use “piece-dye” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “piece-dye” until he saw an example.

---

pillow slip (noun)

Bed linen consisting of a cover for a pillow.

- The burglar carried his loot in a pillowcase.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pillow slip."

---

pope alexander vi (noun)

Pope and father of Cesare Borgia and Lucrezia Borgia (1431-1503).

- The article explained what "pope alexander vi" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pope alexander vi" to mean pope and father of cesare borgia and lucrezia....

---

poses (verb)

Assume a posture as for artistic purposes.

- This poses an interesting question.
- She tried to use "poses" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

positioned (verb)

Put into a certain place or abstract location.

- Learners should practice how to use "positioned" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "positioned" when talking about this idea.

---

positive stimulus (noun)

A stimulus with desirable consequences.

- They discussed "positive stimulus" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "positive stimulus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

precision rifle (noun)

An extremely powerful rifle developed for the military; capable of destroying light armored vehicles and aircraft more than a mile away.

- He looked up "precision rifle" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "precision rifle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

primitive person (noun)

A person who belongs to an early stage of civilization.

- In class, the teacher used "primitive person" to mean a person who belongs to an early stage of civilization.
- Understanding "primitive person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

probation (noun)

A trial period during which an offender has time to redeem himself or herself.

- Probation is part of the sentencing process.
- Understanding "probation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

protestant church (noun)

The Protestant churches and denominations collectively.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "protestant church."
- The article explained what "protestant church" means with a simple example.

---

puppet government (noun)

A government that is appointed by and whose affairs are directed by an outside authority that may impose hardships on those governed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "puppet government."
- He looked up "puppet government" because he had never seen it before.

---

puppet show (noun)

A show in which the actors are puppets.

- They discussed "puppet show" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "puppet show" because he had never seen it before.

---

radio detection and ranging (noun)

Measuring instrument in which the echo of a pulse of microwave radiation is used to detect and locate distant objects.

- The article explained what "radio detection and ranging" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "radio detection and ranging" to mean measuring instrument in which the echo of a pulse....

rails (noun)

A bar or pair of parallel bars of rolled steel making the railway along which railroad cars or other vehicles can roll.

- They discussed "rails" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rails."

ram disk (noun)

(computer science) a virtual drive that is created by setting aside part of the random-access memory to use as if it were a group of sectors.

- Access to a RAM disk is very fast but the data it contains is lost when the system is turned off.
- They discussed "ram disk" during the group presentation.

receptor (noun)

An organ having nerve endings (in the skin or viscera or eye or ear or nose or mouth) that respond to stimulation.

- He looked up "receptor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "receptor."

refuse collector (noun)

Someone employed to collect and dispose of refuse.

- They discussed "refuse collector" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "refuse collector."

remake (noun)

Creation that is created again or anew.

- It is a remake of an old film.
- They discussed "remake" during the group presentation.

rendering (noun)

An explanation of something that is not immediately obvious.

- He looked up "rendering" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rendering."

reproductive system (noun)

Organs and tissues involved in the production and maturation of gametes and in their union and subsequent development as offspring.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reproductive system."
- The article explained what "reproductive system" means with a simple example.

republic of panama (noun)

A republic on the Isthmus of Panama; achieved independence from Colombia in 1903.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of panama."
- He looked up "republic of panama" because he had never seen it before.

res (noun)

A widely distributed system consisting of all the cells able to ingest bacteria or colloidal particles etc, except for certain white blood cells.

- In class, the teacher used "res" to mean a widely distributed system consisting of all the....
- Understanding "res" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

reservations (noun)

A statement that limits or restricts some claim.

- He recommended her without any reservations.
- The article explained what "reservations" means with a simple example.

respiratory center (noun)

The center in the medulla oblongata and pons that integrates sensory information about the level of oxygen and carbon dioxide in the blood and determines the signals to be sent to the respiratory muscles.

- The article explained what "respiratory center" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "respiratory center" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

respiratory rate (noun)

The rate at which a person inhales and exhales; usually measured to obtain a quick evaluation of a person's health.

- In class, the teacher used "respiratory rate" to mean the rate at which a person inhales and exhales;....
- Understanding "respiratory rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ridge rope (noun)

Either of a pair of lifelines running alongside the bowsprit of a ship.

- The article explained what "ridge rope" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ridge rope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

santa ana (noun)

A city in southern California to the east of Long Beach.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "santa ana."
- Understanding "santa ana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

self-assurance (noun)

Freedom from doubt; belief in yourself and your abilities.

- Understanding "self-assurance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-assurance."

---

self-reliance (noun)

Personal independence.

- He looked up "self-reliance" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "self-reliance" during the group presentation.

---

short ribs (noun)

Cut of beef containing rib ends near the sternum.

- He looked up "short ribs" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "short ribs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shrimp (noun)

Any of various edible decapod crustaceans.

- They discussed "shrimp" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shrimp."

---

silicon bronze (noun)

A bronze with 2-3% silicon that is resistant to corrosion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silicon bronze."
- Understanding "silicon bronze" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

similarities (noun)

A Gestalt principle of organization holding that (other things being equal) parts of a stimulus field that are similar to each other tend to be perceived as belonging together as a unit.

- They discussed "similarities" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "similarities" means with a simple example.

---

skins (noun)

A natural protective body covering and site of the sense of touch.

- In class, the teacher used "skins" to mean a natural protective body covering and site of the....
- He looked up "skins" because he had never seen it before.

---

soap pad (noun)

A cleaning pad containing soap.

- Understanding "soap pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soap pad."

---

sofa bed (noun)

A sofa that can be converted into a bed.

- In class, the teacher used "sofa bed" to mean a sofa that can be converted into a bed.

- The article explained what “sofa bed” means with a simple example.

---

sonic delay line (noun)

A delay line based on the time of propagation of sound waves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sonic delay line.”
- He looked up “sonic delay line” because he had never seen it before.

---

sour bread (noun)

Made with a starter of a small amount of dough in which fermentation is active.

- The article explained what “sour bread” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “sour bread” to mean made with a starter of a small amount of dough in....

---

spelled (verb)

Relieve (someone) from work by taking a turn.

- She spelled her husband at the wheel.
- He spelled the word wrong in this letter.

---

spokesman (noun)

A male spokesperson.

- They discussed “spokesman” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “spokesman” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spoon bread (noun)

Soft bread made of cornmeal and sometimes rice or hominy; must be served with a spoon (chiefly southern).

- The article explained what “spoon bread” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “spoon bread” to mean soft bread made of cornmeal and sometimes rice or....

---

stall (noun)

A malfunction in the flight of an aircraft in which there is a sudden loss of lift that results in a downward plunge.

- The plane went into a stall and I couldn’t control it.
- He looked up “stall” because he had never seen it before.

---

stat mi (noun)

A unit of length equal to 1,760 yards or 5,280 feet; exactly 1609.344 meters.

- In class, the teacher used “stat mi” to mean a unit of length equal to 1,760 yards or 5,280....
- Understanding “stat mi” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sticky end (noun)

An end of DNA in which one strand of the double helix extends a few units beyond the other.

- He looked up “sticky end” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “sticky end” during the group presentation.

---

stock cube (noun)

A cube of dehydrated stock.

- They discussed “stock cube” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “stock cube” means with a simple example.

---

strap (noun)

A band that goes over the shoulder and supports a garment or bag.

- Understanding “strap” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “strap” because he had never seen it before.

---

surround (noun)

The area in which something exists or lives.

- The country–the flat agricultural surround.
- He looked up “surround” because he had never seen it before.

---

surroundings (noun)

The area in which something exists or lives.

- They discussed "surroundings" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "surroundings" because he had never seen it before.

---

syrian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Syria.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "syrian monetary unit."
- He looked up "syrian monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

system of weights and measures (noun)

System of measurement for length and weight and duration.

- They discussed "system of weights and measures" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "system of weights and measures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

theory of indicators (noun)

(chemistry) the theory that all indicators are either weak acids or weak bases in which the color of the ionized form is different from the color before dissociation.

- In class, the teacher used "theory of indicators" to mean (chemistry) the theory that all indicators are....
- The article explained what "theory of indicators" means with a simple example.

---

thrust fault (noun)

A geological fault in which the upper side appears to have been pushed upward by compression.

- In class, the teacher used "thrust fault" to mean a geological fault in which the upper side appears....
- The article explained what "thrust fault" means with a simple example.

---

total eclipse (noun)

An eclipse as seen from a place where the eclipsed body is completely obscured.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "total eclipse."
- Understanding "total eclipse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

traumatic (adjective)

Of or relating to a physical injury or wound to the body.

- Students compared "traumatic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "traumatic."

---

trillion (noun)

A very large indefinite number (usually hyperbole).

- In England they call a quintillion a trillion.
- In England they call a trillion a billion.

---

tucker (noun)

A detachable yoke of linen or lace worn over the breast of a low-cut dress.

- In class, the teacher used "tucker" to mean a detachable yoke of linen or lace worn over the....
- The article explained what "tucker" means with a simple example.

---

tucker out (verb)

Wear out completely.

- The coach explained when to use "tucker out" and when to wait.
- Can you use "tucker out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

unpleasant person (noun)

A person who is not pleasant or agreeable.

- Understanding "unpleasant person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "unpleasant person" means with a simple example.

---

unpleasant woman (noun)

A woman who is an unpleasant person.

- They discussed "unpleasant woman" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "unpleasant woman" because he had never seen it before.

---

vacant lot (noun)

A lot on which there are no permanent buildings.

- Understanding "vacant lot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "vacant lot" because he had never seen it before.

---

variable quantity (noun)

A quantity that can assume any of a set of values.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "variable quantity."
- He looked up "variable quantity" because he had never seen it before.

---

vatican (noun)

The residence of the Catholic Pope in the Vatican City.

- He looked up "vatican" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "vatican" to mean the residence of the catholic pope in the vatican city.

---

vatican i (noun)

The Vatican Council in 1869-1870 that proclaimed the infallibility of the pope when speaking ex cathedra.

- The article explained what "vatican i" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vatican i" to mean the vatican council in 1869-1870 that proclaimed....

---

venture capitalism (noun)

Capitalism that invests in innovative enterprises (especially high technology) where the potential profits are large.

- In class, the teacher used "venture capitalism" to mean capitalism that invests in innovative enterprises....
- He looked up "venture capitalism" because he had never seen it before.

---

watts (noun)

English poet and theologian (1674-1748).

- They discussed "watts" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "watts" to mean english poet and theologian (1674-1748).

---

wireless telegraph (noun)

The use of radio to send telegraphic messages (usually by Morse code).

- In class, the teacher used "wireless telegraph" to mean the use of radio to send telegraphic messages....
- The article explained what "wireless telegraph" means with a simple example.

---

yr (noun)

A period of time containing 365 (or 366) days.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yr."
- He looked up "yr" because he had never seen it before.

---

aboriginal (noun)

An indigenous person who was born in a particular place.

- The Canadian government scrapped plans to tax the grants to aboriginal college students.
- He looked up "aboriginal" because he had never seen it before.

---

academics (noun)

An educator who works at a college or university.

- He looked up "academics" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "academics" to mean an educator who works at a college or university.

---

acid-base indicator (noun)

An indicator that changes color on going from acidic to basic solutions.

- He looked up "acid-base indicator" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "acid-base indicator" during the group presentation.

adopting (verb)

Take on a certain form, attribute, or aspect.

- She tried to use "adopting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "adopting" and when to wait.

alignment (noun)

An organization of people (or countries) involved in a pact or treaty.

- They discussed "alignment" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alignment."

altar boy (noun)

A boy serving as an acolyte.

- In class, the teacher used "altar boy" to mean a boy serving as an acolyte.
- The article explained what "altar boy" means with a simple example.

anglo-indian (noun)

A person of English citizenship born or living in India.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anglo-indian."
- Understanding "anglo-indian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

anne sullivan (noun)

United States educator who was the teacher and lifelong companion of Helen Keller (1866-1936).

- Understanding "anne sullivan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "anne sullivan" means with a simple example.

anthony hopkins (noun)

Welsh film actor (born in 1937).

- They discussed "anthony hopkins" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "anthony hopkins" means with a simple example.

apparatus (noun)

(anatomy) a group of body parts that work together to perform a given function.

- The breathing apparatus.
- They discussed "apparatus" during the group presentation.

army of the righteous (noun)

A brutal terrorist group active in Kashmir; fights against India with the goal of restoring Islamic rule of India.

- They discussed "army of the righteous" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "army of the righteous" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

assumes (verb)

Take on a certain form, attribute, or aspect.

- He assumes the lotus position.
- Can you use "assumes" in a sentence that fits this situation?

atomic explosion (noun)

The explosion of an atomic bomb.

- In class, the teacher used "atomic explosion" to mean the explosion of an atomic bomb.
- He looked up "atomic explosion" because he had never seen it before.

avengers (noun)

Someone who takes vengeance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "avengers."
- They discussed "avengers" during the group presentation.

axe head (noun)

The cutting head of an ax.

- Understanding "axe head" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "axe head" during the group presentation.

---

backpack (noun)

A bag carried by a strap on your back or shoulder.

- In class, the teacher used "backpack" to mean a bag carried by a strap on your back or shoulder.
- The article explained what "backpack" means with a simple example.

---

balcony (noun)

An upper floor projecting from the rear over the main floor in an auditorium.

- In class, the teacher used "balcony" to mean an upper floor projecting from the rear over the....
- The article explained what "balcony" means with a simple example.

---

banker (noun)

A financier who owns or is an executive in a bank.

- The article explained what "banker" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "banker."

---

basic dye (noun)

A dye that is considered to be a base because the chromophore is part of a positive ion.

- He looked up "basic dye" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basic dye."

---

beer mat (noun)

A drip mat placed under a glass of beer.

- In class, the teacher used "beer mat" to mean a drip mat placed under a glass of beer.
- They discussed "beer mat" during the group presentation.

---

bend over backwards (verb)

Try very hard to please someone.

- She falls over backwards when she sees her mother-in-law.
- In everyday English, people use "bend over backwards" when talking about this idea.

---

bliss (noun)

A state of extreme happiness.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bliss."
- Understanding "bliss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blood sausage (noun)

A black sausage containing pig's blood and other ingredients.

- The article explained what "blood sausage" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "blood sausage" during the group presentation.

---

bodily (adjective)

Of or relating to or belonging to the body.

- A bodily organ.
- Bodily functions.

---

buffer (noun)

A cushion-like device that reduces shock due to an impact.

- He looked up "buffer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "buffer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

buffer state (noun)

A small neutral state between two rival powers.

- They discussed "buffer state" during the group presentation.

- He looked up "buffer state" because he had never seen it before.

bulgarian capital (noun)

Capital and largest city of Bulgaria located in western Bulgaria.

- They discussed "bulgarian capital" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bulgarian capital" means with a simple example.

calgary (noun)

The largest city in southern Alberta; an oil and gas center and a technology center for Alberta and most of western Canada.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calgary."
- They discussed "calgary" during the group presentation.

can of worms (noun)

A source of unpredictable trouble and complexity.

- They discussed "can of worms" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "can of worms" because he had never seen it before.

car-mechanic (noun)

Someone whose occupation is repairing and maintaining automobiles.

- The article explained what "car-mechanic" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "car-mechanic" to mean someone whose occupation is repairing and....

cattle ranch (noun)

Farm consisting of a large tract of land along with facilities needed to raise livestock (especially cattle).

- They discussed "cattle ranch" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cattle ranch" to mean farm consisting of a large tract of land along with....

cell membrane (noun)

A thin membrane (a double layer of lipids) enclosing the cytoplasm of a cell; proteins in the membrane control passage of ions (like sodium or potassium or calcium) in and out of the cell.

- All cells have a cell membrane.
- The article explained what "cell membrane" means with a simple example.

cellular telephone (noun)

A hand-held mobile radiotelephone for use in an area divided into small sections, each with its own short-range transmitter/receiver.

- In class, the teacher used "cellular telephone" to mean a hand-held mobile radiotelephone for use in an....
- They discussed "cellular telephone" during the group presentation.

charles the bald (noun)

As Charles II he was Holy Roman Emperor and as Charles I he was king of France (823-877).

- Understanding "charles the bald" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charles the bald."

chocolate chip cookie (noun)

Cookies containing chocolate chips.

- In class, the teacher used "chocolate chip cookie" to mean cookies containing chocolate chips.
- The article explained what "chocolate chip cookie" means with a simple example.

classical scholar (noun)

A student of ancient Greek and Latin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "classical scholar."
- He looked up "classical scholar" because he had never seen it before.

collector of internal revenue (noun)

Someone who collects taxes for the government.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "collector of internal revenue."
- They discussed "collector of internal revenue" during the group presentation.

combat fatigue (noun)

A mental disorder caused by stress of active warfare.

- They discussed "combat fatigue" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "combat fatigue" to mean a mental disorder caused by stress of active warfare.

---

commenced (verb)

Take the first step or steps in carrying out an action.

- In everyday English, people use "commenced" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "commenced" in real sentences.

---

compromised (verb)

Make a compromise; arrive at a compromise.

- The nuclear secrets of the state were compromised by the spy.
- The coach explained when to use "compromised" and when to wait.

---

cone shape (noun)

A shape whose base is a circle and whose sides taper up to a point.

- He looked up "cone shape" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cone shape" to mean a shape whose base is a circle and whose sides....

---

conventions (noun)

Something regarded as a normative example.

- In class, the teacher used "conventions" to mean something regarded as a normative example.
- The article explained what "conventions" means with a simple example.

---

cosmic (adjective)

Of or from or pertaining to or characteristic of the cosmos or universe.

- Cosmic laws.
- Cosmic catastrophe.

---

cosmic time (noun)

The time covered by the physical formation and development of the universe.

- The article explained what "cosmic time" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cosmic time" to mean the time covered by the physical formation and....

---

cottage pie (noun)

A dish of minced meat topped with mashed potatoes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cottage pie."
- He looked up "cottage pie" because he had never seen it before.

---

cotton wool (noun)

Soft silky fibers from cotton plants in their raw state.

- He looked up "cotton wool" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cotton wool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

counselor-at-law (noun)

A lawyer who pleads cases in court.

- They discussed "counselor-at-law" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "counselor-at-law" to mean a lawyer who pleads cases in court.

---

crazy glue (noun)

A commercial brand of epoxy glue.

- In class, the teacher used "crazy glue" to mean a commercial brand of epoxy glue.
- The article explained what "crazy glue" means with a simple example.

---

crow step (noun)

(architecture) a step on the top of a gable wall.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crow step."
- They discussed "crow step" during the group presentation.

---

crystals (noun)

A protective cover that protects the face of a watch.

- The article explained what "crystals" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "crystals" during the group presentation.

---

curb bit (noun)

A horse's bit with an attached chain or strap to check the horse.

- They discussed "curb bit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "curb bit."

---

curry powder (noun)

Pungent blend of cumin and ground coriander seed and turmeric and other spices.

- In class, the teacher used "curry powder" to mean pungent blend of cumin and ground coriander seed....
- The article explained what "curry powder" means with a simple example.

---

departed (noun)

Someone who is no longer alive.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "departed."
- Understanding "departed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dessert apple (noun)

An apple used primarily for eating raw without cooking.

- He looked up "dessert apple" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dessert apple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dessert wine (noun)

Still sweet wine often served with dessert or after a meal.

- They discussed "dessert wine" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dessert wine."

---

detached house (noun)

A house that stands alone.

- In class, the teacher used "detached house" to mean a house that stands alone.
- They discussed "detached house" during the group presentation.

---

developmental (adjective)

Of or relating to or constituting development.

- Developmental psychology.
- It is useful to describe something as "developmental" when it is of or relating to or constituting development.

---

divine revelation (noun)

Communication of knowledge to man by a divine or supernatural agency.

- In class, the teacher used "divine revelation" to mean communication of knowledge to man by a divine or....
- He looked up "divine revelation" because he had never seen it before.

---

doses (noun)

The federal department in the United States that sets and maintains foreign policies.

- Understanding "doses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "doses" during the group presentation.

---

drawer (noun)

A boxlike container in a piece of furniture; made so as to slide in and out.

- The article explained what "drawer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "drawer" during the group presentation.

drones (noun)

An aircraft without a pilot that is operated by remote control.

- The article explained what "drones" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "drones" to mean an aircraft without a pilot that is operated by....

durham (noun)

A city of north central North Carolina; site of Duke University.

- They discussed "durham" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "durham" because he had never seen it before.

ecological (adjective)

Of or relating to the science of ecology.

- Ecological research.
- An ecological disaster.

exclude (verb)

Prevent from being included or considered or accepted.

- The bad results were excluded from the report.
- This policy excludes people who have a criminal record from entering the country.

exempt (verb)

Grant relief or an exemption from a rule or requirement to.

- She exempted me from the exam.
- He did not know how to use "exempt" until he saw an example.

exhaust fan (noun)

A fan that moves air out of an enclosure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exhaust fan."
- Understanding "exhaust fan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

exposing (verb)

To show, make visible or apparent.

- Can you use "exposing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "exposing" when talking about this idea.

exterior angle (noun)

The supplement of an interior angle of a polygon.

- They discussed "exterior angle" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "exterior angle" to mean the supplement of an interior angle of a polygon.

factor analyze (verb)

To perform a factor analysis of correlational data.

- He did not know how to use "factor analyze" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "factor analyze" carefully so everyone would understand.

factor vii (noun)

A coagulation factor formed in the kidney under the influence of vitamin K.

- The article explained what "factor vii" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "factor vii" to mean a coagulation factor formed in the kidney under the....

faint (noun)

A spontaneous loss of consciousness caused by insufficient blood to the brain.

- Understanding "faint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "faint" to mean a spontaneous loss of consciousness caused by....

fines (verb)

Issue a ticket or a fine to as a penalty.

- He did not know how to use “fines” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “fines” in real sentences.

---

finn (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Finland.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “finn.”
- The article explained what “finn” means with a simple example.

---

first balcony (noun)

First or lowest balcony.

- Understanding “first balcony” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “first balcony” means with a simple example.

---

foam (noun)

A mass of small bubbles formed in or on a liquid.

- The beer had a thick head of foam.
- They discussed “foam” during the group presentation.

---

folded (verb)

Cease to operate or cause to cease operating.

- The coach explained when to use “folded” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “folded” in real sentences.

---

forge (verb)

Make a copy of with the intent to deceive.

- She forged a Green Card.
- Forge a pair of tongues.

---

form bubbles (verb)

Become bubbly or frothy or foaming.

- In everyday English, people use “form bubbles” when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use “form bubbles” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fountain pen (noun)

A pen that is supplied with ink from a reservoir in its barrel.

- They discussed “fountain pen” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “fountain pen” to mean a pen that is supplied with ink from a reservoir in....

---

frederick william iv (noun)

King of Prussia who violently suppressed democratic movements (1795-1865).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “frederick william iv.”
- Understanding “frederick william iv” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

front-stall (noun)

Medieval plate armor to protect a horse’s head.

- Understanding “front-stall” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “front-stall” during the group presentation.

---

garbage disposal (noun)

A kitchen appliance for disposing of garbage.

- In class, the teacher used “garbage disposal” to mean a kitchen appliance for disposing of garbage.
- They discussed “garbage disposal” during the group presentation.

---

gasoline bomb (noun)

A crude incendiary bomb made of a bottle filled with flammable liquid and fitted with a rag wick.

- Understanding “gasoline bomb” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what “gasoline bomb” means with a simple example.

geographical mile (noun)

A former British unit of length equivalent to 6,080 feet (1,853.184 meters); 800 feet longer than a statute mile.

- They discussed “geographical mile” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “geographical mile.”

gibson desert (noun)

A desert area in western Australia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gibson desert.”
- Understanding “gibson desert” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

give the axe (verb)

Terminate the employment of; discharge from an office or position.

- The boss fired his secretary today.
- The company terminated 25% of its workers.

glow tube (noun)

A gas-discharge tube consisting of a cold cathode and a diode in a tube filled with gas; the color of the glow depends on the particular gas.

- They discussed “glow tube” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “glow tube” means with a simple example.

greenhouse (adjective)

Of or relating to or caused by the greenhouse effect.

- Greenhouse gases.
- The speaker chose “greenhouse” because it captured the feeling precisely.

gulf of finland (noun)

An eastern arm of the Baltic Sea; between Finland and Estonia.

- They discussed “gulf of finland” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gulf of finland.”

hand axe (noun)

A stone tool with a cutting edge; the stone is held in the hand and used for chopping.

- They discussed “hand axe” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “hand axe” because he had never seen it before.

hears (verb)

Get to know or become aware of, usually accidentally.

- In everyday English, people use “hears” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “hears” in real sentences.

hebrew script (noun)

A Semitic alphabet used since the 5th century BC for writing the Hebrew language (and later for writing Yiddish and Ladino).

- He looked up “hebrew script” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hebrew script.”

hierarchy (noun)

A series of ordered groupings of people or things within a system.

- Put honesty first in her hierarchy of values.
- They discussed “hierarchy” during the group presentation.

human growth hormone (noun)

A hormone produced by the anterior pituitary gland; promotes growth in humans.

- In class, the teacher used “human growth hormone” to mean a hormone produced by the anterior pituitary gland;....
- They discussed “human growth hormone” during the group presentation.

identities (noun)

An operator that leaves unchanged the element on which it operates.

- In class, the teacher used "identities" to mean an operator that leaves unchanged the element on....
- The article explained what "identities" means with a simple example.

ill humour (noun)

An angry and disagreeable mood.

- They discussed "ill humour" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ill humour" means with a simple example.

ill-sorted (adjective)

Not easy to combine harmoniously.

- The speaker chose "ill-sorted" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "ill-sorted"? Explain why.

imaginary number (noun)

(mathematics) a number of the form a+bi where a and b are real numbers and i is the square root of -1.

- He looked up "imaginary number" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "imaginary number" to mean (mathematics) a number of the form a+bi where a and....

imaginary place (noun)

A place that exists only in imagination; a place said to exist in fictional or religious writings.

- He looked up "imaginary place" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "imaginary place."

infectious disease (noun)

A disease transmitted only by a specific kind of contact.

- They discussed "infectious disease" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "infectious disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

information bulletin (noun)

A bulletin containing the latest information.

- The article explained what "information bulletin" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "information bulletin" during the group presentation.

invalid (verb)

Force to retire, remove from active duty, as of firemen.

- He did not know how to use "invalid" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "invalid" in real sentences.

jade (verb)

Lose interest or become bored with something or somebody.

- She tried to use "jade" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "jade" and when to wait.

john constable (noun)

English landscape painter (1776-1837).

- Understanding "john constable" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "john constable" means with a simple example.

jointly (adverb)

In conjunction with; combined.

- This paper was written jointly.
- Using "jointly" can make your explanation more exact.

jung (noun)

Swiss psychologist (1875-1961).

- He looked up "jung" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "jung" during the group presentation.

---

junk pile (noun)

An accumulation of refuse and discarded matter.

- He looked up "junk pile" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "junk pile."

---

kenneth clark (noun)

United States psychologist (born in Panama) whose research persuaded the Supreme Court that segregated schools were discriminatory (1914-2005).

- He looked up "kenneth clark" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "kenneth clark" during the group presentation.

---

kentucky wonder bean (noun)

Flat-podded green bean.

- They discussed "kentucky wonder bean" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "kentucky wonder bean" to mean flat-podded green bean.

---

labour pains (noun)

A regularly recurrent spasm of pain that is characteristic of childbirth.

- He looked up "labour pains" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "labour pains" during the group presentation.

---

lancaster (noun)

The English royal house that reigned from 1399 to 1461; its emblem was a red rose.

- The article explained what "lancaster" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lancaster."

---

left-luggage office (noun)

A room where baggage or parcels are checked.

- Understanding "left-luggage office" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "left-luggage office."

---

life tenant (noun)

A tenant whose legal right to retain possession of buildings or lands lasts as long as they (or some other person) live.

- In class, the teacher used "life tenant" to mean a tenant whose legal right to retain possession of....
- They discussed "life tenant" during the group presentation.

---

lightweight (noun)

An amateur boxer who weighs no more than 132 pounds.

- Understanding "lightweight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lightweight" because he had never seen it before.

---

lone wolf (noun)

A person who avoids the company or assistance of others.

- Understanding "lone wolf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "lone wolf" during the group presentation.

---

low-sodium diet (noun)

A diet that limits the intake of salt (sodium chloride); often used in treating hypertension or edema or certain other disorders.

- In class, the teacher used "low-sodium diet" to mean a diet that limits the intake of salt (sodium....
- The article explained what "low-sodium diet" means with a simple example.

---

magnetic iron-ore (noun)

An oxide of iron that is strongly attracted by magnets.

- The article explained what "magnetic iron-ore" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "magnetic iron-ore" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mass murderer (noun)

A person who is responsible for the deaths of many victims in a single incident.

- In class, the teacher used "mass murderer" to mean a person who is responsible for the deaths of many....
- They discussed "mass murderer" during the group presentation.

mb (noun)

A unit of information equal to 1000 kilobits or 10^6 (1,000,000) bits.

- The article explained what "mb" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mb."

metabolism (noun)

The organic processes (in a cell or organism) that are necessary for life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "metabolism."
- They discussed "metabolism" during the group presentation.

modern font (noun)

A typeface (based on an 18th century design by Gianbattista Bodoni) distinguished by regular shape and hairline serifs and heavy downstrokes.

- In class, the teacher used "modern font" to mean a typeface (based on an 18th century design by....
- The article explained what "modern font" means with a simple example.

naval surface warfare center (noun)

The agency that provides scientific and engineering and technical support for all aspects of surface warfare.

- Understanding "naval surface warfare center" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "naval surface warfare center."

negative stimulus (noun)

A stimulus with undesirable consequences.

- The article explained what "negative stimulus" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "negative stimulus" during the group presentation.

negotiation (noun)

A discussion intended to produce an agreement.

- The buyout negotiation lasted several days.
- The article explained what "negotiation" means with a simple example.

newborn (noun)

A baby from birth to four weeks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "newborn."
- He looked up "newborn" because he had never seen it before.

newport (noun)

A resort city in southeastern Rhode Island; known for the summer homes of millionaires; important yachting center.

- The article explained what "newport" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "newport" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

news bulletin (noun)

A short news announcement concerning some on-going news story.

- Understanding "news bulletin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "news bulletin" to mean a short news announcement concerning some on-going....

nickel silver (noun)

A silver-white alloy containing copper and zinc and nickel.

- The article explained what "nickel silver" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "nickel silver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nodes (verb)

Let the head fall forward through drowsiness.

- In everyday English, people use "nodes" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "nodes" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

notch (noun)

A V-shaped or U-shaped indentation carved or scratched into a surface.

- There were four notches in the handle of his revolver.
- Mandibular notch.

---

nuclear reactor (noun)

(physics) any of several kinds of apparatus that maintain and control a nuclear reaction for the production of energy or artificial elements.

- In class, the teacher used "nuclear reactor" to mean (physics) any of several kinds of apparatus that....
- Understanding "nuclear reactor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

omega (noun)

The ending of a series or sequence; –Revelation.

- The Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.
- They discussed "omega" during the group presentation.

---

panama hat (noun)

A stiff hat made of straw with a flat crown.

- They discussed "panama hat" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "panama hat" because he had never seen it before.

---

papa doc (noun)

Oppressive Haitian dictator (1907-1971).

- He looked up "papa doc" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "papa doc."

---

parody (noun)

A composition that imitates or misrepresents somebody's style, usually in a humorous way.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parody."
- He looked up "parody" because he had never seen it before.

---

parole (noun)

A secret word or phrase known only to a restricted group.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parole."
- He looked up "parole" because he had never seen it before.

---

particle physics (noun)

The branch of physics that studies subatomic particles and their interactions.

- They discussed "particle physics" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "particle physics" means with a simple example.

---

peanut butter (noun)

A spread made from ground peanuts.

- The article explained what "peanut butter" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peanut butter."

---

phantom (noun)

A ghostly appearing figure.

- The article explained what "phantom" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "phantom" to mean a ghostly appearing figure.

---

photo-offset printing (noun)

A method of offset printing using photomechanical plates.

- They discussed "photo-offset printing" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "photo-offset printing" to mean a method of offset printing using photomechanical....

---

picnic ground (noun)

A tract of land set aside for picnicking.

- The article explained what "picnic ground" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "picnic ground."

---

plant hormone (noun)

(botany) a plant product that acts like a hormone.

- The article explained what "plant hormone" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "plant hormone" during the group presentation.

---

police constable (noun)

A police officer of the lowest rank.

- The article explained what "police constable" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "police constable" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pop quiz (noun)

A quiz given without prior warning.

- Understanding "pop quiz" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pop quiz" because he had never seen it before.

---

populated area (noun)

A geographical area constituting a city or town.

- They discussed "populated area" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "populated area" means with a simple example.

---

pork and beans (noun)

Dried beans cooked with pork and tomato sauce.

- He looked up "pork and beans" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pork and beans" during the group presentation.

---

present progressive tense (noun)

A tense used to express action that is on-going at the time of utterance.

- They discussed "present progressive tense" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "present progressive tense" means with a simple example.

---

probable cause (noun)

(law) evidence sufficient to warrant an arrest or search and seizure.

- A magistrate determined that there was probable cause to search the house.
- Understanding "probable cause" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

promotions (noun)

A message issued in behalf of some product or cause or idea or person or institution.

- He looked up "promotions" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "promotions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

psychic energy (noun)

An actuating force or factor.

- The article explained what "psychic energy" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "psychic energy."

---

pumping station (noun)

A house where pumps (e.g. to irrigate) are installed and operated.

- He looked up "pumping station" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pumping station."

---

python (noun)

A soothsaying spirit or a person who is possessed by such a spirit.

- Understanding "python" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "python" because he had never seen it before.

qatar (noun)

A peninsula extending northward from the Arabian mainland into the Persian Gulf.

- The article explained what "qatar" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "qatar."

reform jew (noun)

Liberal Jew who tries to adapt all aspects of Judaism to modern circumstances.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reform jew."
- They discussed "reform jew" during the group presentation.

regrets (noun)

A polite refusal of an invitation.

- Understanding "regrets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "regrets" because he had never seen it before.

respiratory disease (noun)

A disease affecting the respiratory system.

- In class, the teacher used "respiratory disease" to mean a disease affecting the respiratory system.
- The article explained what "respiratory disease" means with a simple example.

respondents (noun)

The codefendant (especially in a divorce proceeding) who is accused of adultery with the corespondent.

- They discussed "respondents" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "respondents" means with a simple example.

romania (noun)

A republic in southeastern Europe with a short coastline on the Black Sea.

- They discussed "romania" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "romania" to mean a republic in southeastern europe with a short....

rush candle (noun)

A tallow candle with a rush stem as the wick.

- They discussed "rush candle" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rush candle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sack coat (noun)

Man's hiplength coat with a straight back; the jacket of a suit.

- The article explained what "sack coat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sack coat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sailor (noun)

A stiff hat made of straw with a flat crown.

- Understanding "sailor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sailor" to mean a stiff hat made of straw with a flat crown.

salad fork (noun)

A fork intended for eating salads.

- They discussed "salad fork" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "salad fork" to mean a fork intended for eating salads.

scratch pad (noun)

Pad for preliminary or hasty writing or notes or sketches etc; is a British term.

- They discussed "scratch pad" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "scratch pad" means with a simple example.

---

seventy (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and seven.

- Understanding "seventy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "seventy" during the group presentation.

---

sir arthur sullivan (noun)

English composer of operettas who collaborated with the librettist William Gilbert (1842-1900).

- In class, the teacher used "sir arthur sullivan" to mean english composer of operettas who collaborated with....
- They discussed "sir arthur sullivan" during the group presentation.

---

sir leslie stephen (noun)

English writer (1832-1904).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir leslie stephen."
- He looked up "sir leslie stephen" because he had never seen it before.

---

skeleton key (noun)

A passkey with much of the bit filed away so that it can open different locks.

- In class, the teacher used "skeleton key" to mean a passkey with much of the bit filed away so that....
- Understanding "skeleton key" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

snap bean (noun)

Tender green beans without strings that easily snap into sections.

- Understanding "snap bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "snap bean" during the group presentation.

---

sociology (noun)

The study and classification of human societies.

- In class, the teacher used "sociology" to mean the study and classification of human societies.
- The article explained what "sociology" means with a simple example.

---

somerset (noun)

A county in southwestern England on the Bristol Channel.

- In class, the teacher used "somerset" to mean a county in southwestern england on the bristol channel.
- He looked up "somerset" because he had never seen it before.

---

sonic boom (noun)

An explosive sound caused by the shock wave of an airplane traveling faster than the speed of sound.

- A sonic boom follows an aircraft as a wake follows a ship.
- They discussed "sonic boom" during the group presentation.

---

span loading (noun)

The ratio of the weight of an airplane to its wingspan.

- In class, the teacher used "span loading" to mean the ratio of the weight of an airplane to its wingspan.
- Understanding "span loading" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

specify (verb)

Select something or someone for a specific purpose.

- Specify the parameters.
- Could you please specify your criticism of my paper?

---

state of qatar (noun)

An Arab country on the peninsula of Qatar; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1971; the economy is dominated by oil.

- The article explained what "state of qatar" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "state of qatar" to mean an arab country on the peninsula of qatar; achieved....

straight flush (noun)

A poker hand with consecutive cards in the same suit.

- Understanding "straight flush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "straight flush" means with a simple example.

sweater (noun)

A crocheted or knitted garment covering the upper part of the body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweater."
- He looked up "sweater" because he had never seen it before.

swinging post (noun)

The gatepost on which the gate is hung.

- In class, the teacher used "swinging post" to mean the gatepost on which the gate is hung.
- The article explained what "swinging post" means with a simple example.

tenant (noun)

A holder of buildings or lands by any kind of title (as ownership or lease).

- The landlord can evict a tenant who doesn't pay the rent.
- Understanding "tenant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tension headache (noun)

A headache located at the back of the head; usually caused by body tension resulting from overwork or psychological stress.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tension headache."
- He looked up "tension headache" because he had never seen it before.

thomson (noun)

United States composer who collaborated with Gertrude Stein (1896-1989).

- Understanding "thomson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thomson."

tractor (noun)

A wheeled vehicle with large wheels; used in farming and other applications.

- They discussed "tractor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tractor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

turkish towel (noun)

A bath towel with rough loose pile.

- The article explained what "turkish towel" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "turkish towel" during the group presentation.

twice-baked bread (noun)

Slice of sweet raised bread baked again until it is brown and hard and crisp.

- He looked up "twice-baked bread" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twice-baked bread."

typing pool (noun)

A group of typists who can work for different persons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "typing pool."
- Understanding "typing pool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

uganda (noun)

A landlocked republic in eastern Africa; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1962.

- In class, the teacher used "uganda" to mean a landlocked republic in eastern africa; achieved....
- The article explained what "uganda" means with a simple example.

valentine's day (noun)

A day for the exchange of tokens of affection.

- In class, the teacher used "valentine's day" to mean a day for the exchange of tokens of affection.
- Understanding "valentine's day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

variant (noun)

Something a little different from others of the same type.

- A variant of the same word.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "variant."

---

vatican city (noun)

The capital of the State of the Vatican City.

- The article explained what "vatican city" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "vatican city" during the group presentation.

---

virgin wool (noun)

Wool not used before; wool not processed or woven before.

- Understanding "virgin wool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "virgin wool."

---

walt disney (noun)

United States film maker who pioneered animated cartoons and created such characters as Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck; founded Disneyland (1901-1966).

- Understanding "walt disney" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "walt disney" because he had never seen it before.

---

walt disney world (noun)

A large amusement park established in 1971 to the southwest of Orlando.

- He looked up "walt disney world" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "walt disney world."

---

warnings (noun)

A message informing of danger.

- The article explained what "warnings" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "warnings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

washing soda (noun)

A sodium salt of carbonic acid; used in making soap powders and glass and paper.

- Understanding "washing soda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "washing soda" means with a simple example.

---

aaa (noun)

An aneurysm of the abdominal aorta associated with old age and hypertension.

- The article explained what "aaa" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "aaa" to mean an aneurysm of the abdominal aorta associated with....

---

accidental injury (noun)

An accident that results in physical damage or hurt.

- The article explained what "accidental injury" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "accidental injury."

---

acoustic nerve (noun)

A composite sensory nerve supplying the hair cells of the vestibular organ and the hair cells of the cochlea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acoustic nerve."
- He looked up "acoustic nerve" because he had never seen it before.

---

africans (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Africa.

- They discussed "africans" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "africans."

alexandria (noun)

The chief port of Egypt; located on the western edge of the Nile delta on the Mediterranean Sea; founded by Alexander the Great; the capital of ancient Egypt.

- They discussed "alexandria" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alexandria."

algebra (noun)

The mathematics of generalized arithmetical operations.

- He looked up "algebra" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "algebra."

animated cartoon (noun)

A film made by photographing a series of cartoon drawings to give the illusion of movement when projected in rapid sequence.

- They discussed "animated cartoon" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "animated cartoon" means with a simple example.

attribute (noun)

A construct whereby objects or individuals can be distinguished.

- Understanding "attribute" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "attribute" to mean a construct whereby objects or individuals can be....

audition (noun)

The ability to hear; the auditory faculty.

- The article explained what "audition" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "audition" to mean the ability to hear; the auditory faculty.

austrian capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Austria; located on the Danube in northeastern Austria; was the home of Beethoven and Brahms and Haydn and Mozart and Schubert and Strauss.

- They discussed "austrian capital" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "austrian capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bankers (noun)

A financier who owns or is an executive in a bank.

- He looked up "bankers" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bankers" to mean a financier who owns or is an executive in a bank.

beverly hills (noun)

A city in southwestern California surrounded by Los Angeles; home of many Hollywood actors.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beverly hills."
- He looked up "beverly hills" because he had never seen it before.

blue devils (noun)

A state of depression.

- He had a bad case of the blues.
- They discussed "blue devils" during the group presentation.

bodily process (noun)

An organic process that takes place in the body.

- Understanding "bodily process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bodily process" during the group presentation.

bomber harris (noun)

British marshal of the Royal Air Force; during World War II he directed mass bombing raids against German cities that resulted in heavy civilian casualties (1892-1984).

- He looked up "bomber harris" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bomber harris" to mean british marshal of the royal air force; during....

bravo (noun)

A murderer (especially one who kills a prominent political figure) who kills by a surprise attack and often is hired to do the deed.

- He looked up "bravo" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bravo."

---

bread dough (noun)

Any of various doughs for bread.

- The article explained what "bread dough" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bread dough."

---

brussels carpet (noun)

A carpet with a strong linen warp and a heavy pile of colored woolen yarns drawn up in uncut loops to form a pattern.

- In class, the teacher used "brussels carpet" to mean a carpet with a strong linen warp and a heavy pile....
- The article explained what "brussels carpet" means with a simple example.

---

buddy holly (noun)

United States rock star (1936-1959).

- He looked up "buddy holly" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buddy holly."

---

buffer country (noun)

A small neutral state between two rival powers.

- Understanding "buffer country" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "buffer country" because he had never seen it before.

---

bulletin board system (noun)

A computer that is running software that allows users to leave messages and access information of general interest.

- In class, the teacher used "bulletin board system" to mean a computer that is running software that allows....
- The article explained what "bulletin board system" means with a simple example.

---

capital of morocco (noun)

The capital of Morocco; located in the northwestern on the Atlantic coast.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of morocco."
- He looked up "capital of morocco" because he had never seen it before.

---

cardiac cycle (noun)

The complete cycle of events in the heart from the beginning of one heart beat to the beginning of the next; an electrical impulse conducted through the heart muscle that constricts the atria which is followed by constriction of the ventricles.

- The cardiac cycle can be shown on an electrocardiogram.
- They discussed "cardiac cycle" during the group presentation.

---

cardinals (noun)

The number of elements in a mathematical set; denotes a quantity but not the order.

- The article explained what "cardinals" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cardinals" during the group presentation.

---

catch a glimpse (verb)

See something for a brief time.

- Can you use "catch a glimpse" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "catch a glimpse" until he saw an example.

---

chain reactor (noun)

A nuclear reactor that uses controlled nuclear fission to generate energy.

- The article explained what "chain reactor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chain reactor" to mean a nuclear reactor that uses controlled nuclear....

---

charleston (noun)

A port city in southeastern South Carolina.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charleston."
- He looked up "charleston" because he had never seen it before.

---

chatting (verb)

Talk socially without exchanging too much information.

- The coach explained when to use "chatting" and when to wait.
- Can you use "chatting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

chief constable (noun)

The head of the police force in a county (or similar area).

- He looked up "chief constable" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chief constable."

---

chop off (verb)

Remove by or as if by cutting.

- Cut off the ear.
- Lop off the dead branch.

---

chop up (verb)

Cut into pieces.

- Chop wood.
- Chop meat.

---

cigarette lighter (noun)

A lighter for cigars or cigarettes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cigarette lighter."
- He looked up "cigarette lighter" because he had never seen it before.

---

circuits (noun)

The boundary line encompassing an area or object.

- In class, the teacher used "circuits" to mean the boundary line encompassing an area or object.
- Understanding "circuits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clay sculpture (noun)

Sculpture produced by molding.

- He looked up "clay sculpture" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "clay sculpture" during the group presentation.

---

coat rack (noun)

A rack with hooks for temporarily holding coats and hats.

- Understanding "coat rack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "coat rack" during the group presentation.

---

cody (noun)

United States showman famous for his Wild West Show (1846-1917).

- They discussed "cody" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cody" because he had never seen it before.

---

commanded (verb)

Exercise authoritative control or power over.

- The general commanded a huge army.
- Learners should practice how to use "commanded" in real sentences.

---

commissioners (noun)

A government administrator.

- The article explained what "commissioners" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "commissioners" to mean a government administrator.

common axe (noun)

An ax with a long handle and a head that has one cutting edge and one blunt side.

- The article explained what "common axe" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "common axe" to mean an ax with a long handle and a head that has one....

communicating (noun)

The activity of communicating; the activity of conveying information.

- He looked up "communicating" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "communicating."

comparative (noun)

The comparative form of an adjective or adverb.

- 'faster' is the comparative of the adjective 'fast'.
- 'less famous' is the comparative degree of the adjective 'famous'.

complement (noun)

A complete number or quantity.

- A full complement.
- A full complement of workers.

conquer (verb)

To put down by force or authority.

- Conquer one's desires.
- Conquer your fears.

contested (adjective)

Disputed or made the object of contention or competition.

- A contested election.
- The speaker chose "contested" because it captured the feeling precisely.

cornwall (noun)

A hilly county in southwestern England.

- Understanding "cornwall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cornwall."

cowboy hat (noun)

A hat with a wide brim and a soft crown; worn by American ranch hands.

- In class, the teacher used "cowboy hat" to mean a hat with a wide brim and a soft crown; worn by....
- They discussed "cowboy hat" during the group presentation.

crawl in (verb)

Prepare for sleep.

- The coach explained when to use "crawl in" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "crawl in" carefully so everyone would understand.

cyrus the younger (noun)

Persian prince who was defeated in battle by his brother Artaxerxes II (424-401 BC).

- In class, the teacher used "cyrus the younger" to mean persian prince who was defeated in battle by his....
- They discussed "cyrus the younger" during the group presentation.

data hierarchy (noun)

An arrangement of data consisting of sets and subsets such that every subset of a set is of lower rank than the set.

- The article explained what "data hierarchy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "data hierarchy" to mean an arrangement of data consisting of sets and....

daylight saving (noun)

Time during which clocks are set one hour ahead of local standard time; widely adopted during summer to provide extra daylight in the evenings.

- He looked up "daylight saving" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "daylight saving" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

daylight vision (noun)

Normal vision in daylight; vision with sufficient illumination that the cones are active and hue is perceived.

- Understanding "daylight vision" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "daylight vision" to mean normal vision in daylight; vision with sufficient....

---

daylight-saving time (noun)

Time during which clocks are set one hour ahead of local standard time; widely adopted during summer to provide extra daylight in the evenings.

- In class, the teacher used "daylight-saving time" to mean time during which clocks are set one hour ahead of....
- Understanding "daylight-saving time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

db (noun)

A logarithmic unit of sound intensity; 10 times the logarithm of the ratio of the sound intensity to some reference intensity.

- In class, the teacher used "db" to mean a logarithmic unit of sound intensity; 10 times the....
- They discussed "db" during the group presentation.

---

determines (verb)

Reach, make, or come to a decision about something.

- Experience often determines ability.
- The tree determines the border of the property.

---

differential blood count (noun)

Counting the number of specific types of white blood cells found in 1 cubic millimeter of blood; may be included as part of a complete blood count.

- In class, the teacher used "differential blood count" to mean counting the number of specific types of white....
- The article explained what "differential blood count" means with a simple example.

---

digit (noun)

The length of breadth of a finger used as a linear measure.

- 0 and 1 are digits.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "digit."

---

divine messenger (noun)

A messenger from God.

- Understanding "divine messenger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "divine messenger" to mean a messenger from god.

---

doomed (noun)

People who are destined to die soon.

- The agony of the doomed was in his voice.
- Understanding "doomed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drift net (noun)

A large fishnet supported by floats; it drifts with the current.

- Understanding "drift net" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drift net."

---

drowning (verb)

Be covered with or submerged in a liquid.

- She tried to use "drowning" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "drowning" until he saw an example.

---

embarrassment (noun)

The state of being embarrassed (usually by some financial inadequacy).

- He is currently suffering financial embarrassments.

- The outcome of the vote was an embarrassment for the liberals.

epidemic disease (noun)

Any infectious disease that develops and spreads rapidly to many people.

- Understanding "epidemic disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "epidemic disease" means with a simple example.

equations (noun)

A state of being essentially equal or equivalent; equally balanced.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "equations."
- He looked up "equations" because he had never seen it before.

eric arthur blair (noun)

Imaginative British writer concerned with social justice (1903-1950).

- They discussed "eric arthur blair" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "eric arthur blair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

evolving (verb)

Undergo development or evolution.

- The coach explained when to use "evolving" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "evolving" carefully so everyone would understand.

female reproductive system (noun)

The reproductive system of females.

- The article explained what "female reproductive system" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "female reproductive system."

first vatican council (noun)

The Vatican Council in 1869-1870 that proclaimed the infallibility of the pope when speaking ex cathedra.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first vatican council."
- The article explained what "first vatican council" means with a simple example.

fish glue (noun)

Gelatinous substance obtained by boiling skins fins and bones of fish.

- They discussed "fish glue" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fish glue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flats (noun)

Footwear (shoes or slippers) with no heel (or a very low heel).

- The salt flats of Utah.
- He looked up "flats" because he had never seen it before.

flint (noun)

A hard kind of stone; a form of silica more opaque than chalcedony.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flint."
- Understanding "flint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

floating dock (noun)

Dry dock that can be submerged under a vessel and then raised.

- They discussed "floating dock" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "floating dock" because he had never seen it before.

floral (adjective)

Of or relating to the plant life in a particular region.

- Characteristic alpine floral elements.
- Floral organs.

fortress (noun)

A fortified defensive structure.

- In class, the teacher used "fortress" to mean a fortified defensive structure.
- They discussed "fortress" during the group presentation.

---

garlic sauce (noun)

Garlic mayonnaise.

- They discussed "garlic sauce" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "garlic sauce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gas-discharge tube (noun)

A tube in which an electric discharge takes place through a gas.

- He looked up "gas-discharge tube" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "gas-discharge tube" to mean a tube in which an electric discharge takes place....

---

gasoline tank (noun)

A tank for holding gasoline to supply a vehicle.

- He looked up "gasoline tank" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "gasoline tank" to mean a tank for holding gasoline to supply a vehicle.

---

gulf of venice (noun)

An arm of the Adriatic Sea.

- The article explained what "gulf of venice" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gulf of venice" to mean an arm of the adriatic sea.

---

gum anime (noun)

Any of various resins or oleoresins.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gum anime."
- He looked up "gum anime" because he had never seen it before.

---

hairs (noun)

A covering for the body (or parts of it) consisting of a dense growth of threadlike structures (as on the human head); helps to prevent heat loss.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hairs."
- He looked up "hairs" because he had never seen it before.

---

herd (noun)

A crowd especially of ordinary or undistinguished persons or things.

- The children resembled a fairy herd.
- They discussed "herd" during the group presentation.

---

home-fried potatoes (noun)

Sliced pieces of potato fried in a pan until brown and crisp.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home-fried potatoes."
- He looked up "home-fried potatoes" because he had never seen it before.

---

horizontal tail (noun)

The horizontal stabilizer and elevator in the tail assembly of an aircraft.

- Understanding "horizontal tail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horizontal tail."

---

house of lancaster (noun)

The English royal house that reigned from 1399 to 1461; its emblem was a red rose.

- In class, the teacher used "house of lancaster" to mean the english royal house that reigned from 1399 to....
- He looked up "house of lancaster" because he had never seen it before.

---

hunting and gathering tribe (noun)

Group that supports itself by hunting and fishing and by gathering wild fruits and vegetables; usually nomadic.

- The article explained what "hunting and gathering tribe" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hunting and gathering tribe" during the group presentation.

---

husbands (noun)

A married man; a woman's partner in marriage.

- He looked up "husbands" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "husbands" during the group presentation.

---

ideological (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of an orientation that characterizes the thinking of a group or nation.

- Would you call this situation "ideological"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "ideological" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

immortal (noun)

A person (such as an author) of enduring fame.

- Shakespeare is one of the immortals.
- They discussed "immortal" during the group presentation.

---

incumbent (noun)

The official who holds an office.

- They discussed "incumbent" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "incumbent" means with a simple example.

---

incumbent on (adjective)

Morally binding or necessary.

- It is incumbent on me to attend.
- It is useful to describe something as "incumbent on" when it is morally binding or necessary.

---

infectious agent (noun)

An agent capable of producing infection.

- Understanding "infectious agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "infectious agent" to mean an agent capable of producing infection.

---

inland revenue (noun)

A board of the British government that administers and collects major direct taxes.

- Understanding "inland revenue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "inland revenue" because he had never seen it before.

---

insider (noun)

An officer of a corporation or others who have access to private information about the corporation's operations.

- In class, the teacher used "insider" to mean an officer of a corporation or others who have....
- Understanding "insider" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

insufficient (adjective)

Of a quantity not able to fulfill a need or requirement.

- Insufficient funds.
- The speaker chose "insufficient" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

interval (noun)

The distance between things.

- They discussed "interval" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "interval."

---

iron maiden (noun)

Instrument of torture consisting of a hollow iron frame shaped like the human body and lined with spikes to impale the victim.

- Understanding "iron maiden" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "iron maiden" because he had never seen it before.

james baldwin (noun)

United States author who was an outspoken critic of racism (1924-1987).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "james baldwin."
- The article explained what "james baldwin" means with a simple example.

jelly (noun)

A preserve made of the jelled juice of fruit.

- He looked up "jelly" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "jelly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

john henry newman (noun)

English prelate and theologian who (with John Keble and Edward Pusey) founded the Oxford movement; Newman later turned to Roman Catholicism and became a cardinal (1801-1890).

- They discussed "john henry newman" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "john henry newman" because he had never seen it before.

kilometres (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to 1000 meters (or 0.621371 miles).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kilometres."
- The article explained what "kilometres" means with a simple example.

lady peel (noun)

British actress (born in Canada) (1898-1989).

- He looked up "lady peel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lady peel."

lenses (noun)

(metaphor) a channel through which something can be seen or understood.

- Understanding "lenses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lenses" to mean (metaphor) a channel through which something can be....

linear equation (noun)

A polynomial equation of the first degree.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "linear equation."
- The article explained what "linear equation" means with a simple example.

literal (noun)

A mistake in printed matter resulting from mechanical failures of some kind.

- They discussed "literal" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "literal."

lunar (adjective)

Of or relating to or associated with the moon.

- Lunar surface.
- Lunar module.

lunar day (noun)

The period of time taken for the moon to make one full rotation on its axis (about 27.3 sidereal days).

- Understanding "lunar day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lunar day."

lunar year (noun)

A period of 12 lunar months.

- The article explained what "lunar year" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lunar year" to mean a period of 12 lunar months.

manor hall (noun)

The large room of a manor or castle.

- In class, the teacher used "manor hall" to mean the large room of a manor or castle.
- Understanding "manor hall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marble bones disease (noun)

An inherited disorder characterized by an increase in bone density; in severe forms the bone marrow cavity may be obliterated.

- He looked up "marble bones disease" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marble bones disease."

---

marching orders (noun)

An order from a superior officer for troops to depart.

- The company was dressed in full marching order.
- He looked up "marching orders" because he had never seen it before.

---

maternal (adjective)

Relating to or derived from one's mother.

- Maternal genes.
- Warm maternal affection for her guest.

---

matthews (noun)

One of the Gospels in the New Testament; includes the Sermon on the Mount.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matthews."
- The article explained what "matthews" means with a simple example.

---

maxwell (noun)

A cgs unit of magnetic flux equal to the flux perpendicular to an area of 1 square centimeter in a magnetic field of 1 gauss.

- In class, the teacher used "maxwell" to mean a cgs unit of magnetic flux equal to the flux....
- He looked up "maxwell" because he had never seen it before.

---

memoir (noun)

An essay on a scientific or scholarly topic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "memoir."
- They discussed "memoir" during the group presentation.

---

milk sickness (noun)

Caused by consuming milk from cattle suffering from trembles.

- Understanding "milk sickness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "milk sickness" means with a simple example.

---

mint candy (noun)

A candy that is flavored with a mint oil.

- The article explained what "mint candy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mint candy" to mean a candy that is flavored with a mint oil.

---

mint sauce (noun)

Sweetened diluted vinegar with chopped mint leaves.

- They discussed "mint sauce" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mint sauce" because he had never seen it before.

---

modification (noun)

An event that occurs when something passes from one state or phase to another.

- The neighborhood had undergone few modifications since his last visit years ago.
- A modification of last year's model.

---

nailed (verb)

Attach something somewhere by means of nails.

- He nailed down a spot at Harvard.

- She nailed her astrophysics course.

napoleon i (noun)

French general who became emperor of the French (1769-1821).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "napoleon i."
- The article explained what "napoleon i" means with a simple example.

neighbouring (verb)

Be located near or adjacent to.

- In everyday English, people use "neighbouring" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "neighbouring" in real sentences.

newborn baby (noun)

A baby from birth to four weeks.

- The article explained what "newborn baby" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "newborn baby" to mean a baby from birth to four weeks.

newspaper advertisement (noun)

A printed advertisement that is published in a newspaper.

- He looked up "newspaper advertisement" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "newspaper advertisement" during the group presentation.

nickel steel (noun)

An alloy steel containing nickel.

- The article explained what "nickel steel" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "nickel steel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nobel prize (noun)

An annual award for outstanding contributions to chemistry or physics or physiology and medicine or literature or economics or peace.

- He looked up "nobel prize" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "nobel prize" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

northwest territories (noun)

A large territory in northwestern Canada; part is now Nunavut.

- In class, the teacher used "northwest territories" to mean a large territory in northwestern canada; part is....
- Understanding "northwest territories" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

northwestern united states (noun)

The northwestern region of the United States.

- He looked up "northwestern united states" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "northwestern united states" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

objection (noun)

The act of expressing earnest opposition or protest.

- The article explained what "objection" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "objection."

obliged (adjective)

Under a moral obligation to do something.

- It is useful to describe something as "obliged" when it is under a moral obligation to do something.
- The speaker chose "obliged" because it captured the feeling precisely.

observers (noun)

An expert who observes and comments on something.

- The article explained what "observers" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "observers."

occupation licence (noun)

A license to pursue a particular occupation.

- Understanding "occupation licence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "occupation licence" during the group presentation.

---

occurrence (noun)

An instance of something occurring.

- A disease of frequent occurrence.
- The occurrence (or presence) of life on other planets.

---

offspring (noun)

The immediate descendants of a person.

- She was the mother of many offspring.
- Industrialism prepared the way for acceptance of the French Revolution's various socialistic offspring.

---

old style font (noun)

A typeface (based on an 18th century design) distinguished by irregularity and slanted ascender serifs and little contrast between light and heavy strokes.

- The article explained what "old style font" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "old style font" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

onion butter (noun)

Butter blended with minced onion.

- They discussed "onion butter" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "onion butter" because he had never seen it before.

---

outrageous (adjective)

Greatly exceeding bounds of reason or moderation.

- Spends an outrageous amount on entertainment.
- Subjected to outrageous cruelty.

---

packet (noun)

A collection of things wrapped or boxed together.

- Understanding "packet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "packet" during the group presentation.

---

pan-fry (verb)

Fry in a pan.

- Pan-fry the dumplings.
- He did not know how to use "pan-fry" until he saw an example.

---

pasta sauce (noun)

Any of numerous sauces for spaghetti or other kinds of pasta.

- In class, the teacher used "pasta sauce" to mean any of numerous sauces for spaghetti or other kinds....
- They discussed "pasta sauce" during the group presentation.

---

patents (noun)

An official document granting a right or privilege.

- They discussed "patents" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "patents" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pathway (noun)

A bundle of myelinated nerve fibers following a path through the brain.

- He looked up "pathway" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pathway" during the group presentation.

---

peach (verb)

Divulge confidential information or secrets.

- In everyday English, people use “peach” when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use “peach” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

peach state (noun)

A state in southeastern United States; one of the Confederate states during the American Civil War.

- He looked up “peach state” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “peach state.”

---

pearl buck (noun)

United States author whose novels drew on her experiences as a missionary in China (1892-1973).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pearl buck.”
- He looked up “pearl buck” because he had never seen it before.

---

persuaded (verb)

Cause somebody to adopt a certain position, belief, or course of action; twist somebody’s arm.

- In everyday English, people use “persuaded” when talking about this idea.
- Can you use “persuaded” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

pine nut (noun)

Edible seed of any of several nut pines especially some pinons of southwestern North America.

- They discussed “pine nut” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “pine nut” to mean edible seed of any of several nut pines especially....

---

plots (noun)

A small area of ground covered by specific vegetation.

- He looked up “plots” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “plots” to mean a small area of ground covered by specific vegetation.

---

presenter (noun)

An advocate who presents a person (as for an award or a degree or an introduction etc.).

- In class, the teacher used “presenter” to mean an advocate who presents a person (as for an award....
- The article explained what “presenter” means with a simple example.

---

probation officer (noun)

The officer of the court who supervises probationers.

- In class, the teacher used “probation officer” to mean the officer of the court who supervises probationers.
- Understanding “probation officer” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

proclaimed (adjective)

Declared publicly; made widely known.

- The newspaper’s proclaimed adherence to the government’s policy.
- It is useful to describe something as “proclaimed” when it is declared publicly; made widely known.

---

prop (noun)

A propeller that rotates to push against air.

- Before every scene he ran down his checklist of props.
- They discussed “prop” during the group presentation.

---

prop up (verb)

Support by placing against something solid or rigid.

- She tried to use “prop up” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “prop up” in real sentences.

---

puppet leader (noun)

A leader or ruler who is chosen by a despot to head a government.

- The article explained what “puppet leader” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “puppet leader” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

recognizing (verb)

Express obligation, thanks, or gratitude for.

- Can you use “recognizing” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “recognizing” and when to wait.

recommends (verb)

Make attractive or acceptable.

- Honesty recommends any person.
- Can you use “recommends” in a sentence that fits this situation?

refined sugar (noun)

A white crystalline carbohydrate used as a sweetener and preservative.

- The article explained what “refined sugar” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “refined sugar” to mean a white crystalline carbohydrate used as a....

registry (noun)

An official written record of names or events or transactions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “registry.”
- They discussed “registry” during the group presentation.

relieve (verb)

Grant relief or an exemption from a rule or requirement to.

- This pill will relieve your headaches.
- The thief relieved me of $100.

remarkably (adverb)

To a remarkable degree or extent.

- Place “remarkably” carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene “remarkably” in the final chapter.

render-set (verb)

Cover with two coats of plaster.

- Render-set the walls so they’ll look nice and smooth.
- In everyday English, people use “render-set” when talking about this idea.

roger fry (noun)

English painter and art critic (1866-1934).

- In class, the teacher used “roger fry” to mean english painter and art critic (1866-1934).
- He looked up “roger fry” because he had never seen it before.

roman legion (noun)

A division of from 3000 to 6000 men (including cavalry) in the Roman army.

- They discussed “roman legion” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “roman legion” because he had never seen it before.

rotating (verb)

Perform a job or duty on a rotating basis.

- She tried to use “rotating” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “rotating” until he saw an example.

runner bean (noun)

Long bean pods usually sliced into half-inch lengths; a favorite in Britain.

- In class, the teacher used “runner bean” to mean long bean pods usually sliced into half-inch....
- The article explained what “runner bean” means with a simple example.

san pablo (noun)

A town in western California to the north of Oakland on an arm of San Francisco Bay.

- He looked up "san pablo" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "san pablo."

---

sandwiches (verb)

Insert or squeeze tightly between two people or objects.

- In everyday English, people use "sandwiches" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "sandwiches" until he saw an example.

---

satellites (noun)

A person who follows or serves another.

- Understanding "satellites" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "satellites" during the group presentation.

---

scar (noun)

A mark left (usually on the skin) by the healing of injured tissue.

- They discussed "scar" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "scar" means with a simple example.

---

scouts (noun)

A person employed to keep watch for some anticipated event.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scouts."
- He looked up "scouts" because he had never seen it before.

---

scripture (noun)

The sacred writings of the Christian religions.

- The article explained what "scripture" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "scripture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seating (noun)

An area that includes places where several people can sit.

- There is seating for 40 students in this classroom.
- The article explained what "seating" means with a simple example.

---

seventy-five (adjective)

Being five more than seventy.

- A "seventy-five" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "seventy-five" when it is being five more than seventy.

---

seventy-four (adjective)

Being four more than seventy.

- A "seventy-four" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "seventy-four" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

seventy-six (adjective)

Being six more than seventy.

- The speaker chose "seventy-six" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "seventy-six."

---

shores (noun)

The land along the edge of a body of water.

- In class, the teacher used "shores" to mean the land along the edge of a body of water.
- Understanding "shores" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shower curtain (noun)

A curtain that keeps water from splashing out of the shower area.

- Understanding "shower curtain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “shower curtain” because he had never seen it before.

---

simplicity (noun)

The quality of being simple or uncompounded.

- The simplicity of a crystal.
- They took advantage of her simplicity.

---

slightest (adjective)

(quantifier used with mass nouns) small in quantity or degree; not much or almost none or (with ‘a’) at least some.

- A “slightest” approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as “slightest” when it is (quantifier used with mass nouns) small in quantity....

---

smoking carriage (noun)

A passenger car for passengers who wish to smoke.

- Understanding “smoking carriage” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “smoking carriage” during the group presentation.

---

softly (adverb)

In a manner that is pleasing to the senses.

- She smiled softly.
- Speak softly but carry a big stick.

Nature & Weather

cloudy (adjective)

Describing a sky that is covered with clouds; not sunny.

- It is too cloudy today to see the mountains.
- The morning was cloudy, but the sun came out in the afternoon.

---

storm (noun)

Very bad weather with strong wind, heavy rain, and sometimes thunder and lightning.

- The storm last night broke several trees in the park.
- We stayed indoors until the storm passed.

---

season (noun)

One of the four main periods of the year: spring, summer, autumn (fall), and winter.

- Autumn is my favorite season because the leaves change color.
- In some countries there are only two seasons: a wet one and a dry one.

---

rain (noun / verb)

Water that falls from clouds; to fall as rain.

- We canceled the picnic because of the rain.
- It rained all weekend.

---

snow (noun / verb)

Soft white pieces of frozen water that fall from the sky; to fall as snow.

- The children love playing in the snow.
- It snowed heavily last night.

---

wind (noun)

Moving air that you can feel outdoors.

- A strong wind blew the hat off my head.
- The wind is cold today.

---

forest (noun)

A large area of land covered with many trees.

- We walked through the forest for two hours.
- Wild animals live in this forest.

river (noun)

A large natural stream of water that flows toward a sea, lake, or another river.

- They swam in the river on a hot day.
- The city was built beside a wide river.

mountain (noun)

A very high area of land that rises above the land around it.

- We climbed the mountain last summer.
- Snow covers the top of the mountain.

sunshine (noun)

The light and heat that come from the sun.

- The room was full of sunshine in the morning.
- Plants need sunshine to grow.

flower (noun)

The colorful part of a plant that often has a pleasant smell.

- She planted flowers in the garden.
- He gave her a bouquet of flowers.

temperature (noun)

A measure of how hot or cold something is.

- The temperature today is twenty degrees.
- Check the temperature before you go outside.

life-of-man (noun)

Unarmed woody rhizomatous perennial plant distinguished from wild sarsaparilla by more aromatic roots and panicled umbels; southeastern North America to Mexico.

- The article explained what "life-of-man" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "life-of-man" during the group presentation.

change (noun)

The result of alteration or modification.

- There were marked changes in the lining of the lungs.
- There had been no change in the mountains.

call (noun)

The characteristic sound produced by a bird.

- She reported several anonymous calls.
- He placed a phone call to London.

keep off (verb)

Refrain from entering or walking onto.

- Keep off the grass.
- Stay off the premises.

two year old (noun)

A racehorse that is two years old.

- He looked up "two year old" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "two year old" to mean a racehorse that is two years old.

off-season (noun)

The season when travel is least active and rates are lowest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "off-season."
- They discussed "off-season" during the group presentation.

three year old (noun)

A racehorse that is three years old.

- Understanding "three year old" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "three year old" during the group presentation.

---

high season (noun)

The season when travel is most active and rates are highest.

- They traveled to Europe in high season.
- They discussed "high season" during the group presentation.

---

the street (noun)

Used to allude to the securities industry of the United States.

- Understanding "the street" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "the street."

---

current (noun)

A flow of electricity through a conductor.

- The current was measured in amperes.
- The raft floated downstream on the current.

---

song (noun)

The characteristic sound produced by a bird.

- A bird will not learn its song unless it hears it at an early age.
- A successful musical must have at least three good songs.

---

human being (noun)

Any living or extinct member of the family Hominidae characterized by superior intelligence, articulate speech, and erect carriage.

- In class, the teacher used "human being" to mean any living or extinct member of the family....
- The article explained what "human being" means with a simple example.

---

party of god (noun)

A Shiite terrorist organization with strong ties to Iran; seeks to create an Iranian fundamentalist Islamic state in Lebanon; car bombs are the signature weapon.

- They discussed "party of god" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "party of god" because he had never seen it before.

---

results (noun)

A phenomenon that follows and is caused by some previous phenomenon.

- He listened for the results on the radio.
- In class, the teacher used "results" to mean a phenomenon that follows and is caused by some....

---

stay off (verb)

Refrain from entering or walking onto.

- Keep off the grass.
- Stay off the premises.

---

parents (noun)

An organism (plant or animal) from which younger ones are obtained.

- The article explained what "parents" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "parents" during the group presentation.

---

small white (noun)

Small widely distributed form.

- He looked up "small white" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "small white" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

old woman (noun)

Herb with greyish leaves found along the east coast of North America; used as an ornamental plant.

- The article explained what "old woman" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old woman."

---

four-four time (noun)

A time signature indicating four beats to the bar.

- He looked up "four-four time" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "four-four time" during the group presentation.

---

even chance (noun)

An unpredictable phenomenon.

- He looked up "even chance" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "even chance" to mean an unpredictable phenomenon.

---

event (noun)

A phenomenon that follows and is caused by some previous phenomenon.

- He acted very wise after the event.
- In that event, the first possibility is excluded.

---

result (noun)

A phenomenon that follows and is caused by some previous phenomenon.

- He computed the result to four decimal places.
- He listened for the results on the radio.

---

common time (noun)

A time signature indicating four beats to the bar.

- Understanding "common time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "common time" during the group presentation.

---

court order (noun)

A writ issued by a court of law requiring a person to do something or to refrain from doing something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "court order."
- They discussed "court order" during the group presentation.

---

large white (noun)

Old World form of cabbage butterfly.

- Understanding "large white" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "large white" to mean old world form of cabbage butterfly.

---

social season (noun)

The season for major social events.

- Understanding "social season" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social season."

---

life force (noun)

(biology) a hypothetical force (not physical or chemical) once thought by Henri Bergson to cause the evolution and development of organisms.

- The article explained what "life force" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "life force" during the group presentation.

---

changes (noun)

The result of alteration or modification.

- There were marked changes in the lining of the lungs.
- He inspected several changes before selecting one.

---

energy state (noun)

A definite stable energy that a physical system can have; used especially of the state of electrons in atoms or molecules.

- According to quantum theory only certain energy levels are possible.
- The article explained what "energy state" means with a simple example.

---

in due season (adverb)

At the appropriate time.

- We'll get to this question in due course.
- Place "in due season" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

street name (noun)

The name of a brokerage firm in which stock is held on behalf of a customer.

- All my stocks are held in street name.
- Her street name is Bonbon.

---

style (noun)

A slender bristlelike or tubular process.

- A cartilaginous style.
- In the characteristic New York style.

---

church year (noun)

The year in the ecclesiastical calendar; especially feast days and special seasons.

- He looked up "church year" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "church year" to mean the year in the ecclesiastical calendar; especially....

---

heart line (noun)

A crease on the palm; palmists say it indicates your emotional nature.

- He looked up "heart line" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heart line."

---

in and of itself (adverb)

With respect to its inherent nature.

- She spoke "in and of itself," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "in and of itself" can make your explanation more exact.

---

line of heart (noun)

A crease on the palm; palmists say it indicates your emotional nature.

- The article explained what "line of heart" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "line of heart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

events (noun)

A phenomenon that follows and is caused by some previous phenomenon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "events."
- Understanding "events" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

free energy (noun)

(physics) a thermodynamic quantity equivalent to the capacity of a physical system to do work; the units of energy are joules or ergs.

- Energy can take a wide variety of forms.
- Understanding "free energy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

half-light (noun)

A greyish light (as at dawn or dusk or in dim interiors).

- Understanding "half-light" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "half-light" during the group presentation.

---

australia (noun)

The smallest continent; between the South Pacific and the Indian Ocean.

- In class, the teacher used "australia" to mean the smallest continent; between the south pacific....
- The article explained what "australia" means with a simple example.

---

sea (noun)

Turbulent water with swells of considerable size.

- Heavy seas.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea."

---

field line (noun)

An imaginary line in a field of force; direction of the line at any point is the direction of the force at that point.

- In class, the teacher used "field line" to mean an imaginary line in a field of force; direction of....
- He looked up "field line" because he had never seen it before.

---

light air (noun)

Wind moving 1-3 knots; 1 on the Beaufort scale.

- Understanding "light air" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "light air" because he had never seen it before.

---

line of force (noun)

An imaginary line in a field of force; direction of the line at any point is the direction of the force at that point.

- He looked up "line of force" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line of force."

---

forget-me-not (noun)

Small perennial herb having bright blue or white flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "forget-me-not" to mean small perennial herb having bright blue or white....
- The article explained what "forget-me-not" means with a simple example.

---

air current (noun)

Air moving (sometimes with considerable force) from an area of high pressure to an area of low pressure.

- The radioactivity was being swept upwards by the air current and out into the atmosphere.
- The article explained what "air current" means with a simple example.

---

current of air (noun)

Air moving (sometimes with considerable force) from an area of high pressure to an area of low pressure.

- The radioactivity was being swept upwards by the air current and out into the atmosphere.
- Understanding "current of air" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

energy level (noun)

A definite stable energy that a physical system can have; used especially of the state of electrons in atoms or molecules.

- According to quantum theory only certain energy levels are possible.
- In class, the teacher used "energy level" to mean a definite stable energy that a physical system can....

---

modern man (noun)

Subspecies of Homo sapiens; includes all modern races.

- The article explained what "modern man" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "modern man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

new river (noun)

A river in the southeastern United States that flows northward from North Carolina to West Virginia where it empties into the Kanawha River.

- Understanding "new river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "new river" because he had never seen it before.

---

blue point (noun)

Small edible oyster typically from the southern shore of Long Island.

- Understanding "blue point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "blue point" to mean small edible oyster typically from the southern....

---

man-of-the-earth (noun)

A morning glory with long roots of western United States.

- They discussed "man-of-the-earth" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "man-of-the-earth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nature (noun)

A causal agent creating and controlling things in the universe.

- The laws of nature.
- Nature has seen to it that men are stronger than women.

by nature (adverb)

Through inherent nature.

- He answered "by nature," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using "by nature" can make your explanation more exact.

sun (noun)

The star that is the source of light and heat for the planets in the solar system.

- The sun contains 99.85% of the mass in the solar system.
- The Earth revolves around the Sun.

football season (noun)

The season when football is played.

- Understanding "football season" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "football season" during the group presentation.

good nature (noun)

A cheerful, obliging disposition.

- Understanding "good nature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "good nature" during the group presentation.

old growth (noun)

Forest or woodland having a mature or overly mature ecosystem more or less uninfluenced by human activity.

- He looked up "old growth" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old growth."

by-product (noun)

A secondary and sometimes unexpected consequence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "by-product."
- He looked up "by-product" because he had never seen it before.

live-and-die (noun)

Prostrate or semi-erect subshrub of tropical America, and Australia; heavily armed with recurved thorns and having sensitive soft grey-green leaflets that fold and droop at night or when touched or cooled.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "live-and-die."
- He looked up "live-and-die" because he had never seen it before.

paper white (noun)

A daffodil having star-shaped white blossoms; often grown indoors to bloom in the winter.

- The article explained what "paper white" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "paper white" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

working dog (noun)

Any of several breeds of usually large powerful dogs bred to work as draft animals and guard and guide dogs.

- They discussed "working dog" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "working dog" means with a simple example.

death cup (noun)

Extremely poisonous usually white fungus with a prominent cup-shaped base; differs from edible Agaricus only in its white gills.

- Understanding "death cup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "death cup" means with a simple example.

field of force (noun)

The space around a radiating body within which its electromagnetic oscillations can exert force on another similar body not in contact with it.

- In class, the teacher used "field of force" to mean the space around a radiating body within which its....
- Understanding "field of force" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

force field (noun)

The space around a radiating body within which its electromagnetic oscillations can exert force on another similar body not in contact with it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "force field."
- He looked up "force field" because he had never seen it before.

---

head sea (noun)

A sea in which the waves are running directly against the course of the ship.

- The article explained what "head sea" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "head sea."

---

rest energy (noun)

The energy equivalent to the mass of a particle at rest in an inertial frame of reference; equal to the rest mass times the square of the speed of light.

- In class, the teacher used "rest energy" to mean the energy equivalent to the mass of a particle at....
- They discussed "rest energy" during the group presentation.

---

second growth (noun)

A second growth of trees covering an area where the original stand was destroyed by fire or cutting.

- The article explained what "second growth" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "second growth" during the group presentation.

---

africa (noun)

The second largest continent; located to the south of Europe and bordered to the west by the South Atlantic and to the east by the Indian Ocean.

- Understanding "africa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "africa" because he had never seen it before.

---

beach (noun)

An area of sand sloping down to the water of a sea or lake.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beach."
- They discussed "beach" during the group presentation.

---

ground fire (noun)

A forest fire that burns the humus; may not appear on the surface.

- They discussed "ground fire" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground fire."

---

strong force (noun)

(physics) the interaction that binds protons and neutrons together in the nuclei of atoms; mediated by gluons.

- He looked up "strong force" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strong force."

---

calls (noun)

The characteristic sound produced by a bird.

- She reported several anonymous calls.
- Senior professors' wives no longer make afternoon calls on newcomers.

---

luck (noun)

An unknown and unpredictable phenomenon that leads to a favorable outcome.

- It was my good luck to be there.
- They say luck is a lady.

---

moment of a couple (noun)

Given two equal and opposite forces, the product of the force and the distance between them.

- In class, the teacher used "moment of a couple" to mean given two equal and opposite forces, the product of....

- Understanding "moment of a couple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

state of nature (noun)

A wild primitive state untouched by civilization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "state of nature."
- The article explained what "state of nature" means with a simple example.

---

thus (noun)

An aromatic gum resin obtained from various Arabian or East African trees; formerly valued for worship and for embalming and fumigation.

- Understanding "thus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "thus" during the group presentation.

---

white river (noun)

A tributary of the Mississippi River that flows southeastward through northern Arkansas and southern Missouri.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white river."
- They discussed "white river" during the group presentation.

---

police dog (noun)

Any dog trained to assist police especially in tracking.

- He looked up "police dog" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "police dog" to mean any dog trained to assist police especially in tracking.

---

second nature (noun)

Acquired behavior that is practiced so long it seems innate.

- The article explained what "second nature" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "second nature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

touch-me-not (noun)

Mediterranean vine having oblong fruit that when ripe expels its seeds and juice violently when touched.

- Understanding "touch-me-not" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "touch-me-not" because he had never seen it before.

---

two-note call (noun)

A birdcall having two notes.

- The two-note call of the cuckoo.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "two-note call."

---

winter (noun)

The coldest season of the year; in the northern hemisphere it extends from the winter solstice to the vernal equinox.

- They discussed "winter" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "winter" means with a simple example.

---

natural process (noun)

A process existing in or produced by nature (rather than by the intent of human beings).

- The action of natural forces.
- He looked up "natural process" because he had never seen it before.

---

sun city (noun)

A residential suburb of Phoenix.

- They discussed "sun city" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sun city" means with a simple example.

---

may fish (noun)

Black-barred fish of bays and coastal marshes of the Atlantic and Gulf Coast of the United States.

- They discussed "may fish" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "may fish" means with a simple example.

---

natural action (noun)

A process existing in or produced by nature (rather than by the intent of human beings).

- The action of natural forces.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "natural action."

---

red sea (noun)

A long arm of the Indian Ocean between northeast Africa and Arabia; linked to the Mediterranean at the north end by the Suez Canal.

- In class, the teacher used "red sea" to mean a long arm of the indian ocean between northeast....
- Understanding "red sea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

street sign (noun)

A sign visible from the street.

- In class, the teacher used "street sign" to mean a sign visible from the street.
- They discussed "street sign" during the group presentation.

---

street-walk (verb)

Walk the streets in search of customers.

- The prostitute is street-walking every night.
- He did not know how to use "street-walk" until he saw an example.

---

sun god (noun)

A god that personifies the sun or is otherwise associated with the sun.

- He looked up "sun god" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sun god."

---

weather (noun)

The atmospheric conditions that comprise the state of the atmosphere in terms of temperature and wind and clouds and precipitation.

- They were hoping for good weather.
- Every day we have weather conditions and yesterday was no exception.

---

all-weather (adjective)

Usable or operative or practiced in all kinds of weather.

- A good all-weather road.
- All-weather flying.

---

blue star (noun)

Subshrubs of southeastern United States forming slow-growing clumps and having blue flowers in short terminal cymes.

- He looked up "blue star" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue star."

---

by-catch (noun)

Unwanted marine creatures that are caught in the nets while fishing for another species.

- Thousands of dolphins and porpoises and whales are killed as part of the by-catch each year.
- They discussed "by-catch" during the group presentation.

---

heat (noun)

A form of energy that is transferred by a difference in temperature.

- The heating system wasn't working.
- They have radiant heating.

---

lady-of-the-night (noun)

West Indian shrub with fragrant showy yellowish-white flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lady-of-the-night."
- He looked up "lady-of-the-night" because he had never seen it before.

---

mean sun (noun)

A theoretical sun that moves along the celestial equator at a constant speed and completes its annual course in the same amount of time the real sun takes at variable speeds.

- They discussed “mean sun” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “mean sun” because he had never seen it before.

---

pressure level (noun)

The force applied to a unit area of surface; measured in pascals (SI unit) or in dynes (cgs unit).

- The compressed gas exerts an increased pressure.
- They discussed “pressure level” during the group presentation.

---

air pressure (noun)

The pressure exerted by the atmosphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “air pressure.”
- The article explained what “air pressure” means with a simple example.

---

christian year (noun)

The year in the ecclesiastical calendar; especially feast days and special seasons.

- Understanding “christian year” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “christian year” to mean the year in the ecclesiastical calendar; especially....

---

good weather (noun)

Weather suitable for outdoor activities.

- The article explained what “good weather” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “good weather” to mean weather suitable for outdoor activities.

---

law of nature (noun)

A generalization that describes recurring facts or events in nature.

- The laws of thermodynamics.
- Understanding “law of nature” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

red river (noun)

A tributary of the Mississippi River that flows eastward from Texas along the southern boundary of Oklahoma and through Louisiana.

- They discussed “red river” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “red river.”

---

tree (noun)

A figure that branches from a single root.

- Genealogical tree.
- In class, the teacher used “tree” to mean a figure that branches from a single root.

---

animals (noun)

A living organism characterized by voluntary movement.

- The article explained what “animals” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “animals” to mean a living organism characterized by voluntary movement.

---

co-sign (verb)

Sign and endorse (another person’s signature), as for a loan.

- Husband and wife co-signed the lease.
- The coach explained when to use “co-sign” and when to wait.

---

living rock (noun)

Highly succulent stemless clump-forming plants with grey-green leaves similar in texture to lumps of granite; South Africa.

- Understanding “living rock” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “living rock” during the group presentation.

---

plant part (noun)

Any part of a plant or fungus.

- In class, the teacher used “plant part” to mean any part of a plant or fungus.
- The article explained what “plant part” means with a simple example.

songs (noun)

The characteristic sound produced by a bird.

- A successful musical must have at least three good songs.
- Understanding "songs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cold front (noun)

The front of an advancing mass of colder air.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cold front."
- He looked up "cold front" because he had never seen it before.

growing season (noun)

The season during which a crop grows best.

- In class, the teacher used "growing season" to mean the season during which a crop grows best.
- The article explained what "growing season" means with a simple example.

human nature (noun)

The shared psychological attributes of humankind that are assumed to be shared by all human beings.

- A great observer of human nature.
- In class, the teacher used "human nature" to mean the shared psychological attributes of humankind....

lake (noun)

A body of (usually fresh) water surrounded by land.

- They discussed "lake" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lake" to mean a body of (usually fresh) water surrounded by land.

surface (noun)

A superficial aspect as opposed to the real nature of something.

- It was not what it appeared to be on the surface.
- There is a special cleaner for these surfaces.

twitter (verb)

Make high-pitched sounds, as of birds.

- Can you use "twitter" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "twitter" when talking about this idea.

wind up (verb)

Coil the spring of (some mechanical device) by turning a stem.

- Wind your watch.
- He did not know how to use "wind up" until he saw an example.

bad luck (noun)

An unpredictable outcome that is unfortunate.

- If I didn't have bad luck I wouldn't have any luck at all.
- Understanding "bad luck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dead sea (noun)

A saltwater lake on the border between Israel and Jordan; its surface in 1292 feet below sea level.

- They discussed "dead sea" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dead sea" to mean a saltwater lake on the border between israel and....

get wind (verb)

Get to know or become aware of, usually accidentally.

- Learners should practice how to use "get wind" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "get wind" when talking about this idea.

into the wind (adverb)

In the direction opposite to the direction the wind is blowing.

- They flew upwind.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "into the wind" naturally.

---

sea star (noun)

Echinoderms characterized by five arms extending from a central disk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea star."
- The article explained what "sea star" means with a simple example.

---

animal (noun)

A living organism characterized by voluntary movement.

- Understanding "animal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "animal."

---

brain death (noun)

Death when respiration and other reflexes are absent; consciousness is gone; organs can be removed for transplantation before the heartbeat stops.

- In class, the teacher used "brain death" to mean death when respiration and other reflexes are....
- The article explained what "brain death" means with a simple example.

---

common box (noun)

Large slow-growing evergreen shrub or small tree with multiple stems; extensively used for hedges or borders and topiary figures.

- Understanding "common box" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "common box" to mean large slow-growing evergreen shrub or small tree....

---

ground cover (noun)

Small plants other than saplings growing on a forest floor.

- In class, the teacher used "ground cover" to mean small plants other than saplings growing on a....
- Understanding "ground cover" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

love tree (noun)

Small tree of the eastern Mediterranean having abundant purplish-red flowers growing on old wood directly from stems and appearing before the leaves: widely cultivated in mild regions; wood valuable for veneers.

- Understanding "love tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "love tree" during the group presentation.

---

potential energy (noun)

The mechanical energy that a body has by virtue of its position; stored energy.

- Understanding "potential energy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "potential energy" means with a simple example.

---

red sun (noun)

A small but violent terrorist organization formed in Ecuador in the early 1990s; responsible for bombing several government buildings.

- They discussed "red sun" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red sun."

---

under the weather (adjective)

Somewhat ill or prone to illness.

- My poor ailing grandmother.
- A "under the weather" approach may work better in this case.

---

wind off (verb)

Reverse the winding or twisting of.

- Unwind a ball of yarn.
- Can you use "wind off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

nature study (noun)

The study of animals and plants in the natural world (usually at an elementary level).

- Understanding "nature study" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nature study."

---

position effect (noun)

(genetics) the effect on the expression of a gene that is produced by changing its location in a chromosome.

- Understanding "position effect" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "position effect" means with a simple example.

---

set theory (noun)

The branch of pure mathematics that deals with the nature and relations of sets.

- They discussed "set theory" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "set theory" because he had never seen it before.

---

water plant (noun)

A plant that grows partly or wholly in water whether rooted in the mud, as a lotus, or floating without anchorage, as the water hyacinth.

- In class, the teacher used "water plant" to mean a plant that grows partly or wholly in water....
- He looked up "water plant" because he had never seen it before.

---

attack dog (noun)

A watchdog trained to attack on command.

- In class, the teacher used "attack dog" to mean a watchdog trained to attack on command.
- They discussed "attack dog" during the group presentation.

---

big tree (noun)

Extremely lofty evergreen of southern end of western foothills of Sierra Nevada in California; largest living organism.

- Understanding "big tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "big tree" to mean extremely lofty evergreen of southern end of....

---

boys-and-girls (noun)

Eurafrican annual naturalized in America as a weed; formerly dried for use as a purgative, diuretic or antisyphilitic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boys-and-girls."
- The article explained what "boys-and-girls" means with a simple example.

---

east river (noun)

A tidal strait separating Manhattan and the Bronx from Queens and Brooklyn.

- They discussed "east river" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "east river" to mean a tidal strait separating manhattan and the bronx....

---

high wind (noun)

A very strong wind.

- Rain and high winds covered the region.
- In class, the teacher used "high wind" to mean a very strong wind.

---

plant order (noun)

The order of plants.

- They discussed "plant order" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "plant order" means with a simple example.

---

queen of the night (noun)

Tropical American climbing cactus having triangular branches; often cultivated for its large showy night-blooming flowers followed by yellow red-streaked fruits.

- In class, the teacher used "queen of the night" to mean tropical american climbing cactus having triangular....
- Understanding "queen of the night" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

young fish (noun)

A fish that is young.

- In class, the teacher used "young fish" to mean a fish that is young.
- Understanding "young fish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

against the wind (adverb)

In the direction opposite to the direction the wind is blowing.

- They flew upwind.
- She spoke "against the wind," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

bad weather (noun)

Weather unsuitable for outdoor activities.

- They discussed "bad weather" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bad weather."

---

double gold (noun)

Very tall branching herb with showy much-doubled yellow flower heads.

- The article explained what "double gold" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "double gold" to mean very tall branching herb with showy much-doubled....

---

green river (noun)

A river that rises in western Wyoming and flows southward through Utah to become a tributary of the Colorado River.

- The article explained what "green river" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "green river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ground effect (noun)

Apparent increase in aerodynamic lift experienced by an aircraft flying close to the ground.

- In class, the teacher used "ground effect" to mean apparent increase in aerodynamic lift experienced....
- They discussed "ground effect" during the group presentation.

---

influence (noun)

The effect of one thing (or person) on another.

- The influence of mechanical action.
- Used her parents' influence to get the job.

---

weather side (noun)

The side toward the wind.

- They discussed "weather side" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "weather side" means with a simple example.

---

work animal (noun)

An animal trained for and used for heavy labor.

- They discussed "work animal" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "work animal."

---

air plant (noun)

Plant that derives moisture and nutrients from the air and rain; usually grows on another plant but not parasitic on it.

- The article explained what "air plant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "air plant" to mean plant that derives moisture and nutrients from the....

---

god tree (noun)

Massive tropical tree with deep ridges on its massive trunk and bearing large pods of seeds covered with silky floss; source of the silky kapok fiber.

- He looked up "god tree" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "god tree."

---

james river (noun)

A river in Virginia that flows east into Chesapeake Bay at Hampton Roads.

- Understanding "james river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "james river" during the group presentation.

---

second wind (noun)

Renewed energy or strength to continue an undertaking.

- She had dinner and got a second wind to finish painting.
- The employers, initially taken by surprise at the pace of developments, regained their second wind.

---

sound pressure (noun)

The difference between the instantaneous pressure at a point in a sound field and the average pressure at that point.

- He looked up "sound pressure" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sound pressure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brown cup (noun)

A variety of sclerotinia.

- In class, the teacher used "brown cup" to mean a variety of sclerotinia.
- He looked up "brown cup" because he had never seen it before.

---

cell death (noun)

(physiology) the normal degeneration and death of living cells (as in various epithelial cells).

- In class, the teacher used "cell death" to mean (physiology) the normal degeneration and death of....
- The article explained what "cell death" means with a simple example.

---

european box (noun)

Large slow-growing evergreen shrub or small tree with multiple stems; extensively used for hedges or borders and topiary figures.

- In class, the teacher used "european box" to mean large slow-growing evergreen shrub or small tree....
- The article explained what "european box" means with a simple example.

---

man-made lake (noun)

Lake used to store water for community use.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "man-made lake."
- He looked up "man-made lake" because he had never seen it before.

---

service tree (noun)

Medium-sized European tree resembling the rowan but bearing edible fruit.

- They discussed "service tree" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "service tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sun king (noun)

King of France from 1643 to 1715; his long reign was marked by the expansion of French influence in Europe and by the magnificence of his court and the Palace of Versailles (1638-1715).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sun king."
- They discussed "sun king" during the group presentation.

---

tree line (noun)

Line marking the upper limit of tree growth in mountains or northern latitudes.

- In class, the teacher used "tree line" to mean line marking the upper limit of tree growth in....
- They discussed "tree line" during the group presentation.

---

wind power (noun)

Power derived from the wind (as by windmills).

- The article explained what "wind power" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wind power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

direct current (noun)

An electric current that flows in one direction steadily.

- He looked up "direct current" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "direct current."

---

lower california (noun)

A mountainous peninsula on northwest Mexico.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lower california."
- He looked up "lower california" because he had never seen it before.

oil pressure (noun)

Pressure that keeps oil on the moving parts of an internal-combustion engine.

- The article explained what “oil pressure” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “oil pressure” during the group presentation.

reality check (noun)

An occasion on which one is reminded of the nature of things in the real world.

- This program is intended as a reality check for CEOs.
- After all those elaborate productions, I felt in need of a reality check.

animal group (noun)

A group of animals.

- The article explained what “animal group” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “animal group” during the group presentation.

color force (noun)

(physics) the interaction that binds protons and neutrons together in the nuclei of atoms; mediated by gluons.

- He looked up “color force” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “color force” to mean (physics) the interaction that binds protons and....

indian shot (noun)

Canna grown especially for its edible rootstock from which arrowroot starch is obtained.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “indian shot.”
- He looked up “indian shot” because he had never seen it before.

indian summer (noun)

A period of unusually warm weather in the autumn.

- He looked up “indian summer” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “indian summer” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

japan current (noun)

A warm ocean current that flows northeastwardly off the coast of Japan into the northern Pacific ocean.

- They discussed “japan current” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “japan current” means with a simple example.

plant process (noun)

A natural projection or outgrowth from a plant body or organ.

- He looked up “plant process” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “plant process” to mean a natural projection or outgrowth from a plant body....

summer sweet (noun)

Shrub of eastern and southern coastal United States having beautiful racemes of spice-scented white flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “summer sweet.”
- They discussed “summer sweet” during the group presentation.

water-target (noun)

Aquatic plant with floating oval leaves and purple flowers; in lakes and slow-moving streams; suitable for aquariums.

- The article explained what “water-target” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “water-target” to mean aquatic plant with floating oval leaves and purple....

action plant (noun)

Prostrate or semi-erect subshrub of tropical America, and Australia; heavily armed with recurved thorns and having sensitive soft grey-green leaflets that fold and droop at night or when touched or cooled.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “action plant.”
- He looked up “action plant” because he had never seen it before.

animal order (noun)

The order of animals.

- He looked up "animal order" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "animal order."

---

big cat (noun)

Any of several large cats typically able to roar and living in the wild.

- Understanding "big cat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "big cat" to mean any of several large cats typically able to roar....

---

black felt cup (noun)

A common name for a variety of Sarcosomataceae.

- Understanding "black felt cup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "black felt cup" means with a simple example.

---

christmas star (noun)

Tropical American plant having poisonous milk and showy tapering usually scarlet petallike leaves surrounding small yellow flowers.

- Understanding "christmas star" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "christmas star" means with a simple example.

---

may apple (noun)

Edible but insipid fruit of the May apple plant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "may apple."
- They discussed "may apple" during the group presentation.

---

north channel (noun)

A strait between Northern Ireland and Scotland that connects the Atlantic Ocean and the Irish Sea.

- Understanding "north channel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north channel."

---

reaction (noun)

A response that reveals a person's feelings or attitude.

- He was pleased by the audience's reaction to his performance.
- John feared his mother's reaction when she saw the broken lamp.

---

south wind (noun)

A wind from the south.

- The article explained what "south wind" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "south wind" to mean a wind from the south.

---

spring training (noun)

Preseason training during the spring.

- The article explained what "spring training" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spring training" to mean preseason training during the spring.

---

animal black (noun)

Black substance containing char in the form of carbonized bone; used as a black pigment.

- The article explained what "animal black" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "animal black."

---

baby blue-eyes (noun)

Delicate California annual having blue flowers marked with dark spots.

- The article explained what "baby blue-eyes" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "baby blue-eyes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brain science (noun)

The branch of neuroscience concerned with the brain.

- Understanding "brain science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “brain science.”

brain trust (noun)

An inner circle of unofficial advisors to the head of a government.

- In class, the teacher used “brain trust” to mean an inner circle of unofficial advisors to the head....
- The article explained what “brain trust” means with a simple example.

chinese forget-me-not (noun)

Biennial east Asian herb grown for its usually bright blue flowers.

- They discussed “chinese forget-me-not” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “chinese forget-me-not” because he had never seen it before.

close to the wind (adverb)

Nearly opposite to the direction from which wind is coming.

- Sailing close to the wind.
- Place “close to the wind” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

coach dog (noun)

A large breed having a smooth white coat with black or brown spots; originated in Dalmatia.

- He looked up “coach dog” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “coach dog” during the group presentation.

fire tree (noun)

A terrestrial evergreen shrub or small tree of western Australia having brilliant yellow-orange flowers; parasitic on roots of grasses.

- He looked up “fire tree” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “fire tree” during the group presentation.

gun dog (noun)

A dog trained to work with sportsmen when they hunt with guns.

- He looked up “gun dog” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “gun dog” during the group presentation.

lead plant (noun)

Shrub of sandy woodlands and stream banks of western United States having hoary pinnate flowers and dull-colored racemose flowers; thought to indicate the presence of lead ore.

- The article explained what “lead plant” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “lead plant” to mean shrub of sandy woodlands and stream banks of....

man-on-a-horse (noun)

An edible agaric with yellow gills and a viscid yellow cap that has a brownish center.

- In class, the teacher used “man-on-a-horse” to mean an edible agaric with yellow gills and a viscid....
- The article explained what “man-on-a-horse” means with a simple example.

mass action (noun)

(neurology) the principle that the cortex of the brain operates as a coordinated system with large masses of neural tissue involved in all complex functioning.

- Understanding “mass action” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mass action.”

mother cell (noun)

Cell from which another cell of an organism (usually of a different sort) develops.

- A sperm cell develops from a sperm mother cell.
- They discussed “mother cell” during the group presentation.

mountain time (noun)

Standard time in the 7th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 105th meridian west; used in the mountain states of the United States.

- In class, the teacher used “mountain time” to mean standard time in the 7th time zone west of....
- They discussed “mountain time” during the group presentation.

north wind (noun)

A wind that blows from the north.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “north wind.”
- Understanding “north wind” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

russian river (noun)

A river in northern California.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “russian river.”
- The article explained what “russian river” means with a simple example.

---

tree-living (adjective)

Inhabiting or frequenting trees.

- Students compared “tree-living” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A “tree-living” approach may work better in this case.

---

valley (noun)

A long depression in the surface of the land that usually contains a river.

- They discussed “valley” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “valley” to mean a long depression in the surface of the land that....

---

christmas green (noun)

Any of several club mosses having long creeping stems and erect branches.

- They discussed “christmas green” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “christmas green” means with a simple example.

---

gas pressure (noun)

The pressure exerted by a gas.

- In class, the teacher used “gas pressure” to mean the pressure exerted by a gas.
- The article explained what “gas pressure” means with a simple example.

---

heat energy (noun)

A form of energy that is transferred by a difference in temperature.

- Understanding “heat energy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “heat energy” to mean a form of energy that is transferred by a....

---

potential difference (noun)

The difference in electrical charge between two points in a circuit expressed in volts.

- The article explained what “potential difference” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “potential difference” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

running pop (noun)

Tropical American passion flower with finely dissected bracts; stems malodorous when crushed.

- Understanding “running pop” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “running pop.”

---

stone-face (noun)

Any plant of the genus Lithops native to Africa having solitary yellow or white flowers and thick leaves that resemble stones.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stone-face.”
- The article explained what “stone-face” means with a simple example.

---

texas star (noun)

Prairie herb with solitary lilac-colored flowers.

- The article explained what “texas star” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “texas star” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

west wind (noun)

Wind that blows from west to east.

- They discussed “west wind” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “west wind” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black cat (noun)

Large dark brown North American arboreal carnivorous mammal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “black cat.”
- He looked up “black cat” because he had never seen it before.

---

canadian (noun)

A river rising in northeastern New Mexico and flowing eastward across the Texas panhandle to become a tributary of the Arkansas River in Oklahoma.

- They discussed “canadian” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “canadian” means with a simple example.

---

elements (noun)

Violent or severe weather (viewed as caused by the action of the four elements).

- They felt the full fury of the elements.
- The grammatical elements of a sentence.

---

mountain man (noun)

A man who lives on the frontier.

- They discussed “mountain man” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “mountain man” to mean a man who lives on the frontier.

---

national weather service (noun)

The federal agency in the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration that is responsible for weather forecast and preparation of weather maps.

- They discussed “national weather service” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “national weather service” to mean the federal agency in the national oceanic and....

---

ocean (noun)

A large body of water constituting a principal part of the hydrosphere.

- Understanding “ocean” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “ocean” means with a simple example.

---

positive charge (noun)

Having a deficiency of electrons; having a higher electric potential.

- The article explained what “positive charge” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “positive charge” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

potential drop (noun)

The difference in electrical charge between two points in a circuit expressed in volts.

- They discussed “potential drop” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “potential drop” means with a simple example.

---

rain out (verb)

Prevent or interrupt due to rain.

- The storm had washed out the game.
- The coach explained when to use “rain out” and when to wait.

---

sun river (noun)

A river in western Montana that flows south and east to join the Missouri River.

- Understanding “sun river” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sun river.”

---

surface fire (noun)

A forest fire that burns only the surface litter and undergrowth.

- They discussed “surface fire” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “surface fire.”

baby rose (noun)

Vigorously growing rose having clusters of numerous small flowers; used for hedges and as grafting stock.

- They discussed "baby rose" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "baby rose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ben (noun)

A mountain or tall hill.

- They were climbing the ben.
- The article explained what "ben" means with a simple example.

cross-link (noun)

A side bond that links two adjacent chains of atoms in a complex molecule.

- The article explained what "cross-link" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cross-link" to mean a side bond that links two adjacent chains of atoms....

english channel (noun)

An arm of the Atlantic Ocean that forms a channel between France and Britain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english channel."
- The article explained what "english channel" means with a simple example.

fine structure (noun)

The presence of groups of closely spaced spectrum lines observed in the atomic spectrum of certain elements.

- The fine structure results from slightly different energy levels.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fine structure."

horse-head (noun)

Any of several silvery marine fishes with very flat bodies.

- Understanding "horse-head" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "horse-head" during the group presentation.

hot weather (noun)

A period of unusually high temperatures.

- They discussed "hot weather" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hot weather" means with a simple example.

lead tree (noun)

Low scrubby tree of tropical and subtropical North America having white flowers tinged with yellow resembling mimosa and long flattened pods.

- In class, the teacher used "lead tree" to mean low scrubby tree of tropical and subtropical north....
- Understanding "lead tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mountain state (noun)

A state in east central United States.

- In class, the teacher used "mountain state" to mean a state in east central united states.
- He looked up "mountain state" because he had never seen it before.

new forest (noun)

An area of woods and heathland in southern Hampshire that was set aside by William I as Crown property in 1079; originally a royal hunting ground but now administered as parkland; noted for its ponies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new forest."
- Understanding "new forest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ray (noun)

A branch of an umbel or an umbelliform inflorescence.

- Understanding "ray" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ray" during the group presentation.

south china sea (noun)

A tropical arm of the Pacific Ocean near southeastern Asia subject to frequent typhoons.

- The article explained what “south china sea” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “south china sea” during the group presentation.

---

trees (noun)

A figure that branches from a single root.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “trees.”
- The article explained what “trees” means with a simple example.

---

true cat (noun)

Feline mammal usually having thick soft fur and no ability to roar: domestic cats; wildcats.

- In class, the teacher used “true cat” to mean feline mammal usually having thick soft fur and no....
- He looked up “true cat” because he had never seen it before.

---

white horse (noun)

A wave that is blown by the wind so its crest is broken and appears white.

- In class, the teacher used “white horse” to mean a wave that is blown by the wind so its crest is....
- He looked up “white horse” because he had never seen it before.

---

break wind (verb)

Expel intestinal gases through the anus.

- He did not know how to use “break wind” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “break wind” in real sentences.

---

breaking point (noun)

The degree of tension or stress at which something breaks.

- They discussed “breaking point” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “breaking point” because he had never seen it before.

---

coast range (noun)

A string of mountain ranges along the Pacific coast of North America from southeastern Alaska to Lower California.

- The article explained what “coast range” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “coast range” during the group presentation.

---

live-forever (noun)

Perennial northern temperate plant with toothed leaves and heads of small purplish-white flowers.

- Understanding “live-forever” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “live-forever” means with a simple example.

---

living stone (noun)

Any plant of the genus Lithops native to Africa having solitary yellow or white flowers and thick leaves that resemble stones.

- He looked up “living stone” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “living stone” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

post horse (noun)

A horse kept at an inn or post house for use by mail carriers or for rent to travelers.

- They discussed “post horse” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “post horse” because he had never seen it before.

---

post-horse (noun)

A horse kept at an inn or post house for use by mail carriers or for rent to travelers.

- In class, the teacher used “post-horse” to mean a horse kept at an inn or post house for use by....
- The article explained what “post-horse” means with a simple example.

---

rain down (verb)

Precipitate as rain.

- If it rains much more, we can expect some flooding.

- The coach explained when to use “rain down” and when to wait.

---

sea fan (noun)

Corals having a treelike or fan-shaped horny skeleton.

- In class, the teacher used “sea fan” to mean corals having a treelike or fan-shaped horny skeleton.
- The article explained what “sea fan” means with a simple example.

---

stone life face (noun)

Any plant of the genus Lithops native to Africa having solitary yellow or white flowers and thick leaves that resemble stones.

- He looked up “stone life face” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “stone life face” to mean any plant of the genus lithops native to africa....

---

two-year-old horse (noun)

A racehorse that is two years old.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “two-year-old horse.”
- He looked up “two-year-old horse” because he had never seen it before.

---

black fly (noun)

Small blackish stout-bodied biting fly having aquatic larvae; sucks the blood of birds as well as humans and other mammals.

- Understanding “black fly” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “black fly” during the group presentation.

---

dry season (noun)

One of the two seasons in tropical climates.

- Understanding “dry season” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dry season.”

---

east wind (noun)

A wind from the east.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “east wind.”
- He looked up “east wind” because he had never seen it before.

---

ocean state (noun)

A state in New England; one of the original 13 colonies; the smallest state.

- The article explained what “ocean state” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “ocean state” during the group presentation.

---

paper plant (noun)

Tall sedge of the Nile valley yielding fiber that served many purposes in historic times.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “paper plant.”
- Understanding “paper plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wind park (noun)

A power plant that uses wind turbines to generate electricity.

- Understanding “wind park” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wind park.”

---

china tree (noun)

Evergreen of tropical America having pulpy fruit containing saponin which was used as soap by Native Americans.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “china tree.”
- They discussed “china tree” during the group presentation.

---

daughter cell (noun)

A cell formed by the division or budding of another cell.

- Anthrax grows by dividing into two daughter cells that are generally identical.
- He looked up “daughter cell” because he had never seen it before.

---

electric power (noun)

The product of voltage and current.

- He looked up "electric power" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "electric power" to mean the product of voltage and current.

grand river (noun)

A river in southern Michigan that flows northwest to empty into Lake Michigan.

- He looked up "grand river" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grand river."

jersey (noun)

A breed of diary cattle developed on the island of Jersey.

- He looked up "jersey" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jersey."

nuclear power (noun)

Nuclear energy regarded as a source of electricity for the power grid (for civilian use).

- The article explained what "nuclear power" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "nuclear power" during the group presentation.

old man of the mountain (noun)

Whitish hairy plant with featherlike leaves and a few stout stems each bearing an especially handsome solitary large yellow flower head; mountainous regions north central United States.

- In class, the teacher used "old man of the mountain" to mean whitish hairy plant with featherlike leaves and a....
- He looked up "old man of the mountain" because he had never seen it before.

skin effect (noun)

The tendency of high-frequency alternating current to distribute near the surface of a conductor.

- He looked up "skin effect" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skin effect."

three-year-old horse (noun)

A racehorse that is three years old.

- They discussed "three-year-old horse" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "three-year-old horse" means with a simple example.

trade wind (noun)

Steady winds blowing from east to west above and below the equator.

- They rode the trade winds going west.
- He looked up "trade wind" because he had never seen it before.

blue jack (noun)

Small salmon of northern Pacific coasts and the Great Lakes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue jack."
- He looked up "blue jack" because he had never seen it before.

cell wall (noun)

A rigid layer of polysaccharides enclosing the membrane of plant and prokaryotic cells; maintains the shape of the cell and serves as a protective barrier.

- He looked up "cell wall" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cell wall."

century plant (noun)

Tropical American plants with basal rosettes of fibrous sword-shaped leaves and flowers in tall spikes; some cultivated for ornament or for fiber.

- The article explained what "century plant" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "century plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

forest god (noun)

One of a class of woodland deities; attendant on Bacchus; identified with Roman fauns.

- The article explained what "forest god" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "forest god" during the group presentation.

---

garden current (noun)

Cultivated European current bearing small edible red berries.

- In class, the teacher used "garden current" to mean cultivated european current bearing small edible....
- They discussed "garden current" during the group presentation.

---

ground rose (noun)

Low-growing bristly shrub of southern Oregon and California with creeping rootstocks and usually corymbose flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "ground rose" to mean low-growing bristly shrub of southern oregon and....
- They discussed "ground rose" during the group presentation.

---

mother-in-law plant (noun)

An evergreen plant with large showy dark green leaves; contains a poison that swells the tongue and throat hence the name.

- They discussed "mother-in-law plant" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother-in-law plant."

---

rock plant (noun)

Plant that grows on or among rocks or is suitable for a rock garden.

- He looked up "rock plant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "rock plant" during the group presentation.

---

sea-coast (noun)

The shore of a sea or ocean.

- Understanding "sea-coast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea-coast."

---

sea-level pressure (noun)

The atmospheric pressure reduced by a formula to the pressure at sea level.

- The article explained what "sea-level pressure" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sea-level pressure" during the group presentation.

---

staff tree (noun)

Any small tree or twining shrub of the genus Celastrus.

- In class, the teacher used "staff tree" to mean any small tree or twining shrub of the genus celastrus.
- The article explained what "staff tree" means with a simple example.

---

black bear (noun)

Bear with a black coat living in central and eastern Asia.

- The article explained what "black bear" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "black bear" to mean bear with a black coat living in central and....

---

china rose (noun)

Shrubby Chinese rose; ancestor of many cultivated garden roses.

- He looked up "china rose" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "china rose."

---

cold weather (noun)

A period of unusually cold weather.

- Understanding "cold weather" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cold weather" during the group presentation.

---

dog rose (noun)

Prickly wild rose with delicate pink or white scentless flowers; native to Europe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dog rose."
- The article explained what "dog rose" means with a simple example.

flowers (noun)

A plant cultivated for its blooms or blossoms.

- Understanding “flowers” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “flowers” to mean a plant cultivated for its blooms or blossoms.

gas plant (noun)

Eurasian perennial herb with white flowers that emit flammable vapor in hot weather.

- Understanding “gas plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “gas plant” to mean eurasian perennial herb with white flowers that....

hearing dog (noun)

Dog trained to assist the deaf by signaling the occurrence of certain sounds.

- In class, the teacher used “hearing dog” to mean dog trained to assist the deaf by signaling the....
- Understanding “hearing dog” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hot water plant (noun)

Any plant of the genus Achimenes having showy bell-shaped flowers that resemble gloxinias.

- The article explained what “hot water plant” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “hot water plant” during the group presentation.

ice plant (noun)

Old World annual widely naturalized in warm regions having white flowers and fleshy foliage covered with hairs that resemble ice.

- He looked up “ice plant” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ice plant.”

lay (noun)

A narrative song with a recurrent refrain.

- Understanding “lay” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lay.”

long-legs (noun)

Long-legged three-toed black-and-white wading bird of inland ponds and marshes or brackish lagoons.

- He looked up “long-legs” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “long-legs” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mother-of-thousands (noun)

Eastern Asiatic saxifrage with racemes of small red-and-white flowers; spreads by numerous creeping stolons.

- They discussed “mother-of-thousands” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “mother-of-thousands” to mean eastern asiatic saxifrage with racemes of small....

rain-in-the-face (noun)

A chief of the Sioux; he was with Sitting Bull and others at the Battle of Little Bighorn (1876) when General Custer’s troops were massacred (1835-1905).

- Understanding “rain-in-the-face” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rain-in-the-face.”

range animal (noun)

Any animal that lives and grazes in the grassy open land of western North America (especially horses, cattle, sheep).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “range animal.”
- He looked up “range animal” because he had never seen it before.

rose of china (noun)

Large showy Asiatic shrub or small tree having large single or double red to deep-red flowers.

- The article explained what “rose of china” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “rose of china” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sea bottom (noun)

The bottom of a sea or ocean.

- He looked up "sea bottom" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sea bottom" during the group presentation.

---

shooting star (noun)

A streak of light in the sky at night that results when a meteoroid hits the earth's atmosphere and air friction causes the meteoroid to melt or vaporize or explode.

- They discussed "shooting star" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shooting star."

---

specific heat (noun)

The heat required to raise the temperature of one gram of a substance one degree centigrade.

- He looked up "specific heat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "specific heat."

---

weather eye (noun)

Vigilant attentiveness.

- He keeps a weather eye open for trouble.
- The article explained what "weather eye" means with a simple example.

---

youth-on-age (noun)

Vigorous perennial herb with flowers in erect racemes and having young plants develop at the junction of a leaf blade and the leafstalk.

- They discussed "youth-on-age" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "youth-on-age" because he had never seen it before.

---

animal oil (noun)

Any oil obtained from animal substances.

- He looked up "animal oil" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "animal oil" to mean any oil obtained from animal substances.

---

basically (adverb)

In essence; at bottom or by one's (or its) very nature.

- He is basically dishonest.
- He answered "basically," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

bird (noun)

A cry or noise made to express displeasure or contempt.

- The article explained what "bird" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bird."

---

black forest (noun)

A hilly forest region in southwestern Germany.

- In class, the teacher used "black forest" to mean a hilly forest region in southwestern germany.
- Understanding "black forest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

east china sea (noun)

Part of the Pacific Ocean near eastern Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "east china sea."
- Understanding "east china sea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fair weather (noun)

Moderate weather; suitable for outdoor activities.

- Understanding "fair weather" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fair weather" during the group presentation.

---

falls (noun)

The petals or sepals of a flower that bend downward (especially the outer perianth of an iris).

- Understanding "falls" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "falls" to mean the petals or sepals of a flower that bend downward....

---

lake bed (noun)

The bottom of a lake.

- In class, the teacher used "lake bed" to mean the bottom of a lake.
- The article explained what "lake bed" means with a simple example.

---

mobile river (noun)

A river in southwestern Alabama; flows into Mobile Bay.

- He looked up "mobile river" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mobile river" during the group presentation.

---

new york bay (noun)

A bay of the North Atlantic; fed by the Hudson River.

- They discussed "new york bay" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "new york bay" to mean a bay of the north atlantic; fed by the hudson river.

---

red bay (noun)

Small tree of southern United States having dark red heartwood.

- The article explained what "red bay" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "red bay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sun plant (noun)

Widely cultivated in many varieties for its fleshy moss-like foliage and profusion of brightly colored flowers.

- They discussed "sun plant" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sun plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blue cat (noun)

A large catfish of the Mississippi valley.

- In class, the teacher used "blue cat" to mean a large catfish of the mississippi valley.
- They discussed "blue cat" during the group presentation.

---

california coffee (noun)

Evergreen shrub of western United States bearing small red or black fruits.

- He looked up "california coffee" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "california coffee" during the group presentation.

---

china stone (noun)

A fine usually white clay formed by the weathering of aluminous minerals (as feldspar); used in ceramics and as an absorbent and as a filler (e.g., in paper).

- Understanding "china stone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "china stone" to mean a fine usually white clay formed by the weathering....

---

fire-on-the-mountain (noun)

Poinsettia of United States and eastern Mexico; often confused with Euphorbia heterophylla.

- In class, the teacher used "fire-on-the-mountain" to mean poinsettia of united states and eastern mexico;....
- The article explained what "fire-on-the-mountain" means with a simple example.

---

force per unit area (noun)

The force applied to a unit area of surface; measured in pascals (SI unit) or in dynes (cgs unit).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "force per unit area."
- The article explained what "force per unit area" means with a simple example.

---

german police dog (noun)

Breed of large shepherd dogs used in police work and as a guide for the blind.

- He looked up "german police dog" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "german police dog."

---

lake district (noun)

A popular tourist area in northwestern England including England's largest lake and highest mountain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lake district."
- He looked up "lake district" because he had never seen it before.

---

orange (noun)

A river in South Africa that flows generally westward to the Atlantic Ocean.

- In class, the teacher used "orange" to mean a river in south africa that flows generally....
- The article explained what "orange" means with a simple example.

---

river bottom (noun)

A channel occupied (or formerly occupied) by a river.

- The article explained what "river bottom" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "river bottom" during the group presentation.

---

sea animal (noun)

Any of numerous animals inhabiting the sea including e.g. fishes and molluscs and many mammals.

- They discussed "sea animal" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sea animal" because he had never seen it before.

---

star apple (noun)

Evergreen tree of West Indies and Central America having edible purple fruit star-shaped in cross section and dark green leaves with golden silky undersides.

- Understanding "star apple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "star apple" because he had never seen it before.

---

wild dog (noun)

Any of various undomesticated mammals of the family Canidae that are thought to resemble domestic dogs as distinguished from jackals or wolves.

- He looked up "wild dog" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild dog."

---

electric current (noun)

A flow of electricity through a conductor.

- The current was measured in amperes.
- Understanding "electric current" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electric field (noun)

A field of force surrounding a charged particle.

- They discussed "electric field" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "electric field" because he had never seen it before.

---

growth ring (noun)

An annual formation of wood in plants as they grow.

- The article explained what "growth ring" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "growth ring" to mean an annual formation of wood in plants as they grow.

---

humans (noun)

All of the living human inhabitants of the earth.

- He looked up "humans" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "humans" to mean all of the living human inhabitants of the earth.

---

keep quiet (verb)

Refrain from divulging sensitive information; keep quiet about confidential information.

- Don't tell him any secrets–he cannot keep his mouth shut!
- In everyday English, people use "keep quiet" when talking about this idea.

---

nuclear energy (noun)

The energy released by a nuclear reaction.

- In class, the teacher used "nuclear energy" to mean the energy released by a nuclear reaction.
- They discussed "nuclear energy" during the group presentation.

---

papers (noun)

Writing that provides information (especially information of an official nature).

- He has written many scientific papers.
- Murdoch owns many newspapers.

---

rain check (noun)

A promise that an unaccepted offer will be renewed in the future.

- Understanding "rain check" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "rain check" means with a simple example.

---

rock rose (noun)

Any of numerous varieties of helianthemums having small rose-like yellow or white or reddish flowers.

- He looked up "rock rose" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rock rose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

staff-tree family (noun)

Trees and shrubs and woody vines usually having bright-colored fruits.

- The article explained what "staff-tree family" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "staff-tree family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

warm front (noun)

The front of an advancing mass of warmer air.

- He looked up "warm front" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "warm front" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alternative energy (noun)

Energy derived from sources that do not use up natural resources or harm the environment.

- They discussed "alternative energy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "alternative energy" means with a simple example.

---

bank martin (noun)

Swallow of the northern hemisphere that nests in tunnels dug in clay or sand banks.

- The article explained what "bank martin" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bank martin" during the group presentation.

---

birds (noun)

A cry or noise made to express displeasure or contempt.

- He looked up "birds" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "birds" to mean a cry or noise made to express displeasure or contempt.

---

black fox (noun)

Red fox in the color phase when its pelt is mostly black.

- He looked up "black fox" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "black fox" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

forest fire (noun)

An uncontrolled fire in a wooded area.

- The article explained what "forest fire" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "forest fire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

game bird (noun)

Any bird (as grouse or pheasant) that is hunted for sport.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "game bird."
- They discussed "game bird" during the group presentation.

holiday season (noun)

A time when many people take holidays.

- They discussed "holiday season" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "holiday season" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

line storm (noun)

A violent rainstorm near the time of an equinox.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line storm."
- Understanding "line storm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ocean current (noun)

The steady flow of surface ocean water in a prevailing direction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ocean current."
- Understanding "ocean current" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ray of light (noun)

A column of light (as from a beacon).

- They discussed "ray of light" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ray of light" means with a simple example.

snow job (noun)

A long and elaborate misrepresentation.

- He looked up "snow job" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "snow job" to mean a long and elaborate misrepresentation.

snow line (noun)

The line on a mountain above which there is perpetual snow and ice.

- They discussed "snow line" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "snow line" because he had never seen it before.

snow-white (adjective)

Of the white color of snow.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "snow-white."
- Students compared "snow-white" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

tree of knowledge (noun)

The biblical tree in the Garden of Eden whose forbidden fruit was tasted by Adam and Eve.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tree of knowledge."
- They discussed "tree of knowledge" during the group presentation.

weather ship (noun)

An oceangoing vessel equipped to make meteorological observations.

- Understanding "weather ship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "weather ship" to mean an oceangoing vessel equipped to make....

white fox (noun)

Thickly-furred fox of Arctic regions; brownish in summer and white in winter.

- He looked up "white fox" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white fox."

winter sweet (noun)

Deciduous Japanese shrub cultivated for its fragrant yellow flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "winter sweet."
- They discussed "winter sweet" during the group presentation.

animal nature (noun)

The physical (or animal) side of a person as opposed to the spirit or intellect.

- They discussed "animal nature" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "animal nature" to mean the physical (or animal) side of a person as....

---

bird family (noun)

A family of warm-blooded egg-laying vertebrates characterized by feathers and forelimbs modified as wings.

- They discussed "bird family" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bird family" because he had never seen it before.

---

bird of night (noun)

Nocturnal bird of prey with hawk-like beak and claws and large head with front-facing eyes.

- Understanding "bird of night" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bird of night" during the group presentation.

---

de forest (noun)

United States electrical engineer who in 1907 patented the first triode vacuum tube, which made it possible to detect and amplify radio waves (1873-1961).

- He looked up "de forest" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "de forest" to mean united states electrical engineer who in 1907....

---

good-king-henry (noun)

European plant naturalized in North America; often collected from the wild as a potherb.

- Understanding "good-king-henry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "good-king-henry" to mean european plant naturalized in north america; often....

---

guide dog (noun)

A dog trained to guide the blind.

- Understanding "guide dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "guide dog" during the group presentation.

---

long wave (noun)

A radio wave with a wavelength longer than a kilometer (a frequency below 300 kilohertz).

- They discussed "long wave" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long wave."

---

negative charge (noun)

Having a surplus of electrons; having a lower electric potential.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "negative charge."
- Understanding "negative charge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

night bird (noun)

Any bird associated with night: owl; nightingale; nighthawk; etc.

- The article explained what "night bird" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "night bird."

---

pacific (adjective)

Relating to or bordering the Pacific Ocean.

- Pacific islands.
- A "pacific" approach may work better in this case.

---

rain date (noun)

An alternative date set for some outdoor event in case it rains on the appointed date.

- The rain date for the picnic will be the following Sunday.
- Understanding "rain date" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sun rose (noun)

Any plant of the genus Helianthemum; vigorous plants of stony alpine meadows and dry scrub regions.

- They discussed "sun rose" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what “sun rose” means with a simple example.

---

sweet william (noun)

Eurasian pink widely cultivated for its flat-topped dense clusters of varicolored flowers.

- The article explained what “sweet william” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “sweet william” during the group presentation.

---

wild ass (noun)

Any of several equine mammals of Asia and northeast Africa.

- They discussed “wild ass” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “wild ass” because he had never seen it before.

---

air hole (noun)

A local region of low pressure or descending air that causes a plane to lose height suddenly.

- He looked up “air hole” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “air hole” to mean a local region of low pressure or descending air....

---

american black bear (noun)

Brown to black North American bear; smaller and less ferocious than the brown bear.

- The article explained what “american black bear” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “american black bear” during the group presentation.

---

charles river (noun)

A river in eastern Massachusetts that empties into Boston Harbor and that separates Cambridge from Boston.

- Understanding “charles river” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “charles river” during the group presentation.

---

christmas tree (noun)

An ornamented evergreen used as a Christmas decoration.

- He looked up “christmas tree” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “christmas tree.”

---

garden forget-me-not (noun)

Small biennial to perennial herb of Europe, northern Africa and western Asia having blue, purple or white flowers.

- The article explained what “garden forget-me-not” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “garden forget-me-not” to mean small biennial to perennial herb of europe,....

---

guard dog (noun)

A dog trained to guard property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “guard dog.”
- The article explained what “guard dog” means with a simple example.

---

life cycle (noun)

A series of stages through which an organism passes between recurrences of a primary stage.

- He looked up “life cycle” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “life cycle” during the group presentation.

---

mountain range (noun)

A series of hills or mountains.

- The valley was between two ranges of hills.
- The plains lay just beyond the mountain range.

---

plant cell (noun)

A cell that is a structural and functional unit of a plant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “plant cell.”
- Understanding “plant cell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sea horse (noun)

Either of two large northern marine mammals having ivory tusks and tough hide over thick blubber.

- Understanding "sea horse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sea horse" to mean either of two large northern marine mammals having....

---

seeing eye dog (noun)

(trademark) a guide dog trained to guide a blind person.

- He looked up "seeing eye dog" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "seeing eye dog" during the group presentation.

---

solo man (noun)

Early man of late Pleistocene; skull resembles that of Neanderthal man but with smaller cranial capacity; found in Java.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solo man."
- He looked up "solo man" because he had never seen it before.

---

water bird (noun)

Freshwater aquatic bird.

- In class, the teacher used "water bird" to mean freshwater aquatic bird.
- The article explained what "water bird" means with a simple example.

---

animal material (noun)

Material derived from animals.

- They discussed "animal material" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "animal material" means with a simple example.

---

animal product (noun)

A product made from animal material.

- They discussed "animal product" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "animal product" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

annual ring (noun)

An annual formation of wood in plants as they grow.

- They discussed "annual ring" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "annual ring" to mean an annual formation of wood in plants as they grow.

---

bottom fish (noun)

Fish that live on the sea bottom (particularly the commercially important gadoid fish like cod and haddock, or flatfish like flounder).

- The article explained what "bottom fish" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bottom fish" to mean fish that live on the sea bottom (particularly the....

---

early bird (noun)

A person who arrives early before others do.

- In class, the teacher used "early bird" to mean a person who arrives early before others do.
- Understanding "early bird" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

guard hair (noun)

Coarse hairs that form the outer fur and protect the underfur of certain mammals.

- They discussed "guard hair" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "guard hair" to mean coarse hairs that form the outer fur and protect....

---

parent (noun)

An organism (plant or animal) from which younger ones are obtained.

- Understanding "parent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "parent" to mean an organism (plant or animal) from which younger....

---

red fox (noun)

The common Old World fox; having reddish-brown fur; commonly considered a single circumpolar species.

- Understanding “red fox” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “red fox” to mean the common old world fox; having reddish-brown fur;....

---

river horse (noun)

Massive thick-skinned herbivorous animal living in or around rivers of tropical Africa.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “river horse.”
- They discussed “river horse” during the group presentation.

---

rock beauty (noun)

Gold and black butterflyfish found from West Indies to Brazil.

- The article explained what “rock beauty” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “rock beauty” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

young bird (noun)

A bird that is still young.

- The article explained what “young bird” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “young bird” to mean a bird that is still young.

---

animal skin (noun)

The outer covering of an animal.

- The article explained what “animal skin” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “animal skin” during the group presentation.

---

bottle up (verb)

Control and refrain from showing; of emotions, desires, impulses, or behavior.

- He did not know how to use “bottle up” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “bottle up” and when to wait.

---

broken wind (noun)

A chronic emphysema of the horse that causes difficult expiration and heaving of the flanks.

- The article explained what “broken wind” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “broken wind.”

---

california beauty (noun)

Any of several handsome evergreen shrubs of California and northern Mexico having downy lobed leaves and showy yellow flowers.

- Understanding “california beauty” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “california beauty” to mean any of several handsome evergreen shrubs of....

---

christmas rose (noun)

European evergreen plant with white or purplish rose-like winter-blooming flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “christmas rose.”
- The article explained what “christmas rose” means with a simple example.

---

dc (noun)

An electric current that flows in one direction steadily.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dc.”
- They discussed “dc” during the group presentation.

---

female horse (noun)

Female equine animal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “female horse.”
- He looked up “female horse” because he had never seen it before.

---

fish scale (noun)

Scale of the kind that covers the bodies of fish.

- In class, the teacher used “fish scale” to mean scale of the kind that covers the bodies of fish.
- They discussed “fish scale” during the group presentation.

golden club (noun)

Aquatic plant of the southeastern United States having blue-green leaves and a spadix resembling a club covered with tiny yellow flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golden club."
- The article explained what "golden club" means with a simple example.

golden star (noun)

California plant having grasslike leaves and showy orange flowers.

- The article explained what "golden star" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golden star."

green mountain state (noun)

A state in New England.

- The article explained what "green mountain state" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "green mountain state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mountain box (noun)

Evergreen mat-forming shrub of North America and northern Eurasia having small white flowers and red berries; leaves turn red in autumn.

- In class, the teacher used "mountain box" to mean evergreen mat-forming shrub of north america and....
- The article explained what "mountain box" means with a simple example.

mountain pass (noun)

The location in a range of mountains of a geological formation that is lower than the surrounding peaks.

- We got through the pass before it started to snow.
- Understanding "mountain pass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

plant structure (noun)

Any part of a plant or fungus.

- In class, the teacher used "plant structure" to mean any part of a plant or fungus.
- The article explained what "plant structure" means with a simple example.

snow-in-summer (noun)

Chickweed with hairy silver-grey leaves and rather large white flowers.

- The article explained what "snow-in-summer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "snow-in-summer" during the group presentation.

weak force (noun)

(physics) an interaction between elementary particles involving neutrinos or antineutrinos that is responsible for certain kinds of radioactive decay; mediated by intermediate vector bosons.

- They discussed "weak force" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "weak force" to mean (physics) an interaction between elementary....

weather condition (noun)

The atmospheric conditions that comprise the state of the atmosphere in terms of temperature and wind and clouds and precipitation.

- They were hoping for good weather.
- Every day we have weather conditions and yesterday was no exception.

wing case (noun)

Either of the horny front wings in beetles and some other insects which cover and protect the functional hind wings.

- They discussed "wing case" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wing case" because he had never seen it before.

amazon (noun)

A major South American river; arises in the Andes and flows eastward into the South Atlantic; the world's 2nd longest river (4000 miles).

- He looked up "amazon" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "amazon" during the group presentation.

coach horse (noun)

Strong draft horse for drawing coaches.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coach horse."
- The article explained what "coach horse" means with a simple example.

---

coffee tree (noun)

Any of several small trees and shrubs native to the tropical Old World yielding coffee beans.

- In class, the teacher used "coffee tree" to mean any of several small trees and shrubs native to the....
- Understanding "coffee tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fixed oil (noun)

Nonvolatile animal or plant oil.

- Understanding "fixed oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fixed oil" because he had never seen it before.

---

heat of solution (noun)

The heat evolved or absorbed when one mole of a substance is dissolved in a large volume of a solvent.

- He looked up "heat of solution" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heat of solution."

---

man-of-war bird (noun)

Long-billed warm-water seabird with wide wingspan and forked tail.

- In class, the teacher used "man-of-war bird" to mean long-billed warm-water seabird with wide wingspan....
- They discussed "man-of-war bird" during the group presentation.

---

mountain standard time (noun)

Standard time in the 7th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 105th meridian west; used in the mountain states of the United States.

- They discussed "mountain standard time" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mountain standard time."

---

storm center (noun)

The central area or place of lowest barometric pressure within a storm.

- Understanding "storm center" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "storm center" means with a simple example.

---

winter rose (noun)

European evergreen plant with white or purplish rose-like winter-blooming flowers.

- He looked up "winter rose" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "winter rose."

---

animal foot (noun)

The pedal extremity of vertebrates other than human beings.

- In class, the teacher used "animal foot" to mean the pedal extremity of vertebrates other than human....
- They discussed "animal foot" during the group presentation.

---

baby bird (noun)

Young bird not yet fledged.

- They discussed "baby bird" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "baby bird" to mean young bird not yet fledged.

---

bell-like call (noun)

A birdcall that resembles the tone of a bell.

- They discussed "bell-like call" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bell-like call" means with a simple example.

---

christ plant (noun)

Somewhat climbing bushy spurge of Madagascar having long woody spiny stems with few leaves and flowers with scarlet bracts.

- He looked up "christ plant" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “christ plant.”

---

coffee rose (noun)

Tropical shrub having glossy foliage and fragrant nocturnal flowers with crimped or wavy corollas; northern India to Thailand.

- The article explained what “coffee rose” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “coffee rose” to mean tropical shrub having glossy foliage and fragrant....

---

common measure (noun)

A time signature indicating four beats to the bar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “common measure.”
- He looked up “common measure” because he had never seen it before.

---

electric charge (noun)

The quantity of unbalanced electricity in a body (either positive or negative) and construed as an excess or deficiency of electrons.

- The battery needed a fresh charge.
- They discussed “electric charge” during the group presentation.

---

electric potential (noun)

The difference in electrical charge between two points in a circuit expressed in volts.

- The article explained what “electric potential” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “electric potential” to mean the difference in electrical charge between two....

---

golden cup (noun)

Native of Mexican highlands grown for its glossy clear yellow flowers and blue-grey finely dissected foliage.

- The article explained what “golden cup” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “golden cup” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hide (noun)

The dressed skin of an animal (especially a large animal).

- Understanding “hide” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “hide” to mean the dressed skin of an animal (especially a large....

---

new world chat (noun)

Birds having a chattering call.

- In class, the teacher used “new world chat” to mean birds having a chattering call.
- He looked up “new world chat” because he had never seen it before.

---

river boat (noun)

A boat used on rivers or to ply a river.

- He looked up “river boat” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “river boat” during the group presentation.

---

short wave (noun)

A radio wave with a wavelength less than 100 meters (a frequency greater than 3 megahertz).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “short wave.”
- The article explained what “short wave” means with a simple example.

---

snow bank (noun)

A mound or heap of snow.

- They discussed “snow bank” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “snow bank.”

---

stone plant (noun)

Any plant of the genus Lithops native to Africa having solitary yellow or white flowers and thick leaves that resemble stones.

- In class, the teacher used “stone plant” to mean any plant of the genus lithops native to africa....
- They discussed “stone plant” during the group presentation.

---

animal fat (noun)

Any fat obtained from animals.

- Animal fat is high in saturated fatty acids.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "animal fat."

bird shot (noun)

Small lead shot for shotgun shells.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bird shot."
- He looked up "bird shot" because he had never seen it before.

blue fox (noun)

A variety of Arctic fox having a pale grey winter coat.

- The article explained what "blue fox" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "blue fox" to mean a variety of arctic fox having a pale grey winter coat.

brown bear (noun)

Large ferocious bear of Eurasia.

- He looked up "brown bear" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "brown bear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

canadian river (noun)

A river rising in northeastern New Mexico and flowing eastward across the Texas panhandle to become a tributary of the Arkansas River in Oklahoma.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canadian river."
- They discussed "canadian river" during the group presentation.

flowers-of-an-hour (noun)

Annual weedy herb with ephemeral yellow purple-eyed flowers; Old World tropics; naturalized as a weed in North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flowers-of-an-hour."
- Understanding "flowers-of-an-hour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

garden plant (noun)

Any of a variety of plants usually grown especially in a flower or herb garden.

- In class, the teacher used "garden plant" to mean any of a variety of plants usually grown especially....
- Understanding "garden plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ice bear (noun)

White bear of Arctic regions.

- The article explained what "ice bear" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice bear."

ill nature (noun)

A disagreeable, irritable, or malevolent disposition.

- In class, the teacher used "ill nature" to mean a disagreeable, irritable, or malevolent disposition.
- They discussed "ill nature" during the group presentation.

lake bottom (noun)

The bottom of a lake.

- Understanding "lake bottom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lake bottom."

looking-glass plant (noun)

Small tree of coastal regions of Old World tropics whose leaves are silvery beneath.

- They discussed "looking-glass plant" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "looking-glass plant" to mean small tree of coastal regions of old world tropics....

republican river (noun)

A tributary of the Kansas River that flows from eastern Colorado eastward through Nebraska and Kansas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “republican river.”
- He looked up “republican river” because he had never seen it before.

---

silver tree (noun)

Small South African tree with long silvery silky foliage.

- The article explained what “silver tree” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “silver tree” during the group presentation.

---

south pacific (noun)

That part of the Pacific Ocean to the south of the equator.

- In class, the teacher used “south pacific” to mean that part of the pacific ocean to the south of the....
- The article explained what “south pacific” means with a simple example.

---

spring beauty (noun)

Small slender plant having one pair of succulent leaves at the middle of the stem and a loose raceme of white or pink or rose bowl-shaped flowers and an edible corm.

- The article explained what “spring beauty” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “spring beauty” to mean small slender plant having one pair of succulent....

---

sun tea (noun)

Tea made by exposing tea leaves steeped in water to the direct rays of the sun; usually served with ice.

- He looked up “sun tea” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sun tea.”

---

sun valley (noun)

A winter sports resort in south central Idaho.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sun valley.”
- The article explained what “sun valley” means with a simple example.

---

wave front (noun)

All the points just reached by a wave as it propagates.

- In class, the teacher used “wave front” to mean all the points just reached by a wave as it propagates.
- Understanding “wave front” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wild coffee (noun)

Coarse weedy American perennial herb with large usually perfoliate leaves and purple or dull red flowers.

- In class, the teacher used “wild coffee” to mean coarse weedy american perennial herb with large....
- Understanding “wild coffee” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wilson (noun)

A peak in the San Juan mountains of Colorado (14,246 feet high).

- Understanding “wilson” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “wilson” means with a simple example.

---

wind generation (noun)

Power derived from the wind (as by windmills).

- He looked up “wind generation” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “wind generation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wind rose (noun)

Weather map showing the frequency and strength of winds from different directions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wind rose.”
- The article explained what “wind rose” means with a simple example.

---

wind scale (noun)

An international scale of wind force from 0 (calm air) to 12 (hurricane).

- Understanding “wind scale” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wind scale.”

yellow river (noun)

A major river of Asia in northern China; flows generally eastward into the Yellow Sea; carries large quantities of yellow silt to its delta.

- He looked up "yellow river" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "yellow river" to mean a major river of asia in northern china; flows....

fish fly (noun)

Similar to but smaller than the dobsonfly; larvae are used as fishing bait.

- The article explained what "fish fly" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fish fly" to mean similar to but smaller than the dobsonfly; larvae....

fish-fly (noun)

Similar to but smaller than the dobsonfly; larvae are used as fishing bait.

- He looked up "fish-fly" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fish-fly" to mean similar to but smaller than the dobsonfly; larvae....

male horse (noun)

The male of species Equus caballus.

- Understanding "male horse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "male horse" during the group presentation.

north pacific (noun)

That part of the Pacific Ocean to the north of the equator.

- He looked up "north pacific" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "north pacific" during the group presentation.

old world chat (noun)

Songbirds having a chattering call.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old world chat."
- Understanding "old world chat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

seasons (noun)

A recurrent time marked by major holidays.

- The regular sequence of the seasons.
- Understanding "seasons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

basketball season (noun)

The season when basketball is played.

- He looked up "basketball season" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "basketball season" during the group presentation.

channel cat (noun)

Freshwater food fish common throughout central United States.

- They discussed "channel cat" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "channel cat" to mean freshwater food fish common throughout central....

fox river (noun)

A river in Wisconsin that flows into Lake Michigan.

- They discussed "fox river" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fox river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ground wave (noun)

A radio wave propagated on or near the earth's surface.

- In class, the teacher used "ground wave" to mean a radio wave propagated on or near the earth's surface.
- He looked up "ground wave" because he had never seen it before.

japanese rose (noun)

Vigorously growing rose having clusters of numerous small flowers; used for hedges and as grafting stock.

- He looked up "japanese rose" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "japanese rose" to mean vigorously growing rose having clusters of numerous....

---

king orange (noun)

Large citrus tree having large sweet deep orange fruit that is easily peeled; widely cultivated in Florida.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "king orange."
- He looked up "king orange" because he had never seen it before.

---

looking glass tree (noun)

Large evergreen tree of India and Burma whose leaves are silvery beneath.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "looking glass tree."
- They discussed "looking glass tree" during the group presentation.

---

milk river (noun)

A river that rises in the Rockies in northwestern Montana and flows eastward to become a tributary of the Missouri River.

- They discussed "milk river" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "milk river" to mean a river that rises in the rockies in northwestern....

---

nose (noun)

The sense of smell (especially in animals).

- The hound has a good nose.
- He has a cold in the nose.

---

sun-ray (noun)

A ray of artificial ultraviolet light from a sunray lamp.

- They discussed "sun-ray" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sun-ray."

---

sweet bay (noun)

Shrub or small tree having rather small fragrant white flowers; abundant in southeastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "sweet bay" to mean shrub or small tree having rather small fragrant....
- Understanding "sweet bay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

walking horse (noun)

A horse marked by stamina and trained to move at a fast running walk.

- In class, the teacher used "walking horse" to mean a horse marked by stamina and trained to move at a....
- The article explained what "walking horse" means with a simple example.

---

water turkey (noun)

Blackish New World snakebird of swampy regions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water turkey."
- He looked up "water turkey" because he had never seen it before.

---

weather map (noun)

(meteorology) a map showing the principal meteorological elements at a given time and over an extended region.

- He looked up "weather map" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "weather map" to mean (meteorology) a map showing the principal....

---

apple tree (noun)

Any tree of the genus Malus especially those bearing firm rounded edible fruits.

- He looked up "apple tree" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "apple tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bird dog (noun)

A gun dog trained to locate or retrieve birds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bird dog."

- He looked up “bird dog” because he had never seen it before.

---

ice storm (noun)

A storm with freezing rain that leaves everything glazed with ice.

- Understanding “ice storm” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “ice storm” during the group presentation.

---

miller (noun)

Any of various moths that have powdery wings.

- The article explained what “miller” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “miller” during the group presentation.

---

mountains (noun)

(often followed by ‘of’) a large number or amount or extent.

- In class, the teacher used “mountains” to mean (often followed by ‘of’) a large number or amount....
- Understanding “mountains” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nuclear winter (noun)

A long period of darkness and extreme cold that scientists predict would follow a full-scale nuclear war; a layer of dust and smoke in the atmosphere would cover the earth and block the rays of the sun; most living organisms would perish.

- The article explained what “nuclear winter” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “nuclear winter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ocean floor (noun)

The bottom of a sea or ocean.

- He looked up “ocean floor” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “ocean floor” during the group presentation.

---

red shift (noun)

(astronomy) a shift in the spectra of very distant galaxies toward longer wavelengths (toward the red end of the spectrum); generally interpreted as evidence that the universe is expanding.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “red shift.”
- They discussed “red shift” during the group presentation.

---

tree farm (noun)

A forest (or part of a forest) where trees are grown for commercial use.

- He looked up “tree farm” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “tree farm” during the group presentation.

---

baseball season (noun)

The season when baseball is played.

- The article explained what “baseball season” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “baseball season” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brain sugar (noun)

A simple sugar found in lactose.

- He looked up “brain sugar” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “brain sugar” to mean a simple sugar found in lactose.

---

breaking wind (noun)

A reflex that expels intestinal gas through the anus.

- They discussed “breaking wind” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “breaking wind” because he had never seen it before.

---

bush (noun)

A low woody perennial plant usually having several major stems.

- Understanding “bush” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “bush” because he had never seen it before.

crown fire (noun)

A forest fire that advances with great speed jumping from crown to crown ahead of the ground fire.

- They discussed "crown fire" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "crown fire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flying fish (noun)

Tropical marine fishes having enlarged winglike fins used for brief gliding flight.

- The article explained what "flying fish" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flying fish."

gun smoke (noun)

Smoke created by the firing of guns.

- They discussed "gun smoke" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gun smoke" means with a simple example.

indian ocean (noun)

The 3rd largest ocean; bounded by Africa on the west, Asia on the north, Australia on the east and merging with the Antarctic Ocean to the south.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian ocean."
- The article explained what "indian ocean" means with a simple example.

iron tree (noun)

A small slow-growing deciduous tree of northern Iran having a low domed shape.

- He looked up "iron tree" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "iron tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

iron-tree (noun)

A small slow-growing deciduous tree of northern Iran having a low domed shape.

- They discussed "iron-tree" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "iron-tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pink family (noun)

Large family of herbs or subshrubs (usually with stems swollen at the nodes).

- He looked up "pink family" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pink family."

rose apple (noun)

Tropical tree of the East Indies cultivated for its edible fruit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rose apple."
- He looked up "rose apple" because he had never seen it before.

sea bird (noun)

A bird that frequents coastal waters and the open ocean: gulls; pelicans; gannets; cormorants; albatrosses; petrels; etc.

- In class, the teacher used "sea bird" to mean a bird that frequents coastal waters and the open....
- He looked up "sea bird" because he had never seen it before.

solar power (noun)

Energy from the sun that is converted into thermal or electrical energy.

- The amount of energy falling on the earth is given by the solar constant, but very little use has been made of solar energy.
- In class, the teacher used "solar power" to mean energy from the sun that is converted into thermal....

tree martin (noun)

Of Australia and Polynesia; nests in tree cavities.

- They discussed "tree martin" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tree martin" means with a simple example.

wind farm (noun)

A power plant that uses wind turbines to generate electricity.

- In class, the teacher used "wind farm" to mean a power plant that uses wind turbines to generate....
- They discussed "wind farm" during the group presentation.

---

bay tree (noun)

Small Mediterranean evergreen tree with small blackish berries and glossy aromatic leaves used for flavoring in cooking; also used by ancient Greeks to crown victors.

- In class, the teacher used "bay tree" to mean small mediterranean evergreen tree with small....
- Understanding "bay tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

calm air (noun)

Wind moving at less than 1 knot; 0 on the Beaufort scale.

- They discussed "calm air" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "calm air" because he had never seen it before.

---

chemical energy (noun)

That part of the energy in a substance that can be released by a chemical reaction.

- He looked up "chemical energy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chemical energy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clothes tree (noun)

An upright pole with pegs or hooks on which to hang clothing.

- In class, the teacher used "clothes tree" to mean an upright pole with pegs or hooks on which to hang....
- They discussed "clothes tree" during the group presentation.

---

crown-of-the-field (noun)

European annual having large trumpet-shaped reddish-purple flowers and poisonous seed; a common weed in grainfields and beside roadways; naturalized in America.

- He looked up "crown-of-the-field" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crown-of-the-field."

---

farm animal (noun)

Any animals kept for use or profit.

- In class, the teacher used "farm animal" to mean any animals kept for use or profit.
- Understanding "farm animal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marine law (noun)

The branch of international law that deals with territorial and international waters or with shipping or with ocean fishery etc.

- Understanding "marine law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "marine law" during the group presentation.

---

mobile bay (noun)

A bay of the Gulf of Mexico; fed by the Mobile River.

- Understanding "mobile bay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mobile bay" to mean a bay of the gulf of mexico; fed by the mobile river.

---

naturally (adverb)

According to nature; by natural means; without artificial help.

- Naturally grown flowers.
- Naturally, the lawyer sent us a huge bill.

---

orange river (noun)

A river in South Africa that flows generally westward to the Atlantic Ocean.

- Understanding "orange river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "orange river" to mean a river in south africa that flows generally....

---

peak season (noun)

The season when travel is most active and rates are highest.

- They traveled to Europe in high season.

- In class, the teacher used “peak season” to mean the season when travel is most active and rates are....

plane tree (noun)

Any of several trees of the genus Platanus having thin pale bark that scales off in small plates and lobed leaves and ball-shaped heads of fruits.

- Understanding “plane tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “plane tree” during the group presentation.

shower down (verb)

Rain abundantly.

- Meteors showered down over half of Australia.
- She tried to use “shower down” carefully so everyone would understand.

storm centre (noun)

The central area or place of lowest barometric pressure within a storm.

- Understanding “storm centre” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “storm centre” means with a simple example.

wild apple (noun)

Any of numerous wild apple trees usually with small acidic fruit.

- He looked up “wild apple” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “wild apple” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wild horse (noun)

Undomesticated or feral domestic horse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wild horse.”
- They discussed “wild horse” during the group presentation.

wild service tree (noun)

European tree bearing edible small speckled brown fruit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wild service tree.”
- Understanding “wild service tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blue flag (noun)

A common iris of the eastern United States having blue or blue-violet flowers; root formerly used medicinally.

- Understanding “blue flag” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blue flag.”

cold wave (noun)

A wave of unusually cold weather.

- The article explained what “cold wave” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “cold wave” during the group presentation.

consequences (noun)

A phenomenon that follows and is caused by some previous phenomenon.

- His decision had depressing consequences for business.
- Understanding “consequences” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gold of pleasure (noun)

Annual European false flax having small white flowers; cultivated since Neolithic times as a source of fiber and for its oil-rich seeds; widely naturalized in North America.

- He looked up “gold of pleasure” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “gold of pleasure” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

heat ray (noun)

A ray that produces a thermal effect.

- Understanding “heat ray” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “heat ray” during the group presentation.

horse of the wood (noun)

Large black Old World grouse.

- Understanding "horse of the wood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse of the wood."

---

mountain rose (noun)

European alpine rose with crimson flowers.

- He looked up "mountain rose" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mountain rose."

---

ohio river (noun)

A river that is formed in western Pennsylvania and flows westward to become a tributary of the Mississippi River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ohio river."
- He looked up "ohio river" because he had never seen it before.

---

radio signal (noun)

A radio wave used to transmit and receive messages.

- The article explained what "radio signal" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radio signal."

---

radio wave (noun)

An electromagnetic wave with a wavelength between 0.5 cm to 30,000 m.

- He looked up "radio wave" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "radio wave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rain tree (noun)

Large ornamental tropical American tree with bipinnate leaves and globose clusters of flowers with crimson stamens and seed pods that are eaten by cattle.

- Understanding "rain tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rain tree" to mean large ornamental tropical american tree with....

---

rose bay (noun)

An ornamental but poisonous flowering shrub having narrow evergreen leaves and clusters of fragrant white to pink or red flowers: native to East Indies but widely cultivated in warm regions.

- The article explained what "rose bay" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rose bay" to mean an ornamental but poisonous flowering shrub having....

---

stone fly (noun)

Primitive winged insect with a flattened body; used as bait by fishermen; aquatic gilled larvae are carnivorous and live beneath stones.

- He looked up "stone fly" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "stone fly" during the group presentation.

---

tea rose (noun)

Any of several hybrid bush roses derived from a tea-scented Chinese rose with pink or yellow flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tea rose."
- The article explained what "tea rose" means with a simple example.

---

chinese wood oil (noun)

A yellow oil obtained from the seeds of the tung tree.

- He looked up "chinese wood oil" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chinese wood oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

colorado (noun)

A river in Texas; flows southeast into the Gulf of Mexico.

- They discussed "colorado" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "colorado" because he had never seen it before.

---

death cap (noun)

Extremely poisonous usually white fungus with a prominent cup-shaped base; differs from edible Agaricus only in its white gills.

- In class, the teacher used “death cap” to mean extremely poisonous usually white fungus with a....
- They discussed “death cap” during the group presentation.

---

don river (noun)

A European river in southwestern Russia; flows into the Sea of Azov.

- They discussed “don river” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “don river” means with a simple example.

---

green revolution (noun)

The introduction of pesticides and high-yield grains and better management during the 1960s and 1970s which greatly increased agricultural productivity.

- He looked up “green revolution” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “green revolution” to mean the introduction of pesticides and high-yield....

---

ocean bottom (noun)

The bottom of a sea or ocean.

- They discussed “ocean bottom” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “ocean bottom” because he had never seen it before.

---

pink of my john (noun)

A common and long cultivated European herb from which most common garden pansies are derived.

- In class, the teacher used “pink of my john” to mean a common and long cultivated european herb from....
- The article explained what “pink of my john” means with a simple example.

---

secretary bird (noun)

Large long-legged African bird of prey that feeds on reptiles.

- They discussed “secretary bird” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “secretary bird” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

snow plant (noun)

A fleshy bright red saprophytic plant of the mountains of western North America that appears in early spring while snow is on the ground.

- He looked up “snow plant” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “snow plant.”

---

angel (noun)

The highest waterfall; has more than one leap; flow varies seasonally.

- The article explained what “angel” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “angel” to mean the highest waterfall; has more than one leap; flow....

---

attractive force (noun)

The force by which one object attracts another.

- In class, the teacher used “attractive force” to mean the force by which one object attracts another.
- They discussed “attractive force” during the group presentation.

---

brain wave (noun)

(neurophysiology) rapid fluctuations of voltage between parts of the cerebral cortex that are detectable with an electroencephalograph.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “brain wave.”
- Understanding “brain wave” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cloud over (verb)

Become covered with clouds.

- The sky clouded over.
- In everyday English, people use “cloud over” when talking about this idea.

---

cloud up (verb)

Become covered with clouds.

- The sky clouded over.
- The coach explained when to use “cloud up” and when to wait.

domestic animal (noun)

Any of various animals that have been tamed and made fit for a human environment.

- Understanding "domestic animal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "domestic animal" because he had never seen it before.

double bond (noun)

A covalent bond in which two pairs of electrons are shared between two atoms.

- In class, the teacher used "double bond" to mean a covalent bond in which two pairs of electrons are....
- The article explained what "double bond" means with a simple example.

evening-snow (noun)

Small California annual with white flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "evening-snow" to mean small california annual with white flowers.
- They discussed "evening-snow" during the group presentation.

farm horse (noun)

A quiet plodding workhorse.

- The article explained what "farm horse" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "farm horse" to mean a quiet plodding workhorse.

fire pink (noun)

Perennial herb of eastern North America, having red flowers with narrow notched petals.

- In class, the teacher used "fire pink" to mean perennial herb of eastern north america, having red....
- They discussed "fire pink" during the group presentation.

golden stars (noun)

California plant having grasslike leaves and showy orange flowers.

- He looked up "golden stars" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "golden stars" to mean california plant having grasslike leaves and showy....

horse fly (noun)

Large swift fly the female of which sucks blood of various animals.

- Understanding "horse fly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "horse fly" means with a simple example.

pet (noun)

A domesticated animal kept for companionship or amusement.

- They discussed "pet" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pet."

plane-tree family (noun)

Coextensive with the genus Platanus: plane trees.

- They discussed "plane-tree family" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plane-tree family."

rush family (noun)

Tufted herbs resembling grasses: rushes.

- Understanding "rush family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "rush family" because he had never seen it before.

smoke tree (noun)

Any of several shrubs or shrubby trees of the genus Cotinus.

- They discussed "smoke tree" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "smoke tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

soft scale (noun)

An insect active in all stages.

- In class, the teacher used "soft scale" to mean an insect active in all stages.
- The article explained what "soft scale" means with a simple example.

---

solar energy (noun)

Energy from the sun that is converted into thermal or electrical energy.

- The amount of energy falling on the earth is given by the solar constant, but very little use has been made of solar energy.
- The article explained what "solar energy" means with a simple example.

---

virginia stock (noun)

Erect branching herb cultivated for its loose racemes of fragrant white or pink or red or lilac flowers; native to sands and sea cliffs of southwestern Greece and southern Albania.

- The article explained what "virginia stock" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "virginia stock."

---

woods (noun)

The trees and other plants in a large densely wooded area.

- Metal woods are now standard.
- He looked up "woods" because he had never seen it before.

---

animal communication (noun)

Communication between animals (of the same species).

- He looked up "animal communication" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "animal communication" during the group presentation.

---

bear cat (noun)

Reddish-brown Old World raccoon-like carnivore; in some classifications considered unrelated to the giant pandas.

- He looked up "bear cat" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bear cat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cat bear (noun)

Reddish-brown Old World raccoon-like carnivore; in some classifications considered unrelated to the giant pandas.

- He looked up "cat bear" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cat bear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fire wheel (noun)

Annual of central United States having showy long-stalked yellow flower heads marked with scarlet or purple in the center.

- The article explained what "fire wheel" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire wheel."

---

fire-wheel (noun)

Annual of central United States having showy long-stalked yellow flower heads marked with scarlet or purple in the center.

- He looked up "fire-wheel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire-wheel."

---

five-finger (noun)

Any of a numerous plants grown for their five-petaled flowers; abundant in temperate regions; alleged to have medicinal properties.

- Understanding "five-finger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "five-finger."

---

flying cat (noun)

Arboreal nocturnal mammal of southeast Asia and the Philippines resembling a lemur and having a fold of skin on each side from neck to tail that is used for long gliding leaps.

- The article explained what "flying cat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "flying cat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hard rush (noun)

Tall rush of temperate regions.

- The article explained what "hard rush" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hard rush."

---

laid paper (noun)

Writing paper having a watermark of fine lines running across the grain.

- In class, the teacher used "laid paper" to mean writing paper having a watermark of fine lines....
- They discussed "laid paper" during the group presentation.

---

quarter horse (noun)

A small powerful horse originally bred for sprinting in quarter-mile races in Virginia.

- They discussed "quarter horse" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quarter horse."

---

rice paper (noun)

A thin delicate material resembling paper; made from the rice-paper tree.

- The article explained what "rice paper" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rice paper."

---

sand (noun)

A loose material consisting of grains of rock or coral.

- Understanding "sand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sand" during the group presentation.

---

snow-covered (adjective)

Covered with snow.

- Snow-covered roads.
- Would you call this situation "snow-covered"? Explain why.

---

spanish fly (noun)

Green beetle of southern Europe.

- They discussed "spanish fly" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "spanish fly" because he had never seen it before.

---

air pocket (noun)

A local region of low pressure or descending air that causes a plane to lose height suddenly.

- He looked up "air pocket" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "air pocket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

amazon river (noun)

A major South American river; arises in the Andes and flows eastward into the South Atlantic; the world's 2nd longest river (4000 miles).

- In class, the teacher used "amazon river" to mean a major south american river; arises in the andes....
- Understanding "amazon river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

animal leg (noun)

The leg of an animal.

- He looked up "animal leg" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "animal leg."

---

direct electric current (noun)

An electric current that flows in one direction steadily.

- The article explained what "direct electric current" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "direct electric current" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

domestic cat (noun)

Any domesticated member of the genus Felis.

- In class, the teacher used "domestic cat" to mean any domesticated member of the genus felis.
- Understanding "domestic cat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electricity (noun)

Energy made available by the flow of electric charge through a conductor.

- They built a car that runs on electricity.
- The stage crackled with electricity whenever she was on it.

---

fire bush (noun)

Densely branched Eurasian plant; foliage turns purple-red in autumn.

- In class, the teacher used "fire bush" to mean densely branched eurasian plant; foliage turns....
- They discussed "fire bush" during the group presentation.

---

fire-bush (noun)

Densely branched Eurasian plant; foliage turns purple-red in autumn.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire-bush."
- Understanding "fire-bush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fishing season (noun)

The season during which it is legal to catch fish.

- The article explained what "fishing season" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fishing season" during the group presentation.

---

ground pink (noun)

Low wiry-stemmed branching herb or southern California having fringed pink flowers.

- They discussed "ground pink" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ground pink" because he had never seen it before.

---

mountain tea (noun)

Creeping shrub of eastern North America having white bell-shaped flowers followed by spicy red berrylike fruit and shiny aromatic leaves that yield wintergreen oil.

- The article explained what "mountain tea" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mountain tea" to mean creeping shrub of eastern north america having....

---

native cat (noun)

Carnivorous arboreal cat-like marsupials of Australia and Tasmania.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "native cat."
- Understanding "native cat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

northern lights (noun)

The aurora of the northern hemisphere.

- The article explained what "northern lights" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "northern lights" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pack animal (noun)

An animal (such as a mule or burro or horse) used to carry loads.

- They discussed "pack animal" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pack animal" to mean an animal (such as a mule or burro or horse) used....

---

plant kingdom (noun)

(botany) the taxonomic kingdom comprising all living or extinct plants.

- In class, the teacher used "plant kingdom" to mean (botany) the taxonomic kingdom comprising all....
- Understanding "plant kingdom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rain stick (noun)

A percussion instrument that is made from a dried cactus branch that is hollowed out and filled with small pebbles and capped at both ends; makes the sound of falling rain when tilted; origin was in Chile where tribesmen used it in ceremonies to bring rain.

- He looked up "rain stick" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rain stick."

---

silver fox (noun)

Red fox in the color phase when its pelt is tipped with white.

- In class, the teacher used “silver fox” to mean red fox in the color phase when its pelt is tipped....
- The article explained what “silver fox” means with a simple example.

---

silver storm (noun)

A storm with freezing rain that leaves everything glazed with ice.

- He looked up “silver storm” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “silver storm.”

---

southern lights (noun)

The aurora of the southern hemisphere.

- They discussed “southern lights” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “southern lights” because he had never seen it before.

---

spanish tea (noun)

Rank-smelling tropical American pigweed.

- In class, the teacher used “spanish tea” to mean rank-smelling tropical american pigweed.
- The article explained what “spanish tea” means with a simple example.

---

water gap (noun)

A pass in a mountain ridge through which a stream flows.

- The article explained what “water gap” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “water gap” to mean a pass in a mountain ridge through which a stream flows.

---

blue channel cat (noun)

A large catfish of the Mississippi valley.

- They discussed “blue channel cat” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blue channel cat.”

---

bush baby (noun)

Agile long-tailed nocturnal African lemur with dense woolly fur and large eyes and ears.

- He looked up “bush baby” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bush baby.”

---

china pink (noun)

Chinese pink with deeply toothed rose-lilac flowers with a purplish eye; usually raised as an annual.

- The article explained what “china pink” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “china pink” to mean chinese pink with deeply toothed rose-lilac flowers....

---

essentially (adverb)

In essence; at bottom or by one’s (or its) very nature.

- The argument was essentially a technical one.
- Using “essentially” can make your explanation more exact.

---

heat wave (noun)

A wave of unusually hot weather.

- The article explained what “heat wave” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “heat wave” during the group presentation.

---

kit (noun)

Young of any of various fur-bearing animals.

- A fox kit.
- He looked up “kit” because he had never seen it before.

---

morgan (noun)

An American breed of small compact saddle horses.

- Understanding “morgan” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “morgan” because he had never seen it before.

orange tree (noun)

Any citrus tree bearing oranges.

- Understanding "orange tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "orange tree" to mean any citrus tree bearing oranges.

storm window (noun)

A window outside an ordinary window to protect against severe weather or winter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "storm window."
- Understanding "storm window" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tree surgery (noun)

Treatment of damaged or decaying trees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tree surgery."
- They discussed "tree surgery" during the group presentation.

war cloud (noun)

An ominous sign that war threatens.

- The article explained what "war cloud" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "war cloud."

wild china tree (noun)

Deciduous tree of southwestern United States having pulpy fruit containing saponin.

- The article explained what "wild china tree" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wild china tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

first stomach (noun)

The first compartment of the stomach of a ruminant; here food is collected and returned to the mouth as cud for chewing.

- The article explained what "first stomach" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "first stomach" during the group presentation.

flower people (noun)

A youth subculture (mostly from the middle class) originating in San Francisco in the 1960s; advocated universal love and peace and communes and long hair and soft drugs; favored acid rock and progressive rock music.

- In class, the teacher used "flower people" to mean a youth subculture (mostly from the middle class)....
- He looked up "flower people" because he had never seen it before.

green mountains (noun)

A range of the Appalachian Mountains that extends from south to north through Vermont.

- The article explained what "green mountains" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "green mountains" to mean a range of the appalachian mountains that extends....

new flower (noun)

The capital of Ethiopia and the country's largest city; located in central Ethiopia.

- The article explained what "new flower" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new flower."

old-man-of-the-woods (noun)

Edible mild-tasting mushroom found in coniferous woodlands of eastern North America.

- The article explained what "old-man-of-the-woods" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "old-man-of-the-woods" during the group presentation.

pacific coast (noun)

A coast of the Pacific Ocean.

- They discussed "pacific coast" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pacific coast."

range of mountains (noun)

A series of hills or mountains.

- The valley was between two ranges of hills.
- The plains lay just beyond the mountain range.

---

salt tree (noun)

Spiny shrub of the Caspian salt plains and Siberia having elegant silvery, downy young foliage and mildly fragrant pink-purple blooms.

- In class, the teacher used "salt tree" to mean spiny shrub of the caspian salt plains and siberia....
- Understanding "salt tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sea pink (noun)

Tufted thrift of seacoasts and mountains of north temperate zone; occasionally grown as a ground cover.

- They discussed "sea pink" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea pink."

---

sweet flag (noun)

Perennial marsh plant having swordlike leaves and aromatic roots.

- He looked up "sweet flag" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sweet flag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

agent orange (noun)

A herbicide used in the Vietnam War to defoliate forest areas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "agent orange."
- He looked up "agent orange" because he had never seen it before.

---

animal kingdom (noun)

Taxonomic kingdom comprising all living or extinct animals.

- They discussed "animal kingdom" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "animal kingdom" to mean taxonomic kingdom comprising all living or extinct....

---

baby tears (noun)

Prostrate or creeping Corsican herb with moss-like small round short-stemmed leaves.

- They discussed "baby tears" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baby tears."

---

columbia (noun)

A North American river; rises in southwestern Canada and flows southward across Washington to form the border between Washington and Oregon before emptying into the Pacific; known for its salmon runs in the spring.

- He looked up "columbia" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "columbia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

common rush (noun)

Tall rush with soft erect or arching stems found in Eurasia, Australia, New Zealand, and common in North America.

- The article explained what "common rush" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "common rush" to mean tall rush with soft erect or arching stems found in....

---

death angel (noun)

Extremely poisonous usually white fungus with a prominent cup-shaped base; differs from edible Agaricus only in its white gills.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "death angel."
- They discussed "death angel" during the group presentation.

---

draft animal (noun)

An animal used for pulling heavy loads.

- They discussed "draft animal" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "draft animal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electric ray (noun)

Any sluggish bottom-dwelling ray of the order Torpediniformes having a rounded body and electric organs on each side of the head capable of emitting strong electric discharges.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric ray."

- The article explained what “electric ray” means with a simple example.

---

forth (noun)

A river in southern Scotland that flows eastward to the Firth of Forth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “forth.”
- The article explained what “forth” means with a simple example.

---

jordan river (noun)

A river in Palestine that empties into the Dead Sea; John the Baptist baptized Jesus in the Jordan.

- He looked up “jordan river” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “jordan river” to mean a river in palestine that empties into the dead....

---

native bear (noun)

Sluggish tailless Australian arboreal marsupial with grey furry ears and coat; feeds on eucalyptus leaves and bark.

- The article explained what “native bear” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “native bear” to mean sluggish tailless australian arboreal marsupial....

---

rain forest (noun)

A forest with heavy annual rainfall.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rain forest.”
- The article explained what “rain forest” means with a simple example.

---

red cloud (noun)

Leader of the Oglala who resisted the development of a trail through Wyoming and Montana by the United States government (1822-1909).

- In class, the teacher used “red cloud” to mean leader of the oglala who resisted the development....
- He looked up “red cloud” because he had never seen it before.

---

rock pink (noun)

Pink-flowered perennial of rocky regions of western United States.

- The article explained what “rock pink” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rock pink.”

---

sun hat (noun)

A hat with a broad brim that protects the face from direct exposure to the sun.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sun hat.”
- Understanding “sun hat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wild orange (noun)

Small flowering evergreen tree of southern United States.

- Understanding “wild orange” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “wild orange” to mean small flowering evergreen tree of southern united....

---

wind bell (noun)

A decorative arrangement of pieces of metal or glass or pottery that hang together loosely so the wind can cause them to tinkle.

- They discussed “wind bell” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “wind bell” because he had never seen it before.

---

written document (noun)

Writing that provides information (especially information of an official nature).

- Understanding “written document” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “written document.”

---

african wild ass (noun)

A wild ass of Africa.

- They discussed “african wild ass” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “african wild ass” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

arab (noun)

A spirited graceful and intelligent riding horse native to Arabia.

- He looked up "arab" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "arab" during the group presentation.

atlantic (noun)

The 2nd largest ocean; separates North and South America on the west from Europe and Africa on the east.

- Understanding "atlantic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "atlantic" means with a simple example.

bottle tree (noun)

An Australian tree of the genus Brachychiton.

- He looked up "bottle tree" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bottle tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bottle-tree (noun)

An Australian tree of the genus Brachychiton.

- They discussed "bottle-tree" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bottle-tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electric storm (noun)

A storm resulting from strong rising air currents; heavy rain or hail along with thunder and lightning.

- In class, the teacher used "electric storm" to mean a storm resulting from strong rising air currents;....
- Understanding "electric storm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electrical power (noun)

The product of voltage and current.

- They discussed "electrical power" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "electrical power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flower head (noun)

A shortened compact cluster of flowers so arranged that the whole gives the effect of a single flower as in clover or members of the family Compositae.

- The article explained what "flower head" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "flower head" to mean a shortened compact cluster of flowers so arranged....

flower power (noun)

A counterculture of young people in the US during the 1960s and 70s.

- Understanding "flower power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "flower power" because he had never seen it before.

fruit tree (noun)

Tree bearing edible fruit.

- He looked up "fruit tree" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fruit tree."

golden rain (noun)

An ornamental shrub or tree of the genus Laburnum; often cultivated for Easter decorations.

- They discussed "golden rain" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "golden rain" because he had never seen it before.

great salt lake (noun)

A shallow body of salt water in northwestern Utah.

- He looked up "great salt lake" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "great salt lake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ice cap (noun)

A mass of ice and snow that permanently covers a large area of land (e.g., the polar regions or a mountain peak).

- The article explained what “ice cap” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “ice cap” during the group presentation.

---

moon ray (noun)

A ray of moonlight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “moon ray.”
- He looked up “moon ray” because he had never seen it before.

---

moon-ray (noun)

A ray of moonlight.

- Understanding “moon-ray” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “moon-ray” means with a simple example.

---

mountain chain (noun)

A series of hills or mountains.

- The plains lay just beyond the mountain range.
- In class, the teacher used “mountain chain” to mean a series of hills or mountains.

---

rare bird (noun)

A rare or unique person.

- They discussed “rare bird” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “rare bird” means with a simple example.

---

second stomach (noun)

The second compartment of the stomach of a ruminant.

- The article explained what “second stomach” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “second stomach” to mean the second compartment of the stomach of a ruminant.

---

shame plant (noun)

Prostrate or semi-erect subshrub of tropical America, and Australia; heavily armed with recurved thorns and having sensitive soft grey-green leaflets that fold and droop at night or when touched or cooled.

- The article explained what “shame plant” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “shame plant” to mean prostrate or semi-erect subshrub of tropical....

---

silver bell (noun)

Any of various deciduous trees of the genus Halesia having white bell-shaped flowers.

- He looked up “silver bell” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “silver bell.”

---

silver dollar (noun)

Southeastern European plant cultivated for its fragrant purplish flowers and round flat papery silver-white seedpods that are used for indoor decoration.

- They discussed “silver dollar” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “silver dollar” because he had never seen it before.

---

snow-on-the-mountain (noun)

Annual spurge of western United States having showy white-bracted flower clusters and very poisonous milk.

- The article explained what “snow-on-the-mountain” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “snow-on-the-mountain.”

---

tree branch (noun)

Any of the main branches arising from the trunk or a bough of a tree.

- In class, the teacher used “tree branch” to mean any of the main branches arising from the trunk or....
- The article explained what “tree branch” means with a simple example.

---

tree of heaven (noun)

Deciduous rapidly growing tree of China with foliage like sumac and sweetish fetid flowers; widely planted in United States as a street tree because of its resistance to pollution.

- Understanding “tree of heaven” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “tree of heaven” to mean deciduous rapidly growing tree of china with....

blue pointed (noun)

Common blue-grey shark of southwest Pacific; sport and food fish.

- They discussed "blue pointed" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "blue pointed" because he had never seen it before.

button tree (noun)

Evergreen tree or shrub with fruit resembling buttons and yielding heavy hard compact wood.

- He looked up "button tree" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "button tree" to mean evergreen tree or shrub with fruit resembling....

cloud bank (noun)

A layer of clouds seen from a distance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cloud bank."
- They discussed "cloud bank" during the group presentation.

draft horse (noun)

Horse adapted for drawing heavy loads.

- Understanding "draft horse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "draft horse."

flying fox (noun)

Large bat with a head that resembles the head of a fox.

- In class, the teacher used "flying fox" to mean large bat with a head that resembles the head of a fox.
- The article explained what "flying fox" means with a simple example.

hockey season (noun)

The season when hockey is played.

- He looked up "hockey season" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hockey season" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hunting season (noun)

The season during which it is legal to kill a particular species.

- In class, the teacher used "hunting season" to mean the season during which it is legal to kill a....
- The article explained what "hunting season" means with a simple example.

paper rush (noun)

Tall sedge of the Nile valley yielding fiber that served many purposes in historic times.

- He looked up "paper rush" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paper rush."

pride-of-india (noun)

Native to Asia, Australia, and East Indies, where it provides timber called pyinma; used elsewhere as an ornamental for its large showy flowers.

- Understanding "pride-of-india" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pride-of-india" during the group presentation.

rapid (noun)

A part of a river where the current is very fast.

- In class, the teacher used "rapid" to mean a part of a river where the current is very fast.
- They discussed "rapid" during the group presentation.

root system (noun)

A developed system of roots.

- The article explained what "root system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "root system" to mean a developed system of roots.

styles (noun)

A slender bristlelike or tubular process.

- He looked up "styles" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "styles" during the group presentation.

---

water dragon (noun)

Swamp plant of Europe and North America having bright yellow flowers resembling buttercups.

- Understanding "water dragon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "water dragon" because he had never seen it before.

---

american hop (noun)

Native American plant sometimes confused with the European hop.

- The article explained what "american hop" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american hop" to mean native american plant sometimes confused with the....

---

burn plant (noun)

Very short-stemmed plant with thick leaves with soothing mucilaginous juice; leaves develop spiny margins with maturity; native to Mediterranean region; grown widely in tropics and as houseplants.

- In class, the teacher used "burn plant" to mean very short-stemmed plant with thick leaves with....
- The article explained what "burn plant" means with a simple example.

---

california bay tree (noun)

Pacific coast tree having aromatic foliage and small umbellate flowers followed by olivelike fruit; yields a hard tough wood.

- In class, the teacher used "california bay tree" to mean pacific coast tree having aromatic foliage and....
- Understanding "california bay tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cloud cover (noun)

The state of the sky when it is covered by clouds.

- In class, the teacher used "cloud cover" to mean the state of the sky when it is covered by clouds.
- Understanding "cloud cover" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

creek (noun)

A natural stream of water smaller than a river (and often a tributary of a river).

- The creek dried up every summer.
- In class, the teacher used "creek" to mean a natural stream of water smaller than a river (and....

---

current electricity (noun)

A flow of electric charge.

- Understanding "current electricity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "current electricity" means with a simple example.

---

flower child (noun)

Someone who rejects the established culture; advocates extreme liberalism in politics and lifestyle.

- The article explained what "flower child" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "flower child" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flower girl (noun)

A young girl who carries flowers in a (wedding) procession.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flower girl."
- The article explained what "flower girl" means with a simple example.

---

flying bird (noun)

Birds having keeled breastbones for attachment of flight muscles.

- In class, the teacher used "flying bird" to mean birds having keeled breastbones for attachment of....
- They discussed "flying bird" during the group presentation.

---

indian paint (noun)

Perennial North American plant with greyish hairy foliage yielding a red or yellow pigment.

- They discussed "indian paint" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “indian paint.”

indian pink (noun)

North American lobelia having brilliant red flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “indian pink.”
- He looked up “indian pink” because he had never seen it before.

pride of california (noun)

Shrubby California perennial having large pink or violet flowers; cultivated as an ornamental.

- The article explained what “pride of california” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pride of california.”

raw weather (noun)

Unpleasantly cold and damp weather.

- He looked up “raw weather” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “raw weather” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

salt lake city (noun)

The capital and largest city of Utah; located near the Great Salt Lake in north central Utah; world capital of the Mormon Church.

- He looked up “salt lake city” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “salt lake city” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sky wave (noun)

A radio wave that is reflected back to earth by the ionosphere or a communications satellite; permits transmission around the curve of the earth’s surface.

- In class, the teacher used “sky wave” to mean a radio wave that is reflected back to earth by the....
- Understanding “sky wave” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

third stomach (noun)

The third compartment of the stomach of a ruminant.

- Understanding “third stomach” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “third stomach” during the group presentation.

tom turkey (noun)

Male turkey.

- In class, the teacher used “tom turkey” to mean male turkey.
- The article explained what “tom turkey” means with a simple example.

blow fly (noun)

Large usually hairy metallic blue or green fly; lays eggs in carrion or dung or wounds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blow fly.”
- They discussed “blow fly” during the group presentation.

colorado river (noun)

A river in Texas; flows southeast into the Gulf of Mexico.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “colorado river.”
- He looked up “colorado river” because he had never seen it before.

drove (noun)

A group of animals (a herd or flock) moving together.

- He looked up “drove” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “drove” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electrical energy (noun)

Energy made available by the flow of electric charge through a conductor.

- Understanding “electrical energy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “electrical energy” to mean energy made available by the flow of electric....

elizabeth river (noun)

A short river in southeastern Virginia flowing between Norfolk and Portsmouth into Hampton Roads.

- In class, the teacher used "elizabeth river" to mean a short river in southeastern virginia flowing....
- The article explained what "elizabeth river" means with a simple example.

---

golden chain (noun)

An ornamental shrub or tree of the genus Laburnum; often cultivated for Easter decorations.

- He looked up "golden chain" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golden chain."

---

grass family (noun)

The grasses: chiefly herbaceous but some woody plants including cereals; bamboo; reeds; sugar cane.

- In class, the teacher used "grass family" to mean the grasses: chiefly herbaceous but some woody....
- They discussed "grass family" during the group presentation.

---

lake michigan (noun)

The 3rd largest of the Great Lakes; the largest freshwater lake entirely within the United States borders.

- They discussed "lake michigan" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lake michigan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

new world jay (noun)

A North American jay.

- He looked up "new world jay" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new world jay."

---

silly season (noun)

A time usually late summer characterized by exaggerated news stories about frivolous matters for want of real news.

- Understanding "silly season" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "silly season" means with a simple example.

---

silver-tip (noun)

Powerful brownish-yellow bear of the uplands of western North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silver-tip."
- They discussed "silver-tip" during the group presentation.

---

solar wind (noun)

A stream of protons moving radially from the sun.

- The article explained what "solar wind" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "solar wind" to mean a stream of protons moving radially from the sun.

---

wisconsin (noun)

A tributary of the Mississippi River in Wisconsin.

- They discussed "wisconsin" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wisconsin."

---

bird feed (noun)

Food given to birds; usually mixed seeds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bird feed."
- He looked up "bird feed" because he had never seen it before.

---

blue mountain tea (noun)

Goldenrod of eastern America having aromatic leaves from which a medicinal tea is made.

- The article explained what "blue mountain tea" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue mountain tea."

---

christmas bush (noun)

Australian tree or shrub with red flowers; often used in Christmas decoration.

- In class, the teacher used "christmas bush" to mean australian tree or shrub with red flowers; often....
- Understanding "christmas bush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coast mountains (noun)

A string of mountain ranges along the Pacific coast of North America from southeastern Alaska to Lower California.

- In class, the teacher used "coast mountains" to mean a string of mountain ranges along the pacific coast....
- Understanding "coast mountains" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flower-of-an-hour (noun)

Annual weedy herb with ephemeral yellow purple-eyed flowers; Old World tropics; naturalized as a weed in North America.

- In class, the teacher used "flower-of-an-hour" to mean annual weedy herb with ephemeral yellow purple-eyed....
- The article explained what "flower-of-an-hour" means with a simple example.

---

indian chocolate (noun)

Erect perennial of north temperate zone having pinnate leaves and a few nodding flowers with a brown-purple calyx and orange and pink petals.

- The article explained what "indian chocolate" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "indian chocolate" during the group presentation.

---

lake edward (noun)

A lake in the Great Rift Valley between Congo and Uganda.

- Understanding "lake edward" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lake edward."

---

land rail (noun)

Common Eurasian rail that frequents grain fields.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "land rail."
- Understanding "land rail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leather (noun)

An animal skin made smooth and flexible by removing the hair and then tanning.

- The article explained what "leather" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "leather" to mean an animal skin made smooth and flexible by removing....

---

lee de forest (noun)

United States electrical engineer who in 1907 patented the first triode vacuum tube, which made it possible to detect and amplify radio waves (1873-1961).

- He looked up "lee de forest" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lee de forest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marine animal (noun)

Any of numerous animals inhabiting the sea including e.g. fishes and molluscs and many mammals.

- He looked up "marine animal" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "marine animal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

native orange (noun)

Small Australian tree bearing edible dark purple fruit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "native orange."
- He looked up "native orange" because he had never seen it before.

---

old world jay (noun)

A European jay.

- They discussed "old world jay" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old world jay."

---

outcome (noun)

A phenomenon that follows and is caused by some previous phenomenon.

- Understanding "outcome" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "outcome" because he had never seen it before.

rough fish (noun)

Any fish useless for food or sport or even as bait.

- They discussed "rough fish" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rough fish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

snow chain (noun)

Chain attached to wheels to increase traction on ice or snow.

- In class, the teacher used "snow chain" to mean chain attached to wheels to increase traction on....
- He looked up "snow chain" because he had never seen it before.

south atlantic (noun)

That part of the Atlantic Ocean to the south of the equator.

- The article explained what "south atlantic" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "south atlantic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

south sea islands (noun)

Any islands in the southern or southwestern of central parts of the Pacific Ocean.

- He looked up "south sea islands" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south sea islands."

storm troops (noun)

Nazi militia created by Hitler in 1921 that helped him to power but was eclipsed by the SS after 1943.

- He looked up "storm troops" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "storm troops" during the group presentation.

sun-loving (adjective)

(of plants) flourishing in strong sunlight.

- Students compared "sun-loving" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "sun-loving" when it is (of plants) flourishing in strong sunlight.

blood flower (noun)

Tropical herb having orange-red flowers followed by pods suggesting a swallow with outspread wings; a weed throughout the tropics.

- The article explained what "blood flower" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "blood flower" during the group presentation.

brown soft scale (noun)

Pest on citrus trees.

- Understanding "brown soft scale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "brown soft scale" to mean pest on citrus trees.

common hop (noun)

European twining plant whose flowers are used chiefly to flavor malt liquors; cultivated in America.

- In class, the teacher used "common hop" to mean european twining plant whose flowers are used....
- They discussed "common hop" during the group presentation.

cry-baby tree (noun)

Small South American spiny tree with dark crimson and scarlet flowers solitary or clustered.

- The article explained what "cry-baby tree" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cry-baby tree."

exhibition season (noun)

The time before the regular games begin when football or baseball teams play practice games.

- He looked up "exhibition season" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "exhibition season" during the group presentation.

flood (noun)

The rising of a body of water and its overflowing onto normally dry land.

- A flood of requests.
- A tide in the affairs of men which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune.

---

gold dust (noun)

The particles and flakes (and sometimes small nuggets) of gold obtained in placer mining.

- Understanding "gold dust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gold dust" during the group presentation.

---

hunting dog (noun)

A dog used in hunting game.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hunting dog."
- Understanding "hunting dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

illinois river (noun)

A river in Illinois that flows southwest to the Mississippi River.

- They discussed "illinois river" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "illinois river" because he had never seen it before.

---

japanese pink (noun)

A flowering variety of China pink distinguished by jagged-edged petals.

- The article explained what "japanese pink" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "japanese pink" during the group presentation.

---

means grass (noun)

Tall perennial grass that spreads by creeping rhizomes and is grown for fodder; naturalized in southern United States where it is a serious pest on cultivated land.

- He looked up "means grass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "means grass."

---

north atlantic (noun)

That part of the Atlantic Ocean to the north of the equator.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north atlantic."
- He looked up "north atlantic" because he had never seen it before.

---

pacific ocean (noun)

The largest ocean in the world.

- The article explained what "pacific ocean" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pacific ocean" to mean the largest ocean in the world.

---

rose pink (noun)

Any of several pink-flowered marsh plant of the eastern United States resembling a true centaury.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rose pink."
- The article explained what "rose pink" means with a simple example.

---

sea-ear (noun)

An abalone found near the Channel Islands.

- He looked up "sea-ear" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea-ear."

---

storm signal (noun)

A signal announcing the approach of a storm (particularly a storm of marked violence).

- They discussed "storm signal" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "storm signal" means with a simple example.

---

sun gear (noun)

The central gear in an epicyclic train.

- The article explained what "sun gear" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sun gear" to mean the central gear in an epicyclic train.

the flood (noun)

(Biblical) the great deluge that is said in the Book of Genesis to have occurred in the time of Noah; it was brought by God upon the earth because of the wickedness of human beings.

- The article explained what "the flood" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "the flood" during the group presentation.

visible light (noun)

(physics) electromagnetic radiation that can produce a visual sensation.

- The light was filtered through a soft glass window.
- He looked up "visible light" because he had never seen it before.

wheel tree (noun)

Eastern Australian tree widely cultivated as a shade tree and for its glossy leaves and circular clusters of showy red to orange-scarlet flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wheel tree."
- The article explained what "wheel tree" means with a simple example.

wild pink (noun)

A bog orchid with usually a solitary fragrant magenta pink blossom with a wide gaping corolla; Canada.

- He looked up "wild pink" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild pink."

wind energy facility (noun)

A power plant that uses wind turbines to generate electricity.

- The article explained what "wind energy facility" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wind energy facility" to mean a power plant that uses wind turbines to generate....

chocolate tree (noun)

Tropical American tree producing cacao beans.

- In class, the teacher used "chocolate tree" to mean tropical american tree producing cacao beans.
- Understanding "chocolate tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electric resistance (noun)

A material's opposition to the flow of electric current; measured in ohms.

- He looked up "electric resistance" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric resistance."

electrical line of force (noun)

A line of force in an electrical field.

- He looked up "electrical line of force" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrical line of force."

field cricket (noun)

Common American black cricket; attacks crops and also enters dwellings.

- They discussed "field cricket" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "field cricket."

flower bed (noun)

A bed in which flowers are growing.

- Understanding "flower bed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flower bed."

garden pink (noun)

Any of various flowers of plants of the genus Dianthus cultivated for their fragrant flowers.

- They discussed "garden pink" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "garden pink" because he had never seen it before.

green dragon (noun)

Early spring-flowering plant of eastern North America resembling the related jack-in-the-pulpit but having digitate leaves, slender greenish yellow spathe and elongated spadix.

- Understanding "green dragon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green dragon."

heat of formation (noun)

The heat evolved or absorbed during the formation of one mole of a substance from its component elements.

- Understanding "heat of formation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "heat of formation" to mean the heat evolved or absorbed during the formation....

mountain rice (noun)

Valuable forage grass of dry upland areas and plains of western North America to northern Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used "mountain rice" to mean valuable forage grass of dry upland areas and....
- The article explained what "mountain rice" means with a simple example.

paper flower (noun)

Brazilian vine that tends to flower continuously.

- They discussed "paper flower" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "paper flower" to mean brazilian vine that tends to flower continuously.

robin (noun)

Small Old World songbird with a reddish breast.

- He looked up "robin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robin."

root hair (noun)

Thin hairlike outgrowth of an epidermal cell just behind the tip; absorbs nutrients from the soil.

- He looked up "root hair" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "root hair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rose-apple tree (noun)

Tropical tree of the East Indies cultivated for its edible fruit.

- He looked up "rose-apple tree" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rose-apple tree."

short-grass (noun)

Any of various grasses that are short and can tolerate drought conditions; common on the dry upland plains just east of the Rocky Mountains.

- The article explained what "short-grass" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "short-grass" to mean any of various grasses that are short and can....

soft flag (noun)

Reed maces of America, Europe, North Africa, Asia.

- He looked up "soft flag" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "soft flag" during the group presentation.

soldier-fish (noun)

The larger squirrelfishes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soldier-fish."
- He looked up "soldier-fish" because he had never seen it before.

sun protection factor (noun)

The degree to which a sunscreen protects the skin from the direct rays of the sun.

- He looked up "sun protection factor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sun protection factor."

thick skin (noun)

Skin that is very thick (as an elephant or rhinoceros).

- He looked up "thick skin" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “thick skin.”

---

yellow flag (noun)

Common yellow-flowered iris of Europe and North Africa, naturalized in United States and often cultivated.

- In class, the teacher used “yellow flag” to mean common yellow-flowered iris of europe and north....
- Understanding “yellow flag” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

african grey (noun)

Commonly domesticated grey parrot with red-and-black tail and white face; native to equatorial Africa.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “african grey.”
- He looked up “african grey” because he had never seen it before.

---

bird-on-the-wing (noun)

Common trailing perennial milkwort of eastern North America having leaves like wintergreen and usually rosy-purple flowers with winged sepals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bird-on-the-wing.”
- Understanding “bird-on-the-wing” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cast-iron plant (noun)

Evergreen perennial with large handsome basal leaves; grown primarily as a foliage houseplant.

- They discussed “cast-iron plant” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “cast-iron plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cloud nine (noun)

A state of extreme happiness.

- The article explained what “cloud nine” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “cloud nine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

european hop (noun)

European twining plant whose flowers are used chiefly to flavor malt liquors; cultivated in America.

- He looked up “european hop” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “european hop” to mean european twining plant whose flowers are used....

---

jail bird (noun)

A criminal who has been jailed repeatedly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “jail bird.”
- He looked up “jail bird” because he had never seen it before.

---

june grass (noun)

Valuable meadow and pasture grass in Europe and especially central United States having tall stalks and slender bright green leaves; a chief constituent in lawn grass mixtures.

- Understanding “june grass” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “june grass” to mean valuable meadow and pasture grass in europe and....

---

morning glory (noun)

Any of various twining vines having funnel-shaped flowers that close late in the day.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “morning glory.”
- Understanding “morning glory” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mountain bike (noun)

A bicycle with a sturdy frame and fat tires; originally designed for riding in mountainous country.

- He looked up “mountain bike” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mountain bike.”

---

mountain peak (noun)

The summit of a mountain.

- He looked up “mountain peak” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “mountain peak” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

naked lady (noun)

Amaryllis of South Africa often cultivated for its fragrant white or rose flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “naked lady.”
- He looked up “naked lady” because he had never seen it before.

---

romantic movement (noun)

A movement in literature and art during the late 18th and early 19th centuries that celebrated nature rather than civilization.

- Romanticism valued imagination and emotion over rationality.
- He looked up “romantic movement” because he had never seen it before.

---

rush rose (noun)

Woody yellow-flowered perennial of southeastern United States.

- They discussed “rush rose” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “rush rose” to mean woody yellow-flowered perennial of southeastern....

---

sensitive plant (noun)

Semi-climbing prickly evergreen shrub of tropical America having compound leaves sensitive to light and touch.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sensitive plant.”
- Understanding “sensitive plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shall-flower (noun)

Cultivated for its shining oblong leaves and arching clusters of white flowers with pink shading and crinkled yellow lips with variegated magenta stripes.

- Understanding “shall-flower” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “shall-flower” during the group presentation.

---

silver-bush (noun)

Deciduous unarmed North American shrub with silvery leaves and fruits.

- In class, the teacher used “silver-bush” to mean deciduous unarmed north american shrub with silvery....
- Understanding “silver-bush” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sixth sense (noun)

Grasping the inner nature of things intuitively.

- In class, the teacher used “sixth sense” to mean grasping the inner nature of things intuitively.
- The article explained what “sixth sense” means with a simple example.

---

southern blue flag (noun)

Similar to blue flag; the eastern United States.

- He looked up “southern blue flag” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “southern blue flag” during the group presentation.

---

star grass (noun)

Perennial Australian grass having numerous long spikes arranged like the vanes of a windmill.

- He looked up “star grass” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “star grass.”

---

vital force (noun)

(biology) a hypothetical force (not physical or chemical) once thought by Henri Bergson to cause the evolution and development of organisms.

- They discussed “vital force” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “vital force” to mean (biology) a hypothetical force (not physical or....

---

weather chart (noun)

(meteorology) a map showing the principal meteorological elements at a given time and over an extended region.

- In class, the teacher used “weather chart” to mean (meteorology) a map showing the principal....
- The article explained what “weather chart” means with a simple example.

---

weather-bound (adjective)

Delayed or shut in by bad weather.

- Weather-bound traffic.
- Irritable weather-bound children.

white wolf (noun)

Wolf of Arctic North America having white fur and a black-tipped tail.

- The article explained what "white wolf" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white wolf."

wind gap (noun)

A pass in a mountain ridge with no stream flowing through it.

- He looked up "wind gap" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wind gap."

be on cloud nine (verb)

Feel extreme happiness or elation.

- Can you use "be on cloud nine" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "be on cloud nine" when talking about this idea.

blue grass (noun)

Any of various grasses of the genus Poa.

- He looked up "blue grass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue grass."

blue jay (noun)

Common jay of eastern North America; bright blue with grey breast.

- In class, the teacher used "blue jay" to mean common jay of eastern north america; bright blue....
- Understanding "blue jay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cloud-covered (adjective)

Filled or abounding with clouds.

- Students compared "cloud-covered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "cloud-covered"? Explain why.

columbia river (noun)

A North American river; rises in southwestern Canada and flows southward across Washington to form the border between Washington and Oregon before emptying into the Pacific; known for its salmon runs in the spring.

- In class, the teacher used "columbia river" to mean a north american river; rises in southwestern....
- They discussed "columbia river" during the group presentation.

forth river (noun)

A river in southern Scotland that flows eastward to the Firth of Forth.

- The article explained what "forth river" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "forth river" to mean a river in southern scotland that flows eastward to....

hanging fly (noun)

Any of various mecopterous insects of the family Bittacidae.

- The article explained what "hanging fly" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hanging fly" during the group presentation.

hot spell (noun)

A spell of hot weather.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hot spell."
- The article explained what "hot spell" means with a simple example.

lake superior (noun)

The largest freshwater lake in the world; the deepest of the Great Lakes.

- Understanding "lake superior" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lake superior" because he had never seen it before.

lincoln (noun)

Long-wooled mutton sheep originally from Lincolnshire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lincoln."
- Understanding "lincoln" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

medium wave (noun)

A radio wave with a wavelength between 100 and 1000 meters (a frequency between 300 kilohertz and 3000 kilohertz).

- He looked up "medium wave" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medium wave."

red poll (noun)

Hornless short-haired breed of beef and dairy cattle.

- In class, the teacher used "red poll" to mean hornless short-haired breed of beef and dairy cattle.
- The article explained what "red poll" means with a simple example.

red wolf (noun)

Reddish-grey wolf of southwestern North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red wolf."
- The article explained what "red wolf" means with a simple example.

ross sea (noun)

An arm of the southern Pacific Ocean in Antarctica.

- Understanding "ross sea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ross sea" to mean an arm of the southern pacific ocean in antarctica.

sun deck (noun)

An unroofed deck.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sun deck."
- Understanding "sun deck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

temple tree (noun)

Frangipani of India having an erect habit and conical form; grown in temple gardens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "temple tree."
- Understanding "temple tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

thread-fish (noun)

Fish having greatly elongated front rays on dorsal and anal fins.

- They discussed "thread-fish" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "thread-fish" to mean fish having greatly elongated front rays on dorsal....

wheel horse (noun)

A draft horse harnessed behind others and nearest the wheels of a vehicle.

- In class, the teacher used "wheel horse" to mean a draft horse harnessed behind others and nearest....
- Understanding "wheel horse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

white tail (noun)

Common North American deer; tail has a white underside.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white tail."
- He looked up "white tail" because he had never seen it before.

african gray (noun)

Commonly domesticated grey parrot with red-and-black tail and white face; native to equatorial Africa.

- The article explained what "african gray" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "african gray" to mean commonly domesticated grey parrot with....

american robin (noun)

Large American thrush having a rust-red breast and abdomen.

- He looked up "american robin" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "american robin" to mean large american thrush having a rust-red breast and....

---

angle of attack (noun)

The acute angle between the direction of the undisturbed relative wind and the chord of an airfoil.

- In class, the teacher used "angle of attack" to mean the acute angle between the direction of the....
- They discussed "angle of attack" during the group presentation.

---

beauty bush (noun)

Chinese deciduous shrub with yellow-throated pinkish flowers and bristly fruit; often cultivated as an ornamental.

- In class, the teacher used "beauty bush" to mean chinese deciduous shrub with yellow-throated....
- The article explained what "beauty bush" means with a simple example.

---

china grass (noun)

Tall perennial herb of tropical Asia with dark green leaves; cultivated for the fiber from its woody stems that resembles flax.

- They discussed "china grass" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "china grass" because he had never seen it before.

---

christmas flower (noun)

Tropical American plant having poisonous milk and showy tapering usually scarlet petallike leaves surrounding small yellow flowers.

- They discussed "christmas flower" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "christmas flower" because he had never seen it before.

---

dog grass (noun)

European grass spreading rapidly by creeping rhizomes; naturalized in North America as a weed.

- Understanding "dog grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dog grass" to mean european grass spreading rapidly by creeping....

---

fortune (noun)

An unknown and unpredictable phenomenon that leads to a favorable outcome.

- It was as if fortune guided his hand.
- Whatever my fortune may be.

---

hair grass (noun)

Fine-leaved aquatic spike rush; popular as aerator for aquariums.

- In class, the teacher used "hair grass" to mean fine-leaved aquatic spike rush; popular as aerator....
- The article explained what "hair grass" means with a simple example.

---

ice crystal (noun)

Small crystals of ice.

- The article explained what "ice crystal" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice crystal."

---

morning-glory family (noun)

Morning glory; bindweed; sweet potato; plants having trumpet-shaped flowers and a climbing or twining habit.

- He looked up "morning-glory family" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morning-glory family."

---

old world robin (noun)

Small Old World songbird with a reddish breast.

- The article explained what "old world robin" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "old world robin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

riding horse (noun)

A lightweight horse kept for riding only.

- Understanding "riding horse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “riding horse” because he had never seen it before.

---

rivers (noun)

A large natural stream of water (larger than a creek).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rivers.”
- The article explained what “rivers” means with a simple example.

---

rose hip (noun)

The fruit of a rose plant.

- Understanding “rose hip” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “rose hip” because he had never seen it before.

---

sea pen (noun)

Fleshy featherlike warm-water colonies.

- Understanding “sea pen” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “sea pen” means with a simple example.

---

star-glory (noun)

Tropical American annual climber having red (sometimes white) flowers and finely dissected leaves; naturalized in United States and elsewhere.

- In class, the teacher used “star-glory” to mean tropical american annual climber having red....
- The article explained what “star-glory” means with a simple example.

---

sweet orange tree (noun)

Probably native to southern China; widely cultivated as source of table and juice oranges.

- He looked up “sweet orange tree” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “sweet orange tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wonder flower (noun)

South African perennial with long-lasting spikes of white blossoms that are shipped in to Europe and America for use as winter cut flowers.

- He looked up “wonder flower” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “wonder flower” to mean south african perennial with long-lasting spikes of....

---

yard bird (noun)

A military recruit who is assigned menial tasks.

- They discussed “yard bird” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “yard bird” because he had never seen it before.

---

yellow water flag (noun)

Common yellow-flowered iris of Europe and North Africa, naturalized in United States and often cultivated.

- The article explained what “yellow water flag” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “yellow water flag” to mean common yellow-flowered iris of europe and north....

---

american star grass (noun)

Perennial star grass of North America.

- He looked up “american star grass” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “american star grass” to mean perennial star grass of north america.

---

biological group (noun)

A group of plants or animals.

- Understanding “biological group” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “biological group” because he had never seen it before.

---

earth-tongue (noun)

Any club-shaped fungus of the genus Geoglossum.

- They discussed “earth-tongue” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “earth-tongue” means with a simple example.

---

european house cricket (noun)

Lives in human dwellings; naturalized in parts of America.

- Understanding "european house cricket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "european house cricket."

---

garden egg (noun)

Hairy upright herb native to southeastern Asia but widely cultivated for its large glossy edible fruit commonly used as a vegetable.

- He looked up "garden egg" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "garden egg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

house mouse (noun)

Brownish-grey Old World mouse now a common household pest worldwide.

- They discussed "house mouse" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "house mouse" to mean brownish-grey old world mouse now a common....

---

lake victoria (noun)

The largest lake in Africa and the 2nd largest fresh water lake in the world; a headwaters reservoir for the Nile River.

- Understanding "lake victoria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lake victoria" to mean the largest lake in africa and the 2nd largest....

---

mountain pride (noun)

Mat-forming plant with deep pink flowers on short erect leafy stems; rocky places at high elevations from Oregon to California.

- They discussed "mountain pride" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mountain pride."

---

new world mouse (noun)

A variety of rodent.

- They discussed "new world mouse" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new world mouse."

---

plant virus (noun)

A plant pathogen that is a virus consisting of a single strand of RNA.

- He looked up "plant virus" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "plant virus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rain shower (noun)

A brief period of precipitation.

- The game was interrupted by a brief shower.
- In class, the teacher used "rain shower" to mean a brief period of precipitation.

---

water star grass (noun)

Grassy-leaved North American aquatic plant with yellow star-shaped blossoms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water star grass."
- The article explained what "water star grass" means with a simple example.

---

wind exposure (noun)

Exposure to the wind (as the exposed part of a vessel's hull which is responsible for wind resistance).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wind exposure."
- The article explained what "wind exposure" means with a simple example.

---

canada jay (noun)

A jay of northern North America with black-capped head and no crest; noted for boldness in thievery.

- Understanding "canada jay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canada jay."

---

chemical bond (noun)

An electrical force linking atoms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chemical bond.”
- He looked up “chemical bond” because he had never seen it before.

---

cold spell (noun)

A spell of cold weather.

- He looked up “cold spell” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “cold spell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

desert plant (noun)

Plant adapted for life with a limited supply of water; compare hydrophyte and mesophyte.

- He looked up “desert plant” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “desert plant” to mean plant adapted for life with a limited supply of....

---

dragon tree (noun)

Tall tree of the Canary Islands; source of dragon’s blood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dragon tree.”
- They discussed “dragon tree” during the group presentation.

---

drop-seed (noun)

A grass of the genus Sporobolus.

- They discussed “drop-seed” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “drop-seed.”

---

fourth stomach (noun)

The fourth compartment of the stomach of a ruminant; the one where digestion takes place.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fourth stomach.”
- The article explained what “fourth stomach” means with a simple example.

---

kansas river (noun)

A river in northeastern Kansas; flows eastward to become a tributary of the Missouri River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “kansas river.”
- He looked up “kansas river” because he had never seen it before.

---

mechanical energy (noun)

Energy in a mechanical form.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mechanical energy.”
- Understanding “mechanical energy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

painted cup (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Castilleja having dense spikes of hooded flowers with brightly colored bracts.

- The article explained what “painted cup” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “painted cup” to mean any of various plants of the genus castilleja....

---

pot plant (noun)

A plant suitable for growing in a flowerpot (especially indoors).

- Understanding “pot plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “pot plant” because he had never seen it before.

---

quick grass (noun)

European grass spreading rapidly by creeping rhizomes; naturalized in North America as a weed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “quick grass.”
- The article explained what “quick grass” means with a simple example.

---

saint john river (noun)

A river that rises in Maine and flows northeastward through New Brunswick to empty into the Bay of Fundy.

- In class, the teacher used “saint john river” to mean a river that rises in maine and flows northeastward....
- Understanding “saint john river” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sand cat (noun)

A desert wildcat.

- He looked up "sand cat" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sand cat" during the group presentation.

slow virus (noun)

A virus that remains dormant in the body for a long time before symptoms appear.

- Kuru is caused by a slow virus.
- He looked up "slow virus" because he had never seen it before.

snow-blind (verb)

Affect with snow blindness.

- The glare of the sun snow-blinded her.
- Can you use "snow-blind" in a sentence that fits this situation?

theory of evolution (noun)

(biology) a scientific theory of the origin of species of plants and animals.

- The article explained what "theory of evolution" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "theory of evolution" to mean (biology) a scientific theory of the origin of....

weather bureau (noun)

An administrative unit responsible for gathering and interpreting meteorological data for weather study and forecasts.

- In class, the teacher used "weather bureau" to mean an administrative unit responsible for gathering....
- They discussed "weather bureau" during the group presentation.

weather deck (noun)

Upper deck having no overhead protection from the weather, but sheltering the deck below.

- The article explained what "weather deck" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "weather deck" to mean upper deck having no overhead protection from the....

white rocket (noun)

From Mediterranean region; a naturalized weed throughout southern Europe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white rocket."
- He looked up "white rocket" because he had never seen it before.

wisconsin river (noun)

A tributary of the Mississippi River in Wisconsin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wisconsin river."
- He looked up "wisconsin river" because he had never seen it before.

animal virus (noun)

An animal pathogen that is a virus.

- The article explained what "animal virus" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "animal virus."

beach grass (noun)

Tough grasses with strong roots that can grow on exposed sandy shores.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beach grass."
- He looked up "beach grass" because he had never seen it before.

blue bull (noun)

Large Indian antelope; male is blue-grey with white markings; female is brownish with no horns.

- They discussed "blue bull" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "blue bull" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bush lawyer (noun)

Stout-stemmed trailing shrub of New Zealand that scrambles over other growth.

- He looked up "bush lawyer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bush lawyer" during the group presentation.

---

chain of mountains (noun)

A series of hills or mountains.

- In class, the teacher used "chain of mountains" to mean a series of hills or mountains.
- He looked up "chain of mountains" because he had never seen it before.

---

detroit river (noun)

A short river flowing from Lake St. Clair to Lake Erie along the border between the United States and Canada; one the busiest inland waterways in the world.

- The article explained what "detroit river" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "detroit river."

---

friendship plant (noun)

Low stingless nettle of Central and South America having velvety brownish-green toothed leaves and clusters of small green flowers.

- They discussed "friendship plant" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "friendship plant" to mean low stingless nettle of central and south america....

---

lawyer bush (noun)

Stout-stemmed trailing shrub of New Zealand that scrambles over other growth.

- He looked up "lawyer bush" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lawyer bush" during the group presentation.

---

mountain trail (noun)

A trail through mountainous country.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mountain trail."
- The article explained what "mountain trail" means with a simple example.

---

murray (noun)

A southeast Australian river; flows westward and then south into the Indian Ocean at Adelaide.

- In class, the teacher used "murray" to mean a southeast australian river; flows westward and....
- He looked up "murray" because he had never seen it before.

---

rain cloud (noun)

A dark grey cloud bearing rain.

- The article explained what "rain cloud" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "rain cloud" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rain-wash (noun)

The washing away of soil or other loose material by rain.

- In class, the teacher used "rain-wash" to mean the washing away of soil or other loose material by....
- The article explained what "rain-wash" means with a simple example.

---

red morning-glory (noun)

Annual herb having scarlet flowers; the eastern United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red morning-glory."
- Understanding "red morning-glory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rose-root (noun)

Eurasian mountain plant with fleshy pink-tipped leaves and a cluster of yellow flowers.

- Understanding "rose-root" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "rose-root" means with a simple example.

---

sand fly (noun)

Any of various small dipterous flies; bloodsucking females can transmit sandfly fever and leishmaniasis.

- They discussed "sand fly" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what “sand fly” means with a simple example.

---

sea wolf (noun)

Predatory black-and-white toothed whale with large dorsal fin; common in cold seas.

- They discussed “sea wolf” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “sea wolf” means with a simple example.

---

smoke bush (noun)

Any of several shrubs or shrubby trees of the genus Cotinus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “smoke bush.”
- They discussed “smoke bush” during the group presentation.

---

soft rush (noun)

Tall rush with soft erect or arching stems found in Eurasia, Australia, New Zealand, and common in North America.

- Understanding “soft rush” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “soft rush.”

---

sugar-bush (noun)

Evergreen shrub of southeastern United States with spikes of reddish yellow flowers and glandular hairy fruits.

- They discussed “sugar-bush” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “sugar-bush” means with a simple example.

---

sweet grass (noun)

Any of several moisture-loving grasses of the genus Glyceria having sweet flavor or odor.

- In class, the teacher used “sweet grass” to mean any of several moisture-loving grasses of the genus....
- They discussed “sweet grass” during the group presentation.

---

tree of the gods (noun)

Deciduous rapidly growing tree of China with foliage like sumac and sweetish fetid flowers; widely planted in United States as a street tree because of its resistance to pollution.

- The article explained what “tree of the gods” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “tree of the gods” to mean deciduous rapidly growing tree of china with....

---

true seal (noun)

Any of several seals lacking external ear flaps and having a stiff hairlike coat with hind limbs reduced to swimming flippers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “true seal.”
- Understanding “true seal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

virginia spring beauty (noun)

Small cormous perennial grown for its low rosette of succulent foliage and racemes of pink-tinged white flowers; eastern North America.

- He looked up “virginia spring beauty” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “virginia spring beauty.”

---

water-shield (noun)

Common aquatic plant of eastern North America having floating and submerged leaves and white yellow-spotted flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water-shield.”
- He looked up “water-shield” because he had never seen it before.

---

weather sheet (noun)

(nautical) a line (rope or chain) that regulates the angle at which a sail is set in relation to the wind.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “weather sheet.”
- Understanding “weather sheet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wild flower (noun)

Wild or uncultivated flowering plant.

- The article explained what “wild flower” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “wild flower” to mean wild or uncultivated flowering plant.

---

acid rain (noun)

Rain containing acids that form in the atmosphere when industrial gas emissions (especially sulfur dioxide and nitrogen oxides) combine with water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acid rain."
- They discussed "acid rain" during the group presentation.

---

angels (noun)

The highest waterfall; has more than one leap; flow varies seasonally.

- He looked up "angels" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "angels" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

anime (noun)

A hard copal derived from an African tree.

- In class, the teacher used "anime" to mean a hard copal derived from an african tree.
- He looked up "anime" because he had never seen it before.

---

atlantic coast (noun)

A coast of the Atlantic Ocean.

- Understanding "atlantic coast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "atlantic coast" means with a simple example.

---

autumn (noun)

The season when the leaves fall from the trees.

- In class, the teacher used "autumn" to mean the season when the leaves fall from the trees.
- The article explained what "autumn" means with a simple example.

---

common morning glory (noun)

Pantropical annual climbing herb with funnel-shaped blue, purple, pink or white flowers.

- He looked up "common morning glory" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "common morning glory" to mean pantropical annual climbing herb with funnel-shaped....

---

desert rose (noun)

South African shrub having a swollen succulent stem and bearing showy pink and white flowers after the leaves fall; popular as an ornamental in tropics.

- He looked up "desert rose" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "desert rose."

---

field mouse (noun)

Any nocturnal Old World mouse of the genus Apodemus inhabiting woods and fields and gardens.

- The article explained what "field mouse" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "field mouse" to mean any nocturnal old world mouse of the genus apodemus....

---

flower garden (noun)

A garden featuring flowering plants.

- He looked up "flower garden" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "flower garden" to mean a garden featuring flowering plants.

---

golden gate (noun)

A strait in western California that connects the San Francisco Bay with the Pacific Ocean; discovered in 1579 by Sir Francis Drake.

- Understanding "golden gate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "golden gate" during the group presentation.

---

grey fox (noun)

Dark grey American fox; from Central America through southern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "grey fox" to mean dark grey american fox; from central america....
- The article explained what "grey fox" means with a simple example.

---

honey plant (noun)

A plant that furnishes nectar suitable for making honey.

- In class, the teacher used "honey plant" to mean a plant that furnishes nectar suitable for making honey.
- He looked up "honey plant" because he had never seen it before.

---

japanese hop (noun)

Ornamental vine native to eastern Asia; cultivated for its variegated foliage.

- He looked up "japanese hop" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese hop."

---

knife-handle (noun)

Marine clam having a long narrow curved thin shell.

- Understanding "knife-handle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "knife-handle" to mean marine clam having a long narrow curved thin shell.

---

knock-on effect (noun)

A secondary or incidental effect.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "knock-on effect."
- He looked up "knock-on effect" because he had never seen it before.

---

missouri (noun)

The longest river in the United States; arises in Montana and flows southeastward to become a tributary of the Mississippi at Saint Louis.

- The Missouri and Mississippi Rivers together form the third longest river in the world.
- The article explained what "missouri" means with a simple example.

---

per se (adverb)

With respect to its inherent nature.

- This statement is interesting per se.
- The narrator describes the scene "per se" in the final chapter.

---

pitch apple (noun)

A common tropical American clusia having solitary white or rose flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "pitch apple" to mean a common tropical american clusia having solitary....
- They discussed "pitch apple" during the group presentation.

---

red bat (noun)

North American bat of a brick or rusty red color with hairs tipped with white.

- He looked up "red bat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red bat."

---

reduction division (noun)

(genetics) cell division that produces reproductive cells in sexually reproducing organisms; the nucleus divides into four nuclei each containing half the chromosome number (leading to gametes in animals and spores in plants).

- Understanding "reduction division" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "reduction division" because he had never seen it before.

---

sand martin (noun)

Swallow of the northern hemisphere that nests in tunnels dug in clay or sand banks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sand martin."
- He looked up "sand martin" because he had never seen it before.

---

sea robin (noun)

American gurnard; mostly found in bays and estuaries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea robin."
- He looked up "sea robin" because he had never seen it before.

---

seed plant (noun)

Plant that reproduces by means of seeds not spores.

- Understanding "seed plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "seed plant" during the group presentation.

silver-bell tree (noun)

Medium-sized tree of West Virginia to Florida and Texas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silver-bell tree."
- He looked up "silver-bell tree" because he had never seen it before.

spectrum (noun)

An ordered array of the components of an emission or wave.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spectrum."
- He looked up "spectrum" because he had never seen it before.

stone root (noun)

Erect perennial strong-scented with serrate pointed leaves and a loose panicle of yellowish flowers; the eastern United States.

- They discussed "stone root" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "stone root" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stone-root (noun)

Erect perennial strong-scented with serrate pointed leaves and a loose panicle of yellowish flowers; the eastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "stone-root" to mean erect perennial strong-scented with serrate pointed....
- Understanding "stone-root" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tongue-fish (noun)

Left-eyed marine flatfish whose tail tapers to a point; of little commercial value.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tongue-fish."
- They discussed "tongue-fish" during the group presentation.

tree cricket (noun)

Pale arboreal American cricket noted for loud stridulation.

- They discussed "tree cricket" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tree cricket" means with a simple example.

water-shield family (noun)

In some classifications considered an independent family of water lilies; comprises the genera Cabomba and Brasenia.

- The article explained what "water-shield family" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "water-shield family" to mean in some classifications considered an independent....

wild hop (noun)

Bryony having fleshy roots pale green flowers and very small red berries; Europe; North Africa; western Asia.

- They discussed "wild hop" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wild hop" because he had never seen it before.

ac (noun)

An electric current that reverses direction sinusoidally.

- In the US most household current is AC at 60 cycles per second.
- He looked up "ac" because he had never seen it before.

adams (noun)

A mountain peak in southwestern Washington in the Cascade Range (12,307 feet high).

- Understanding "adams" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "adams" means with a simple example.

american copper (noun)

Common copper butterfly of central and eastern North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american copper."
- He looked up "american copper" because he had never seen it before.

black bass (noun)

Bluish black-striped sea bass of the Atlantic coast of the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "black bass" to mean bluish black-striped sea bass of the atlantic coast....
- The article explained what "black bass" means with a simple example.

---

church mouse (noun)

A fictional mouse created by Lewis Carroll.

- He looked up "church mouse" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "church mouse" to mean a fictional mouse created by lewis carroll.

---

common european jay (noun)

Fawn-colored jay with black-and-white crest and blue-and-black wings.

- He looked up "common european jay" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common european jay."

---

common seal (noun)

Small spotted seal of coastal waters of the northern hemisphere.

- He looked up "common seal" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "common seal" to mean small spotted seal of coastal waters of the....

---

grass tree (noun)

Gaunt Tasmanian evergreen shrubby tree with slender tapering leaves 3 to 5 feet long.

- In class, the teacher used "grass tree" to mean gaunt tasmanian evergreen shrubby tree with slender....
- They discussed "grass tree" during the group presentation.

---

king devil (noun)

European hawkweed introduced into northeastern United States; locally troublesome weeds.

- They discussed "king devil" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "king devil."

---

little missouri (noun)

A river that rises in northeastern Wyoming and flows through Montana and South Dakota to join the Missouri River in North Dakota.

- They discussed "little missouri" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "little missouri" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mexican fire plant (noun)

Poinsettia of United States and eastern Mexico; often confused with Euphorbia heterophylla.

- In class, the teacher used "mexican fire plant" to mean poinsettia of united states and eastern mexico;....
- Understanding "mexican fire plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rain shadow (noun)

An area that has little precipitation because some barrier causes the winds to lose their moisture before reaching it.

- In class, the teacher used "rain shadow" to mean an area that has little precipitation because some....
- The article explained what "rain shadow" means with a simple example.

---

sign manual (noun)

The signature of a sovereign on an official document.

- They discussed "sign manual" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sign manual" to mean the signature of a sovereign on an official document.

---

signature (noun)

The sharps or flats that follow the clef and indicate the key.

- In class, the teacher used "signature" to mean the sharps or flats that follow the clef and....
- They discussed "signature" during the group presentation.

---

storm cloud (noun)

A heavy dark cloud presaging rain or a storm.

- He looked up "storm cloud" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "storm cloud" to mean a heavy dark cloud presaging rain or a storm.

---

time signature (noun)

A musical notation indicating the number of beats to a measure and kind of note that takes a beat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "time signature."
- Understanding "time signature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tree-shaped (adjective)

Resembling a tree in form and branching structure.

- Would you call this situation "tree-shaped"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tree-shaped."

---

violent storm (noun)

A violent weather condition with winds 64-72 knots (11 on the Beaufort scale) and precipitation and thunder and lightning.

- He looked up "violent storm" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "violent storm" during the group presentation.

---

western wall flower (noun)

Biennial or short-lived perennial prairie rocket having orange-yellow flowers; western North America to Minnesota and Kansas; sometimes placed in genus Cheiranthus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western wall flower."
- The article explained what "western wall flower" means with a simple example.

---

african monitor (noun)

Destroys crocodile eggs.

- Understanding "african monitor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "african monitor" during the group presentation.

---

blue devil (noun)

A coarse prickly European weed with spikes of blue flowers; naturalized in United States.

- He looked up "blue devil" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue devil."

---

blue stem (noun)

Tall grass with smooth bluish leaf sheaths grown for hay in the United States.

- The article explained what "blue stem" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue stem."

---

button pink (noun)

Much-branched pink with flowers in clusters; closely related to sweet William.

- In class, the teacher used "button pink" to mean much-branched pink with flowers in clusters;....
- The article explained what "button pink" means with a simple example.

---

coat tree (noun)

An upright pole with pegs or hooks on which to hang clothing.

- They discussed "coat tree" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "coat tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cotton plant (noun)

Erect bushy mallow plant or small tree bearing bolls containing seeds with many long hairy fibers.

- Understanding "cotton plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cotton plant" means with a simple example.

---

electrical capacity (noun)

An electrical phenomenon whereby an electric charge is stored.

- In class, the teacher used "electrical capacity" to mean an electrical phenomenon whereby an electric charge....
- The article explained what "electrical capacity" means with a simple example.

---

english sole (noun)

Popular pale brown food flatfish of the Pacific coast of North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english sole."
- He looked up "english sole" because he had never seen it before.

---

golden thread (noun)

Low-growing perennial of North America woodlands having trifoliate leaves and yellow rootstock and white flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golden thread."
- The article explained what "golden thread" means with a simple example.

---

grass tree family (noun)

One of many subfamilies into which some classification systems subdivide the Liliaceae but not widely accepted.

- Understanding "grass tree family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "grass tree family" during the group presentation.

---

gray fox (noun)

Dark grey American fox; from Central America through southern United States.

- Understanding "gray fox" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "gray fox" to mean dark grey american fox; from central america....

---

kentucky blue (noun)

Valuable meadow and pasture grass in Europe and especially central United States having tall stalks and slender bright green leaves; a chief constituent in lawn grass mixtures.

- Understanding "kentucky blue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "kentucky blue" because he had never seen it before.

---

line spectrum (noun)

A spectrum in which energy is concentrated at particular wavelengths; produced by excited atoms and ions as they fall back to a lower energy level.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line spectrum."
- They discussed "line spectrum" during the group presentation.

---

mexican tea (noun)

Eurasian aromatic oak-leaved goosefoot with many yellow-green flowers; naturalized North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mexican tea."
- The article explained what "mexican tea" means with a simple example.

---

reactions (noun)

A response that reveals a person's feelings or attitude.

- Understanding "reactions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "reactions" means with a simple example.

---

salt rush (noun)

Rush of the Pacific coast of North America.

- In class, the teacher used "salt rush" to mean rush of the pacific coast of north america.
- They discussed "salt rush" during the group presentation.

---

sauce-alone (noun)

European herb that smells like garlic.

- The article explained what "sauce-alone" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sauce-alone" to mean european herb that smells like garlic.

---

sea mouse (noun)

Any of several large worms having a broad flattened body with a mat of coarse hairs covering the back.

- He looked up "sea mouse" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea mouse."

---

sea-rocket (noun)

Salt-tolerant seashore annual grown for its fragrant rose or violet flowers and fleshy grey-green foliage.

- He looked up "sea-rocket" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sea-rocket" during the group presentation.

---

silver grass (noun)

Of Australia and New Zealand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silver grass."
- The article explained what "silver grass" means with a simple example.

---

strong interaction (noun)

(physics) the interaction that binds protons and neutrons together in the nuclei of atoms; mediated by gluons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strong interaction."
- He looked up "strong interaction" because he had never seen it before.

---

toy dog (noun)

Any of several breeds of very small dogs kept purely as pets.

- He looked up "toy dog" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "toy dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tube foot (noun)

Tentacular tubular process of most echinoderms (starfish and sea urchins and holothurians) having a sucker at the end and used for e.g. locomotion and respiration.

- He looked up "tube foot" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tube foot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

two-wing flying fish (noun)

Having only pectoral fins enlarged.

- They discussed "two-wing flying fish" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "two-wing flying fish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wall rocket (noun)

Yellow-flowered European plant that grows on old walls and in waste places; an adventive weed in North America.

- Understanding "wall rocket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wall rocket" during the group presentation.

---

weather strip (noun)

A narrow strip of material to cover the joint of a door or window to exclude the cold.

- Understanding "weather strip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weather strip."

---

wolf fish (noun)

Large ferocious northern deep-sea food fishes with strong teeth and no pelvic fins.

- He looked up "wolf fish" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wolf fish."

---

angel falls (noun)

The highest waterfall; has more than one leap; flow varies seasonally.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "angel falls."
- Understanding "angel falls" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

apparent movement (noun)

An optical illusion of motion produced by viewing a rapid succession of still pictures of a moving object.

- The cinema relies on apparent motion.
- The succession of flashing lights gave an illusion of movement.

---

blue jet (noun)

Atmospheric discharges (lasting 10 msec) bursting from the tops of giant storm clouds in blue cones that widen as they flash upward.

- They discussed "blue jet" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue jet."

cape forget-me-not (noun)

Anchusa of southern Africa having blue to red-purple flowers.

- The article explained what "cape forget-me-not" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cape forget-me-not" during the group presentation.

china clay (noun)

A fine usually white clay formed by the weathering of aluminous minerals (as feldspar); used in ceramics and as an absorbent and as a filler (e.g., in paper).

- In class, the teacher used "china clay" to mean a fine usually white clay formed by the weathering....
- He looked up "china clay" because he had never seen it before.

crystal tea (noun)

Evergreen shrub of eastern North America having white or creamy bell-shaped flowers and dark green hairy leaves used for tea during American Revolution.

- In class, the teacher used "crystal tea" to mean evergreen shrub of eastern north america having....
- The article explained what "crystal tea" means with a simple example.

european sole (noun)

Highly valued as food.

- He looked up "european sole" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "european sole."

flying dragon (noun)

Any of several small tropical Asian lizards capable of gliding by spreading winglike membranes on each side of the body.

- Understanding "flying dragon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flying dragon."

four-wing flying fish (noun)

Having both pectoral and pelvic fins enlarged.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "four-wing flying fish."
- He looked up "four-wing flying fish" because he had never seen it before.

hair seal (noun)

Any of several seals lacking external ear flaps and having a stiff hairlike coat with hind limbs reduced to swimming flippers.

- The article explained what "hair seal" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hair seal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

midnight sun (noun)

The sun visible at midnight (inside the Arctic or Antarctic Circles).

- Understanding "midnight sun" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "midnight sun."

radiation field (noun)

A field that represents the energy lost from the radiator to space.

- The article explained what "radiation field" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "radiation field" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ray flower (noun)

Small flower with a flat strap-shaped corolla usually occupying the peripheral rings of a composite flower.

- They discussed "ray flower" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ray flower."

tree cotton (noun)

East Indian shrub cultivated especially for ornament for its pale yellow to deep purple blossoms.

- They discussed "tree cotton" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tree cotton" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

virtual image (noun)

A reflected optical image (as seen in a plane mirror).

- Understanding "virtual image" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "virtual image" during the group presentation.

---

yellow root (noun)

Perennial herb of northeastern United States having a thick knotted yellow rootstock and large rounded leaves.

- In class, the teacher used "yellow root" to mean perennial herb of northeastern united states having....
- He looked up "yellow root" because he had never seen it before.

---

accidentally (adverb)

Of a minor or subordinate nature.

- They met accidentally.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "accidentally" naturally.

---

action spectrum (noun)

The efficiency with which electromagnetic radiation produces a photochemical reaction plotted as a function of the wavelength of the radiation.

- They discussed "action spectrum" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "action spectrum" to mean the efficiency with which electromagnetic radiation....

---

atlantic ocean (noun)

The 2nd largest ocean; separates North and South America on the west from Europe and Africa on the east.

- In class, the teacher used "atlantic ocean" to mean the 2nd largest ocean; separates north and south....
- They discussed "atlantic ocean" during the group presentation.

---

bay grass (noun)

Any of various grasses of the genus Eragrostis; specially useful for forage and for the prevention of erosion.

- He looked up "bay grass" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bay grass" to mean any of various grasses of the genus eragrostis;....

---

beach morning glory (noun)

A prostrate perennial of coastal sand dunes Florida to Texas.

- He looked up "beach morning glory" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "beach morning glory" to mean a prostrate perennial of coastal sand dunes florida....

---

brown bat (noun)

Any of numerous medium to small insectivorous bats found worldwide in caves and trees and buildings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brown bat."
- He looked up "brown bat" because he had never seen it before.

---

carolina spring beauty (noun)

Similar to Claytonia virginica but having usually pink flowers; eastern North America.

- In class, the teacher used "carolina spring beauty" to mean similar to claytonia virginica but having usually....
- The article explained what "carolina spring beauty" means with a simple example.

---

cotton rose (noun)

Any plant of the genus Filago having capitate clusters of small woolly flower heads.

- Understanding "cotton rose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cotton rose."

---

dust storm (noun)

A windstorm that lifts up clouds of dust or sand.

- It was the kind of duster not experienced in years.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dust storm."

---

electrical storm (noun)

A storm resulting from strong rising air currents; heavy rain or hail along with thunder and lightning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrical storm."

- He looked up “electrical storm” because he had never seen it before.

---

english-weed (noun)

South African bulbous wood sorrel with showy yellow flowers.

- In class, the teacher used “english-weed” to mean south african bulbous wood sorrel with showy yellow....
- He looked up “english-weed” because he had never seen it before.

---

flower chain (noun)

Flowers strung together in a chain.

- Understanding “flower chain” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “flower chain” during the group presentation.

---

honey guide (noun)

Small bird of tropical Africa and Asia; feeds on beeswax and honey and larvae.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “honey guide.”
- He looked up “honey guide” because he had never seen it before.

---

johnson grass (noun)

Tall perennial grass that spreads by creeping rhizomes and is grown for fodder; naturalized in southern United States where it is a serious pest on cultivated land.

- They discussed “johnson grass” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “johnson grass” to mean tall perennial grass that spreads by creeping....

---

kit fox (noun)

Small grey fox of the plains of western North America.

- The article explained what “kit fox” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “kit fox” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

moon shell (noun)

Marine gastropods having smooth rounded shells that form short spires.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “moon shell.”
- They discussed “moon shell” during the group presentation.

---

plant tissue (noun)

The tissue of a plant.

- Understanding “plant tissue” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “plant tissue” because he had never seen it before.

---

streaming (noun)

The circulation of cytoplasm within a cell.

- He looked up “streaming” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “streaming.”

---

tall yellow-eye (noun)

Of Australia.

- The article explained what “tall yellow-eye” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tall yellow-eye.”

---

weather satellite (noun)

A satellite that transmits frequent picture of the earth below.

- They discussed “weather satellite” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “weather satellite” because he had never seen it before.

---

wild cotton (noun)

Shrub of southern Arizona and Mexico.

- They discussed “wild cotton” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “wild cotton” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

winds (noun)

A tendency or force that influences events.

- The winds of change.
- Trees bent under the fierce winds.

---

x-radiation (noun)

Electromagnetic radiation of short wavelength produced when high-speed electrons strike a solid target.

- He looked up "x-radiation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "x-radiation."

---

african hunting dog (noun)

A powerful doglike mammal of southern and eastern Africa that hunts in large packs; now rare in settled area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "african hunting dog."
- The article explained what "african hunting dog" means with a simple example.

---

bear grass (noun)

Plant of western North America having woody rhizomes and tufts of stiff grasslike basal leaves and spikes of creamy white flowers.

- Understanding "bear grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bear grass."

---

big brown bat (noun)

Rather large North American brown bat; widely distributed.

- The article explained what "big brown bat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "big brown bat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bow-wow (noun)

Informal terms for dogs.

- Understanding "bow-wow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bow-wow" during the group presentation.

---

by artificial means (adverb)

Not according to nature; not by natural means.

- Artificially induced conditions.
- Using "by artificial means" can make your explanation more exact.

---

count fleet (noun)

Thoroughbred that won the triple crown in 1943.

- The article explained what "count fleet" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "count fleet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crazy weed (noun)

Any of several leguminous plants of western North America causing locoism in livestock.

- He looked up "crazy weed" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "crazy weed" during the group presentation.

---

french weed (noun)

Foetid Eurasian weed having round flat pods; naturalized throughout North America.

- The article explained what "french weed" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "french weed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gravity (noun)

(physics) the force of attraction between all masses in the universe; especially the attraction of the earth's mass for bodies near its surface; ; ; –Albert Einstein.

- The more remote the body the less the gravity.
- In class, the teacher used "gravity" to mean (physics) the force of attraction between all....

---

honey bear (noun)

Arboreal fruit-eating mammal of tropical America with a long prehensile tail.

- They discussed “honey bear” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “honey bear.”

---

house snake (noun)

Nonvenomous tan and brown king snake with an arrow-shaped occipital spot; southeastern ones have red stripes like coral snakes.

- In class, the teacher used “house snake” to mean nonvenomous tan and brown king snake with an....
- Understanding “house snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

little brown bat (noun)

The small common North American bat; widely distributed.

- The article explained what “little brown bat” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “little brown bat” to mean the small common north american bat; widely distributed.

---

nature worship (noun)

A system of religion that deifies and worships natural forces and phenomena.

- The article explained what “nature worship” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “nature worship.”

---

night snake (noun)

Nocturnal prowler of western United States and Mexico.

- Understanding “night snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “night snake” to mean nocturnal prowler of western united states and mexico.

---

palm family (noun)

Chiefly tropical trees and shrubs and vines usually having a tall columnar trunk bearing a crown of very large leaves; coextensive with the order Palmales.

- Understanding “palm family” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “palm family” to mean chiefly tropical trees and shrubs and vines usually....

---

pink shower (noun)

Tropical American semi-evergreen tree having erect racemes of pink or rose-colored flowers; used as an ornamental.

- Understanding “pink shower” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “pink shower” to mean tropical american semi-evergreen tree having erect....

---

red spider (noun)

Small web-spinning mite; a serious orchard pest.

- He looked up “red spider” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “red spider” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rock bass (noun)

Game and food fish of upper Mississippi and Great Lakes.

- In class, the teacher used “rock bass” to mean game and food fish of upper mississippi and great lakes.
- They discussed “rock bass” during the group presentation.

---

sand dollar (noun)

Flattened disklike sea urchins that live on sandy bottoms.

- In class, the teacher used “sand dollar” to mean flattened disklike sea urchins that live on sandy....
- He looked up “sand dollar” because he had never seen it before.

---

shoe black (noun)

Large showy Asiatic shrub or small tree having large single or double red to deep-red flowers.

- In class, the teacher used “shoe black” to mean large showy asiatic shrub or small tree having....
- He looked up “shoe black” because he had never seen it before.

---

snake-head (noun)

Showy perennial of marshlands of eastern and central North America having waxy lanceolate leaves and flower with lower part creamy white and upper parts pale pink to deep purple.

- They discussed “snake-head” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “snake-head” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sound spectrum (noun)

The distribution of energy as a function of frequency for a particular sound source.

- He looked up "sound spectrum" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sound spectrum."

sun-worship (noun)

The worship of the sun.

- The article explained what "sun-worship" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sun-worship."

sweet rocket (noun)

Long cultivated herb having flowers whose scent is more pronounced in the evening; naturalized throughout Europe to Siberia and into North America.

- Understanding "sweet rocket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sweet rocket" during the group presentation.

tennessee (noun)

A river formed by the confluence of two other rivers near Knoxville; it follows a U-shaped course to become a tributary of the Ohio River in western Kentucky.

- He looked up "tennessee" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tennessee."

water snake (noun)

Any of various mostly harmless snakes that live in or near water.

- They discussed "water snake" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water snake."

white-man's foot (noun)

Common European perennial naturalized worldwide; a troublesome weed.

- Understanding "white-man's foot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "white-man's foot" during the group presentation.

animal tissue (noun)

The tissue in the bodies of animals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "animal tissue."
- The article explained what "animal tissue" means with a simple example.

duck down (noun)

Down of the duck.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "duck down."
- He looked up "duck down" because he had never seen it before.

japanese morning glory (noun)

Annual Old World tropical climbing herb distinguished by wide color range and frilled or double flowers.

- Understanding "japanese morning glory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "japanese morning glory" during the group presentation.

key signature (noun)

The sharps or flats that follow the clef and indicate the key.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "key signature."
- They discussed "key signature" during the group presentation.

marijuana (noun)

A strong-smelling plant from whose dried leaves a number of euphoriant and hallucinogenic drugs are prepared.

- He looked up "marijuana" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "marijuana" to mean a strong-smelling plant from whose dried leaves a....

mount wilson (noun)

A peak in the San Juan mountains of Colorado (14,246 feet high).

- The article explained what "mount wilson" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mount wilson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

murray river (noun)

A southeast Australian river; flows westward and then south into the Indian Ocean at Adelaide.

- Understanding "murray river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "murray river."

---

oil-rich seed (noun)

Any of several seeds that yield oil.

- He looked up "oil-rich seed" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oil-rich seed."

---

painted beauty (noun)

American butterfly having dark brown wings with white and golden orange spots.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "painted beauty."
- He looked up "painted beauty" because he had never seen it before.

---

radiation pressure (noun)

The minute pressure exerted on a surface normal to the direction of propagation of a wave.

- He looked up "radiation pressure" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "radiation pressure" during the group presentation.

---

radio radiation (noun)

An electromagnetic wave with a wavelength between 0.5 cm to 30,000 m.

- Understanding "radio radiation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "radio radiation" because he had never seen it before.

---

sea island cotton (noun)

Small bushy tree grown on islands of the Caribbean and off the Atlantic coast of the southern United States; yields cotton with unusually long silky fibers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea island cotton."
- He looked up "sea island cotton" because he had never seen it before.

---

wild sensitive plant (noun)

Tropical American plant having leaflets somewhat sensitive to the touch; sometimes placed in genus Cassia.

- The article explained what "wild sensitive plant" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wild sensitive plant" during the group presentation.

---

alabama river (noun)

A river in Alabama formed by the confluence of the Coosa and Tallapoosa Rivers near Montgomery; flows southwestward to become a tributary of the Mobile River.

- The article explained what "alabama river" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alabama river."

---

animal psychology (noun)

The branch of psychology concerned with the behavior of animals.

- They discussed "animal psychology" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "animal psychology" to mean the branch of psychology concerned with the....

---

bacteria (noun)

(microbiology) single-celled or noncellular spherical or spiral or rod-shaped organisms lacking chlorophyll that reproduce by fission; important as pathogens and for biochemical properties; taxonomy is difficult; often considered to be plants.

- They discussed "bacteria" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bacteria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beef plant (noun)

South American plant having green to purple or red branches with green to purple ornamental foliage and spikes of insignificant woolly flowers with dry membranous bracts.

- They discussed "beef plant" during the group presentation.

- Understanding “beef plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

black duck (noun)

A dusky duck of northeastern United States and Canada.

- He looked up “black duck” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “black duck” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

black sea bass (noun)

Bluish black-striped sea bass of the Atlantic coast of the United States.

- The article explained what “black sea bass” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “black sea bass” to mean bluish black-striped sea bass of the atlantic coast....

bull bay (noun)

Evergreen tree of southern United States having large stiff glossy leaves and huge white sweet-smelling flowers.

- They discussed “bull bay” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bull bay.”

burning bush (noun)

Deciduous shrub having purple capsules enclosing scarlet seeds.

- They discussed “burning bush” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “burning bush” to mean deciduous shrub having purple capsules enclosing....

corn (noun)

The dried grains or kernels or corn used as animal feed or ground for meal.

- That movie was pure corn.
- Understanding “corn” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

date palm (noun)

Tall tropical feather palm tree native to Syria bearing sweet edible fruit.

- Understanding “date palm” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “date palm” during the group presentation.

devil tree (noun)

Evergreen tree of eastern Asia and Philippines having large leathery leaves and small green-white flowers in compact cymes; bark formerly used medicinally.

- In class, the teacher used “devil tree” to mean evergreen tree of eastern asia and philippines....
- The article explained what “devil tree” means with a simple example.

great slave lake (noun)

A lake in the Northwest Territories in northwestern Canada; drained by the Mackenzie River.

- They discussed “great slave lake” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “great slave lake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mass-action principle (noun)

(neurology) the principle that the cortex of the brain operates as a coordinated system with large masses of neural tissue involved in all complex functioning.

- They discussed “mass-action principle” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “mass-action principle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

may bug (noun)

Any of various large European beetles destructive to vegetation as both larvae and adult.

- They discussed “may bug” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “may bug” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

missouri river (noun)

The longest river in the United States; arises in Montana and flows southeastward to become a tributary of the Mississippi at Saint Louis.

- The Missouri and Mississippi Rivers together form the third longest river in the world.
- They discussed “missouri river” during the group presentation.

plain turkey (noun)

Popular Australian game bird.

- He looked up "plain turkey" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plain turkey."

radio spectrum (noun)

The entire spectrum of electromagnetic frequencies used for communications; includes frequencies used for radio and radar and television.

- Understanding "radio spectrum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "radio spectrum" during the group presentation.

sea lion (noun)

Any of several large eared seals of the northern Pacific related to fur seals but lacking their valuable coat.

- They discussed "sea lion" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea lion."

sea spider (noun)

Any of various small spiderlike marine arthropods having small thin bodies and long slender legs.

- Understanding "sea spider" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sea spider" during the group presentation.

single-leaf (noun)

Pinon of southwestern United States having solitary needles and often many stems; important as a nut pine.

- The article explained what "single-leaf" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "single-leaf" during the group presentation.

tobacco (noun)

Aromatic annual or perennial herbs and shrubs.

- They discussed "tobacco" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tobacco" because he had never seen it before.

virgin forest (noun)

Forest or woodland having a mature or overly mature ecosystem more or less uninfluenced by human activity.

- Understanding "virgin forest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "virgin forest."

wake-robin (noun)

Any liliaceous plant of the genus Trillium having a whorl of three leaves at the top of the stem with a single three-petaled flower.

- They discussed "wake-robin" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "wake-robin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wild morning-glory (noun)

Common Eurasian and American wild climber with pink flowers; sometimes placed in genus Convolvulus.

- He looked up "wild morning-glory" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild morning-glory."

animal-worship (noun)

The worship of animals.

- They discussed "animal-worship" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "animal-worship" because he had never seen it before.

bacteria family (noun)

A family of bacteria.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bacteria family."
- Understanding "bacteria family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bow wood (noun)

Small shrubby deciduous yellowwood tree of south central United States having spines, glossy dark green leaves and an inedible fruit that resembles an orange; its hard orange-colored wood used for bows by Native Americans; frequently planted as boundary hedge.

- The article explained what "bow wood" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bow wood" to mean small shrubby deciduous yellowwood tree of south....

---

cancer weed (noun)

Sage of eastern United States.

- They discussed "cancer weed" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cancer weed" to mean sage of eastern united states.

---

channel bass (noun)

Large edible fish found off coast of United States from Massachusetts to Mexico.

- He looked up "channel bass" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "channel bass" during the group presentation.

---

cole (noun)

A hardy cabbage with coarse curly leaves that do not form a head.

- They discussed "cole" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cole."

---

electrical resistance (noun)

A material's opposition to the flow of electric current; measured in ohms.

- They discussed "electrical resistance" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "electrical resistance" to mean a material's opposition to the flow of electric....

---

false dragon head (noun)

North American plant having a spike of two-lipped pink or white flowers.

- He looked up "false dragon head" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "false dragon head" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flying robin (noun)

Tropical fish with huge fanlike pectoral fins for underwater gliding; unrelated to searobins.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flying robin."
- They discussed "flying robin" during the group presentation.

---

garden rocket (noun)

Erect European annual often grown as a salad crop to be harvested when young and tender.

- The article explained what "garden rocket" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "garden rocket" during the group presentation.

---

grain (noun)

A relatively small granular particle of a substance.

- A grain of sand.
- A grain of sugar.

---

green snake (noun)

Either of two North American chiefly insectivorous snakes that are green in color.

- They discussed "green snake" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "green snake" because he had never seen it before.

---

ground snake (noun)

Small shy brightly-ringed terrestrial snake of arid or semiarid areas of western North America.

- They discussed "ground snake" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ground snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

heart-leaf (noun)

Wild ginger having persistent heart-shaped pungent leaves; West Virginia to Alabama.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heart-leaf."
- He looked up "heart-leaf" because he had never seen it before.

johnny-jump-up (noun)

A common and long cultivated European herb from which most common garden pansies are derived.

- The article explained what "johnny-jump-up" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "johnny-jump-up" during the group presentation.

key palm (noun)

Small stocky fan palm of southern Florida and Cuba.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "key palm."
- The article explained what "key palm" means with a simple example.

king snake (noun)

Any of numerous nonvenomous North American constrictors; feed on other snakes and small mammals.

- The article explained what "king snake" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "king snake."

lake clark national park (noun)

A national park in Alaska having Eskimo and Athapaskan archeological sites.

- Understanding "lake clark national park" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lake clark national park" means with a simple example.

little missouri river (noun)

A river that rises in northeastern Wyoming and flows through Montana and South Dakota to join the Missouri River in North Dakota.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little missouri river."
- Understanding "little missouri river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

natural rubber (noun)

An elastic material obtained from the latex sap of trees (especially trees of the genera Hevea and Ficus) that can be vulcanized and finished into a variety of products.

- They discussed "natural rubber" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "natural rubber" to mean an elastic material obtained from the latex sap of....

oak (noun)

A deciduous tree of the genus Quercus; has acorns and lobed leaves.

- Great oaks grow from little acorns.
- The article explained what "oak" means with a simple example.

oil palm (noun)

Pinnate-leaved palms of the genus Elaeis having dense clusters of crowded flowers and bright red fruit and yielding high quality palm oils.

- Understanding "oil palm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "oil palm" during the group presentation.

orange grass (noun)

Annual wiry-stemmed North American weed with minute scalelike leaves and small yellow flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "orange grass" to mean annual wiry-stemmed north american weed with minute....
- He looked up "orange grass" because he had never seen it before.

parliamentary (adjective)

Relating to or having the nature of a parliament.

- Parliamentary reform.
- A parliamentary body.

purple martin (noun)

Large North American martin of which the male is blue-black.

- The article explained what "purple martin" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purple martin."

she-oak (noun)

Any of several Australian trees of the genus Casuarina.

- Understanding "she-oak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "she-oak" to mean any of several australian trees of the genus casuarina.

---

switch grass (noun)

Grass of western America used for hay.

- He looked up "switch grass" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "switch grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tiger cat (noun)

A cat having a striped coat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tiger cat."
- He looked up "tiger cat" because he had never seen it before.

---

tree-worship (noun)

The worship of trees.

- The article explained what "tree-worship" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tree-worship."

---

ukrainian (noun)

The Slavic language spoken in the Ukraine.

- Understanding "ukrainian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ukrainian" during the group presentation.

---

water bug (noun)

A true bug: large aquatic bug adapted to living in or on the surface of water.

- The article explained what "water bug" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water bug."

---

wood mouse (noun)

Any of various New World woodland mice.

- In class, the teacher used "wood mouse" to mean any of various new world woodland mice.
- The article explained what "wood mouse" means with a simple example.

---

australian grass tree (noun)

Stout Australian shrub with narrow leaves crowded at ends of branches and terminal clusters of white or pink flowers.

- He looked up "australian grass tree" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "australian grass tree" during the group presentation.

---

bacteria order (noun)

An order of bacteria.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bacteria order."
- They discussed "bacteria order" during the group presentation.

---

boston bull (noun)

Small pug-faced American terrier breed having a smooth brindle or black coat with white markings.

- Understanding "boston bull" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "boston bull" because he had never seen it before.

---

colonial (adjective)

Of animals who live in colonies, such as ants.

- The speaker chose "colonial" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "colonial" when it is of animals who live in colonies, such as ants.

---

color spectrum (noun)

The distribution of colors produced when light is dispersed by a prism.

- In class, the teacher used "color spectrum" to mean the distribution of colors produced when light is....

- They discussed "color spectrum" during the group presentation.

---

common water snake (noun)

In some classifications placed in the genus Nerodia; western United States snake that seldom ventures far from water.

- Understanding "common water snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "common water snake" to mean in some classifications placed in the genus....

---

early wake-robin (noun)

A low perennial white-flowered trillium found in the southeastern United States.

- Understanding "early wake-robin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "early wake-robin" to mean a low perennial white-flowered trillium found in....

---

european brown bat (noun)

Common brown bat of Europe.

- Understanding "european brown bat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "european brown bat" to mean common brown bat of europe.

---

golden shower tree (noun)

Deciduous or semi-evergreen tree having scented sepia to yellow flowers in drooping racemes and pods whose pulp is used medicinally; tropical Asia and Central and South America and Australia.

- They discussed "golden shower tree" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "golden shower tree" to mean deciduous or semi-evergreen tree having scented....

---

hiv (noun)

The virus that causes acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS); it replicates in and kills the helper T cells.

- The article explained what "hiv" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hiv."

---

hunting license (noun)

A license authorizing the bearer to kill a certain type of animal during a specified period of time.

- In class, the teacher used "hunting license" to mean a license authorizing the bearer to kill a certain....
- The article explained what "hunting license" means with a simple example.

---

india rubber (noun)

An elastic material obtained from the latex sap of trees (especially trees of the genera Hevea and Ficus) that can be vulcanized and finished into a variety of products.

- The article explained what "india rubber" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "india rubber" to mean an elastic material obtained from the latex sap of....

---

massachusetts bay (noun)

An inlet of the Atlantic Ocean off of eastern Massachusetts extending from Cape Ann on the north to Cape Cod on the south.

- In class, the teacher used "massachusetts bay" to mean an inlet of the atlantic ocean off of eastern....
- The article explained what "massachusetts bay" means with a simple example.

---

rock snake (noun)

Very large python of tropical and southern Africa.

- The article explained what "rock snake" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "rock snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sea snake (noun)

Any of numerous venomous aquatic viviparous snakes having a fin-like tail; of warm littoral seas; feed on fish which they immobilize with quick-acting venom.

- They discussed "sea snake" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sea snake" means with a simple example.

---

snake river (noun)

A tributary of the Columbia River that rises in Wyoming and flows westward; discovered in 1805 by the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

- He looked up "snake river" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "snake river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

summer duck (noun)

Showy North American duck that nests in hollow trees.

- He looked up "summer duck" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "summer duck."

true bug (noun)

Any of various insects of the order Hemiptera and especially of the suborder Heteroptera.

- In class, the teacher used "true bug" to mean any of various insects of the order hemiptera and....
- They discussed "true bug" during the group presentation.

tweet (noun)

A weak chirping sound as of a small bird.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tweet."
- He looked up "tweet" because he had never seen it before.

white sheep (noun)

Large white wild sheep of northwestern Canada and Alaska.

- In class, the teacher used "white sheep" to mean large white wild sheep of northwestern canada and....
- Understanding "white sheep" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

american oil palm (noun)

Palm of Central and South America.

- Understanding "american oil palm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american oil palm."

black cherry (noun)

Large North American wild cherry with round black sour edible fruit.

- In class, the teacher used "black cherry" to mean large north american wild cherry with round black....
- The article explained what "black cherry" means with a simple example.

black oak (noun)

Medium to large deciduous timber tree of the eastern United States and southeastern Canada having dark outer bark and yellow inner bark used for tanning; broad five-lobed leaves are bristle-tipped.

- He looked up "black oak" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "black oak" during the group presentation.

bottle grass (noun)

European foxtail naturalized in North America; often a troublesome weed.

- Understanding "bottle grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bottle grass."

bottle-grass (noun)

European foxtail naturalized in North America; often a troublesome weed.

- The article explained what "bottle-grass" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bottle-grass" to mean european foxtail naturalized in north america;....

bunch grass (noun)

Any of various grasses of many genera that grow in tufts or clumps rather than forming a sod or mat; chiefly of western United States.

- In class, the teacher used "bunch grass" to mean any of various grasses of many genera that grow in....
- The article explained what "bunch grass" means with a simple example.

butter-print (noun)

Tall annual herb or subshrub of tropical Asia having velvety leaves and yellow flowers and yielding a strong fiber; naturalized in southeastern Europe and United States.

- He looked up "butter-print" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "butter-print" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cloud chamber (noun)

Apparatus that detects the path of high-energy particles passing through a supersaturated vapor; each particle ionizes molecules along its path and small droplets condense on them to produce a visible track.

- They discussed "cloud chamber" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cloud chamber."

---

clouds (noun)

A group of many things in the air or on the ground.

- Clouds of blossoms.
- His head was in the clouds.

---

entire leaf (noun)

A leaf having a smooth margin without notches or indentations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "entire leaf."
- The article explained what "entire leaf" means with a simple example.

---

flying mouse (noun)

Tiny flying phalanger.

- He looked up "flying mouse" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "flying mouse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

honey bell (noun)

African shrub having decumbent stems and slender yellow honey-scented flowers either solitary or in pairs.

- He looked up "honey bell" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "honey bell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

human beings (noun)

All of the living human inhabitants of the earth.

- She always used 'humankind' because 'mankind' seemed to slight the women.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "human beings."

---

indian pipe (noun)

Small waxy white or pinkish-white saprophytic woodland plant having scalelike leaves and a nodding flower; turns black with age.

- The article explained what "indian pipe" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "indian pipe" to mean small waxy white or pinkish-white saprophytic....

---

june bug (noun)

Any of various large usually brown North American leaf-eating beetles common in late spring; the larvae feed on roots of grasses etc.

- He looked up "june bug" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "june bug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lady palm (noun)

Any of several small palms of the genus Rhapis; cultivated as houseplants.

- Understanding "lady palm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lady palm" because he had never seen it before.

---

laying (noun)

The production of eggs (especially in birds).

- Understanding "laying" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "laying" because he had never seen it before.

---

live oak (noun)

Any of several American evergreen oaks.

- They discussed "live oak" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "live oak."

---

mass spectrum (noun)

A distribution of ions as shown by a mass spectrograph or a mass spectrometer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mass spectrum."

- Understanding "mass spectrum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mexican hat (noun)

Coneflower with flower heads resembling a Mexican hat with a tall red-brown disk and drooping yellow or yellow and red-brown rays; grows in the great plains along base of Rocky Mountains.

- He looked up "mexican hat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mexican hat."

---

mountain devil (noun)

Erect bushy shrub of eastern Australia having terminal clusters of red flowers yielding much nectar.

- They discussed "mountain devil" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mountain devil."

---

northern sea robin (noun)

Large searobin; found from Nova Scotia to Florida.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "northern sea robin."
- He looked up "northern sea robin" because he had never seen it before.

---

post oak (noun)

Small deciduous tree of eastern and central United States having dark green lyrate pinnatifid leaves and tough moisture-resistant wood used especially for fence posts.

- The article explained what "post oak" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "post oak" to mean small deciduous tree of eastern and central united....

---

rice grass (noun)

Any grass of the genus Oryzopsis.

- They discussed "rice grass" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rice grass" means with a simple example.

---

root cap (noun)

Thimble-shaped mass of cells covering and protecting the growing tip of a root.

- In class, the teacher used "root cap" to mean thimble-shaped mass of cells covering and....
- He looked up "root cap" because he had never seen it before.

---

simple leaf (noun)

A leaf that is not divided into parts.

- He looked up "simple leaf" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "simple leaf."

---

speech spectrum (noun)

The average sound spectrum for the human voice.

- They discussed "speech spectrum" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "speech spectrum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spider plant (noun)

Native to South America but naturalized in warm parts of United States; grown for its long-lasting spider-shaped white to pink-purple flowers.

- He looked up "spider plant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spider plant" to mean native to south america but naturalized in warm....

---

stone bass (noun)

Brown fish of the Atlantic and Mediterranean found around rocks and shipwrecks.

- Understanding "stone bass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "stone bass" to mean brown fish of the atlantic and mediterranean found....

---

true bacteria (noun)

A large group of bacteria having rigid cell walls; motile types have flagella.

- They discussed "true bacteria" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "true bacteria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

twin falls (noun)

A waterfall in the Snake River in southern Idaho.

- He looked up "twin falls" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "twin falls" to mean a waterfall in the snake river in southern idaho.

---

water carpet (noun)

Aquatic herb with yellowish flowers; central and western United States.

- In class, the teacher used "water carpet" to mean aquatic herb with yellowish flowers; central and....
- They discussed "water carpet" during the group presentation.

---

water oak (noun)

Relatively tall deciduous water oak of southeastern United States often cultivated as a shade tree; thrives in wet soil.

- In class, the teacher used "water oak" to mean relatively tall deciduous water oak of southeastern....
- The article explained what "water oak" means with a simple example.

---

white oak (noun)

Any of numerous Old World and American oaks having 6 to 8 stamens in each floret, acorns that mature in one year and leaf veins that never extend beyond the margin of the leaf.

- He looked up "white oak" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "white oak" to mean any of numerous old world and american oaks having....

---

wind instrument (noun)

A musical instrument in which the sound is produced by an enclosed column of air that is moved by the breath.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wind instrument."
- They discussed "wind instrument" during the group presentation.

---

yard grass (noun)

Coarse annual grass having fingerlike spikes of flowers; native to Old World tropics; a naturalized weed elsewhere.

- In class, the teacher used "yard grass" to mean coarse annual grass having fingerlike spikes of....
- They discussed "yard grass" during the group presentation.

---

yellow rocket (noun)

Noxious cress with yellow flowers; sometimes placed in genus Sisymbrium.

- He looked up "yellow rocket" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow rocket."

---

bed bug (noun)

Bug of temperate regions that infests especially beds and feeds on human blood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bed bug."
- They discussed "bed bug" during the group presentation.

---

black rat (noun)

Common household pest originally from Asia that has spread worldwide.

- He looked up "black rat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black rat."

---

brown swiss (noun)

Large hardy brown breed of dairy cattle from Switzerland.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brown swiss."
- He looked up "brown swiss" because he had never seen it before.

---

butter-and-eggs (noun)

Common European perennial having showy yellow and orange flowers; a naturalized weed in North America.

- They discussed "butter-and-eggs" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "butter-and-eggs" because he had never seen it before.

---

cape fear river (noun)

A river in North Carolina that flows southeast to the Atlantic Ocean at Cape Fear.

- They discussed "cape fear river" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cape fear river."

---

cattle (noun)

Domesticated bovine animals as a group regardless of sex or age; ; ; - Bible.

- So many head of cattle.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cattle."

---

chocolate root (noun)

Erect perennial of north temperate zone having pinnate leaves and a few nodding flowers with a brown-purple calyx and orange and pink petals.

- Understanding "chocolate root" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "chocolate root" to mean erect perennial of north temperate zone having....

---

cold snap (noun)

A spell of cold weather.

- Understanding "cold snap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cold snap" because he had never seen it before.

---

common tobacco (noun)

Tall erect South American herb with large ovate leaves and terminal clusters of tubular white or pink flowers; cultivated for its leaves.

- Understanding "common tobacco" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "common tobacco" during the group presentation.

---

dawn horse (noun)

Earliest horse; extinct primitive dog-sized four-toed Eocene animal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dawn horse."
- He looked up "dawn horse" because he had never seen it before.

---

devil ray (noun)

Small manta (to 4 feet) that travels in schools.

- Understanding "devil ray" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "devil ray."

---

fan palm (noun)

Palm having palmate or fan-shaped leaves.

- They discussed "fan palm" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fan palm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

field corn (noun)

Corn grown primarily for animal feed or market grain.

- He looked up "field corn" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "field corn" to mean corn grown primarily for animal feed or market grain.

---

finger-flower (noun)

Tall leafy European biennial or perennial having spectacular clusters of large tubular pink-purple flowers; leaves yield drug digitalis and are poisonous to livestock.

- The article explained what "finger-flower" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "finger-flower" during the group presentation.

---

golden seal (noun)

Perennial herb of northeastern United States having a thick knotted yellow rootstock and large rounded leaves.

- In class, the teacher used "golden seal" to mean perennial herb of northeastern united states having....
- The article explained what "golden seal" means with a simple example.

---

rain cats and dogs (verb)

Rain heavily.

- Put on your rain coat– it's pouring outside!
- He did not know how to use "rain cats and dogs" until he saw an example.

red cole (noun)

Coarse Eurasian plant cultivated for its thick white pungent root.

- He looked up "red cole" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "red cole" during the group presentation.

red oak (noun)

Any of numerous American oaks having 4 stamens in each floret, acorns requiring two years to mature and leaf veins usually extending beyond the leaf margin to form points or bristles.

- Understanding "red oak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "red oak" during the group presentation.

rock sea bass (noun)

A kind of sea bass.

- The article explained what "rock sea bass" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "rock sea bass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

screw tree (noun)

A tree or shrub of the genus Helicteres.

- He looked up "screw tree" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "screw tree" to mean a tree or shrub of the genus helicteres.

sea duck (noun)

Any of various large diving ducks found along the seacoast: eider; scoter; merganser.

- In class, the teacher used "sea duck" to mean any of various large diving ducks found along the....
- They discussed "sea duck" during the group presentation.

shore bird (noun)

Any of numerous wading birds that frequent mostly seashores and estuaries.

- He looked up "shore bird" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "shore bird" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

snake-fish (noun)

Tropical fishes with large mouths in lizard-like heads; found worldwide.

- They discussed "snake-fish" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "snake-fish" because he had never seen it before.

tennessee river (noun)

A river formed by the confluence of two other rivers near Knoxville; it follows a U-shaped course to become a tributary of the Ohio River in western Kentucky.

- In class, the teacher used "tennessee river" to mean a river formed by the confluence of two other....
- The article explained what "tennessee river" means with a simple example.

alaska range (noun)

A mountain range in south central Alaska; contains Mount McKinley.

- Understanding "alaska range" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "alaska range" means with a simple example.

american white oak (noun)

Large slow-growing deciduous tree of the eastern United States having stout spreading branches and leaves with usually 7 rounded lobes; yields strong and durable hard wood.

- He looked up "american white oak" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "american white oak" during the group presentation.

artificial lake (noun)

Lake used to store water for community use.

- They discussed "artificial lake" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "artificial lake" to mean lake used to store water for community use.

black ash (noun)

Vigorous spreading North American tree having dark brown heavy wood; leaves turn gold in autumn.

- They discussed “black ash” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “black ash” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

common oak (noun)

Medium to large deciduous European oak having smooth leaves with rounded lobes; yields hard strong light-colored wood.

- In class, the teacher used “common oak” to mean medium to large deciduous european oak having....
- The article explained what “common oak” means with a simple example.

---

cow (noun)

Female of domestic cattle:.

- ‘moo-cow’ is a child’s term.
- They discussed “cow” during the group presentation.

---

dead-men’s-fingers (noun)

The fruiting bodies of the fungi of the genus Xylaria.

- Understanding “dead-men’s-fingers” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “dead-men’s-fingers” during the group presentation.

---

english oak (noun)

Medium to large deciduous European oak having smooth leaves with rounded lobes; yields hard strong light-colored wood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “english oak.”
- He looked up “english oak” because he had never seen it before.

---

fa la (noun)

Meaningless syllables in the refrain of a partsong.

- He looked up “fa la” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “fa la” during the group presentation.

---

fine spray (noun)

Precipitation in very small drops.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fine spray.”
- They discussed “fine spray” during the group presentation.

---

finger-root (noun)

Tall leafy European biennial or perennial having spectacular clusters of large tubular pink-purple flowers; leaves yield drug digitalis and are poisonous to livestock.

- He looked up “finger-root” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “finger-root” to mean tall leafy european biennial or perennial having....

---

forest fire fighter (noun)

An official who is responsible for managing and protecting an area of forest.

- In class, the teacher used “forest fire fighter” to mean an official who is responsible for managing and....
- Understanding “forest fire fighter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

garden spider (noun)

A spider common in European gardens.

- Understanding “garden spider” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “garden spider” because he had never seen it before.

---

gene expression (noun)

Conversion of the information encoded in a gene first into messenger RNA and then to a protein.

- The article explained what “gene expression” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “gene expression” to mean conversion of the information encoded in a gene....

---

giant star grass (noun)

Perennial grass having stems 3 to 4 feet high; used especially in Africa and India for pasture and hay.

- The article explained what “giant star grass” means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used “giant star grass” to mean perennial grass having stems 3 to 4 feet high; used....

glass snake (noun)

Snakelike lizard of Europe and Asia and North America with vestigial hind limbs and the ability to regenerate its long fragile tail.

- Understanding “glass snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “glass snake” to mean snakelike lizard of europe and asia and north....

grass pink (noun)

European pink cultivated for its very fragrant pink or rosy flowers.

- Understanding “grass pink” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “grass pink” to mean european pink cultivated for its very fragrant pink....

green corn (noun)

A corn plant developed in order to have young ears that are sweet and suitable for eating.

- They discussed “green corn” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “green corn” means with a simple example.

ground cherry (noun)

Any of numerous cosmopolitan annual or perennial herbs of the genus Physalis bearing edible fleshy berries enclosed in a bladderlike husk; some cultivated for their flowers.

- Understanding “ground cherry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “ground cherry” to mean any of numerous cosmopolitan annual or perennial....

lake albert (noun)

A shallow lake on the border between Uganda and Congo in the Great Rift Valley.

- They discussed “lake albert” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lake albert.”

palm tree (noun)

Any plant of the family Palmae having an unbranched trunk crowned by large pinnate or palmate leaves.

- Understanding “palm tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “palm tree” to mean any plant of the family palmae having an unbranched....

pie-dog (noun)

Ownerless half-wild mongrel dog common around Asian villages especially India.

- They discussed “pie-dog” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “pie-dog” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

royal palm (noun)

Tall feather palm of southern Florida and Cuba.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “royal palm.”
- They discussed “royal palm” during the group presentation.

rubber plant (noun)

Large tropical Asian tree frequently dwarfed as a houseplant; source of Assam rubber.

- They discussed “rubber plant” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “rubber plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rubber tree (noun)

Small genus of South American trees yielding latex.

- Rubber trees are usually cultivated in plantations.
- Understanding “rubber tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sheep dog (noun)

Any of various usually long-haired breeds of dog reared to herd and guard sheep.

- The article explained what “sheep dog” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “sheep dog” to mean any of various usually long-haired breeds of dog....

shut one's mouth (verb)

Refrain from divulging sensitive information; keep quiet about confidential information.

- Don't tell him any secrets–he cannot keep his mouth shut!
- Can you use "shut one's mouth" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

snake plant (noun)

Stemless plant having narrow rigid leaves often cultivated as a houseplant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snake plant."
- He looked up "snake plant" because he had never seen it before.

---

south american sea lion (noun)

Of the southern coast of South America.

- In class, the teacher used "south american sea lion" to mean of the southern coast of south america.
- They discussed "south american sea lion" during the group presentation.

---

sweat (noun)

Condensation of moisture on a cold surface.

- The cold glasses were streaked with sweat.
- Sweat poured off his brow.

---

tall-grass (noun)

Any of various grasses that are tall and that flourish with abundant moisture.

- He looked up "tall-grass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tall-grass."

---

weak interaction (noun)

(physics) an interaction between elementary particles involving neutrinos or antineutrinos that is responsible for certain kinds of radioactive decay; mediated by intermediate vector bosons.

- Understanding "weak interaction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "weak interaction" to mean (physics) an interaction between elementary....

---

white ash (noun)

Spreading American ash with leaves pale green or silvery beneath and having hard brownish wood.

- They discussed "white ash" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "white ash" to mean spreading american ash with leaves pale green or....

---

wind tunnel (noun)

A structure resembling a tunnel where air is blown at known velocities for testing parts of aircraft.

- In class, the teacher used "wind tunnel" to mean a structure resembling a tunnel where air is blown....
- They discussed "wind tunnel" during the group presentation.

---

yellow bass (noun)

North American freshwater bass resembling the larger marine striped bass.

- The article explained what "yellow bass" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "yellow bass" during the group presentation.

---

adam-and-eve (noun)

North American orchid bearing a single leaf and yellowish-brown flowers.

- He looked up "adam-and-eve" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adam-and-eve."

---

apparent motion (noun)

An optical illusion of motion produced by viewing a rapid succession of still pictures of a moving object.

- The cinema relies on apparent motion.
- They discussed "apparent motion" during the group presentation.

---

blue runner (noun)

Fish of western Atlantic: Cape Cod to Brazil.

- In class, the teacher used "blue runner" to mean fish of western atlantic: cape cod to brazil.
- He looked up "blue runner" because he had never seen it before.

---

dust cloud (noun)

A cloud of dust suspended in the air.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dust cloud."
- He looked up "dust cloud" because he had never seen it before.

---

european wood mouse (noun)

Nocturnal yellowish-brown mouse inhabiting woods and fields and gardens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "european wood mouse."
- Understanding "european wood mouse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fever tree (noun)

African tree supposed to mark healthful regions.

- He looked up "fever tree" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fever tree."

---

finger grass (noun)

Grasses with creeping stems that root freely; a pest in lawns.

- They discussed "finger grass" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "finger grass" because he had never seen it before.

---

fish duck (noun)

Large crested fish-eating diving duck having a slender hooked bill with serrated edges.

- They discussed "fish duck" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "fish duck" because he had never seen it before.

---

great lakes (noun)

A group of five large, interconnected lakes in central North America.

- They discussed "great lakes" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "great lakes" because he had never seen it before.

---

grey jay (noun)

A jay of northern North America with black-capped head and no crest; noted for boldness in thievery.

- The article explained what "grey jay" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "grey jay" during the group presentation.

---

heat lightning (noun)

Bright flashes of light near the horizon without thunder (especially on hot evenings); usually attributed to distant lightning that is reflected by clouds.

- He looked up "heat lightning" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "heat lightning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

high beam (noun)

The beam of a car's headlights that provides distant illumination.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high beam."
- He looked up "high beam" because he had never seen it before.

---

keep one's mouth shut (verb)

Refrain from divulging sensitive information; keep quiet about confidential information.

- Don't tell him any secrets–he cannot keep his mouth shut!
- The coach explained when to use "keep one's mouth shut" and when to wait.

---

little horn (noun)

A river that flows from northern Wyoming into the Bighorn River in southern Montana; site of Custer's Last Stand.

- The article explained what "little horn" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "little horn" during the group presentation.

long pepper (noun)

Slender tropical climber of the eastern Himalayas.

- In class, the teacher used "long pepper" to mean slender tropical climber of the eastern himalayas.
- The article explained what "long pepper" means with a simple example.

magnetic field (noun)

The lines of force surrounding a permanent magnet or a moving charged particle.

- Understanding "magnetic field" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "magnetic field" means with a simple example.

magnetic force (noun)

Attraction for iron; associated with electric currents as well as magnets; characterized by fields of force.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic force."
- They discussed "magnetic force" during the group presentation.

magnetic moment (noun)

The torque exerted on a magnet or dipole when it is placed in a magnetic field.

- He looked up "magnetic moment" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic moment."

mississippi river (noun)

A major North American river and the chief river of the United States; rises in northern Minnesota and flows southward into the Gulf of Mexico.

- The article explained what "mississippi river" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mississippi river."

mountain lion (noun)

Large American feline resembling a lion.

- The article explained what "mountain lion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mountain lion" to mean large american feline resembling a lion.

operation desert storm (noun)

The United States and its allies defeated Iraq in a ground war that lasted 100 hours (1991).

- The article explained what "operation desert storm" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "operation desert storm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

orange bat (noun)

A common bat of northwestern Australia having orange or yellow fur.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orange bat."
- They discussed "orange bat" during the group presentation.

pepper family (noun)

Tropical woody vines and herbaceous plants having aromatic herbage and minute flowers in spikelets.

- In class, the teacher used "pepper family" to mean tropical woody vines and herbaceous plants having....
- The article explained what "pepper family" means with a simple example.

red ash (noun)

Smallish American tree with velvety branchlets and lower leaf surfaces.

- The article explained what "red ash" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "red ash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ring snake (noun)

Harmless European snake with a bright yellow collar; common in England.

- He looked up "ring snake" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ring snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rush grass (noun)

Grass having wiry stems and sheathed panicles.

- In class, the teacher used "rush grass" to mean grass having wiry stems and sheathed panicles.
- The article explained what "rush grass" means with a simple example.

---

rush-grass (noun)

Grass having wiry stems and sheathed panicles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rush-grass."
- They discussed "rush-grass" during the group presentation.

---

saint cloud (noun)

A town in central Minnesota on the Mississippi River; granite quarries.

- In class, the teacher used "saint cloud" to mean a town in central minnesota on the mississippi....
- Understanding "saint cloud" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sea cole (noun)

Perennial of coastal sands and shingles of northern Europe and Baltic and Black Seas having racemes of small white flowers and large fleshy blue-green leaves often used as potherbs.

- Understanding "sea cole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sea cole" because he had never seen it before.

---

sea spray (noun)

Spray from ocean waves.

- He looked up "sea spray" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sea spray" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

temple orange tree (noun)

Large citrus tree having large sweet deep orange fruit that is easily peeled; widely cultivated in Florida.

- The article explained what "temple orange tree" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "temple orange tree" to mean large citrus tree having large sweet deep orange....

---

valve (noun)

The entire one-piece shell of a snail and certain other molluscs.

- Understanding "valve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "valve" during the group presentation.

---

walking leaf (noun)

Ferns having lanceolate fronds that root at the tip.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "walking leaf."
- They discussed "walking leaf" during the group presentation.

---

welsh black (noun)

A breed of dual-purpose cattle developed in Wales.

- Understanding "welsh black" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "welsh black" means with a simple example.

---

american buffalo (noun)

Large shaggy-haired brown bison of North American plains.

- The article explained what "american buffalo" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american buffalo" to mean large shaggy-haired brown bison of north american....

---

black buffalo (noun)

Fish of the lower Mississippi.

- He looked up "black buffalo" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "black buffalo" during the group presentation.

---

blue ash (noun)

Ash of central and southern United States with bluish-green foliage and hard brown wood.

- He looked up "blue ash" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "blue ash" to mean ash of central and southern united states with....

---

brown oak (noun)

Large tree of Australasia.

- They discussed "brown oak" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brown oak."

---

california sea lion (noun)

Often trained as a show animal.

- They discussed "california sea lion" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "california sea lion."

---

caribbean (noun)

An arm of the Atlantic Ocean between North and South America; the origin of the Gulf stream.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caribbean."
- They discussed "caribbean" during the group presentation.

---

carrier wave (noun)

A radio wave that can be modulated in order to transmit a signal.

- They discussed "carrier wave" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "carrier wave" because he had never seen it before.

---

cloud grass (noun)

Spanish grass with light feathery panicles grown for dried bouquets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cloud grass."
- Understanding "cloud grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deer (noun)

Distinguished from Bovidae by the male's having solid deciduous antlers.

- Understanding "deer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deer."

---

field crop (noun)

A crop (other than fruits or vegetables) that is grown for agricultural purposes.

- Cotton, hay, and grain are field crops.
- In class, the teacher used "field crop" to mean a crop (other than fruits or vegetables) that is....

---

green ash (noun)

A variety of red ash having glossy branchlets and lower leaf surfaces.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green ash."
- The article explained what "green ash" means with a simple example.

---

gulf stream (noun)

A warm ocean current that flows from the Gulf of Mexico northward through the Atlantic Ocean.

- He looked up "gulf stream" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gulf stream" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

heal all (noun)

Common woodland herb of temperate North America having yellow nodding flowers and small round blue fruits.

- They discussed "heal all" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "heal all" means with a simple example.

---

heat of transformation (noun)

Heat absorbed or radiated during a change of phase at a constant temperature and pressure.

- Understanding "heat of transformation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "heat of transformation" during the group presentation.

---

japanese leaf (noun)

Erect or partially climbing herb having large green or variegated leaves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese leaf."
- They discussed "japanese leaf" during the group presentation.

---

jet stream (noun)

A high-speed high-altitude airstream blowing from west to east near the top of the troposphere; has important effects of the formation of weather fronts.

- They discussed "jet stream" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "jet stream" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lake duck (noun)

Common scaup of North America; males have purplish heads.

- He looked up "lake duck" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lake duck."

---

lake ontario (noun)

The smallest of the Great Lakes.

- The article explained what "lake ontario" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lake ontario" to mean the smallest of the great lakes.

---

no-see-um (noun)

Minute two-winged insect that sucks the blood of mammals and birds and other insects.

- Understanding "no-see-um" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "no-see-um" because he had never seen it before.

---

old world buffalo (noun)

Any of several Old World animals resembling oxen including, e.g., water buffalo; Cape buffalo.

- Understanding "old world buffalo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "old world buffalo" to mean any of several old world animals resembling oxen....

---

palm cat (noun)

Spotted or striped arboreal civet of southeast Asia and East Indies.

- Understanding "palm cat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "palm cat" to mean spotted or striped arboreal civet of southeast asia....

---

phoenix tree (noun)

Deciduous tree widely grown in southern United States as an ornamental for its handsome maplelike foliage and long racemes of yellow-green flowers followed by curious leaflike pods.

- The article explained what "phoenix tree" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phoenix tree."

---

pink shower tree (noun)

Tropical American semi-evergreen tree having erect racemes of pink or rose-colored flowers; used as an ornamental.

- He looked up "pink shower tree" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pink shower tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

plant bug (noun)

Small bright-colored insect that feeds on plant juices.

- They discussed "plant bug" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "plant bug" to mean small bright-colored insect that feeds on plant juices.

---

pole horse (noun)

A draft horse harnessed alongside the shaft or pole of a vehicle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pole horse."
- They discussed "pole horse" during the group presentation.

---

poverty grass (noun)

Small heathlike plant covered with white down growing on beaches in northeastern North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “poverty grass.”
- They discussed “poverty grass” during the group presentation.

---

scale leaf (noun)

A specialized leaf or bract that protects a bud or catkin.

- In class, the teacher used “scale leaf” to mean a specialized leaf or bract that protects a bud or....
- Understanding “scale leaf” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

snake wood (noun)

Tropical American tree with large peltate leaves and hollow stems.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “snake wood.”
- He looked up “snake wood” because he had never seen it before.

---

surface tension (noun)

A phenomenon at the surface of a liquid caused by intermolecular forces.

- The article explained what “surface tension” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “surface tension” during the group presentation.

---

trade rat (noun)

Any of several bushy-tailed rodents of the genus Neotoma of western North America; hoards food and other objects.

- They discussed “trade rat” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “trade rat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tree farming (noun)

The cultivation of tree for the production of timber.

- He looked up “tree farming” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “tree farming” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

true pepper (noun)

Any of various shrubby vines of the genus Piper.

- He looked up “true pepper” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “true pepper” to mean any of various shrubby vines of the genus piper.

---

water buffalo (noun)

An Asian buffalo that is often domesticated for use as a draft animal.

- In class, the teacher used “water buffalo” to mean an asian buffalo that is often domesticated for use....
- The article explained what “water buffalo” means with a simple example.

---

weather radar (noun)

Radar that is able to detect clouds and precipitation.

- He looked up “weather radar” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “weather radar” during the group presentation.

---

weather-beaten (adjective)

Tanned and coarsened from being outdoors.

- A weather-beaten face.
- Students compared “weather-beaten” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

white pepper (noun)

Climber having dark red berries (peppercorns) when fully ripe; southern India and Sri Lanka; naturalized in northern Burma and Assam.

- They discussed “white pepper” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “white pepper.”

---

alpha ray (noun)

The radiation of alpha particles during radioactive decay.

- In class, the teacher used “alpha ray” to mean the radiation of alpha particles during radioactive....
- He looked up “alpha ray” because he had never seen it before.

american eagle (noun)

A large eagle of North America that has a white head and dark wings and body.

- In class, the teacher used "american eagle" to mean a large eagle of north america that has a white....
- The article explained what "american eagle" means with a simple example.

animal scientist (noun)

A specialist in the branch of biology dealing with animals.

- Understanding "animal scientist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "animal scientist" to mean a specialist in the branch of biology dealing with....

ash-key (noun)

Winged seed of the ash tree.

- In class, the teacher used "ash-key" to mean winged seed of the ash tree.
- Understanding "ash-key" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

australian sea lion (noun)

A variety of sea lion found in Australia.

- The article explained what "australian sea lion" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "australian sea lion."

beam of light (noun)

A column of light (as from a beacon).

- In class, the teacher used "beam of light" to mean a column of light (as from a beacon).
- They discussed "beam of light" during the group presentation.

binding energy (noun)

The energy required to separate particles from a molecule or atom or nucleus; equals the mass defect.

- The article explained what "binding energy" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "binding energy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bird of passage (noun)

Someone who leads a wandering unsettled life.

- In class, the teacher used "bird of passage" to mean someone who leads a wandering unsettled life.
- The article explained what "bird of passage" means with a simple example.

box white oak (noun)

Small deciduous tree of eastern and central United States having dark green lyrate pinnatifid leaves and tough moisture-resistant wood used especially for fence posts.

- They discussed "box white oak" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "box white oak" to mean small deciduous tree of eastern and central united....

brown rat (noun)

Common domestic rat; serious pest worldwide.

- They discussed "brown rat" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "brown rat" because he had never seen it before.

butter-flower (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Ranunculus.

- In class, the teacher used "butter-flower" to mean any of various plants of the genus ranunculus.
- He looked up "butter-flower" because he had never seen it before.

cotton rush (noun)

Any sedge of the genus Eriophorum; north temperate bog plants with tufted spikes.

- They discussed "cotton rush" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cotton rush" means with a simple example.

diamond dust (noun)

Small crystals of ice.

- In class, the teacher used "diamond dust" to mean small crystals of ice.
- He looked up "diamond dust" because he had never seen it before.

---

ear-shell (noun)

Any of various large edible marine gastropods of the genus Haliotis having an ear-shaped shell with pearly interior.

- They discussed "ear-shell" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ear-shell" to mean any of various large edible marine gastropods of....

---

egyptian cat (noun)

A domestic cat of Egypt.

- The article explained what "egyptian cat" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "egyptian cat" to mean a domestic cat of egypt.

---

european ash (noun)

Tall ash of Europe to the Caucasus having leaves shiny dark-green above and pale downy beneath.

- They discussed "european ash" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "european ash" because he had never seen it before.

---

golden honey plant (noun)

Perennial herb with showy yellow flowers; the eastern United States.

- They discussed "golden honey plant" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "golden honey plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gray jay (noun)

A jay of northern North America with black-capped head and no crest; noted for boldness in thievery.

- They discussed "gray jay" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "gray jay" because he had never seen it before.

---

grey wolf (noun)

A wolf with a brindled grey coat living in forested northern regions of North America.

- They discussed "grey wolf" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "grey wolf" because he had never seen it before.

---

indian cherry (noun)

Deciduous shrub of eastern and central United States having black berrylike fruit; golden-yellow in autumn.

- He looked up "indian cherry" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "indian cherry" to mean deciduous shrub of eastern and central united....

---

indian corn (noun)

Tall annual cereal grass bearing kernels on large ears: widely cultivated in America in many varieties; the principal cereal in Mexico and Central and South America since pre-Columbian times.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian corn."
- He looked up "indian corn" because he had never seen it before.

---

indian tobacco (noun)

Tobacco plant of South America and Mexico.

- He looked up "indian tobacco" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian tobacco."

---

joint snake (noun)

Snakelike lizard of Europe and Asia and North America with vestigial hind limbs and the ability to regenerate its long fragile tail.

- In class, the teacher used "joint snake" to mean snakelike lizard of europe and asia and north....
- Understanding "joint snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kentucky coffee tree (noun)

Handsome tree of central and eastern North America having large bipinnate leaves and green-white flowers followed by large woody brown pods whose seeds are used as a coffee substitute.

- He looked up "kentucky coffee tree" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kentucky coffee tree."

kiss-me-over-the-garden-gate (noun)

Annual with broadly ovate leaves and slender drooping spikes of crimson flowers; southeastern Asia and Australia; naturalized in North America.

- Understanding "kiss-me-over-the-garden-gate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "kiss-me-over-the-garden-gate" because he had never seen it before.

light beam (noun)

A column of light (as from a beacon).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light beam."
- He looked up "light beam" because he had never seen it before.

low beam (noun)

The beam of a car's headlights that provides illumination for a short distance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "low beam."
- He looked up "low beam" because he had never seen it before.

magnetic line of force (noun)

A line of force in a magnetic field.

- In class, the teacher used "magnetic line of force" to mean a line of force in a magnetic field.
- Understanding "magnetic line of force" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

new zealand cotton (noun)

A fiber from the bast of New Zealand ribbon trees that resembles cotton fiber.

- He looked up "new zealand cotton" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "new zealand cotton" to mean a fiber from the bast of new zealand ribbon trees....

pie plant (noun)

Long cultivated hybrid of Rheum palmatum; stems often cooked in pies or as sauce or preserves.

- They discussed "pie plant" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pie plant" to mean long cultivated hybrid of rheum palmatum; stems....

purple chinese houses (noun)

White and lavender to pale-blue flowers grow in perfect rings of widely spaced bands around the stems forming a kind of pagoda; California.

- Understanding "purple chinese houses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purple chinese houses."

rose bug (noun)

Common North American beetle: larvae feed on roots and adults on leaves and flowers of e.g. rose bushes or apple trees or grape vines.

- They discussed "rose bug" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rose bug" because he had never seen it before.

sand cricket (noun)

Large wingless nocturnal grasshopper that burrows in loose soil along the Pacific coast of the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sand cricket."
- He looked up "sand cricket" because he had never seen it before.

sea ash (noun)

Small deciduous aromatic shrub (or tree) having spiny branches and yellowish flowers; eastern North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea ash."
- Understanding "sea ash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sea creature (noun)

Any of numerous animals inhabiting the sea including e.g. fishes and molluscs and many mammals.

- He looked up "sea creature" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sea creature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sheep plant (noun)

Perennial prostrate mat-forming herb with hoary woolly foliage.

- He looked up "sheep plant" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sheep plant."

---

sound barrier (noun)

The increase in aerodynamic drag as an airplane approaches the speed of sound.

- Understanding "sound barrier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sound barrier" means with a simple example.

---

sporting dog (noun)

A dog trained to work with sportsmen when they hunt with guns.

- Understanding "sporting dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sporting dog" during the group presentation.

---

sweet corn (noun)

A corn plant developed in order to have young ears that are sweet and suitable for eating.

- He looked up "sweet corn" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweet corn."

---

tape grass (noun)

Submerged aquatic plant with ribbonlike leaves; Old World and Australia.

- In class, the teacher used "tape grass" to mean submerged aquatic plant with ribbonlike leaves; old....
- He looked up "tape grass" because he had never seen it before.

---

tobacco plant (noun)

Aromatic annual or perennial herbs and shrubs.

- He looked up "tobacco plant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tobacco plant" during the group presentation.

---

twist wood (noun)

Vigorous deciduous European treelike shrub common along waysides; red berries turn black.

- In class, the teacher used "twist wood" to mean vigorous deciduous european treelike shrub common....
- The article explained what "twist wood" means with a simple example.

---

wild duck (noun)

An undomesticated duck (especially a mallard).

- They discussed "wild duck" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "wild duck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wine palm (noun)

Fishtail palm of India to Malay Peninsula; sap yields a brown sugar (jaggery) and trunk pith yields sago.

- They discussed "wine palm" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "wine palm" to mean fishtail palm of india to malay peninsula; sap....

---

wood duck (noun)

Showy North American duck that nests in hollow trees.

- Understanding "wood duck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wood duck."

---

alpha wave (noun)

The normal brainwave in the electroencephalogram of a person who is awake but relaxed; occurs with a frequency of 8-12 hertz.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alpha wave."
- He looked up "alpha wave" because he had never seen it before.

---

bacteria species (noun)

A species of bacteria.

- They discussed “bacteria species” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “bacteria species” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brown ash (noun)

Vigorous spreading North American tree having dark brown heavy wood; leaves turn gold in autumn.

- In class, the teacher used “brown ash” to mean vigorous spreading north american tree having dark....
- Understanding “brown ash” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

california black oak (noun)

Large deciduous tree of the Pacific coast having deeply parted bristle-tipped leaves.

- He looked up “california black oak” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “california black oak” during the group presentation.

---

california live oak (noun)

Highly variable often shrubby evergreen oak of coastal zone of western North America having small thick usually spiny-toothed dark-green leaves.

- They discussed “california live oak” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “california live oak.”

---

california white oak (noun)

Tall graceful deciduous California oak having leathery leaves and slender pointed acorns.

- He looked up “california white oak” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “california white oak” to mean tall graceful deciduous california oak having....

---

cherry tree (noun)

Any of numerous trees and shrubs producing a small fleshy round fruit with a single hard stone; many also produce a valuable hardwood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cherry tree.”
- The article explained what “cherry tree” means with a simple example.

---

common pepper (noun)

Climber having dark red berries (peppercorns) when fully ripe; southern India and Sri Lanka; naturalized in northern Burma and Assam.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “common pepper.”
- He looked up “common pepper” because he had never seen it before.

---

cover crop (noun)

Crop planted to prevent soil erosion and provide green manure.

- The article explained what “cover crop” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cover crop” to mean crop planted to prevent soil erosion and provide....

---

european swift (noun)

Common European bird with a shrieking call that nests chiefly about eaves of buildings or on cliffs.

- In class, the teacher used “european swift” to mean common european bird with a shrieking call that....
- He looked up “european swift” because he had never seen it before.

---

gray wolf (noun)

A wolf with a brindled grey coat living in forested northern regions of North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gray wolf.”
- The article explained what “gray wolf” means with a simple example.

---

hot pepper (noun)

Plant bearing very hot medium-sized oblong red peppers; grown principally in the Gulf Coast states for production of hot sauce.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hot pepper.”
- He looked up “hot pepper” because he had never seen it before.

---

hurricane (noun)

A severe tropical cyclone usually with heavy rains and winds moving a 73-136 knots (12 on the Beaufort scale).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hurricane.”
- Understanding “hurricane” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mad-dog weed (noun)

An American mint that yields a resinous exudate used especially formerly as an antispasmodic.

- Understanding "mad-dog weed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mad-dog weed" means with a simple example.

oak tree (noun)

A deciduous tree of the genus Quercus; has acorns and lobed leaves.

- Great oaks grow from little acorns.
- They discussed "oak tree" during the group presentation.

outcomes (noun)

A phenomenon that follows and is caused by some previous phenomenon.

- The article explained what "outcomes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "outcomes" to mean a phenomenon that follows and is caused by some....

saint francis (noun)

A tributary of the Mississippi River that rises in Missouri and flows southeastward through Arkansas.

- The article explained what "saint francis" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saint francis."

sang (noun)

North American woodland herb similar to and used as substitute for the Chinese ginseng.

- They discussed "sang" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sang" means with a simple example.

separation energy (noun)

The energy required to separate particles from a molecule or atom or nucleus; equals the mass defect.

- Understanding "separation energy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "separation energy" to mean the energy required to separate particles from a....

shell-flower (noun)

Showy perennial of marshlands of eastern and central North America having waxy lanceolate leaves and flower with lower part creamy white and upper parts pale pink to deep purple.

- In class, the teacher used "shell-flower" to mean showy perennial of marshlands of eastern and....
- The article explained what "shell-flower" means with a simple example.

soap tree (noun)

Tall arborescent yucca of southwestern United States.

- They discussed "soap tree" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soap tree."

sugar palm (noun)

Malaysian feather palm with base densely clothed with fibers; yields a sweet sap used in wine and trunk pith yields sago.

- Understanding "sugar palm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sugar palm" because he had never seen it before.

survivors (noun)

An animal that survives in spite of adversity.

- Only the fittest animals were survivors of the cold winters.
- The survivors of the fire were taken to a hospital.

toy manchester (noun)

Breed of small Manchester terrier.

- In class, the teacher used "toy manchester" to mean breed of small manchester terrier.
- The article explained what "toy manchester" means with a simple example.

tree tobacco (noun)

Evergreen South American shrub naturalized in United States; occasionally responsible for poisoning livestock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tree tobacco."
- He looked up "tree tobacco" because he had never seen it before.

triple-crown season (noun)

A season of baseball during which a player wins the triple crown.

- The article explained what "triple-crown season" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "triple-crown season" during the group presentation.

water deer (noun)

Largest chevrotain; of marshy areas of west Africa.

- They discussed "water deer" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "water deer" means with a simple example.

winter cherry (noun)

Old World perennial cultivated for its ornamental inflated papery orange-red calyx.

- In class, the teacher used "winter cherry" to mean old world perennial cultivated for its ornamental....
- Understanding "winter cherry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wire grass (noun)

Handsome hardy North American grass with foliage turning pale bronze in autumn.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wire grass."
- He looked up "wire grass" because he had never seen it before.

african oil palm (noun)

Oil palm of Africa.

- Understanding "african oil palm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "african oil palm" means with a simple example.

air potato (noun)

Yam of tropical Africa and Asia cultivated for it large tubers.

- The article explained what "air potato" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "air potato" to mean yam of tropical africa and asia cultivated for it....

cherry stone (noun)

The stone seed of a cherry.

- Understanding "cherry stone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cherry stone" means with a simple example.

darling (noun)

An Australian river; tributary of the Murray River.

- They discussed "darling" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "darling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electric arc (noun)

Electrical conduction through a gas in an applied electric field.

- The article explained what "electric arc" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "electric arc" during the group presentation.

flash flood (noun)

A sudden local flood of great volume and short duration.

- He looked up "flash flood" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flash flood."

flesh fly (noun)

Fly whose larvae feed on carrion or the flesh of living animals.

- They discussed "flesh fly" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "flesh fly" to mean fly whose larvae feed on carrion or the flesh of....

---

forecast (noun)

A prediction about how something (as the weather) will develop.

- The article explained what "forecast" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "forecast" during the group presentation.

---

gentle wind (noun)

A slight wind (usually refreshing).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gentle wind."
- He looked up "gentle wind" because he had never seen it before.

---

honey-flower (noun)

Australian shrub whose flowers yield honey copiously.

- They discussed "honey-flower" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "honey-flower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

india-rubber plant (noun)

Large tropical Asian tree frequently dwarfed as a houseplant; source of Assam rubber.

- The article explained what "india-rubber plant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "india-rubber plant" to mean large tropical asian tree frequently dwarfed as a....

---

india-rubber tree (noun)

Large tropical Asian tree frequently dwarfed as a houseplant; source of Assam rubber.

- In class, the teacher used "india-rubber tree" to mean large tropical asian tree frequently dwarfed as a....
- They discussed "india-rubber tree" during the group presentation.

---

jack oak (noun)

A common scrubby deciduous tree of central and southeastern United States having dark bark and broad three-lobed (club-shaped) leaves; tends to form dense thickets.

- In class, the teacher used "jack oak" to mean a common scrubby deciduous tree of central and....
- The article explained what "jack oak" means with a simple example.

---

japanese cherry (noun)

Ornamental tree with inedible fruits widely cultivated in many varieties for its white blossoms.

- In class, the teacher used "japanese cherry" to mean ornamental tree with inedible fruits widely....
- The article explained what "japanese cherry" means with a simple example.

---

japanese oak (noun)

Oak with moderately light fine-grained wood; Japan.

- He looked up "japanese oak" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "japanese oak" during the group presentation.

---

milk snake (noun)

Nonvenomous tan and brown king snake with an arrow-shaped occipital spot; southeastern ones have red stripes like coral snakes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "milk snake."
- Understanding "milk snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

natural phenomenon (noun)

All phenomena that are not artificial.

- He looked up "natural phenomenon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "natural phenomenon."

---

pearl river (noun)

A river in southeast China that flows into the South China Sea.

- In class, the teacher used "pearl river" to mean a river in southeast china that flows into the....
- The article explained what "pearl river" means with a simple example.

---

pine family (noun)

A family of Pinaceae.

- He looked up “pine family” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “pine family” to mean a family of pinaceae.

pocket mouse (noun)

Any of various small nocturnal burrowing desert rodents with cheek pouches and long hind legs and tail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pocket mouse.”
- Understanding “pocket mouse” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

queen charlotte sound (noun)

An inlet of the Pacific Ocean off the coast of British Columbia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “queen charlotte sound.”
- He looked up “queen charlotte sound” because he had never seen it before.

red deer (noun)

Common deer of temperate Europe and Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “red deer.”
- He looked up “red deer” because he had never seen it before.

sea cow (noun)

Any of two families of large herbivorous aquatic mammals with paddle-shaped tails and flipper-like forelimbs and no hind limbs.

- Understanding “sea cow” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “sea cow” because he had never seen it before.

self-heal (noun)

Decumbent blue-flowered European perennial thought to possess healing properties; naturalized throughout North America.

- They discussed “self-heal” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “self-heal” because he had never seen it before.

silver oak (noun)

Small slender tree with usually entire grey-green pendulous leaves and white or cream-colored flowers; northern Australia.

- In class, the teacher used “silver oak” to mean small slender tree with usually entire grey-green....
- They discussed “silver oak” during the group presentation.

thick-knee (noun)

Large-headed large-eyed crepuscular or nocturnal shorebird of the Old World and tropical America having a thickened knee joint.

- They discussed “thick-knee” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “thick-knee” means with a simple example.

tongue-flower (noun)

Orchid having blue to purple flowers with tongue-shaped or strap-shaped protuberances (calli) at the lip base.

- Understanding “tongue-flower” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “tongue-flower” means with a simple example.

wall pepper (noun)

Mossy European creeping sedum with yellow flowers; widely introduced as a ground cover.

- In class, the teacher used “wall pepper” to mean mossy european creeping sedum with yellow flowers;....
- The article explained what “wall pepper” means with a simple example.

wild cherry (noun)

An uncultivated cherry tree.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wild cherry.”
- The article explained what “wild cherry” means with a simple example.

wild sheep (noun)

Undomesticated sheep.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wild sheep.”
- The article explained what “wild sheep” means with a simple example.

---

wild tobacco (noun)

Tobacco plant of South America and Mexico.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wild tobacco.”
- He looked up “wild tobacco” because he had never seen it before.

---

ash tree (noun)

Any of various deciduous pinnate-leaved ornamental or timber trees of the genus Fraxinus.

- In class, the teacher used “ash tree” to mean any of various deciduous pinnate-leaved ornamental....
- Understanding “ash tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

baltimore bird (noun)

Eastern subspecies of northern oriole.

- He looked up “baltimore bird” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “baltimore bird.”

---

beta ray (noun)

Radiation of beta particles during radioactive decay.

- Understanding “beta ray” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “beta ray.”

---

bird parker (noun)

United States saxophonist and leader of the bop style of jazz (1920-1955).

- Understanding “bird parker” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “bird parker” because he had never seen it before.

---

black and gold garden spider (noun)

A widely distributed North American garden spider.

- He looked up “black and gold garden spider” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “black and gold garden spider.”

---

black cherry tree (noun)

Large North American wild cherry with round black sour edible fruit.

- Understanding “black cherry tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “black cherry tree” means with a simple example.

---

black pine (noun)

Large two-needled timber pine of southeastern Europe.

- The article explained what “black pine” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “black pine” to mean large two-needled timber pine of southeastern europe.

---

boat bug (noun)

Carnivorous aquatic bug having paddle-like hind legs.

- He looked up “boat bug” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “boat bug” to mean carnivorous aquatic bug having paddle-like hind legs.

---

breed (noun)

A special variety of domesticated animals within a species.

- He experimented on a particular breed of white rats.
- Google represents a new breed of entrepreneurs.

---

bud (noun)

A swelling on a plant stem consisting of overlapping immature leaves or petals.

- The article explained what “bud” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “bud” during the group presentation.

catch crop (noun)

A crop that grows quickly (e.g. lettuce) and can be planted between two regular crops grown in successive seasons or between two rows of crops in the same season.

- They discussed "catch crop" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "catch crop" to mean a crop that grows quickly (e.g. lettuce) and can be....

chain lightning (noun)

A form of lightning that moves rapidly in a zigzag path with one end divided (fork-like).

- They discussed "chain lightning" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "chain lightning" because he had never seen it before.

cherry apple (noun)

Asian wild crab apple cultivated in many varieties for it small acid usually red fruit used for preserving.

- The article explained what "cherry apple" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cherry apple" during the group presentation.

chicken snake (noun)

Large North American snake.

- The article explained what "chicken snake" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chicken snake."

coast live oak (noun)

Highly variable often shrubby evergreen oak of coastal zone of western North America having small thick usually spiny-toothed dark-green leaves.

- They discussed "coast live oak" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coast live oak."

common european ash (noun)

Tall ash of Europe to the Caucasus having leaves shiny dark-green above and pale downy beneath.

- Understanding "common european ash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "common european ash" during the group presentation.

dead-man's-fingers (noun)

The fruiting bodies of the fungi of the genus Xylaria.

- He looked up "dead-man's-fingers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dead-man's-fingers."

eastern ground snake (noun)

In some classifications placed in genus Haldea; small reddish-grey snake of eastern North America.

- They discussed "eastern ground snake" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "eastern ground snake" to mean in some classifications placed in genus haldea;....

flood plain (noun)

A low plain adjacent to a river that is formed chiefly of river sediment and is subject to flooding.

- He looked up "flood plain" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "flood plain" during the group presentation.

freak (noun)

A person or animal that is markedly unusual or deformed.

- A bodybuilding freak.
- They discussed "freak" during the group presentation.

great white shark (noun)

Large aggressive shark widespread in warm seas; known to attack humans.

- The article explained what "great white shark" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great white shark."

horse grain (noun)

Twining herb of Old World tropics cultivated in India for food and fodder; sometimes placed in genus Dolichos.

- Understanding "horse grain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse grain."

---

indian salad (noun)

Showy perennial herb with white flowers; leaves sometimes used as edible greens in southeastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "indian salad" to mean showy perennial herb with white flowers; leaves....
- The article explained what "indian salad" means with a simple example.

---

iron oak (noun)

Medium-sized evergreen of southwestern United States and northwestern Mexico with oblong leathery often spiny-edged leaves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iron oak."
- The article explained what "iron oak" means with a simple example.

---

leather flower (noun)

Woody vine of the southern United States having purple or blue flowers with leathery recurved sepals.

- In class, the teacher used "leather flower" to mean woody vine of the southern united states having....
- They discussed "leather flower" during the group presentation.

---

mountain sheep (noun)

Any wild sheep inhabiting mountainous regions.

- In class, the teacher used "mountain sheep" to mean any wild sheep inhabiting mountainous regions.
- Understanding "mountain sheep" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oak apple (noun)

Oak gall caused by larvae of a cynipid wasp.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oak apple."
- The article explained what "oak apple" means with a simple example.

---

olive family (noun)

Trees and shrubs having berries or drupes or capsules as fruits; sometimes placed in the order Oleales: olive; ash; jasmine; privet; lilac.

- They discussed "olive family" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "olive family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

paradise tree (noun)

Medium to large tree of tropical North and South America having odd-pinnate leaves and long panicles of small pale yellow flowers followed by scarlet fruits.

- The article explained what "paradise tree" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "paradise tree" during the group presentation.

---

pets (noun)

A domesticated animal kept for companionship or amusement.

- In class, the teacher used "pets" to mean a domesticated animal kept for companionship or....
- The article explained what "pets" means with a simple example.

---

red drum (noun)

Large edible fish found off coast of United States from Massachusetts to Mexico.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red drum."
- The article explained what "red drum" means with a simple example.

---

red pine (noun)

Pine of eastern North America having long needles in bunches of two and reddish bark.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red pine."
- He looked up "red pine" because he had never seen it before.

---

sea eagle (noun)

Any of various large eagles that usually feed on fish.

- The article explained what "sea eagle" means with a simple example.

- They discussed “sea eagle” during the group presentation.

---

shade tree (noun)

A tree planted or valued chiefly for its shade from sunlight.

- The article explained what “shade tree” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “shade tree” to mean a tree planted or valued chiefly for its shade from....

---

solar radiation (noun)

Radiation from the sun.

- Understanding “solar radiation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “solar radiation” during the group presentation.

---

southern live oak (noun)

Medium-sized evergreen native to eastern North America to the east coast of Mexico; often cultivated as shade tree for it wide-spreading crown; extremely hard tough durable wood once used in shipbuilding.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “southern live oak.”
- They discussed “southern live oak” during the group presentation.

---

storm-beaten (adjective)

Damaged by storm.

- The speaker chose “storm-beaten” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation “storm-beaten”? Explain why.

---

sword grass (noun)

Any of various grasses or sedges having sword-shaped leaves with sharp edges.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sword grass.”
- He looked up “sword grass” because he had never seen it before.

---

tail-flower (noun)

Any of various tropical American plants cultivated for their showy foliage and flowers.

- He looked up “tail-flower” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “tail-flower” during the group presentation.

---

true pine (noun)

A coniferous tree.

- Understanding “true pine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “true pine” means with a simple example.

---

west indian cherry (noun)

Tropical American shrub bearing edible acid red fruit resembling cherries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “west indian cherry.”
- He looked up “west indian cherry” because he had never seen it before.

---

white pine (noun)

Any of several five-needled pines with white wood and smooth usually light grey bark when young; especially the eastern white pine.

- The article explained what “white pine” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “white pine” during the group presentation.

---

white shark (noun)

Large aggressive shark widespread in warm seas; known to attack humans.

- He looked up “white shark” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “white shark” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

window dressing (noun)

A showy misrepresentation intended to conceal something unpleasant.

- They discussed “window dressing” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “window dressing.”

wood rat (noun)

Any of various small short-tailed rodents of the northern hemisphere having soft fur grey above and white below with furred tails and large ears; some are hosts for Ixodes pacificus and Ixodes scapularis (Lyme disease ticks).

- Understanding “wood rat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “wood rat” to mean any of various small short-tailed rodents of the....

wood-rat (noun)

Any of various small short-tailed rodents of the northern hemisphere having soft fur grey above and white below with furred tails and large ears; some are hosts for Ixodes pacificus and Ixodes scapularis (Lyme disease ticks).

- The article explained what “wood-rat” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “wood-rat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

american olive (noun)

Small tree of southern United States having panicles of dull white flowers followed by dark purple fruits.

- The article explained what “american olive” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “american olive.”

american white pine (noun)

Tall-growing pine of eastern North America; bark is brown with longitudinal fissures when mature; valued as a timber tree.

- The article explained what “american white pine” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “american white pine” to mean tall-growing pine of eastern north america; bark is....

bear oak (noun)

Shrubby oak of southeastern United States usually forming dense thickets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bear oak.”
- The article explained what “bear oak” means with a simple example.

billion-dollar grass (noun)

Coarse annual grass cultivated in Japan and southeastern Asia for its edible seeds and for forage; important wildlife food in United States.

- In class, the teacher used “billion-dollar grass” to mean coarse annual grass cultivated in japan and....
- The article explained what “billion-dollar grass” means with a simple example.

black bee (noun)

Dark-colored ill-tempered honeybee supposedly of German origin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “black bee.”
- Understanding “black bee” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

brain surgeon (noun)

Someone who does surgery on the nervous system (especially the brain).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “brain surgeon.”
- The article explained what “brain surgeon” means with a simple example.

buffalo fish (noun)

Any of several large suckers of the Mississippi valley.

- They discussed “buffalo fish” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “buffalo fish” to mean any of several large suckers of the mississippi valley.

caribbean sea (noun)

An arm of the Atlantic Ocean between North and South America; the origin of the Gulf stream.

- He looked up “caribbean sea” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “caribbean sea” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

common fig (noun)

Mediterranean tree widely cultivated for its edible fruit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “common fig.”
- Understanding “common fig” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

consequence (noun)

A phenomenon that follows and is caused by some previous phenomenon.

- His decision had depressing consequences for business.
- Decisions of great consequence are made by the president himself.

---

domestic sheep (noun)

Any of various breeds raised for wool or edible meat or skin.

- They discussed "domestic sheep" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "domestic sheep" because he had never seen it before.

---

forests (verb)

Establish a forest on previously unforested land.

- Learners should practice how to use "forests" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "forests" when talking about this idea.

---

indian buffalo (noun)

Upland buffalo of eastern Asia where true water buffaloes do not thrive; used for draft and milk.

- Understanding "indian buffalo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "indian buffalo" because he had never seen it before.

---

lucy (noun)

Incomplete skeleton of female found in eastern Ethiopia in 1974.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lucy."
- He looked up "lucy" because he had never seen it before.

---

mountain oak (noun)

Tall timber tree with hard heavy pinkish or light brown wood.

- He looked up "mountain oak" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mountain oak" to mean tall timber tree with hard heavy pinkish or light....

---

northern red oak (noun)

Large symmetrical deciduous tree with rounded crown widely distributed in eastern North America; has large leaves with triangular spiny tipped lobes and coarse-grained wood less durable than that of white oaks.

- Understanding "northern red oak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "northern red oak" because he had never seen it before.

---

pearl-fish (noun)

Found living within the alimentary canals of e.g. sea cucumbers or between the shells of pearl oysters in or near shallow seagrass beds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pearl-fish."
- He looked up "pearl-fish" because he had never seen it before.

---

physical phenomenon (noun)

A natural phenomenon involving the physical properties of matter and energy.

- He looked up "physical phenomenon" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "physical phenomenon" to mean a natural phenomenon involving the physical....

---

plant organ (noun)

A functional and structural unit of a plant or fungus.

- In class, the teacher used "plant organ" to mean a functional and structural unit of a plant or fungus.
- Understanding "plant organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rainbow (noun)

An arc of colored light in the sky caused by refraction of the sun's rays by rain.

- Chasing rainbows.
- He looked up "rainbow" because he had never seen it before.

---

running pine (noun)

A variety of club moss.

- They discussed “running pine” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “running pine.”

---

silver ash (noun)

Any of various timber trees of the genus Flindersia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “silver ash.”
- They discussed “silver ash” during the group presentation.

---

soft corn (noun)

Corn having kernels almost entirely of soft starch.

- He looked up “soft corn” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “soft corn.”

---

southern red oak (noun)

Large round-topped deciduous tree with spreading branches having narrow falcate leaves with deeply sinuate lobes and wood similar to that of northern red oaks; New Jersey to Illinois and southward.

- He looked up “southern red oak” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “southern red oak” to mean large round-topped deciduous tree with spreading....

---

spanish oak (noun)

Small deciduous tree having the trunk branched almost from the base with spreading branches; Texas and southern Oklahoma.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spanish oak.”
- He looked up “spanish oak” because he had never seen it before.

---

spotted ray (noun)

Ray with back covered with white or yellow spots; widely distributed in warm seas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spotted ray.”
- He looked up “spotted ray” because he had never seen it before.

---

sugar corn (noun)

A corn plant developed in order to have young ears that are sweet and suitable for eating.

- He looked up “sugar corn” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “sugar corn” to mean a corn plant developed in order to have young ears....

---

sweet pepper (noun)

Plant bearing large mild thick-walled usually bell-shaped fruits; the principal salad peppers.

- In class, the teacher used “sweet pepper” to mean plant bearing large mild thick-walled usually....
- The article explained what “sweet pepper” means with a simple example.

---

tree farmer (noun)

Someone trained in forestry.

- The article explained what “tree farmer” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “tree farmer” to mean someone trained in forestry.

---

tree swift (noun)

Birds of southeast Asia and East Indies differing from true swifts in having upright crests and nesting in trees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tree swift.”
- Understanding “tree swift” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

valley oak (noun)

Tall graceful deciduous California oak having leathery leaves and slender pointed acorns.

- He looked up “valley oak” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “valley oak.”

---

beta wave (noun)

The normal brainwave in the encephalogram of a person who is awake and alert; occurs with a frequency between 12 and 30 hertz.

- The article explained what “beta wave” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “beta wave” to mean the normal brainwave in the encephalogram of a....

black widow (noun)

Venomous New World spider; the female is black with an hourglass-shaped red mark on the underside of the abdomen.

- The article explained what "black widow" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "black widow" during the group presentation.

bleeding heart (noun)

Garden plant having deep-pink drooping heart-shaped flowers.

- He looked up "bleeding heart" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bleeding heart."

blue fig (noun)

The fruit of the Brisbane quandong tree.

- He looked up "blue fig" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "blue fig" during the group presentation.

blue shark (noun)

Slender cosmopolitan, pelagic shark; blue body shades to white belly; dangerous especially during maritime disasters.

- The article explained what "blue shark" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "blue shark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blue-belly (noun)

Common western lizard; seen on logs or rocks.

- The article explained what "blue-belly" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "blue-belly" during the group presentation.

brush turkey (noun)

Black megapode of wooded regions of Australia and New Guinea.

- Understanding "brush turkey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brush turkey."

connecticut river (noun)

A river in the northeastern United States; flows south from northern New Hampshire along the border between New Hampshire and Vermont and through Massachusetts and Connecticut where it empties into Long Island Sound.

- The article explained what "connecticut river" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "connecticut river."

corn snow (noun)

Granular snow formed by alternate thawing and freezing.

- The article explained what "corn snow" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "corn snow" to mean granular snow formed by alternate thawing and freezing.

cotton grass (noun)

Any sedge of the genus Eriophorum; north temperate bog plants with tufted spikes.

- The article explained what "cotton grass" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cotton grass" to mean any sedge of the genus eriophorum; north temperate....

dynamic electricity (noun)

A flow of electric charge.

- Understanding "dynamic electricity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dynamic electricity" means with a simple example.

fish eagle (noun)

Large harmless hawk found worldwide that feeds on fish and builds a bulky nest often occupied for years.

- Understanding "fish eagle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fish eagle" means with a simple example.

florida water rat (noun)

Of Florida wetlands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "florida water rat."
- He looked up "florida water rat" because he had never seen it before.

---

ground pine (noun)

Any of several club mosses having long creeping stems and erect branches.

- They discussed "ground pine" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ground pine" means with a simple example.

---

mountain ash (noun)

Any of various trees of the genus Sorbus.

- They discussed "mountain ash" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mountain ash" to mean any of various trees of the genus sorbus.

---

mouse ear (noun)

Any of various plants related to the common chickweed.

- The article explained what "mouse ear" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mouse ear."

---

musical time signature (noun)

A musical notation indicating the number of beats to a measure and kind of note that takes a beat.

- The article explained what "musical time signature" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "musical time signature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

new world monkey (noun)

Hairy-faced arboreal monkeys having widely separated nostrils and long usually prehensile tails.

- The article explained what "new world monkey" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "new world monkey" during the group presentation.

---

northwest wind (noun)

A wind from the northwest.

- Understanding "northwest wind" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "northwest wind" during the group presentation.

---

painted tongue (noun)

Chilean herb having velvety funnel-shaped yellowish or violet flowers with long tonguelike styles at the corolla throat.

- The article explained what "painted tongue" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "painted tongue" to mean chilean herb having velvety funnel-shaped yellowish....

---

pen-tail (noun)

Brown tree shrew having a naked tail bilaterally fringed with long stiff hairs on the distal third; of Malaysia.

- Understanding "pen-tail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pen-tail" because he had never seen it before.

---

pepper tree (noun)

Small African deciduous tree with spreading crown having leaves clustered toward ends of branches and clusters of creamy flowers resembling lilacs.

- In class, the teacher used "pepper tree" to mean small african deciduous tree with spreading crown....
- The article explained what "pepper tree" means with a simple example.

---

rain barrel (noun)

A barrel used as a cistern to hold rainwater.

- He looked up "rain barrel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rain barrel."

---

saint lawrence (noun)

A North American river; flows into the Gulf of Saint Lawrence and the North Atlantic.

- Understanding "saint lawrence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “saint lawrence” because he had never seen it before.

---

san jose scale (noun)

Small east Asian insect naturalized in the United States that damages fruit trees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “san jose scale.”
- They discussed “san jose scale” during the group presentation.

---

sand sole (noun)

A common flatfish of the Pacific coast of North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sand sole.”
- They discussed “sand sole” during the group presentation.

---

sand tiger (noun)

Shallow-water shark with sharp jagged teeth found on both sides of Atlantic; sometimes dangerous to swimmers.

- The article explained what “sand tiger” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “sand tiger” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seed coat (noun)

Protective outer layer of seeds of flowering plants.

- Understanding “seed coat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “seed coat” during the group presentation.

---

sierra (noun)

A Spanish mackerel of western North America.

- He looked up “sierra” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “sierra” during the group presentation.

---

wind cave national park (noun)

A national park in South Dakota featuring bison herds and limestone caverns.

- The article explained what “wind cave national park” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “wind cave national park” to mean a national park in south dakota featuring bison....

---

yellow oak (noun)

Medium to large deciduous timber tree of the eastern United States and southeastern Canada having dark outer bark and yellow inner bark used for tanning; broad five-lobed leaves are bristle-tipped.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “yellow oak.”
- He looked up “yellow oak” because he had never seen it before.

---

american elder (noun)

Common elder of central and eastern North America bearing purple-black berries; fruit used in wines and jellies.

- Understanding “american elder” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “american elder” means with a simple example.

---

bible leaf (noun)

Tansy-scented Eurasian perennial herb with buttonlike yellow flowers; used as potherb or salad green and sometimes for potpourri or tea or flavoring; sometimes placed in genus Chrysanthemum.

- Understanding “bible leaf” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “bible leaf” to mean tansy-scented eurasian perennial herb with....

---

bird cherry (noun)

Any of several small-fruited cherry trees frequented or fed on by birds.

- He looked up “bird cherry” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “bird cherry” to mean any of several small-fruited cherry trees....

---

blind snake (noun)

Wormlike burrowing snake of warm regions having vestigial eyes.

- The article explained what “blind snake” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “blind snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

brown pine (noun)

Large Australian tree with straight-grained yellow wood that turns brown on exposure.

- He looked up "brown pine" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "brown pine" to mean large australian tree with straight-grained yellow....

cam river (noun)

A river in east central England that flows past Cambridge to join the Ouse River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cam river."
- They discussed "cam river" during the group presentation.

crown imperial (noun)

Eurasian herb with a cluster of leaves and orange-red bell-shaped flowers at the top of the stem.

- Understanding "crown imperial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crown imperial."

cruel plant (noun)

Robust twining shrub having racemes of fragrant white or pink flowers with flat spreading terminal petals that trap nocturnal moths and hold them until dawn.

- He looked up "cruel plant" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cruel plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

diagnosed (verb)

Determine or distinguish the nature of a problem or an illness through a diagnostic analysis.

- Learners should practice how to use "diagnosed" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "diagnosed" and when to wait.

dust devil (noun)

A miniature whirlwind strong enough to whip dust and leaves and litter into the air.

- He looked up "dust devil" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dust devil" to mean a miniature whirlwind strong enough to whip dust....

giant water bug (noun)

Large water bug with piercing and sucking mouthparts; feeds on young fishes.

- Understanding "giant water bug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "giant water bug" to mean large water bug with piercing and sucking....

great blue shark (noun)

Slender cosmopolitan, pelagic shark; blue body shades to white belly; dangerous especially during maritime disasters.

- Understanding "great blue shark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great blue shark."

high sierra (noun)

A mountain range in eastern California; contains Mount Whitney.

- Understanding "high sierra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "high sierra" because he had never seen it before.

horn fly (noun)

Small black European fly introduced into North America; sucks blood from cattle especially at the base of the horn.

- He looked up "horn fly" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "horn fly" to mean small black european fly introduced into north....

indian potato (noun)

A North American vine with fragrant blossoms and edible tubers; important food crop of Native Americans.

- Understanding "indian potato" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "indian potato" during the group presentation.

influences (noun)

The effect of one thing (or person) on another.

- In class, the teacher used "influences" to mean the effect of one thing (or person) on another.
- They discussed "influences" during the group presentation.

---

magnetic storm (noun)

A sudden disturbance of the earth's magnetic field; caused by emission of particles from the sun.

- The article explained what "magnetic storm" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic storm."

---

mount adams (noun)

A mountain peak in southwestern Washington in the Cascade Range (12,307 feet high).

- The article explained what "mount adams" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mount adams" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

old world monkey (noun)

Of Africa or Arabia or Asia; having nonprehensile tails and nostrils close together.

- He looked up "old world monkey" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "old world monkey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

paint leaf (noun)

Showy poinsettia found from the southern United States to Peru.

- Understanding "paint leaf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "paint leaf" to mean showy poinsettia found from the southern united....

---

revolutionary justice organization (noun)

A Shiite terrorist organization with strong ties to Iran; seeks to create an Iranian fundamentalist Islamic state in Lebanon; car bombs are the signature weapon.

- The article explained what "revolutionary justice organization" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "revolutionary justice organization."

---

river cam (noun)

A river in east central England that flows past Cambridge to join the Ouse River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "river cam."
- They discussed "river cam" during the group presentation.

---

saint francis river (noun)

A tributary of the Mississippi River that rises in Missouri and flows southeastward through Arkansas.

- They discussed "saint francis river" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "saint francis river" because he had never seen it before.

---

sergeant fish (noun)

Large dark-striped tropical food and game fish related to remoras; found worldwide in coastal to open waters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sergeant fish."
- He looked up "sergeant fish" because he had never seen it before.

---

signature recognition (noun)

Biometric identification by automatically scanning a person's signature and matching it electronically against a library of known signatures.

- They discussed "signature recognition" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "signature recognition" means with a simple example.

---

stake driver (noun)

A kind of bittern.

- Understanding "stake driver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "stake driver" to mean a kind of bittern.

---

sweet corn plant (noun)

A corn plant developed in order to have young ears that are sweet and suitable for eating.

- The article explained what "sweet corn plant" means with a simple example.

- Understanding “sweet corn plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tree surgeon (noun)

A specialist in treating damaged trees.

- They discussed “tree surgeon” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “tree surgeon” means with a simple example.

valley white oak (noun)

Tall graceful deciduous California oak having leathery leaves and slender pointed acorns.

- They discussed “valley white oak” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “valley white oak” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

warming (noun)

Warm weather following a freeze; snow and ice melt.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “warming.”
- The article explained what “warming” means with a simple example.

american mountain ash (noun)

A variety of mountain ash.

- They discussed “american mountain ash” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “american mountain ash” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

arrow wood (noun)

Closely related to southern arrow wood; grows in the eastern United States from Maine to Ohio and Georgia.

- Understanding “arrow wood” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “arrow wood” means with a simple example.

australian pine (noun)

Common Australian tree widely grown as an ornamental in tropical regions; yields heavy hard red wood.

- In class, the teacher used “australian pine” to mean common australian tree widely grown as an....
- The article explained what “australian pine” means with a simple example.

basket star (noun)

Any starfish-like animal of the genera Euryale or Astrophyton or Gorgonocephalus having slender complexly branched interlacing arms radiating from a central disc.

- He looked up “basket star” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “basket star.”

black elder (noun)

A common shrub with black fruit or a small tree of Europe and Asia; fruit used for wines and jellies.

- The article explained what “black elder” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “black elder” during the group presentation.

black-headed snake (noun)

Small secretive ground-living snake; found from central United States to Argentina.

- The article explained what “black-headed snake” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “black-headed snake” to mean small secretive ground-living snake; found from....

california olive (noun)

Pacific coast tree having aromatic foliage and small umbellate flowers followed by olivelike fruit; yields a hard tough wood.

- The article explained what “california olive” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “california olive” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

common reed (noun)

Tall North American reed having relative wide leaves and large plumelike panicles; widely distributed in moist areas; used for mats, screens and arrow shafts.

- They discussed “common reed” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “common reed” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

darling river (noun)

An Australian river; tributary of the Murray River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "darling river."
- Understanding "darling river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

devil grass (noun)

Trailing grass native to Europe now cosmopolitan in warm regions; used for lawns and pastures especially in southern United States and India.

- He looked up "devil grass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "devil grass."

european sea eagle (noun)

Bulky greyish-brown eagle with a short wedge-shaped white tail; of Europe and Greenland.

- He looked up "european sea eagle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "european sea eagle."

fairy cup (noun)

A scarlet European fungus with cup-shaped ascocarp.

- They discussed "fairy cup" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fairy cup."

field mouse-ear (noun)

Densely tufted perennial chickweed of north temperate zone.

- In class, the teacher used "field mouse-ear" to mean densely tufted perennial chickweed of north....
- They discussed "field mouse-ear" during the group presentation.

ghost weed (noun)

Annual spurge of western United States having showy white-bracted flower clusters and very poisonous milk.

- In class, the teacher used "ghost weed" to mean annual spurge of western united states having showy....
- He looked up "ghost weed" because he had never seen it before.

globe flower (noun)

Any of several plants of the genus Trollius having globose yellow flowers.

- Understanding "globe flower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "globe flower" means with a simple example.

grain alcohol (noun)

The intoxicating agent in fermented and distilled liquors; used pure or denatured as a solvent or in medicines and colognes and cleaning solutions and rocket fuel; proposed as a renewable clean-burning additive to gasoline.

- The article explained what "grain alcohol" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "grain alcohol" to mean the intoxicating agent in fermented and distilled....

hart (noun)

A male deer, especially an adult male red deer.

- They discussed "hart" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hart" because he had never seen it before.

horn of plenty (noun)

A goat's horn filled with grain and flowers and fruit symbolizing prosperity.

- He looked up "horn of plenty" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "horn of plenty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

humble plant (noun)

Prostrate or semi-erect subshrub of tropical America, and Australia; heavily armed with recurved thorns and having sensitive soft grey-green leaflets that fold and droop at night or when touched or cooled.

- In class, the teacher used "humble plant" to mean prostrate or semi-erect subshrub of tropical....
- He looked up "humble plant" because he had never seen it before.

japanese deer (noun)

Small deer of Japan with slightly forked antlers.

- The article explained what "japanese deer" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese deer."

---

logan (noun)

A mountain peak in the St. Elias Range in the southwestern Yukon Territory in Canada (19,850 feet high).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "logan."
- They discussed "logan" during the group presentation.

---

mathematical (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or of the nature of mathematics.

- A mathematical textbook.
- Slide rules and other mathematical instruments.

---

potato tree (noun)

South American shrub or small tree widely cultivated in the tropics; not a true potato.

- They discussed "potato tree" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "potato tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

russian olive (noun)

Deciduous shrubby tree of Europe and western Asia having grey leaves and small yellow fruits covered in silvery scales; sometimes spiny.

- He looked up "russian olive" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "russian olive."

---

sea elephant (noun)

Either of two large northern Atlantic earless seals having snouts like trunks.

- In class, the teacher used "sea elephant" to mean either of two large northern atlantic earless seals....
- The article explained what "sea elephant" means with a simple example.

---

sheet lighting (noun)

Lightning that appears as a broad sheet; due to reflections of more distant lightning and to diffusion by the clouds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sheet lighting."
- He looked up "sheet lighting" because he had never seen it before.

---

silk tree (noun)

Attractive domed or flat-topped Asiatic tree having bipinnate leaves and flowers with long silky stamens.

- They discussed "silk tree" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silk tree."

---

solar gravity (noun)

The gravity of the sun.

- Solar gravity creates extreme pressures and temperatures.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solar gravity."

---

sweet lemon (noun)

Lemon tree having fruit with a somewhat insipid sweetish pulp.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweet lemon."
- He looked up "sweet lemon" because he had never seen it before.

---

syrian bear (noun)

Yellowish-grey Syrian brown bear.

- In class, the teacher used "syrian bear" to mean yellowish-grey syrian brown bear.
- The article explained what "syrian bear" means with a simple example.

---

theory of organic evolution (noun)

(biology) a scientific theory of the origin of species of plants and animals.

- In class, the teacher used "theory of organic evolution" to mean (biology) a scientific theory of the origin of....

- He looked up “theory of organic evolution” because he had never seen it before.

white mountain ash (noun)

Large tree with dark compact bark on lower trunk but smooth and white above; yields lumber similar to that of European or American ashes.

- In class, the teacher used “white mountain ash” to mean large tree with dark compact bark on lower trunk....
- Understanding “white mountain ash” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bird of paradise (noun)

A tropical flowering shrub having bright orange or red flowers; sometimes placed in genus Poinciana.

- They discussed “bird of paradise” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “bird of paradise” means with a simple example.

blue elder (noun)

Shrub or small tree of western United States having white flowers and blue berries; fruit used in wines and jellies.

- Understanding “blue elder” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “blue elder” to mean shrub or small tree of western united states having....

cliff rose (noun)

Tufted thrift of seacoasts and mountains of north temperate zone; occasionally grown as a ground cover.

- They discussed “cliff rose” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cliff rose.”

common cotton grass (noun)

Having densely tufted white cottony or downlike glumes.

- In class, the teacher used “common cotton grass” to mean having densely tufted white cottony or downlike glumes.
- Understanding “common cotton grass” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

common elder (noun)

A common shrub with black fruit or a small tree of Europe and Asia; fruit used for wines and jellies.

- They discussed “common elder” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “common elder” means with a simple example.

cotton mouse (noun)

Large dark mouse of southeastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used “cotton mouse” to mean large dark mouse of southeastern united states.
- They discussed “cotton mouse” during the group presentation.

eagle ray (noun)

Powerful free-swimming tropical ray noted for ‘soaring’ by flapping winglike fins; usually harmless but has venomous tissue near base of the tail as in stingrays.

- He looked up “eagle ray” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “eagle ray” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fig tree (noun)

Any moraceous tree of the tropical genus Ficus; produces a closed pear-shaped receptacle that becomes fleshy and edible when mature.

- In class, the teacher used “fig tree” to mean any moraceous tree of the tropical genus ficus;....
- The article explained what “fig tree” means with a simple example.

flower arrangement (noun)

A decorative arrangement of flowers.

- They discussed “flower arrangement” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “flower arrangement.”

four o’clock (noun)

Any of several plants of the genus Mirabilis having flowers that open in late afternoon.

- He looked up “four o’clock” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “four o’clock.”

german bee (noun)

Dark-colored ill-tempered honeybee supposedly of German origin.

- In class, the teacher used "german bee" to mean dark-colored ill-tempered honeybee supposedly of....
- The article explained what "german bee" means with a simple example.

---

green monkey (noun)

Common savannah monkey with greenish-grey back and yellow tail.

- Understanding "green monkey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "green monkey" to mean common savannah monkey with greenish-grey back and....

---

harvest (noun)

The consequence of an effort or activity.

- They gathered a harvest of examples.
- A harvest of love.

---

hudson (noun)

A New York river; flows southward into New York Bay; explored by Henry Hudson early in the 17th century.

- The article explained what "hudson" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hudson."

---

hunting spider (noun)

Ground spider that hunts its prey instead of using a web.

- He looked up "hunting spider" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hunting spider" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jack pine (noun)

Slender medium-sized two-needled pine of eastern North America; with yellow-green needles and scaly grey to red-brown fissured bark.

- They discussed "jack pine" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jack pine."

---

jungle cat (noun)

Small Asiatic wildcat.

- They discussed "jungle cat" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jungle cat."

---

lemon tree (noun)

A small evergreen tree that originated in Asia but is widely cultivated for its fruit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lemon tree."
- He looked up "lemon tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

milk cow (noun)

Cattle that are reared for their milk.

- He looked up "milk cow" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "milk cow."

---

monkey dog (noun)

European breed of small dog resembling a terrier with dark wiry hair and a tufted muzzle.

- The article explained what "monkey dog" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "monkey dog" during the group presentation.

---

mountain climbing (noun)

The activity of climbing a mountain.

- He looked up "mountain climbing" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mountain climbing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

old world rabbit (noun)

Common greyish-brown burrowing animal native to southern Europe and northern Africa but introduced elsewhere; widely domesticated and developed in various colors and for various needs; young are born naked and helpless.

- The article explained what "old world rabbit" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "old world rabbit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pin grass (noun)

European weed naturalized in southwestern United States and Mexico having reddish decumbent stems with small fernlike leaves and small deep reddish-lavender flowers followed by slender fruits that stick straight up; often grown for forage.

- The article explained what "pin grass" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pin grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pine tree (noun)

A coniferous tree.

- He looked up "pine tree" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pine tree" to mean a coniferous tree.

---

rays (noun)

A branch of an umbel or an umbelliform inflorescence.

- The article explained what "rays" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rays."

---

river basin (noun)

The entire geographical area drained by a river and its tributaries; an area characterized by all runoff being conveyed to the same outlet.

- Flood control in the Missouri basin.
- They discussed "river basin" during the group presentation.

---

santa maria tree (noun)

West Indian tree having racemes of fragrant white flowers and yielding a durable timber and resinous juice.

- They discussed "santa maria tree" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "santa maria tree" to mean west indian tree having racemes of fragrant white....

---

silk wood (noun)

A fast-growing tropical American evergreen having white flowers and white fleshy edible fruit; bark yields a silky fiber used in cordage and wood is valuable for staves.

- Understanding "silk wood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "silk wood" means with a simple example.

---

spider flower (noun)

Native to South America but naturalized in warm parts of United States; grown for its long-lasting spider-shaped white to pink-purple flowers.

- Understanding "spider flower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "spider flower" because he had never seen it before.

---

tennessee walking horse (noun)

A horse marked by stamina and trained to move at a fast running walk.

- In class, the teacher used "tennessee walking horse" to mean a horse marked by stamina and trained to move at a....
- They discussed "tennessee walking horse" during the group presentation.

---

turkey oak (noun)

Large deciduous tree of central and southern Europe and Asia Minor having lanceolate leaves with spiked lobes.

- The article explained what "turkey oak" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "turkey oak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

visible radiation (noun)

(physics) electromagnetic radiation that can produce a visual sensation.

- The article explained what "visible radiation" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visible radiation."

---

weather forecast (noun)

A forecast of the weather.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weather forecast."
- They discussed "weather forecast" during the group presentation.

western white pine (noun)

Tall pine of western North America with stout blue-green needles; bark is grey-brown with rectangular plates when mature.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “western white pine.”
- He looked up “western white pine” because he had never seen it before.

wheel bug (noun)

Large predatory North American bug that sucks the blood of other insects.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wheel bug.”
- He looked up “wheel bug” because he had never seen it before.

wild potato (noun)

Erect or spreading perennial of southwestern United States and Mexico bearing small pale brown to cream-colored tubers resembling potatoes.

- They discussed “wild potato” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “wild potato” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

american red elder (noun)

Common North American shrub or small tree.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “american red elder.”
- He looked up “american red elder” because he had never seen it before.

artificial flower (noun)

A handmade imitation of a blossom.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “artificial flower.”
- He looked up “artificial flower” because he had never seen it before.

bird pepper (noun)

Plant bearing very small and very hot oblong red fruits; includes wild forms native to tropical America; thought to be ancestral to the sweet pepper and many hot peppers.

- The article explained what “bird pepper” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “bird pepper” to mean plant bearing very small and very hot oblong red....

box elder (noun)

Common shade tree of eastern and central United States.

- The article explained what “box elder” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “box elder” during the group presentation.

cape hunting dog (noun)

A powerful doglike mammal of southern and eastern Africa that hunts in large packs; now rare in settled area.

- He looked up “cape hunting dog” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “cape hunting dog” to mean a powerful doglike mammal of southern and eastern....

cat shark (noun)

Small bottom-dwelling sharks with cat-like eyes; found along continental slopes.

- They discussed “cat shark” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “cat shark” because he had never seen it before.

common bird cherry (noun)

Small European cherry tree closely resembling the American chokecherry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “common bird cherry.”
- He looked up “common bird cherry” because he had never seen it before.

donald duck (noun)

A fictional duck created in animated film strips by Walt Disney.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “donald duck.”
- Understanding “donald duck” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

european elder (noun)

A common shrub with black fruit or a small tree of Europe and Asia; fruit used for wines and jellies.

- The article explained what "european elder" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "european elder" to mean a common shrub with black fruit or a small tree of....

---

european mountain ash (noun)

Eurasian tree with orange-red berrylike fruits.

- In class, the teacher used "european mountain ash" to mean eurasian tree with orange-red berrylike fruits.
- They discussed "european mountain ash" during the group presentation.

---

four-o'clock family (noun)

A family of flowering plants of the order Caryophyllales.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "four-o'clock family."
- The article explained what "four-o'clock family" means with a simple example.

---

golden eagle (noun)

Large eagle of mountainous regions of the northern hemisphere having a golden-brown head and neck.

- They discussed "golden eagle" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "golden eagle" means with a simple example.

---

indian elephant (noun)

Asian elephant having smaller ears and tusks primarily in the male.

- Understanding "indian elephant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "indian elephant" means with a simple example.

---

lemon-wood (noun)

South African evergreen having hard tough wood.

- They discussed "lemon-wood" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lemon-wood" means with a simple example.

---

man-eating shark (noun)

Large aggressive shark widespread in warm seas; known to attack humans.

- Understanding "man-eating shark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "man-eating shark" during the group presentation.

---

natural fiber (noun)

Fiber derived from plants or animals.

- The article explained what "natural fiber" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "natural fiber" to mean fiber derived from plants or animals.

---

olive tree (noun)

A tree of the genus Olea cultivated for its fruit.

- They discussed "olive tree" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "olive tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pine tree state (noun)

A state in New England.

- They discussed "pine tree state" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pine tree state."

---

ps (noun)

A note appended to a letter after the signature.

- They discussed "ps" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

queen bee (noun)

Fertile egg-laying female bee.

- He looked up "queen bee" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding “queen bee” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rice rat (noun)

Hardy agile rat of grassy marshes of Mexico and the southeastern United States.

- He looked up “rice rat” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rice rat.”

roof rat (noun)

Common household pest originally from Asia that has spread worldwide.

- They discussed “roof rat” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “roof rat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sand snake (noun)

Small North American burrowing snake.

- In class, the teacher used “sand snake” to mean small north american burrowing snake.
- The article explained what “sand snake” means with a simple example.

seed vessel (noun)

The ripened and variously modified walls of a plant ovary.

- The article explained what “seed vessel” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “seed vessel.”

she-goat (noun)

Female goat.

- In class, the teacher used “she-goat” to mean female goat.
- He looked up “she-goat” because he had never seen it before.

shelf (noun)

A projecting ridge on a mountain or submerged under water.

- Understanding “shelf” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “shelf” to mean a projecting ridge on a mountain or submerged under....

silver pine (noun)

Timber tree of New Zealand having shiny white wood.

- They discussed “silver pine” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “silver pine” because he had never seen it before.

stone pine (noun)

Medium-sized two-needled pine of southern Europe having a spreading crown; widely cultivated for its sweet seeds that resemble almonds.

- They discussed “stone pine” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “stone pine” to mean medium-sized two-needled pine of southern europe....

surfaces (noun)

A superficial aspect as opposed to the real nature of something.

- There is a special cleaner for these surfaces.
- Understanding “surfaces” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

visible spectrum (noun)

The distribution of colors produced when light is dispersed by a prism.

- The article explained what “visible spectrum” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “visible spectrum” during the group presentation.

voltage (noun)

The difference in electrical charge between two points in a circuit expressed in volts.

- He looked up “voltage” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “voltage” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wild cherry tree (noun)

An uncultivated cherry tree.

- The article explained what “wild cherry tree” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “wild cherry tree” to mean an uncultivated cherry tree.

---

wild fig (noun)

A West Indies clusia having fig-shaped fruit.

- In class, the teacher used “wild fig” to mean a west indies clusia having fig-shaped fruit.
- The article explained what “wild fig” means with a simple example.

---

african elephant (noun)

An elephant native to Africa having enormous flapping ears and ivory tusks.

- The article explained what “african elephant” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “african elephant” during the group presentation.

---

american turkey oak (noun)

Small slow-growing deciduous shrubby tree of dry sandy barrens of southeastern United States having leaves with bristle-tipped lobes resembling turkey’s toes.

- The article explained what “american turkey oak” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “american turkey oak.”

---

arkansas river (noun)

A river that rises in the Rocky Mountains in Colorado and flows southeast through Kansas and Oklahoma and through Arkansas to become a tributary of the Mississippi River.

- Understanding “arkansas river” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “arkansas river.”

---

basket fish (noun)

Any starfish-like animal of the genera Euryale or Astrophyton or Gorgonocephalus having slender complexly branched interlacing arms radiating from a central disc.

- In class, the teacher used “basket fish” to mean any starfish-like animal of the genera euryale or....
- He looked up “basket fish” because he had never seen it before.

---

consumption weed (noun)

A shrub of salt marshes of eastern and south central North America and West Indies; fruit is surrounded with white plumelike hairy tufts.

- In class, the teacher used “consumption weed” to mean a shrub of salt marshes of eastern and south....
- They discussed “consumption weed” during the group presentation.

---

elephant tree (noun)

Small tree or shrub of the southwestern United States having a spicy odor and odd-pinnate leaves and small clusters of white flowers.

- They discussed “elephant tree” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “elephant tree” to mean small tree or shrub of the southwestern united....

---

european bird cherry (noun)

Small European cherry tree closely resembling the American chokecherry.

- They discussed “european bird cherry” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “european bird cherry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

european rabbit (noun)

Common greyish-brown burrowing animal native to southern Europe and northern Africa but introduced elsewhere; widely domesticated and developed in various colors and for various needs; young are born naked and helpless.

- They discussed “european rabbit” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “european rabbit” to mean common greyish-brown burrowing animal native to....

---

evaluate (verb)

Evaluate or estimate the nature, quality, ability, extent, or significance of.

- How do you evaluate this grant proposal?
- In everyday English, people use “evaluate” when talking about this idea.

---

flame fish (noun)

A cardinalfish found in tropical Atlantic coastal waters.

- The article explained what "flame fish" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "flame fish" during the group presentation.

---

fundamental interaction (noun)

(physics) the transfer of energy between elementary particles or between an elementary particle and a field or between fields; mediated by gauge bosons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fundamental interaction."
- He looked up "fundamental interaction" because he had never seen it before.

---

hunting permit (noun)

A license authorizing the bearer to kill a certain type of animal during a specified period of time.

- Understanding "hunting permit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hunting permit" because he had never seen it before.

---

indian blanket (noun)

Annual of central United States having showy long-stalked yellow flower heads marked with scarlet or purple in the center.

- He looked up "indian blanket" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "indian blanket" during the group presentation.

---

interior live oak (noun)

A small shrubby evergreen tree of western North America similar to the coast live oak but occurring chiefly in foothills of mountain ranges removed from the coast; an important part of the chaparral.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "interior live oak."
- The article explained what "interior live oak" means with a simple example.

---

japanese black pine (noun)

Large Japanese ornamental having long needles in bunches of 2; widely planted in United States because of its resistance to salt and smog.

- He looked up "japanese black pine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese black pine."

---

king nut (noun)

Hickory of the eastern United States resembling the shagbark but having a much larger nut.

- Understanding "king nut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "king nut" to mean hickory of the eastern united states resembling the....

---

mountain pine (noun)

Evergreen tree of New Zealand resembling the kawaka.

- The article explained what "mountain pine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "mountain pine" during the group presentation.

---

panic grass (noun)

Any grass of the genus Panicum; grown for grain and fodder.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "panic grass."
- They discussed "panic grass" during the group presentation.

---

portuguese man-of-war (noun)

Large siphonophore having a bladderlike float and stinging tentacles.

- In class, the teacher used "portuguese man-of-war" to mean large siphonophore having a bladderlike float and....
- They discussed "portuguese man-of-war" during the group presentation.

---

rainbow fish (noun)

Small freshwater fish of South America and the West Indies; often kept in aquariums.

- In class, the teacher used "rainbow fish" to mean small freshwater fish of south america and the west....
- He looked up "rainbow fish" because he had never seen it before.

---

rock rabbit (noun)

Small short-eared burrowing mammal of rocky uplands of Asia and western North America.

- They discussed "rock rabbit" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rock rabbit" because he had never seen it before.

rocky mountain national park (noun)

A national park in Colorado having mountains and lakes and streams and forests.

- They discussed "rocky mountain national park" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rocky mountain national park" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

roses (noun)

Any of many shrubs of the genus Rosa that bear roses.

- He looked up "roses" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "roses" during the group presentation.

saint lawrence river (noun)

A North American river; flows into the Gulf of Saint Lawrence and the North Atlantic.

- He looked up "saint lawrence river" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saint lawrence river."

speed demon (noun)

A driver who exceeds the safe speed limit.

- In class, the teacher used "speed demon" to mean a driver who exceeds the safe speed limit.
- He looked up "speed demon" because he had never seen it before.

sweet pepper plant (noun)

Plant bearing large mild thick-walled usually bell-shaped fruits; the principal salad peppers.

- They discussed "sweet pepper plant" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sweet pepper plant" because he had never seen it before.

timber (noun)

The wood of trees cut and prepared for use as building material.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "timber."
- He looked up "timber" because he had never seen it before.

tweets (noun)

A weak chirping sound as of a small bird.

- Understanding "tweets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tweets" means with a simple example.

western mountain ash (noun)

An ash of the western coast of North America.

- The article explained what "western mountain ash" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "western mountain ash" to mean an ash of the western coast of north america.

wild olive (noun)

Erect shrub or climber of India and China with red olivelike fruit.

- They discussed "wild olive" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "wild olive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wild water lemon (noun)

Tropical American passion flower with finely dissected bracts; stems malodorous when crushed.

- He looked up "wild water lemon" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "wild water lemon" to mean tropical american passion flower with finely....

wilson cloud chamber (noun)

Apparatus that detects the path of high-energy particles passing through a supersaturated vapor; each particle ionizes molecules along its path and small droplets condense on them to produce a visible track.

- The article explained what "wilson cloud chamber" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wilson cloud chamber" to mean apparatus that detects the path of high-energy....

animal trainer (noun)

One who trains or exhibits animals.

- They discussed “animal trainer” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “animal trainer” means with a simple example.

---

bee fly (noun)

Hairy nectar-eating fly that resembles a bee; larvae are parasitic on larvae of bees and related insects.

- The article explained what “bee fly” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “bee fly” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bitter orange tree (noun)

Any of various common orange trees yielding sour or bitter fruit; used as grafting stock.

- In class, the teacher used “bitter orange tree” to mean any of various common orange trees yielding sour or....
- He looked up “bitter orange tree” because he had never seen it before.

---

chemical phenomenon (noun)

Any natural phenomenon involving chemistry (as changes to atoms or molecules).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chemical phenomenon.”
- He looked up “chemical phenomenon” because he had never seen it before.

---

chinese silk plant (noun)

Tall perennial herb of tropical Asia with dark green leaves; cultivated for the fiber from its woody stems that resembles flax.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chinese silk plant.”
- The article explained what “chinese silk plant” means with a simple example.

---

common fig tree (noun)

Mediterranean tree widely cultivated for its edible fruit.

- The article explained what “common fig tree” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “common fig tree” during the group presentation.

---

common four-o'clock (noun)

Common garden plant of North America having fragrant red or purple or yellow or white flowers that open in late afternoon.

- Understanding “common four-o'clock” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “common four-o'clock” because he had never seen it before.

---

delta wave (noun)

The normal brainwave in the encephalogram of a person in deep dreamless sleep; occurs with high voltage and low frequency (1 to 4 hertz).

- They discussed “delta wave” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “delta wave.”

---

deposits (noun)

The phenomenon of sediment or gravel accumulating.

- They discussed “deposits” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “deposits” means with a simple example.

---

eastern white pine (noun)

Tall-growing pine of eastern North America; bark is brown with longitudinal fissures when mature; valued as a timber tree.

- The article explained what “eastern white pine” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “eastern white pine” to mean tall-growing pine of eastern north america; bark is....

---

european red elder (noun)

Eurasian shrub.

- Understanding “european red elder” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “european red elder.”

---

fairy ring (noun)

A ring of fungi marking the periphery of the perennial underground growth of the mycelium.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fairy ring.”

- He looked up “fairy ring” because he had never seen it before.

flame cell (noun)

Organ of excretion in flatworms.

- They discussed “flame cell” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “flame cell” means with a simple example.

flame tree (noun)

A terrestrial evergreen shrub or small tree of western Australia having brilliant yellow-orange flowers; parasitic on roots of grasses.

- The article explained what “flame tree” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “flame tree” to mean a terrestrial evergreen shrub or small tree of....

flour (noun)

Fine powdery foodstuff obtained by grinding and sifting the meal of a cereal grain.

- In class, the teacher used “flour” to mean fine powdery foodstuff obtained by grinding and....
- He looked up “flour” because he had never seen it before.

fly poison (noun)

All parts of plant are highly toxic; bulb pounded and used as a fly poison; sometimes placed in subfamily Melanthiaceae.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fly poison.”
- The article explained what “fly poison” means with a simple example.

golden fig (noun)

A strangler tree native to southern Florida and West Indies; begins as an epiphyte eventually developing many thick aerial roots and covering enormous areas.

- The article explained what “golden fig” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “golden fig” during the group presentation.

grass snake (noun)

Harmless European snake with a bright yellow collar; common in England.

- Understanding “grass snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “grass snake.”

gravity-assist (noun)

(spaceflight) a trajectory that passes close to a planetary body in order to gain energy from its gravitational field.

- In class, the teacher used “gravity-assist” to mean (spaceflight) a trajectory that passes close to a....
- He looked up “gravity-assist” because he had never seen it before.

greater swiss mountain dog (noun)

The largest of the four Swiss breeds.

- Understanding “greater swiss mountain dog” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “greater swiss mountain dog” to mean the largest of the four swiss breeds.

hampshire down (noun)

British breed of hornless dark-faced domestic sheep.

- They discussed “hampshire down” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “hampshire down” to mean british breed of hornless dark-faced domestic sheep.

hard wheat (noun)

Wheat with hard dark-colored kernels high in gluten and used for bread and pasta; grown especially in southern Russia, North Africa, and northern central North America.

- In class, the teacher used “hard wheat” to mean wheat with hard dark-colored kernels high in gluten....
- The article explained what “hard wheat” means with a simple example.

holy day of obligation (noun)

A day when Catholics must attend Mass and refrain from servile work, and Episcopalians must take Communion.

- They discussed “holy day of obligation” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “holy day of obligation” means with a simple example.

japanese red pine (noun)

Pine native to Japan and Korea having a wide-spreading irregular crown when mature; grown as an ornamental.

- Understanding "japanese red pine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese red pine."

---

king william pine (noun)

Evergreen of Tasmanian mountains having sharp-pointed leaves that curve inward.

- In class, the teacher used "king william pine" to mean evergreen of tasmanian mountains having....
- They discussed "king william pine" during the group presentation.

---

lower peninsula (noun)

The part of northern Michigan between Lake Michigan and Lake Huron.

- In class, the teacher used "lower peninsula" to mean the part of northern michigan between lake michigan....
- Understanding "lower peninsula" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marine creature (noun)

Any of numerous animals inhabiting the sea including e.g. fishes and molluscs and many mammals.

- The article explained what "marine creature" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marine creature."

---

oil nut (noun)

Oily drupaceous fruit of rabbitwood.

- The article explained what "oil nut" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "oil nut" to mean oily drupaceous fruit of rabbitwood.

---

organs (noun)

Edible viscera of a butchered animal.

- Understanding "organs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "organs" to mean edible viscera of a butchered animal.

---

pocket rat (noun)

Any of various rodents with cheek pouches.

- The article explained what "pocket rat" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pocket rat" during the group presentation.

---

rocky mountains (noun)

The chief mountain range of western North America; extends from British Columbia to northern New Mexico; forms the continental divide.

- Understanding "rocky mountains" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "rocky mountains" because he had never seen it before.

---

rough green snake (noun)

Of southern and eastern United States.

- He looked up "rough green snake" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rough green snake" to mean of southern and eastern united states.

---

sun lamp (noun)

A mercury-vapor lamp used in medical or cosmetic treatments.

- Understanding "sun lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sun lamp" to mean a mercury-vapor lamp used in medical or cosmetic....

---

survivor (noun)

An animal that survives in spite of adversity.

- Only the fittest animals were survivors of the cold winters.
- The survivors of the fire were taken to a hospital.

---

sweet elder (noun)

Common elder of central and eastern North America bearing purple-black berries; fruit used in wines and jellies.

- He looked up “sweet elder” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sweet elder.”

---

tennessee walker (noun)

A horse marked by stamina and trained to move at a fast running walk.

- He looked up “tennessee walker” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tennessee walker.”

---

virginia deer (noun)

Common North American deer; tail has a white underside.

- The article explained what “virginia deer” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “virginia deer” during the group presentation.

---

weather outlook (noun)

A forecast of the weather.

- They discussed “weather outlook” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “weather outlook” means with a simple example.

---

western blind snake (noun)

Burrows among roots of shrubs and beneath rocks in desert and rocky hillside areas and beach sand of western United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “western blind snake.”
- Understanding “western blind snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wolf spider (noun)

Ground spider that hunts its prey instead of using a web.

- The article explained what “wolf spider” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “wolf spider” to mean ground spider that hunts its prey instead of using....

---

yellow pine (noun)

Hard yellowish wood of a yellow pine.

- In class, the teacher used “yellow pine” to mean hard yellowish wood of a yellow pine.
- They discussed “yellow pine” during the group presentation.

---

animal fiber (noun)

Fiber derived from animals.

- Understanding “animal fiber” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “animal fiber” means with a simple example.

---

arizona wild cotton (noun)

Shrub of southern Arizona and Mexico.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “arizona wild cotton.”
- He looked up “arizona wild cotton” because he had never seen it before.

---

banana family (noun)

Treelike tropical Asian herbs.

- They discussed “banana family” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “banana family” to mean treelike tropical asian herbs.

---

benjamin bush (noun)

Deciduous shrub of the eastern United States having highly aromatic leaves and bark and yellow flowers followed by scarlet or yellow berries.

- In class, the teacher used “benjamin bush” to mean deciduous shrub of the eastern united states having....
- He looked up “benjamin bush” because he had never seen it before.

---

black buck (noun)

Common Indian antelope with a dark back and spiral horns.

- Understanding “black buck” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “black buck” during the group presentation.

cotton-seed tree (noun)

A shrub of salt marshes of eastern and south central North America and West Indies; fruit is surrounded with white plumelike hairy tufts.

- They discussed "cotton-seed tree" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cotton-seed tree."

dock (noun)

A short or shortened tail of certain animals.

- The ship arrived at the dock more than a day late.
- The article explained what "dock" means with a simple example.

dog mercury (noun)

European perennial weedy plant with greenish flowers.

- They discussed "dog mercury" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dog mercury" because he had never seen it before.

egyptian grass (noun)

A creeping grass with spikes like fingers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "egyptian grass."
- Understanding "egyptian grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

egyptian paper rush (noun)

Tall sedge of the Nile valley yielding fiber that served many purposes in historic times.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "egyptian paper rush."
- He looked up "egyptian paper rush" because he had never seen it before.

european turkey oak (noun)

Large deciduous tree of central and southern Europe and Asia Minor having lanceolate leaves with spiked lobes.

- He looked up "european turkey oak" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "european turkey oak."

fig-bird (noun)

Greenish-yellow Australian oriole feeding chiefly on figs and other fruits.

- He looked up "fig-bird" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fig-bird" to mean greenish-yellow australian oriole feeding chiefly....

fossil (noun)

The remains (or an impression) of a plant or animal that existed in a past geological age and that has been excavated from the soil.

- Understanding "fossil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fossil."

fox shark (noun)

Large pelagic shark of warm seas with a whiplike tail used to round up small fish on which to feed.

- Understanding "fox shark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fox shark" during the group presentation.

hudson river (noun)

A New York river; flows southward into New York Bay; explored by Henry Hudson early in the 17th century.

- They discussed "hudson river" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hudson river" because he had never seen it before.

italian bee (noun)

Yellowish honeybee resembling the Carniolan bee in its habits.

- Understanding "italian bee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "italian bee" to mean yellowish honeybee resembling the carniolan bee in....

java man (noun)

Fossil remains found in Java; formerly called Pithecanthropus erectus.

- He looked up "java man" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "java man" during the group presentation.

---

jersey pine (noun)

Common small shrubby pine of the eastern United States having straggling often twisted or branches and short needles in bunches of 2.

- Understanding "jersey pine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jersey pine" means with a simple example.

---

jumping seed (noun)

Seed of Mexican shrubs of the genus Sebastiana containing the larva of a moth whose movements cause the bean to jerk or tumble.

- They discussed "jumping seed" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "jumping seed" because he had never seen it before.

---

purple passage (noun)

A passage full of ornate and flowery language.

- Understanding "purple passage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purple passage."

---

red salmon (noun)

Fatty red flesh of salmon of Pacific coast and rivers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red salmon."
- The article explained what "red salmon" means with a simple example.

---

reverse lightning (noun)

Atmospheric discharges (lasting 10 msec) bursting from the tops of giant storm clouds in blue cones that widen as they flash upward.

- Understanding "reverse lightning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "reverse lightning" to mean atmospheric discharges (lasting 10 msec) bursting....

---

sand cherry (noun)

Small straggling American cherry growing on sandy soil and having minute scarcely edible purplish-black fruit.

- The article explained what "sand cherry" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sand cherry."

---

seed leaf (noun)

Embryonic leaf in seed-bearing plants.

- They discussed "seed leaf" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "seed leaf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

solar magnetic field (noun)

The magnetic field of the sun.

- The article explained what "solar magnetic field" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "solar magnetic field" during the group presentation.

---

st bernard (noun)

A Swiss alpine breed of large powerful dog with a thick coat of hair used as a rescue dog.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "st bernard."
- The article explained what "st bernard" means with a simple example.

---

sun-dried (adjective)

Dried naturally by the sun.

- Sun-dried apricots.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sun-dried."

---

virginia pine (noun)

Common small shrubby pine of the eastern United States having straggling often twisted or branches and short needles in bunches of 2.

- The article explained what "virginia pine" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “virginia pine.”

white admiral (noun)

Eurasian butterfly with brown wings and white markings.

- They discussed “white admiral” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “white admiral” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bird cherry tree (noun)

Any of several small-fruited cherry trees frequented or fed on by birds.

- In class, the teacher used “bird cherry tree” to mean any of several small-fruited cherry trees....
- The article explained what “bird cherry tree” means with a simple example.

brush wolf (noun)

Small wolf native to western North America.

- In class, the teacher used “brush wolf” to mean small wolf native to western north america.
- Understanding “brush wolf” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bull snake (noun)

Any of several large harmless rodent-eating North American burrowing snakes.

- The article explained what “bull snake” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “bull snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bull-snake (noun)

Any of several large harmless rodent-eating North American burrowing snakes.

- He looked up “bull-snake” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “bull-snake” during the group presentation.

california four o’clock (noun)

California four o’clock with purple-red flowers.

- He looked up “california four o’clock” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “california four o’clock.”

canadian red pine (noun)

Pine of eastern North America having long needles in bunches of two and reddish bark.

- Understanding “canadian red pine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “canadian red pine” during the group presentation.

chemical attraction (noun)

The force attracting atoms to each other and binding them together in a molecule.

- The article explained what “chemical attraction” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “chemical attraction” during the group presentation.

coat-of-mail shell (noun)

Primitive elongated bilaterally symmetrical marine mollusk having a mantle covered with eight calcareous plates.

- The article explained what “coat-of-mail shell” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “coat-of-mail shell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

collar cell (noun)

Any of the flagellated cells in sponges having a collar of cytoplasm around the flagellum; they maintain a flow of water through the body.

- They discussed “collar cell” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “collar cell” means with a simple example.

common wheat (noun)

Widely cultivated in temperate regions in many varieties for its commercially important grain.

- In class, the teacher used “common wheat” to mean widely cultivated in temperate regions in many....
- They discussed “common wheat” during the group presentation.

dale (noun)

An open river valley (in a hilly area).

- He looked up "dale" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dale" during the group presentation.

---

egg laying (noun)

The production of eggs (especially in birds).

- They discussed "egg laying" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "egg laying" to mean the production of eggs (especially in birds).

---

european olive tree (noun)

Evergreen tree cultivated in the Mediterranean region since antiquity and now elsewhere; has edible shiny black fruits.

- In class, the teacher used "european olive tree" to mean evergreen tree cultivated in the mediterranean....
- He looked up "european olive tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

hudson river school (noun)

The first coherent school of American art; active from 1825 to 1870; painted wilderness landscapes of the Hudson River valley and surrounding New England.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hudson river school."
- Understanding "hudson river school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

japanese table pine (noun)

Pine native to Japan and Korea having a wide-spreading irregular crown when mature; grown as an ornamental.

- The article explained what "japanese table pine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "japanese table pine" to mean pine native to japan and korea having a....

---

jerusalem cricket (noun)

Large wingless nocturnal grasshopper that burrows in loose soil along the Pacific coast of the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jerusalem cricket."
- Understanding "jerusalem cricket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nut tree (noun)

Tree bearing edible nuts.

- The article explained what "nut tree" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nut tree."

---

painted leaf (noun)

Poinsettia of United States and eastern Mexico; often confused with Euphorbia heterophylla.

- They discussed "painted leaf" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "painted leaf" because he had never seen it before.

---

pepper bush (noun)

Shrub of eastern and southern coastal United States having beautiful racemes of spice-scented white flowers.

- Understanding "pepper bush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pepper bush" means with a simple example.

---

pond (noun)

A small lake.

- The pond was too small for sailing.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pond."

---

purple emperor (noun)

Large European butterfly the male of which has wings shaded with purple.

- In class, the teacher used "purple emperor" to mean large european butterfly the male of which has....
- They discussed "purple emperor" during the group presentation.

---

red admiral (noun)

Of temperate Europe and Asia; having black wings with red and white markings.

- The article explained what "red admiral" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red admiral."

---

right whale (noun)

Large Arctic whalebone whale; allegedly the 'right' whale to hunt because of its valuable whalebone and oil.

- They discussed "right whale" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "right whale" to mean large arctic whalebone whale; allegedly the 'right'....

---

sand rat (noun)

Small nearly naked African mole rat of desert areas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sand rat."
- Understanding "sand rat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seasonal (noun)

A worker who finds employment only in certain seasons.

- Understanding "seasonal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "seasonal" because he had never seen it before.

---

southern arrow wood (noun)

Deciduous shrub of eastern North America having blue-black berries and tough pliant wood formerly used to make arrows.

- He looked up "southern arrow wood" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "southern arrow wood."

---

treasure flower (noun)

Decumbent South African perennial with short densely leafy stems and orange flower rays with black eyespots at base.

- Understanding "treasure flower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "treasure flower" during the group presentation.

---

tropical rain forest (noun)

A rain forest in a tropical area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tropical rain forest."
- Understanding "tropical rain forest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

war admiral (noun)

Thoroughbred that won the triple crown in 1937.

- In class, the teacher used "war admiral" to mean thoroughbred that won the triple crown in 1937.
- He looked up "war admiral" because he had never seen it before.

---

wood rabbit (noun)

Common small rabbit of North America having greyish or brownish fur and a tail with a white underside; a host for Ixodes pacificus and Ixodes scapularis (Lyme disease ticks).

- The article explained what "wood rabbit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wood rabbit" to mean common small rabbit of north america having greyish....

---

african green monkey (noun)

Common savannah monkey with greenish-grey back and yellow tail.

- Understanding "african green monkey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "african green monkey."

---

atomic power (noun)

Nuclear energy regarded as a source of electricity for the power grid (for civilian use).

- Understanding "atomic power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "atomic power."

---

berry (noun)

A small fruit having any of various structures, e.g., simple (grape or blueberry) or aggregate (blackberry or raspberry).

- Understanding "berry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "berry" means with a simple example.

black whale (noun)

Large whale with a large cavity in the head containing spermaceti and oil; also a source of ambergris.

- Understanding "black whale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "black whale" to mean large whale with a large cavity in the head....

bristol channel (noun)

An inlet of the Atlantic Ocean between southern Wales and southwestern England.

- He looked up "bristol channel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bristol channel."

california box elder (noun)

Maple of the Pacific coast of the United States; fruits are white when mature.

- The article explained what "california box elder" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "california box elder" during the group presentation.

carpet grass (noun)

Grass native to West Indies but common in southern United States having tufted wiry stems often infested with a dark fungus.

- The article explained what "carpet grass" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "carpet grass" during the group presentation.

desert rat (noun)

Any of various leaping rodents of desert regions of North America and Mexico; largest members of the family Heteromyidae.

- He looked up "desert rat" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "desert rat" during the group presentation.

egyptian cotton (noun)

Fine somewhat brownish long-staple cotton grown in Egypt; believed to be derived from sea island cotton or by hybridization with Peruvian cotton.

- In class, the teacher used "egyptian cotton" to mean fine somewhat brownish long-staple cotton grown in....
- Understanding "egyptian cotton" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

elephant bird (noun)

Huge (to 9 ft.) extinct flightless bird of Madagascar.

- Understanding "elephant bird" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "elephant bird" means with a simple example.

fishing eagle (noun)

Of southeast Europe and central Asia.

- Understanding "fishing eagle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fishing eagle."

intermediate host (noun)

A host that is used by a parasite in the course of its life cycle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intermediate host."
- He looked up "intermediate host" because he had never seen it before.

jumping mouse (noun)

Any of several primitive mouselike rodents with long hind legs and no cheek pouches; of woodlands of Eurasia and North America.

- The article explained what "jumping mouse" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jumping mouse."

kentucky black bass (noun)

A variety of black bass.

- He looked up "kentucky black bass" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "kentucky black bass" during the group presentation.

lee tide (noun)

A tide that runs in the same direction as the wind is blowing.

- A leeward tide is dangerous for small boats.
- Understanding "lee tide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lords-and-ladies (noun)

Common European arum with lanceolate spathe and short purple spadix; emerges in early spring; source of a starch called arum.

- They discussed "lords-and-ladies" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "lords-and-ladies" because he had never seen it before.

mixed bud (noun)

A bud yielding both leaves and flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "mixed bud" to mean a bud yielding both leaves and flowers.
- He looked up "mixed bud" because he had never seen it before.

mountain tent (noun)

A lightweight tent with a floor; flaps close with a zipper.

- In class, the teacher used "mountain tent" to mean a lightweight tent with a floor; flaps close with a....
- Understanding "mountain tent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

paradise flower (noun)

Tropical shrub or small tree having showy yellow to orange-red flowers; sometimes placed in genus Poinciana.

- He looked up "paradise flower" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paradise flower."

po (noun)

A European river; flows into the Adriatic Sea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "po."
- He looked up "po" because he had never seen it before.

pork-fish (noun)

Black and gold grunt found from Bermuda to Caribbean to Brazil.

- The article explained what "pork-fish" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pork-fish" during the group presentation.

radio-frequency spectrum (noun)

The entire spectrum of electromagnetic frequencies used for communications; includes frequencies used for radio and radar and television.

- They discussed "radio-frequency spectrum" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "radio-frequency spectrum" means with a simple example.

salmon river (noun)

A tributary of the Snake River in Idaho.

- He looked up "salmon river" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "salmon river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

slave-maker (noun)

An ant that attacks colonies of other ant species and carries off the young to be reared as slave ants.

- Understanding "slave-maker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "slave-maker" during the group presentation.

smooth green snake (noun)

Of western and central United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smooth green snake."
- They discussed "smooth green snake" during the group presentation.

stable companion (noun)

A horse stabled with another or one of several horses owned by the same person.

- They discussed "stable companion" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “stable companion” because he had never seen it before.

---

steak (noun)

A slice of meat cut from the fleshy part of an animal or large fish.

- Understanding “steak” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “steak.”

---

sun helmet (noun)

A lightweight hat worn in tropical countries for protection from the sun.

- They discussed “sun helmet” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “sun helmet” to mean a lightweight hat worn in tropical countries for....

---

sweet four o’clock (noun)

Leafy wildflower having fragrant slender white or pale pink trumpet-shaped flowers; southwestern United States and northern Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used “sweet four o’clock” to mean leafy wildflower having fragrant slender white or....
- The article explained what “sweet four o’clock” means with a simple example.

---

table-mountain pine (noun)

A small two-needled upland pine of the eastern United States (Appalachians) having dark brown flaking bark and thorn-tipped cone scales.

- He looked up “table-mountain pine” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “table-mountain pine.”

---

tree trunk (noun)

The main stem of a tree; usually covered with bark; the bole is usually the part that is commercially useful for lumber.

- Understanding “tree trunk” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “tree trunk” means with a simple example.

---

white whale (noun)

Small northern whale that is white when adult.

- Understanding “white whale” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “white whale.”

---

widow bird (noun)

Mostly black African weaverbird.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “widow bird.”
- He looked up “widow bird” because he had never seen it before.

---

alpha radiation (noun)

The radiation of alpha particles during radioactive decay.

- They discussed “alpha radiation” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “alpha radiation” means with a simple example.

---

apple nut (noun)

Nutlike seed of a South American palm; the hard white shell takes a high polish and is used for e.g. buttons.

- They discussed “apple nut” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “apple nut” means with a simple example.

---

arizona ash (noun)

Small shrubby ash of southwestern United States and northwestern Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used “arizona ash” to mean small shrubby ash of southwestern united states and....
- The article explained what “arizona ash” means with a simple example.

---

arizona white oak (noun)

Semi-evergreen shrub or small tree of Arizona and New Mexico having acorns with hemispherical cups.

- In class, the teacher used “arizona white oak” to mean semi-evergreen shrub or small tree of arizona and....
- Understanding “arizona white oak” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

atomic energy (noun)

The energy released by a nuclear reaction.

- They discussed "atomic energy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "atomic energy."

---

beaches (noun)

An area of sand sloping down to the water of a sea or lake.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beaches."
- He looked up "beaches" because he had never seen it before.

---

beast of burden (noun)

An animal such as a donkey or ox or elephant used for transporting loads or doing other heavy work.

- He looked up "beast of burden" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "beast of burden" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bird nest (noun)

Nest where birds lay their eggs and hatch their young.

- The article explained what "bird nest" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bird nest" to mean nest where birds lay their eggs and hatch their young.

---

bird-nest (verb)

Gather birdnests.

- The coach explained when to use "bird-nest" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "bird-nest" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

black sally (noun)

A small mallee with rough dark-colored bark toward the butt; yields a red eucalyptus kino gum.

- He looked up "black sally" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black sally."

---

bubble shell (noun)

Marine gastropod mollusk having a very small thin shell.

- In class, the teacher used "bubble shell" to mean marine gastropod mollusk having a very small thin shell.
- They discussed "bubble shell" during the group presentation.

---

canyon (noun)

A ravine formed by a river in an area with little rainfall.

- In class, the teacher used "canyon" to mean a ravine formed by a river in an area with little....
- They discussed "canyon" during the group presentation.

---

chen (noun)

Wild goose having white adult plumage.

- In class, the teacher used "chen" to mean wild goose having white adult plumage.
- The article explained what "chen" means with a simple example.

---

couch grass (noun)

European grass spreading rapidly by creeping rhizomes; naturalized in North America as a weed.

- Understanding "couch grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "couch grass."

---

dog bent (noun)

Common grass with slender stems and narrow leaves.

- The article explained what "dog bent" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dog bent" to mean common grass with slender stems and narrow leaves.

---

european roller (noun)

Common European blue-and-green roller with a reddish-brown back.

- The article explained what “european roller” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “european roller” to mean common european blue-and-green roller with a....

---

european wolf spider (noun)

Large southern European spider once thought to be the cause of tarantism (uncontrollable bodily movement).

- He looked up “european wolf spider” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “european wolf spider” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fairy bell (noun)

Tall leafy European biennial or perennial having spectacular clusters of large tubular pink-purple flowers; leaves yield drug digitalis and are poisonous to livestock.

- Understanding “fairy bell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fairy bell.”

---

field bean (noun)

Old World upright plant grown especially for its large flat edible seeds but also as fodder.

- In class, the teacher used “field bean” to mean old world upright plant grown especially for its....
- The article explained what “field bean” means with a simple example.

---

giant reed (noun)

Large rhizomatous perennial grasses found by riversides and in ditches having jointed stems and large grey-white feathery panicles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “giant reed.”
- They discussed “giant reed” during the group presentation.

---

ground roller (noun)

Madagascan roller with terrestrial and crepuscular habits that feeds on e.g. insects and worms.

- They discussed “ground roller” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “ground roller” to mean madagascan roller with terrestrial and crepuscular....

---

heat of fusion (noun)

Heat absorbed by a unit mass of a solid at its melting point in order to convert the solid into a liquid at the same temperature.

- The heat of fusion is equal to the heat of solidification.
- They discussed “heat of fusion” during the group presentation.

---

lemon-wood tree (noun)

South African evergreen having hard tough wood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lemon-wood tree.”
- They discussed “lemon-wood tree” during the group presentation.

---

malcolm stock (noun)

Any of various ornamental flowering plants of the genus Malcolmia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “malcolm stock.”
- Understanding “malcolm stock” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mining bee (noun)

A bee that is a member of the genus Andrena.

- Understanding “mining bee” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “mining bee” because he had never seen it before.

---

princess pine (noun)

A variety of club moss.

- They discussed “princess pine” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “princess pine” because he had never seen it before.

---

red sanders (noun)

Tree of India and East Indies yielding a hard fragrant timber prized for cabinetwork and dark red heartwood used as a dyewood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “red sanders.”
- They discussed “red sanders” during the group presentation.

red-backed mouse (noun)

Any of several voles of mountainous regions of Eurasia and America.

- They discussed "red-backed mouse" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "red-backed mouse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

root crop (noun)

Crop grown for its enlarged roots: e.g. beets; potatoes; turnips.

- Understanding "root crop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "root crop" to mean crop grown for its enlarged roots: e.g. beets;....

signature tune (noun)

A melody used to identify a performer or a dance band or radio/tv program.

- Understanding "signature tune" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "signature tune" because he had never seen it before.

tiger snake (noun)

Highly venomous brown-and-yellow snake of Australia and Tasmania.

- The article explained what "tiger snake" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tiger snake" to mean highly venomous brown-and-yellow snake of australia....

western yellow pine (noun)

Common and widely distributed tall timber pine of western North America having dark green needles in bunches of 2 to 5 and thick bark with dark brown plates when mature.

- He looked up "western yellow pine" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "western yellow pine" during the group presentation.

wind gauge (noun)

A gauge for recording the speed and direction of wind.

- The article explained what "wind gauge" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wind gauge."

arctic ocean (noun)

Ice covered waters surrounding the North Pole; mostly covered with solid ice or with ice floes and icebergs.

- He looked up "arctic ocean" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arctic ocean."

blue whale (noun)

Largest mammal ever known; bluish-grey migratory whalebone whale mostly of southern hemisphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue whale."
- He looked up "blue whale" because he had never seen it before.

bolt-hole (noun)

A hole through which an animal may bolt when pursued into its burrow or den.

- Understanding "bolt-hole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bolt-hole" during the group presentation.

brown bent (noun)

Common grass with slender stems and narrow leaves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brown bent."
- They discussed "brown bent" during the group presentation.

cave bat (noun)

Drab yellowish big-eared bat that lives in caves.

- Understanding "cave bat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cave bat" means with a simple example.

col (noun)

A pass between mountain peaks.

- In class, the teacher used "col" to mean a pass between mountain peaks.
- They discussed "col" during the group presentation.

---

common bean (noun)

The common annual twining or bushy bean plant grown for its edible seeds or pods.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common bean."
- The article explained what "common bean" means with a simple example.

---

cotton rat (noun)

Destructive long-haired burrowing rat of southern North America and Central America.

- Understanding "cotton rat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cotton rat" during the group presentation.

---

crown beard (noun)

Any plant of the genus Verbesina having clustered white or yellow flower heads.

- The article explained what "crown beard" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "crown beard" during the group presentation.

---

crown monkey (noun)

Indian macaque with a bonnet-like tuft of hair.

- Understanding "crown monkey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "crown monkey" because he had never seen it before.

---

crown-beard (noun)

Any plant of the genus Verbesina having clustered white or yellow flower heads.

- He looked up "crown-beard" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crown-beard."

---

day lily (noun)

Any of numerous perennials having mounds of sumptuous broad ribbed leaves and clusters of white, blue, or lilac flowers; used as ground cover.

- In class, the teacher used "day lily" to mean any of numerous perennials having mounds of....
- He looked up "day lily" because he had never seen it before.

---

east indian fig tree (noun)

East Indian tree that puts out aerial shoots that grow down into the soil forming additional trunks.

- He looked up "east indian fig tree" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "east indian fig tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electrical phenomenon (noun)

A physical phenomenon involving electricity.

- They discussed "electrical phenomenon" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrical phenomenon."

---

english bean (noun)

Old World upright plant grown especially for its large flat edible seeds but also as fodder.

- Understanding "english bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "english bean" because he had never seen it before.

---

european bean (noun)

Old World upright plant grown especially for its large flat edible seeds but also as fodder.

- They discussed "european bean" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "european bean" because he had never seen it before.

---

fairy circle (noun)

A ring of fungi marking the periphery of the perennial underground growth of the mycelium.

- The article explained what "fairy circle" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fairy circle.”

fisher cat (noun)

Large dark brown North American arboreal carnivorous mammal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fisher cat.”
- He looked up “fisher cat” because he had never seen it before.

frost over (verb)

Become covered with a layer of ice; of a surface such as a window.

- She tried to use “frost over” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “frost over” and when to wait.

green bean (noun)

A common bean plant cultivated for its slender green edible pods.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “green bean.”
- The article explained what “green bean” means with a simple example.

harvest fly (noun)

Its distinctive song is heard during July and August.

- In class, the teacher used “harvest fly” to mean its distinctive song is heard during july and august.
- They discussed “harvest fly” during the group presentation.

henry hudson (noun)

English navigator who discovered the Hudson River; in 1610 he attempted to winter in Hudson Bay but his crew mutinied and set him adrift to die (1565-1611).

- The article explained what “henry hudson” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “henry hudson” to mean english navigator who discovered the hudson river;....

jack salmon (noun)

Pike-like freshwater perches.

- They discussed “jack salmon” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “jack salmon” because he had never seen it before.

lake salmon (noun)

Atlantic salmon confined to lakes of New England and southeastern Canada.

- The article explained what “lake salmon” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “lake salmon” during the group presentation.

lily (noun)

Any liliaceous plant of the genus Lilium having showy pendulous flowers.

- He looked up “lily” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “lily” to mean any liliaceous plant of the genus lilium having....

maritime law (noun)

The branch of international law that deals with territorial and international waters or with shipping or with ocean fishery etc.

- In class, the teacher used “maritime law” to mean the branch of international law that deals with....
- He looked up “maritime law” because he had never seen it before.

may lily (noun)

Low-growing perennial plant having usually two large oblong lanceolate leaves and a raceme of small fragrant nodding bell-shaped flowers followed by scarlet berries.

- The article explained what “may lily” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “may lily” to mean low-growing perennial plant having usually two....

meditation (noun)

Continuous and profound contemplation or musing on a subject or series of subjects of a deep or abstruse nature.

- The habit of meditation is the basis for all real knowledge.
- Understanding “meditation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mother-of-pearl cloud (noun)

A luminous iridescent cloud at a high altitude that may be seen when the sun is a few degrees below the horizon.

- They discussed "mother-of-pearl cloud" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mother-of-pearl cloud" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mountain four o'clock (noun)

Leafy wildflower with lavender-pink flowers that open in the evening and remain through cool part of the next day; found in open woods or brush in mountains of southern Colorado to Arizona and into Mexico.

- They discussed "mountain four o'clock" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mountain four o'clock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pepper root (noun)

North American herb with pungent scaly or toothed roots.

- Understanding "pepper root" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pepper root."

---

purple bacteria (noun)

Free-living Gram-negative pink to purplish-brown bacteria containing bacteriochlorophyll.

- They discussed "purple bacteria" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "purple bacteria" to mean free-living gram-negative pink to purplish-brown....

---

red-berry (noun)

Small spiny evergreen shrub of western United States and Mexico with minute flowers and bright red berries.

- Understanding "red-berry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "red-berry" means with a simple example.

---

silver salmon (noun)

Small salmon of northern Pacific coasts and the Great Lakes.

- They discussed "silver salmon" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "silver salmon" to mean small salmon of northern pacific coasts and the....

---

storm lamp (noun)

An oil lamp with a glass chimney and perforated metal lid to protect the flame from high winds; candlestick with a glass chimney.

- The article explained what "storm lamp" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "storm lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

telegraph plant (noun)

Erect tropical Asian shrub whose small lateral leaflets rotate on their axes and jerk up and down under the influence of sunshine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telegraph plant."
- Understanding "telegraph plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

timber tree (noun)

Any tree that is valued as a source of lumber or timber.

- The article explained what "timber tree" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "timber tree."

---

trap-door spider (noun)

American spider that constructs a silk-lined nest with a hinged lid.

- The article explained what "trap-door spider" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trap-door spider" to mean american spider that constructs a silk-lined nest....

---

upper peninsula (noun)

The peninsula between Lake Superior and Lake Michigan that forms the northwestern part of Michigan.

- The article explained what "upper peninsula" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "upper peninsula" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vegan (noun)

A strict vegetarian; someone who eats no animal or dairy products at all.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “vegan.”
- They discussed “vegan” during the group presentation.

---

western sand cherry (noun)

Dwarf ornamental shrub of western United States having large black to red and yellow sweet edible fruit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “western sand cherry.”
- He looked up “western sand cherry” because he had never seen it before.

---

wild goat (noun)

Undomesticated goat.

- The article explained what “wild goat” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “wild goat” to mean undomesticated goat.

---

angel shark (noun)

Sharks with broad flat bodies and winglike pectoral fins but that swim the way sharks do.

- Understanding “angel shark” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “angel shark” means with a simple example.

---

arctic fox (noun)

Thickly-furred fox of Arctic regions; brownish in summer and white in winter.

- They discussed “arctic fox” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “arctic fox” means with a simple example.

---

arrow grass (noun)

Tufted perennial found in shallow water or marshland; sometimes poisons livestock.

- The article explained what “arrow grass” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “arrow grass” to mean tufted perennial found in shallow water or....

---

banana tree (noun)

Any of several tropical and subtropical treelike herbs of the genus Musa having a terminal crown of large entire leaves and usually bearing hanging clusters of elongated fruits.

- They discussed “banana tree” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “banana tree” to mean any of several tropical and subtropical treelike....

---

bee killer (noun)

Swift predatory fly having a strong body like a bee with the proboscis hardened for sucking juices of other insects captured on the wing.

- The article explained what “bee killer” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “bee killer” during the group presentation.

---

blue ridge mountains (noun)

A range of the Appalachians extending from southern Pennsylvania to northern Georgia.

- The article explained what “blue ridge mountains” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “blue ridge mountains” to mean a range of the appalachians extending from southern....

---

bo tree (noun)

Fig tree of India noted for great size and longevity; lacks the prop roots of the banyan; regarded as sacred by Buddhists.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bo tree.”
- He looked up “bo tree” because he had never seen it before.

---

boundary layer (noun)

The layer of slower flow of a fluid past a surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “boundary layer.”
- Understanding “boundary layer” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

buffalo grass (noun)

Short grass growing on dry plains of central United States (where buffalo roam).

- The article explained what “buffalo grass” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “buffalo grass” to mean short grass growing on dry plains of central united....

cotton strain (noun)

Feeds primarily on cotton.

- Understanding "cotton strain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cotton strain" during the group presentation.

domestic goat (noun)

Any of various breeds of goat raised for milk or meat or wool.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "domestic goat."
- He looked up "domestic goat" because he had never seen it before.

forest goat (noun)

Cow-like creature with the glossy coat of a horse and the agility of a goat and the long horns of an antelope; characterized as a cow that lives the life of a goat.

- Understanding "forest goat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "forest goat" means with a simple example.

georgia pine (noun)

Large three-needled pine of southeastern United States having very long needles and gnarled twisted limbs; bark is red-brown deeply ridged; an important timber tree.

- In class, the teacher used "georgia pine" to mean large three-needled pine of southeastern united....
- The article explained what "georgia pine" means with a simple example.

grey sea eagle (noun)

Bulky greyish-brown eagle with a short wedge-shaped white tail; of Europe and Greenland.

- In class, the teacher used "grey sea eagle" to mean bulky greyish-brown eagle with a short wedge-shaped....
- The article explained what "grey sea eagle" means with a simple example.

ground-berry (noun)

Small prostrate or ascending shrub having scarlet flowers and succulent fruit resembling cranberries; sometimes placed in genus Styphelia.

- In class, the teacher used "ground-berry" to mean small prostrate or ascending shrub having scarlet....
- They discussed "ground-berry" during the group presentation.

grove (noun)

A small growth of trees without underbrush.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grove."
- The article explained what "grove" means with a simple example.

ice needle (noun)

Small crystals of ice.

- He looked up "ice needle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice needle."

japanese banana (noun)

Asiatic banana plant cultivated especially as a foliage plant in Japan.

- He looked up "japanese banana" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese banana."

lake geneva (noun)

A lake between southwestern Switzerland and France that is crossed from east to west by the Rhone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lake geneva."
- He looked up "lake geneva" because he had never seen it before.

mountain goat (noun)

Sure-footed mammal of mountainous northwestern North America.

- Understanding "mountain goat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mountain goat" because he had never seen it before.

new zealand white pine (noun)

New Zealand evergreen valued for its light easily worked wood.

- He looked up "new zealand white pine" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "new zealand white pine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oregon oak (noun)

Small deciduous tree of western North America with crooked branches and pale grey bark.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oregon oak."
- The article explained what "oregon oak" means with a simple example.

---

organic phenomenon (noun)

(biology) a natural phenomenon involving living plants and animals.

- Understanding "organic phenomenon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "organic phenomenon" to mean (biology) a natural phenomenon involving living....

---

ottawa river (noun)

A river in southeastern Canada that flows along the boundary between Quebec and Ontario to the Saint Lawrence River near Montreal.

- He looked up "ottawa river" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ottawa river."

---

pepper grass (noun)

Annual herb used as salad green and garnish.

- He looked up "pepper grass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pepper grass."

---

poison bush (noun)

Either of two Australian plants of the genus Swainsona that are poisonous to sheep.

- Understanding "poison bush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "poison bush" to mean either of two australian plants of the genus....

---

polar front (noun)

The front of an advancing mass of colder air.

- They discussed "polar front" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "polar front" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rain gauge (noun)

Gauge consisting of an instrument to measure the quantity of precipitation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rain gauge."
- They discussed "rain gauge" during the group presentation.

---

rainbow pink (noun)

Chinese pink with deeply toothed rose-lilac flowers with a purplish eye; usually raised as an annual.

- Understanding "rainbow pink" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rainbow pink" to mean chinese pink with deeply toothed rose-lilac flowers....

---

sand shark (noun)

Shallow-water shark with sharp jagged teeth found on both sides of Atlantic; sometimes dangerous to swimmers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sand shark."
- Understanding "sand shark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sea poker (noun)

Small slender fish (to 8 inches) with body covered by bony plates; chiefly of deeper northern Pacific waters.

- Understanding "sea poker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sea poker" to mean small slender fish (to 8 inches) with body covered....

---

southern yellow pine (noun)

Large three-needled pine of southeastern United States having very long needles and gnarled twisted limbs; bark is red-brown deeply ridged; an important timber tree.

- Understanding "southern yellow pine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what “southern yellow pine” means with a simple example.

---

spotted bat (noun)

A large bat of the southwestern United States having spots and enormous ears.

- He looked up “spotted bat” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “spotted bat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

water lily (noun)

An aquatic plant of the family Nymphaeaceae.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water lily.”
- Understanding “water lily” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

white lily (noun)

Lily of eastern Mediterranean and the Balkans with broad funnel-shaped white flowers.

- They discussed “white lily” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “white lily.”

---

wild wheat (noun)

Found wild in Palestine; held to be prototype of cultivated wheat.

- They discussed “wild wheat” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “wild wheat” because he had never seen it before.

---

arrow-grass family (noun)

A family of monocotyledonous bog herbs of order Naiadales.

- In class, the teacher used “arrow-grass family” to mean a family of monocotyledonous bog herbs of order....
- They discussed “arrow-grass family” during the group presentation.

---

bean plant (noun)

Any of various leguminous plants grown for their edible seeds and pods.

- The article explained what “bean plant” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “bean plant” to mean any of various leguminous plants grown for their....

---

begging (noun)

A solicitation for money or food (especially in the street by an apparently penniless person).

- The article explained what “begging” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “begging” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beta radiation (noun)

Radiation of beta particles during radioactive decay.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “beta radiation.”
- They discussed “beta radiation” during the group presentation.

---

black gum (noun)

A small mallee with rough dark-colored bark toward the butt; yields a red eucalyptus kino gum.

- In class, the teacher used “black gum” to mean a small mallee with rough dark-colored bark toward....
- Understanding “black gum” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bloom (noun)

The organic process of bearing flowers.

- You will stop all bloom if you let the flowers go to seed.
- The article explained what “bloom” means with a simple example.

---

brazil nut (noun)

Tall South American tree bearing brazil nuts.

- They discussed “brazil nut” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “brazil nut.”

---

chad (noun)

A lake in north central Africa; fed by the Shari river.

- He looked up "chad" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chad."

---

coffee bean (noun)

A seed of the coffee tree; ground to make coffee.

- He looked up "coffee bean" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "coffee bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cows (noun)

Domesticated bovine animals as a group regardless of sex or age; ; ; - Bible.

- Wait till the cows come home.
- In class, the teacher used "cows" to mean domesticated bovine animals as a group regardless....

---

cries (noun)

The characteristic utterance of an animal.

- Animal cries filled the night.
- The speaker was interrupted by loud cries from the rear of the audience.

---

deer grass (noun)

Any of several plants of the genus Rhexia usually having pink-purple to magenta flowers; eastern North America.

- Understanding "deer grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "deer grass" during the group presentation.

---

desktop (noun)

(computer science) the area of the screen in graphical user interfaces against which icons and windows appear.

- In class, the teacher used "desktop" to mean (computer science) the area of the screen in....
- He looked up "desktop" because he had never seen it before.

---

destroying angel (noun)

Extremely poisonous usually white fungus with a prominent cup-shaped base; differs from edible Agaricus only in its white gills.

- The article explained what "destroying angel" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "destroying angel."

---

false vampire (noun)

Any New or Old World carnivorous bat erroneously thought to suck blood but in fact feeding on insects.

- The article explained what "false vampire" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "false vampire" to mean any new or old world carnivorous bat erroneously....

---

flame bush (noun)

Australian shrub having simple obovate leaves and brilliant scarlet flowers.

- They discussed "flame bush" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "flame bush" to mean australian shrub having simple obovate leaves and....

---

general anatomy (noun)

The branch of morphology that deals with the structure of animals.

- The article explained what "general anatomy" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general anatomy."

---

gray sea eagle (noun)

Bulky greyish-brown eagle with a short wedge-shaped white tail; of Europe and Greenland.

- Understanding "gray sea eagle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gray sea eagle" during the group presentation.

---

gulf of alaska (noun)

A gulf of the Pacific Ocean between the Alaska Peninsula and the Alexander Archipelago.

- Understanding “gulf of alaska” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “gulf of alaska” means with a simple example.

---

indian bean (noun)

Tree of the genus Catalpa with large leaves and white flowers followed by long slender pods.

- The article explained what “indian bean” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “indian bean” during the group presentation.

---

junk e-mail (noun)

Unwanted e-mail (usually of a commercial nature sent out in bulk).

- They discussed “junk e-mail” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “junk e-mail” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mineral kingdom (noun)

All inorganic objects; contrasts with animal and plant kingdoms.

- The article explained what “mineral kingdom” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “mineral kingdom” to mean all inorganic objects; contrasts with animal and....

---

minerals (noun)

Solid homogeneous inorganic substances occurring in nature having a definite chemical composition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “minerals.”
- They discussed “minerals” during the group presentation.

---

noah (noun)

The Hebrew patriarch who saved himself and his family and the animals by building an ark in which they survived 40 days and 40 nights of rain; the story of Noah and the flood is told in the Book of Genesis.

- Understanding “noah” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “noah” during the group presentation.

---

pin cherry (noun)

Small shrubby North American wild cherry with small bright red acid fruit.

- He looked up “pin cherry” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “pin cherry” to mean small shrubby north american wild cherry with small....

---

pin oak (noun)

Large nearly semi-evergreen oak of southeastern United States; thrives in damp soil.

- Understanding “pin oak” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “pin oak” because he had never seen it before.

---

pitch pine (noun)

Large three-needled pine of the eastern United States and southeastern Canada; closely related to the pond pine.

- In class, the teacher used “pitch pine” to mean large three-needled pine of the eastern united....
- The article explained what “pitch pine” means with a simple example.

---

po river (noun)

A European river; flows into the Adriatic Sea.

- The article explained what “po river” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “po river.”

---

rainbow shower (noun)

Deciduous ornamental hybrid of southeastern Asia and Hawaii having racemes of flowers ranging in color from cream-colored to orange and red.

- He looked up “rainbow shower” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rainbow shower.”

---

red-spotted purple (noun)

Similar to the banded purple but with red spots on underwing surfaces.

- The article explained what “red-spotted purple” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “red-spotted purple.”

san juan mountains (noun)

A mountain range in southwestern Colorado that is part of the Rocky Mountains.

- In class, the teacher used “san juan mountains” to mean a mountain range in southwestern colorado that is....
- The article explained what “san juan mountains” means with a simple example.

seas (noun)

Turbulent water with swells of considerable size.

- Heavy seas.
- Understanding “seas” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

snake palm (noun)

Foul-smelling somewhat fleshy tropical plant of southeastern Asia cultivated for its edible corms or in the greenhouse for its large leaves and showy dark red spathe surrounding a large spadix.

- He looked up “snake palm” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “snake palm.”

snow tire (noun)

An automobile pneumatic tire with deep tread to give traction in snow.

- They discussed “snow tire” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “snow tire” to mean an automobile pneumatic tire with deep tread to....

soft wheat (noun)

Wheat with soft starch kernels used in pastry and breakfast cereals.

- They discussed “soft wheat” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “soft wheat” to mean wheat with soft starch kernels used in pastry and....

spike oil (noun)

Pale yellow essential oil obtained from spike lavender used in scenting soaps and cosmetics.

- Understanding “spike oil” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spike oil.”

tire chain (noun)

Chain attached to wheels to increase traction on ice or snow.

- They discussed “tire chain” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “tire chain” to mean chain attached to wheels to increase traction on....

water gum (noun)

Columnar swamp tree of southeastern to midwestern North America yielding pale soft easily worked wood.

- Understanding “water gum” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “water gum” means with a simple example.

water-lily family (noun)

Dicot aquatic plants.

- He looked up “water-lily family” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water-lily family.”

wheat beer (noun)

A general name for beers made from wheat by top fermentation; usually very pale and cloudy and effervescent.

- They discussed “wheat beer” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “wheat beer” to mean a general name for beers made from wheat by top....

wonder bean (noun)

Annual semi-erect bushy plant of tropical South America bearing long pods with white seeds grown especially for forage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wonder bean.”
- He looked up “wonder bean” because he had never seen it before.

worker bee (noun)

Sterile bee specialized to collect food and maintain the hive.

- Understanding “worker bee” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “worker bee” means with a simple example.

---

bean tree (noun)

Any of several trees having seedpods as fruits.

- In class, the teacher used “bean tree” to mean any of several trees having seedpods as fruits.
- Understanding “bean tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bishop pine (noun)

Two-needled or three-needled pinon mostly of northwestern California coast.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bishop pine.”
- He looked up “bishop pine” because he had never seen it before.

---

christmas berry (noun)

Spiny evergreen shrub of southeastern United States having spreading branches usually blue or mauve flowers and red berries.

- In class, the teacher used “christmas berry” to mean spiny evergreen shrub of southeastern united states....
- The article explained what “christmas berry” means with a simple example.

---

coffee berry (noun)

A seed of the coffee tree; ground to make coffee.

- Understanding “coffee berry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coffee berry.”

---

desert olive (noun)

Spiny branching deciduous shrub of southwestern United States having clusters of insignificant yellow-white flowers appearing before leaves followed by attractive black berrylike fruits.

- He looked up “desert olive” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “desert olive” to mean spiny branching deciduous shrub of southwestern....

---

elephant ear (noun)

Any plant of the genus Alocasia having large showy basal leaves and boat-shaped spathe and reddish berries.

- They discussed “elephant ear” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “elephant ear” to mean any plant of the genus alocasia having large showy....

---

flower bud (noun)

A bud from which only a flower or flowers develop.

- In class, the teacher used “flower bud” to mean a bud from which only a flower or flowers develop.
- He looked up “flower bud” because he had never seen it before.

---

garlic (noun)

Bulbous herb of southern Europe widely naturalized; bulb breaks up into separate strong-flavored cloves.

- Understanding “garlic” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “garlic.”

---

ginger family (noun)

A family of tropical monocotyledonous plants of order Musales.

- Understanding “ginger family” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “ginger family” to mean a family of tropical monocotyledonous plants of....

---

harbor seal (noun)

Small spotted seal of coastal waters of the northern hemisphere.

- They discussed “harbor seal” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “harbor seal” because he had never seen it before.

---

jack bean (noun)

Annual semi-erect bushy plant of tropical South America bearing long pods with white seeds grown especially for forage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “jack bean.”

- The article explained what “jack bean” means with a simple example.

---

kitty-cat (noun)

Informal terms referring to a domestic cat.

- He looked up “kitty-cat” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “kitty-cat” to mean informal terms referring to a domestic cat.

---

lemon butter (noun)

Clarified butter browned slowly and seasoned with lemon juice and parsley.

- The article explained what “lemon butter” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “lemon butter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lemon grass (noun)

A tropical grass native to India and Sri Lanka.

- They discussed “lemon grass” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “lemon grass” means with a simple example.

---

male berry (noun)

Deciduous much-branched shrub with dense downy panicles of small bell-shaped white flowers.

- They discussed “male berry” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “male berry” means with a simple example.

---

mechanical phenomenon (noun)

A physical phenomenon associated with the equilibrium or motion of objects.

- He looked up “mechanical phenomenon” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mechanical phenomenon.”

---

mexican pocket mouse (noun)

Large pocket mouse of Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used “mexican pocket mouse” to mean large pocket mouse of mexico.
- The article explained what “mexican pocket mouse” means with a simple example.

---

needle wood (noun)

Large bushy shrub with pungent pointed leaves and creamy white flowers; central and eastern Australia.

- Understanding “needle wood” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “needle wood” because he had never seen it before.

---

needle-wood (noun)

Large bushy shrub with pungent pointed leaves and creamy white flowers; central and eastern Australia.

- The article explained what “needle-wood” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “needle-wood.”

---

nova (noun)

A star that ejects some of its material in the form of a cloud and become more luminous in the process.

- He looked up “nova” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “nova” during the group presentation.

---

old witch grass (noun)

North American grass with slender brushy panicles; often a weed on cultivated land.

- In class, the teacher used “old witch grass” to mean north american grass with slender brushy panicles;....
- Understanding “old witch grass” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oregon ash (noun)

Timber tree of western North America yielding hard light wood; closely related to the red ash.

- Understanding “oregon ash” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “oregon ash” means with a simple example.

---

oregon white oak (noun)

Small deciduous tree of western North America with crooked branches and pale grey bark.

- Understanding "oregon white oak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "oregon white oak" because he had never seen it before.

---

poker plant (noun)

Clump-forming plant of South Africa with spikes of scarlet flowers.

- He looked up "poker plant" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poker plant."

---

purple ground cherry (noun)

Annual of tropical South America having edible purple fruits.

- Understanding "purple ground cherry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purple ground cherry."

---

rabbit bush (noun)

Pleasantly aromatic shrub having erect slender flexible hairy branches and dense clusters of small yellow flowers covering vast areas of western alkali plains and affording a retreat for jackrabbits; source of a yellow dye used by the Navajo.

- Understanding "rabbit bush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "rabbit bush" because he had never seen it before.

---

red gum (noun)

A North American tree of the genus Liquidambar having prickly spherical fruit clusters and fragrant sap.

- He looked up "red gum" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "red gum" during the group presentation.

---

red-hot poker (noun)

Widely cultivated hybrid poker plant.

- Understanding "red-hot poker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "red-hot poker" means with a simple example.

---

rock brake (noun)

Chiefly lithophytic or epiphytic fern of North America and east Asia.

- Understanding "rock brake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rock brake" to mean chiefly lithophytic or epiphytic fern of north....

---

rocket salad (noun)

Erect European annual often grown as a salad crop to be harvested when young and tender.

- The article explained what "rocket salad" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rocket salad."

---

ruby wood (noun)

Hard durable wood of red sandalwood trees (Pterocarpus santalinus); prized for cabinetwork.

- They discussed "ruby wood" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ruby wood" to mean hard durable wood of red sandalwood trees....

---

sand reed (noun)

European maritime sedge naturalized along Atlantic coast of United States; rootstock has properties of sarsaparilla.

- In class, the teacher used "sand reed" to mean european maritime sedge naturalized along atlantic....
- Understanding "sand reed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sea lily (noun)

Crinoid with delicate radiating arms and a stalked body attached to a hard surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea lily."
- The article explained what "sea lily" means with a simple example.

---

silk grass (noun)

Valuable forage grass of dry upland areas and plains of western North America to northern Mexico.

- The article explained what “silk grass” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “silk grass” to mean valuable forage grass of dry upland areas and....

---

soap-weed (noun)

Tall arborescent yucca of southwestern United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “soap-weed.”
- Understanding “soap-weed” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spotted black bass (noun)

A variety of black bass.

- They discussed “spotted black bass” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spotted black bass.”

---

sun-ray lamp (noun)

A mercury-vapor lamp used in medical or cosmetic treatments.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sun-ray lamp.”
- The article explained what “sun-ray lamp” means with a simple example.

---

wax (noun)

Any of various substances of either mineral origin or plant or animal origin; they are solid at normal temperatures and insoluble in water.

- In class, the teacher used “wax” to mean any of various substances of either mineral origin....
- The article explained what “wax” means with a simple example.

---

wild bean (noun)

A North American vine with fragrant blossoms and edible tubers; important food crop of Native Americans.

- In class, the teacher used “wild bean” to mean a north american vine with fragrant blossoms and....
- Understanding “wild bean” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

witch grass (noun)

North American grass with slender brushy panicles; often a weed on cultivated land.

- The article explained what “witch grass” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “witch grass” to mean north american grass with slender brushy panicles;....

---

artillery plant (noun)

Tropical American stingless nettle that discharges its pollen explosively.

- They discussed “artillery plant” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “artillery plant.”

---

basket flower (noun)

Annual of southwestern United States cultivated for its purple flower heads and its bracts that resemble small baskets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “basket flower.”
- Understanding “basket flower” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beef cattle (noun)

Cattle that are reared for their meat.

- The article explained what “beef cattle” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “beef cattle” to mean cattle that are reared for their meat.

---

blanket flower (noun)

Annual of central United States having showy long-stalked yellow flower heads marked with scarlet or purple in the center.

- Understanding “blanket flower” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “blanket flower” because he had never seen it before.

---

blue gum (noun)

Tall fast-growing timber tree with leaves containing a medicinal oil; young leaves are bluish.

- They discussed “blue gum” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “blue gum” means with a simple example.

canada lily (noun)

Common lily of the eastern United States having nodding yellow or reddish flowers spotted with brown.

- In class, the teacher used "canada lily" to mean common lily of the eastern united states having....
- The article explained what "canada lily" means with a simple example.

cape buffalo (noun)

Large often savage buffalo of southern Africa having upward-curving horns; mostly in game reserves.

- In class, the teacher used "cape buffalo" to mean large often savage buffalo of southern africa....
- The article explained what "cape buffalo" means with a simple example.

cart horse (noun)

Draft horse kept for pulling carts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cart horse."
- He looked up "cart horse" because he had never seen it before.

common bean plant (noun)

The common annual twining or bushy bean plant grown for its edible seeds or pods.

- In class, the teacher used "common bean plant" to mean the common annual twining or bushy bean plant grown....
- He looked up "common bean plant" because he had never seen it before.

common ginger (noun)

Tropical Asian plant widely cultivated for its pungent root; source of gingerroot and powdered ginger.

- The article explained what "common ginger" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common ginger."

corn snake (noun)

Large harmless snake of southeastern United States; often on farms.

- In class, the teacher used "corn snake" to mean large harmless snake of southeastern united states;....
- The article explained what "corn snake" means with a simple example.

european white lily (noun)

A water lily with white flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "european white lily" to mean a water lily with white flowers.
- The article explained what "european white lily" means with a simple example.

flame flower (noun)

A plant of the genus Kniphofia having long grasslike leaves and tall scapes of red or yellow drooping flowers.

- He looked up "flame flower" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "flame flower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flame-flower (noun)

A plant of the genus Kniphofia having long grasslike leaves and tall scapes of red or yellow drooping flowers.

- They discussed "flame-flower" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "flame-flower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

florida bean (noun)

The annual woody vine of Asia having long clusters of purplish flowers and densely hairy pods; cultivated in southern United States for green manure and grazing.

- They discussed "florida bean" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "florida bean" means with a simple example.

grand canyon (noun)

The enormous gorge of the Colorado River in northern Arizona.

- He looked up "grand canyon" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "grand canyon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

horse bean (noun)

A bean plant cultivated for use animal fodder.

- They discussed "horse bean" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "horse bean" to mean a bean plant cultivated for use animal fodder.

---

japanese carpet grass (noun)

Lawn grass common in the Philippines; grown also in United States.

- He looked up "japanese carpet grass" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "japanese carpet grass" during the group presentation.

---

leaf bug (noun)

Small bright-colored insect that feeds on plant juices.

- Understanding "leaf bug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "leaf bug" means with a simple example.

---

lightning bug (noun)

Nocturnal beetle common in warm regions having luminescent abdominal organs.

- In class, the teacher used "lightning bug" to mean nocturnal beetle common in warm regions having....
- The article explained what "lightning bug" means with a simple example.

---

mint family (noun)

A large family of aromatic herbs and shrubs having flowers resembling the lips of a mouth and four-lobed ovaries yielding four one-seeded nutlets and including mint; thyme; sage; rosemary.

- He looked up "mint family" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mint family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

peace lily (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Spathiphyllum having a white or green spathe and a spike of fragrant flowers and often cultivated as an ornamental.

- In class, the teacher used "peace lily" to mean any of various plants of the genus spathiphyllum....
- The article explained what "peace lily" means with a simple example.

---

port jackson fig (noun)

Australian tree resembling the banyan often planted for ornament; introduced into South Africa for brushwood.

- In class, the teacher used "port jackson fig" to mean australian tree resembling the banyan often planted....
- He looked up "port jackson fig" because he had never seen it before.

---

port jackson pine (noun)

Australian cypress pine having globular cones.

- He looked up "port jackson pine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "port jackson pine."

---

red ginger (noun)

An ornamental ginger native to Pacific islands.

- They discussed "red ginger" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "red ginger" to mean an ornamental ginger native to pacific islands.

---

river gum (noun)

Somewhat crooked red gum tree growing chiefly along rivers; has durable reddish lumber used in heavy construction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "river gum."
- He looked up "river gum" because he had never seen it before.

---

rush nut (noun)

European sedge having small edible nutlike tubers.

- The article explained what "rush nut" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rush nut" during the group presentation.

---

silk cotton (noun)

A plant fiber from the kapok tree; used for stuffing and insulation.

- Understanding "silk cotton" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used “silk cotton” to mean a plant fiber from the kapok tree; used for....

---

silver berry (noun)

Deciduous unarmed North American shrub with silvery leaves and fruits.

- They discussed “silver berry” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “silver berry” because he had never seen it before.

---

ski mask (noun)

A woolen face mask to protect the face from cold while skiing on snow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ski mask.”
- The article explained what “ski mask” means with a simple example.

---

tooth shell (noun)

Any of various seashore mollusks having a tapering tubular shell open at each end and a foot pointed like a spade for burrowing.

- He looked up “tooth shell” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “tooth shell” during the group presentation.

---

toss-up (noun)

An unpredictable phenomenon.

- It’s a toss-up whether he will win or lose.
- They discussed “toss-up” during the group presentation.

---

troy weight (noun)

A system of weights used for precious metals and gemstones; based on a 12-ounce pound and an ounce of 480 grains.

- Understanding “troy weight” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “troy weight” during the group presentation.

---

water mint (noun)

A European mint that thrives in wet places; has a perfume like that of the bergamot orange; naturalized in eastern North America.

- They discussed “water mint” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water mint.”

---

water-mint (noun)

A European mint that thrives in wet places; has a perfume like that of the bergamot orange; naturalized in eastern North America.

- In class, the teacher used “water-mint” to mean a european mint that thrives in wet places; has a....
- He looked up “water-mint” because he had never seen it before.

---

yellow dock (noun)

European dock with broad obtuse leaves and bitter rootstock common as a weed in North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “yellow dock.”
- The article explained what “yellow dock” means with a simple example.

---

aftermath (noun)

The consequences of an event (especially a catastrophic event).

- The aftermath of war.
- Understanding “aftermath” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

american rock brake (noun)

Rock-inhabiting fern of northern North America growing in massive tufts and having fronds resembling parsley.

- Understanding “american rock brake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “american rock brake” because he had never seen it before.

---

bass horn (noun)

The lowest brass wind instrument.

- Understanding “bass horn” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bass horn.”

---

bull pine (noun)

Common and widely distributed tall timber pine of western North America having dark green needles in bunches of 2 to 5 and thick bark with dark brown plates when mature.

- The article explained what “bull pine” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “bull pine” to mean common and widely distributed tall timber pine of....

---

bull shark (noun)

A most common shark in temperate and tropical coastal waters worldwide; heavy-bodied and dangerous.

- He looked up “bull shark” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bull shark.”

---

butterfly effect (noun)

The phenomenon whereby a small change at one place in a complex system can have large effects elsewhere, e.g., a butterfly flapping its wings in Rio de Janeiro might change the weather in Chicago.

- Understanding “butterfly effect” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “butterfly effect.”

---

carpet snake (noun)

Australian python with a variegated pattern on its back.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “carpet snake.”
- Understanding “carpet snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cart-track plant (noun)

Common European perennial naturalized worldwide; a troublesome weed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cart-track plant.”
- They discussed “cart-track plant” during the group presentation.

---

coast lily (noun)

Orange-flowered lily of Pacific coast of United States.

- He looked up “coast lily” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “coast lily” to mean orange-flowered lily of pacific coast of united states.

---

compound leaf (noun)

A leaf composed of a number of leaflets on a common stalk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “compound leaf.”
- They discussed “compound leaf” during the group presentation.

---

deer mouse (noun)

Brownish New World mouse; most widely distributed member of the genus.

- They discussed “deer mouse” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “deer mouse” because he had never seen it before.

---

egyptian corn (noun)

Sorghums of dry regions of Asia and North Africa.

- They discussed “egyptian corn” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “egyptian corn” because he had never seen it before.

---

field garlic (noun)

Pungent Old World wild onion.

- He looked up “field garlic” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “field garlic” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

field mint (noun)

European mint naturalized in United States.

- He looked up “field mint” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “field mint.”

---

frost fish (noun)

Long-bodied marine fishes having a long whiplike scaleless body and sharp teeth; closely related to snake mackerel.

- Understanding “frost fish” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “frost fish.”

---

golden buttons (noun)

Common perennial aromatic herb native to Eurasia having buttonlike yellow flower heads and bitter-tasting pinnate leaves sometimes used medicinally.

- Understanding “golden buttons” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “golden buttons” means with a simple example.

---

guinea flower (noun)

Any of several Australasian evergreen vines widely cultivated in warm regions for their large bright yellow single flowers.

- In class, the teacher used “guinea flower” to mean any of several australasian evergreen vines widely....
- Understanding “guinea flower” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

imperial japanese morning glory (noun)

Hybrid from Ipomoea nil.

- The article explained what “imperial japanese morning glory” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “imperial japanese morning glory” during the group presentation.

---

leaf blade (noun)

Especially a leaf of grass or the broad portion of a leaf as distinct from the petiole.

- Understanding “leaf blade” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “leaf blade” because he had never seen it before.

---

marble-wood (noun)

Large Asiatic tree having hard marbled zebrawood.

- The article explained what “marble-wood” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “marble-wood” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mount logan (noun)

A mountain peak in the St. Elias Range in the southwestern Yukon Territory in Canada (19,850 feet high).

- Understanding “mount logan” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “mount logan” because he had never seen it before.

---

mouse deer (noun)

Very small hornless deer-like ruminant of tropical Asia and west Africa.

- They discussed “mouse deer” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “mouse deer” because he had never seen it before.

---

pearl-weed (noun)

Any of various low-growing plants of the genus Sagina having small spherical flowers resembling pearls.

- Understanding “pearl-weed” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “pearl-weed” means with a simple example.

---

penny grass (noun)

Foetid Eurasian weed having round flat pods; naturalized throughout North America.

- Understanding “penny grass” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “penny grass” to mean foetid eurasian weed having round flat pods;....

---

rack up (verb)

Supply a rack with feed for (horses or other animals).

- Rack pool balls.
- Learners should practice how to use “rack up” in real sentences.

---

rat snake (noun)

Any of various nonvenomous rodent-eating snakes of North America and Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rat snake.”
- They discussed “rat snake” during the group presentation.

red silk cotton (noun)

A plant fiber from the red silk-cotton tree of eastern India; inferior to kapok.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red silk cotton."
- The article explained what "red silk cotton" means with a simple example.

reed grass (noun)

Any of various tall perennial grasses of the genus Calamagrostis having feathery plumes; natives of marshland fens and wet woodlands of temperate northern hemisphere.

- Understanding "reed grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "reed grass" during the group presentation.

seven seas (noun)

An informal expression for all of the oceans of the world.

- The old salt had sailed the seven seas.
- The article explained what "seven seas" means with a simple example.

shore pine (noun)

Shrubby two-needled pine of coastal northwestern United States; red to yellow-brown bark fissured into small squares.

- The article explained what "shore pine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "shore pine" during the group presentation.

static electricity (noun)

Electricity produced by friction.

- They discussed "static electricity" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "static electricity" means with a simple example.

sweet gum (noun)

A North American tree of the genus Liquidambar having prickly spherical fruit clusters and fragrant sap.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweet gum."
- He looked up "sweet gum" because he had never seen it before.

wood drake (noun)

Male wood duck.

- Understanding "wood drake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wood drake" during the group presentation.

african lily (noun)

African plant with bright green evergreen leaves and umbels of many usually deep violet-blue flowers.

- He looked up "african lily" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "african lily."

banana quit (noun)

Any of several honeycreepers.

- In class, the teacher used "banana quit" to mean any of several honeycreepers.
- He looked up "banana quit" because he had never seen it before.

bird of prey (noun)

Any of numerous carnivorous birds that hunt and kill other animals.

- Understanding "bird of prey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bird of prey" during the group presentation.

black rat snake (noun)

Large harmless shiny black North American snake.

- Understanding "black rat snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "black rat snake" to mean large harmless shiny black north american snake.

butterfly fish (noun)

Small usually brilliantly colored tropical marine fishes having narrow deep bodies with large broad fins; found worldwide.

- They discussed "butterfly fish" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "butterfly fish" because he had never seen it before.

---

canada ginger (noun)

Deciduous low-growing perennial of Canada and eastern and central United States.

- Understanding "canada ginger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "canada ginger" means with a simple example.

---

cannon bone (noun)

Greatly developed metatarsal or metacarpal bone in the shank or cannon part of the leg in hoofed mammals.

- The article explained what "cannon bone" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cannon bone" to mean greatly developed metatarsal or metacarpal bone in....

---

carpet bug (noun)

Small beetle whose larvae are household pests feeding on woolen fabrics.

- They discussed "carpet bug" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carpet bug."

---

colorado four o'clock (noun)

Wildflower having vibrant deep pink tubular evening-blooming flowers; found in sandy and desert areas from southern California to southern Colorado and into Mexico.

- They discussed "colorado four o'clock" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "colorado four o'clock" to mean wildflower having vibrant deep pink tubular....

---

composite plant (noun)

Considered the most highly evolved dicotyledonous plants, characterized by florets arranged in dense heads that resemble single flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "composite plant" to mean considered the most highly evolved dicotyledonous....
- The article explained what "composite plant" means with a simple example.

---

cottage pink (noun)

European pink cultivated for its very fragrant pink or rosy flowers.

- The article explained what "cottage pink" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cottage pink" to mean european pink cultivated for its very fragrant pink....

---

elevated railway (noun)

A railway that is powered by electricity and that runs on a track that is raised above the street level.

- The article explained what "elevated railway" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "elevated railway" during the group presentation.

---

gum plant (noun)

Any of various western American plants of the genus Grindelia having resinous leaves and stems formerly used medicinally; often poisonous to livestock.

- He looked up "gum plant" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gum plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gum tree (noun)

Any of various trees of the genera Eucalyptus or Liquidambar or Nyssa that are sources of gum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gum tree."
- He looked up "gum tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

jack frost (noun)

A personification of frost or winter weather.

- The article explained what "jack frost" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jack frost" to mean a personification of frost or winter weather.

---

jerusalem cherry (noun)

Small South American shrub cultivated as a houseplant for its abundant ornamental but poisonous red or yellow cherry-sized fruit.

- The article explained what "jerusalem cherry" means with a simple example.

- Understanding “jerusalem cherry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jerusalem oak (noun)

Eurasian aromatic oak-leaved goosefoot with many yellow-green flowers; naturalized North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “jerusalem oak.”
- He looked up “jerusalem oak” because he had never seen it before.

lamp shell (noun)

Marine animal with bivalve shell having a pair of arms bearing tentacles for capturing food; found worldwide.

- He looked up “lamp shell” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “lamp shell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mighty mouse (noun)

A fictional mouse endowed with great strength and courage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mighty mouse.”
- He looked up “mighty mouse” because he had never seen it before.

moss (noun)

Tiny leafy-stemmed flowerless plants.

- In class, the teacher used “moss” to mean tiny leafy-stemmed flowerless plants.
- Understanding “moss” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

new zealand mountain pine (noun)

New Zealand shrub.

- He looked up “new zealand mountain pine” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “new zealand mountain pine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

onion (noun)

The bulb of an onion plant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “onion.”
- The article explained what “onion” means with a simple example.

oregon pine (noun)

Lofty douglas fir of northwestern North America having short needles and egg-shaped cones.

- In class, the teacher used “oregon pine” to mean lofty douglas fir of northwestern north america....
- Understanding “oregon pine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pine mouse (noun)

Short-tailed glossy-furred burrowing vole of the eastern United States.

- They discussed “pine mouse” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “pine mouse” to mean short-tailed glossy-furred burrowing vole of the....

pipe organ (noun)

Wind instrument whose sound is produced by means of pipes arranged in sets supplied with air from a bellows and controlled from a large complex musical keyboard.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pipe organ.”
- The article explained what “pipe organ” means with a simple example.

polar bear (noun)

White bear of Arctic regions.

- In class, the teacher used “polar bear” to mean white bear of arctic regions.
- The article explained what “polar bear” means with a simple example.

powder horn (noun)

Container for carrying gunpowder; made of the hollow horn of an animal.

- In class, the teacher used “powder horn” to mean container for carrying gunpowder; made of the....
- They discussed “powder horn” during the group presentation.

river red gum (noun)

Somewhat crooked red gum tree growing chiefly along rivers; has durable reddish lumber used in heavy construction.

- In class, the teacher used "river red gum" to mean somewhat crooked red gum tree growing chiefly along....
- Understanding "river red gum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rocky mountain jay (noun)

A Canada jay with a white head; widely distributed from Montana to Arizona.

- The article explained what "rocky mountain jay" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rocky mountain jay" during the group presentation.

---

rose gum (noun)

Very tall tree of Queensland and New South Wales.

- He looked up "rose gum" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rose gum" to mean very tall tree of queensland and new south wales.

---

spice tree (noun)

Pacific coast tree having aromatic foliage and small umbellate flowers followed by olivelike fruit; yields a hard tough wood.

- In class, the teacher used "spice tree" to mean pacific coast tree having aromatic foliage and....
- The article explained what "spice tree" means with a simple example.

---

tiger shark (noun)

Large dangerous warm-water shark with striped or spotted body.

- He looked up "tiger shark" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tiger shark."

---

wind generator (noun)

Generator that extracts usable energy from winds.

- They discussed "wind generator" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "wind generator" to mean generator that extracts usable energy from winds.

---

wood lily (noun)

Lily of eastern North America having orange to orange-red purple-spotted flowers.

- The article explained what "wood lily" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wood lily" during the group presentation.

---

yellow berry (noun)

Fruit of various buckthorns yielding dyes or pigments.

- In class, the teacher used "yellow berry" to mean fruit of various buckthorns yielding dyes or pigments.
- They discussed "yellow berry" during the group presentation.

---

acoustic resistance (noun)

Opposition to the flow of sound through a surface; acoustic resistance is the real component of acoustic impedance and acoustic reactance is the imaginary component.

- Understanding "acoustic resistance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "acoustic resistance" because he had never seen it before.

---

american sweet gum (noun)

A North American tree of the genus Liquidambar having prickly spherical fruit clusters and fragrant sap.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american sweet gum."
- The article explained what "american sweet gum" means with a simple example.

---

automobile driver (noun)

Someone who drives racing cars at high speeds.

- They discussed "automobile driver" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "automobile driver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black moss (noun)

Dense festoons of greenish-grey hairlike flexuous strands anchored to tree trunks and branches by sparse wiry roots; southeastern United States and West Indies to South America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “black moss.”
- Understanding “black moss” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

box turtle (noun)

Chiefly terrestrial turtle of North America; shell can be closed tightly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “box turtle.”
- He looked up “box turtle” because he had never seen it before.

---

brazil-nut tree (noun)

Tall South American tree bearing brazil nuts.

- Understanding “brazil-nut tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “brazil-nut tree.”

---

butterfly plant (noun)

Orchid having large elliptic to obovate fleshy leaves and fragrant pink-and-white flowers dotted with red.

- Understanding “butterfly plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “butterfly plant” means with a simple example.

---

canada garlic (noun)

North American bulbous plant.

- He looked up “canada garlic” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “canada garlic.”

---

capital of hungary (noun)

Capital and largest city of Hungary; located on the Danube River in north-central Hungary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “capital of hungary.”
- The article explained what “capital of hungary” means with a simple example.

---

dolphins (noun)

Any of various small toothed whales with a beaklike snout; larger than porpoises.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dolphins.”
- He looked up “dolphins” because he had never seen it before.

---

elephant seal (noun)

Either of two large northern Atlantic earless seals having snouts like trunks.

- In class, the teacher used “elephant seal” to mean either of two large northern atlantic earless seals....
- He looked up “elephant seal” because he had never seen it before.

---

grand canyon national park (noun)

A national park in Arizona including the mile deep canyon of the Colorado River which shows geologic features and fossil plants and animals.

- Understanding “grand canyon national park” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “grand canyon national park” during the group presentation.

---

green turtle (noun)

Large tropical turtle with greenish flesh used for turtle soup.

- The article explained what “green turtle” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “green turtle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

holly (noun)

Any tree or shrub of the genus Ilex having red berries and shiny evergreen leaves with prickly edges.

- In class, the teacher used “holly” to mean any tree or shrub of the genus ilex having red....
- He looked up “holly” because he had never seen it before.

---

hydrogen bond (noun)

A chemical bond consisting of a hydrogen atom between two electronegative atoms (e.g., oxygen or nitrogen) with one side be a covalent bond and the other being an ionic bond.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hydrogen bond.”
- He looked up “hydrogen bond” because he had never seen it before.

japanese chess (noun)

Grass of Mediterranean and temperate Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese chess."
- He looked up "japanese chess" because he had never seen it before.

lake chad (noun)

A lake in north central Africa; fed by the Shari river.

- They discussed "lake chad" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lake chad" means with a simple example.

lemon sole (noun)

Important American food fish in the winter.

- He looked up "lemon sole" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lemon sole" during the group presentation.

lily of the valley (noun)

Low-growing perennial plant having usually two large oblong lanceolate leaves and a raceme of small fragrant nodding bell-shaped flowers followed by scarlet berries.

- The article explained what "lily of the valley" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lily of the valley" during the group presentation.

long moss (noun)

Dense festoons of greenish-grey hairlike flexuous strands anchored to tree trunks and branches by sparse wiry roots; southeastern United States and West Indies to South America.

- Understanding "long moss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "long moss" because he had never seen it before.

mankind (noun)

All of the living human inhabitants of the earth.

- She always used 'humankind' because 'mankind' seemed to slight the women.
- In class, the teacher used "mankind" to mean all of the living human inhabitants of the earth.

mid-atlantic ridge (noun)

A very long narrow elevation on the ocean floor that runs all the way from Iceland in the North Atlantic to Bouvet Island in the South Atlantic.

- He looked up "mid-atlantic ridge" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mid-atlantic ridge" to mean a very long narrow elevation on the ocean floor....

monkey-bread tree (noun)

African tree having an exceedingly thick trunk and fruit that resembles a gourd and has an edible pulp called monkey bread.

- He looked up "monkey-bread tree" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monkey-bread tree."

moss family (noun)

A family of mosses.

- Understanding "moss family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "moss family" because he had never seen it before.

mountain blue berry (noun)

Erect blueberry of western United States having solitary flowers and somewhat sour berries.

- The article explained what "mountain blue berry" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mountain blue berry" to mean erect blueberry of western united states having....

mountain lily (noun)

Showy white-flowered perennial of New Zealand.

- They discussed "mountain lily" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mountain lily."

northern pin oak (noun)

Small to medium deciduous oak of east central North America; leaves have sharply pointed lobes.

- Understanding "northern pin oak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "northern pin oak."

---

northern pitch pine (noun)

Large three-needled pine of the eastern United States and southeastern Canada; closely related to the pond pine.

- In class, the teacher used "northern pitch pine" to mean large three-needled pine of the eastern united....
- They discussed "northern pitch pine" during the group presentation.

---

nut grass (noun)

A widely distributed perennial sedge having small edible nutlike tubers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nut grass."
- They discussed "nut grass" during the group presentation.

---

old man's beard (noun)

Common climber of eastern North America that sprawls over other plants and bears numerous panicles of small creamy white flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old man's beard."
- He looked up "old man's beard" because he had never seen it before.

---

pine-weed (noun)

Annual wiry-stemmed North American weed with minute scalelike leaves and small yellow flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "pine-weed" to mean annual wiry-stemmed north american weed with minute....
- The article explained what "pine-weed" means with a simple example.

---

ranger (noun)

A member of a military unit trained as shock troops for hit-and-run raids.

- The article explained what "ranger" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ranger" to mean a member of a military unit trained as shock troops....

---

red rat snake (noun)

Large harmless snake of southeastern United States; often on farms.

- In class, the teacher used "red rat snake" to mean large harmless snake of southeastern united states;....
- The article explained what "red rat snake" means with a simple example.

---

roller blind (noun)

A window shade that rolls up out of the way.

- The article explained what "roller blind" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "roller blind" to mean a window shade that rolls up out of the way.

---

sea turtle (noun)

Any of various large turtles with limbs modified into flippers; widely distributed in warm seas.

- The article explained what "sea turtle" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea turtle."

---

shaft of light (noun)

A column of light (as from a beacon).

- The article explained what "shaft of light" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shaft of light."

---

spinning frame (noun)

Spinning machine that draws, twists, and winds yarn.

- The article explained what "spinning frame" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "spinning frame" during the group presentation.

---

street cleaner (noun)

A worker employed to clean streets (especially one employed by a municipal sanitation department).

- The article explained what "street cleaner" means with a simple example.

- They discussed “street cleaner” during the group presentation.

---

sun lounge (noun)

A room enclosed largely with glass and affording exposure to the sun.

- He looked up “sun lounge” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “sun lounge” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

terrace (noun)

A row of houses built in a similar style and having common dividing walls (or the street on which they face).

- Grosvenor Terrace.
- He looked up “terrace” because he had never seen it before.

---

thunder snake (noun)

Small reddish wormlike snake of eastern United States.

- He looked up “thunder snake” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “thunder snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

top onion (noun)

Type of perennial onion grown chiefly as a curiosity or for early salad onions; having bulbils that replace the flowers.

- In class, the teacher used “top onion” to mean type of perennial onion grown chiefly as a....
- They discussed “top onion” during the group presentation.

---

true frog (noun)

Insectivorous usually semiaquatic web-footed amphibian with smooth moist skin and long hind legs.

- He looked up “true frog” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “true frog.”

---

wax plant (noun)

Succulent climber of southern Asia with umbels of pink and white star-shaped flowers.

- They discussed “wax plant” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “wax plant” because he had never seen it before.

---

wild ginger (noun)

Low-growing perennial herb with pungent gingery leaves and rhizomes.

- Understanding “wild ginger” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “wild ginger” to mean low-growing perennial herb with pungent gingery....

---

wind sleeve (noun)

A truncated cloth cone mounted on a mast; used (e.g., at airports) to show the direction of the wind.

- In class, the teacher used “wind sleeve” to mean a truncated cloth cone mounted on a mast; used....
- Understanding “wind sleeve” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yard-long bean (noun)

South American bean having very long succulent pods.

- The article explained what “yard-long bean” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “yard-long bean.”

---

yemen (noun)

A republic on the southwestern shores of the Arabian Peninsula on the Indian Ocean; formed in 1990.

- Understanding “yemen” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “yemen” during the group presentation.

---

alley (noun)

A narrow street with walls on both sides.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “alley.”
- He looked up “alley” because he had never seen it before.

---

american holly (noun)

An evergreen tree.

- In class, the teacher used "american holly" to mean an evergreen tree.
- The article explained what "american holly" means with a simple example.

blue african lily (noun)

African plant with bright green evergreen leaves and umbels of many usually deep violet-blue flowers.

- He looked up "blue african lily" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "blue african lily" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blue-eyed mary (noun)

Eastern United States plant with whorls of blue-and-white flowers.

- The article explained what "blue-eyed mary" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "blue-eyed mary" during the group presentation.

broad bean (noun)

A bean plant cultivated for use animal fodder.

- He looked up "broad bean" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "broad bean."

broad-bean (noun)

Old World upright plant grown especially for its large flat edible seeds but also as fodder.

- They discussed "broad-bean" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "broad-bean" because he had never seen it before.

brown bells (noun)

California herb with brownish-purple or greenish bell-shaped flowers.

- He looked up "brown bells" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "brown bells" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chinese scholar tree (noun)

Handsome roundheaded deciduous tree having compound dark green leaves and profuse panicles of fragrant creamy-white flowers; China and Japan.

- They discussed "chinese scholar tree" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chinese scholar tree."

club moss (noun)

Primitive evergreen moss-like plant with spores in club-shaped strobiles.

- He looked up "club moss" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "club moss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

club-moss (noun)

Primitive evergreen moss-like plant with spores in club-shaped strobiles.

- They discussed "club-moss" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "club-moss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

corn salad (noun)

A plant of the genus Valerianella.

- They discussed "corn salad" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "corn salad" to mean a plant of the genus valerianella.

delaware river (noun)

A river that rises in the Catskills in southeastern New York and flows southward along the border of Pennsylvania with New York and New Jersey to northern Delaware where it empties into Delaware Bay.

- They discussed "delaware river" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "delaware river" because he had never seen it before.

desert four o'clock (noun)

Wildflower having vibrant deep pink tubular evening-blooming flowers; found in sandy and desert areas from southern California to southern Colorado and into Mexico.

- They discussed “desert four o’clock” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “desert four o’clock.”

---

frost snow (noun)

Small crystals of ice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “frost snow.”
- He looked up “frost snow” because he had never seen it before.

---

glen (noun)

A narrow secluded valley (in the mountains).

- Understanding “glen” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “glen” during the group presentation.

---

golden crown beard (noun)

Coarse greyish-green annual yellow-flowered herb; southwestern United States to Mexico.

- Understanding “golden crown beard” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “golden crown beard” to mean coarse greyish-green annual yellow-flowered herb;....

---

green frog (noun)

Similar to bullfrog; found in or near marshes and ponds; of United States and Canada.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “green frog.”
- Understanding “green frog” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

helmet flower (noun)

A poisonous herb native to northern Europe having hooded blue-purple flowers; the dried leaves and roots yield aconite.

- In class, the teacher used “helmet flower” to mean a poisonous herb native to northern europe having....
- The article explained what “helmet flower” means with a simple example.

---

holly family (noun)

Widely distributed shrubs and trees.

- Understanding “holly family” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “holly family.”

---

ice fog (noun)

A dense winter fog containing ice particles.

- They discussed “ice fog” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “ice fog” to mean a dense winter fog containing ice particles.

---

joshua tree (noun)

A large branched arborescent yucca of southwestern United States having short leaves and clustered greenish white flowers.

- He looked up “joshua tree” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “joshua tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

laser beam (noun)

A beam of light generated by a laser.

- In class, the teacher used “laser beam” to mean a beam of light generated by a laser.
- He looked up “laser beam” because he had never seen it before.

---

linear leaf (noun)

A long slender leaf.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “linear leaf.”
- He looked up “linear leaf” because he had never seen it before.

---

minneapolis (noun)

Largest city in Minnesota; located in southeastern Minnesota on the Mississippi river; noted for flour mills; one of the Twin Cities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “minneapolis.”
- He looked up “minneapolis” because he had never seen it before.

molly (noun)

Popular aquarium fish.

- They discussed "molly" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "molly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ninja (noun)

A class of 14th century Japanese who were trained in martial arts and were hired for espionage and assassinations.

- In class, the teacher used "ninja" to mean a class of 14th century japanese who were trained....
- They discussed "ninja" during the group presentation.

owl (noun)

Nocturnal bird of prey with hawk-like beak and claws and large head with front-facing eyes.

- Understanding "owl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "owl" means with a simple example.

pilot whale (noun)

Small dark-colored whale of the Atlantic coast of the United States; the largest male acts as pilot or leader for the school.

- The article explained what "pilot whale" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pilot whale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pond-apple tree (noun)

Small evergreen tree of tropical America with edible fruit; used chiefly as grafting stock.

- Understanding "pond-apple tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pond-apple tree" during the group presentation.

rose of sharon (noun)

Asiatic shrub or small shrubby tree having showy bell-shaped rose or purple or white flowers and usually three-lobed leaves; widely cultivated in temperate North America and Europe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rose of sharon."
- They discussed "rose of sharon" during the group presentation.

saint bernard (noun)

A Swiss alpine breed of large powerful dog with a thick coat of hair used as a rescue dog.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saint bernard."
- They discussed "saint bernard" during the group presentation.

screw pine (noun)

Any of various Old World tropical palmlike trees having huge prop roots and edible conelike fruits and leaves like pineapple leaves.

- In class, the teacher used "screw pine" to mean any of various old world tropical palmlike trees....
- They discussed "screw pine" during the group presentation.

shepherd dog (noun)

Any of various usually long-haired breeds of dog reared to herd and guard sheep.

- The article explained what "shepherd dog" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shepherd dog."

silk-cotton tree (noun)

Massive tropical tree with deep ridges on its massive trunk and bearing large pods of seeds covered with silky floss; source of the silky kapok fiber.

- They discussed "silk-cotton tree" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "silk-cotton tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

snow lily (noun)

Dogtooth violet of western North America having bright yellow flowers.

- They discussed "snow lily" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snow lily."

trinity river (noun)

A river in eastern Texas that is formed near Dallas and flows generally southeastward to Galveston Bay.

- The article explained what "trinity river" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trinity river" to mean a river in eastern texas that is formed near dallas....

---

whistle stop (noun)

A small railway station between the principal stations or a station where the train stops only on a signal.

- In class, the teacher used "whistle stop" to mean a small railway station between the principal....
- The article explained what "whistle stop" means with a simple example.

---

wild garlic (noun)

Pungent Old World wild onion.

- He looked up "wild garlic" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild garlic."

---

yellow water lily (noun)

A water lily with yellow flowers.

- They discussed "yellow water lily" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "yellow water lily" because he had never seen it before.

---

air marshal (noun)

A person trained by the government in hijacking and terrorist tactics who (for security reasons) is a passenger aboard an airline flight.

- In class, the teacher used "air marshal" to mean a person trained by the government in hijacking and....
- He looked up "air marshal" because he had never seen it before.

---

ant (noun)

Social insect living in organized colonies; characteristically the males and fertile queen have wings during breeding season; wingless sterile females are the workers.

- They discussed "ant" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ant" to mean social insect living in organized colonies;....

---

apple mint (noun)

Mint with apple-scented stems of southern and western Europe; naturalized in United States.

- In class, the teacher used "apple mint" to mean mint with apple-scented stems of southern and....
- He looked up "apple mint" because he had never seen it before.

---

arctic wolf (noun)

Wolf of Arctic North America having white fur and a black-tipped tail.

- He looked up "arctic wolf" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "arctic wolf" to mean wolf of arctic north america having white fur and a....

---

australian reed grass (noun)

Tall Australian reedlike grass sometimes used for hay.

- In class, the teacher used "australian reed grass" to mean tall australian reedlike grass sometimes used for hay.
- Understanding "australian reed grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

breeze (noun)

A slight wind (usually refreshing).

- The breeze was cooled by the lake.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breeze."

---

bush bean (noun)

A bean plant whose bushy growth needs no supports.

- Understanding "bush bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bush bean" during the group presentation.

---

butterfly ray (noun)

A stingray with a short tail and a broad fin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "butterfly ray."

- The article explained what "butterfly ray" means with a simple example.

---

canadians (noun)

A river rising in northeastern New Mexico and flowing eastward across the Texas panhandle to become a tributary of the Arkansas River in Oklahoma.

- In class, the teacher used "canadians" to mean a river rising in northeastern new mexico and....
- Understanding "canadians" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cherry pepper (noun)

Plant bearing small rounded usually pungent fruits.

- They discussed "cherry pepper" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cherry pepper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

christmas bells (noun)

Any of several plants of the genus Blandfordia having large orange or crimson flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "christmas bells" to mean any of several plants of the genus blandfordia....
- The article explained what "christmas bells" means with a simple example.

---

cow oak (noun)

Medium to large deciduous tree of the eastern United States; its durable wood is used as timber or split and woven into baskets or chair seats.

- He looked up "cow oak" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cow oak" during the group presentation.

---

crane fly (noun)

Long-legged slender flies that resemble large mosquitoes but do not bite.

- Understanding "crane fly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "crane fly" because he had never seen it before.

---

crushed leather (noun)

Leather that has had its grain pattern accentuated.

- They discussed "crushed leather" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "crushed leather" to mean leather that has had its grain pattern accentuated.

---

dug (noun)

An udder or breast or teat.

- Understanding "dug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dug" to mean an udder or breast or teat.

---

electric discharge (noun)

Electrical conduction through a gas in an applied electric field.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric discharge."
- He looked up "electric discharge" because he had never seen it before.

---

forbidden fruit (noun)

Originally an apple from the tree of knowledge of good and evil in the Garden of Eden; it is now used to refer to anything that is tempting but dangerous (as sexuality).

- The article explained what "forbidden fruit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forbidden fruit."

---

forest red gum (noun)

Tall tree of Queensland and New South Wales and Victoria.

- They discussed "forest red gum" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "forest red gum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

foul-weather gear (noun)

Protective garment that is intended to keep the wearer dry and warm in bad weather.

- Understanding "foul-weather gear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "foul-weather gear" during the group presentation.

---

gem state (noun)

A state in the Rocky Mountains.

- Understanding “gem state” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “gem state” to mean a state in the rocky mountains.

german shepherd (noun)

Breed of large shepherd dogs used in police work and as a guide for the blind.

- They discussed “german shepherd” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “german shepherd” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

goat grass (noun)

European grass naturalized as a weed in North America; sharp-pointed seeds cause injury when eaten by livestock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “goat grass.”
- He looked up “goat grass” because he had never seen it before.

great maple (noun)

Eurasian maple tree with pale grey bark that peels in flakes like that of a sycamore tree; leaves with five ovate lobes yellow in autumn.

- He looked up “great maple” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “great maple.”

grey whale (noun)

Medium-sized greyish-black whale of the northern Pacific.

- He looked up “grey whale” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “grey whale.”

ice-cream bean (noun)

Ornamental evergreen tree with masses of white flowers; tropical and subtropical America.

- In class, the teacher used “ice-cream bean” to mean ornamental evergreen tree with masses of white....
- They discussed “ice-cream bean” during the group presentation.

indian rat snake (noun)

Enter buildings in pursuit of prey.

- In class, the teacher used “indian rat snake” to mean enter buildings in pursuit of prey.
- They discussed “indian rat snake” during the group presentation.

jenny ass (noun)

Female donkey.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “jenny ass.”
- The article explained what “jenny ass” means with a simple example.

killer whale (noun)

Predatory black-and-white toothed whale with large dorsal fin; common in cold seas.

- He looked up “killer whale” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “killer whale” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

leaf-foot bug (noun)

Large sap-sucking bug with leaflike expansions on the legs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “leaf-foot bug.”
- He looked up “leaf-foot bug” because he had never seen it before.

little club moss (noun)

Any of numerous fern allies of the genus Selaginella.

- In class, the teacher used “little club moss” to mean any of numerous fern allies of the genus selaginella.
- Understanding “little club moss” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

little owl (noun)

Small European owl.

- He looked up “little owl” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “little owl” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

maple (noun)

Any of numerous trees or shrubs of the genus Acer bearing winged seeds in pairs; north temperate zone.

- They discussed “maple” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “maple” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mission bells (noun)

Herb of northwestern America having green-and-purple bell-shaped flowers.

- In class, the teacher used “mission bells” to mean herb of northwestern america having....
- He looked up “mission bells” because he had never seen it before.

---

mountain mint (noun)

Any of a number of perennial herbs of the genus Pycnanthemum; eastern North America and California.

- The article explained what “mountain mint” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mountain mint.”

---

needle bush (noun)

Shrub with pungent rigid needle-shaped leaves and white flowers; eastern Australia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “needle bush.”
- The article explained what “needle bush” means with a simple example.

---

needle rush (noun)

Fine-leaved aquatic spike rush; popular as aerator for aquariums.

- They discussed “needle rush” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “needle rush” to mean fine-leaved aquatic spike rush; popular as aerator....

---

needle-bush (noun)

Shrub with pungent rigid needle-shaped leaves and white flowers; eastern Australia.

- Understanding “needle-bush” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “needle-bush” to mean shrub with pungent rigid needle-shaped leaves and....

---

norway rat (noun)

Common domestic rat; serious pest worldwide.

- They discussed “norway rat” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “norway rat” because he had never seen it before.

---

orange grove (noun)

Grove of orange trees.

- The article explained what “orange grove” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “orange grove” during the group presentation.

---

pine snake (noun)

Any of several bull snakes of eastern and southeastern United States found chiefly in pine woods; now threatened.

- In class, the teacher used “pine snake” to mean any of several bull snakes of eastern and....
- Understanding “pine snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

resting potential (noun)

The potential difference between the two sides of the membrane of a nerve cell when the cell is not conducting an impulse.

- Understanding “resting potential” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “resting potential” during the group presentation.

---

sacramento (noun)

A city in north central California 75 miles to the northeast of San Francisco on the Sacramento River; capital of California.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sacramento.”
- They discussed “sacramento” during the group presentation.

sacred fig (noun)

Fig tree of India noted for great size and longevity; lacks the prop roots of the banyan; regarded as sacred by Buddhists.

- Understanding "sacred fig" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sacred fig" means with a simple example.

screw-pine family (noun)

Family of woody plants of the order Pandanales including pandanus.

- The article explained what "screw-pine family" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "screw-pine family" during the group presentation.

sea moss (noun)

Any of various red algae having graceful rose to purple fronds (e.g. dulse or carrageen).

- The article explained what "sea moss" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sea moss" during the group presentation.

sea onion (noun)

European scilla with small blue or purple flowers.

- He looked up "sea onion" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sea onion" to mean european scilla with small blue or purple flowers.

snow gum (noun)

Small to medium-sized tree of Australia and Tasmania having smooth white to light-grey bark shedding in patches or strips.

- In class, the teacher used "snow gum" to mean small to medium-sized tree of australia and....
- The article explained what "snow gum" means with a simple example.

spanish garlic (noun)

European leek cultivated and used like leeks.

- In class, the teacher used "spanish garlic" to mean european leek cultivated and used like leeks.
- The article explained what "spanish garlic" means with a simple example.

sunlight (noun)

The rays of the sun.

- Understanding "sunlight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sunlight" means with a simple example.

sweet bells (noun)

Bushy deciduous shrub of the eastern United States with long racemes of pinkish flowers.

- He looked up "sweet bells" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sweet bells" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wagon train (noun)

A procession (of wagons or mules or camels) traveling together in single file.

- They joined the wagon train for safety.
- He looked up "wagon train" because he had never seen it before.

wheat-grass (noun)

A grass of the genus Agropyron.

- He looked up "wheat-grass" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wheat-grass" during the group presentation.

white heather (noun)

Heath of mountains of western United States having bell-shaped white flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "white heather" to mean heath of mountains of western united states having....
- The article explained what "white heather" means with a simple example.

white silk-cotton tree (noun)

Massive tropical tree with deep ridges on its massive trunk and bearing large pods of seeds covered with silky floss; source of the silky kapok fiber.

- In class, the teacher used "white silk-cotton tree" to mean massive tropical tree with deep ridges on its....
- The article explained what "white silk-cotton tree" means with a simple example.

---

white wax tree (noun)

Erect evergreen treelike shrub of China and Korea and Japan having acuminate leaves and flowers in long erect panicles; resembles Japanese privet.

- The article explained what "white wax tree" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white wax tree."

---

wood garlic (noun)

Pungent Old World weedy plant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wood garlic."
- They discussed "wood garlic" during the group presentation.

---

wood mint (noun)

American herb of genus Blephilia with more or less hairy leaves and clusters of purplish or bluish flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wood mint."
- He looked up "wood mint" because he had never seen it before.

---

wool fat (noun)

A yellow viscous animal oil extracted from wool; a mixture of fatty acids and esters; used in some ointments and cosmetics.

- He looked up "wool fat" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wool fat" during the group presentation.

---

acids (noun)

Street name for lysergic acid diethylamide.

- In class, the teacher used "acids" to mean street name for lysergic acid diethylamide.
- The article explained what "acids" means with a simple example.

---

aggregate fruit (noun)

Fruit consisting of many individual small fruits or drupes derived from separate ovaries within a common receptacle: e.g. blackberry; raspberry; pineapple.

- The article explained what "aggregate fruit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "aggregate fruit" to mean fruit consisting of many individual small fruits or....

---

american lime (noun)

Large American shade tree with large dark green leaves and rounded crown.

- The article explained what "american lime" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american lime."

---

bank swallow (noun)

Swallow of the northern hemisphere that nests in tunnels dug in clay or sand banks.

- The article explained what "bank swallow" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bank swallow" to mean swallow of the northern hemisphere that nests in....

---

bird sanctuary (noun)

A building where birds are kept.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bird sanctuary."
- He looked up "bird sanctuary" because he had never seen it before.

---

bud brush (noun)

A perennial that is valuable as sheep forage in the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bud brush."
- He looked up "bud brush" because he had never seen it before.

---

chinese holly (noun)

Dense rounded evergreen shrub of China having spiny leaves; widely cultivated as an ornamental.

- They discussed "chinese holly" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chinese holly."

---

common corn salad (noun)

Widely cultivated as a salad crop and pot herb; often a weed.

- Understanding "common corn salad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "common corn salad" because he had never seen it before.

---

corn silk (noun)

Each of the long filamentous styles that grow as a silky tuft at the tip of an ear of Indian corn.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corn silk."
- Understanding "corn silk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

debris storm (noun)

The sudden spread of dust and debris from a collapsing building.

- The destruction of the building produced an enormous debris surge.
- In class, the teacher used "debris storm" to mean the sudden spread of dust and debris from a....

---

douglas pine (noun)

Lofty douglas fir of northwestern North America having short needles and egg-shaped cones.

- They discussed "douglas pine" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "douglas pine" because he had never seen it before.

---

electric glow (noun)

An electrical discharge accompanied by ionization of surrounding atmosphere.

- Understanding "electric glow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric glow."

---

elevated railroad (noun)

A railway that is powered by electricity and that runs on a track that is raised above the street level.

- He looked up "elevated railroad" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elevated railroad."

---

flour mill (noun)

A mill for grinding grain into flour.

- In class, the teacher used "flour mill" to mean a mill for grinding grain into flour.
- The article explained what "flour mill" means with a simple example.

---

flower cluster (noun)

An inflorescence consisting of a cluster of flowers.

- They discussed "flower cluster" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "flower cluster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

free-reed instrument (noun)

A wind instrument with a free reed.

- Understanding "free-reed instrument" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "free-reed instrument" because he had never seen it before.

---

giant stock bean (noun)

Annual semi-erect bushy plant of tropical South America bearing long pods with white seeds grown especially for forage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "giant stock bean."
- They discussed "giant stock bean" during the group presentation.

---

gray whale (noun)

Medium-sized greyish-black whale of the northern Pacific.

- In class, the teacher used "gray whale" to mean medium-sized greyish-black whale of the northern....
- The article explained what "gray whale" means with a simple example.

---

gulf of saint lawrence (noun)

An arm of the northwest Atlantic Ocean off the southeastern coast of Canada.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gulf of saint lawrence."
- Understanding "gulf of saint lawrence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

harvest mouse (noun)

Small reddish-brown Eurasian mouse inhabiting e.g. cornfields.

- In class, the teacher used "harvest mouse" to mean small reddish-brown eurasian mouse inhabiting e.g.....
- Understanding "harvest mouse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

light breeze (noun)

Wind moving 4-7 knots; 2 on the Beaufort scale.

- They discussed "light breeze" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "light breeze" means with a simple example.

---

lined snake (noun)

Secretive snake of city dumps and parks as well as prairies and open woods; feeds on earthworms; of central United States.

- In class, the teacher used "lined snake" to mean secretive snake of city dumps and parks as well as....
- The article explained what "lined snake" means with a simple example.

---

lion monkey (noun)

Small South American marmoset with silky fur and long nonprehensile tail.

- The article explained what "lion monkey" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lion monkey" during the group presentation.

---

little-leaf fig (noun)

Australian tree resembling the banyan often planted for ornament; introduced into South Africa for brushwood.

- The article explained what "little-leaf fig" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "little-leaf fig" to mean australian tree resembling the banyan often planted....

---

maple family (noun)

A family of trees and shrubs of order Sapindales including the maples.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maple family."
- Understanding "maple family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

michigan lily (noun)

Lily of central North America having recurved orange-red flowers with deep crimson spots.

- He looked up "michigan lily" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "michigan lily" during the group presentation.

---

onion plant (noun)

Bulbous plant having hollow leaves cultivated worldwide for its rounded edible bulb.

- In class, the teacher used "onion plant" to mean bulbous plant having hollow leaves cultivated....
- He looked up "onion plant" because he had never seen it before.

---

poor man's pulse (noun)

Twining herb of Old World tropics cultivated in India for food and fodder; sometimes placed in genus Dolichos.

- They discussed "poor man's pulse" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "poor man's pulse" means with a simple example.

---

potato bug (noun)

Black-and-yellow beetle that feeds in adult and larval stages on potato leaves; originally of eastern Rocky Mountains; now worldwide.

- They discussed "potato bug" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "potato bug" to mean black-and-yellow beetle that feeds in adult and....

---

rabbit-weed (noun)

Low-growing sticky subshrub of southwestern United States having narrow linear leaves on many slender branches and hundreds of tiny yellow flower heads.

- Understanding “rabbit-weed” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “rabbit-weed” because he had never seen it before.

---

red maple (noun)

Maple of eastern and central America; five-lobed leaves turn scarlet and yellow in autumn.

- He looked up “red maple” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “red maple” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

red silk-cotton tree (noun)

East Indian silk cotton tree yielding fibers inferior to kapok.

- He looked up “red silk-cotton tree” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “red silk-cotton tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sea holly (noun)

Widely cultivated southern European acanthus with whitish purple-veined flowers.

- The article explained what “sea holly” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sea holly.”

---

seasonal worker (noun)

A worker who finds employment only in certain seasons.

- He looked up “seasonal worker” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “seasonal worker” to mean a worker who finds employment only in certain seasons.

---

sky glow (noun)

Illumination of the night sky in urban areas.

- In class, the teacher used “sky glow” to mean illumination of the night sky in urban areas.
- The article explained what “sky glow” means with a simple example.

---

spider monkey (noun)

Arboreal monkey of tropical America with long slender legs and long prehensile tail.

- In class, the teacher used “spider monkey” to mean arboreal monkey of tropical america with long....
- They discussed “spider monkey” during the group presentation.

---

spike rush (noun)

A sedge of the genus Eleocharis.

- Understanding “spike rush” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “spike rush” during the group presentation.

---

spring frog (noun)

Common North American green or brownish frog having white-edged dark oval spots.

- They discussed “spring frog” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “spring frog” because he had never seen it before.

---

sweet gum tree (noun)

A North American tree of the genus Liquidambar having prickly spherical fruit clusters and fragrant sap.

- The article explained what “sweet gum tree” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sweet gum tree.”

---

swiss pine (noun)

Large five-needled European pine; yields cembra nuts and a resinous exudate.

- The article explained what “swiss pine” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “swiss pine” to mean large five-needled european pine; yields cembra....

---

timber wolf (noun)

A wolf with a brindled grey coat living in forested northern regions of North America.

- They discussed “timber wolf” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “timber wolf” means with a simple example.

tree frog (noun)

Any of various Old World arboreal frogs distinguished from true frogs by adhesive suckers on the toes.

- In class, the teacher used "tree frog" to mean any of various old world arboreal frogs....
- The article explained what "tree frog" means with a simple example.

tree onion (noun)

Type of perennial onion grown chiefly as a curiosity or for early salad onions; having bulbils that replace the flowers.

- The article explained what "tree onion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tree onion" to mean type of perennial onion grown chiefly as a....

tree-frog (noun)

Any of various Old World arboreal frogs distinguished from true frogs by adhesive suckers on the toes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tree-frog."
- The article explained what "tree-frog" means with a simple example.

umbrella plant (noun)

Late blooming perennial plant of shale barrens of Virginia having flowers in flat-topped clusters.

- They discussed "umbrella plant" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "umbrella plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

umbrella tree (noun)

Erect evergreen shrub or small tree of Australia and northern New Guinea having palmately compound leaves.

- Understanding "umbrella tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "umbrella tree."

western box turtle (noun)

Primarily a prairie turtle of western United States and northern Mexico.

- They discussed "western box turtle" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "western box turtle" because he had never seen it before.

white ant (noun)

Whitish soft-bodied ant-like social insect that feeds on wood.

- In class, the teacher used "white ant" to mean whitish soft-bodied ant-like social insect that....
- Understanding "white ant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wild peanut (noun)

Vine widely distributed in eastern North America producing racemes of purple to maroon flowers and abundant (usually subterranean) edible one-seeded pods resembling peanuts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild peanut."
- The article explained what "wild peanut" means with a simple example.

window cleaner (noun)

Someone who cleans windows for pay.

- He looked up "window cleaner" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "window cleaner" during the group presentation.

all-terrain bike (noun)

A bicycle with a sturdy frame and fat tires; originally designed for riding in mountainous country.

- He looked up "all-terrain bike" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "all-terrain bike."

alpha rhythm (noun)

The normal brainwave in the electroencephalogram of a person who is awake but relaxed; occurs with a frequency of 8-12 hertz.

- In class, the teacher used "alpha rhythm" to mean the normal brainwave in the electroencephalogram of....
- They discussed "alpha rhythm" during the group presentation.

american harvest mouse (noun)

Any of several small greyish New World mice inhabiting e.g. grain fields.

- In class, the teacher used "american harvest mouse" to mean any of several small greyish new world mice....
- The article explained what "american harvest mouse" means with a simple example.

---

apple of peru (noun)

Coarse South American herb grown for its blue-and-white flowers followed by a bladderlike fruit enclosing a dry berry.

- The article explained what "apple of peru" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "apple of peru" to mean coarse south american herb grown for its....

---

barn grass (noun)

A coarse annual panic grass; a cosmopolitan weed; occasionally used for hay or grazing.

- They discussed "barn grass" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "barn grass" means with a simple example.

---

bent grass (noun)

Grass for pastures and lawns especially bowling and putting greens.

- They discussed "bent grass" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bent grass" because he had never seen it before.

---

bent-grass (noun)

Grass for pastures and lawns especially bowling and putting greens.

- In class, the teacher used "bent-grass" to mean grass for pastures and lawns especially bowling and....
- The article explained what "bent-grass" means with a simple example.

---

brass instrument (noun)

A wind instrument that consists of a brass tube (usually of variable length) that is blown by means of a cup-shaped or funnel-shaped mouthpiece.

- He looked up "brass instrument" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "brass instrument" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brazilian pepper tree (noun)

Small Brazilian evergreen resinous tree or shrub having dark green leaflets and white flowers followed by bright red fruit; used as a street tree and lawn specimen.

- He looked up "brazilian pepper tree" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "brazilian pepper tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cairo (noun)

A town at the southern tip of Illinois at the confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers.

- He looked up "cairo" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cairo" during the group presentation.

---

carpet shark (noun)

Shark of the western Pacific with flattened body and mottled skin.

- Understanding "carpet shark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "carpet shark" means with a simple example.

---

christmas holly (noun)

An evergreen tree.

- He looked up "christmas holly" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "christmas holly."

---

coconut tree (noun)

Tall palm tree bearing coconuts as fruits; widely planted throughout the tropics.

- The article explained what "coconut tree" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coconut tree."

---

delaware bay (noun)

An inlet of the North Atlantic; fed by the Delaware River.

- The article explained what "delaware bay" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "delaware bay" during the group presentation.

false garlic (noun)

Pungent Old World wild onion.

- They discussed "false garlic" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "false garlic" because he had never seen it before.

field maple (noun)

Shrubby Eurasian maple often used as a hedge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "field maple."
- He looked up "field maple" because he had never seen it before.

fire ant (noun)

Omnivorous ant of tropical and subtropical America that can inflict a painful sting.

- The article explained what "fire ant" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire ant."

fur seal (noun)

Eared seal of the southern hemisphere; the thick soft underfur is the source of sealskin.

- The male fur seal is much larger than the female.
- In class, the teacher used "fur seal" to mean eared seal of the southern hemisphere; the thick....

german shepherd dog (noun)

Breed of large shepherd dogs used in police work and as a guide for the blind.

- The article explained what "german shepherd dog" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "german shepherd dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

giant garlic (noun)

European leek cultivated and used like leeks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "giant garlic."
- They discussed "giant garlic" during the group presentation.

golden glow (noun)

Very tall branching herb with showy much-doubled yellow flower heads.

- Understanding "golden glow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golden glow."

goose down (noun)

Down of the goose.

- They discussed "goose down" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "goose down" to mean down of the goose.

hunting licence (noun)

A license authorizing the bearer to kill a certain type of animal during a specified period of time.

- Understanding "hunting licence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hunting licence" to mean a license authorizing the bearer to kill a certain....

imperial elephant (noun)

Largest known mammoth; of America.

- He looked up "imperial elephant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "imperial elephant" to mean largest known mammoth; of america.

ion beam (noun)

A beam of ions moving in the same direction at the same speed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ion beam."
- He looked up "ion beam" because he had never seen it before.

lake powell (noun)

The second largest reservoir in the United States; located in southern Utah and north central Arizona and formed by the Glen Canyon Dam on the Colorado River.

- In class, the teacher used "lake powell" to mean the second largest reservoir in the united states;....
- The article explained what "lake powell" means with a simple example.

---

leaf bud (noun)

A bud from which leaves (but not flowers) develop.

- They discussed "leaf bud" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "leaf bud" means with a simple example.

---

lily-of-the-valley tree (noun)

Broad-leaved evergreen Asiatic shrub with glossy leaves and drooping clusters of white flowers.

- Understanding "lily-of-the-valley tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lily-of-the-valley tree" means with a simple example.

---

little black ant (noun)

Tiny glossy black ant; nests outdoors but invades houses for food.

- Understanding "little black ant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "little black ant" to mean tiny glossy black ant; nests outdoors but invades....

---

living granite (noun)

Highly succulent stemless clump-forming plants with grey-green leaves similar in texture to lumps of granite; South Africa.

- They discussed "living granite" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "living granite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

louisville (noun)

The largest city in Kentucky; located in north central Kentucky on the Ohio river; site of the Kentucky Derby.

- He looked up "louisville" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "louisville" during the group presentation.

---

magnetic attraction (noun)

Attraction for iron; associated with electric currents as well as magnets; characterized by fields of force.

- The article explained what "magnetic attraction" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "magnetic attraction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

melissa (noun)

A genus of Old World mints of the family Labiatae.

- In class, the teacher used "melissa" to mean a genus of old world mints of the family labiatae.
- Understanding "melissa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

moss animal (noun)

Sessile aquatic animal forming mossy colonies of small polyps each having a curved or circular ridge bearing tentacles; attach to stones or seaweed and reproduce by budding.

- He looked up "moss animal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moss animal."

---

norfolk (noun)

Port city located in southeastern Virginia on the Elizabeth River at the mouth of Chesapeake Bay; headquarters of the Atlantic fleet of the United States Navy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "norfolk."
- He looked up "norfolk" because he had never seen it before.

---

rose moss (noun)

Widely cultivated in many varieties for its fleshy moss-like foliage and profusion of brightly colored flowers.

- They discussed "rose moss" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rose moss" to mean widely cultivated in many varieties for its fleshy....

---

sand berry (noun)

Evergreen mat-forming shrub of North America and northern Eurasia having small white flowers and red berries; leaves turn red in autumn.

- In class, the teacher used “sand berry” to mean evergreen mat-forming shrub of north america and....
- He looked up “sand berry” because he had never seen it before.

---

scale moss (noun)

Moss-like liverwort with tiny scalelike leaves; usually epiphytic.

- In class, the teacher used “scale moss” to mean moss-like liverwort with tiny scalelike leaves;....
- He looked up “scale moss” because he had never seen it before.

---

sea swallow (noun)

Common tern of Eurasia and America having white black and grey plumage.

- In class, the teacher used “sea swallow” to mean common tern of eurasia and america having white....
- He looked up “sea swallow” because he had never seen it before.

---

shell bean (noun)

A bean plant grown primarily for its edible seed rather than its pod.

- Understanding “shell bean” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “shell bean” because he had never seen it before.

---

shelter tent (noun)

A wedge-shaped tent; usually without a floor or windows.

- He looked up “shelter tent” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “shelter tent” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

short-leaf pine (noun)

Large pine of southern United States having short needles in bunches of 2-3 and red-brown bark when mature.

- The article explained what “short-leaf pine” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “short-leaf pine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

silk oak (noun)

Any of several Australian timber trees having usually fernlike foliage and mottled wood used in cabinetry and veneering.

- Understanding “silk oak” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “silk oak” during the group presentation.

---

silver jenny (noun)

Silvery mojarra found along sandy shores of the western Atlantic.

- They discussed “silver jenny” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “silver jenny” because he had never seen it before.

---

single-leaf pine (noun)

Pinon of southwestern United States having solitary needles and often many stems; important as a nut pine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “single-leaf pine.”
- He looked up “single-leaf pine” because he had never seen it before.

---

slaughter (verb)

Kill (animals) usually for food consumption.

- They slaughtered their only goat to survive the winter.
- In everyday English, people use “slaughter” when talking about this idea.

---

strong breeze (noun)

Wind moving 25-31 knots; 6 on the Beaufort scale.

- In class, the teacher used “strong breeze” to mean wind moving 25-31 knots; 6 on the beaufort scale.
- They discussed “strong breeze” during the group presentation.

---

stuffed egg (noun)

Halved hard-cooked egg with the yolk mashed with mayonnaise and seasonings and returned to the white.

- In class, the teacher used “stuffed egg” to mean halved hard-cooked egg with the yolk mashed with....
- He looked up “stuffed egg” because he had never seen it before.

sucking fish (noun)

Marine fishes with a flattened elongated body and a sucking disk on the head for attaching to large fish or moving objects.

- Understanding "sucking fish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sucking fish" because he had never seen it before.

tide rip (noun)

A stretch of turbulent water in a river or the sea caused by one current flowing into or across another current.

- They discussed "tide rip" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tide rip" means with a simple example.

tumor virus (noun)

A cell-free filtrate held to be a virus responsible for a specific neoplasm.

- He looked up "tumor virus" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tumor virus."

vampire bat (noun)

Any of various tropical American bats of the family Desmodontidae that bite mammals and birds to feed on their blood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vampire bat."
- They discussed "vampire bat" during the group presentation.

wild onion (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Allium with edible bulbs found growing wild.

- The article explained what "wild onion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wild onion" to mean any of various plants of the genus allium with....

wood frog (noun)

Wide-ranging light-brown frog of moist North American woodlands especially spruce.

- The article explained what "wood frog" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wood frog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wood-frog (noun)

Wide-ranging light-brown frog of moist North American woodlands especially spruce.

- He looked up "wood-frog" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wood-frog" during the group presentation.

african holly (noun)

Woolly-stemmed biennial arborescent shrub of tropical Africa and southern Asia having silvery-white prickly branches, clusters of blue or white flowers, and bright red berries resembling holly berries.

- In class, the teacher used "african holly" to mean woolly-stemmed biennial arborescent shrub of....
- They discussed "african holly" during the group presentation.

army ant (noun)

Tropical nomadic ant that preys mainly on other insects.

- He looked up "army ant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "army ant" during the group presentation.

beach heather (noun)

Small heathlike plant covered with white down growing on beaches in northeastern North America.

- Understanding "beach heather" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "beach heather" means with a simple example.

bells of ireland (noun)

Aromatic annual with a tall stems of small whitish flowers enclosed in a greatly enlarged saucer-shaped or bell-shaped calyx.

- In class, the teacher used "bells of ireland" to mean aromatic annual with a tall stems of small whitish....
- He looked up "bells of ireland" because he had never seen it before.

benjamin franklin bridge (noun)

A suspension bridge across the Delaware River.

- He looked up “benjamin franklin bridge” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “benjamin franklin bridge” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

black swan (noun)

Large Australian swan having black plumage and a red bill.

- He looked up “black swan” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “black swan” to mean large australian swan having black plumage and a....

brain coral (noun)

Massive reef-building coral having a convoluted and furrowed surface.

- They discussed “brain coral” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “brain coral” means with a simple example.

broad-bean plant (noun)

Old World upright plant grown especially for its large flat edible seeds but also as fodder.

- He looked up “broad-bean plant” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “broad-bean plant” during the group presentation.

bully tree (noun)

A tropical hardwood tree yielding balata gum and heavy red timber.

- Understanding “bully tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bully tree.”

carriage dog (noun)

A large breed having a smooth white coat with black or brown spots; originated in Dalmatia.

- In class, the teacher used “carriage dog” to mean a large breed having a smooth white coat with black....
- The article explained what “carriage dog” means with a simple example.

churchill (noun)

A Canadian town in northern Manitoba on Hudson Bay; important port for shipping grain.

- He looked up “churchill” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “churchill.”

cord grass (noun)

Any of several perennial grasses of the genus Spartina; some important as coastal soil binders.

- He looked up “cord grass” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cord grass.”

evaluated (verb)

Evaluate or estimate the nature, quality, ability, extent, or significance of.

- Can you use “evaluated” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “evaluated” and when to wait.

golden-eyed fly (noun)

A variety of green lacewing.

- In class, the teacher used “golden-eyed fly” to mean a variety of green lacewing.
- The article explained what “golden-eyed fly” means with a simple example.

grain merchant (noun)

A merchant who deals in food grains.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “grain merchant.”
- Understanding “grain merchant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

idaho falls (noun)

A town in southeastern Idaho on the Snake River.

- They discussed “idaho falls” during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "idaho falls."

---

india-rubber fig (noun)

Large tropical Asian tree frequently dwarfed as a houseplant; source of Assam rubber.

- He looked up "india-rubber fig" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "india-rubber fig" during the group presentation.

---

ivy (noun)

Old World vine with lobed evergreen leaves and black berrylike fruits.

- Understanding "ivy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ivy" because he had never seen it before.

---

livestock (noun)

Any animals kept for use or profit.

- Understanding "livestock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "livestock" to mean any animals kept for use or profit.

---

marsh plant (noun)

A semiaquatic plant that grows in soft wet land; most are monocots: sedge, sphagnum, grasses, cattails, etc; possibly heath.

- He looked up "marsh plant" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "marsh plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mediterranean fruit fly (noun)

Small black-and-white fly that damages citrus and other fruits by implanting eggs that hatch inside the fruit.

- Understanding "mediterranean fruit fly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mediterranean fruit fly" because he had never seen it before.

---

nude mouse (noun)

A mouse with a genetic defect that prevents them from growing hair and also prevents them from immunologically rejecting human cells and tissues; widely used in preclinical trials.

- They discussed "nude mouse" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "nude mouse" to mean a mouse with a genetic defect that prevents them....

---

panthers (noun)

A large spotted feline of tropical America similar to the leopard; in some classifications considered a member of the genus Felis.

- They discussed "panthers" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "panthers."

---

pumpkin (noun)

A coarse vine widely cultivated for its large pulpy round orange fruit with firm orange skin and numerous seeds; subspecies of Cucurbita pepo include the summer squashes and a few autumn squashes.

- He looked up "pumpkin" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pumpkin" to mean a coarse vine widely cultivated for its large pulpy....

---

rabbit brush (noun)

Pleasantly aromatic shrub having erect slender flexible hairy branches and dense clusters of small yellow flowers covering vast areas of western alkali plains and affording a retreat for jackrabbits; source of a yellow dye used by the Navajo.

- Understanding "rabbit brush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "rabbit brush" means with a simple example.

---

rock maple (noun)

Maple of eastern and central North America having three-lobed to five-lobed leaves and hard close-grained wood much used for cabinet work especially the curly-grained form; sap is chief source of maple syrup and maple sugar; many subspecies.

- In class, the teacher used "rock maple" to mean maple of eastern and central north america having....
- Understanding "rock maple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sacramento river (noun)

A river in northern California rising near Mount Shasta and flowing south to the San Francisco Bay.

- The article explained what "sacramento river" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sacramento river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sea breeze (noun)

A cooling breeze from the sea (during the daytime).

- He looked up "sea breeze" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sea breeze" to mean a cooling breeze from the sea (during the daytime).

spanish moss (noun)

Dense festoons of greenish-grey hairlike flexuous strands anchored to tree trunks and branches by sparse wiry roots; southeastern United States and West Indies to South America.

- He looked up "spanish moss" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spanish moss."

spice bush (noun)

Deciduous shrub of the eastern United States having highly aromatic leaves and bark and yellow flowers followed by scarlet or yellow berries.

- Understanding "spice bush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "spice bush" means with a simple example.

sword bean (noun)

Twining tropical Old World plant bearing long pods usually with red or brown beans; long cultivated in Orient for food.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sword bean."
- The article explained what "sword bean" means with a simple example.

tree swallow (noun)

Of Australia and Polynesia; nests in tree cavities.

- They discussed "tree swallow" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tree swallow" because he had never seen it before.

true vampire bat (noun)

Any of various tropical American bats of the family Desmodontidae that bite mammals and birds to feed on their blood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "true vampire bat."
- They discussed "true vampire bat" during the group presentation.

violet family (noun)

A family of order Parietales including the genera Viola, Hybanthus, Hymenanthera, Melicytus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "violet family."
- He looked up "violet family" because he had never seen it before.

water mat (noun)

Aquatic herb with yellowish flowers; central and western United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water mat."
- Understanding "water mat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

water violet (noun)

Featherfoil of Europe and western Asia having submerged and floating leaves and violet flowers.

- Understanding "water violet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "water violet" means with a simple example.

white violet (noun)

Short-stemmed violet of eastern North America having fragrant purple-veined white flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "white violet" to mean short-stemmed violet of eastern north america....
- The article explained what "white violet" means with a simple example.

wild lily of the valley (noun)

North American evergreen with small pinkish bell-shaped flowers and oblong leaves used formerly for shinplasters.

- They discussed "wild lily of the valley" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild lily of the valley."

wild yellow lily (noun)

Common lily of the eastern United States having nodding yellow or reddish flowers spotted with brown.

- He looked up "wild yellow lily" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wild yellow lily" during the group presentation.

wishing bone (noun)

The furcula of a domestic fowl.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wishing bone."
- He looked up "wishing bone" because he had never seen it before.

wolf bean (noun)

White-flowered Eurasian herb widely cultivated for forage and erosion control.

- Understanding "wolf bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wolf bean" means with a simple example.

yellow bells (noun)

Viscid herb of arid or desert habitats of southwestern United States having pendulous yellow flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "yellow bells" to mean viscid herb of arid or desert habitats of....
- Understanding "yellow bells" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

accidental (noun)

A musical notation that makes a note sharp or flat or natural although that is not part of the key signature.

- In class, the teacher used "accidental" to mean a musical notation that makes a note sharp or flat....
- He looked up "accidental" because he had never seen it before.

alley cat (noun)

A homeless cat.

- The article explained what "alley cat" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "alley cat" to mean a homeless cat.

american ivy (noun)

Common North American vine with compound leaves and bluish-black berrylike fruit.

- Understanding "american ivy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "american ivy" means with a simple example.

basket oak (noun)

Medium to large deciduous tree of the eastern United States; its durable wood is used as timber or split and woven into baskets or chair seats.

- The article explained what "basket oak" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "basket oak" to mean medium to large deciduous tree of the eastern....

beta rhythm (noun)

The normal brainwave in the encephalogram of a person who is awake and alert; occurs with a frequency between 12 and 30 hertz.

- Understanding "beta rhythm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "beta rhythm" during the group presentation.

billy buttons (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Craspedia grown for their downy foliage and globose heads of golden flowers; Australia and New Zealand.

- They discussed "billy buttons" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "billy buttons" means with a simple example.

black sage (noun)

An aromatic plant with wooly leaves found in southern California and Mexico.

- The article explained what "black sage" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black sage."

blue goose (noun)

North American wild goose having dark plumage in summer but white in winter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue goose."

- The article explained what "blue goose" means with a simple example.

bolt of lightning (noun)

A discharge of lightning accompanied by thunder.

- In class, the teacher used "bolt of lightning" to mean a discharge of lightning accompanied by thunder.
- The article explained what "bolt of lightning" means with a simple example.

bot (noun)

Botfly larva; typically develops inside the body of a horse or sheep or human.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bot."
- He looked up "bot" because he had never seen it before.

brazilian potato tree (noun)

South American shrub or small tree widely cultivated in the tropics; not a true potato.

- The article explained what "brazilian potato tree" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "brazilian potato tree" during the group presentation.

butterfly bush (noun)

Tropical shrub having clusters of white or violet or yellow flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "butterfly bush."
- They discussed "butterfly bush" during the group presentation.

calcium (noun)

A white metallic element that burns with a brilliant light; the fifth most abundant element in the earth's crust; an important component of most plants and animals.

- Understanding "calcium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "calcium" because he had never seen it before.

congregation (noun)

An assemblage of people or animals or things collected together.

- A congregation of children pleaded for his autograph.
- A great congregation of birds flew over.

coral tree (noun)

Any of various shrubs or shrubby trees of the genus Erythrina having trifoliate leaves and racemes of scarlet to coral red flowers and black seeds; cultivated as an ornamental.

- The article explained what "coral tree" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "coral tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cow shark (noun)

Large primitive shark widely distributed in warm seas.

- He looked up "cow shark" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cow shark."

dairy cattle (noun)

Cattle that are reared for their milk.

- In class, the teacher used "dairy cattle" to mean cattle that are reared for their milk.
- The article explained what "dairy cattle" means with a simple example.

dog violet (noun)

Old World leafy-stemmed blue-flowered violet.

- The article explained what "dog violet" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dog violet" during the group presentation.

double-reed instrument (noun)

A woodwind that has a pair of joined reeds that vibrate together.

- The article explained what "double-reed instrument" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "double-reed instrument" to mean a woodwind that has a pair of joined reeds that....

eden (noun)

A beautiful garden where Adam and Eve were placed at the Creation; when they disobeyed and ate the forbidden fruit from the tree of knowledge of good and evil they were driven from their paradise (the fall of man).

- He looked up "eden" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "eden" to mean a beautiful garden where adam and eve were placed....

---

english violet (noun)

European violet typically having purple to white flowers; widely naturalized.

- The article explained what "english violet" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english violet."

---

fresh breeze (noun)

Wind moving 19-24 knots; 5 on the Beaufort scale.

- They discussed "fresh breeze" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fresh breeze" means with a simple example.

---

fringe tree (noun)

Any of various small decorative flowering trees or shrubs of the genus Chionanthus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fringe tree."
- They discussed "fringe tree" during the group presentation.

---

ghost gum (noun)

Small to medium-sized tree of Australia and Tasmania having smooth white to light-grey bark shedding in patches or strips.

- He looked up "ghost gum" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ghost gum."

---

guinea corn (noun)

Sorghums of dry regions of Asia and North Africa.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guinea corn."
- They discussed "guinea corn" during the group presentation.

---

honey berry (noun)

Tropical American tree bearing a small edible fruit with green leathery skin and sweet juicy translucent pulp.

- They discussed "honey berry" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "honey berry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ivy family (noun)

Mostly tropical trees and shrubs and lianas: genera Panax and Hedera.

- He looked up "ivy family" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ivy family."

---

lime tree (noun)

Any of various related trees bearing limes.

- They discussed "lime tree" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lime tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marine turtle (noun)

Any of various large turtles with limbs modified into flippers; widely distributed in warm seas.

- Understanding "marine turtle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "marine turtle" to mean any of various large turtles with limbs modified....

---

mock sun (noun)

A bright spot on the parhelic circle; caused by diffraction by ice crystals.

- Understanding "mock sun" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mock sun" to mean a bright spot on the parhelic circle; caused by....

---

native holly (noun)

Low spreading evergreen shrub of southern Australia having triangular to somewhat heart-shaped foliage and orange-yellow flowers followed by flat winged pods.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "native holly."
- Understanding "native holly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

overhead railway (noun)

A railway that is powered by electricity and that runs on a track that is raised above the street level.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "overhead railway."
- They discussed "overhead railway" during the group presentation.

---

palm nut (noun)

Seed of any oil palm.

- The article explained what "palm nut" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "palm nut" to mean seed of any oil palm.

---

panama tree (noun)

Large deciduous tree native to Panama and from which the country takes its name; having densely leafy crown and naked trunk.

- In class, the teacher used "panama tree" to mean large deciduous tree native to panama and from....
- The article explained what "panama tree" means with a simple example.

---

para river (noun)

An estuary in northern Brazil into which the Tocantins River flows.

- Understanding "para river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "para river" because he had never seen it before.

---

philadelphia pepper pot (noun)

A soup made with vegetables and tripe and seasoned with peppercorns; often contains dumplings.

- He looked up "philadelphia pepper pot" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "philadelphia pepper pot."

---

poison ash (noun)

Smooth American swamp shrub with pinnate leaves and greenish flowers followed by greenish white berries; yields an irritating oil.

- He looked up "poison ash" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "poison ash" to mean smooth american swamp shrub with pinnate leaves and....

---

queensland nut (noun)

Bushy tree with pink to purple flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "queensland nut."
- The article explained what "queensland nut" means with a simple example.

---

rainbow runner (noun)

Streamlined cigar-shaped jack; good game fish.

- In class, the teacher used "rainbow runner" to mean streamlined cigar-shaped jack; good game fish.
- He looked up "rainbow runner" because he had never seen it before.

---

rainfall (noun)

Water falling in drops from vapor condensed in the atmosphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rainfall."
- Understanding "rainfall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rio grande (noun)

A North American river; boundary between the United States and Mexico; flows into Gulf of Mexico.

- The article explained what "rio grande" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rio grande."

---

rocky mountain sheep (noun)

Wild sheep of mountainous regions of western North America having massive curled horns.

- Understanding "rocky mountain sheep" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "rocky mountain sheep" because he had never seen it before.

salt reed grass (noun)

Tall reedlike grass common in salt meadows.

- Understanding "salt reed grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "salt reed grass" to mean tall reedlike grass common in salt meadows.

sand lance (noun)

Very small silvery eellike schooling fishes that burrow into sandy beaches.

- The article explained what "sand lance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sand lance" to mean very small silvery eellike schooling fishes that....

scent (noun)

An odor left in passing by which a person or animal can be traced.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scent."
- Understanding "scent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sliding window (noun)

A window that open by sliding horizontally.

- Understanding "sliding window" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sliding window" during the group presentation.

sperm oil (noun)

An animal oil found in the blubber of the sperm whale.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sperm oil."
- The article explained what "sperm oil" means with a simple example.

sun porch (noun)

A room enclosed largely with glass and affording exposure to the sun.

- Understanding "sun porch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sun porch" because he had never seen it before.

surf fish (noun)

A fish of the Pacific coast of North America.

- In class, the teacher used "surf fish" to mean a fish of the pacific coast of north america.
- The article explained what "surf fish" means with a simple example.

sweet lime (noun)

Lemon tree having fruit with a somewhat insipid sweetish pulp.

- They discussed "sweet lime" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sweet lime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tunnels (noun)

A passageway through or under something, usually underground (especially one for trains or cars).

- The article explained what "tunnels" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tunnels."

umbrella bird (noun)

Black tropical American bird having a large overhanging crest and long feathered wattle.

- They discussed "umbrella bird" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "umbrella bird" because he had never seen it before.

white sage (noun)

Perennial cottony-white herb of southwestern United States.

- The article explained what "white sage" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "white sage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wood swallow (noun)

Australasian and Asiatic bird related to the shrikes and resembling a swallow.

- Understanding "wood swallow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "wood swallow" to mean australasian and asiatic bird related to the....

---

activation energy (noun)

The energy that an atomic system must acquire before a process (such as an emission or reaction) can occur.

- Catalysts are said to reduce the energy of activation during the transition phase of a reaction.
- He looked up "activation energy" because he had never seen it before.

---

american dog violet (noun)

Violet of eastern North America having pale violet to white flowers.

- The article explained what "american dog violet" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american dog violet" to mean violet of eastern north america having pale violet....

---

atmospheric pressure (noun)

The pressure exerted by the atmosphere.

- He looked up "atmospheric pressure" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "atmospheric pressure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

basket ash (noun)

Vigorous spreading North American tree having dark brown heavy wood; leaves turn gold in autumn.

- He looked up "basket ash" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "basket ash" to mean vigorous spreading north american tree having dark....

---

bastard wing (noun)

Tuft of small stiff feathers on the first digit of a bird's wing.

- In class, the teacher used "bastard wing" to mean tuft of small stiff feathers on the first digit of....
- The article explained what "bastard wing" means with a simple example.

---

blue sage (noun)

Texas sage having intensely blue flowers.

- Understanding "blue sage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "blue sage" during the group presentation.

---

butterfly flower (noun)

Shrub or small tree of Dutch Guiana having clusters of pink flowers streaked with purple.

- In class, the teacher used "butterfly flower" to mean shrub or small tree of dutch guiana having clusters....
- Understanding "butterfly flower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

california yellow bells (noun)

Viscid herb of arid or desert habitats of southwestern United States having pendulous yellow flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "california yellow bells" to mean viscid herb of arid or desert habitats of....
- Understanding "california yellow bells" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

canada goose (noun)

Common greyish-brown wild goose of North America with a loud, trumpeting call.

- The article explained what "canada goose" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "canada goose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

canada violet (noun)

Tall North American perennial with heart-shaped leaves and white flowers with purple streaks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canada violet."
- Understanding "canada violet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chester (noun)

A city of southeastern Pennsylvania on the Delaware river (an industrial suburb of Philadelphia).

- In class, the teacher used "chester" to mean a city of southeastern pennsylvania on the delaware....

- Understanding “chester” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chinese goose (noun)

Very large wild goose of northeast Asia; interbreeds freely with the greylag.

- In class, the teacher used “chinese goose” to mean very large wild goose of northeast asia;....
- They discussed “chinese goose” during the group presentation.

---

common ivy (noun)

Old World vine with lobed evergreen leaves and black berrylike fruits.

- They discussed “common ivy” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “common ivy” means with a simple example.

---

common sage (noun)

Shrubby plant with aromatic greyish-green leaves used as a cooking herb.

- They discussed “common sage” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “common sage” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coral-wood (noun)

East Indian tree with racemes of yellow-white flowers; cultivated as an ornamental.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coral-wood.”
- He looked up “coral-wood” because he had never seen it before.

---

dairy cow (noun)

Cattle that are reared for their milk.

- He looked up “dairy cow” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dairy cow.”

---

driver ant (noun)

Tropical nomadic ant that preys mainly on other insects.

- They discussed “driver ant” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “driver ant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

egyptian paper reed (noun)

Tall sedge of the Nile valley yielding fiber that served many purposes in historic times.

- The article explained what “egyptian paper reed” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “egyptian paper reed” to mean tall sedge of the nile valley yielding fiber that....

---

energy of activation (noun)

The energy that an atomic system must acquire before a process (such as an emission or reaction) can occur.

- Catalysts are said to reduce the energy of activation during the transition phase of a reaction.
- The article explained what “energy of activation” means with a simple example.

---

english ivy (noun)

Old World vine with lobed evergreen leaves and black berrylike fruits.

- In class, the teacher used “english ivy” to mean old world vine with lobed evergreen leaves and....
- He looked up “english ivy” because he had never seen it before.

---

false lily of the valley (noun)

Small white-flowered plant of western Europe to Japan.

- In class, the teacher used “false lily of the valley” to mean small white-flowered plant of western europe to japan.
- Understanding “false lily of the valley” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fictional animal (noun)

Animals that exist only in fiction (usually in children’s stories).

- The article explained what “fictional animal” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “fictional animal” to mean animals that exist only in fiction (usually in....

---

gateway to the west (noun)

The largest city in Missouri; a busy river port on the Mississippi River near its confluence with the Missouri River; was an important staging area for wagon trains westward in the 19th century.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gateway to the west."
- They discussed "gateway to the west" during the group presentation.

---

glory lily (noun)

Any plant of the genus Gloriosa of tropical Africa and Asia; a perennial herb climbing by means of tendrils at leaf tips having showy yellow to red or purple flowers; all parts are poisonous.

- They discussed "glory lily" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "glory lily" because he had never seen it before.

---

golden heather (noun)

North American decumbent evergreen heathlike plant with yellow flowers.

- He looked up "golden heather" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "golden heather" to mean north american decumbent evergreen heathlike plant....

---

ground ivy (noun)

Trailing European aromatic plant of the mint family having rounded leaves and small purplish flowers often grown in hanging baskets; naturalized in North America; sometimes placed in genus Nepeta.

- They discussed "ground ivy" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ground ivy" because he had never seen it before.

---

ivory plant (noun)

A stemless palm tree of Brazil and Peru bearing ivory nuts.

- He looked up "ivory plant" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ivory plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ivory tree (noun)

Tropical Asian tree with hard white wood and bark formerly used as a remedy for dysentery and diarrhea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ivory tree."
- He looked up "ivory tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

japanese lime (noun)

Medium-sized tree of Japan used as an ornamental.

- He looked up "japanese lime" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "japanese lime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

japanese maple (noun)

Leaves deeply incised and bright red in autumn; Japan.

- In class, the teacher used "japanese maple" to mean leaves deeply incised and bright red in autumn; japan.
- They discussed "japanese maple" during the group presentation.

---

john luther jones (noun)

United States railroad engineer who died trying to stop his train from crashing into another train; a friend wrote a famous ballad describing the incident (1864-1900).

- In class, the teacher used "john luther jones" to mean united states railroad engineer who died trying to....
- They discussed "john luther jones" during the group presentation.

---

marsh tea (noun)

Bog shrub of northern and central Europe and eastern Siberia to Korea and Japan.

- The article explained what "marsh tea" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "marsh tea" during the group presentation.

---

mason bee (noun)

Any of numerous solitary bees that build nests of hardened mud and sand.

- He looked up "mason bee" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mason bee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

myanmar (noun)

A mountainous republic in southeastern Asia on the Bay of Bengal.

- Much opium is grown in Myanmar.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "myanmar."

---

necklace tree (noun)

A tree of the genus Ormosia having seeds used as beads.

- Understanding "necklace tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "necklace tree."

---

norfolk island (noun)

An island territory of Australia in the Pacific Ocean off the eastern coast of Australia; formerly a British penal colony.

- Understanding "norfolk island" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "norfolk island" to mean an island territory of australia in the pacific....

---

pacific cod (noun)

Closely related to Atlantic cod.

- They discussed "pacific cod" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pacific cod" because he had never seen it before.

---

pill bug (noun)

Small terrestrial isopod with a convex segmented body that can roll up into a ball.

- The article explained what "pill bug" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pill bug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

planting (noun)

A collection of plants (trees or shrubs or flowers) in a particular area.

- The landscape architect suggested a small planting in the northwest corner.
- He ordered the planting of policemen outside every doorway.

---

pony (noun)

An informal term for a racehorse.

- He looked up "pony" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pony" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roof rack (noun)

Carrier for holding luggage above the seats of a train or on top of a car.

- They discussed "roof rack" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "roof rack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sailing vessel (noun)

A vessel that is powered by the wind; often having several masts.

- They discussed "sailing vessel" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sailing vessel" to mean a vessel that is powered by the wind; often having....

---

salt cod (noun)

Codfish preserved in salt; must be desalted and flaked by soaking in water and pounding; used in e.g. codfish cakes.

- He looked up "salt cod" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salt cod."

---

sands (noun)

The region of the shore of a lake or sea or ocean.

- The article explained what "sands" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sands."

---

sea mat (noun)

Sessile aquatic animal forming mossy colonies of small polyps each having a curved or circular ridge bearing tentacles; attach to stones or seaweed and reproduce by budding.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea mat."
- The article explained what "sea mat" means with a simple example.

silver lime (noun)

Large tree native to eastern Europe and Asia Minor having leaves with white tomentum on the under side; widely cultivated as an ornamental.

- In class, the teacher used "silver lime" to mean large tree native to eastern europe and asia minor....
- The article explained what "silver lime" means with a simple example.

silver maple (noun)

A common North American maple tree; five-lobed leaves are light green above and silvery white beneath; source of hard close-grained but brittle light-brown wood.

- Understanding "silver maple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "silver maple" to mean a common north american maple tree; five-lobed....

sky marshal (noun)

A person trained by the government in hijacking and terrorist tactics who (for security reasons) is a passenger aboard an airline flight.

- The article explained what "sky marshal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sky marshal" to mean a person trained by the government in hijacking and....

sword lily (noun)

Plants with sword-shaped leaves and erect stalks bearing bright-colored flowers composed of three petals and three drooping sepals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sword lily."
- He looked up "sword lily" because he had never seen it before.

tomato plant (noun)

Native to South America; widely cultivated in many varieties.

- They discussed "tomato plant" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tomato plant" means with a simple example.

tree diagram (noun)

A figure that branches from a single root.

- Genealogical tree.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tree diagram."

tree tomato (noun)

South American arborescent shrub having pale pink blossoms followed by egg-shaped reddish-brown edible fruit somewhat resembling a tomato in flavor.

- Understanding "tree tomato" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tree tomato" because he had never seen it before.

whip snake (noun)

Any of several small fast-moving snakes with long whiplike tails.

- In class, the teacher used "whip snake" to mean any of several small fast-moving snakes with long....
- He looked up "whip snake" because he had never seen it before.

whip-snake (noun)

Any of several small fast-moving snakes with long whiplike tails.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whip-snake."
- He looked up "whip-snake" because he had never seen it before.

window envelope (noun)

An envelope with a transparent panel that reveals the address on the enclosure.

- He looked up "window envelope" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "window envelope."

wood ant (noun)

Reddish-brown European ant typically living in anthills in woodlands.

- He looked up "wood ant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wood ant" during the group presentation.

acoustic spectrum (noun)

The distribution of energy as a function of frequency for a particular sound source.

- He looked up "acoustic spectrum" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "acoustic spectrum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

african violet (noun)

Tropical African plant cultivated as a houseplant for its violet or white or pink flowers.

- They discussed "african violet" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "african violet" means with a simple example.

---

ant bear (noun)

Large shaggy-haired toothless anteater with long tongue and powerful claws; of South America.

- The article explained what "ant bear" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ant bear" during the group presentation.

---

atmospheric condition (noun)

The atmospheric conditions that comprise the state of the atmosphere in terms of temperature and wind and clouds and precipitation.

- Every day we have weather conditions and yesterday was no exception.
- The conditions were too rainy for playing in the snow.

---

atomic spectrum (noun)

(physics) a spectrum of radiation caused by electron transitions within an atom; the series of spectrum lines is characteristic of the element.

- He looked up "atomic spectrum" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "atomic spectrum" to mean (physics) a spectrum of radiation caused by....

---

barn spider (noun)

An orange and tan spider with darkly banded legs that spins an orb web daily.

- The barn spider was made famous in E. B. White's book 'Charlotte's Web'.
- In class, the teacher used "barn spider" to mean an orange and tan spider with darkly banded legs....

---

blue-eyed grass (noun)

Plant with grasslike foliage and delicate blue flowers.

- He looked up "blue-eyed grass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue-eyed grass."

---

broncos (noun)

An unbroken or imperfectly broken mustang.

- Understanding "broncos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "broncos" means with a simple example.

---

butter-bean plant (noun)

Bush bean plant cultivated especially in southern United States having small flat edible seeds.

- Understanding "butter-bean plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "butter-bean plant" means with a simple example.

---

california sage (noun)

Low ashy-grey California shrub.

- Understanding "california sage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "california sage."

---

common coral tree (noun)

Small South American spiny tree with dark crimson and scarlet flowers solitary or clustered.

- In class, the teacher used "common coral tree" to mean small south american spiny tree with dark crimson....
- The article explained what "common coral tree" means with a simple example.

---

constraints (noun)

A device that retards something's motion.

- Understanding "constraints" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "constraints" means with a simple example.

diving duck (noun)

Any of various ducks of especially bays and estuaries that dive for their food.

- He looked up "diving duck" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "diving duck" during the group presentation.

eugene (noun)

A city in western Oregon on the Willamette River; site of a university.

- The article explained what "eugene" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "eugene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

false heather (noun)

North American decumbent evergreen heathlike plant with yellow flowers.

- Understanding "false heather" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "false heather" during the group presentation.

garlic butter (noun)

Butter seasoned with mashed garlic.

- In class, the teacher used "garlic butter" to mean butter seasoned with mashed garlic.
- Understanding "garlic butter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

german ivy (noun)

South African succulent evergreen twining climber with yellow flowers grown primarily as a houseplant for its foliage; sometimes placed in genus Senecio.

- Understanding "german ivy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "german ivy" to mean south african succulent evergreen twining climber....

guinea pepper (noun)

West African plant bearing pungent peppery seeds.

- The article explained what "guinea pepper" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guinea pepper."

inland sea (noun)

An arm of the Pacific Ocean in southern Japan; surrounded by the islands of Honshu and Shikoku and Kyushu and linked to the Sea of Japan by a narrow channel; the chief port is Hiroshima.

- The article explained what "inland sea" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "inland sea" during the group presentation.

irish moss (noun)

Dark purple edible seaweed of the Atlantic coasts of Europe and North America.

- They discussed "irish moss" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "irish moss" means with a simple example.

kings canyon national park (noun)

A national park in California that has giant sequoia trees and alpine lakes and glaciers.

- In class, the teacher used "kings canyon national park" to mean a national park in california that has giant....
- They discussed "kings canyon national park" during the group presentation.

lake poets (noun)

English poets at the beginning of the 19th century who lived in the Lake District and were inspired by it.

- He looked up "lake poets" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lake poets."

laughing owl (noun)

Almost extinct owl of New Zealand.

- They discussed "laughing owl" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "laughing owl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lemon shark (noun)

Common shallow-water schooling shark of the Atlantic from North Carolina to Brazil and off west Africa; dangerous.

- He looked up "lemon shark" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lemon shark."

lyon (noun)

A city in east-central France on the Rhone River; a principal producer of silk and rayon.

- In class, the teacher used "lyon" to mean a city in east-central france on the rhone river; a....
- Understanding "lyon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

maple sugar (noun)

Sugar made from the sap of the sugar maple tree.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maple sugar."
- He looked up "maple sugar" because he had never seen it before.

mexican mint (noun)

An herb from Oaxaca that has a powerful hallucinogenic effect; the active ingredient is salvinorin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mexican mint."
- He looked up "mexican mint" because he had never seen it before.

microwave (noun)

A short electromagnetic wave (longer than infrared but shorter than radio waves); used for radar and microwave ovens and for transmitting telephone, facsimile, video and data.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "microwave."
- He looked up "microwave" because he had never seen it before.

morocco (noun)

A soft pebble-grained leather made from goatskin; used for shoes and book bindings etc.

- He looked up "morocco" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "morocco" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

moss pink (noun)

Low wiry-stemmed branching herb or southern California having fringed pink flowers.

- He looked up "moss pink" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "moss pink" during the group presentation.

mountain maple (noun)

Small shrubby maple of eastern North America; scarlet in autumn.

- In class, the teacher used "mountain maple" to mean small shrubby maple of eastern north america;....
- The article explained what "mountain maple" means with a simple example.

new zealand wine berry (noun)

Graceful deciduous shrub or small tree having attractive foliage and small red berries that turn black at maturity and are used for making wine.

- Understanding "new zealand wine berry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "new zealand wine berry" because he had never seen it before.

optical phenomenon (noun)

A physical phenomenon related to or involving light.

- They discussed "optical phenomenon" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "optical phenomenon."

ounce (noun)

A unit of apothecary weight equal to 480 grains or one twelfth of a pound.

- He looked up "ounce" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ounce."

pork pie (noun)

Small pie filled with minced seasoned pork.

- Understanding “pork pie” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “pork pie” because he had never seen it before.

---

potter bee (noun)

Solitary bee that builds nests of mud or pebbles cemented together and attached to a plant.

- In class, the teacher used “potter bee” to mean solitary bee that builds nests of mud or pebbles....
- He looked up “potter bee” because he had never seen it before.

---

psychologist (noun)

A scientist trained in psychology.

- In class, the teacher used “psychologist” to mean a scientist trained in psychology.
- Understanding “psychologist” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

raw recruit (noun)

An inexperienced and untrained recruit.

- In class, the teacher used “raw recruit” to mean an inexperienced and untrained recruit.
- They discussed “raw recruit” during the group presentation.

---

republic of yemen (noun)

A republic on the southwestern shores of the Arabian Peninsula on the Indian Ocean; formed in 1990.

- They discussed “republic of yemen” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “republic of yemen” to mean a republic on the southwestern shores of the....

---

rosa (noun)

Large genus of erect or climbing prickly shrubs including roses.

- They discussed “rosa” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “rosa” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shell bean plant (noun)

A bean plant grown primarily for its edible seed rather than its pod.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “shell bean plant.”
- They discussed “shell bean plant” during the group presentation.

---

shell ginger (noun)

Cultivated for its shining oblong leaves and arching clusters of white flowers with pink shading and crinkled yellow lips with variegated magenta stripes.

- He looked up “shell ginger” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “shell ginger” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sour salt (noun)

Crystals of citric acid used as seasoning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sour salt.”
- He looked up “sour salt” because he had never seen it before.

---

spotted eagle ray (noun)

Ray with back covered with white or yellow spots; widely distributed in warm seas.

- The article explained what “spotted eagle ray” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spotted eagle ray.”

---

sugar maple (noun)

Maple of eastern and central North America having three-lobed to five-lobed leaves and hard close-grained wood much used for cabinet work especially the curly-grained form; sap is chief source of maple syrup and maple sugar; many subspecies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sugar maple.”
- He looked up “sugar maple” because he had never seen it before.

---

swamp plant (noun)

A semiaquatic plant that grows in soft wet land; most are monocots: sedge, sphagnum, grasses, cattails, etc; possibly heath.

- They discussed “swamp plant” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “swamp plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sweet violet (noun)

European violet typically having purple to white flowers; widely naturalized.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweet violet."
- He looked up "sweet violet" because he had never seen it before.

sweet white violet (noun)

Short-stemmed violet of eastern North America having fragrant purple-veined white flowers.

- Understanding "sweet white violet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sweet white violet" to mean short-stemmed violet of eastern north america....

swiss mountain pine (noun)

Low shrubby pine of central Europe with short bright green needles in bunches of two.

- He looked up "swiss mountain pine" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "swiss mountain pine" during the group presentation.

swiss stone pine (noun)

Large five-needled European pine; yields cembra nuts and a resinous exudate.

- In class, the teacher used "swiss stone pine" to mean large five-needled european pine; yields cembra....
- The article explained what "swiss stone pine" means with a simple example.

touch typing (noun)

Typewriting in which the fingers are trained to hit particular keys; typist can read and type at the same time.

- He looked up "touch typing" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "touch typing" during the group presentation.

trent (noun)

A city in northern Italy (northwest of Venice) on the River Adige; the site of the Council of Trent.

- They discussed "trent" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "trent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ussr (noun)

A former communist country in eastern Europe and northern Asia; established in 1922; included Russia and 14 other soviet socialist republics (Ukraine and Byelorussia and others); officially dissolved 31 December 1991.

- They discussed "ussr" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ussr" because he had never seen it before.

weather-stripped (adjective)

Having cracks blocked with weather stripping.

- Students compared "weather-stripped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "weather-stripped" when it is having cracks blocked with weather stripping.

western poison oak (noun)

Poisonous shrub of the Pacific coast of North America that causes a rash on contact.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western poison oak."
- They discussed "western poison oak" during the group presentation.

american crow (noun)

Common crow of North America.

- They discussed "american crow" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "american crow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ant bird (noun)

Any of various dull-colored South American birds that feeding on ants some following army ant swarms.

- He looked up "ant bird" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ant bird" to mean any of various dull-colored south american birds....

balloon flower (noun)

Fragrant puffed-up white to reddish-pink flowers in long narrow clusters on erect stems; Arizona to New Mexico and Utah.

- Understanding "balloon flower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "balloon flower" to mean fragrant puffed-up white to reddish-pink flowers in....

banana passion fruit (noun)

Cultivated for fruit.

- In class, the teacher used "banana passion fruit" to mean cultivated for fruit.
- He looked up "banana passion fruit" because he had never seen it before.

bell heather (noun)

Dwarf European shrub with rose-colored flowers.

- Understanding "bell heather" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bell heather" because he had never seen it before.

bitter dock (noun)

European dock with broad obtuse leaves and bitter rootstock common as a weed in North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bitter dock."
- They discussed "bitter dock" during the group presentation.

buffalo nut (noun)

Shrub of southeastern United States parasitic on roots of hemlocks having sparse spikes of greenish flowers and pulpy drupes.

- In class, the teacher used "buffalo nut" to mean shrub of southeastern united states parasitic on....
- Understanding "buffalo nut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cardinal flower (noun)

North American lobelia having brilliant red flowers.

- They discussed "cardinal flower" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cardinal flower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

clay-colored robin (noun)

Robin of Mexico and Central America.

- Understanding "clay-colored robin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "clay-colored robin" because he had never seen it before.

devil lily (noun)

East Asian perennial having large reddish-orange black-spotted flowers with reflexed petals.

- He looked up "devil lily" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "devil lily" during the group presentation.

feathers (noun)

The light horny waterproof structure forming the external covering of birds.

- He looked up "feathers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "feathers."

four-lined plant bug (noun)

Yellow or orange leaf bug with four black stripes down the back; widespread in central and eastern North America.

- In class, the teacher used "four-lined plant bug" to mean yellow or orange leaf bug with four black stripes....
- They discussed "four-lined plant bug" during the group presentation.

full moon maple (noun)

Leaves deeply incised and bright red in autumn; Japan.

- The article explained what "full moon maple" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "full moon maple."

garden violet (noun)

European violet typically having purple to white flowers; widely naturalized.

- Understanding "garden violet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “garden violet.”

hard tick (noun)

Ticks having a hard shield on the back and mouth parts that project from the head.

- He looked up “hard tick” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “hard tick” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

heather bell (noun)

Common low European shrub with purple-red flowers.

- Understanding “heather bell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “heather bell” because he had never seen it before.

japanese ivy (noun)

Asiatic vine with three-lobed leaves and purple berries.

- The article explained what “japanese ivy” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “japanese ivy” during the group presentation.

japanese lawn grass (noun)

Lawn grass common in China and Japan; grown also in United States.

- The article explained what “japanese lawn grass” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “japanese lawn grass” to mean lawn grass common in china and japan; grown also in....

jumping bean (noun)

Seed of Mexican shrubs of the genus Sebastiana containing the larva of a moth whose movements cause the bean to jerk or tumble.

- In class, the teacher used “jumping bean” to mean seed of mexican shrubs of the genus sebastiana....
- Understanding “jumping bean” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

leaf roller (noun)

Moth whose larvae form nests by rolling and tying leaves with spun silk.

- He looked up “leaf roller” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “leaf roller” during the group presentation.

leaf-roller (noun)

Moth whose larvae form nests by rolling and tying leaves with spun silk.

- They discussed “leaf-roller” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “leaf-roller.”

needle palm (noun)

Yucca with long stiff leaves having filamentlike appendages.

- They discussed “needle palm” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “needle palm.”

noah and the flood (noun)

(Biblical) the great deluge that is said in the Book of Genesis to have occurred in the time of Noah; it was brought by God upon the earth because of the wickedness of human beings.

- He looked up “noah and the flood” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “noah and the flood.”

oregon lily (noun)

Lily of western North America with showy orange-red purple-spotted flowers.

- Understanding “oregon lily” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “oregon lily” because he had never seen it before.

pole bean (noun)

A climbing bean plant that will climb a wall or tree or trellis.

- In class, the teacher used “pole bean” to mean a climbing bean plant that will climb a wall or....
- Understanding “pole bean” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

primitive art (noun)

A genre of art and outdoor constructions made by untrained artists who do not recognize themselves as artists.

- In class, the teacher used "primitive art" to mean a genre of art and outdoor constructions made by....
- The article explained what "primitive art" means with a simple example.

---

projection (noun)

The acoustic phenomenon that gives sound a penetrating quality.

- Our ukuleles have been designed to have superior sound and projection.
- A prime ingredient of public speaking is projection of the voice.

---

rack railway (noun)

Railway for steep mountains; a cogwheel on the locomotive engages cogs on a center rail to provide traction.

- He looked up "rack railway" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rack railway."

---

raven (noun)

Large black bird with a straight bill and long wedge-shaped tail.

- In class, the teacher used "raven" to mean large black bird with a straight bill and long....
- Understanding "raven" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rose-colored pastor (noun)

Glossy black bird with pink back and abdomen; chiefly Asian.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rose-colored pastor."
- The article explained what "rose-colored pastor" means with a simple example.

---

scottish maple (noun)

Eurasian maple tree with pale grey bark that peels in flakes like that of a sycamore tree; leaves with five ovate lobes yellow in autumn.

- In class, the teacher used "scottish maple" to mean eurasian maple tree with pale grey bark that peels....
- Understanding "scottish maple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

screw bean (noun)

Spirally twisted sweet pod of screwbean mesquite that is used for fodder or ground into meal for feed.

- Understanding "screw bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "screw bean."

---

silver sage (noun)

Low much-branched perennial of western United States having silvery leaves; an important browse and shelter plant.

- They discussed "silver sage" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silver sage."

---

springfield (noun)

A city and manufacturing center in southwestern Massachusetts on the Connecticut River.

- They discussed "springfield" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "springfield" means with a simple example.

---

swamp bay (noun)

Shrub or small tree having rather small fragrant white flowers; abundant in southeastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "swamp bay" to mean shrub or small tree having rather small fragrant....
- Understanding "swamp bay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tiger lily (noun)

East Asian perennial having large reddish-orange black-spotted flowers with reflexed petals.

- They discussed "tiger lily" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tiger lily" to mean east asian perennial having large reddish-orange....

---

wild pumpkin (noun)

Perennial vine of dry parts of central and southwestern United States and Mexico having small hard mottled green inedible fruit.

- In class, the teacher used “wild pumpkin” to mean perennial vine of dry parts of central and....
- The article explained what “wild pumpkin” means with a simple example.

---

wild sage (noun)

Eurasian sage with blue flowers and foliage like verbena; naturalized in United States.

- He looked up “wild sage” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wild sage.”

---

wild vanilla (noun)

Perennial of southeastern United States with leaves having the fragrance of vanilla.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wild vanilla.”
- The article explained what “wild vanilla” means with a simple example.

---

wind cone (noun)

A truncated cloth cone mounted on a mast; used (e.g., at airports) to show the direction of the wind.

- They discussed “wind cone” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “wind cone” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wood violet (noun)

Common European violet that grows in woods and hedgerows.

- He looked up “wood violet” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “wood violet” to mean common european violet that grows in woods and....

---

amazon ant (noun)

Small reddish slave-making ant species.

- They discussed “amazon ant” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “amazon ant” because he had never seen it before.

---

australian sword lily (noun)

Sedgelike spring-flowering herb having clustered flowers covered with woolly hairs; Australia.

- They discussed “australian sword lily” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “australian sword lily” because he had never seen it before.

---

bleeding tooth (noun)

Gastropod having reddish toothlike projections around the shell opening; of the Caribbean area.

- In class, the teacher used “bleeding tooth” to mean gastropod having reddish toothlike projections....
- The article explained what “bleeding tooth” means with a simple example.

---

canadian goose (noun)

Common greyish-brown wild goose of North America with a loud, trumpeting call.

- Understanding “canadian goose” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “canadian goose” means with a simple example.

---

chapman (noun)

United States pioneer who planted apple trees as he traveled (1774-1845).

- Understanding “chapman” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “chapman” means with a simple example.

---

chile pine (noun)

Large Chilean evergreen conifer having intertwined branches and bearing edible nuts.

- They discussed “chile pine” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “chile pine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

creep feed (noun)

Feed given to young animals isolated in a creep.

- The article explained what “creep feed” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “creep feed” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

daisy (noun)

Any of numerous composite plants having flower heads with well-developed ray flowers usually arranged in a single whorl.

- He looked up "daisy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daisy."

delta rhythm (noun)

The normal brainwave in the encephalogram of a person in deep dreamless sleep; occurs with high voltage and low frequency (1 to 4 hertz).

- He looked up "delta rhythm" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "delta rhythm" to mean the normal brainwave in the encephalogram of a....

eastern poison oak (noun)

Poisonous shrub of southeastern United States causing a rash on contact.

- The article explained what "eastern poison oak" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eastern poison oak."

elvis (noun)

Street name for lysergic acid diethylamide.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elvis."
- The article explained what "elvis" means with a simple example.

false vampire bat (noun)

Any New or Old World carnivorous bat erroneously thought to suck blood but in fact feeding on insects.

- He looked up "false vampire bat" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "false vampire bat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fatty oil (noun)

Nonvolatile animal or plant oil.

- Understanding "fatty oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fatty oil" means with a simple example.

fish hawk (noun)

Large harmless hawk found worldwide that feeds on fish and builds a bulky nest often occupied for years.

- The article explained what "fish hawk" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fish hawk" during the group presentation.

floods (noun)

The rising of a body of water and its overflowing onto normally dry land.

- They discussed "floods" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "floods" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flour corn (noun)

Corn having kernels almost entirely of soft starch.

- He looked up "flour corn" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flour corn."

fountain grass (noun)

Tall perennial ornamental grass with long nodding flower plumes of tropical Africa and Asia.

- He looked up "fountain grass" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fountain grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

frost-weed (noun)

Tall perennial herb having clusters of white flowers; the eastern United States.

- He looked up "frost-weed" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "frost-weed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

globe lily (noun)

Any of several plants of the genus Calochortus having egg-shaped flowers.

- They discussed "globe lily" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "globe lily" means with a simple example.

---

indian coral tree (noun)

Small to medium-sized thorny tree of tropical Asia and northern Australia having dense clusters of scarlet or crimson flowers and black seeds.

- Understanding "indian coral tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "indian coral tree" during the group presentation.

---

indian pony (noun)

A small native range horse.

- The article explained what "indian pony" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "indian pony" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jew bush (noun)

Low tropical American shrub having powerful emetic properties.

- In class, the teacher used "jew bush" to mean low tropical american shrub having powerful emetic....
- He looked up "jew bush" because he had never seen it before.

---

jew-bush (noun)

Low tropical American shrub having powerful emetic properties.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jew-bush."
- He looked up "jew-bush" because he had never seen it before.

---

kits (noun)

Young of any of various fur-bearing animals.

- They discussed "kits" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "kits" to mean young of any of various fur-bearing animals.

---

leaf-cutting bee (noun)

Bee that cuts rounded pieces from leaves and flowers to line its nest.

- The article explained what "leaf-cutting bee" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "leaf-cutting bee" to mean bee that cuts rounded pieces from leaves and....

---

marsh pink (noun)

Any of several pink-flowered marsh plant of the eastern United States resembling a true centaury.

- The article explained what "marsh pink" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "marsh pink" during the group presentation.

---

mock orange (noun)

Small flowering evergreen tree of southern United States.

- Understanding "mock orange" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mock orange" because he had never seen it before.

---

molly miller (noun)

Inhabits both coasts of tropical Atlantic.

- He looked up "molly miller" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "molly miller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mountain sickness (noun)

Nausea and shortness of breath experienced by mountain climbers above ten thousand feet.

- He looked up "mountain sickness" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mountain sickness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

night raven (noun)

Any bird that cries at night.

- In class, the teacher used "night raven" to mean any bird that cries at night.

- Understanding “night raven” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

onions (noun)

The bulb of an onion plant.

- Understanding “onions” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “onions” during the group presentation.

painted turtle (noun)

Freshwater turtles having bright yellow and red markings; common in the eastern United States.

- They discussed “painted turtle” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “painted turtle” means with a simple example.

penguin (noun)

Short-legged flightless birds of cold southern especially Antarctic regions having webbed feet and wings modified as flippers.

- Understanding “penguin” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “penguin” means with a simple example.

persian cat (noun)

A long-haired breed of cat.

- In class, the teacher used “persian cat” to mean a long-haired breed of cat.
- They discussed “persian cat” during the group presentation.

pier glass (noun)

A large mirror between two windows.

- In class, the teacher used “pier glass” to mean a large mirror between two windows.
- He looked up “pier glass” because he had never seen it before.

river trent (noun)

A river in central England that flows generally northeastward to join with the Ouse River and form the Humber.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “river trent.”
- Understanding “river trent” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rocky mountains cherry (noun)

Dwarf ornamental shrub of western United States having large black to red and yellow sweet edible fruit.

- The article explained what “rocky mountains cherry” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “rocky mountains cherry” to mean dwarf ornamental shrub of western united states....

sausage dog (noun)

Informal term.

- They discussed “sausage dog” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “sausage dog” because he had never seen it before.

silver lace (noun)

Shrubby perennial of the Canary Islands having white flowers and leaves and hairy stems covered with dustlike down; sometimes placed in genus Chrysanthemum.

- In class, the teacher used “silver lace” to mean shrubby perennial of the canary islands having....
- They discussed “silver lace” during the group presentation.

silver-lace (noun)

Shrubby perennial of the Canary Islands having white flowers and leaves and hairy stems covered with dustlike down; sometimes placed in genus Chrysanthemum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “silver-lace.”
- Understanding “silver-lace” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

snow goose (noun)

Blue goose in the white color phase.

- Understanding “snow goose” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “snow goose” means with a simple example.

stem ginger (noun)

Tropical Asian plant widely cultivated for its pungent root; source of gingerroot and powdered ginger.

- They discussed "stem ginger" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stem ginger."

---

strain gauge (noun)

A gauge for measuring strain in a surface.

- He looked up "strain gauge" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strain gauge."

---

traction (noun)

The friction between a body and the surface on which it moves (as between an automobile tire and the road).

- His leg was in traction for several days.
- He looked up "traction" because he had never seen it before.

---

trent river (noun)

A river in central England that flows generally northeastward to join with the Ouse River and form the Humber.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trent river."
- Understanding "trent river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

whiskey (noun)

A liquor made from fermented mash of grain.

- He looked up "whiskey" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "whiskey" to mean a liquor made from fermented mash of grain.

---

white globe lily (noun)

Globe lily having open branched clusters of egg-shaped white flowers; southern California.

- In class, the teacher used "white globe lily" to mean globe lily having open branched clusters of....
- He looked up "white globe lily" because he had never seen it before.

---

wind tee (noun)

Weather vane shaped like a T and located at an airfield.

- He looked up "wind tee" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wind tee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wood sage (noun)

European germander with one-sided racemes of yellow flowers; naturalized in North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wood sage."
- They discussed "wood sage" during the group presentation.

---

woody plant (noun)

A plant having hard lignified tissues or woody parts especially stems.

- The article explained what "woody plant" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "woody plant."

---

wool grass (noun)

Sedge of eastern North America having numerous clustered woolly spikelets.

- They discussed "wool grass" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "wool grass" means with a simple example.

---

wyoming (noun)

A state in the western United States; mountainous in the west and north with the Great Plains in the east.

- He looked up "wyoming" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wyoming."

---

american dog tick (noun)

Common tick that can transmit Rocky Mountain spotted fever and tularemia.

- They discussed “american dog tick” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “american dog tick” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

atlantic cod (noun)

One of the world’s most important commercial fishes.

- Understanding “atlantic cod” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “atlantic cod” to mean one of the world’s most important commercial fishes.

---

black-eyed susan (noun)

The state flower of Maryland; of central and southeastern United States; having daisylike flowers with dark centers and yellow to orange rays.

- The article explained what “black-eyed susan” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “black-eyed susan” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blue cardinal flower (noun)

Tall erect and very leafy perennial herb of eastern North America having dense spikes of blue flowers.

- They discussed “blue cardinal flower” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “blue cardinal flower” to mean tall erect and very leafy perennial herb of eastern....

---

boston ivy (noun)

Asiatic vine with three-lobed leaves and purple berries.

- They discussed “boston ivy” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “boston ivy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brake shoe (noun)

A restraint provided when the brake linings are moved hydraulically against the brake drum to retard the wheel’s rotation.

- Understanding “brake shoe” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “brake shoe” to mean a restraint provided when the brake linings are....

---

break-axe (noun)

West Indian timber tree having very hard wood.

- He looked up “break-axe” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “break-axe.”

---

butterfly weed (noun)

Erect perennial of eastern and southern United States having showy orange flowers.

- In class, the teacher used “butterfly weed” to mean erect perennial of eastern and southern united....
- The article explained what “butterfly weed” means with a simple example.

---

chop (noun)

The irregular motion of waves (usually caused by wind blowing in a direction opposite to the tide).

- The boat headed into the chop.
- I’ll hit him on the chops.

---

continental divide (noun)

The watershed of a continent (especially the watershed of North America formed by a series of mountain ridges extending from Alaska to Mexico).

- Understanding “continental divide” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “continental divide” because he had never seen it before.

---

coral bush (noun)

Australian shrub having simple obovate leaves and brilliant scarlet flowers.

- They discussed “coral bush” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “coral bush” means with a simple example.

---

cream violet (noun)

Leafy-stemmed violet of eastern North America having large white or creamy flowers faintly marked with purple.

- They discussed “cream violet” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “cream violet” because he had never seen it before.

cricket frog (noun)

Either of two frogs with a clicking call.

- The article explained what "cricket frog" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cricket frog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

desert holly (noun)

Handsome low saltbush of arid southwestern United States and Mexico having blue-green prickly-edged leaves often used for Christmas decoration.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "desert holly."
- Understanding "desert holly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dinosaur (noun)

Any of numerous extinct terrestrial reptiles of the Mesozoic era.

- They discussed "dinosaur" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dinosaur."

drain basket (noun)

A filter in a sink drain; traps debris but passes water.

- He looked up "drain basket" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "drain basket" to mean a filter in a sink drain; traps debris but passes water.

fringe bush (noun)

Small bushy tree of southeastern United States having profuse clusters of white flowers.

- The article explained what "fringe bush" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fringe bush" to mean small bushy tree of southeastern united states....

fundamentally (adverb)

In essence; at bottom or by one's (or its) very nature.

- Place "fundamentally" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene "fundamentally" in the final chapter.

garden of eden (noun)

A beautiful garden where Adam and Eve were placed at the Creation; when they disobeyed and ate the forbidden fruit from the tree of knowledge of good and evil they were driven from their paradise (the fall of man).

- In class, the teacher used "garden of eden" to mean a beautiful garden where adam and eve were placed....
- The article explained what "garden of eden" means with a simple example.

grass frog (noun)

A common semiterrestrial European frog.

- He looked up "grass frog" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "grass frog" during the group presentation.

great grey owl (noun)

Large dish-faced owl of northern North America and western Eurasia.

- He looked up "great grey owl" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "great grey owl" to mean large dish-faced owl of northern north america and....

herb (noun)

A plant lacking a permanent woody stem; many are flowering garden plants or potherbs; some having medicinal properties; some are pests.

- The article explained what "herb" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "herb."

hurricane lamp (noun)

An oil lamp with a glass chimney and perforated metal lid to protect the flame from high winds; candlestick with a glass chimney.

- The article explained what "hurricane lamp" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hurricane lamp" to mean an oil lamp with a glass chimney and perforated....

james alfred van allen (noun)

United States physicist who discovered two belts of charged particles from the solar wind trapped by the Earth's magnetic field (born in 1914).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "james alfred van allen."
- He looked up "james alfred van allen" because he had never seen it before.

---

john chapman (noun)

United States pioneer who planted apple trees as he traveled (1774-1845).

- The article explained what "john chapman" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "john chapman" to mean united states pioneer who planted apple trees as he....

---

kissing bug (noun)

Large bloodsucking bug.

- In class, the teacher used "kissing bug" to mean large bloodsucking bug.
- Understanding "kissing bug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lick (noun)

A salt deposit that animals regularly lick.

- They discussed "lick" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lick."

---

mold (noun)

A distinctive nature, character, or type.

- A leader in the mold of her predecessors.
- A lobster mold.

---

mount cook lily (noun)

Showy white-flowered perennial of New Zealand.

- The article explained what "mount cook lily" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mount cook lily."

---

newport news (noun)

A port city in southeastern Virginia at the mouth of the James River off Hampton Roads; large shipyards.

- In class, the teacher used "newport news" to mean a port city in southeastern virginia at the mouth....
- Understanding "newport news" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nut pine (noun)

Any of several pinons bearing edible nutlike seeds.

- They discussed "nut pine" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "nut pine" to mean any of several pinons bearing edible nutlike seeds.

---

poison arrow plant (noun)

Medium-sized shrubby tree of South Africa having thick leathery evergreen leaves and white or pink flowers and globose usually two-seeded purplish black fruits.

- Understanding "poison arrow plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poison arrow plant."

---

purple rock brake (noun)

Very short shallowly creeping North American fern usually growing on cliffs or walls and having dark glossy leaf axes.

- Understanding "purple rock brake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purple rock brake."

---

ribbon tree (noun)

Deciduous New Zealand tree whose inner bark yields a strong fiber that resembles flax and is called New Zealand cotton.

- Understanding "ribbon tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ribbon tree" to mean deciduous new zealand tree whose inner bark yields....

---

sacramento mountains (noun)

Mountain range in New Mexico to the east of the Rio Grande.

- The article explained what "sacramento mountains" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sacramento mountains" to mean mountain range in new mexico to the east of the rio....

---

sanchez (noun)

Venezuelan master terrorist raised by a Marxist-Leninist father; trained and worked with many terrorist groups (born in 1949).

- He looked up "sanchez" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sanchez."

---

sea raven (noun)

Large sculpin of western Atlantic; inflates itself when caught.

- The article explained what "sea raven" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sea raven" during the group presentation.

---

silva (noun)

The forest trees growing in a country or region.

- The article explained what "silva" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "silva" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sound projection (noun)

The acoustic phenomenon that gives sound a penetrating quality.

- Our ukuleles have been designed to have superior sound and projection.
- A prime ingredient of public speaking is projection of the voice.

---

spanish lime tree (noun)

Tropical American tree bearing a small edible fruit with green leathery skin and sweet juicy translucent pulp.

- The article explained what "spanish lime tree" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spanish lime tree."

---

specimens (noun)

A bit of tissue or blood or urine that is taken for diagnostic purposes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "specimens."
- The article explained what "specimens" means with a simple example.

---

spider brake (noun)

Asiatic fern introduced in America.

- Understanding "spider brake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spider brake."

---

steering mechanism (noun)

A mechanism by which something is steered (especially a motor vehicle).

- He looked up "steering mechanism" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "steering mechanism" during the group presentation.

---

stereo (noun)

Two photographs taken from slightly different angles that appear three-dimensional when viewed together.

- He looked up "stereo" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stereo."

---

storm cone (noun)

A canvas cone hoisted to warn of high winds.

- He looked up "storm cone" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "storm cone."

---

stunt pilot (noun)

A pilot who travels around the country giving exhibits of stunt flying and parachuting.

- In class, the teacher used "stunt pilot" to mean a pilot who travels around the country giving....
- They discussed "stunt pilot" during the group presentation.

surrey (noun)

A county in southeastern England on the Thames.

- He looked up "surrey" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "surrey" to mean a county in southeastern england on the thames.

swan-neck (noun)

Any of several orchids of the genus Cycnoches having slender arching columns of flowers suggesting the neck of a swan.

- The article explained what "swan-neck" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "swan-neck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sweater girl (noun)

A girl with an attractive bust who wears tight sweaters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweater girl."
- He looked up "sweater girl" because he had never seen it before.

swinging door (noun)

A door that swings on a double hinge; opens in either direction.

- In class, the teacher used "swinging door" to mean a door that swings on a double hinge; opens in....
- They discussed "swinging door" during the group presentation.

swiss steak (noun)

Steak braised in tomato and onion mixture.

- The article explained what "swiss steak" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swiss steak."

symphony (noun)

A large orchestra; can perform symphonies.

- We heard the Vienna symphony.
- The article explained what "symphony" means with a simple example.

synthetic rubber (noun)

Any of various synthetic elastic materials whose properties resemble natural rubber.

- They discussed "synthetic rubber" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "synthetic rubber" because he had never seen it before.

synthetic substance (noun)

A compound made artificially by chemical reactions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "synthetic substance."
- The article explained what "synthetic substance" means with a simple example.

terminal velocity (noun)

The constant maximum velocity reached by a body falling through the atmosphere under the attraction of gravity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "terminal velocity."
- Understanding "terminal velocity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tesla (noun)

A unit of magnetic flux density equal to one weber per square meter.

- The article explained what "tesla" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tesla."

texas purple spike (noun)

Orchid with slender nearly leafless reddish-brown stems with loose racemes of reddish-brown flowers; of open brushy woods of southeastern Arizona and central Texas.

- They discussed "texas purple spike" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "texas purple spike" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

textbook (noun)

A book prepared for use in schools or colleges.

- His economics textbook is in its tenth edition.
- He looked up "textbook" because he had never seen it before.

---

theatre curtain (noun)

A hanging cloth that conceals the stage from the view of the audience; rises or parts at the beginning and descends or closes between acts and at the end of a performance.

- The article explained what "theatre curtain" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "theatre curtain" to mean a hanging cloth that conceals the stage from the....

---

theological (adjective)

Of or relating to or concerning theology.

- Theological seminar.
- A "theological" approach may work better in this case.

---

time interval (noun)

A definite length of time marked off by two instants.

- In class, the teacher used "time interval" to mean a definite length of time marked off by two instants.
- He looked up "time interval" because he had never seen it before.

---

toe toe (noun)

Tall grass of New Zealand grown for plumelike flower heads.

- He looked up "toe toe" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toe toe."

---

toe-to-toe (adverb)

In close combat or at close quarters.

- They fought toe-to-toe for the nomination.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "toe-to-toe" naturally.

---

toll house cookie (noun)

Cookies containing chocolate chips.

- The article explained what "toll house cookie" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "toll house cookie" to mean cookies containing chocolate chips.

---

top-notch (adjective)

Of the highest quality.

- Played top-notch tennis.
- It is useful to describe something as "top-notch" when it is of the highest quality.

---

tropical sore (noun)

Leishmaniasis of the skin; characterized by ulcerative skin lesions.

- The article explained what "tropical sore" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tropical sore" during the group presentation.

---

twentieth century (noun)

The century from 1901 to 2000.

- He looked up "twentieth century" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twentieth century."

---

twilight zone (noun)

The ambiguous region between two categories or states or conditions (usually containing some features of both).

- But there is still a twilight zone, the tantalizing occurrences that are probably noise but might possibly be a signal.
- In the twilight zone between humor and vulgarity.

---

umbrella-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of an umbrella.

- Would you call this situation "umbrella-shaped"? Explain why.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "umbrella-shaped."

---

undercover (adjective)

Conducted with or marked by hidden aims or methods.

- An undercover investigation.
- A "undercover" approach may work better in this case.

---

valentine (noun)

A sweetheart chosen to receive a greeting on Saint Valentine's Day.

- Will you be my valentine?
- In class, the teacher used "valentine" to mean a sweetheart chosen to receive a greeting on saint....

---

valentine day (noun)

A day for the exchange of tokens of affection.

- Understanding "valentine day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "valentine day."

---

vatican council (noun)

Each of two councils of the Roman Catholic Church.

- They discussed "vatican council" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "vatican council" to mean each of two councils of the roman catholic church.

---

vegetation (noun)

All the plant life in a particular region or period.

- Pleistocene vegetation.
- Their holiday was spent in sleep and vegetation.

---

vein (noun)

A blood vessel that carries blood from the capillaries toward the heart.

- All veins except the pulmonary vein carry unaerated blood.
- He continued in this vein for several minutes.

---

velvet (noun)

A silky densely piled fabric with a plain back.

- Understanding "velvet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "velvet" during the group presentation.

---

viewer (noun)

A close observer; someone who looks at something (such as an exhibition of some kind).

- Television viewers.
- He looked up "viewer" because he had never seen it before.

---

webb (noun)

English writer and a central member of the Fabian Society (1858-1943).

- Understanding "webb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "webb."

---

welcoming (adjective)

Very cordial.

- A welcoming smile.
- A "welcoming" approach may work better in this case.

---

well-favored (adjective)

Pleasing in appearance especially by reason of conformity to ideals of form and proportion; ; ; - Thackeray; - Lillian Hellman.

- Our southern women are well-favored.
- It is useful to describe something as "well-favored" when it is pleasing in appearance especially by reason of....

---

whales (noun)

A very large person; impressive in size or qualities.

- Understanding "whales" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "whales" because he had never seen it before.

---

wheeler (noun)

The man at the outermost end of the rank in wheeling.

- He looked up "wheeler" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wheeler."

---

white daisy (noun)

Tall leafy-stemmed Eurasian perennial with white flowers; widely naturalized; often placed in genus Chrysanthemum.

- They discussed "white daisy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "white daisy" means with a simple example.

---

word-splitting (noun)

Making too fine distinctions of little importance.

- The article explained what "word-splitting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "word-splitting" to mean making too fine distinctions of little importance.

---

zombies (noun)

Someone who acts or responds in a mechanical or apathetic way.

- They discussed "zombies" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "zombies" because he had never seen it before.

---

zoo keeper (noun)

The chief person responsible for a zoological garden.

- He looked up "zoo keeper" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "zoo keeper" to mean the chief person responsible for a zoological garden.

---

accountant (noun)

Someone who maintains and audits business accounts.

- He looked up "accountant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "accountant" to mean someone who maintains and audits business accounts.

---

ace of diamonds (noun)

The ace in the diamond suit.

- They discussed "ace of diamonds" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ace of diamonds" because he had never seen it before.

---

activate (verb)

Make active or more active.

- Activate an old file.
- Activate a metal.

---

acute accent (noun)

A mark (') placed above a vowel to indicate pronunciation.

- Understanding "acute accent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "acute accent" because he had never seen it before.

---

amended return (noun)

A tax return that corrects the information in an earlier return.

- In class, the teacher used "amended return" to mean a tax return that corrects the information in an....
- He looked up "amended return" because he had never seen it before.

---

american baptist convention (noun)

An association of Northern Baptists.

- He looked up “american baptist convention” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “american baptist convention” during the group presentation.

---

amusing (adjective)

Providing enjoyment; pleasantly entertaining.

- An amusing speaker.
- An amusing film with a steady stream of pranks and pratfalls.

---

animal glue (noun)

A protein gelatin obtained by boiling e.g. skins and hoofs of cattle and horses.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “animal glue.”
- The article explained what “animal glue” means with a simple example.

---

anonymous file transfer protocol (noun)

A common way to make software available; users are allowed to log in as ‘guest’ without a password and copy whatever has been made available.

- In class, the teacher used “anonymous file transfer protocol” to mean a common way to make software available; users are....
- The article explained what “anonymous file transfer protocol” means with a simple example.

---

arabs (noun)

A spirited graceful and intelligent riding horse native to Arabia.

- They discussed “arabs” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “arabs” because he had never seen it before.

---

bachelor of arts in nursing (noun)

A bachelor’s degree in nursing.

- In class, the teacher used “bachelor of arts in nursing” to mean a bachelor’s degree in nursing.
- The article explained what “bachelor of arts in nursing” means with a simple example.

---

bachelor of naval science (noun)

A bachelor’s degree in naval science.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bachelor of naval science.”
- Understanding “bachelor of naval science” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

battle-axe (noun)

A broadax used as a weapon.

- The article explained what “battle-axe” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “battle-axe” to mean a broadax used as a weapon.

---

beams (noun)

A gymnastic apparatus used by women gymnasts.

- He looked up “beams” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “beams.”

---

behold (verb)

See with attention.

- Behold Christ!
- The coach explained when to use “behold” and when to wait.

---

betrayed (verb)

Disappoint, prove undependable to; abandon, forsake.

- Her smile betrayed her true feelings.
- The spy betrayed his country.

---

biased (adjective)

Favoring one person or side over another.

- A biased account of the trial.
- Students compared “biased” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

billionaire (noun)

A very rich person whose material wealth is valued at more than a billion dollars.

- He looked up "billionaire" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "billionaire" to mean a very rich person whose material wealth is valued....

bloggers (noun)

A person who keeps and updates a blog.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bloggers."
- He looked up "bloggers" because he had never seen it before.

blue daisy (noun)

Hairy South African or Australian subshrub that has daisylike flowers with blue rays.

- He looked up "blue daisy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "blue daisy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blue ribbon commission (noun)

An independent and exclusive commission of nonpartisan statesmen and experts formed to investigate some important governmental issue.

- They discussed "blue ribbon commission" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "blue ribbon commission" to mean an independent and exclusive commission of....

blue ribbon committee (noun)

An independent and exclusive commission of nonpartisan statesmen and experts formed to investigate some important governmental issue.

- The article explained what "blue ribbon committee" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "blue ribbon committee" to mean an independent and exclusive commission of....

bodily property (noun)

An attribute of the body.

- He looked up "bodily property" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bodily property" during the group presentation.

brooke (noun)

English lyric poet (1887-1915).

- In class, the teacher used "brooke" to mean english lyric poet (1887-1915).
- He looked up "brooke" because he had never seen it before.

brown trout (noun)

Speckled trout of European rivers; introduced in North America.

- In class, the teacher used "brown trout" to mean speckled trout of european rivers; introduced in....
- They discussed "brown trout" during the group presentation.

buck sergeant (noun)

A sergeant of the lowest rank in the military.

- Understanding "buck sergeant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "buck sergeant" to mean a sergeant of the lowest rank in the military.

bypass (noun)

A surgically created shunt (usually around a damaged part).

- He looked up "bypass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bypass."

calculation (noun)

Planning something carefully and intentionally.

- The article explained what "calculation" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calculation."

cane (noun)

A stick that people can lean on to help them walk.

- They discussed "cane" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

canyon oak (noun)

Medium-sized evergreen of southwestern United States and northwestern Mexico with oblong leathery often spiny-edged leaves.

- They discussed "canyon oak" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "canyon oak" means with a simple example.

---

capital of iceland (noun)

The capital and chief port of Iceland on the southwestern coast of Iceland; buildings are heated by natural hot water.

- The article explained what "capital of iceland" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of iceland" to mean the capital and chief port of iceland on the....

---

capital of qatar (noun)

The capital and chief port of Qatar.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of qatar" to mean the capital and chief port of qatar.
- They discussed "capital of qatar" during the group presentation.

---

capital of romania (noun)

National capital and largest city of Romania in southeastern Romania.

- Understanding "capital of romania" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "capital of romania" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of uganda (noun)

The capital and largest city of Uganda on the north shore of Lake Victoria.

- The article explained what "capital of uganda" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "capital of uganda" during the group presentation.

---

capital of wyoming (noun)

The capital and largest city of Wyoming; located in the southeastern corner of the state.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of wyoming."
- They discussed "capital of wyoming" during the group presentation.

---

capitalist economy (noun)

An economic system based on private ownership of capital.

- He looked up "capitalist economy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "capitalist economy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capturing (verb)

Capture as if by hunting, snaring, or trapping.

- Can you use "capturing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "capturing" and when to wait.

---

cardiac arrest (noun)

Absence of systole; failure of the ventricles of the heart to contract (usually caused by ventricular fibrillation) with consequent absence of the heart beat leading to oxygen lack and eventually to death.

- Understanding "cardiac arrest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cardiac arrest" to mean absence of systole; failure of the ventricles of....

---

cautious statement (noun)

A statement made with careful qualifications.

- In class, the teacher used "cautious statement" to mean a statement made with careful qualifications.
- Understanding "cautious statement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cavalry horse (noun)

Horse trained for battle.

- They discussed "cavalry horse" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “cavalry horse” because he had never seen it before.

cedar (noun)

Any of numerous trees of the family Cupressaceae that resemble cedars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cedar.”
- Understanding “cedar” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

celebrates (verb)

Behave as expected during of holidays or rites.

- Learners should practice how to use “celebrates” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “celebrates” carefully so everyone would understand.

chemical reactor (noun)

An apparatus for holding substances that are undergoing a chemical reaction.

- He looked up “chemical reactor” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “chemical reactor” during the group presentation.

chronic kidney failure (noun)

Renal failure that can result from a variety of systemic disorders.

- He looked up “chronic kidney failure” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “chronic kidney failure” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chuck berry (noun)

United States rock singer (born in 1931).

- Understanding “chuck berry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chuck berry.”

college of cardinals (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) the body of cardinals who advise the Pope and elect new Popes.

- The article explained what “college of cardinals” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “college of cardinals” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

command processing overhead (noun)

(computer science) the processing time required by a device prior to the execution of a command.

- In class, the teacher used “command processing overhead” to mean (computer science) the processing time required by....
- Understanding “command processing overhead” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

command processing overhead time (noun)

(computer science) the processing time required by a device prior to the execution of a command.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “command processing overhead time.”
- He looked up “command processing overhead time” because he had never seen it before.

common daisy (noun)

Low-growing Eurasian plant with yellow central disc flowers and pinkish-white outer ray flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “common daisy.”
- They discussed “common daisy” during the group presentation.

compact disc write-once (noun)

A compact disc on which you can write only once and thereafter is read-only memory.

- The article explained what “compact disc write-once” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “compact disc write-once.”

complex instruction set computing (noun)

(computer science) a kind of computer architecture that has a large number of instructions hard coded into the CPU chip.

- He looked up “complex instruction set computing” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “complex instruction set computing.”

compound fraction (noun)

A fraction with fractions in the numerator or denominator.

- The article explained what "compound fraction" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "compound fraction" during the group presentation.

---

concentrations (noun)

The spatial property of being crowded together.

- Understanding "concentrations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "concentrations" because he had never seen it before.

---

concludes (verb)

Decide by reasoning; draw or come to a conclusion.

- Learners should practice how to use "concludes" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "concludes" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cons (noun)

A person serving a sentence in a jail or prison.

- The article explained what "cons" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cons" during the group presentation.

---

continuous tense (noun)

A tense of verbs used in describing action that is on-going.

- In class, the teacher used "continuous tense" to mean a tense of verbs used in describing action that is....
- The article explained what "continuous tense" means with a simple example.

---

corpse (noun)

The dead body of a human being.

- The end of the police search was the discovery of a corpse.
- He looked up "corpse" because he had never seen it before.

---

cow barn (noun)

A barn for cows.

- In class, the teacher used "cow barn" to mean a barn for cows.
- Understanding "cow barn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crawl space (noun)

Low space beneath a floor of a building; gives workers access to wiring or plumbing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crawl space."
- He looked up "crawl space" because he had never seen it before.

---

curtain raising (noun)

The first performance (as of a theatrical production).

- The article explained what "curtain raising" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "curtain raising" to mean the first performance (as of a theatrical production).

---

darwin (noun)

Provincial capital of the Northern Territory of Australia.

- The article explained what "darwin" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "darwin" during the group presentation.

---

dawson (noun)

A town in northwestern Canada in the Yukon on the Yukon River; a boom town around 1900 when gold was discovered in the Klondike.

- He looked up "dawson" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dawson" to mean a town in northwestern canada in the yukon on the....

---

decorations (noun)

An award for winning a championship or commemorating some other event.

- The article explained what "decorations" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "decorations" to mean an award for winning a championship or....

---

definite article (noun)

A determiner (as 'the' in English) that indicates specificity of reference.

- He looked up "definite article" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "definite article" to mean a determiner (as 'the' in english) that indicates....

---

definitive host (noun)

The host in which the sexual reproduction of a parasite takes place.

- They discussed "definitive host" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "definitive host" because he had never seen it before.

---

dementia (noun)

Mental deterioration of organic or functional origin.

- They discussed "dementia" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dementia."

---

demonstrating (verb)

March in protest; take part in a demonstration.

- In everyday English, people use "demonstrating" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "demonstrating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

department of sociology (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in sociology.

- The article explained what "department of sociology" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of sociology."

---

dice (noun)

A small cube with 1 to 6 spots on the six faces; used in gambling to generate random numbers.

- The article explained what "dice" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dice" during the group presentation.

---

disasters (noun)

An event resulting in great loss and misfortune.

- In class, the teacher used "disasters" to mean an event resulting in great loss and misfortune.
- They discussed "disasters" during the group presentation.

---

discharge pipe (noun)

A pipe through which fluids can be discharged.

- Understanding "discharge pipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "discharge pipe" to mean a pipe through which fluids can be discharged.

---

discharged (adjective)

Having lost your job.

- It is useful to describe something as "discharged" when it is having lost your job.
- A "discharged" approach may work better in this case.

---

disk controller (noun)

(computer science) a circuit or chip that translates commands into a form that can control a hard disk drive.

- The article explained what "disk controller" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "disk controller" to mean (computer science) a circuit or chip that....

---

dispatch (noun)

The property of being prompt and efficient.

- It was done with dispatch.
- Understanding "dispatch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

disputed (adjective)

Subject to disagreement and debate.

- Would you call this situation "disputed"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "disputed."

dot matrix (noun)

A rectangular matrix of dots from which written characters can be formed.

- In class, the teacher used "dot matrix" to mean a rectangular matrix of dots from which written....
- Understanding "dot matrix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dots (noun)

A very small circular shape.

- Draw lines between the dots.
- He looked up "dots" because he had never seen it before.

drainage area (noun)

The entire geographical area drained by a river and its tributaries; an area characterized by all runoff being conveyed to the same outlet.

- Understanding "drainage area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "drainage area" means with a simple example.

drainage system (noun)

A system of watercourses or drains for carrying off excess water.

- In class, the teacher used "drainage system" to mean a system of watercourses or drains for carrying off....
- The article explained what "drainage system" means with a simple example.

drilling pipe (noun)

A series of tubes (joined by screwed collars) that connect a drilling platform to the drilling bit; rotates the bit and supplies drilling mud.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drilling pipe."
- He looked up "drilling pipe" because he had never seen it before.

ds (noun)

The bureau in the State Department that is responsible for the security of diplomats and embassies overseas.

- They discussed "ds" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ds" means with a simple example.

duchess (noun)

The wife of a duke or a woman holding ducal title in her own right.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "duchess."
- Understanding "duchess" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

economists (noun)

An expert in the science of economics.

- In class, the teacher used "economists" to mean an expert in the science of economics.
- He looked up "economists" because he had never seen it before.

eds (noun)

A rapid automatic system to detect plastic explosives in passengers' luggage using X-ray technology and computers; designed for use in airports.

- He looked up "eds" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "eds" during the group presentation.

elders (noun)

A person who is older than you are.

- The article explained what "elders" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "elders" to mean a person who is older than you are.

elementary particle (noun)

(physics) a particle that is less complex than an atom; regarded as constituents of all matter.

- In class, the teacher used "elementary particle" to mean (physics) a particle that is less complex than an....
- He looked up "elementary particle" because he had never seen it before.

---

emperor butterfly (noun)

Large richly colored butterfly.

- They discussed "emperor butterfly" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "emperor butterfly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

english daisy (noun)

Low-growing Eurasian plant with yellow central disc flowers and pinkish-white outer ray flowers.

- Understanding "english daisy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english daisy."

---

escape hatch (noun)

Hatchway that provides a means of escape in an emergency.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "escape hatch."
- The article explained what "escape hatch" means with a simple example.

---

exceeded (verb)

Be superior or better than some standard.

- She exceeded our expectations.
- Can you use "exceeded" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

explanations (noun)

The act of explaining; making something plain or intelligible.

- In class, the teacher used "explanations" to mean the act of explaining; making something plain or....
- He looked up "explanations" because he had never seen it before.

---

explosive compound (noun)

A compound that is explosive.

- Understanding "explosive compound" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "explosive compound" during the group presentation.

---

explosive mixture (noun)

A mixture that is explosive.

- They discussed "explosive mixture" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "explosive mixture" means with a simple example.

---

factions (noun)

A clique (often secret) that seeks power usually through intrigue.

- The article explained what "factions" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "factions" during the group presentation.

---

false vocal fold (noun)

Either of the upper two vocal cords that are not involved in vocalization.

- They discussed "false vocal fold" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "false vocal fold" because he had never seen it before.

---

fertility rate (noun)

The ratio of live births in an area to the population of that area; expressed per 1000 population per year.

- Understanding "fertility rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fertility rate" means with a simple example.

---

fishing rig (noun)

Gear used in fishing.

- In class, the teacher used "fishing rig" to mean gear used in fishing.

- They discussed "fishing rig" during the group presentation.

five spice powder (noun)

Chinese seasoning made by grinding star anise and fennel and pepper and cloves and cinnamon.

- They discussed "five spice powder" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "five spice powder."

foil (noun)

A piece of thin and flexible sheet metal.

- The photographic film was wrapped in foil.
- Pretty girls like plain friends as foils.

fond regard (noun)

A feeling of affection for a person or an institution.

- He looked up "fond regard" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fond regard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

formats (verb)

Set (printed matter) into a specific format.

- She tried to use "formats" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "formats" and when to wait.

four-wheeler (noun)

A hackney carriage with four wheels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "four-wheeler."
- The article explained what "four-wheeler" means with a simple example.

frank lloyd wright (noun)

Influential United States architect (1869-1959).

- The article explained what "frank lloyd wright" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "frank lloyd wright" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

free trader (noun)

An advocate of unrestricted international trade.

- In class, the teacher used "free trader" to mean an advocate of unrestricted international trade.
- He looked up "free trader" because he had never seen it before.

full complement (noun)

Number needed to make up a whole force.

- A full complement of workers.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "full complement."

functional anatomy (noun)

The study of anatomy in its relation to function.

- Understanding "functional anatomy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "functional anatomy" means with a simple example.

fundamental particle (noun)

(physics) a particle that is less complex than an atom; regarded as constituents of all matter.

- They discussed "fundamental particle" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "fundamental particle" because he had never seen it before.

gardner (noun)

Writer of detective novels featuring Perry Mason (1889-1970).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gardner."
- They discussed "gardner" during the group presentation.

gene delivery vector (noun)

A vector for delivering genes into cells.

- Understanding "gene delivery vector" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gene delivery vector."

---

geological era (noun)

A major division of geological time; an era is usually divided into two or more periods.

- He looked up "geological era" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geological era."

---

geological fault (noun)

(geology) a crack in the earth's crust resulting from the displacement of one side with respect to the other.

- They built it right over a geological fault.
- He studied the faulting of the earth's crust.

---

geology (noun)

A science that deals with the history of the earth as recorded in rocks.

- Understanding "geology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "geology" means with a simple example.

---

girl scouts (noun)

An organization of young women and girls founded in 1912 for character development and citizenship training.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "girl scouts."
- He looked up "girl scouts" because he had never seen it before.

---

graduated cylinder (noun)

A cylindrical graduate.

- They discussed "graduated cylinder" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "graduated cylinder" means with a simple example.

---

gram (noun)

A metric unit of weight equal to one thousandth of a kilogram.

- The article explained what "gram" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "gram" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

great gray owl (noun)

Large dish-faced owl of northern North America and western Eurasia.

- In class, the teacher used "great gray owl" to mean large dish-faced owl of northern north america and....
- They discussed "great gray owl" during the group presentation.

---

greene (noun)

English novelist and Catholic (1904-1991).

- In class, the teacher used "greene" to mean english novelist and catholic (1904-1991).
- Understanding "greene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

greenhouse effect (noun)

Warming that results when solar radiation is trapped by the atmosphere; caused by atmospheric gases that allow sunshine to pass through but absorb heat that is radiated back from the warmed surface of the earth.

- Understanding "greenhouse effect" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "greenhouse effect" to mean warming that results when solar radiation is....

---

greenhouse gas (noun)

A gas that contributes to the greenhouse effect by absorbing infrared radiation.

- Understanding "greenhouse gas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "greenhouse gas" because he had never seen it before.

---

grey-leaf pine (noun)

Medium-sized five-needled pine of southwestern California having long cylindrical cones.

- Understanding "grey-leaf pine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "grey-leaf pine" during the group presentation.

---

half-hearted (adjective)

Feeling or showing little interest or enthusiasm.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "half-hearted."
- A "half-hearted" approach may work better in this case.

---

heath (noun)

A tract of level wasteland; uncultivated land with sandy soil and scrubby vegetation.

- In class, the teacher used "heath" to mean a tract of level wasteland; uncultivated land with....
- He looked up "heath" because he had never seen it before.

---

heavenly (adjective)

Of or relating to the sky.

- A heavenly body.
- Heavenly hosts.

---

hebrew calendar (noun)

(Judaism) the calendar used by the Jews; dates from 3761 BC (the assumed date of the Creation of the world); a lunar year of 354 days is adjusted to the solar year by periodic leap years.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hebrew calendar."
- He looked up "hebrew calendar" because he had never seen it before.

---

heel counter (noun)

A piece of leather forming the back of a shoe or boot.

- A counter may be used to stiffen the material around the heel and to give support to the foot.
- Understanding "heel counter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

honorable mention (noun)

An official recognition of merit.

- Although he didn't win the prize he did get special mention.
- Understanding "honorable mention" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hormones (noun)

The secretion of an endocrine gland that is transmitted by the blood to the tissue on which it has a specific effect.

- They discussed "hormones" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hormones" means with a simple example.

---

horrific (adjective)

Grossly offensive to decency or morality; causing horror.

- Horrific conditions in the mining industry.
- Would you call this situation "horrific"? Explain why.

---

horse cavalry (noun)

An army unit mounted on horseback.

- 500 horse led the attack.
- They discussed "horse cavalry" during the group presentation.

---

horse tick (noun)

Winged fly parasitic on horses.

- Understanding "horse tick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "horse tick" because he had never seen it before.

---

hugo (noun)

French poet and novelist and dramatist; leader of the romantic movement in France (1802-1885).

- The article explained what "hugo" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hugo" during the group presentation.

hungarian capital (noun)

Capital and largest city of Hungary; located on the Danube River in north-central Hungary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hungarian capital."
- He looked up "hungarian capital" because he had never seen it before.

hydrogen ion (noun)

A positively charged atom of hydrogen; that is to say, a normal hydrogen atomic nucleus.

- He looked up "hydrogen ion" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hydrogen ion" to mean a positively charged atom of hydrogen; that is to....

ice axe (noun)

An ax used by mountain climbers for cutting footholds in ice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice axe."
- He looked up "ice axe" because he had never seen it before.

ill temper (noun)

A persisting angry mood.

- He looked up "ill temper" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ill temper" during the group presentation.

infants (noun)

A very young child (birth to 1 year) who has not yet begun to walk or talk.

- They discussed "infants" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "infants" means with a simple example.

inferior planet (noun)

Any of the planets whose orbit lies inside the earth's orbit.

- Understanding "inferior planet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "inferior planet" means with a simple example.

inherited disorder (noun)

A disease or disorder that is inherited genetically.

- In class, the teacher used "inherited disorder" to mean a disease or disorder that is inherited genetically.
- They discussed "inherited disorder" during the group presentation.

insect (noun)

A person who has a nasty or unethical character undeserving of respect.

- He looked up "insect" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "insect" during the group presentation.

insider information (noun)

Important information about the plans or condition of a corporation that has not been released to the public; use for personal profit is illegal.

- He looked up "insider information" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "insider information" to mean important information about the plans or condition....

insulin reaction (noun)

Hypoglycemia produced by excessive insulin in the system causing coma.

- They discussed "insulin reaction" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "insulin reaction" means with a simple example.

iris (noun)

Diaphragm consisting of thin overlapping plates that can be adjusted to change the diameter of a central opening.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iris."
- They discussed "iris" during the group presentation.

isle royal national park (noun)

A national park on an island in Michigan; includes prehistoric iron mines.

- Understanding "isle royal national park" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "isle royal national park" to mean a national park on an island in michigan; includes....

---

ivory tower (noun)

A state of mind that is discussed as if it were a place.

- He lived in the ivory tower of speculation.
- They viewed universities as ivory towers.

---

jade green (noun)

A light green color varying from bluish green to yellowish green.

- They discussed "jade green" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "jade green" means with a simple example.

---

jade-green (adjective)

Of something having the color of jade; especially varying from bluish green to yellowish green.

- It is useful to describe something as "jade-green" when it is of something having the color of jade; especially....
- A "jade-green" approach may work better in this case.

---

java pepper (noun)

Tropical southeast Asian shrubby vine bearing spicy berrylike fruits.

- He looked up "java pepper" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "java pepper" to mean tropical southeast asian shrubby vine bearing spicy....

---

kind-hearted (adjective)

Having or proceeding from an innately kind disposition.

- It is useful to describe something as "kind-hearted" when it is having or proceeding from an innately kind disposition.
- Would you call this situation "kind-hearted"? Explain why.

---

king penguin (noun)

Large penguin on islands bordering the Antarctic Circle.

- The article explained what "king penguin" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "king penguin" during the group presentation.

---

kingdom of nepal (noun)

A small landlocked Asian country high in the Himalayas between India and China.

- Understanding "kingdom of nepal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "kingdom of nepal" to mean a small landlocked asian country high in the....

---

lame duck (noun)

An elected official still in office but not slated to continue.

- In class, the teacher used "lame duck" to mean an elected official still in office but not slated....
- Understanding "lame duck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

large-hearted (adjective)

Showing or motivated by sympathy and understanding and generosity.

- A large-hearted mentor.
- A "large-hearted" approach may work better in this case.

---

laser-guided bomb (noun)

A smart bomb that seeks the laser light reflected off of the target and uses it to correct its descent.

- Laser-guided bombs cannot be used in cloudy weather.
- He looked up "laser-guided bomb" because he had never seen it before.

---

laundry basket (noun)

A hamper that holds dirty clothes to be washed or wet clothes to be dried.

- They discussed "laundry basket" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used “laundry basket” to mean a hamper that holds dirty clothes to be washed or....

---

lemon extract (noun)

A flavoring made from (or imitating) lemons.

- Understanding “lemon extract” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “lemon extract” because he had never seen it before.

---

lending institution (noun)

A financial institution that makes loans.

- The article explained what “lending institution” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “lending institution” during the group presentation.

---

lifts (noun)

The event of something being raised upward.

- In class, the teacher used “lifts” to mean the event of something being raised upward.
- The article explained what “lifts” means with a simple example.

---

light-hearted (adjective)

Carefree and happy and lighthearted.

- It is useful to describe something as “light-hearted” when it is carefree and happy and lighthearted.
- The speaker chose “light-hearted” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

luggage van (noun)

A railway car where passengers’ bags are carried.

- The article explained what “luggage van” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “luggage van” to mean a railway car where passengers’ bags are carried.

---

lunar month (noun)

The period between successive new moons (29.531 days).

- In class, the teacher used “lunar month” to mean the period between successive new moons (29.531 days).
- They discussed “lunar month” during the group presentation.

---

magnetic needle (noun)

A slender magnet suspended in a magnetic compass on a mounting with little friction; used to indicate the direction of the earth’s magnetic pole.

- They discussed “magnetic needle” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “magnetic needle” to mean a slender magnet suspended in a magnetic compass on....

---

male reproductive system (noun)

The reproductive system of males.

- He looked up “male reproductive system” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “male reproductive system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

manila grass (noun)

Lawn grass common in the Philippines; grown also in United States.

- Understanding “manila grass” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “manila grass” during the group presentation.

---

master’s degree (noun)

An academic degree higher than a bachelor’s degree but lower than a doctor’s degree.

- In class, the teacher used “master’s degree” to mean an academic degree higher than a bachelor’s degree....
- They discussed “master’s degree” during the group presentation.

---

mentality (noun)

A habitual or characteristic mental attitude that determines how you will interpret and respond to situations.

- They discussed “mentality” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “mentality” to mean a habitual or characteristic mental attitude that....

---

merry andrew (noun)

A person who amuses others by ridiculous behavior.

- Understanding "merry andrew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "merry andrew" during the group presentation.

---

metre (noun)

The basic unit of length adopted under the Systeme International d'Unites (approximately 1.094 yards).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "metre."
- Understanding "metre" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

minor premise (noun)

The premise of a syllogism that contains the minor term (which is the subject of the conclusion).

- In class, the teacher used "minor premise" to mean the premise of a syllogism that contains the minor....
- They discussed "minor premise" during the group presentation.

---

miracles (noun)

A marvellous event manifesting a supernatural act of a divine agent.

- Understanding "miracles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "miracles" means with a simple example.

---

mod con (noun)

Modern convenience; the appliances and conveniences characteristic of a modern house.

- In class, the teacher used "mod con" to mean modern convenience; the appliances and conveniences....
- He looked up "mod con" because he had never seen it before.

---

motion sickness (noun)

The state of being dizzy or nauseated because of the motions that occur while traveling in or on a moving vehicle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "motion sickness."
- Understanding "motion sickness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mount sherman (noun)

A peak in the Rocky Mountains in central Colorado (14,036 feet high).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mount sherman."
- He looked up "mount sherman" because he had never seen it before.

---

mud puppy (noun)

Large salamander of North American rivers and streams.

- Understanding "mud puppy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mud puppy" during the group presentation.

---

mutual affection (noun)

Sympathy of each person for the other.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mutual affection."
- They discussed "mutual affection" during the group presentation.

---

natalie wood (noun)

United States film actress (1938-1981).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "natalie wood."
- The article explained what "natalie wood" means with a simple example.

---

neural (adjective)

Of or relating to neurons.

- Neural network.
- Neural disorder.

---

newsletter (noun)

Report or open letter giving informal or confidential news of interest to a special group.

- The article explained what “newsletter” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “newsletter” to mean report or open letter giving informal or....

---

nina from carolina (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of eight and one.

- They discussed “nina from carolina” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “nina from carolina” to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of eight and one.

---

nineteenth (noun)

Position 19 in a countable series of things.

- In class, the teacher used “nineteenth” to mean position 19 in a countable series of things.
- The article explained what “nineteenth” means with a simple example.

---

nitrogen (noun)

A common nonmetallic element that is normally a colorless odorless tasteless inert diatomic gas; constitutes 78 percent of the atmosphere by volume; a constituent of all living tissues.

- In class, the teacher used “nitrogen” to mean a common nonmetallic element that is normally a....
- Understanding “nitrogen” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

norms (noun)

A standard or model or pattern regarded as typical.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “norms.”
- They discussed “norms” during the group presentation.

---

nuclear submarine (noun)

A submarine that is propelled by nuclear power.

- He looked up “nuclear submarine” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “nuclear submarine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oceans (noun)

A large body of water constituting a principal part of the hydrosphere.

- The article explained what “oceans” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “oceans” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ooh (verb)

Express admiration and pleasure by uttering ‘ooh’ or ‘aah’.

- They oohed and aahed when they unwrapped the presents.
- She tried to use “ooh” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

open interval (noun)

An interval that does not include its endpoints.

- The article explained what “open interval” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “open interval” during the group presentation.

---

optical fiber (noun)

A very thin fiber made of glass that functions as a waveguide for light; used in bundles to transmit images.

- He looked up “optical fiber” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “optical fiber.”

---

painful sensation (noun)

A somatic sensation of acute discomfort.

- As the intensity increased the sensation changed from tickle to pain.
- They discussed “painful sensation” during the group presentation.

---

pan roast (verb)

Roast in a pan.

- Pan-roast that meat.
- The coach explained when to use “pan roast” and when to wait.

parental quality (noun)

A quality appropriate to a parent.

- Understanding "parental quality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "parental quality" because he had never seen it before.

participant role (noun)

(linguistics) the underlying relation that a constituent has with the main verb in a clause.

- They discussed "participant role" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "participant role."

phenomenal (adjective)

Of or relating to a phenomenon.

- Phenomenal science.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "phenomenal."

philippine (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of the Philippines or its people or customs.

- The Philippine President.
- It is useful to describe something as "philippine" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of the....

photographic (adjective)

Relating to photography or obtained by using photography.

- Photographic equipment.
- Students compared "photographic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

ping (verb)

Sound like a car engine that is firing too early.

- The car pinged when I put in low-octane gasoline.
- The bugs pinged the lamp shade.

pitcher plant (noun)

Any of several insectivorous herbs of the order Sarraceniales.

- In class, the teacher used "pitcher plant" to mean any of several insectivorous herbs of the order....
- The article explained what "pitcher plant" means with a simple example.

polished (adjective)

(of grains especially rice) having the husk or outer layers removed.

- Polished rice.
- His polished manner.

pony express (noun)

Express mail carried by relays of riders on horseback; especially between Missouri and California around 1860.

- He looked up "pony express" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pony express" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pork belly (noun)

Side of fresh pork.

- He looked up "pork belly" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pork belly" to mean side of fresh pork.

pot roast (noun)

Cut of beef suitable for simmering in liquid in a closed pot.

- In class, the teacher used "pot roast" to mean cut of beef suitable for simmering in liquid in a....
- The article explained what "pot roast" means with a simple example.

pots (noun)

A container in which plants are cultivated.

- He looked up "pots" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pots" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

predictable (adjective)

Capable of being foretold.

- A "predictable" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "predictable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

privileges (noun)

A right reserved exclusively by a particular person or group (especially a hereditary or official right).

- Understanding "privileges" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "privileges" during the group presentation.

---

pro-life faction (noun)

Those who argue that induced abortion is killing and should be prohibited.

- He looked up "pro-life faction" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pro-life faction."

---

professionally (adverb)

In a professional manner.

- Professionally trained staff.
- He answered "professionally," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

protesting (verb)

Express opposition through action or words.

- He did not know how to use "protesting" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "protesting" in real sentences.

---

protocols (noun)

(computer science) rules determining the format and transmission of data.

- Safety protocols.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "protocols."

---

pulse timing circuit (noun)

A circuit that times pulses.

- He looked up "pulse timing circuit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pulse timing circuit."

---

pushes (noun)

An electrical switch operated by pressing.

- He looked up "pushes" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pushes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

queer (verb)

Hinder or prevent (the efforts, plans, or desires) of.

- Learners should practice how to use "queer" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "queer" when talking about this idea.

---

reckon (verb)

Expect, believe, or suppose.

- You have to reckon with our opponents.
- Learners should practice how to use "reckon" in real sentences.

---

red worm (noun)

Terrestrial worm that burrows into and helps aerate soil; often surfaces when the ground is cool or wet; used as bait by anglers.

- Understanding "red worm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "red worm" to mean terrestrial worm that burrows into and helps aerate....

---

reproductive cell (noun)

A spermatozoon or an ovum; a cell responsible for transmitting DNA to the next generation.

- He looked up "reproductive cell" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "reproductive cell" during the group presentation.

---

reproductive memory (noun)

Recall that is hypothesized to work by storing the original stimulus input and reproducing it during recall.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reproductive memory."
- He looked up "reproductive memory" because he had never seen it before.

---

reproductive structure (noun)

The parts of a plant involved in its reproduction.

- The article explained what "reproductive structure" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "reproductive structure" to mean the parts of a plant involved in its reproduction.

---

reset button (noun)

A push button that you press to activate the reset mechanism.

- They discussed "reset button" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "reset button" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

restriction (noun)

A principle that limits the extent of something.

- I am willing to accept certain restrictions on my movements.
- The restriction of the infection to a focal area.

---

resumed (verb)

Return to a previous location or condition.

- The painting resumed its old condition when we restored it.
- We resumed the negotiations.

---

retaining wall (noun)

A wall that is built to resist lateral pressure (especially a wall built to prevent the advance of a mass of earth).

- The article explained what "retaining wall" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "retaining wall" during the group presentation.

---

rhode island (noun)

A state in New England; one of the original 13 colonies; the smallest state.

- The article explained what "rhode island" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rhode island."

---

richard burton (noun)

Welsh film actor who often co-starred with Elizabeth Taylor (1925-1984).

- The article explained what "richard burton" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "richard burton" to mean welsh film actor who often co-starred with....

---

robert peel (noun)

British politician (1788-1850).

- He looked up "robert peel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robert peel."

---

rock python (noun)

Very large python of tropical and southern Africa.

- The article explained what "rock python" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rock python."

---

root beer float (noun)

An ice-cream soda made with ice cream floating in root beer.

- In class, the teacher used "root beer float" to mean an ice-cream soda made with ice cream floating in....
- The article explained what "root beer float" means with a simple example.

---

rover (noun)

An adult member of the Boy Scouts movement.

- In class, the teacher used "rover" to mean an adult member of the boy scouts movement.
- They discussed "rover" during the group presentation.

---

royal flush (noun)

A poker hand with the ace, king, queen, jack, and 10 all in the same suit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "royal flush."
- They discussed "royal flush" during the group presentation.

---

rubber cement (noun)

An adhesive made by dissolving unvulcanized rubber in a solvent like benzene or naphtha.

- Understanding "rubber cement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rubber cement" to mean an adhesive made by dissolving unvulcanized rubber....

---

sailor boy (noun)

A serviceman in the navy.

- He looked up "sailor boy" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sailor boy" to mean a serviceman in the navy.

---

sailor king (noun)

King of England and Ireland; son of George III who ascended the throne after a long naval career (1765-1837).

- The article explained what "sailor king" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sailor king."

---

saint gregory i (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) an Italian pope distinguished for his spiritual and temporal leadership; a saint and Doctor of the Church (540?-604).

- The article explained what "saint gregory i" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "saint gregory i" to mean (roman catholic church) an italian pope....

---

scars (noun)

A mark left (usually on the skin) by the healing of injured tissue.

- In class, the teacher used "scars" to mean a mark left (usually on the skin) by the healing of....
- Understanding "scars" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sea trout (noun)

Flesh of marine trout that migrate from salt to fresh water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea trout."
- They discussed "sea trout" during the group presentation.

---

seating area (noun)

An area that includes places where several people can sit.

- There is seating for 40 students in this classroom.
- In class, the teacher used "seating area" to mean an area that includes places where several people....

---

seating room (noun)

An area that includes places where several people can sit.

- There is seating for 40 students in this classroom.
- In class, the teacher used "seating room" to mean an area that includes places where several people....

---

second vatican council (noun)

The Vatican Council in 1962-1965 that abandoned the universal Latin liturgy and acknowledged ecumenism and made other reforms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "second vatican council."
- Understanding "second vatican council" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

self-proclaimed (adjective)

Proclaimed to be or described as such by oneself, without endorsement by others.

- Self-proclaimed experts.
- The speaker chose "self-proclaimed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

seventy-eight (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of seventy and eight.

- In class, the teacher used "seventy-eight" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of seventy and....
- The article explained what "seventy-eight" means with a simple example.

---

seventy-seven (adjective)

Being seven more than seventy.

- Students compared "seventy-seven" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "seventy-seven" when it is being seven more than seventy.

---

shannon (noun)

United States electrical engineer who pioneered mathematical communication theory (1916-2001).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shannon."
- The article explained what "shannon" means with a simple example.

---

shelves (noun)

A projecting ridge on a mountain or submerged under water.

- In class, the teacher used "shelves" to mean a projecting ridge on a mountain or submerged under....
- He looked up "shelves" because he had never seen it before.

---

shrimp-fish (noun)

Slender tropical shallow-water East Indian fish covered with transparent plates.

- Understanding "shrimp-fish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "shrimp-fish" to mean slender tropical shallow-water east indian fish....

---

single prop (noun)

A propeller plane with a single propeller.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "single prop."
- He looked up "single prop" because he had never seen it before.

---

sir ronald ross (noun)

British physician who discovered that mosquitos transmit malaria (1857-1932).

- They discussed "sir ronald ross" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sir ronald ross" to mean british physician who discovered that mosquitos....

---

sleeping sickness (noun)

An encephalitis that was epidemic between 1915 and 1926; symptoms include paralysis of the extrinsic eye muscle and extreme muscular weakness.

- Understanding "sleeping sickness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sleeping sickness" because he had never seen it before.

---

sociology department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in sociology.

- He looked up "sociology department" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sociology department" to mean the academic department responsible for teaching....

---

sounding rocket (noun)

A research rocket used to obtain information about the atmosphere at various altitudes.

- The article explained what "sounding rocket" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sounding rocket" to mean a research rocket used to obtain information about....

sour grass (noun)

Any of certain coarse weedy plants with long taproots, sometimes used as table greens or in folk medicine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sour grass."
- He looked up "sour grass" because he had never seen it before.

spark plug (noun)

Electrical device that fits into the cylinder head of an internal-combustion engine and ignites the gas by means of an electric spark.

- The article explained what "spark plug" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spark plug."

spatial (adjective)

Pertaining to or involving or having the nature of space.

- The first dimension to concentrate on is the spatial one.
- Spatial ability.

spoon-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a spoon.

- The speaker chose "spoon-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "spoon-shaped"? Explain why.

st valentine's day (noun)

A day for the exchange of tokens of affection.

- They discussed "st valentine's day" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "st valentine's day" to mean a day for the exchange of tokens of affection.

stainless (noun)

Steel containing chromium that makes it resistant to corrosion.

- He looked up "stainless" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "stainless" to mean steel containing chromium that makes it resistant....

stall bar (noun)

A gymnastic apparatus used for strengthening exercises; uprights fastened to a wall and connected by horizontal rungs.

- The article explained what "stall bar" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stall bar" during the group presentation.

stamp pad (noun)

A block of absorbent material saturated with ink; used to transfer ink evenly to a rubber stamp.

- Understanding "stamp pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "stamp pad" to mean a block of absorbent material saturated with ink;....

starting buffer (noun)

Buffer solution at the start of a reaction.

- In class, the teacher used "starting buffer" to mean buffer solution at the start of a reaction.
- He looked up "starting buffer" because he had never seen it before.

statute mile (noun)

A unit of length equal to 1,760 yards or 5,280 feet; exactly 1609.344 meters.

- The article explained what "statute mile" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "statute mile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

statutory (adjective)

Prescribed or authorized by or punishable under a statute.

- Statutory restrictions.
- A statutory age limit.

stellar (adjective)

Being or relating to or resembling or emanating from stars.

- Stellar light.
- The speaker chose "stellar" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

stereo system (noun)

Reproducer in which two microphones feed two or more loudspeakers to give a three-dimensional effect to the sound.

- They discussed "stereo system" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "stereo system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stockholm (noun)

The capital and largest city of Sweden; located in southern Sweden on the Baltic.

- The Nobel Prize is awarded in Stockholm.
- Understanding "stockholm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stripes (noun)

V-shaped sleeve badge indicating military rank and service.

- They earned their stripes in Kuwait.
- A green toad with small black stripes or bars.

---

stubborn (adjective)

Tenaciously unwilling or marked by tenacious unwillingness to yield.

- The speaker chose "stubborn" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "stubborn" when it is tenaciously unwilling or marked by tenacious....

---

summoned (verb)

Make ready for action or use.

- She tried to use "summoned" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "summoned" until he saw an example.

---

sun pitcher (noun)

Any of several herbs of Guiana highlands having racemes of nodding white or pink flowers; trap and digest insects in pitcher-shaped leaves with spoon-shaped caps.

- The article explained what "sun pitcher" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sun pitcher" during the group presentation.

---

sussex (noun)

A county in southern England on the English Channel; formerly an Anglo-Saxon kingdom that was captured by Wessex in the 9th century.

- They discussed "sussex" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sussex" to mean a county in southern england on the english....

---

switch-ivy (noun)

Fast-growing evergreen shrub of southeastern United States having arching interlaced branches and racemes of white flowers.

- The article explained what "switch-ivy" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "switch-ivy."

---

swords (noun)

A cutting or thrusting weapon that has a long metal blade and a hilt with a hand guard.

- Understanding "swords" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "swords" because he had never seen it before.

---

syrup (noun)

A thick sweet sticky liquid.

- The article explained what "syrup" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "syrup" to mean a thick sweet sticky liquid.

---

tamil (adjective)

Of or relating to a speaker of the Tamil language or the language itself.

- Tamil agglutinative phrases.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tamil."

tapping (noun)

The sound of light blow or knock.

- He heard the tapping of the man's cane.
- They discussed "tapping" during the group presentation.

tee shirt (noun)

A close-fitting pullover shirt.

- He looked up "tee shirt" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tee shirt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

terry towel (noun)

A bath towel with rough loose pile.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "terry towel."
- He looked up "terry towel" because he had never seen it before.

theological system (noun)

A particular system or school of religious beliefs and teachings.

- In class, the teacher used "theological system" to mean a particular system or school of religious beliefs....
- He looked up "theological system" because he had never seen it before.

theory of inheritance (noun)

(biology) a theory of how characteristics of one generation are derived from earlier generations.

- In class, the teacher used "theory of inheritance" to mean (biology) a theory of how characteristics of one....
- The article explained what "theory of inheritance" means with a simple example.

tightly (adverb)

Securely fixed or fastened.

- The window was tightly sealed.
- A tightly packed pub.

tories (noun)

An American who favored the British side during the American Revolution.

- Understanding "tories" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tories" during the group presentation.

transmission shaft (noun)

Rotating shaft that transmits rotary motion from the engine to the differential.

- He looked up "transmission shaft" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transmission shaft."

traps (verb)

To hold fast or prevent from moving.

- She tried to use "traps" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "traps" and when to wait.

travel-stained (adjective)

Soiled from travel.

- The speaker chose "travel-stained" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "travel-stained"? Explain why.

turf (noun)

The territory claimed by a juvenile gang as its own.

- A bureaucracy...chiefly concerned with turf...and protecting the retirement system.
- They discussed "turf" during the group presentation.

turf out (verb)

Put out or expel from a place.

- In everyday English, people use "turf out" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "turf out" until he saw an example.

turnover rate (noun)

The ratio of the number of workers that had to be replaced in a given time period to the average number of workers.

- They discussed "turnover rate" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "turnover rate" because he had never seen it before.

twilight vision (noun)

The ability to see in reduced illumination (as in moonlight).

- In class, the teacher used "twilight vision" to mean the ability to see in reduced illumination (as in....
- He looked up "twilight vision" because he had never seen it before.

universal proposition (noun)

(logic) a proposition that asserts something of all members of a class.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "universal proposition."
- They discussed "universal proposition" during the group presentation.

universe of discourse (noun)

Everything stated or assumed in a given discussion.

- They discussed "universe of discourse" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "universe of discourse" means with a simple example.

unlocked (adjective)

Not firmly fastened or secured.

- An unlocked room.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unlocked."

unusually (adverb)

To a remarkable degree or extent.

- She was unusually tall.
- She spoke "unusually," and the audience immediately understood her point.

unveiled (adjective)

Revealed; especially by having a veil removed.

- A new generation of unveiled women in Iran.
- Applauding the unveiled statue of Winston Churchill.

vaccines (noun)

Immunogen consisting of a suspension of weakened or dead pathogenic cells injected in order to stimulate the production of antibodies.

- He looked up "vaccines" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "vaccines" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

vatican ii (noun)

The Vatican Council in 1962-1965 that abandoned the universal Latin liturgy and acknowledged ecumenism and made other reforms.

- In class, the teacher used "vatican ii" to mean the vatican council in 1962-1965 that abandoned the....
- The article explained what "vatican ii" means with a simple example.

veins (noun)

A blood vessel that carries blood from the capillaries toward the heart.

- All veins except the pulmonary vein carry unaerated blood.
- The article explained what "veins" means with a simple example.

vicious cycle (noun)

One trouble leads to another that aggravates the first.

- He looked up "vicious cycle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vicious cycle."

---

violet-pink (adjective)

Of pink tinged with lavender.

- Students compared "violet-pink" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "violet-pink."

---

vip (noun)

An important or influential (and often overbearing) person.

- They discussed "vip" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "vip" means with a simple example.

---

visions (noun)

A religious or mystical experience of a supernatural appearance.

- They discussed "visions" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visions."

---

vocal cord (noun)

Either of two pairs of folds of mucous membrane projecting into the larynx.

- They discussed "vocal cord" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vocal cord."

---

voiced (adjective)

Produced with vibration of the vocal cords.

- A frequently voiced opinion.
- Voiced consonants such as 'b' and 'g' and 'z'.

---

volcano (noun)

A fissure in the earth's crust (or in the surface of some other planet) through which molten lava and gases erupt.

- He looked up "volcano" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "volcano" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

warmer (noun)

Device that heats water or supplies warmth to a room.

- In class, the teacher used "warmer" to mean device that heats water or supplies warmth to a room.
- The article explained what "warmer" means with a simple example.

---

water mold (noun)

Parasitic or saprobic organisms living chiefly in fresh water or moist soil.

- They discussed "water mold" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "water mold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

webster (noun)

United States politician and orator (1782-1817).

- Understanding "webster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "webster" because he had never seen it before.

---

western axe (noun)

An ax that has cutting edges on both sides of the head.

- He looked up "western axe" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "western axe" during the group presentation.

---

wood tick (noun)

Common tick that can transmit Rocky Mountain spotted fever and tularemia.

- In class, the teacher used "wood tick" to mean common tick that can transmit rocky mountain....
- Understanding "wood tick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

worm family (noun)

A family of worms.

- They discussed "worm family" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "worm family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

yacht chair (noun)

A light folding armchair for outdoor use.

- Understanding "yacht chair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "yacht chair" means with a simple example.

yelled (adjective)

In a vehement outcry.

- The speaker chose "yelled" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "yelled" when it is in a vehement outcry.

yellow-eyed grass (noun)

Any of several rushlike plants, especially of the pine barrens of southern United States.

- Understanding "yellow-eyed grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "yellow-eyed grass" during the group presentation.

yellow-eyed grass family (noun)

Plants of tropical to temperate regions; usually in wet places.

- He looked up "yellow-eyed grass family" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "yellow-eyed grass family" during the group presentation.

aboriginal australian (noun)

The Austronesian languages spoken by Australian aborigines.

- Understanding "aboriginal australian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aboriginal australian."

accelerated (adjective)

Speeded up, as of an academic course.

- In an accelerated program in school.
- A "accelerated" approach may work better in this case.

accomplishments (noun)

An ability that has been acquired by training.

- Understanding "accomplishments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "accomplishments" to mean an ability that has been acquired by training.

acoustic phenomenon (noun)

A physical phenomenon associated with the production or transmission of sound.

- Understanding "acoustic phenomenon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "acoustic phenomenon" to mean a physical phenomenon associated with the....

advertised (adjective)

Called to public attention.

- These advertised products.
- A "advertised" approach may work better in this case.

advertisements (noun)

A public promotion of some product or service.

- In class, the teacher used "advertisements" to mean a public promotion of some product or service.
- They discussed "advertisements" during the group presentation.

altar wine (noun)

Used in a communion service.

- The article explained what "altar wine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "altar wine" to mean used in a communion service.

---

anglo-jewish (adjective)

Of English-speaking Jews and their culture.

- Anglo-Jewish papers.
- It is useful to describe something as "anglo-jewish" when it is of english-speaking jews and their culture.

---

arctic mouse-ear (noun)

Widespread in the Arctic and on mountains in Europe.

- In class, the teacher used "arctic mouse-ear" to mean widespread in the arctic and on mountains in europe.
- He looked up "arctic mouse-ear" because he had never seen it before.

---

ark (noun)

A boat built by Noah to save his family and animals from the flood.

- In class, the teacher used "ark" to mean a boat built by noah to save his family and animals....
- They discussed "ark" during the group presentation.

---

armour (noun)

A military unit consisting of armored fighting vehicles.

- Understanding "armour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "armour" during the group presentation.

---

army worm (noun)

Noctuid moth larvae that travel in multitudes destroying especially grass and grain.

- Understanding "army worm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "army worm."

---

assaulted (verb)

Attack someone physically or emotionally.

- The mugger assaulted the woman.
- Learners should practice how to use "assaulted" in real sentences.

---

atomic pile (noun)

A nuclear reactor that uses controlled nuclear fission to generate energy.

- The article explained what "atomic pile" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "atomic pile" during the group presentation.

---

atoms (noun)

(nontechnical usage) a tiny piece of anything.

- Understanding "atoms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "atoms" means with a simple example.

---

attach to (verb)

Be present or associated with an event or entity.

- Learners should practice how to use "attach to" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "attach to" until he saw an example.

---

awaiting (verb)

Look forward to the probable occurrence of.

- Learners should practice how to use "awaiting" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "awaiting" and when to wait.

---

axe handle (noun)

The handle of an ax.

- He looked up "axe handle" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "axe handle."

axis of rotation (noun)

The center around which something rotates.

- He looked up "axis of rotation" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "axis of rotation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

baking powder (noun)

Any of various powdered mixtures used in baking as a substitute for yeast.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baking powder."
- They discussed "baking powder" during the group presentation.

bald-headed (adjective)

Lacking hair on all or most of the scalp.

- A bald-headed gentleman.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bald-headed."

binary compound (noun)

Chemical compound composed of only two elements.

- He looked up "binary compound" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "binary compound" during the group presentation.

bind (verb)

Bind by an obligation; cause to be indebted.

- The Chinese would bind the feet of their women.
- Bind the books in leather.

bind off (verb)

Finish the last row.

- The coach explained when to use "bind off" and when to wait.
- Can you use "bind off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

bind over (verb)

Order a defendant to be placed in custody pending the outcome of a proceedings against him or her.

- The defendant was bound over for trial.
- Can you use "bind over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

blood-and-guts (adjective)

Marked by great zeal or violence.

- Real blood-and-guts fiction.
- Blood-and-guts football.

boiling (noun)

The application of heat to change something from a liquid to a gas.

- Understanding "boiling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "boiling" to mean the application of heat to change something from a....

bomber jacket (noun)

A jacket gathered into a band at the waist.

- They discussed "bomber jacket" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bomber jacket."

boy scouts (noun)

An international (but decentralized) movement started in 1908 in England with the goal of teaching good citizenship to boys.

- The article explained what "boy scouts" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "boy scouts" during the group presentation.

bradford (noun)

United States printer (born in England) whose press produced the first American prayer book and the New York City's first newspaper (1663-1752).

- Understanding "bradford" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bradford."

---

brush discharge (noun)

Discharge between electrodes creating visible streamers of ionized particles.

- In class, the teacher used "brush discharge" to mean discharge between electrodes creating visible....
- They discussed "brush discharge" during the group presentation.

---

bum (noun)

The fleshy part of the human body that you sit on.

- Throw the bum out.
- He tried to help the really down-and-out bums.

---

bum about (verb)

Be lazy or idle.

- Her son is just bumming around all day.
- Can you use "bum about" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

bum around (verb)

Be lazy or idle.

- Her son is just bumming around all day.
- In everyday English, people use "bum around" when talking about this idea.

---

bush violet (noun)

Any of several herbs of the genus Browallia cultivated for their blue or violet or white flowers.

- The article explained what "bush violet" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bush violet" during the group presentation.

---

butcher (verb)

Kill (animals) usually for food consumption.

- He did not know how to use "butcher" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "butcher" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

butt shaft (noun)

A blunt arrow without a barb; an arrow used for target practice.

- They discussed "butt shaft" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "butt shaft" to mean a blunt arrow without a barb; an arrow used for....

---

canyon live oak (noun)

Medium-sized evergreen of southwestern United States and northwestern Mexico with oblong leathery often spiny-edged leaves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canyon live oak."
- They discussed "canyon live oak" during the group presentation.

---

cape cod (noun)

A Massachusetts peninsula to the south of Boston extending into the Atlantic; a popular resort area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cape cod."
- Understanding "cape cod" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carbon arc lamp (noun)

Has carbon electrodes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carbon arc lamp."
- They discussed "carbon arc lamp" during the group presentation.

---

chandler (noun)

A retail dealer in provisions and supplies.

- They discussed "chandler" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "chandler" to mean a retail dealer in provisions and supplies.

---

characteristic curve (noun)

(electronics) graph showing how a particular characteristic of a device varies with other parameters.

- He looked up "characteristic curve" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "characteristic curve" to mean (electronics) graph showing how a particular....

---

chicken hawk (noun)

Nontechnical term for any hawks said to prey on poultry.

- Understanding "chicken hawk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "chicken hawk" because he had never seen it before.

---

chile nut (noun)

Chilean shrub bearing coral-red fruit with an edible seed resembling a hazelnut.

- He looked up "chile nut" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chile nut" to mean chilean shrub bearing coral-red fruit with an....

---

co-occurrence (noun)

The temporal property of two things happening at the same time.

- In class, the teacher used "co-occurrence" to mean the temporal property of two things happening at....
- Understanding "co-occurrence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cocaine addiction (noun)

An addiction to cocaine.

- They discussed "cocaine addiction" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cocaine addiction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cocktail sauce (noun)

Usually catsup with horseradish and lemon juice.

- They discussed "cocktail sauce" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cocktail sauce" to mean usually catsup with horseradish and lemon juice.

---

commissioned naval officer (noun)

A commissioned officer in the navy.

- Understanding "commissioned naval officer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "commissioned naval officer" means with a simple example.

---

communists (noun)

A member of the communist party.

- Understanding "communists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "communists."

---

compares (verb)

Examine and note the similarities or differences of.

- Learners should practice how to use "compares" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "compares" until he saw an example.

---

conception (noun)

The event that occurred at the beginning of something.

- In class, the teacher used "conception" to mean the event that occurred at the beginning of something.
- The article explained what "conception" means with a simple example.

---

congo (noun)

A republic in central Africa; achieved independence from Belgium in 1960.

- In class, the teacher used "congo" to mean a republic in central africa; achieved independence....
- The article explained what "congo" means with a simple example.

coordinate bond (noun)

A covalent bond in which both electrons are provided by one of the atoms.

- The article explained what "coordinate bond" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "coordinate bond" during the group presentation.

copper glance (noun)

A heavy grey mineral that is an ore of copper.

- The article explained what "copper glance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "copper glance" to mean a heavy grey mineral that is an ore of copper.

coral root (noun)

A wildflower of the genus Corallorhiza growing from a hard mass of rhizomes associated with a fungus that aids in absorbing nutrients from the forest floor.

- They discussed "coral root" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "coral root" to mean a wildflower of the genus corallorhiza growing from....

corn lily (noun)

Any of several South African plants of the genus Ixia having grasslike leaves and clusters of showy variously colored lily-like flowers; widely cultivated.

- Understanding "corn lily" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "corn lily" means with a simple example.

cost accountant (noun)

A specialist in the systematic recording and analysis of the costs incident to production.

- The article explained what "cost accountant" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cost accountant" during the group presentation.

counterparts (noun)

A person or thing having the same function or characteristics as another.

- Understanding "counterparts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "counterparts" during the group presentation.

crystal pickup (noun)

A cartridge in which an output voltage is produced by the vibration of a piezoelectric crystal.

- Understanding "crystal pickup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "crystal pickup" because he had never seen it before.

cue (noun)

A stimulus that provides information about what to do.

- They discussed "cue" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

decisive factor (noun)

A point or fact or remark that settles something conclusively.

- The article explained what "decisive factor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "decisive factor" during the group presentation.

deed (noun)

A legal document signed and sealed and delivered to effect a transfer of property and to show the legal right to possess it.

- He signed the deed.
- In class, the teacher used "deed" to mean a legal document signed and sealed and delivered to....

dessert plate (noun)

A small plate on which dessert can be served.

- Understanding "dessert plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dessert plate" means with a simple example.

developmental learning (noun)

Learning that takes place as a normal part of cognitive development.

- He looked up "developmental learning" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "developmental learning" to mean learning that takes place as a normal part of....

---

diary keeper (noun)

Someone who keeps a diary or journal.

- They discussed "diary keeper" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "diary keeper" means with a simple example.

---

disciplinary (adjective)

Relating to a specific field of academic study.

- Economics in its modern disciplinary sense.
- Disciplinary problems in the classroom.

---

dish towel (noun)

A towel for drying dishes.

- The article explained what "dish towel" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dish towel" to mean a towel for drying dishes.

---

dispatch case (noun)

Case consisting of an oblong container (usually having a lock) for carrying dispatches or other valuables.

- Understanding "dispatch case" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dispatch case" during the group presentation.

---

double digit (noun)

A two-digit integer; from 10 to 99.

- Understanding "double digit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double digit."

---

double-prop (noun)

A propeller plane with an engine that drives two propellers in opposite directions (for stability).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double-prop."
- They discussed "double-prop" during the group presentation.

---

drag one's heels (verb)

Postpone doing what one should be doing.

- Can you use "drag one's heels" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "drag one's heels" and when to wait.

---

dreamed (adjective)

Conceived of or imagined or hoped for.

- His dreamed symphony that would take the world of music by storm.
- Would you call this situation "dreamed"? Explain why.

---

drill instructor (noun)

A noncommissioned officer who instructs recruits in military marching and discipline.

- He looked up "drill instructor" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "drill instructor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drilling fluid (noun)

A mixture of clays and chemicals and water; pumped down the drill pipe to lubricate and cool the drilling bit and to flush out the cuttings and to strengthen the sides of the hole.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drilling fluid."
- The article explained what "drilling fluid" means with a simple example.

---

drop forge (noun)

Device for making large forgings.

- He looked up "drop forge" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “drop forge.”

dwarf (noun)

A plant or animal that is atypically small.

- He looked up “dwarf” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “dwarf” to mean a plant or animal that is atypically small.

egyptian water lily (noun)

White Egyptian lotus: water lily of Egypt to southeastern Africa; held sacred by the Egyptians.

- He looked up “egyptian water lily” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “egyptian water lily.”

eighty (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and eight.

- Understanding “eighty” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “eighty” to mean the cardinal number that is the product of ten and....

eighty-one (adjective)

Being one more than eighty.

- The speaker chose “eighty-one” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “eighty-one.”

eighty-three (adjective)

Being three more than eighty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “eighty-three.”
- Would you call this situation “eighty-three”? Explain why.

eighty-two (adjective)

Being two more than eighty.

- The speaker chose “eighty-two” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “eighty-two” when it is being two more than eighty.

elbow bone (noun)

The inner and longer of the two bones of the human forearm.

- They discussed “elbow bone” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “elbow bone.”

electrical relay (noun)

Electrical device such that current flowing through it in one circuit can switch on and off a current in a second circuit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “electrical relay.”
- Understanding “electrical relay” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

elementary geometry (noun)

(mathematics) geometry based on Euclid’s axioms.

- In class, the teacher used “elementary geometry” to mean (mathematics) geometry based on euclid’s axioms.
- The article explained what “elementary geometry” means with a simple example.

eligibility (noun)

The quality or state of being eligible.

- Eligibility of a candidate for office.
- Eligibility for a loan.

enacted (verb)

Order by virtue of superior authority; decree.

- The legislature enacted this law in 1985.
- She reenacted what had happened earlier that day.

endorsement (noun)

A promotional statement (as found on the dust jackets of books).

- A Democrat usually gets the union's endorsement.
- The cashier would not cash the check without an endorsement.

english runner bean (noun)

Long bean pods usually sliced into half-inch lengths; a favorite in Britain.

- He looked up "english runner bean" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "english runner bean" to mean long bean pods usually sliced into half-inch....

enlisted man (noun)

A male enlisted person in the armed forces.

- He looked up "enlisted man" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "enlisted man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

european nut pine (noun)

Medium-sized two-needled pine of southern Europe having a spreading crown; widely cultivated for its sweet seeds that resemble almonds.

- In class, the teacher used "european nut pine" to mean medium-sized two-needled pine of southern europe....
- They discussed "european nut pine" during the group presentation.

eyebrows (noun)

The arch of hair above each eye.

- He looked up "eyebrows" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eyebrows."

fatigue crack (noun)

A crack in metal resulting from metal fatigue.

- They discussed "fatigue crack" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fatigue crack."

fcc (noun)

An independent government agency that regulates interstate and international communications by radio and television and wire and cable and satellite.

- In class, the teacher used "fcc" to mean an independent government agency that regulates....
- Understanding "fcc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

female offspring (noun)

A child who is female.

- He looked up "female offspring" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "female offspring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fertility drug (noun)

A drug used to increase a woman's fertility.

- Understanding "fertility drug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fertility drug" because he had never seen it before.

finite (adjective)

Of verbs; relating to forms of the verb that are limited in time by a tense and (usually) show agreement with number and person.

- The speaker chose "finite" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "finite" when it is of verbs; relating to forms of the verb that are....

flagship (noun)

The chief one of a related group.

- It is their flagship newspaper.
- In class, the teacher used "flagship" to mean the chief one of a related group.

flint river (noun)

A river in western Georgia that flows generally south to join the Chattahoochee River at the Florida border where they form the Apalachicola River.

- The article explained what "flint river" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "flint river" during the group presentation.

---

floral cup (noun)

The cuplike or ringlike or tubular structure of a flower which bears the sepals and stamens and calyx (as in Rosaceae).

- He looked up "floral cup" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "floral cup."

---

forensic (adjective)

Used or applied in the investigation and establishment of facts or evidence in a court of law.

- Forensic photograph.
- Forensic ballistics.

---

forthcoming (adjective)

Of the relatively near future.

- The forthcoming holidays.
- Federal funds were not forthcoming.

---

franklin pierce (noun)

14th President of the United States (1804-1869).

- They discussed "franklin pierce" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "franklin pierce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

french-fried potatoes (noun)

Strips of potato fried in deep fat.

- Understanding "french-fried potatoes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "french-fried potatoes" means with a simple example.

---

gallon (noun)

A British imperial capacity measure (liquid or dry) equal to 4 quarts or 4.545 liters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gallon."
- The article explained what "gallon" means with a simple example.

---

gems (noun)

A crystalline rock that can be cut and polished for jewelry.

- Understanding "gems" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "gems" means with a simple example.

---

georgia bark (noun)

Ornamental shrub or small tree of swampy areas in southwestern United States having large pink or white sepals and yielding Georgia bark for treating fever.

- In class, the teacher used "georgia bark" to mean ornamental shrub or small tree of swampy areas in....
- He looked up "georgia bark" because he had never seen it before.

---

gilbert murray (noun)

British classical scholar (born in Australia) who advocated the League of Nations and the United Nations (1866-1957).

- The article explained what "gilbert murray" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gilbert murray" to mean british classical scholar (born in australia) who....

---

ginger snap (noun)

A crisp round cookie flavored with ginger.

- He looked up "ginger snap" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ginger snap" to mean a crisp round cookie flavored with ginger.

---

glowing (noun)

The amount of electromagnetic radiation leaving or arriving at a point on a surface.

- The article explained what "glowing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "glowing" to mean the amount of electromagnetic radiation leaving or....

glucose (noun)

A monosaccharide sugar that has several forms; an important source of physiological energy.

- He looked up "glucose" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "glucose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

goose egg (noun)

A quantity of no importance.

- We racked up a pathetic goose egg.
- He looked up "goose egg" because he had never seen it before.

gown (noun)

The members of a university as distinguished from the other residents of the town in which the university is located.

- The relations between town and gown are always sensitive.
- They discussed "gown" during the group presentation.

graduating class (noun)

The body of students who graduate together this year.

- Understanding "graduating class" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "graduating class" means with a simple example.

great pyramid (noun)

A massive monument with a square base and four triangular sides; begun by Cheops around 2700 BC as royal tombs in ancient Egypt.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great pyramid."
- Understanding "great pyramid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

greedy (adjective)

Immoderately desirous of acquiring e.g. wealth.

- Greedy for money and power.
- Greedy for fame.

green dinosaur (noun)

A living fossil or so-called 'green dinosaur'; genus or subfamily of primitive nut-bearing trees thought to have died out 50 million years ago; a single specimen found in 1994 on Mount Bartle Frere in eastern Australia; not yet officially named.

- Understanding "green dinosaur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "green dinosaur" to mean a living fossil or so-called 'green dinosaur';...

gum boot (noun)

A high boot made of rubber.

- They discussed "gum boot" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "gum boot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

halo (noun)

A circle of light around the sun or moon.

- A halo of smoke.
- In class, the teacher used "halo" to mean a circle of light around the sun or moon.

heavenly body (noun)

Natural objects visible in the sky.

- Understanding "heavenly body" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "heavenly body" during the group presentation.

heavenly city (noun)

Phrases used to refer to Heaven.

- The Celestial City was Christian's goal in Bunyan's 'Pilgrim's Progress'.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heavenly city."

heir apparent (noun)

An heir whose right to an inheritance cannot be defeated if that person outlives the ancestor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heir apparent."
- He looked up "heir apparent" because he had never seen it before.

---

helen of troy (noun)

(Greek mythology) the beautiful daughter of Zeus and Leda who was abducted by Paris; the Greek army sailed to Troy to get her back which resulted in the Trojan War.

- The article explained what "helen of troy" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "helen of troy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

horny structure (noun)

Any rigid body structure composed primarily of keratin.

- They discussed "horny structure" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "horny structure" because he had never seen it before.

---

hundred-and-twentieth (adjective)

The ordinal number of one hundred twenty in counting order.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hundred-and-twentieth."
- Would you call this situation "hundred-and-twentieth"? Explain why.

---

ideally (adverb)

In an ideal manner.

- Ideally, this will remove all problems.
- She spoke "ideally," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

identifies (verb)

Consider (oneself) as similar to somebody else.

- The almanac identifies the auspicious months.
- The coach explained when to use "identifies" and when to wait.

---

improves (verb)

To make better.

- In everyday English, people use "improves" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "improves" until he saw an example.

---

in-tray (noun)

A wood or metal receptacle placed on your desk to hold your incoming material.

- In class, the teacher used "in-tray" to mean a wood or metal receptacle placed on your desk to....
- They discussed "in-tray" during the group presentation.

---

indian python (noun)

Very large python of southeast Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian python."
- He looked up "indian python" because he had never seen it before.

---

infamous (adjective)

Known widely and usually unfavorably.

- The infamous Benedict Arnold.
- Would you call this situation "infamous"? Explain why.

---

inspirational (adjective)

Imparting a divine influence on the mind and soul.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "inspirational."
- Students compared "inspirational" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

intake valve (noun)

A valve that controls the flow of fluid through an intake.

- He looked up "intake valve" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intake valve."

internally (adverb)

On or from the inside.

- An internally controlled environment.
- Place "internally" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

iris family (noun)

Large family of usually perennial geophytic herbs with rhizomes or corms or bulbs.

- The article explained what "iris family" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "iris family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

islamic great eastern raiders-front (noun)

A Turkish terrorist organization that claimed responsibility for bombing a British consulate and bank in Istanbul; a violent opponent of Turkey's secular government and its ties to the European Union and NATO.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "islamic great eastern raiders-front."
- He looked up "islamic great eastern raiders-front" because he had never seen it before.

ivan iv (noun)

The first czar of Russia (1530-1584).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ivan iv."
- He looked up "ivan iv" because he had never seen it before.

james leonard farmer (noun)

United States civil rights leader who in 1942 founded the Congress of Racial Equality (born in 1920).

- Understanding "james leonard farmer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "james leonard farmer" to mean united states civil rights leader who in 1942....

judicial doctrine (noun)

(law) a principle underlying the formulation of jurisprudence.

- The article explained what "judicial doctrine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "judicial doctrine" during the group presentation.

kashmir (noun)

An area in southwestern Asia whose sovereignty is disputed between Pakistan and India.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kashmir."
- Understanding "kashmir" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

kilometres per hour (noun)

The ratio of the distance traveled (in kilometers) to the time spent traveling (in hours).

- He looked up "kilometres per hour" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "kilometres per hour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

knox (noun)

Scottish theologian who founded Presbyterianism in Scotland and wrote a history of the Reformation in Scotland (1514-1572).

- He looked up "knox" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "knox."

korean lawn grass (noun)

Lawn grass common in China and Japan; grown also in United States.

- Understanding "korean lawn grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "korean lawn grass" during the group presentation.

leigh (noun)

English film actress (1913-1967).

- They discussed "leigh" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "leigh" because he had never seen it before.

lent (noun)

A period of 40 weekdays from Ash Wednesday to Holy Saturday.

- The article explained what “lent” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “lent” during the group presentation.

lewis and clark expedition (noun)

An expedition sent by Thomas Jefferson to explore the northwestern territories of the United States; led by Meriwether Lewis and William Clark; traveled from St. Louis to the mouth of the Columbia River from 1803 to 1806.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lewis and clark expedition.”
- The article explained what “lewis and clark expedition” means with a simple example.

lifelong (adjective)

Continuing through life.

- A lifelong friend.
- From lifelong habit.

limestone (noun)

A sedimentary rock consisting mainly of calcium that was deposited by the remains of marine animals.

- He looked up “limestone” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “limestone” during the group presentation.

liner (noun)

A protective covering that protects an inside surface.

- The batter hit a liner to the shortstop.
- He looked up “liner” because he had never seen it before.

lunar time period (noun)

There are usually two high and two low tides each day.

- He looked up “lunar time period” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “lunar time period” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

map projection (noun)

A projection of the globe onto a flat map using a grid of lines of latitude and longitude.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “map projection.”
- He looked up “map projection” because he had never seen it before.

marched (verb)

Lie adjacent to another or share a boundary.

- The Japanese marched their prisoners through Manchuria.
- He marched into the classroom and announced the exam.

marrying (verb)

Perform a marriage ceremony.

- In everyday English, people use “marrying” when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use “marrying” carefully so everyone would understand.

maternal language (noun)

One’s native language; the language learned by children and passed from one generation to the next.

- He looked up “maternal language” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “maternal language.”

maternal quality (noun)

The quality of having or showing the tenderness and warmth and affection of or befitting a mother.

- They discussed “maternal quality” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “maternal quality” because he had never seen it before.

maths (noun)

A science (or group of related sciences) dealing with the logic of quantity and shape and arrangement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maths."
- Understanding "maths" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

memes (noun)

A cultural unit (an idea or value or pattern of behavior) that is passed from one person to another by non-genetic means (as by imitation).

- Memes are the cultural counterpart of genes.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "memes."

---

mental hygiene (noun)

The branch of psychiatry concerned with psychological methods.

- Understanding "mental hygiene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mental hygiene" means with a simple example.

---

merge (verb)

Mix together different elements.

- The cells merge.
- We merged our resources.

---

merit badge (noun)

A badge award to Boy Scouts in recognition of special projects.

- Understanding "merit badge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "merit badge."

---

mesh (noun)

The number of openings per linear inch of a screen; measures size of particles.

- A 100 mesh screen.
- 100 mesh powdered cellulose.

---

metallic bond (noun)

A chemical bond in which electrons are shared over many nuclei and electronic conduction occurs.

- He looked up "metallic bond" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "metallic bond" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

migrant (noun)

Traveler who moves from one region or country to another.

- He looked up "migrant" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "migrant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mohammed (noun)

The Arab prophet who, according to Islam, was the last messenger of Allah (570-632).

- In class, the teacher used "mohammed" to mean the arab prophet who, according to islam, was the....
- Understanding "mohammed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

monitored (verb)

Keep tabs on; keep an eye on; keep under surveillance.

- He did not know how to use "monitored" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "monitored" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

monkey ladder (noun)

A light ladder to the monkey bridge on a ship.

- The article explained what "monkey ladder" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "monkey ladder" to mean a light ladder to the monkey bridge on a ship.

---

monkey nut (noun)

Pod of the peanut vine containing usually 2 nuts or seeds; 'groundnut' and 'monkey nut' are British terms.

- Understanding "monkey nut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "monkey nut" because he had never seen it before.

---

moron (noun)

A city in Argentina, to the west of Buenos Aires.

- The article explained what "moron" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "moron" during the group presentation.

---

mortar (noun)

A bowl-shaped vessel in which substances can be ground and mixed with a pestle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mortar."
- Understanding "mortar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

muscle builder (noun)

Someone who does special exercises to develop a brawny musculature.

- Understanding "muscle builder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "muscle builder" because he had never seen it before.

---

muscle-builder (noun)

Someone who does special exercises to develop a brawny musculature.

- The article explained what "muscle-builder" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "muscle-builder."

---

myths (noun)

A traditional story accepted as history; serves to explain the world view of a people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "myths."
- He looked up "myths" because he had never seen it before.

---

naive (adjective)

Of or created by one without formal training; simple or naive in style.

- He took part in the experiment as a naive subject.
- The speaker chose "naive" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

neutral-coloured (adjective)

Having a color that does not attract attention.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "neutral-coloured."
- A "neutral-coloured" approach may work better in this case.

---

nigerian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Nigeria.

- He looked up "nigerian monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "nigerian monetary unit" during the group presentation.

---

nose cone (noun)

Front consisting of the conical head of a missile or rocket that protects the payload from heat during its passage through the atmosphere.

- Understanding "nose cone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "nose cone" to mean front consisting of the conical head of a missile....

---

noticeable (adjective)

Capable or worthy of being perceived.

- Noticeable shadows under her eyes.
- Noticeable for its vivid historical background.

---

nt (noun)

An organization concerned to preserve historic monuments and buildings and places of historical interest or natural beauty; founded in 1895 and supported by endowment and private subscription.

- He looked up "nt" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "nt" during the group presentation.

observing (adjective)

Quick to notice; showing quick and keen perception.

- The speaker chose "observing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "observing" approach may work better in this case.

old maid flower (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Zinnia cultivated for their variously and brightly colored flower heads.

- The article explained what "old maid flower" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "old maid flower" to mean any of various plants of the genus zinnia....

one-liner (noun)

A one-line joke.

- They discussed "one-liner" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "one-liner" means with a simple example.

onion stem (noun)

A white agaric that tends to cluster and has a club-shaped base.

- In class, the teacher used "onion stem" to mean a white agaric that tends to cluster and has a....
- Understanding "onion stem" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

opted (verb)

Select as an alternative over another.

- She opted for the job on the East coast.
- Learners should practice how to use "opted" in real sentences.

out-tray (noun)

A wood or metal receptacle placed on your desk to hold your outgoing material.

- The article explained what "out-tray" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "out-tray."

packing nut (noun)

A nut used to tighten a stuffing box.

- He looked up "packing nut" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "packing nut."

palestinians (noun)

A descendant of the Arabs who inhabited Palestine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "palestinians."
- Understanding "palestinians" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

payroll department (noun)

The department that determines the amounts of wage or salary due to each employee.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "payroll department."
- They discussed "payroll department" during the group presentation.

pens (noun)

A writing implement with a point from which ink flows.

- In class, the teacher used "pens" to mean a writing implement with a point from which ink flows.
- They discussed "pens" during the group presentation.

pepper steak (noun)

Strips of steak sauteed with green peppers and onions.

- Understanding "pepper steak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pepper steak" to mean strips of steak sauteed with green peppers and onions.

perfume (noun)

A toiletry that emits and diffuses a fragrant odor.

- In class, the teacher used "perfume" to mean a toiletry that emits and diffuses a fragrant odor.
- The article explained what "perfume" means with a simple example.

---

persian empire (noun)

An empire in southern Asia created by Cyrus the Great in the 6th century BC and destroyed by Alexander the Great in the 4th century BC.

- In class, the teacher used "persian empire" to mean an empire in southern asia created by cyrus the....
- They discussed "persian empire" during the group presentation.

---

pitcher-plant family (noun)

Insectivorous plants.

- The article explained what "pitcher-plant family" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pitcher-plant family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

poison mercury (noun)

Climbing plant common in eastern and central United States with ternate leaves and greenish flowers followed by white berries; yields an irritating oil that causes a rash on contact.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poison mercury."
- Understanding "poison mercury" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

portrait painter (noun)

A painter or drawer of portraits.

- He looked up "portrait painter" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "portrait painter" to mean a painter or drawer of portraits.

---

pound-foolish (adjective)

Unwise in dealing with large sums.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pound-foolish."
- Would you call this situation "pound-foolish"? Explain why.

---

prestige (noun)

A high standing achieved through success or influence or wealth etc.

- He wanted to achieve power and prestige.
- The article explained what "prestige" means with a simple example.

---

principal investigator (noun)

The scientist in charge of an experiment or research project.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "principal investigator."
- He looked up "principal investigator" because he had never seen it before.

---

projection screen (noun)

A white or silvered surface where pictures can be projected for viewing.

- They discussed "projection screen" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "projection screen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

protects (verb)

Shield from danger, injury, destruction, or damage.

- Weatherbeater protects your roof from the rain.
- She tried to use "protects" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

psychic communication (noun)

Communication by paranormal means.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "psychic communication."
- He looked up "psychic communication" because he had never seen it before.

---

purple onion (noun)

Flat mild onion having purplish tunics; used as garnish on hamburgers and salads.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purple onion."

- He looked up “purple onion” because he had never seen it before.

---

pyramid (noun)

A polyhedron having a polygonal base and triangular sides with a common vertex.

- Understanding “pyramid” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “pyramid” means with a simple example.

---

queen’s cup (noun)

Plant with 1 or 2 white starlike flowers on short leafless stalks; Alaska to California and east to Oregon and Montana.

- In class, the teacher used “queen’s cup” to mean plant with 1 or 2 white starlike flowers on short....
- The article explained what “queen’s cup” means with a simple example.

---

queen’s english (noun)

English as spoken by educated persons in southern England.

- He looked up “queen’s english” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “queen’s english” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

radio antenna (noun)

Omnidirectional antenna comprising the part of a radio receiver by means of which radio signals are received.

- He looked up “radio antenna” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “radio antenna.”

---

realizes (verb)

Perceive (an idea or situation) mentally.

- He did not know how to use “realizes” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “realizes” in real sentences.

---

recruiting-sergeant (noun)

A sergeant deputized to enlist recruits.

- In class, the teacher used “recruiting-sergeant” to mean a sergeant deputized to enlist recruits.
- The article explained what “recruiting-sergeant” means with a simple example.

---

red cedar (noun)

Large valuable arborvitae of northwestern United States.

- In class, the teacher used “red cedar” to mean large valuable arborvitae of northwestern united states.
- They discussed “red cedar” during the group presentation.

---

red gram (noun)

Tropical woody herb with showy yellow flowers and flat pods; much cultivated in the tropics.

- Understanding “red gram” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “red gram” to mean tropical woody herb with showy yellow flowers and....

---

relevance (noun)

The relation of something to the matter at hand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “relevance.”
- They discussed “relevance” during the group presentation.

---

remotely (adverb)

To a remote degree.

- It is remotely possible.
- When the measured speech of the chorus passes over into song the tones are, remotely but unmistakably, those taught by the orthodox liturgy.

---

restriction site (noun)

The specific sites at which a restriction enzyme will cleave DNA.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “restriction site.”
- He looked up “restriction site” because he had never seen it before.

---

rhode island red (noun)

American breed of heavy-bodied brownish-red general-purpose chicken.

- Understanding "rhode island red" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "rhode island red" because he had never seen it before.

---

rigid (adjective)

Fixed and unmoving; ; - Connor Cruise O'Brien.

- A face rigid with pain.
- A rigid strip of metal.

---

rom (noun)

(computer science) memory whose contents can be accessed and read but cannot be changed.

- He looked up "rom" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rose globe lily (noun)

Globe lily with deep rose-pink or purple egg-shaped flowers on flexuous stems; western slopes of Sierra Nevada in San Joaquin Valley.

- He looked up "rose globe lily" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rose globe lily."

---

sailors (noun)

A stiff hat made of straw with a flat crown.

- The article explained what "sailors" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sailors" during the group presentation.

---

sausage roll (noun)

Sausage meat rolled and baked in pastry.

- In class, the teacher used "sausage roll" to mean sausage meat rolled and baked in pastry.
- They discussed "sausage roll" during the group presentation.

---

screw-topped (adjective)

Having a lid with a spiral groove.

- The speaker chose "screw-topped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "screw-topped" approach may work better in this case.

---

self-locking (adjective)

Locking automatically when closed.

- Would you call this situation "self-locking"? Explain why.
- Students compared "self-locking" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

serial printer (noun)

A printer that prints a single character at a time.

- He looked up "serial printer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "serial printer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seventy-nine (adjective)

Being nine more than seventy.

- A "seventy-nine" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "seventy-nine" when it is being nine more than seventy.

---

shah of iran (noun)

Title for the former hereditary monarch of Iran.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shah of iran."
- He looked up "shah of iran" because he had never seen it before.

---

shattered (adjective)

Ruined or disrupted.

- Our shattered dreams of peace and prosperity.
- Students compared "shattered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

sierra nevada (noun)

A mountain range in eastern California; contains Mount Whitney.

- They discussed "sierra nevada" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sierra nevada" because he had never seen it before.

---

signatures (noun)

The sharps or flats that follow the clef and indicate the key.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "signatures."
- He looked up "signatures" because he had never seen it before.

---

sir anthony hopkins (noun)

Welsh film actor (born in 1937).

- They discussed "sir anthony hopkins" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sir anthony hopkins" because he had never seen it before.

---

slate roof (noun)

A roof covered with slate.

- They discussed "slate roof" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "slate roof" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

slipped disc (noun)

A painful rupture of the fibrocartilage of the disc between spinal vertebrae; occurs most often in the lumbar region.

- He looked up "slipped disc" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "slipped disc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

small cane (noun)

Small cane of watery or moist areas in southern United States.

- He looked up "small cane" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "small cane" during the group presentation.

---

social insect (noun)

An insect that lives in a colony with other insects of the same species.

- They discussed "social insect" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "social insect" to mean an insect that lives in a colony with other insects....

---

soft tick (noun)

Tick lacking a dorsal shield and having mouth parts on the under side of the head.

- The article explained what "soft tick" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "soft tick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spacecraft (noun)

A craft capable of traveling in outer space; technically, a satellite around the sun.

- Understanding "spacecraft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "spacecraft" during the group presentation.

---

specification (noun)

A detailed description of design criteria for a piece of work.

- The article explained what "specification" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "specification."

---

spiders (noun)

A computer program that prowls the internet looking for publicly accessible resources that can be added to a database; the database can then be searched with a search engine.

- In class, the teacher used "spiders" to mean a computer program that prowls the internet looking....
- He looked up "spiders" because he had never seen it before.

spinning rod (noun)

A fishing rod designed for casting a spinning lure.

- The article explained what "spinning rod" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spinning rod."

splendid (adjective)

Characterized by grandeur.

- The splendid coronation ceremony.
- Splendid costumes.

spotted gum (noun)

Large gum tree with mottled bark.

- He looked up "spotted gum" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spotted gum" to mean large gum tree with mottled bark.

sq ft (noun)

A unit of area equal to one foot by one foot square.

- He looked up "sq ft" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sq ft."

stained glass (noun)

Glass that has been colored in some way; used for church windows.

- In class, the teacher used "stained glass" to mean glass that has been colored in some way; used for....
- The article explained what "stained glass" means with a simple example.

stanley smith stevens (noun)

United States psychologist and psychophysicist who proposed Stevens' power law to replace Fechner's law (1906-1973).

- The article explained what "stanley smith stevens" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stanley smith stevens."

status quo (noun)

The existing state of affairs.

- They discussed "status quo" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "status quo."

statutory law (noun)

The body of laws created by legislative statutes.

- They discussed "statutory law" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "statutory law."

strokes (noun)

A mark made on a surface by a pen, pencil, or paintbrush.

- She applied the paint in careful strokes.
- It took two strokes to get out of the bunker.

successes (noun)

An event that accomplishes its intended purpose.

- They discussed "successes" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "successes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

summers (noun)

The period of finest development, happiness, or beauty.

- In class, the teacher used "summers" to mean the period of finest development, happiness, or beauty.
- Understanding "summers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sundays (noun)

First day of the week; observed as a day of rest and worship by most Christians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sundays."
- He looked up "sundays" because he had never seen it before.

---

supreme allied commander atlantic (noun)

Commanding officer of ACLANT; a general of the United States Army nominated by the President of the United States and approved by the North Atlantic Council.

- In class, the teacher used "supreme allied commander atlantic" to mean commanding officer of aclant; a general of the....
- He looked up "supreme allied commander atlantic" because he had never seen it before.

---

sussex university (noun)

A red-brick university in Brighton, England.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sussex university."
- The article explained what "sussex university" means with a simple example.

---

tall white violet (noun)

Tall North American perennial with heart-shaped leaves and white flowers with purple streaks.

- They discussed "tall white violet" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tall white violet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

telescope (noun)

A magnifier of images of distant objects.

- He looked up "telescope" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "telescope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

temp (noun)

A worker (especially in an office) hired on a temporary basis.

- In class, the teacher used "temp" to mean a worker (especially in an office) hired on a....
- They discussed "temp" during the group presentation.

---

tended (verb)

Have a tendency or disposition to do or be something; be inclined.

- The coach explained when to use "tended" and when to wait.
- Can you use "tended" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

tended to (adjective)

Having a caretaker or other watcher.

- A "tended to" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "tended to"? Explain why.

---

terminated (adjective)

Having come or been brought to a conclusion.

- The abruptly terminated interview.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "terminated."

---

textile (adjective)

Of or relating to fabrics or fabric making.

- Textile research.
- A "textile" approach may work better in this case.

---

thickness (noun)

The dimension through an object as opposed to its length or width.

- Judging from the thickness of his speech he had been drinking heavily.
- In class, the teacher used "thickness" to mean the dimension through an object as opposed to its....

---

threatens (verb)

To be a menacing indication of something:.

- Danger threatens.

- She tried to use “threatens” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

too-greedy (adjective)

Excessively gluttonous.

- The speaker chose “too-greedy” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation “too-greedy”? Explain why.

---

true cedar (noun)

Any cedar of the genus Cedrus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “true cedar.”
- Understanding “true cedar” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

true heath (noun)

Any plant of the genus Erica.

- In class, the teacher used “true heath” to mean any plant of the genus erica.
- He looked up “true heath” because he had never seen it before.

---

true vocal cord (noun)

Either of the two lower vocal folds that come together to form the glottis; produce a vocal tone when they are approximated and air from the lungs passes between them.

- They discussed “true vocal cord” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “true vocal cord.”

---

tucker-bag (noun)

A bag used for carrying food.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tucker-bag.”
- The article explained what “tucker-bag” means with a simple example.

---

tv-antenna (noun)

An omnidirectional antenna tuned to the broadcast frequencies assigned to television.

- In class, the teacher used “tv-antenna” to mean an omnidirectional antenna tuned to the broadcast....
- Understanding “tv-antenna” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

university of sussex (noun)

A red-brick university in Brighton, England.

- In class, the teacher used “university of sussex” to mean a red-brick university in brighton, england.
- He looked up “university of sussex” because he had never seen it before.

---

unreasonable (adjective)

Not reasonable; not showing good judgment.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “unreasonable.”
- A “unreasonable” approach may work better in this case.

---

unsure (adjective)

Lacking or indicating lack of confidence or assurance.

- Unsure of himself and his future.
- Moving with uncertain (or unsure) steps.

---

upwards (adverb)

Spatially or metaphorically from a lower to a higher position.

- The fragments flew upwards.
- Prices soared upwards.

---

utilize (verb)

Put into service; make work or employ for a particular purpose or for its inherent or natural purpose.

- How do you utilize this tool?
- Learners should practice how to use “utilize” in real sentences.

---

vacuum gauge (noun)

A gauge for indicating negative atmospheric pressure.

- He looked up "vacuum gauge" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vacuum gauge."

---

valuation (noun)

An appraisal of the value of something.

- He set a high valuation on friendship.
- The valuation of this property is much too high.

---

vanilla ice cream (noun)

Ice cream flavored with vanilla extract.

- In class, the teacher used "vanilla ice cream" to mean ice cream flavored with vanilla extract.
- He looked up "vanilla ice cream" because he had never seen it before.

---

vegetable patch (noun)

A small garden where vegetables are grown.

- The article explained what "vegetable patch" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "vegetable patch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vegetable sheep (noun)

Perennial prostrate mat-forming herb with hoary woolly foliage.

- Understanding "vegetable sheep" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "vegetable sheep" means with a simple example.

---

veterinary (noun)

A doctor who practices veterinary medicine.

- They discussed "veterinary" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "veterinary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

veterinary school (noun)

A school teaching veterinary medicine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "veterinary school."
- The article explained what "veterinary school" means with a simple example.

---

vicious circle (noun)

An argument that assumes that which is to be proved.

- In class, the teacher used "vicious circle" to mean an argument that assumes that which is to be proved.
- They discussed "vicious circle" during the group presentation.

---

villagers (noun)

One who has lived in a village most of their life.

- The article explained what "villagers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "villagers" to mean one who has lived in a village most of their life.

---

violate (verb)

Force (someone) to have sex against their will.

- This sentence violates the rules of syntax.
- Violate the basic laws or human civilization.

---

vivid (adjective)

(of color) having the highest saturation.

- Vivid green.
- A vivid description.

---

waving (noun)

The act of signaling by a movement of the hand.

- He looked up “waving” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “waving” to mean the act of signaling by a movement of the hand.

---

wax palm (noun)

South American palm yielding a wax similar to carnauba wax.

- Understanding “wax palm” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “wax palm” because he had never seen it before.

---

welcoming committee (noun)

A committee to welcome new residents to a community.

- Understanding “welcoming committee” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “welcoming committee” because he had never seen it before.

---

west sussex (noun)

A county in southern England on the English Channel.

- Understanding “west sussex” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “west sussex.”

---

white cedar (noun)

Small evergreen of eastern North America having tiny scalelike leaves on flattened branchlets.

- Understanding “white cedar” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “white cedar” means with a simple example.

---

william pitt (noun)

English statesman and son of Pitt the Elder (1759-1806).

- Understanding “william pitt” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “william pitt” during the group presentation.

---

wolf-whistle (verb)

Whistle or howl approvingly at a female, of males.

- He did not know how to use “wolf-whistle” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “wolf-whistle” in real sentences.

---

wooden spoon (noun)

A booby prize consisting of a spoon made of wood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wooden spoon.”
- He looked up “wooden spoon” because he had never seen it before.

---

accommodation ladder (noun)

(nautical) a portable ladder hung over the side of a vessel to give access to small boats alongside.

- He looked up “accommodation ladder” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “accommodation ladder” during the group presentation.

---

accusing (adjective)

Containing or expressing accusation; ; ; - O.Henry.

- His accusing glare.
- A “accusing” approach may work better in this case.

---

african daisy (noun)

African or Asiatic herbs with daisylike flowers.

- He looked up “african daisy” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “african daisy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

aided (adjective)

Having help; often used as a combining form.

- A “aided” approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as “aided” when it is having help; often used as a combining form.

alpha particle (noun)

A positively charged particle that is the nucleus of the helium atom; emitted from natural or radioactive isotopes.

- He looked up "alpha particle" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "alpha particle" to mean a positively charged particle that is the nucleus....

americas (noun)

North America and South America and Central America.

- The article explained what "americas" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "americas."

amusement (noun)

A feeling of delight at being entertained.

- The article explained what "amusement" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "amusement" during the group presentation.

anchor rope (noun)

The chain or rope that attaches an anchor to a vessel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anchor rope."
- He looked up "anchor rope" because he had never seen it before.

anglo-catholic (adjective)

Supporting the Anglican Church.

- The speaker chose "anglo-catholic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "anglo-catholic"? Explain why.

antibiotics (noun)

A chemical substance derivable from a mold or bacterium that can kill microorganisms and cure bacterial infections.

- When antibiotics were first discovered they were called wonder drugs.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "antibiotics."

anticipation (noun)

Something expected (as on the basis of a norm).

- Each of them had their own anticipations.
- They discussed "anticipation" during the group presentation.

apple turnover (noun)

Turnover with an apple filling.

- They discussed "apple turnover" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "apple turnover" to mean turnover with an apple filling.

appropriately (adverb)

In an appropriate manner.

- He was appropriately dressed.
- Place "appropriately" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

arrests (noun)

The state of inactivity following an interruption.

- He looked up "arrests" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "arrests" to mean the state of inactivity following an interruption.

arrogant (adjective)

Having or showing feelings of unwarranted importance out of overbearing pride.

- An arrogant official.
- Arrogant claims.

assessing (verb)

Estimate the value of (property) for taxation.

- The coach explained when to use "assessing" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "assessing" until he saw an example.

---

atmospheric electricity (noun)

Electrical discharges in the atmosphere.

- In class, the teacher used "atmospheric electricity" to mean electrical discharges in the atmosphere.
- Understanding "atmospheric electricity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

authorization (noun)

The power or right to give orders or make decisions.

- Deputies are given authorization to make arrests.
- The article explained what "authorization" means with a simple example.

---

auxiliary (noun)

Someone who acts as assistant.

- In class, the teacher used "auxiliary" to mean someone who acts as assistant.
- The article explained what "auxiliary" means with a simple example.

---

baggage (noun)

The portable equipment and supplies of an army.

- In class, the teacher used "baggage" to mean the portable equipment and supplies of an army.
- He looked up "baggage" because he had never seen it before.

---

bald-faced (adjective)

Unrestrained by convention or propriety; ; ; - Los Angeles Times; ; ; - Bertrand Russell.

- Bald-faced lies.
- A "bald-faced" approach may work better in this case.

---

bath mat (noun)

A heavy towel or mat to stand on while drying yourself after a bath.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bath mat."
- They discussed "bath mat" during the group presentation.

---

beacon (noun)

A tower with a light that gives warning of shoals to passing ships.

- He looked up "beacon" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "beacon" during the group presentation.

---

belts (noun)

An elongated region where a specific condition or characteristic is found.

- He looked up "belts" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "belts."

---

bi-fold door (noun)

An interior door.

- The article explained what "bi-fold door" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bi-fold door."

---

blue crab (noun)

Atlantic crab; most common source of fresh crabmeat.

- In class, the teacher used "blue crab" to mean atlantic crab; most common source of fresh crabmeat.
- The article explained what "blue crab" means with a simple example.

---

bodily function (noun)

An organic process that takes place in the body.

- The article explained what "bodily function" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "bodily function" during the group presentation.

bodily structure (noun)

A particular complex anatomical part of a living thing.

- He has good bone structure.
- He looked up "bodily structure" because he had never seen it before.

body armour (noun)

Armor that protects the wearer's whole body.

- Understanding "body armour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "body armour" because he had never seen it before.

boiling point (noun)

The temperature at which a liquid boils at sea level.

- After an hour of waiting I was at the boiling point.
- In class, the teacher used "boiling point" to mean the temperature at which a liquid boils at sea level.

bounty (noun)

A ship of the British navy; in 1789 part of the crew mutinied against their commander William Bligh and set him afloat in an open boat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bounty."
- He looked up "bounty" because he had never seen it before.

boxer (noun)

A workman employed to pack things into containers.

- He looked up "boxer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "boxer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

boy scouts of america (noun)

A corporation that operates through a national council that charters local councils all over the United States; the purpose is character building and citizenship training.

- In class, the teacher used "boy scouts of america" to mean a corporation that operates through a national....
- The article explained what "boy scouts of america" means with a simple example.

briefing (noun)

Detailed instructions, as for a military operation.

- He looked up "briefing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "briefing."

brook (noun)

A natural stream of water smaller than a river (and often a tributary of a river).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brook."
- Understanding "brook" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

buffer solution (noun)

A solution containing a buffer.

- They discussed "buffer solution" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buffer solution."

butcher board (noun)

A thick wooden slab formed by bonding together thick laminated strips of unpainted hardwood.

- They discussed "butcher board" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "butcher board" because he had never seen it before.

capital of rhode island (noun)

The capital and largest city of Rhode Island; located in northeastern Rhode Island on Narragansett Bay; site of Brown University.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of rhode island" to mean the capital and largest city of rhode island;....
- They discussed "capital of rhode island" during the group presentation.

carbon dioxide (noun)

A heavy odorless colorless gas formed during respiration and by the decomposition of organic substances; absorbed from the air by plants in photosynthesis.

- They discussed "carbon dioxide" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "carbon dioxide" to mean a heavy odorless colorless gas formed during....

---

cardiac muscle (noun)

The muscle tissue of the heart; adapted to continued rhythmic contraction.

- In class, the teacher used "cardiac muscle" to mean the muscle tissue of the heart; adapted to....
- He looked up "cardiac muscle" because he had never seen it before.

---

cardiac output (noun)

The amount of blood pumped out by the ventricles in a given period of time.

- A resting adult has a cardiac output of about three quarts a minute.
- He looked up "cardiac output" because he had never seen it before.

---

cartoons (noun)

A humorous or satirical drawing published in a newspaper or magazine.

- The article explained what "cartoons" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cartoons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ceramic (adjective)

Of or relating to or made from a ceramic.

- A ceramic dish.
- Students compared "ceramic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

cereal (adjective)

Made of grain or relating to grain or the plants that produce it.

- A cereal beverage.
- Cereal grasses.

---

challenger (noun)

The contestant you hope to defeat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "challenger."
- He looked up "challenger" because he had never seen it before.

---

chased (noun)

A person who is being chased.

- He looked up "chased" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "chased" during the group presentation.

---

christopher carson (noun)

United States frontiersman who guided Fremont's expeditions in the 1840s and served as a Union general in the American Civil War (1809-1868).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "christopher carson."
- He looked up "christopher carson" because he had never seen it before.

---

classical conditioning (noun)

Conditioning that pairs a neutral stimulus with a stimulus that evokes a reflex; the stimulus that evokes the reflex is given whether or not the conditioned response occurs until eventually the neutral stimulus comes to evoke the reflex.

- He looked up "classical conditioning" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "classical conditioning."

---

clergy (noun)

In Christianity, clergymen collectively (as distinguished from the laity).

- He looked up "clergy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "clergy" during the group presentation.

---

closed interval (noun)

An interval that includes its endpoints.

- They discussed “closed interval” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “closed interval” means with a simple example.

---

coastal diving bird (noun)

Gull family; skimmer family; jaeger family; auk family.

- They discussed “coastal diving bird” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “coastal diving bird” means with a simple example.

---

coats (noun)

A thin layer covering something.

- He looked up “coats” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coats.”

---

cola (noun)

Large genus of African trees bearing kola nuts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cola.”
- He looked up “cola” because he had never seen it before.

---

coma (noun)

A state of deep and often prolonged unconsciousness; usually the result of disease or injury.

- Understanding “coma” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coma.”

---

comfortably (adverb)

In mental comfort; without stress.

- He works comfortably on three continents.
- She could have been lying comfortably in bed getting the same relief.

---

commanders (noun)

An officer in command of a military unit.

- The article explained what “commanders” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “commanders” during the group presentation.

---

common heath (noun)

Small erect shrub of Australia and Tasmania with fragrant ivory flowers.

- The article explained what “common heath” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “common heath” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

common pitcher plant (noun)

Perennial bog herb having dark red flowers and decumbent broadly winged pitchers forming a rosette; of northeastern North America and naturalized in Europe especially Ireland.

- The article explained what “common pitcher plant” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “common pitcher plant.”

---

comparative degree (noun)

The comparative form of an adjective or adverb.

- ‘faster’ is the comparative of the adjective ‘fast’.
- ‘less famous’ is the comparative degree of the adjective ‘famous’.

---

compass (noun)

An area in which something acts or operates or has power or control:.

- Within the compass of this article.
- Within the compass of education.

---

congo red (noun)

A red-brown azo dye especially as a chemical pH indicator (congo red is red in basic and blue in acidic solutions).

- They discussed “congo red” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “congo red” because he had never seen it before.

considerations (noun)

A discussion of a topic (as in a meeting).

- The article explained what "considerations" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "considerations" to mean a discussion of a topic (as in a meeting).

consultants (noun)

An expert who gives advice.

- Understanding "consultants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "consultants" because he had never seen it before.

contempt (noun)

A manner that is generally disrespectful and contemptuous.

- He was held in contempt.
- He looked up "contempt" because he had never seen it before.

credentials (noun)

A document attesting to the truth of certain stated facts.

- Understanding "credentials" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "credentials."

croatia (noun)

A republic in the western Balkans in south-central Europe in the eastern Adriatic coastal area; formerly part of the Habsburg monarchy and Yugoslavia; became independent in 1991.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "croatia."
- They discussed "croatia" during the group presentation.

cured (adjective)

Freed from illness or injury; ; ; ; - Normon Cameron.

- The patient appears cured.
- The speaker chose "cured" because it captured the feeling precisely.

daylight savings (noun)

Time during which clocks are set one hour ahead of local standard time; widely adopted during summer to provide extra daylight in the evenings.

- They discussed "daylight savings" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daylight savings."

daylight-savings time (noun)

Time during which clocks are set one hour ahead of local standard time; widely adopted during summer to provide extra daylight in the evenings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daylight-savings time."
- He looked up "daylight-savings time" because he had never seen it before.

delaware memorial bridge (noun)

A suspension bridge across the Delaware River.

- In class, the teacher used "delaware memorial bridge" to mean a suspension bridge across the delaware river.
- The article explained what "delaware memorial bridge" means with a simple example.

departure lounge (noun)

Lounge where passengers can await departure.

- He looked up "departure lounge" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "departure lounge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dice box (noun)

A small container (open at one end) in which dice are shaken by hand and from which they are thrown.

- He looked up "dice box" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dice box" during the group presentation.

dice cup (noun)

A small container (open at one end) in which dice are shaken by hand and from which they are thrown.

- The article explained what "dice cup" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dice cup" during the group presentation.

---

differential gear (noun)

A bevel gear that permits rotation of two shafts at different speeds; used on the rear axle of automobiles to allow wheels to rotate at different speeds on curves.

- He looked up "differential gear" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "differential gear."

---

dispatch box (noun)

Case consisting of an oblong container (usually having a lock) for carrying dispatches or other valuables.

- The article explained what "dispatch box" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dispatch box" to mean case consisting of an oblong container (usually....

---

drowned (verb)

Be covered with or submerged in a liquid.

- I was drowned in work.
- The noise drowned out her speech.

---

drying (verb)

Remove the moisture from and make dry.

- He did not know how to use "drying" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "drying" in real sentences.

---

drying up (noun)

The process of extracting moisture.

- Understanding "drying up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "drying up" because he had never seen it before.

---

dwelling (noun)

Housing that someone is living in.

- He built a modest dwelling near the pond.
- Understanding "dwelling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dwelling house (noun)

Housing that someone is living in.

- He built a modest dwelling near the pond.
- In class, the teacher used "dwelling house" to mean housing that someone is living in.

---

eagle scout (noun)

A Boy Scout who has earned many merit badges.

- Understanding "eagle scout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "eagle scout" to mean a boy scout who has earned many merit badges.

---

eagle-eyed (adjective)

Capable of seeing to a great distance.

- It is useful to describe something as "eagle-eyed" when it is capable of seeing to a great distance.
- A "eagle-eyed" approach may work better in this case.

---

earl of leicester (noun)

An English nobleman who led the baronial rebellion against Henry III (1208-1265).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earl of leicester."
- The article explained what "earl of leicester" means with a simple example.

---

early coral root (noun)

Plant having clumps of nearly leafless pale yellowish to greenish stems bearing similarly colored flowers with white lower lips; northern New Mexico north through South Dakota and Washington to Alaska.

- Understanding "early coral root" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “early coral root.”

---

east sussex (noun)

A county in southern England on the English Channel.

- He looked up “east sussex” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “east sussex” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ecology (noun)

The environment as it relates to living organisms.

- It changed the ecology of the island.
- He looked up “ecology” because he had never seen it before.

---

economic geology (noun)

The branch of geology that deals with economically valuable geological materials.

- The article explained what “economic geology” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “economic geology” during the group presentation.

---

eighty-five (adjective)

Being five more than eighty.

- A “eighty-five” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “eighty-five” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

eighty-four (adjective)

Being four more than eighty.

- A “eighty-four” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “eighty-four.”

---

eighty-six (adjective)

Being six more than eighty.

- The speaker chose “eighty-six” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “eighty-six” approach may work better in this case.

---

einstein (noun)

Someone who has exceptional intellectual ability and originality.

- He’s smart but he’s no Einstein.
- They discussed “einstein” during the group presentation.

---

element of a cone (noun)

A straight line joining the apex and a point on the base.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “element of a cone.”
- He looked up “element of a cone” because he had never seen it before.

---

emergence (noun)

The gradual beginning or coming forth.

- Figurines presage the emergence of sculpture in Greece.
- Not a day’s difference between the emergence of the andrenas and the opening of the willow catkins.

---

enclosed (adjective)

Closed in or surrounded or included within.

- An enclosed porch.
- An enclosed yard.

---

english iris (noun)

Bulbous iris native to the Pyrenees; widely cultivated for its large delicate flowers in various colors except yellow.

- They discussed “english iris” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “english iris” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

enlisted person (noun)

A serviceman who ranks below a commissioned officer.

- The article explained what "enlisted person" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "enlisted person" to mean a serviceman who ranks below a commissioned officer.

---

enlisted woman (noun)

A female enlisted person in the armed forces.

- In class, the teacher used "enlisted woman" to mean a female enlisted person in the armed forces.
- The article explained what "enlisted woman" means with a simple example.

---

erotic (adjective)

Giving sexual pleasure; sexually arousing.

- Students compared "erotic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "erotic" approach may work better in this case.

---

erotic love (noun)

A deep feeling of sexual desire and attraction.

- Their love left them indifferent to their surroundings.
- She was his first love.

---

evolutionary trend (noun)

A general direction of evolutionary change.

- In class, the teacher used "evolutionary trend" to mean a general direction of evolutionary change.
- He looked up "evolutionary trend" because he had never seen it before.

---

exceptionally (adverb)

To an exceptional degree.

- It worked exceptionally well.
- The narrator describes the scene "exceptionally" in the final chapter.

---

exchanged (adjective)

Changed for (replaced by) something different.

- A "exchanged" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "exchanged" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

fairness commission (noun)

A commission delegated to ensure opportunities for the expression of opposing views.

- In class, the teacher used "fairness commission" to mean a commission delegated to ensure opportunities for....
- Understanding "fairness commission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

falcon (noun)

Diurnal birds of prey having long pointed powerful wings adapted for swift flight.

- The article explained what "falcon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "falcon."

---

fat metabolism (noun)

A metabolic process that breaks down ingested fats into fatty acids and glycerol and then into simpler compounds that can be used by cells of the body.

- In class, the teacher used "fat metabolism" to mean a metabolic process that breaks down ingested fats....
- The article explained what "fat metabolism" means with a simple example.

---

favors (noun)

An advantage to the benefit of someone or something.

- The article explained what "favors" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "favors."

---

flesh-coloured (adjective)

Having a bright red or pinkish color.

- Would you call this situation "flesh-coloured"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flesh-coloured."

---

flint glass (noun)

Optical glass of high dispersion and high refractive index.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flint glass."
- Understanding "flint glass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

foam at the mouth (verb)

Be in a state of uncontrolled anger.

- The coach explained when to use "foam at the mouth" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "foam at the mouth" until he saw an example.

---

folder (noun)

A small book usually having a paper cover.

- In class, the teacher used "folder" to mean a small book usually having a paper cover.
- The article explained what "folder" means with a simple example.

---

food pyramid (noun)

(ecology) a hierarchy of food chains with the principal predator at the top; each level preys on the level below.

- Understanding "food pyramid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "food pyramid" because he had never seen it before.

---

frequencies (noun)

The number of occurrences within a given time period.

- Understanding "frequencies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "frequencies" means with a simple example.

---

frightened (adjective)

Thrown into a state of intense fear or desperation.

- The frightened child cowered in the corner.
- It is useful to describe something as "frightened" when it is thrown into a state of intense fear or desperation.

---

genetic marker (noun)

A specific gene that produces a recognizable trait and can be used in family or population studies.

- They discussed "genetic marker" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genetic marker."

---

geological formation (noun)

(geology) the geological features of the earth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geological formation."
- He looked up "geological formation" because he had never seen it before.

---

gold foil (noun)

Foil made of gold.

- He looked up "gold foil" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gold foil."

---

grandma moses (noun)

United States painter of colorful and primitive rural scenes (1860-1961).

- They discussed "grandma moses" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "grandma moses" to mean united states painter of colorful and primitive....

---

gray sage (noun)

Low much-branched perennial of western United States having silvery leaves; an important browse and shelter plant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gray sage."
- He looked up "gray sage" because he had never seen it before.

green gram (noun)

Erect bushy annual widely cultivated in warm regions of India and Indonesia and United States for forage and especially its edible seeds; chief source of bean sprouts used in Chinese cookery; sometimes placed in genus Phaseolus.

- In class, the teacher used "green gram" to mean erect bushy annual widely cultivated in warm....
- The article explained what "green gram" means with a simple example.

grey sage (noun)

Low much-branched perennial of western United States having silvery leaves; an important browse and shelter plant.

- They discussed "grey sage" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grey sage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ground cedar (noun)

A procumbent variety of the common juniper.

- He looked up "ground cedar" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground cedar."

hay fever (noun)

A seasonal rhinitis resulting from an allergic reaction to pollen.

- Understanding "hay fever" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hay fever" to mean a seasonal rhinitis resulting from an allergic....

hedge in (verb)

Enclose or bound in with or as it with a hedge or hedges.

- Hedge the property.
- Learners should practice how to use "hedge in" in real sentences.

herb doctor (noun)

A therapist who heals by the use of herbs.

- Understanding "herb doctor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "herb doctor" to mean a therapist who heals by the use of herbs.

herb robert (noun)

A sticky low herb with small reddish-purple flowers; widespread in the northern hemisphere.

- They discussed "herb robert" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "herb robert" to mean a sticky low herb with small reddish-purple....

higher national diploma (noun)

A diploma given for vocational training that prepares the student for a career in a particular area; good students may progress to a course leading to a degree.

- They discussed "higher national diploma" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "higher national diploma" because he had never seen it before.

holy scripture (noun)

The sacred writings of the Christian religions.

- They discussed "holy scripture" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "holy scripture."

home-cured (adjective)

Cured at home.

- Home-cured hams.
- A "home-cured" approach may work better in this case.

homer thompson (noun)

United States classical archaeologist (born in Canada) noted for leading the excavation of the Athenian agora (1906-2000).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "homer thompson."
- They discussed "homer thompson" during the group presentation.

ice-cream cone (noun)

Ice cream in a crisp conical wafer.

- The article explained what "ice-cream cone" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ice-cream cone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

icons (noun)

A visual representation (of an object or scene or person or abstraction) produced on a surface.

- In class, the teacher used "icons" to mean a visual representation (of an object or scene or....
- Understanding "icons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

imaginary part of a complex number (noun)

The part of a complex number that has the square root of -1 as a factor.

- The article explained what "imaginary part of a complex number" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "imaginary part of a complex number" to mean the part of a complex number that has the square....

---

in vain (adverb)

To no avail.

- He looked for her in vain.
- The city fathers tried vainly to find a solution.

---

initiate (verb)

Set in motion, start an event or prepare the way for.

- He initiated a new program.
- African men are initiated when they reach puberty.

---

inserted (verb)

Put or introduce into something.

- The coach explained when to use "inserted" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "inserted" in real sentences.

---

investment banker (noun)

A banker who deals chiefly in underwriting new securities.

- Understanding "investment banker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "investment banker" to mean a banker who deals chiefly in underwriting new....

---

ironically (adverb)

Contrary to plan or expectation.

- Ironically, he ended up losing money under his own plan.
- She began to mimic him ironically.

---

istanbul (noun)

The largest city and former capital of Turkey; rebuilt on the site of ancient Byzantium by Constantine I in the fourth century; renamed Constantinople by Constantine who made it the capital of the Byzantine Empire; now the seat of the Eastern Orthodox Church.

- Understanding "istanbul" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "istanbul."

---

jacobs (noun)

English writer of macabre short stories (1863-1943).

- Understanding "jacobs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jacobs."

---

jane doe (noun)

An unknown or fictitious woman who is a party to legal proceedings.

- Understanding "jane doe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jane doe" means with a simple example.

---

jealousy (noun)

A feeling of jealous envy (especially of a rival).

- Cherish their official political freedom with fierce jealousy.

- In class, the teacher used "jealousy" to mean a feeling of jealous envy (especially of a rival).

---

jim crow (noun)

A crowbar fitted with a claw for pulling nails.

- The article explained what "jim crow" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "jim crow" during the group presentation.

---

john knox (noun)

Scottish theologian who founded Presbyterianism in Scotland and wrote a history of the Reformation in Scotland (1514-1572).

- They discussed "john knox" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "john knox" because he had never seen it before.

---

joker (noun)

A person who does something thoughtless or annoying.

- Some joker is blocking the driveway.
- When I demanded my money he showed me the joker in the contract.

---

keen-eyed (adjective)

Having keen eyesight.

- A "keen-eyed" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "keen-eyed"? Explain why.

---

king crab (noun)

A large spider crab of Europe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "king crab."
- He looked up "king crab" because he had never seen it before.

---

kingdom of morocco (noun)

A kingdom (constitutional monarchy) in northwestern Africa with a largely Muslim population; achieved independence from France in 1956.

- In class, the teacher used "kingdom of morocco" to mean a kingdom (constitutional monarchy) in northwestern....
- The article explained what "kingdom of morocco" means with a simple example.

---

kingston (noun)

A town in southeast Ontario on Lake Ontario near the head of the Saint Lawrence River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kingston."
- The article explained what "kingston" means with a simple example.

---

laden (verb)

Remove with or as if with a ladle.

- Learners should practice how to use "laden" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "laden" when talking about this idea.

---

lake trout (noun)

Large fork-tailed trout of lakes of Canada and the northern United States.

- They discussed "lake trout" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lake trout."

---

laser printer (noun)

Electrostatic printer that focuses a laser beam to form images that are transferred to paper electrostatically.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laser printer."
- They discussed "laser printer" during the group presentation.

---

lateral line (noun)

Sense organs of fish and amphibians; believed to detect pressure changes in the water.

- The article explained what "lateral line" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lateral line."

---

lateral thinking (noun)

A heuristic for solving problems; you try to look at the problem from many angles instead of tackling it head-on.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lateral thinking.”
- He looked up “lateral thinking” because he had never seen it before.

---

learns (verb)

Get to know or become aware of, usually accidentally.

- In everyday English, people use “learns” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “learns” until he saw an example.

---

lethal gene (noun)

Any gene that has an effect that causes the death of the organism at any stage of life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lethal gene.”
- Understanding “lethal gene” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

limbs (noun)

The graduated arc that is attached to an instrument for measuring angles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “limbs.”
- He looked up “limbs” because he had never seen it before.

---

lime juice (noun)

Usually freshly squeezed juice of limes.

- They discussed “lime juice” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “lime juice” to mean usually freshly squeezed juice of limes.

---

little skate (noun)

Most plentiful skate in North American inshore waters in summer; to 21 inches.

- He looked up “little skate” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “little skate” to mean most plentiful skate in north american inshore....

---

loading dock (noun)

A platform where trucks or trains can be loaded or unloaded.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “loading dock.”
- He looked up “loading dock” because he had never seen it before.

---

maiden pink (noun)

Low-growing loosely mat-forming Eurasian pink with a single pale pink flower with a crimson center.

- Understanding “maiden pink” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “maiden pink” means with a simple example.

---

male offspring (noun)

A child who is male.

- They discussed “male offspring” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “male offspring” because he had never seen it before.

---

mccarthy (noun)

United States satirical novelist and literary critic (1912-1989).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mccarthy.”
- They discussed “mccarthy” during the group presentation.

---

metric ton (noun)

A unit of weight equivalent to 1000 kilograms.

- They discussed “metric ton” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “metric ton” to mean a unit of weight equivalent to 1000 kilograms.

---

microwave bomb (noun)

A bomb that explodes in midair and releases a massive burst of electromagnetic energy sufficient to disable computers and telecommunications without killing people or damaging buildings.

- They discussed “microwave bomb” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “microwave bomb” because he had never seen it before.

---

mil (noun)

A Swedish unit of length equivalent to 10 km.

- He looked up “mil” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “mil” to mean a swedish unit of length equivalent to 10 km.

---

mit (noun)

An engineering university in Cambridge.

- In class, the teacher used “mit” to mean an engineering university in cambridge.
- Understanding “mit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

month of sundays (noun)

A time perceived as long.

- I hadn’t seen him in a month of Sundays.
- In class, the teacher used “month of sundays” to mean a time perceived as long.

---

motor nerve fiber (noun)

A neuron conducting impulses outwards from the brain or spinal cord.

- The article explained what “motor nerve fiber” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “motor nerve fiber” to mean a neuron conducting impulses outwards from the....

---

muhammad ali (noun)

United States prizefighter who won the world heavyweight championship three times (born in 1942).

- Understanding “muhammad ali” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “muhammad ali” because he had never seen it before.

---

naive art (noun)

A genre of art and outdoor constructions made by untrained artists who do not recognize themselves as artists.

- Understanding “naive art” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “naive art” to mean a genre of art and outdoor constructions made by....

---

neural network (noun)

Any network of neurons or nuclei that function together to perform some function in the body.

- They discussed “neural network” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “neural network” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

newark (noun)

The largest city in New Jersey; located in northeastern New Jersey.

- In class, the teacher used “newark” to mean the largest city in new jersey; located in....
- They discussed “newark” during the group presentation.

---

ni-resist (noun)

Cast iron consisting of graphite in a matrix of austenite.

- Understanding “ni-resist” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ni-resist.”

---

nod (noun)

A sign of assent or salutation or command.

- The article explained what “nod” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “nod” to mean a sign of assent or salutation or command.

---

non-finite (adjective)

Of verbs; having neither person nor number nor mood (as a participle or gerund or infinitive).

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “non-finite.”
- Students compared “non-finite” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

northern baptist convention (noun)

An association of Northern Baptists.

- He looked up "northern baptist convention" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "northern baptist convention" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

northern cricket frog (noun)

A cricket frog of eastern and central United States.

- The article explained what "northern cricket frog" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "northern cricket frog" during the group presentation.

notebook (noun)

A book with blank pages for recording notes or memoranda.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "notebook."
- He looked up "notebook" because he had never seen it before.

nude statue (noun)

A statue of a naked human figure.

- In class, the teacher used "nude statue" to mean a statue of a naked human figure.
- He looked up "nude statue" because he had never seen it before.

nut and bolt (noun)

A fastener made by screwing a nut onto a threaded bolt.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nut and bolt."
- The article explained what "nut and bolt" means with a simple example.

obesity diet (noun)

A diet designed to help you lose weight (especially fat).

- The article explained what "obesity diet" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "obesity diet" to mean a diet designed to help you lose weight (especially....

offs (verb)

Kill intentionally and with premeditation.

- The coach explained when to use "offs" and when to wait.
- Can you use "offs" in a sentence that fits this situation?

optical fusion (noun)

The combining of images from the two eyes to form a single visual percept.

- In class, the teacher used "optical fusion" to mean the combining of images from the two eyes to form a....
- Understanding "optical fusion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

orange peel (noun)

Strips of orange peel cooked in sugar and coated with sugar.

- He looked up "orange peel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orange peel."

overweight (noun)

The property of excessive fatness.

- In class, the teacher used "overweight" to mean the property of excessive fatness.
- He looked up "overweight" because he had never seen it before.

palette (noun)

The range of colour characteristic of a particular artist or painting or school of art.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "palette."
- Understanding "palette" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

paris daisy (noun)

Perennial subshrub of the Canary Islands having usually pale yellow daisylike flowers; often included in genus Chrysanthemum.

- The article explained what “paris daisy” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “paris daisy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

party liner (noun)

A member of a political party who follows strictly the party line.

- Understanding “party liner” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “party liner” to mean a member of a political party who follows strictly....

---

peach tree (noun)

Cultivated in temperate regions.

- They discussed “peach tree” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “peach tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

phenomena (noun)

Any state or process known through the senses rather than by intuition or reasoning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “phenomena.”
- He looked up “phenomena” because he had never seen it before.

---

photographic film (noun)

Photographic material consisting of a base of celluloid covered with a photographic emulsion; used to make negatives or transparencies.

- He looked up “photographic film” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “photographic film” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

photographic paper (noun)

Light-sensitive paper on which photograph can be printed.

- Understanding “photographic paper” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “photographic paper.”

---

ping river (noun)

A river in western Thailand; a major tributary of the Chao Phraya.

- In class, the teacher used “ping river” to mean a river in western thailand; a major tributary of....
- The article explained what “ping river” means with a simple example.

---

pipe cleaner (noun)

Cleaning implement consisting of a flexible tufted wire that is used to clean a pipe stem.

- He looked up “pipe cleaner” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “pipe cleaner” to mean cleaning implement consisting of a flexible tufted....

---

pipe rack (noun)

A rack for holding a smoker’s pipes.

- The article explained what “pipe rack” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “pipe rack” to mean a rack for holding a smoker’s pipes.

---

place upright (verb)

Put into an upright position.

- Learners should practice how to use “place upright” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “place upright” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pneumonia (noun)

Respiratory disease characterized by inflammation of the lung parenchyma (excluding the bronchi) with congestion caused by viruses or bacteria or irritants.

- In class, the teacher used “pneumonia” to mean respiratory disease characterized by inflammation....
- He looked up “pneumonia” because he had never seen it before.

---

pocket borough (noun)

A sparsely populated borough in which all or most of the land is owned by a single family.

- Understanding “pocket borough” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pocket borough.”

policeman (noun)

A member of a police force.

- He looked up “policeman” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “policeman” to mean a member of a police force.

portland cement (noun)

A cement that hardens under water; made by heating limestone and clay in a kiln and pulverizing the result.

- In class, the teacher used “portland cement” to mean a cement that hardens under water; made by heating....
- The article explained what “portland cement” means with a simple example.

portuguese guinea (noun)

A republic on the northwestern coast of Africa; recognized as independent by Portugal in 1974.

- Understanding “portuguese guinea” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “portuguese guinea” during the group presentation.

portuguese monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Portugal.

- Understanding “portuguese monetary unit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “portuguese monetary unit” means with a simple example.

postponed (verb)

Hold back to a later time.

- The coach explained when to use “postponed” and when to wait.
- Can you use “postponed” in a sentence that fits this situation?

potato bean (noun)

A North American vine with fragrant blossoms and edible tubers; important food crop of Native Americans.

- The article explained what “potato bean” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “potato bean” to mean a north american vine with fragrant blossoms and....

potent (adjective)

Having a strong physiological or chemical effect; ; ; ,.

- A potent toxin.
- Potent liquor.

prayer mat (noun)

A small rug used by Muslims during their devotions.

- They discussed “prayer mat” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “prayer mat” to mean a small rug used by muslims during their devotions.

preceding (adjective)

Of a person who has held and relinquished a position or office.

- The speaker chose “preceding” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “preceding” approach may work better in this case.

precision cookie (noun)

A cookie that is saved permanently on your hard drive.

- In class, the teacher used “precision cookie” to mean a cookie that is saved permanently on your hard drive.
- They discussed “precision cookie” during the group presentation.

predators (noun)

Any animal that lives by preying on other animals.

- Understanding “predators” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “predators” to mean any animal that lives by preying on other animals.

pro-choice faction (noun)

Those who argue that the decision to have an induced abortion should be made by the mother.

- The article explained what "pro-choice faction" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pro-choice faction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

psycho (noun)

A person afflicted with psychosis.

- Understanding "psycho" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "psycho" during the group presentation.

---

purple heather (noun)

Semi-prostrate evergreen herb of western United States.

- They discussed "purple heather" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "purple heather" to mean semi-prostrate evergreen herb of western united states.

---

push-down queue (noun)

A queue in which the last item to go in is the first item to come out (LIFO).

- Understanding "push-down queue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "push-down queue" because he had never seen it before.

---

rainy (adjective)

(of weather) wet by periods of rain.

- Rainy days.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rainy."

---

rainy day (noun)

A (future) time of financial need.

- I am saving for a rainy day.
- The article explained what "rainy day" means with a simple example.

---

rams (verb)

Strike or drive against with a heavy impact.

- In everyday English, people use "rams" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "rams" until he saw an example.

---

ranged (verb)

Range or extend over; occupy a certain area.

- The instruments ranged from tuba to cymbals.
- Can you use "ranged" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

recognizes (verb)

Express obligation, thanks, or gratitude for.

- Can you use "recognizes" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "recognizes" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

red dwarf (noun)

A small, old, relatively cool star; approximately 100 times the mass of Jupiter.

- The article explained what "red dwarf" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "red dwarf" to mean a small, old, relatively cool star; approximately....

---

reduced instruction set computing (noun)

(computer science) a kind of computer architecture that has a relatively small set of computer instructions that it can perform.

- In class, the teacher used "reduced instruction set computing" to mean (computer science) a kind of computer architecture....
- Understanding "reduced instruction set computing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

relative humidity (noun)

The ratio of the amount of water in the air at a give temperature to the maximum amount it could hold at that temperature; expressed as a percentage.

- They discussed "relative humidity" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "relative humidity."

---

reverend (noun)

A member of the clergy and a spiritual leader of the Christian Church.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reverend."
- They discussed "reverend" during the group presentation.

---

rewarding (adjective)

Providing personal satisfaction.

- A rewarding career as a paramedic.
- The speaker chose "rewarding" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

rock crab (noun)

Crab of eastern coast of North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rock crab."
- Understanding "rock crab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rocky mountain bee plant (noun)

Plant of western North America having trifoliate leaves and white or pink spider-shaped flowers; sometimes used as an ornamental.

- Understanding "rocky mountain bee plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rocky mountain bee plant."

---

rocky mountain goat (noun)

Sure-footed mammal of mountainous northwestern North America.

- He looked up "rocky mountain goat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rocky mountain goat."

---

roger sherman (noun)

American Revolutionary leader and signer of the Declaration of Independence and the Articles of Confederation and the United States Constitution (1721-1793).

- They discussed "roger sherman" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "roger sherman" means with a simple example.

---

rope ladder (noun)

A ladder with side pieces of rope.

- He looked up "rope ladder" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rope ladder."

---

row of bricks (noun)

A course of bricks place next to each other (usually in a straight line).

- They discussed "row of bricks" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "row of bricks."

---

royal jelly (noun)

A secretion of the pharyngeal glands of bees that is fed to very young larvae and to bees destined to be queens.

- They discussed "royal jelly" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "royal jelly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rust (verb)

Become destroyed by water, air, or a corrosive such as an acid.

- The pipes rusted.
- The steady dripping of water rusted the metal stopper in the sink.

---

sa node (noun)

A specialized bit of heart tissue that controls the heartbeat.

- In class, the teacher used "sa node" to mean a specialized bit of heart tissue that controls the....
- The article explained what "sa node" means with a simple example.

sacred trinity (noun)

The union of the Father and Son and Holy Ghost in one Godhead.

- They discussed "sacred trinity" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sacred trinity" means with a simple example.

saint johns (noun)

A river in northeastern Florida that flows northward to Jacksonville and then eastward to empty into the Atlantic Ocean.

- They discussed "saint johns" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "saint johns" because he had never seen it before.

salty (adjective)

Containing or filled with salt.

- A "salty" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "salty"? Explain why.

sausage meat (noun)

Any meat that is minced and spiced and cooked as patties or used to fill sausages.

- In class, the teacher used "sausage meat" to mean any meat that is minced and spiced and cooked as....
- Understanding "sausage meat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

scots (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Scotland or its people or culture or its English dialect or Gaelic language.

- Scots Gaelic.
- The Scots community in New York.

sea rover (noun)

Someone who robs at sea or plunders the land from the sea without having a commission from any sovereign nation.

- The article explained what "sea rover" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sea rover" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

seizure (noun)

A sudden occurrence (or recurrence) of a disease.

- He suffered an epileptic seizure.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seizure."

serum (noun)

An amber, watery fluid, rich in proteins, that separates out when blood coagulates.

- He looked up "serum" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "serum" during the group presentation.

seventy-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of seventy-five in counting order.

- It is useful to describe something as "seventy-fifth" when it is the ordinal number of seventy-five in counting order.
- The speaker chose "seventy-fifth" because it captured the feeling precisely.

significant digit (noun)

Any digit of a number that is known with certainty; any digit of a number beginning with the leftmost non-zero digit and ending with the rightmost non-zero digit (or a zero considered to be the exact value).

- He calculated the answer to four significant figures.
- In class, the teacher used "significant digit" to mean any digit of a number that is known with certainty;....

singular (noun)

The form of a word that is used to denote a singleton.

- They discussed "singular" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "singular."

sir oliver joseph lodge (noun)

English physicist who studied electromagnetic radiation and was a pioneer of radiotelegraphy (1851-1940).

- The article explained what "sir oliver joseph lodge" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sir oliver joseph lodge" to mean english physicist who studied electromagnetic....

---

sir richard burton (noun)

English explorer who with John Speke was the first European to explore Lake Tanganyika (1821-1890).

- The article explained what "sir richard burton" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir richard burton."

---

sir robert peel (noun)

British politician (1788-1850).

- He looked up "sir robert peel" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sir robert peel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

skate over (verb)

Treat hurriedly or avoid dealing with properly.

- The coach explained when to use "skate over" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "skate over" in real sentences.

---

sofia (noun)

Capital and largest city of Bulgaria located in western Bulgaria.

- Understanding "sofia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sofia" to mean capital and largest city of bulgaria located in....

---

spatial property (noun)

Any property relating to or occupying space.

- The article explained what "spatial property" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "spatial property" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spelling bee (noun)

A contest in which you are eliminated if you fail to spell a word correctly.

- In class, the teacher used "spelling bee" to mean a contest in which you are eliminated if you fail....
- The article explained what "spelling bee" means with a simple example.

---

stiff-backed (adjective)

Having a stiff back.

- The guards stood stiff-backed and unsmiling.
- A "stiff-backed" approach may work better in this case.

---

stud (verb)

Scatter or intersperse like dots or studs.

- Stud the wall.
- The coach explained when to use "stud" and when to wait.

---

sub rosa (adverb)

In secret or covertly.

- Held a meeting sub rosa to avoid general criticism.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "sub rosa" naturally.

---

sub-rosa (adjective)

Designed and carried out secretly or confidentially.

- A sub-rosa report.
- Would you call this situation "sub-rosa"? Explain why.

---

sunk (adjective)

Doomed to extinction.

- A "sunk" approach may work better in this case.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “sunk.”

supper (noun)

A social gathering where a light evening meal is served.

- Her suppers often included celebrities.
- They discussed “supper” during the group presentation.

swan-flower (noun)

Any of several orchids of the genus Cycnoches having slender arching columns of flowers suggesting the neck of a swan.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “swan-flower.”
- Understanding “swan-flower” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sweetheart (noun)

A very attractive or seductive looking woman.

- He’s a sweetheart.
- He looked up “sweetheart” because he had never seen it before.

symbolic logic (noun)

Any logical system that abstracts the form of statements away from their content in order to establish abstract criteria of consistency and validity.

- Understanding “symbolic logic” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “symbolic logic” because he had never seen it before.

symbolic representation (noun)

Something visible that by association or convention represents something else that is invisible.

- The article explained what “symbolic representation” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “symbolic representation” to mean something visible that by association or convention....

systemic (adjective)

Affecting an entire system.

- A systemic poison.
- A “systemic” approach may work better in this case.

table tapping (noun)

Alleged form of communication with spirits of the dead.

- They discussed “table tapping” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “table tapping” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

take in vain (verb)

Use a name, such as God, without proper respect.

- She tried to use “take in vain” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “take in vain” in real sentences.

tempo (noun)

The rate of some repeating event.

- The article explained what “tempo” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “tempo” to mean the rate of some repeating event.

theater curtain (noun)

A hanging cloth that conceals the stage from the view of the audience; rises or parts at the beginning and descends or closes between acts and at the end of a performance.

- The article explained what “theater curtain” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “theater curtain” to mean a hanging cloth that conceals the stage from the....

thereof (adverb)

Of or concerning this or that.

- A problem and the solution thereof.
- The narrator describes the scene “thereof” in the final chapter.

thirsty (adjective)

Able to take in large quantities of moisture.

- Thirsty towels.
- Thirsty fields under a rainless sky.

---

tie-dye (verb)

Dye after knotting the fabric to produce an irregular pattern.

- The flower children tie-dye their T-shirts.
- He did not know how to use "tie-dye" until he saw an example.

---

time-delay measuring instrument (noun)

Chronoscope for measuring the time difference between two events.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "time-delay measuring instrument."
- Understanding "time-delay measuring instrument" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

torch (noun)

A small portable battery-powered electric lamp.

- He looked up "torch" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "torch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

transferring (verb)

Send from one person or place to another.

- He did not know how to use "transferring" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "transferring" and when to wait.

---

true dwarf (noun)

An achondroplastic dwarf whose small size is the result of a genetic defect; body parts and mental and sexual development are normal.

- He looked up "true dwarf" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "true dwarf" to mean an achondroplastic dwarf whose small size is the....

---

unchanged (adjective)

Not made or become different.

- The causes that produced them have remained unchanged.
- A "unchanged" approach may work better in this case.

---

understandable (adjective)

Capable of being apprehended or understood.

- Would you call this situation "understandable"? Explain why.
- Students compared "understandable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

upright (noun)

A vertical structural member as a post or stake.

- The ball sailed between the uprights.
- The article explained what "upright" means with a simple example.

---

vain (adjective)

Characteristic of false pride; having an exaggerated sense of self-importance.

- Vain about her clothes.
- A vain attempt.

---

vanity (noun)

The quality of being valueless or futile.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vanity."
- The article explained what "vanity" means with a simple example.

---

velvet plant (noun)

Javanese foliage plant grown for their handsome velvety leaves with violet-purple hairs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "velvet plant."
- The article explained what "velvet plant" means with a simple example.

---

vent-hole (noun)

A hole for the escape of gas or air.

- Understanding "vent-hole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "vent-hole" because he had never seen it before.

---

very reverend (noun)

A title of respect for various ecclesiastical officials (as cathedral deans and canons and others).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "very reverend."
- He looked up "very reverend" because he had never seen it before.

---

voiced sound (noun)

A speech sound accompanied by sound from the vocal cords.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "voiced sound."
- They discussed "voiced sound" during the group presentation.

---

whisper (noun)

A light noise, like the noise of silk clothing or leaves blowing in the wind.

- Understanding "whisper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "whisper" to mean a light noise, like the noise of silk clothing or....

---

white dwarf (noun)

A faint star of enormous density.

- They discussed "white dwarf" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white dwarf."

---

white onion sauce (noun)

Veloute sauce with sauteed chopped onions and whipping cream.

- They discussed "white onion sauce" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "white onion sauce" means with a simple example.

---

worm fish (noun)

Poorly known family of small tropical shallow-water fishes related to gobies.

- They discussed "worm fish" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "worm fish" because he had never seen it before.

---

worthwhile (adjective)

Sufficiently valuable to justify the investment of time or interest.

- A worthwhile book.
- The speaker chose "worthwhile" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

xx (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of nineteen and one.

- In class, the teacher used "xx" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of nineteen and one.
- Understanding "xx" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

acceleration (noun)

An increase in rate of change.

- Modern science caused an acceleration of cultural change.
- He looked up "acceleration" because he had never seen it before.

---

acid dye (noun)

Dye in which the chromophore is part of a negative ion.

- They discussed "acid dye" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "acid dye" means with a simple example.

aerospace (noun)

The atmosphere and outer space considered as a whole.

- They discussed "aerospace" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "aerospace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ak (noun)

A state in northwestern North America; the 49th state admitted to the union.

- In class, the teacher used "ak" to mean a state in northwestern north america; the 49th....
- The article explained what "ak" means with a simple example.

al gore (noun)

Vice President of the United States under Bill Clinton (born in 1948).

- In class, the teacher used "al gore" to mean vice president of the united states under bill....
- The article explained what "al gore" means with a simple example.

allergic reaction (noun)

Hypersensitivity reaction to a particular allergen; symptoms can vary greatly in intensity.

- He looked up "allergic reaction" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "allergic reaction."

alter ego (noun)

A very close and trusted friend who seems almost a part of yourself.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alter ego."
- He looked up "alter ego" because he had never seen it before.

aluminium (noun)

A silvery ductile metallic element found primarily in bauxite.

- They discussed "aluminium" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "aluminium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

american lady crab (noun)

Brightly spotted crab of sandy beaches of the Atlantic coast of the United States.

- Understanding "american lady crab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "american lady crab" to mean brightly spotted crab of sandy beaches of the....

analog (adjective)

Of a circuit or device having an output that is proportional to the input.

- Analogue device.
- Would you call this situation "analog"? Explain why.

analytical (adjective)

Of a proposition that is necessarily true independent of fact or experience.

- Analytical reasoning.
- An analytical mind.

angle bracket (noun)

An L-shaped metal bracket.

- They discussed "angle bracket" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "angle bracket" to mean an l-shaped metal bracket.

anticipate (verb)

Make a prediction about; tell in advance.

- This composition anticipates Impressionism.
- She tried to use "anticipate" carefully so everyone would understand.

apple jelly (noun)

Jelly made from apple juice.

- Understanding "apple jelly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "apple jelly."

---

arlington (noun)

A city in northern Texas between Dallas and Fort Worth.

- Understanding "arlington" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "arlington" because he had never seen it before.

---

arose (verb)

Come into existence; take on form or shape.

- A question arose.
- A slight unpleasantness arose from this discussion.

---

asthma (noun)

Respiratory disorder characterized by wheezing; usually of allergic origin.

- Understanding "asthma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "asthma" means with a simple example.

---

aurora (noun)

An atmospheric phenomenon consisting of bands of light caused by charged solar particles following the earth's magnetic lines of force.

- Understanding "aurora" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "aurora" to mean an atmospheric phenomenon consisting of bands of....

---

australian heath (noun)

Any heathlike plant of the family Epacridaceae; most are of the Australian region.

- He looked up "australian heath" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "australian heath."

---

australian pitcher plant (noun)

A carnivorous perennial herb having a green pitcher and hinged lid both with red edges; western Australia.

- He looked up "australian pitcher plant" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "australian pitcher plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

automobile horn (noun)

A device on an automobile for making a warning noise.

- Understanding "automobile horn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "automobile horn" because he had never seen it before.

---

averaging (verb)

Amount to or come to an average, without loss or gain.

- Learners should practice how to use "averaging" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "averaging" until he saw an example.

---

bacterial (adjective)

Relating to or caused by bacteria.

- Bacterial infection.
- A "bacterial" approach may work better in this case.

---

baggage car (noun)

A railway car where passengers' bags are carried.

- In class, the teacher used "baggage car" to mean a railway car where passengers' bags are carried.
- The article explained what "baggage car" means with a simple example.

---

baked alaska (noun)

Cake covered with ice cream and meringue browned quickly in an oven.

- He looked up "baked alaska" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed “baked alaska” during the group presentation.

bankrupt (noun)

Someone who has insufficient assets to cover their debts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bankrupt.”
- Understanding “bankrupt” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

beacon fire (noun)

A fire (usually on a hill or tower) that can be seen from a distance.

- Understanding “beacon fire” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “beacon fire” to mean a fire (usually on a hill or tower) that can be....

beacon light (noun)

A tower with a light that gives warning of shoals to passing ships.

- Understanding “beacon light” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “beacon light” because he had never seen it before.

beef roast (noun)

Cut of beef suitable for roasting.

- The article explained what “beef roast” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “beef roast.”

blessed trinity (noun)

The union of the Father and Son and Holy Ghost in one Godhead.

- The article explained what “blessed trinity” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blessed trinity.”

blood glucose (noun)

Glucose in the bloodstream.

- In class, the teacher used “blood glucose” to mean glucose in the bloodstream.
- The article explained what “blood glucose” means with a simple example.

branding iron (noun)

Implement used to brand live stock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “branding iron.”
- They discussed “branding iron” during the group presentation.

brighter (adjective)

Emitting or reflecting light readily or in large amounts.

- The speaker chose “brighter” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “brighter” approach may work better in this case.

bubble gum (noun)

A kind of chewing gum that can be blown into bubbles.

- The article explained what “bubble gum” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “bubble gum” to mean a kind of chewing gum that can be blown into bubbles.

buffer zone (noun)

A neutral zone between two rival powers that is created in order to diminish the danger of conflict.

- In class, the teacher used “buffer zone” to mean a neutral zone between two rival powers that is....
- Understanding “buffer zone” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bully beef (noun)

Beef cured or pickled in brine.

- Understanding “bully beef” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bully beef.”

butcher paper (noun)

A strong wrapping paper that resists penetration by blood or meat fluids.

- The article explained what "butcher paper" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "butcher paper."

---

california pitcher plant (noun)

Marsh or bog herb having solitary pendulous yellow-green flowers and somewhat twisted pitchers with broad wings below.

- In class, the teacher used "california pitcher plant" to mean marsh or bog herb having solitary pendulous....
- The article explained what "california pitcher plant" means with a simple example.

---

cancer the crab (noun)

The fourth sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about June 21 to July 22.

- The article explained what "cancer the crab" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cancer the crab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cardiac monitor (noun)

A piece of electronic equipment for continual observation of the function of the heart.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cardiac monitor."
- They discussed "cardiac monitor" during the group presentation.

---

care-laden (adjective)

Burdened by cares; -Matt.11:28.

- It is useful to describe something as "care-laden" when it is burdened by cares; -matt.11:28.
- Students compared "care-laden" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

castro (noun)

Cuban socialist leader who overthrew a dictator in 1959 and established a Marxist socialist state in Cuba (born in 1927).

- He looked up "castro" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "castro" to mean cuban socialist leader who overthrew a dictator in....

---

cedar tree (noun)

Any of numerous trees of the family Cupressaceae that resemble cedars.

- The article explained what "cedar tree" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cedar tree" during the group presentation.

---

ceremonies (noun)

A formal event performed on a special occasion.

- He looked up "ceremonies" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ceremonies" during the group presentation.

---

chang (noun)

The longest river of Asia; flows eastward from Tibet into the East China Sea near Shanghai.

- The article explained what "chang" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "chang" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

childish (adjective)

Indicating a lack of maturity.

- Childish tantrums.
- It is useful to describe something as "childish" when it is indicating a lack of maturity.

---

chili (noun)

Very hot and finely tapering pepper of special pungency.

- They discussed "chili" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "chili" because he had never seen it before.

---

clearer (adjective)

Free from contact or proximity or connection.

- Would you call this situation “clearer”? Explain why.
- Students compared “clearer” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

climbing lily (noun)

Any plant of the genus Gloriosa of tropical Africa and Asia; a perennial herb climbing by means of tendrils at leaf tips having showy yellow to red or purple flowers; all parts are poisonous.

- The article explained what “climbing lily” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “climbing lily” to mean any plant of the genus gloriosa of tropical africa....

---

coats land (noun)

A region of western Antarctica along the southeastern shore of the Weddell Sea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coats land.”
- He looked up “coats land” because he had never seen it before.

---

coding dna (noun)

Sequence of a gene’s DNA that transcribes into protein structures.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coding dna.”
- The article explained what “coding dna” means with a simple example.

---

coil (noun)

A structure consisting of something wound in a continuous series of loops.

- A coil of rope.
- The article explained what “coil” means with a simple example.

---

combines (noun)

A consortium of independent organizations formed to limit competition by controlling the production and distribution of a product or service.

- Understanding “combines” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “combines” means with a simple example.

---

commodities (noun)

Articles of commerce.

- They discussed “commodities” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “commodities” because he had never seen it before.

---

communism peak (noun)

The highest mountain peak in the Pamir Mountains; near the Chinese border in northeastern Tajikistan (24,590 feet high).

- They discussed “communism peak” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “communism peak” to mean the highest mountain peak in the pamir mountains;....

---

compass north (noun)

The direction in which a compass needle points.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “compass north.”
- He looked up “compass north” because he had never seen it before.

---

compass point (noun)

Any of 32 horizontal directions indicated on the card of a compass.

- He checked the point on his compass.
- In class, the teacher used “compass point” to mean any of 32 horizontal directions indicated on the....

---

compass saw (noun)

A handsaw with a narrow triangular blade for cutting curves.

- They discussed “compass saw” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “compass saw” because he had never seen it before.

---

confessed (verb)

Confess to God in the presence of a priest, as in the Catholic faith.

- She confessed that she had taken the money.
- Learners should practice how to use “confessed” in real sentences.

congo river (noun)

A major African river (one of the world's longest); flows through Congo into the South Atlantic.

- Understanding "congo river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "congo river" means with a simple example.

constituents (noun)

A member of a constituency; a citizen who is represented in a government by officials for whom he or she votes.

- Needs continued support by constituents to be re-elected.
- Two constituents of a musical composition are melody and harmony.

continuity army council (noun)

A terrorist organization formed in Ireland in 1994 as a clandestine armed wing of Sinn Fein.

- In class, the teacher used "continuity army council" to mean a terrorist organization formed in ireland in 1994....
- The article explained what "continuity army council" means with a simple example.

converting (verb)

Change the nature, purpose, or function of something.

- Can you use "converting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "converting" when talking about this idea.

coral drops (noun)

Half-hardy Mexican herb cultivated for its drooping terminal umbels of showy red-and-white flowers.

- The article explained what "coral drops" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "coral drops" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

corn mint (noun)

European mint naturalized in United States.

- In class, the teacher used "corn mint" to mean european mint naturalized in united states.
- The article explained what "corn mint" means with a simple example.

cosmic ray (noun)

Highly penetrating ionizing radiation of extraterrestrial origin; consisting chiefly of protons and alpha particles; collision with atmospheric particles results in rays and particles of many kinds.

- In class, the teacher used "cosmic ray" to mean highly penetrating ionizing radiation of....
- He looked up "cosmic ray" because he had never seen it before.

covenant (verb)

Enter into a covenant or formal agreement.

- They covenanted with Judas for 30 pieces of silver.
- The nations covenanted to fight terrorism around the world.

cow lily (noun)

Common water lily of eastern and central North America, having broad leaves and globe-shaped yellow flowers; in sluggish fresh or slightly brackish water.

- They discussed "cow lily" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cow lily" to mean common water lily of eastern and central north....

cream pitcher (noun)

A small pitcher for serving cream.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cream pitcher."
- He looked up "cream pitcher" because he had never seen it before.

crystal violet (noun)

A green crystal (violet in water) used as a dye or stain or bactericide or fungicide or anthelmintic or burn treatment.

- The article explained what "crystal violet" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "crystal violet" to mean a green crystal (violet in water) used as a dye or....

daisy chain (noun)

(figurative) a series of associated things or people or experiences.

- They discussed "daisy chain" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "daisy chain" means with a simple example.

---

daisy-chain (verb)

Connect devices on a part of a chip or circuit board in a computer.

- Learners should practice how to use "daisy-chain" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "daisy-chain" until he saw an example.

---

daniel chester french (noun)

United States sculptor who created the seated marble figure of Abraham Lincoln in the Lincoln Memorial in Washington D.C. (1850-1931).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daniel chester french."
- He looked up "daniel chester french" because he had never seen it before.

---

das (noun)

Any of several small ungulate mammals of Africa and Asia with rodent-like incisors and feet with hooflike toes.

- In class, the teacher used "das" to mean any of several small ungulate mammals of africa and....
- He looked up "das" because he had never seen it before.

---

deed of trust (noun)

A written instrument legally conveying property to a trustee often used to secure an obligation such as a mortgage or promissory note.

- The article explained what "deed of trust" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deed of trust."

---

digital vein (noun)

One of the veins serving the fingers or toes.

- In class, the teacher used "digital vein" to mean one of the veins serving the fingers or toes.
- Understanding "digital vein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dis (noun)

God of the underworld; counterpart of Greek Pluto.

- Understanding "dis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dis" to mean god of the underworld; counterpart of greek pluto.

---

disc brake (noun)

Hydraulic brake in which friction is applied to both sides of a spinning disk by the brake pads.

- Understanding "disc brake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "disc brake" means with a simple example.

---

dish aerial (noun)

Directional antenna consisting of a parabolic reflector for microwave or radio frequency radiation.

- He looked up "dish aerial" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dish aerial."

---

dish rack (noun)

A rack for holding dishes as dishwater drains off of them.

- The article explained what "dish rack" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dish rack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dive brake (noun)

A small parachute or articulated flap to reduce the speed of an aircraft.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dive brake."
- He looked up "dive brake" because he had never seen it before.

---

double bind (noun)

(psychology) an unresolvable dilemma; situation in which a person receives contradictory messages from a person who is very powerful.

- In class, the teacher used "double bind" to mean (psychology) an unresolvable dilemma; situation in....

- Understanding "double bind" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

duke of wellington (noun)

British general and statesman; he defeated Napoleon at Waterloo; subsequently served as Prime Minister (1769-1852).

- They discussed "duke of wellington" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "duke of wellington" to mean british general and statesman; he defeated napoleon....

dutch case-knife bean (noun)

Tropical American bean with red flowers and mottled black beans similar to Phaseolus vulgaris but perennial; a preferred food bean in Great Britain.

- Understanding "dutch case-knife bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dutch case-knife bean" means with a simple example.

easter lily (noun)

Tall lily have large white trumpet-shaped flowers that bloom in the spring.

- Understanding "easter lily" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "easter lily" means with a simple example.

eastern cricket frog (noun)

A cricket frog of eastern United States.

- The article explained what "eastern cricket frog" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "eastern cricket frog" to mean a cricket frog of eastern united states.

edgar guest (noun)

United States journalist (born in England) noted for his syndicated homey verse (1881-1959).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edgar guest."
- They discussed "edgar guest" during the group presentation.

eighty-eight (adjective)

Being eight more than eighty.

- It is useful to describe something as "eighty-eight" when it is being eight more than eighty.
- The speaker chose "eighty-eight" because it captured the feeling precisely.

eighty-seven (adjective)

Being seven more than eighty.

- Students compared "eighty-seven" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "eighty-seven."

electronic messaging (noun)

The sending and processing of e-mail by computer.

- Understanding "electronic messaging" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "electronic messaging" because he had never seen it before.

emirates (noun)

The domain controlled by an emir.

- In class, the teacher used "emirates" to mean the domain controlled by an emir.
- They discussed "emirates" during the group presentation.

emmy (noun)

An annual award by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences for outstanding achievements in television.

- Understanding "emmy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "emmy" to mean an annual award by the academy of television arts....

employing (verb)

Put into service; make work or employ for a particular purpose or for its inherent or natural purpose.

- She tried to use "employing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "employing" in real sentences.

employs (noun)

The state of being employed or having a job.

- The article explained what "employs" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "employs."

---

enclosed space (noun)

Space that is surrounded by something.

- The article explained what "enclosed space" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "enclosed space" to mean space that is surrounded by something.

---

enlisted officer (noun)

A military officer appointed from enlisted personnel.

- Understanding "enlisted officer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "enlisted officer" during the group presentation.

---

equal-area projection (noun)

A map projection in which quadrilaterals formed by meridians and parallels have an area on the map proportional to their area on the globe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "equal-area projection."
- The article explained what "equal-area projection" means with a simple example.

---

escaping (verb)

Be incomprehensible to; escape understanding by.

- She tried to use "escaping" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "escaping" until he saw an example.

---

ethiopia (noun)

Ethiopia is a republic in northeastern Africa on the Red Sea; formerly called Abyssinia.

- They discussed "ethiopia" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ethiopia" because he had never seen it before.

---

ethnicity (noun)

An ethnic quality or affiliation resulting from racial or cultural ties.

- Ethnicity has a strong influence on community status relations.
- They discussed "ethnicity" during the group presentation.

---

eventual (adjective)

Expected to follow in the indefinite future from causes already operating.

- Hope of eventual (or ultimate) rescue.
- If this trend continues it is not reasonable to expect the eventual collapse of the stock market.

---

excel (verb)

Distinguish oneself.

- She excelled in math.
- Can you use "excel" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

faded (adjective)

Having lost freshness or brilliance of color.

- Faded jeans.
- The faded tones of an old recording.

---

first duke of wellington (noun)

British general and statesman; he defeated Napoleon at Waterloo; subsequently served as Prime Minister (1769-1852).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first duke of wellington."
- The article explained what "first duke of wellington" means with a simple example.

---

firstly (adverb)

Before anything else.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "firstly" naturally.
- She spoke "firstly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

flavour (noun)

The general atmosphere of a place or situation and the effect that it has on people.

- They discussed "flavour" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "flavour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flex (verb)

Cause (a plastic object) to assume a crooked or angular form.

- Flex a muscle.
- The victorious army flexes its invincibility.

---

floating dry dock (noun)

Dry dock that can be submerged under a vessel and then raised.

- In class, the teacher used "floating dry dock" to mean dry dock that can be submerged under a vessel and....
- They discussed "floating dry dock" during the group presentation.

---

fluids (noun)

A substance that is fluid at room temperature and pressure.

- They discussed "fluids" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fluids" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

franco (noun)

Spanish general whose armies took control of Spain in 1939 and who ruled as a dictator until his death (1892-1975).

- The article explained what "franco" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "franco" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

french congo (noun)

A republic in west-central Africa; achieved independence from France in 1960.

- Understanding "french congo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french congo."

---

gangs (noun)

An association of criminals.

- In class, the teacher used "gangs" to mean an association of criminals.
- They discussed "gangs" during the group presentation.

---

gases (noun)

A pedal that controls the throttle valve.

- The article explained what "gases" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gases" to mean a pedal that controls the throttle valve.

---

genre painter (noun)

A painter of scenes from everyday life.

- Understanding "genre painter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genre painter."

---

genus (noun)

A general kind of something.

- Ignore the genus communism.
- In class, the teacher used "genus" to mean a general kind of something.

---

german iris (noun)

A large iris with purple or white flowers, native to central and southern Europe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "german iris."
- He looked up "german iris" because he had never seen it before.

goose grass (noun)

Annual having the stem beset with curved prickles; North America and Europe and Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goose grass."
- The article explained what "goose grass" means with a simple example.

gram-positive (adjective)

(of bacteria) being or relating to a bacterium that retains the violet stain used in Gram's method.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "gram-positive."
- Would you call this situation "gram-positive"? Explain why.

grand duchess (noun)

The wife of a grand duke or a woman holding that rank in her own right.

- They discussed "grand duchess" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grand duchess" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grapes (noun)

A cluster of small projectiles fired together from a cannon to produce a hail of shot.

- In class, the teacher used "grapes" to mean a cluster of small projectiles fired together from....
- He looked up "grapes" because he had never seen it before.

greet (verb)

React to in a certain way.

- The President was greeted with catcalls.
- Loud music greeted him when he entered the apartment.

gum benjamin (noun)

Gum resin used especially in treating skin irritation.

- The article explained what "gum benjamin" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gum benjamin."

hank (noun)

A coil of rope or wool or yarn.

- He looked up "hank" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hank."

harold lloyd (noun)

United States comic actor in silent films; he used physical danger as a source of comedy (1893-1971).

- Understanding "harold lloyd" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "harold lloyd" because he had never seen it before.

hawk nose (noun)

A nose curved downward like the beak of a hawk.

- Understanding "hawk nose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hawk nose."

herb garden (noun)

A garden for growing herbs.

- In class, the teacher used "herb garden" to mean a garden for growing herbs.
- The article explained what "herb garden" means with a simple example.

herb paris (noun)

European herb with yellow-green flowers resembling and closely related to the trilliums; reputed to be poisonous.

- Understanding "herb paris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "herb paris" during the group presentation.

herb tea (noun)

Tea-like drink made of leaves of various herbs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "herb tea."
- He looked up "herb tea" because he had never seen it before.

---

heroic poetry (noun)

Poetry celebrating the deeds of some hero.

- The article explained what "heroic poetry" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "heroic poetry" to mean poetry celebrating the deeds of some hero.

---

horse trader (noun)

A hard bargainer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse trader."
- They discussed "horse trader" during the group presentation.

---

hose (noun)

A flexible pipe for conveying a liquid or gas.

- They discussed "hose" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hose" because he had never seen it before.

---

hose down (verb)

Water with a hose.

- Hose the lawn.
- In everyday English, people use "hose down" when talking about this idea.

---

house of windsor (noun)

The British royal family since 1917.

- The article explained what "house of windsor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "house of windsor" to mean the british royal family since 1917.

Shopping & Money

price (noun)

The amount of money you must pay to buy something.

- The price of this jacket is too high for me.
- Food prices have gone up a lot this year.

---

cheap (adjective)

Costing little money; not expensive.

- We found a cheap hotel near the beach.
- These shoes were really cheap — only ten dollars!

---

receipt (noun)

A piece of paper that shows you have paid for something.

- Keep the receipt in case you want to return the shirt.
- The cashier handed me my change and the receipt.

---

expensive (adjective)

Costing a lot of money.

- That restaurant is too expensive for a quick lunch.
- She bought an expensive watch for her father.

---

wallet (noun)

A small flat case for carrying paper money and credit cards.

- I left my wallet at home.
- He pulled a bill from his wallet.

---

cash (noun)

Money in the form of coins and notes, not cards or checks.

- Do you have enough cash for the taxi?
- This shop only accepts cash.

---

discount (noun)

A reduction in the usual price of something.

- Students get a ten percent discount.
- There is a big discount on winter coats this week.

---

customer (noun)

A person who buys goods or services from a shop or business.

- The store was full of customers on Saturday.
- The shop assistant helped the customer find a size.

---

cart (noun)

A metal basket on wheels used for carrying goods in a supermarket.

- She pushed the cart down the aisle.
- Please return your cart to the front of the store.

---

pay (verb)

To give money for something you buy or for a service.

- How would you like to pay — cash or card?
- I paid twenty dollars for this book.

---

sale (noun)

An event when a shop sells goods at lower prices than usual.

- The store is having a summer sale.
- I bought these shoes on sale.

---

coin (noun)

A flat, round piece of metal used as money.

- I found a coin on the street.
- Do you have a coin for the parking meter?

---

way (noun)

A portion of something divided into shares.

- They split the loot three ways.
- A lonely way of life.

---

do good (verb)

Be beneficial for.

- This will do you good.
- She tried to use “do good” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

take (verb)

To get into a position of having, e.g., safety, comfort.

- Take shelter from the storm.
- Take action.

---

make up (verb)

Do or give something to somebody in return.

- This designer makes up our Spring collections.
- I have to make up a French exam.

---

have got (verb)

Have or possess, either in a concrete or an abstract sense.

- He has got two beautiful daughters.
- She tried to use “have got” carefully so everyone would understand.

take out (verb)

Remove (a commodity) from (a supply source).

- The teacher took the children out of the classroom.
- Take out the chicken after adding the vegetables.

part with (verb)

Give up what is not strictly needed.

- In everyday English, people use "part with" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "part with" until he saw an example.

things (noun)

Any movable possession (especially articles of clothing).

- She packed her things and left.
- Things of the heart.

found (noun)

Food and lodging provided in addition to money.

- They worked for $30 and found.
- In class, the teacher used "found" to mean food and lodging provided in addition to money.

see through (verb)

Support financially through a period of time.

- The scholarship saw me through college.
- This money will see me through next month.

keep (noun)

The financial means whereby one lives.

- Each child was expected to pay for their keep.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "keep."

money (noun)

The most common medium of exchange; functions as legal tender.

- We tried to collect the money he owed us.
- All his money is in real estate.

come into (verb)

Obtain, especially accidentally.

- Learners should practice how to use "come into" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "come into" when talking about this idea.

real (noun)

The basic unit of money in Brazil; equal to 100 centavos.

- In class, the teacher used "real" to mean the basic unit of money in brazil; equal to 100....
- Understanding "real" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

having (verb)

Receive willingly something given or offered.

- Can you use "having" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "having" when talking about this idea.

keep up (verb)

Keep in safety and protect from harm, decay, loss, or destruction.

- The old lady could not keep up the building.
- He could not keep up and dropped out of the race.

keep back (verb)

Secure and keep for possible future use or application.

- Keep your temper.
- Keep your cool.

---

took (verb)

To get into a position of having, e.g., safety, comfort.

- It took three hours to get to work this morning.
- His voice took on a sad tone.

---

top-up (noun)

An amount needed to restore something to its former level.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "top-up."
- He looked up "top-up" because he had never seen it before.

---

each year (adverb)

By the year; every year (usually with reference to a sum of money paid or received).

- She spoke "each year," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "each year" naturally.

---

keep going (verb)

Be a regular customer or client of.

- Our sponsor kept our art studio going for as long as he could.
- The party kept going until 4 A.M.

---

old money (noun)

The inherited wealth of established upper-class families.

- She is the daughter of old money from Massachusetts.
- The article explained what "old money" means with a simple example.

---

pay for (verb)

Have as a guest.

- He did not know how to use "pay for" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "pay for" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

for love or money (adverb)

Under any circumstances.

- She wouldn't give up her pets for love or money.
- He answered "for love or money," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

hand out (verb)

Give to several people.

- The teacher handed out the exams.
- Can you use "hand out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

pay out (verb)

Expend, as from a fund.

- The coach explained when to use "pay out" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "pay out" until he saw an example.

---

pay up (verb)

Cancel or discharge a debt.

- Pay up, please!
- In everyday English, people use "pay up" when talking about this idea.

---

big money (noun)

A large sum of money (especially as pay or profit).

- Understanding "big money" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used “big money” to mean a large sum of money (especially as pay or profit).

---

due (noun)

A payment that is due (e.g., as the price of membership).

- The society dropped him for non-payment of dues.
- Give the devil his due.

---

time and a half (noun)

A rate of pay that is 1.5 times the regular rate; for overtime work.

- He looked up “time and a half” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “time and a half” to mean a rate of pay that is 1.5 times the regular rate;....

---

ask (verb)

Require or ask for as a price or condition.

- He is asking $200 for the table.
- The kidnappers are asking a million dollars in return for the release of their hostage.

---

hand over (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- Fork over the money.
- He did not know how to use “hand over” until he saw an example.

---

per year (adverb)

By the year; every year (usually with reference to a sum of money paid or received).

- He earned $100,000 per annum.
- We issue six volumes per annum.

---

buy (verb)

Acquire by trade or sacrifice or exchange.

- She wanted to buy his love with her dedication to him and his work.
- She buys for the big department store.

---

buy in (verb)

Amass so as to keep for future use or sale or for a particular occasion or use.

- Can you use “buy in” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “buy in” and when to wait.

---

close out (verb)

Terminate by selling off or disposing of.

- He closed out his line of sports cars.
- We closed out our account.

---

red (noun)

The amount by which the cost of a business exceeds its revenue.

- The company operated in the red last year.
- The article explained what “red” means with a simple example.

---

turn in (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- Turn in after you see the gate.
- They turned in a splendid effort.

---

buy it (verb)

Be killed or die.

- Can you use “buy it” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use “buy it” until he saw an example.

---

check (noun)

A written order directing a bank to pay money.

- He paid all his bills by check.
- A check on its dependability under stress.

---

pay back (verb)

Take vengeance on or get even.

- Can you use "pay back" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "pay back" and when to wait.

---

asked (verb)

Require or ask for as a price or condition.

- I asked about their special today.
- She asked him for a loan.

---

buy at (verb)

Do one's shopping at; do business with; be a customer or client of.

- He did not know how to use "buy at" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "buy at" and when to wait.

---

buy up (verb)

Take over ownership of; of corporations and companies.

- In everyday English, people use "buy up" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "buy up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

market (noun)

The customers for a particular product or service.

- Before they publish any book they try to determine the size of the market for it.
- Without competition there would be no market.

---

pay off (verb)

Do or give something to somebody in return.

- Does she pay you for the work you are doing?
- His efforts finally paid off.

---

buy out (verb)

Take over ownership of; of corporations and companies.

- The coach explained when to use "buy out" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "buy out" in real sentences.

---

buy time (verb)

Act so as to delay an event or action in order to gain an advantage.

- Can you use "buy time" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "buy time" until he saw an example.

---

deal out (verb)

Administer or bestow, as in small portions.

- Dole out some money.
- Shell out pocket money for the children.

---

hand down (verb)

Passed on, as by inheritance.

- This ring was handed down through many generations.
- Can you use "hand down" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

bring on (verb)

Bring onto the market or release.

- Bring out a book.
- Bring on the birthday cake.

---

buy into (verb)

Buy stocks or shares of a company.

- Learners should practice how to use "buy into" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "buy into" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

keep open (verb)

Retain rights to.

- Keep my job for me while I give birth.
- Keep my seat, please.

---

money order (noun)

A written order for the payment of a sum to a named individual; obtainable and payable at a post office.

- Understanding "money order" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "money order" because he had never seen it before.

---

chance on (verb)

Find unexpectedly.

- The archeologists chanced upon an old tomb.
- He did not know how to use "chance on" until he saw an example.

---

for a song (adverb)

For a relatively small amount of money.

- We bought the house for a song.
- Using "for a song" can make your explanation more exact.

---

time plan (noun)

A system for paying for goods by installments.

- Understanding "time plan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "time plan" to mean a system for paying for goods by installments.

---

turn over (verb)

Do business worth a certain amount of money.

- The company turns over ten million dollars a year.
- Turn the files over to me, please.

---

buy back (verb)

Buy what had previously been sold, lost, or given away.

- He bought back the house that his father sold years ago.
- Can you use "buy back" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

buy off (verb)

Pay someone with influence in order to receive a favor.

- He did not know how to use "buy off" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "buy off" in real sentences.

---

land (noun)

The land on which real estate is located.

- He built the house on land leased from the city.
- The land had never been plowed.

---

small change (noun)

A trifling sum of money.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "small change."
- He looked up "small change" because he had never seen it before.

market day (noun)

A fixed day for holding a public market.

- He looked up "market day" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "market day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stop order (noun)

An order to a broker to sell (buy) when the price of a security falls (rises) to a designated level.

- In class, the teacher used "stop order" to mean an order to a broker to sell (buy) when the price....
- The article explained what "stop order" means with a simple example.

won (noun)

The basic unit of money in South Korea.

- He looked up "won" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "won."

takes (verb)

To get into a position of having, e.g., safety, comfort.

- He takes the bus to work.
- She takes Route 1 to Newark.

take-home pay (noun)

What is left of your pay after deductions for taxes and dues and insurance etc.

- They discussed "take-home pay" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "take-home pay" to mean what is left of your pay after deductions for taxes....

for any price (adverb)

Under any circumstances.

- She wouldn't give up her pets for love or money.
- She spoke "for any price," and the audience immediately understood her point.

get hold (verb)

Get something or somebody for a specific purpose.

- I found this gadget that will serve as a bottle opener.
- I got hold of these tools to fix our plumbing.

support level (noun)

(stock market) the price at which a certain security becomes attractive to investors.

- The article explained what "support level" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "support level" during the group presentation.

market place (noun)

The world of commercial activity where goods and services are bought and sold.

- Without competition there would be no market.
- They were driven from the marketplace.

provide (verb)

Supply means of subsistence; earn a living.

- He provides for his large family by working three jobs.
- We provided the room with an electrical heater.

save (verb)

To keep up and reserve for personal or special use.

- She saved the old family photographs in a drawer.
- He saves half his salary.

stand in (verb)

Be a substitute.

- He did not know how to use "stand in" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "stand in" when talking about this idea.

---

easy money (noun)

The economic condition in which credit is easy to secure.

- He looked up "easy money" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "easy money."

---

money market (noun)

A market for short-term debt instruments.

- He looked up "money market" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "money market."

---

ready money (noun)

Money in the form of cash that is readily available.

- His wife was always a good source of ready cash.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ready money."

---

save up (verb)

Accumulate money for future use.

- He saves half his salary.
- She tried to use "save up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

short-change (verb)

Cheat someone by not returning him enough money.

- Can you use "short-change" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "short-change" until he saw an example.

---

time bill (noun)

A draft payable at a specified future date.

- In class, the teacher used "time bill" to mean a draft payable at a specified future date.
- He looked up "time bill" because he had never seen it before.

---

trade in (verb)

Turn in as payment or part payment for a purchase.

- Trade in an old car for a new one.
- Can you use "trade in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

trade-in (noun)

An item of property that is given in part payment for a new one.

- Understanding "trade-in" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "trade-in" means with a simple example.

---

you-drive (noun)

A rented car.

- Understanding "you-drive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "you-drive" during the group presentation.

---

bad check (noun)

A check that is dishonored on presentation because of insufficient funds.

- Issuing a bad check is a form of larceny.
- The article explained what "bad check" means with a simple example.

---

child support (noun)

Court-ordered support paid by one spouse to the other who has custody of the children after the parents are separated.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "child support."

- He looked up “child support” because he had never seen it before.

---

half-pay (noun)

Reduced wage paid to someone who is not working full time.

- In class, the teacher used “half-pay” to mean reduced wage paid to someone who is not working....
- The article explained what “half-pay” means with a simple example.

---

terms (noun)

The amount of money needed to purchase something.

- He got his new car on excellent terms.
- On good terms with her in-laws.

---

american plan (noun)

A hotel plan that includes three meals daily.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “american plan.”
- Understanding “american plan” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lose (verb)

Miss from one’s possessions; lose sight of.

- In everyday English, people use “lose” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “lose” until he saw an example.

---

market order (noun)

An order to a broker to sell or buy stocks or commodities at the prevailing market price.

- He looked up “market order” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “market order” during the group presentation.

---

figure (noun)

An amount of money expressed numerically.

- A figure of $17 was suggested.
- The area covered can be seen from Figure 2.

---

government issue (noun)

Supplies (as food or clothing or ammunition) issued by the government.

- He looked up “government issue” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “government issue.”

---

black market (noun)

An illegal market in which goods or currencies are bought and sold in violation of rationing or controls.

- The article explained what “black market” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “black market” during the group presentation.

---

black-market (adjective)

Distributed or sold illicitly.

- Students compared “black-market” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “black-market.”

---

buy food (verb)

Purchase prepared food to be eaten at home.

- Learners should practice how to use “buy food” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “buy food” and when to wait.

---

record company (noun)

A company that makes and sells musical recordings.

- Understanding “record company” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “record company” to mean a company that makes and sells musical recordings.

---

government security (noun)

A security issued by United States government agencies or the Farm Credit System.

- The article explained what "government security" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "government security" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

price support (noun)

A government subsidy used to maintain prices at a certain level.

- He looked up "price support" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "price support."

---

property right (noun)

The legal right of ownership.

- They discussed "property right" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "property right" means with a simple example.

---

market research (noun)

Research that gathers and analyzes information about the moving of good or services from producer to consumer.

- The article explained what "market research" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "market research" to mean research that gathers and analyzes information....

---

service department (noun)

The division of a business that provides customer services.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service department."
- Understanding "service department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sign over (verb)

Formally assign ownership of.

- She signed away her rights.
- In everyday English, people use "sign over" when talking about this idea.

---

come upon (verb)

Find unexpectedly.

- The archeologists chanced upon an old tomb.
- She entered upon the estate of her rich relatives.

---

mark up (verb)

Increase the price of.

- The coach explained when to use "mark up" and when to wait.
- Can you use "mark up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

open account (noun)

Credit extended by a business to a customer.

- The article explained what "open account" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "open account" during the group presentation.

---

pass up (verb)

Refuse to accept.

- He passed me up in the street.
- The coach explained when to use "pass up" and when to wait.

---

price war (noun)

Intense competition in which competitors cut retail prices to gain business.

- They discussed "price war" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "price war" to mean intense competition in which competitors cut retail....

---

in store (adjective)

In readiness; awaiting.

- Gave us a hint of the excitement that was in store for us.
- It is useful to describe something as "in store" when it is in readiness; awaiting.

---

provided (verb)

Supply means of subsistence; earn a living.

- We provided the room with an electrical heater.
- The hostess provided lunch for all the guests.

---

sales (noun)

Income (at invoice values) received for goods and services over some given period of time.

- They tried to boost sales.
- The salesman faxed the sales agreement to his home office.

---

store (noun)

A supply of something available for future use.

- He brought back a large store of Cuban cigars.
- Storehouses were built close to the docks.

---

time note (noun)

A note that specifies the time (or times) of repayment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "time note."
- Understanding "time note" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

walk off (verb)

Take without permission.

- He walked off with my wife!
- The thief walked off with my gold watch.

---

amount of money (noun)

A quantity of money.

- The amount he had in cash was insufficient.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amount of money."

---

change hands (verb)

Be transferred to another owner.

- This restaurant changed hands twice last year.
- She tried to use "change hands" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

half-price (adverb)

For half the price.

- She bought it half-price during the sale.
- Using "half-price" can make your explanation more exact.

---

hold open (verb)

Retain rights to.

- Keep open the possibility of a merger.
- Can you use "hold open" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

hold the line (verb)

Hold the line on prices; keep the price of something constant.

- She tried to use "hold the line" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "hold the line" until he saw an example.

---

pay cut (noun)

The act of reducing a salary.

- He looked up "pay cut" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pay cut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

price level (noun)

An index that traces the relative changes in the price of an individual good (or a market basket of goods) over time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "price level."
- They discussed "price level" during the group presentation.

account book (noun)

A record in which commercial accounts are recorded.

- They got a subpoena to examine our books.
- Understanding "account book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

book of account (noun)

A record in which commercial accounts are recorded.

- They got a subpoena to examine our books.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book of account."

price control (noun)

Restriction on maximum prices that is established and maintained by the government (as during periods of war or inflation).

- In class, the teacher used "price control" to mean restriction on maximum prices that is established....
- He looked up "price control" because he had never seen it before.

public trust (noun)

A trust created for charitable or religious or educational or scientific purposes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public trust."
- They discussed "public trust" during the group presentation.

bank line (noun)

The maximum credit that a customer is allowed.

- He looked up "bank line" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bank line."

blood money (noun)

A reward for information about a murderer.

- Understanding "blood money" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "blood money" during the group presentation.

control account (noun)

An account that shows totals of amounts entered in a subsidiary ledger.

- Understanding "control account" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "control account" to mean an account that shows totals of amounts entered in....

for sale (adjective)

Available for purchase.

- Many houses in the area are for sale.
- It is useful to describe something as "for sale" when it is available for purchase.

gas up (verb)

Fill with gasoline.

- Gas up the car.
- Learners should practice how to use "gas up" in real sentences.

mark down (verb)

Reduce the price of.

- He did not know how to use "mark down" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "mark down" in a sentence that fits this situation?

real property (noun)

Property consisting of houses and land.

- The article explained what "real property" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "real property" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

water-rate (noun)

Rate per quarter for water from a public supply.

- In class, the teacher used "water-rate" to mean rate per quarter for water from a public supply.
- Understanding "water-rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

easy street (noun)

Financial security.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "easy street."
- They discussed "easy street" during the group presentation.

---

oil company (noun)

A company that sells oil.

- They discussed "oil company" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "oil company" means with a simple example.

---

public property (noun)

Property owned by a government.

- In class, the teacher used "public property" to mean property owned by a government.
- He looked up "public property" because he had never seen it before.

---

sell (noun)

The activity of persuading someone to buy.

- It was a hard sell.
- In class, the teacher used "sell" to mean the activity of persuading someone to buy.

---

at a low price (adverb)

For a relatively small amount of money.

- Using "at a low price" can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene "at a low price" in the final chapter.

---

book value (noun)

The value at which an asset is carried on a balance sheet; equals cost minus accumulated depreciation.

- He looked up "book value" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book value."

---

cost of living (noun)

Average cost of basic necessities of life (as food and shelter and clothing).

- A rise in the cost of living reflects the rate of inflation.
- They discussed "cost of living" during the group presentation.

---

income (noun)

The financial gain (earned or unearned) accruing over a given period of time.

- They discussed "income" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "income" means with a simple example.

---

paper money (noun)

Currency issued by a government or central bank and consisting of printed paper that can circulate as a substitute for specie.

- He looked up "paper money" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paper money."

---

sign away (verb)

Formally assign ownership of.

- She signed away her rights.

- He did not know how to use “sign away” until he saw an example.

---

t-bill (noun)

A short-term obligation that is not interest-bearing (it is purchased at a discount); can be traded on a discount basis for 91 days.

- He looked up “t-bill” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “t-bill.”

---

write-down (noun)

(accounting) reduction in the book value of an asset.

- Understanding “write-down” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “write-down” to mean (accounting) reduction in the book value of an asset.

---

beat down (verb)

Persuade the seller to accept a lower price.

- She beat the merchant down $100.
- The sun beat down on the hikers.

---

costs (noun)

Pecuniary reimbursement to the winning party for the expenses of litigation.

- He looked up “costs” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “costs” during the group presentation.

---

market price (noun)

The price at which buyers and sellers trade the item in an open marketplace.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “market price.”
- The article explained what “market price” means with a simple example.

---

market town (noun)

A (usually small) town where a public market is held at stated times.

- He looked up “market town” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “market town” to mean a (usually small) town where a public market is....

---

sell out (verb)

Give information that compromises others.

- The coach explained when to use “sell out” and when to wait.
- Can you use “sell out” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sell up (verb)

Get rid of all one’s merchandise.

- In everyday English, people use “sell up” when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use “sell up” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

short account (noun)

The aggregate of short sales on an open market.

- The article explained what “short account” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “short account” to mean the aggregate of short sales on an open market.

---

death tax (noun)

A tax on the estate of the deceased person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “death tax.”
- He looked up “death tax” because he had never seen it before.

---

financial support (noun)

Financial resources provided to make some project possible.

- The foundation provided support for the experiment.
- He looked up “financial support” because he had never seen it before.

---

list price (noun)

The selling price of something as stated in a catalogue or price list; often subject to discounts.

- I got it at 30% off the list price.
- They discussed "list price" during the group presentation.

---

pay rate (noun)

Amount of money received per unit time.

- Women's pay rate is lower than men's.
- He looked up "pay rate" because he had never seen it before.

---

personal check (noun)

A check drawn against funds deposited in your personal checking account.

- In class, the teacher used "personal check" to mean a check drawn against funds deposited in your....
- Understanding "personal check" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

price list (noun)

A listing of prices for different goods or services.

- They discussed "price list" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "price list" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rate of pay (noun)

Amount of money received per unit time.

- Women's pay rate is lower than men's.
- The article explained what "rate of pay" means with a simple example.

---

single tax (noun)

A system of taxation in which a tax is levied on a single commodity (usually land).

- They discussed "single tax" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "single tax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air-cool (verb)

Equip with an apparatus for controlling the humidity and temperature.

- The coach explained when to use "air-cool" and when to wait.
- Can you use "air-cool" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

common market (noun)

An international organization of European countries formed after World War II to reduce trade barriers and increase cooperation among its members.

- They discussed "common market" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "common market" means with a simple example.

---

contract in (verb)

Consent in writing to pay money to a trade union for political use.

- He did not know how to use "contract in" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "contract in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

current account (noun)

A bank account against which the depositor can draw checks that are payable on demand.

- He looked up "current account" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "current account" to mean a bank account against which the depositor can draw....

---

money box (noun)

A container (usually with a slot in the top) for keeping money at home.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "money box."
- He looked up "money box" because he had never seen it before.

---

bank check (noun)

A written order directing a bank to pay money.

- He paid all his bills by check.
- In class, the teacher used "bank check" to mean a written order directing a bank to pay money.

---

cut price (noun)

A price below the standard price.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cut price."
- He looked up "cut price" because he had never seen it before.

---

cut-price (adjective)

Costing less than standard price.

- Would you call this situation "cut-price"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "cut-price" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

fit out (verb)

Provide with (something) usually for a specific purpose.

- In everyday English, people use "fit out" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "fit out" in real sentences.

---

government note (noun)

A piece of paper money (especially one issued by a central bank).

- He peeled off five one-thousand-zloty notes.
- The article explained what "government note" means with a simple example.

---

information technology (noun)

The branch of engineering that deals with the use of computers and telecommunications to retrieve and store and transmit information.

- Understanding "information technology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "information technology."

---

price cut (noun)

Cutting the price of merchandise to one lower than the usual or advertised price.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "price cut."
- He looked up "price cut" because he had never seen it before.

---

sell off (verb)

Get rid of by selling, usually at reduced prices.

- The store sold off the surplus merchandise.
- He did not know how to use "sell off" until he saw an example.

---

cash in (verb)

Exchange for cash.

- I cashed the check as soon as it arrived in the mail.
- She tried to use "cash in" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

hell to pay (noun)

Dire consequences.

- When the pig ran away there was hell to pay.
- He looked up "hell to pay" because he had never seen it before.

---

stock up (verb)

Amass so as to keep for future use or sale or for a particular occasion or use.

- Let's stock coffee as long as prices are low.
- He did not know how to use "stock up" until he saw an example.

---

bought (verb)

Acquire by trade or sacrifice or exchange.

- This judge can be bought.
- Can you use "bought" in a sentence that fits this situation?

cash in on (verb)

Take advantage of or capitalize on.

- In everyday English, people use "cash in on" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "cash in on" until he saw an example.

cash out (verb)

Choose a simpler life style after questioning personal and career satisfaction goals.

- After 3 decades in politics, she cashed out and moved to Polynesia.
- He did not know how to use "cash out" until he saw an example.

community property (noun)

Property and income belonging jointly to a married couple.

- He looked up "community property" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "community property."

light upon (verb)

Find unexpectedly.

- The archeologists chanced upon an old tomb.
- The coach explained when to use "light upon" and when to wait.

living trust (noun)

A trust created and operating during the grantor's lifetime.

- They discussed "living trust" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "living trust."

market value (noun)

The price at which buyers and sellers trade the item in an open marketplace.

- They discussed "market value" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "market value" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

military issue (noun)

Supplies (as food or clothing or ammunition) issued by the government.

- Understanding "military issue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "military issue" to mean supplies (as food or clothing or ammunition) issued....

rights issue (noun)

An offering of common stock to existing shareholders who hold subscription rights or pre-emptive rights that entitle them to buy newly issued shares at a discount from the price at which they will be offered to the public later.

- The investment banker who handles a rights offering usually agrees to buy any shares not bought by shareholders.
- In class, the teacher used "rights issue" to mean an offering of common stock to existing....

touch (noun)

The act of soliciting money (as a gift or loan).

- He watched the beggar trying to make a touch.
- He longed for the touch of her hand.

ways and means (noun)

Resources available to meet expenses (especially legislation for raising revenue for a government).

- They discussed "ways and means" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ways and means" means with a simple example.

damage (noun)

The amount of money needed to purchase something.

- How much is the damage?
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "damage."

forward market (noun)

A commodity exchange where futures contracts are traded.

- They discussed "forward market" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "forward market" to mean a commodity exchange where futures contracts are traded.

---

green market (noun)

An open-air marketplace for farm products.

- They discussed "green market" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "green market" means with a simple example.

---

open-air market (noun)

A public marketplace where food and merchandise is sold.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "open-air market."
- Understanding "open-air market" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

country store (noun)

A retail store serving a sparsely populated region; usually stocked with a wide variety of merchandise.

- The article explained what "country store" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "country store."

---

credit system (noun)

A system for allowing people to purchase things on credit.

- In class, the teacher used "credit system" to mean a system for allowing people to purchase things on....
- The article explained what "credit system" means with a simple example.

---

effects (noun)

Property of a personal character that is portable but not used in business.

- She left some of her personal effects in the house.
- I watched over their effects until they returned.

---

general store (noun)

A retail store serving a sparsely populated region; usually stocked with a wide variety of merchandise.

- The article explained what "general store" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "general store" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

holding (noun)

Something owned; any tangible or intangible possession that is owned by someone.

- The article explained what "holding" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "holding" to mean something owned; any tangible or intangible....

---

hot issue (noun)

Newly issued stock that is in great public demand.

- He looked up "hot issue" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hot issue" during the group presentation.

---

life insurance (noun)

Insurance paid to named beneficiaries when the insured person dies.

- In England they call life insurance life assurance.
- In class, the teacher used "life insurance" to mean insurance paid to named beneficiaries when the....

---

production cost (noun)

Combined costs of raw material and labor incurred in producing goods.

- Understanding "production cost" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "production cost" means with a simple example.

---

service charge (noun)

A percentage of a bill (as at a hotel or restaurant) added in payment for service.

- They discussed "service charge" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "service charge" to mean a percentage of a bill (as at a hotel or....

---

bank account (noun)

A fund that a customer has entrusted to a bank and from which the customer can make withdrawals.

- He moved his bank account to a new bank.
- They discussed "bank account" during the group presentation.

---

carry-the can (verb)

Accept the unpleasant consequences of one's actions.

- Can you use "carry-the can" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "carry-the can" until he saw an example.

---

chance upon (verb)

Find unexpectedly.

- The archeologists chanced upon an old tomb.
- Learners should practice how to use "chance upon" in real sentences.

---

credit line (noun)

The maximum credit that a customer is allowed.

- They discussed "credit line" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "credit line" because he had never seen it before.

---

credit side (noun)

Account of payments received; usually the right side of a financial statement.

- Understanding "credit side" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "credit side" means with a simple example.

---

land tax (noun)

A capital tax on property imposed by municipalities; based on the estimated value of the property.

- In class, the teacher used "land tax" to mean a capital tax on property imposed by....
- Understanding "land tax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

line of credit (noun)

The maximum credit that a customer is allowed.

- He looked up "line of credit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "line of credit" during the group presentation.

---

luck into (verb)

Take possession of.

- He did not know how to use "luck into" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "luck into" when talking about this idea.

---

note of hand (noun)

A promise to pay a specified amount on demand or at a certain time.

- I had to co-sign his note at the bank.
- He looked up "note of hand" because he had never seen it before.

---

point-of-sale (adjective)

Of or relating to or being the location where something is purchased.

- It is useful to describe something as "point-of-sale" when it is of or relating to or being the location where....
- A "point-of-sale" approach may work better in this case.

---

prices (noun)

The amount of money needed to purchase something.

- He looked up "prices" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "prices" during the group presentation.

rates (noun)

A local tax on property (usually used in the plural).

- The article explained what “rates” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “rates” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

security interest (noun)

Any interest in a property that secures the payment of an obligation.

- He looked up “security interest” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “security interest.”

self-drive (noun)

A rented car.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “self-drive.”
- They discussed “self-drive” during the group presentation.

shop (noun)

A course of instruction in a trade (as carpentry or electricity).

- I built a birdhouse in shop.
- He bought it at a shop on Cape Cod.

turn a loss (verb)

Fail to make money in a business; make a loss or fail to profit.

- The company turned a loss after the first year.
- He did not know how to use “turn a loss” until he saw an example.

white sale (noun)

A sale of household linens.

- Understanding “white sale” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “white sale” means with a simple example.

working capital (noun)

Assets available for use in the production of further assets.

- They discussed “working capital” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “working capital” means with a simple example.

european plan (noun)

A hotel plan that provides a continental breakfast daily.

- Understanding “european plan” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “european plan” during the group presentation.

government income (noun)

Income available to the government.

- Understanding “government income” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “government income” to mean income available to the government.

hard sell (noun)

Forceful and insistent advertising.

- The article explained what “hard sell” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “hard sell” to mean forceful and insistent advertising.

sales talk (noun)

Promotion by means of an argument and demonstration.

- In class, the teacher used “sales talk” to mean promotion by means of an argument and demonstration.
- The article explained what “sales talk” means with a simple example.

shop at (verb)

Do one's shopping at; do business with; be a customer or client of.

- In everyday English, people use "shop at" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "shop at" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

trust account (noun)

A savings account deposited by someone who makes themselves the trustee for a beneficiary and who controls it during their lifetime; afterward the balance is payable to the previously named beneficiary.

- The article explained what "trust account" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trust account" to mean a savings account deposited by someone who makes....

---

book fair (noun)

Fair organized by publishers or booksellers to promote the sale of books.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book fair."
- The article explained what "book fair" means with a simple example.

---

c-note (noun)

A United States bill worth 100 dollars.

- In class, the teacher used "c-note" to mean a united states bill worth 100 dollars.
- He looked up "c-note" because he had never seen it before.

---

carry-over (noun)

The accumulated and undivided profits of a corporation after provision has been made for dividends and reserves.

- Understanding "carry-over" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "carry-over" because he had never seen it before.

---

national income (noun)

The total value of all income in a nation (wages and profits and interest and rents and pension payments) during a given period (usually 1 yr).

- The article explained what "national income" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "national income" to mean the total value of all income in a nation (wages....

---

night letter (noun)

A cheaper form of telegram sent for delivery the next day.

- Understanding "night letter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "night letter."

---

offered (verb)

Make available or accessible, provide or furnish.

- She offered us all a cold drink.
- I offered to help with the dishes but the hostess would not hear of it.

---

tax break (noun)

A tax deduction that is granted in order to encourage a particular type of commercial activity.

- In class, the teacher used "tax break" to mean a tax deduction that is granted in order to....
- He looked up "tax break" because he had never seen it before.

---

accept (verb)

Receive willingly something given or offered.

- Please accept my present.
- I cannot accept the dogma of this church.

---

bank bill (noun)

A piece of paper money (especially one issued by a central bank).

- They discussed "bank bill" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bank bill" to mean a piece of paper money (especially one issued by a....

---

bank rate (noun)

The discount rate fixed by a central bank.

- Understanding "bank rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed “bank rate” during the group presentation.

---

deep-six (verb)

Toss out; get rid of.

- Deep-six these old souvenirs!
- Can you use “deep-six” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

group insurance (noun)

Insurance that is purchased by a group (such as the employees of a company) usually at a reduced rate to individual members of the group.

- The article explained what “group insurance” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “group insurance.”

---

happen upon (verb)

Find unexpectedly.

- The archeologists chanced upon an old tomb.
- She tried to use “happen upon” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

insurance company (noun)

A financial institution that sells insurance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “insurance company.”
- They discussed “insurance company” during the group presentation.

---

interest rate (noun)

The percentage of a sum of money charged for its use.

- In class, the teacher used “interest rate” to mean the percentage of a sum of money charged for its use.
- They discussed “interest rate” during the group presentation.

---

losing (verb)

Miss from one’s possessions; lose sight of.

- The coach explained when to use “losing” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “losing” in real sentences.

---

personal property (noun)

Movable property (as distinguished from real estate).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “personal property.”
- Understanding “personal property” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

price increase (noun)

Increase in price.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “price increase.”
- He looked up “price increase” because he had never seen it before.

---

private property (noun)

Movable property (as distinguished from real estate).

- He looked up “private property” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “private property” during the group presentation.

---

rate of interest (noun)

The percentage of a sum of money charged for its use.

- They discussed “rate of interest” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “rate of interest” to mean the percentage of a sum of money charged for its use.

---

ship money (noun)

An impost levied in England to provide money for ships for national defense.

- In class, the teacher used “ship money” to mean an impost levied in england to provide money for....
- Understanding “ship money” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

central bank (noun)

A government monetary authority that issues currency and regulates the supply of credit and holds the reserves of other banks and sells new issues of securities for the government.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central bank."
- They discussed "central bank" during the group presentation.

---

demand (noun)

The ability and desire to purchase goods and services.

- The automobile reduced the demand for buggywhips.
- The demand exceeded the supply.

---

going-out-of-business sale (noun)

A sale of all the tangible assets of a business that is about to close.

- During the Great Depression going-out-of-business sales were very common.
- The article explained what "going-out-of-business sale" means with a simple example.

---

parts department (noun)

The division of a business (e.g. a service garage) that sells replacement parts.

- In class, the teacher used "parts department" to mean the division of a business (e.g. a service garage)....
- He looked up "parts department" because he had never seen it before.

---

tax bill (noun)

Money owed for taxes.

- He looked up "tax bill" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tax bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tax rate (noun)

Rate used to calculate tax liability.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tax rate."
- He looked up "tax rate" because he had never seen it before.

---

church property (noun)

Property or income owned by a church.

- He looked up "church property" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "church property."

---

de-access (verb)

Dispose of by selling.

- She tried to use "de-access" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "de-access" until he saw an example.

---

offer price (noun)

(stock market) the price at which a broker is willing to sell a certain security.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "offer price."
- He looked up "offer price" because he had never seen it before.

---

short sale (noun)

Sale of securities or commodity futures not owned by the seller (who hopes to buy them back later at a lower price).

- They discussed "short sale" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "short sale" to mean sale of securities or commodity futures not owned....

---

stop-loss order (noun)

An order to a broker to sell (buy) when the price of a security falls (rises) to a designated level.

- Understanding "stop-loss order" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "stop-loss order" to mean an order to a broker to sell (buy) when the price....

---

budget for (verb)

Calculate enough money for; provide for in the budget.

- I have not budgeted for these expensive meals.
- The coach explained when to use "budget for" and when to wait.

---

economic value (noun)

The amount (of money or goods or services) that is considered to be a fair equivalent for something else.

- He tried to estimate the value of the produce at normal prices.
- Understanding "economic value" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

estate (noun)

Extensive landed property (especially in the country) retained by the owner for his own use.

- The family owned a large estate on Long Island.
- He looked up "estate" because he had never seen it before.

---

fall upon (verb)

Find unexpectedly.

- The archeologists chanced upon an old tomb.
- In everyday English, people use "fall upon" when talking about this idea.

---

fire sale (noun)

A sale of merchandise supposedly damaged by fire.

- They discussed "fire sale" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fire sale" means with a simple example.

---

fund (noun)

A supply of something available for future use.

- The article explained what "fund" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fund" to mean a supply of something available for future use.

---

hard cash (noun)

Money in the form of bills or coins.

- There is a desperate shortage of hard cash.
- He looked up "hard cash" because he had never seen it before.

---

market cross (noun)

A cross-shaped monument set up in the marketplace of a town where public business is often conducted.

- In class, the teacher used "market cross" to mean a cross-shaped monument set up in the marketplace....
- Understanding "market cross" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

money plant (noun)

Southeastern European plant cultivated for its fragrant purplish flowers and round flat papery silver-white seedpods that are used for indoor decoration.

- They discussed "money plant" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "money plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

paper gold (noun)

Reserve assets in the International Monetary Fund; designed to supplement reserves of gold and convertible currencies used to maintain stability in the foreign exchange market.

- In class, the teacher used "paper gold" to mean reserve assets in the international monetary fund;....
- Understanding "paper gold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pay claim (noun)

The wage demanded from management for workers by their union representatives.

- He looked up "pay claim" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pay claim."

---

property tax (noun)

A capital tax on property imposed by municipalities; based on the estimated value of the property.

- In class, the teacher used "property tax" to mean a capital tax on property imposed by....
- The article explained what "property tax" means with a simple example.

sell short (verb)

Underestimate the real value or ability of.

- Don't sell your students short–they are just shy and don't show off their knowledge.
- The coach explained when to use "sell short" and when to wait.

simple interest (noun)

Interest paid on the principal alone.

- In class, the teacher used "simple interest" to mean interest paid on the principal alone.
- Understanding "simple interest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

u-drive (noun)

A rented car.

- He looked up "u-drive" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "u-drive."

capital cost (noun)

The opportunity cost of the funds employed as the result of an investment decision; the rate of return that a business could earn if it chose another investment with equivalent risk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital cost."
- The article explained what "capital cost" means with a simple example.

cost of capital (noun)

The opportunity cost of the funds employed as the result of an investment decision; the rate of return that a business could earn if it chose another investment with equivalent risk.

- In class, the teacher used "cost of capital" to mean the opportunity cost of the funds employed as the....
- He looked up "cost of capital" because he had never seen it before.

council tax (noun)

A tax levied on households by local authorities; based on the estimated value of the property and the number of people living in it.

- He looked up "council tax" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "council tax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

department store (noun)

A large retail store organized into departments offering a variety of merchandise; commonly part of a retail chain.

- The article explained what "department store" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "department store" during the group presentation.

foreign bill (noun)

A bill of exchange that is drawn in one country and made payable in another.

- The article explained what "foreign bill" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foreign bill."

market forces (noun)

The interaction of supply and demand that shapes a market economy.

- He looked up "market forces" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "market forces."

open-end credit (noun)

A consumer credit line that can be used up to a certain limit or paid down at any time.

- They discussed "open-end credit" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "open-end credit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sales department (noun)

The division of a business that is responsible for selling products or services.

- In class, the teacher used "sales department" to mean the division of a business that is responsible for....
- The article explained what "sales department" means with a simple example.

sales force (noun)

The division of a business that is responsible for selling products or services.

- The article explained what "sales force" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sales force" during the group presentation.

---

bank card (noun)

A credit card issued by a bank.

- Understanding "bank card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bank card" because he had never seen it before.

---

bank note (noun)

A piece of paper money (especially one issued by a central bank).

- He peeled off five one-thousand-zloty notes.
- In class, the teacher used "bank note" to mean a piece of paper money (especially one issued by a....

---

capital account (noun)

(finance) an account of the net value of a business at a specified date.

- The article explained what "capital account" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "capital account" during the group presentation.

---

cash in hand (noun)

Assets in the form of money.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cash in hand."
- He looked up "cash in hand" because he had never seen it before.

---

charge account (noun)

Credit extended by a business to a customer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charge account."
- They discussed "charge account" during the group presentation.

---

control stock (noun)

Shares owned by shareholders who have a controlling interest.

- They discussed "control stock" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "control stock."

---

drug company (noun)

A company that makes and sells pharmaceuticals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drug company."
- He looked up "drug company" because he had never seen it before.

---

pay cash (verb)

Pay (for something) with cash.

- In everyday English, people use "pay cash" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "pay cash" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

provides (verb)

Supply means of subsistence; earn a living.

- He provides for his large family by working three jobs.
- The will provides that each child should receive half of the money.

---

ring up (verb)

To perform and record a sale on a cash register.

- In everyday English, people use "ring up" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "ring up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

second-hand store (noun)

A shop that sells secondhand goods at reduced prices.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "second-hand store."

- Understanding "second-hand store" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

base rate (noun)

The interest rate set by the Bank of England for lending to other banks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "base rate."
- Understanding "base rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

credit account (noun)

Credit extended by a business to a customer.

- In class, the teacher used "credit account" to mean credit extended by a business to a customer.
- The article explained what "credit account" means with a simple example.

---

give it the deep six (verb)

Toss out; get rid of.

- Deep-six these old souvenirs!
- In everyday English, people use "give it the deep six" when talking about this idea.

---

gold standard (noun)

A monetary standard under which the basic unit of currency is defined by a stated quantity of gold.

- Academic education is the gold standard against which other educational activity is pejoratively judged.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gold standard."

---

head shop (noun)

A shop specializing in articles of interest to drug users.

- He bought some roach clips and hashish pipes at the head shop.
- In class, the teacher used "head shop" to mean a shop specializing in articles of interest to drug....

---

john cash (noun)

United States country music singer and songwriter (1932-2003).

- Understanding "john cash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "john cash" means with a simple example.

---

market letter (noun)

A newsletter written by an analyst of the stock market and sold to subscribers.

- In class, the teacher used "market letter" to mean a newsletter written by an analyst of the stock....
- He looked up "market letter" because he had never seen it before.

---

tax base (noun)

Collective value of taxable assets.

- Understanding "tax base" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tax base."

---

whole life insurance (noun)

Insurance on the life of the insured for a fixed amount at a definite premium that is paid each year in the same amount during the entire lifetime of the insured.

- They discussed "whole life insurance" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "whole life insurance" because he had never seen it before.

---

draw off (verb)

Remove (a commodity) from (a supply source).

- She placed the tray down and drew off the cloth.
- Draw away the cloth that is covering the cheese.

---

estate for life (noun)

(law) an estate whose duration is limited to the life of the person holding it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "estate for life."
- He looked up "estate for life" because he had never seen it before.

---

eye bank (noun)

A place for storing and preserving corneas that are obtained from human corpses immediately after death; used for corneal transplantation to patients with corneal defects.

- They discussed "eye bank" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "eye bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fire insurance (noun)

Insurance against loss due to fire.

- In class, the teacher used "fire insurance" to mean insurance against loss due to fire.
- He looked up "fire insurance" because he had never seen it before.

gift (verb)

Give as a present; make a gift of.

- Learners should practice how to use "gift" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "gift" when talking about this idea.

life estate (noun)

(law) an estate whose duration is limited to the life of the person holding it.

- Understanding "life estate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "life estate" because he had never seen it before.

new edition (noun)

A publication (such as a book) that has been modified or updated and offered again for sale.

- In class, the teacher used "new edition" to mean a publication (such as a book) that has been....
- Understanding "new edition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

open shop (noun)

A company whose workers are hired without regard to their membership in a labor union.

- Understanding "open shop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "open shop" means with a simple example.

sell-by date (noun)

A date stamped on perishable produce indicating the date by which it should be sold.

- Understanding "sell-by date" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sell-by date" during the group presentation.

account statement (noun)

A statement of recent transactions and the resulting balance.

- They send me an accounting every month.
- He looked up "account statement" because he had never seen it before.

asking price (noun)

The price at which something is offered for sale.

- In class, the teacher used "asking price" to mean the price at which something is offered for sale.
- Understanding "asking price" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

black economy (noun)

A hidden sector of the economy where private cash transactions go unreported.

- No one knows how large the black economy really is.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black economy."

civil list (noun)

A sum of money voted by British Parliament each year for the expenses of the British royal family.

- The article explained what "civil list" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "civil list" to mean a sum of money voted by british parliament each....

financial loss (noun)

Loss of money or decrease in financial value.

- He looked up “financial loss” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “financial loss” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

food shop (noun)

A shop selling ready-to-eat food products.

- He looked up “food shop” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “food shop.”

---

investment company (noun)

A financial institution that sells shares to individuals and invests in securities issued by other companies.

- Understanding “investment company” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “investment company” during the group presentation.

---

limited review (noun)

(accounting) a service (less exhaustive than an audit) that provides some assurance to interested parties as to the reliability of financial data.

- In class, the teacher used “limited review” to mean (accounting) a service (less exhaustive than an....
- The article explained what “limited review” means with a simple example.

---

opportunity cost (noun)

Cost in terms of foregoing alternatives.

- Understanding “opportunity cost” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “opportunity cost” means with a simple example.

---

paper loss (noun)

An unrealized loss on an investment calculated by subtracting the current market price from the investor’s cost.

- The article explained what “paper loss” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “paper loss.”

---

personal income (noun)

The income received by a single individual.

- They discussed “personal income” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “personal income” means with a simple example.

---

sales tax (noun)

A tax based on the cost of the item purchased and collected directly from the buyer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sales tax.”
- Understanding “sales tax” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

self-insurance (noun)

Insuring yourself by setting aside money to cover possible losses rather than by purchasing an insurance policy.

- They discussed “self-insurance” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “self-insurance.”

---

shop talk (noun)

Talk about your business that only others in the same business can understand.

- Understanding “shop talk” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “shop talk” during the group presentation.

---

sick pay (noun)

Wages paid to an employee who is on sick leave.

- Understanding “sick pay” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “sick pay” means with a simple example.

---

smart money (noun)

People who are highly experienced or who have inside information.

- The smart money said Truman would lose the election.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “smart money.”

stock market (noun)

An exchange where security trading is conducted by professional stockbrokers.

- In class, the teacher used "stock market" to mean an exchange where security trading is conducted by....
- The article explained what "stock market" means with a simple example.

talk shop (verb)

Discuss matters that are related to work.

- As soon as they met, the linguists started to talk shop.
- She tried to use "talk shop" carefully so everyone would understand.

unit cost (noun)

Calculated cost for a given unit of a product.

- The article explained what "unit cost" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "unit cost" to mean calculated cost for a given unit of a product.

bill of sale (noun)

A deed transferring personal property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bill of sale."
- The article explained what "bill of sale" means with a simple example.

letter security (noun)

A stock or bond that is not registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and cannot be sold in the public market.

- He looked up "letter security" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "letter security" during the group presentation.

market analysis (noun)

Marketing research that yields information about the marketplace.

- Understanding "market analysis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "market analysis" because he had never seen it before.

metal money (noun)

Coins collectively.

- They discussed "metal money" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "metal money" means with a simple example.

ready cash (noun)

Money in the form of cash that is readily available.

- His wife was always a good source of ready cash.
- He paid cold cash for the TV set.

shop girl (noun)

A young female shop assistant.

- He looked up "shop girl" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "shop girl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tax credit (noun)

A direct reduction in tax liability (not dependent on the taxpayer's tax bracket).

- He looked up "tax credit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tax credit."

term insurance (noun)

Low-cost insurance that is valid only for a stated period of time and has no cash surrender value or loan value.

- Term insurance is most often associated with life insurance policies.
- In class, the teacher used "term insurance" to mean low-cost insurance that is valid only for a stated....

bottom line (noun)

The last line in an audit; the line that shows profit or loss.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bottom line."
- The article explained what "bottom line" means with a simple example.

---

cash price (noun)

The current delivery price of a commodity traded in the spot market.

- In class, the teacher used "cash price" to mean the current delivery price of a commodity traded in....
- They discussed "cash price" during the group presentation.

---

cover charge (noun)

A fixed charge by a restaurant or nightclub over and above the charge for food and drink.

- They discussed "cover charge" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cover charge" to mean a fixed charge by a restaurant or nightclub over....

---

fashion business (noun)

Makers and sellers of fashionable clothing.

- Understanding "fashion business" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fashion business" during the group presentation.

---

income tax (noun)

A personal tax levied on annual income.

- He looked up "income tax" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "income tax."

---

money supply (noun)

The total stock of money in the economy; currency held by the public plus money in accounts in banks.

- The article explained what "money supply" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "money supply" to mean the total stock of money in the economy; currency....

---

real estate (noun)

Property consisting of houses and land.

- In class, the teacher used "real estate" to mean property consisting of houses and land.
- They discussed "real estate" during the group presentation.

---

roll (noun)

A roll of currency notes (often taken as the resources of a person or business etc.).

- He shot his roll on a bob-tailed nag.
- His name was struck off the rolls.

---

sales staff (noun)

Those in a business who are responsible for sales.

- Understanding "sales staff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sales staff" to mean those in a business who are responsible for sales.

---

stock of record (noun)

Stock held by stockholders of record on a given date.

- In class, the teacher used "stock of record" to mean stock held by stockholders of record on a given date.
- The article explained what "stock of record" means with a simple example.

---

take advantage (verb)

Draw advantages from.

- He is capitalizing on her mistake.
- She took advantage of his absence to meet her lover.

---

tax income (noun)

Government income due to taxation.

- He looked up "tax income" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tax income."

---

tax write-off (noun)

A reduction in the gross amount on which a tax is calculated; reduces taxes by the percentage fixed for the taxpayer's income bracket.

- Understanding "tax write-off" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tax write-off" to mean a reduction in the gross amount on which a tax is....

---

waste of money (noun)

Money spent for inadequate return.

- The senator said that the project was a waste of money.
- The article explained what "waste of money" means with a simple example.

---

air-condition (verb)

Equip with an apparatus for controlling the humidity and temperature.

- Our house is not air-conditioned.
- The room was cool because it had been air-conditioned.

---

capital loss (noun)

The amount by which the purchase price of an asset exceeds the selling price; the loss is realized when the asset is sold.

- The article explained what "capital loss" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "capital loss" during the group presentation.

---

cash account (noun)

An account with a securities brokerage whose transactions are settled on a cash basis.

- Understanding "cash account" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cash account."

---

common stock (noun)

Stock other than preferred stock; entitles the owner to a share of the corporation's profits and a share of the voting power in shareholder elections.

- Over 40 million Americans invest in common stocks.
- They discussed "common stock" during the group presentation.

---

farm out (verb)

Grant the services of or the temporary use of, for a fee.

- We rent out our apartment to tourists every year.
- He hired himself out as a cook.

---

funds (noun)

Assets in the form of money.

- He looked up "funds" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "funds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

land resources (noun)

Natural resources in the form of arable land.

- In class, the teacher used "land resources" to mean natural resources in the form of arable land.
- The article explained what "land resources" means with a simple example.

---

price competition (noun)

Intense competition in which competitors cut retail prices to gain business.

- In class, the teacher used "price competition" to mean intense competition in which competitors cut retail....
- They discussed "price competition" during the group presentation.

---

selling point (noun)

A characteristic of something that is up for sale that makes it attractive to potential customers.

- He looked up "selling point" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "selling point" during the group presentation.

---

spot market (noun)

A market in which a commodity is bought or sold for immediate delivery or delivery in the very near future.

- Understanding "spot market" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "spot market" to mean a market in which a commodity is bought or sold for....

---

cast away (verb)

Throw or cast away.

- Put away your worries.
- He did not know how to use "cast away" until he saw an example.

---

charge card (noun)

A card (usually plastic) that assures a seller that the person using it has a satisfactory credit rating and that the issuer will see to it that the seller receives payment for the merchandise delivered.

- He looked up "charge card" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charge card."

---

figures (noun)

An amount of money expressed numerically.

- She made the best score on compulsory figures.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "figures."

---

hand to mouth (adverb)

With barely enough money for immediate needs.

- They lived form hand to mouth.
- The narrator describes the scene "hand to mouth" in the final chapter.

---

hot stock (noun)

Newly issued stock that is in great public demand.

- They discussed "hot stock" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hot stock" because he had never seen it before.

---

issued (verb)

Prepare and issue for public distribution or sale.

- Water issued from the hole in the wall.
- He did not know how to use "issued" until he saw an example.

---

market economy (noun)

An economy that relies chiefly on market forces to allocate goods and resources and to determine prices.

- He looked up "market economy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "market economy."

---

physical value (noun)

Cost of reproducing physical property minus various allowances (especially depreciation).

- In class, the teacher used "physical value" to mean cost of reproducing physical property minus various....
- The article explained what "physical value" means with a simple example.

---

piece of eight (noun)

An old silver Spanish coin; worth 8 reales.

- He looked up "piece of eight" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "piece of eight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

risk capital (noun)

Wealth available for investment in new or speculative enterprises.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "risk capital."
- The article explained what "risk capital" means with a simple example.

---

roll over (verb)

Negociate to repay a loan at a later date for an additional fee.

- Roll over a loan.
- The dog rolled over.

---

spot price (noun)

The current delivery price of a commodity traded in the spot market.

- The article explained what "spot price" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spot price."

---

active trust (noun)

A trust in which the trustee must perform certain duties.

- He looked up "active trust" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "active trust" during the group presentation.

---

christmas present (noun)

A present given at Christmas time.

- They discussed "christmas present" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "christmas present" means with a simple example.

---

credit card (noun)

A card (usually plastic) that assures a seller that the person using it has a satisfactory credit rating and that the issuer will see to it that the seller receives payment for the merchandise delivered.

- The article explained what "credit card" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "credit card."

---

death benefit (noun)

Insurance or pension money payable to a beneficiary of a deceased.

- They discussed "death benefit" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "death benefit" to mean insurance or pension money payable to a beneficiary....

---

louis d'or (noun)

A former French gold coin.

- He looked up "louis d'or" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "louis d'or" to mean a former french gold coin.

---

personal effects (noun)

Property of a personal character that is portable but not used in business.

- She left some of her personal effects in the house.
- I watched over their effects until they returned.

---

program library (noun)

(computing) a collection of standard programs and subroutines that are stored and available for immediate use.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "program library."
- They discussed "program library" during the group presentation.

---

providing (verb)

Supply means of subsistence; earn a living.

- Learners should practice how to use "providing" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "providing" until he saw an example.

---

direct tax (noun)

A tax paid directly by the person or organization on whom it is levied.

- He looked up "direct tax" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "direct tax."

---

direct trust (noun)

A trust created by the free and deliberate act of the parties involved (usually on the basis of written documentation).

- The article explained what "direct trust" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "direct trust" during the group presentation.

fly high (verb)

Make steady progress; be at the high point in one's career or reach a high point in historical significance or importance.

- He was flying high during the summer months.
- He did not know how to use "fly high" until he saw an example.

library fine (noun)

Fine imposed by a library on books that overdue when returned.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "library fine."
- The article explained what "library fine" means with a simple example.

market square (noun)

A public marketplace where food and merchandise is sold.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "market square."
- He looked up "market square" because he had never seen it before.

personal credit line (noun)

The maximum credit that a customer is allowed.

- They discussed "personal credit line" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "personal credit line" because he had never seen it before.

personal line of credit (noun)

The maximum credit that a customer is allowed.

- He looked up "personal line of credit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "personal line of credit" during the group presentation.

purchase (noun)

The acquisition of something for payment.

- They closed the purchase with a handshake.
- He could get no purchase on the situation.

agency security (noun)

A security issued by United States government agencies or the Farm Credit System.

- The article explained what "agency security" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "agency security" to mean a security issued by united states government....

filled (adjective)

Of purchase orders that have been filled.

- It is useful to describe something as "filled" when it is of purchase orders that have been filled.
- The speaker chose "filled" because it captured the feeling precisely.

german mark (noun)

Formerly the basic unit of money in Germany.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "german mark."
- He looked up "german mark" because he had never seen it before.

natural resources (noun)

Resources (actual and potential) supplied by nature.

- Understanding "natural resources" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "natural resources" means with a simple example.

shop boy (noun)

A young male shop assistant.

- In class, the teacher used "shop boy" to mean a young male shop assistant.
- The article explained what "shop boy" means with a simple example.

short selling (noun)

Sale of securities or commodity futures not owned by the seller (who hopes to buy them back later at a lower price).

- He looked up "short selling" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "short selling" to mean sale of securities or commodity futures not owned....

carry-forward (noun)

The accumulated and undivided profits of a corporation after provision has been made for dividends and reserves.

- The article explained what "carry-forward" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carry-forward."

commercial paper (noun)

An unsecured and unregistered short-term obligation issued by an institutional borrower to investors who have temporarily idle cash.

- In class, the teacher used "commercial paper" to mean an unsecured and unregistered short-term obligation....
- Understanding "commercial paper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

open-end fund (noun)

A regulated investment company with a pool of assets that regularly sells and redeems its shares.

- The article explained what "open-end fund" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "open-end fund" to mean a regulated investment company with a pool of....

political action committee (noun)

Committee formed by a special-interest group to raise money for their favorite political candidates.

- Understanding "political action committee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "political action committee" to mean committee formed by a special-interest group to....

drop-off charge (noun)

A fee added for returning a rented car to a location different from the one where it was rented.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drop-off charge."
- The article explained what "drop-off charge" means with a simple example.

growth stock (noun)

Stock of a corporation that has had faster than average gains in earnings and is expected to continue to.

- They discussed "growth stock" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "growth stock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

appropriate (verb)

Take possession of by force, as after an invasion.

- In everyday English, people use "appropriate" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "appropriate" in real sentences.

bill of exchange (noun)

A document ordering the payment of money; drawn by one person or bank on another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bill of exchange."
- Understanding "bill of exchange" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital stock (noun)

The book value of the outstanding shares of a corporation.

- In class, the teacher used "capital stock" to mean the book value of the outstanding shares of a....
- The article explained what "capital stock" means with a simple example.

cash card (noun)

A credit card that entitles the holder to receive cash.

- They discussed "cash card" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cash card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

christmas box (noun)

A present given at Christmas for services during the year.

- The article explained what "christmas box" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "christmas box" during the group presentation.

---

cold cash (noun)

Money in the form of cash that is readily available.

- His wife was always a good source of ready cash.
- He paid cold cash for the TV set.

---

exchange rate (noun)

The charge for exchanging currency of one country for currency of another.

- They discussed "exchange rate" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "exchange rate" means with a simple example.

---

fashion industry (noun)

Makers and sellers of fashionable clothing.

- In class, the teacher used "fashion industry" to mean makers and sellers of fashionable clothing.
- The article explained what "fashion industry" means with a simple example.

---

income statement (noun)

A financial statement that gives operating results for a specific period.

- He looked up "income statement" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "income statement."

---

keeps (noun)

The financial means whereby one lives.

- Understanding "keeps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "keeps."

---

letter of credit (noun)

A document issued by a bank that guarantees the payment of a customer's draft; substitutes the bank's credit for the customer's credit.

- Understanding "letter of credit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "letter of credit" means with a simple example.

---

personal estate (noun)

Movable property (as distinguished from real estate).

- He looked up "personal estate" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "personal estate" during the group presentation.

---

poor rates (noun)

A local tax for the relief of the poor.

- The article explained what "poor rates" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "poor rates" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rate of exchange (noun)

The charge for exchanging currency of one country for currency of another.

- He looked up "rate of exchange" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rate of exchange."

---

selling price (noun)

The price at which something is offered for sale.

- They discussed "selling price" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "selling price" to mean the price at which something is offered for sale.

---

time loan (noun)

A loan that is payable on or before a specified date.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "time loan."
- They discussed "time loan" during the group presentation.

---

union shop (noun)

A company allowed to hire nonunion workers on the condition that they will join the union within a specified time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "union shop."
- The article explained what "union shop" means with a simple example.

value-added tax (noun)

A tax levied on the difference between a commodity's price before taxes and its cost of production.

- The article explained what "value-added tax" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "value-added tax" to mean a tax levied on the difference between a....

wedding present (noun)

A present given to someone getting married.

- The article explained what "wedding present" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wedding present" to mean a present given to someone getting married.

cheap money (noun)

Credit available at low rates of interest.

- They discussed "cheap money" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cheap money" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

commercial credit (noun)

Credit granted by a bank to a business concern for commercial purposes.

- The article explained what "commercial credit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "commercial credit" to mean credit granted by a bank to a business concern for....

investment trust (noun)

A financial institution that sells shares to individuals and invests in securities issued by other companies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "investment trust."
- Understanding "investment trust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

labor market (noun)

The market in which workers compete for jobs and employers compete for workers.

- He looked up "labor market" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "labor market" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

market garden (noun)

A garden where fruit and vegetables are grown for marketing.

- They discussed "market garden" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "market garden" because he had never seen it before.

payment (noun)

A sum of money paid or a claim discharged.

- He looked up "payment" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "payment" during the group presentation.

push-down list (noun)

A list in which the next item to be removed is the item most recently stored (LIFO).

- They discussed "push-down list" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "push-down list."

spending money (noun)

Cash for day-to-day spending on incidental expenses.

- In class, the teacher used "spending money" to mean cash for day-to-day spending on incidental expenses.
- Understanding "spending money" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

steel company (noun)

A company that makes and sells steel.

- In class, the teacher used “steel company” to mean a company that makes and sells steel.
- He looked up “steel company” because he had never seen it before.

---

store-bought (adjective)

Purchased; not homemade.

- A store-bought dress.
- The speaker chose “store-bought” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

straight life insurance (noun)

Insurance on the life of the insured for a fixed amount at a definite premium that is paid each year in the same amount during the entire lifetime of the insured.

- Understanding “straight life insurance” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “straight life insurance” means with a simple example.

---

buy the farm (verb)

Pass from physical life and lose all bodily attributes and functions necessary to sustain life.

- The children perished in the fire.
- The patient went peacefully.

---

estate tax (noun)

A tax on the estate of the deceased person.

- The article explained what “estate tax” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “estate tax” to mean a tax on the estate of the deceased person.

---

feed back (verb)

Submit (information) again to a program or automatic system.

- In everyday English, people use “feed back” when talking about this idea.
- Can you use “feed back” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

foreign exchange (noun)

The system by which one currency is exchanged for another; enables international transactions to take place.

- They discussed “foreign exchange” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “foreign exchange” to mean the system by which one currency is exchanged for....

---

mail order (noun)

A purchase negotiated by mail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mail order.”
- Understanding “mail order” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marketing cost (noun)

The cost of marketing (e.g., the cost of transferring title and moving goods to the customer).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “marketing cost.”
- He looked up “marketing cost” because he had never seen it before.

---

open-end investment company (noun)

A regulated investment company with a pool of assets that regularly sells and redeems its shares.

- Understanding “open-end investment company” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “open-end investment company” because he had never seen it before.

---

split (noun)

A promised or claimed share of loot or money.

- He demanded his split before they disbanded.
- He inserted the wedge into a split in the log.

---

tax benefit (noun)

A tax deduction that is granted in order to encourage a particular type of commercial activity.

- In class, the teacher used “tax benefit” to mean a tax deduction that is granted in order to....
- They discussed “tax benefit” during the group presentation.

trust fund (noun)

A fund held in trust.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trust fund."
- They discussed "trust fund" during the group presentation.

documents (noun)

A written account of ownership or obligation.

- In class, the teacher used "documents" to mean a written account of ownership or obligation.
- They discussed "documents" during the group presentation.

enter upon (verb)

Take possession of.

- She entered upon the estate of her rich relatives.
- The coach explained when to use "enter upon" and when to wait.

fair-trade act (noun)

Formerly a state law that protected manufacturers from price-cutting by allowing them to set minimum retail prices for their merchandise; eliminated by the United States Congress in 1975.

- The article explained what "fair-trade act" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fair-trade act" during the group presentation.

fuel level (noun)

The amount of fuel remaining.

- In class, the teacher used "fuel level" to mean the amount of fuel remaining.
- The article explained what "fuel level" means with a simple example.

lay in (verb)

Keep or lay aside for future use.

- In everyday English, people use "lay in" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "lay in" carefully so everyone would understand.

letter stock (noun)

Stock that has not been registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and cannot be sold to the general public.

- In class, the teacher used "letter stock" to mean stock that has not been registered with the....
- The article explained what "letter stock" means with a simple example.

long-term memory (noun)

Your general store of remembered information.

- In class, the teacher used "long-term memory" to mean your general store of remembered information.
- The article explained what "long-term memory" means with a simple example.

public debt (noun)

The total of the nation's debts: debts of local and state and national governments; an indicator of how much public spending is financed by borrowing instead of taxation.

- In class, the teacher used "public debt" to mean the total of the nation's debts: debts of local and....
- The article explained what "public debt" means with a simple example.

purchase order (noun)

A commercial document used to request someone to supply something in return for payment and providing specifications and quantities.

- IBM received an order for a hundred computers.
- The article explained what "purchase order" means with a simple example.

sales agreement (noun)

An agreement (or contract) in which property is transferred from the seller (vendor) to the buyer (vendee) for a fixed price in money (paid or agreed to be paid by the buyer).

- The salesman faxed the sales agreement to his home office.
- Understanding "sales agreement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bad debt (noun)

A debt that is unlikely to be repaid.

- He looked up "bad debt" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bad debt" to mean a debt that is unlikely to be repaid.

---

business loan (noun)

A bank loan granted for the use of a business.

- Understanding "business loan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "business loan" because he had never seen it before.

---

cash bar (noun)

A counter at a large party where you can purchase drinks by the glass.

- In class, the teacher used "cash bar" to mean a counter at a large party where you can purchase....
- The article explained what "cash bar" means with a simple example.

---

cut-rate sale (noun)

An occasion (usually brief) for buying at specially reduced prices.

- They held a sale to reduce their inventory.
- I got some great bargains at their annual sale.

---

death duty (noun)

A tax on the estate of the deceased person.

- Understanding "death duty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "death duty" because he had never seen it before.

---

demand note (noun)

A note payable on demand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "demand note."
- The article explained what "demand note" means with a simple example.

---

down payment (noun)

A partial payment made at the time of purchase; the balance to be paid later.

- Understanding "down payment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "down payment" means with a simple example.

---

fill out (verb)

Supplement what is thought to be deficient.

- He eked out his meager pay by giving private lessons.
- Braque eked out his collages with charcoal.

---

funding (noun)

Financial resources provided to make some project possible.

- The article explained what "funding" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "funding."

---

national debt (noun)

The debt of the national government (as distinguished from the debts of individuals and businesses and political subdivisions).

- They discussed "national debt" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "national debt" because he had never seen it before.

---

operating cost (noun)

The expense of maintaining property (e.g., paying property taxes and utilities and insurance); it does not include depreciation or the cost of financing or income taxes.

- Understanding "operating cost" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "operating cost" during the group presentation.

---

sales division (noun)

The division of a business that is responsible for selling products or services.

- The article explained what "sales division" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sales division."

soft money (noun)

Political contributions made in such a way as to avoid the United States regulations for federal election campaigns (as by contributions to a political action committee).

- Understanding "soft money" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "soft money" means with a simple example.

stores (noun)

A supply of something available for future use.

- In class, the teacher used "stores" to mean a supply of something available for future use.
- He looked up "stores" because he had never seen it before.

birthday present (noun)

A present given in celebration of a person's birthday.

- In class, the teacher used "birthday present" to mean a present given in celebration of a person's birthday.
- The article explained what "birthday present" means with a simple example.

call loan (noun)

A loan that is repayable on demand.

- In class, the teacher used "call loan" to mean a loan that is repayable on demand.
- Understanding "call loan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

delivered (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- The guard delivered the criminal to the police.
- The students delivered a cry of joy.

financial gain (noun)

The amount of monetary gain.

- In class, the teacher used "financial gain" to mean the amount of monetary gain.
- Understanding "financial gain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gift tax (noun)

A tax imposed on transfers of property by gift during the lifetime of the giver.

- They discussed "gift tax" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "gift tax" because he had never seen it before.

non-market economy (noun)

An economy that is not a market economy.

- Understanding "non-market economy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "non-market economy" because he had never seen it before.

smart card (noun)

A plastic card containing a microprocessor that enables the holder to perform operations requiring data that is stored in the microprocessor; typically used to perform financial transactions.

- The article explained what "smart card" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "smart card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tax advantage (noun)

An advantage bestowed by legislation that reduces a tax on some preferred activity.

- Understanding "tax advantage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tax advantage" because he had never seen it before.

bear market (noun)

A market characterized by falling prices for securities.

- In class, the teacher used "bear market" to mean a market characterized by falling prices for securities.
- The article explained what "bear market" means with a simple example.

cash machine (noun)

An unattended machine (outside some banks) that dispenses money when a personal coded card is used.

- Understanding "cash machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cash machine" during the group presentation.

---

charge per unit (noun)

Amount of a charge or payment relative to some basis.

- They discussed "charge per unit" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "charge per unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

commercial credit company (noun)

A finance company that makes loans to manufacturers and wholesalers.

- Understanding "commercial credit company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "commercial credit company" to mean a finance company that makes loans to manufacturers....

---

markets (noun)

The customers for a particular product or service.

- The article explained what "markets" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "markets" to mean the customers for a particular product or service.

---

silver standard (noun)

A monetary standard under which the basic unit of currency is defined by a stated quantity of silver.

- In class, the teacher used "silver standard" to mean a monetary standard under which the basic unit of....
- He looked up "silver standard" because he had never seen it before.

---

support payment (noun)

A payment made by one person for the support of another.

- They discussed "support payment" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "support payment" means with a simple example.

---

turn a profit (verb)

Make a profit; gain money or materially.

- The company has not profited from the merger.
- Learners should practice how to use "turn a profit" in real sentences.

---

balance of trade (noun)

The difference in value over a period of time of a country's imports and exports of merchandise.

- A nation's balance of trade is favorable when its exports exceed its imports.
- The article explained what "balance of trade" means with a simple example.

---

capital gain (noun)

The amount by which the selling price of an asset exceeds the purchase price; the gain is realized when the asset is sold.

- They discussed "capital gain" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "capital gain" because he had never seen it before.

---

cash-and-carry (adjective)

Sold for cash and the customer carries it away (no delivery service).

- Cash-and-carry business.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cash-and-carry."

---

change owners (verb)

Be transferred to another owner.

- This restaurant changed hands twice last year.
- She tried to use "change owners" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

farm bill (noun)

A statute that would regulate farm production and prices.

- The article explained what "farm bill" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "farm bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

forced sale (noun)

A sale of property by the sheriff under authority of a court's writ of execution in order satisfy an unpaid obligation.

- In class, the teacher used "forced sale" to mean a sale of property by the sheriff under authority....
- Understanding "forced sale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lay away (verb)

Save up as for future use.

- Learners should practice how to use "lay away" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "lay away" and when to wait.

---

order of payment (noun)

A document ordering the payment of money; drawn by one person or bank on another.

- They discussed "order of payment" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "order of payment" to mean a document ordering the payment of money; drawn by....

---

purchase price (noun)

The price at which something is actually purchased.

- In class, the teacher used "purchase price" to mean the price at which something is actually purchased.
- He looked up "purchase price" because he had never seen it before.

---

time draft (noun)

A draft payable at a specified future date.

- Understanding "time draft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "time draft" during the group presentation.

---

trade balance (noun)

The difference in value over a period of time of a country's imports and exports of merchandise.

- A nation's balance of trade is favorable when its exports exceed its imports.
- He looked up "trade balance" because he had never seen it before.

---

charge account credit (noun)

A consumer credit line that can be used up to a certain limit or paid down at any time.

- Understanding "charge account credit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charge account credit."

---

cheap shot (noun)

An illegal and unsportsmanlike act of unnecessary violence.

- He called a penalty on them when the lineman took a cheap shot at the quarterback.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheap shot."

---

circumstances (noun)

A person's financial situation (good or bad).

- He found himself in straitened circumstances.
- A victim of circumstances.

---

closed shop (noun)

A company that hires only union members.

- He looked up "closed shop" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "closed shop."

---

cost-of-living benefit (noun)

A benefit that goes to anyone whose money receipts increase automatically as prices rise.

- He looked up "cost-of-living benefit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cost-of-living benefit."

economic aid (noun)

Money to support a worthy person or cause.

- The article explained what "economic aid" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "economic aid" to mean money to support a worthy person or cause.

fixed cost (noun)

A periodic charge that does not vary with business volume (as insurance or rent or mortgage payments etc.).

- They discussed "fixed cost" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "fixed cost" because he had never seen it before.

government revenue (noun)

Income available to the government.

- The article explained what "government revenue" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "government revenue."

investment letter (noun)

A letter of intent saying that a letter security is being bought for investment and not for resale; avoids need for SEC registration.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "investment letter."
- They discussed "investment letter" during the group presentation.

machine shop (noun)

Workshop where metal is cut and shaped etc., by machine tools.

- They discussed "machine shop" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "machine shop."

push-down store (noun)

A storage device that handles data so that the next item to be retrieved is the item most recently stored (LIFO).

- He looked up "push-down store" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "push-down store" to mean a storage device that handles data so that the next....

strike pay (noun)

Money paid to strikers from union funds.

- In class, the teacher used "strike pay" to mean money paid to strikers from union funds.
- Understanding "strike pay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electric bill (noun)

A bill for money owed for electricity used.

- He looked up "electric bill" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "electric bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

financial aid (noun)

Money to support a worthy person or cause.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "financial aid."
- The article explained what "financial aid" means with a simple example.

foreign aid (noun)

Aid (such as economic or military assistance) provided to one nation by another.

- In class, the teacher used "foreign aid" to mean aid (such as economic or military assistance)....
- Understanding "foreign aid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

shopping list (noun)

A list of heterogenous items that someone wants.

- The union came to the table with a whole grocery list of demands.
- He looked up "shopping list" because he had never seen it before.

soft market (noun)

A market in which more people want to sell than want to buy.

- He looked up "soft market" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soft market."

---

transfer tax (noun)

Any tax levied on the passing of title to property.

- He looked up "transfer tax" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "transfer tax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

anti-drug law (noun)

A law forbidding the sale or use of narcotic drugs.

- The article explained what "anti-drug law" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "anti-drug law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coffee shop (noun)

A small restaurant where drinks and snacks are sold.

- He looked up "coffee shop" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coffee shop."

---

final payment (noun)

The final payment of a debt.

- In class, the teacher used "final payment" to mean the final payment of a debt.
- Understanding "final payment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

listed security (noun)

A security that has been accepted for trading by one of the organized and registered securities exchanges in the US.

- They discussed "listed security" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "listed security" means with a simple example.

---

net sales (noun)

Gross sales reduced by customer discounts, returns, freight out, and allowances.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "net sales."
- He looked up "net sales" because he had never seen it before.

---

personal loan (noun)

A loan that establishes consumer credit that is granted for personal use; usually unsecured and based on the borrower's integrity and ability to pay.

- In class, the teacher used "personal loan" to mean a loan that establishes consumer credit that is....
- The article explained what "personal loan" means with a simple example.

---

rent out (verb)

Grant the services of or the temporary use of, for a fee.

- We rent out our apartment to tourists every year.
- He hired himself out as a cook.

---

assets (noun)

Anything of material value or usefulness that is owned by a person or company.

- They discussed "assets" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assets."

---

bank loan (noun)

A loan made by a bank; to be repaid with interest on or before a fixed date.

- In class, the teacher used "bank loan" to mean a loan made by a bank; to be repaid with interest....
- Understanding "bank loan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cash basis (noun)

A method of accounting in which each item is entered as payments are received or made.

- They discussed "cash basis" during the group presentation.

- Understanding "cash basis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

insurance firm (noun)

A financial institution that sells insurance.

- Understanding "insurance firm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "insurance firm" to mean a financial institution that sells insurance.

---

land grant (noun)

A grant of public land (as to a railway or college).

- The article explained what "land grant" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "land grant."

---

operating capital (noun)

Capital available for the operations of a firm (e.g. manufacturing or transportation) as distinct from financial transactions and long-term improvements.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "operating capital."
- He looked up "operating capital" because he had never seen it before.

---

promote (verb)

Make publicity for; try to sell (a product).

- I got promoted after many years of hard work.
- Learners should practice how to use "promote" in real sentences.

---

salt away (verb)

Keep or lay aside for future use.

- She tried to use "salt away" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "salt away" until he saw an example.

---

stock option (noun)

A benefit given by a company to an employee in the form of an option to buy stock in the company at a discount or at a fixed price.

- Stock options are not much use as an incentive if the price at which they can be exercised is out of reach.
- The article explained what "stock option" means with a simple example.

---

deliver (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- The guard delivered the criminal to the police.
- Our local super market delivers.

---

express trust (noun)

A trust created by the free and deliberate act of the parties involved (usually on the basis of written documentation).

- Understanding "express trust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "express trust" means with a simple example.

---

government bond (noun)

A bond that is an IOU of the United States Treasury; considered the safest security in the investment world.

- Understanding "government bond" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "government bond" because he had never seen it before.

---

net income (noun)

The excess of revenues over outlays in a given period of time (including depreciation and other non-cash expenses).

- He looked up "net income" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "net income" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

operating statement (noun)

A financial statement that gives operating results for a specific period.

- Understanding "operating statement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "operating statement" during the group presentation.

---

paper profit (noun)

An unrealized gain on an investment calculated by subtracting the investor's cost from the current market price.

- He looked up "paper profit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paper profit."

prize money (noun)

Any money given as a prize.

- He looked up "prize money" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prize money."

profit and loss (noun)

An account compiled at the end of an accounting period to show gross and net profit or loss.

- He looked up "profit and loss" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "profit and loss."

straight-line method (noun)

(accounting) a method of calculating depreciation by taking an equal amount of the asset's cost as an expense for each year of the asset's useful life.

- Understanding "straight-line method" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "straight-line method" during the group presentation.

thank offering (noun)

An offering made as an expression of thanks.

- He looked up "thank offering" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "thank offering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

christmas gift (noun)

A present given at Christmas time.

- He looked up "christmas gift" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "christmas gift" to mean a present given at christmas time.

distribution cost (noun)

Any cost incurred by a producer or wholesaler or retailer or distributor (as for advertising and shipping etc).

- The article explained what "distribution cost" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "distribution cost" during the group presentation.

meat market (noun)

A shop in which meat and poultry (and sometimes fish) are sold.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "meat market."
- They discussed "meat market" during the group presentation.

payment rate (noun)

The amount of money paid out per unit time.

- Understanding "payment rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "payment rate."

rate of payment (noun)

The amount of money paid out per unit time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rate of payment."
- Understanding "rate of payment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

window-shop (verb)

Examine the shop windows; shop with the eyes only.

- He did not know how to use "window-shop" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "window-shop" and when to wait.

closed-end fund (noun)

A regulated investment company that issues a fixed number of shares which are listed on a stock market.

- They discussed "closed-end fund" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "closed-end fund" because he had never seen it before.

---

fees (noun)

An interest in land capable of being inherited.

- They discussed "fees" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fees."

---

fixed charge (noun)

A periodic charge that does not vary with business volume (as insurance or rent or mortgage payments etc.).

- Understanding "fixed charge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fixed charge" means with a simple example.

---

gift shop (noun)

A shop that sells miscellaneous articles appropriate as gifts.

- In class, the teacher used "gift shop" to mean a shop that sells miscellaneous articles....
- Understanding "gift shop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

half dollar (noun)

A United States coin worth half of a dollar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half dollar."
- Understanding "half dollar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

labor resources (noun)

Resources of available manpower.

- They discussed "labor resources" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "labor resources" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

letting (noun)

Property that is leased or rented out or let.

- The article explained what "letting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "letting" to mean property that is leased or rented out or let.

---

prime interest rate (noun)

The interest rate on short-term loans that banks charge their commercial customers with high credit ratings.

- The article explained what "prime interest rate" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "prime interest rate" to mean the interest rate on short-term loans that banks....

---

tight money (noun)

The economic condition in which credit is difficult to secure and interest rates are high.

- In class, the teacher used "tight money" to mean the economic condition in which credit is difficult....
- They discussed "tight money" during the group presentation.

---

blue sky law (noun)

A state law regulating the sale of securities in an attempt to control the sale of securities in fraudulent enterprises.

- The article explained what "blue sky law" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "blue sky law" during the group presentation.

---

building supply store (noun)

A store where builders can purchase materials for building houses and related structures.

- He looked up "building supply store" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "building supply store" to mean a store where builders can purchase materials for....

---

carrying cost (noun)

The opportunity cost of unproductive assets; the expense incurred by ownership.

- He looked up "carrying cost" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "carrying cost" during the group presentation.

close corporation (noun)

A corporation owned by a few people; shares have no public market.

- Understanding "close corporation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "close corporation."

dirty money (noun)

Goods or money obtained illegally.

- In class, the teacher used "dirty money" to mean goods or money obtained illegally.
- Understanding "dirty money" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

on-license (noun)

A license to sell liquor for consumption on the premises.

- The article explained what "on-license" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "on-license" during the group presentation.

portion out (verb)

Give out as one's portion or share.

- In everyday English, people use "portion out" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "portion out" until he saw an example.

price cutting (noun)

Cutting the price of merchandise to one lower than the usual or advertised price.

- The article explained what "price cutting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "price cutting" to mean cutting the price of merchandise to one lower than....

tax revenue (noun)

Government income due to taxation.

- They discussed "tax revenue" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tax revenue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

upset price (noun)

(auction) the minimum price at which a seller of property will entertain bids.

- Understanding "upset price" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "upset price" because he had never seen it before.

beauty shop (noun)

A shop where hairdressers and beauticians work.

- Understanding "beauty shop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "beauty shop" because he had never seen it before.

dress shop (noun)

A shop that sells women's clothes and jewelry.

- They discussed "dress shop" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dress shop."

estimated tax (noun)

Income tax paid periodically on income that is not subject to withholding taxes; based on the taxpayer's predicted tax liability.

- They discussed "estimated tax" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "estimated tax" means with a simple example.

fair-trade agreement (noun)

An agreement (illegal in the United States) between the manufacturer of a trademarked item of merchandise and its retail distributors to sell the item at a price at or above the price set by the manufacturer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fair-trade agreement."
- He looked up "fair-trade agreement" because he had never seen it before.

fix-it shop (noun)

A shop specializing in repairs and maintenance.

- They discussed "fix-it shop" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fix-it shop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fixed costs (noun)

A periodic charge that does not vary with business volume (as insurance or rent or mortgage payments etc.).

- In class, the teacher used "fixed costs" to mean a periodic charge that does not vary with business....
- The article explained what "fixed costs" means with a simple example.

---

hole card (noun)

Any assets that are concealed until they can be used advantageously.

- Understanding "hole card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hole card."

---

investment firm (noun)

A financial institution that sells shares to individuals and invests in securities issued by other companies.

- The article explained what "investment firm" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "investment firm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

loans (verb)

Give temporarily; let have for a limited time.

- Can you use "loans" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "loans" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

managed economy (noun)

A non-market economy in which government intervention is important in allocating goods and resources and determining prices.

- They discussed "managed economy" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "managed economy" because he had never seen it before.

---

plastic (noun)

A card (usually plastic) that assures a seller that the person using it has a satisfactory credit rating and that the issuer will see to it that the seller receives payment for the merchandise delivered.

- Do you take plastic?
- Understanding "plastic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

purchase contract (noun)

A contract stating the terms of a purchase.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purchase contract."
- He looked up "purchase contract" because he had never seen it before.

---

quarter stock (noun)

Stock with a par value of $25/share.

- Understanding "quarter stock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "quarter stock" during the group presentation.

---

reserve account (noun)

Funds taken out of earnings to provide for anticipated future payments.

- The article explained what "reserve account" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "reserve account" during the group presentation.

---

trial balance (noun)

A balance of debits and credits in double-entry bookkeeping; drawn up to test their equality.

- He looked up "trial balance" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "trial balance" to mean a balance of debits and credits in double-entry....

---

bank draft (noun)

A draft drawn by a bank against funds deposited in another bank.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bank draft."

- He looked up “bank draft” because he had never seen it before.

bond issue (noun)

Bonds sold by a corporation or government agency at a particular time and identifiable by date of maturity.

- Understanding “bond issue” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “bond issue” because he had never seen it before.

budget items (noun)

The expense of maintaining property (e.g., paying property taxes and utilities and insurance); it does not include depreciation or the cost of financing or income taxes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “budget items.”
- He looked up “budget items” because he had never seen it before.

chain store (noun)

One of a chain of retail stores under the same management and selling the same merchandise.

- In class, the teacher used “chain store” to mean one of a chain of retail stores under the same....
- The article explained what “chain store” means with a simple example.

closed-end investment company (noun)

A regulated investment company that issues a fixed number of shares which are listed on a stock market.

- He looked up “closed-end investment company” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “closed-end investment company” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

combat pay (noun)

Extra pay for soldiers engaged in active combat.

- Understanding “combat pay” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “combat pay” during the group presentation.

common shares (noun)

Stock other than preferred stock; entitles the owner to a share of the corporation’s profits and a share of the voting power in shareholder elections.

- Over 40 million Americans invest in common stocks.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “common shares.”

credit entry (noun)

An accounting entry acknowledging income or capital items.

- They discussed “credit entry” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “credit entry.”

direct mail (noun)

Advertising sent directly to prospective customers via the mail.

- In class, the teacher used “direct mail” to mean advertising sent directly to prospective customers....
- The article explained what “direct mail” means with a simple example.

document (noun)

A written account of ownership or obligation.

- They discussed “document” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “document” to mean a written account of ownership or obligation.

half crown (noun)

An English coin worth half a crown.

- In class, the teacher used “half crown” to mean an english coin worth half a crown.
- The article explained what “half crown” means with a simple example.

price-controlled (adjective)

Having the price regulated or controlled by government.

- Students compared “price-controlled” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation “price-controlled”? Explain why.

prize fight (noun)

A boxing match between professional boxers for a cash prize.

- In class, the teacher used "prize fight" to mean a boxing match between professional boxers for a....
- The article explained what "prize fight" means with a simple example.

---

rid (verb)

Relieve from.

- Rid the house of pests.
- Can you use "rid" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

rights offering (noun)

An offering of common stock to existing shareholders who hold subscription rights or pre-emptive rights that entitle them to buy newly issued shares at a discount from the price at which they will be offered to the public later.

- The investment banker who handles a rights offering usually agrees to buy any shares not bought by shareholders.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rights offering."

---

soft sell (noun)

Suggestive or persuasive advertising.

- Understanding "soft sell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "soft sell" means with a simple example.

---

voting trust (noun)

An agreement whereby persons owning stock with voting powers retain ownership while transferring the voting rights to the trustees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "voting trust."
- He looked up "voting trust" because he had never seen it before.

---

wedding gift (noun)

A present given to someone getting married.

- Understanding "wedding gift" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wedding gift."

---

counter check (noun)

A blank check provided by a bank for the convenience of customers who are making withdrawals.

- Understanding "counter check" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "counter check" to mean a blank check provided by a bank for the....

---

investment funds (noun)

Money that is invested with an expectation of profit.

- The article explained what "investment funds" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "investment funds."

---

net estate (noun)

The estate remaining after debts and funeral expenses and administrative expenses have been deducted from the gross estate; the estate then left to be distributed (and subject to federal and state inheritance taxes).

- The article explained what "net estate" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "net estate" during the group presentation.

---

performance bond (noun)

A bond given to protect the recipient against loss in case the terms of a contract are not filled; a surety company assumes liability for nonperformance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "performance bond."
- Understanding "performance bond" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

private corporation (noun)

A corporation owned by a few people; shares have no public market.

- The article explained what "private corporation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "private corporation" during the group presentation.

---

purchase agreement (noun)

A contract stating the terms of a purchase.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purchase agreement."
- He looked up "purchase agreement" because he had never seen it before.

---

shop assistant (noun)

A salesperson in a store.

- Understanding "shop assistant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "shop assistant" to mean a salesperson in a store.

---

united states dollar (noun)

The basic unit of money in the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states dollar."
- Understanding "united states dollar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cash flow (noun)

The excess of cash revenues over cash outlays in a give period of time (not including non-cash expenses).

- They discussed "cash flow" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cash flow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

commercial letter of credit (noun)

A letter of credit given to a business concern for commercial purposes.

- In class, the teacher used "commercial letter of credit" to mean a letter of credit given to a business concern for....
- He looked up "commercial letter of credit" because he had never seen it before.

---

commercial loan (noun)

A bank loan granted for the use of a business.

- He looked up "commercial loan" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commercial loan."

---

current assets (noun)

Assets in the form of cash (or easily convertible into cash).

- He looked up "current assets" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "current assets" to mean assets in the form of cash (or easily convertible....

---

direct loan (noun)

A loan by a lender to a customer without the use of a third party; direct lending gives the lender greater discretion in making loans.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "direct loan."
- He looked up "direct loan" because he had never seen it before.

---

dollar bill (noun)

A piece of paper money worth one dollar.

- The article explained what "dollar bill" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dollar bill" to mean a piece of paper money worth one dollar.

---

earn (verb)

Earn on some commercial or business transaction; earn as salary or wages.

- She earns a lot in her new job.
- She tried to use "earn" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

foreign draft (noun)

A bill of exchange that is drawn in one country and made payable in another.

- They discussed "foreign draft" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "foreign draft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fund raise (verb)

Raise money for a cause or project.

- We are fundraising for AIDS research.

- In everyday English, people use "fund raise" when talking about this idea.

---

fund-raise (verb)

Raise money for a cause or project.

- The coach explained when to use "fund-raise" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "fund-raise" until he saw an example.

---

ground rent (noun)

Payment for the right to occupy and improve a piece of land.

- In class, the teacher used "ground rent" to mean payment for the right to occupy and improve a piece....
- They discussed "ground rent" during the group presentation.

---

one dollar bill (noun)

A piece of paper money worth one dollar.

- The article explained what "one dollar bill" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "one dollar bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

operating budget (noun)

A budget for current expenses as distinct from financial transactions or permanent improvements.

- He looked up "operating budget" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "operating budget" during the group presentation.

---

payments (noun)

A sum of money paid or a claim discharged.

- They discussed "payments" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "payments" because he had never seen it before.

---

price index (noun)

An index that traces the relative changes in the price of an individual good (or a market basket of goods) over time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "price index."
- They discussed "price index" during the group presentation.

---

regular payment (noun)

A payment made at regular times.

- He looked up "regular payment" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "regular payment" to mean a payment made at regular times.

---

birthday gift (noun)

A present given in celebration of a person's birthday.

- They discussed "birthday gift" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "birthday gift" to mean a present given in celebration of a person's birthday.

---

carrying charge (noun)

The opportunity cost of unproductive assets; the expense incurred by ownership.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carrying charge."
- He looked up "carrying charge" because he had never seen it before.

---

crown land (noun)

Land that belongs to the Crown.

- He looked up "crown land" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crown land."

---

door prize (noun)

Tickets are passed out at the entrance to a dance or party or other social function and a prize is awarded to the holder of the winning ticket.

- Understanding "door prize" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "door prize" during the group presentation.

---

economic rent (noun)

The return derived from cultivated land in excess of that derived from the poorest land cultivated under similar conditions.

- He looked up "economic rent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "economic rent."

factory price (noun)

Price charged for goods picked up at the factory.

- The article explained what "factory price" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "factory price" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gift horse (noun)

A gift (usually of inferior quality) that should be accepted uncritically.

- It wasn't much, but don't look a gift horse in the mouth.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gift horse."

lay claim (verb)

Demand as being one's due or property; assert one's right or title to.

- He claimed his suitcases at the airline counter.
- Mr. Smith claims special tax exemptions because he is a foreign resident.

over-the-counter market (noun)

A stock exchange where securities transactions are made via telephone and computer rather than on the floor of an exchange.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "over-the-counter market."
- They discussed "over-the-counter market" during the group presentation.

purchased (verb)

Obtain by purchase; acquire by means of a financial transaction.

- The family purchased a new car.
- He did not know how to use "purchased" until he saw an example.

service fee (noun)

A percentage of a bill (as at a hotel or restaurant) added in payment for service.

- The article explained what "service fee" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "service fee" to mean a percentage of a bill (as at a hotel or....

small-cap (adjective)

Of stocks of companies with a market capitalization of less than one billion dollars.

- Would you call this situation "small-cap"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "small-cap" when it is of stocks of companies with a market capitalization....

two dollar bill (noun)

A United States bill worth 2 dollars.

- The article explained what "two dollar bill" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "two dollar bill."

war chest (noun)

A fund accumulated to finance a war (or a political campaign).

- The article explained what "war chest" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "war chest."

cash advance (noun)

An amount paid before it is earned.

- They discussed "cash advance" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cash advance."

cheap-jack (noun)

A seller of shoddy goods.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheap-jack."
- The article explained what "cheap-jack" means with a simple example.

---

insurance coverage (noun)

The total amount and type of insurance carried.

- Understanding "insurance coverage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "insurance coverage" because he had never seen it before.

---

large-cap (adjective)

Of stocks of companies with a market capitalization of five billion dollars or more.

- It is useful to describe something as "large-cap" when it is of stocks of companies with a market capitalization....
- The speaker chose "large-cap" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

loan application (noun)

An application to borrow money.

- He looked up "loan application" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loan application."

---

no fault insurance (noun)

A system of automobile insurance where a party who is injured in an automobile accident recovers damages up to a specific amount against his own insurance company regardless of who was responsible for the accident.

- The amount of litigation resulting from minor accidents is reduced by no fault insurance.
- They discussed "no fault insurance" during the group presentation.

---

over the counter security (noun)

A security traded in the over-the-counter market.

- The article explained what "over the counter security" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "over the counter security."

---

profit and loss account (noun)

An account compiled at the end of an accounting period to show gross and net profit or loss.

- They discussed "profit and loss account" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "profit and loss account" because he had never seen it before.

---

requirements contract (noun)

A contract in which you agree to purchase all your requirements of a particular sort from one party.

- Understanding "requirements contract" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "requirements contract" to mean a contract in which you agree to purchase all your....

---

retirement check (noun)

A monthly payment made to someone who is retired from work.

- The article explained what "retirement check" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "retirement check" to mean a monthly payment made to someone who is retired....

---

retirement plan (noun)

A plan for setting aside money to be spent after retirement.

- He looked up "retirement plan" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "retirement plan" during the group presentation.

---

retirement program (noun)

A plan for setting aside money to be spent after retirement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "retirement program."
- They discussed "retirement program" during the group presentation.

---

sales finance company (noun)

A finance company that buys (at a discount) the installment sales contracts of retail merchants.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sales finance company."
- He looked up "sales finance company" because he had never seen it before.

turn a nice dollar (verb)

Make a satisfactory profit.

- The company turned a nice dime after a short time.
- He did not know how to use "turn a nice dollar" until he saw an example.

auto company (noun)

A company that makes and sells automobiles.

- Understanding "auto company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "auto company" during the group presentation.

bonus (noun)

An additional payment (or other remuneration) to employees as a means of increasing output.

- They discussed "bonus" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bonus" because he had never seen it before.

demand loan (noun)

A loan that is repayable on demand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "demand loan."
- He looked up "demand loan" because he had never seen it before.

gross (noun)

The entire amount of income before any deductions are made.

- In class, the teacher used "gross" to mean the entire amount of income before any deductions....
- They discussed "gross" during the group presentation.

losses (noun)

Something lost (especially money lost at gambling).

- They discussed "losses" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "losses" means with a simple example.

pocket money (noun)

Cash for day-to-day spending on incidental expenses.

- In class, the teacher used "pocket money" to mean cash for day-to-day spending on incidental expenses.
- Understanding "pocket money" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

retirement account (noun)

A plan for setting aside money to be spent after retirement.

- Understanding "retirement account" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "retirement account" means with a simple example.

voting stock (noun)

Shares in a corporation that entitle the shareholder to voting and proxy rights.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "voting stock."
- He looked up "voting stock" because he had never seen it before.

asks (verb)

Require or ask for as a price or condition.

- This job asks a lot of patience and skill.
- She tried to use "asks" carefully so everyone would understand.

distribution agreement (noun)

A contract governing the marketing of an item of merchandise.

- He looked up "distribution agreement" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "distribution agreement" during the group presentation.

five dollar bill (noun)

A United States bill worth 5 dollars.

- They discussed "five dollar bill" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "five dollar bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

registered security (noun)

A security whose owner's name is recorded on the books of the issuer (or issuer's agent).

- He looked up "registered security" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "registered security."

---

sales representative (noun)

A person employed to represent a business and to sell its merchandise (as to customers in a store or to customers who are visited).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sales representative."
- They discussed "sales representative" during the group presentation.

---

savings (noun)

A fund of money put by as a reserve.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "savings."
- He looked up "savings" because he had never seen it before.

---

sight bill (noun)

A draft payable on presentation.

- He looked up "sight bill" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sight bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stock purchase plan (noun)

An organized plan for employees of a company to buy shares of its stock.

- Understanding "stock purchase plan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "stock purchase plan" means with a simple example.

---

store cheese (noun)

Informal names for American cheddar.

- He looked up "store cheese" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "store cheese."

---

wage (noun)

Something that remunerates.

- Wages were paid by check.
- In class, the teacher used "wage" to mean something that remunerates.

---

australian dollar (noun)

The basic unit of money in Australia and Nauru.

- In class, the teacher used "australian dollar" to mean the basic unit of money in australia and nauru.
- The article explained what "australian dollar" means with a simple example.

---

commercial finance company (noun)

A finance company that makes loans to manufacturers and wholesalers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commercial finance company."
- They discussed "commercial finance company" during the group presentation.

---

denied (verb)

Refuse to grant, as of a petition or request.

- The dean denied the students' request for more physics courses.
- The prisoners were denied the right to exercise for more than 2 hours a day.

---

hidden tax (noun)

A tax paid unwittingly by the consumer (such as ad valorem taxes).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hidden tax."

- He looked up “hidden tax” because he had never seen it before.

letter bond (noun)

A bond that has not been registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and cannot be sold to the general public.

- The article explained what “letter bond” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “letter bond.”

license tax (noun)

A fee paid to the government for the privilege of being licensed to do something (as selling liquor or practicing medicine).

- In class, the teacher used “license tax” to mean a fee paid to the government for the privilege of....
- The article explained what “license tax” means with a simple example.

net profit (noun)

The excess of revenues over outlays in a given period of time (including depreciation and other non-cash expenses).

- They discussed “net profit” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “net profit.”

pay as you earn (noun)

The British system of withholding tax.

- They discussed “pay as you earn” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pay as you earn.”

special drawing rights (noun)

Reserve assets in the International Monetary Fund; designed to supplement reserves of gold and convertible currencies used to maintain stability in the foreign exchange market.

- He looked up “special drawing rights” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “special drawing rights” during the group presentation.

yard sale (noun)

An outdoor sale of used personal or household items held on the seller’s premises.

- The article explained what “yard sale” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “yard sale” during the group presentation.

blind trust (noun)

A trust that enables a person to avoid possible conflict of interest by transferring assets to a fiduciary; the person establishing the trust gives up the right to information about the assets.

- The article explained what “blind trust” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “blind trust” to mean a trust that enables a person to avoid possible....

cash on delivery (adverb)

Collecting the charges upon delivery.

- She spoke “cash on delivery,” and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using “cash on delivery” can make your explanation more exact.

cash register (noun)

A cashbox with an adding machine to register transactions; used in shops to add up the bill.

- Understanding “cash register” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cash register.”

charge plate (noun)

A card (usually plastic) that assures a seller that the person using it has a satisfactory credit rating and that the issuer will see to it that the seller receives payment for the merchandise delivered.

- Understanding “charge plate” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “charge plate” because he had never seen it before.

closed corporation (noun)

A corporation owned by a few people; shares have no public market.

- In class, the teacher used “closed corporation” to mean a corporation owned by a few people; shares have no....
- The article explained what “closed corporation” means with a simple example.

consumer credit (noun)

A line of credit extended for personal or household use.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "consumer credit."
- He looked up "consumer credit" because he had never seen it before.

---

grey market (noun)

An unofficial market in which goods are bought and sold at prices lower than the official price set by a regulatory agency.

- They discussed "grey market" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "grey market" means with a simple example.

---

poverty line (noun)

A level of personal income defining the state of poverty.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poverty line."
- They discussed "poverty line" during the group presentation.

---

quick assets (noun)

Assets in the form of cash (or easily convertible into cash).

- Understanding "quick assets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "quick assets" during the group presentation.

---

retail store (noun)

A place of business for retailing goods.

- In class, the teacher used "retail store" to mean a place of business for retailing goods.
- Understanding "retail store" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sales resistance (noun)

Resistance by potential customers to aggressive selling practices.

- The article explained what "sales resistance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sales resistance" to mean resistance by potential customers to aggressive....

---

turn a trick (verb)

Have a customer, of a prostitute.

- Can you use "turn a trick" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "turn a trick" until he saw an example.

---

demands (noun)

The ability and desire to purchase goods and services.

- His demands for attention were unceasing.
- There were many demands on his time.

---

fee simple (noun)

A fee without limitation to any class of heirs; they can sell it or give it away.

- Understanding "fee simple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fee simple."

---

kit out (verb)

Supply with a set of articles or tools.

- She tried to use "kit out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "kit out" and when to wait.

---

kit up (verb)

Supply with a set of articles or tools.

- Can you use "kit up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "kit up" until he saw an example.

---

legal fee (noun)

A fee paid for legal service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal fee."
- He looked up "legal fee" because he had never seen it before.

---

medium of exchange (noun)

Anything that is generally accepted as a standard of value and a measure of wealth in a particular country or region.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medium of exchange."
- He looked up "medium of exchange" because he had never seen it before.

---

poverty level (noun)

A level of personal income defining the state of poverty.

- They discussed "poverty level" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "poverty level" because he had never seen it before.

---

profit-and-loss statement (noun)

A financial statement that gives operating results for a specific period.

- They discussed "profit-and-loss statement" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "profit-and-loss statement."

---

real estate loan (noun)

A loan on real estate that is usually secured by a mortgage.

- Understanding "real estate loan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "real estate loan."

---

shop bell (noun)

A bell attached to the door of a small shop; warns the proprietor that a customer has entered the shop.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shop bell."
- They discussed "shop bell" during the group presentation.

---

special assessment (noun)

An additional tax levied on private property for public improvements that enhance the value of the property.

- The article explained what "special assessment" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "special assessment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stock index (noun)

Index based on a statistical compilation of the share prices of a number of representative stocks.

- In class, the teacher used "stock index" to mean index based on a statistical compilation of the....
- The article explained what "stock index" means with a simple example.

---

stolen (verb)

Take without the owner's consent.

- Can you use "stolen" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "stolen" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

by-bid (verb)

Bid on behalf of someone else.

- In everyday English, people use "by-bid" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "by-bid" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

customer agent (noun)

A foreign purchaser who buys goods outright for resale.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "customer agent."
- Understanding "customer agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

decline (noun)

A gradual decrease; as of stored charge or current.

- He looked up "decline" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "decline" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

european recovery program (noun)

A United States program of economic aid for the reconstruction of Europe (1948-1952); named after George Marshall.

- He looked up "european recovery program" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "european recovery program" during the group presentation.

go dutch (verb)

Share expenses equally and split the cost of something.

- My boyfriend and I always go Dutch.
- She tried to use "go dutch" carefully so everyone would understand.

gold rush (noun)

A sudden happening that brings good fortune (as a sudden opportunity to make money).

- He looked up "gold rush" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gold rush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hire out (verb)

Grant the services of or the temporary use of, for a fee.

- We rent out our apartment to tourists every year.
- He hired himself out as a cook.

over the counter stock (noun)

Stock that is not listed and traded on an organized exchange.

- They discussed "over the counter stock" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "over the counter stock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

real estate investment trust (noun)

An investment trust that owns and manages a pool of commercial properties and mortgages and other real estate assets; shares can be bought and sold in the stock market.

- The article explained what "real estate investment trust" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "real estate investment trust" to mean an investment trust that owns and manages a pool of....

short covering (noun)

The purchase of securities or commodities by a short seller to close out a short sale.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "short covering."
- He looked up "short covering" because he had never seen it before.

smooth out (verb)

Free from obstructions.

- Smooth the way towards peace negotiations.
- The coach explained when to use "smooth out" and when to wait.

closing price (noun)

(stock market) the price of the last transaction completed during a day's trading session.

- In class, the teacher used "closing price" to mean (stock market) the price of the last transaction....
- The article explained what "closing price" means with a simple example.

contributed (verb)

Contribute to some cause.

- He did not know how to use "contributed" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "contributed" carefully so everyone would understand.

debt limit (noun)

The maximum borrowing power of a governmental entity.

- In class, the teacher used "debt limit" to mean the maximum borrowing power of a governmental entity.
- Understanding "debt limit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gray market (noun)

An unofficial market in which goods are bought and sold at prices lower than the official price set by a regulatory agency.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gray market."
- Understanding "gray market" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

money belt (noun)

Belt with a concealed section for holding money.

- They discussed "money belt" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "money belt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reserve fund (noun)

Funds taken out of earnings to provide for anticipated future payments.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reserve fund."
- He looked up "reserve fund" because he had never seen it before.

---

resulting trust (noun)

A trust created by a court when it is judged that it was the intention of the parties to create a trust.

- The article explained what "resulting trust" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "resulting trust" to mean a trust created by a court when it is judged that....

---

shell out (verb)

Administer or bestow, as in small portions.

- Dole out some money.
- Shell out pocket money for the children.

---

transfer payment (noun)

A public expenditure (as for unemployment compensation or veteran's benefits) that is not for goods and services.

- They discussed "transfer payment" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "transfer payment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

advance death benefit (noun)

A percentage of death benefits paid directly to policy holders having a short life expectancy (usually 6 months).

- The article explained what "advance death benefit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "advance death benefit."

---

cast aside (verb)

Throw or cast away.

- He did not know how to use "cast aside" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "cast aside" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

deep pocket (noun)

A source of substantial wealth (usually plural).

- A patron of the arts should have deep pockets.
- In class, the teacher used "deep pocket" to mean a source of substantial wealth (usually plural).

---

federal reserve note (noun)

A piece of paper money (especially one issued by a central bank).

- He peeled off five one-thousand-zloty notes.
- The article explained what "federal reserve note" means with a simple example.

---

festival of lights (noun)

(Judaism) an eight-day Jewish holiday commemorating the rededication of the Temple of Jerusalem in 165 BC.

- Understanding "festival of lights" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "festival of lights" to mean (judaism) an eight-day jewish holiday commemorating....

---

first mortgage (noun)

A mortgage that has priority over all mortgages and liens except those imposed by law.

- He looked up "first mortgage" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “first mortgage.”

fixed investment trust (noun)

An investment trust that can buy only those securities listed when the trust was organized.

- The article explained what “fixed investment trust” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “fixed investment trust” to mean an investment trust that can buy only those....

gifts (verb)

Give as a present; make a gift of.

- Can you use “gifts” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “gifts” carefully so everyone would understand.

index fund (noun)

A mutual fund whose assets are stocks on a given list.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “index fund.”
- The article explained what “index fund” means with a simple example.

living wage (noun)

A wage sufficient for a worker and family to subsist comfortably.

- The article explained what “living wage” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “living wage” to mean a wage sufficient for a worker and family to....

print shop (noun)

A workplace where printing is done.

- They discussed “print shop” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “print shop” because he had never seen it before.

profit sharing (noun)

A system in which employees receive a share of the net profits of the business.

- In class, the teacher used “profit sharing” to mean a system in which employees receive a share of the....
- Understanding “profit sharing” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

replacement cost (noun)

Current cost of replacing a fixed asset with a new one of equal effectiveness.

- The article explained what “replacement cost” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “replacement cost” to mean current cost of replacing a fixed asset with a new....

ten dollar bill (noun)

A United States bill worth 10 dollars.

- Understanding “ten dollar bill” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “ten dollar bill” means with a simple example.

trade gap (noun)

The difference in value over a period of time of a country’s imports and exports of merchandise.

- A nation’s balance of trade is favorable when its exports exceed its imports.
- Understanding “trade gap” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

entrance money (noun)

The fee charged for admission.

- He looked up “entrance money” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “entrance money” to mean the fee charged for admission.

hat shop (noun)

Shop selling women’s hats.

- They discussed “hat shop” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “hat shop” because he had never seen it before.

lands (noun)

The land on which real estate is located.

- Understanding "lands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lands" to mean the land on which real estate is located.

---

legacy (noun)

(law) a gift of personal property by will.

- They discussed "legacy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legacy."

---

log in (verb)

Enter a computer.

- Have you logged in lately?
- He did not know how to use "log in" until he saw an example.

---

log on (verb)

Enter a computer.

- Have you logged in lately?
- He did not know how to use "log on" until he saw an example.

---

log out (verb)

Exit a computer.

- Please log off before you go home.
- She tried to use "log out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

log-in (verb)

Enter a computer.

- Learners should practice how to use "log-in" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "log-in" and when to wait.

---

price tag (noun)

A tag showing the price of the article it is attached to.

- The article explained what "price tag" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "price tag" to mean a tag showing the price of the article it is....

---

savings account (noun)

A bank account that accumulates interest.

- Understanding "savings account" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "savings account" because he had never seen it before.

---

second mortgage (noun)

A mortgage that is subordinate to a first mortgage.

- He looked up "second mortgage" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "second mortgage" to mean a mortgage that is subordinate to a first mortgage.

---

south korean won (noun)

The basic unit of money in South Korea.

- They discussed "south korean won" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "south korean won" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cash equivalent (noun)

A highly liquid debt instrument with maturities of less than three months.

- The article explained what "cash equivalent" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cash equivalent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cd (noun)

A debt instrument issued by a bank; usually pays interest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cd."
- They discussed "cd" during the group presentation.

---

checking account (noun)

A bank account against which the depositor can draw checks that are payable on demand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "checking account."
- They discussed "checking account" during the group presentation.

---

clothing store (noun)

A store where men's clothes are sold.

- They discussed "clothing store" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "clothing store" means with a simple example.

---

comparison-shop (verb)

Compare prices for a given item.

- The coach explained when to use "comparison-shop" and when to wait.
- Can you use "comparison-shop" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

engage (verb)

Engage for service under a term of contract.

- They engaged in a discussion.
- Make sure the gear is engaged.

---

free enterprise (noun)

An economy that relies chiefly on market forces to allocate goods and resources and to determine prices.

- The article explained what "free enterprise" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "free enterprise" to mean an economy that relies chiefly on market forces to....

---

log off (verb)

Exit a computer.

- Please log off before you go home.
- In everyday English, people use "log off" when talking about this idea.

---

north korean won (noun)

The basic unit of money in North Korea.

- The article explained what "north korean won" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "north korean won" to mean the basic unit of money in north korea.

---

profits (noun)

The excess of revenues over outlays in a given period of time (including depreciation and other non-cash expenses).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "profits."
- He looked up "profits" because he had never seen it before.

---

rising prices (noun)

A general and progressive increase in prices.

- He looked up "rising prices" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rising prices."

---

steam-heat (verb)

Heat by means of steam.

- He did not know how to use "steam-heat" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "steam-heat" and when to wait.

---

stock market index (noun)

Index based on a statistical compilation of the share prices of a number of representative stocks.

- He looked up "stock market index" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "stock market index" to mean index based on a statistical compilation of the....

awarded (verb)

Give as judged due or on the basis of merit.

- The referee awarded a free kick to the team.
- The jury awarded a million dollars to the plaintiff.

gross sales (noun)

Income (at invoice values) received for goods and services over some given period of time.

- He looked up "gross sales" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "gross sales" during the group presentation.

internal revenue (noun)

Government revenue from domestic sources (excluding customs).

- They discussed "internal revenue" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "internal revenue" means with a simple example.

package store (noun)

A store that sells alcoholic beverages for consumption elsewhere.

- The article explained what "package store" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "package store" during the group presentation.

retirement benefit (noun)

A monthly payment made to someone who is retired from work.

- He looked up "retirement benefit" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "retirement benefit" to mean a monthly payment made to someone who is retired....

retirement fund (noun)

A monthly payment made to someone who is retired from work.

- In class, the teacher used "retirement fund" to mean a monthly payment made to someone who is retired....
- They discussed "retirement fund" during the group presentation.

rob (verb)

Take something away by force or without the consent of the owner.

- The burglars robbed him of all his money.
- He did not know how to use "rob" until he saw an example.

seed money (noun)

Capital needed to set up a new business or enterprise.

- They discussed "seed money" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "seed money" because he had never seen it before.

soil bank (noun)

Land retired from crop cultivation and planted with soil-building crops; government subsidies are paid to farmers for their retired land.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soil bank."
- He looked up "soil bank" because he had never seen it before.

bid price (noun)

(stock market) the price at which a broker is willing to buy a certain security.

- Understanding "bid price" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bid price."

canadian dollar (noun)

The basic unit of money in Canada.

- The Canadian dollar has the image of loon on one side of the coin.
- The article explained what "canadian dollar" means with a simple example.

contribute (verb)

Contribute to some cause.

- Can you use “contribute” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “contribute” when talking about this idea.

---

deny (verb)

Refuse to grant, as of a petition or request.

- Learners should practice how to use “deny” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “deny” and when to wait.

---

hard currency (noun)

A currency that is not likely to depreciate suddenly in value.

- The countries agreed to conduct their bilateral trade in hard currency, replacing previous barter arrangements.
- Germany once had a solid economy, good fiscal and monetary policies, and a hard currency.

---

sale in gross (noun)

A sale of a tract of land as a whole without a warranty as to the acreage.

- He looked up “sale in gross” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sale in gross.”

---

banking company (noun)

A financial institution that accepts deposits and channels the money into lending activities.

- The article explained what “banking company” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “banking company” to mean a financial institution that accepts deposits and....

---

boom (noun)

A sudden happening that brings good fortune (as a sudden opportunity to make money).

- The demand for testing has created a boom for those unregulated laboratories where boxes of specimen jars are processed like an assembly line.
- The article explained what “boom” means with a simple example.

---

commit (verb)

Cause to be admitted; of persons to an institution.

- After the second episode, she had to be committed.
- He was committed to prison.

---

discount house (noun)

A sales outlet offering goods at a discounted price.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “discount house.”
- He looked up “discount house” because he had never seen it before.

---

expenses (noun)

Money spent to perform work and usually reimbursed by an employer.

- He kept a careful record of his expenses at the meeting.
- They discussed “expenses” during the group presentation.

---

handling cost (noun)

The cost of handling (especially the cost of packaging and mailing an order).

- Understanding “handling cost” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “handling cost” to mean the cost of handling (especially the cost of....

---

lock-up option (noun)

An option to buy the crown jewels offered to a white knight in order to forestall a hostile takeover.

- He looked up “lock-up option” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “lock-up option” during the group presentation.

---

premium (noun)

The amount that something in scarce supply is valued above its nominal value.

- They paid a premium for access to water.

- They encouraged customers with a premium for loyal patronage.

---

price reduction (noun)

The act of reducing the selling price of merchandise.

- In class, the teacher used "price reduction" to mean the act of reducing the selling price of merchandise.
- The article explained what "price reduction" means with a simple example.

---

sales pitch (noun)

Promotion by means of an argument and demonstration.

- In class, the teacher used "sales pitch" to mean promotion by means of an argument and demonstration.
- The article explained what "sales pitch" means with a simple example.

---

stolen property (noun)

Property that has been stolen.

- He looked up "stolen property" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "stolen property" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bureau de change (noun)

(French) an establishment where you can exchange foreign money.

- They discussed "bureau de change" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bureau de change" to mean (french) an establishment where you can exchange....

---

discount business (noun)

The business of selling merchandise at a discount.

- They discussed "discount business" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "discount business" because he had never seen it before.

---

flower store (noun)

A shop where flowers and ornamental plants are sold.

- Understanding "flower store" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "flower store" because he had never seen it before.

---

post doc (noun)

A grant that funds postdoctoral study or research.

- He looked up "post doc" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "post doc" during the group presentation.

---

private enterprise (noun)

An economy that relies chiefly on market forces to allocate goods and resources and to determine prices.

- In class, the teacher used "private enterprise" to mean an economy that relies chiefly on market forces to....
- The article explained what "private enterprise" means with a simple example.

---

sum of money (noun)

A quantity of money.

- He borrowed a large sum.
- In class, the teacher used "sum of money" to mean a quantity of money.

---

checks (noun)

A written order directing a bank to pay money.

- She wore a skirt with checks.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "checks."

---

chip in (verb)

Contribute to some cause.

- Can you use "chip in" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "chip in" when talking about this idea.

---

consumer loan (noun)

A loan that establishes consumer credit that is granted for personal use; usually unsecured and based on the borrower's integrity and ability to pay.

- Understanding "consumer loan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "consumer loan" because he had never seen it before.

---

corporate bond (noun)

A bond issued by a corporation; carries no claim to ownership and pays no dividends but payments to bondholders have priority over payments to stockholders.

- A corporate bond is a safer investment than common stock in the same company.
- He looked up "corporate bond" because he had never seen it before.

---

footage (noun)

A rate of charging by the linear foot of work done.

- They had stock footage of lightning, tornados, and hurricanes.
- He edited the news footage.

---

lay aside (verb)

Accumulate money for future use.

- Learners should practice how to use "lay aside" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "lay aside" when talking about this idea.

---

natural resource (noun)

Resources (actual and potential) supplied by nature.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "natural resource."
- He looked up "natural resource" because he had never seen it before.

---

pet shop (noun)

A shop where pet animals can be purchased.

- They discussed "pet shop" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pet shop" to mean a shop where pet animals can be purchased.

---

revenue bond (noun)

A bond issued by an agency that is commissioned to finance public works; revenue from the public property is used to pay off the bond.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "revenue bond."
- He looked up "revenue bond" because he had never seen it before.

---

sales promotion (noun)

Promotion that supplements or coordinates advertising.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sales promotion."
- The article explained what "sales promotion" means with a simple example.

---

balance of payments (noun)

A system of recording all of a country's economic transactions with the rest of the world over a period of one year.

- A favorable balance of payments exists when more payments are coming in than going out.
- Understanding "balance of payments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

common stock equivalent (noun)

Preferred stock or convertible bonds or warrants that can be converted into common stock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common stock equivalent."
- The article explained what "common stock equivalent" means with a simple example.

---

equity (noun)

The ownership interest of shareholders in a corporation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "equity."
- He looked up "equity" because he had never seen it before.

---

gross estate (noun)

The total valuation of the estate's assets at the time of the person's death.

- In class, the teacher used "gross estate" to mean the total valuation of the estate's assets at the....
- The article explained what "gross estate" means with a simple example.

---

gross national product (noun)

Former measure of the United States economy; the total market value of goods and services produced by all citizens and capital during a given period (usually 1 yr).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gross national product."
- He looked up "gross national product" because he had never seen it before.

---

handling charge (noun)

The cost of handling (especially the cost of packaging and mailing an order).

- They discussed "handling charge" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "handling charge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pizza shop (noun)

A shop where pizzas are made and sold.

- In class, the teacher used "pizza shop" to mean a shop where pizzas are made and sold.
- He looked up "pizza shop" because he had never seen it before.

---

retail chain (noun)

A chain of retail stores.

- In class, the teacher used "retail chain" to mean a chain of retail stores.
- They discussed "retail chain" during the group presentation.

---

savings account trust (noun)

A savings account deposited by someone who makes themselves the trustee for a beneficiary and who controls it during their lifetime; afterward the balance is payable to the previously named beneficiary.

- In class, the teacher used "savings account trust" to mean a savings account deposited by someone who makes....
- The article explained what "savings account trust" means with a simple example.

---

bank discount (noun)

Interest on an annual basis deducted in advance on a loan.

- The article explained what "bank discount" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bank discount."

---

bull market (noun)

A market characterized by rising prices for securities.

- The article explained what "bull market" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bull market."

---

certificate (noun)

A formal declaration that documents a fact of relevance to finance and investment; the holder has a right to receive interest or dividends.

- The article explained what "certificate" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "certificate" during the group presentation.

---

default on (verb)

Fail to pay up.

- The coach explained when to use "default on" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "default on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

discount rate (noun)

The rate of interest set by the Federal Reserve that member banks are charged when they borrow money through the Federal Reserve System.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "discount rate."
- He looked up "discount rate" because he had never seen it before.

---

franchise (noun)

An authorization to sell a company's goods or services in a particular place.

- They discussed "franchise" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "franchise" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ordinary life insurance (noun)

Insurance on the life of the insured for a fixed amount at a definite premium that is paid each year in the same amount during the entire lifetime of the insured.

- He looked up "ordinary life insurance" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ordinary life insurance."

paper currency (noun)

Currency issued by a government or central bank and consisting of printed paper that can circulate as a substitute for specie.

- The article explained what "paper currency" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "paper currency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

political contribution (noun)

A contribution made to a politician or a political campaign or a political party.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "political contribution."
- He looked up "political contribution" because he had never seen it before.

poll tax (noun)

A tax of a fixed amount per person and payable as a requirement for the right to vote.

- In class, the teacher used "poll tax" to mean a tax of a fixed amount per person and payable as a....
- The article explained what "poll tax" means with a simple example.

public domain (noun)

Property rights that are held by the public at large.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public domain."
- He looked up "public domain" because he had never seen it before.

sacrifice (noun)

A loss entailed by giving up or selling something at less than its value.

- He had to sell his car at a considerable sacrifice.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sacrifice."

savings bank trust (noun)

A savings account deposited by someone who makes themselves the trustee for a beneficiary and who controls it during their lifetime; afterward the balance is payable to the previously named beneficiary.

- They discussed "savings bank trust" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "savings bank trust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

transferred property (noun)

A possession whose ownership changes or lapses.

- They discussed "transferred property" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "transferred property" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hundred dollar bill (noun)

A United States bill worth 100 dollars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hundred dollar bill."
- The article explained what "hundred dollar bill" means with a simple example.

immediate payment (noun)

Prompt payment for goods or services in currency or by check.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "immediate payment."
- Understanding "immediate payment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

investors club (noun)

A club of small investors who buy and sell securities jointly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "investors club."
- They discussed "investors club" during the group presentation.

material possession (noun)

Property or belongings that are tangible.

- The article explained what "material possession" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "material possession" to mean property or belongings that are tangible.

---

material resource (noun)

Assets in the form of material possessions.

- They discussed "material resource" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "material resource" because he had never seen it before.

---

progressive tax (noun)

Any tax in which the rate increases as the amount subject to taxation increases.

- Understanding "progressive tax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "progressive tax" because he had never seen it before.

---

promoting (verb)

Make publicity for; try to sell (a product).

- I am promoting the use of computers in the classroom.
- Can you use "promoting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

real gross national product (noun)

A version of the GNP that has been adjusted for the effects of inflation.

- The article explained what "real gross national product" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "real gross national product."

---

repair shop (noun)

A shop specializing in repairs and maintenance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "repair shop."
- The article explained what "repair shop" means with a simple example.

---

reserve assets (noun)

Capital held back from investment in order to meet probable or possible demands.

- The article explained what "reserve assets" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "reserve assets" during the group presentation.

---

toy business (noun)

An industry that manufactures and sells toys for children.

- Understanding "toy business" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toy business."

---

trade discount (noun)

A discount from the list price of a commodity allowed by a manufacturer or wholesaler to a merchant.

- They discussed "trade discount" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "trade discount" to mean a discount from the list price of a commodity....

---

accounting system (noun)

A bookkeeper's chronological list of related debits and credits of a business; forms part of a ledger of accounts.

- In class, the teacher used "accounting system" to mean a bookkeeper's chronological list of related debits....
- The article explained what "accounting system" means with a simple example.

---

auto loan (noun)

A personal loan to purchase an automobile.

- They discussed "auto loan" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "auto loan."

---

earnings (noun)

The excess of revenues over outlays in a given period of time (including depreciation and other non-cash expenses).

- They saved a quarter of all their earnings.

- The article explained what "earnings" means with a simple example.

---

furniture company (noun)

A company that sells furniture.

- They discussed "furniture company" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "furniture company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sight draft (noun)

A draft payable on presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "sight draft" to mean a draft payable on presentation.
- The article explained what "sight draft" means with a simple example.

---

slave market (noun)

A marketplace where slaves were auctioned off (especially in the southern United States before the American Civil War).

- The article explained what "slave market" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "slave market" during the group presentation.

---

small fortune (noun)

A large sum of money.

- He made a small fortune in the commodities market.
- Understanding "small fortune" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

weed out (verb)

Remove unwanted elements.

- The company weeded out the incompetent people.
- The new law weeds out the old inequities.

---

auction off (verb)

Sell at an auction.

- The coach explained when to use "auction off" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "auction off" in real sentences.

---

balance of international payments (noun)

A system of recording all of a country's economic transactions with the rest of the world over a period of one year.

- A favorable balance of payments exists when more payments are coming in than going out.
- In class, the teacher used "balance of international payments" to mean a system of recording all of a country's economic....

---

british pound (noun)

The basic unit of money in Great Britain and Northern Ireland; equal to 100 pence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "british pound."
- They discussed "british pound" during the group presentation.

---

coins (noun)

A flat metal piece (usually a disc) used as money.

- In class, the teacher used "coins" to mean a flat metal piece (usually a disc) used as money.
- Understanding "coins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

discount store (noun)

A sales outlet offering goods at a discounted price.

- He looked up "discount store" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "discount store" to mean a sales outlet offering goods at a discounted price.

---

gross profit (noun)

(finance) the net sales minus the cost of goods and services sold.

- Understanding "gross profit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "gross profit" to mean (finance) the net sales minus the cost of goods and....

---

hidden reserve (noun)

Reserves that do not show up on the balance sheet (as by understating values).

- In class, the teacher used "hidden reserve" to mean reserves that do not show up on the balance sheet....
- The article explained what "hidden reserve" means with a simple example.

---

pays (verb)

Do or give something to somebody in return.

- It pays to go through the trouble.
- Can you use "pays" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

pin money (noun)

Cash for day-to-day spending on incidental expenses.

- They discussed "pin money" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pin money" because he had never seen it before.

---

private treaty (noun)

A sale of property at a price agreed on by the seller and buyer without an intervening agency.

- Understanding "private treaty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "private treaty" to mean a sale of property at a price agreed on by the....

---

sales rep (noun)

A person employed to represent a business and to sell its merchandise (as to customers in a store or to customers who are visited).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sales rep."
- He looked up "sales rep" because he had never seen it before.

---

seed stock (noun)

A supply of seeds (or tubers) reserved for planting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seed stock."
- The article explained what "seed stock" means with a simple example.

---

twenty dollar bill (noun)

A United States bill worth 20 dollars.

- He looked up "twenty dollar bill" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "twenty dollar bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

venture (noun)

An investment that is very risky but could yield great profits.

- The article explained what "venture" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "venture."

---

blue chip (noun)

A common stock of a nationally known company whose value and dividends are reliable; typically have high price and low yield.

- Blue chips are usually safe investments.
- In class, the teacher used "blue chip" to mean a common stock of a nationally known company whose....

---

johnny cash (noun)

United States country music singer and songwriter (1932-2003).

- They discussed "johnny cash" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "johnny cash."

---

margin call (noun)

A demand by a broker that a customer deposit enough to bring his margin up to the minimum requirement.

- Understanding "margin call" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "margin call" during the group presentation.

---

minimum wage (noun)

The lowest wage that an employer is allowed to pay; determined by contract or by law.

- He looked up “minimum wage” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “minimum wage” during the group presentation.

---

preferred stock (noun)

Stock whose holders are guaranteed priority in the payment of dividends but whose holders have no voting rights.

- The article explained what “preferred stock” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “preferred stock” to mean stock whose holders are guaranteed priority in the....

---

registered bond (noun)

A bond whose owner is recorded on the books of the issuer; can be transferred to another owner only when endorsed by the registered owner.

- The article explained what “registered bond” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “registered bond” to mean a bond whose owner is recorded on the books of the....

---

toy industry (noun)

An industry that manufactures and sells toys for children.

- In class, the teacher used “toy industry” to mean an industry that manufactures and sells toys for....
- They discussed “toy industry” during the group presentation.

---

wear and tear (noun)

Decrease in value of an asset due to obsolescence or use.

- In class, the teacher used “wear and tear” to mean decrease in value of an asset due to obsolescence....
- Understanding “wear and tear” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

balance sheet (noun)

A record of the financial situation of an institution on a particular date by listing its assets and the claims against those assets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “balance sheet.”
- They discussed “balance sheet” during the group presentation.

---

insurance premium (noun)

Payment for insurance.

- The article explained what “insurance premium” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “insurance premium.”

---

intellectual property (noun)

Intangible property that is the result of creativity (such as patents or trademarks or copyrights).

- They discussed “intellectual property” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “intellectual property.”

---

lighting industry (noun)

An industry devoted to manufacturing and selling and installing lighting.

- Understanding “lighting industry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “lighting industry” because he had never seen it before.

---

new zealand dollar (noun)

The basic unit of money in New Zealand.

- The article explained what “new zealand dollar” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “new zealand dollar.”

---

time deposit (noun)

A certificate of deposit from which withdrawals can be made only after advance notice or at a specified future date.

- They discussed “time deposit” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “time deposit” to mean a certificate of deposit from which withdrawals can....

---

treasury (noun)

The funds of a government or institution or individual.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “treasury.”
- He looked up “treasury” because he had never seen it before.

visible balance (noun)

The difference in value over a period of time of a country's imports and exports of merchandise.

- A nation's balance of trade is favorable when its exports exceed its imports.
- He looked up "visible balance" because he had never seen it before.

earning (verb)

Earn on some commercial or business transaction; earn as salary or wages.

- She tried to use "earning" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "earning" in real sentences.

earnings report (noun)

A financial statement that gives operating results for a specific period.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earnings report."
- He looked up "earnings report" because he had never seen it before.

franchise tax (noun)

A tax that is imposed by states on corporations; it depends both on the net worth of the corporation and on its net income attributable to activities within the state.

- He looked up "franchise tax" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "franchise tax" to mean a tax that is imposed by states on corporations; it....

gross revenue (noun)

Income (at invoice values) received for goods and services over some given period of time.

- Understanding "gross revenue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gross revenue" during the group presentation.

hardware store (noun)

A store selling hardware.

- In Great Britain they used to call a hardware store an ironmonger's shop.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hardware store."

hire-purchase (noun)

Installment plan.

- Understanding "hire-purchase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "hire-purchase" means with a simple example.

hiring (verb)

Engage for service under a term of contract.

- He did not know how to use "hiring" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "hiring" and when to wait.

rolls (noun)

A roll of currency notes (often taken as the resources of a person or business etc.).

- His name was struck off the rolls.
- He looked up "rolls" because he had never seen it before.

sponsored (verb)

Assume responsibility for or leadership of.

- He did not know how to use "sponsored" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "sponsored" in a sentence that fits this situation?

consumer price index (noun)

An index of the cost of all goods and services to a typical consumer.

- The article explained what "consumer price index" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "consumer price index."

margin account (noun)

An account with a securities brokerage in which the broker extends credit.

- The article explained what "margin account" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "margin account" to mean an account with a securities brokerage in which the....

---

palm off (verb)

Sell as genuine, sell with the intention to deceive.

- He did not know how to use "palm off" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "palm off" in real sentences.

---

pension (noun)

A regular payment to a person that is intended to allow them to subsist without working.

- Understanding "pension" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pension" because he had never seen it before.

---

public treasury (noun)

A treasury for government funds.

- In class, the teacher used "public treasury" to mean a treasury for government funds.
- The article explained what "public treasury" means with a simple example.

---

business expense (noun)

Ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in a taxpayer's business or trade.

- In class, the teacher used "business expense" to mean ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in a....
- They discussed "business expense" during the group presentation.

---

candy store (noun)

A confectioner's shop.

- In class, the teacher used "candy store" to mean a confectioner's shop.
- The article explained what "candy store" means with a simple example.

---

closely held corporation (noun)

Stock is publicly traded but most is held by a few shareholders who have no plans to sell.

- He looked up "closely held corporation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "closely held corporation."

---

exchange premium (noun)

A fee charged for exchanging currencies.

- Understanding "exchange premium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "exchange premium" because he had never seen it before.

---

execution sale (noun)

A sale of property by the sheriff under authority of a court's writ of execution in order satisfy an unpaid obligation.

- They discussed "execution sale" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "execution sale" to mean a sale of property by the sheriff under authority....

---

federal national mortgage association (noun)

A federally chartered corporation that purchases mortgages.

- In class, the teacher used "federal national mortgage association" to mean a federally chartered corporation that purchases....
- They discussed "federal national mortgage association" during the group presentation.

---

home equity credit (noun)

A loan secured by equity value in the borrower's home.

- The article explained what "home equity credit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home equity credit."

---

license fee (noun)

A fee paid to the government for the privilege of being licensed to do something (as selling liquor or practicing medicine).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "license fee."

- He looked up “license fee” because he had never seen it before.

---

mortgage loan (noun)

A loan on real estate that is usually secured by a mortgage.

- He looked up “mortgage loan” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “mortgage loan” to mean a loan on real estate that is usually secured by a....

---

owns (verb)

Have ownership or possession of.

- He owns three houses in Florida.
- He did not know how to use “owns” until he saw an example.

---

pay dirt (noun)

A profitable success.

- The inventor worked for years before hitting pay dirt.
- They discussed “pay dirt” during the group presentation.

---

precious metal (noun)

Any of the less common and valuable metals often used to make coins or jewelry.

- The article explained what “precious metal” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “precious metal.”

---

retail price index (noun)

An index of changes in retail prices.

- Understanding “retail price index” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “retail price index” during the group presentation.

---

savings bond (noun)

Non-negotiable government bond; cannot be bought and sold once the original purchase is made.

- Understanding “savings bond” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “savings bond” because he had never seen it before.

---

snap up (verb)

Get hold of or seize quickly and easily.

- I snapped up all the good buys during the garage sale.
- He did not know how to use “snap up” until he saw an example.

---

certified check (noun)

A check containing certification that the person who issued the check has sufficient funds on deposit to cover payment.

- The article explained what “certified check” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “certified check” during the group presentation.

---

dealt (verb)

Distribute cards to the players in a game.

- He dealt me the Queen of Spades.
- Learners should practice how to use “dealt” in real sentences.

---

deposit account (noun)

A savings account in which the deposit is held for a fixed term or in which withdrawals can be made only after giving notice or with loss of interest.

- They discussed “deposit account” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “deposit account” because he had never seen it before.

---

equity credit line (noun)

A loan secured by equity value in the borrower’s home.

- Understanding “equity credit line” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “equity credit line.”

---

marshall plan (noun)

A United States program of economic aid for the reconstruction of Europe (1948-1952); named after George Marshall.

- The article explained what "marshall plan" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "marshall plan" to mean a united states program of economic aid for the....

---

ordinary shares (noun)

Stock other than preferred stock; entitles the owner to a share of the corporation's profits and a share of the voting power in shareholder elections.

- Understanding "ordinary shares" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ordinary shares" to mean stock other than preferred stock; entitles the....

---

securities market (noun)

An exchange where security trading is conducted by professional stockbrokers.

- In class, the teacher used "securities market" to mean an exchange where security trading is conducted by....
- The article explained what "securities market" means with a simple example.

---

security deposit (noun)

The amount of collateral a customer deposits with a broker when borrowing from the broker to buy securities.

- In class, the teacher used "security deposit" to mean the amount of collateral a customer deposits with a....
- Understanding "security deposit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stock certificate (noun)

A certificate documenting the shareholder's ownership in the corporation.

- The value of his stocks doubled during the past year.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stock certificate."

---

tax shelter (noun)

A way of organizing business to reduce the taxes it must pay on current earnings.

- Understanding "tax shelter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tax shelter" because he had never seen it before.

---

auction sale (noun)

The public sale of something to the highest bidder.

- Understanding "auction sale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "auction sale" means with a simple example.

---

bank deposit (noun)

Money deposited in a bank or some similar institution.

- He looked up "bank deposit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bank deposit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

expense account (noun)

An account to which salespersons or executives can charge travel and entertainment expenses.

- They discussed "expense account" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "expense account" because he had never seen it before.

---

expense record (noun)

A written record of money spent.

- The article explained what "expense record" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "expense record" to mean a written record of money spent.

---

preserve (verb)

To keep up and reserve for personal or special use.

- Preserve the peace in the family.
- We preserve these archeological findings.

---

securities industry (noun)

The securities markets in the aggregate.

- Understanding "securities industry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "securities industry" means with a simple example.

---

shoe industry (noun)

An industry that manufactures and sells shoes.

- They discussed "shoe industry" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "shoe industry" because he had never seen it before.

---

time deposit account (noun)

A savings account in which the deposit is held for a fixed term or in which withdrawals can be made only after giving notice or with loss of interest.

- In class, the teacher used "time deposit account" to mean a savings account in which the deposit is held for....
- The article explained what "time deposit account" means with a simple example.

---

treasury bill (noun)

A short-term obligation that is not interest-bearing (it is purchased at a discount); can be traded on a discount basis for 91 days.

- Understanding "treasury bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "treasury bill."

---

venture capital (noun)

Wealth available for investment in new or speculative enterprises.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "venture capital."
- He looked up "venture capital" because he had never seen it before.

---

banking concern (noun)

A financial institution that accepts deposits and channels the money into lending activities.

- In class, the teacher used "banking concern" to mean a financial institution that accepts deposits and....
- The article explained what "banking concern" means with a simple example.

---

big bucks (noun)

A large sum of money (especially as pay or profit).

- They sank megabucks into their new house.
- He looked up "big bucks" because he had never seen it before.

---

classified stock (noun)

Common stock classified as A or B where A has certain advantages (e.g., voting power) that B does not.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "classified stock."
- The article explained what "classified stock" means with a simple example.

---

disability check (noun)

A monthly payment made to someone who has become disabled and is unable to work.

- He looked up "disability check" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "disability check" to mean a monthly payment made to someone who has become....

---

garage sale (noun)

An outdoor sale of used personal or household items held on the seller's premises.

- In class, the teacher used "garage sale" to mean an outdoor sale of used personal or household items....
- They discussed "garage sale" during the group presentation.

---

interest expense (noun)

Interest paid on loans.

- Understanding "interest expense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "interest expense" to mean interest paid on loans.

---

medical expense (noun)

Amount spent for diagnosis or treatment or prevention of medical problems.

- They discussed "medical expense" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "medical expense" because he had never seen it before.

modified american plan (noun)

A hotel plan that includes breakfast and dinner (but not lunch).

- Understanding "modified american plan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "modified american plan."

money dealer (noun)

A person who receives or invests or pays out money.

- They discussed "money dealer" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "money dealer" means with a simple example.

municipal note (noun)

A municipal debt instrument with a maturity of less than 2 years.

- He looked up "municipal note" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "municipal note" to mean a municipal debt instrument with a maturity of less....

old-age pension (noun)

A monthly payment made to someone who is retired from work.

- The article explained what "old-age pension" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "old-age pension" to mean a monthly payment made to someone who is retired....

pension account (noun)

A plan for setting aside money to be spent after retirement.

- The article explained what "pension account" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pension account" during the group presentation.

pension plan (noun)

A plan for setting aside money to be spent after retirement.

- They discussed "pension plan" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pension plan" to mean a plan for setting aside money to be spent after....

personal expense (noun)

The cost of personal or family living.

- Some personal expenses are tax deductible.
- He looked up "personal expense" because he had never seen it before.

powder store (noun)

A storehouse (as a compartment on a warship) where weapons and ammunition are stored.

- He looked up "powder store" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "powder store" during the group presentation.

printing shop (noun)

A workplace where printing is done.

- They discussed "printing shop" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "printing shop."

silver certificate (noun)

Formerly a bank note issued by the United States Treasury and redeemable in silver.

- In class, the teacher used "silver certificate" to mean formerly a bank note issued by the united states....
- They discussed "silver certificate" during the group presentation.

stored (verb)

Find a place for and put away for storage.

- In everyday English, people use "stored" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "stored" in a sentence that fits this situation?

trade expense (noun)

Ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in a taxpayer's business or trade.

- In class, the teacher used "trade expense" to mean ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in a....
- Understanding "trade expense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

treasury note (noun)

Securities with maturities of 1 to 10 years; sold for cash or in exchange for maturing issues or at auction.

- The article explained what "treasury note" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "treasury note" during the group presentation.

---

acres (noun)

Extensive landed property (especially in the country) retained by the owner for his own use.

- He looked up "acres" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "acres" during the group presentation.

---

blue-chip stock (noun)

A common stock of a nationally known company whose value and dividends are reliable; typically have high price and low yield.

- They discussed "blue-chip stock" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue-chip stock."

---

copper-bottom (verb)

Provide with a copper bottom.

- Copper-bottom a frying pan.
- He did not know how to use "copper-bottom" until he saw an example.

---

departure tax (noun)

A tax that is levied when you are departing a country by land or sea or air.

- They discussed "departure tax" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "departure tax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

discount chain (noun)

A chain of discount stores.

- He looked up "discount chain" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "discount chain."

---

electronics company (noun)

A company that makes and sells electronic instruments.

- Understanding "electronics company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "electronics company" to mean a company that makes and sells electronic instruments.

---

export credit (noun)

A credit opened by an importer with a bank in an exporter's country to finance an export operation.

- The article explained what "export credit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "export credit" to mean a credit opened by an importer with a bank in an....

---

financial backing (noun)

Financial resources provided to make some project possible.

- He looked up "financial backing" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "financial backing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gross domestic product (noun)

The measure of an economy adopted by the United States in 1991; the total market values of goods and services produced by workers and capital within a nation's borders during a given period (usually 1 year).

- The article explained what "gross domestic product" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gross domestic product."

---

lease (verb)

Engage for service under a term of contract.

- Learners should practice how to use "lease" in real sentences.

- The coach explained when to use “lease” and when to wait.

loan participation (noun)

A loan that is shared by a group of banks that join to make a loan too big for any one of them alone.

- The article explained what “loan participation” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “loan participation.”

method of accounting (noun)

A bookkeeper’s chronological list of related debits and credits of a business; forms part of a ledger of accounts.

- They discussed “method of accounting” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “method of accounting” means with a simple example.

participation loan (noun)

A loan that is shared by a group of banks that join to make a loan too big for any one of them alone.

- The article explained what “participation loan” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “participation loan.”

shoe store (noun)

A shop where shoes are sold.

- In class, the teacher used “shoe store” to mean a shop where shoes are sold.
- Understanding “shoe store” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tip sheet (noun)

A publication containing the latest information or tips or predictions for a particular business or stock market information or horse racing results, etc.

- Understanding “tip sheet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “tip sheet” during the group presentation.

annually (adverb)

By the year; every year (usually with reference to a sum of money paid or received).

- They travel to China annually.
- Place “annually” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

earning per share (noun)

The portion of a company’s profit allocated to each outstanding share of common stock.

- In class, the teacher used “earning per share” to mean the portion of a company’s profit allocated to each....
- He looked up “earning per share” because he had never seen it before.

industrial psychology (noun)

Any of several branches of psychology that seek to apply psychological principles to practical problems of education or industry or marketing etc.

- He looked up “industrial psychology” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “industrial psychology” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

liquid assets (noun)

Assets in the form of cash (or easily convertible into cash).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “liquid assets.”
- They discussed “liquid assets” during the group presentation.

moving expense (noun)

The cost of moving your residence from one location to another.

- Understanding “moving expense” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “moving expense” means with a simple example.

mutual fund (noun)

The pooled money that is invested in assets.

- The article explained what “mutual fund” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “mutual fund” during the group presentation.

preferred shares (noun)

Stock whose holders are guaranteed priority in the payment of dividends but whose holders have no voting rights.

- They discussed "preferred shares" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "preferred shares" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

producer price index (noun)

An index of changes in wholesale prices.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "producer price index."
- They discussed "producer price index" during the group presentation.

---

retain (verb)

Secure and keep for possible future use or application.

- The landlord retained the security deposit.
- This soil retains water.

---

stock warrant (noun)

A type of security issued by a corporation (usually together with a bond or preferred stock) that gives the holder the right to purchase a certain amount of common stock at a stated price.

- As a sweetener they offered warrants along with the fixed-income securities.
- The article explained what "stock warrant" means with a simple example.

---

treasury stock (noun)

Stock that has been bought back by the issuing corporation and is available for retirement or resale; it is issued but not outstanding; it cannot vote and pays no dividends.

- They discussed "treasury stock" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "treasury stock" means with a simple example.

---

yield up (verb)

Surrender, as a result of pressure or force.

- The coach explained when to use "yield up" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "yield up" until he saw an example.

---

applied psychology (noun)

Any of several branches of psychology that seek to apply psychological principles to practical problems of education or industry or marketing etc.

- In class, the teacher used "applied psychology" to mean any of several branches of psychology that seek to....
- He looked up "applied psychology" because he had never seen it before.

---

entrance fee (noun)

The fee charged for admission.

- Understanding "entrance fee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "entrance fee" because he had never seen it before.

---

organization expense (noun)

The cost (over a period of five years) of organizing a new corporation or partnership.

- They discussed "organization expense" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "organization expense" to mean the cost (over a period of five years) of....

---

promoted (verb)

Make publicity for; try to sell (a product).

- I got promoted after many years of hard work.
- The coach explained when to use "promoted" and when to wait.

---

retirement savings plan (noun)

A plan for setting aside money to be spent after retirement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "retirement savings plan."
- Understanding "retirement savings plan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shoe shop (noun)

A shop where shoes are sold.

- They discussed "shoe shop" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "shoe shop" means with a simple example.

---

shoe-shop (noun)

A shop where shoes are sold.

- In class, the teacher used "shoe-shop" to mean a shop where shoes are sold.
- They discussed "shoe-shop" during the group presentation.

---

singapore dollar (noun)

The basic unit of money in Singapore.

- In class, the teacher used "singapore dollar" to mean the basic unit of money in singapore.
- They discussed "singapore dollar" during the group presentation.

---

store detective (noun)

A private detective employed by a merchant to stop pilferage.

- He looked up "store detective" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "store detective" during the group presentation.

---

stored program (noun)

A program that is stored in the memory of the computer that executes it.

- The article explained what "stored program" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stored program" to mean a program that is stored in the memory of the....

---

stored-program (adjective)

Of or concerning programs stored in the computer's own memory.

- Students compared "stored-program" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "stored-program" when it is of or concerning programs stored in the computer's....

---

tobacco industry (noun)

An industry that manufactures and sells products containing tobacco.

- They discussed "tobacco industry" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tobacco industry" because he had never seen it before.

---

traded (verb)

Turn in as payment or part payment for a purchase.

- The stock traded around $20 a share.
- The coach explained when to use "traded" and when to wait.

---

accounting entry (noun)

A written record of a commercial transaction.

- They discussed "accounting entry" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "accounting entry" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital gains tax (noun)

A tax on capital gains.

- He avoided the capital gains tax by short selling.
- They discussed "capital gains tax" during the group presentation.

---

compound interest (noun)

Interest calculated on both the principal and the accrued interest.

- The article explained what "compound interest" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "compound interest" to mean interest calculated on both the principal and the....

---

demand deposit (noun)

A bank deposit from which withdrawals can be made without notice.

- They discussed "demand deposit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "demand deposit."

home equity loan (noun)

A loan secured by equity value in the borrower's home.

- He looked up "home equity loan" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home equity loan."

landed estate (noun)

Extensive landed property (especially in the country) retained by the owner for his own use.

- The family owned a large estate on Long Island.
- He looked up "landed estate" because he had never seen it before.

mutual fund company (noun)

A regulated investment company with a pool of assets that regularly sells and redeems its shares.

- Understanding "mutual fund company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mutual fund company."

pile (noun)

A large sum of money (especially as pay or profit).

- For uniform color and texture tailors cut velvet with the pile running the same direction.
- In class, the teacher used "pile" to mean a large sum of money (especially as pay or profit).

premium bond (noun)

A government bond that bears no interest or capital gains but enters the holder into lotteries.

- In class, the teacher used "premium bond" to mean a government bond that bears no interest or capital....
- They discussed "premium bond" during the group presentation.

retirement savings account (noun)

A plan for setting aside money to be spent after retirement.

- They discussed "retirement savings account" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "retirement savings account" to mean a plan for setting aside money to be spent after....

boot sale (noun)

An outdoor sale at which people sell things from the trunk of their car.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boot sale."
- They discussed "boot sale" during the group presentation.

controlling interest (noun)

Ownership of more than 50% of a corporation's voting shares.

- They discussed "controlling interest" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "controlling interest" means with a simple example.

damages (noun)

A sum of money paid in compensation for loss or injury.

- Understanding "damages" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "damages" during the group presentation.

margin of profit (noun)

The ratio gross profits divided by net sales.

- The article explained what "margin of profit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "margin of profit" during the group presentation.

profit margin (noun)

The ratio gross profits divided by net sales.

- He looked up "profit margin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "profit margin."

securities firm (noun)

A stock broker's business; charges a fee to act as intermediary between buyer and seller.

- Understanding "securities firm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "securities firm" to mean a stock broker's business; charges a fee to act as....

---

sterling (noun)

British money; especially the pound sterling as the basic monetary unit of the UK.

- Understanding "sterling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sterling" during the group presentation.

---

tongue-tie (verb)

Deprive of speech.

- When he met his idol, the young man was tongue-tied.
- He did not know how to use "tongue-tie" until he saw an example.

---

debt instrument (noun)

A written promise to repay a debt.

- In class, the teacher used "debt instrument" to mean a written promise to repay a debt.
- Understanding "debt instrument" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fee tail (noun)

A fee limited to a particular line of heirs; they are not free to sell it or give it away.

- In class, the teacher used "fee tail" to mean a fee limited to a particular line of heirs; they....
- He looked up "fee tail" because he had never seen it before.

---

fee-tail (verb)

Limit the inheritance of property to a specific class of heirs.

- Can you use "fee-tail" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "fee-tail" and when to wait.

---

fifty-cent piece (noun)

A United States coin worth half of a dollar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fifty-cent piece."
- The article explained what "fifty-cent piece" means with a simple example.

---

non-cash expense (noun)

An expense (such as depreciation) that is not paid for in cash.

- They discussed "non-cash expense" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "non-cash expense" to mean an expense (such as depreciation) that is not paid....

---

pension fund (noun)

A fund reserved to pay workers' pensions when they retire from service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pension fund."
- He looked up "pension fund" because he had never seen it before.

---

principal sum (noun)

Capital as contrasted with the income derived from it.

- The article explained what "principal sum" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "principal sum" during the group presentation.

---

tax liability (noun)

The amount of tax owed; calculated by applying the tax rate to the tax base.

- Understanding "tax liability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tax liability" means with a simple example.

---

admission price (noun)

The fee charged for admission.

- In class, the teacher used "admission price" to mean the fee charged for admission.

- Understanding “admission price” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bishop of rome (noun)

The head of the Roman Catholic Church.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bishop of rome.”
- The article explained what “bishop of rome” means with a simple example.

---

blank check (noun)

A check that has been signed but with the amount payable left blank.

- In class, the teacher used “blank check” to mean a check that has been signed but with the amount....
- He looked up “blank check” because he had never seen it before.

---

bond certificate (noun)

A certificate of debt (usually interest-bearing or discounted) that is issued by a government or corporation in order to raise money; the issuer is required to pay a fixed sum annually until maturity and then a fixed sum to repay the principal.

- He looked up “bond certificate” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “bond certificate” during the group presentation.

---

bring home the bacon (verb)

Supply means of subsistence; earn a living.

- Women nowadays not only take care of the household but also bring home the bacon.
- The enterprise succeeded.

---

car boot sale (noun)

An outdoor sale at which people sell things from the trunk of their car.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “car boot sale.”
- Understanding “car boot sale” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

disability benefit (noun)

Insurance benefits paid in case of disability.

- They discussed “disability benefit” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “disability benefit” means with a simple example.

---

export duty (noun)

A duty imposed on exports.

- Understanding “export duty” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “export duty” to mean a duty imposed on exports.

---

general damages (noun)

(law) compensation for losses that can readily be proven to have occurred and for which the injured party has the right to be compensated.

- In class, the teacher used “general damages” to mean (law) compensation for losses that can readily be....
- They discussed “general damages” during the group presentation.

---

half eagle (noun)

A former gold coin in United States worth 5 dollars.

- They discussed “half eagle” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “half eagle” to mean a former gold coin in united states worth 5 dollars.

---

irish pound (noun)

Formerly the basic unit of money in Ireland; equal to 100 pence.

- The article explained what “irish pound” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “irish pound” during the group presentation.

---

loses (verb)

Miss from one’s possessions; lose sight of.

- The coach explained when to use “loses” and when to wait.
- Can you use “loses” in a sentence that fits this situation?

operating expense (noun)

The expense of maintaining property (e.g., paying property taxes and utilities and insurance); it does not include depreciation or the cost of financing or income taxes.

- The article explained what "operating expense" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "operating expense" to mean the expense of maintaining property (e.g., paying....

par value (noun)

The value of a security that is set by the company issuing it; unrelated to market value.

- Understanding "par value" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "par value."

price of admission (noun)

The fee charged for admission.

- They discussed "price of admission" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "price of admission" means with a simple example.

tobacco shop (noun)

A shop that sells pipes and pipe tobacco and cigars and cigarettes.

- They discussed "tobacco shop" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tobacco shop" means with a simple example.

trade acceptance (noun)

A bill of exchange for a specific purchase; drawn on the buyer by the seller and bearing the buyer's acceptance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trade acceptance."
- Understanding "trade acceptance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

donations (noun)

A voluntary gift (as of money or service or ideas) made to some worthwhile cause.

- The article explained what "donations" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "donations" during the group presentation.

graduated tax (noun)

Any tax in which the rate increases as the amount subject to taxation increases.

- Understanding "graduated tax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "graduated tax" to mean any tax in which the rate increases as the amount....

inflation rate (noun)

The rate of change of prices (as indicated by a price index) calculated on a monthly or annual basis.

- Understanding "inflation rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "inflation rate" because he had never seen it before.

installation charge (noun)

The charge for installing something.

- He looked up "installation charge" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "installation charge."

limited liability (noun)

The liability of a firm's owners for no more than the capital they have invested in the firm.

- They discussed "limited liability" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "limited liability."

monetary (adjective)

Relating to or involving money.

- Monetary rewards.
- The speaker chose "monetary" because it captured the feeling precisely.

pour (verb)

Supply in large amounts or quantities.

- We poured money into the education of our children.
- Pour water over the floor.

rate of inflation (noun)

The rate of change of prices (as indicated by a price index) calculated on a monthly or annual basis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rate of inflation."
- They discussed "rate of inflation" during the group presentation.

utility bond (noun)

A bond issued to finance the construction of public utility services.

- The article explained what "utility bond" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "utility bond" to mean a bond issued to finance the construction of public....

admission charge (noun)

The fee charged for admission.

- The article explained what "admission charge" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "admission charge."

balanced budget (noun)

A budget is balanced when current expenditures are equal to receipts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "balanced budget."
- The article explained what "balanced budget" means with a simple example.

coming attraction (noun)

A movie that is advertised to draw customers.

- He looked up "coming attraction" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coming attraction."

delivering (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- In everyday English, people use "delivering" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "delivering" until he saw an example.

emily price post (noun)

United States female author who wrote a book and a syndicated newspaper column on etiquette (1872-1960).

- The article explained what "emily price post" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "emily price post" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

liability insurance (noun)

Insurance that provides protection from claims arising from injuries or damage to other people or property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liability insurance."
- He looked up "liability insurance" because he had never seen it before.

monetary system (noun)

Anything that is generally accepted as a standard of value and a measure of wealth in a particular country or region.

- He looked up "monetary system" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monetary system."

sporting lady (noun)

A woman who engages in sexual intercourse for money.

- In class, the teacher used "sporting lady" to mean a woman who engages in sexual intercourse for money.
- The article explained what "sporting lady" means with a simple example.

tender (noun)

A formal proposal to buy at a specified price.

- In class, the teacher used "tender" to mean a formal proposal to buy at a specified price.

- He looked up "tender" because he had never seen it before.

---

todd (noun)

Fictional character in a play by George Pitt; a barber who murdered his customers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "todd."
- The article explained what "todd" means with a simple example.

---

cash crop (noun)

A readily salable crop that is grown and gathered for the market (as vegetables or cotton or tobacco).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cash crop."
- He looked up "cash crop" because he had never seen it before.

---

customs duty (noun)

Money collected under a tariff.

- Understanding "customs duty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "customs duty" means with a simple example.

---

disability payment (noun)

A monthly payment made to someone who has become disabled and is unable to work.

- Understanding "disability payment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "disability payment" means with a simple example.

---

double damages (noun)

Twice the amount that a court would normally find the injured party entitled to.

- The article explained what "double damages" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "double damages" to mean twice the amount that a court would normally find....

---

double eagle (noun)

A former gold coin in the United States worth 20 dollars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double eagle."
- The article explained what "double eagle" means with a simple example.

---

fifty dollar bill (noun)

A United States bill worth 50 dollars.

- They discussed "fifty dollar bill" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fifty dollar bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

judicial sale (noun)

A sale of property by the sheriff under authority of a court's writ of execution in order satisfy an unpaid obligation.

- In class, the teacher used "judicial sale" to mean a sale of property by the sheriff under authority....
- Understanding "judicial sale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

louisiana purchase (noun)

Territory in the western United States purchased from France in 1803 for $15 million; extends from the Mississippi River to the Rocky Mountains and from the Gulf of Mexico to Canada.

- Understanding "louisiana purchase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "louisiana purchase."

---

minor expense (noun)

(frequently plural) an expense not budgeted or not specified.

- He requested reimbursement of $7 for incidental expenses.
- The article explained what "minor expense" means with a simple example.

---

municipal bond (noun)

A bond issued by a state or local government.

- The article explained what "municipal bond" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "municipal bond" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

no-par stock (noun)

Stock with no par value specified in the corporate charter or on the stock certificate.

- They discussed "no-par stock" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "no-par stock."

---

price freeze (noun)

A freeze of prices at a given level.

- He looked up "price freeze" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "price freeze" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

treasury bond (noun)

A debt instrument with maturities of 10 years or longer.

- Understanding "treasury bond" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "treasury bond."

---

treasury shares (noun)

Stock that has been bought back by the issuing corporation and is available for retirement or resale; it is issued but not outstanding; it cannot vote and pays no dividends.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "treasury shares."
- He looked up "treasury shares" because he had never seen it before.

---

cash cow (noun)

A project that generates a continuous flow of money.

- Understanding "cash cow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cash cow."

---

jewelry store (noun)

A firm that sells and buys jewelry.

- The article explained what "jewelry store" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jewelry store" to mean a firm that sells and buys jewelry.

---

new penny (noun)

A coin used in Great Britain since 1971 worth one hundredth of a pound.

- He looked up "new penny" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "new penny" during the group presentation.

---

partnership certificate (noun)

A certificate showing the interests of all parties in a business partnership.

- They discussed "partnership certificate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "partnership certificate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

penny (noun)

A coin worth one-hundredth of the value of the basic unit.

- Understanding "penny" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "penny" because he had never seen it before.

---

robert morris (noun)

Leader of the American Revolution who signed the Declaration of Independence and raised money for the Continental Army (1734-1806).

- He looked up "robert morris" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "robert morris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

saves (verb)

To keep up and reserve for personal or special use.

- He saves half his salary.
- Learners should practice how to use "saves" in real sentences.

---

secured bond (noun)

A bond that is back by collateral.

- He looked up "secured bond" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “secured bond.”

stamp tax (noun)

A tax collected by requiring a stamp to be purchased and attached (usually on documents or publications).

- Understanding “stamp tax” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “stamp tax” because he had never seen it before.

transferred possession (noun)

A possession whose ownership changes or lapses.

- He looked up “transferred possession” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “transferred possession” during the group presentation.

authorized stock (noun)

The maximum number of shares authorized under the terms of a corporation’s articles of incorporation.

- They discussed “authorized stock” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “authorized stock” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

debt ceiling (noun)

The maximum borrowing power of a governmental entity.

- Understanding “debt ceiling” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “debt ceiling” means with a simple example.

donated (verb)

Give to a charity or good cause.

- I donated blood to the Red Cross for the victims of the earthquake.
- In everyday English, people use “donated” when talking about this idea.

guinea (noun)

A former British gold coin worth 21 shillings.

- The article explained what “guinea” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “guinea” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hong kong dollar (noun)

The basic unit of money in Hong Kong.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hong kong dollar.”
- Understanding “hong kong dollar” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

input routine (noun)

A routine that writes from an external source to an internal store.

- He looked up “input routine” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “input routine” during the group presentation.

merit pay (noun)

Extra pay awarded to an employee on the basis of merit (especially to school teachers).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “merit pay.”
- The article explained what “merit pay” means with a simple example.

price-fixing (noun)

Control (by agreement among producers or by government) of the price of a commodity in interstate commerce.

- The article explained what “price-fixing” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “price-fixing” to mean control (by agreement among producers or by....

revenues (noun)

The entire amount of income before any deductions are made.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “revenues.”
- The article explained what “revenues” means with a simple example.

truck dealer (noun)

A firm that sells and buys trucks.

- In class, the teacher used "truck dealer" to mean a firm that sells and buys trucks.
- The article explained what "truck dealer" means with a simple example.

---

white elephant (noun)

A valuable possession whose upkeep is excessively expensive.

- He looked up "white elephant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "white elephant" during the group presentation.

---

actual damages (noun)

(law) compensation for losses that can readily be proven to have occurred and for which the injured party has the right to be compensated.

- Understanding "actual damages" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "actual damages" means with a simple example.

---

bride price (noun)

Money or property given (in some societies) by the bridegroom to the family of his bride.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bride price."
- Understanding "bride price" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

financial forecast (noun)

A forecast of the expected financial position and the results of operations and cash flows based on expected conditions.

- Understanding "financial forecast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "financial forecast" to mean a forecast of the expected financial position and....

---

gross margin (noun)

The ratio gross profits divided by net sales.

- He looked up "gross margin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gross margin."

---

import credit (noun)

Credit opened by an importer at a bank in his own country upon which an exporter may draw.

- Understanding "import credit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "import credit" because he had never seen it before.

---

legal tender (noun)

Something that can be used as an official medium of payment.

- The article explained what "legal tender" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "legal tender" to mean something that can be used as an official medium of....

---

merchant bank (noun)

A credit card processing bank; merchants receive credit for credit card receipts less a processing fee.

- He looked up "merchant bank" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "merchant bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

monetary standard (noun)

The value behind the money in a monetary system.

- Understanding "monetary standard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "monetary standard" to mean the value behind the money in a monetary system.

---

national debt ceiling (noun)

A limit set by Congress beyond which the national debt cannot rise; periodically raised by Congress.

- In class, the teacher used "national debt ceiling" to mean a limit set by congress beyond which the national....
- The article explained what "national debt ceiling" means with a simple example.

---

no-par-value stock (noun)

Stock with no par value specified in the corporate charter or on the stock certificate.

- The article explained what "no-par-value stock" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "no-par-value stock" during the group presentation.

---

proceeds (noun)

The income or profit arising from such transactions as the sale of land or other property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "proceeds."
- He looked up "proceeds" because he had never seen it before.

---

red ink (noun)

The amount by which the cost of a business exceeds its revenue.

- The company operated in the red last year.
- The article explained what "red ink" means with a simple example.

---

rental income (noun)

Income received from rental properties.

- They discussed "rental income" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rental income" to mean income received from rental properties.

---

retire (verb)

Dispose of (something no longer useful or needed).

- She finally retired that old coat.
- He retired at age 68.

---

retirement pension (noun)

A monthly payment made to someone who is retired from work.

- They discussed "retirement pension" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "retirement pension" to mean a monthly payment made to someone who is retired....

---

stock-purchase warrant (noun)

A type of security issued by a corporation (usually together with a bond or preferred stock) that gives the holder the right to purchase a certain amount of common stock at a stated price.

- As a sweetener they offered warrants along with the fixed-income securities.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stock-purchase warrant."

---

subscription right (noun)

The right of a shareholder in a company to subscribe to shares of a new issue of common stock before it is offered to the public.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "subscription right."
- Understanding "subscription right" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tender offer (noun)

An offer to buy shares in a corporation (usually above the market price) for cash or securities or both.

- He looked up "tender offer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tender offer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

donate (verb)

Give to a charity or good cause.

- I donated blood to the Red Cross for the victims of the earthquake.
- Donate money to the orphanage.

---

financial crimes enforcement network (noun)

A law enforcement agency of the Treasury Department responsible for establishing and implementing policies to detect money laundering.

- In class, the teacher used "financial crimes enforcement network" to mean a law enforcement agency of the treasury department....
- The article explained what "financial crimes enforcement network" means with a simple example.

---

magnetic medium (noun)

Any storage medium in which different patterns of magnetization are used to represent stored bits or bytes of information.

- The hard disk in you computer is magnetic storage.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic medium."

monetary unit (noun)

A unit of money.

- The article explained what "monetary unit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "monetary unit" to mean a unit of money.

pricing (noun)

The evaluation of something in terms of its price.

- He looked up "pricing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pricing."

sponsor (verb)

Assume responsibility for or leadership of.

- The senator announced that he would sponsor the health care plan.
- She tried to use "sponsor" carefully so everyone would understand.

stack away (verb)

Keep or lay aside for future use.

- The coach explained when to use "stack away" and when to wait.
- Can you use "stack away" in a sentence that fits this situation?

defender of the faith (noun)

A title that Leo X bestowed on Henry VIII and later withdrew; parliament restored the title and it has been used by English sovereigns ever since.

- The article explained what "defender of the faith" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "defender of the faith" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fast of ab (noun)

(Judaism) a major fast day on the Jewish calendar commemorating the destruction of the temples in Jerusalem.

- Understanding "fast of ab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fast of ab" during the group presentation.

federal deficit (noun)

An excess of the federal government's spending over its revenue.

- Federal deficits can cause inflation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal deficit."

fork out (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- Fork over the money.
- Learners should practice how to use "fork out" in real sentences.

fork over (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- Fork over the money.
- The coach explained when to use "fork over" and when to wait.

fork up (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- Fork over the money.
- He did not know how to use "fork up" until he saw an example.

magnetic storage (noun)

Any storage medium in which different patterns of magnetization are used to represent stored bits or bytes of information.

- The hard disk in you computer is magnetic storage.
- The article explained what "magnetic storage" means with a simple example.

monetary fund (noun)

A reserve of money set aside for some purpose.

- Understanding "monetary fund" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "monetary fund" to mean a reserve of money set aside for some purpose.

---

nicholas (noun)

A bishop in Asia Minor who is associated with Santa Claus (4th century).

- The article explained what "nicholas" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nicholas" to mean a bishop in asia minor who is associated with santa....

---

pork (noun)

A legislative appropriation designed to ingratiate legislators with their constituents.

- In class, the teacher used "pork" to mean a legislative appropriation designed to ingratiate....
- The article explained what "pork" means with a simple example.

---

pricing system (noun)

A system for setting prices on goods or services.

- They discussed "pricing system" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pricing system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

purchasing department (noun)

The division of a business that is responsible for purchases.

- In class, the teacher used "purchasing department" to mean the division of a business that is responsible for....
- The article explained what "purchasing department" means with a simple example.

---

seized (verb)

Take possession of by force, as after an invasion.

- The invaders seized the land and property of the inhabitants.
- The army seized the town.

---

supplement (verb)

Add as a supplement to what seems insufficient.

- Supplement your diet.
- Vitamins supplemented his meager diet.

---

trade deficit (noun)

An excess of imports over exports.

- He looked up "trade deficit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trade deficit."

---

turn a nice penny (verb)

Make a satisfactory profit.

- The company turned a nice dime after a short time.
- He did not know how to use "turn a nice penny" until he saw an example.

---

federal home loan mortgage corporation (noun)

A corporation authorized by Congress to provide a secondary market for residential mortgages.

- In class, the teacher used "federal home loan mortgage corporation" to mean a corporation authorized by congress to provide a....
- The article explained what "federal home loan mortgage corporation" means with a simple example.

---

graduates (verb)

Receive an academic degree upon completion of one's studies.

- This school graduates 2,000 students each year.
- Learners should practice how to use "graduates" in real sentences.

---

stakes (noun)

The money risked on a gamble.

- The article explained what "stakes" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used “stakes” to mean the money risked on a gamble.

---

subscribe to (verb)

Receive or obtain regularly.

- In everyday English, people use “subscribe to” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “subscribe to” in real sentences.

---

bucket shop (noun)

An unethical or overly aggressive brokerage firm.

- Understanding “bucket shop” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “bucket shop” during the group presentation.

---

dealers (noun)

A seller of illicit goods.

- He looked up “dealers” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “dealers” during the group presentation.

---

grocery store (noun)

A marketplace where groceries are sold.

- The grocery store included a meat market.
- Understanding “grocery store” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

high-yield bond (noun)

A (speculative) bond with a credit rating of BB or lower; issued for leveraged buyouts and other takeovers by companies with questionable credit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “high-yield bond.”
- The article explained what “high-yield bond” means with a simple example.

---

market analyst (noun)

An analyst of conditions affecting a market (especially the stock market).

- In class, the teacher used “market analyst” to mean an analyst of conditions affecting a market....
- Understanding “market analyst” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

matching funds (noun)

Funds that will be supplied in an amount matching the funds available from other sources.

- The article explained what “matching funds” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “matching funds” to mean funds that will be supplied in an amount matching....

---

penny stock (noun)

A stock selling for less that $1/share.

- In class, the teacher used “penny stock” to mean a stock selling for less that $1/share.
- The article explained what “penny stock” means with a simple example.

---

petty cash (noun)

A small fund of cash that a firm keeps for the payment of incidental expenses.

- They discussed “petty cash” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “petty cash” to mean a small fund of cash that a firm keeps for the....

---

seller (noun)

Someone who promotes or exchanges goods or services for money.

- They discussed “seller” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “seller” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shoe string (noun)

A small amount of money.

- He managed it on a shoestring.
- He looked up “shoe string” because he had never seen it before.

---

single supplement (noun)

A surcharge added to the cost per person when traveling alone.

- They discussed "single supplement" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "single supplement" means with a simple example.

---

stamp duty (noun)

A tax collected by requiring a stamp to be purchased and attached (usually on documents or publications).

- The article explained what "stamp duty" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stamp duty" during the group presentation.

---

authorized shares (noun)

The maximum number of shares authorized under the terms of a corporation's articles of incorporation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "authorized shares."
- He looked up "authorized shares" because he had never seen it before.

---

best seller (noun)

A book that has had a large and rapid sale.

- They discussed "best seller" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "best seller."

---

borrow (verb)

Take up and practice as one's own.

- May I borrow your lawn mower?
- Can you use "borrow" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

bride-gift (noun)

A wedding present to the bride.

- They discussed "bride-gift" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bride-gift."

---

cash surrender value (noun)

The amount that the insurance company will pay on a given life insurance policy if the policy is cancelled prior to the death of the insured.

- Understanding "cash surrender value" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cash surrender value."

---

continental plan (noun)

A hotel plan that provides a continental breakfast daily.

- He looked up "continental plan" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "continental plan" to mean a hotel plan that provides a continental breakfast....

---

donation (noun)

A voluntary gift (as of money or service or ideas) made to some worthwhile cause.

- Understanding "donation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "donation" to mean a voluntary gift (as of money or service or ideas)....

---

exchange traded fund (noun)

A mutual fund that is traded on a stock exchange.

- In class, the teacher used "exchange traded fund" to mean a mutual fund that is traded on a stock exchange.
- The article explained what "exchange traded fund" means with a simple example.

---

gdp (noun)

The measure of an economy adopted by the United States in 1991; the total market values of goods and services produced by workers and capital within a nation's borders during a given period (usually 1 year).

- The article explained what "gdp" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gdp" during the group presentation.

---

holdings (noun)

Something owned; any tangible or intangible possession that is owned by someone.

- He looked up "holdings" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "holdings" during the group presentation.

---

import duty (noun)

A duty imposed on imports.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "import duty."
- He looked up "import duty" because he had never seen it before.

---

invisible balance (noun)

The difference in value over a period of time of a country's imports and exports of services and payments of property incomes.

- The article explained what "invisible balance" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "invisible balance."

---

jefferson (noun)

3rd President of the United States; chief drafter of the Declaration of Independence; made the Louisiana Purchase in 1803 and sent out the Lewis and Clark Expedition to explore it (1743-1826).

- Understanding "jefferson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "jefferson" during the group presentation.

---

limited audit (noun)

An audit of limited scope (limited in time span or confined to particular accounts etc.).

- The article explained what "limited audit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "limited audit" to mean an audit of limited scope (limited in time span or....

---

loan shark (noun)

Someone who lends money at excessive rates of interest.

- They discussed "loan shark" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "loan shark" means with a simple example.

---

market keeper (noun)

A merchant who owns or manages a shop.

- He looked up "market keeper" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "market keeper" to mean a merchant who owns or manages a shop.

---

passive trust (noun)

A trust in which the trustee performs no active duties.

- They discussed "passive trust" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "passive trust" to mean a trust in which the trustee performs no active duties.

---

pledge (noun)

A deposit of personal property as security for a debt.

- His saxophone was in pledge.
- Signed a pledge never to reveal the secret.

---

subscribers (noun)

Someone who contributes (or promises to contribute) a sum of money.

- The article explained what "subscribers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "subscribers" to mean someone who contributes (or promises to contribute)....

---

admission fee (noun)

The fee charged for admission.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "admission fee."
- He looked up "admission fee" because he had never seen it before.

---

book seller (noun)

A dealer in books; a merchant who sells books.

- Understanding "book seller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book seller."

budget deficit (noun)

An excess of expenditures over revenues.

- The article explained what "budget deficit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "budget deficit" during the group presentation.

demand-pull inflation (noun)

Inflation caused by an increase in demand or in the supply of money.

- The article explained what "demand-pull inflation" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "demand-pull inflation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

freight (noun)

The charge for transporting something by common carrier.

- We pay the freight.
- The freight rate is usually cheaper.

preference shares (noun)

Stock whose holders are guaranteed priority in the payment of dividends but whose holders have no voting rights.

- They discussed "preference shares" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "preference shares" to mean stock whose holders are guaranteed priority in the....

price-to-earnings ratio (noun)

(stock market) the price of a stock divided by its earnings.

- He looked up "price-to-earnings ratio" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "price-to-earnings ratio."

purchasing agent (noun)

An agent who purchases goods or services for another.

- The article explained what "purchasing agent" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "purchasing agent" during the group presentation.

speculation (noun)

An investment that is very risky but could yield great profits.

- He knew the stock was a speculation when he bought it.
- Speculations about the outcome of the election.

utility revenue bond (noun)

A bond issued to finance the construction of public utility services.

- They discussed "utility revenue bond" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "utility revenue bond" to mean a bond issued to finance the construction of public....

wine merchant (noun)

Someone who sells wine.

- The article explained what "wine merchant" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wine merchant."

convenience store (noun)

A store selling a limited variety of food and pharmaceutical items; open long hours for the convenience of customers.

- Understanding "convenience store" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "convenience store" because he had never seen it before.

fast buck (noun)

Quick or easy earnings,.

- They are traders out to make a fast buck.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fast buck."

kitty (noun)

The cumulative amount involved in a game (such as poker).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kitty."
- He looked up "kitty" because he had never seen it before.

---

mineral resources (noun)

Natural resources in the form of minerals.

- They discussed "mineral resources" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mineral resources" to mean natural resources in the form of minerals.

---

political donation (noun)

A contribution made to a politician or a political campaign or a political party.

- They discussed "political donation" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "political donation" to mean a contribution made to a politician or a political....

---

president jefferson (noun)

3rd President of the United States; chief drafter of the Declaration of Independence; made the Louisiana Purchase in 1803 and sent out the Lewis and Clark Expedition to explore it (1743-1826).

- In class, the teacher used "president jefferson" to mean 3rd president of the united states; chief drafter....
- They discussed "president jefferson" during the group presentation.

---

push-down stack (noun)

A list in which the next item to be removed is the item most recently stored (LIFO).

- They discussed "push-down stack" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "push-down stack."

---

recalled (verb)

Make unavailable; bar from sale or distribution.

- The company recalled the product when it was found to be faulty.
- The ambassador was recalled to his country.

---

session cookie (noun)

A cookie that is stored temporarily and is destroyed when you close the link.

- He looked up "session cookie" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "session cookie."

---

touches (noun)

The act of soliciting money (as a gift or loan).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "touches."
- He looked up "touches" because he had never seen it before.

---

whip-round (noun)

(British) solicitation of money usually for a benevolent purpose.

- They discussed "whip-round" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "whip-round" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bank clerk (noun)

An employee of a bank who receives and pays out money.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bank clerk."
- He looked up "bank clerk" because he had never seen it before.

---

buy-and-bust operation (noun)

An undercover operation by narcotics detectives to catch unsuspecting drug dealers.

- He looked up "buy-and-bust operation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buy-and-bust operation."

---

incentive (noun)

An additional payment (or other remuneration) to employees as a means of increasing output.

- They discussed "incentive" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "incentive" means with a simple example.

---

indirect tax (noun)

A tax levied on goods or services rather than on persons or organizations.

- The article explained what "indirect tax" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "indirect tax" during the group presentation.

---

junk shop (noun)

A shop that sells cheap secondhand goods.

- Understanding "junk shop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "junk shop" because he had never seen it before.

---

liquor store (noun)

A store that sells alcoholic beverages for consumption elsewhere.

- The article explained what "liquor store" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liquor store."

---

priced (verb)

Ascertain or learn the price of.

- Have you priced personal computers lately?
- The grocer priced his wares high.

---

quick buck (noun)

Quick or easy earnings,.

- They are traders out to make a fast buck.
- He looked up "quick buck" because he had never seen it before.

---

seed corn (noun)

Good quality seeds (as kernels of corn) that are reserved for planting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seed corn."
- He looked up "seed corn" because he had never seen it before.

---

administered (verb)

Administer or bestow, as in small portions.

- Can you use "administered" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "administered" and when to wait.

---

certificate of deposit (noun)

A debt instrument issued by a bank; usually pays interest.

- Understanding "certificate of deposit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "certificate of deposit" during the group presentation.

---

egyptian pound (noun)

The basic unit of money in Egypt; equal to 100 piasters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "egyptian pound."
- The article explained what "egyptian pound" means with a simple example.

---

freight rate (noun)

The charge for transporting something by common carrier.

- We pay the freight.
- The freight rate is usually cheaper.

---

gross profit margin (noun)

(finance) the net sales minus the cost of goods and services sold.

- In class, the teacher used "gross profit margin" to mean (finance) the net sales minus the cost of goods and....
- Understanding "gross profit margin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ken russell (noun)

English film director (born in 1927).

- In class, the teacher used "ken russell" to mean english film director (born in 1927).
- They discussed "ken russell" during the group presentation.

seed grain (noun)

Good quality seeds (as kernels of corn) that are reserved for planting.

- In class, the teacher used "seed grain" to mean good quality seeds (as kernels of corn) that are....
- They discussed "seed grain" during the group presentation.

betting shop (noun)

A licensed bookmaker's shop that is not at the race track.

- They discussed "betting shop" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "betting shop" to mean a licensed bookmaker's shop that is not at the race....

conscience money (noun)

Payment made voluntarily to reduce guilt over dishonest dealings.

- Understanding "conscience money" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "conscience money" because he had never seen it before.

denying (verb)

Refuse to grant, as of a petition or request.

- Learners should practice how to use "denying" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "denying" carefully so everyone would understand.

earl russell (noun)

English philosopher and mathematician who collaborated with Whitehead (1872-1970).

- In class, the teacher used "earl russell" to mean english philosopher and mathematician who....
- Understanding "earl russell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ellen price wood (noun)

English writer of novels about murders and thefts and forgeries (1814-1887).

- He looked up "ellen price wood" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ellen price wood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

incentive program (noun)

A formal scheme for inducing someone (as employees) to do something.

- They discussed "incentive program" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "incentive program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

investment advisor (noun)

Someone who advises others how to invest their money.

- The article explained what "investment advisor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "investment advisor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jerusalem warriors (noun)

Ethnic Turkish Sunni terrorists who are linked with the Turkish Hizballah; killed a United States Air Force sergeant in 1991.

- They discussed "jerusalem warriors" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jerusalem warriors."

packaging company (noun)

A company that packages goods for sale or shipment or storage.

- Understanding "packaging company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "packaging company" because he had never seen it before.

purse (noun)

A sum of money spoken of as the contents of a money purse.

- He made the contribution out of his own purse.
- He and his wife shared a common purse.

---

retail merchant (noun)

A merchant who sells goods at retail.

- They discussed "retail merchant" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "retail merchant" to mean a merchant who sells goods at retail.

---

shop clerk (noun)

A salesperson in a store.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shop clerk."
- He looked up "shop clerk" because he had never seen it before.

---

technical analyst (noun)

A stock market analyst who tries to predict market trends from graphs of recent prices of securities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "technical analyst."
- He looked up "technical analyst" because he had never seen it before.

---

traders (noun)

Someone who purchases and maintains an inventory of goods to be sold.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "traders."
- The article explained what "traders" means with a simple example.

---

bargain down (verb)

Persuade the seller to accept a lower price.

- She beat the merchant down $100.
- She tried to use "bargain down" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cash in one's chips (verb)

Pass from physical life and lose all bodily attributes and functions necessary to sustain life.

- In everyday English, people use "cash in one's chips" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "cash in one's chips" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

disk file (noun)

(computer science) a computer file stored on a magnetic disk and identified by a unique label.

- They discussed "disk file" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "disk file" means with a simple example.

---

hazard insurance (noun)

Insurance that provides protection against certain risks such as storms or fires.

- Understanding "hazard insurance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hazard insurance" because he had never seen it before.

---

porn merchant (noun)

Someone who presents shows or sells writing or pictures that are sexually explicit in violation of the community mores.

- The article explained what "porn merchant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "porn merchant" to mean someone who presents shows or sells writing or....

---

seed pearl (noun)

A small imperfect pearl.

- The article explained what "seed pearl" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "seed pearl" to mean a small imperfect pearl.

---

squeeze for (verb)

Squeeze someone for money, information, etc.

- Can you use "squeeze for" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "squeeze for" until he saw an example.

swap (verb)

Exchange or give (something) in exchange for.

- He did not know how to use "swap" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "swap" in real sentences.

themed (verb)

Provide with a particular theme or motive.

- Can you use "themed" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "themed" carefully so everyone would understand.

thomas jefferson (noun)

3rd President of the United States; chief drafter of the Declaration of Independence; made the Louisiana Purchase in 1803 and sent out the Lewis and Clark Expedition to explore it (1743-1826).

- Understanding "thomas jefferson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thomas jefferson."

bundle (noun)

A large sum of money (especially as pay or profit).

- She made a bundle selling real estate.
- He looked up "bundle" because he had never seen it before.

buys (verb)

Acquire by trade or sacrifice or exchange.

- She buys for the big department store.
- Can you use "buys" in a sentence that fits this situation?

contract of hazard (noun)

A sale of a tract of land as a whole without a warranty as to the acreage.

- The article explained what "contract of hazard" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "contract of hazard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

for a bargain price (adverb)

For a relatively small amount of money.

- We bought the house for a song.
- The narrator describes the scene "for a bargain price" in the final chapter.

free lance (noun)

A writer or artist who sells services to different employers without a long-term contract with any of them.

- They discussed "free lance" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "free lance" means with a simple example.

free-lance (noun)

A writer or artist who sells services to different employers without a long-term contract with any of them.

- In class, the teacher used "free-lance" to mean a writer or artist who sells services to different....
- They discussed "free-lance" during the group presentation.

freight agent (noun)

An employee of a freight carrier who directs the receipt and delivery of goods.

- Understanding "freight agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "freight agent" because he had never seen it before.

merchandise (noun)

Commodities offered for sale.

- Good business depends on having good merchandise.
- The article explained what "merchandise" means with a simple example.

pac (noun)

Committee formed by a special-interest group to raise money for their favorite political candidates.

- Understanding “pac” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “pac” means with a simple example.

---

postal order (noun)

A written order for the payment of a sum to a named individual; obtainable and payable at a post office.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “postal order.”
- Understanding “postal order” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sales incentive (noun)

Remuneration offered to a salesperson for exceeding some predetermined sales goal.

- The article explained what “sales incentive” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “sales incentive” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

taiwan dollar (noun)

The basic unit of money in Taiwan.

- In class, the teacher used “taiwan dollar” to mean the basic unit of money in taiwan.
- The article explained what “taiwan dollar” means with a simple example.

---

clearance sale (noun)

A sale to reduce inventory.

- They discussed “clearance sale” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “clearance sale.”

---

junk bond (noun)

A (speculative) bond with a credit rating of BB or lower; issued for leveraged buyouts and other takeovers by companies with questionable credit.

- The article explained what “junk bond” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “junk bond” to mean a (speculative) bond with a credit rating of bb or....

---

lend (verb)

Give temporarily; let have for a limited time.

- I will lend you my car.
- Her presence lends a certain cachet to the company.

---

magnetic storage medium (noun)

Any storage medium in which different patterns of magnetization are used to represent stored bits or bytes of information.

- The hard disk in you computer is magnetic storage.
- He looked up “magnetic storage medium” because he had never seen it before.

---

medicare check (noun)

A check reimbursing an aged person for the expenses of health care.

- In class, the teacher used “medicare check” to mean a check reimbursing an aged person for the expenses....
- They discussed “medicare check” during the group presentation.

---

messenger boy (noun)

A boy who earns money by running errands.

- They discussed “messenger boy” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “messenger boy” because he had never seen it before.

---

monetary resource (noun)

Assets in the form of money.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “monetary resource.”
- He looked up “monetary resource” because he had never seen it before.

---

nest egg (noun)

A fund of money put by as a reserve.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “nest egg.”

- Understanding "nest egg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

participation financing (noun)

A loan that is shared by a group of banks that join to make a loan too big for any one of them alone.

- Understanding "participation financing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "participation financing" during the group presentation.

retailers (noun)

A merchant who sells goods at retail.

- They discussed "retailers" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "retailers" because he had never seen it before.

syrian pound (noun)

The basic unit of money in Syria; equal to 100 piasters.

- Understanding "syrian pound" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "syrian pound" because he had never seen it before.

uploaded (verb)

Transfer a file or program to a central computer from a smaller computer or a computer at a remote location.

- Learners should practice how to use "uploaded" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "uploaded" when talking about this idea.

bail bond (noun)

(criminal law) money that must be forfeited by the bondsman if an accused person fails to appear in court for trial.

- The judge set bail at $10,000.
- A $10,000 bond was furnished by an alderman.

borrowed (verb)

Take up and practice as one's own.

- The coach explained when to use "borrowed" and when to wait.
- Can you use "borrowed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

frederick ii (noun)

The Holy Roman Emperor who led the Sixth Crusade and crowned himself king of Jerusalem (1194-1250).

- The article explained what "frederick ii" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "frederick ii" during the group presentation.

land tenure (noun)

The right to hold property; part of an ancient hierarchical system of holding lands.

- Understanding "land tenure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "land tenure."

pound sterling (noun)

The basic unit of money in Great Britain and Northern Ireland; equal to 100 pence.

- Understanding "pound sterling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pound sterling" because he had never seen it before.

reds (noun)

The amount by which the cost of a business exceeds its revenue.

- He looked up "reds" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reds."

sack up (verb)

Make as a net profit.

- Can you use "sack up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "sack up" until he saw an example.

sponsors (verb)

Assume responsibility for or leadership of.

- In everyday English, people use "sponsors" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "sponsors" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

sweat equity (noun)

Interest in a building that a tenant earns by contributing to its renovation or maintenance.

- They discussed "sweat equity" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sweat equity" to mean interest in a building that a tenant earns by....

---

toss out (verb)

Throw or cast away.

- He did not know how to use "toss out" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "toss out" in real sentences.

---

automobile insurance (noun)

Insurance against loss due to theft or traffic accidents.

- The article explained what "automobile insurance" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "automobile insurance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ditch (verb)

Sever all ties with, usually unceremoniously or irresponsibly.

- Ditch a lover.
- Ditch a car.

---

dump routine (noun)

A routine that writes from an internal store to some external medium.

- Understanding "dump routine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dump routine" because he had never seen it before.

---

dumped (verb)

Sever all ties with, usually unceremoniously or irresponsibly.

- The company dumped him after many years of service.
- She dumped her boyfriend when she fell in love with a rich man.

---

finances (noun)

Assets in the form of money.

- They discussed "finances" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "finances."

---

george berkeley (noun)

Irish philosopher and Anglican bishop who opposed the materialism of Thomas Hobbes (1685-1753).

- He looked up "george berkeley" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "george berkeley" during the group presentation.

---

implied trust (noun)

A trust inferred by operation of law.

- In class, the teacher used "implied trust" to mean a trust inferred by operation of law.
- Understanding "implied trust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

line one's pockets (verb)

Make a lot of money.

- In everyday English, people use "line one's pockets" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "line one's pockets" until he saw an example.

---

print seller (noun)

Someone who sells etchings and engravings etc.

- In class, the teacher used “print seller” to mean someone who sells etchings and engravings etc.
- The article explained what “print seller” means with a simple example.

---

shopping cart (noun)

A handcart that holds groceries or other goods while shopping.

- He looked up “shopping cart” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “shopping cart.”

---

susan b anthony dollar (noun)

A United States coin worth one dollar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “susan b anthony dollar.”
- He looked up “susan b anthony dollar” because he had never seen it before.

---

toss away (verb)

Throw or cast away.

- Put away your worries.
- He did not know how to use “toss away” until he saw an example.

---

trafficking (verb)

Trade or deal a commodity.

- She tried to use “trafficking” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “trafficking” in real sentences.

---

accessed (verb)

Obtain or retrieve from a storage device; as of information on a computer.

- He did not know how to use “accessed” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “accessed” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

british pound sterling (noun)

The basic unit of money in Great Britain and Northern Ireland; equal to 100 pence.

- They discussed “british pound sterling” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “british pound sterling” to mean the basic unit of money in great britain and....

---

broker (noun)

A businessman who buys or sells for another in exchange for a commission.

- The article explained what “broker” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “broker” during the group presentation.

---

investment adviser (noun)

Someone who advises others how to invest their money.

- They discussed “investment adviser” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “investment adviser” to mean someone who advises others how to invest their money.

---

liquor license (noun)

A license authorizing the holder to sell alcoholic beverages.

- They discussed “liquor license” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “liquor license.”

---

pharmaceutical company (noun)

A company that makes and sells pharmaceuticals.

- He looked up “pharmaceutical company” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “pharmaceutical company” during the group presentation.

---

privately held corporation (noun)

A corporation owned by a few people; shares have no public market.

- They discussed “privately held corporation” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “privately held corporation.”

salaries (noun)

Something that remunerates.

- In class, the teacher used "salaries" to mean something that remunerates.
- He looked up "salaries" because he had never seen it before.

yields (noun)

The income or profit arising from such transactions as the sale of land or other property.

- Understanding "yields" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "yields" to mean the income or profit arising from such transactions....

accepts (verb)

Receive willingly something given or offered.

- Can you use "accepts" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "accepts" until he saw an example.

adjustment (noun)

An amount added or deducted on the basis of qualifying circumstances.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adjustment."
- The article explained what "adjustment" means with a simple example.

charitable trust (noun)

A trust created for charitable or religious or educational or scientific purposes.

- They discussed "charitable trust" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charitable trust."

committing (verb)

Cause to be admitted; of persons to an institution.

- In everyday English, people use "committing" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "committing" carefully so everyone would understand.

estates (noun)

Extensive landed property (especially in the country) retained by the owner for his own use.

- They discussed "estates" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "estates" because he had never seen it before.

incentives (noun)

An additional payment (or other remuneration) to employees as a means of increasing output.

- In class, the teacher used "incentives" to mean an additional payment (or other remuneration) to....
- Understanding "incentives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

packaging concern (noun)

A company that packages goods for sale or shipment or storage.

- They discussed "packaging concern" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "packaging concern."

parts catalog (noun)

A list advertising parts for machinery along with prices.

- The article explained what "parts catalog" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parts catalog."

parts catalogue (noun)

A list advertising parts for machinery along with prices.

- They discussed "parts catalogue" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "parts catalogue" means with a simple example.

petroleum future (noun)

Petroleum bought or sold at an agreed price for delivery at a specified future date.

- Understanding "petroleum future" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "petroleum future" means with a simple example.

---

rendered (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- The shot rendered her immobile.
- The pianist rendered the Beethoven sonata beautifully.

---

rented (verb)

Engage for service under a term of contract.

- We rented our apartment to friends while we were abroad.
- Learners should practice how to use "rented" in real sentences.

---

robbed (verb)

Take something away by force or without the consent of the owner.

- The burglars robbed him of all his money.
- The coach explained when to use "robbed" and when to wait.

---

saint nicholas (noun)

A bishop in Asia Minor who is associated with Santa Claus (4th century).

- Understanding "saint nicholas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "saint nicholas" because he had never seen it before.

---

thief (noun)

A criminal who takes property belonging to someone else with the intention of keeping it or selling it.

- In class, the teacher used "thief" to mean a criminal who takes property belonging to someone....
- They discussed "thief" during the group presentation.

---

automobile loan (noun)

A personal loan to purchase an automobile.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "automobile loan."
- Understanding "automobile loan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

feast of lights (noun)

(Judaism) an eight-day Jewish holiday commemorating the rededication of the Temple of Jerusalem in 165 BC.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "feast of lights."
- They discussed "feast of lights" during the group presentation.

---

incentive scheme (noun)

A formal scheme for inducing someone (as employees) to do something.

- In class, the teacher used "incentive scheme" to mean a formal scheme for inducing someone (as employees)....
- The article explained what "incentive scheme" means with a simple example.

---

processor (noun)

A business engaged in processing agricultural products and preparing them for market.

- Understanding "processor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "processor" during the group presentation.

---

salon (noun)

A shop where hairdressers and beauticians work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salon."
- Understanding "salon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

atlantic salmon (noun)

Fatty pink flesh of fish from northern coastal Atlantic; usually marketed fresh.

- In class, the teacher used "atlantic salmon" to mean fatty pink flesh of fish from northern coastal....

- Understanding "atlantic salmon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

delivers (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- Our local super market delivers.
- The coach explained when to use "delivers" and when to wait.

---

medicare payment (noun)

A check reimbursing an aged person for the expenses of health care.

- He looked up "medicare payment" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "medicare payment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

snack bar (noun)

Usually inexpensive bar.

- They discussed "snack bar" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snack bar."

---

specialty store (noun)

A store that sells only one kind of merchandise.

- The article explained what "specialty store" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "specialty store" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tuition fee (noun)

A fee paid for instruction (especially for higher education).

- Tuition and room and board were more than $25,000.
- In class, the teacher used "tuition fee" to mean a fee paid for instruction (especially for higher....

---

allowance (noun)

An amount allowed or granted (as during a given period).

- Travel allowance.
- My weekly allowance of two eggs.

---

insurance broker (noun)

An agent who sells insurance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "insurance broker."
- He looked up "insurance broker" because he had never seen it before.

---

jewelry dealer (noun)

A firm that sells and buys jewelry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jewelry dealer."
- He looked up "jewelry dealer" because he had never seen it before.

---

magnetic disc (noun)

(computer science) a memory device consisting of a flat disk covered with a magnetic coating on which information is stored.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic disc."
- Understanding "magnetic disc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pay envelope (noun)

Wages enclosed in an envelope for distribution to the wage earner.

- In class, the teacher used "pay envelope" to mean wages enclosed in an envelope for distribution to....
- The article explained what "pay envelope" means with a simple example.

---

stamp dealer (noun)

A dealer in stamps (whose customers are stamp collectors).

- Understanding "stamp dealer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "stamp dealer" during the group presentation.

---

wholesale price index (noun)

An index of changes in wholesale prices.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wholesale price index."
- He looked up "wholesale price index" because he had never seen it before.

---

dress rack (noun)

A rack used primarily to display dresses for sale in a store.

- He looked up "dress rack" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dress rack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

licensing fee (noun)

A fee paid to the government for the privilege of being licensed to do something (as selling liquor or practicing medicine).

- Understanding "licensing fee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "licensing fee" during the group presentation.

---

owning (verb)

Have ownership or possession of.

- The coach explained when to use "owning" and when to wait.
- Can you use "owning" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sellers (noun)

English comic actor (1925-1980).

- In class, the teacher used "sellers" to mean english comic actor (1925-1980).
- He looked up "sellers" because he had never seen it before.

---

subscription warrant (noun)

A warrant that expires on a stipulated date.

- He looked up "subscription warrant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "subscription warrant" during the group presentation.

---

allocated (verb)

Distribute according to a plan or set apart for a special purpose.

- Can you use "allocated" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "allocated" when talking about this idea.

---

allowance account (noun)

A reserve fund created by a charge against profits in order to provide for changes in the value of a company's assets.

- The article explained what "allowance account" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "allowance account" to mean a reserve fund created by a charge against profits....

---

downloaded (verb)

Transfer a file or program from a central computer to a smaller computer or to a computer at a remote location.

- Can you use "downloaded" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "downloaded" when talking about this idea.

---

gasoline tax (noun)

A tax on every gallon of gasoline sold.

- The article explained what "gasoline tax" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gasoline tax" during the group presentation.

---

rand (noun)

The basic unit of money in South Africa; equal to 100 cents.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rand."
- Understanding "rand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

real estate broker (noun)

A person who is authorized to act as an agent for the sale of land.

- In England they call a real estate agent a land agent.
- They discussed "real estate broker" during the group presentation.

---

thieves (noun)

A criminal who takes property belonging to someone else with the intention of keeping it or selling it.

- He looked up "thieves" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thieves."

---

ticket collector (noun)

Someone who is paid to admit only those who have purchased tickets.

- They discussed "ticket collector" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ticket collector" to mean someone who is paid to admit only those who have....

---

adjustments (noun)

An amount added or deducted on the basis of qualifying circumstances.

- Understanding "adjustments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "adjustments" during the group presentation.

---

archbishop (noun)

A bishop of highest rank.

- The article explained what "archbishop" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "archbishop" to mean a bishop of highest rank.

---

beauty salon (noun)

A shop where hairdressers and beauticians work.

- They discussed "beauty salon" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "beauty salon" to mean a shop where hairdressers and beauticians work.

---

capital levy (noun)

A tax on capital or property.

- Understanding "capital levy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "capital levy" because he had never seen it before.

---

commodity exchange (noun)

An exchange for buying and selling commodities for future delivery.

- In class, the teacher used "commodity exchange" to mean an exchange for buying and selling commodities for....
- They discussed "commodity exchange" during the group presentation.

---

cost-of-living allowance (noun)

An allowance for changes in the consumer price index.

- They discussed "cost-of-living allowance" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cost-of-living allowance" means with a simple example.

---

futures market (noun)

A commodity exchange where futures contracts are traded.

- In class, the teacher used "futures market" to mean a commodity exchange where futures contracts are traded.
- They discussed "futures market" during the group presentation.

---

gasoline station (noun)

A service station that sells gasoline.

- Understanding "gasoline station" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gasoline station" during the group presentation.

---

nickel (noun)

A United States coin worth one twentieth of a dollar.

- A nickel bag of drugs.
- A nickel deck of heroin.

no fault automobile insurance (noun)

A system of automobile insurance where a party who is injured in an automobile accident recovers damages up to a specific amount against his own insurance company regardless of who was responsible for the accident.

- The amount of litigation resulting from minor accidents is reduced by no fault insurance.
- In class, the teacher used "no fault automobile insurance" to mean a system of automobile insurance where a party who....

poured (verb)

Supply in large amounts or quantities.

- We poured money into the education of our children.
- Water poured all over the floor.

price bracket (noun)

A category of merchandise based on their price.

- They discussed "price bracket" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "price bracket" means with a simple example.

rack rent (noun)

An extortionate rent.

- Understanding "rack rent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rack rent" to mean an extortionate rent.

travel allowance (noun)

A sum allowed for travel.

- He looked up "travel allowance" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "travel allowance" during the group presentation.

yacht (noun)

An expensive vessel propelled by sail or power and used for cruising or racing.

- The article explained what "yacht" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yacht."

bargain hunter (noun)

A shopper who hunts for bargains.

- Understanding "bargain hunter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bargain hunter" means with a simple example.

borough english (noun)

A former English custom by which the youngest son inherited land to the exclusion of his older brothers.

- In class, the teacher used "borough english" to mean a former english custom by which the youngest son....
- The article explained what "borough english" means with a simple example.

dye-works (noun)

A workshop where dyeing is done.

- The article explained what "dye-works" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dye-works" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fringe benefit (noun)

An incidental benefit awarded for certain types of employment (especially if it is regarded as a right).

- A limousine is one of the fringe benefits of the job.
- Understanding "fringe benefit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fundraising (verb)

Raise money for a cause or project.

- We are fundraising for AIDS research.
- She tried to use "fundraising" carefully so everyone would understand.

futures contract (noun)

An agreement to buy or sell a specific amount of a commodity or financial instrument at a particular price on a stipulated future date; the contract can be sold before the settlement date.

- Understanding "futures contract" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "futures contract."

---

inland bill (noun)

A bill of exchange that is both drawn and made payable in the same country.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inland bill."
- Understanding "inland bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

life assurance (noun)

Insurance paid to named beneficiaries when the insured person dies.

- In England they call life insurance life assurance.
- The article explained what "life assurance" means with a simple example.

---

manor (noun)

The landed estate of a lord (including the house on it).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manor."
- Understanding "manor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

poker chip (noun)

A small disk-shaped counter used to represent money when gambling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poker chip."
- The article explained what "poker chip" means with a simple example.

---

pony up (verb)

Give reluctantly.

- Can you use "pony up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "pony up" and when to wait.

---

snack counter (noun)

Usually inexpensive bar.

- Understanding "snack counter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "snack counter" means with a simple example.

---

token money (noun)

Coins of regular issue whose face value is greater than their intrinsic value.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "token money."
- They discussed "token money" during the group presentation.

---

triple frontier (noun)

The border area where Argentina and Brazil and Paraguay meet; an active South American center for contraband and drug trafficking and money laundering; a suspected locale for Islamic extremist groups.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "triple frontier."
- Understanding "triple frontier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bishop berkeley (noun)

Irish philosopher and Anglican bishop who opposed the materialism of Thomas Hobbes (1685-1753).

- He looked up "bishop berkeley" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bishop berkeley."

---

bishops (noun)

A senior member of the Christian clergy having spiritual and administrative authority; appointed in Christian churches to oversee priests or ministers; considered in some churches to be successors of the twelve Apostles of Christ.

- He looked up "bishops" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bishops."

---

open-air marketplace (noun)

A public marketplace where food and merchandise is sold.

- Understanding "open-air marketplace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "open-air marketplace" means with a simple example.

---

optical disc (noun)

A disk coated with plastic that can store digital data as tiny pits etched in the surface; is read with a laser that scans the surface.

- They discussed "optical disc" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "optical disc."

---

pensions (noun)

A regular payment to a person that is intended to allow them to subsist without working.

- The article explained what "pensions" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pensions" to mean a regular payment to a person that is intended to....

---

peter sellers (noun)

English comic actor (1925-1980).

- In class, the teacher used "peter sellers" to mean english comic actor (1925-1980).
- They discussed "peter sellers" during the group presentation.

---

royalty (noun)

Payment to the holder of a patent or copyright or resource for the right to use their property.

- The wedding was attended by royalty.
- Understanding "royalty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seize (verb)

Take possession of by force, as after an invasion.

- The invaders seized the land and property of the inhabitants.
- The army seized the town.

---

slate club (noun)

A group of people who save money in a common fund for a specific purpose (usually distributed at Christmas).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slate club."
- Understanding "slate club" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thrones (noun)

The chair of state for a monarch, bishop, etc.

- The article explained what "thrones" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "thrones" to mean the chair of state for a monarch, bishop, etc.

---

treasury obligations (noun)

Negotiable debt obligations of the United States government which guarantees that interest and principal payments will be paid on time.

- In class, the teacher used "treasury obligations" to mean negotiable debt obligations of the united states....
- The article explained what "treasury obligations" means with a simple example.

---

bonuses (noun)

An additional payment (or other remuneration) to employees as a means of increasing output.

- They discussed "bonuses" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bonuses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coupon bond (noun)

A bond issued with detachable coupons that must be presented to the issuer for interest payments.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coupon bond."
- Understanding "coupon bond" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

discounts (noun)

A refund of some fraction of the amount paid.

- He looked up "discounts" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "discounts."

---

dong (noun)

The basic unit of money in Vietnam.

- He looked up "dong" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dong" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

extra dividend (noun)

A dividend paid in addition to the regular dividend.

- The article explained what "extra dividend" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "extra dividend" to mean a dividend paid in addition to the regular dividend.

---

nickel note (noun)

Five dollars worth of a drug.

- A nickel bag of drugs.
- A nickel deck of heroin.

---

pork barrel (noun)

A legislative appropriation designed to ingratiate legislators with their constituents.

- He looked up "pork barrel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pork barrel."

---

promotes (verb)

Make publicity for; try to sell (a product).

- Can you use "promotes" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "promotes" until he saw an example.

---

pump-and-dump scheme (noun)

An illegal scheme for making money by manipulating stock prices; the schemer persuades other people to buy the stock and then sells it himself as soon as the price of the stock rises.

- Understanding "pump-and-dump scheme" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pump-and-dump scheme."

---

renewable resource (noun)

Any natural resource (as wood or solar energy) that can be replenished naturally with the passage of time.

- They discussed "renewable resource" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "renewable resource" to mean any natural resource (as wood or solar energy) that....

---

sickness benefit (noun)

Money paid (by the government) to someone who is too ill to work.

- In class, the teacher used "sickness benefit" to mean money paid (by the government) to someone who is....
- He looked up "sickness benefit" because he had never seen it before.

---

sinking fund (noun)

A fund accumulated regularly in a separate account and used to redeem debt securities.

- He looked up "sinking fund" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sinking fund" during the group presentation.

---

stock dividend (noun)

A dividend paid in stock rather than in cash.

- The article explained what "stock dividend" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stock dividend" to mean a dividend paid in stock rather than in cash.

---

vendor (noun)

Someone who promotes or exchanges goods or services for money.

- In class, the teacher used "vendor" to mean someone who promotes or exchanges goods or services....
- The article explained what "vendor" means with a simple example.

---

bait and switch (noun)

A deceptive way of selling that involves advertising a product at a very low price in order to attract customers who are then persuaded to switch to a more expensive product.

- They discussed "bait and switch" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bait and switch" means with a simple example.

---

compensate (verb)

Do or give something to somebody in return.

- She was compensated for the loss of her arm in the accident.
- In everyday English, people use "compensate" when talking about this idea.

---

curb market (noun)

A stock market for trading in securities not listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

- In class, the teacher used "curb market" to mean a stock market for trading in securities not listed....
- The article explained what "curb market" means with a simple example.

---

inheritance tax (noun)

A tax on the estate of the deceased person.

- The article explained what "inheritance tax" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inheritance tax."

---

magnetic disk (noun)

(computer science) a memory device consisting of a flat disk covered with a magnetic coating on which information is stored.

- The article explained what "magnetic disk" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "magnetic disk" to mean (computer science) a memory device consisting of a....

---

packers (noun)

A wholesaler in the meat-packing business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "packers."
- He looked up "packers" because he had never seen it before.

---

per capita income (noun)

The total national income divided by the number of people in the nation.

- Understanding "per capita income" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "per capita income" during the group presentation.

---

render (verb)

To surrender someone or something to another.

- Render up the prisoners.
- Render the town to the enemy.

---

retaining (verb)

Secure and keep for possible future use or application.

- Can you use "retaining" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "retaining" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

seed catalog (noun)

A list advertising seeds and their prices.

- He looked up "seed catalog" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seed catalog."

---

seed catalogue (noun)

A list advertising seeds and their prices.

- In class, the teacher used "seed catalogue" to mean a list advertising seeds and their prices.
- They discussed "seed catalogue" during the group presentation.

---

state of the vatican city (noun)

The smallest sovereign state in the world; the see of the Pope (as the Bishop of Rome); home of the Pope and the central administration of the Roman Catholic Church; achieved independence from Italy in 1929.

- Understanding "state of the vatican city" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "state of the vatican city" to mean the smallest sovereign state in the world; the see....

---

supermarket (noun)

A large self-service grocery store selling groceries and dairy products and household goods.

- The article explained what "supermarket" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "supermarket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tooth fairy (noun)

A fairy that is said to leave money at night under a child's pillow to compensate for a baby tooth falling out.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tooth fairy."
- They discussed "tooth fairy" during the group presentation.

---

zero coupon security (noun)

A security that makes no interest payments but instead is sold at a deep discount from its face value.

- Understanding "zero coupon security" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "zero coupon security" to mean a security that makes no interest payments but....

---

zero-coupon security (noun)

A security that makes no interest payments but instead is sold at a deep discount from its face value.

- The article explained what "zero-coupon security" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "zero-coupon security" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

certificates (noun)

A formal declaration that documents a fact of relevance to finance and investment; the holder has a right to receive interest or dividends.

- He looked up "certificates" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "certificates."

---

handing (verb)

Place into the hands or custody of.

- In everyday English, people use "handing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "handing" in real sentences.

---

prohibition (noun)

A law forbidding the sale of alcoholic beverages.

- In 1920 the 18th amendment to the Constitution established prohibition in the US.
- They were restrained by a prohibition in their charter.

---

reproduction cost (noun)

Cost of reproducing physical property minus various allowances (especially depreciation).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reproduction cost."
- He looked up "reproduction cost" because he had never seen it before.

---

second balcony (noun)

Rearmost or uppermost area in the balcony containing the least expensive seats.

- Understanding "second balcony" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "second balcony" during the group presentation.

---

supplements (verb)

Add as a supplement to what seems insufficient.

- The coach explained when to use "supplements" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "supplements" until he saw an example.

---

trader (noun)

Someone who purchases and maintains an inventory of goods to be sold.

- In class, the teacher used "trader" to mean someone who purchases and maintains an inventory of....
- He looked up "trader" because he had never seen it before.

vendors (noun)

Someone who promotes or exchanges goods or services for money.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vendors."
- They discussed "vendors" during the group presentation.

barber chair (noun)

A large fixed adjustable chair in which barbers seat their customers.

- The article explained what "barber chair" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "barber chair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

buffer store (noun)

(computer science) a part of RAM used for temporary storage of data that is waiting to be sent to a device; used to compensate for differences in the rate of flow of data between components of a computer system.

- They discussed "buffer store" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "buffer store" to mean (computer science) a part of ram used for temporary....

constructive trust (noun)

A trust created by a court (regardless of the intent of the parties) to benefit a party that has been wrongfully deprived of its rights.

- They discussed "constructive trust" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "constructive trust" because he had never seen it before.

graduating (verb)

Receive an academic degree upon completion of one's studies.

- Learners should practice how to use "graduating" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "graduating" and when to wait.

ninth of ab (noun)

(Judaism) a major fast day on the Jewish calendar commemorating the destruction of the temples in Jerusalem.

- The article explained what "ninth of ab" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ninth of ab."

pay packet (noun)

Wages enclosed in an envelope for distribution to the wage earner.

- He looked up "pay packet" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pay packet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

payroll (noun)

A list of employees and their salaries.

- The company had a long payroll.
- The company had a large payroll.

prohibition party (noun)

A political party in the United States; formed in 1869 to oppose the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prohibition party."
- He looked up "prohibition party" because he had never seen it before.

scholarships (noun)

Financial aid provided to a student on the basis of academic merit.

- The article explained what "scholarships" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "scholarships" to mean financial aid provided to a student on the basis of....

shop mechanic (noun)

A craftsman skilled in operating machine tools.

- Understanding "shop mechanic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "shop mechanic" means with a simple example.

tax-exempt (noun)

A security that is not subject to taxation.

- They discussed "tax-exempt" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tax-exempt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

token payment (noun)

A small payment made in acknowledgement of an obligation.

- They discussed "token payment" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "token payment" to mean a small payment made in acknowledgement of an....

---

ventures (noun)

An investment that is very risky but could yield great profits.

- He looked up "ventures" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ventures" to mean an investment that is very risky but could yield....

---

attach (verb)

Take temporary possession of as a security, by legal authority.

- The spider's thread attached to the window sill.
- He did not know how to use "attach" until he saw an example.

---

cheapest (adjective)

Relatively low in price or charging low prices.

- A "cheapest" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "cheapest" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

clifford trust (noun)

A trust established to shift the income to someone who is taxed at a lower rate than the grantor for a period of 10 years or more.

- They discussed "clifford trust" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "clifford trust" because he had never seen it before.

---

coffee stall (noun)

A stand (usually movable) selling hot coffee and food (especially at night).

- He looked up "coffee stall" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "coffee stall" to mean a stand (usually movable) selling hot coffee and....

---

deed over (verb)

Transfer by deed.

- She tried to use "deed over" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "deed over" when talking about this idea.

---

enlisted (verb)

Hire for work or assistance.

- The coach explained when to use "enlisted" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "enlisted" until he saw an example.

---

payroll check (noun)

A check issued in payment of wages or salary.

- They discussed "payroll check" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "payroll check" to mean a check issued in payment of wages or salary.

---

premiums (noun)

The amount that something in scarce supply is valued above its nominal value.

- In class, the teacher used "premiums" to mean the amount that something in scarce supply is....
- He looked up "premiums" because he had never seen it before.

---

retailer (noun)

A merchant who sells goods at retail.

- He looked up "retailer" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "retailer" during the group presentation.

settlers (noun)

A clerk in a betting shop who calculates the winnings.

- He looked up "settlers" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "settlers" during the group presentation.

tax-exempt security (noun)

A security that is not subject to taxation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tax-exempt security."
- The article explained what "tax-exempt security" means with a simple example.

taxi fare (noun)

The fare charged for riding in a taxicab.

- Understanding "taxi fare" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "taxi fare" because he had never seen it before.

borrowing cost (noun)

The cost of borrowing something.

- In class, the teacher used "borrowing cost" to mean the cost of borrowing something.
- They discussed "borrowing cost" during the group presentation.

budgets (noun)

A sum of money allocated for a particular purpose.

- In class, the teacher used "budgets" to mean a sum of money allocated for a particular purpose.
- Understanding "budgets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

canterbury (noun)

A town in Kent in southeastern England; site of the cathedral where Thomas a Becket was martyred in 1170; seat of the archbishop and primate of the Anglican Church.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canterbury."
- The article explained what "canterbury" means with a simple example.

chop shop (noun)

A place where stolen cars are disassembled for their parts.

- In class, the teacher used "chop shop" to mean a place where stolen cars are disassembled for....
- Understanding "chop shop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

compact disc read-only memory (noun)

A compact disk that is used with a computer (rather than with an audio system); a large amount of digital information can be stored and accessed but it cannot be altered by the user.

- He looked up "compact disc read-only memory" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "compact disc read-only memory."

contributes (verb)

Contribute to some cause.

- She tried to use "contributes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "contributes" until he saw an example.

optical disk (noun)

A disk coated with plastic that can store digital data as tiny pits etched in the surface; is read with a laser that scans the surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "optical disk."
- The article explained what "optical disk" means with a simple example.

racing yacht (noun)

An expensive vessel propelled by sail or power and used for cruising or racing.

- The article explained what "racing yacht" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "racing yacht."

stock trader (noun)

Someone who buys and sells stock shares.

- He looked up "stock trader" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "stock trader" to mean someone who buys and sells stock shares.

---

stock-index futures (noun)

A futures contract based on a stock index; a bet on the future price of the indexed group of stocks.

- They discussed "stock-index futures" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "stock-index futures" to mean a futures contract based on a stock index; a bet on....

---

subsidies (noun)

A grant paid by a government to an enterprise that benefits the public.

- They discussed "subsidies" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "subsidies" because he had never seen it before.

---

arcade (noun)

A covered passageway with shops and stalls on either side.

- Understanding "arcade" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "arcade" means with a simple example.

---

coin collector (noun)

A collector and student of money (and coins in particular).

- Understanding "coin collector" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "coin collector" because he had never seen it before.

---

denies (verb)

Refuse to grant, as of a petition or request.

- She denies me every pleasure.
- He denies her her weekly allowance.

---

hq (noun)

The military installation from which a commander performs the functions of command.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hq."
- The article explained what "hq" means with a simple example.

---

human ecology (noun)

The branch of sociology that studies the characteristics of human populations.

- The article explained what "human ecology" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "human ecology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

impacted (adjective)

Wedged or packed in together.

- An impacted tooth.
- A "impacted" approach may work better in this case.

---

imposing (adjective)

Used of a person's appearance or behavior; befitting an eminent person.

- The monarch's imposing presence.
- An imposing residence.

---

in-line skate (noun)

A shoe with a line of rollers fixed to the sole.

- He looked up "in-line skate" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "in-line skate" to mean a shoe with a line of rollers fixed to the sole.

---

inflammation (noun)

The state of being emotionally aroused and worked up.

- He tried to calm those who were in a state of extreme inflammation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inflammation."

---

iron mold (noun)

A spot caused the staining with rust or ink.

- In class, the teacher used "iron mold" to mean a spot caused the staining with rust or ink.
- Understanding "iron mold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

japan cedar (noun)

Tall evergreen of Japan and China yielding valuable soft wood.

- The article explained what "japan cedar" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "japan cedar" during the group presentation.

---

junction barrier (noun)

A junction unit for connecting 2 cables without the need for plugs.

- They discussed "junction barrier" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "junction barrier."

---

just-noticeable difference (noun)

(psychophysics) the difference between two stimuli that (under properly controlled experimental conditions) is detected as often as it is undetected.

- Understanding "just-noticeable difference" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "just-noticeable difference" during the group presentation.

---

kai apple (noun)

South African fruit smelling and tasting like apricots; used for pickles and preserves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kai apple."
- Understanding "kai apple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lady crab (noun)

Brightly spotted crab of sandy beaches of the Atlantic coast of the United States.

- Understanding "lady crab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lady crab."

---

lambert (noun)

A cgs unit of illumination equal to the brightness of a perfectly diffusing surface that emits or reflects one lumen per square centimeter.

- They discussed "lambert" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lambert" to mean a cgs unit of illumination equal to the brightness....

---

lamps (noun)

An artificial source of visible illumination.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lamps."
- Understanding "lamps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lava (noun)

Rock that in its molten form (as magma) issues from volcanos; lava is what magma is called when it reaches the surface.

- In class, the teacher used "lava" to mean rock that in its molten form (as magma) issues from....
- Understanding "lava" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

life vest (noun)

Life preserver consisting of a sleeveless jacket of buoyant or inflatable design.

- He looked up "life vest" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "life vest."

---

logic diagram (noun)

A graphical representation of a program using formal logic.

- They discussed "logic diagram" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "logic diagram" to mean a graphical representation of a program using....

longtime (adjective)

Of long duration.

- A longtime friend.
- A "longtime" approach may work better in this case.

love vine (noun)

Leafless parasitic vine with dense clusters of small white bell-shaped flowers on orange-yellow stems that twine around clover or flax.

- He looked up "love vine" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "love vine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

madonna (noun)

The mother of Jesus; Christians refer to her as the Virgin Mary; she is especially honored by Roman Catholics.

- Understanding "madonna" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "madonna" because he had never seen it before.

magnet (noun)

A characteristic that provides pleasure and attracts.

- In class, the teacher used "magnet" to mean a characteristic that provides pleasure and attracts.
- The article explained what "magnet" means with a simple example.

mann (noun)

German writer concerned about the role of the artist in bourgeois society (1875-1955).

- In class, the teacher used "mann" to mean german writer concerned about the role of the....
- The article explained what "mann" means with a simple example.

marched upon (adjective)

Being or having been trodden or marched on.

- It is useful to describe something as "marched upon" when it is being or having been trodden or marched on.
- The speaker chose "marched upon" because it captured the feeling precisely.

marine glue (noun)

Glue that is not water soluble.

- They discussed "marine glue" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "marine glue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

membrane bone (noun)

Any bone that develops within membranous tissue without previous cartilage formation; e.g. the clavicle and bones of the skull.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "membrane bone."
- Understanding "membrane bone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

metallic element (noun)

Any of several chemical elements that are usually shiny solids that conduct heat or electricity and can be formed into sheets etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "metallic element."
- Understanding "metallic element" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mickey mouse (noun)

A fictional mouse created in animated film strips by Walt Disney.

- The article explained what "mickey mouse" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mickey mouse."

military policeman (noun)

A member of the military police who polices soldiers and guards prisoners.

- They discussed "military policeman" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military policeman."

millionaire (noun)

A person whose material wealth is valued at more than a million dollars.

- The article explained what "millionaire" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "millionaire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mn (noun)

A hard brittle grey polyvalent metallic element that resembles iron but is not magnetic; used in making steel; occurs in many minerals.

- The article explained what "mn" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mn" to mean a hard brittle grey polyvalent metallic element....

---

moon daisy (noun)

Tall leafy-stemmed Eurasian perennial with white flowers; widely naturalized; often placed in genus Chrysanthemum.

- The article explained what "moon daisy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "moon daisy" to mean tall leafy-stemmed eurasian perennial with white....

---

moral certainty (noun)

Certainty based on an inner conviction.

- She believed in the importance of moral absolutes and moral certainty.
- The prosecutor had a moral certainty that the prisoner was guilty.

---

most-favored-nation (adjective)

Of or relating to a commercial treaty where two nations agree to accord each other the same favorable terms that would be offered in treaties with any other nation.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "most-favored-nation."
- Students compared "most-favored-nation" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

motives (noun)

A unifying idea that is a recurrent element in literary or artistic work.

- He acted with the best of motives.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "motives."

---

mountain daisy (noun)

Boreal or alpine sandwort.

- They discussed "mountain daisy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mountain daisy" means with a simple example.

---

mysteries (noun)

Something that baffles understanding and cannot be explained.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mysteries."
- The article explained what "mysteries" means with a simple example.

---

negro (noun)

A person with dark skin who comes from Africa (or whose ancestors came from Africa).

- They discussed "negro" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "negro."

---

neural structure (noun)

A structure that is part of the nervous system.

- Understanding "neural structure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "neural structure" means with a simple example.

---

nightmares (noun)

A situation resembling a terrifying dream.

- In class, the teacher used "nightmares" to mean a situation resembling a terrifying dream.
- The article explained what "nightmares" means with a simple example.

---

normal dwarf (noun)

An achondroplastic dwarf whose small size is the result of a genetic defect; body parts and mental and sexual development are normal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "normal dwarf."

- He looked up “normal dwarf” because he had never seen it before.

notify (verb)

Inform (somebody) of something.

- He did not know how to use “notify” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “notify” when talking about this idea.

null (noun)

A quantity of no importance.

- They discussed “null” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “null” to mean a quantity of no importance.

one hundred seventy (adjective)

Being ten more than one hundred sixty.

- It is useful to describe something as “one hundred seventy” when it is being ten more than one hundred sixty.
- The speaker chose “one hundred seventy” because it captured the feeling precisely.

oregon maple (noun)

Maple of western North America having large 5-lobed leaves orange in autumn.

- The article explained what “oregon maple” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “oregon maple” to mean maple of western north america having large 5-lobed....

owing (adjective)

Owed as a debt.

- Would you call this situation “owing”? Explain why.
- The speaker chose “owing” because it captured the feeling precisely.

pact (noun)

A written agreement between two states or sovereigns.

- He looked up “pact” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “pact” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pakistani monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Pakistan.

- The article explained what “pakistani monetary unit” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “pakistani monetary unit” during the group presentation.

paramount (adjective)

Having superior power and influence.

- A “paramount” approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as “paramount” when it is having superior power and influence.

paranoid (noun)

A person afflicted with paranoia.

- In class, the teacher used “paranoid” to mean a person afflicted with paranoia.
- The article explained what “paranoid” means with a simple example.

patriot (noun)

One who loves and defends his or her country.

- The article explained what “patriot” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “patriot” to mean one who loves and defends his or her country.

patron (noun)

Someone who supports or champions something.

- In class, the teacher used “patron” to mean someone who supports or champions something.
- Understanding “patron” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

peach-wood (noun)

Tropical tree with prickly trunk; its heavy red wood yields a red dye and is used for cabinetry.

- The article explained what "peach-wood" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "peach-wood" to mean tropical tree with prickly trunk; its heavy red....

---

photographic camera (noun)

Equipment for taking photographs (usually consisting of a lightproof box with a lens at one end and light-sensitive film at the other).

- They discussed "photographic camera" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "photographic camera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

photographic equipment (noun)

Equipment used by a photographer.

- In class, the teacher used "photographic equipment" to mean equipment used by a photographer.
- The article explained what "photographic equipment" means with a simple example.

---

photographic material (noun)

Light-sensitive paper on which photograph can be printed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "photographic material."
- The article explained what "photographic material" means with a simple example.

---

pier mirror (noun)

A large mirror between two windows.

- The article explained what "pier mirror" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pier mirror" to mean a large mirror between two windows.

---

pinch bar (noun)

A lever with a pointed projection that serves as a fulcrum; used to roll heavy wheels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pinch bar."
- Understanding "pinch bar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pink elephants (noun)

Any visual hallucination arising from heavy drinking.

- Understanding "pink elephants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pink elephants" to mean any visual hallucination arising from heavy drinking.

---

pitt the younger (noun)

English statesman and son of Pitt the Elder (1759-1806).

- The article explained what "pitt the younger" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pitt the younger" to mean english statesman and son of pitt the elder (1759-1806).

---

platinum blonde (noun)

A blond whose hair is a pale silvery (often artificially colored) blond.

- He looked up "platinum blonde" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "platinum blonde" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

platinum-blonde (adjective)

Of hair color; whitish.

- A "platinum-blonde" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "platinum-blonde"? Explain why.

---

pole vault (noun)

A competition that involves jumping over a high crossbar with the aid of a long pole.

- In class, the teacher used "pole vault" to mean a competition that involves jumping over a high....
- Understanding "pole vault" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pond pine (noun)

Large three-needled pine of sandy swamps of southeastern United States; needles longer than those of the northern pitch pine.

- They discussed "pond pine" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pond pine" to mean large three-needled pine of sandy swamps of....

---

popcorn (noun)

Corn having small ears and kernels that burst when exposed to dry heat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "popcorn."
- They discussed "popcorn" during the group presentation.

---

precious coral (noun)

The hard stony skeleton of a Mediterranean coral that has a delicate red or pink color and is used for jewelry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "precious coral."
- He looked up "precious coral" because he had never seen it before.

---

preserving (verb)

To keep up and reserve for personal or special use.

- Can you use "preserving" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "preserving" and when to wait.

---

proxy (noun)

A power of attorney document given by shareholders of a corporation authorizing a specific vote on their behalf at a corporate meeting.

- Understanding "proxy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "proxy" means with a simple example.

---

pure imaginary number (noun)

An imaginary number of the form a+bi where a is 0.

- In class, the teacher used "pure imaginary number" to mean an imaginary number of the form a+bi where a is 0.
- They discussed "pure imaginary number" during the group presentation.

---

quantitative (adjective)

Expressible as a quantity or relating to or susceptible of measurement.

- Export wheat without quantitative limitations.
- Quantitative analysis determines the amounts and proportions of the chemical constituents of a substance or mixture.

---

radio telescope (noun)

Astronomical telescope that picks up electromagnetic radiations in the radio-frequency range from extraterrestrial sources.

- They discussed "radio telescope" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "radio telescope" to mean astronomical telescope that picks up....

---

rainy season (noun)

One of the two seasons in tropical climates.

- He looked up "rainy season" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rainy season."

---

recycling plant (noun)

A plant for reprocessing used or abandoned materials.

- They discussed "recycling plant" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "recycling plant" means with a simple example.

---

regain (verb)

Come upon after searching; find the location of something that was missed or lost.

- She regained control of herself.
- Learners should practice how to use "regain" in real sentences.

---

reinforced concrete (noun)

Concrete with metal and/or mesh added to provide extra support against stresses.

- Understanding "reinforced concrete" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "reinforced concrete" to mean concrete with metal and/or mesh added to provide....

reminding (verb)

Put in the mind of someone.

- In everyday English, people use "reminding" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "reminding" in a sentence that fits this situation?

renew (verb)

Reestablish on a new, usually improved, basis or make new or like new.

- We renewed our friendship after a hiatus of twenty years.
- They renewed their membership.

republic of iceland (noun)

An island republic on the island of Iceland; became independent of Denmark in 1944.

- The article explained what "republic of iceland" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "republic of iceland" to mean an island republic on the island of iceland; became....

resemble (verb)

Appear like; be similar or bear a likeness to.

- She resembles her mother very much.
- This paper resembles my own work.

resurrection plant (noun)

Small grey Asiatic desert plant bearing minute white flowers that rolls up when dry and expands when moist.

- Understanding "resurrection plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "resurrection plant" during the group presentation.

retarded (noun)

People collectively who are mentally retarded.

- He started a school for the retarded.
- The article explained what "retarded" means with a simple example.

retro (noun)

A fashion reminiscent of the past.

- He looked up "retro" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "retro" during the group presentation.

revolt (verb)

Cause aversion in; offend the moral sense of.

- The people revolted when bread prices tripled again.
- She tried to use "revolt" carefully so everyone would understand.

rightly (adverb)

With honesty.

- He was rightly considered the greatest singer of his time.
- Using "rightly" can make your explanation more exact.

roast beef (noun)

Cut of beef suitable for roasting.

- The article explained what "roast beef" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roast beef."

roasted (adjective)

(meat) cooked by dry heat in an oven.

- Students compared "roasted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "roasted"? Explain why.

rumor (noun)

Gossip (usually a mixture of truth and untruth) passed around by word of mouth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rumor."
- He looked up "rumor" because he had never seen it before.

---

rust-free (adjective)

Free of rust.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rust-free."
- Students compared "rust-free" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rust-red (adjective)

Of a red color tinged with rust.

- It is useful to describe something as "rust-red" when it is of a red color tinged with rust.
- Students compared "rust-red" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

sacked (adjective)

Having been robbed and destroyed by force and violence.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sacked."
- A "sacked" approach may work better in this case.

---

saddle (noun)

A seat for the rider of a horse or camel.

- The article explained what "saddle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "saddle" to mean a seat for the rider of a horse or camel.

---

sailor suit (noun)

A boy's ensemble; copied from a sailor's uniform.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sailor suit."
- He looked up "sailor suit" because he had never seen it before.

---

sailors choice (noun)

A grunt found from Florida to Brazil and Gulf of Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used "sailors choice" to mean a grunt found from florida to brazil and gulf of mexico.
- The article explained what "sailors choice" means with a simple example.

---

sampling rate (noun)

(telecommunication) the frequency of sampling per unit time.

- They discussed "sampling rate" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sampling rate."

---

sampling station (noun)

An observation station that is set up to make sample observations of something.

- They discussed "sampling station" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sampling station" because he had never seen it before.

---

sand sage (noun)

Silver-haired shrub of central and southern United States and Mexico; a troublesome weed on rangelands.

- In class, the teacher used "sand sage" to mean silver-haired shrub of central and southern united....
- Understanding "sand sage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

schmidt (noun)

German statesman who served as chancellor of Germany (born in 1918).

- He looked up "schmidt" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "schmidt."

---

schooling (noun)

The process of being formally educated at a school.

- In class, the teacher used "schooling" to mean the process of being formally educated at a school.

- The article explained what "schooling" means with a simple example.

---

scots english (noun)

The dialect of English used in Scotland.

- Understanding "scots english" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "scots english" because he had never seen it before.

---

seize with teeth (verb)

To grip, cut off, or tear with or as if with the teeth or jaws.

- Learners should practice how to use "seize with teeth" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "seize with teeth" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

self-enclosed (adjective)

Of self-imposed enclosure or confinement.

- A self-enclosed Jewish cosmos.
- Would you call this situation "self-enclosed"? Explain why.

---

sherlock (noun)

Someone who can be employed as a detective to collect information.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sherlock."
- They discussed "sherlock" during the group presentation.

---

shrine (noun)

A place of worship hallowed by association with some sacred thing or person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shrine."
- They discussed "shrine" during the group presentation.

---

shrink (noun)

A physician who specializes in psychiatry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shrink."
- He looked up "shrink" because he had never seen it before.

---

shrink from (verb)

Avoid (one's assigned duties).

- Can you use "shrink from" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "shrink from" and when to wait.

---

single dwelling (noun)

A house that stands alone.

- He looked up "single dwelling" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "single dwelling."

---

singular form (noun)

The form of a word that is used to denote a singleton.

- They discussed "singular form" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "singular form" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

slate-gray (adjective)

Of the color of slate or granite.

- The speaker chose "slate-gray" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "slate-gray."

---

slate-grey (adjective)

Of the color of slate or granite.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "slate-grey."
- Would you call this situation "slate-grey"? Explain why.

---

slave ant (noun)

Any of various ants captured as larvae and enslaved by another species.

- In class, the teacher used "slave ant" to mean any of various ants captured as larvae and enslaved....
- The article explained what "slave ant" means with a simple example.

slip clutch (noun)

A friction clutch that will slip when the torque is too great.

- They discussed "slip clutch" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "slip clutch" means with a simple example.

sniper (noun)

A marksman who shoots at people from a concealed place.

- The article explained what "sniper" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sniper."

solar eclipse (noun)

The moon interrupts light from the sun.

- He looked up "solar eclipse" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solar eclipse."

solitary (noun)

Confinement of a prisoner in isolation from other prisoners.

- He was held in solitary.
- They discussed "solitary" during the group presentation.

solomon islands (noun)

The southern Solomon Islands that since 1978 form an independent state in the British Commonwealth.

- The article explained what "solomon islands" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solomon islands."

sonic barrier (noun)

The increase in aerodynamic drag as an airplane approaches the speed of sound.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sonic barrier."
- He looked up "sonic barrier" because he had never seen it before.

sorrow (noun)

An emotion of great sadness associated with loss or bereavement.

- He tried to express his sorrow at her loss.
- He drank to drown his sorrows.

southern baptist convention (noun)

An association of Southern Baptists.

- In class, the teacher used "southern baptist convention" to mean an association of southern baptists.
- He looked up "southern baptist convention" because he had never seen it before.

spacecraft event time (noun)

The coordinated universal time on board the spacecraft.

- They discussed "spacecraft event time" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "spacecraft event time" to mean the coordinated universal time on board the spacecraft.

spinal column (noun)

The series of vertebrae forming the axis of the skeleton and protecting the spinal cord.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spinal column."
- He looked up "spinal column" because he had never seen it before.

spring heath (noun)

Dwarf European shrub with very early blooming bell-shaped red flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spring heath."
- He looked up "spring heath" because he had never seen it before.

---

square metre (noun)

A centare is 1/100th of an are.

- In class, the teacher used "square metre" to mean a centare is 1/100th of an are.
- Understanding "square metre" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

squares (noun)

A hand tool consisting of two straight arms at right angles; used to construct or test right angles.

- A checkerboard has 64 squares.
- He looked up "squares" because he had never seen it before.

---

stars and stripes (noun)

The national flag of the United States of America.

- Understanding "stars and stripes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stars and stripes."

---

stoke (verb)

Stir up or tend; of a fire.

- The coach explained when to use "stoke" and when to wait.
- Can you use "stoke" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

supervisor call instruction (noun)

An instruction that interrupts the program being executed and passes control to the supervisor.

- Understanding "supervisor call instruction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supervisor call instruction."

---

supper club (noun)

Usually a small luxurious nightclub.

- The article explained what "supper club" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "supper club" during the group presentation.

---

sweet alison (noun)

Perennial European plant having clusters of small fragrant usually white flowers; widely grown in gardens.

- In class, the teacher used "sweet alison" to mean perennial european plant having clusters of small....
- Understanding "sweet alison" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

taller (adjective)

Great in vertical dimension; high in stature.

- Would you call this situation "taller"? Explain why.
- Students compared "taller" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

television antenna (noun)

An omnidirectional antenna tuned to the broadcast frequencies assigned to television.

- The article explained what "television antenna" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "television antenna" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

temple of apollo (noun)

(Greek mythology) the oracle at Delphi where a priestess supposedly delivered messages from Apollo to those who sought advice; the messages were usually obscure or ambiguous.

- They discussed "temple of apollo" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "temple of apollo" because he had never seen it before.

---

termination (noun)

The end of a word (a suffix or inflectional ending or final morpheme).

- The termination of the agreement.
- In class, the teacher used "termination" to mean the end of a word (a suffix or inflectional ending....

thames (noun)

The longest river in England; flows eastward through London to the North Sea.

- In class, the teacher used "thames" to mean the longest river in england; flows eastward....
- He looked up "thames" because he had never seen it before.

thigh (noun)

The part of the leg between the hip and the knee.

- He looked up "thigh" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "thigh" to mean the part of the leg between the hip and the knee.

thrive (verb)

Make steady progress; be at the high point in one's career or reach a high point in historical significance or importance.

- The coach explained when to use "thrive" and when to wait.
- Can you use "thrive" in a sentence that fits this situation?

title deed (noun)

A legal document proving a person's right to property.

- Understanding "title deed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "title deed" to mean a legal document proving a person's right to property.

tomato juice (noun)

The juice of tomatoes (usually bottled or canned).

- Understanding "tomato juice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tomato juice" to mean the juice of tomatoes (usually bottled or canned).

torch song (noun)

A popular song concerned with disappointment in love.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "torch song."
- He looked up "torch song" because he had never seen it before.

tree heath (noun)

Gaunt Tasmanian evergreen shrubby tree with slender tapering leaves 3 to 5 feet long.

- Understanding "tree heath" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tree heath."

troll (noun)

A fisherman's lure that is used in trolling.

- He used a spinner as his troll.
- They discussed "troll" during the group presentation.

trust deed (noun)

A written instrument legally conveying property to a trustee often used to secure an obligation such as a mortgage or promissory note.

- He looked up "trust deed" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "trust deed" to mean a written instrument legally conveying property to....

uncovered (adjective)

Not covered with clothing.

- A "uncovered" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "uncovered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

undercover agent (noun)

(military) a secret agent hired by a state to obtain information about its enemies or by a business to obtain industrial secrets from competitors.

- In class, the teacher used "undercover agent" to mean (military) a secret agent hired by a state to....
- The article explained what "undercover agent" means with a simple example.

undertake (verb)

Promise to do or accomplish.

- In everyday English, people use "undertake" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "undertake" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

unpaid (adjective)

Engaged in as a pastime.

- Unpaid extras in the documentary.
- The soup kitchen was run primarily by unpaid helpers.

---

unsuccessful (adjective)

Failing to accomplish an intended result.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unsuccessful."
- Students compared "unsuccessful" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

upper balcony (noun)

Rearmost or uppermost area in the balcony containing the least expensive seats.

- In class, the teacher used "upper balcony" to mean rearmost or uppermost area in the balcony....
- He looked up "upper balcony" because he had never seen it before.

---

valuation account (noun)

A reserve fund created by a charge against profits in order to provide for changes in the value of a company's assets.

- Understanding "valuation account" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "valuation account" to mean a reserve fund created by a charge against profits....

---

vegetable soup (noun)

Soup made with a variety of vegetables.

- Understanding "vegetable soup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "vegetable soup" to mean soup made with a variety of vegetables.

---

vest (noun)

A man's sleeveless garment worn underneath a coat.

- In class, the teacher used "vest" to mean a man's sleeveless garment worn underneath a coat.
- Understanding "vest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vine (noun)

A plant with a weak stem that derives support from climbing, twining, or creeping along a surface.

- Understanding "vine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "vine" because he had never seen it before.

---

violating (verb)

Force (someone) to have sex against their will.

- Can you use "violating" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "violating" and when to wait.

---

viruses (noun)

A software program capable of reproducing itself and usually capable of causing great harm to files or other programs on the same computer.

- They discussed "viruses" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "viruses" means with a simple example.

---

warns (verb)

Notify of danger, potential harm, or risk.

- In everyday English, people use "warns" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "warns" until he saw an example.

---

warranty (noun)

A written assurance that some product or service will be provided or will meet certain specifications.

- In class, the teacher used "warranty" to mean a written assurance that some product or service....

- They discussed "warranty" during the group presentation.

---

weakened (adjective)

Damaged inanimate objects or their value.

- Would you call this situation "weakened"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "weakened."

---

western red cedar (noun)

Large valuable arborvitae of northwestern United States.

- He looked up "western red cedar" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "western red cedar" during the group presentation.

---

whale shark (noun)

Large spotted shark of warm surface waters worldwide; resembles a whale and feeds chiefly on plankton.

- In class, the teacher used "whale shark" to mean large spotted shark of warm surface waters....
- They discussed "whale shark" during the group presentation.

---

white dwarf star (noun)

A faint star of enormous density.

- They discussed "white dwarf star" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "white dwarf star" to mean a faint star of enormous density.

---

white rust (noun)

Fungus causing a disease characterized by a white powdery mass of conidia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white rust."
- They discussed "white rust" during the group presentation.

---

wild peach (noun)

Large much-branched shrub grown primarily for its evergreen foliage.

- They discussed "wild peach" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "wild peach" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

windsor (noun)

A city in southeastern Ontario on the Detroit River opposite Detroit.

- In class, the teacher used "windsor" to mean a city in southeastern ontario on the detroit river....
- The article explained what "windsor" means with a simple example.

---

winter heath (noun)

Dwarf European shrub with very early blooming bell-shaped red flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "winter heath."
- They discussed "winter heath" during the group presentation.

---

xxx (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and three.

- In class, the teacher used "xxx" to mean the cardinal number that is the product of ten and....
- Understanding "xxx" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yellow globe lily (noun)

Globe lily having open branched clusters of clear yellow egg-shaped flowers; northern California.

- The article explained what "yellow globe lily" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "yellow globe lily" during the group presentation.

---

yen (noun)

A yearning for something or to do something.

- Understanding "yen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "yen" during the group presentation.

---

zero coupon bond (noun)

A bond that is issued at a deep discount from its value at maturity and pays no interest during the life of the bond; the commonest form of zero-coupon security.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zero coupon bond."
- Understanding "zero coupon bond" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

zero-coupon bond (noun)

A bond that is issued at a deep discount from its value at maturity and pays no interest during the life of the bond; the commonest form of zero-coupon security.

- Understanding "zero-coupon bond" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "zero-coupon bond" because he had never seen it before.

---

zimbabwe (noun)

A landlocked republic in south central Africa formerly called Rhodesia; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1980.

- The article explained what "zimbabwe" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "zimbabwe" to mean a landlocked republic in south central africa....

---

admired (adjective)

Regarded with admiration.

- It is useful to describe something as "admired" when it is regarded with admiration.
- The speaker chose "admired" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

air hose (noun)

A hose that carries air under pressure.

- They discussed "air hose" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "air hose."

---

airways (noun)

A duct that provides ventilation (as in mines).

- In class, the teacher used "airways" to mean a duct that provides ventilation (as in mines).
- They discussed "airways" during the group presentation.

---

aisle (noun)

A long narrow passage (as in a cave or woods).

- He looked up "aisle" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "aisle" during the group presentation.

---

almighty (noun)

Terms referring to the Judeo-Christian God.

- They discussed "almighty" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "almighty" to mean terms referring to the judeo-christian god.

---

amino (adjective)

Pertaining to or containing any of a group of organic compounds of nitrogen derived from ammonia.

- Students compared "amino" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "amino" when it is pertaining to or containing any of a group of....

---

amusement park (noun)

A commercially operated park with stalls and shows for amusement.

- The article explained what "amusement park" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amusement park."

---

analog watch (noun)

A watch that represents time by the position of hands on a dial.

- They discussed "analog watch" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "analog watch" to mean a watch that represents time by the position of....

---

ants (noun)

Social insect living in organized colonies; characteristically the males and fertile queen have wings during breeding season; wingless sterile females are the workers.

- In class, the teacher used “ants” to mean social insect living in organized colonies;....
- They discussed “ants” during the group presentation.

---

arising (verb)

Come into existence; take on form or shape.

- He did not know how to use “arising” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “arising” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

artifacts (noun)

A man-made object taken as a whole.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “artifacts.”
- Understanding “artifacts” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ashton (noun)

British choreographer (1906-1988).

- They discussed “ashton” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “ashton” to mean british choreographer (1906-1988).

---

atlas mountains (noun)

A mountain range in northern Africa between the Mediterranean and the Sahara Desert; extends from southwestern Morocco to northern Tunisia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “atlas mountains.”
- He looked up “atlas mountains” because he had never seen it before.

---

atom (noun)

(nontechnical usage) a tiny piece of anything.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “atom.”
- He looked up “atom” because he had never seen it before.

---

auburn (adjective)

(of hair) colored a moderate reddish-brown.

- Auburn hair.
- A “auburn” approach may work better in this case.

---

bedrooms (noun)

A room used primarily for sleeping.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bedrooms.”
- They discussed “bedrooms” during the group presentation.

---

beta particle (noun)

A high-speed electron or positron emitted in the decay of a radioactive isotope.

- In class, the teacher used “beta particle” to mean a high-speed electron or positron emitted in the....
- The article explained what “beta particle” means with a simple example.

---

bilateral (adjective)

Affecting or undertaken by two parties.

- A bilateral agreement between the United States and Japan.
- Would you call this situation “bilateral”? Explain why.

---

bleed (verb)

Get or extort (money or other possessions) from someone.

- Bleed the radiators.
- The coach explained when to use “bleed” and when to wait.

---

blood serum (noun)

An amber, watery fluid, rich in proteins, that separates out when blood coagulates.

- In class, the teacher used “blood serum” to mean an amber, watery fluid, rich in proteins, that....
- The article explained what “blood serum” means with a simple example.

brake drum (noun)

A hollow cast-iron cylinder attached to the wheel that forms part of the brakes.

- They discussed "brake drum" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brake drum."

brown onion sauce (noun)

Brown sauce with sauteed chopped onions and parsley and dry white wine or vinegar.

- In class, the teacher used "brown onion sauce" to mean brown sauce with sauteed chopped onions and parsley....
- He looked up "brown onion sauce" because he had never seen it before.

burgers (noun)

A sandwich consisting of a fried cake of minced beef served on a bun, often with other ingredients.

- In class, the teacher used "burgers" to mean a sandwich consisting of a fried cake of minced....
- He looked up "burgers" because he had never seen it before.

butcher block (noun)

A thick wooden slab formed by bonding together thick laminated strips of unpainted hardwood.

- Understanding "butcher block" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "butcher block" because he had never seen it before.

butcher shop (noun)

A shop in which meat and poultry (and sometimes fish) are sold.

- They discussed "butcher shop" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "butcher shop" to mean a shop in which meat and poultry (and sometimes....

butterfly valve (noun)

A valve in a carburetor that consists of a disc that turns and acts as a throttle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "butterfly valve."
- The article explained what "butterfly valve" means with a simple example.

capital expenditure (noun)

The cost of long-term improvements.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital expenditure."
- He looked up "capital expenditure" because he had never seen it before.

caption (noun)

Taking exception; especially a quibble based on a captious argument.

- A mere caption unworthy of a reply.
- In class, the teacher used "caption" to mean taking exception; especially a quibble based on a....

captures (verb)

Capture as if by hunting, snaring, or trapping.

- Can you use "captures" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "captures" carefully so everyone would understand.

cereal box (noun)

A paper box in which breakfast cereals are sold.

- The article explained what "cereal box" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cereal box" to mean a paper box in which breakfast cereals are sold.

charles darwin (noun)

English natural scientist who formulated a theory of evolution by natural selection (1809-1882).

- They discussed "charles darwin" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "charles darwin" means with a simple example.

choke (verb)

Become stultified, suppressed, or stifled.

- She choked with emotion when she spoke about her deceased husband.
- The man choked his opponent.

---

choke off (verb)

Become or cause to become obstructed.

- He choked down his rage.
- He did not know how to use "choke off" until he saw an example.

---

cholesterol (noun)

An animal sterol that is normally synthesized by the liver; the most abundant steroid in animal tissues.

- In class, the teacher used "cholesterol" to mean an animal sterol that is normally synthesized by....
- They discussed "cholesterol" during the group presentation.

---

christopher fry (noun)

English dramatist noted for his comic verse dramas (born 1907).

- He looked up "christopher fry" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "christopher fry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

classy (adjective)

Elegant and fashionable; ; ; ; - Julia Child.

- Classy clothes.
- A classy dame.

---

cliff brake (noun)

Any of several small lithophytic ferns of tropical and warm temperate regions.

- The article explained what "cliff brake" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cliff brake" during the group presentation.

---

cliff-brake (noun)

Any of several small lithophytic ferns of tropical and warm temperate regions.

- He looked up "cliff-brake" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cliff-brake."

---

clinical psychologist (noun)

A therapist who deals with mental and emotional disorders.

- They discussed "clinical psychologist" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "clinical psychologist" to mean a therapist who deals with mental and emotional....

---

clyde (noun)

A river in western Scotland that flows from the southern uplands into the Firth of Clyde; navigable by oceangoing vessels as far as Glasgow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clyde."
- They discussed "clyde" during the group presentation.

---

coast white cedar (noun)

Slow-growing medium-sized cedar of east coast of the United States; resembles American arborvitae.

- Understanding "coast white cedar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "coast white cedar" means with a simple example.

---

coconut palm (noun)

Tall palm tree bearing coconuts as fruits; widely planted throughout the tropics.

- The article explained what "coconut palm" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "coconut palm" to mean tall palm tree bearing coconuts as fruits; widely....

---

cold cereal (noun)

A cereal that is not heated before serving.

- Understanding "cold cereal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used “cold cereal” to mean a cereal that is not heated before serving.

commodities market (noun)

An exchange for buying and selling commodities for future delivery.

- The article explained what “commodities market” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “commodities market.”

compass card (noun)

Compass in the form of a card that rotates so that 0 degrees or North points to magnetic north.

- In class, the teacher used “compass card” to mean compass in the form of a card that rotates so that....
- Understanding “compass card” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

compelled (verb)

Force somebody to do something.

- Can you use “compelled” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use “compelled” until he saw an example.

concealed (adjective)

Hidden on any grounds for any motive.

- A concealed weapon.
- A concealed compartment in his briefcase.

condemn (verb)

Declare or judge unfit for use or habitation.

- The building was condemned by the inspector.
- We condemn the racism in South Africa.

cone-shaped (adjective)

Relating to or resembling a cone.

- The speaker chose “cone-shaped” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “cone-shaped” approach may work better in this case.

constitutes (verb)

Create and charge with a task or function.

- In everyday English, people use “constitutes” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “constitutes” in real sentences.

continental shelf (noun)

The relatively shallow (up to 200 meters) seabed surrounding a continent.

- They discussed “continental shelf” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “continental shelf” means with a simple example.

contributor (noun)

A writer whose work is published in a newspaper or magazine or as part of a book.

- They discussed “contributor” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “contributor” because he had never seen it before.

coordination compound (noun)

A compound described in terms of the central atom to which other atoms are bound or coordinated.

- In class, the teacher used “coordination compound” to mean a compound described in terms of the central atom....
- Understanding “coordination compound” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cottage tent (noun)

A tent providing shelter for a family.

- In class, the teacher used “cottage tent” to mean a tent providing shelter for a family.
- They discussed “cottage tent” during the group presentation.

cpu (noun)

(computer science) the part of a computer (a microprocessor chip) that does most of the data processing.

- The CPU and the memory form the central part of a computer to which the peripherals are attached.
- He looked up "cpu" because he had never seen it before.

---

crab apple (noun)

Small sour apple; suitable for preserving.

- Crabapples make a tangy jelly.
- He looked up "crab apple" because he had never seen it before.

---

crab louis (noun)

Lettuce and crabmeat dressed with sauce Louis.

- In class, the teacher used "crab louis" to mean lettuce and crabmeat dressed with sauce louis.
- The article explained what "crab louis" means with a simple example.

---

cuban sandwich (noun)

A large sandwich made of a long crusty roll split lengthwise and filled with meats and cheese (and tomato and onion and lettuce and condiments); different names are used in different sections of the United States.

- He looked up "cuban sandwich" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cuban sandwich" to mean a large sandwich made of a long crusty roll split....

---

cube root (noun)

A number that when multiplied three times equals a given number.

- They discussed "cube root" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cube root."

---

curb roof (noun)

A roof with two or more slopes on each side of the ridge.

- He looked up "curb roof" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "curb roof."

---

damon (noun)

The friend of Phintias who pledged his life that Phintias would return (4th century BC).

- They discussed "damon" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "damon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dead metaphor (noun)

A metaphor that has occurred so often that it has become a new meaning of the expression (e.g., 'he is a snake' may once have been a metaphor but after years of use it has died and become a new sense of the word 'snake').

- He looked up "dead metaphor" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dead metaphor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deluxe (adjective)

Rich and superior in quality.

- A deluxe car.
- A "deluxe" approach may work better in this case.

---

dental anatomy (noun)

The branch of gross anatomy concerning with the morphology of teeth.

- The article explained what "dental anatomy" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dental anatomy" during the group presentation.

---

detention basin (noun)

A storage site (such as a small reservoir) that delays the flow of water downstream.

- The article explained what "detention basin" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "detention basin."

---

devastated (verb)

Cause extensive destruction or ruin utterly.

- He was devastated by his grief when his son died.
- He did not know how to use "devastated" until he saw an example.

---

dinosaurs (noun)

Any of numerous extinct terrestrial reptiles of the Mesozoic era.

- In class, the teacher used "dinosaurs" to mean any of numerous extinct terrestrial reptiles of the....
- The article explained what "dinosaurs" means with a simple example.

---

disguise (noun)

An outward semblance that misrepresents the true nature of something.

- The theatrical notion of disguise is always associated with catastrophe in his stories.
- He is a master of disguise.

---

doctor of sacred theology (noun)

A doctor's degree in theology.

- STD is from the Latin Sanctae Theologiae Doctor.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "doctor of sacred theology."

---

domains (noun)

A particular environment or walk of life.

- The article explained what "domains" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "domains."

---

double pneumonia (noun)

Lobar pneumonia involving both lungs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double pneumonia."
- They discussed "double pneumonia" during the group presentation.

---

downstairs (adjective)

On or of lower floors of a building.

- The downstairs (or downstair) phone.
- Students compared "downstairs" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

dressing sack (noun)

A woman's loose jacket; worn while dressing.

- They discussed "dressing sack" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dressing sack" to mean a woman's loose jacket; worn while dressing.

---

drilling mud (noun)

A mixture of clays and chemicals and water; pumped down the drill pipe to lubricate and cool the drilling bit and to flush out the cuttings and to strengthen the sides of the hole.

- They discussed "drilling mud" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "drilling mud" because he had never seen it before.

---

drum brake (noun)

Hydraulic brake in which friction is applied to the inside of a spinning drum by the brake shoe.

- They discussed "drum brake" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drum brake."

---

drying oil (noun)

An oil that hardens in air due to oxidation and is often used as a paint or varnish base.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drying oil."
- They discussed "drying oil" during the group presentation.

---

egyptian onion (noun)

Type of perennial onion grown chiefly as a curiosity or for early salad onions; having bulbils that replace the flowers.

- He looked up "egyptian onion" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding “egyptian onion” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

eighty-nine (adjective)

Being nine more than eighty.

- A “eighty-nine” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “eighty-nine” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

electron shell (noun)

A grouping of electrons surrounding the nucleus of an atom.

- The chemical properties of an atom are determined by the outermost electron shell.
- In class, the teacher used “electron shell” to mean a grouping of electrons surrounding the nucleus of....

eleven-sided (adjective)

Having eleven sides.

- A “eleven-sided” approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose “eleven-sided” because it captured the feeling precisely.

english lady crab (noun)

Crab of the English coasts.

- In class, the teacher used “english lady crab” to mean crab of the english coasts.
- The article explained what “english lady crab” means with a simple example.

english saddle (noun)

A saddle having a steel cantle and pommel and no horn.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “english saddle.”
- They discussed “english saddle” during the group presentation.

evening gown (noun)

A gown for evening wear.

- They discussed “evening gown” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “evening gown” to mean a gown for evening wear.

feasible (adjective)

Capable of being done with means at hand and circumstances as they are.

- A “feasible” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “feasible”? Explain why.

field coil (noun)

The electric coil around a field magnet that produces the magneto motive force to set up the flux in an electric machine.

- They discussed “field coil” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “field coil” because he had never seen it before.

field magnet (noun)

A magnet that provides a magnetic field in a dynamo or electric motor.

- Understanding “field magnet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “field magnet” because he had never seen it before.

figure skate (noun)

An ice skate worn for figure skating; has a slightly curved blade and a row of jagged points at the front of the blade.

- He looked up “figure skate” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “figure skate.”

filing clerk (noun)

A clerk who is employed to maintain the files of an organization.

- In class, the teacher used “filing clerk” to mean a clerk who is employed to maintain the files of an....
- The article explained what “filing clerk” means with a simple example.

fire hose (noun)

A large hose that carries water from a fire hydrant to the site of the fire.

- The article explained what "fire hose" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fire hose" during the group presentation.

---

flawed (adjective)

Having a blemish or flaw.

- A flawed diamond.
- The speaker chose "flawed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

forged (adjective)

Reproduced fraudulently.

- A forged twenty dollar bill.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "forged."

---

form genus (noun)

An artificial taxonomic category established on the basis of morphological resemblance for organisms of obscure true relationships especially fossil forms.

- In class, the teacher used "form genus" to mean an artificial taxonomic category established on the....
- The article explained what "form genus" means with a simple example.

---

frame buffer (noun)

(computer science) a buffer that stores the contents of an image pixel by pixel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frame buffer."
- They discussed "frame buffer" during the group presentation.

---

franco-american (noun)

An American who was born in France or whose ancestors were French.

- He looked up "franco-american" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "franco-american."

---

franklin roosevelt (noun)

32nd President of the United States; elected four times; instituted New Deal to counter the Great Depression and led country during World War II (1882-1945).

- Understanding "franklin roosevelt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "franklin roosevelt" to mean 32nd president of the united states; elected four....

---

garbage collector (noun)

Someone employed to collect and dispose of refuse.

- Understanding "garbage collector" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "garbage collector" during the group presentation.

---

gem clip (noun)

A wire or plastic clip for holding sheets of paper together.

- The paper clip was invented in 1900.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gem clip."

---

general franco (noun)

Spanish general whose armies took control of Spain in 1939 and who ruled as a dictator until his death (1892-1975).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general franco."
- They discussed "general franco" during the group presentation.

---

generals (noun)

A fact about the whole (as opposed to particular).

- The article explained what "generals" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "generals" to mean a fact about the whole (as opposed to particular).

---

genres (noun)

A style of expressing yourself in writing.

- Understanding “genres” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “genres” because he had never seen it before.

---

gi (adjective)

Of or relating to the stomach and intestines.

- Students compared “gi” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “gi.”

---

goats (noun)

The tenth sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about December 22 to January 19.

- Understanding “goats” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “goats” during the group presentation.

---

gram-negative (adjective)

(of bacteria) being of or relating to a bacterium that does not retain the violet stain used in Gram’s method.

- A “gram-negative” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “gram-negative.”

---

grease (noun)

The state of being covered with unclean things.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “grease.”
- Understanding “grease” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

greeks (noun)

The Hellenic branch of the Indo-European family of languages.

- They discussed “greeks” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “greeks” because he had never seen it before.

---

guessed (verb)

Put forward, of a guess, in spite of possible refutation.

- He guessed the right number of beans in the jar and won the prize.
- She tried to use “guessed” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

gum ridge (noun)

A ridge that forms the borders of the upper and lower jaws and contains the sockets of the teeth.

- Understanding “gum ridge” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “gum ridge” because he had never seen it before.

---

haiti (noun)

A republic in the West Indies on the western part of the island of Hispaniola; achieved independence from France in 1804; the poorest and most illiterate nation in the western hemisphere.

- They discussed “haiti” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “haiti” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hallway (noun)

An interior passage or corridor onto which rooms open.

- He looked up “hallway” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “hallway” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

halo spot (noun)

A blight of bean plants.

- In class, the teacher used “halo spot” to mean a blight of bean plants.
- The article explained what “halo spot” means with a simple example.

---

hand and glove (adverb)

In close cooperation.

- They work hand in glove.
- Using “hand and glove” can make your explanation more exact.

hand in glove (adverb)

In close cooperation.

- They work hand in glove.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "hand in glove" naturally.

heavens (noun)

The apparent surface of the imaginary sphere on which celestial bodies appear to be projected.

- Understanding "heavens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heavens."

helicopters (noun)

An aircraft without wings that obtains its lift from the rotation of overhead blades.

- He looked up "helicopters" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "helicopters" during the group presentation.

hero of alexandria (noun)

Greek mathematician and inventor who devised a way to determine the area of a triangle and who described various mechanical devices (first century).

- He looked up "hero of alexandria" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hero of alexandria" during the group presentation.

heroin addiction (noun)

An addiction to heroin.

- In class, the teacher used "heroin addiction" to mean an addiction to heroin.
- Understanding "heroin addiction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

homosexual (noun)

Someone who practices homosexuality; having a sexual attraction to persons of the same sex.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "homosexual."
- He looked up "homosexual" because he had never seen it before.

horse gram (noun)

Twining herb of Old World tropics cultivated in India for food and fodder; sometimes placed in genus Dolichos.

- He looked up "horse gram" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse gram."

hot cereal (noun)

A cereal that is served hot.

- They discussed "hot cereal" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "hot cereal" to mean a cereal that is served hot.

house of prostitution (noun)

A building where prostitutes are available.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house of prostitution."
- He looked up "house of prostitution" because he had never seen it before.

hulk (noun)

A ship that has been wrecked and abandoned.

- He looked up "hulk" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hulk" during the group presentation.

hydraulic (adjective)

Of or relating to the study of hydraulics.

- Hydraulic engineer.
- Hydraulic erosion.

ice skate (noun)

Skate consisting of a boot with a steel blade fitted to the sole.

- The article explained what "ice skate" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ice skate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

identification particle (noun)

A tiny particle of material that can be added to a product to indicate the source of manufacture.

- Understanding "identification particle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "identification particle."

ill-favored (adjective)

Usually used of a face.

- An ill-favored countenance.
- A "ill-favored" approach may work better in this case.

incapable (adjective)

(followed by 'of') lacking capacity or ability.

- Incapable of carrying a tune.
- He is incapable of understanding the matter.

indies (noun)

A pop group not affiliated with a major record company.

- In class, the teacher used "indies" to mean a pop group not affiliated with a major record company.
- The article explained what "indies" means with a simple example.

inflammatory (adjective)

Characterized or caused by inflammation.

- An inflammatory process.
- An inflammatory response.

insanity (noun)

Relatively permanent disorder of the mind.

- The article explained what "insanity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "insanity" to mean relatively permanent disorder of the mind.

insecure (adjective)

Not firm or firmly fixed; likely to fail or give way.

- The hinge is insecure.
- His fortune was increasingly insecure.

institutes (noun)

An association organized to promote art or science or education.

- In class, the teacher used "institutes" to mean an association organized to promote art or science....
- The article explained what "institutes" means with a simple example.

integrate (verb)

Make into a whole or make part of a whole.

- The students at this school integrate immediately, despite their different backgrounds.
- In everyday English, people use "integrate" when talking about this idea.

intentional (adjective)

Done or made or performed with purpose and intent; - Havelock Ellis.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "intentional."
- A "intentional" approach may work better in this case.

inventory-clearance sale (noun)

A sale to reduce inventory.

- In class, the teacher used "inventory-clearance sale" to mean a sale to reduce inventory.

- Understanding "inventory-clearance sale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

japanese cedar (noun)

Tall evergreen of Japan and China yielding valuable soft wood.

- Understanding "japanese cedar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "japanese cedar" during the group presentation.

---

japanese crab (noun)

Crabmeat usually canned; from Japan.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese crab."
- They discussed "japanese crab" during the group presentation.

---

japanese iris (noun)

Iris native to Japan having large showy flowers.

- Understanding "japanese iris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "japanese iris" to mean iris native to japan having large showy flowers.

---

jeep (noun)

A car suitable for traveling over rough terrain.

- In class, the teacher used "jeep" to mean a car suitable for traveling over rough terrain.
- Understanding "jeep" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

knot (noun)

A hard cross-grained round piece of wood in a board where a branch emerged.

- The saw buckled when it hit a knot.
- A small knot of women listened to his sermon.

---

laboratories (noun)

A region resembling a laboratory inasmuch as it offers opportunities for observation and practice and experimentation.

- The article explained what "laboratories" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laboratories."

---

landscapes (noun)

An extensive mental viewpoint.

- He looked up "landscapes" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "landscapes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

laundry cart (noun)

Handcart for moving a load of laundry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laundry cart."
- He looked up "laundry cart" because he had never seen it before.

---

leaf node (noun)

(botany) the small swelling that is the part of a plant stem from which one or more leaves emerge.

- He looked up "leaf node" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "leaf node" to mean (botany) the small swelling that is the part of a....

---

least squares (noun)

A method of fitting a curve to data points so as to minimize the sum of the squares of the distances of the points from the curve.

- The article explained what "least squares" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "least squares" to mean a method of fitting a curve to data points so as to....

---

lebanese (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Lebanon or its people.

- Lebanese mountains.
- The speaker chose "lebanese" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

lecturer (noun)

A public lecturer at certain universities.

- In class, the teacher used "lecturer" to mean a public lecturer at certain universities.
- Understanding "lecturer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lemon lily (noun)

A day lily with yellow flowers.

- They discussed "lemon lily" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lemon lily" to mean a day lily with yellow flowers.

lewis carroll (noun)

English author; Charles Dodgson was an Oxford don of mathematics who is remembered for the children's stories he wrote under the pen name Lewis Carroll (1832-1898).

- They discussed "lewis carroll" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "lewis carroll" because he had never seen it before.

liner train (noun)

A long-distance express freight train between industrial centers and seaports with facilities for rapid loading and unloading of goods.

- Understanding "liner train" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "liner train" during the group presentation.

love knot (noun)

A stylized or decorative knot used as an emblem of love.

- Understanding "love knot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "love knot" because he had never seen it before.

lust (verb)

Have a craving, appetite, or great desire for.

- Learners should practice how to use "lust" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "lust" when talking about this idea.

lust after (verb)

Have a strong sexual desire for.

- He is lusting after his secretary.
- The coach explained when to use "lust after" and when to wait.

markers (noun)

Some conspicuous object used to distinguish or mark something.

- The buoys were markers for the channel.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "markers."

mason jar (noun)

A glass jar with an air-tight screw top; used in home canning.

- The article explained what "mason jar" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mason jar" to mean a glass jar with an air-tight screw top; used in....

mayo (noun)

Egg yolks and oil and vinegar.

- In class, the teacher used "mayo" to mean egg yolks and oil and vinegar.
- They discussed "mayo" during the group presentation.

microphone (noun)

Device for converting sound waves into electrical energy.

- Understanding "microphone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "microphone."

miles per gallon (noun)

The distance traveled in a vehicle powered by one gallon of gasoline or diesel fuel.

- In class, the teacher used "miles per gallon" to mean the distance traveled in a vehicle powered by one....
- The article explained what "miles per gallon" means with a simple example.

---

miniature (noun)

A copy that reproduces a person or thing in greatly reduced size.

- Understanding "miniature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "miniature" because he had never seen it before.

---

moderate breeze (noun)

Wind moving 13-18 knots; 4 on the Beaufort scale.

- In class, the teacher used "moderate breeze" to mean wind moving 13-18 knots; 4 on the beaufort scale.
- They discussed "moderate breeze" during the group presentation.

---

moment of a magnet (noun)

The torque exerted on a magnet or dipole when it is placed in a magnetic field.

- In class, the teacher used "moment of a magnet" to mean the torque exerted on a magnet or dipole when it is....
- They discussed "moment of a magnet" during the group presentation.

---

monks (noun)

A male religious living in a cloister and devoting himself to contemplation and prayer and work.

- In class, the teacher used "monks" to mean a male religious living in a cloister and devoting....
- He looked up "monks" because he had never seen it before.

---

motto (noun)

A favorite saying of a sect or political group.

- They discussed "motto" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "motto" to mean a favorite saying of a sect or political group.

---

mount communism (noun)

The highest mountain peak in the Pamir Mountains; near the Chinese border in northeastern Tajikistan (24,590 feet high).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mount communism."
- They discussed "mount communism" during the group presentation.

---

mountain heath (noun)

Small shrub with tiny evergreen leaves and pink or purple flowers; Alpine summits and high ground in Asia and Europe and United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mountain heath."
- They discussed "mountain heath" during the group presentation.

---

mouths (noun)

A person conceived as a consumer of food.

- He has four mouths to feed.
- In class, the teacher used "mouths" to mean a person conceived as a consumer of food.

---

murdering (verb)

Kill intentionally and with premeditation.

- Can you use "murdering" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "murdering" and when to wait.

---

nationality (noun)

People having common origins or traditions and often comprising a nation.

- Immigrants of the same nationality often seek each other out.
- Such images define their sense of nationality.

---

native peach (noun)

Red Australian fruit; used for dessert or in jam.

- He looked up "native peach" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "native peach" to mean red australian fruit; used for dessert or in jam.

natives (noun)

A person born in a particular place or country.

- The art of the natives of the northwest coast.
- In class, the teacher used "natives" to mean a person born in a particular place or country.

neural net (noun)

Any network of neurons or nuclei that function together to perform some function in the body.

- He looked up "neural net" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "neural net" during the group presentation.

nitrogen balance (noun)

The balance between the amount of nitrogen taken in (to the soil or the body) and the amount given off (lost or excreted).

- He looked up "nitrogen balance" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "nitrogen balance" to mean the balance between the amount of nitrogen taken in....

norfolk jacket (noun)

Loose-fitting single-breasted jacket.

- They discussed "norfolk jacket" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "norfolk jacket" because he had never seen it before.

northern white cedar (noun)

Small evergreen of eastern North America having tiny scalelike leaves on flattened branchlets.

- Understanding "northern white cedar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "northern white cedar" to mean small evergreen of eastern north america having....

notebook computer (noun)

A small compact portable computer.

- In class, the teacher used "notebook computer" to mean a small compact portable computer.
- The article explained what "notebook computer" means with a simple example.

null set (noun)

A set that is empty; a set with no members.

- The article explained what "null set" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "null set."

null space (noun)

A space that contains no points; and empty space.

- The article explained what "null space" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "null space" to mean a space that contains no points; and empty space.

nw (noun)

The compass point midway between north and west; at 315 degrees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nw."
- They discussed "nw" during the group presentation.

obstacle (noun)

Something immaterial that stands in the way and must be circumvented or surmounted.

- Lack of imagination is an obstacle to one's advancement.
- The poverty of a district is an obstacle to good education.

occupational (adjective)

Of or relating to the activity or business for which you are trained.

- Occupational hazard.
- Students compared "occupational" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

one hundred seventy-five (adjective)

Being five more than one hundred seventy.

- The speaker chose "one hundred seventy-five" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "one hundred seventy-five" approach may work better in this case.

---

onset (noun)

The beginning or early stages.

- The onset of pneumonia.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "onset."

---

orange daisy (noun)

Mat-forming herb of Turkestan with nearly double orange-yellow flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "orange daisy" to mean mat-forming herb of turkestan with nearly double....
- The article explained what "orange daisy" means with a simple example.

---

organ donor (noun)

Someone from whom an organ is taken for transplantation.

- The article explained what "organ donor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "organ donor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

owes (verb)

Be indebted to, in an abstract or intellectual sense.

- This new theory owes much to Einstein's Relativity Theory.
- She owes me $200.

---

packet boat (noun)

A boat for carrying mail.

- In class, the teacher used "packet boat" to mean a boat for carrying mail.
- The article explained what "packet boat" means with a simple example.

---

packing needle (noun)

A large needle used to sew up canvas packages.

- In class, the teacher used "packing needle" to mean a large needle used to sew up canvas packages.
- The article explained what "packing needle" means with a simple example.

---

palmer peninsula (noun)

A large peninsula of Antarctica that extends some 1200 miles north toward South America; separates the Weddell Sea from the South Pacific.

- He looked up "palmer peninsula" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "palmer peninsula."

---

paramount issue (noun)

An issue whose settlement is more important than anything else; and issue that must be settled before anything else can be settled.

- Understanding "paramount issue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "paramount issue" means with a simple example.

---

pasta salad (noun)

A salad having any of various pastas as the base.

- In class, the teacher used "pasta salad" to mean a salad having any of various pastas as the base.
- The article explained what "pasta salad" means with a simple example.

---

pe (noun)

The 17th letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

- The article explained what "pe" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

perceive (verb)

To become aware of through the senses.

- I could perceive the ship coming over the horizon.

- She finally perceived the futility of her protest.

---

petrol (noun)

A volatile flammable mixture of hydrocarbons (hexane and heptane and octane etc.) derived from petroleum; used mainly as a fuel in internal-combustion engines.

- Understanding "petrol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "petrol" during the group presentation.

---

philosopher (noun)

A wise person who is calm and rational; someone who lives a life of reason with equanimity.

- The article explained what "philosopher" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "philosopher."

---

photographed (verb)

Undergo being photographed in a certain way.

- I photographed the scene of the accident.
- Can you use "photographed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

picnic shoulder (noun)

Shoulder of a hog usually smoked.

- Understanding "picnic shoulder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "picnic shoulder" during the group presentation.

---

pine lily (noun)

Lily of southeastern United States having cup-shaped flowers with deep yellow to scarlet recurved petals.

- Understanding "pine lily" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pine lily" during the group presentation.

---

pits (noun)

A surface excavation for extracting stone or slate.

- He looked up "pits" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pits."

---

pixel (noun)

(computer science) the smallest discrete component of an image or picture on a CRT screen (usually a colored dot).

- The greater the number of pixels per inch the greater the resolution.
- In class, the teacher used "pixel" to mean (computer science) the smallest discrete component....

---

plantation (noun)

A newly established colony (especially in the colonization of North America).

- The practice of sending convicted criminals to serve on the Plantations was common in the 17th century.
- Understanding "plantation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

poison-berry (noun)

Eurasian herb naturalized in America having white flowers and poisonous hairy foliage and bearing black berries that are sometimes poisonous but sometimes edible.

- The article explained what "poison-berry" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poison-berry."

---

presently (adverb)

At this time or period; now.

- He is presently our ambassador to the United Nations.
- She will arrive presently.

---

press stud (noun)

A fastener used on clothing; fastens with a snapping sound.

- They discussed "press stud" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "press stud" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prohibition era (noun)

The period from 1920 to 1933 when the sale of alcoholic beverages was prohibited in the United States by a constitutional amendment.

- They discussed "prohibition era" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "prohibition era" means with a simple example.

---

prose (noun)

Ordinary writing as distinguished from verse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prose."
- He looked up "prose" because he had never seen it before.

---

proxy war (noun)

A war instigated by a major power that does not itself participate.

- He looked up "proxy war" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "proxy war."

---

pumpkin seed (noun)

The edible seed of a pumpkin.

- The article explained what "pumpkin seed" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pumpkin seed" to mean the edible seed of a pumpkin.

---

pumpkin-shaped (adjective)

Having the equatorial diameter greater than the polar diameter; being flattened at the poles.

- It is useful to describe something as "pumpkin-shaped" when it is having the equatorial diameter greater than the....
- The speaker chose "pumpkin-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

pyramid plant (noun)

Any of various tall perennial herbs constituting the genus Frasera; widely distributed in warm dry upland areas of California, Oregon, and Washington.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pyramid plant."
- He looked up "pyramid plant" because he had never seen it before.

---

quick-drying (adjective)

Of a liquid substance that dries quickly.

- The speaker chose "quick-drying" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "quick-drying" when it is of a liquid substance that dries quickly.

---

quoting (verb)

Refer to for illustration or proof.

- Here the author is quoting his colleague.
- Can you use "quoting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

radar dome (noun)

A housing for a radar antenna; transparent to radio waves.

- The article explained what "radar dome" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "radar dome" during the group presentation.

---

radio beacon (noun)

A characteristic signal emitted by a transmitter used for navigation.

- They discussed "radio beacon" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "radio beacon" means with a simple example.

---

radio compass (noun)

A direction finder that gives a bearing by determining the direction of incoming radio signals.

- The article explained what "radio compass" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radio compass."

---

radioactive (adjective)

Exhibiting or caused by radioactivity.

- Radioactive isotope.
- Radioactive decay.

---

raining (adjective)

Falling in drops or as if falling like rain.

- Watched the raining apple blossoms.
- It is useful to describe something as "raining" when it is falling in drops or as if falling like rain.

---

rang (verb)

Extend on all sides of simultaneously; encircle.

- The bells rang.
- The coach explained when to use "rang" and when to wait.

---

razor (noun)

Edge tool used in shaving.

- In class, the teacher used "razor" to mean edge tool used in shaving.
- They discussed "razor" during the group presentation.

---

realization (noun)

Coming to understand something clearly and distinctly.

- A growing realization of the risk involved.
- The victory was the realization of a whole year's work.

---

red dwarf star (noun)

A small, old, relatively cool star; approximately 100 times the mass of Jupiter.

- The article explained what "red dwarf star" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "red dwarf star" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

removes (verb)

Kill intentionally and with premeditation.

- Can you use "removes" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "removes" until he saw an example.

---

republic of uganda (noun)

A landlocked republic in eastern Africa; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1962.

- The article explained what "republic of uganda" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "republic of uganda" during the group presentation.

---

restoring (verb)

Return to life; get or give new life or energy.

- He did not know how to use "restoring" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "restoring" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

resurrection of christ (noun)

(New Testament) the rising of Christ on the third day after the Crucifixion.

- The article explained what "resurrection of christ" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "resurrection of christ."

---

reunited (verb)

Unify again, as of a country.

- Learners should practice how to use "reunited" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "reunited" when talking about this idea.

---

royals (noun)

A sail set next above the topgallant on a royal mast.

- In class, the teacher used "royals" to mean a sail set next above the topgallant on a royal mast.
- The article explained what "royals" means with a simple example.

rug (noun)

Floor covering consisting of a piece of thick heavy fabric (usually with nap or pile).

- He looked up "rug" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rust-brown (adjective)

Of the brown color of rust.

- The speaker chose "rust-brown" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "rust-brown" when it is of the brown color of rust.

sacrifices (noun)

A loss entailed by giving up or selling something at less than its value.

- Understanding "sacrifices" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sacrifices" during the group presentation.

saint johns river (noun)

A river in northeastern Florida that flows northward to Jacksonville and then eastward to empty into the Atlantic Ocean.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saint johns river."
- He looked up "saint johns river" because he had never seen it before.

salvador (noun)

A republic on the Pacific coast of Central America.

- Understanding "salvador" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "salvador" to mean a republic on the pacific coast of central america.

santa clara (noun)

A city of west central California; residential area with light industry.

- Understanding "santa clara" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "santa clara" during the group presentation.

scale insect (noun)

Small homopterous insect that usually lives and feeds on plants and secretes a protective waxy covering.

- He looked up "scale insect" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scale insect."

scanning (noun)

The process of translating photographs into a digital form that can be recognized by a computer.

- The article explained what "scanning" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "scanning" to mean the process of translating photographs into a....

screamed (verb)

Make a loud, piercing sound.

- She tried to use "screamed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "screamed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

seating capacity (noun)

The number of people that can be seated in a vehicle or auditorium or stadium etc.

- They discussed "seating capacity" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "seating capacity" means with a simple example.

self-confessed (adjective)

Owned up to.

- A self-confessed plagiarist.
- The speaker chose "self-confessed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

sensible horizon (noun)

The line at which the sky and Earth appear to meet.

- In class, the teacher used "sensible horizon" to mean the line at which the sky and earth appear to meet.
- He looked up "sensible horizon" because he had never seen it before.

---

ship chandler (noun)

A dealer in equipment and supplies for ships.

- They discussed "ship chandler" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ship chandler" because he had never seen it before.

---

sinking spell (noun)

A temporary decline in health or value.

- They discussed "sinking spell" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sinking spell" because he had never seen it before.

---

sketch pad (noun)

A book containing sheets of paper on which sketches can be drawn.

- They discussed "sketch pad" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sketch pad" to mean a book containing sheets of paper on which sketches....

---

slave-making ant (noun)

An ant that attacks colonies of other ant species and carries off the young to be reared as slave ants.

- He looked up "slave-making ant" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slave-making ant."

---

slogan (noun)

A favorite saying of a sect or political group.

- Understanding "slogan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "slogan" because he had never seen it before.

---

small-particle pollution (noun)

Air pollution caused by fine particles of soot (as from power plants or diesel engines).

- He looked up "small-particle pollution" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "small-particle pollution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

soda jerk (noun)

Someone who works at a soda fountain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soda jerk."
- He looked up "soda jerk" because he had never seen it before.

---

southern white cedar (noun)

Slow-growing medium-sized cedar of east coast of the United States; resembles American arborvitae.

- He looked up "southern white cedar" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "southern white cedar."

---

spanish cedar (noun)

Tropical American tree yielding fragrant wood used especially for boxes.

- They discussed "spanish cedar" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "spanish cedar" because he had never seen it before.

---

spanish heath (noun)

Erect dense shrub native to western Iberian peninsula having profuse white or pink flowers; naturalized in southwestern England.

- He looked up "spanish heath" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spanish heath" to mean erect dense shrub native to western iberian....

---

spanish iris (noun)

Bulbous iris of western Mediterranean region having usually violet-purple flowers.

- They discussed "spanish iris" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spanish iris.”

---

specimen (noun)

A bit of tissue or blood or urine that is taken for diagnostic purposes.

- They collected a urine specimen for urinalysis.
- In class, the teacher used “specimen” to mean a bit of tissue or blood or urine that is taken for....

---

speed skate (noun)

An ice skate with a long blade; worn for racing.

- They discussed “speed skate” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “speed skate” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spit and polish (noun)

Careful attention to order and appearance (as in the military).

- He looked up “spit and polish” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “spit and polish” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stage whisper (noun)

A loud whisper that can be overheard; on the stage it is heard by the audience but it supposed to be inaudible to the rest of the cast.

- Understanding “stage whisper” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “stage whisper” because he had never seen it before.

---

stained-glass window (noun)

A window made of stained glass.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stained-glass window.”
- He looked up “stained-glass window” because he had never seen it before.

---

steer (noun)

An indication of potential opportunity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “steer.”
- The article explained what “steer” means with a simple example.

---

stick insect (noun)

Any of various mostly tropical insects having long twiglike bodies.

- Understanding “stick insect” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “stick insect” to mean any of various mostly tropical insects having long....

---

stone crab (noun)

Pale flesh with delicate texture and flavor; found in Florida but now very rare.

- The article explained what “stone crab” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “stone crab” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

strains (noun)

The general meaning or substance of an utterance.

- She endured the stresses and strains of life.
- He looked up “strains” because he had never seen it before.

---

strawberry (noun)

Any of various low perennial herbs with many runners and bearing white flowers followed by edible fruits having many small achenes scattered on the surface of an enlarged red pulpy berry.

- They discussed “strawberry” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “strawberry.”

---

strive (verb)

To exert much effort or energy.

- In everyday English, people use “strive” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “strive” in real sentences.

---

sub-interval (noun)

An interval that is included in another interval.

- Understanding "sub-interval" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sub-interval" because he had never seen it before.

sunglasses (noun)

Spectacles that are darkened or polarized to protect the eyes from the glare of the sun.

- He looked up "sunglasses" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sunglasses" during the group presentation.

support hose (noun)

Elasticized stocking intended to reduce pressure on the veins of the leg (as in case of varicose veins).

- In class, the teacher used "support hose" to mean elasticized stocking intended to reduce pressure on....
- Understanding "support hose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tate (noun)

United States poet and critic (1899-1979).

- He looked up "tate" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tate."

tennis elbow (noun)

Painful inflammation of the tendon at the outer border of the elbow resulting from overuse of lower arm muscles (as in twisting of the hand).

- Understanding "tennis elbow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tennis elbow."

textile machine (noun)

A machine for making textiles.

- In class, the teacher used "textile machine" to mean a machine for making textiles.
- The article explained what "textile machine" means with a simple example.

the indies (noun)

The string of islands between North America and South America; a popular resort area.

- They discussed "the indies" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "the indies."

the pits (noun)

Any place of pain and turmoil.

- The hell of battle.
- The inferno of the engine room.

thrill (noun)

An almost pleasurable sensation of fright.

- The thrills of space travel.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thrill."

tile (noun)

A thin flat slab of fired clay used for roofing.

- He looked up "tile" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tile."

tissue typing (noun)

A series of diagnostic tests before an organ transplant to determine whether the tissues of a donor and recipient are compatible.

- In class, the teacher used "tissue typing" to mean a series of diagnostic tests before an organ....
- They discussed "tissue typing" during the group presentation.

tomato sauce (noun)

Sauce made with a puree of tomatoes (or strained tomatoes) with savory vegetables and other seasonings; can be used on pasta.

- The article explained what "tomato sauce" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tomato sauce" to mean sauce made with a puree of tomatoes (or strained....

---

tonnes (noun)

A unit of weight equivalent to 1000 kilograms.

- The article explained what "tonnes" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tonnes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trainers (noun)

Simulator consisting of a machine on the ground that simulates the conditions of flying a plane.

- Understanding "trainers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "trainers" during the group presentation.

---

trusting (adjective)

Inclined to believe or confide readily; full of trust; - Nordhoff & Hall.

- Would you call this situation "trusting"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "trusting."

---

truth serum (noun)

An intravenous anesthetic drug that has a hypnotic effect; induces relaxation and weakens inhibitions; is believed to induce people to talk freely.

- The article explained what "truth serum" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "truth serum" during the group presentation.

---

turtles (noun)

A sweater or jersey with a high close-fitting collar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "turtles."
- The article explained what "turtles" means with a simple example.

---

twilight of the gods (noun)

Myth about the ultimate destruction of the gods in a battle with evil.

- The article explained what "twilight of the gods" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "twilight of the gods" during the group presentation.

---

type genus (noun)

(biology) genus from which the name of a family or subfamily is formed; it is not necessarily the most representative genus but often the largest or best known or earliest described.

- Understanding "type genus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "type genus" means with a simple example.

---

type i allergic reaction (noun)

An allergic reaction that becomes apparent in a sensitized person only minutes after contact.

- They discussed "type i allergic reaction" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "type i allergic reaction."

---

unarmed (adjective)

(used of persons or the military) not having or using arms.

- Went alone and unarmed.
- Unarmed peasants were shot down.

---

unfinished (adjective)

Not brought to an end or conclusion.

- Unfinished business.
- The building is still unfinished.

---

unhealthy (adjective)

Not in or exhibiting good health in body or mind.

- Unhealthy ulcers.
- It is useful to describe something as "unhealthy" when it is not in or exhibiting good health in body or mind.

unlawful (adjective)

Contrary to or prohibited by or defiant of law.

- Unlawful measures.
- Unlawful money.

unpopular (adjective)

Regarded with disfavor or lacking general approval.

- Unpopular ideas.
- An unpopular war.

unsuccessful person (noun)

A person with a record of failing; someone who loses consistently.

- In class, the teacher used "unsuccessful person" to mean a person with a record of failing; someone who....
- Understanding "unsuccessful person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

us postal inspection service (noun)

The primary law enforcement arm of the United States Postal Service.

- He looked up "us postal inspection service" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "us postal inspection service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ut (noun)

The syllable naming the first (tonic) note of any major scale in solmization.

- They discussed "ut" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ut" to mean the syllable naming the first (tonic) note of any....

vanessa (noun)

Painted beauty and red admiral.

- The article explained what "vanessa" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "vanessa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

vanished (adjective)

Having passed out of existence.

- Vanished civilizations.
- Students compared "vanished" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

vanity fair (noun)

A vain and frivolous lifestyle especially in large cities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vanity fair."
- The article explained what "vanity fair" means with a simple example.

vegetable silk (noun)

A plant fiber from the kapok tree; used for stuffing and insulation.

- In class, the teacher used "vegetable silk" to mean a plant fiber from the kapok tree; used for....
- Understanding "vegetable silk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

verb (noun)

The word class that serves as the predicate of a sentence.

- They discussed "verb" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "verb" because he had never seen it before.

viii (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of seven and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "viii."
- He looked up "viii" because he had never seen it before.

violet-purple (adjective)

Light violet and dark purple.

- It is useful to describe something as "violet-purple" when it is light violet and dark purple.
- A "violet-purple" approach may work better in this case.

---

vitamin pill (noun)

A pill containing one or more vitamins; taken as a dietary supplement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vitamin pill."
- He looked up "vitamin pill" because he had never seen it before.

---

vladimir putin (noun)

Russian statesman chosen as president of the Russian Federation in 2000; formerly director of the Federal Security Bureau (born in 1952).

- Understanding "vladimir putin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "vladimir putin" means with a simple example.

---

volatile (noun)

A volatile substance; a substance that changes readily from solid or liquid to a vapor.

- It was heated to evaporate the volatiles.
- In class, the teacher used "volatile" to mean a volatile substance; a substance that changes....

---

voluntarily (adverb)

Out of your own free will.

- He voluntarily submitted to the fingerprinting.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "voluntarily" naturally.

---

wagon-lit (noun)

A passenger car that has berths for sleeping.

- Understanding "wagon-lit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wagon-lit" because he had never seen it before.

---

wallace stevens (noun)

United States poet (1879-1955).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wallace stevens."
- The article explained what "wallace stevens" means with a simple example.

---

wedding gown (noun)

A gown worn by the bride at a wedding.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wedding gown."
- He looked up "wedding gown" because he had never seen it before.

---

whitney (noun)

The highest peak in the Sierra Nevada range in California (14,494 feet high).

- Understanding "whitney" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whitney."

---

wild crab (noun)

Wild crab apple native to Europe; a chief ancestor of cultivated apples.

- Understanding "wild crab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wild crab" during the group presentation.

---

william bradford (noun)

United States printer (born in England) whose press produced the first American prayer book and the New York City's first newspaper (1663-1752).

- They discussed "william bradford" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "william bradford."

---

withdrew (verb)

Remove (a commodity) from (a supply source).

- The enemy withdrew.

- She tried to use "withdrew" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

abnormal (adjective)

Departing from the normal in e.g. intelligence and development.

- They were heartbroken when they learned their child was abnormal.
- An abnormal personality.

---

acceleration unit (noun)

A unit for measuring acceleration.

- He looked up "acceleration unit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acceleration unit."

---

accredited (adjective)

Given official approval to act.

- An accredited college.
- It is useful to describe something as "accredited" when it is given official approval to act.

---

accuse (verb)

Bring an accusation against; level a charge against.

- The neighbors accused the man of spousal abuse.
- The coach explained when to use "accuse" and when to wait.

---

ad lib (adverb)

Without advance preparation.

- He spoke ad lib.
- He answered "ad lib," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

ad-lib (noun)

Remark made spontaneously without prior preparation.

- His ad-libs got him in trouble with the politicians.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ad-lib."

---

ada (noun)

An enzyme found in mammals that can catalyze the deamination of adenosine into inosine and ammonia.

- ADA deficiency can lead to one form of severe combined immunodeficiency disease.
- The gene encoding ADA was one of the earlier human genes to be isolated and cloned for study.

---

adjusting (verb)

Adapt or conform oneself to new or different conditions.

- In everyday English, people use "adjusting" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "adjusting" in real sentences.

---

alaska cod (noun)

Closely related to Atlantic cod.

- The article explained what "alaska cod" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "alaska cod" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

allocation unit (noun)

A group of sectors on a magnetic disk that can be reserved for the use of a particular file.

- In class, the teacher used "allocation unit" to mean a group of sectors on a magnetic disk that can be....
- He looked up "allocation unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

american crab apple (noun)

Medium-sized tree of the eastern United States having pink blossoms and small yellow fruit.

- He looked up "american crab apple" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "american crab apple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

amino group (noun)

The radical -NH2.

- They discussed "amino group" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "amino group" because he had never seen it before.

---

ample (adjective)

More than enough in size or scope or capacity.

- Had ample food for the party.
- An ample supply.

---

analog computer (noun)

A computer that represents information by variable quantities (e.g., positions or voltages).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "analog computer."
- The article explained what "analog computer" means with a simple example.

---

analytical review (noun)

An auditing procedure based on ratios among accounts and tries to identify significant changes.

- Understanding "analytical review" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "analytical review" means with a simple example.

---

analyzing (verb)

Break down into components or essential features.

- Can you use "analyzing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "analyzing" and when to wait.

---

ant lion (noun)

The larva of any of several insects.

- The article explained what "ant lion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ant lion" to mean the larva of any of several insects.

---

apex (noun)

The highest point (of something).

- He looked up "apex" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "apex."

---

apocalypse (noun)

A cosmic cataclysm in which God destroys the ruling powers of evil.

- They discussed "apocalypse" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "apocalypse" to mean a cosmic cataclysm in which god destroys the ruling....

---

apparel industry (noun)

Makers and sellers of fashionable clothing.

- The article explained what "apparel industry" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "apparel industry" to mean makers and sellers of fashionable clothing.

---

appliances (noun)

A device or control that is very useful for a particular job.

- In class, the teacher used "appliances" to mean a device or control that is very useful for a....
- The article explained what "appliances" means with a simple example.

---

arnold palmer (noun)

United States golfer (born in 1929).

- They discussed "arnold palmer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "arnold palmer" to mean united states golfer (born in 1929).

---

assholes (noun)

Insulting terms of address for people who are stupid or irritating or ridiculous.

- Understanding "assholes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assholes."

---

asthma attack (noun)

Respiratory disorder characterized by wheezing; usually of allergic origin.

- In class, the teacher used "asthma attack" to mean respiratory disorder characterized by wheezing;....
- He looked up "asthma attack" because he had never seen it before.

---

auto-mechanic (noun)

Someone whose occupation is repairing and maintaining automobiles.

- Understanding "auto-mechanic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "auto-mechanic" to mean someone whose occupation is repairing and....

---

auxiliary cell (noun)

A terrorist cell responsible for logistics; usually large and less compartmentalized than other terrorist cells.

- He looked up "auxiliary cell" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "auxiliary cell" to mean a terrorist cell responsible for logistics; usually....

---

auxiliary engine (noun)

(nautical) a small engine (as one used on board ships to operate a windlass).

- Understanding "auxiliary engine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "auxiliary engine."

---

auxiliary equipment (noun)

Electronic equipment not in direct communication (or under the control of) the central processing unit.

- Understanding "auxiliary equipment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "auxiliary equipment" to mean electronic equipment not in direct communication....

---

auxiliary operation (noun)

A operation performed by off-line equipment not under the control of the central processing unit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "auxiliary operation."
- He looked up "auxiliary operation" because he had never seen it before.

---

backward (adjective)

Directed or facing toward the back or rear.

- A backward view.
- A backward lover.

---

baggage claim (noun)

An area in an airport where arriving passengers can collect the luggage that has been carried in the hold of the aircraft.

- He looked up "baggage claim" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "baggage claim" to mean an area in an airport where arriving passengers can....

---

barred (adjective)

Preventing entry or exit or a course of action.

- Barred doors.
- It is useful to describe something as "barred" when it is preventing entry or exit or a course of action.

---

barrel vault (noun)

The simplest form of vault; a single continuous arch.

- Understanding "barrel vault" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "barrel vault" to mean the simplest form of vault; a single continuous arch.

---

basket-handle arch (noun)

A round arch whose inner curve is drawn with circles having three centers.

- They discussed "basket-handle arch" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "basket-handle arch" means with a simple example.

beacon hill (noun)

A fashionable section of Boston; site of the Massachusetts capital building.

- They discussed "beacon hill" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "beacon hill" to mean a fashionable section of boston; site of the....

bean dip (noun)

A dip made of cooked beans.

- They discussed "bean dip" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bean dip" means with a simple example.

beck (noun)

A beckoning gesture.

- The article explained what "beck" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "beck" during the group presentation.

black knot (noun)

Disease of plum and cherry trees characterized by black excrescences on the branches.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black knot."
- He looked up "black knot" because he had never seen it before.

blink of an eye (noun)

A very short time (as the time it takes the eye to blink or the heart to beat).

- They discussed "blink of an eye" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "blink of an eye" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blue ribbon jury (noun)

A jury whose members are selected for special knowledge for a case involving complicated issues.

- He looked up "blue ribbon jury" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "blue ribbon jury" to mean a jury whose members are selected for special....

boiler (noun)

A metal pot for stewing or boiling; usually has a lid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boiler."
- The article explained what "boiler" means with a simple example.

bottom-dwelling (adjective)

Of or relating to fish and marine life that dwell on the bottom of a body of water.

- It is useful to describe something as "bottom-dwelling" when it is of or relating to fish and marine life that dwell....
- Would you call this situation "bottom-dwelling"? Explain why.

boulder (noun)

A large smooth mass of rock detached from its place of origin.

- They discussed "boulder" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boulder."

brass buttons (noun)

South African herb with golden-yellow globose flower heads; naturalized in moist areas along coast of California; cultivated as an ornamental.

- He looked up "brass buttons" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "brass buttons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

broker-dealer (noun)

A financial specialist who trades for his own account and so acts both as a broker and principal.

- The article explained what "broker-dealer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "broker-dealer" to mean a financial specialist who trades for his own....

buffer storage (noun)

(computer science) a part of RAM used for temporary storage of data that is waiting to be sent to a device; used to compensate for differences in the rate of flow of data between components of a computer system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buffer storage."
- He looked up "buffer storage" because he had never seen it before.

---

calf (noun)

The muscular back part of the shank.

- He looked up "calf" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "calf" during the group presentation.

---

calf love (noun)

Temporary love of an adolescent.

- In class, the teacher used "calf love" to mean temporary love of an adolescent.
- The article explained what "calf love" means with a simple example.

---

cambodia (noun)

A nation in southeastern Asia; was part of Indochina under French rule until 1946.

- In class, the teacher used "cambodia" to mean a nation in southeastern asia; was part of....
- The article explained what "cambodia" means with a simple example.

---

candle holder (noun)

A holder with sockets for candles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "candle holder."
- He looked up "candle holder" because he had never seen it before.

---

cane sugar (noun)

Sugar from sugarcane used as sweetening agent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cane sugar."
- He looked up "cane sugar" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of ethiopia (noun)

The capital of Ethiopia and the country's largest city; located in central Ethiopia.

- Understanding "capital of ethiopia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "capital of ethiopia" during the group presentation.

---

capital of zimbabwe (noun)

The capital and largest city of Zimbabwe.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of zimbabwe" to mean the capital and largest city of zimbabwe.
- Understanding "capital of zimbabwe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cherry-tree gum (noun)

Exudation from trees of the Prunus genus; resembles gum arabic.

- The article explained what "cherry-tree gum" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cherry-tree gum" to mean exudation from trees of the prunus genus; resembles....

---

chili dog (noun)

A hotdog with chili con carne on it.

- The article explained what "chili dog" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chili dog."

---

choke-full (adjective)

Packed full to capacity.

- It is useful to describe something as "choke-full" when it is packed full to capacity.
- Students compared "choke-full" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

chuck wagon (noun)

A wagon equipped with a cookstove and provisions (for cowboys).

- In class, the teacher used "chuck wagon" to mean a wagon equipped with a cookstove and provisions....

- They discussed "chuck wagon" during the group presentation.

---

circus tent (noun)

A canvas tent to house the audience at a circus performance.

- He was afraid of a fire in the circus tent.
- Understanding "circus tent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clarence (noun)

A closed carriage with four wheels and seats for four passengers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clarence."
- They discussed "clarence" during the group presentation.

---

clarence day (noun)

United States writer best known for his autobiographical works (1874-1935).

- The article explained what "clarence day" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "clarence day" to mean united states writer best known for his....

---

coating (noun)

A decorative texture or appearance of a surface (or the substance that gives it that appearance).

- The surface was ready for a coating of paint.
- The article explained what "coating" means with a simple example.

---

commentators (noun)

An expert who observes and comments on something.

- In class, the teacher used "commentators" to mean an expert who observes and comments on something.
- They discussed "commentators" during the group presentation.

---

comparative literature (noun)

Study of literary works from different cultures (often in translation).

- Understanding "comparative literature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "comparative literature" to mean study of literary works from different cultures....

---

compass plant (noun)

North American annual with red or rose-colored flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "compass plant."
- He looked up "compass plant" because he had never seen it before.

---

consent decree (noun)

An agreement between two parties that is sanctioned by the court; for example, a company might agree to stop certain questionable practices without admitting guilt.

- In class, the teacher used "consent decree" to mean an agreement between two parties that is sanctioned....
- Understanding "consent decree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

continuation (noun)

The consequence of being lengthened in duration.

- They discussed "continuation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "continuation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

convictions (noun)

An unshakable belief in something without need for proof or evidence.

- They discussed "convictions" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "convictions."

---

convoy (noun)

A procession of land vehicles traveling together.

- He looked up "convoy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "convoy."

---

coordinated universal time (noun)

Greenwich Mean Time updated with leap seconds.

- He looked up "coordinated universal time" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "coordinated universal time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coral snake (noun)

Any of various venomous elapid snakes of Asia and Africa and Australia.

- They discussed "coral snake" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "coral snake" because he had never seen it before.

---

cork (noun)

The plug in the mouth of a bottle (especially a wine bottle).

- They discussed "cork" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cork" because he had never seen it before.

---

cork up (verb)

Close a bottle with a cork.

- She tried to use "cork up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "cork up" until he saw an example.

---

cosmetic (noun)

A toiletry designed to beautify the body.

- The article explained what "cosmetic" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cosmetic" during the group presentation.

---

cpu board (noun)

The main circuit board for a computer.

- He looked up "cpu board" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cpu board."

---

crab legs (noun)

Legs of especially Alaska king crabs.

- The article explained what "crab legs" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crab legs."

---

crab-eating dog (noun)

Wild dog of northern South America.

- The article explained what "crab-eating dog" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "crab-eating dog" to mean wild dog of northern south america.

---

crack of doom (noun)

(New Testament) day at the end of time following Armageddon when God will decree the fates of all individual humans according to the good and evil of their earthly lives.

- In class, the teacher used "crack of doom" to mean (new testament) day at the end of time following....
- The article explained what "crack of doom" means with a simple example.

---

cross vine (noun)

Woody flowering vine of southern United States; stems show a cross in transverse section.

- In class, the teacher used "cross vine" to mean woody flowering vine of southern united states;....
- Understanding "cross vine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crown daisy (noun)

Shrubby annual of the Mediterranean region with yellowish-white flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crown daisy."
- He looked up "crown daisy" because he had never seen it before.

---

cube-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a cube.

- The speaker chose "cube-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "cube-shaped" when it is shaped like a cube.

---

cubic (adjective)

Having three dimensions.

- Would you call this situation "cubic"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "cubic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

cyprus (noun)

A country on the island of Cyprus; 80% of the people are of Greek origin and 20% or Turkish origin.

- In class, the teacher used "cyprus" to mean a country on the island of cyprus; 80% of the....
- They discussed "cyprus" during the group presentation.

---

declares (verb)

Proclaim one's support, sympathy, or opinion for or against.

- Can you use "declares" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "declares" and when to wait.

---

defeats (noun)

An unsuccessful ending to a struggle or contest.

- In class, the teacher used "defeats" to mean an unsuccessful ending to a struggle or contest.
- He looked up "defeats" because he had never seen it before.

---

defenses (noun)

The justification for some act or belief.

- The artillery battered down the defenses.
- They discussed "defenses" during the group presentation.

---

depicted object (noun)

Something (a person or object or scene) selected by an artist or photographer for graphic representation.

- The article explained what "depicted object" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "depicted object."

---

deputies (noun)

An assistant with power to act when his superior is absent.

- The article explained what "deputies" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deputies."

---

descendants (noun)

All of the offspring of a given progenitor.

- In class, the teacher used "descendants" to mean all of the offspring of a given progenitor.
- The article explained what "descendants" means with a simple example.

---

detector (noun)

Rectifier that extracts modulation from a radio carrier wave.

- In class, the teacher used "detector" to mean rectifier that extracts modulation from a radio....
- They discussed "detector" during the group presentation.

---

differential psychology (noun)

The branch of psychology that studies measurable differences between individuals.

- He looked up "differential psychology" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "differential psychology."

---

digest (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- I cannot digest milk products.
- I cannot digest all this information.

dinner gown (noun)

A gown for evening wear.

- They discussed "dinner gown" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dinner gown" means with a simple example.

directive (noun)

A pronouncement encouraging or banning some activity.

- The boss loves to send us directives.
- They discussed "directive" during the group presentation.

disadvantage (noun)

The quality of having an inferior or less favorable position.

- They discussed "disadvantage" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disadvantage."

distract (verb)

Draw someone's attention away from something.

- The thief distracted the bystanders.
- The coach explained when to use "distract" and when to wait.

downward (adverb)

Spatially or metaphorically from a higher to a lower level or position.

- Prices plunged downward.
- He answered "downward," which changed the tone of the conversation.

driver's license (noun)

A license authorizing the bearer to drive a motor vehicle.

- They discussed "driver's license" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "driver's license" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

drum printer (noun)

A line printer in which the type is mounted on a rotating drum that contains a full character set for each printing position.

- Understanding "drum printer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "drum printer" because he had never seen it before.

east african cedar (noun)

Tropical African timber tree with fragrant wood.

- In class, the teacher used "east african cedar" to mean tropical african timber tree with fragrant wood.
- They discussed "east african cedar" during the group presentation.

eastern red cedar (noun)

Small juniper found east of Rocky Mountains having a conic crown, brown bark that peels in shreds, and small sharp needles.

- In class, the teacher used "eastern red cedar" to mean small juniper found east of rocky mountains having....
- The article explained what "eastern red cedar" means with a simple example.

eighty-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of eighty-five in counting order.

- It is useful to describe something as "eighty-fifth" when it is the ordinal number of eighty-five in counting order.
- The speaker chose "eighty-fifth" because it captured the feeling precisely.

electron tube (noun)

Electronic device consisting of a system of electrodes arranged in an evacuated glass or metal envelope.

- He looked up "electron tube" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "electron tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electronic bulletin board (noun)

A computer that is running software that allows users to leave messages and access information of general interest.

- The article explained what "electronic bulletin board" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "electronic bulletin board" to mean a computer that is running software that allows....

---

emphasized (adjective)

Spoken with emphasis.

- Students compared "emphasized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "emphasized" approach may work better in this case.

---

engineered (verb)

Plan and direct (a complex undertaking).

- He engineered the water supply project.
- She tried to use "engineered" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

explosive detection system (noun)

A rapid automatic system to detect plastic explosives in passengers' luggage using X-ray technology and computers; designed for use in airports.

- The article explained what "explosive detection system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "explosive detection system" to mean a rapid automatic system to detect plastic....

---

false vocal cord (noun)

Either of the upper two vocal cords that are not involved in vocalization.

- Understanding "false vocal cord" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "false vocal cord" because he had never seen it before.

---

fatty acid (noun)

Any of a class of aliphatic monocarboxylic acids that form part of a lipid molecule and can be derived from fat by hydrolysis; fatty acids are simple molecules built around a series of carbon atoms linked together in a chain of 12 to 22 carbon atoms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fatty acid."
- He looked up "fatty acid" because he had never seen it before.

---

federal bureau of prisons (noun)

The law enforcement agency of the Justice Department that operates a nationwide system of prisons and detention facilities to incarcerate inmates sentenced to imprisonment for federal crimes.

- He looked up "federal bureau of prisons" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal bureau of prisons."

---

fills (noun)

A quantity sufficient to satisfy.

- He looked up "fills" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fills."

---

floating-moss (noun)

Free-floating aquatic ferns.

- The article explained what "floating-moss" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "floating-moss."

---

forensic medicine (noun)

The branch of medical science that uses medical knowledge for legal purposes.

- Forensic pathology provided the evidence that convicted the murderer.
- The article explained what "forensic medicine" means with a simple example.

---

friction (noun)

The resistance encountered when one body is moved in contact with another.

- He looked up "friction" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "friction" to mean the resistance encountered when one body is moved....

---

frozen dessert (noun)

Any of various desserts prepared by freezing.

- Understanding "frozen dessert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “frozen dessert” because he had never seen it before.

---

fulfilling (verb)

Meet the requirements or expectations of.

- Learners should practice how to use “fulfilling” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “fulfilling” until he saw an example.

---

funk (noun)

A state of nervous depression.

- He was in a funk.
- He looked up “funk” because he had never seen it before.

---

gasoline pump (noun)

A pump in a service station that draws gasoline from underground storage tanks.

- In class, the teacher used “gasoline pump” to mean a pump in a service station that draws gasoline....
- He looked up “gasoline pump” because he had never seen it before.

---

gi series (noun)

Diagnostic tests of the alimentary canal; usually involves inserting a contrast medium (such as barium sulfate) and taking an X-ray.

- The article explained what “gi series” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “gi series” to mean diagnostic tests of the alimentary canal; usually....

---

god almighty (noun)

Terms referring to the Judeo-Christian God.

- The article explained what “god almighty” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “god almighty” to mean terms referring to the judeo-christian god.

---

golden gram (noun)

Erect bushy annual widely cultivated in warm regions of India and Indonesia and United States for forage and especially its edible seeds; chief source of bean sprouts used in Chinese cookery; sometimes placed in genus Phaseolus.

- Understanding “golden gram” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “golden gram” means with a simple example.

---

golden syrup (noun)

A pale cane syrup.

- Understanding “golden syrup” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “golden syrup” because he had never seen it before.

---

good continuation (noun)

A Gestalt principle of organization holding that there is an innate tendency to perceive a line as continuing its established direction.

- In class, the teacher used “good continuation” to mean a gestalt principle of organization holding that....
- The article explained what “good continuation” means with a simple example.

---

good ole boy (noun)

A white male Southerner with an unpretentious convivial manner and conservative or intolerant attitudes and a strong sense of fellowship with and loyalty to other members of his peer group.

- They discussed “good ole boy” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “good ole boy.”

---

greatness (noun)

The property possessed by something or someone of outstanding importance or eminence.

- In class, the teacher used “greatness” to mean the property possessed by something or someone of....
- He looked up “greatness” because he had never seen it before.

---

grilled (adjective)

Cooked by radiant heat (as over a grill).

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “grilled.”
- A “grilled” approach may work better in this case.

guiding (adjective)

Showing the way by conducting or leading; imposing direction on.

- A guiding principle.
- A "guiding" approach may work better in this case.

hackers (noun)

A programmer for whom computing is its own reward; may enjoy the challenge of breaking into other computers but does no harm.

- True hackers subscribe to a code of ethics and look down upon crackers.
- They discussed "hackers" during the group presentation.

hairy root (noun)

A phase of crown gall (especially in apples) during which there is abnormal development of fine fibrous roots.

- They discussed "hairy root" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hairy root" means with a simple example.

harley street (noun)

A street in central London where the consulting rooms of many physicians and surgeons are located.

- Understanding "harley street" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "harley street" to mean a street in central london where the consulting....

hazardous (adjective)

Involving risk or danger.

- Skydiving is a hazardous sport.
- A "hazardous" approach may work better in this case.

heavier-than-air craft (noun)

A non-buoyant aircraft that requires a source of power to hold it aloft and to propel it.

- The article explained what "heavier-than-air craft" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "heavier-than-air craft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

heavy-laden (adjective)

Bearing a physically heavy weight or load.

- A heavy-laden cart.
- All ye that labor and are heavy-laden.

hedge fund (noun)

A flexible investment company for a small number of large investors (usually the minimum investment is $1 million); can use high-risk techniques (not allowed for mutual funds) such as short-selling and heavy leveraging.

- He looked up "hedge fund" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hedge fund."

heroic tale (noun)

A story of an adventure.

- Understanding "heroic tale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "heroic tale" means with a simple example.

hooker (noun)

A prostitute who attracts customers by walking the streets.

- In class, the teacher used "hooker" to mean a prostitute who attracts customers by walking the....
- They discussed "hooker" during the group presentation.

hopeless (adjective)

Of a person unable to do something skillfully.

- I'm hopeless at mathematics.
- The situation is hopeless.

hourly (adjective)

Occurring every hour or payable by the hour.

- Hourly chimes.
- Hourly pay.

hydraulic system (noun)

A mechanism operated by the resistance offered or the pressure transmitted when a liquid is forced through a small opening or tube.

- In class, the teacher used "hydraulic system" to mean a mechanism operated by the resistance offered or....
- The article explained what "hydraulic system" means with a simple example.

illustrate (verb)

Supply with illustrations.

- Illustrate a book with drawings.
- He did not know how to use "illustrate" until he saw an example.

imo (noun)

The United Nations agency concerned with international maritime activities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "imo."
- He looked up "imo" because he had never seen it before.

impulse-buy (verb)

Buy on impulse without proper reflection.

- She tried to use "impulse-buy" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "impulse-buy" when talking about this idea.

in vogue (adjective)

In the current fashion or style.

- A "in vogue" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "in vogue"? Explain why.

indirectly (adverb)

Not in a forthright manner.

- He answered very indirectly.
- The narrator describes the scene "indirectly" in the final chapter.

induction (noun)

A formal entry into an organization or position or office.

- He was ordered to report for induction into the army.
- The induction of an anesthetic state.

infrared (noun)

The infrared region of the electromagnetic spectrum; electromagnetic wave frequencies below the visible range.

- They could sense radiation in the infrared.
- The article explained what "infrared" means with a simple example.

insists (verb)

Be emphatic or resolute and refuse to budge.

- Can you use "insists" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "insists" carefully so everyone would understand.

instability (noun)

A lack of balance or state of disequilibrium.

- Understanding "instability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instability."

invites (noun)

A colloquial expression for invitation.

- Understanding "invites" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "invites" to mean a colloquial expression for invitation.

---

irish whiskey (noun)

Whiskey made in Ireland chiefly from barley.

- The article explained what "irish whiskey" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "irish whiskey."

---

irving (noun)

United States writer remembered for his stories (1783-1859).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "irving."
- He looked up "irving" because he had never seen it before.

---

jack-by-the-hedge (noun)

European herb that smells like garlic.

- The article explained what "jack-by-the-hedge" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "jack-by-the-hedge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jerry-builder (noun)

Someone who builds cheap buildings out of poor materials on speculation for a quick profit.

- In class, the teacher used "jerry-builder" to mean someone who builds cheap buildings out of poor....
- The article explained what "jerry-builder" means with a simple example.

---

jong (noun)

United States writer (born in 1942).

- He looked up "jong" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jong."

---

kenneth roberts (noun)

United States writer remembered for his historical novels about colonial America (1885-1957).

- Understanding "kenneth roberts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "kenneth roberts" to mean united states writer remembered for his historical....

---

kid glove (noun)

A glove made of fine soft leather (as kidskin).

- The article explained what "kid glove" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "kid glove" during the group presentation.

---

kid-glove (adjective)

Showing skill and sensitivity in dealing with people.

- The agency got the kid-glove treatment on Capitol Hill.
- Students compared "kid-glove" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

klein (noun)

German mathematician who created the Klein bottle (1849-1925).

- The article explained what "klein" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "klein" to mean german mathematician who created the klein bottle....

---

lake dwelling (noun)

Dwelling built on piles in or near a lake; specifically in prehistoric villages.

- The article explained what "lake dwelling" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lake dwelling" to mean dwelling built on piles in or near a lake;....

---

lawyer cane (noun)

Tall scrambling spiny palm of northeastern Queensland, Australia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lawyer cane."
- They discussed "lawyer cane" during the group presentation.

lemon grove (noun)

A grove of lemon trees.

- Understanding "lemon grove" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lemon grove" means with a simple example.

limitation (noun)

The quality of being limited or restricted.

- It is a good plan but it has serious limitations.
- It is growing rapidly with no limitation in sight.

linguistic (adjective)

Of or relating to the scientific study of language.

- Linguistic theory.
- Linguistic behavior.

listeners (noun)

Someone who listens attentively.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "listeners."
- He looked up "listeners" because he had never seen it before.

litter (noun)

The offspring at one birth of a multiparous mammal.

- In class, the teacher used "litter" to mean the offspring at one birth of a multiparous mammal.
- Understanding "litter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

look backward (verb)

Look towards one's back.

- Don't look back while you walk.
- The coach explained when to use "look backward" and when to wait.

ls (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and five.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ls."
- He looked up "ls" because he had never seen it before.

lump (noun)

A large piece of something without definite shape.

- A lump of coal.
- Understanding "lump" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

macro (noun)

A single computer instruction that results in a series of instructions in machine language.

- Understanding "macro" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "macro" to mean a single computer instruction that results in a....

mag (noun)

A periodic publication containing pictures and stories and articles of interest to those who purchase it or subscribe to it.

- It takes several years before a magazine starts to break even or make money.
- The article explained what "mag" means with a simple example.

magistrate (noun)

A lay judge or civil authority who administers the law (especially one who conducts a court dealing with minor offenses).

- They discussed "magistrate" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "magistrate" to mean a lay judge or civil authority who administers the....

marginal (adjective)

Of questionable or minimal quality.

- Marginal writing ability.
- The marginal strip of beach.

---

marking ink (noun)

An indelible ink for marking clothes or linens etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marking ink."
- They discussed "marking ink" during the group presentation.

---

masculine (noun)

A gender that refers chiefly (but not exclusively) to males or to objects classified as male.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "masculine."
- Understanding "masculine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

milestone (noun)

A significant event in your life (or in a project).

- He looked up "milestone" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "milestone" during the group presentation.

---

monkey puzzle (noun)

Large Chilean evergreen conifer having intertwined branches and bearing edible nuts.

- They discussed "monkey puzzle" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "monkey puzzle" to mean large chilean evergreen conifer having intertwined....

---

mud turtle (noun)

Bottom-dwelling freshwater turtle inhabiting muddy rivers of North America and Central America.

- He looked up "mud turtle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mud turtle."

---

mug (verb)

Rob at gunpoint or with the threat of violence.

- I was mugged in the streets of New York last night.
- He did not know how to use "mug" until he saw an example.

---

mug up (verb)

Study intensively, as before an exam.

- She tried to use "mug up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "mug up" in real sentences.

---

municipality (noun)

An urban district having corporate status and powers of self-government.

- Understanding "municipality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "municipality" because he had never seen it before.

---

mushrooms (noun)

A large cloud of rubble and dust shaped like a mushroom and rising into the sky after an explosion (especially of a nuclear bomb).

- The article explained what "mushrooms" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "mushrooms" during the group presentation.

---

napoleon iii (noun)

Nephew of Napoleon I and emperor of the French from 1852 to 1871 (1808-1873).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "napoleon iii."
- The article explained what "napoleon iii" means with a simple example.

---

national institutes of health (noun)

An agency in the Department of Health and Human Services whose mission is to employ science in the pursuit of knowledge to improve human health; is the principal biomedical research agency of the federal government.

- They discussed "national institutes of health" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "national institutes of health."

nd (noun)

A state of north central United States bordering on Canada.

- In class, the teacher used "nd" to mean a state of north central united states bordering on....
- Understanding "nd" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

neil armstrong (noun)

United States astronaut; the first man to set foot on the Moon (July 20, 1969) (1930-).

- They discussed "neil armstrong" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "neil armstrong" means with a simple example.

neurons (noun)

A cell that is specialized to conduct nerve impulses.

- He looked up "neurons" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neurons."

ninety (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and nine.

- The article explained what "ninety" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ninety" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ninety-one (adjective)

Being one more than ninety.

- Students compared "ninety-one" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ninety-one."

ninety-three (adjective)

Being three more than ninety.

- Would you call this situation "ninety-three"? Explain why.
- Students compared "ninety-three" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

ninety-two (adjective)

Being two more than ninety.

- Students compared "ninety-two" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "ninety-two"? Explain why.

nutrients (noun)

Any substance that can be metabolized by an animal to give energy and build tissue.

- Understanding "nutrients" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "nutrients" because he had never seen it before.

observatory (noun)

A structure commanding a wide view of its surroundings.

- He looked up "observatory" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "observatory" during the group presentation.

occupational group (noun)

A body of people doing the same kind of work.

- They discussed "occupational group" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "occupational group" because he had never seen it before.

openings (noun)

An open or empty space in or between things.

- He memorized all the important chess openings.
- The article explained what "openings" means with a simple example.

oriental studies (noun)

The scholarly knowledge of Asian cultures and languages and people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oriental studies."
- He looked up "oriental studies" because he had never seen it before.

---

outdoors (noun)

Where the air is unconfined.

- He wanted to get outdoors a little.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "outdoors."

---

pcs (noun)

A small digital computer based on a microprocessor and designed to be used by one person at a time.

- Understanding "pcs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pcs."

---

pedestrian (noun)

A person who travels by foot.

- The article explained what "pedestrian" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pedestrian" to mean a person who travels by foot.

---

petrol line (noun)

A pipe that carries gasoline from a tank to a gasoline engine.

- The car wouldn't start because dirt clogged the gas line.
- Understanding "petrol line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pill roller (noun)

A health professional trained in the art of preparing and dispensing drugs.

- They discussed "pill roller" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pill roller" because he had never seen it before.

---

pistol grip (noun)

A handle (as of a gun or saw) shaped like the butt of a pistol.

- They discussed "pistol grip" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pistol grip" to mean a handle (as of a gun or saw) shaped like the butt....

---

pod (noun)

A detachable container of fuel on an airplane.

- They discussed "pod" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pod" to mean a detachable container of fuel on an airplane.

---

polo shirt (noun)

A shirt with short sleeves designed for comfort and casual wear.

- Understanding "polo shirt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "polo shirt" means with a simple example.

---

polo-neck (noun)

A sweater or jersey with a high close-fitting collar.

- He looked up "polo-neck" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "polo-neck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

predator (noun)

Any animal that lives by preying on other animals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "predator."
- He looked up "predator" because he had never seen it before.

---

preferably (adverb)

More readily or willingly.

- Clean it well, preferably with warm water.
- He answered "preferably," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

president franklin roosevelt (noun)

32nd President of the United States; elected four times; instituted New Deal to counter the Great Depression and led country during World War II (1882-1945).

- In class, the teacher used "president franklin roosevelt" to mean 32nd president of the united states; elected four....
- The article explained what "president franklin roosevelt" means with a simple example.

---

print buffer (noun)

A buffer that stores data until the printer is ready.

- They discussed "print buffer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "print buffer" to mean a buffer that stores data until the printer is ready.

---

programmed (verb)

Arrange a program of or for.

- She tried to use "programmed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "programmed" in real sentences.

---

projections (noun)

The acoustic phenomenon that gives sound a penetrating quality.

- In class, the teacher used "projections" to mean the acoustic phenomenon that gives sound a....
- Understanding "projections" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

promotional expense (noun)

The cost of promoting a product.

- He looked up "promotional expense" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "promotional expense" during the group presentation.

---

prophecy (noun)

A prediction uttered under divine inspiration.

- He looked up "prophecy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "prophecy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

proudly (adverb)

With pride; in a proud manner.

- He walked proudly into town.
- Using "proudly" can make your explanation more exact.

---

pull the wool over someone's eyes (verb)

Conceal one's true motives from especially by elaborately feigning good intentions so as to gain an end.

- He bamboozled his professors into thinking that he knew the subject well.
- Can you use "pull the wool over someone's eyes" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

purple sage (noun)

Silvery-leaved California herb with purple flowers.

- Understanding "purple sage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "purple sage" during the group presentation.

---

queer bird (noun)

Someone regarded as eccentric or crazy and standing out from a group.

- They discussed "queer bird" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "queer bird" means with a simple example.

---

rachel carson (noun)

United States biologist remembered for her opposition to the use of pesticides that were hazardous to wildlife (1907-1964).

- They discussed "rachel carson" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rachel carson" because he had never seen it before.

radiation diagram (noun)

Graphical representation (in polar or Cartesian coordinates) of the spatial distribution of radiation from an antenna as a function of angle.

- Understanding "radiation diagram" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "radiation diagram" during the group presentation.

recorder (noun)

A tubular wind instrument with 8 finger holes and a fipple mouthpiece.

- Understanding "recorder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "recorder" because he had never seen it before.

recurring (adjective)

Coming back.

- A "recurring" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "recurring"? Explain why.

relaxation (noun)

An occurrence of control or strength weakening.

- The relaxation of requirements.
- They discussed "relaxation" during the group presentation.

relaxation time (noun)

The time constant of an exponential return of a system to equilibrium after a disturbance.

- In class, the teacher used "relaxation time" to mean the time constant of an exponential return of a....
- He looked up "relaxation time" because he had never seen it before.

resembles (verb)

Appear like; be similar or bear a likeness to.

- She resembles her mother very much.
- This paper resembles my own work.

respectable (adjective)

Characterized by socially or conventionally acceptable morals.

- A respectable woman.
- Students compared "respectable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

respectful (adjective)

Full of or exhibiting respect.

- Respectful behavior.
- A respectful glance.

respiratory illness (noun)

A disease affecting the respiratory system.

- He looked up "respiratory illness" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "respiratory illness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ribbon grass (noun)

Perennial grass of marshy meadows and ditches having broad leaves; Europe and North America.

- In class, the teacher used "ribbon grass" to mean perennial grass of marshy meadows and ditches....
- He looked up "ribbon grass" because he had never seen it before.

ribbon-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a ribbon.

- Would you call this situation "ribbon-shaped"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "ribbon-shaped" when it is shaped in the form of a ribbon.

richer (adjective)

Suggestive of or characterized by great expense.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "richer."
- The speaker chose "richer" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

ring armour (noun)

(Middle Ages) flexible armor made of interlinked metal rings.

- He looked up "ring armour" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ring armour" during the group presentation.

---

river thames (noun)

The longest river in England; flows eastward through London to the North Sea.

- Understanding "river thames" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "river thames."

---

rn (noun)

A graduate nurse who has passed examinations for registration.

- Understanding "rn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "rn" because he had never seen it before.

---

robert penn warren (noun)

United States writer and poet (1905-1989).

- In class, the teacher used "robert penn warren" to mean united states writer and poet (1905-1989).
- The article explained what "robert penn warren" means with a simple example.

---

romeo (noun)

An ardent male lover.

- In class, the teacher used "romeo" to mean an ardent male lover.
- The article explained what "romeo" means with a simple example.

---

routinely (adverb)

According to routine or established practice.

- He routinely parked in a no-parking zone.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "routinely" naturally.

---

royal velvet plant (noun)

Javanese foliage plant grown for their handsome velvety leaves with violet-purple hairs.

- Understanding "royal velvet plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "royal velvet plant" to mean javanese foliage plant grown for their handsome....

---

rubbing (noun)

The resistance encountered when one body is moved in contact with another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rubbing."
- He looked up "rubbing" because he had never seen it before.

---

sailor cap (noun)

A cap worn by sailors.

- In class, the teacher used "sailor cap" to mean a cap worn by sailors.
- Understanding "sailor cap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

saint bruno (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) a French cleric (born in Germany) who founded the Carthusian order in 1084 (1032-1101).

- The article explained what "saint bruno" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "saint bruno" during the group presentation.

---

salt lick (noun)

A salt deposit that animals regularly lick.

- They discussed "salt lick" during the group presentation.

- Understanding "salt lick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

salute (noun)

An act of honor or courteous recognition.

- A musical salute to the composer on his birthday.
- In class, the teacher used "salute" to mean an act of honor or courteous recognition.

---

santa fe trail (noun)

A trail that extends from Missouri to New Mexico; an important route for settlers moving west in the 19th century.

- He looked up "santa fe trail" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "santa fe trail" to mean a trail that extends from missouri to new mexico;....

---

sausage pizza (noun)

Tomato and cheese pizza with sausage.

- The article explained what "sausage pizza" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sausage pizza" during the group presentation.

---

scripts (noun)

A particular orthography or writing system.

- Understanding "scripts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scripts."

---

scum (noun)

A film of impurities or vegetation that can form on the surface of a liquid.

- Understanding "scum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "scum" to mean a film of impurities or vegetation that can form on....

---

semi-detached house (noun)

A dwelling that is attached to something on only one side.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "semi-detached house."
- He looked up "semi-detached house" because he had never seen it before.

---

serbia (noun)

A historical region in central and northern Yugoslavia; Serbs settled the region in the 6th and 7th centuries.

- In class, the teacher used "serbia" to mean a historical region in central and northern....
- Understanding "serbia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

serum disease (noun)

A delayed allergic reaction to the injection of an antiserum caused by an antibody reaction to an antigen in the donor serum.

- Understanding "serum disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "serum disease" during the group presentation.

---

severity (noun)

Used of the degree of something undesirable e.g. pain or weather.

- Severity of character.
- The article explained what "severity" means with a simple example.

---

shady (adjective)

Of questionable taste or morality.

- A shady operation.
- A shady deal.

---

sheep frog (noun)

Mostly of Central America.

- They discussed "sheep frog" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sheep frog" means with a simple example.

---

shotgun shell (noun)

A shell containing lead shot; used in shotguns.

- In class, the teacher used "shotgun shell" to mean a shell containing lead shot; used in shotguns.
- The article explained what "shotgun shell" means with a simple example.

shoulder strap (noun)

A band that goes over the shoulder and supports a garment or bag.

- He looked up "shoulder strap" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "shoulder strap" during the group presentation.

shower stall (noun)

Booth for washing yourself, usually in a bathroom.

- He looked up "shower stall" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shower stall."

sketches (noun)

Preliminary drawing for later elaboration.

- In class, the teacher used "sketches" to mean preliminary drawing for later elaboration.
- They discussed "sketches" during the group presentation.

ski wax (noun)

Wax used on the bottom of skis.

- They discussed "ski wax" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ski wax" means with a simple example.

slack (noun)

A stretch of water without current or movement.

- Suddenly they were in a slack and the water was motionless.
- A gradual slack in output.

slack off (verb)

Become less in amount or intensity.

- In everyday English, people use "slack off" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "slack off" carefully so everyone would understand.

slack up (verb)

Make less active or fast.

- He slackened his pace as he got tired.
- Can you use "slack up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

sleeps (noun)

A natural and periodic state of rest during which consciousness of the world is suspended.

- He looked up "sleeps" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sleeps" to mean a natural and periodic state of rest during which....

slick (noun)

A magazine printed on good quality paper.

- He could feel the slickness of the tiller.
- In class, the teacher used "slick" to mean a magazine printed on good quality paper.

slip carriage (noun)

A railway car at the end of the train; it can be detached without stopping the train.

- In class, the teacher used "slip carriage" to mean a railway car at the end of the train; it can be....
- He looked up "slip carriage" because he had never seen it before.

slowed (verb)

Cause to proceed more slowly.

- The illness slowed him down.
- Production slowed.

---

slowing (noun)

A decrease in rate of change.

- The article explained what "slowing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "slowing" to mean a decrease in rate of change.

---

sm (noun)

A grey lustrous metallic element of the rare earth group; is used in special alloys; occurs in monazite and bastnasite.

- Understanding "sm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sm" because he had never seen it before.

---

southern red cedar (noun)

Juniper of swampy coastal regions of southeastern United States; similar to eastern red cedar.

- Understanding "southern red cedar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "southern red cedar" means with a simple example.

---

spiral galaxy (noun)

A galaxy having a spiral structure; arms containing younger stars spiral out from old stars at the center.

- The article explained what "spiral galaxy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spiral galaxy" to mean a galaxy having a spiral structure; arms containing....

---

spontaneous (adjective)

Happening or arising without apparent external cause.

- Spontaneous laughter.
- Spontaneous combustion.

---

st john's day (noun)

A quarter day in England, Wales, and Ireland.

- He looked up "st john's day" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "st john's day."

---

st john's night (noun)

The night before Midsummer Day.

- Understanding "st john's night" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "st john's night" means with a simple example.

---

staff vine (noun)

Twining shrub of North America having yellow capsules enclosing scarlet seeds.

- Understanding "staff vine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "staff vine" means with a simple example.

---

stainless steel (noun)

Steel containing chromium that makes it resistant to corrosion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stainless steel."
- He looked up "stainless steel" because he had never seen it before.

---

stall-fed (adjective)

(of livestock) kept and fed in a stall in order to fatten for the market.

- Students compared "stall-fed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "stall-fed" when it is (of livestock) kept and fed in a stall in order to....

---

starred (adjective)

Marked with an asterisk.

- The starred items.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "starred."

stationed (verb)

Assign to a station.

- He did not know how to use "stationed" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "stationed" and when to wait.

stephen arnold douglas (noun)

United States politician who proposed that individual territories be allowed to decide whether they would have slavery; he engaged in a famous series of debates with Abraham Lincoln (1813-1861).

- In class, the teacher used "stephen arnold douglas" to mean united states politician who proposed that....
- The article explained what "stephen arnold douglas" means with a simple example.

sticker (noun)

A particularly difficult or baffling question or problem.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sticker."
- The article explained what "sticker" means with a simple example.

stove (noun)

A kitchen appliance used for cooking food.

- Dinner was already on the stove.
- The article explained what "stove" means with a simple example.

submissions (noun)

The condition of having submitted to control by someone or something else.

- Several of his submissions were rejected by publishers.
- The article explained what "submissions" means with a simple example.

sugar cane (noun)

Tall tropical southeast Asian grass having stout fibrous jointed stalks; sap is a chief source of sugar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sugar cane."
- He looked up "sugar cane" because he had never seen it before.

sugar syrup (noun)

Sugar and water and sometimes corn syrup boiled together; used as sweetening especially in drinks.

- They discussed "sugar syrup" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sugar syrup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sympathetic nervous system (noun)

Originates in the thoracic regions of the spinal cord; opposes physiological effects of the parasympathetic: reduces digestive secretions; speeds the heart; contracts blood vessels.

- He looked up "sympathetic nervous system" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sympathetic nervous system" to mean originates in the thoracic regions of the spinal....

tactic (noun)

A plan for attaining a particular goal.

- Understanding "tactic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tactic" during the group presentation.

tb (noun)

A unit of information equal to 1000 gigabits or 10^12 (1,000,000,000,000) bits.

- He looked up "tb" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tea gown (noun)

A long loose-fitting gown formerly popular for wear at afternoon tea.

- The article explained what "tea gown" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tea gown" to mean a long loose-fitting gown formerly popular for wear....

tea tray (noun)

A tray that accommodates a tea service.

- Understanding “tea tray” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “tea tray” because he had never seen it before.

---

template (noun)

A model or standard for making comparisons.

- Understanding “template” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “template” to mean a model or standard for making comparisons.

---

teresa (noun)

Indian nun and missionary in the Roman Catholic Church (born of Albanian parents in what is now Macedonia); dedicated to helping the poor in India (1910-1997).

- Understanding “teresa” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “teresa” because he had never seen it before.

---

thames river (noun)

The longest river in England; flows eastward through London to the North Sea.

- Understanding “thames river” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “thames river.”

---

theorem (noun)

An idea accepted as a demonstrable truth.

- In class, the teacher used “theorem” to mean an idea accepted as a demonstrable truth.
- The article explained what “theorem” means with a simple example.

---

theresa (noun)

Indian nun and missionary in the Roman Catholic Church (born of Albanian parents in what is now Macedonia); dedicated to helping the poor in India (1910-1997).

- He looked up “theresa” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “theresa.”

---

tiles (noun)

A thin flat slab of fired clay used for roofing.

- They discussed “tiles” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “tiles” means with a simple example.

---

tn (noun)

A state in east central United States.

- He looked up “tn” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “tn” during the group presentation.

---

tore (noun)

Commonly the lowest molding at the base of a column.

- He looked up “tore” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “tore” to mean commonly the lowest molding at the base of a column.

---

tow car (noun)

A truck equipped to hoist and pull wrecked cars (or to remove cars from no-parking zones).

- He looked up “tow car” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tow car.”

---

tract (noun)

A system of body parts that together serve some particular purpose.

- Understanding “tract” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “tract” during the group presentation.

---

tract house (noun)

One of many houses of similar design constructed together on a tract of land.

- In class, the teacher used “tract house” to mean one of many houses of similar design constructed....

- He looked up “tract house” because he had never seen it before.

trans-alaska pipeline (noun)

An oil pipeline that runs 800 miles from wells at Prudhoe Bay to the port of Valdez.

- He looked up “trans-alaska pipeline” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “trans-alaska pipeline” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

treaties (noun)

A written agreement between two states or sovereigns.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “treaties.”
- He looked up “treaties” because he had never seen it before.

tribune (noun)

The apse of a Christian church that contains the bishop’s throne.

- They discussed “tribune” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “tribune” because he had never seen it before.

turtle soup (noun)

Soup usually made of the flesh of green turtles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “turtle soup.”
- They discussed “turtle soup” during the group presentation.

type specimen (noun)

The original specimen from which the description of a new species is made.

- Understanding “type specimen” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “type specimen” because he had never seen it before.

undergoing (verb)

Pass through.

- Learners should practice how to use “undergoing” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “undergoing” when talking about this idea.

unexpectedly (adverb)

In a way that was not expected.

- Place “unexpectedly” carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene “unexpectedly” in the final chapter.

united states postal inspection service (noun)

The primary law enforcement arm of the United States Postal Service.

- The article explained what “united states postal inspection service” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “united states postal inspection service” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

upward (adverb)

Spatially or metaphorically from a lower to a higher position.

- The fragments flew upwards.
- Prices soared upwards.

veterinary medicine (noun)

The branch of medicine that deals with the diagnosis and treatment of diseases and injuries of animals (especially domestic animals).

- The article explained what “veterinary medicine” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “veterinary medicine” to mean the branch of medicine that deals with the....

vista (noun)

The visual percept of a region.

- They discussed “vista” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “vista” because he had never seen it before.

vogue (noun)

The popular taste at a given time.

- Leather is the latest vogue.
- He looked up "vogue" because he had never seen it before.

---

volcanic (adjective)

Relating to or produced by or consisting of volcanoes.

- Volcanic steam.
- Volcanic islands such as Iceland.

---

wagner (noun)

Austrian architect and pioneer of modern architecture (1841-1918).

- They say that Hitler listened only to Wagner.
- Understanding "wagner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

west indies (noun)

The string of islands between North America and South America; a popular resort area.

- The article explained what "west indies" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "west indies" to mean the string of islands between north america and....

---

western saddle (noun)

An ornamented saddle used by cowboys; has a high horn to hold the lariat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western saddle."
- They discussed "western saddle" during the group presentation.

---

whiskey bottle (noun)

A bottle for holding whiskey.

- Understanding "whiskey bottle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "whiskey bottle" because he had never seen it before.

---

whitney young (noun)

United States civil rights leader (1921-1971).

- Understanding "whitney young" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "whitney young" to mean united states civil rights leader (1921-1971).

---

wildly (adverb)

To an extreme or greatly exaggerated degree.

- The storyline is wildly unrealistic.
- He gesticulated wildly.

---

windsor green (noun)

A light chrome green pigment.

- The article explained what "windsor green" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "windsor green" during the group presentation.

---

woody allen (noun)

United States filmmaker and comic actor (1935-).

- Understanding "woody allen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "woody allen" means with a simple example.

---

yellow cedar (noun)

Tall evergreen of the Pacific coast of North America often cultivated for ornament.

- They discussed "yellow cedar" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "yellow cedar" because he had never seen it before.

---

yellow iris (noun)

Common yellow-flowered iris of Europe and North Africa, naturalized in United States and often cultivated.

- They discussed "yellow iris" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow iris."

---

yellow paper daisy (noun)

Australian plant naturalized in Spain having flowers of lemon yellow to deep gold; the frequent choice of those who love dried flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "yellow paper daisy" to mean australian plant naturalized in spain having....
- The article explained what "yellow paper daisy" means with a simple example.

---

yellow pitcher plant (noun)

Pitcher plant of southeastern United States having erect yellow trumpet-shaped pitchers with wide mouths and erect lids.

- He looked up "yellow pitcher plant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "yellow pitcher plant" during the group presentation.

---

acclaimed (verb)

Clap one's hands or shout after performances to indicate approval.

- In everyday English, people use "acclaimed" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "acclaimed" until he saw an example.

---

accumulated (adjective)

Periodically accumulated over time.

- Would you call this situation "accumulated"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "accumulated" when it is periodically accumulated over time.

---

adore (verb)

Love intensely.

- He just adored his wife.
- Can you use "adore" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

akin (adjective)

Similar in quality or character.

- A feeling akin to terror.
- A "akin" approach may work better in this case.

---

alphabet (noun)

The elementary stages of any subject (usually plural).

- They discussed "alphabet" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "alphabet" to mean the elementary stages of any subject (usually plural).

---

announcements (noun)

A public statement containing information about an event that has happened or is going to happen.

- Understanding "announcements" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "announcements."

---

anti-inflammatory (noun)

A medicine intended to reduce inflammation.

- Understanding "anti-inflammatory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "anti-inflammatory" during the group presentation.

---

apple rust (noun)

Rust fungus causing rust spots on apples and pears etc.

- He looked up "apple rust" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "apple rust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

appoint (verb)

Create and charge with a task or function.

- He was appointed deputy manager.
- A beautifully appointed house.

apprentice (verb)

Be or work as an apprentice.

- She apprenticed with the great master.
- He did not know how to use "apprentice" until he saw an example.

auckland (noun)

The largest city and principal port of New Zealand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "auckland."
- He looked up "auckland" because he had never seen it before.

baby's room (noun)

A child's room for a baby.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baby's room."
- He looked up "baby's room" because he had never seen it before.

baked potato (noun)

Potato that has been cooked by baking it in an oven.

- He looked up "baked potato" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baked potato."

bananas (noun)

Elongated crescent-shaped yellow fruit with soft sweet flesh.

- He looked up "bananas" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bananas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bar magnet (noun)

A magnet in the form of a bar with magnetic poles at each end.

- They discussed "bar magnet" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bar magnet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

baseline (noun)

An imaginary line or standard by which things are measured or compared.

- The established a baseline for the budget.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baseline."

beasts (noun)

A living organism characterized by voluntary movement.

- In class, the teacher used "beasts" to mean a living organism characterized by voluntary movement.
- He looked up "beasts" because he had never seen it before.

benedict (noun)

A newly married man (especially one who has long been a bachelor).

- Understanding "benedict" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "benedict" to mean a newly married man (especially one who has long....

beware (verb)

Be on one's guard; be cautious or wary about; be alert to.

- Beware of telephone salesmen.
- Learners should practice how to use "beware" in real sentences.

big sur (noun)

A picturesque coastal region of California to the south of San Francisco.

- In class, the teacher used "big sur" to mean a picturesque coastal region of california to the....
- The article explained what "big sur" means with a simple example.

big-leaf maple (noun)

Maple of western North America having large 5-lobed leaves orange in autumn.

- He looked up "big-leaf maple" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "big-leaf maple."

---

bikini (noun)

An atoll in the Marshall Islands; formerly used by the United States as a site for testing nuclear weapons.

- In class, the teacher used "bikini" to mean an atoll in the marshall islands; formerly used by....
- Understanding "bikini" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bisexual (noun)

A person who is sexually attracted to both sexes.

- The article explained what "bisexual" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bisexual" to mean a person who is sexually attracted to both sexes.

---

black-barred (adjective)

Having a pattern consisting of black bars.

- Would you call this situation "black-barred"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "black-barred" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

blade roast (noun)

A roast cut from the blade.

- The article explained what "blade roast" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "blade roast" to mean a roast cut from the blade.

---

blood knot (noun)

A knot used for tying fishing leaders together; the ends of the two leaders are wrapped around each other two or three times.

- Understanding "blood knot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "blood knot" because he had never seen it before.

---

blunt trauma (noun)

Injury incurred when the human body hits or is hit by a large outside object (as a car).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blunt trauma."
- Understanding "blunt trauma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

boulevard (noun)

A wide street or thoroughfare.

- He looked up "boulevard" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "boulevard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bread mold (noun)

A mold of the genus Rhizopus.

- He looked up "bread mold" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bread mold."

---

bruno walter (noun)

German conductor (1876-1962).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bruno walter."
- The article explained what "bruno walter" means with a simple example.

---

canvas tent (noun)

A tent made of canvas fabric.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canvas tent."
- Understanding "canvas tent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cape cod bay (noun)

The southern part of Massachusetts Bay.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cape cod bay."

- They discussed “cape cod bay” during the group presentation.

capsule (verb)

Put in a short or concise form; reduce in volume.

- He did not know how to use “capsule” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “capsule” in a sentence that fits this situation?

captive (noun)

A person who is confined; especially a prisoner of war.

- He looked up “captive” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “captive.”

cattle plague (noun)

An acute infectious viral disease of cattle (usually fatal); characterized by fever and diarrhea and inflammation of mucous membranes.

- They discussed “cattle plague” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “cattle plague” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cavalry sword (noun)

A stout sword with a curved blade and thick back.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cavalry sword.”
- He looked up “cavalry sword” because he had never seen it before.

chain armour (noun)

(Middle Ages) flexible armor made of interlinked metal rings.

- The article explained what “chain armour” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “chain armour” to mean (middle ages) flexible armor made of interlinked....

christie (noun)

Prolific English writer of detective stories (1890-1976).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “christie.”
- They discussed “christie” during the group presentation.

chronicle (noun)

A record or narrative description of past events.

- The article explained what “chronicle” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “chronicle” to mean a record or narrative description of past events.

cinnamon (noun)

Tropical Asian tree with aromatic yellowish-brown bark; source of the spice cinnamon.

- They discussed “cinnamon” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “cinnamon” because he had never seen it before.

classified advertisement (noun)

A short ad in a newspaper or magazine (usually in small print) and appearing along with other ads of the same type.

- He looked up “classified advertisement” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “classified advertisement” to mean a short ad in a newspaper or magazine (usually in....

coil spring (noun)

A spring in the shape of a coil.

- He looked up “coil spring” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “coil spring” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

commodities exchange (noun)

An exchange for buying and selling commodities for future delivery.

- Understanding “commodities exchange” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “commodities exchange” means with a simple example.

compass plane (noun)

A plane with a flexible face that can plane concave or convex surfaces.

- He looked up "compass plane" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "compass plane."

---

comprehend (verb)

To become aware of through the senses.

- Do you comprehend the meaning of this letter?
- He did not know how to use "comprehend" until he saw an example.

---

compulsory (adjective)

Required by rule.

- In most schools physical education is compulsory.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "compulsory."

---

computer-aided design (noun)

Software used in art and architecture and engineering and manufacturing to assist in precision drawing.

- They discussed "computer-aided design" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "computer-aided design" to mean software used in art and architecture and....

---

confederate (noun)

A supporter of the Confederate States of America.

- In class, the teacher used "confederate" to mean a supporter of the confederate states of america.
- He looked up "confederate" because he had never seen it before.

---

contaminated (adjective)

Rendered unwholesome by contaminants and pollution.

- Had to boil the contaminated water.
- A "contaminated" approach may work better in this case.

---

contests (verb)

To make the subject of dispute, contention, or litigation.

- Can you use "contests" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "contests" and when to wait.

---

coping (noun)

Brick that is laid sideways at the top of a wall.

- He looked up "coping" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coping."

---

counterpart (noun)

A person or thing having the same function or characteristics as another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "counterpart."
- The article explained what "counterpart" means with a simple example.

---

cracked wheat (noun)

Grains of wheat that have been crushed into small pieces.

- Understanding "cracked wheat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cracked wheat."

---

creed (noun)

The written body of teachings of a religious group that are generally accepted by that group.

- They discussed "creed" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "creed" means with a simple example.

---

crisp (noun)

A thin crisp slice of potato fried in deep fat.

- They discussed “crisp” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “crisp” means with a simple example.

---

crust (noun)

A hard outer layer that covers something.

- The article explained what “crust” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “crust” to mean a hard outer layer that covers something.

---

cutter (noun)

A boat for communication between ship and shore.

- The article explained what “cutter” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “cutter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

daisy bush (noun)

Any of various mostly Australian attractively shaped shrubs of the genus Olearia grown for their handsome and sometimes fragrant evergreen foliage and profusion of daisy flowers with white or purple or blue rays.

- Understanding “daisy bush” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “daisy bush” because he had never seen it before.

---

daisy wheel (noun)

A wheel around which is a set of print characters that make a typing impression on paper.

- They discussed “daisy wheel” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “daisy wheel” to mean a wheel around which is a set of print characters....

---

daisy-bush (noun)

Any of various mostly Australian attractively shaped shrubs of the genus Olearia grown for their handsome and sometimes fragrant evergreen foliage and profusion of daisy flowers with white or purple or blue rays.

- The article explained what “daisy-bush” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “daisy-bush.”

---

daniel webster (noun)

United States politician and orator (1782-1817).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “daniel webster.”
- The article explained what “daniel webster” means with a simple example.

---

daring (noun)

A challenge to do something dangerous or foolhardy.

- They discussed “daring” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “daring.”

---

david herbert lawrence (noun)

English novelist and poet and essayist whose work condemned industrial society and explored sexual relationships (1885-1930).

- The article explained what “david herbert lawrence” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “david herbert lawrence” to mean english novelist and poet and essayist whose work....

---

delegate (noun)

A person appointed or elected to represent others.

- They discussed “delegate” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “delegate” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

delhi boil (noun)

Leishmaniasis of the skin; characterized by ulcerative skin lesions.

- In class, the teacher used “delhi boil” to mean leishmaniasis of the skin; characterized by....
- He looked up “delhi boil” because he had never seen it before.

---

deploy (verb)

To distribute systematically or strategically.

- The U.S. deploys its weapons in the Middle East.

- He did not know how to use “deploy” until he saw an example.

dietary (adjective)

Of or relating to the diet.

- Dietary restrictions.
- Students compared “dietary” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

diplomatic immunity (noun)

Exemption from taxation or normal processes of law that is offered to diplomatic personnel in a foreign country.

- In class, the teacher used “diplomatic immunity” to mean exemption from taxation or normal processes of law....
- The article explained what “diplomatic immunity” means with a simple example.

dissertation (noun)

A treatise advancing a new point of view resulting from research; usually a requirement for an advanced academic degree.

- The article explained what “dissertation” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “dissertation” during the group presentation.

dividends (noun)

A number to be divided by another number.

- In class, the teacher used “dividends” to mean a number to be divided by another number.
- The article explained what “dividends” means with a simple example.

domination (noun)

Power to dominate or defeat.

- In class, the teacher used “domination” to mean power to dominate or defeat.
- The article explained what “domination” means with a simple example.

downloading (verb)

Transfer a file or program from a central computer to a smaller computer or to a computer at a remote location.

- The coach explained when to use “downloading” and when to wait.
- She tried to use “downloading” carefully so everyone would understand.

dry cereal (noun)

A cereal that is not heated before serving.

- The article explained what “dry cereal” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dry cereal.”

drying agent (noun)

A substance that promotes drying (e.g., calcium oxide absorbs water and is used to remove moisture).

- In class, the teacher used “drying agent” to mean a substance that promotes drying (e.g., calcium....
- He looked up “drying agent” because he had never seen it before.

duke of lancaster (noun)

The fourth son of Edward III who was the effective ruler of England during the close of his father’s reign and during the minority of Richard II; his son was Henry Bolingbroke (1340-1399).

- The article explained what “duke of lancaster” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “duke of lancaster” to mean the fourth son of edward iii who was the effective....

earl marshal (noun)

An officer of the English peerage who organizes royal processions and other ceremonies.

- Understanding “earl marshal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “earl marshal.”

east indies (noun)

A group of islands in the Indian and Pacific Oceans between Asia and Australia.

- They discussed “east indies” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “east indies” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ec (noun)

An international organization of European countries formed after World War II to reduce trade barriers and increase cooperation among its members.

- Understanding "ec" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ec" to mean an international organization of european countries....

---

employee turnover (noun)

The ratio of the number of workers that had to be replaced in a given time period to the average number of workers.

- The article explained what "employee turnover" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "employee turnover."

---

ethical motive (noun)

Motivation based on ideas of right and wrong.

- In class, the teacher used "ethical motive" to mean motivation based on ideas of right and wrong.
- He looked up "ethical motive" because he had never seen it before.

---

evaluating (verb)

Evaluate or estimate the nature, quality, ability, extent, or significance of.

- The coach explained when to use "evaluating" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "evaluating" in real sentences.

---

expelled (verb)

Force to leave or move out.

- He was expelled from his native country.
- He did not know how to use "expelled" until he saw an example.

---

favorable reception (noun)

Acceptance as satisfactory.

- The article explained what "favorable reception" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "favorable reception."

---

field winding (noun)

The electric coil around a field magnet that produces the magneto motive force to set up the flux in an electric machine.

- He looked up "field winding" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "field winding."

---

fig wax (noun)

A hard cream-colored wax obtained from a Javanese fig tree.

- In class, the teacher used "fig wax" to mean a hard cream-colored wax obtained from a javanese....
- They discussed "fig wax" during the group presentation.

---

file folder (noun)

Folder that holds papers together in a filing cabinet.

- He looked up "file folder" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "file folder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fined (verb)

Issue a ticket or a fine to as a penalty.

- I was fined for parking on the wrong side of the street.
- She tried to use "fined" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

first offender (noun)

Someone convicted for the first time.

- The article explained what "first offender" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "first offender" during the group presentation.

---

fish genus (noun)

Any of various genus of fish.

- Understanding "fish genus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fish genus" because he had never seen it before.

---

flora (noun)

All the plant life in a particular region or period.

- The flora of southern California.
- He looked up "flora" because he had never seen it before.

---

folding (noun)

The process whereby a protein molecule assumes its intricate three-dimensional shape.

- Understanding protein folding is the next step in deciphering the genetic code.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "folding."

---

foot-lambert (noun)

A former luminance unit equal to one lumen per square foot.

- He looked up "foot-lambert" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foot-lambert."

---

four-centered arch (noun)

A low elliptical or pointed arch; usually drawn from four centers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "four-centered arch."
- The article explained what "four-centered arch" means with a simple example.

---

fracture (noun)

(geology) a crack in the earth's crust resulting from the displacement of one side with respect to the other.

- It was a nasty fracture.
- Understanding "fracture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

frances (noun)

A republic in western Europe; the largest country wholly in Europe.

- In class, the teacher used "frances" to mean a republic in western europe; the largest country....
- They discussed "frances" during the group presentation.

---

french knot (noun)

A stitch made by looping the thread several times around the needle before inserting it into the fabric.

- Understanding "french knot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french knot."

---

functionality (noun)

Capable of serving a purpose well.

- Software with greater functionality.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "functionality."

---

gamma (noun)

A unit of magnetic field strength equal to one-hundred-thousandth of an oersted.

- They discussed "gamma" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gamma" means with a simple example.

---

gays (noun)

Someone who practices homosexuality; having a sexual attraction to persons of the same sex.

- He looked up "gays" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "gays" during the group presentation.

---

gaze (verb)

Look at with fixed eyes.

- In everyday English, people use "gaze" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "gaze" carefully so everyone would understand.

genus cancer (noun)

Type genus of the family Cancridae.

- He looked up "genus cancer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus cancer."

genus paris (noun)

Sometimes placed in subfamily Trilliaceae.

- They discussed "genus paris" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "genus paris" because he had never seen it before.

giant cane (noun)

Tall grass of southern United States growing in thickets.

- He looked up "giant cane" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "giant cane."

giant crab (noun)

Very large deep-water Japanese crab.

- They discussed "giant crab" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "giant crab" because he had never seen it before.

gilbert stuart (noun)

United States painter best known for his portraits of George Washington (1755-1828).

- In class, the teacher used "gilbert stuart" to mean united states painter best known for his portraits....
- He looked up "gilbert stuart" because he had never seen it before.

global positioning system (noun)

A navigational system involving satellites and computers that can determine the latitude and longitude of a receiver on Earth by computing the time difference for signals from different satellites to reach the receiver.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "global positioning system."
- They discussed "global positioning system" during the group presentation.

grains (noun)

A relatively small granular particle of a substance.

- Understanding "grains" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "grains" because he had never seen it before.

grape (noun)

A cluster of small projectiles fired together from a cannon to produce a hail of shot.

- They discussed "grape" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grape" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gravel (verb)

Cause annoyance in; disturb, especially by minor irritations.

- We gravelled the driveway.
- He did not know how to use "gravel" until he saw an example.

grease-gun (noun)

A hand-operated pump that resembles a revolver; forces grease into parts of a machine.

- He looked up "grease-gun" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "grease-gun" during the group presentation.

green turtle soup (noun)

Soup usually made of the flesh of green turtles.

- He looked up "green turtle soup" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green turtle soup."

guiding light (noun)

A celebrity who is an inspiration to others.

- The article explained what "guiding light" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "guiding light" to mean a celebrity who is an inspiration to others.

---

hair grease (noun)

A toiletry for the hair.

- The article explained what "hair grease" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hair grease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

haired (adjective)

Having or covered with hair.

- The speaker chose "haired" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "haired" when it is having or covered with hair.

---

hairy tongue (noun)

A benign side effect of some antibiotics; dark overgrowth of the papillae of the tongue.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hairy tongue."
- Understanding "hairy tongue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

half-hourly (adverb)

Every thirty minutes, every half hour.

- Using "half-hourly" can make your explanation more exact.
- He answered "half-hourly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

hangs (noun)

A special way of doing something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hangs."
- They discussed "hangs" during the group presentation.

---

hastings (noun)

A town in East Sussex just to the south of the place where the battle of Hastings took place.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hastings."
- He looked up "hastings" because he had never seen it before.

---

heather mixture (noun)

Interwoven yarns of mixed colors producing muted greyish shades with flecks of color.

- The article explained what "heather mixture" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "heather mixture" to mean interwoven yarns of mixed colors producing muted....

---

helen hayes (noun)

Acclaimed actress of stage and screen (1900-1993).

- Understanding "helen hayes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "helen hayes" because he had never seen it before.

---

heroic poem (noun)

A long narrative poem telling of a hero's deeds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heroic poem."
- They discussed "heroic poem" during the group presentation.

---

highland (noun)

Elevated (e.g., mountainous) land.

- The article explained what "highland" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "highland" to mean elevated (e.g., mountainous) land.

---

histories (noun)

A record or narrative description of past events.

- Understanding "histories" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “histories.”

home ec (noun)

Theory and practice of homemaking.

- The article explained what “home ec” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “home ec.”

honoured (verb)

Bestow honor or rewards upon.

- The coach explained when to use “honoured” and when to wait.
- Can you use “honoured” in a sentence that fits this situation?

hydraulic press (noun)

Press in which a force applied by a piston to a small area is transmitted through water to another piston having a large area.

- In class, the teacher used “hydraulic press” to mean press in which a force applied by a piston to a....
- The article explained what “hydraulic press” means with a simple example.

ia (noun)

A state in midwestern United States.

- He looked up “ia” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “ia” to mean a state in midwestern united states.

idle (noun)

The state of an engine or other mechanism that is idling.

- The car engine was running at idle.
- In class, the teacher used “idle” to mean the state of an engine or other mechanism that is....

indictment (noun)

An accusation of wrongdoing.

- The book is an indictment of modern philosophy.
- The article explained what “indictment” means with a simple example.

infrared light (noun)

Electromagnetic radiation with wavelengths longer than visible light but shorter than radio waves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “infrared light.”
- Understanding “infrared light” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

inland passage (noun)

A naturally protected waterway from Seattle to Skagway in southeastern Alaska.

- He looked up “inland passage” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “inland passage” to mean a naturally protected waterway from seattle to....

insulting (adjective)

Expressing extreme contempt.

- A “insulting” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “insulting.”

irregular (noun)

A member of an irregular armed force that fights a stronger force by sabotage and harassment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “irregular.”
- He looked up “irregular” because he had never seen it before.

ivory palm (noun)

A stemless palm tree of Brazil and Peru bearing ivory nuts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ivory palm.”
- The article explained what “ivory palm” means with a simple example.

john irving (noun)

United States writer of darkly humorous novels (born in 1942).

- Understanding "john irving" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "john irving" means with a simple example.

joseph john thomson (noun)

English physicist who experimented with the conduction of electricity through gases and who discovered the electron and determined its charge and mass (1856-1940).

- In class, the teacher used "joseph john thomson" to mean english physicist who experimented with the....
- Understanding "joseph john thomson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

juicy (adjective)

Having strong sexual appeal.

- Juicy barmaids.
- A juicy contract.

junior lightweight (noun)

Weighs no more than 130 pounds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "junior lightweight."
- They discussed "junior lightweight" during the group presentation.

justices (noun)

A public official authorized to decide questions brought before a court of justice.

- He looked up "justices" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "justices" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

juvenile diabetes (noun)

Severe diabetes mellitus with an early onset; characterized by polyuria and excessive thirst and increased appetite and weight loss and episodic ketoacidosis; diet and insulin injections are required to control the disease.

- The article explained what "juvenile diabetes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "juvenile diabetes" to mean severe diabetes mellitus with an early onset;....

kidney bean (noun)

The common bean plant grown for the beans rather than the pods (especially a variety with large red kidney-shaped beans).

- Understanding "kidney bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "kidney bean" during the group presentation.

launching pad (noun)

A platform from which rockets or space craft are launched.

- He looked up "launching pad" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "launching pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

law of continuation (noun)

A Gestalt principle of organization holding that there is an innate tendency to perceive a line as continuing its established direction.

- In class, the teacher used "law of continuation" to mean a gestalt principle of organization holding that....
- They discussed "law of continuation" during the group presentation.

leaking (verb)

Enter or escape as through a hole or crack or fissure.

- He did not know how to use "leaking" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "leaking" and when to wait.

lemon mint (noun)

An annual horsemint of central and western United States and northern Mexico.

- The article explained what "lemon mint" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lemon mint" to mean an annual horsemint of central and western united....

lethal dose (noun)

The size dose that will cause death.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lethal dose."
- He looked up "lethal dose" because he had never seen it before.

---

limb (noun)

The graduated arc that is attached to an instrument for measuring angles.

- The limb of the sextant.
- The upper limb of the bow.

---

linguistic process (noun)

The cognitive processes involved in producing and understanding linguistic communication.

- He looked up "linguistic process" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "linguistic process" to mean the cognitive processes involved in producing and....

---

literal error (noun)

A mistake in printed matter resulting from mechanical failures of some kind.

- The article explained what "literal error" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "literal error" during the group presentation.

---

long trousers (noun)

Trousers reaching to the foot.

- They discussed "long trousers" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "long trousers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

long-haired (adjective)

With long hair.

- Long-haired hippies.
- It is useful to describe something as "long-haired" when it is with long hair.

---

lucy in the sky with diamonds (noun)

Street name for lysergic acid diethylamide.

- The article explained what "lucy in the sky with diamonds" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lucy in the sky with diamonds" during the group presentation.

---

mack (noun)

A waterproof raincoat made of rubberized fabric.

- He looked up "mack" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mack" to mean a waterproof raincoat made of rubberized fabric.

---

mammals (noun)

Any warm-blooded vertebrate having the skin more or less covered with hair; young are born alive except for the small subclass of monotremes and nourished with milk.

- In class, the teacher used "mammals" to mean any warm-blooded vertebrate having the skin more or....
- The article explained what "mammals" means with a simple example.

---

maple-leaf (noun)

The emblem of Canada.

- Understanding "maple-leaf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "maple-leaf" to mean the emblem of canada.

---

marginal cost (noun)

The increase or decrease in costs as a result of one more or one less unit of output.

- Understanding "marginal cost" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marginal cost."

---

market penetration (noun)

The extent to which a product is recognized and bought by customers in a particular market.

- The article explained what "market penetration" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "market penetration" to mean the extent to which a product is recognized and....

marvel-of-peru (noun)

Common garden plant of North America having fragrant red or purple or yellow or white flowers that open in late afternoon.

- Understanding "marvel-of-peru" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "marvel-of-peru" because he had never seen it before.

mary mccarthy (noun)

United States satirical novelist and literary critic (1912-1989).

- In class, the teacher used "mary mccarthy" to mean united states satirical novelist and literary....
- He looked up "mary mccarthy" because he had never seen it before.

master of ceremonies (noun)

A person who acts as host at formal occasions (makes an introductory speech and introduces other speakers).

- The article explained what "master of ceremonies" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "master of ceremonies" during the group presentation.

meaningless (adjective)

Having no meaning or direction or purpose.

- A meaningless endeavor.
- A meaningless life.

medicaid funds (noun)

Public funds used to pay for Medicaid.

- In class, the teacher used "medicaid funds" to mean public funds used to pay for medicaid.
- He looked up "medicaid funds" because he had never seen it before.

metal glove (noun)

A glove of armored leather; protects the hand.

- In class, the teacher used "metal glove" to mean a glove of armored leather; protects the hand.
- The article explained what "metal glove" means with a simple example.

metric grain (noun)

A weight unit used for pearls or diamonds: 50 mg or 1/4 carat.

- They discussed "metric grain" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "metric grain" means with a simple example.

millennium (noun)

The 1000th anniversary (or the celebration of it).

- Understanding "millennium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "millennium" during the group presentation.

mining geology (noun)

The branch of economic geology that deals with the applications of geology to mining.

- He looked up "mining geology" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mining geology" to mean the branch of economic geology that deals with the....

misunderstanding (noun)

An understanding of something that is not correct.

- There must be some misunderstanding–I don't have a sister.
- They discussed "misunderstanding" during the group presentation.

modules (noun)

A self-contained component (unit or item) that is used in combination with other components.

- They discussed "modules" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "modules" because he had never seen it before.

moody (adjective)

Showing a brooding ill humor; ; ; ; ; - Bruce Bliven.

- He sat in moody silence.
- It is useful to describe something as "moody" when it is showing a brooding ill humor; ; ; ; ; - bruce bliven.

---

mother teresa (noun)

Indian nun and missionary in the Roman Catholic Church (born of Albanian parents in what is now Macedonia); dedicated to helping the poor in India (1910-1997).

- They discussed "mother teresa" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mother teresa" because he had never seen it before.

---

mother theresa (noun)

Indian nun and missionary in the Roman Catholic Church (born of Albanian parents in what is now Macedonia); dedicated to helping the poor in India (1910-1997).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother theresa."
- He looked up "mother theresa" because he had never seen it before.

---

mount vernon (noun)

The former residence of George Washington in northeastern Virginia overlooking the Potomac river.

- They discussed "mount vernon" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mount vernon."

---

mug book (noun)

A file of mug shots (pictures of criminals that are kept on file by the police).

- Understanding "mug book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mug book" means with a simple example.

---

mug shot (noun)

A photograph of someone's face (especially one made for police records).

- The article explained what "mug shot" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mug shot."

---

needles (verb)

Goad or provoke,as by constant criticism.

- The coach explained when to use "needles" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "needles" until he saw an example.

---

new world coral snake (noun)

Any of several venomous New World snakes brilliantly banded in red and black and either yellow or white; widely distributed in South America and Central America.

- The article explained what "new world coral snake" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new world coral snake."

---

ni-resist iron (noun)

Cast iron consisting of graphite in a matrix of austenite.

- In class, the teacher used "ni-resist iron" to mean cast iron consisting of graphite in a matrix of....
- They discussed "ni-resist iron" during the group presentation.

---

nickel-iron battery (noun)

A storage battery having a nickel oxide cathode and an iron anode with an electrolyte of potassium hydroxide; each cell gives about 1.2 volts.

- Understanding "nickel-iron battery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "nickel-iron battery" to mean a storage battery having a nickel oxide cathode and....

---

ninety-five (adjective)

Being five more than ninety.

- It is useful to describe something as "ninety-five" when it is being five more than ninety.
- The speaker chose "ninety-five" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

ninety-four (adjective)

Being four more than ninety.

- It is useful to describe something as "ninety-four" when it is being four more than ninety.

- Students compared “ninety-four” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ninety-six (adjective)

Being six more than ninety.

- Students compared “ninety-six” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “ninety-six.”

---

nitrogen cycle (noun)

The circulation of nitrogen; nitrates from the soil are absorbed by plants which are eaten by animals that die and decay returning the nitrogen back to the soil.

- Understanding “nitrogen cycle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “nitrogen cycle” to mean the circulation of nitrogen; nitrates from the soil....

---

noodles (noun)

A ribbonlike strip of pasta.

- In class, the teacher used “noodles” to mean a ribbonlike strip of pasta.
- The article explained what “noodles” means with a simple example.

---

observation dome (noun)

Lookout consisting of a dome-shaped observatory.

- They discussed “observation dome” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “observation dome.”

---

ocean liner (noun)

A large commercial ship (especially one that carries passengers on a regular schedule).

- Understanding “ocean liner” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “ocean liner” means with a simple example.

---

offender (noun)

A person who transgresses moral or civil law.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “offender.”
- Understanding “offender” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

old world coral snake (noun)

Any of various venomous elapid snakes of Asia and Africa and Australia.

- He looked up “old world coral snake” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “old world coral snake” during the group presentation.

---

olive-coloured (adjective)

Having the color of green olives.

- The speaker chose “olive-coloured” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “olive-coloured” when it is having the color of green olives.

---

one hundred eighty (adjective)

Being ten more than one hundred seventy.

- It is useful to describe something as “one hundred eighty” when it is being ten more than one hundred seventy.
- Students compared “one hundred eighty” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

optical illusion (noun)

An optical phenomenon that results in a false or deceptive visual impression.

- The article explained what “optical illusion” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “optical illusion” to mean an optical phenomenon that results in a false or....

---

oracle (noun)

A shrine where an oracular god is consulted.

- In class, the teacher used “oracle” to mean a shrine where an oracular god is consulted.
- Understanding “oracle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

overlap (noun)

A representation of common ground between theories or phenomena.

- There was no overlap between their proposals.
- They discussed "overlap" during the group presentation.

---

panama canal (noun)

A ship canal 40 miles long across the Isthmus of Panama built by the United States (1904-1914).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "panama canal."
- He looked up "panama canal" because he had never seen it before.

---

para rubber (noun)

A type of natural rubber obtained from tropical South American trees.

- Understanding "para rubber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "para rubber" because he had never seen it before.

---

particle beam (noun)

A collimated flow of particles (atoms or electrons or molecules).

- They discussed "particle beam" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "particle beam."

---

patrons (noun)

Someone who supports or champions something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patrons."
- He looked up "patrons" because he had never seen it before.

---

pd (noun)

A silver-white metallic element of the platinum group that resembles platinum; occurs in some copper and nickel ores; does not tarnish at ordinary temperatures and is used (alloyed with gold) in jewelry.

- Understanding "pd" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pd" during the group presentation.

---

peek (verb)

Throw a glance at; take a brief look at.

- I only peeked–I didn't see anything interesting.
- Can you use "peek" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

pentagon (noun)

The United States military establishment.

- Understanding "pentagon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pentagon" to mean the united states military establishment.

---

persian gulf (noun)

A shallow arm of the Arabian Sea between Iran and the Arabian peninsula; the Persian Gulf oil fields are among the most productive in the world.

- He looked up "persian gulf" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "persian gulf" during the group presentation.

---

peters (noun)

Disciple of Jesus and leader of the Apostles; regarded by Catholics as the vicar of Christ on earth and first Pope.

- They discussed "peters" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peters."

---

petersburg (noun)

A town in southeastern Virginia (south of Richmond); scene of heavy fighting during the American Civil War.

- They discussed "petersburg" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "petersburg" because he had never seen it before.

---

petrol station (noun)

A service station that sells gasoline.

- In class, the teacher used "petrol station" to mean a service station that sells gasoline.
- The article explained what "petrol station" means with a simple example.

---

plant genus (noun)

A genus of plants.

- They discussed "plant genus" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "plant genus" because he had never seen it before.

---

pos (noun)

A European river; flows into the Adriatic Sea.

- Understanding "pos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pos" means with a simple example.

---

power-assisted steering (noun)

Automotive steering where engineer power amplifies the torque applied to the steering wheel.

- They discussed "power-assisted steering" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "power-assisted steering" to mean automotive steering where engineer power amplifies....

---

prairie (noun)

A treeless grassy plain.

- He looked up "prairie" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prairie."

---

prairie state (noun)

A midwestern state in north-central United States.

- They discussed "prairie state" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "prairie state" means with a simple example.

---

premature (adjective)

Born after a gestation period of less than the normal time.

- A premature infant.
- The speaker chose "premature" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

primary coil (noun)

Coil forming the part of an electrical circuit such that changing current in it induces a current in a neighboring circuit.

- Current through the primary coil induces current in the secondary coil.
- The article explained what "primary coil" means with a simple example.

---

psychiatrist (noun)

A physician who specializes in psychiatry.

- They discussed "psychiatrist" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "psychiatrist."

---

puerto rico (noun)

The smallest and easternmost of the Greater Antilles in the Caribbean.

- He looked up "puerto rico" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "puerto rico" to mean the smallest and easternmost of the greater....

---

quad (noun)

A muscle of the thigh that extends the leg.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quad."
- The article explained what "quad" means with a simple example.

---

quantum leap (noun)

A sudden large increase or advance.

- This may not insure success but it will represent a quantum leap from last summer.
- They discussed "quantum leap" during the group presentation.

quartz (noun)

A hard glossy mineral consisting of silicon dioxide in crystal form; present in most rocks (especially sandstone and granite); yellow sand is quartz with iron oxide impurities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quartz."
- They discussed "quartz" during the group presentation.

quitting (verb)

Give up in the face of defeat of lacking hope; admit defeat.

- In everyday English, people use "quitting" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "quitting" until he saw an example.

radioactive material (noun)

Material that is radioactive.

- Understanding "radioactive material" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "radioactive material" during the group presentation.

rb (noun)

A soft silvery metallic element of the alkali metal group; burns in air and reacts violently in water; occurs in carnallite and lepidolite and pollucite.

- Understanding "rb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "rb" during the group presentation.

respiratory infection (noun)

Any infection of the respiratory tract.

- The article explained what "respiratory infection" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "respiratory infection" to mean any infection of the respiratory tract.

responsive (adjective)

Containing or using responses; alternating.

- Responsive reading.
- Children are often the quickest and most responsive members of the audience.

richest (adjective)

Suggestive of or characterized by great expense.

- Students compared "richest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "richest"? Explain why.

roar (noun)

A very loud utterance (like the sound of an animal).

- He looked up "roar" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "roar" during the group presentation.

roast beef plant (noun)

Iris with purple flowers and foul-smelling leaves; southern and western Europe and North Africa.

- Understanding "roast beef plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "roast beef plant" during the group presentation.

rot (noun)

A state of decay usually accompanied by an offensive odor.

- They discussed "rot" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rot" because he had never seen it before.

rulers (noun)

A person who rules or commands.

- The article explained what "rulers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rulers" to mean a person who rules or commands.

saddle seat (noun)

A chair seat that is slightly concave and sometimes has a thickened ridge in the center.

- The saddle seat fitted his buttocks nicely.
- Understanding "saddle seat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

safety razor (noun)

A razor with a guard to prevent deep cuts in the skin.

- In class, the teacher used "safety razor" to mean a razor with a guard to prevent deep cuts in the skin.
- He looked up "safety razor" because he had never seen it before.

---

salem (noun)

A city in northeastern Massachusetts; site of the witchcraft trials in 1692.

- Understanding "salem" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "salem" to mean a city in northeastern massachusetts; site of the....

---

salmon portland chase (noun)

United States politician and jurist who served as chief justice of the United States Supreme Court (1808-1873).

- He looked up "salmon portland chase" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salmon portland chase."

---

san salvador (noun)

The capital and largest city of El Salvador; has suffered from recurrent earthquakes.

- Understanding "san salvador" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "san salvador" because he had never seen it before.

---

santos (noun)

A port city in southwestern Brazil on an offshore island near Sao Paulo.

- He looked up "santos" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "santos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sausage-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a sausage.

- The speaker chose "sausage-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "sausage-shaped" when it is shaped like a sausage.

---

sb (noun)

A metallic element having four allotropic forms; used in a wide variety of alloys; found in stibnite.

- The article explained what "sb" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

schmidt camera (noun)

Reflecting telescope that has plate that corrects for aberration so a wide area of sky can be photographed.

- They discussed "schmidt camera" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "schmidt camera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

self-induction (noun)

Generation of an electromotive force (EMF) in a circuit by changing the current in that circuit; usually measured in henries.

- He looked up "self-induction" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "self-induction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

self-respectful (adjective)

Having or showing self-esteem.

- Would you call this situation "self-respectful"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "self-respectful."

---

self-winding (adjective)

Designed so that manual winding is unnecessary.

- A self-winding watch.

- A "self-winding" approach may work better in this case.

---

shutting post (noun)

The gatepost against which the gate closes.

- He looked up "shutting post" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "shutting post" to mean the gatepost against which the gate closes.

---

shuttle helicopter (noun)

A helicopter that shuttles back and forth.

- Understanding "shuttle helicopter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "shuttle helicopter" to mean a helicopter that shuttles back and forth.

---

sidney (noun)

English poet (1554-1586).

- He looked up "sidney" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sidney" to mean english poet (1554-1586).

---

silver vine (noun)

Ornamental vine of eastern Asia having yellow edible fruit and leaves with silver-white markings.

- They discussed "silver vine" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "silver vine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ski rack (noun)

A carrier for holding skis on top of a vehicle.

- Understanding "ski rack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ski rack."

---

ski slope (noun)

A snow-covered slope for skiing.

- In class, the teacher used "ski slope" to mean a snow-covered slope for skiing.
- The article explained what "ski slope" means with a simple example.

---

slack water (noun)

A stretch of water without current or movement.

- Suddenly they were in a slack and the water was motionless.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slack water."

---

sleeves (noun)

The part of a garment that is attached at the armhole and that provides a cloth covering for the arm.

- The article explained what "sleeves" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sleeves" to mean the part of a garment that is attached at the....

---

sour cherry (noun)

Acid cherries used for pies and preserves.

- Understanding "sour cherry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sour cherry" during the group presentation.

---

spear (noun)

A long pointed rod used as a tool or weapon.

- They discussed "spear" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spear."

---

spear up (verb)

Thrust up like a spear.

- The branch speared up into the air.
- She tried to use "spear up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

spice cookie (noun)

Cookie flavored with spices.

- He looked up "spice cookie" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spice cookie."

---

spies (noun)

A secret watcher; someone who secretly watches other people.

- My spies tell me that you had a good time last night.
- Understanding "spies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spinal canal (noun)

The canal in successive vertebrae through which the spinal cord passes.

- Understanding "spinal canal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "spinal canal" to mean the canal in successive vertebrae through which the....

---

spinal fluid (noun)

Clear liquid produced in the ventricles of the brain; fills and protects cavities in the brain and spinal cord.

- They discussed "spinal fluid" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "spinal fluid" because he had never seen it before.

---

spotted owl (noun)

A large owl of North America found in forests from British Columbia to central Mexico; has dark brown plumage and a heavily spotted chest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spotted owl."
- Understanding "spotted owl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stamp collector (noun)

A collector and student of postage stamps.

- In class, the teacher used "stamp collector" to mean a collector and student of postage stamps.
- They discussed "stamp collector" during the group presentation.

---

stella (noun)

United States minimalist painter (born in 1936).

- The article explained what "stella" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stella" during the group presentation.

---

stock saddle (noun)

An ornamented saddle used by cowboys; has a high horn to hold the lariat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stock saddle."
- Understanding "stock saddle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

storm-tossed (adjective)

Pounded or hit repeatedly by storms or adversities.

- Would you call this situation "storm-tossed"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "storm-tossed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

straight razor (noun)

A razor with a straight cutting edge enclosed in a case that forms a handle when the razor is opened for use.

- Understanding "straight razor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "straight razor" to mean a razor with a straight cutting edge enclosed in a....

---

stranded (adjective)

Cut off or left behind.

- Several stranded fish in a tide pool.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "stranded."

---

strawberry mark (noun)

A soft red birthmark.

- Understanding “strawberry mark” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “strawberry mark” means with a simple example.

---

stretches (noun)

A large and unbroken expanse or distance.

- There were stretches of boredom.
- The article explained what “stretches” means with a simple example.

---

stud farm (noun)

A farm where horses are bred.

- Understanding “stud farm” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “stud farm” during the group presentation.

---

subs (noun)

A submersible warship usually armed with torpedoes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “subs.”
- He looked up “subs” because he had never seen it before.

---

suit of armour (noun)

Armor that protects the wearer’s whole body.

- In class, the teacher used “suit of armour” to mean armor that protects the wearer’s whole body.
- He looked up “suit of armour” because he had never seen it before.

---

sur (noun)

A port in southern Lebanon on the Mediterranean Sea; formerly a major Phoenician seaport famous for silks.

- He looked up “sur” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “sur” during the group presentation.

---

switch cane (noun)

Small cane of watery or moist areas in southern United States.

- They discussed “switch cane” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “switch cane” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

synthetic fiber (noun)

Fiber created from natural materials or by chemical processes.

- The article explained what “synthetic fiber” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “synthetic fiber” to mean fiber created from natural materials or by chemical....

---

tasted (verb)

Have a distinctive or characteristic taste.

- We tasted wines last night.
- The ex-slave tasted freedom shortly before she died.

---

technician (noun)

Someone known for high skill in some intellectual or artistic technique.

- Understanding “technician” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “technician.”

---

television pickup tube (noun)

A tube that rapidly scans an optical image and converts it into electronic signals.

- In class, the teacher used “television pickup tube” to mean a tube that rapidly scans an optical image and....
- They discussed “television pickup tube” during the group presentation.

---

temples (noun)

The flat area on either side of the forehead.

- In class, the teacher used “temples” to mean the flat area on either side of the forehead.
- He looked up “temples” because he had never seen it before.

thomas mann (noun)

German writer concerned about the role of the artist in bourgeois society (1875-1955).

- In class, the teacher used "thomas mann" to mean german writer concerned about the role of the....
- Understanding "thomas mann" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

three-centered arch (noun)

A round arch whose inner curve is drawn with circles having three centers.

- The article explained what "three-centered arch" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "three-centered arch" to mean a round arch whose inner curve is drawn with....

thrust bearing (noun)

A bearing designed to take thrusts parallel to the axis of revolution.

- Understanding "thrust bearing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "thrust bearing" during the group presentation.

tidal (adjective)

Of or relating to or caused by tides.

- Tidal wave.
- Students compared "tidal" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

time capsule (noun)

Container for preserving historical records to be discovered at some future time.

- In class, the teacher used "time capsule" to mean container for preserving historical records to be....
- He looked up "time capsule" because he had never seen it before.

time-honoured (adjective)

Acceptable for a long time.

- It is useful to describe something as "time-honoured" when it is acceptable for a long time.
- The speaker chose "time-honoured" because it captured the feeling precisely.

transcript (noun)

A reproduction of a written record (e.g. of a legal or school record).

- He read a transcript of the interrogation.
- You can obtain a transcript of this radio program by sending a self-addressed envelope to the station.

treasures (noun)

A collection of precious things.

- The trunk held all her meager treasures.
- The children returned from the seashore with their shells and other treasures.

trench (noun)

A long steep-sided depression in the ocean floor.

- Understanding "trench" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "trench" because he had never seen it before.

trousers (noun)

A garment (or part of a garment) designed for or relating to trousers.

- He had a sharp crease in his trousers.
- The article explained what "trousers" means with a simple example.

unwilling (adjective)

Not disposed or inclined toward.

- An unwilling assistant.
- Unwilling to face facts.

uruguay (noun)

A South American republic on the southeast coast of South America; achieved independence from Brazil in 1825.

- In class, the teacher used "uruguay" to mean a south american republic on the southeast coast of....
- The article explained what "uruguay" means with a simple example.

---

utc (noun)

Greenwich Mean Time updated with leap seconds.

- Understanding "utc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "utc" during the group presentation.

---

validity (noun)

The quality of having legal force or effectiveness.

- In class, the teacher used "validity" to mean the quality of having legal force or effectiveness.
- Understanding "validity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

variants (noun)

Something a little different from others of the same type.

- Understanding "variants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "variants" during the group presentation.

---

vatican palace (noun)

The residence of the Catholic Pope in the Vatican City.

- Understanding "vatican palace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "vatican palace" means with a simple example.

---

verification (noun)

Additional proof that something that was believed (some fact or hypothesis or theory) is correct.

- They discussed "verification" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "verification" to mean additional proof that something that was believed....

---

volatile oil (noun)

An oil having the odor or flavor of the plant from which it comes; used in perfume and flavorings.

- Understanding "volatile oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "volatile oil" to mean an oil having the odor or flavor of the plant from....

---

vows (noun)

A solemn pledge (to oneself or to another or to a deity) to do something or to behave in a certain manner.

- They took vows of poverty.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vows."

---

vulnerability (noun)

The state of being vulnerable or exposed.

- His vulnerability to litigation.
- Understanding "vulnerability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

weigh anchor (verb)

Heave up an anchor in preparation for sailing.

- He did not know how to use "weigh anchor" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "weigh anchor" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

weigh the anchor (verb)

Heave up an anchor in preparation for sailing.

- The coach explained when to use "weigh the anchor" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "weigh the anchor" in real sentences.

---

welsh onion (noun)

Asiatic onion with slender bulbs; used as early green onions.

- He looked up "welsh onion" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "welsh onion" during the group presentation.

---

wesley (noun)

English clergyman and founder of Methodism (1703-1791).

- They discussed "wesley" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "wesley" means with a simple example.

---

western crab apple (noun)

Wild crab apple of western United States with fragrant pink flowers.

- Understanding "western crab apple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "western crab apple" means with a simple example.

---

wheat flour (noun)

Flour prepared from wheat.

- They discussed "wheat flour" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wheat flour" because he had never seen it before.

---

wheeler peak (noun)

A mountain peak in northeastern New Mexico in the Rocky Mountains.

- The article explained what "wheeler peak" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wheeler peak."

---

whole wheat flour (noun)

Flour made by grinding the entire wheat berry including the bran; ('whole meal flour' is British usage).

- He looked up "whole wheat flour" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "whole wheat flour" during the group presentation.

---

worm wheel (noun)

Gear with the thread of a worm.

- He looked up "worm wheel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "worm wheel."

---

wrath (noun)

Intense anger (usually on an epic scale).

- He looked up "wrath" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wrath."

---

yellow dwarf (noun)

Any of several virus diseases of plants characterized by stunting and yellowing of the leaves.

- Understanding "yellow dwarf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "yellow dwarf" during the group presentation.

---

yuan (noun)

The imperial dynasty of China from 1279 to 1368.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yuan."
- He looked up "yuan" because he had never seen it before.

---

zen (noun)

A Buddhist doctrine that enlightenment can be attained through direct intuitive insight.

- The article explained what "zen" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "zen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

abuses (noun)

A rude expression intended to offend or hurt.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "abuses."
- He looked up "abuses" because he had never seen it before.

---

academic gown (noun)

A gown worn by academics or judges.

- He looked up "academic gown" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "academic gown" to mean a gown worn by academics or judges.

---

accomplishment (noun)

An ability that has been acquired by training.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "accomplishment."
- He looked up "accomplishment" because he had never seen it before.

---

acquisitions (noun)

The cognitive process of acquiring skill or knowledge.

- In class, the teacher used "acquisitions" to mean the cognitive process of acquiring skill or knowledge.
- They discussed "acquisitions" during the group presentation.

---

aerospace medicine (noun)

The study and treatment of disorders associated with flight (especially with space flight).

- The article explained what "aerospace medicine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "aerospace medicine" to mean the study and treatment of disorders associated....

---

age of mammals (noun)

Approximately the last 63 million years.

- Understanding "age of mammals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "age of mammals" during the group presentation.

---

aide (noun)

An officer who acts as military assistant to a more senior officer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aide."
- He looked up "aide" because he had never seen it before.

---

alpha decay (noun)

Radioactive decay of an atomic nucleus that is accompanied by the emission of an alpha particle.

- In class, the teacher used "alpha decay" to mean radioactive decay of an atomic nucleus that is....
- They discussed "alpha decay" during the group presentation.

---

analytical balance (noun)

A beam balance of great precision used in quantitative chemical analysis.

- In class, the teacher used "analytical balance" to mean a beam balance of great precision used in....
- Understanding "analytical balance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

apt (adjective)

Mentally quick and resourceful; ; -Bram Stoker.

- An apt pupil.
- He is apt to ignore matters he considers unimportant.

---

armour plate (noun)

Specially hardened steel plate used to protect fortifications or vehicles from enemy fire.

- He looked up "armour plate" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "armour plate."

---

attracting (verb)

Exert a force on (a body) causing it to approach or prevent it from moving away.

- He did not know how to use "attracting" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "attracting" in real sentences.

---

autumn pumpkin (noun)

A coarse vine widely cultivated for its large pulpy round orange fruit with firm orange skin and numerous seeds; subspecies of Cucurbita pepo include the summer squashes and a few autumn squashes.

- In class, the teacher used “autumn pumpkin” to mean a coarse vine widely cultivated for its large pulpy....
- Understanding “autumn pumpkin” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

avatar (noun)

A new personification of a familiar idea.

- The very avatar of cunning.
- The Buddha is considered an avatar of the god Vishnu.

---

baby’s bed (noun)

A small bed for babies; enclosed by sides to prevent the baby from falling.

- They discussed “baby’s bed” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “baby’s bed.”

---

backward and forward (adverb)

Moving from one place to another and back again.

- He traveled back and forth between Los Angeles and New York.
- The treetops whipped to and fro in a frightening manner.

---

bangalore (noun)

An industrial city in south central India (west of Chennai).

- The article explained what “bangalore” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “bangalore” to mean an industrial city in south central india (west of....

---

bans (noun)

An official prohibition or edict against something.

- In class, the teacher used “bans” to mean an official prohibition or edict against something.
- Understanding “bans” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

battling (verb)

Battle or contend against in or as if in a battle.

- Can you use “battling” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “battling” and when to wait.

---

beach strawberry (noun)

Wild strawberry of western United States and South America; source of many varieties of cultivated strawberries.

- Understanding “beach strawberry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “beach strawberry” to mean wild strawberry of western united states and south....

---

beads (noun)

Several beads threaded together on a string.

- Beads of sweat on his forehead.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “beads.”

---

beef wellington (noun)

Rare-roasted beef tenderloin coated with mushroom paste in puff pastry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “beef wellington.”
- He looked up “beef wellington” because he had never seen it before.

---

bilateral contract (noun)

A contract involving mutual promises (each party is both promisor and promisee).

- Understanding “bilateral contract” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “bilateral contract” means with a simple example.

---

bill sticker (noun)

Someone who pastes up bills or placards on walls or billboards.

- Understanding “bill sticker” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “bill sticker” means with a simple example.

bisexual person (noun)

A person who is sexually attracted to both sexes.

- Understanding "bisexual person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bisexual person."

bitter-bark (noun)

Ornamental shrub or small tree of swampy areas in southwestern United States having large pink or white sepals and yielding Georgia bark for treating fever.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bitter-bark."
- Understanding "bitter-bark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

black rot (noun)

A fungous disease causing darkening and decay of the leaves of fruits and vegetables.

- In class, the teacher used "black rot" to mean a fungous disease causing darkening and decay of....
- He looked up "black rot" because he had never seen it before.

black-haired (adjective)

Having hair of a dark color.

- A "black-haired" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "black-haired" because it captured the feeling precisely.

blaze (noun)

A light within the field of vision that is brighter than the brightness to which the eyes are adapted.

- The blaze spread rapidly.
- Go to blazes.

blaze up (verb)

Burn brightly.

- Can you use "blaze up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "blaze up" when talking about this idea.

blue funk (noun)

A state of nervous depression.

- He was in a funk.
- He looked up "blue funk" because he had never seen it before.

box calf (noun)

Black calfskin leather tanned with chromium salts.

- They discussed "box calf" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "box calf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

brent (noun)

Small dark geese that breed in the north and migrate southward.

- They discussed "brent" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brent."

british west indies (noun)

The islands in the West Indies that were formerly under British control, including the Bahamas, Saint Lucia, Antigua, Grenada, Jamaica, Barbados, and Trinidad.

- In class, the teacher used "british west indies" to mean the islands in the west indies that were formerly....
- They discussed "british west indies" during the group presentation.

broadband (adjective)

Responding to or operating at a wide band of frequencies.

- A broadband antenna.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "broadband."

bullied (verb)

Discourage or frighten with threats or a domineering manner; intimidate.

- Her big brother always bullied her when she was young.
- He did not know how to use "bullied" until he saw an example.

---

bumper (noun)

A glass filled to the brim (especially as a toast).

- We quaffed a bumper of ale.
- The article explained what "bumper" means with a simple example.

---

butter daisy (noun)

Coarse greyish-green annual yellow-flowered herb; southwestern United States to Mexico.

- Understanding "butter daisy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "butter daisy" during the group presentation.

---

butterflies (verb)

Cut and spread open, as in preparation for cooking.

- He did not know how to use "butterflies" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "butterflies" in real sentences.

---

capital of cyprus (noun)

The capital and largest city of Cyprus.

- The article explained what "capital of cyprus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of cyprus" to mean the capital and largest city of cyprus.

---

cattle thief (noun)

Someone who steals livestock (especially cattle).

- The article explained what "cattle thief" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cattle thief."

---

caves (verb)

Hollow out as if making a cave or opening.

- She tried to use "caves" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "caves" in real sentences.

---

cedar chest (noun)

A chest made of cedar.

- He looked up "cedar chest" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cedar chest."

---

cereal bowl (noun)

A bowl for holding breakfast cereal.

- Understanding "cereal bowl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cereal bowl" means with a simple example.

---

chalk (noun)

A pure flat white with little reflectance.

- They discussed "chalk" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chalk" means with a simple example.

---

chalk out (verb)

Make a sketch of.

- In everyday English, people use "chalk out" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "chalk out" in real sentences.

---

chalk up (verb)

Accumulate as a debt.

- He chalked up $100 in the course of the evening.

- She tried to use “chalk up” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

charles robert darwin (noun)

English natural scientist who formulated a theory of evolution by natural selection (1809-1882).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “charles robert darwin.”
- Understanding “charles robert darwin” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cheese tray (noun)

Tray on which cheeses are served.

- The article explained what “cheese tray” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cheese tray” to mean tray on which cheeses are served.

---

chilling (noun)

The process of becoming cooler; a falling temperature.

- Understanding “chilling” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “chilling” during the group presentation.

---

chocolate syrup (noun)

Sauce made with unsweetened chocolate or cocoa and sugar and water.

- The article explained what “chocolate syrup” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chocolate syrup.”

---

cinnamon-red (adjective)

Red tinged with cinnamon.

- A “cinnamon-red” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “cinnamon-red” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

climbing onion (noun)

Much-branched leafless twining South African herb cultivated as an ornamental for its bright green stems growing from large aboveground bulbs.

- In class, the teacher used “climbing onion” to mean much-branched leafless twining south african herb....
- The article explained what “climbing onion” means with a simple example.

---

coaster (noun)

A covering (plate or mat) that protects the surface of a table (i.e., from the condensation on a cold glass or bottle).

- The article explained what “coaster” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “coaster” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coated (adjective)

Having a coating; covered with an outer layer or film; often used in combination.

- Coated paper has a smooth polished coating especially suitable for halftone printing.
- Sugar-coated pills.

---

cod liver oil (noun)

An oil obtained from the livers of cod and similar fishes; taken orally as a source of vitamins A and D.

- Understanding “cod liver oil” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “cod liver oil” because he had never seen it before.

---

cod-liver oil (noun)

An oil obtained from the livers of cod and similar fishes; taken orally as a source of vitamins A and D.

- The article explained what “cod-liver oil” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cod-liver oil.”

---

columbia tiger lily (noun)

Lily of western North America with showy orange-red purple-spotted flowers.

- They discussed “columbia tiger lily” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “columbia tiger lily.”

---

compulsory process (noun)

The right of a defendant to have a court use its subpoena power to compel the appearance of material witnesses before the court.

- Understanding "compulsory process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "compulsory process."

---

confederate states (noun)

The southern states that seceded from the United States in 1861.

- Understanding "confederate states" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "confederate states" because he had never seen it before.

---

contingent on (adjective)

Determined by conditions or circumstances that follow.

- Arms sales contingent on the approval of congress.
- Would you call this situation "contingent on"? Explain why.

---

cookie jar (noun)

A jar in which cookies are kept (and sometimes money is hidden).

- They discussed "cookie jar" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cookie jar" to mean a jar in which cookies are kept (and sometimes....

---

coping saw (noun)

A handsaw with a taut thin blade; used for cutting small curves in wood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coping saw."
- He looked up "coping saw" because he had never seen it before.

---

corrections (noun)

The department of local government that is responsible for managing the treatment of convicted offenders.

- For a career in corrections turn to the web site of the New Jersey Department of Corrections.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corrections."

---

cosmic dust (noun)

Clouds of particles or gases occurring throughout interstellar space.

- Understanding "cosmic dust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cosmic dust" means with a simple example.

---

cosmic string (noun)

(cosmology) a hypothetical one-dimensional subatomic particle having a concentration of energy and the dynamic properties of a flexible loop.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cosmic string."
- He looked up "cosmic string" because he had never seen it before.

---

councillor (noun)

A member of a council.

- Understanding "councillor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "councillor" during the group presentation.

---

cowboy boot (noun)

A boot with a high arch and fancy stitching; worn by American cowboys.

- They discussed "cowboy boot" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cowboy boot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cross-linguistic (adjective)

Relating to different languages.

- Cross-linguistic evidence.
- Would you call this situation "cross-linguistic"? Explain why.

---

cyclists (noun)

A person who rides a bicycle.

- Understanding “cyclists” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “cyclists” means with a simple example.

---

czech monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Czech Republic.

- Understanding “czech monetary unit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “czech monetary unit.”

---

daniels (noun)

A wise and upright judge; – Shakespeare.

- He looked up “daniels” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “daniels” during the group presentation.

---

deprived (adjective)

Marked by deprivation especially of the necessities of life or healthful environmental influences.

- A childhood that was unhappy and deprived, the family living off charity.
- Boys from a deprived environment, wherein the family life revealed a pattern of neglect, moral degradation, and disregard for law.

---

diplomat (noun)

A person who deals tactfully with others.

- In class, the teacher used “diplomat” to mean a person who deals tactfully with others.
- They discussed “diplomat” during the group presentation.

---

disciplines (noun)

A system of rules of conduct or method of practice.

- They discussed “disciplines” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “disciplines” means with a simple example.

---

doctor’s bill (noun)

Statement of charges for medical services.

- Understanding “doctor’s bill” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “doctor’s bill.”

---

dos (noun)

The federal department in the United States that sets and maintains foreign policies.

- Understanding “dos” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dos.”

---

double boiler (noun)

Two saucepans, one fitting inside the other.

- Understanding “double boiler” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “double boiler” because he had never seen it before.

---

down feather (noun)

Soft fine feathers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “down feather.”
- The article explained what “down feather” means with a simple example.

---

drained (adjective)

Emptied or exhausted of (as by drawing off e.g. water or other liquid).

- A drained marsh.
- A drained tank.

---

dumb cane (noun)

An evergreen plant with large showy dark green leaves; contains a poison that swells the tongue and throat hence the name.

- They discussed “dumb cane” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “dumb cane” to mean an evergreen plant with large showy dark green....

eldest (noun)

The offspring who came first in the order of birth.

- They discussed "eldest" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "eldest" because he had never seen it before.

electron radiation (noun)

Radiation of beta particles during radioactive decay.

- They discussed "electron radiation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "electron radiation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

emphasize (verb)

To stress, single out as important.

- Dr. Jones emphasizes exercise in addition to a change in diet.
- Her gesture emphasized her words.

entirety (noun)

The state of being total and complete.

- He read the article in its entirety.
- Understanding "entirety" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

equal-area map projection (noun)

A map projection in which quadrilaterals formed by meridians and parallels have an area on the map proportional to their area on the globe.

- The article explained what "equal-area map projection" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "equal-area map projection."

facial gesture (noun)

A gesture executed with the facial muscles.

- The article explained what "facial gesture" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "facial gesture."

fallout (noun)

Any adverse and unwanted secondary effect.

- A strategy to contain the fallout from the accounting scandal.
- The article explained what "fallout" means with a simple example.

fatty tissue (noun)

A kind of body tissue containing stored fat that serves as a source of energy; it also cushions and insulates vital organs.

- Fatty tissue protected them from the severe cold.
- They discussed "fatty tissue" during the group presentation.

feather (noun)

The light horny waterproof structure forming the external covering of birds.

- The article explained what "feather" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "feather" during the group presentation.

fiber bundle (noun)

A bundle of fibers (especially nerve fibers).

- He looked up "fiber bundle" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fiber bundle" during the group presentation.

field emission (noun)

The emission of electrons that are stripped from parent atoms by a high electric field.

- The article explained what "field emission" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "field emission" to mean the emission of electrons that are stripped from....

figuring (noun)

Problem solving that involves numbers or quantities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “figuring.”
- They discussed “figuring” during the group presentation.

---

financed (verb)

Obtain or provide money for.

- She tried to use “financed” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “financed” and when to wait.

---

fire trench (noun)

A trench especially constructed for the delivery of small-arms fire.

- In class, the teacher used “fire trench” to mean a trench especially constructed for the delivery of....
- They discussed “fire trench” during the group presentation.

---

firearm (noun)

A portable gun.

- He wore his firearm in a shoulder holster.
- He looked up “firearm” because he had never seen it before.

---

fisheries (noun)

A workplace where fish are caught and processed and sold.

- Understanding “fisheries” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “fisheries” during the group presentation.

---

fishing worm (noun)

Terrestrial worm that burrows into and helps aerate soil; often surfaces when the ground is cool or wet; used as bait by anglers.

- They discussed “fishing worm” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fishing worm.”

---

flag waving (noun)

An appeal intended to arouse patriotic emotions.

- Understanding “flag waving” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “flag waving” because he had never seen it before.

---

flag-waving (adjective)

Fanatically patriotic.

- The speaker chose “flag-waving” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “flag-waving.”

---

flame-coloured (adjective)

Having the brilliant orange-red color of flames.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “flame-coloured.”
- Students compared “flame-coloured” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

flock (noun)

A church congregation guided by a pastor.

- They discussed “flock” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “flock” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flyers (noun)

An advertisement (usually printed on a page or in a leaflet) intended for wide distribution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “flyers.”
- Understanding “flyers” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

folding money (noun)

Currency issued by a government or central bank and consisting of printed paper that can circulate as a substitute for specie.

- The article explained what “folding money” means with a simple example.

- Understanding “folding money” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

folding saw (noun)

A saw with a toothed blade that folds into a handle (the way a pocketknife folds).

- He looked up “folding saw” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “folding saw” to mean a saw with a toothed blade that folds into a handle....

footsteps (noun)

The distance covered by a step.

- He heard footsteps on the porch.
- The article explained what “footsteps” means with a simple example.

forestry (noun)

The science of planting and caring for forests and the management of growing timber.

- In class, the teacher used “forestry” to mean the science of planting and caring for forests and....
- The article explained what “forestry” means with a simple example.

frederick jackson turner (noun)

United States historian who stressed the role of the western frontier in American history (1861-1951).

- In class, the teacher used “frederick jackson turner” to mean united states historian who stressed the role of....
- The article explained what “frederick jackson turner” means with a simple example.

french west indies (noun)

The islands in the Lesser Antilles that are administered by France.

- They discussed “french west indies” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “french west indies” because he had never seen it before.

garden hose (noun)

A hose used for watering a lawn or garden.

- Understanding “garden hose” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “garden hose” means with a simple example.

gas stove (noun)

A range with gas rings and an oven for cooking with gas.

- Understanding “gas stove” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “gas stove” means with a simple example.

gentle breeze (noun)

Wind moving 8-12 knots; 3 on the Beaufort scale.

- In class, the teacher used “gentle breeze” to mean wind moving 8-12 knots; 3 on the beaufort scale.
- They discussed “gentle breeze” during the group presentation.

gerald ford (noun)

38th President of the United States; appointed vice president and succeeded Nixon when Nixon resigned (1913-).

- Understanding “gerald ford” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “gerald ford” during the group presentation.

ghetto (noun)

Any segregated mode of living or working that results from bias or stereotyping.

- The relative security of the gay ghetto.
- No escape from the ghetto of the typing pool.

grim (adjective)

Not to be placated or appeased or moved by entreaty.

- Grim determination.
- Grim necessity.

helpless (adjective)

Lacking in or deprived of strength or power.

- Lying ill and helpless.
- Helpless with laughter.

---

hemisphere (noun)

Either half of the cerebrum.

- He looked up "hemisphere" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hemisphere" during the group presentation.

---

herb simon (noun)

United States economist and psychologist who pioneered in the development of cognitive science (1916-2001).

- The article explained what "herb simon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "herb simon" to mean united states economist and psychologist who....

---

hides (noun)

The dressed skin of an animal (especially a large animal).

- The article explained what "hides" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hides" during the group presentation.

---

horny layer (noun)

The outermost layer of the epidermis consisting of dead cells that slough off.

- They discussed "horny layer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "horny layer" to mean the outermost layer of the epidermis consisting of....

---

housed (verb)

Contain or cover.

- The immigrants were housed in a new development outside the town.
- Learners should practice how to use "housed" in real sentences.

---

hs (noun)

A radioactive transuranic element.

- The article explained what "hs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hs" to mean a radioactive transuranic element.

---

hundred-and-seventy-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of one hundred seventy-five in counting order.

- The speaker chose "hundred-and-seventy-fifth" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "hundred-and-seventy-fifth" when it is the ordinal number of one hundred seventy-five in....

---

hungarian grass (noun)

Coarse drought-resistant annual grass grown for grain, hay, and forage in Europe and Asia and chiefly for forage and hay in United States.

- The article explained what "hungarian grass" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hungarian grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hydraulic engineering (noun)

The branch of civil engineering dealing with the use and control of water in motion.

- In class, the teacher used "hydraulic engineering" to mean the branch of civil engineering dealing with the....
- Understanding "hydraulic engineering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

idle talk (noun)

Idle or foolish and irrelevant talk.

- He looked up "idle talk" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "idle talk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

idle words (noun)

Empty rhetoric or insincere or exaggerated talk.

- The article explained what "idle words" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "idle words" during the group presentation.

---

inconvenience (verb)

To cause inconvenience or discomfort to.

- Learners should practice how to use "inconvenience" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "inconvenience" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

incorporating (verb)

Make into a whole or make part of a whole.

- In everyday English, people use "incorporating" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "incorporating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

inflammatory disease (noun)

A disease characterized by inflammation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inflammatory disease."
- He looked up "inflammatory disease" because he had never seen it before.

---

injected (verb)

To insert between other elements.

- We injected the glucose into the patient's vein.
- He injected new life into the performance.

---

insured (noun)

A person whose interests are protected by an insurance policy; a person who contracts for an insurance policy that indemnifies him against loss of property or life or health etc.

- In class, the teacher used "insured" to mean a person whose interests are protected by an....
- He looked up "insured" because he had never seen it before.

---

intends (verb)

Have in mind as a purpose.

- Can you use "intends" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "intends" when talking about this idea.

---

intervals (noun)

The distance between things.

- In class, the teacher used "intervals" to mean the distance between things.
- The article explained what "intervals" means with a simple example.

---

intriguing (adjective)

Capable of arousing interest or curiosity.

- Our team came up with some most intriguing finds.
- An intriguing smile.

---

invasive (adjective)

Marked by a tendency to spread especially into healthy tissue.

- Invasive cancer cells.
- A "invasive" approach may work better in this case.

---

iq (noun)

A measure of a person's intelligence as indicated by an intelligence test; the ratio of a person's mental age to their chronological age (multiplied by 100).

- Understanding "iq" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "iq" means with a simple example.

---

iraqi monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Iraq.

- They discussed "iraqi monetary unit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "iraqi monetary unit" means with a simple example.

isaac hull (noun)

United States naval officer who commanded the 'Constitution' during the War of 1812 and won a series of brilliant victories against the British (1773-1843).

- He looked up "isaac hull" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "isaac hull" to mean united states naval officer who commanded the....

ix (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of eight and one.

- The article explained what "ix" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ix" during the group presentation.

jamaica shorts (noun)

Short pants that end at the knee.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jamaica shorts."
- The article explained what "jamaica shorts" means with a simple example.

james douglas morrison (noun)

United States rock singer (1943-1971).

- In class, the teacher used "james douglas morrison" to mean united states rock singer (1943-1971).
- He looked up "james douglas morrison" because he had never seen it before.

jeffrey pine (noun)

Tall symmetrical pine of western North America having long blue-green needles in bunches of 3 and elongated cones on spreading somewhat pendulous branches; sometimes classified as a variety of ponderosa pine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jeffrey pine."
- The article explained what "jeffrey pine" means with a simple example.

jelly egg (noun)

Sugar-glazed jellied candy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jelly egg."
- He looked up "jelly egg" because he had never seen it before.

john wesley (noun)

English clergyman and founder of Methodism (1703-1791).

- In class, the teacher used "john wesley" to mean english clergyman and founder of methodism (1703-1791).
- They discussed "john wesley" during the group presentation.

jumper lead (noun)

A jumper that consists of a short piece of wire.

- It was a tangle of jumper cables and clip leads.
- They discussed "jumper lead" during the group presentation.

king of beasts (noun)

Large gregarious predatory feline of Africa and India having a tawny coat with a shaggy mane in the male.

- In class, the teacher used "king of beasts" to mean large gregarious predatory feline of africa and....
- The article explained what "king of beasts" means with a simple example.

lamb curry (noun)

Curry made with lamb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lamb curry."
- They discussed "lamb curry" during the group presentation.

lastly (adverb)

The item at the end.

- The narrator describes the scene "lastly" in the final chapter.
- Using "lastly" can make your explanation more exact.

law offender (noun)

Someone who violates the law.

- The article explained what "law offender" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "law offender."

liberties (noun)

Leave granted to a sailor or naval officer.

- The article explained what "liberties" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "liberties" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

light-haired (adjective)

Being or having light colored skin and hair and usually blue or grey eyes.

- A house full of light-haired children.
- Would you call this situation "light-haired"? Explain why.

linguistic unit (noun)

One of the natural units into which linguistic messages can be analyzed.

- The article explained what "linguistic unit" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "linguistic unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lipstick (verb)

Form by tracing with lipstick.

- The clown had lipsticked circles on his cheeks.
- She lipsticked her mouth.

liquid metal reactor (noun)

A nuclear reactor using liquid metal as a coolant.

- The article explained what "liquid metal reactor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "liquid metal reactor" during the group presentation.

liquor licence (noun)

A license authorizing the holder to sell alcoholic beverages.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liquor licence."
- He looked up "liquor licence" because he had never seen it before.

lose one's temper (verb)

Get very angry and fly into a rage.

- She tried to use "lose one's temper" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "lose one's temper" when talking about this idea.

loud-voiced (adjective)

Having an unusually loud voice.

- A "loud-voiced" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "loud-voiced" because it captured the feeling precisely.

louis viii (noun)

King of France who increased the power of the Crown over the feudal lords (1187-1226).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "louis viii."
- Understanding "louis viii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lust for learning (noun)

Curiosity that motivates investigation and study.

- The article explained what "lust for learning" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lust for learning" during the group presentation.

manipulate (verb)

Influence or control shrewdly or deviously.

- He manipulated public opinion in his favor.
- She manipulates her boss.

---

maritime provinces (noun)

The collective name for the Canadian provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maritime provinces."
- He looked up "maritime provinces" because he had never seen it before.

---

mart (noun)

An area in a town where a public mercantile establishment is set up.

- He looked up "mart" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mart" during the group presentation.

---

matrix printer (noun)

A printer that represents each character as a pattern of dots from a dot matrix.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matrix printer."
- He looked up "matrix printer" because he had never seen it before.

---

method of least squares (noun)

A method of fitting a curve to data points so as to minimize the sum of the squares of the distances of the points from the curve.

- The article explained what "method of least squares" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "method of least squares" to mean a method of fitting a curve to data points so as to....

---

mexican jumping bean (noun)

Seed of Mexican shrubs of the genus Sebastiana containing the larva of a moth whose movements cause the bean to jerk or tumble.

- They discussed "mexican jumping bean" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mexican jumping bean" to mean seed of mexican shrubs of the genus sebastiana....

---

midlands (noun)

A town in west central Texas.

- He looked up "midlands" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "midlands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

midway (noun)

The place at a fair or carnival where sideshows and similar amusements are located.

- The article explained what "midway" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "midway" to mean the place at a fair or carnival where sideshows and....

---

mine detector (noun)

Detector consisting of an electromagnetic device; used to locate explosive mines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mine detector."
- He looked up "mine detector" because he had never seen it before.

---

moist (adjective)

Slightly wet.

- A moist breeze.
- Eyes moist with tears.

---

monarch (noun)

A nation's ruler or head of state usually by hereditary right.

- In class, the teacher used "monarch" to mean a nation's ruler or head of state usually by....
- The article explained what "monarch" means with a simple example.

---

monuments (noun)

A burial vault (usually for some famous person).

- Understanding "monuments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "monuments" means with a simple example.

mortgages (noun)

A conditional conveyance of property as security for the repayment of a loan.

- The article explained what "mortgages" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mortgages" to mean a conditional conveyance of property as security....

mu (noun)

The 12th letter of the Greek alphabet.

- He looked up "mu" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mu" during the group presentation.

multi-billionaire (noun)

A very rich person whose material wealth is valued at many billions of dollars.

- He looked up "multi-billionaire" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "multi-billionaire" to mean a very rich person whose material wealth is valued....

mustard (noun)

Any of several cruciferous plants of the genus Brassica.

- In class, the teacher used "mustard" to mean any of several cruciferous plants of the genus brassica.
- They discussed "mustard" during the group presentation.

mustard family (noun)

A large family of plants with four-petaled flowers; includes mustards, cabbages, broccoli, turnips, cresses, and their many relatives.

- Understanding "mustard family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mustard family" during the group presentation.

negatively (adverb)

In a negative way.

- He was negatively inclined.
- He was negatively affected.

neighbour (noun)

A nearby object of the same kind.

- The article explained what "neighbour" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "neighbour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ninety-eight (adjective)

Being eight more than ninety.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ninety-eight."
- The speaker chose "ninety-eight" because it captured the feeling precisely.

ninety-seven (adjective)

Being seven more than ninety.

- A "ninety-seven" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "ninety-seven" when it is being seven more than ninety.

nissan (noun)

The seventh month of the civil year; the first month of the ecclesiastic year (in March and April).

- He looked up "nissan" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "nissan" to mean the seventh month of the civil year; the first....

norwegian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Norway.

- The article explained what "norwegian monetary unit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "norwegian monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in norway.

notebook entry (noun)

An entry in a notebook.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "notebook entry."
- They discussed "notebook entry" during the group presentation.

---

objections (noun)

The act of expressing earnest opposition or protest.

- He looked up "objections" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "objections" to mean the act of expressing earnest opposition or protest.

---

occupational disease (noun)

Disease or disability resulting from conditions of employment (usually from long exposure to a noxious substance or from continuous repetition of certain acts).

- Understanding "occupational disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "occupational disease" means with a simple example.

---

oil slick (noun)

A thin film of oil floating on top of water (especially crude oil spilled from a ship).

- Understanding "oil slick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "oil slick" to mean a thin film of oil floating on top of water....

---

open fracture (noun)

Bone fracture associated with lacerated soft tissue or an open wound.

- In class, the teacher used "open fracture" to mean bone fracture associated with lacerated soft tissue....
- The article explained what "open fracture" means with a simple example.

---

oriental plane (noun)

Large tree of southeastern Europe to Asia Minor.

- In class, the teacher used "oriental plane" to mean large tree of southeastern europe to asia minor.
- He looked up "oriental plane" because he had never seen it before.

---

partial correlation (noun)

A correlation between two variables when the effects of one or more related variables are removed.

- They discussed "partial correlation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "partial correlation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

peach ice cream (noun)

Ice cream flavored with fresh peaches.

- He looked up "peach ice cream" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "peach ice cream" to mean ice cream flavored with fresh peaches.

---

petrol engine (noun)

An internal-combustion engine that burns gasoline; most automobiles are driven by gasoline engines.

- He looked up "petrol engine" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "petrol engine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

philippine islands (noun)

An archipelago in the southwestern Pacific including some 7000 islands.

- Understanding "philippine islands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "philippine islands."

---

photographic plate (noun)

A flat sheet of metal or glass on which a photographic image can be recorded.

- In class, the teacher used "photographic plate" to mean a flat sheet of metal or glass on which a....
- The article explained what "photographic plate" means with a simple example.

---

photographic print (noun)

A printed picture produced from a photographic negative.

- They discussed "photographic print" during the group presentation.

- Understanding "photographic print" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pink paper daisy (noun)

Flower of southwestern Australia having bright pink daisylike papery flowers; grown for drying.

- In class, the teacher used "pink paper daisy" to mean flower of southwestern australia having bright pink....
- He looked up "pink paper daisy" because he had never seen it before.

pitcher-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a pitcher.

- The speaker chose "pitcher-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "pitcher-shaped" approach may work better in this case.

plantation owner (noun)

The owner or manager of a plantation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plantation owner."
- They discussed "plantation owner" during the group presentation.

plaque (noun)

(pathology) a small abnormal patch on or inside the body.

- In class, the teacher used "plaque" to mean (pathology) a small abnormal patch on or inside the....
- They discussed "plaque" during the group presentation.

plate armour (noun)

Specially hardened steel plate used to protect fortifications or vehicles from enemy fire.

- He looked up "plate armour" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plate armour."

plymouth (noun)

A town in Massachusetts founded by Pilgrims in 1620.

- He looked up "plymouth" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plymouth."

poetic (adjective)

Of or relating to poets.

- Poetic insight.
- Poetic works.

policeman bird (noun)

Large mostly white Australian stork.

- The article explained what "policeman bird" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "policeman bird" to mean large mostly white australian stork.

polished rice (noun)

Having husk or outer brown layers removed.

- They discussed "polished rice" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "polished rice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

politically incorrect (adjective)

Exhibiting political incorrectness.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "politically incorrect."
- Would you call this situation "politically incorrect"? Explain why.

prairie fire (noun)

An uncontrolled fire in a grassy area.

- Understanding "prairie fire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "prairie fire" during the group presentation.

preach (verb)

Speak, plead, or argue in favor of.

- The minister is not preaching this Sunday.
- In everyday English, people use "preach" when talking about this idea.

---

preaching (noun)

An address of a religious nature (usually delivered during a church service).

- Your preaching is wasted on him.
- The article explained what "preaching" means with a simple example.

---

premature baby (noun)

An infant that is born prior to 37 weeks of gestation.

- They discussed "premature baby" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "premature baby" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

princes (noun)

A male member of a royal family other than the sovereign (especially the son of a sovereign).

- In class, the teacher used "princes" to mean a male member of a royal family other than the....
- The article explained what "princes" means with a simple example.

---

pro-inflammatory (adjective)

Tending to cause inflammation.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pro-inflammatory."
- Would you call this situation "pro-inflammatory"? Explain why.

---

proposing (verb)

Make a proposal, declare a plan for something.

- In everyday English, people use "proposing" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "proposing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pulse generator (noun)

A generator of single or multiple voltage pulses; usually adjustable for pulse rate.

- He looked up "pulse generator" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pulse generator" to mean a generator of single or multiple voltage pulses;....

---

punjab (noun)

A historical region on northwestern India and northern Pakistan.

- He looked up "punjab" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "punjab."

---

purity (noun)

The state of being unsullied by sin or moral wrong; lacking a knowledge of evil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purity."
- He looked up "purity" because he had never seen it before.

---

quarter-vine (noun)

Woody flowering vine of southern United States; stems show a cross in transverse section.

- The article explained what "quarter-vine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "quarter-vine" to mean woody flowering vine of southern united states;....

---

rabbi (noun)

A Hebrew title of respect for a Jewish scholar or teacher.

- Understanding "rabbi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "rabbi" during the group presentation.

---

radioactive waste (noun)

Useless radioactive materials that are left after some laboratory or commercial process is completed.

- The article explained what "radioactive waste" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "radioactive waste" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rare-roasted (adjective)

(meat) roasted with the meat inside still rare.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rare-roasted."
- Students compared "rare-roasted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rational motive (noun)

A motive that can be defended by reasoning or logical argument.

- Understanding "rational motive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rational motive" to mean a motive that can be defended by reasoning or....

---

razor fish (noun)

Any of several small wrasses with compressed sharp-edged heads of the West Indies and Mediterranean.

- Understanding "razor fish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "razor fish."

---

razor-fish (noun)

Any of several small wrasses with compressed sharp-edged heads of the West Indies and Mediterranean.

- The article explained what "razor-fish" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "razor-fish" to mean any of several small wrasses with compressed....

---

realism (noun)

The state of being actual or real.

- They discussed "realism" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "realism."

---

receipts (noun)

The entire amount of income before any deductions are made.

- They discussed "receipts" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "receipts" to mean the entire amount of income before any deductions....

---

republic of the congo (noun)

A republic in west-central Africa; achieved independence from France in 1960.

- Understanding "republic of the congo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "republic of the congo" means with a simple example.

---

respiratory disorder (noun)

A disease affecting the respiratory system.

- In class, the teacher used "respiratory disorder" to mean a disease affecting the respiratory system.
- He looked up "respiratory disorder" because he had never seen it before.

---

retrieve (verb)

Run after, pick up, and bring to the master.

- Train the dog to retrieve.
- Retrieve the car from the parking garage.

---

rhodes (noun)

A Greek island in the southeast Aegean Sea 10 miles off the Turkish coast; the largest of the Dodecanese; it was colonized before 1000 BC by Dorians from Argos; site of the Colossus of Rhodes.

- The article explained what "rhodes" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rhodes" during the group presentation.

---

ri (noun)

A state in New England; one of the original 13 colonies; the smallest state.

- The article explained what "ri" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ri" to mean a state in new england; one of the original 13....

right hemisphere (noun)

The cerebral hemisphere to the right of the corpus callosum that controls the left half of the body.

- Understanding "right hemisphere" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "right hemisphere" to mean the cerebral hemisphere to the right of the corpus....

river boulder (noun)

A boulder that has been carried by a river to a place remote from its place of origin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "river boulder."
- He looked up "river boulder" because he had never seen it before.

rosa parks (noun)

United States civil rights leader who refused to give up her seat on a bus to a white man in Montgomery (Alabama) and so triggered the national Civil Rights movement (born in 1913).

- In class, the teacher used "rosa parks" to mean united states civil rights leader who refused to....
- The article explained what "rosa parks" means with a simple example.

saddle horse (noun)

A lightweight horse kept for riding only.

- He looked up "saddle horse" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saddle horse."

saint valentine's day (noun)

A day for the exchange of tokens of affection.

- They discussed "saint valentine's day" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "saint valentine's day" means with a simple example.

salmon berry (noun)

White-flowered raspberry of western North America and northern Mexico with thimble-shaped orange berries.

- In class, the teacher used "salmon berry" to mean white-flowered raspberry of western north america....
- Understanding "salmon berry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

scoop out (verb)

Take out or up with or as if with a scoop.

- Scoop the sugar out of the container.
- Scoop out a melon.

scoop up (verb)

Take out or up with or as if with a scoop.

- Scoop the sugar out of the container.
- He did not know how to use "scoop up" until he saw an example.

scotch (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Scotland or its people or culture or its English dialect or Gaelic language.

- 'Scotch' is in disfavor with Scottish people and is used primarily outside Scotland except in such frozen phrases as 'Scotch broth' or 'Scotch whiskey' or 'Scotch plaid'.
- Would you call this situation "scotch"? Explain why.

scrub (verb)

Postpone indefinitely or annul something that was scheduled.

- We had to scrub our vacation plans.
- She scrubbed his back.

seed shrimp (noun)

Tiny marine and freshwater crustaceans with a shrimp-like body enclosed in a bivalve shell.

- He looked up "seed shrimp" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seed shrimp."

separating (verb)

Arrange or order by classes or categories.

- She tried to use "separating" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "separating" in real sentences.

---

sewing (noun)

Needlework on which you are working with needle and thread.

- She put her sewing back in the basket.
- They discussed "sewing" during the group presentation.

---

sex offender (noun)

Someone who has been convicted of a sex crime.

- The article explained what "sex offender" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sex offender" to mean someone who has been convicted of a sex crime.

---

shale (noun)

A sedimentary rock formed by the deposition of successive layers of clay.

- The article explained what "shale" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "shale" during the group presentation.

---

shaping machine (noun)

A machine tool for shaping metal or wood.

- The article explained what "shaping machine" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "shaping machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shin (noun)

A cut of meat from the lower part of the leg.

- Understanding "shin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "shin" because he had never seen it before.

---

short-haired (adjective)

With short hair.

- A short-haired dog.
- Would you call this situation "short-haired"? Explain why.

---

shrimp butter (noun)

Butter blended with chopped shrimp or seasoned with essence from shrimp shells.

- The article explained what "shrimp butter" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "shrimp butter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

simplified (adjective)

Made easy or uncomplicated.

- It is useful to describe something as "simplified" when it is made easy or uncomplicated.
- Students compared "simplified" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

single-stranded (adjective)

Having a single strand.

- Single-stranded RNA.
- Students compared "single-stranded" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

slipping (adjective)

Moving as on a slippery surface.

- His slipping and slithering progress over the ice.
- It is useful to describe something as "slipping" when it is moving as on a slippery surface.

---

smoke-cured (adjective)

(used especially of meats and fish) dried and cured by hanging in wood smoke.

- The speaker chose "smoke-cured" because it captured the feeling precisely.

- It is useful to describe something as "smoke-cured" when it is (used especially of meats and fish) dried and cured....

---

solicitor (noun)

A petitioner who solicits contributions or trade or votes.

- In class, the teacher used "solicitor" to mean a petitioner who solicits contributions or trade or....
- The article explained what "solicitor" means with a simple example.

---

sophomore (noun)

A second-year undergraduate.

- He looked up "sophomore" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sophomore."

---

soup spoon (noun)

A spoon with a rounded bowl for eating soup.

- Understanding "soup spoon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soup spoon."

---

southern crab apple (noun)

Small tree or shrub of southeastern United States; cultivated as an ornamental for its rose-colored blossoms.

- In class, the teacher used "southern crab apple" to mean small tree or shrub of southeastern united states;....
- Understanding "southern crab apple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spear-point (noun)

The head and sharpened point of a spear.

- He looked up "spear-point" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spear-point."

---

spinal nerve (noun)

Any of the 31 pairs of nerves emerging from each side of the spinal cord (each attached to the cord by two roots: ventral and dorsal).

- They discussed "spinal nerve" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "spinal nerve" to mean any of the 31 pairs of nerves emerging from each....

---

spreads (noun)

A meal that is well prepared and greatly enjoyed.

- He looked up "spreads" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "spreads" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

squadron (noun)

An air force unit larger than a flight and smaller than a group.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "squadron."
- The article explained what "squadron" means with a simple example.

---

square knot (noun)

A double knot made of two half hitches and used to join the ends of two cords.

- They discussed "square knot" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "square knot" to mean a double knot made of two half hitches and used to....

---

squirrel (noun)

A kind of arboreal rodent having a long bushy tail.

- They discussed "squirrel" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "squirrel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sri lanka (noun)

A republic on the island of Ceylon; became independent of the United Kingdom in 1948.

- The article explained what "sri lanka" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sri lanka" during the group presentation.

---

stalin (noun)

Russian leader who succeeded Lenin as head of the Communist Party and created a totalitarian state by purging all opposition (1879-1953).

- The article explained what "stalin" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stalin" to mean russian leader who succeeded lenin as head of the....

---

stickers (noun)

A particularly difficult or baffling question or problem.

- Understanding "stickers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "stickers" during the group presentation.

---

strawberry tree (noun)

Small evergreen European shrubby tree bearing many-seeded scarlet berries that are edible but bland; of Ireland, southern Europe, Asia Minor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strawberry tree."
- He looked up "strawberry tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

strengthened (adjective)

Given added strength or support.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "strengthened."
- Would you call this situation "strengthened"? Explain why.

---

subway fare (noun)

The fare charged for riding a subway train.

- The article explained what "subway fare" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "subway fare" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sucking pig (noun)

An unweaned piglet.

- He looked up "sucking pig" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sucking pig."

---

sudden infant death syndrome (noun)

Sudden and unexpected death of an apparently healthy infant during sleep.

- In class, the teacher used "sudden infant death syndrome" to mean sudden and unexpected death of an apparently....
- They discussed "sudden infant death syndrome" during the group presentation.

---

swamp fever (noun)

An infectious disease cause by leptospira and transmitted to humans from domestic animals; characterized by jaundice and fever.

- He looked up "swamp fever" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swamp fever."

---

taco (noun)

A tortilla rolled cupped around a filling.

- The article explained what "taco" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "taco" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

take the bull by the horns (verb)

Face a difficulty and grapple with it without avoiding it.

- In everyday English, people use "take the bull by the horns" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "take the bull by the horns" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

taliban (noun)

A fundamentalist Islamic militia; in 1995 the Taliban militia took over Afghanistan and in 1996 took Kabul and set up an Islamic government.

- The Taliban enforced a strict Muslim code of behavior.
- They discussed "taliban" during the group presentation.

---

tapped (adjective)

In a condition for letting out liquid drawn out as by piercing or drawing a plug.

- Latex from tapped rubber trees.
- Would you call this situation "tapped"? Explain why.

---

thor (noun)

(Norse mythology) god of thunder and rain and farming; pictured as wielding a hammer emblematic of the thunderbolt; identified with Teutonic Donar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thor."
- He looked up "thor" because he had never seen it before.

---

throw rug (noun)

A small rug; several can be used in a room.

- In class, the teacher used "throw rug" to mean a small rug; several can be used in a room.
- Understanding "throw rug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thumbs (verb)

Look through a book or other written material.

- He did not know how to use "thumbs" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "thumbs" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

tidal current (noun)

The water current caused by the tides.

- The article explained what "tidal current" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tidal current" to mean the water current caused by the tides.

---

tinder (noun)

Material for starting a fire.

- He looked up "tinder" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tinder" during the group presentation.

---

titan (noun)

A person of exceptional importance and reputation.

- He looked up "titan" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "titan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

toll collector (noun)

Someone employed to collect tolls.

- Understanding "toll collector" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "toll collector" during the group presentation.

---

toll plaza (noun)

An area where tollbooths are located.

- The article explained what "toll plaza" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "toll plaza" to mean an area where tollbooths are located.

---

trait (noun)

A distinguishing feature of your personal nature.

- Understanding "trait" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "trait" means with a simple example.

---

traitor (noun)

A person who says one thing and does another.

- They discussed "traitor" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "traitor" to mean a person who says one thing and does another.

---

troop (noun)

A cavalry unit corresponding to an infantry company.

- A troop of children.
- In class, the teacher used "troop" to mean a cavalry unit corresponding to an infantry company.

truths (noun)

The quality of being near to the true value.

- He looked up "truths" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "truths" to mean the quality of being near to the true value.

underestimate (noun)

An estimation that is too low; an estimate that is less than the true or actual value.

- He looked up "underestimate" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "underestimate" to mean an estimation that is too low; an estimate that is....

urges (verb)

Force or impel in an indicated direction.

- The coach explained when to use "urges" and when to wait.
- Can you use "urges" in a sentence that fits this situation?

valuation reserve (noun)

A reserve fund created by a charge against profits in order to provide for changes in the value of a company's assets.

- They discussed "valuation reserve" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "valuation reserve" means with a simple example.

volcanic rock (noun)

Extrusive igneous rock solidified near or on the surface of the Earth.

- Understanding "volcanic rock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "volcanic rock" to mean extrusive igneous rock solidified near or on the....

volcano islands (noun)

A group of Japanese Islands in the northwestern Pacific Ocean to the north of the Marianas.

- In class, the teacher used "volcano islands" to mean a group of japanese islands in the northwestern....
- The article explained what "volcano islands" means with a simple example.

waist anchor (noun)

Spare anchor for use in emergency.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "waist anchor."
- They discussed "waist anchor" during the group presentation.

wallpaper (noun)

A decorative paper for the walls of rooms.

- Understanding "wallpaper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wallpaper" means with a simple example.

warren earl burger (noun)

United States jurist appointed chief justice of the United States Supreme Court by Richard Nixon (1907-1995).

- He looked up "warren earl burger" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "warren earl burger" during the group presentation.

washington irving (noun)

United States writer remembered for his stories (1783-1859).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "washington irving."
- The article explained what "washington irving" means with a simple example.

watt (noun)

A unit of power equal to 1 joule per second; the power dissipated by a current of 1 ampere flowing across a resistance of 1 ohm.

- He looked up "watt" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "watt."

wearing apparel (noun)

Clothing in general.

- She was refined in her choice of apparel.
- He looked up "wearing apparel" because he had never seen it before.

---

weighs (verb)

To be oppressive or burdensome; ,.

- He did not know how to use "weighs" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "weighs" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

wheat berry (noun)

Grains of common wheat; sometimes cooked whole or cracked as cereal; usually ground into flour.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wheat berry."
- The article explained what "wheat berry" means with a simple example.

---

white cinnamon (noun)

Highly aromatic inner bark of the Canella winterana used as a condiment and a tonic.

- In class, the teacher used "white cinnamon" to mean highly aromatic inner bark of the canella winterana....
- They discussed "white cinnamon" during the group presentation.

---

white-haired (adjective)

Showing characteristics of age, especially having grey or white hair; -Coleridge.

- A "white-haired" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "white-haired" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

willis (noun)

English physician who was a pioneer in the study of the brain (1621-1675).

- In class, the teacher used "willis" to mean english physician who was a pioneer in the study of....
- Understanding "willis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

willow (noun)

A textile machine having a system of revolving spikes for opening and cleaning raw textile fibers.

- He looked up "willow" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "willow."

---

willow family (noun)

Two genera of trees or shrubs having hairy catkins: Salix; Populus.

- In class, the teacher used "willow family" to mean two genera of trees or shrubs having hairy catkins:....
- The article explained what "willow family" means with a simple example.

---

wisdom of solomon (noun)

An Apocryphal book consisting mainly of a meditation on wisdom; although ascribed to Solomon it was probably written in the first century BC.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wisdom of solomon."
- Understanding "wisdom of solomon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

worm gear (noun)

Gear consisting of a shaft with screw thread (the worm) that meshes with a toothed wheel (the worm wheel); changes the direction of the axis of rotary motion.

- In class, the teacher used "worm gear" to mean gear consisting of a shaft with screw thread (the....
- Understanding "worm gear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wound tumor virus (noun)

A tumor virus transmitted by leafhoppers.

- They discussed "wound tumor virus" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "wound tumor virus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

acute organic brain syndrome (noun)

Any disorder (as sudden confusion or disorientation) in an otherwise normal person that is due to reversible (temporary) impairment of brain tissues (as by head injuries or drugs or infection).

- He looked up "acute organic brain syndrome" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acute organic brain syndrome."

---

addict (noun)

Someone who is so ardently devoted to something that it resembles an addiction.

- A golf addict.
- They discussed "addict" during the group presentation.

---

alaska fur seal (noun)

Of Pacific coast from Alaska southward to California.

- They discussed "alaska fur seal" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alaska fur seal."

---

ale (noun)

A general name for beer made with a top fermenting yeast; in some of the United States an ale is (by law) a brew of more than 4% alcohol by volume.

- In class, the teacher used "ale" to mean a general name for beer made with a top fermenting....
- The article explained what "ale" means with a simple example.

---

alpha-beta brass (noun)

A brass that has more zinc and is stronger than alpha brass; used in making castings and hot-worked products.

- He looked up "alpha-beta brass" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "alpha-beta brass" during the group presentation.

---

american saddle horse (noun)

A high-stepping horse originating in Kentucky.

- He looked up "american saddle horse" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "american saddle horse" to mean a high-stepping horse originating in kentucky.

---

ant cow (noun)

Excretes a honeylike substance eaten by ants.

- In class, the teacher used "ant cow" to mean excretes a honeylike substance eaten by ants.
- The article explained what "ant cow" means with a simple example.

---

archaeological (adjective)

Related to or dealing with or devoted to archaeology.

- An archaeological dig.
- A dramatic archaeological discovery.

---

assistants (noun)

A person who contributes to the fulfillment of a need or furtherance of an effort or purpose.

- The article explained what "assistants" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "assistants" to mean a person who contributes to the fulfillment of a....

---

australian coral snake (noun)

Small venomous but harmless snake marked with black-and-white on red.

- The article explained what "australian coral snake" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "australian coral snake" to mean small venomous but harmless snake marked with....

---

austria-hungary (noun)

A geographical area in central and eastern Europe; broken into separate countries at the end of World War I.

- In class, the teacher used "austria-hungary" to mean a geographical area in central and eastern europe;....
- He looked up "austria-hungary" because he had never seen it before.

---

automobile tire (noun)

A tire consisting of a rubber ring around the rim of an automobile wheel.

- They discussed "automobile tire" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "automobile tire" because he had never seen it before.

---

automobile trunk (noun)

Compartment in an automobile that carries luggage or shopping or tools.

- He put his golf bag in the trunk.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "automobile trunk."

---

auxiliary storage (noun)

A data storage device that is not the main memory of a computer.

- The article explained what "auxiliary storage" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "auxiliary storage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

az (noun)

A state in southwestern United States; site of the Grand Canyon.

- The article explained what "az" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "az" to mean a state in southwestern united states; site of the....

---

banging (noun)

A continuing very loud noise.

- In class, the teacher used "banging" to mean a continuing very loud noise.
- The article explained what "banging" means with a simple example.

---

bank gravel (noun)

Gravel as found in natural deposits.

- They discussed "bank gravel" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bank gravel" means with a simple example.

---

bengal (noun)

A region whose eastern part is now Bangladesh and whose western part is included in India.

- They discussed "bengal" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bengal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beta decay (noun)

Radioactive decay of an atomic nucleus that is accompanied by the emission of a beta particle.

- Understanding "beta decay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "beta decay" during the group presentation.

---

bill of indictment (noun)

A formal document written for a prosecuting attorney charging a person with some offense.

- The article explained what "bill of indictment" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bill of indictment."

---

bird genus (noun)

A genus of birds.

- They discussed "bird genus" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bird genus" means with a simple example.

---

black mustard (noun)

Widespread Eurasian annual plant cultivated for its pungent seeds; a principal source of table mustard.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black mustard."
- They discussed "black mustard" during the group presentation.

---

black squirrel (noun)

Fox squirrel or grey squirrel in the black color phase.

- In class, the teacher used "black squirrel" to mean fox squirrel or grey squirrel in the black color phase.
- They discussed "black squirrel" during the group presentation.

---

black willow (noun)

North American shrubby willow having dark bark and linear leaves growing close to streams and lakes.

- They discussed "black willow" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "black willow" because he had never seen it before.

---

black-coated (adjective)

Coated with black.

- Would you call this situation "black-coated"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "black-coated" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

blaze away (verb)

Perform (an acting passage) brilliantly and rapidly.

- Mr. Jones blazed away in one passage after another to loud applause.
- He blazed away at the men.

---

boiled (adjective)

Cooked in hot water.

- A "boiled" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "boiled" when it is cooked in hot water.

---

bonding (noun)

A close personal relationship that forms between people (as between husband and wife or parent and child).

- They discussed "bonding" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bonding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

book of exodus (noun)

The second book of the Old Testament: tells of the departure of the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt led by Moses; God gave them the Ten Commandments and the rest of Mosaic law on Mount Sinai during the Exodus.

- In class, the teacher used "book of exodus" to mean the second book of the old testament: tells of the....
- They discussed "book of exodus" during the group presentation.

---

bounds (noun)

The line or plane indicating the limit or extent of something.

- What he did was beyond the bounds of acceptable behavior.
- The article explained what "bounds" means with a simple example.

---

brake disk (noun)

A disk or plate that is fixed to the wheel; pressure is applied to it by the brake pads.

- He looked up "brake disk" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "brake disk" during the group presentation.

---

brake pad (noun)

One of the pads that apply friction to both sides of the brake disk.

- In class, the teacher used "brake pad" to mean one of the pads that apply friction to both sides....
- They discussed "brake pad" during the group presentation.

---

breeds (noun)

A special variety of domesticated animals within a species.

- They discussed "breeds" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breeds."

---

brown rot (noun)

Any of certain fungous diseases of plants characterized by browning and decay of tissues.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brown rot."
- He looked up "brown rot" because he had never seen it before.

---

brown-haired (adjective)

Having hair of a dark color.

- It is useful to describe something as "brown-haired" when it is having hair of a dark color.
- A "brown-haired" approach may work better in this case.

bumper car (noun)

A small low-powered electrically powered vehicle driven on a special platform where there are many others to be dodged.

- The article explained what "bumper car" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bumper car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

butterfly nut (noun)

A threaded nut with winglike projections for thumb and forefinger leverage in turning.

- In class, the teacher used "butterfly nut" to mean a threaded nut with winglike projections for thumb....
- They discussed "butterfly nut" during the group presentation.

byron (noun)

English romantic poet notorious for his rebellious and unconventional lifestyle (1788-1824).

- Understanding "byron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "byron" because he had never seen it before.

canterbury bell (noun)

Herb of Colombia to Peru having pale purple flowers.

- He looked up "canterbury bell" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "canterbury bell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of uruguay (noun)

The capital and largest city of Uruguay; a cosmopolitan city and one of the busiest ports in South America.

- The article explained what "capital of uruguay" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of uruguay."

cardiovascular (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or involving the heart and blood vessels.

- Cardiovascular conditioning.
- The speaker chose "cardiovascular" because it captured the feeling precisely.

chalk line (noun)

A chalked string used in the building trades to make a straight line on a vertical surface.

- They discussed "chalk line" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "chalk line" because he had never seen it before.

cherry tomato (noun)

Small red to yellow tomatoes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cherry tomato."
- He looked up "cherry tomato" because he had never seen it before.

chic (noun)

Elegance by virtue of being fashionable.

- They discussed "chic" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "chic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chinese cinnamon (noun)

Aromatic bark of the cassia-bark tree; less desirable as a spice than Ceylon cinnamon bark.

- He looked up "chinese cinnamon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chinese cinnamon."

claim jumper (noun)

One who illegally occupies property to which another has a legal claim.

- The article explained what "claim jumper" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "claim jumper" to mean one who illegally occupies property to which....

clone (noun)

A person who is almost identical to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clone."
- They discussed "clone" during the group presentation.

---

cluster bean (noun)

Drought-tolerant herb grown for forage and for its seed which yield a gum used as a thickening agent or sizing material.

- Understanding "cluster bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cluster bean" means with a simple example.

---

cluster headache (noun)

A painful recurring headache associated with the release of histamine from cells.

- The article explained what "cluster headache" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cluster headache" during the group presentation.

---

clusters (noun)

A grouping of a number of similar things.

- The article explained what "clusters" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "clusters" during the group presentation.

---

coffee mug (noun)

A mug intended for serving coffee.

- They discussed "coffee mug" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "coffee mug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

colin powell (noun)

United States general who was the first African American to serve as chief of staff; later served as Secretary of State under President George W. Bush (born 1937).

- In class, the teacher used "colin powell" to mean united states general who was the first african....
- The article explained what "colin powell" means with a simple example.

---

communal (adjective)

Relating to a small administrative district or community.

- Communal elections in several European countries.
- Would you call this situation "communal"? Explain why.

---

complete fracture (noun)

Break involving the entire width of the bone.

- The article explained what "complete fracture" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "complete fracture" to mean break involving the entire width of the bone.

---

compliments (noun)

(usually plural) a polite expression of desire for someone's welfare.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "compliments."
- He looked up "compliments" because he had never seen it before.

---

cone-bearing (adjective)

Of or relating to or part of trees or shrubs bearing cones and evergreen leaves.

- It is useful to describe something as "cone-bearing" when it is of or relating to or part of trees or shrubs....
- The speaker chose "cone-bearing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

confederate army (noun)

The southern army during the American Civil War.

- They discussed "confederate army" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "confederate army" means with a simple example.

---

confederate states of america (noun)

The southern states that seceded from the United States in 1861.

- They discussed "confederate states of america" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used “confederate states of america” to mean the southern states that seceded from the united....

---

consortium (noun)

An association of companies for some definite purpose.

- The article explained what “consortium” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “consortium.”

---

controllers (noun)

A mechanism that controls the operation of a machine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “controllers.”
- The article explained what “controllers” means with a simple example.

---

cork tree (noun)

Prickly Australian coral tree having soft spongy wood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cork tree.”
- He looked up “cork tree” because he had never seen it before.

---

cornell university (noun)

A university in Ithaca, New York.

- The article explained what “cornell university” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “cornell university” during the group presentation.

---

courier (noun)

A person who carries a message.

- They discussed “courier” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “courier” because he had never seen it before.

---

crab-eating fox (noun)

Wild dog of northern South America.

- He looked up “crab-eating fox” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “crab-eating fox.”

---

cuban monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Cuba.

- He looked up “cuban monetary unit” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “cuban monetary unit” to mean monetary unit in cuba.

---

cubic foot (noun)

The volume equal to a cube one foot on each side.

- In class, the teacher used “cubic foot” to mean the volume equal to a cube one foot on each side.
- Understanding “cubic foot” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

curtain lecture (noun)

A private lecture to a husband by his wife.

- He looked up “curtain lecture” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “curtain lecture” during the group presentation.

---

dark-haired (adjective)

Having hair of a dark color.

- A dark-haired beauty.
- Students compared “dark-haired” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

dd (noun)

A doctor’s degree in religion.

- Understanding “dd” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “dd” to mean a doctor’s degree in religion.

---

de-emphasize (verb)

Reduce the emphasis.

- Learners should practice how to use “de-emphasize” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “de-emphasize” and when to wait.

---

debating (verb)

Think about carefully; weigh.

- She tried to use “debating” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “debating” in real sentences.

---

decreasing (adjective)

Becoming less or smaller.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “decreasing.”
- Students compared “decreasing” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

defect (noun)

A mark or flaw that spoils the appearance of something (especially on a person’s body).

- Visual defects.
- This device permits detection of defects in the lungs.

---

department of corrections (noun)

The department of local government that is responsible for managing the treatment of convicted offenders.

- For a career in corrections turn to the web site of the New Jersey Department of Corrections.
- He looked up “department of corrections” because he had never seen it before.

---

disastrous (adjective)

(of events) having extremely unfortunate or dire consequences; bringing ruin; ; ; ; - Charles Darwin; - Douglas MacArthur.

- The battle was a disastrous end to a disastrous campaign.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “disastrous.”

---

discharge lamp (noun)

A lamp that generates light by a discharge between two electrodes in a gas.

- He looked up “discharge lamp” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “discharge lamp” during the group presentation.

---

disk brake (noun)

Hydraulic brake in which friction is applied to both sides of a spinning disk by the brake pads.

- He looked up “disk brake” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “disk brake” during the group presentation.

---

ditch reed (noun)

Tall North American reed having relative wide leaves and large plumelike panicles; widely distributed in moist areas; used for mats, screens and arrow shafts.

- In class, the teacher used “ditch reed” to mean tall north american reed having relative wide....
- He looked up “ditch reed” because he had never seen it before.

---

dive bomber (noun)

A bomber that releases its bombs during a steep dive toward the target.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dive bomber.”
- The article explained what “dive bomber” means with a simple example.

---

dividend warrant (noun)

An order of payment (such as a check payable to a shareholder) in which a dividend is paid.

- In class, the teacher used “dividend warrant” to mean an order of payment (such as a check payable to a....
- They discussed “dividend warrant” during the group presentation.

---

doctor’s degree (noun)

One of the highest earned academic degrees conferred by a university.

- They discussed “doctor’s degree” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “doctor’s degree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dot printer (noun)

A printer that represents each character as a pattern of dots from a dot matrix.

- The article explained what “dot printer” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “dot printer” to mean a printer that represents each character as a....

---

drown (verb)

Be covered with or submerged in a liquid.

- I was drowned in work.
- The noise drowned out her speech.

---

drown out (verb)

Make imperceptible.

- The noise from the ice machine drowned out the music.
- Learners should practice how to use “drown out” in real sentences.

---

durable (adjective)

Capable of withstanding wear and tear and decay.

- Durable denim jeans.
- Hopes for a durable peace.

---

easter bunny (noun)

A rabbit that delivers Easter eggs.

- Understanding “easter bunny” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “easter bunny” during the group presentation.

---

efficacy (noun)

Capacity or power to produce a desired effect.

- Concern about the safety and efficacy of the vaccine.
- He looked up “efficacy” because he had never seen it before.

---

electric razor (noun)

A razor powered by an electric motor.

- They discussed “electric razor” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “electric razor” to mean a razor powered by an electric motor.

---

erin (noun)

An early name of Ireland that is now used in poetry.

- He looked up “erin” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “erin.”

---

exaggerated (adjective)

Represented as greater than is true or reasonable.

- An exaggerated opinion of oneself.
- Thick lenses exaggerated the size of her eyes.

---

exhaust pipe (noun)

A pipe through which burned gases travel from the exhaust manifold to the muffler.

- Understanding “exhaust pipe” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “exhaust pipe” during the group presentation.

---

exploited (adjective)

Of persons; taken advantage of.

- Would you call this situation “exploited”? Explain why.
- Students compared “exploited” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

extracted (verb)

Deduce (a principle) or construe (a meaning).

- I extracted a promise from the Dean for two new positions.
- The coach explained when to use "extracted" and when to wait.

factor analytical (adjective)

Of or relating to or the product of factor analysis.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "factor analytical."
- A "factor analytical" approach may work better in this case.

fare-thee-well (noun)

State of perfection; the utmost degree.

- They polished the furniture to a fare-thee-well.
- In class, the teacher used "fare-thee-well" to mean state of perfection; the utmost degree.

faults (noun)

The quality of being inadequate or falling short of perfection.

- He knew his own faults much better than she did.
- I could understand his English in spite of his grammatical faults.

field mustard (noun)

Weedy Eurasian plant often a pest in grain fields.

- Understanding "field mustard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "field mustard."

file allocation table (noun)

The part of a floppy disk or hard disk where information is stored about the location of each piece of information on the disk (and about the location of unusable areas of the disk).

- He looked up "file allocation table" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "file allocation table" to mean the part of a floppy disk or hard disk where....

filipino (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of the Philippines or its people or customs.

- Our Filipino cook.
- It is useful to describe something as "filipino" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of the....

flashing (noun)

A short vivid experience.

- The flashings of pain were a warning.
- He looked up "flashing" because he had never seen it before.

flat knot (noun)

A square knot used in a reef line.

- They discussed "flat knot" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flat knot."

flush toilet (noun)

A toilet that is cleaned of waste by the flow of water through it.

- They discussed "flush toilet" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "flush toilet" means with a simple example.

folding door (noun)

An interior door that opens by folding back in sections (rather than by swinging on hinges).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "folding door."
- The article explained what "folding door" means with a simple example.

four-lined leaf bug (noun)

Yellow or orange leaf bug with four black stripes down the back; widespread in central and eastern North America.

- The article explained what "four-lined leaf bug" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "four-lined leaf bug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

freddie mac (noun)

A corporation authorized by Congress to provide a secondary market for residential mortgages.

- He looked up "freddie mac" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freddie mac."

---

freedom from search and seizure (noun)

A right guaranteed by the 4th amendment to the US Constitution.

- Understanding "freedom from search and seizure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "freedom from search and seizure" because he had never seen it before.

---

garden strawberry (noun)

Widely cultivated.

- Understanding "garden strawberry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "garden strawberry."

---

gin (noun)

A trap for birds or small mammals; often has a slip noose.

- In class, the teacher used "gin" to mean a trap for birds or small mammals; often has a slip....
- They discussed "gin" during the group presentation.

---

gin and it (noun)

A cocktail made of gin and sweet vermouth.

- He looked up "gin and it" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gin and it."

---

ginger nut (noun)

A crisp round cookie flavored with ginger.

- The article explained what "ginger nut" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ginger nut" to mean a crisp round cookie flavored with ginger.

---

girlfriends (noun)

A girl or young woman with whom a man is romantically involved.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "girlfriends."
- The article explained what "girlfriends" means with a simple example.

---

goose liver (noun)

Liver of a goose used as meat.

- The article explained what "goose liver" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "goose liver" to mean liver of a goose used as meat.

---

granting (verb)

Give as judged due or on the basis of merit.

- Learners should practice how to use "granting" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "granting" until he saw an example.

---

greeting (noun)

(usually plural) an acknowledgment or expression of good will (especially on meeting).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greeting."
- He looked up "greeting" because he had never seen it before.

---

gum arabic (noun)

Gum from an acacia tree; used as a thickener (especially in candies and pharmaceuticals).

- They discussed "gum arabic" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “gum arabic” because he had never seen it before.

hank williams (noun)

United States country singer and songwriter (1923-1953).

- Understanding “hank williams” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hank williams.”

hawaiian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of the state or island of Hawaii or to the people or culture or language.

- It is useful to describe something as “hawaiian” when it is of or relating to or characteristic of the state or....
- The speaker chose “hawaiian” because it captured the feeling precisely.

headaches (noun)

Something or someone that causes anxiety; a source of unhappiness.

- In class, the teacher used “headaches” to mean something or someone that causes anxiety; a source....
- They discussed “headaches” during the group presentation.

henry viii (noun)

Son of Henry VII and King of England from 1509 to 1547; his divorce from Catherine of Aragon resulted in his break with the Catholic Church in 1534 and his excommunication 1538, leading to the start of the Reformation in England (1491-1547).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “henry viii.”
- He looked up “henry viii” because he had never seen it before.

herbert george wells (noun)

Prolific English writer best known for his science-fiction novels; he also wrote on contemporary social problems and wrote popular accounts of history and science (1866-1946).

- He looked up “herbert george wells” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “herbert george wells” during the group presentation.

heroic verse (noun)

A verse form suited to the treatment of heroic or elevated themes; dactylic hexameter or iambic pentameter.

- The article explained what “heroic verse” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “heroic verse” during the group presentation.

honeymoon (noun)

A holiday taken by a newly married couple.

- He looked up “honeymoon” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “honeymoon.”

ignition (noun)

The process of initiating combustion or catching fire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ignition.”
- He looked up “ignition” because he had never seen it before.

impaired (adjective)

Diminished in strength, quality, or utility.

- Impaired eyesight.
- The speaker chose “impaired” because it captured the feeling precisely.

in-bounds (adjective)

Between the first and third base lines.

- A “in-bounds” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “in-bounds” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

incomes (noun)

The financial gain (earned or unearned) accruing over a given period of time.

- In class, the teacher used “incomes” to mean the financial gain (earned or unearned) accruing....
- Understanding “incomes” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

indicator lamp (noun)

Indicator consisting of a light to indicate whether power is on or a motor is in operation.

- They discussed "indicator lamp" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "indicator lamp" means with a simple example.

insured person (noun)

A person whose interests are protected by an insurance policy; a person who contracts for an insurance policy that indemnifies him against loss of property or life or health etc.

- They discussed "insured person" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "insured person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

investigative (adjective)

Designed to find information or ascertain facts.

- Investigative reporting.
- It is useful to describe something as "investigative" when it is designed to find information or ascertain facts.

ir (noun)

A board of the British government that administers and collects major direct taxes.

- The article explained what "ir" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ir" to mean a board of the british government that administers....

james arthur baldwin (noun)

United States author who was an outspoken critic of racism (1924-1987).

- They discussed "james arthur baldwin" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "james arthur baldwin" because he had never seen it before.

jerusalem sage (noun)

A spreading subshrub of Mediterranean regions cultivated for dense axillary whorls of purple or yellow flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "jerusalem sage" to mean a spreading subshrub of mediterranean regions....
- The article explained what "jerusalem sage" means with a simple example.

jewel (noun)

A person who is as brilliant and precious as a piece of jewelry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jewel."
- He looked up "jewel" because he had never seen it before.

jupiter (noun)

The largest planet and the 5th from the sun; has many satellites and is one of the brightest objects in the night sky.

- The article explained what "jupiter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jupiter" to mean the largest planet and the 5th from the sun; has....

kick downstairs (verb)

Assign to a lower position; reduce in rank.

- The coach explained when to use "kick downstairs" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "kick downstairs" in real sentences.

lawn cart (noun)

A cart for carrying small loads; has handles and one or more wheels.

- He looked up "lawn cart" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lawn cart" to mean a cart for carrying small loads; has handles and....

left hemisphere (noun)

The cerebral hemisphere to the left of the corpus callosum that controls the right half of the body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "left hemisphere."
- He looked up "left hemisphere" because he had never seen it before.

leigh hunt (noun)

British writer who defended the Romanticism of Keats and Shelley (1784-1859).

- He looked up "leigh hunt" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leigh hunt."

---

leonardo (noun)

Italian painter and sculptor and engineer and scientist and architect; the most versatile genius of the Italian Renaissance (1452-1519).

- In class, the teacher used "leonardo" to mean italian painter and sculptor and engineer and....
- He looked up "leonardo" because he had never seen it before.

---

letter of the alphabet (noun)

The conventional characters of the alphabet used to represent speech.

- His grandmother taught him his letters.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "letter of the alphabet."

---

lie detector (noun)

A polygraph that records bodily changes sometimes associated with lying.

- He looked up "lie detector" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lie detector" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lily pad (noun)

Floating leaves of a water lily.

- The article explained what "lily pad" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lily pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

linguistic rule (noun)

(linguistics) a rule describing (or prescribing) a linguistic practice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "linguistic rule."
- He looked up "linguistic rule" because he had never seen it before.

---

long-staple (adjective)

Having relatively long fibers.

- Long-staple cotton.
- Students compared "long-staple" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lower respiratory infection (noun)

Infection of the lower respiratory tract.

- In class, the teacher used "lower respiratory infection" to mean infection of the lower respiratory tract.
- The article explained what "lower respiratory infection" means with a simple example.

---

luggage carrier (noun)

Carrier (as behind a bicycle seat) for luggage.

- Understanding "luggage carrier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "luggage carrier" means with a simple example.

---

lynch mob (noun)

A mob that kills a person for some presumed offense without legal authority.

- He looked up "lynch mob" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lynch mob" to mean a mob that kills a person for some presumed offense....

---

manifest (verb)

Reveal its presence or make an appearance.

- The ghost manifests each year on the same day.
- The buildings in Rome manifest a high level of architectural sophistication.

---

mans (noun)

An adult person who is male (as opposed to a woman).

- They discussed "mans" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “mans” because he had never seen it before.

---

marx (noun)

United States comedian; one of four brothers who made motion pictures together (1901-1979).

- Understanding “marx” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “marx” to mean united states comedian; one of four brothers who....

---

metal detector (noun)

Detector that gives a signal when it detects the presence of metal; used to detect the presence of stray bits of metal in food products or to find buried metal.

- They discussed “metal detector” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “metal detector” because he had never seen it before.

---

mexican nut pine (noun)

A small two-needled or three-needled pinon of Mexico and southern Texas.

- He looked up “mexican nut pine” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “mexican nut pine” during the group presentation.

---

mid-calf (noun)

The middle of the calf; half way between the knee and ankle.

- The article explained what “mid-calf” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “mid-calf” during the group presentation.

---

mixed metaphor (noun)

A combination of two or more metaphors that together produce a ridiculous effect.

- The article explained what “mixed metaphor” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “mixed metaphor” to mean a combination of two or more metaphors that....

---

mutually (adverb)

In a mutual or shared manner.

- The agreement was mutually satisfactory.
- The narrator describes the scene “mutually” in the final chapter.

---

ninety-nine (adjective)

Being nine more than ninety.

- It is useful to describe something as “ninety-nine” when it is being nine more than ninety.
- The speaker chose “ninety-nine” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

norway maple (noun)

A large Eurasian maple tree naturalized in North America; five-lobed leaves yellow in autumn; cultivated in many varieties.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “norway maple.”
- Understanding “norway maple” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

obese (adjective)

Excessively fat.

- Students compared “obese” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A “obese” approach may work better in this case.

---

occupational safety and health act (noun)

A law passed by the United States Congress that created the Occupational Safety and Health Administration to prevent employees from being injured or contracting diseases in the course of their employment.

- They discussed “occupational safety and health act” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “occupational safety and health act” because he had never seen it before.

---

oil stain (noun)

A stain produced by oil.

- They discussed “oil stain” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “oil stain.”

---

old-timer (noun)

An experienced person who has been through many battles; someone who has given long service.

- The article explained what "old-timer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "old-timer" to mean an experienced person who has been through many....

---

out-of-bounds (adjective)

Barred to a designated group.

- Would you call this situation "out-of-bounds"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "out-of-bounds" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

overlooking (adjective)

Used of a height or viewpoint.

- The balcony overlooking the ballroom.
- A "overlooking" approach may work better in this case.

---

painted daisy (noun)

Spring-flowering garden perennial of Asiatic origin having finely divided aromatic leaves and white to pink-purple flowers; source of an insecticide; sometimes placed in genus Chrysanthemum.

- The article explained what "painted daisy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "painted daisy" to mean spring-flowering garden perennial of asiatic origin....

---

pandemic (noun)

An epidemic that is geographically widespread; occurring throughout a region or even throughout the world.

- They discussed "pandemic" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pandemic" to mean an epidemic that is geographically widespread;....

---

paper cutter (noun)

A cutting implement for cutting sheets of paper to the desired size.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paper cutter."
- Understanding "paper cutter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

part-timer (noun)

Someone who works less than the customary or standard time.

- The article explained what "part-timer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "part-timer" to mean someone who works less than the customary or....

---

passages (noun)

The motion of one object relative to another.

- The nasal passages.
- The article explained what "passages" means with a simple example.

---

pedestrian traffic (noun)

People coming and going on foot.

- Understanding "pedestrian traffic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pedestrian traffic" means with a simple example.

---

perceptions (noun)

A way of conceiving something.

- Understanding "perceptions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "perceptions."

---

perimeter (noun)

The size of something as given by the distance around it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "perimeter."
- He looked up "perimeter" because he had never seen it before.

---

pike (noun)

A sharp point (as on the end of a spear).

- They discussed “pike” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “pike” means with a simple example.

---

plains pocket mouse (noun)

Small rodent of open areas of United States plains states.

- Understanding “plains pocket mouse” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “plains pocket mouse” to mean small rodent of open areas of united states plains....

---

prairie dog (noun)

Any of several rodents of North American prairies living in large complex burrows having a barking cry.

- Understanding “prairie dog” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “prairie dog” because he had never seen it before.

---

preacher (noun)

Someone whose occupation is preaching the gospel.

- Understanding “preacher” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “preacher” during the group presentation.

---

preacher man (noun)

Someone whose occupation is preaching the gospel.

- Understanding “preacher man” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “preacher man” to mean someone whose occupation is preaching the gospel.

---

preceded (verb)

Be earlier in time; go back further.

- Bill preceded John in the long line of Susan’s husbands.
- Learners should practice how to use “preceded” in real sentences.

---

primary winding (noun)

Coil forming the part of an electrical circuit such that changing current in it induces a current in a neighboring circuit.

- Current through the primary coil induces current in the secondary coil.
- Understanding “primary winding” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prop root (noun)

A root that grows from and supports the stem above the ground in plants such as mangroves.

- The article explained what “prop root” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “prop root” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

protector (noun)

A person who cares for persons or property.

- He looked up “protector” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “protector” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pulp (noun)

An inexpensive magazine printed on poor quality paper.

- He pounded it to a pulp.
- They discussed “pulp” during the group presentation.

---

queensland grass-cloth plant (noun)

Australian plant of genus Pipturus whose fiber is used in making cloth.

- He looked up “queensland grass-cloth plant” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “queensland grass-cloth plant” during the group presentation.

---

rabbits (noun)

Flesh of any of various rabbits or hares (wild or domesticated) eaten as food.

- They discussed “rabbits” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “rabbits” to mean flesh of any of various rabbits or hares (wild or....

radio emission (noun)

An electromagnetic wave with a wavelength between 0.5 cm to 30,000 m.

- Understanding "radio emission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "radio emission" to mean an electromagnetic wave with a wavelength between....

razor edge (noun)

An edge that is as sharp as the cutting side of a razor.

- They discussed "razor edge" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "razor edge" means with a simple example.

re-emphasize (verb)

Emphasize anew.

- The director re-emphasized the need for greater productivity.
- She tried to use "re-emphasize" carefully so everyone would understand.

recruits (verb)

Cause to assemble or enlist in the military.

- He did not know how to use "recruits" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "recruits" and when to wait.

red squirrel (noun)

Of northern United States and Canada.

- He looked up "red squirrel" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "red squirrel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

red willow (noun)

Eurasian osier having reddish or purple twigs and bark rich in tannin.

- The article explained what "red willow" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red willow."

red-coated (adjective)

Used of British soldiers during the American Revolutionary War because of their red coats.

- It is useful to describe something as "red-coated" when it is used of british soldiers during the american....
- The speaker chose "red-coated" because it captured the feeling precisely.

reel off (verb)

Recite volubly or extravagantly.

- Unreel the tape.
- In everyday English, people use "reel off" when talking about this idea.

reinforce (verb)

Strengthen and support with rewards.

- Let's reinforce good behavior.
- He reinforced the concrete.

republic of croatia (noun)

A republic in the western Balkans in south-central Europe in the eastern Adriatic coastal area; formerly part of the Habsburg monarchy and Yugoslavia; became independent in 1991.

- He looked up "republic of croatia" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of croatia."

restart (verb)

Take up or begin anew.

- He did not know how to use "restart" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "restart" in real sentences.

revelation of saint john the divine (noun)

The last book of the New Testament; contains visionary descriptions of heaven and of conflicts between good and evil and of the end of the world; attributed to Saint John the Apostle.

- He looked up "revelation of saint john the divine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "revelation of saint john the divine."

---

revive (verb)

Be brought back to life, consciousness, or strength.

- Interest in ESP revived.
- The doctors revived the comatose man.

---

rigorous (adjective)

Demanding strict attention to rules and procedures.

- Rigorous discipline.
- Rigorous application of the law.

---

ringing (noun)

The sound of a bell ringing; ; ; –E. A. Poe.

- The ringing of the telephone.
- The tintinnabulation that so voluminously swells from the ringing and the dinging of the bells.

---

rocking chair (noun)

A chair mounted on rockers.

- He looked up "rocking chair" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rocking chair."

---

sage brush (noun)

Any of several North American composite subshrubs of the genera Artemis or Seriphidium.

- In class, the teacher used "sage brush" to mean any of several north american composite subshrubs....
- The article explained what "sage brush" means with a simple example.

---

salad greens (noun)

Greens suitable for eating uncooked as in salads.

- They discussed "salad greens" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "salad greens" to mean greens suitable for eating uncooked as in salads.

---

salt-cured (adjective)

(used especially of meats) preserved in salt.

- Students compared "salt-cured" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "salt-cured" when it is (used especially of meats) preserved in salt.

---

scarf (noun)

A garment worn around the head or neck or shoulders for warmth or decoration.

- They discussed "scarf" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "scarf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scarf out (verb)

Overeat or eat immodestly; make a pig of oneself.

- In everyday English, people use "scarf out" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "scarf out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

scenery (noun)

The painted structures of a stage set that are intended to suggest a particular locale.

- They worked all night painting the scenery.
- They discussed "scenery" during the group presentation.

---

selections (noun)

An assortment of things from which a choice can be made.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "selections."

- Understanding "selections" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sensory (adjective)

Of a nerve fiber or impulse originating outside and passing toward the central nervous system.

- Sensory neurons.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sensory."

---

serial murderer (noun)

Someone who murders more than three victims one at a time in a relatively short interval.

- In class, the teacher used "serial murderer" to mean someone who murders more than three victims one at....
- He looked up "serial murderer" because he had never seen it before.

---

sewing room (noun)

A room set aside for sewing.

- Understanding "sewing room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sewing room" to mean a room set aside for sewing.

---

shelters (noun)

The condition of being protected.

- He looked up "shelters" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "shelters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shoe lace (noun)

A lace used for fastening shoes.

- He looked up "shoe lace" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shoe lace."

---

sidewalk (noun)

Walk consisting of a paved area for pedestrians; usually beside a street or roadway.

- In class, the teacher used "sidewalk" to mean walk consisting of a paved area for pedestrians;....
- He looked up "sidewalk" because he had never seen it before.

---

sierra nevada mountains (noun)

A mountain range in eastern California; contains Mount Whitney.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sierra nevada mountains."
- He looked up "sierra nevada mountains" because he had never seen it before.

---

simple fracture (noun)

An uncomplicated fracture in which the broken bones to not pierce the skin.

- In class, the teacher used "simple fracture" to mean an uncomplicated fracture in which the broken bones....
- He looked up "simple fracture" because he had never seen it before.

---

sir joseph john thomson (noun)

English physicist who experimented with the conduction of electricity through gases and who discovered the electron and determined its charge and mass (1856-1940).

- In class, the teacher used "sir joseph john thomson" to mean english physicist who experimented with the....
- The article explained what "sir joseph john thomson" means with a simple example.

---

sleepy (adjective)

Ready to fall asleep.

- Beginning to feel sleepy.
- A sleepy-eyed child with drooping eyelids.

---

smoothly (adverb)

With no problems or difficulties.

- Put the plans into effect quickly and smoothly.
- 'And now,' he said smoothly, 'we will continue the conversation'.

---

solar halo (noun)

A luminous halo parallel to the horizon at the altitude of the sun; caused by ice crystals in the atmosphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solar halo."
- The article explained what "solar halo" means with a simple example.

---

solar telescope (noun)

A telescope designed to make observations of the sun.

- They discussed "solar telescope" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "solar telescope" because he had never seen it before.

---

solicitor general (noun)

A law officer appointed to assist an attorney general.

- He looked up "solicitor general" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solicitor general."

---

solitary wave (noun)

(physics) a quantum of energy or quasiparticle that can be propagated as a traveling wave in nonlinear systems and is neither preceded nor followed by another such disturbance; does not obey the superposition principle and does not dissipate.

- Soliton waves can travel long distances with little loss of energy or structure.
- He looked up "solitary wave" because he had never seen it before.

---

sophomore class (noun)

The second class in a four-year college or high school.

- In class, the teacher used "sophomore class" to mean the second class in a four-year college or high school.
- The article explained what "sophomore class" means with a simple example.

---

sound alphabet (noun)

An alphabet of characters intended to represent specific sounds of speech.

- Understanding "sound alphabet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sound alphabet" means with a simple example.

---

spanish cedar tree (noun)

Tropical American tree yielding fragrant wood used especially for boxes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spanish cedar tree."
- He looked up "spanish cedar tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

spontaneous generation (noun)

A hypothetical organic phenomenon by which living organisms are created from nonliving matter.

- They discussed "spontaneous generation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "spontaneous generation" means with a simple example.

---

squirrel away (verb)

Save up as for future use.

- In everyday English, people use "squirrel away" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "squirrel away" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

stage technician (noun)

An employee of a theater who performs work involved in putting on a theatrical production.

- Understanding "stage technician" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "stage technician" to mean an employee of a theater who performs work involved....

---

staple (noun)

A natural fiber (raw cotton, wool, hemp, flax) that can be twisted to form yarn.

- Staple fibers vary widely in length.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "staple."

---

stereotypes (noun)

A conventional or formulaic conception or image.

- Regional stereotypes have been part of America since its founding.
- They discussed "stereotypes" during the group presentation.

---

strand (noun)

A necklace made by a stringing objects together.

- A strand of pearls.
- He tried to pick up the strands of his former life.

---

stretch receptor (noun)

A receptor in a muscle that responds to stretching of the muscle tissue.

- The article explained what "stretch receptor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stretch receptor" during the group presentation.

---

stunned (adjective)

In a state of mental numbness especially as resulting from shock.

- Lay semiconscious, stunned (or stupefied) by the blow.
- Stood in stunned silence.

---

suicide pact (noun)

An agreement by two or more people to commit suicide together at a given place and time.

- The two lovers killed themselves in a suicide pact.
- He looked up "suicide pact" because he had never seen it before.

---

superior vocal cord (noun)

Either of the upper two vocal cords that are not involved in vocalization.

- Understanding "superior vocal cord" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "superior vocal cord" to mean either of the upper two vocal cords that are not....

---

sushi (noun)

Rice (with raw fish) wrapped in seaweed.

- He looked up "sushi" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sushi" during the group presentation.

---

suspend (verb)

Cause to be held in suspension in a fluid.

- Suspend the particles.
- The secret police suspended their victims from the ceiling and beat them.

---

sw (noun)

The compass point midway between south and west; at 225 degrees.

- In class, the teacher used "sw" to mean the compass point midway between south and west; at....
- The article explained what "sw" means with a simple example.

---

swamp oak (noun)

Australian leafless shrub resembling broom and having small yellow flowers.

- They discussed "swamp oak" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swamp oak."

---

swelling (noun)

An abnormal protuberance or localized enlargement.

- They discussed "swelling" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swelling."

---

tails (noun)

Formalwear consisting of full evening dress for men.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tails."
- Understanding "tails" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

telescope sight (noun)

Gunsight consisting of a telescope on a firearm for use as a sight.

- The article explained what "telescope sight" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "telescope sight" to mean gunsight consisting of a telescope on a firearm for....

terminology (noun)

A system of words used to name things in a particular discipline.

- Legal terminology.
- The article explained what "terminology" means with a simple example.

theatrical (adjective)

Suited to or characteristic of the stage or theater.

- A theatrical pose.
- One of the most theatrical figures in public life.

thermal printer (noun)

A printer that produces characters by applying heat to special paper that is sensitive to heat.

- They discussed "thermal printer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "thermal printer" to mean a printer that produces characters by applying heat....

tidal river (noun)

A stream in which the effects of the tide extend far upstream.

- In class, the teacher used "tidal river" to mean a stream in which the effects of the tide extend....
- Understanding "tidal river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

timer (noun)

A timepiece that measures a time interval and signals its end.

- They discussed "timer" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "timer" means with a simple example.

travellers (noun)

A person who changes location.

- In class, the teacher used "travellers" to mean a person who changes location.
- He looked up "travellers" because he had never seen it before.

trustee (noun)

A person (or institution) to whom legal title to property is entrusted to use for another's benefit.

- In class, the teacher used "trustee" to mean a person (or institution) to whom legal title to....
- Understanding "trustee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

turn thumbs down (verb)

Vote against.

- The faculty turned thumbs down on the candidate for the Dean position.
- Learners should practice how to use "turn thumbs down" in real sentences.

two-timer (noun)

A person who says one thing and does another.

- In class, the teacher used "two-timer" to mean a person who says one thing and does another.
- The article explained what "two-timer" means with a simple example.

umbrella pine (noun)

Medium-sized two-needled pine of southern Europe having a spreading crown; widely cultivated for its sweet seeds that resemble almonds.

- He looked up "umbrella pine" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "umbrella pine" to mean medium-sized two-needled pine of southern europe....

unanimous (adjective)

Acting together as a single undiversified whole.

- A unanimous decision.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unanimous."

---

unpredictable (adjective)

Not capable of being foretold.

- Students compared "unpredictable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unpredictable."

---

urging (noun)

A verbalization that encourages you to attempt something.

- He looked up "urging" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "urging" to mean a verbalization that encourages you to attempt....

---

uruguay river (noun)

A South American river that arises in southern Brazil and flows south to the Rio de la Plata; the northern section forms the boundary between Argentina and Brazil and the southern section forms the boundary between Argentina and Uruguay.

- Understanding "uruguay river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "uruguay river" to mean a south american river that arises in southern....

---

vacuum cleaner (noun)

An electrical home appliance that cleans by suction.

- The article explained what "vacuum cleaner" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vacuum cleaner" to mean an electrical home appliance that cleans by suction.

---

validation (noun)

The cognitive process of establishing a valid proof.

- They discussed "validation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "validation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

velvet flower (noun)

Young leaves widely used as leaf vegetables; seeds used as cereal.

- They discussed "velvet flower" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "velvet flower."

---

vice versa (adverb)

With the order reversed.

- She hates him and vice versa.
- Place "vice versa" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

violet-colored (adjective)

Having a violet color.

- Would you call this situation "violet-colored"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "violet-colored" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

visually (adverb)

With respect to vision.

- Visually distorted.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "visually" naturally.

---

volcanic glass (noun)

A kind of natural glass produced when molten lava cools very rapidly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "volcanic glass."
- The article explained what "volcanic glass" means with a simple example.

---

watt second (noun)

A unit of electrical energy equal to the work done when a current of one ampere passes through a resistance of one ohm for one second.

- In class, the teacher used "watt second" to mean a unit of electrical energy equal to the work done....

- The article explained what "watt second" means with a simple example.

watt-hour (noun)

A unit of energy equal to the power of one watt operating for one hour.

- The article explained what "watt-hour" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "watt-hour" to mean a unit of energy equal to the power of one watt....

weighted (adjective)

Made heavy or weighted down with weariness.

- Weighted eyelids.
- Votes weighted according to the size of constituencies.

western coral snake (noun)

Ranges from Central America to southwestern United States.

- The article explained what "western coral snake" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "western coral snake" to mean ranges from central america to southwestern united....

whiskey on the rocks (noun)

Whiskey with ice.

- In class, the teacher used "whiskey on the rocks" to mean whiskey with ice.
- The article explained what "whiskey on the rocks" means with a simple example.

white feather (noun)

A symbol of cowardice.

- He looked up "white feather" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "white feather" to mean a symbol of cowardice.

white mustard (noun)

Eurasian mustard cultivated for its pungent seeds; a source of table mustard and mustard oil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white mustard."
- He looked up "white mustard" because he had never seen it before.

white willow (noun)

Large willow tree of Eurasia and North Africa having greyish canescent leaves and grey bark.

- They discussed "white willow" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "white willow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

windsor chair (noun)

Straight chair having a shaped seat and a back of many spindles.

- They discussed "windsor chair" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "windsor chair" means with a simple example.

xl (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and four.

- In class, the teacher used "xl" to mean the cardinal number that is the product of ten and four.
- They discussed "xl" during the group presentation.

acc (noun)

A command that is the primary provider of air combat weapon systems to the United States Air Force; operates fighter, bomber, reconnaissance, battle-management, and rescue aircraft.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acc."
- He looked up "acc" because he had never seen it before.

activism (noun)

A policy of taking direct and militant action to achieve a political or social goal.

- In class, the teacher used "activism" to mean a policy of taking direct and militant action to....
- The article explained what "activism" means with a simple example.

acute kidney failure (noun)

Renal failure associated with burns or other trauma or with acute infection or obstruction of the urinary tract.

- Understanding "acute kidney failure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "acute kidney failure" during the group presentation.

---

ad val (adverb)

In proportion to the estimated value of the goods taxed.

- The goods were taxed ad valorem.
- He answered "ad val," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

advent (noun)

The season including the four Sundays preceding Christmas.

- The advent of the computer.
- In class, the teacher used "advent" to mean the season including the four sundays preceding....

---

african coral snake (noun)

Small widely distributed arboreal snake of southern Africa banded in black and orange.

- They discussed "african coral snake" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "african coral snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

airborne (adjective)

Moved or conveyed by or through air.

- Students compared "airborne" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "airborne."

---

alas (adverb)

By bad luck.

- Alas, I cannot stay.
- Using "alas" can make your explanation more exact.

---

all-embracing (adjective)

Broad in scope or content; ; ; ; ; - T.G.Winner.

- An all-embracing definition.
- Students compared "all-embracing" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

american red squirrel (noun)

Of northern United States and Canada.

- He looked up "american red squirrel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american red squirrel."

---

angle of extinction (noun)

The angle from its axis that a crystal must be rotated before appearing maximally dark when viewed in polarized light.

- They discussed "angle of extinction" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "angle of extinction."

---

anti-inflammatory drug (noun)

A medicine intended to reduce inflammation.

- In class, the teacher used "anti-inflammatory drug" to mean a medicine intended to reduce inflammation.
- They discussed "anti-inflammatory drug" during the group presentation.

---

anti-submarine rocket (noun)

A shipboard system to fire rockets at submarines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anti-submarine rocket."
- They discussed "anti-submarine rocket" during the group presentation.

---

apparel chain (noun)

A chain of clothing stores.

- He looked up “apparel chain” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “apparel chain.”

---

approach trench (noun)

A trench that provides protected passage between the rear and front lines of a defensive position.

- He looked up “approach trench” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “approach trench” to mean a trench that provides protected passage between....

---

astonishing (adjective)

So surprisingly impressive as to stun or overwhelm.

- Such an enormous response was astonishing.
- The dog was capable of astonishing tricks.

---

atom bomb (noun)

A nuclear weapon in which enormous energy is released by nuclear fission (splitting the nuclei of a heavy element like uranium 235 or plutonium 239).

- They discussed “atom bomb” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “atom bomb” because he had never seen it before.

---

atom-bomb (verb)

Bomb with atomic weapons.

- Learners should practice how to use “atom-bomb” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “atom-bomb” when talking about this idea.

---

bakery (noun)

A workplace where baked goods (breads and cakes and pastries) are produced or sold.

- Understanding “bakery” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “bakery” means with a simple example.

---

baking soda (noun)

A white soluble compound (NaHCO3) used in effervescent drinks and in baking powders and as an antacid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “baking soda.”
- He looked up “baking soda” because he had never seen it before.

---

barracks (verb)

Spur on or encourage especially by cheers and shouts.

- Can you use “barracks” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “barracks” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bart (noun)

A member of the British order of honor; ranks below a baron but above a knight.

- Since he was a baronet he had to be addressed as Sir Henry Jones, Bart.
- They discussed “bart” during the group presentation.

---

bathrooms (noun)

A room or building equipped with one or more toilets.

- The article explained what “bathrooms” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “bathrooms” during the group presentation.

---

baths (noun)

A vessel containing liquid in which something is immersed (as to process it or to maintain it at a constant temperature or to lubricate it).

- Understanding “baths” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “baths” to mean a vessel containing liquid in which something is....

---

beard moss (noun)

Greenish grey pendulous lichen growing on trees.

- Understanding “beard moss” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “beard moss” during the group presentation.

beer mug (noun)

A mug intended for serving beer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beer mug."
- He looked up "beer mug" because he had never seen it before.

believer (noun)

A supporter who accepts something as true.

- In class, the teacher used "believer" to mean a supporter who accepts something as true.
- The article explained what "believer" means with a simple example.

benefited (verb)

Derive a benefit from.

- The coach explained when to use "benefited" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "benefited" carefully so everyone would understand.

bengal light (noun)

A steady bright blue light; formerly used as a signal but now a firework.

- The article explained what "bengal light" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bengal light" during the group presentation.

blankets (noun)

A layer of lead surrounding the highly reactive core of a nuclear reactor.

- In class, the teacher used "blankets" to mean a layer of lead surrounding the highly reactive....
- He looked up "blankets" because he had never seen it before.

borne (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- Learners should practice how to use "borne" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "borne" when talking about this idea.

boston baked beans (noun)

Dried navy beans baked slowly with molasses and salt pork.

- The article explained what "boston baked beans" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "boston baked beans" to mean dried navy beans baked slowly with molasses and....

bottom rot (noun)

Fungous disease of lettuce that first rots lower leaves and spreads upward.

- Understanding "bottom rot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bottom rot" because he had never seen it before.

brake cylinder (noun)

A cylinder that contains brake fluid that is compressed by a piston.

- The article explained what "brake cylinder" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brake cylinder."

brokers (noun)

A businessman who buys or sells for another in exchange for a commission.

- He looked up "brokers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brokers."

bunker (noun)

A large container for storing fuel.

- The ship's bunkers were full of coal.
- They discussed "bunker" during the group presentation.

caffeine (noun)

A bitter alkaloid found in coffee and tea that is responsible for their stimulating effects.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caffeine."
- The article explained what "caffeine" means with a simple example.

---

capital of sri lanka (noun)

The capital and largest city of Sri Lanka; has one of the largest harbors in the world; is located on the western coast of the island of Ceylon.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of sri lanka" to mean the capital and largest city of sri lanka; has one....
- The article explained what "capital of sri lanka" means with a simple example.

---

capped (adjective)

Used especially of front teeth having (artificial) crowns.

- Capped teeth gave her a beautiful smile.
- Cloud-capped mountains.

---

cardiovascular system (noun)

The organs and tissues involved in circulating blood and lymph through the body.

- He looked up "cardiovascular system" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cardiovascular system."

---

cargo hatch (noun)

Hatch opening into the cargo compartment.

- Understanding "cargo hatch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cargo hatch."

---

chaotic (adjective)

Of or relating to a sensitive dependence on initial conditions.

- A "chaotic" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "chaotic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

chargers (noun)

A device for charging or recharging batteries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chargers."
- The article explained what "chargers" means with a simple example.

---

chinese mustard (noun)

Very hot prepared mustard.

- They discussed "chinese mustard" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chinese mustard" means with a simple example.

---

cinnamon stone (noun)

A garnet ranging in color from yellow to brown.

- Understanding "cinnamon stone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cinnamon stone."

---

cite (noun)

