Everyday English Vocabulary

Volume 1: Beginner

37,500 words · 10 fields

Contents

1 Beginner 2
1.1 Daily Life & Home . . . 2
1.2 Food & Cooking . . . 331
1.3 Travel & Transportation . . . 660
1.4 Work & School . . . 989
1.5 Health & Body . . . 1318
1.6 Nature & Weather . . . 1647
1.7 Shopping & Money . . . 1976
1.8 Feelings & Emotions . . . 2305
1.9 Technology . . . 2634
1.10 Sports & Leisure . . . 2963

Beginner

Daily Life & Home

chore (noun)

A small job that you do regularly at home, such as cleaning, washing dishes, or taking out the trash.

- Washing the dishes is my least favorite chore.
- The children do their chores every Saturday morning before they play.

---

neighbor (noun)

A person who lives next to you or very near your home.

- Our new neighbor brought us a cake to say hello.
- I asked my neighbor to water my plants while I was on vacation.

---

laundry (noun)

Clothes, sheets, and towels that need to be washed, or that have just been washed.

- I need to do the laundry because I have no clean shirts left.
- She hung the laundry outside to dry in the sun.

---

furniture (noun)

Large objects such as tables, chairs, and beds that you use in a house or office.

- We bought new furniture when we moved into the apartment.
- Please do not put your feet on the furniture.

---

kitchen (noun)

The room in a house where food is prepared and cooked.

- She is making breakfast in the kitchen.
- Our kitchen is small but bright and clean.

---

apartment (noun)

A set of rooms for living in, usually on one floor of a building.

- They live in a small apartment near the park.
- The apartment has two bedrooms and one bathroom.

---

broom (noun)

A brush with a long handle used for sweeping floors.

- He swept the floor with a broom.
- Please put the broom back in the closet.

---

curtain (noun)

A piece of cloth hung to cover a window.

- She opened the curtains to let in the morning light.
- The blue curtains match the sofa.

---

doorbell (noun)

A button outside a door that makes a sound when pressed, so people inside know someone is there.

- Someone is ringing the doorbell.
- We installed a new doorbell last week.

---

vacuum (verb / noun)

To clean a floor with a machine that sucks up dirt; also, the machine itself.

- I vacuum the living room every Sunday.
- The vacuum is broken, so I used a broom instead.

---

pillow (noun)

A soft cushion that you rest your head on when you sleep.

- This pillow is too soft for me.
- She bought new pillows for the guest room.

---

mirror (noun)

A piece of glass that shows your reflection.

- He looked in the mirror before leaving the house.
- There is a large mirror in the hallway.

---

closet (noun)

A small room or space for storing clothes or other things.

- Hang your coat in the closet.
- Her closet is full of shoes.

---

one (noun)

The smallest whole number or a numeral representing this number.

- He has the one but will need a two and three to go with it.
- They had lunch at one.

---

the like (noun)

A similar kind; ,.

- Dogs, foxes, and the like.
- We don't want the likes of you around here.

---

for one (adverb)

As a particular one of several possibilities.

- I for one feel very grateful.
- Her mother for one was worried.

---

time (noun)

The period of time a prisoner is imprisoned.

- He is doing time in the county jail.
- This time he succeeded.

---

in time (adverb)

Within an indefinite time or at an unspecified future time.

- In time they came to accept the harsh reality.
- We made it to the party in time.

---

get it (verb)

Understand, usually after some initial difficulty.

- You are going to get it!
- In everyday English, people use "get it" when talking about this idea.

---

on time (adverb)

At the expected time.

- She always arrives on time.
- He answered "on time," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

also (adverb)

In addition.

- The narrator describes the scene "also" in the final chapter.
- Place "also" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

now (noun)

The momentary present.

- Now is a good time to do it.
- It worked up to right now.

---

get by (verb)

Escape potentially unpleasant consequences; get away with a forbidden action.

- She gets away with murder!
- I couldn't get out from under these responsibilities.

---

at a time (adverb)

Simultaneously.

- He took three cookies at a time.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "at a time" naturally.

---

get it on (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- The coach explained when to use "get it on" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "get it on" until he saw an example.

---

first (noun)

The first or highest in an ordering or series.

- He wanted to be the first.
- The first of the month.

---

get on with (verb)

Have smooth relations.

- My boss and I get along very well.
- He did not know how to use "get on with" until he saw an example.

---

good and (adverb)

Completely or thoroughly.

- When I'm good and ready.
- She spoke "good and," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

know (noun)

The fact of being aware of information that is known to few people.

- He is always in the know.
- The article explained what "know" means with a simple example.

---

see (verb)

Perceive (an idea or situation) mentally.

- Now I see!
- I just can't see your point.

---

two (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of one and one or a numeral representing this number.

- He looked up "two" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "two" during the group presentation.

---

all the time (adverb)

Without respite.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "all the time" naturally.
- The narrator describes the scene "all the time" in the final chapter.

---

think (noun)

An instance of deliberate thinking.

- I need to give it a good think.
- Understanding "think" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

for good (adverb)

For a long time without essential change.

- Place "for good" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- She spoke "for good," and the audience immediately understood her point.

of all time (adverb)

At any time.

- The best con man of all time.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "of all time" naturally.

one time (adverb)

On one occasion.

- The narrator describes the scene "one time" in the final chapter.
- Using "one time" can make your explanation more exact.

think of (verb)

Keep in mind for attention or consideration.

- Think of the starving children in India!
- He thinks of himself as a brilliant musician.

one by one (adverb)

In single file.

- The prisoners came out one by one.
- Using "one by one" can make your explanation more exact.

get out (verb)

Take out of a container or enclosed space.

- Get out your best dress–we are going to a party!
- The troops pulled out after the cease-fire.

just in time (adverb)

At the last possible moment.

- She was saved in the nick of time.
- He answered "just in time," which changed the tone of the conversation.

make it (verb)

Continue in existence after (an adversity, etc.).

- I don't know whether I can make it in science!
- Can you use "make it" in a sentence that fits this situation?

see to it (verb)

Be careful or certain to do something; make certain of something.

- See that the curtains are closed.
- Can you use "see to it" in a sentence that fits this situation?

well (adverb)

To a suitable or appropriate extent or degree.

- The project was well underway.
- The fetus has well developed organs.

good-by (noun)

A farewell remark.

- They said their good-byes.
- They discussed "good-by" during the group presentation.

much (noun)

A great amount or extent.

- They did much for humanity.
- The article explained what "much" means with a simple example.

even (noun)

The latter part of the day (the period of decreasing daylight from late afternoon until nightfall).

- He enjoyed the evening light across the lake.
- He looked up "even" because he had never seen it before.

---

go for (verb)

Intend with some possibility of fulfilment.

- This theory holds for all irrational numbers.
- The same rules go for everyone.

---

in no time (adverb)

In a relatively short time.

- She finished the assignment in no time.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in no time" naturally.

---

just now (adverb)

Only a moment ago.

- He has just arrived.
- The sun just now came out.

---

at one time (adverb)

Simultaneously.

- He took three cookies at a time.
- At one time he loved her.

---

go on (verb)

Start running, functioning, or operating.

- He did not know how to use "go on" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "go on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

in the way (adverb)

Forming a hindrance, impediment, or obstruction.

- She might have succeeded in her ambition, had not circumstances been in her way.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in the way" naturally.

---

go with (verb)

Be present or associated with an event or entity.

- French fries come with the hamburger.
- Fish usually goes with white wine.

---

in a way (adverb)

From some points of view.

- She was right in a way.
- The narrator describes the scene "in a way" in the final chapter.

---

as well (adverb)

In addition.

- She spoke "as well," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered "as well," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

one at a time (adverb)

In single file.

- The prisoners came out one by one.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "one at a time" naturally.

---

that much (adverb)

To a certain degree.

- We will be that much ahead of them.

- He answered "that much," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

up to now (adverb)

Used in negative statement to describe a situation that has existed up to this point or up to the present time.

- She spoke "up to now," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered "up to now," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

years (noun)

The time during which someone's life continues.

- In his final years.
- He's showing his years.

---

day (noun)

A day assigned to a particular purpose or observance.

- Mother's Day.
- Two days later they left.

---

first of all (adverb)

Before anything else.

- First we must consider the garter snake.
- She spoke "first of all," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

have a go (verb)

Make an attempt at something.

- In everyday English, people use "have a go" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "have a go" until he saw an example.

---

much as (adverb)

In a similar way.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "much as" naturally.
- Place "much as" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

by the way (adverb)

Introducing a different topic; in point of fact.

- Incidentally, I won't go to the party.
- The narrator describes the scene "by the way" in the final chapter.

---

even as (adverb)

At the same time as.

- Even as he lay dying they argued over his estate.
- She spoke "even as," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

you said it (adverb)

An expression of emphatic agreement.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "you said it" naturally.
- She spoke "you said it," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

all get out (noun)

An unimaginably large amount.

- British say 'it rained like billyo' where Americans say 'it rained like all get out'.
- The article explained what "all get out" means with a simple example.

---

never (adverb)

Not ever; at no time in the past or future.

- I have never been to China.
- I shall never forget this day.

---

right on (adverb)

An interjection expressing agreement.

- Using "right on" can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene "right on" in the final chapter.

---

think about (verb)

Have on one's mind, think about actively.

- I'm thinking about my friends abroad.
- She always thinks about her children first.

---

take in (verb)

Hear, usually without the knowledge of the speakers.

- Take in the sights.
- Take in the sails.

---

think out (verb)

Consider carefully and rationally.

- Every detail has been thought out.
- Learners should practice how to use "think out" in real sentences.

---

all the way (adverb)

Not stopping short of sexual intercourse.

- She went all the way with him.
- She climbed the mountain all the way.

---

from time to time (adverb)

Now and then or here and there.

- Now and again she would take her favorite book from the shelf and read to us.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "from time to time" naturally.

---

make do (verb)

Come to terms with.

- In everyday English, people use "make do" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "make do" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

say (verb)

Have or contain a certain wording or form.

- What does the law say?
- The registrar says that I owe the school money.

---

take for (verb)

Keep in mind or convey as a conviction or view.

- Take for granted.
- Learners should practice how to use "take for" in real sentences.

---

back out (verb)

Make a retreat from an earlier commitment or activity.

- We'll have to crawfish out from meeting with him.
- He backed out of his earlier promise.

---

back up (verb)

Give moral or psychological support, aid, or courage to.

- Her children always backed her up.
- The bully had to back down.

---

even so (adverb)

Despite anything to the contrary (usually following a concession).

- Place "even so" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "even so" naturally.

---

go about (verb)

Begin to deal with.

- Go about a difficult problem.
- He did not know how to use "go about" until he saw an example.

---

in good time (adverb)

At the appropriate time.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in good time" naturally.
- Place "in good time" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

now now (adverb)

Interjection of rebuke.

- Place "now now" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "now now," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

two-time (verb)

Carry on a romantic relationship with two people at the same time.

- Learners should practice how to use "two-time" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "two-time" and when to wait.

---

by the day (adverb)

One every day.

- Place "by the day" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "by the day," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

go out (verb)

Date regularly; have a steady relationship with.

- We never went out when our children were small.
- The soldiers went out on missions.

---

know-how (noun)

The (technical) knowledge and skill required to do something.

- He looked up "know-how" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "know-how" during the group presentation.

---

last (noun)

The last or lowest in an ordering or series.

- He was the last to leave.
- He finished an inglorious last.

---

while (noun)

A period of indeterminate length (usually short) marked by some action or condition.

- He was here for a little while.
- The article explained what "while" means with a simple example.

---

all right (adverb)

Without doubt (used to reinforce an assertion).

- It's expensive all right.
- Held up all right under pressure.

---

for the first time (adverb)

The initial time.

- When Felix first saw a garter snake.
- The narrator describes the scene "for the first time" in the final chapter.

take to be (verb)

Look on as or consider.

- He did not know how to use "take to be" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "take to be" and when to wait.

even out (verb)

Make level or straight.

- Even out the surface.
- She tried to use "even out" carefully so everyone would understand.

get-go (noun)

The time at which something is supposed to begin.

- She knew from the get-go that he was the man for her.
- The article explained what "get-go" means with a simple example.

have a go at it (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- In everyday English, people use "have a go at it" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "have a go at it" carefully so everyone would understand.

just right (adverb)

In every detail.

- She spoke "just right," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "just right" can make your explanation more exact.

for a while (adverb)

For a short time.

- Sit down and stay awhile.
- They settled awhile in Virginia before moving West.

home (noun)

An institution where people are cared for.

- A home for the elderly.
- Deliver the package to my home.

now and then (adverb)

Now and then or here and there.

- He was arrogant and occasionally callous.
- Now and again she would take her favorite book from the shelf and read to us.

at last (adverb)

As the end result of a succession or process.

- At long last the winter was over.
- Using "at last" can make your explanation more exact.

do well by (verb)

Treat with respect and consideration.

- Children should do well by their parents.
- Learners should practice how to use "do well by" in real sentences.

home in (verb)

Direct onto a point or target, especially by automatic navigational aids.

- Learners should practice how to use "home in" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "home in" and when to wait.

look to (verb)

Turn one's interests or expectations towards.

- Look to the future.
- This method looks to significant wavings.

---

make good (verb)

Act as promised.

- Make good on promises.
- Can you use "make good" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

to a man (adverb)

Without exception.

- Voted for unionization to a man.
- She spoke "to a man," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

take up (verb)

Take out or up with or as if with a scoop.

- Take up a matter for consideration.
- Take up new ideas.

---

time being (noun)

The present occasion.

- Understanding "time being" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "time being" to mean the present occasion.

---

am (noun)

A radioactive transuranic metallic element; discovered by bombarding uranium with helium atoms.

- Understanding "am" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "am."

---

at best (adverb)

Under the best of conditions.

- At best we'll lose only the money.
- Using "at best" can make your explanation more exact.

---

at the best (adverb)

Under the best of conditions.

- At best we'll lose only the money.
- She spoke "at the best," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

come (verb)

To be the product or result.

- Melons come from a vine.
- Understanding comes from experience.

---

go all out (verb)

Perform a task as well as possible.

- He did not know how to use "go all out" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "go all out" when talking about this idea.

---

have the best (verb)

Overcome, usually through no fault or weakness of the person that is overcome.

- Heart disease can get the best of us.
- He did not know how to use "have the best" until he saw an example.

---

in some way (adverb)

In some unspecified way or manner; or by some unspecified means.

- They managed somehow.

- He expected somehow to discover a woman who would love him.

---

look for (verb)

Try to locate or discover, or try to establish the existence of.

- The police are searching for clues.
- They are searching for the missing man in the entire county.

---

look on (verb)

Observe with attention.

- She looked on this affair as a joke.
- Learners should practice how to use "look on" in real sentences.

---

new year (noun)

The calendar year just begun.

- The article explained what "new year" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "new year" during the group presentation.

---

state (noun)

The way something is with respect to its main attributes.

- The current state of knowledge.
- His state of health.

---

think over (verb)

Reflect deeply on a subject.

- I mulled over the events of the afternoon.
- The coach explained when to use "think over" and when to wait.

---

three (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of one and one and one.

- Understanding "three" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "three."

---

time of year (noun)

One of the natural periods into which the year is divided by the equinoxes and solstices or atmospheric conditions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "time of year."
- Understanding "time of year" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

around (adverb)

To a particular destination either specified or understood.

- She came around to see me.
- I invited them around for supper.

---

come in (verb)

To insert between other elements.

- Can you use "come in" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "come in" when talking about this idea.

---

come to (verb)

Cause to experience suddenly.

- Can you use "come to" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "come to" until he saw an example.

---

for all the world (adverb)

Under any circumstances.

- She wouldn't give up her pets for love or money.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "for all the world" naturally.

---

get off (verb)

Cause to be acquitted; get off the hook; in a legal case.

- The lawyer got him off, even though there was no doubt in everybody's mind that he killed his wife.
- The spy sent the classified information off to Russia.

---

go after (verb)

Go in search of or hunt for.

- She tried to use "go after" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "go after" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

go into (verb)

Be used or required for.

- A lot of energy went into the organization of this banquet.
- The coach explained when to use "go into" and when to wait.

---

always (adverb)

Without variation or change, in every case.

- He always arrives on time.
- I will always be there to help you.

---

as we say (adverb)

In a manner of speaking.

- The feeling is, as we say, quite dead.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "as we say" naturally.

---

at home (adverb)

At, to, or toward the place where you reside.

- He worked at home.
- They played at home last night.

---

for the time being (adverb)

Temporarily.

- We'll stop for the time being.
- He answered "for the time being," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

look at (verb)

Take into consideration for exemplifying purposes.

- The coach explained when to use "look at" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "look at" in real sentences.

---

think back (verb)

Recapture the past; indulge in memories.

- In everyday English, people use "think back" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "think back" until he saw an example.

---

best of all (adverb)

Especially fortunate.

- Best of all, we don't have any homework!
- He answered "best of all," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

have a look (verb)

Look at with attention.

- Have a look at this!
- The coach explained when to use "have a look" and when to wait.

---

here and now (noun)

At this time.

- The disappointments of the here and now.
- The article explained what "here and now" means with a simple example.

---

last out (verb)

Hang on during a trial of endurance.

- Ride out the storm.
- She tried to use "last out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

little (noun)

A small amount or duration.

- He accepted the little they gave him.
- In class, the teacher used "little" to mean a small amount or duration.

---

a little (adverb)

To a small degree; somewhat.

- Felt a little better.
- Using "a little" can make your explanation more exact.

---

come in for (verb)

Be subject to or the object of.

- The governor came in for a lot of criticism.
- Learners should practice how to use "come in for" in real sentences.

---

come with (verb)

Be present or associated with an event or entity.

- French fries come with the hamburger.
- Fish usually goes with white wine.

---

life-time (noun)

The period during which something is functional (as between birth and death).

- He looked up "life-time" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "life-time" to mean the period during which something is functional (as....

---

come by (verb)

Visit informally and spontaneously.

- He did not know how to use "come by" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "come by" and when to wait.

---

first of may (noun)

Observed in many countries to celebrate the coming of spring; observed in Russia and related countries in honor of labor.

- He looked up "first of may" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "first of may" during the group presentation.

---

good day (noun)

A farewell remark.

- They said their good-byes.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good day."

---

so long (noun)

A farewell remark.

- In class, the teacher used "so long" to mean a farewell remark.
- Understanding "so long" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

time of life (noun)

A period of time during which a person is normally in a particular life state.

- Understanding "time of life" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "time of life" because he had never seen it before.

under (adverb)

In or into a state of subordination or subjugation.

- We must keep our disappointment under.
- Their competitors went under.

first off (adverb)

Before anything else.

- First we must consider the garter snake.
- The narrator describes the scene "first off" in the final chapter.

give (verb)

Be flexible under stress of physical force.

- This material doesn't give.
- Can you give me lessons?

go back on (verb)

Fail to fulfill a promise or obligation.

- She backed out of her promise.
- Learners should practice how to use "go back on" in real sentences.

house (noun)

The management of a gambling house or casino.

- The house gets a percentage of every bet.
- He has a house on Cape Cod.

look like (verb)

Bear a physical resemblance to.

- She looks like her mother.
- She tried to use "look like" carefully so everyone would understand.

look out (verb)

To protect someone's interests.

- A man's gotta look out for his family.
- Watch out for pickpockets!

look up (verb)

Seek information from.

- She tried to use "look up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "look up" when talking about this idea.

place (noun)

A public square with room for pedestrians.

- Grosvenor Place.
- This is a nice place for a picnic.

very well (adverb)

An expression of agreement normally occurring at the beginning of a sentence.

- Place "very well" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "very well," which changed the tone of the conversation.

get the best (verb)

Overcome, usually through no fault or weakness of the person that is overcome.

- Heart disease can get the best of us.
- Can you use "get the best" in a sentence that fits this situation?

give in (verb)

Yield to another's wish or opinion.

- She tried to use "give in" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "give in" and when to wait.

---

in place (adverb)

In the original or natural place or site.

- The archeologists left the pottery in place.
- She spoke "in place," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

next (adverb)

At the time or occasion immediately following.

- Next the doctor examined his back.
- Using "next" can make your explanation more exact.

---

very much (adverb)

To a very great degree or extent.

- We enjoyed ourselves very much.
- She was very much interested.

---

long time (noun)

A prolonged period of time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long time."
- He looked up "long time" because he had never seen it before.

---

mr (noun)

A form of address for a man.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mr."
- He looked up "mr" because he had never seen it before.

---

back off (verb)

Remove oneself from an obligation.

- The bully had to back down.
- The coach explained when to use "back off" and when to wait.

---

come out (verb)

To state openly and publicly one's homosexuality.

- This actor outed last year.
- The new Woody Allen film hasn't come out yet.

---

come up to (verb)

Speak to someone.

- The coach explained when to use "come up to" and when to wait.
- Can you use "come up to" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

end (noun)

The point in time at which something ends.

- The end of the year.
- The ending of warranty period.

---

look out on (verb)

Be oriented in a certain direction.

- The house looks out on a tennis court.
- The apartment overlooks the Hudson.

---

new look (noun)

A style of women's clothing created by Christian Dior in 1947; involved a tight bodice and narrow waist and a flowing pleated skirt.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new look."

- They discussed "new look" during the group presentation.

---

the right way (adverb)

In the right manner.

- Place "the right way" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- She spoke "the right way," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

find out (verb)

Get to know or become aware of, usually accidentally.

- Find the product of two numbers.
- Find out if he speaks Russian.

---

from way back (adverb)

Since long ago.

- She knows him from way back.
- She spoke "from way back," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

get a look (verb)

See something for a brief time.

- Learners should practice how to use "get a look" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "get a look" until he saw an example.

---

in the end (adverb)

As the end result of a succession or process.

- At long last the winter was over.
- She will succeed in the long run.

---

take back (verb)

Take back what one has said.

- This photo takes me back to the good old days.
- She tried to use "take back" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

too much (adverb)

More than necessary.

- She eats too much.
- Let's not blame them overmuch.

---

end on (adverb)

With the end forward or toward the observer.

- Houses built endways.
- He answered "end on," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

ever (adverb)

At all times; all the time and on every occasion.

- Ever hoping to strike it rich.
- Ever busy.

---

family (noun)

A person having kinship with another or others.

- He's family.
- He moved his family to Virginia.

---

first and last (adverb)

Taking everything together.

- She was first and last a scientist.
- Using "first and last" can make your explanation more exact.

---

help out (verb)

Be of help, as in a particular situation of need.

- Can you help out tonight with the dinner guests?
- In everyday English, people use "help out" when talking about this idea.

---

high up (adverb)

At a great altitude.

- He climbed high on the ladder.
- The narrator describes the scene "high up" in the final chapter.

---

may day (noun)

Observed in many countries to celebrate the coming of spring; observed in Russia and related countries in honor of labor.

- They discussed "may day" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "may day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

part-time (adverb)

For less than the standard number of hours.

- He works part-time.
- Using "part-time" can make your explanation more exact.

---

put (verb)

Arrange thoughts, ideas, temporal events.

- I put these memories with those of bygone times.
- Put your things here.

---

think the world of (verb)

Esteem very highly.

- She thinks the world of her adviser.
- She tried to use "think the world of" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

time to come (noun)

The time yet to come.

- Understanding "time to come" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "time to come" during the group presentation.

---

at that place (adverb)

In or at that place.

- That man there.
- Using "at that place" can make your explanation more exact.

---

back down (verb)

Remove oneself from an obligation.

- The bully had to back down.
- In everyday English, people use "back down" when talking about this idea.

---

for sure (adverb)

Definitely or positively ('sure' is sometimes used informally for 'surely').

- The results are surely encouraging.
- It's going to be a good day for sure.

---

get around (verb)

Be released or become known; of news.

- How does she get around without a car?
- He did not know how to use "get around" until he saw an example.

---

get around to (verb)

Do something despite obstacles such as lack of time.

- He finally got around to painting the windows.
- Learners should practice how to use "get around to" in real sentences.

---

keep in (verb)

Cause to stay indoors.

- She tried to use "keep in" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "keep in" when talking about this idea.

---

put in (verb)

To insert between other elements.

- We put in a new sink.
- We put in a grant to the NSF.

---

at the same time (adverb)

Overlapping in duration.

- Concurrently with the conference an exhibition of things associated with Rutherford was held.
- Going to school and holding a job at the same time.

---

high time (noun)

The latest possible moment.

- It is high time you went to work.
- The article explained what "high time" means with a simple example.

---

keep on (verb)

Allow to remain in a place or position or maintain a property or feature.

- The family's fortune waned and they could not keep their household staff.
- Our grant has run out and we cannot keep you on.

---

off year (noun)

A year in which productivity is low or inferior.

- In class, the teacher used "off year" to mean a year in which productivity is low or inferior.
- Understanding "off year" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

off-day (noun)

A day when things go poorly.

- I guess this is one of my off-days.
- In class, the teacher used "off-day" to mean a day when things go poorly.

---

free (verb)

Make (information) available for publication.

- He finally could free the legs of the earthquake victim who was buried in the rubble.
- Free a path across the cluttered floor.

---

get the better of (verb)

Win a victory over.

- Her anger got the better of her and she blew up.
- Learners should practice how to use "get the better of" in real sentences.

---

give out (verb)

Give off, send forth, or discharge; as of light, heat, or radiation, vapor, etc.

- The teacher handed out the exams.
- He did not know how to use "give out" until he saw an example.

---

look after (verb)

Keep under careful scrutiny.

- In everyday English, people use "look after" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "look after" in real sentences.

someone (noun)

A human being.

- Understanding "someone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "someone" means with a simple example.

away (adverb)

Out of the way (especially away from one's thoughts).

- Pushed all doubts away.
- Ran away from the lion.

end-all (noun)

The ultimate goal.

- Human beings are not the end-all of evolution.
- The article explained what "end-all" means with a simple example.

go down on (verb)

Provide sexual gratification through oral stimulation.

- In everyday English, people use "go down on" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "go down on" in real sentences.

great year (noun)

Time required for one complete cycle of the precession of the equinoxes, about 25,800 years.

- In class, the teacher used "great year" to mean time required for one complete cycle of the....
- The article explained what "great year" means with a simple example.

number (noun)

A concept of quantity involving zero and units.

- Every number has a unique position in the sequence.
- He had a number of chores to do.

to each one (adverb)

To or from every one of two or more (considered individually).

- They received $10 each.
- He answered "to each one," which changed the tone of the conversation.

very much like (adverb)

In a similar way.

- He answered "very much like," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- The narrator describes the scene "very much like" in the final chapter.

come after (verb)

Come after in time, as a result.

- The coach explained when to use "come after" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "come after" in real sentences.

day by day (adverb)

Gradually and progressively.

- His health weakened day by day.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "day by day" naturally.

days (noun)

The time during which someone's life continues.

- The monarch's last days.
- Two days later they left.

for each one (adverb)

To or from every one of two or more (considered individually).

- They received $10 each.
- Place "for each one" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

for free (adverb)

Without payment.

- Using "for free" can make your explanation more exact.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "for free" naturally.

---

go home (verb)

Return home.

- After the movie, we went home.
- He did not know how to use "go home" until he saw an example.

---

look back (verb)

Look back upon (a period of time, sequence of events); remember.

- Don't look back while you walk.
- Learners should practice how to use "look back" in real sentences.

---

name (noun)

A language unit by which a person or thing is known.

- His name really is George Washington.
- Those are two names for the same thing.

---

night (noun)

The dark part of the diurnal cycle considered a time unit.

- Three nights later he collapsed.
- I had a restless night.

---

a lot (adverb)

To a very great degree or extent.

- I feel a lot better.
- She spoke "a lot," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

come over (verb)

Communicate the intended meaning or impression.

- She tried to use "come over" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "come over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

company (noun)

An institution created to conduct business.

- He started the company in his garage.
- He missed their company.

---

ever so (adverb)

(intensifier for adjectives) very.

- She was ever so friendly.
- She spoke "ever so," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

in name (adverb)

By title or repute though not in fact.

- He's a doctor in name only.
- Place "in name" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

last day (noun)

(New Testament) day at the end of time following Armageddon when God will decree the fates of all individual humans according to the good and evil of their earthly lives.

- In class, the teacher used "last day" to mean (new testament) day at the end of time following....
- The article explained what "last day" means with a simple example.

let (noun)

A brutal terrorist group active in Kashmir; fights against India with the goal of restoring Islamic rule of India.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "let."
- He looked up "let" because he had never seen it before.

no end (adverb)

On and on for a long time.

- The child cried no end.
- He answered "no end," which changed the tone of the conversation.

called (verb)

Make a prediction about; tell in advance.

- He called me a bastard.
- She called her children lazy and ungrateful.

come back (verb)

Go back to something earlier.

- This harks back to a previous remark of his.
- Can you use "come back" in a sentence that fits this situation?

thought (noun)

The organized beliefs of a period or group or individual.

- 19th century thought.
- Darwinian thought.

against time (adverb)

As fast as possible; before a deadline.

- It was a race against the clock.
- He answered "against time," which changed the tone of the conversation.

from each one (adverb)

To or from every one of two or more (considered individually).

- They received $10 each.
- The narrator describes the scene "from each one" in the final chapter.

go around (verb)

Become widely known and passed on.

- The story went around in the office.
- There's not enough to go around.

keep out (verb)

Prevent from entering; shut out.

- The trees were shutting out all sunlight.
- He did not know how to use "keep out" until he saw an example.

let on (verb)

Make known to the public information that was previously known only to a few people or that was meant to be kept a secret.

- She tried to use "let on" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "let on" when talking about this idea.

put out (verb)

To cause inconvenience or discomfort to.

- He put out the same for seven managers.
- He held out his hand.

set in (verb)

Blow toward the shore.

- That gale could set in on us with the next high tide.
- Laziness set in.

---

this night (adverb)

During the night of the present day.

- Drop by tonight.
- She spoke "this night," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

day in day out (adverb)

For an indefinite number of successive days.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "day in day out" naturally.
- She spoke "day in day out," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

every year (adverb)

Without missing a year.

- He answered "every year," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- She spoke "every year," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

group (noun)

A set that is closed, associative, has an identity element and every element has an inverse.

- They discussed "group" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "group" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

have it away (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- He did not know how to use "have it away" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "have it away" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

now and again (adverb)

Now and then or here and there.

- He was arrogant and occasionally callous.
- Now and again she would take her favorite book from the shelf and read to us.

---

before long (adverb)

In the near future.

- We should have news before long.
- The narrator describes the scene "before long" in the final chapter.

---

day in and day out (adverb)

Without respite.

- He plays chess day in and day out.
- Place "day in and day out" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

for the most part (adverb)

In large part; mainly or chiefly.

- These accounts are largely inactive.
- She spoke "for the most part," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

in public (adverb)

In a manner accessible to or observable by the public; openly.

- She admitted publicly to being a communist.
- Place "in public" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

number one (noun)

The first or highest in an ordering or series.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "number one."

- He looked up "number one" because he had never seen it before.

---

start (noun)

The time at which something is supposed to begin.

- They got an early start.
- It was off to a good start.

---

system (noun)

A complex of methods or rules governing behavior.

- They have to operate under a system they oppose.
- That language has a complex system for indicating gender.

---

take home (verb)

Earn as a salary or wage.

- How much does your wife take home after taxes and other deductions?
- She tried to use "take home" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

take-home (adjective)

(of salary or wages) remaining after all deductions including taxes.

- The speaker chose "take-home" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "take-home" when it is (of salary or wages) remaining after all deductions....

---

through and through (adverb)

Throughout the entire extent.

- Got soaked through in the rain.
- I'm frozen through.

---

times (noun)

A more or less definite period of time now or previously present.

- It was a sign of the times.
- Four times three equals twelve.

---

already (adverb)

Prior to a specified or implied time.

- She has already graduated.
- He answered "already," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

come before (verb)

Be the predecessor of.

- He did not know how to use "come before" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "come before" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

even a little (adverb)

To any extent at all.

- Using "even a little" can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene "even a little" in the final chapter.

---

in the first place (adverb)

Of primary import.

- It was in the first place a local matter.
- Why didn't you tell me in the first place?

---

look out over (verb)

Be oriented in a certain direction.

- The house looks out on a tennis court.
- The apartment overlooks the Hudson.

---

nothing (noun)

A quantity of no importance.

- It looked like nothing I had ever seen before.
- The article explained what “nothing” means with a simple example.

---

take a look (verb)

Look at with attention.

- Have a look at this!
- He did not know how to use “take a look” until he saw an example.

---

then again (adverb)

(contrastive) from another point of view.

- Then again, she might not go.
- Using “then again” can make your explanation more exact.

---

today (noun)

The day that includes the present moment (as opposed to yesterday or tomorrow).

- Today is beautiful.
- Did you see today's newspaper?

---

under way (adverb)

In motion; set in motion.

- The ship got under way.
- The narrator describes the scene “under way” in the final chapter.

---

as a group (adverb)

All together.

- He answered “as a group,” which changed the tone of the conversation.
- She spoke “as a group,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

be all and end all (noun)

The essential factor; the all-important element; the supreme aim.

- Profit is the be-all and end-all of business.
- They discussed “be all and end all” during the group presentation.

---

be-all and end-all (noun)

The essential factor; the all-important element; the supreme aim.

- Profit is the be-all and end-all of business.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “be-all and end-all.”

---

enough (noun)

An adequate quantity; a quantity that is large enough to achieve a purpose.

- Enough is as good as a feast.
- He looked up “enough” because he had never seen it before.

---

for anything (adverb)

Under any circumstances.

- She wouldn't give up her pets for love or money.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “for anything” naturally.

---

free people (noun)

People who are free.

- The home of the free and the brave.
- The article explained what “free people” means with a simple example.

---

full (noun)

The time when the Moon is fully illuminated.

- The moon is at the full.
- The article explained what "full" means with a simple example.

---

in case (adverb)

If there happens to be need.

- In case of trouble call 911.
- I have money, just in case.

---

in person (adverb)

In the flesh; without involving anyone else.

- I went there personally.
- He appeared in person.

---

live (verb)

Pursue a positive and satisfying existence.

- You must accept yourself and others if you really want to live.
- People lived in Africa millions of years ago.

---

out and away (adverb)

By a considerable margin.

- It was far and away the best meal he had ever eaten.
- Using "out and away" can make your explanation more exact.

---

point (noun)

A V-shaped mark at one end of an arrow pointer.

- The point of the arrow was due north.
- A point is defined by its coordinates.

---

read (verb)

Have or contain a certain wording or form.

- The passage reads as follows.
- Read the advertisement.

---

take part (verb)

Share in something.

- The coach explained when to use "take part" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "take part" in real sentences.

---

told (verb)

Inform positively and with certainty and confidence.

- The father told a story to his child.
- The mother told the child to get dressed.

---

us house (noun)

The lower legislative house of the United States Congress.

- Understanding "us house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "us house" during the group presentation.

---

yet (adverb)

To a greater degree or extent; used with comparisons.

- A yet sadder tale.
- I have yet to see the results.

---

all day long (adverb)

During the entire day.

- Light pours daylong into the parlor.
- The narrator describes the scene "all day long" in the final chapter.

at times (adverb)

Now and then or here and there.

- The narrator describes the scene "at times" in the final chapter.
- Place "at times" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

four (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of three and one.

- In class, the teacher used "four" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of three and one.
- The article explained what "four" means with a simple example.

get away (verb)

Escape potentially unpleasant consequences; get away with a forbidden action.

- She gets away with murder!
- I couldn't get out from under these responsibilities.

hard (adverb)

To the full extent possible; all the way.

- Hard alee.
- The ship went hard astern.

in full (adverb)

Referring to a quantity.

- The amount was paid in full.
- Place "in full" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

let out (verb)

Express audibly; utter sounds (not necessarily words).

- She let out a big heavy sigh.
- Bring out the truth.

make sure (verb)

Make a point of doing something; act purposefully and intentionally.

- He did not know how to use "make sure" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "make sure" in real sentences.

mean (verb)

Destine or designate for a certain purpose.

- These flowers were meant for you.
- You never understand what I mean!

one after another (adverb)

In single file.

- The prisoners came out one by one.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "one after another" naturally.

set up (verb)

Arrange thoughts, ideas, temporal events.

- Set up one's life.
- She set up a literacy program.

tell (verb)

Inform positively and with certainty and confidence.

- I tell you that man is a crook!
- Tell me what is bothering you.

to the full (adverb)

To the greatest degree or extent; completely or entirely; (‘full’ in this sense is used as a combining form).

- Fully grown.
- He didn’t fully understand.

---

come through (verb)

Continue in existence after (an adversity, etc.).

- The sun broke through the clouds.
- The rescue team broke through the wall in the mine shaft.

---

day after day (adverb)

For an indefinite number of successive days.

- He answered “day after day,” which changed the tone of the conversation.
- She spoke “day after day,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

go against (verb)

Act in disregard of laws, rules, contracts, or promises.

- He did not know how to use “go against” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “go against” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

live on (verb)

Continue to live through hardship or adversity.

- The race car driver lived through several very serious accidents.
- Can you use “live on” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

live with (verb)

Tolerate or accommodate oneself to.

- She has learned to live with her husband’s little idiosyncrasies.
- She tried to use “live with” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

put over (verb)

Hold back to a later time.

- He put over the idea very well.
- He did not know how to use “put over” until he saw an example.

---

real time (noun)

The actual time that it takes a process to occur.

- Information is updated in real time.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “real time.”

---

seen (verb)

Perceive (an idea or situation) mentally.

- This program will be seen all over the world.
- Can you use “seen” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

states (noun)

The way something is with respect to its main attributes.

- In class, the teacher used “states” to mean the way something is with respect to its main....
- Understanding “states” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

as yet (adverb)

Used in negative statement to describe a situation that has existed up to this point or up to the present time.

- The sun isn’t up yet.
- He answered “as yet,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

at long last (adverb)

As the end result of a succession or process.

- At long last the winter was over.

- The narrator describes the scene "at long last" in the final chapter.

---

believe (verb)

Follow a credo; have a faith; be a believer.

- When you hear his sermons, you will be able to believe, too.
- I believed his report.

---

every which way (adverb)

Haphazardly.

- The narrator describes the scene "every which way" in the final chapter.
- She spoke "every which way," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

give off (verb)

Give off, send forth, or discharge; as of light, heat, or radiation, vapor, etc.

- The big cities gave off so many wonderful American qualities.
- Learners should practice how to use "give off" in real sentences.

---

on that point (adverb)

In that matter.

- He answered "on that point," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Place "on that point" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

put back (verb)

Put something back where it belongs.

- Please put the clean dishes back in the cabinet when you have washed them.
- My daughter's wedding set me back $20,000.

---

until now (adverb)

Used in negative statement to describe a situation that has existed up to this point or up to the present time.

- Place "until now" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "until now" naturally.

---

all told (adverb)

With everything included or counted.

- He answered "all told," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- She spoke "all told," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

believe in (verb)

Have a firm conviction as to the goodness of something.

- John believes in oat bran.
- Can you use "believe in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

call for (verb)

Request the participation or presence of.

- The organizers invite submissions of papers for the conference.
- She called for room service.

---

call in (verb)

Summon to a particular activity or employment.

- Experts were called in.
- The nurse called in the next patient.

---

came (verb)

To be the product or result.

- He came singing down the road.
- The first success came three days later.

---

every now and then (adverb)

Occasionally.

- Every so often she visits her father.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "every now and then" naturally.

---

far (noun)

A terrorist organization that seeks to overthrow the government dominated by Tutsi and to institute Hutu control again.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "far."
- He looked up "far" because he had never seen it before.

---

give and take (verb)

Make mutual concessions.

- In life you have to give and take.
- Can you use "give and take" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

give-and-take (noun)

An exchange of views on some topic.

- The article explained what "give-and-take" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "give-and-take" during the group presentation.

---

though (adverb)

(postpositive) however.

- It might be unpleasant, though.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "though" naturally.

---

went (verb)

Be or continue to be in a certain condition.

- The children went hungry that day.
- The policemen went from door to door looking for the suspect.

---

year-end (noun)

The end of a calendar year.

- He had to unload the merchandise before the year-end.
- The article explained what "year-end" means with a simple example.

---

yes (noun)

An affirmative.

- I was hoping for a yes.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yes."

---

actually (adverb)

As a sentence modifier to add slight emphasis.

- Actually, we all help clear up after a meal.
- Actually, I haven't seen the film.

---

american (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of the continents and islands of the Americas.

- The American hemisphere.
- American flora and fauna.

---

call on (verb)

Have recourse to or make an appeal or request for help or information to.

- She called on her Representative to help her.
- He did not know how to use "call on" until he saw an example.

---

come home (verb)

Become clear or enter one's consciousness or emotions.

- Can you use “come home” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “come home” when talking about this idea.

---

first name (noun)

The name that precedes the surname.

- They discussed “first name” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “first name” because he had never seen it before.

---

good night (noun)

A conventional expression of farewell.

- They discussed “good night” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “good night” means with a simple example.

---

head-on (adverb)

In direct opposition; directly.

- We must meet the problem head-on.
- The cars collided head-on.

---

in name only (adverb)

By title or repute though not in fact.

- He’s a doctor in name only.
- He answered “in name only,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

in one case (adverb)

On one occasion.

- The narrator describes the scene “in one case” in the final chapter.
- He answered “in one case,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

just in case (adverb)

If there happens to be need.

- In case of trouble call 911.
- I have money, just in case.

---

later (adverb)

Happening at a time subsequent to a reference time.

- He’s going to the store but he’ll be back here later.
- I’ll see you later.

---

less (adverb)

Used to form the comparative of some adjectives and adverbs.

- Less interesting.
- Less expensive.

---

line (noun)

A mark that is long relative to its width.

- He drew a line on the chart.
- The line of soldiers advanced with their bayonets fixed.

---

look around (verb)

Look about oneself.

- Look around to see whether you can find the missing document.
- She tried to use “look around” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

never again (adverb)

At no time hereafter; -E.A.Poe.

- Quoth the raven, nevermore!
- She spoke “never again,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

party (noun)

A group of people gathered together for pleasure.

- She joined the party after dinner.
- In 1992 Perot tried to organize a third party at the national level.

place down (verb)

Cause to sit or seat or be in a settled position or place.

- Set down your bags here.
- He did not know how to use "place down" until he saw an example.

says (verb)

Have or contain a certain wording or form.

- The registrar says that I owe the school money.
- The clock says noon.

to order (adverb)

To specification.

- He had the shoes made to order.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "to order" naturally.

try for (verb)

Make an attempt at achieving something.

- She tried for the Olympics.
- She tried to use "try for" carefully so everyone would understand.

back away (verb)

Make a retreat from an earlier commitment or activity.

- He backed out of his earlier promise.
- In everyday English, people use "back away" when talking about this idea.

business people (noun)

People who transact business (especially business executives).

- They discussed "business people" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "business people" to mean people who transact business (especially business....

country (noun)

The people who live in a nation or country.

- The whole country worshipped him.
- The country's largest manufacturer.

home from home (noun)

A place where you are just as comfortable and content as if you were home.

- In class, the teacher used "home from home" to mean a place where you are just as comfortable and....
- Understanding "home from home" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

home help (noun)

A person hired to help in another's home (especially one employed by a local authority to help the infirm with domestic work).

- In class, the teacher used "home help" to mean a person hired to help in another's home....
- He looked up "home help" because he had never seen it before.

in his own right (adverb)

By reason of one's own ability or ownership etc.

- She's a rich woman in her own right rather than by inheritance.
- An excellent novel in its own right.

live up to (verb)

Meet the requirements or expectations of.

- The coach explained when to use "live up to" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "live up to" in real sentences.

---

long since (adverb)

Of the distant or comparatively distant past; ; ; ; ; ; is Scottish.

- We met once long ago.
- They long ago forsook their nomadic life.

---

on the side (adverb)

Without official authorization.

- He had made some money on the side.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "on the side" naturally.

---

out of nothing (adverb)

Without warning.

- Your cousin arrived out of thin air.
- He answered "out of nothing," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

point out (verb)

Make or write a comment on.

- Learners should practice how to use "point out" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "point out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

point up (verb)

Emphasize, especially by identification.

- This novel points up the racial problems in England.
- He did not know how to use "point up" until he saw an example.

---

thank (verb)

Express gratitude or show appreciation to.

- Learners should practice how to use "thank" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "thank" when talking about this idea.

---

by far (adverb)

By a considerable margin.

- She was by far the smartest student.
- It was far and away the best meal he had ever eaten.

---

come around (verb)

Change one's position or opinion.

- He came around to our point of view.
- Christmas rolled around again.

---

general (noun)

A fact about the whole (as opposed to particular).

- He discussed the general but neglected the particular.
- Understanding "general" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

later on (adverb)

Happening at a time subsequent to a reference time.

- He's going to the store but he'll be back here later.
- Using "later on" can make your explanation more exact.

---

put off (verb)

Avoid or try to avoid fulfilling, answering, or performing (duties, questions, or issues).

- She tried to use "put off" carefully so everyone would understand.

- He did not know how to use "put off" until he saw an example.

put one over (verb)

Fool or hoax.

- The immigrant was duped because he trusted everyone.
- He did not know how to use "put one over" until he saw an example.

stop up (verb)

Fill or close tightly with or as if with a plug.

- Stop up the leak.
- Can you use "stop up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

thank you (noun)

A conversational expression of gratitude.

- The article explained what "thank you" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "thank you" during the group presentation.

the other way around (adverb)

With the order reversed.

- The narrator describes the scene "the other way around" in the final chapter.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "the other way around" naturally.

by-line (noun)

A line giving the name of the writer of a story or article.

- He looked up "by-line" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "by-line."

call up (verb)

Recall knowledge from memory; have a recollection.

- Call up memories.
- The case was called up in court.

give or take (adverb)

Plus or minus a small amount.

- It is a mile away, give or take a few hundred yards.
- Using "give or take" can make your explanation more exact.

head up (verb)

Be the first or leading member of (a group) and excel.

- This student heads the class.
- In everyday English, people use "head up" when talking about this idea.

home-school (verb)

Educate (one's children) at home instead of sending (them) to a school.

- The parents are home-schooling their daughter.
- She tried to use "home-school" carefully so everyone would understand.

in general (adverb)

Without distinction of one from others.

- He is interested in snakes in general.
- Using "in general" can make your explanation more exact.

in her own right (adverb)

By reason of one's own ability or ownership etc.

- She's a rich woman in her own right rather than by inheritance.
- An excellent novel in its own right.

law (noun)

The collection of rules imposed by authority.

- Civilization presupposes respect for the law.
- There is a law against kidnapping.

---

let go (verb)

Release, as from one's grip.

- Let go of the door handle, please!
- Don't be so worried all the time–just let go!

---

let go of (verb)

Release, as from one's grip.

- Let go of the door handle, please!
- Learners should practice how to use "let go of" in real sentences.

---

mean time (noun)

(astronomy) time based on the motion of the mean sun (an imaginary sun moving uniformly along the celestial equator).

- He looked up "mean time" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mean time."

---

point in time (noun)

An instant of time.

- At that point I had to leave.
- He looked up "point in time" because he had never seen it before.

---

right away (adverb)

At once (usually modifies an undesirable occurrence).

- Found an answer straightaway.
- He answered "right away," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

set back (verb)

Hold back to a later time.

- His late start set him back.
- My daughter's wedding set me back $20,000.

---

so far (adverb)

To the degree or extent that.

- Insofar as it can be ascertained, the horse lung is comparable to that of man.
- So far as it is reasonably practical he should practice restraint.

---

together (adverb)

In contact with each other or in proximity.

- The leaves stuck together.
- We were gathered together.

---

whole (noun)

An assemblage of parts that is regarded as a single entity.

- How big is that part compared to the whole?
- Europe considered as a whole.

---

call out (verb)

Utter aloud; often with surprise, horror, or joy.

- 'I'm here,' the mother shouted when she saw her child looking lost.
- Aaron Burr called out Alexander Hamilton.

---

call-out (noun)

A challenge to a fight or duel.

- The article explained what "call-out" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "call-out" to mean a challenge to a fight or duel.

---

five (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of four and one.

- In class, the teacher used "five" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of four and one.
- The article explained what "five" means with a simple example.

---

go a long way (verb)

Suffice or be adequate for a while or to a certain extent.

- Learners should practice how to use "go a long way" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "go a long way" when talking about this idea.

---

in so far (adverb)

To the degree or extent that.

- Insofar as it can be ascertained, the horse lung is comparable to that of man.
- So far as it is reasonably practical he should practice restraint.

---

keep down (verb)

Put down by force or intimidation.

- China keeps down her dissidents very efficiently.
- The rich landowners subjugated the peasants working the land.

---

kind (noun)

A category of things distinguished by some common characteristic or quality.

- What kinds of desserts are there?
- Understanding "kind" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kind of (adverb)

To some (great or small) extent.

- He is kind of shy.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "kind of" naturally.

---

name day (noun)

The feast day of a saint whose name one bears.

- They discussed "name day" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "name day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

put-down (noun)

A crushing remark.

- Understanding "put-down" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "put-down" to mean a crushing remark.

---

story (noun)

A record or narrative description of past events.

- A history of France.
- The story of exposure to lead.

---

try out (verb)

Try something new, as in order to gain experience.

- Try these new crackers.
- Can you use "try out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

two times (adverb)

By a factor of two.

- The price increased twofold last year.
- He answered "two times," which changed the tone of the conversation.

white out (verb)

Cover up with a liquid correction fluid.

- White-out the typo.
- In everyday English, people use "white out" when talking about this idea.

first person (noun)

Pronouns and verbs used to refer to the speaker or writer of the language in which they occur.

- They discussed "first person" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "first person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

free world (noun)

Anti-communist countries collectively.

- In class, the teacher used "free world" to mean anti-communist countries collectively.
- He looked up "free world" because he had never seen it before.

in kind (adverb)

With something of the same kind.

- She pays him back in kind.
- Using "in kind" can make your explanation more exact.

news (noun)

A program devoted to current events, often using interviews and commentary.

- We watch the 7 o'clock news every night.
- They awaited news of the outcome.

on the whole (adverb)

With everything considered (and neglecting details).

- Altogether, I'm sorry it happened.
- Using "on the whole" can make your explanation more exact.

together with (adverb)

In conjunction with; combined.

- Our salaries put together couldn't pay for the damage.
- We couldn't pay for the damages with all our salaries put together.

us government (noun)

The executive and legislative and judicial branches of the federal government of the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "us government."
- The article explained what "us government" means with a simple example.

within (adverb)

On the inside.

- The narrator describes the scene "within" in the final chapter.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "within" naturally.

book (noun)

The sacred writings of the Christian religions.

- I am reading a good book on economics.
- He used a large book as a doorstop.

family man (noun)

A man whose family is of major importance in his life.

- In class, the teacher used "family man" to mean a man whose family is of major importance in his life.
- Understanding "family man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

in any case (adverb)

Used to indicate that a statement explains or supports a previous statement.

- Anyhow, he is dead now.
- I think they're asleep; anyhow, they're quiet.

---

in its own right (adverb)

By reason of one's own ability or ownership etc.

- She's a rich woman in her own right rather than by inheritance.
- An excellent novel in its own right.

---

in the least (adverb)

In the slightest degree or in any respect.

- Was not in the least unfriendly.
- Are you in the least interested?

---

information (noun)

A collection of facts from which conclusions may be drawn.

- The signal contained thousands of bits of information.
- Understanding "information" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

let off (verb)

Grant exemption or release to.

- Learners should practice how to use "let off" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "let off" and when to wait.

---

live over (verb)

Experience again, often in the imagination.

- He relived the horrors of war.
- She tried to use "live over" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

local (adjective)

Of or belonging to or characteristic of a particular locality or neighborhood.

- Local customs.
- Local schools.

---

of course (adverb)

As might be expected.

- She spoke "of course," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- The narrator describes the scene "of course" in the final chapter.

---

open up (verb)

Start to operate or function or cause to start operating or functioning.

- Open a business.
- Mary opened the car door.

---

up-country (adverb)

To or in the interior of a country or region.

- He answered "up-country," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Place "up-country" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

video (noun)

The visible part of a television transmission.

- She is a star of screen and video.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "video."

---

all together (adverb)

Used of a group whose members acted or were acted upon collectively and when 'all' and 'together' can be separated by other words.

- They were herded all together.

- They were all herded together.

---

at least (adverb)

If nothing else ('leastwise' is informal and 'leastways' is colloquial).

- At least he survived.
- At least two hours studying the manual.

---

early on (adverb)

During an early stage.

- Early on in her career.
- She spoke "early on," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

get a line (verb)

Get to know or become aware of, usually accidentally.

- He did not know how to use "get a line" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "get a line" when talking about this idea.

---

last name (noun)

The name used to identify the members of a family (as distinguished from each member's given name).

- The article explained what "last name" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "last name" during the group presentation.

---

little by little (adverb)

A little bit at a time.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "little by little" naturally.
- She spoke "little by little," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

make a point (verb)

Make a point of doing something; act purposefully and intentionally.

- Can you use "make a point" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "make a point" until he saw an example.

---

post-it (noun)

Brand name for a slip of notepaper that has an adhesive that allows it to stick to a surface and be removed without damaging the surface.

- In class, the teacher used "post-it" to mean brand name for a slip of notepaper that has an....
- Understanding "post-it" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

real life (noun)

The practical world as opposed to the academic world.

- A good consultant must have a lot of experience in the real world.
- He looked up "real life" because he had never seen it before.

---

real world (noun)

The practical world as opposed to the academic world.

- A good consultant must have a lot of experience in the real world.
- Understanding "real world" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

second-best (adverb)

In second place.

- He came off second-best.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "second-best" naturally.

---

social (noun)

A party of people assembled to promote sociability and communal activity.

- They discussed "social" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "social" means with a simple example.

---

talk (noun)

A speech that is open to the public.

- Let's have more work and less talk around here.
- His poetry contains much talk about love and anger.

---

to a t (adverb)

In every detail.

- The new house suited them to a T.
- He answered "to a t," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

while away (verb)

Spend or pass, as with boredom or in a pleasant manner; of time.

- Can you use "while away" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "while away" and when to wait.

---

at the least (adverb)

Not less than.

- At least two hours studying the manual.
- A tumor at least as big as an orange.

---

country people (noun)

People living in the same country; compatriots.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "country people."
- He looked up "country people" because he had never seen it before.

---

given (noun)

An assumption that is taken for granted.

- The article explained what "given" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "given."

---

half (noun)

One of two equal parts of a divisible whole.

- Half a loaf.
- Half an hour.

---

often (adverb)

Many times at short intervals.

- We often met over a cup of coffee.
- He answered "often," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

on the face of it (adverb)

From appearances alone; ; ; -Thomas Hardy.

- The child is seemingly healthy but the doctor is concerned.
- On the face of it the problem seems minor.

---

point the way (verb)

Indicate the right path or direction.

- The sign pointed the way to London.
- The coach explained when to use "point the way" and when to wait.

---

set down (verb)

Cause to sit or seat or be in a settled position or place.

- Set down your bags here.
- The hotel was set down at the bottom of the valley.

---

single (noun)

The smallest whole number or a numeral representing this number.

- In class, the teacher used “single” to mean the smallest whole number or a numeral representing....
- He looked up “single” because he had never seen it before.

---

talk of (verb)

Discuss or mention.

- Can you use “talk of” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “talk of” and when to wait.

---

call back (verb)

Recall knowledge from memory; have a recollection.

- Call up memories.
- Recall the defective auto tires.

---

day of the week (noun)

Any one of the seven days in a week.

- Understanding “day of the week” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “day of the week.”

---

face up (verb)

Deal with (something unpleasant) head on.

- He faced the terrible consequences of his mistakes.
- Learners should practice how to use “face up” in real sentences.

---

get together (noun)

A small informal social gathering.

- In class, the teacher used “get together” to mean a small informal social gathering.
- They discussed “get together” during the group presentation.

---

hours (noun)

An indefinite period of time.

- They talked for hours.
- They work long hours.

---

house-to-house (adjective)

Omitting no one; from the door of one house to that of the next.

- House-to-house coverage.
- The speaker chose “house-to-house” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

in fact (adverb)

In reality or actuality.

- In fact, it was a wonder anyone survived.
- Painters who are in fact anything but unsophisticated.

---

in hand (adverb)

Under control.

- The riots were in hand.
- Place “in hand” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

least of all (adverb)

Especially not.

- Nobody, least of all Joe, agreed with me.
- The narrator describes the scene “least of all” in the final chapter.

---

look away (verb)

Avert one’s gaze.

- She looked away when the nurse pricked her arm with the needle.
- In everyday English, people use “look away” when talking about this idea.

more or less (adverb)

To a small degree or extent.

- Holds 3 gallons, more or less.
- The narrator describes the scene "more or less" in the final chapter.

south (noun)

The cardinal compass point that is at 180 degrees.

- They discussed "south" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "south" to mean the cardinal compass point that is at 180 degrees.

take care (verb)

Take charge of or deal with.

- She took care of this business.
- Take care when you cross the street!

well water (noun)

Underground water that is held in the soil and in pervious rocks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "well water."
- He looked up "well water" because he had never seen it before.

almost (adverb)

(of actions or states) slightly short of or not quite accomplished; all but.

- The baby was almost asleep when the alarm sounded.
- We're almost finished.

be given (verb)

Have a tendency or disposition to do or be something; be inclined.

- Learners should practice how to use "be given" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "be given" until he saw an example.

by hand (adverb)

Without the use of a machine.

- This dress is sewn by hand.
- She spoke "by hand," and the audience immediately understood her point.

city state (noun)

A state consisting of a sovereign city.

- He looked up "city state" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "city state."

city-state (noun)

A state consisting of a sovereign city.

- They discussed "city-state" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "city-state" because he had never seen it before.

every night (adverb)

At the end of each day.

- She checks on her roses nightly.
- Using "every night" can make your explanation more exact.

go far (verb)

Extend in importance or range.

- His accomplishments go far.
- You will go far, my boy!

hard right (noun)

The extreme right wing.

- They discussed "hard right" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hard right."

---

history (noun)

A record or narrative description of past events.

- A history of France.
- A critical time in the school's history.

---

in good order (adverb)

In the right manner.

- She spoke "in good order," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Place "in good order" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

in the south (adverb)

In a southern direction.

- We moved south.
- The narrator describes the scene "in the south" in the final chapter.

---

part name (noun)

A word that names a part of a larger whole.

- In class, the teacher used "part name" to mean a word that names a part of a larger whole.
- They discussed "part name" during the group presentation.

---

research (verb)

Attempt to find out in a systematically and scientific manner.

- The student researched the history of that word.
- The students had to research the history of the Second World War for their history project.

---

room (noun)

An area within a building enclosed by walls and floor and ceiling.

- The rooms were very small but they had a nice view.
- Room to pass.

---

to the south (adverb)

In a southern direction.

- We moved south.
- The narrator describes the scene "to the south" in the final chapter.

---

along (adverb)

In addition (usually followed by 'with').

- We sent them food and some clothing went along in the package.
- Along with the package came a bill.

---

by all means (adverb)

Definitely or certainly.

- Visit us by all means.
- He answered "by all means," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

have in mind (verb)

Intend to refer to.

- Can you use "have in mind" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "have in mind" and when to wait.

---

john (noun)

The last of the four Gospels in the New Testament.

- They discussed "john" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “john” because he had never seen it before.

---

live down (verb)

Live so as to annul some previous behavior.

- You can never live this down!
- The coach explained when to use “live down” and when to wait.

---

matter (noun)

A vaguely specified concern.

- Several matters to attend to.
- It is a matter for the police.

---

matter to (verb)

Be of importance or consequence.

- This matters to me!
- Learners should practice how to use “matter to” in real sentences.

---

pretty (adverb)

To a moderately sufficient extent or degree.

- Pretty big.
- Pretty bad.

---

remember (verb)

Keep in mind for attention or consideration.

- Remember the Alamo.
- Remember to call your mother every day!

---

a bit (adverb)

To a small degree; somewhat.

- It’s a bit warm.
- Place “a bit” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

air (noun)

A succession of notes forming a distinctive sequence.

- She was humming an air from Beethoven.
- Air pollution.

---

by no means (adverb)

Definitely not.

- The prize is by no means certain.
- Place “by no means” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

change of life (noun)

The time in a woman’s life in which the menstrual cycle ends.

- They discussed “change of life” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “change of life” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

free house (noun)

A public house that is not controlled by a brewery and so is free to sell different brands of beer and ale.

- Understanding “free house” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “free house” means with a simple example.

---

good story (noun)

An account of an amusing incident (usually with a punch line).

- She told a funny story.
- Understanding “good story” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

have it coming (verb)

Deserve (either good or bad).

- It's too bad he got fired, but he sure had it coming.
- The coach explained when to use "have it coming" and when to wait.

---

head off (verb)

Prevent the occurrence of; prevent from happening.

- Head off a confrontation.
- He did not know how to use "head off" until he saw an example.

---

i john (noun)

The first New Testament epistle traditionally attributed to Saint John the Apostle.

- He looked up "i john" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "i john."

---

life-support (adjective)

Of or pertaining to equipment or methods used to sustain life.

- Students compared "life-support" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "life-support."

---

local time (noun)

The official time in a local region (adjusted for location around the Earth); established by law or custom.

- Understanding "local time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "local time."

---

needs (adverb)

In such a manner as could not be otherwise.

- We must needs by objective.
- The narrator describes the scene "needs" in the final chapter.

---

one-half (noun)

One of two equal parts of a divisible whole.

- He looked up "one-half" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "one-half."

---

probably (adverb)

With considerable certainty; without much doubt.

- He is probably out of the country.
- He will probably win the election.

---

saying (noun)

A word or phrase that particular people use in particular situations.

- The article explained what "saying" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "saying" to mean a word or phrase that particular people use in....

---

talk out of (verb)

Persuade someone not to do something.

- He did not know how to use "talk out of" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "talk out of" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

understand (verb)

Perceive (an idea or situation) mentally.

- I don't understand the idea.
- She did not understand her husband.

---

when first seen (adverb)

As a first impression.

- At first blush the offer seemed attractive.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "when first seen" naturally.

---

world power (noun)

A state powerful enough to influence events throughout the world.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "world power."
- Understanding "world power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yeah (adverb)

Not only so, but.

- Using "yeah" can make your explanation more exact.
- She spoke "yeah," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

york (noun)

The English royal house (a branch of the Plantagenet line) that reigned from 1461 to 1485; its emblem was a white rose.

- The article explained what "york" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "york" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

by and large (adverb)

Usually; as a rule.

- By and large it doesn't rain much here.
- Using "by and large" can make your explanation more exact.

---

call it a day (verb)

Stop doing what one is doing.

- At midnight, the student decided to call it quits and closed his books.
- The coach explained when to use "call it a day" and when to wait.

---

close (noun)

The last section of a communication.

- They were playing better at the close of the season.
- In class, the teacher used "close" to mean the last section of a communication.

---

close to (adverb)

(of quantities) imprecise but fairly close to correct.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "close to" naturally.
- Place "close to" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

comes (verb)

To be the product or result.

- Understanding comes from experience.
- Dawn comes early in June.

---

every week (adverb)

Without missing a week.

- She visited her aunt weekly.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "every week" naturally.

---

for that matter (adverb)

As far as that is concerned.

- For that matter I don't care either.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "for that matter" naturally.

---

give away (verb)

Make known to the public information that was previously known only to a few people or that was meant to be kept a secret.

- She gave away her antique furniture.
- He did not know how to use "give away" until he saw an example.

great power (noun)

A state powerful enough to influence events throughout the world.

- He looked up "great power" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great power."

half-time (adverb)

For less than the standard number of hours.

- The narrator describes the scene "half-time" in the final chapter.
- She spoke "half-time," and the audience immediately understood her point.

idea (noun)

An approximate calculation of quantity or degree or worth.

- A rough idea how long it would take.
- It was not a good idea.

on air (adverb)

Very happily.

- We were floating on air at the news.
- The narrator describes the scene "on air" in the final chapter.

on one hand (adverb)

From one point of view.

- On the one hand, she is a gifted chemist.
- Place "on one hand" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

on the one hand (adverb)

From one point of view.

- On the one hand, she is a gifted chemist.
- Using "on the one hand" can make your explanation more exact.

out of hand (adverb)

Out of control.

- The riots got out of hand.
- He answered "out of hand," which changed the tone of the conversation.

past (noun)

A earlier period in someone's life (especially one that they have reason to keep secret).

- Reporters dug into the candidate's past.
- Forget the past.

place name (noun)

The name by which a geographical place is known.

- In class, the teacher used "place name" to mean the name by which a geographical place is known.
- The article explained what "place name" means with a simple example.

possible (noun)

Something that can be done.

- Politics is the art of the possible.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "possible."

state government (noun)

The government of a state in the United States.

- Understanding "state government" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "state government" to mean the government of a state in the united states.

three times (adverb)

By a factor of three.

- Our rent increased threefold in the past five years.
- Place "three times" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

all along (adverb)

All the time or over a period of time.

- She had known all along.
- The hope had been there all along.

---

cause (noun)

A justification for something existing or happening.

- He had no cause to complain.
- They are trying to determine the cause of the crash.

---

go to war (verb)

Commence hostilities.

- Can you use "go to war" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "go to war" and when to wait.

---

good book (noun)

The sacred writings of the Christian religions.

- Understanding "good book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "good book" because he had never seen it before.

---

months (noun)

A time unit of approximately 30 days.

- They discussed "months" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "months" means with a simple example.

---

once in a while (adverb)

Now and then or here and there.

- Place "once in a while" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene "once in a while" in the final chapter.

---

or else (adverb)

In place of, or as an alternative to.

- Place "or else" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "or else," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

order of the day (noun)

The order of business for an assembly on a given day.

- In class, the teacher used "order of the day" to mean the order of business for an assembly on a given day.
- They discussed "order of the day" during the group presentation.

---

question (noun)

A sentence of inquiry that asks for a reply.

- He asked a direct question.
- There was a question about my training.

---

the whole way (adverb)

To the goal.

- She climbed the mountain all the way.
- The narrator describes the scene "the whole way" in the final chapter.

---

d-day (noun)

Date of the Allied landing in France, World War II.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "d-day."

- He looked up “d-day” because he had never seen it before.

keep away (verb)

Prevent from coming close.

- I tried to keep the child away from the pool.
- He did not know how to use “keep away” until he saw an example.

life line (noun)

A crease on the palm; its length is said by palmists to indicate how long you will live.

- Understanding “life line” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “life line” during the group presentation.

line of life (noun)

A crease on the palm; its length is said by palmists to indicate how long you will live.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “line of life.”
- The article explained what “line of life” means with a simple example.

no matter (adverb)

In spite of everything; without regard to drawbacks.

- He answered “no matter,” which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using “no matter” can make your explanation more exact.

of late (adverb)

In the recent past.

- Lately the rules have been enforced.
- As late as yesterday she was fine.

old times (noun)

Past times remembered with nostalgia.

- The article explained what “old times” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “old times.”

put away (verb)

Turn away from and put aside, perhaps temporarily.

- It’s time for you to put away childish things.
- Put away your worries.

state change (noun)

A change from one state (solid or liquid or gas) to another without a change in chemical composition.

- The article explained what “state change” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “state change” to mean a change from one state (solid or liquid or gas) to....

watch (verb)

Be vigilant, be on the lookout or be careful.

- Watch out for pickpockets!
- Watch a basketball game.

ask in (verb)

Ask to enter.

- She tried to use “ask in” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use “ask in” in a sentence that fits this situation?

back talk (noun)

An impudent or insolent rejoinder.

- The article explained what “back talk” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “back talk” to mean an impudent or insolent rejoinder.

be due (verb)

Be the result of.

- In everyday English, people use "be due" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "be due" in real sentences.

---

by any means (adverb)

In any way necessary.

- Using "by any means" can make your explanation more exact.
- She spoke "by any means," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

either (adverb)

After a negative statement used as an intensive meaning something like 'likewise' or 'also'.

- He isn't stupid, but he isn't exactly a genius either.
- I don't know either.

---

face-off (noun)

A hostile disagreement face-to-face.

- The article explained what "face-off" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "face-off" to mean a hostile disagreement face-to-face.

---

family name (noun)

The name used to identify the members of a family (as distinguished from each member's given name).

- They discussed "family name" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "family name" because he had never seen it before.

---

future (adjective)

A verb tense or other formation referring to events or states that have not yet happened.

- Future auxiliary.
- Some future historian will evaluate him.

---

give care (verb)

Provide care for.

- Learners should practice how to use "give care" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "give care" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

head home (verb)

Return home.

- After the movie, we went home.
- Can you use "head home" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

high point (noun)

The most enjoyable part of a given experience.

- The trumpet solo was the high point of the concert.
- In class, the teacher used "high point" to mean the most enjoyable part of a given experience.

---

house of god (noun)

Any building where congregations gather for prayer.

- They discussed "house of god" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house of god."

---

light (noun)

A particular perspective or aspect of a situation.

- Although he saw it in a different light, he still did not understand.
- The light was filtered through a soft glass window.

---

million (noun)

A very large indefinite number (usually hyperbole).

- There were millions of flies.
- In class, the teacher used "million" to mean a very large indefinite number (usually hyperbole).

---

morning (noun)

The time period between dawn and noon.

- I spent the morning running errands.
- They talked until morning.

---

on the other hand (adverb)

(contrastive) from another point of view.

- On the other hand, she is too ambitious for her own good.
- Then again, she might not go.

---

public house (noun)

Tavern consisting of a building with a bar and public rooms; often provides light meals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public house."
- They discussed "public house" during the group presentation.

---

talk over (verb)

Speak with others about (something); talk (something) over in detail; have a discussion.

- The coach explained when to use "talk over" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "talk over" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

after hours (adverb)

Not during regular hours.

- He often worked after hours.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "after hours" naturally.

---

age (noun)

An era of history having some distinctive feature.

- We live in a litigious age.
- It was replaced because of its age.

---

big top (noun)

A canvas tent to house the audience at a circus performance.

- They had the big top up in less than an hour.
- They discussed "big top" during the group presentation.

---

close up (verb)

Refuse to talk or stop talking; fall silent.

- The owners decided to move and to close the factory.
- My business closes every night at 8 P.M.

---

each week (adverb)

Without missing a week.

- She visited her aunt weekly.
- Using "each week" can make your explanation more exact.

---

for short (adverb)

As an abbreviation.

- Call me Bob for short.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "for short" naturally.

---

full house (noun)

A poker hand with 3 of a kind and a pair.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "full house."
- He looked up "full house" because he had never seen it before.

get along with (verb)

Have smooth relations.

- My boss and I get along very well.
- Can you use "get along with" in a sentence that fits this situation?

in short (adverb)

In a concise manner; in a few words.

- To put it shortly.
- Using "in short" can make your explanation more exact.

in turn (adverb)

In proper order or sequence.

- Talked to each child in turn.
- The stable became in turn a chapel and then a movie theater.

life story (noun)

An account of the series of events making up a person's life.

- They discussed "life story" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "life story" means with a simple example.

place of business (noun)

An establishment (a factory or an assembly plant or retail store or warehouse etc.) where business is conducted, goods are made or stored or processed or where services are rendered.

- Understanding "place of business" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "place of business" to mean an establishment (a factory or an assembly plant or....

rather (adverb)

To some (great or small) extent.

- It was rather cold.
- The party was rather nice.

reason (noun)

A rational motive for a belief or action.

- The reason that war was declared.
- The reason a steady state was never reached was that the back pressure built up too slowly.

report (verb)

To give an account or representation of in words.

- Dozens of incidents of wife beatings are reported daily in this city.
- The team reported significant advances in their research.

soon (adverb)

In the near future.

- The doctor will soon be here.
- Using "soon" can make your explanation more exact.

stay on (verb)

Continue in a place, position, or situation.

- After graduation, she stayed on in Cambridge as a student adviser.
- Stay with me, please.

take five (verb)

Take a break for five minutes.

- The musicians took five during the rehearsal.
- In everyday English, people use "take five" when talking about this idea.

also known as (adverb)

As known or named at another time or place.

- Place "also known as" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- She spoke "also known as," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

at first hand (adverb)

From the original source; directly.

- I heard this story firsthand.
- Place "at first hand" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

big business (noun)

Commercial enterprises organized and financed on a scale large enough to influence social and political policies.

- Big business is growing so powerful it is difficult to regulate it effectively.
- Understanding "big business" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

family business (noun)

A corporation that is entirely owned by the members of a single family.

- Understanding "family business" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "family business" to mean a corporation that is entirely owned by the members....

---

free thought (noun)

The form of theological rationalism that believes in God on the basis of reason without reference to revelation.

- The article explained what "free thought" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "free thought" to mean the form of theological rationalism that believes....

---

further (adverb)

To or at a greater distance in time or space ('farther' is used more frequently than 'further' in this physical sense).

- Went only three miles further.
- Further in the future.

---

real number (noun)

Any rational or irrational number.

- The article explained what "real number" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "real number" to mean any rational or irrational number.

---

second thought (noun)

Thinking again about a choice previously made.

- He had second thoughts about his purchase.
- They discussed "second thought" during the group presentation.

---

set free (verb)

Grant freedom to.

- She tried to use "set free" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "set free" until he saw an example.

---

show business (noun)

Those involved in providing entertainment: radio and television and films and theater.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "show business."
- The article explained what "show business" means with a simple example.

---

stay at (verb)

Reside temporarily.

- I'm staying at the Hilton.
- The coach explained when to use "stay at" and when to wait.

---

time out of mind (noun)

The distant past beyond memory.

- Understanding "time out of mind" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "time out of mind" means with a simple example.

---

turn-on (noun)

Something causing excitement or stimulating interest.

- The article explained what "turn-on" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "turn-on" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

act (noun)

A short theatrical performance that is part of a longer program.

- He did his act three times every evening.
- He put on quite an act for her benefit.

---

ask out (verb)

Make a date.

- Has he asked you out yet?
- He did not know how to use "ask out" until he saw an example.

---

back room (noun)

A room located in the rear of an establishment; usually accessible only to privileged groups.

- Understanding "back room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "back room" means with a simple example.

---

company name (noun)

The name by which a corporation is identified.

- Understanding "company name" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "company name" means with a simple example.

---

go wrong (verb)

Be unsuccessful.

- He did not know how to use "go wrong" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "go wrong" in real sentences.

---

good old days (noun)

Past times remembered with nostalgia.

- They discussed "good old days" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "good old days" because he had never seen it before.

---

in due time (adverb)

At the appropriate time.

- We'll get to this question in due course.
- She spoke "in due time," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

leave out (verb)

Prevent from being included or considered or accepted.

- Leave off the top piece.
- The workers on the conveyor belt miss one out of ten.

---

question time (noun)

A period during a parliamentary session when members of British Parliament may ask questions of the ministers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "question time."
- Understanding "question time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sure enough (adverb)

Definitely or positively ('sure' is sometimes used informally for 'surely').

- The results are surely encouraging.
- It's going to be a good day for sure.

---

time series (noun)

A series of values of a variable at successive times.

- He looked up "time series" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "time series" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

watch out (verb)

Be vigilant, be on the lookout or be careful.

- Watch out for pickpockets!
- He did not know how to use "watch out" until he saw an example.

---

white house (noun)

The chief executive department of the United States government.

- The article explained what "white house" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "white house" during the group presentation.

---

back matter (noun)

Written matter following the main text of a book.

- In class, the teacher used "back matter" to mean written matter following the main text of a book.
- The article explained what "back matter" means with a simple example.

---

by heart (adverb)

By committing to memory.

- She knew the poem by heart.
- Using "by heart" can make your explanation more exact.

---

city of god (noun)

Phrases used to refer to Heaven.

- The Celestial City was Christian's goal in Bunyan's 'Pilgrim's Progress'.
- In class, the teacher used "city of god" to mean phrases used to refer to heaven.

---

from the heart (adverb)

Very sincerely.

- He spoke from the heart.
- Using "from the heart" can make your explanation more exact.

---

go along (verb)

Continue a certain state, condition, or activity.

- He decided to play along with the burglars for the moment.
- Can you use "go along" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

half life (noun)

The time required for something to fall to half its initial value (in particular, the time for half the atoms in a radioactive substance to disintegrate).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half life."
- They discussed "half life" during the group presentation.

---

half-life (noun)

The time required for something to fall to half its initial value (in particular, the time for half the atoms in a radioactive substance to disintegrate).

- Understanding "half-life" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "half-life" during the group presentation.

---

house party (noun)

A party lasting over one or more nights at a large house.

- In class, the teacher used "house party" to mean a party lasting over one or more nights at a large....
- Understanding "house party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

light up (verb)

Start to burn with a bright flame.

- This lamp lightens the room a bit.
- He did not know how to use "light up" until he saw an example.

---

morning time (noun)

The time period between dawn and noon.

- I spent the morning running errands.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morning time."

---

non (adverb)

Negation of a word or group of words.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "non" naturally.
- She spoke "non," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

number system (noun)

Any notation for the representation of numbers.

- Understanding "number system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "number system" means with a simple example.

---

off-hand (adverb)

Without preparation.

- I don't know the figures off-hand.
- Using "off-hand" can make your explanation more exact.

---

one-third (noun)

One of three equal parts of a divisible whole.

- In class, the teacher used "one-third" to mean one of three equal parts of a divisible whole.
- The article explained what "one-third" means with a simple example.

---

plan (noun)

A series of steps to be carried out or goals to be accomplished.

- They drew up a six-step plan.
- They discussed plans for a new bond issue.

---

political (adjective)

Of or relating to the profession of governing.

- Political career.
- Calling a meeting is a political act in itself.

---

pretty much (adverb)

To some degree.

- We were pretty much lost when we met the forest ranger.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "pretty much" naturally.

---

quite (adverb)

Of an unusually noticeable or exceptional or remarkable kind (not used with a negative).

- Her victory was quite something.
- She's quite a girl.

---

quite a (adverb)

Of an unusually noticeable or exceptional or remarkable kind (not used with a negative).

- Her victory was quite something.
- She's quite a girl.

---

second person (noun)

Pronouns and verbs used to refer to the person addressed by the language in which they occur.

- They discussed "second person" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "second person" because he had never seen it before.

six (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of five and one.

- He looked up "six" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "six."

take control (verb)

Assume control.

- The coach explained when to use "take control" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "take control" in real sentences.

talk down (verb)

Speak in a condescending manner, as if to a child.

- He talks down to her.
- The control tower talked down the plane whose pilot fell ill.

talking (noun)

An exchange of ideas via conversation.

- Understanding "talking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "talking."

talking to (noun)

A lengthy rebuke.

- The teacher gave him a talking to.
- The article explained what "talking to" means with a simple example.

three-d (noun)

Having a three-dimensional form or appearance.

- The article explained what "three-d" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "three-d" to mean having a three-dimensional form or appearance.

west (noun)

The cardinal compass point that is a 270 degrees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "west."
- Understanding "west" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

world court (noun)

A court established to settle disputes between members of the United Nations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "world court."
- Understanding "world court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

a-list (noun)

A list of names of specially favored people.

- The boss gave me his A-list of people we should try to recruit.
- He looked up "a-list" because he had never seen it before.

country house (noun)

A house (usually large and impressive) on an estate in the country.

- In class, the teacher used "country house" to mean a house (usually large and impressive) on an estate....
- They discussed "country house" during the group presentation.

education (noun)

The gradual process of acquiring knowledge.

- Education is a preparation for life.
- A girl's education was less important than a boy's.

former (noun)

The first of two or the first mentioned of two.

- Tom and Dick were both heroes but only the former is remembered today.
- The article explained what "former" means with a simple example.

---

give it a try (verb)

Make an attempt at something.

- I never sat on a horse before but I'll give it a go.
- Let's give it a whirl!

---

go past (verb)

Be superior or better than some standard.

- She tried to use "go past" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "go past" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

in front (adverb)

At or in the front.

- We couldn't see over the heads of the people in front.
- She spoke "in front," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

last not least (adverb)

In addition to all the foregoing.

- Last not least he plays the saxophone.
- He answered "last not least," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

more often than not (adverb)

Usually; as a rule.

- The narrator describes the scene "more often than not" in the final chapter.
- Using "more often than not" can make your explanation more exact.

---

open house (noun)

An informal party of people with hospitality for all comers.

- In class, the teacher used "open house" to mean an informal party of people with hospitality for....
- The article explained what "open house" means with a simple example.

---

reason out (verb)

Decide by reasoning; draw or come to a conclusion.

- We reasoned that it was cheaper to rent than to buy a house.
- The coach explained when to use "reason out" and when to wait.

---

right along (adverb)

All the time or over a period of time.

- She had known all along.
- The hope had been there all along.

---

sometimes (adverb)

On certain occasions or in certain cases but not always.

- Sometimes she wished she were back in England.
- Sometimes her photography is breathtaking.

---

still room (noun)

A pantry or storeroom connected with the kitchen (especially in a large house) for preparing tea and beverages and for storing liquors and preserves and tea etc.

- The article explained what "still room" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "still room" to mean a pantry or storeroom connected with the kitchen....

---

turn out (verb)

Cause to stop operating by disengaging a switch.

- Turn off the stereo, please.

- Turn out the lights.

---

act up (verb)

Misbehave badly; act in a silly or improper way.

- The children acted up when they were not bored.
- My arthritis is acting up again.

---

ask over (verb)

Invite someone to one's house.

- In everyday English, people use "ask over" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "ask over" until he saw an example.

---

check out (verb)

Be verified or confirmed; pass inspection.

- These stories don't check!
- Check the brakes.

---

experience (noun)

The content of direct observation or participation in an event.

- He had a religious experience.
- He recalled the experience vividly.

---

high-five (noun)

A gesture of greeting or elation; one person's upraised palm slaps the upraised palm of another person.

- They discussed "high-five" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "high-five" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

living will (noun)

A document written by someone still legally capable requesting that he should be allowed to die if subsequently severely disabled or suffering terminal illness.

- After he discovered he had AIDS he drew up a living will.
- They discussed "living will" during the group presentation.

---

long ago (adverb)

Of the distant or comparatively distant past; ; ; ; ; is Scottish.

- We met once long ago.
- They long ago forsook their nomadic life.

---

new deal (noun)

The historic period (1933-1940) in the United States during which President Franklin Roosevelt's economic policies were implemented.

- In class, the teacher used "new deal" to mean the historic period (1933-1940) in the united....
- They discussed "new deal" during the group presentation.

---

program (noun)

An integrated course of academic studies.

- He was admitted to a new program at the university.
- He proposed an elaborate program of public works.

---

second power (noun)

The product of two equal terms.

- Nine is the second power of three.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "second power."

---

stop number (noun)

The ratio of the focal length to the diameter of a (camera) lens system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stop number."
- He looked up "stop number" because he had never seen it before.

---

type (noun)

A subdivision of a particular kind of thing.

- What type of sculpture do you prefer?
- The capable type.

---

watch over (verb)

Follow with the eyes or the mind.

- The world is watching Sarajevo.
- In everyday English, people use "watch over" when talking about this idea.

---

when the time comes (adverb)

At the appropriate time.

- The narrator describes the scene "when the time comes" in the final chapter.
- She spoke "when the time comes," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

call number (noun)

A mark consisting of characters written on a book; used to indicate shelf location.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "call number."
- He looked up "call number" because he had never seen it before.

---

close off (verb)

Block off the passage through.

- We shut off the valve.
- Shut off the gas when you leave for a vacation.

---

doing business as (noun)

(law) a name under which a corporation conducts business that is not the legal name of the corporation as shown in its articles of incorporation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "doing business as."
- Understanding "doing business as" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

family line (noun)

People descended from a common ancestor.

- His family has lived in Massachusetts since the Mayflower.
- In class, the teacher used "family line" to mean people descended from a common ancestor.

---

first light (noun)

The first light of day.

- He looked up "first light" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first light."

---

good deal (noun)

(often followed by 'of') a large number or amount or extent.

- A deal of trouble.
- They discussed "good deal" during the group presentation.

---

good morning (noun)

A conventional expression of greeting or farewell.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good morning."
- They discussed "good morning" during the group presentation.

---

home court (noun)

(basketball) the court where the host team plays its home games.

- In class, the teacher used "home court" to mean (basketball) the court where the host team plays....
- The article explained what "home court" means with a simple example.

---

home office (noun)

The government department in charge of domestic affairs.

- The article explained what "home office" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home office."

---

house of war (noun)

Areas where Muslims are in the minority and are persecuted.

- The article explained what "house of war" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "house of war" during the group presentation.

---

last but not least (adverb)

In addition to all the foregoing.

- Last not least he plays the saxophone.
- Using "last but not least" can make your explanation more exact.

---

power company (noun)

A public utility that provides electricity.

- He looked up "power company" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "power company."

---

process (noun)

A mental process that you are not directly aware of.

- The process of denial.
- It was a process of trial and error.

---

put on the line (verb)

Expose to a chance of loss or damage.

- She laid her job on the line when she told the boss that he was wrong.
- In everyday English, people use "put on the line" when talking about this idea.

---

quite an (adverb)

Of an unusually noticeable or exceptional or remarkable kind (not used with a negative).

- Her victory was quite something.
- She's quite a girl.

---

set point (noun)

(tennis) the final point needed to win a set in tennis.

- In class, the teacher used "set point" to mean (tennis) the final point needed to win a set in tennis.
- They discussed "set point" during the group presentation.

---

stay over (verb)

Stay overnight.

- The boy's friends were allowed to sleep over after the birthday party.
- Can you use "stay over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

water company (noun)

A public utility that provides water.

- In class, the teacher used "water company" to mean a public utility that provides water.
- They discussed "water company" during the group presentation.

---

word (noun)

The sacred writings of the Christian religions.

- He went to carry the Word to the heathen.
- Words are the blocks from which sentences are made.

---

a good deal (adverb)

To a very great degree or extent.

- This would help a great deal.
- She spoke "a good deal," and the audience immediately understood her point.

across (adverb)

To the opposite side.

- The football field was 300 feet across.
- The marble slabs were cut across.

close down (verb)

Cease to operate or cause to cease operating.

- The owners decided to move and to close the factory.
- My business closes every night at 8 P.M.

come to mind (verb)

Be remembered.

- His name comes to mind when you mention the strike.
- Can you use "come to mind" in a sentence that fits this situation?

far and away (adverb)

By a considerable margin.

- She was by far the smartest student.
- It was far and away the best meal he had ever eaten.

gave (verb)

Be flexible under stress of physical force.

- She gave him a black eye.
- The draft gave me a cold.

give thanks (verb)

Express gratitude or show appreciation to.

- The coach explained when to use "give thanks" and when to wait.
- Can you use "give thanks" in a sentence that fits this situation?

high court (noun)

The highest court in most states of the United States.

- The article explained what "high court" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "high court" during the group presentation.

home room (noun)

A classroom in which all students in a particular grade (or in a division of a grade) meet at certain times under the supervision of a teacher who takes attendance and does other administrative business.

- Understanding "home room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "home room" during the group presentation.

month (noun)

A time unit of approximately 30 days.

- He was given a month to pay the bill.
- He paid the bill last month.

out front (adverb)

Leading or ahead in a competition.

- Way out front in the race.
- The advertising campaign put them out front in sales.

point system (noun)

A system of graduating sizes of type in multiples of the point.

- The article explained what "point system" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "point system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

post house (noun)

An inn for exchanging post horses and accommodating riders.

- Understanding "post house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "post house" because he had never seen it before.

---

state of mind (noun)

The state of a person's cognitive processes.

- He looked up "state of mind" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "state of mind" during the group presentation.

---

very light (noun)

A colored flare fired from a Very pistol.

- Understanding "very light" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "very light" during the group presentation.

---

very-light (noun)

A colored flare fired from a Very pistol.

- The article explained what "very-light" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "very-light" during the group presentation.

---

as much as possible (adverb)

To a feasible extent.

- She helped him as much as possible.
- She spoke "as much as possible," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

bring out (verb)

Take out of a container or enclosed space.

- Get out your best dress–we are going to a party!
- Summer brings out bright clothes.

---

bring up (verb)

Put forward for consideration or discussion.

- Bring up an unpleasant topic.
- Bring up children.

---

by chance (adverb)

Without advance planning.

- To sleep, perchance to dream..
- Using "by chance" can make your explanation more exact.

---

every so often (adverb)

Occasionally.

- Every so often she visits her father.
- The narrator describes the scene "every so often" in the final chapter.

---

four times (adverb)

By a factor of four.

- The price of gasoline has increased fourfold over the past two years.
- She spoke "four times," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

full point (noun)

A punctuation mark (.) placed at the end of a declarative sentence to indicate a full stop or after abbreviations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "full point."
- Understanding "full point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

give the once over (verb)

Look at with a critical eye.

- When the movie star entered, all the women gave him the once over.

- He did not know how to use “give the once over” until he saw an example.

hard times (noun)

A time of difficulty.

- We had a hard time getting here.
- The article explained what “hard times” means with a simple example.

have words (verb)

Censure severely or angrily.

- In everyday English, people use “have words” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “have words” in real sentences.

held (adjective)

Occupied or in the control of; often used in combination.

- Enemy-held territory.
- A “held” approach may work better in this case.

hit home (verb)

Refer to or be relevant or familiar to.

- I hope this message hits home!
- She tried to use “hit home” carefully so everyone would understand.

home away from home (noun)

A place where you are just as comfortable and content as if you were home.

- He looked up “home away from home” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “home away from home” during the group presentation.

in the main (adverb)

Without distinction of one from others.

- He is mainly interested in butterflies.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “in the main” naturally.

instead (adverb)

In place of, or as an alternative to.

- Felix became a herpetologist instead.
- He didn’t call; rather (or instead), he wrote her a letter.

leave off (verb)

Prevent from being included or considered or accepted.

- Leave off the top piece.
- The road leaves off at the edge of the forest.

moment (noun)

A particular point in time.

- The moment he arrived the party began.
- Wait just a moment.

mother (noun)

A condition that is the inspiration for an activity or situation.

- Necessity is the mother of invention.
- The mother of three children.

news show (noun)

A program devoted to current events, often using interviews and commentary.

- We watch the 7 o’clock news every night.
- Understanding “news show” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

seems (verb)

Give a certain impression or have a certain outward aspect.

- She seems to be sleeping.
- It seems that he is very gifted.

---

thinking (noun)

The process of using your mind to consider something carefully.

- Thinking always made him frown.
- Understanding "thinking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

town (noun)

The people living in a municipality smaller than a city.

- The whole town cheered the team.
- They drive through town on their way to work.

---

all clear (noun)

A signal (usually a siren) that danger is over.

- In class, the teacher used "all clear" to mean a signal (usually a siren) that danger is over.
- The article explained what "all clear" means with a simple example.

---

baby-like (adverb)

Like a baby.

- Place "baby-like" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "baby-like" naturally.

---

bit part (noun)

A small role.

- He looked up "bit part" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bit part."

---

death house (noun)

The cellblock in a prison where those condemned to death await execution.

- In class, the teacher used "death house" to mean the cellblock in a prison where those condemned to....
- They discussed "death house" during the group presentation.

---

department (noun)

A specialized division of a large organization.

- You'll find it in the hardware department.
- Baking is not my department.

---

every bit (adverb)

To the same degree (often followed by 'as').

- He is every bit as mean as she is.
- He answered "every bit," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

for the moment (adverb)

Temporarily.

- We'll stop for the time being.
- He answered "for the moment," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

force (noun)

A unit that is part of some military service.

- He sent Caesar a force of six thousand men.
- The force of his eloquence easily persuaded them.

---

full stop (noun)

A punctuation mark (.) placed at the end of a declarative sentence to indicate a full stop or after abbreviations.

- In England they call a period a stop.
- The article explained what "full stop" means with a simple example.

---

hear (verb)

Get to know or become aware of, usually accidentally.

- The jury had heard all the evidence.
- We heard nothing from our son for five years.

---

line of thought (noun)

A particular way of thinking that is characteristic of some individual or group.

- Understanding "line of thought" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "line of thought" during the group presentation.

---

making water (noun)

A euphemism for urination.

- He looked up "making water" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "making water."

---

points (noun)

A V-shaped mark at one end of an arrow pointer.

- The cannibal's teeth were filed to sharp points.
- A row of points.

---

re (noun)

The syllable naming the second (supertonic) note of any major scale in solmization.

- They discussed "re" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "re" means with a simple example.

---

summer (noun)

The period of finest development, happiness, or beauty.

- The golden summer of his life.
- They spent a lazy summer at the shore.

---

system call (noun)

An instruction that interrupts the program being executed and passes control to the supervisor.

- They discussed "system call" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "system call" because he had never seen it before.

---

term (noun)

A word or expression used for some particular thing.

- He learned many medical terms.
- A prison term.

---

too soon (adverb)

Before the usual time or the time expected.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "too soon" naturally.
- Using "too soon" can make your explanation more exact.

---

turn off (verb)

Cause to stop operating by disengaging a switch.

- Turn off the stereo, please.
- Turn out the lights.

---

whole name (noun)

A word that names the whole of which a given word is a part.

- Understanding "whole name" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "whole name" during the group presentation.

whole number (noun)

Any of the natural numbers (positive or negative) or zero.

- An integer is a number that is not a fraction.
- In class, the teacher used "whole number" to mean any of the natural numbers (positive or negative)....

america (noun)

North America and South America and Central America.

- Understanding "america" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "america" during the group presentation.

check off (verb)

Put a check mark on or near or next to.

- Please check each name on the list.
- Tick off the items.

come close (verb)

Nearly do something.

- She came close to quitting her job.
- She tried to use "come close" carefully so everyone would understand.

date (noun)

A particular but unspecified point in time.

- They hoped to get together at an early date.
- What is the date today?

family court (noun)

A court in some states in the United States that has jurisdiction over family disputes (especially those involving children).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "family court."
- Understanding "family court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

game room (noun)

A recreation room for noisy activities (parties or children's play etc).

- They discussed "game room" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "game room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

get word (verb)

Get to know or become aware of, usually accidentally.

- The coach explained when to use "get word" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "get word" until he saw an example.

hard water (noun)

Water that contains mineral salts (as calcium and magnesium ions) that limit the formation of lather with soap.

- He looked up "hard water" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hard water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

miss (noun)

A form of address for an unmarried woman.

- In class, the teacher used "miss" to mean a form of address for an unmarried woman.
- The article explained what "miss" means with a simple example.

post-free (adverb)

Having the postage paid by the sender.

- The narrator describes the scene "post-free" in the final chapter.
- She spoke "post-free," and the audience immediately understood her point.

third world (noun)

Underdeveloped and developing countries of Asia and Africa and Latin America collectively.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "third world."
- He looked up "third world" because he had never seen it before.

---

to date (adverb)

Prior to the present time.

- No suspect has been found to date.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "to date" naturally.

---

a great deal (adverb)

To a very great degree or extent.

- This would help a great deal.
- He answered "a great deal," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

account (noun)

A record or narrative description of past events.

- He gave an inaccurate account of the plot to kill the president.
- The account of his speech that was given on the evening news made the governor furious.

---

board up (verb)

Cover with wooden boards.

- Board up windows before the hurricane.
- Can you use "board up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cut out (verb)

Strike or cancel by or as if by rubbing or crossing out.

- Scratch out my name on that list.
- Cut out the extra text.

---

early days (noun)

An early period of development.

- He looked up "early days" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "early days" during the group presentation.

---

especially (adverb)

To a distinctly greater extent or degree than is common.

- An especially (or specially) cautious approach to the danger.
- The narrator describes the scene "especially" in the final chapter.

---

eyes (noun)

Opinion or judgment.

- In the eyes of the law.
- I was wrong in her eyes.

---

great deal (noun)

(often followed by 'of') a large number or amount or extent.

- A deal of trouble.
- The article explained what "great deal" means with a simple example.

---

hard line (noun)

A firm and uncompromising stance or position.

- The governor took a hard line on drugs.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hard line."

---

have sex (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- She tried to use "have sex" carefully so everyone would understand.

- In everyday English, people use "have sex" when talking about this idea.

---

june (noun)

The month following May and preceding July.

- Understanding "june" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "june" because he had never seen it before.

---

period (noun)

A unit of geological time during which a system of rocks formed.

- Ganoid fishes swarmed during the earlier geological periods.
- A time period of 30 years.

---

point of order (noun)

A question as to whether the current proceedings are allowed by parliamentary procedure.

- The article explained what "point of order" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "point of order" to mean a question as to whether the current proceedings....

---

public law (noun)

A law affecting the public at large.

- They discussed "public law" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "public law" means with a simple example.

---

put to death (verb)

Kill as a means of socially sanctioned punishment.

- She tried to use "put to death" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "put to death" and when to wait.

---

take fire (verb)

Start to burn or burst into flames.

- He did not know how to use "take fire" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "take fire" when talking about this idea.

---

take form (verb)

Develop into a distinctive entity.

- Our plans began to take shape.
- Can you use "take form" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

take to heart (verb)

Get down to; pay attention to; take seriously.

- She tried to use "take to heart" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "take to heart" and when to wait.

---

total (noun)

A quantity obtained by the addition of a group of numbers.

- Understanding "total" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "total" means with a simple example.

---

white water (noun)

Frothy water as in rapids or waterfalls.

- Understanding "white water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "white water" because he had never seen it before.

---

above (noun)

An earlier section of a written text.

- For instructions refer to the above.
- The article explained what "above" means with a simple example.

---

account for (verb)

Be the reason or explanation for.

- The recession accounts for the slow retail business.
- Can you account for all these absences?

---

age of man (noun)

Last 2 million years.

- In class, the teacher used "age of man" to mean last 2 million years.
- The article explained what "age of man" means with a simple example.

---

business news (noun)

News about businesses and investments.

- The article explained what "business news" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "business news" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

call to order (verb)

Open formally.

- The chairman called the meeting to order by pounding his gavel.
- Can you use "call to order" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

case law (noun)

A system of jurisprudence based on judicial precedents rather than statutory laws.

- Common law originated in the unwritten laws of England and was later applied in the United States.
- In class, the teacher used "case law" to mean a system of jurisprudence based on judicial....

---

date from (verb)

Belong to an earlier time.

- This story dates back 200 years.
- Learners should practice how to use "date from" in real sentences.

---

end matter (noun)

Written matter following the main text of a book.

- In class, the teacher used "end matter" to mean written matter following the main text of a book.
- The article explained what "end matter" means with a simple example.

---

family history (noun)

Part of a patient's medical history in which questions are asked in an attempt to find out whether the patient has hereditary tendencies toward particular diseases.

- Understanding "family history" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "family history" to mean part of a patient's medical history in which....

---

family room (noun)

A recreation room in a private house.

- The article explained what "family room" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "family room" to mean a recreation room in a private house.

---

film (noun)

A medium that disseminates moving pictures.

- Film coverage of sporting events.
- The film was shot on location.

---

given name (noun)

The name that precedes the surname.

- Understanding "given name" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "given name."

---

good word (noun)

Something that recommends (or expresses commendation of) a person or thing as worthy or desirable.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good word."
- Understanding "good word" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

happened (verb)

Chance to be or do something, without intention or causation.

- I happened upon the most wonderful bakery not very far from here.
- In everyday English, people use "happened" when talking about this idea.

---

hear out (verb)

Listen to every detail and give a full hearing to.

- Learners should practice how to use "hear out" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "hear out" and when to wait.

---

house of york (noun)

The English royal house (a branch of the Plantagenet line) that reigned from 1461 to 1485; its emblem was a white rose.

- In class, the teacher used "house of york" to mean the english royal house (a branch of the....
- They discussed "house of york" during the group presentation.

---

in common (adverb)

Sharing equally with another or others.

- We have several things in common.
- In common with other companies they advertise widely.

---

in other words (adverb)

Otherwise stated.

- In other words, we are broke.
- Place "in other words" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

knew (verb)

Be familiar or acquainted with a person or an object.

- Galileo knew that the earth moves around the sun.
- Adam knew Eve.

---

lead-in (noun)

The introductory section of a story.

- It was an amusing lead-in to a very serious matter.
- In class, the teacher used "lead-in" to mean the introductory section of a story.

---

likely (adverb)

With considerable certainty; without much doubt.

- She spoke "likely," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered "likely," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

live together (verb)

Share living quarters; usually said of people who are not married and live together as a couple.

- The coach explained when to use "live together" and when to wait.
- Can you use "live together" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

night court (noun)

A criminal court (in large cities) that sits at night.

- They discussed "night court" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "night court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

perfect (noun)

A tense of verbs used in describing action that has been completed (sometimes regarded as perfective aspect).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "perfect."
- He looked up "perfect" because he had never seen it before.

personal (noun)

A short newspaper article about a particular person or group.

- He looked up "personal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "personal."

police state (noun)

A country that maintains repressive control over the people by means of police (especially secret police).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "police state."
- He looked up "police state" because he had never seen it before.

power service (noun)

A public utility that provides electricity.

- He looked up "power service" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "power service" to mean a public utility that provides electricity.

side-to-side (adjective)

Alternately left and right with respect to a central point.

- The side-to-side motion of the boat.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "side-to-side."

week after week (adverb)

For an indefinite number of successive weeks.

- Place "week after week" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "week after week" naturally.

american party (noun)

A former political party in the United States; active in the 1850s to keep power out of the hands of immigrants and Roman Catholics.

- Understanding "american party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "american party" because he had never seen it before.

april (noun)

The month following March and preceding May.

- Understanding "april" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "april."

center (noun)

The middle of a military or naval formation.

- They had to reinforce the center.
- It is in the center of town.

come of age (verb)

Reach a certain age that marks a transition to maturity.

- She tried to use "come of age" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "come of age" when talking about this idea.

couple (noun)

A small indefinite number.

- He's coming for a couple of days.
- The engaged couple.

dead (noun)

A time when coldness (or some other quality associated with death) is intense.

- The dead of winter.
- They buried the dead.

english (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of England or its culture or people.

- English history.
- The English landed aristocracy.

---

happen (verb)

Chance to be or do something, without intention or causation.

- I happen to have just what you need!
- What is happening?

---

hold in (verb)

Hold back; keep from being perceived by others.

- Hold your tongue.
- Hold your temper.

---

in private (adverb)

Kept private or confined to those intimately concerned.

- It was discussed privately between the two men.
- Privately, she thought differently.

---

in return (adverb)

(often followed by 'for') in exchange or in reciprocation.

- Gave up our seats on the plane and in return received several hundred dollars and seats on the next plane out.
- We get many benefits in return for our taxes.

---

large number (noun)

A large indefinite number.

- He looked up "large number" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "large number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lead on (verb)

Entice or induce especially when unwise or mistaken.

- He did not know how to use "lead on" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "lead on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

like a shot (adverb)

Without delay or hesitation; with no time intervening.

- She spoke "like a shot," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "like a shot" can make your explanation more exact.

---

local government (noun)

The government of a local area.

- He looked up "local government" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "local government."

---

mind-set (noun)

A habitual or characteristic mental attitude that determines how you will interpret and respond to situations.

- The article explained what "mind-set" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mind-set" to mean a habitual or characteristic mental attitude that....

---

party line (noun)

The policy of a political group.

- He won in a vote along party lines.
- Understanding "party line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

power law (noun)

(psychophysics) the concept that the magnitude of a subjective sensation increases proportional to a power of the stimulus intensity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "power law."

- He looked up “power law” because he had never seen it before.

---

ready-made (noun)

A manufactured artifact (as a garment or piece of furniture) that is made in advance and available for purchase.

- Their apartment was furnished with ready-mades.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ready-made.”

---

sense (noun)

The faculty through which the external world is apprehended.

- In the dark he had to depend on touch and on his senses of smell and hearing.
- A sense of security.

---

social group (noun)

People sharing some social relation.

- In class, the teacher used “social group” to mean people sharing some social relation.
- The article explained what “social group” means with a simple example.

---

space-time (noun)

The four-dimensional coordinate system (3 dimensions of space and 1 of time) in which physical events are located.

- He looked up “space-time” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “space-time.”

---

stay-at-home (noun)

A person who seldom goes anywhere; one not given to wandering or travel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stay-at-home.”
- The article explained what “stay-at-home” means with a simple example.

---

united states (noun)

The executive and legislative and judicial branches of the federal government of the United States.

- The article explained what “united states” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “united states” to mean the executive and legislative and judicial branches....

---

woman of the house (noun)

A wife who manages a household while her husband earns the family income.

- Understanding “woman of the house” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “woman of the house” because he had never seen it before.

---

above all (adverb)

Above and beyond all other consideration.

- Above all, you must be independent.
- He answered “above all,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

break in (verb)

Enter someone’s (virtual or real) property in an unauthorized manner, usually with the intent to steal or commit a violent act.

- The horse was tough to break.
- She tried to use “break in” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bring off (verb)

Be successful; achieve a goal.

- She pulled it off, even though we never thought her capable of it.
- Can you use “bring off” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

british (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Great Britain or its people or culture.

- His wife is British.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “british.”

---

by rights (adverb)

With reason or justice.

- She spoke "by rights," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "by rights" can make your explanation more exact.

---

center on (verb)

Center upon.

- Her entire attention centered on her children.
- The region centers on Charleston.

---

city room (noun)

The editorial department of a newspaper that edits the local news.

- In class, the teacher used "city room" to mean the editorial department of a newspaper that edits....
- They discussed "city room" during the group presentation.

---

companies (noun)

An institution created to conduct business.

- He only invests in large well-established companies.
- They discussed "companies" during the group presentation.

---

couple on (verb)

Link together.

- Can we couple these proposals?
- Can you use "couple on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cut back (verb)

Cultivate, tend, and cut back the growth of.

- The film cut back to an earlier event in the story.
- The employer wants to cut back health benefits.

---

cut into (verb)

Turn up, loosen, or remove earth.

- She tried to use "cut into" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "cut into" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

first moment (noun)

The sum of the values of a random variable divided by the number of values.

- He looked up "first moment" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first moment."

---

hard news (noun)

News that deals with serious topics or events.

- He looked up "hard news" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hard news" to mean news that deals with serious topics or events.

---

hour (noun)

A period of time equal to 1/24th of a day.

- The job will take more than an hour.
- The hour is getting late.

---

middle (noun)

An intermediate part or section; - Aristotle.

- A whole is that which has beginning, middle, and end.
- The middle of the war.

---

old age (noun)

A late time of life.

- Old age is not for sissies.
- Age hasn't slowed him down at all.

---

present (noun)

The period of time that is happening now; any continuous stretch of time including the moment of speech.

- That is enough for the present.
- He lives in the present with no thought of tomorrow.

---

social system (noun)

The people in a society considered as a system organized by a characteristic pattern of relationships.

- The social organization of England and America is very different.
- In class, the teacher used "social system" to mean the people in a society considered as a system....

---

time period (noun)

An amount of time.

- A time period of 30 years.
- Hastened the period of time of his recovery.

---

view as (verb)

Keep in mind or convey as a conviction or view.

- View as important.
- In everyday English, people use "view as" when talking about this idea.

---

wish (noun)

An expression of some desire or inclination.

- I could tell that it was his wish that the guests leave.
- He got his wish.

---

answer (noun)

A statement that solves a problem or explains how to solve the problem.

- The answers were in the back of the book.
- I waited several days for his answer.

---

as needed (adverb)

According to need (physicians use PRN in writing prescriptions).

- Add water as needed.
- The narrator describes the scene "as needed" in the final chapter.

---

at any cost (adverb)

Regardless of the cost involved.

- He wanted to save her life at all cost.
- She spoke "at any cost," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

at present (adverb)

At the present moment.

- He is busy at present writing a new novel.
- He answered "at present," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

break with (verb)

End a relationship.

- China broke with Russia.
- In everyday English, people use "break with" when talking about this idea.

---

bring through (verb)

Bring into safety.

- We pulled through most of the victims of the bomb attack.
- He did not know how to use "bring through" until he saw an example.

change of mind (noun)

A decision to reverse an earlier decision.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "change of mind."
- He looked up "change of mind" because he had never seen it before.

come near (verb)

Almost do or experience something.

- She came near to screaming with fear.
- They are drawing near.

day of the month (noun)

The specified day of the month.

- What is the date today?
- He looked up "day of the month" because he had never seen it before.

fight back (verb)

Fight against or resist strongly.

- Don't fight it!
- In everyday English, people use "fight back" when talking about this idea.

finally (adverb)

As the end result of a succession or process.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "finally" naturally.
- She spoke "finally," and the audience immediately understood her point.

force back (verb)

Cause to move back by force or influence.

- Push back the urge to smoke.
- Beat back the invaders.

guess (noun)

An estimate based on little or no information.

- They discussed "guess" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "guess" because he had never seen it before.

home front (noun)

The civilian population (and their activities) of a country at war.

- Understanding "home front" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "home front" to mean the civilian population (and their activities) of a....

july (noun)

The month following June and preceding August.

- Understanding "july" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "july" during the group presentation.

lead time (noun)

The time interval between the initiation and the completion of a production process.

- The lead times for many publications can vary tremendously.
- Planning is an area where lead time can be reduced.

period of time (noun)

An amount of time.

- A time period of 30 years.
- Hastened the period of time of his recovery.

policy (noun)

A plan of action adopted by an individual or social group.

- It was a policy of retribution.
- They debated the policy or impolicy of the proposed legislation.

---

society (noun)

A formal association of people with similar interests.

- They formed a small lunch society.
- He enjoyed the society of his friends.

---

third house (noun)

A group of people who try actively to influence legislation.

- The article explained what "third house" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "third house" to mean a group of people who try actively to influence....

---

war party (noun)

A band of warriors who raid or fight an enemy (used especially of Native Americans).

- He looked up "war party" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "war party" to mean a band of warriors who raid or fight an enemy (used....

---

white book (noun)

A government report; bound in white.

- Understanding "white book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "white book" because he had never seen it before.

---

air group (noun)

A unit of the United States Air Force larger than a squadron and smaller than a wing.

- They discussed "air group" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "air group" means with a simple example.

---

al (noun)

A silvery ductile metallic element found primarily in bauxite.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "al."
- He looked up "al" because he had never seen it before.

---

alone (adverb)

Without any others being included or involved.

- The burden of proof rests on the prosecution alone.
- The child stayed home alone.

---

answer for (verb)

Furnish a justifying analysis or explanation.

- I can't account for the missing money.
- Can you use "answer for" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

average (noun)

A statistic describing the location of a distribution.

- He is about average in height.
- The snowfall this month is below average.

---

bank (noun)

An arrangement of similar objects in a row or in tiers.

- He operated a bank of switches.
- They pulled the canoe up on the bank.

---

bring home (verb)

Make understandable and clear.

- This brings home my point.

- How much does your wife take home after taxes and other deductions?

---

by design (adverb)

With intention; in an intentional manner.

- Using "by design" can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene "by design" in the final chapter.

---

common people (noun)

People in general (often used in the plural).

- The common people determine the group character and preserve its customs from one generation to the next.
- In class, the teacher used "common people" to mean people in general (often used in the plural).

---

couple up (verb)

Link together.

- Can we couple these proposals?
- In everyday English, people use "couple up" when talking about this idea.

---

cut off (verb)

Break a small piece off from.

- Cut the noise.
- We had to cut short the conversation.

---

date back (verb)

Belong to an earlier time.

- This story dates back 200 years.
- Can you use "date back" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

east (noun)

The cardinal compass point that is at 90 degrees.

- The article explained what "east" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "east" to mean the cardinal compass point that is at 90 degrees.

---

field day (noun)

A day devoted to an outdoor social gathering.

- Understanding "field day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "field day."

---

for certain (adverb)

Definitely or positively ('sure' is sometimes used informally for 'surely').

- She certainly is a hard worker.
- It's going to be a good day for sure.

---

higher up (adverb)

In or to a place that is higher.

- Place "higher up" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "higher up," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

hold out (verb)

Wait uncompromisingly for something desirable.

- He held out for the dessert and did not touch the cheeses.
- He held out his hand.

---

hold up (verb)

Resist or withstand wear, criticism, etc.

- Her shoes won't hold up.
- This theory won't hold water.

---

in point of fact (adverb)

In reality or actuality.

- In fact, it was a wonder anyone survived.
- Painters who are in fact anything but unsophisticated.

---

inside out (adverb)

With the inside facing outward.

- She turned the shirt inside out.
- She knows this town inside out.

---

know-nothing party (noun)

A former political party in the United States; active in the 1850s to keep power out of the hands of immigrants and Roman Catholics.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "know-nothing party."
- He looked up "know-nothing party" because he had never seen it before.

---

last word (noun)

The final statement in a verbal argument.

- She always gets the last word.
- My doctor has the last word on the medicines I take.

---

living thing (noun)

A living (or once living) entity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "living thing."
- They discussed "living thing" during the group presentation.

---

making known (noun)

A speech act that conveys information.

- Understanding "making known" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "making known" to mean a speech act that conveys information.

---

original (noun)

Something that serves as a model or a basis for making copies.

- This painting is a copy of the original.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "original."

---

out of view (adverb)

No longer visible.

- The ship disappeared behind the horizon and passed out of sight.
- She spoke "out of view," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

quite a little (noun)

(often followed by 'of') a large number or amount or extent.

- They discussed "quite a little" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "quite a little" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rest day (noun)

A day set aside for rest.

- He looked up "rest day" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "rest day" during the group presentation.

---

service book (noun)

A book setting forth the forms of church service.

- In class, the teacher used "service book" to mean a book setting forth the forms of church service.
- He looked up "service book" because he had never seen it before.

---

small talk (noun)

Light informal conversation for social occasions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “small talk.”
- The article explained what “small talk” means with a simple example.

---

worth (noun)

An indefinite quantity of something having a specified value.

- 10 dollars worth of gasoline.
- In class, the teacher used “worth” to mean an indefinite quantity of something having a....

---

bill (noun)

A statute in draft before it becomes law.

- They held a public hearing on the bill.
- He paid his bill and left.

---

books (noun)

The sacred writings of the Christian religions.

- His name is in all the record books.
- They got a subpoena to examine our books.

---

bring around (verb)

Cause to adopt an opinion or course of action.

- His urgent letter finally brought me around to give money to the school.
- These pictures bring back sad memories.

---

cut down (verb)

Cause to fall by or as if by delivering a blow.

- Strike down a tree.
- Lightning struck down the hikers.

---

day of rest (noun)

A day set aside for rest.

- The article explained what “day of rest” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “day of rest” to mean a day set aside for rest.

---

exactly (adverb)

Indicating exactness or preciseness.

- He was doing precisely (or exactly) what she had told him to do.
- He answered “exactly,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

face to face (adverb)

Involving close contact; confronting each other.

- The boy and the policeman suddenly came face-to-face at the corner.
- They spoke face to face.

---

face-to-face (adverb)

Directly facing each other.

- The two photographs lay face-to-face on the table.
- Lived all their lives in houses face-to-face across the street.

---

fight off (verb)

Force or drive back.

- Fight off the onslaught.
- Can you use “fight off” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

film over (verb)

Become glassy; lose clear vision.

- Her eyes glazed over from lack of sleep.
- Learners should practice how to use “film over” in real sentences.

form family (noun)

(biology) an artificial taxonomic category for organisms of which the true relationships are obscure.

- In class, the teacher used "form family" to mean (biology) an artificial taxonomic category for....
- Understanding "form family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

get hold of (verb)

Get into one's hands, take physically.

- Learners should practice how to use "get hold of" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "get hold of" carefully so everyone would understand.

giving (noun)

The imparting of news or promises etc.

- He gave us the news and made a great show of the giving.
- Giving his word of honor seemed to come too easily.

ground (noun)

A rational motive for a belief or action.

- The grounds for their declaration.
- He dropped the logs on the ground.

most especially (adverb)

Above and beyond all other consideration.

- She spoke "most especially," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered "most especially," which changed the tone of the conversation.

night watch (noun)

A watch during the night (as from midnight to 8 a.m.).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "night watch."
- He looked up "night watch" because he had never seen it before.

night-light (noun)

Light (as a candle or small bulb) that burns in a bedroom at night (as for children or invalids).

- The article explained what "night-light" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "night-light" to mean light (as a candle or small bulb) that burns in a....

past times (noun)

The time that has elapsed.

- Forget the past.
- He looked up "past times" because he had never seen it before.

questions (noun)

A sentence of inquiry that asks for a reply.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "questions."
- He looked up "questions" because he had never seen it before.

september (noun)

The month following August and preceding October.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "september."
- The article explained what "september" means with a simple example.

small hours (noun)

The hours just after midnight.

- Understanding "small hours" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "small hours" to mean the hours just after midnight.

sound (noun)

The audible part of a transmitted signal.

- The sound of rain on the roof.
- The beautiful sound of music.

---

stay away (verb)

Stay clear of, avoid.

- In everyday English, people use "stay away" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "stay away" until he saw an example.

---

take issue (verb)

Be of different opinions.

- The coach explained when to use "take issue" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "take issue" until he saw an example.

---

usually (adverb)

Under normal conditions.

- Usually she was late.
- Using "usually" can make your explanation more exact.

---

value (noun)

An ideal accepted by some individual or group.

- He has old-fashioned values.
- The value assigned was 16 milliseconds.

---

white room (noun)

A room that is virtually free of dust or bacteria; used in laboratory work and in assembly or repair of precision equipment.

- Understanding "white room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "white room" during the group presentation.

---

air power (noun)

The aggregation of a country's military aircraft.

- They discussed "air power" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "air power" means with a simple example.

---

black book (noun)

A list of people who are out of favor.

- Understanding "black book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "black book" means with a simple example.

---

come across (verb)

Communicate the intended meaning or impression.

- He came across very clearly.
- He did not know how to use "come across" until he saw an example.

---

evidence (noun)

An indication that makes something evident.

- His trembling was evidence of his fear.
- The evidence that smoking causes lung cancer is very compelling.

---

fight down (verb)

Fight against or resist strongly.

- Don't fight it!
- Learners should practice how to use "fight down" in real sentences.

---

follow (verb)

To bring something about at a later time than.

- She followed dinner with a brandy.

- He followed his lecture with a question and answer period.

---

free form (noun)

A morpheme that can occur alone.

- He looked up "free form" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "free form" during the group presentation.

---

good sense (noun)

Sound practical judgment.

- Common sense is not so common.
- He hasn't got the sense God gave little green apples.

---

hold over (verb)

Hold back to a later time.

- She was holding it over him.
- He did not know how to use "hold over" until he saw an example.

---

in a similar way (adverb)

With something of the same kind.

- Place "in a similar way" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in a similar way" naturally.

---

light company (noun)

A public utility that provides electricity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light company."
- The article explained what "light company" means with a simple example.

---

look across (verb)

Be oriented in a certain direction.

- The house looks out on a tennis court.
- The apartment overlooks the Hudson.

---

make sense (verb)

Be reasonable or logical or comprehensible.

- The coach explained when to use "make sense" and when to wait.
- Can you use "make sense" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

news story (noun)

An article reporting news.

- He looked up "news story" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "news story" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ok (adverb)

An expression of agreement normally occurring at the beginning of a sentence.

- She spoke "ok," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "ok" can make your explanation more exact.

---

reading (noun)

A particular interpretation or performance.

- On that reading it was an insult.
- He was famous for his reading of Mozart.

---

south american (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of the continent or countries of South America or their peoples.

- A "south american" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "south american"? Explain why.

---

stuff (noun)

A critically important or characteristic component.

- Suspense is the very stuff of narrative.
- Wheat is the stuff they use to make bread.

---

tax (verb)

Make a charge against or accuse.

- They taxed him failure to appear in court.
- The State taxes alcohol heavily.

---

turn away (verb)

Refuse entrance or membership.

- They turned away hundreds of fans.
- He did not know how to use "turn away" until he saw an example.

---

two weeks (noun)

A period of fourteen consecutive days.

- The article explained what "two weeks" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "two weeks" to mean a period of fourteen consecutive days.

---

a million times (adverb)

By a factor of a million.

- It increased a millionfold.
- The narrator describes the scene "a million times" in the final chapter.

---

age group (noun)

A group of people having approximately the same age.

- Understanding "age group" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "age group" to mean a group of people having approximately the same age.

---

average out (verb)

Amount to or come to an average, without loss or gain.

- The number of hours I work per work averages out to 40.
- In everyday English, people use "average out" when talking about this idea.

---

black hand (noun)

A secret terrorist society in the United States early in the 20th century.

- He looked up "black hand" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "black hand" to mean a secret terrorist society in the united states....

---

blue (noun)

The sky as viewed during daylight.

- He shot an arrow into the blue.
- He had eyes of bright blue.

---

break into (verb)

Express or utter spontaneously.

- Break into a yodel.
- Break into a song.

---

common year (noun)

A year that is not a leap year.

- He looked up "common year" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "common year" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

countries (noun)

The people who live in a nation or country.

- He visited several European countries.

- He looked up “countries” because he had never seen it before.

---

drive in (verb)

Cause to penetrate, as with a circular motion.

- Drive in screws or bolts.
- The star and her manager drive in today from their motor tour across the country.

---

fall in (verb)

To take one’s place in a military formation or line.

- Troops fall in!
- She tried to use “fall in” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

federal (adjective)

Of or relating to the central government of a federation.

- A federal district is one set aside as the seat of the national government.
- A federal system like that of the United States.

---

giving up (noun)

A verbal act of admitting defeat.

- They discussed “giving up” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “giving up” means with a simple example.

---

hold back (verb)

Hold back; keep from being perceived by others.

- Turn back the tide of communism.
- The coach explained when to use “hold back” and when to wait.

---

lead off (verb)

Teach immoral behavior to.

- It was common practice to lead off the young ones, and teach them bad habits.
- In everyday English, people use “lead off” when talking about this idea.

---

league (noun)

An obsolete unit of distance of variable length (usually 3 miles).

- The article explained what “league” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “league.”

---

man and wife (noun)

Two people who are married to each other.

- He looked up “man and wife” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “man and wife” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

off the record (adverb)

Not for quotation.

- He spoke to the reporter off the record.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “off the record” naturally.

---

power series (noun)

The sum of terms containing successively higher integral powers of a variable.

- He looked up “power series” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “power series.”

---

press out (verb)

Obtain from a substance, as by mechanical action.

- Italians express coffee rather than filter it.
- Stub out your cigar.

---

rest home (noun)

An institution where people are cared for.

- A home for the elderly.
- The article explained what "rest home" means with a simple example.

---

stand by (verb)

Be available or ready for a certain function or service.

- In everyday English, people use "stand by" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "stand by" in real sentences.

---

stand for (verb)

Take the place of or be parallel or equivalent to.

- Because of the sound changes in the course of history, an 'h' in Greek stands for an 's' in Latin.
- I won't stand for this kind of behavior!

---

step in (verb)

Get involved, so as to alter or hinder an action, or through force or threat of force.

- Can you use "step in" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "step in" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

take account (verb)

Be fully aware of; realize fully.

- She tried to use "take account" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "take account" until he saw an example.

---

watch case (noun)

The metal case in which the works of a watch are housed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "watch case."
- They discussed "watch case" during the group presentation.

---

close order (noun)

A military formation for drill or marching.

- Understanding "close order" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "close order."

---

department of state (noun)

The federal department in the United States that sets and maintains foreign policies.

- The Department of State was created in 1789.
- Understanding "department of state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fire company (noun)

A private or temporary organization of individuals equipped to fight fires.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire company."
- He looked up "fire company" because he had never seen it before.

---

form of government (noun)

The members of a social organization who are in power.

- In class, the teacher used "form of government" to mean the members of a social organization who are in power.
- The article explained what "form of government" means with a simple example.

---

free list (noun)

A list of commodities that are not subject to tariffs.

- In class, the teacher used "free list" to mean a list of commodities that are not subject to tariffs.
- The article explained what "free list" means with a simple example.

---

groups (noun)

A set that is closed, associative, has an identity element and every element has an inverse.

- In class, the teacher used "groups" to mean a set that is closed, associative, has an identity....
- He looked up "groups" because he had never seen it before.

---

hold off (verb)

Resist and fight to a standoff.

- Dallas had enough of a lead to hold the Broncos off.
- The scientists held off announcing their results until they repeated the experiment.

---

in any event (adverb)

Used to indicate that a statement explains or supports a previous statement.

- Anyhow, he is dead now.
- I think they're asleep; anyhow, they're quiet.

---

know what's what (verb)

Be well-informed.

- Can you use "know what's what" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "know what's what" when talking about this idea.

---

range (noun)

A kitchen appliance used for cooking food.

- The range of a supersonic jet.
- A piano has a greater range than the human voice.

---

range in (verb)

Direct onto a point or target, especially by automatic navigational aids.

- The coach explained when to use "range in" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "range in" in real sentences.

---

round up (verb)

Seek out and bring together.

- Round up some loyal followers.
- In everyday English, people use "round up" when talking about this idea.

---

science (noun)

A particular branch of scientific knowledge.

- The science of genetics.
- The sweet science of pugilism.

---

sound out (verb)

Speak, pronounce, or utter in a certain way.

- Can the child sound out this complicated word?
- I have to sound out the new professor.

---

stand up (verb)

Resist or withstand wear, criticism, etc.

- Can you stand the bookshelf up?
- We had to stand for the entire performance!

---

state department (noun)

The federal department in the United States that sets and maintains foreign policies.

- The Department of State was created in 1789.
- The article explained what "state department" means with a simple example.

---

take hold (verb)

Have or hold in one's hands or grip.

- Hold this bowl for a moment, please.
- A crazy idea took hold of him.

third person (noun)

Pronouns and verbs that are used to refer to something other than the speaker or addressee of the language in which they occur.

- He looked up "third person" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "third person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

type family (noun)

A complete set of type suitable for printing text.

- Understanding "type family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "type family" because he had never seen it before.

war room (noun)

A room where strategic decisions are made (especially for military or political campaigns).

- The article explained what "war room" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "war room."

any longer (adverb)

At the present or from now on; usually used with a negative.

- Alice doesn't live here anymore.
- The children promised not to quarrel any more.

attention (noun)

The faculty or power of mental concentration.

- Keeping track of all the details requires your complete attention.
- The old car needs constant attention.

break of day (noun)

The first light of day.

- Understanding "break of day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "break of day" during the group presentation.

break of the day (noun)

The first light of day.

- They talked until morning.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "break of the day."

by a long shot (adverb)

By a great deal.

- He is the best by a long shot.
- His labors haven't ended there–not by a long shot.

fall out (verb)

Come as a logical consequence; follow logically.

- The theorem falls out nicely.
- We fell out over a trivial question.

field house (noun)

An athletic facility where athletes prepare for sport.

- He looked up "field house" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "field house" during the group presentation.

follow up on (verb)

Carry further or advance.

- In everyday English, people use "follow up on" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "follow up on" carefully so everyone would understand.

government building (noun)

A building that houses a branch of government.

- The article explained what "government building" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "government building" to mean a building that houses a branch of government.

---

hand in hand (adverb)

Clasping each other's hands.

- They walked hand in hand.
- Hand in hand with hope went fear.

---

hand to hand (adverb)

At close quarters.

- Fought hand to hand.
- Using "hand to hand" can make your explanation more exact.

---

high-energy (adjective)

Of or relating to elementary particles having energies of hundreds of thousands of electron volts.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "high-energy."
- Would you call this situation "high-energy"? Explain why.

---

hold still for (verb)

Tolerate or bear.

- I won't stand for this kind of behavior!
- The coach explained when to use "hold still for" and when to wait.

---

james (noun)

A New Testament book attributed to Saint James the Apostle.

- In class, the teacher used "james" to mean a new testament book attributed to saint james the....
- They discussed "james" during the group presentation.

---

looked (verb)

Look forward to the probable occurrence of.

- She looked over the expanse of land.
- She looked pale after the surgery.

---

matter of course (noun)

An inevitable ending.

- The article explained what "matter of course" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matter of course."

---

matter of law (noun)

A disputed legal contention that is generally left for a judge to decide.

- In class, the teacher used "matter of law" to mean a disputed legal contention that is generally left....
- The article explained what "matter of law" means with a simple example.

---

natural (noun)

A notation cancelling a previous sharp or flat.

- He's a natural for the job.
- The article explained what "natural" means with a simple example.

---

north american (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of the continent or countries of North America or their peoples.

- The speaker chose "north american" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "north american" when it is of or pertaining to or characteristic of the....

---

october (noun)

The month following September and preceding November.

- In class, the teacher used "october" to mean the month following september and preceding november.

- Understanding "october" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

put across (verb)

Transmit information.

- She tried to use "put across" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "put across" when talking about this idea.

---

rest house (noun)

A building used for shelter by travelers (especially in areas where there are no hotels).

- In class, the teacher used "rest house" to mean a building used for shelter by travelers....
- The article explained what "rest house" means with a simple example.

---

send (verb)

To cause or order to be taken, directed, or transmitted to another place.

- Send me your latest results.
- Learners should practice how to use "send" in real sentences.

---

send in (verb)

Mail in; cause to be delivered.

- Send in your comments.
- Can you use "send in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

set on fire (verb)

Set fire to; cause to start burning.

- Lightening set fire to the forest.
- Can you use "set on fire" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

since a long time ago (adverb)

Since long ago.

- Using "since a long time ago" can make your explanation more exact.
- He answered "since a long time ago," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

size up (verb)

To look at critically or searchingly, or in minute detail.

- She tried to use "size up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "size up" and when to wait.

---

soon enough (adverb)

Without being tardy.

- Using "soon enough" can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene "soon enough" in the final chapter.

---

summer house (noun)

A country house (usually located in the country) that provides a cool place to live in the summer.

- The article explained what "summer house" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "summer house" during the group presentation.

---

third power (noun)

The product of three equal terms.

- In class, the teacher used "third power" to mean the product of three equal terms.
- They discussed "third power" during the group presentation.

---

town house (noun)

A house that is one of a row of identical houses situated side by side and sharing common walls.

- He looked up "town house" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "town house" during the group presentation.

---

vote (noun)

The total number of voters who participated.

- They are expecting a large vote.
- There were only 17 votes in favor of the motion.

---

vote in (verb)

Elect in a voting process.

- They voted in Clinton.
- In everyday English, people use "vote in" when talking about this idea.

---

world view (noun)

A comprehensive view of the world and human life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "world view."
- The article explained what "world view" means with a simple example.

---

as far as possible (adverb)

To a feasible extent.

- She helped him as much as possible.
- He answered "as far as possible," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

august (noun)

The month following July and preceding September.

- They discussed "august" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "august" means with a simple example.

---

break down (verb)

Make a mathematical, chemical, or grammatical analysis of; break down into components or essential features.

- Martin Luther King tried to break down racial discrimination.
- The bus we travelled in broke down on the way to town.

---

complete (verb)

Write all the required information onto a form.

- She completed the requirements for her Master's Degree.
- A child would complete the family.

---

economic (adjective)

Of or relating to the science of economics.

- Economic theory.
- Economic growth.

---

first reading (noun)

The first presentation of a bill in a legislature.

- In class, the teacher used "first reading" to mean the first presentation of a bill in a legislature.
- The article explained what "first reading" means with a simple example.

---

get the picture (verb)

Get the meaning of something.

- Do you comprehend the meaning of this letter?
- He did not know how to use "get the picture" until he saw an example.

---

in short order (adverb)

Without delay.

- John got ready in short order.
- The narrator describes the scene "in short order" in the final chapter.

---

language (noun)

The mental faculty or power of vocal communication.

- Language sets homo sapiens apart from all other animals.
- He taught foreign languages.

---

list system (noun)

Based on the principle of proportional representation; voters choose between party lists, the number elected from each list being determined by the percentage cast for each list out of the total vote.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "list system."
- He looked up "list system" because he had never seen it before.

---

major power (noun)

A state powerful enough to influence events throughout the world.

- He looked up "major power" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "major power" during the group presentation.

---

november (noun)

The month following October and preceding December.

- He looked up "november" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "november" to mean the month following october and preceding december.

---

oil (noun)

A dark oil consisting mainly of hydrocarbons.

- In class, the teacher used "oil" to mean a dark oil consisting mainly of hydrocarbons.
- The article explained what "oil" means with a simple example.

---

out of the blue (adverb)

In a way that was not expected.

- Her brother showed up at the wedding out of the blue.
- He answered "out of the blue," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

political system (noun)

The members of a social organization who are in power.

- Understanding "political system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "political system" to mean the members of a social organization who are in power.

---

question of law (noun)

A disputed legal contention that is generally left for a judge to decide.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "question of law."
- They discussed "question of law" during the group presentation.

---

send for (verb)

Order, request, or command to come.

- He did not know how to use "send for" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "send for" when talking about this idea.

---

six times (adverb)

By a factor of six.

- The population of this town increased sixfold when gold was found in the surrounding hills.
- He answered "six times," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

talking point (noun)

An especially persuasive point helping to support an argument or discussion.

- In class, the teacher used "talking point" to mean an especially persuasive point helping to support....
- He looked up "talking point" because he had never seen it before.

---

the least bit (adverb)

In the slightest degree or in any respect.

- Was not in the least unfriendly.
- The narrator describes the scene "the least bit" in the final chapter.

third party (noun)

A political party organized in opposition to the major parties in a two-party system.

- The article explained what "third party" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "third party" to mean a political party organized in opposition to the....

article (noun)

A separate section of a legal document (as a statute or contract or will).

- An article of clothing.
- Understanding "article" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

central time (noun)

Standard time in the 6th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 90th meridian; used in the central United States.

- Understanding "central time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "central time" means with a simple example.

control room (noun)

A room housing control equipment (as in a recording studio).

- He looked up "control room" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "control room" during the group presentation.

french (adjective)

Of or pertaining to France or the people of France.

- French cooking.
- It is useful to describe something as "french" when it is of or pertaining to france or the people of france.

in due course (adverb)

At the appropriate time.

- We'll get to this question in due course.
- He answered "in due course," which changed the tone of the conversation.

january (noun)

The first month of the year; begins 10 days after the winter solstice.

- In class, the teacher used "january" to mean the first month of the year; begins 10 days after....
- He looked up "january" because he had never seen it before.

matter of fact (noun)

A matter that is an actual fact or is demonstrable as a fact.

- In class, the teacher used "matter of fact" to mean a matter that is an actual fact or is demonstrable....
- The article explained what "matter of fact" means with a simple example.

order form (noun)

A form to use when placing an order.

- In class, the teacher used "order form" to mean a form to use when placing an order.
- They discussed "order form" during the group presentation.

poor (noun)

People without possessions or wealth (considered as a group).

- The urban poor need assistance.
- He looked up "poor" because he had never seen it before.

put one across (verb)

Fool or hoax.

- The immigrant was duped because he trusted everyone.
- She tried to use "put one across" carefully so everyone would understand.

release (noun)

A process that liberates or discharges something.

- There was a sudden release of oxygen.
- The release of iodine from the thyroid gland.

---

second moment (noun)

The expected value of the square of the deviations of a random variable from the point of origin.

- He looked up "second moment" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "second moment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

send out (verb)

To cause or order to be taken, directed, or transmitted to another place.

- The coach explained when to use "send out" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "send out" in real sentences.

---

short story (noun)

A prose narrative shorter than a novel.

- They discussed "short story" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "short story."

---

stand back (verb)

Stand away from an object or person.

- He stood back to look at her.
- He did not know how to use "stand back" until he saw an example.

---

stay together (verb)

Be loyal to one another, especially in times of trouble.

- The two families stuck together throughout the war.
- In everyday English, people use "stay together" when talking about this idea.

---

take into account (verb)

Allow or plan for a certain possibility; concede the truth or validity of something.

- She tried to use "take into account" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "take into account" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

technology (noun)

The discipline dealing with the art or science of applying scientific knowledge to practical problems.

- He looked up "technology" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "technology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thought process (noun)

The process of using your mind to consider something carefully.

- She paused for thought.
- He looked up "thought process" because he had never seen it before.

---

vote out (verb)

Thwart the passage of.

- Learners should practice how to use "vote out" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "vote out" and when to wait.

---

word of god (noun)

The sacred writings of the Christian religions.

- He went to carry the Word to the heathen.
- The article explained what "word of god" means with a simple example.

---

world bank (noun)

A United Nations agency created to assist developing nations by loans guaranteed by member governments.

- In class, the teacher used "world bank" to mean a united nations agency created to assist....

- The article explained what "world bank" means with a simple example.

---

yes-no question (noun)

A question that can be answered by yes or no.

- They discussed "yes-no question" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "yes-no question" to mean a question that can be answered by yes or no.

---

as a matter of fact (adverb)

In reality or actuality.

- In fact, it was a wonder anyone survived.
- Painters who are in fact anything but unsophisticated.

---

at any rate (adverb)

If nothing else ('leastwise' is informal and 'leastways' is colloquial).

- They felt–at any rate Jim felt–relieved though still wary.
- The influence of economists–or at any rate of economics–is far-reaching.

---

call into question (verb)

Challenge the accuracy, probity, or propriety of.

- We must question your judgment in this matter.
- Learners should practice how to use "call into question" in real sentences.

---

cover (noun)

A natural object that covers or envelops.

- Under a covering of dust.
- The fox was flushed from its cover.

---

cover for (verb)

Provide an excuse or alibi for someone so as to cover up guilt.

- I won't lie and cover for you.
- She tried to use "cover for" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

currently (adverb)

At this time or period; now.

- Currently they live in Connecticut.
- Place "currently" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

dog do (noun)

Fecal droppings from a dog.

- They discussed "dog do" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dog do" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

door (noun)

A structure where people live or work (usually ordered along a street or road).

- The office next door.
- They live two doors up the street from us.

---

drive back (verb)

Force or drive back.

- He did not know how to use "drive back" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "drive back" and when to wait.

---

european (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Europe or the people of Europe.

- European Community.
- A "european" approach may work better in this case.

---

far and near (adverb)

Over great areas or distances; everywhere.

- He traveled far and wide.
- The news spread far and wide.

---

financial (adjective)

Involving financial matters.

- The speaker chose "financial" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "financial"? Explain why.

---

hands down (adverb)

With no difficulty.

- She spoke "hands down," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "hands down" can make your explanation more exact.

---

increase (noun)

A process of becoming larger or longer or more numerous or more important.

- The increase in unemployment.
- The increase is scheduled for next month.

---

know what's going on (verb)

Be well-informed.

- She tried to use "know what's going on" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "know what's going on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

legal (adjective)

Of or relating to jurisprudence.

- Legal loophole.
- The legal profession.

---

light within (noun)

A divine presence believed by Quakers to enlighten and guide the soul.

- The article explained what "light within" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light within."

---

like hell (adverb)

Used ironically to indicate the opposite of what is stated.

- Says he'll help me? Like hell he will!
- Drove like crazy.

---

news report (noun)

A short account of the news.

- The report of his speech.
- The story was on the 11 o'clock news.

---

old english (noun)

English prior to about 1100.

- They discussed "old english" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "old english" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

open fire (verb)

Start firing a weapon.

- Learners should practice how to use "open fire" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "open fire" until he saw an example.

---

pick (noun)

The quantity of a crop that is harvested.

- He sent the first picking of berries to the market.
- It was the biggest peach pick in years.

---

political party (noun)

An organization to gain political power.

- In 1992 Perot tried to organize a third party at the national level.
- They discussed "political party" during the group presentation.

---

press down on (verb)

Exert a force with a heavy weight.

- The snow bore down on the roof.
- The coach explained when to use "press down on" and when to wait.

---

question of fact (noun)

A disputed factual contention that is generally left for a jury to decide.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "question of fact."
- They discussed "question of fact" during the group presentation.

---

seem (verb)

Give a certain impression or have a certain outward aspect.

- She seems to be sleeping.
- It seems that he is very gifted.

---

seven (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of six and one.

- They discussed "seven" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "seven" means with a simple example.

---

sign (noun)

A character indicating a relation between quantities.

- Don't forget the minus sign.
- He showed signs of strain.

---

simply (adverb)

In a simple manner; without extravagance or embellishment.

- They lived very simply.
- It is simply a matter of time.

---

tv show (noun)

A program broadcast by television.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tv show."
- He looked up "tv show" because he had never seen it before.

---

very fast (adverb)

In a relatively short time.

- Place "very fast" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene "very fast" in the final chapter.

---

walk-in (noun)

A small room large enough to admit entrance.

- The emergency room was overrun with walk-ins.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "walk-in."

---

washington (noun)

The federal government of the United States.

- He looked up "washington" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "washington."

add up (verb)

Add up in number or quantity.

- Add all the people in this town to those of the neighboring town.
- Learners should practice how to use "add up" in real sentences.

bed (noun)

A plot of ground in which plants are growing.

- The gardener planted a bed of roses.
- He sat on the edge of the bed.

began (verb)

Have a beginning characterized in some specified way.

- We began working at dawn.
- The first tourists began to arrive in Cambodia.

by choice (adverb)

With intention; in an intentional manner.

- I did this by choice.
- He answered "by choice," which changed the tone of the conversation.

church-state (noun)

A state ruled by religious authority.

- The article explained what "church-state" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "church-state."

december (noun)

The last (12th) month of the year.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "december."
- He looked up "december" because he had never seen it before.

due south (noun)

The cardinal compass point that is at 180 degrees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "due south."
- He looked up "due south" because he had never seen it before.

fast day (noun)

A day designated for fasting.

- In class, the teacher used "fast day" to mean a day designated for fasting.
- Understanding "fast day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

government department (noun)

A department of government.

- They discussed "government department" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "government department" because he had never seen it before.

high society (noun)

The fashionable elite.

- He looked up "high society" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "high society" during the group presentation.

home movie (noun)

A film made at home by an amateur photographer.

- They discussed "home movie" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "home movie" because he had never seen it before.

in full action (adverb)

Proceeding with full vigor.

- The party was in full swing.
- She spoke "in full action," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

in writing (adverb)

As written or printed.

- The narrator describes the scene "in writing" in the final chapter.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in writing" naturally.

---

knows (noun)

The fact of being aware of information that is known to few people.

- He looked up "knows" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "knows" to mean the fact of being aware of information that is....

---

modern (noun)

A typeface (based on an 18th century design by Gianbattista Bodoni) distinguished by regular shape and hairline serifs and heavy downstrokes.

- The article explained what "modern" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "modern" during the group presentation.

---

never-never land (noun)

A pleasing country existing only in dreams or imagination.

- Understanding "never-never land" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "never-never land" to mean a pleasing country existing only in dreams or....

---

ones (noun)

The smallest whole number or a numeral representing this number.

- They discussed "ones" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ones" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

paper (noun)

A business firm that publishes newspapers.

- Murdoch owns many newspapers.
- He read his newspaper at breakfast.

---

pick at (verb)

Express a negative opinion of.

- She picked nervously at the buttons of her blouse.
- The anorexic girl just picks at her food.

---

police court (noun)

A court that has power to prosecute for minor offenses and to bind over for trial in a superior court anyone accused of serious offenses.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "police court."
- He looked up "police court" because he had never seen it before.

---

press home (verb)

Make clear by special emphasis and try to convince somebody of something.

- Drive home a point or an argument.
- I'm trying to drive home these basic ideas.

---

sign on (verb)

Engage by written agreement.

- They signed two new pitchers for the next season.
- She tried to use "sign on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

state bank (noun)

A bank chartered by a state rather than by the federal government.

- They discussed "state bank" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "state bank."

systems (noun)

A complex of methods or rules governing behavior.

- In class, the teacher used "systems" to mean a complex of methods or rules governing behavior.
- He looked up "systems" because he had never seen it before.

take the stand (verb)

Give testimony in a court of law.

- Learners should practice how to use "take the stand" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "take the stand" when talking about this idea.

version (noun)

An interpretation of a matter from a particular viewpoint.

- His version of the fight was different from mine.
- An experimental version of the night fighter.

army (noun)

A large number of people united for some specific purpose.

- The article explained what "army" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "army" to mean a large number of people united for some specific....

bit by bit (adverb)

A little bit at a time.

- Using "bit by bit" can make your explanation more exact.
- He answered "bit by bit," which changed the tone of the conversation.

black art (noun)

The belief in magical spells that harness occult forces or evil spirits to produce unnatural effects in the world.

- He looked up "black art" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black art."

business department (noun)

A division of a business firm.

- He looked up "business department" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "business department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cover up (verb)

Hide from view or knowledge.

- The President covered the fact that he bugged the offices in the White House.
- Learners should practice how to use "cover up" in real sentences.

fall through (verb)

Fail utterly; collapse.

- The coach explained when to use "fall through" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "fall through" until he saw an example.

forget (verb)

Leave behind unintentionally.

- Don't forget to call the chairman of the board to the meeting!
- He did not know how to use "forget" until he saw an example.

head word (noun)

A content word that can be qualified by a modifier.

- Understanding "head word" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "head word" means with a simple example.

high church (noun)

A group in the Anglican Church that emphasizes the Catholic tradition (especially in sacraments and rituals and obedience to church authority).

- They discussed "high church" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "high church" means with a simple example.

---

home ground (noun)

The type of environment in which an organism or group normally lives or occurs.

- He felt safe on his home grounds.
- Understanding "home ground" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

home stand (noun)

A series of successive games played at a team's home field or court.

- They discussed "home stand" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "home stand" means with a simple example.

---

in a higher place (adverb)

In or to a place that is higher.

- She spoke "in a higher place," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in a higher place" naturally.

---

in practice (adverb)

In practical applications.

- Will this work in practice?
- Place "in practice" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

line of march (noun)

The arrangement of people in a line for marching.

- In class, the teacher used "line of march" to mean the arrangement of people in a line for marching.
- The article explained what "line of march" means with a simple example.

---

listen (verb)

Pay close attention to; give heed to.

- Listen to the sound of this cello.
- Listen to your father.

---

listen in (verb)

Listen without the speaker's knowledge.

- She tried to use "listen in" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "listen in" until he saw an example.

---

morning room (noun)

A sitting room used during the daylight hours.

- The article explained what "morning room" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "morning room" to mean a sitting room used during the daylight hours.

---

news media (noun)

Newspapers and magazines collectively.

- They discussed "news media" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "news media."

---

okay (adverb)

In a satisfactory or adequate manner; ; ; ('alright' is a nonstandard variant of 'all right').

- She'll do okay on her own.
- Place "okay" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

on paper (adverb)

As written or printed.

- This is exactly what the composer had set down on paper.
- Using "on paper" can make your explanation more exact.

---

out-of-door (adjective)

Located, suited for, or taking place in the open air.

- The speaker chose "out-of-door" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "out-of-door"? Explain why.

---

pick out (verb)

Pick out, select, or choose from a number of alternatives.

- The fleeing convicts were picked out of the darkness by the watchful prison guards.
- I can't make out the faces in this photograph.

---

poor people (noun)

People without possessions or wealth (considered as a group).

- The urban poor need assistance.
- The article explained what "poor people" means with a simple example.

---

room light (noun)

Light that provides general illumination for a room.

- They discussed "room light" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "room light" to mean light that provides general illumination for a room.

---

rules (noun)

The duration of a monarch's or government's power.

- He knew the rules of chess.
- The article explained what "rules" means with a simple example.

---

send back (verb)

Refer (a matter or legal case) to another committee or authority or court for decision.

- Can you use "send back" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "send back" until he saw an example.

---

sign up (verb)

Join a club, an activity, etc. with the intention to join or participate,.

- Sign up for yoga classes.
- They signed two new pitchers for the next season.

---

time-release (adjective)

Of or relating to a preparation that gradually releases an active substance (especially a drug) over a period of time.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "time-release."
- Students compared "time-release" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

to a higher place (adverb)

In or to a place that is higher.

- She spoke "to a higher place," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "to a higher place" can make your explanation more exact.

---

united front (noun)

A multiethnic alliance in Afghanistan who practice a moderate form of Islam and are united in their opposition to the Taliban.

- He looked up "united front" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "united front" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

walk-up (noun)

An apartment building without an elevator.

- The article explained what "walk-up" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "walk-up" during the group presentation.

word order (noun)

The order of words in a text.

- Understanding "word order" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "word order."

across the country (adverb)

Extending throughout an entire nation.

- He answered "across the country," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using "across the country" can make your explanation more exact.

below (adverb)

(in writing) see below.

- See below.
- Using "below" can make your explanation more exact.

break away (verb)

Withdraw from an organization or communion.

- After the break up of the Soviet Union, many republics broke away.
- Nobody can break out–this prison is high security.

come round (verb)

Change one's position or opinion.

- He came around to our point of view.
- She tried to use "come round" carefully so everyone would understand.

deep (noun)

The central and most intense or profound part.

- In the deep of night.
- In the deep of winter.

die out (verb)

Cut or shape with a die.

- Die out leather for belts.
- Dinosaurs died out.

drive home (verb)

Make clear by special emphasis and try to convince somebody of something.

- Drive home a point or an argument.
- I'm trying to drive home these basic ideas.

due north (noun)

The cardinal compass point that is at 0 or 360 degrees.

- They discussed "due north" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "due north" means with a simple example.

figure out (verb)

Find the solution to (a problem or question) or understand the meaning of.

- Work out your problems with the boss.
- This unpleasant situation isn't going to work itself out.

followed (verb)

To bring something about at a later time than.

- She followed dinner with a brandy.
- He followed his lecture with a question and answer period.

in truth (adverb)

In fact (used as intensifiers or sentence modifiers).

- In truth, moral decay hastened the decline of the Roman Empire.
- Place "in truth" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

la (noun)

The syllable naming the sixth (submediant) note of a major or minor scale in solmization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "la."
- He looked up "la" because he had never seen it before.

---

life science (noun)

Any of the branches of natural science dealing with the structure and behavior of living organisms.

- Understanding "life science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "life science" means with a simple example.

---

like crazy (adverb)

With great speed or effort or intensity.

- Drove like crazy.
- Worked like hell to get the job done.

---

lord it over (verb)

Act like the master of.

- He is lording it over the students.
- The coach explained when to use "lord it over" and when to wait.

---

meeting house (noun)

Columbine of eastern North America having long-spurred red flowers.

- They discussed "meeting house" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "meeting house" means with a simple example.

---

military government (noun)

Government by the military and an army.

- Understanding "military government" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "military government" to mean government by the military and an army.

---

military group (noun)

A unit that is part of some military service.

- In class, the teacher used "military group" to mean a unit that is part of some military service.
- The article explained what "military group" means with a simple example.

---

movie house (noun)

A theater where films are shown.

- Understanding "movie house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "movie house" because he had never seen it before.

---

news program (noun)

A program devoted to current events, often using interviews and commentary.

- We watch the 7 o'clock news every night.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "news program."

---

offer (noun)

The verbal act of offering.

- A generous offer of assistance.
- Noteworthy new offerings for investors included several index funds.

---

on base (adverb)

On first or second or third base.

- Place "on base" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

- She spoke "on base," and the audience immediately understood her point.

on earth (adverb)

Used with question words to convey surprise.

- What on earth are you doing?
- The narrator describes the scene "on earth" in the final chapter.

party to the action (noun)

A party of people taking a role in legal proceedings.

- In class, the teacher used "party to the action" to mean a party of people taking a role in legal proceedings.
- He looked up "party to the action" because he had never seen it before.

professional (adjective)

Of or relating to or suitable as a profession.

- Professional organizations.
- A professional field such as law.

released (verb)

Make (information) available for publication.

- In everyday English, people use "released" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "released" in a sentence that fits this situation?

running head (noun)

A heading printed at the top of every page (or every other page) of a book.

- The article explained what "running head" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "running head" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

send off (verb)

Throw, send, or cast forward.

- The spy sent the classified information off to Russia.
- He did not know how to use "send off" until he saw an example.

small town (noun)

A community of people smaller than a town.

- They discussed "small town" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "small town" means with a simple example.

starting time (noun)

The time at which something is supposed to begin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "starting time."
- They discussed "starting time" during the group presentation.

table (noun)

A set of data arranged in rows and columns.

- See table 1.
- It was a sturdy table.

ten (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of nine and one; the base of the decimal system.

- The article explained what "ten" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ten."

trade-last (noun)

A compliment that I heard about you that I offer to trade for a compliment you have heard about me.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trade-last."
- They discussed "trade-last" during the group presentation.

box in (verb)

Enclose or confine as if in a box.

- Learners should practice how to use "box in" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "box in" when talking about this idea.

dark (noun)

The time after sunset and before sunrise while it is dark outside.

- The powers of darkness.
- He moved off into the darkness.

drive around (verb)

Drive without any particular aim.

- We were driving around in the countryside on a fine Sunday morning.
- Can you use "drive around" in a sentence that fits this situation?

earth up (verb)

Block with earth, as after a landslide.

- Can you use "earth up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "earth up" and when to wait.

english system (noun)

A system of weights and measures based on the foot and pound and second and pint.

- The article explained what "english system" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "english system" during the group presentation.

europe (noun)

The nations of the European continent collectively.

- The Marshall Plan helped Europe recover from World War II.
- He tried to take Britain into the Europen Union.

home key (noun)

The basic key in which a piece of music is written.

- In class, the teacher used "home key" to mean the basic key in which a piece of music is written.
- The article explained what "home key" means with a simple example.

home page (noun)

The opening page of a web site.

- In class, the teacher used "home page" to mean the opening page of a web site.
- Understanding "home page" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

home range (noun)

The area in which an animal normally ranges.

- He looked up "home range" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "home range" to mean the area in which an animal normally ranges.

living room (noun)

A room in a private house or establishment where people can sit and talk and relax.

- He looked up "living room" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "living room" during the group presentation.

living-room (noun)

A room in a private house or establishment where people can sit and talk and relax.

- They discussed "living-room" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "living-room."

look upon (verb)

Look on as or consider.

- She looked on this affair as a joke.
- Can you use "look upon" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

middle name (noun)

A name between your first name and your surname.

- He looked up "middle name" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "middle name" to mean a name between your first name and your surname.

---

no-goal (noun)

A nonexistent goal.

- He lived without a reason progressing toward no-goal.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "no-goal."

---

note (noun)

A comment or instruction (usually added).

- His notes were appended at the end of the article.
- He made a note of the appointment.

---

on the table (adjective)

Able to be negotiated or arranged by compromise.

- The proposal is still on the table.
- Students compared "on the table" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

percent (noun)

A proportion in relation to a whole (which is usually the amount per hundred).

- The article explained what "percent" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "percent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

personal business (noun)

Matters of personal concern.

- In class, the teacher used "personal business" to mean matters of personal concern.
- The article explained what "personal business" means with a simple example.

---

pick over (verb)

Separate or remove.

- The customer picked over the selection.
- He did not know how to use "pick over" until he saw an example.

---

products (noun)

The set of elements common to two or more sets.

- That store offers a variety of products.
- Understanding "products" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

second-guess (verb)

Attempt to anticipate or predict.

- She tried to use "second-guess" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "second-guess" until he saw an example.

---

seeing (noun)

Perception by means of the eyes.

- They discussed "seeing" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "seeing" means with a simple example.

---

send down (verb)

Suspend temporarily from college or university, in England.

- The coach explained when to use "send down" and when to wait.
- Can you use "send down" in a sentence that fits this situation?

south-west (adverb)

To, toward, or in the southwest.

- Using "south-west" can make your explanation more exact.
- He answered "south-west," which changed the tone of the conversation.

take stage (verb)

Attract attention onto oneself.

- Can you use "take stage" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "take stage" and when to wait.

take the stage (verb)

Attract attention onto oneself.

- Learners should practice how to use "take the stage" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "take the stage" until he saw an example.

united states government (noun)

The executive and legislative and judicial branches of the federal government of the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "united states government" to mean the executive and legislative and judicial branches....
- The article explained what "united states government" means with a simple example.

vote down (verb)

Thwart the passage of.

- He shot down the student's proposal.
- The faculty turned thumbs down on the candidate for the Dean position.

walk over (verb)

Beat easily.

- The local team walked over their old rivals for the championship.
- Can you use "walk over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

wall in (verb)

Enclose with a wall.

- Can you use "wall in" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "wall in" until he saw an example.

baby talk (noun)

An adult's imitation of the speech of a young child.

- He looked up "baby talk" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "baby talk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

back door (noun)

A secret or underhand means of access (to a place or a position).

- He got his job through the back door.
- They discussed "back door" during the group presentation.

british system (noun)

A system of weights and measures based on the foot and pound and second and pint.

- Understanding "british system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "british system."

by the piece (adverb)

One piece at a time.

- She sold the plates by the piece.
- He answered "by the piece," which changed the tone of the conversation.

culture (noun)

A particular society at a particular time and place.

- The culture of cells in a Petri dish.
- The developing drug culture.

---

election day (noun)

The day appointed for an election; in the United States it is the 1st Tuesday after the 1st Monday in November.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "election day."
- Understanding "election day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

family relationship (noun)

(anthropology) relatedness or connection by blood or marriage or adoption.

- He looked up "family relationship" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "family relationship" to mean (anthropology) relatedness or connection by blood....

---

fans (verb)

Separate the chaff from by using air currents.

- The coach explained when to use "fans" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "fans" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

february (noun)

The month following January and preceding March.

- In class, the teacher used "february" to mean the month following january and preceding march.
- The article explained what "february" means with a simple example.

---

financial year (noun)

Any accounting period of 12 months.

- In class, the teacher used "financial year" to mean any accounting period of 12 months.
- They discussed "financial year" during the group presentation.

---

free press (noun)

A press not restricted or controlled by government censorship regarding politics or ideology.

- They discussed "free press" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "free press" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

front matter (noun)

Written matter preceding the main text of a book.

- Understanding "front matter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "front matter" means with a simple example.

---

front room (noun)

A room in a private house or establishment where people can sit and talk and relax.

- He looked up "front room" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "front room."

---

gives (verb)

Be flexible under stress of physical force.

- This student gives promise of real creativity.
- What gives?

---

great dog (noun)

A constellation to the southeast of Orion; contains Sirius.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great dog."
- The article explained what "great dog" means with a simple example.

---

growth (noun)

A progression from simpler to more complex forms.

- The growth of culture.

- The growth of population.

hard lead (noun)

A lead alloy that contains about 5% antimony.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hard lead."
- He looked up "hard lead" because he had never seen it before.

hold water (verb)

Resist or withstand wear, criticism, etc.

- Her shoes won't hold up.
- This theory won't hold water.

home-style (adjective)

As if in the home.

- Home-style cooking.
- A "home-style" approach may work better in this case.

interest group (noun)

(usually plural) a social group whose members control some field of activity and who have common aims.

- The iron interests stepped up production.
- The article explained what "interest group" means with a simple example.

kill off (verb)

Kill en masse; kill on a large scale; kill many.

- Can you use "kill off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "kill off" and when to wait.

offer up (verb)

Present as an act of worship.

- Offer prayers to the gods.
- He did not know how to use "offer up" until he saw an example.

one percent (noun)

One part in a hundred equal parts.

- The article explained what "one percent" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "one percent."

places (noun)

A public square with room for pedestrians.

- Understanding "places" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "places" during the group presentation.

point of view (noun)

A mental position from which things are viewed.

- We should consider this problem from the viewpoint of the Russians.
- Teaching history gave him a special point of view toward current events.

power couple (noun)

A couple both of whom have high-powered careers or are politically influential.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "power couple."
- The article explained what "power couple" means with a simple example.

present times (noun)

The circumstances and ideas of the present age.

- In modern times like these.
- The article explained what "present times" means with a simple example.

red light (noun)

A cautionary sign of danger.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red light."
- He looked up "red light" because he had never seen it before.

---

response (noun)

The manner in which something is greeted.

- This situation developed in response to events in Africa.
- His responses have slowed with age.

---

rock (noun)

A lump or mass of hard consolidated mineral matter.

- He threw a rock at me.
- That mountain is solid rock.

---

social action (noun)

A social policy of reform (especially socioeconomic reform).

- The article explained what "social action" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "social action" during the group presentation.

---

social process (noun)

A process involved in the formation of groups of persons.

- In class, the teacher used "social process" to mean a process involved in the formation of groups of....
- The article explained what "social process" means with a simple example.

---

south by west (noun)

The compass point that is one point west of due south.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south by west."
- The article explained what "south by west" means with a simple example.

---

speak (verb)

Exchange thoughts; talk with.

- The prisoner won't speak.
- They speak a strange dialect.

---

speak for (verb)

Be a spokesperson for.

- In everyday English, people use "speak for" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "speak for" in real sentences.

---

specific (noun)

A fact about some part (as opposed to general).

- Quinine is a specific for malaria.
- He looked up "specific" because he had never seen it before.

---

standard (noun)

The ideal in terms of which something can be judged.

- They live by the standards of their community.
- The schools comply with federal standards.

---

tonight (noun)

The present or immediately coming night.

- The article explained what "tonight" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tonight" during the group presentation.

---

voice over (noun)

The voice on an unseen commentator in a film of television program.

- Understanding “voice over” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “voice over” to mean the voice on an unseen commentator in a film of....

---

war department (noun)

A former executive department of the United States government; created in 1789 and combined with the Navy Department in 1947.

- He looked up “war department” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “war department.”

---

west by south (noun)

The compass point that is one point south of due west.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “west by south.”
- The article explained what “west by south” means with a simple example.

---

white lead (noun)

A poisonous white pigment that contains lead.

- They discussed “white lead” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “white lead” to mean a poisonous white pigment that contains lead.

---

age of reason (noun)

A movement in Europe from about 1650 until 1800 that advocated the use of reason and individualism instead of tradition and established doctrine.

- Understanding “age of reason” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “age of reason.”

---

box up (verb)

Enclose or confine as if in a box.

- She tried to use “box up” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “box up” in real sentences.

---

build up (verb)

Prepare oneself for a military confrontation.

- Troops are building up on the Iraqi border.
- Build up your savings.

---

century (noun)

A period of 100 years.

- He looked up “century” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “century.”

---

cold (noun)

The sensation produced by low temperatures.

- He shivered from the cold.
- The cold helped clear his head.

---

country club (noun)

A suburban club for recreation and socializing.

- In class, the teacher used “country club” to mean a suburban club for recreation and socializing.
- He looked up “country club” because he had never seen it before.

---

day bed (noun)

Convertible consisting of an upholstered couch that can be converted into a double bed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “day bed.”
- They discussed “day bed” during the group presentation.

---

due west (noun)

The cardinal compass point that is a 270 degrees.

- The article explained what “due west” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “due west” to mean the cardinal compass point that is a 270 degrees.

eight (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of seven and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eight."
- They discussed "eight" during the group presentation.

except (verb)

Prevent from being included or considered or accepted.

- Can you use "except" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "except" until he saw an example.

funny (noun)

An account of an amusing incident (usually with a punch line).

- She told a funny story.
- She made a funny.

go to bed (verb)

Prepare for sleep.

- He goes to bed at the crack of dawn.
- Learners should practice how to use "go to bed" in real sentences.

hand-held (adjective)

Small and light enough to be operated while you hold it in your hands.

- A hand-held computer.
- A "hand-held" approach may work better in this case.

high style (noun)

Trend-setting fashions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high style."
- They discussed "high style" during the group presentation.

hit list (noun)

A list of victims to be eliminated (as by murder).

- The article explained what "hit list" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hit list" to mean a list of victims to be eliminated (as by murder).

ii (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of one and one or a numeral representing this number.

- In class, the teacher used "ii" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of one and one....
- Understanding "ii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

in effect (adverb)

In actuality or reality or fact.

- She is effectively his wife.
- In effect, they had no choice.

in that respect (adverb)

In that matter.

- He answered "in that respect," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- She spoke "in that respect," and the audience immediately understood her point.

in two ways (adverb)

In a twofold manner.

- Using "in two ways" can make your explanation more exact.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in two ways" naturally.

keep step (verb)

Maintain the same pace.

- The child cannot keep step with his big brother.
- In everyday English, people use "keep step" when talking about this idea.

---

law of the land (noun)

A phrase used in the Magna Carta to refer to the then established law of the kingdom (as distinct from Roman or civil law); today it refers to fundamental principles of justice commensurate with due process.

- The United States Constitution declares itself to be 'the supreme law of the land'.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "law of the land."

---

military service (noun)

A force that is a branch of the armed forces.

- He looked up "military service" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military service."

---

old style (noun)

A typeface (based on an 18th century design) distinguished by irregularity and slanted ascender serifs and little contrast between light and heavy strokes.

- In class, the teacher used "old style" to mean a typeface (based on an 18th century design)....
- He looked up "old style" because he had never seen it before.

---

peace (noun)

A treaty to cease hostilities.

- Peace came on November 11th.
- The roommates lived in peace together.

---

pick off (verb)

Pull or pull out sharply.

- Pluck the flowers off the bush.
- She tried to use "pick off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

picture show (noun)

A form of entertainment that enacts a story by sound and a sequence of images giving the illusion of continuous movement.

- The article explained what "picture show" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "picture show" during the group presentation.

---

public press (noun)

The print media responsible for gathering and publishing news in the form of newspapers or magazines.

- He looked up "public press" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public press."

---

recently (adverb)

In the recent past.

- He was in Paris recently.
- He answered "recently," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

second reading (noun)

The second presentation of a bill in a legislature; to approve its general principles (Britain) or to discuss a committee's report and take a vote (US).

- In class, the teacher used "second reading" to mean the second presentation of a bill in a legislature;....
- They discussed "second reading" during the group presentation.

---

security service (noun)

The government agency in the United Kingdom that is responsible for internal security and counterintelligence on British territory.

- They discussed "security service" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "security service" to mean the government agency in the united kingdom that is....

---

service club (noun)

A club of professional or business people organized for their coordination and active in public services.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service club."

- The article explained what "service club" means with a simple example.

---

side view (noun)

A view from the side of something.

- Understanding "side view" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "side view."

---

special act (noun)

A legislative act that applies only to a particular person or particular district.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "special act."
- Understanding "special act" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

talk of the town (noun)

Idle gossip or rumor.

- There has been talk about you lately.
- Understanding "talk of the town" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tomorrow (adverb)

The next day, the day after, following the present day.

- The narrator describes the scene "tomorrow" in the final chapter.
- Using "tomorrow" can make your explanation more exact.

---

wall up (verb)

Enclose with a wall.

- In everyday English, people use "wall up" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "wall up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

watch fire (noun)

A fire lighted at night as a signal.

- They discussed "watch fire" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "watch fire."

---

world council (noun)

A council with representatives from different nations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "world council."
- He looked up "world council" because he had never seen it before.

---

ahead (adverb)

To a more advanced or advantageous position.

- A young man sure to get ahead.
- Pushing talented students ahead.

---

allow in (verb)

Allow to enter; grant entry to.

- The coach explained when to use "allow in" and when to wait.
- Can you use "allow in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

american english (noun)

The English language as used in the United States.

- Understanding "american english" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "american english" to mean the english language as used in the united states.

---

as required (adverb)

According to need (physicians use PRN in writing prescriptions).

- The narrator describes the scene "as required" in the final chapter.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "as required" naturally.

---

beat in (verb)

Teach by drills and repetition.

- He did not know how to use "beat in" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "beat in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

black lead (noun)

Used as a lubricant and as a moderator in nuclear reactors.

- They discussed "black lead" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "black lead" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chinese (adjective)

Of or pertaining to China or its peoples or cultures.

- Chinese food.
- The speaker chose "chinese" because it captured the feeling precisely.

committee (noun)

A special group delegated to consider some matter; - Milton Berle.

- A committee is a group that keeps minutes and loses hours.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "committee."

common law (noun)

A system of jurisprudence based on judicial precedents rather than statutory laws.

- Common law originated in the unwritten laws of England and was later applied in the United States.
- The article explained what "common law" means with a simple example.

conference (noun)

A discussion among participants who have an agreed (serious) topic.

- He looked up "conference" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conference."

double (noun)

A quantity that is twice as great as another.

- 36 is the double of 18.
- He hit a double to deep centerfield.

expect (verb)

Look forward to the probable occurrence of.

- We were expecting a visit from our relatives.
- The meteorologists are expecting rain for tomorrow.

final cause (noun)

(philosophy) the end or purpose of a thing or process.

- The article explained what "final cause" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "final cause" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

go deep (verb)

Extend in importance or range.

- Learners should practice how to use "go deep" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "go deep" carefully so everyone would understand.

heart-to-heart (noun)

An intimate talk in private.

- He took me aside for a little heart-to-heart.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heart-to-heart."

island (noun)

A land mass (smaller than a continent) that is surrounded by water.

- They discussed "island" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "island" means with a simple example.

---

little dog (noun)

A constellation to the east of Orion; contains Procyon.

- He looked up "little dog" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little dog."

---

modern world (noun)

The circumstances and ideas of the present age.

- In modern times like these.
- They discussed "modern world" during the group presentation.

---

north-west (adverb)

To, toward, or in the northwest.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "north-west" naturally.
- She spoke "north-west," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

one million million (noun)

The number that is represented as a one followed by 12 zeros.

- Understanding "one million million" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "one million million" means with a simple example.

---

plans (noun)

A series of steps to be carried out or goals to be accomplished.

- They discussed plans for a new bond issue.
- The plans for City Hall were on file.

---

point of no return (noun)

A line that when crossed permits of no return and typically results in irrevocable commitment.

- He looked up "point of no return" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "point of no return" during the group presentation.

---

population (noun)

The people who inhabit a territory or state.

- The population seemed to be well fed and clothed.
- They hired hunters to keep down the deer population.

---

put forward (verb)

Insist on having one's opinions and rights recognized.

- Learners should practice how to use "put forward" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "put forward" when talking about this idea.

---

response time (noun)

The time that elapses between a stimulus and the response to it.

- He looked up "response time" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "response time" to mean the time that elapses between a stimulus and the....

---

running hand (noun)

Rapid handwriting in which letters are set down in full and are cursively connected within words without lifting the writing implement from the paper.

- In class, the teacher used "running hand" to mean rapid handwriting in which letters are set down in....
- He looked up "running hand" because he had never seen it before.

---

russian (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of Russia or its people or culture or language.

- Russian dancing.
- A "russian" approach may work better in this case.

service industry (noun)

An industry that provides services rather than tangible objects.

- The article explained what "service industry" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "service industry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

so to speak (adverb)

As if it were really so.

- The narrator describes the scene "so to speak" in the final chapter.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "so to speak" naturally.

standard time (noun)

The official time in a local region (adjusted for location around the Earth); established by law or custom.

- He looked up "standard time" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "standard time" to mean the official time in a local region (adjusted for....

to a lower place (adverb)

In or to a place that is lower.

- She spoke "to a lower place," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered "to a lower place," which changed the tone of the conversation.

to that effect (adverb)

With that general meaning.

- She said something to that effect.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "to that effect" naturally.

v-day (noun)

The day of a victory.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "v-day."
- Understanding "v-day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

value-system (noun)

The principles of right and wrong that are accepted by an individual or a social group.

- The article explained what "value-system" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "value-system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

white gold (noun)

A pale alloy of gold usually with platinum or nickel or palladium.

- The article explained what "white gold" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "white gold" to mean a pale alloy of gold usually with platinum or....

write up (noun)

A short account of the news.

- In class, the teacher used "write up" to mean a short account of the news.
- The article explained what "write up" means with a simple example.

allow for (verb)

Make a possibility or provide opportunity for; permit to be attainable or cause to remain.

- This leaves no room for improvement.
- The evidence allows only one conclusion.

at a lower place (adverb)

In or to a place that is lower.

- He answered "at a lower place," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using "at a lower place" can make your explanation more exact.

bit field (noun)

A field containing only binary characters.

- The article explained what "bit field" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bit field."

---

black english (noun)

A nonstandard form of American English characteristically spoken by African Americans in the United States.

- The article explained what "black english" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black english."

---

c program (noun)

A program written in C.

- The article explained what "c program" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "c program" to mean a program written in c.

---

certainly (adverb)

Definitely or positively ('sure' is sometimes used informally for 'surely').

- She certainly is a hard worker.
- The narrator describes the scene "certainly" in the final chapter.

---

community college (noun)

A nonresidential junior college offering a curriculum fitted to the needs of the community.

- Understanding "community college" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "community college" to mean a nonresidential junior college offering a....

---

completely (adverb)

To a complete degree or to the full or entire extent ('whole' is often used informally for 'wholly').

- It was completely different from what we expected.
- Was completely at fault.

---

credit (noun)

A short note recognizing a source of information or of a quoted passage.

- He was given credit for his work.
- Give her credit for trying.

---

cross (verb)

To cover or extend over an area or time period; ,.

- She crossed her legs.
- The trains crossed.

---

department of history (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching history.

- The article explained what "department of history" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "department of history" to mean the academic department responsible for teaching....

---

dog house (noun)

Outbuilding that serves as a shelter for a dog.

- In class, the teacher used "dog house" to mean outbuilding that serves as a shelter for a dog.
- The article explained what "dog house" means with a simple example.

---

federal government (noun)

A government with strong central powers.

- In class, the teacher used "federal government" to mean a government with strong central powers.
- They discussed "federal government" during the group presentation.

---

focus (noun)

The concentration of attention or energy on something.

- The focus of activity shifted to molecular biology.

- In focus.

get married (verb)

Take in marriage.

- Learners should practice how to use "get married" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "get married" and when to wait.

ground water (noun)

Underground water that is held in the soil and in pervious rocks.

- He looked up "ground water" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ground water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hi (noun)

An expression of greeting.

- They discussed "hi" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hi."

high sign (noun)

A silent signal of warning or recognition.

- She started to speak but he gave her the high sign.
- They discussed "high sign" during the group presentation.

higher law (noun)

A principle that takes precedent over the laws of society.

- The article explained what "higher law" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "higher law."

history department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching history.

- He looked up "history department" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "history department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

human action (noun)

Something that people do or cause to happen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "human action."
- The article explained what "human action" means with a simple example.

human process (noun)

A process in which human beings are involved.

- He looked up "human process" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "human process" during the group presentation.

ice (noun)

A rink with a floor of ice for ice hockey or ice skating.

- The crowd applauded when she skated out onto the ice.
- Americans like ice in their drinks.

in particular (adverb)

Specifically or especially distinguished from others.

- Loves Bach, particularly his partitas.
- Recommended one book in particular.

in the beginning (adverb)

With reference to the origin or beginning.

- Why didn't you tell me in the first place?
- Using "in the beginning" can make your explanation more exact.

join (noun)

A set containing all and only the members of two or more given sets.

- In class, the teacher used "join" to mean a set containing all and only the members of two or....
- He looked up "join" because he had never seen it before.

---

lead story (noun)

A news story of major importance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lead story."
- He looked up "lead story" because he had never seen it before.

---

let drive (verb)

Fire as from a gun.

- The soldiers let drive their bullets.
- Can you use "let drive" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

mean value (noun)

An average of n numbers computed by adding some function of the numbers and dividing by some function of n.

- In class, the teacher used "mean value" to mean an average of n numbers computed by adding some....
- Understanding "mean value" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

message (noun)

A communication (usually brief) that is written or spoken or signaled.

- He sent a three-word message.
- The article explained what "message" means with a simple example.

---

national bank (noun)

A commercial bank chartered by the federal government.

- Understanding "national bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "national bank" means with a simple example.

---

nearly (adverb)

(of actions or states) slightly short of or not quite accomplished; all but.

- He nearly fainted.
- The person most nearly concerned.

---

north by west (noun)

The compass point that is one point west of due north.

- They discussed "north by west" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north by west."

---

old french (noun)

The earliest form of the French language; 9th to 15th century.

- The article explained what "old french" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "old french" to mean the earliest form of the french language; 9th to....

---

open society (noun)

A society that allows its members considerable freedom (as in a democracy).

- America's open society has made it an easy target for terrorists.
- He looked up "open society" because he had never seen it before.

---

page number (noun)

The system of numbering pages.

- Understanding "page number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "page number" because he had never seen it before.

---

particular (noun)

A fact about some part (as opposed to general).

- He always reasons from the particular to the general.
- They discussed "particular" during the group presentation.

---

possible action (noun)

A possible alternative.

- They discussed "possible action" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "possible action" means with a simple example.

---

quickly (adverb)

With rapid movements.

- He works quickly.
- She spoke "quickly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

record book (noun)

A compilation of the known facts regarding something or someone.

- Al Smith used to say, 'Let's look at the record'.
- His name is in all the record books.

---

round top (noun)

A canvas tent to house the audience at a circus performance.

- They had the big top up in less than an hour.
- They discussed "round top" during the group presentation.

---

section (noun)

A specialized division of a large organization.

- She got a job in the historical section of the Treasury.
- He always turns first to the business section.

---

short list (noun)

A list of applicants winnowed from a longer list who have been deemed suitable and from which the successful person will be chosen.

- He looked up "short list" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "short list" during the group presentation.

---

social club (noun)

A formal association of people with similar interests.

- He joined a golf club.
- The article explained what "social club" means with a simple example.

---

sort of (adverb)

To some (great or small) extent.

- The narrator describes the scene "sort of" in the final chapter.
- Place "sort of" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

south america (noun)

The nations of the South American continent collectively.

- South America is an important market for goods from the United States.
- The article explained what "south america" means with a simple example.

---

stop press (noun)

Late news that is inserted into the newspaper at the last minute.

- They discussed "stop press" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "stop press" to mean late news that is inserted into the newspaper at....

---

take ten (verb)

Take a ten minute break.

- The players took ten during the long rehearsal.
- Learners should practice how to use "take ten" in real sentences.

tax system (noun)

A legal system for assessing and collecting taxes.

- He looked up "tax system" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tax system" to mean a legal system for assessing and collecting taxes.

thing-in-itself (noun)

The intellectual conception of a thing as it is in itself, not as it is known through perception.

- Understanding "thing-in-itself" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "thing-in-itself" to mean the intellectual conception of a thing as it is in....

think piece (noun)

An article in a newspaper or magazine or journal that represents opinions and ideas and discussion rather than bare facts.

- In class, the teacher used "think piece" to mean an article in a newspaper or magazine or journal....
- He looked up "think piece" because he had never seen it before.

trade name (noun)

A name given to a product or service.

- They discussed "trade name" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "trade name" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

trust company (noun)

An organization (usually with a commercial bank) that is engaged as a trustee or fiduciary or agent in handling trust funds or estates of custodial arrangements or stock transfers or related services.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trust company."
- They discussed "trust company" during the group presentation.

walk around (verb)

Behave in a certain manner or have certain properties.

- He walks around with his nose in the air.
- She walks around with this strange boyfriend.

west by north (noun)

The compass point that is one point north of due west.

- They discussed "west by north" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "west by north."

work table (noun)

A table designed for a particular task.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "work table."
- He looked up "work table" because he had never seen it before.

ahead of time (adverb)

Before the usual time or the time expected.

- The house was completed ahead of time.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "ahead of time" naturally.

air force (noun)

The airborne branch of a country's armed forces.

- They discussed "air force" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "air force" means with a simple example.

beat about (verb)

Search anxiously.

- He did not know how to use "beat about" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "beat about" in real sentences.

beat up (verb)

Give a beating to; subject to a beating, either as a punishment or as an act of aggression.

- Thugs beat him up when he walked down the street late at night.
- The teacher used to beat the students.

---

cause of action (noun)

A claim sufficient to demand judicial attention; the facts that give rise to right of action.

- He looked up "cause of action" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cause of action" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

character set (noun)

An ordered list of characters that are used together in writing or printing.

- The article explained what "character set" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "character set" during the group presentation.

---

consider (verb)

Show consideration for; take into account.

- You must consider her age.
- The judge considered the offender's youth and was lenient.

---

contact (noun)

A channel for communication between groups.

- They kept in daily contact.
- They claimed that they had been in contact with extraterrestrial beings.

---

double time (noun)

A fast marching pace (180 steps/min) or slow jog.

- In class, the teacher used "double time" to mean a fast marching pace (180 steps/min) or slow jog.
- They discussed "double time" during the group presentation.

---

drop in (verb)

Visit informally and spontaneously.

- We frequently drop by the neighbors' house for a cup of coffee.
- Learners should practice how to use "drop in" in real sentences.

---

fair (noun)

A competitive exhibition of farm products.

- She won a blue ribbon for her baking at the county fair.
- World fair.

---

feet (noun)

An army unit consisting of soldiers who fight on foot.

- His bare feet projected from his trousers.
- He is six feet tall.

---

focus on (verb)

Center upon.

- He did not know how to use "focus on" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "focus on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

get ahead (verb)

Obtain advantages, such as points, etc.

- After defeating the Knicks, the Blazers pulled ahead of the Lakers in the battle for the number-one playoff berth in the Western Conference.
- He did not know how to use "get ahead" until he saw an example.

---

information return (noun)

A return that provides information to the tax collector but does not compute the tax liability.

- He looked up "information return" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "information return" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

inside information (noun)

True confidential information.

- He looked up "inside information" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inside information."

natural number (noun)

The number 1 and any other number obtained by adding 1 to it repeatedly.

- In class, the teacher used "natural number" to mean the number 1 and any other number obtained by....
- Understanding "natural number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

next door (adverb)

At or in or to the adjacent residence.

- The criminal had been living next door all this time.
- Using "next door" can make your explanation more exact.

pass-through (noun)

An opening that resembles a window between two rooms (especially a shelved opening between a kitchen and dining room that is used to pass dishes).

- They discussed "pass-through" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pass-through" to mean an opening that resembles a window between two....

set upon (verb)

Assail or attack on all sides:.

- The zebra was beset by leopards.
- The coach explained when to use "set upon" and when to wait.

straight off (adverb)

Without delay or hesitation; with no time intervening.

- Found an answer straightaway.
- An official accused of dishonesty should be suspended forthwith.

take note (verb)

Observe with care or pay close attention to.

- Take note of this chemical reaction.
- In everyday English, people use "take note" when talking about this idea.

voice part (noun)

A part written for a singer.

- The article explained what "voice part" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "voice part" during the group presentation.

absolutely (adverb)

Totally and definitely; without question.

- We are absolutely opposed to the idea.
- He forced himself to lie absolutely still.

beyond (adverb)

Farther along in space or time or degree.

- Through the valley and beyond.
- To the eighth grade but not beyond.

black september (noun)

A Palestinian international terrorist organization that split from the PLO in 1974; has conducted terrorist attacks in 20 countries.

- Understanding "black september" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "black september" means with a simple example.

common room (noun)

A sitting room (usually at school or university).

- He looked up "common room" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "common room" during the group presentation.

---

crazy house (noun)

Pejorative terms for an insane asylum.

- They discussed "crazy house" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "crazy house" to mean pejorative terms for an insane asylum.

---

cross out (verb)

Remove from a list.

- Cross the name of the dead person off the list.
- Learners should practice how to use "cross out" in real sentences.

---

dead room (noun)

A building (or room) where dead bodies are kept before burial or cremation.

- They discussed "dead room" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dead room" means with a simple example.

---

dog days (noun)

The hot period between early July and early September; a period of inactivity.

- They discussed "dog days" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dog days."

---

drop by (verb)

Visit informally and spontaneously.

- We frequently drop by the neighbors' house for a cup of coffee.
- The coach explained when to use "drop by" and when to wait.

---

due date (noun)

The date on which an obligation must be repaid.

- Understanding "due date" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "due date" because he had never seen it before.

---

extra (noun)

An additional edition of a newspaper (usually to report a crisis).

- He always carried extras in case of an emergency.
- Understanding "extra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

forces (noun)

A unit that is part of some military service.

- The forces of evil.
- He joined forces with a band of adventurers.

---

free french (noun)

A French movement during World War II that was organized in London by Charles de Gaulle to fight for the liberation of France from German control and for the restoration of the republic.

- In class, the teacher used "free french" to mean a french movement during world war ii that was....
- Understanding "free french" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

full page (noun)

Something that covers an entire page.

- The ad took up a full page.
- He looked up "full page" because he had never seen it before.

---

get-well card (noun)

A card expressing get-well wishes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "get-well card."
- He looked up "get-well card" because he had never seen it before.

---

give voice (verb)

Put into words or an expression.

- In everyday English, people use "give voice" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "give voice" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

half-hour (noun)

A half of an hour.

- Understanding "half-hour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "half-hour" during the group presentation.

---

high sea (noun)

The open seas of the world outside the territorial waters of any nation.

- They discussed "high sea" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "high sea" because he had never seen it before.

---

home base (noun)

(usually plural) the office that serves as the administrative center of an enterprise.

- He ruled that the runner failed to touch home.
- He looked up "home base" because he had never seen it before.

---

home truth (noun)

An important truth that is unpleasant to acknowledge (as about yourself).

- He looked up "home truth" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "home truth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ice up (verb)

Become covered with a layer of ice; of a surface such as a window.

- When the wings iced up, the pilot was forced to land his plane.
- She tried to use "ice up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

immediately (adverb)

Without delay or hesitation; with no time intervening.

- He answered immediately.
- He passed immediately behind her.

---

make peace (verb)

End hostilities.

- The brothers who had been fighting over their inheritance finally made peace.
- She tried to use "make peace" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

minute (noun)

A unit of time equal to 60 seconds or 1/60th of an hour.

- He ran a 4 minute mile.
- It only takes a minute.

---

national trust (noun)

An organization concerned to preserve historic monuments and buildings and places of historical interest or natural beauty; founded in 1895 and supported by endowment and private subscription.

- In class, the teacher used "national trust" to mean an organization concerned to preserve historic....
- The article explained what "national trust" means with a simple example.

---

numbers (noun)

The fourth book of the Old Testament; contains a record of the number of Israelites who followed Moses out of Egypt.

- It was one of the best numbers he ever did.
- Understanding "numbers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

police department (noun)

The department of local government concerned with enforcing the law and preventing crime.

- He looked up "police department" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "police department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

political program (noun)

A document stating the aims and principles of a political party.

- They won the election even though they offered no positive program.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "political program."

production order (noun)

An order that initiates the manufacturing process.

- They discussed "production order" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "production order" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

safe house (noun)

A house used as a hiding place or refuge by members of certain organizations.

- They discussed "safe house" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "safe house" means with a simple example.

see double (verb)

See things as if they were there twice.

- After taking the drug, John saw double.
- Learners should practice how to use "see double" in real sentences.

show the door (verb)

Ask to leave.

- I was shown the door when I asked for a raise.
- The coach explained when to use "show the door" and when to wait.

social policy (noun)

A policy of for dealing with social issues.

- The article explained what "social policy" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "social policy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

society of friends (noun)

A Christian sect founded by George Fox about 1660; commonly called Quakers.

- He looked up "society of friends" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "society of friends" to mean a christian sect founded by george fox about 1660;....

sound law (noun)

A law describing sound changes in the history of a language.

- The article explained what "sound law" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sound law" to mean a law describing sound changes in the history of a....

stage name (noun)

The pseudonym of an actor.

- The article explained what "stage name" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stage name" to mean the pseudonym of an actor.

studies (noun)

A room used for reading and writing and studying.

- He made several studies before starting to paint.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "studies."

test room (noun)

A room in which tests are conducted.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "test room."
- He looked up "test room" because he had never seen it before.

---

tv room (noun)

A room set aside for viewing television.

- The article explained what "tv room" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tv room" to mean a room set aside for viewing television.

---

word form (noun)

The phonological or orthographic sound or appearance of a word that can be used to describe or identify something.

- The inflected forms of a word can be represented by a stem and a list of inflections to be attached.
- In class, the teacher used "word form" to mean the phonological or orthographic sound or....

---

beat back (verb)

Cause to move back by force or influence.

- Push back the urge to smoke.
- Beat back the invaders.

---

bill-me order (noun)

An order that is received without payment; requires billing at a later date.

- He looked up "bill-me order" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bill-me order" during the group presentation.

---

clean (verb)

Clean one's body or parts thereof, as by washing.

- Clean up before you see your grandparents.
- Clean your fingernails before dinner.

---

dead air (noun)

An inadvertent interruption in a broadcast during which there is no sound.

- Understanding "dead air" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dead air."

---

death wish (noun)

(psychoanalysis) an unconscious urge to die.

- The article explained what "death wish" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "death wish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

economic system (noun)

The system of production and distribution and consumption.

- In class, the teacher used "economic system" to mean the system of production and distribution and....
- The article explained what "economic system" means with a simple example.

---

f number (noun)

The ratio of the focal length to the diameter of a (camera) lens system.

- The article explained what "f number" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "f number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fall in line (verb)

Agree on (a position).

- She tried to use "fall in line" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "fall in line" when talking about this idea.

---

favorite (noun)

Something regarded with special favor or liking.

- That book is one of my favorites.

- In class, the teacher used "favorite" to mean something regarded with special favor or liking.

---

federal party (noun)

A major political party in the United States in the early 19th century; founded by Alexander Hamilton; favored a strong centralized government.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal party."
- He looked up "federal party" because he had never seen it before.

---

future date (noun)

A particular day in the future that is specified as the time something will happen.

- The article explained what "future date" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "future date" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

go ahead (verb)

Proceed (with a plan of action).

- He went ahead with the project.
- Can you use "go ahead" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

green party (noun)

An environmentalist political party.

- They discussed "green party" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "green party" because he had never seen it before.

---

high table (noun)

A dining table in a dining-hall raised on a platform; seats are reserved for distinguished persons.

- Understanding "high table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "high table" means with a simple example.

---

hold close (verb)

Hold firmly, usually with one's hands.

- He did not know how to use "hold close" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "hold close" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

ice over (verb)

Become covered with a layer of ice; of a surface such as a window.

- When the wings iced up, the pilot was forced to land his plane.
- Can you use "ice over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

language system (noun)

A system of linguistic units or elements used in a particular language.

- The article explained what "language system" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "language system" during the group presentation.

---

link up (verb)

Connect, fasten, or put together two or more pieces.

- Link arms.
- The travelers linked up again at the airport.

---

movement (noun)

A general tendency to change (as of opinion).

- A broad movement of the electorate to the right.
- Movement is a sign of life.

---

north america (noun)

The nations of the North American continent collectively.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north america."
- They discussed "north america" during the group presentation.

---

oil business (noun)

An industry that produces and delivers oil and oil products.

- Understanding "oil business" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "oil business" during the group presentation.

---

pass around (verb)

Cause to become widely known.

- The coach explained when to use "pass around" and when to wait.
- Can you use "pass around" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

past perfect (noun)

A perfective tense used to express action completed in the past.

- 'I had finished' is an example of the past perfect.
- They discussed "past perfect" during the group presentation.

---

plan of action (noun)

A plan for actively doing something.

- He looked up "plan of action" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "plan of action" to mean a plan for actively doing something.

---

posted (adjective)

Publicly announced.

- The posted speed limit.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "posted."

---

sounds (noun)

The audible part of a transmitted signal.

- He strained to hear the faint sounds.
- Understanding "sounds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

source book (noun)

A collection of historically important documents published together as a book.

- In class, the teacher used "source book" to mean a collection of historically important documents....
- The article explained what "source book" means with a simple example.

---

spend (verb)

Pass time in a specific way.

- How are you spending your summer vacation?
- Spend money.

---

statement (noun)

A fact or assertion offered as evidence that something is true.

- According to his statement he was in London on that day.
- The initial statement of the sonata.

---

take charge (verb)

Assume control.

- In everyday English, people use "take charge" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "take charge" in real sentences.

---

take in charge (verb)

Accept as a charge.

- The coach explained when to use "take in charge" and when to wait.
- Can you use "take in charge" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

under-the-table (adjective)

Designed and carried out secretly or confidentially.

- Has their under-the-table backing.
- The speaker chose “under-the-table” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

ability (noun)

Possession of the qualities (especially mental qualities) required to do something or get something done.

- In class, the teacher used “ability” to mean possession of the qualities (especially mental....
- Understanding “ability” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

art department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching art and art appreciation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “art department.”
- He looked up “art department” because he had never seen it before.

---

asking (noun)

The verbal act of requesting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “asking.”
- The article explained what “asking” means with a simple example.

---

blue story (noun)

An indelicate joke.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blue story.”
- He looked up “blue story” because he had never seen it before.

---

building department (noun)

The division of a business responsible for building and maintaining the physical plant.

- He looked up “building department” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “building department” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

call attention (verb)

Point out carefully and clearly.

- The coach explained when to use “call attention” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “call attention” until he saw an example.

---

card-house (noun)

An unstable construction with playing cards.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “card-house.”
- He looked up “card-house” because he had never seen it before.

---

decision making (noun)

The cognitive process of reaching a decision.

- A good executive must be good at decision making.
- The article explained what “decision making” means with a simple example.

---

definitely (adverb)

Without question and beyond doubt.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “definitely” naturally.
- The narrator describes the scene “definitely” in the final chapter.

---

family practice (noun)

Medical practice that provides health care regardless of age or sex while placing emphasis on the family unit.

- They discussed “family practice” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “family practice” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fire department (noun)

The department of local government responsible for preventing and extinguishing fires.

- In class, the teacher used “fire department” to mean the department of local government responsible for....
- Understanding “fire department” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

for the asking (adverb)

On the occasion of a request.

- Advice was free for the asking.
- The narrator describes the scene "for the asking" in the final chapter.

future perfect (noun)

A perfective tense used to describe action that will be completed in the future.

- 'I will have finished' is an example of the future perfect.
- He looked up "future perfect" because he had never seen it before.

happens (verb)

Chance to be or do something, without intention or causation.

- It happens that today is my birthday.
- Can you use "happens" in a sentence that fits this situation?

league together (verb)

Attach oneself to a group.

- Can you use "league together" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "league together" and when to wait.

legal system (noun)

A system for interpreting and enforcing the laws.

- Understanding "legal system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal system."

living space (noun)

Space sought for occupation by a nation whose population is expanding.

- They discussed "living space" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "living space" means with a simple example.

major term (noun)

The term in a syllogism that is the predicate of the conclusion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "major term."
- They discussed "major term" during the group presentation.

military police (noun)

A military corps that enforces discipline and guards prisoners.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military police."
- He looked up "military police" because he had never seen it before.

natural order (noun)

The physical universe considered as an orderly system subject to natural (not human or supernatural) laws.

- They discussed "natural order" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "natural order" because he had never seen it before.

north star (noun)

The brightest star in Ursa Minor; at the end of the handle of the Little Dipper; the northern axis of the earth points toward it.

- The article explained what "north star" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "north star" to mean the brightest star in ursa minor; at the end of the....

particularly (adverb)

To a distinctly greater extent or degree than is common.

- He was particularly fussy about spelling.
- A particularly gruesome attack.

quick time (noun)

A normal marching pace of 120 steps per minute.

- Understanding "quick time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "quick time" because he had never seen it before.

---

self-education (noun)

The process of educating yourself.

- They discussed "self-education" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "self-education" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

south-east (adverb)

To, toward, or in the southeast.

- The narrator describes the scene "south-east" in the final chapter.
- She spoke "south-east," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

true bill (noun)

An indictment endorsed by a grand jury.

- They discussed "true bill" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "true bill."

---

us air force (noun)

The airforce of the United States of America; the agency that defends the United States through control and exploitation of air and space.

- They discussed "us air force" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "us air force."

---

weight down (verb)

Weight down with a load.

- The coach explained when to use "weight down" and when to wait.
- Can you use "weight down" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

wide (adverb)

To the fullest extent possible.

- Open your eyes wide.
- With the throttle wide open.

---

word for word (adverb)

Using exactly the same words.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "word for word" naturally.
- The narrator describes the scene "word for word" in the final chapter.

---

wow (noun)

A joke that seems extremely funny.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wow."
- They discussed "wow" during the group presentation.

---

american language (noun)

The English language as used in the United States.

- Understanding "american language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "american language" to mean the english language as used in the united states.

---

blue book (noun)

A register of persons who are socially prominent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue book."
- He looked up "blue book" because he had never seen it before.

---

book review (noun)

A critical review of a book (usually a recently published book).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book review."

- The article explained what "book review" means with a simple example.

---

box family (noun)

Widely distributed evergreen shrubs and trees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "box family."
- He looked up "box family" because he had never seen it before.

---

claim (noun)

An assertion that something is true or factual.

- His claim that he was innocent.
- Evidence contradicted the government's claims.

---

clean out (verb)

Deprive completely of money or goods.

- The robbers cleaned us out in a couple of hours.
- We cleaned out all the drawers.

---

clean up (verb)

Make a big profit; often in a short period of time.

- The investor really cleaned up when the stock market went up.
- Clean up before you go to the party.

---

cross off (verb)

Remove from a list.

- Cross the name of the dead person off the list.
- Can you use "cross off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

death rate (noun)

The ratio of deaths in an area to the population of that area; expressed per 1000 per year.

- In class, the teacher used "death rate" to mean the ratio of deaths in an area to the population of....
- They discussed "death rate" during the group presentation.

---

do justice (verb)

Show due and full appreciation.

- The diners did the food and wine justice.
- This photograph does not do her justice.

---

east by south (noun)

The compass point that is one point south of due east.

- The article explained what "east by south" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "east by south" during the group presentation.

---

federal court (noun)

A court establish by the authority of a federal government.

- He looked up "federal court" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "federal court" to mean a court establish by the authority of a federal....

---

fit in (verb)

Go together.

- Learners should practice how to use "fit in" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "fit in" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

generally (adverb)

Without regard to specific details or exceptions.

- Using "generally" can make your explanation more exact.
- She spoke "generally," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

german (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of Germany or its people or language.

- German philosophers.
- German universities.

---

hot air (noun)

Loud and confused and empty talk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hot air."
- They discussed "hot air" during the group presentation.

---

keep note (verb)

Maintain in the forefront of one's awareness.

- He kept note of the location of the soldiers.
- In everyday English, people use "keep note" when talking about this idea.

---

lines (noun)

A mark that is long relative to its width.

- The letter consisted of three short lines.
- There are six lines in every stanza.

---

middle c (noun)

The note designated by the first ledger line below the treble staff; 261.63 hertz.

- He looked up "middle c" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "middle c" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

middle watch (noun)

A watch during the night (as from midnight to 8 a.m.).

- Understanding "middle watch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "middle watch" to mean a watch during the night (as from midnight to 8 a.m.).

---

modern times (noun)

The circumstances and ideas of the present age.

- In modern times like these.
- They discussed "modern times" during the group presentation.

---

named (verb)

Create and charge with a task or function.

- They named their son David.
- The new school was named after the famous Civil Rights leader.

---

post-paid (adverb)

Having the postage paid by the sender.

- I will send it post-paid.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "post-paid" naturally.

---

product (noun)

The set of elements common to two or more sets.

- That store offers a variety of products.
- They improve their product every year.

---

reading room (noun)

A room set aside for reading.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reading room."
- The article explained what "reading room" means with a simple example.

---

room rate (noun)

The rate charged daily for a hotel room.

- They discussed "room rate" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "room rate" means with a simple example.

---

round hand (noun)

A clearly written style of longhand with large round curves.

- They discussed "round hand" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "round hand" means with a simple example.

---

south by east (noun)

The compass point that is one point east of due south.

- The article explained what "south by east" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "south by east" during the group presentation.

---

space program (noun)

A technological program intended to explore outer space.

- Understanding "space program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "space program."

---

special interest (noun)

An individual or group who are concerned with some particular part of the economy and who try to influence legislators or bureaucrats to act in their favor.

- The article explained what "special interest" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "special interest."

---

stories (noun)

A record or narrative description of past events.

- Disney's stories entertain adults as well as children.
- He writes stories for the magazines.

---

to the letter (adverb)

In every detail.

- The new house suited them to a T.
- She spoke "to the letter," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

trade book (noun)

A book intended for general readership.

- The article explained what "trade book" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trade book."

---

unit (noun)

An organization regarded as part of a larger social group.

- The coach said the offensive unit did a good job.
- After the battle the soldier had trouble rejoining his unit.

---

writing system (noun)

A method of representing the sounds of a language by written or printed symbols.

- They discussed "writing system" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "writing system" because he had never seen it before.

---

across the board (adverb)

Including all.

- We got a pay raise across the board.
- She spoke "across the board," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

add together (verb)

Make an addition by combining numbers.

- Add 27 and 49, please!
- Add all the people in this town to those of the neighboring town.

annual (noun)

A reference book that is published regularly once every year.

- The article explained what “annual” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “annual” to mean a reference book that is published regularly once....

anymore (adverb)

At the present or from now on; usually used with a negative.

- Alice doesn't live here anymore.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “anymore” naturally.

at all costs (adverb)

Regardless of the cost involved.

- He wanted to save her life at all cost.
- He answered “at all costs,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

common front (noun)

A movement in which several individuals or groups with different interests join together.

- The unions presented a common front at the bargaining table.
- He looked up “common front” because he had never seen it before.

cut across (verb)

Be contrary to ordinary procedure or limitations.

- Opinions on bombing the Serbs cut across party lines.
- Can you use “cut across” in a sentence that fits this situation?

die hard (verb)

Continue to exist.

- These stories die hard.
- In everyday English, people use “die hard” when talking about this idea.

drop-off (noun)

A noticeable deterioration in performance or quality.

- A drop-off in attendance.
- There was a sharp drop-off in sales.

due east (noun)

The cardinal compass point that is at 90 degrees.

- They discussed “due east” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “due east.”

features (noun)

A prominent attribute or aspect of something.

- The map showed roads and other features.
- An expression of pleasure crossed his features.

floor (noun)

The parliamentary right to address an assembly.

- The chairman granted him the floor.
- They needed rugs to cover the bare floors.

foreign service (noun)

The part of the State Department that supplies diplomats for the United States embassies and consulates around the world.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “foreign service.”
- Understanding “foreign service” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

funny house (noun)

Pejorative terms for an insane asylum.

- In class, the teacher used "funny house" to mean pejorative terms for an insane asylum.
- Understanding "funny house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

give the eye (verb)

Look at with a critical eye.

- When the movie star entered, all the women gave him the once over.
- Can you use "give the eye" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

growing (noun)

(biology) the process of an individual organism growing organically; a purely biological unfolding of events involved in an organism changing gradually from a simple to a more complex level.

- The article explained what "growing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "growing" during the group presentation.

---

half page (noun)

Something that covers (the top or bottom) half of a page.

- He looked up "half page" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "half page" during the group presentation.

---

human relationship (noun)

A relation between people; ('relationship' is often used where 'relation' would serve, as in 'the relationship between inflation and unemployment', but the preferred usage of 'relationship' is for human relations or states of relatedness).

- The relationship between mothers and their children.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "human relationship."

---

insurance (noun)

Written contract or certificate of insurance.

- Understanding "insurance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "insurance" means with a simple example.

---

make clean (verb)

Make clean by removing dirt, filth, or unwanted substances from.

- Clean the stove!
- The dentist cleaned my teeth.

---

meant (verb)

Destine or designate for a certain purpose.

- These flowers were meant for you.
- I only meant to help you.

---

middle age (noun)

The time of life between youth and old age (e.g., between 40 and 60 years of age).

- Understanding "middle age" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "middle age."

---

month by month (adverb)

For an indefinite number of months.

- Month by month, the betrayal gnawed at his heart.
- Using "month by month" can make your explanation more exact.

---

north-east (adverb)

To, toward, or in the northeast.

- Using "north-east" can make your explanation more exact.
- He answered "north-east," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

opening (noun)

An open or empty space in or between things.

- There was a small opening between the trees.

- The opening of his arms was the sign I was waiting for.

opinion (noun)

A vague idea in which some confidence is placed.

- My opinion differs from yours.
- His opinions appeared frequently on the editorial page.

poor law (noun)

A law providing support for the poor.

- In class, the teacher used "poor law" to mean a law providing support for the poor.
- The article explained what "poor law" means with a simple example.

rule (noun)

The duration of a monarch's or government's power.

- During the rule of Elizabeth.
- It was his rule to take a walk before breakfast.

rule in (verb)

Include or exclude by determining judicially or in agreement with rules.

- In everyday English, people use "rule in" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "rule in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

seriously (adverb)

To a severe or serious degree.

- Was seriously ill.
- A play dealing seriously with the question of divorce.

service door (noun)

An entrance intended for the use of servants or for delivery of goods and removal of refuse.

- The article explained what "service door" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "service door" to mean an entrance intended for the use of servants or for....

service staff (noun)

Those in a business responsible for maintaining the physical plant.

- The article explained what "service staff" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service staff."

side door (noun)

An exterior door at one side of a building.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "side door."
- They discussed "side door" during the group presentation.

small voice (noun)

An inner voice that judges your behavior.

- They discussed "small voice" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "small voice" to mean an inner voice that judges your behavior.

social science (noun)

The branch of science that studies society and the relationships of individual within a society.

- They discussed "social science" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "social science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

staff line (noun)

Any of the 5 horizontal marks comprising a staff.

- He looked up "staff line" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "staff line."

starting point (noun)

Earliest limiting point.

- He looked up "starting point" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "starting point" to mean earliest limiting point.

---

system of rules (noun)

A complex of methods or rules governing behavior.

- They have to operate under a system they oppose.
- That language has a complex system for indicating gender.

---

to that degree (adverb)

To the degree or extent that.

- Insofar as it can be ascertained, the horse lung is comparable to that of man.
- He answered "to that degree," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

water bed (noun)

A bed with a mattress made of strong plastic that is filled with water.

- Understanding "water bed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "water bed" means with a simple example.

---

white paper (noun)

A government report; bound in white.

- The article explained what "white paper" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "white paper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ask round (verb)

Invite someone to one's house.

- In everyday English, people use "ask round" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "ask round" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

australian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Australia or its inhabitants or its languages.

- Australian deserts.
- Australian aborigines.

---

blue air (noun)

The sky as viewed during daylight.

- He shot an arrow into the blue.
- He looked up "blue air" because he had never seen it before.

---

business card (noun)

A card on which are printed the person's name and business affiliation.

- He looked up "business card" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "business card."

---

cancer (noun)

A small zodiacal constellation in the northern hemisphere; between Leo and Gemini.

- Understanding "cancer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cancer" to mean a small zodiacal constellation in the northern....

---

car door (noun)

The door of a car.

- He looked up "car door" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "car door."

---

civil (adjective)

Of or relating to or befitting citizens as individuals.

- Civil rights.
- Civil liberty.

---

conference house (noun)

A center where conferences can be conducted.

- Understanding "conference house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "conference house" means with a simple example.

---

control character (noun)

ASCII characters to indicate carriage return or tab or backspace; typed by depressing a key and the control key at the same time.

- Understanding "control character" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "control character" during the group presentation.

---

defense (noun)

The justification for some act or belief.

- He offered a persuasive defense of the theory.
- They died in the defense of Stalingrad.

---

department of energy (noun)

The federal department responsible for maintaining a national energy policy of the United States; created in 1977.

- They discussed "department of energy" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "department of energy" to mean the federal department responsible for maintaining....

---

direction (noun)

A message describing how something is to be done.

- He gave directions faster than she could follow them.
- He looked the other direction.

---

east by north (noun)

The compass point that is one point north of due east.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "east by north."
- The article explained what "east by north" means with a simple example.

---

energy department (noun)

The federal department responsible for maintaining a national energy policy of the United States; created in 1977.

- In class, the teacher used "energy department" to mean the federal department responsible for maintaining....
- They discussed "energy department" during the group presentation.

---

foreign country (noun)

Any state of which one is not a citizen.

- Working in a foreign country takes a bit of getting used to.
- In class, the teacher used "foreign country" to mean any state of which one is not a citizen.

---

god knows how (adverb)

By some means not understood by the speaker.

- God knows how he did it, but he did climbed that steep wall.
- She spoke "god knows how," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

good friday (noun)

Friday before Easter.

- He looked up "good friday" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "good friday" during the group presentation.

---

keep track (verb)

Keep informed of fully aware.

- I keep track of the stock market developments.
- She tried to use "keep track" carefully so everyone would understand.

last minute (noun)

The latest possible moment.

- At the last minute the government changed the rules.
- He looked up "last minute" because he had never seen it before.

lower court (noun)

Any court whose decisions can be appealed to a higher court.

- Understanding "lower court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "lower court" during the group presentation.

military march (noun)

Brisk marching music suitable for troops marching in a military parade.

- Understanding "military march" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "military march" to mean brisk marching music suitable for troops marching....

news article (noun)

An article reporting news.

- They discussed "news article" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "news article" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

none (noun)

A canonical hour that is the ninth hour of the day counting from sunrise.

- In class, the teacher used "none" to mean a canonical hour that is the ninth hour of the day....
- He looked up "none" because he had never seen it before.

north by east (noun)

The compass point that is one point east (clockwise) of due north.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north by east."
- The article explained what "north by east" means with a simple example.

open door (noun)

The policy of granting equal trade opportunities to all countries.

- He maintained an open door for all employees.
- Understanding "open door" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

order paper (noun)

A printed copy of the order of the day.

- He looked up "order paper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "order paper."

reasons (noun)

A rational motive for a belief or action.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reasons."
- He looked up "reasons" because he had never seen it before.

running board (noun)

A narrow footboard serving as a step beneath the doors of some old cars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "running board."
- Understanding "running board" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sea power (noun)

A nation that possesses formidable naval strength.

- Understanding "sea power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sea power" during the group presentation.

sense experience (noun)

An unelaborated elementary awareness of stimulation.

- In class, the teacher used "sense experience" to mean an unelaborated elementary awareness of stimulation.
- They discussed "sense experience" during the group presentation.

---

sense of right and wrong (noun)

Motivation deriving logically from ethical or moral principles that govern a person's thoughts and actions.

- The article explained what "sense of right and wrong" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sense of right and wrong" to mean motivation deriving logically from ethical or moral....

---

stand watch (verb)

Watch over so as to protect.

- We must stand sentinel to protect ourselves.
- Can you use "stand watch" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

station house (noun)

A station that serves as headquarters for police in a particular district; serves as a place from which policemen are dispatched and to which arrested persons are brought.

- In class, the teacher used "station house" to mean a station that serves as headquarters for police in....
- Understanding "station house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

talk terms (verb)

Discuss the terms of an arrangement.

- Can you use "talk terms" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "talk terms" and when to wait.

---

time unit (noun)

A unit for measuring time periods.

- They discussed "time unit" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "time unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

tv program (noun)

A program broadcast by television.

- In class, the teacher used "tv program" to mean a program broadcast by television.
- The article explained what "tv program" means with a simple example.

---

unit of time (noun)

A unit for measuring time periods.

- He looked up "unit of time" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "unit of time" during the group presentation.

---

weekend (noun)

A time period usually extending from Friday night through Sunday; more loosely defined as any period of successive days including one and only one Sunday.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weekend."
- They discussed "weekend" during the group presentation.

---

white sea (noun)

A large inlet of the Barents Sea in the northwestern part of European Russia.

- Understanding "white sea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "white sea" to mean a large inlet of the barents sea in the....

---

wish list (noun)

A list of events that you wish would occur.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wish list."
- They discussed "wish list" during the group presentation.

---

at the worst (adverb)

Under the worst of conditions.

- At worst we'll go to jail.

- Using "at the worst" can make your explanation more exact.

---

at worst (adverb)

Under the worst of conditions.

- At worst we'll go to jail.
- Place "at worst" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

building society (noun)

British equivalent of United States savings and loan association.

- Understanding "building society" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "building society."

---

call mark (noun)

A mark consisting of characters written on a book; used to indicate shelf location.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "call mark."
- Understanding "call mark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clearly (adverb)

Clear to the mind; with distinct mental discernment.

- I could clearly see myself in his situation.
- They were clearly lost.

---

commercial (noun)

A commercially sponsored ad on radio or television.

- Understanding "commercial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "commercial" during the group presentation.

---

contract out (verb)

Refuse to pay a levy to a union for political use.

- She tried to use "contract out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "contract out" when talking about this idea.

---

deep water (noun)

Serious trouble.

- The article explained what "deep water" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "deep water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fan (verb)

Separate the chaff from by using air currents.

- Fan hatred.
- In everyday English, people use "fan" when talking about this idea.

---

free association (noun)

A thought process in which ideas (words or images) suggest other ideas in a sequence.

- They discussed "free association" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "free association" because he had never seen it before.

---

free of charge (adverb)

Without payment.

- The narrator describes the scene "free of charge" in the final chapter.
- He answered "free of charge," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

green light (noun)

Permission to proceed with a project or to take action.

- The gave the green light for construction to begin.
- They discussed "green light" during the group presentation.

---

house husband (noun)

A husband who keeps house while his wife earns the family income.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house husband."
- Understanding "house husband" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

in secret (adverb)

In secrecy; not openly.

- Met secretly to discuss the invasion plans.
- The children secretly went to the movies when they were supposed to be at the library.

---

keep an eye on (verb)

Follow with the eyes or the mind.

- Keep an eye on the baby, please!
- She tried to use "keep an eye on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

latest (noun)

The most recent news or development.

- Have you heard the latest?
- They discussed "latest" during the group presentation.

---

limited company (noun)

A company that is organized to give its owners limited liability.

- They discussed "limited company" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "limited company" means with a simple example.

---

moving company (noun)

A company that moves the possessions of a family or business from one site to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moving company."
- The article explained what "moving company" means with a simple example.

---

multiple (noun)

The product of a quantity by an integer.

- 36 is a multiple of 9.
- In class, the teacher used "multiple" to mean the product of a quantity by an integer.

---

passed (verb)

Be superior or better than some standard.

- We passed the point where the police car had parked.
- A black limousine passed by when she looked out the window.

---

reach out (verb)

Move forward or upward in order to touch; also in a metaphorical sense.

- Government reaches out to the people.
- I try to reach out to my daughter but she doesn't want to have anything to do with me.

---

rest period (noun)

A pause for relaxation.

- People actually accomplish more when they take time for short rests.
- They discussed "rest period" during the group presentation.

---

rule out (verb)

Dismiss from consideration or a contest.

- John was ruled out as a possible suspect because he had a strong alibi.
- Learners should practice how to use "rule out" in real sentences.

---

secret (noun)

Information known only to a special group.

- The secret of Cajun cooking.
- The combination to the safe was a secret.

---

sunday (noun)

First day of the week; observed as a day of rest and worship by most Christians.

- In class, the teacher used "sunday" to mean first day of the week; observed as a day of rest....
- Understanding "sunday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

table service (noun)

Tableware consisting of a complete set of articles (silver or dishware) for use at table.

- The article explained what "table service" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "table service" during the group presentation.

---

tax form (noun)

A form to use when paying your taxes.

- The article explained what "tax form" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tax form" to mean a form to use when paying your taxes.

---

telling (noun)

Disclosing information or giving evidence about another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telling."
- Understanding "telling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

to no degree (adverb)

In no manner.

- Place "to no degree" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "to no degree," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

water table (noun)

Underground surface below which the ground is wholly saturated with water.

- Spring rains had raised the water table.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water table."

---

word sense (noun)

The accepted meaning of a word.

- He looked up "word sense" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "word sense."

---

address (noun)

The manner of speaking to another individual.

- He failed in his manner of address to the captain.
- He listened to an address on minor Roman poets.

---

anyway (adverb)

Used to indicate that a statement explains or supports a previous statement.

- I don't know what happened to it; anyway, it's gone.
- Anyway, there is another factor to consider.

---

black sea (noun)

A sea between Europe and Asia; a popular resort area of eastern Europeans.

- Understanding "black sea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "black sea" because he had never seen it before.

---

choose (verb)

Pick out, select, or choose from a number of alternatives.

- Choose a good husband for your daughter.
- I always choose the fish over the meat courses in this restaurant.

christmas (noun)

A Christian holiday celebrating the birth of Christ; a quarter day in England, Wales, and Ireland.

- Understanding "christmas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "christmas" because he had never seen it before.

civil time (noun)

The official time in a local region (adjusted for location around the Earth); established by law or custom.

- Understanding "civil time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "civil time" means with a simple example.

department of english (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching English and American literature.

- They discussed "department of english" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of english."

details (noun)

True confidential information.

- After the trial he gave us the real details.
- Several of the details are similar.

easily (adverb)

Indicating high probability; in all likelihood.

- A mistake that could easily have ended in disaster.
- She was easily excited.

english department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching English and American literature.

- In class, the teacher used "english department" to mean the academic department responsible for teaching....
- The article explained what "english department" means with a simple example.

field of view (noun)

The area that is visible (as through an optical instrument).

- In class, the teacher used "field of view" to mean the area that is visible (as through an optical....
- The article explained what "field of view" means with a simple example.

field test (noun)

A test of the performance of some new product under the conditions in which it will be used.

- In class, the teacher used "field test" to mean a test of the performance of some new product under....
- The article explained what "field test" means with a simple example.

field-test (verb)

Test something under the conditions under which it will actually be used.

- Can you use "field-test" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "field-test" until he saw an example.

first degree (noun)

A degree of one.

- All of the terms in a linear equation are of the first degree.
- He looked up "first degree" because he had never seen it before.

first floor (noun)

The floor of a building that is at or nearest to the level of the ground around the building.

- Understanding "first floor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "first floor" to mean the floor of a building that is at or nearest to....

gas company (noun)

A public utility that provides gas.

- Understanding "gas company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas company."

---

ground plan (noun)

A floor plan for the ground level of a building.

- He looked up "ground plan" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ground plan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gun down (verb)

Strike down or shoot down.

- The coach explained when to use "gun down" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "gun down" in real sentences.

---

half door (noun)

An exterior door divided in two horizontally; either half can be closed or open independently.

- The article explained what "half door" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "half door" to mean an exterior door divided in two horizontally;....

---

hand-pick (verb)

Pick personally and very carefully.

- The director hand-picked his new team.
- In everyday English, people use "hand-pick" when talking about this idea.

---

indian (adjective)

Of or pertaining to American Indians or their culture or languages.

- Indian arrowheads.
- The Indian subcontinent.

---

lady day (noun)

A festival commemorating the announcement of the Incarnation by the angel Gabriel to the Virgin Mary; a quarter day in England, Wales, and Ireland.

- Understanding "lady day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lady day."

---

literally (adverb)

(intensifier before a figurative expression) without exaggeration.

- Our eyes were literally pinned to TV during the Gulf War.
- Literally translated.

---

luck it (verb)

Act by relying on one's luck.

- Learners should practice how to use "luck it" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "luck it" when talking about this idea.

---

military force (noun)

A unit that is part of some military service.

- He sent Caesar a force of six thousand men.
- In class, the teacher used "military force" to mean a unit that is part of some military service.

---

names (noun)

Verbal abuse; a crude substitute for argument.

- Sticks and stones may break my bones but names can never hurt me.
- Those are two names for the same thing.

---

present moment (noun)

At this time.

- She is studying at the moment.

- They discussed "present moment" during the group presentation.

private road (noun)

A road leading up to a private house.

- They discussed "private road" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "private road" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

reach into (verb)

Run into or up to.

- He did not know how to use "reach into" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "reach into" in a sentence that fits this situation?

resources (noun)

The ability to deal resourcefully with unusual problems.

- The article explained what "resources" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "resources."

rich (noun)

People who have possessions and wealth (considered as a group).

- Only the very rich benefit from this legislation.
- Understanding "rich" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

road sense (noun)

Good judgment in avoiding trouble or accidents on the road.

- In class, the teacher used "road sense" to mean good judgment in avoiding trouble or accidents on....
- The article explained what "road sense" means with a simple example.

security force (noun)

A privately employed group hired to protect the security of a business or industry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "security force."
- The article explained what "security force" means with a simple example.

single bed (noun)

A bed for one occupant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "single bed."
- He looked up "single bed" because he had never seen it before.

speaking (noun)

Delivering an address to a public audience.

- He looked up "speaking" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "speaking."

spring up (verb)

Come into existence; take on form or shape.

- She tried to use "spring up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "spring up" in real sentences.

trump out (verb)

Proclaim or announce with or as if with a fanfare.

- She tried to use "trump out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "trump out" and when to wait.

university of washington (noun)

A university in Seattle, Washington.

- They discussed "university of washington" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "university of washington."

waiting area (noun)

A room (as in a hotel or airport) with seating where people can wait.

- Understanding "waiting area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "waiting area."

written matter (noun)

Matter to be printed; exclusive of graphical materials.

- Understanding "written matter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "written matter."

yesterday (noun)

The day immediately before today.

- It was in yesterday's newspapers.
- Yesterday's solutions are not good enough.

act upon (verb)

Have and exert influence or effect.

- She tried to use "act upon" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "act upon" and when to wait.

bring round (verb)

Cause to adopt an opinion or course of action.

- His urgent letter finally brought me around to give money to the school.
- These pictures bring back sad memories.

by luck (adverb)

By accident.

- Place "by luck" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "by luck," which changed the tone of the conversation.

caught (verb)

Reach with a blow or hit in a particular spot.

- The rock caught her in the back of the head.
- The punch caught him in the stomach.

clean house (verb)

Clean and tidy up the house.

- She housecleans every week.
- In everyday English, people use "clean house" when talking about this idea.

congress (noun)

The legislature of the United States government.

- He looked up "congress" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "congress."

degree day (noun)

The day on which university degrees are conferred.

- He looked up "degree day" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "degree day."

directly (adverb)

In a forthright manner; candidly or frankly.

- He didn't answer directly.
- The path leads directly to the lake.

drink in (verb)

Be fascinated or spell-bound by; pay close attention to.

- The mother drinks in every word of her son on the stage.
- In everyday English, people use "drink in" when talking about this idea.

---

grow (verb)

Come into existence; take on form or shape.

- Corn doesn't grow here.
- In these forests, mushrooms grow under the trees.

---

hospital room (noun)

A room in a hospital for the care of patients.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hospital room."
- He looked up "hospital room" because he had never seen it before.

---

luck out (verb)

Succeed by luck.

- I lucked out and found the last parking spot in the lot.
- In everyday English, people use "luck out" when talking about this idea.

---

machine (noun)

A group that controls the activities of a political party.

- He was endorsed by the Democratic machine.
- The boxer was a magnificent fighting machine.

---

major key (noun)

A key whose harmony is based on the major scale.

- He looked up "major key" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "major key."

---

middle term (noun)

The term in a syllogism that is common to both premises and excluded from the conclusion.

- The article explained what "middle term" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "middle term" during the group presentation.

---

notice (noun)

A sign posted in a public place as an advertisement.

- You didn't give me enough notice.
- An obituary notice.

---

pressure group (noun)

A group of people who try actively to influence legislation.

- Understanding "pressure group" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pressure group" means with a simple example.

---

programs (noun)

An integrated course of academic studies.

- They discussed "programs" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "programs" means with a simple example.

---

reading program (noun)

A program designed to teach literacy skills.

- He looked up "reading program" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "reading program" to mean a program designed to teach literacy skills.

---

reports (verb)

To give an account or representation of in words.

- In everyday English, people use "reports" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "reports" carefully so everyone would understand.

sit (verb)

Assume a posture as for artistic purposes.

- When does the court of law sit?
- The White House sits on Pennsylvania Avenue.

sit in (verb)

Participate in an act of civil disobedience.

- Can I sit in on your Intermediate Hittite class?
- Can you use "sit in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

social security number (noun)

The number of a particular individual's Social Security account.

- He looked up "social security number" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "social security number" during the group presentation.

source program (noun)

A program written in a language from which statements are translated into machine language.

- The article explained what "source program" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "source program" to mean a program written in a language from which....

south sea (noun)

Any sea to the south of the equator (but especially the South Pacific).

- Understanding "south sea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "south sea" means with a simple example.

straight face (noun)

A serious facial expression giving no evidence of interest or amusement.

- They discussed "straight face" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "straight face" because he had never seen it before.

table talk (noun)

Conversation during a meal.

- Understanding "table talk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "table talk" to mean conversation during a meal.

take the floor (verb)

Rise in order to make a speech or motion.

- She tried to use "take the floor" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "take the floor" until he saw an example.

tax program (noun)

A program for setting taxes.

- The article explained what "tax program" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tax program" during the group presentation.

test period (noun)

A period of time during which someone or something is tested.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "test period."
- He looked up "test period" because he had never seen it before.

american capital (noun)

The capital of the United States in the District of Columbia and a tourist mecca; George Washington commissioned Charles L'Enfant to lay out the city in 1791.

- Understanding "american capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "american capital" means with a simple example.

associated (verb)

Bring or come into association or action.

- Learners should practice how to use “associated” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “associated” when talking about this idea.

---

bring forward (verb)

Bring forward for consideration.

- Can you move the car seat forward?
- He did not know how to use “bring forward” until he saw an example.

---

by machine (adverb)

With the use of a machine.

- The shirt is sewn by machine.
- Place “by machine” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

carry (verb)

Serve as a means for expressing something.

- You must carry your camping gear.
- Carry the suitcases to the car.

---

carry on (verb)

Misbehave badly; act in a silly or improper way.

- Carry on the old traditions.
- Carry on–pretend we are not in the room.

---

chinese white (noun)

A white pigment used in house paints; consists of zinc oxide.

- He looked up “chinese white” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “chinese white” to mean a white pigment used in house paints; consists of....

---

civil day (noun)

A day reckoned from midnight to midnight.

- The article explained what “civil day” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “civil day” during the group presentation.

---

civil year (noun)

The year (reckoned from January 1 to December 31) according to Gregorian calendar.

- He looked up “civil year” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “civil year.”

---

coach house (noun)

A small building for housing coaches and carriages and other vehicles.

- He looked up “coach house” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coach house.”

---

common sense (noun)

Sound practical judgment.

- Common sense is not so common.
- He hasn't got the sense God gave little green apples.

---

european community (noun)

An international organization of European countries formed after World War II to reduce trade barriers and increase cooperation among its members.

- Understanding “european community” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “european community” during the group presentation.

---

explain (verb)

Serve as a reason or cause or justification of.

- Her recent divorce may explain her reluctance to date again.
- He explained the laws of physics to his students.

fully (adverb)

To the greatest degree or extent; completely or entirely; (‘full’ in this sense is used as a combining form).

- Fully grown.
- He didn’t fully understand.

gas service (noun)

A public utility that provides gas.

- Understanding “gas service” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “gas service” to mean a public utility that provides gas.

get in touch (verb)

Establish communication with someone.

- Learners should practice how to use “get in touch” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “get in touch” when talking about this idea.

grow up (verb)

Become an adult.

- Learners should practice how to use “grow up” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “grow up” until he saw an example.

half-truth (noun)

A partially true statement intended to deceive or mislead.

- The article explained what “half-truth” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “half-truth” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

high german (noun)

The standard German language; developed historically from West Germanic.

- Understanding “high german” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “high german” during the group presentation.

highly (adverb)

To a high degree or extent; favorably or with much respect.

- Highly successful.
- He spoke highly of her.

home secretary (noun)

The British cabinet minister who is head of the Home Office.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “home secretary.”
- He looked up “home secretary” because he had never seen it before.

house-train (verb)

Train (a pet) to live cleanly in a house.

- Can you use “house-train” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “house-train” and when to wait.

in reality (adverb)

Used to imply that one would expect the fact to be the opposite of that stated; surprisingly.

- They thought they made the rules but in reality they were only puppets.
- People who seem stand-offish are in reality often simply nervous.

laws (noun)

The first of three divisions of the Hebrew Scriptures comprising the first five books of the Hebrew Bible considered as a unit.

- The laws of thermodynamics.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “laws.”

mrs (noun)

A form of address for a married woman.

- Understanding "mrs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mrs" means with a simple example.

---

on the spot (adverb)

Without delay or immediately.

- We hired her on the spot.
- Thought they were going to shoot us down on the spot.

---

parties (noun)

A group of people gathered together for pleasure.

- He looked up "parties" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parties."

---

post card (noun)

A card for sending messages by post without an envelope.

- Understanding "post card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "post card."

---

present perfect (noun)

A perfective tense used to express action completed in the present.

- 'I have finished' is an example of the present perfect.
- He looked up "present perfect" because he had never seen it before.

---

rich people (noun)

People who have possessions and wealth (considered as a group).

- Only the very rich benefit from this legislation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rich people."

---

room access (noun)

The entrance (the space in a wall) through which you enter or leave a room or building; the space that a door can close.

- They discussed "room access" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "room access" to mean the entrance (the space in a wall) through which....

---

sea room (noun)

Space for maneuver at sea.

- He looked up "sea room" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea room."

---

sit by (verb)

Be inactive or indifferent while something is happening.

- Don't just sit by while your rights are violated!
- He did not know how to use "sit by" until he saw an example.

---

small capital (noun)

A character having the form of an upper-case letter but the same height as lower-case letters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "small capital."
- He looked up "small capital" because he had never seen it before.

---

stock-still (adverb)

Without moving or making a sound.

- They waited stock-still outside the door.
- The narrator describes the scene "stock-still" in the final chapter.

---

take stock (verb)

To look at critically or searchingly, or in minute detail.

- He did not know how to use "take stock" until he saw an example.

- The coach explained when to use "take stock" and when to wait.

---

waiting room (noun)

A room (as in a hotel or airport) with seating where people can wait.

- Understanding "waiting room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "waiting room" during the group presentation.

---

word picture (noun)

A graphic or vivid verbal description.

- Too often the narrative was interrupted by long word pictures.
- The author gives a depressing picture of life in Poland.

---

written report (noun)

A written document describing the findings of some individual or group.

- They discussed "written report" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "written report" because he had never seen it before.

---

advice (noun)

A proposal for an appropriate course of action.

- Understanding "advice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "advice" to mean a proposal for an appropriate course of action.

---

agreement (noun)

The statement (oral or written) of an exchange of promises.

- They had an agreement that they would not interfere in each other's business.
- There was no agreement between theory and measurement.

---

as luck would have it (adverb)

By good fortune.

- The narrator describes the scene "as luck would have it" in the final chapter.
- She spoke "as luck would have it," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

award (noun)

A tangible symbol signifying approval or distinction.

- An award for bravery.
- He criticized the awarding of compensation by the court.

---

caused (verb)

Cause to do; cause to act in a specified manner.

- He did not know how to use "caused" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "caused" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

comment (noun)

A report (often malicious) about the behavior of other people.

- From time to time she contributed a personal comment on his account.
- He wrote an extended comment on the proposal.

---

credit order (noun)

An order that is received without payment; requires billing at a later date.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "credit order."
- The article explained what "credit order" means with a simple example.

---

cross-country (adverb)

Not following tracks or roads.

- They liked to race cross-country.
- The river runs cross-country.

---

dark matter (noun)

(cosmology) a hypothetical form of matter that is believed to make up 90 percent of the universe; it is invisible (does not absorb or emit light) and does not collide with atomic particles but exerts gravitational force.

- They discussed "dark matter" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dark matter" to mean (cosmology) a hypothetical form of matter that is....

---

eventually (adverb)

After an unspecified period of time or an especially long delay.

- The narrator describes the scene "eventually" in the final chapter.
- She spoke "eventually," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

federal department (noun)

A department of the federal government of the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal department."
- Understanding "federal department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fire door (noun)

A fire-resistant door that can be closed to stop the spread of a fire.

- Understanding "fire door" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fire door" to mean a fire-resistant door that can be closed to stop....

---

full service bank (noun)

A financial institution that accepts demand deposits and makes loans and provides other services for the public.

- Understanding "full service bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "full service bank" because he had never seen it before.

---

funny story (noun)

An account of an amusing incident (usually with a punch line).

- She told a funny story.
- She made a funny.

---

home rule (noun)

Self-government in local matters by a city or county that is part of a national government.

- The article explained what "home rule" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home rule."

---

i peter (noun)

The first New Testament book traditionally attributed to Saint Peter the Apostle.

- The article explained what "i peter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "i peter" to mean the first new testament book traditionally....

---

in a low voice (adverb)

In an undertone.

- She spoke "in a low voice," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered "in a low voice," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

in theory (adverb)

With regard to fundamentals although not concerning details.

- She spoke "in theory," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Place "in theory" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

key word (noun)

A significant word used in indexing or cataloging.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "key word."
- He looked up "key word" because he had never seen it before.

---

lady of the house (noun)

A wife who manages a household while her husband earns the family income.

- Understanding “lady of the house” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “lady of the house” because he had never seen it before.

---

law of effect (noun)

(psychology) the principle that behaviors are selected by their consequences; behavior having good consequences tends to be repeated whereas behavior that leads to bad consequences is not repeated.

- He looked up “law of effect” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “law of effect” to mean (psychology) the principle that behaviors are....

---

lead bank (noun)

A bank named by a lending syndicate of several banks to protect their interests.

- He looked up “lead bank” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lead bank.”

---

legal age (noun)

The age at which persons are considered competent to manage their own affairs.

- He looked up “legal age” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “legal age.”

---

lived (verb)

Pursue a positive and satisfying existence.

- People lived in Africa millions of years ago.
- The race car driver lived through several very serious accidents.

---

lots (noun)

A large number or amount.

- Made lots of new friends.
- They drew lots for it.

---

middle english (noun)

English from about 1100 to 1450.

- The article explained what “middle english” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “middle english” to mean english from about 1100 to 1450.

---

nation (noun)

The people who live in a nation or country.

- A statement that sums up the nation’s mood.
- The news was announced to the nation.

---

national park service (noun)

An agency of the Interior Department responsible for the national parks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “national park service.”
- Understanding “national park service” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

north sea (noun)

An arm of the North Atlantic between the British Isles and Scandinavia; oil was discovered under the North Sea in 1970.

- In class, the teacher used “north sea” to mean an arm of the north atlantic between the british....
- Understanding “north sea” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

on purpose (adverb)

With intention; in an intentional manner.

- Using “on purpose” can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene “on purpose” in the final chapter.

---

one-man rule (noun)

A form of government in which the ruler is an absolute dictator (not restricted by a constitution or laws or opposition etc.).

- The article explained what “one-man rule” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “one-man rule” during the group presentation.

otherwise (adverb)

In other respects or ways.

- He is otherwise normal.
- The funds are not otherwise available.

pass along (verb)

Transmit information.

- Pass along the good news.
- The coach explained when to use "pass along" and when to wait.

purpose (noun)

An anticipated outcome that is intended or that guides your planned actions.

- He is a man of purpose.
- Understanding "purpose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

single-member system (noun)

Based on the principle of having only one member (as of a legislature) selected from each electoral district.

- In class, the teacher used "single-member system" to mean based on the principle of having only one member....
- They discussed "single-member system" during the group presentation.

theory (noun)

A tentative insight into the natural world; a concept that is not yet verified but that if true would explain certain facts or phenomena.

- A scientific hypothesis that survives experimental testing becomes a scientific theory.
- He proposed a fresh theory of alkalis that later was accepted in chemical practices.

world organization (noun)

An international alliance involving many different countries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "world organization."
- He looked up "world organization" because he had never seen it before.

art paper (noun)

A high-quality paper (usually having a filler of china clay).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "art paper."
- He looked up "art paper" because he had never seen it before.

avoid (verb)

Prevent the occurrence of; prevent from happening.

- Let's avoid a confrontation.
- Her former friends now avoid her.

bed check (noun)

A check that everyone is in bed by the time they should be.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bed check."
- Understanding "bed check" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bill of rights (noun)

A statement of fundamental rights and privileges (especially the first ten amendments to the United States Constitution).

- The article explained what "bill of rights" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bill of rights" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

black ice (noun)

A thin coating of ice (as from freezing mist) on a road or sidewalk; nearly invisible but very hazardous.

- In class, the teacher used "black ice" to mean a thin coating of ice (as from freezing mist) on a....
- The article explained what "black ice" means with a simple example.

block out (verb)

Plan where and when songs should be inserted into a theatrical production, or plan a theatrical production in general.

- Block out the strong sunlight.
- We sketched out our plan.

block up (verb)

Render unsuitable for passage.

- Block the way.
- The coach explained when to use "block up" and when to wait.

catch it (verb)

Receive punishment; be scolded or reprimanded.

- Learners should practice how to use "catch it" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "catch it" until he saw an example.

catch on (verb)

Understand, usually after some initial difficulty.

- Learners should practice how to use "catch on" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "catch on" until he saw an example.

central america (noun)

The nations of Central America collectively.

- They discussed "central america" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central america."

christmas day (noun)

A Christian holiday celebrating the birth of Christ; a quarter day in England, Wales, and Ireland.

- He looked up "christmas day" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "christmas day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

comments (noun)

A report (often malicious) about the behavior of other people.

- In class, the teacher used "comments" to mean a report (often malicious) about the behavior of....
- Understanding "comments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

common ground (noun)

A basis agreed to by all parties for reaching a mutual understanding.

- He looked up "common ground" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "common ground" during the group presentation.

double talk (noun)

Deliberately unintelligible gibberish.

- The article explained what "double talk" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "double talk" during the group presentation.

drop a line (verb)

Communicate (with) in writing.

- She tried to use "drop a line" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "drop a line" until he saw an example.

drop line (noun)

A headline with the top line flush left and succeeding lines indented to the right.

- They discussed "drop line" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "drop line" to mean a headline with the top line flush left and....

economic process (noun)

Any process affecting the production and development and management of material wealth.

- In class, the teacher used "economic process" to mean any process affecting the production and....

- The article explained what “economic process” means with a simple example.

family unit (noun)

Primary social group; parents and children.

- He wanted to have a good job before starting a family.
- In class, the teacher used “family unit” to mean primary social group; parents and children.

floor show (noun)

A series of acts at a night club.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “floor show.”
- The article explained what “floor show” means with a simple example.

foot (noun)

An army unit consisting of soldiers who fight on foot.

- There came ten thousand horsemen and as many fully-armed foot.
- Armored from head to foot.

front door (noun)

Exterior door (at the entrance) at the front of a building.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “front door.”
- Understanding “front door” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

half-century (noun)

A period of 50 years.

- He looked up “half-century” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “half-century” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hall (noun)

A large room for gatherings or entertainment.

- Lecture hall.
- Pool hall.

in camera (adverb)

Kept private or confined to those intimately concerned.

- He answered “in camera,” which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using “in camera” can make your explanation more exact.

late-night hour (noun)

The latter part of night.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “late-night hour.”
- He looked up “late-night hour” because he had never seen it before.

luck through (verb)

Act by relying on one’s luck.

- She tried to use “luck through” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “luck through” until he saw an example.

major fast day (noun)

One of two major fast days on the Jewish calendar.

- They discussed “major fast day” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “major fast day.”

meaning (noun)

The message that is intended or expressed or signified.

- What is the meaning of this sentence.
- What is the meaning of this proverb?

member bank (noun)

A bank that is a member of the Federal Reserve System.

- Understanding "member bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "member bank."

---

name calling (noun)

Verbal abuse; a crude substitute for argument.

- Sticks and stones may break my bones but names can never hurt me.
- The article explained what "name calling" means with a simple example.

---

news conference (noun)

A conference at which press and tv reporters ask questions of a politician or other celebrity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "news conference."
- He looked up "news conference" because he had never seen it before.

---

personal relationship (noun)

A relation between persons.

- Understanding "personal relationship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "personal relationship" means with a simple example.

---

question mark (noun)

A punctuation mark (?) placed at the end of a sentence to indicate a question.

- The article explained what "question mark" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "question mark."

---

radio news (noun)

A radio broadcast of news.

- Understanding "radio news" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "radio news" because he had never seen it before.

---

saturday (noun)

The seventh and last day of the week; observed as the Sabbath by Jews and some Christians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saturday."
- The article explained what "saturday" means with a simple example.

---

sit back (verb)

Be inactive or indifferent while something is happening.

- Don't just sit by while your rights are violated!
- Can you use "sit back" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

table saw (noun)

A circular saw mounted under a table or bench so that the blade of the saw projects up through a slot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "table saw."
- He looked up "table saw" because he had never seen it before.

---

therefore (adverb)

(used to introduce a logical conclusion) from that fact or reason or as a result.

- Therefore X must be true.
- Place "therefore" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

us congress (noun)

The legislature of the United States government.

- He looked up "us congress" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "us congress" to mean the legislature of the united states government.

---

written word (noun)

The written form of a word.

- While the spoken word stands for something, the written word stands for something that stands for something.
- A craftsman of the written word.

---

carry back (verb)

Deduct a loss or an unused credit from taxable income for a prior period.

- Learners should practice how to use "carry back" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "carry back" until he saw an example.

---

catch out (verb)

Trap; especially in an error or in a reprehensible act.

- He was caught out.
- She was found out when she tried to cash the stolen checks.

---

check mark (noun)

A mark indicating that something has been noted or completed etc.

- As he called the role he put a check mark by each student's name.
- The article explained what "check mark" means with a simple example.

---

claims (noun)

An assertion that something is true or factual.

- Evidence contradicted the government's claims.
- The article explained what "claims" means with a simple example.

---

complex (noun)

A conceptual whole made up of complicated and related parts.

- The complex of shopping malls, houses, and roads created a new town.
- He looked up "complex" because he had never seen it before.

---

conference room (noun)

A room in which a conference can be held.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conference room."
- He looked up "conference room" because he had never seen it before.

---

division (noun)

An army unit large enough to sustain combat.

- Two infantry divisions were held in reserve.
- The BBC's engineering division.

---

foot up (verb)

Add a column of numbers.

- He did not know how to use "foot up" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "foot up" and when to wait.

---

hold fast (verb)

Stick to firmly.

- In everyday English, people use "hold fast" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "hold fast" until he saw an example.

---

ii john (noun)

The second New Testament epistle traditionally attributed to Saint John the Apostle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ii john."
- He looked up "ii john" because he had never seen it before.

---

in that location (adverb)

In or at that place.

- That man there.
- Using "in that location" can make your explanation more exact.

library (noun)

A room where books are kept.

- They had brandy in the library.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "library."

military science (noun)

The discipline dealing with the principles of warfare.

- They discussed "military science" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "military science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

murder (verb)

Kill intentionally and with premeditation.

- The mafia boss ordered his enemies murdered.
- The tourists murdered the French language.

outside door (noun)

A doorway that allows entrance to or exit from a building.

- The article explained what "outside door" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "outside door" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pop up (verb)

Appear suddenly or unexpectedly.

- The farm popped into view as we turned the corner.
- He suddenly popped up out of nowhere.

pop-up (noun)

A book (usually for children) that contains one or more pages such that a three-dimensional structure rises up when a page is opened.

- The article explained what "pop-up" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pop-up" to mean a book (usually for children) that contains one or....

popular front (noun)

A leftist coalition organized against a common opponent.

- In class, the teacher used "popular front" to mean a leftist coalition organized against a common opponent.
- The article explained what "popular front" means with a simple example.

public knowledge (noun)

Knowledge that is available to anyone.

- They discussed "public knowledge" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "public knowledge" because he had never seen it before.

rate of return (noun)

The amount returned per unit of time expressed as a percentage of the cost.

- The article explained what "rate of return" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rate of return."

running title (noun)

The title (or a shortened title) of a book used as a running head.

- The article explained what "running title" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "running title."

sit down (verb)

Show to a seat; assign a seat for.

- The coach explained when to use "sit down" and when to wait.
- Can you use "sit down" in a sentence that fits this situation?

star of david (noun)

A six-pointed star formed from two equilateral triangles; an emblem symbolizing Judaism.

- The article explained what "star of david" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "star of david" to mean a six-pointed star formed from two equilateral....

subject case (noun)

The category of nouns serving as the grammatical subject of a verb.

- Understanding "subject case" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "subject case."

take notice (verb)

Observe with special attention.

- Take notice of the great architecture.
- In everyday English, people use "take notice" when talking about this idea.

tax return (noun)

Document giving the tax collector information about the taxpayer's tax liability.

- His gross income was enough that he had to file a tax return.
- They discussed "tax return" during the group presentation.

this evening (adverb)

During the night of the present day.

- She spoke "this evening," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered "this evening," which changed the tone of the conversation.

air gas (noun)

A gas made of carbon monoxide and hydrogen and nitrogen; made by passing air over hot coke.

- The article explained what "air gas" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "air gas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

baby bed (noun)

A small bed for babies; enclosed by sides to prevent the baby from falling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baby bed."
- He looked up "baby bed" because he had never seen it before.

battle group (noun)

An army unit usually consisting of five companies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battle group."
- He looked up "battle group" because he had never seen it before.

beach house (noun)

A house built on or near a beach.

- They discussed "beach house" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beach house."

book of numbers (noun)

The fourth book of the Old Testament; contains a record of the number of Israelites who followed Moses out of Egypt.

- He looked up "book of numbers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book of numbers."

business letter (noun)

A letter dealing with business.

- He looked up "business letter" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "business letter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

center of attention (noun)

The object upon which interest and attention focuses.

- His stories made him the center of the party.

- He looked up "center of attention" because he had never seen it before.

central american country (noun)

Any one of the countries occupying Central America; these countries (except for Belize and Costa Rica) are characterized by low per capita income and unstable governments.

- They discussed "central american country" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central american country."

channel (noun)

A path over which electrical signals can pass.

- A channel is typically what you rent from a telephone company.
- The fields were crossed with irrigation channels.

choice of words (noun)

The manner in which something is expressed in words; - G.S.Patton.

- The article explained what "choice of words" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "choice of words" during the group presentation.

council board (noun)

The table that conferees sit around as they hold a meeting.

- They discussed "council board" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "council board" because he had never seen it before.

distance (noun)

The interval between two times.

- The distance from birth to death.
- I could see it in the distance.

far and wide (adverb)

Over great areas or distances; everywhere.

- He traveled far and wide.
- The news spread far and wide.

fat (noun)

A soft greasy substance occurring in organic tissue and consisting of a mixture of lipids (mostly triglycerides).

- Pizza has too much fat.
- Fatty tissue protected them from the severe cold.

glass in (verb)

Enclose with glass.

- Glass in a porch.
- He did not know how to use "glass in" until he saw an example.

green gold (noun)

A gold alloy (at least 14 karat gold with silver or silver and cadmium) that has a green appearance.

- They discussed "green gold" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "green gold" to mean a gold alloy (at least 14 karat gold with silver or....

heavy water (noun)

Water containing a substantial proportion of deuterium atoms, used in nuclear reactors.

- He looked up "heavy water" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heavy water."

high commission (noun)

An embassy of one British Commonwealth country to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high commission."
- The article explained what "high commission" means with a simple example.

holy see (noun)

The smallest sovereign state in the world; the see of the Pope (as the Bishop of Rome); home of the Pope and the central administration of the Roman Catholic Church; achieved independence from Italy in 1929.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "holy see."
- He looked up "holy see" because he had never seen it before.

---

holy year (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) a period of remission from sin (usually granted every 25 years).

- The article explained what "holy year" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "holy year" to mean (roman catholic church) a period of remission from....

---

medical bill (noun)

Statement of charges for medical services.

- In class, the teacher used "medical bill" to mean statement of charges for medical services.
- Understanding "medical bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

minute book (noun)

A book in which minutes have been written.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "minute book."
- The article explained what "minute book" means with a simple example.

---

northern (noun)

A dialect of Middle English that developed into Scottish Lallans.

- He looked up "northern" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "northern."

---

plant life (noun)

(botany) a living organism lacking the power of locomotion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plant life."
- Understanding "plant life" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

power unit (noun)

A measure of electric power.

- They discussed "power unit" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "power unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

public opinion (noun)

A belief or sentiment shared by most people; the voice of the people.

- He asked for a poll of public opinion.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public opinion."

---

reached (verb)

To exert much effort or energy.

- The water reached the doorstep.
- The sunlight reached the wall.

---

royal (adjective)

Of or relating to or indicative of or issued or performed by a king or queen or other monarch.

- The royal party.
- The royal crest.

---

search party (noun)

A party of people to search for someone.

- He looked up "search party" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "search party" to mean a party of people to search for someone.

---

sit around (verb)

Be around, often idly or without specific purpose.

- We sat around chatting for another hour.
- In everyday English, people use "sit around" when talking about this idea.

---

special effect (noun)

An effect used to produce scenes that cannot be achieved by normal techniques (especially on film).

- He looked up "special effect" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "special effect."

---

species (noun)

A specific kind of something.

- A species of molecule.
- A species of villainy.

---

speech (noun)

The mental faculty or power of vocal communication.

- His speech was garbled.
- He could hear them uttering merry speeches.

---

stock company (noun)

A company whose capital is represented by stock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stock company."
- They discussed "stock company" during the group presentation.

---

tax policy (noun)

A program for setting taxes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tax policy."
- Understanding "tax policy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

the holy see (noun)

The smallest sovereign state in the world; the see of the Pope (as the Bishop of Rome); home of the Pope and the central administration of the Roman Catholic Church; achieved independence from Italy in 1929.

- In class, the teacher used "the holy see" to mean the smallest sovereign state in the world; the see....
- The article explained what "the holy see" means with a simple example.

---

thought-image (noun)

A mental image produced by the imagination.

- They discussed "thought-image" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "thought-image" because he had never seen it before.

---

traffic (noun)

The amount of activity over a communication system during a given period of time.

- Heavy traffic overloaded the trunk lines.
- Traffic on the internet is lightest during the night.

---

types (noun)

A subdivision of a particular kind of thing.

- The word 'element' contains five different types of character.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "types."

---

united states department of state (noun)

The federal department in the United States that sets and maintains foreign policies.

- The Department of State was created in 1789.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states department of state."

---

vs (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of four and one.

- They discussed "vs" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "vs" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of four and one.

waiting list (noun)

A roster of those waiting to obtain something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "waiting list."
- Understanding "waiting list" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

written account (noun)

A written document preserving knowledge of facts or events.

- Understanding "written account" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "written account" during the group presentation.

written record (noun)

A written document preserving knowledge of facts or events.

- In class, the teacher used "written record" to mean a written document preserving knowledge of facts or....
- He looked up "written record" because he had never seen it before.

bank of england (noun)

The central bank of England and Wales.

- Understanding "bank of england" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bank of england" means with a simple example.

bed rest (noun)

Confinement to bed continuously (as in the case of some sick or injured persons).

- The article explained what "bed rest" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bed rest."

begin (verb)

Have a beginning characterized in some specified way.

- The novel begins with a murder.
- My property begins with the three maple trees.

beyond control (adverb)

Out of control.

- She spoke "beyond control," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- The narrator describes the scene "beyond control" in the final chapter.

block off (verb)

Render unsuitable for passage.

- Block the way.
- We shut off the valve.

church of england (noun)

The national church of England (and all other churches in other countries that share its beliefs); has its see in Canterbury and the sovereign as its temporal head.

- They discussed "church of england" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "church of england" to mean the national church of england (and all other....

cross question (verb)

Question closely, or question a witness that has already been questioned by the opposing side.

- The witness was cross-examined by the defense.
- The coach explained when to use "cross question" and when to wait.

dog star (noun)

The brightest star in the sky; in Canis Major.

- Understanding "dog star" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dog star" means with a simple example.

english language (noun)

An Indo-European language belonging to the West Germanic branch; the official language of Britain and the United States and most of the commonwealth countries.

- In class, the teacher used "english language" to mean an indo-european language belonging to the west....
- The article explained what "english language" means with a simple example.

---

general knowledge (noun)

Knowledge that is available to anyone.

- He looked up "general knowledge" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "general knowledge" during the group presentation.

---

general security services (noun)

The Israeli domestic counterintelligence and internal security agency.

- The Shin Bet also handles overall security for Israel's national airline.
- He looked up "general security services" because he had never seen it before.

---

german-american (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of German Americans.

- A "german-american" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "german-american" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

holy day (noun)

A day specified for religious observance.

- Understanding "holy day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "holy day" because he had never seen it before.

---

ideas (noun)

An approximate calculation of quantity or degree or worth.

- Understanding "ideas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ideas" means with a simple example.

---

lie (verb)

Have a place in relation to something else.

- The fate of Bosnia lies in the hands of the West.
- The responsibility rests with the Allies.

---

lie with (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- This student sleeps with everyone in her dorm.
- Were you ever intimate with this man?

---

master in business (noun)

A master's degree in business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "master in business."
- The article explained what "master in business" means with a simple example.

---

notes (noun)

A comment or instruction (usually added).

- His notes were appended at the end of the article.
- He peeled off five one-thousand-zloty notes.

---

oil industry (noun)

An industry that produces and delivers oil and oil products.

- In class, the teacher used "oil industry" to mean an industry that produces and delivers oil and oil....
- The article explained what "oil industry" means with a simple example.

---

old north french (noun)

The medieval Norman dialect of Old French.

- Understanding "old north french" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "old north french" means with a simple example.

one million million million (noun)

The number that is represented as a one followed by 18 zeros.

- He looked up "one million million million" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "one million million million" during the group presentation.

open letter (noun)

A letter of protest; addressed to one person but intended for the general public.

- In class, the teacher used "open letter" to mean a letter of protest; addressed to one person but....
- He looked up "open letter" because he had never seen it before.

physical change (noun)

A change from one state (solid or liquid or gas) to another without a change in chemical composition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "physical change."
- The article explained what "physical change" means with a simple example.

previous question (noun)

A motion calling for an immediate vote on the main question under discussion by a deliberative assembly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "previous question."
- He looked up "previous question" because he had never seen it before.

ride out (verb)

Hang on during a trial of endurance.

- Ride out the storm.
- The coach explained when to use "ride out" and when to wait.

security council (noun)

A permanent council of the United Nations; responsible for preserving world peace.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "security council."
- They discussed "security council" during the group presentation.

security staff (noun)

Those in an organization responsible for preventing spying or theft.

- In class, the teacher used "security staff" to mean those in an organization responsible for preventing....
- He looked up "security staff" because he had never seen it before.

small letter (noun)

The characters that were once kept in bottom half of a compositor's type case.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "small letter."
- He looked up "small letter" because he had never seen it before.

social movement (noun)

A group of people with a common ideology who try together to achieve certain general goals.

- He was a charter member of the movement.
- Politicians have to respect a mass movement.

subject area (noun)

A branch of knowledge.

- Teachers should be well trained in their subject.
- They discussed "subject area" during the group presentation.

trade policy (noun)

A government's policy controlling foreign trade.

- He looked up "trade policy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "trade policy" during the group presentation.

turn of the century (noun)

The period from about ten years before to ten years after a new century.

- They discussed "turn of the century" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "turn of the century" means with a simple example.

---

twice (adverb)

To double the degree.

- I called her twice.
- He answered "twice," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

area unit (noun)

A system of units used to measure areas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "area unit."
- They discussed "area unit" during the group presentation.

---

black letter (noun)

A heavy typeface in use from 15th to 18th centuries.

- The article explained what "black letter" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black letter."

---

book of knowledge (noun)

An elementary encyclopedia dealing with general knowledge.

- Understanding "book of knowledge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "book of knowledge" because he had never seen it before.

---

bottom out (verb)

Hit the ground.

- The car bottomed out where the driveway meets the road.
- Prices bottomed out and started to rise again after a while.

---

broken home (noun)

A family in which the parents have separated or divorced.

- In class, the teacher used "broken home" to mean a family in which the parents have separated or....
- They discussed "broken home" during the group presentation.

---

business organization (noun)

A commercial or industrial enterprise and the people who constitute it.

- He bought his brother's business.
- A small mom-and-pop business.

---

cent (noun)

A fractional monetary unit of several countries.

- In class, the teacher used "cent" to mean a fractional monetary unit of several countries.
- The article explained what "cent" means with a simple example.

---

clean room (noun)

A room that is virtually free of dust or bacteria; used in laboratory work and in assembly or repair of precision equipment.

- Understanding "clean room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "clean room" during the group presentation.

---

come hell or high water (adverb)

In spite of all obstacles.

- We'll go to Tibet come hell or high water.
- Using "come hell or high water" can make your explanation more exact.

---

contract law (noun)

That branch of jurisprudence that studies the rights and obligations of parties entering into contracts.

- In class, the teacher used “contract law” to mean that branch of jurisprudence that studies the....
- They discussed “contract law” during the group presentation.

count on (verb)

Judge to be probable.

- She tried to use “count on” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use “count on” in a sentence that fits this situation?

critical (adjective)

Of or involving or characteristic of critics or criticism.

- Critical acclaim.
- A critical attitude.

date-mark (verb)

Mark with a date and place.

- The coach explained when to use “date-mark” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “date-mark” until he saw an example.

double check (noun)

Something that checks the correctness of a previous check.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “double check.”
- The article explained what “double check” means with a simple example.

double-check (verb)

Check once more to be absolutely sure.

- She tried to use “double-check” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “double-check” in real sentences.

economic policy (noun)

A government policy for maintaining economic growth and tax revenues.

- The article explained what “economic policy” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “economic policy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

family doctor (noun)

A general practitioner who treats all the family members.

- They discussed “family doctor” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “family doctor” means with a simple example.

family planning (noun)

Limiting the number of children born.

- They discussed “family planning” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “family planning.”

fish family (noun)

Any of various families of fish.

- Understanding “fish family” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “fish family” to mean any of various families of fish.

high spot (noun)

The most interesting or memorable part.

- The highlight of the tour was our visit to the Vatican.
- Understanding “high spot” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ice age (noun)

Any period of time during which glaciers covered a large part of the earth’s surface.

- The most recent ice age was during the Pleistocene.
- Understanding “ice age” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lie about (verb)

Hang around idly.

- In everyday English, people use "lie about" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "lie about" until he saw an example.

mental (adjective)

Of or relating to the mind.

- Mental powers.
- Mental development.

moment of truth (noun)

The moment in a bullfight when the matador kills the bull.

- In class, the teacher used "moment of truth" to mean the moment in a bullfight when the matador kills....
- Understanding "moment of truth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mostly (adverb)

In large part; mainly or chiefly.

- She spoke "mostly," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered "mostly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

name and address (noun)

Written directions for finding some location; written on letters or packages that are to be delivered to that location.

- In class, the teacher used "name and address" to mean written directions for finding some location;....
- Understanding "name and address" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

old high german (noun)

High German prior to 1200.

- They discussed "old high german" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "old high german" to mean high german prior to 1200.

opening line (noun)

The first line of a piece of writing (as a newspaper story).

- Understanding "opening line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "opening line" means with a simple example.

position paper (noun)

A report that explains or justifies or recommends some particular policy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "position paper."
- He looked up "position paper" because he had never seen it before.

previously (adverb)

At an earlier time or formerly.

- She had previously lived in Chicago.
- He was previously president of a bank.

pro-american (adjective)

Supporting the United States and its policies.

- Would you call this situation "pro-american"? Explain why.
- Students compared "pro-american" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

queen it over (verb)

Act like the master of.

- He is lording it over the students.
- He did not know how to use "queen it over" until he saw an example.

re-created (adjective)

Created anew.

- This re-created literalness.
- Students compared "re-created" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

realize (verb)

Perceive (an idea or situation) mentally.

- Does she realize how important this decision is?
- The coach explained when to use "realize" and when to wait.

---

red cross (noun)

An international organization that cares for the sick or wounded or homeless in wartime.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red cross."
- Understanding "red cross" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

red region (noun)

A place of eternal fire envisaged as punishment for the damned.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red region."
- Understanding "red region" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

safe period (noun)

That time during a woman's menstrual cycle during which conception is least likely to occur (usually immediately before of after menstruation).

- He looked up "safe period" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "safe period."

---

scale (noun)

The ratio between the size of something and a representation of it.

- The scale of the map.
- The scale of the model.

---

service contract (noun)

A contract for maintenance services.

- The article explained what "service contract" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service contract."

---

sign industry (noun)

An industry that produces signs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sign industry."
- He looked up "sign industry" because he had never seen it before.

---

square up (verb)

Settle conclusively; come to terms.

- Square the circle.
- Square the wood with a file.

---

stand fast (verb)

Refuse to abandon one's opinion or belief.

- The coach explained when to use "stand fast" and when to wait.
- Can you use "stand fast" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

starts (noun)

The time at which something is supposed to begin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "starts."
- He looked up "starts" because he had never seen it before.

---

stock power (noun)

A power of attorney document to transfer ownership of a registered security from the owner to another party.

- The article explained what "stock power" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stock power.”

throw in (verb)

To insert between other elements.

- Can you use “throw in” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “throw in” carefully so everyone would understand.

totally (adverb)

To a complete degree or to the full or entire extent (‘whole’ is often used informally for ‘wholly’).

- A totally new situation.
- Using “totally” can make your explanation more exact.

trade bill (noun)

A statute that would regulate foreign trade.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “trade bill.”
- They discussed “trade bill” during the group presentation.

true statement (noun)

A true statement.

- The article explained what “true statement” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “true statement” to mean a true statement.

african (adjective)

Of or relating to the nations of Africa or their peoples.

- African languages.
- Students compared “african” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

arms (noun)

The official symbols of a family, state, etc.

- The article explained what “arms” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “arms” during the group presentation.

back channel (noun)

An alternative to the regular channels of communication that is used when agreements must be made secretly (especially in diplomacy or government).

- They negotiated via a back channel.
- He looked up “back channel” because he had never seen it before.

back-channel (adjective)

Via a back channel.

- The failure of back-channel negotiations.
- A “back-channel” approach may work better in this case.

count out (verb)

Declare the loser.

- He did not know how to use “count out” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “count out” in a sentence that fits this situation?

early-morning hour (noun)

An hour early in the morning.

- Understanding “early-morning hour” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “early-morning hour.”

failed (verb)

Fail to do something; leave something undone.

- She failed to notice that her child was no longer in his crib.
- The secretary failed to call the customer and the company lost the account.

faith (noun)

An institution to express belief in a divine power.

- A member of his own faith contradicted him.
- He lost his faith but not his morality.

feature (noun)

A prominent attribute or aspect of something.

- The map showed roads and other features.
- An expression of pleasure crossed his features.

foreign policy (noun)

A policy governing international relations.

- In class, the teacher used "foreign policy" to mean a policy governing international relations.
- The article explained what "foreign policy" means with a simple example.

generation (noun)

The normal time between successive generations.

- They had to wait a generation for that prejudice to fade.
- The third generation of computers.

go for broke (verb)

Risk everything in one big effort.

- The cyclist went for broke at the end of the race.
- She tried to use "go for broke" carefully so everyone would understand.

gun room (noun)

Military quarters of midshipmen and junior officers on a British warship.

- The article explained what "gun room" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gun room."

hearing (noun)

The ability to hear; the auditory faculty.

- His hearing was impaired.
- They condemned him without a hearing.

hill (noun)

A local and well-defined elevation of the land.

- They loved to roam the hills of West Virginia.
- They discussed "hill" during the group presentation.

hotel room (noun)

A bedroom (usually with bath) in a hotel.

- The article explained what "hotel room" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hotel room."

line of defense (noun)

Any organization whose responsibility it is to defend against something.

- Police are the major line of defense against crime.
- The article explained what "line of defense" means with a simple example.

line organization (noun)

The organizational structure of activities contributing directly to the organization's output.

- They discussed "line organization" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "line organization" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

metal (noun)

A mixture containing two or more metallic elements or metallic and nonmetallic elements usually fused together or dissolving into each other when molten.

- The article explained what "metal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "metal" to mean a mixture containing two or more metallic elements....

---

modern english (noun)

English since about 1450.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "modern english."
- He looked up "modern english" because he had never seen it before.

---

new york minute (noun)

A very short time (as the time it takes the eye to blink or the heart to beat).

- They discussed "new york minute" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "new york minute" means with a simple example.

---

on faith (adverb)

With trust and confidence.

- We accepted him on faith.
- Using "on faith" can make your explanation more exact.

---

one-fourth (noun)

One of four equal parts.

- They discussed "one-fourth" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "one-fourth" because he had never seen it before.

---

peace process (noun)

Any social process undertaken by governments who want their citizens to believe they are trying to avoid armed hostilities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peace process."
- They discussed "peace process" during the group presentation.

---

plant family (noun)

A family of plants.

- They discussed "plant family" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "plant family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

press release (noun)

An announcement distributed to members of the press in order to supplement or replace an oral presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "press release" to mean an announcement distributed to members of the press....
- The article explained what "press release" means with a simple example.

---

profile (noun)

An analysis (often in graphical form) representing the extent to which something exhibits various characteristics.

- A biochemical profile of blood.
- A psychological profile of serial killers.

---

public speaking (noun)

Delivering an address to a public audience.

- The article explained what "public speaking" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "public speaking" to mean delivering an address to a public audience.

---

rule book (noun)

A collection of rules or prescribed standards on the basis of which decisions are made.

- They run things by the book around here.
- They discussed "rule book" during the group presentation.

---

seemed (verb)

Give a certain impression or have a certain outward aspect.

- In everyday English, people use "seemed" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "seemed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

separate out (verb)

Remove by passing through a filter.

- Filter out the impurities.
- He did not know how to use "separate out" until he saw an example.

serve well (verb)

Promote, benefit, or be useful or beneficial to.

- Art serves commerce.
- Their interests are served.

sexual (adjective)

Of or relating to or characterized by sexuality.

- Sexual orientation.
- Sexual distinctions.

social unit (noun)

An organization regarded as part of a larger social group.

- The coach said the offensive unit did a good job.
- After the battle the soldier had trouble rejoining his unit.

source language (noun)

A language that is to be translated into another language.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "source language."
- He looked up "source language" because he had never seen it before.

spring water (noun)

Underground water that is held in the soil and in pervious rocks.

- Understanding "spring water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "spring water" means with a simple example.

stand oil (noun)

A thick oil comprised of linseed, tung, or soya oils which have been heated to over 300 C.

- In class, the teacher used "stand oil" to mean a thick oil comprised of linseed, tung, or soya....
- The article explained what "stand oil" means with a simple example.

step by step (adverb)

In a gradual manner.

- The voltage was increased stepwise.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "step by step" naturally.

subject matter (noun)

What a communication that is about something is about.

- The article explained what "subject matter" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "subject matter."

target (noun)

The goal intended to be attained (and which is believed to be attainable).

- The target of a manhunt.
- They discussed "target" during the group presentation.

test bed (noun)

A place equipped with instruments for testing (e.g. engines or machinery or computer programs etc.) under working conditions.

- They discussed "test bed" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "test bed."

the hill (noun)

A hill in Washington, D.C., where the Capitol Building sits and Congress meets.

- They are debating the budget today on Capitol Hill.
- He looked up "the hill" because he had never seen it before.

---

think twice (verb)

Consider and reconsider carefully.

- Think twice before you have a child.
- The coach explained when to use "think twice" and when to wait.

---

throw out (verb)

Bring forward for consideration or acceptance.

- The coach explained when to use "throw out" and when to wait.
- Can you use "throw out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

turn up the pressure (verb)

Apply great or increased pressure.

- The Democrats turned up the heat on their candidate to concede the election.
- Learners should practice how to use "turn up the pressure" in real sentences.

---

understanding (noun)

The cognitive condition of someone who understands.

- He has virtually no understanding of social cause and effect.
- There was an understanding between management and the workers.

---

v-e day (noun)

The date of Allied victory in Europe, World War II.

- Understanding "v-e day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "v-e day" because he had never seen it before.

---

village (noun)

A community of people smaller than a town.

- Understanding "village" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "village" to mean a community of people smaller than a town.

---

acting out (noun)

A (usually irritating) impulsive and uncontrollable outburst by a problem child or a neurotic adult.

- He looked up "acting out" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "acting out" during the group presentation.

---

agent (noun)

An active and efficient cause; capable of producing a certain effect.

- Their research uncovered new disease agents.
- They discussed "agent" during the group presentation.

---

air letter (noun)

A letter sent by air mail.

- Understanding "air letter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "air letter" because he had never seen it before.

---

air unit (noun)

A military unit that is part of the airforce.

- He looked up "air unit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "air unit" during the group presentation.

---

apply (verb)

Refer (a word or name) to a person or thing.

- Apply a magnetic field here.

- I apply this rule to get good results.

as follows (adverb)

What is listed next.

- Her complaints went as follows.
- Place "as follows" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

band together (verb)

Form a group or unite.

- The groups banded together.
- Can you use "band together" in a sentence that fits this situation?

basis (noun)

The most important or necessary part of something.

- The basis of this drink is orange juice.
- He worked on an interim basis.

bed ground (noun)

An area on which a drove of cattle or sheep can sleep for a night.

- Understanding "bed ground" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bed ground."

bed-ground (noun)

An area on which a drove of cattle or sheep can sleep for a night.

- The article explained what "bed-ground" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bed-ground" to mean an area on which a drove of cattle or sheep can....

christian name (noun)

The first name given to Christians at birth or christening.

- He looked up "christian name" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "christian name" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

color line (noun)

Barrier preventing blacks from participating in various activities with whites.

- The article explained what "color line" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "color line" to mean barrier preventing blacks from participating in....

content word (noun)

A word to which an independent meaning can be assigned.

- The article explained what "content word" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "content word" to mean a word to which an independent meaning can be assigned.

double-space (verb)

Type with a full space between lines.

- The coach explained when to use "double-space" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "double-space" carefully so everyone would understand.

east sea (noun)

An arm of the Pacific between China and Japan.

- In class, the teacher used "east sea" to mean an arm of the pacific between china and japan.
- The article explained what "east sea" means with a simple example.

economic science (noun)

The branch of social science that deals with the production and distribution and consumption of goods and services and their management.

- They discussed "economic science" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "economic science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

enter (verb)

Register formally as a participant or member.

- The boat entered an area of shallow marshes.
- Enter a race.

---

follows (verb)

To bring something about at a later time than.

- Tuesday always follows Monday.
- It follows that your assertion is false.

---

foundation (noun)

The basis on which something is grounded.

- There is little foundation for his objections.
- He lacks the foundation necessary for advanced study.

---

french blue (noun)

Ultramarine pigment prepared artificially.

- In class, the teacher used "french blue" to mean ultramarine pigment prepared artificially.
- The article explained what "french blue" means with a simple example.

---

holding company (noun)

A company with controlling shares in other companies.

- Understanding "holding company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "holding company" during the group presentation.

---

holy city (noun)

Phrases used to refer to Heaven.

- The Celestial City was Christian's goal in Bunyan's 'Pilgrim's Progress'.
- They discussed "holy city" during the group presentation.

---

http (noun)

A protocol (utilizing TCP) to transfer hypertext requests and information between servers and browsers.

- He looked up "http" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "http."

---

individuals (noun)

A human being.

- He looked up "individuals" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "individuals."

---

japanese (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Japan or its people or their culture or language.

- The Japanese Emperor.
- Japanese cars.

---

memory (noun)

The power of retaining and recalling past experience.

- He had a good memory when he was younger.
- Search as he would, the memory was lost.

---

news organization (noun)

An agency to collects news reports for newspapers and distributes it electronically.

- Understanding "news organization" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "news organization" means with a simple example.

---

number agreement (noun)

Agreement in number between words in the same grammatical construction (e.g., between adjectives and the nouns they modify).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "number agreement."
- He looked up "number agreement" because he had never seen it before.

---

open secret (noun)

Something that is supposed to be secret but is generally known.

- Their love affair was an open secret.
- Understanding "open secret" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

out-of-the-box thinking (noun)

Thinking that moves away in diverging directions so as to involve a variety of aspects and which sometimes lead to novel ideas and solutions; associated with creativity.

- Understanding "out-of-the-box thinking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "out-of-the-box thinking" because he had never seen it before.

---

partner off (verb)

Form a pair or pairs.

- The two old friends paired off.
- Can you use "partner off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

prime (adjective)

Of or relating to or being an integer that cannot be factored into other integers.

- Prime number.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "prime."

---

pull at (verb)

Pluck or pull at with the fingers.

- Learners should practice how to use "pull at" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "pull at" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pull up (verb)

Remove, usually with some force or effort; also used in an abstract sense.

- Pull weeds.
- The Rolls pulled up on pour front lawn.

---

push up (verb)

Push upward.

- Can you use "push up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "push up" until he saw an example.

---

re-create (verb)

Form anew in the imagination; recollect and re-form in the mind.

- His mind re-creates the entire world.
- Re-create the boom of the West on a small scale.

---

sex-limited (adjective)

Relating to characteristics that are expressed differently in the two sexes.

- The speaker chose "sex-limited" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "sex-limited" approach may work better in this case.

---

short subject (noun)

A brief film; often shown prior to showing the feature.

- In class, the teacher used "short subject" to mean a brief film; often shown prior to showing the feature.
- The article explained what "short subject" means with a simple example.

---

silver (verb)

Coat with a layer of silver or a silver amalgam.

- Silver the necklace.
- Her worries had silvered her hair.

square off (verb)

Settle conclusively; come to terms.

- She tried to use "square off" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "square off" and when to wait.

supply (noun)

An amount of something available for use.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supply."
- He looked up "supply" because he had never seen it before.

thus far (adverb)

Used in negative statement to describe a situation that has existed up to this point or up to the present time.

- So far he hasn't called.
- The narrator describes the scene "thus far" in the final chapter.

time scale (noun)

An arrangement of events used as a measure of duration.

- On the geological time scale mankind has existed but for a brief moment.
- They discussed "time scale" during the group presentation.

town gas (noun)

Coal gas manufactured for domestic and industrial use.

- They discussed "town gas" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "town gas" to mean coal gas manufactured for domestic and industrial use.

training table (noun)

Planned meals for athletes in training (usually served in a mess hall).

- Understanding "training table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "training table" during the group presentation.

after a fashion (adverb)

To some extent; not very well.

- He speaks French after a fashion.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "after a fashion" naturally.

all-or-none law (noun)

(neurophysiology) a nerve impulse resulting from a weak stimulus is just as strong as a nerve impulse resulting from a strong stimulus.

- In class, the teacher used "all-or-none law" to mean (neurophysiology) a nerve impulse resulting from a....
- The article explained what "all-or-none law" means with a simple example.

apparently (adverb)

From appearances alone; ; ; -Thomas Hardy.

- Irrigation often produces bumper crops from apparently desert land.
- She has apparently been living here for some time.

art movement (noun)

A group of artists who agree on general principles.

- He looked up "art movement" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "art movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

by memory (adverb)

By committing to memory.

- Place "by memory" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene "by memory" in the final chapter.

case agreement (noun)

Agreement in grammatical case between words in the same construction.

- He looked up "case agreement" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "case agreement" during the group presentation.

---

city hall (noun)

A building that houses administrative offices of a municipal government.

- Understanding "city hall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "city hall" to mean a building that houses administrative offices of a....

---

clean-living (adjective)

Morally pure.

- The speaker chose "clean-living" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "clean-living" when it is morally pure.

---

contact action (noun)

Acceleration of a chemical reaction induced the presence of material that is chemically unchanged at the end of the reaction.

- Understanding "contact action" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "contact action" means with a simple example.

---

count off (verb)

Call in turn from right to left or from back to front numbers that determine some position or function.

- Learners should practice how to use "count off" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "count off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

dead weight (noun)

An oppressive encumbrance.

- He looked up "dead weight" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dead weight."

---

double date (noun)

A date in which two couples participate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double date."
- Understanding "double date" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

double-date (verb)

Go out on a date with a partner and another couple.

- She tried to use "double-date" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "double-date" and when to wait.

---

edition (noun)

Something a little different from others of the same type.

- The boy is a younger edition of his father.
- The first edition appeared in 1920.

---

engineering (noun)

The discipline dealing with the art or science of applying scientific knowledge to practical problems.

- He had trouble deciding which branch of engineering to study.
- They discussed "engineering" during the group presentation.

---

first estate (noun)

The clergy in France and the heads of the church in Britain.

- In class, the teacher used "first estate" to mean the clergy in france and the heads of the church in....
- Understanding "first estate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

green paper (noun)

A preliminary report of government proposals that is published in order to stimulate discussion.

- They discussed "green paper" during the group presentation.

- Understanding "green paper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

group theory (noun)

The branch of mathematics dealing with groups.

- Understanding "group theory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "group theory."

growth industry (noun)

An industry that is growing rapidly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "growth industry."
- The article explained what "growth industry" means with a simple example.

holy week (noun)

The week before Easter.

- He looked up "holy week" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "holy week" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ice field (noun)

A large flat mass of ice (larger than an ice floe) floating at sea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice field."
- He looked up "ice field" because he had never seen it before.

institute (noun)

An association organized to promote art or science or education.

- They discussed "institute" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "institute" because he had never seen it before.

light unit (noun)

A measure of the visible electromagnetic radiation.

- Understanding "light unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light unit."

low german (noun)

A German dialect spoken in northern Germany.

- Understanding "low german" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "low german" because he had never seen it before.

married couple (noun)

Two people who are married to each other.

- A married couple without love.
- He looked up "married couple" because he had never seen it before.

mass number (noun)

The sum of the number of neutrons and protons in an atomic nucleus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mass number."
- The article explained what "mass number" means with a simple example.

method (noun)

A way of doing something, especially a systematic way; implies an orderly logical arrangement (usually in steps).

- They discussed "method" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "method" because he had never seen it before.

mobile home (noun)

A large house trailer that can be connected to utilities and can be parked in one place and used as permanent housing.

- The article explained what "mobile home" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mobile home" to mean a large house trailer that can be connected to....

nations (noun)

The people who live in a nation or country.

- African nations.
- Understanding "nations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

no matter what happens (adverb)

In spite of all obstacles.

- Using "no matter what happens" can make your explanation more exact.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "no matter what happens" naturally.

obviously (adverb)

Unmistakably ('plain' is often used informally for 'plainly').

- The answer is obviously wrong.
- She spoke "obviously," and the audience immediately understood her point.

part of speech (noun)

One of the traditional categories of words intended to reflect their functions in a grammatical context.

- He looked up "part of speech" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "part of speech."

particular date (noun)

A particular but unspecified point in time.

- They hoped to get together at an early date.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "particular date."

person agreement (noun)

Agreement in person between pronouns and verbs.

- The article explained what "person agreement" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "person agreement."

picture writing (noun)

A writing system using pictographs.

- Understanding "picture writing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "picture writing" means with a simple example.

prime time (noun)

The hours between 7 and 11 p.m. when the largest tv audience is available.

- Understanding "prime time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "prime time" because he had never seen it before.

read between the lines (verb)

Read what is implied but not expressed on the surface.

- She tried to use "read between the lines" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "read between the lines" and when to wait.

right smart (adverb)

To a great degree or by a great distance; very much ('right smart' is regional in the United States).

- The other side of the hill is right smart steeper than the side we are on.
- Using "right smart" can make your explanation more exact.

ring out (verb)

Sound loudly.

- A shot rang out.
- The coach explained when to use "ring out" and when to wait.

senate (noun)

The upper house of the United States Congress.

- He looked up “senate” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “senate.”

---

short letter (noun)

A short personal letter.

- In class, the teacher used “short letter” to mean a short personal letter.
- They discussed “short letter” during the group presentation.

---

social organization (noun)

The people in a society considered as a system organized by a characteristic pattern of relationships.

- The social organization of England and America is very different.
- In class, the teacher used “social organization” to mean the people in a society considered as a system....

---

spread out (verb)

Spread out or open from a closed or folded state.

- Spread your arms.
- The soldiers fanned out.

---

spring to mind (verb)

Be remembered.

- His name comes to mind when you mention the strike.
- Learners should practice how to use “spring to mind” in real sentences.

---

stock room (noun)

Storeroom for storing goods and supplies used in a business.

- They discussed “stock room” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “stock room” means with a simple example.

---

take the count (verb)

Be counted out; remain down while the referee counts to ten.

- In everyday English, people use “take the count” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “take the count” in real sentences.

---

throw back (verb)

Throw back with a quick, light motion.

- She tossed back her head.
- Can you use “throw back” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

wedding day (noun)

The day of a wedding.

- Understanding “wedding day” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “wedding day” means with a simple example.

---

window (noun)

An opening that resembles a window in appearance or function.

- He could see them through a window in the trees.
- The expanded window will give us time to catch the thieves.

---

bet (verb)

Have faith or confidence in.

- You can bet on that!
- I bet she will be there!

---

bet on (verb)

Place a bet on.

- I’m betting on the new horse.
- The coach explained when to use “bet on” and when to wait.

building material (noun)

Material used for constructing buildings.

- The article explained what "building material" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "building material" during the group presentation.

calling into question (noun)

A challenge to defend what someone has said.

- In class, the teacher used "calling into question" to mean a challenge to defend what someone has said.
- The article explained what "calling into question" means with a simple example.

camp (noun)

A group of people living together in a camp.

- The whole camp laughed at his mistake.
- Wherever he went in the camp the men were grumbling.

capital of the united states (noun)

The capital of the United States in the District of Columbia and a tourist mecca; George Washington commissioned Charles L'Enfant to lay out the city in 1791.

- They discussed "capital of the united states" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "capital of the united states" means with a simple example.

cast (noun)

The distinctive form in which a thing is made.

- Pottery of this cast was found throughout the region.
- The delicate cast of his features.

claim form (noun)

A form to use when filing a claim.

- Understanding "claim form" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "claim form."

closed book (noun)

Something that baffles understanding and cannot be explained.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "closed book."
- He looked up "closed book" because he had never seen it before.

complex number (noun)

(mathematics) a number of the form a+bi where a and b are real numbers and i is the square root of -1.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "complex number."
- Understanding "complex number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

correct (verb)

Punish in order to gain control or enforce obedience.

- Correct the mistakes.
- Engineers will work to correct the effects or air resistance.

dead ahead (adverb)

Exactly ahead or in front.

- The laboratory is dead ahead.
- The narrator describes the scene "dead ahead" in the final chapter.

department of the federal government (noun)

A department of the federal government of the United States.

- Understanding "department of the federal government" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "department of the federal government" because he had never seen it before.

double star (noun)

A system of two stars that revolve around each other under their mutual gravitation.

- They discussed "double star" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double star."

---

earth science (noun)

Any of the sciences that deal with the earth or its parts.

- He looked up "earth science" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "earth science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

earth-received time (noun)

The coordinated universal time when an event is received on Earth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earth-received time."
- They discussed "earth-received time" during the group presentation.

---

eating house (noun)

A building where people go to eat.

- In class, the teacher used "eating house" to mean a building where people go to eat.
- He looked up "eating house" because he had never seen it before.

---

extremely (adverb)

To a high degree or extent; favorably or with much respect.

- Extremely interesting.
- Extremely cold.

---

family tree (noun)

Successive generations of kin.

- Understanding "family tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "family tree."

---

firm (noun)

The members of a business organization that owns or operates one or more establishments.

- He looked up "firm" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firm."

---

form letter (noun)

A letter that is printed in multiple copies and mailed to a list of recipients.

- Understanding "form letter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "form letter" because he had never seen it before.

---

good authority (noun)

Testimony by someone who should know.

- I have it on good authority.
- In class, the teacher used "good authority" to mean testimony by someone who should know.

---

government agency (noun)

An administrative unit of government.

- The Central Intelligence Agency.
- He looked up "government agency" because he had never seen it before.

---

high holy day (noun)

Jewish holy days observed with particular solemnity.

- In class, the teacher used "high holy day" to mean jewish holy days observed with particular solemnity.
- He looked up "high holy day" because he had never seen it before.

---

holy water (noun)

Water that has been blessed by a priest for use in symbolic purification.

- The article explained what "holy water" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "holy water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

indeed (adverb)

(used as an interjection) an expression of surprise or skepticism or irony etc.

- Wants to marry the butler? Indeed!
- They said the car would break down and indeed it did.

---

international organization (noun)

An international alliance involving many different countries.

- The article explained what "international organization" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "international organization" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jack off (verb)

Get sexual gratification through self-stimulation.

- Learners should practice how to use "jack off" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "jack off" when talking about this idea.

---

lie around (verb)

Hang around idly.

- She did all the work while he lay around.
- He did not know how to use "lie around" until he saw an example.

---

mental home (noun)

A hospital for mentally incompetent or unbalanced person.

- In class, the teacher used "mental home" to mean a hospital for mentally incompetent or unbalanced....
- They discussed "mental home" during the group presentation.

---

mid-may (noun)

The middle part of May.

- Understanding "mid-may" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mid-may."

---

negative (verb)

Vote against; refuse to endorse; refuse to assent.

- He did not know how to use "negative" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "negative" and when to wait.

---

nine times (adverb)

By a factor of nine.

- My investment has increased ninefold.
- She spoke "nine times," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

perfect gas (noun)

A hypothetical gas with molecules of negligible size that exert no intermolecular forces.

- In class, the teacher used "perfect gas" to mean a hypothetical gas with molecules of negligible....
- He looked up "perfect gas" because he had never seen it before.

---

political unit (noun)

A unit with political responsibilities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "political unit."
- Understanding "political unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prevent (verb)

Keep from happening or arising; make impossible.

- We must prevent the cancer from spreading.
- The coach explained when to use "prevent" and when to wait.

---

pull back (verb)

Stretch back a bowstring (on an archer's bow).

- The limo pulled away from the curb.
- Pull back your arms!

---

pull off (verb)

Remove by drawing or pulling.

- She placed the tray down and drew off the cloth.
- Pluck the flowers off the bush.

---

remain down (verb)

Be counted out; remain down while the referee counts to ten.

- The coach explained when to use "remain down" and when to wait.
- Can you use "remain down" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

round table (noun)

A meeting of peers for discussion and exchange of views.

- A roundtable on the future of computing.
- In class, the teacher used "round table" to mean a meeting of peers for discussion and exchange of views.

---

royal family (noun)

Royal persons collectively.

- The wedding was attended by royalty.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "royal family."

---

royal house (noun)

Royal persons collectively.

- The wedding was attended by royalty.
- The article explained what "royal house" means with a simple example.

---

sign language (noun)

Language expressed by visible hand gestures.

- They discussed "sign language" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sign language" because he had never seen it before.

---

special contract (noun)

A contract that is signed and has the (wax) seal of the signer attached.

- They discussed "special contract" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "special contract" because he had never seen it before.

---

spread over (verb)

Form a cover over.

- The grass covered the grave.
- He did not know how to use "spread over" until he saw an example.

---

stage door (noun)

An entrance to the backstage area of theater; used by performers and other theater personnel.

- He looked up "stage door" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stage door."

---

sweet talk (noun)

Flattery designed to gain favor.

- He looked up "sweet talk" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sweet talk" to mean flattery designed to gain favor.

---

sweet-talk (verb)

Influence or urge by gentle urging, caressing, or flattering.

- He did not know how to use “sweet-talk” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “sweet-talk” when talking about this idea.

---

take arms (verb)

Commence hostilities.

- Learners should practice how to use “take arms” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “take arms” until he saw an example.

---

third degree (noun)

Interrogation often accompanied by torture to extort information or a confession.

- The article explained what “third degree” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “third degree” to mean interrogation often accompanied by torture to....

---

track event (noun)

A footrace performed on a track (indoor or outdoor).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “track event.”
- Understanding “track event” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tree house (noun)

A playhouse built in the branches of a tree.

- He looked up “tree house” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “tree house” to mean a playhouse built in the branches of a tree.

---

videos (noun)

The visible part of a television transmission.

- Understanding “videos” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “videos” to mean the visible part of a television transmission.

---

war machine (noun)

The military forces of a nation.

- The military machine is the same one we faced in 1991 but now it is weaker.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “war machine.”

---

writing style (noun)

A style of expressing yourself in writing.

- The article explained what “writing style” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “writing style” during the group presentation.

---

written language (noun)

Communication by means of written symbols (either printed or handwritten).

- They discussed “written language” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “written language.”

---

you bet (adverb)

An expression of emphatic agreement.

- He answered “you bet,” which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using “you bet” can make your explanation more exact.

---

american indian day (noun)

US: the 4th Friday in September.

- They discussed “american indian day” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “american indian day” because he had never seen it before.

---

apart (adverb)

Not taken into account or excluded from consideration.

- These problems apart, the country is doing well.
- These towns are many miles apart.

battle plan (noun)

Plan for conducting a battle.

- The article explained what "battle plan" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "battle plan" during the group presentation.

blue note (noun)

A flattened third or seventh.

- In class, the teacher used "blue note" to mean a flattened third or seventh.
- The article explained what "blue note" means with a simple example.

camp out (verb)

Live in or as if in a tent.

- Can we go camping again this summer?
- The houseguests had to camp in the living room.

cast about (verb)

Search anxiously.

- She tried to use "cast about" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "cast about" when talking about this idea.

cast out (verb)

Expel from a community or group.

- He did not know how to use "cast out" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "cast out" in real sentences.

clean-cut (adjective)

Clear and distinct to the senses; easily perceptible.

- A spire clean-cut against the sky.
- A clean-cut and well-bred young man.

current unit (noun)

A measure of the amount of electric charge flowing past a circuit point at a specific time.

- The article explained what "current unit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "current unit" to mean a measure of the amount of electric charge flowing....

decide (verb)

Reach, make, or come to a decision about something.

- We finally decided after lengthy deliberations.
- The case was decided.

department of justice (noun)

The United States federal department responsible for enforcing federal laws (including the enforcement of all civil rights legislation); created in 1870.

- In class, the teacher used "department of justice" to mean the united states federal department responsible....
- He looked up "department of justice" because he had never seen it before.

dollars (noun)

A symbol of commercialism or greed.

- The article explained what "dollars" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dollars" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

door-to-door (adjective)

Omitting no one; from the door of one house to that of the next.

- A door-to-door campaign.
- The limousine offers door-to-door service.

eating away (noun)

(geology) the mechanical process of wearing or grinding something down (as by particles washing over it).

- In class, the teacher used "eating away" to mean (geology) the mechanical process of wearing or....
- They discussed "eating away" during the group presentation.

---

european union (noun)

An international organization of European countries formed after World War II to reduce trade barriers and increase cooperation among its members.

- He tried to take Britain into the Europen Union.
- Understanding "european union" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fifth (noun)

Position five in a countable series of things.

- He was fifth out of several hundred runners.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fifth."

---

firm up (verb)

Arrange firmly.

- Firm up one's plans.
- Can you use "firm up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

floor plan (noun)

Scale drawing of a horizontal section through a building at a given level; contrasts with elevation.

- The article explained what "floor plan" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "floor plan" during the group presentation.

---

fourth part (noun)

One of four equal parts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fourth part."
- He looked up "fourth part" because he had never seen it before.

---

french door (noun)

A light door with transparent or glazed panels extending the full length.

- In class, the teacher used "french door" to mean a light door with transparent or glazed panels....
- They discussed "french door" during the group presentation.

---

function (noun)

A formal or official social gathering or ceremony.

- It was a black-tie function.
- The function of an auger is to bore holes.

---

glad hand (noun)

A warm welcome; may be insincere.

- They discussed "glad hand" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "glad hand" because he had never seen it before.

---

green card (noun)

A card that identifies the bearer as an alien with permanent resident status in the United States.

- He was surprised to discover that green cards are no longer green.
- They discussed "green card" during the group presentation.

---

growth rate (noun)

The rate of increase in size per unit time.

- They discussed "growth rate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "growth rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

items (noun)

An individual instance of a type of symbol.

- She had several items on her shopping list.

- They reduced the price on many items.

---

justice department (noun)

The United States federal department responsible for enforcing federal laws (including the enforcement of all civil rights legislation); created in 1870.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "justice department."
- The article explained what "justice department" means with a simple example.

---

low sunday (noun)

The Sunday following Easter.

- He looked up "low sunday" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "low sunday."

---

off-line operation (noun)

A operation performed by off-line equipment not under the control of the central processing unit.

- They discussed "off-line operation" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "off-line operation" to mean a operation performed by off-line equipment not....

---

power politics (noun)

Diplomacy in which the nations threaten to use force in order to obtain their objectives.

- Understanding "power politics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "power politics" to mean diplomacy in which the nations threaten to use....

---

press association (noun)

An agency to collects news reports for newspapers and distributes it electronically.

- In class, the teacher used "press association" to mean an agency to collects news reports for newspapers....
- Understanding "press association" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

press conference (noun)

A conference at which press and tv reporters ask questions of a politician or other celebrity.

- They discussed "press conference" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "press conference" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

public library (noun)

A nonprofit library maintained for public use.

- In class, the teacher used "public library" to mean a nonprofit library maintained for public use.
- They discussed "public library" during the group presentation.

---

pull through (verb)

Continue in existence after (an adversity, etc.).

- We pulled through most of the victims of the bomb attack.
- The coach explained when to use "pull through" and when to wait.

---

pull-through (noun)

Cleaning implement consisting of an oily rag attached by a cord to a weight; is pulled through the barrel of a rifle or handgun to clean it.

- They discussed "pull-through" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pull-through."

---

push down (verb)

Cause to come or go down.

- The policeman downed the heavily armed suspect.
- The mugger knocked down the old lady after she refused to hand over her wallet.

---

rate of growth (noun)

The rate of increase in size per unit time.

- He looked up "rate of growth" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rate of growth" to mean the rate of increase in size per unit time.

---

require (verb)

Require as useful, just, or proper.

- Success usually requires hard work.
- We require our secretary to be on time.

---

secret police (noun)

A police force that operates in secrecy (usually against persons suspected of treason or sedition).

- In class, the teacher used "secret police" to mean a police force that operates in secrecy (usually....
- The article explained what "secret police" means with a simple example.

---

self-knowledge (noun)

An understanding of yourself and your goals and abilities.

- The article explained what "self-knowledge" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "self-knowledge" to mean an understanding of yourself and your goals and....

---

service agency (noun)

A business that makes its facilities available to others for a fee; achieves economy of scale.

- In class, the teacher used "service agency" to mean a business that makes its facilities available to....
- The article explained what "service agency" means with a simple example.

---

shut (verb)

Move so that an opening or passage is obstructed; make shut.

- Shut the window.
- The trees were shutting out all sunlight.

---

shut in (verb)

Surround completely.

- In everyday English, people use "shut in" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "shut in" in real sentences.

---

standards (noun)

The ideal in terms of which something can be judged.

- They live by the standards of their community.
- The schools comply with federal standards.

---

subject field (noun)

A branch of knowledge.

- Teachers should be well trained in their subject.
- He looked up "subject field" because he had never seen it before.

---

take up arms (verb)

Commence hostilities.

- In everyday English, people use "take up arms" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "take up arms" in real sentences.

---

tells (verb)

Inform positively and with certainty and confidence.

- She tried to use "tells" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "tells" when talking about this idea.

---

thinks (noun)

An instance of deliberate thinking.

- The article explained what "thinks" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thinks."

---

to advantage (adverb)

In a manner that uses the most flattering or best aspects of.

- The dress brought out her figure to advantage.
- Place "to advantage" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

united states air force (noun)

The airforce of the United States of America; the agency that defends the United States through control and exploitation of air and space.

- He looked up "united states air force" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states air force."

---

us senate (noun)

The upper house of the United States Congress.

- He looked up "us senate" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "us senate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

van (noun)

The leading units moving at the head of an army.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "van."
- He looked up "van" because he had never seen it before.

---

wearing away (noun)

(geology) the mechanical process of wearing or grinding something down (as by particles washing over it).

- The article explained what "wearing away" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wearing away" during the group presentation.

---

western church (noun)

The Christian Church based in the Vatican and presided over by a pope and an episcopal hierarchy.

- They discussed "western church" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "western church" means with a simple example.

---

bed cover (noun)

Decorative cover for a bed.

- He looked up "bed cover" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bed cover" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

birth (noun)

The time when something begins (especially life).

- They divorced after the birth of the child.
- His election signaled the birth of a new age.

---

built in bed (noun)

A bed on a ship or train; usually in tiers.

- In class, the teacher used "built in bed" to mean a bed on a ship or train; usually in tiers.
- He looked up "built in bed" because he had never seen it before.

---

built-in bed (noun)

A bed that is built in and fixed to a wall.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "built-in bed."
- He looked up "built-in bed" because he had never seen it before.

---

carried (verb)

Serve as a means for expressing something.

- His voice carried a lot of anger.
- His efforts carried the entire project.

---

concept (noun)

An abstract or general idea inferred or derived from specific instances.

- He looked up "concept" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "concept."

decision table (noun)

A table of all contingencies and the actions to be taken for each.

- In class, the teacher used "decision table" to mean a table of all contingencies and the actions to be....
- They discussed "decision table" during the group presentation.

defense program (noun)

A program for defending a country against its enemies.

- He looked up "defense program" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "defense program" to mean a program for defending a country against its enemies.

eastern time (noun)

Standard time in the 5th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 75th meridian; used in the eastern United States.

- They discussed "eastern time" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "eastern time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

federal security service (noun)

The internal counterintelligence agency of the Russian Federation and successor to the Soviet KGB; formerly led by Vladimir Putin.

- He looked up "federal security service" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal security service."

force unit (noun)

A unit of measurement of physical force.

- They discussed "force unit" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "force unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

high fashion (noun)

Trend-setting fashions.

- He looked up "high fashion" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "high fashion" to mean trend-setting fashions.

hospital bed (noun)

A single bed with a frame in three sections so the head or middle or foot can be raised as required.

- They discussed "hospital bed" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hospital bed."

indian red (noun)

A red soil containing ferric oxide; often used as a pigment.

- Understanding "indian red" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "indian red" because he had never seen it before.

journal (noun)

A periodical dedicated to a particular subject.

- He reads the medical journals.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "journal."

master of education (noun)

A master's degree in education.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "master of education."
- He looked up "master of education" because he had never seen it before.

master plan (noun)

A long-term outline of a project or government function.

- The zoning board adopted a master plan for the new development.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "master plan."

moving picture (noun)

A form of entertainment that enacts a story by sound and a sequence of images giving the illusion of continuous movement.

- In class, the teacher used "moving picture" to mean a form of entertainment that enacts a story by....
- He looked up "moving picture" because he had never seen it before.

---

news agency (noun)

An agency to collects news reports for newspapers and distributes it electronically.

- He looked up "news agency" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "news agency."

---

one-fifth (noun)

One part in five equal parts.

- Understanding "one-fifth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "one-fifth."

---

physical process (noun)

A sustained phenomenon or one marked by gradual changes through a series of states.

- Events now in process.
- The process of calcification begins later for boys than for girls.

---

possibly (adverb)

To a degree possible of achievement or by possible means.

- They can't possibly get here in time for the funeral?
- We may possibly run into them at the concert.

---

prime of life (noun)

The time of maturity when power and vigor are greatest.

- He looked up "prime of life" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "prime of life" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prove (verb)

Put to the test, as for its quality, or give experimental use to.

- She proved to be right.
- Prove a will.

---

radio source (noun)

An object that radiates radio waves.

- He looked up "radio source" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "radio source" during the group presentation.

---

secret plan (noun)

A secret scheme to do something (especially something underhand or illegal).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secret plan."
- He looked up "secret plan" because he had never seen it before.

---

set square (noun)

A try square with an adjustable sliding head.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "set square."
- Understanding "set square" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shut out (verb)

Prevent from entering; shut out.

- The trees were shutting out all sunlight.
- Learners should practice how to use "shut out" in real sentences.

---

shut up (verb)

Refuse to talk or stop talking; fall silent.

- The children shut up when their father approached.

- He did not know how to use “shut up” until he saw an example.

speech-read (verb)

Interpret by lipreading; of deaf people.

- In everyday English, people use “speech-read” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “speech-read” in real sentences.

standing order (noun)

A rule of order permanently in force.

- In class, the teacher used “standing order” to mean a rule of order permanently in force.
- They discussed “standing order” during the group presentation.

stock list (noun)

A detailed list of all the items in stock.

- He looked up “stock list” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “stock list” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

thousands (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of 10 and 100.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “thousands.”
- He looked up “thousands” because he had never seen it before.

under arms (adverb)

Armed and prepared for fighting.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “under arms” naturally.
- The narrator describes the scene “under arms” in the final chapter.

union army (noun)

The northern army during the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used “union army” to mean the northern army during the american civil war.
- The article explained what “union army” means with a simple example.

units (noun)

An organization regarded as part of a larger social group.

- The reduced the number of units and installations.
- Units of nucleic acids.

v sign (noun)

A sign (for victory); making a V with the index and middle fingers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “v sign.”
- He looked up “v sign” because he had never seen it before.

wanted notice (noun)

A public announcement by a law enforcement agency that they desire to question or arrest some person.

- The article explained what “wanted notice” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wanted notice.”

water glass (noun)

A viscous glass consisting of sodium silicate in solution; used as a cement or as a protective coating and to preserve eggs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water glass.”
- The article explained what “water glass” means with a simple example.

writing paper (noun)

Paper material made into thin sheets that are sized to take ink; used for writing correspondence and manuscripts.

- Understanding “writing paper” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “writing paper” to mean paper material made into thin sheets that are sized....

ad (noun)

A public promotion of some product or service.

- They discussed "ad" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

at length (adverb)

In a lengthy or prolix manner.

- The argument went on lengthily.
- She talked at length about the problem.

before christ (adverb)

Before the Christian era; used following dates before the supposed year Christ was born.

- Place "before christ" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "before christ," which changed the tone of the conversation.

birthday (noun)

An anniversary of the day on which a person was born (or the celebration of it).

- The article explained what "birthday" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "birthday" during the group presentation.

brand name (noun)

A name given to a product or service.

- Understanding "brand name" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "brand name" means with a simple example.

camp down (verb)

Establish or set up a camp.

- Can you use "camp down" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "camp down" until he saw an example.

central standard time (noun)

Standard time in the 6th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 90th meridian; used in the central United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central standard time."
- They discussed "central standard time" during the group presentation.

commission plan (noun)

A municipal government that combines legislative and executive authority in the members of a commission.

- In class, the teacher used "commission plan" to mean a municipal government that combines legislative....
- They discussed "commission plan" during the group presentation.

common knowledge (noun)

Anything generally known to everyone.

- The article explained what "common knowledge" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "common knowledge" to mean anything generally known to everyone.

connection (noun)

The process of bringing ideas or events together in memory or imagination.

- There was a connection between eating that pickle and having that nightmare.
- The connection between church and state is inescapable.

construction industry (noun)

An industry that builds housing.

- The article explained what "construction industry" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "construction industry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

council table (noun)

The table that conferees sit around as they hold a meeting.

- They discussed "council table" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "council table" because he had never seen it before.

---

degree of a term (noun)

The sum of the exponents of the variables in the term.

- Understanding "degree of a term" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "degree of a term."

---

double-u (noun)

The 23rd letter of the Roman alphabet.

- They discussed "double-u" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "double-u" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

economic growth (noun)

Steady growth in the productive capacity of the economy (and so a growth of national income).

- Understanding "economic growth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "economic growth" because he had never seen it before.

---

eye cup (noun)

A small vessel with a rim curved to fit the orbit of the eye; use to apply medicated or cleansing solution to the eyeball.

- An eyecup is called an eyebath in Britain.
- They discussed "eye cup" during the group presentation.

---

floor board (noun)

A board in the floor.

- In class, the teacher used "floor board" to mean a board in the floor.
- They discussed "floor board" during the group presentation.

---

form of address (noun)

An identifying appellation signifying status or function: e.g. 'Mr.' or 'General'.

- The professor didn't like his friends to use his formal title.
- The article explained what "form of address" means with a simple example.

---

get onto (verb)

Understand, usually after some initial difficulty.

- She tried to use "get onto" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "get onto" in real sentences.

---

ground forces (noun)

A permanent organization of the military land forces of a nation or state.

- The article explained what "ground forces" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ground forces" to mean a permanent organization of the military land....

---

hand and foot (adverb)

In all ways possible.

- They served him hand and foot.
- Place "hand and foot" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

high-rise (noun)

Tower consisting of a multistoried building of offices or apartments.

- 'tower block' is the British term for 'high-rise'.
- Understanding "high-rise" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

house agent (noun)

A person who is authorized to act as an agent for the sale of land.

- In England they call a real estate agent a land agent.
- The article explained what "house agent" means with a simple example.

know apart (verb)

Recognize or perceive the difference.

- Can you use "know apart" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "know apart" and when to wait.

knowing (noun)

A clear and certain mental apprehension.

- The article explained what "knowing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "knowing" during the group presentation.

m-theory (noun)

(particle physics) a theory that involves an eleven-dimensional universe in which the weak and strong forces and gravity are unified and to which all the string theories belong.

- They discussed "m-theory" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "m-theory" because he had never seen it before.

managed (verb)

Be successful; achieve a goal.

- I managed to carry the box upstairs.
- She managed her parents' affairs after they got too old.

military unit (noun)

A unit that is part of some military service.

- They discussed "military unit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "military unit" means with a simple example.

natural gas (noun)

A fossil fuel in the gaseous state; used for cooking and heating homes.

- Understanding "natural gas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "natural gas."

on request (adverb)

On the occasion of a request.

- Place "on request" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "on request" naturally.

percent sign (noun)

A sign ('%') used to indicate that the number preceding it should be understood as a proportion multiplied by 100.

- In class, the teacher used "percent sign" to mean a sign ('%') used to indicate that the number....
- They discussed "percent sign" during the group presentation.

personal letter (noun)

A letter dealing with personal affairs.

- Understanding "personal letter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "personal letter."

price floor (noun)

Floor below which prices are not allowed to fall.

- The government used price supports to maintain the price floor.
- They discussed "price floor" during the group presentation.

red notice (noun)

An Interpol notice describing a wanted person and asking that he or she be arrested with a view to extradition; a wanted notice that is issued by Interpol at the request of an Interpol member country and distributed to all member countries.

- An Interpol Red Notice is the closest instrument to an international arrest warrant in use today.
- They discussed "red notice" during the group presentation.

religious order (noun)

A subdivision of a larger religious group.

- The article explained what "religious order" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "religious order" to mean a subdivision of a larger religious group.

---

request (noun)

A formal message requesting something that is submitted to an authority.

- The article explained what "request" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "request."

---

rock oil (noun)

A dark oil consisting mainly of hydrocarbons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rock oil."
- The article explained what "rock oil" means with a simple example.

---

rose family (noun)

A large family of dicotyledonous plants of order Rosales; have alternate leaves and five-petaled flowers with numerous stamens.

- They discussed "rose family" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rose family" means with a simple example.

---

royal line (noun)

Royal persons collectively.

- The wedding was attended by royalty.
- They discussed "royal line" during the group presentation.

---

second estate (noun)

The nobility in France and the peerage in Britain.

- In class, the teacher used "second estate" to mean the nobility in france and the peerage in britain.
- The article explained what "second estate" means with a simple example.

---

smart set (noun)

The fashionable elite.

- The article explained what "smart set" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "smart set" during the group presentation.

---

speed-reading (noun)

Reading at speeds significantly faster than normal.

- Understanding "speed-reading" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "speed-reading" because he had never seen it before.

---

spirit off (verb)

Carry off mysteriously; as if by magic.

- Learners should practice how to use "spirit off" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "spirit off" when talking about this idea.

---

spirit world (noun)

Any imaginary place where spiritual beings (demons or fairies or angels or the like) abide.

- Science has emptied the spirit world of its former inhabitants.
- The article explained what "spirit world" means with a simple example.

---

stage effect (noun)

A special effect created on the stage.

- The article explained what "stage effect" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stage effect" during the group presentation.

---

stick on (verb)

Apply a heavy coat to.

- In everyday English, people use "stick on" when talking about this idea.

- He did not know how to use “stick on” until he saw an example.

---

term of a contract (noun)

The period of time during which a contract conveying property to a person is in effect.

- He looked up “term of a contract” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “term of a contract.”

---

title of respect (noun)

An identifying appellation signifying status or function: e.g. ‘Mr.’ or ‘General’.

- The professor didn’t like his friends to use his formal title.
- The article explained what “title of respect” means with a simple example.

---

trial court (noun)

The first court before which the facts of a case are decided.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “trial court.”
- They discussed “trial court” during the group presentation.

---

union card (noun)

A card certifying membership in a labor union.

- They discussed “union card” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “union card” means with a simple example.

---

wedding night (noun)

The night after the wedding when bride and groom sleep together.

- In class, the teacher used “wedding night” to mean the night after the wedding when bride and groom....
- They discussed “wedding night” during the group presentation.

---

white lie (noun)

An unimportant lie (especially one told to be tactful or polite).

- The article explained what “white lie” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “white lie” to mean an unimportant lie (especially one told to be....

---

writing table (noun)

A desk used for writing.

- He looked up “writing table” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “writing table” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bank statement (noun)

A periodic statement prepared by a bank for each client.

- I wish my bank statement arrived earlier in the month.
- The article explained what “bank statement” means with a simple example.

---

believed (verb)

Follow a credo; have a faith; be a believer.

- I believed his report.
- The coach explained when to use “believed” and when to wait.

---

billion (noun)

A very large indefinite number (usually hyperbole).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “billion.”
- He looked up “billion” because he had never seen it before.

---

bridge over (verb)

Suffice for a period between two points.

- He did not know how to use “bridge over” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “bridge over” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cast around (verb)

Search anxiously.

- The coach explained when to use "cast around" and when to wait.
- Can you use "cast around" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

committee for state security (noun)

Formerly the predominant security police organization of Soviet Russia.

- The article explained what "committee for state security" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "committee for state security" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

control condition (noun)

A standard against which other conditions can be compared in a scientific experiment.

- The control condition was inappropriate for the conclusions he wished to draw.
- He looked up "control condition" because he had never seen it before.

---

conversation (noun)

The use of speech for informal exchange of views or ideas or information etc.

- They discussed "conversation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "conversation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cultural (adjective)

Of or relating to the arts and manners that a group favors.

- Cultural events.
- A person of broad cultural interests.

---

defense department (noun)

The federal department responsible for safeguarding national security of the United States; created in 1947.

- Understanding "defense department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "defense department" means with a simple example.

---

defense force (noun)

An organization of defenders that provides resistance against attack.

- He joined the defense against invasion.
- They discussed "defense force" during the group presentation.

---

department of defense (noun)

The federal department responsible for safeguarding national security of the United States; created in 1947.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of defense."
- He looked up "department of defense" because he had never seen it before.

---

develop (verb)

Elaborate, as of theories and hypotheses.

- Could you develop the ideas in your thesis.
- Her company developed a new kind of building material that withstands all kinds of weather.

---

draw away (verb)

Remove by drawing or pulling.

- Draw away the cloth that is covering the cheese.
- She tried to use "draw away" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

ends (noun)

The point in time at which something ends.

- The ends justify the means.
- Both ends wrote at the same time.

---

file (verb)

Place in a container for keeping records.

- File these bills, please.
- File for divorce.

---

fourth power (noun)

An algebraic equation of the fourth degree.

- They discussed "fourth power" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fourth power" to mean an algebraic equation of the fourth degree.

---

fresh water (noun)

Water that is not salty.

- They discussed "fresh water" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fresh water" means with a simple example.

---

guide (verb)

Be a guiding or motivating force or drive.

- They had the lights to guide on.
- The coach explained when to use "guide" and when to wait.

---

guide on (verb)

Use as a guide.

- They had the lights to guide on.
- He did not know how to use "guide on" until he saw an example.

---

hard surface (verb)

Cover with asphalt or a similar surface.

- Hard-surface roads.
- The coach explained when to use "hard surface" and when to wait.

---

head count (noun)

Number of people in a particular group.

- The article explained what "head count" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "head count."

---

india paper (noun)

A thin tough opaque paper used in fine books.

- They discussed "india paper" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "india paper" means with a simple example.

---

investigation (noun)

An inquiry into unfamiliar or questionable activities.

- Understanding "investigation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "investigation" during the group presentation.

---

lose track (verb)

Fail to keep informed or aware.

- She has so many books, she just lost track and cannot find this volume.
- The coach explained when to use "lose track" and when to wait.

---

national security council (noun)

A committee in the executive branch of government that advises the president on foreign and military and national security; supervises the Central Intelligence Agency.

- They discussed "national security council" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "national security council" means with a simple example.

---

on the fly (adverb)

On the run or in a hurry.

- She wrote those letters on the fly.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "on the fly" naturally.

outside marriage (adverb)

Of unwed parents.

- The narrator describes the scene "outside marriage" in the final chapter.
- She spoke "outside marriage," and the audience immediately understood her point.

piece of paper (noun)

Paper used for writing or printing.

- They discussed "piece of paper" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "piece of paper" because he had never seen it before.

political machine (noun)

A group that controls the activities of a political party.

- He was endorsed by the Democratic machine.
- Understanding "political machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pop the question (verb)

Ask (someone) to marry you.

- He popped the question on Sunday night.
- She proposed marriage to the man she had known for only two months.

pop-up book (noun)

A book (usually for children) that contains one or more pages such that a three-dimensional structure rises up when a page is opened.

- In class, the teacher used "pop-up book" to mean a book (usually for children) that contains one or....
- They discussed "pop-up book" during the group presentation.

presented (verb)

Give an exhibition of to an interested audience.

- We presented the arguments to him.
- The commencement speaker presented a forceful speech that impressed the students.

prime number (noun)

An integer that has no integral factors but itself and 1.

- He looked up "prime number" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "prime number" to mean an integer that has no integral factors but itself....

prison house (noun)

A prisonlike situation; a place of seeming confinement.

- They discussed "prison house" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "prison house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

senior moment (noun)

A momentary lapse of memory (especially in older people).

- In class, the teacher used "senior moment" to mean a momentary lapse of memory (especially in older....
- The article explained what "senior moment" means with a simple example.

show window (noun)

A setting in which something can be displayed to best effect.

- It was a showcase for democracy in Africa.
- They discussed "show window" during the group presentation.

shut down (verb)

Cease to operate or cause to cease operating.

- Learners should practice how to use "shut down" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "shut down" when talking about this idea.

shut off (verb)

Block off the passage through.

- We shut off the valve.
- Shut off the gas when you leave for a vacation.

---

sitting room (noun)

A room in a private house or establishment where people can sit and talk and relax.

- They discussed "sitting room" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sitting room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

slightly (adverb)

To a small degree or extent.

- The children argued because one slice of cake was slightly larger than the other.
- Slightly built.

---

small business administration (noun)

An independent agency of the United States government that protects the interests of small businesses and ensures that they receive a fair share of government contracts.

- They discussed "small business administration" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "small business administration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

standing room (noun)

Room for passengers or spectators to stand.

- There was standing room for thousands more people.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "standing room."

---

stick about (verb)

Be available or ready for a certain function or service.

- In everyday English, people use "stick about" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "stick about" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

stick by (verb)

Be loyal to.

- Can you use "stick by" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "stick by" and when to wait.

---

stick up (verb)

Defend against attack or criticism.

- He did not know how to use "stick up" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "stick up" in real sentences.

---

suggest (verb)

Make a proposal, declare a plan for something.

- The evidence suggests a need for more clarification.
- She tried to use "suggest" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

summer stock (noun)

Theatrical productions performed by a stock company during the summer.

- The article explained what "summer stock" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "summer stock" during the group presentation.

---

take apart (verb)

Make a mathematical, chemical, or grammatical analysis of; break down into components or essential features.

- He did not know how to use "take apart" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "take apart" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

target company (noun)

A company that has been chosen as attractive for takeover by a potential acquirer.

- He looked up "target company" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "target company."

---

technical (adjective)

Of or relating to technique or proficiency in a practical skill.

- His technical innovation was his brushwork.
- The technical dazzle of her dancing.

---

thoughts (noun)

The organized beliefs of a period or group or individual.

- What are your thoughts on Haiti?
- He looked up "thoughts" because he had never seen it before.

---

touch-type (verb)

Type without looking at the keyboard.

- The coach explained when to use "touch-type" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "touch-type" in real sentences.

---

value statement (noun)

A statement of the desirability of something.

- In class, the teacher used "value statement" to mean a statement of the desirability of something.
- The article explained what "value statement" means with a simple example.

---

variety (noun)

A collection containing a variety of sorts of things.

- He had a variety of disorders.
- The range and variety of his work is amazing.

---

weapons (noun)

A means of persuading or arguing.

- He used all his conversational weapons.
- The article explained what "weapons" means with a simple example.

---

written text (noun)

Something written, especially copied from one medium to another, as a typewritten version of dictation.

- In class, the teacher used "written text" to mean something written, especially copied from one....
- The article explained what "written text" means with a simple example.

---

youth (noun)

An early period of development.

- During the youth of the project.
- Youth everywhere rises in revolt.

---

air division (noun)

A unit of the United States Air Force usually comprising two or more wings.

- They discussed "air division" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "air division" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air traffic (noun)

Traffic created by the movement of aircraft.

- The article explained what "air traffic" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "air traffic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

appreciate (verb)

Be fully aware of; realize fully.

- Do you appreciate the full meaning of this letter?
- The yen appreciated again!

---

as if by magic (adverb)

In a magical manner.

- It disappeared magically.
- The narrator describes the scene "as if by magic" in the final chapter.

---

b complex (noun)

Originally thought to be a single vitamin but now separated into several B vitamins.

- Understanding "b complex" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "b complex" to mean originally thought to be a single vitamin but now....

---

building block (noun)

A single undivided natural thing occurring in the composition of something else.

- The article explained what "building block" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "building block" to mean a single undivided natural thing occurring in the....

---

capital of washington (noun)

Capital of the state of Washington; located in western Washington on Puget Sound.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of washington."
- Understanding "capital of washington" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

card table (noun)

A table for playing cards (as in a casino).

- Understanding "card table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "card table" during the group presentation.

---

common multiple (noun)

An integer that is a multiple of two or more other integers.

- The article explained what "common multiple" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common multiple."

---

credit union (noun)

A cooperative depository financial institution whose members can obtain loans from their combined savings.

- Understanding "credit union" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "credit union" to mean a cooperative depository financial institution....

---

double bed (noun)

A bed wide enough to accommodate two sleepers.

- In class, the teacher used "double bed" to mean a bed wide enough to accommodate two sleepers.
- The article explained what "double bed" means with a simple example.

---

double door (noun)

Two vertical doors that meet in the middle of the door frame when closed.

- They discussed "double door" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "double door" to mean two vertical doors that meet in the middle of the....

---

expected value (noun)

The sum of the values of a random variable divided by the number of values.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "expected value."
- He looked up "expected value" because he had never seen it before.

---

fifth part (noun)

One part in five equal parts.

- He looked up "fifth part" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fifth part."

---

fit the bill (verb)

Be what is needed or be good enough for what is required.

- Does this restaurant fit the bill for the celebration?
- He did not know how to use "fit the bill" until he saw an example.

---

for dear life (adverb)

As though your life was at stake.

- He was running for dear life.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "for dear life" naturally.

---

forever (adverb)

For a very long or seemingly endless time.

- She took forever to write the paper.
- We had to wait forever and a day.

---

human activity (noun)

Something that people do or cause to happen.

- In class, the teacher used "human activity" to mean something that people do or cause to happen.
- The article explained what "human activity" means with a simple example.

---

insurance policy (noun)

Written contract or certificate of insurance.

- You should have read the small print on your policy.
- In class, the teacher used "insurance policy" to mean written contract or certificate of insurance.

---

labor day (noun)

First Monday in September in the United States and Canada.

- Understanding "labor day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "labor day" means with a simple example.

---

law of large numbers (noun)

(statistics) law stating that a large number of items taken at random from a population will (on the average) have the population statistics.

- In class, the teacher used "law of large numbers" to mean (statistics) law stating that a large number of....
- Understanding "law of large numbers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

little joe (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of three and one.

- Understanding "little joe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "little joe" because he had never seen it before.

---

magazine (noun)

A business firm that publishes magazines.

- He works for a magazine.
- It takes several years before a magazine starts to break even or make money.

---

mid-water (noun)

The water that is well below the surface but also well above the bottom.

- Many marine fishes inhabit the mid-waters.
- In class, the teacher used "mid-water" to mean the water that is well below the surface but also....

---

offers (noun)

The verbal act of offering.

- The article explained what "offers" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "offers" during the group presentation.

---

on a higher floor (adverb)

On a floor above.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "on a higher floor" naturally.
- She spoke "on a higher floor," and the audience immediately understood her point.

open-door policy (noun)

The policy of granting equal trade opportunities to all countries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "open-door policy."
- He looked up "open-door policy" because he had never seen it before.

organization of american states (noun)

An association including most countries in the western hemisphere; created in 1948 to promote military and economic and social and cultural cooperation.

- In class, the teacher used "organization of american states" to mean an association including most countries in the....
- He looked up "organization of american states" because he had never seen it before.

parliament (noun)

A legislative assembly in certain countries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parliament."
- They discussed "parliament" during the group presentation.

planning board (noun)

A board appointed to advise the chief administrator.

- The article explained what "planning board" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "planning board."

political theory (noun)

An orientation that characterizes the thinking of a group or nation.

- He looked up "political theory" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "political theory."

raise up (verb)

Change the arrangement or position of.

- Can you use "raise up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "raise up" and when to wait.

re-address (verb)

Put a new address on (an envelope), as for forwarding.

- Learners should practice how to use "re-address" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "re-address" and when to wait.

reference (noun)

A remark that calls attention to something or someone.

- The speaker made several references to his wife.
- It is used as a reference for comparing the heating and the electrical energy involved.

religion (noun)

An institution to express belief in a divine power.

- He was raised in the Baptist religion.
- They discussed "religion" during the group presentation.

roll out (verb)

Flatten or spread with a roller.

- Roll out the paper.
- Roll out the big map.

royal court (noun)

The family and retinue of a sovereign or prince.

- In class, the teacher used "royal court" to mean the family and retinue of a sovereign or prince.
- Understanding "royal court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sense of direction (noun)

An awareness of your orientation in space.

- He looked up "sense of direction" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sense of direction."

---

sign of the cross (noun)

A gesture with the right hand moving to form a cross; used by Catholics as a profession of faith.

- The article explained what "sign of the cross" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sign of the cross."

---

social structure (noun)

The people in a society considered as a system organized by a characteristic pattern of relationships.

- The social organization of England and America is very different.
- Sociologists have studied the changing structure of the family.

---

sound unit (noun)

Any acoustic unit of measurement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sound unit."
- He looked up "sound unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

strategy (noun)

An elaborate and systematic plan of action.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strategy."
- He looked up "strategy" because he had never seen it before.

---

television show (noun)

A program broadcast by television.

- They discussed "television show" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "television show" because he had never seen it before.

---

ten percent (noun)

A tenth part; one part in ten equal parts.

- Understanding "ten percent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ten percent" during the group presentation.

---

traffic court (noun)

A court that has power to prosecute for traffic offenses.

- He looked up "traffic court" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "traffic court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

want ad (noun)

A newspaper advertisement stating what is wanted.

- They discussed "want ad" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "want ad" because he had never seen it before.

---

web (noun)

An interconnected system of things or people.

- Tangled in a web of cloth.
- The trees cast a delicate web of shadows over the lawn.

---

wedding party (noun)

A party of people at a wedding.

- He looked up "wedding party" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wedding party."

---

white metal (noun)

An alloy (often of lead or tin base) used for bearings.

- He looked up "white metal" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white metal."

accounts (noun)

A record or narrative description of past events.

- By all accounts they were a happy couple.
- In class, the teacher used "accounts" to mean a record or narrative description of past events.

across the nation (adverb)

Extending throughout an entire nation.

- Nationally advertised.
- It was broadcast nationwide.

application form (noun)

A form to use when making an application.

- Understanding "application form" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "application form" to mean a form to use when making an application.

arm (noun)

A division of some larger or more complex organization.

- The arm of the record player.
- An arm of the sea.

blog (noun)

A shared on-line journal where people can post diary entries about their personal experiences and hobbies.

- Postings on a blog are usually in chronological order.
- In class, the teacher used "blog" to mean a shared on-line journal where people can post....

catch fire (verb)

Start to burn or burst into flames.

- In everyday English, people use "catch fire" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "catch fire" in real sentences.

click open (verb)

Open with a clicking sound.

- These keys have clicked open many doors.
- Learners should practice how to use "click open" in real sentences.

conference table (noun)

The table that conferees sit around as they hold a meeting.

- He looked up "conference table" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conference table."

core (noun)

A small group of indispensable persons or things.

- Five periodicals make up the core of their publishing program.
- The ball has a titanium core.

defense policy (noun)

A program for defending a country against its enemies.

- Understanding "defense policy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "defense policy" means with a simple example.

democratic (adjective)

Belong to or relating to the Democratic Party.

- Democratic senator.
- Democratic government.

description (noun)

A statement that represents something in words.

- Every description of book was there.
- In class, the teacher used "description" to mean a statement that represents something in words.

---

dress down (verb)

Censure severely or angrily.

- The customer dressed down the waiter for bringing cold soup.
- On Fridays, employees can underdress.

---

east india company (noun)

An English company formed in 1600 to develop trade with the new British colonies in India and southeastern Asia; in the 18th century it assumed administrative control of Bengal and held it until the British army took over in 1858 after the Indian Mutiny.

- They discussed "east india company" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "east india company."

---

engine room (noun)

A room (as on a ship) in which the engine is located.

- The article explained what "engine room" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "engine room."

---

exist (verb)

Have an existence, be extant.

- He could barely exist on such a low wage.
- He did not know how to use "exist" until he saw an example.

---

form division (noun)

An artificial taxonomic category for organisms of which the true relationships are obscure.

- They discussed "form division" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "form division" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grade point (noun)

A numerical value assigned to a letter grade received in a course taken at a college or university multiplied by the number of credit hours awarded for the course.

- The article explained what "grade point" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "grade point" to mean a numerical value assigned to a letter grade....

---

grand total (noun)

The sum of the sums of several groups of numbers.

- In class, the teacher used "grand total" to mean the sum of the sums of several groups of numbers.
- The article explained what "grand total" means with a simple example.

---

ground floor (noun)

Becoming part of a venture at the beginning (regarded as position of advantage).

- He got in on the ground floor.
- The article explained what "ground floor" means with a simple example.

---

ground-floor (adjective)

On the floor closest to level with the ground.

- The ground-floor entrance is kept locked.
- Students compared "ground-floor" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

house cat (noun)

Any domesticated member of the genus Felis.

- He looked up "house cat" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "house cat" to mean any domesticated member of the genus felis.

---

iron out (verb)

Press and smooth with a heated iron.

- She stood there ironing.
- We need to iron out our disagreements.

---

lies (verb)

Have a place in relation to something else.

- The fate of Bosnia lies in the hands of the West.
- The responsibility rests with the Allies.

---

like mad (adverb)

With great speed or effort or intensity.

- Drove like crazy.
- Worked like hell to get the job done.

---

long island sound (noun)

A sound between Long Island and Connecticut.

- He looked up "long island sound" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "long island sound" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mention (noun)

A remark that calls attention to something or someone.

- She made frequent mention of her promotion.
- There was no mention of it.

---

multiple star (noun)

A system of three or more stars associated by gravity.

- In class, the teacher used "multiple star" to mean a system of three or more stars associated by gravity.
- Understanding "multiple star" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

natural ability (noun)

Ability that is inherited.

- They discussed "natural ability" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "natural ability" because he had never seen it before.

---

nuclear (adjective)

Of or relating to or constituting the nucleus of a cell.

- Nuclear membrane.
- Nuclear division.

---

plant department (noun)

The division of a business responsible for building and maintaining the physical plant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plant department."
- Understanding "plant department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

political economy (noun)

The branch of social science that deals with the production and distribution and consumption of goods and services and their management.

- The article explained what "political economy" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "political economy" during the group presentation.

---

presence (noun)

The impression that something is present.

- He felt the presence of an evil force.
- He tested for the presence of radon.

---

private security force (noun)

A privately employed group hired to protect the security of a business or industry.

- He looked up "private security force" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "private security force" to mean a privately employed group hired to protect the....

professional association (noun)

An association of practitioners of a given profession.

- In class, the teacher used "professional association" to mean an association of practitioners of a given profession.
- The article explained what "professional association" means with a simple example.

pull together (verb)

Assemble or get together.

- Pull your thoughts together.
- He did not know how to use "pull together" until he saw an example.

re-explain (verb)

Interpret from a different viewpoint.

- He did not know how to use "re-explain" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "re-explain" in real sentences.

reading material (noun)

Written material intended to be read.

- The teacher assigned new readings.
- He bought some reading material at the airport.

return address (noun)

The address of the sender of a letter or parcel indicating where it should be returned if it cannot be delivered.

- In class, the teacher used "return address" to mean the address of the sender of a letter or parcel....
- The article explained what "return address" means with a simple example.

rule of evidence (noun)

(law) a rule of law whereby any alleged matter of fact that is submitted for investigation at a judicial trial is established or disproved.

- He looked up "rule of evidence" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rule of evidence" to mean (law) a rule of law whereby any alleged matter of....

secret society (noun)

A society that conceals its activities from nonmembers.

- In class, the teacher used "secret society" to mean a society that conceals its activities from nonmembers.
- The article explained what "secret society" means with a simple example.

shoot for (verb)

Have an ambitious plan or a lofty goal.

- The coach explained when to use "shoot for" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "shoot for" until he saw an example.

speech community (noun)

People sharing a given language or dialect.

- They discussed "speech community" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "speech community" because he had never seen it before.

spirit away (verb)

Carry away rapidly and secretly, as if mysteriously.

- He did not know how to use "spirit away" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "spirit away" in real sentences.

spread head (noun)

Two facing pages of a book or other publication.

- They discussed "spread head" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "spread head" to mean two facing pages of a book or other publication.

steps (noun)

The course along which a person has walked or is walking in.

- I followed in his steps.
- He retraced his steps.

---

tea (noun)

A reception or party at which tea is served.

- We met at the Dean's tea for newcomers.
- Iced tea is a cooling drink.

---

the likes of (noun)

A similar kind; ,.

- Dogs, foxes, and the like.
- We don't want the likes of you around here.

---

traffic light (noun)

A visual signal to control the flow of traffic at intersections.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "traffic light."
- He looked up "traffic light" because he had never seen it before.

---

unit trust (noun)

A regulated investment company consisting of professional managers who issue redeemable securities representing a portfolio of many different securities.

- You can invest in a unit investment trust for as little as $1000.
- Understanding "unit trust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wall rock (noun)

A rock immediately adjacent to a vein or fault.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wall rock."
- He looked up "wall rock" because he had never seen it before.

---

week from monday (noun)

A time period of a week or more.

- A week from Monday will be too soon!
- He looked up "week from monday" because he had never seen it before.

---

west coast (noun)

The western seaboard of the United States from Washington to southern California.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "west coast."
- Understanding "west coast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

word of advice (noun)

Cautionary advice about something imminent (especially imminent danger or other unpleasantness).

- His final word of advice was not to play with matches.
- The article explained what "word of advice" means with a simple example.

---

afternoon (noun)

The part of the day between noon and evening.

- He spent a quiet afternoon in the park.
- In class, the teacher used "afternoon" to mean the part of the day between noon and evening.

---

board foot (noun)

The volume of a piece of wood 1 foot square and 1 inch thick.

- Understanding "board foot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "board foot" during the group presentation.

---

business firm (noun)

The members of a business organization that owns or operates one or more establishments.

- In class, the teacher used "business firm" to mean the members of a business organization that owns or....

- They discussed "business firm" during the group presentation.

centre of attention (noun)

The object upon which interest and attention focuses.

- He looked up "centre of attention" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "centre of attention."

commercial bank (noun)

A financial institution that accepts demand deposits and makes loans and provides other services for the public.

- Understanding "commercial bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commercial bank."

construction paper (noun)

Paper suitable for drawing and making cutouts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "construction paper."
- Understanding "construction paper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

core out (verb)

Remove the interior of.

- Hollow out a tree trunk.
- In everyday English, people use "core out" when talking about this idea.

electric (adjective)

Using or providing or producing or transmitting or operated by electricity.

- Electric current.
- Electric wiring.

entered (verb)

Register formally as a participant or member.

- The boat entered an area of shallow marshes.
- He did not know how to use "entered" until he saw an example.

entirely (adverb)

To a complete degree or to the full or entire extent ('whole' is often used informally for 'wholly').

- Entirely satisfied with the meal.
- Was entirely to blame.

executive program (noun)

A program that controls the execution of other programs.

- In class, the teacher used "executive program" to mean a program that controls the execution of other programs.
- Understanding "executive program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

field theory (noun)

(physics) a theory that explains a physical phenomenon in terms of a field and the manner in which it interacts with matter or with other fields.

- The article explained what "field theory" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "field theory" during the group presentation.

financial management service (noun)

The federal agency in the Treasury Department that manages the government's disbursement and collection systems and provides central accounting and financial reporting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "financial management service."
- He looked up "financial management service" because he had never seen it before.

financial statement (noun)

A document showing credits and debits.

- Understanding "financial statement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "financial statement."

fuel (noun)

A substance that can be consumed to produce energy.

- More fuel is needed during the winter months.
- They developed alternative fuels for aircraft.

---

german language (noun)

The standard German language; developed historically from West Germanic.

- Understanding "german language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "german language" during the group presentation.

---

hello (noun)

An expression of greeting.

- Every morning they exchanged polite hellos.
- He looked up "hello" because he had never seen it before.

---

high horse (noun)

An attitude of arrogant superiority.

- Get off your high horse and admit you are wrong.
- The article explained what "high horse" means with a simple example.

---

hot spring (noun)

A natural spring of water at a temperature of 70 F or above.

- Understanding "hot spring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hot spring" during the group presentation.

---

houses (noun)

The management of a gambling house or casino.

- A bicameral legislature has two houses.
- The article explained what "houses" means with a simple example.

---

initial (noun)

The first letter of a word (especially a person's name).

- He refused to put the initials FRS after his name.
- Understanding "initial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

international court of justice (noun)

A court established to settle disputes between members of the United Nations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "international court of justice."
- He looked up "international court of justice" because he had never seen it before.

---

international development association (noun)

An agency of the United Nations affiliated with the World Bank.

- He looked up "international development association" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "international development association" to mean an agency of the united nations affiliated with the....

---

kick in (verb)

Enter a particular state.

- After a few moments, the effects of the drug kicked in.
- Kick in the doors.

---

language unit (noun)

One of the natural units into which linguistic messages can be analyzed.

- Understanding "language unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "language unit."

---

library program (noun)

A program in a program library.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "library program."
- They discussed "library program" during the group presentation.

---

lie in wait (verb)

Wait in hiding to attack.

- The coach explained when to use "lie in wait" and when to wait.
- Can you use "lie in wait" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

lie low (verb)

To try to avoid detection especially by police.

- After we knock off that liquor store we'll have to lay low for a while.
- Learners should practice how to use "lie low" in real sentences.

---

local authority (noun)

An administrative unit of local government.

- Understanding "local authority" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "local authority."

---

matters (noun)

A vaguely specified concern.

- Several matters to attend to.
- In class, the teacher used "matters" to mean a vaguely specified concern.

---

military machine (noun)

The military forces of a nation.

- Their military is the largest in the region.
- The military machine is the same one we faced in 1991 but now it is weaker.

---

moving-picture show (noun)

A form of entertainment that enacts a story by sound and a sequence of images giving the illusion of continuous movement.

- Understanding "moving-picture show" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moving-picture show."

---

pair (noun)

A poker hand with 2 cards of the same value.

- Understanding "pair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pair" means with a simple example.

---

physical science (noun)

The physical properties, phenomena, and laws of something.

- The article explained what "physical science" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "physical science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

picked (verb)

Pull lightly but sharply with a plucking motion.

- She finally picked her successor.
- He picked his way carefully.

---

place setting (noun)

A table service for one person.

- A place setting of sterling flatware.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "place setting."

---

plenty (noun)

(often followed by 'of') a large number or amount or extent.

- It must have cost plenty.
- There was plenty of food for everyone.

population growth (noun)

Increase in the number of people who inhabit a territory or state.

- He looked up "population growth" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "population growth."

reaction time (noun)

The time that elapses between a stimulus and the response to it.

- Understanding "reaction time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reaction time."

roll off (verb)

Recite volubly or extravagantly.

- She tried to use "roll off" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "roll off" when talking about this idea.

search language (noun)

A source language consisting of procedural operators that invoke functions to be executed.

- He looked up "search language" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "search language."

set apart (verb)

Select something or someone for a specific purpose.

- Learners should practice how to use "set apart" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "set apart" carefully so everyone would understand.

shut away (verb)

Place in a place where something cannot be removed or someone cannot escape.

- Learners should practice how to use "shut away" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "shut away" until he saw an example.

significant figure (noun)

Any digit of a number that is known with certainty; any digit of a number beginning with the leftmost non-zero digit and ending with the rightmost non-zero digit (or a zero considered to be the exact value).

- He calculated the answer to four significant figures.
- They discussed "significant figure" during the group presentation.

sky (noun)

The atmosphere and outer space as viewed from the earth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sky."
- He looked up "sky" because he had never seen it before.

south african (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of South Africa or its people.

- A "south african" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "south african."

speech act (noun)

The use of language to perform some act.

- He looked up "speech act" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "speech act" during the group presentation.

standard pressure (noun)

A unit of pressure: the pressure that will support a column of mercury 760 mm high at sea level and 0 degrees centigrade.

- In class, the teacher used "standard pressure" to mean a unit of pressure: the pressure that will support....
- Understanding "standard pressure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sure as shooting (adverb)

Definitely or positively (‘sure‘ is sometimes used informally for ‘surely’).

- The results are surely encouraging.
- It’s going to be a good day for sure.

---

town hall (noun)

A government building that houses administrative offices of a town government.

- They discussed “town hall” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “town hall” means with a simple example.

---

turn up the heat (verb)

Apply great or increased pressure.

- The Democrats turned up the heat on their candidate to concede the election.
- In everyday English, people use “turn up the heat” when talking about this idea.

---

united nations (noun)

An organization of independent states formed in 1945 to promote international peace and security.

- They discussed “united nations” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “united nations” means with a simple example.

---

united states congress (noun)

The legislature of the United States government.

- The article explained what “united states congress” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “united states congress” to mean the legislature of the united states government.

---

watched (verb)

Be vigilant, be on the lookout or be careful.

- They watched as the murderer was executed.
- The coach explained when to use “watched” and when to wait.

---

western culture (noun)

The modern culture of western Europe and North America.

- When Ghandi was asked what he thought of Western civilization he said he thought it would be a good idea.
- Understanding “western culture” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

windows (noun)

(trademark) an operating system with a graphical user interface.

- They discussed “windows” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “windows.”

---

word meaning (noun)

The accepted meaning of a word.

- They discussed “word meaning” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “word meaning” because he had never seen it before.

---

alternative (noun)

One of a number of things from which only one can be chosen.

- There no other alternative.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “alternative.”

---

american sign language (noun)

The sign language used in the United States.

- They discussed “american sign language” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “american sign language” means with a simple example.

---

anywhere (adverb)

At or in or to any place; ; (‘anyplace’ is used informally for ‘anywhere’).

- You can find this food anywhere.

- Using "anywhere" can make your explanation more exact.

---

articles (noun)

A separate section of a legal document (as a statute or contract or will).

- The article explained what "articles" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "articles" during the group presentation.

---

awards (noun)

A tangible symbol signifying approval or distinction.

- In class, the teacher used "awards" to mean a tangible symbol signifying approval or distinction.
- He looked up "awards" because he had never seen it before.

---

basic english (noun)

A simplified form of English proposed for use as an auxiliary language for international communication; devised by C. K. Ogden and I. A. Richards.

- Understanding "basic english" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "basic english" during the group presentation.

---

bear on (verb)

Keep or maintain in unaltered condition; cause to remain or last.

- In everyday English, people use "bear on" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "bear on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

car window (noun)

A window in a car.

- He looked up "car window" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "car window" during the group presentation.

---

communities (noun)

A group of nations having common interests.

- The article explained what "communities" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "communities."

---

cover letter (noun)

A letter sent along with other documents to provide additional information.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cover letter."
- Understanding "cover letter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

direct evidence (noun)

Evidence (usually the testimony of a witness) directly related to the fact in dispute.

- Understanding "direct evidence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "direct evidence" during the group presentation.

---

discussion (noun)

An extended communication (often interactive) dealing with some particular topic.

- The book contains an excellent discussion of modal logic.
- We had a good discussion.

---

established church (noun)

The church that is recognized as the official church of a nation.

- They discussed "established church" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "established church."

---

executive department (noun)

A federal department in the executive branch of the government of the United States.

- He looked up "executive department" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "executive department" during the group presentation.

---

five nations (noun)

A league of Iroquois tribes including originally the Mohawk, Oneida, Onondaga, Cayuga and Seneca (the Five Nations); after 1722 they were joined by the Tuscarora (the Six Nations).

- He looked up "five nations" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "five nations" to mean a league of iroquois tribes including originally....

---

flat out (adverb)

In a blunt direct manner.

- He stated his opinion flat-out.
- He ran flat out to catch the bus.

---

forever and a day (adverb)

For a very long or seemingly endless time.

- She took forever to write the paper.
- We had to wait forever and a day.

---

four-letter word (noun)

Any of several short English words (often having 4 letters) generally regarded as obscene or offensive.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "four-letter word."
- Understanding "four-letter word" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

function call (noun)

A call that passes control to a subroutine; after the subroutine is executed control returns to the next instruction in main program.

- In class, the teacher used "function call" to mean a call that passes control to a subroutine; after....
- The article explained what "function call" means with a simple example.

---

home-farm (noun)

A farm that supplies the needs of a large estate of establishment.

- He looked up "home-farm" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "home-farm" to mean a farm that supplies the needs of a large estate of....

---

house fly (noun)

Common fly that frequents human habitations and spreads many diseases.

- They discussed "house fly" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "house fly" because he had never seen it before.

---

house of cards (noun)

An unstable construction with playing cards.

- His proposal was nothing but a house of cards.
- In class, the teacher used "house of cards" to mean an unstable construction with playing cards.

---

industrial (adjective)

Of or relating to or resulting from industry.

- Industrial output.
- The industrial revolution.

---

joint (noun)

The shape or manner in which things come together and a connection is made.

- Understanding "joint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "joint" means with a simple example.

---

kick about (verb)

Be around; be alive or active.

- Does the old man still kick around?
- He did not know how to use "kick about" until he saw an example.

---

kick out (verb)

Force to leave or move out.

- She tried to use "kick out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "kick out" and when to wait.

---

land mass (noun)

A large continuous extent of land.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "land mass."
- He looked up "land mass" because he had never seen it before.

---

law firm (noun)

A firm of lawyers.

- In class, the teacher used "law firm" to mean a firm of lawyers.
- The article explained what "law firm" means with a simple example.

---

letter paper (noun)

Writing paper for use in writing correspondence.

- In class, the teacher used "letter paper" to mean writing paper for use in writing correspondence.
- The article explained what "letter paper" means with a simple example.

---

mail out (verb)

Transmit by mail.

- The company mailed out the catalog to all potential customers.
- In everyday English, people use "mail out" when talking about this idea.

---

master of science (noun)

A master's degree in science.

- The article explained what "master of science" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "master of science" to mean a master's degree in science.

---

middle high german (noun)

High German from 1100 to 1500.

- The article explained what "middle high german" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "middle high german."

---

north african (adjective)

Of or relating to northern Africa.

- The speaker chose "north african" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "north african" when it is of or relating to northern africa.

---

on a lower floor (adverb)

On a floor below.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "on a lower floor" naturally.
- Place "on a lower floor" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

one-quarter (noun)

One of four equal parts.

- They discussed "one-quarter" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "one-quarter."

---

plus sign (noun)

A sign indicating the operation of addition.

- They discussed "plus sign" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "plus sign" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

policies (noun)

A plan of action adopted by an individual or social group.

- A politician keeps changing his policies.
- He looked up "policies" because he had never seen it before.

promise (verb)

Make a prediction about; tell in advance.

- I promise you my best effort.
- The results promised fame and glory.

proposed (verb)

Make a proposal, declare a plan for something.

- The senator proposed to abolish the sales tax.
- He proposed a new plan for dealing with terrorism.

pull along (verb)

Pull along heavily, like a heavy load against a resistance.

- She pulled along a large trunk.
- The coach explained when to use "pull along" and when to wait.

remove (verb)

Kill intentionally and with premeditation.

- Remove a threat.
- Remove a wrapper.

service firm (noun)

A business that makes its facilities available to others for a fee; achieves economy of scale.

- The article explained what "service firm" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "service firm" during the group presentation.

signs (noun)

A character indicating a relation between quantities.

- He showed signs of strain.
- They welcomed the signs of spring.

stay fresh (verb)

Fail to spoil or rot.

- In everyday English, people use "stay fresh" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "stay fresh" in a sentence that fits this situation?

tell apart (verb)

Detect with the senses.

- He did not know how to use "tell apart" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "tell apart" and when to wait.

title bar (noun)

(computer science) a horizontal label at the top of a window, bearing the name of the currently active document.

- They discussed "title bar" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "title bar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

trial period (noun)

A period of time during which someone or something is tested.

- The article explained what "trial period" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "trial period" during the group presentation.

type species (noun)

(biology) the species that best exemplifies the essential characteristics of the genus to which it belongs.

- In class, the teacher used "type species" to mean (biology) the species that best exemplifies the....
- Understanding "type species" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

victory day (noun)

The day of a victory.

- In class, the teacher used "victory day" to mean the day of a victory.
- The article explained what "victory day" means with a simple example.

---

waste matter (noun)

Any materials unused and rejected as worthless or unwanted.

- They collect the waste once a week.
- Much of the waste material is carried off in the sewers.

---

words per minute (noun)

The rate at which words are produced (as in speaking or typing).

- In class, the teacher used "words per minute" to mean the rate at which words are produced (as in....
- They discussed "words per minute" during the group presentation.

---

army unit (noun)

A military unit that is part of an army.

- The article explained what "army unit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "army unit" to mean a military unit that is part of an army.

---

arts (noun)

Studies intended to provide general knowledge and intellectual skills (rather than occupational or professional skills).

- The college of arts and sciences.
- He looked up "arts" because he had never seen it before.

---

bank of japan (noun)

The central bank of Japan.

- They discussed "bank of japan" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bank of japan" because he had never seen it before.

---

bear out (verb)

Support with evidence or authority or make more certain or confirm.

- The stories and claims were born out by the evidence.
- Learners should practice how to use "bear out" in real sentences.

---

bear up (verb)

Endure cheerfully.

- He did not know how to use "bear up" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "bear up" and when to wait.

---

best evidence rule (noun)

A rule of evidence requiring that to prove the content of a writing or recording or photograph the original is required.

- They discussed "best evidence rule" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "best evidence rule."

---

border on (verb)

Come near or verge on, resemble, come nearer in quality, or character.

- This borders on discrimination!
- In everyday English, people use "border on" when talking about this idea.

---

calling card (noun)

A distinguishing characteristic or behavior.

- Bombs are a terrorist's calling cards.
- Understanding "calling card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

christ within (noun)

A divine presence believed by Quakers to enlighten and guide the soul.

- In class, the teacher used "christ within" to mean a divine presence believed by quakers to enlighten....

- The article explained what "christ within" means with a simple example.

---

christian church (noun)

A Protestant church that accepts the Bible as the only source of true Christian faith and practices baptism by immersion.

- Understanding "christian church" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "christian church" because he had never seen it before.

---

crime rate (noun)

The ratio of crimes in an area to the population of that area; expressed per 1000 population per year.

- He looked up "crime rate" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crime rate."

---

cross section (noun)

A sample meant to be representative of a whole population.

- They discussed "cross section" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cross section" to mean a sample meant to be representative of a whole....

---

crowd (noun)

A large number of things or people considered together.

- A crowd of insects assembled around the flowers.
- He still hangs out with the same crowd.

---

draw close (verb)

Move or arrange oneself in a comfortable and cozy position.

- They are drawing near.
- He drew the crying child close.

---

economic and social council (noun)

A permanent council of the United Nations; responsible for economic and social conditions.

- He looked up "economic and social council" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "economic and social council" to mean a permanent council of the united nations;....

---

ensure (verb)

Be careful or certain to do something; make certain of something.

- This nest egg will ensure a nice retirement for us.
- The coach explained when to use "ensure" and when to wait.

---

environmental (adjective)

Of or relating to the external conditions or surroundings.

- Environmental factors.
- Environmental pollution.

---

fighting french (noun)

A French movement during World War II that was organized in London by Charles de Gaulle to fight for the liberation of France from German control and for the restoration of the republic.

- He looked up "fighting french" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fighting french."

---

file away (verb)

Place in a container for keeping records.

- File these bills, please.
- Learners should practice how to use "file away" in real sentences.

---

first quarter (noun)

The first fourth of the Moon's period of revolution around the Earth.

- In class, the teacher used "first quarter" to mean the first fourth of the moon's period of revolution....
- The article explained what "first quarter" means with a simple example.

---

floor cover (noun)

A covering for a floor.

- They discussed "floor cover" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "floor cover" because he had never seen it before.

general services administration (noun)

A central management agency that sets Federal policy for Federal procurement and real property management and information resources management.

- Understanding "general services administration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general services administration."

good afternoon (noun)

A conventional expression of greeting or farewell.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good afternoon."
- They discussed "good afternoon" during the group presentation.

home guard (noun)

A volunteer unit formed to defend the homeland while the regular army is fighting elsewhere.

- He looked up "home guard" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home guard."

home port (noun)

The port from which a ship originates of where it is registered.

- He looked up "home port" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home port."

house martin (noun)

Common small European martin that builds nests under the eaves of houses.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house martin."
- Understanding "house martin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

intelligence (noun)

Information about recent and important events.

- We sent out planes to gather intelligence on their radar coverage.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intelligence."

kick back (verb)

Spring back, as from a forceful thrust.

- The gun kicked back into my shoulder.
- He did not know how to use "kick back" until he saw an example.

knowledge base (noun)

The content of a particular field of knowledge.

- They discussed "knowledge base" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "knowledge base" to mean the content of a particular field of knowledge.

legal opinion (noun)

The legal document stating the reasons for a judicial decision.

- Opinions are usually written by a single judge.
- They discussed "legal opinion" during the group presentation.

line-shooting (noun)

An instance of boastful talk.

- In class, the teacher used "line-shooting" to mean an instance of boastful talk.
- The article explained what "line-shooting" means with a simple example.

magic number (noun)

The atomic number of an extra stable strongly bound atomic nucleus: 2, 8, 20, 28, 50, 82 or 126.

- In class, the teacher used “magic number” to mean the atomic number of an extra stable strongly bound....
- The article explained what “magic number” means with a simple example.

---

major scale (noun)

A diatonic scale with notes separated by whole tones except for the 3rd and 4th and 7th and 8th.

- The article explained what “major scale” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “major scale” to mean a diatonic scale with notes separated by whole....

---

moon (noun)

The natural satellite of the Earth.

- The average distance to the Moon is 384,400 kilometers.
- Men first stepped on the moon in 1969.

---

moon on (verb)

Be idle in a listless or dreamy way.

- The coach explained when to use “moon on” and when to wait.
- She tried to use “moon on” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

natural spring (noun)

A natural flow of ground water.

- He looked up “natural spring” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “natural spring.”

---

popular opinion (noun)

A belief or sentiment shared by most people; the voice of the people.

- He asked for a poll of public opinion.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “popular opinion.”

---

quarter day (noun)

A Christian holy day; one of four specified days when certain payments are due.

- In class, the teacher used “quarter day” to mean a christian holy day; one of four specified days....
- He looked up “quarter day” because he had never seen it before.

---

regular army (noun)

A permanent organization of the military land forces of a nation or state.

- The article explained what “regular army” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “regular army.”

---

same-sex marriage (noun)

Two people of the same sex who live together as a family.

- The legal status of same-sex marriages has been hotly debated.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “same-sex marriage.”

---

see eye to eye (verb)

Be in agreement.

- We never saw eye to eye on this question.
- She tried to use “see eye to eye” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

take orders (verb)

Be ordained; enter the Christian ministry.

- She took orders last month.
- I don’t take orders from you!

---

television news (noun)

A television broadcast of news.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “television news.”
- The article explained what “television news” means with a simple example.

third estate (noun)

The common people.

- They discussed "third estate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "third estate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

v-j day (noun)

The date of Allied victory over Japan, World War II.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "v-j day."
- They discussed "v-j day" during the group presentation.

variety show (noun)

A show consisting of a series of short unrelated performances.

- They discussed "variety show" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "variety show" to mean a show consisting of a series of short unrelated....

word square (noun)

A puzzle where you fill a square grid with words reading the same down as across.

- They discussed "word square" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "word square" to mean a puzzle where you fill a square grid with words....

word structure (noun)

The admissible arrangement of sounds in words.

- The article explained what "word structure" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "word structure" during the group presentation.

active voice (noun)

The voice used to indicate that the grammatical subject of the verb is performing the action or causing the happening denoted by the verb.

- 'The boy threw the ball' uses the active voice.
- Understanding "active voice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

asian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Asia or the peoples of Asia or their languages or culture.

- Asian countries.
- Would you call this situation "asian"? Explain why.

blue peter (noun)

A blue flag with a white square in the center indicates that the vessel is ready to sail.

- He looked up "blue peter" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue peter."

by word of mouth (adverb)

By spoken rather than written means.

- These stories were transmitted by word of mouth.
- The narrator describes the scene "by word of mouth" in the final chapter.

chair (noun)

A seat for one person, with a support for the back.

- He put his coat over the back of the chair and sat down.
- He was awarded an endowed chair in economics.

domestic (adjective)

Of concern to or concerning the internal affairs of a nation.

- Domestic issues such as tax rate and highway construction.
- Domestic servant.

double quick (adverb)

At a faster speed.

- Now let's play the piece again double-quick.
- She spoke "double quick," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

election commission (noun)

A commission delegated to supervise an election.

- He looked up "election commission" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "election commission" to mean a commission delegated to supervise an election.

---

financial organization (noun)

An institution (public or private) that collects funds (from the public or other institutions) and invests them in financial assets.

- He looked up "financial organization" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "financial organization" during the group presentation.

---

fish oil (noun)

A fatty oil obtained from the livers of various fish.

- Understanding "fish oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fish oil" during the group presentation.

---

garden party (noun)

A party of people assembled for social interaction out of doors.

- They discussed "garden party" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "garden party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grew (verb)

Come into existence; take on form or shape.

- The idea for the book grew out of a short story.
- She grew angry.

---

heart and soul (noun)

The choicest or most essential or most vital part of some idea or experience.

- The heart and soul of the Republican Party.
- He looked up "heart and soul" because he had never seen it before.

---

homes (noun)

An institution where people are cared for.

- They raise money to provide homes for the homeless.
- In class, the teacher used "homes" to mean an institution where people are cared for.

---

honestly (adverb)

(used as intensives reflecting the speaker's attitude) it is sincerely the case that.

- Honestly, I don't believe it.
- In he can't get it honestly, he is willing to steal it.

---

honor (noun)

A tangible symbol signifying approval or distinction.

- A man of honor.
- He looked up "honor" because he had never seen it before.

---

human language technology (noun)

The branch of information science that deals with natural language information.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "human language technology."
- Understanding "human language technology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kick down (verb)

Open violently.

- Kick in the doors.

- She tried to use “kick down” carefully so everyone would understand.

kick off (verb)

Commence officially.

- In everyday English, people use “kick off” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “kick off” until he saw an example.

last quarter (noun)

The last fourth of the Moon’s period of revolution around the Earth.

- He looked up “last quarter” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “last quarter.”

lead glass (noun)

Glass containing lead oxide; has a high refractive index.

- He looked up “lead glass” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “lead glass” during the group presentation.

let fly (verb)

Fire as from a gun.

- The soldiers let drive their bullets.
- The coach explained when to use “let fly” and when to wait.

mental process (noun)

(psychology) the performance of some composite cognitive activity; an operation that affects mental contents.

- The process of thinking.
- In class, the teacher used “mental process” to mean (psychology) the performance of some composite....

mid-march (noun)

The middle part of March.

- In class, the teacher used “mid-march” to mean the middle part of march.
- He looked up “mid-march” because he had never seen it before.

new moon (noun)

The time at which the Moon appears as a narrow waxing crescent.

- They discussed “new moon” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “new moon” to mean the time at which the moon appears as a narrow....

old guard (noun)

A faction that is unwilling to accept new ideas.

- In class, the teacher used “old guard” to mean a faction that is unwilling to accept new ideas.
- He looked up “old guard” because he had never seen it before.

originally (adverb)

With reference to the origin or beginning.

- She spoke “originally,” and the audience immediately understood her point.
- The narrator describes the scene “originally” in the final chapter.

pair off (verb)

Form a pair or pairs.

- The two old friends paired off.
- Can you use “pair off” in a sentence that fits this situation?

press agency (noun)

An agency to collects news reports for newspapers and distributes it electronically.

- Understanding “press agency” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “press agency” to mean an agency to collects news reports for newspapers....

s-shape (noun)

A double curve resembling the letter S.

- They discussed "s-shape" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "s-shape."

---

sea floor (noun)

The bottom of a sea or ocean.

- The article explained what "sea floor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sea floor" to mean the bottom of a sea or ocean.

---

stone age (noun)

(archeology) the earliest known period of human culture, characterized by the use of stone implements.

- He looked up "stone age" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "stone age" during the group presentation.

---

suddenly (adverb)

Quickly and without warning.

- He stopped suddenly.
- Suddenly she felt a sharp pain in her side.

---

take shape (verb)

Develop into a distinctive entity.

- Our plans began to take shape.
- The coach explained when to use "take shape" and when to wait.

---

television room (noun)

A room set aside for viewing television.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "television room."
- The article explained what "television room" means with a simple example.

---

time limit (noun)

A time period within which something must be done or completed.

- He looked up "time limit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "time limit" during the group presentation.

---

type metal (noun)

An alloy of tin and lead and antimony used to make printing type.

- They discussed "type metal" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "type metal" to mean an alloy of tin and lead and antimony used to make....

---

united nations day (noun)

A day for celebrating the founding of the United Nations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united nations day."
- He looked up "united nations day" because he had never seen it before.

---

wall unit (noun)

A piece of furniture having several units that stands against one wall of a room.

- In class, the teacher used "wall unit" to mean a piece of furniture having several units that....
- He looked up "wall unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

west african (noun)

A group of languages spoken in the extreme western part of West Africa.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "west african."
- The article explained what "west african" means with a simple example.

---

white magic (noun)

Magic used only for good purposes.

- He looked up "white magic" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white magic."

---

word of mouth (noun)

Gossip spread by spoken communication.

- The news of their affair was spread by word of mouth.
- In class, the teacher used "word of mouth" to mean gossip spread by spoken communication.

---

american standard version (noun)

A revised version of the King James Version.

- They discussed "american standard version" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american standard version."

---

bear down (verb)

To make a rush at or sudden attack upon, as in battle.

- The snow bore down on the roof.
- The pitcher bore down.

---

bear down on (verb)

Exert a force with a heavy weight.

- The snow bore down on the roof.
- Can you use "bear down on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

black magic (noun)

The belief in magical spells that harness occult forces or evil spirits to produce unnatural effects in the world.

- He looked up "black magic" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "black magic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital letter (noun)

One of the large alphabetic characters used as the first letter in writing or printing proper names and sometimes for emphasis.

- Printers once kept the type for capitals and for small letters in separate cases; capitals were kept in the upper half of the type case and so became known as upper-case letters.
- In class, the teacher used "capital letter" to mean one of the large alphabetic characters used as the....

---

charge unit (noun)

A measure of the quantity of electricity (determined by the amount of an electric current and the time for which it flows).

- In class, the teacher used "charge unit" to mean a measure of the quantity of electricity....
- They discussed "charge unit" during the group presentation.

---

closed-door (adjective)

Not open to the public.

- A closed-door meeting.
- A "closed-door" approach may work better in this case.

---

communication (noun)

A connection allowing access between persons or places.

- How many lines of communication can there be among four people?
- A secret passageway provided communication between the two rooms.

---

contains (verb)

Hold back, as of a danger or an enemy; check the expansion or influence of.

- The record contains many old songs from the 1930's.
- This can contains water.

---

earth color (noun)

A colored mineral used as a pigment.

- The article explained what "earth color" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earth color."

ending (noun)

The point in time at which something ends.

- The ending of warranty period.
- I don't like words that have -ism as an ending.

european economic community (noun)

An international organization of European countries formed after World War II to reduce trade barriers and increase cooperation among its members.

- The article explained what "european economic community" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "european economic community" to mean an international organization of european countries....

every quarter (adverb)

In three month intervals.

- Interest is compounded quarterly.
- Using "every quarter" can make your explanation more exact.

express (verb)

Indicate through a symbol, formula, etc.

- Can you express this distance in kilometers?
- She expressed her anger.

federal agency (noun)

An administrative unit of government.

- The Central Intelligence Agency.
- In class, the teacher used "federal agency" to mean an administrative unit of government.

fly open (verb)

Come open suddenly.

- The doors flew open in the strong gust.
- He did not know how to use "fly open" until he saw an example.

get the jump (verb)

Be there first.

- They had gotten the jump on their competitors.
- In everyday English, people use "get the jump" when talking about this idea.

great bear (noun)

A constellation outside the zodiac that rotates around the North Star.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great bear."
- He looked up "great bear" because he had never seen it before.

great hundred (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and twelve.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great hundred."
- They discussed "great hundred" during the group presentation.

in-joke (noun)

A joke that is appreciated only by members of some particular group of people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "in-joke."
- He looked up "in-joke" because he had never seen it before.

jump out (verb)

Be highly noticeable.

- The coach explained when to use "jump out" and when to wait.
- Can you use "jump out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

keep guard (verb)

Watch over so as to protect.

- The jewels over which they kept guard were stolen.
- Learners should practice how to use “keep guard” in real sentences.

---

kick around (verb)

Be around; be alive or active.

- Does the old man still kick around?
- They won’t have me to kick around any more!

---

long hundred (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and twelve.

- He looked up “long hundred” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “long hundred.”

---

marriage bed (noun)

The bed shared by a newly wed couple.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “marriage bed.”
- Understanding “marriage bed” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mental energy (noun)

An actuating force or factor.

- The article explained what “mental energy” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “mental energy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

methods (noun)

A way of doing something, especially a systematic way; implies an orderly logical arrangement (usually in steps).

- In class, the teacher used “methods” to mean a way of doing something, especially a systematic....
- The article explained what “methods” means with a simple example.

---

middle distance (noun)

The part of a scene between the foreground and the background.

- He looked up “middle distance” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “middle distance.”

---

nuclear family (noun)

A family consisting of parents and their children and grandparents of a marital partner.

- He looked up “nuclear family” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “nuclear family.”

---

photo credit (noun)

A note acknowledging the source of a published photograph.

- The article explained what “photo credit” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “photo credit” to mean a note acknowledging the source of a published....

---

potential unit (noun)

A measure of the potential energy of a unit charge at a given point in a circuit relative to a reference point (ground).

- He looked up “potential unit” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “potential unit” during the group presentation.

---

pressure unit (noun)

A unit measuring force per unit area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pressure unit.”
- They discussed “pressure unit” during the group presentation.

---

professional organization (noun)

An organization of and for professional people.

- In class, the teacher used “professional organization” to mean an organization of and for professional people.

- The article explained what “professional organization” means with a simple example.

---

reference point (noun)

An indicator that orients you generally.

- It is used as a reference for comparing the heating and the electrical energy involved.
- They discussed “reference point” during the group presentation.

---

reference system (noun)

A system that uses coordinates to establish position.

- Understanding “reference system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “reference system” during the group presentation.

---

return on investment (noun)

(corporate finance) the amount, expressed as a percentage, that is earned on a company’s total capital calculated by dividing the total capital into earnings before interest, taxes, or dividends are paid.

- In class, the teacher used “return on investment” to mean (corporate finance) the amount, expressed as a....
- They discussed “return on investment” during the group presentation.

---

road metal (noun)

Broken rock used for repairing or making roads.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “road metal.”
- He looked up “road metal” because he had never seen it before.

---

royal society (noun)

An honorary English society (formalized in 1660 and given a royal charter by Charles II in 1662) through which the British government has supported science.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “royal society.”
- Understanding “royal society” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shopping (noun)

The commodities purchased from stores; women carrying home shopping didn’t give me a second glance".

- She loaded her shopping into the car.
- Went shopping for a reliable plumber.

---

six nations (noun)

A league of Iroquois tribes including originally the Mohawk, Oneida, Onondaga, Cayuga and Seneca (the Five Nations); after 1722 they were joined by the Tuscarora (the Six Nations).

- Understanding “six nations” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “six nations.”

---

sky-high (adverb)

(with verb ‘to blow’) destroyed completely; blown apart or to pieces.

- They blew the bridge sky-high.
- The committee blew the thesis sky-high.

---

social development commission (noun)

The commission of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations that is concerned with social development.

- They discussed “social development commission” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “social development commission” means with a simple example.

---

stick together (verb)

Be loyal to one another, especially in times of trouble.

- The two families stuck together throughout the war.
- Learners should practice how to use “stick together” in real sentences.

---

suggested (verb)

Make a proposal, declare a plan for something.

- He did not know how to use “suggested” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “suggested” and when to wait.

systems analysis (noun)

Analysis of all aspects of a project along with ways to collect information about the operation of its parts.

- In class, the teacher used "systems analysis" to mean analysis of all aspects of a project along with....
- He looked up "systems analysis" because he had never seen it before.

tea family (noun)

A family of trees and shrubs of the order Parietales.

- He looked up "tea family" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tea family."

wake-up call (noun)

A warning to take action concerning something that was overlooked or neglected.

- The bombing was a wake-up call to strengthen domestic security.
- She left a wake-up call for 7 a.m.

weight unit (noun)

A unit used to measure weight.

- He placed two weights in the scale pan.
- In class, the teacher used "weight unit" to mean a unit used to measure weight.

world trade organization (noun)

An international organization based in Geneva that monitors and enforces rules governing global trade.

- The article explained what "world trade organization" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "world trade organization" during the group presentation.

arms industry (noun)

An industry that manufacturers weapons of war.

- The article explained what "arms industry" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "arms industry" during the group presentation.

blue murder (noun)

An extravagantly loud outcry.

- She screamed blue murder.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue murder."

christmas card (noun)

A card expressing a Christmas greeting.

- In class, the teacher used "christmas card" to mean a card expressing a christmas greeting.
- The article explained what "christmas card" means with a simple example.

clean bill of health (noun)

An assurance that someone is healthy or something is in good condition.

- The doctor gave him a clean bill of health.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clean bill of health."

core group (noun)

A small group of indispensable persons or things.

- Five periodicals make up the core of their publishing program.
- In class, the teacher used "core group" to mean a small group of indispensable persons or things.

cross product (noun)

A vector that is the product of two other vectors.

- They discussed "cross product" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cross product" means with a simple example.

difference of opinion (noun)

A disagreement or argument about something important.

- There were irreconcilable differences.
- In class, the teacher used "difference of opinion" to mean a disagreement or argument about something important.

---

economic theory (noun)

(economics) a theory of commercial activities (such as the production and consumption of goods).

- Understanding "economic theory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "economic theory" because he had never seen it before.

---

electric company (noun)

A public utility that provides electricity.

- Understanding "electric company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "electric company" because he had never seen it before.

---

era (noun)

A period marked by distinctive character or reckoned from a fixed point or event.

- In class, the teacher used "era" to mean a period marked by distinctive character or....
- He looked up "era" because he had never seen it before.

---

factor (noun)

An abstract part of something.

- A key factor in her success.
- A number of factors determined the outcome.

---

factor in (verb)

Consider as relevant when making a decision.

- You must factor in the recent developments.
- A quantum computer can factor the number 15.

---

flow from (verb)

Be the result of.

- She tried to use "flow from" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "flow from" when talking about this idea.

---

for keeps (adverb)

For the winner to keep all.

- They played for keeps.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "for keeps" naturally.

---

fourth of july (noun)

A legal holiday in the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fourth of july."
- He looked up "fourth of july" because he had never seen it before.

---

generation x (noun)

The generation following the baby boom (especially Americans and Canadians born in the 1960s and 1970s).

- Understanding "generation x" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "generation x" to mean the generation following the baby boom (especially....

---

grant (noun)

A contract granting the right to operate a subsidiary business.

- In class, the teacher used "grant" to mean a contract granting the right to operate a....
- Understanding "grant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ground glass (noun)

Particulate glass made by grinding and used as an abrasive.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground glass."

- He looked up “ground glass” because he had never seen it before.

---

hard core (noun)

The most dedicated and intensely loyal nucleus of a group or movement.

- Understanding “hard core” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “hard core” during the group presentation.

---

international wanted notice (noun)

An Interpol notice describing a wanted person and asking that he or she be arrested with a view to extradition; a wanted notice that is issued by Interpol at the request of an Interpol member country and distributed to all member countries.

- An Interpol Red Notice is the closest instrument to an international arrest warrant in use today.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “international wanted notice.”

---

join battle (verb)

Engage in a conflict.

- The battle over health care reform was joined.
- She tried to use “join battle” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

like blue murder (adverb)

At top speed.

- He was off down the road like blue murder.
- Place “like blue murder” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

little bear (noun)

A constellation outside the zodiac that rotates around the North Star.

- He looked up “little bear” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “little bear” during the group presentation.

---

marriage offer (noun)

An offer of marriage.

- He looked up “marriage offer” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “marriage offer” to mean an offer of marriage.

---

measures (noun)

A statute in draft before it becomes law.

- The situation called for strong measures.
- They discussed “measures” during the group presentation.

---

mid-april (noun)

The middle part of April.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mid-april.”
- He looked up “mid-april” because he had never seen it before.

---

mid-june (noun)

The middle part of June.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mid-june.”
- He looked up “mid-june” because he had never seen it before.

---

mistake (noun)

An understanding of something that is not correct.

- He wasn’t going to admit his mistake.
- Make no mistake about his intentions.

---

muslim (adjective)

Of or relating to or supporting Islamism.

- The speaker chose “muslim” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation “muslim”? Explain why.

---

new stone age (noun)

Latest part of the Stone Age beginning about 10,000 BC in the Middle East (but later elsewhere).

- In class, the teacher used "new stone age" to mean latest part of the stone age beginning about 10,000....
- They discussed "new stone age" during the group presentation.

---

platform (noun)

A document stating the aims and principles of a political party.

- Their candidate simply ignored the party platform.
- The speaker mounted the platform.

---

point of reference (noun)

An indicator that orients you generally.

- It is used as a reference for comparing the heating and the electrical energy involved.
- He looked up "point of reference" because he had never seen it before.

---

pool (noun)

An organization of people or resources that can be shared.

- A car pool.
- A secretarial pool.

---

proper name (noun)

A noun that denotes a particular thing; usually capitalized.

- The article explained what "proper name" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "proper name" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pulled (verb)

Perform an act, usually with a negative connotation.

- The ad pulled in many potential customers.
- The mugger pulled a knife on his victim.

---

regarding (verb)

Connect closely and often incriminatingly.

- He did not know how to use "regarding" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "regarding" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

relations (noun)

Mutual dealings or connections or communications among persons or groups.

- He has distant relations back in New Jersey.
- International relations.

---

requires (verb)

Require as useful, just, or proper.

- Success usually requires hard work.
- The coach explained when to use "requires" and when to wait.

---

scientific (adjective)

Of or relating to the practice of science.

- Scientific journals.
- A scientific approach.

---

shot metal (noun)

An alloy that is 98% lead and 2% arsenic; used in making small shot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shot metal."
- They discussed "shot metal" during the group presentation.

---

sound structure (noun)

The admissible arrangement of sounds in words.

- He looked up "sound structure" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sound structure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

speech production (noun)

The utterance of intelligible speech.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "speech production."
- They discussed "speech production" during the group presentation.

---

teach-in (noun)

An extended session (as on a college campus) for lectures and discussion on an important and usually controversial issue.

- The article explained what "teach-in" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teach-in."

---

television program (noun)

A program broadcast by television.

- He looked up "television program" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "television program" to mean a program broadcast by television.

---

touch base (verb)

Establish communication with someone.

- Learners should practice how to use "touch base" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "touch base" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

written agreement (noun)

A legal document summarizing the agreement between parties.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "written agreement."
- He looked up "written agreement" because he had never seen it before.

---

abuse (noun)

A rude expression intended to offend or hurt.

- When a student made a stupid mistake he spared them no abuse.
- The child showed signs of physical abuse.

---

center spread (noun)

The spread at the center of a magazine.

- He looked up "center spread" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "center spread" to mean the spread at the center of a magazine.

---

chair of state (noun)

A ceremonial chair for an exalted or powerful person.

- The article explained what "chair of state" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chair of state" to mean a ceremonial chair for an exalted or powerful person.

---

commercial message (noun)

A commercially sponsored ad on radio or television.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commercial message."
- He looked up "commercial message" because he had never seen it before.

---

criminal court (noun)

A court having jurisdiction over criminal cases.

- Understanding "criminal court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "criminal court."

---

death-roll (noun)

A list of persons killed in a war or other disaster.

- Understanding "death-roll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "death-roll" because he had never seen it before.

democratic party (noun)

The older of two major political parties in the United States.

- They discussed "democratic party" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "democratic party" to mean the older of two major political parties in the....

developing (noun)

Processing a photosensitive material in order to make an image visible.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "developing."
- They discussed "developing" during the group presentation.

east african (adjective)

Of or relating to or located in East Africa.

- The speaker chose "east african" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "east african" approach may work better in this case.

everywhere (adverb)

To or in any or all places; ; ; ; ; ('everyplace' is used informally for 'everywhere').

- You find fast food stores everywhere.
- People everywhere are becoming aware of the problem.

executive council (noun)

A council that shares the supreme executive power.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "executive council."
- They discussed "executive council" during the group presentation.

factor out (verb)

Consider as relevant when making a decision.

- You must factor in the recent developments.
- A quantum computer can factor the number 15.

foreign mission (noun)

A permanent diplomatic mission headed by a minister.

- In class, the teacher used "foreign mission" to mean a permanent diplomatic mission headed by a minister.
- They discussed "foreign mission" during the group presentation.

fox (verb)

Be confusing or perplexing to; cause to be unable to think clearly.

- In everyday English, people use "fox" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "fox" carefully so everyone would understand.

function word (noun)

A word that is uninflected and serves a grammatical function but has little identifiable meaning.

- Understanding "function word" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "function word."

heads-up (noun)

A warning message.

- He sent a heads-up to the District Attorney.
- They discussed "heads-up" during the group presentation.

interests (noun)

A sense of concern with and curiosity about someone or something.

- They have interests all over the world.
- The iron interests stepped up production.

italian (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of Italy or its people or culture or language.

- Italian cooking.
- It is useful to describe something as "italian" when it is of or pertaining to or characteristic of italy or....

least common multiple (noun)

The smallest multiple that is exactly divisible by every member of a set of numbers.

- The least common multiple of 12 and 18 is 36.
- Understanding "least common multiple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

letters (noun)

The literary culture.

- This book shows American letters at its best.
- He is a man of letters.

lower-case letter (noun)

The characters that were once kept in bottom half of a compositor's type case.

- In class, the teacher used "lower-case letter" to mean the characters that were once kept in bottom half....
- They discussed "lower-case letter" during the group presentation.

mid-july (noun)

The middle part of July.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mid-july."
- Understanding "mid-july" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

morning dress (noun)

A woman's informal dress for housework.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morning dress."
- They discussed "morning dress" during the group presentation.

national guard (noun)

United States military reserves recruited by the states and equipped by the federal government; subject to call by either.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "national guard."
- The article explained what "national guard" means with a simple example.

natural glass (noun)

Magma of any composition that cooled very rapidly.

- The article explained what "natural glass" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "natural glass" to mean magma of any composition that cooled very rapidly.

news magazine (noun)

A magazine devoted to reports of current events; usually published weekly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "news magazine."
- Understanding "news magazine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

operating room (noun)

A room in a hospital equipped for the performance of surgical operations.

- Great care is taken to keep the operating rooms aseptic.
- In class, the teacher used "operating room" to mean a room in a hospital equipped for the performance....

pack (noun)

A large indefinite number.

- A pack of thieves.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pack."

personal memory (noun)

Memory for episodes in your own life.

- They discussed "personal memory" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "personal memory" means with a simple example.

population commission (noun)

The commission of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations that is concerned with population control.

- In class, the teacher used "population commission" to mean the commission of the economic and social council....
- Understanding "population commission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

port of call (noun)

Any port where a ship stops except its home port.

- Understanding "port of call" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "port of call" during the group presentation.

positive degree (noun)

The primary form of an adjective or adverb; denotes a quality without qualification, comparison, or relation to increase or diminution.

- They discussed "positive degree" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "positive degree" means with a simple example.

prison term (noun)

The period of time a prisoner is imprisoned.

- He served a prison term of 15 months.
- They discussed "prison term" during the group presentation.

private foundation (noun)

A charity that does not receive a major part of its support from the public.

- Understanding "private foundation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "private foundation" because he had never seen it before.

reference book (noun)

A book to which you can refer for authoritative facts.

- He contributed articles to the basic reference work on that topic.
- He looked up "reference book" because he had never seen it before.

relatively (adverb)

In a relative manner; by comparison to something else.

- The situation is relatively calm now.
- Using "relatively" can make your explanation more exact.

scale value (noun)

A value on some scale of measurement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scale value."
- He looked up "scale value" because he had never seen it before.

sea of japan (noun)

An arm of the Pacific between China and Japan.

- Understanding "sea of japan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sea of japan" during the group presentation.

sector (noun)

A social group that forms part of the society or the economy.

- The public sector.
- He was helpless in an important sector of his life.

sense of hearing (noun)

The ability to hear; the auditory faculty.

- His hearing was impaired.
- They discussed "sense of hearing" during the group presentation.

silver star (noun)

A United States military decoration for gallantry in action.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silver star."
- He looked up "silver star" because he had never seen it before.

---

single file (noun)

A line of persons or things ranged one behind the other.

- He looked up "single file" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "single file."

---

small-arm (noun)

A portable gun.

- Understanding "small-arm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "small-arm" during the group presentation.

---

social security administration (noun)

An independent government agency responsible for the Social Security system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social security administration."
- The article explained what "social security administration" means with a simple example.

---

take a joke (verb)

Listen to a joke at one's own expense.

- Can't you take a joke?
- He did not know how to use "take a joke" until he saw an example.

---

water under the bridge (noun)

Past events to be put aside.

- The article explained what "water under the bridge" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water under the bridge."

---

a hundred times (adverb)

By a factor of one hundred.

- They money increased a hundredfold.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "a hundred times" naturally.

---

advance (noun)

A tentative suggestion designed to elicit the reactions of others.

- She rejected his advances.
- The news caused a general advance on the stock market.

---

agent bank (noun)

A bank that acts as an agent for a foreign bank.

- They discussed "agent bank" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "agent bank" because he had never seen it before.

---

asia (noun)

The nations of the Asian continent collectively.

- In class, the teacher used "asia" to mean the nations of the asian continent collectively.
- The article explained what "asia" means with a simple example.

---

bank holding company (noun)

A holding company owning or controlling one or more banks.

- Understanding "bank holding company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bank holding company."

---

be quiet (verb)

Refuse to talk or stop talking; fall silent.

- In everyday English, people use "be quiet" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "be quiet" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

big ben (noun)

Clock in the clock tower of the Houses of Parliament, London.

- They discussed "big ben" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "big ben" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

building supply house (noun)

A store where builders can purchase materials for building houses and related structures.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "building supply house."
- He looked up "building supply house" because he had never seen it before.

---

carry weight (verb)

Have influence to a specified degree.

- Her opinion carries a lot of weight.
- Can you use "carry weight" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

climate change (noun)

A change in the world's climate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "climate change."
- Understanding "climate change" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

domestic help (noun)

A servant who is paid to perform menial tasks around the household.

- They discussed "domestic help" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "domestic help" to mean a servant who is paid to perform menial tasks....

---

four hundred (noun)

The exclusive social set of a city.

- He looked up "four hundred" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "four hundred" to mean the exclusive social set of a city.

---

gain ground (verb)

Obtain advantages, such as points, etc.

- The home team was gaining ground.
- The coach explained when to use "gain ground" and when to wait.

---

group discussion (noun)

A discussion among participants who have an agreed (serious) topic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "group discussion."
- Understanding "group discussion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hard steel (noun)

Steel with more than 0.3% carbon.

- He looked up "hard steel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hard steel."

---

hole up (verb)

Remain secluded or in hiding.

- Can you use "hole up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "hole up" and when to wait.

---

home loan (noun)

A loan secured by equity value in the borrower's home.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home loan."
- He looked up "home loan" because he had never seen it before.

identity (noun)

An operator that leaves unchanged the element on which it operates.

- The identity under numerical multiplication is 1.
- You can lose your identity when you join the army.

impossible action (noun)

An alternative that is not available.

- The article explained what "impossible action" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "impossible action" to mean an alternative that is not available.

in advance (adverb)

Ahead of time; in anticipation.

- When you pay ahead (or in advance) you receive a discount.
- Using "in advance" can make your explanation more exact.

law of mass action (noun)

(chemistry) the law that states the following principle: the rate of a chemical reaction is directly proportional to the molecular concentrations of the reacting substances.

- The article explained what "law of mass action" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "law of mass action."

maintain (verb)

Keep in a certain state, position, or activity; e.g.,.

- Maintain a record.
- He maintained his innocence.

mass card (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) a card sent to a bereaved family that says the sender has arranged for a Mass to be said in memory of the deceased.

- Understanding "mass card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mass card" means with a simple example.

measure (noun)

A statute in draft before it becomes law.

- The situation called for strong measures.
- The measurements were carefully done.

mental picture (noun)

A clear and telling mental image.

- He described his mental picture of his assailant.
- He had no clear picture of himself or his world.

mid-september (noun)

The middle part of September.

- In class, the teacher used "mid-september" to mean the middle part of september.
- The article explained what "mid-september" means with a simple example.

middle low german (noun)

Low German from 1100 to 1500.

- The article explained what "middle low german" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "middle low german" to mean low german from 1100 to 1500.

mm (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to one thousandth of a meter.

- Understanding "mm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mm" means with a simple example.

natural family planning (noun)

Any of several methods of family planning that do not involve sterilization or contraceptive devices or drugs; coitus is avoided during the fertile time of a woman's menstrual cycle.

- He looked up "natural family planning" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "natural family planning."

---

paris green (noun)

A toxic double salt of copper arsenate and copper acetate.

- In class, the teacher used "paris green" to mean a toxic double salt of copper arsenate and copper....
- The article explained what "paris green" means with a simple example.

---

public discussion (noun)

Free and open discussion of (or debate on) some question of public interest.

- Such a proposal deserves thorough public discussion.
- They discussed "public discussion" during the group presentation.

---

pull round (verb)

Continue in existence after (an adversity, etc.).

- In everyday English, people use "pull round" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "pull round" in real sentences.

---

religious writing (noun)

Writing that is venerated for the worship of a deity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "religious writing."
- He looked up "religious writing" because he had never seen it before.

---

revealed (verb)

Make known to the public information that was previously known only to a few people or that was meant to be kept a secret.

- Learners should practice how to use "revealed" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "revealed" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

specifically (adverb)

In distinction from others.

- A program specifically for teenagers.
- He is interested specifically in poisonous snakes.

---

standing army (noun)

A permanent army of paid soldiers.

- The article explained what "standing army" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "standing army" to mean a permanent army of paid soldiers.

---

twenty (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of nineteen and one.

- They discussed "twenty" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "twenty" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of nineteen and one.

---

united states senate (noun)

The upper house of the United States Congress.

- The article explained what "united states senate" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "united states senate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ways and means committee (noun)

A permanent committee of the United States House of Representatives that makes recommendations to the US House on all bills that would raise revenue.

- Understanding "ways and means committee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ways and means committee" because he had never seen it before.

---

wedding picture (noun)

Photographs of bride and groom and their friends taken at their wedding.

- He looked up "wedding picture" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding “wedding picture” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

acts (noun)

A New Testament book describing the development of the early church from Christ’s Ascension to Paul’s sojourn at Rome.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “acts.”
- The article explained what “acts” means with a simple example.

---

approximately (adverb)

(of quantities) imprecise but fairly close to correct.

- Lasted approximately an hour.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “approximately” naturally.

---

argument (noun)

A fact or assertion offered as evidence that something is true.

- It was a strong argument that his hypothesis was true.
- They were involved in a violent argument.

---

arrested (verb)

Hold back, as of a danger or an enemy; check the expansion or influence of.

- Learners should practice how to use “arrested” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “arrested” until he saw an example.

---

association theory (noun)

(psychology) a theory that association is the basic principle of mental activity.

- Understanding “association theory” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “association theory” to mean (psychology) a theory that association is the basic....

---

beyond a doubt (adverb)

In a manner or to a degree that could not be doubted.

- His guilt was established beyond a shadow of a doubt.
- He answered “beyond a doubt,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

beyond doubt (adverb)

In a manner or to a degree that could not be doubted.

- His guilt was established beyond a shadow of a doubt.
- Using “beyond doubt” can make your explanation more exact.

---

block capital (noun)

A plain hand-drawn letter.

- They discussed “block capital” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “block capital.”

---

book of facts (noun)

A book to which you can refer for authoritative facts.

- The article explained what “book of facts” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “book of facts” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chain up (verb)

Tie up with chains.

- Chain up the prisoners.
- She tried to use “chain up” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

claimed (verb)

Assert or affirm strongly; state to be true or existing.

- He claimed that he killed the burglar.
- He claimed his suitcases at the airline counter.

---

coffee table (noun)

Low table where magazines can be placed and coffee or cocktails are served.

- He looked up "coffee table" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coffee table."

---

considering (verb)

Show consideration for; take into account.

- In everyday English, people use "considering" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "considering" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

corporate (adjective)

Of or belonging to a corporation.

- Corporate rates.
- Corporate structure.

---

debate (noun)

A discussion in which reasons are advanced for and against some proposition or proposal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "debate."
- He looked up "debate" because he had never seen it before.

---

emergency room (noun)

A room in a hospital or clinic staffed and equipped to provide emergency care to persons requiring immediate medical treatment.

- Understanding "emergency room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emergency room."

---

european central bank (noun)

The central bank of those members of the European Union who share a common currency.

- The European Central Bank is Europe's equivalent of the Federal Reserve.
- Understanding "european central bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

factors (noun)

An abstract part of something.

- A number of factors determined the outcome.
- What are the 4 factors of 6?

---

falling off (noun)

A noticeable deterioration in performance or quality.

- A drop-off in attendance.
- A falloff in quality.

---

faster (adverb)

More quickly.

- Using "faster" can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene "faster" in the final chapter.

---

figure of speech (noun)

Language used in a figurative or nonliteral sense.

- The article explained what "figure of speech" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "figure of speech" to mean language used in a figurative or nonliteral sense.

---

fill (noun)

A quantity sufficient to satisfy.

- He ate his fill of potatoes.
- She had heard her fill of gossip.

---

fill in (verb)

Supply with information on a specific topic.

- He filled me in on the latest developments.
- Fill out this questionnaire, please!

---

films (noun)

A medium that disseminates moving pictures.

- They discussed "films" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "films."

---

five hundred (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of one hundred and five.

- He looked up "five hundred" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "five hundred" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

floor leader (noun)

The legislator who organizes his party's strategy.

- They discussed "floor leader" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "floor leader."

---

full moon (noun)

The time when the Moon is fully illuminated.

- The moon is at the full.
- Understanding "full moon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

full-of-the-moon (noun)

The time when the Moon is fully illuminated.

- The article explained what "full-of-the-moon" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "full-of-the-moon" during the group presentation.

---

hold firm (verb)

Refuse to abandon one's opinion or belief.

- In everyday English, people use "hold firm" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "hold firm" until he saw an example.

---

honor system (noun)

A system of conduct in which participants are trusted not to take unfair advantage of others.

- The students are on the honor system.
- They discussed "honor system" during the group presentation.

---

ii peter (noun)

The second New Testament book traditionally attributed to Saint Peter the Apostle.

- In class, the teacher used "ii peter" to mean the second new testament book traditionally....
- The article explained what "ii peter" means with a simple example.

---

king james version (noun)

An English translation of the Bible published in 1611.

- The article explained what "king james version" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "king james version" to mean an english translation of the bible published in 1611.

---

library card (noun)

A card certifying the bearer's right to use the library.

- They discussed "library card" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "library card."

---

lights (noun)

A particular perspective or aspect of a situation.

- He stopped the car and turned off the lights.
- The article explained what "lights" means with a simple example.

limit point (noun)

The mathematical value toward which a function goes as the independent variable approaches infinity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "limit point."
- They discussed "limit point" during the group presentation.

majority opinion (noun)

The opinion joined by a majority of the court (generally known simply as 'the opinion').

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "majority opinion."
- He looked up "majority opinion" because he had never seen it before.

majority rule (noun)

The doctrine that the numerical majority of an organized group can make decisions binding on the whole group.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "majority rule."
- Understanding "majority rule" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mass culture (noun)

The culture that is widely disseminated via the mass media.

- He looked up "mass culture" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mass culture."

measure up (verb)

Prove capable or fit; meet requirements.

- Can you use "measure up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "measure up" and when to wait.

memory picture (noun)

A memory image that is similar to a visual perception.

- The article explained what "memory picture" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "memory picture" to mean a memory image that is similar to a visual perception.

mid-august (noun)

The middle part of August.

- He looked up "mid-august" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mid-august" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mid-november (noun)

The middle part of November.

- The article explained what "mid-november" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mid-november" to mean the middle part of november.

mid-october (noun)

The middle part of October.

- They discussed "mid-october" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mid-october."

millions (noun)

A very large indefinite number (usually hyperbole).

- There were millions of flies.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "millions."

national security agency (noun)

The United States cryptologic organization that coordinates and directs highly specialized activities to protect United States information systems and to produce foreign intelligence information.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "national security agency."
- The article explained what "national security agency" means with a simple example.

ordered series (noun)

An ordered reference standard.

- Understanding "ordered series" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ordered series" because he had never seen it before.

---

properly (adverb)

With reason or justice.

- Please do your job properly!
- The narrator describes the scene "properly" in the final chapter.

---

requirements (noun)

Something that is required in advance.

- The requirements of his work affected his health.
- Allow farmers to buy their requirements under favorable conditions.

---

road map (noun)

A detailed plan or explanation to guide you in setting standards or determining a course of action.

- The president said he had a road map for normalizing relations with Vietnam.
- He looked up "road map" because he had never seen it before.

---

round window (noun)

Fenestra leading into the cochlea.

- In class, the teacher used "round window" to mean fenestra leading into the cochlea.
- They discussed "round window" during the group presentation.

---

sat (noun)

The seventh and last day of the week; observed as the Sabbath by Jews and some Christians.

- He looked up "sat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sat."

---

secure (verb)

Fill or close tightly with or as if with a plug.

- He did not know how to use "secure" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "secure" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

soldiers of god (noun)

An Islamic extremist group of Kurds who oppose secular control with bombings and assassinations; believed to have ties with al-Qaeda.

- Understanding "soldiers of god" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "soldiers of god" to mean an islamic extremist group of kurds who oppose....

---

spring-clean (verb)

Thoroughly clean the entire house, often done only once a year.

- She started spring-cleaning on April 1.
- Can you use "spring-clean" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

strike back (verb)

Make a counterattack and return like for like, especially evil for evil.

- The Empire strikes back.
- The Giants struck back and won the opener.

---

strike off (verb)

Remove from a list.

- Cross the name of the dead person off the list.
- In everyday English, people use "strike off" when talking about this idea.

---

target language (noun)

The language into which a text written in another language is to be translated.

- The article explained what "target language" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "target language" during the group presentation.

thousand (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of 10 and 100.

- In class, the teacher used "thousand" to mean the cardinal number that is the product of 10 and 100.
- Understanding "thousand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

to a fault (adverb)

To a degree exceeding normal or proper limits.

- Place "to a fault" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "to a fault" naturally.

troops (noun)

Soldiers collectively.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "troops."
- They discussed "troops" during the group presentation.

truck (noun)

An automotive vehicle suitable for hauling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "truck."
- He looked up "truck" because he had never seen it before.

twenty-one (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty and one.

- In class, the teacher used "twenty-one" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of twenty and one.
- Understanding "twenty-one" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

votes (noun)

The total number of voters who participated.

- There were only 17 votes in favor of the motion.
- The article explained what "votes" means with a simple example.

american labor party (noun)

A former political party in the United States; formed in 1936 in New York when labor and liberals bolted the Democratic Party.

- He looked up "american labor party" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "american labor party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

american-indian language (noun)

Any of the languages spoken by Amerindians.

- Understanding "american-indian language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "american-indian language" during the group presentation.

article of faith (noun)

An unshakable belief in something without need for proof or evidence.

- They discussed "article of faith" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "article of faith" because he had never seen it before.

authorities (noun)

The organization that is the governing authority of a political unit.

- The matter was referred to higher authorities.
- The authorities have issued a curfew.

award-winning (adjective)

Having received awards.

- This award-winning bridge spans a distance of five miles.
- Would you call this situation "award-winning"? Explain why.

bear in mind (verb)

Keep in mind.

- In everyday English, people use "bear in mind" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "bear in mind" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

besides (adverb)

Making an additional point; anyway.

- I don't want to go to a restaurant; besides, we can't afford it.
- Using "besides" can make your explanation more exact.

---

blame (noun)

An accusation that you are responsible for some lapse or misdeed.

- The police laid the blame on the driver.
- He took the blame for it.

---

blue stone (noun)

Hydrated blue crystalline form of copper sulfate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue stone."
- They discussed "blue stone" during the group presentation.

---

camp david (noun)

A retreat to the northwest of Washington that is used by the president of the United States.

- The article explained what "camp david" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "camp david" to mean a retreat to the northwest of washington that is....

---

causes (noun)

A justification for something existing or happening.

- Understanding "causes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "causes" because he had never seen it before.

---

collected (adjective)

Brought together in one place.

- The collected works of Milton.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "collected."

---

command line (noun)

Commands that a user types in order to run an application.

- The article explained what "command line" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "command line" to mean commands that a user types in order to run an....

---

commission on human rights (noun)

The commission of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations that is concerned with human rights.

- Understanding "commission on human rights" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "commission on human rights" to mean the commission of the economic and social council....

---

cross-purpose (noun)

A contrary aim.

- At cross-purposes.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cross-purpose."

---

dance floor (noun)

A bare floor polished for dancing.

- They discussed "dance floor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dance floor" means with a simple example.

---

determine (verb)

Reach, make, or come to a decision about something.

- Experience often determines ability.
- The tree determines the border of the property.

---

dying (noun)

The time when something ends.

- A dying of old hopes.
- They discussed "dying" during the group presentation.

---

eastern church (noun)

The Catholic Church as it existed in the Byzantine Empire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eastern church."
- He looked up "eastern church" because he had never seen it before.

---

engineering science (noun)

The discipline dealing with the art or science of applying scientific knowledge to practical problems.

- He had trouble deciding which branch of engineering to study.
- They discussed "engineering science" during the group presentation.

---

fan letter (noun)

A letter that is a piece of fan mail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fan letter."
- The article explained what "fan letter" means with a simple example.

---

feature article (noun)

A special or prominent article in a newspaper or magazine.

- They ran a feature on retirement planning.
- Understanding "feature article" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

field guide (noun)

A guidebook describing natural objects of some type that might be encountered in the field.

- A field guide to mushrooms.
- In class, the teacher used "field guide" to mean a guidebook describing natural objects of some type....

---

for good measure (adverb)

In addition (as to close a deal).

- The car salesman threw in the radio, for good measure.
- Place "for good measure" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

forgot (verb)

Leave behind unintentionally.

- I forgot my umbrella in the restaurant.
- In everyday English, people use "forgot" when talking about this idea.

---

global organization (noun)

An international alliance involving many different countries.

- Understanding "global organization" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "global organization" means with a simple example.

---

government officials (noun)

People elected or appointed to administer a government.

- They discussed "government officials" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "government officials."

---

guide word (noun)

A word printed at the top of the page of a dictionary or other reference book to indicate the first or last item on that page.

- In class, the teacher used "guide word" to mean a word printed at the top of the page of a....
- He looked up "guide word" because he had never seen it before.

high holiday (noun)

Jewish holy days observed with particular solemnity.

- In class, the teacher used "high holiday" to mean jewish holy days observed with particular solemnity.
- The article explained what "high holiday" means with a simple example.

housing industry (noun)

An industry that builds housing.

- The article explained what "housing industry" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "housing industry" during the group presentation.

ice mass (noun)

A large mass of ice.

- They discussed "ice mass" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ice mass" to mean a large mass of ice.

iii (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of one and one and one.

- The article explained what "iii" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "iii" during the group presentation.

in passing (adverb)

Incidentally; in the course of doing something else.

- He made this remark in passing.
- She spoke "in passing," and the audience immediately understood her point.

intelligence information (noun)

Secret information about an enemy (or potential enemy).

- We sent out planes to gather intelligence on their radar coverage.
- They discussed "intelligence information" during the group presentation.

intelligence service (noun)

A unit responsible for gathering and interpreting information about an enemy.

- In class, the teacher used "intelligence service" to mean a unit responsible for gathering and interpreting....
- He looked up "intelligence service" because he had never seen it before.

launched (verb)

Launch for the first time; launch on a maiden voyage.

- He launched into a long diatribe.
- She tried to use "launched" carefully so everyone would understand.

lay into (verb)

Hit violently, as in an attack.

- She tried to use "lay into" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "lay into" in real sentences.

league of nations (noun)

An international organization formed in 1920 to promote cooperation and peace among nations; although suggested by Woodrow Wilson, the United States never joined and it remained powerless; it was dissolved in 1946 after the United Nations was formed.

- In class, the teacher used "league of nations" to mean an international organization formed in 1920 to....
- They discussed "league of nations" during the group presentation.

light reaction (noun)

The first stage of photosynthesis during which energy from light is used for the production of ATP.

- They discussed "light reaction" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "light reaction" because he had never seen it before.

lights-out (noun)

(military) signal to turn the lights out.

- Understanding "lights-out" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lights-out" to mean (military) signal to turn the lights out.

majority operation (noun)

A threshold operation in which each operand is 0 or 1; output is 1 if and only if more than half the operands have the value 1.

- He looked up "majority operation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "majority operation."

mid-december (noun)

The middle part of December.

- In class, the teacher used "mid-december" to mean the middle part of december.
- He looked up "mid-december" because he had never seen it before.

mid-january (noun)

The middle part of January.

- They discussed "mid-january" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mid-january" because he had never seen it before.

middle eastern (adjective)

Of or relating to or located in the Middle East.

- A "middle eastern" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "middle eastern."

murder charge (noun)

An indictment charging someone with murder.

- The article explained what "murder charge" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "murder charge" during the group presentation.

native american (adjective)

Of or pertaining to American Indians or their culture or languages.

- Native American religions.
- A "native american" approach may work better in this case.

old italian (noun)

The Italian language up to the middle of the 16th century.

- The article explained what "old italian" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "old italian" to mean the italian language up to the middle of the 16th....

one thousand (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of 10 and 100.

- In class, the teacher used "one thousand" to mean the cardinal number that is the product of 10 and 100.
- The article explained what "one thousand" means with a simple example.

picture window (noun)

A large window with a single pane (usually overlooking a view).

- Understanding "picture window" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "picture window" to mean a large window with a single pane (usually....

point of honor (noun)

A concern that seriously reflects on your honor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "point of honor."
- Understanding "point of honor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

power of attorney (noun)

A legal instrument authorizing someone to act as the grantor's agent.

- He looked up “power of attorney” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “power of attorney.”

quiet down (verb)

Become quiet or quieter.

- The coach explained when to use “quiet down” and when to wait.
- She tried to use “quiet down” carefully so everyone would understand.

red guard (noun)

A radical political movement by Chinese youths who espoused Maoist principles.

- Understanding “red guard” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “red guard” means with a simple example.

republican party (noun)

The younger of two major political parties in the United States; GOP is an acronym for grand old party.

- The article explained what “republican party” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “republican party” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rose bed (noun)

A flower bed in which roses are growing.

- He looked up “rose bed” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “rose bed” to mean a flower bed in which roses are growing.

russian agency (noun)

An administrative agency of the Russian government.

- Understanding “russian agency” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “russian agency.”

side chair (noun)

A straight-backed chair without arms.

- In class, the teacher used “side chair” to mean a straight-backed chair without arms.
- He looked up “side chair” because he had never seen it before.

slowly (adverb)

Without speed (‘slow’ is sometimes used informally for ‘slowly’).

- He spoke slowly.
- Place “slowly” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

source materials (noun)

Publications from which information is obtained.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “source materials.”
- Understanding “source materials” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

special session (noun)

A session that is held in addition to the regular sessions.

- They discussed “special session” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “special session” because he had never seen it before.

stand firm (verb)

Refuse to abandon one’s opinion or belief.

- The coach explained when to use “stand firm” and when to wait.
- Can you use “stand firm” in a sentence that fits this situation?

standing committee (noun)

A permanent committee.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “standing committee.”
- He looked up “standing committee” because he had never seen it before.

strike down (verb)

Cause to fall by or as if by delivering a blow.

- Strike down a tree.
- Lightning struck down the hikers.

strike home (verb)

Refer to or be relevant or familiar to.

- I hope this message hits home!
- He did not know how to use "strike home" until he saw an example.

surgery (noun)

A room where a doctor or dentist can be consulted.

- He read the warning in the doctor's surgery.
- He is professor of surgery at the Harvard Medical School.

take to task (verb)

Censure severely or angrily.

- Can you use "take to task" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "take to task" when talking about this idea.

test copy (noun)

(printing) an impression made to check for errors.

- They discussed "test copy" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "test copy" to mean (printing) an impression made to check for errors.

trade edition (noun)

A book intended for general readership.

- In class, the teacher used "trade edition" to mean a book intended for general readership.
- They discussed "trade edition" during the group presentation.

twenty-two (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-one and one.

- In class, the teacher used "twenty-two" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-one....
- The article explained what "twenty-two" means with a simple example.

zero (noun)

A quantity of no importance.

- He looked up "zero" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zero."

air crew (noun)

The crew of an aircraft.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "air crew."
- Understanding "air crew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

as usual (adverb)

In the usual manner.

- As usual, she arrived late.
- He answered "as usual," which changed the tone of the conversation.

base metal (noun)

A metal that is common and not considered precious.

- Lead, iron, copper, tin, and zinc are base metals.
- Understanding "base metal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

begins (verb)

Have a beginning characterized in some specified way.

- The novel begins with a murder.
- My property begins with the three maple trees.

---

birth rate (noun)

The ratio of live births in an area to the population of that area; expressed per 1000 population per year.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "birth rate."
- The article explained what "birth rate" means with a simple example.

---

bob up (verb)

Originate or come into being.

- The coach explained when to use "bob up" and when to wait.
- Can you use "bob up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

central american nation (noun)

Any one of the countries occupying Central America; these countries (except for Belize and Costa Rica) are characterized by low per capita income and unstable governments.

- He looked up "central american nation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central american nation."

---

chair car (noun)

A passenger car for day travel; you pay extra fare for individual chairs.

- The article explained what "chair car" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chair car" to mean a passenger car for day travel; you pay extra fare....

---

chicken out (verb)

Remove oneself from an obligation.

- He bowed out when he heard how much work was involved.
- In everyday English, people use "chicken out" when talking about this idea.

---

color bar (noun)

Barrier preventing blacks from participating in various activities with whites.

- Understanding "color bar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "color bar" because he had never seen it before.

---

cream (noun)

The best people or things in a group.

- The cream of England's young men were killed in the Great War.
- He looked up "cream" because he had never seen it before.

---

credit application (noun)

An application for a line of credit.

- The article explained what "credit application" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "credit application" to mean an application for a line of credit.

---

criminal record (noun)

A list of crimes for which an accused person has been previously convicted.

- He ruled that the criminal record of the defendant could not be disclosed to the court.
- The prostitute had a record a mile long.

---

dry land (noun)

The solid part of the earth's surface.

- The plane turned away from the sea and moved back over land.
- Understanding "dry land" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

estimated (verb)

Judge tentatively or form an estimate of (quantities or time).

- Learners should practice how to use "estimated" in real sentences.

- She tried to use “estimated” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

eu (noun)

An international organization of European countries formed after World War II to reduce trade barriers and increase cooperation among its members.

- He tried to take Britain into the Europen Union.
- Understanding “eu” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

french window (noun)

A French door situated in an exterior wall of a building.

- In class, the teacher used “french window” to mean a french door situated in an exterior wall of a....
- The article explained what “french window” means with a simple example.

---

giant (noun)

An unusually large enterprise.

- Walton built a retail giant.
- The article explained what “giant” means with a simple example.

---

give the glad eye (verb)

Look seductively at someone.

- In everyday English, people use “give the glad eye” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “give the glad eye” until he saw an example.

---

giving birth (noun)

The process of giving birth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “giving birth.”
- He looked up “giving birth” because he had never seen it before.

---

horse sense (noun)

Sound practical judgment.

- Common sense is not so common.
- He hasn’t got the sense God gave little green apples.

---

kitchen help (noun)

Help hired to work in the kitchen.

- They discussed “kitchen help” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “kitchen help.”

---

lay down (verb)

Institute, enact, or establish.

- Learners should practice how to use “lay down” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “lay down” until he saw an example.

---

lay off (verb)

Put an end to a state or an activity.

- She was laid off together with hundreds of other workers when the company downsized.
- Can you use “lay off” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

long chain (noun)

(chemistry) a relatively long chain of atoms in a molecule.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “long chain.”
- They discussed “long chain” during the group presentation.

---

long measure (noun)

A measure of length.

- In class, the teacher used “long measure” to mean a measure of length.
- They discussed “long measure” during the group presentation.

---

long-chain (adjective)

Of molecules having relatively long chains of atoms in a molecule.

- Would you call this situation "long-chain"? Explain why.
- A "long-chain" approach may work better in this case.

---

marriage contract (noun)

A prenuptial agreement or contract.

- In class, the teacher used "marriage contract" to mean a prenuptial agreement or contract.
- The article explained what "marriage contract" means with a simple example.

---

memory loss (noun)

Partial or total loss of memory.

- In class, the teacher used "memory loss" to mean partial or total loss of memory.
- The article explained what "memory loss" means with a simple example.

---

mental note (noun)

Special attention with intent to remember.

- He made a mental note to send her flowers.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mental note."

---

method of choice (noun)

The best method to achieve a desired result.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "method of choice."
- The article explained what "method of choice" means with a simple example.

---

moments (noun)

A particular point in time.

- The article explained what "moments" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "moments" to mean a particular point in time.

---

northern cross (noun)

A cluster of 5 bright stars forming a cross in the constellation Cygnus.

- Understanding "northern cross" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "northern cross."

---

opposite (noun)

A word that expresses a meaning opposed to the meaning of another word, in which case the two words are antonyms of each other.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "opposite."
- He looked up "opposite" because he had never seen it before.

---

people's party (noun)

A former political party in the United States; formed in 1891 to advocate currency expansion and state control of railroads.

- They discussed "people's party" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "people's party" because he had never seen it before.

---

plant material (noun)

Material derived from plants.

- In class, the teacher used "plant material" to mean material derived from plants.
- He looked up "plant material" because he had never seen it before.

---

plant product (noun)

A product made from plant material.

- In class, the teacher used "plant product" to mean a product made from plant material.
- The article explained what "plant product" means with a simple example.

---

public relations (noun)

A promotion intended to create goodwill for a person or institution.

- He looked up “public relations” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “public relations.”

---

religious text (noun)

Writing that is venerated for the worship of a deity.

- In class, the teacher used “religious text” to mean writing that is venerated for the worship of a deity.
- The article explained what “religious text” means with a simple example.

---

selection (noun)

An assortment of things from which a choice can be made.

- The store carried a large selection of shoes.
- In class, the teacher used “selection” to mean an assortment of things from which a choice can be made.

---

sense of balance (noun)

A sensory system located in structures of the inner ear that registers the orientation of the head.

- They discussed “sense of balance” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sense of balance.”

---

soft water (noun)

Water that is not hard (does not contain mineral salts that interfere with the formation of lather with soap).

- The article explained what “soft water” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “soft water” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

take lying down (verb)

Suffer without protest; suffer or endure passively.

- I won’t take this insult lying down.
- She tried to use “take lying down” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

talked (verb)

Divulge confidential information or secrets.

- He did not know how to use “talked” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “talked” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

theme (noun)

The subject matter of a conversation or discussion.

- His letters were always on the theme of love.
- It was the usual ‘boy gets girl’ theme.

---

twenty-three (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-two and one.

- He looked up “twenty-three” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “twenty-three” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

typically (adverb)

In a typical manner.

- Tom was typically hostile.
- Using “typically” can make your explanation more exact.

---

un (noun)

An organization of independent states formed in 1945 to promote international peace and security.

- They discussed “un” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “un” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

unfortunately (adverb)

By bad luck.

- Unfortunately it rained all day.
- He answered “unfortunately,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

united states department of defense (noun)

The federal department responsible for safeguarding national security of the United States; created in 1947.

- In class, the teacher used "united states department of defense" to mean the federal department responsible for safeguarding....
- The article explained what "united states department of defense" means with a simple example.

voted (verb)

Express one's choice or preference by vote.

- He voted for the motion.
- None of the Democrats voted last night.

waste paper (noun)

Paper discarded after use.

- In class, the teacher used "waste paper" to mean paper discarded after use.
- The article explained what "waste paper" means with a simple example.

word stress (noun)

The distribution of stresses within a polysyllabic word.

- In class, the teacher used "word stress" to mean the distribution of stresses within a polysyllabic word.
- He looked up "word stress" because he had never seen it before.

african american english (noun)

A nonstandard form of American English characteristically spoken by African Americans in the United States.

- Understanding "african american english" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "african american english."

age limit (noun)

Regulation establishing the maximum age for doing something or holding some position.

- In class, the teacher used "age limit" to mean regulation establishing the maximum age for doing....
- The article explained what "age limit" means with a simple example.

apartment house (noun)

A building that is divided into apartments.

- He looked up "apartment house" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "apartment house" to mean a building that is divided into apartments.

block letter (noun)

A plain hand-drawn letter.

- They discussed "block letter" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "block letter" because he had never seen it before.

business concern (noun)

A commercial or industrial enterprise and the people who constitute it.

- He bought his brother's business.
- A small mom-and-pop business.

business sector (noun)

Business concerns collectively.

- Government and business could not agree.
- He looked up "business sector" because he had never seen it before.

camp bed (noun)

A small bed that folds up for storage or transport.

- He looked up "camp bed" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "camp bed."

carrying (verb)

Serve as a means for expressing something.

- This train is carrying nuclear waste.
- How many credits is this student carrying?

---

chosen (noun)

An exclusive group of people.

- She was Mama's chosen.
- He looked up "chosen" because he had never seen it before.

---

church roll (noun)

A list of the members of church.

- In class, the teacher used "church roll" to mean a list of the members of church.
- Understanding "church roll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

combination (noun)

A group of people (often temporary) having a common purpose.

- They were a winning combination.
- He forgot the combination to the safe.

---

cutting (noun)

An excerpt cut from a newspaper or magazine.

- His cutting of the cake made a terrible mess.
- The cutting of the cards soon became a ritual.

---

death chair (noun)

An instrument of execution by electrocution; resembles an ordinary seat for one person.

- The murderer was sentenced to die in the chair.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "death chair."

---

drinking age (noun)

The age at which is legal for a person to buy alcoholic beverages.

- They discussed "drinking age" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "drinking age" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

essential (adjective)

Being or relating to or containing the essence of a plant etc.

- Essential oil.
- The essential feature.

---

fail (verb)

Fail to do something; leave something undone.

- She failed to notice that her child was no longer in his crib.
- The secretary failed to call the customer and the company lost the account.

---

find fault (verb)

Harass with constant criticism.

- He did not know how to use "find fault" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "find fault" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

fixed-point part (noun)

The positive fractional part of the representation of a logarithm; in the expression log 643 = 2.808 the mantissa is .808.

- Understanding "fixed-point part" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fixed-point part" means with a simple example.

---

id (noun)

A card or badge used to identify the bearer.

- You had to show your ID in order to get in.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "id."

---

income tax return (noun)

Document giving the tax collector information about the taxpayer's tax liability.

- His gross income was enough that he had to file a tax return.
- In class, the teacher used "income tax return" to mean document giving the tax collector information about....

---

intelligence community (noun)

A group of government agencies and organizations that carry out intelligence activities for the United States government; headed by the Director of Central Intelligence.

- He looked up "intelligence community" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "intelligence community" during the group presentation.

---

jewish (adjective)

Of or relating to Jews or their culture or religion.

- He is Jewish.
- A Jewish wedding.

---

largely (adverb)

In large part; mainly or chiefly.

- These accounts are largely inactive.
- The sketch was so largely drawn that you could see it from the back row.

---

mass unit (noun)

A unit of measurement for mass.

- He looked up "mass unit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mass unit" during the group presentation.

---

master of laws (noun)

An advanced law degree.

- In class, the teacher used "master of laws" to mean an advanced law degree.
- They discussed "master of laws" during the group presentation.

---

mid-february (noun)

The middle part of February.

- They discussed "mid-february" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mid-february" to mean the middle part of february.

---

new wave (noun)

An art movement in French cinema in the 1960s.

- They discussed "new wave" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "new wave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

on the wing (adverb)

Flying through the air.

- We saw the ducks in flight.
- The narrator describes the scene "on the wing" in the final chapter.

---

perfectly (adverb)

Completely and without qualification; used informally as intensifiers.

- A perfectly idiotic idea.
- You're perfectly right.

---

pre-christian (adjective)

Of or relating to or being the time before the beginning of the Christian era.

- A "pre-christian" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "pre-christian"? Explain why.

---

range of a function (noun)

(mathematics) the set of values of the dependent variable for which a function is defined.

- The image of f(x) = x^2 is the set of all non-negative real numbers if the domain of the function is the set of all real numbers.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "range of a function."

---

religious movement (noun)

A movement intended to bring about religious reforms.

- Understanding "religious movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "religious movement."

---

religious society of friends (noun)

A Christian sect founded by George Fox about 1660; commonly called Quakers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "religious society of friends."
- He looked up "religious society of friends" because he had never seen it before.

---

review copy (noun)

A copy of a newly published book that is sent for review to a writer or periodical.

- They discussed "review copy" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "review copy" to mean a copy of a newly published book that is sent for....

---

royal air force (noun)

The airforce of Great Britain.

- In class, the teacher used "royal air force" to mean the airforce of great britain.
- They discussed "royal air force" during the group presentation.

---

safety glass (noun)

Glass made with plates of plastic or resin or other material between two sheets of glass to prevent shattering.

- He looked up "safety glass" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "safety glass" to mean glass made with plates of plastic or resin or other....

---

seek (verb)

Try to locate or discover, or try to establish the existence of.

- Seek a position.
- Seek an education.

---

sense of responsibility (noun)

An awareness of your obligations.

- The article explained what "sense of responsibility" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sense of responsibility" during the group presentation.

---

shop floor (noun)

Workplace consisting of the part of a factory housing the machines.

- The productive work is done on the shop floor.
- In class, the teacher used "shop floor" to mean workplace consisting of the part of a factory....

---

soft news (noun)

News that does not deal with serious topics or events.

- The article explained what "soft news" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "soft news" to mean news that does not deal with serious topics or events.

---

southern cross (noun)

A small conspicuous constellation in the southern hemisphere in the Milky Way near Centaurus.

- He looked up "southern cross" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "southern cross" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

split second (noun)

A very short time (as the time it takes the eye to blink or the heart to beat).

- In class, the teacher used “split second” to mean a very short time (as the time it takes the eye to....
- The article explained what “split second” means with a simple example.

---

street clothes (noun)

Ordinary clothing suitable for public appearances (as opposed to costumes or sports apparel or work clothes etc.).

- The article explained what “street clothes” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “street clothes” to mean ordinary clothing suitable for public appearances....

---

strike hard (verb)

Deliver a sharp blow or push :.

- Can you use “strike hard” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “strike hard” and when to wait.

---

strong-arm (verb)

Use physical force against.

- They strong-armed me when I left the restaurant.
- He was strong-armed by the policemen.

---

supreme court (noun)

The highest court in most states of the United States.

- Understanding “supreme court” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “supreme court” means with a simple example.

---

take a firm stand (verb)

Be emphatic or resolute and refuse to budge.

- The coach explained when to use “take a firm stand” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “take a firm stand” in real sentences.

---

talks (noun)

A discussion intended to produce an agreement.

- Talks between Israelis and Palestinians.
- The article explained what “talks” means with a simple example.

---

time signal (noun)

A signal (especially electronic or by radio) indicating the precisely correct time.

- The article explained what “time signal” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “time signal” to mean a signal (especially electronic or by radio)....

---

unit cell (noun)

The smallest group of atoms or molecules whose repetition at regular intervals in three dimensions produces the lattices of a crystal.

- Understanding “unit cell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “unit cell.”

---

ancient history (noun)

A history of the ancient world.

- Understanding “ancient history” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ancient history.”

---

answers (noun)

A statement that solves a problem or explains how to solve the problem.

- The answers were in the back of the book.
- The article explained what “answers” means with a simple example.

---

basic color (noun)

A dye that is considered to be a base because the chromophore is part of a positive ion.

- The article explained what “basic color” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “basic color” to mean a dye that is considered to be a base because the....

black hole (noun)

A region of space resulting from the collapse of a star; extremely high gravitational field.

- They discussed "black hole" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "black hole" means with a simple example.

bring to bear (verb)

Bring into operation or effect.

- The new members brought to bear new concerns to the U.N.
- Can you use "bring to bear" in a sentence that fits this situation?

chosen people (noun)

Any people believing themselves to be chosen by God.

- The article explained what "chosen people" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chosen people."

context of use (noun)

Discourse that surrounds a language unit and helps to determine its interpretation.

- The article explained what "context of use" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "context of use" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cream off (verb)

Remove from the surface.

- Skim cream from the surface of milk.
- In everyday English, people use "cream off" when talking about this idea.

degree of freedom (noun)

(statistics) an unrestricted variable in a frequency distribution.

- The article explained what "degree of freedom" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "degree of freedom" during the group presentation.

don (noun)

A Spanish courtesy title or form of address for men that is prefixed to the forename.

- Don Roberto.
- The article explained what "don" means with a simple example.

drinking song (noun)

A song celebrating the joys of drinking; sung at drinking parties.

- They discussed "drinking song" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "drinking song" means with a simple example.

educational (adjective)

Relating to the process of education.

- Educational psychology.
- The speaker chose "educational" because it captured the feeling precisely.

extended family (noun)

A family consisting of the nuclear family and their blood relatives.

- They discussed "extended family" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "extended family" to mean a family consisting of the nuclear family and their....

field capacity (noun)

The maximum amount of water that a particular soil can hold.

- Understanding "field capacity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "field capacity" because he had never seen it before.

finance company (noun)

A financial institution (often affiliated with a holding company or manufacturer) that makes loans to individuals or businesses.

- The article explained what "finance company" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "finance company" during the group presentation.

---

fixed-point number (noun)

A number represented in fixed-point notation.

- Understanding "fixed-point number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fixed-point number" means with a simple example.

---

florida key (noun)

A coral reef off the southern coast of Florida.

- In class, the teacher used "florida key" to mean a coral reef off the southern coast of florida.
- They discussed "florida key" during the group presentation.

---

hang (noun)

A special way of doing something.

- He couldn't get the hang of it.
- He adjusted the hang of his coat.

---

horse-trade (verb)

Negotiate with much give and take.

- She tried to use "horse-trade" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "horse-trade" when talking about this idea.

---

independent agency (noun)

An agency of the United States government that is created by an act of Congress and is independent of the executive departments.

- They discussed "independent agency" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "independent agency."

---

industrial process (noun)

A systematic series of mechanical or chemical operations that produce or manufacture something.

- Understanding "industrial process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "industrial process."

---

info (noun)

A message received and understood.

- Understanding "info" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "info" means with a simple example.

---

liberal party (noun)

A political party in Australia, Canada, and other nations, and formerly in Great Britain.

- The article explained what "liberal party" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "liberal party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

limited edition (noun)

An edition that is restricted to a specific number of copies.

- In class, the teacher used "limited edition" to mean an edition that is restricted to a specific number....
- The article explained what "limited edition" means with a simple example.

---

mainly (adverb)

For the most part.

- He is mainly interested in butterflies.
- She spoke "mainly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

meat house (noun)

A small house (on a farm) where meat is stored.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "meat house."

- He looked up "meat house" because he had never seen it before.

newspaper (noun)

A business firm that publishes newspapers.

- Murdoch owns many newspapers.
- He read his newspaper at breakfast.

nuclear club (noun)

The nations possessing nuclear weapons.

- In class, the teacher used "nuclear club" to mean the nations possessing nuclear weapons.
- Understanding "nuclear club" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pack together (verb)

Make more compact by or as if by pressing.

- He did not know how to use "pack together" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "pack together" in real sentences.

personal matters (noun)

Matters of personal concern.

- In class, the teacher used "personal matters" to mean matters of personal concern.
- They discussed "personal matters" during the group presentation.

pick apart (verb)

Find fault with; express criticism of; point out real or perceived flaws.

- Can you use "pick apart" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "pick apart" carefully so everyone would understand.

planning commission (noun)

A commission delegated to propose plans for future activities and developments.

- Understanding "planning commission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "planning commission."

population profile (noun)

A chart showing the number of people as a function of their ages.

- In class, the teacher used "population profile" to mean a chart showing the number of people as a function....
- The article explained what "population profile" means with a simple example.

pull ahead (verb)

Obtain advantages, such as points, etc.

- After defeating the Knicks, the Blazers pulled ahead of the Lakers in the battle for the number-one playoff berth in the Western Conference.
- The coach explained when to use "pull ahead" and when to wait.

republic (noun)

A form of government whose head of state is not a monarch.

- The head of state in a republic is usually a president.
- Understanding "republic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

reserve (verb)

Obtain or arrange (for oneself) in advance.

- We managed to reserve a table at Maxim's.
- Reserve me a seat on a flight.

salt i (noun)

The first treaty between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics resulting from the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks.

- The article explained what "salt i" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "salt i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

scientific fact (noun)

An observation that has been confirmed repeatedly and is accepted as true (although its truth is never final).

- The article explained what "scientific fact" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "scientific fact" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scottish (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Scotland or its people or culture or its English dialect or Gaelic language.

- 'Scottish' tends to be the more formal term as in 'The Scottish Symphony' or 'Scottish authors' or 'Scottish mountains'.
- 'Scotch' is in disfavor with Scottish people and is used primarily outside Scotland except in such frozen phrases as 'Scotch broth' or 'Scotch whiskey' or 'Scotch plaid'.

---

seek out (verb)

Look for a specific person or thing.

- She tried to use "seek out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "seek out" in real sentences.

---

stop payment (noun)

A depositor's order to a bank to refuse payment on a check.

- He looked up "stop payment" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "stop payment" to mean a depositor's order to a bank to refuse payment on....

---

stress test (noun)

A test measuring how a system functions when subjected to controlled amounts of stress.

- He looked up "stress test" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "stress test" during the group presentation.

---

switch on (verb)

Cause to operate by flipping a switch.

- Switch on the light.
- He did not know how to use "switch on" until he saw an example.

---

threat (noun)

A warning that something unpleasant is imminent.

- They were under threat of arrest.
- Earthquakes are a constant threat in Japan.

---

to the highest degree (adverb)

Used to form the superlative.

- The king cobra is the most dangerous snake.
- She spoke "to the highest degree," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

tv audience (noun)

The audience reached by television.

- He looked up "tv audience" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tv audience" during the group presentation.

---

twenty-four (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-three and one.

- Understanding "twenty-four" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "twenty-four" during the group presentation.

---

water hole (noun)

A natural hole or hollow containing water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water hole."
- He looked up "water hole" because he had never seen it before.

---

window box (noun)

A long narrow box for growing plants on a windowsill.

- They discussed “window box” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “window box” means with a simple example.

---

yellow light (noun)

The signal to proceed with caution.

- In class, the teacher used “yellow light” to mean the signal to proceed with caution.
- The article explained what “yellow light” means with a simple example.

---

active application (noun)

An application that is currently running and in the foreground.

- He looked up “active application” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “active application.”

---

air national guard (noun)

A civilian reserve component of the United States Air Force that provides prompt mobilization during war and assistance during national emergencies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “air national guard.”
- He looked up “air national guard” because he had never seen it before.

---

aside (noun)

A message that departs from the main subject.

- Understanding “aside” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “aside” means with a simple example.

---

boat club (noun)

Club that promotes and supports yachting and boating.

- In class, the teacher used “boat club” to mean club that promotes and supports yachting and boating.
- The article explained what “boat club” means with a simple example.

---

bomb out (verb)

Make somebody homeless by destroying their houses with bombs.

- Learners should practice how to use “bomb out” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “bomb out” and when to wait.

---

bomb up (verb)

Load an aircraft with bombs.

- He did not know how to use “bomb up” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “bomb up” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bond (noun)

A connection based on kinship or marriage or common interest.

- Their friendship constitutes a powerful bond between them.
- A $10,000 bond was furnished by an alderman.

---

character reference (noun)

A formal recommendation by a former employer to a potential future employer describing the person’s qualifications and dependability.

- Requests for character references are all too often answered evasively.
- Understanding “character reference” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

church festival (noun)

A festival having religious significance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “church festival.”
- Understanding “church festival” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

commercial agency (noun)

An organization that provides businesses with credit ratings of other firms.

- Dun & Bradstreet is the largest mercantile agency in the United States.
- They discussed “commercial agency” during the group presentation.

communications (noun)

The discipline that studies the principles of transmiting information and the methods by which it is delivered (as print or radio or television etc.).

- Communications is his major field of study.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "communications."

corporation (noun)

A business firm whose articles of incorporation have been approved in some state.

- In class, the teacher used "corporation" to mean a business firm whose articles of incorporation....
- Understanding "corporation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dead mail (noun)

Mail that can neither be delivered nor returned.

- The article explained what "dead mail" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dead mail" to mean mail that can neither be delivered nor returned.

deserve (verb)

Be worthy or deserving.

- You deserve a promotion after all the hard work you have done.
- Learners should practice how to use "deserve" in real sentences.

dinner table (noun)

The dining table where dinner is served and eaten.

- He looked up "dinner table" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dinner table" to mean the dining table where dinner is served and eaten.

dollar (noun)

A symbol of commercialism or greed.

- He worships the almighty dollar.
- The dollar sign means little to him.

double negative (noun)

An affirmative constructed from two negatives.

- In class, the teacher used "double negative" to mean an affirmative constructed from two negatives.
- They discussed "double negative" during the group presentation.

easy chair (noun)

A comfortable upholstered armchair.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "easy chair."
- He looked up "easy chair" because he had never seen it before.

explained (verb)

Serve as a reason or cause or justification of.

- He explained the laws of physics to his students.
- The committee explained their plan for fund-raising to the Dean.

face pack (noun)

A cream that cleanses and tones the skin.

- In class, the teacher used "face pack" to mean a cream that cleanses and tones the skin.
- The article explained what "face pack" means with a simple example.

false name (noun)

A name that has been assumed temporarily.

- In class, the teacher used "false name" to mean a name that has been assumed temporarily.
- He looked up "false name" because he had never seen it before.

folks (noun)

People in general (often used in the plural).

- Folks around here drink moonshine.
- He wrote to his folks every day.

---

fucked (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- She tried to use "fucked" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "fucked" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

get the goods (verb)

Discover some bad or hidden information about.

- She got the goods on her co-worker after reading his e-mail.
- In everyday English, people use "get the goods" when talking about this idea.

---

get the hang (verb)

Be or become completely proficient or skilled in.

- In everyday English, people use "get the hang" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "get the hang" in real sentences.

---

hang out (verb)

Spend time in a certain location or with certain people.

- She hangs out at the corner cafe.
- The coach explained when to use "hang out" and when to wait.

---

hang up (verb)

Cause to be hanging or suspended.

- Hang that picture on the wall.
- In everyday English, people use "hang up" when talking about this idea.

---

iron blue (noun)

Any of various blue pigments.

- Understanding "iron blue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iron blue."

---

joint return (noun)

A return filed by a husband and wife.

- He looked up "joint return" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "joint return" to mean a return filed by a husband and wife.

---

kinda (adverb)

To some (great or small) extent.

- Using "kinda" can make your explanation more exact.
- He answered "kinda," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

kingdom come (noun)

The next world.

- He nearly blew us to kingdom come.
- You can wet the bed till kingdom come, for all I care.

---

night vision (noun)

The ability to see in reduced illumination (as in moonlight).

- He looked up "night vision" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "night vision" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

on an individual basis (adverb)

Apart from others.

- Taken individually, the rooms were, in fact, square.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “on an individual basis” naturally.

---

open chain (noun)

A chain of atoms in a molecule whose ends are not joined to form a ring.

- The article explained what “open chain” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “open chain” to mean a chain of atoms in a molecule whose ends are not....

---

paying attention (noun)

Paying particular notice (as to children or helpless people).

- In class, the teacher used “paying attention” to mean paying particular notice (as to children or....
- He looked up “paying attention” because he had never seen it before.

---

phase change (noun)

A change from one state (solid or liquid or gas) to another without a change in chemical composition.

- They discussed “phase change” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “phase change” means with a simple example.

---

prize (verb)

To move or force, especially in an effort to get something open; :.

- I prize these old photographs.
- We prize his creativity.

---

public debate (noun)

The formal presentation of a stated proposition and the opposition to it (usually followed by a vote).

- In class, the teacher used “public debate” to mean the formal presentation of a stated proposition and....
- The article explained what “public debate” means with a simple example.

---

quarter-hour (noun)

A quarter of an hour.

- The article explained what “quarter-hour” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “quarter-hour” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

raise hell (verb)

Take strong and forceful action, as to object or express discontent.

- She raised hell when she found out that she wold not be hired again.
- Can you use “raise hell” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

rare earth (noun)

Any element of the lanthanide series (atomic numbers 57 through 71).

- In class, the teacher used “rare earth” to mean any element of the lanthanide series (atomic....
- Understanding “rare earth” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

right wing (noun)

Those who support political or social or economic conservatism; those who believe that things are better left unchanged.

- The article explained what “right wing” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “right wing” to mean those who support political or social or economic....

---

round-arm (adverb)

With an outward or horizontal swing of the arm.

- He hit the ball round-arm.
- The narrator describes the scene “round-arm” in the final chapter.

---

round-table conference (noun)

A meeting of peers for discussion and exchange of views.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “round-table conference.”
- The article explained what “round-table conference” means with a simple example.

---

rural (adjective)

Of or relating to the countryside as opposed to the city.

- Rural electrification.
- Rural free delivery.

---

safety feature (noun)

Feature of an artifact that is added to insure a user's safety.

- He looked up "safety feature" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "safety feature" to mean feature of an artifact that is added to insure a....

---

sees (verb)

Perceive (an idea or situation) mentally.

- Learners should practice how to use "sees" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "sees" and when to wait.

---

sense of duty (noun)

A motivating awareness of ethical responsibility.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sense of duty."
- He looked up "sense of duty" because he had never seen it before.

---

shooting box (noun)

A small country house used by hunters during the shooting season.

- In class, the teacher used "shooting box" to mean a small country house used by hunters during the....
- The article explained what "shooting box" means with a simple example.

---

social democratic party (noun)

A political party in Germany and Britain (and elsewhere) founded in late 19th century; originally Marxist; now advocates the gradual transformation of capitalism into democratic socialism.

- In class, the teacher used "social democratic party" to mean a political party in germany and britain (and....
- Understanding "social democratic party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

solid ground (noun)

The solid part of the earth's surface.

- He dropped the logs on the ground.
- Understanding "solid ground" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

squad room (noun)

A room in a barracks where soldiers are billeted.

- They discussed "squad room" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "squad room."

---

stand guard (verb)

Watch over so as to protect.

- We must stand sentinel to protect ourselves.
- The jewels over which they kept guard were stolen.

---

state supreme court (noun)

The highest court in most states of the United States.

- The article explained what "state supreme court" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "state supreme court" during the group presentation.

---

steel industry (noun)

The industry that makes steel and steel products.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steel industry."
- Understanding "steel industry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

take for granted (verb)

Take to be the case or to be true; accept without verification or proof.

- He did not know how to use “take for granted” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “take for granted” in real sentences.

---

testing room (noun)

A room in which tests are conducted.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “testing room.”
- He looked up “testing room” because he had never seen it before.

---

thousand times (adverb)

By three orders of magnitude.

- This poison is a thousand-fold more toxic.
- She spoke “thousand times,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

trade magazine (noun)

A magazine published for and read by members of a particular trade group.

- In class, the teacher used “trade magazine” to mean a magazine published for and read by members of a....
- The article explained what “trade magazine” means with a simple example.

---

traditional knowledge (noun)

Knowledge gained through tradition or anecdote.

- They discussed “traditional knowledge” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “traditional knowledge” because he had never seen it before.

---

twenty-five (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-four and one.

- Understanding “twenty-five” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “twenty-five” because he had never seen it before.

---

universe (noun)

(statistics) the entire aggregation of items from which samples can be drawn.

- They study the evolution of the universe.
- They discussed “universe” during the group presentation.

---

warning (noun)

A message informing of danger.

- A warning that still more bombs could explode.
- The warning was to beware of surprises.

---

admit (verb)

Declare to be true or admit the existence or reality or truth of.

- He admitted his errors.
- We cannot admit non-members into our club building.

---

at random (adverb)

In a random manner.

- The houses were randomly scattered.
- Bullets were fired into the crowd at random.

---

birthday card (noun)

A card expressing a birthday greeting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “birthday card.”
- The article explained what “birthday card” means with a simple example.

---

blue sky (noun)

The sky as viewed during daylight.

- He shot an arrow into the blue.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blue sky.”

branch (noun)

A division of some larger or more complex organization.

- A branch of Congress.
- Botany is a branch of biology.

coffee-table book (noun)

An elaborate oversize book suitable for displaying on a coffee table.

- Understanding "coffee-table book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "coffee-table book" to mean an elaborate oversize book suitable for displaying....

concept album (noun)

An album whose recordings are unified by some theme (instrumental or lyrical or narrative or compositional).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "concept album."
- They discussed "concept album" during the group presentation.

decades (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of nine and one; the base of the decimal system.

- They discussed "decades" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "decades" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of nine and....

definition (noun)

A concise explanation of the meaning of a word or phrase or symbol.

- Exercise had given his muscles superior definition.
- The article explained what "definition" means with a simple example.

display case (noun)

A glass container used to store and display items in a shop or museum or home.

- Understanding "display case" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "display case" during the group presentation.

distribution law (noun)

(chemistry) the total energy in an assembly of molecules is not distributed equally but is distributed around an average value according to a statistical distribution.

- In class, the teacher used "distribution law" to mean (chemistry) the total energy in an assembly of....
- They discussed "distribution law" during the group presentation.

eastern standard time (noun)

Standard time in the 5th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 75th meridian; used in the eastern United States.

- He looked up "eastern standard time" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eastern standard time."

extended order (noun)

A military formation for skirmishing; as widely separated as the tactical situation permits.

- They discussed "extended order" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "extended order" because he had never seen it before.

fall flat (verb)

Fail utterly; collapse.

- Learners should practice how to use "fall flat" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "fall flat" carefully so everyone would understand.

frame in (verb)

Enclose in or as if in a frame.

- Frame a picture.
- She tried to use "frame in" carefully so everyone would understand.

golden age (noun)

A time period when some activity or skill was at its peak.

- It was the golden age of cinema.
- In class, the teacher used "golden age" to mean a time period when some activity or skill was at....

---

ha (noun)

(astronomy) the angular distance of a celestial point measured westward along the celestial equator from the zenith crossing; the right ascension for an observer at a particular location and time of day.

- The article explained what "ha" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ha" to mean (astronomy) the angular distance of a celestial....

---

heaven (noun)

The abode of God and the angels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heaven."
- Understanding "heaven" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

heavy metal (noun)

A metal of relatively high density (specific gravity greater than about 5) or of high relative atomic weight (especially one that is poisonous like mercury or lead).

- In class, the teacher used "heavy metal" to mean a metal of relatively high density (specific....
- The article explained what "heavy metal" means with a simple example.

---

historical record (noun)

Writing having historical value (as opposed to fiction or myth etc.).

- They discussed "historical record" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "historical record" means with a simple example.

---

holding cell (noun)

A jail in a courthouse where accused persons can be confined during a trial.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "holding cell."
- They discussed "holding cell" during the group presentation.

---

in the nick of time (adverb)

At the last possible moment.

- She was saved in the nick of time.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in the nick of time" naturally.

---

information measure (noun)

A system of measurement of information based on the probabilities of the events that convey information.

- Understanding "information measure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "information measure."

---

james bay (noun)

The southern extension of Hudson Bay in Canada between western Quebec and northeastern Ontario.

- In class, the teacher used "james bay" to mean the southern extension of hudson bay in canada....
- The article explained what "james bay" means with a simple example.

---

jewish new year (noun)

(Judaism) a solemn Jewish feast day celebrated on the 1st or 1st and 2nd of Tishri; noted for the blowing of the shofar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jewish new year."
- The article explained what "jewish new year" means with a simple example.

---

jump cut (noun)

An immediate transition from one scene to another.

- He looked up "jump cut" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jump cut."

---

lay on the line (verb)

Expose to a chance of loss or damage.

- She laid her job on the line when she told the boss that he was wrong.

- She tried to use "lay on the line" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

load (noun)

An amount of alcohol sufficient to intoxicate.

- He got a load on and started a brawl.
- The system broke down under excessive loads.

---

magazine article (noun)

An article published in a magazine.

- Understanding "magazine article" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magazine article."

---

master in business administration (noun)

A master's degree in business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "master in business administration."
- They discussed "master in business administration" during the group presentation.

---

mental image (noun)

An iconic mental representation.

- Her imagination forced images upon her too awful to contemplate.
- In class, the teacher used "mental image" to mean an iconic mental representation.

---

military intelligence (noun)

An agency of the armed forces that obtains and analyzes and uses information of strategic or tactical military value.

- Understanding "military intelligence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "military intelligence" because he had never seen it before.

---

moving van (noun)

A van used for moving home or office furniture.

- They discussed "moving van" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "moving van" to mean a van used for moving home or office furniture.

---

national science foundation (noun)

An independent agency of the federal government responsible for the promotion of progress in science and engineering by supporting programs in research and education.

- The article explained what "national science foundation" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "national science foundation."

---

opposite number (noun)

A person or thing having the same function or characteristics as another.

- He looked up "opposite number" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "opposite number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pacific time (noun)

Standard time in the 8th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 120th meridian west; used in far western states of the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "pacific time" to mean standard time in the 8th time zone west of....
- He looked up "pacific time" because he had never seen it before.

---

pair production (noun)

The transformation of a gamma-ray photon into an electron and a positron when the photon passes close to an atomic nucleus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pair production."
- He looked up "pair production" because he had never seen it before.

---

passing water (noun)

A euphemism for urination.

- He looked up "passing water" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "passing water" during the group presentation.

---

political platform (noun)

A document stating the aims and principles of a political party.

- Their candidate simply ignored the party platform.
- Understanding "political platform" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

possibility (noun)

A tentative insight into the natural world; a concept that is not yet verified but that if true would explain certain facts or phenomena.

- There is a possibility that his sense of smell has been impaired.
- Bankruptcy is always a possibility.

---

rent (noun)

An opening made forcibly as by pulling apart.

- The article explained what "rent" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rent" to mean an opening made forcibly as by pulling apart.

---

replace (verb)

Take the place or move into the position of.

- Smith replaced Miller as CEO after Miller left.
- Mary replaced Susan as the team's captain and the highest-ranked player in the school.

---

represent (verb)

Serve as a means of expressing something.

- The flower represents a young girl.
- This period is represented by Beethoven.

---

round shape (noun)

A shape that is curved and without sharp angles.

- The article explained what "round shape" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "round shape" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sentence (noun)

The period of time a prisoner is imprisoned.

- His sentence was 5 to 10 years.
- He always spoke in grammatical sentences.

---

short-term memory (noun)

What you can repeat immediately after perceiving it.

- Understanding "short-term memory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "short-term memory" during the group presentation.

---

small loan company (noun)

A finance company that makes loans to people who have trouble getting a bank loan.

- He looked up "small loan company" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "small loan company" during the group presentation.

---

switch off (verb)

Cause to stop operating by disengaging a switch.

- Turn off the stereo, please.
- In everyday English, people use "switch off" when talking about this idea.

---

unable to help (adverb)

In a helpless manner.

- The crowd watched him helplessly.
- Using "unable to help" can make your explanation more exact.

---

united church of christ (noun)

Merger of the Congregational Christian Church and the Evangelical and Reformed Church in 1957.

- He looked up "united church of christ" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united church of christ."

---

wave number (noun)

The reciprocal of the wavelength of a wave.

- In class, the teacher used "wave number" to mean the reciprocal of the wavelength of a wave.
- The article explained what "wave number" means with a simple example.

---

zero point (noun)

The point on a scale from which positive or negative numerical quantities can be measured.

- Understanding "zero point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "zero point" because he had never seen it before.

---

achieve (verb)

To gain with effort.

- She achieved her goal despite setbacks.
- He did not know how to use "achieve" until he saw an example.

---

afford (verb)

Have the financial means to do something or buy something.

- We can't afford to send our children to college.
- Can you afford this car?

---

american falls (noun)

A part of Niagara Falls in western New York (north of Buffalo).

- Understanding "american falls" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "american falls" because he had never seen it before.

---

appeal board (noun)

A board of officials that are not judicial but are appointed to hear appeals.

- The article explained what "appeal board" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "appeal board" to mean a board of officials that are not judicial but are....

---

blow off (verb)

Come off due to an explosion or other strong force.

- In everyday English, people use "blow off" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "blow off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bunch (noun)

A grouping of a number of similar things.

- A bunch of trees.
- In class, the teacher used "bunch" to mean a grouping of a number of similar things.

---

category (noun)

A collection of things sharing a common attribute.

- He looked up "category" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "category" to mean a collection of things sharing a common attribute.

---

cell theory (noun)

(biology) the theory that cells form the fundamental structural and functional units of all living organisms; proposed in 1838 by Matthias Schleiden and by Theodor Schwann.

- They discussed "cell theory" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cell theory" means with a simple example.

---

centre spread (noun)

The spread at the center of a magazine.

- He looked up "centre spread" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "centre spread" to mean the spread at the center of a magazine.

chain saw (noun)

Portable power saw; teeth linked to form an endless chain.

- Understanding "chain saw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "chain saw" means with a simple example.

chat (verb)

Talk socially without exchanging too much information.

- She tried to use "chat" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "chat" in a sentence that fits this situation?

cheese (verb)

Used in the imperative (get away, or stop it).

- Cheese it!
- Cheese the yarn.

chemical (adjective)

Of or made from or using substances produced by or used in reactions involving atomic or molecular changes.

- Chemical fertilizer.
- Chemical engineer.

conversation piece (noun)

Something interesting that stimulates conversation.

- The article explained what "conversation piece" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conversation piece."

critical analysis (noun)

An appraisal based on careful analytical evaluation.

- The article explained what "critical analysis" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "critical analysis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

door guard (noun)

Someone who guards an entrance.

- The article explained what "door guard" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "door guard" to mean someone who guards an entrance.

electric range (noun)

A kitchen range in which the heat for cooking is provided by electric power.

- Understanding "electric range" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "electric range" to mean a kitchen range in which the heat for cooking is....

entry word (noun)

The form of a word that heads a lexical entry and is alphabetized in a dictionary.

- In class, the teacher used "entry word" to mean the form of a word that heads a lexical entry and....
- They discussed "entry word" during the group presentation.

executive agency (noun)

An agency of the executive branch of government.

- The article explained what "executive agency" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "executive agency" to mean an agency of the executive branch of government.

favourite (noun)

Something regarded with special favor or liking.

- The article explained what "favourite" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "favourite" to mean something regarded with special favor or liking.

fish species (noun)

A species of fish.

- In class, the teacher used "fish species" to mean a species of fish.
- The article explained what "fish species" means with a simple example.

---

follow suit (verb)

Do what someone else is doing.

- The coach explained when to use "follow suit" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "follow suit" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fuel oil (noun)

A petroleum product used for fuel.

- He looked up "fuel oil" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fuel oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

german silver (noun)

A silver-white alloy containing copper and zinc and nickel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "german silver."
- The article explained what "german silver" means with a simple example.

---

get a load (verb)

Look at with attention.

- Get a load of this pretty woman!
- In everyday English, people use "get a load" when talking about this idea.

---

ground crew (noun)

The crew of technicians and mechanics who service aircraft on the ground.

- He looked up "ground crew" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground crew."

---

harder (adverb)

To the full extent possible; all the way.

- He answered "harder," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- She spoke "harder," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

historical present (noun)

The use of the present tense to describe past actions or states.

- The article explained what "historical present" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "historical present" during the group presentation.

---

holy saturday (noun)

The Saturday before Easter; the last day of Lent.

- The article explained what "holy saturday" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "holy saturday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

home reserve (noun)

United States military reserves recruited by the states and equipped by the federal government; subject to call by either.

- The article explained what "home reserve" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "home reserve" to mean united states military reserves recruited by the....

---

home territory (noun)

The area in which an animal normally ranges.

- They discussed "home territory" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home territory."

---

house painting (noun)

The occupation of a house painter.

- House painting was the only craft he knew.

- He looked up "house painting" because he had never seen it before.

---

in detail (adverb)

Thoroughly (including all important particulars).

- He studied the snake in detail.
- Place "in detail" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

index (noun)

A mathematical notation indicating the number of times a quantity is multiplied by itself.

- Understanding "index" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "index."

---

industrial management (noun)

The branch of engineering that deals with the creation and management of systems that integrate people and materials and energy in productive ways.

- In class, the teacher used "industrial management" to mean the branch of engineering that deals with the....
- He looked up "industrial management" because he had never seen it before.

---

item (noun)

An individual instance of a type of symbol.

- He noticed an item in the New York Times.
- She had several items on her shopping list.

---

kitchen police (noun)

An enlisted person who is assigned to assist the cooks.

- In class, the teacher used "kitchen police" to mean an enlisted person who is assigned to assist the cooks.
- Understanding "kitchen police" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

left wing (noun)

Those who support varying degrees of social or political or economic change designed to promote the public welfare.

- Understanding "left wing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "left wing."

---

load up (verb)

Fill or place a load on.

- Load a car.
- Load the truck with hay.

---

memory image (noun)

A mental image of something previously experienced.

- In class, the teacher used "memory image" to mean a mental image of something previously experienced.
- He looked up "memory image" because he had never seen it before.

---

natural shape (noun)

A shape created by natural forces; not man-made.

- In class, the teacher used "natural shape" to mean a shape created by natural forces; not man-made.
- Understanding "natural shape" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

navy (noun)

An organization of military vessels belonging to a country and available for sea warfare.

- Understanding "navy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "navy."

---

normally (adverb)

Under normal conditions.

- She spoke "normally," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "normally" can make your explanation more exact.

---

occurred (verb)

To be found to exist.

- Nothing occurred that seemed important.
- It occurred to me that we should hire another secretary.

---

on a regular basis (adverb)

In a regular manner.

- Letters arrived regularly from his children.
- He answered "on a regular basis," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

operating table (noun)

Table on which the patient lies during a surgical operation.

- The article explained what "operating table" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "operating table" to mean table on which the patient lies during a surgical....

---

orange group (noun)

A terrorist group of Protestants who oppose any political settlement with Irish nationalists; a paramilitary group that attacks Catholic interests in Northern Ireland.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orange group."
- He looked up "orange group" because he had never seen it before.

---

personally (adverb)

In the flesh; without involving anyone else.

- I went there personally.
- Speaking personally, I would not want to go.

---

programme (noun)

An integrated course of academic studies.

- He looked up "programme" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "programme."

---

room temperature (noun)

The normal temperature of room in which people live.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "room temperature."
- He looked up "room temperature" because he had never seen it before.

---

row house (noun)

A house that is one of a row of identical houses situated side by side and sharing common walls.

- In class, the teacher used "row house" to mean a house that is one of a row of identical houses....
- The article explained what "row house" means with a simple example.

---

scheme (noun)

A group of independent but interrelated elements comprising a unified whole.

- They discussed "scheme" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scheme."

---

solid figure (noun)

A three-dimensional shape.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solid figure."
- He looked up "solid figure" because he had never seen it before.

---

steel production (noun)

Making steel from pig iron.

- In class, the teacher used "steel production" to mean making steel from pig iron.
- They discussed "steel production" during the group presentation.

---

table wine (noun)

Wine containing not more than 14 percent alcohol usually served with a meal.

- The article explained what "table wine" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "table wine."

---

tend (verb)

Have a tendency or disposition to do or be something; be inclined.

- She tends to be nervous before her lectures.
- She tends to the children.

---

time frame (noun)

A time period during which something occurs or is expected to occur.

- An agreement can be reached in a reasonably short time frame.
- Understanding "time frame" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ultimately (adverb)

As the end result of a succession or process.

- Ultimately he had to give in.
- He answered "ultimately," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

voting system (noun)

A legal system for making democratic choices.

- He looked up "voting system" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "voting system" to mean a legal system for making democratic choices.

---

waste material (noun)

Any materials unused and rejected as worthless or unwanted.

- They collect the waste once a week.
- Much of the waste material is carried off in the sewers.

---

waste product (noun)

Any materials unused and rejected as worthless or unwanted.

- They collect the waste once a week.
- Much of the waste material is carried off in the sewers.

---

wedding band (noun)

A ring (usually plain gold) given to the bride (and sometimes one is also given to the groom) at the wedding.

- They discussed "wedding band" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "wedding band" means with a simple example.

---

weekly (noun)

A periodical that is published every week (or 52 issues per year).

- The article explained what "weekly" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weekly."

---

writing arm (noun)

An arm of a tablet-armed chair; widened to provide a writing surface.

- Understanding "writing arm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "writing arm" because he had never seen it before.

---

yard (noun)

The enclosed land around a house or other building.

- It was a small house with almost no yard.
- They opened a repair yard on the edge of town.

---

active agent (noun)

Chemical agent capable of activity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "active agent."
- He looked up "active agent" because he had never seen it before.

alcohol group (noun)

The chemical group -OH.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alcohol group."
- The article explained what "alcohol group" means with a simple example.

apartment building (noun)

A building that is divided into apartments.

- Understanding "apartment building" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "apartment building" to mean a building that is divided into apartments.

blue moon (noun)

A long time.

- Something that happens once in blue moon almost never happens.
- The article explained what "blue moon" means with a simple example.

book of daniel (noun)

An Old Testament book that tells of the apocalyptic visions and the experiences of Daniel in the court of Nebuchadnezzar.

- They discussed "book of daniel" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "book of daniel" means with a simple example.

bunch up (verb)

Gather or cause to gather into a cluster.

- She bunched her fingers into a fist.
- The frightened children bunched together in the corner of the classroom.

cell division (noun)

The process in reproduction and growth by which a cell divides to form daughter cells.

- The article explained what "cell division" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cell division."

central powers (noun)

In World War I the alliance of Germany and Austria-Hungary and other nations allied with them in opposing the Allies.

- The article explained what "central powers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "central powers" to mean in world war i the alliance of germany and....

chat up (verb)

Talk or behave amorously, without serious intentions.

- The guys always try to chat up the new secretaries.
- He did not know how to use "chat up" until he saw an example.

christian holy day (noun)

A religious holiday for Christians.

- The article explained what "christian holy day" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "christian holy day" to mean a religious holiday for christians.

common era (adverb)

Of the period coinciding with the Christian era; preferred by some writers who are not Christians.

- Using "common era" can make your explanation more exact.
- She spoke "common era," and the audience immediately understood her point.

common factor (noun)

An integer that divides two (or more) other integers evenly.

- In class, the teacher used "common factor" to mean an integer that divides two (or more) other....
- Understanding "common factor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

conservative party (noun)

A political party (especially in Great Britain or Australia) that believes in the importance of a capitalist economy with private ownership rather than state control.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conservative party."
- The article explained what "conservative party" means with a simple example.

---

cross-cultural (adjective)

Dealing with or comparing two or more cultures.

- A cross-cultural survey.
- A "cross-cultural" approach may work better in this case.

---

cross-file (verb)

Have one's name listed as a candidate for several parties.

- Can you use "cross-file" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "cross-file" and when to wait.

---

department of justice canada (noun)

An agency of the Canadian government that provides litigation and legal advice and opinions to the government.

- Understanding "department of justice canada" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "department of justice canada" because he had never seen it before.

---

depending (verb)

Be contingent upon (something that is elided).

- Learners should practice how to use "depending" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "depending" and when to wait.

---

depression (noun)

A concavity in a surface produced by pressing.

- Depression of the space bar on the typewriter.
- He looked up "depression" because he had never seen it before.

---

describe (verb)

To give an account or representation of in words.

- Discreet Italian police described it in a manner typically continental.
- He did not know how to use "describe" until he saw an example.

---

environmental science (noun)

The branch of biology concerned with the relations between organisms and their environment.

- In class, the teacher used "environmental science" to mean the branch of biology concerned with the relations....
- He looked up "environmental science" because he had never seen it before.

---

exclusive (noun)

A news report that is reported first by one news organization.

- In class, the teacher used "exclusive" to mean a news report that is reported first by one news....
- The article explained what "exclusive" means with a simple example.

---

excuse (noun)

A defense of some offensive behavior or some failure to keep a promise etc.

- He kept finding excuses to stay.
- He had to get his mother to write an excuse for him.

---

face cream (noun)

A cream used cosmetically (mostly by women) for softening and cleaning the skin.

- The article explained what "face cream" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "face cream" to mean a cream used cosmetically (mostly by women) for....

---

factor x (noun)

Coagulation factor that is converted to an enzyme that converts prothrombin to thrombin in a reaction that depends on calcium ions and other coagulation factors.

- They discussed "factor x" during the group presentation.

- He looked up "factor x" because he had never seen it before.

---

fair copy (noun)

A clean copy of a corrected draft.

- They discussed "fair copy" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fair copy" to mean a clean copy of a corrected draft.

---

federal trade commission (noun)

An independent agency of the United States federal government that maintains fair and free competition; enforces federal antitrust laws; educates the public about identity theft.

- He looked up "federal trade commission" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "federal trade commission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flag day (noun)

Commemorating the adoption of the United States flag in 1777.

- He looked up "flag day" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flag day."

---

foot traffic (noun)

People coming and going on foot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foot traffic."
- The article explained what "foot traffic" means with a simple example.

---

frequently (adverb)

Many times at short intervals.

- The narrator describes the scene "frequently" in the final chapter.
- He answered "frequently," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

give full measure (verb)

Perform a task as well as possible.

- The cast gives full measure every night.
- Learners should practice how to use "give full measure" in real sentences.

---

iii john (noun)

The third New Testament epistle traditionally attributed to Saint John the Apostle.

- He looked up "iii john" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iii john."

---

independence day (noun)

A legal holiday in the United States.

- He looked up "independence day" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "independence day."

---

latter (noun)

The second of two or the second mentioned of two.

- Tom and Dick were both heroes but only the latter is remembered today.
- He looked up "latter" because he had never seen it before.

---

law of action and reaction (noun)

Action and reaction are equal and opposite.

- The article explained what "law of action and reaction" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "law of action and reaction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

life sentence (noun)

A prison term lasting as long as the prisoner lives.

- He got life for killing the guard.
- They discussed "life sentence" during the group presentation.

---

load down (verb)

Load with a pack.

- Learners should practice how to use "load down" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "load down" until he saw an example.

---

mess up (verb)

Disturb the smoothness of.

- He messed up his room.
- He did not know how to use "mess up" until he saw an example.

---

national intelligence community (noun)

A group of government agencies and organizations that carry out intelligence activities for the United States government; headed by the Director of Central Intelligence.

- Understanding "national intelligence community" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "national intelligence community" during the group presentation.

---

national technical information service (noun)

An agency in the Technology Administration that is a primary resource for government-funded scientific and technical and engineering and business related information.

- He looked up "national technical information service" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "national technical information service" to mean an agency in the technology administration that is....

---

object (noun)

A tangible and visible entity; an entity that can cast a shadow.

- It was full of rackets, balls and other objects.
- The sole object of her trip was to see her children.

---

orange order (noun)

A Protestant political organization in Northern Ireland.

- Understanding "orange order" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "orange order" means with a simple example.

---

perspective (noun)

A way of regarding situations or topics etc.

- In class, the teacher used "perspective" to mean a way of regarding situations or topics etc.
- The article explained what "perspective" means with a simple example.

---

put aside (verb)

Turn away from and put aside, perhaps temporarily.

- It's time for you to put away childish things.
- The children were told to put away their toys.

---

rooms (noun)

Apartment consisting of a series of connected rooms used as a living unit (as in a hotel).

- The rooms were very small but they had a nice view.
- Understanding "rooms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stress mark (noun)

A mark indicating the stress on a syllable.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stress mark."
- He looked up "stress mark" because he had never seen it before.

---

sugar of lead (noun)

A poisonous white solid (Pb[CH3CO]2) used in dyeing cotton and in making enamels and varnishes.

- They discussed "sugar of lead" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sugar of lead."

---

suppose (verb)

To believe especially on uncertain or tentative grounds.

- Scientists supposed that large dinosaurs lived in swamps.

- I presuppose that you have done your work.

tea table (noun)

A small table for serving afternoon tea.

- Understanding "tea table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tea table."

think tank (noun)

A company that does research for hire and issues reports on the implications.

- Understanding "think tank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "think tank" because he had never seen it before.

transfer paper (noun)

A paper that is coated with a preparation for transferring a design to another surface.

- The article explained what "transfer paper" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transfer paper."

twenty-six (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-five and one.

- In class, the teacher used "twenty-six" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-five....
- They discussed "twenty-six" during the group presentation.

under the circumstances (adverb)

Because of prevailing conditions.

- Under the circumstances I cannot buy the house.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "under the circumstances" naturally.

addition reaction (noun)

A chemical reaction in which one molecule is added to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "addition reaction."
- They discussed "addition reaction" during the group presentation.

agents (noun)

An active and efficient cause; capable of producing a certain effect.

- Their research uncovered new disease agents.
- In class, the teacher used "agents" to mean an active and efficient cause; capable of producing....

attend (verb)

To accompany as a circumstance or follow as a result.

- Menuhin's playing was attended by a 15-minute standing ovation.
- She attends class regularly.

attend to (verb)

Get down to; pay attention to; take seriously.

- Attend to your duties, please.
- She attends the old lady in the wheelchair.

background knowledge (noun)

Information that is essential to understanding a situation or problem.

- The embassy filled him in on the background of the incident.
- Understanding "background knowledge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ban (noun)

An official prohibition or edict against something.

- They discussed "ban" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ban" means with a simple example.

bar-room plant (noun)

Evergreen perennial with large handsome basal leaves; grown primarily as a foliage houseplant.

- In class, the teacher used "bar-room plant" to mean evergreen perennial with large handsome basal....
- The article explained what "bar-room plant" means with a simple example.

bill of entry (noun)

A list of goods received at a customhouse for export or import.

- He looked up "bill of entry" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bill of entry."

blue joke (noun)

An indelicate joke.

- They discussed "blue joke" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "blue joke" because he had never seen it before.

board measure (noun)

A system of units for measuring lumber based on the board foot.

- He looked up "board measure" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "board measure" during the group presentation.

button up (verb)

Refuse to talk or stop talking; fall silent.

- He did not know how to use "button up" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "button up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

canadian french (noun)

The French language as spoken in Quebec, Canada.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canadian french."
- The article explained what "canadian french" means with a simple example.

carbon (noun)

An abundant nonmetallic tetravalent element occurring in three allotropic forms: amorphous carbon and graphite and diamond; occurs in all organic compounds.

- They discussed "carbon" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carbon."

catholic (adjective)

Of or relating to or supporting Catholicism.

- The Catholic Church.
- A "catholic" approach may work better in this case.

chose (verb)

Pick out, select, or choose from a number of alternatives.

- She chose not to attend classes and now she failed the exam.
- She tried to use "chose" carefully so everyone would understand.

circle (noun)

An unofficial association of people or groups.

- He calculated the circumference of the circle.
- The chairs were arranged in a circle.

command language (noun)

A source language consisting of procedural operators that invoke functions to be executed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "command language."
- He looked up "command language" because he had never seen it before.

cost-plus contract (noun)

A contract in which the contractor is paid his total cost plus a stated percentage of profit.

- Understanding "cost-plus contract" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cost-plus contract" during the group presentation.

---

distribution list (noun)

List of names to whom a communication should be sent.

- In class, the teacher used "distribution list" to mean list of names to whom a communication should be sent.
- They discussed "distribution list" during the group presentation.

---

domestic dog (noun)

A member of the genus Canis (probably descended from the common wolf) that has been domesticated by man since prehistoric times; occurs in many breeds.

- The dog barked all night.
- Understanding "domestic dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

domestic science (noun)

Theory and practice of homemaking.

- He looked up "domestic science" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "domestic science."

---

dry ice (noun)

Solidified carbon dioxide; dry ice sublimates at -78.5 C and is used mainly as a refrigerant.

- In class, the teacher used "dry ice" to mean solidified carbon dioxide; dry ice sublimates at....
- He looked up "dry ice" because he had never seen it before.

---

experiences (noun)

The content of direct observation or participation in an event.

- The article explained what "experiences" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "experiences" to mean the content of direct observation or participation....

---

flow rate (noun)

The amount of fluid that flows in a given time.

- In class, the teacher used "flow rate" to mean the amount of fluid that flows in a given time.
- Understanding "flow rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

full faith and credit (noun)

A guarantee to pay interest and principal on debt; usually issued by the United States Treasury.

- They discussed "full faith and credit" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "full faith and credit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

general assembly (noun)

The supreme deliberative assembly of the United Nations.

- He looked up "general assembly" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general assembly."

---

get laid (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- Learners should practice how to use "get laid" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "get laid" and when to wait.

---

house guest (noun)

A guest entertained in your house.

- He looked up "house guest" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "house guest" to mean a guest entertained in your house.

---

house-trained (adjective)

(of pets) trained to urinate and defecate outside or in a special place.

- 'house-trained' is chiefly British.
- Students compared "house-trained" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

in concert (adverb)

With a common plan.

- Act in concert.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in concert" naturally.

like an expert (adverb)

In an expert manner.

- He repaired the TV set expertly.
- He answered "like an expert," which changed the tone of the conversation.

major mode (noun)

A key whose harmony is based on the major scale.

- In class, the teacher used "major mode" to mean a key whose harmony is based on the major scale.
- Understanding "major mode" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

map collection (noun)

A collection of maps in book form.

- Understanding "map collection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "map collection" means with a simple example.

native language (noun)

The language that a person has spoken from earliest childhood.

- The article explained what "native language" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "native language" during the group presentation.

nearby (adverb)

Not far away in relative terms.

- She works nearby.
- The planets orbiting nearby are Venus and Mars.

night bell (noun)

A doorbell to be used at night.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "night bell."
- He looked up "night bell" because he had never seen it before.

one thousand million (noun)

The number that is represented as a one followed by 9 zeros.

- Understanding "one thousand million" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "one thousand million" during the group presentation.

panel (noun)

A committee appointed to judge a competition.

- He checked the instrument panel.
- In class, the teacher used "panel" to mean a committee appointed to judge a competition.

plane table (noun)

Surveying instrument consisting of a drawing board and a ruler that are mounted on a tripod; used to sight and map topographical details.

- In class, the teacher used "plane table" to mean surveying instrument consisting of a drawing board....
- Understanding "plane table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rate of flow (noun)

The amount of fluid that flows in a given time.

- They discussed "rate of flow" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rate of flow" means with a simple example.

replaced (verb)

Take the place or move into the position of.

- Smith replaced Miller as CEO after Miller left.
- Mary replaced Susan as the team's captain and the highest-ranked player in the school.

---

rice (verb)

Sieve so that it becomes the consistency of rice.

- Rice the potatoes.
- He did not know how to use "rice" until he saw an example.

---

roof (noun)

The inner top surface of a covered area or hollow space.

- The roof of the cave was very high.
- I could see the roof of the bear's mouth.

---

safety net (noun)

A guarantee of professional or financial security.

- The article explained what "safety net" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "safety net" to mean a guarantee of professional or financial security.

---

self-confidence (noun)

Freedom from doubt; belief in yourself and your abilities.

- The article explained what "self-confidence" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "self-confidence" to mean freedom from doubt; belief in yourself and your....

---

set aside (verb)

Give or assign a resource to a particular person or cause.

- She sets aside time for meditation every day.
- Learners should practice how to use "set aside" in real sentences.

---

set in motion (verb)

Get going; give impetus to.

- Her actions set in motion a complicated judicial process.
- Can you use "set in motion" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

somewhat (adverb)

To a moderately sufficient extent or degree.

- His arguments were somewhat self-contradictory.
- She spoke "somewhat," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

spanish capital (noun)

The capital and largest city situated centrally in Spain; home of an outstanding art museum.

- In class, the teacher used "spanish capital" to mean the capital and largest city situated centrally in....
- The article explained what "spanish capital" means with a simple example.

---

square foot (noun)

A unit of area equal to one foot by one foot square.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "square foot."
- They discussed "square foot" during the group presentation.

---

surely (adverb)

Definitely or positively ('sure' is sometimes used informally for 'surely').

- The results are surely encouraging.
- Place "surely" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

table turning (noun)

Manipulation of a table during a seance; attributed to spirits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "table turning."

- The article explained what "table turning" means with a simple example.

---

task force (noun)

A semipermanent unit created to carry out a continuing task.

- He looked up "task force" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "task force" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

us constitution (noun)

The constitution written at the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia in 1787 and subsequently ratified by the original thirteen states.

- They discussed "us constitution" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "us constitution" means with a simple example.

---

white goods (noun)

Drygoods for household use that are typically made of white cloth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white goods."
- The article explained what "white goods" means with a simple example.

---

absolute (noun)

Something that is conceived or that exists independently and not in relation to other things; something that does not depend on anything else and is beyond human control; something that is not relative.

- No mortal being can influence the absolute.
- They discussed "absolute" during the group presentation.

---

active birth (noun)

Childbirth during which the mother is encouraged to be an active participant.

- They discussed "active birth" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "active birth" means with a simple example.

---

advertising (noun)

A public promotion of some product or service.

- Understanding "advertising" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "advertising" because he had never seen it before.

---

applied science (noun)

The discipline dealing with the art or science of applying scientific knowledge to practical problems.

- The article explained what "applied science" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "applied science."

---

armed service (noun)

A force that is a branch of the armed forces.

- He looked up "armed service" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "armed service" during the group presentation.

---

army intelligence (noun)

An agency of the United States Army responsible for providing timely and relevant and accurate and synchronized intelligence to tactical and operational and strategic level commanders.

- In class, the teacher used "army intelligence" to mean an agency of the united states army responsible for....
- Understanding "army intelligence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bank holiday (noun)

Any of several weekdays when banks are closed; a legal holiday in Britain.

- Understanding "bank holiday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bank holiday" to mean any of several weekdays when banks are closed; a....

---

bathroom (noun)

A room or building equipped with one or more toilets.

- Understanding "bathroom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bathroom" to mean a room or building equipped with one or more toilets.

bible (noun)

The sacred writings of the Christian religions.

- In class, the teacher used "bible" to mean the sacred writings of the christian religions.
- Understanding "bible" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

church of ireland (noun)

Autonomous branch of the Church of England in Ireland.

- They discussed "church of ireland" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "church of ireland."

citizens committee (noun)

A self-constituted organization to promote something.

- In class, the teacher used "citizens committee" to mean a self-constituted organization to promote something.
- He looked up "citizens committee" because he had never seen it before.

civil rights movement (noun)

Movement in the United States beginning in the 1960s and led primarily by Blacks in an effort to establish the civil rights of individual Black citizens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "civil rights movement."
- Understanding "civil rights movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

commission on the status of women (noun)

The commission of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations that is concerned with the status of women in different societies.

- Understanding "commission on the status of women" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "commission on the status of women" to mean the commission of the economic and social council....

constant (noun)

A number representing a quantity assumed to have a fixed value in a specified mathematical context.

- The velocity of light is a constant.
- He looked up "constant" because he had never seen it before.

corporation law (noun)

That branch of jurisprudence that studies the laws governing corporations.

- Understanding "corporation law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corporation law."

count per minute (noun)

Frequency per minute.

- In class, the teacher used "count per minute" to mean frequency per minute.
- He looked up "count per minute" because he had never seen it before.

cutting room (noun)

A room where films or tapes are edited (by cutting out unwanted parts).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cutting room."
- He looked up "cutting room" because he had never seen it before.

dates (noun)

A particular but unspecified point in time.

- He tried to memorizes all the dates for his history class.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dates."

degrees (noun)

A unit of temperature on a specified scale.

- There are 360 degrees in a circle.
- The article explained what "degrees" means with a simple example.

doors (noun)

A structure where people live or work (usually ordered along a street or road).

- They live two doors up the street from us.
- They discussed "doors" during the group presentation.

---

dry clean (verb)

Clean with chemical agents.

- Learners should practice how to use "dry clean" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "dry clean" and when to wait.

---

empire (noun)

A group of countries under a single authority.

- The British created a great empire.
- In class, the teacher used "empire" to mean a group of countries under a single authority.

---

et al (adverb)

And others ('et al.' is used as an abbreviation of 'et alii' (masculine plural) or 'et aliae' (feminine plural) or 'et alia' (neuter plural) when referring to a number of people).

- The data reported by Smith et al.
- Place "et al" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

expansion (noun)

A function expressed as a sum or product of terms.

- The expansion of (a+b)^2 is a^2 + 2ab + b^2.
- The article explained what "expansion" means with a simple example.

---

great depression (noun)

A period during the 1930s when there was a worldwide economic depression and mass unemployment.

- The article explained what "great depression" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great depression."

---

guest night (noun)

An evening when members of a club or college can bring their friends as guests.

- In class, the teacher used "guest night" to mean an evening when members of a club or college can....
- He looked up "guest night" because he had never seen it before.

---

hang together (verb)

Be connected.

- In my heart I can make the world hang together.
- The coach explained when to use "hang together" and when to wait.

---

heavily (adverb)

To a considerable degree.

- He relied heavily on others' data.
- He walked heavily up the three flights to his room.

---

historical paper (noun)

Writing having historical value (as opposed to fiction or myth etc.).

- He looked up "historical paper" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "historical paper" to mean writing having historical value (as opposed to....

---

in some manner (adverb)

In some unspecified way or manner; or by some unspecified means.

- They managed somehow.
- He expected somehow to discover a woman who would love him.

---

irish (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Ireland or its people.

- The speaker chose "irish" because it captured the feeling precisely.

- Would you call this situation "irish"? Explain why.

---

japanese red army (noun)

A terrorist group organized in 1970 to overthrow the Japanese government and monarchy and to foment world revolution; is said to have close ties with Palestinian terrorists.

- In 1972 the Japanese Red Army was responsible for a massacre at an airport in Israel.
- The article explained what "japanese red army" means with a simple example.

---

lay to rest (verb)

Place in a grave or tomb.

- My grandfather was laid to rest last Sunday.
- Can you use "lay to rest" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

make noise (verb)

Emit a noise.

- The coach explained when to use "make noise" and when to wait.
- Can you use "make noise" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

manage (verb)

Be successful; achieve a goal.

- I managed to carry the box upstairs.
- She managed her parents' affairs after they got too old.

---

messages (noun)

A communication (usually brief) that is written or spoken or signaled.

- He looked up "messages" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "messages" during the group presentation.

---

near vision (noun)

Vision for objects 2 feet or closer to the viewer.

- Understanding "near vision" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "near vision" means with a simple example.

---

non-standard speech (noun)

Speech that differs from the usual accepted, easily recognizable speech of native adult members of a speech community.

- They discussed "non-standard speech" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "non-standard speech."

---

phase space (noun)

(physics) an ideal space in which the coordinate dimensions represent the variables that are required to describe a system or substance.

- A multidimensional phase space.
- They discussed "phase space" during the group presentation.

---

print (noun)

The text appearing in a book, newspaper, or other printed publication.

- I want to see it in print.
- Paw prints were everywhere.

---

quarter section (noun)

A land unit equal to a quarter of a section (160 acres) and measuring 1/2 mile on a side.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quarter section."
- Understanding "quarter section" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

quarter-century (noun)

A period of 25 years.

- They discussed "quarter-century" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "quarter-century" means with a simple example.

---

red giant (noun)

A large, old, luminous star; has a relatively low surface temperature and a diameter large relative to the sun.

- Understanding "red giant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "red giant" means with a simple example.

---

refused (verb)

Resist immunologically the introduction of some foreign tissue or organ.

- He refused my offer of hospitality.
- Learners should practice how to use "refused" in real sentences.

---

reporting (noun)

The news as presented by reporters for newspapers or radio or television.

- Understanding "reporting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reporting."

---

shop window (noun)

A window of a store facing onto the street; used to display merchandise for sale in the store.

- He looked up "shop window" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shop window."

---

signal fire (noun)

A fire set as a signal.

- In class, the teacher used "signal fire" to mean a fire set as a signal.
- He looked up "signal fire" because he had never seen it before.

---

signal light (noun)

A fire set as a signal.

- In class, the teacher used "signal light" to mean a fire set as a signal.
- The article explained what "signal light" means with a simple example.

---

significantly (adverb)

In an important way or to an important degree.

- The two groups differed significantly.
- Our budget will be significantly affected by these new cuts.

---

sing (verb)

Make a whining, ringing, or whistling sound.

- The kettle was singing.
- Sing Christmas carols.

---

soviet (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of the former Soviet Union or its people.

- Soviet leaders.
- It is useful to describe something as "soviet" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of the former....

---

think factory (noun)

A company that does research for hire and issues reports on the implications.

- Understanding "think factory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "think factory" because he had never seen it before.

---

volume unit (noun)

A unit of measurement of volume or capacity.

- He looked up "volume unit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "volume unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

voting age (noun)

The age at which a person is old enough to vote in public elections.

- In class, the teacher used “voting age” to mean the age at which a person is old enough to vote in....
- The article explained what “voting age” means with a simple example.

---

weapon (noun)

A means of persuading or arguing.

- He used all his conversational weapons.
- He was licensed to carry a weapon.

---

widely (adverb)

To or over a great extent or range; far.

- He traveled widely.
- Her work is widely known.

---

written communication (noun)

Communication by means of written symbols (either printed or handwritten).

- The article explained what “written communication” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “written communication” to mean communication by means of written symbols (either....

---

yellow sea (noun)

Part of the Pacific off the east coast of Asia.

- They discussed “yellow sea” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “yellow sea” to mean part of the pacific off the east coast of asia.

---

affected role (noun)

The semantic role of an entity that is not the agent but is directly involved in or affected by the happening denoted by the verb in the clause.

- In class, the teacher used “affected role” to mean the semantic role of an entity that is not the....
- The article explained what “affected role” means with a simple example.

---

ages (noun)

An era of history having some distinctive feature.

- We’ve known each other for ages.
- Understanding “ages” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

anniversary (noun)

The date on which an event occurred in some previous year (or the celebration of it).

- Understanding “anniversary” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “anniversary” during the group presentation.

---

at first sight (adverb)

Immediately.

- It was love at first sight.
- Place “at first sight” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

bell book (noun)

A logbook in which all orders concerning the main engines of a ship are recorded.

- He looked up “bell book” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “bell book” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

british labour party (noun)

A political party formed in Great Britain in 1900; characterized by the promotion of labor’s interests and formerly the socialization of key industries.

- He looked up “british labour party” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “british labour party” during the group presentation.

---

business index (noun)

A statistical compilation that provides a context for economic or financial conditions.

- This business index is computed relative to the base year of 2005.
- He looked up “business index” because he had never seen it before.

chemical change (noun)

(chemistry) any process determined by the atomic and molecular composition and structure of the substances involved.

- He looked up "chemical change" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chemical change."

chemical group (noun)

(chemistry) two or more atoms bound together as a single unit and forming part of a molecule.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chemical group."
- Understanding "chemical group" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

closely (adverb)

In a close relation or position in time or space.

- The onsets were closely timed.
- Houses set closely together.

common fault (noun)

An inclined fault in which the hanging wall appears to have slipped downward relative to the footwall.

- The article explained what "common fault" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "common fault" to mean an inclined fault in which the hanging wall appears....

constantly (adverb)

Without variation or change, in every case.

- Constantly kind and gracious.
- The world is constantly changing.

contest (verb)

To make the subject of dispute, contention, or litigation.

- They contested the outcome of the race.
- Learners should practice how to use "contest" in real sentences.

depends (verb)

Be contingent upon (something that is elided).

- That depends.
- Can you use "depends" in a sentence that fits this situation?

drop-kick (verb)

Make the point after a touchdown with a dropkick.

- Learners should practice how to use "drop-kick" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "drop-kick" carefully so everyone would understand.

duty tour (noun)

A period of time spent in military service.

- Understanding "duty tour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "duty tour" because he had never seen it before.

economic commission for europe (noun)

The commission of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations that is concerned with economic development in Europe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "economic commission for europe."
- He looked up "economic commission for europe" because he had never seen it before.

empty talk (noun)

Loud and confused and empty talk.

- They discussed "empty talk" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "empty talk."

feature of speech (noun)

(linguistics) a distinctive characteristic of a linguistic unit that serves to distinguish it from other units of the same kind.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "feature of speech."
- The article explained what "feature of speech" means with a simple example.

---

field of vision (noun)

All of the points of the physical environment that can be perceived by a stable eye at a given moment.

- They discussed "field of vision" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "field of vision" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fly floor (noun)

A narrow raised platform at the side of a stage in a theater; stagehands can work the ropes controlling equipment in the flies.

- The article explained what "fly floor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fly floor" to mean a narrow raised platform at the side of a stage in....

---

half mile (noun)

A unit of length equal to half of 1 mile.

- Understanding "half mile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half mile."

---

hardly (adverb)

Only a very short time before; ; ; ; ; - W.B.Yeats.

- We hardly knew them.
- He hardly ever goes fishing.

---

hide out (verb)

Be or go into hiding; keep out of sight, as for protection and safety.

- She is hiding out in a cabin in Montana.
- Learners should practice how to use "hide out" in real sentences.

---

home loan bank (noun)

One of 11 regional banks that monitor and make short-term credit advances to thrift institutions in their region.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home loan bank."
- The article explained what "home loan bank" means with a simple example.

---

home plate (noun)

(baseball) base consisting of a rubber slab where the batter stands; it must be touched by a base runner in order to score.

- He ruled that the runner failed to touch home.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home plate."

---

index number (noun)

A number or ratio (a value on a scale of measurement) derived from a series of observed facts; can reveal relative changes as a function of time.

- They discussed "index number" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "index number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

invited (verb)

Request the participation or presence of.

- I invited them to a restaurant.
- We invited the neighbors in for a cup of coffee.

---

kitchen match (noun)

A wooden friction match that will light on any granular surface; useful to light wood or gas stoves.

- The article explained what "kitchen match" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "kitchen match" to mean a wooden friction match that will light on any....

---

lay eyes on (verb)

See with attention.

- He did not know how to use "lay eyes on" until he saw an example.

- Can you use “lay eyes on” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

marine (adjective)

Of or relating to military personnel who serve both on land and at sea (specifically the U.S. Marine Corps).

- Marine barracks.
- Marine explorations.

---

minor term (noun)

The term in a syllogism that is the subject of the conclusion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “minor term.”
- Understanding “minor term” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

modern era (noun)

The present or recent times.

- They discussed “modern era” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “modern era.”

---

motor (noun)

A nonspecific agent that imparts motion.

- Happiness is the aim of all men and the motor of all action.
- The article explained what “motor” means with a simple example.

---

national flag (noun)

An emblem flown as a symbol of nationality.

- In class, the teacher used “national flag” to mean an emblem flown as a symbol of nationality.
- The article explained what “national flag” means with a simple example.

---

national institute of justice (noun)

The law enforcement agency that is the research and development branch of the Department of Justice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “national institute of justice.”
- He looked up “national institute of justice” because he had never seen it before.

---

officially (adverb)

With official authorization.

- Officially, he is in charge.
- Officially responsible.

---

opposite word (noun)

A word that expresses a meaning opposed to the meaning of another word, in which case the two words are antonyms of each other.

- The article explained what “opposite word” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “opposite word” to mean a word that expresses a meaning opposed to the....

---

out of doors (adverb)

Outside a building.

- In summer we play outside.
- She spoke “out of doors,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

out of sight (adverb)

Quietly in concealment.

- The ship disappeared behind the horizon and passed out of sight.
- He answered “out of sight,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

out-of-doors (noun)

Where the air is unconfined.

- He looked up “out-of-doors” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “out-of-doors.”

---

peak (noun)

The most extreme possible amount or value.

- Voltage peak.
- The peak of perfection.

---

platform bed (noun)

A bed without springs.

- In class, the teacher used "platform bed" to mean a bed without springs.
- Understanding "platform bed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pressure suit (noun)

Protective garment consisting of an inflatable suit for space or high altitude flying.

- In class, the teacher used "pressure suit" to mean protective garment consisting of an inflatable suit....
- The article explained what "pressure suit" means with a simple example.

---

prison cell (noun)

A room where a prisoner is kept.

- They discussed "prison cell" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "prison cell" means with a simple example.

---

pure gold (noun)

100 per cent gold.

- He looked up "pure gold" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pure gold."

---

puts (verb)

Arrange thoughts, ideas, temporal events.

- The coach explained when to use "puts" and when to wait.
- Can you use "puts" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

simple sugar (noun)

A sugar (like sucrose or fructose) that does not hydrolyse to give other sugars; the simplest group of carbohydrates.

- He looked up "simple sugar" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "simple sugar."

---

solar (adjective)

Relating to or derived from the sun or utilizing the energies of the sun.

- Solar eclipse.
- Solar energy.

---

somehow (adverb)

In some unspecified way or manner; or by some unspecified means.

- They managed somehow.
- He expected somehow to discover a woman who would love him.

---

straight chair (noun)

A straight-backed chair without arms.

- They discussed "straight chair" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "straight chair" because he had never seen it before.

---

supreme truth (noun)

A terrorist organization whose goal is to take over Japan and then the world; based on a religion founded in 1987 that combines elements of Buddhism with Christianity.

- In class, the teacher used "supreme truth" to mean a terrorist organization whose goal is to take over....
- They discussed "supreme truth" during the group presentation.

---

switch-hit (verb)

Bat right-handed against a left-handed and left-handed against a right-handed pitcher.

- She tried to use "switch-hit" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "switch-hit" when talking about this idea.

---

time constant (noun)

The ratio of the inductance of a circuit in henries to its resistance in ohms.

- They discussed "time constant" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "time constant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tip off (verb)

Give insider information or advise to.

- He tipped off the police about the terrorist plot.
- She tried to use "tip off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tour of duty (noun)

A period of time spent in military service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tour of duty."
- They discussed "tour of duty" during the group presentation.

---

twenty-four hours (noun)

Time for Earth to make a complete rotation on its axis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twenty-four hours."
- He looked up "twenty-four hours" because he had never seen it before.

---

voice communication (noun)

(language) communication by word of mouth.

- Understanding "voice communication" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "voice communication" because he had never seen it before.

---

warning of war (noun)

A warning to national policy makers that an enemy intends war or is preparing for war and is on a course that increases the risk of war.

- The article explained what "warning of war" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "warning of war" during the group presentation.

---

william and mary (noun)

Joint monarchs of England; William III and Mary II.

- The article explained what "william and mary" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "william and mary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air mile (noun)

A unit of length used in navigation; exactly 1,852 meters; historically based on the distance spanned by one minute of arc in latitude.

- The article explained what "air mile" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "air mile" to mean a unit of length used in navigation; exactly 1,852....

---

army national guard (noun)

A civilian reserve component of the United States Army comprised of guardsmen who serve during overseas peacekeeping missions and during local emergencies.

- In class, the teacher used "army national guard" to mean a civilian reserve component of the united states....
- Understanding "army national guard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

assembly program (noun)

A program to convert assembly language into machine language.

- In class, the teacher used "assembly program" to mean a program to convert assembly language into machine....
- The article explained what "assembly program" means with a simple example.

---

at an equal rate (adverb)

Used in legal language.

- Place "at an equal rate" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "at an equal rate" naturally.

automatically (adverb)

In a mechanical manner; by a mechanism.

- He answered automatically.
- Using "automatically" can make your explanation more exact.

bills (noun)

A statute in draft before it becomes law.

- In class, the teacher used "bills" to mean a statute in draft before it becomes law.
- The article explained what "bills" means with a simple example.

breath (noun)

The air that is inhaled and exhaled in respiration.

- His sour breath offended her.
- He took a deep breath and dived into the pool.

brief (noun)

A document stating the facts and points of law of a client's case.

- He looked up "brief" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brief."

church mode (noun)

Any of a system of modes used in Gregorian chants up until 1600; derived historically from the Greek mode.

- He looked up "church mode" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "church mode."

corporate trust (noun)

A consortium of independent organizations formed to limit competition by controlling the production and distribution of a product or service.

- They set up the trust in the hope of gaining a monopoly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corporate trust."

court favor (verb)

Seek favor by fawning or flattery.

- This employee is currying favor with his superordinates.
- In everyday English, people use "court favor" when talking about this idea.

cutting board (noun)

A wooden board where meats or vegetables can be cut.

- He looked up "cutting board" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cutting board."

decade (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of nine and one; the base of the decimal system.

- He looked up "decade" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "decade."

defense reaction (noun)

(psychiatry) an unconscious process that tries to reduce the anxiety associated with instinctive desires.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defense reaction."
- He looked up "defense reaction" because he had never seen it before.

domestic ass (noun)

Domestic beast of burden descended from the African wild ass; patient but stubborn.

- The article explained what "domestic ass" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "domestic ass" during the group presentation.

draft board (noun)

A board to select personnel for involuntary military service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "draft board."
- Understanding "draft board" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drawing room (noun)

A formal room where visitors can be received and entertained.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drawing room."
- He looked up "drawing room" because he had never seen it before.

---

educational program (noun)

A program for providing education.

- The article explained what "educational program" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "educational program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

empire day (noun)

British, anniversary of Queen Victoria's birth.

- Understanding "empire day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "empire day" during the group presentation.

---

factor v (noun)

A coagulation factor.

- The article explained what "factor v" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "factor v" to mean a coagulation factor.

---

false return (noun)

An incorrect income tax return.

- The article explained what "false return" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "false return."

---

family circle (noun)

Rearmost or uppermost area in the balcony containing the least expensive seats.

- He looked up "family circle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "family circle."

---

fantasy (noun)

Something many people believe that is false.

- A schoolgirl fantasy.
- Understanding "fantasy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fill the bill (verb)

Be what is needed or be good enough for what is required.

- Does this restaurant fit the bill for the celebration?
- In everyday English, people use "fill the bill" when talking about this idea.

---

fly-fish (verb)

Fish with flies as lures.

- The coach explained when to use "fly-fish" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "fly-fish" in real sentences.

---

fourth estate (noun)

The press, including journalists, newspaper writers, photographers.

- He looked up "fourth estate" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fourth estate" to mean the press, including journalists, newspaper....

---

ft (noun)

A linear unit of length equal to 12 inches or a third of a yard.

- Understanding "ft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "ft" means with a simple example.

giant star (noun)

A very bright star of large diameter and low density (relative to the Sun).

- The article explained what "giant star" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "giant star" during the group presentation.

ground-service crew (noun)

The crew of technicians and mechanics who service aircraft on the ground.

- He looked up "ground-service crew" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground-service crew."

house arrest (noun)

Confinement to your own home.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house arrest."
- The article explained what "house arrest" means with a simple example.

in brief (adverb)

In a concise manner; in a few words.

- She replied briefly.
- Briefly, we have a problem.

indian file (noun)

A line of persons or things ranged one behind the other.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian file."
- He looked up "indian file" because he had never seen it before.

international mile (noun)

A unit of length equal to 1,760 yards or 5,280 feet; exactly 1609.344 meters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "international mile."
- He looked up "international mile" because he had never seen it before.

kitchen range (noun)

A kitchen appliance used for cooking food.

- The article explained what "kitchen range" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "kitchen range" to mean a kitchen appliance used for cooking food.

lay hands on (verb)

Manage with the hands.

- In everyday English, people use "lay hands on" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "lay hands on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

line item (noun)

An item in an appropriation bill.

- Some governors can veto line items in their state budgets.
- They discussed "line item" during the group presentation.

low blow (noun)

Unscrupulous abuse.

- Understanding "low blow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "low blow."

manufacturing business (noun)

A business engaged in manufacturing some product.

- In class, the teacher used "manufacturing business" to mean a business engaged in manufacturing some product.
- The article explained what "manufacturing business" means with a simple example.

mining company (noun)

A company that owns and manages mines.

- They discussed "mining company" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mining company" to mean a company that owns and manages mines.

---

net fish (verb)

Fish with nets.

- He did not know how to use "net fish" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "net fish" when talking about this idea.

---

new people's army (noun)

A terrorist organization that is the militant wing of the Communist Party of the Philippines; a Maoist organization formed to overthrow the government; uses hit squads called Sparrow Units; opposes United States military presence in the Philippines.

- Understanding "new people's army" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "new people's army" because he had never seen it before.

---

out loud (adverb)

Using the voice; not silently.

- Please read the passage aloud.
- He laughed out loud.

---

pilot (noun)

Something that serves as a model or a basis for making copies.

- In class, the teacher used "pilot" to mean something that serves as a model or a basis for....
- He looked up "pilot" because he had never seen it before.

---

pool table (noun)

Game equipment consisting of a heavy table on which pool is played.

- He looked up "pool table" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pool table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

presidential (adjective)

Relating to a president or presidency.

- Presidential aides.
- Presidential veto.

---

recognize (verb)

Express obligation, thanks, or gratitude for.

- We do not recognize your gods.
- The Regents officially recognized the new educational institution.

---

recovery room (noun)

A hospital room for the care of patients immediately after surgery.

- In class, the teacher used "recovery room" to mean a hospital room for the care of patients....
- The article explained what "recovery room" means with a simple example.

---

regularly (adverb)

In a regular way without variation.

- Letters arrived regularly from his children.
- Regularly shaped objects.

---

side yard (noun)

The grounds at either side of a house.

- The article explained what "side yard" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "side yard" during the group presentation.

---

special delivery (noun)

Mail that is delivered by a special carrier (for an additional charge).

- They discussed "special delivery" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "special delivery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

speed limit (noun)

Regulation establishing the top speed permitted on a given road.

- In class, the teacher used "speed limit" to mean regulation establishing the top speed permitted on....
- The article explained what "speed limit" means with a simple example.

---

storm door (noun)

An extra outer door for protection against severe weather or winter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "storm door."
- He looked up "storm door" because he had never seen it before.

---

survive (verb)

Continue to live through hardship or adversity.

- These superstitions survive in the backwaters of America.
- He survived the cancer against all odds.

---

vote of confidence (noun)

An expression of approval and encouragement.

- They gave the chairman a vote of confidence.
- The article explained what "vote of confidence" means with a simple example.

---

warning light (noun)

A cautionary sign of danger.

- In class, the teacher used "warning light" to mean a cautionary sign of danger.
- The article explained what "warning light" means with a simple example.

---

wedding ring (noun)

A ring (usually plain gold) given to the bride (and sometimes one is also given to the groom) at the wedding.

- Understanding "wedding ring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wedding ring" during the group presentation.

---

window glass (noun)

Sheet glass cut in shapes for windows or doors.

- He looked up "window glass" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "window glass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

zero hour (noun)

The time set for the start of an action or operation.

- Understanding "zero hour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zero hour."

---

ad agency (noun)

An agency that designs advertisement to call public attention to its clients.

- Understanding "ad agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ad agency" to mean an agency that designs advertisement to call public....

---

armed services (noun)

The military forces of a nation.

- They discussed "armed services" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "armed services" because he had never seen it before.

---

basic iron (noun)

Pig iron containing a high percentage of phosphorus; used in making steel by a process that removes the phosphorus.

- Understanding "basic iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basic iron."

cap (noun)

An upper limit on what is allowed.

- They established a cap for prices.
- Understanding "cap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capacity unit (noun)

A unit of measurement of volume or capacity.

- In class, the teacher used "capacity unit" to mean a unit of measurement of volume or capacity.
- The article explained what "capacity unit" means with a simple example.

central vision (noun)

Vision using the fovea and parafovea; the middle part of the visual field.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central vision."
- Understanding "central vision" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chat room (noun)

A site on the internet where a number of users can communicate in real time (typically one dedicated to a particular topic).

- They discussed "chat room" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "chat room" to mean a site on the internet where a number of users can....

check register (noun)

A register of checks issued (usually in numeric order).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "check register."
- Understanding "check register" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

childhood (noun)

The time of person's life when they are a child.

- In class, the teacher used "childhood" to mean the time of person's life when they are a child.
- He looked up "childhood" because he had never seen it before.

covers (noun)

A natural object that covers or envelops.

- He pulled the covers over his head and went to sleep.
- He looked up "covers" because he had never seen it before.

creative thinking (noun)

The ability to create.

- The article explained what "creative thinking" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "creative thinking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cycle per second (noun)

The unit of frequency; one hertz has a periodic interval of one second.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cycle per second."
- He looked up "cycle per second" because he had never seen it before.

defence (noun)

The justification for some act or belief.

- In class, the teacher used "defence" to mean the justification for some act or belief.
- The article explained what "defence" means with a simple example.

democracy (noun)

The political orientation of those who favor government by the people or by their elected representatives.

- The article explained what "democracy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "democracy" to mean the political orientation of those who favor....

equal sign (noun)

A sign indicating that the quantities on either side are equal.

- They discussed "equal sign" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "equal sign" because he had never seen it before.

---

exact (verb)

Take as an undesirable consequence of some event or state of affairs.

- He did not know how to use "exact" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "exact" in real sentences.

---

family bible (noun)

A large Bible with pages to record marriages and births.

- Understanding "family bible" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "family bible" because he had never seen it before.

---

fan mail (noun)

Mail sent to public figures from their admirers.

- He hired someone to answer his fan mail.
- He looked up "fan mail" because he had never seen it before.

---

farm credit system (noun)

A cooperative nationwide system of banks and associations providing credit to farmers and related businesses; originally capitalized by the federal government but now owned by its members and borrowers.

- He looked up "farm credit system" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "farm credit system."

---

fed (noun)

The central bank of the United States; incorporates 12 Federal Reserve branch banks and all national banks and state-chartered commercial banks and some trust companies.

- The Fed seeks to control the United States economy by raising and lowering short-term interest rates and the money supply.
- The article explained what "fed" means with a simple example.

---

growth factor (noun)

A protein that is involved in cell differentiation and growth.

- In class, the teacher used "growth factor" to mean a protein that is involved in cell differentiation....
- They discussed "growth factor" during the group presentation.

---

high-speed steel (noun)

An alloy steel that remains hard at a red heat; used to make metal-cutting tools.

- The article explained what "high-speed steel" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "high-speed steel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

in a broad way (adverb)

In a general fashion.

- The narrator describes the scene "in a broad way" in the final chapter.
- Using "in a broad way" can make your explanation more exact.

---

jan (noun)

The first month of the year; begins 10 days after the winter solstice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jan."
- He looked up "jan" because he had never seen it before.

---

kinds (noun)

A category of things distinguished by some common characteristic or quality.

- What kinds of desserts are there?
- The article explained what "kinds" means with a simple example.

---

lets (noun)

A brutal terrorist group active in Kashmir; fights against India with the goal of restoring Islamic rule of India.

- Understanding "lets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "lets" to mean a brutal terrorist group active in kashmir; fights....

line personnel (noun)

Personnel having direct job performance responsibilities.

- He looked up "line personnel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line personnel."

lock in (verb)

Place in a place where something cannot be removed or someone cannot escape.

- The parents locked her daughter up for the weekend.
- She locked her jewels in the safe.

manner name (noun)

A word that denotes a manner of doing something.

- He looked up "manner name" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manner name."

minor role (noun)

A small role.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "minor role."
- He looked up "minor role" because he had never seen it before.

motor home (noun)

A recreational vehicle equipped for camping out while traveling.

- He looked up "motor home" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "motor home."

news item (noun)

An item in a newspaper.

- Understanding "news item" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "news item" means with a simple example.

night-sight (noun)

The ability to see in reduced illumination (as in moonlight).

- He looked up "night-sight" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "night-sight" during the group presentation.

not by a long sight (adverb)

Definitely not.

- And that isn't all, not by a long sight.
- Place "not by a long sight" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

objects (noun)

A tangible and visible entity; an entity that can cast a shadow.

- It was full of rackets, balls and other objects.
- Objects of thought.

old irish (noun)

Irish Gaelic up to about 1100.

- In class, the teacher used "old irish" to mean irish gaelic up to about 1100.
- The article explained what "old irish" means with a simple example.

paper chain (noun)

A chain made of loops of colored paper; used to decorate a room.

- The article explained what "paper chain" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "paper chain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

purposes (noun)

An anticipated outcome that is intended or that guides your planned actions.

- The article explained what "purposes" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purposes."

---

quote (noun)

A passage or expression that is quoted or cited.

- In class, the teacher used "quote" to mean a passage or expression that is quoted or cited.
- They discussed "quote" during the group presentation.

---

red flag (noun)

A flag that serves as a warning signal.

- We didn't swim at the beach because the red flag was up.
- Doing that is like waving a red flag in front of a bull.

---

remain firm (verb)

Hold one's ground; maintain a position; be steadfast or upright.

- Learners should practice how to use "remain firm" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "remain firm" until he saw an example.

---

rose window (noun)

Circular window filled with tracery.

- The article explained what "rose window" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rose window."

---

second empire (noun)

The imperial government of Napoleon III in France from 1852-1870.

- Understanding "second empire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "second empire" to mean the imperial government of napoleon iii in france....

---

second sight (noun)

Apparent power to perceive things that are not present to the senses.

- They discussed "second sight" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "second sight" because he had never seen it before.

---

solar day (noun)

Time for Earth to make a complete rotation on its axis.

- Two days later they left.
- They put on two performances every day.

---

solar year (noun)

The time for the earth to make one revolution around the sun, measured between two vernal equinoxes.

- Understanding "solar year" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "solar year" to mean the time for the earth to make one revolution....

---

special branch (noun)

A government police department dealing with political security.

- They discussed "special branch" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "special branch" because he had never seen it before.

---

statements (noun)

A fact or assertion offered as evidence that something is true.

- He looked up "statements" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "statements" during the group presentation.

---

storage room (noun)

A room in which things are stored.

- He looked up "storage room" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "storage room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

supreme court of the united states (noun)

The highest federal court in the United States; has final appellate jurisdiction and has jurisdiction over all other courts in the nation.

- They discussed "supreme court of the united states" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supreme court of the united states."

---

suspect (verb)

Imagine to be the case or true or probable.

- I suspect he is a fugitive.
- The U.S. suspected Bin Laden as the mastermind behind the terrorist attacks.

---

swear (verb)

To declare or affirm solemnly and formally as true.

- Before God I swear I am innocent.
- I swear by my grandmother's recipes.

---

swear in (verb)

Administer on oath to.

- Can you use "swear in" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "swear in" and when to wait.

---

system error (noun)

An instruction that is either not recognized by an operating system or is in violation of the procedural rules.

- The article explained what "system error" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "system error" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

take the cake (verb)

Rank first; used often in a negative context.

- He takes the cake for chutzpah!
- The coach explained when to use "take the cake" and when to wait.

---

techniques (noun)

A practical method or art applied to some particular task.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "techniques."
- Understanding "techniques" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tie in (verb)

Be in connection with something relevant.

- This ties in closely with his earlier remarks.
- He did not know how to use "tie in" until he saw an example.

---

tip-top (adverb)

To the highest extent.

- The shoes fit me tip-top.
- Using "tip-top" can make your explanation more exact.

---

trend (noun)

A general tendency to change (as of opinion).

- Not openly liberal but that is the trend of the book.
- The trend of the stock market.

---

twenty-seven (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-six and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twenty-seven."
- He looked up "twenty-seven" because he had never seen it before.

united states intelligence community (noun)

A group of government agencies and organizations that carry out intelligence activities for the United States government; headed by the Director of Central Intelligence.

- The article explained what "united states intelligence community" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "united states intelligence community" to mean a group of government agencies and organizations....

united states supreme court (noun)

The highest federal court in the United States; has final appellate jurisdiction and has jurisdiction over all other courts in the nation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states supreme court."
- Understanding "united states supreme court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

walk-up apartment (noun)

An apartment in a building without an elevator.

- They discussed "walk-up apartment" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "walk-up apartment."

window seat (noun)

A bench or similar seat built into a window recess.

- The article explained what "window seat" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "window seat" during the group presentation.

yards (noun)

The enclosed land around a house or other building.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yards."
- The article explained what "yards" means with a simple example.

approval (noun)

A message expressing a favorable opinion.

- Words of approval seldom passed his lips.
- His decision merited the approval of any sensible person.

army of the pure (noun)

A brutal terrorist group active in Kashmir; fights against India with the goal of restoring Islamic rule of India.

- The article explained what "army of the pure" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "army of the pure" during the group presentation.

australian labor party (noun)

The oldest political party in Australia, founded in 1891; the party is moderately liberal.

- Understanding "australian labor party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "australian labor party" means with a simple example.

bed of flowers (noun)

A bed in which flowers are growing.

- Understanding "bed of flowers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bed of flowers."

carbon black (noun)

A black colloidal substance consisting wholly or principally of amorphous carbon and used to make pigments and ink.

- In class, the teacher used "carbon black" to mean a black colloidal substance consisting wholly or....
- Understanding "carbon black" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

christian religion (noun)

A monotheistic system of beliefs and practices based on the Old Testament and the teachings of Jesus as embodied in the New Testament and emphasizing the role of Jesus as savior.

- In class, the teacher used "christian religion" to mean a monotheistic system of beliefs and practices....
- The article explained what "christian religion" means with a simple example.

cold-water flat (noun)

An apartment without modern conveniences.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cold-water flat."
- He looked up "cold-water flat" because he had never seen it before.

---

common salt (noun)

A white crystalline solid consisting mainly of sodium chloride (NaCl).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common salt."
- The article explained what "common salt" means with a simple example.

---

contain (verb)

Hold back, as of a danger or an enemy; check the expansion or influence of.

- Contain the rebel movement.
- The record contains many old songs from the 1930's.

---

department of energy intelligence (noun)

An agency that collects political and economic and technical information about energy matters and makes the Department of Energy's technical and analytical expertise available to other members of the Intelligence Community.

- Understanding "department of energy intelligence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "department of energy intelligence" during the group presentation.

---

dirty story (noun)

An indelicate joke.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dirty story."
- He looked up "dirty story" because he had never seen it before.

---

dry cell (noun)

A small Leclanche cell containing no free liquid; the electrolyte is a paste and the negative zinc pole forms the container of the cell; used in flashlights, portable radios, etc.

- The article explained what "dry cell" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dry cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

empty words (noun)

Loud and confused and empty talk.

- He looked up "empty words" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "empty words."

---

en (noun)

Half the width of an em.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "en."
- Understanding "en" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

entertainment industry (noun)

Those involved in providing entertainment: radio and television and films and theater.

- Understanding "entertainment industry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "entertainment industry."

---

equivalent (noun)

A person or thing equal to another in value or measure or force or effect or significance etc.

- Send two dollars or the equivalent in stamps.
- In class, the teacher used "equivalent" to mean a person or thing equal to another in value or....

---

fairly (adverb)

To a moderately sufficient extent or degree.

- He is fairly clever with computers.
- Deal fairly with one another.

---

fantasy life (noun)

An imaginary life lived in a fantasy world.

- In class, the teacher used "fantasy life" to mean an imaginary life lived in a fantasy world.

- The article explained what "fantasy life" means with a simple example.

---

fantasy world (noun)

Something existing solely in the imagination (but often mistaken for reality).

- He looked up "fantasy world" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fantasy world" to mean something existing solely in the imagination (but....

---

ford (noun)

A shallow area in a stream that can be forded.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ford."
- The article explained what "ford" means with a simple example.

---

founded (verb)

Use as a basis for; found on.

- In everyday English, people use "founded" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "founded" in real sentences.

---

functions (noun)

A formal or official social gathering or ceremony.

- A seemingly endless round of social functions.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "functions."

---

gang (noun)

An association of criminals.

- Police tried to break up the gang.
- They discussed "gang" during the group presentation.

---

get wise (verb)

Understand, usually after some initial difficulty.

- Learners should practice how to use "get wise" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "get wise" and when to wait.

---

greek (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Greece or the Greeks or the Greek language.

- Greek mythology.
- Students compared "greek" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

hair shirt (noun)

An uncomfortable shirt made of coarse animal hair; worn next to the skin as a penance.

- He looked up "hair shirt" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hair shirt" during the group presentation.

---

hair-shirt (adjective)

Self-sacrificing or austere.

- A "hair-shirt" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hair-shirt."

---

home theatre (noun)

Television and video equipment designed to reproduce in the home the experience of being in a movie theater.

- In class, the teacher used "home theatre" to mean television and video equipment designed to....
- The article explained what "home theatre" means with a simple example.

---

identity card (noun)

A card certifying the identity of the bearer.

- He had to show his card to get in.
- Understanding "identity card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

in the same breath (adverb)

Simultaneously.

- She praised and criticized him in the same breath.
- Place "in the same breath" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

islands (noun)

A land mass (smaller than a continent) that is surrounded by water.

- In class, the teacher used "islands" to mean a land mass (smaller than a continent) that is....
- Understanding "islands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kitchen table (noun)

A table in the kitchen.

- He looked up "kitchen table" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "kitchen table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

land mile (noun)

A unit of length equal to 1,760 yards or 5,280 feet; exactly 1609.344 meters.

- In class, the teacher used "land mile" to mean a unit of length equal to 1,760 yards or 5,280....
- Understanding "land mile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

loan collection (noun)

A number of pictures loaned by their owners for exhibition.

- Understanding "loan collection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loan collection."

---

lock up (verb)

Place in a place where something cannot be removed or someone cannot escape.

- The parents locked her daughter up for the weekend.
- She locked her jewels in the safe.

---

magic square (noun)

A square matrix of n rows and columns; the first n^2 integers are arranged in the cells of the matrix in such a way that the sum of any row or column or diagonal is the same.

- Understanding "magic square" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "magic square" during the group presentation.

---

master of arts (noun)

A master's degree in arts and sciences.

- The article explained what "master of arts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "master of arts" to mean a master's degree in arts and sciences.

---

memories (noun)

The power of retaining and recalling past experience.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "memories."
- He looked up "memories" because he had never seen it before.

---

military reserve (noun)

Armed forces that are not on active duty but can be called in an emergency.

- The article explained what "military reserve" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "military reserve" to mean armed forces that are not on active duty but can be....

---

minor key (noun)

A key based on the minor scale.

- He looked up "minor key" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "minor key."

Food & Cooking

recipe (noun)

A list of ingredients and instructions that tells you how to cook or prepare a particular dish.

- This soup recipe only needs five ingredients.
- My grandmother gave me her secret recipe for apple pie.

---

boil (verb)

To heat a liquid until it becomes very hot and produces bubbles; to cook food in very hot water.

- Boil the water before you add the pasta.
- He boiled two eggs for breakfast this morning.

---

delicious (adjective)

Having a very pleasant taste or smell.

- The pizza at that restaurant is absolutely delicious.
- Thank you for dinner — everything was delicious!

---

ingredient (noun)

One of the foods or substances that are combined to make a dish.

- Flour is the main ingredient in bread.
- Check that you have all the ingredients before you start cooking.

---

fry (verb)

To cook food in hot oil or fat.

- She fried the eggs in a little butter.
- Do not fry the chicken for too long.

---

bake (verb)

To cook food in an oven using dry heat.

- He baked a chocolate cake for her birthday.
- We bake bread every weekend.

---

spicy (adjective)

Having a strong, hot flavor from spices such as chili.

- This curry is too spicy for the children.
- I love spicy food, especially Thai dishes.

---

hungry (adjective)

Feeling that you want or need to eat.

- I am hungry — let's get some lunch.
- The dog looked hungry after the long walk.

---

taste (verb / noun)

To notice the flavor of food; also, the flavor itself.

- Taste the soup and tell me if it needs more salt.
- This ice cream has a sweet taste.

---

snack (noun)

A small amount of food eaten between meals.

- She ate an apple as a snack after school.
- Potato chips are not a healthy snack.

---

breakfast (noun)

The first meal of the day, usually eaten in the morning.

- Breakfast is the most important meal of the day.
- We had eggs and toast for breakfast.

---

knife (noun)

A tool with a sharp blade used for cutting food.

- Be careful with that sharp knife.
- He cut the bread with a long knife.

---

oven (noun)

A kitchen appliance used for baking or roasting food.

- Put the cake in the oven for thirty minutes.
- The oven is still hot, so do not touch it.

---

have a good time (verb)

Enjoy oneself greatly.

- He did not know how to use "have a good time" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "have a good time" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

use (verb)

Take or consume (regularly or habitually).

- She uses drugs rarely.
- Use your head!

---

use up (verb)

Use up (resources or materials).

- Learners should practice how to use "use up" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "use up" when talking about this idea.

---

live in (verb)

Live in the house where one works.

- Our babysitter lives in, as it is too far to commute for her.
- Can you use "live in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

be full (verb)

Be sated, have enough to eat.

- I'm full–don't give me any more beans, please.
- Learners should practice how to use "be full" in real sentences.

---

white (noun)

The white part of an egg; the nutritive and protective gelatinous substance surrounding the yolk consisting mainly of albumin dissolved in water.

- She separated the whites from the yolks of several eggs.
- They discussed "white" during the group presentation.

---

live out (verb)

Work in a house where one does not live.

- Our cook lives out; he can easily commute from his home.
- The coach explained when to use "live out" and when to wait.

---

live it up (verb)

Enjoy oneself.

- It's your birthday, so let's live it up!
- The coach explained when to use "live it up" and when to wait.

---

take away (verb)

Buy and consume food from a restaurant or establishment that sells prepared food.

- We'll take out pizza, since I am too tired to cook.
- Their dreams carried the Romantics away into distant lands.

---

food (noun)

Any solid substance (as opposed to liquid) that is used as a source of nourishment.

- Food and drink.
- He looked up "food" because he had never seen it before.

bit (noun)

A small amount of solid food; a mouthful.

- All they had left was a bit of bread.
- A bit of paper.

hit it up (verb)

Become drunk or drink excessively.

- He did not know how to use "hit it up" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "hit it up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

take a hit (verb)

Inhale through the nose.

- Can you use "take a hit" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "take a hit" when talking about this idea.

food company (noun)

A company that processes and sells food.

- The article explained what "food company" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "food company" during the group presentation.

side order (noun)

A dish that is served with, but is subordinate to, a main course.

- The article explained what "side order" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "side order" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

food for thought (noun)

Anything that provides mental stimulus for thinking.

- Understanding "food for thought" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "food for thought."

eat (verb)

Worry or cause anxiety in a persistent way.

- What's eating you?
- She was eating a banana.

eat in (verb)

Eat at home.

- In everyday English, people use "eat in" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "eat in" in real sentences.

fast (verb)

Abstain from certain foods, as for religious or medical reasons.

- Catholics sometimes fast during Lent.
- Before the medical exam, you must fast.

eat at (verb)

Become ground down or deteriorate.

- Can you use "eat at" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "eat at" until he saw an example.

eat on (verb)

Worry or cause anxiety in a persistent way.

- What's eating you?
- In everyday English, people use "eat on" when talking about this idea.

health food (noun)

Any natural or prepared food popularly believed to promote good health.

- In class, the teacher used "health food" to mean any natural or prepared food popularly believed to....
- The article explained what "health food" means with a simple example.

---

eat out (verb)

Eat at a restaurant or at somebody else's home.

- Learners should practice how to use "eat out" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "eat out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

eat up (verb)

Enclose or envelop completely, as if by swallowing.

- He did not know how to use "eat up" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "eat up" when talking about this idea.

---

half-and-half (noun)

Half milk and half light cream; contains 10% to 18% butterfat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half-and-half."
- They discussed "half-and-half" during the group presentation.

---

food court (noun)

An area (as in a shopping mall) where fast food is sold (usually around a common eating area).

- They discussed "food court" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "food court" to mean an area (as in a shopping mall) where fast food is....

---

short order (noun)

An order for food that can be prepared quickly.

- He looked up "short order" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "short order" to mean an order for food that can be prepared quickly.

---

short-order (adjective)

Of or relating to food that can be prepared quickly.

- A short-order cook.
- A "short-order" approach may work better in this case.

---

eat into (verb)

Gnaw into; make resentful or angry.

- She tried to use "eat into" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "eat into" when talking about this idea.

---

card (noun)

A list of dishes available at a restaurant.

- He collected cards and traded them with the other boys.
- He had to show his card to get in.

---

food market (noun)

A marketplace where groceries are sold.

- The grocery store included a meat market.
- Understanding "food market" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mine (verb)

Get from the earth by excavation.

- Mine ores and metals.
- The Vietnamese mined Cambodia.

---

main course (noun)

The principal dish of a meal.

- In class, the teacher used "main course" to mean the principal dish of a meal.

- Understanding "main course" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

staff of life (noun)

Food made from dough of flour or meal and usually raised with yeast or baking powder and then baked.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "staff of life."
- He looked up "staff of life" because he had never seen it before.

eat away (verb)

Remove soil or rock.

- Learners should practice how to use "eat away" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "eat away" carefully so everyone would understand.

top round (noun)

Roast cut from the round; usually suitable for roasting.

- They discussed "top round" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "top round" to mean roast cut from the round; usually suitable for roasting.

food bank (noun)

A place where food is contributed and made available to those in need.

- They set up a food bank for the flood victims.
- He looked up "food bank" because he had never seen it before.

track down (verb)

Pursue for food or sport (as of wild animals).

- In everyday English, people use "track down" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "track down" until he saw an example.

free-base (verb)

Use (purified cocaine) by burning it and inhaling the fumes.

- The coach explained when to use "free-base" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "free-base" carefully so everyone would understand.

red lead (noun)

A reddish oxide of lead (Pb3O4) used as a pigment in paints and in glass and ceramics.

- The article explained what "red lead" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "red lead" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

brain (noun)

The brain of certain animals used as meat.

- He's got plenty of brains but no common sense.
- Understanding "brain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fast food (noun)

Inexpensive food (hamburgers or chicken or milkshakes) prepared and served quickly.

- He looked up "fast food" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fast food" during the group presentation.

red hot (noun)

A frankfurter served hot on a bun.

- In class, the teacher used "red hot" to mean a frankfurter served hot on a bun.
- They discussed "red hot" during the group presentation.

dog food (noun)

Food prepared for dogs.

- Understanding "dog food" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dog food" to mean food prepared for dogs.

sweet (noun)

A dish served as the last course of a meal.

- In class, the teacher used "sweet" to mean a dish served as the last course of a meal.
- He looked up "sweet" because he had never seen it before.

---

fish (noun)

The flesh of fish used as food.

- In Japan most fish is eaten raw.
- After the scare about foot-and-mouth disease a lot of people started eating fish instead of meat.

---

ready-to-eat (adjective)

Food products that are prepared in advance and can be eaten as sold.

- It is useful to describe something as "ready-to-eat" when it is food products that are prepared in advance and can....
- The speaker chose "ready-to-eat" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

drink up (verb)

Drink to the last drop.

- Drink up–there's more wine coming.
- He did not know how to use "drink up" until he saw an example.

---

ice water (noun)

Water served ice-cold or with ice.

- Understanding "ice water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ice water" because he had never seen it before.

---

water ice (noun)

An ice containing no milk but having a mushy consistency; usually made from fruit juice.

- Americans like ice in their drinks.
- Understanding "water ice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

white russian (noun)

A cocktail made with vodka, coffee liqueur, and milk or cream.

- In class, the teacher used "white russian" to mean a cocktail made with vodka, coffee liqueur, and....
- Understanding "white russian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

helped (verb)

Help to some food; help with food or drink.

- I served him three times, and after that he helped himself.
- Everyone helped out during the earthquake.

---

uses (verb)

Take or consume (regularly or habitually).

- She uses drugs rarely.
- She uses her influential friends to get jobs.

---

pop (noun)

A sweet drink containing carbonated water and flavoring.

- They discussed "pop" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pop" means with a simple example.

---

coffee (noun)

A beverage consisting of an infusion of ground coffee beans.

- He ordered a cup of coffee.
- He looked up "coffee" because he had never seen it before.

---

drink down (verb)

Drink down entirely.

- He downed three martinis before dinner.
- Learners should practice how to use "drink down" in real sentences.

---

evening (noun)

The early part of night (from dinner until bedtime) spent in a special way.

- An evening at the opera.
- He enjoyed the evening light across the lake.

---

serve (verb)

Help to some food; help with food or drink.

- I served him three times, and after that he helped himself.
- The tree stump serves as a table.

---

serve up (verb)

Provide (usually but not necessarily food).

- We serve meals for the homeless.
- The entertainers served up a lively show.

---

hot dog (noun)

A smooth-textured sausage of minced beef or pork usually smoked; often served on a bread roll.

- They discussed "hot dog" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "hot dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

poor boy (noun)

A large sandwich made of a long crusty roll split lengthwise and filled with meats and cheese (and tomato and onion and lettuce and condiments); different names are used in different sections of the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "poor boy" to mean a large sandwich made of a long crusty roll split....
- Understanding "poor boy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

food product (noun)

A substance that can be used or prepared for use as food.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "food product."
- He looked up "food product" because he had never seen it before.

---

hard drink (noun)

An alcoholic beverage that is distilled rather than fermented.

- They discussed "hard drink" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "hard drink" to mean an alcoholic beverage that is distilled rather than....

---

served (verb)

Help to some food; help with food or drink.

- I served him three times, and after that he helped himself.
- The female students served as a control group.

---

spread (noun)

A meal that is well prepared and greatly enjoyed.

- They put out quite a spread.
- The spread between lending and borrowing costs.

---

chinese date (noun)

Dark red plumlike fruit of Old World buckthorn trees.

- They discussed "chinese date" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "chinese date" because he had never seen it before.

---

food color (noun)

A digestible substance used to give color to food.

- Food color made from vegetable dyes.
- The article explained what "food color" means with a simple example.

hair of the dog (noun)

An alcoholic drink supposed to cure a hangover.

- Understanding "hair of the dog" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hair of the dog" because he had never seen it before.

dinner (noun)

A party of people assembled to have dinner together.

- Guests should never be late to a dinner party.
- Dinner will be at 8.

food fish (noun)

Any fish used for food by human beings.

- In class, the teacher used "food fish" to mean any fish used for food by human beings.
- He looked up "food fish" because he had never seen it before.

helping (noun)

An individual quantity of food or drink taken as part of a meal.

- The helpings were all small.
- They discussed "helping" during the group presentation.

host (noun)

A technical name for the bread used in the service of Mass or Holy Communion.

- Atlanta was chosen to be host for the Olympic Games.
- Understanding "host" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

plant food (noun)

Any substance such as manure or a mixture of nitrates used to make soil more fertile.

- The article explained what "plant food" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "plant food" to mean any substance such as manure or a mixture of....

apple (noun)

Fruit with red or yellow or green skin and sweet to tart crisp whitish flesh.

- Understanding "apple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "apple" to mean fruit with red or yellow or green skin and sweet to....

date bar (noun)

Fruit bar containing chopped dates.

- They discussed "date bar" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "date bar" means with a simple example.

do drugs (verb)

Use recreational drugs.

- Learners should practice how to use "do drugs" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "do drugs" and when to wait.

frank (noun)

A smooth-textured sausage of minced beef or pork usually smoked; often served on a bread roll.

- Understanding "frank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "frank" to mean a smooth-textured sausage of minced beef or pork....

gas oil (noun)

An oil formed through distillation of petroleum of intermediate boiling range and viscosity.

- They discussed "gas oil" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "gas oil" because he had never seen it before.

treat (verb)

Provide with choice or abundant food or drink.

- Don't worry about the expensive wine–I'm treating.
- She treated her houseguests with good food every night.

---

fix up (verb)

Find (something or someone) for.

- I'll fix you up with a nice girl.
- Learners should practice how to use "fix up" in real sentences.

---

fresh food (noun)

Food that is not preserved by canning or dehydration or freezing or smoking.

- Understanding "fresh food" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fresh food" during the group presentation.

---

strong drink (noun)

An alcoholic beverage that is distilled rather than fermented.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strong drink."
- The article explained what "strong drink" means with a simple example.

---

dinner set (noun)

A table service for serving dinner.

- Understanding "dinner set" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dinner set" because he had never seen it before.

---

international scale (noun)

A temperature scale that defines the freezing point of water as 0 degrees and the boiling point of water as 100 degrees.

- Understanding "international scale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "international scale" during the group presentation.

---

may wine (noun)

A punch made of Moselle and sugar and sparkling water or champagne flavored with sweet woodruff.

- Understanding "may wine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "may wine" because he had never seen it before.

---

food waste (noun)

Food that is discarded (as from a kitchen).

- Understanding "food waste" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "food waste" because he had never seen it before.

---

in good taste (adjective)

Satisfying generally accepted social or esthetic standards.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "in good taste."
- A "in good taste" approach may work better in this case.

---

soul food (noun)

Food traditionally eaten by African-Americans in the South.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soul food."
- The article explained what "soul food" means with a simple example.

---

beer (noun)

A general name for alcoholic beverages made by fermenting a cereal (or mixture of cereals) flavored with hops.

- In class, the teacher used "beer" to mean a general name for alcoholic beverages made by....
- The article explained what "beer" means with a simple example.

---

dinner party (noun)

A party of people assembled to have dinner together.

- Guests should never be late to a dinner party.

- Understanding "dinner party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dinner service (noun)

A table service for serving dinner.

- The article explained what "dinner service" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dinner service" during the group presentation.

sweet cup (noun)

The edible yellow fruit of the Jamaica honeysuckle.

- In class, the teacher used "sweet cup" to mean the edible yellow fruit of the jamaica honeysuckle.
- He looked up "sweet cup" because he had never seen it before.

cat food (noun)

Food prepared for cats.

- In class, the teacher used "cat food" to mean food prepared for cats.
- They discussed "cat food" during the group presentation.

coffee break (noun)

A snack taken during a break in the work day.

- A ten-minute coffee break.
- The British have tea breaks.

high tea (noun)

Substantial early evening meal including tea.

- In class, the teacher used "high tea" to mean substantial early evening meal including tea.
- He looked up "high tea" because he had never seen it before.

sweet oil (noun)

Mild vegetable oil when used as food; especially olive or edible rape oil.

- Understanding "sweet oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sweet oil" means with a simple example.

christian science (noun)

Protestant denomination founded by Mary Baker Eddy in 1866.

- They discussed "christian science" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "christian science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hard roll (noun)

Yeast-raised roll with a hard crust.

- In class, the teacher used "hard roll" to mean yeast-raised roll with a hard crust.
- They discussed "hard roll" during the group presentation.

sugar (noun)

A white crystalline carbohydrate used as a sweetener and preservative.

- In class, the teacher used "sugar" to mean a white crystalline carbohydrate used as a....
- The article explained what "sugar" means with a simple example.

change taste (verb)

Alter the flavor of.

- In everyday English, people use "change taste" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "change taste" in real sentences.

feed on (verb)

Be sustained by.

- In everyday English, people use "feed on" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "feed on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

white wine (noun)

Pale yellowish wine made from white grapes or red grapes with skins removed before fermentation.

- He looked up “white wine” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “white wine” to mean pale yellowish wine made from white grapes or red....

black tea (noun)

Fermented tea leaves.

- The article explained what “black tea” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “black tea” during the group presentation.

bottom round (noun)

Cut from the round; suitable for pot roast.

- The article explained what “bottom round” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “bottom round” during the group presentation.

lunch (verb)

Provide a midday meal for.

- She lunched us well.
- At what time are you lunching?

milk (noun)

A white nutritious liquid secreted by mammals and used as food by human beings.

- The article explained what “milk” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “milk” to mean a white nutritious liquid secreted by mammals and....

second joint (noun)

The upper joint of the leg of a fowl.

- He looked up “second joint” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “second joint” during the group presentation.

cook (verb)

Transform and make suitable for consumption by heating.

- These potatoes have to cook for 20 minutes.
- My husband doesn’t cook.

drinking water (noun)

Water suitable for drinking.

- They discussed “drinking water” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “drinking water” to mean water suitable for drinking.

food web (noun)

(ecology) a community of organisms where there are several interrelated food chains.

- In class, the teacher used “food web” to mean (ecology) a community of organisms where there are....
- The article explained what “food web” means with a simple example.

solid food (noun)

Any solid substance (as opposed to liquid) that is used as a source of nourishment.

- Food and drink.
- They discussed “solid food” during the group presentation.

cook out (verb)

Cook outdoors on a barbecue grill.

- We cooked out in the forest.
- Learners should practice how to use “cook out” in real sentences.

cook up (verb)

Prepare or cook by mixing ingredients.

- He did not know how to use “cook up” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “cook up” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

red wine (noun)

Wine having a red color derived from skins of dark-colored grapes.

- Understanding “red wine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “red wine” during the group presentation.

---

tv dinner (noun)

A meal that is prepared in advance and frozen; can be heated and served.

- In class, the teacher used “tv dinner” to mean a meal that is prepared in advance and frozen; can....
- The article explained what “tv dinner” means with a simple example.

---

white beer (noun)

A general name for beers made from wheat by top fermentation; usually very pale and cloudy and effervescent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “white beer.”
- Understanding “white beer” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

meat (noun)

The inner and usually edible part of a seed or grain or nut or fruit stone.

- The article explained what “meat” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “meat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

free lunch (noun)

Something acquired without effort or payment or obligation.

- There is no free lunch in politics or Hollywood.
- He looked up “free lunch” because he had never seen it before.

---

ice coffee (noun)

A strong sweetened coffee served over ice with cream.

- They discussed “ice coffee” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “ice coffee” to mean a strong sweetened coffee served over ice with cream.

---

sugar water (noun)

Water sweetened with sugar.

- The article explained what “sugar water” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “sugar water” during the group presentation.

---

surface mine (verb)

Extract (ore) from a strip-mine.

- She tried to use “surface mine” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “surface mine” until he saw an example.

---

surface-mine (verb)

Extract (ore) from a strip-mine.

- In everyday English, people use “surface-mine” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “surface-mine” until he saw an example.

---

alcohol (noun)

A liquor or brew containing alcohol as the active agent.

- Alcohol (or drink) ruined him.
- In class, the teacher used “alcohol” to mean a liquor or brew containing alcohol as the active agent.

---

business lunch (noun)

Lunch (usually at a restaurant) where business is discussed and the cost is charged as a business expense.

- In class, the teacher used “business lunch” to mean lunch (usually at a restaurant) where business is....
- The article explained what “business lunch” means with a simple example.

draft (noun)

A serving of drink (usually alcoholic) drawn from a keg.

- They served beer on draft.
- A preliminary draft.

light beer (noun)

Lager with reduced alcohol content.

- He looked up "light beer" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "light beer" to mean lager with reduced alcohol content.

ready-mix (noun)

A commercial preparation containing most of the ingredients for a dish.

- In class, the teacher used "ready-mix" to mean a commercial preparation containing most of the....
- He looked up "ready-mix" because he had never seen it before.

breakfast time (noun)

The customary or habitual hour for eating breakfast.

- In class, the teacher used "breakfast time" to mean the customary or habitual hour for eating breakfast.
- Understanding "breakfast time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

near beer (noun)

Drink that resembles beer but with less than 1/2 percent alcohol.

- He looked up "near beer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "near beer."

salt (noun)

The taste experience when common salt is taken into the mouth.

- He looked up "salt" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "salt" during the group presentation.

sense of taste (noun)

The faculty of distinguishing sweet, sour, bitter, and salty properties in the mouth.

- His cold deprived him of his sense of taste.
- Understanding "sense of taste" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tea break (noun)

A snack taken during a break in the work day.

- A ten-minute coffee break.
- The British have tea breaks.

whole milk (noun)

Milk from which no constituent (such as fat) has been removed.

- Understanding "whole milk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "whole milk" because he had never seen it before.

red planet (noun)

A small reddish planet that is the 4th from the sun and is periodically visible to the naked eye; minerals rich in iron cover its surface and are responsible for its characteristic color.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red planet."
- Understanding "red planet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

skin pop (verb)

Inject (drugs) into the skin.

- Learners should practice how to use "skin pop" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "skin pop" when talking about this idea.

food chain (noun)

(ecology) a community of organisms where each member is eaten in turn by another member.

- They discussed "food chain" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "food chain" because he had never seen it before.

---

green tea (noun)

Tea leaves that have been steamed and dried without fermenting.

- They discussed "green tea" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "green tea" means with a simple example.

---

taste property (noun)

A property appreciated via the sense of taste.

- Understanding "taste property" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "taste property" means with a simple example.

---

white meat (noun)

Meat carved from the breast of a fowl.

- He looked up "white meat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white meat."

---

diet (verb)

Follow a regimen or a diet, as for health reasons.

- He has high blood pressure and must stick to a low-salt diet.
- She tried to use "diet" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fruit (noun)

The consequence of some effort or action.

- He lived long enough to see the fruit of his policies.
- Understanding "fruit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

side of meat (noun)

A lengthwise dressed half of an animal's carcass used for food.

- They discussed "side of meat" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "side of meat" because he had never seen it before.

---

bird food (noun)

Food given to birds; usually mixed seeds.

- The article explained what "bird food" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bird food" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

force-feed (verb)

Feed someone who will not or cannot eat.

- The coach explained when to use "force-feed" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "force-feed" until he saw an example.

---

power breakfast (noun)

A meeting of influential people to conduct business while eating breakfast.

- In class, the teacher used "power breakfast" to mean a meeting of influential people to conduct business....
- The article explained what "power breakfast" means with a simple example.

---

single cream (noun)

Cream that has at least 18% butterfat.

- In England they call light cream 'single cream'.
- In class, the teacher used "single cream" to mean cream that has at least 18% butterfat.

---

breakfast area (noun)

A place for light meals (usually near a kitchen).

- The breakfast nook had a built in table and seats.

- Understanding "breakfast area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

breakfast food (noun)

Any food (especially cereal) usually served for breakfast.

- They discussed "breakfast food" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "breakfast food" to mean any food (especially cereal) usually served for....

---

california wine (noun)

Any of various wines produced in California.

- The article explained what "california wine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "california wine" during the group presentation.

---

coffee royal (noun)

Black coffee with Cognac and lemon peel and sugar.

- They discussed "coffee royal" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coffee royal."

---

lunch period (noun)

The customary or habitual hour for eating lunch.

- He observed a regular lunchtime.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lunch period."

---

plate (noun)

A main course served on a plate.

- A vegetable plate.
- The blue plate special.

---

red meat (noun)

Meat that is dark in color before cooking (as beef, venison, lamb, mutton).

- Understanding "red meat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "red meat" to mean meat that is dark in color before cooking (as beef,....

---

feed upon (verb)

Be sustained by.

- The coach explained when to use "feed upon" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "feed upon" until he saw an example.

---

food cycle (noun)

(ecology) a community of organisms where there are several interrelated food chains.

- In class, the teacher used "food cycle" to mean (ecology) a community of organisms where there are....
- The article explained what "food cycle" means with a simple example.

---

ice tea (noun)

Strong tea served over ice.

- The article explained what "ice tea" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ice tea" to mean strong tea served over ice.

---

light cream (noun)

Cream that has at least 18% butterfat.

- In England they call light cream 'single cream'.
- Understanding "light cream" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lunch meeting (noun)

A meeting for lunch; usually to conduct business while eating.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lunch meeting."
- He looked up "lunch meeting" because he had never seen it before.

---

branch water (noun)

Pure natural water from a stream or brook; often distinguished from soda water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "branch water."
- Understanding "branch water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coffee ring (noun)

Ring-shaped coffeecake with fruits or nuts and often iced.

- In class, the teacher used "coffee ring" to mean ring-shaped coffeecake with fruits or nuts and....
- Understanding "coffee ring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cut of meat (noun)

A piece of meat that has been cut from an animal carcass.

- In class, the teacher used "cut of meat" to mean a piece of meat that has been cut from an animal....
- He looked up "cut of meat" because he had never seen it before.

---

dry unit (noun)

A unit of capacity for dry commodities (as fruit or grain).

- They discussed "dry unit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dry unit" means with a simple example.

---

food and drug administration (noun)

A federal agency in the Department of Health and Human Services established to regulate the release of new foods and health-related products.

- They discussed "food and drug administration" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "food and drug administration" because he had never seen it before.

---

spring roll (noun)

Minced vegetables and meat wrapped in a pancake and fried.

- He looked up "spring roll" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spring roll" to mean minced vegetables and meat wrapped in a pancake and....

---

american cheese (noun)

Hard smooth-textured cheese; originally made in Cheddar in southwestern England.

- The article explained what "american cheese" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "american cheese" during the group presentation.

---

fish stick (noun)

A long fillet of fish breaded and fried.

- He looked up "fish stick" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fish stick."

---

james cook (noun)

English navigator who claimed the east coast of Australia for Britain and discovered several Pacific islands (1728-1779).

- He looked up "james cook" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "james cook."

---

sweet roll (noun)

Any of numerous yeast-raised sweet rolls with our without raisins or nuts or spices or a glaze.

- They discussed "sweet roll" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sweet roll" means with a simple example.

---

brown sugar (noun)

Unrefined or only partly refined sugar.

- Understanding "brown sugar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "brown sugar" to mean unrefined or only partly refined sugar.

---

hand cheese (noun)

Any cheese originally molded by hand.

- Understanding “hand cheese” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “hand cheese” because he had never seen it before.

---

white rice (noun)

Having husk or outer brown layers removed.

- In class, the teacher used “white rice” to mean having husk or outer brown layers removed.
- The article explained what “white rice” means with a simple example.

---

bread (noun)

Food made from dough of flour or meal and usually raised with yeast or baking powder and then baked.

- In class, the teacher used “bread” to mean food made from dough of flour or meal and usually....
- Understanding “bread” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coffee roll (noun)

Any of numerous yeast-raised sweet rolls with our without raisins or nuts or spices or a glaze.

- The article explained what “coffee roll” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “coffee roll” to mean any of numerous yeast-raised sweet rolls with our....

---

eating apple (noun)

An apple used primarily for eating raw without cooking.

- In class, the teacher used “eating apple” to mean an apple used primarily for eating raw without cooking.
- The article explained what “eating apple” means with a simple example.

---

eggs (noun)

Oval reproductive body of a fowl (especially a hen) used as food.

- Understanding “eggs” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “eggs” during the group presentation.

---

fingers (noun)

The length of breadth of a finger used as a linear measure.

- Her fingers were long and thin.
- In class, the teacher used “fingers” to mean the length of breadth of a finger used as a linear....

---

ice milk (noun)

Similar to ice cream but made of milk.

- He looked up “ice milk” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “ice milk” during the group presentation.

---

light diet (noun)

Diet prescribed for bedridden or convalescent people; does not include fried or highly seasoned foods.

- In class, the teacher used “light diet” to mean diet prescribed for bedridden or convalescent....
- Understanding “light diet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

meat safe (noun)

A safe for storing meat.

- In class, the teacher used “meat safe” to mean a safe for storing meat.
- Understanding “meat safe” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

monthly (noun)

A periodical that is published every month (or 12 issues per year).

- They discussed “monthly” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “monthly.”

---

natural selection (noun)

A natural process resulting in the evolution of organisms best adapted to the environment.

- They discussed “natural selection” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “natural selection” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

neighborhood (noun)

The approximate amount of something (usually used prepositionally as in 'in the region of').

- The price is in the neighborhood of $100.
- He always blames someone else in the immediate neighborhood.

nose out (verb)

Recognize or detect by or as if by smelling.

- He can smell out trouble.
- In everyday English, people use "nose out" when talking about this idea.

operate (verb)

Direct or control; projects, businesses, etc.

- Do not operate machinery after imbibing alcohol.
- The doctors operated on the patient but failed to save his life.

pack ice (noun)

A large expanse of floating ice.

- Understanding "pack ice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pack ice" during the group presentation.

press cutting (noun)

An excerpt cut from a newspaper or magazine.

- They discussed "press cutting" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "press cutting" means with a simple example.

public-service corporation (noun)

A company that performs a public service; subject to government regulation.

- They discussed "public-service corporation" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public-service corporation."

reply (noun)

The speech act of continuing a conversational exchange.

- He growled his reply.
- He looked up "reply" because he had never seen it before.

rid of (verb)

Do away with.

- Learners should practice how to use "rid of" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "rid of" when talking about this idea.

roman (adjective)

Of or relating to or supporting Romanism.

- The Roman Catholic Church.
- Roman virtues.

second law of motion (noun)

The rate of change of momentum is proportional to the imposed force and goes in the direction of the force.

- They discussed "second law of motion" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "second law of motion" because he had never seen it before.

small print (noun)

The part of a contract that contains reservations and qualifications that are often printed in small type.

- Don't sign a contract without reading the fine print.
- He needed his glasses in order to read the fine print.

straight chain (noun)

An open chain of atoms with no side chains.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "straight chain."
- The article explained what "straight chain" means with a simple example.

---

swear out (verb)

Deliver a warrant or summons to someone.

- The coach explained when to use "swear out" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "swear out" in real sentences.

---

talk turkey (verb)

Discuss frankly, often in a business context.

- She tried to use "talk turkey" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "talk turkey" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

tea-like drink (noun)

A beverage that resembles tea but is not made from tea leaves.

- He looked up "tea-like drink" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tea-like drink."

---

ten thousand (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and one thousand.

- They discussed "ten thousand" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ten thousand."

---

tower (verb)

Appear very large or occupy a commanding position.

- In everyday English, people use "tower" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "tower" in real sentences.

---

tradition (noun)

An inherited pattern of thought or action.

- Understanding "tradition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tradition" because he had never seen it before.

---

twenty percent (noun)

One part in five equal parts.

- He looked up "twenty percent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twenty percent."

---

twenty-eight (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-seven and one.

- The article explained what "twenty-eight" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twenty-eight."

---

use of goods and services (noun)

(economics) the utilization of economic goods to satisfy needs or in manufacturing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "use of goods and services."
- They discussed "use of goods and services" during the group presentation.

---

visual (adjective)

Relating to or using sight.

- Visual powers.
- Visual navigation.

---

wise up (verb)

Cause someone to become aware of something.

- They wised up to it.

- He did not know how to use “wise up” until he saw an example.

a la mode (adverb)

With ice cream on top or on the side.

- We served the apple pie a la mode.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “a la mode” naturally.

academic program (noun)

(education) a program of education in liberal arts and sciences (usually in preparation for higher education).

- The article explained what “academic program” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “academic program” to mean (education) a program of education in liberal arts....

achieved (verb)

To gain with effort.

- She achieved her goal despite setbacks.
- In everyday English, people use “achieved” when talking about this idea.

admitted (verb)

Declare to be true or admit the existence or reality or truth of.

- He admitted his errors.
- She was admitted to the New Jersey Bar.

articles of agreement (noun)

A contract between crew and captain of a ship.

- Understanding “articles of agreement” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “articles of agreement” because he had never seen it before.

assembly language (noun)

A low-level programing language; close approximation to machine language.

- He looked up “assembly language” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “assembly language” to mean a low-level programing language; close....

barely (adverb)

Only a very short time before; ; ; ; ; - W.B.Yeats.

- They could barely hear the speaker.
- A barely furnished room.

bc (adverb)

Before the Christian era; used following dates before the supposed year Christ was born.

- In 200 BC.
- The narrator describes the scene “bc” in the final chapter.

bill of goods (noun)

Communication (written or spoken) that persuades someone to accept something untrue or undesirable.

- They tried to sell me a bill of goods about a secondhand car.
- In class, the teacher used “bill of goods” to mean communication (written or spoken) that persuades....

by small degrees (adverb)

By a short distance.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “by small degrees” naturally.
- Place “by small degrees” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

celebrate (verb)

Behave as expected during of holidays or rites.

- Celebrate Christmas.
- The film director was celebrated all over Hollywood.

chemical action (noun)

(chemistry) any process determined by the atomic and molecular composition and structure of the substances involved.

- He looked up "chemical action" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chemical action" to mean (chemistry) any process determined by the atomic....

---

chemical process (noun)

(chemistry) any process determined by the atomic and molecular composition and structure of the substances involved.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chemical process."
- Understanding "chemical process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chocolate (noun)

A food made from roasted ground cacao beans.

- He looked up "chocolate" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "chocolate" during the group presentation.

---

coal (noun)

A hot fragment of wood or coal that is left from a fire and is glowing or smoldering.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coal."
- He looked up "coal" because he had never seen it before.

---

dark meat (noun)

The flesh of the legs of fowl used as food.

- The article explained what "dark meat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dark meat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dna (noun)

(biochemistry) a long linear polymer found in the nucleus of a cell and formed from nucleotides and shaped like a double helix; associated with the transmission of genetic information.

- DNA is the king of molecules.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dna."

---

economic and social council commission (noun)

A commission of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations.

- The article explained what "economic and social council commission" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "economic and social council commission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

economic commission for africa (noun)

The commission of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations that is concerned with economic development of African nations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "economic commission for africa."
- Understanding "economic commission for africa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

effectively (adverb)

In actuality or reality or fact.

- She is effectively his wife.
- These are real problems that can be dealt with most effectively by rational discussion.

---

essential oil (noun)

An oil having the odor or flavor of the plant from which it comes; used in perfume and flavorings.

- He looked up "essential oil" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "essential oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

factor of safety (noun)

The ratio of the breaking stress of a structure to the estimated maximum stress in ordinary use.

- Understanding "factor of safety" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "factor of safety" means with a simple example.

---

federal reserve (noun)

The central bank of the United States; incorporates 12 Federal Reserve branch banks and all national banks and state-chartered commercial banks and some trust companies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal reserve."
- They discussed "federal reserve" during the group presentation.

---

filed (verb)

Place in a container for keeping records.

- The students filed into the classroom.
- Learners should practice how to use "filed" in real sentences.

---

finance committee (noun)

A committee appointed to consider financial issues.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "finance committee."
- He looked up "finance committee" because he had never seen it before.

---

fought (verb)

Exert oneself continuously, vigorously, or obtrusively to gain an end or engage in a crusade for a certain cause or person; be an advocate for.

- The tribesmen fought each other.
- He fought for breath.

---

gang up (verb)

Act as an organized group.

- She tried to use "gang up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "gang up" and when to wait.

---

green goods (noun)

Fresh fruits and vegetable grown for the market.

- The article explained what "green goods" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "green goods" to mean fresh fruits and vegetable grown for the market.

---

high comedy (noun)

A sophisticated comedy; often satirizing genteel society.

- The article explained what "high comedy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "high comedy" to mean a sophisticated comedy; often satirizing genteel....

---

house of representatives (noun)

The lower legislative house of the United States Congress.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house of representatives."
- Understanding "house of representatives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hunt (noun)

An instance of searching for something.

- The hunt for submarines.
- The article explained what "hunt" means with a simple example.

---

inch (noun)

A unit of measurement for advertising space.

- He looked up "inch" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inch."

---

initially (adverb)

At the beginning.

- Using "initially" can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene "initially" in the final chapter.

---

jury (noun)

A committee appointed to judge a competition.

- Understanding "jury" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jury" means with a simple example.

korean (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Korea or its people or language.

- Korean handicrafts.
- Students compared "korean" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

license number (noun)

The number on the license plate that identifies the car that bears it.

- He looked up "license number" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "license number."

lift out (verb)

Take out or up with or as if with a scoop.

- Scoop the sugar out of the container.
- In everyday English, people use "lift out" when talking about this idea.

main entry word (noun)

The form of a word that heads a lexical entry and is alphabetized in a dictionary.

- The article explained what "main entry word" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "main entry word" to mean the form of a word that heads a lexical entry and....

minor fast day (noun)

One of five minor fast days on the Jewish calendar.

- They discussed "minor fast day" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "minor fast day" because he had never seen it before.

new greek (noun)

The Greek language as spoken and written today.

- In class, the teacher used "new greek" to mean the greek language as spoken and written today.
- They discussed "new greek" during the group presentation.

normal distribution (noun)

A theoretical distribution with finite mean and variance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "normal distribution."
- He looked up "normal distribution" because he had never seen it before.

normal fault (noun)

An inclined fault in which the hanging wall appears to have slipped downward relative to the footwall.

- The article explained what "normal fault" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "normal fault" to mean an inclined fault in which the hanging wall appears....

olympic (adjective)

Of the region of Olympia in Greece or its inhabitants.

- Olympic winners.
- The speaker chose "olympic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

passing note (noun)

A nonharmonic note inserted for transition between harmonic notes.

- The article explained what "passing note" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "passing note."

philosophy (noun)

Any personal belief about how to live or how to deal with a situation.

- Self-indulgence was his only philosophy.
- My father's philosophy of child-rearing was to let mother do it.

pressure-cook (verb)

Cook in a pressure cooker.

- Learners should practice how to use "pressure-cook" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "pressure-cook" and when to wait.

---

process cheese (noun)

Made by blending several lots of cheese.

- He looked up "process cheese" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "process cheese."

---

promised (verb)

Make a prediction about; tell in advance.

- The results promised fame and glory.
- In everyday English, people use "promised" when talking about this idea.

---

repeat (verb)

To say, state, or perform again.

- He did not know how to use "repeat" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "repeat" and when to wait.

---

reserve bank (noun)

One of 12 regional banks that monitor and act as depositories for banks in their region.

- Understanding "reserve bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "reserve bank" means with a simple example.

---

safety factor (noun)

The ratio of the breaking stress of a structure to the estimated maximum stress in ordinary use.

- The article explained what "safety factor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "safety factor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shipping company (noun)

A company that provides shipping services.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shipping company."
- The article explained what "shipping company" means with a simple example.

---

solar system (noun)

The sun with the celestial bodies that revolve around it in its gravitational field.

- In class, the teacher used "solar system" to mean the sun with the celestial bodies that revolve....
- The article explained what "solar system" means with a simple example.

---

sought (adjective)

That is looked for.

- The long sought relatives.
- It is useful to describe something as "sought" when it is that is looked for.

---

standard temperature (noun)

Exactly zero degrees centigrade.

- The article explained what "standard temperature" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "standard temperature" to mean exactly zero degrees centigrade.

---

suggests (verb)

Make a proposal, declare a plan for something.

- The evidence suggests a need for more clarification.
- In everyday English, people use "suggests" when talking about this idea.

---

swear off (verb)

Promise to abstain from.

- I have sworn off cigarettes altogether.

- He did not know how to use “swear off” until he saw an example.

take aim (verb)

Point or cause to go (blows, weapons, or objects such as photographic equipment) towards.

- Please don’t aim at your little brother!
- Take a swipe at one’s opponent.

taste cell (noun)

An epithelial cell in a taste bud that activates sensory fibers of the facial nerve or the glossopharyngeal nerve or the vagus nerve.

- The article explained what “taste cell” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “taste cell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

topic (noun)

The subject matter of a conversation or discussion.

- It was a very sensitive topic.
- He kept drifting off the topic.

united nations agency (noun)

An agency of the United Nations.

- Understanding “united nations agency” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “united nations agency” means with a simple example.

universal (noun)

A behavioral convention or pattern characteristic of all members of a particular culture or of all human beings.

- Some form of religion seems to be a human universal.
- In motor vehicles a universal joint allows the driveshaft to move up and down as the vehicle passes over bumps.

white cake (noun)

Cake made without egg yolks.

- The article explained what “white cake” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “white cake” to mean cake made without egg yolks.

back-formation (noun)

A word invented (usually unwittingly by subtracting an affix) on the assumption that a familiar word derives from it.

- They discussed “back-formation” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “back-formation” because he had never seen it before.

bed and breakfast (noun)

An overnight boardinghouse with breakfast.

- The article explained what “bed and breakfast” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bed and breakfast.”

bed-and-breakfast (noun)

An overnight boardinghouse with breakfast.

- They discussed “bed-and-breakfast” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “bed-and-breakfast” to mean an overnight boardinghouse with breakfast.

beyond measure (adverb)

In excess or without limit.

- Amazed beyond measure.
- The narrator describes the scene “beyond measure” in the final chapter.

breakfast table (noun)

A table where breakfast is eaten.

- They discussed “breakfast table” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “breakfast table.”

chemical industry (noun)

The manufacturers of chemicals considered collectively.

- In class, the teacher used "chemical industry" to mean the manufacturers of chemicals considered collectively.
- He looked up "chemical industry" because he had never seen it before.

cost-benefit analysis (noun)

An analysis of the cost effectiveness of different alternatives in order to see whether the benefits outweigh the costs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cost-benefit analysis."
- They discussed "cost-benefit analysis" during the group presentation.

exists (verb)

Have an existence, be extant.

- Learners should practice how to use "exists" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "exists" and when to wait.

field strength unit (noun)

An electromagnetic unit of magnetic intensity.

- They discussed "field strength unit" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "field strength unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

finger (noun)

The length of breadth of a finger used as a linear measure.

- Her fingers were long and thin.
- They discussed "finger" during the group presentation.

golden rule (noun)

A command based on Jesus' words in the Sermon on the Mount; (Matthew 7:12).

- The golden rule of teaching is to be clear.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golden rule."

hold tight (verb)

Hold firmly, usually with one's hands.

- In everyday English, people use "hold tight" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "hold tight" in real sentences.

ignore (verb)

Give little or no attention to.

- She tried to use "ignore" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "ignore" and when to wait.

intelligence agency (noun)

A unit responsible for gathering and interpreting information about an enemy.

- He looked up "intelligence agency" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intelligence agency."

international labor organization (noun)

The United Nations agency concerned with the interests of labor.

- They discussed "international labor organization" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "international labor organization" to mean the united nations agency concerned with the....

latin (adjective)

Of or relating to the ancient region of Latium.

- Latin towns.
- Latin verb conjugations.

live steam (noun)

Steam coming from a boiler at full pressure.

- In class, the teacher used "live steam" to mean steam coming from a boiler at full pressure.
- He looked up "live steam" because he had never seen it before.

---

lock away (verb)

Place in a place where something cannot be removed or someone cannot escape.

- The parents locked her daughter up for the weekend.
- She locked her jewels in the safe.

---

master of library science (noun)

A master's degree in library science.

- In class, the teacher used "master of library science" to mean a master's degree in library science.
- They discussed "master of library science" during the group presentation.

---

meal (noun)

The food served and eaten at one time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "meal."
- He looked up "meal" because he had never seen it before.

---

mean solar time (noun)

(astronomy) time based on the motion of the mean sun (an imaginary sun moving uniformly along the celestial equator).

- They discussed "mean solar time" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mean solar time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

meanwhile (noun)

The time between one event, process, or period and another.

- Meanwhile the socialists are running the government.
- In class, the teacher used "meanwhile" to mean the time between one event, process, or period and....

---

motion picture (noun)

A form of entertainment that enacts a story by sound and a sequence of images giving the illusion of continuous movement.

- In class, the teacher used "motion picture" to mean a form of entertainment that enacts a story by....
- They discussed "motion picture" during the group presentation.

---

national trading policy (noun)

A government's policy controlling foreign trade.

- The article explained what "national trading policy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "national trading policy" to mean a government's policy controlling foreign trade.

---

navy department (noun)

A former executive department of the United States government; created in 1798 and combined with the War Department in 1947.

- In class, the teacher used "navy department" to mean a former executive department of the united states....
- The article explained what "navy department" means with a simple example.

---

necessarily (adverb)

In such a manner as could not be otherwise.

- It is necessarily so.
- Such expenses are necessarily incurred.

---

new criticism (noun)

Literary criticism based on close analysis of the text.

- The article explained what "new criticism" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "new criticism" to mean literary criticism based on close analysis of the text.

---

newspaper article (noun)

An article reporting news.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "newspaper article."
- He looked up "newspaper article" because he had never seen it before.

partnership (noun)

A cooperative relationship between people or groups who agree to share responsibility for achieving some specific goal.

- Effective language learning is a partnership between school, teacher and student.
- The action teams worked in partnership with the government.

percentage (noun)

A proportion in relation to a whole (which is usually the amount per hundred).

- He looked up "percentage" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "percentage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pocket (noun)

A small isolated group of people.

- They were concentrated in pockets inside the city.
- The battle was won except for cleaning up pockets of resistance.

primarily (adverb)

Of primary import.

- This is primarily a question of economics.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "primarily" naturally.

regardless (adverb)

In spite of everything; without regard to drawbacks.

- He carried on regardless of the difficulties.
- He answered "regardless," which changed the tone of the conversation.

religious festival (noun)

A festival having religious significance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "religious festival."
- He looked up "religious festival" because he had never seen it before.

represents (verb)

Serve as a means of expressing something.

- The flower represents a young girl.
- This sum represents my entire income for a year.

resulting (verb)

Issue or terminate (in a specified way, state, etc.); end.

- He did not know how to use "resulting" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "resulting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

rose wine (noun)

Pinkish table wine from red grapes whose skins were removed after fermentation began.

- Understanding "rose wine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "rose wine" means with a simple example.

rough up (verb)

Treat violently.

- Learners should practice how to use "rough up" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "rough up" carefully so everyone would understand.

second childhood (noun)

Mental infirmity as a consequence of old age; sometimes shown by foolish infatuations.

- Understanding "second childhood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "second childhood" to mean mental infirmity as a consequence of old age;....

smell out (verb)

Recognize or detect by or as if by smelling.

- He can smell out trouble.
- I smell trouble.

---

smell up (verb)

Cause to smell bad; fill with a bad smell.

- The coach explained when to use "smell up" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "smell up" in real sentences.

---

soft drink (noun)

Nonalcoholic beverage (usually carbonated).

- He looked up "soft drink" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "soft drink" to mean nonalcoholic beverage (usually carbonated).

---

solid solution (noun)

A homogeneous solid that can exist over a range of component chemicals; a constituent of alloys that is formed when atoms of an element are incorporated into the crystals of a metal.

- In class, the teacher used "solid solution" to mean a homogeneous solid that can exist over a range of....
- The article explained what "solid solution" means with a simple example.

---

star fruit (noun)

Deeply ridged yellow-brown tropical fruit; used raw as a vegetable or in salad or when fully ripe as a dessert.

- Understanding "star fruit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "star fruit" means with a simple example.

---

supplies (noun)

An amount of something available for use.

- The article explained what "supplies" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "supplies" during the group presentation.

---

symptoms (noun)

Anything that accompanies X and is regarded as an indication of X's existence.

- Understanding "symptoms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "symptoms" means with a simple example.

---

trust corporation (noun)

An organization (usually with a commercial bank) that is engaged as a trustee or fiduciary or agent in handling trust funds or estates of custodial arrangements or stock transfers or related services.

- He looked up "trust corporation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trust corporation."

---

turn of expression (noun)

A distinctive spoken or written expression.

- John's succinct turn of phrase persuaded her that it would not be a good idea.
- Understanding "turn of expression" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

unit investment trust (noun)

A regulated investment company consisting of professional managers who issue redeemable securities representing a portfolio of many different securities.

- You can invest in a unit investment trust for as little as $1000.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "unit investment trust."

---

universal time (noun)

The local time at the 0 meridian passing through Greenwich, England; it is the same everywhere.

- Understanding "universal time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "universal time" means with a simple example.

---

upper-case letter (noun)

One of the large alphabetic characters used as the first letter in writing or printing proper names and sometimes for emphasis.

- Printers once kept the type for capitals and for small letters in separate cases; capitals were kept in the upper half of the type case and so became known as upper-case letters.

- The article explained what "upper-case letter" means with a simple example.

---

us cabinet (noun)

A board to advise the President; members are the secretaries of executive departments; the United States constitution does not provide for the cabinet.

- In class, the teacher used "us cabinet" to mean a board to advise the president; members are the....
- Understanding "us cabinet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

us house of representatives (noun)

The lower legislative house of the United States Congress.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "us house of representatives."
- He looked up "us house of representatives" because he had never seen it before.

---

wood spirit (noun)

A light volatile flammable poisonous liquid alcohol; used as an antifreeze and solvent and fuel and as a denaturant for ethyl alcohol.

- In class, the teacher used "wood spirit" to mean a light volatile flammable poisonous liquid....
- Understanding "wood spirit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

audio (noun)

The audible part of a transmitted signal.

- They always raise the audio for commercials.
- Understanding "audio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bond paper (noun)

A superior quality of strong durable white writing paper; originally made for printing documents.

- The article explained what "bond paper" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bond paper."

---

bottle bill (noun)

A statute that would require merchants to reclaim used bottles.

- The article explained what "bottle bill" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bottle bill" to mean a statute that would require merchants to reclaim....

---

british crown (noun)

The symbol of the power of the British monarchy.

- Members of the British Commonwealth owe allegiance to the British Crown.
- He looked up "british crown" because he had never seen it before.

---

bullshit (verb)

Speak insincerely or without regard for facts or truths.

- Can you use "bullshit" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "bullshit" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

carbon process (noun)

A process of printing on paper coated with bichromated gelatin containing pigment.

- In class, the teacher used "carbon process" to mean a process of printing on paper coated with....
- They discussed "carbon process" during the group presentation.

---

chain letter (noun)

A letter that is sent successively to several people.

- The article explained what "chain letter" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "chain letter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chamber (noun)

A deliberative or legislative or administrative or judicial assembly.

- The upper chamber is the senate.
- The chambers of his heart were healthy.

---

christmas factor (noun)

Coagulation factor whose absence is associated with hemophilia B.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "christmas factor."
- He looked up "christmas factor" because he had never seen it before.

---

cold-cream (verb)

Put cold cream on one's face.

- He did not know how to use "cold-cream" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "cold-cream" in real sentences.

---

communication theory (noun)

The discipline that studies the principles of transmiting information and the methods by which it is delivered (as print or radio or television etc.).

- Communications is his major field of study.
- The article explained what "communication theory" means with a simple example.

---

constitution of the united states (noun)

The constitution written at the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia in 1787 and subsequently ratified by the original thirteen states.

- Understanding "constitution of the united states" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "constitution of the united states" during the group presentation.

---

contemporary world (noun)

The circumstances and ideas of the present age.

- The article explained what "contemporary world" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "contemporary world" to mean the circumstances and ideas of the present age.

---

culture medium (noun)

(bacteriology) a nutrient substance (solid or liquid) that is used to cultivate micro-organisms.

- They discussed "culture medium" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "culture medium" means with a simple example.

---

defend (verb)

Be the defense counsel for someone in a trial.

- Ms. Smith will represent the defendant.
- She tried to use "defend" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

department of the interior (noun)

The United States federal department charged with conservation and the development of natural resources; created in 1849.

- Understanding "department of the interior" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "department of the interior" during the group presentation.

---

dinner dress (noun)

A gown for evening wear.

- They discussed "dinner dress" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dinner dress" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dirty word (noun)

A word that is considered to be unmentionable.

- 'failure' is a dirty word to him.
- In class, the teacher used "dirty word" to mean a word that is considered to be unmentionable.

---

dollar sign (noun)

A symbol of commercialism or greed.

- He worships the almighty dollar.
- The dollar sign means little to him.

---

double cream (noun)

Fresh soft French cheese containing at least 60% fat.

- They discussed "double cream" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "double cream" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

every inch (adverb)

In every way; completely.

- He was every inch a statesman.
- Using "every inch" can make your explanation more exact.

---

gap (noun)

An open or empty space in or between things.

- The explosion made a gap in the wall.
- Gap between income and outgo.

---

global climate change (noun)

A change in the world's climate.

- He looked up "global climate change" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "global climate change."

---

hang by a hair (verb)

Depend on a small thing or be at risk.

- His life now hangs by a thread.
- The coach explained when to use "hang by a hair" and when to wait.

---

household (noun)

A social unit living together.

- It was a good Christian household.
- They discussed "household" during the group presentation.

---

hunt down (verb)

Pursue for food or sport (as of wild animals).

- Goering often hunted wild boars in Poland.
- The Duke hunted in these woods.

---

ice cream (noun)

Frozen dessert containing cream and sugar and flavoring.

- They discussed "ice cream" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ice cream" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

interior department (noun)

The United States federal department charged with conservation and the development of natural resources; created in 1849.

- He looked up "interior department" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "interior department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

joint-stock company (noun)

A company (usually unincorporated) which has the capital of its members pooled in a common fund; transferable shares represent ownership interest; shareholders are legally liable for all debts of the company.

- In class, the teacher used "joint-stock company" to mean a company (usually unincorporated) which has the....
- He looked up "joint-stock company" because he had never seen it before.

---

letters of administration (noun)

Legal document naming someone to administer an estate when no executor has been named.

- Understanding "letters of administration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "letters of administration" means with a simple example.

---

line of defence (noun)

Any organization whose responsibility it is to defend against something.

- Police are the major line of defense against crime.
- They discussed "line of defence" during the group presentation.

mean solar day (noun)

Time for Earth to make a complete rotation on its axis.

- Two days later they left.
- They put on two performances every day.

mental capacity (noun)

Mental ability.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mental capacity."
- They discussed "mental capacity" during the group presentation.

new latin (noun)

Latin since the Renaissance; used for scientific nomenclature.

- He looked up "new latin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new latin."

nights (noun)

The dark part of the diurnal cycle considered a time unit.

- Three nights later he collapsed.
- They discussed "nights" during the group presentation.

north peak (noun)

19,370 feet high.

- Understanding "north peak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "north peak" because he had never seen it before.

occur (verb)

To be found to exist.

- Sexism occurs in many workplaces.
- Precious stones occur in a large area in Brazil.

print media (noun)

A medium that disseminates printed matter.

- The article explained what "print media" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "print media" to mean a medium that disseminates printed matter.

proposal (noun)

The act of making a proposal.

- They listened to her proposal.
- He looked up "proposal" because he had never seen it before.

recognition (noun)

An acceptance (as of a claim) as true and valid.

- The recognition of the Rio Grande as a boundary between Mexico and the United States.
- The partners were delighted with the recognition of their work.

register language (noun)

A tone language that uses different voice registers.

- The article explained what "register language" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "register language."

reputation (noun)

The general estimation that the public has for a person.

- He acquired a reputation as an actor before he started writing.
- His reputation for promiscuity.

self-expression (noun)

The expression of one's individuality (usually through creative activities).

- The article explained what "self-expression" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "self-expression" during the group presentation.

---

shortly (adverb)

In a curt, abrupt and discourteous manner.

- He said shortly that he didn't like it.
- He was at the airport shortly before she was expected to arrive.

---

small cap (noun)

A corporation with a small capitalization.

- This annual conference is a showcase for ambitious small caps.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "small cap."

---

still-hunt (verb)

Hunt (quarry) by stalking and ambushing.

- Learners should practice how to use "still-hunt" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "still-hunt" when talking about this idea.

---

strongly (adverb)

With strength or in a strong manner.

- Argues very strongly for his proposal.
- He was strongly opposed to the government.

---

surface mail (noun)

Mail that is sent by land or sea.

- Understanding "surface mail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surface mail."

---

table salt (noun)

White crystalline form of especially sodium chloride used to season and preserve food.

- He looked up "table salt" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "table salt."

---

technique (noun)

A practical method or art applied to some particular task.

- In class, the teacher used "technique" to mean a practical method or art applied to some....
- The article explained what "technique" means with a simple example.

---

temperature unit (noun)

A unit of measurement for temperature.

- He looked up "temperature unit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "temperature unit."

---

third law of motion (noun)

Action and reaction are equal and opposite.

- He looked up "third law of motion" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "third law of motion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

to that extent (adverb)

To the degree or extent that.

- Insofar as it can be ascertained, the horse lung is comparable to that of man.
- She spoke "to that extent," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

tone down (verb)

Make less strong or intense; soften.

- Tone down that aggressive letter.

- The coach explained when to use "tone down" and when to wait.

---

trend line (noun)

A line on a graph indicating a statistical trend.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trend line."
- The article explained what "trend line" means with a simple example.

---

united states constitution (noun)

The constitution written at the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia in 1787 and subsequently ratified by the original thirteen states.

- He looked up "united states constitution" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "united states constitution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

warning of attack (noun)

A warning to national policy makers that an enemy intends to launch an attack in the near future.

- They discussed "warning of attack" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "warning of attack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

absolute space (noun)

Physical space independent of what occupies it.

- The article explained what "absolute space" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "absolute space" to mean physical space independent of what occupies it.

---

advertising department (noun)

The division of a business that is responsible for advertising.

- In class, the teacher used "advertising department" to mean the division of a business that is responsible for....
- He looked up "advertising department" because he had never seen it before.

---

argue (verb)

Present reasons and arguments.

- The evidence argues for your claim.
- The coach explained when to use "argue" and when to wait.

---

belief (noun)

A vague idea in which some confidence is placed.

- It strengthened my belief in his sincerity.
- The article explained what "belief" means with a simple example.

---

black comedy (noun)

Comedy that uses black humor.

- In class, the teacher used "black comedy" to mean comedy that uses black humor.
- He looked up "black comedy" because he had never seen it before.

---

blue cheese (noun)

Cheese containing a blue mold.

- The article explained what "blue cheese" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue cheese."

---

bread line (noun)

A queue of people waiting for free food.

- In class, the teacher used "bread line" to mean a queue of people waiting for free food.
- The article explained what "bread line" means with a simple example.

---

cast iron (noun)

An alloy of iron containing so much carbon that it is brittle and so cannot be wrought but must be shaped by casting.

- They discussed "cast iron" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cast iron."

---

chemical science (noun)

The science of matter; the branch of the natural sciences dealing with the composition of substances and their properties and reactions.

- In class, the teacher used "chemical science" to mean the science of matter; the branch of the natural....
- The article explained what "chemical science" means with a simple example.

---

christian era (noun)

The time period beginning with the supposed year of Christ's birth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "christian era."
- They discussed "christian era" during the group presentation.

---

closed chain (noun)

(chemistry) a chain of atoms in a molecule that forms a closed loop.

- They discussed "closed chain" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "closed chain" because he had never seen it before.

---

closing (noun)

The last section of a communication.

- The ship's rapid rate of closing gave them little time to avoid a collision.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "closing."

---

communication channel (noun)

(often plural) a means of communication or access.

- It must go through official channels.
- Lines of communication were set up between the two firms.

---

community chest (noun)

A charity supported by individual subscriptions; defrays the demands on a community for social welfare.

- He looked up "community chest" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "community chest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

contrast (verb)

To show differences when compared; be different.

- The students contrast considerably in their artistic abilities.
- The middle school teacher contrasted her best student's work with that of her weakest student.

---

dollar mark (noun)

A symbol of commercialism or greed.

- He worships the almighty dollar.
- The dollar sign means little to him.

---

double salt (noun)

A solution of two simple salts that forms a single substance on crystallization.

- They discussed "double salt" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "double salt" to mean a solution of two simple salts that forms a single....

---

draw and quarter (verb)

Pull (a person) apart with four horses tied to his extremities, so as to execute him.

- In the old days, people were drawn and quartered for certain crimes.
- Can you use "draw and quarter" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

drawing paper (noun)

Paper that is specially prepared for use in drafting.

- Understanding "drawing paper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drawing paper."

---

early childhood (noun)

The early stage of growth or development.

- The article explained what “early childhood” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “early childhood” during the group presentation.

---

egg on (verb)

Urge on; cause to act.

- The other children egged the boy on, but he did not want to throw the stone through the window.
- She tried to use “egg on” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

elsewhere (adverb)

In or to another place.

- He went elsewhere.
- Look elsewhere for the answer.

---

files (verb)

Place in a container for keeping records.

- In everyday English, people use “files” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “files” in real sentences.

---

fine print (noun)

The part of a contract that contains reservations and qualifications that are often printed in small type.

- Don’t sign a contract without reading the fine print.
- He needed his glasses in order to read the fine print.

---

gold-plate (verb)

Plate with gold.

- He did not know how to use “gold-plate” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “gold-plate” and when to wait.

---

heavy cream (noun)

Contains more than 36% butterfat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “heavy cream.”
- He looked up “heavy cream” because he had never seen it before.

---

hills (noun)

A local and well-defined elevation of the land.

- They loved to roam the hills of West Virginia.
- In class, the teacher used “hills” to mean a local and well-defined elevation of the land.

---

increases (noun)

A process of becoming larger or longer or more numerous or more important.

- The article explained what “increases” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “increases.”

---

key fruit (noun)

A winged often one-seed indehiscent fruit as of the ash or elm or maple.

- The article explained what “key fruit” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “key fruit” during the group presentation.

---

large cap (noun)

A corporation with a large capitalization.

- He works for a large cap.
- They discussed “large cap” during the group presentation.

---

machines (noun)

A group that controls the activities of a political party.

- In class, the teacher used “machines” to mean a group that controls the activities of a political....
- Understanding “machines” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

management personnel (noun)

Personnel having overall planning and direction responsibilities.

- The article explained what "management personnel" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "management personnel."

moral (noun)

The significance of a story or event.

- The moral of the story is to love thy neighbor.
- They discussed "moral" during the group presentation.

nuclear engineering (noun)

The branch of engineering concerned with the design and construction and operation of nuclear reactors.

- The article explained what "nuclear engineering" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nuclear engineering" to mean the branch of engineering concerned with the design....

old latin (noun)

The oldest recorded Latin (dating back at early as the 6th century B.C.).

- They discussed "old latin" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "old latin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

package (noun)

A collection of things wrapped or boxed together.

- Understanding "package" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "package."

processes (noun)

A mental process that you are not directly aware of.

- They discussed "processes" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "processes" to mean a mental process that you are not directly aware of.

processing (noun)

Preparing or putting through a prescribed procedure.

- The processing of newly arrived immigrants.
- The processing of ore to obtain minerals.

random walk (noun)

A stochastic process consisting of a sequence of changes each of whose characteristics (as magnitude or direction) is determined by chance.

- In class, the teacher used "random walk" to mean a stochastic process consisting of a sequence of....
- The article explained what "random walk" means with a simple example.

rock salt (noun)

Naturally occurring crystalline sodium chloride.

- They discussed "rock salt" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rock salt."

roman times (noun)

The time period during which Rome dominated Europe.

- The article explained what "roman times" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "roman times" to mean the time period during which rome dominated europe.

rough-house (verb)

Treat in a rough or boisterous manner.

- She tried to use "rough-house" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "rough-house" until he saw an example.

salt ii (noun)

The second treaty between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics resulting from the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks.

- In class, the teacher used "salt ii" to mean the second treaty between the united states and the....
- They discussed "salt ii" during the group presentation.

---

scientific theory (noun)

A theory that explains scientific observations.

- Scientific theories must be falsifiable.
- He looked up "scientific theory" because he had never seen it before.

---

sea mile (noun)

A former British unit of length once used in navigation; equivalent to 6,000 feet (1828.8 meters).

- In class, the teacher used "sea mile" to mean a former british unit of length once used in....
- They discussed "sea mile" during the group presentation.

---

sense of shame (noun)

A motivating awareness of ethical responsibility.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sense of shame."
- He looked up "sense of shame" because he had never seen it before.

---

sex-linked (adjective)

Concerning characteristics that are determined by genes carried on the sex chromosomes (on the X chromosome in particular).

- Students compared "sex-linked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "sex-linked" when it is concerning characteristics that are determined by....

---

simple sentence (noun)

A sentence having no coordinate clauses or subordinate clauses.

- They discussed "simple sentence" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "simple sentence" means with a simple example.

---

single quote (noun)

A single quotation mark.

- Understanding "single quote" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "single quote" during the group presentation.

---

social democracy (noun)

The belief in a gradual transition from capitalism to socialism by democratic means.

- He looked up "social democracy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social democracy."

---

soft glass (noun)

Glass having a relatively low softening point.

- In class, the teacher used "soft glass" to mean glass having a relatively low softening point.
- The article explained what "soft glass" means with a simple example.

---

speech communication (noun)

(language) communication by word of mouth.

- His speech was garbled.
- He looked up "speech communication" because he had never seen it before.

---

tea bag (noun)

A measured amount of tea in a bag for an individual serving of tea.

- Understanding "tea bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tea bag" because he had never seen it before.

---

teaching method (noun)

The principles and methods of instruction.

- Understanding "teaching method" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "teaching method" means with a simple example.

---

test ban (noun)

A ban on the testing of nuclear weapons that is mutually agreed to by countries that possess nuclear weapons.

- They discussed "test ban" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "test ban" means with a simple example.

---

tons (noun)

A large number or amount.

- Understanding "tons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tons" during the group presentation.

---

transfer agent (noun)

An agency (usually a bank) that is appointed by a corporation to keep records of its stock and bond owners and to resolve problems about certificates.

- In class, the teacher used "transfer agent" to mean an agency (usually a bank) that is appointed by a....
- They discussed "transfer agent" during the group presentation.

---

universal set (noun)

(mathematics) the set that contains all the elements or objects involved in the problem under consideration.

- All other sets are subsets of the universal set.
- They discussed "universal set" during the group presentation.

---

urban planning (noun)

The branch of architecture dealing with the design and organization of urban space and activities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "urban planning."
- He looked up "urban planning" because he had never seen it before.

---

white bread (noun)

Bread made with finely ground and usually bleached wheat flour.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white bread."
- The article explained what "white bread" means with a simple example.

---

white-bread (adjective)

Of or belonging to or representative of the white middle class.

- White-bread America.
- A white-bread college student.

---

administrative (adjective)

Of or relating to or responsible for administration.

- Would you call this situation "administrative"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "administrative" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

adult intelligence (noun)

The average IQ of the adults in a given population.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adult intelligence."
- The article explained what "adult intelligence" means with a simple example.

---

alongside (adverb)

Side by side.

- She spoke "alongside," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered "alongside," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

black bread (noun)

Bread made of coarse rye flour.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black bread."
- Understanding "black bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blow gas (noun)

The gas leaving a generator during a blow period.

- The article explained what "blow gas" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "blow gas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

captain cook (noun)

English navigator who claimed the east coast of Australia for Britain and discovered several Pacific islands (1728-1779).

- Understanding "captain cook" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "captain cook."

catholic church (noun)

Any of several churches claiming to have maintained historical continuity with the original Christian Church.

- Understanding "catholic church" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "catholic church" means with a simple example.

chicken stock (noun)

A stock made with chicken.

- The article explained what "chicken stock" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chicken stock" during the group presentation.

closing time (noun)

The regular time of day when an establishment closes to the public.

- Understanding "closing time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "closing time" because he had never seen it before.

color vision (noun)

The normal ability to see colors.

- The article explained what "color vision" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "color vision" to mean the normal ability to see colors.

colour line (noun)

Barrier preventing blacks from participating in various activities with whites.

- In class, the teacher used "colour line" to mean barrier preventing blacks from participating in....
- The article explained what "colour line" means with a simple example.

council on environmental policy (noun)

The executive agency that advises the President on protecting the environment.

- In class, the teacher used "council on environmental policy" to mean the executive agency that advises the president on....
- He looked up "council on environmental policy" because he had never seen it before.

covering (noun)

A natural object that covers or envelops.

- Under a covering of dust.
- The article explained what "covering" means with a simple example.

creation science (noun)

An effort to give scientific support for the truth of the account of Creation given in the Book of Genesis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "creation science."
- He looked up "creation science" because he had never seen it before.

encourage (verb)

Contribute to the progress or growth of.

- His financial success encouraged him to look for a wife.
- He did not know how to use "encourage" until he saw an example.

federal reserve system (noun)

The central bank of the United States; incorporates 12 Federal Reserve branch banks and all national banks and state-chartered commercial banks and some trust companies.

- Understanding "federal reserve system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "federal reserve system" means with a simple example.

---

french academy (noun)

An honorary group of French writers and thinkers supported by the French government.

- The French Academy sets standards for the use of the French language.
- In class, the teacher used "french academy" to mean an honorary group of french writers and thinkers....

---

hard coal (noun)

A hard natural coal that burns slowly and gives intense heat.

- He looked up "hard coal" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hard coal" to mean a hard natural coal that burns slowly and gives....

---

in a flash (adverb)

Without any delay.

- She spoke "in a flash," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- The narrator describes the scene "in a flash" in the final chapter.

---

industrial engineering (noun)

The branch of engineering that deals with the creation and management of systems that integrate people and materials and energy in productive ways.

- Understanding "industrial engineering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "industrial engineering" during the group presentation.

---

jury system (noun)

A legal system for determining the facts at issue in a law suit.

- The article explained what "jury system" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jury system."

---

let the cat out of the bag (verb)

Divulge confidential information or secrets.

- The coach explained when to use "let the cat out of the bag" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "let the cat out of the bag" until he saw an example.

---

loose off (verb)

Fire as from a gun.

- He did not know how to use "loose off" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "loose off" in real sentences.

---

low comedy (noun)

A comedy characterized by slapstick and burlesque.

- The article explained what "low comedy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "low comedy" to mean a comedy characterized by slapstick and burlesque.

---

luke (noun)

One of the four Gospels in the New Testament; contains details of Jesus's birth and early life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "luke."
- He looked up "luke" because he had never seen it before.

---

mad apple (noun)

Egg-shaped vegetable having a shiny skin typically dark purple but occasionally white or yellow.

- He looked up "mad apple" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mad apple."

---

master in public affairs (noun)

A master's degree in questions of public concern.

- In class, the teacher used "master in public affairs" to mean a master's degree in questions of public concern.
- The article explained what "master in public affairs" means with a simple example.

master of literature (noun)

A master's degree in literature.

- Understanding "master of literature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "master of literature" means with a simple example.

master of science in engineering (noun)

A master's degree in engineering.

- They discussed "master of science in engineering" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "master of science in engineering" because he had never seen it before.

math (noun)

A science (or group of related sciences) dealing with the logic of quantity and shape and arrangement.

- In class, the teacher used "math" to mean a science (or group of related sciences) dealing....
- The article explained what "math" means with a simple example.

middle irish (noun)

Irish Gaelic from 1100 to 1500.

- He looked up "middle irish" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "middle irish."

mistakes (noun)

An understanding of something that is not correct.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mistakes."
- He looked up "mistakes" because he had never seen it before.

mixed drink (noun)

Made of two or more ingredients.

- They discussed "mixed drink" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mixed drink" to mean made of two or more ingredients.

motion-picture show (noun)

A form of entertainment that enacts a story by sound and a sequence of images giving the illusion of continuous movement.

- Understanding "motion-picture show" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "motion-picture show" during the group presentation.

mystery (noun)

Something that baffles understanding and cannot be explained.

- How it got out is a mystery.
- They discussed "mystery" during the group presentation.

natural depression (noun)

A sunken or depressed geological formation.

- The article explained what "natural depression" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "natural depression" during the group presentation.

natural object (noun)

An object occurring naturally; not made by man.

- In class, the teacher used "natural object" to mean an object occurring naturally; not made by man.
- He looked up "natural object" because he had never seen it before.

new english bible (noun)

A modern English version of the Bible and Apocrypha.

- In class, the teacher used "new english bible" to mean a modern english version of the bible and apocrypha.
- Understanding "new english bible" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

object language (noun)

The language into which a text written in another language is to be translated.

- They discussed "object language" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "object language."

---

pacific standard time (noun)

Standard time in the 8th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 120th meridian west; used in far western states of the United States.

- They discussed "pacific standard time" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pacific standard time" to mean standard time in the 8th time zone west of....

---

palace (noun)

The governing group of a kingdom.

- The palace issued an order binding on all subjects.
- Understanding "palace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pilot program (noun)

A program exemplifying a contemplated series; intended to attract sponsors.

- They funded a pilot project in six states.
- In class, the teacher used "pilot program" to mean a program exemplifying a contemplated series;....

---

processing time (noun)

The time it takes to complete a prescribed procedure.

- They increased output by decreasing processing time.
- In class, the teacher used "processing time" to mean the time it takes to complete a prescribed procedure.

---

properly speaking (adverb)

In actual fact.

- Properly speaking, they are not husband and wife.
- The narrator describes the scene "properly speaking" in the final chapter.

---

protest (noun)

A formal and solemn declaration of objection.

- They finished the game under protest to the league president.
- The senator rose to register his protest.

---

rating (noun)

An appraisal of the value of something.

- The article explained what "rating" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rating" during the group presentation.

---

red giant star (noun)

A large, old, luminous star; has a relatively low surface temperature and a diameter large relative to the sun.

- Understanding "red giant star" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "red giant star" during the group presentation.

---

respectively (adverb)

In the order given.

- The brothers were called Felix and Max, respectively.
- Using "respectively" can make your explanation more exact.

---

rome (noun)

The leadership of the Roman Catholic Church.

- The article explained what "rome" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rome" during the group presentation.

---

secret intelligence service (noun)

The government agency in the United Kingdom that is responsible for internal security and counterintelligence overseas.

- In class, the teacher used "secret intelligence service" to mean the government agency in the united kingdom that is....

- Understanding "secret intelligence service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

select (verb)

Pick out, select, or choose from a number of alternatives.

- She selected a pair of shoes from among the dozen the salesgirl had shown her.
- The coach explained when to use "select" and when to wait.

---

simple fruit (noun)

An indehiscent fruit derived from a single ovary having one or many seeds within a fleshy wall or pericarp: e.g. grape; tomato; cranberry.

- In class, the teacher used "simple fruit" to mean an indehiscent fruit derived from a single ovary....
- The article explained what "simple fruit" means with a simple example.

---

solar month (noun)

One-twelfth of a solar or tropical year.

- They discussed "solar month" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "solar month" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

successfully (adverb)

With success; in a successful manner.

- She performed the surgery successfully.
- Using "successfully" can make your explanation more exact.

---

to a great extent (adverb)

To a considerable degree.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "to a great extent" naturally.
- Place "to a great extent" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

tone system (noun)

The system of tones used in a particular language or dialect of a tone language.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tone system."
- The article explained what "tone system" means with a simple example.

---

trail (noun)

A track or mark left by something that has passed.

- There as a trail of blood.
- A tear left its trail on her cheek.

---

twenty-five percent (noun)

One of four equal parts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twenty-five percent."
- They discussed "twenty-five percent" during the group presentation.

---

twenty-nine (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-eight and one.

- Understanding "twenty-nine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "twenty-nine" because he had never seen it before.

---

united states dry unit (noun)

A unit of measurement of capacity for dry substances officially adopted in the United States Customary System.

- He looked up "united states dry unit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states dry unit."

---

us trade representative (noun)

The executive agency that administers the President's policies on international trade.

- They discussed "us trade representative" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "us trade representative" means with a simple example.

---

white chocolate (noun)

A blend of cocoa butter and milk solids and sugar and vanilla; used in candy bars and baking and coatings; not technically chocolate because it contains no chocolate liquor.

- They discussed "white chocolate" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "white chocolate" to mean a blend of cocoa butter and milk solids and sugar....

---

word-blind (adjective)

Of or relating to or symptomatic of alexia.

- Would you call this situation "word-blind"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "word-blind" when it is of or relating to or symptomatic of alexia.

---

x-linked (adjective)

Relating to genes or characteristics or conditions carried on the X chromosome.

- An X-linked mutation.
- Students compared "x-linked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

absolute value (noun)

A real number regardless of its sign.

- Understanding "absolute value" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "absolute value."

---

appointment book (noun)

A book containing a calendar and space to keep a record of appointments.

- Understanding "appointment book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "appointment book" means with a simple example.

---

armed forces (noun)

The military forces of a nation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "armed forces."
- He looked up "armed forces" because he had never seen it before.

---

awareness (noun)

State of elementary or undifferentiated consciousness.

- The crash intruded on his awareness.
- He had no awareness of his mistakes.

---

baby-wise (adverb)

Like a baby.

- He cradled it, baby-wise, in his arms.
- The narrator describes the scene "baby-wise" in the final chapter.

---

badly (adverb)

To a severe or serious degree.

- Fingers so badly frozen they had to be amputated.
- Badly injured.

---

captured (verb)

Capture as if by hunting, snaring, or trapping.

- She captured all the men's hearts.
- This nucleus has captured the slow-moving neutrons.

---

carbon paper (noun)

A thin paper coated on one side with a dark waxy substance (often containing carbon); used to transfer characters from the original to an under sheet of paper.

- The article explained what "carbon paper" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carbon paper."

---

concrete (noun)

A strong hard building material composed of sand and gravel and cement and water.

- They discussed "concrete" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "concrete" because he had never seen it before.

---

deeply (adverb)

To a great depth;far down.

- Dived deeply.
- They felt the loss deeply.

---

defence program (noun)

A program for defending a country against its enemies.

- In class, the teacher used "defence program" to mean a program for defending a country against its enemies.
- The article explained what "defence program" means with a simple example.

---

discovery day (noun)

A legal holiday commemorating the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus.

- Understanding "discovery day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "discovery day" because he had never seen it before.

---

explanation (noun)

The act of explaining; making something plain or intelligible.

- I heard his explanation of the accident.
- The explanation was very simple.

---

federal housing administration (noun)

The federal agency in the Department of Housing and Urban Development that insures residential mortgages.

- Understanding "federal housing administration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "federal housing administration" during the group presentation.

---

fiction (noun)

A deliberately false or improbable account.

- He looked up "fiction" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fiction."

---

food colour (noun)

A digestible substance used to give color to food.

- Food color made from vegetable dyes.
- In class, the teacher used "food colour" to mean a digestible substance used to give color to food.

---

greek fire (noun)

A mixture used by Byzantine Greeks that was often shot at adversaries; catches fire when wetted.

- Understanding "greek fire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "greek fire" to mean a mixture used by byzantine greeks that was often....

---

grey area (noun)

An intermediate area; a topic that is not clearly one thing or the other.

- He looked up "grey area" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grey area."

---

guarantee (noun)

An unconditional commitment that something will happen or that something is true.

- There is no guarantee that they are not lying.
- Understanding "guarantee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hot cake (noun)

A flat cake of thin batter fried on both sides on a griddle.

- They discussed "hot cake" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "hot cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

inner light (noun)

A divine presence believed by Quakers to enlighten and guide the soul.

- He looked up "inner light" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inner light."

international labour organization (noun)

The United Nations agency concerned with the interests of labor.

- Understanding "international labour organization" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "international labour organization" to mean the united nations agency concerned with the....

islamic (adjective)

Of or relating to or supporting Islamism.

- Islamic art.
- It is useful to describe something as "islamic" when it is of or relating to or supporting islamism.

jimmy (verb)

To move or force, especially in an effort to get something open; :.

- The coach explained when to use "jimmy" and when to wait.
- Can you use "jimmy" in a sentence that fits this situation?

late greek (noun)

The Greek language in the 3rd to 8th centuries.

- Understanding "late greek" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "late greek" to mean the greek language in the 3rd to 8th centuries.

latin-american (adjective)

Of or relating to the countries of Latin America or their people.

- Latin-American countries.
- Latin-American music.

legend (noun)

A story about mythical or supernatural beings or events.

- They discussed "legend" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "legend" to mean a story about mythical or supernatural beings or events.

light bread (noun)

Bread made with finely ground and usually bleached wheat flour.

- He looked up "light bread" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light bread."

maintenance staff (noun)

Those in a business responsible for maintaining the physical plant.

- The article explained what "maintenance staff" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "maintenance staff" to mean those in a business responsible for maintaining the....

milk glass (noun)

A milky white translucent or opaque glass.

- The article explained what "milk glass" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "milk glass" to mean a milky white translucent or opaque glass.

mixed economy (noun)

An economic system that combines private and state enterprises.

- The article explained what "mixed economy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mixed economy" to mean an economic system that combines private and state....

passing comment (noun)

An incidental remark.

- Understanding "passing comment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "passing comment" because he had never seen it before.

passion (noun)

Any object of warm affection or devotion.

- He has a passion for cock fighting.
- The article explained what "passion" means with a simple example.

percentage point (noun)

The dot at the left of a decimal fraction.

- Understanding "percentage point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "percentage point" to mean the dot at the left of a decimal fraction.

picking (noun)

The quantity of a crop that is harvested.

- He sent the first picking of berries to the market.
- The article explained what "picking" means with a simple example.

pilot film (noun)

A program exemplifying a contemplated series; intended to attract sponsors.

- In class, the teacher used "pilot film" to mean a program exemplifying a contemplated series;....
- They discussed "pilot film" during the group presentation.

presidential term (noun)

The tenure of a president.

- He looked up "presidential term" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "presidential term" during the group presentation.

proof spirit (noun)

A mixture containing half alcohol by volume at 60 degrees Fahrenheit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "proof spirit."
- They discussed "proof spirit" during the group presentation.

re-introduction (noun)

A proposal of something previously rejected.

- They avoided a re-introduction of the old terminology.
- Understanding "re-introduction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

religious holiday (noun)

A day specified for religious observance.

- They discussed "religious holiday" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "religious holiday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rescue party (noun)

A party of rescuers.

- The article explained what "rescue party" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rescue party" to mean a party of rescuers.

scale factor (noun)

A number used as a multiplier in scaling.

- The article explained what "scale factor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "scale factor" to mean a number used as a multiplier in scaling.

shadow (noun)

An indication that something has been present.

- A shadow over his happiness.

- He felt secure in his father's shadow.

---

south korean (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of South Korea or its people.

- A "south korean" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "south korean" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

st joseph (noun)

A Christian holy day.

- In class, the teacher used "st joseph" to mean a christian holy day.
- He looked up "st joseph" because he had never seen it before.

---

sweet orange (noun)

Orange with sweet juicy pulp; often has a thin skin.

- Understanding "sweet orange" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sweet orange" to mean orange with sweet juicy pulp; often has a thin skin.

---

tag (noun)

A label associated with something for the purpose of identification.

- Semantic tags were attached in order to identify different meanings of the word.
- He looked up "tag" because he had never seen it before.

---

tag on (verb)

Fix to; attach.

- He did not know how to use "tag on" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "tag on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

time-scale factor (noun)

The ratio of the simulation time to the time of the real process.

- They discussed "time-scale factor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "time-scale factor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wash down (verb)

Eat food accompanied by lots of liquid; also use metaphorically.

- She washed down her dinner with a bottle of red wine.
- He washes down his worries with a nightly glass of whisky.

---

armed forces day (noun)

The 3rd Saturday in May.

- The article explained what "armed forces day" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "armed forces day" during the group presentation.

---

bedroom set (noun)

A suite of furniture for the bedroom.

- He looked up "bedroom set" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bedroom set."

---

believes (noun)

A vague idea in which some confidence is placed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "believes."
- The article explained what "believes" means with a simple example.

---

bone black (noun)

Black substance containing char in the form of carbonized bone; used as a black pigment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bone black."
- Understanding "bone black" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bread board (noun)

A wooden or plastic board on which dough is kneaded or bread is sliced.

- In class, the teacher used "bread board" to mean a wooden or plastic board on which dough is kneaded....
- He looked up "bread board" because he had never seen it before.

---

british capacity unit (noun)

A unit of measure for capacity officially adopted in the British Imperial System; British units are both dry and wet.

- The article explained what "british capacity unit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "british capacity unit" during the group presentation.

---

checking (verb)

Be verified or confirmed; pass inspection.

- Learners should practice how to use "checking" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "checking" until he saw an example.

---

cold turkey (noun)

A blunt expression of views.

- I told him cold turkey.
- He quit smoking cold turkey.

---

containing (verb)

Hold back, as of a danger or an enemy; check the expansion or influence of.

- The coach explained when to use "containing" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "containing" until he saw an example.

---

cross-index (verb)

Make an index that refers from one point to the next.

- These references are cross-indexed.
- Can you use "cross-index" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

custom (noun)

A specific practice of long standing.

- I have given this tailor my custom for many years.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "custom."

---

defence force (noun)

An organization of defenders that provides resistance against attack.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defence force."
- He looked up "defence force" because he had never seen it before.

---

defense information systems agency (noun)

A combat support agency in the Department of Defense responsible for developing and operating and supporting information systems to serve the needs of the President and the Secretary of Defense and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defense information systems agency."
- They discussed "defense information systems agency" during the group presentation.

---

equivalent word (noun)

Two words that can be interchanged in a context are said to be synonymous relative to that context.

- Understanding "equivalent word" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "equivalent word" during the group presentation.

---

fbi (noun)

A federal law enforcement agency that is the principal investigative arm of the Department of Justice.

- They discussed "fbi" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fbi" means with a simple example.

---

finger food (noun)

Food to be eaten with the fingers.

- They discussed “finger food” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “finger food” because he had never seen it before.

---

ft-l (noun)

A former luminance unit equal to one lumen per square foot.

- They discussed “ft-l” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “ft-l” because he had never seen it before.

---

great gross (noun)

A cardinal number equal to one dozen gross.

- They discussed “great gross” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “great gross” because he had never seen it before.

---

holy thursday (noun)

The Thursday before Easter; commemorates the Last Supper.

- He looked up “holy thursday” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “holy thursday.”

---

in stages (adverb)

A little bit at a time.

- He answered “in stages,” which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using “in stages” can make your explanation more exact.

---

label (noun)

A brief description given for purposes of identification.

- The label Modern is applied to many different kinds of architecture.
- The artists and repertoire department of a recording label is responsible for finding new talent.

---

lead by the nose (verb)

Conceal one’s true motives from especially by elaborately feigning good intentions so as to gain an end.

- He bamboozled his professors into thinking that he knew the subject well.
- In everyday English, people use “lead by the nose” when talking about this idea.

---

let loose (verb)

Express audibly; utter sounds (not necessarily words).

- She let out a big heavy sigh.
- Let loose mines.

---

locked (verb)

Become engaged or intermeshed with one another.

- They were locked in embrace.
- He locked his hands around her neck.

---

lose sight of (verb)

Be no longer able to see.

- We lost sight of the tower as pulled out of the harbor.
- Can you use “lose sight of” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

motor oil (noun)

Oil used to lubricate the moving parts of a motor.

- They discussed “motor oil” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “motor oil” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

navy cross (noun)

A United States Navy decoration for extraordinary heroism against an armed enemy.

- In class, the teacher used “navy cross” to mean a united states navy decoration for extraordinary....
- He looked up “navy cross” because he had never seen it before.

north korean (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of North Korea or its people or their culture.

- The speaker chose "north korean" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "north korean."

nuclear reaction (noun)

(physics) a process that alters the energy or structure or composition of atomic nuclei.

- They discussed "nuclear reaction" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "nuclear reaction" because he had never seen it before.

oil cake (noun)

Mass of e.g. linseed or cottonseed or soybean from which the oil has been pressed; used as food for livestock.

- He looked up "oil cake" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oil cake."

old catholic church (noun)

Catholic churches that broke away from the Roman Catholic Church in the 18th century.

- They discussed "old catholic church" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old catholic church."

out-of-court settlement (noun)

Resolution of a dispute prior to the rendering of a final decision by the trial court.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "out-of-court settlement."
- They discussed "out-of-court settlement" during the group presentation.

pitch in (verb)

Eat heartily.

- The food was placed on the table and the children pitched in.
- In everyday English, people use "pitch in" when talking about this idea.

pizza (noun)

Italian open pie made of thin bread dough spread with a spiced mixture of e.g. tomato sauce and cheese.

- In class, the teacher used "pizza" to mean italian open pie made of thin bread dough spread....
- They discussed "pizza" during the group presentation.

plain (verb)

Express complaints, discontent, displeasure, or unhappiness.

- My mother complains all day.
- The coach explained when to use "plain" and when to wait.

port wine (noun)

Sweet dark-red dessert wine originally from Portugal.

- Understanding "port wine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "port wine" to mean sweet dark-red dessert wine originally from portugal.

prime factor (noun)

The prime factors of a quantity are all of the prime quantities that will exactly divide the given quantity.

- In class, the teacher used "prime factor" to mean the prime factors of a quantity are all of the....
- He looked up "prime factor" because he had never seen it before.

pull the leg of (verb)

Tell false information to for fun.

- Are you pulling my leg?
- Can you use "pull the leg of" in a sentence that fits this situation?

pushed (verb)

Strive and make an effort to reach a goal.

- He pushed the table into a corner.
- He pushed her to finish her doctorate.

---

rear (noun)

The back of a military formation or procession.

- Infantrymen were in the rear.
- His room was toward the rear of the hotel.

---

reveal (verb)

Make known to the public information that was previously known only to a few people or that was meant to be kept a secret.

- The actress won't reveal how old she is.
- God rarely reveal his plans for Mankind.

---

roman type (noun)

A typeface used in ancient Roman inscriptions.

- The article explained what "roman type" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "roman type" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scientific method (noun)

A method of investigation involving observation and theory to test scientific hypotheses.

- Understanding "scientific method" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "scientific method" to mean a method of investigation involving observation and....

---

soft option (noun)

An easier alternative.

- The instructor took the soft option and gave the boy a passing grade.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soft option."

---

speaks (verb)

Exchange thoughts; talk with.

- He did not know how to use "speaks" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "speaks" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

special jury (noun)

A jury whose members are selected for special knowledge for a case involving complicated issues.

- The article explained what "special jury" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "special jury."

---

square measure (noun)

A system of units used to measure areas.

- The article explained what "square measure" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "square measure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

truck traffic (noun)

Trucks coming and going.

- In class, the teacher used "truck traffic" to mean trucks coming and going.
- Understanding "truck traffic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

un agency (noun)

An agency of the United Nations.

- Understanding "un agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "un agency" to mean an agency of the united nations.

---

victoria day (noun)

A public holiday in Canada on the Monday on or before May 24th.

- The article explained what "victoria day" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "victoria day" during the group presentation.

visual field (noun)

All of the points of the physical environment that can be perceived by a stable eye at a given moment.

- Understanding "visual field" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "visual field" means with a simple example.

visual space (noun)

The visual perception of space.

- He looked up "visual space" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "visual space" during the group presentation.

wave theory (noun)

(physics) the theory that light is transmitted as waves.

- In class, the teacher used "wave theory" to mean (physics) the theory that light is transmitted as waves.
- The article explained what "wave theory" means with a simple example.

wood sugar (noun)

A sugar extracted from wood or straw; used in foods for diabetics.

- They discussed "wood sugar" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wood sugar."

adventure story (noun)

A story of an adventure.

- They discussed "adventure story" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "adventure story" to mean a story of an adventure.

afternoon tea (noun)

A light midafternoon meal of tea and sandwiches or cakes.

- An Englishman would interrupt a war to have his afternoon tea.
- He looked up "afternoon tea" because he had never seen it before.

afterwards (adverb)

Happening at a time subsequent to a reference time.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "afterwards" naturally.
- Place "afterwards" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

alright (adverb)

Without doubt (used to reinforce an assertion).

- Using "alright" can make your explanation more exact.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "alright" naturally.

architecture (noun)

The discipline dealing with the principles of design and construction and ornamentation of fine buildings.

- Architecture and eloquence are mixed arts whose end is sometimes beauty and sometimes use.
- The architecture of a computer's system software.

break bread (verb)

Have a meal, usually with company.

- The early Christian disciples broke bread together.
- In everyday English, people use "break bread" when talking about this idea.

brown rice (noun)

Unpolished rice retaining the yellowish-brown outer layer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brown rice."
- He looked up "brown rice" because he had never seen it before.

capture (verb)

Capture as if by hunting, snaring, or trapping.

- Capture the essence of Spring.
- Capture an idea.

---

centers (noun)

The middle of a military or naval formation.

- They received messages from several centers.
- In class, the teacher used "centers" to mean the middle of a military or naval formation.

---

clock time (noun)

A reading of a point in time as given by a clock.

- Do you know what time it is?
- The time is 10 o'clock.

---

closed universe (noun)

(cosmology) a universe that is spatially closed and in which there is sufficient matter to halt the expansion that began with the big bang; the visible matter is only 10 percent of the matter required for closure but there may be large amounts of dark matter.

- They discussed "closed universe" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "closed universe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coffee cream (noun)

Cream that has at least 18% butterfat.

- In England they call light cream 'single cream'.
- He looked up "coffee cream" because he had never seen it before.

---

comic (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of comedy.

- Comic hero.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "comic."

---

cost-of-living index (noun)

An index of the cost of all goods and services to a typical consumer.

- They discussed "cost-of-living index" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cost-of-living index" because he had never seen it before.

---

date bread (noun)

Bread containing chopped dates.

- Understanding "date bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "date bread."

---

defence policy (noun)

A program for defending a country against its enemies.

- He looked up "defence policy" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "defence policy" to mean a program for defending a country against its enemies.

---

department of philosophy (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching philosophy.

- Understanding "department of philosophy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of philosophy."

---

distance vision (noun)

Vision for objects that a 20 feet or more from the viewer.

- The article explained what "distance vision" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "distance vision" to mean vision for objects that a 20 feet or more from the....

---

economics (noun)

The branch of social science that deals with the production and distribution and consumption of goods and services and their management.

- In class, the teacher used "economics" to mean the branch of social science that deals with the....

- Understanding “economics” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

egg white (noun)

The white part of an egg; the nutritive and protective gelatinous substance surrounding the yolk consisting mainly of albumin dissolved in water.

- She separated the whites from the yolks of several eggs.
- Understanding “egg white” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electrical (adjective)

Relating to or concerned with electricity.

- An electrical engineer.
- Electrical and mechanical engineering industries.

essential condition (noun)

A prerequisite.

- They discussed “essential condition” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “essential condition” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

estimated tax return (noun)

Return required of a taxpayer whose tax withheld from income does not meet the tax liability for the year.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “estimated tax return.”
- They discussed “estimated tax return” during the group presentation.

expecting (verb)

Look forward to the probable occurrence of.

- We were expecting a visit from our relatives.
- The meteorologists are expecting rain for tomorrow.

explains (verb)

Serve as a reason or cause or justification of.

- The coach explained when to use “explains” and when to wait.
- Can you use “explains” in a sentence that fits this situation?

federal reserve board (noun)

The seven-member board governing the Federal Reserve System.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “federal reserve board.”
- Understanding “federal reserve board” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ghost (noun)

A mental representation of some haunting experience.

- He looked like he had seen a ghost.
- He detected a ghost of a smile on her face.

https (noun)

A protocol (utilizing TCP) to transfer hypertext requests and information between servers and browsers.

- They discussed “https” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “https” to mean a protocol (utilizing tcp) to transfer hypertext....

in one ear (adverb)

In a monaural manner.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “in one ear” naturally.
- Place “in one ear” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

international intelligence agency (noun)

An intelligence agency outside the United States.

- Understanding “international intelligence agency” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “international intelligence agency” during the group presentation.

irish sea (noun)

An arm of the North Atlantic between Great Britain and Ireland.

- In class, the teacher used "irish sea" to mean an arm of the north atlantic between great britain....
- They discussed "irish sea" during the group presentation.

islam (noun)

The civilization of Muslims collectively which is governed by the Muslim religion.

- Islam is predominant in northern Africa, the Middle East, Pakistan, and Indonesia.
- Islam is a complete way of life, not a Sunday religion.

judges (noun)

A book of the Old Testament that tells the history of Israel under the leaders known as judges.

- In class, the teacher used "judges" to mean a book of the old testament that tells the history....
- He looked up "judges" because he had never seen it before.

junior college (noun)

A college that offers only the first two years terminating in an associate degree.

- He looked up "junior college" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "junior college" during the group presentation.

languages (noun)

The mental faculty or power of vocal communication.

- He taught foreign languages.
- The article explained what "languages" means with a simple example.

late latin (noun)

The form of Latin written between the 3rd and 8th centuries.

- In class, the teacher used "late latin" to mean the form of latin written between the 3rd and 8th....
- Understanding "late latin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

maps (verb)

Explore or survey for the purpose of making a map.

- Can you use "maps" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "maps" and when to wait.

mass medium (noun)

(usually plural) transmissions that are disseminated widely to the public.

- They discussed "mass medium" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mass medium."

master of fine arts (noun)

A master's degree in fine arts.

- The article explained what "master of fine arts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "master of fine arts" to mean a master's degree in fine arts.

meal plan (noun)

A plan and a room rate for providing a room and meals to guests at a hotel.

- He looked up "meal plan" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "meal plan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

meat-eating (adjective)

(of animals) carnivorous.

- Would you call this situation "meat-eating"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "meat-eating" when it is (of animals) carnivorous.

middle greek (noun)

The Greek language from about 600 to 1200 AD.

- They discussed "middle greek" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "middle greek" because he had never seen it before.

---

min (noun)

A unit of time equal to 60 seconds or 1/60th of an hour.

- He ran a 4 minute mile.
- In class, the teacher used "min" to mean a unit of time equal to 60 seconds or 1/60th of an hour.

---

na (noun)

A silvery soft waxy metallic element of the alkali metal group; occurs abundantly in natural compounds (especially in salt water); burns with a yellow flame and reacts violently in water; occurs in sea water and in the mineral halite (rock salt).

- The article explained what "na" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "na."

---

newly (adverb)

Very recently.

- They are newly married.
- Newly raised objections.

---

nuclear fuel (noun)

Fuel (such as uranium) that can be used in nuclear reactors as a source of electricity.

- In class, the teacher used "nuclear fuel" to mean fuel (such as uranium) that can be used in nuclear....
- The article explained what "nuclear fuel" means with a simple example.

---

off-the-clock (adverb)

Overtime without extra compensation.

- She often has to work off-the-clock.
- She spoke "off-the-clock," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

participate (verb)

Become a participant; be involved in.

- The coach explained when to use "participate" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "participate" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pet name (noun)

A name of endearment (especially one using a diminutive suffix).

- He looked up "pet name" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pet name."

---

philosophy department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching philosophy.

- The article explained what "philosophy department" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "philosophy department" to mean the academic department responsible for teaching....

---

pitch into (verb)

Hit violently, as in an attack.

- She tried to use "pitch into" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "pitch into" in real sentences.

---

popular struggle front (noun)

A terrorist group of radical Palestinians who split with al-Fatah in 1967 but now have close relations with al-Fatah; staged terrorist attacks against Israel across the Lebanese border.

- The article explained what "popular struggle front" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "popular struggle front" during the group presentation.

---

principles (noun)

A rule or standard especially of good behavior.

- He will not violate his principles.
- Their principles of composition characterized all their works.

promised land (noun)

The goal towards which Christians strive.

- In class, the teacher used "promised land" to mean the goal towards which christians strive.
- The article explained what "promised land" means with a simple example.

public charity (noun)

A charity that is deemed to receive the major part of its support from the public (rather than from a small group of individuals).

- They discussed "public charity" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "public charity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

references (noun)

A remark that calls attention to something or someone.

- The speaker made several references to his wife.
- Requests for character references are all too often answered evasively.

self-criticism (noun)

Criticism of yourself.

- He looked up "self-criticism" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-criticism."

simple protein (noun)

A protein that yields only amino acids when hydrolyzed.

- They discussed "simple protein" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "simple protein" because he had never seen it before.

solve (verb)

Find the solution to (a problem or question) or understand the meaning of.

- Did you solve the problem?
- Solve an equation.

suck in (verb)

Attract by using an inexorable force, inducement, etc.

- The current boom in the economy sucked many workers in from abroad.
- Suck in your cheeks and stomach.

sugar apple (noun)

Sweet pulpy tropical fruit with thick scaly rind and shiny black seeds.

- He looked up "sugar apple" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sugar apple."

tall oil (noun)

An oil derived from wood pulp and used in making soaps or lubricants.

- They discussed "tall oil" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tall oil" means with a simple example.

temperature scale (noun)

A system of measuring temperature.

- He looked up "temperature scale" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "temperature scale."

to one ear (adverb)

In a monaural manner.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "to one ear" naturally.
- Place "to one ear" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

traffic signal (noun)

A visual signal to control the flow of traffic at intersections.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "traffic signal."
- He looked up "traffic signal" because he had never seen it before.

---

twenty-four hour period (noun)

Time for Earth to make a complete rotation on its axis.

- The article explained what "twenty-four hour period" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "twenty-four hour period" during the group presentation.

---

vegas (noun)

The brightest star in the constellation Lyra.

- In class, the teacher used "vegas" to mean the brightest star in the constellation lyra.
- The article explained what "vegas" means with a simple example.

---

visual sense (noun)

The ability to see; the visual faculty.

- He looked up "visual sense" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "visual sense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

walking papers (noun)

(informal) a notice of dismissal or discharge.

- He looked up "walking papers" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "walking papers" to mean (informal) a notice of dismissal or discharge.

---

water-wash (verb)

Wash with water.

- Can you use "water-wash" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "water-wash" when talking about this idea.

---

against the clock (adverb)

As fast as possible; before a deadline.

- It was a race against the clock.
- She spoke "against the clock," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

around the clock (adverb)

Without stopping.

- She worked around the clock.
- Place "around the clock" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

belt up (verb)

Refuse to talk or stop talking; fall silent.

- Learners should practice how to use "belt up" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "belt up" when talking about this idea.

---

british cabinet (noun)

The senior ministers of the British government.

- The article explained what "british cabinet" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "british cabinet" during the group presentation.

---

bureau (noun)

An administrative unit of government.

- The Census Bureau.
- Understanding "bureau" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clinton administration (noun)

The executive under President Clinton.

- The article explained what "clinton administration" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "clinton administration" to mean the executive under president clinton.

---

coal industry (noun)

The producers of coal considered collectively.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coal industry."
- He looked up "coal industry" because he had never seen it before.

---

color scheme (noun)

A planned combination of colors.

- The color scheme for this room was determined by an interior decorator.
- He looked up "color scheme" because he had never seen it before.

---

dramatic (adjective)

Pertaining to or characteristic of drama.

- Dramatic arts.
- A dramatic entrance in a swirling cape.

---

dust (verb)

Cover with a light dusting of a substance.

- Dust the bread with flour.
- Dust the cabinets.

---

dutch (adjective)

Of or relating to the Netherlands or its people or culture.

- Dutch painting.
- Dutch painters.

---

evolution (noun)

A process in which something passes by degrees to a different stage (especially a more advanced or mature stage).

- The evolution of Greek civilization.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "evolution."

---

foods (noun)

Any solid substance (as opposed to liquid) that is used as a source of nourishment.

- They discussed "foods" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foods."

---

fruit bar (noun)

Cookies containing chopped fruits either mixed in the dough or spread between layers of dough then baked and cut in bars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fruit bar."
- He looked up "fruit bar" because he had never seen it before.

---

gas constant (noun)

(physics) the universal constant in the gas equation: pressure times volume = R times temperature; equal to 8.3143 joules per kelvin per mole.

- The article explained what "gas constant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gas constant" to mean (physics) the universal constant in the gas....

---

gender agreement (noun)

Agreement in grammatical gender between words in the same construction.

- They discussed "gender agreement" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gender agreement" to mean agreement in grammatical gender between words in....

---

give ear (verb)

Give heed (to).

- In everyday English, people use "give ear" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "give ear" in real sentences.

---

gray area (noun)

An intermediate area; a topic that is not clearly one thing or the other.

- In class, the teacher used "gray area" to mean an intermediate area; a topic that is not clearly....
- The article explained what "gray area" means with a simple example.

greek church (noun)

State church of Greece; an autonomous part of the Eastern Orthodox Church.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greek church."
- He looked up "greek church" because he had never seen it before.

hand-wash (verb)

Wash or launder by hand instead of with a machine.

- In everyday English, people use "hand-wash" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "hand-wash" in real sentences.

historic period (noun)

An era of history having some distinctive feature.

- Understanding "historic period" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "historic period" because he had never seen it before.

hot chocolate (noun)

A beverage made from cocoa powder and milk and sugar; usually drunk hot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hot chocolate."
- They discussed "hot chocolate" during the group presentation.

i kings (noun)

The first of two Old Testament books telling the histories of the kings of Judah and Israel.

- They discussed "i kings" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "i kings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

islamic group (noun)

A terrorist organization of militant Islamists organized into tiny cells of extreme fundamentalists; emerged during the 1970s mainly in Egyptian jails.

- Al-Gama'a al-Islamiyya uses force to push Egyptian society toward Islamic rule.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "islamic group."

jewish holy day (noun)

A religious holiday for Jews.

- In class, the teacher used "jewish holy day" to mean a religious holiday for jews.
- The article explained what "jewish holy day" means with a simple example.

lately (adverb)

In the recent past.

- Lately the rules have been enforced.
- Using "lately" can make your explanation more exact.

legal brief (noun)

A document stating the facts and points of law of a client's case.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal brief."
- They discussed "legal brief" during the group presentation.

lowest (adverb)

In the lowest position; nearest the ground.

- The branch with the big peaches on it hung lowest.
- Place "lowest" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

mexican (adjective)

Of or relating to Mexico or its inhabitants.

- Mexican food is hot.
- The speaker chose "mexican" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

military formation (noun)

A formation of troops.

- He looked up "military formation" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "military formation" to mean a formation of troops.

---

minor scale (noun)

A diatonic scale with notes separated by whole tones except for the 2nd and 3rd and 5th and 6th.

- The article explained what "minor scale" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "minor scale" to mean a diatonic scale with notes separated by whole....

---

mixed bag (noun)

A collection containing a variety of sorts of things.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mixed bag."
- He looked up "mixed bag" because he had never seen it before.

---

multiple fruit (noun)

Fruit consisting of many individual small fruits or drupes derived from separate ovaries within a common receptacle: e.g. blackberry; raspberry; pineapple.

- He looked up "multiple fruit" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "multiple fruit" to mean fruit consisting of many individual small fruits or....

---

name tag (noun)

A tag showing the name of the person who wears it.

- The article explained what "name tag" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "name tag" during the group presentation.

---

news photography (noun)

Photography of newsworthy events.

- Understanding "news photography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "news photography" during the group presentation.

---

official document (noun)

(law) a document that states some contractual relationship or grants some right.

- Understanding "official document" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "official document" because he had never seen it before.

---

opinions (noun)

A vague idea in which some confidence is placed.

- His opinions appeared frequently on the editorial page.
- Opinions are usually written by a single judge.

---

out of thin air (adverb)

Without warning.

- Your cousin arrived out of thin air.
- He answered "out of thin air," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

passion week (noun)

The week before Easter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "passion week."
- He looked up "passion week" because he had never seen it before.

---

physical object (noun)

A tangible and visible entity; an entity that can cast a shadow.

- It was full of rackets, balls and other objects.
- In class, the teacher used "physical object" to mean a tangible and visible entity; an entity that can....

presents (noun)

The period of time that is happening now; any continuous stretch of time including the moment of speech.

- Understanding “presents” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “presents” because he had never seen it before.

press gang (noun)

A detachment empowered to force civilians to serve in the army or navy.

- In class, the teacher used “press gang” to mean a detachment empowered to force civilians to serve....
- He looked up “press gang” because he had never seen it before.

public exposure (noun)

The opening of a subject to widespread discussion and debate.

- Understanding “public exposure” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “public exposure” during the group presentation.

rail in (verb)

Enclose with rails.

- Rail in the old graves.
- He did not know how to use “rail in” until he saw an example.

rear-end (verb)

Collide with the rear end of.

- The car rear-ended me.
- She tried to use “rear-end” carefully so everyone would understand.

republican guard (noun)

Formerly Iraq’s elite military unit whose primary role was to protect the government in Baghdad.

- He looked up “republican guard” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “republican guard” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

robert e lee day (noun)

Celebrated in southern United States.

- The article explained what “robert e lee day” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “robert e lee day” to mean celebrated in southern united states.

rock cake (noun)

A small cake with a hard surface said to resemble a rock.

- The article explained what “rock cake” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rock cake.”

roman church (noun)

The Christian Church based in the Vatican and presided over by a pope and an episcopal hierarchy.

- He looked up “roman church” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “roman church.”

root for (verb)

Take sides with; align oneself with; show strong sympathy for.

- We all rooted for the home team.
- I’m pulling for the underdog.

root on (verb)

Spur on or encourage especially by cheers and shouts.

- In everyday English, people use “root on” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “root on” until he saw an example.

safe-conduct (noun)

A document or escort providing safe passage through a region especially in time of war.

- In class, the teacher used "safe-conduct" to mean a document or escort providing safe passage through....
- He looked up "safe-conduct" because he had never seen it before.

sense of smell (noun)

The faculty that enables us to distinguish scents.

- He looked up "sense of smell" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sense of smell."

shadow show (noun)

A drama executed by throwing shadows on a wall.

- They discussed "shadow show" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "shadow show" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

short-circuit (verb)

Hamper the progress of; impede.

- Short-circuit warm feelings.
- The coach explained when to use "short-circuit" and when to wait.

situation comedy (noun)

A humorous drama based on situations that might arise in day-to-day life.

- The article explained what "situation comedy" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "situation comedy" during the group presentation.

soft roll (noun)

Yeast-raised roll with a soft crust.

- They discussed "soft roll" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "soft roll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

suck out (verb)

Remove as if by suction.

- The coach explained when to use "suck out" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "suck out" carefully so everyone would understand.

suck up (verb)

Try to gain favor by cringing or flattering.

- In everyday English, people use "suck up" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "suck up" in real sentences.

superior court (noun)

Any court that has jurisdiction above an inferior court.

- Understanding "superior court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "superior court" means with a simple example.

tho (noun)

A branch of the Tai languages.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tho."
- Understanding "tho" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

united states cabinet (noun)

A board to advise the President; members are the secretaries of executive departments; the United States constitution does not provide for the cabinet.

- They discussed "united states cabinet" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states cabinet."

united states house of representatives (noun)

The lower legislative house of the United States Congress.

- In class, the teacher used "united states house of representatives" to mean the lower legislative house of the united states....

- The article explained what "united states house of representatives" means with a simple example.

academy award (noun)

An annual award by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for achievements in motion picture production and performance.

- They discussed "academy award" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "academy award" to mean an annual award by the academy of motion picture....

act superior (verb)

Act like the master of.

- In everyday English, people use "act superior" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "act superior" carefully so everyone would understand.

air castle (noun)

Absentminded dreaming while awake.

- In class, the teacher used "air castle" to mean absentminded dreaming while awake.
- The article explained what "air castle" means with a simple example.

all of a sudden (adverb)

Happening unexpectedly.

- Suddenly she felt a sharp pain in her side.
- All at once, he started shouting.

alliance (noun)

A connection based on kinship or marriage or common interest.

- The shifting alliances within a large family.
- The article explained what "alliance" means with a simple example.

and so forth (adverb)

Continuing in the same way.

- Place "and so forth" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- She spoke "and so forth," and the audience immediately understood her point.

bath water (noun)

Water used for a bath.

- He looked up "bath water" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bath water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

belt down (verb)

Drink down entirely.

- He downed three martinis before dinner.
- Can you use "belt down" in a sentence that fits this situation?

bound form (noun)

A morpheme that occurs only as part of a larger construction; eg an -s at the end of plural nouns.

- Understanding "bound form" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bound form" because he had never seen it before.

butter up (verb)

Flatter with the intention of getting something.

- He did not know how to use "butter up" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "butter up" in real sentences.

castle in the air (noun)

Absentminded dreaming while awake.

- In class, the teacher used "castle in the air" to mean absentminded dreaming while awake.
- The article explained what "castle in the air" means with a simple example.

city desk (noun)

The editorial department of a newspaper that edits the local news.

- Understanding "city desk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "city desk."

---

co-occur (verb)

Go with, fall together.

- In everyday English, people use "co-occur" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "co-occur" until he saw an example.

---

co-occur with (verb)

Go or occur together.

- The word 'hot' tends to cooccur with 'cold'.
- He did not know how to use "co-occur with" until he saw an example.

---

complex sentence (noun)

A sentence composed of at least one main clause and one subordinate clause.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "complex sentence."
- He looked up "complex sentence" because he had never seen it before.

---

confirm (verb)

Establish or strengthen as with new evidence or facts.

- His story confirmed my doubts.
- The witnesses confirmed the victim's account.

---

congratulations (noun)

An expression of approval and commendation.

- I sent them my sincere congratulations on their marriage.
- The article explained what "congratulations" means with a simple example.

---

crap (noun)

Obscene words for unacceptable behavior.

- Understanding "crap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "crap" during the group presentation.

---

crap up (verb)

Become obstructed or chocked up.

- He did not know how to use "crap up" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "crap up" in real sentences.

---

dark comedy (noun)

A comedy characterized by grim or satiric humor; a comedy having gloomy or disturbing elements.

- They discussed "dark comedy" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dark comedy" because he had never seen it before.

---

defense technical information center (noun)

The agency in the Department of Defense that provides scientific and technical information to federal agencies and their contractors.

- Understanding "defense technical information center" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defense technical information center."

---

describes (verb)

To give an account or representation of in words.

- Learners should practice how to use "describes" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "describes" until he saw an example.

---

desert (verb)

Leave someone who needs or counts on you; leave in the lurch.

- The mother deserted her children.

- If soldiers deserted Hitler's army, they were shot.

direct object (noun)

The object that receives the direct action of the verb.

- Understanding "direct object" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "direct object" means with a simple example.

dry milk (noun)

Dehydrated milk.

- He looked up "dry milk" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dry milk" during the group presentation.

executive branch (noun)

The branch of the United States government that is responsible for carrying out the laws.

- In class, the teacher used "executive branch" to mean the branch of the united states government that is....
- He looked up "executive branch" because he had never seen it before.

express mail (noun)

Mail that is distributed by a rapid and efficient system.

- They discussed "express mail" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "express mail."

express-mail (verb)

Send by express mail or courier.

- Express-mail the documents immediately.
- Learners should practice how to use "express-mail" in real sentences.

federal home loan bank system (noun)

The central credit system for thrift institutions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal home loan bank system."
- Understanding "federal home loan bank system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

federal reserve bank (noun)

One of 12 regional banks that monitor and act as depositories for banks in their region.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal reserve bank."
- He looked up "federal reserve bank" because he had never seen it before.

french bread (noun)

A crusty sourdough bread often baked in long slender tapered loaves or baguettes.

- Understanding "french bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "french bread" during the group presentation.

from nowhere (adverb)

Without warning.

- Place "from nowhere" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "from nowhere" naturally.

fruit drink (noun)

A sweetened beverage of diluted fruit juice.

- In class, the teacher used "fruit drink" to mean a sweetened beverage of diluted fruit juice.
- He looked up "fruit drink" because he had never seen it before.

fruit machine (noun)

A coin-operated gambling machine that produces random combinations of symbols (usually pictures of different fruits) on rotating dials; certain combinations win money for the player.

- The article explained what "fruit machine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fruit machine" to mean a coin-operated gambling machine that produces....

garden truck (noun)

Fresh fruits and vegetable grown for the market.

- He looked up "garden truck" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "garden truck."

---

give suck (verb)

Give suck to.

- The wetnurse suckled the infant.
- In everyday English, people use "give suck" when talking about this idea.

---

home economics (noun)

Theory and practice of homemaking.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home economics."
- The article explained what "home economics" means with a simple example.

---

in conclusion (adverb)

The item at the end.

- He answered "in conclusion," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Place "in conclusion" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

international waters (noun)

The open seas of the world outside the territorial waters of any nation.

- In class, the teacher used "international waters" to mean the open seas of the world outside the territorial....
- The article explained what "international waters" means with a simple example.

---

israeli (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Israel or its people.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "israeli."
- Students compared "israeli" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

layer (noun)

An abstract place usually conceived as having depth.

- A simile has at least two layers of meaning.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "layer."

---

legal document (noun)

(law) a document that states some contractual relationship or grants some right.

- Understanding "legal document" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "legal document" during the group presentation.

---

like kings (adverb)

In a royal manner.

- Using "like kings" can make your explanation more exact.
- She spoke "like kings," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

managing (verb)

Be successful; achieve a goal.

- Learners should practice how to use "managing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "managing" when talking about this idea.

---

marry (verb)

Perform a marriage ceremony.

- In everyday English, people use "marry" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "marry" until he saw an example.

---

memorial day (noun)

Legal holiday in the United States, last Monday in May; commemorates the members of the United States armed forces who were killed in war.

- He looked up "memorial day" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "memorial day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

military intelligence agency (noun)

An agency of the armed forces that obtains and analyzes and uses information of strategic or tactical military value.

- They discussed "military intelligence agency" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "military intelligence agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

military-industrial complex (noun)

A country's military establishment and the industries that produce arms and other military equipment; –Dwight David Eisenhower.

- We must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex.
- The article explained what "military-industrial complex" means with a simple example.

---

modern greek (noun)

The Greek language as spoken and written today.

- The article explained what "modern greek" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "modern greek" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

natural philosophy (noun)

The science of matter and energy and their interactions.

- He looked up "natural philosophy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "natural philosophy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

of a sudden (adverb)

Happening unexpectedly.

- Suddenly she felt a sharp pain in her side.
- Using "of a sudden" can make your explanation more exact.

---

pet food (noun)

Food prepared for animal pets.

- They discussed "pet food" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pet food" means with a simple example.

---

pet-food (noun)

Food prepared for animal pets.

- In class, the teacher used "pet-food" to mean food prepared for animal pets.
- They discussed "pet-food" during the group presentation.

---

pray (verb)

Address a deity, a prophet, a saint or an object of worship; say a prayer.

- Pray to the Lord.
- Learners should practice how to use "pray" in real sentences.

---

property settlement (noun)

(matrimonial law) the division of property owned or acquired by marriage partners during their marriage.

- He looked up "property settlement" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "property settlement" during the group presentation.

---

recall (noun)

The process of remembering (especially the process of recovering information by mental effort).

- He has total recall of the episode.
- The recall of our ambassador.

---

reform movement (noun)

A movement intended to bring about social and humanitarian reforms.

- He looked up "reform movement" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reform movement."

resistance unit (noun)

The reciprocal of conductance.

- They discussed "resistance unit" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "resistance unit" to mean the reciprocal of conductance.

sheet (noun)

(mathematics) an unbounded two-dimensional shape.

- A sheet of ice.
- The article explained what "sheet" means with a simple example.

signing (noun)

Language expressed by visible hand gestures.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "signing."
- Understanding "signing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spiritual (noun)

A kind of religious song originated by Blacks in the southern United States.

- They discussed "spiritual" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spiritual."

square mile (noun)

An area of 640 acres.

- Understanding "square mile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "square mile" during the group presentation.

string out (verb)

Set out or stretch in a line, succession, or series.

- The houses were strung out in a long row.
- Can you use "string out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

tag line (noun)

The point of a joke or humorous story.

- He looked up "tag line" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tag line" to mean the point of a joke or humorous story.

united states intelligence agency (noun)

An intelligence service in the United States.

- The article explained what "united states intelligence agency" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "united states intelligence agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

abroad (adverb)

To or in a foreign country.

- They had never travelled abroad.
- The narrator describes the scene "abroad" in the final chapter.

absolute majority (noun)

(elections) more than half of the votes.

- He looked up "absolute majority" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "absolute majority" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

back and forth (adverb)

Moving from one place to another and back again.

- He traveled back and forth between Los Angeles and New York.
- The treetops whipped to and fro in a frightening manner.

bar absolute (noun)

The absolute unit of pressure equal to one dyne per square centimeter.

- He looked up “bar absolute” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “bar absolute” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bell metal (noun)

Bronze with 3 or 4 parts copper to 1 part tin; used in making bells.

- In class, the teacher used “bell metal” to mean bronze with 3 or 4 parts copper to 1 part tin; used....
- They discussed “bell metal” during the group presentation.

---

blood meal (noun)

The dried and powdered blood of animals.

- The article explained what “blood meal” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “blood meal” during the group presentation.

---

bother (verb)

To cause inconvenience or discomfort to.

- Don’t bother, please.
- Mosquitoes buzzing in my ear really bothers me.

---

brown-nose (verb)

Flatter with the intention of getting something.

- She tried to use “brown-nose” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “brown-nose” and when to wait.

---

by the bye (adverb)

Introducing a different topic; in point of fact.

- Incidentally, I won’t go to the party.
- He answered “by the bye,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

chain reaction (noun)

A series of chemical reactions in which the product of one is a reactant in the next.

- Understanding “chain reaction” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “chain reaction” to mean a series of chemical reactions in which the product....

---

coal oil (noun)

A flammable hydrocarbon oil used as fuel in lamps and heaters.

- The article explained what “coal oil” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “coal oil” to mean a flammable hydrocarbon oil used as fuel in lamps....

---

cold-shoulder (verb)

Pay no attention to, disrespect.

- She cold-shouldered her ex-fiance.
- Can you use “cold-shoulder” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

color circle (noun)

A chart in which complementary colors (or their names) are arranged on opposite sides of a circle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “color circle.”
- Understanding “color circle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

compete (verb)

Compete for something; engage in a contest; measure oneself against others.

- He did not know how to use “compete” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “compete” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

consists (verb)

Be consistent in form, tenor, or character; be congruous.

- Desires are to be satisfied only so far as consists with an approved end.

- The payment consists in food.

dark bread (noun)

Bread made with whole wheat flour.

- In class, the teacher used "dark bread" to mean bread made with whole wheat flour.
- Understanding "dark bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

discover (verb)

See for the first time; make a discovery.

- Who discovered the North Pole?
- Roentgen discovered X-rays.

dry measure (noun)

A unit of capacity for dry commodities (as fruit or grain).

- They discussed "dry measure" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dry measure" because he had never seen it before.

employment agency (noun)

An agency that finds people to fill particular jobs or finds jobs for unemployed people.

- The article explained what "employment agency" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "employment agency" to mean an agency that finds people to fill particular jobs....

equally (adverb)

To the same degree (often followed by 'as').

- They were equally beautiful.
- They split their winnings equally.

fruit-eating (adjective)

Feeding on fruit.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fruit-eating."
- Would you call this situation "fruit-eating"? Explain why.

hanging wall (noun)

The upper wall of an inclined fault.

- Understanding "hanging wall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hanging wall."

indian rice (noun)

Grains of aquatic grass of North America.

- He looked up "indian rice" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian rice."

keep mum (verb)

Refuse to talk or stop talking; fall silent.

- She tried to use "keep mum" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "keep mum" when talking about this idea.

korea bay (noun)

An inlet of the Yellow Sea between the Liaodong Peninsula in China and western Korea.

- Understanding "korea bay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "korea bay" means with a simple example.

legal philosophy (noun)

The branch of philosophy concerned with the law and the principles that lead courts to make the decisions they do.

- Understanding "legal philosophy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "legal philosophy" during the group presentation.

lifetime (noun)

The period during which something is functional (as between birth and death).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lifetime."
- The article explained what "lifetime" means with a simple example.

---

liquid (noun)

A substance that is liquid at room temperature and pressure.

- In class, the teacher used "liquid" to mean a substance that is liquid at room temperature and....
- They discussed "liquid" during the group presentation.

---

low-fat milk (noun)

Milk from which some of the cream has been removed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "low-fat milk."
- They discussed "low-fat milk" during the group presentation.

---

manner of speaking (noun)

Your characteristic style or manner of expressing yourself orally.

- His manner of speaking was quite abrupt.
- He looked up "manner of speaking" because he had never seen it before.

---

medal (noun)

An award for winning a championship or commemorating some other event.

- They discussed "medal" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "medal" means with a simple example.

---

moral force (noun)

An efficient incentive.

- In class, the teacher used "moral force" to mean an efficient incentive.
- They discussed "moral force" during the group presentation.

---

moral sense (noun)

Motivation deriving logically from ethical or moral principles that govern a person's thoughts and actions.

- The article explained what "moral sense" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "moral sense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

night soil (noun)

Human excreta used as fertilizer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "night soil."
- They discussed "night soil" during the group presentation.

---

occasionally (adverb)

Now and then or here and there.

- He was arrogant and occasionally callous.
- Open areas are only occasionally interrupted by clumps of trees.

---

oil meal (noun)

Ground oil cake.

- The article explained what "oil meal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "oil meal" to mean ground oil cake.

---

pan (verb)

Express a totally negative opinion of.

- The critics panned the performance.
- The camera panned across the room.

---

pan out (verb)

Wash dirt in a pan to separate out the precious minerals.

- The idea panned out.
- He did not know how to use "pan out" until he saw an example.

---

physics (noun)

The science of matter and energy and their interactions.

- His favorite subject was physics.
- He studied the physics of radiation.

---

posting (noun)

A sign posted in a public place as an advertisement.

- The posting was made in the cash account.
- He looked up "posting" because he had never seen it before.

---

potentially (adverb)

With a possibility of becoming actual.

- He is potentially dangerous.
- Potentially useful.

---

push aside (verb)

Bar from attention or consideration.

- She tried to use "push aside" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "push aside" when talking about this idea.

---

raw material (noun)

Material suitable for manufacture or use or finishing.

- The article explained what "raw material" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "raw material" to mean material suitable for manufacture or use or finishing.

---

re-argue (verb)

Argue again.

- Learners should practice how to use "re-argue" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "re-argue" and when to wait.

---

reflect (verb)

To throw or bend back (from a surface).

- Sound is reflected well in this auditorium.
- This action reflects his true beliefs.

---

refuse (verb)

Resist immunologically the introduction of some foreign tissue or organ.

- He refused my offer of hospitality.
- She tried to use "refuse" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

resource (noun)

The ability to deal resourcefully with unusual problems.

- A man of resource.
- The local library is a valuable resource.

---

revealed religion (noun)

A religion founded primarily on the revelations of God to humankind.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "revealed religion."
- They discussed "revealed religion" during the group presentation.

---

sciences (noun)

A particular branch of scientific knowledge.

- They discussed "sciences" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sciences" means with a simple example.

sea coal (noun)

Pulverized bituminous coal; used as a foundry facing.

- He looked up "sea coal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea coal."

sentence structure (noun)

The grammatical arrangement of words in sentences.

- He looked up "sentence structure" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sentence structure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

serves (verb)

Help to some food; help with food or drink.

- The tree stump serves as a table.
- Art serves commerce.

shell (noun)

A rigid covering that envelops an object.

- The satellite is covered with a smooth shell of ice.
- Understanding "shell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

smoking gun (noun)

Indisputable evidence (especially of a crime).

- In class, the teacher used "smoking gun" to mean indisputable evidence (especially of a crime).
- He looked up "smoking gun" because he had never seen it before.

smooth over (verb)

Treat hurriedly or avoid dealing with properly.

- She tried to use "smooth over" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "smooth over" until he saw an example.

spiritual world (noun)

A belief that there is a realm controlled by a divine spirit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spiritual world."
- He looked up "spiritual world" because he had never seen it before.

spoken word (noun)

A word that is spoken aloud.

- He looked up "spoken word" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spoken word" to mean a word that is spoken aloud.

spot promote (verb)

Promote on the spot.

- Supreme Bishop Digby had been spot-promoted to Archangel.
- Learners should practice how to use "spot promote" in real sentences.

star chamber (noun)

A former English court that became notorious for its arbitrary methods and severe punishments.

- Understanding "star chamber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "star chamber."

star chart (noun)

A chart showing the relative positions of the stars in a particular part of the sky.

- Understanding "star chart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "star chart" because he had never seen it before.

strong belief (noun)

An unshakable belief in something without need for proof or evidence.

- Understanding "strong belief" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strong belief."

---

texas independence day (noun)

Texans celebrate the anniversary of Texas' declaration of independence from Mexico in 1836.

- The article explained what "texas independence day" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "texas independence day" to mean texans celebrate the anniversary of texas'....

---

tone language (noun)

A language in which different tones distinguish different meanings.

- He looked up "tone language" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tone language" during the group presentation.

---

tone of voice (noun)

The quality of a person's voice.

- He began in a conversational tone.
- He spoke in a nervous tone of voice.

---

towns (noun)

The people living in a municipality smaller than a city.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "towns."
- Understanding "towns" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

united states trade representative (noun)

The executive agency that administers the President's policies on international trade.

- He looked up "united states trade representative" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "united states trade representative" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

variety meat (noun)

Edible viscera of a butchered animal.

- The article explained what "variety meat" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "variety meat."

---

vice squad (noun)

A police group to enforce laws against gambling and prostitution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vice squad."
- The article explained what "vice squad" means with a simple example.

---

weight-lift (verb)

Lift weights.

- She tried to use "weight-lift" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "weight-lift" and when to wait.

---

wet dream (noun)

An erotic dream (usually at night) accompanied by the (nocturnal) emission of semen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wet dream."
- They discussed "wet dream" during the group presentation.

---

wire service (noun)

An agency to collects news reports for newspapers and distributes it electronically.

- In class, the teacher used "wire service" to mean an agency to collects news reports for newspapers....
- The article explained what "wire service" means with a simple example.

---

wood alcohol (noun)

A light volatile flammable poisonous liquid alcohol; used as an antifreeze and solvent and fuel and as a denaturant for ethyl alcohol.

- They discussed "wood alcohol" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “wood alcohol” because he had never seen it before.

acid test (noun)

A rigorous or crucial appraisal.

- They discussed “acid test” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “acid test” because he had never seen it before.

atlantic time (noun)

Standard time in the 4th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 60th meridian; used in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands and Bermuda and the Canadian Maritime Provinces.

- The article explained what “atlantic time” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “atlantic time” to mean standard time in the 4th time zone west of....

belong to (verb)

Be a part or adjunct.

- The uniform looks like it belonged to a museum collection.
- These pages don’t belong.

black diamond (noun)

An inferior dark diamond used in industry for drilling and polishing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “black diamond.”
- He looked up “black diamond” because he had never seen it before.

board of directors (noun)

A group of persons chosen to govern the affairs of a corporation or other large institution.

- Understanding “board of directors” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “board of directors” during the group presentation.

bone oil (noun)

The liquid portion of bone fat; used as a lubricant and in leather manufacture.

- Understanding “bone oil” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bone oil.”

book of judges (noun)

A book of the Old Testament that tells the history of Israel under the leaders known as judges.

- Understanding “book of judges” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “book of judges.”

book of maps (noun)

A collection of maps in book form.

- The article explained what “book of maps” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “book of maps.”

brown bread (noun)

Dark steamed bread made of cornmeal wheat and flour with molasses and soda and milk or water.

- Understanding “brown bread” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “brown bread” because he had never seen it before.

by trial and error (adverb)

In an empirical manner.

- He answered “by trial and error,” which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using “by trial and error” can make your explanation more exact.

capacity measure (noun)

A unit of measurement of volume or capacity.

- In class, the teacher used “capacity measure” to mean a unit of measurement of volume or capacity.
- He looked up “capacity measure” because he had never seen it before.

christian bible (noun)

The sacred writings of the Christian religions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "christian bible."
- The article explained what "christian bible" means with a simple example.

---

christmas cake (noun)

A rich fruitcake (usually covered with icing and marzipan) and eaten at Christmas.

- In class, the teacher used "christmas cake" to mean a rich fruitcake (usually covered with icing and....
- Understanding "christmas cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

come forth (verb)

Happen or occur as a result of something.

- The words seemed to come out by themselves.
- In everyday English, people use "come forth" when talking about this idea.

---

commonly (adverb)

Under normal conditions.

- She spoke "commonly," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "commonly" can make your explanation more exact.

---

connect (verb)

Join by means of communication equipment.

- The telephone company finally put in lines to connect the towns in this area.
- Can you connect the two loudspeakers?

---

crown glass (noun)

A glass blown into a globe which is later flattened and spun to form a disk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crown glass."
- He looked up "crown glass" because he had never seen it before.

---

dark chocolate (noun)

Chocolate liquor with cocoa butter and small amounts of sugar and vanilla; lecithin is usually added.

- He looked up "dark chocolate" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dark chocolate" during the group presentation.

---

defensive (noun)

An attitude of defensiveness (especially in the phrase 'on the defensive').

- They discussed "defensive" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "defensive" to mean an attitude of defensiveness (especially in the....

---

democratic-republican party (noun)

A former major political party in the United States in the early 19th century; opposed the old Federalist party; favored a strict interpretation of the constitution in order to limit the powers of the federal government.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "democratic-republican party."
- They discussed "democratic-republican party" during the group presentation.

---

efficiency (noun)

Skillfulness in avoiding wasted time and effort.

- She did the work with great efficiency.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "efficiency."

---

employment interview (noun)

An interview to determine whether an applicant is suitable for a position of employment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "employment interview."
- They discussed "employment interview" during the group presentation.

---

enterprise (noun)

An organization created for business ventures.

- A growing enterprise must have a bold leader.
- He had doubts about the whole enterprise.

---

experiment (verb)

To conduct a test or investigation.

- We are experimenting with the new drug in order to fight this disease.
- Students experiment sexually.

---

feb (noun)

The month following January and preceding March.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "feb."
- Understanding "feb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

findings (noun)

A collection of tools and other articles used by an artisan to make jewelry or clothing or shoes.

- The findings in the gastrointestinal tract indicate that he died several hours after dinner.
- An area rich in archaeological findings.

---

firms (noun)

The members of a business organization that owns or operates one or more establishments.

- They discussed "firms" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "firms" means with a simple example.

---

fish cake (noun)

A fried ball or patty of flaked fish and mashed potatoes.

- He looked up "fish cake" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fish cake" to mean a fried ball or patty of flaked fish and mashed....

---

former armed forces (noun)

A terrorist organization that seeks to overthrow the government dominated by Tutsi and to institute Hutu control again.

- In class, the teacher used "former armed forces" to mean a terrorist organization that seeks to overthrow....
- They discussed "former armed forces" during the group presentation.

---

good-bye (noun)

A farewell remark.

- They said their good-byes.
- He looked up "good-bye" because he had never seen it before.

---

hence (adverb)

(used to introduce a logical conclusion) from that fact or reason or as a result.

- The eggs were fresh and hence satisfactory.
- We were young and thence optimistic.

---

highest common factor (noun)

The largest integer that divides without remainder into a set of integers.

- In class, the teacher used "highest common factor" to mean the largest integer that divides without remainder....
- Understanding "highest common factor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

increasingly (adverb)

Advancing in amount or intensity.

- She became increasingly depressed.
- Place "increasingly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

incredibly (adverb)

Exceedingly; extremely.

- Behind you the coastal hills plunge to the incredibly blue sea backed by the Turkish mountains.
- The narrator describes the scene "incredibly" in the final chapter.

iv (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of three and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iv."
- He looked up "iv" because he had never seen it before.

kicked (verb)

Express complaints, discontent, displeasure, or unhappiness.

- The boy kicked the dog.
- The gun kicked back into my shoulder.

liberal arts (noun)

Studies intended to provide general knowledge and intellectual skills (rather than occupational or professional skills).

- The college of arts and sciences.
- They discussed "liberal arts" during the group presentation.

mo (noun)

An indefinitely short time.

- Wait just a moment.
- In a mo.

occasion (noun)

The time of a particular event.

- On the occasion of his 60th birthday.
- It was needed only on special occasions.

on occasion (adverb)

Now and then or here and there.

- He was arrogant and occasionally callous.
- Open areas are only occasionally interrupted by clumps of trees.

one-sixth (noun)

One part in six equal parts.

- The article explained what "one-sixth" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "one-sixth."

pan off (verb)

Wash dirt in a pan to separate out the precious minerals.

- Learners should practice how to use "pan off" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "pan off" when talking about this idea.

pen up (verb)

Confine in a fold, like sheep.

- She tried to use "pen up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "pen up" and when to wait.

percentage sign (noun)

A sign ('%') used to indicate that the number preceding it should be understood as a proportion multiplied by 100.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "percentage sign."
- They discussed "percentage sign" during the group presentation.

pink lady (noun)

A cocktail made of gin and brandy with lemon juice and grenadine shaken with an egg white and ice.

- He looked up "pink lady" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pink lady" to mean a cocktail made of gin and brandy with lemon juice....

prayer book (noun)

A book containing prayers.

- Understanding "prayer book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "prayer book" means with a simple example.

---

promotion system (noun)

A system for advancing participants to higher-status positions.

- He looked up "promotion system" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "promotion system."

---

quick bread (noun)

Breads made with a leavening agent that permits immediate baking.

- The article explained what "quick bread" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "quick bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rocks (noun)

A lump or mass of hard consolidated mineral matter.

- In class, the teacher used "rocks" to mean a lump or mass of hard consolidated mineral matter.
- The article explained what "rocks" means with a simple example.

---

self-awareness (noun)

Awareness of your own individuality.

- In class, the teacher used "self-awareness" to mean awareness of your own individuality.
- Understanding "self-awareness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

speech pattern (noun)

Distinctive manner of oral expression.

- She had a very clear speech pattern.
- Understanding "speech pattern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

square yard (noun)

A unit of area equal to one yard by one yard square.

- They discussed "square yard" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "square yard" because he had never seen it before.

---

surface-active agent (noun)

A chemical agent capable of reducing the surface tension of a liquid in which it is dissolved.

- They discussed "surface-active agent" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "surface-active agent" means with a simple example.

---

thirty (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and three.

- He looked up "thirty" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "thirty" during the group presentation.

---

united states waters (noun)

Territorial waters included within a distance of 12 nautical miles of the coasts of the United States and its territories.

- Ships operating in United States waters must adhere to United States laws and regulations.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states waters."

---

wake-up signal (noun)

(military) signal to wake up.

- In class, the teacher used "wake-up signal" to mean (military) signal to wake up.
- They discussed "wake-up signal" during the group presentation.

---

wave theory of light (noun)

(physics) the theory that light is transmitted as waves.

- The article explained what "wave theory of light" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wave theory of light."

---

wish-wash (noun)

Nonsensical talk or writing.

- They discussed "wish-wash" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "wish-wash" to mean nonsensical talk or writing.

---

acid value (noun)

(chemistry) the amount of free acid present in fat as measured by the milligrams of potassium hydroxide needed to neutralize it.

- As the glycerides in fat slowly decompose the acid value increases.
- Understanding "acid value" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

advertising agency (noun)

An agency that designs advertisement to call public attention to its clients.

- They discussed "advertising agency" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "advertising agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

advertising division (noun)

The division of a business that is responsible for advertising.

- The article explained what "advertising division" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "advertising division" during the group presentation.

---

agriculture (noun)

The class of people engaged in growing food.

- The article explained what "agriculture" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "agriculture" to mean the class of people engaged in growing food.

---

anna (noun)

A former copper coin of Pakistan and India.

- In class, the teacher used "anna" to mean a former copper coin of pakistan and india.
- The article explained what "anna" means with a simple example.

---

assumed name (noun)

A name that has been assumed temporarily.

- The article explained what "assumed name" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "assumed name" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bell apple (noun)

The edible yellow fruit of the Jamaica honeysuckle.

- They discussed "bell apple" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bell apple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bell the cat (verb)

Take a risk; perform a daring act.

- Who is going to bell the cat?
- She tried to use "bell the cat" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

brown coal (noun)

Intermediate between peat and bituminous coal.

- The article explained what "brown coal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "brown coal" to mean intermediate between peat and bituminous coal.

---

captain james cook (noun)

English navigator who claimed the east coast of Australia for Britain and discovered several Pacific islands (1728-1779).

- He looked up "captain james cook" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "captain james cook" during the group presentation.

---

catch sight (verb)

See something for a brief time.

- The coach explained when to use "catch sight" and when to wait.
- Can you use "catch sight" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cheese spread (noun)

Spread made of cheese mixed with butter or cream or cream cheese and seasonings.

- Understanding "cheese spread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cheese spread" during the group presentation.

---

chemical agent (noun)

An agent that produces chemical reactions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chemical agent."
- Understanding "chemical agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

church of rome (noun)

The Christian Church based in the Vatican and presided over by a pope and an episcopal hierarchy.

- They discussed "church of rome" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "church of rome."

---

coal gas (noun)

Gaseous mixture produced by distillation of bituminous coal and used for heating and lighting.

- In class, the teacher used "coal gas" to mean gaseous mixture produced by distillation of....
- He looked up "coal gas" because he had never seen it before.

---

comfort food (noun)

Food that is simply prepared and gives a sense of wellbeing; typically food with a high sugar or carbohydrate content that is associated with childhood or with home cooking.

- In class, the teacher used "comfort food" to mean food that is simply prepared and gives a sense of....
- They discussed "comfort food" during the group presentation.

---

cutting edge (noun)

The position of greatest importance or advancement; the leading position in any movement or field.

- The article explained what "cutting edge" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cutting edge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dinner bell (noun)

A bell rung to announce that dinner has been served.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dinner bell."
- The article explained what "dinner bell" means with a simple example.

---

do one's best (verb)

Perform a task as well as possible.

- He did not know how to use "do one's best" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "do one's best" and when to wait.

---

first amendment (noun)

An amendment to the Constitution of the United States guaranteeing the right of free expression; includes freedom of assembly and freedom of the press and freedom of religion and freedom of speech.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first amendment."
- The article explained what "first amendment" means with a simple example.

---

free-associate (verb)

Associate freely.

- In everyday English, people use "free-associate" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "free-associate" in real sentences.

---

grass over (verb)

Cover with grass.

- Learners should practice how to use “grass over” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “grass over” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

honour (noun)

A tangible symbol signifying approval or distinction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “honour.”
- The article explained what “honour” means with a simple example.

---

hook up (verb)

Connect or link.

- Hook up the houses to the gas supply line.
- Hook up the components of the new sound system.

---

hundred thousand (noun)

The cardinal number that is the fifth power of ten.

- He looked up “hundred thousand” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hundred thousand.”

---

inner product (noun)

A real number (a scalar) that is the product of two vectors.

- The article explained what “inner product” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “inner product” to mean a real number (a scalar) that is the product of two....

---

irish coffee (noun)

Sweetened coffee with Irish whiskey and whipped cream.

- The article explained what “irish coffee” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “irish coffee” to mean sweetened coffee with irish whiskey and whipped cream.

---

jewish religion (noun)

Jews collectively who practice a religion based on the Torah and the Talmud.

- The article explained what “jewish religion” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “jewish religion” to mean jews collectively who practice a religion based on....

---

km (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to 1000 meters (or 0.621371 miles).

- In class, the teacher used “km” to mean a metric unit of length equal to 1000 meters (or....
- The article explained what “km” means with a simple example.

---

landing party (noun)

A part of a ship’s company organized for special duties ashore.

- They discussed “landing party” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “landing party” means with a simple example.

---

like sin (adverb)

With great speed or effort or intensity.

- Drove like crazy.
- Worked like hell to get the job done.

---

line of poetry (noun)

A single line of words in a poem.

- Understanding “line of poetry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “line of poetry.”

---

log (noun)

A written record of messages sent or received.

- They kept a log of all transmission by the radio station.
- An email log.

lower bound (noun)

(mathematics) a number equal to or less than any other number in a given set.

- They discussed "lower bound" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "lower bound" because he had never seen it before.

marriage license (noun)

A license authorizing two people to marry.

- The article explained what "marriage license" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "marriage license" to mean a license authorizing two people to marry.

matthew (noun)

One of the Gospels in the New Testament; includes the Sermon on the Mount.

- In class, the teacher used "matthew" to mean one of the gospels in the new testament; includes....
- He looked up "matthew" because he had never seen it before.

membership card (noun)

A card certifying membership in an organization.

- He looked up "membership card" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "membership card."

merely (adverb)

And nothing more.

- I was merely asking.
- He answered "merely," which changed the tone of the conversation.

milk sugar (noun)

A sugar comprising one glucose molecule linked to a galactose molecule; occurs only in milk.

- Cow's milk contains about 4.7% lactose.
- They discussed "milk sugar" during the group presentation.

monitor (verb)

Keep tabs on; keep an eye on; keep under surveillance.

- We are monitoring the air quality.
- The police monitor the suspect's moves.

morning prayer (noun)

The first canonical hour; at daybreak.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morning prayer."
- He looked up "morning prayer" because he had never seen it before.

new year's (noun)

The first day of the year.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new year's."
- They discussed "new year's" during the group presentation.

newspaper ad (noun)

A printed advertisement that is published in a newspaper.

- He looked up "newspaper ad" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "newspaper ad."

nov (noun)

The month following October and preceding December.

- The article explained what "nov" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nov" to mean the month following october and preceding december.

phase of the moon (noun)

A time when the Moon presents a particular recurring appearance.

- He looked up "phase of the moon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phase of the moon."

---

put behind bars (verb)

Lock up or confine, in or as in a jail.

- He did not know how to use "put behind bars" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "put behind bars" and when to wait.

---

ratio (noun)

The relation between things (or parts of things) with respect to their comparative quantity, magnitude, or degree.

- The article explained what "ratio" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ratio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

red-handed (adverb)

Doing something reprehensible or showing clear evidence of having done something reprehensible.

- He was caught red-handed.
- He answered "red-handed," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

remind (verb)

Put in the mind of someone.

- Remind me to call Mother.
- In everyday English, people use "remind" when talking about this idea.

---

resulted (verb)

Issue or terminate (in a specified way, state, etc.); end.

- She tried to use "resulted" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "resulted" until he saw an example.

---

right angle (noun)

The 90 degree angle between two perpendicular lines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right angle."
- He looked up "right angle" because he had never seen it before.

---

rolling paper (noun)

A strong tissue paper that burns evenly and is sufficiently porous to control the burning of the tobacco in a cigarette.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rolling paper."
- The article explained what "rolling paper" means with a simple example.

---

routine (noun)

A short theatrical performance that is part of a longer program.

- She had a catchy little routine.
- In class, the teacher used "routine" to mean a short theatrical performance that is part of a....

---

seed (verb)

Place (seeds) in or on the ground for future growth.

- She sowed sunflower seeds.
- The dandelions went to seed.

---

service bureau (noun)

A business that makes its facilities available to others for a fee; achieves economy of scale.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service bureau."
- They discussed "service bureau" during the group presentation.

---

sin (verb)

Commit a faux pas or a fault or make a serious mistake.

- Learners should practice how to use "sin" in real sentences.

- She tried to use “sin” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

spell (noun)

A verbal formula believed to have magical force.

- He whispered a spell as he moved his hands.
- A spell of work.

---

spell out (verb)

Orally recite the letters of or give the spelling of.

- How do you spell this word?
- We had to spell out our names for the police officer.

---

stone fruit (noun)

Fleshy indehiscent fruit with a single seed: e.g. almond; peach; plum; cherry; elderberry; olive; jujube.

- They discussed “stone fruit” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stone fruit.”

---

summary (noun)

A brief statement that presents the main points in a concise form.

- He gave a summary of the conclusions.
- Understanding “summary” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

survival (noun)

A natural process resulting in the evolution of organisms best adapted to the environment.

- He looked up “survival” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “survival” to mean a natural process resulting in the evolution of....

---

tape record (verb)

Record with a tape recorder.

- He did not know how to use “tape record” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “tape record” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tongue (noun)

Any long thin projection that is transient.

- Tongues of flame licked at the walls.
- He spoke with a thick tongue.

---

visual image (noun)

A mental image that is similar to a visual perception.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “visual image.”
- The article explained what “visual image” means with a simple example.

---

ward (verb)

Watch over or shield from danger or harm; protect.

- The coach explained when to use “ward” and when to wait.
- Can you use “ward” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

word processing system (noun)

An application that provides the user with tools needed to write and edit and format text and to send it to a printer.

- Understanding “word processing system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “word processing system” to mean an application that provides the user with tools....

---

absolute scale (noun)

A temperature scale that defines absolute zero as 0 degrees; water freezes at 273.16 degrees and boils at 373.16 degrees.

- They discussed “absolute scale” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “absolute scale” means with a simple example.

---

argued (verb)

Present reasons and arguments.

- She tried to use "argued" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "argued" until he saw an example.

---

beat around the bush (verb)

Be deliberately ambiguous or unclear in order to mislead or withhold information.

- The coach explained when to use "beat around the bush" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "beat around the bush" in real sentences.

---

begun (verb)

Have a beginning characterized in some specified way.

- Can you use "begun" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "begun" until he saw an example.

---

benefit concert (noun)

A concert given for the benefit of some charitable cause.

- The article explained what "benefit concert" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "benefit concert" during the group presentation.

---

bush administration (noun)

The executive under President George W. Bush.

- Understanding "bush administration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bush administration."

---

canadian falls (noun)

A part of Niagara Falls in Ontario.

- The article explained what "canadian falls" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canadian falls."

---

cents (noun)

A fractional monetary unit of several countries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cents."
- Understanding "cents" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chain-smoke (verb)

Smoke one cigarette after another; light one cigarette from the preceding one.

- He did not know how to use "chain-smoke" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "chain-smoke" in real sentences.

---

chocolate bar (noun)

A bar of chocolate candy.

- The article explained what "chocolate bar" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chocolate bar."

---

coffee cake (noun)

A cake or sweet bread usually served with coffee.

- Understanding "coffee cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "coffee cake" during the group presentation.

---

color wheel (noun)

A chart in which complementary colors (or their names) are arranged on opposite sides of a circle.

- He looked up "color wheel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "color wheel."

---

colour bar (noun)

Barrier preventing blacks from participating in various activities with whites.

- They discussed “colour bar” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “colour bar” because he had never seen it before.

---

commercial document (noun)

A document of or relating to commerce.

- The article explained what “commercial document” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “commercial document.”

---

cooking oil (noun)

Any of numerous vegetable oils used in cooking.

- He looked up “cooking oil” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “cooking oil” to mean any of numerous vegetable oils used in cooking.

---

culture shock (noun)

A condition of disorientation affecting someone who is suddenly exposed to an unfamiliar culture or way of life or set of attitudes.

- Understanding “culture shock” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “culture shock” to mean a condition of disorientation affecting someone who....

---

department of economics (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in economics.

- The article explained what “department of economics” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “department of economics” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

divorce (verb)

Get a divorce; formally terminate a marriage.

- The couple divorced after only 6 months.
- The coach explained when to use “divorce” and when to wait.

---

economics department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in economics.

- He looked up “economics department” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “economics department.”

---

eye chart (noun)

A chart that is read from a fixed distance; used as a test of vision.

- The article explained what “eye chart” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “eye chart” during the group presentation.

---

free soil party (noun)

A former political party in the United States; formed in 1848 to oppose the extension of slavery into the territories; merged with the Liberty Party in 1848.

- They discussed “free soil party” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “free soil party” because he had never seen it before.

---

frequency (noun)

The number of occurrences within a given time period.

- The frequency of modulation was 40 cycles per second.
- The frequency of his seizures increased as he grew older.

---

ghost word (noun)

A word form that has entered the language through the perpetuation of an error.

- They discussed “ghost word” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “ghost word” means with a simple example.

---

give one’s best (verb)

Perform a task as well as possible.

- The cast gives full measure every night.
- He did not know how to use “give one’s best” until he saw an example.

greatest common factor (noun)

The largest integer that divides without remainder into a set of integers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greatest common factor."
- He looked up "greatest common factor" because he had never seen it before.

heritage (noun)

Practices that are handed down from the past by tradition.

- A heritage of freedom.
- The world's heritage of knowledge.

hook up with (verb)

Take in marriage.

- Learners should practice how to use "hook up with" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "hook up with" carefully so everyone would understand.

in one's own right (adverb)

By reason of one's own ability or ownership etc.

- She's a rich woman in her own right rather than by inheritance.
- An excellent novel in its own right.

interviews (noun)

A conference (usually with someone important).

- My interviews with teenagers revealed a weakening of religious bonds.
- In class, the teacher used "interviews" to mean a conference (usually with someone important).

juice (noun)

The liquid part that can be extracted from plant or animal tissue by squeezing or cooking.

- Her creative juices were flowing.
- When the wiring was finished they turned on the juice.

keep pace (verb)

Maintain the same pace.

- The child cannot keep step with his big brother.
- The coach explained when to use "keep pace" and when to wait.

king james bible (noun)

An English translation of the Bible published in 1611.

- The article explained what "king james bible" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "king james bible."

landscape (noun)

An extensive mental viewpoint.

- The political landscape looks bleak without a change of administration.
- We changed the landscape for solving the problem of payroll inequity.

logic (noun)

The principles that guide reasoning within a given field or situation.

- Economic logic requires it.
- By the logic of war.

medium steel (noun)

Steel with 0.15-0.3% carbon.

- Understanding "medium steel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "medium steel" because he had never seen it before.

mother's day (noun)

Second Sunday in May.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother's day."
- They discussed "mother's day" during the group presentation.

---

natural covering (noun)

A natural object that covers or envelops.

- Under a covering of dust.
- Understanding "natural covering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

new phase of the moon (noun)

The time at which the Moon appears as a narrow waxing crescent.

- In class, the teacher used "new phase of the moon" to mean the time at which the moon appears as a narrow....
- He looked up "new phase of the moon" because he had never seen it before.

---

new year's day (noun)

The first day of the year.

- The article explained what "new year's day" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "new year's day" to mean the first day of the year.

---

objective (noun)

The goal intended to be attained (and which is believed to be attainable).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "objective."
- He looked up "objective" because he had never seen it before.

---

organic law (noun)

Law determining the fundamental political principles of a government.

- The article explained what "organic law" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "organic law" during the group presentation.

---

organized crime (noun)

Underworld organizations.

- They discussed "organized crime" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "organized crime" to mean underworld organizations.

---

paper trail (noun)

The written evidence of someone's activities.

- This paper trail consisted mainly of electronically stored information.
- He looked up "paper trail" because he had never seen it before.

---

pen name (noun)

An author's pseudonym.

- He looked up "pen name" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pen name" to mean an author's pseudonym.

---

perfect pitch (noun)

The ability to identify the pitch of a tone.

- They discussed "perfect pitch" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "perfect pitch" to mean the ability to identify the pitch of a tone.

---

reducing (noun)

Loss of excess weight (as by dieting); becoming slimmer.

- A doctor supervised her reducing.
- The article explained what "reducing" means with a simple example.

---

regard as (verb)

Look on as or consider.

- In everyday English, people use "regard as" when talking about this idea.

- She tried to use “regard as” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

rent-roll (noun)

A register of rents; includes the names of tenants and the amount of rent they pay.

- The article explained what “rent-roll” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rent-roll.”

---

representing (verb)

Serve as a means of expressing something.

- Learners should practice how to use “representing” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “representing” and when to wait.

---

restaurant chain (noun)

A chain of restaurants.

- In class, the teacher used “restaurant chain” to mean a chain of restaurants.
- The article explained what “restaurant chain” means with a simple example.

---

roughly (adverb)

With rough motion as over a rough surface.

- Roughly $3,000.
- He was pushed roughly aside.

---

science fiction (noun)

Literary fantasy involving the imagined impact of science on society.

- He looked up “science fiction” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “science fiction.”

---

script (noun)

A particular orthography or writing system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “script.”
- Understanding “script” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

secret approval (noun)

(law) tacit approval of someone’s wrongdoing.

- They discussed “secret approval” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “secret approval” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sections (noun)

A specialized division of a large organization.

- Sections from the left ventricle showed diseased tissue.
- Metal sections were used below ground.

---

security intelligence review committee (noun)

An agency of the Canadian government that oversees the activities of the Criminal Intelligence Services of Canada and has the power to intrude on the privacy of suspected terrorists or spies.

- In class, the teacher used “security intelligence review committee” to mean an agency of the canadian government that oversees....
- The article explained what “security intelligence review committee” means with a simple example.

---

silver-plate (verb)

Plate with silver.

- The coach explained when to use “silver-plate” and when to wait.
- Can you use “silver-plate” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

spoken language (noun)

(language) communication by word of mouth.

- He uttered harsh language.
- He recorded the spoken language of the streets.

---

standard atmosphere (noun)

A unit of pressure: the pressure that will support a column of mercury 760 mm high at sea level and 0 degrees centigrade.

- They discussed "standard atmosphere" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "standard atmosphere" because he had never seen it before.

---

thirty-something (noun)

The time of life between 30 and 40.

- The article explained what "thirty-something" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "thirty-something" during the group presentation.

---

through an experiment (adverb)

In an experimental fashion.

- This can be experimentally determined.
- The narrator describes the scene "through an experiment" in the final chapter.

---

transferred (verb)

Send from one person or place to another.

- I transferred my stock holdings to my children.
- She tried to use "transferred" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

trend analysis (noun)

Analysis of changes over time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trend analysis."
- Understanding "trend analysis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

type of architecture (noun)

Architecture as a kind of art form.

- In class, the teacher used "type of architecture" to mean architecture as a kind of art form.
- Understanding "type of architecture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ward off (verb)

Prevent the occurrence of; prevent from happening.

- Head off a confrontation.
- Ward off danger.

---

wild rice (noun)

Grains of aquatic grass of North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild rice."
- He looked up "wild rice" because he had never seen it before.

---

attractive feature (noun)

A characteristic that provides pleasure and attracts.

- They discussed "attractive feature" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "attractive feature."

---

bell shape (noun)

The shape of a bell.

- He looked up "bell shape" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bell shape" during the group presentation.

---

by inches (adverb)

By a short distance.

- They moved it by inches.
- Using "by inches" can make your explanation more exact.

---

cant (noun)

A characteristic language of a particular group (as among thieves).

- Understanding “cant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “cant” during the group presentation.

---

chemistry (noun)

The way two individuals relate to each other.

- Their chemistry was wrong from the beginning – they hated each other.
- The chemistry of soil.

---

cotton (noun)

Soft silky fibers from cotton plants in their raw state.

- The article explained what “cotton” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “cotton” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cotton on (verb)

Understand, usually after some initial difficulty.

- The coach explained when to use “cotton on” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “cotton on” until he saw an example.

---

dinner plate (noun)

A plate from which a diner eats during the main course of a meal.

- In class, the teacher used “dinner plate” to mean a plate from which a diner eats during the main....
- The article explained what “dinner plate” means with a simple example.

---

dog tag (noun)

Military identification tag worn on a chain around the neck.

- Understanding “dog tag” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “dog tag” during the group presentation.

---

dog-ear (noun)

A corner of a page turned down to mark your place.

- They discussed “dog-ear” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “dog-ear” because he had never seen it before.

---

dozen (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of eleven and one.

- He looked up “dozen” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “dozen” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

draft beer (noun)

Beer drawn from a keg.

- The article explained what “draft beer” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “draft beer” during the group presentation.

---

epic (noun)

A long narrative poem telling of a hero’s deeds.

- The article explained what “epic” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “epic.”

---

exception (noun)

An instance that does not conform to a rule or generalization.

- All her children were brilliant; the only exception was her last child.
- An exception tests the rule.

---

farm cheese (noun)

Mild white cheese made from curds of soured skim milk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “farm cheese.”
- He looked up “farm cheese” because he had never seen it before.

frame of reference (noun)

A system that uses coordinates to establish position.

- The article explained what "frame of reference" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "frame of reference" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fruit fly (noun)

Any of numerous small insects whose larvae feed on fruits.

- They discussed "fruit fly" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fruit fly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grand jury (noun)

A jury to inquire into accusations of crime and to evaluate the grounds for indictments.

- In class, the teacher used "grand jury" to mean a jury to inquire into accusations of crime and to....
- The article explained what "grand jury" means with a simple example.

high-definition television (noun)

A television system that has more than the usual number of lines per frame so its pictures show more detail.

- Understanding "high-definition television" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "high-definition television" means with a simple example.

housing and urban development (noun)

The United States federal department that administers federal programs dealing with better housing and urban renewal; created in 1965.

- They discussed "housing and urban development" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "housing and urban development" because he had never seen it before.

inches (noun)

A unit of measurement for advertising space.

- He looked up "inches" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "inches" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

indicate (verb)

To state or express briefly.

- Indicated his wishes in a letter.
- These symptoms indicate a serious illness.

input (noun)

A statement that expresses a personal opinion or belief or adds information.

- Understanding "input" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "input" to mean a statement that expresses a personal opinion or....

josh (verb)

Be silly or tease one another.

- The coach explained when to use "josh" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "josh" until he saw an example.

knock about (verb)

Strike against forcefully.

- Can you use "knock about" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "knock about" and when to wait.

lips (noun)

An impudent or insolent rejoinder.

- Understanding "lips" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lips" to mean an impudent or insolent rejoinder.

liquid air (noun)

Air in a liquid state.

- In class, the teacher used "liquid air" to mean air in a liquid state.
- The article explained what "liquid air" means with a simple example.

---

manufacturers (noun)

A business engaged in manufacturing some product.

- He looked up "manufacturers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manufacturers."

---

marriage settlement (noun)

A prenuptial agreement or contract.

- The article explained what "marriage settlement" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "marriage settlement" during the group presentation.

---

motor memory (noun)

Your memory for motor skills.

- He looked up "motor memory" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "motor memory."

---

movements (noun)

A general tendency to change (as of opinion).

- In class, the teacher used "movements" to mean a general tendency to change (as of opinion).
- Understanding "movements" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oct (noun)

The month following September and preceding November.

- Understanding "oct" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oct."

---

one-thirty-second (noun)

One part in thirty-two equal parts.

- Understanding "one-thirty-second" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "one-thirty-second" because he had never seen it before.

---

operated (verb)

Direct or control; projects, businesses, etc.

- The doctors operated on the patient but failed to save his life.
- Learners should practice how to use "operated" in real sentences.

---

pan american day (noun)

A day celebrating political and economic unity among American countries.

- The article explained what "pan american day" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pan american day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

publishing house (noun)

A firm in the publishing business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "publishing house."
- The article explained what "publishing house" means with a simple example.

---

quarter mile (noun)

A unit of length equal to a quarter of 1 mile.

- The article explained what "quarter mile" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quarter mile."

---

reference frame (noun)

A system that uses coordinates to establish position.

- He looked up "reference frame" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “reference frame.”

relative majority (noun)

(in an election with more than 2 options) the number of votes for the candidate or party receiving the greatest number (but less that half of the votes).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “relative majority.”
- Understanding “relative majority” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

residence time (noun)

The period of time spent in a particular place.

- They discussed “residence time” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “residence time.”

root word (noun)

(linguistics) the form of a word after all affixes are removed.

- He looked up “root word” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “root word.”

round of drinks (noun)

A serving to each of a group (usually alcoholic).

- He ordered a second round.
- He looked up “round of drinks” because he had never seen it before.

round the clock (adverb)

Without stopping.

- She worked around the clock.
- Using “round the clock” can make your explanation more exact.

sentence stress (noun)

The distribution of stresses within a sentence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sentence stress.”
- Understanding “sentence stress” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sept (noun)

The month following August and preceding October.

- In class, the teacher used “sept” to mean the month following august and preceding october.
- The article explained what “sept” means with a simple example.

stretch (noun)

A large and unbroken expanse or distance.

- A stretch of highway.
- A stretch of clear water.

tear (noun)

An opening made forcibly as by pulling apart.

- His story brought tears to her eyes.
- He took the manuscript in both hands and gave it a mighty tear.

tear up (verb)

Tear into shreds.

- He did not know how to use “tear up” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “tear up” in a sentence that fits this situation?

turn a blind eye (verb)

Refuse to acknowledge.

- He turns a blind eye to the injustices in his office.
- Learners should practice how to use “turn a blind eye” in real sentences.

twelve (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of eleven and one.

- The article explained what "twelve" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "twelve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

twenty-twenty (noun)

Normal visual acuity, as measured by the ability to read charts at a distance of 20 feet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twenty-twenty."
- Understanding "twenty-twenty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

versions (noun)

An interpretation of a matter from a particular viewpoint.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "versions."
- They discussed "versions" during the group presentation.

---

wedding anniversary (noun)

The anniversary of the day on which you were married (or the celebration of it).

- He looked up "wedding anniversary" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "wedding anniversary" to mean the anniversary of the day on which you were....

---

wedding cake (noun)

A rich cake with two or more tiers and covered with frosting and decorations; served at a wedding reception.

- He looked up "wedding cake" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wedding cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wedding license (noun)

A license authorizing two people to marry.

- The article explained what "wedding license" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wedding license" to mean a license authorizing two people to marry.

---

wishes (noun)

An expression of some desire or inclination.

- My best wishes.
- They should respect the wishes of the people.

---

world organisation (noun)

An international alliance involving many different countries.

- In class, the teacher used "world organisation" to mean an international alliance involving many different....
- They discussed "world organisation" during the group presentation.

---

agricultural (adjective)

Relating to or used in or promoting agriculture or farming.

- Agricultural engineering.
- Modern agricultural (or farming) methods.

---

bar chart (noun)

A chart with bars whose lengths are proportional to quantities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bar chart."
- Understanding "bar chart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

basic colour (noun)

A dye that is considered to be a base because the chromophore is part of a positive ion.

- In class, the teacher used "basic colour" to mean a dye that is considered to be a base because the....
- The article explained what "basic colour" means with a simple example.

---

blues (noun)

A type of folksong that originated among Black Americans at the beginning of the 20th century; has a melancholy sound from repeated use of blue notes.

- He had a bad case of the blues.
- They discussed "blues" during the group presentation.

---

cable length (noun)

A nautical unit of depth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cable length."
- The article explained what "cable length" means with a simple example.

---

chemical reaction (noun)

(chemistry) a process in which one or more substances are changed into others.

- There was a chemical reaction of the lime with the ground water.
- The article explained what "chemical reaction" means with a simple example.

---

chicken leg (noun)

The lower joint of the leg of a chicken.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chicken leg."
- They discussed "chicken leg" during the group presentation.

---

control experiment (noun)

An experiment designed to control for variables affecting the results of another experiment.

- In class, the teacher used "control experiment" to mean an experiment designed to control for variables....
- Understanding "control experiment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

couples (noun)

A small indefinite number.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "couples."
- He looked up "couples" because he had never seen it before.

---

court of domestic relations (noun)

A court in some states in the United States that has jurisdiction over family disputes (especially those involving children).

- They discussed "court of domestic relations" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "court of domestic relations."

---

credit rating (noun)

An estimate, based on previous dealings, of a person's or an organization's ability to fulfill their financial commitments.

- He looked up "credit rating" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "credit rating" to mean an estimate, based on previous dealings, of a....

---

cross-refer (verb)

Refer from one entry to another, as in catalogues, books, and lists.

- In everyday English, people use "cross-refer" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "cross-refer" in real sentences.

---

defense intelligence agency (noun)

An intelligence agency of the United States in the Department of Defense; is responsible for providing intelligence in support of military planning and operations and weapons acquisition.

- He looked up "defense intelligence agency" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "defense intelligence agency" to mean an intelligence agency of the united states in the....

---

deserves (verb)

Be worthy or deserving.

- Can you use "deserves" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "deserves" and when to wait.

---

domestic relations court (noun)

A court in some states in the United States that has jurisdiction over family disputes (especially those involving children).

- In class, the teacher used "domestic relations court" to mean a court in some states in the united states that....
- The article explained what "domestic relations court" means with a simple example.

extend (verb)

Span an interval of distance, space or time.

- The war extended over five years.
- My land extends over the hills on the horizon.

extend to (verb)

To extend as far as.

- Can you use "extend to" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "extend to" when talking about this idea.

face angle (noun)

The angle formed by two edges of a polyhedral angle.

- Understanding "face angle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "face angle" to mean the angle formed by two edges of a polyhedral angle.

federal communications commission (noun)

An independent government agency that regulates interstate and international communications by radio and television and wire and cable and satellite.

- They discussed "federal communications commission" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal communications commission."

fish finger (noun)

A long fillet of fish breaded and fried.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fish finger."
- He looked up "fish finger" because he had never seen it before.

fish meal (noun)

Ground dried fish used as fertilizer and as feed for domestic livestock.

- The article explained what "fish meal" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fish meal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flood out (verb)

Charge someone with too many tasks.

- She tried to use "flood out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "flood out" when talking about this idea.

full phase of the moon (noun)

The time when the Moon is fully illuminated.

- The moon is at the full.
- The article explained what "full phase of the moon" means with a simple example.

genetic (adjective)

Of or relating to the science of genetics.

- Genetic research.
- Genetic code.

ideal gas (noun)

A hypothetical gas with molecules of negligible size that exert no intermolecular forces.

- In class, the teacher used "ideal gas" to mean a hypothetical gas with molecules of negligible....
- They discussed "ideal gas" during the group presentation.

idiot light (noun)

A colored warning light on an instrument panel (as for low oil pressure).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "idiot light."
- He looked up "idiot light" because he had never seen it before.

immediate memory (noun)

What you can repeat immediately after perceiving it.

- Understanding "immediate memory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "immediate memory" to mean what you can repeat immediately after perceiving it.

---

in both ears (adverb)

In a binaural manner.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in both ears" naturally.
- Place "in both ears" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

in principle (adverb)

With regard to fundamentals although not concerning details.

- In principle, we agree.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in principle" naturally.

---

indian meal (noun)

Coarsely ground corn.

- In class, the teacher used "indian meal" to mean coarsely ground corn.
- The article explained what "indian meal" means with a simple example.

---

indicated (verb)

To state or express briefly.

- Indicated his wishes in a letter.
- He indicated his opponents.

---

individual retirement account (noun)

A retirement plan that allows you to contribute a limited yearly sum toward your retirement; taxes on the interest earned in the account are deferred.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "individual retirement account."
- He looked up "individual retirement account" because he had never seen it before.

---

instant (noun)

A very short time (as the time it takes the eye to blink or the heart to beat).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instant."
- They discussed "instant" during the group presentation.

---

joint resolution (noun)

A resolution passed by both houses of Congress which becomes legally binding when signed by the Chief Executive (or passed over the Chief Executive's veto).

- Understanding "joint resolution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "joint resolution" means with a simple example.

---

knock back (verb)

Cost a certain amount.

- My daughter's wedding set me back $20,000.
- Can you use "knock back" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

knock down (verb)

Knock down with force.

- The policeman downed the heavily armed suspect.
- The mugger knocked down the old lady after she refused to hand over her wallet.

---

knock off (verb)

Get rid of (someone who may be a threat) by killing.

- She dashed off a note to her husband saying she would not be home for supper.
- He scratched off a thank-you note to the hostess.

---

lead sheet (noun)

A sheet containing the words and melody for a song (and some indication of harmony) written in simple form.

- The article explained what "lead sheet" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "lead sheet" during the group presentation.

low-fat diet (noun)

A diet containing limited amounts of fat and stressing foods high in carbohydrates; used in treatment of some gallbladder conditions.

- In class, the teacher used "low-fat diet" to mean a diet containing limited amounts of fat and....
- He looked up "low-fat diet" because he had never seen it before.

lunch meat (noun)

Any of various sausages or molded loaf meats sliced and served cold.

- The article explained what "lunch meat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lunch meat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

make up one's mind (verb)

Reach, make, or come to a decision about something.

- Can you use "make up one's mind" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "make up one's mind" until he saw an example.

maria (noun)

A dark region of considerable extent on the surface of the moon.

- In class, the teacher used "maria" to mean a dark region of considerable extent on the surface....
- He looked up "maria" because he had never seen it before.

marriage proposal (noun)

An offer of marriage.

- In class, the teacher used "marriage proposal" to mean an offer of marriage.
- He looked up "marriage proposal" because he had never seen it before.

occurs (verb)

To be found to exist.

- Sexism occurs in many workplaces.
- Can you use "occurs" in a sentence that fits this situation?

one thousand thousand (noun)

The number that is represented as a one followed by 6 zeros.

- Understanding "one thousand thousand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "one thousand thousand."

organic process (noun)

A process occurring in living organisms.

- Understanding "organic process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "organic process" means with a simple example.

organization chart (noun)

A chart showing the lines of responsibility between departments of a large organization.

- The article explained what "organization chart" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "organization chart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

photographs (verb)

Undergo being photographed in a certain way.

- He did not know how to use "photographs" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "photographs" in a sentence that fits this situation?

producer gas (noun)

A gas made of carbon monoxide and hydrogen and nitrogen; made by passing air over hot coke.

- The article explained what "producer gas" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "producer gas" during the group presentation.

progressive (noun)

A tense of verbs used in describing action that is on-going.

- The article explained what "progressive" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "progressive" to mean a tense of verbs used in describing action that is....

publishing company (noun)

A firm in the publishing business.

- Understanding "publishing company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "publishing company" means with a simple example.

rapidly (adverb)

With rapid movements.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "rapidly" naturally.
- Using "rapidly" can make your explanation more exact.

reveals (verb)

Make known to the public information that was previously known only to a few people or that was meant to be kept a secret.

- The coach explained when to use "reveals" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "reveals" carefully so everyone would understand.

samples (noun)

A small part of something intended as representative of the whole.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "samples."
- The article explained what "samples" means with a simple example.

select committee (noun)

A parliamentary committee appointed for some special purpose.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "select committee."
- They discussed "select committee" during the group presentation.

service routine (noun)

A routine that can be used as needed.

- They discussed "service routine" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service routine."

string of words (noun)

A linear sequence of words as spoken or written.

- They discussed "string of words" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "string of words."

style of architecture (noun)

Architecture as a kind of art form.

- The article explained what "style of architecture" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "style of architecture" to mean architecture as a kind of art form.

sum (noun)

A set containing all and only the members of two or more given sets.

- He borrowed a large sum.
- The sum of all our troubles did not equal the misery they suffered.

sum up (verb)

Determine the sum of.

- He summed up his results.
- I will now summarize.

sum-up (noun)

A brief statement that presents the main points in a concise form.

- The article explained what "sum-up" means with a simple example.

- They discussed “sum-up” during the group presentation.

survey mile (noun)

A U.S. unit of measure equal to 1609.347 meters; derived from the use of 39.37 inches as the conversion for one meter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “survey mile.”
- Understanding “survey mile” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

swing out (verb)

Make a big sweeping gesture or movement.

- The coach explained when to use “swing out” and when to wait.
- Can you use “swing out” in a sentence that fits this situation?

take exception (verb)

Raise a formal objection in a court of law.

- Learners should practice how to use “take exception” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “take exception” until he saw an example.

tear into (verb)

Hit violently, as in an attack.

- She tried to use “tear into” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “tear into” until he saw an example.

thirty-second part (noun)

One part in thirty-two equal parts.

- He looked up “thirty-second part” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “thirty-second part.”

to both ears (adverb)

In a binaural manner.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “to both ears” naturally.
- Using “to both ears” can make your explanation more exact.

twin (verb)

Bring two objects, ideas, or people together.

- The polished surface twinned his face and chest in reverse.
- Twin crystals.

two dozen (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-three and one.

- He looked up “two dozen” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “two dozen” to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-three....

visiting card (noun)

A printed or written greeting that is left to indicate that you have visited.

- They discussed “visiting card” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “visiting card.”

wolf down (verb)

Eat hastily.

- The teenager wolfed down the pizza.
- Learners should practice how to use “wolf down” in real sentences.

word string (noun)

A linear sequence of words as spoken or written.

- They discussed “word string” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “word string.”

administrative unit (noun)

A unit with administrative responsibilities.

- Understanding "administrative unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "administrative unit" means with a simple example.

---

alert (noun)

A warning serves to make you more alert to danger.

- Bombers were put on alert during the crisis.
- Understanding "alert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

arguments (noun)

A fact or assertion offered as evidence that something is true.

- He looked up "arguments" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "arguments" to mean a fact or assertion offered as evidence that....

---

aug (noun)

The month following July and preceding September.

- They discussed "aug" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "aug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

birthday cake (noun)

Decorated cake served at a birthday party.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "birthday cake."
- Understanding "birthday cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

boom out (verb)

Make a deep hollow sound.

- Her voice booms out the words of the song.
- Can you use "boom out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

brave out (verb)

Face and withstand with courage.

- She braved the elements.
- The coach explained when to use "brave out" and when to wait.

---

breast-high (adverb)

Up to the breast.

- We were standing breast-high in the water.
- Place "breast-high" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

bull through (verb)

Push or force.

- He bulled through his demands.
- She tried to use "bull through" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

business organisation (noun)

A commercial or industrial enterprise and the people who constitute it.

- He bought his brother's business.
- A small mom-and-pop business.

---

claiming (verb)

Assert or affirm strongly; state to be true or existing.

- She tried to use "claiming" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "claiming" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

closed-circuit (adjective)

Relating to or consisting of a closed circuit.

- Closed-circuit television.
- It is useful to describe something as "closed-circuit" when it is relating to or consisting of a closed circuit.

---

column (noun)

A page or text that is vertically divided.

- The newspaper devoted several columns to the subject.
- The bookkeeper used pages that were divided into columns.

---

commonwealth day (noun)

British, anniversary of Queen Victoria's birth.

- In class, the teacher used "commonwealth day" to mean british, anniversary of queen victoria's birth.
- The article explained what "commonwealth day" means with a simple example.

---

composition (noun)

An essay (especially one written as an assignment).

- He got an A on his composition.
- Harmonious composition is essential in a serious work of art.

---

constitutional (adjective)

Of benefit to or intended to benefit your physical makeup.

- Constitutional walk.
- The constitutional right of free speech.

---

covering letter (noun)

A letter sent along with other documents to provide additional information.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "covering letter."
- They discussed "covering letter" during the group presentation.

---

covering material (noun)

A material used by builders to cover surfaces.

- In class, the teacher used "covering material" to mean a material used by builders to cover surfaces.
- Understanding "covering material" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crossing (noun)

A shallow area in a stream that can be forded.

- Understanding "crossing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "crossing" during the group presentation.

---

department of physics (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in physics.

- In class, the teacher used "department of physics" to mean the academic department responsible for teaching....
- The article explained what "department of physics" means with a simple example.

---

difficulty (noun)

A factor causing trouble in achieving a positive result or tending to produce a negative result.

- Had difficulty walking.
- Finished the test only with great difficulty.

---

dinner theatre (noun)

A theater at which dinner is included in the price of admission.

- They discussed "dinner theatre" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dinner theatre" because he had never seen it before.

---

direct contrast (noun)

The opposition or dissimilarity of things that are compared; ,.

- In contrast to.
- By contrast.

dry plate (noun)

A former photographic method that used a glass plate coated with a light-sensitive gelatinous emulsion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dry plate."
- Understanding "dry plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

financial institution (noun)

An institution (public or private) that collects funds (from the public or other institutions) and invests them in financial assets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "financial institution."
- Understanding "financial institution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

first principle (noun)

The elementary stages of any subject (usually plural).

- Understanding "first principle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "first principle" to mean the elementary stages of any subject (usually plural).

gen (noun)

Informal term for information.

- Give me the gen on your new line of computers.
- Understanding "gen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

greatly (adverb)

To an extraordinary extent or degree.

- He improved greatly.
- Place "greatly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

hold forth (verb)

Talk at length and formally about a topic.

- Learners should practice how to use "hold forth" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "hold forth" and when to wait.

horse-drawn (adjective)

Pulled by a horse.

- A horse-drawn carriage.
- Would you call this situation "horse-drawn"? Explain why.

hot pot (noun)

A stew of meat and potatoes cooked in a tightly covered pot.

- In class, the teacher used "hot pot" to mean a stew of meat and potatoes cooked in a tightly....
- He looked up "hot pot" because he had never seen it before.

industrial revolution (noun)

The transformation from an agricultural to an industrial nation.

- He looked up "industrial revolution" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "industrial revolution."

iowa (noun)

A dialect of the Chiwere language spoken by the Iowa.

- In class, the teacher used "iowa" to mean a dialect of the chiwere language spoken by the iowa.
- He looked up "iowa" because he had never seen it before.

knock against (verb)

Collide violently with an obstacle.

- Can you use "knock against" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "knock against" until he saw an example.

line of fate (noun)

A crease on the palm; palmists say it indicates how successful you will be.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line of fate."
- The article explained what "line of fate" means with a simple example.

---

line organisation (noun)

The organizational structure of activities contributing directly to the organization's output.

- He looked up "line organisation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line organisation."

---

long dozen (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twelve and one.

- In class, the teacher used "long dozen" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of twelve and one.
- They discussed "long dozen" during the group presentation.

---

machine wash (verb)

Wash by machine.

- Can these shirts be machine-washed?
- The coach explained when to use "machine wash" and when to wait.

---

machine-wash (verb)

Wash by machine.

- Can these shirts be machine-washed?
- He did not know how to use "machine-wash" until he saw an example.

---

mechanical (adjective)

Relating to or concerned with machinery or tools.

- Mechanical arts.
- Mechanical design.

---

national labor relations board (noun)

An independent agency of the United States government charged with mediating disputes between management and labor unions.

- They discussed "national labor relations board" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "national labor relations board" means with a simple example.

---

objective case (noun)

The case of nouns serving as the direct object of a verb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "objective case."
- They discussed "objective case" during the group presentation.

---

pair creation (noun)

The transformation of a gamma-ray photon into an electron and a positron when the photon passes close to an atomic nucleus.

- They discussed "pair creation" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pair creation" to mean the transformation of a gamma-ray photon into an....

---

periods (noun)

A unit of geological time during which a system of rocks formed.

- Ganoid fishes swarmed during the earlier geological periods.
- Understanding "periods" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

physics department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in physics.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "physics department."
- They discussed "physics department" during the group presentation.

---

practical politics (noun)

Politics based on practical rather than moral or ideological considerations.

- Understanding "practical politics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "practical politics" to mean politics based on practical rather than moral or....

primary solid solution (noun)

A homogeneous solid that can exist over a range of component chemicals; a constituent of alloys that is formed when atoms of an element are incorporated into the crystals of a metal.

- In class, the teacher used "primary solid solution" to mean a homogeneous solid that can exist over a range of....
- They discussed "primary solid solution" during the group presentation.

proposal of marriage (noun)

An offer of marriage.

- They discussed "proposal of marriage" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "proposal of marriage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

remembered (verb)

Keep in mind for attention or consideration.

- He remembered how he used to pick flowers.
- He remembered her in his will.

removal company (noun)

A company that moves the possessions of a family or business from one site to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "removal company."
- They discussed "removal company" during the group presentation.

residential (adjective)

Of or relating to or connected with residence.

- A residential requirement for the doctorate.
- A residential hotel.

saw log (noun)

Log large enough to be sawed into boards.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saw log."
- He looked up "saw log" because he had never seen it before.

shore up (verb)

Support by placing against something solid or rigid.

- Shore and buttress an old building.
- She tried to use "shore up" carefully so everyone would understand.

spanish rice (noun)

Spicy rice with tomatoes and onions and green peppers.

- The article explained what "spanish rice" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spanish rice" to mean spicy rice with tomatoes and onions and green peppers.

square inch (noun)

A unit of area equal to one inch by one inch square.

- The article explained what "square inch" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "square inch."

star shell (noun)

An artillery shell containing an illuminant.

- Understanding "star shell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "star shell" to mean an artillery shell containing an illuminant.

swing over (verb)

Influence decisively.

- This action swung many votes over to his side.
- She tried to use "swing over" carefully so everyone would understand.

system of logic (noun)

A system of reasoning.

- He looked up "system of logic" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "system of logic."

---

to a greater extent (adverb)

Used to form the comparative of some adjectives and adverbs.

- He answered "to a greater extent," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- She spoke "to a greater extent," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

tool steel (noun)

Alloy steel that is suitable for making tools; is hard and tough and can retain a cutting edge.

- They discussed "tool steel" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tool steel."

---

trap (verb)

To hold fast or prevent from moving.

- He was trapped in a difficult situation.
- The men trap foxes.

---

veterans day (noun)

A legal holiday in the United States; formerly Armistice Day but called Veterans' Day since 1954.

- He looked up "veterans day" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "veterans day" to mean a legal holiday in the united states; formerly....

---

victoria cross (noun)

A British military decoration for gallantry.

- They discussed "victoria cross" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "victoria cross" because he had never seen it before.

---

ads (noun)

A public promotion of some product or service.

- In class, the teacher used "ads" to mean a public promotion of some product or service.
- He looked up "ads" because he had never seen it before.

---

angle of view (noun)

The angle included by a photographic lens.

- The article explained what "angle of view" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "angle of view" to mean the angle included by a photographic lens.

---

answered (verb)

Be sufficient; be adequate, either in quality or quantity.

- We answered that we would accept the invitation.
- The question concerning the meaning of life cannot be answered.

---

arab league (noun)

An international organization of independent Arab states formed in 1945 to promote cultural and economic and military and political and social cooperation.

- The article explained what "arab league" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "arab league" during the group presentation.

---

bang up (verb)

Damage or destroy as if by violence.

- The teenager banged up the car of his mother.
- In everyday English, people use "bang up" when talking about this idea.

---

banking system (noun)

Banks collectively.

- They discussed "banking system" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "banking system."

---

bone fat (noun)

Fatty matter in bones extracted with solvents or by boiling or steaming; used chiefly in candles and cheap soaps and in lubricating greases.

- They discussed "bone fat" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bone fat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

book of common prayer (noun)

The Anglican service book of the Church of England; has had several revisions since the Reformation and is widely admired for the dignity and beauty of its language.

- He looked up "book of common prayer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "book of common prayer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carbon steel (noun)

Steel whose characteristics are determined by the amount of carbon it contains.

- Understanding "carbon steel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "carbon steel" during the group presentation.

---

centuries (noun)

A period of 100 years.

- In class, the teacher used "centuries" to mean a period of 100 years.
- They discussed "centuries" during the group presentation.

---

chicken wing (noun)

The wing of a chicken.

- In class, the teacher used "chicken wing" to mean the wing of a chicken.
- The article explained what "chicken wing" means with a simple example.

---

cold cuts (noun)

Sliced assorted cold meats.

- The article explained what "cold cuts" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cold cuts."

---

complaint (noun)

An expression of grievance or resentment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "complaint."
- The article explained what "complaint" means with a simple example.

---

connections (noun)

The process of bringing ideas or events together in memory or imagination.

- He has powerful connections.
- They discussed "connections" during the group presentation.

---

crossing over (noun)

The interchange of sections between pairing homologous chromosomes during the prophase of meiosis.

- He looked up "crossing over" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crossing over."

---

decline in quality (noun)

Process of changing to an inferior state.

- He looked up "decline in quality" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "decline in quality."

---

divorce court (noun)

A court having jurisdiction over the termination of marriage contracts.

- They discussed "divorce court" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "divorce court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

environmental protection agency (noun)

An independent federal agency established to coordinate programs aimed at reducing pollution and protecting the environment.

- Understanding "environmental protection agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "environmental protection agency" to mean an independent federal agency established to....

eve (noun)

The latter part of the day (the period of decreasing daylight from late afternoon until nightfall).

- He enjoyed the evening light across the lake.
- He always arrives on the eve of her departure.

federal emergency management agency (noun)

An independent agency of the United States government that provides a single point of accountability for all federal emergency preparedness and mitigation and response activities.

- In class, the teacher used "federal emergency management agency" to mean an independent agency of the united states....
- He looked up "federal emergency management agency" because he had never seen it before.

feedback (noun)

The process in which part of the output of a system is returned to its input in order to regulate its further output.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "feedback."
- He looked up "feedback" because he had never seen it before.

foster home (noun)

A household in which an orphaned or delinquent child is placed (usually by a social-service agency).

- In class, the teacher used "foster home" to mean a household in which an orphaned or delinquent....
- The article explained what "foster home" means with a simple example.

fruit sugar (noun)

A simple sugar found in honey and in many ripe fruits.

- He looked up "fruit sugar" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fruit sugar" to mean a simple sugar found in honey and in many ripe fruits.

high energy physics (noun)

The branch of physics that studies subatomic particles and their interactions.

- They discussed "high energy physics" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "high energy physics" because he had never seen it before.

high-energy physics (noun)

The branch of physics that studies subatomic particles and their interactions.

- In class, the teacher used "high-energy physics" to mean the branch of physics that studies subatomic....
- The article explained what "high-energy physics" means with a simple example.

in hiding (adverb)

Quietly in concealment.

- Place "in hiding" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- She spoke "in hiding," and the audience immediately understood her point.

internal revenue service (noun)

The bureau of the Treasury Department responsible for tax collections.

- He looked up "internal revenue service" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "internal revenue service."

international organisation (noun)

An international alliance involving many different countries.

- Understanding "international organisation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "international organisation."

latin square (noun)

A square matrix of n rows and columns; cells contain n different symbols so arranged that no symbol occurs more than once in any row or column.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “latin square.”
- He looked up “latin square” because he had never seen it before.

---

legislative (adjective)

Of or relating to or created by legislation.

- Legislative proposal.
- Legislative council.

---

list-processing language (noun)

A flexible procedure-oriented programing language that manipulates symbols in the form of lists.

- In class, the teacher used “list-processing language” to mean a flexible procedure-oriented programing language....
- He looked up “list-processing language” because he had never seen it before.

---

load factor (noun)

(aeronautics) the ratio of an external load to the weight of the aircraft (measured in g).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “load factor.”
- The article explained what “load factor” means with a simple example.

---

manual (adjective)

Of or relating to the hands.

- Manual dexterity.
- A manual transmission.

---

military pace (noun)

The length of a single step in marching (taken to be 30 inches for quick time or 36 inches for double time).

- Understanding “military pace” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “military pace.”

---

minor mode (noun)

A key based on the minor scale.

- In class, the teacher used “minor mode” to mean a key based on the minor scale.
- He looked up “minor mode” because he had never seen it before.

---

mothers (noun)

A condition that is the inspiration for an activity or situation.

- Understanding “mothers” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “mothers” to mean a condition that is the inspiration for an activity....

---

new scotland yard (noun)

The detective department of the metropolitan police force of London.

- Understanding “new scotland yard” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “new scotland yard” during the group presentation.

---

news organisation (noun)

An agency to collects news reports for newspapers and distributes it electronically.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “news organisation.”
- Understanding “news organisation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oxford english (noun)

The dialect of English spoken at Oxford University and regarded by many as affected and pretentious.

- Understanding “oxford english” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “oxford english.”

---

panel discussion (noun)

Discussion of a subject of public interest by a group of persons forming a panel usually before an audience.

- Understanding “panel discussion” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "panel discussion" during the group presentation.

---

passion sunday (noun)

Second Sunday before Easter.

- They discussed "passion sunday" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "passion sunday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

performing arts (noun)

Arts or skills that require public performance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "performing arts."
- He looked up "performing arts" because he had never seen it before.

---

pink wine (noun)

Pinkish table wine from red grapes whose skins were removed after fermentation began.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pink wine."
- Understanding "pink wine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pound up (verb)

Shut up or confine in any enclosure or within any bounds or limits.

- The prisoners are safely pounded.
- Can you use "pound up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

preparation (noun)

A substance prepared according to a formula.

- The physician prescribed a commercial preparation of the medicine.
- Preparations for the ceremony had begun.

---

punch (verb)

Make a hole into or between, as for ease of separation.

- He punched me in the stomach.
- The nail punched through the wall.

---

registration (noun)

A document certifying an act of registering.

- They discussed "registration" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "registration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

releases (noun)

A process that liberates or discharges something.

- In class, the teacher used "releases" to mean a process that liberates or discharges something.
- He looked up "releases" because he had never seen it before.

---

rice beer (noun)

Japanese alcoholic beverage made from fermented rice; usually served hot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rice beer."
- He looked up "rice beer" because he had never seen it before.

---

romance (noun)

The group of languages derived from Latin.

- The article explained what "romance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "romance" to mean the group of languages derived from latin.

---

sand bar (noun)

A bar of sand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sand bar."
- He looked up "sand bar" because he had never seen it before.

---

scotland yard (noun)

The detective department of the metropolitan police force of London.

- In class, the teacher used "scotland yard" to mean the detective department of the metropolitan police....
- Understanding "scotland yard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sheet of paper (noun)

Paper used for writing or printing.

- In class, the teacher used "sheet of paper" to mean paper used for writing or printing.
- Understanding "sheet of paper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

social organisation (noun)

The people in a society considered as a system organized by a characteristic pattern of relationships.

- The social organization of England and America is very different.
- They discussed "social organisation" during the group presentation.

---

soft diet (noun)

A diet that does not require chewing; advised for those with intestinal disorders.

- He looked up "soft diet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soft diet."

---

square meal (noun)

A substantial and nourishing meal.

- He seldom got three square meals a day.
- In class, the teacher used "square meal" to mean a substantial and nourishing meal.

---

style sheet (noun)

A sheet summarizing the editorial conventions to be followed in preparing text for publication.

- Understanding "style sheet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "style sheet" to mean a sheet summarizing the editorial conventions to be....

---

submitted (verb)

Make an application as for a job or funding.

- The lawyers submitted the material to the court.
- He did not know how to use "submitted" until he saw an example.

---

survived (verb)

Continue to live through hardship or adversity.

- He survived the cancer against all odds.
- Learners should practice how to use "survived" in real sentences.

---

technologies (noun)

The discipline dealing with the art or science of applying scientific knowledge to practical problems.

- In class, the teacher used "technologies" to mean the discipline dealing with the art or science of....
- The article explained what "technologies" means with a simple example.

---

terrorist group (noun)

A political movement that uses terror as a weapon to achieve its goals.

- They discussed "terrorist group" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "terrorist group" means with a simple example.

---

trends (noun)

A general tendency to change (as of opinion).

- He followed current trends.
- Understanding "trends" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

view angle (noun)

The angle included by a photographic lens.

- He looked up "view angle" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "view angle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wage floor (noun)

Floor below which wages are not allowed to fall.

- Understanding "wage floor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wage floor" means with a simple example.

---

white leather (noun)

A leather that has been treated with alum and/or salt.

- He looked up "white leather" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white leather."

---

age of consent (noun)

The minimum age for marrying without parental consent or the minimum age for consensual sexual relations; intercourse at an earlier age can result in a charge of assault or statutory rape; the age differs in different states of the Union.

- Understanding "age of consent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "age of consent" to mean the minimum age for marrying without parental....

---

agriculture department (noun)

The federal department that administers programs that provide services to farmers (including research and soil conservation and efforts to stabilize the farming economy); created in 1862.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "agriculture department."
- They discussed "agriculture department" during the group presentation.

---

announcement (noun)

A public statement containing information about an event that has happened or is going to happen.

- The announcement appeared in the local newspaper.
- The government made an announcement about changes in the drug war.

---

biological time (noun)

The time of various biological processes.

- Understanding "biological time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "biological time" means with a simple example.

---

bite (noun)

A small amount of solid food; a mouthful.

- After fishing for an hour he still had not had a bite.
- The bite of satire.

---

blast off (verb)

Launch with great force.

- The rockets were blasted off.
- He did not know how to use "blast off" until he saw an example.

---

bread-stick (noun)

A crisp stick-shaped roll; often served with soup.

- They discussed "bread-stick" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bread-stick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brown butter (noun)

Clarified butter browned slowly and seasoned with vinegar or lemon juice and capers.

- He looked up "brown butter" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "brown butter" during the group presentation.

---

cake mix (noun)

A commercial mix for making a cake.

- Understanding "cake mix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cake mix" to mean a commercial mix for making a cake.

canadian security intelligence service (noun)

Canada's main foreign intelligence agency that gathers and analyzes information to provide security intelligence for the Canadian government.

- The article explained what "canadian security intelligence service" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "canadian security intelligence service" to mean canada's main foreign intelligence agency that....

categories (noun)

A collection of things sharing a common attribute.

- In class, the teacher used "categories" to mean a collection of things sharing a common attribute.
- He looked up "categories" because he had never seen it before.

chemical chain (noun)

(chemistry) a series of linked atoms (generally in an organic molecule).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chemical chain."
- They discussed "chemical chain" during the group presentation.

chip (noun)

A small fragment of something broken off from the whole.

- In class, the teacher used "chip" to mean a small fragment of something broken off from the whole.
- Understanding "chip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chip at (verb)

Engrave or cut by chipping away at a surface.

- He did not know how to use "chip at" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "chip at" when talking about this idea.

commonwealth country (noun)

Any of the countries in the British Commonwealth.

- Understanding "commonwealth country" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "commonwealth country" because he had never seen it before.

component part (noun)

Something determined in relation to something that includes it.

- He wanted to feel a part of something bigger than himself.
- The smaller component is hard to reach.

concerning (verb)

Be relevant to.

- Learners should practice how to use "concerning" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "concerning" and when to wait.

dare (verb)

To be courageous enough to try or do something; ,.

- I don't dare call him.
- She dares to dress differently from the others.

defence reaction (noun)

(psychiatry) an unconscious process that tries to reduce the anxiety associated with instinctive desires.

- The article explained what "defence reaction" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "defence reaction" to mean (psychiatry) an unconscious process that tries to....

define (verb)

Give a definition for the meaning of a word.

- Define 'sadness'.
- What defines a good wine?

department of agriculture (noun)

The federal department that administers programs that provide services to farmers (including research and soil conservation and efforts to stabilize the farming economy); created in 1862.

- In class, the teacher used "department of agriculture" to mean the federal department that administers programs....
- The article explained what "department of agriculture" means with a simple example.

---

dirty joke (noun)

An indelicate joke.

- They discussed "dirty joke" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dirty joke" to mean an indelicate joke.

---

discrimination (noun)

The cognitive process whereby two or more stimuli are distinguished.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "discrimination."
- Understanding "discrimination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

documentary (noun)

A film or TV program presenting the facts about a person or event.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "documentary."
- He looked up "documentary" because he had never seen it before.

---

dynamic (noun)

An efficient incentive.

- They hoped it would act as a spiritual dynamic on all churches.
- The article explained what "dynamic" means with a simple example.

---

english breakfast tea (noun)

Black tea grown in China.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english breakfast tea."
- Understanding "english breakfast tea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

field of regard (noun)

All of the points of the physical environment that can be perceived by a stable eye at a given moment.

- In class, the teacher used "field of regard" to mean all of the points of the physical environment that....
- He looked up "field of regard" because he had never seen it before.

---

foster family (noun)

The family of a fosterling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foster family."
- He looked up "foster family" because he had never seen it before.

---

generation gap (noun)

A difference between the views of young people and their parents.

- Understanding "generation gap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "generation gap" during the group presentation.

---

giants (noun)

An unusually large enterprise.

- He looked up "giants" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "giants" during the group presentation.

---

half a dozen (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of five and one.

- In class, the teacher used "half a dozen" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of five and one.
- The article explained what "half a dozen" means with a simple example.

---

hold one's own (verb)

Be sufficiently competent in a certain situation.

- He can hold his own in graduate school.

- Can you use "hold one's own" in a sentence that fits this situation?

ii kings (noun)

The second of two Old Testament books telling the histories of the kings of Judah and Israel.

- Understanding "ii kings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ii kings" during the group presentation.

in full swing (adverb)

Proceeding with full vigor.

- The party was in full swing.
- He answered "in full swing," which changed the tone of the conversation.

in someone's way (adverb)

Forming a hindrance, impediment, or obstruction.

- She might have succeeded in her ambition, had not circumstances been in her way.
- Place "in someone's way" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

investigate (verb)

Investigate scientifically.

- Let's investigate the syntax of Chinese.
- The district attorney's office investigated reports of possible irregularities.

jazz (noun)

Empty rhetoric or insincere or exaggerated talk.

- Don't give me any of that jazz.
- The article explained what "jazz" means with a simple example.

jonathan (noun)

Red late-ripening apple; primarily eaten raw.

- They discussed "jonathan" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "jonathan" because he had never seen it before.

liberty party (noun)

A former political party in the United States; formed in 1839 to oppose the practice of slavery; merged with the Free Soil Party in 1848.

- They discussed "liberty party" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "liberty party" means with a simple example.

literary (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of literature.

- Literary criticism.
- It is useful to describe something as "literary" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of literature.

make no bones about (verb)

Acknowledge freely and openly.

- He makes no bones about the fact that he is gay.
- He did not know how to use "make no bones about" until he saw an example.

massachusetts (noun)

The Algonquian language of the Massachuset.

- In class, the teacher used "massachusetts" to mean the algonquian language of the massachuset.
- The article explained what "massachusetts" means with a simple example.

midnight (noun)

12 o'clock at night; the middle of the night.

- Young children should not be allowed to stay up until midnight.
- In class, the teacher used "midnight" to mean 12 o'clock at night; the middle of the night.

murder mystery (noun)

A narrative about a murder and how the murderer is discovered.

- Understanding "murder mystery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "murder mystery" because he had never seen it before.

---

name-dropping (noun)

The practice of casually mentioning important people in order to impress your listener.

- The hard thing about name-dropping is to avoid being too obvious about it.
- The article explained what "name-dropping" means with a simple example.

---

new jazz (noun)

Any of various styles of jazz that appeared after 1940.

- They discussed "new jazz" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new jazz."

---

new york strip (noun)

Steak from upper part of the short loin.

- They discussed "new york strip" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new york strip."

---

organized religion (noun)

An institution to express belief in a divine power.

- He was raised in the Baptist religion.
- He looked up "organized religion" because he had never seen it before.

---

oscar (noun)

An annual award by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for achievements in motion picture production and performance.

- Understanding "oscar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oscar."

---

output contract (noun)

A contract in which you promise to deliver your entire output to the other party who promises to accept it.

- They discussed "output contract" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "output contract" to mean a contract in which you promise to deliver your....

---

people's republican army (noun)

A radical terrorist group dedicated to the removal of British forces from Northern Ireland and the unification of Ireland.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "people's republican army."
- He looked up "people's republican army" because he had never seen it before.

---

pound off (verb)

Partition off into compartments.

- The locks pound the water of the canal.
- In everyday English, people use "pound off" when talking about this idea.

---

praise (noun)

An expression of approval and commendation.

- He always appreciated praise for his work.
- They sang a hymn of praise to God.

---

progressive party (noun)

A former political party in the United States; founded by Theodore Roosevelt during the presidential campaign of 1912; its emblem was a picture of a bull moose.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "progressive party."
- Understanding "progressive party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

psychology (noun)

The science of mental life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “psychology.”
- He looked up “psychology” because he had never seen it before.

---

re-introduce (verb)

Introduce anew.

- In everyday English, people use “re-introduce” when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use “re-introduce” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

religious belief (noun)

A strong belief in a supernatural power or powers that control human destiny.

- In class, the teacher used “religious belief” to mean a strong belief in a supernatural power or powers....
- The article explained what “religious belief” means with a simple example.

---

restrictions (noun)

A principle that limits the extent of something.

- I am willing to accept certain restrictions on my movements.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “restrictions.”

---

rock crystal (noun)

A clear quartz used in making electronic and optical equipment.

- The article explained what “rock crystal” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “rock crystal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

round angle (noun)

An angle of 360 degrees.

- They discussed “round angle” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “round angle” to mean an angle of 360 degrees.

---

saudi (adjective)

Of or relating to Saudi Arabia or its people.

- The Saudi-Arabian desert.
- The Saudi royal family.

---

sec (noun)

An independent federal agency that oversees the exchange of securities to protect investors.

- The article explained what “sec” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “sec” during the group presentation.

---

secrets (noun)

Information known only to a special group.

- It remains one of nature’s secrets.
- They discussed “secrets” during the group presentation.

---

stretch along (verb)

Occupy a large, elongated area.

- The park stretched beneath the train line.
- Learners should practice how to use “stretch along” in real sentences.

---

symbol (noun)

An arbitrary sign (written or printed) that has acquired a conventional significance.

- The eagle is a symbol of the United States.
- Understanding “symbol” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

treaty (noun)

A written agreement between two states or sovereigns.

- They discussed “treaty” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “treaty” means with a simple example.

turkey leg (noun)

The lower joint of the leg of a turkey.

- In class, the teacher used "turkey leg" to mean the lower joint of the leg of a turkey.
- Understanding "turkey leg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wood coal (noun)

A carbonaceous material obtained by heating wood or other organic matter in the absence of air.

- In class, the teacher used "wood coal" to mean a carbonaceous material obtained by heating wood or....
- They discussed "wood coal" during the group presentation.

youth gang (noun)

A gang whose members are teenagers.

- In class, the teacher used "youth gang" to mean a gang whose members are teenagers.
- The article explained what "youth gang" means with a simple example.

affair (noun)

A vaguely specified concern.

- It is none of your affair.
- The party was quite an affair.

atlantic standard time (noun)

Standard time in the 4th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 60th meridian; used in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands and Bermuda and the Canadian Maritime Provinces.

- Understanding "atlantic standard time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "atlantic standard time" during the group presentation.

bear witness (verb)

Provide evidence for.

- He did not know how to use "bear witness" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "bear witness" in real sentences.

bench mark (noun)

A surveyor's mark on a permanent object of predetermined position and elevation used as a reference point.

- They discussed "bench mark" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bench mark" because he had never seen it before.

bite off (verb)

Bite off with a quick bite.

- The dog snapped off a piece of cloth from the intruder's pants.
- He did not know how to use "bite off" until he saw an example.

bow out (verb)

Remove oneself from an obligation.

- He bowed out when he heard how much work was involved.
- He bowed out when he realized he could no longer handle the demands of the chairmanship.

calendar (noun)

A list or register of events (appointments or social events or court cases etc).

- I have you on my calendar for next Monday.
- He looked up "calendar" because he had never seen it before.

chemistry department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in chemistry.

- He looked up "chemistry department" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chemistry department" to mean the academic department responsible for teaching....

chip off (verb)

Break off (a piece from a whole).

- Her tooth chipped.
- He did not know how to use "chip off" until he saw an example.

---

common fate (noun)

A Gestalt principle of organization holding that aspects of perceptual field that move or function in a similar manner will be perceived as a unit.

- They discussed "common fate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "common fate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

conversations (noun)

The use of speech for informal exchange of views or ideas or information etc.

- In class, the teacher used "conversations" to mean the use of speech for informal exchange of views or....
- He looked up "conversations" because he had never seen it before.

---

department of chemistry (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in chemistry.

- The article explained what "department of chemistry" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of chemistry."

---

devil (noun)

A word used in exclamations of confusion.

- What the devil.
- He looked up "devil" because he had never seen it before.

---

estimates (noun)

A statement indicating the likely cost of some job.

- The article explained what "estimates" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "estimates" during the group presentation.

---

false fruit (noun)

A fleshy fruit (apple or pear or related fruits) having seed chambers and an outer fleshy part.

- They discussed "false fruit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "false fruit."

---

fundamental law (noun)

Law determining the fundamental political principles of a government.

- They discussed "fundamental law" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fundamental law" to mean law determining the fundamental political....

---

future progressive (noun)

A progressive tense used to express action that will be on-going in the future.

- 'I will be running' is an example of the future progressive.
- In class, the teacher used "future progressive" to mean a progressive tense used to express action that....

---

go steady (verb)

Date regularly; have a steady relationship with.

- She tried to use "go steady" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "go steady" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

goodbye (noun)

A farewell remark.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goodbye."
- He looked up "goodbye" because he had never seen it before.

---

in darkness (adverb)

Without light.

- She spoke "in darkness," and the audience immediately understood her point.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “in darkness” naturally.

---

invite (noun)

A colloquial expression for invitation.

- He didn’t get no invite to the party.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “invite.”

---

invite out (verb)

Make a date.

- Has he asked you out yet?
- He did not know how to use “invite out” until he saw an example.

---

involvement (noun)

A connection of inclusion or containment.

- He escaped involvement in the accident.
- There was additional involvement of the liver and spleen.

---

italian rice (noun)

Rice cooked with broth and sprinkled with grated cheese.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “italian rice.”
- They discussed “italian rice” during the group presentation.

---

keep one’s eyes off (verb)

Stay clear of, avoid.

- Keep your hands off my wife!
- Keep your distance from this man–he is dangerous.

---

like the devil (adverb)

With great speed or effort or intensity.

- Drove like crazy.
- Worked like hell to get the job done.

---

natural language processing (noun)

The branch of information science that deals with natural language information.

- Understanding “natural language processing” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “natural language processing” because he had never seen it before.

---

partly (adverb)

In part; in some degree; not wholly.

- I felt partly to blame.
- She spoke “partly,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

past progressive (noun)

A progressive tense used to describe on-going action in the past.

- ‘I had been running’ is an example of the past progressive.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “past progressive.”

---

petition (noun)

A formal message requesting something that is submitted to an authority.

- In class, the teacher used “petition” to mean a formal message requesting something that is....
- The article explained what “petition” means with a simple example.

---

phase of cell division (noun)

A stage in meiosis or mitosis.

- They discussed “phase of cell division” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “phase of cell division” to mean a stage in meiosis or mitosis.

---

phrase (noun)

An expression consisting of one or more words forming a grammatical constituent of a sentence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phrase."
- He looked up "phrase" because he had never seen it before.

---

physically (adverb)

In accord with physical laws.

- It is physically impossible.
- Place "physically" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

racial (adjective)

Of or related to genetically distinguished groups of people.

- Racial groups.
- Racial differences.

---

radio broadcast (noun)

A broadcast via radio.

- In class, the teacher used "radio broadcast" to mean a broadcast via radio.
- The article explained what "radio broadcast" means with a simple example.

---

rated (verb)

Assign a rank or rating to.

- The restaurant is rated highly in the food guide.
- Gold was rated highly among the Romans.

---

red delicious (noun)

A sweet eating apple with bright red skin; most widely grown apple worldwide.

- In class, the teacher used "red delicious" to mean a sweet eating apple with bright red skin; most....
- They discussed "red delicious" during the group presentation.

---

regime (noun)

The organization that is the governing authority of a political unit.

- The article explained what "regime" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "regime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

registration number (noun)

The number on the license plate that identifies the car that bears it.

- Understanding "registration number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "registration number" means with a simple example.

---

relation back (noun)

(law) the principle that an act done at a later time is deemed by law to have occurred at an earlier time.

- His attorney argued for the relation back of the amended complaint to the time the initial complaint was filed.
- They discussed "relation back" during the group presentation.

---

sa (noun)

Nazi militia created by Hitler in 1921 that helped him to power but was eclipsed by the SS after 1943.

- Understanding "sa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sa" during the group presentation.

---

seal (noun)

The pelt or fur (especially the underfur) of a seal.

- A coat of seal.
- SEAL is an acronym for Sea Air and Land.

---

seal in (verb)

Close with or as if with a tight seal.

- She tried to use "seal in" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "seal in" when talking about this idea.

---

shipping articles (noun)

A contract between crew and captain of a ship.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shipping articles."
- He looked up "shipping articles" because he had never seen it before.

---

similarly (adverb)

In like or similar manner; ; - Samuel Johnson.

- He was similarly affected.
- Place "similarly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

stem (verb)

Grow out of, have roots in, originate in.

- The increase in the national debt stems from the last war.
- Stem your skis.

---

stone-wash (verb)

Wash with stones to achieve a worn appearance.

- Can you use "stone-wash" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "stone-wash" and when to wait.

---

take a dare (verb)

Be dared to do something and not attempt it.

- The coach explained when to use "take a dare" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "take a dare" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tea bread (noun)

Sweetened buns to be eaten with tea.

- He looked up "tea bread" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tea bread" during the group presentation.

---

to the lowest degree (adverb)

Used to form the superlative.

- The garter snake is the least dangerous snake.
- She spoke "to the lowest degree," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

toy with (verb)

Take into consideration, have in view.

- She tried to use "toy with" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "toy with" and when to wait.

---

trap line (noun)

A line or series of traps.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trap line."
- He looked up "trap line" because he had never seen it before.

---

vice-presidential (adjective)

Relating to a vice president or vice-presidency.

- Vice-presidential debates.
- It is useful to describe something as "vice-presidential" when it is relating to a vice president or vice-presidency.

---

warning signal (noun)

An automatic signal (usually a sound) warning of danger.

- In class, the teacher used "warning signal" to mean an automatic signal (usually a sound) warning of danger.
- They discussed "warning signal" during the group presentation.

accounting (noun)

A convincing explanation that reveals basic causes.

- He was unable to give a clear accounting for his actions.
- They send me an accounting every month.

air combat command (noun)

A command that is the primary provider of air combat weapon systems to the United States Air Force; operates fighter, bomber, reconnaissance, battle-management, and rescue aircraft.

- They discussed "air combat command" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "air combat command" means with a simple example.

background processing (noun)

The execution of low priority programs while higher priority programs are not using the processing system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "background processing."
- He looked up "background processing" because he had never seen it before.

banking industry (noun)

Banks collectively.

- He looked up "banking industry" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "banking industry."

bar hop (verb)

Go from one pub to the next and get progressively more drunk.

- She tried to use "bar hop" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "bar hop" when talking about this idea.

beast (noun)

A living organism characterized by voluntary movement.

- They discussed "beast" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "beast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

beef (noun)

Informal terms for objecting.

- In class, the teacher used "beef" to mean informal terms for objecting.
- He looked up "beef" because he had never seen it before.

book jacket (noun)

A paper jacket for a book; a jacket on which promotional information is usually printed.

- They discussed "book jacket" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "book jacket" means with a simple example.

business relation (noun)

A relation between different business enterprises.

- In class, the teacher used "business relation" to mean a relation between different business enterprises.
- Understanding "business relation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

calendar day (noun)

A day reckoned from midnight to midnight.

- In class, the teacher used "calendar day" to mean a day reckoned from midnight to midnight.
- The article explained what "calendar day" means with a simple example.

calendar year (noun)

The year (reckoned from January 1 to December 31) according to Gregorian calendar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calendar year."
- Understanding "calendar year" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

candy (noun)

A rich sweet made of flavored sugar and often combined with fruit or nuts.

- They discussed "candy" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "candy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chicken and rice (noun)

Rice and chicken cooked together with or without other ingredients and variously seasoned.

- The article explained what "chicken and rice" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chicken and rice" during the group presentation.

---

cited (verb)

Refer to for illustration or proof.

- He was cited for his outstanding achievements.
- He did not know how to use "cited" until he saw an example.

---

coffee grounds (noun)

The dregs remaining after brewing coffee.

- Understanding "coffee grounds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "coffee grounds" means with a simple example.

---

communist party (noun)

A political party that actively advocates a communist form of government; in Communist countries it is the sole political party of the state.

- They discussed "communist party" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "communist party" to mean a political party that actively advocates a....

---

constructed (verb)

Draw with suitable instruments and under specified conditions.

- Some eccentric constructed an electric brassiere warmer.
- The coach explained when to use "constructed" and when to wait.

---

cream cheese (noun)

Soft unripened cheese made of sweet milk and cream.

- The article explained what "cream cheese" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cream cheese" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

creek bed (noun)

A channel occupied (or formerly occupied) by a stream.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "creek bed."
- He looked up "creek bed" because he had never seen it before.

---

dec (noun)

The last (12th) month of the year.

- In class, the teacher used "dec" to mean the last (12th) month of the year.
- Understanding "dec" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

default (noun)

An option that is selected automatically unless an alternative is specified.

- He lost the game by default.
- The article explained what "default" means with a simple example.

---

demand for explanation (noun)

A challenge to defend what someone has said.

- They discussed "demand for explanation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "demand for explanation" means with a simple example.

---

dialogue (noun)

A discussion intended to produce an agreement.

- They disagreed but kept an open dialogue.

- He has read Plato's Dialogues in the original Greek.

disabled (noun)

People collectively who are crippled or otherwise physically handicapped.

- Technology to help the elderly and the disabled.
- Understanding "disabled" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

drag in (verb)

Force into some kind of situation, condition, or course of action.

- Don't drag me into this business.
- Can you use "drag in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

drag up (verb)

Mention something unpleasant from the past.

- Drag up old stories.
- In everyday English, people use "drag up" when talking about this idea.

drinking chocolate (noun)

A beverage made from cocoa powder and milk and sugar; usually drunk hot.

- Understanding "drinking chocolate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "drinking chocolate" during the group presentation.

dry plate process (noun)

A former photographic method that used a glass plate coated with a light-sensitive gelatinous emulsion.

- Understanding "dry plate process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dry plate process" to mean a former photographic method that used a glass....

estimate (noun)

A statement indicating the likely cost of some job.

- He got an estimate from the car repair shop.
- An estimate of what it would cost.

evening prayer (noun)

(Anglican Church) a daily evening service with prayers prescribed in the Book of Common Prayer.

- They discussed "evening prayer" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "evening prayer."

existed (verb)

Have an existence, be extant.

- She tried to use "existed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "existed" when talking about this idea.

extended care facility (noun)

A medical institution that provides prolonged care (as in cases of prolonged illness or rehabilitation from acute illness).

- They discussed "extended care facility" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "extended care facility" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

federal savings bank (noun)

A federally chartered savings bank.

- In class, the teacher used "federal savings bank" to mean a federally chartered savings bank.
- He looked up "federal savings bank" because he had never seen it before.

fifty (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and five.

- In class, the teacher used "fifty" to mean the cardinal number that is the product of ten and five.
- The article explained what "fifty" means with a simple example.

followers (noun)

A group of followers or enthusiasts.

- They discussed "followers" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "followers."

---

frozen food (noun)

Food preserved by freezing.

- In class, the teacher used "frozen food" to mean food preserved by freezing.
- The article explained what "frozen food" means with a simple example.

---

generations (noun)

The normal time between successive generations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "generations."
- He looked up "generations" because he had never seen it before.

---

guaranteed (verb)

Stand behind and guarantee the quality, accuracy, or condition of.

- Learners should practice how to use "guaranteed" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "guaranteed" when talking about this idea.

---

half pound (noun)

8 ounces avoirdupois.

- The article explained what "half pound" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "half pound" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hip-length (adjective)

Extending to or just over the hips.

- It is useful to describe something as "hip-length" when it is extending to or just over the hips.
- A "hip-length" approach may work better in this case.

---

islam nation (noun)

The Muslim community or people, considered to extend from Mauritania to Pakistan.

- The article explained what "islam nation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "islam nation" during the group presentation.

---

keep one's hands off (verb)

Stay clear of, avoid.

- Keep your hands off my wife!
- Keep your distance from this man–he is dangerous.

---

loop (noun)

An inner circle of advisors (especially under President Reagan).

- He's no longer in the loop.
- He looked up "loop" because he had never seen it before.

---

loss ratio (noun)

The ratio of the annual claims paid by an insurance company to the premiums received.

- He looked up "loss ratio" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "loss ratio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

master of arts in teaching (noun)

A master's degree in teaching.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "master of arts in teaching."
- He looked up "master of arts in teaching" because he had never seen it before.

---

meat counter (noun)

Counter where meats are displayed for sale.

- They discussed "meat counter" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "meat counter" to mean counter where meats are displayed for sale.

---

mp (noun)

A military corps that enforces discipline and guards prisoners.

- They discussed "mp" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mp" because he had never seen it before.

---

muscle memory (noun)

Your memory for motor skills.

- Understanding "muscle memory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "muscle memory."

---

nation of islam (noun)

A group of militant Black Americans who profess Islamic religious beliefs and advocate independence for Black Americans.

- Understanding "nation of islam" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "nation of islam" to mean a group of militant black americans who profess....

---

number representation system (noun)

Any notation for the representation of numbers.

- The article explained what "number representation system" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "number representation system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

overseas (adverb)

Beyond or across the sea.

- He lived overseas for many years.
- She spoke "overseas," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

pair formation (noun)

The transformation of a gamma-ray photon into an electron and a positron when the photon passes close to an atomic nucleus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pair formation."
- He looked up "pair formation" because he had never seen it before.

---

post-communist (adjective)

No longer communist; subsequent to being communistic.

- The bank announced its first loan to a post-communist country.
- Would you call this situation "post-communist"? Explain why.

---

punch line (noun)

The point of a joke or humorous story.

- Understanding "punch line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "punch line" means with a simple example.

---

quarter tone (noun)

Half of a semitone.

- In class, the teacher used "quarter tone" to mean half of a semitone.
- He looked up "quarter tone" because he had never seen it before.

---

quarter-tone (noun)

Half of a semitone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quarter-tone."
- He looked up "quarter-tone" because he had never seen it before.

---

raw milk (noun)

Unpasteurized milk.

- They discussed "raw milk" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "raw milk" because he had never seen it before.

reaction formation (noun)

(psychiatry) a defense mechanism in which a person unconsciously develops attitudes and behavior that are the opposite of unacceptable repressed desires and impulses and serve to conceal them.

- His strict morality is just a reaction formation to hide his sexual drive.
- In class, the teacher used "reaction formation" to mean (psychiatry) a defense mechanism in which a person....

regarded (verb)

Connect closely and often incriminatingly.

- She tried to use "regarded" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "regarded" in real sentences.

rely (verb)

Have confidence or faith in.

- Rely on your friends.
- Learners should practice how to use "rely" in real sentences.

rely on (verb)

Be dependent on, as for support or maintenance.

- She is someone you can really rely on when times get rough.
- You can rely on his discretion.

responses (noun)

The manner in which something is greeted.

- His responses have slowed with age.
- He looked up "responses" because he had never seen it before.

se (noun)

The compass point midway between south and east; at 135 degrees.

- In class, the teacher used "se" to mean the compass point midway between south and east; at....
- The article explained what "se" means with a simple example.

seal off (verb)

Make tight; secure against leakage.

- Seal the windows.
- Learners should practice how to use "seal off" in real sentences.

sense impression (noun)

An unelaborated elementary awareness of stimulation.

- The article explained what "sense impression" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sense impression" to mean an unelaborated elementary awareness of stimulation.

storage medium (noun)

A medium for storing information.

- Understanding "storage medium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "storage medium" to mean a medium for storing information.

straight angle (noun)

An angle of 180 degrees.

- They discussed "straight angle" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "straight angle" because he had never seen it before.

strategies (noun)

An elaborate and systematic plan of action.

- The article explained what "strategies" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "strategies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

succeed (verb)

Attain success or reach a desired goal.

- The enterprise succeeded.
- We succeeded in getting tickets to the show.

---

sum total (noun)

The final aggregate.

- The sum of all our troubles did not equal the misery they suffered.
- The article explained what "sum total" means with a simple example.

---

take a bow (verb)

Acknowledge praise or accept credit.

- They finally took a bow for what they did.
- The coach explained when to use "take a bow" and when to wait.

---

tale (noun)

A message that tells the particulars of an act or occurrence or course of events; presented in writing or drama or cinema or as a radio or television program.

- Understanding "tale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tale" during the group presentation.

---

targets (noun)

The goal intended to be attained (and which is believed to be attainable).

- In class, the teacher used "targets" to mean the goal intended to be attained (and which is....
- He looked up "targets" because he had never seen it before.

---

terminal point (noun)

Final or latest limiting point.

- In class, the teacher used "terminal point" to mean final or latest limiting point.
- The article explained what "terminal point" means with a simple example.

---

ton (noun)

A British unit of weight equivalent to 2240 pounds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ton."
- The article explained what "ton" means with a simple example.

---

wire glass (noun)

A glass that contains a layer of wire netting in it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wire glass."
- They discussed "wire glass" during the group presentation.

---

ancient greek (noun)

The Greek language prior to the Roman Empire.

- In class, the teacher used "ancient greek" to mean the greek language prior to the roman empire.
- The article explained what "ancient greek" means with a simple example.

---

associate degree (noun)

A degree granted by a two-year college on successful completion of the undergraduates course of studies.

- In class, the teacher used "associate degree" to mean a degree granted by a two-year college on....
- They discussed "associate degree" during the group presentation.

---

baby boom (noun)

The larger than expected generation in United States born shortly after World War II.

- They discussed "baby boom" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "baby boom" means with a simple example.

---

breathing time (noun)

A short respite.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breathing time."

- Understanding "breathing time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

british commonwealth (noun)

An association of nations consisting of the United Kingdom and several former British colonies that are now sovereign states but still pay allegiance to the British Crown.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "british commonwealth."
- He looked up "british commonwealth" because he had never seen it before.

---

butt in (verb)

Break into a conversation.

- The coach explained when to use "butt in" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "butt in" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

butt on (verb)

Lie adjacent to another or share a boundary.

- The coach explained when to use "butt on" and when to wait.
- Can you use "butt on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

by all odds (adverb)

Without question and beyond doubt.

- By all odds they should win.
- She spoke "by all odds," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

calendar week (noun)

A period of seven consecutive days starting on Sunday.

- Understanding "calendar week" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calendar week."

---

catholic reaction force (noun)

A radical terrorist group dedicated to the removal of British forces from Northern Ireland and the unification of Ireland.

- The article explained what "catholic reaction force" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "catholic reaction force" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

characteristics (noun)

A prominent attribute or aspect of something.

- Generosity is one of his best characteristics.
- In class, the teacher used "characteristics" to mean a prominent attribute or aspect of something.

---

composition board (noun)

A stiff moderately thick paper.

- He looked up "composition board" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "composition board" during the group presentation.

---

conservation of energy (noun)

The fundamental principle of physics that the total energy of an isolated system is constant despite internal changes.

- Understanding "conservation of energy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "conservation of energy" because he had never seen it before.

---

consumer finance company (noun)

A finance company that makes loans to people who have trouble getting a bank loan.

- They discussed "consumer finance company" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "consumer finance company" to mean a finance company that makes loans to people who....

---

cooking apple (noun)

An apple used primarily in cooking for pies and applesauce etc.

- In class, the teacher used "cooking apple" to mean an apple used primarily in cooking for pies and....
- They discussed "cooking apple" during the group presentation.

---

court favour (verb)

Seek favor by fawning or flattery.

- Learners should practice how to use "court favour" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "court favour" until he saw an example.

---

defense lawyers (noun)

The defendant and his legal advisors collectively.

- The defense called for a mistrial.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defense lawyers."

---

diamond wedding (noun)

The 60th wedding anniversary.

- Understanding "diamond wedding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "diamond wedding" during the group presentation.

---

discussions (noun)

An extended communication (often interactive) dealing with some particular topic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "discussions."
- The article explained what "discussions" means with a simple example.

---

drag down (verb)

Exert a force with a heavy weight.

- The snow bore down on the roof.
- The coach explained when to use "drag down" and when to wait.

---

dry wash (noun)

The dry bed of an intermittent stream (as at the bottom of a canyon).

- He looked up "dry wash" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dry wash" to mean the dry bed of an intermittent stream (as at the....

---

economic consumption (noun)

(economics) the utilization of economic goods to satisfy needs or in manufacturing.

- The consumption of energy has increased steadily.
- He looked up "economic consumption" because he had never seen it before.

---

egg roll (noun)

Minced vegetables and meat wrapped in a pancake and fried.

- In class, the teacher used "egg roll" to mean minced vegetables and meat wrapped in a pancake and....
- Understanding "egg roll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electronic signal (noun)

A signal generated by electronic means.

- In class, the teacher used "electronic signal" to mean a signal generated by electronic means.
- The article explained what "electronic signal" means with a simple example.

---

federal security bureau (noun)

The internal counterintelligence agency of the Russian Federation and successor to the Soviet KGB; formerly led by Vladimir Putin.

- The article explained what "federal security bureau" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "federal security bureau" to mean the internal counterintelligence agency of the....

---

filter out (verb)

Remove by passing through a filter.

- Filter out the impurities.
- She tried to use "filter out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

financial organisation (noun)

An institution (public or private) that collects funds (from the public or other institutions) and invests them in financial assets.

- The article explained what "financial organisation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "financial organisation" to mean an institution (public or private) that collects....

---

flat bone (noun)

Part of the sirloin next to the wedge bone.

- They discussed "flat bone" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "flat bone" means with a simple example.

---

galaxy (noun)

A splendid assemblage (especially of famous people).

- 'extragalactic nebula' is a former name for 'galaxy'.
- He looked up "galaxy" because he had never seen it before.

---

hell-for-leather (adverb)

At breakneck speed.

- They were travelling hell-for-leather.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "hell-for-leather" naturally.

---

highlights (noun)

The most interesting or memorable part.

- They discussed "highlights" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "highlights" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

historical document (noun)

Writing having historical value (as opposed to fiction or myth etc.).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "historical document."
- They discussed "historical document" during the group presentation.

---

intent (noun)

An anticipated outcome that is intended or that guides your planned actions.

- His intent was to provide a new translation.
- Good intentions are not enough.

---

international finance corporation (noun)

A United Nations agency that invests directly in companies and guarantees loans to private investors; affiliated with the World Bank.

- He looked up "international finance corporation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "international finance corporation."

---

keep one's eyes open (verb)

Pay attention; be watchful.

- Keep your eyes peeled for any policemen.
- He did not know how to use "keep one's eyes open" until he saw an example.

---

las (noun)

The syllable naming the sixth (submediant) note of a major or minor scale in solmization.

- Understanding "las" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "las" to mean the syllable naming the sixth (submediant) note of....

---

law enforcement agency (noun)

An agency responsible for insuring obedience to the laws.

- The article explained what "law enforcement agency" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "law enforcement agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

liquid unit (noun)

A unit of capacity for liquids (for measuring the volumes of liquids or their containers).

- In class, the teacher used "liquid unit" to mean a unit of capacity for liquids (for measuring the....
- They discussed "liquid unit" during the group presentation.

long ton (noun)

A British unit of weight equivalent to 2240 pounds.

- The article explained what "long ton" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "long ton" to mean a british unit of weight equivalent to 2240 pounds.

low-carbon steel (noun)

Steel with less than 0.15% carbon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "low-carbon steel."
- He looked up "low-carbon steel" because he had never seen it before.

not by a blame sight (adverb)

Definitely not.

- And that isn't all, not by a long sight.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "not by a blame sight" naturally.

odds (noun)

The ratio by which one better's wager is greater than that of another.

- He offered odds of two to one.
- In class, the teacher used "odds" to mean the ratio by which one better's wager is greater....

oxford movement (noun)

19th-century movement in the Church of England opposing liberal tendencies.

- They discussed "oxford movement" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "oxford movement" means with a simple example.

pan american union (noun)

The administrative agency of the Organization of American States.

- He looked up "pan american union" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pan american union."

pattern-bomb (verb)

Bomb in certain patterns.

- In everyday English, people use "pattern-bomb" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "pattern-bomb" in a sentence that fits this situation?

pin (verb)

To hold fast or prevent from moving.

- The child was pinned under the fallen tree.
- Pin the needle to the shirt.

pin up (verb)

Attach with or as if with a pin.

- Pin up a picture.
- Learners should practice how to use "pin up" in real sentences.

polish off (verb)

Kill intentionally and with premeditation.

- She polished off the remaining potatoes.
- Learners should practice how to use "polish off" in real sentences.

present progressive (noun)

A tense used to express action that is on-going at the time of utterance.

- In class, the teacher used "present progressive" to mean a tense used to express action that is on-going at....
- Understanding "present progressive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

professional organisation (noun)

An organization of and for professional people.

- They discussed "professional organisation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "professional organisation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

publicly (adverb)

In a manner accessible to or observable by the public; openly.

- She admitted publicly to being a communist.
- Publicly provided medical care.

---

quarter sessions (noun)

A local court with criminal jurisdiction and sometimes administrative functions.

- They discussed "quarter sessions" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "quarter sessions" because he had never seen it before.

---

raw meat (noun)

Uncooked meat.

- They discussed "raw meat" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "raw meat" means with a simple example.

---

raw talent (noun)

Powerfully impressive talent.

- Understanding "raw talent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "raw talent" to mean powerfully impressive talent.

---

requests (noun)

A formal message requesting something that is submitted to an authority.

- He looked up "requests" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "requests" to mean a formal message requesting something that is....

---

revenge (verb)

Take revenge for a perceived wrong.

- The coach explained when to use "revenge" and when to wait.
- Can you use "revenge" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sample distribution (noun)

Items selected at random from a population and used to test hypotheses about the population.

- In class, the teacher used "sample distribution" to mean items selected at random from a population and used....
- The article explained what "sample distribution" means with a simple example.

---

seeds (verb)

Place (seeds) in or on the ground for future growth.

- She sowed sunflower seeds.
- The coach explained when to use "seeds" and when to wait.

---

set phrase (noun)

An expression whose meanings cannot be inferred from the meanings of the words that make it up.

- They discussed "set phrase" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "set phrase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

signal-to-noise (noun)

The ratio of signal intensity to noise intensity.

- The article explained what "signal-to-noise" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "signal-to-noise."

---

slip in (verb)

Insert casually.

- She slipped in a reference to her own work.

- In everyday English, people use "slip in" when talking about this idea.

---

slip up (verb)

Make an error.

- She slipped up and revealed the name.
- He did not know how to use "slip up" until he saw an example.

---

social psychology (noun)

The branch of psychology that studies persons and their relationships with others and with groups and with society as a whole.

- Understanding "social psychology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "social psychology" during the group presentation.

---

social relation (noun)

A relation between living organisms (especially between people).

- They discussed "social relation" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social relation."

---

spare (verb)

Save or relieve from an experience or action.

- I'll spare you from having to apologize formally.
- He asked if they could spare one of their horses to speed his journey.

---

steel grey (noun)

Slightly purplish or bluish dark grey.

- He looked up "steel grey" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "steel grey" to mean slightly purplish or bluish dark grey.

---

string theory (noun)

(particle physics) a theory that postulates that subatomic particles are one-dimensional strings.

- In class, the teacher used "string theory" to mean (particle physics) a theory that postulates that....
- He looked up "string theory" because he had never seen it before.

---

submit (verb)

Make an application as for a job or funding.

- The lawyers submitted the material to the court.
- I submit to you that the accused is guilty.

---

summary treatment (noun)

A brief and unsympathetic rejection.

- In class, the teacher used "summary treatment" to mean a brief and unsympathetic rejection.
- The article explained what "summary treatment" means with a simple example.

---

surface soil (noun)

The layer of soil on the surface.

- He looked up "surface soil" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "surface soil" during the group presentation.

---

threats (noun)

A warning that something unpleasant is imminent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "threats."
- He looked up "threats" because he had never seen it before.

---

turkey wing (noun)

The wing of a turkey.

- They discussed "turkey wing" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "turkey wing" means with a simple example.

---

turkish (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Turkey or its people or language.

- Turkish towels.
- Students compared "turkish" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

visual communication (noun)

Communication that relies on vision.

- Understanding "visual communication" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "visual communication" to mean communication that relies on vision.

---

wide-angle (adjective)

Of or relating to a fisheye lens.

- A "wide-angle" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wide-angle."

---

absolute alcohol (noun)

Pure ethyl alcohol (containing no more than 1% water).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "absolute alcohol."
- He looked up "absolute alcohol" because he had never seen it before.

---

allies (noun)

An alliance of nations joining together to fight a common enemy.

- He looked up "allies" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "allies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

attempting (verb)

Make an effort or attempt.

- He did not know how to use "attempting" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "attempting" when talking about this idea.

---

bonds (noun)

A connection based on kinship or marriage or common interest.

- In class, the teacher used "bonds" to mean a connection based on kinship or marriage or common....
- The article explained what "bonds" means with a simple example.

---

breast-deep (adverb)

Up to the breast.

- She spoke "breast-deep," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered "breast-deep," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

carbon cycle (noun)

A thermonuclear reaction in the interior of stars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carbon cycle."
- They discussed "carbon cycle" during the group presentation.

---

chain gang (noun)

A gang of convicts chained together.

- In class, the teacher used "chain gang" to mean a gang of convicts chained together.
- Understanding "chain gang" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

child psychology (noun)

The branch of psychology that studies the social and mental development of children.

- The article explained what "child psychology" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "child psychology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cm (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to one hundredth of a meter.

- He looked up "cm" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cm."

---

congress of industrial organizations (noun)

A federation of North American industrial unions that merged with the American Federation of Labor in 1955.

- Understanding "congress of industrial organizations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "congress of industrial organizations" to mean a federation of north american industrial unions....

---

corp (noun)

A business firm whose articles of incorporation have been approved in some state.

- He looked up "corp" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "corp" during the group presentation.

---

credits (noun)

A list of acknowledgements of those who contributed to the creation of a film (usually run at the end of the film).

- The credits were given at the end of the film.
- In class, the teacher used "credits" to mean a list of acknowledgements of those who contributed....

---

criminal intelligence services of canada (noun)

An agency of the Canadian government that unifies the intelligence units of Canadian law enforcement agencies.

- They discussed "criminal intelligence services of canada" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "criminal intelligence services of canada" to mean an agency of the canadian government that unifies....

---

day of judgment (noun)

(New Testament) day at the end of time following Armageddon when God will decree the fates of all individual humans according to the good and evil of their earthly lives.

- They discussed "day of judgment" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "day of judgment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deliver the goods (verb)

Attain success or reach a desired goal.

- The enterprise succeeded.
- We succeeded in getting tickets to the show.

---

dispute (noun)

A disagreement or argument about something important.

- He had a dispute with his wife.
- He looked up "dispute" because he had never seen it before.

---

dropped egg (noun)

Egg cooked in gently boiling water.

- The article explained what "dropped egg" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dropped egg" to mean egg cooked in gently boiling water.

---

electrical engineering (noun)

The branch of engineering science that studies the uses of electricity and the equipment for power generation and distribution and the control of machines and communication.

- They discussed "electrical engineering" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "electrical engineering" to mean the branch of engineering science that studies the....

---

fool away (verb)

Spend frivolously and unwisely.

- Fritter away one's inheritance.
- The coach explained when to use "fool away" and when to wait.

---

fresh foods (noun)

Food that is not preserved by canning or dehydration or freezing or smoking.

- The article explained what "fresh foods" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fresh foods."

gathered (adjective)

Brought together in one place.

- The gathered folds of the skirt.
- Would you call this situation "gathered"? Explain why.

gen x (noun)

The generation following the baby boom (especially Americans and Canadians born in the 1960s and 1970s).

- He looked up "gen x" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "gen x" during the group presentation.

genetic science (noun)

The branch of biology that studies heredity and variation in organisms.

- The article explained what "genetic science" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genetic science."

hard sauce (noun)

Butter and sugar creamed together with brandy or other flavoring and served with rich puddings.

- He looked up "hard sauce" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hard sauce" during the group presentation.

household arts (noun)

Theory and practice of homemaking.

- They discussed "household arts" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "household arts" means with a simple example.

italian bread (noun)

Unsweetened yeast-raised bread made without shortening and baked in long thick loaves with tapered ends.

- Understanding "italian bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "italian bread" to mean unsweetened yeast-raised bread made without....

jazz age (noun)

The 1920s in the United States characterized in the novels of F. Scott Fitzgerald as a period of wealth, youthful exuberance, and carefree hedonism.

- In class, the teacher used "jazz age" to mean the 1920s in the united states characterized in the....
- Understanding "jazz age" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

judgment day (noun)

(New Testament) day at the end of time following Armageddon when God will decree the fates of all individual humans according to the good and evil of their earthly lives.

- In class, the teacher used "judgment day" to mean (new testament) day at the end of time following....
- He looked up "judgment day" because he had never seen it before.

last judgment (noun)

(New Testament) day at the end of time following Armageddon when God will decree the fates of all individual humans according to the good and evil of their earthly lives.

- He looked up "last judgment" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "last judgment."

law of common fate (noun)

A Gestalt principle of organization holding that aspects of perceptual field that move or function in a similar manner will be perceived as a unit.

- In class, the teacher used "law of common fate" to mean a gestalt principle of organization holding that....
- They discussed "law of common fate" during the group presentation.

legal principle (noun)

(law) a principle underlying the formulation of jurisprudence.

- The article explained what "legal principle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "legal principle" during the group presentation.

margin (noun)

The blank space that surrounds the text on a page.

- He jotted a note in the margin.
- The margin of victory.

---

mars (noun)

A small reddish planet that is the 4th from the sun and is periodically visible to the naked eye; minerals rich in iron cover its surface and are responsible for its characteristic color.

- Mars has two satellites.
- The article explained what "mars" means with a simple example.

---

master of arts in library science (noun)

A master's degree in library science.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "master of arts in library science."
- They discussed "master of arts in library science" during the group presentation.

---

north atlantic council (noun)

A council consisting of permanent representatives of all the member countries of NATO; has political authority and powers of decision.

- Understanding "north atlantic council" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north atlantic council."

---

northern alliance (noun)

A multiethnic alliance in Afghanistan who practice a moderate form of Islam and are united in their opposition to the Taliban.

- The article explained what "northern alliance" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "northern alliance."

---

overcome (verb)

Overcome, usually through no fault or weakness of the person that is overcome.

- You must overcome all difficulties.
- Learners should practice how to use "overcome" in real sentences.

---

part to whole relation (noun)

The semantic relation that holds between a part and the whole.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "part to whole relation."
- The article explained what "part to whole relation" means with a simple example.

---

phrase book (noun)

A book containing common expressions in a foreign language along with their translations.

- He looked up "phrase book" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "phrase book" to mean a book containing common expressions in a foreign....

---

pin down (verb)

Place in a confining or embarrassing position.

- I cannot narrow down the rules for this game.
- Pin up a picture.

---

political relation (noun)

Social relations involving intrigue to gain authority or power.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "political relation."
- He looked up "political relation" because he had never seen it before.

---

pregnancy test (noun)

A physiological test to determine whether a woman is pregnant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pregnancy test."
- The article explained what "pregnancy test" means with a simple example.

---

psychological (adjective)

Of or relating to or determined by psychology.

- Psychological theories.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “psychological.”

quest (noun)

A search for an alternative that meets cognitive criteria.

- A quest for wealth.
- A quest for diamonds.

quest for (verb)

Go in search of or hunt for.

- In everyday English, people use “quest for” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “quest for” in real sentences.

rank and file (noun)

The ordinary members of an organization (such as the enlisted soldiers of an army).

- The strike was supported by the union rank and file.
- He rose from the ranks to become a colonel.

roman letters (noun)

A typeface used in ancient Roman inscriptions.

- In class, the teacher used “roman letters” to mean a typeface used in ancient roman inscriptions.
- The article explained what “roman letters” means with a simple example.

rome beauty (noun)

Large red apple used primarily for baking.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rome beauty.”
- The article explained what “rome beauty” means with a simple example.

rural free delivery (noun)

Free government delivery of mail in outlying country areas.

- He looked up “rural free delivery” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rural free delivery.”

sex manual (noun)

A manual containing instruction in sexual techniques; intended to enhance the reader’s sexual life.

- He looked up “sex manual” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “sex manual” during the group presentation.

shake hands (verb)

Take someone’s hands and shake them as a gesture of greeting or congratulation.

- She tried to use “shake hands” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “shake hands” until he saw an example.

social affair (noun)

A gathering for the purpose of promoting fellowship.

- In class, the teacher used “social affair” to mean a gathering for the purpose of promoting fellowship.
- The article explained what “social affair” means with a simple example.

soft coal (noun)

Rich in tarry hydrocarbons; burns readily with a smoky yellow flame.

- The article explained what “soft coal” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “soft coal” to mean rich in tarry hydrocarbons; burns readily with a....

square root (noun)

A number that when multiplied by itself equals a given number.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “square root.”
- Understanding “square root” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stopping point (noun)

The temporal end; the concluding time.

- The stopping point of each round was signaled by a bell.
- In class, the teacher used "stopping point" to mean the temporal end; the concluding time.

terminal leave (noun)

Final leave before discharge from military service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "terminal leave."
- The article explained what "terminal leave" means with a simple example.

topics (noun)

The subject matter of a conversation or discussion.

- He looked up "topics" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "topics."

treating (verb)

Provide with choice or abundant food or drink.

- Don't worry about the expensive wine–I'm treating.
- The coach explained when to use "treating" and when to wait.

tune (noun)

A succession of notes forming a distinctive sequence.

- He cannot sing in tune.
- The clarinet was out of tune.

upper bound (noun)

(mathematics) a number equal to or greater than any other number in a given set.

- Understanding "upper bound" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "upper bound" because he had never seen it before.

wherever (adverb)

Where in the world.

- She spoke "wherever," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- The narrator describes the scene "wherever" in the final chapter.

white sauce (noun)

Milk thickened with a butter and flour roux.

- Understanding "white sauce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white sauce."

whole to part relation (noun)

The semantic relation that holds between a whole and its parts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whole to part relation."
- The article explained what "whole to part relation" means with a simple example.

wisdom book (noun)

Any of the biblical books (Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, Wisdom of Solomon, Ecclesiasticus) that are considered to contain wisdom.

- Understanding "wisdom book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wisdom book" means with a simple example.

acquisition (noun)

The cognitive process of acquiring skill or knowledge.

- The child's acquisition of language.
- The acquisition of wealth.

announce (verb)

Announce publicly or officially.

- He announced the winners of the spelling bee.
- In everyday English, people use "announce" when talking about this idea.

---

auction house (noun)

A firm that conducts auctions.

- The article explained what "auction house" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "auction house" during the group presentation.

---

biological process (noun)

A process occurring in living organisms.

- Understanding "biological process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "biological process" because he had never seen it before.

---

bold (noun)

A typeface with thick heavy lines.

- The article explained what "bold" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bold."

---

breathing place (noun)

A short respite.

- The article explained what "breathing place" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breathing place."

---

butt against (verb)

Lie adjacent to another or share a boundary.

- The coach explained when to use "butt against" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "butt against" in real sentences.

---

cape york (noun)

The northern tip of Cape York Peninsula at the Torres Strait; the northernmost point of the Australian mainland.

- In class, the teacher used "cape york" to mean the northern tip of cape york peninsula at the....
- The article explained what "cape york" means with a simple example.

---

chocolate milk (noun)

Milk flavored with chocolate syrup.

- The article explained what "chocolate milk" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chocolate milk."

---

choosing (verb)

Pick out, select, or choose from a number of alternatives.

- Learners should practice how to use "choosing" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "choosing" until he saw an example.

---

concepts (noun)

An abstract or general idea inferred or derived from specific instances.

- They discussed "concepts" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "concepts" to mean an abstract or general idea inferred or derived....

---

conspiracy (noun)

A secret agreement between two or more people to perform an unlawful act.

- The article explained what "conspiracy" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "conspiracy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

controversy (noun)

A contentious speech act; a dispute where there is strong disagreement.

- In class, the teacher used "controversy" to mean a contentious speech act; a dispute where there is....
- Understanding "controversy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

convince (verb)

Make (someone) agree, understand, or realize the truth or validity of something.

- He had finally convinced several customers of the advantages of his product.
- Can you use "convince" in a sentence that fits this situation?

criminal investigation command (noun)

The United States Army's principal law enforcement agency responsible for the conduct of criminal investigations for all levels of the Army anywhere in the world.

- He looked up "criminal investigation command" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "criminal investigation command."

department of psychology (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in psychology.

- He looked up "department of psychology" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of psychology."

documentary film (noun)

A film or TV program presenting the facts about a person or event.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "documentary film."
- Understanding "documentary film" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

facing pages (noun)

Two facing pages of a book or other publication.

- In class, the teacher used "facing pages" to mean two facing pages of a book or other publication.
- The article explained what "facing pages" means with a simple example.

fails (verb)

Fail to do something; leave something undone.

- He did not know how to use "fails" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "fails" carefully so everyone would understand.

federation (noun)

An organization formed by merging several groups or parties.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federation."
- The article explained what "federation" means with a simple example.

fiscal (adjective)

Involving financial matters.

- Fiscal responsibility.
- Would you call this situation "fiscal"? Explain why.

frequency band (noun)

A band of adjacent radio frequencies (e.g., assigned for transmitting radio or television signals).

- They discussed "frequency band" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "frequency band" means with a simple example.

hard candy (noun)

Candy that is brittle.

- You can break a tooth on that hard candy.
- Understanding "hard candy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

homeless (noun)

Poor people who unfortunately do not have a home to live in.

- The homeless became a problem in the large cities.
- A homeless was found murdered in Central Park.

ideal solid (noun)

Any one of five solids whose faces are congruent regular polygons and whose polyhedral angles are all congruent.

- Understanding "ideal solid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ideal solid" during the group presentation.

---

kitchen cabinet (noun)

An inner circle of unofficial advisors to the head of a government.

- In class, the teacher used "kitchen cabinet" to mean an inner circle of unofficial advisors to the head....
- Understanding "kitchen cabinet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

knock cold (verb)

Knock unconscious or senseless.

- The boxing champion knocked out his opponent in a few seconds.
- Learners should practice how to use "knock cold" in real sentences.

---

logic operation (noun)

An operation that follows the rules of symbolic logic.

- They discussed "logic operation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "logic operation" means with a simple example.

---

mainstream (noun)

The prevailing current of thought.

- His thinking was in the American mainstream.
- They discussed "mainstream" during the group presentation.

---

milk chocolate (noun)

Chocolate made from chocolate liquor with sugar and cocoa butter and powdered milk solids and vanilla and (usually) lecithin; the most common form of chocolate for eating; used in chocolate candy and baking and coatings.

- The article explained what "milk chocolate" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "milk chocolate."

---

mortgage application (noun)

An application for a mortgage loan.

- In class, the teacher used "mortgage application" to mean an application for a mortgage loan.
- They discussed "mortgage application" during the group presentation.

---

occasions (noun)

Something you have to do.

- He minded his own specialized occasions.
- It was needed only on special occasions.

---

oral (adjective)

Of or relating to or affecting or for use in the mouth.

- Oral hygiene.
- An oral thermometer.

---

peoples (noun)

The human beings of a particular nation or community or ethnic group.

- The indigenous peoples of Australia.
- He looked up "peoples" because he had never seen it before.

---

personal relation (noun)

A relation between persons.

- He looked up "personal relation" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "personal relation" to mean a relation between persons.

---

pin number (noun)

A number you choose and use to gain access to various accounts.

- In class, the teacher used "pin number" to mean a number you choose and use to gain access to....

- They discussed “pin number” during the group presentation.

pot metal (noun)

An alloy of copper and lead used especially for making large pots.

- Understanding “pot metal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “pot metal” during the group presentation.

printing business (noun)

A company that does commercial printing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “printing business.”
- He looked up “printing business” because he had never seen it before.

printing company (noun)

A company that does commercial printing.

- He looked up “printing company” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “printing company” during the group presentation.

psychology department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in psychology.

- They discussed “psychology department” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “psychology department” to mean the academic department responsible for teaching....

pull out all the stops (verb)

Use all resources available.

- The organizers pulled out all the stops for the centennial meeting.
- She tried to use “pull out all the stops” carefully so everyone would understand.

pure tone (noun)

A steady sound without overtones.

- They tested his hearing with pure tones of different frequencies.
- Understanding “pure tone” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pursue (verb)

Carry out or participate in an activity; be involved in.

- She pursued many activities.
- The police car pursued the suspected attacker.

quest after (verb)

Go in search of or hunt for.

- She tried to use “quest after” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “quest after” and when to wait.

radical sign (noun)

A sign indicating the extraction of a root.

- The article explained what “radical sign” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “radical sign” during the group presentation.

re-explore (verb)

Explore anew.

- We need to re-explore Colonialism.
- Can you use “re-explore” in a sentence that fits this situation?

realise (verb)

Perceive (an idea or situation) mentally.

- In everyday English, people use “realise” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “realise” in real sentences.

removing (verb)

Kill intentionally and with premeditation.

- Can you use "removing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "removing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

requirement (noun)

Something that is required in advance.

- The requirements of his work affected his health.
- Allow farmers to buy their requirements under favorable conditions.

---

rip (noun)

An opening made forcibly as by pulling apart.

- There was a rip in his pants.
- He gave the envelope a vigorous rip.

---

rip out (verb)

Burst out with a violent or profane utterance.

- Ripped out a vicious oath.
- Ripped out with an oath.

---

rip up (verb)

Tear into shreds.

- The coach explained when to use "rip up" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "rip up" in real sentences.

---

salt-free diet (noun)

A diet that limits the intake of salt (sodium chloride); often used in treating hypertension or edema or certain other disorders.

- The article explained what "salt-free diet" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "salt-free diet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

segment (noun)

One of the parts into which something naturally divides.

- A segment of an orange.
- Finished the final segment of the road.

---

self-praise (noun)

Speaking of yourself in superlatives.

- They discussed "self-praise" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "self-praise" means with a simple example.

---

side of beef (noun)

Dressed half of a beef carcass.

- Understanding "side of beef" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "side of beef" to mean dressed half of a beef carcass.

---

soft ice cream (noun)

Dessert resembling ice cream but with a boiled custard base.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soft ice cream."
- He looked up "soft ice cream" because he had never seen it before.

---

stable factor (noun)

A coagulation factor formed in the kidney under the influence of vitamin K.

- He looked up "stable factor" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "stable factor" during the group presentation.

---

steel gray (noun)

Slightly purplish or bluish dark grey.

- In class, the teacher used "steel gray" to mean slightly purplish or bluish dark grey.
- They discussed "steel gray" during the group presentation.

---

tap water (noun)

Water directly from the spigot.

- He looked up "tap water" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tap water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tear gas (noun)

A gas that makes the eyes fill with tears but does not damage them; used in dispersing crowds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tear gas."
- He looked up "tear gas" because he had never seen it before.

---

turn of phrase (noun)

A distinctive spoken or written expression.

- John's succinct turn of phrase persuaded her that it would not be a good idea.
- The article explained what "turn of phrase" means with a simple example.

---

underground press (noun)

A system of clandestine printing and distribution of dissident or banned literature.

- He looked up "underground press" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "underground press" during the group presentation.

---

va (noun)

The United States federal department responsible for the interests of military veterans; created in 1989.

- They discussed "va" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "va" means with a simple example.

---

vice-presidential term (noun)

The tenure of a vice president.

- He looked up "vice-presidential term" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "vice-presidential term" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

virtually (adverb)

(of actions or states) slightly short of or not quite accomplished; all but.

- Virtually all the parties signed the contract.
- The strike virtually paralyzed the city.

---

visual signal (noun)

A signal that involves visual communication.

- He looked up "visual signal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visual signal."

---

waited (verb)

Look forward to the probable occurrence of.

- She tried to use "waited" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "waited" when talking about this idea.

---

warren (noun)

A series of connected underground tunnels occupied by rabbits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "warren."
- He looked up "warren" because he had never seen it before.

---

white knight (noun)

A company that is a friendly acquirer in a takeover.

- He looked up "white knight" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "white knight" to mean a company that is a friendly acquirer in a takeover.

yea (noun)

An affirmative.

- The yeas have it.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yea."

aimed (verb)

Direct (a remark) toward an intended goal.

- He aimed his fists towards his opponent's face.
- She tried to use "aimed" carefully so everyone would understand.

air-breathing (adjective)

Deriving oxygen from the air.

- He studied respiration in marine air-breathing vertebrates.
- Large air-breathing ichthyosaurs had hydrofoils.

arguing (noun)

A contentious speech act; a dispute where there is strong disagreement.

- They discussed "arguing" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arguing."

beliefs (noun)

A vague idea in which some confidence is placed.

- He looked up "beliefs" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beliefs."

biological science (noun)

The science that studies living organisms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "biological science."
- The article explained what "biological science" means with a simple example.

breathing room (noun)

Sufficient room for easy breathing or movement.

- Moved to the country to find breathing room.
- The article explained what "breathing room" means with a simple example.

brick in (verb)

Wall up with brick.

- She tried to use "brick in" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "brick in" in real sentences.

brick up (verb)

Wall up with brick.

- The coach explained when to use "brick up" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "brick up" carefully so everyone would understand.

calendar month (noun)

One of the twelve divisions of the calendar year.

- He paid the bill last month.
- He looked up "calendar month" because he had never seen it before.

carter administration (noun)

The executive under President Carter.

- They discussed "carter administration" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "carter administration" to mean the executive under president carter.

conservation of charge (noun)

The principle that the total electric charge of a system remains constant despite changes inside the system.

- In class, the teacher used "conservation of charge" to mean the principle that the total electric charge of a....
- He looked up "conservation of charge" because he had never seen it before.

---

critical angle (noun)

The smallest angle of incidence for which light is totally reflected.

- Understanding "critical angle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "critical angle" because he had never seen it before.

---

designated (verb)

Indicate a place, direction, person, or thing; either spatially or figuratively.

- The coach explained when to use "designated" and when to wait.
- Can you use "designated" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

executive routine (noun)

A routine that coordinates the operation of subroutines.

- Understanding "executive routine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "executive routine" because he had never seen it before.

---

father's day (noun)

US: third Sunday in June.

- He looked up "father's day" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "father's day."

---

firing line (noun)

The most advanced and responsible group in an activity.

- The firing line is where the action is.
- The article explained what "firing line" means with a simple example.

---

firing party (noun)

A squad formed to fire volleys at a military funeral or to carry out a military execution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firing party."
- Understanding "firing party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fiscal year (noun)

Any accounting period of 12 months.

- They discussed "fiscal year" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "fiscal year" because he had never seen it before.

---

focusing (noun)

The concentration of attention or energy on something.

- He looked up "focusing" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "focusing" to mean the concentration of attention or energy on something.

---

forgive (verb)

Stop blaming or grant forgiveness.

- She cannot forgive him for forgetting her birthday.
- I forgive you your debt.

---

guidelines (noun)

A detailed plan or explanation to guide you in setting standards or determining a course of action.

- The article explained what "guidelines" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "guidelines" during the group presentation.

---

hosted (verb)

Be the host of or for.

- We hosted 4 couples last night.

- He did not know how to use "hosted" until he saw an example.

---

inquiry (noun)

An instance of questioning.

- They discussed "inquiry" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "inquiry" means with a simple example.

---

international law enforcement agency (noun)

An international administrative unit responsible for law enforcement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "international law enforcement agency."
- He looked up "international law enforcement agency" because he had never seen it before.

---

law of conservation of energy (noun)

The fundamental principle of physics that the total energy of an isolated system is constant despite internal changes.

- The article explained what "law of conservation of energy" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "law of conservation of energy" during the group presentation.

---

legislative council (noun)

A unicameral legislature.

- Understanding "legislative council" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "legislative council" means with a simple example.

---

li (noun)

A soft silver-white univalent element of the alkali metal group; the lightest metal known; occurs in several minerals.

- The article explained what "li" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "li" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

library routine (noun)

A debugged routine that is maintained in a program library.

- The article explained what "library routine" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "library routine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

literary review (noun)

A review devoted to literary criticism.

- In class, the teacher used "literary review" to mean a review devoted to literary criticism.
- The article explained what "literary review" means with a simple example.

---

low-salt diet (noun)

A diet that limits the intake of salt (sodium chloride); often used in treating hypertension or edema or certain other disorders.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "low-salt diet."
- He looked up "low-salt diet" because he had never seen it before.

---

maintaining (verb)

Keep in a certain state, position, or activity; e.g.,.

- In everyday English, people use "maintaining" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "maintaining" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

make a clean breast of (verb)

Admit or acknowledge a wrongdoing or error.

- The coach explained when to use "make a clean breast of" and when to wait.
- Can you use "make a clean breast of" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

make bold (verb)

Take upon oneself; act presumptuously, without permission.

- He did not know how to use "make bold" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "make bold" in real sentences.

---

nevertheless (adverb)

Despite anything to the contrary (usually following a concession).

- While we disliked each other, nevertheless we agreed.
- She spoke "nevertheless," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

newspapers (noun)

A business firm that publishes newspapers.

- Murdoch owns many newspapers.
- He looked up "newspapers" because he had never seen it before.

---

one-seventh (noun)

One part in seven equal parts.

- He looked up "one-seventh" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "one-seventh" to mean one part in seven equal parts.

---

opera company (noun)

A company that produces operas.

- In class, the teacher used "opera company" to mean a company that produces operas.
- The article explained what "opera company" means with a simple example.

---

opinion poll (noun)

An inquiry into public opinion conducted by interviewing a random sample of people.

- They discussed "opinion poll" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "opinion poll" means with a simple example.

---

order of the purple heart (noun)

A United States military decoration awarded to any member of the armed forces who is wounded in action.

- He looked up "order of the purple heart" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "order of the purple heart."

---

oxygen (noun)

A nonmetallic bivalent element that is normally a colorless odorless tasteless nonflammable diatomic gas; constitutes 21 percent of the atmosphere by volume; the most abundant element in the earth's crust.

- In class, the teacher used "oxygen" to mean a nonmetallic bivalent element that is normally a....
- The article explained what "oxygen" means with a simple example.

---

passing tone (noun)

A nonharmonic note inserted for transition between harmonic notes.

- The article explained what "passing tone" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "passing tone."

---

physical chemistry (noun)

The branch of chemistry dealing with the physical properties of chemical substances.

- They discussed "physical chemistry" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "physical chemistry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

poem (noun)

A composition written in metrical feet forming rhythmical lines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poem."
- He looked up "poem" because he had never seen it before.

---

pound sign (noun)

A symbol for a unit of currency (especially for the pound sterling in Great Britain).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pound sign."
- He looked up "pound sign" because he had never seen it before.

---

promises (verb)

Make a prediction about; tell in advance.

- Learners should practice how to use “promises” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “promises” and when to wait.

---

public utility (noun)

A company that performs a public service; subject to government regulation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “public utility.”
- They discussed “public utility” during the group presentation.

---

quotes (noun)

A passage or expression that is quoted or cited.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “quotes.”
- He looked up “quotes” because he had never seen it before.

---

random sample (noun)

A sample in which every element in the population has an equal chance of being selected.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “random sample.”
- He looked up “random sample” because he had never seen it before.

---

ratings (noun)

An appraisal of the value of something.

- He looked up “ratings” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ratings.”

---

reads (verb)

Have or contain a certain wording or form.

- The passage reads as follows.
- He did not know how to use “reads” until he saw an example.

---

red clay (noun)

Clay whose redness results from iron oxide.

- He looked up “red clay” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “red clay” to mean clay whose redness results from iron oxide.

---

representative sample (noun)

The population is divided into strata and a random sample is taken from each stratum.

- They discussed “representative sample” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “representative sample” means with a simple example.

---

romance language (noun)

The group of languages derived from Latin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “romance language.”
- They discussed “romance language” during the group presentation.

---

russia leather (noun)

A smooth leather tanned with willow, birch, or oak, and scented on the flesh side with birch oil.

- Understanding “russia leather” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “russia leather.”

---

screw (verb)

Cause to penetrate, as with a circular motion.

- Drive in screws or bolts.
- Screw the bottle cap on.

---

screw up (verb)

Make a mess of, destroy or ruin.

- The pianist screwed up the difficult passage in the second movement.
- Emotions were screwed up.

short ton (noun)

A United States unit of weight equivalent to 2000 pounds.

- They discussed "short ton" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "short ton."

soft-cast steel (noun)

Steel with less than 0.15% carbon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soft-cast steel."
- They discussed "soft-cast steel" during the group presentation.

speed trap (noun)

A trap arranged on a roadway for catching speeders.

- He looked up "speed trap" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "speed trap."

spoken communication (noun)

(language) communication by word of mouth.

- He recorded the spoken language of the streets.
- He looked up "spoken communication" because he had never seen it before.

stay of execution (noun)

An order whereby a judgment is precluded from being executed for a specific period of time.

- Understanding "stay of execution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stay of execution."

suggesting (verb)

Make a proposal, declare a plan for something.

- She tried to use "suggesting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "suggesting" when talking about this idea.

terrorist organization (noun)

A political movement that uses terror as a weapon to achieve its goals.

- They discussed "terrorist organization" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "terrorist organization."

tissue paper (noun)

A soft thin (usually translucent) paper.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tissue paper."
- The article explained what "tissue paper" means with a simple example.

waste one's time (verb)

Be lazy or idle.

- Can you use "waste one's time" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "waste one's time" until he saw an example.

abc (noun)

The elementary stages of any subject (usually plural).

- In class, the teacher used "abc" to mean the elementary stages of any subject (usually plural).
- The article explained what "abc" means with a simple example.

air corps (noun)

Formerly the airborne division of the United States Army.

- They discussed "air corps" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "air corps."

apple butter (noun)

Thick dark spicy puree of apples.

- In class, the teacher used “apple butter” to mean thick dark spicy puree of apples.
- The article explained what “apple butter” means with a simple example.

---

applying (verb)

Refer (a word or name) to a person or thing.

- The coach explained when to use “applying” and when to wait.
- Can you use “applying” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

battle fleet (noun)

A fleet of warships prepared for battle.

- Understanding “battle fleet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “battle fleet.”

---

beneath (adverb)

In or to a place that is lower.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “beneath” naturally.
- Using “beneath” can make your explanation more exact.

---

brick over (verb)

Wall up with brick.

- In everyday English, people use “brick over” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “brick over” in real sentences.

---

church calendar (noun)

A calendar of the Christian year indicating the dates of fasts and festivals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “church calendar.”
- He looked up “church calendar” because he had never seen it before.

---

consistently (adverb)

In a systematic or consistent manner.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “consistently” naturally.
- Using “consistently” can make your explanation more exact.

---

conversion (noun)

A change in the units or form of an expression:.

- Conversion from Fahrenheit to Centigrade.
- His conversion to the Catholic faith.

---

cut of beef (noun)

Cut of meat from beef cattle.

- The article explained what “cut of beef” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cut of beef” to mean cut of meat from beef cattle.

---

direct sum (noun)

A union of two disjoint sets in which every element is the sum of an element from each of the disjoint sets.

- In class, the teacher used “direct sum” to mean a union of two disjoint sets in which every element....
- They discussed “direct sum” during the group presentation.

---

er (noun)

A trivalent metallic element of the rare earth group; occurs with yttrium.

- They discussed “er” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “er” means with a simple example.

---

exclusively (adverb)

Without any others being included or involved.

- He works for Mr. Smith exclusively.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “exclusively” naturally.

---

export (verb)

Cause to spread in another part of the world.

- The Russians exported Marxism to Africa.
- We export less than we import and have a negative trade balance.

---

false belief (noun)

A misconception resulting from incorrect reasoning.

- In class, the teacher used “false belief” to mean a misconception resulting from incorrect reasoning.
- Understanding “false belief” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fastest (adverb)

Most quickly.

- He answered “fastest,” which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Place “fastest” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

fixed-cycle operation (noun)

An operation that is completed in a specified number of regularly timed execution cycles.

- He looked up “fixed-cycle operation” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fixed-cycle operation.”

---

formerly (adverb)

At a previous time.

- Place “formerly” carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “formerly” naturally.

---

gather (verb)

Look for (food) in nature.

- Our ancestors gathered nuts in the Fall.
- Gather some stones.

---

habit (noun)

The general form or mode of growth (especially of a plant or crystal).

- A shrub of spreading habit.
- It was their habit to dine at 7 every evening.

---

high-protein diet (noun)

A diet high in plant and animal proteins; used to treat malnutrition or to increase muscle mass.

- He looked up “high-protein diet” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “high-protein diet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hot sauce (noun)

A pungent peppery sauce.

- He looked up “hot sauce” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “hot sauce” to mean a pungent peppery sauce.

---

identity element (noun)

An operator that leaves unchanged the element on which it operates.

- The identity under numerical multiplication is 1.
- Understanding “identity element” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

indicates (verb)

To state or express briefly.

- Learners should practice how to use “indicates” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “indicates” until he saw an example.

---

irish republican army (noun)

A militant organization of Irish nationalists who used terrorism and guerilla warfare in an effort to drive British forces from Northern Ireland and achieve a united independent Ireland.

- The article explained what "irish republican army" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "irish republican army" to mean a militant organization of irish nationalists who....

---

israeli defense force (noun)

The ground and air and naval forces of Israel.

- Understanding "israeli defense force" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "israeli defense force."

---

keep one's distance (verb)

Stay clear of, avoid.

- Keep your hands off my wife!
- Keep your distance from this man–he is dangerous.

---

knocked (verb)

Sound like a car engine that is firing too early.

- He knocked the glass clear across the room.
- In everyday English, people use "knocked" when talking about this idea.

---

legal relation (noun)

A professional relation that is regulated by law (as between a lawyer and a client).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal relation."
- Understanding "legal relation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lowest common multiple (noun)

The smallest multiple that is exactly divisible by every member of a set of numbers.

- The least common multiple of 12 and 18 is 36.
- The article explained what "lowest common multiple" means with a simple example.

---

meal ticket (noun)

A source of income or livelihood.

- They discussed "meal ticket" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "meal ticket" because he had never seen it before.

---

mexican spanish (noun)

The dialect of Spanish spoken in Mexico.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mexican spanish."
- Understanding "mexican spanish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

modern jazz (noun)

Any of various styles of jazz that appeared after 1940.

- Understanding "modern jazz" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "modern jazz" because he had never seen it before.

---

naval (adjective)

Connected with or belonging to or used in a navy.

- Naval history.
- Naval commander.

---

neighbors (noun)

A nearby object of the same kind.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neighbors."
- Understanding "neighbors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

phase transition (noun)

A change from one state (solid or liquid or gas) to another without a change in chemical composition.

- He looked up "phase transition" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phase transition."

---

picks (noun)

The quantity of a crop that is harvested.

- They used picks and sledges to break the rocks.
- He looked up "picks" because he had never seen it before.

---

pipe down (verb)

Become quiet or quieter.

- She tried to use "pipe down" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "pipe down" until he saw an example.

---

positive feedback (noun)

Feedback in phase with (augmenting) the input.

- He looked up "positive feedback" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "positive feedback."

---

printing process (noun)

Reproduction by applying ink to paper as for publication.

- In class, the teacher used "printing process" to mean reproduction by applying ink to paper as for....
- The article explained what "printing process" means with a simple example.

---

process printing (noun)

A method of printing colored reproductions from halftone plates.

- In class, the teacher used "process printing" to mean a method of printing colored reproductions from....
- The article explained what "process printing" means with a simple example.

---

professional relation (noun)

The relation that exists when one person requests and is granted professional help from a qualified source.

- They discussed "professional relation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "professional relation" means with a simple example.

---

relate (verb)

Be in a relationship with.

- How are these two observations related?
- I cannot relate these events at all.

---

roman mile (noun)

An ancient Roman unit of length equivalent to 1620 yards.

- In class, the teacher used "roman mile" to mean an ancient roman unit of length equivalent to 1620....
- The article explained what "roman mile" means with a simple example.

---

savings and loan (noun)

A thrift institution that is required by law to make a certain percentage of its loans as home mortgages.

- In class, the teacher used "savings and loan" to mean a thrift institution that is required by law to....
- Understanding "savings and loan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seal oil (noun)

A pale yellow to red-brown fatty oil obtained from seal blubber; used in making soap and dressing leather and as a lubricant.

- The article explained what "seal oil" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seal oil."

---

shield of david (noun)

A six-pointed star formed from two equilateral triangles; an emblem symbolizing Judaism.

- Understanding "shield of david" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "shield of david" to mean a six-pointed star formed from two equilateral....

south african dutch (noun)

An official language of the Republic of South Africa; closely related to Dutch and Flemish.

- The article explained what "south african dutch" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south african dutch."

spectrum line (noun)

An isolated component of a spectrum formed by radiation at a uniform frequency.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spectrum line."
- They discussed "spectrum line" during the group presentation.

suggestions (noun)

A proposal offered for acceptance or rejection.

- They discussed "suggestions" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "suggestions" because he had never seen it before.

supplied (verb)

Give what is desired or needed, especially support, food or sustenance.

- 'It doesn't matter,' he supplied.
- Learners should practice how to use "supplied" in real sentences.

terrorist cell (noun)

A cell of terrorists (usually 3 to 5 members).

- To insure operational security the members of adjacent terrorist cells usually don't know each other or the identity of their leadership.
- Understanding "terrorist cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

thousand and one nights (noun)

A collection of folktales in Arabic dating from the 10th century.

- He looked up "thousand and one nights" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thousand and one nights."

toilet paper (noun)

A soft thin absorbent paper for use in toilets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toilet paper."
- He looked up "toilet paper" because he had never seen it before.

trial impression (noun)

(printing) an impression made to check for errors.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trial impression."
- They discussed "trial impression" during the group presentation.

won ton (noun)

A Chinese dumpling filled with spiced minced pork; usually served in soup.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "won ton."
- They discussed "won ton" during the group presentation.

written symbol (noun)

A written or printed symbol.

- They discussed "written symbol" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "written symbol" means with a simple example.

acquired taste (noun)

A preference that is only acquired after considerable experience.

- Martinis are an acquired taste.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acquired taste."

actively (adverb)

In an active manner.

- He participated actively in the war.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "actively" naturally.

---

applies (verb)

Refer (a word or name) to a person or thing.

- Learners should practice how to use "applies" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "applies" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

basic principle (noun)

Principles from which other truths can be derived.

- Let's get down to basics.
- In class, the teacher used "basic principle" to mean principles from which other truths can be derived.

---

beyond a shadow of a doubt (adverb)

In a manner or to a degree that could not be doubted.

- His guilt was established beyond a shadow of a doubt.
- She spoke "beyond a shadow of a doubt," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

bold face (noun)

A typeface with thick heavy lines.

- Understanding "bold face" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bold face" means with a simple example.

---

brazilian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Brazil or the people of Brazil.

- Would you call this situation "brazilian"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "brazilian."

---

breathing space (noun)

Sufficient room for easy breathing or movement.

- Moved to the country to find breathing room.
- He looked up "breathing space" because he had never seen it before.

---

brush on (verb)

Apply with a brush.

- Brush butter on the roast.
- In everyday English, people use "brush on" when talking about this idea.

---

burden (noun)

An onerous or difficult concern.

- The burden of responsibility.
- He looked up "burden" because he had never seen it before.

---

carries (verb)

Serve as a means for expressing something.

- The painting of Mary carries motherly love.
- Sound carries well over water.

---

chocolate kiss (noun)

A kiss that consists of a conical bite-sized piece of chocolate.

- He looked up "chocolate kiss" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chocolate kiss."

---

colour scheme (noun)

A planned combination of colors.

- The color scheme for this room was determined by an interior decorator.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “colour scheme.”

complain (verb)

Make a formal accusation; bring a formal charge.

- The plaintiff's lawyer complained that he defendant had physically abused his client.
- My mother complains all day.

complaints (noun)

An expression of grievance or resentment.

- Understanding “complaints” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “complaints” during the group presentation.

describing (verb)

To give an account or representation of in words.

- Learners should practice how to use “describing” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “describing” carefully so everyone would understand.

differently (adverb)

In another and different manner.

- Very soon you will know differently.
- Place “differently” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

directions (noun)

A message describing how something is to be done.

- He gave directions faster than she could follow them.
- Understanding “directions” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

discipline (noun)

A system of rules of conduct or method of practice.

- He quickly learned the discipline of prison routine.
- For such a plan to work requires discipline.

divine right (noun)

The doctrine that kings derive their right to rule directly from God and are not accountable to their subjects; rebellion is the worst of political crimes.

- The doctrine of the divine right of kings was enunciated by the Stuarts in Britain in the 16th century.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “divine right.”

economic commission for latin america (noun)

The commission of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations that is concerned with economic development in Latin America.

- They discussed “economic commission for latin america” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “economic commission for latin america” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

egg cream (noun)

Made of milk and flavored syrup with soda water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “egg cream.”
- They discussed “egg cream” during the group presentation.

essay (noun)

An analytic or interpretive literary composition.

- The article explained what “essay” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “essay” to mean an analytic or interpretive literary composition.

explaining (verb)

Serve as a reason or cause or justification of.

- In everyday English, people use “explaining” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “explaining” in real sentences.

fire pit (noun)

A pit whose floor is incandescent lava.

- The fire pit of the crater.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire pit."

food and agriculture organization (noun)

The United Nations agency concerned with the international organization of food and agriculture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "food and agriculture organization."
- They discussed "food and agriculture organization" during the group presentation.

furthermore (adverb)

In addition.

- Computer chess games are getting cheaper all the time; furthermore, their quality is improving.
- Using "furthermore" can make your explanation more exact.

graphic (adjective)

Of or relating to the graphic arts; - British Book News.

- The etchings, drypoints, lithographs, and engravings which together form his graphic work.
- A graphic presentation of the data.

ground bass (noun)

A short melody in the bass that is constantly repeated.

- Understanding "ground bass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ground bass" during the group presentation.

ground beef (noun)

Beef that has been ground.

- The article explained what "ground beef" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ground beef" to mean beef that has been ground.

hosts (noun)

A technical name for the bread used in the service of Mass or Holy Communion.

- The article explained what "hosts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hosts" to mean a technical name for the bread used in the service....

instant coffee (noun)

Dehydrated coffee that can be made into a drink by adding hot water.

- The advantages of instant coffee are speed of preparation and long shelf life.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instant coffee."

instantly (adverb)

Without delay or hesitation; with no time intervening.

- She spoke "instantly," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "instantly" can make your explanation more exact.

leo (noun)

A zodiacal constellation in northern hemisphere between Cancer and Virgo.

- Understanding "leo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "leo" to mean a zodiacal constellation in northern hemisphere....

light opera (noun)

A short amusing opera.

- They discussed "light opera" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "light opera" to mean a short amusing opera.

line of inquiry (noun)

An ordering of questions so as to develop a particular argument.

- He looked up "line of inquiry" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "line of inquiry" during the group presentation.

---

maker (noun)

A business engaged in manufacturing some product.

- In class, the teacher used "maker" to mean a business engaged in manufacturing some product.
- They discussed "maker" during the group presentation.

---

mystery novel (noun)

Novel in which the reader is challenged to solve a puzzle before the detective explains it at the end.

- The article explained what "mystery novel" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mystery novel."

---

nuclear physics (noun)

The branch of physics that studies the internal structure of atomic nuclei.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nuclear physics."
- They discussed "nuclear physics" during the group presentation.

---

old style calendar (noun)

The solar calendar introduced in Rome in 46 b.c. by Julius Caesar and slightly modified by Augustus, establishing the 12-month year of 365 days with each 4th year having 366 days and the months having 31 or 30 days except for February.

- In class, the teacher used "old style calendar" to mean the solar calendar introduced in rome in 46 b.c. by....
- Understanding "old style calendar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

palm (noun)

A linear unit based on the length or width of the human hand.

- In class, the teacher used "palm" to mean a linear unit based on the length or width of the....
- The article explained what "palm" means with a simple example.

---

peace treaty (noun)

A treaty to cease hostilities.

- Peace came on November 11th.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peace treaty."

---

photograph (verb)

Undergo being photographed in a certain way.

- Children photograph well.
- I photographed the scene of the accident.

---

pole (noun)

One of two divergent or mutually exclusive opinions.

- They are at opposite poles.
- They are poles apart.

---

psychological moment (noun)

The most appropriate time for achieving a desired effect.

- They discussed "psychological moment" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "psychological moment" because he had never seen it before.

---

public opinion poll (noun)

An inquiry into public opinion conducted by interviewing a random sample of people.

- He looked up "public opinion poll" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "public opinion poll" during the group presentation.

---

public utility company (noun)

A company that performs a public service; subject to government regulation.

- In class, the teacher used "public utility company" to mean a company that performs a public service; subject....
- Understanding "public utility company" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

publishing firm (noun)

A firm in the publishing business.

- The article explained what "publishing firm" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "publishing firm" to mean a firm in the publishing business.

reality principle (noun)

(psychoanalysis) the governing principle of the ego; the principle that as a child grows it becomes aware of the real environment and the need to accommodate to it.

- Understanding "reality principle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "reality principle" to mean (psychoanalysis) the governing principle of the....

reception (noun)

The manner in which something is greeted.

- She did not expect the cold reception she received from her superiors.
- The tight end made a great reception on the 20 yard line.

reducing agent (noun)

A substance capable of bringing about the reduction of another substance as it itself is oxidized; used in photography to lessen the density of a negative or print by oxidizing some of the loose silver.

- He looked up "reducing agent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reducing agent."

rely upon (verb)

Put trust in with confidence.

- She is someone you can really rely on when times get rough.
- You can rely on his discretion.

reviewed (verb)

Look back upon (a period of time, sequence of events); remember.

- She reviewed her achievements with pride.
- I reviewed the material before the test.

root beer (noun)

Carbonated drink containing extracts of roots and herbs.

- He looked up "root beer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "root beer."

san francisco bay (noun)

A bay of the Pacific in western California.

- He looked up "san francisco bay" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "san francisco bay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

secured (verb)

Fill or close tightly with or as if with a plug.

- In everyday English, people use "secured" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "secured" in a sentence that fits this situation?

serial (noun)

A serialized set of programs.

- He looked up "serial" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "serial."

shed (verb)

Cause or allow (a solid substance) to flow or run out or over.

- He shed his image as a pushy boss.
- Shed your clothes.

snake (noun)

A long faint constellation in the southern hemisphere near the equator stretching between Virgo and Cancer.

- Understanding "snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "snake" to mean a long faint constellation in the southern....

---

solar constant (noun)

The rate at which radiant solar energy is received at the outer layer of the earth's atmosphere.

- They discussed "solar constant" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "solar constant" because he had never seen it before.

---

speak of the devil (verb)

Mention someone's name who just then appears.

- She tried to use "speak of the devil" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "speak of the devil" and when to wait.

---

subsequently (adverb)

Happening at a time subsequent to a reference time.

- He apologized subsequently.
- He answered "subsequently," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

substance (noun)

The real physical matter of which a person or thing consists.

- DNA is the substance of our genes.
- The immune response recognizes invading substances.

---

suggestion (noun)

A proposal offered for acceptance or rejection.

- It was a suggestion we couldn't refuse.
- The picnic was her suggestion.

---

surface chemistry (noun)

The branch of chemistry that studies processes occurring at interfaces between phases (especially those between liquid and gas).

- The article explained what "surface chemistry" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "surface chemistry" to mean the branch of chemistry that studies processes....

---

syndrome (noun)

A complex of concurrent things.

- Every word has a syndrome of meanings.
- They discussed "syndrome" during the group presentation.

---

temple orange (noun)

Large sweet easily-peeled Florida fruit with deep orange rind.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "temple orange."
- He looked up "temple orange" because he had never seen it before.

---

topic sentence (noun)

A sentence that states the topic of its paragraph.

- In class, the teacher used "topic sentence" to mean a sentence that states the topic of its paragraph.
- They discussed "topic sentence" during the group presentation.

---

united states liquid unit (noun)

A liquid unit officially adopted in the United States Customary System.

- They discussed "united states liquid unit" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "united states liquid unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

urban legend (noun)

A story that appears mysteriously and spreads spontaneously in various forms and is usually false; contains elements of humor or horror and is popularly believed to be true.

- The article explained what "urban legend" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "urban legend" to mean a story that appears mysteriously and spreads....

---

usage (noun)

The customary manner in which a language (or a form of a language) is spoken or written.

- English usage.
- A usage borrowed from French.

---

accounting standard (noun)

A principle that governs current accounting practice and that is used as a reference to determine the appropriate treatment of complex transactions.

- He looked up "accounting standard" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "accounting standard."

---

appeals (verb)

Take a court case to a higher court for review.

- The idea of a vacation appeals to me.
- The coach explained when to use "appeals" and when to wait.

---

associate in arts (noun)

An associate degree in arts.

- The article explained what "associate in arts" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "associate in arts."

---

at any expense (adverb)

Regardless of the cost involved.

- Using "at any expense" can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene "at any expense" in the final chapter.

---

biology (noun)

The science that studies living organisms.

- The biology of viruses.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "biology."

---

briefly (adverb)

In a concise manner; in a few words.

- She replied briefly.
- Briefly, we have a problem.

---

brown sauce (noun)

A sauce based on soy sauce.

- The article explained what "brown sauce" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "brown sauce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brush off (verb)

Bar from attention or consideration.

- Can you use "brush off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "brush off" and when to wait.

---

christmas eve (noun)

The day before Christmas.

- In class, the teacher used "christmas eve" to mean the day before christmas.
- The article explained what "christmas eve" means with a simple example.

---

commonwealth of independent states (noun)

An alliance made up of states that had been Soviet Socialist Republics in the Soviet Union prior to its dissolution in Dec 1991.

- The article explained what "commonwealth of independent states" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "commonwealth of independent states" to mean an alliance made up of states that had been soviet....

competing (verb)

Compete for something; engage in a contest; measure oneself against others.

- Learners should practice how to use "competing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "competing" when talking about this idea.

dig in (verb)

Occupy a trench or secured area.

- In everyday English, people use "dig in" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "dig in" until he saw an example.

dig out (verb)

Remove, harvest, or recover by digging.

- Dig salt.
- Dig coal.

dig up (verb)

Find by digging in the ground.

- Dig salt.
- Dig coal.

drug enforcement administration (noun)

Federal agency responsible for enforcing laws and regulations governing narcotics and controlled substances; goal is to immobilize drug trafficking organizations.

- Understanding "drug enforcement administration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "drug enforcement administration" during the group presentation.

eagles (noun)

An emblem representing power.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eagles."
- He looked up "eagles" because he had never seen it before.

fifty percent (noun)

A half expressed as a percentage.

- They discussed "fifty percent" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "fifty percent" because he had never seen it before.

fluid (noun)

A substance that is fluid at room temperature and pressure.

- He looked up "fluid" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fluid" to mean a substance that is fluid at room temperature and....

folk (noun)

People in general (often used in the plural).

- They're just country folk.
- Folks around here drink moonshine.

gop (noun)

The younger of two major political parties in the United States; GOP is an acronym for grand old party.

- Understanding "gop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gop."

grab sample (noun)

A single sample or measurement taken at a specific time or over as short a period as feasible.

- In class, the teacher used "grab sample" to mean a single sample or measurement taken at a specific....
- The article explained what "grab sample" means with a simple example.

ho (noun)

A trivalent metallic element of the rare earth group; occurs together with yttrium; forms highly magnetic compounds.

- They discussed "ho" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ho" means with a simple example.

---

imagination (noun)

The ability to form mental images of things or events.

- He could still hear her in his imagination.
- Popular imagination created a world of demons.

---

inner circle (noun)

An exclusive circle of people with a common purpose.

- He looked up "inner circle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inner circle."

---

inside passage (noun)

A naturally protected waterway from Seattle to Skagway in southeastern Alaska.

- He looked up "inside passage" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inside passage."

---

interpretation (noun)

An explanation that results from interpreting something.

- The report included his interpretation of the forensic evidence.
- The edict was subject to many interpretations.

---

knowledge domain (noun)

The content of a particular field of knowledge.

- He looked up "knowledge domain" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "knowledge domain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leaf (verb)

Look through a book or other written material.

- She leafed through the volume.
- Leaf through a book.

---

loads (noun)

A large number or amount.

- The system broke down under excessive loads.
- The article explained what "loads" means with a simple example.

---

longest (adverb)

For the most time.

- She stayed longest.
- She spoke "longest," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

magic spell (noun)

A verbal formula believed to have magical force.

- He whispered a spell as he moved his hands.
- The article explained what "magic spell" means with a simple example.

---

mental representation (noun)

A presentation to the mind in the form of an idea or image.

- In class, the teacher used "mental representation" to mean a presentation to the mind in the form of an idea....
- The article explained what "mental representation" means with a simple example.

---

municipal government (noun)

The government of a municipality.

- They discussed "municipal government" during the group presentation.

- Understanding "municipal government" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

national guard bureau (noun)

The agency that administers the Army National Guard and the Air National Guard; provides liaison between the Army and the Air Force and various National Guard units.

- They discussed "national guard bureau" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "national guard bureau" to mean the agency that administers the army national guard....

---

perry (noun)

A fermented and often effervescent beverage made from juice of pears; similar in taste to hard cider.

- He looked up "perry" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "perry" to mean a fermented and often effervescent beverage made....

---

plates (noun)

A main course served on a plate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plates."
- They discussed "plates" during the group presentation.

---

portrait (noun)

A word picture of a person's appearance and character.

- The photographer made excellent portraits.
- The article explained what "portrait" means with a simple example.

---

press corps (noun)

A group of journalists representing different publications who all cover the same topics.

- The White House press corps.
- In class, the teacher used "press corps" to mean a group of journalists representing different....

---

radical cell (noun)

A cell of terrorists (usually 3 to 5 members).

- To insure operational security the members of adjacent terrorist cells usually don't know each other or the identity of their leadership.
- He looked up "radical cell" because he had never seen it before.

---

rare-earth element (noun)

Any element of the lanthanide series (atomic numbers 57 through 71).

- They discussed "rare-earth element" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rare-earth element" because he had never seen it before.

---

real irish republican army (noun)

A radical terrorist group that broke away in 1997 when the mainstream Provisional IRA proposed a cease-fire; has continued terrorist activities in opposition to any peace agreement.

- They discussed "real irish republican army" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "real irish republican army" because he had never seen it before.

---

reminds (verb)

Put in the mind of someone.

- The coach explained when to use "reminds" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "reminds" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

rock candy (noun)

Sugar in large hard clear crystals on a string.

- In class, the teacher used "rock candy" to mean sugar in large hard clear crystals on a string.
- Understanding "rock candy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roman catholic (adjective)

Of or relating to or supporting Romanism.

- The Roman Catholic Church.
- Would you call this situation "roman catholic"? Explain why.

---

roman print (noun)

A typeface used in ancient Roman inscriptions.

- Understanding "roman print" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "roman print" to mean a typeface used in ancient roman inscriptions.

---

ron (noun)

A Chadic language spoken in northern Nigeria.

- They discussed "ron" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ron" means with a simple example.

---

safely (adverb)

With safety; in a safe manner.

- We are safely out of there.
- She spoke "safely," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

silver wedding anniversary (noun)

The 25th wedding anniversary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silver wedding anniversary."
- He looked up "silver wedding anniversary" because he had never seen it before.

---

social gathering (noun)

A gathering for the purpose of promoting fellowship.

- In class, the teacher used "social gathering" to mean a gathering for the purpose of promoting fellowship.
- Understanding "social gathering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stock symbol (noun)

The letters used to identify listed companies on the securities exchanges where they are traded.

- In class, the teacher used "stock symbol" to mean the letters used to identify listed companies on....
- He looked up "stock symbol" because he had never seen it before.

---

sue (verb)

Institute legal proceedings against; file a suit against.

- In everyday English, people use "sue" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "sue" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

suspension point (noun)

(usually plural) one of a series of points indicating that something has been omitted or that the sentence is incomplete.

- They discussed "suspension point" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "suspension point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

targeted (verb)

Intend (something) to move towards a certain goal.

- She tried to use "targeted" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "targeted" when talking about this idea.

---

the great charter (noun)

The royal charter of political rights given to rebellious English barons by King John in 1215.

- They discussed "the great charter" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "the great charter" because he had never seen it before.

---

theories (noun)

A tentative insight into the natural world; a concept that is not yet verified but that if true would explain certain facts or phenomena.

- Theories can incorporate facts and laws and tested hypotheses.
- The article explained what "theories" means with a simple example.

---

three-quarters (noun)

Three of four equal parts.

- He looked up "three-quarters" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "three-quarters."

---

unity (noun)

The smallest whole number or a numeral representing this number.

- He took measures to insure the territorial unity of Croatia.
- They discussed "unity" during the group presentation.

---

victoria falls (noun)

A large waterfall on the border between Argentina and Brazil.

- They discussed "victoria falls" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "victoria falls" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

viewers (noun)

The audience reached by television.

- Television viewers.
- They discussed "viewers" during the group presentation.

---

abilities (noun)

Possession of the qualities (especially mental qualities) required to do something or get something done.

- Understanding "abilities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "abilities" to mean possession of the qualities (especially mental....

---

apple juice (noun)

The juice of apples.

- He looked up "apple juice" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "apple juice."

---

arc (noun)

A continuous portion of a circle.

- He looked up "arc" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arc."

---

bass voice (noun)

The lowest adult male singing voice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bass voice."
- Understanding "bass voice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beaten (adjective)

Formed or made thin by hammering.

- Beaten gold.
- A "beaten" approach may work better in this case.

---

bond rating (noun)

An evaluation by a rating company of the probability that a particular bond issue will default.

- The bonds of highest quality are said to have bond ratings of AAA.
- He looked up "bond rating" because he had never seen it before.

---

branches (noun)

A division of some larger or more complex organization.

- He broke off one of the branches.
- He looked up "branches" because he had never seen it before.

---

chemical element (noun)

Any of the more than 100 known substances (of which 92 occur naturally) that cannot be separated into simpler substances and that singly or in combination constitute all matter.

- He looked up "chemical element" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chemical element."

chips (noun)

Strips of potato fried in deep fat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chips."
- He looked up "chips" because he had never seen it before.

chocolate cake (noun)

Cake containing chocolate.

- Understanding "chocolate cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "chocolate cake" during the group presentation.

climb-down (noun)

A retraction of a previously held position.

- Understanding "climb-down" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "climb-down" because he had never seen it before.

closest (adverb)

(superlative of 'near' or 'close') within the shortest distance.

- Using "closest" can make your explanation more exact.
- The narrator describes the scene "closest" in the final chapter.

commercial treaty (noun)

A treaty governing commerce between two or more nations.

- The article explained what "commercial treaty" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "commercial treaty" to mean a treaty governing commerce between two or more nations.

commonwealth of nations (noun)

An association of nations consisting of the United Kingdom and several former British colonies that are now sovereign states but still pay allegiance to the British Crown.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commonwealth of nations."
- He looked up "commonwealth of nations" because he had never seen it before.

communist economy (noun)

The managed economy of a communist state.

- The article explained what "communist economy" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "communist economy" during the group presentation.

correctly (adverb)

In an accurate manner.

- The flower had been correctly depicted by his son.
- The narrator describes the scene "correctly" in the final chapter.

criteria (noun)

The ideal in terms of which something can be judged.

- They discussed "criteria" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "criteria" because he had never seen it before.

death warrant (noun)

A warrant to execute the death sentence.

- The article explained what "death warrant" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "death warrant."

declined (verb)

Show unwillingness towards.

- He declined to join the group on a hike.
- She tried to use "declined" carefully so everyone would understand.

difficulties (noun)

A factor causing trouble in achieving a positive result or tending to produce a negative result.

- Serious difficulties were encountered in obtaining a pure reagent.
- Grappling with financial difficulties.

---

dinner theater (noun)

A theater at which dinner is included in the price of admission.

- They discussed "dinner theater" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dinner theater" because he had never seen it before.

---

dish (noun)

An activity that you like or at which you are superior.

- Marriage was scarcely his dish.
- We gave them a set of dishes for a wedding present.

---

dish out (verb)

Administer or bestow, as in small portions.

- Dole out some money.
- Shell out pocket money for the children.

---

dish up (verb)

Provide (usually but not necessarily food).

- She dished out the soup at 8 P.M.
- Can you use "dish up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

divine law (noun)

A law that is believed to come directly from God.

- They discussed "divine law" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "divine law" means with a simple example.

---

egyptian (noun)

The ancient and now extinct language of Egypt under the Pharaohs; written records date back to 3000 BC.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "egyptian."
- He looked up "egyptian" because he had never seen it before.

---

evaluation (noun)

An appraisal of the value of something.

- In class, the teacher used "evaluation" to mean an appraisal of the value of something.
- Understanding "evaluation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

eye candy (noun)

Visual images that are pleasing to see but are intellectually undemanding.

- He wanted to put some eye candy on their web site.
- In class, the teacher used "eye candy" to mean visual images that are pleasing to see but are....

---

fence in (verb)

Surround with a wall in order to fortify.

- We fenced in our yard.
- The coach explained when to use "fence in" and when to wait.

---

filter paper (noun)

A porous unsized paper used for filtering.

- Understanding "filter paper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "filter paper" because he had never seen it before.

---

fiscal policy (noun)

A government policy for dealing with the budget (especially with taxation and borrowing).

- In class, the teacher used "fiscal policy" to mean a government policy for dealing with the budget....

- The article explained what "fiscal policy" means with a simple example.

forcing (verb)

To cause to do through pressure or necessity, by physical, moral or intellectual means :.

- Learners should practice how to use "forcing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "forcing" when talking about this idea.

fortune telling (noun)

The art or gift of prophecy (or the pretense of prophecy) by supernatural means.

- In class, the teacher used "fortune telling" to mean the art or gift of prophecy (or the pretense of....
- The article explained what "fortune telling" means with a simple example.

genetic engineering (noun)

The technology of preparing recombinant DNA in vitro by cutting up DNA molecules and splicing together fragments from more than one organism.

- He looked up "genetic engineering" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genetic engineering."

gradually (adverb)

In a gradual manner.

- The snake moved gradually toward its victim.
- The narrator describes the scene "gradually" in the final chapter.

habits (noun)

The general form or mode of growth (especially of a plant or crystal).

- Owls have nocturnal habits.
- They discussed "habits" during the group presentation.

hair stroke (noun)

A very fine line in writing or printing.

- In class, the teacher used "hair stroke" to mean a very fine line in writing or printing.
- The article explained what "hair stroke" means with a simple example.

hang by a thread (verb)

Depend on a small thing or be at risk.

- His life now hangs by a thread.
- Learners should practice how to use "hang by a thread" in real sentences.

hard rubber (noun)

A hard nonresilient rubber formed by vulcanizing natural rubber.

- The article explained what "hard rubber" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hard rubber" to mean a hard nonresilient rubber formed by vulcanizing....

hawaii time (noun)

Standard time in the 10th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 150th meridian west; used in Hawaii and the western Aleutian Islands.

- He looked up "hawaii time" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hawaii time."

highlight (noun)

The most interesting or memorable part.

- The highlight of the tour was our visit to the Vatican.
- He looked up "highlight" because he had never seen it before.

home folk (noun)

Folks from your own home town.

- The article explained what "home folk" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "home folk" during the group presentation.

investigations (noun)

An inquiry into unfamiliar or questionable activities.

- The article explained what "investigations" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "investigations."

---

ken (noun)

Range of what one can know or understand.

- Beyond my ken.
- In class, the teacher used "ken" to mean range of what one can know or understand.

---

kentucky wonder (noun)

Flat-podded green bean.

- They discussed "kentucky wonder" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "kentucky wonder" means with a simple example.

---

legally (adverb)

By law; conforming to the law.

- He acted legally.
- She spoke "legally," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

lied (noun)

A German art song of the 19th century for voice and piano.

- In class, the teacher used "lied" to mean a german art song of the 19th century for voice and....
- The article explained what "lied" means with a simple example.

---

listened (verb)

Pay close attention to; give heed to.

- The coach explained when to use "listened" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "listened" until he saw an example.

---

living arrangement (noun)

An arrangement to allow people (or ideas) to coexist.

- They discussed "living arrangement" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "living arrangement" to mean an arrangement to allow people (or ideas) to coexist.

---

loan translation (noun)

An expression introduced into one language by translating it from another language.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loan translation."
- The article explained what "loan translation" means with a simple example.

---

loose sentence (noun)

A complex sentence in which the main clause comes first and the subordinate clause follows.

- The article explained what "loose sentence" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "loose sentence" to mean a complex sentence in which the main clause comes....

---

manufacturer (noun)

A business engaged in manufacturing some product.

- The article explained what "manufacturer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "manufacturer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

medal of honor (noun)

The highest U.S. military decoration awarded for bravery and valor in action 'above and beyond the call of duty'.

- He looked up "medal of honor" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "medal of honor" to mean the highest u.s. military decoration awarded for....

---

meters (verb)

Stamp with a meter indicating the postage.

- She tried to use "meters" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "meters" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

nail (verb)

Attach something somewhere by means of nails.

- Nail the board onto the wall.
- He nailed down a spot at Harvard.

---

negotiations (noun)

A discussion intended to produce an agreement.

- He looked up "negotiations" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "negotiations."

---

nonsense (noun)

A message that seems to convey no meaning.

- The article explained what "nonsense" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "nonsense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

object recognition (noun)

The visual perception of familiar objects.

- In class, the teacher used "object recognition" to mean the visual perception of familiar objects.
- They discussed "object recognition" during the group presentation.

---

operational (adjective)

Pertaining to a process or series of actions for achieving a result.

- Operational difficulties.
- They assumed their operational positions.

---

output signal (noun)

Signal that comes out of an electronic system.

- The article explained what "output signal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "output signal" to mean signal that comes out of an electronic system.

---

pass judgment (verb)

Form a critical opinion of.

- We shouldn't pass judgment on other people.
- Can you use "pass judgment" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

pension off (verb)

Let go from employment with an attractive pension.

- The director was pensioned off when he got senile.
- Can you use "pension off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

phoenix (noun)

A constellation in the southern hemisphere near Tucana and Sculptor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phoenix."
- He looked up "phoenix" because he had never seen it before.

---

pilot bread (noun)

Very hard unsalted biscuit or bread; a former ship's staple.

- Understanding "pilot bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pilot bread" because he had never seen it before.

---

plot element (noun)

A component or element of the plot of a story.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plot element."
- He looked up "plot element" because he had never seen it before.

psychological science (noun)

The science of mental life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "psychological science."
- He looked up "psychological science" because he had never seen it before.

put differently (adverb)

Otherwise stated.

- Using "put differently" can make your explanation more exact.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "put differently" naturally.

quoted (verb)

Refer to for illustration or proof.

- He quoted the Bible to her.
- The coach explained when to use "quoted" and when to wait.

reception line (noun)

A line of people (hosts and guests of honor) who welcome the guests at a reception party.

- The article explained what "reception line" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "reception line" during the group presentation.

relating (verb)

Be in a relationship with.

- She tried to use "relating" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "relating" and when to wait.

removal firm (noun)

A company that moves the possessions of a family or business from one site to another.

- Understanding "removal firm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "removal firm" to mean a company that moves the possessions of a family or....

repeatedly (adverb)

Several time.

- It must be washed repeatedly.
- Using "repeatedly" can make your explanation more exact.

sea bass (noun)

The lean flesh of a saltwater fish of the family Serranidae.

- Understanding "sea bass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sea bass" to mean the lean flesh of a saltwater fish of the family....

short-handled (adjective)

Having a short handle.

- A "short-handled" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "short-handled" because it captured the feeling precisely.

snap at (verb)

Bite off with a quick bite.

- The dog snapped off a piece of cloth from the intruder's pants.
- Can you use "snap at" in a sentence that fits this situation?

solid-state physics (noun)

The branch of physics that studies the properties of materials in the solid state: electrical conduction in crystals of semiconductors and metals; superconductivity; photoconductivity.

- In class, the teacher used "solid-state physics" to mean the branch of physics that studies the properties....
- He looked up "solid-state physics" because he had never seen it before.

swedish (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Sweden or its people or culture or language.

- The Swedish King.
- Swedish punch.

---

swiss (adjective)

Of or relating to Switzerland or its people or culture.

- The Swiss army.
- A "swiss" approach may work better in this case.

---

tear apart (verb)

Express a totally negative opinion of.

- Learners should practice how to use "tear apart" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "tear apart" when talking about this idea.

---

transmission channel (noun)

A path over which electrical signals can pass.

- A channel is typically what you rent from a telephone company.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transmission channel."

---

twist around (verb)

Practice sophistry; change the meaning of or be vague about in order to mislead or deceive.

- Don't twist my words.
- The coach explained when to use "twist around" and when to wait.

---

virgin birth (noun)

The theological doctrine that Jesus Christ had no human father; Christians believe that Jesus's birth fulfilled Old Testament prophecies and was attended by miracles; the Nativity is celebrated at Christmas.

- In class, the teacher used "virgin birth" to mean the theological doctrine that jesus christ had no....
- The article explained what "virgin birth" means with a simple example.

---

vital capacity (noun)

The maximum amount of air that can be exhaled after a maximum inhalation (usually tested with a spirometer); used to determine the condition of lung tissue.

- In class, the teacher used "vital capacity" to mean the maximum amount of air that can be exhaled after....
- He looked up "vital capacity" because he had never seen it before.

---

web log (noun)

A shared on-line journal where people can post diary entries about their personal experiences and hobbies.

- Postings on a blog are usually in chronological order.
- In class, the teacher used "web log" to mean a shared on-line journal where people can post....

---

additionally (adverb)

In addition, by way of addition; furthermore.

- He serves additionally as the CEO.
- He answered "additionally," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

army corps (noun)

An army unit usually consisting of two or more divisions and their support.

- He looked up "army corps" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "army corps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beef stock (noun)

A stock made with beef.

- He looked up "beef stock" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "beef stock" to mean a stock made with beef.

---

beta (noun)

The 2nd letter of the Greek alphabet.

- He looked up "beta" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "beta" to mean the 2nd letter of the greek alphabet.

---

big bang theory (noun)

(cosmology) the theory that the universe originated sometime between 10 billion and 20 billion years ago from the cataclysmic explosion of a small volume of matter at extremely high density and temperature.

- They discussed "big bang theory" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "big bang theory" means with a simple example.

---

big-bang theory (noun)

(cosmology) the theory that the universe originated sometime between 10 billion and 20 billion years ago from the cataclysmic explosion of a small volume of matter at extremely high density and temperature.

- In class, the teacher used "big-bang theory" to mean (cosmology) the theory that the universe originated....
- They discussed "big-bang theory" during the group presentation.

---

blowing (noun)

Processing that involves blowing a gas.

- He looked up "blowing" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "blowing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blowing up (noun)

A severe rebuke.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blowing up."
- He looked up "blowing up" because he had never seen it before.

---

boston brown bread (noun)

Dark steamed bread made of cornmeal wheat and flour with molasses and soda and milk or water.

- They discussed "boston brown bread" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "boston brown bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bureau of intelligence and research (noun)

An agency that is the primary source in the State Department for interpretive analyses of global developments and focal point for policy issues and activities of the Intelligence Community.

- Understanding "bureau of intelligence and research" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bureau of intelligence and research" because he had never seen it before.

---

candy bar (noun)

A candy shaped as a bar.

- He looked up "candy bar" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "candy bar."

---

catch phrase (noun)

A phrase that has become a catchword.

- Understanding "catch phrase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "catch phrase" to mean a phrase that has become a catchword.

---

cave (verb)

Hollow out as if making a cave or opening.

- Can you use "cave" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "cave" and when to wait.

---

chemical formula (noun)

A representation of a substance using symbols for its constituent elements.

- He looked up "chemical formula" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chemical formula" to mean a representation of a substance using symbols for....

---

co-vary (verb)

Vary in the same time period (of two random variables).

- In everyday English, people use "co-vary" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "co-vary" until he saw an example.

communicate (verb)

Be in verbal contact; interchange information or ideas.

- He and his sons haven't communicated for years.
- Do you communicate well with your advisor?

contract under seal (noun)

A contract that is signed and has the (wax) seal of the signer attached.

- They discussed "contract under seal" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "contract under seal."

convicted (verb)

Find or declare guilty.

- The man was convicted of fraud and sentenced.
- He did not know how to use "convicted" until he saw an example.

cultures (noun)

A particular society at a particular time and place.

- They discussed "cultures" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cultures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

demonstrate (verb)

March in protest; take part in a demonstration.

- Thousands demonstrated against globalization during the meeting of the most powerful economic nations in Seattle.
- The experiment demonstrated the instability of the compound.

department of the treasury (noun)

The federal department that collects revenue and administers federal finances; the Treasury Department was created in 1789.

- The article explained what "department of the treasury" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "department of the treasury" to mean the federal department that collects revenue and....

departments (noun)

A specialized division of a large organization.

- The article explained what "departments" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "departments" to mean a specialized division of a large organization.

depend (verb)

Be contingent upon (something that is elided).

- That depends.
- Depend on your family in times of crisis.

depend on (verb)

Be dependent on, as for support or maintenance.

- Elderly parents often depend on their adult children.
- Your grade will depends on your homework.

drug enforcement agency (noun)

Federal agency responsible for enforcing laws and regulations governing narcotics and controlled substances; goal is to immobilize drug trafficking organizations.

- They discussed "drug enforcement agency" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "drug enforcement agency" to mean federal agency responsible for enforcing laws and....

e'er (adverb)

At all times; all the time and on every occasion.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "e'er" naturally.
- Place "e'er" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

eighth (noun)

Position eight in a countable series of things.

- The article explained what "eighth" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "eighth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

experiments (verb)

To conduct a test or investigation.

- The coach explained when to use "experiments" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "experiments" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fa (noun)

The syllable naming the fourth (subdominant) note of the diatonic scale in solmization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fa."
- They discussed "fa" during the group presentation.

---

fifth column (noun)

A subversive group that supports the enemy and engages in espionage or sabotage; an enemy in your midst.

- The article explained what "fifth column" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fifth column" during the group presentation.

---

finishing touch (noun)

A final touch; a crowning achievement; a culmination.

- Understanding "finishing touch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "finishing touch" means with a simple example.

---

fish house punch (noun)

A punch made of rum and brandy and water or tea sweetened with sugar syrup.

- Understanding "fish house punch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fish house punch" to mean a punch made of rum and brandy and water or tea....

---

forty (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and four.

- In class, the teacher used "forty" to mean the cardinal number that is the product of ten and four.
- The article explained what "forty" means with a simple example.

---

genetic map (noun)

Graphical representation of the arrangement of genes on a chromosome.

- They discussed "genetic map" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "genetic map" means with a simple example.

---

germans (noun)

The standard German language; developed historically from West Germanic.

- They discussed "germans" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "germans."

---

gulf of california (noun)

A gulf to the west of the mainland of Mexico.

- The article explained what "gulf of california" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gulf of california" during the group presentation.

---

hr (noun)

A period of time equal to 1/24th of a day.

- Understanding "hr" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "hr" means with a simple example.

---

ice-cream cake (noun)

Ice cream molded to look like a cake.

- He looked up "ice-cream cake" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "ice-cream cake" during the group presentation.

influenced (verb)

Have and exert influence or effect.

- The artist's work influenced the young painter.
- In everyday English, people use "influenced" when talking about this idea.

internal angle (noun)

The angle inside two adjacent sides of a polygon.

- Understanding "internal angle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "internal angle" during the group presentation.

kidding (verb)

Be silly or tease one another.

- The coach explained when to use "kidding" and when to wait.
- Can you use "kidding" in a sentence that fits this situation?

knee-length (adjective)

Extending to the knee.

- Would you call this situation "knee-length"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "knee-length."

legal instrument (noun)

(law) a document that states some contractual relationship or grants some right.

- In class, the teacher used "legal instrument" to mean (law) a document that states some contractual....
- He looked up "legal instrument" because he had never seen it before.

letter of intent (noun)

Any letter expressing an intention to take (or forgo) some action.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "letter of intent."
- Understanding "letter of intent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

liquid measure (noun)

A unit of capacity for liquids (for measuring the volumes of liquids or their containers).

- In class, the teacher used "liquid measure" to mean a unit of capacity for liquids (for measuring the....
- The article explained what "liquid measure" means with a simple example.

mechanical advantage (noun)

The ratio of the force exerted by a machine to the force applied to it.

- Understanding "mechanical advantage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mechanical advantage" to mean the ratio of the force exerted by a machine to the....

mechanical engineering (noun)

The branch of engineering that deals with the design and construction and operation of machinery.

- He looked up "mechanical engineering" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mechanical engineering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mental faculty (noun)

One of the inherent cognitive or perceptual powers of the mind.

- They discussed "mental faculty" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mental faculty" to mean one of the inherent cognitive or perceptual powers....

mentally (adverb)

In your mind.

- He suffered mentally.
- He answered "mentally," which changed the tone of the conversation.

movement for revenge (noun)

An organization of Muslims in India who killed Hindus in September 2002; believed to have ties with Muslim terrorists in Pakistan.

- He looked up "movement for revenge" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "movement for revenge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

national socialist (adjective)

Relating to a form of socialism.

- The national socialist party came to power in Germany in 1933.
- The speaker chose "national socialist" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

nuclear chemistry (noun)

The chemistry of radioactive substances.

- He looked up "nuclear chemistry" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "nuclear chemistry" to mean the chemistry of radioactive substances.

---

one-eighth (noun)

One part in eight equal parts.

- He looked up "one-eighth" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "one-eighth."

---

oral stage (noun)

(psychoanalysis) the first sexual and social stage of an infant's development; the mouth is the focus of the libido and satisfaction comes from suckling and chewing and biting.

- He looked up "oral stage" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "oral stage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

partner relation (noun)

The responsibility of partners to act in one another's best interests.

- Understanding "partner relation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "partner relation" means with a simple example.

---

pass with flying colors (verb)

Succeed at easily.

- You will pass with flying colors.
- Learners should practice how to use "pass with flying colors" in real sentences.

---

passion fruit (noun)

Egg-shaped tropical fruit of certain passionflower vines; used for sherbets and confectionery and drinks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "passion fruit."
- Understanding "passion fruit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

peace corps (noun)

A civilian organization sponsored by the United States government; helps people in developing countries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peace corps."
- He looked up "peace corps" because he had never seen it before.

---

personality assessment (noun)

A questionnaire that is supposed to yield a description of a person's personality traits.

- A personality inventory is a direct test of personality, as contrasted with a projective test.
- Understanding "personality assessment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pic (noun)

A form of entertainment that enacts a story by sound and a sequence of images giving the illusion of continuous movement.

- He looked up "pic" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pic" during the group presentation.

---

pointing (verb)

Intend (something) to move towards a certain goal.

- She tried to use "pointing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "pointing" until he saw an example.

---

pointing out (noun)

Indication by demonstration.

- In class, the teacher used "pointing out" to mean indication by demonstration.
- They discussed "pointing out" during the group presentation.

---

precisely (adverb)

Indicating exactness or preciseness.

- He was doing precisely (or exactly) what she had told him to do.
- She always expressed herself precisely.

---

printing unit (noun)

A unit of measurement for printing.

- They discussed "printing unit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "printing unit" means with a simple example.

---

proposals (noun)

The act of making a proposal.

- They discussed "proposals" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "proposals" means with a simple example.

---

protests (noun)

A formal and solemn declaration of objection.

- He shouted his protests at the umpire.
- In class, the teacher used "protests" to mean a formal and solemn declaration of objection.

---

resist (verb)

Express opposition through action or words.

- The trees resisted her.
- Learners should practice how to use "resist" in real sentences.

---

shed light on (verb)

Make free from confusion or ambiguity; make clear.

- He did not know how to use "shed light on" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "shed light on" and when to wait.

---

shoulder-to-shoulder (adverb)

Side by side and close together.

- The troops marched shoulder-to-shoulder.
- The narrator describes the scene "shoulder-to-shoulder" in the final chapter.

---

silver star medal (noun)

A United States military decoration for gallantry in action.

- Understanding "silver star medal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "silver star medal" during the group presentation.

---

snap off (verb)

Break a piece from a whole.

- Can you use "snap off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "snap off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

socialist party (noun)

A political party in the United States formed in 1900 to advocate socialism.

- The article explained what "socialist party" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "socialist party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

solely (adverb)

Without any others being included or involved.

- Did it solely for money.
- Place "solely" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

steady state theory (noun)

(cosmology) the theory that the universe maintains a constant average density with matter created to fill the void left by galaxies that are receding from each other.

- The steady state theory has been abandoned in favor of the big bang theory.
- In class, the teacher used "steady state theory" to mean (cosmology) the theory that the universe maintains....

steam coal (noun)

Coal suitable for use under steam boilers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steam coal."
- He looked up "steam coal" because he had never seen it before.

strategic warning (noun)

(military) a warning prior to the start of a threatening act.

- He looked up "strategic warning" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "strategic warning" during the group presentation.

temperature reduction (noun)

The process of becoming cooler; a falling temperature.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "temperature reduction."
- He looked up "temperature reduction" because he had never seen it before.

treasury department (noun)

The federal department that collects revenue and administers federal finances; the Treasury Department was created in 1789.

- They discussed "treasury department" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "treasury department" to mean the federal department that collects revenue and....

unemployment line (noun)

A queue of people waiting for employment.

- They discussed "unemployment line" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "unemployment line" because he had never seen it before.

us fish and wildlife service (noun)

An agency in the Department of the Interior that conserves and protects fish and wildlife and their habitats; assesses the environmental impact of pesticides and nuclear power site and hydroelectric dams and thermal pollution.

- In class, the teacher used "us fish and wildlife service" to mean an agency in the department of the interior that....
- The article explained what "us fish and wildlife service" means with a simple example.

wondered (verb)

Place in doubt or express doubtful speculation.

- She wondered whether it would snow tonight.
- He wondered who had built this beautiful church.

world council of churches (noun)

An ecumenical organization of Protestant and eastern churches; intended to promote unity and cooperation in religious and secular matters.

- The article explained what "world council of churches" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "world council of churches" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wrap (verb)

Arrange or fold as a cover or protection.

- Wrap the baby before taking her out.
- Wrap the present.

wrap up (verb)

Arrange or fold as a cover or protection.

- Wrap the baby before taking her out.
- Wrap the present.

---

angel cake (noun)

A light sponge cake made without egg yolks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "angel cake."
- He looked up "angel cake" because he had never seen it before.

---

appeals court (noun)

A court whose jurisdiction is to review decisions of lower courts or agencies.

- They discussed "appeals court" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "appeals court" because he had never seen it before.

---

armed islamic group (noun)

A terrorist organization of Islamic extremists whose violent activities began in 1992; aims to overthrow the secular Algerian regime and replace it with an Islamic state.

- Understanding "armed islamic group" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "armed islamic group" to mean a terrorist organization of islamic extremists....

---

biological agent (noun)

Any bacterium or virus or toxin that could be used in biological warfare.

- Understanding "biological agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "biological agent" because he had never seen it before.

---

boot out (verb)

Put out or expel from a place.

- She tried to use "boot out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "boot out" until he saw an example.

---

bucks (verb)

To strive with determination.

- She tried to use "bucks" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "bucks" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

bull session (noun)

An informal discussion (usually among men).

- They discussed "bull session" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bull session" means with a simple example.

---

camps (noun)

A group of people living together in a camp.

- China has many camps for political prisoners.
- He looked up "camps" because he had never seen it before.

---

cheese pizza (noun)

Pizza with lots of cheese.

- They discussed "cheese pizza" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cheese pizza" because he had never seen it before.

---

coastal (adjective)

Of or relating to a coast.

- Coastal erosion.
- Coastal marshes.

---

commentary (noun)

A written explanation or criticism or illustration that is added to a book or other textual material.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commentary."

- The article explained what "commentary" means with a simple example.

congressional (adjective)

Of or relating to congress.

- Congressional hearing.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "congressional."

court of appeals (noun)

A court whose jurisdiction is to review decisions of lower courts or agencies.

- He looked up "court of appeals" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "court of appeals" during the group presentation.

deemed (verb)

Keep in mind or convey as a conviction or view.

- Learners should practice how to use "deemed" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "deemed" and when to wait.

dinner jacket (noun)

Semiformal evening dress for men.

- Understanding "dinner jacket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dinner jacket" means with a simple example.

double replacement reaction (noun)

A chemical reaction between two compounds where the positive ion of one compound is exchanged with the positive ion of another compound.

- Understanding "double replacement reaction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "double replacement reaction" to mean a chemical reaction between two compounds where the....

educational institution (noun)

An institution dedicated to education.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "educational institution."
- They discussed "educational institution" during the group presentation.

exploration (noun)

A systematic consideration.

- He called for a careful exploration of the consequences.
- They discussed "exploration" during the group presentation.

face-amount certificate company (noun)

A regulated investment company that pays a stated amount to certificate holders on a stated maturity date.

- He looked up "face-amount certificate company" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "face-amount certificate company" to mean a regulated investment company that pays a stated....

federal bureau of investigation (noun)

A federal law enforcement agency that is the principal investigative arm of the Department of Justice.

- He looked up "federal bureau of investigation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal bureau of investigation."

filling (noun)

Any material that fills a space or container.

- When he yawned I could see the gold fillings in his teeth.
- An informal British term for 'filling' is 'stopping'.

fishing license (noun)

A license authorizing the bearer to fish during a specified period of time.

- The article explained what "fishing license" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fishing license" during the group presentation.

flip over (verb)

Turn upside down, or throw so as to reverse.

- Flip over the pork chop.
- Turn over the pancakes.

---

foot-ton (noun)

2240 foot-pounds.

- In class, the teacher used "foot-ton" to mean 2240 foot-pounds.
- He looked up "foot-ton" because he had never seen it before.

---

for all practical purposes (adverb)

In every practical sense.

- To all intents and purposes the case is closed.
- The rest are for all practical purposes useless.

---

foreign terrorist organization (noun)

A political movement that uses terror as a weapon to achieve its goals.

- The article explained what "foreign terrorist organization" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foreign terrorist organization."

---

i samuel (noun)

The first of two books in the Old Testament that tell of Saul and David.

- He looked up "i samuel" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "i samuel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

insight (noun)

The clear (and often sudden) understanding of a complex situation.

- Understanding "insight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "insight" means with a simple example.

---

iron trap (noun)

A trap from which there is no escape.

- They discussed "iron trap" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "iron trap" because he had never seen it before.

---

meals (noun)

The food served and eaten at one time.

- Understanding "meals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "meals" to mean the food served and eaten at one time.

---

national volunteers association (noun)

An all-male organization begun in 1925 to foster nationalism in India's Hindus.

- In class, the teacher used "national volunteers association" to mean an all-male organization begun in 1925 to foster....
- Understanding "national volunteers association" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

natural language processing application (noun)

An application program that deals with natural language text.

- In class, the teacher used "natural language processing application" to mean an application program that deals with natural....
- They discussed "natural language processing application" during the group presentation.

---

negative feedback (noun)

Feedback in opposite phase with (decreasing) the input.

- Understanding "negative feedback" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "negative feedback" means with a simple example.

---

o'er (adverb)

Throughout a period of time.

- The narrator describes the scene "o'er" in the final chapter.
- Using "o'er" can make your explanation more exact.

---

overnight (adverb)

Happening in a short time or with great speed.

- These solutions cannot be found overnight!
- The fish marinates overnight.

---

partially (adverb)

In part; in some degree; not wholly.

- He was partially paralyzed.
- He answered "partially," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

party to the transaction (noun)

A party of people taking a role in legal proceedings.

- In class, the teacher used "party to the transaction" to mean a party of people taking a role in legal proceedings.
- The article explained what "party to the transaction" means with a simple example.

---

phase angle (noun)

A particular point in the time of a cycle; measured from some arbitrary zero and expressed as an angle.

- In class, the teacher used "phase angle" to mean a particular point in the time of a cycle; measured....
- Understanding "phase angle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

phrase structure (noun)

The grammatical arrangement of words in sentences.

- He looked up "phrase structure" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "phrase structure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pie (noun)

A prehistoric unrecorded language that was the ancestor of all Indo-European languages.

- In class, the teacher used "pie" to mean a prehistoric unrecorded language that was the....
- They discussed "pie" during the group presentation.

---

platforms (noun)

A document stating the aims and principles of a political party.

- In class, the teacher used "platforms" to mean a document stating the aims and principles of a....
- The article explained what "platforms" means with a simple example.

---

pocket bread (noun)

Usually small round bread that can open into a pocket for filling.

- In class, the teacher used "pocket bread" to mean usually small round bread that can open into a....
- They discussed "pocket bread" during the group presentation.

---

populations (noun)

The people who inhabit a territory or state.

- Understanding "populations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "populations" because he had never seen it before.

---

poster (noun)

A sign posted in a public place as an advertisement.

- A poster advertised the coming attractions.
- The article explained what "poster" means with a simple example.

---

pr (noun)

A promotion intended to create goodwill for a person or institution.

- He looked up "pr" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pr" during the group presentation.

practically (adverb)

(degree adverb used before a noun phrase) for all practical purposes but not completely.

- Practically everything in Hinduism is the manifestation of a god.
- Practically the first thing I saw when I got off the train.

qualify (verb)

Describe or portray the character or the qualities or peculiarities of.

- Qualify these remarks.
- Can you use "qualify" in a sentence that fits this situation?

ram (verb)

Strike or drive against with a heavy impact.

- Ram the gate with a sledgehammer.
- She rammed her mind into focus.

ranging (adjective)

Wandering freely.

- At night in bed...his slowly ranging thoughts...encountered her.
- Students compared "ranging" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

scenario (noun)

A postulated sequence of possible events.

- Planners developed several scenarios in case of an attack.
- The scenario is France during the Reign of Terror.

scientific agriculture (noun)

The application of soil and plant sciences to land management and crop production.

- In class, the teacher used "scientific agriculture" to mean the application of soil and plant sciences to land....
- Understanding "scientific agriculture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

side dish (noun)

A dish that is served with, but is subordinate to, a main course.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "side dish."
- The article explained what "side dish" means with a simple example.

snake eyes (noun)

Expressions used when when two dice are thrown and both come up showing one spot.

- He looked up "snake eyes" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snake eyes."

spreading (noun)

The opening of a subject to widespread discussion and debate.

- The article explained what "spreading" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spreading."

stand pat (verb)

Refuse to abandon one's opinion or belief.

- Can you use "stand pat" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "stand pat" and when to wait.

straight-backed (adverb)

In a straight-backed manner.

- The narrator describes the scene "straight-backed" in the final chapter.
- She spoke "straight-backed," and the audience immediately understood her point.

sustainable (adjective)

Capable of being sustained.

- The speaker chose "sustainable" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "sustainable" when it is capable of being sustained.

---

themes (noun)

The subject matter of a conversation or discussion.

- He looked up "themes" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "themes" during the group presentation.

---

to boot (adverb)

In addition, by way of addition; furthermore.

- The narrator describes the scene "to boot" in the final chapter.
- Using "to boot" can make your explanation more exact.

---

united states treasury (noun)

The federal department that collects revenue and administers federal finances; the Treasury Department was created in 1789.

- In class, the teacher used "united states treasury" to mean the federal department that collects revenue and....
- They discussed "united states treasury" during the group presentation.

---

absolute pitch (noun)

The ability to identify the pitch of a tone.

- The article explained what "absolute pitch" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "absolute pitch" to mean the ability to identify the pitch of a tone.

---

acknowledge (verb)

Express obligation, thanks, or gratitude for.

- We must acknowledge the kindness she showed towards us.
- She acknowledged that she might have forgotten.

---

advisory (noun)

An announcement that usually advises or warns the public of some threat.

- A frost advisory.
- They discussed "advisory" during the group presentation.

---

appeals board (noun)

A board of officials that are not judicial but are appointed to hear appeals.

- He looked up "appeals board" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "appeals board" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

artificial language (noun)

A language that is deliberately created for a specific purpose.

- Understanding "artificial language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "artificial language."

---

bank charter (noun)

A charter authorizing the operation of a bank.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bank charter."
- They discussed "bank charter" during the group presentation.

---

biology department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in biology.

- They discussed "biology department" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "biology department" means with a simple example.

---

bits (noun)

A small amount of solid food; a mouthful.

- There are 8 bits in a byte.

- Understanding "bits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

board of appeals (noun)

A board of officials that are not judicial but are appointed to hear appeals.

- The article explained what "board of appeals" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "board of appeals" to mean a board of officials that are not judicial but are....

broadcast medium (noun)

A medium that disseminates via telecommunications.

- In class, the teacher used "broadcast medium" to mean a medium that disseminates via telecommunications.
- Understanding "broadcast medium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

building permit (noun)

A document authorizing the holder to construct a building of a particular kind on a particular lot.

- They discussed "building permit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "building permit" means with a simple example.

bullet vote (verb)

Vote cumulatively and distribute the votes according to some principle.

- The coach explained when to use "bullet vote" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "bullet vote" until he saw an example.

cancel (noun)

A notation cancelling a previous sharp or flat.

- Understanding "cancel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cancel" because he had never seen it before.

carpet (noun)

A natural object that resembles or suggests a carpet.

- A carpet of flowers.
- The larvae of some moths spin a web that resembles a carpet.

chocolate ice cream (noun)

Ice cream flavored with chocolate.

- They discussed "chocolate ice cream" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chocolate ice cream" means with a simple example.

clue (noun)

Evidence that helps to solve a problem.

- They discussed "clue" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "clue" means with a simple example.

clue in (verb)

Provide someone with a clue.

- Can you clue me in?
- Learners should practice how to use "clue in" in real sentences.

consecutive (adverb)

In a consecutive manner.

- We numbered the papers consecutively.
- Place "consecutive" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

contents (noun)

A list of divisions (chapters or articles) and the pages on which they start.

- He emptied the contents of his pockets.
- Understanding "contents" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

defense mechanism (noun)

(psychiatry) an unconscious process that tries to reduce the anxiety associated with instinctive desires.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defense mechanism."
- Understanding "defense mechanism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

department of biology (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in biology.

- He looked up "department of biology" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of biology."

department of commerce and labor (noun)

A former executive department of the United States government; created in 1903 and split into two departments in 1913.

- They discussed "department of commerce and labor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "department of commerce and labor" means with a simple example.

detective story (noun)

A narrative about someone who investigates crimes and obtains evidence leading to their resolution.

- In class, the teacher used "detective story" to mean a narrative about someone who investigates crimes....
- The article explained what "detective story" means with a simple example.

domain of a function (noun)

(mathematics) the set of values of the independent variable for which a function is defined.

- In class, the teacher used "domain of a function" to mean (mathematics) the set of values of the independent....
- They discussed "domain of a function" during the group presentation.

double quotes (noun)

A pair of quotation marks.

- Understanding "double quotes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "double quotes" to mean a pair of quotation marks.

experimental condition (noun)

The procedure that is varied in order to estimate a variable's effect by comparison with a control condition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "experimental condition."
- He looked up "experimental condition" because he had never seen it before.

flip side (noun)

A different aspect of something (especially the opposite aspect).

- The flip side of your positive qualities sometimes get out of control.
- On the flip side of partnerships he talked about their competition.

folk song (noun)

A song that is traditionally sung by the common people of a region and forms part of their culture.

- They discussed "folk song" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "folk song."

food manufacturer (noun)

A person who manufactures food products.

- The article explained what "food manufacturer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "food manufacturer" to mean a person who manufactures food products.

frequency distribution (noun)

A distribution of observed frequencies of occurrence of the values of a variable.

- In class, the teacher used "frequency distribution" to mean a distribution of observed frequencies of....
- He looked up "frequency distribution" because he had never seen it before.

golden wedding anniversary (noun)

The 50th wedding anniversary.

- The article explained what “golden wedding anniversary” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “golden wedding anniversary.”

---

gospel (noun)

A doctrine that is believed to be of great importance.

- Newton’s writings were gospel for those who followed.
- His word was gospel.

---

grand opera (noun)

Opera in which all the text is sung.

- They discussed “grand opera” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “grand opera” because he had never seen it before.

---

graphic design (noun)

Visual communication by a skillful combination of text and pictures in advertisements, magazines, books, etc.

- Understanding “graphic design” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “graphic design” to mean visual communication by a skillful combination of....

---

grid (noun)

A pattern of regularly spaced horizontal and vertical lines.

- Understanding “grid” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “grid” during the group presentation.

---

grows (verb)

Come into existence; take on form or shape.

- He grows vegetables in his backyard.
- The coach explained when to use “grows” and when to wait.

---

gulf coast (noun)

A seashore of the Gulf of Mexico.

- He looked up “gulf coast” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gulf coast.”

---

heating (noun)

The process of becoming warmer; a rising temperature.

- The heating system wasn’t working.
- They have radiant heating.

---

holy war warriors (noun)

A paramilitary terrorist organization of militant Muslims in Indonesia; wages a jihad against Christians in Indonesia; subscribes to the Wahhabi creed of Islam.

- They discussed “holy war warriors” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “holy war warriors” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

identification (noun)

The process of recognizing something or someone by remembering.

- The thief’s identification was followed quickly by his arrest.
- Identification of the gun was an important clue.

---

in great confusion (adverb)

In disorderly haste.

- She spoke “in great confusion,” and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered “in great confusion,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

lap up (verb)

Take up with the tongue.

- The cat lapped up the milk.
- She tried to use “lap up” carefully so everyone would understand.

law of volumes (noun)

(physics) the density of an ideal gas at constant pressure varies inversely with the temperature.

- In class, the teacher used "law of volumes" to mean (physics) the density of an ideal gas at constant....
- Understanding "law of volumes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

leaf form (noun)

Any of the various shape that leaves of plants can assume.

- In class, the teacher used "leaf form" to mean any of the various shape that leaves of plants can....
- The article explained what "leaf form" means with a simple example.

meat hook (noun)

A strong pointed hook from which the carcasses of animals are hung.

- In class, the teacher used "meat hook" to mean a strong pointed hook from which the carcasses of....
- They discussed "meat hook" during the group presentation.

metropolitan (adjective)

Relating to or characteristic of a metropolis.

- Metropolitan area.
- Would you call this situation "metropolitan"? Explain why.

mines (verb)

Get from the earth by excavation.

- Learners should practice how to use "mines" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "mines" carefully so everyone would understand.

oral contract (noun)

An agreement that is not in writing and is not signed by the parties but is a real existing contract that lacks only the formal requirement of a memorandum to render it enforceable in litigation.

- He looked up "oral contract" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "oral contract" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

palm oil (noun)

Oil from nuts of oil palms especially the African oil palm.

- Understanding "palm oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "palm oil" during the group presentation.

palm reading (noun)

Telling fortunes by lines on the palm of the hand.

- In class, the teacher used "palm reading" to mean telling fortunes by lines on the palm of the hand.
- They discussed "palm reading" during the group presentation.

parallel operation (noun)

The simultaneous execution of two or more operations.

- In class, the teacher used "parallel operation" to mean the simultaneous execution of two or more operations.
- The article explained what "parallel operation" means with a simple example.

patent (noun)

An official document granting a right or privilege.

- He looked up "patent" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "patent" to mean an official document granting a right or privilege.

pole star (noun)

The brightest star in Ursa Minor; at the end of the handle of the Little Dipper; the northern axis of the earth points toward it.

- In class, the teacher used "pole star" to mean the brightest star in ursa minor; at the end of the....
- The article explained what "pole star" means with a simple example.

pot cheese (noun)

Mild white cheese made from curds of soured skim milk.

- Understanding "pot cheese" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pot cheese" during the group presentation.

---

pull one's weight (verb)

Do one's share in a common task.

- Bob has never pulled his weight, and we all have to work harder to make up for his laziness.
- Can you use "pull one's weight" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

ram down (verb)

Strike or drive against with a heavy impact.

- Ram the gate with a sledgehammer.
- Learners should practice how to use "ram down" in real sentences.

---

reference manual (noun)

A manual containing information organized in a summary manner.

- They discussed "reference manual" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "reference manual" to mean a manual containing information organized in a....

---

reverse fault (noun)

A geological fault in which the upper side appears to have been pushed upward by compression.

- He looked up "reverse fault" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "reverse fault" during the group presentation.

---

roman catholic church (noun)

The Christian Church based in the Vatican and presided over by a pope and an episcopal hierarchy.

- They discussed "roman catholic church" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "roman catholic church" because he had never seen it before.

---

sacred writing (noun)

Writing that is venerated for the worship of a deity.

- Understanding "sacred writing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sacred writing" to mean writing that is venerated for the worship of a deity.

---

sadly (adverb)

With sadness; in a sad manner.

- 'She died last night,' he said sadly.
- Sadly he died before he could see his grandchild.

---

sauce louis (noun)

Mayonnaise and heavy cream combined with chopped green pepper and green onion seasoned with chili sauce and Worcestershire sauce and lemon juice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sauce louis."
- The article explained what "sauce louis" means with a simple example.

---

shell corporation (noun)

A company that is incorporated but has no assets or operations.

- He looked up "shell corporation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shell corporation."

---

significance (noun)

The message that is intended or expressed or signified.

- The significance of a red traffic light.
- Do not underestimate the significance of nuclear power.

---

sits (verb)

Assume a posture as for artistic purposes.

- The White House sits on Pennsylvania Avenue.

- Can you use “sits” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

snake oil (noun)

Communication (written or spoken) intended to deceive.

- He looked up “snake oil” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “snake oil” during the group presentation.

---

space biology (noun)

The branch of biology concerned with the effects of outer space on living organisms and the search for extraterrestrial life.

- They discussed “space biology” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “space biology” to mean the branch of biology concerned with the effects of....

---

spray (noun)

A quantity of small objects flying through the air.

- A spray of bullets.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spray.”

---

steel trap (noun)

An acute intelligence (an analogy based on the well-known sharpness of steel traps).

- He’s as sharp as a steel trap.
- A mind like a steel trap.

---

stepped line (noun)

A headline with the top line flush left and succeeding lines indented to the right.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stepped line.”
- He looked up “stepped line” because he had never seen it before.

---

string cheese (noun)

Cheese formed in long strings twisted together.

- Understanding “string cheese” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “string cheese.”

---

structural (adjective)

Relating to or having or characterized by structure.

- Structural engineer.
- Structural errors.

---

suite (noun)

The group following and attending to some important person.

- Understanding “suite” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “suite” because he had never seen it before.

---

toilet roll (noun)

A roll of toilet paper.

- Understanding “toilet roll” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “toilet roll” to mean a roll of toilet paper.

---

tropical (adjective)

Of or relating to the tropics, or either tropic.

- Tropical year.
- Students compared “tropical” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

turkish coffee (noun)

A drink made from pulverized coffee beans; usually sweetened.

- He looked up “turkish coffee” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “turkish coffee” during the group presentation.

---

vintage (noun)

A season's yield of wine from a vineyard.

- In class, the teacher used "vintage" to mean a season's yield of wine from a vineyard.
- Understanding "vintage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

warned (verb)

Notify of danger, potential harm, or risk.

- The director warned him that he might be fired.
- The doctor warned me about the dangers of smoking.

---

wave angle (noun)

The angle of arrival (or departure) of a radio wave with respect to the axis of an antenna array.

- Understanding "wave angle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wave angle."

---

wolf pack (noun)

A group of submarines operating together in attacking enemy convoys.

- They discussed "wolf pack" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "wolf pack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yellow delicious (noun)

A sweet eating apple with yellow skin.

- They discussed "yellow delicious" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "yellow delicious" because he had never seen it before.

---

accounting firm (noun)

A firm of accountants who provide accounting and auditing services for a fee.

- They discussed "accounting firm" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "accounting firm."

---

acquisition agreement (noun)

Contract governing the merger of two or more companies.

- They discussed "acquisition agreement" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "acquisition agreement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

apple sauce (noun)

Puree of stewed apples usually sweetened and spiced.

- They discussed "apple sauce" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "apple sauce" because he had never seen it before.

---

artistic (adjective)

Relating to or characteristic of art or artists.

- His artistic background.
- The speaker chose "artistic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

aviation (noun)

The aggregation of a country's military aircraft.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aviation."
- They discussed "aviation" during the group presentation.

---

baby-boom generation (noun)

The larger than expected generation in United States born shortly after World War II.

- Understanding "baby-boom generation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "baby-boom generation" means with a simple example.

---

black humor (noun)

The juxtaposition of morbid and farcical elements (in writing or drama) to give a disturbing effect.

- He looked up “black humor” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “black humor” during the group presentation.

---

bless (verb)

Make the sign of the cross over someone in order to call on God for protection; consecrate.

- The dying man blessed his son.
- In everyday English, people use “bless” when talking about this idea.

---

celebrating (verb)

Behave as expected during of holidays or rites.

- After the exam, the students were celebrating.
- Learners should practice how to use “celebrating” in real sentences.

---

charging (verb)

To make a rush at or sudden attack upon, as in battle.

- He saw Jess charging at him with a pitchfork.
- He came charging into my office.

---

chemicals (noun)

Material produced by or used in a reaction involving changes in atoms or molecules.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chemicals.”
- The article explained what “chemicals” means with a simple example.

---

chocolate egg (noun)

Egg-shaped chocolate candy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chocolate egg.”
- He looked up “chocolate egg” because he had never seen it before.

---

chuck out (verb)

Put out or expel from a place.

- She tried to use “chuck out” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “chuck out” until he saw an example.

---

cinema (noun)

A medium that disseminates moving pictures.

- This story would be good cinema.
- The article explained what “cinema” means with a simple example.

---

collective farm (noun)

A farm operated collectively.

- Understanding “collective farm” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “collective farm” to mean a farm operated collectively.

---

commercial instrument (noun)

A document of or relating to commerce.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “commercial instrument.”
- The article explained what “commercial instrument” means with a simple example.

---

contrary (noun)

A relation of direct opposition.

- Public opinion to the contrary he is not guilty.
- In class, the teacher used “contrary” to mean a relation of direct opposition.

---

cooking chocolate (noun)

Pure unsweetened chocolate used in baking and icings and sauces and candy.

- Understanding “cooking chocolate” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “cooking chocolate” because he had never seen it before.

corporations (noun)

A business firm whose articles of incorporation have been approved in some state.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corporations."
- He looked up "corporations" because he had never seen it before.

couch (verb)

Formulate in a particular style or language.

- She tried to use "couch" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "couch" in real sentences.

crush (verb)

To compress with violence, out of natural shape or condition.

- Crush an aluminum can.
- The car crushed the toy.

customs service (noun)

The agency of the Treasury Department that enforces import tariffs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "customs service."
- The article explained what "customs service" means with a simple example.

dam (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to ten meters.

- In class, the teacher used "dam" to mean a metric unit of length equal to ten meters.
- The article explained what "dam" means with a simple example.

dam up (verb)

Obstruct with, or as if with, a dam.

- Dam the gorges of the Yangtse River.
- In everyday English, people use "dam up" when talking about this idea.

decrease (noun)

A process of becoming smaller or shorter.

- There was a decrease in his temperature as the fever subsided.
- In class, the teacher used "decrease" to mean a process of becoming smaller or shorter.

default option (noun)

An option that is selected automatically unless an alternative is specified.

- He looked up "default option" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "default option."

defeated (noun)

People who are defeated.

- The Romans had no pity for the defeated.
- Understanding "defeated" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

defensive attitude (noun)

An attitude of defensiveness (especially in the phrase 'on the defensive').

- They discussed "defensive attitude" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "defensive attitude" to mean an attitude of defensiveness (especially in the....

derived function (noun)

The result of mathematical differentiation; the instantaneous change of one quantity relative to another; df(x)/dx.

- The article explained what "derived function" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "derived function" to mean the result of mathematical differentiation; the....

ethnic joke (noun)

A joke at the expense of some ethnic group.

- In class, the teacher used "ethnic joke" to mean a joke at the expense of some ethnic group.
- He looked up "ethnic joke" because he had never seen it before.

garbage down (verb)

Eat a large amount of food quickly.

- The children gobbled down most of the birthday cake.
- In everyday English, people use "garbage down" when talking about this idea.

golden delicious (noun)

A sweet eating apple with yellow skin.

- In class, the teacher used "golden delicious" to mean a sweet eating apple with yellow skin.
- The article explained what "golden delicious" means with a simple example.

grammar (noun)

The branch of linguistics that deals with syntax and morphology (and sometimes also deals with semantics).

- They discussed "grammar" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "grammar" to mean the branch of linguistics that deals with syntax....

interest-bearing (adjective)

Of financial obligations on which interest is paid.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "interest-bearing."
- Would you call this situation "interest-bearing"? Explain why.

internal representation (noun)

A presentation to the mind in the form of an idea or image.

- He looked up "internal representation" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "internal representation" during the group presentation.

layers (noun)

An abstract place usually conceived as having depth.

- A simile has at least two layers of meaning.
- Understanding "layers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lens (noun)

(metaphor) a channel through which something can be seen or understood.

- The writer is the lens through which history can be seen.
- Understanding "lens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

line of destiny (noun)

A crease on the palm; palmists say it indicates how successful you will be.

- They discussed "line of destiny" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line of destiny."

liquid diet (noun)

A diet of foods that can be served in liquid or strained form (plus custards or puddings); prescribed after certain kinds of surgery.

- He looked up "liquid diet" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "liquid diet" to mean a diet of foods that can be served in liquid or....

magnetic (adjective)

Of or relating to or caused by magnetism.

- Magnetic forces.
- The hard disk is covered with a thin coat of magnetic material.

metres (noun)

The basic unit of length adopted under the Systeme International d'Unites (approximately 1.094 yards).

- Understanding "metres" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “metres.”

naval forces (noun)

An organization of military vessels belonging to a country and available for sea warfare.

- He looked up “naval forces” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “naval forces” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

noble gas (noun)

Any of the chemically inert gaseous elements of the helium group in the periodic table.

- They discussed “noble gas” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “noble gas” means with a simple example.

notion (noun)

A vague idea in which some confidence is placed.

- The theatrical notion of disguise is associated with disaster in his stories.
- Buttons and needles are notions.

on the contrary (adverb)

Contrary to expectations.

- He didn’t stay home; on the contrary, he went out with his friends.
- He answered “on the contrary,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

orange juice (noun)

Bottled or freshly squeezed juice of oranges.

- Understanding “orange juice” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “orange juice.”

partial (noun)

A harmonic with a frequency that is a multiple of the fundamental frequency.

- They discussed “partial” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “partial.”

piss (noun)

Informal terms for urination.

- The article explained what “piss” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “piss.”

placing (verb)

Put into a certain place or abstract location.

- She tried to use “placing” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “placing” and when to wait.

quarter pound (noun)

4 ounces avoirdupois.

- He looked up “quarter pound” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “quarter pound” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

reminded (verb)

Put in the mind of someone.

- Learners should practice how to use “reminded” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “reminded” carefully so everyone would understand.

rocket fuel (noun)

An explosive charge that propels a rocket.

- He looked up “rocket fuel” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rocket fuel.”

sacred text (noun)

Writing that is venerated for the worship of a deity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sacred text."
- Understanding "sacred text" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

savings and loan association (noun)

A thrift institution that is required by law to make a certain percentage of its loans as home mortgages.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "savings and loan association."
- He looked up "savings and loan association" because he had never seen it before.

---

sharp-pointed (adjective)

Having a sharp point.

- Students compared "sharp-pointed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "sharp-pointed" when it is having a sharp point.

---

shine (verb)

Be bright by reflecting or casting light.

- His talent shines.
- Shine the light on that window, please.

---

shoulder flash (noun)

Something worn on the shoulder of a military uniform as an emblem of a division etc.

- In class, the teacher used "shoulder flash" to mean something worn on the shoulder of a military....
- They discussed "shoulder flash" during the group presentation.

---

simultaneously (adverb)

At the same instant.

- They spoke simultaneously.
- She spoke "simultaneously," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

spring-loaded (adjective)

Containing a compressed spring that presses one part against another.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "spring-loaded."
- Would you call this situation "spring-loaded"? Explain why.

---

substitute (noun)

A person or thing that takes or can take the place of another.

- In class, the teacher used "substitute" to mean a person or thing that takes or can take the place....
- The article explained what "substitute" means with a simple example.

---

tactics (noun)

The branch of military science dealing with detailed maneuvers to achieve objectives set by strategy.

- The article explained what "tactics" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tactics."

---

thai (adjective)

Of or relating to the languages of the Thai people.

- Thai tones.
- Different Thai tribes live in the north.

---

to the contrary (adverb)

Contrary to expectations.

- He didn't stay home; on the contrary, he went out with his friends.
- He answered "to the contrary," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

treasure (noun)

A collection of precious things.

- The trunk held all her meager treasures.
- The pirates hid their treasure on a small island in the West Indies.

---

trophy (noun)

An award for success in war or hunting.

- In class, the teacher used "trophy" to mean an award for success in war or hunting.
- They discussed "trophy" during the group presentation.

---

tropical year (noun)

The time for the earth to make one revolution around the sun, measured between two vernal equinoxes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tropical year."
- The article explained what "tropical year" means with a simple example.

---

villages (noun)

A community of people smaller than a town.

- The article explained what "villages" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "villages" during the group presentation.

---

whole meal bread (noun)

Bread made with whole wheat flour.

- Understanding "whole meal bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "whole meal bread" during the group presentation.

---

acid-wash (verb)

Wash with acid so as to achieve a bleached look.

- Acid-wash blue jeans.
- He did not know how to use "acid-wash" until he saw an example.

---

affects (verb)

Connect closely and often incriminatingly.

- This new ruling affects your business.
- The medicine affects my heart rate.

---

angel food cake (noun)

A light sponge cake made without egg yolks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "angel food cake."
- Understanding "angel food cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

apologize (verb)

Acknowledge faults or shortcomings or failing.

- I apologized for being late.
- He apologized for the many typoes.

---

approached (verb)

Make advances to someone, usually with a proposal or suggestion.

- I was approached by the President to serve as his adviser in foreign matters.
- In everyday English, people use "approached" when talking about this idea.

---

ash (noun)

The residue that remains when something is burned.

- He looked up "ash" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ash" during the group presentation.

---

associate in applied science (noun)

An associate degree in applied science.

- Understanding "associate in applied science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "associate in applied science" during the group presentation.

beef tea (noun)

An extract of beef (given to people who are ill).

- He looked up "beef tea" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beef tea."

benjamin (noun)

Gum resin used especially in treating skin irritation.

- Understanding "benjamin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "benjamin."

birth certificate (noun)

A copy of the official document giving details of a person's birth.

- Understanding "birth certificate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "birth certificate" because he had never seen it before.

bloody mary (noun)

A cocktail made with vodka and spicy tomato juice.

- In class, the teacher used "bloody mary" to mean a cocktail made with vodka and spicy tomato juice.
- He looked up "bloody mary" because he had never seen it before.

boxing day (noun)

First weekday after Christmas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boxing day."
- The article explained what "boxing day" means with a simple example.

bubble (noun)

A speculative scheme that depends on unstable factors that the planner cannot control.

- A real estate bubble.
- He didn't want to burst the newcomer's bubble.

bulk large (verb)

Hang over, as of something threatening, dark, or menacing.

- Can you use "bulk large" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "bulk large" and when to wait.

by fits and starts (adverb)

Intermittently.

- He worked on his book by fits and starts.
- The narrator describes the scene "by fits and starts" in the final chapter.

call on the carpet (verb)

Censure severely or angrily.

- The mother scolded the child for entering a stranger's car.
- The deputy ragged the Prime Minister.

candy apple (noun)

An apple that is covered with a candy-like substance (usually caramelized sugar).

- The article explained what "candy apple" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "candy apple" to mean an apple that is covered with a candy-like....

chinese brown sauce (noun)

A sauce based on soy sauce.

- Understanding "chinese brown sauce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "chinese brown sauce" to mean a sauce based on soy sauce.

cold rubber (noun)

A rubber made at low temperatures (5 degrees Centigrade) which is tougher than conventional rubber and is often used in car tires.

- In class, the teacher used "cold rubber" to mean a rubber made at low temperatures (5 degrees....
- He looked up "cold rubber" because he had never seen it before.

---

communications security establishment (noun)

Canadian agency that gathers communications intelligence and assist law enforcement and security agencies.

- Understanding "communications security establishment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "communications security establishment" to mean canadian agency that gathers communications....

---

compound number (noun)

A quantity expressed in two different units.

- Understanding "compound number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "compound number" to mean a quantity expressed in two different units.

---

connecting (verb)

Join by means of communication equipment.

- She tried to use "connecting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "connecting" and when to wait.

---

decides (verb)

Reach, make, or come to a decision about something.

- The vote in New Hampshire often decides the outcome of the Presidential election.
- Can you use "decides" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

department of defense laboratory system (noun)

A defense laboratory that provides essential services in fundamental science for national security and environmental protection and provides technologies that contribute to industrial competitiveness.

- They discussed "department of defense laboratory system" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "department of defense laboratory system" because he had never seen it before.

---

distinguished service order (noun)

A British military decoration for special service in action.

- They discussed "distinguished service order" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "distinguished service order" to mean a british military decoration for special service....

---

drawn butter (noun)

Butter made clear by heating and removing the sediment of milk solids.

- He looked up "drawn butter" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "drawn butter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dressing down (noun)

A severe scolding.

- The article explained what "dressing down" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dressing down" during the group presentation.

---

emergency alert system (noun)

A federal warning system that is activated by FEMA; enables the President to take over the United States airwaves to warn the whole country of major catastrophic events.

- He looked up "emergency alert system" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "emergency alert system" during the group presentation.

---

experimental method (noun)

The use of controlled observations and measurements to test hypotheses.

- They discussed "experimental method" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "experimental method" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

food grain (noun)

Foodstuff prepared from the starchy grains of cereal grasses.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "food grain."

- He looked up "food grain" because he had never seen it before.

food turner (noun)

Cooking utensil having a flat flexible part and a long handle; used for turning or serving food.

- In class, the teacher used "food turner" to mean cooking utensil having a flat flexible part and a....
- They discussed "food turner" during the group presentation.

free verse (noun)

Unrhymed verse without a consistent metrical pattern.

- The article explained what "free verse" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "free verse" to mean unrhymed verse without a consistent metrical pattern.

from scratch (adverb)

From the beginning, especially without relying on resources or other advantages.

- He baked the torte from scratch.
- She built her business up from scratch.

fundamental measure (noun)

One of the four quantities that are the basis of systems of measurement.

- The article explained what "fundamental measure" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fundamental measure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gm (noun)

A metric unit of weight equal to one thousandth of a kilogram.

- Understanding "gm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gm" during the group presentation.

greek architecture (noun)

The architecture of ancient Greece.

- They discussed "greek architecture" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "greek architecture" because he had never seen it before.

hammer in (verb)

Teach by drills and repetition.

- He did not know how to use "hammer in" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "hammer in" and when to wait.

hammer out (verb)

Discuss vehemently in order to reach a solution or an agreement.

- The leaders of the various Middle Eastern countries are trying to hammer out a peace agreement.
- She tried to use "hammer out" carefully so everyone would understand.

hosting (verb)

Be the host of or for.

- She tried to use "hosting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "hosting" and when to wait.

identification number (noun)

A numeral or string of numerals that is used for identification.

- She refused to give them her Social Security number.
- The article explained what "identification number" means with a simple example.

in good spirits (adverb)

Without losing equilibrium.

- Place "in good spirits" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene "in good spirits" in the final chapter.

infinite (noun)

The unlimited expanse in which everything is located.

- The boundless regions of the infinite.
- Understanding "infinite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

input signal (noun)

Signal going into an electronic system.

- In class, the teacher used "input signal" to mean signal going into an electronic system.
- Understanding "input signal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

inter (verb)

Place in a grave or tomb.

- Learners should practice how to use "inter" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "inter" when talking about this idea.

interior angle (noun)

The angle inside two adjacent sides of a polygon.

- They discussed "interior angle" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "interior angle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

iranian (adjective)

Of or relating to Iran or its people or language or culture.

- Iranian mountains.
- Iranian security police.

layer cake (noun)

Cake having layers held together by a sweet filling and usually covered with frosting.

- They discussed "layer cake" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "layer cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

legislature (noun)

Persons who make or amend or repeal laws.

- The article explained what "legislature" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "legislature" during the group presentation.

line of verse (noun)

A single line of words in a poem.

- Understanding "line of verse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "line of verse" to mean a single line of words in a poem.

makers (noun)

A business engaged in manufacturing some product.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "makers."
- He looked up "makers" because he had never seen it before.

manhattan (noun)

A cocktail made with whiskey and sweet vermouth with a dash of bitters.

- Understanding "manhattan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manhattan."

milk punch (noun)

A punch made of spirits and milk and sugar and spices.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "milk punch."
- He looked up "milk punch" because he had never seen it before.

milk shake (noun)

Frothy drink of milk and flavoring and sometimes fruit or ice cream.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "milk shake."
- He looked up "milk shake" because he had never seen it before.

---

moreover (adverb)

In addition.

- The cellar was dark; moreover, mice nested there.
- Using "moreover" can make your explanation more exact.

---

mutual understanding (noun)

Sympathy of each person for the other.

- In class, the teacher used "mutual understanding" to mean sympathy of each person for the other.
- The article explained what "mutual understanding" means with a simple example.

---

naval unit (noun)

A military unit that is part of a navy.

- Understanding "naval unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "naval unit" to mean a military unit that is part of a navy.

---

net ton (noun)

A United States unit of weight equivalent to 2000 pounds.

- In class, the teacher used "net ton" to mean a united states unit of weight equivalent to 2000....
- The article explained what "net ton" means with a simple example.

---

parade (noun)

An extended (often showy) succession of persons or things.

- A parade of strollers on the mall.
- A parade of witnesses.

---

patch test (noun)

A test to determine allergic sensitivity by applying small pads soaked with allergen to the unbroken skin.

- In class, the teacher used "patch test" to mean a test to determine allergic sensitivity by....
- They discussed "patch test" during the group presentation.

---

patent law (noun)

That branch of jurisprudence that studies the laws governing patents.

- In class, the teacher used "patent law" to mean that branch of jurisprudence that studies the laws....
- They discussed "patent law" during the group presentation.

---

patent system (noun)

A legal system for protecting the rights of inventors.

- They discussed "patent system" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "patent system" because he had never seen it before.

---

pics (noun)

A form of entertainment that enacts a story by sound and a sequence of images giving the illusion of continuous movement.

- They discussed "pics" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pics" because he had never seen it before.

---

prayer wheel (noun)

A cylinder with prayers written on it; each revolution counts as uttering the prayers; used especially by Buddhists in Tibet.

- In class, the teacher used "prayer wheel" to mean a cylinder with prayers written on it; each....
- The article explained what "prayer wheel" means with a simple example.

---

presidency (noun)

The tenure of a president.

- Andrew Jackson expanded the power of the presidency beyond what was customary before his time.
- He looked up "presidency" because he had never seen it before.

psychological feature (noun)

A feature of the mental life of a living organism.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "psychological feature."
- He looked up "psychological feature" because he had never seen it before.

realistic (adjective)

Of or relating to the philosophical doctrine of realism.

- A realistic system of thought.
- A realistic description.

remarks (noun)

A statement that expresses a personal opinion or belief or adds information.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "remarks."
- The article explained what "remarks" means with a simple example.

roman architecture (noun)

The architecture of ancient Rome.

- Understanding "roman architecture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roman architecture."

rough-sand (verb)

Sand roughly.

- Rough-sand the door before painting it.
- She tried to use "rough-sand" carefully so everyone would understand.

russians (noun)

The Slavic language that is the official language of Russia.

- In class, the teacher used "russians" to mean the slavic language that is the official language....
- They discussed "russians" during the group presentation.

scratch out (verb)

Strike or cancel by or as if by rubbing or crossing out.

- Scratch out my name on that list.
- The coach explained when to use "scratch out" and when to wait.

scratch up (verb)

Cut the surface of; wear away the surface of.

- In everyday English, people use "scratch up" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "scratch up" until he saw an example.

search warrant (noun)

A warrant authorizing law enforcement officials to search for objects or people involved in the commission of a crime and to produce them in court; the warrant describes the locations where the officials may search.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "search warrant."
- They discussed "search warrant" during the group presentation.

shade (noun)

A mental representation of some haunting experience.

- It is much cooler in the shade.
- After several trials he mixed the shade of pink that she wanted.

shadow cabinet (noun)

A group of senior members of the political party that is out of power; these members would probably assume corresponding positions as ministers in the British Cabinet if their party was elected.

- In class, the teacher used "shadow cabinet" to mean a group of senior members of the political party....
- The article explained what "shadow cabinet" means with a simple example.

sheets (noun)

(mathematics) an unbounded two-dimensional shape.

- He looked up “sheets” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “sheets” to mean (mathematics) an unbounded two-dimensional shape.

---

sometime (adverb)

At some indefinite or unstated time.

- Let’s get together sometime.
- Everything has to end sometime.

---

spirits (noun)

An alcoholic beverage that is distilled rather than fermented.

- He was in good spirits.
- Understanding “spirits” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

strictly (adverb)

In a rigorous manner.

- We talked strictly business.
- He answered “strictly,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

stuff and nonsense (noun)

Senseless talk.

- Don’t give me that stuff.
- Understanding “stuff and nonsense” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

teens (noun)

The time of life between the ages of 12 and 20.

- The article explained what “teens” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “teens” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thou (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of 10 and 100.

- He looked up “thou” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “thou.”

---

tom and jerry (noun)

Hot rum toddy with a beaten egg.

- The article explained what “tom and jerry” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “tom and jerry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

united states fish and wildlife service (noun)

An agency in the Department of the Interior that conserves and protects fish and wildlife and their habitats; assesses the environmental impact of pesticides and nuclear power site and hydroelectric dams and thermal pollution.

- They discussed “united states fish and wildlife service” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “united states fish and wildlife service” to mean an agency in the department of the interior that....

---

verse line (noun)

A line of metrical text.

- The article explained what “verse line” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “verse line” during the group presentation.

---

wanted poster (noun)

A public announcement by a law enforcement agency that they desire to question or arrest some person.

- In class, the teacher used “wanted poster” to mean a public announcement by a law enforcement agency....
- The article explained what “wanted poster” means with a simple example.

---

wine sauce (noun)

White or veloute sauce with wine and stock variously seasoned with onions and herbs; for fish or meat.

- In class, the teacher used "wine sauce" to mean white or veloute sauce with wine and stock....
- The article explained what "wine sauce" means with a simple example.

---

alcohol radical (noun)

The chemical group -OH.

- Understanding "alcohol radical" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "alcohol radical" to mean the chemical group -oh.

---

at stake (adverb)

To be won or lost; at risk.

- Perhaps a million dollars are at stake.
- There is more at stake than your modesty.

---

bacon (noun)

Back and sides of a hog salted and dried or smoked; usually sliced thin and fried.

- They discussed "bacon" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bacon" means with a simple example.

---

believing (noun)

The cognitive process that leads to convictions.

- Seeing is believing.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "believing."

---

bread and butter (noun)

The financial means whereby one lives.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bread and butter."
- He looked up "bread and butter" because he had never seen it before.

---

bread knife (noun)

A knife used to cut bread.

- They discussed "bread knife" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bread knife" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

british imperial system (noun)

A system of weights and measures based on the foot and pound and second and pint.

- The article explained what "british imperial system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "british imperial system" to mean a system of weights and measures based on the foot....

---

burst in on (verb)

Spring suddenly.

- He burst upon our conversation.
- The coach explained when to use "burst in on" and when to wait.

---

caps (noun)

An upper limit on what is allowed.

- The article explained what "caps" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "caps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cc (noun)

A metric unit of volume equal to one thousandth of a liter.

- In class, the teacher used "cc" to mean a metric unit of volume equal to one thousandth of....
- They discussed "cc" during the group presentation.

---

cold duck (noun)

Pink sparkling wine originally from Germany.

- The article explained what "cold duck" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cold duck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

collins (noun)

Tall iced drink of liquor (usually gin) with fruit juice.

- In class, the teacher used "collins" to mean tall iced drink of liquor (usually gin) with fruit....
- The article explained what "collins" means with a simple example.

commit suicide (verb)

Kill oneself.

- The terminally ill patient committed suicide.
- Can you use "commit suicide" in a sentence that fits this situation?

compromise (noun)

An accommodation in which both sides make concessions.

- The newly elected congressmen rejected a compromise because they considered it 'business as usual'.
- In class, the teacher used "compromise" to mean an accommodation in which both sides make concessions.

congressional record (noun)

A published written account of the speeches and debates and votes of the United States Congress.

- In class, the teacher used "congressional record" to mean a published written account of the speeches and....
- Understanding "congressional record" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

copy editing (noun)

Putting something into a form suitable for a printer.

- The article explained what "copy editing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "copy editing" during the group presentation.

crop (noun)

A collection of people or things appearing together.

- The annual crop of students brings a new crop of ideas.
- The latest crop of fashions is about to hit the stores.

crop up (verb)

Appear suddenly or unexpectedly.

- Can you use "crop up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "crop up" when talking about this idea.

depend upon (verb)

Put trust in with confidence.

- Your grade will depends on your homework.
- She tried to use "depend upon" carefully so everyone would understand.

dose rate (noun)

The quantity of radiation absorbed per unit time.

- They discussed "dose rate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dose rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

elderly (noun)

People who are old collectively.

- The article explained what "elderly" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "elderly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electronics industry (noun)

The manufacturers of electronic products considered collectively.

- The article explained what "electronics industry" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "electronics industry" to mean the manufacturers of electronic products considered....

fixed-point representation system (noun)

A radix numeration system in which the location of the decimal point is fixed by convention.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fixed-point representation system."
- Understanding "fixed-point representation system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

floating-point number (noun)

A number represented in floating-point notation.

- Understanding "floating-point number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "floating-point number" during the group presentation.

fruit juice (noun)

Drink produced by squeezing or crushing fruit.

- He looked up "fruit juice" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fruit juice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grants (noun)

A contract granting the right to operate a subsidiary business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grants."
- He looked up "grants" because he had never seen it before.

gulf of mexico (noun)

An arm of the Atlantic to the south of the United States and to the east of Mexico.

- Understanding "gulf of mexico" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gulf of mexico" during the group presentation.

hawaii standard time (noun)

Standard time in the 10th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 150th meridian west; used in Hawaii and the western Aleutian Islands.

- The article explained what "hawaii standard time" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hawaii standard time" to mean standard time in the 10th time zone west of....

heart cherry (noun)

Large heart-shaped sweet cherry with soft flesh.

- They discussed "heart cherry" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "heart cherry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

horse opera (noun)

A film about life in the western United States during the period of exploration and development.

- Understanding "horse opera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "horse opera" during the group presentation.

identity operator (noun)

An operator that leaves unchanged the element on which it operates.

- The identity under numerical multiplication is 1.
- In class, the teacher used "identity operator" to mean an operator that leaves unchanged the element on....

inform (verb)

Impart knowledge of some fact, state or affairs, or event to.

- I informed him of his rights.
- The principles that inform modern teaching.

ion (noun)

A particle that is electrically charged (positive or negative); an atom or molecule or group that has lost or gained one or more electrons.

- Understanding "ion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ion."

mathematics (noun)

A science (or group of related sciences) dealing with the logic of quantity and shape and arrangement.

- He looked up "mathematics" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mathematics."

muslim calendar (noun)

The lunar calendar used by Muslims; dates from 622 AD (the year of the Hegira); the beginning of the Muslim year retrogresses through the solar year completing the cycle every 32 years.

- The article explained what "muslim calendar" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "muslim calendar" to mean the lunar calendar used by muslims; dates from 622....

national academy of sciences (noun)

An honorary American society of scientists created by President Lincoln during the American Civil War.

- Understanding "national academy of sciences" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "national academy of sciences" during the group presentation.

naval division (noun)

A group of ships of similar type.

- The article explained what "naval division" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "naval division" to mean a group of ships of similar type.

northern spy (noun)

Large late-ripening apple with skin striped with yellow and red.

- In class, the teacher used "northern spy" to mean large late-ripening apple with skin striped with....
- Understanding "northern spy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

odds and ends (noun)

A motley assortment of things.

- They discussed "odds and ends" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "odds and ends" to mean a motley assortment of things.

palm sunday (noun)

Sunday before Easter.

- Understanding "palm sunday" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "palm sunday" means with a simple example.

point jam (verb)

Jam a narrow band of frequencies.

- We can counter point-jamming effectively.
- The coach explained when to use "point jam" and when to wait.

poster board (noun)

A cardboard suitable for making posters.

- The article explained what "poster board" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "poster board" to mean a cardboard suitable for making posters.

publishing empire (noun)

A conglomerate of publishing companies.

- They discussed "publishing empire" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "publishing empire" because he had never seen it before.

quietly (adverb)

With little or no activity or no agitation ('quiet' is a nonstandard variant for 'quietly').

- Her hands rested quietly in her lap.
- The rock star was quietly led out the back door.

reducing diet (noun)

A diet designed to help you lose weight (especially fat).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reducing diet."
- He looked up "reducing diet" because he had never seen it before.

revolutionary group (noun)

A political unit organized to promote revolution.

- He looked up "revolutionary group" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "revolutionary group" to mean a political unit organized to promote revolution.

salad (noun)

Food mixtures either arranged on a plate or tossed and served with a moist dressing; usually consisting of or including greens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salad."
- The article explained what "salad" means with a simple example.

sends (verb)

To cause or order to be taken, directed, or transmitted to another place.

- Can you use "sends" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "sends" carefully so everyone would understand.

serial operation (noun)

The sequential execution of operations one after another.

- They discussed "serial operation" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "serial operation."

shade off (verb)

Cast a shadow over.

- Learners should practice how to use "shade off" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "shade off" when talking about this idea.

smiling (noun)

A facial expression characterized by turning up the corners of the mouth; usually shows pleasure or amusement.

- They discussed "smiling" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "smiling" means with a simple example.

solar physics (noun)

The branch of astronomy that deals with the sun.

- He looked up "solar physics" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solar physics."

soup (noun)

An unfortunate situation.

- We're in the soup now.
- They discussed "soup" during the group presentation.

soup up (verb)

Make more powerful.

- He souped up the old cars.
- She tried to use "soup up" carefully so everyone would understand.

stating (verb)

Indicate through a symbol, formula, etc.

- Learners should practice how to use "stating" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "stating" and when to wait.

universal gas constant (noun)

(physics) the universal constant in the gas equation: pressure times volume = R times temperature; equal to 8.3143 joules per kelvin per mole.

- In class, the teacher used "universal gas constant" to mean (physics) the universal constant in the gas....
- They discussed "universal gas constant" during the group presentation.

vegetables (noun)

Edible seeds or roots or stems or leaves or bulbs or tubers or nonsweet fruits of any of numerous herbaceous plant.

- Understanding “vegetables” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “vegetables” means with a simple example.

---

verse form (noun)

A composition written in metrical feet forming rhythmical lines.

- The article explained what “verse form” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “verse form.”

---

welsh (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Wales or its people or their language.

- The Welsh coast.
- Welsh syntax.

---

aboard (adverb)

On first or second or third base.

- Their second homer with Bob Allison aboard.
- Anchored close aboard another ship.

---

absolute frequency (noun)

The number of observations in a given statistical category.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “absolute frequency.”
- He looked up “absolute frequency” because he had never seen it before.

---

abstract (noun)

A concept or idea not associated with any specific instance.

- He loved her only in the abstract–not in person.
- In class, the teacher used “abstract” to mean a concept or idea not associated with any specific....

---

accent (noun)

The usage or vocabulary that is characteristic of a specific group of people.

- He has a strong German accent.
- He couldn’t suppress his contemptuous accent.

---

admission day (noun)

In some states of the United States: a legal holiday commemorating the day the state was admitted to the Union.

- The article explained what “admission day” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “admission day.”

---

advisory board (noun)

A board appointed to advise the chief administrator.

- They discussed “advisory board” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “advisory board” to mean a board appointed to advise the chief administrator.

---

blank (noun)

A blank character used to separate successive words in writing or printing.

- He looked up “blank” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blank.”

---

blowing gas (noun)

The gas leaving a generator during a blow period.

- The article explained what “blowing gas” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “blowing gas” to mean the gas leaving a generator during a blow period.

---

contacts (noun)

A channel for communication between groups.

- He used his business contacts to get an introduction to the governor.
- They forget to solder the contacts.

conviction (noun)

An unshakable belief in something without need for proof or evidence.

- The conviction came as no surprise.
- He looked up "conviction" because he had never seen it before.

corn oil (noun)

Oil from the germs of corn grains.

- He looked up "corn oil" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corn oil."

corrupt (verb)

Place under suspicion or cast doubt upon.

- Socrates was accused of corrupting young men.
- Corrupt the morals.

customs union (noun)

An association of nations to promote free trade within the union and set common tariffs for nations that are not members.

- They discussed "customs union" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "customs union" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

department of veterans affairs (noun)

The United States federal department responsible for the interests of military veterans; created in 1989.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of veterans affairs."
- They discussed "department of veterans affairs" during the group presentation.

duration (noun)

The property of enduring or continuing in time.

- The ceremony was of short duration.
- In class, the teacher used "duration" to mean the property of enduring or continuing in time.

external angle (noun)

The supplement of an interior angle of a polygon.

- Understanding "external angle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "external angle" means with a simple example.

fifteen (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of fourteen and one.

- They discussed "fifteen" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fifteen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

floating policy (noun)

An insurance policy covering loss of movable property (e.g. jewelry) regardless of its location.

- He looked up "floating policy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "floating policy."

graduated (adjective)

Marked with or divided into degrees.

- The speaker chose "graduated" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "graduated" approach may work better in this case.

harsh on (verb)

Criticize harshly.

- The teacher keeps harshing on the same kid.
- Can you use "harsh on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

honey cake (noun)

A spicy cake partially sweetened with honey.

- They discussed "honey cake" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "honey cake" to mean a spicy cake partially sweetened with honey.

---

horn in (verb)

Search or inquire in a meddlesome way.

- She tried to use "horn in" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "horn in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

imagination image (noun)

A mental image produced by the imagination.

- They discussed "imagination image" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "imagination image" means with a simple example.

---

ingredients (noun)

An abstract part of something.

- He looked up "ingredients" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ingredients."

---

instruction (noun)

A message describing how something is to be done.

- Our instruction was carefully programmed.
- In class, the teacher used "instruction" to mean a message describing how something is to be done.

---

inventory (noun)

A collection of resources.

- They carried a vast inventory of hardware.
- They stopped selling in exact sizes in order to reduce inventory.

---

investigated (verb)

Investigate scientifically.

- The district attorney's office investigated reports of possible irregularities.
- In everyday English, people use "investigated" when talking about this idea.

---

invitation (noun)

A request (spoken or written) to participate or be present or take part in something.

- An invitation to lunch.
- She threw the invitation away.

---

justify (verb)

Show to be reasonable or provide adequate ground for.

- Justify the margins.
- She tried to use "justify" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

law-makers (noun)

Persons who make or amend or repeal laws.

- He looked up "law-makers" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "law-makers" to mean persons who make or amend or repeal laws.

---

lean on (verb)

Rest on for support.

- You can lean on me if you get tired.
- In everyday English, people use "lean on" when talking about this idea.

---

legislative assembly (noun)

Persons who make or amend or repeal laws.

- The article explained what "legislative assembly" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "legislative assembly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

like thunder (adverb)

With great speed or effort or intensity.

- Drove like crazy.
- Worked like hell to get the job done.

---

lions club (noun)

Club dedicated to promoting responsible citizenship and good government and community and national and international welfare.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lions club."
- He looked up "lions club" because he had never seen it before.

---

magnetic north (noun)

The direction in which a compass needle points.

- They discussed "magnetic north" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "magnetic north" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

minute of arc (noun)

A unit of angular distance equal to a 60th of a degree.

- The article explained what "minute of arc" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "minute of arc" during the group presentation.

---

newspaper column (noun)

An article giving opinions or perspectives.

- They discussed "newspaper column" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "newspaper column" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

noble metal (noun)

Any metal that is resistant to corrosion or oxidation.

- They discussed "noble metal" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "noble metal" because he had never seen it before.

---

norman (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Normandy.

- Norman beaches.
- The Norman Invasion in 1066.

---

organ (noun)

A periodical that is published by a special interest group.

- The organ of the communist party.
- The Census Bureau is an organ of the Commerce Department.

---

patrol (noun)

A detachment used for security or reconnaissance.

- He looked up "patrol" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patrol."

---

pearl (noun)

A shape that is spherical and small.

- He looked up "pearl" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pearl" to mean a shape that is spherical and small.

---

pepper (verb)

Attack and bombard with or as if with missiles.

- Pepper the soup.
- The coach explained when to use "pepper" and when to wait.

---

pig it (verb)

Live like a pig, in squalor.

- In everyday English, people use "pig it" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "pig it" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pig out (verb)

Overeat or eat immodestly; make a pig of oneself.

- Learners should practice how to use "pig out" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "pig out" when talking about this idea.

---

pile up (verb)

Arrange into piles or stacks.

- She piled up her books in my living room.
- In everyday English, people use "pile up" when talking about this idea.

---

pilot experiment (noun)

A preliminary experiment whose outcome can lead to a more extensive experiment.

- They discussed "pilot experiment" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pilot experiment" to mean a preliminary experiment whose outcome can lead to....

---

plant substance (noun)

Material derived from plants.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plant substance."
- He looked up "plant substance" because he had never seen it before.

---

pleasure principle (noun)

(psychoanalysis) the governing principle of the id; the principle that an infant seeks gratification and fails to distinguish fantasy from reality.

- The article explained what "pleasure principle" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pleasure principle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

plug (verb)

Fill or close tightly with or as if with a plug.

- Plug the hole.
- Students must plug away at this problem.

---

plug in (verb)

Plug into an outlet.

- Please plug in the toaster!
- In everyday English, people use "plug in" when talking about this idea.

---

plug into (verb)

Plug into an outlet.

- Please plug in the toaster!
- She tried to use "plug into" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

powder method (noun)

A process for identifying minerals or crystals; a small rod is coated with a powdered form of the substance and subjected to suitably modified X-rays; the pattern of diffracted rings is used for identification.

- He looked up "powder method" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "powder method."

---

provision (noun)

The cognitive process of thinking about what you will do in the event of something happening.

- He accepted subject to one provision.
- They discussed "provision" during the group presentation.

---

regulatory agency (noun)

A governmental agency that regulates businesses in the public interest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "regulatory agency."
- He looked up "regulatory agency" because he had never seen it before.

---

requiring (verb)

Require as useful, just, or proper.

- The coach explained when to use "requiring" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "requiring" in real sentences.

---

royal charter (noun)

A charter granted by the sovereign (especially in Great Britain).

- Understanding "royal charter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "royal charter" means with a simple example.

---

salad days (noun)

The best time of youth.

- He looked up "salad days" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "salad days" to mean the best time of youth.

---

san diego bay (noun)

A bay of the Pacific in southern California.

- He looked up "san diego bay" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "san diego bay" to mean a bay of the pacific in southern california.

---

seed cake (noun)

A sweet cake flavored with sesame or caraway seeds and lemon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seed cake."
- He looked up "seed cake" because he had never seen it before.

---

shy away from (verb)

Avoid having to deal with some unpleasant task.

- I shy away from this task.
- She tried to use "shy away from" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

silver bullet (noun)

A simple guaranteed solution for a difficult problem.

- No silver bullet can make the world safe from terrorism.
- The article explained what "silver bullet" means with a simple example.

---

sound perception (noun)

The perception of sound as a meaningful phenomenon.

- He looked up "sound perception" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sound perception" during the group presentation.

---

statistical (adjective)

Of or relating to statistics.

- Statistical population.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "statistical."

---

succeeded (verb)

Attain success or reach a desired goal.

- The enterprise succeeded.
- We succeeded in getting tickets to the show.

---

sugar candy (noun)

Made by boiling pure sugar until it hardens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sugar candy."
- He looked up "sugar candy" because he had never seen it before.

superior skill (noun)

More than ordinary ability.

- In class, the teacher used "superior skill" to mean more than ordinary ability.
- The article explained what "superior skill" means with a simple example.

syrian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Syria or its people or culture.

- The Syrian government.
- Would you call this situation "syrian"? Explain why.

thunder (verb)

To make or produce a loud noise.

- The river thundered below.
- The bus thundered down the road.

triple cream (noun)

Fresh soft French cheese containing at least 72% fat.

- Understanding "triple cream" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "triple cream" means with a simple example.

up the stairs (adverb)

On a floor above.

- They lived upstairs.
- Place "up the stairs" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

addresses (noun)

The manner of speaking to another individual.

- He looked up "addresses" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "addresses."

air bubble (noun)

A bubble of air.

- Understanding "air bubble" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "air bubble" means with a simple example.

alaska standard time (noun)

Standard time in the 9th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 135th meridian west; used in Hawaii and most of Alaska.

- The article explained what "alaska standard time" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "alaska standard time" during the group presentation.

alpha iron (noun)

A magnetic allotrope of iron; stable below 906 degrees centigrade.

- In class, the teacher used "alpha iron" to mean a magnetic allotrope of iron; stable below 906....
- Understanding "alpha iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

arrow (noun)

A mark to indicate a direction or relation.

- The article explained what "arrow" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "arrow" during the group presentation.

automatic pilot (noun)

A cognitive state in which you act without self-awareness.

- She went about her chores on automatic pilot.
- Too much of the writing seems to have been done on automatic pilot.

ba (noun)

A bachelor's degree in arts and sciences.

- The article explained what "ba" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ba" during the group presentation.

---

beef neck (noun)

A cut of beef from the neck of the animal.

- They discussed "beef neck" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "beef neck" because he had never seen it before.

---

bend (noun)

An angular or rounded shape made by folding.

- A bend of his elbow.
- A bend in the road.

---

bureau of justice statistics (noun)

The agency in the Department of Justice that is the primary source of criminal justice statistics for federal and local policy makers.

- The article explained what "bureau of justice statistics" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bureau of justice statistics" to mean the agency in the department of justice that is the....

---

cage in (verb)

Confine in a cage.

- The animal was caged.
- He did not know how to use "cage in" until he saw an example.

---

cause to be perceived (verb)

Have perceptible qualities.

- The coach explained when to use "cause to be perceived" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "cause to be perceived" in real sentences.

---

circles (noun)

An unofficial association of people or groups.

- The machine punched out metal circles.
- The article explained what "circles" means with a simple example.

---

clear liquid diet (noun)

A diet of fluids with minimal residues (fat-free broth or strained fruit juices or gelatin); cannot be used for more than one day postoperative.

- The article explained what "clear liquid diet" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "clear liquid diet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

combine (noun)

A consortium of independent organizations formed to limit competition by controlling the production and distribution of a product or service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "combine."
- He looked up "combine" because he had never seen it before.

---

consciousness (noun)

An alert cognitive state in which you are aware of yourself and your situation.

- He lost consciousness.
- His sudden consciousness of the problem he faced.

---

cotton cake (noun)

The solid matter remaining after oil has been pressed from cottonseeds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cotton cake."
- They discussed "cotton cake" during the group presentation.

---

cream sauce (noun)

White sauce made with cream.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cream sauce."

- Understanding "cream sauce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

disc (noun)

Something with a round shape resembling a flat circular plate.

- They discussed "disc" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disc."

---

do the dishes (verb)

Wash dishes.

- Learners should practice how to use "do the dishes" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "do the dishes" when talking about this idea.

---

down the stairs (adverb)

On a floor below.

- The tenants live downstairs.
- The narrator describes the scene "down the stairs" in the final chapter.

---

dozens (noun)

A large number or amount.

- They discussed "dozens" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dozens."

---

eagle (noun)

An emblem representing power.

- The Roman eagle.
- In class, the teacher used "eagle" to mean an emblem representing power.

---

embassy (noun)

An ambassador and his entourage collectively.

- In class, the teacher used "embassy" to mean an ambassador and his entourage collectively.
- The article explained what "embassy" means with a simple example.

---

ethics committee (noun)

A committee appointed to consider ethical issues.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ethics committee."
- They discussed "ethics committee" during the group presentation.

---

fish and chips (noun)

Fried fish and french-fried potatoes.

- In class, the teacher used "fish and chips" to mean fried fish and french-fried potatoes.
- He looked up "fish and chips" because he had never seen it before.

---

fitted (adjective)

Being the right size and shape to fit as desired.

- A fitted overcoat.
- He quickly assembled the fitted pieces.

---

fruit punch (noun)

A punch made of fruit juices mixed with water or soda water (with or without alcohol).

- In class, the teacher used "fruit punch" to mean a punch made of fruit juices mixed with water or....
- They discussed "fruit punch" during the group presentation.

---

heating oil (noun)

A petroleum product used for fuel.

- In class, the teacher used "heating oil" to mean a petroleum product used for fuel.
- He looked up "heating oil" because he had never seen it before.

---

hit parade (noun)

A ranked list of the songs that are most popular at a given time.

- In class, the teacher used "hit parade" to mean a ranked list of the songs that are most popular at....
- They discussed "hit parade" during the group presentation.

holy roman empire (noun)

A political entity in Europe that began with the papal coronation of Otto I as the first emperor in 962 and lasted until 1806 when it was dissolved by Napoleon.

- They discussed "holy roman empire" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "holy roman empire" because he had never seen it before.

house of commons (noun)

The lower house of the British parliament.

- They discussed "house of commons" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house of commons."

households (noun)

A social unit living together.

- In class, the teacher used "households" to mean a social unit living together.
- The article explained what "households" means with a simple example.

hp (noun)

A unit of power equal to 746 watts.

- In class, the teacher used "hp" to mean a unit of power equal to 746 watts.
- The article explained what "hp" means with a simple example.

iconic (adjective)

Relating to or having the characteristics on an icon.

- A "iconic" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "iconic."

ii samuel (noun)

The second of two books of the Old Testament that tell of Saul and David.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ii samuel."
- They discussed "ii samuel" during the group presentation.

in circles (adverb)

Without making progress.

- The candidates talked in circles.
- Place "in circles" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

in fiscal matters (adverb)

In financial matters.

- Fiscally irresponsible.
- The narrator describes the scene "in fiscal matters" in the final chapter.

in low spirits (adverb)

In a dejected manner.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in low spirits" naturally.
- The narrator describes the scene "in low spirits" in the final chapter.

irish bull (noun)

Obscene words for unacceptable behavior.

- I put up with a lot of bullshit from that jerk.
- What he said was mostly bull.

jewish calendar (noun)

(Judaism) the calendar used by the Jews; dates from 3761 BC (the assumed date of the Creation of the world); a lunar year of 354 days is adjusted to the solar year by periodic leap years.

- Understanding "jewish calendar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jewish calendar" means with a simple example.

---

johnny cake (noun)

Cornbread usually cooked pancake-style on a griddle (chiefly New England).

- In class, the teacher used "johnny cake" to mean cornbread usually cooked pancake-style on a griddle....
- They discussed "johnny cake" during the group presentation.

---

keen (noun)

A funeral lament sung with loud wailing.

- They discussed "keen" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "keen."

---

leaf fat (noun)

Fat lining the abdomen and kidneys in hogs which is used to make lard.

- They discussed "leaf fat" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "leaf fat" means with a simple example.

---

lean against (verb)

Rest on for support.

- You can lean on me if you get tired.
- In everyday English, people use "lean against" when talking about this idea.

---

legislative branch (noun)

The branch of the United States government that has the power of legislating.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legislative branch."
- Understanding "legislative branch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lip (noun)

An impudent or insolent rejoinder.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lip."
- He looked up "lip" because he had never seen it before.

---

mere (noun)

A small pond of standing water.

- They discussed "mere" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mere" means with a simple example.

---

movement of holy warriors (noun)

An Islamic fundamentalist group in Pakistan that fought the Soviet Union in Afghanistan in the 1980s; now operates as a terrorist organization primarily in Kashmir and seeks Kashmir's accession by Pakistan.

- The article explained what "movement of holy warriors" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "movement of holy warriors."

---

mt (noun)

A unit of weight equivalent to 1000 kilograms.

- The article explained what "mt" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "mt" during the group presentation.

---

mud (verb)

Soil with mud, muck, or mire.

- She tried to use "mud" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "mud" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

murphy (noun)

An edible tuber native to South America; a staple food of Ireland.

- They discussed "murphy" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "murphy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

naval engineering (noun)

The branch of engineering that deals with the design and construction and operation of ships.

- The article explained what "naval engineering" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "naval engineering" during the group presentation.

observation (noun)

The act of noticing or paying attention.

- He reported his observations to the mayor.
- Understanding "observation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

operates (verb)

Direct or control; projects, businesses, etc.

- In everyday English, people use "operates" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "operates" in a sentence that fits this situation?

owe (verb)

Be indebted to, in an abstract or intellectual sense.

- This new theory owes much to Einstein's Relativity Theory.
- She owes me $200.

permitted (verb)

Allow the presence of or allow (an activity) without opposing or prohibiting.

- Children are not permitted beyond this point.
- She permitted her son to visit her estranged husband.

personal identification number (noun)

A number you choose and use to gain access to various accounts.

- The article explained what "personal identification number" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "personal identification number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

phenomenon (noun)

Any state or process known through the senses rather than by intuition or reasoning.

- They discussed "phenomenon" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phenomenon."

pig-a-back (adverb)

On the back or shoulder or astraddle on the hip.

- She spoke "pig-a-back," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "pig-a-back" can make your explanation more exact.

printing concern (noun)

A company that does commercial printing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "printing concern."
- Understanding "printing concern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

prospect (noun)

The visual percept of a region.

- His prospects as a writer are excellent.
- He looked up "prospect" because he had never seen it before.

regulatory authority (noun)

A governmental agency that regulates businesses in the public interest.

- They discussed "regulatory authority" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "regulatory authority" means with a simple example.

reportedly (adverb)

According to reports or other information.

- She was reportedly his mistress for many years.
- He answered "reportedly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

roman pace (noun)

An ancient Roman unit of length (4.85 English feet) measured as the distance from the heel of one foot to the heel of the same foot when next it touches the ground.

- He looked up "roman pace" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "roman pace" to mean an ancient roman unit of length (4.85 english feet)....

---

sandwich (verb)

Insert or squeeze tightly between two people or objects.

- She was sandwiched in her airplane seat between two fat men.
- In everyday English, people use "sandwich" when talking about this idea.

---

scratch along (verb)

Manage one's existence barely.

- In everyday English, people use "scratch along" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "scratch along" until he saw an example.

---

seeks (verb)

Try to locate or discover, or try to establish the existence of.

- She always seeks to do good in the world.
- A liquid seeks its own level.

---

sentences (noun)

The period of time a prisoner is imprisoned.

- He always spoke in grammatical sentences.
- Understanding "sentences" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sexually (adverb)

With respect to sexuality.

- Sexually ambiguous.
- Reproduce sexually.

---

side of bacon (noun)

Salted and cured abdominal wall of a side of pork.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "side of bacon."
- He looked up "side of bacon" because he had never seen it before.

---

socialist economy (noun)

An economic system based on state ownership of capital.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "socialist economy."
- He looked up "socialist economy" because he had never seen it before.

---

south southeast (noun)

The compass point midway between south and southeast.

- The article explained what "south southeast" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south southeast."

---

south-southeast (adverb)

To, toward, or in the south southeast.

- Place "south-southeast" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "south-southeast" naturally.

---

theory of gravity (noun)

(physics) the theory that any two particles of matter attract one another with a force directly proportional to the product of their masses and inversely proportional to the square of the distance between them.

- Understanding "theory of gravity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "theory of gravity" means with a simple example.

to be precise (adverb)

In actual fact.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "to be precise" naturally.
- Using "to be precise" can make your explanation more exact.

understands (verb)

Perceive (an idea or situation) mentally.

- She understands French.
- Can you use "understands" in a sentence that fits this situation?

wedding reception (noun)

A reception for wedding guests held after the wedding.

- They discussed "wedding reception" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wedding reception."

wisdom literature (noun)

Any of the biblical books (Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, Wisdom of Solomon, Ecclesiasticus) that are considered to contain wisdom.

- He looked up "wisdom literature" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wisdom literature."

abstract thought (noun)

Thinking that is coherent and logical.

- They discussed "abstract thought" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "abstract thought" means with a simple example.

academic relation (noun)

A professional relation between instructors and those they instruct.

- The article explained what "academic relation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "academic relation" to mean a professional relation between instructors and....

agreements (noun)

The statement (oral or written) of an exchange of promises.

- They discussed "agreements" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "agreements" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

american federation of labor (noun)

A federation of North American labor unions that merged with the Congress of Industrial Organizations in 1955.

- Understanding "american federation of labor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american federation of labor."

appreciation (noun)

An expression of gratitude.

- He expressed his appreciation in a short note.
- An appreciation of 30% in the value of real estate.

banner (noun)

A newspaper headline that runs across the full page.

- In class, the teacher used "banner" to mean a newspaper headline that runs across the full page.
- Understanding "banner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bearing metal (noun)

An alloy (often of lead or tin base) used for bearings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bearing metal."
- Understanding "bearing metal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

black pepper (noun)

Pepper that is ground from whole peppercorns with husks on.

- They discussed "black pepper" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "black pepper" to mean pepper that is ground from whole peppercorns with....

bureau of justice assistance (noun)

The bureau in the Department of Justice that assists local criminal justice systems to reduce or prevent crime and violence and drug abuse.

- He looked up "bureau of justice assistance" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bureau of justice assistance" to mean the bureau in the department of justice that....

central thai (noun)

A branch of the Tai languages.

- They discussed "central thai" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central thai."

chamber of commerce (noun)

An association of businessmen to protect and promote business interests.

- In class, the teacher used "chamber of commerce" to mean an association of businessmen to protect and....
- He looked up "chamber of commerce" because he had never seen it before.

change intensity (verb)

Increase or decrease in intensity.

- Can you use "change intensity" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "change intensity" and when to wait.

charm (noun)

A verbal formula believed to have magical force.

- Inscribed around its base is a charm in Balinese.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charm."

chemical weapons convention (noun)

A global treaty banning the production or acquisition or stockpiling or transfer or use of chemical weapons.

- In class, the teacher used "chemical weapons convention" to mean a global treaty banning the production or....
- He looked up "chemical weapons convention" because he had never seen it before.

come out of the closet (verb)

To state openly and publicly one's homosexuality.

- This actor outed last year.
- Learners should practice how to use "come out of the closet" in real sentences.

cookies (noun)

A short line of text that a web site puts on your computer's hard drive when you access the web site.

- They discussed "cookies" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cookies."

cross-classification (noun)

Classification according to more than one attribute at the same time.

- The cross-classification of cases was done by age and sex.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cross-classification."

demanded (verb)

Request urgently and forcefully.

- The boss demanded that he be fired immediately.
- She demanded to see the manager.

detective agency (noun)

An agency that makes inquiries for its clients.

- In class, the teacher used "detective agency" to mean an agency that makes inquiries for its clients.
- Understanding "detective agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

distinguished service cross (noun)

A United States Army decoration for extraordinary heroism against an armed enemy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "distinguished service cross."
- The article explained what "distinguished service cross" means with a simple example.

---

easter (noun)

A Christian celebration of the Resurrection of Christ; celebrated on the Sunday following the first full moon after the vernal equinox.

- Understanding "easter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "easter" because he had never seen it before.

---

electoral (adjective)

Of or relating to elections.

- Electoral process.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "electoral."

---

eleven (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of ten and one.

- The article explained what "eleven" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "eleven" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of ten and one.

---

emily post (noun)

United States female author who wrote a book and a syndicated newspaper column on etiquette (1872-1960).

- He looked up "emily post" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emily post."

---

entity (noun)

That which is perceived or known or inferred to have its own distinct existence (living or nonliving).

- The article explained what "entity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "entity" to mean that which is perceived or known or inferred to....

---

false alarm (noun)

A warning that is given about something that fails to occur.

- In class, the teacher used "false alarm" to mean a warning that is given about something that fails....
- Understanding "false alarm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

feminist (adjective)

Of or relating to or advocating equal rights for women.

- Feminist critique.
- A "feminist" approach may work better in this case.

---

field-crop (adjective)

Of or relating to field crops.

- Field-crop management.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "field-crop."

---

finger-spell (verb)

Communicate by means of specific gestures, as an alternative to sign language.

- Learners should practice how to use "finger-spell" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "finger-spell" when talking about this idea.

---

firing squad (noun)

A squad formed to fire volleys at a military funeral or to carry out a military execution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firing squad."
- He looked up "firing squad" because he had never seen it before.

flash in the pan (noun)

Someone who enjoys transient success but then fails.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flash in the pan."
- The article explained what "flash in the pan" means with a simple example.

french dressing (noun)

Oil and vinegar with mustard and garlic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french dressing."
- He looked up "french dressing" because he had never seen it before.

gospel according to john (noun)

The last of the four Gospels in the New Testament.

- Understanding "gospel according to john" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gospel according to john" during the group presentation.

gospel truth (noun)

An unquestionable truth.

- His word was gospel.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gospel truth."

half-and-half dressing (noun)

Half mayonnaise and half vinaigrette seasoned with minced garlic and mashed anchovies and grated Parmesan cheese; especially good for combination salads.

- Understanding "half-and-half dressing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "half-and-half dressing" because he had never seen it before.

ham (noun)

An unskilled actor who overacts.

- He looked up "ham" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ham."

head and shoulders above (adverb)

Outstandingly superior to.

- In intelligence he was head and shoulders above the others in his class.
- The narrator describes the scene "head and shoulders above" in the final chapter.

instruction book (noun)

A book of directions for using or operating some piece of equipment.

- The article explained what "instruction book" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instruction book."

interface (noun)

The overlap where two theories or phenomena affect each other or have links with each other.

- The interface between chemistry and biology.
- The article explained what "interface" means with a simple example.

ios (noun)

The closest of Jupiter's moons; has active volcanoes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ios."
- Understanding "ios" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

james madison (noun)

4th President of the United States; member of the Continental Congress and rapporteur at the Constitutional Convention in 1776; helped frame the Bill of Rights (1751-1836).

- They discussed "james madison" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "james madison" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

judge advocate general (noun)

The senior legal advisor to a branch of the military.

- He looked up "judge advocate general" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "judge advocate general" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

judicial system (noun)

The system of law courts that administer justice and constitute the judicial branch of government.

- He looked up "judicial system" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "judicial system" during the group presentation.

lieutenant colonel (noun)

A commissioned officer in the United States Army or Air Force or Marines holding a rank above major and below colonel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lieutenant colonel."
- Understanding "lieutenant colonel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

linear a (noun)

An undeciphered writing system used in Crete in the 17th century B.C.

- Understanding "linear a" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "linear a" because he had never seen it before.

logical system (noun)

A system of reasoning.

- In class, the teacher used "logical system" to mean a system of reasoning.
- Understanding "logical system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

look-alike (noun)

Someone who closely resembles a famous person (especially an actor).

- He looked up "look-alike" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "look-alike."

manhattan project (noun)

A former United States executive agency that was responsible for developing atomic bombs during World War II.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manhattan project."
- The article explained what "manhattan project" means with a simple example.

map maker (noun)

A person who makes maps.

- Understanding "map maker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "map maker" means with a simple example.

mg (noun)

A light silver-white ductile bivalent metallic element; in pure form it burns with brilliant white flame; occurs naturally only in combination (as in magnesite and dolomite and carnallite and spinel and olivine).

- Understanding "mg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mg" during the group presentation.

miracle man (noun)

A person who claims or is alleged to perform miracles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "miracle man."
- Understanding "miracle man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nov-latin (noun)

An artificial language based on Latin.

- Understanding "nov-latin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "nov-latin" to mean an artificial language based on latin.

oliver stone (noun)

United States filmmaker (born in 1946).

- In class, the teacher used "oliver stone" to mean united states filmmaker (born in 1946).

- He looked up “oliver stone” because he had never seen it before.

operational cell (noun)

A terrorist cell that performs clandestine activities.

- He looked up “operational cell” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “operational cell.”

oral communication (noun)

(language) communication by word of mouth.

- In class, the teacher used “oral communication” to mean (language) communication by word of mouth.
- Understanding “oral communication” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

peer group (noun)

Contemporaries of the same status.

- The article explained what “peer group” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “peer group.”

pilots (noun)

Something that serves as a model or a basis for making copies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pilots.”
- The article explained what “pilots” means with a simple example.

positive identification (noun)

Evidence proving that you are who you say you are; evidence establishing that you are among the group of people already known to the system; recognition by the system leads to acceptance.

- A system for positive identification can prevent the use of a single identity by several people.
- The article explained what “positive identification” means with a simple example.

predicted (verb)

Make a prediction about; tell in advance.

- Learners should practice how to use “predicted” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “predicted” until he saw an example.

preventing (verb)

Keep from happening or arising; make impossible.

- The coach explained when to use “preventing” and when to wait.
- Can you use “preventing” in a sentence that fits this situation?

prof (noun)

Someone who is a member of the faculty at a college or university.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “prof.”
- They discussed “prof” during the group presentation.

provisions (noun)

A stock or supply of foods.

- In class, the teacher used “provisions” to mean a stock or supply of foods.
- The article explained what “provisions” means with a simple example.

public lecture (noun)

A speech that is open to the public.

- He attended a lecture on telecommunications.
- They discussed “public lecture” during the group presentation.

reminder (noun)

A message that helps you remember something.

- He ignored his wife’s reminders.
- Understanding “reminder” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ridge (noun)

A long narrow natural elevation or striation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ridge."
- He looked up "ridge" because he had never seen it before.

---

robert robinson (noun)

English chemist noted for his studies of molecular structures in plants (1886-1975).

- In class, the teacher used "robert robinson" to mean english chemist noted for his studies of molecular....
- Understanding "robert robinson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

santa anna (noun)

Mexican general who tried to crush the Texas revolt and who lost battles to Winfield Scott and Zachary Taylor in the Mexican War (1795-1876).

- The article explained what "santa anna" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "santa anna" to mean mexican general who tried to crush the texas revolt....

---

scholars (noun)

A learned person (especially in the humanities); someone who by long study has gained mastery in one or more disciplines.

- They discussed "scholars" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "scholars" to mean a learned person (especially in the humanities);....

---

scratch test (noun)

A test to determine allergic sensitivity to various substances by applying them to scratches in the skin.

- In class, the teacher used "scratch test" to mean a test to determine allergic sensitivity to various....
- The article explained what "scratch test" means with a simple example.

---

semi-sweet chocolate (noun)

Chocolate liquor with cocoa butter and small amounts of sugar and vanilla; lecithin is usually added.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "semi-sweet chocolate."
- He looked up "semi-sweet chocolate" because he had never seen it before.

---

sharp tongue (noun)

A bitter or critical manner of speaking.

- Understanding "sharp tongue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sharp tongue" during the group presentation.

---

sitting duck (noun)

A defenseless victim.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sitting duck."
- He looked up "sitting duck" because he had never seen it before.

---

sounded (verb)

Announce by means of a sound.

- The coach explained when to use "sounded" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "sounded" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

southeast by south (noun)

The compass point that is one point south of southeast.

- Understanding "southeast by south" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "southeast by south" means with a simple example.

---

table of contents (noun)

A list of divisions (chapters or articles) and the pages on which they start.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "table of contents."
- He looked up "table of contents" because he had never seen it before.

---

talk through one's hat (verb)

Speak insincerely or without regard for facts or truths.

- The coach explained when to use "talk through one's hat" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "talk through one's hat" until he saw an example.

---

tends (verb)

Have a tendency or disposition to do or be something; be inclined.

- She tends to be nervous before her lectures.
- She tends to the children.

---

tribe (noun)

A social division of (usually preliterate) people.

- In class, the teacher used "tribe" to mean a social division of (usually preliterate) people.
- The article explained what "tribe" means with a simple example.

---

trouble maker (noun)

Someone who deliberately stirs up trouble.

- They discussed "trouble maker" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "trouble maker" means with a simple example.

---

victorian (adjective)

Of or relating to Queen Victoria of Great Britain or to the age in which she ruled.

- Victorian morals.
- The speaker chose "victorian" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

washing day (noun)

A day set aside for doing household laundry.

- They discussed "washing day" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "washing day" to mean a day set aside for doing household laundry.

---

word salad (noun)

Jumble of incoherent speech as sometimes heard in schizophrenia.

- The article explained what "word salad" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "word salad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

xi (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of ten and one.

- The article explained what "xi" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "xi" during the group presentation.

---

ace (noun)

The smallest whole number or a numeral representing this number.

- The article explained what "ace" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ace."

---

agenda item (noun)

One of the items to be considered.

- The article explained what "agenda item" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "agenda item" to mean one of the items to be considered.

---

alarm bell (noun)

The sound of an alarm (usually a bell).

- In class, the teacher used "alarm bell" to mean the sound of an alarm (usually a bell).
- He looked up "alarm bell" because he had never seen it before.

---

arms manufacturer (noun)

Someone who manufactures arms and munitions.

- Understanding "arms manufacturer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "arms manufacturer" to mean someone who manufactures arms and munitions.

artistic movement (noun)

A group of artists who agree on general principles.

- He looked up "artistic movement" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "artistic movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

artwork (noun)

Photographs or other visual representations in a printed publication.

- The publisher was responsible for all the artwork in the book.
- He looked up "artwork" because he had never seen it before.

attraction (noun)

An entertainer who attracts large audiences.

- Her personality held a strange attraction for him.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "attraction."

babe (noun)

A very young child (birth to 1 year) who has not yet begun to walk or talk.

- He looked up "babe" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "babe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bathroom tissue (noun)

A soft thin absorbent paper for use in toilets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bathroom tissue."
- Understanding "bathroom tissue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blank space (noun)

A blank area.

- Write your name in the space provided.
- Understanding "blank space" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bread-and-butter issue (noun)

An issue whose settlement will affect financial resources.

- In class, the teacher used "bread-and-butter issue" to mean an issue whose settlement will affect financial....
- The article explained what "bread-and-butter issue" means with a simple example.

burst upon (verb)

Spring suddenly.

- He burst upon our conversation.
- The coach explained when to use "burst upon" and when to wait.

candy kiss (noun)

Any of several bite-sized candies.

- They discussed "candy kiss" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "candy kiss" because he had never seen it before.

catherine (noun)

Empress of Russia who greatly increased the territory of the empire (1729-1796).

- They discussed "catherine" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "catherine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

catherine i (noun)

Empress of Russia who succeeded her husband Peter the Great (1684-1727).

- He looked up "catherine i" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "catherine i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cheese sauce (noun)

White sauce with grated cheese.

- In class, the teacher used "cheese sauce" to mean white sauce with grated cheese.
- He looked up "cheese sauce" because he had never seen it before.

---

consecutive operation (noun)

The sequential execution of operations one after another.

- They discussed "consecutive operation" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "consecutive operation" because he had never seen it before.

---

constitutional convention (noun)

The convention of United States statesmen who drafted the United States Constitution in 1787.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "constitutional convention."
- They discussed "constitutional convention" during the group presentation.

---

deciding (noun)

The cognitive process of reaching a decision.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deciding."
- He looked up "deciding" because he had never seen it before.

---

defender (noun)

A person who cares for persons or property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defender."
- They discussed "defender" during the group presentation.

---

dental (noun)

A consonant articulated with the tip of the tongue near the gum ridge.

- Understanding "dental" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dental" during the group presentation.

---

department of mathematics (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in mathematics.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of mathematics."
- Understanding "department of mathematics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

desert soil (noun)

A type of soil that develops in arid climates.

- Understanding "desert soil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "desert soil" means with a simple example.

---

diplomatic (adjective)

Relating to or characteristic of diplomacy.

- Diplomatic immunity.
- The hostess averted a confrontation with a diplomatic chenage of subject.

---

divisions (noun)

An army unit large enough to sustain combat.

- Two infantry divisions were held in reserve.
- In class, the teacher used "divisions" to mean an army unit large enough to sustain combat.

---

down easter (noun)

A native or resident of Maine.

- In class, the teacher used "down easter" to mean a native or resident of maine.
- The article explained what "down easter" means with a simple example.

---

drug dealer (noun)

An unlicensed dealer in illegal drugs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drug dealer."

- The article explained what "drug dealer" means with a simple example.

---

drum (noun)

A bulging cylindrical shape; hollow with flat ends.

- He could hear the drums before he heard the fifes.
- Understanding "drum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drum out (verb)

Remove from a position or office.

- Learners should practice how to use "drum out" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "drum out" when talking about this idea.

---

east southeast (noun)

The compass point midway between east and southeast.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "east southeast."
- He looked up "east southeast" because he had never seen it before.

---

easter day (noun)

The day (in March or April) on which the festival of Easter is celebrated.

- He looked up "easter day" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "easter day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

est (noun)

Standard time in the 5th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 75th meridian; used in the eastern United States.

- Understanding "est" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "est" during the group presentation.

---

establishing (verb)

Establish the validity of something, as by an example, explanation or experiment.

- He did not know how to use "establishing" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "establishing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

first sergeant (noun)

A sergeant in the Army above the rank of staff sergeant and below master sergeant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first sergeant."
- Understanding "first sergeant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fruit bat (noun)

Large Old World bat of warm and tropical regions that feeds on fruit.

- The article explained what "fruit bat" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fruit bat."

---

generic (noun)

A wine that is a blend of several varieties of grapes with no one grape predominating; a wine that does not carry the name of any specific grape.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "generic."
- He looked up "generic" because he had never seen it before.

---

george vancouver (noun)

English navigator remembered for his exploration of the Pacific coast of North America (1757-1798).

- In class, the teacher used "george vancouver" to mean english navigator remembered for his exploration of....
- Understanding "george vancouver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grandma (noun)

The mother of your father or mother.

- He looked up "grandma" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grandma."

---

green salad (noun)

Tossed salad composed primarily of salad greens.

- He looked up "green salad" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green salad."

handful (noun)

The quantity that can be held in the hand.

- Only a handful of responses were received.
- In class, the teacher used "handful" to mean the quantity that can be held in the hand.

happily (adverb)

In an unexpectedly lucky way.

- Happily he was not injured.
- They shouted happily.

homework problem (noun)

A problem that students are assigned to do outside of class.

- They discussed "homework problem" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "homework problem" because he had never seen it before.

howard carter (noun)

Englishman and Egyptologist who in 1922 discovered and excavated the tomb of Tutankhamen (1873-1939).

- He looked up "howard carter" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "howard carter."

hybrid (noun)

A composite of mixed origin.

- The vice-presidency is a hybrid of administrative and legislative offices.
- In class, the teacher used "hybrid" to mean a composite of mixed origin.

in the adjacent house (adverb)

At or in or to the adjacent residence.

- The criminal had been living next door all this time.
- She spoke "in the adjacent house," and the audience immediately understood her point.

indigenous language (noun)

A language that originated in a specified place and was not brought to that place from elsewhere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indigenous language."
- He looked up "indigenous language" because he had never seen it before.

iranian language (noun)

The modern Persian language spoken in Iran.

- He looked up "iranian language" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "iranian language" during the group presentation.

lip service (noun)

An expression of agreement that is not supported by real conviction.

- In class, the teacher used "lip service" to mean an expression of agreement that is not supported by....
- Understanding "lip service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lip-read (verb)

Interpret by lipreading; of deaf people.

- She tried to use "lip-read" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "lip-read" until he saw an example.

logical thinking (noun)

Thinking that is coherent and logical.

- The article explained what "logical thinking" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "logical thinking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

maryland chicken (noun)

Chicken fried than oven-baked and served with milk gravy.

- They discussed "maryland chicken" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "maryland chicken" to mean chicken fried than oven-baked and served with milk....

---

mathematics department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in mathematics.

- Understanding "mathematics department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mathematics department."

---

milk powder (noun)

Dehydrated milk.

- Understanding "milk powder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "milk powder" means with a simple example.

---

molecular (adjective)

Relating to or produced by or consisting of molecules.

- Molecular structure.
- Molecular oxygen.

---

mother-of-pearl (noun)

The iridescent internal layer of a mollusk shell.

- Understanding "mother-of-pearl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mother-of-pearl" to mean the iridescent internal layer of a mollusk shell.

---

nearest (adverb)

(superlative of 'near' or 'close') within the shortest distance.

- That was the time he came nearest to death.
- Place "nearest" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

noon (noun)

The middle of the day.

- He looked up "noon" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "noon" to mean the middle of the day.

---

north northwest (noun)

The compass point that is midway between north and northwest.

- The article explained what "north northwest" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "north northwest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

north-northwest (adverb)

To, toward, or in the north-northwest.

- Place "north-northwest" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene "north-northwest" in the final chapter.

---

northwest by north (noun)

The compass point that is one point north of northwest.

- Understanding "northwest by north" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "northwest by north" because he had never seen it before.

---

northwest by west (noun)

The compass point that is one point west of northwest.

- In class, the teacher used "northwest by west" to mean the compass point that is one point west of northwest.
- Understanding "northwest by west" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nowadays (noun)

The period of time that is happening now; any continuous stretch of time including the moment of speech.

- In class, the teacher used "nowadays" to mean the period of time that is happening now; any....
- Understanding "nowadays" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

open sandwich (noun)

Sandwich without a covering slice of bread.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "open sandwich."
- He looked up "open sandwich" because he had never seen it before.

openly (adverb)

In an open way.

- He openly flaunted his affection for his sister.
- Using "openly" can make your explanation more exact.

oral phase (noun)

(psychoanalysis) the first sexual and social stage of an infant's development; the mouth is the focus of the libido and satisfaction comes from suckling and chewing and biting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oral phase."
- Understanding "oral phase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

overview (noun)

A general summary of a subject.

- The treasurer gave a brief overview of the financial consequences.
- They discussed "overview" during the group presentation.

pairs (noun)

A poker hand with 2 cards of the same value.

- The article explained what "pairs" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pairs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

palestinian (adjective)

Of or relating to the area of Palestine and its inhabitants.

- Palestinian guerrillas.
- It is useful to describe something as "palestinian" when it is of or relating to the area of palestine and its....

poems (noun)

A composition written in metrical feet forming rhythmical lines.

- Understanding "poems" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "poems" means with a simple example.

possibilities (noun)

A tentative insight into the natural world; a concept that is not yet verified but that if true would explain certain facts or phenomena.

- This room has great possibilities.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "possibilities."

potato (noun)

An edible tuber native to South America; a staple food of Ireland.

- The article explained what "potato" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "potato" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

potter (verb)

Do random, unplanned work or activities or spend time idly.

- The old lady is pottering around in the garden.
- The coach explained when to use "potter" and when to wait.

pound cake (noun)

Rich loaf cake made of a pound each of butter and sugar and flour.

- Understanding "pound cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pound cake."

---

preference (noun)

The right or chance to choose.

- My own preference is for good literature.
- His sexual preferences.

---

proportion (noun)

The relation between things (or parts of things) with respect to their comparative quantity, magnitude, or degree.

- An inordinate proportion of the book is given over to quotations.
- A dry martini has a large proportion of gin.

---

rage (noun)

An interest followed with exaggerated zeal.

- It was all the rage that season.
- His face turned red with rage.

---

red pepper (noun)

Very hot red peppers; usually long and thin; some very small.

- The article explained what "red pepper" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "red pepper" to mean very hot red peppers; usually long and thin; some....

---

reflects (verb)

To throw or bend back (from a surface).

- This action reflects his true beliefs.
- Drive carefully–the wet road reflects.

---

relative frequency (noun)

The ratio of the number of observations in a statistical category to the total number of observations.

- He looked up "relative frequency" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "relative frequency."

---

russian dressing (noun)

Mayonnaise with horseradish grated onion and chili sauce or catsup; sometimes with caviar added.

- In class, the teacher used "russian dressing" to mean mayonnaise with horseradish grated onion and chili....
- They discussed "russian dressing" during the group presentation.

---

salad green (noun)

Greens suitable for eating uncooked as in salads.

- He looked up "salad green" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salad green."

---

scratch paper (noun)

Pad for preliminary or hasty writing or notes or sketches etc; is a British term.

- He looked up "scratch paper" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "scratch paper" to mean pad for preliminary or hasty writing or notes or....

---

sergeant (noun)

An English barrister of the highest rank.

- They discussed "sergeant" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sergeant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

southeast by east (noun)

The compass point that is one point east of southeast.

- In class, the teacher used "southeast by east" to mean the compass point that is one point east of southeast.

- The article explained what "southeast by east" means with a simple example.

---

stamp (noun)

The distinctive form in which a thing is made.

- More men of his stamp are needed.
- He put his stamp on the envelope.

---

sterling area (noun)

The group of countries whose currencies are tied to the British pound sterling.

- They discussed "sterling area" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sterling area" to mean the group of countries whose currencies are tied to....

---

surgeon general (noun)

The senior medical officer in an Army or Navy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surgeon general."
- The article explained what "surgeon general" means with a simple example.

---

sweet cherry (noun)

Any of several fruits of cultivated cherry trees that have sweet flesh.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweet cherry."
- The article explained what "sweet cherry" means with a simple example.

---

take a dive (verb)

Pretend to be knocked out, as of a boxer.

- The coach explained when to use "take a dive" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "take a dive" until he saw an example.

---

taste-maker (noun)

Someone who popularizes a new fashion.

- Understanding "taste-maker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "taste-maker" means with a simple example.

---

trade barrier (noun)

Any regulation or policy that restricts international trade.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trade barrier."
- He looked up "trade barrier" because he had never seen it before.

---

urge (verb)

Force or impel in an indicated direction.

- I urged him to finish his studies.
- In everyday English, people use "urge" when talking about this idea.

---

urge on (verb)

Force or impel in an indicated direction.

- I urged him to finish his studies.
- The coach explained when to use "urge on" and when to wait.

---

voter (noun)

A citizen who has a legal right to vote.

- Understanding "voter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "voter" to mean a citizen who has a legal right to vote.

---

west northwest (noun)

The compass point midway between west and northwest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "west northwest."
- They discussed "west northwest" during the group presentation.

---

witch (noun)

A being (usually female) imagined to have special powers derived from the devil.

- The article explained what "witch" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "witch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

word accent (noun)

The distribution of stresses within a polysyllabic word.

- In class, the teacher used "word accent" to mean the distribution of stresses within a polysyllabic word.
- They discussed "word accent" during the group presentation.

---

ally (noun)

An associate who provides cooperation or assistance.

- He's a good ally in fight.
- Understanding "ally" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ally with (verb)

Unite formally; of interest groups or countries.

- The coach explained when to use "ally with" and when to wait.
- Can you use "ally with" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

archives (noun)

Collection of records especially about an institution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "archives."
- He looked up "archives" because he had never seen it before.

---

array (verb)

Lay out orderly or logically in a line or as if in a line.

- In everyday English, people use "array" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "array" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bay leaf (noun)

Dried leaf of the bay laurel.

- In class, the teacher used "bay leaf" to mean dried leaf of the bay laurel.
- The article explained what "bay leaf" means with a simple example.

---

beer maker (noun)

Someone who brews beer or ale from malt and hops and water.

- Understanding "beer maker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "beer maker" because he had never seen it before.

---

belly (noun)

A part that bulges deeply.

- The belly of a sail.
- In the belly of the ship.

---

bobby jones (noun)

United States golfer (1902-1971).

- The article explained what "bobby jones" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bobby jones" to mean united states golfer (1902-1971).

---

bridges (noun)

United States labor leader who organized the longshoremen (1901-1990).

- He looked up "bridges" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bridges" during the group presentation.

---

buffalo bill (noun)

United States showman famous for his Wild West Show (1846-1917).

- He looked up "buffalo bill" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "buffalo bill" during the group presentation.

---

bullet hole (noun)

A hole made by a bullet passing through it.

- In class, the teacher used "bullet hole" to mean a hole made by a bullet passing through it.
- The article explained what "bullet hole" means with a simple example.

---

catherine the great (noun)

Empress of Russia who greatly increased the territory of the empire (1729-1796).

- The article explained what "catherine the great" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "catherine the great" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

civilians (noun)

A nonmilitary citizen.

- Understanding "civilians" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "civilians" during the group presentation.

---

cliff (noun)

A steep high face of rock.

- He stood on a high cliff overlooking the town.
- In class, the teacher used "cliff" to mean a steep high face of rock.

---

cognitive state (noun)

The state of a person's cognitive processes.

- The article explained what "cognitive state" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cognitive state" during the group presentation.

---

coin silver (noun)

A silver of the degree of purity established for making legal silver coins.

- Understanding "coin silver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "coin silver" means with a simple example.

---

colored hearing (noun)

A form of chromesthesia in which experiences of color accompany auditory stimuli.

- He looked up "colored hearing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "colored hearing."

---

column inch (noun)

A unit of measurement for advertising space.

- In class, the teacher used "column inch" to mean a unit of measurement for advertising space.
- The article explained what "column inch" means with a simple example.

---

conflicts (noun)

A disagreement or argument about something important.

- They discussed "conflicts" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "conflicts" means with a simple example.

---

conversion factor (noun)

Factor by which a quantity that is expressed in one set of units must be multiplied in order to convert it into another set of units.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conversion factor."
- He looked up "conversion factor" because he had never seen it before.

---

declaration (noun)

A formal public statement.

- A declaration of independence.
- His declaration of innocence.

dental school (noun)

A graduate school offering study leading to degrees in dentistry.

- He looked up "dental school" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dental school" to mean a graduate school offering study leading to degrees....

distinction (noun)

A discrimination between things as different and distinct.

- It is necessary to make a distinction between love and infatuation.
- It has the distinction of being the cheapest restaurant in town.

dragons (noun)

A fiercely vigilant and unpleasant woman.

- In class, the teacher used "dragons" to mean a fiercely vigilant and unpleasant woman.
- Understanding "dragons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

draws (noun)

An entertainer who attracts large audiences.

- They discussed "draws" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "draws" means with a simple example.

electoral system (noun)

A legal system for making democratic choices.

- Understanding "electoral system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "electoral system" because he had never seen it before.

examined (verb)

Observe, check out, and look over carefully or inspect.

- The customs agent examined the baggage.
- In everyday English, people use "examined" when talking about this idea.

facial (adjective)

Of or concerning the face.

- A facial massage.
- Facial hair.

faithful (noun)

A group of people who adhere to a common faith and habitually attend a given church.

- They discussed "faithful" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "faithful" because he had never seen it before.

fig (noun)

A diagram or picture illustrating textual material.

- The area covered can be seen from Figure 2.
- He looked up "fig" because he had never seen it before.

formal logic (noun)

Any logical system that abstracts the form of statements away from their content in order to establish abstract criteria of consistency and validity.

- They discussed "formal logic" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "formal logic."

freeze off (verb)

Reject with contempt.

- The coach explained when to use "freeze off" and when to wait.
- Can you use "freeze off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

george walker bush (noun)

43rd President of the United States; son of George Herbert Walker Bush (born in 1946).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "george walker bush."
- The article explained what "george walker bush" means with a simple example.

gift wrap (noun)

Attractive wrapping paper suitable for wrapping gifts.

- In class, the teacher used "gift wrap" to mean attractive wrapping paper suitable for wrapping gifts.
- Understanding "gift wrap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gift-wrap (verb)

Wrap (a gift) attractively.

- Can you use "gift-wrap" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "gift-wrap" and when to wait.

glass ceiling (noun)

A ceiling based on attitudinal or organizational bias in the work force that prevents minorities and women from advancing to leadership positions.

- They discussed "glass ceiling" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "glass ceiling" because he had never seen it before.

gospel according to mark (noun)

The shortest of the four Gospels in the New Testament.

- He looked up "gospel according to mark" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gospel according to mark."

green pepper (noun)

A sweet pepper that becomes red when ripe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green pepper."
- He looked up "green pepper" because he had never seen it before.

hardest (adverb)

To the full extent possible; all the way.

- Using "hardest" can make your explanation more exact.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "hardest" naturally.

heart surgeon (noun)

A specialist in cardiology; a specialist in the structure and function and disorders of the heart.

- The article explained what "heart surgeon" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "heart surgeon" during the group presentation.

high noon (noun)

The middle of the day.

- Understanding "high noon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "high noon" to mean the middle of the day.

implications (noun)

A meaning that is not expressly stated but can be inferred.

- His resignation had political implications.
- Understanding "implications" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

import (noun)

An imported person brought from a foreign country.

- The lead role was played by an import from Sweden.
- They are descendants of indentured importees.

james mason (noun)

English film actor (1909-1984).

- He looked up "james mason" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "james mason" to mean english film actor (1909-1984).

jewish calendar month (noun)

A month in the Jewish calendar.

- Understanding "jewish calendar month" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "jewish calendar month" to mean a month in the jewish calendar.

language barrier (noun)

Barrier to communication resulting from speaking different languages.

- The article explained what "language barrier" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "language barrier" to mean barrier to communication resulting from speaking....

leaf shape (noun)

Any of the various shape that leaves of plants can assume.

- The article explained what "leaf shape" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "leaf shape" to mean any of the various shape that leaves of plants can....

lemon (noun)

A distinctive tart flavor characteristic of lemons.

- They discussed "lemon" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lemon."

lung-like (adjective)

Performing functions similar to those performed by lungs.

- Students compared "lung-like" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "lung-like"? Explain why.

media consultant (noun)

Someone who advises about the use of communication media.

- They discussed "media consultant" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "media consultant" to mean someone who advises about the use of communication....

mental confusion (noun)

A mental state characterized by a lack of clear and orderly thought and behavior.

- A confusion of impressions.
- The article explained what "mental confusion" means with a simple example.

mighty (adverb)

(Southern regional intensive) very; to a great degree.

- The baby is mighty cute.
- He's mighty tired.

national rifle association (noun)

A powerful lobby that advocates the right to own and bear arms and rejects any gun regulation by the government.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "national rifle association."
- They discussed "national rifle association" during the group presentation.

ore (noun)

A mineral that contains metal that is valuable enough to be mined.

- Understanding "ore" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ore."

organic evolution (noun)

(biology) the sequence of events involved in the evolutionary development of a species or taxonomic group of organisms.

- He looked up "organic evolution" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "organic evolution."

os (noun)

A hard brittle blue-grey or blue-black metallic element that is one of the platinum metals; the heaviest metal known.

- He looked up "os" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "os" during the group presentation.

---

parker house roll (noun)

Yeast-raised dinner roll made by folding a disk of dough before baking.

- In class, the teacher used "parker house roll" to mean yeast-raised dinner roll made by folding a disk of....
- They discussed "parker house roll" during the group presentation.

---

patent application (noun)

An application for sole rights to an invention.

- Understanding "patent application" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patent application."

---

pennsylvania dutch (noun)

A dialect of High German spoken in parts of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

- In class, the teacher used "pennsylvania dutch" to mean a dialect of high german spoken in parts of....
- He looked up "pennsylvania dutch" because he had never seen it before.

---

pig lead (noun)

Lead that is cast in pigs.

- Understanding "pig lead" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pig lead" means with a simple example.

---

poorly (adverb)

('ill' is often used as a combining form) in a poor or improper or unsatisfactory manner; not well.

- The team played poorly.
- The narrator describes the scene "poorly" in the final chapter.

---

pose (verb)

Assume a posture as for artistic purposes.

- We don't know the woman who posed for Leonardo so often.
- This poses an interesting question.

---

potter around (verb)

Move around aimlessly.

- Can you use "potter around" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "potter around" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pounds per square inch (noun)

A unit of pressure.

- The article explained what "pounds per square inch" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pounds per square inch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

provider (noun)

Someone who provides the means for subsistence.

- They discussed "provider" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "provider" means with a simple example.

---

public defender (noun)

A lawyer who represents indigent defendants at public expense.

- In class, the teacher used "public defender" to mean a lawyer who represents indigent defendants at....
- Understanding "public defender" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

purely (adverb)

Restricted to something.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "purely" naturally.
- Place "purely" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

railroad engineer (noun)

The operator of a railway locomotive.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "railroad engineer."
- He looked up "railroad engineer" because he had never seen it before.

---

rap group (noun)

A gathering of people holding a rap session.

- In class, the teacher used "rap group" to mean a gathering of people holding a rap session.
- He looked up "rap group" because he had never seen it before.

---

resident commissioner (noun)

The representative of Puerto Rico in the United States House of Representatives.

- Understanding "resident commissioner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "resident commissioner" means with a simple example.

---

richard wright (noun)

United States writer whose work is concerned with the oppression of African Americans (1908-1960).

- He looked up "richard wright" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "richard wright" during the group presentation.

---

rule of grammar (noun)

A linguistic rule for the syntax of grammatical utterances.

- Understanding "rule of grammar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rule of grammar" to mean a linguistic rule for the syntax of grammatical....

---

salad oil (noun)

Any of several edible vegetable oils that can be used in salad dressings.

- The article explained what "salad oil" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "salad oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sam adams (noun)

American Revolutionary leader and patriot; an organizer of the Boston Tea Party and signer of the Declaration of Independence (1722-1803).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sam adams."
- Understanding "sam adams" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scientific discipline (noun)

A particular branch of scientific knowledge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scientific discipline."
- They discussed "scientific discipline" during the group presentation.

---

seemingly (adverb)

From appearances alone; ; ; -Thomas Hardy.

- The child is seemingly healthy but the doctor is concerned.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "seemingly" naturally.

---

senators (noun)

A member of a senate.

- The article explained what "senators" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "senators" to mean a member of a senate.

---

severely (adverb)

To a severe or serious degree.

- A severely impaired heart.
- Peered severely over her glasses.

shark (noun)

A person who is unusually skilled in certain ways.

- A card shark.
- The article explained what "shark" means with a simple example.

solar calendar (noun)

A calendar based on solar cycles.

- They discussed "solar calendar" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "solar calendar" to mean a calendar based on solar cycles.

southwest (noun)

The direction corresponding to the southwestward compass point.

- In class, the teacher used "southwest" to mean the direction corresponding to the southwestward....
- The article explained what "southwest" means with a simple example.

speech perception (noun)

The auditory perception (and comprehension) of speech.

- They discussed "speech perception" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "speech perception" means with a simple example.

swedish iron (noun)

Wrought iron of high purity made in Sweden.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swedish iron."
- Understanding "swedish iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

swiss roll (noun)

Thin sheet of sponge cake spread with jelly and then rolled up to make a cylindrical cake.

- He looked up "swiss roll" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "swiss roll" to mean thin sheet of sponge cake spread with jelly and....

tales (noun)

A message that tells the particulars of an act or occurrence or course of events; presented in writing or drama or cinema or as a radio or television program.

- The article explained what "tales" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tales."

tea leaf (noun)

Dried leaves of the tea shrub; used to make tea.

- The store shelves held many different kinds of tea.
- They threw the tea into Boston harbor.

technically (adverb)

According to the exact meaning; according to the facts.

- Technically, a bank's reserves belong to the stockholders.
- Technically, the term is no longer used by experts.

thomas nelson page (noun)

United States diplomat and writer about the Old South (1853-1922).

- Understanding "thomas nelson page" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "thomas nelson page" because he had never seen it before.

traditions (noun)

An inherited pattern of thought or action.

- The article explained what "traditions" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "traditions" to mean an inherited pattern of thought or action.

unfortunate person (noun)

A person who suffers misfortune.

- He looked up "unfortunate person" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "unfortunate person" during the group presentation.

---

vertical union (noun)

A labor union that admits all workers in a given industry irrespective of their craft.

- The article explained what "vertical union" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "vertical union" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

veterans of foreign wars (noun)

An organization of United States war veterans.

- Understanding "veterans of foreign wars" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "veterans of foreign wars" during the group presentation.

---

visual purple (noun)

A red photopigment in the retinal rods of vertebrates; dissociates into retinene by light.

- In class, the teacher used "visual purple" to mean a red photopigment in the retinal rods of....
- The article explained what "visual purple" means with a simple example.

---

wash leather (noun)

Piece of chamois used for cleaning and polishing.

- Understanding "wash leather" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wash leather" means with a simple example.

---

watches (verb)

Be vigilant, be on the lookout or be careful.

- Can you use "watches" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "watches" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

academic requirement (noun)

A requirement for admission to or completion of an academic program.

- In class, the teacher used "academic requirement" to mean a requirement for admission to or completion of an....
- Understanding "academic requirement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

accent mark (noun)

A diacritical mark used to indicate stress or placed above a vowel to indicate a special pronunciation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "accent mark."
- Understanding "accent mark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

advise (verb)

Make a proposal, declare a plan for something.

- I advised him that the rent was due.
- Learners should practice how to use "advise" in real sentences.

---

alexander pope (noun)

English poet and satirist (1688-1744).

- In class, the teacher used "alexander pope" to mean english poet and satirist (1688-1744).
- The article explained what "alexander pope" means with a simple example.

---

american revolutionary leader (noun)

A nationalist leader in the American Revolution and in the creation of the United States.

- Understanding "american revolutionary leader" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "american revolutionary leader" to mean a nationalist leader in the american revolution and....

---

anthony wayne (noun)

American general during the American Revolution (1745-1796).

- They discussed "anthony wayne" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anthony wayne."

apple pie (noun)

Pie (with a top crust) containing sliced apples and sugar.

- He looked up "apple pie" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "apple pie."

arms-runner (noun)

A smuggler of guns.

- In class, the teacher used "arms-runner" to mean a smuggler of guns.
- The article explained what "arms-runner" means with a simple example.

aspect ratio (noun)

The ratio of the width to the height of a tv picture.

- The article explained what "aspect ratio" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "aspect ratio" during the group presentation.

barrier island (noun)

A long narrow sandy island (wider than a reef) running parallel to the shore.

- In class, the teacher used "barrier island" to mean a long narrow sandy island (wider than a reef)....
- Understanding "barrier island" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bee (noun)

A social gathering to carry out some communal task or to hold competitions.

- In class, the teacher used "bee" to mean a social gathering to carry out some communal task....
- Understanding "bee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

beta iron (noun)

An allotrope of iron that is the same as alpha iron except that it is nonmagnetic; stable between 768 and 906 degrees centigrade.

- Understanding "beta iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "beta iron" because he had never seen it before.

blade apple (noun)

Small yellow to orange fruit of the Barbados gooseberry cactus used in desserts and preserves and jellies.

- He looked up "blade apple" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "blade apple" during the group presentation.

bloody shame (noun)

A Bloody Mary made without alcohol.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bloody shame."
- The article explained what "bloody shame" means with a simple example.

bread sauce (noun)

Creamy white sauce made with bread instead of flour and seasoned with cloves and onion.

- The article explained what "bread sauce" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bread sauce" to mean creamy white sauce made with bread instead of flour....

british house of commons (noun)

The lower house of the British parliament.

- Understanding "british house of commons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "british house of commons" means with a simple example.

bye-bye (noun)

A farewell remark.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bye-bye."
- He looked up "bye-bye" because he had never seen it before.

cabin boy (noun)

A young man acting as a servant on a ship.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cabin boy."
- Understanding "cabin boy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

certified milk (noun)

Milk from dairies regulated by an authorized medical milk commission.

- In class, the teacher used "certified milk" to mean milk from dairies regulated by an authorized....
- The article explained what "certified milk" means with a simple example.

challenged (verb)

Raise a formal objection in a court of law.

- She challenged his claims.
- Fischer challenged Spassky to a match.

chance variable (noun)

A variable quantity that is random.

- He looked up "chance variable" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chance variable."

chemical mechanism (noun)

The atomic process that occurs during a chemical reaction.

- He determined unique mechanisms for the photochemical reactions.
- The article explained what "chemical mechanism" means with a simple example.

citizenship day (noun)

Celebrated in the United States.

- Understanding "citizenship day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "citizenship day" because he had never seen it before.

club sandwich (noun)

Made with three slices of usually toasted bread.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "club sandwich."
- He looked up "club sandwich" because he had never seen it before.

coffee substitute (noun)

A drink resembling coffee that is sometimes substituted for it.

- In class, the teacher used "coffee substitute" to mean a drink resembling coffee that is sometimes....
- The article explained what "coffee substitute" means with a simple example.

concrete representation (noun)

A representation of an abstract idea in concrete terms.

- In class, the teacher used "concrete representation" to mean a representation of an abstract idea in concrete terms.
- The article explained what "concrete representation" means with a simple example.

consisting (verb)

Be consistent in form, tenor, or character; be congruous.

- In everyday English, people use "consisting" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "consisting" in real sentences.

cult (noun)

A system of religious beliefs and rituals.

- Devoted to the cultus of the Blessed Virgin.
- It was a satanic cult.

dakota (noun)

The Siouan language spoken by the Dakota.

- He looked up “dakota” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dakota.”

---

demand for identification (noun)

As by a sentry.

- In class, the teacher used “demand for identification” to mean as by a sentry.
- Understanding “demand for identification” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

disagree (verb)

Be of different opinions.

- She disagrees with her husband on many questions.
- She tried to use “disagree” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

drill in (verb)

Teach by drills and repetition.

- She tried to use “drill in” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “drill in” until he saw an example.

---

exports (verb)

Cause to spread in another part of the world.

- In everyday English, people use “exports” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “exports” in real sentences.

---

floating-point operation (noun)

An arithmetic operation performed on floating-point numbers.

- In class, the teacher used “floating-point operation” to mean an arithmetic operation performed on floating-point....
- Understanding “floating-point operation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

folk writer (noun)

A writer of folktales.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “folk writer.”
- They discussed “folk writer” during the group presentation.

---

food stamp (noun)

A government-issued stamp that can be used in exchange for food.

- The article explained what “food stamp” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “food stamp” during the group presentation.

---

four-part harmony (noun)

Harmony in which each chord has four notes that create four melodic lines.

- He looked up “four-part harmony” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “four-part harmony” during the group presentation.

---

fr (noun)

A radioactive element of the alkali-metal group discovered as a disintegration product of actinium.

- In class, the teacher used “fr” to mean a radioactive element of the alkali-metal group....
- The article explained what “fr” means with a simple example.

---

george mason (noun)

American Revolutionary leader from Virginia whose objections led to the drafting of the Bill of Rights (1725-1792).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “george mason.”
- The article explained what “george mason” means with a simple example.

---

governing board (noun)

A board that manages the affairs of an institution.

- The article explained what “governing board” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “governing board.”

graduated table (noun)

An ordered reference standard.

- The article explained what "graduated table" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "graduated table."

graham bread (noun)

Bread made of graham (whole wheat) flour.

- Understanding "graham bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "graham bread."

grid metal (noun)

A kind of hard lead that is used for grids in storage batteries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grid metal."
- He looked up "grid metal" because he had never seen it before.

importantly (adverb)

In an important way or to an important degree.

- More importantly, Weber held that the manifold meaning attached to the event by the social scientist could alter his definition of the concrete event itself.
- For centuries jellies have figured importantly among English desserts, particularly upon festive occasion.

indicating (verb)

To state or express briefly.

- Learners should practice how to use "indicating" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "indicating" carefully so everyone would understand.

intend (verb)

Have in mind as a purpose.

- She was intended to become the director.
- What do his words intend?

jimmy carter (noun)

39th President of the United States (1924-).

- They discussed "jimmy carter" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "jimmy carter" to mean 39th president of the united states (1924-).

karen (noun)

The Tibeto-Burman language spoken in the Thailand and Burmese borderlands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "karen."
- They discussed "karen" during the group presentation.

landscape architecture (noun)

The branch of architecture dealing with the arrangement of land and buildings for human use and enjoyment.

- He looked up "landscape architecture" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "landscape architecture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lasted (verb)

Continue to live through hardship or adversity.

- The bad weather lasted for three days.
- Can you use "lasted" in a sentence that fits this situation?

law of closure (noun)

A Gestalt principle of organization holding that there is an innate tendency to perceive incomplete objects as complete and to close or fill gaps and to perceive asymmetric stimuli as symmetric.

- He looked up "law of closure" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "law of closure" during the group presentation.

linear b (noun)

A syllabic script used in Greece in the 13th century B.C.

- The article explained what “linear b” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “linear b” during the group presentation.

---

liquid crystal (noun)

A liquid exhibiting properties of a crystal that are not shown by ordinary liquids.

- He looked up “liquid crystal” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “liquid crystal.”

---

literary criticism (noun)

A written evaluation of a work of literature.

- The article explained what “literary criticism” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “literary criticism” during the group presentation.

---

lord chancellor (noun)

The highest officer of the Crown who is head of the judiciary and who presides in the House of Lords.

- He looked up “lord chancellor” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “lord chancellor” during the group presentation.

---

machine politician (noun)

A politician who belongs to a small clique that controls a political party for private rather than public ends.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “machine politician.”
- He looked up “machine politician” because he had never seen it before.

---

management consultant (noun)

Adviser to business about efficient management practices.

- In class, the teacher used “management consultant” to mean adviser to business about efficient management....
- The article explained what “management consultant” means with a simple example.

---

mentions (noun)

A remark that calls attention to something or someone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mentions.”
- The article explained what “mentions” means with a simple example.

---

meter (verb)

Stamp with a meter indicating the postage.

- Meter the mail.
- Meter the flow of water.

---

mine pig (noun)

Pig iron made entirely from ore.

- The article explained what “mine pig” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mine pig.”

---

moral principle (noun)

The principles of right and wrong that are accepted by an individual or a social group.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “moral principle.”
- The article explained what “moral principle” means with a simple example.

---

most importantly (adverb)

Above and beyond all other consideration.

- Place “most importantly” carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered “most importantly,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

mutual opposition (noun)

A relation between two opposite attributes or tendencies.

- He looked up “mutual opposition” because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "mutual opposition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

negative identification (noun)

Evidence proving that you are not who you say you are not; evidence establishing that you are not among a group of people already known to the system; recognition by the system leads to rejection.

- A system for negative identification can prevent the use of multiple identities by a single person.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "negative identification."

normal curve (noun)

A symmetrical curve representing the normal distribution.

- In class, the teacher used "normal curve" to mean a symmetrical curve representing the normal....
- Understanding "normal curve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

norman french (noun)

The medieval Norman dialect of Old French.

- They discussed "norman french" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "norman french" to mean the medieval norman dialect of old french.

norman-french (noun)

The medieval Norman dialect of Old French.

- In class, the teacher used "norman-french" to mean the medieval norman dialect of old french.
- The article explained what "norman-french" means with a simple example.

office of naval intelligence (noun)

The military intelligence agency that provides for the intelligence and counterintelligence and investigative and security requirements of the United States Navy.

- Understanding "office of naval intelligence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "office of naval intelligence."

old faithful (noun)

A geyser in Yellowstone National Park that erupts for about 4 minutes about every 65 minutes.

- Understanding "old faithful" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "old faithful" during the group presentation.

open-face sandwich (noun)

Sandwich without a covering slice of bread.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "open-face sandwich."
- They discussed "open-face sandwich" during the group presentation.

parliamentary agent (noun)

A person who is employed to look after the affairs of businesses that are affected by legislation of the British Parliament.

- He looked up "parliamentary agent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parliamentary agent."

parts inventory (noun)

An inventory of replacement parts.

- Understanding "parts inventory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "parts inventory" during the group presentation.

police sergeant (noun)

A lawman with the rank of sergeant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "police sergeant."
- He looked up "police sergeant" because he had never seen it before.

political entity (noun)

A unit with political responsibilities.

- In class, the teacher used "political entity" to mean a unit with political responsibilities.
- He looked up "political entity" because he had never seen it before.

potatoes (noun)

An edible tuber native to South America; a staple food of Ireland.

- The article explained what "potatoes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "potatoes" to mean an edible tuber native to south america; a staple....

pour down (verb)

Drink down entirely.

- He downed three martinis before dinner.
- She tried to use "pour down" carefully so everyone would understand.

prevented (verb)

Keep from happening or arising; make impossible.

- Can you use "prevented" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "prevented" and when to wait.

primary care physician (noun)

The physician who provides primary care.

- The primary care physician acts as a gatekeeper to the medical system.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "primary care physician."

radiation pattern (noun)

Graphical representation (in polar or Cartesian coordinates) of the spatial distribution of radiation from an antenna as a function of angle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radiation pattern."
- He looked up "radiation pattern" because he had never seen it before.

ray robinson (noun)

United States prizefighter who won the world middleweight championship five times and the world welterweight championship once (1921-1989).

- Understanding "ray robinson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ray robinson" means with a simple example.

relief printing (noun)

Printing from a plate with raised characters.

- Understanding "relief printing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "relief printing" means with a simple example.

return on invested capital (noun)

(corporate finance) the amount, expressed as a percentage, that is earned on a company's total capital calculated by dividing the total capital into earnings before interest, taxes, or dividends are paid.

- The article explained what "return on invested capital" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "return on invested capital" to mean (corporate finance) the amount, expressed as a....

revised version (noun)

A British revision of the Authorized Version.

- In class, the teacher used "revised version" to mean a british revision of the authorized version.
- Understanding "revised version" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rocket engineer (noun)

An engineer who builds and tests rockets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rocket engineer."
- He looked up "rocket engineer" because he had never seen it before.

rogers (noun)

United States psychologist who developed client-centered therapy (1902-1987).

- He looked up "rogers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rogers."

roman calendar (noun)

The lunar calendar in use in ancient Rome; replaced by the Julian calendar in 46 BC.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roman calendar."
- They discussed "roman calendar" during the group presentation.

---

roster (noun)

A list of names.

- They discussed "roster" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "roster" because he had never seen it before.

---

saint matthew (noun)

(New Testament) disciple of Jesus; traditionally considered to be the author of the first Gospel.

- They discussed "saint matthew" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "saint matthew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

saint patrick (noun)

Apostle and patron saint of Ireland; an English missionary to Ireland in the 5th century.

- They discussed "saint patrick" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "saint patrick" means with a simple example.

---

seal of approval (noun)

An indication of approved or superior status.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seal of approval."
- The article explained what "seal of approval" means with a simple example.

---

security consultant (noun)

An adviser about alarm systems to prevent burglaries.

- The article explained what "security consultant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "security consultant" to mean an adviser about alarm systems to prevent burglaries.

---

selfish person (noun)

A person who is unusually selfish.

- They discussed "selfish person" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "selfish person" means with a simple example.

---

sergeant-at-law (noun)

An English barrister of the highest rank.

- Understanding "sergeant-at-law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sergeant-at-law" because he had never seen it before.

---

servant (noun)

A person working in the service of another (especially in the household).

- The state cannot be a servant of the church.
- The article explained what "servant" means with a simple example.

---

smash up (verb)

Damage or destroy as if by violence.

- In everyday English, people use "smash up" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "smash up" in real sentences.

---

socialist labor party (noun)

A political party in the United States; formed in 1874 to advocate the peaceful introduction of socialism.

- They discussed "socialist labor party" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "socialist labor party" to mean a political party in the united states; formed in....

---

spot jam (verb)

Jam a single frequency.

- This operator is spot-jammed.

- Learners should practice how to use "spot jam" in real sentences.

---

strictly speaking (adverb)

In actual fact.

- Properly speaking, they are not husband and wife.
- He answered "strictly speaking," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

surprisingly (adverb)

In an amazing manner; to everyone's surprise.

- He was surprisingly friendly.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "surprisingly" naturally.

---

tall tale (noun)

An improbable (unusual or incredible or fanciful) story.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tall tale."
- He looked up "tall tale" because he had never seen it before.

---

teenager (noun)

A juvenile between the onset of puberty and maturity.

- The article explained what "teenager" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "teenager" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thoroughly (adverb)

Completely and absolutely ('good' is sometimes used informally for 'thoroughly').

- We searched the files thoroughly.
- The narrator describes the scene "thoroughly" in the final chapter.

---

time slot (noun)

A time assigned on a schedule or agenda.

- The TV program has a new time slot.
- An aircraft landing slot.

---

tweeted (verb)

Make a weak, chirping sound.

- The coach explained when to use "tweeted" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "tweeted" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

vi (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of five and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vi."
- He looked up "vi" because he had never seen it before.

---

victorian age (noun)

A period in British history during the reign of Queen Victoria in the 19th century; her character and moral standards restored the prestige of the British monarchy but gave the era a prudish reputation.

- In class, the teacher used "victorian age" to mean a period in british history during the reign of....
- They discussed "victorian age" during the group presentation.

---

water witch (noun)

Someone who uses a divining rod to find underground water.

- In class, the teacher used "water witch" to mean someone who uses a divining rod to find underground....
- He looked up "water witch" because he had never seen it before.

---

weekend warrior (noun)

A reservist who fulfills the military obligation on weekends.

- The article explained what "weekend warrior" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "weekend warrior" during the group presentation.

white potato (noun)

An edible tuber native to South America; a staple food of Ireland.

- He looked up "white potato" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white potato."

will rogers (noun)

United States humorist remembered for his homespun commentary on politics and American society (1879-1935).

- Understanding "will rogers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "will rogers" to mean united states humorist remembered for his homespun....

wont (noun)

An established custom.

- In class, the teacher used "wont" to mean an established custom.
- The article explained what "wont" means with a simple example.

advances (noun)

A tentative suggestion designed to elicit the reactions of others.

- She rejected his advances.
- The article explained what "advances" means with a simple example.

american revised version (noun)

A revised version of the King James Version.

- In class, the teacher used "american revised version" to mean a revised version of the king james version.
- The article explained what "american revised version" means with a simple example.

applied scientist (noun)

A person who uses scientific knowledge to solve practical problems.

- The article explained what "applied scientist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "applied scientist" to mean a person who uses scientific knowledge to solve....

appointment calendar (noun)

A book containing a calendar and space to keep a record of appointments.

- They discussed "appointment calendar" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "appointment calendar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

approve (verb)

Judge to be right or commendable; think well of.

- I approve of his educational policies.
- In everyday English, people use "approve" when talking about this idea.

architect (noun)

Someone who creates plans to be used in making something (such as buildings).

- The article explained what "architect" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "architect" to mean someone who creates plans to be used in making....

authorized version (noun)

An English translation of the Bible published in 1611.

- The article explained what "authorized version" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "authorized version" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blue ridge (noun)

A range of the Appalachians extending from southern Pennsylvania to northern Georgia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue ridge."
- They discussed "blue ridge" during the group presentation.

brick cheese (noun)

Semisoft sweet American cheese from whole milk in a brick form.

- In class, the teacher used "brick cheese" to mean semisoft sweet american cheese from whole milk in a....
- The article explained what "brick cheese" means with a simple example.

---

bride (noun)

A woman participant in her own marriage ceremony.

- Understanding "bride" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bride" means with a simple example.

---

bride-to-be (noun)

A woman who is engaged to be married.

- Understanding "bride-to-be" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bride-to-be" because he had never seen it before.

---

broadcast journalist (noun)

A journalist who broadcasts on radio or television.

- Understanding "broadcast journalist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "broadcast journalist" means with a simple example.

---

bulk mail (noun)

Mail consisting of large numbers of identical items (circulars or advertisements) sent to individual addresses at less than 1st-class rates and paid for in one lot.

- They discussed "bulk mail" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bulk mail" because he had never seen it before.

---

butler (noun)

A manservant (usually the head servant of a household) who has charge of wines and the table.

- In class, the teacher used "butler" to mean a manservant (usually the head servant of a....
- The article explained what "butler" means with a simple example.

---

caribbean language (noun)

The family of languages spoken by the Carib.

- They discussed "caribbean language" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "caribbean language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cartoon (noun)

A humorous or satirical drawing published in a newspaper or magazine.

- Understanding "cartoon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cartoon" means with a simple example.

---

chick (noun)

Informal terms for a (young) woman.

- He looked up "chick" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chocolate candy (noun)

Candy made with chocolate.

- They discussed "chocolate candy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chocolate candy" means with a simple example.

---

chocolate sauce (noun)

Sauce made with unsweetened chocolate or cocoa and sugar and water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chocolate sauce."
- The article explained what "chocolate sauce" means with a simple example.

---

cognitive process (noun)

(psychology) the performance of some composite cognitive activity; an operation that affects mental contents.

- The process of thinking.

- The cognitive operation of remembering.

coke (noun)

Carbon fuel produced by distillation of coal.

- He looked up "coke" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coke."

combined dna index system (noun)

The DNA file maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "combined dna index system."
- They discussed "combined dna index system" during the group presentation.

confirmation (noun)

Making something valid by formally ratifying or confirming it.

- Confirmation of the appointment.
- Fossils provided further confirmation of the evolutionary theory.

conservation of electricity (noun)

The principle that the total electric charge of a system remains constant despite changes inside the system.

- The article explained what "conservation of electricity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "conservation of electricity" to mean the principle that the total electric charge of a....

date stamp (verb)

Stamp with a date.

- The package is dated November 24.
- He did not know how to use "date stamp" until he saw an example.

dental gold (noun)

An alloy of gold used in dentistry.

- In class, the teacher used "dental gold" to mean an alloy of gold used in dentistry.
- The article explained what "dental gold" means with a simple example.

diamond wedding anniversary (noun)

The 60th wedding anniversary.

- In class, the teacher used "diamond wedding anniversary" to mean the 60th wedding anniversary.
- The article explained what "diamond wedding anniversary" means with a simple example.

drum major (noun)

The leader of a marching band or drum corps.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drum major."
- They discussed "drum major" during the group presentation.

dump (noun)

A coarse term for defecation.

- An ammunition dump.
- In class, the teacher used "dump" to mean a coarse term for defecation.

duo (noun)

A pair who associate with one another.

- He looked up "duo" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "duo."

dynamics (noun)

The branch of mechanics concerned with the forces that cause motions of bodies.

- He looked up "dynamics" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dynamics" during the group presentation.

editorial department (noun)

The department of a publishing business that edits material for publication.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "editorial department."
- He looked up "editorial department" because he had never seen it before.

---

elephant (noun)

The symbol of the Republican Party; introduced in cartoons by Thomas Nast in 1874.

- The article explained what "elephant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "elephant" to mean the symbol of the republican party; introduced in....

---

essays (noun)

An analytic or interpretive literary composition.

- He looked up "essays" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "essays" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fathers (noun)

A person who founds or establishes some institution.

- Keep the faith of our forefathers.
- The tennis fathers ruled in her favor.

---

focuses (noun)

The concentration of attention or energy on something.

- He looked up "focuses" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "focuses."

---

fold (noun)

An angular or rounded shape made by folding.

- A fold in the napkin.
- He gave the napkins a double fold.

---

fold up (verb)

Bend or lay so that one part covers the other.

- Fold up the newspaper.
- The bed folds in a jiffy.

---

freak out (noun)

A wild delusion (especially one induced by a hallucinogenic drug).

- The article explained what "freak out" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freak out."

---

gently (adverb)

With little weight or force.

- A gently sloping terrain.
- He talked gently to the injured animal.

---

grief (noun)

Something that causes great unhappiness.

- Her death was a great grief to John.
- The article explained what "grief" means with a simple example.

---

harrison (noun)

English actor on stage and in films (1908-1990).

- In class, the teacher used "harrison" to mean english actor on stage and in films (1908-1990).
- Understanding "harrison" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

historically (adverb)

With respect to history.

- This is historically interesting.
- Historically they have never coexisted peacefully.

---

house servant (noun)

A servant who is paid to perform menial tasks around the household.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house servant."
- Understanding "house servant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hughes (noun)

United States jurist who served as chief justice of the United States Supreme Court (1862-1948).

- Understanding "hughes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hughes" because he had never seen it before.

---

influential person (noun)

A person whose actions and opinions strongly influence the course of events.

- Understanding "influential person" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "influential person" because he had never seen it before.

---

kg (noun)

One thousand grams; the basic unit of mass adopted under the Systeme International d'Unites.

- In class, the teacher used "kg" to mean one thousand grams; the basic unit of mass adopted....
- Understanding "kg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

labels (noun)

A brief description given for purposes of identification.

- The article explained what "labels" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labels."

---

lady jane grey (noun)

Queen of England for nine days in 1553; she was quickly replaced by Mary Tudor and beheaded for treason (1537-1554).

- They discussed "lady jane grey" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lady jane grey" to mean queen of england for nine days in 1553; she was....

---

layout (noun)

A plan or design of something that is laid out.

- He looked up "layout" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "layout."

---

legal separation (noun)

A judicial decree regulating the rights and responsibilities of a married couple living apart.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal separation."
- The article explained what "legal separation" means with a simple example.

---

leo iii (noun)

Italian pope from 795 to 816 who in 800 crowned Charlemagne emperor of the Romans (750-816).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leo iii."
- The article explained what "leo iii" means with a simple example.

---

liberal democrat party (noun)

A political party in Great Britain; formerly the Liberal Party; advocates reforms and improvement of the conditions of working people.

- In class, the teacher used "liberal democrat party" to mean a political party in great britain; formerly the....
- He looked up "liberal democrat party" because he had never seen it before.

---

lodge (noun)

A formal association of people with similar interests.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lodge."
- He looked up "lodge" because he had never seen it before.

lodge in (verb)

Live (in a certain place).

- She tried to use "lodge in" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "lodge in" in real sentences.

lord high chancellor (noun)

The highest officer of the Crown who is head of the judiciary and who presides in the House of Lords.

- Understanding "lord high chancellor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lord high chancellor" because he had never seen it before.

lords (noun)

A person who has general authority over others.

- Understanding "lords" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lords" means with a simple example.

marine corps (noun)

An amphibious division of the United States Navy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marine corps."
- They discussed "marine corps" during the group presentation.

mathematics teacher (noun)

Someone who teaches mathematics.

- In class, the teacher used "mathematics teacher" to mean someone who teaches mathematics.
- He looked up "mathematics teacher" because he had never seen it before.

merchant (noun)

A businessperson engaged in retail trade.

- He looked up "merchant" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "merchant."

myth (noun)

A traditional story accepted as history; serves to explain the world view of a people.

- In class, the teacher used "myth" to mean a traditional story accepted as history; serves to....
- Understanding "myth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

objectives (noun)

The goal intended to be attained (and which is believed to be attainable).

- Understanding "objectives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "objectives" to mean the goal intended to be attained (and which is....

particles (noun)

A function word that can be used in English to form phrasal verbs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "particles."
- The article explained what "particles" means with a simple example.

pastor (noun)

A person authorized to conduct religious worship.

- They discussed "pastor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pastor" means with a simple example.

permanently (adverb)

For a long time without essential change.

- He is permanently disabled.
- The narrator describes the scene "permanently" in the final chapter.

pink slip (noun)

Official notice that you have been fired from your job.

- In class, the teacher used "pink slip" to mean official notice that you have been fired from your job.
- The article explained what "pink slip" means with a simple example.

---

pockets (noun)

A small isolated group of people.

- They were concentrated in pockets inside the city.
- The battle was won except for cleaning up pockets of resistance.

---

predict (verb)

Make a prediction about; tell in advance.

- In everyday English, people use "predict" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "predict" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

presenting (verb)

Give an exhibition of to an interested audience.

- Can you use "presenting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "presenting" when talking about this idea.

---

prints (noun)

The text appearing in a book, newspaper, or other printed publication.

- Paw prints were everywhere.
- In class, the teacher used "prints" to mean the text appearing in a book, newspaper, or other....

---

provincial (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) an official in charge of an ecclesiastical province acting under the superior general of a religious order.

- The general of the Jesuits receives monthly reports from the provincials.
- They discussed "provincial" during the group presentation.

---

public servant (noun)

Someone who holds a government position (either by election or appointment).

- Understanding "public servant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "public servant" during the group presentation.

---

samuel johnson (noun)

English writer and lexicographer (1709-1784).

- In class, the teacher used "samuel johnson" to mean english writer and lexicographer (1709-1784).
- The article explained what "samuel johnson" means with a simple example.

---

securities and exchange commission (noun)

An independent federal agency that oversees the exchange of securities to protect investors.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "securities and exchange commission."
- He looked up "securities and exchange commission" because he had never seen it before.

---

self-report inventory (noun)

A personality inventory in which a person is asked which of a list of traits and characteristics describe her or him or to indicate which behaviors and hypothetical choices he or she would make.

- They discussed "self-report inventory" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "self-report inventory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

separately (adverb)

Apart from others.

- She spoke "separately," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- The narrator describes the scene "separately" in the final chapter.

---

sergeant first class (noun)

A sergeant in the Army above the rank of staff sergeant and below master sergeant.

- The article explained what "sergeant first class" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sergeant first class."

---

sergeant major (noun)

A noncommissioned officer serving as chief administrative officer of a headquarters unit of the Army.

- He looked up "sergeant major" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sergeant major" during the group presentation.

---

shaw (noun)

United States physician and suffragist (1847-1919).

- The article explained what "shaw" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "shaw" during the group presentation.

---

societies (noun)

A formal association of people with similar interests.

- Understanding "societies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "societies" means with a simple example.

---

south southwest (noun)

The compass point midway between south and southwest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south southwest."
- They discussed "south southwest" during the group presentation.

---

south-southwest (adverb)

To, toward, or in the south southwest.

- She spoke "south-southwest," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- The narrator describes the scene "south-southwest" in the final chapter.

---

southwest by south (noun)

The compass point that is one point south of southwest.

- In class, the teacher used "southwest by south" to mean the compass point that is one point south of southwest.
- Understanding "southwest by south" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stamp act (noun)

An act passed by the British Parliament in 1756 that raised revenue from the American Colonies by a duty in the form of a stamp required on all newspapers and legal or commercial documents; opposition by the Colonies resulted in the repeal of the act in 1766.

- They discussed "stamp act" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "stamp act" to mean an act passed by the british parliament in 1756....

---

stock farmer (noun)

Farmer who breed or raises livestock.

- They discussed "stock farmer" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "stock farmer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

straight arrow (noun)

A frank and honest person.

- They discussed "straight arrow" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "straight arrow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

structural iron (noun)

Iron that has been cast or worked in structural shapes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "structural iron."
- He looked up "structural iron" because he had never seen it before.

---

tragic (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of tragedy.

- Tragic hero.
- Students compared "tragic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

turn one's stomach (verb)

Upset and make nauseated.

- The smell of the food turned the pregnant woman's stomach.
- She tried to use "turn one's stomach" carefully so everyone would understand.

underneath (adverb)

On the lower or downward side; on the underside of.

- A chest of drawers all scratched underneath.
- We could see the original painting underneath.

us marine corps (noun)

An amphibious division of the United States Navy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "us marine corps."
- He looked up "us marine corps" because he had never seen it before.

variable star (noun)

A star that varies noticeably in brightness.

- He looked up "variable star" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "variable star" to mean a star that varies noticeably in brightness.

wash one's hands (verb)

To absolve oneself of responsibility or future blame.

- I wash my hands of this.
- Can you use "wash one's hands" in a sentence that fits this situation?

water lemon (noun)

The edible yellow fruit of the Jamaica honeysuckle.

- Understanding "water lemon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "water lemon" means with a simple example.

western sandwich (noun)

A sandwich made from a western omelet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western sandwich."
- The article explained what "western sandwich" means with a simple example.

widow (noun)

A woman whose husband is dead especially one who has not remarried.

- Understanding "widow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "widow" because he had never seen it before.

william morris (noun)

English poet and craftsman (1834-1896).

- They discussed "william morris" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "william morris" because he had never seen it before.

wives (noun)

A married woman; a man's partner in marriage.

- In class, the teacher used "wives" to mean a married woman; a man's partner in marriage.
- They discussed "wives" during the group presentation.

women's army corps (noun)

An army corps that was organized in World War II but is no longer a separate branch of the United States Army.

- Understanding "women's army corps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "women's army corps" to mean an army corps that was organized in world war ii....

administrator (noun)

The party appointed by a probate court to distribute the estate of someone who dies without a will or without naming an executor.

- They discussed "administrator" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "administrator."

alaska native (noun)

A member or descendant of any of the aboriginal peoples of Alaska.

- He looked up "alaska native" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alaska native."

allied (adjective)

Of or relating to or denoting the Allies in World War I.

- An allied offensive.
- The Allied powers.

altogether (adverb)

To a complete degree or to the full or entire extent ('whole' is often used informally for 'wholly').

- It was not altogether her fault.
- An altogether new approach.

arrest warrant (noun)

A warrant authorizing law enforcement officials to apprehend an offender and bring that person to court.

- He looked up "arrest warrant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "arrest warrant" during the group presentation.

assess (verb)

Estimate the value of (property) for taxation.

- Our house hasn't been assessed in years.
- The coach explained when to use "assess" and when to wait.

avoided (verb)

Prevent the occurrence of; prevent from happening.

- Learners should practice how to use "avoided" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "avoided" and when to wait.

avoiding (verb)

Prevent the occurrence of; prevent from happening.

- In everyday English, people use "avoiding" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "avoiding" in real sentences.

beard (verb)

Go along the rim, like a beard around the chin.

- Houses bearded the top of the heights.
- Learners should practice how to use "beard" in real sentences.

bitter orange (noun)

Highly acidic orange used especially in marmalade.

- He looked up "bitter orange" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bitter orange."

black olive (noun)

Olives picked ripe and cured in brine then dried or pickled or preserved canned or in oil.

- He looked up "black olive" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "black olive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

brains (noun)

The brain of certain animals used as meat.

- He's got plenty of brains but no common sense.

- The article explained what "brains" means with a simple example.

brush aside (verb)

Bar from attention or consideration.

- Learners should practice how to use "brush aside" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "brush aside" until he saw an example.

buffalo indian (noun)

A member of one of the tribes of American Indians who lived a nomadic life following the buffalo in the Great Plains of North America.

- Understanding "buffalo indian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "buffalo indian" because he had never seen it before.

burger (noun)

A sandwich consisting of a fried cake of minced beef served on a bun, often with other ingredients.

- They discussed "burger" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "burger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

catch one's breath (verb)

Take a short break from one's activities in order to relax.

- He did not know how to use "catch one's breath" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "catch one's breath" when talking about this idea.

chemical substance (noun)

Material produced by or used in a reaction involving changes in atoms or molecules.

- He looked up "chemical substance" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chemical substance" to mean material produced by or used in a reaction....

church of christ scientist (noun)

Protestant denomination founded by Mary Baker Eddy in 1866.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "church of christ scientist."
- Understanding "church of christ scientist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

closed curve (noun)

A curve (such as a circle) having no endpoints.

- The article explained what "closed curve" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "closed curve" during the group presentation.

commented (verb)

Provide interlinear explanations for words or phrases.

- He commented the paper of his colleague.
- She tried to use "commented" carefully so everyone would understand.

concentrate (noun)

A concentrated example of something.

- The concentrate of contemporary despair.
- He looked up "concentrate" because he had never seen it before.

concentrate on (verb)

Center upon.

- He did not know how to use "concentrate on" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "concentrate on" carefully so everyone would understand.

continent (noun)

One of the large landmasses of the earth.

- There are seven continents.
- Pioneers had to cross the continent on foot.

cookie (noun)

A short line of text that a web site puts on your computer's hard drive when you access the web site.

- He looked up "cookie" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cookie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

corn sugar (noun)

Dextrose made by hydrolysis of cornstarch.

- He looked up "corn sugar" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "corn sugar" to mean dextrose made by hydrolysis of cornstarch.

curse (verb)

Exclude from a church or a religious community.

- The taxi driver who felt he didn't get a high enough tip cursed the passenger.
- The bad witch cursed the child.

defence mechanism (noun)

(psychiatry) an unconscious process that tries to reduce the anxiety associated with instinctive desires.

- The article explained what "defence mechanism" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "defence mechanism" during the group presentation.

detective novel (noun)

Novel in which the reader is challenged to solve a puzzle before the detective explains it at the end.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "detective novel."
- The article explained what "detective novel" means with a simple example.

easter card (noun)

A card expressing an Easter greeting.

- In class, the teacher used "easter card" to mean a card expressing an easter greeting.
- The article explained what "easter card" means with a simple example.

epic poetry (noun)

Poetry celebrating the deeds of some hero.

- Understanding "epic poetry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "epic poetry" because he had never seen it before.

ethical (adjective)

Of or relating to the philosophical study of ethics.

- Ethical codes.
- Ethical theories.

ethnic minority (noun)

A group that has different national or cultural traditions from the majority of the population.

- He looked up "ethnic minority" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ethnic minority."

excellence (noun)

An outstanding feature; something in which something or someone excels.

- A center of manufacturing excellence.
- He looked up "excellence" because he had never seen it before.

federal protective service (noun)

An agency in the General Services Administration that is a security organization to provide a safe environment where Federal agencies can conduct their business.

- They discussed "federal protective service" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "federal protective service" to mean an agency in the general services administration....

flame (noun)

The process of combustion of inflammable materials producing heat and light and (often) smoke.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flame."
- The article explained what "flame" means with a simple example.

---

flame up (verb)

Burn brightly.

- The coach explained when to use "flame up" and when to wait.
- Can you use "flame up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

freely (adverb)

In a free manner.

- The painting featured freely brushed strokes.
- The narrator describes the scene "freely" in the final chapter.

---

fruits (noun)

The consequence of some effort or action.

- The article explained what "fruits" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fruits" to mean the consequence of some effort or action.

---

gentleman-at-arms (noun)

One of 40 gentlemen who attend the British sovereign on state occasions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gentleman-at-arms."
- He looked up "gentleman-at-arms" because he had never seen it before.

---

graduation (noun)

A line (as on a vessel or ruler) that marks a measurement.

- The ruler had 16 graduations per inch.
- Understanding "graduation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gravity fault (noun)

An inclined fault in which the hanging wall appears to have slipped downward relative to the footwall.

- Understanding "gravity fault" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gravity fault."

---

grey sole (noun)

Greyish-white flesh of a flatfish.

- In class, the teacher used "grey sole" to mean greyish-white flesh of a flatfish.
- The article explained what "grey sole" means with a simple example.

---

hint (noun)

A slight but appreciable amount.

- The article explained what "hint" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hint" during the group presentation.

---

hostile (noun)

Troops belonging to the enemy's military forces.

- The platoon ran into a pack of hostiles.
- He looked up "hostile" because he had never seen it before.

---

house of lords (noun)

The upper house of the British parliament.

- They discussed "house of lords" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "house of lords" to mean the upper house of the british parliament.

---

hunger march (noun)

A march of protest or demonstration by the unemployed.

- He looked up "hunger march" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hunger march" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

inhabitants (noun)

A person who inhabits a particular place.

- The article explained what "inhabitants" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "inhabitants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ink (noun)

A liquid used for printing or writing or drawing.

- He looked up "ink" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ink" to mean a liquid used for printing or writing or drawing.

ion exchange (noun)

A process in which ions are exchanged between a solution and an insoluble (usually resinous) solid; widely used in industrial processing.

- They discussed "ion exchange" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ion exchange" to mean a process in which ions are exchanged between a....

lead ore (noun)

Ore containing lead.

- Understanding "lead ore" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lead ore" because he had never seen it before.

learning curve (noun)

A graph showing the rate of learning (especially a graph showing the amount recalled as a function of the number of attempts to recall).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "learning curve."
- They discussed "learning curve" during the group presentation.

legends (noun)

A story about mythical or supernatural beings or events.

- In class, the teacher used "legends" to mean a story about mythical or supernatural beings or events.
- They discussed "legends" during the group presentation.

lieutenant junior grade (noun)

An officer holding a commissioned rank in the United States Navy or United States Coast Guard; below lieutenant and above ensign.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lieutenant junior grade."
- He looked up "lieutenant junior grade" because he had never seen it before.

logical operation (noun)

An operation that follows the rules of symbolic logic.

- In class, the teacher used "logical operation" to mean an operation that follows the rules of symbolic logic.
- Understanding "logical operation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

magazines (noun)

A business firm that publishes magazines.

- Tripped over a pile of magazines.
- They discussed "magazines" during the group presentation.

monkey (verb)

Do random, unplanned work or activities or spend time idly.

- He did not know how to use "monkey" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "monkey" in a sentence that fits this situation?

nest (noun)

A gang of people (criminals or spies or terrorists) assembled in one locality.

- A nest of thieves.
- A machine-gun nest.

new testament (noun)

The collection of books of the Gospels, Acts of the Apostles, the Pauline and other epistles, and Revelation; composed soon after Christ's death; the second half of the Christian Bible.

- They discussed "new testament" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "new testament" to mean the collection of books of the gospels, acts of the....

---

news leak (noun)

Unauthorized (especially deliberate) disclosure of confidential information.

- Understanding "news leak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "news leak" to mean unauthorized (especially deliberate) disclosure of....

---

nicely (adverb)

In a nice way.

- A nicely painted house.
- She spoke "nicely," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

ninth (noun)

Position nine in a countable series of things.

- Going into the ninth they were a run ahead.
- They discussed "ninth" during the group presentation.

---

notable (noun)

A celebrity who is an inspiration to others.

- The article explained what "notable" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "notable" to mean a celebrity who is an inspiration to others.

---

one-ninth (noun)

One part in nine equal parts.

- In class, the teacher used "one-ninth" to mean one part in nine equal parts.
- He looked up "one-ninth" because he had never seen it before.

---

optical (adjective)

Of or relating to or involving light or optics.

- Optical supplies.
- An optical illusion.

---

organic chemistry (noun)

The chemistry of compounds containing carbon (originally defined as the chemistry of substances produced by living organisms but now extended to substances synthesized artificially).

- The article explained what "organic chemistry" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "organic chemistry" during the group presentation.

---

outlook (noun)

A habitual or characteristic mental attitude that determines how you will interpret and respond to situations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "outlook."
- Understanding "outlook" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

programmes (noun)

An integrated course of academic studies.

- They discussed "programmes" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "programmes" means with a simple example.

---

progressive aspect (noun)

The aspect of a verb that expresses its on-going action.

- The article explained what "progressive aspect" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "progressive aspect" to mean the aspect of a verb that expresses its on-going action.

---

prospects (noun)

The visual percept of a region.

- His prospects as a writer are excellent.

- They discussed "prospects" during the group presentation.

---

reign (noun)

The period during which a monarch is sovereign.

- During the reign of Henry VIII.
- He was helpless under the reign of his egotism.

---

sectors (noun)

A social group that forms part of the society or the economy.

- The article explained what "sectors" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sectors" to mean a social group that forms part of the society or....

---

servant girl (noun)

A girl who is a servant.

- The article explained what "servant girl" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "servant girl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

serving dish (noun)

A dish used for serving food.

- He looked up "serving dish" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "serving dish" to mean a dish used for serving food.

---

sir robert robinson (noun)

English chemist noted for his studies of molecular structures in plants (1886-1975).

- In class, the teacher used "sir robert robinson" to mean english chemist noted for his studies of molecular....
- The article explained what "sir robert robinson" means with a simple example.

---

soldier of fortune (noun)

A person hired to fight for another country than their own.

- Understanding "soldier of fortune" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "soldier of fortune" during the group presentation.

---

southwest by west (noun)

The compass point that is one point west of southwest.

- Understanding "southwest by west" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "southwest by west" means with a simple example.

---

span (verb)

To cover or extend over an area or time period; ,.

- The parking lot spans 3 acres.
- The novel spans three centuries.

---

spencer (noun)

English philosopher and sociologist who applied the theory of natural selection to human societies (1820-1903).

- Understanding "spencer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "spencer" during the group presentation.

---

structural steel (noun)

A strong steel that is rolled into shapes that are used in construction.

- In class, the teacher used "structural steel" to mean a strong steel that is rolled into shapes that are....
- The article explained what "structural steel" means with a simple example.

---

taste perception (noun)

The sensation that results when taste buds in the tongue and throat convey information about the chemical composition of a soluble stimulus.

- The candy left him with a bad taste.
- The melon had a delicious taste.

---

tear sheet (noun)

A sheet that can be easily torn out of a publication.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tear sheet."
- The article explained what "tear sheet" means with a simple example.

testament (noun)

A legal document declaring a person's wishes regarding the disposal of their property when they die.

- He stated his political testament.
- His easy victory was a testament to his skill.

thomas hunt morgan (noun)

United States biologist who formulated the chromosome theory of heredity (1866-1945).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thomas hunt morgan."
- The article explained what "thomas hunt morgan" means with a simple example.

tobacco user (noun)

A person who smokes tobacco.

- He looked up "tobacco user" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tobacco user."

toll-free (adjective)

Having no toll levied for its use.

- A toll-free road.
- A toll-free telephone number.

tom collins (noun)

Tall iced drink of liquor (usually gin) with fruit juice.

- Understanding "tom collins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tom collins" because he had never seen it before.

west southwest (noun)

The compass point midway between west and southwest.

- The article explained what "west southwest" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "west southwest."

ab (noun)

A bachelor's degree in arts and sciences.

- The article explained what "ab" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ab" during the group presentation.

addressing (verb)

Greet, as with a prescribed form, title, or name.

- The coach explained when to use "addressing" and when to wait.
- Can you use "addressing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

allegedly (adverb)

According to what has been alleged.

- He was on trial for allegedly murdering his wife.
- The narrator describes the scene "allegedly" in the final chapter.

ar (noun)

A unit of surface area equal to 100 square meters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ar."
- Understanding "ar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

assure (verb)

Inform positively and with certainty and confidence.

- I assured him that traveling to Cambodia was safe.
- The airline tried to reassure the customers that the planes were safe.

---

bad fairy (noun)

A fairy that tends to cause harm.

- Understanding "bad fairy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bad fairy."

---

bag of tricks (noun)

A supply of ways of accomplishing something.

- Every good mechanic has a large bag of tricks.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bag of tricks."

---

batteries (noun)

A collection of related things intended for use together.

- The article explained what "batteries" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "batteries" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

be intimate (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- Were you ever intimate with this man?
- The coach explained when to use "be intimate" and when to wait.

---

biological clock (noun)

An innate mechanism in living organisms that controls the periodicity of many physiological functions.

- They discussed "biological clock" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "biological clock" because he had never seen it before.

---

boundary condition (noun)

(mathematics) a condition specified for the solution to a set of differential equations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boundary condition."
- The article explained what "boundary condition" means with a simple example.

---

candy egg (noun)

Egg-shaped candy.

- Understanding "candy egg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "candy egg."

---

catherine ii (noun)

Empress of Russia who greatly increased the territory of the empire (1729-1796).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "catherine ii."
- They discussed "catherine ii" during the group presentation.

---

chambers (noun)

English architect (1723-1796).

- The chambers of his heart were healthy.
- The article explained what "chambers" means with a simple example.

---

cheat on (verb)

Be sexually unfaithful to one's partner in marriage.

- She cheats on her husband.
- She tried to use "cheat on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

classical greek (noun)

The dialect of Ancient Greek spoken and written in Attica and Athens and Ionia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "classical greek."
- Understanding "classical greek" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

classical latin (noun)

The language of educated people in ancient Rome.

- Latin is a language as dead as dead can be. It killed the ancient Romans–and now it's killing me.
- They discussed "classical latin" during the group presentation.

closet queen (noun)

A negative term for a homosexual man who chooses not to reveal his sexual orientation.

- In class, the teacher used "closet queen" to mean a negative term for a homosexual man who chooses....
- The article explained what "closet queen" means with a simple example.

cognitive content (noun)

The sum or range of what has been perceived, discovered, or learned.

- They discussed "cognitive content" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cognitive content" to mean the sum or range of what has been perceived,....

compact (verb)

Make more compact by or as if by pressing.

- This powder compacts easily.
- He did not know how to use "compact" until he saw an example.

consulting (verb)

Have a conference in order to talk something over.

- She tried to use "consulting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "consulting" and when to wait.

control freak (noun)

Someone with a compulsive desire to exert control over situations and people.

- Understanding "control freak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "control freak" during the group presentation.

demo (noun)

A visual presentation showing how something works.

- The lecture was accompanied by dramatic demonstrations.
- The lecturer shot off a pistol as a demonstration of the startle response.

demon (noun)

An evil supernatural being.

- He worked like a demon to finish the job on time.
- She's a demon at math.

diplomatic minister (noun)

A diplomat representing one government to another; ranks below ambassador.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diplomatic minister."
- They discussed "diplomatic minister" during the group presentation.

draw a blank (verb)

Be unable to remember.

- I'm drawing a blank.
- Can you use "draw a blank" in a sentence that fits this situation?

duke of edinburgh (noun)

Englishman and husband of Elizabeth II (born 1921).

- He looked up "duke of edinburgh" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "duke of edinburgh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dust jacket (noun)

A paper jacket for a book; a jacket on which promotional information is usually printed.

- Understanding "dust jacket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dust jacket."

easter sunday (noun)

The day (in March or April) on which the festival of Easter is celebrated.

- He looked up "easter sunday" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "easter sunday" during the group presentation.

elder (noun)

A person who is older than you are.

- Understanding "elder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "elder" because he had never seen it before.

expertise (noun)

Skillfulness by virtue of possessing special knowledge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "expertise."
- He looked up "expertise" because he had never seen it before.

fairy story (noun)

A story about fairies; told to amuse children.

- Understanding "fairy story" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fairy story" means with a simple example.

feed grain (noun)

Grain grown for cattle feed.

- They discussed "feed grain" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "feed grain" means with a simple example.

fish-liver oil (noun)

A fatty oil obtained from the livers of various fish.

- They discussed "fish-liver oil" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fish-liver oil" to mean a fatty oil obtained from the livers of various fish.

fly ash (noun)

Fine solid particles of ash that are carried into the air when fuel is combusted.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fly ash."
- They discussed "fly ash" during the group presentation.

frozen foods (noun)

Food preserved by freezing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frozen foods."
- Understanding "frozen foods" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gambling system (noun)

A system of rules for placing bets that is believed to lead to winning.

- He has a perfect gambling system at roulette.
- In class, the teacher used "gambling system" to mean a system of rules for placing bets that is believed....

grass roots (noun)

The essential foundation or source.

- The problem was attacked at the grass roots.
- The article explained what "grass roots" means with a simple example.

gray sole (noun)

Greyish-white flesh of a flatfish.

- Understanding "gray sole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "gray sole" during the group presentation.

gross ton (noun)

A British unit of weight equivalent to 2240 pounds.

- The article explained what "gross ton" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gross ton."

group dynamics (noun)

The branch of social psychology that studies the psychodynamics of interaction in social groups.

- They discussed "group dynamics" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "group dynamics" means with a simple example.

halfway (adverb)

At half the distance; at the middle.

- He was halfway down the ladder when he fell.
- Place "halfway" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

holmes (noun)

A fictitious detective in stories by A. Conan Doyle.

- In class, the teacher used "holmes" to mean a fictitious detective in stories by a. conan doyle.
- They discussed "holmes" during the group presentation.

independent variable (noun)

(statistics) a variable whose values are independent of changes in the values of other variables.

- Understanding "independent variable" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "independent variable."

independently (adverb)

On your own; without outside help.

- The children worked on the project independently.
- Using "independently" can make your explanation more exact.

indication (noun)

A datum about some physical state that is presented to a user by a meter or similar instrument.

- The barometer gave clear indications of an approaching storm.
- An indication of foul play.

insisted (verb)

Be emphatic or resolute and refuse to budge.

- In everyday English, people use "insisted" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "insisted" in a sentence that fits this situation?

instances (noun)

An item of information that is typical of a class or group.

- Understanding "instances" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "instances" means with a simple example.

intensive (noun)

A modifier that has little meaning except to intensify the meaning it modifies.

- The article explained what "intensive" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "intensive" to mean a modifier that has little meaning except to....

intimate (noun)

Someone to whom private matters are confided.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intimate."
- They discussed "intimate" during the group presentation.

islamic calendar (noun)

The lunar calendar used by Muslims; dates from 622 AD (the year of the Hegira); the beginning of the Muslim year retrogresses through the solar year completing the cycle every 32 years.

- In class, the teacher used "islamic calendar" to mean the lunar calendar used by muslims; dates from 622....
- The article explained what "islamic calendar" means with a simple example.

---

lbs (noun)

16 ounces avoirdupois.

- The article explained what "lbs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lbs" to mean 16 ounces avoirdupois.

---

lemon oil (noun)

Fragrant yellow oil obtained from the lemon peel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lemon oil."
- He looked up "lemon oil" because he had never seen it before.

---

letters patent (noun)

An official document granting a right or privilege.

- The article explained what "letters patent" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "letters patent" during the group presentation.

---

linear unit (noun)

A unit of measurement of length.

- They discussed "linear unit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "linear unit" means with a simple example.

---

meat pie (noun)

Pie made with meat or fowl enclosed in pastry or covered with pastry or biscuit dough.

- They discussed "meat pie" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "meat pie" to mean pie made with meat or fowl enclosed in pastry or....

---

merit system (noun)

The system of employing and promoting civil servants on the basis of ability.

- In class, the teacher used "merit system" to mean the system of employing and promoting civil....
- The article explained what "merit system" means with a simple example.

---

monkey around (verb)

Do random, unplanned work or activities or spend time idly.

- She tried to use "monkey around" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "monkey around" in real sentences.

---

nigerian (adjective)

Of or relating to Nigeria.

- The Nigerian capital used to be Lagos.
- A Nigerian novelist won the Nobel Prize for literature this year.

---

norman thomas (noun)

United States socialist who was a candidate for president six times (1884-1968).

- The article explained what "norman thomas" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "norman thomas" during the group presentation.

---

observe (verb)

Observe with care or pay close attention to.

- She observed that his presentation took up too much time.
- Please observe the reaction of these two chemicals.

---

oil-water interface (noun)

An interface forming the boundary between the non-miscible liquids oil and water.

- The article explained what "oil-water interface" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "oil-water interface" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

old testament (noun)

The collection of books comprising the sacred scripture of the Hebrews and recording their history as the chosen people; the first half of the Christian Bible.

- In class, the teacher used "old testament" to mean the collection of books comprising the sacred....
- He looked up "old testament" because he had never seen it before.

---

ore bed (noun)

A stratum of ore.

- The article explained what "ore bed" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ore bed."

---

panels (noun)

A committee appointed to judge a competition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "panels."
- He looked up "panels" because he had never seen it before.

---

phil anderson (noun)

United States physicist who studied the electronic structure of magnetic and disordered systems (1923-).

- They discussed "phil anderson" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phil anderson."

---

physical entity (noun)

An entity that has physical existence.

- Understanding "physical entity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "physical entity" during the group presentation.

---

pin bone (noun)

Part of the sirloin between the flat bone and the porterhouse.

- They discussed "pin bone" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pin bone."

---

politically (adverb)

With regard to social relationships involving authority.

- Politically correct clothing.
- Politically organized units.

---

president harrison (noun)

23rd President of the United States (1833-1901).

- He looked up "president harrison" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "president harrison" during the group presentation.

---

presumably (adverb)

By reasonable assumption.

- Presumably, he missed the train.
- He answered "presumably," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

problem-oriented language (noun)

A language whose statements resemble terminology of the user.

- He looked up "problem-oriented language" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "problem-oriented language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

proves (verb)

Put to the test, as for its quality, or give experimental use to.

- He did not know how to use "proves" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "proves" and when to wait.

pull the plug (verb)

Prevent from happening or continuing.

- The government pulled the plug on spending.
- The coach explained when to use "pull the plug" and when to wait.

real matrix (noun)

A matrix whose elements are all real numbers.

- The article explained what "real matrix" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "real matrix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

realm (noun)

A knowledge domain that you are interested in or are communicating about.

- It was a limited realm of discourse.
- The realm of the occult.

riot act (noun)

A former English law requiring mobs to disperse after a magistrate reads the law to them.

- I read him the riot act.
- He looked up "riot act" because he had never seen it before.

ripped (verb)

Criticize or abuse strongly and violently.

- The candidate ripped into his opponent mercilessly.
- The curtain ripped from top to bottom.

roman emperor (noun)

Sovereign of the Roman Empire.

- The article explained what "roman emperor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "roman emperor" during the group presentation.

rope in (verb)

Divide by means of a rope.

- The police roped off the area where the crime occurred.
- The agent had roped in several customers.

rope up (verb)

Attach to one another, for safety.

- The mountaineers roped up when they started the final ascent.
- In everyday English, people use "rope up" when talking about this idea.

salt-rising bread (noun)

White wheat bread raised by a salt-tolerant bacterium in a mixture of salt and either cornmeal or potato pulp.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salt-rising bread."
- He looked up "salt-rising bread" because he had never seen it before.

shadows (noun)

An indication that something has been present.

- They discussed "shadows" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "shadows" because he had never seen it before.

shark oil (noun)

A fatty yellow to brown oil obtained from the livers of sharks; used for dressing leather and as a source of vitamin A.

- They discussed "shark oil" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "shark oil" to mean a fatty yellow to brown oil obtained from the....

shout (noun)

A loud utterance; often in protest or opposition.

- They discussed "shout" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "shout" to mean a loud utterance; often in protest or opposition.

---

shout out (verb)

Utter in a very loud voice.

- In everyday English, people use "shout out" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "shout out" in real sentences.

---

skip-bomb (verb)

Attack with delayed release bombs.

- Learners should practice how to use "skip-bomb" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "skip-bomb" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

spectacular (noun)

A lavishly produced performance.

- They put on a Christmas spectacular.
- They discussed "spectacular" during the group presentation.

---

spirits of wine (noun)

Rectified ethyl alcohol.

- In class, the teacher used "spirits of wine" to mean rectified ethyl alcohol.
- The article explained what "spirits of wine" means with a simple example.

---

spreading factor (noun)

An enzyme (trade name Hyazyme) that splits hyaluronic acid and so lowers its viscosity and increases the permeability of connective tissue and the absorption of fluids.

- Understanding "spreading factor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "spreading factor" means with a simple example.

---

staff sergeant (noun)

A noncommissioned officer ranking above corporal and below sergeant first class in the Army or Marines or above airman 1st class in the Air Force.

- They discussed "staff sergeant" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "staff sergeant" because he had never seen it before.

---

swedish mile (noun)

A Swedish unit of length equivalent to 10 km.

- Understanding "swedish mile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "swedish mile" because he had never seen it before.

---

technological (adjective)

Of or relating to a practical subject that is organized according to scientific principles.

- Technological development.
- Students compared "technological" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

temporarily (adverb)

For a limited time only; not permanently.

- He will work here temporarily.
- He was brought out of retirement temporarily.

---

traditionally (adverb)

According to tradition; in a traditional manner.

- Traditionally, we eat fried foods on Hanukah.
- Place "traditionally" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

treats (verb)

Provide with choice or abundant food or drink.

- The new book treats the history of China.

- He did not know how to use "treats" until he saw an example.

---

vital principle (noun)

A hypothetical force to which the functions and qualities peculiar to living things are sometimes ascribed.

- In class, the teacher used "vital principle" to mean a hypothetical force to which the functions and....
- He looked up "vital principle" because he had never seen it before.

---

war bride (noun)

Bride of a serviceman during wartime.

- He looked up "war bride" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "war bride."

---

war widow (noun)

A woman whose husband has died in war.

- He looked up "war widow" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "war widow" during the group presentation.

---

weed killer (noun)

A chemical agent that destroys plants or inhibits their growth.

- He looked up "weed killer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "weed killer" during the group presentation.

---

whites (noun)

The white part of an egg; the nutritive and protective gelatinous substance surrounding the yolk consisting mainly of albumin dissolved in water.

- She separated the whites from the yolks of several eggs.
- In class, the teacher used "whites" to mean the white part of an egg; the nutritive and....

---

widow woman (noun)

A woman whose husband is dead especially one who has not remarried.

- He looked up "widow woman" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "widow woman" to mean a woman whose husband is dead especially one who....

---

accomplish (verb)

To gain with effort.

- In everyday English, people use "accomplish" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "accomplish" in real sentences.

---

alexander hamilton (noun)

United States statesman and leader of the Federalists; as the first Secretary of the Treasury he establish a federal bank; was mortally wounded in a duel with Aaron Burr (1755-1804).

- He looked up "alexander hamilton" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alexander hamilton."

---

apology (noun)

An expression of regret at having caused trouble for someone.

- He wrote a letter of apology to the hostess.
- It was an apology for a meal.

---

associate in nursing (noun)

An associate degree in nursing.

- They discussed "associate in nursing" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "associate in nursing."

---

attributed (verb)

Decide as to where something belongs in a scheme.

- We attributed this quotation to Shakespeare.
- Learners should practice how to use "attributed" in real sentences.

---

beg (verb)

Dodge, avoid answering, or take for granted.

- Beg the question.
- Beg the point in the discussion.

---

beg off (verb)

Ask for permission to be released from an engagement.

- Can you use "beg off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "beg off" until he saw an example.

---

broad interpretation (noun)

An interpretation of the U.S. constitution holding that the spirit of the times and the needs of the nation can legitimately influence judicial decisions (particularly decisions of the Supreme Court).

- He looked up "broad interpretation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "broad interpretation."

---

charles joseph clark (noun)

Canadian politician who served as prime minister (1939-).

- Understanding "charles joseph clark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charles joseph clark."

---

chicken liver (noun)

Liver of a chicken used as meat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chicken liver."
- He looked up "chicken liver" because he had never seen it before.

---

cognitive operation (noun)

(psychology) the performance of some composite cognitive activity; an operation that affects mental contents.

- The cognitive operation of remembering.
- The article explained what "cognitive operation" means with a simple example.

---

color sergeant (noun)

A sergeant in a color guard who carries one of the colors.

- He looked up "color sergeant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "color sergeant" to mean a sergeant in a color guard who carries one of the....

---

comeback (noun)

A quick reply to a question or remark (especially a witty or critical one).

- They discussed "comeback" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "comeback" because he had never seen it before.

---

conspiracy of silence (noun)

A conspiracy not to talk about some situation or event.

- There was a conspiracy of silence about police brutality.
- They discussed "conspiracy of silence" during the group presentation.

---

consulting company (noun)

A firm of experts providing professional advice to an organization for a fee.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "consulting company."
- He looked up "consulting company" because he had never seen it before.

---

cos (noun)

Lettuce with long dark-green leaves in a loosely packed elongated head.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cos."
- He looked up "cos" because he had never seen it before.

---

crops (noun)

A collection of people or things appearing together.

- They discussed “crops” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “crops” because he had never seen it before.

---

declare (verb)

Proclaim one’s support, sympathy, or opinion for or against.

- His wife declared at once for moving to the West Coast.
- He declared that he needed more money to carry out the task he was charged with.

---

designers (noun)

A person who devises plots or intrigues.

- He looked up “designers” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “designers” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

detect (verb)

Discover or determine the existence, presence, or fact of.

- She detected high levels of lead in her drinking water.
- In everyday English, people use “detect” when talking about this idea.

---

dimensions (noun)

A construct whereby objects or individuals can be distinguished.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dimensions.”
- Understanding “dimensions” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dip into (verb)

Read selectively; read only certain passages from a text.

- He did not know how to use “dip into” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “dip into” and when to wait.

---

divine comedy (noun)

A narrative epic poem written by Dante.

- He looked up “divine comedy” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “divine comedy” to mean a narrative epic poem written by dante.

---

dot (noun)

A very small circular shape.

- Draw lines between the dots.
- The article explained what “dot” means with a simple example.

---

dylan (noun)

Celtic god of the waves; son of Arianrhod.

- Understanding “dylan” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dylan.”

---

employee stock ownership plan (noun)

A program under which employees regularly accumulate shares and may ultimately assume control of the company.

- He looked up “employee stock ownership plan” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “employee stock ownership plan” during the group presentation.

---

exit poll (noun)

A poll of voters as they leave the voting place; usually taken by news media in order to predict the outcome of an election.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “exit poll.”
- He looked up “exit poll” because he had never seen it before.

---

fashion consultant (noun)

Someone who advises you about fashionable clothing.

- The article explained what “fashion consultant” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “fashion consultant” during the group presentation.

filing (noun)

The entering of a legal document into the public record.

- I have some filing to do.
- The article explained what "filing" means with a simple example.

folk singer (noun)

A singer of folk songs.

- He looked up "folk singer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "folk singer."

foul up (verb)

Make a mess of, destroy or ruin.

- In everyday English, people use "foul up" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "foul up" in real sentences.

frankly (adverb)

(used as intensives reflecting the speaker's attitude) it is sincerely the case that.

- Frankly, my dear, I don't give a damn.
- Using "frankly" can make your explanation more exact.

freezing (noun)

The withdrawal of heat to change something from a liquid to a solid.

- In class, the teacher used "freezing" to mean the withdrawal of heat to change something from a....
- They discussed "freezing" during the group presentation.

from head to toe (adverb)

At all points from head to foot.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "from head to toe" naturally.
- The narrator describes the scene "from head to toe" in the final chapter.

fundamental frequency (noun)

The lowest tone of a harmonic series.

- They discussed "fundamental frequency" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fundamental frequency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

george vi (noun)

King of Great Britain and Ireland and emperor of India from 1936 to 1947; he succeeded Edward VIII (1895-1952).

- In class, the teacher used "george vi" to mean king of great britain and ireland and emperor of....
- They discussed "george vi" during the group presentation.

graph (noun)

A visual representation of the relations between certain quantities plotted with reference to a set of axes.

- Understanding "graph" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "graph" to mean a visual representation of the relations between....

green olive (noun)

Olives picked green and pickled in brine; infrequently stuffed with e.g. pimento.

- In class, the teacher used "green olive" to mean olives picked green and pickled in brine;....
- The article explained what "green olive" means with a simple example.

guardian angel (noun)

An angel believed to have special affection for a particular individual.

- Understanding "guardian angel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "guardian angel" because he had never seen it before.

higher cognitive process (noun)

Cognitive processes that presuppose the availability of knowledge and put it to use.

- In class, the teacher used "higher cognitive process" to mean cognitive processes that presuppose the....
- Understanding "higher cognitive process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

in an elaborate way (adverb)

With elaboration.

- It was elaborately spelled out.
- Place "in an elaborate way" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

interact (verb)

Act together or towards others or with others.

- He should interact more with his colleagues.
- Learners should practice how to use "interact" in real sentences.

---

italian dressing (noun)

A vinaigrette with garlic and herbs: oregano and basil and dill.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "italian dressing."
- He looked up "italian dressing" because he had never seen it before.

---

james clark ross (noun)

British explorer of the Arctic and Antarctic; located the north magnetic pole in 1831; discovered the Ross Sea in Antarctica; nephew of Sir John Ross (1800-1862).

- In class, the teacher used "james clark ross" to mean british explorer of the arctic and antarctic;....
- He looked up "james clark ross" because he had never seen it before.

---

john reed (noun)

United States journalist who reported on the October Revolution from Petrograd in 1917; founded the Communist Labor Party in America in 1919; is buried in the Kremlin in Moscow (1887-1920).

- The article explained what "john reed" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "john reed" to mean united states journalist who reported on the....

---

joseph campbell (noun)

United States mythologist (1904-1987).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joseph campbell."
- He looked up "joseph campbell" because he had never seen it before.

---

judging (noun)

The cognitive process of reaching a decision or drawing conclusions.

- In class, the teacher used "judging" to mean the cognitive process of reaching a decision or....
- The article explained what "judging" means with a simple example.

---

lemon drop (noun)

A hard candy with lemon flavor and a yellow color and (usually) the shape of a lemon.

- In class, the teacher used "lemon drop" to mean a hard candy with lemon flavor and a yellow color....
- They discussed "lemon drop" during the group presentation.

---

lewis henry morgan (noun)

United States anthropologist who studied the Seneca (1818-1881).

- In class, the teacher used "lewis henry morgan" to mean united states anthropologist who studied the seneca....
- The article explained what "lewis henry morgan" means with a simple example.

---

lord todd (noun)

Scottish chemist noted for his research into the structure of nucleic acids (born in 1907).

- He looked up "lord todd" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lord todd" to mean scottish chemist noted for his research into the....

---

man-made fiber (noun)

Fiber created from natural materials or by chemical processes.

- In class, the teacher used "man-made fiber" to mean fiber created from natural materials or by chemical....

- Understanding "man-made fiber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

master sergeant (noun)

A senior noncommissioned officer in the Army or Marines.

- They discussed "master sergeant" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "master sergeant" because he had never seen it before.

median (noun)

The value below which 50% of the cases fall.

- He looked up "median" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "median" to mean the value below which 50% of the cases fall.

medieval (adjective)

Relating to or belonging to the Middle Ages.

- Medieval scholars.
- Medieval times.

murders (verb)

Kill intentionally and with premeditation.

- She tried to use "murders" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "murders" in real sentences.

naval commander (noun)

Naval officer in command of a fleet of warships.

- In class, the teacher used "naval commander" to mean naval officer in command of a fleet of warships.
- He looked up "naval commander" because he had never seen it before.

naval engineer (noun)

A naval officer responsible for the operation and maintenance of the ship's engines.

- The article explained what "naval engineer" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "naval engineer."

ne (noun)

The compass point midway between north and east; at 45 degrees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ne."
- Understanding "ne" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

new year's eve (noun)

The last day of the year.

- They discussed "new year's eve" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "new year's eve" because he had never seen it before.

nuclear regulatory commission (noun)

An independent federal agency created in 1974 to license and regulate nuclear power plants.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nuclear regulatory commission."
- Understanding "nuclear regulatory commission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

old bailey (noun)

The central criminal court in London.

- The article explained what "old bailey" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "old bailey" to mean the central criminal court in london.

olive oil (noun)

Oil from olives.

- They discussed "olive oil" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "olive oil."

on the dot (adverb)

Just as it should be.

- Using "on the dot" can make your explanation more exact.
- She spoke "on the dot," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

orientation (noun)

A predisposition in favor of something.

- Showed a Marxist orientation.
- Understanding "orientation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

owen (noun)

Welsh industrialist and social reformer who founded cooperative communities (1771-1858).

- The article explained what "owen" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "owen" to mean welsh industrialist and social reformer who founded....

---

pack rat (noun)

Someone who collects things that have been discarded by others.

- In class, the teacher used "pack rat" to mean someone who collects things that have been....
- The article explained what "pack rat" means with a simple example.

---

parallel processing (noun)

Simultaneous processing by two or more processing units.

- In class, the teacher used "parallel processing" to mean simultaneous processing by two or more processing units.
- He looked up "parallel processing" because he had never seen it before.

---

potato skin (noun)

Crisp fried potato peeling.

- He looked up "potato skin" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "potato skin" to mean crisp fried potato peeling.

---

powder technique (noun)

A process for identifying minerals or crystals; a small rod is coated with a powdered form of the substance and subjected to suitably modified X-rays; the pattern of diffracted rings is used for identification.

- They discussed "powder technique" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "powder technique" means with a simple example.

---

printed symbol (noun)

A written or printed symbol.

- In class, the teacher used "printed symbol" to mean a written or printed symbol.
- He looked up "printed symbol" because he had never seen it before.

---

rabbit (noun)

Flesh of any of various rabbits or hares (wild or domesticated) eaten as food.

- He looked up "rabbit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rabbit."

---

rational number (noun)

An integer or a fraction.

- The article explained what "rational number" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rational number" to mean an integer or a fraction.

---

rats (noun)

A person who is deemed to be despicable or contemptible.

- He looked up "rats" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rats" to mean a person who is deemed to be despicable or contemptible.

---

reflection factor (noun)

The fraction of radiant energy that is reflected from a surface.

- He looked up “reflection factor” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “reflection factor.”

rental collection (noun)

A collection of books that can be rented by readers in return for a small daily fee.

- In class, the teacher used “rental collection” to mean a collection of books that can be rented by readers....
- The article explained what “rental collection” means with a simple example.

revised standard version (noun)

A revision of the American Standard Version.

- They discussed “revised standard version” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “revised standard version” because he had never seen it before.

richard john roberts (noun)

United States biochemist (born in England) honored for his discovery that some genes contain introns (born in 1943).

- They discussed “richard john roberts” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “richard john roberts” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rope off (verb)

Divide by means of a rope.

- The police roped off the area where the crime occurred.
- He did not know how to use “rope off” until he saw an example.

savage (noun)

A cruelly rapacious person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “savage.”
- Understanding “savage” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

servers (noun)

A person whose occupation is to serve at table (as in a restaurant).

- He looked up “servers” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “servers.”

shooter (noun)

A person who shoots (usually with respect to their ability to shoot).

- A poor shooter.
- He looked up “shooter” because he had never seen it before.

siblings (noun)

A person’s brother or sister.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “siblings.”
- They discussed “siblings” during the group presentation.

someday (adverb)

Some unspecified time in the future.

- Someday you will understand my actions.
- Place “someday” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

spam (noun)

A canned meat made largely from pork.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spam.”
- He looked up “spam” because he had never seen it before.

spiritual domain (noun)

A belief that there is a realm controlled by a divine spirit.

- The article explained what “spiritual domain” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “spiritual domain” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stack (noun)

(often followed by 'of') a large number or amount or extent.

- In class, the teacher used "stack" to mean (often followed by 'of') a large number or amount....
- The article explained what "stack" means with a simple example.

stack up (verb)

Arrange into piles or stacks.

- In everyday English, people use "stack up" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "stack up" until he saw an example.

stance (noun)

A rationalized mental attitude.

- Understanding "stance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "stance" means with a simple example.

sterling silver (noun)

A silver alloy with no more than 7.5% copper.

- They discussed "sterling silver" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sterling silver" means with a simple example.

sticks and stone (noun)

A general term for building materials.

- The article explained what "sticks and stone" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sticks and stone" to mean a general term for building materials.

surgical (adjective)

Of or relating to or involving or used in surgery.

- Surgical instruments.
- Surgical intervention.

sweet potato (noun)

The edible tuberous root of the sweet potato vine which is grown widely in warm regions of the United States.

- They discussed "sweet potato" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sweet potato" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

swiss cheese (noun)

Hard pale yellow cheese with many holes from Switzerland.

- He looked up "swiss cheese" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "swiss cheese" to mean hard pale yellow cheese with many holes from....

symbols (noun)

An arbitrary sign (written or printed) that has acquired a conventional significance.

- The article explained what "symbols" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "symbols."

thesis (noun)

An unproved statement put forward as a premise in an argument.

- Understanding "thesis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thesis."

thomas jonathan jackson (noun)

General in the Confederate Army during the American Civil War whose troops at the first Battle of Bull Run stood like a stone wall (1824-1863).

- Understanding "thomas jonathan jackson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "thomas jonathan jackson" during the group presentation.

tide over (verb)

Suffice for a period between two points.

- The coach explained when to use "tide over" and when to wait.
- Can you use "tide over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

toe the line (verb)

Do what is expected.

- In everyday English, people use "toe the line" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "toe the line" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

tone poem (noun)

An orchestral composition based on literature or folk tales.

- The article explained what "tone poem" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tone poem" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

united states marine corps (noun)

An amphibious division of the United States Navy.

- In class, the teacher used "united states marine corps" to mean an amphibious division of the united states navy.
- He looked up "united states marine corps" because he had never seen it before.

---

wallace (noun)

English writer noted for his crime novels (1875-1932).

- The article explained what "wallace" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wallace" to mean english writer noted for his crime novels (1875-1932).

---

weekends (noun)

A time period usually extending from Friday night through Sunday; more loosely defined as any period of successive days including one and only one Sunday.

- Understanding "weekends" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "weekends" because he had never seen it before.

---

white lead ore (noun)

A mineral consisting of lead carbonate that is an important source of lead.

- The article explained what "white lead ore" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "white lead ore" to mean a mineral consisting of lead carbonate that is an....

---

year dot (noun)

As long ago as anyone can remember.

- He has been a conductor since the year dot.
- In class, the teacher used "year dot" to mean as long ago as anyone can remember.

---

aging (noun)

The organic process of growing older and showing the effects of increasing age.

- Understanding "aging" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "aging" means with a simple example.

---

alternatives (noun)

One of a number of things from which only one can be chosen.

- Understanding "alternatives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "alternatives" means with a simple example.

---

anyways (adverb)

Used to indicate that a statement explains or supports a previous statement.

- He answered "anyways," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- She spoke "anyways," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

argues (verb)

Present reasons and arguments.

- The evidence argues for your claim.

- He did not know how to use “argues” until he saw an example.

---

auto maker (noun)

A business engaged in the manufacture of automobiles.

- They discussed “auto maker” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “auto maker” because he had never seen it before.

---

backwards (adverb)

In a manner or order or direction the reverse of normal.

- Place “backwards” carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene “backwards” in the final chapter.

---

beauty consultant (noun)

Someone who gives you advice about your personal appearance.

- They discussed “beauty consultant” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “beauty consultant” because he had never seen it before.

---

bi (noun)

A heavy brittle diamagnetic trivalent metallic element (resembles arsenic and antimony chemically); usually recovered as a by-product from ores of other metals.

- They discussed “bi” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “bi” to mean a heavy brittle diamagnetic trivalent metallic....

---

bread maker (noun)

Someone who bakes bread or cake.

- Understanding “bread maker” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “bread maker” to mean someone who bakes bread or cake.

---

bread-bin (noun)

A container used to keep bread or cake in.

- He looked up “bread-bin” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bread-bin.”

---

british house of lords (noun)

The upper house of the British parliament.

- Understanding “british house of lords” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “british house of lords” during the group presentation.

---

brooks (noun)

United States literary critic and historian (1886-1963).

- Understanding “brooks” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “brooks.”

---

bust up (verb)

Smash or break forcefully.

- The kid busted up the car.
- He did not know how to use “bust up” until he saw an example.

---

bust-up (noun)

A serious quarrel (especially one that ends a friendship).

- In class, the teacher used “bust-up” to mean a serious quarrel (especially one that ends a....
- Understanding “bust-up” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

canadian bacon (noun)

From a boned strip of cured loin.

- In class, the teacher used “canadian bacon” to mean from a boned strip of cured loin.
- He looked up “canadian bacon” because he had never seen it before.

---

carpet bomb (verb)

Bomb a large area systematically and extensively.

- The U.S. decided to carpet bomb Vietnam.
- Can you use "carpet bomb" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

charles stuart (noun)

Son of James I who was King of England and Scotland and Ireland; was deposed and executed by Oliver Cromwell (1600-1649).

- They discussed "charles stuart" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "charles stuart" means with a simple example.

---

cope with (verb)

Satisfy or fulfill.

- He did not know how to use "cope with" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "cope with" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

counted (verb)

Show consideration for; take into account.

- The coach explained when to use "counted" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "counted" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

curse word (noun)

Profane or obscene expression usually of surprise or anger.

- Understanding "curse word" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "curse word" during the group presentation.

---

diplomatic mission (noun)

A mission serving diplomatic ends.

- He looked up "diplomatic mission" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "diplomatic mission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

editors (noun)

A person responsible for the editorial aspects of publication; the person who determines the final content of a text (especially of a newspaper or magazine).

- In class, the teacher used "editors" to mean a person responsible for the editorial aspects of....
- He looked up "editors" because he had never seen it before.

---

edwards (noun)

American theologian whose sermons and writings stimulated a period of renewed interest in religion in America (1703-1758).

- Understanding "edwards" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edwards."

---

emperor of rome (noun)

Sovereign of the Roman Empire.

- He looked up "emperor of rome" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "emperor of rome" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

european law enforcement organisation (noun)

Police organization for the European Union; aims to improve effectiveness and cooperation among European police forces.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "european law enforcement organisation."
- Understanding "european law enforcement organisation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

experiencing (verb)

Go through (mental or physical states or experiences).

- In everyday English, people use "experiencing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "experiencing" in real sentences.

---

extending (verb)

Span an interval of distance, space or time.

- Learners should practice how to use “extending” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “extending” when talking about this idea.

---

farmer-labor party (noun)

A former minor political party in the United States in the early 20th century.

- Understanding “farmer-labor party” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “farmer-labor party” during the group presentation.

---

figure of merit (noun)

A numerical expression representing the efficiency of a given system, material, or procedure.

- In class, the teacher used “figure of merit” to mean a numerical expression representing the efficiency....
- The article explained what “figure of merit” means with a simple example.

---

filing system (noun)

A system of classifying into files (usually arranged alphabetically).

- He looked up “filing system” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “filing system” to mean a system of classifying into files (usually....

---

finale (noun)

The temporal end; the concluding time.

- They discussed “finale” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “finale” to mean the temporal end; the concluding time.

---

george edward moore (noun)

English philosopher (1873-1958).

- Understanding “george edward moore” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “george edward moore” because he had never seen it before.

---

head over heels (adverb)

In disorderly haste.

- We ran head over heels toward the shelter.
- The narrator describes the scene “head over heels” in the final chapter.

---

heels over head (adverb)

In disorderly haste.

- We ran head over heels toward the shelter.
- The narrator describes the scene “heels over head” in the final chapter.

---

high brass (noun)

Brass with 35% zinc.

- The article explained what “high brass” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “high brass.”

---

ignorance (noun)

The lack of knowledge or education.

- Understanding “ignorance” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “ignorance” to mean the lack of knowledge or education.

---

ignoring (verb)

Give little or no attention to.

- In everyday English, people use “ignoring” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “ignoring” in real sentences.

---

immigrant (noun)

A person who comes to a country where they were not born in order to settle there.

- Understanding “immigrant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “immigrant” means with a simple example.

in the meantime (adverb)

During the intervening time.

- Meanwhile I will not think about the problem.
- Meantime he was attentive to his other interests.

intermediate (verb)

Act between parties with a view to reconciling differences.

- In everyday English, people use "intermediate" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "intermediate" until he saw an example.

ip (noun)

The sciences concerned with gathering, manipulating, storing, retrieving, and classifying recorded information.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ip."
- The article explained what "ip" means with a simple example.

islamic calendar month (noun)

Any lunar month in the Muslim calendar.

- In class, the teacher used "islamic calendar month" to mean any lunar month in the muslim calendar.
- They discussed "islamic calendar month" during the group presentation.

joins (noun)

A set containing all and only the members of two or more given sets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joins."
- The article explained what "joins" means with a simple example.

likewise (adverb)

In like or similar manner; ; - Samuel Johnson.

- Some people have little power to do good, and have likewise little strength to resist evil.
- Using "likewise" can make your explanation more exact.

louis xi (noun)

King of France who put down an alliance of unruly nobles and unified France except for Brittany (1423-1483).

- The article explained what "louis xi" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "louis xi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

meantime (noun)

The time between one event, process, or period and another.

- Understanding "meantime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "meantime" means with a simple example.

nails (verb)

Attach something somewhere by means of nails.

- Can you use "nails" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "nails" and when to wait.

nonetheless (adverb)

Despite anything to the contrary (usually following a concession).

- Place "nonetheless" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "nonetheless," which changed the tone of the conversation.

north northeast (noun)

The compass point that is midway between north and northeast.

- They discussed "north northeast" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "north northeast" because he had never seen it before.

north-northeast (adverb)

To, toward, or in the north-northeast.

- He answered "north-northeast," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using "north-northeast" can make your explanation more exact.

---

northeast by north (noun)

The compass point that is one point north of northeast.

- He looked up "northeast by north" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "northeast by north" to mean the compass point that is one point north of northeast.

---

nut (noun)

Someone who is so ardently devoted to something that it resembles an addiction.

- A car nut.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nut."

---

o'clock (adverb)

According to the clock.

- It's three o'clock in Tokyo now.
- She spoke "o'clock," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

operating surgeon (noun)

A physician who specializes in surgery.

- Understanding "operating surgeon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "operating surgeon" during the group presentation.

---

oxygen acid (noun)

Any acid that contains oxygen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oxygen acid."
- They discussed "oxygen acid" during the group presentation.

---

paul vi (noun)

Italian pope from 1963 to 1978 who eased restrictions on fasting and on interfaith marriages (1897-1978).

- They discussed "paul vi" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paul vi."

---

physicians (noun)

A licensed medical practitioner.

- The article explained what "physicians" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "physicians" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pig iron (noun)

Crude iron tapped from a blast furnace.

- In class, the teacher used "pig iron" to mean crude iron tapped from a blast furnace.
- He looked up "pig iron" because he had never seen it before.

---

poet-singer (noun)

A singer of folk songs.

- They discussed "poet-singer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "poet-singer" to mean a singer of folk songs.

---

powder photography (noun)

A process for identifying minerals or crystals; a small rod is coated with a powdered form of the substance and subjected to suitably modified X-rays; the pattern of diffracted rings is used for identification.

- He looked up "powder photography" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "powder photography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pt (noun)

A heavy precious metallic element; grey-white and resistant to corroding; occurs in some nickel and copper ores and is also found native in some deposits.

- In class, the teacher used "pt" to mean a heavy precious metallic element; grey-white and....

- They discussed "pt" during the group presentation.

questioning (noun)

A request for information.

- In class, the teacher used "questioning" to mean a request for information.
- The article explained what "questioning" means with a simple example.

resigned (verb)

Leave (a job, post, or position) voluntarily.

- The chairman resigned when he was found to have misappropriated funds.
- The chairman resigned over the financial scandal.

saints peter and paul (noun)

First celebrated in the 3rd century.

- They discussed "saints peter and paul" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saints peter and paul."

shanghai (verb)

Take (someone) against his will for compulsory service, especially on board a ship.

- The men were shanghaied after being drugged.
- Can you use "shanghai" in a sentence that fits this situation?

sins (verb)

Commit a faux pas or a fault or make a serious mistake.

- Can you use "sins" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "sins" and when to wait.

soda (noun)

A sweet drink containing carbonated water and flavoring.

- In New England they call sodas tonics.
- The article explained what "soda" means with a simple example.

solar dish (noun)

A concave mirror that concentrates the rays of the sun; can produce high temperatures.

- They discussed "solar dish" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "solar dish" because he had never seen it before.

system of measurement (noun)

A system of related measures that facilitates the quantification of some particular characteristic.

- Understanding "system of measurement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "system of measurement" because he had never seen it before.

thanksgiving (noun)

A short prayer of thanks before a meal.

- The article explained what "thanksgiving" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "thanksgiving" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

thermal (adjective)

Of or relating to a hot spring.

- Thermal water.
- Thermal movements of molecules.

vacuum-clean (verb)

Clean with a vacuum cleaner.

- He did not know how to use "vacuum-clean" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "vacuum-clean" carefully so everyone would understand.

witnessed (verb)

Perceive or be contemporaneous with.

- She witnessed the accident and had to testify in court.
- The coach explained when to use "witnessed" and when to wait.

---

achieving (verb)

To gain with effort.

- Learners should practice how to use "achieving" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "achieving" and when to wait.

---

alice walker (noun)

United States writer (born in 1944).

- In class, the teacher used "alice walker" to mean united states writer (born in 1944).
- They discussed "alice walker" during the group presentation.

---

aliens (noun)

A form of life assumed to exist outside the Earth or its atmosphere.

- In class, the teacher used "aliens" to mean a form of life assumed to exist outside the earth....
- The article explained what "aliens" means with a simple example.

---

analyst (noun)

A licensed practitioner of psychoanalysis.

- Understanding "analyst" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "analyst" because he had never seen it before.

---

applied mathematics (noun)

The branches of mathematics that are involved in the study of the physical or biological or sociological world.

- The article explained what "applied mathematics" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "applied mathematics" during the group presentation.

---

arabic (noun)

The Semitic language of the Arabs; spoken in a variety of dialects.

- He looked up "arabic" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arabic."

---

attention span (noun)

The length of time you can concentrate on some idea or activity.

- Understanding "attention span" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "attention span" means with a simple example.

---

auto manufacturer (noun)

A business engaged in the manufacture of automobiles.

- Understanding "auto manufacturer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "auto manufacturer."

---

balanced diet (noun)

A diet that contains adequate amounts of all the necessary nutrients required for healthy growth and activity.

- He looked up "balanced diet" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "balanced diet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beef tongue (noun)

The tongue of a cow eaten as meat.

- In class, the teacher used "beef tongue" to mean the tongue of a cow eaten as meat.
- He looked up "beef tongue" because he had never seen it before.

---

bitter chocolate (noun)

Pure unsweetened chocolate used in baking and icings and sauces and candy.

- Understanding "bitter chocolate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bitter chocolate" means with a simple example.

---

bolt down (verb)

Eat a large amount of food quickly.

- The children gobbled down most of the birthday cake.
- He downed three martinis before dinner.

---

book of ruth (noun)

A book of the Old Testament that tells the story of Ruth who was not an Israelite but who married an Israelite and who stayed with her mother-in-law Naomi after her husband died.

- The article explained what "book of ruth" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "book of ruth" during the group presentation.

---

border patrol (noun)

A group of officers who patrol the borders of a country.

- Understanding "border patrol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "border patrol" means with a simple example.

---

buyer (noun)

A person who buys.

- They discussed "buyer" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "buyer" because he had never seen it before.

---

calories (noun)

A unit of heat equal to the amount of heat required to raise the temperature of one kilogram of water by one degree at one atmosphere pressure; used by nutritionists to characterize the energy-producing potential in food.

- He looked up "calories" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calories."

---

cease (verb)

Have an end, in a temporal, spatial, or quantitative sense; either spatial or metaphorical.

- In everyday English, people use "cease" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "cease" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

chemical compound (noun)

(chemistry) a substance formed by chemical union of two or more elements or ingredients in definite proportion by weight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chemical compound."
- He looked up "chemical compound" because he had never seen it before.

---

chicken salad (noun)

Salad composed primarily of chopped chicken meat.

- Understanding "chicken salad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "chicken salad" because he had never seen it before.

---

chicken scratch (noun)

Cramped or illegible handwriting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chicken scratch."
- Understanding "chicken scratch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chicken soup (noun)

Soup made from chicken broth.

- In class, the teacher used "chicken soup" to mean soup made from chicken broth.
- He looked up "chicken soup" because he had never seen it before.

---

civil rights activist (noun)

A leader of the political movement dedicated to securing equal opportunity for members of minority groups.

- The article explained what "civil rights activist" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "civil rights activist."

civil servant (noun)

A public official who is a member of the civil service.

- In class, the teacher used "civil servant" to mean a public official who is a member of the civil service.
- They discussed "civil servant" during the group presentation.

classical architecture (noun)

Architecture influenced by the ancient Greeks or Romans.

- Understanding "classical architecture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "classical architecture" means with a simple example.

clearing house (noun)

A central collection place where banks exchange checks or drafts; participants maintain an account against which credits or debits are posted.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clearing house."
- The article explained what "clearing house" means with a simple example.

columbus day (noun)

A legal holiday commemorating the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus.

- In class, the teacher used "columbus day" to mean a legal holiday commemorating the discovery of....
- The article explained what "columbus day" means with a simple example.

compound sentence (noun)

A sentence composed of at least two coordinate independent clauses.

- Understanding "compound sentence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "compound sentence" because he had never seen it before.

conferences (noun)

A discussion among participants who have an agreed (serious) topic.

- They discussed "conferences" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "conferences" to mean a discussion among participants who have an agreed....

considers (verb)

Show consideration for; take into account.

- The coach explained when to use "considers" and when to wait.
- Can you use "considers" in a sentence that fits this situation?

corn cake (noun)

Baked in a pan or on a griddle (southern and midland).

- In class, the teacher used "corn cake" to mean baked in a pan or on a griddle (southern and midland).
- Understanding "corn cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cost-pull inflation (noun)

Inflation caused by an increase in the costs of production.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cost-pull inflation."
- The article explained what "cost-pull inflation" means with a simple example.

cowboys (noun)

A hired hand who tends cattle and performs other duties on horseback.

- In class, the teacher used "cowboys" to mean a hired hand who tends cattle and performs other....
- The article explained what "cowboys" means with a simple example.

dairy product (noun)

Milk and butter and cheese.

- In class, the teacher used "dairy product" to mean milk and butter and cheese.
- They discussed "dairy product" during the group presentation.

delta iron (noun)

An allotrope of iron that is stable between 1403 degrees centigrade and the melting point (= 1532 degrees).

- He looked up "delta iron" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "delta iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deployed (verb)

To distribute systematically or strategically.

- She tried to use "deployed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "deployed" and when to wait.

---

differ (verb)

Be of different opinions.

- I beg to differ!
- These two tests differ in only one respect.

---

divorced man (noun)

A man who is divorced from (or separated from) his wife.

- Understanding "divorced man" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "divorced man."

---

drain the cup (verb)

Drink to the last drop.

- Drink up–there's more wine coming.
- In everyday English, people use "drain the cup" when talking about this idea.

---

drill master (noun)

A noncommissioned officer who instructs recruits in military marching and discipline.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drill master."
- They discussed "drill master" during the group presentation.

---

east northeast (noun)

The compass point midway between northeast and east.

- They discussed "east northeast" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "east northeast" means with a simple example.

---

elect (noun)

An exclusive group of people.

- One of the elect who have power inside the government.
- The article explained what "elect" means with a simple example.

---

essence (noun)

The choicest or most essential or most vital part of some idea or experience.

- He looked up "essence" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "essence" to mean the choicest or most essential or most vital part....

---

ethics panel (noun)

A committee appointed to consider ethical issues.

- In class, the teacher used "ethics panel" to mean a committee appointed to consider ethical issues.
- Understanding "ethics panel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

executives (noun)

A person responsible for the administration of a business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "executives."
- He looked up "executives" because he had never seen it before.

---

fishing permit (noun)

A license authorizing the bearer to fish during a specified period of time.

- They discussed "fishing permit" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "fishing permit" to mean a license authorizing the bearer to fish during a....

---

flames (noun)

The process of combustion of inflammable materials producing heat and light and (often) smoke.

- Understanding "flames" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "flames" during the group presentation.

---

fork (noun)

The region of the angle formed by the junction of two branches.

- They took the south fork.
- Understanding "fork" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fortune hunter (noun)

A person who seeks wealth through marriage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fortune hunter."
- He looked up "fortune hunter" because he had never seen it before.

---

francisco villa (noun)

Mexican revolutionary leader (1877-1923).

- Understanding "francisco villa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "francisco villa" to mean mexican revolutionary leader (1877-1923).

---

fruit crush (noun)

Drink produced by squeezing or crushing fruit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fruit crush."
- He looked up "fruit crush" because he had never seen it before.

---

fundamental principle (noun)

Principles from which other truths can be derived.

- First you must learn the fundamentals.
- They discussed "fundamental principle" during the group presentation.

---

gambling contract (noun)

A contract whose performance by one party is contingent on the outcome of a bet; unenforceable by statute in most jurisdictions.

- They discussed "gambling contract" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "gambling contract" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

genetic psychology (noun)

The branch of psychology that studies the social and mental development of children.

- In class, the teacher used "genetic psychology" to mean the branch of psychology that studies the social....
- He looked up "genetic psychology" because he had never seen it before.

---

gentleman jim (noun)

United States heavyweight boxing champion (1866-1933).

- They discussed "gentleman jim" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "gentleman jim" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

george harrison (noun)

English rock star; lead guitarist of the Beatles (1943-2001).

- They discussed "george harrison" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "george harrison" means with a simple example.

---

grocery boy (noun)

A delivery boy for groceries.

- The article explained what "grocery boy" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "grocery boy" during the group presentation.

---

grocery list (noun)

A list of heterogenous items that someone wants.

- The union came to the table with a whole grocery list of demands.
- The article explained what "grocery list" means with a simple example.

guinea gold (noun)

22-karat gold from which guinea coins were made.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guinea gold."
- The article explained what "guinea gold" means with a simple example.

harold i (noun)

Illegitimate son of Canute who seized the throne of England in 1037 (died in 1040).

- The article explained what "harold i" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "harold i" to mean illegitimate son of canute who seized the throne of....

hung jury (noun)

A jury that is unable to agree on a verdict (the result is a mistrial).

- In class, the teacher used "hung jury" to mean a jury that is unable to agree on a verdict (the....
- The article explained what "hung jury" means with a simple example.

hype (verb)

Publicize in an exaggerated and often misleading manner.

- Learners should practice how to use "hype" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "hype" until he saw an example.

imperial capacity unit (noun)

A unit of measure for capacity officially adopted in the British Imperial System; British units are both dry and wet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "imperial capacity unit."
- They discussed "imperial capacity unit" during the group presentation.

in essence (adverb)

With regard to fundamentals although not concerning details.

- The narrator describes the scene "in essence" in the final chapter.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in essence" naturally.

india ink (noun)

A black liquid ink used for printing or writing or drawing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "india ink."
- Understanding "india ink" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

insist (verb)

Be emphatic or resolute and refuse to budge.

- I must insist!
- Learners should practice how to use "insist" in real sentences.

inter-group communication (noun)

A channel for communication between groups.

- He looked up "inter-group communication" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inter-group communication."

inter-services intelligence (noun)

The Pakistan intelligence agency; a powerful and almost autonomous political and military force; has procured nuclear technology and delivery capabilities; has had strong ties with the Taliban and other militant Islamic groups.

- He looked up "inter-services intelligence" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inter-services intelligence."

iron chancellor (noun)

German statesman under whose leadership Germany was united (1815-1898).

- They discussed "iron chancellor" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "iron chancellor" to mean german statesman under whose leadership germany was....

---

jimmy stewart (noun)

United States film actor who portrayed incorruptible but modest heros (1908-1997).

- He looked up "jimmy stewart" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jimmy stewart."

---

junk (noun)

The remains of something that has been destroyed or broken up.

- Understanding "junk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "junk" to mean the remains of something that has been destroyed or....

---

line of questioning (noun)

An ordering of questions so as to develop a particular argument.

- They discussed "line of questioning" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "line of questioning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

line-shooter (noun)

A very boastful and talkative person.

- They discussed "line-shooter" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "line-shooter" because he had never seen it before.

---

lloyd (noun)

United States comic actor in silent films; he used physical danger as a source of comedy (1893-1971).

- Understanding "lloyd" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lloyd" means with a simple example.

---

logical proof (noun)

Proof of a logical theorem.

- They discussed "logical proof" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "logical proof" to mean proof of a logical theorem.

---

low brass (noun)

Brass with 30% (or less) zinc.

- The article explained what "low brass" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "low brass" to mean brass with 30% (or less) zinc.

---

magazine publisher (noun)

A business firm that publishes magazines.

- He works for a magazine.
- Understanding "magazine publisher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

management consulting (noun)

A service industry that provides advice to those in charge of running a business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "management consulting."
- They discussed "management consulting" during the group presentation.

---

marc (noun)

Made from residue of grapes or apples after pressing.

- They discussed "marc" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marc."

---

mark wayne clark (noun)

United States general who was Allied commander in Africa and Italy in World War II and was commander of the United Nations forces in Korea (1896-1984).

- He looked up "mark wayne clark" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mark wayne clark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mathematical group (noun)

A set that is closed, associative, has an identity element and every element has an inverse.

- They discussed "mathematical group" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mathematical group" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mirror-image relation (noun)

The relation of opposition between crystals or molecules that are reflections of one another.

- The article explained what "mirror-image relation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mirror-image relation" to mean the relation of opposition between crystals or....

mob (noun)

An association of criminals.

- In class, the teacher used "mob" to mean an association of criminals.
- They discussed "mob" during the group presentation.

motors (noun)

A nonspecific agent that imparts motion.

- He looked up "motors" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "motors" during the group presentation.

nicholas i (noun)

Czar of Russia from 1825 to 1855 who led Russia into the Crimean War (1796-1855).

- Understanding "nicholas i" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nicholas i."

north atlantic treaty (noun)

The treaty signed in 1949 by 12 countries that established NATO.

- Understanding "north atlantic treaty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "north atlantic treaty" during the group presentation.

northeast by east (noun)

The compass point that is one point east of northeast.

- He looked up "northeast by east" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "northeast by east" during the group presentation.

nut case (noun)

A whimsically eccentric person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nut case."
- The article explained what "nut case" means with a simple example.

occupation license (noun)

A license to pursue a particular occupation.

- In class, the teacher used "occupation license" to mean a license to pursue a particular occupation.
- They discussed "occupation license" during the group presentation.

oven-ready (adjective)

Prepared before sale and ready to be cooked.

- Students compared "oven-ready" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "oven-ready."

passive (noun)

The voice used to indicate that the grammatical subject of the verb is the recipient (not the source) of the action denoted by the verb.

- 'The ball was thrown by the boy' uses the passive voice.
- 'The ball was thrown' is an abbreviated passive.

petty officer (noun)

A noncommissioned officer in the Navy or Coast Guard with a rank comparable to sergeant in the Army.

- In class, the teacher used "petty officer" to mean a noncommissioned officer in the navy or coast....
- He looked up "petty officer" because he had never seen it before.

---

pipeline company (noun)

A company that operates oil pipelines for the oil industry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pipeline company."
- He looked up "pipeline company" because he had never seen it before.

---

poison gas (noun)

A gas that is poisonous to breath or contact; used in chemical warfare.

- The article explained what "poison gas" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "poison gas" to mean a gas that is poisonous to breath or contact; used....

---

political hack (noun)

A politician who belongs to a small clique that controls a political party for private rather than public ends.

- Understanding "political hack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "political hack" to mean a politician who belongs to a small clique that....

---

political orientation (noun)

An orientation that characterizes the thinking of a group or nation.

- They discussed "political orientation" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "political orientation."

---

portuguese (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Portugal or the people of Portugal or their language.

- Portuguese wines.
- The speaker chose "portuguese" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

pure mathematics (noun)

The branches of mathematics that study and develop the principles of mathematics for their own sake rather than for their immediate usefulness.

- In class, the teacher used "pure mathematics" to mean the branches of mathematics that study and develop....
- The article explained what "pure mathematics" means with a simple example.

---

rabbit food (noun)

An uncooked vegetable.

- He looked up "rabbit food" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rabbit food" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rat cheese (noun)

Informal names for American cheddar.

- Understanding "rat cheese" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rat cheese" to mean informal names for american cheddar.

---

reasonably (adverb)

To a moderately sufficient extent or degree.

- The shoes are priced reasonably.
- Acted quite reasonably.

---

red brass (noun)

Brass with enough copper to give it a reddish tint; used for plumbing pipe and other brass hardware and in cheap jewelry.

- He looked up "red brass" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "red brass" during the group presentation.

---

red tide (noun)

Seawater that is discolored by large numbers of certain dinoflagellates that produce saxitoxin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red tide."

- They discussed "red tide" during the group presentation.

---

reject (verb)

Resist immunologically the introduction of some foreign tissue or organ.

- His body rejected the liver of the donor.
- I reject the idea of starting a war.

---

releasing factor (noun)

A substance produced by the hypothalamus that is capable of accelerating the secretion of a given hormone by the anterior pituitary gland.

- They discussed "releasing factor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "releasing factor" means with a simple example.

---

remainder (noun)

Something left after other parts have been taken away.

- There was no remainder.
- The article explained what "remainder" means with a simple example.

---

royal canadian mounted police (noun)

The federal police force of Canada.

- In class, the teacher used "royal canadian mounted police" to mean the federal police force of canada.
- He looked up "royal canadian mounted police" because he had never seen it before.

---

salad cream (noun)

A creamy salad dressing resembling mayonnaise.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salad cream."
- They discussed "salad cream" during the group presentation.

---

schemes (noun)

A group of independent but interrelated elements comprising a unified whole.

- In class, the teacher used "schemes" to mean a group of independent but interrelated elements....
- The article explained what "schemes" means with a simple example.

---

sentiment (noun)

A personal belief or judgment that is not founded on proof or certainty.

- They discussed "sentiment" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sentiment" to mean a personal belief or judgment that is not founded....

---

sergeant at arms (noun)

An officer (as of a legislature or court) who maintains order and executes commands.

- The article explained what "sergeant at arms" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sergeant at arms" to mean an officer (as of a legislature or court) who....

---

serial killer (noun)

Someone who murders more than three victims one at a time in a relatively short interval.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "serial killer."
- He looked up "serial killer" because he had never seen it before.

---

serial processing (noun)

Sequential processing by two or more processing units.

- They discussed "serial processing" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "serial processing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

serial publication (noun)

A periodical that appears at scheduled times.

- Understanding "serial publication" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "serial publication" to mean a periodical that appears at scheduled times.

---

servants (noun)

A person working in the service of another (especially in the household).

- He looked up "servants" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "servants" during the group presentation.

---

shipped (verb)

Place on board a ship.

- He did not know how to use "shipped" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "shipped" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

simple closed curve (noun)

A closed curve that does not intersect itself.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "simple closed curve."
- The article explained what "simple closed curve" means with a simple example.

---

soda water (noun)

A sweet drink containing carbonated water and flavoring.

- In New England they call sodas tonics.
- In class, the teacher used "soda water" to mean a sweet drink containing carbonated water and flavoring.

---

soup bowl (noun)

A bowl for serving soup.

- They discussed "soup bowl" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "soup bowl" to mean a bowl for serving soup.

---

soup kitchen (noun)

A place where food is dispensed to the needy.

- They discussed "soup kitchen" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soup kitchen."

---

speed freak (noun)

Addict who habitually uses stimulant drugs (especially amphetamines).

- Understanding "speed freak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "speed freak" during the group presentation.

---

sr (noun)

The unit of solid angle adopted under the Systeme International d'Unites.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sr."
- They discussed "sr" during the group presentation.

---

thanksgiving day (noun)

Fourth Thursday in November in the United States; second Monday in October in Canada; commemorates a feast held in 1621 by the Pilgrims and the Wampanoag.

- They discussed "thanksgiving day" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "thanksgiving day" to mean fourth thursday in november in the united states;....

---

thereby (adverb)

By that means or because of that.

- He knocked over the red wine, thereby ruining the table cloth.
- The narrator describes the scene "thereby" in the final chapter.

---

thomas edward lawrence (noun)

Welsh soldier who from 1916 to 1918 organized the Arab revolt against the Turks; he later wrote an account of his adventures (1888-1935).

- In class, the teacher used "thomas edward lawrence" to mean welsh soldier who from 1916 to 1918 organized the....
- The article explained what "thomas edward lawrence" means with a simple example.

---

threshold (noun)

The starting point for a new state or experience.

- On the threshold of manhood.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "threshold."

---

til now (adverb)

Used in negative statement to describe a situation that has existed up to this point or up to the present time.

- The narrator describes the scene "til now" in the final chapter.
- Place "til now" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

tribal (adjective)

Relating to or characteristic of a tribe.

- Tribal customs.
- Would you call this situation "tribal"? Explain why.

---

tribes (noun)

A social division of (usually preliterate) people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tribes."
- They discussed "tribes" during the group presentation.

---

us border patrol (noun)

The mobile law enforcement arm of the Immigration and Naturalization Service that detects and prevents illegal entry of aliens into the United States.

- Understanding "us border patrol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "us border patrol" during the group presentation.

---

vice chancellor (noun)

A deputy or assistant to someone bearing the title of chancellor.

- In class, the teacher used "vice chancellor" to mean a deputy or assistant to someone bearing the title....
- The article explained what "vice chancellor" means with a simple example.

---

writing ink (noun)

Any permanent or washable ink used with pens.

- He looked up "writing ink" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "writing ink" during the group presentation.

---

accommodate (verb)

Provide with something desired or needed.

- Can you accommodate me with a rental car?
- This hotel can accommodate 250 guests.

---

accordingly (adverb)

(sentence connectors) because of the reason given.

- Continued to have severe headaches and accordingly returned to the doctor.
- She acted accordingly.

---

anchor (noun)

A central cohesive source of support and stability.

- Faith is his anchor.
- They discussed "anchor" during the group presentation.

---

apr (noun)

The month following March and preceding May.

- They discussed "apr" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "apr" to mean the month following march and preceding may.

---

ash wednesday (noun)

The 7th Wednesday before Easter; the first day of Lent; the day following Mardi Gras ('Fat Tuesday'); a day of fasting and repentance.

- He looked up "ash wednesday" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ash wednesday" to mean the 7th wednesday before easter; the first day of....

au (noun)

A unit of length used for distances within the solar system; equal to the mean distance between the Earth and the Sun (approximately 93 million miles or 150 million kilometers).

- He looked up "au" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "au" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

audiences (noun)

A conference (usually with someone important).

- The article explained what "audiences" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "audiences" during the group presentation.

audit program (noun)

A listing of audit procedures to be performed in completing an audit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "audit program."
- The article explained what "audit program" means with a simple example.

axis (noun)

A group of countries in special alliance.

- The Axis opposed the Allies in World War II.
- They discussed "axis" during the group presentation.

badge (noun)

An emblem (a small piece of plastic or cloth or metal) that signifies your status (rank or membership or affiliation etc.).

- They checked everyone's badge before letting them in.
- Wearing a tie was regarded as a badge of respectability.

basic cognitive process (noun)

Cognitive processes involved in obtaining and storing knowledge.

- The article explained what "basic cognitive process" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "basic cognitive process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bernard (noun)

French physiologist noted for research on secretions of the alimentary canal and the glycogenic function of the liver (1813-1878).

- Understanding "bernard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bernard" because he had never seen it before.

breathing spell (noun)

A short respite.

- In class, the teacher used "breathing spell" to mean a short respite.
- The article explained what "breathing spell" means with a simple example.

broadcasting (noun)

A medium that disseminates via telecommunications.

- They discussed "broadcasting" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "broadcasting" means with a simple example.

bs (noun)

A bachelor's degree in science.

- The article explained what "bs" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cap-a-pie (adverb)

At all points from head to foot.

- He was armed cap-a-pie.
- Using "cap-a-pie" can make your explanation more exact.

charlie parker (noun)

United States saxophonist and leader of the bop style of jazz (1920-1955).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charlie parker."
- He looked up "charlie parker" because he had never seen it before.

---

cigarette paper (noun)

A strong tissue paper that burns evenly and is sufficiently porous to control the burning of the tobacco in a cigarette.

- Understanding "cigarette paper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cigarette paper" to mean a strong tissue paper that burns evenly and is....

---

closet drama (noun)

Drama more suitable for reading that for performing.

- They discussed "closet drama" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "closet drama."

---

combination salad (noun)

Containing meat or chicken or cheese in addition to greens and vegetables.

- He looked up "combination salad" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "combination salad."

---

compound protein (noun)

A protein complex combining amino acids with other substances.

- Understanding "compound protein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "compound protein" to mean a protein complex combining amino acids with other....

---

consultation (noun)

A conference (usually with someone important).

- He had a consultation with the judge.
- Frequent consultations with his lawyer.

---

continental (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or typical of Europe.

- A Continental breakfast.
- The Continental Army.

---

cotton candy (noun)

A candy made by spinning sugar that has been boiled to a high temperature.

- He looked up "cotton candy" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cotton candy" to mean a candy made by spinning sugar that has been boiled....

---

defense contractor (noun)

A contractor concerned with the development and manufacture of systems of defense.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defense contractor."
- They discussed "defense contractor" during the group presentation.

---

deliberately (adverb)

With intention; in an intentional manner.

- She was working deliberately.
- Place "deliberately" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

delta ray (noun)

An electron ejected from matter by ionizing radiation.

- He looked up "delta ray" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "delta ray" during the group presentation.

---

diana (noun)

(Roman mythology) virgin goddess of the hunt and the Moon; counterpart of Greek Artemis.

- They discussed "diana" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diana."

dictionary (noun)

A reference book containing an alphabetical list of words with information about them.

- He looked up "dictionary" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dictionary."

dimension (noun)

A construct whereby objects or individuals can be distinguished.

- In class, the teacher used "dimension" to mean a construct whereby objects or individuals can be....
- The article explained what "dimension" means with a simple example.

entrance exam (noun)

Examination to determine a candidate's preparation for a course of studies.

- They discussed "entrance exam" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "entrance exam" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

entrance examination (noun)

Examination to determine a candidate's preparation for a course of studies.

- The article explained what "entrance examination" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "entrance examination" to mean examination to determine a candidate's preparation....

extract (noun)

A passage selected from a larger work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "extract."
- He looked up "extract" because he had never seen it before.

favorites (noun)

Something regarded with special favor or liking.

- That book is one of my favorites.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "favorites."

finger-pointing (noun)

The imputation of blame.

- They want all the finger-pointing about intelligence failures to stop.
- He looked up "finger-pointing" because he had never seen it before.

fisher (noun)

Someone whose occupation is catching fish.

- They discussed "fisher" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "fisher" because he had never seen it before.

fm (noun)

A radioactive transuranic metallic element produced by bombarding plutonium with neutrons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fm."
- Understanding "fm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

functioning (noun)

Process or manner of functioning or operating.

- In class, the teacher used "functioning" to mean process or manner of functioning or operating.
- They discussed "functioning" during the group presentation.

gary cooper (noun)

United States film actor noted for his portrayals of strong silent heroes (1901-1961).

- They discussed "gary cooper" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gary cooper" means with a simple example.

generic wine (noun)

A wine that is a blend of several varieties of grapes with no one grape predominating; a wine that does not carry the name of any specific grape.

- In class, the teacher used "generic wine" to mean a wine that is a blend of several varieties of....
- Understanding "generic wine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hero sandwich (noun)

A large sandwich made of a long crusty roll split lengthwise and filled with meats and cheese (and tomato and onion and lettuce and condiments); different names are used in different sections of the United States.

- The article explained what "hero sandwich" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hero sandwich" to mean a large sandwich made of a long crusty roll split....

---

holders (noun)

The person who is in possession of a check or note or bond or document of title that is endorsed to him or to whoever holds it.

- The article explained what "holders" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "holders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

home buyer (noun)

Someone buying a house.

- In class, the teacher used "home buyer" to mean someone buying a house.
- They discussed "home buyer" during the group presentation.

---

ideology (noun)

An orientation that characterizes the thinking of a group or nation.

- Understanding "ideology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ideology" to mean an orientation that characterizes the thinking of a....

---

idiots (noun)

A person of subnormal intelligence.

- He looked up "idiots" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "idiots" to mean a person of subnormal intelligence.

---

immigrant class (noun)

Recent immigrants who are lumped together as a class by their low socioeconomic status in spite of different cultural backgrounds.

- He looked up "immigrant class" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "immigrant class" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

in all probability (adverb)

With considerable certainty; without much doubt.

- In all likelihood we are headed for war.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in all probability" naturally.

---

inclusion (noun)

The relation of comprising something.

- He admired the inclusion of so many ideas in such a short work.
- An inclusion in the cytoplasm of the cell.

---

insects (noun)

A person who has a nasty or unethical character undeserving of respect.

- They discussed "insects" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "insects" because he had never seen it before.

---

instructor (noun)

A person whose occupation is teaching.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instructor."
- The article explained what "instructor" means with a simple example.

---

islamic unity (noun)

A fundamentalist Islamic group in Somalia who initially did fundraising for al-Qaeda; responsible for ambushing United States Army Rangers and for terrorist bombings in Ethiopia; believed to have branches in several countries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "islamic unity."
- They discussed "islamic unity" during the group presentation.

---

italian sandwich (noun)

A large sandwich made of a long crusty roll split lengthwise and filled with meats and cheese (and tomato and onion and lettuce and condiments); different names are used in different sections of the United States.

- They discussed "italian sandwich" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "italian sandwich."

---

keeper (noun)

Someone in charge of other people.

- Am I my brother's keeper?
- In class, the teacher used "keeper" to mean someone in charge of other people.

---

lamb (noun)

The flesh of a young domestic sheep eaten as food.

- He looked up "lamb" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lamb" to mean the flesh of a young domestic sheep eaten as food.

---

liar (noun)

A person who has lied or who lies repeatedly.

- He looked up "liar" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "liar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

literary composition (noun)

Imaginative or creative writing.

- In class, the teacher used "literary composition" to mean imaginative or creative writing.
- He looked up "literary composition" because he had never seen it before.

---

logical argument (noun)

A course of reasoning aimed at demonstrating a truth or falsehood; the methodical process of logical reasoning.

- He looked up "logical argument" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "logical argument."

---

louis vi (noun)

King of France whose military victories consolidated his reign (1081-1137).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "louis vi."
- Understanding "louis vi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

machinery (noun)

A system of means and activities whereby a social institution functions.

- The complex machinery of negotiation.
- The machinery of command labored and brought forth an order.

---

man of the cloth (noun)

A member of the clergy and a spiritual leader of the Christian Church.

- Understanding "man of the cloth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "man of the cloth" because he had never seen it before.

---

measuring unit (noun)

A unit of measurement.

- They discussed "measuring unit" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "measuring unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

median value (noun)

The value below which 50% of the cases fall.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "median value."
- He looked up "median value" because he had never seen it before.

---

mineral water (noun)

Water naturally or artificially impregnated with mineral salts or gasses; often effervescent; often used therapeutically.

- The article explained what "mineral water" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mineral water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

needing (verb)

Require as useful, just, or proper.

- Always needing friends and money.
- The coach explained when to use "needing" and when to wait.

---

nerve growth factor (noun)

A protein that is involved in the growth of peripheral nerve cells.

- In class, the teacher used "nerve growth factor" to mean a protein that is involved in the growth of....
- The article explained what "nerve growth factor" means with a simple example.

---

observations (noun)

The act of noticing or paying attention.

- He reported his observations to the mayor.
- The article explained what "observations" means with a simple example.

---

palmer (noun)

United States golfer (born in 1929).

- They discussed "palmer" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "palmer" because he had never seen it before.

---

peers (noun)

A person who is of equal standing with another in a group.

- The article explained what "peers" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "peers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

philip anderson (noun)

United States physicist who studied the electronic structure of magnetic and disordered systems (1923-).

- In class, the teacher used "philip anderson" to mean united states physicist who studied the electronic....
- The article explained what "philip anderson" means with a simple example.

---

pill head (noun)

A consumer of amphetamine pills.

- The article explained what "pill head" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pill head."

---

placement office (noun)

An office that finds suitable employment for applicants.

- The article explained what "placement office" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "placement office" during the group presentation.

---

platinum (noun)

A heavy precious metallic element; grey-white and resistant to corroding; occurs in some nickel and copper ores and is also found native in some deposits.

- He looked up "platinum" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "platinum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

possess (verb)

Have as an attribute, knowledge, or skill.

- He possesses great knowledge about the Middle East.
- What possessed you to buy this house?

praised (verb)

Express approval of.

- The parents praised their children for their academic performance.
- Learners should practice how to use "praised" in real sentences.

primary care provider (noun)

A person who helps in identifying or preventing or treating illness or disability.

- He looked up "primary care provider" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "primary care provider" to mean a person who helps in identifying or preventing or....

quantity unit (noun)

A measure of the quantity of electricity (determined by the amount of an electric current and the time for which it flows).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quantity unit."
- He looked up "quantity unit" because he had never seen it before.

questioned (verb)

Place in doubt or express doubtful speculation.

- The suspect was questioned by the police.
- We questioned the survivor about the details of the explosion.

rabbit test (noun)

Pregnancy test that involves injecting some of the woman's urine into an unmated female rabbit and later examining the ovaries of the rabbit; presence of corpora lutea indicates that the woman is pregnant.

- He looked up "rabbit test" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rabbit test."

refuses (verb)

Resist immunologically the introduction of some foreign tissue or organ.

- In everyday English, people use "refuses" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "refuses" until he saw an example.

religious cult (noun)

A system of religious beliefs and rituals.

- Devoted to the cultus of the Blessed Virgin.
- They discussed "religious cult" during the group presentation.

resignation (noun)

A formal document giving notice of your intention to resign.

- He submitted his resignation as of next month.
- They discussed "resignation" during the group presentation.

rider (noun)

A clause that is appended to a legislative bill.

- In class, the teacher used "rider" to mean a clause that is appended to a legislative bill.
- The article explained what "rider" means with a simple example.

ritual (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of religious rituals.

- Ritual killing.
- A ritual dance of Haiti.

send packing (verb)

Stop associating with.

- In everyday English, people use "send packing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "send packing" in real sentences.

side of pork (noun)

Dressed half of a hog carcass.

- Understanding "side of pork" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "side of pork" during the group presentation.

signal-to-noise ratio (noun)

The ratio of signal intensity to noise intensity.

- Understanding "signal-to-noise ratio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "signal-to-noise ratio" during the group presentation.

slam (noun)

An aggressive remark directed at a person like a missile and intended to have a telling effect.

- The article explained what "slam" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "slam" to mean an aggressive remark directed at a person like a....

slam on (verb)

Apply carelessly.

- The coach explained when to use "slam on" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "slam on" in real sentences.

slip of the tongue (noun)

An accidental and usually trivial mistake in speaking.

- In class, the teacher used "slip of the tongue" to mean an accidental and usually trivial mistake in speaking.
- They discussed "slip of the tongue" during the group presentation.

special court-martial (noun)

A court-martial to try soldiers for offenses less serious that than those committed in action; consists of at least three officers.

- They discussed "special court-martial" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "special court-martial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

square meter (noun)

A centare is 1/100th of an are.

- In class, the teacher used "square meter" to mean a centare is 1/100th of an are.
- Understanding "square meter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

state's evidence (noun)

Evidence for the prosecution in criminal proceedings.

- In class, the teacher used "state's evidence" to mean evidence for the prosecution in criminal proceedings.
- The article explained what "state's evidence" means with a simple example.

statistical distribution (noun)

(statistics) an arrangement of values of a variable showing their observed or theoretical frequency of occurrence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "statistical distribution."
- He looked up "statistical distribution" because he had never seen it before.

superman (noun)

A person with great powers and abilities.

- They discussed "superman" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "superman" means with a simple example.

susan anthony (noun)

United States suffragist (1820-1906).

- They discussed "susan anthony" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "susan anthony" means with a simple example.

ta (noun)

A hard grey lustrous metallic element that is highly resistant to corrosion; occurs in niobite and fergusonite and tantalite.

- The article explained what “ta” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “ta” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

Travel & Transportation

luggage (noun)

The bags and suitcases that you take with you when you travel.

- Please keep your luggage with you at all times in the airport.
- We packed all our luggage into the back of the car.

---

arrive (verb)

To reach the place you are going to.

- The train will arrive at the station at 9:30.
- We arrived at the hotel late at night, so we went straight to bed.

---

ticket (noun)

A small piece of paper or an electronic pass that shows you have paid to travel or to enter a place.

- I bought two tickets for the movie tonight.
- You must show your ticket to the driver when you get on the bus.

---

airport (noun)

A place where planes take off and land, with buildings for passengers.

- We need to leave early to get to the airport on time.
- The airport was crowded with holiday travelers.

---

passport (noun)

An official document that allows you to travel to other countries.

- Do not forget your passport when you go abroad.
- She renewed her passport before the trip.

---

map (noun)

A drawing of an area that shows roads, cities, and other places.

- We used a map to find the museum.
- Can you show me where we are on the map?

---

subway (noun)

An underground train system in a city.

- I take the subway to work every morning.
- The subway is faster than the bus during rush hour.

---

taxi (noun)

A car with a driver that you pay to take you somewhere.

- We took a taxi from the station to the hotel.
- It is hard to find a taxi when it rains.

---

delay (noun / verb)

A situation in which something happens later than planned; to make something late.

- Our flight had a two-hour delay.
- Heavy snow delayed the trains this morning.

---

seat (noun)

A place where you can sit, for example on a bus, train, or plane.

- Is this seat free?
- Please remain in your seat until the plane stops.

---

driver (noun)

A person who drives a vehicle.

- The bus driver was very friendly.

- She is a careful driver.

---

bridge (noun)

A structure built over a river, road, or railway so that people and vehicles can cross.

- We walked across the bridge to the other side of the river.
- The old bridge was closed for repairs.

---

passenger (noun)

A person who travels in a vehicle but is not driving it.

- The bus was full of passengers.
- All passengers must wear a seat belt.

---

get in (verb)

Of trains; move into (a station).

- In everyday English, people use "get in" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "get in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

get about (verb)

Move around; move from place to place.

- How does she get around without a car?
- In everyday English, people use "get about" when talking about this idea.

---

go in (verb)

To come or go into.

- He did not know how to use "go in" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "go in" and when to wait.

---

on the way (adverb)

On a route to some place.

- Help is on the way.
- We saw him on the way to California.

---

going (noun)

Euphemistic expressions for death.

- Persuading him was easy going.
- He looked up "going" because he had never seen it before.

---

make-up (noun)

An event that is substituted for a previously cancelled event.

- He looked up "make-up" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "make-up."

---

good time (noun)

A highly pleasurable or exciting experience.

- We had a good time at the party.
- In class, the teacher used "good time" to mean a highly pleasurable or exciting experience.

---

world (noun)

The 3rd planet from the sun; the planet we live on.

- He sailed around the world.
- The Western world.

---

go up (verb)

Go upward with gradual or continuous progress.

- Go up a ladder.
- Can you use "go up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

well out (verb)

Flow freely and abundantly.

- She tried to use "well out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "well out" until he saw an example.

---

even up (verb)

Even up the edges of a stack of paper, in printing.

- Can you use "even up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "even up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

out of the way (adverb)

In a remote location or at a distance from the usual route.

- The restaurant is top-notch, but a little out of the way.
- Such erratic behavior was out of the way for him.

---

one-off (noun)

A happening that occurs only once and is not repeated.

- He looked up "one-off" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "one-off" to mean a happening that occurs only once and is not repeated.

---

get going (verb)

Begin or set in motion.

- Get cracking, please!
- She tried to use "get going" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

well over (verb)

Flow or run over (a limit or brim).

- Learners should practice how to use "well over" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "well over" and when to wait.

---

make way (verb)

Get out of the way.

- Make way for the President's motorcade.
- In everyday English, people use "make way" when talking about this idea.

---

new world (noun)

The hemisphere that includes North America and South America.

- Understanding "new world" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "new world" because he had never seen it before.

---

make off (verb)

Run away; usually includes taking something or somebody along.

- The thief made off with our silver.
- He did not know how to use "make off" until he saw an example.

---

go off (verb)

Run away; usually includes taking something or somebody along.

- The thief made off with our silver.
- The explosive devices went off.

---

go down (verb)

Move downward and lower, but not necessarily all the way.

- The temperature is going down.
- She will go down as the first feminist.

---

take off (verb)

Get started or set in motion, used figuratively.

- The project took a long time to get off the ground.
- The family took off for Florida.

---

city (noun)

An incorporated administrative district established by state charter.

- The city raised the tax rate.
- Ancient Troy was a great city.

---

first state (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first state."
- They discussed "first state" during the group presentation.

---

lot (noun)

A parcel of land having fixed boundaries.

- He bought a lot on the lake.
- A lot of money.

---

never-never (noun)

The remote outback of Australia; unpopulated desert country.

- We bought a car on the never-never.
- They discussed "never-never" during the group presentation.

---

the city (noun)

The part of London situated within the ancient boundaries; the commercial and financial center of London.

- Understanding "the city" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "the city" because he had never seen it before.

---

top (noun)

The highest or uppermost side of anything.

- Put your books on top of the desk.
- Only the top side of the box was painted.

---

go under (verb)

Disappear beyond the horizon.

- She tried to use "go under" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "go under" when talking about this idea.

---

come down (verb)

Move downward and lower, but not necessarily all the way.

- The temperature is going down.
- The proposal boils down to a compromise.

---

back end (noun)

The side of an object that is opposite its front.

- In class, the teacher used "back end" to mean the side of an object that is opposite its front.
- The article explained what "back end" means with a simple example.

---

going under (noun)

(of a ship) sinking.

- Understanding "going under" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "going under."

---

the states (noun)

North American republic containing 50 states - 48 conterminous states in North America plus Alaska in northwest North America and the Hawaiian Islands in the Pacific Ocean; achieved independence in 1776.

- They discussed "the states" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "the states" to mean north american republic containing 50 states - 48....

head (noun)

The part in the front or nearest the viewer.

- He was at the head of the column.
- He stuck his head out the window.

old world (noun)

The regions of the world that were known to Europeans before the discovery of the Americas.

- The article explained what "old world" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "old world" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

top out (verb)

To reach the highest point; attain maximum intensity, activity.

- Bids for the painting topped out at $50 million.
- The financial consultant topped out at age 40 because he was burned out.

call-in (noun)

A telephone call to a radio station or a television station in which the caller participates in the on-going program.

- In class, the teacher used "call-in" to mean a telephone call to a radio station or a television....
- He looked up "call-in" because he had never seen it before.

side (noun)

A surface forming part of the outside of an object.

- He examined all sides of the crystal.
- They always sat on the right side of the church.

start up (verb)

Get going or set in motion.

- We simply could not start the engine.
- Start up the computer.

call at (verb)

Enter a harbor.

- The ship called in Athens.
- In everyday English, people use "call at" when talking about this idea.

open (noun)

A clear or unobstructed space or expanse of land or water.

- Finally broke out of the forest into the open.
- The concert was held in the open air.

end of the world (noun)

An unpleasant or disastrous destiny.

- Everyone was aware of the approaching doom but was helpless to avoid it.
- That's unfortunate but it isn't the end of the world.

car (noun)

A wheeled vehicle adapted to the rails of railroad.

- Three cars had jumped the rails.
- He needs a car to get to work.

line up (verb)

Form a queue, form a line, stand in line.

- Customers lined up in front of the store.
- The buildings all line up neatly.

oh (noun)

A midwestern state in north central United States in the Great Lakes region.

- They discussed “oh” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “oh” means with a simple example.

---

start-off (noun)

A start given to contestants.

- In class, the teacher used “start-off” to mean a start given to contestants.
- They discussed “start-off” during the group presentation.

---

stop over (verb)

Interrupt a journey temporarily, e.g., overnight.

- We had to stop over in Venezuela on our flight back from Brazil.
- We stopped at Aunt Mary's house.

---

death (noun)

The event of dying or departure from life.

- Her death came as a terrible shock.
- The animal died a painful death.

---

free state (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- They discussed “free state” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “free state” means with a simple example.

---

book up (verb)

Book all available places or tickets.

- The coach explained when to use “book up” and when to wait.
- Can you use “book up” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

come away (verb)

Leave in a certain condition.

- She came away angry.
- The coach explained when to use “come away” and when to wait.

---

show me state (noun)

A midwestern state in central United States; a border state during the American Civil War, Missouri was admitted to the Confederacy without actually seceding from the Union.

- Understanding “show me state” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “show me state” means with a simple example.

---

started (verb)

Move or jump suddenly, as if in surprise or alarm.

- The U.S. started a war in the Middle East.
- Who started this company?

---

back country (noun)

A remote and undeveloped area.

- The article explained what “back country” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “back country” to mean a remote and undeveloped area.

---

nice (noun)

A city in southeastern France on the Mediterranean; the leading resort on the French Riviera.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “nice.”
- He looked up “nice” because he had never seen it before.

---

take water (verb)

Enter the water.

- The wild ducks took water.

- The coach explained when to use “take water” and when to wait.

---

close in (verb)

Advance or converge on.

- Darkness enclosed him.
- They closed in the porch with a fence.

---

move in (verb)

Of trains; move into (a station).

- She tried to use “move in” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use “move in” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

move on (verb)

Move forward, also in the metaphorical sense.

- She tried to use “move on” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “move on” until he saw an example.

---

north (noun)

The United States (especially the northern states during the American Civil War).

- The North’s superior resources turned the scale.
- The article explained what “north” means with a simple example.

---

move in on (verb)

Make intrusive advances towards.

- In everyday English, people use “move in on” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “move in on” in real sentences.

---

day book (noun)

The daily written record of events (as arrests) in a police station.

- The article explained what “day book” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “day book.”

---

high water (noun)

The tide when the water is highest.

- They discussed “high water” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “high water” means with a simple example.

---

new york (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- They discussed “new york” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “new york” means with a simple example.

---

american state (noun)

One of the 50 states of the United States.

- They discussed “american state” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “american state.”

---

check in (verb)

Announce one’s arrival, e.g. at hotels or airports.

- Can you use “check in” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “check in” when talking about this idea.

---

coming back (noun)

The occurrence of a change in direction back in the opposite direction.

- Understanding “coming back” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “coming back” to mean the occurrence of a change in direction back in the....

---

development (noun)

A district that has been developed to serve some purpose.

- Such land is practical for small park developments.
- He congratulated them on their development of a plan to meet the emergency.

---

move out (verb)

Move out of one's old house or office.

- The teacher took the children out of the classroom.
- He did not know how to use "move out" until he saw an example.

---

move up (verb)

Move to a better position in life or to a better job; "She ascended from a life of poverty to one of great.

- The coach explained when to use "move up" and when to wait.
- Can you use "move up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

no-go area (noun)

An area that is dangerous or impossible to enter or to which entry is forbidden.

- The article explained what "no-go area" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "no-go area" to mean an area that is dangerous or impossible to enter or....

---

state line (noun)

The boundary between two states.

- They discussed "state line" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "state line" because he had never seen it before.

---

end point (noun)

A place where something ends or is complete.

- The article explained what "end point" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "end point."

---

fire (noun)

The event of something burning (often destructive).

- They lost everything in the fire.
- Hold your fire until you can see the whites of their eyes.

---

high country (noun)

An area lying above the piedmont but below the timberline.

- In class, the teacher used "high country" to mean an area lying above the piedmont but below the....
- The article explained what "high country" means with a simple example.

---

old country (noun)

The country of origin of an immigrant.

- They discussed "old country" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old country."

---

used-car (noun)

A car that has been previously owned; not a new car.

- Understanding "used-car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "used-car" means with a simple example.

---

car part (noun)

A component of an automobile.

- His business is auto parts.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "car part."

---

front (noun)

The immediate proximity of someone or something.

- He was well behaved in front of company.
- He put up a bold front.

---

move into (verb)

To come or go into.

- Can you use "move into" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "move into" and when to wait.

---

move over (verb)

Move in order to make room for someone for something.

- 'Move over,' he told the crowd.
- In everyday English, people use "move over" when talking about this idea.

---

great white way (noun)

A street in Manhattan that passes through Times Square; famous for its theaters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great white way."
- The article explained what "great white way" means with a simple example.

---

london (noun)

The capital and largest city of England; located on the Thames in southeastern England; financial and industrial and cultural center.

- Understanding "london" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "london" to mean the capital and largest city of england; located on....

---

meet (verb)

Meet by design; be present at the arrival of.

- Can you meet me at the train station?
- I'll probably see you at the meeting.

---

move back (verb)

Pull back or move away or backward.

- She tried to use "move back" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "move back" until he saw an example.

---

bring in (verb)

Bring in a new person or object into a familiar environment.

- In everyday English, people use "bring in" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "bring in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

take the air (verb)

Take a walk; go for a walk; walk for pleasure.

- The lovers held hands while walking.
- Learners should practice how to use "take the air" in real sentences.

---

city line (noun)

The boundary of a city.

- The article explained what "city line" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "city line."

---

clear (noun)

A clear or unobstructed space or expanse of land or water.

- Investigation showed that he was in the clear.
- The article explained what "clear" means with a simple example.

---

get behind (verb)

To lag or linger behind.

- The coach explained when to use "get behind" and when to wait.
- Can you use "get behind" in a sentence that fits this situation?

march on (verb)

Move forward, also in the metaphorical sense.

- Time marches on.
- She tried to use "march on" carefully so everyone would understand.

bring about (verb)

Cause to move into the opposite direction.

- They brought about the boat when they saw a storm approaching.
- The new President must bring about a change in the health care system.

cut to (verb)

Move to another scene when filming.

- The camera cut to the sky.
- In everyday English, people use "cut to" when talking about this idea.

light year (noun)

The distance that light travels in a vacuum in 1 year; 5.88 trillion miles or 9.46 trillion kilometers.

- They discussed "light year" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "light year" because he had never seen it before.

light-year (noun)

The distance that light travels in a vacuum in 1 year; 5.88 trillion miles or 9.46 trillion kilometers.

- In class, the teacher used "light-year" to mean the distance that light travels in a vacuum in 1....
- The article explained what "light-year" means with a simple example.

move through (verb)

Make a passage or journey from one place to another.

- The tourists moved through the town and bought up all the souvenirs;.
- Some travelers pass through the desert.

old south (noun)

The South of the United States before the American Civil War.

- Understanding "old south" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "old south" because he had never seen it before.

take leave (verb)

Go away or leave.

- Learners should practice how to use "take leave" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "take leave" until he saw an example.

turn back (verb)

Force to go away; used both with concrete and metaphoric meanings.

- The supermarket had to turn back many disappointed customers.
- The hikers got into a storm and had to turn back.

de (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- The article explained what "de" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "de" to mean a mid-atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

march out (verb)

March out (as from a defile) into open ground.

- He did not know how to use "march out" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "march out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

meet up with (verb)

Meet with by appointment.

- She met up with her former lover.
- Learners should practice how to use "meet up with" in real sentences.

---

new london (noun)

A town in southeastern Connecticut near Long Island Sound; an important whaling center in the 19th century.

- He looked up "new london" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "new london" to mean a town in southeastern connecticut near long island....

---

on board (adverb)

On a ship, train, plane or other vehicle.

- The narrator describes the scene "on board" in the final chapter.
- He answered "on board," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

space (noun)

An area reserved for some particular purpose.

- The laboratory's floor space.
- They tested his ability to locate objects in space.

---

top side (noun)

The highest or uppermost side of anything.

- Put your books on top of the desk.
- Only the top side of the box was painted.

---

car company (noun)

A company that makes and sells automobiles.

- The article explained what "car company" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "car company" to mean a company that makes and sells automobiles.

---

site (noun)

The piece of land on which something is located (or is to be located).

- A good site for the school.
- The sites are determined by highly specific sequences of nucleotides.

---

co (noun)

A state in west central United States in the Rocky Mountains.

- In class, the teacher used "co" to mean a state in west central united states in the rocky....
- Understanding "co" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

move around (verb)

Pass to the other side of.

- Move around the obstacle.
- The coach explained when to use "move around" and when to wait.

---

car care (noun)

Keeping a car in good working order.

- The article explained what "car care" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "car care" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

common (noun)

A piece of open land for recreational use in an urban area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common."
- They discussed "common" during the group presentation.

---

new town (noun)

A planned urban community created in a rural or undeveloped area and designed to be self-sufficient with its own housing and education and commerce and recreation.

- Understanding "new town" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "new town" means with a simple example.

second coming (noun)

(Christian theology) the reappearance of Jesus as judge for the Last Judgment.

- The article explained what “second coming” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “second coming” during the group presentation.

water line (noun)

A line marking the level reached by a body of water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water line.”
- He looked up “water line” because he had never seen it before.

white line (noun)

A white stripe in the middle of a road to mark traffic lanes.

- They discussed “white line” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “white line” because he had never seen it before.

county (noun)

(United States) the largest administrative district within a state.

- The county plans to build a new road.
- The county has a population of 12,345 people.

inside (noun)

The inner or enclosed surface of something.

- In class, the teacher used “inside” to mean the inner or enclosed surface of something.
- The article explained what “inside” means with a simple example.

new york state (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- In class, the teacher used “new york state” to mean a mid-atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.
- He looked up “new york state” because he had never seen it before.

one-way light time (noun)

The elapsed time it takes for light (or radio signals) to travel between the Earth and a celestial object.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “one-way light time.”
- He looked up “one-way light time” because he had never seen it before.

service line (noun)

The back line bounding each end of a tennis or handball court; when serving the server must not step over this line.

- The article explained what “service line” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “service line” to mean the back line bounding each end of a tennis or....

bring down (verb)

Move something or somebody to a lower position.

- Take down the vase from the shelf.
- Her playing brought down the house.

change course (verb)

Shift from one side of the ship to the other.

- Can you use “change course” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “change course” and when to wait.

go across (verb)

Go across or through.

- In everyday English, people use “go across” when talking about this idea.
- Can you use “go across” in a sentence that fits this situation?

old line state (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- Understanding "old line state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "old line state" during the group presentation.

---

stay in place (verb)

Be stationary.

- In everyday English, people use "stay in place" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "stay in place" until he saw an example.

---

service area (noun)

Place on a highway providing garage services and eating and toilet facilities.

- In class, the teacher used "service area" to mean place on a highway providing garage services and....
- The article explained what "service area" means with a simple example.

---

break up (verb)

To cause to separate and go in different directions.

- The book dealer would not break the set.
- Break up kidney stones.

---

stay put (verb)

Stay put (in a certain place).

- We are staying in Detroit; we are not moving to Cincinnati.
- Stay put in the corner here!

---

take the road (verb)

Give theatrical performances while traveling from town to town.

- The coach explained when to use "take the road" and when to wait.
- Can you use "take the road" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

break out (verb)

Move away or escape suddenly.

- Nobody can break out–this prison is high security.
- After 1989, peace broke out in the former East Bloc.

---

cut through (verb)

Travel across or pass over.

- He did not know how to use "cut through" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "cut through" in real sentences.

---

down town (noun)

The center of a city.

- He looked up "down town" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "down town."

---

light second (noun)

The distance light travels in a vacuum in one second; approximately 300,000 kilometers.

- He looked up "light second" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "light second" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

press on (verb)

Continue moving forward.

- Learners should practice how to use "press on" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "press on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

source (noun)

The place where something begins, where it springs into being.

- Pittsburgh is the source of the Ohio River.

- The reporter had two sources for the story.

---

south side (noun)

The side that is on the south.

- Understanding "south side" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south side."

---

city of light (noun)

The capital and largest city of France; and international center of culture and commerce.

- In class, the teacher used "city of light" to mean the capital and largest city of france; and....
- The article explained what "city of light" means with a simple example.

---

line of control (noun)

A 450-mile line that is supposed to indicate the boundary between the part of Kashmir controlled by India and the part controlled by Pakistan.

- In class, the teacher used "line of control" to mean a 450-mile line that is supposed to indicate the....
- Understanding "line of control" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

new york city (noun)

The largest city in New York State and in the United States; located in southeastern New York at the mouth of the Hudson river; a major financial and cultural center.

- He looked up "new york city" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new york city."

---

west end (noun)

The part of west central London containing the main entertainment and shopping areas.

- Understanding "west end" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "west end" because he had never seen it before.

---

front end (noun)

The side that is forward or prominent.

- Understanding "front end" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "front end."

---

green (noun)

A piece of open land for recreational use in an urban area.

- The ball rolled across the green and into the bunker.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green."

---

day return (noun)

A return ticket (at reduced fare) for traveling both ways in the same day.

- Understanding "day return" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "day return" during the group presentation.

---

england (noun)

A division of the United Kingdom.

- The article explained what "england" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "england" to mean a division of the united kingdom.

---

open air (noun)

Where the air is unconfined.

- The concert was held in the open air.
- Camping in the open.

---

stand out (verb)

Steer away from shore, of ships.

- She tried to use "stand out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "stand out" and when to wait.

---

step on (verb)

Place or press the foot on.

- He stepped on the hem of her long gown.
- Can you use "step on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

uk (noun)

A monarchy in northwestern Europe occupying most of the British Isles; divided into England and Scotland and Wales and Northern Ireland; 'Great Britain' is often used loosely to refer to the United Kingdom.

- Understanding "uk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "uk" because he had never seen it before.

---

used-car lot (noun)

A parking lot where a dealer in used-cars displays cars for sale.

- The article explained what "used-car lot" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "used-car lot" during the group presentation.

---

act of god (noun)

A natural and unavoidable catastrophe that interrupts the expected course of events.

- He discovered that his house was not insured against acts of God.
- The article explained what "act of god" means with a simple example.

---

drive out (verb)

Force to go away; used both with concrete and metaphoric meanings.

- Drive away potential burglars.
- Drive away bad thoughts.

---

drive up (verb)

Approach while driving.

- The truck entered the driveway and drove up towards the house.
- Can you use "drive up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

low water (noun)

The lowest (farthest) ebb of the tide.

- They discussed "low water" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "low water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lower (verb)

Move something or somebody to a lower position.

- Lower a rating.
- Lower expectations.

---

north side (noun)

The side that is on the north.

- In class, the teacher used "north side" to mean the side that is on the north.
- They discussed "north side" during the group presentation.

---

playing area (noun)

A piece of land prepared for playing a game.

- The article explained what "playing area" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "playing area."

---

step out (verb)

Go outside a room or building for a short period of time.

- The coach explained when to use "step out" and when to wait.
- Can you use "step out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

take hold of (verb)

Take hold of so as to seize or restrain or stop the motion of.

- He did not know how to use "take hold of" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "take hold of" and when to wait.

---

china (noun)

A communist nation that covers a vast territory in eastern Asia; the most populous country in the world.

- They discussed "china" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "china" means with a simple example.

---

city of london (noun)

The part of London situated within the ancient boundaries; the commercial and financial center of London.

- In class, the teacher used "city of london" to mean the part of london situated within the ancient....
- They discussed "city of london" during the group presentation.

---

hell (noun)

A cause of difficulty and suffering.

- War is hell.
- The hell of battle.

---

old north state (noun)

A state in southeastern United States; one of the original 13 colonies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old north state."
- He looked up "old north state" because he had never seen it before.

---

red line (noun)

A line that is colored red and that bisects an ice hockey rink.

- The article explained what "red line" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "red line" to mean a line that is colored red and that bisects an ice....

---

right bank (noun)

The region of Paris on the north bank of the Seine.

- Understanding "right bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right bank."

---

send on (verb)

Send or ship onward from an intermediate post or station in transit.

- Can you use "send on" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "send on" until he saw an example.

---

west point (noun)

United States Army installation on the west bank of Hudson river to the north of New York City; site of United States Military Academy.

- They discussed "west point" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "west point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cut away (verb)

Move quickly to another scene or focus when filming.

- 'cut away now!' the director shouted.
- Cut away the branch that sticks out.

---

met (verb)

Meet by design; be present at the arrival of.

- I met this really handsome guy at a bar last night!
- We met in Singapore.

---

new england (noun)

A region of northeastern United States comprising Maine and New Hampshire and Vermont and Massachusetts and Rhode Island and Connecticut.

- They discussed "new england" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "new england" because he had never seen it before.

police car (noun)

A car in which policemen cruise the streets; equipped with radiotelephonic communications to headquarters.

- In class, the teacher used "police car" to mean a car in which policemen cruise the streets;...
- They discussed "police car" during the group presentation.

continue (verb)

Move ahead; travel onward in time or space.

- She continued in the direction of the hills.
- We continued to work into the night.

fall back (verb)

Hang (back) or fall (behind) in movement, progress, development, etc.

- The enemy fell back.
- She tried to use "fall back" carefully so everyone would understand.

line of fire (noun)

The path of a missile discharged from a firearm.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line of fire."
- He looked up "line of fire" because he had never seen it before.

sign in (verb)

Announce one's arrival, e.g. at hotels or airports.

- She tried to use "sign in" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "sign in" in real sentences.

walk in (verb)

Enter by walking.

- She walks in at all hours, as if she lived here.
- Learners should practice how to use "walk in" in real sentences.

west side (noun)

The side that is on the west.

- He looked up "west side" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "west side" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

front line (noun)

The line along which opposing armies face each other.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "front line."
- They discussed "front line" during the group presentation.

go forward (verb)

Move ahead; travel onward in time or space.

- Can you use "go forward" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "go forward" and when to wait.

human death (noun)

A death resulting from an accident or a disaster.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "human death."
- The article explained what "human death" means with a simple example.

parts (noun)

The local environment.

- He hasn't been seen around these parts in years.
- Glue the two parts together.

stand still (verb)

Remain in place; hold still; remain fixed or immobile.

- Traffic stood still when the funeral procession passed by.
- Learners should practice how to use "stand still" in real sentences.

---

west country (noun)

The southwestern part of England (including Cornwall and Devon and Somerset).

- They discussed "west country" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "west country" because he had never seen it before.

---

drive off (verb)

Force to go away; used both with concrete and metaphoric meanings.

- Drive away potential burglars.
- Drive away bad thoughts.

---

earth (noun)

The 3rd planet from the sun; the planet we live on.

- The Earth moves around the sun.
- They dug into the earth outside the church.

---

fall down (verb)

Lose an upright position suddenly.

- He did not know how to use "fall down" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "fall down" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

full term (noun)

The end of gestation or point at which birth is imminent.

- A healthy baby born at full term.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "full term."

---

get off the ground (verb)

Get started or set in motion, used figuratively.

- The project took a long time to get off the ground.
- In everyday English, people use "get off the ground" when talking about this idea.

---

goal (noun)

The place designated as the end (as of a race or journey).

- The winning goal came with less than a minute left to play.
- They discussed "goal" during the group presentation.

---

running start (noun)

A racing start in which the contestants are already in full motion when they pass the starting line.

- The article explained what "running start" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "running start" to mean a racing start in which the contestants are already....

---

success (noun)

An event that accomplishes its intended purpose.

- Let's call heads a success and tails a failure.
- The election was a remarkable success for the Whigs.

---

walk about (verb)

Walk with no particular goal.

- We were walking around in the garden.
- After breakfast, she walked about in the park.

---

walk out (verb)

Leave abruptly, often in protest or anger.

- The customer that was not served walked out.

- The employees walked out when their demand for better benefits was not met.

---

walk out of (verb)

Leave, usually as an expression of disapproval.

- She tried to use "walk out of" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "walk out of" until he saw an example.

---

city center (noun)

The central part of a city.

- He looked up "city center" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "city center" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pass on (verb)

Move forward, also in the metaphorical sense.

- She passed the family jewels on to her daughter-in-law.
- Pass along the good news.

---

right stage (noun)

The part of the stage on the actor's right as the actor faces the audience.

- Understanding "right stage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right stage."

---

send-off (noun)

A start given to contestants.

- In class, the teacher used "send-off" to mean a start given to contestants.
- The article explained what "send-off" means with a simple example.

---

sex change (noun)

A change in a person's physical sexual characteristics (as by surgery and hormone treatments).

- He looked up "sex change" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sex change" to mean a change in a person's physical sexual....

---

stage right (noun)

The part of the stage on the actor's right as the actor faces the audience.

- Understanding "stage right" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stage right."

---

district (noun)

A region marked off for administrative or other purposes.

- In class, the teacher used "district" to mean a region marked off for administrative or other....
- Understanding "district" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

india (noun)

A republic in the Asian subcontinent in southern Asia; second most populous country in the world; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1947.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "india."
- The article explained what "india" means with a simple example.

---

mother country (noun)

The country where you were born.

- They discussed "mother country" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mother country" means with a simple example.

---

come forward (verb)

Make oneself visible; take action.

- In everyday English, people use "come forward" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "come forward" in real sentences.

---

date line (noun)

An imaginary line on the surface of the earth following (approximately) the 180th meridian.

- In class, the teacher used "date line" to mean an imaginary line on the surface of the earth....
- Understanding "date line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

left bank (noun)

The region of Paris on the southern bank of the Seine; a center of artistic and student life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "left bank."
- Understanding "left bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

send around (verb)

Forward to others.

- He is sending around an appeal for funds.
- In everyday English, people use "send around" when talking about this idea.

---

stop dead (verb)

Stop moving or become immobilized.

- She tried to use "stop dead" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "stop dead" and when to wait.

---

three-day event (noun)

An equestrian competition; the first day is dressage; the second is cross-country jumping; the third is stadium jumping.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "three-day event."
- The article explained what "three-day event" means with a simple example.

---

eye (noun)

An area that is approximately central within some larger region.

- They were in the eye of the storm.
- She has an eye for fresh talent.

---

sign off (verb)

Cease broadcasting; get off the air; as of radio stations.

- Learners should practice how to use "sign off" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "sign off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

track (noun)

A line or route along which something travels or moves.

- The track of an animal.
- The title track of the album.

---

us army (noun)

The army of the United States of America; the agency that organizes and trains soldiers for land warfare.

- The article explained what "us army" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "us army" during the group presentation.

---

beat (noun)

A regular route for a sentry or policeman.

- In the old days a policeman walked a beat and knew all his people by name.
- He could feel the beat of her heart.

---

capital (noun)

A center that is associated more than any other with some activity or product.

- The crime capital of Italy.
- The drug capital of Columbia.

---

center line (noun)

A line that bisects a plane figure.

- They discussed "center line" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "center line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

county line (noun)

The boundary between two counties.

- Understanding "county line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "county line" to mean the boundary between two counties.

---

drive away (verb)

Force to go away; used both with concrete and metaphoric meanings.

- Drive away potential burglars.
- Drive away bad thoughts.

---

make pass (verb)

Cause to pass.

- She passed around the plates.
- In everyday English, people use "make pass" when talking about this idea.

---

pass over (verb)

Make a passage or journey from one place to another.

- Some travelers pass through the desert.
- The caravan covered almost 100 miles each day.

---

station (noun)

The position where someone (as a guard or sentry) stands or is assigned to stand.

- A sentry station.
- He started looking for a gas station.

---

beginning (noun)

The event consisting of the start of something.

- The beginning of the war.
- 'It was a dark and stormy night' is a hackneyed beginning for a story.

---

california (noun)

A state in the western United States on the Pacific; the 3rd largest state; known for earthquakes.

- He looked up "california" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "california."

---

central city (noun)

The central part of a city.

- In class, the teacher used "central city" to mean the central part of a city.
- They discussed "central city" during the group presentation.

---

clear the air (verb)

Dispel differences or negative emotions.

- The group called a meeting to finally clear the air.
- She tried to use "clear the air" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

club car (noun)

Railroad car having a bar and tables and lounge chairs.

- Understanding "club car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "club car" because he had never seen it before.

---

east side (noun)

The side that is on the east.

- In class, the teacher used "east side" to mean the side that is on the east.
- He looked up "east side" because he had never seen it before.

far east (noun)

A popular expression for the countries of eastern Asia (usually including China and Mongolia and Taiwan and Japan and Korea and Indochina and eastern Siberia).

- In class, the teacher used "far east" to mean a popular expression for the countries of eastern....
- The article explained what "far east" means with a simple example.

national park (noun)

A tract of land declared by the national government to be public property.

- Understanding "national park" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "national park."

pass off (verb)

Cause to be circulated and accepted in a false character or identity.

- She passed the glass off as diamonds.
- He passed himself off as a secret agent.

playing field (noun)

A piece of land prepared for playing a game.

- The home crowd cheered when Princeton took the field.
- The government's objective is to insure a genuinely level playing field for American industry and commerce in Europe.

point source (noun)

A concentrated source (especially of radiation or pollution) that is spatially constricted.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "point source."
- He looked up "point source" because he had never seen it before.

region (noun)

The extended spatial location of something.

- The farming regions of France.
- Regions of outer space.

travel (noun)

The act of going from one place to another.

- He enjoyed selling but he hated the travel.
- In class, the teacher used "travel" to mean the act of going from one place to another.

travel to (verb)

Go to certain places as for sightseeing.

- Can you use "travel to" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "travel to" and when to wait.

air space (noun)

The space in the atmosphere immediately above the earth.

- Understanding "air space" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "air space" during the group presentation.

double up (verb)

Bend over or curl up, usually with laughter or pain.

- He doubled and vomited violently.
- She tried to use "double up" carefully so everyone would understand.

left stage (noun)

The part of the stage on the actor's left as the actor faces the audience.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "left stage."
- Understanding "left stage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

news event (noun)

A newsworthy event.

- The article explained what "news event" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "news event" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pass through (verb)

Make a passage or journey from one place to another.

- The tourists moved through the town and bought up all the souvenirs;.
- Some travelers pass through the desert.

---

stage left (noun)

The part of the stage on the actor's left as the actor faces the audience.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stage left."
- Understanding "stage left" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

car park (noun)

A lot where cars are parked.

- He looked up "car park" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "car park" to mean a lot where cars are parked.

---

law of areas (noun)

A law concerning the speed at which planets travel; a line connecting a planet to the sun will sweep out equal areas in equal times.

- Kepler's second law means that a planet's orbital speed changes with its distance from the sun.
- The article explained what "law of areas" means with a simple example.

---

social event (noun)

An event characteristic of persons forming groups.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social event."
- He looked up "social event" because he had never seen it before.

---

south american country (noun)

Any one of the countries occupying the South American continent.

- The article explained what "south american country" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south american country."

---

travel time (noun)

A period of time spent traveling.

- Workers were not paid for their travel time between home and factory.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "travel time."

---

canada (noun)

A nation in northern North America; the French were the first Europeans to settle in mainland Canada.

- The border between the United States and Canada is the longest unguarded border in the world.
- In class, the teacher used "canada" to mean a nation in northern north america; the french were....

---

double over (verb)

Bend over or curl up, usually with laughter or pain.

- He doubled and vomited violently.
- Can you use "double over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

episode (noun)

A happening that is distinctive in a series of related events.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "episode."
- He looked up "episode" because he had never seen it before.

---

fall open (verb)

Open involuntarily.

- His mouth dropped open.

- He did not know how to use “fall open” until he saw an example.

---

field of fire (noun)

The area that a weapon or group of weapons can cover effectively with gun fire from a given position.

- The article explained what “field of fire” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “field of fire” during the group presentation.

---

green line (noun)

The border marking the boundaries of the land that Israel won in its 1948 war of independence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “green line.”
- He looked up “green line” because he had never seen it before.

---

space age (noun)

The age beginning with the first space travel; from 1957 to the present.

- They discussed “space age” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “space age” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

walk away (verb)

Go away from.

- The actor walked off before he got his cue.
- I got annoyed and just walked off.

---

way station (noun)

A stopping place on a journey.

- They discussed “way station” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “way station.”

---

bring outside (verb)

Bring outside the body for surgery, of organs.

- Can you use “bring outside” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “bring outside” when talking about this idea.

---

main street (noun)

Any small town (or the people who inhabit it); generally used to represent parochialism and materialism (after a novel by Sinclair Lewis).

- Main Street will never vote for a liberal politician.
- In class, the teacher used “main street” to mean any small town (or the people who inhabit it);....

---

property line (noun)

The boundary line between two pieces of property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “property line.”
- The article explained what “property line” means with a simple example.

---

train (noun)

A series of consequences wrought by an event.

- It led to a train of disasters.
- Express trains don’t stop at Princeton Junction.

---

building site (noun)

A lot on which there are no permanent buildings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “building site.”
- He looked up “building site” because he had never seen it before.

---

goals (noun)

The place designated as the end (as of a race or journey).

- In class, the teacher used “goals” to mean the place designated as the end (as of a race or....
- The article explained what “goals” means with a simple example.

---

hotel (noun)

A building where travelers can pay for lodging and meals and other services.

- In class, the teacher used "hotel" to mean a building where travelers can pay for lodging and....
- Understanding "hotel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

light hour (noun)

The distance light travels in a vacuum in one hour; approximately one billion kilometers.

- In class, the teacher used "light hour" to mean the distance light travels in a vacuum in one hour;....
- The article explained what "light hour" means with a simple example.

---

little rock (noun)

The state capital and largest city of Arkansas in the central part of Arkansas on the Arkansas River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little rock."
- The article explained what "little rock" means with a simple example.

---

long island (noun)

An island in southeastern New York; Brooklyn and Queens are on its western end.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long island."
- They discussed "long island" during the group presentation.

---

morning star (noun)

A planet (usually Venus) seen just before sunrise in the eastern sky.

- In class, the teacher used "morning star" to mean a planet (usually venus) seen just before sunrise....
- The article explained what "morning star" means with a simple example.

---

near miss (noun)

An accidental collision that is narrowly avoided.

- He looked up "near miss" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "near miss."

---

north american country (noun)

Any country on the North American continent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north american country."
- They discussed "north american country" during the group presentation.

---

back of beyond (noun)

A very remote and inaccessible place.

- You'd have to go to the back of beyond to find one of those.
- They discussed "back of beyond" during the group presentation.

---

box number (noun)

A mailing address to which answers to a newspaper ad can be sent.

- Understanding "box number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "box number" to mean a mailing address to which answers to a newspaper....

---

city district (noun)

A district of a town or city.

- They discussed "city district" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "city district" to mean a district of a town or city.

---

drop down (verb)

Fall or descend to a lower place or level.

- In everyday English, people use "drop down" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "drop down" in real sentences.

---

france (noun)

A republic in western Europe; the largest country wholly in Europe.

- They discussed “france” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “france” to mean a republic in western europe; the largest country....

---

reach (noun)

The limits within which something can be effective.

- He was beyond the reach of their fire.
- Outside the reach of the law.

---

sea change (noun)

A profound transformation.

- They discussed “sea change” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sea change.”

---

state capital (noun)

The capital city of a political subdivision of a country.

- The article explained what “state capital” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “state capital” to mean the capital city of a political subdivision of a....

---

business district (noun)

The central area or commercial center of a town or city.

- Understanding “business district” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “business district” means with a simple example.

---

european country (noun)

Any one of the countries occupying the European continent.

- The article explained what “european country” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “european country” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

final result (noun)

Something that results.

- He listened for the results on the radio.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “final result.”

---

middle west (noun)

The north central region of the United States (sometimes called the heartland or the breadbasket of America).

- Understanding “middle west” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “middle west.”

---

russia (noun)

A federation in northeastern Europe and northern Asia; formerly Soviet Russia; since 1991 an independent state.

- The article explained what “russia” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “russia” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

starting line (noun)

A line indicating the location of the start of a race or a game.

- In class, the teacher used “starting line” to mean a line indicating the location of the start of a....
- He looked up “starting line” because he had never seen it before.

---

chance event (noun)

Anything that happens suddenly or by chance without an apparent cause.

- In class, the teacher used “chance event” to mean anything that happens suddenly or by chance without....
- They discussed “chance event” during the group presentation.

---

force-land (verb)

Make a forced landing.

- In everyday English, people use “force-land” when talking about this idea.
- Can you use “force-land” in a sentence that fits this situation?

goal line (noun)

A line marking each end of the playing field or pitch; where the goals stand.

- They discussed "goal line" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "goal line" means with a simple example.

land site (noun)

The piece of land on which something is located (or is to be located).

- A good site for the school.
- Understanding "land site" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

low countries (noun)

The lowland region of western Europe on the North Sea: Belgium and Luxembourg and the Netherlands.

- Understanding "low countries" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "low countries" means with a simple example.

special air service (noun)

A specialist regiment of the British army that is trained in commando techniques of warfare and used in clandestine operations (especially against terrorist groups).

- He looked up "special air service" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "special air service."

training college (noun)

A school providing training for a special field or profession.

- The article explained what "training college" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "training college" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

training program (noun)

A program designed for training in specific skills.

- Understanding "training program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "training program" during the group presentation.

waiting line (noun)

A line of people or vehicles waiting for something.

- They discussed "waiting line" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "waiting line" because he had never seen it before.

west bank (noun)

An area between Israel and Jordan on the west bank of the Jordan river; populated largely by Palestinians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "west bank."
- He looked up "west bank" because he had never seen it before.

common land (noun)

A pasture subject to common use.

- He looked up "common land" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "common land" during the group presentation.

county town (noun)

The town or city that is the seat of government for a shire.

- He looked up "county town" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "county town" to mean the town or city that is the seat of government for....

district line (noun)

The boundary between two districts.

- In class, the teacher used "district line" to mean the boundary between two districts.
- The article explained what "district line" means with a simple example.

fan out (verb)

Move outward.

- The soldiers fanned out.
- Can you use "fan out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

field event (noun)

A competition that takes place on a field rather than on a running track.

- Understanding "field event" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "field event" because he had never seen it before.

---

finish (noun)

The place designated as the end (as of a race or journey).

- A crowd assembled at the finish.
- The boat had a metallic finish.

---

half-staff (noun)

A position some distance below the top of a mast to which a flag is lowered in mourning or to signal distress.

- He looked up "half-staff" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half-staff."

---

road test (noun)

A test to insure that a vehicle is roadworthy.

- Understanding "road test" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "road test" during the group presentation.

---

set ahead (verb)

Move forward.

- He did not know how to use "set ahead" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "set ahead" in real sentences.

---

straight line (noun)

A line traced by a point traveling in a constant direction; a line of zero curvature.

- The shortest distance between two points is a straight line.
- In class, the teacher used "straight line" to mean a line traced by a point traveling in a constant....

---

fall behind (verb)

Hang (back) or fall (behind) in movement, progress, development, etc.

- In everyday English, people use "fall behind" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "fall behind" until he saw an example.

---

germany (noun)

A republic in central Europe; split into East Germany and West Germany after World War II and reunited in 1990.

- They discussed "germany" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "germany" means with a simple example.

---

key west (noun)

A town on the westernmost of the Florida keys in the Gulf of Mexico.

- Understanding "key west" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "key west" during the group presentation.

---

military position (noun)

A point occupied by troops for tactical reasons.

- He looked up "military position" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "military position" to mean a point occupied by troops for tactical reasons.

---

north star state (noun)

A midwestern state.

- He looked up "north star state" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "north star state" during the group presentation.

---

red china (noun)

A communist nation that covers a vast territory in eastern Asia; the most populous country in the world.

- He looked up "red china" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "red china" to mean a communist nation that covers a vast territory in....

---

south australia (noun)

A state in south central Australia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south australia."
- Understanding "south australia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trip (noun)

An unintentional but embarrassing blunder.

- He recited the whole poem without a single trip.
- He arranged his robes to avoid a trip-up later.

---

united states of america (noun)

North American republic containing 50 states - 48 conterminous states in North America plus Alaska in northwest North America and the Hawaiian Islands in the Pacific Ocean; achieved independence in 1776.

- In class, the teacher used "united states of america" to mean north american republic containing 50 states - 48....
- Understanding "united states of america" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deep south (noun)

The southeastern region of the United States: South Carolina and Georgia and Alabama and Mississippi and Louisiana; prior to the American Civil War all these states produced cotton and permitted slavery.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deep south."
- They discussed "deep south" during the group presentation.

---

japan (noun)

A string of more than 3,000 islands to the east of Asia extending 1,300 miles between the Sea of Japan and the western Pacific Ocean.

- In class, the teacher used "japan" to mean a string of more than 3,000 islands to the east of....
- He looked up "japan" because he had never seen it before.

---

male (noun)

The capital of Maldives in the center of the islands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "male."
- He looked up "male" because he had never seen it before.

---

national capital (noun)

The capital city of a nation.

- In class, the teacher used "national capital" to mean the capital city of a nation.
- Understanding "national capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

power station (noun)

An electrical generating station.

- The article explained what "power station" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "power station" to mean an electrical generating station.

---

service station (noun)

A station where gasoline and oil are sold and facilities are available for repairing or maintaining automobiles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service station."
- He looked up "service station" because he had never seen it before.

---

sit up (verb)

Change to an upright sitting position.

- In everyday English, people use "sit up" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "sit up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

texas (noun)

The second largest state; located in southwestern United States on the Gulf of Mexico.

- The article explained what "texas" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "texas" to mean the second largest state; located in southwestern....

trip out (verb)

Get high, stoned, or drugged.

- He trips every weekend.
- Can you use "trip out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

trip up (verb)

Detect a blunder or misstep.

- The reporter tripped up the senator.
- The questions on the test tripped him up.

trip-up (noun)

An unintentional but embarrassing blunder.

- He arranged his robes to avoid a trip-up later.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trip-up."

water travel (noun)

Travel by water.

- The article explained what "water travel" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "water travel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

final stage (noun)

The concluding parts of an event or occurrence.

- In class, the teacher used "final stage" to mean the concluding parts of an event or occurrence.
- The article explained what "final stage" means with a simple example.

good luck (noun)

An unexpected piece of good luck.

- In class, the teacher used "good luck" to mean an unexpected piece of good luck.
- They discussed "good luck" during the group presentation.

holy (noun)

A sacred place of pilgrimage.

- In class, the teacher used "holy" to mean a sacred place of pilgrimage.
- The article explained what "holy" means with a simple example.

turn of events (noun)

An unforeseen development.

- Events suddenly took an awkward turn.
- The article explained what "turn of events" means with a simple example.

australian state (noun)

One of the several states constituting Australia.

- The article explained what "australian state" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "australian state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

d region (noun)

The lowest region of the ionosphere (35 to 50 miles up) that reflects low-frequency radio waves.

- Understanding "d region" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "d region."

drop open (verb)

Open involuntarily.

- His mouth dropped open.
- Her jaw dropped.

---

environment (noun)

The area in which something exists or lives.

- He longed for the comfortable environment of his living room.
- They discussed "environment" during the group presentation.

---

international date line (noun)

An imaginary line on the surface of the earth following (approximately) the 180th meridian.

- He looked up "international date line" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "international date line" to mean an imaginary line on the surface of the earth....

---

long beach (noun)

A city in southern California located on 8.5 miles of Pacific beachfront; was a resort until oil was discovered in 1921.

- The article explained what "long beach" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "long beach" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

medical center (noun)

The part of a city where medical facilities are centered.

- In class, the teacher used "medical center" to mean the part of a city where medical facilities are....
- He looked up "medical center" because he had never seen it before.

---

pop in (verb)

Enter briefly.

- He popped in for two minutes.
- Learners should practice how to use "pop in" in real sentences.

---

ran (verb)

Cover by running; run a certain distance.

- She ran 10 miles that day.
- The children ran to the store.

---

social station (noun)

Position in a social hierarchy.

- The British are more aware of social status than Americans are.
- The article explained what "social station" means with a simple example.

---

touch down (verb)

Come or bring (a plane) to a landing.

- The plane touched down at noon.
- He did not know how to use "touch down" until he saw an example.

---

train of thought (noun)

The connections that link the various parts of an event or argument together.

- I couldn't follow his train of thought.
- In class, the teacher used "train of thought" to mean the connections that link the various parts of an....

---

train set (noun)

A toy consisting of small models of railroad trains and the track for them to run on.

- In class, the teacher used "train set" to mean a toy consisting of small models of railroad trains....
- The article explained what "train set" means with a simple example.

---

trial (noun)

An annoying or frustrating or catastrophic event.

- His mother-in-law's visits were a great trial for him.

- In the experimental trials the amount of carbon was measured separately.

catch up (verb)

Reach the point where one should be after a delay.

- I'm trying to catch up with the latest developments in molecular biology.
- She tried to use "catch up" carefully so everyone would understand.

city centre (noun)

The central part of a city.

- He looked up "city centre" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "city centre" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flight (noun)

A scheduled trip by plane between designated airports.

- I took the noon flight to Chicago.
- His flight was an indication of his guilt.

high-water mark (noun)

A line marking the highest level reached.

- The article explained what "high-water mark" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high-water mark."

in flight (adverb)

Flying through the air.

- We saw the ducks in flight.
- Using "in flight" can make your explanation more exact.

opening night (noun)

The first performance (as of a theatrical production).

- The opening received good critical reviews.
- Understanding "opening night" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pay-station (noun)

A coin-operated telephone.

- They discussed "pay-station" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pay-station" means with a simple example.

south island (noun)

The larger but less populous of two main islands of New Zealand; separated from North Island by Cook Strait.

- In class, the teacher used "south island" to mean the larger but less populous of two main islands of....
- Understanding "south island" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

still-fish (verb)

Fish with the line and bait resting still or stationary in the water.

- In everyday English, people use "still-fish" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "still-fish" carefully so everyone would understand.

test drive (verb)

Test a vehicle by driving it.

- I want to test drive the new Porsche.
- The coach explained when to use "test drive" and when to wait.

air station (noun)

A base for military aircraft.

- Understanding "air station" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "air station" means with a simple example.

air travel (noun)

Travel via aircraft.

- Air travel involves too much waiting in airports.
- If you've time to spare go by air.

---

mobile (noun)

A port in southwestern Alabama on Mobile Bay.

- Understanding "mobile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mobile" during the group presentation.

---

power train (noun)

Wheelwork consisting of a connected set of rotating gears by which force is transmitted or motion or torque is changed.

- The fool got his tie caught in the geartrain.
- The article explained what "power train" means with a simple example.

---

travel along (verb)

Travel along a certain course.

- In everyday English, people use "travel along" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "travel along" until he saw an example.

---

air-drop (verb)

Drop (an object) from the air; unload from a plane or helicopter.

- Learners should practice how to use "air-drop" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "air-drop" until he saw an example.

---

associated state (noun)

A state or territory partly controlled by (but not a possession of) a stronger state but autonomous in internal affairs; protectorates are established by treaty.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "associated state."
- He looked up "associated state" because he had never seen it before.

---

car train (noun)

A train that transports passengers and their automobiles.

- Understanding "car train" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "car train" because he had never seen it before.

---

center stage (noun)

The central area on a theater stage.

- They discussed "center stage" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "center stage" means with a simple example.

---

central park (noun)

A large park in Manhattan.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central park."
- The article explained what "central park" means with a simple example.

---

cities (noun)

An incorporated administrative district established by state charter.

- They discussed "cities" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cities" because he had never seen it before.

---

natural event (noun)

An event that happens.

- They discussed "natural event" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "natural event" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

near-death experience (noun)

The experience of being close to death but surviving.

- They discussed "near-death experience" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "near-death experience" because he had never seen it before.

---

north island (noun)

The smaller but more populous of two main islands of New Zealand; separated from South Island by Cook Strait.

- He looked up "north island" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "north island" to mean the smaller but more populous of two main islands....

---

pass across (verb)

Make a passage or journey from one place to another.

- Some travelers pass through the desert.
- Learners should practice how to use "pass across" in real sentences.

---

police station (noun)

A station that serves as headquarters for police in a particular district; serves as a place from which policemen are dispatched and to which arrested persons are brought.

- He looked up "police station" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "police station."

---

red-eye (verb)

Travel on an overnight flight.

- The candidate red-eyed from California to the East Coast the night before the election to give a last stump speech.
- He did not know how to use "red-eye" until he saw an example.

---

sources (noun)

The place where something begins, where it springs into being.

- The reporter had two sources for the story.
- He looked up "sources" because he had never seen it before.

---

wall street (noun)

A street in lower Manhattan where the New York Stock Exchange is located; symbol of American finance.

- They discussed "wall street" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "wall street" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

battle line (noun)

The line along which warring troops meet.

- In class, the teacher used "battle line" to mean the line along which warring troops meet.
- He looked up "battle line" because he had never seen it before.

---

bus (noun)

A vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public transport.

- He always rode the bus to work.
- The busbar in this computer can transmit data either way between any two components of the system.

---

capital of new york (noun)

State capital of New York; located in eastern New York State on the west bank of the Hudson river.

- Understanding "capital of new york" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of new york."

---

deep space (noun)

Any region in space outside the solar system.

- He looked up "deep space" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deep space."

---

financial center (noun)

The part of a city where financial institutions are centered.

- He looked up "financial center" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "financial center" during the group presentation.

fire station (noun)

A station housing fire apparatus and firemen.

- In class, the teacher used "fire station" to mean a station housing fire apparatus and firemen.
- The article explained what "fire station" means with a simple example.

george town (noun)

The capital of the Cayman Islands.

- They discussed "george town" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "george town" because he had never seen it before.

hot-dog (verb)

Perform intricate maneuvers while skiing.

- Learners should practice how to use "hot-dog" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "hot-dog" carefully so everyone would understand.

light speed (noun)

The speed at which light travels in a vacuum; the constancy and universality of the speed of light is recognized by defining it to be exactly 299,792,458 meters per second.

- They discussed "light speed" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "light speed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

line of battle (noun)

A line formed by troops or ships prepared to deliver or receive an attack.

- They discussed "line of battle" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "line of battle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mine field (noun)

A tract of land containing explosive mines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mine field."
- He looked up "mine field" because he had never seen it before.

speed of light (noun)

The speed at which light travels in a vacuum; the constancy and universality of the speed of light is recognized by defining it to be exactly 299,792,458 meters per second.

- He looked up "speed of light" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "speed of light" to mean the speed at which light travels in a vacuum; the....

star sign (noun)

(astrology) one of 12 equal areas into which the zodiac is divided.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "star sign."
- The article explained what "star sign" means with a simple example.

throw (verb)

To put into a state or activity hastily, suddenly, or carelessly.

- Throw the car into reverse.
- Throw a frisbee.

white russia (noun)

A landlocked republic in eastern Europe; formerly a European soviet.

- He looked up "white russia" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white russia."

business address (noun)

The address at which a business is located.

- In class, the teacher used "business address" to mean the address at which a business is located.
- Understanding "business address" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

car insurance (noun)

Insurance against loss due to theft or traffic accidents.

- Understanding "car insurance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "car insurance" to mean insurance against loss due to theft or traffic....

---

e region (noun)

A region of the ionosphere (from 50 to 90 miles up) that reflects radio waves of medium length.

- The article explained what "e region" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "e region."

---

fair deal (noun)

Fair treatment.

- He looked up "fair deal" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fair deal" during the group presentation.

---

holy place (noun)

A sacred place of pilgrimage.

- The article explained what "holy place" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "holy place" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

light minute (noun)

The distance light travels in a vacuum in one minute; approximately 18 million kilometers.

- Understanding "light minute" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light minute."

---

paris (noun)

The capital and largest city of France; and international center of culture and commerce.

- The article explained what "paris" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "paris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

piece of land (noun)

An extended area of land.

- He looked up "piece of land" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "piece of land."

---

pull in (verb)

Of trains; move into (a station).

- The ad pulled in many potential customers.
- This pianist pulls huge crowds.

---

push on (verb)

Continue moving forward.

- He did not know how to use "push on" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "push on" and when to wait.

---

returned (verb)

Return to a previous position; in mathematics.

- The point returned to the interior of the figure.
- The professor returned to his teaching position after serving as Dean.

---

ride off (verb)

Ride away on a horse, for example.

- He did not know how to use "ride off" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "ride off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

special forces (noun)

A division of the United States Army that is specially trained for guerilla fighting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "special forces."

- Understanding “special forces” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sports car (noun)

A small low car with a high-powered engine; usually seats two persons.

- They discussed “sports car” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “sports car” means with a simple example.

step forward (verb)

Make oneself visible; take action.

- Young people should step to the fore and help their peers.
- In everyday English, people use “step forward” when talking about this idea.

stock car (noun)

A car kept in dealers’ stock for regular sales.

- Understanding “stock car” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “stock car” to mean a car kept in dealers’ stock for regular sales.

take flight (verb)

Run away quickly.

- He did not know how to use “take flight” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “take flight” and when to wait.

touch system (noun)

Typewriting in which the fingers are trained to hit particular keys; typist can read and type at the same time.

- Understanding “touch system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “touch system.”

travel plan (noun)

A proposed route of travel.

- The article explained what “travel plan” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “travel plan” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

united states army (noun)

The army of the United States of America; the agency that organizes and trains soldiers for land warfare.

- Understanding “united states army” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “united states army” because he had never seen it before.

action potential (noun)

The local voltage change across the cell wall as a nerve impulse is transmitted.

- Understanding “action potential” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “action potential.”

black africa (noun)

The region of Africa to the south of the Sahara Desert.

- The article explained what “black africa” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “black africa” during the group presentation.

city block (noun)

A rectangular area in a city surrounded by streets and usually containing several buildings.

- He lives in the next block.
- In class, the teacher used “city block” to mean a rectangular area in a city surrounded by streets....

draw in (verb)

Of trains; move into (a station).

- He did not know how to use “draw in” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “draw in” carefully so everyone would understand.

drop behind (verb)

To lag or linger behind.

- Can you use "drop behind" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "drop behind" when talking about this idea.

---

finish line (noun)

A line indicating the location of the finish of a race.

- They discussed "finish line" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "finish line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grand national (noun)

An annual steeplechase run in Liverpool, England.

- In class, the teacher used "grand national" to mean an annual steeplechase run in liverpool, england.
- Understanding "grand national" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

power trip (noun)

(slang) a self-aggrandizing action undertaken simply for the pleasure of exercising control over other people.

- He looked up "power trip" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "power trip" during the group presentation.

---

pull out (verb)

Bring, take, or pull out of a container or from under a cover.

- Pull out a gun.
- The mugger pulled a knife on his victim.

---

push out (verb)

Push to thrust outward.

- She tried to use "push out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "push out" and when to wait.

---

ring (noun)

The sound of a bell ringing; ; ; –E. A. Poe.

- The distinctive ring of the church bell.
- The ringing of the telephone.

---

space station (noun)

A manned artificial satellite in a fixed orbit designed for scientific research.

- In class, the teacher used "space station" to mean a manned artificial satellite in a fixed orbit....
- The article explained what "space station" means with a simple example.

---

waste (noun)

An uninhabited wilderness that is worthless for cultivation.

- The trackless wastes of the desert.
- They collect the waste once a week.

---

draw up (verb)

Cause (a vehicle) to stop.

- Can you use "draw up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "draw up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

east india (noun)

A group of islands in the Indian and Pacific Oceans between Asia and Australia.

- In class, the teacher used "east india" to mean a group of islands in the indian and pacific oceans....
- They discussed "east india" during the group presentation.

---

happening (noun)

An event that happens.

- In class, the teacher used “happening” to mean an event that happens.
- The article explained what “happening” means with a simple example.

---

head trip (noun)

The act of satisfying your own desires and giving yourself pleasure.

- They discussed “head trip” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “head trip” because he had never seen it before.

---

lie down (verb)

Assume a reclining position.

- Lie down on the bed until you feel better.
- Learners should practice how to use “lie down” in real sentences.

---

paper round (noun)

The route taken when delivering newspapers every day.

- He looked up “paper round” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “paper round.”

---

pull over (verb)

Steer a vehicle to the side of the road.

- The car pulled over when the ambulance approached at high speed.
- In everyday English, people use “pull over” when talking about this idea.

---

rise up (verb)

Stand up on the hind legs, of quadrupeds.

- Learners should practice how to use “rise up” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “rise up” when talking about this idea.

---

south africa (noun)

A republic at the southernmost part of Africa; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1910; first European settlers were Dutch (known as Boers).

- The article explained what “south africa” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “south africa” to mean a republic at the southernmost part of africa;....

---

space travel (noun)

A voyage outside the Earth’s atmosphere.

- He looked up “space travel” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “space travel.”

---

trip line (noun)

A light rope used in lumbering to free a dog hook from a log at a distance.

- The article explained what “trip line” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “trip line” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

arrived (verb)

Reach a destination; arrive by movement or progress.

- She arrived home at 7 o’clock.
- After he published his book, he had arrived.

---

british capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of England; located on the Thames in southeastern England; financial and industrial and cultural center.

- They discussed “british capital” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “british capital” to mean the capital and largest city of england; located on....

---

continues (verb)

Move ahead; travel onward in time or space.

- The Archipelago continues for another 500 miles.
- Learners should practice how to use “continues” in real sentences.

draw back (verb)

Pull back or move away or backward.

- He did not know how to use "draw back" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "draw back" in real sentences.

hotel plan (noun)

A plan and a room rate for providing a room and meals to guests at a hotel.

- The article explained what "hotel plan" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hotel plan" to mean a plan and a room rate for providing a room and....

piece of ground (noun)

An extended area of land.

- He looked up "piece of ground" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "piece of ground."

queen city (noun)

The largest city in North Carolina; located in south central North Carolina.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "queen city."
- He looked up "queen city" because he had never seen it before.

tv station (noun)

Station for the production and transmission of television broadcasts.

- He looked up "tv station" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tv station" during the group presentation.

usa (noun)

The army of the United States of America; the agency that organizes and trains soldiers for land warfare.

- They discussed "usa" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "usa."

western united states (noun)

The region of the United States lying to the west of the Mississippi River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western united states."
- They discussed "western united states" during the group presentation.

change of location (noun)

A movement through space that changes the location of something.

- Understanding "change of location" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "change of location" means with a simple example.

dead drop (noun)

A drop used for the clandestine exchange of intelligence information.

- A dead drop avoids the need for an intelligence officer and a spy to be present at the same time.
- The article explained what "dead drop" means with a simple example.

double-park (verb)

Park a vehicle alongside another.

- Learners should practice how to use "double-park" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "double-park" carefully so everyone would understand.

federal district (noun)

A district set apart as the seat of government of a federation.

- They discussed "federal district" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "federal district" means with a simple example.

hell on earth (noun)

Any place of pain and turmoil.

- The hell of battle.
- Understanding "hell on earth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

north africa (noun)

An area of northern Africa between the Sahara and the Mediterranean Sea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north africa."
- Understanding "north africa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

physical education (noun)

Training in the development of and care for the human body; stresses athletics; includes hygiene.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "physical education."
- They discussed "physical education" during the group presentation.

progress to (verb)

Reach a goal, e.g.,.

- The coach explained when to use "progress to" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "progress to" carefully so everyone would understand.

ride away (verb)

Ride away on a horse, for example.

- The coach explained when to use "ride away" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "ride away" until he saw an example.

top-flight (adjective)

Excellent; best possible.

- Would you call this situation "top-flight"? Explain why.
- A "top-flight" approach may work better in this case.

flight line (noun)

Place where airplanes are parked and the maintenance hangars (but not the runways or taxiways).

- Understanding "flight line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "flight line" because he had never seen it before.

israel (noun)

An ancient kingdom of the Hebrew tribes at the southeastern end of the Mediterranean Sea; founded by Saul around 1025 BC and destroyed by the Assyrians in 721 BC.

- He looked up "israel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "israel."

light touch (noun)

Momentary contact.

- They discussed "light touch" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "light touch" means with a simple example.

line of flight (noun)

The path along which a freely moving object travels through the air.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line of flight."
- They discussed "line of flight" during the group presentation.

public square (noun)

An open area at the meeting of two or more streets.

- Understanding "public square" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "public square" means with a simple example.

setting (noun)

The context and environment in which something is set.

- The perfect setting for a ghost story.

- You can't do that in a university setting.

---

silver state (noun)

A state in the southwestern United States.

- Understanding "silver state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "silver state" means with a simple example.

---

skills (noun)

An ability that has been acquired by training.

- He looked up "skills" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skills."

---

west africa (noun)

An area of western Africa between the Sahara Desert and the Gulf of Guinea.

- They discussed "west africa" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "west africa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bus company (noun)

A public utility providing local transportation.

- They discussed "bus company" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bus company" because he had never seen it before.

---

election district (noun)

One of several districts into which a city or town is divided for voting; each contains one polling place.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "election district."
- He looked up "election district" because he had never seen it before.

---

field of battle (noun)

A region where a battle is being (or has been) fought.

- They made a tour of Civil War battlefields.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "field of battle."

---

florida (noun)

A state in southeastern United States between the Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico; one of the Confederate states during the American Civil War.

- They discussed "florida" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "florida" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

greater new york (noun)

The largest city in New York State and in the United States; located in southeastern New York at the mouth of the Hudson river; a major financial and cultural center.

- The article explained what "greater new york" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "greater new york" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

land of opportunity (noun)

A state in south central United States; one of the Confederate states during the American Civil War.

- They discussed "land of opportunity" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "land of opportunity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pull away (verb)

Pull back or move away or backward.

- The limo pulled away from the curb.
- He did not know how to use "pull away" until he saw an example.

---

push away (verb)

Push out of the way.

- She tried to use "push away" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "push away" and when to wait.

---

street address (noun)

The address where a person or organization can be found.

- The article explained what "street address" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "street address."

times square (noun)

The area of Manhattan around the intersection of Broadway and Seventh Avenue; heart of the New York theater district; site of annual celebration of New Year's.

- They discussed "times square" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "times square" means with a simple example.

vehicle (noun)

A medium for the expression or achievement of something.

- His editorials provided a vehicle for his political views.
- A congregation is a vehicle of group identity.

active site (noun)

The part of an enzyme or antibody where the chemical reaction occurs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "active site."
- He looked up "active site" because he had never seen it before.

bus stop (noun)

A place on a bus route where buses stop to discharge and take on passengers.

- In class, the teacher used "bus stop" to mean a place on a bus route where buses stop to....
- The article explained what "bus stop" means with a simple example.

car traffic (noun)

Cars coming and going.

- The article explained what "car traffic" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "car traffic."

corner (noun)

The point where two lines meet or intersect.

- The corners of a rectangle.
- He tripled to the rightfield corner.

file in (verb)

Enter by marching in a file.

- In everyday English, people use "file in" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "file in" carefully so everyone would understand.

flight control (noun)

Control from ground stations of airplanes in flight by means of messages transmitted to the pilot electronically.

- They discussed "flight control" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flight control."

fly by (verb)

Pass by while flying.

- Learners should practice how to use "fly by" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "fly by" and when to wait.

fly on (verb)

Continue flying.

- She tried to use "fly on" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "fly on" and when to wait.

french capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of France; and international center of culture and commerce.

- He looked up "french capital" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "french capital" during the group presentation.

---

greater london (noun)

The capital and largest city of England; located on the Thames in southeastern England; financial and industrial and cultural center.

- In class, the teacher used "greater london" to mean the capital and largest city of england; located on....
- They discussed "greater london" during the group presentation.

---

mexico (noun)

A republic in southern North America; became independent from Spain in 1810.

- The article explained what "mexico" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "mexico" during the group presentation.

---

silver city (noun)

A town in southwestern New Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used "silver city" to mean a town in southwestern new mexico.
- The article explained what "silver city" means with a simple example.

---

west germany (noun)

A republic in north central Europe on the North Sea; established in 1949 from the zones of Germany occupied by the British and French and Americans after the German defeat; reunified with East Germany in 1990.

- Understanding "west germany" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "west germany" means with a simple example.

---

bus line (noun)

An organization responsible for operating a bus transportation system.

- In class, the teacher used "bus line" to mean an organization responsible for operating a bus....
- The article explained what "bus line" means with a simple example.

---

bus service (noun)

A public utility providing local transportation.

- They discussed "bus service" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bus service" means with a simple example.

---

edge in (verb)

Push one's way into (a space).

- The coach explained when to use "edge in" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "edge in" in real sentences.

---

f region (noun)

The highest region of the ionosphere (from 90 to 600 miles up) which contains the highest concentration of free electrons and is most useful for long-range radio transmission.

- He looked up "f region" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "f region."

---

field trip (noun)

A group excursion (to a museum or the woods or some historic place) for firsthand examination.

- They discussed "field trip" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "field trip" means with a simple example.

---

file out (verb)

March out, in a file.

- Learners should practice how to use "file out" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "file out" and when to wait.

---

french region (noun)

A geographical subdivision of France.

- He looked up "french region" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "french region" during the group presentation.

hotel bill (noun)

Statement of charges for staying in a hotel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hotel bill."
- Understanding "hotel bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

international flight (noun)

A flight that takes off in one country and lands in another.

- In class, the teacher used "international flight" to mean a flight that takes off in one country and lands in....
- Understanding "international flight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

new mexico (noun)

A state in southwestern United States on the Mexican border.

- They discussed "new mexico" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "new mexico" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sites (noun)

The piece of land on which something is located (or is to be located).

- The sites are determined by highly specific sequences of nucleotides.
- In class, the teacher used "sites" to mean the piece of land on which something is located (or....

somewhere (noun)

An indefinite or unknown location.

- They moved to somewhere in Spain.
- The article explained what "somewhere" means with a simple example.

african country (noun)

Any one of the countries occupying the African continent.

- Understanding "african country" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "african country" because he had never seen it before.

capital of australia (noun)

The capital of Australia; located in southeastern Australia.

- The article explained what "capital of australia" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of australia."

car seat (noun)

A seat in a car.

- The article explained what "car seat" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "car seat" to mean a seat in a car.

dropped (verb)

Fall or descend to a lower place or level.

- Stock prices dropped.
- The Giants dropped 11 of their first 13.

edge up (verb)

Push one's way into (a space).

- Learners should practice how to use "edge up" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "edge up" when talking about this idea.

estate car (noun)

A car that has a long body and rear door with space behind rear seat.

- He looked up "estate car" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "estate car."

fire walking (noun)

The ceremony of walking barefoot over hot stones or a bed of embers.

- The article explained what "fire walking" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fire walking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

garden state (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state on the Atlantic; one of the original 13 colonies.

- Understanding "garden state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "garden state" during the group presentation.

---

lee (noun)

The side of something that is sheltered from the wind.

- He looked up "lee" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lee."

---

port (verb)

Turn or go to the port or left side, of a ship.

- The big ship was slowly porting.
- Port the helm.

---

red-light district (noun)

A district with many brothels.

- He looked up "red-light district" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red-light district."

---

sides (noun)

A surface forming part of the outside of an object.

- He examined all sides of the crystal.
- They painted all four sides of the house.

---

state of israel (noun)

Jewish republic in southwestern Asia at eastern end of Mediterranean; formerly part of Palestine.

- He looked up "state of israel" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "state of israel" to mean jewish republic in southwestern asia at eastern end....

---

supply line (noun)

A route over which supplies can be delivered.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supply line."
- Understanding "supply line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

target area (noun)

The location of the target that is to be hit.

- Understanding "target area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "target area" means with a simple example.

---

victory (noun)

A successful ending of a struggle or contest.

- A narrow victory.
- The general always gets credit for his army's victory.

---

western australia (noun)

A state containing the western third of Australia.

- He looked up "western australia" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "western australia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

britain (noun)

A monarchy in northwestern Europe occupying most of the British Isles; divided into England and Scotland and Wales and Northern Ireland; 'Great Britain' is often used loosely to refer to the United Kingdom.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "britain."

- He looked up "britain" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of india (noun)

The capital of India is a division of the old city of Delhi.

- He looked up "capital of india" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of india."

---

centre stage (noun)

The central area on a theater stage.

- They discussed "centre stage" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "centre stage" means with a simple example.

---

east africa (noun)

A geographical area in eastern Africa.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "east africa."
- He looked up "east africa" because he had never seen it before.

---

emergency (noun)

A sudden unforeseen crisis (usually involving danger) that requires immediate action.

- He never knew what to do in an emergency.
- The governor declared a state of emergency.

---

failure (noun)

An event that does not accomplish its intended purpose.

- The surprise party was a complete failure.
- His failure to pass the test.

---

field of operations (noun)

A region in which active military operations are in progress.

- The army was in the field awaiting action.
- They are outstanding in their field.

---

holy land (noun)

An ancient country in southwestern Asia on the east coast of the Mediterranean Sea; a place of pilgrimage for Christianity and Islam and Judaism.

- The article explained what "holy land" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "holy land" to mean an ancient country in southwestern asia on the east....

---

killing field (noun)

(usually plural) an area where many people have died (usually by massacre or genocide during war or violent civil disturbance).

- He looked up "killing field" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "killing field" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

place of birth (noun)

The place where someone was born.

- They discussed "place of birth" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "place of birth" because he had never seen it before.

---

plane (noun)

An aircraft that has a fixed wing and is powered by propellers or jets.

- The flight was delayed due to trouble with the airplane.
- We will refer to the plane of the graph as the X-Y plane.

---

quarter (noun)

A district of a city having some distinguishing character.

- The Latin Quarter.
- A quarter of a pound.

---

rock island (noun)

A town in northwest Illinois on the Mississippi River; site of a Union prison during the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "rock island" to mean a town in northwest illinois on the mississippi....
- They discussed "rock island" during the group presentation.

---

roll down (verb)

Gather into a huge mass and roll down a mountain, of snow.

- Can you use "roll down" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "roll down" and when to wait.

---

square deal (noun)

Fair treatment.

- The article explained what "square deal" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "square deal" during the group presentation.

---

stick around (verb)

Stay put (in a certain place).

- Stick around and you will learn something!
- He did not know how to use "stick around" until he saw an example.

---

train oil (noun)

A white to brown oil obtained from whale blubber; formerly used as an illuminant.

- He looked up "train oil" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "train oil."

---

wear round (verb)

Turn into the wind.

- Can you use "wear round" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "wear round" and when to wait.

---

zone (noun)

A locally circumscribed place characterized by some distinctive features.

- In class, the teacher used "zone" to mean a locally circumscribed place characterized by some....
- The article explained what "zone" means with a simple example.

---

central africa (noun)

A landlocked country in central Africa; formerly under French control; became independent in 1960.

- They discussed "central africa" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "central africa" because he had never seen it before.

---

east germany (noun)

A republic in north central Europe on the Baltic; established by the Soviet Union in 1954; reunified with West Germany in 1990.

- He looked up "east germany" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "east germany" during the group presentation.

---

gas station (noun)

A service station that sells gasoline.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas station."
- The article explained what "gas station" means with a simple example.

---

hospital train (noun)

A military train built to transport wounded troops to a hospital.

- Understanding "hospital train" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hospital train" during the group presentation.

---

mix (noun)

An event that combines things in a mixture.

- A gradual mixture of cultures.
- Paste made by a mix of flour and water.

---

new britain (noun)

The largest island in the Bismarck Archipelago; part of Papua New Guinea.

- The article explained what "new britain" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new britain."

---

path (noun)

A line or route along which something travels or moves.

- The hurricane demolished houses in its path.
- The path of virtue.

---

public housing (noun)

A housing development that is publicly funded and administered for low-income families.

- Understanding "public housing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public housing."

---

radio station (noun)

Station for the production and transmission of AM or FM radio broadcasts.

- The article explained what "radio station" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "radio station" to mean station for the production and transmission of am....

---

russian capital (noun)

A city of central European Russia; formerly capital of both the Soviet Union and Soviet Russia; since 1991 the capital of the Russian Federation.

- The article explained what "russian capital" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "russian capital" to mean a city of central european russia; formerly capital....

---

time zone (noun)

Any of the 24 regions of the globe (loosely divided by longitude) throughout which the same standard time is used.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "time zone."
- The article explained what "time zone" means with a simple example.

---

capital of california (noun)

A city in north central California 75 miles to the northeast of San Francisco on the Sacramento River; capital of California.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of california."
- They discussed "capital of california" during the group presentation.

---

center of mass (noun)

Point representing the mean position of the matter in a body.

- He looked up "center of mass" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "center of mass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

european russia (noun)

The part of Russia that is part of Europe.

- He looked up "european russia" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "european russia."

---

hot spot (noun)

A place of political unrest and potential violence.

- The United States cannot police all of the world's hot spots.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hot spot."

---

live birth (noun)

The birth of a living fetus (regardless of the length of gestation).

- They discussed "live birth" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "live birth" because he had never seen it before.

miles per hour (noun)

A speedometer reading for the momentary rate of travel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "miles per hour."
- He looked up "miles per hour" because he had never seen it before.

round trip (noun)

A trip to some place and back again.

- They discussed "round trip" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "round trip" because he had never seen it before.

shoot down (verb)

Move quickly and violently.

- The car tore down the street.
- He shot down the student's proposal.

station of the cross (noun)

A representation of any of the 14 stages in Christ's journey to Calvary.

- He looked up "station of the cross" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "station of the cross" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bay state (noun)

A state in New England; one of the original 13 colonies.

- They discussed "bay state" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bay state" to mean a state in new england; one of the original 13 colonies.

birthday party (noun)

A party held on the anniversary of someone's birth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "birthday party."
- The article explained what "birthday party" means with a simple example.

capital of canada (noun)

The capital of Canada (located in southeastern Ontario across the Ottawa river from Quebec).

- The article explained what "capital of canada" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of canada" to mean the capital of canada (located in southeastern....

carry forward (verb)

Transfer from one time period to the next.

- She tried to use "carry forward" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "carry forward" and when to wait.

crowd out (verb)

Press, force, or thrust out of a small space.

- The weeds crowded out the flowers.
- Can you use "crowd out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

draw near (verb)

Move towards.

- They are drawing near.
- The enemy army came nearer and nearer.

east coast (noun)

The eastern seaboard of the United States (especially the strip between Boston and Washington D.C.).

- The article explained what "east coast" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "east coast" to mean the eastern seaboard of the united states....

evening star (noun)

A planet (usually Venus) seen at sunset in the western sky.

- He looked up "evening star" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "evening star" to mean a planet (usually venus) seen at sunset in the....

---

gold coast (noun)

A republic in West Africa on the Gulf of Guinea.

- Ghana was colonized as the Gold Coast by the British.
- Chicago's gold coast is along Lake Michigan.

---

great britain (noun)

An island comprising England and Scotland and Wales.

- In class, the teacher used "great britain" to mean an island comprising england and scotland and wales.
- They discussed "great britain" during the group presentation.

---

jump on (verb)

Get up on the back of.

- Can you use "jump on" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "jump on" when talking about this idea.

---

long plane (noun)

A long carpenter's plane used to shape the edges of boards so they will fit together.

- Understanding "long plane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "long plane" during the group presentation.

---

mexico city (noun)

The capital and largest city of Mexico is a political and cultural and commercial and industrial center; one of the world's largest cities.

- Understanding "mexico city" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mexico city" means with a simple example.

---

minimum (noun)

The point on a curve where the tangent changes from negative on the left to positive on the right.

- Understanding "minimum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "minimum" because he had never seen it before.

---

north-south direction (noun)

In a direction parallel with lines of longitude.

- Understanding "north-south direction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north-south direction."

---

pull up short (verb)

Stop abruptly.

- The police car pulled up short and then turned around fast.
- She tried to use "pull up short" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

social function (noun)

A vaguely specified social event.

- A seemingly endless round of social functions.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social function."

---

south american nation (noun)

Any one of the countries occupying the South American continent.

- Understanding "south american nation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "south american nation" means with a simple example.

---

coach station (noun)

A terminal that serves bus passengers.

- He looked up "coach station" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "coach station" to mean a terminal that serves bus passengers.

---

free port (noun)

A port open on equal terms to all commercial vessels.

- The article explained what "free port" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "free port" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

german capital (noun)

Capital of Germany located in eastern Germany.

- Understanding "german capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "german capital" to mean capital of germany located in eastern germany.

---

north american nation (noun)

Any country on the North American continent.

- In class, the teacher used "north american nation" to mean any country on the north american continent.
- Understanding "north american nation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

place-kick (verb)

Kick (a ball) from a stationary position, in football.

- She tried to use "place-kick" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "place-kick" in real sentences.

---

scotland (noun)

One of the four countries that make up the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland; located on the northern part of the island of Great Britain; famous for bagpipes and plaids and kilts.

- He looked up "scotland" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "scotland" during the group presentation.

---

taking apart (noun)

The removal of limbs; being cut to pieces.

- In class, the teacher used "taking apart" to mean the removal of limbs; being cut to pieces.
- The article explained what "taking apart" means with a simple example.

---

train station (noun)

Terminal where trains load or unload passengers or goods.

- In class, the teacher used "train station" to mean terminal where trains load or unload passengers or....
- The article explained what "train station" means with a simple example.

---

wild west (noun)

The western United States during its frontier period.

- The article explained what "wild west" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wild west" during the group presentation.

---

australian capital (noun)

The capital of Australia; located in southeastern Australia.

- In class, the teacher used "australian capital" to mean the capital of australia; located in southeastern....
- He looked up "australian capital" because he had never seen it before.

---

battle born state (noun)

A state in the southwestern United States.

- He looked up "battle born state" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battle born state."

---

boston (noun)

State capital and largest city of Massachusetts; a major center for banking and financial services.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boston."
- Understanding "boston" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ca (noun)

A state in the western United States on the Pacific; the 3rd largest state; known for earthquakes.

- He looked up "ca" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ca" during the group presentation.

capital of france (noun)

The capital and largest city of France; and international center of culture and commerce.

- Understanding "capital of france" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "capital of france" because he had never seen it before.

county seat (noun)

The town or city that is the seat of government for a county.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "county seat."
- He looked up "county seat" because he had never seen it before.

european nation (noun)

Any one of the countries occupying the European continent.

- Understanding "european nation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "european nation" because he had never seen it before.

free zone (noun)

An area adjoining a port where goods that are intended for reshipment can be received and stored without payment of duties.

- In class, the teacher used "free zone" to mean an area adjoining a port where goods that are....
- The article explained what "free zone" means with a simple example.

get stuck (verb)

Be unable to move further.

- Learners should practice how to use "get stuck" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "get stuck" when talking about this idea.

heads (noun)

The part in the front or nearest the viewer.

- He is two heads taller than his little sister.
- The office was full of secret heads.

hoping (verb)

Travel by means of an aircraft, bus, etc.

- I am still hoping that all will turn out well.
- In everyday English, people use "hoping" when talking about this idea.

johnson city (noun)

A town in northeastern Tennessee.

- He looked up "johnson city" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "johnson city."

jump off (verb)

Jump down from an elevated point.

- The parachutist didn't want to jump.
- Every year, hundreds of people jump off the Golden Gate bridge.

putting green (noun)

An area of closely cropped grass surrounding the hole on a golf course.

- The ball rolled across the green and into the bunker.
- Understanding "putting green" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

re-enter (verb)

Enter again.

- You cannot re-enter the country with this visa.
- The coach explained when to use "re-enter" and when to wait.

---

route (noun)

An open way (generally public) for travel or transportation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "route."
- They discussed "route" during the group presentation.

---

south west africa (noun)

A republic in southwestern Africa on the south Atlantic coast (formerly called South West Africa); achieved independence from South Africa in 1990; the greater part of Namibia forms part of the high Namibian plateau of South Africa.

- In class, the teacher used "south west africa" to mean a republic in southwestern africa on the south....
- He looked up "south west africa" because he had never seen it before.

---

walked (verb)

Use one's feet to advance; advance by steps.

- We walked instead of driving.
- Paul walked the streets of Damascus.

---

grand island (noun)

A town in south central Nebraska.

- The article explained what "grand island" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "grand island" to mean a town in south central nebraska.

---

hotel manager (noun)

An owner or manager of hotels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hotel manager."
- He looked up "hotel manager" because he had never seen it before.

---

housing development (noun)

A residential area of similar dwellings built by property developers and usually under a single management.

- They live in the new housing development.
- He looked up "housing development" because he had never seen it before.

---

indian capital (noun)

The capital of India is a division of the old city of Delhi.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian capital."
- He looked up "indian capital" because he had never seen it before.

---

ireland (noun)

An island comprising the republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland.

- The article explained what "ireland" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ireland" during the group presentation.

---

italy (noun)

A republic in southern Europe on the Italian Peninsula; was the core of the Roman Republic and the Roman Empire between the 4th century BC and the 5th century AD.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "italy."
- The article explained what "italy" means with a simple example.

---

kick-start (verb)

Start (a motorcycle) by means of a kick starter.

- Can you use "kick-start" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "kick-start" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

lee side (noun)

The side of something that is sheltered from the wind.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lee side."

- He looked up “lee side” because he had never seen it before.

photo opportunity (noun)

An occasion that lends itself to (or is deliberately arranged for) taking photographs that provide favorable publicity for those who are photographed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “photo opportunity.”
- Understanding “photo opportunity” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

power failure (noun)

Equipment failure resulting when the supply of power fails.

- The ice storm caused a power outage.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “power failure.”

smoke out (verb)

Drive out with smoke.

- Smoke out the bees.
- Can you use “smoke out” in a sentence that fits this situation?

tea party (noun)

A party at which tea is served.

- In class, the teacher used “tea party” to mean a party at which tea is served.
- The article explained what “tea party” means with a simple example.

american plane (noun)

Very large spreading plane tree of eastern and central North America to Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used “american plane” to mean very large spreading plane tree of eastern and....
- He looked up “american plane” because he had never seen it before.

capital of red china (noun)

Capital of the People’s Republic of China in the Hebei province in northeastern China; 2nd largest Chinese city.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “capital of red china.”
- He looked up “capital of red china” because he had never seen it before.

car port (noun)

Garage for one or two cars consisting of a flat roof supported on poles.

- The article explained what “car port” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “car port” during the group presentation.

chapter (noun)

A series of related events forming an episode.

- A chapter of disasters.
- He read a chapter every night before falling asleep.

city limit (noun)

The limits of the area occupied by a city or town.

- Understanding “city limit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “city limit.”

electric car (noun)

A car that is powered by electricity.

- The article explained what “electric car” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “electric car” during the group presentation.

falling out (noun)

A personal or social separation (as between opposing factions).

- They discussed “falling out” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “falling out.”

flying start (noun)

A racing start in which the contestants are already in full motion when they pass the starting line.

- The article explained what "flying start" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "flying start" to mean a racing start in which the contestants are already....

journey (noun)

The act of traveling from one place to another.

- In class, the teacher used "journey" to mean the act of traveling from one place to another.
- Understanding "journey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

korea (noun)

An Asian peninsula (off Manchuria) separating the Yellow Sea and the Sea of Japan; the Korean name is Dae-Han-Min-Gook or Han-Gook.

- Understanding "korea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "korea" to mean an asian peninsula (off manchuria) separating the....

low level flight (noun)

Flight at very low altitudes.

- He looked up "low level flight" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "low level flight" during the group presentation.

mail car (noun)

A railway car in which mail is transported and sorted.

- They discussed "mail car" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mail car" because he had never seen it before.

max out (verb)

Reach a maximum.

- I maxed out on all my credit cards.
- Learners should practice how to use "max out" in real sentences.

new ireland (noun)

An island in the Bismarck Archipelago; part of Papua New Guinea.

- They discussed "new ireland" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "new ireland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

new jersey (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state on the Atlantic; one of the original 13 colonies.

- In class, the teacher used "new jersey" to mean a mid-atlantic state on the atlantic; one of the....
- Understanding "new jersey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

second coming of christ (noun)

(Christian theology) the reappearance of Jesus as judge for the Last Judgment.

- The article explained what "second coming of christ" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "second coming of christ" during the group presentation.

turning point (noun)

An event marking a unique or important historical change of course or one on which important developments depend.

- They discussed "turning point" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "turning point" because he had never seen it before.

upper side (noun)

The highest or uppermost side of anything.

- Only the top side of the box was painted.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "upper side."

village green (noun)

A village park consisting of a plot of grassy land.

- They discussed "village green" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "village green" because he had never seen it before.

---

war zone (noun)

A combat zone where military operations are coordinated (especially a designated area in international waters where the rights of neutrals are not respected by nations at war).

- Understanding "war zone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "war zone."

---

break camp (verb)

Leave a camp.

- The hikers decamped before dawn.
- Learners should practice how to use "break camp" in real sentences.

---

capital of japan (noun)

The capital and largest city of Japan; the economic and cultural center of Japan.

- The article explained what "capital of japan" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "capital of japan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of texas (noun)

State capital of Texas on the Colorado River; site of the University of Texas.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of texas" to mean state capital of texas on the colorado river; site....
- Understanding "capital of texas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

death valley (noun)

A desert area that is part of the Mojave Desert in eastern California and southwestern Nevada; contains the lowest point in North America.

- The article explained what "death valley" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "death valley" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

eastern united states (noun)

The region of the United States lying to the north of the Ohio River and to the east of the Mississippi River.

- The article explained what "eastern united states" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eastern united states."

---

escape (noun)

The discharge of a fluid from some container.

- They tried to stop the escape of gas from the damaged pipe.
- He made his escape from the mental hospital.

---

golden state (noun)

A state in the western United States on the Pacific; the 3rd largest state; known for earthquakes.

- He looked up "golden state" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golden state."

---

housing project (noun)

A housing development that is publicly funded and administered for low-income families.

- Understanding "housing project" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "housing project."

---

labor force (noun)

The source of trained people from which workers can be hired.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labor force."
- The article explained what "labor force" means with a simple example.

---

push forward (verb)

Push one's way.

- Can you use "push forward" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "push forward" when talking about this idea.

crowd together (verb)

To gather together in large numbers.

- Men in straw boaters and waxed mustaches crowded the verandah.
- Can you use "crowd together" in a sentence that fits this situation?

ma (noun)

A state in New England; one of the original 13 colonies.

- Understanding "ma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ma."

military vehicle (noun)

Vehicle used by the armed forces.

- They discussed "military vehicle" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "military vehicle" to mean vehicle used by the armed forces.

northern europe (noun)

The northernmost countries of Europe.

- Understanding "northern europe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "northern europe" means with a simple example.

passing (noun)

The motion of one object relative to another.

- Stellar passings can perturb the orbits of comets.
- The coach sent in a passing play on third and long.

space vehicle (noun)

A craft capable of traveling in outer space; technically, a satellite around the sun.

- Understanding "space vehicle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "space vehicle" during the group presentation.

travel agency (noun)

An agency that arranges personal travel.

- The article explained what "travel agency" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "travel agency."

vision (noun)

A religious or mystical experience of a supernatural appearance.

- He had a vision of the Virgin Mary.
- He had a vision of his own death.

weather station (noun)

One of a network of observation posts where meteorological data is recorded.

- In class, the teacher used "weather station" to mean one of a network of observation posts where....
- The article explained what "weather station" means with a simple example.

asian country (noun)

Any one of the nations occupying the Asian continent.

- In class, the teacher used "asian country" to mean any one of the nations occupying the asian continent.
- The article explained what "asian country" means with a simple example.

battle damage (noun)

Loss of military equipment in battle.

- The article explained what "battle damage" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "battle damage" during the group presentation.

bob about (verb)

Move up and down with no specific path.

- The cork bobbed around in the pool.
- She tried to use "bob about" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

british west africa (noun)

The former British territories of western Africa, including Nigeria, Cameroon, Gambia, Togo, Sierra Leone, and the Gold Coast.

- Understanding "british west africa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "british west africa."

---

channel island (noun)

Any of a group of British islands in the English Channel off the northern coast of France.

- He looked up "channel island" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "channel island" during the group presentation.

---

east-west direction (noun)

In a direction parallel with lines of latitude.

- He looked up "east-west direction" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "east-west direction."

---

iran (noun)

A theocratic Islamic republic in the Middle East in western Asia; Iran was the core of the ancient empire that was known as Persia until 1935; rich in oil.

- In class, the teacher used "iran" to mean a theocratic islamic republic in the middle east in....
- The article explained what "iran" means with a simple example.

---

lay over (verb)

Interrupt a journey temporarily, e.g., overnight.

- We had to stop over in Venezuela on our flight back from Brazil.
- The coach explained when to use "lay over" and when to wait.

---

rock bottom (noun)

The absolute bottom.

- Understanding "rock bottom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "rock bottom" because he had never seen it before.

---

test fly (verb)

Test a plane.

- Can you use "test fly" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "test fly" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

vehicles (noun)

A medium for the expression or achievement of something.

- They discussed "vehicles" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "vehicles" because he had never seen it before.

---

virginia (noun)

A town in northeastern Minnesota in the heart of the Mesabi Range.

- They discussed "virginia" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "virginia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wear ship (verb)

Turn away from the wind.

- The sailors decided it was time to wear ship.
- He did not know how to use "wear ship" until he saw an example.

---

bowl over (verb)

Cause to overturn from an upright or normal position.

- The cat knocked over the flower vase.

- The clumsy customer turned over the vase.

bus station (noun)

A terminal that serves bus passengers.

- He looked up "bus station" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bus station" to mean a terminal that serves bus passengers.

car loan (noun)

A personal loan to purchase an automobile.

- In class, the teacher used "car loan" to mean a personal loan to purchase an automobile.
- They discussed "car loan" during the group presentation.

centre of mass (noun)

Point representing the mean position of the matter in a body.

- He looked up "centre of mass" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "centre of mass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

golden mean (noun)

The proportional relation between two divisions of line or two dimension of a plane figure such that short : long :: long : (short + long).

- Understanding "golden mean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "golden mean" during the group presentation.

great falls (noun)

A town in central Montana on the Missouri river; a center of extensive hydroelectric power.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great falls."
- He looked up "great falls" because he had never seen it before.

jersey city (noun)

A city in northeastern New Jersey (opposite Manhattan).

- The article explained what "jersey city" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jersey city" to mean a city in northeastern new jersey (opposite manhattan).

london plane (noun)

Very large fast-growing tree much planted as a street tree.

- He looked up "london plane" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "london plane."

ohio (noun)

A midwestern state in north central United States in the Great Lakes region.

- They discussed "ohio" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ohio" because he had never seen it before.

point of entry (noun)

A port in the United States where customs officials are stationed to oversee the entry and exit of people and merchandise.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "point of entry."
- He looked up "point of entry" because he had never seen it before.

referred (verb)

Send or direct for treatment, information, or a decision.

- This plant can be referred to a known species.
- Can you use "referred" in a sentence that fits this situation?

air flow (noun)

The flow of air.

- She adjusted the fan so that the airflow was directed right at her.
- Understanding "air flow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bob around (verb)

Move up and down with no specific path.

- The cork bobbed around in the pool.
- The coach explained when to use "bob around" and when to wait.

---

bomb (noun)

An event that fails badly or is totally ineffectual.

- Understanding "bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bomb."

---

car pool (noun)

A small group of car drivers who arrange to take turns driving while the others are passengers.

- He looked up "car pool" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "car pool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cycle (noun)

A periodically repeated sequence of events.

- A cycle of reprisal and retaliation.
- The never-ending cycle of the seasons.

---

cycle on (verb)

Come to the starting point of a cycle.

- Can you use "cycle on" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "cycle on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

flow of air (noun)

The flow of air.

- She adjusted the fan so that the airflow was directed right at her.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flow of air."

---

japanese capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Japan; the economic and cultural center of Japan.

- The article explained what "japanese capital" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "japanese capital" during the group presentation.

---

just the ticket (noun)

The appropriate or desirable thing.

- This car could be just the ticket for a small family.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "just the ticket."

---

military plane (noun)

An aircraft designed and used for combat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military plane."
- He looked up "military plane" because he had never seen it before.

---

planned community (noun)

A residential district that is planned for a certain class of residents.

- The article explained what "planned community" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "planned community."

---

round-trip light time (noun)

The elapsed time it takes for a signal to travel from Earth to a spacecraft (or other body) and back to the starting point.

- They discussed "round-trip light time" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "round-trip light time" means with a simple example.

---

row (noun)

A long continuous strip (usually running horizontally).

- A mackerel sky filled with rows of clouds.
- Rows of barbed wire protected the trenches.

---

squad car (noun)

A car in which policemen cruise the streets; equipped with radiotelephonic communications to headquarters.

- Understanding "squad car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "squad car" because he had never seen it before.

---

station agent (noun)

The person in charge of a railway station.

- The article explained what "station agent" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "station agent" to mean the person in charge of a railway station.

---

territory (noun)

The geographical area under the jurisdiction of a sovereign state.

- His questions covered a lot of territory.
- He looked up "territory" because he had never seen it before.

---

wales (noun)

One of the four countries that make up the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland; during Roman times the region was known as Cambria.

- In class, the teacher used "wales" to mean one of the four countries that make up the united....
- Understanding "wales" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bell (noun)

The sound of a bell being struck.

- Saved by the bell.
- She heard the distant toll of church bells.

---

british east africa (noun)

The former British territories of eastern Africa, including Kenya, Tanganyika, Uganda, and Zanzibar.

- He looked up "british east africa" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "british east africa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of south africa (noun)

City in the Transvaal; the seat of the executive branch of the government of South Africa.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of south africa" to mean city in the transvaal; the seat of the executive....
- Understanding "capital of south africa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spain (noun)

A parliamentary monarchy in southwestern Europe on the Iberian Peninsula; a former colonial power.

- They discussed "spain" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spain."

---

television station (noun)

Station for the production and transmission of television broadcasts.

- Understanding "television station" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "television station" during the group presentation.

---

transfer of training (noun)

Application of a skill learned in one situation to a different but similar situation.

- Understanding "transfer of training" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transfer of training."

---

travel agent (noun)

Someone who sells or arranges trips or tours for customers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "travel agent."
- He looked up "travel agent" because he had never seen it before.

urban area (noun)

A geographical area constituting a city or town.

- They discussed "urban area" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "urban area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

brazil (noun)

The largest Latin American country and the largest Portuguese speaking country in the world; located in the central and northeastern part of South America; world's leading coffee exporter.

- Understanding "brazil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "brazil" because he had never seen it before.

direct flight (noun)

A flight with one or more intermediate stops but no change of aircraft.

- The article explained what "direct flight" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "direct flight" during the group presentation.

fault line (noun)

(geology) line determined by the intersection of a geological fault and the earth's surface.

- In class, the teacher used "fault line" to mean (geology) line determined by the intersection of a....
- The article explained what "fault line" means with a simple example.

field of honor (noun)

A region where a battle is being (or has been) fought.

- They made a tour of Civil War battlefields.
- They discussed "field of honor" during the group presentation.

fixed star (noun)

Any star in the Ptolemaic theory of planetary motion.

- In class, the teacher used "fixed star" to mean any star in the ptolemaic theory of planetary motion.
- He looked up "fixed star" because he had never seen it before.

green bay (noun)

A city of eastern Wisconsin on an arm of Lake Michigan.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green bay."
- The article explained what "green bay" means with a simple example.

hang back (verb)

To lag or linger behind.

- Can you use "hang back" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "hang back" when talking about this idea.

high-ticket (adjective)

Very expensive.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "high-ticket."
- Students compared "high-ticket" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

independence (noun)

The successful ending of the American Revolution.

- They maintained close relations with England even after independence.
- Understanding "independence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

industrial park (noun)

A tract of land at a distance from city center that is designed for a cluster of businesses and factories.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "industrial park."
- They discussed "industrial park" during the group presentation.

jackson (noun)

A town in western Wyoming.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jackson."
- He looked up "jackson" because he had never seen it before.

---

match plane (noun)

A plane having cutters designed to make the tongues and grooves on the edges of matchboards.

- They discussed "match plane" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "match plane" means with a simple example.

---

native land (noun)

The country where you were born.

- Understanding "native land" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "native land" because he had never seen it before.

---

picture plane (noun)

The plane that is in the foreground of a drawing or painting; coextensive with but different from the objective surface of the work.

- He looked up "picture plane" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "picture plane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

police squad (noun)

A small squad of policemen trained to deal with a particular kind of crime.

- He looked up "police squad" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "police squad."

---

south korea (noun)

A republic in the southern half of the Korean Peninsula; established in 1948.

- The article explained what "south korea" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "south korea" during the group presentation.

---

tips (verb)

To incline or bend from a vertical position.

- The coach explained when to use "tips" and when to wait.
- Can you use "tips" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

big-ticket (adjective)

Very expensive.

- Big-ticket items like cars and furs.
- A big-ticket government program.

---

capital of florida (noun)

Capital of the state of Florida; located in northern Florida.

- Understanding "capital of florida" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "capital of florida" means with a simple example.

---

capital of israel (noun)

Capital and largest city of the modern state of Israel (although its status as capital is disputed); it was captured from Jordan in 1967 in the Six Day War; a holy city for Jews and Christians and Muslims; was the capital of an ancient kingdom.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of israel."
- Understanding "capital of israel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clinton (noun)

A town in east central Iowa.

- The article explained what "clinton" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "clinton" to mean a town in east central iowa.

---

kill zone (noun)

An area where a battle has occurred with many fatalities.

- He looked up "kill zone" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "kill zone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

kingdom of god (noun)

The spiritual domain over which God is sovereign.

- He looked up "kingdom of god" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "kingdom of god" during the group presentation.

line of vision (noun)

An imaginary straight line along which an observer looks.

- The article explained what "line of vision" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "line of vision" during the group presentation.

north korea (noun)

A communist country in the northern half of the Korean Peninsula; established in 1948.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north korea."
- The article explained what "north korea" means with a simple example.

wake island (noun)

An island in the western Pacific between Guam and Hawaii.

- They discussed "wake island" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wake island" because he had never seen it before.

aid station (noun)

(military) a station located near a combat area for giving first aid to the wounded.

- In class, the teacher used "aid station" to mean (military) a station located near a combat area for....
- The article explained what "aid station" means with a simple example.

business cycle (noun)

Recurring fluctuations in economic activity consisting of recession and recovery and growth and decline.

- Understanding "business cycle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "business cycle."

capital of mexico (noun)

The capital and largest city of Mexico is a political and cultural and commercial and industrial center; one of the world's largest cities.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of mexico" to mean the capital and largest city of mexico is a....
- The article explained what "capital of mexico" means with a simple example.

creation (noun)

The event that occurred at the beginning of something.

- From its creation the plan was doomed to failure.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "creation."

crown (noun)

The top or extreme point of something (usually a mountain or hill).

- The colonies revolted against the Crown.
- Tomorrow my dentist will fit me for a crown.

flag down (verb)

Signal to stop.

- Let's flag down a cab–it's starting to rain.
- The policeman flagged down our car.

lower limit (noun)

The limit on the lower (or southernmost) side of something.

- In class, the teacher used "lower limit" to mean the limit on the lower (or southernmost) side of....
- They discussed "lower limit" during the group presentation.

personnel (noun)

The department responsible for hiring and training and placing employees and for setting policies for personnel management.

- He looked up "personnel" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "personnel" to mean the department responsible for hiring and training....

---

plane figure (noun)

A two-dimensional shape.

- Understanding "plane figure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "plane figure" during the group presentation.

---

revolution (noun)

A single complete turn (axial or orbital).

- The revolution of the earth about the sun takes one year.
- The industrial revolution was also a cultural revolution.

---

season ticket (noun)

A ticket good for several trips or to attend a season of entertainments; sold at a reduced rate.

- They discussed "season ticket" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "season ticket" means with a simple example.

---

ticket line (noun)

A queue of people waiting to buy tickets.

- Understanding "ticket line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ticket line" to mean a queue of people waiting to buy tickets.

---

tournament (noun)

A series of jousts between knights contesting for a prize.

- The article explained what "tournament" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tournament" to mean a series of jousts between knights contesting for a....

---

united kingdom (noun)

A monarchy in northwestern Europe occupying most of the British Isles; divided into England and Scotland and Wales and Northern Ireland; 'Great Britain' is often used loosely to refer to the United Kingdom.

- He looked up "united kingdom" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "united kingdom" during the group presentation.

---

us navy (noun)

The navy of the United States of America; the agency that maintains and trains and equips combat-ready naval forces.

- Understanding "us navy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "us navy" to mean the navy of the united states of america; the....

---

african nation (noun)

Any one of the countries occupying the African continent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "african nation."
- He looked up "african nation" because he had never seen it before.

---

air wave (noun)

A sound wave that is transmitted via air.

- The article explained what "air wave" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "air wave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bear down upon (verb)

Sail towards another vessel, of a ship.

- She tried to use "bear down upon" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "bear down upon" and when to wait.

---

capital of new mexico (noun)

Capital of the state of New Mexico; located in north central New Mexico.

- Understanding “capital of new mexico” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “capital of new mexico” means with a simple example.

---

crash (noun)

A serious accident (usually involving one or more vehicles).

- They are still investigating the crash of the TWA plane.
- His crash through the window.

---

extreme point (noun)

The point located farthest from the middle of something.

- He looked up “extreme point” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “extreme point.”

---

first-aid station (noun)

A station providing emergency care or treatment before regular medical aid can be obtained.

- The article explained what “first-aid station” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “first-aid station” to mean a station providing emergency care or treatment....

---

fly contact (verb)

Fly a plane by using visible landmarks or points of reference.

- Can you use “fly contact” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “fly contact” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

interior (noun)

The inner or enclosed surface of something.

- In class, the teacher used “interior” to mean the inner or enclosed surface of something.
- The article explained what “interior” means with a simple example.

---

orange free state (noun)

A province in central South Africa that was colonized by the Boers; named Free State in 1997.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “orange free state.”
- He looked up “orange free state” because he had never seen it before.

---

origin (noun)

The place where something begins, where it springs into being.

- Jupiter was the origin of the radiation.
- He comes from good origins.

---

pakistan (noun)

A Muslim republic that occupies the heartland of ancient south Asian civilization in the Indus River valley; formerly part of India; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1947.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pakistan.”
- They discussed “pakistan” during the group presentation.

---

peace garden state (noun)

A state of north central United States bordering on Canada.

- He looked up “peace garden state” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “peace garden state” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roads (noun)

A partly sheltered anchorage.

- The article explained what “roads” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “roads.”

---

shame (noun)

An unfortunate development.

- One mistake brought shame to all his family.
- He looked up “shame” because he had never seen it before.

testing ground (noun)

A region resembling a laboratory inasmuch as it offers opportunities for observation and practice and experimentation.

- The new nation is a testing ground for socioeconomic theories.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "testing ground."

ticket book (noun)

A book of tickets that can be torn out and used.

- They discussed "ticket book" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ticket book" to mean a book of tickets that can be torn out and used.

ticket office (noun)

The office where tickets of admission are sold.

- In class, the teacher used "ticket office" to mean the office where tickets of admission are sold.
- The article explained what "ticket office" means with a simple example.

tip (verb)

To incline or bend from a vertical position.

- Tip the screen upward.
- Tip the arrow with the small stone.

travel iron (noun)

A small lightweight iron that can be carried while traveling.

- He looked up "travel iron" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "travel iron" during the group presentation.

border district (noun)

District consisting of the area on either side of a border or boundary of a country or an area.

- He looked up "border district" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "border district."

bus traffic (noun)

Buses coming and going.

- They discussed "bus traffic" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bus traffic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

car bomb (noun)

A bomb placed in a car and wired to explode when the ignition is started or by remote control or by a timing device.

- Understanding "car bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "car bomb" means with a simple example.

danger line (noun)

A line beyond which it is dangerous to go.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "danger line."
- Understanding "danger line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

michigan (noun)

A midwestern state in north central United States in the Great Lakes region.

- He looked up "michigan" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "michigan" to mean a midwestern state in north central united states....

plane section (noun)

(geometry) the area created by a plane cutting through a solid.

- The article explained what "plane section" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plane section."

putting surface (noun)

An area of closely cropped grass surrounding the hole on a golf course.

- Understanding "putting surface" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "putting surface."

---

rural area (noun)

An area outside of cities and towns.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rural area."
- Understanding "rural area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ticket-of-leave (noun)

A permit formerly given to convicts allowing them to leave prison under specific restrictions.

- Understanding "ticket-of-leave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ticket-of-leave" during the group presentation.

---

tip over (verb)

Cause to overturn from an upright or normal position.

- The cat knocked over the flower vase.
- The clumsy customer turned over the vase.

---

trade route (noun)

A route followed by traders (usually in caravans).

- The article explained what "trade route" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trade route" to mean a route followed by traders (usually in caravans).

---

turn signal (noun)

A blinking light on a motor vehicle that indicates the direction in which the vehicle is about to turn.

- They discussed "turn signal" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "turn signal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

urban center (noun)

A large and densely populated urban area; may include several independent administrative districts.

- The article explained what "urban center" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "urban center" to mean a large and densely populated urban area; may....

---

wave form (noun)

The shape of a wave illustrated graphically by plotting the values of the period quantity against time.

- The article explained what "wave form" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wave form" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

west virginia (noun)

A state in east central United States.

- Understanding "west virginia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "west virginia" to mean a state in east central united states.

---

canadian capital (noun)

The capital of Canada (located in southeastern Ontario across the Ottawa river from Quebec).

- The article explained what "canadian capital" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "canadian capital" to mean the capital of canada (located in southeastern....

---

capital of central africa (noun)

The capital and largest city of the Central African Republic.

- Understanding "capital of central africa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "capital of central africa" during the group presentation.

---

circle around (verb)

Move around in a circular motion.

- The Earth revolves around the Sun.

- He did not know how to use "circle around" until he saw an example.

---

constitution state (noun)

A New England state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- In class, the teacher used "constitution state" to mean a new england state; one of the original 13 colonies.
- They discussed "constitution state" during the group presentation.

---

deaths (noun)

The event of dying or departure from life.

- He had two deaths on his conscience.
- The article explained what "deaths" means with a simple example.

---

drop zone (noun)

An agreed area where military supplies are dropped to ground troops.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drop zone."
- He looked up "drop zone" because he had never seen it before.

---

great circle (noun)

A circular line on the surface of a sphere formed by intersecting it with a plane passing through the center.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great circle."
- They discussed "great circle" during the group presentation.

---

load line (noun)

Waterlines to show the level the water should reach when the ship is properly loaded.

- Understanding "load line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "load line" during the group presentation.

---

manchester (noun)

A city in northwestern England (30 miles to the east of Liverpool); heart of the most densely populated area of England.

- He looked up "manchester" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "manchester" during the group presentation.

---

new south wales (noun)

An Australian state in southeastern Australia.

- The article explained what "new south wales" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new south wales."

---

paper route (noun)

The job of delivering newspapers regularly.

- They discussed "paper route" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "paper route" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

regions (noun)

The extended spatial location of something.

- The farming regions of France.
- Regions of outer space.

---

rent-a-car (noun)

A rented car.

- Understanding "rent-a-car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "rent-a-car" means with a simple example.

---

sydney (noun)

The largest Australian city located in southeastern Australia on the Tasman Sea; state capital of New South Wales; Australia's chief port.

- Understanding "sydney" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sydney" means with a simple example.

---

tool around (verb)

Ride in a car with no particular goal and just for the pleasure of it.

- We tooled down the street.
- He did not know how to use "tool around" until he saw an example.

---

unknown (noun)

An unknown and unexplored region.

- They came like angels out the unknown.
- He looked up "unknown" because he had never seen it before.

---

boat train (noun)

A train taking passengers to or from a port.

- In class, the teacher used "boat train" to mean a train taking passengers to or from a port.
- The article explained what "boat train" means with a simple example.

---

bunch together (verb)

Form into a bunch.

- The frightened children bunched together in the corner of the classroom.
- The coach explained when to use "bunch together" and when to wait.

---

carolina (noun)

The area of the states of North Carolina and South Carolina.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carolina."
- Understanding "carolina" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

empire state (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "empire state."
- They discussed "empire state" during the group presentation.

---

ground zero (noun)

The target of a projectile (as a bomb or missile).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground zero."
- He looked up "ground zero" because he had never seen it before.

---

kiss of death (noun)

Something that is ruinous.

- If this were known it would be the kiss of death for my political career.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kiss of death."

---

mail train (noun)

A train that carries mail.

- The article explained what "mail train" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mail train" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mile-high city (noun)

The state capital and largest city of Colorado; located in central Colorado on the South Platte river.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mile-high city."
- The article explained what "mile-high city" means with a simple example.

---

place of origin (noun)

Where something originated or was nurtured in its early existence.

- The birthplace of civilization.
- Understanding "place of origin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

split decision (noun)

A boxing decision in which the judges are not unanimous.

- In class, the teacher used "split decision" to mean a boxing decision in which the judges are not unanimous.
- The article explained what "split decision" means with a simple example.

---

tank car (noun)

A freight car that transports liquids or gases in bulk.

- He looked up "tank car" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tank car" to mean a freight car that transports liquids or gases in bulk.

---

theatre (noun)

A region in which active military operations are in progress.

- They discussed "theatre" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theatre."

---

united states army special forces (noun)

A division of the United States Army that is specially trained for guerilla fighting.

- They discussed "united states army special forces" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "united states army special forces" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yard line (noun)

In football; line parallel to the goal lines indicating position on the field.

- In class, the teacher used "yard line" to mean in football; line parallel to the goal lines....
- They discussed "yard line" during the group presentation.

---

air lane (noun)

A designated route followed by airplanes in flying from one airport to another.

- Understanding "air lane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "air lane" because he had never seen it before.

---

approach path (noun)

The final path followed by an aircraft as it is landing.

- They discussed "approach path" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "approach path" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bomb site (noun)

An area in a town that has been devastated by bombs.

- They opened a parking lot on the bomb site.
- The article explained what "bomb site" means with a simple example.

---

combat area (noun)

A military area where combat forces operate.

- The article explained what "combat area" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "combat area" to mean a military area where combat forces operate.

---

defeat (noun)

An unsuccessful ending to a struggle or contest.

- It was a narrow defeat.
- The army's only defeat.

---

hole-in-the-wall (noun)

A small unpretentious out-of-the-way place.

- His office was a hole-in-the-wall.
- The article explained what "hole-in-the-wall" means with a simple example.

---

jordan (noun)

An Arab kingdom in southwestern Asia on the Red Sea.

- Understanding "jordan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jordan" means with a simple example.

return ticket (noun)

A ticket to a place and back (usually over the same route).

- He looked up "return ticket" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "return ticket."

sleeping car (noun)

A passenger car that has berths for sleeping.

- The article explained what "sleeping car" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sleeping car."

sound wave (noun)

(acoustics) a wave that transmits sound.

- In class, the teacher used "sound wave" to mean (acoustics) a wave that transmits sound.
- Understanding "sound wave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

theme park (noun)

An amusement park that is organized around some theme (as the world of tomorrow).

- The article explained what "theme park" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "theme park" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

white noise (noun)

A noise produced by a stimulus containing all of the audible frequencies of vibration.

- White noise is a good masking agent.
- The article explained what "white noise" means with a simple example.

capital of ireland (noun)

Capital and largest city and major port of the Irish Republic.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of ireland" to mean capital and largest city and major port of the....
- The article explained what "capital of ireland" means with a simple example.

capital of italy (noun)

Capital and largest city of Italy; on the Tiber; seat of the Roman Catholic Church; formerly the capital of the Roman Republic and the Roman Empire.

- He looked up "capital of italy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of italy."

car factory (noun)

A factory where automobiles are manufactured.

- He looked up "car factory" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "car factory" to mean a factory where automobiles are manufactured.

country of origin (noun)

The country where you were born.

- The article explained what "country of origin" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "country of origin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

crash course (noun)

A rapid and intense course of training or research (usually undertaken in an emergency).

- He took a crash course in Italian on his way to Italy.
- His first job was a crash course in survival and in learning how to get along with people.

golden section (noun)

The proportional relation between two divisions of line or two dimension of a plane figure such that short : long :: long : (short + long).

- In class, the teacher used "golden section" to mean the proportional relation between two divisions of....
- He looked up "golden section" because he had never seen it before.

island of jersey (noun)

The largest of the Channel Islands.

- He looked up "island of jersey" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "island of jersey."

---

italian capital (noun)

Capital and largest city of Italy; on the Tiber; seat of the Roman Catholic Church; formerly the capital of the Roman Republic and the Roman Empire.

- He looked up "italian capital" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "italian capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

italian region (noun)

Italy is divided into 20 regions for administrative purposes.

- He looked up "italian region" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "italian region" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lift (noun)

The event of something being raised upward.

- Some actresses have more than one face lift.
- He gave me a lift home.

---

motor city (noun)

The largest city in Michigan and a major Great Lakes port; center of the United States automobile industry; located in southeastern Michigan on the Detroit river across from Windsor.

- Understanding "motor city" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "motor city" because he had never seen it before.

---

police academy (noun)

An academy for training police officers.

- In class, the teacher used "police academy" to mean an academy for training police officers.
- He looked up "police academy" because he had never seen it before.

---

shoulder in (verb)

Push one's way in with one's shoulders.

- Can you use "shoulder in" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "shoulder in" when talking about this idea.

---

tie up (verb)

Restrain from moving or operating normally.

- Traffic is tied up for miles around the bridge where the accident occurred.
- Tie down the prisoners.

---

vehicle traffic (noun)

The aggregation of vehicles coming and going in a particular locality.

- The article explained what "vehicle traffic" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "vehicle traffic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

visited (verb)

Come to see in an official or professional capacity.

- The governor visited the prison.
- The grant administrator visited the laboratory.

---

zealand (noun)

The largest island of Denmark and the site of Copenhagen.

- The article explained what "zealand" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "zealand" during the group presentation.

---

asian russia (noun)

The Russia that is part of Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "asian russia."

- They discussed "asian russia" during the group presentation.

block plane (noun)

A small plane used on end grains of wood.

- The article explained what "block plane" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "block plane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bus driver (noun)

Someone who drives a bus.

- In class, the teacher used "bus driver" to mean someone who drives a bus.
- The article explained what "bus driver" means with a simple example.

cable car (noun)

A conveyance for passengers or freight on a cable railway.

- They took a cable car to the top of the mountain.
- They discussed "cable car" during the group presentation.

capital of new jersey (noun)

Capital of the state of New Jersey; located in western New Jersey on the Delaware river.

- The article explained what "capital of new jersey" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of new jersey" to mean capital of the state of new jersey; located in....

equipment failure (noun)

A cessation of normal operation.

- Understanding "equipment failure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "equipment failure" to mean a cessation of normal operation.

flight of steps (noun)

A stairway (set of steps) between one floor or landing and the next.

- He looked up "flight of steps" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "flight of steps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gained (verb)

Reach a destination, either real or abstract.

- The stock market gained 24 points today.
- The peace movement gained momentum.

housing estate (noun)

A residential area where the houses were all planned and built at the same time.

- The article explained what "housing estate" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "housing estate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

killing zone (noun)

An area where a battle has occurred with many fatalities.

- He looked up "killing zone" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "killing zone" to mean an area where a battle has occurred with many....

line of sight (noun)

An imaginary straight line along which an observer looks.

- Understanding "line of sight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "line of sight" because he had never seen it before.

new zealand (noun)

An independent country within the British Commonwealth; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1907; known for sheep and spectacular scenery.

- They discussed "new zealand" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "new zealand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ocean trip (noun)

An act of traveling by water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ocean trip."
- The article explained what "ocean trip" means with a simple example.

---

plot of land (noun)

A small area of ground covered by specific vegetation.

- A bean plot.
- They discussed "plot of land" during the group presentation.

---

rough (noun)

The part of a golf course bordering the fairway where the grass is not cut short.

- The article explained what "rough" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rough" to mean the part of a golf course bordering the fairway....

---

tie down (verb)

Restrain from independence by an obligation.

- He was tied down by his work.
- Tie down the prisoners.

---

toronto (noun)

The provincial capital and largest city in Ontario (and the largest city in Canada).

- The article explained what "toronto" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "toronto" to mean the provincial capital and largest city in ontario....

---

trade cycle (noun)

Recurring fluctuations in economic activity consisting of recession and recovery and growth and decline.

- Understanding "trade cycle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "trade cycle" means with a simple example.

---

trust territory (noun)

A dependent country; administered by another country under the supervision of the United Nations.

- Understanding "trust territory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "trust territory" during the group presentation.

---

two-wheel (adjective)

Of or relating to vehicles with two wheels.

- A two-wheeled cart.
- It is useful to describe something as "two-wheel" when it is of or relating to vehicles with two wheels.

---

blind side (noun)

The side on which your vision is limited or obstructed.

- Understanding "blind side" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "blind side" because he had never seen it before.

---

bush out (verb)

Grow outward.

- The plant quickly bushed out.
- Learners should practice how to use "bush out" in real sentences.

---

flight path (noun)

The path of a rocket or projectile or aircraft through the air.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flight path."
- They discussed "flight path" during the group presentation.

---

french republic (noun)

A republic in western Europe; the largest country wholly in Europe.

- He looked up "french republic" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "french republic" during the group presentation.

---

intelligence cell (noun)

A terrorist cell whose members are trained to perform reconnaissance and surveillance.

- They discussed "intelligence cell" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "intelligence cell" means with a simple example.

---

law of equal areas (noun)

A law concerning the speed at which planets travel; a line connecting a planet to the sun will sweep out equal areas in equal times.

- Kepler's second law means that a planet's orbital speed changes with its distance from the sun.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "law of equal areas."

---

lift off (verb)

Depart from the ground.

- The plane took off two hours late.
- The coach explained when to use "lift off" and when to wait.

---

military academy (noun)

An academy for training military officers.

- They discussed "military academy" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "military academy" because he had never seen it before.

---

personnel department (noun)

The department responsible for hiring and training and placing employees and for setting policies for personnel management.

- Understanding "personnel department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "personnel department" to mean the department responsible for hiring and training....

---

plot of ground (noun)

A small area of ground covered by specific vegetation.

- A bean plot.
- They discussed "plot of ground" during the group presentation.

---

republic of china (noun)

A government on the island of Taiwan established in 1949 by Chiang Kai-shek after the conquest of mainland China by the Communists led by Mao Zedong.

- Understanding "republic of china" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of china."

---

ship route (noun)

A lane at sea that is a regularly used route for vessels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ship route."
- The article explained what "ship route" means with a simple example.

---

three-wheel (adjective)

Of or relating to vehicles having three wheels.

- A three-wheel bike.
- Students compared "three-wheel" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

united states navy (noun)

The navy of the United States of America; the agency that maintains and trains and equips combat-ready naval forces.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united states navy."
- They discussed "united states navy" during the group presentation.

---

west pakistan (noun)

A Muslim republic that occupies the heartland of ancient south Asian civilization in the Indus River valley; formerly part of India; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1947.

- He looked up "west pakistan" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "west pakistan" to mean a muslim republic that occupies the heartland of....

wheel around (verb)

Change directions as if revolving on a pivot.

- They wheeled their horses around and left.
- She tried to use "wheel around" carefully so everyone would understand.

asian nation (noun)

Any one of the nations occupying the Asian continent.

- They discussed "asian nation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "asian nation" means with a simple example.

capital of iran (noun)

The capital and largest city of Iran; located in northern Iran.

- The article explained what "capital of iran" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of iran."

capital of virginia (noun)

Capital of the state of Virginia located in the east central part of the state; was capital of the Confederacy during the American Civil War.

- Understanding "capital of virginia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "capital of virginia" means with a simple example.

circuit (noun)

The boundary line encompassing an area or object.

- We took a quick circuit of the park.
- A ten-day coach circuit of the island.

crash land (verb)

Make an emergency landing.

- The coach explained when to use "crash land" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "crash land" until he saw an example.

crash program (noun)

A rapid and intense course of training or research (usually undertaken in an emergency).

- He took a crash course in Italian on his way to Italy.
- His first job was a crash course in survival and in learning how to get along with people.

domestic flight (noun)

A flight that begins and ends in the same country.

- Understanding "domestic flight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "domestic flight."

drawing-room car (noun)

A passenger car for day travel; you pay extra fare for individual chairs.

- Understanding "drawing-room car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "drawing-room car" to mean a passenger car for day travel; you pay extra fare....

engine failure (noun)

Engine does not run.

- Understanding "engine failure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "engine failure."

gas giant (noun)

Any of the four outermost planets in the solar system; much larger than Earth and gaseous in nature (like Jupiter).

- Understanding "gas giant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "gas giant" means with a simple example.

harm (noun)

The occurrence of a change for the worse.

- He looked up "harm" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "harm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inner city (noun)

The older and more populated and (usually) poorer central section of a city.

- They discussed "inner city" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "inner city" to mean the older and more populated and (usually) poorer....

---

jack plane (noun)

A carpenter's plane for rough finishing.

- The article explained what "jack plane" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jack plane" to mean a carpenter's plane for rough finishing.

---

mount up (verb)

Get up on the back of.

- Mount a horse.
- She tried to use "mount up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

plane seat (noun)

A seat on a commercial airliner.

- They discussed "plane seat" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plane seat."

---

pleasure ground (noun)

A commercially operated park with stalls and shows for amusement.

- He looked up "pleasure ground" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pleasure ground" to mean a commercially operated park with stalls and shows....

---

port louis (noun)

Capital and chief port of Mauritius; located on the northwestern coast of the island.

- The article explained what "port louis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "port louis" to mean capital and chief port of mauritius; located on the....

---

raw deal (noun)

Unfair treatment.

- In class, the teacher used "raw deal" to mean unfair treatment.
- They discussed "raw deal" during the group presentation.

---

republic of india (noun)

A republic in the Asian subcontinent in southern Asia; second most populous country in the world; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1947.

- He looked up "republic of india" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of india."

---

retirement community (noun)

A planned community for residents who have retired from an active working life.

- He looked up "retirement community" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "retirement community" during the group presentation.

---

rush off (verb)

Depart in a hurry.

- He did not know how to use "rush off" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "rush off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

rush out (verb)

Jump out from a hiding place and surprise (someone).

- The attackers leapt out from the bushes.

- The coach explained when to use "rush out" and when to wait.

---

smoking car (noun)

A passenger car for passengers who wish to smoke.

- He looked up "smoking car" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "smoking car" to mean a passenger car for passengers who wish to smoke.

---

south carolina (noun)

A state in the Deep South; one of the original 13 colonies.

- Understanding "south carolina" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south carolina."

---

straight ticket (noun)

A ballot cast by a voter who votes for all the candidates of one party.

- He looked up "straight ticket" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "straight ticket" during the group presentation.

---

theatre of war (noun)

The entire land, sea, and air area that may become or is directly involved in war operations.

- In class, the teacher used "theatre of war" to mean the entire land, sea, and air area that may become....
- The article explained what "theatre of war" means with a simple example.

---

capital of ohio (noun)

The state capital of Ohio; located in the center of the state; site of Ohio State University.

- Understanding "capital of ohio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "capital of ohio" during the group presentation.

---

element (noun)

The most favorable environment for a plant or animal.

- Water is the element of fishes.
- The grammatical elements of a sentence.

---

empire state of the south (noun)

A state in southeastern United States; one of the Confederate states during the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "empire state of the south" to mean a state in southeastern united states; one of the....
- He looked up "empire state of the south" because he had never seen it before.

---

four-wheel (adjective)

Of or relating to vehicles with four wheels.

- A four-wheel drive.
- Would you call this situation "four-wheel"? Explain why.

---

georgia (noun)

A state in southeastern United States; one of the Confederate states during the American Civil War.

- Understanding "georgia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "georgia" because he had never seen it before.

---

hour circle (noun)

A great circle on the celestial sphere that passes through both celestial poles.

- In class, the teacher used "hour circle" to mean a great circle on the celestial sphere that passes....
- The article explained what "hour circle" means with a simple example.

---

north carolina (noun)

A state in southeastern United States; one of the original 13 colonies.

- In class, the teacher used "north carolina" to mean a state in southeastern united states; one of the....
- They discussed "north carolina" during the group presentation.

---

pa (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- They discussed "pa" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pa."

pride of place (noun)

The first or highest or most important or most ostentatious place.

- In class, the teacher used "pride of place" to mean the first or highest or most important or most....
- The article explained what "pride of place" means with a simple example.

shock (noun)

An instance of agitation of the earth's crust.

- The first shock of the earthquake came shortly after noon while workers were at lunch.
- He was numb with shock.

thick (noun)

The location of something surrounded by other things.

- The article explained what "thick" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "thick" to mean the location of something surrounded by other things.

threw (verb)

To put into a state or activity hastily, suddenly, or carelessly.

- Jane threw dinner together.
- She threw herself forwards.

wave train (noun)

A succession of waves spaced at regular intervals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wave train."
- They discussed "wave train" during the group presentation.

bound off (verb)

Bound off one point after another.

- Can you use "bound off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "bound off" and when to wait.

capital of spain (noun)

The capital and largest city situated centrally in Spain; home of an outstanding art museum.

- Understanding "capital of spain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of spain" to mean the capital and largest city situated centrally in....

car racing (noun)

The sport of racing automobiles.

- He looked up "car racing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "car racing."

car wheel (noun)

A wheel that has a tire and rim and hubcap; used to propel the car.

- They discussed "car wheel" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "car wheel" means with a simple example.

circle round (verb)

Move around in a circular motion.

- The Earth revolves around the Sun.
- The coach explained when to use "circle round" and when to wait.

east pakistan (noun)

A Muslim republic in southern Asia bordered by India to the north and west and east and the Bay of Bengal to the south; formerly part of India and then part of Pakistan; it achieved independence in 1971.

- In class, the teacher used “east pakistan” to mean a muslim republic in southern asia bordered by....
- Understanding “east pakistan” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

egypt (noun)

An ancient empire to the west of Israel; centered on the Nile River and ruled by a Pharaoh; figured in many events described in the Old Testament.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “egypt.”
- He looked up “egypt” because he had never seen it before.

---

fort up (verb)

Gather in, or as if in, a fort, as for protection or defense.

- She tried to use “fort up” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “fort up” and when to wait.

---

ground noise (noun)

Extraneous noise contaminating sound measurements that cannot be separated from the desired signal.

- They discussed “ground noise” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ground noise.”

---

los angeles (noun)

A city in southern California; motion picture capital of the world; most populous city of California and second largest in the United States.

- The article explained what “los angeles” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “los angeles” to mean a city in southern california; motion picture....

---

racing car (noun)

A fast car that competes in races.

- He looked up “racing car” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “racing car.”

---

refer (verb)

Send or direct for treatment, information, or a decision.

- Refer a patient to a specialist.
- Refer a bill to a committee.

---

rush away (verb)

Depart in a hurry.

- The coach explained when to use “rush away” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “rush away” until he saw an example.

---

tracks (noun)

A line or route along which something travels or moves.

- In class, the teacher used “tracks” to mean a line or route along which something travels or moves.
- They discussed “tracks” during the group presentation.

---

train ticket (noun)

A ticket good for a ride on a railroad train.

- In class, the teacher used “train ticket” to mean a ticket good for a ride on a railroad train.
- They discussed “train ticket” during the group presentation.

---

wash up (verb)

Carry somewhere (of water or current or waves).

- The tide washed up the corpse.
- I cook and my husband washes up after dinner.

---

bus route (noun)

The route regularly followed by a passenger bus.

- The article explained what “bus route” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “bus route” to mean the route regularly followed by a passenger bus.

capital of brazil (noun)

The capital of Brazil; a city built on the central plateau and inaugurated in 1960.

- They discussed "capital of brazil" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "capital of brazil" means with a simple example.

capital of south korea (noun)

The capital of South Korea and the largest city of Asia; located in northwestern South Korea.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of south korea" to mean the capital of south korea and the largest city of....
- The article explained what "capital of south korea" means with a simple example.

city limits (noun)

The limits of the area occupied by a city or town.

- The article explained what "city limits" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "city limits" to mean the limits of the area occupied by a city or town.

coal car (noun)

Freight car with fixed sides and no roof; for transporting coal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coal car."
- The article explained what "coal car" means with a simple example.

flash back (verb)

Return in time.

- The film cut back to an earlier event in the story.
- He did not know how to use "flash back" until he saw an example.

illinois (noun)

A midwestern state in north-central United States.

- The article explained what "illinois" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "illinois."

injuries (noun)

An accident that results in physical damage or hurt.

- The article explained what "injuries" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "injuries" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

northern ireland (noun)

A division of the United Kingdom located on the northern part of the island of Ireland.

- The article explained what "northern ireland" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "northern ireland."

parking lot (noun)

A lot where cars are parked.

- They discussed "parking lot" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "parking lot" means with a simple example.

population shift (noun)

A change in the relative numbers of the different groups of individuals making up a population.

- They discussed "population shift" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "population shift" to mean a change in the relative numbers of the different....

replacement (noun)

An event in which one thing is substituted for another.

- The replacement of lost blood by a transfusion of donor blood.
- He looked up "replacement" because he had never seen it before.

thread (verb)

To move or cause to move in a sinuous, spiral, or circular course.

- Thread a needle.
- She had her eyebrows threaded.

---

victoria (noun)

A town in southeast Texas to the southeast of San Antonio.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "victoria."
- He looked up "victoria" because he had never seen it before.

---

virginia beach (noun)

The largest city in Virginia; long overshadowed by Norfolk but growing rapidly since 1970; with 28 miles of public beaches tourism is a major factor in the economy; site of three United States Navy bases.

- Understanding "virginia beach" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "virginia beach" means with a simple example.

---

air force academy (noun)

An academy for training air force officers.

- They discussed "air force academy" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "air force academy" because he had never seen it before.

---

arrival time (noun)

The time at which a public conveyance is scheduled to arrive at a given destination.

- He looked up "arrival time" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "arrival time" during the group presentation.

---

capital of north korea (noun)

Capital of North Korea and an industrial center.

- Pyongyang is Korea's oldest city but little of its history has been preserved.
- He looked up "capital of north korea" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of the united kingdom (noun)

The capital and largest city of England; located on the Thames in southeastern England; financial and industrial and cultural center.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of the united kingdom" to mean the capital and largest city of england; located on....
- Understanding "capital of the united kingdom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of turkey (noun)

The capital of Turkey; located in west-central Turkey; it was formerly known as Angora and is the home of Angora goats.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of turkey."
- The article explained what "capital of turkey" means with a simple example.

---

car mirror (noun)

A mirror that the driver of a car can use.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "car mirror."
- They discussed "car mirror" during the group presentation.

---

chase after (verb)

Go after with the intent to catch.

- The policeman chased the mugger down the alley.
- The dog chased the rabbit.

---

crime wave (noun)

A sudden rise in the crime rate.

- They discussed "crime wave" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "crime wave" means with a simple example.

---

episodes (noun)

A happening that is distinctive in a series of related events.

- Understanding "episodes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "episodes" to mean a happening that is distinctive in a series of....

houses of parliament (noun)

The building in which the House of Commons and the House of Lords meet.

- They discussed "houses of parliament" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "houses of parliament."

iraq (noun)

A republic in the Middle East in western Asia; the ancient civilization of Mesopotamia was in the area now known as Iraq.

- The article explained what "iraq" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "iraq" to mean a republic in the middle east in western asia; the....

liverpool (noun)

A large city in northwestern England; its port is the country's major outlet for industrial exports.

- He looked up "liverpool" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liverpool."

muscle into (verb)

Force one's way.

- He muscled into the union.
- Can you use "muscle into" in a sentence that fits this situation?

ny (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- The article explained what "ny" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ny" to mean a mid-atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

opens (noun)

A clear or unobstructed space or expanse of land or water.

- The article explained what "opens" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "opens" to mean a clear or unobstructed space or expanse of land or....

parking area (noun)

A lot where cars are parked.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parking area."
- They discussed "parking area" during the group presentation.

raising (noun)

The event of something being raised upward.

- A raising of the land resulting from volcanic activity.
- They discussed "raising" during the group presentation.

soviet union (noun)

A former communist country in eastern Europe and northern Asia; established in 1922; included Russia and 14 other soviet socialist republics (Ukraine and Byelorussia and others); officially dissolved 31 December 1991.

- The article explained what "soviet union" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "soviet union" to mean a former communist country in eastern europe and....

supply route (noun)

A route over which supplies can be delivered.

- He looked up "supply route" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "supply route" during the group presentation.

take to the woods (verb)

Flee; take to one's heels; cut and run.

- The burglars escaped before the police showed up.
- Can you use "take to the woods" in a sentence that fits this situation?

time of arrival (noun)

The time at which a public conveyance is scheduled to arrive at a given destination.

- The article explained what "time of arrival" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "time of arrival" to mean the time at which a public conveyance is scheduled....

---

trip the light fantastic (verb)

Move in a pattern; usually to musical accompaniment; do or perform a dance.

- My husband and I like to dance at home to the radio.
- He did not know how to use "trip the light fantastic" until he saw an example.

---

belt (noun)

An elongated region where a specific condition or characteristic is found.

- A belt of high pressure.
- The article explained what "belt" means with a simple example.

---

black hills (noun)

Mountains in western South Dakota and northeastern Wyoming.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black hills."
- Understanding "black hills" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of pakistan (noun)

The capital of Pakistan in the north on a plateau; the site was chosen in 1959.

- He looked up "capital of pakistan" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of pakistan."

---

ceremony (noun)

A formal event performed on a special occasion.

- A ceremony commemorating Pearl Harbor.
- The ceremony of smelling the cork and tasting the wine.

---

clock up (verb)

Record a distance travelled; on planes and cars.

- He did not know how to use "clock up" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "clock up" when talking about this idea.

---

dallas (noun)

A large commercial and industrial city in northeastern Texas located in the heart of the northern Texas oil fields.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dallas."
- He looked up "dallas" because he had never seen it before.

---

entering (noun)

A movement into or inward.

- Understanding "entering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "entering" to mean a movement into or inward.

---

give chase (verb)

Go after with the intent to catch.

- The policeman chased the mugger down the alley.
- The dog chased the rabbit.

---

head for the hills (verb)

Flee; take to one's heels; cut and run.

- The burglars escaped before the police showed up.
- Learners should practice how to use "head for the hills" in real sentences.

---

houston (noun)

The largest city in Texas; located in southeastern Texas near the Gulf of Mexico; site of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

- He looked up "houston" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "houston" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

labor pool (noun)

The source of trained people from which workers can be hired.

- In class, the teacher used "labor pool" to mean the source of trained people from which workers can....
- He looked up "labor pool" because he had never seen it before.

---

moscow (noun)

A city of central European Russia; formerly capital of both the Soviet Union and Soviet Russia; since 1991 the capital of the Russian Federation.

- He looked up "moscow" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "moscow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

philadelphia (noun)

The largest city in Pennsylvania; located in the southeastern part of the state on the Delaware river; site of Independence Hall where the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution were signed; site of the University of Pennsylvania.

- They discussed "philadelphia" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "philadelphia" to mean the largest city in pennsylvania; located in the....

---

radio noise (noun)

Static at radio wavelengths.

- The article explained what "radio noise" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "radio noise" to mean static at radio wavelengths.

---

railway car (noun)

A wheeled vehicle adapted to the rails of railroad.

- Three cars had jumped the rails.
- They discussed "railway car" during the group presentation.

---

rear back (verb)

Rear backwards on its hind legs.

- The frightened horse reared back.
- Can you use "rear back" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

skill (noun)

An ability that has been acquired by training.

- The skill of a well-trained boxer.
- The article explained what "skill" means with a simple example.

---

society islands (noun)

An island group of French Polynesia in the South Pacific to the east of Samoa.

- Understanding "society islands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "society islands" to mean an island group of french polynesia in the south....

---

soil (noun)

The geographical area under the jurisdiction of a sovereign state.

- American troops were stationed on Japanese soil.
- Good agricultural soil.

---

standing wave (noun)

A wave (as a sound wave in a chamber or an electromagnetic wave in a transmission line) in which the ratio of its instantaneous amplitude at one point to that at any other point does not vary with time.

- The article explained what "standing wave" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "standing wave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

suck (verb)

Draw something in by or as if by a vacuum.

- Mud was sucking at her feet.

- Suck the poison from the place where the snake bit.

---

approach pattern (noun)

The path that is prescribed for an airplane that is preparing to land at an airport.

- The traffic patterns around O'Hare are very crowded.
- They stayed in the pattern until the fog lifted.

---

bedroom community (noun)

A community where many commuters live.

- The article explained what "bedroom community" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bedroom community" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of michigan (noun)

Capital of the state of Michigan; located in southern Michigan on the Grand River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of michigan."
- He looked up "capital of michigan" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of west virginia (noun)

State capital of West Virginia in the central part of the state on the Kanawha river.

- They discussed "capital of west virginia" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "capital of west virginia" because he had never seen it before.

---

chase away (verb)

Force to go away; used both with concrete and metaphoric meanings.

- Drive away potential burglars.
- Drive away bad thoughts.

---

irish capital (noun)

Capital and largest city and major port of the Irish Republic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "irish capital."
- They discussed "irish capital" during the group presentation.

---

latin america (noun)

The parts of North America and South America to the south of the United States where Romance languages are spoken.

- In class, the teacher used "latin america" to mean the parts of north america and south america to the....
- Understanding "latin america" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

northern territory (noun)

A territory in north central Australia.

- He looked up "northern territory" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "northern territory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

palace car (noun)

A passenger car for day travel; you pay extra fare for individual chairs.

- Understanding "palace car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "palace car."

---

root (noun)

The place where something begins, where it springs into being.

- Communism's Russian root.
- Understanding "root" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trail head (noun)

The beginning of a trail.

- Understanding "trail head" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "trail head" because he had never seen it before.

---

upper limit (noun)

The limit on the upper (or northernmost) side of something.

- The article explained what "upper limit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "upper limit" to mean the limit on the upper (or northernmost) side of....

---

violent death (noun)

An event that causes someone to die.

- They discussed "violent death" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "violent death."

---

western empire (noun)

The western part after the Roman Empire was divided in 395; it lasted only until 476.

- He looked up "western empire" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western empire."

---

boost up (verb)

Push upward.

- She tried to use "boost up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "boost up" until he saw an example.

---

bus ticket (noun)

A ticket good for a ride on a bus.

- He looked up "bus ticket" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bus ticket" during the group presentation.

---

diamond state (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diamond state."
- They discussed "diamond state" during the group presentation.

---

downtown (noun)

The central area or commercial center of a town or city.

- The heart of Birmingham's downtown.
- Understanding "downtown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hop (verb)

Travel by means of an aircraft, bus, etc.

- She hopped a train to Chicago.
- He hopped rides all over the country.

---

hop on (verb)

Get up on the back of.

- The coach explained when to use "hop on" and when to wait.
- Can you use "hop on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

hop out (verb)

Get out of quickly.

- The officer hopped out when he spotted an illegally parked car.
- Can you use "hop out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

house of islam (noun)

Areas where Muslims are in the majority.

- The article explained what "house of islam" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "house of islam" to mean areas where muslims are in the majority.

---

parking space (noun)

A space where an automobile can be parked.

- Understanding “parking space” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “parking space” because he had never seen it before.

---

pleasure trip (noun)

A journey taken for pleasure.

- It was merely a pleasure trip.
- In class, the teacher used “pleasure trip” to mean a journey taken for pleasure.

---

port of entry (noun)

A port in the United States where customs officials are stationed to oversee the entry and exit of people and merchandise.

- Understanding “port of entry” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “port of entry” during the group presentation.

---

rail off (verb)

Separate with a railing.

- Rail off the crowds from the Presidential palace.
- In everyday English, people use “rail off” when talking about this idea.

---

rush hour (noun)

The times at the beginning and end of the working day when many people are traveling to or from work.

- He looked up “rush hour” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rush hour.”

---

san francisco (noun)

A port in western California near the Golden Gate that is one of the major industrial and transportation centers; it has one of the world’s finest harbors; site of the Golden Gate Bridge.

- He looked up “san francisco” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “san francisco” during the group presentation.

---

sweden (noun)

A Scandinavian kingdom in the eastern part of the Scandinavian Peninsula.

- He looked up “sweden” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “sweden” during the group presentation.

---

syria (noun)

An Asian republic in the Middle East at the east end of the Mediterranean; site of some of the world’s most ancient centers of civilization.

- In class, the teacher used “syria” to mean an asian republic in the middle east at the east....
- He looked up “syria” because he had never seen it before.

---

throwing (verb)

To put into a state or activity hastily, suddenly, or carelessly.

- Learners should practice how to use “throwing” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “throwing” and when to wait.

---

ticket agent (noun)

Someone who sells tickets (e.g., theater seats or travel accommodations).

- The article explained what “ticket agent” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “ticket agent” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

unknown region (noun)

An unknown and unexplored region.

- They came like angels out the unknown.
- Understanding “unknown region” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

background signal (noun)

Extraneous signals that can be confused with the phenomenon to be observed or measured.

- They got a bad connection and could hardly hear one another over the background signals.
- He looked up “background signal” because he had never seen it before.

cambridge (noun)

A city in eastern England on the River Cam; site of Cambridge University.

- Understanding "cambridge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cambridge."

capital of jordan (noun)

The capital and largest city of Jordan.

- They discussed "capital of jordan" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of jordan."

disaster (noun)

An event resulting in great loss and misfortune.

- The earthquake was a disaster.
- His policies were a disaster.

flying squad (noun)

A mobile group of trained people (police or executives or officials) able to move quickly in the case of emergencies.

- They discussed "flying squad" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "flying squad" to mean a mobile group of trained people (police or....

gary (noun)

A city in northwest Indiana on Lake Michigan; steel production.

- The article explained what "gary" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gary" during the group presentation.

go forth (verb)

Go away from a place.

- Can you use "go forth" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "go forth" and when to wait.

islamic community (noun)

A clandestine group of southeast Asian terrorists organized in 1993 and trained by al-Qaeda; supports militant Muslims in Indonesia and the Philippines and has cells in Singapore and Malaysia and Indonesia.

- The article explained what "islamic community" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "islamic community."

makeup (noun)

An event that is substituted for a previously cancelled event.

- He missed the test and had to take a makeup.
- The two teams played a makeup one week later.

morgan city (noun)

A town in southeast Louisiana to the south of Baton Rouge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morgan city."
- The article explained what "morgan city" means with a simple example.

motor hotel (noun)

A hotel for motorists; provides direct access from rooms to parking area.

- They discussed "motor hotel" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "motor hotel" to mean a hotel for motorists; provides direct access from....

republic of south africa (noun)

A republic at the southernmost part of Africa; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1910; first European settlers were Dutch (known as Boers).

- In class, the teacher used "republic of south africa" to mean a republic at the southernmost part of africa;....
- Understanding "republic of south africa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

soviet russia (noun)

Formerly the largest Soviet Socialist Republic in the USSR occupying eastern Europe and northern Asia.

- They discussed "soviet russia" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "soviet russia" because he had never seen it before.

---

strike zone (noun)

(baseball) the area over home plate between a batter's knees and shoulders through which a pitch must pass in order to be called a strike.

- In class, the teacher used "strike zone" to mean (baseball) the area over home plate between a....
- The article explained what "strike zone" means with a simple example.

---

tag along (verb)

Go along with, often uninvited.

- My younger brother often tagged along when I went out with my friends.
- Can you use "tag along" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

take a hop (verb)

Spring back; spring away from an impact.

- In everyday English, people use "take a hop" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "take a hop" in real sentences.

---

ticket window (noun)

A window through which tickets are sold (as from a ticket booth).

- Understanding "ticket window" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ticket window" to mean a window through which tickets are sold (as from a....

---

angle (verb)

To incline or bend from a vertical position.

- He angled his way into the room.
- In everyday English, people use "angle" when talking about this idea.

---

arizona (noun)

A state in southwestern United States; site of the Grand Canyon.

- In class, the teacher used "arizona" to mean a state in southwestern united states; site of the....
- The article explained what "arizona" means with a simple example.

---

arrive at (verb)

Reach a destination, either real or abstract.

- Learners should practice how to use "arrive at" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "arrive at" when talking about this idea.

---

bus lane (noun)

A traffic lane intended for buses only.

- He looked up "bus lane" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bus lane."

---

capital of new zealand (noun)

The capital of New Zealand.

- Understanding "capital of new zealand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "capital of new zealand" means with a simple example.

---

channels (noun)

Official routes of communication.

- You have to go through channels.
- The fields were crossed with irrigation channels.

---

comic book (noun)

A magazine devoted to comic strips.

- He looked up "comic book" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "comic book" to mean a magazine devoted to comic strips.

---

greek capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Greece; named after Athena (its patron goddess).

- Understanding "greek capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "greek capital" during the group presentation.

---

mill about (verb)

Move about in a confused manner.

- He did not know how to use "mill about" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "mill about" and when to wait.

---

oxford (noun)

A university town in northern Mississippi; home of William Faulkner.

- He looked up "oxford" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oxford."

---

south of houston (noun)

A district in southwestern Manhattan noted for its shops and restaurants and galleries and artist's lofts.

- He looked up "south of houston" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "south of houston" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

steal away (verb)

Leave furtively and stealthily.

- Can you use "steal away" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "steal away" and when to wait.

---

sucks (verb)

Draw something in by or as if by a vacuum.

- This sucks!
- Can you use "sucks" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

traffic pattern (noun)

The path that is prescribed for an airplane that is preparing to land at an airport.

- The traffic patterns around O'Hare are very crowded.
- They stayed in the pattern until the fog lifted.

---

travel and entertainment account (noun)

An account to which salespersons or executives can charge travel and entertainment expenses.

- Understanding "travel and entertainment account" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "travel and entertainment account" during the group presentation.

---

western islands (noun)

A group of more than 500 islands off the western coast of Scotland.

- He looked up "western islands" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western islands."

---

atlantic city (noun)

A city on the Atlantic shore in southeastern New Jersey; a resort and gambling center.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "atlantic city."
- Understanding "atlantic city" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

driving license (noun)

A license authorizing the bearer to drive a motor vehicle.

- Understanding "driving license" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "driving license."

---

fort worth (noun)

A city in northeastern Texas (just to the west of Dallas); a major industrial center.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fort worth."
- They discussed "fort worth" during the group presentation.

---

funeral (noun)

A ceremony at which a dead person is buried or cremated.

- Hundreds of people attended his funeral.
- They discussed "funeral" during the group presentation.

---

hit the deck (verb)

Fall or drop suddenly, usually to evade some danger.

- The soldiers hit the dirt when they heard gunfire.
- Can you use "hit the deck" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

log up (verb)

Record a distance travelled; on planes and cars.

- Can you use "log up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "log up" and when to wait.

---

olympic national park (noun)

A national park in Washington having rain forests of giant evergreens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "olympic national park."
- He looked up "olympic national park" because he had never seen it before.

---

resort (verb)

Move, travel, or proceed toward some place.

- The government resorted to rationing meat.
- He did not know how to use "resort" until he saw an example.

---

saint john (noun)

A port in eastern Canada; the largest city in New Brunswick.

- He looked up "saint john" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "saint john" during the group presentation.

---

string line (noun)

Line across a billiard table behind which the cue balls are placed at the start of a game.

- The article explained what "string line" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "string line" to mean line across a billiard table behind which the cue....

---

victoria land (noun)

A mountainous area of Antarctica bounded by the Ross Sea and Wilkes Land.

- He looked up "victoria land" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "victoria land" to mean a mountainous area of antarctica bounded by the....

---

waste-yard (noun)

A piece of land where waste materials are dumped.

- They discussed "waste-yard" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "waste-yard" means with a simple example.

---

wave shape (noun)

The shape of a wave illustrated graphically by plotting the values of the period quantity against time.

- In class, the teacher used "wave shape" to mean the shape of a wave illustrated graphically by....
- The article explained what "wave shape" means with a simple example.

---

al-iraq (noun)

A republic in the Middle East in western Asia; the ancient civilization of Mesopotamia was in the area now known as Iraq.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “al-iraq.”
- They discussed “al-iraq” during the group presentation.

---

austin (noun)

State capital of Texas on the Colorado River; site of the University of Texas.

- In class, the teacher used “austin” to mean state capital of texas on the colorado river; site....
- Understanding “austin” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of south carolina (noun)

Capital and largest city in South Carolina; located in central South Carolina.

- They discussed “capital of south carolina” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “capital of south carolina” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

combination plane (noun)

A woodworking plane that has interchangeable cutters of various shapes.

- The article explained what “combination plane” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “combination plane” to mean a woodworking plane that has interchangeable....

---

d-layer (noun)

The lowest region of the ionosphere (35 to 50 miles up) that reflects low-frequency radio waves.

- Understanding “d-layer” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “d-layer.”

---

destruction (noun)

An event (or the result of an event) that completely destroys something.

- He looked up “destruction” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “destruction” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ghost town (noun)

A deserted settlement (especially in western United States).

- They discussed “ghost town” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “ghost town” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hire car (noun)

A rented car.

- She picked up a hire car at the airport and drove to her hotel.
- He looked up “hire car” because he had never seen it before.

---

hot-wire (verb)

Start (a car engine) without a key by bypassing the ignition interlock.

- The woman who lost the car keys had to hot-wire her van.
- He did not know how to use “hot-wire” until he saw an example.

---

lower egypt (noun)

One of the two main administrative districts of Egypt; consists of the Nile delta.

- He looked up “lower egypt” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lower egypt.”

---

meets (verb)

Meet by design; be present at the arrival of.

- She tried to use “meets” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “meets” until he saw an example.

---

melbourne (noun)

The capital of Victoria state and 2nd largest Australian city; a financial and commercial center.

- The article explained what “melbourne” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “melbourne” to mean the capital of victoria state and 2nd largest....

mill around (verb)

Move about in a confused manner.

- Who is this man that is hanging around the department?
- Can you use "mill around" in a sentence that fits this situation?

park avenue (noun)

A fashionable residential street in New York City.

- Understanding "park avenue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "park avenue."

plane ticket (noun)

A ticket good for a trip on an airplane.

- He looked up "plane ticket" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "plane ticket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rapid city (noun)

A town in southwestern South Dakota in the eastern part of the Black Hills.

- They discussed "rapid city" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rapid city" because he had never seen it before.

retirement complex (noun)

A planned community for residents who have retired from an active working life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "retirement complex."
- They discussed "retirement complex" during the group presentation.

settle down (verb)

Settle into a position, usually on a surface or ground.

- Dust settled on the roofs.
- He finally settled down.

spin around (verb)

Revolve quickly and repeatedly around one's own axis.

- The dervishes whirl around and around without getting dizzy.
- Can you use "spin around" in a sentence that fits this situation?

string along (verb)

Move or come along.

- Learners should practice how to use "string along" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "string along" when talking about this idea.

strip (noun)

A relatively long narrow piece of something.

- He felt a flat strip of muscle.
- She did a strip right in front of everyone.

theatre of operations (noun)

A region in which active military operations are in progress.

- In class, the teacher used "theatre of operations" to mean a region in which active military operations are in....
- They discussed "theatre of operations" during the group presentation.

administrative district (noun)

A district defined for administrative purposes.

- He looked up "administrative district" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "administrative district."

air medal (noun)

A United States Air Force decoration for meritorious achievement while participating in an aerial flight.

- They discussed "air medal" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "air medal" to mean a united states air force decoration for....

---

broadcast area (noun)

The area over which a radio or tv transmission can be received.

- Understanding "broadcast area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "broadcast area" means with a simple example.

---

capital of colorado (noun)

The state capital and largest city of Colorado; located in central Colorado on the South Platte river.

- Understanding "capital of colorado" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "capital of colorado" during the group presentation.

---

capital of georgia (noun)

The capital and largest city of Georgia on the Kura river.

- They discussed "capital of georgia" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "capital of georgia" means with a simple example.

---

capital of north carolina (noun)

Capital of the state of North Carolina; located in the east central part of the North Carolina.

- The article explained what "capital of north carolina" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of north carolina" to mean capital of the state of north carolina; located in....

---

danger zone (noun)

A dangerous area.

- The article explained what "danger zone" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "danger zone" to mean a dangerous area.

---

detroit (noun)

The largest city in Michigan and a major Great Lakes port; center of the United States automobile industry; located in southeastern Michigan on the Detroit river across from Windsor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "detroit."
- He looked up "detroit" because he had never seen it before.

---

disaster area (noun)

A region whose population is affected by a general disaster.

- Understanding "disaster area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "disaster area" because he had never seen it before.

---

e layer (noun)

A region of the ionosphere (from 50 to 90 miles up) that reflects radio waves of medium length.

- Understanding "e layer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "e layer" because he had never seen it before.

---

hunting ground (noun)

An area in which game is hunted.

- In class, the teacher used "hunting ground" to mean an area in which game is hunted.
- He looked up "hunting ground" because he had never seen it before.

---

kansas city (noun)

A city of northeast Kansas on the Missouri River adjacent to Kansas City, Missouri.

- He looked up "kansas city" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "kansas city" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

knock (noun)

The sound of knocking (as on a door or in an engine or bearing).

- The knocking grew louder.

- The sudden knock floored him.

---

military ceremony (noun)

A formal ceremony performed by military personnel.

- The article explained what "military ceremony" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "military ceremony" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

minor planet (noun)

Any of numerous small celestial bodies that move around the sun.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "minor planet."
- He looked up "minor planet" because he had never seen it before.

---

paper tape (noun)

A long narrow strip of paper.

- He looked up "paper tape" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "paper tape" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

port of spain (noun)

The capital and largest city of Trinidad and Tobago on the west coast of the island of Trinidad.

- The article explained what "port of spain" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "port of spain" to mean the capital and largest city of trinidad and tobago....

---

port-of-spain (noun)

The capital and largest city of Trinidad and Tobago on the west coast of the island of Trinidad.

- They discussed "port-of-spain" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "port-of-spain" means with a simple example.

---

railway station (noun)

Terminal where trains load or unload passengers or goods.

- The article explained what "railway station" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "railway station" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

referring (verb)

Send or direct for treatment, information, or a decision.

- There were lots of questions referring to her talk.
- The coach explained when to use "referring" and when to wait.

---

rio (noun)

The former capital and 2nd largest city of Brazil; chief Brazilian port; famous as a tourist attraction.

- In class, the teacher used "rio" to mean the former capital and 2nd largest city of brazil;....
- Understanding "rio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

round-trip ticket (noun)

A ticket to a place and back (usually over the same route).

- He looked up "round-trip ticket" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "round-trip ticket."

---

screaming (noun)

A high-pitched noise resembling a human cry.

- Her screaming attracted the neighbors.
- They discussed "screaming" during the group presentation.

---

singapore (noun)

An island to the south of the Malay Peninsula.

- Understanding "singapore" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "singapore" means with a simple example.

---

stretch out (verb)

Extend or stretch out to a greater or the full length.

- Stretch out that piece of cloth.
- To enjoy the picnic, we stretched out on the grass.

---

tank farm (noun)

An area used exclusively for storing petroleum in large tanks.

- Understanding "tank farm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tank farm" because he had never seen it before.

---

theater (noun)

A region in which active military operations are in progress.

- He served in the Vietnam theater for three years.
- They discussed "theater" during the group presentation.

---

transportation security administration (noun)

An agency established in 2001 to safeguard United States transportation systems and insure safe air travel.

- He looked up "transportation security administration" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "transportation security administration" during the group presentation.

---

virgin (noun)

The sixth sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about August 23 to September 22.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "virgin."
- He looked up "virgin" because he had never seen it before.

---

background noise (noun)

Extraneous noise contaminating sound measurements that cannot be separated from the desired signal.

- He looked up "background noise" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "background noise."

---

bad lands (noun)

An eroded and barren region in southwestern South Dakota and northwestern Nebraska.

- They discussed "bad lands" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bad lands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of egypt (noun)

The capital of Egypt and the largest city in Africa; a major port just to the south of the Nile delta; formerly the home of the Pharaohs.

- He looked up "capital of egypt" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "capital of egypt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of illinois (noun)

Capital of the state of Illinois.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of illinois" to mean capital of the state of illinois.
- They discussed "capital of illinois" during the group presentation.

---

capital of northern ireland (noun)

Capital and largest city of Northern Ireland; the center of Protestantism in Northern Ireland.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of northern ireland" to mean capital and largest city of northern ireland; the....
- They discussed "capital of northern ireland" during the group presentation.

---

child welfare service (noun)

An administrative unit responsible for social work concerned with the welfare and vocational training of children.

- They discussed "child welfare service" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "child welfare service" means with a simple example.

---

cultural revolution (noun)

A radical reform in China initiated by Mao Zedong in 1965 and carried out largely by the Red Guard; intended to eliminate counterrevolutionary elements in the government it resulted in purges of the intellectuals and socioeconomic chaos.

- The article explained what "cultural revolution" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cultural revolution" to mean a radical reform in china initiated by mao zedong....

---

ease up (verb)

Move in order to make room for someone for something.

- He eased off the gas pedal and the car slowed down.
- In everyday English, people use "ease up" when talking about this idea.

---

federal republic of germany (noun)

A republic in central Europe; split into East Germany and West Germany after World War II and reunited in 1990.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal republic of germany."
- Understanding "federal republic of germany" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flight engineer (noun)

The flight crewman responsible for mechanical operation while in flight.

- The article explained what "flight engineer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "flight engineer" during the group presentation.

---

flood in (verb)

Arrive in great numbers.

- He did not know how to use "flood in" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "flood in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

knock over (verb)

Cause to overturn from an upright or normal position.

- The cat knocked over the flower vase.
- The clumsy customer turned over the vase.

---

memorial park (noun)

A tract of land used for burials.

- Understanding "memorial park" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "memorial park."

---

miami beach (noun)

A city in southeastern Florida on an island between Biscayne Bay and the Atlantic Ocean; known for fashionable resort hotels.

- In class, the teacher used "miami beach" to mean a city in southeastern florida on an island between....
- The article explained what "miami beach" means with a simple example.

---

move back and forth (verb)

Move in one direction and then into the opposite direction.

- She tried to use "move back and forth" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "move back and forth" in real sentences.

---

pace car (noun)

A high-performance car that leads a parade of competing cars through the pace lap and then pulls off the course.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pace car."
- Understanding "pace car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

passenger car (noun)

A railcar where passengers ride.

- Understanding "passenger car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "passenger car" to mean a railcar where passengers ride.

---

passengers (noun)

A traveler riding in a vehicle (a boat or bus or car or plane or train etc) who is not operating it.

- The article explained what "passengers" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "passengers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

resort area (noun)

An area where many people go for recreation.

- Understanding "resort area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "resort area" during the group presentation.

social occasion (noun)

A vaguely specified social event.

- An occasion arranged to honor the president.
- A seemingly endless round of social functions.

swing about (verb)

Turn abruptly and face the other way, either physically or metaphorically.

- Can you use "swing about" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "swing about" and when to wait.

united mexican states (noun)

A republic in southern North America; became independent from Spain in 1810.

- Understanding "united mexican states" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "united mexican states" because he had never seen it before.

asia minor (noun)

A peninsula in southwestern Asia that forms the Asian part of Turkey.

- They discussed "asia minor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "asia minor" means with a simple example.

british columbia (noun)

A province in western Canada.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "british columbia."
- He looked up "british columbia" because he had never seen it before.

capital of iraq (noun)

Capital and largest city of Iraq; located on the Tigris River.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of iraq" to mean capital and largest city of iraq; located on the....
- Understanding "capital of iraq" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

combat zone (noun)

A military area where combat forces operate.

- Understanding "combat zone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "combat zone."

fleet (verb)

Move along rapidly and lightly; skim or dart.

- Learners should practice how to use "fleet" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "fleet" until he saw an example.

fundamental (noun)

Any factor that could be considered important to the understanding of a particular business.

- Fundamentals include a company's growth, revenues, earnings, management, and capital structure.
- The article explained what "fundamental" means with a simple example.

italian republic (noun)

A republic in southern Europe on the Italian Peninsula; was the core of the Roman Republic and the Roman Empire between the 4th century BC and the 5th century AD.

- He looked up "italian republic" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "italian republic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

japanese islands (noun)

A string of more than 3,000 islands to the east of Asia extending 1,300 miles between the Sea of Japan and the western Pacific Ocean.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese islands."
- Understanding "japanese islands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

motor vehicle (noun)

A self-propelled wheeled vehicle that does not run on rails.

- The article explained what "motor vehicle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "motor vehicle" to mean a self-propelled wheeled vehicle that does not run....

---

nigeria (noun)

A republic in West Africa on the Gulf of Guinea; gained independence from Britain in 1960; most populous African country.

- The article explained what "nigeria" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "nigeria" during the group presentation.

---

quarter-circle (noun)

A quarter of the circumference of a circle.

- The article explained what "quarter-circle" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "quarter-circle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

republic of ireland (noun)

A republic consisting of 26 of 32 counties comprising the island of Ireland; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1921.

- In class, the teacher used "republic of ireland" to mean a republic consisting of 26 of 32 counties....
- The article explained what "republic of ireland" means with a simple example.

---

reward (noun)

A recompense for worthy acts or retribution for wrongdoing.

- Virtue is its own reward.
- Reaping the rewards of generosity.

---

shake (verb)

Shake or vibrate rapidly and intensively.

- My faith has been shaken.
- I couldn't shake the car that was following me.

---

split ticket (noun)

A ballot cast by a voter who votes for candidates from more than one party.

- Understanding "split ticket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "split ticket" during the group presentation.

---

west berlin (noun)

The part of Berlin under United States and British and French control until 1989.

- The article explained what "west berlin" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "west berlin" to mean the part of berlin under united states and british....

---

zone of interior (noun)

The part of the theater of war not included in the theater of operations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zone of interior."
- The article explained what "zone of interior" means with a simple example.

---

bed-hop (verb)

Be sexually active with more than one partner.

- He did not know how to use "bed-hop" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "bed-hop" and when to wait.

---

blast (noun)

A highly pleasurable or exciting experience.

- Celebrating after the game was a blast.

- In class, the teacher used "blast" to mean a highly pleasurable or exciting experience.

central african republic (noun)

A landlocked country in central Africa; formerly under French control; became independent in 1960.

- They discussed "central african republic" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "central african republic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

f layer (noun)

The highest region of the ionosphere (from 90 to 600 miles up) which contains the highest concentration of free electrons and is most useful for long-range radio transmission.

- The article explained what "f layer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "f layer" during the group presentation.

fly blind (verb)

Fly an airplane solely by relying on instruments.

- She tried to use "fly blind" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "fly blind" and when to wait.

fort smith (noun)

A town in western Arkansas on the Arkansas River at the Oklahoma border.

- He looked up "fort smith" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fort smith" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

high-tail (verb)

Retreat at full speed.

- The actress high-tailed to her villa when reporters began to follow her to the restaurant.
- He did not know how to use "high-tail" until he saw an example.

hour angle (noun)

The angular distance along the celestial equator from the observer's meridian to the hour circle of a given celestial body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hour angle."
- The article explained what "hour angle" means with a simple example.

il (noun)

A midwestern state in north-central United States.

- The article explained what "il" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "il" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

republic of korea (noun)

A republic in the southern half of the Korean Peninsula; established in 1948.

- They discussed "republic of korea" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "republic of korea" because he had never seen it before.

swing around (verb)

Turn abruptly and face the other way, either physically or metaphorically.

- He turned around to face his opponent.
- My conscience told me to turn around before I made a mistake.

theater of war (noun)

The entire land, sea, and air area that may become or is directly involved in war operations.

- In class, the teacher used "theater of war" to mean the entire land, sea, and air area that may become....
- The article explained what "theater of war" means with a simple example.

three-mile limit (noun)

The limit of a nation's territorial waters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "three-mile limit."
- They discussed "three-mile limit" during the group presentation.

travel kit (noun)

A kit for carrying toilet articles while traveling.

- In class, the teacher used "travel kit" to mean a kit for carrying toilet articles while traveling.
- The article explained what "travel kit" means with a simple example.

---

trials (noun)

An annoying or frustrating or catastrophic event.

- In the experimental trials the amount of carbon was measured separately.
- The trials for the semifinals began yesterday.

---

ukraine (noun)

A republic in southeastern Europe; formerly a European soviet; the center of the original Russian state which came into existence in the ninth century.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ukraine."
- Understanding "ukraine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

administrative division (noun)

A district defined for administrative purposes.

- The article explained what "administrative division" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "administrative division" to mean a district defined for administrative purposes.

---

angle-park (verb)

Park at an angle.

- The coach explained when to use "angle-park" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "angle-park" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

back-blast (noun)

Backfire from a recoilless weapon.

- Understanding "back-blast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "back-blast" to mean backfire from a recoilless weapon.

---

breath of fresh air (noun)

A welcome relief.

- The new management was like a breath of fresh air.
- The article explained what "breath of fresh air" means with a simple example.

---

capital of pennsylvania (noun)

Capital of Pennsylvania; located in southern part of state.

- They discussed "capital of pennsylvania" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "capital of pennsylvania" means with a simple example.

---

capital of sweden (noun)

The capital and largest city of Sweden; located in southern Sweden on the Baltic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of sweden."
- The article explained what "capital of sweden" means with a simple example.

---

capital of syria (noun)

An ancient city (widely regarded as the world's oldest) and present capital and largest city of Syria; according to the New Testament, the Apostle Paul (then known as Saul) underwent a dramatic conversion on the road to Damascus.

- The article explained what "capital of syria" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "capital of syria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

charge sheet (noun)

The daily written record of events (as arrests) in a police station.

- They discussed "charge sheet" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "charge sheet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

comfort station (noun)

A toilet that is available to the public.

- He looked up "comfort station" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "comfort station" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

district of columbia (noun)

The district occupied entirely by the city of Washington; chosen by George Washington as the site of the capital of the United States and created out of land ceded by Maryland and Virginia.

- They discussed "district of columbia" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "district of columbia" because he had never seen it before.

---

districts (noun)

A region marked off for administrative or other purposes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "districts."
- He looked up "districts" because he had never seen it before.

---

dutch capital (noun)

An industrial center and the nominal capital of the Netherlands; center of the diamond-cutting industry; seat of an important stock exchange; known for its canals and art museum.

- In class, the teacher used "dutch capital" to mean an industrial center and the nominal capital of the....
- He looked up "dutch capital" because he had never seen it before.

---

explore (verb)

Travel to or penetrate into.

- Explore unknown territory in biology.
- He did not know how to use "explore" until he saw an example.

---

flat-hat (verb)

Fly very close to the ground.

- He did not know how to use "flat-hat" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "flat-hat" when talking about this idea.

---

hamilton (noun)

A port city in southeastern Ontario at the western end of Lake Ontario.

- Understanding "hamilton" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hamilton" to mean a port city in southeastern ontario at the western....

---

heat flash (noun)

A flash of intense heat (as released by an atomic explosion).

- He looked up "heat flash" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "heat flash" during the group presentation.

---

indiana (noun)

A state in midwestern United States.

- He looked up "indiana" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "indiana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

island hop (verb)

Travel from one island to the next.

- On the cruise, we did some island-hopping.
- The coach explained when to use "island hop" and when to wait.

---

laboratory (noun)

A region resembling a laboratory inasmuch as it offers opportunities for observation and practice and experimentation.

- Pakistan is a laboratory for studying the use of American troops to combat terrorism.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laboratory."

---

lawrence (noun)

A town in northeastern Kansas on the Kansas River; scene of raids by John Brown in 1856.

- The article explained what "lawrence" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lawrence" to mean a town in northeastern kansas on the kansas river;....

mexican capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Mexico is a political and cultural and commercial and industrial center; one of the world's largest cities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mexican capital."
- The article explained what "mexican capital" means with a simple example.

minnesota (noun)

A midwestern state.

- Understanding "minnesota" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "minnesota" because he had never seen it before.

photo op (noun)

An occasion that lends itself to (or is deliberately arranged for) taking photographs that provide favorable publicity for those who are photographed.

- They discussed "photo op" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "photo op."

remote station (noun)

A terminal connected to a computer by a data link.

- Understanding "remote station" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "remote station" because he had never seen it before.

terminal (adjective)

Of or relating to or situated at the ends of a delivery route.

- Freight pickup is a terminal service.
- Terminal charges.

triple (noun)

A set of three similar things considered as a unit.

- Understanding "triple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "triple."

triple time (noun)

Musical time with three beats in each bar.

- The article explained what "triple time" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "triple time" to mean musical time with three beats in each bar.

vietnam (noun)

A communist state in Indochina on the South China Sea; achieved independence from France in 1945.

- In class, the teacher used "vietnam" to mean a communist state in indochina on the south china....
- The article explained what "vietnam" means with a simple example.

big bang (noun)

(cosmology) the cosmic explosion that is hypothesized to have marked the origin of the universe.

- Understanding "big bang" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "big bang."

broadcast station (noun)

A station equipped to broadcast radio or television programs.

- The article explained what "broadcast station" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "broadcast station" to mean a station equipped to broadcast radio or television....

darkness (noun)

An unilluminated area.

- He moved off into the darkness.
- The powers of darkness.

hiding place (noun)

A place suitable for hiding something (such as yourself).

- In class, the teacher used "hiding place" to mean a place suitable for hiding something (such as....
- The article explained what "hiding place" means with a simple example.

---

kentucky (noun)

A state in east central United States; a border state during the American Civil War; famous for breeding race horses.

- Understanding "kentucky" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "kentucky" means with a simple example.

---

kingdom of spain (noun)

A parliamentary monarchy in southwestern Europe on the Iberian Peninsula; a former colonial power.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kingdom of spain."
- Understanding "kingdom of spain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

link-attached station (noun)

A terminal connected to a computer by a data link.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "link-attached station."
- The article explained what "link-attached station" means with a simple example.

---

madrid (noun)

The capital and largest city situated centrally in Spain; home of an outstanding art museum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "madrid."
- He looked up "madrid" because he had never seen it before.

---

mi (noun)

A midwestern state in north central United States in the Great Lakes region.

- He looked up "mi" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oregon (noun)

A state in northwestern United States on the Pacific.

- Understanding "oregon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "oregon" to mean a state in northwestern united states on the pacific.

---

power-station worker (noun)

A worker at a power station.

- In class, the teacher used "power-station worker" to mean a worker at a power station.
- Understanding "power-station worker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

residential area (noun)

A district where people live; occupied primarily by private residences.

- They discussed "residential area" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "residential area" to mean a district where people live; occupied primarily by....

---

slide (verb)

To pass or move unobtrusively or smoothly.

- Can you use "slide" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "slide" until he saw an example.

---

summit (noun)

The top or extreme point of something (usually a mountain or hill).

- The region is a few molecules wide at the summit.
- The summit of his ambition.

---

trip wire (noun)

A wire stretched close to the ground that activates something (a trap or camera or weapon) when tripped over.

- In class, the teacher used "trip wire" to mean a wire stretched close to the ground that activates....

- They discussed “trip wire” during the group presentation.

---

turn tail (verb)

Flee; take to one’s heels; cut and run.

- In everyday English, people use “turn tail” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “turn tail” until he saw an example.

---

australian desert (noun)

General name given to all desert areas in Australia.

- The article explained what “australian desert” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “australian desert” during the group presentation.

---

cape may (noun)

A cape of southeast New Jersey extending into the Atlantic Ocean.

- In class, the teacher used “cape may” to mean a cape of southeast new jersey extending into the....
- They discussed “cape may” during the group presentation.

---

capital of arizona (noun)

The state capital and largest city located in south central Arizona; situated in a former desert that has become a prosperous agricultural area thanks to irrigation.

- The article explained what “capital of arizona” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “capital of arizona.”

---

delhi (noun)

A city in north central India.

- Understanding “delhi” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “delhi” means with a simple example.

---

jazz around (verb)

Wander aimlessly in search of pleasure.

- Learners should practice how to use “jazz around” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “jazz around” until he saw an example.

---

journey cake (noun)

Cornbread usually cooked pancake-style on a griddle (chiefly New England).

- He looked up “journey cake” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “journey cake” during the group presentation.

---

motor pool (noun)

A fleet of military vehicles controlled by a single agency and available for use as needed.

- The article explained what “motor pool” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “motor pool” during the group presentation.

---

new delhi (noun)

The capital of India is a division of the old city of Delhi.

- He looked up “new delhi” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “new delhi.”

---

philippines (noun)

An archipelago in the southwestern Pacific including some 7000 islands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “philippines.”
- They discussed “philippines” during the group presentation.

---

railroad car (noun)

A wheeled vehicle adapted to the rails of railroad.

- Three cars had jumped the rails.
- In class, the teacher used “railroad car” to mean a wheeled vehicle adapted to the rails of railroad.

---

rapid growth (noun)

A rapid rise.

- The article explained what "rapid growth" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rapid growth."

---

slave state (noun)

Any of the southern states in which slavery was legal prior to the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "slave state" to mean any of the southern states in which slavery was....
- The article explained what "slave state" means with a simple example.

---

slide down (verb)

Fall or sink heavily.

- He did not know how to use "slide down" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "slide down" and when to wait.

---

black rock desert (noun)

A desert in northwestern Nevada.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black rock desert."
- Understanding "black rock desert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

boom town (noun)

A town enjoying sudden prosperity.

- They discussed "boom town" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "boom town" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of kansas (noun)

The capital of the state of Kansas; located in eastern Kansas on the Kansas river.

- Understanding "capital of kansas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "capital of kansas" during the group presentation.

---

edinburgh (noun)

The capital of Scotland; located in the Lothian Region on the south side of the Firth of Forth.

- He looked up "edinburgh" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "edinburgh" to mean the capital of scotland; located in the lothian....

---

en route (adverb)

On a route to some place.

- Place "en route" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "en route," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

filter (verb)

Run or flow slowly, as in drops or in an unsteady stream.

- Filter out the impurities.
- The coach explained when to use "filter" and when to wait.

---

fleet street (noun)

A street in central London where newspaper offices are situated.

- They discussed "fleet street" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fleet street" to mean a street in central london where newspaper offices....

---

flight deck (noun)

The upper deck of an aircraft carrier; used as a runway.

- The article explained what "flight deck" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flight deck."

---

globe (noun)

The 3rd planet from the sun; the planet we live on.

- They discussed "globe" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "globe" because he had never seen it before.

---

great australian desert (noun)

General name given to all desert areas in Australia.

- Understanding "great australian desert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "great australian desert" means with a simple example.

---

greece (noun)

A republic in southeastern Europe on the southern part of the Balkan peninsula; known for grapes and olives and olive oil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greece."
- They discussed "greece" during the group presentation.

---

headquarters staff (noun)

Military staff stationed at headquarters.

- They discussed "headquarters staff" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "headquarters staff" to mean military staff stationed at headquarters.

---

hoped (verb)

Travel by means of an aircraft, bus, etc.

- Learners should practice how to use "hoped" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "hoped" until he saw an example.

---

kennedy (noun)

A large airport on Long Island to the east of New York City.

- In class, the teacher used "kennedy" to mean a large airport on long island to the east of new....
- Understanding "kennedy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

latin quarter (noun)

The region of Paris on the southern bank of the Seine; a center of artistic and student life.

- Understanding "latin quarter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "latin quarter" to mean the region of paris on the southern bank of the....

---

legal residence (noun)

(law) the residence where you have your permanent home or principal establishment and to where, whenever you are absent, you intend to return; every person is compelled to have one and only one domicile at a time.

- What's his legal residence?
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal residence."

---

malaysia (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in southeastern Asia on Borneo and the Malay Peninsula; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1957.

- The article explained what "malaysia" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "malaysia" to mean a constitutional monarchy in southeastern asia on....

---

netherlands (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in western Europe on the North Sea; half the country lies below sea level.

- In class, the teacher used "netherlands" to mean a constitutional monarchy in western europe on the....
- The article explained what "netherlands" means with a simple example.

---

parking zone (noun)

A space where an automobile can be parked.

- In class, the teacher used "parking zone" to mean a space where an automobile can be parked.
- The article explained what "parking zone" means with a simple example.

---

passenger train (noun)

A train that carries passengers.

- In class, the teacher used "passenger train" to mean a train that carries passengers.
- He looked up "passenger train" because he had never seen it before.

republic of turkey (noun)

A Eurasian republic in Asia Minor and the Balkans; on the collapse of the Ottoman Empire in 1918, the Young Turks, led by Kemal Ataturk, established a republic in 1923.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of turkey."
- The article explained what "republic of turkey" means with a simple example.

slip (noun)

An accidental misstep threatening (or causing) a fall.

- He blamed his slip on the ice.
- The jolt caused many slips and a few spills.

south vietnam (noun)

A former country in southeastern Asia that existed from 1954 (after the defeat of the French at Dien Bien Phu) until 1975 when it was defeated and annexed by North Vietnam.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south vietnam."
- Understanding "south vietnam" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spaces (noun)

An area reserved for some particular purpose.

- The spaces are the notes F-A-C-E.
- The article explained what "spaces" means with a simple example.

tap out (verb)

Beat out a rhythm.

- He did not know how to use "tap out" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "tap out" and when to wait.

the netherlands (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in western Europe on the North Sea; half the country lies below sea level.

- They discussed "the netherlands" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "the netherlands."

vacation spot (noun)

An area where many people go for recreation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vacation spot."
- They discussed "vacation spot" during the group presentation.

wedding ceremony (noun)

The social event at which the ceremony of marriage is performed.

- He looked up "wedding ceremony" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wedding ceremony" during the group presentation.

canadian province (noun)

Canada is divided into 12 provinces for administrative purposes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canadian province."
- The article explained what "canadian province" means with a simple example.

capital of wisconsin (noun)

Capital of the state of Wisconsin; located in the southern part of state; site of the main branch of the University of Wisconsin.

- Understanding "capital of wisconsin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of wisconsin" to mean capital of the state of wisconsin; located in the....

cleveland (noun)

The largest city in Ohio; located in northeastern Ohio on Lake Erie; a major Great Lakes port.

- In class, the teacher used "cleveland" to mean the largest city in ohio; located in northeastern....
- He looked up "cleveland" because he had never seen it before.

fifth avenue (noun)

An avenue in Manhattan that separates the east side of Manhattan from the west side.

- They discussed "fifth avenue" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fifth avenue" means with a simple example.

---

finishing line (noun)

A line indicating the location of the finish of a race.

- They discussed "finishing line" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "finishing line" means with a simple example.

---

frequent (verb)

Be a regular or frequent visitor to a certain place.

- The coach explained when to use "frequent" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "frequent" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

great indian desert (noun)

A desert to the east of the Indus River in northwestern India and southeastern Pakistan.

- The article explained what "great indian desert" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "great indian desert" to mean a desert to the east of the indus river in....

---

irish republic (noun)

A republic consisting of 26 of 32 counties comprising the island of Ireland; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1921.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "irish republic."
- They discussed "irish republic" during the group presentation.

---

jet set (noun)

A set of rich and fashionable people who travel widely for pleasure.

- The article explained what "jet set" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jet set."

---

maryland (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- He looked up "maryland" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "maryland" during the group presentation.

---

no-parking zone (noun)

A space where automobiles are not allowed to park.

- Understanding "no-parking zone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "no-parking zone" to mean a space where automobiles are not allowed to park.

---

north vietnam (noun)

A former country in southeastern Asia that existed from 1954 (after the defeat of the French at Dien Bien Phu) until 1975 when South Vietnam collapsed at the end of the Vietnam War.

- They discussed "north vietnam" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "north vietnam" to mean a former country in southeastern asia that existed....

---

oklahoma (noun)

A state in south central United States.

- He looked up "oklahoma" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "oklahoma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

old delhi (noun)

A city in north central India.

- They discussed "old delhi" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old delhi."

---

parallel (noun)

An imaginary line around the Earth parallel to the equator.

- Parallels never meet.

- They discussed "parallel" during the group presentation.

---

passage (noun)

The motion of one object relative to another.

- The outward passage took 10 days.
- The nasal passages.

---

passenger ship (noun)

A ship built to carry passengers.

- Understanding "passenger ship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "passenger ship."

---

people's republic of china (noun)

A communist nation that covers a vast territory in eastern Asia; the most populous country in the world.

- They discussed "people's republic of china" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "people's republic of china" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

resort hotel (noun)

A fashionable hotel usually in a resort area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "resort hotel."
- He looked up "resort hotel" because he had never seen it before.

---

saint louis (noun)

The largest city in Missouri; a busy river port on the Mississippi River near its confluence with the Missouri River; was an important staging area for wagon trains westward in the 19th century.

- The article explained what "saint louis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "saint louis" to mean the largest city in missouri; a busy river port on....

---

soil profile (noun)

A vertical section of soil from the ground surface to the parent rock.

- In class, the teacher used "soil profile" to mean a vertical section of soil from the ground surface....
- The article explained what "soil profile" means with a simple example.

---

tokyo (noun)

The capital and largest city of Japan; the economic and cultural center of Japan.

- Understanding "tokyo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tokyo."

---

trains (noun)

A series of consequences wrought by an event.

- Express trains don't stop at Princeton Junction.
- The article explained what "trains" means with a simple example.

---

tune in (verb)

Regulate (a radio or television set) in order to receive a certain station or program.

- Can you use "tune in" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "tune in" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

volunteer state (noun)

A state in east central United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "volunteer state."
- He looked up "volunteer state" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of singapore (noun)

The capital of Singapore; one of the world's biggest ports.

- They discussed "capital of singapore" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of singapore."

---

car carrier (noun)

A trailer that can be loaded with new cars for delivery to sales agencies.

- In class, the teacher used "car carrier" to mean a trailer that can be loaded with new cars for....
- The article explained what "car carrier" means with a simple example.

---

child welfare agency (noun)

An administrative unit responsible for social work concerned with the welfare and vocational training of children.

- The article explained what "child welfare agency" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "child welfare agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clip (noun)

An instance or single occasion for some event.

- He could do ten at a clip.
- He gave me a clip on the ear.

---

commonwealth of australia (noun)

A nation occupying the whole of the Australian continent; Aboriginal tribes are thought to have migrated from southeastern Asia 20,000 years ago; first Europeans were British convicts sent there as a penal colony.

- They discussed "commonwealth of australia" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "commonwealth of australia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crash programme (noun)

A rapid and intense course of training or research (usually undertaken in an emergency).

- He took a crash course in Italian on his way to Italy.
- His first job was a crash course in survival and in learning how to get along with people.

---

encounter (noun)

A casual or unexpected convergence.

- There was a brief encounter in the hallway.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "encounter."

---

friendly islands (noun)

A monarchy on a Polynesian archipelago in the South Pacific; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1970.

- They discussed "friendly islands" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "friendly islands" to mean a monarchy on a polynesian archipelago in the south....

---

german democratic republic (noun)

A republic in north central Europe on the Baltic; established by the Soviet Union in 1954; reunified with West Germany in 1990.

- They discussed "german democratic republic" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "german democratic republic" to mean a republic in north central europe on the baltic;....

---

gulf states (noun)

The countries in southwestern Asia that border the Persian Gulf.

- In class, the teacher used "gulf states" to mean the countries in southwestern asia that border the....
- He looked up "gulf states" because he had never seen it before.

---

land of lincoln (noun)

A midwestern state in north-central United States.

- The article explained what "land of lincoln" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "land of lincoln" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

liberty island (noun)

An island in New York Bay to the southwest of Manhattan where the Statue of Liberty stands.

- Congress officially changed the name from Bedloe's Island to Liberty Island in 1956.
- Understanding "liberty island" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

san diego (noun)

A picturesque city of southern California on San Diego Bay near the Mexican border; site of an important naval base.

- He looked up “san diego” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “san diego” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

side-slip (verb)

Slide sideways through the air in a downward direction in an airplane along an inclined lateral axis.

- Learners should practice how to use “side-slip” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “side-slip” when talking about this idea.

---

singapore island (noun)

An island to the south of the Malay Peninsula.

- The article explained what “singapore island” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “singapore island” during the group presentation.

---

slip away (verb)

Leave furtively and stealthily.

- The lecture was boring and many students slipped out when the instructor turned towards the blackboard.
- Learners should practice how to use “slip away” in real sentences.

---

strip-search (verb)

Search (someone) for weapons or drugs by having the person remove their clothes.

- He was strip-searched at the airport.
- Can you use “strip-search” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

superior planet (noun)

Any of the planets whose orbit lies outside the earth’s orbit.

- They discussed “superior planet” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “superior planet” means with a simple example.

---

theatre ticket (noun)

A ticket good for admission to a theater.

- The article explained what “theatre ticket” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “theatre ticket” during the group presentation.

---

travel rapidly (verb)

Move very fast.

- In everyday English, people use “travel rapidly” when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use “travel rapidly” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

triple-space (verb)

Type with two empty spaces between lines.

- Can you use “triple-space” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “triple-space” and when to wait.

---

upper egypt (noun)

One of the two main administrative districts of Egypt; extends south from Cairo to Sudan.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “upper egypt.”
- Understanding “upper egypt” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

advice and consent (noun)

A legal expression in the United States Constitution that allows the Senate to constrain the President’s powers of appointment and treaty-making.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “advice and consent.”
- He looked up “advice and consent” because he had never seen it before.

---

alpha (noun)

The beginning of a series or sequence; –Revelations.

- The Alpha and Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.
- Understanding “alpha” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

brooklyn (noun)

A borough of New York City.

- He looked up "brooklyn" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brooklyn."

cape town (noun)

Port city in southwestern South Africa; the seat of the legislative branch of the government of South Africa.

- The article explained what "cape town" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cape town."

capital of iowa (noun)

The capital and largest city in Iowa.

- The article explained what "capital of iowa" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "capital of iowa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of nigeria (noun)

Capital of Nigeria in the center of the country.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of nigeria" to mean capital of nigeria in the center of the country.
- The article explained what "capital of nigeria" means with a simple example.

channel islands national park (noun)

A national park in California featuring sea birds and marine life.

- The article explained what "channel islands national park" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "channel islands national park" to mean a national park in california featuring sea birds....

communist china (noun)

A communist nation that covers a vast territory in eastern Asia; the most populous country in the world.

- Understanding "communist china" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "communist china" means with a simple example.

cool jazz (noun)

Jazz that is restrained and fluid and marked by intricate harmonic structures often lagging slightly behind the beat.

- Understanding "cool jazz" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cool jazz" means with a simple example.

eastern desert (noun)

A desert in Egypt between the Nile River and the Red Sea.

- They discussed "eastern desert" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "eastern desert" to mean a desert in egypt between the nile river and the....

equality state (noun)

A state in the western United States; mountainous in the west and north with the Great Plains in the east.

- The article explained what "equality state" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "equality state" during the group presentation.

indonesia (noun)

A republic in southeastern Asia on an archipelago including more than 13,000 islands; achieved independence from the Netherlands in 1945; the principal oil producer in the Far East and Pacific regions.

- In class, the teacher used "indonesia" to mean a republic in southeastern asia on an archipelago....
- The article explained what "indonesia" means with a simple example.

oklahoma city (noun)

Capital and largest city of Oklahoma; the economy is based on oil and livestock.

- The article explained what "oklahoma city" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oklahoma city."

refers (verb)

Send or direct for treatment, information, or a decision.

- He did not know how to use "refers" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "refers" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

residential district (noun)

A district where people live; occupied primarily by private residences.

- He looked up "residential district" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "residential district" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roman republic (noun)

The ancient Roman state from 509 BC until Augustus assumed power in 27 BC; was governed by an elected Senate but dissatisfaction with the Senate led to civil wars that culminated in a brief dictatorship by Julius Caesar.

- They discussed "roman republic" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "roman republic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shore station (noun)

Military installation servicing naval forces.

- The article explained what "shore station" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shore station."

---

venue (noun)

The scene of any event or action (especially the place of a meeting).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "venue."
- The article explained what "venue" means with a simple example.

---

wages (noun)

A recompense for worthy acts or retribution for wrongdoing.

- The wages of sin is death.
- Wages were paid by check.

---

capital of the ukraine (noun)

Capital and largest city of the Ukraine; a major manufacturing and transportation center.

- The article explained what "capital of the ukraine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "capital of the ukraine" during the group presentation.

---

city of the angels (noun)

A city in southern California; motion picture capital of the world; most populous city of California and second largest in the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "city of the angels."
- He looked up "city of the angels" because he had never seen it before.

---

counties (noun)

(United States) the largest administrative district within a state.

- He looked up "counties" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "counties" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flight strip (noun)

An airfield without normal airport facilities.

- Understanding "flight strip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "flight strip" during the group presentation.

---

gather up (verb)

Take and lift upward.

- She tried to use "gather up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "gather up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

gathering place (noun)

A favorite haunt where people gather.

- Understanding "gathering place" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "gathering place" during the group presentation.

---

passenger van (noun)

A van that carries passengers.

- They discussed "passenger van" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "passenger van" means with a simple example.

---

pat (noun)

The sound made by a gentle blow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pat."
- He looked up "pat" because he had never seen it before.

---

poland (noun)

A republic in central Europe; the invasion of Poland by Germany in 1939 started World War II.

- Understanding "poland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "poland" means with a simple example.

---

port arthur (noun)

A major port city in northeastern China on the Liaodong Peninsula; now a part of Luda.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "port arthur."
- The article explained what "port arthur" means with a simple example.

---

railroad station (noun)

Terminal where trains load or unload passengers or goods.

- He looked up "railroad station" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "railroad station."

---

rolling wave (noun)

A long heavy sea wave as it advances towards the shore.

- Understanding "rolling wave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rolling wave."

---

saint martin (noun)

An island in the western Leeward Islands; administered jointly by France and the Netherlands.

- Understanding "saint martin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saint martin."

---

shock troops (noun)

Soldiers who are specially trained and armed to lead an assault.

- They discussed "shock troops" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "shock troops" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sooner state (noun)

A state in south central United States.

- The article explained what "sooner state" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sooner state" to mean a state in south central united states.

---

theater of operations (noun)

A region in which active military operations are in progress.

- He served in the Vietnam theater for three years.
- In class, the teacher used "theater of operations" to mean a region in which active military operations are in....

---

west malaysia (noun)

The region of Malaysia on the Malay Peninsula.

- In class, the teacher used "west malaysia" to mean the region of malaysia on the malay peninsula.
- He looked up "west malaysia" because he had never seen it before.

---

afghanistan (noun)

A mountainous landlocked country in central Asia; bordered by Iran to the west and Russia to the north and Pakistan to the east and south.

- Soviet troops invaded Afghanistan in 1979.
- He looked up "afghanistan" because he had never seen it before.

---

barcelona (noun)

A city in northeastern Spain on the Mediterranean; 2nd largest Spanish city and the largest port and commercial center; has been a center for radical political beliefs.

- They discussed "barcelona" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "barcelona" means with a simple example.

---

capital of indiana (noun)

The capital and largest city of Indiana; a major commercial center in the country's heartland; site of an annual 500-mile automobile race.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of indiana."
- He looked up "capital of indiana" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of massachusetts (noun)

State capital and largest city of Massachusetts; a major center for banking and financial services.

- The article explained what "capital of massachusetts" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of massachusetts."

---

capital of minnesota (noun)

Capital of the state of Minnesota; located in southeastern Minnesota on the Mississippi river adjacent to Minneapolis; one of the Twin Cities.

- They discussed "capital of minnesota" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "capital of minnesota" means with a simple example.

---

capital of vietnam (noun)

The capital city of Vietnam; located in North Vietnam.

- The article explained what "capital of vietnam" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of vietnam."

---

denver (noun)

The state capital and largest city of Colorado; located in central Colorado on the South Platte river.

- Understanding "denver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "denver" because he had never seen it before.

---

east malaysia (noun)

The part of Malaysia that is on the island of Borneo.

- Understanding "east malaysia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "east malaysia" to mean the part of malaysia that is on the island of borneo.

---

federal law enforcement training center (noun)

A center in the Department of that trains law enforcement professionals for more than seventy federal agencies.

- He looked up "federal law enforcement training center" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal law enforcement training center."

---

ground loop (noun)

A sharp uncontrollable turn made by an airplane while moving along the ground.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground loop."
- They discussed "ground loop" during the group presentation.

---

home counties (noun)

The English counties surrounding London into which Greater London has expanded.

- They discussed "home counties" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "home counties" because he had never seen it before.

---

invasion (noun)

Any entry into an area not previously occupied.

- An invasion of tourists.
- An invasion of locusts.

---

mid-atlantic states (noun)

A region of the eastern United States comprising New York and New Jersey and Pennsylvania and Delaware and Maryland.

- The article explained what "mid-atlantic states" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mid-atlantic states" to mean a region of the eastern united states comprising....

---

neck of the woods (noun)

A surrounding or nearby region.

- The plane crashed in the vicinity of Asheville.
- He always blames someone else in the immediate neighborhood.

---

parking ticket (noun)

A ticket issued for parking in a restricted place.

- Understanding "parking ticket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "parking ticket" because he had never seen it before.

---

passenger vehicle (noun)

A vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public transport.

- Understanding "passenger vehicle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "passenger vehicle."

---

prince edward island (noun)

An island in the Gulf of Saint Lawrence; the smallest province of Canada.

- The article explained what "prince edward island" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "prince edward island" to mean an island in the gulf of saint lawrence; the....

---

queensland (noun)

A state in northeastern Australia.

- He looked up "queensland" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "queensland" to mean a state in northeastern australia.

---

railroad train (noun)

Public transport provided by a line of railway cars coupled together and drawn by a locomotive.

- Express trains don't stop at Princeton Junction.
- He looked up "railroad train" because he had never seen it before.

---

settings (noun)

The context and environment in which something is set.

- They discussed "settings" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "settings" because he had never seen it before.

---

shock wave (noun)

A region of high pressure travelling through a gas at a high velocity.

- The explosion created a shock wave.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shock wave."

---

smooth plane (noun)

A small plane for finish work.

- Understanding "smooth plane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smooth plane."

---

switzerland (noun)

A landlocked federal republic in central Europe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "switzerland."
- The article explained what "switzerland" means with a simple example.

utah (noun)

A state in the western United States; settled in 1847 by Mormons led by Brigham Young.

- Understanding "utah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "utah" because he had never seen it before.

violent stream (noun)

A violently fast stream of water (or other liquid).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "violent stream."
- He looked up "violent stream" because he had never seen it before.

worlds (noun)

The 3rd planet from the sun; the planet we live on.

- We live in different worlds.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "worlds."

argentina (noun)

A republic in southern South America; second largest country in South America.

- They discussed "argentina" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "argentina" to mean a republic in southern south america; second....

baltimore (noun)

The largest city in Maryland; a major seaport and industrial center.

- They discussed "baltimore" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baltimore."

capital of kentucky (noun)

The capital of Kentucky; located in northern Kentucky.

- They discussed "capital of kentucky" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of kentucky."

capital of oregon (noun)

Capital of the state of Oregon in the northwestern part of the state on the Willamette River.

- They discussed "capital of oregon" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "capital of oregon" because he had never seen it before.

charlotte (noun)

The largest city in North Carolina; located in south central North Carolina.

- In class, the teacher used "charlotte" to mean the largest city in north carolina; located in....
- The article explained what "charlotte" means with a simple example.

climb on (verb)

Get up on the back of.

- The coach explained when to use "climb on" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "climb on" in real sentences.

climb up (verb)

Go upward with gradual or continuous progress.

- Did you ever climb up the hill behind your house?
- The vine climbed up the side of the house.

departure (noun)

A variation that deviates from the standard or norm.

- In class, the teacher used "departure" to mean a variation that deviates from the standard or norm.
- He looked up "departure" because he had never seen it before.

developments (noun)

A district that has been developed to serve some purpose.

- Such land is practical for small park developments.
- Recent developments in Iraq.

---

dig (noun)

The site of an archeological exploration.

- They set up camp next to the dig.
- She takes a dig at me every chance she gets.

---

enterprise zone (noun)

A city district where development receives special tax advantages.

- They discussed "enterprise zone" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "enterprise zone" means with a simple example.

---

lightning (noun)

The flash of light that accompanies an electric discharge in the atmosphere (or something resembling such a flash); can scintillate for a second or more.

- He looked up "lightning" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lightning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

parallel-park (verb)

Park directly behind another vehicle.

- Learners should practice how to use "parallel-park" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "parallel-park" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

plane angle (noun)

An angle formed by two straight lines (in the same plane).

- They discussed "plane angle" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plane angle."

---

reserves (noun)

Civilians trained as soldiers but not part of the regular army.

- The article explained what "reserves" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "reserves" to mean civilians trained as soldiers but not part of the....

---

rip current (noun)

A strong surface current flowing outwards from a shore.

- In class, the teacher used "rip current" to mean a strong surface current flowing outwards from a shore.
- The article explained what "rip current" means with a simple example.

---

roman empire (noun)

An empire established by Augustus in 27 BC and divided in AD 395 into the Western Roman Empire and the eastern or Byzantine Empire; at its peak lands in Europe and Africa and Asia were ruled by ancient Rome.

- The article explained what "roman empire" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "roman empire" during the group presentation.

---

solid angle (noun)

An angle formed by three or more planes intersecting at a common point (the vertex).

- He looked up "solid angle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solid angle."

---

thailand (noun)

A country of southeastern Asia that extends southward along the Isthmus of Kra to the Malay Peninsula.

- Thailand is the official name of the former Siam.
- The article explained what "thailand" means with a simple example.

---

toilet-train (verb)

Train (a small child) to use the toilet.

- She tried to use "toilet-train" carefully so everyone would understand.

- The coach explained when to use "toilet-train" and when to wait.

twin cities (noun)

Nickname for Saint Paul and Minneapolis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twin cities."
- He looked up "twin cities" because he had never seen it before.

twist (verb)

To move in a twisting or contorted motion, (especially when struggling).

- Twist the dough into a braid.
- Twist one's head.

capital of greece (noun)

The capital and largest city of Greece; named after Athena (its patron goddess).

- He looked up "capital of greece" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of greece."

capital of malaysia (noun)

Malaysia's sparkling new capital.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of malaysia" to mean malaysia's sparkling new capital.
- Understanding "capital of malaysia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of the philippines (noun)

The capital and largest city of the Philippines; located on southern Luzon.

- The article explained what "capital of the philippines" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "capital of the philippines" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

duck (verb)

To move (the head or body) quickly downwards or away.

- Before he could duck, another stone struck him.
- In everyday English, people use "duck" when talking about this idea.

east saint louis (noun)

A town in southwest Illinois on the Mississippi across from Saint Louis.

- Understanding "east saint louis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "east saint louis" during the group presentation.

film clip (noun)

A strip of motion picture film used in a telecast.

- He looked up "film clip" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "film clip."

flights (noun)

A scheduled trip by plane between designated airports.

- Flights of rhetoric.
- Flights of imagination.

gate-crash (verb)

Enter uninvited; informal.

- Can you use "gate-crash" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "gate-crash" carefully so everyone would understand.

hawaii (noun)

A state in the United States in the central Pacific on the Hawaiian Islands.

- The article explained what "hawaii" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hawaii."

hit the dirt (verb)

Fall or drop suddenly, usually to evade some danger.

- The soldiers hit the dirt when they heard gunfire.
- He did not know how to use "hit the dirt" until he saw an example.

---

hong kong (noun)

Formerly a Crown Colony on the coast of southern China in Guangdong province; leased by China to Britain in 1842 and returned in 1997; one of the world's leading commercial centers.

- The article explained what "hong kong" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hong kong" to mean formerly a crown colony on the coast of southern....

---

jumping-off place (noun)

A place from which an enterprise or expedition is launched.

- One day when I was at a suitable jumping-off place I decided to see if I could find him.
- The article explained what "jumping-off place" means with a simple example.

---

males (noun)

The capital of Maldives in the center of the islands.

- Understanding "males" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "males" to mean the capital of maldives in the center of the islands.

---

nasa (noun)

An independent agency of the United States government responsible for aviation and spaceflight.

- They discussed "nasa" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nasa."

---

ontario (noun)

A prosperous and industrialized province in central Canada.

- Understanding "ontario" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ontario" because he had never seen it before.

---

outer space (noun)

Any location outside the Earth's atmosphere.

- The astronauts walked in outer space without a tether.
- The first major milestone in space exploration was in 1957, when the USSR's Sputnik 1 orbited the Earth.

---

sink (verb)

Pass into a specified state or condition.

- He did not know how to use "sink" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "sink" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

turkish capital (noun)

The capital of Turkey; located in west-central Turkey; it was formerly known as Angora and is the home of Angora goats.

- Understanding "turkish capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "turkish capital" because he had never seen it before.

---

airport terminal (noun)

A terminal that serves air travelers or air freight.

- They discussed "airport terminal" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "airport terminal" because he had never seen it before.

---

brush fire (noun)

An uncontrolled fire that consumes brush and shrubs and bushes.

- In class, the teacher used "brush fire" to mean an uncontrolled fire that consumes brush and shrubs....
- He looked up "brush fire" because he had never seen it before.

---

bug out (verb)

Bulge outward.

- The coach explained when to use "bug out" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "bug out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bus terminal (noun)

A terminal that serves bus passengers.

- He looked up "bus terminal" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bus terminal" to mean a terminal that serves bus passengers.

---

capital of maryland (noun)

State capital of Maryland; site of the United States Naval Academy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of maryland."
- The article explained what "capital of maryland" means with a simple example.

---

capital of oklahoma (noun)

Capital and largest city of Oklahoma; the economy is based on oil and livestock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of oklahoma."
- He looked up "capital of oklahoma" because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of the netherlands (noun)

An industrial center and the nominal capital of the Netherlands; center of the diamond-cutting industry; seat of an important stock exchange; known for its canals and art museum.

- Understanding "capital of the netherlands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of the netherlands" to mean an industrial center and the nominal capital of the....

---

car maker (noun)

A business engaged in the manufacture of automobiles.

- In class, the teacher used "car maker" to mean a business engaged in the manufacture of automobiles.
- Understanding "car maker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cave in (noun)

The sudden collapse of something into a hollow beneath it.

- Understanding "cave in" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cave in" during the group presentation.

---

client-server (adjective)

Relating to a computer system in which a central server supports a number of networked workstations.

- The speaker chose "client-server" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "client-server."

---

close quarters (noun)

A situation of being uncomfortably close to someone or something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "close quarters."
- He looked up "close quarters" because he had never seen it before.

---

dust bowl (noun)

A region subject to dust storms; especially the central region of United States subject to dust storms in the 1930s.

- He looked up "dust bowl" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dust bowl" during the group presentation.

---

flip (verb)

Lightly throw to see which side comes up.

- I don't know what to do–I may as well flip a coin!
- Flip me the beachball.

---

jerusalem (noun)

Capital and largest city of the modern state of Israel (although its status as capital is disputed); it was captured from Jordan in 1967 in the Six Day War; a holy city for Jews and Christians and Muslims; was the capital of an ancient kingdom.

- Understanding "jerusalem" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jerusalem" means with a simple example.

kingdom of sweden (noun)

A Scandinavian kingdom in the eastern part of the Scandinavian Peninsula.

- In class, the teacher used "kingdom of sweden" to mean a scandinavian kingdom in the eastern part of the....
- They discussed "kingdom of sweden" during the group presentation.

new zealand islands (noun)

North Island and South Island and adjacent small islands in the South Pacific.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new zealand islands."
- They discussed "new zealand islands" during the group presentation.

north pole (noun)

The northernmost point of the Earth's axis.

- They discussed "north pole" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north pole."

patch (noun)

A small area of ground covered by specific vegetation.

- A cabbage patch.
- A briar patch.

republic of iraq (noun)

A republic in the Middle East in western Asia; the ancient civilization of Mesopotamia was in the area now known as Iraq.

- In class, the teacher used "republic of iraq" to mean a republic in the middle east in western asia; the....
- Understanding "republic of iraq" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

south pole (noun)

The southernmost point of the Earth's axis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south pole."
- The article explained what "south pole" means with a simple example.

stepped (verb)

Move with one's feet in a specific manner.

- She stepped into a life of luxury.
- Can you use "stepped" in a sentence that fits this situation?

toxic site (noun)

A site where toxic wastes have been dumped and the Environmental Protection Agency has designated them to be cleaned up.

- In class, the teacher used "toxic site" to mean a site where toxic wastes have been dumped and the....
- Understanding "toxic site" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

alaska (noun)

A state in northwestern North America; the 49th state admitted to the union.

- Alaska is the largest state in the United States.
- The article explained what "alaska" means with a simple example.

capital of alabama (noun)

The state capital of Alabama on the Mobile River.

- He looked up "capital of alabama" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "capital of alabama" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capital of missouri (noun)

Capital of the state of Missouri; located in central Missouri on the Missouri river.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of missouri" to mean capital of the state of missouri; located in....
- He looked up "capital of missouri" because he had never seen it before.

farming area (noun)

A rural area where farming is practiced.

- They discussed "farming area" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "farming area" because he had never seen it before.

---

fence line (noun)

A boundary line created by a fence.

- The article explained what "fence line" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fence line" to mean a boundary line created by a fence.

---

glasgow (noun)

Largest city in Scotland; a port on the Clyde in west central Scotland; one of the great shipbuilding centers of the world.

- In class, the teacher used "glasgow" to mean largest city in scotland; a port on the clyde in....
- The article explained what "glasgow" means with a simple example.

---

holiday resort (noun)

A hotel located in a resort area.

- The article explained what "holiday resort" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "holiday resort" to mean a hotel located in a resort area.

---

horse-drawn vehicle (noun)

A wheeled vehicle drawn by one or more horses.

- Understanding "horse-drawn vehicle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "horse-drawn vehicle" means with a simple example.

---

hot springs (noun)

A town in west central Arkansas; a health resort noted for thermal springs.

- The article explained what "hot springs" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hot springs."

---

louisiana (noun)

A state in southern United States on the Gulf of Mexico; one of the Confederate states during the American Civil War.

- They discussed "louisiana" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "louisiana" means with a simple example.

---

mississippi (noun)

A state in the Deep South on the gulf of Mexico; one of the Confederate States during the American Civil War.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mississippi."
- He looked up "mississippi" because he had never seen it before.

---

municipal center (noun)

The center of a city.

- The article explained what "municipal center" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "municipal center" during the group presentation.

---

pole position (noun)

The most favorable position at the start of a race.

- They discussed "pole position" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pole position."

---

russian federation (noun)

A federation in northeastern Europe and northern Asia; formerly Soviet Russia; since 1991 an independent state.

- Understanding "russian federation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "russian federation" during the group presentation.

---

travel-worn (adjective)

Tired by travel.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "travel-worn."

- Students compared "travel-worn" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

bible belt (noun)

Southern and midwestern United States where Protestant fundamentalism is dominant.

- They discussed "bible belt" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bible belt" means with a simple example.

birmingham (noun)

The largest city in Alabama; located in northeastern Alabama.

- He looked up "birmingham" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "birmingham" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blessed event (noun)

The live birth of a child.

- Understanding "blessed event" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blessed event."

capital of indonesia (noun)

Capital and largest city of Indonesia; located on the island of Java; founded by the Dutch in 17th century.

- The article explained what "capital of indonesia" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "capital of indonesia" during the group presentation.

car manufacturer (noun)

A business engaged in the manufacture of automobiles.

- The article explained what "car manufacturer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "car manufacturer" during the group presentation.

dropping zone (noun)

An agreed area where military supplies are dropped to ground troops.

- They discussed "dropping zone" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dropping zone" to mean an agreed area where military supplies are dropped....

great salt desert (noun)

A salt desert in north central Iran.

- He looked up "great salt desert" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great salt desert."

mixture (noun)

An event that combines things in a mixture.

- A gradual mixture of cultures.
- He drank a mixture of beer and lemonade.

portland (noun)

Largest city in Maine in the southwestern corner of the state.

- He looked up "portland" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "portland."

proceed (verb)

Move ahead; travel onward in time or space.

- We proceeded towards Washington.
- Learners should practice how to use "proceed" in real sentences.

rock springs (noun)

A town of southwest Wyoming near the Utah border.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rock springs."
- The article explained what "rock springs" means with a simple example.

sc (noun)

A state in the Deep South; one of the original 13 colonies.

- He looked up "sc" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of poland (noun)

The capital and largest city of Poland; located in central Poland.

- They discussed "capital of poland" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of poland."

---

car dealer (noun)

A firm that sells and buys cars.

- The article explained what "car dealer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "car dealer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

center of gravity (noun)

The point within something at which gravity can be considered to act; in uniform gravity it is equal to the center of mass.

- In class, the teacher used "center of gravity" to mean the point within something at which gravity can be....
- He looked up "center of gravity" because he had never seen it before.

---

fires (noun)

The event of something burning (often destructive).

- The article explained what "fires" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fires."

---

hop-step-and-jump (noun)

An athletic contest in which a competitor must perform successively a hop and a step and a jump in continuous movement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hop-step-and-jump."
- The article explained what "hop-step-and-jump" means with a simple example.

---

kent (noun)

A county in southeastern England on the English Channel; formerly an Anglo-Saxon kingdom, it was the first to be colonized by the Romans.

- Understanding "kent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "kent" because he had never seen it before.

---

madison (noun)

Capital of the state of Wisconsin; located in the southern part of state; site of the main branch of the University of Wisconsin.

- The article explained what "madison" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "madison."

---

treaty port (noun)

A port in China or Korea or Japan that once was open to foreign trade on the basis of a trading treaty.

- He looked up "treaty port" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "treaty port."

---

tyler (noun)

A town in northeast Texas.

- Understanding "tyler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tyler" to mean a town in northeast texas.

---

wa (noun)

A state in northwestern United States on the Pacific.

- In class, the teacher used "wa" to mean a state in northwestern united states on the pacific.
- The article explained what "wa" means with a simple example.

---

arriving (verb)

Reach a destination; arrive by movement or progress.

- She tried to use “arriving” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use “arriving” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

brazilian capital (noun)

The capital of Brazil; a city built on the central plateau and inaugurated in 1960.

- In class, the teacher used “brazilian capital” to mean the capital of brazil; a city built on the central....
- He looked up “brazilian capital” because he had never seen it before.

---

bronze star (noun)

A United States military decoration awarded for meritorious service (except in aerial flight).

- Understanding “bronze star” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “bronze star” to mean a united states military decoration awarded for....

---

bubble up (verb)

Move upwards in bubbles, as from the effect of heating; also used metaphorically.

- Gases bubbled up from the earth.
- Marx’s ideas have bubbled up in many places in Latin America.

---

bullet train (noun)

A high-speed passenger train.

- He looked up “bullet train” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “bullet train” to mean a high-speed passenger train.

---

canadian shield (noun)

A large plateau that occupies more than 40% of the land area of Canada; it extends from the Great Lakes northward to the Arctic Ocean.

- He looked up “canadian shield” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “canadian shield.”

---

capital of afghanistan (noun)

The capital and largest city of Afghanistan; located in eastern Afghanistan.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “capital of afghanistan.”
- The article explained what “capital of afghanistan” means with a simple example.

---

capital of argentina (noun)

Capital and largest city of Argentina; located in eastern Argentina near Uruguay; Argentina’s chief port and industrial and cultural center.

- Understanding “capital of argentina” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “capital of argentina” because he had never seen it before.

---

capital of switzerland (noun)

The capital of Switzerland; located in western Switzerland.

- He looked up “capital of switzerland” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “capital of switzerland.”

---

capital of thailand (noun)

The capital and largest city and chief port of Thailand; a leading city in southeastern Asia; noted for Buddhist architecture.

- In class, the teacher used “capital of thailand” to mean the capital and largest city and chief port of....
- They discussed “capital of thailand” during the group presentation.

---

capital of utah (noun)

The capital and largest city of Utah; located near the Great Salt Lake in north central Utah; world capital of the Mormon Church.

- They discussed “capital of utah” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “capital of utah” means with a simple example.

---

emerged (verb)

Come up to the surface of or rise.

- Suddenly, the proprietor emerged from his office.
- Some nice results emerged from the study.

maine (noun)

A state in New England.

- In class, the teacher used "maine" to mean a state in new england.
- He looked up "maine" because he had never seen it before.

paradise (noun)

Any place of complete bliss and delight and peace.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paradise."
- Understanding "paradise" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pleasant island (noun)

A small island in the central Pacific Ocean 2,800 miles to the southwest of Hawaii; in Micronesia to the west of the Gilbert Islands.

- They discussed "pleasant island" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pleasant island" to mean a small island in the central pacific ocean 2,800....

preliminary (noun)

Something that serves as a preceding event or introduces what follows.

- Training is a necessary preliminary to employment.
- Understanding "preliminary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

reaches (noun)

The limits within which something can be effective.

- They discussed "reaches" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "reaches" because he had never seen it before.

republic of singapore (noun)

A country in southeastern Asia on the island of Singapore; achieved independence from Malaysia in 1965.

- They discussed "republic of singapore" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of singapore."

saint joseph (noun)

A town in northwest Missouri on the Missouri River; in the 19th century it became the eastern terminus of the pony express.

- In class, the teacher used "saint joseph" to mean a town in northwest missouri on the missouri river;....
- The article explained what "saint joseph" means with a simple example.

scratch (noun)

A harsh noise made by scraping.

- A golfer who plays at scratch should be able to achieve par on a course.
- In class, the teacher used "scratch" to mean a harsh noise made by scraping.

theater ticket (noun)

A ticket good for admission to a theater.

- The article explained what "theater ticket" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "theater ticket" during the group presentation.

travel expense (noun)

(frequently plural) expenses incurred by an employee in the performance of the job and usually reimbursed by the employer.

- In class, the teacher used "travel expense" to mean (frequently plural) expenses incurred by an....
- The article explained what "travel expense" means with a simple example.

treasure state (noun)

A state in northwestern United States on the Canadian border.

- In class, the teacher used "treasure state" to mean a state in northwestern united states on the....
- He looked up "treasure state" because he had never seen it before.

triple jump (noun)

An athletic contest in which a competitor must perform successively a hop and a step and a jump in continuous movement.

