A short note recognizing a source of information or of a quoted passage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cite."
- Understanding "cite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

classrooms (noun)

A room in a school where lessons take place.

- Understanding "classrooms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "classrooms" because he had never seen it before.

---

cliff swallow (noun)

North American swallow that lives in colonies and builds bottle-shaped mud nests on cliffs and walls.

- They discussed "cliff swallow" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "cliff swallow" means with a simple example.

---

closed fracture (noun)

An uncomplicated fracture in which the broken bones to not pierce the skin.

- Understanding "closed fracture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "closed fracture."

---

commentator (noun)

An expert who observes and comments on something.

- They discussed "commentator" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "commentator" to mean an expert who observes and comments on something.

---

commercially (adverb)

In a commercial manner.

- The product is commercially available.
- Using "commercially" can make your explanation more exact.

---

confederate rose (noun)

Chinese shrub or small tree having white or pink flowers becoming deep red at night; widely cultivated; naturalized in southeastern United States.

- They discussed "confederate rose" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "confederate rose" means with a simple example.

---

confirming (adjective)

Indicating existence or presence of a suspected condition or pathogen.

- It is useful to describe something as "confirming" when it is indicating existence or presence of a suspected....
- A "confirming" approach may work better in this case.

---

confuse (verb)

Be confusing or perplexing to; cause to be unable to think clearly.

- These questions confuse even the experts.
- The constant attention of the young man confused her.

---

constant lambert (noun)

English composer and conductor (1905-1951).

- They discussed "constant lambert" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "constant lambert."

---

contingent upon (adjective)

Determined by conditions or circumstances that follow.

- Arms sales contingent on the approval of congress.
- The speaker chose "contingent upon" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

contributors (noun)

A writer whose work is published in a newspaper or magazine or as part of a book.

- In class, the teacher used "contributors" to mean a writer whose work is published in a newspaper or....
- The article explained what "contributors" means with a simple example.

---

copenhagen (noun)

The capital and largest city of Denmark; located on the island of Zealand.

- Copenhagen is sometimes called the Paris of the North.
- He looked up "copenhagen" because he had never seen it before.

---

coping stone (noun)

A stone that forms the top of wall or building.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coping stone."
- He looked up "coping stone" because he had never seen it before.

---

cosmetics (noun)

A toiletry designed to beautify the body.

- He looked up "cosmetics" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cosmetics."

---

coward (noun)

A person who shows fear or timidity.

- He looked up "coward" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coward."

---

crab grass (noun)

Grasses with creeping stems that root freely; a pest in lawns.

- In class, the teacher used "crab grass" to mean grasses with creeping stems that root freely; a....
- The article explained what "crab grass" means with a simple example.

---

crow-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of a crow.

- A "crow-sized" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "crow-sized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

cubic content unit (noun)

A unit of measurement of volume or capacity.

- They discussed "cubic content unit" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cubic content unit" to mean a unit of measurement of volume or capacity.

---

danish monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Denmark.

- In class, the teacher used "danish monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in denmark.
- He looked up "danish monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

dark-coated (adjective)

Covered with dark hair.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dark-coated."
- The speaker chose "dark-coated" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

dell (noun)

A small wooded hollow.

- The article explained what "dell" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dell."

---

dent (noun)

An appreciable consequence (especially a lessening).

- It made a dent in my bank account.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dent."

---

destroys (verb)

Do away with, cause the destruction or undoing of.

- He did not know how to use "destroys" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "destroys" in real sentences.

---

detectives (noun)

A police officer who investigates crimes.

- He looked up "detectives" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "detectives" to mean a police officer who investigates crimes.

---

developmental psychology (noun)

The branch of psychology that studies the social and mental development of children.

- The article explained what "developmental psychology" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "developmental psychology" to mean the branch of psychology that studies the social....

---

diminished (adjective)

(of an organ or body part) diminished in size or strength as a result of disease or injury or lack of use.

- Students compared "diminished" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "diminished"? Explain why.

---

disappears (verb)

Get lost, as without warning or explanation.

- Learners should practice how to use "disappears" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "disappears" until he saw an example.

---

disappoint (verb)

Fail to meet the hopes or expectations of.

- In everyday English, people use "disappoint" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "disappoint" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

disk overhead (noun)

(computer science) the disk space required for information that is not data but is used for location and timing.

- The article explained what "disk overhead" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "disk overhead" during the group presentation.

---

dl (noun)

A metric unit of volume equal to one tenth of a liter.

- He looked up "dl" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dl."

---

dolphin (noun)

Any of various small toothed whales with a beaklike snout; larger than porpoises.

- In class, the teacher used "dolphin" to mean any of various small toothed whales with a beaklike....
- Understanding "dolphin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dove (noun)

A constellation in the southern hemisphere near Puppis and Caelum.

- He looked up "dove" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dove."

---

dumping (noun)

Selling goods abroad at a price below that charged in the domestic market.

- In class, the teacher used "dumping" to mean selling goods abroad at a price below that charged....
- The article explained what "dumping" means with a simple example.

---

durable press (noun)

A fabric that has been chemically processed to resist wrinkles and hold its shape.

- He looked up "durable press" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "durable press" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dusty (adjective)

Lacking originality or spontaneity; no longer new.

- A dusty pile of books.
- A "dusty" approach may work better in this case.

---

dutch iris (noun)

Bulbous Spanish iris having blue flowers.

- They discussed "dutch iris" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dutch iris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

eastern coral snake (noun)

Ranges from Central America to southeastern United States.

- They discussed "eastern coral snake" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "eastern coral snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

enduring (adjective)

Patiently bearing continual wrongs or trouble.

- An enduring disposition.
- Would you call this situation "enduring"? Explain why.

enlightenment (noun)

A movement in Europe from about 1650 until 1800 that advocated the use of reason and individualism instead of tradition and established doctrine.

- The Enlightenment brought about many humanitarian reforms.
- Understanding "enlightenment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

extinction angle (noun)

The angle from its axis that a crystal must be rotated before appearing maximally dark when viewed in polarized light.

- In class, the teacher used "extinction angle" to mean the angle from its axis that a crystal must be....
- The article explained what "extinction angle" means with a simple example.

factor viii (noun)

A coagulation factor (trade name Hemofil) whose absence is associated with hemophilia A.

- In class, the teacher used "factor viii" to mean a coagulation factor (trade name hemofil) whose....
- The article explained what "factor viii" means with a simple example.

feather bed (noun)

A mattress stuffed with feathers.

- He looked up "feather bed" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "feather bed" during the group presentation.

female monarch (noun)

A female sovereign ruler.

- Understanding "female monarch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "female monarch" because he had never seen it before.

fibre (noun)

The inherent complex of attributes that determines a persons moral and ethical actions and reactions; - Herbert Spencer.

- He looked up "fibre" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fibre."

finnish (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Finland or the people of Finland.

- Finnish architecture.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "finnish."

focal (adjective)

Of or relating to a focus.

- Focal length.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "focal."

foot rot (noun)

Plant disease in which the stem or trunk rots at the base.

- The article explained what "foot rot" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "foot rot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

francisco franco (noun)

Spanish general whose armies took control of Spain in 1939 and who ruled as a dictator until his death (1892-1975).

- The article explained what "francisco franco" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "francisco franco."

---

freight elevator (noun)

An elevator designed for carrying freight.

- They discussed "freight elevator" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "freight elevator" to mean an elevator designed for carrying freight.

---

french chalk (noun)

A soft white compact talc used to mark cloth or to remove grease stains.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french chalk."
- The article explained what "french chalk" means with a simple example.

---

friendships (noun)

The state of being friends (or friendly).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "friendships."
- He looked up "friendships" because he had never seen it before.

---

fucker (noun)

Someone who engages in sexual intercourse.

- He looked up "fucker" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fucker."

---

fuel pod (noun)

A detachable container of fuel on an airplane.

- The article explained what "fuel pod" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fuel pod" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

garrison (noun)

The troops who maintain and guard a fortified place.

- They discussed "garrison" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "garrison."

---

gears (noun)

A mechanism for transmitting motion for some specific purpose (as the steering gear of a vehicle).

- Understanding "gears" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "gears" to mean a mechanism for transmitting motion for some....

---

generates (verb)

Bring into existence.

- The coach explained when to use "generates" and when to wait.
- Can you use "generates" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

gladly (adverb)

In a willing manner.

- This was gladly agreed to.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "gladly" naturally.

---

glass cutter (noun)

Someone who cuts or grinds designs on glass.

- The article explained what "glass cutter" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "glass cutter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

glass-cutter (noun)

Someone who cuts or grinds designs on glass.

- He looked up "glass-cutter" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "glass-cutter" during the group presentation.

---

glow lamp (noun)

A gas-discharge tube with a hot cathode; used in stroboscopes.

- They discussed "glow lamp" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "glow lamp."

---

golf glove (noun)

A glove worn by golfers to give a firm grip on the handle of the golf club.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golf glove."
- The article explained what "golf glove" means with a simple example.

---

goodwill (noun)

A disposition to kindness and compassion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goodwill."
- He looked up "goodwill" because he had never seen it before.

---

govern (verb)

Direct or strongly influence the behavior of.

- His belief in God governs his conduct.
- Who is governing the country now?

---

gradual (adjective)

(of a topographical gradient) not steep or abrupt.

- A gradual slope.
- A gradual increase in prices.

---

greetings (noun)

(usually plural) an acknowledgment or expression of good will (especially on meeting).

- Understanding "greetings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "greetings" means with a simple example.

---

gregory john norman (noun)

Australian golfer (born in 1955).

- They discussed "gregory john norman" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gregory john norman" to mean australian golfer (born in 1955).

---

grey skate (noun)

Common European skate used as food.

- They discussed "grey skate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grey skate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

groceries (noun)

A marketplace where groceries are sold.

- The article explained what "groceries" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "groceries" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ground squirrel (noun)

Small striped semiterrestrial eastern American squirrel with cheek pouches.

- Understanding "ground squirrel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ground squirrel" because he had never seen it before.

---

hacker (noun)

A programmer for whom computing is its own reward; may enjoy the challenge of breaking into other computers but does no harm.

- True hackers subscribe to a code of ethics and look down upon crackers.
- He looked up "hacker" because he had never seen it before.

---

hard-boiled (adjective)

Used of persons; emotionally hardened.

- The speaker chose "hard-boiled" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "hard-boiled"? Explain why.

---

harness (verb)

Control and direct with or as if by reins.

- Harness the horse.
- Harness natural forces and resources.

---

hart crane (noun)

United States poet (1899-1932).

- In class, the teacher used "hart crane" to mean united states poet (1899-1932).
- The article explained what "hart crane" means with a simple example.

---

heartbeat (noun)

A very short time (as the time it takes the eye to blink or the heart to beat).

- New York is the commercial heartbeat of America.
- Understanding "heartbeat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

heavy-coated (adjective)

Wearing a heavy coat.

- Heavy-coated policemen astride noble horses.
- Students compared "heavy-coated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

hedge pink (noun)

Plant of European origin having pink or white flowers and leaves yielding a detergent when bruised.

- The article explained what "hedge pink" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hedge pink" during the group presentation.

---

herbert alexander simon (noun)

United States economist and psychologist who pioneered in the development of cognitive science (1916-2001).

- In class, the teacher used "herbert alexander simon" to mean united states economist and psychologist who....
- Understanding "herbert alexander simon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

high-level radioactive waste (noun)

Radioactive waste that left in a nuclear reactor after the nuclear fuel has been consumed.

- In class, the teacher used "high-level radioactive waste" to mean radioactive waste that left in a nuclear reactor....
- He looked up "high-level radioactive waste" because he had never seen it before.

---

highlighting (noun)

An area of lightness in a picture.

- He looked up "highlighting" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "highlighting."

---

honourable (adjective)

Worthy of being honored; entitled to honor and respect.

- The speaker chose "honourable" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "honourable" when it is worthy of being honored; entitled to honor and respect.

---

hungarian sauce (noun)

Veloute sauce with sauteed chopped onion and paprika and cream.

- In class, the teacher used "hungarian sauce" to mean veloute sauce with sauteed chopped onion and....
- They discussed "hungarian sauce" during the group presentation.

---

ignition system (noun)

The mechanism that ignites the fuel in an internal-combustion engine.

- Understanding "ignition system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ignition system" because he had never seen it before.

---

ill-starred (adjective)

Marked by or promising bad fortune; ; ; ; - W.H.Prescott.

- An ill-starred romance.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ill-starred."

---

illnesses (noun)

Impairment of normal physiological function affecting part or all of an organism.

- In class, the teacher used "illnesses" to mean impairment of normal physiological function....
- They discussed "illnesses" during the group presentation.

---

imminent (adjective)

Close in time; about to occur.

- In imminent danger.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "imminent."

---

imperial decree (noun)

A decree issued by a sovereign ruler.

- They discussed "imperial decree" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "imperial decree."

---

infrared ray (noun)

A ray of infrared radiation; produces a thermal effect (as from an infrared lamp).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "infrared ray."
- The article explained what "infrared ray" means with a simple example.

---

insulation (noun)

The state of being isolated or detached.

- The insulation of England was preserved by the English Channel.
- Understanding "insulation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

intern (noun)

An advanced student or graduate in medicine gaining supervised practical experience ('houseman' is a British term).

- Understanding "intern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intern."

---

irresponsible (adjective)

Showing lack of care for consequences.

- Behaved like an irresponsible idiot.
- Hasty and irresponsible action.

---

jacques charles (noun)

French physicist and author of Charles's law which anticipated Gay-Lussac's law (1746-1823).

- In class, the teacher used "jacques charles" to mean french physicist and author of charles's law which....
- They discussed "jacques charles" during the group presentation.

---

jakarta (noun)

Capital and largest city of Indonesia; located on the island of Java; founded by the Dutch in 17th century.

- Understanding "jakarta" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "jakarta" because he had never seen it before.

---

japan trench (noun)

A depression in the floor of the Pacific Ocean to the northeast of Japan that reaches depths of 30,000 feet.

- He looked up "japan trench" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japan trench."

johannesburg (noun)

City in the northeastern part of South Africa near Pretoria; commercial center for diamond and gold industries.

- Understanding "johannesburg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "johannesburg."

joseph mccarthy (noun)

United States politician who unscrupulously accused many citizens of being Communists (1908-1957).

- He looked up "joseph mccarthy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joseph mccarthy."

judith (noun)

An Apocryphal book telling how Judith saved her people.

- In class, the teacher used "judith" to mean an apocryphal book telling how judith saved her people.
- They discussed "judith" during the group presentation.

lace bug (noun)

Small bug having body and wings covered with a lacy network of raised lines.

- They discussed "lace bug" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lace bug" means with a simple example.

lag (noun)

The time between one event, process, or period and another.

- Understanding "lag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lag" means with a simple example.

lays (noun)

A narrative song with a recurrent refrain.

- The article explained what "lays" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lays" to mean a narrative song with a recurrent refrain.

lebanese republic (noun)

An Asian republic at east end of Mediterranean.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lebanese republic."
- The article explained what "lebanese republic" means with a simple example.

lenders (noun)

Someone who lends money or gives credit in business matters.

- They discussed "lenders" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lenders."

linguistic communication (noun)

A systematic means of communicating by the use of sounds or conventional symbols.

- They discussed "linguistic communication" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "linguistic communication" to mean a systematic means of communicating by the use of....

lip-sync (verb)

Move the lips in synchronization (with recorded speech or song).

- He did not know how to use "lip-sync" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "lip-sync" when talking about this idea.

liquid nitrogen (noun)

Nitrogen in a liquid state.

- Understanding "liquid nitrogen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "liquid nitrogen" to mean nitrogen in a liquid state.

locality (noun)

A surrounding or nearby region.

- It is a rugged locality.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "locality."

---

logical diagram (noun)

A graphical representation of a program using formal logic.

- In class, the teacher used "logical diagram" to mean a graphical representation of a program using....
- They discussed "logical diagram" during the group presentation.

---

love-in-a-mist (noun)

Chickweed with hairy silver-grey leaves and rather large white flowers.

- He looked up "love-in-a-mist" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "love-in-a-mist."

---

low-level radioactive waste (noun)

(medicine) radioactive waste consisting of objects that have been briefly exposed to radioactivity (as in certain medical tests).

- In class, the teacher used "low-level radioactive waste" to mean (medicine) radioactive waste consisting of objects....
- The article explained what "low-level radioactive waste" means with a simple example.

---

lump sugar (noun)

Refined sugar molded into rectangular shapes convenient as single servings.

- He looked up "lump sugar" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lump sugar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lure (verb)

Provoke someone to do something through (often false or exaggerated) promises or persuasion.

- He lured me into temptation.
- She tried to use "lure" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

malicious (adjective)

Having the nature of or resulting from malice; ; - Rudyard Kipling.

- Malicious gossip.
- Took malicious pleasure in...watching me wince.

---

mattress (noun)

A large thick pad filled with resilient material and often incorporating coiled springs, used as a bed or part of a bed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mattress."
- He looked up "mattress" because he had never seen it before.

---

maxwell anderson (noun)

United States dramatist (1888-1959).

- Understanding "maxwell anderson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "maxwell anderson" during the group presentation.

---

membrane-forming (adjective)

Characterized by formation of a membrane (or something resembling a membrane).

- It is useful to describe something as "membrane-forming" when it is characterized by formation of a membrane (or....
- A "membrane-forming" approach may work better in this case.

---

meredith (noun)

United States civil rights leader whose college registration caused riots in traditionally segregated Mississippi (born in 1933).

- He looked up "meredith" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "meredith."

---

merged (adjective)

Formed or united into a whole.

- Students compared "merged" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “merged.”

merits (noun)

The quality of being deserving (e.g., deserving assistance).

- In class, the teacher used “merits” to mean the quality of being deserving (e.g., deserving....
- Understanding “merits” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

metallic-colored (adjective)

Having a metallic color.

- It is useful to describe something as “metallic-colored” when it is having a metallic color.
- Students compared “metallic-colored” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

microwave spectrum (noun)

The part of the electromagnetic spectrum corresponding to microwaves.

- He looked up “microwave spectrum” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “microwave spectrum.”

military greeting (noun)

A formal military gesture of respect.

- Understanding “military greeting” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “military greeting” to mean a formal military gesture of respect.

mind-bending (adjective)

Intensely affecting the mind especially in producing hallucinations.

- Would you call this situation “mind-bending”? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “mind-bending.”

mineral wax (noun)

A waxy mineral that is a mixture of hydrocarbons and occurs in association with petroleum; some varieties are used in making ceresin and candles.

- Understanding “mineral wax” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “mineral wax” during the group presentation.

mist (noun)

A thin fog with condensation near the ground.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mist.”
- He looked up “mist” because he had never seen it before.

mist over (verb)

Become covered with mist.

- The windshield misted over.
- In everyday English, people use “mist over” when talking about this idea.

mole (noun)

A small congenital pigmented spot on the skin.

- The article explained what “mole” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “mole” to mean a small congenital pigmented spot on the skin.

monarchy (noun)

An autocracy governed by a monarch who usually inherits the authority.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “monarchy.”
- He looked up “monarchy” because he had never seen it before.

mormon (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of the Mormon Church.

- Mormon leaders.
- The former Mormon practice of polygamy.

mormon state (noun)

A state in the western United States; settled in 1847 by Mormons led by Brigham Young.

- They discussed "mormon state" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mormon state" because he had never seen it before.

---

mourning band (noun)

A black band worn by a man (on the arm or hat) as a sign of mourning.

- Understanding "mourning band" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mourning band."

---

mug file (noun)

A file of mug shots (pictures of criminals that are kept on file by the police).

- The article explained what "mug file" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mug file."

---

murder indictment (noun)

An indictment charging someone with murder.

- In class, the teacher used "murder indictment" to mean an indictment charging someone with murder.
- They discussed "murder indictment" during the group presentation.

---

muscular (adjective)

Of or relating to or consisting of muscle.

- Muscular contraction.
- It is useful to describe something as "muscular" when it is of or relating to or consisting of muscle.

---

mustard gas (noun)

A toxic war gas with sulfide based compounds that raises blisters and attacks the eyes and lungs; there is no known antidote.

- They discussed "mustard gas" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mustard gas" means with a simple example.

---

mustard oil (noun)

Oil obtained from mustard seeds and used in making soap.

- Understanding "mustard oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mustard oil" because he had never seen it before.

---

negative stimulation (noun)

Something causing antagonism or loss of interest.

- He looked up "negative stimulation" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "negative stimulation" to mean something causing antagonism or loss of interest.

---

nerve compression (noun)

Harmful pressure on a nerve (especially in nerves that pass over rigid prominences); causes nerve damage and muscle weakness.

- Understanding "nerve compression" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "nerve compression" means with a simple example.

---

neutrality (noun)

Tolerance attributable to a lack of involvement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neutrality."
- He looked up "neutrality" because he had never seen it before.

---

nickel bronze (noun)

A bronze containing up to 30% nickel.

- He looked up "nickel bronze" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nickel bronze."

---

nineteenth amendment (noun)

An amendment to the Constitution of the United States adopted in 1920; guarantees that no state can deny the right to vote on the basis of sex.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nineteenth amendment."
- They discussed "nineteenth amendment" during the group presentation.

---

ninety-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of ninety-five in counting order.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ninety-fifth."
- The speaker chose "ninety-fifth" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

oil shale (noun)

Shale from which oil can be obtained by heating.

- They discussed "oil shale" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "oil shale" because he had never seen it before.

---

on an irregular basis (adverb)

In an irregular manner.

- Her letters arrived irregularly.
- The narrator describes the scene "on an irregular basis" in the final chapter.

---

one hundred ninety (adjective)

Being ten more than one hundred eighty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one hundred ninety."
- Students compared "one hundred ninety" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

otto i (noun)

King of the Germans and Holy Roman Emperor (912-973).

- The article explained what "otto i" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "otto i" to mean king of the germans and holy roman emperor (912-973).

---

otto the great (noun)

King of the Germans and Holy Roman Emperor (912-973).

- Understanding "otto the great" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "otto the great" to mean king of the germans and holy roman emperor (912-973).

---

panties (noun)

Short underpants for women or children (usually used in the plural).

- In class, the teacher used "panties" to mean short underpants for women or children (usually....
- The article explained what "panties" means with a simple example.

---

para rubber tree (noun)

Deciduous tree of the Amazon and Orinoco Rivers having leathery leaves and fragrant yellow-white flowers; it yields a milky juice that is the chief source of commercial rubber.

- He looked up "para rubber tree" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "para rubber tree."

---

parcel out (verb)

Administer or bestow, as in small portions.

- Dole out some money.
- Shell out pocket money for the children.

---

partition (noun)

A vertical structure that divides or separates (as a wall divides one room from another).

- Understanding "partition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "partition."

---

partition off (verb)

Divide into parts, pieces, or sections.

- The Arab peninsula was partitioned by the British.
- Can you use "partition off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

peculiar (adjective)

Beyond or deviating from the usual or expected.

- The peculiar aromatic odor of cloves.
- A peculiar bond of sympathy between them.

pedestrian bridge (noun)

A bridge designed for pedestrians.

- Understanding "pedestrian bridge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pedestrian bridge" because he had never seen it before.

penguins (noun)

Short-legged flightless birds of cold southern especially Antarctic regions having webbed feet and wings modified as flippers.

- The article explained what "penguins" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "penguins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

permanent magnet (noun)

A magnet that retains its magnetism after being removed from a magnetic field.

- In class, the teacher used "permanent magnet" to mean a magnet that retains its magnetism after being....
- They discussed "permanent magnet" during the group presentation.

petrol bomb (noun)

A crude incendiary bomb made of a bottle filled with flammable liquid and fitted with a rag wick.

- In class, the teacher used "petrol bomb" to mean a crude incendiary bomb made of a bottle filled....
- Understanding "petrol bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pistol-whip (verb)

Beat with a pistol.

- Learners should practice how to use "pistol-whip" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "pistol-whip" and when to wait.

plymouth rock (noun)

A boulder in Plymouth supposed to be where the Pilgrims disembarked from the Mayflower.

- They discussed "plymouth rock" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "plymouth rock" because he had never seen it before.

poetic justice (noun)

An outcome in which virtue triumphs over vice (often ironically).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poetic justice."
- He looked up "poetic justice" because he had never seen it before.

postal clerk (noun)

A clerk in a post office.

- Understanding "postal clerk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "postal clerk" to mean a clerk in a post office.

prayed (verb)

Address a deity, a prophet, a saint or an object of worship; say a prayer.

- In everyday English, people use "prayed" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "prayed" until he saw an example.

prefers (verb)

Like better; value more highly.

- In everyday English, people use "prefers" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "prefers" in real sentences.

programmed cell death (noun)

A type of cell death in which the cell uses specialized cellular machinery to kill itself; a cell suicide mechanism that enables metazoans to control cell number and eliminate cells that threaten the animal's survival.

- He looked up "programmed cell death" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "programmed cell death."

---

proposes (verb)

Make a proposal, declare a plan for something.

- In everyday English, people use "proposes" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "proposes" in real sentences.

---

proprietary (noun)

An unincorporated business owned by a single person who is responsible for its liabilities and entitled to its profits.

- They discussed "proprietary" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "proprietary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prostate (noun)

A firm partly muscular chestnut sized gland in males at the neck of the urethra; produces a viscid secretion that is the fluid part of semen.

- In class, the teacher used "prostate" to mean a firm partly muscular chestnut sized gland in....
- He looked up "prostate" because he had never seen it before.

---

pull in one's horns (verb)

Make a retreat from an earlier commitment or activity.

- The aggressive investment company pulled in its horns.
- The coach explained when to use "pull in one's horns" and when to wait.

---

pumpkin pie (noun)

Pie made of mashed pumpkin and milk and eggs and sugar.

- In class, the teacher used "pumpkin pie" to mean pie made of mashed pumpkin and milk and eggs and sugar.
- He looked up "pumpkin pie" because he had never seen it before.

---

punching (verb)

Make a hole into or between, as for ease of separation.

- She tried to use "punching" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "punching" in real sentences.

---

puppies (noun)

An inexperienced young person.

- In class, the teacher used "puppies" to mean an inexperienced young person.
- The article explained what "puppies" means with a simple example.

---

quartz glass (noun)

Colorless glass made of almost pure silica.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quartz glass."
- They discussed "quartz glass" during the group presentation.

---

racing skate (noun)

An ice skate with a long blade; worn for racing.

- Understanding "racing skate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "racing skate."

---

ransom money (noun)

Money demanded for the return of a captured person.

- He looked up "ransom money" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ransom money."

---

rant (noun)

A loud bombastic declamation expressed with strong emotion.

- They discussed "rant" during the group presentation.

- Understanding "rant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rash (noun)

A series of unexpected and unpleasant occurrences.

- A rash of bank robberies.
- He looked up "rash" because he had never seen it before.

---

realities (noun)

The state of the world as it really is rather than as you might want it to be.

- Businessmen have to face harsh realities.
- Understanding "realities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reasoning by elimination (noun)

Analysis of a problem into alternative possibilities followed by the systematic rejection of unacceptable alternatives.

- Understanding "reasoning by elimination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reasoning by elimination."

---

recalls (noun)

The process of remembering (especially the process of recovering information by mental effort).

- He looked up "recalls" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "recalls" to mean the process of remembering (especially the process....

---

referenced (adjective)

Supported with written references or citations.

- A carefully referenced biography.
- A "referenced" approach may work better in this case.

---

reflections (noun)

The image of something as reflected by a mirror (or other reflective material).

- In class, the teacher used "reflections" to mean the image of something as reflected by a mirror (or....
- He looked up "reflections" because he had never seen it before.

---

rejects (verb)

Resist immunologically the introduction of some foreign tissue or organ.

- She tried to use "rejects" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "rejects" until he saw an example.

---

relaxation behavior (noun)

(physics) the exponential return of a system to equilibrium after a disturbance.

- The article explained what "relaxation behavior" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "relaxation behavior" to mean (physics) the exponential return of a system to....

---

replica (noun)

Copy that is not the original; something that has been copied.

- He looked up "replica" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "replica" during the group presentation.

---

representations (noun)

A body of legislators that serve in behalf of some constituency.

- The sales contract contains several representations by the vendor.
- Certain representations were made concerning police brutality.

---

republic of haiti (noun)

A republic in the West Indies on the western part of the island of Hispaniola; achieved independence from France in 1804; the poorest and most illiterate nation in the western hemisphere.

- Understanding "republic of haiti" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "republic of haiti" means with a simple example.

---

republic of zimbabwe (noun)

A landlocked republic in south central Africa formerly called Rhodesia; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1980.

- In class, the teacher used "republic of zimbabwe" to mean a landlocked republic in south central africa....
- Understanding "republic of zimbabwe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reside (verb)

Make one's home in a particular place or community.

- May parents reside in Florida.
- She resides in Princeton.

---

retarded depression (noun)

A state of clinical depression in which the individual is lethargic and slow to initiate action.

- The article explained what "retarded depression" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "retarded depression" to mean a state of clinical depression in which the....

---

revolutionary armed forces of colombia (noun)

A powerful and wealthy terrorist organization formed in 1957 as the guerilla arm of the Colombian communist party; opposed to the United States; has strong ties to drug dealers.

- They discussed "revolutionary armed forces of colombia" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "revolutionary armed forces of colombia" means with a simple example.

---

revolutionary people's liberation party (noun)

An extreme Marxist terrorist organization in Turkey that is opposed to NATO and the United States; attacks Turkish security and military officials.

- The article explained what "revolutionary people's liberation party" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "revolutionary people's liberation party" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rex harrison (noun)

English actor on stage and in films (1908-1990).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rex harrison."
- The article explained what "rex harrison" means with a simple example.

---

ribbon snake (noun)

Slender yellow-striped North American garter snake; prefers wet places.

- He looked up "ribbon snake" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ribbon snake."

---

richard hooker (noun)

English theologian (1554-1600).

- The article explained what "richard hooker" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "richard hooker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ring rot (noun)

Disease of tomatoes and potatoes and tobacco etc caused by the bacterium Pseudomonas solanacearum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ring rot."
- He looked up "ring rot" because he had never seen it before.

---

rio bravo (noun)

A North American river; boundary between the United States and Mexico; flows into Gulf of Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used "rio bravo" to mean a north american river; boundary between the united....
- Understanding "rio bravo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ripe (adjective)

Fully developed or matured and ready to be eaten or used.

- Ripe peaches.
- It is useful to describe something as "ripe" when it is fully developed or matured and ready to be eaten or....

---

riverside (noun)

A city in southern California.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “riverside.”
- He looked up “riverside” because he had never seen it before.

---

robert falcon scott (noun)

English explorer who reached the South Pole just a month after Amundsen; he and his party died on the return journey (1868-1912).

- In class, the teacher used “robert falcon scott” to mean english explorer who reached the south pole just a....
- He looked up “robert falcon scott” because he had never seen it before.

---

rock squirrel (noun)

Large grey ground squirrel of rocky areas of the southwestern United States.

- In class, the teacher used “rock squirrel” to mean large grey ground squirrel of rocky areas of the....
- Understanding “rock squirrel” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rocky mountain spotted fever (noun)

Caused by rickettsial bacteria and transmitted by wood ticks.

- He looked up “rocky mountain spotted fever” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rocky mountain spotted fever.”

---

rogue elephant (noun)

A wild and vicious elephant separated from the herd.

- They discussed “rogue elephant” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “rogue elephant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rose quartz (noun)

A translucent rose-red variety of quartz used for ornaments.

- In class, the teacher used “rose quartz” to mean a translucent rose-red variety of quartz used for....
- He looked up “rose quartz” because he had never seen it before.

---

sac (noun)

A structure resembling a bag in an animal.

- They discussed “sac” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “sac” because he had never seen it before.

---

sacrificed (verb)

Make a sacrifice of; in religious rituals.

- The animals were sacrificed after the experiment.
- He did not know how to use “sacrificed” until he saw an example.

---

saddle roof (noun)

A double sloping roof with a ridge and gables at each end.

- They discussed “saddle roof” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “saddle roof” because he had never seen it before.

---

san fernando valley (noun)

A fertile valley in southern California to the north of Los Angeles; includes many residential communities.

- In class, the teacher used “san fernando valley” to mean a fertile valley in southern california to the....
- The article explained what “san fernando valley” means with a simple example.

---

sane (adjective)

Mentally healthy; free from mental disorder.

- Appears to be completely sane.
- The speaker chose “sane” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

santa sofia (noun)

A 6th century masterpiece of Byzantine architecture in Istanbul; built as a Christian church, converted to a mosque in 1453, and made into a museum in the middle of the 20th century.

- They discussed “santa sofia” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “santa sofia” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

savior (noun)

A person who rescues you from harm or danger.

- In class, the teacher used "savior" to mean a person who rescues you from harm or danger.
- Understanding "savior" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

scenic (adjective)

Of or relating to the stage or stage scenery.

- Scenic design.
- A "scenic" approach may work better in this case.

scum bag (noun)

A person who is deemed to be despicable or contemptible.

- Understanding "scum bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "scum bag" to mean a person who is deemed to be despicable or contemptible.

sea feather (noun)

Corals forming featherlike colonies.

- In class, the teacher used "sea feather" to mean corals forming featherlike colonies.
- Understanding "sea feather" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

second advent (noun)

(Christian theology) the reappearance of Jesus as judge for the Last Judgment.

- Understanding "second advent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "second advent" to mean (christian theology) the reappearance of jesus as....

secondary coil (noun)

Coil such that current is induced in it by passing a current through the primary coil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secondary coil."
- He looked up "secondary coil" because he had never seen it before.

semi-upright (adjective)

Of animals that are partly erect.

- Students compared "semi-upright" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "semi-upright" approach may work better in this case.

sensory system (noun)

The body's system of sense organs.

- Understanding "sensory system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sensory system."

shale oil (noun)

Oil extracted from oil shale by heating.

- They discussed "shale oil" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "shale oil" because he had never seen it before.

shipping pneumonia (noun)

A deadly form of septicemia in cattle and sheep; involves high fever and pneumonia; contracted under conditions of exposure or exhaustion (as often happens when the animals are shipped to market).

- He looked up "shipping pneumonia" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shipping pneumonia."

shrimp sauce (noun)

White sauce with whipping cream and shrimp butter.

- Understanding "shrimp sauce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "shrimp sauce" to mean white sauce with whipping cream and shrimp butter.

silver-haired (adjective)

Having hair the color of silver.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "silver-haired."
- The speaker chose "silver-haired" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

slapped (verb)

Hit with something flat, like a paddle or the open hand.

- The impatient teacher slapped the student.
- A gunshot slapped him on the forehead.

---

slick magazine (noun)

A magazine printed on good quality paper.

- In class, the teacher used "slick magazine" to mean a magazine printed on good quality paper.
- Understanding "slick magazine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

snail (noun)

Edible terrestrial snail usually served in the shell with a sauce of melted butter and garlic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snail."
- He looked up "snail" because he had never seen it before.

---

sneak preview (noun)

A preview to test audience reactions.

- In class, the teacher used "sneak preview" to mean a preview to test audience reactions.
- He looked up "sneak preview" because he had never seen it before.

---

soda fountain (noun)

A counter where ice cream and sodas and sundaes are prepared and served.

- The article explained what "soda fountain" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "soda fountain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

somalia (noun)

A republic in extreme eastern Africa on the Somali peninsula; subject to tribal warfare.

- He looked up "somalia" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "somalia" to mean a republic in extreme eastern africa on the somali....

---

sore-eyed (adjective)

Having sore eyes; suffering from pinkeye or conjunctivitis.

- The speaker chose "sore-eyed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "sore-eyed" when it is having sore eyes; suffering from pinkeye or....

---

sour cherry tree (noun)

Rather small Eurasian tree producing red to black acid edible fruit.

- He looked up "sour cherry tree" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sour cherry tree" during the group presentation.

---

sour fig (noun)

Low-growing South African succulent plant having a capsular fruit containing edible pulp.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sour fig."
- They discussed "sour fig" during the group presentation.

---

spacecraft clock time (noun)

The clock time given by a clock carried on board a spacecraft.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spacecraft clock time."
- Understanding "spacecraft clock time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spirit stove (noun)

A stove that burns a volatile liquid fuel such as alcohol.

- In class, the teacher used "spirit stove" to mean a stove that burns a volatile liquid fuel such as....

- Understanding “spirit stove” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

statistically (adverb)

With respect to statistics.

- This is statistically impossible.
- She spoke “statistically,” and the audience immediately understood her point.

stimulate (verb)

Stir the feelings, emotions, or peace of.

- The book stimulated her imagination.
- This play stimulates.

strangely (adverb)

In a strange manner.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include “strangely” naturally.
- Place “strangely” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

surveyed (verb)

Look over carefully or inspect.

- He surveyed his new classmates.
- He did not know how to use “surveyed” until he saw an example.

susceptible (adjective)

(often followed by ‘of’ or ‘to’) yielding readily to or capable of.

- Susceptible to colds.
- Susceptible of proof.

swamp ash (noun)

Small ash of swampy areas of southeastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used “swamp ash” to mean small ash of swampy areas of southeastern united states.
- Understanding “swamp ash” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

swamp red oak (noun)

Large round-topped deciduous tree with spreading branches having narrow falcate leaves with deeply sinuate lobes and wood similar to that of northern red oaks; New Jersey to Illinois and southward.

- He looked up “swamp red oak” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “swamp red oak” during the group presentation.

swamp white oak (noun)

Large deciduous oak of the eastern United States with a flaky bark and leaves that have fewer lobes than other white oaks; yields heavy strong wood used in construction; thrives in wet soil.

- In class, the teacher used “swamp white oak” to mean large deciduous oak of the eastern united states....
- The article explained what “swamp white oak” means with a simple example.

table mustard (noun)

Pungent powder or paste prepared from ground mustard seeds.

- In class, the teacher used “table mustard” to mean pungent powder or paste prepared from ground....
- Understanding “table mustard” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

theatrical production (noun)

The production of a drama on the stage.

- In class, the teacher used “theatrical production” to mean the production of a drama on the stage.
- The article explained what “theatrical production” means with a simple example.

thighs (noun)

The part of the leg between the hip and the knee.

- They discussed “thighs” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “thighs” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

thomas hastings (noun)

United States architect who formed and important architectural firm with John Merven Carrere (1860-1929).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thomas hastings."
- They discussed "thomas hastings" during the group presentation.

tick-weed (noun)

Any of numerous plants of the genus Coreopsis having a profusion of showy usually yellow daisylike flowers over long periods; North and South America.

- They discussed "tick-weed" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tick-weed" to mean any of numerous plants of the genus coreopsis....

time lag (noun)

Time during which some action is awaited.

- The article explained what "time lag" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "time lag" to mean time during which some action is awaited.

tipped (adjective)

Having a tip; or having a tip as specified (used in combination).

- A rubber-tipped cane.
- Students compared "tipped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

toby (noun)

A drinking mug in the shape of a stout man wearing a three-cornered hat.

- Understanding "toby" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toby."

tongue worm (noun)

Wormlike arthropod having two pairs of hooks at the sides of the mouth; parasitic in nasal sinuses of mammals.

- The article explained what "tongue worm" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tongue worm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

torch singer (noun)

A singer (usually a woman) who specializes in singing torch songs.

- In class, the teacher used "torch singer" to mean a singer (usually a woman) who specializes in....
- The article explained what "torch singer" means with a simple example.

tow truck (noun)

A truck equipped to hoist and pull wrecked cars (or to remove cars from no-parking zones).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tow truck."
- Understanding "tow truck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tract housing (noun)

Housing consisting of similar houses constructed together on a tract of land.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tract housing."
- They discussed "tract housing" during the group presentation.

tractor trailer (noun)

A truck consisting of a tractor and trailer together.

- In class, the teacher used "tractor trailer" to mean a truck consisting of a tractor and trailer together.
- The article explained what "tractor trailer" means with a simple example.

translates (verb)

Change from one form or medium into another.

- He translates for the U.N.
- The growth in income translates into greater purchasing power.

translator (noun)

A program that translates one programming language into another.

- In class, the teacher used "translator" to mean a program that translates one programming language....
- They discussed "translator" during the group presentation.

---

transmit (verb)

Send from one person or place to another.

- Transmit a message.
- Learners should practice how to use "transmit" in real sentences.

---

trench foot (noun)

Resembling frostbite but without freezing; resulting from exposure to cold and wet.

- In class, the teacher used "trench foot" to mean resembling frostbite but without freezing;....
- The article explained what "trench foot" means with a simple example.

---

trench mouth (noun)

An acute communicable infection of the respiratory tract and mouth marked by ulceration of the mucous membrane.

- The article explained what "trench mouth" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "trench mouth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trophies (noun)

An award for success in war or hunting.

- Understanding "trophies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "trophies" means with a simple example.

---

trustee account (noun)

A savings account deposited by someone who makes themselves the trustee for a beneficiary and who controls it during their lifetime; afterward the balance is payable to the previously named beneficiary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trustee account."
- Understanding "trustee account" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ts (noun)

A unit of weight equivalent to 1000 kilograms.

- The article explained what "ts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ts" to mean a unit of weight equivalent to 1000 kilograms.

---

twin-prop (noun)

A propeller plane with an engine that drives two propellers in opposite directions (for stability).

- Understanding "twin-prop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "twin-prop" because he had never seen it before.

---

unsafe (adjective)

Involving or causing danger or risk; liable to hurt or harm.

- It is useful to describe something as "unsafe" when it is involving or causing danger or risk; liable to hurt....
- Students compared "unsafe" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

urban viii (noun)

Italian pope from 1623 to 1644 who sanctioned the condemnation of Galileo but later freed him (1568-1644).

- They discussed "urban viii" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "urban viii" because he had never seen it before.

---

velvet grass (noun)

Tall European perennial grass having a velvety stem; naturalized in United States and used for forage.

- Understanding "velvet grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "velvet grass" means with a simple example.

---

verge (noun)

The limit beyond which something happens or changes.

- On the verge of tears.

- The article explained what “verge” means with a simple example.

vibrant (adjective)

Of sounds that are strong and resonating.

- The men’s vibrant voices.
- A vibrant group that challenged the system.

viral delivery vector (noun)

A transducing vector that uses a retrovirus.

- The article explained what “viral delivery vector” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “viral delivery vector” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

virginia strawberry (noun)

North American wild strawberry with sweet scarlet fruit; a source of many cultivated strawberries.

- In class, the teacher used “virginia strawberry” to mean north american wild strawberry with sweet scarlet....
- They discussed “virginia strawberry” during the group presentation.

walking delegate (noun)

A union representative who visits workers at their jobs to see whether agreements are observed.

- In class, the teacher used “walking delegate” to mean a union representative who visits workers at their....
- They discussed “walking delegate” during the group presentation.

wear the trousers (verb)

Exercise authority or be in charge.

- Who is calling the shots in this house?
- In everyday English, people use “wear the trousers” when talking about this idea.

wellington boot (noun)

(19th century) a man’s high tasseled boot.

- They discussed “wellington boot” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wellington boot.”

west bengal (noun)

A state in eastern India.

- Understanding “west bengal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “west bengal” to mean a state in eastern india.

western hemisphere (noun)

The hemisphere that includes North America and South America.

- Understanding “western hemisphere” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “western hemisphere” because he had never seen it before.

wild cinnamon (noun)

Large evergreen shrub or small tree having white aromatic bark and leathery leaves and small purple to red flowers in terminal cymes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wild cinnamon.”
- He looked up “wild cinnamon” because he had never seen it before.

winding-clothes (noun)

Burial garment in which a corpse is wrapped.

- The article explained what “winding-clothes” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “winding-clothes” to mean burial garment in which a corpse is wrapped.

worm-shaped (adjective)

Resembling a worm; long and thin and cylindrical.

- A “worm-shaped” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “worm-shaped”? Explain why.

yeast (noun)

A commercial leavening agent containing yeast cells; used to raise the dough in making bread and for fermenting beer or whiskey.

- He looked up "yeast" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yeast."

---

zoom lens (noun)

A camera lens that magnifies the image.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zoom lens."
- They discussed "zoom lens" during the group presentation.

---

absorption (noun)

The mental state of being preoccupied by something.

- The absorption of photons by atoms or molecules.
- The article explained what "absorption" means with a simple example.

---

accelerate (verb)

Cause to move faster.

- He accelerated the car.
- The car accelerated.

---

acne (noun)

An inflammatory disease involving the sebaceous glands of the skin; characterized by papules or pustules or comedones.

- They discussed "acne" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "acne" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

acute triangle (noun)

A triangle whose interior angles are all acute.

- In class, the teacher used "acute triangle" to mean a triangle whose interior angles are all acute.
- The article explained what "acute triangle" means with a simple example.

---

adjusting entry (noun)

An accounting entry made at the end of an accounting period to allocate items between accounting periods.

- The article explained what "adjusting entry" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "adjusting entry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

advertise (verb)

Make publicity for; try to sell (a product).

- Please don't advertise the fact that he has AIDS.
- Can you use "advertise" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

aerial ladder (noun)

Mechanically extendible ladder; used on a fire truck.

- Understanding "aerial ladder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "aerial ladder" because he had never seen it before.

---

aerospace engineer (noun)

An engineer of aircraft and space vehicles.

- In class, the teacher used "aerospace engineer" to mean an engineer of aircraft and space vehicles.
- The article explained what "aerospace engineer" means with a simple example.

---

air mattress (noun)

A mattress that can be stored flat and inflated for use.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "air mattress."
- Understanding "air mattress" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air sac (noun)

A tiny sac for holding air in the lungs; formed by the terminal dilation of tiny air passageways.

- They discussed “air sac” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “air sac.”

---

alzheimer’s (noun)

A progressive form of presenile dementia that is similar to senile dementia except that it usually starts in the 40s or 50s; first symptoms are impaired memory which is followed by impaired thought and speech and finally complete helplessness.

- They discussed “alzheimer’s” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “alzheimer’s” means with a simple example.

---

amber lily (noun)

Plant having basal grasslike leaves and a narrow open cluster of starlike yellowish-orange flowers atop a leafless stalk; southwestern United States; only species of Anthericum growing in North America.

- The article explained what “amber lily” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “amber lily” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

amino plastic (noun)

A plastic (synthetic resin) made from amino compounds; used as an adhesive and as a coating for paper and textiles.

- Understanding “amino plastic” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “amino plastic.”

---

apologise (verb)

Acknowledge faults or shortcomings or failing.

- In everyday English, people use “apologise” when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use “apologise” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

ark shell (noun)

Marine bivalve mollusk having a heavy toothed shell with a deep boat-like inner surface.

- He looked up “ark shell” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “ark shell” during the group presentation.

---

arnold daniel palmer (noun)

United States golfer (born in 1929).

- He looked up “arnold daniel palmer” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “arnold daniel palmer” during the group presentation.

---

aspirations (noun)

A manner of articulation involving an audible release of breath.

- The article explained what “aspirations” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “aspirations.”

---

assassin (noun)

A murderer (especially one who kills a prominent political figure) who kills by a surprise attack and often is hired to do the deed.

- His assassins were hunted down like animals.
- Assassinators of kings and emperors.

---

assign (verb)

Decide as to where something belongs in a scheme.

- The biologist assigned the mushroom to the proper class.
- We were assigned new uniforms.

---

atlantic white cedar (noun)

Slow-growing medium-sized cedar of east coast of the United States; resembles American arborvitae.

- In class, the teacher used “atlantic white cedar” to mean slow-growing medium-sized cedar of east coast of....
- They discussed “atlantic white cedar” during the group presentation.

---

atmospheric phenomenon (noun)

A physical phenomenon associated with the atmosphere.

- Understanding “atmospheric phenomenon” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “atmospheric phenomenon” because he had never seen it before.

bargain-priced (adjective)

Costing less than standard price.

- Buying bargain-priced clothes for the children.
- Would you call this situation “bargain-priced”? Explain why.

barrier reef (noun)

A long coral reef near and parallel to the shore.

- They discussed “barrier reef” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “barrier reef” to mean a long coral reef near and parallel to the shore.

believers (noun)

A supporter who accepts something as true.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “believers.”
- Understanding “believers” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bernard law montgomery (noun)

English general during World War II; won victories over Rommel in North Africa and led British ground forces in the invasion of Normandy (1887-1976).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bernard law montgomery.”
- The article explained what “bernard law montgomery” means with a simple example.

blue pike (noun)

Variety inhabiting the Great Lakes.

- They discussed “blue pike” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “blue pike” because he had never seen it before.

bone of contention (noun)

The subject of a dispute.

- The real bone of contention, as you know, is money.
- He looked up “bone of contention” because he had never seen it before.

bonnie (adjective)

Very pleasing to the eye.

- A “bonnie” approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose “bonnie” because it captured the feeling precisely.

book of judith (noun)

An Apocryphal book telling how Judith saved her people.

- Understanding “book of judith” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “book of judith” during the group presentation.

book of mormon (noun)

A sacred text revealed to Joseph Smith in 1830 by an ancient prophet Mormon; supposedly a record of ancient peoples of America translated by Joseph Smith.

- In class, the teacher used “book of mormon” to mean a sacred text revealed to joseph smith in 1830 by....
- They discussed “book of mormon” during the group presentation.

breathing apparatus (noun)

A device that facilitates breathing in cases of respiratory failure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “breathing apparatus.”
- The article explained what “breathing apparatus” means with a simple example.

brewery (noun)

A plant where beer is brewed by fermentation.

- In class, the teacher used “brewery” to mean a plant where beer is brewed by fermentation.
- They discussed “brewery” during the group presentation.

bulb (noun)

A rounded part of a cylindrical instrument (usually at one end).

- The bulb of a syringe.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bulb."

bumper jack (noun)

A jack for lifting a motor vehicle by the bumper.

- In class, the teacher used "bumper jack" to mean a jack for lifting a motor vehicle by the bumper.
- He looked up "bumper jack" because he had never seen it before.

bunny rabbit (noun)

(usually informal) especially a young rabbit.

- He looked up "bunny rabbit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bunny rabbit" during the group presentation.

butcher knife (noun)

A large sharp knife for cutting or trimming meat.

- He looked up "butcher knife" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "butcher knife" during the group presentation.

candle flame (noun)

The light provided by a burning candle.

- In class, the teacher used "candle flame" to mean the light provided by a burning candle.
- The article explained what "candle flame" means with a simple example.

carbon atom (noun)

An atom of carbon.

- Understanding "carbon atom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "carbon atom" because he had never seen it before.

cardboard (noun)

A stiff moderately thick paper.

- In class, the teacher used "cardboard" to mean a stiff moderately thick paper.
- Understanding "cardboard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cardiac valve (noun)

A valve to control one-way flow of blood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cardiac valve."
- He looked up "cardiac valve" because he had never seen it before.

casually (adverb)

Not methodically or according to plan.

- He dealt with his course work casually.
- Glanced casually at the headlines.

cat squirrel (noun)

Common reddish-brown squirrel of Europe and parts of Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cat squirrel."
- Understanding "cat squirrel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cd-rom (noun)

A compact disk that is used with a computer (rather than with an audio system); a large amount of digital information can be stored and accessed but it cannot be altered by the user.

- Understanding "cd-rom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cd-rom" means with a simple example.

charles ix (noun)

King of France from 1560 to 1574 whose reign was dominated by his mother Catherine de Medicis (1550-1574).

- They discussed "charles ix" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "charles ix" means with a simple example.

---

charles wesley (noun)

English clergyman and brother of John Wesley who wrote many hymns (1707-1788).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charles wesley."
- He looked up "charles wesley" because he had never seen it before.

---

chartered (adjective)

Hired for the exclusive temporary use of a group of travelers.

- A chartered plane.
- The chartered buses arrived on time.

---

chew (verb)

Chew (food); to bite and grind with the teeth.

- Chew your food and don't swallow it!
- In everyday English, people use "chew" when talking about this idea.

---

chew out (verb)

Censure severely or angrily.

- Can you use "chew out" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "chew out" until he saw an example.

---

chew over (verb)

Reflect deeply on a subject.

- I mulled over the events of the afternoon.
- He did not know how to use "chew over" until he saw an example.

---

chew up (verb)

Censure severely or angrily.

- Learners should practice how to use "chew up" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "chew up" when talking about this idea.

---

cinnamon bear (noun)

Reddish-brown color phase of the American black bear.

- The article explained what "cinnamon bear" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cinnamon bear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cinnamon roll (noun)

Rolled dough spread with cinnamon and sugar (and raisins) then sliced before baking.

- He looked up "cinnamon roll" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cinnamon roll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

circumstance (noun)

The set of facts or circumstances that surround a situation or event.

- Pomp and circumstance.
- The article explained what "circumstance" means with a simple example.

---

cliffs (noun)

A steep high face of rock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cliffs."
- Understanding "cliffs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coffin nail (noun)

Finely ground tobacco wrapped in paper; for smoking.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coffin nail."
- Understanding "coffin nail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

common dolphin (noun)

Black-and-white dolphin that leaps high out of the water.

- The article explained what “common dolphin” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “common dolphin” to mean black-and-white dolphin that leaps high out of the....

communication trench (noun)

A trench that provides protected passage between the rear and front lines of a defensive position.

- He looked up “communication trench” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “communication trench” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

comparative psychology (noun)

The branch of psychology concerned with the behavior of animals.

- In class, the teacher used “comparative psychology” to mean the branch of psychology concerned with the....
- The article explained what “comparative psychology” means with a simple example.

compass flower (noun)

Any of several plants having leaves so arranged on the axis as to indicate the cardinal points of the compass.

- They discussed “compass flower” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “compass flower” means with a simple example.

cone pepper (noun)

Plant bearing erect pungent conical red or yellow or purple fruits; sometimes grown as an ornamental.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cone pepper.”
- He looked up “cone pepper” because he had never seen it before.

congestion (noun)

Excessive accumulation of blood or other fluid in a body part.

- Traffic congestion.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “congestion.”

conquered (verb)

To put down by force or authority.

- Learners should practice how to use “conquered” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “conquered” when talking about this idea.

continental slope (noun)

The steep descent of the seabed from the continental shelf to the abyssal zone.

- He looked up “continental slope” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “continental slope” to mean the steep descent of the seabed from the....

cosmic radiation (noun)

Radiation coming from outside the solar system.

- They discussed “cosmic radiation” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “cosmic radiation” means with a simple example.

creditors (noun)

A person to whom money is owed by a debtor; someone to whom an obligation exists.

- The article explained what “creditors” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “creditors” during the group presentation.

criticised (verb)

Find fault with; express criticism of; point out real or perceived flaws.

- In everyday English, people use “criticised” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “criticised” in real sentences.

criticisms (noun)

A serious examination and judgment of something.

- Understanding "criticisms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "criticisms" during the group presentation.

---

crunch (noun)

A critical situation that arises because of a shortage (as a shortage of time or money or resources).

- An end-of-the year crunch.
- A financial crunch.

---

cubic measure (noun)

A unit of measurement of volume or capacity.

- Understanding "cubic measure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cubic measure" because he had never seen it before.

---

curtains (noun)

Any barrier to communication or vision.

- The article explained what "curtains" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "curtains" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

daytime (noun)

The time after sunrise and before sunset while it is light outside.

- It is easier to make the repairs in the daytime.
- They discussed "daytime" during the group presentation.

---

demise (noun)

The time when something ends.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "demise."
- Understanding "demise" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dependence (noun)

The state of relying on or being controlled by someone or something else.

- The article explained what "dependence" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dependence" during the group presentation.

---

dictator (noun)

A person who behaves in a tyrannical manner.

- My boss is a dictator who makes everyone work overtime.
- In class, the teacher used "dictator" to mean a person who behaves in a tyrannical manner.

---

diets (verb)

Follow a regimen or a diet, as for health reasons.

- In everyday English, people use "diets" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "diets" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

differs (verb)

Be of different opinions.

- Can you use "differs" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "differs" until he saw an example.

---

digits (noun)

The length of breadth of a finger used as a linear measure.

- 0 and 1 are digits.
- Understanding "digits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dime (noun)

A United States coin worth one tenth of a dollar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dime."

- He looked up “dime” because he had never seen it before.

dire (adjective)

Fraught with extreme danger; nearly hopeless; ; - G.C.Marshall.

- A dire emergency.
- Dire news.

disagreement (noun)

A difference between conflicting facts or claims or opinions.

- In class, the teacher used “disagreement” to mean a difference between conflicting facts or claims or....
- He looked up “disagreement” because he had never seen it before.

disciples (noun)

Someone who believes and helps to spread the doctrine of another.

- In class, the teacher used “disciples” to mean someone who believes and helps to spread the....
- Understanding “disciples” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

disregard (verb)

Give little or no attention to.

- Disregard the errors.
- Can you use “disregard” in a sentence that fits this situation?

distributor (noun)

A company that markets merchandise.

- His company is a large distributor of software products.
- They discussed “distributor” during the group presentation.

dollar diplomacy (noun)

Diplomacy influenced by economic considerations.

- In class, the teacher used “dollar diplomacy” to mean diplomacy influenced by economic considerations.
- He looked up “dollar diplomacy” because he had never seen it before.

dominion (noun)

Dominance or power through legal authority.

- France held undisputed dominion over vast areas of Africa.
- The article explained what “dominion” means with a simple example.

dominion day (noun)

A legal holiday in Canada commemorating receiving Dominion status in 1867.

- They discussed “dominion day” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “dominion day” because he had never seen it before.

downhill (noun)

The downward slope of a hill.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “downhill.”
- He looked up “downhill” because he had never seen it before.

dreadful (adjective)

Causing fear or dread or terror.

- A dreadful storm.
- Dreadful manners.

drill rig (noun)

Rig used in drilling for oil or gas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “drill rig.”
- They discussed “drill rig” during the group presentation.

drunken (adjective)

Given to or marked by the consumption of alcohol.

- A drunken binge.
- Two drunken gentlemen holding each other up.

---

dry rot (noun)

A crumbling and drying of timber or bulbs or potatoes or fruit caused by a fungus.

- In class, the teacher used "dry rot" to mean a crumbling and drying of timber or bulbs or....
- They discussed "dry rot" during the group presentation.

---

dry-rot (verb)

Affect or be affected with dry rot.

- Can you use "dry-rot" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "dry-rot" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

earnest (noun)

Something of value given by one person to another to bind a contract.

- He looked up "earnest" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "earnest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

earnest money (noun)

Money given by a buyer to a seller to bind a contract.

- In class, the teacher used "earnest money" to mean money given by a buyer to a seller to bind a contract.
- They discussed "earnest money" during the group presentation.

---

eastern hemisphere (noun)

The hemisphere that includes Eurasia and Africa and Australia.

- He looked up "eastern hemisphere" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "eastern hemisphere" to mean the hemisphere that includes eurasia and africa and....

---

edward viii (noun)

King of England and Ireland in 1936; his marriage to Wallis Warfield Simpson created a constitutional crisis leading to his abdication (1894-1972).

- He looked up "edward viii" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "edward viii" during the group presentation.

---

edward vincent sullivan (noun)

United States host on a well known television variety show (1902-1974).

- He looked up "edward vincent sullivan" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "edward vincent sullivan" to mean united states host on a well known television....

---

el salvador (noun)

A republic on the Pacific coast of Central America.

- The article explained what "el salvador" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "el salvador" to mean a republic on the pacific coast of central america.

---

electron lens (noun)

Electronic equipment that uses a magnetic or electric field in order to focus a beam of electrons.

- In class, the teacher used "electron lens" to mean electronic equipment that uses a magnetic or....
- The article explained what "electron lens" means with a simple example.

---

erase (verb)

Remove by or as if by rubbing or erasing.

- Please erase the formula on the blackboard–it is wrong!
- The Turks erased the Armenians in 1915.

---

eugene sue (noun)

French writer whose novels described the sordid side of city life (1804-1857).

- Understanding “eugene sue” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “eugene sue” means with a simple example.

---

exhaust hood (noun)

Metal covering leading to a vent that exhausts smoke or fumes.

- He looked up “exhaust hood” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “exhaust hood.”

---

extinct (adjective)

No longer in existence; lost or especially having died out leaving no living representatives.

- An extinct species of fish.
- An extinct royal family.

---

fairy swallow (noun)

Fancy domestic pigeon having blue-and-white plumage and heavily muffed feet.

- He looked up “fairy swallow” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fairy swallow.”

---

female bonding (noun)

The formation of a close personal relationship between women.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “female bonding.”
- The article explained what “female bonding” means with a simple example.

---

flight feather (noun)

Any of the larger wing or tail feathers of a bird.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “flight feather.”
- He looked up “flight feather” because he had never seen it before.

---

fluid ounce (noun)

A United States unit of capacity or volume equal to 1.804 cubic inches.

- He looked up “fluid ounce” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “fluid ounce” to mean a united states unit of capacity or volume equal to....

---

focal point (noun)

The concentration of attention or energy on something.

- They discussed “focal point” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “focal point” to mean the concentration of attention or energy on something.

---

folding chair (noun)

A chair that can be folded flat for storage.

- In class, the teacher used “folding chair” to mean a chair that can be folded flat for storage.
- Understanding “folding chair” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

footsteps-of-spring (noun)

Sanicle of northwestern United States and British Columbia having yellow flowers.

- They discussed “footsteps-of-spring” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “footsteps-of-spring” because he had never seen it before.

---

forbid (verb)

Keep from happening or arising; make impossible.

- My sense of tact forbids an honest answer.
- I forbid you to call me late at night.

---

forgiven (verb)

Stop blaming or grant forgiveness.

- Learners should practice how to use “forgiven” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “forgiven” when talking about this idea.

fox grape (noun)

Native grape of northeastern United States; origin of many cultivated varieties e.g. Concord grapes.

- He looked up "fox grape" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fox grape" to mean native grape of northeastern united states; origin....

frank stella (noun)

United States minimalist painter (born in 1936).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frank stella."
- The article explained what "frank stella" means with a simple example.

freezer (noun)

Electric refrigerator (trade name Deepfreeze) in which food is frozen and stored for long periods of time.

- They discussed "freezer" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "freezer" means with a simple example.

funk hole (noun)

Dugout as a place of safe retreat (when in a funk).

- He looked up "funk hole" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "funk hole" to mean dugout as a place of safe retreat (when in a funk).

gamma iron (noun)

A nonmagnetic allotrope of iron that is the basis of austenite; stable between 906 and 1403 degrees centigrade.

- The article explained what "gamma iron" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gamma iron."

gamma ray (noun)

Electromagnetic radiation emitted during radioactive decay and having an extremely short wavelength.

- The article explained what "gamma ray" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gamma ray" to mean electromagnetic radiation emitted during....

gas-discharge lamp (noun)

An electric lamp in which the light comes from an electric discharge between two electrodes in a glass tube.

- He looked up "gas-discharge lamp" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "gas-discharge lamp" during the group presentation.

genetically (adverb)

By genetic mechanisms.

- Genetically passed down talents.
- The narrator describes the scene "genetically" in the final chapter.

george herbert walker bush (noun)

Vice president under Reagan and 41st President of the United States (born in 1924).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "george herbert walker bush."
- The article explained what "george herbert walker bush" means with a simple example.

gilbert charles stuart (noun)

United States painter best known for his portraits of George Washington (1755-1828).

- Understanding "gilbert charles stuart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gilbert charles stuart" during the group presentation.

golden calf (noun)

(Old Testament) an idol made by Aaron for the Israelites to worship; destroyed by Moses; it is now used to refer to anything worshipped undeservedly.

- The article explained what "golden calf" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "golden calf" to mean (old testament) an idol made by aaron for the....

grande dame (noun)

A middle-aged or elderly woman who is stylish and highly respected.

- Understanding "grande dame" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "grande dame" because he had never seen it before.

---

grape sugar (noun)

An isomer of glucose that is found in honey and sweet fruits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grape sugar."
- He looked up "grape sugar" because he had never seen it before.

---

gray skate (noun)

Common European skate used as food.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gray skate."
- He looked up "gray skate" because he had never seen it before.

---

great barrier reef (noun)

The largest coral reef in the world; in the Coral Sea off the northeastern coast of Australia.

- He looked up "great barrier reef" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "great barrier reef" during the group presentation.

---

green groceries (noun)

Fresh fruits and vegetable grown for the market.

- In class, the teacher used "green groceries" to mean fresh fruits and vegetable grown for the market.
- The article explained what "green groceries" means with a simple example.

---

greeted (verb)

React to in a certain way.

- The President was greeted with catcalls.
- Loud music greeted him when he entered the apartment.

---

greeting card (noun)

A card sent to express personal greetings.

- They discussed "greeting card" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "greeting card" means with a simple example.

---

hard-shell crab (noun)

Edible crab that has not recently molted and so has a hard shell.

- Understanding "hard-shell crab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hard-shell crab."

---

hare (noun)

Flesh of any of various rabbits or hares (wild or domesticated) eaten as food.

- Understanding "hare" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hare."

---

hawaiian capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Hawaii; located on a large bay on the island of Oahu.

- He looked up "hawaiian capital" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hawaiian capital."

---

healed (adjective)

Freed from illness or injury; ; ; ; - Normon Cameron.

- The incision is healed.
- A "healed" approach may work better in this case.

---

henry valentine miller (noun)

United States novelist whose novels were originally banned as pornographic (1891-1980).

- They discussed "henry valentine miller" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "henry valentine miller" means with a simple example.

herein (adverb)

In this place or thing or document.

- I shall discuss the question herein.
- The narrator describes the scene "herein" in the final chapter.

hoffman (noun)

Versatile United States film actor (born in 1937).

- The article explained what "hoffman" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hoffman" during the group presentation.

honorary (adjective)

Given as an honor without the normal duties.

- An honorary degree.
- It is useful to describe something as "honorary" when it is given as an honor without the normal duties.

hugo wolf (noun)

Austrian composer (1860-1903).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hugo wolf."
- The article explained what "hugo wolf" means with a simple example.

ignition key (noun)

A key that operates the ignition switch of an automotive engine.

- Understanding "ignition key" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ignition key."

immature (adjective)

(of birds) not yet having developed feathers.

- Immature behavior.
- Students compared "immature" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

imperative (noun)

A mood that expresses an intention to influence the listener's behavior.

- He looked up "imperative" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "imperative."

in earnest (adverb)

In a serious manner.

- Talking earnestly with his son.
- She started studying snakes in earnest.

indian mustard (noun)

Leaves eaten as cooked greens.

- They discussed "indian mustard" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "indian mustard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

indonesian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Indonesia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indonesian monetary unit."
- He looked up "indonesian monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.

ineffective (adjective)

Lacking the ability or skill to perform effectively; inadequate.

- An ineffective administration.
- Would you call this situation "ineffective"? Explain why.

interacting (verb)

Act together or towards others or with others.

- Learners should practice how to use "interacting" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "interacting" when talking about this idea.

---

iowa crab (noun)

Wild crab apple of western United States with fragrant pink flowers.

- Understanding "iowa crab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "iowa crab" during the group presentation.

---

irish strawberry (noun)

Small evergreen European shrubby tree bearing many-seeded scarlet berries that are edible but bland; of Ireland, southern Europe, Asia Minor.

- He looked up "irish strawberry" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "irish strawberry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jacques louis david (noun)

French neoclassical painter who actively supported the French Revolution (1748-1825).

- He looked up "jacques louis david" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jacques louis david."

---

jane jacobs (noun)

United States writer and critic of urban planning (born in 1916).

- He looked up "jane jacobs" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "jane jacobs" to mean united states writer and critic of urban planning....

---

jerome (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) one of the great Fathers of the early Christian Church whose major work was his translation of the Scriptures from Hebrew and Greek into Latin (which became the Vulgate); a saint and Doctor of the Church (347-420).

- In class, the teacher used "jerome" to mean (roman catholic church) one of the great fathers of....
- He looked up "jerome" because he had never seen it before.

---

kingdom of cambodia (noun)

A nation in southeastern Asia; was part of Indochina under French rule until 1946.

- Understanding "kingdom of cambodia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "kingdom of cambodia" means with a simple example.

---

kitchen stove (noun)

A kitchen appliance used for cooking food.

- Dinner was already on the stove.
- The article explained what "kitchen stove" means with a simple example.

---

knit (verb)

To gather something into small wrinkles or folds.

- Knit a scarf.
- Learners should practice how to use "knit" in real sentences.

---

kuwait (noun)

A seaport on the Persian Gulf and capital of Kuwait.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kuwait."
- Understanding "kuwait" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kuwait city (noun)

A seaport on the Persian Gulf and capital of Kuwait.

- In class, the teacher used "kuwait city" to mean a seaport on the persian gulf and capital of kuwait.
- The article explained what "kuwait city" means with a simple example.

---

laps (noun)

The upper side of the thighs of a seated person.

- The dog's laps were warm and wet.
- In class, the teacher used "laps" to mean the upper side of the thighs of a seated person.

---

lightning conductor (noun)

A metallic conductor that is attached to a high point and leads to the ground; protects the building from destruction by lightning.

- They discussed "lightning conductor" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lightning conductor" to mean a metallic conductor that is attached to a high....

---

linguistic context (noun)

Discourse that surrounds a language unit and helps to determine its interpretation.

- He looked up "linguistic context" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "linguistic context."

---

lipstick plant (noun)

Epiphyte or creeping on rocks; Malaysian plant having somewhat fleshy leaves and bright red flowers.

- Understanding "lipstick plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "lipstick plant" during the group presentation.

---

louis ix (noun)

King of France and son of Louis VIII; he led two unsuccessful Crusades; considered an ideal medieval king (1214-1270).

- The article explained what "louis ix" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "louis ix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lunar calendar (noun)

A calendar based on lunar cycles.

- In class, the teacher used "lunar calendar" to mean a calendar based on lunar cycles.
- The article explained what "lunar calendar" means with a simple example.

---

maiden aunt (noun)

An unmarried aunt.

- Understanding "maiden aunt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "maiden aunt" because he had never seen it before.

---

male monarch (noun)

A male sovereign; ruler of a kingdom.

- The article explained what "male monarch" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "male monarch" to mean a male sovereign; ruler of a kingdom.

---

manly (adverb)

In a manful manner; with qualities thought to befit a man.

- The narrator describes the scene "manly" in the final chapter.
- Using "manly" can make your explanation more exact.

---

market gardening (noun)

The growing of vegetables or flowers for market.

- They discussed "market gardening" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "market gardening."

---

marriage mart (noun)

A business that arranges marriage contracts.

- In class, the teacher used "marriage mart" to mean a business that arranges marriage contracts.
- They discussed "marriage mart" during the group presentation.

---

maternity (noun)

The quality of having or showing the tenderness and warmth and affection of or befitting a mother.

- They discussed "maternity" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maternity."

meanings (noun)

The message that is intended or expressed or signified.

- He looked up "meanings" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "meanings."

medical intern (noun)

An advanced student or graduate in medicine gaining supervised practical experience ('houseman' is a British term).

- The article explained what "medical intern" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medical intern."

meter maid (noun)

Policewoman who is assigned to write parking tickets.

- In class, the teacher used "meter maid" to mean policewoman who is assigned to write parking tickets.
- The article explained what "meter maid" means with a simple example.

metric linear unit (noun)

A linear unit of distance in metric terms.

- The article explained what "metric linear unit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "metric linear unit" to mean a linear unit of distance in metric terms.

mineral wool (noun)

A light fibrous material used as an insulator.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mineral wool."
- He looked up "mineral wool" because he had never seen it before.

morale (noun)

The spirit of a group that makes the members want the group to succeed.

- He looked up "morale" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morale."

mormon church (noun)

Church founded by Joseph Smith in 1830 with headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mormon church."
- He looked up "mormon church" because he had never seen it before.

mornings (noun)

The time period between dawn and noon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mornings."
- The article explained what "mornings" means with a simple example.

mortgage deed (noun)

Deed embodying a mortgage.

- He looked up "mortgage deed" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mortgage deed."

mother fucker (noun)

Insulting terms of address for people who are stupid or irritating or ridiculous.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother fucker."
- The article explained what "mother fucker" means with a simple example.

mourning ring (noun)

A ring worn as a memorial to a dead person.

- They discussed "mourning ring" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mourning ring" to mean a ring worn as a memorial to a dead person.

mustard agent (noun)

A toxic war gas with sulfide based compounds that raises blisters and attacks the eyes and lungs; there is no known antidote.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mustard agent."
- The article explained what "mustard agent" means with a simple example.

---

mustard tree (noun)

Evergreen South American shrub naturalized in United States; occasionally responsible for poisoning livestock.

- Understanding "mustard tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mustard tree" during the group presentation.

---

needless (adjective)

Unnecessary and unwarranted.

- A strikers' tent camp...was burned with needless loss of life.
- A "needless" approach may work better in this case.

---

nerd (noun)

An insignificant student who is ridiculed as being affected or boringly studious.

- They discussed "nerd" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "nerd" means with a simple example.

---

neural tube (noun)

A tube of ectodermal tissue in the embryo from which the brain and spinal cord develop.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neural tube."
- Understanding "neural tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nominees (noun)

A politician who is running for public office.

- He looked up "nominees" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "nominees" to mean a politician who is running for public office.

---

northern hemisphere (noun)

The hemisphere that is to the north of the equator.

- He looked up "northern hemisphere" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "northern hemisphere."

---

nova salmon (noun)

Brine-cured salmon that is less salty than most; sometimes sugar is also used in the curing.

- Understanding "nova salmon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "nova salmon" means with a simple example.

---

novelty (noun)

A small inexpensive mass-produced article.

- They discussed "novelty" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "novelty" means with a simple example.

---

nude sculpture (noun)

A statue of a naked human figure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nude sculpture."
- They discussed "nude sculpture" during the group presentation.

---

object of the verb (noun)

The object that receives the direct action of the verb.

- In class, the teacher used "object of the verb" to mean the object that receives the direct action of the verb.
- He looked up "object of the verb" because he had never seen it before.

---

old dominion (noun)

A state in the eastern United States; one of the original 13 colonies; one of the Confederate States in the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "old dominion" to mean a state in the eastern united states; one of the....

- He looked up “old dominion” because he had never seen it before.

optimism (noun)

A general disposition to expect the best in all things.

- In class, the teacher used “optimism” to mean a general disposition to expect the best in all things.
- He looked up “optimism” because he had never seen it before.

outdated (adjective)

Old; no longer valid or fashionable.

- Outdated equipment.
- It is useful to describe something as “outdated” when it is old; no longer valid or fashionable.

oxide (noun)

Any compound of oxygen with another element or a radical.

- The article explained what “oxide” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “oxide.”

paints (noun)

A substance used as a coating to protect or decorate a surface (especially a mixture of pigment suspended in a liquid); dries to form a hard coating.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “paints.”
- He looked up “paints” because he had never seen it before.

palette knife (noun)

A spatula used by artists for mixing or applying or scraping off oil paints.

- In class, the teacher used “palette knife” to mean a spatula used by artists for mixing or applying or....
- They discussed “palette knife” during the group presentation.

panama canal zone (noun)

A zone consisting of a strip of land across the Isthmus of Panama that contains the Panama Canal.

- The article explained what “panama canal zone” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “panama canal zone” to mean a zone consisting of a strip of land across the....

parcel of land (noun)

An extended area of land.

- The article explained what “parcel of land” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “parcel of land” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

parcel post (noun)

Postal service that handles packages.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “parcel post.”
- The article explained what “parcel post” means with a simple example.

passive immunity (noun)

An impermanent form of acquired immunity in which antibodies against a disease are acquired naturally (as through the placenta to an unborn child) or artificially (as by injection of antiserum).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “passive immunity.”
- The article explained what “passive immunity” means with a simple example.

peach sauce (noun)

For Chinese dishes: peach preserves and chutney.

- In class, the teacher used “peach sauce” to mean for chinese dishes: peach preserves and chutney.
- The article explained what “peach sauce” means with a simple example.

peasants (noun)

A crude uncouth ill-bred person lacking culture or refinement.

- They discussed “peasants” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “peasants” to mean a crude uncouth ill-bred person lacking culture or....

pence (noun)

A coin worth one-hundredth of the value of the basic unit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pence."
- He looked up "pence" because he had never seen it before.

---

penetration bomb (noun)

A bomb with about 30% explosive and a casing designed to penetrate hardened targets before the explosive detonates.

- The article explained what "penetration bomb" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "penetration bomb" to mean a bomb with about 30% explosive and a casing....

---

peppers (verb)

Attack and bombard with or as if with missiles.

- He did not know how to use "peppers" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "peppers" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

percy (noun)

English soldier killed in a rebellion against Henry IV (1364-1403).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "percy."
- The article explained what "percy" means with a simple example.

---

peripheral (noun)

(computer science) electronic equipment connected by cable to the CPU of a computer.

- Disk drives and printers are important peripherals.
- In class, the teacher used "peripheral" to mean (computer science) electronic equipment connected....

---

petrol tank (noun)

A tank for holding gasoline to supply a vehicle.

- Understanding "petrol tank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "petrol tank" because he had never seen it before.

---

philosophical doctrine (noun)

A doctrine accepted by adherents to a philosophy.

- They discussed "philosophical doctrine" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "philosophical doctrine."

---

photographic density (noun)

(physics) a measure of the extent to which a substance transmits light or other electromagnetic radiation.

- In class, the teacher used "photographic density" to mean (physics) a measure of the extent to which a....
- They discussed "photographic density" during the group presentation.

---

pinned (verb)

To hold fast or prevent from moving.

- The child was pinned under the fallen tree.
- She tried to use "pinned" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pint (noun)

A United States dry unit equal to 0.5 quart or 33.6 cubic inches.

- They discussed "pint" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pint" to mean a united states dry unit equal to 0.5 quart or 33.6....

---

pleaded (verb)

Offer as an excuse or plea.

- I pleaded with him to stop.
- She pleaded not guilty.

---

pond lily (noun)

A water lily having large leaves and showy fragrant flowers that float on the water; of temperate and tropical regions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pond lily.”
- The article explained what “pond lily” means with a simple example.

---

poop (noun)

Slang terms for inside information.

- Understanding “poop” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “poop.”

---

port jackson heath (noun)

Small shrub of southern and western Australia having pinkish to rosy purple tubular flowers.

- Understanding “port jackson heath” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “port jackson heath” because he had never seen it before.

---

portable circular saw (noun)

A circular saw that is portable and is operated with a hand grip.

- They discussed “portable circular saw” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “portable circular saw” means with a simple example.

---

prairie fox (noun)

Small grey fox of the plains of western North America.

- The article explained what “prairie fox” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “prairie fox” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prairie smoke (noun)

North American perennial with hairy basal pinnate leaves and purple flowers and plume-tipped fruits.

- The article explained what “prairie smoke” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “prairie smoke” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

premature labor (noun)

Labor beginning prior to the 37th week of gestation.

- They discussed “premature labor” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “premature labor” because he had never seen it before.

---

premature labour (noun)

Labor beginning prior to the 37th week of gestation.

- Understanding “premature labour” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “premature labour” means with a simple example.

---

prevalence (noun)

The quality of prevailing generally; being widespread.

- He was surprised by the prevalence of optimism about the future.
- They discussed “prevalence” during the group presentation.

---

primary feather (noun)

One of the main flight feathers projecting along the outer edge of a bird’s wing.

- The article explained what “primary feather” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “primary feather” to mean one of the main flight feathers projecting along….

---

prince of wales heath (noun)

South African shrub grown for its profusion of white flowers.

- Understanding “prince of wales heath” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “prince of wales heath” during the group presentation.

---

pronounce (verb)

Speak, pronounce, or utter in a certain way.

- She pronounces French words in a funny way.
- Can you use “pronounce” in a sentence that fits this situation?

proportions (noun)

The relation between things (or parts of things) with respect to their comparative quantity, magnitude, or degree.

- A building of vast proportions.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "proportions."

provisional (adjective)

Under terms not final or fully worked out or agreed upon.

- A provisional government.
- It is useful to describe something as "provisional" when it is under terms not final or fully worked out or agreed....

pumpkin ash (noun)

Timber tree of central and southeastern United States having hairy branchlets and a swollen trunk base.

- He looked up "pumpkin ash" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pumpkin ash."

punches (verb)

Make a hole into or between, as for ease of separation.

- She tried to use "punches" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "punches" when talking about this idea.

rack of lamb (noun)

A roast of the rib section of lamb.

- Understanding "rack of lamb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rack of lamb."

railroad worm (noun)

Larvae bore into and feed on apples.

- They discussed "railroad worm" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "railroad worm" because he had never seen it before.

ravens (noun)

Large black bird with a straight bill and long wedge-shaped tail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ravens."
- He looked up "ravens" because he had never seen it before.

remark (noun)

A statement that expresses a personal opinion or belief or adds information.

- It passed without remark.
- In class, the teacher used "remark" to mean a statement that expresses a personal opinion or....

repay (verb)

Act or give recompense in recognition of someone's behavior or actions.

- He did not know how to use "repay" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "repay" when talking about this idea.

republic of cyprus (noun)

A country on the island of Cyprus; 80% of the people are of Greek origin and 20% or Turkish origin.

- The article explained what "republic of cyprus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "republic of cyprus" to mean a country on the island of cyprus; 80% of the....

revolutionary people's liberation front (noun)

An extreme Marxist terrorist organization in Turkey that is opposed to NATO and the United States; attacks Turkish security and military officials.

- Understanding "revolutionary people's liberation front" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "revolutionary people's liberation front."

roller towel (noun)

A towel with the ends sewn together, hung on a roller.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roller towel."
- He looked up "roller towel" because he had never seen it before.

---

ropes (noun)

Street names for flunitrazepan.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ropes."
- He looked up "ropes" because he had never seen it before.

---

rubbing alcohol (noun)

Lotion consisting of a poisonous solution of isopropyl alcohol or denatured ethanol alcohol for external use.

- The article explained what "rubbing alcohol" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rubbing alcohol" during the group presentation.

---

rubbish dump (noun)

A piece of land where waste materials are dumped.

- The article explained what "rubbish dump" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rubbish dump" to mean a piece of land where waste materials are dumped.

---

rumours (noun)

Gossip (usually a mixture of truth and untruth) passed around by word of mouth.

- They discussed "rumours" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rumours" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sampling frequency (noun)

(telecommunication) the frequency of sampling a continuously varying signal.

- The article explained what "sampling frequency" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sampling frequency" to mean (telecommunication) the frequency of sampling a....

---

samuel barber (noun)

United States composer (1910-1981).

- They discussed "samuel barber" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "samuel barber" because he had never seen it before.

---

santiago (noun)

A port city in southeastern Cuba; industrial center.

- Understanding "santiago" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "santiago" because he had never seen it before.

---

saturated (adjective)

Used especially of organic compounds; having all available valence bonds filled.

- Saturated fats.
- A saturated solution.

---

scar tissue (noun)

The connective tissue that forms a scar; consists of fibroblasts in new scars and collagen fibers in old scars.

- He looked up "scar tissue" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "scar tissue" during the group presentation.

---

scares (noun)

Sudden mass fear and anxiety over anticipated events.

- They discussed "scares" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "scares" because he had never seen it before.

---

screened (verb)

Test or examine for the presence of disease or infection.

- Can you use "screened" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "screened" carefully so everyone would understand.

sensory hair (noun)

A long stiff hair growing from the snout or brow of most mammals as e.g. a cat.

- The article explained what "sensory hair" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sensory hair" to mean a long stiff hair growing from the snout or brow of....

sewing machine (noun)

A textile machine used as a home appliance for sewing.

- In class, the teacher used "sewing machine" to mean a textile machine used as a home appliance for sewing.
- Understanding "sewing machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

shaping tool (noun)

A tool for shaping metal.

- In class, the teacher used "shaping tool" to mean a tool for shaping metal.
- The article explained what "shaping tool" means with a simple example.

shaved (adjective)

Having the beard or hair cut off close to the skin.

- A "shaved" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "shaved" because it captured the feeling precisely.

shin bet (noun)

The Israeli domestic counterintelligence and internal security agency.

- The Shin Bet also handles overall security for Israel's national airline.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shin bet."

shooters (noun)

A person who shoots (usually with respect to their ability to shoot).

- They discussed "shooters" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "shooters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

silver willow (noun)

North American willow with greyish silky pubescent leaves that usually blacken in drying.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silver willow."
- He looked up "silver willow" because he had never seen it before.

sir rex harrison (noun)

English actor on stage and in films (1908-1990).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir rex harrison."
- He looked up "sir rex harrison" because he had never seen it before.

skipped (verb)

Intentionally fail to attend.

- He skipped a row in the text and so the sentence was incomprehensible.
- She tried to use "skipped" carefully so everyone would understand.

slave trader (noun)

A person engaged in slave trade.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slave trader."
- He looked up "slave trader" because he had never seen it before.

smoked salmon (noun)

Salmon cured by smoking.

- They discussed "smoked salmon" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "smoked salmon" means with a simple example.

sms (noun)

A grey lustrous metallic element of the rare earth group; is used in special alloys; occurs in monazite and bastnasite.

- The article explained what "sms" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sms" to mean a grey lustrous metallic element of the rare earth....

---

soft rot (noun)

Mushy or slimy decay of plants caused by bacteria or fungi.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soft rot."
- The article explained what "soft rot" means with a simple example.

---

soft-haired (adjective)

Having soft hair.

- It is useful to describe something as "soft-haired" when it is having soft hair.
- Would you call this situation "soft-haired"? Explain why.

---

southeastern (adjective)

Of a region of the United States generally including Alabama; Georgia; Florida; Tennessee; South Carolina; North Carolina.

- The speaker chose "southeastern" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "southeastern."

---

southern hemisphere (noun)

The hemisphere to the south of the equator.

- In class, the teacher used "southern hemisphere" to mean the hemisphere to the south of the equator.
- The article explained what "southern hemisphere" means with a simple example.

---

spanish needles (noun)

The seed of bur marigolds.

- Understanding "spanish needles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spanish needles."

---

spears (noun)

A long pointed rod used as a tool or weapon.

- In class, the teacher used "spears" to mean a long pointed rod used as a tool or weapon.
- The article explained what "spears" means with a simple example.

---

specials (noun)

A television production that features a particular person or work or topic.

- The last of a series of BBC specials on Iran is being shown tonight.
- In class, the teacher used "specials" to mean a television production that features a particular....

---

specimen bottle (noun)

A bottle for holding urine specimens.

- He looked up "specimen bottle" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "specimen bottle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spectators (noun)

A close observer; someone who looks at something (such as an exhibition of some kind).

- The spectators applauded the performance.
- He looked up "spectators" because he had never seen it before.

---

spill the beans (verb)

Divulge confidential information or secrets.

- She tried to use "spill the beans" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "spill the beans" and when to wait.

---

spur (noun)

A verbalization that encourages you to attempt something.

- Cowboys know not to squat with their spurs on.

- Understanding "spur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

staple gun (noun)

A hand-held machine for driving staples home.

- The article explained what "staple gun" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "staple gun" to mean a hand-held machine for driving staples home.

state of kuwait (noun)

An Arab kingdom in Asia on the northwestern coast of the Persian Gulf; a major source of petroleum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "state of kuwait."
- He looked up "state of kuwait" because he had never seen it before.

steep-sided (adjective)

Having very steep sides.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "steep-sided."
- Would you call this situation "steep-sided"? Explain why.

stick cinnamon (noun)

Dried rolled strips of cinnamon bark.

- The article explained what "stick cinnamon" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stick cinnamon" during the group presentation.

stiff upper lip (noun)

Self-restraint in the expression of emotion (especially fear or grief).

- The British like to keep a stiff upper lip.
- The article explained what "stiff upper lip" means with a simple example.

stress fracture (noun)

Fracture resulting from excessive activity rather than a specific injury.

- Understanding "stress fracture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "stress fracture" means with a simple example.

stupidity (noun)

A poor ability to understand or to profit from experience.

- They discussed "stupidity" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "stupidity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

suppress (verb)

To put down by force or authority.

- Suppress a nascent uprising.
- Suppress a yawn.

sushi bar (noun)

A bar where sushi is served.

- The article explained what "sushi bar" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sushi bar."

sweating (noun)

The process of the sweat glands of the skin secreting a salty fluid.

- Understanding "sweating" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweating."

swings (noun)

A state of steady vigorous action that is characteristic of an activity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swings."
- The article explained what "swings" means with a simple example.

sword cane (noun)

A cane concealing a sword or dagger.

- Understanding "sword cane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sword cane" means with a simple example.

---

take the veil (verb)

Become a nun.

- The young woman took the veil after her fiance died.
- She tried to use "take the veil" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

takeover target (noun)

A company that has been chosen as attractive for takeover by a potential acquirer.

- Understanding "takeover target" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "takeover target" because he had never seen it before.

---

tangible (adjective)

Perceptible by the senses especially the sense of touch.

- Skin with a tangible roughness.
- Tangible property like real estate.

---

tara (noun)

A village in eastern Ireland (northwest of Dublin); seat of Irish kings until 6th century.

- He looked up "tara" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tara" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ten-gallon hat (noun)

A hat with a wide brim and a soft crown; worn by American ranch hands.

- Understanding "ten-gallon hat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ten-gallon hat" means with a simple example.

---

textbooks (noun)

A book prepared for use in schools or colleges.

- They discussed "textbooks" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "textbooks" means with a simple example.

---

textile mill (noun)

A factory for making textiles.

- They discussed "textile mill" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "textile mill."

---

thomas willis (noun)

English physician who was a pioneer in the study of the brain (1621-1675).

- In class, the teacher used "thomas willis" to mean english physician who was a pioneer in the study of....
- The article explained what "thomas willis" means with a simple example.

---

tick fever (noun)

Caused by rickettsial bacteria and transmitted by wood ticks.

- They discussed "tick fever" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tick fever" means with a simple example.

---

tidal flow (noun)

The water current caused by the tides.

- Understanding "tidal flow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tidal flow" means with a simple example.

---

tidal zone (noun)

An area subject to tidal action.

- In class, the teacher used "tidal zone" to mean an area subject to tidal action.
- He looked up "tidal zone" because he had never seen it before.

---

tile roof (noun)

A roof made of fired clay tiles.

- In class, the teacher used "tile roof" to mean a roof made of fired clay tiles.
- Understanding "tile roof" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tougher (adjective)

Not given to gentleness or sentimentality.

- Students compared "tougher" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "tougher" approach may work better in this case.

---

tree squirrel (noun)

Any typical arboreal squirrel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tree squirrel."
- Understanding "tree squirrel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trivial (adjective)

Of little substance or significance.

- Only trivial objections.
- A trivial young woman.

---

turks (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Turkey.

- They discussed "turks" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "turks."

---

umbrella tent (noun)

A small tent with a single supporting pole and radiating metal ribs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "umbrella tent."
- The article explained what "umbrella tent" means with a simple example.

---

unofficial (adjective)

Not having official authority or sanction.

- A sort of unofficial mayor.
- An unofficial estimate.

Feelings & Emotions

proud (adjective)

Feeling pleased and satisfied about something you or someone close to you has done.

- Her parents were very proud when she finished university.
- I am proud of myself for finishing the race.

---

nervous (adjective)

Feeling worried or a little afraid about something that is going to happen.

- He was nervous before his first job interview.
- I always get nervous when I have to speak in front of many people.

---

surprised (adjective)

Feeling shocked or amazed because something unexpected happened.

- She was surprised to see snow in April.
- I was surprised when my old friend called me after ten years.

---

happy (adjective)

Feeling pleasure or contentment.

- The children were happy to see their grandparents.

- I feel happy when I listen to music.

---

sad (adjective)

Feeling unhappy or showing unhappiness.

- She felt sad when her friend moved away.
- The movie had a sad ending.

---

angry (adjective)

Feeling strong dislike or annoyance toward someone or something.

- He was angry because someone scratched his car.
- Try not to get angry over small mistakes.

---

afraid (adjective)

Feeling fear; worried that something bad will happen.

- The little girl is afraid of the dark.
- I am afraid we will miss the train.

---

lonely (adjective)

Unhappy because you are alone or have few friends.

- He felt lonely in the new city.
- Living alone can make some people lonely.

---

excited (adjective)

Feeling very happy and eager about something that is going to happen.

- The kids are excited about the school trip.
- I am excited to start my new job.

---

bored (adjective)

Feeling tired and unhappy because something is not interesting.

- The students looked bored during the long lecture.
- I get bored when I have nothing to do.

---

shy (adjective)

Nervous or uncomfortable with other people, especially people you do not know well.

- He is shy and does not talk much at parties.
- She was too shy to ask a question.

---

worried (adjective)

Thinking about problems or unpleasant things that might happen.

- Parents often feel worried when their children are late.
- I am worried about the exam results.

---

a-one (adjective)

Of the highest quality.

- Would you call this situation “a-one”? Explain why.
- Students compared “a-one” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

like (verb)

Feel about or towards; consider, evaluate, or regard.

- How did you like the President’s speech last night?
- Would you like to come along to the movies?

---

get to (verb)

Cause annoyance in; disturb, especially by minor irritations.

- She gets to fretting if I stay away from home too long.
- In everyday English, people use “get to” when talking about this idea.

---

new (adjective)

Not of long duration; having just (or relatively recently) come into being or been made or acquired or discovered.

- A new law.
- New cars.

---

one-to-one (adjective)

Used of relations such that each member of one set is associated with one member of a second set.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one-to-one."
- Would you call this situation "one-to-one"? Explain why.

---

get at (verb)

Cause annoyance in; disturb, especially by minor irritations.

- I cannot get to the T.V. antenna, even if I climb on the roof.
- Can you use "get at" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

good (noun)

That which is pleasing or valuable or useful.

- Weigh the good against the bad.
- Among the highest goods of all are happiness and self-realization.

---

one-on-one (adjective)

Being a system of play in which an individual defensive player guards an individual offensive player.

- One-on-one defense.
- One-on-one instruction.

---

all-time (adjective)

Unsurpassed in some respect up to the present.

- Prices at an all-time high.
- Morale at an all-time low.

---

one-time (adjective)

Belonging to some prior time.

- It is useful to describe something as "one-time" when it is belonging to some prior time.
- A "one-time" approach may work better in this case.

---

good for you (adjective)

Promoting health; healthful; ; ; ; ; - C.B.Davis.

- Healthy and normal outlets for youthful energy.
- Carrots are good for you.

---

said (adjective)

Being the one previously mentioned or spoken of.

- Said party has denied the charges.
- The speaker chose "said" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

on the go (adjective)

(of a person) very busy and active.

- Is always on the go.
- Students compared "on the go" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

good will (noun)

A disposition to kindness and compassion.

- The article explained what "good will" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good will."

---

one and only (adjective)

Eminent beyond or above comparison.

- She's one girl in a million.
- The one and only Muhammad Ali.

---

made (adjective)

(of a bed) having the sheets and blankets set in order.

- A neatly made bed.
- A "made" approach may work better in this case.

---

no-good (adjective)

Returned for lack of funds.

- A no-good check.
- The car was a no-good piece of junk.

---

many (adjective)

A quantifier that can be used with count nouns and is often preceded by 'as' or 'too' or 'so' or 'that'; amounting to a large but indefinite number.

- Many temptations.
- The temptations are many.

---

take to (verb)

Have a fancy or particular liking or desire for.

- Men take to the military trades.
- She tried to use "take to" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

good-time (adjective)

Occupied with or fond of the pleasures of good company.

- He was a real good-time Charlie.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "good-time."

---

on-going (adjective)

Currently happening.

- It is useful to describe something as "on-going" when it is currently happening.
- A "on-going" approach may work better in this case.

---

many a (adjective)

Each of a large indefinite number.

- Many a man.
- Many another day will come.

---

one-way (adjective)

Moving or permitting movement in one direction only.

- One-way streets.
- A one-way ticket.

---

through (adjective)

Having finished or arrived at completion.

- After the treatment, the patient is through except for follow-up.
- Almost through with his studies.

---

well up (verb)

Come up (as of feelings and thoughts, or other ephemeral things).

- Strong emotions welled up.
- Smoke swelled from it.

---

no-go (adjective)

Not functioning properly or in suitable condition for proceeding.

- The space launch was no-go.
- It is useful to describe something as "no-go" when it is not functioning properly or in suitable condition....

way-out (adjective)

Informal terms; strikingly unconventional.

- It is useful to describe something as "way-out" when it is informal terms; strikingly unconventional.
- The speaker chose "way-out" because it captured the feeling precisely.

well-to-do (adjective)

In fortunate circumstances financially; moderately rich.

- Well-to-do members of the community.
- Students compared "well-to-do" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

one-year (adjective)

Completing its life cycle within a year.

- Would you call this situation "one-year"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "one-year" when it is completing its life cycle within a year.

out-of-the-way (adjective)

Remote from populous or much-traveled regions.

- They found a quiet out-of-the-way resort.
- Out-of-the-way information.

through with (adjective)

Having finished or arrived at completion.

- After the treatment, the patient is through except for follow-up.
- Almost through with his studies.

love (noun)

A deep feeling of sexual desire and attraction.

- Their love left them indifferent to their surroundings.
- She was his first love.

many an (adjective)

Each of a large indefinite number.

- Many a man.
- Many another day will come.

long (adjective)

Of relatively great height; - Sherwood Anderson.

- A race of long gaunt men.
- Looked out the long French windows.

look (noun)

The feelings expressed on a person's face.

- A look of triumph.
- He went out to have a look.

in love (adjective)

Marked by foolish or unreasoning fondness.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "in love."
- Students compared "in love" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

in use (adjective)

(of facilities such as telephones or lavatories) unavailable for use by anyone else or indicating unavailability; ('engaged' is a British term for a busy telephone line).

- The lavatory is in use.
- Robots are in use throughout industry.

say-so (noun)

The power or right to give orders or make decisions.

- He looked up "say-so" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "say-so" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

used (adjective)

Employed in accomplishing something; - H.H.Arnold & I.C.Eaker.

- The principle of surprise is the most used and misused of all the principles of war.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "used."

---

every (adjective)

Each and all of a series of entities or intervals as specified.

- Every third seat.
- Every two hours.

---

made-up (adjective)

Having been paved.

- The speaker chose "made-up" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "made-up" when it is having been paved.

---

used to (adjective)

In the habit; ; ; - Henry David Thoreau.

- I am used to hitchhiking.
- You'll get used to the idea.

---

come-on (noun)

Qualities that attract by seeming to promise some kind of reward.

- Understanding "come-on" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "come-on."

---

old (adjective)

Of long duration; not new.

- Old tradition.
- Old house.

---

two-way (adjective)

Operating or permitting operation in either of two opposite directions.

- A two-way valve.
- Two-way traffic.

---

another (adjective)

Any of various alternatives; some other.

- Put it off to another (or some other) day.
- The speaker chose "another" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

back-to-back (adjective)

One after the other.

- Back-to-back home runs.
- The speaker chose "back-to-back" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

first-year (adjective)

Used of a person in the first year of an experience (especially in United States high school or college).

- Students compared "first-year" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "first-year."

---

get down (verb)

Lower someone's spirits; make downhearted.

- Get down on your knees!

- Take down the vase from the shelf.

---

get through (verb)

Become clear or enter one's consciousness or emotions.

- I finally got through this homework assignment.
- We finally got through the bureaucracy and could talk to the Minister.

---

one-man (adjective)

Designed for or restricted to a single person.

- A one-man show.
- A "one-man" approach may work better in this case.

---

get-up-and-go (noun)

Enterprising or ambitious drive.

- They discussed "get-up-and-go" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "get-up-and-go" means with a simple example.

---

two-year (adjective)

Having a life cycle lasting two seasons.

- Would you call this situation "two-year"? Explain why.
- Students compared "two-year" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

look up to (verb)

Feel admiration for.

- In everyday English, people use "look up to" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "look up to" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

out of use (adjective)

Closed to traffic.

- It is useful to describe something as "out of use" when it is closed to traffic.
- The speaker chose "out of use" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

well-off (adjective)

In fortunate circumstances financially; moderately rich.

- Doesn't know when he's well-off.
- Students compared "well-off" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

big (adjective)

Above average in size or number or quantity or magnitude or extent.

- Set out for the big city.
- A big (or large) barn.

---

feel (noun)

The general atmosphere of a place or situation and the effect that it has on people.

- The feel of the city excited him.
- He has a feel for animals.

---

right of way (noun)

The right of one vehicle or vessel to take precedence over another.

- He looked up "right of way" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "right of way" during the group presentation.

---

see-through (adjective)

So thin as to transmit light.

- The speaker chose "see-through" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "see-through" when it is so thin as to transmit light.

---

sure (adjective)

Having or feeling no doubt or uncertainty; confident and assured.

- Was sure (or certain) she had seen it.
- Was very sure in his beliefs.

---

well-made (adjective)

Skillfully constructed.

- It is useful to describe something as "well-made" when it is skillfully constructed.
- A "well-made" approach may work better in this case.

---

please (verb)

Give pleasure to or be pleasing to.

- These colors please the senses.
- He could do many things if he pleased.

---

feel for (verb)

Share the suffering of.

- In everyday English, people use "feel for" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "feel for" in real sentences.

---

day-to-day (adjective)

Of or belonging to or occurring every day.

- A "day-to-day" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "day-to-day" when it is of or belonging to or occurring every day.

---

old-time (adjective)

Attractively old-fashioned (but not necessarily authentic).

- A vaulted roof supporting old-time chimney pots.
- The speaker chose "old-time" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

make love (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- She tried to use "make love" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "make love" and when to wait.

---

good part (noun)

A place of especial strength.

- Understanding "good part" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good part."

---

out of place (adverb)

In a setting where one is or feels inappropriate or incongruous.

- He felt out of place in the lingerie shop.
- Place "out of place" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

right to life (noun)

The right to live.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right to life."
- They discussed "right to life" during the group presentation.

---

right-down (adjective)

Complete and without restriction or qualification; sometimes used informally as intensifiers.

- Many right-down vices.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "right-down."

---

day-by-day (adjective)

Of or belonging to or occurring every day.

- The speaker chose "day-by-day" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "day-by-day" approach may work better in this case.

---

two-part (adjective)

Involving two parts or elements.

- Would you call this situation "two-part"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "two-part" when it is involving two parts or elements.

---

feel like (verb)

Have an inclination for something or some activity.

- I feel like staying in bed all day.
- I feel like a cold beer now.

---

different (adjective)

Unlike in nature or quality or form or degree.

- Took different approaches to the problem.
- Came to a different conclusion.

---

feel out (verb)

Try to learn someone's opinions and intentions.

- I have to sound out the new professor.
- She tried to use "feel out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

put-up (adjective)

Planned secretly.

- It was a put-up job.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "put-up."

---

done (adjective)

Having finished or arrived at completion.

- Certain to make history before he's done.
- It's a done deed.

---

however (adverb)

To whatever degree or extent.

- The results, however general, are important.
- They have begun, however reluctantly, to acknowledge the legitimacy of some of the opposition's concerns.

---

three-way (adjective)

Involving three parties or elements.

- A three-way playoff.
- It is useful to describe something as "three-way" when it is involving three parties or elements.

---

man-made (adjective)

Not of natural origin; prepared or made artificially.

- Man-made fibers.
- It is useful to describe something as "man-made" when it is not of natural origin; prepared or made artificially.

---

set on (verb)

Attack someone physically or emotionally.

- In everyday English, people use "set on" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "set on" until he saw an example.

---

all-night (adjective)

Lasting, open, or operating through the whole night.

- An all-night drugstore.
- Would you call this situation "all-night"? Explain why.

done for (adjective)

Doomed to extinction.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "done for."
- Would you call this situation "done for"? Explain why.

done with (adjective)

Having no further concern with; - John Dos Passos.

- He was through with school and he was through with family.
- Done with gambling.

city-like (adjective)

Resembling a city.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "city-like."
- The speaker chose "city-like" because it captured the feeling precisely.

long-life (adjective)

(of perishable goods) treated to stay fresh longer than usual.

- Long-life milk.
- A "long-life" approach may work better in this case.

love life (noun)

Sexual activities (often including sexual intercourse) between two people.

- His lovemaking disgusted her.
- He hadn't had any love in months.

year-around (adjective)

Operating or continuing throughout the year.

- A "year-around" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "year-around"? Explain why.

better off (adjective)

In a more fortunate or prosperous condition.

- She would have been better off if she had stuck with teaching.
- Is better off than his classmate.

day-old (adjective)

Not fresh today.

- Day-old bread is cheaper than fresh.
- Students compared "day-old" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

in-person (adjective)

An appearance carried out personally in someone else's physical presence.

- A "in-person" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "in-person" when it is an appearance carried out personally in someone....

own right (noun)

By title vested in yourself or by virtue of qualifications that you have achieved.

- A peer in his own right.
- A leading sports figure in his own right.

so-called (adjective)

Doubtful or suspect.

- These so-called experts are no help.
- Would you call this situation "so-called"? Explain why.

bad (noun)

That which is below standard or expectations as of ethics or decency.

- Take the bad with the good.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bad."

---

day-after-day (adjective)

Of or belonging to or occurring every day.

- Would you call this situation "day-after-day"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "day-after-day."

---

every last (adjective)

(used as intensive) every.

- Every last one of you.
- The speaker chose "every last" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

look down on (verb)

Regard with contempt.

- The new neighbor looks down on us because our house is very modest.
- The coach explained when to use "look down on" and when to wait.

---

many another (adjective)

Each of a large indefinite number.

- Many a man.
- Many another day will come.

---

well-found (adjective)

Having a full array of suitable equipment or furnishings.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-found."
- Would you call this situation "well-found"? Explain why.

---

based (adjective)

Having a base of operations (often used as a combining form).

- A locally based business.
- An Atlanta-based company.

---

man-to-man (adjective)

Being a system of play in which an individual defensive player guards an individual offensive player.

- Had a man-to-man talk about the facts of life.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "man-to-man."

---

old-world (adjective)

Characteristic of former times especially in Europe.

- An old-world cottage.
- Students compared "old-world" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

small (adjective)

Limited or below average in number or quantity or magnitude or extent.

- A small car.
- A little (or small) group.

---

one-person (adjective)

Designed for or restricted to a single person.

- A one-person tent.
- Students compared "one-person" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

do-nothing (adjective)

Characterized by inability or unwillingness to work toward a goal or assume responsibility.

- A do-nothing government.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "do-nothing."

---

left over (adjective)

Not used up.

- Leftover meatloaf.
- She had a little money left over so she went to a movie.

---

one-year-old (adjective)

One year of age.

- It is useful to describe something as "one-year-old" when it is one year of age.
- The speaker chose "one-year-old" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

order (noun)

A degree in a continuum of size or quantity.

- It was on the order of a mile.
- An explosion of a low order of magnitude.

---

show off (verb)

Display proudly; act ostentatiously or pretentiously.

- He showed off his new sports car.
- The coach explained when to use "show off" and when to wait.

---

in line (adjective)

Awaiting something; especially something due.

- People were in line at the checkout counter.
- She was in line for promotion.

---

in order (adjective)

In a state of proper readiness or preparation or arrangement.

- Everything is in order for their arrival.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "in order."

---

last-place (adjective)

Lowest in rank or importance.

- Would you call this situation "last-place"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "last-place" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

all-or-nothing (adjective)

Occurring completely or not occurring at all.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "all-or-nothing."
- The speaker chose "all-or-nothing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

full-time (adjective)

For the entire time appropriate to an activity.

- A full-time job.
- A "full-time" approach may work better in this case.

---

go-as-you-please (adjective)

Not bound by rule or law or convention; - George Saintsbury.

- Bewildered by the old go-as-you-please liberty of alliterative rhythm.
- Would you call this situation "go-as-you-please"? Explain why.

---

hard up (adjective)

Not having enough money to pay for necessities.

- Students compared "hard up" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "hard up" approach may work better in this case.

---

next-to-last (adjective)

Used of the third or next to final year in United States high school or college.

- The figures in the next-to-last column.
- It is useful to describe something as "next-to-last" when it is used of the third or next to final year in united....

---

on-line (adjective)

On a regular route of a railroad or bus or airline system.

- On-line industries.
- An on-line database.

---

trying (adjective)

Extremely irritating to the nerves.

- A trying day at the office.
- Fell upon trying times.

---

united (adjective)

Characterized by unity; being or joined into a single entity.

- Presented a united front.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "united."

---

will power (noun)

The trait of resolutely controlling your own behavior.

- The article explained what "will power" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "will power" to mean the trait of resolutely controlling your own behavior.

---

black (adjective)

Of or belonging to a racial group having dark skin especially of sub-Saharan African origin; - Martin Luther King Jr.

- A great people–a black people–...injected new meaning and dignity into the veins of civilization.
- Black leather jackets.

---

good-looking (adjective)

Pleasing in appearance especially by reason of conformity to ideals of form and proportion; ; ; ; - Thackeray; - Lillian Hellman.

- A good-looking man.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "good-looking."

---

second-year (adjective)

Used of the second year in United States high school or college.

- Students compared "second-year" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "second-year"? Explain why.

---

face (noun)

The feelings expressed on a person's face.

- An angry face.
- He washed his face.

---

far-out (adjective)

Informal terms; strikingly unconventional.

- It is useful to describe something as "far-out" when it is informal terms; strikingly unconventional.
- Students compared "far-out" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

one-party (adjective)

Determined by a single party.

- The speaker chose "one-party" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one-party."

---

over-the-top (adjective)

Far more than usual or expected.

- It was an over-the-top experience.
- It is useful to describe something as "over-the-top" when it is far more than usual or expected.

---

put down (verb)

Reduce in worth or character, usually verbally.

- She tends to put down younger women colleagues.
- His critics took him down after the lecture.

---

well-done (adjective)

(meat) cooked until there is no pink meat left inside.

- The speaker chose "well-done" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "well-done"? Explain why.

---

well-set (adjective)

Strongly and firmly constructed; ; ; ; - Alexander Hamilton.

- A sailor short but well-set.
- The speaker chose "well-set" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

well-thought-of (adjective)

Receiving deferential regard.

- Students compared "well-thought-of" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-thought-of."

---

day-and-night (adjective)

At all times.

- A "day-and-night" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "day-and-night" when it is at all times.

---

good enough (adjective)

Adequately good for the circumstances.

- If it's good enough for you it's good enough for me.
- A "good enough" approach may work better in this case.

---

hope (noun)

The general feeling that some desire will be fulfilled.

- In spite of his troubles he never gave up hope.
- It revived their hope of winning the pennant.

---

important (adjective)

Of extreme importance; vital to the resolution of a crisis.

- Important people.
- The important questions of the day.

---

least (adjective)

The superlative of 'little' that can be used with mass nouns and is usually preceded by 'the'; a quantifier meaning smallest in amount or extent or degree.

- Didn't care the least bit.
- He has the least talent of anyone.

---

small-time (adjective)

Of minor importance.

- A small-time actor.
- A "small-time" approach may work better in this case.

---

take-away (adjective)

Of or involving food to be taken and eaten off the premises.

- 'take-away' is chiefly British.
- It is useful to describe something as "take-away" when it is of or involving food to be taken and eaten off the....

two-year-old (adjective)

Two years of age.

- It is useful to describe something as "two-year-old" when it is two years of age.
- A "two-year-old" approach may work better in this case.

able (adjective)

(usually followed by 'to') having the necessary means or skill or know-how or authority to do something.

- Able to swim.
- She was able to program her computer.

early (adjective)

Of an early stage in the development of a language or literature.

- The Early Hebrew alphabetical script is that used mainly from the 11th to the 6th centuries B.C.
- Early Modern English is represented in documents printed from 1476 to 1700.

young (adjective)

(used of living things especially persons) in an early period of life or development or growth.

- Young people.
- Students compared "young" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

ago (adjective)

Gone by; or in the past.

- Two years ago.
- 'agone' is an archaic word for 'ago'.

first water (noun)

The highest quality gems.

- The article explained what "first water" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "first water" to mean the highest quality gems.

let down (verb)

Fail to meet the hopes or expectations of.

- Her boyfriend let her down when he did not propose marriage.
- Take down the vase from the shelf.

well-read (adjective)

Well informed or deeply versed through reading.

- Respect for a well-read man.
- Well-read in medieval history.

free love (noun)

Sexual intercourse between individuals who are not married to one another.

- In class, the teacher used "free love" to mean sexual intercourse between individuals who are not....
- They discussed "free love" during the group presentation.

in-your-face (adjective)

Blatantly aggressive.

- On-line hard-boiled in-your-face pornography.
- The speaker chose "in-your-face" because it captured the feeling precisely.

well thought out (adjective)

Resulting from careful thought.

- The paper was well thought out.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well thought out."

all important (adjective)

Of the greatest importance.

- The all-important subject of disarmament.
- The speaker chose "all important" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

all-important (adjective)

Of the greatest importance.

- The all-important subject of disarmament.
- Students compared "all-important" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

on hand (adjective)

Readily available.

- There will be a wealth of information on hand from the lawyers.
- Students compared "on hand" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

top-down (adjective)

Of an approach to a problem that begins at the highest conceptual level and works down to the details.

- A top-down analysis might begin by looking at macro-economic trends.
- Top-down programming.

---

true to (adjective)

Sexually faithful.

- She was true to her significant other.
- A "true to" approach may work better in this case.

---

at hand (adjective)

Close in space; within reach.

- The town is close at hand.
- Retribution is at hand.

---

in a bad way (adjective)

Facing or experiencing financial trouble or difficulty.

- Found themselves in a bad way financially.
- Would you call this situation "in a bad way"? Explain why.

---

known (adjective)

Apprehended with certainty.

- A known quantity.
- The limits of the known world.

---

large (adjective)

Above average in size or number or quantity or magnitude or extent.

- A large city.
- A large sum.

---

lost (adjective)

Spiritually or physically doomed or destroyed.

- Lost souls.
- A lost generation.

---

several (adjective)

(used with count nouns) of an indefinite number more than 2 or 3 but not many.

- Several letters came in the mail.
- Several people were injured in the accident.

---

sure thing (noun)

Something that is certain.

- The article explained what "sure thing" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sure thing."

---

too bad (adjective)

Deserving regret.

- It's too bad he had no feeling himself for church.
- A "too bad" approach may work better in this case.

---

two-party (adjective)

Supported by both sides.

- The speaker chose "two-party" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "two-party" when it is supported by both sides.

---

water right (noun)

Right of access to water.

- They discussed "water right" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "water right" because he had never seen it before.

---

wrong (noun)

That which is contrary to the principles of justice or law.

- He feels that you are in the wrong.
- They discussed "wrong" during the group presentation.

---

at large (adjective)

Having escaped, especially from confinement.

- A convict still at large.
- It is useful to describe something as "at large" when it is having escaped, especially from confinement.

---

end-to-end (adjective)

With the end of one object in contact lengthwise with the end of another object.

- The speaker chose "end-to-end" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "end-to-end" when it is with the end of one object in contact lengthwise....

---

far-right (adjective)

Extremely conservative.

- It is useful to describe something as "far-right" when it is extremely conservative.
- Would you call this situation "far-right"? Explain why.

---

full of life (adjective)

Full of spirit.

- A dynamic full of life woman.
- It is useful to describe something as "full of life" when it is full of spirit.

---

off-white (noun)

A shade of white the color of bleached bones.

- They discussed "off-white" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "off-white" means with a simple example.

---

far-off (adjective)

Very far away in space or time.

- Troops landing on far-off shores.
- Far-off happier times.

---

international (adjective)

Concerning or belonging to all or at least two or more nations.

- International affairs.
- An international agreement.

---

looks (noun)

The feelings expressed on a person's face.

- I don't like the looks of this place.
- In class, the teacher used "looks" to mean the feelings expressed on a person's face.

---

making love (noun)

Sexual activities (often including sexual intercourse) between two people.

- His lovemaking disgusted her.
- He hadn't had any love in months.

---

off-line (adjective)

Not on a regular route of a transportation system.

- An off-line ticket office.
- Off-line resources.

---

wanted (adjective)

Characterized by feeling or showing fond affection for.

- So good to feel wanted.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wanted."

---

better-looking (adjective)

Pleasing in appearance especially by reason of conformity to ideals of form and proportion; ; ; - Thackeray; - Lillian Hellman.

- Better-looking than her sister.
- It is useful to describe something as "better-looking" when it is pleasing in appearance especially by reason of....

---

get-at-able (adjective)

Capable of being reached or attained.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "get-at-able."
- The speaker chose "get-at-able" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

high-top (adjective)

(of shoes or boots) having relatively high uppers.

- Would you call this situation "high-top"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "high-top" when it is (of shoes or boots) having relatively high uppers.

---

human (adjective)

Having human form or attributes as opposed to those of animals or divine beings.

- Human beings.
- The human body.

---

made-to-order (adjective)

(of clothing) custom-made.

- Students compared "made-to-order" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "made-to-order"? Explain why.

---

out of true (adjective)

Not accurately fitted; not level.

- The frame was out of true.
- Off-level floors and untrue doors and windows.

---

real thing (noun)

Informal usage attributing authenticity.

- In class, the teacher used "real thing" to mean informal usage attributing authenticity.
- Understanding "real thing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

up-and-coming (adjective)

Working hard to promote an enterprise.

- The speaker chose “up-and-coming” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation “up-and-coming”? Explain why.

---

in question (adjective)

Open to doubt or suspicion; ; ; ; - Karen Horney.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “in question.”
- Students compared “in question” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

in series (adjective)

Of or relating to the sequential performance of multiple operations.

- Students compared “in series” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “in series.”

---

late (adjective)

Of a later stage in the development of a language or literature; used especially of dead languages.

- Late Greek.
- Late evening.

---

three-year-old (adjective)

Three years of age.

- Students compared “three-year-old” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “three-year-old.”

---

ask for (verb)

Increase the likelihood of.

- Ask for trouble.
- Learners should practice how to use “ask for” in real sentences.

---

no-hit (adjective)

Of a game (or the pitching) in which a pitcher allows the opponent no hits.

- A no-hit pitcher.
- A no-hit game.

---

right-side-out (adjective)

Of fabric or clothing.

- A “right-side-out” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “right-side-out”? Explain why.

---

right-side-up (adjective)

Of objects having a top and bottom.

- Students compared “right-side-up” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as “right-side-up” when it is of objects having a top and bottom.

---

short (adjective)

Of speech sounds or syllables of relatively short duration.

- The English vowel sounds in ‘pat’, ‘pet’, ‘pit’, ‘pot’, putt’ are short.
- A short life.

---

taken (adjective)

Understood in a certain way; made sense of.

- A word taken literally.
- A smile taken as consent.

---

after-hours (adjective)

After closing time especially a legally established closing time.

- After-hours socializing.
- An after-hours club.

high-power (adjective)

Vigorously energetic or forceful.

- High-powered executives.
- Students compared "high-power" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

love line (noun)

A crease on the palm; palmists say it indicates your emotional nature.

- In class, the teacher used "love line" to mean a crease on the palm; palmists say it indicates....
- The article explained what "love line" means with a simple example.

of age (adjective)

Having attained a specific age; (‘aged‘ is pronounced as one syllable).

- Aged ten.
- Ten years of age.

one-woman (adjective)

Designed for or restricted to a single person.

- Sarah Silverman's hilarious one-woman show.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one-woman."

taken with (adjective)

Marked by foolish or unreasoning fondness.

- He was infatuated with her.
- A "taken with" approach may work better in this case.

up in the air (adjective)

Very uncertain.

- Left everything up in the air.
- Plans are still up in the air.

heart (noun)

An inclination or tendency of a certain kind.

- He had a change of heart.
- In your heart you know it is true.

out of the question (adjective)

Totally unlikely.

- Would you call this situation "out of the question"? Explain why.
- A "out of the question" approach may work better in this case.

saw-like (adjective)

Having rough edges that can be used for sawing.

- A "saw-like" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "saw-like"? Explain why.

three-party (adjective)

Involving three parties or elements.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "three-party."
- Would you call this situation "three-party"? Explain why.

turn on (verb)

Cause to be agitated, excited, or roused.

- Turn on the stereo.
- Turn on the charm.

fun (noun)

A disposition to find (or make) causes for amusement.

- He was fun to be with.
- I do it for the fun of it.

---

love story (noun)

A story dealing with love.

- The article explained what "love story" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "love story."

---

old-line (adjective)

Adhering to conservative or reactionary principles.

- Would you call this situation "old-line"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "old-line" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

right-hand (adjective)

Most helpful and reliable.

- My right-hand man.
- A right-hand turn.

---

sure-enough (adjective)

(used informally especially for emphasis).

- Went upriver to look at a sure-enough fish wheel.
- Students compared "sure-enough" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

well-known (adjective)

Frequently experienced; known closely or intimately.

- A well-known voice reached her ears.
- A well-known politician.

---

easy (adjective)

Posing no difficulty; requiring little effort.

- An easy job.
- An easy problem.

---

good looks (noun)

The quality of having regular well-defined features (especially of a man).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good looks."
- They discussed "good looks" during the group presentation.

---

hard put (adjective)

Facing or experiencing financial trouble or difficulty.

- Financially hard-pressed Mexican hotels are lowering their prices.
- We were hard put to meet the mortgage payment.

---

hard to please (adjective)

(of persons).

- His father was a hard-to-please taskmaster.
- Was very hard to please.

---

hard-to-please (adjective)

(of persons).

- His father was a hard-to-please taskmaster.
- Students compared "hard-to-please" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

light time (noun)

Distance measured in terms of the speed of light (or radio waves).

- The light time from Jupiter to the sun is approximately 43 minutes.

- The article explained what “light time” means with a simple example.

---

near (adjective)

Not far distant in time or space or degree or circumstances.

- Near neighbors.
- In the near future.

---

on fire (adjective)

Lighted up by or as by fire or flame.

- Forests set ablaze (or afire) by lightning.
- A night aflare with fireworks.

---

taken up (adjective)

Having or showing excessive or compulsive concern with something.

- He was taken up in worry for the old woman.
- It is useful to describe something as “taken up” when it is having or showing excessive or compulsive concern....

---

with child (adjective)

In an advanced stage of pregnancy.

- Was big with child.
- Was great with child.

---

according (adjective)

(followed by ‘to’) as reported or stated by.

- According to historians.
- According to instructions.

---

available (adjective)

Obtainable or accessible and ready for use or service.

- Kept a fire extinguisher available.
- Much information is available through computers.

---

hand-down (adjective)

Passed on from one person to another.

- Would you call this situation “hand-down”? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “hand-down.”

---

list (noun)

The property possessed by a line or surface that departs from the vertical.

- The ship developed a list to starboard.
- In class, the teacher used “list” to mean the property possessed by a line or surface that....

---

make happy (verb)

Celebrate noisily, often indulging in drinking; engage in uproarious festivities.

- She tried to use “make happy” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “make happy” until he saw an example.

---

too large (adjective)

Excessively large.

- A “too large” approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as “too large” when it is excessively large.

---

fire up (verb)

Arouse or excite feelings and passions.

- He did not know how to use “fire up” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “fire up” in real sentences.

---

heard (adjective)

Detected or perceived by the sense of hearing.

- A conversation heard through the wall.
- It is useful to describe something as "heard" when it is detected or perceived by the sense of hearing.

---

in his right mind (adjective)

Behaving responsibly.

- A "in his right mind" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "in his right mind" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

level best (noun)

The greatest possible degree.

- Understanding "level best" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "level best" means with a simple example.

---

life-and-death (adjective)

Vitally important.

- A life-and-death struggle.
- A "life-and-death" approach may work better in this case.

---

long-ago (adjective)

Belonging to time long gone.

- Those long-ago dresses that swished along the floor.
- Would you call this situation "long-ago"? Explain why.

---

on-street (adjective)

At the sides of streets.

- On-street parking is prohibited at rush hour.
- A "on-street" approach may work better in this case.

---

true to life (adjective)

Representing things or actions or conditions as they actually are.

- The novel about ghetto life was true to life.
- True-to-life duck decoys.

---

true-to-life (adjective)

Representing things or actions or conditions as they actually are.

- True-to-life duck decoys.
- A "true-to-life" approach may work better in this case.

---

at the ready (adjective)

Ready for immediate use.

- Soldiers with guns at the ready.
- Students with pens and notebooks at the ready.

---

best-known (adjective)

Most familiar or renowned.

- Stevenson's best-known work is probably 'Treasure Island'.
- It is useful to describe something as "best-known" when it is most familiar or renowned.

---

do-it-yourself (adjective)

Done by yourself.

- Their house was a do-it-yourself project.
- He opened a do-it-yourself store.

---

far left (adjective)

Radical or extremely liberal.

- Students compared "far left" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "far left" when it is radical or extremely liberal.

---

human right (noun)

(law) any basic right or freedom to which all human beings are entitled and in whose exercise a government may not interfere (including rights to life and liberty as well as freedom of thought and expression and equality before the law).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "human right."
- Understanding "human right" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

in her right mind (adjective)

Behaving responsibly.

- It is useful to describe something as "in her right mind" when it is behaving responsibly.
- The speaker chose "in her right mind" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

keep in line (verb)

Control (others or oneself) or influence skillfully, usually to one's advantage.

- The teacher knew how to keep the class in line.
- She keeps in line.

---

life-or-death (adjective)

Vitally important.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "life-or-death."
- A "life-or-death" approach may work better in this case.

---

action (noun)

The trait of being active and energetic and forceful.

- A man of action.
- There were stories of murders and other unnatural actions.

---

come-at-able (adjective)

Capable of being attained or accomplished.

- Art is not something that is come-at-able by dint of study.
- A "come-at-able" approach may work better in this case.

---

form-only (adjective)

Being a matter of form only; lacking substance.

- A form-only requirement that is usually ignored.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "form-only."

---

good form (noun)

Behavior that conforms to social conventions of the time.

- It is not good form to brag about winning.
- They discussed "good form" during the group presentation.

---

high-level (adjective)

At an elevated level in rank or importance.

- A high-level official.
- A high-level corporate briefing.

---

outside (adjective)

Located, suited for, or taking place in the open air.

- An outside margin.
- The speaker chose "outside" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

person-to-person (adjective)

Involving direct communication or contact between persons or parties.

- A person-to-person interview.
- Person-to-person telephone calls.

see red (verb)

Become angry.

- The coach explained when to use "see red" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "see red" carefully so everyone would understand.

better-known (adjective)

More familiar or renowned than the other of two.

- The better-known book of the two.
- It is useful to describe something as "better-known" when it is more familiar or renowned than the other of two.

cost (noun)

The property of having material worth (often indicated by the amount of money something would bring if sold).

- He couldn't calculate the cost of the collection.
- The cost in human life was enormous.

four-year-old (adjective)

Four years of age.

- Would you call this situation "four-year-old"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "four-year-old."

future day (adjective)

Yet to come.

- A future-day Gibbon of Macaulay.
- The speaker chose "future day" because it captured the feeling precisely.

long-playing (adjective)

(used of records) playing at a slower speed and for a longer time than earlier records.

- The speaker chose "long-playing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "long-playing"? Explain why.

main (adjective)

Of force; of the greatest possible intensity.

- By main strength.
- The main doors were of solid glass.

case-by-case (adjective)

Separate and distinct from others of the same kind.

- On a case-by-case basis.
- A "case-by-case" approach may work better in this case.

fine (adjective)

Of textures that are smooth to the touch or substances consisting of relatively small particles.

- Wood with a fine grain.
- Fine powdery snow.

head start (noun)

The advantage gained by beginning early (as in a race).

- With an hour's start he will be hard to catch.
- Understanding "head start" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

in force (adjective)

Exerting force or influence.

- The law is already in effect (or in force).
- It is useful to describe something as "in force" when it is exerting force or influence.

little-known (adjective)

Unknown to most people.

- Would you call this situation "little-known"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "little-known."

---

make fun (verb)

Subject to laughter or ridicule.

- The students poked fun at the inexperienced teacher.
- Can you use "make fun" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

third-year (adjective)

Used of the third or next to final year in United States high school or college.

- A third-year student.
- The speaker chose "third-year" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

beautiful (adjective)

Delighting the senses or exciting intellectual or emotional admiration.

- A beautiful child.
- Beautiful country.

---

low-down (adjective)

Of the most contemptible kind.

- A low-down sneak.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "low-down."

---

self-will (noun)

The trait of resolutely controlling your own behavior.

- They discussed "self-will" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "self-will" because he had never seen it before.

---

sex (noun)

The properties that distinguish organisms on the basis of their reproductive roles.

- She didn't want to know the sex of the foetus.
- They had sex in the back seat.

---

strong (adjective)

Of good quality and condition; solidly built.

- A strong odor of burning rubber.
- 'sing' is a strong verb.

---

at rest (adjective)

In a state of repose or especially sleep.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "at rest."
- Would you call this situation "at rest"? Explain why.

---

four-party (adjective)

Involving four parties.

- A "four-party" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "four-party."

---

get across (verb)

Become clear or enter one's consciousness or emotions.

- I couldn't get across the message.
- Can you use "get across" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

hard-line (adjective)

Firm and uncompromising.

- A hard-line policy.

- Would you call this situation "hard-line"? Explain why.

---

on-site (adjective)

Taking place or located at the site.

- On-site inspection.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "on-site."

---

out-of-town (adjective)

Happening in or being of another town or city.

- An out-of-town tryout.
- An out-of-town school.

---

position (noun)

The arrangement of the body and its limbs.

- Atheists do not enjoy a favorable position in American life.
- The position of the hands on the clock.

---

similar (adjective)

Having the same or similar characteristics.

- Similar food at similar prices.
- Problems similar to mine.

---

take heart (verb)

Gain courage.

- Can you use "take heart" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "take heart" and when to wait.

---

come short (verb)

Fail to meet (expectations or standards).

- The coach explained when to use "come short" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "come short" in real sentences.

---

important-looking (adjective)

Impressive in appearance.

- Would you call this situation "important-looking"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "important-looking" when it is impressive in appearance.

---

in the lead (adjective)

Having the leading position or higher score in a contest.

- The leading team in the pennant race.
- Students compared "in the lead" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lead (noun)

An advantage held by a competitor in a race.

- He took the lead at the last turn.
- The children were playing with lead soldiers.

---

left-hand (adjective)

Intended for the left hand.

- I rarely lose a left-hand glove.
- A car with left-hand drive.

---

light-of-love (noun)

A woman inconstant in love.

- They discussed "light-of-love" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "light-of-love" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

played out (adjective)

Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely exhausted.

- The trembling of his played out limbs.
- Felt completely washed-out.

---

five-year-old (adjective)

Five years of age.

- Would you call this situation "five-year-old"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "five-year-old" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

full-face (adjective)

Looking forward.

- The speaker chose "full-face" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "full-face" when it is looking forward.

---

off-street (adjective)

Not on the streets.

- Off-street parking.
- Off-street unloading of vehicles.

---

out-of-date (adjective)

Old; no longer valid or fashionable.

- Out-of-date ideas.
- A "out-of-date" approach may work better in this case.

---

up-to-date (adjective)

Reflecting the latest information or changes.

- An up-to-date issue of the magazine.
- It is useful to describe something as "up-to-date" when it is reflecting the latest information or changes.

---

a couple of (adjective)

More than one but indefinitely small in number.

- A couple of roses.
- Would you call this situation "a couple of"? Explain why.

---

age-old (adjective)

Belonging to or lasting from times long ago.

- Age-old customs.
- A "age-old" approach may work better in this case.

---

black and white (adjective)

Not having or not capable of producing colors.

- Black-and-white film.
- A black-and-white TV.

---

black-and-white (adjective)

Of a situation that is sharply divided into mutually exclusive categories.

- He rejected a black-and-white world.
- There are no black-and-white certainties.

---

dead-on (adjective)

Accurate and to the point; ; - Peter S.Prescott.

- A dead-on feel for characterization.
- She avoids big scenes...preferring to rely on small gestures and dead-on dialogue.

---

higher (adjective)

Of education beyond the secondary level.

- Higher education.
- Higher learning.

---

love child (noun)

The illegitimate offspring of unmarried parents.

- Understanding "love child" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "love child."

---

needed (adjective)

Necessary for relief or supply.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "needed."
- Students compared "needed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

side by side (adjective)

Nearest in space or position; immediately adjoining without intervening space.

- Our rooms were side by side.
- A city in which communism and democracy had to live side by side.

---

sorry (adjective)

Feeling or expressing regret or sorrow or a sense of loss over something done or undone.

- A "sorry" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "sorry" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

training (noun)

The result of good upbringing (especially knowledge of correct social behavior).

- Understanding "training" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "training" to mean the result of good upbringing (especially knowledge....

---

gold (noun)

Something likened to the metal in brightness or preciousness or superiority etc.

- The child was as good as gold.
- She has a heart of gold.

---

gone (adjective)

Well in the past; former.

- Bygone days.
- Dreams of foregone times.

---

right of action (noun)

The legal right to sue.

- They discussed "right of action" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "right of action" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

self-made (adjective)

Having achieved success or recognition by your own efforts.

- A self-made millionaire.
- Would you call this situation "self-made"? Explain why.

---

take a chance (verb)

Take a risk in the hope of a favorable outcome.

- The coach explained when to use "take a chance" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "take a chance" in real sentences.

---

white hope (noun)

Someone (or something) expected to achieve great success in a given field.

- This company is the great white hope of the nuclear industry's waste management policy.
- The article explained what "white hope" means with a simple example.

certain (adjective)

Established beyond doubt or question; definitely known.

- What is certain is that every effect must have a cause.
- It is certain that they were on the bus.

close set (adjective)

Set close together.

- Close-set eyes.
- Close-set teeth.

close-set (adjective)

Set close together.

- Close-set eyes.
- Close-set teeth.

eyes-only (adjective)

Official classification for documents; meant to be seen by only the person to whom it is directed.

- The speaker chose "eyes-only" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "eyes-only"? Explain why.

hot (adjective)

Of a seeker; very near to the object sought.

- You are hot.
- The fighting became hot and heavy.

inside-out (adjective)

With the inside surface on the outside.

- A "inside-out" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "inside-out" because it captured the feeling precisely.

love song (noun)

A song about love or expressing love for another person.

- The article explained what "love song" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "love song" to mean a song about love or expressing love for another person.

love-song (noun)

A song about love or expressing love for another person.

- He looked up "love-song" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "love-song" to mean a song about love or expressing love for another person.

one-member (adjective)

Based on the system of having only one member from each district (as of a legislature).

- The speaker chose "one-member" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "one-member" when it is based on the system of having only one member from....

received (adjective)

Conforming to the established language usage of educated native speakers; (American); (British).

- Received standard English is sometimes called the King's English.
- A "received" approach may work better in this case.

sent (adjective)

Caused or enabled to go or be conveyed or transmitted.

- Students compared "sent" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "sent" when it is caused or enabled to go or be conveyed or transmitted.

state-of-the-art (adjective)

The highest level of development at a particular time (especially the present time).

- State-of-the-art technology.
- A "state-of-the-art" approach may work better in this case.

---

tried (adjective)

Tested and proved useful or correct.

- Would you call this situation "tried"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tried."

---

under fire (adjective)

Subjected to enemy attack or censure.

- An official under fire for mismanagement.
- It is useful to describe something as "under fire" when it is subjected to enemy attack or censure.

---

water level (noun)

The level of the surface of a body of water.

- Spring rains had raised the water table.
- They discussed "water level" during the group presentation.

---

common good (noun)

The good of a community.

- Understanding "common good" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common good."

---

cool (noun)

The quality of being at a refreshingly low temperature.

- The cool of early morning.
- Keep your cool.

---

hands-on (adjective)

Involving active participation.

- He's a hands-on manager.
- Hands-on operations.

---

relationship (noun)

A state of connectedness between people (especially an emotional connection).

- He didn't want his wife to know of the relationship.
- The relationship between mothers and their children.

---

self-love (noun)

An exceptional interest in and admiration for yourself.

- Self-love that shut out everyone else.
- The article explained what "self-love" means with a simple example.

---

sure-fire (adjective)

Certain to be successful.

- A sure-fire way to get rich.
- Would you call this situation "sure-fire"? Explain why.

---

a-ok (adjective)

In perfect condition or order.

- It is useful to describe something as "a-ok" when it is in perfect condition or order.
- Would you call this situation "a-ok"? Explain why.

---

cool it (verb)

Become quiet or calm, especially after a state of agitation.

- After the fight both men need to cool off.

- The coach explained when to use "cool it" and when to wait.

---

feel like a million (verb)

Be in excellent health and spirits.

- He feels like a million after he got the promotion.
- Learners should practice how to use "feel like a million" in real sentences.

---

in evidence (adjective)

Clearly to be seen.

- They were much in evidence during the fighting.
- She made certain that her engagement ring was in evidence.

---

low-set (adjective)

Short and thick; as e.g. having short legs and heavy musculature.

- A stocky low-set animal.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "low-set."

---

off-site (adjective)

Taking place or located away from the site.

- An off-site waste treatment operation.
- A "off-site" approach may work better in this case.

---

rate (noun)

The relative speed of progress or change.

- He works at a great rate.
- The pace of events accelerated.

---

whatever (adjective)

One or some or every or all without specification.

- Give me whatever peaches you don't want.
- It is useful to describe something as "whatever" when it is one or some or every or all without specification.

---

worked up (adjective)

(of persons) excessively affected by emotion.

- She was worked up about all the noise.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "worked up."

---

amount (noun)

The relative magnitude of something with reference to a criterion.

- An adequate amount of food for four people.
- The amount he had in cash was insufficient.

---

fall (noun)

A sudden sharp decrease in some quantity.

- When that became known the price of their stock went into free fall.
- In the fall of 1973.

---

feeling (noun)

A physical sensation that you experience.

- He had a queasy feeling.
- I had a strange feeling in my leg.

---

free living (noun)

A lifestyle given to easy indulgence of the appetites.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "free living."
- They discussed "free living" during the group presentation.

---

free-living (adjective)

Not parasitic on another organism.

- Would you call this situation "free-living"? Explain why.
- A "free-living" approach may work better in this case.

---

in league (adjective)

(usually followed by 'with') united in effort as if in a league.

- They found out that some policemen were in league with the criminals.
- Students compared "in league" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

long-term (adjective)

Relating to or extending over a relatively long time.

- The long-term reconstruction of countries damaged by the war.
- A long-term investment.

---

size (noun)

The physical magnitude of something (how big it is).

- A wolf is about the size of a large dog.
- He wears a size 13 shoe.

---

trust (noun)

The trait of believing in the honesty and reliability of others.

- The experience destroyed his trust and personal dignity.
- He is the beneficiary of a generous trust set up by his father.

---

fall for (verb)

Fall in love with; become infatuated with.

- She fell for the man from Brazil.
- He fell for her charms.

---

forward (adjective)

Of the transmission gear causing forward movement in a motor vehicle.

- In a forward gear.
- The forward section of the aircraft.

---

free-and-easy (adjective)

Natural and unstudied.

- Lectured in a free-and-easy style.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "free-and-easy."

---

off-center (adjective)

Situated away from the center or axis.

- A "off-center" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "off-center" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

open-air (adjective)

In the open air.

- An open-air theater.
- The speaker chose "open-air" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

paid (adjective)

Marked by the reception of pay.

- Paid work.
- A paid official.

---

stand-up (adjective)

Requiring a standing position.

- A stand-up bar.
- A stand-up comic.

---

various (adjective)

Of many different kinds purposefully arranged but lacking any uniformity.

- His disguises are many and various.
- Various experiments have failed to disprove the theory.

---

wish well (verb)

Feel or express a desire or hope concerning the future or fortune of.

- He did not know how to use "wish well" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "wish well" and when to wait.

---

wrong-side-out (adjective)

With the inside surface on the outside.

- Would you call this situation "wrong-side-out"? Explain why.
- A "wrong-side-out" approach may work better in this case.

---

close together (adjective)

Located close together.

- With heads close together.
- Approximate leaves grow together but are not united.

---

hand-to-hand (adjective)

Being at close quarters.

- Hand-to-hand fighting.
- A "hand-to-hand" approach may work better in this case.

---

hate (verb)

Dislike intensely; feel antipathy or aversion towards.

- I hate Mexican food.
- The coach explained when to use "hate" and when to wait.

---

in style (adjective)

In the current fashion or style.

- Students compared "in style" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "in style."

---

in-chief (adjective)

Indicating the head of a staff.

- Editor-in-chief.
- The speaker chose "in-chief" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

matter-of-course (adjective)

Expected or depended upon as a natural or logical outcome.

- A "matter-of-course" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "matter-of-course" when it is expected or depended upon as a natural or logical....

---

on-key (adjective)

In tune; accurate in pitch.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "on-key."
- Students compared "on-key" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

present-day (adjective)

Belonging to the present time.

- Students compared "present-day" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "present-day" when it is belonging to the present time.

property (noun)

A basic or essential attribute shared by all members of a class.

- That hat is my property.
- He is a man of property.

quality (noun)

A degree or grade of excellence or worth.

- The quality of students has risen.
- The quality of mercy is not strained.

amazing (adjective)

Inspiring awe or admiration or wonder; ; ; ; - Melville.

- New York is an amazing city.
- She does an amazing amount of work.

first-rate (adjective)

Of the highest quality.

- A first-rate golfer.
- A "first-rate" approach may work better in this case.

involved (adjective)

Connected by participation or association or use.

- We accomplished nothing, simply because of the large number of people involved.
- The problems involved.

paid-up (adjective)

Paid in advance.

- Paid-up insurance.
- Paid-up members.

related (adjective)

Being connected either logically or causally or by shared characteristics.

- Painting and the related arts.
- School-related activities.

related to (adjective)

Being connected either logically or causally or by shared characteristics.

- Painting and the related arts.
- School-related activities.

serious (adjective)

Concerned with work or important matters rather than play or trivialities.

- A serious student of history.
- A serious attempt to learn to ski.

well-tried (adjective)

Tested and proved useful or correct.

- The speaker chose "well-tried" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-tried."

born (adjective)

Being talented through inherited qualities.

- A born musician.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "born."

damn (noun)

Something of little value.

- His promise is not worth a damn.
- Understanding "damn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

decided (adjective)

Recognizable; marked.

- At a distinct (or decided) disadvantage.
- Students compared "decided" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

enjoy (verb)

Derive or receive pleasure from; get enjoyment from; take pleasure in.

- Enjoy privileges.
- The industry enjoyed a boom.

---

entire (adjective)

(used of domestic animals) sexually competent.

- An entire horse.
- An entire town devastated by an earthquake.

---

free-thinking (adjective)

Unwilling to accept authority or dogma (especially in religion).

- The speaker chose "free-thinking" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "free-thinking"? Explain why.

---

great white hope (noun)

Someone (or something) expected to achieve great success in a given field.

- This company is the great white hope of the nuclear industry's waste management policy.
- Understanding "great white hope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hands-off (adjective)

Not involving participation or intervention.

- A hands-off foreign policy.
- Students compared "hands-off" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

matter-of-fact (adjective)

Not fanciful or imaginative.

- Local guides describe the history of various places in matter-of-fact tones.
- A matter-of-fact (or pragmatic) approach to the problem.

---

non-white (adjective)

Having skin rich in melanin pigments.

- The speaker chose "non-white" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "non-white" when it is having skin rich in melanin pigments.

---

turned (adjective)

In an unpalatable state.

- Students compared "turned" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "turned."

---

written (adjective)

Systematically collected and written down.

- Written laws.
- Written evidence.

---

considered (adjective)

Carefully weighed.

- A considered opinion.

- It is useful to describe something as “considered” when it is carefully weighed.

---

cool off (verb)

Become quiet or calm, especially after a state of agitation.

- After the fight both men need to cool off.
- His enthusiasm cooled considerably.

---

foreign (adjective)

Of concern to or concerning the affairs of other nations (other than your own).

- Foreign trade.
- A foreign office.

---

hands-down (adjective)

Achieved without great effort.

- A hands-down victory.
- The speaker chose “hands-down” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

heart-whole (adjective)

With unconditional and enthusiastic devotion.

- Heart-whole friendship.
- Students compared “heart-whole” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

life-giving (adjective)

Giving or having the power to give life and spirit; - Louis Bromfield.

- Returning the life-giving humus to the land.
- Life-giving love and praise.

---

lose it (verb)

Lose control of one’s emotions.

- The coach explained when to use “lose it” and when to wait.
- Can you use “lose it” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

pretty-pretty (adjective)

Ostentatiously or inappropriately pretty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “pretty-pretty.”
- Students compared “pretty-pretty” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

sound off (verb)

Express one’s opinion openly and without fear or hesitation.

- Learners should practice how to use “sound off” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “sound off” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

turned on (adjective)

Feeling great sexual desire.

- A “turned on” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “turned on” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

walk-to (adjective)

Close enough to be walked to.

- The factory with the big parking lot...is more convenient than the walk-to factory.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “walk-to.”

---

year-round (adjective)

Operating or continuing throughout the year.

- A year-round resort.
- A year-round job.

---

air-to-air (adjective)

Operating between or launched from or involving rockets or aircraft in flight.

- Air-to-air missiles.
- Air-to-air communications.

---

built (adjective)

(used of soaps or cleaning agents) having a substance (an abrasive or filler) added to increase effectiveness.

- The built liquid detergents.
- Students compared "built" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

built-in (adjective)

Existing as an essential constituent or characteristic.

- The Ptolemaic system with its built-in concept of periodicity.
- It is useful to describe something as "built-in" when it is existing as an essential constituent or characteristic.

---

changed (adjective)

Made or become different in nature or form.

- Changed attitudes.
- Changed styles of dress.

---

close at hand (adjective)

Close in space; within reach.

- The town is close at hand.
- Retribution is at hand.

---

crazy (adjective)

Intensely enthusiastic about or preoccupied with.

- Crazy about cars and racing.
- A crazy scheme.

---

daily (adjective)

Of or belonging to or occurring every day.

- Daily routine.
- A daily paper.

---

dead-end (adjective)

Lacking opportunities for development or advancement.

- Stuck in a dead-end job.
- Students compared "dead-end" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

difficult (adjective)

Not easy; requiring great physical or mental effort to accomplish or comprehend or endure.

- A difficult task.
- Nesting places on the cliffs are difficult of access.

---

fall all over (verb)

Display excessive love or show excessive gratitude towards.

- This student falls all over her former professor when she sees him.
- Learners should practice how to use "fall all over" in real sentences.

---

fine-looking (adjective)

Pleasing in appearance especially by reason of conformity to ideals of form and proportion; ; ; ; - Thackeray; - Lillian Hellman.

- A fine-looking woman.
- It is useful to describe something as "fine-looking" when it is pleasing in appearance especially by reason of....

---

high-interest (adjective)

(used of loans) charging a relatively large percentage of the amount borrowed.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "high-interest."
- A "high-interest" approach may work better in this case.

---

loss (noun)

The disadvantage that results from losing something.

- His loss of credibility led to his resignation.
- The car was a total loss.

---

low-level (adjective)

At a low level in rank or importance.

- A low-level job.
- Low-level discussions.

---

old gold (noun)

A dark yellow.

- They discussed "old gold" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "old gold" to mean a dark yellow.

---

open-plan (adjective)

(of rooms or buildings) having large rooms with few dividing partitions.

- It is useful to describe something as "open-plan" when it is (of rooms or buildings) having large rooms with few....
- The speaker chose "open-plan" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

popular (adjective)

Regarded with great favor, approval, or affection especially by the general public.

- A popular tourist attraction.
- A popular girl.

---

published (adjective)

Prepared and printed for distribution and sale.

- The complete published works Dickens.
- It is useful to describe something as "published" when it is prepared and printed for distribution and sale.

---

turned out (adjective)

Dressed well or smartly.

- The girls were well turned out and smart.
- Would you call this situation "turned out"? Explain why.

---

walk-on (adjective)

Not capable of or especially not involving speech or spoken lines.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "walk-on."
- The speaker chose "walk-on" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

a-okay (adjective)

In perfect condition or order.

- Would you call this situation "a-okay"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "a-okay" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

at a loss (adjective)

Filled with bewilderment.

- At a loss to understand those remarks.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "at a loss."

---

bit-by-bit (adjective)

One thing at a time.

- A "bit-by-bit" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "bit-by-bit"? Explain why.

ever-present (adjective)

Being always present.

- It is useful to describe something as "ever-present" when it is being always present.
- A "ever-present" approach may work better in this case.

full-term (adjective)

Gestated for the entire duration of normal pregnancy.

- A healthy full-term baby.
- Would you call this situation "full-term"? Explain why.

high-performance (adjective)

Modified to give superior performance.

- A high-performance car.
- A "high-performance" approach may work better in this case.

huge (adjective)

Unusually great in size or amount or degree or especially extent or scope; ; ; ; ; ; ; ; ; - W.R.Inge.

- Huge government spending.
- Huge country estates.

lead-free (adjective)

(of gasoline) not containing tetraethyl lead.

- Lead-free gasoline.
- A "lead-free" approach may work better in this case.

life-size (adjective)

Being of the same size as an original.

- A life-size sculpture.
- Students compared "life-size" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

off-key (adjective)

Inaccurate in pitch.

- A "off-key" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "off-key."

pick up (verb)

Fill with high spirits; fill with optimism.

- He picked up the book and started to read.
- We picked up a hitchhiker on the highway.

at sea (adjective)

Perplexed by many conflicting situations or statements; filled with bewilderment.

- It is useful to describe something as "at sea" when it is perplexed by many conflicting situations or....
- A "at sea" approach may work better in this case.

bring together (verb)

Bring together in a common cause or emotion.

- The death of their child had drawn them together.
- Join these two parts so that they fit together.

built-up (adjective)

Peopled with settlers.

- The built-up areas.
- Would you call this situation "built-up"? Explain why.

dead set (adjective)

Fixed in your purpose.

- Dead set against intervening.
- It is useful to describe something as "dead set" when it is fixed in your purpose.

---

fall in love (verb)

Begin to experience feelings of love towards.

- She fell in love with her former student.
- The coach explained when to use "fall in love" and when to wait.

---

left-of-center (adjective)

Believing in or supporting tenets of the political left.

- The speaker chose "left-of-center" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "left-of-center" when it is believing in or supporting tenets of the political left.

---

missing (adjective)

Not able to be found.

- Missing in action.
- A missing person.

---

right to vote (noun)

A legal right guaranteed by the 15th amendment to the US Constitution; guaranteed to women by the 19th amendment.

- American women got the vote in 1920.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right to vote."

---

strong point (noun)

An asset of special worth or utility.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strong point."
- He looked up "strong point" because he had never seen it before.

---

truth (noun)

The quality of being near to the true value.

- The lawyer questioned the truth of my account.
- At last he knew the truth.

---

life style (noun)

A manner of living that reflects the person's values and attitudes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "life style."
- They discussed "life style" during the group presentation.

---

life-style (noun)

A manner of living that reflects the person's values and attitudes.

- Understanding "life-style" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "life-style" during the group presentation.

---

long-range (adjective)

Involving an extended span of time.

- Long-range goals.
- Long-range nuclear capability.

---

look forward (verb)

Expect or hope for.

- I look to hear from you soon.
- She tried to use "look forward" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

out of practice (adjective)

Impaired in skill by neglect.

- It is useful to describe something as "out of practice" when it is impaired in skill by neglect.

- The speaker chose "out of practice" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

ready to hand (adjective)

Easy to reach.

- Found a handy spot for the can opener.
- A "ready to hand" approach may work better in this case.

---

recent (adjective)

Of the immediate past or just previous to the present time.

- His recent trip to Africa.
- In recent months.

---

well-turned (adjective)

(of language) aptly and pleasingly expressed.

- A well-turned phrase.
- A well-turned ankle.

---

do-or-die (adjective)

Desperately determined.

- Do-or-die revolutionaries.
- A do-or-die conflict.

---

included (adjective)

Enclosed in the same envelope or package.

- The included check.
- It is useful to describe something as "included" when it is enclosed in the same envelope or package.

---

legal right (noun)

A right based in law.

- They discussed "legal right" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "legal right" because he had never seen it before.

---

one-piece (adjective)

(of clothing) consisting of or fashioned in a single whole piece.

- A one-piece garment.
- The speaker chose "one-piece" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

right of election (noun)

In probate law: the legal right of a surviving spouse to elect to take either what the deceased spouse gave under the will or the share of the estate as set forth by statute.

- Understanding "right of election" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "right of election" to mean in probate law: the legal right of a surviving....

---

self-important (adjective)

Having or showing feelings of unwarranted importance out of overbearing pride.

- The speaker chose "self-important" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-important" when it is having or showing feelings of unwarranted....

---

seven-day (adjective)

Lasting through a week.

- Would you call this situation "seven-day"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "seven-day" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

high quality (noun)

The quality of being superior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high quality."
- He looked up "high quality" because he had never seen it before.

---

land area (noun)

An area of ground used for some particular purpose (such as building or farming).

- He looked up "land area" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "land area" during the group presentation.

---

modern-day (adjective)

Characteristic of the present.

- The role of computers in modern-day medicine.
- It is useful to describe something as "modern-day" when it is characteristic of the present.

---

moving (adjective)

Arousing or capable of arousing deep emotion; - N. Hawthorne.

- She laid her case of destitution before him in a very moving letter.
- A constantly moving crowd.

---

policy-making (adjective)

Concerned with policy, not administration.

- It is useful to describe something as "policy-making" when it is concerned with policy, not administration.
- Students compared "policy-making" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

required (adjective)

Necessary for relief or supply.

- Required reading.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "required."

---

second-rate (adjective)

Moderate to inferior in quality.

- A "second-rate" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "second-rate."

---

self-control (noun)

The trait of resolutely controlling your own behavior.

- He looked up "self-control" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-control."

---

spent (adjective)

Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely exhausted.

- Would you call this situation "spent"? Explain why.
- Students compared "spent" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

straight-out (adjective)

Without reservation or exception.

- A "straight-out" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "straight-out."

---

tax-free (adjective)

(of goods or funds) not taxed.

- Students compared "tax-free" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "tax-free" approach may work better in this case.

---

weight (noun)

The relative importance granted to something.

- His opinion carries great weight.
- The progression implied an increasing weightiness of the items listed.

---

brown (noun)

An orange of low brightness and saturation.

- In class, the teacher used "brown" to mean an orange of low brightness and saturation.
- He looked up "brown" because he had never seen it before.

---

common-law (adjective)

Based on common law.

- A common-law right.
- Students compared "common-law" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

difference (noun)

The quality of being unlike or dissimilar.

- There are many differences between jazz and rock.
- There were irreconcilable differences.

---

free fall (noun)

A sudden sharp decrease in some quantity.

- When that became known the price of their stock went into free fall.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "free fall."

---

moved (adjective)

Being excited or provoked to the expression of an emotion.

- Too moved to speak.
- A "moved" approach may work better in this case.

---

put-upon (adjective)

Of persons; taken advantage of.

- It is useful to describe something as "put-upon" when it is of persons; taken advantage of.
- Would you call this situation "put-upon"? Explain why.

---

real stuff (noun)

Informal usage attributing authenticity.

- Understanding "real stuff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "real stuff" because he had never seen it before.

---

speak out (verb)

Express one's opinion openly and without fear or hesitation.

- She tried to use "speak out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "speak out" when talking about this idea.

---

speak up (verb)

Express one's opinion openly and without fear or hesitation.

- The audience asked the lecturer to please speak up.
- Can you use "speak up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

treatment (noun)

A manner of dealing with something artistically.

- His treatment of space borrows from Italian architecture.
- The treatment of water sewage.

---

western (adjective)

Of or characteristic of regions of the United States west of the Mississippi River.

- A Western ranch.
- The Western world.

---

charge up (verb)

Cause to be agitated, excited, or roused.

- The speaker charged up the crowd with his inflammatory remarks.
- In everyday English, people use "charge up" when talking about this idea.

described (adjective)

Represented in words especially with sharpness and detail.

- The vividly described wars.
- The speaker chose "described" because it captured the feeling precisely.

despite (noun)

Lack of respect accompanied by a feeling of intense dislike.

- The despite in which outsiders were held is legendary.
- She wanted neither favor nor despite.

down-to-earth (adjective)

Sensible and practical.

- Has a straightforward down-to-earth approach to a problem.
- A "down-to-earth" approach may work better in this case.

free-range (adjective)

Of livestock and domestic poultry; permitted to graze or forage rather than being confined to a feedlot.

- Students compared "free-range" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "free-range."

happy chance (noun)

An unexpected piece of good luck.

- In class, the teacher used "happy chance" to mean an unexpected piece of good luck.
- They discussed "happy chance" during the group presentation.

individual (adjective)

Being or characteristic of a single thing or person.

- Individual drops of rain.
- Please mark the individual pages.

interesting (adjective)

Arousing or holding the attention.

- Would you call this situation "interesting"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "interesting."

kept (adjective)

(especially of promises or contracts) not violated or disregarded.

- Promises kept.
- Students compared "kept" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

off-base (adjective)

Located outside a military base.

- Off-base housing.
- The speaker chose "off-base" because it captured the feeling precisely.

previous (adjective)

Just preceding something else in time or order.

- The previous owner.
- The previous occupant of the White House.

reported (adjective)

Made known or told about; especially presented in a formal account.

- His reported opinion.
- The reported findings.

speed (noun)

A rate (usually rapid) at which something happens.

- The project advanced with gratifying speed.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "speed."

---

under attack (adjective)

Subjected to enemy attack or censure.

- An official under fire for mismanagement.
- It is useful to describe something as "under attack" when it is subjected to enemy attack or censure.

---

whatever may come (adverb)

In spite of all obstacles.

- We'll go to Tibet come hell or high water.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "whatever may come" naturally.

---

white-hot (adjective)

Intensely zealous or fervid.

- Fierce white-hot loyalty.
- A white-hot center of the fire.

---

beat-up (adjective)

Damaged by blows or hard usage.

- Would you call this situation "beat-up"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "beat-up."

---

born-again (adjective)

Spiritually reborn or converted.

- A born-again Christian.
- It is useful to describe something as "born-again" when it is spiritually reborn or converted.

---

cool-white (adjective)

Of white tinged with blue.

- A "cool-white" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cool-white."

---

drop (noun)

A sudden sharp decrease in some quantity.

- A drop of 57 points on the Dow Jones index.
- There was a drop in pressure in the pulmonary artery.

---

fall into place (verb)

Become clear or enter one's consciousness or emotions.

- The coach explained when to use "fall into place" and when to wait.
- Can you use "fall into place" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

forward-looking (adjective)

Ahead of the times.

- A forward-looking corporation.
- The speaker chose "forward-looking" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

full-size (adjective)

Being of the same size as an original.

- A "full-size" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "full-size" when it is being of the same size as an original.

---

give a damn (verb)

Show no concern or interest; always used in the negative.

- I don't give a hoot.

- She doesn't give a damn about her job.

---

non-living (adjective)

Not endowed with life.

- A "non-living" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "non-living" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

off-the-wall (adjective)

Conspicuously or grossly unconventional or unusual.

- His off-the-wall antics.
- It is useful to describe something as "off-the-wall" when it is conspicuously or grossly unconventional or unusual.

---

three-figure (adjective)

(of numbers) written with three figures.

- 100 through 999 are three-figure numbers.
- A "three-figure" approach may work better in this case.

---

additional (adjective)

Further or added.

- Called for additional troops.
- A "additional" approach may work better in this case.

---

attention-getting (adjective)

Likely to attract attention.

- A "attention-getting" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "attention-getting" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

blue-white (adjective)

Of white tinged with blue.

- It is useful to describe something as "blue-white" when it is of white tinged with blue.
- The speaker chose "blue-white" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

city-born (adjective)

Being or having the customs or manners or dress of a city person.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "city-born."
- A "city-born" approach may work better in this case.

---

dead hand (noun)

The oppressive influence of past events or decisions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dead hand."
- Understanding "dead hand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

earlier (adjective)

(comparative and superlative of 'early') more early than; most early.

- A fashion popular in earlier times.
- His earlier work reflects the influence of his teacher.

---

full-page (adjective)

Occupying an entire page in a book or paper.

- A full-page ad.
- A "full-page" approach may work better in this case.

---

green-white (adjective)

Of white flowers tinged with green.

- The speaker chose "green-white" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "green-white" when it is of white flowers tinged with green.

---

hard-and-fast (adjective)

(of rules) stringently enforced.

- Hard-and-fast rules.
- It is useful to describe something as "hard-and-fast" when it is (of rules) stringently enforced.

hit-or-miss (adjective)

Dependent upon or characterized by chance.

- His judgment is rather hit-or-miss.
- Students compared "hit-or-miss" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

kept up (adjective)

Kept in good condition.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "kept up."
- The speaker chose "kept up" because it captured the feeling precisely.

low-cost (adjective)

That you have the financial means for.

- Low-cost housing.
- Would you call this situation "low-cost"? Explain why.

low-cut (adjective)

(of a garment) having a low-cut neckline.

- A low-cut neckline.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "low-cut."

middle-level (adjective)

Intermediate in rank or position.

- Middle-level management.
- Students compared "middle-level" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

quick (adjective)

Apprehending and responding with speed and sensitivity.

- A quick mind.
- Was quick to make friends.

short-term (adjective)

Relating to or extending over a limited period.

- A short-term lease.
- Short-term credit.

significant (adjective)

Too closely correlated to be attributed to chance and therefore indicating a systematic relation.

- The interaction effect is significant at the .01 level.
- No significant difference was found.

top-quality (adjective)

Surpassing in quality.

- The speaker chose "top-quality" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "top-quality" when it is surpassing in quality.

agree (verb)

Achieve harmony of opinion, feeling, or purpose.

- No two of my colleagues would agree on whom to elect chairman.
- We agreed on the terms of the settlement.

eight-day (adjective)

Lasting for eight days.

- Students compared "eight-day" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "eight-day" when it is lasting for eight days.

---

face value (noun)

The apparent worth as opposed to the real worth.

- In class, the teacher used "face value" to mean the apparent worth as opposed to the real worth.
- He looked up "face value" because he had never seen it before.

---

go-ahead (noun)

Readiness to embark on bold new ventures.

- Understanding "go-ahead" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "go-ahead" means with a simple example.

---

high-risk (adjective)

Not financially safe or secure.

- Would you call this situation "high-risk"? Explain why.
- A "high-risk" approach may work better in this case.

---

sold (adjective)

Disposed of to a purchaser.

- This merchandise is sold.
- Would you call this situation "sold"? Explain why.

---

three-piece (adjective)

(of clothing) made in or consisting of three parts or pieces.

- The standard three-piece business suit; jacket and trousers and vest.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "three-piece."

---

announced (adjective)

Declared publicly; made widely known.

- Their announced intentions.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "announced."

---

black-and-blue (adjective)

Discolored by coagulation of blood beneath the skin.

- Students compared "black-and-blue" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "black-and-blue."

---

blue-black (adjective)

Of black tinged with blue.

- It is useful to describe something as "blue-black" when it is of black tinged with blue.
- A "blue-black" approach may work better in this case.

---

continued (adjective)

Without stop or interruption.

- To insure the continued success of the war.
- The continued existence of nationalism.

---

country-style (adjective)

Typical of the country.

- Country-style sausage.
- Would you call this situation "country-style"? Explain why.

---

designed (adjective)

Done or made or performed with purpose and intent; - Havelock Ellis.

- Style...is more than the deliberate and designed creation.
- Games designed for all ages.

expected (adjective)

Considered likely or probable to happen or arrive.

- Prepared for the expected attack.
- Students compared "expected" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

ground level (noun)

The height of the ground on which something stands.

- They discussed "ground level" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ground level" to mean the height of the ground on which something stands.

happy event (noun)

The live birth of a child.

- Understanding "happy event" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "happy event" because he had never seen it before.

happy hour (noun)

The time of day when a bar sells alcoholic drinks at a reduced price.

- He looked up "happy hour" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "happy hour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

heavy (adjective)

Of comparatively great physical weight or density.

- A heavy load.
- Lead is a heavy metal.

never-say-die (adjective)

Impossible to subdue.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "never-say-die."
- Students compared "never-say-die" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

of sound mind (adjective)

Of sound mind, memory, and understanding; in law, competent to go to trial.

- It is useful to describe something as "of sound mind" when it is of sound mind, memory, and understanding; in law,....
- The speaker chose "of sound mind" because it captured the feeling precisely.

on-the-scene (adjective)

At the scene of action.

- It is useful to describe something as "on-the-scene" when it is at the scene of action.
- A "on-the-scene" approach may work better in this case.

tried and true (adjective)

Tested and proved to be reliable.

- A "tried and true" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "tried and true" because it captured the feeling precisely.

up-to-the-minute (adjective)

Up to the immediate present; most recent or most up-to-date.

- The news is up-to-the-minute.
- Students compared "up-to-the-minute" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

well-kept (adjective)

Of places; characterized by order and neatness; free from disorder.

- A "well-kept" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "well-kept"? Explain why.

developed (adjective)

Being changed over time so as to be e.g. stronger or more complete or more useful.

- The developed qualities of the Hellenic outlook.
- They have very small limbs with only two fully developed toes on each.

---

fear (noun)

A feeling of profound respect for someone or something.

- The fear of God.
- They hushed it up out of fear of public reaction.

---

global (adjective)

Having the shape of a sphere or ball; ; ; - Zane Grey.

- Global war.
- Global monetary policy.

---

half-size (adjective)

Half the usual or regular size.

- A "half-size" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "half-size."

---

interested (adjective)

Having or showing interest; especially curiosity or fascination or concern.

- An interested audience.
- Interested in sports.

---

legal power (noun)

(law) the right and power to interpret and apply the law.

- Understanding "legal power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legal power."

---

right to due process (noun)

A right guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment to the US Constitution; reaffirmed by the Fourteenth Amendment.

- In class, the teacher used "right to due process" to mean a right guaranteed by the fifth amendment to the us....
- Understanding "right to due process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

risk-free (adjective)

Thought to be devoid of risk.

- Students compared "risk-free" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "risk-free"? Explain why.

---

sold-out (adjective)

Sold completely in advance.

- Had a sold-out house for both performances.
- A sold-out politician.

---

across-the-board (adjective)

Broad in scope or content; ; ; ; - T.G.Winner.

- Across-the-board pay increases.
- Students compared "across-the-board" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

air-to-ground (adjective)

Operating from or designed to be fired from aircraft at targets on the ground.

- Students compared "air-to-ground" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "air-to-ground."

---

best-loved (adjective)

Preferred above all others and treated with partiality.

- A "best-loved" approach may work better in this case.

- It is useful to describe something as "best-loved" when it is preferred above all others and treated with partiality.

---

clear-thinking (adjective)

Not mentally confused; able to think clearly and act intelligently.

- Would you call this situation "clear-thinking"? Explain why.
- Students compared "clear-thinking" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

deep in thought (adjective)

Deeply absorbed in thought.

- Lost in thought.
- It is useful to describe something as "deep in thought" when it is deeply absorbed in thought.

---

deep-set (adjective)

Having a sunken area.

- A "deep-set" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "deep-set" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

die-hard (adjective)

Tradition-bound and obstinately opinionated.

- An inflexible (or die-hard) conservative.
- Students compared "die-hard" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

finished (adjective)

(of materials or goods) brought to the desired final state.

- A finished product.
- Are you finished?

---

have a fit (verb)

Get very angry and fly into a rage.

- The coach explained when to use "have a fit" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "have a fit" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

head voice (noun)

The higher ranges of the voice in speaking or singing; the vibrations of sung notes are felt in the head.

- Understanding "head voice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "head voice" means with a simple example.

---

high-potential (adjective)

Operating on or powered by a high voltage.

- The speaker chose "high-potential" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "high-potential."

---

high-pressure (adjective)

Aggressively and persistently persuasive.

- A high-pressure salesman.
- It is useful to describe something as "high-pressure" when it is aggressively and persistently persuasive.

---

low-interest (adjective)

(used of loans) charging a relatively small percentage of the amount borrowed.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "low-interest."
- Would you call this situation "low-interest"? Explain why.

---

majority (noun)

The property resulting from being or relating to the greater in number of two parts; the main part.

- The majority of his customers prefer it.
- The article explained what "majority" means with a simple example.

---

physical (adjective)

Involving the body as distinguished from the mind or spirit.

- Physical exercise.
- Physical suffering.

---

pro (adjective)

In favor of (an action or proposal etc.).

- A pro vote.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pro."

---

south-central (adjective)

Situated in the southern part of a centrally located area in some geographical region.

- South-central London.
- The speaker chose "south-central" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

successful (adjective)

Having succeeded or being marked by a favorable outcome.

- A successful architect.
- A successful business venture.

---

true-blue (adjective)

Marked by unswerving loyalty.

- A true-blue American.
- A reliable true-blue country club conservative.

---

biggest (adjective)

Above average in size or number or quantity or magnitude or extent.

- The speaker chose "biggest" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "biggest" when it is above average in size or number or quantity or....

---

fair use (noun)

The conditions under which you can use material that is copyrighted by someone else without paying royalties.

- The article explained what "fair use" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fair use" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

high-speed (adjective)

Operating at high speed.

- A high-speed food processor.
- It is useful to describe something as "high-speed" when it is operating at high speed.

---

in stock (adjective)

Available for use or sale.

- They have plenty of stonewashed jeans in stock.
- The speaker chose "in stock" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

last-minute (adjective)

Just before a deadline; at the last minute.

- Last-minute arrangements.
- A "last-minute" approach may work better in this case.

---

red-hot (adjective)

Very fast; capable of quick response and great speed.

- A red-hot line drive.
- A red-hot mama.

---

wonder (noun)

Something that causes feelings of wonder.

- The wonders of modern science.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wonder."

---

word-perfect (adjective)

Correct to the last detail; especially being in or following the exact words.

- She was word-perfect in her part.
- Students compared "word-perfect" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

worst (noun)

The greatest damage or wickedness of which one is capable.

- The invaders did their worst.
- So pure of heart that his worst is another man's best.

---

awesome (adjective)

Inspiring awe or admiration or wonder; ; ; ; - Melville.

- The awesome complexity of the universe.
- The speaker chose "awesome" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

band (noun)

A stripe or stripes of contrasting color.

- Chromosomes exhibit characteristic bands.
- The black and yellow banding of bees and wasps.

---

deep-water (adjective)

Of or carried on in waters of great depth.

- A deep-water port.
- Students compared "deep-water" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ended (adjective)

Having come or been brought to a conclusion.

- The affair is over, ended, finished.
- Would you call this situation "ended"? Explain why.

---

fall short (verb)

Fail to meet (expectations or standards).

- He did not know how to use "fall short" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "fall short" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

in operation (adjective)

Being in effect or operation; - Leslie Marmon Silko.

- De facto apartheid is still operational even in the 'new' African nations.
- Bus service is in operation during the emergency.

---

light-blue (adjective)

Of a light shade of blue.

- The speaker chose "light-blue" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "light-blue" approach may work better in this case.

---

light-green (adjective)

Of the color between blue and yellow in the color spectrum; similar to the color of fresh grass.

- It is useful to describe something as "light-green" when it is of the color between blue and yellow in the color....
- Would you call this situation "light-green"? Explain why.

---

north-central (adjective)

Situated in the northern part of a centrally located area in some geographical region.

- The north-central part of Russia.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "north-central."

older (adjective)

Advanced in years; (‘aged’ is pronounced as two syllables).

- The older soldiers.
- It is useful to describe something as “older” when it is advanced in years; (‘aged’ is pronounced as two....

out of reach (adjective)

Inaccessibly located or situated.

- An unreachable canyon.
- The unreachable stars.

right of search (noun)

The right of a belligerent to stop neutral ships on the high seas in wartime and search them.

- The article explained what “right of search” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “right of search” to mean the right of a belligerent to stop neutral ships on....

third-rate (adjective)

Of lesser quality than second-rate.

- Students compared “third-rate” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as “third-rate” when it is of lesser quality than second-rate.

all-or-none (adjective)

Occurring completely or not occurring at all.

- Students compared “all-or-none” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “all-or-none.”

color (noun)

An outward or token appearance or form that is deliberately misleading.

- The situation soon took on a different color.
- A white color is made up of many different wavelengths of light.

grand (adjective)

The most important and magnificent in adornment.

- Grand ballroom.
- Grand staircase.

ice-free (adjective)

Free of ice and open to travel.

- An ice-free channel in the river.
- It is useful to describe something as “ice-free” when it is free of ice and open to travel.

in the public eye (adjective)

Of great interest to the public.

- A person in the public eye.
- Students compared “in the public eye” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

increased (adjective)

Made greater in size or amount or degree.

- It is useful to describe something as “increased” when it is made greater in size or amount or degree.
- Students compared “increased” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

low quality (noun)

An inferior quality.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “low quality.”
- The article explained what “low quality” means with a simple example.

low-key (adjective)

Restrained in style or quality.

- A little masterpiece of low-keyed eloquence.
- Students compared "low-key" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

middle-of-the-road (adjective)

Not extreme, especially in political views.

- Students compared "middle-of-the-road" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "middle-of-the-road"? Explain why.

---

necessary (adjective)

Unavoidably determined by prior circumstances.

- The necessary consequences of one's actions.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "necessary."

---

out of stock (adjective)

Not available for sale or use.

- Too many items are out of stock.
- A "out of stock" approach may work better in this case.

---

self-interest (noun)

Concern for your own interests and welfare.

- They discussed "self-interest" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-interest."

---

short-range (adjective)

Limited to short distances.

- Short-range planes.
- A short-range shot.

---

supposed (adjective)

Based primarily on surmise rather than adequate evidence.

- The supposed reason for his absence.
- I'm supposed to be there at ten.

---

well-meant (adjective)

Marked by good intentions though often producing unfortunate results; ; ; - S.W.Maughm.

- Blunt but well-meant criticism.
- It is useful to describe something as "well-meant" when it is marked by good intentions though often producing....

---

world-wide (adjective)

Of worldwide scope or applicability; ; - Christopher Morley.

- Would you call this situation "world-wide"? Explain why.
- A "world-wide" approach may work better in this case.

---

age-related (adjective)

Changing (increasing or decreasing) as an individual's age increases.

- The speaker chose "age-related" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "age-related"? Explain why.

---

average cost (noun)

Total cost for all units bought (or produced) divided by the number of units.

- He looked up "average cost" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "average cost" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

closed (adjective)

Used especially of mouth or eyes.

- He sat quietly with closed eyes.

- The many closed streets made travel difficult.

---

closed in (adjective)

Blocked against entry.

- A closed porch.
- A "closed in" approach may work better in this case.

---

cold water (noun)

Disparagement of a plan or hope or expectation.

- She poured cold water on the whole idea of going to Africa.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cold water."

---

doubt (noun)

Uncertainty about the truth or factuality or existence of something.

- Understanding "doubt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "doubt" during the group presentation.

---

established (adjective)

Brought about or set up or accepted; especially long established.

- The established social order.
- A team established as a member of a major league.

---

feels (noun)

The general atmosphere of a place or situation and the effect that it has on people.

- They discussed "feels" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "feels" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gay (adjective)

Bright and pleasant; promoting a feeling of cheer.

- A gay sunny room.
- When hearts were young and gay.

---

glad (adjective)

Showing or causing joy and pleasure; especially made happy.

- Glad you are here.
- Glad that they succeeded.

---

greater (adjective)

Greater in size or importance or degree.

- For the greater good of the community.
- The greater Antilles.

---

largest (adjective)

Above average in size or number or quantity or magnitude or extent.

- Students compared "largest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "largest"? Explain why.

---

sea level (noun)

Level of the ocean's surface (especially that halfway between mean high and low tide); used as a standard in reckoning land elevation or sea depth.

- They discussed "sea level" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sea level" because he had never seen it before.

---

sea-level (adjective)

Lying below the normal level.

- It is useful to describe something as "sea-level" when it is lying below the normal level.
- The speaker chose "sea-level" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

self-giving (adjective)

Willing to deprive yourself.

- A "self-giving" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "self-giving" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

self-worth (noun)

The quality of being worthy of esteem or respect.

- The article explained what "self-worth" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "self-worth" during the group presentation.

---

walk on air (verb)

Feel extreme happiness or elation.

- Learners should practice how to use "walk on air" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "walk on air" and when to wait.

---

west-central (adjective)

Of a region of the United States usually including Colorado; Nevada; Utah.

- A "west-central" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "west-central" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

caught up (adjective)

Having become involved involuntarily.

- Caught up in the excitement of the crowd.
- Caught up in the scandal.

---

cut rate (noun)

A price below the standard price.

- In class, the teacher used "cut rate" to mean a price below the standard price.
- He looked up "cut rate" because he had never seen it before.

---

cut-rate (adjective)

Costing less than standard price.

- Cut-rate goods.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cut-rate."

---

dead center (noun)

The position of a crank when it is in line with the connecting rod and not exerting torque.

- The article explained what "dead center" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dead center" to mean the position of a crank when it is in line with the....

---

effective (adjective)

Producing or capable of producing an intended result or having a striking effect; -LewisMumford.

- An air-cooled motor was more effective than a witch's broomstick for rapid long-distance transportation.
- Effective teaching methods.

---

love letter (noun)

A personal letter to a loved one expressing affection.

- He looked up "love letter" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "love letter" during the group presentation.

---

non-u (adjective)

Not characteristic of the upper classes especially in language use.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "non-u."
- Students compared "non-u" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

on-the-spot (adjective)

At the scene of action.

- An on-the-spot reporter.
- On-the-spot inspections.

---

pro-life (adjective)

Advocating full legal protection of embryos and fetuses (especially opposing the legalization of induced abortions).

- It is useful to describe something as "pro-life" when it is advocating full legal protection of embryos and....
- A "pro-life" approach may work better in this case.

---

worse (noun)

Something inferior in quality or condition or effect.

- For better or for worse.
- Accused of cheating and lying and worse.

---

broken (adjective)

Not continuous in space, time, or sequence or varying abruptly.

- Broken lines of defense.
- A broken cable transmission.

---

broken in (adjective)

Tamed or trained to obey.

- A horse broken to the saddle.
- This old nag is well broken in.

---

brown-black (adjective)

Of black tinged with brown.

- Would you call this situation "brown-black"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "brown-black."

---

in agreement (adjective)

United by being of the same opinion.

- A "in agreement" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "in agreement."

---

primary (adjective)

Of first rank or importance or value; direct and immediate rather than secondary.

- Primary goals.
- A primary effect.

---

responsible (adjective)

Worthy of or requiring responsibility or trust; or held accountable.

- A responsible adult.
- Responsible journalism.

---

responsible for (adjective)

Being the agent or cause.

- Determined who was the responsible party.
- Termites were responsible for the damage.

---

touch-and-go (adjective)

Fraught with danger.

- Dangerous surgery followed by a touch-and-go recovery.
- It is useful to describe something as "touch-and-go" when it is fraught with danger.

---

all-purpose (adjective)

Not limited in use or function.

- It is useful to describe something as "all-purpose" when it is not limited in use or function.
- Would you call this situation "all-purpose"? Explain why.

card-playing (adjective)

Preoccupied with the pursuit of pleasure and especially games of chance.

- A card-playing son of a bitch.
- A "card-playing" approach may work better in this case.

half-track (adjective)

Having caterpillar treads on the rear and wheels in front.

- Half-track armored vehicles.
- A "half-track" approach may work better in this case.

mass (noun)

The property of something that is great in magnitude.

- He received a mass of correspondence.
- A huge ice mass.

off-color (adjective)

In violation of good taste even verging on the indecent.

- An off-color joke.
- Off-color jokes.

on trial (adjective)

In the process of being tested or tried.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "on trial."
- Students compared "on trial" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

peace of mind (noun)

The absence of mental stress or anxiety.

- They discussed "peace of mind" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "peace of mind" because he had never seen it before.

quick-change (adjective)

Adept at changing from one thing to another especially changing costumes.

- A quick-change artist.
- It is useful to describe something as "quick-change" when it is adept at changing from one thing to another....

self-involved (adjective)

Absorbed in your own interests or thoughts etc.

- Students compared "self-involved" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-involved" when it is absorbed in your own interests or thoughts etc.

cell-like (adjective)

Resembling a cell.

- It is useful to describe something as "cell-like" when it is resembling a cell.
- Students compared "cell-like" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

dark red (noun)

A red color that reflects little light.

- The article explained what "dark red" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dark red" during the group presentation.

deep red (noun)

A deep and vivid red color.

- They discussed "deep red" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "deep red" because he had never seen it before.

highest (adjective)

Greater than normal in degree or intensity or amount.

- Students compared "highest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "highest."

---

in condition (adjective)

Physically fit.

- Exercised daily to keep herself in condition.
- Would you call this situation "in condition"? Explain why.

---

located (adjective)

Situated in a particular spot or position.

- Valuable centrally located urban land.
- It is useful to describe something as "located" when it is situated in a particular spot or position.

---

machine-made (adjective)

Made by machine.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "machine-made."
- The speaker chose "machine-made" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sex character (noun)

Those characteristics (both anatomical and psychological) that are strongly associated with one sex relative to the other.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sex character."
- They discussed "sex character" during the group presentation.

---

top-heavy (adjective)

Unstable by being overloaded at the top.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "top-heavy."
- Students compared "top-heavy" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

actual (adjective)

Presently existing in fact and not merely potential or possible.

- The predicted temperature and the actual temperature were markedly different.
- Actual and imagined conditions.

---

broke (adjective)

Lacking funds.

- The speaker chose "broke" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "broke" when it is lacking funds.

---

carry off (verb)

Remove from a certain place, environment, or mental or emotional state; transport into a new location or state.

- The car carried us off to the meeting.
- I managed to carry the box upstairs.

---

cost increase (noun)

An increase in cost.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cost increase."
- He looked up "cost increase" because he had never seen it before.

---

hot stuff (noun)

The quality of being attractive and exciting (especially sexually exciting).

- He thought she was really hot stuff.
- Skiing is hot stuff in New Hampshire.

---

king-size (adjective)

Extra large.

- A king-size bed.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "king-size."

---

learned (adjective)

Highly educated; having extensive information or understanding.

- A learned jurist.
- A "learned" approach may work better in this case.

---

opened (adjective)

Used of mouth or eyes.

- His mouth slightly opened.
- A "opened" approach may work better in this case.

---

placed (adjective)

Situated in a particular spot or position.

- Strategically placed artillery.
- End tables placed conveniently.

---

powerful (adjective)

Having great power or force or potency or effect.

- The most powerful government in western Europe.
- His powerful arms.

---

ready and waiting (adjective)

Being and remaining ready and available for use.

- Waiting cars and limousines lined the curb.
- Found her mother waiting for them.

---

religious (adjective)

Of or relating to clergy bound by monastic vows.

- The religious or regular clergy conducts the service.
- A religious man.

---

signed (adjective)

Having a handwritten signature.

- A signed letter.
- Students compared "signed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

slow (adjective)

Not moving quickly; taking a comparatively long time.

- A slow walker.
- The slow lane of traffic.

---

stand-alone (adjective)

Capable of operating independently.

- It is useful to describe something as "stand-alone" when it is capable of operating independently.
- Would you call this situation "stand-alone"? Explain why.

---

wide-open (adjective)

Lax in enforcing laws.

- A wide-open town.
- Left the doors wide-open.

---

wonderful (adjective)

Extraordinarily good or great ; used especially as intensifiers.

- Students compared "wonderful" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "wonderful" when it is extraordinarily good or great ; used especially as....

---

agreed (adjective)

United by being of the same opinion.

- Agreed in their distrust of authority.
- Students compared "agreed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

all-powerful (adjective)

Having unlimited power.

- It is useful to describe something as "all-powerful" when it is having unlimited power.
- Students compared "all-powerful" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

benefits (noun)

Something that aids or promotes well-being.

- Understanding "benefits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "benefits" means with a simple example.

---

broken-down (adjective)

Not in working order.

- Had to push the broken-down car.
- A broken-down tractor fit only for children to play on.

---

chinese-red (adjective)

Of a vivid red to reddish-orange color.

- The speaker chose "chinese-red" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "chinese-red" approach may work better in this case.

---

east-central (adjective)

Of a region of the United States generally including Kentucky, West Virginia.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "east-central."
- A "east-central" approach may work better in this case.

---

extra large (noun)

A garment size for a very large person.

- They discussed "extra large" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "extra large" to mean a garment size for a very large person.

---

famous (adjective)

Widely known and esteemed.

- A famous actor.
- The speaker chose "famous" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

glass-like (adjective)

Resembling glass.

- Would you call this situation "glass-like"? Explain why.
- Students compared "glass-like" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

in demand (adjective)

Greatly desired.

- It is useful to describe something as "in demand" when it is greatly desired.
- The speaker chose "in demand" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

investment (noun)

The commitment of something other than money (time, energy, or effort) to a project with the expectation of some worthwhile result.

- This job calls for the investment of some hard thinking.
- He made an emotional investment in the work.

---

light brown (noun)

A brown that is light but unsaturated.

- He looked up "light brown" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light brown."

---

love-in-winter (noun)

Eurasian herb with white or pinkish flowers in a terminal corymb.

- He looked up "love-in-winter" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "love-in-winter."

---

low-pressure (adjective)

Not forceful.

- A low-pressure salesman.
- A low-pressure campaign.

---

purpose-made (adjective)

Designed and constructed to serve a particular purpose.

- Students compared "purpose-made" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "purpose-made"? Explain why.

---

raised (adjective)

Located or moved above the surround or above the normal position.

- A raised design.
- Raised eyebrows.

---

red-brown (adjective)

Of brown tinged with red.

- It is useful to describe something as "red-brown" when it is of brown tinged with red.
- Students compared "red-brown" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

southern (adjective)

Situated in or coming from regions of the south.

- The southern hemisphere.
- Southern constellations.

---

stopped (adjective)

(of a nose) blocked.

- A stopped (or stopped-up) nose.
- A "stopped" approach may work better in this case.

---

traditional (adjective)

Pertaining to time-honored orthodox doctrines.

- The simple security of traditional assumptions has vanished.
- The speaker chose "traditional" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

well-meaning (adjective)

Marked by good intentions though often producing unfortunate results; ; ; - S.W.Maughm.

- A well-meaning but tactless fellow.
- The son's well-meaning efforts threw a singular chill upon the father's admirers.

---

worry (noun)

A strong feeling of anxiety.

- His worry over the prospect of being fired.
- It is not work but worry that kills.

---

blue green (noun)

A blue-green color or pigment.

- They painted it a light shade of bluish green.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blue green."

blue-green (adjective)

Of a bluish shade of green.

- Would you call this situation "blue-green"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "blue-green" because it captured the feeling precisely.

bottom-up (adjective)

Of an approach to a problem that begins with details and works up to the highest conceptual level.

- Bottom-up parser.
- A bottom-up model of the reading process.

covered (adjective)

Overlaid or spread or topped with or enclosed within something; sometimes used as a combining form.

- Women with covered faces.
- Covered wagons.

dead hand of the past (noun)

The oppressive influence of past events or decisions.

- The article explained what "dead hand of the past" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dead hand of the past" to mean the oppressive influence of past events or decisions.

forced (adjective)

Made necessary by an unexpected situation or emergency.

- A forced landing.
- Promised to abolish forced labor.

fresh (adjective)

Not containing or composed of salt water.

- Fresh water.
- Fresh bread.

long-lived (adjective)

Existing for a long time.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "long-lived."
- A "long-lived" approach may work better in this case.

missed (adjective)

Not caught with the senses or the mind.

- The speaker chose "missed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "missed" approach may work better in this case.

self-respect (noun)

The quality of being worthy of esteem or respect.

- They discussed "self-respect" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-respect."

sound property (noun)

An attribute of sound.

- He looked up "sound property" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sound property" during the group presentation.

stopped up (adjective)

(of a nose) blocked.

- A stopped (or stopped-up) nose.
- Would you call this situation "stopped up"? Explain why.

stopped-up (adjective)

Having narrow opening filled.

- A stopped (or stopped-up) nose.
- The speaker chose "stopped-up" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

top-secret (adjective)

The highest official level of classification of documents.

- Students compared "top-secret" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "top-secret."

---

two-channel (adjective)

Designating sound transmission from two sources through two channels.

- Students compared "two-channel" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "two-channel."

---

actions (noun)

The trait of being active and energetic and forceful.

- There were stories of murders and other unnatural actions.
- The article explained what "actions" means with a simple example.

---

carry away (verb)

Remove from a certain place, environment, or mental or emotional state; transport into a new location or state.

- Their dreams carried the Romantics away into distant lands.
- I'll take you away on a holiday.

---

larger (adjective)

Large or big relative to something else.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "larger."
- The speaker chose "larger" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

mid (adjective)

Used in combination to denote the middle.

- Midmorning.
- Midsummer.

---

no-count (adjective)

Without merit.

- A lazy no-count, good-for-nothing goldbrick.
- The speaker chose "no-count" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

off-putting (adjective)

Causing annoyance or repugnance.

- An off-putting remark.
- The trappings of upper-class life are off-putting and sterile.

---

out or keeping (adjective)

Not in keeping with what is correct or proper.

- Students compared "out or keeping" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "out or keeping" when it is not in keeping with what is correct or proper.

---

rose (adjective)

Of something having a dusty purplish pink color.

- The roseate glow of dawn.
- The speaker chose "rose" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

self-moving (adjective)

Designed to activate or move or regulate itself.

- A "self-moving" approach may work better in this case.

- Would you call this situation "self-moving"? Explain why.

---

step-by-step (adjective)

One thing at a time.

- The speaker chose "step-by-step" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "step-by-step."

---

all-metal (adjective)

Consisting completely of metal.

- All-metal airplanes.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "all-metal."

---

american dream (noun)

The widespread aspiration of Americans to live better than their parents did.

- They discussed "american dream" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "american dream" means with a simple example.

---

becoming (adjective)

Displaying or setting off to best advantage.

- A becoming new shade of rose.
- A becoming portrait.

---

brand-new (adjective)

Conspicuously new.

- Shiny brand-new shoes.
- It is useful to describe something as "brand-new" when it is conspicuously new.

---

gain (noun)

The advantageous quality of being beneficial.

- They recorded the cattle's gain in weight over a period of weeks.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gain."

---

open-ended (adjective)

Allowing for future changes or revisions.

- Open-ended agreements.
- An open-ended discussion.

---

rise (noun)

The amount a salary is increased.

- The car couldn't make it up the rise.
- They cheered the rise of the hot-air balloon.

---

safe and sound (adjective)

Free from danger or injury.

- The children were found safe and sound.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "safe and sound."

---

tax-increase (noun)

The amount by which taxes are increased.

- Understanding "tax-increase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tax-increase" to mean the amount by which taxes are increased.

---

weird (adjective)

Strikingly odd or unusual; - Bram Stoker.

- Some trick of the moonlight; some weird effect of shadow.
- The three weird sisters.

---

cell-free (adjective)

Lacking cells.

- Cell-free systems.
- A cell-free homogenate of the thyroid.

---

color of law (noun)

A mere semblance of legal right; something done with the apparent authority of law but actually in contravention of law.

- The plaintiff claimed that under color of law the officer had deprived him of his civil rights.
- He looked up "color of law" because he had never seen it before.

---

cross-town (adjective)

Going or extending across a town or city.

- A "cross-town" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "cross-town" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

drug-free (adjective)

Characteristic of a person not taking illegal drugs or of a place where no illegal drugs are used.

- The speaker chose "drug-free" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "drug-free."

---

fair chance (noun)

A reasonable probability of success.

- He looked up "fair chance" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fair chance."

---

fourth-year (adjective)

Used of the fourth and final year in United States high school or college.

- Would you call this situation "fourth-year"? Explain why.
- A "fourth-year" approach may work better in this case.

---

good faith (noun)

Having honest intentions.

- He acted in good faith.
- Doubt was expressed as to the good faith of the immigrants.

---

inside track (noun)

A favorable position in a competition.

- The boss's son had the inside track for that job.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inside track."

---

long-wearing (adjective)

Capable of withstanding wear and tear and decay.

- Would you call this situation "long-wearing"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "long-wearing."

---

mouth off (verb)

Talk in a noisy, excited, or declamatory manner.

- The coach explained when to use "mouth off" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "mouth off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

over-the-hill (adjective)

Too old to be useful; - Anthony Trollope.

- Would you call this situation "over-the-hill"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "over-the-hill" when it is too old to be useful; - anthony trollope.

---

red-letter (adjective)

Memorable for being a special occasion.

- On red-letter nights a large gathering greeted the celebrity.
- Would you call this situation "red-letter"? Explain why.

---

smaller (adjective)

Small or little relative to something else.

- Would you call this situation "smaller"? Explain why.
- A "smaller" approach may work better in this case.

---

spread-out (adjective)

Especially spread in a fan shape.

- The spread-out cards.
- Would you call this situation "spread-out"? Explain why.

---

stone (noun)

A lack of feeling or expression or movement.

- He must have a heart of stone.
- Her face was as hard as stone.

---

strength (noun)

The property of being physically or mentally strong.

- Fatigue sapped his strength.
- We faced an army of great strength.

---

dangerous (adjective)

Involving or causing danger or risk; liable to hurt or harm.

- A dangerous criminal.
- A dangerous bridge.

---

down in the mouth (adjective)

Filled with melancholy and despondency.

- Gloomy at the thought of what he had to face.
- Took a grim view of the economy.

---

greatest (adjective)

Highest in quality.

- A "greatest" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "greatest" when it is highest in quality.

---

last mentioned (adjective)

The one most recently mentioned.

- The last mentioned pianist.
- The speaker chose "last mentioned" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

low-growing (adjective)

Of plants that grow relatively low to the ground.

- Would you call this situation "low-growing"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "low-growing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

removed (adjective)

Separated in relationship by a given degree of descent.

- A cousin once removed.
- Students compared "removed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

sea green (noun)

The property of a moderate green color resembling the waters of the sea.

- He looked up "sea green" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sea green" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sea-green (adjective)

Of the color of the sea; bluish green.

- A "sea-green" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "sea-green"? Explain why.

sign-language (adjective)

Used of the language of the deaf.

- It is useful to describe something as "sign-language" when it is used of the language of the deaf.
- The speaker chose "sign-language" because it captured the feeling precisely.

spirit (noun)

An inclination or tendency of a certain kind.

- He was in good spirits.
- His spirit rose.

theory-based (adjective)

Based in theory rather than experiment.

- Theory-based arguments and positions.
- A "theory-based" approach may work better in this case.

trouble (noun)

A strong feeling of anxiety.

- He wanted to die and end his troubles.
- One trouble after another delayed the job.

advantage (noun)

The quality of having a superior or more favorable position.

- The experience gave him the advantage over me.
- It turned out to my advantage.

aware (adjective)

(sometimes followed by 'of') having or showing knowledge or understanding or realization or perception.

- Was aware of his opponent's hostility.
- Became aware of her surroundings.

dark blue (noun)

A dark shade of blue.

- He looked up "dark blue" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dark blue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dark-blue (adjective)

Of a dark shade of blue.

- A "dark-blue" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "dark-blue"? Explain why.

dark-green (adjective)

Of the color between blue and yellow in the color spectrum; similar to the color of fresh grass.

- Would you call this situation "dark-green"? Explain why.
- A "dark-green" approach may work better in this case.

eastern (adjective)

Of or characteristic of eastern regions of the United States.

- The Eastern establishment.
- Eastern Europe.

end-stopped (adjective)

(verse) having a rhetorical pause at the end of each line.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "end-stopped."
- Students compared "end-stopped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

fat-free (adjective)

Without fat or fat solids.

- Nonfat or fat-free milk.
- Students compared "fat-free" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

foreign-born (adjective)

Of persons born in another area or country than that lived in.

- It is useful to describe something as "foreign-born" when it is of persons born in another area or country than....
- The speaker chose "foreign-born" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

freedom of thought (noun)

The right to hold unpopular ideas.

- He looked up "freedom of thought" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "freedom of thought" during the group presentation.

---

general-purpose (adjective)

Not limited in use or function.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "general-purpose."
- Would you call this situation "general-purpose"? Explain why.

---

impossible (adjective)

Not capable of occurring or being accomplished or dealt with.

- An impossible dream.
- An impossible situation.

---

long-acting (adjective)

Active over a long period of time.

- The speaker chose "long-acting" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "long-acting."

---

love seat (noun)

Small sofa that seats two people.

- They discussed "love seat" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "love seat."

---

proud of (adjective)

Feeling pleasurable satisfaction over something by which you measures your self-worth.

- Proud of their child.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "proud of."

---

sexual love (noun)

A deep feeling of sexual desire and attraction.

- Their love left them indifferent to their surroundings.
- She was his first love.

---

wide-cut (adjective)

Having ample fabric.

- Students compared "wide-cut" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "wide-cut" when it is having ample fabric.

---

best-selling (adjective)

Selling in great numbers.

- A best-selling novel.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "best-selling."

---

completed (adjective)

Successfully completed or brought to an end.

- The completed project.
- A completed forward pass.

---

cost-plus (adjective)

Determining payment based on the actual cost of production plus an agreed-upon fee or rate of profit.

- A cost-plus government contract.
- Would you call this situation "cost-plus"? Explain why.

---

forward-moving (adjective)

Moving forward.

- It is useful to describe something as "forward-moving" when it is moving forward.
- A "forward-moving" approach may work better in this case.

---

freedom party (noun)

The most popular and feared Islamic extremist group in central Asia; advocates 'pure' Islam and the creation of a worldwide Islamic state.

- He looked up "freedom party" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freedom party."

---

inc (noun)

A heterogeneous collection of groups united in their opposition to Saddam Hussein's government of Iraq; formed in 1992 it is comprised of Sunni and Shiite Arabs and Kurds who hope to build a new government.

- Understanding "inc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "inc" because he had never seen it before.

---

larger-than-life (adjective)

Very imposing or impressive; surpassing the ordinary (especially in size or scale).

- Students compared "larger-than-life" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "larger-than-life."

---

lucky (adjective)

Having or bringing good fortune.

- My lucky day.
- A lucky man.

---

mean distance (noun)

The arithmetic mean of the maximum and minimum distances of a celestial body (satellite or secondary star) from its primary.

- Understanding "mean distance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mean distance" during the group presentation.

---

neither (adjective)

Not either; not one or the other.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "neither."
- Would you call this situation "neither"? Explain why.

---

old rose (noun)

A greyish-pink color.

- In class, the teacher used "old rose" to mean a greyish-pink color.
- He looked up "old rose" because he had never seen it before.

---

over-correct (verb)

Make excessive corrections for fear of making an error.

- Can you use "over-correct" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "over-correct" and when to wait.

push around (verb)

Be bossy towards.

- Can you use “push around” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use “push around” until he saw an example.

rare (adjective)

(of meat) cooked a short time; still red inside.

- Rare roast beef.
- A rare word.

red-letter day (noun)

A memorably happy or noteworthy day (from the custom of marking holy days in red on church calendars).

- He looked up “red-letter day” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “red-letter day” during the group presentation.

short and sweet (adjective)

Dealt with very quickly; to the point.

- The conference was short and sweet.
- Make your statement short and sweet.

white heat (noun)

The hotness of something heated until it turns white.

- They discussed “white heat” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “white heat” means with a simple example.

above-named (adjective)

Mentioned or named earlier in the same text.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “above-named.”
- The speaker chose “above-named” because it captured the feeling precisely.

alive (adjective)

(often followed by ‘with’) full of life and spirit.

- She was wonderfully alive for her age.
- A face alive with mischief.

brown-green (adjective)

Of green tinged with brown.

- Students compared “brown-green” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A “brown-green” approach may work better in this case.

camp-made (adjective)

Made as part of the arts-and-crafts program at summer camp.

- My camp-made leather wallet.
- A “camp-made” approach may work better in this case.

cast down (verb)

Lower someone’s spirits; make downhearted.

- He did not know how to use “cast down” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “cast down” in a sentence that fits this situation?

cast-off (adjective)

Thrown away.

- Wearing someone’s cast-off clothes.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “cast-off.”

changing (adjective)

Marked by continuous change or effective action.

- The speaker chose “changing” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “changing” when it is marked by continuous change or effective action.

---

easier (adjective)

Posing no difficulty; requiring little effort.

- The speaker chose “easier” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation “easier”? Explain why.

---

first-come-first-serve (adjective)

Not accepting reservations.

- It is useful to describe something as “first-come-first-serve” when it is not accepting reservations.
- A “first-come-first-serve” approach may work better in this case.

---

letter-perfect (adjective)

Correct to the last detail; especially being in or following the exact words.

- A letter-perfect rendition of the soliloquy.
- It is useful to describe something as “letter-perfect” when it is correct to the last detail; especially being in or....

---

liked (adjective)

Found pleasant or attractive; often used as a combining form.

- A well-liked teacher.
- A “liked” approach may work better in this case.

---

owned (adjective)

Having an owner; often used in combination.

- State-owned railways.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “owned.”

---

ready-to-wear (adjective)

(especially of clothing) made in standard sizes and available from merchandise in stock.

- Ready-to-wear clothes.
- The speaker chose “ready-to-wear” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

stick-on (adjective)

Of something (a paper label or postage stamp) gummed in advance.

- Stick-on labels.
- Students compared “stick-on” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

strong-growing (adjective)

Tending to spread quickly.

- The speaker chose “strong-growing” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “strong-growing” when it is tending to spread quickly.

---

volume (noun)

The property of something that is great in magnitude.

- The volume of exports.
- The gas expanded to twice its original volume.

---

all-knowing (adjective)

Infinitely wise.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “all-knowing.”
- Students compared “all-knowing” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

brain dead (adjective)

Having irreversible loss of brain function as indicated by a persistent flat electroencephalogram.

- Was declared brain dead.

- It is useful to describe something as “brain dead” when it is having irreversible loss of brain function as....

---

busy (adjective)

Intrusive in a meddling or offensive manner.

- Busy about other people’s business.
- A busy painting.

---

concerned (adjective)

Involved in or affected by or having a claim to or share in.

- A memorandum to those concerned.
- An enterprise in which three men are concerned.

---

criminal (adjective)

Bringing or deserving severe rebuke or censure.

- A criminal waste of talent.
- Criminal in the sight of God and man.

---

dead centre (noun)

The position of a crank when it is in line with the connecting rod and not exerting torque.

- The article explained what “dead centre” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “dead centre” to mean the position of a crank when it is in line with the....

---

deep-sea (adjective)

Of or taking place in the deeper parts of the sea.

- Deep-sea fishing.
- Deep-sea exploration.

---

existing (adjective)

Having existence or being or actuality.

- Much of the beluga caviar existing in the world is found in the Soviet Union and Iran.
- A “existing” approach may work better in this case.

---

full-scale (adjective)

Using all available resources.

- A full-scale campaign against nuclear power plants.
- Students compared “full-scale” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

high-grade (adjective)

Surpassing in quality.

- Students compared “high-grade” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A “high-grade” approach may work better in this case.

---

love handle (noun)

Excess fat around the waistline.

- He looked up “love handle” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “love handle.”

---

metal-looking (adjective)

Resembling metal.

- A “metal-looking” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “metal-looking” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

one-horse (adjective)

Small and remote and insignificant.

- Passed a series of poky little one-horse towns.
- It is useful to describe something as “one-horse” when it is small and remote and insignificant.

---

operating (adjective)

Being in effect or operation; - Leslie Marmon Silko.

- The company had several operating divisions.
- The speaker chose "operating" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

paying (adjective)

For which money is paid.

- A paying job.
- It is useful to describe something as "paying" when it is for which money is paid.

---

short-lived (adjective)

Lasting a very short time.

- The speaker chose "short-lived" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "short-lived."

---

small-scale (adjective)

Created or drawn on a small scale.

- Small-scale maps.
- A small-scale model.

---

surprise (noun)

The astonishment you feel when something totally unexpected happens to you.

- They discussed "surprise" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "surprise" to mean the astonishment you feel when something totally....

---

unique (adjective)

The single one of its kind.

- The unique existing example of Donne's handwriting.
- A unique copy of an ancient manuscript.

---

bigger (adjective)

Large or big relative to something else.

- It is useful to describe something as "bigger" when it is large or big relative to something else.
- The speaker chose "bigger" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

broken heart (noun)

Devastating sorrow and despair.

- He is recovering from a broken heart.
- A broken heart languishes here.

---

discovered (adjective)

Discovered or determined by scientific observation.

- The discovered behavior norms.
- Discovered differences in achievement.

---

edge (noun)

The attribute of urgency in tone of voice.

- His voice had an edge to it.
- He rounded the edges of the box.

---

evil (noun)

The quality of being morally wrong in principle or practice.

- Attempts to explain the origin of evil in the world.
- The evil that men do lives after them; the good is oft interred with their bones.

---

fact-finding (adjective)

Designed to find information or ascertain facts.

- A fact-finding committee.
- It is useful to describe something as "fact-finding" when it is designed to find information or ascertain facts.

---

file-like (adjective)

Resembling a file.

- It is useful to describe something as "file-like" when it is resembling a file.
- Students compared "file-like" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

hard-of-hearing (adjective)

Having a hearing loss.

- It is useful to describe something as "hard-of-hearing" when it is having a hearing loss.
- Students compared "hard-of-hearing" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

mad (adjective)

Marked by uncontrolled excitement or emotion.

- A mad whirl of pleasure.
- She gets mad when you wake her up so early.

---

ordered (adjective)

Disposed or placed in a particular kind of order.

- An ordered sequence.
- The speaker chose "ordered" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

prepared (adjective)

Made ready or fit or suitable beforehand.

- A prepared statement.
- Be prepared for emergencies.

---

self-doubt (noun)

Lack of self-confidence.

- They discussed "self-doubt" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "self-doubt" to mean lack of self-confidence.

---

self-established (adjective)

Constituted by or established by itself.

- A "self-established" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "self-established" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

single-channel (adjective)

Designating sound transmission or recording or reproduction over a single channel.

- It is useful to describe something as "single-channel" when it is designating sound transmission or recording or....
- The speaker chose "single-channel" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

stated (adjective)

Declared as fact; explicitly stated.

- The speaker chose "stated" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "stated" approach may work better in this case.

---

surface area (noun)

The extent of a 2-dimensional surface enclosed within a boundary.

- The area of a rectangle.
- It was about 500 square feet in area.

---

wine (noun)

A red as dark as red wine.

- The article explained what "wine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wine" during the group presentation.

at bay (adjective)

Forced to turn and face attackers.

- A stag at bay.
- The speaker chose "at bay" because it captured the feeling precisely.

common touch (noun)

The property of appealing to people in general (usually by appearing to have qualities in common with them).

- He looked up "common touch" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common touch."

cost-effective (adjective)

Productive relative to the cost.

- The speaker chose "cost-effective" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "cost-effective" when it is productive relative to the cost.

deep brown (noun)

A medium brown to dark-brown color.

- Understanding "deep brown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "deep brown" means with a simple example.

english-speaking (adjective)

Able to communicate in English.

- The speaker chose "english-speaking" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "english-speaking" when it is able to communicate in english.

excellent (adjective)

Very good;of the highest quality.

- Made an excellent speech.
- The school has excellent teachers.

full-strength (adjective)

Without water.

- The speaker chose "full-strength" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "full-strength" when it is without water.

guard (noun)

A posture of defence in boxing or fencing.

- Keep your guard up.
- The left guard was injured on the play.

hand-to-mouth (adjective)

Providing only bare essentials.

- A hand-to-mouth existence.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hand-to-mouth."

honest (adjective)

Not disposed to cheat or defraud; not deceptive or fraudulent.

- Honest lawyers.
- Honest reporting.

house-proud (adjective)

Proud of your house or its furnishings or upkeep.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "house-proud."
- The speaker chose "house-proud" because it captured the feeling precisely.

joined (adjective)

Of or relating to two people who are married to each other.

- The speaker chose "joined" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "joined"? Explain why.

---

labor of love (noun)

Productive work performed voluntarily without material reward or compensation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labor of love."
- He looked up "labor of love" because he had never seen it before.

---

likes (verb)

Feel about or towards; consider, evaluate, or regard.

- She likes to read Russian novels.
- She tried to use "likes" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

orders (noun)

A degree in a continuum of size or quantity.

- The British ships dropped anchor and waited for orders from London.
- The company's products were in such demand that they got more orders than their call center could handle.

---

red heat (noun)

The heat or the color of fire.

- The article explained what "red heat" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "red heat" during the group presentation.

---

safety-related (adjective)

Providing or ensuring safety.

- It is useful to describe something as "safety-related" when it is providing or ensuring safety.
- The speaker chose "safety-related" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

set in stone (adjective)

No longer changeable.

- The agreement is not yet set in stone.
- It is useful to describe something as "set in stone" when it is no longer changeable.

---

silver-white (adjective)

Of a white that resembles silver.

- The speaker chose "silver-white" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "silver-white" when it is of a white that resembles silver.

---

solid (adjective)

Of definite shape and volume; firm; neither liquid nor gaseous.

- Ice is water in the solid state.
- A solid block of wood.

---

top-grade (adjective)

Surpassing in quality.

- Top-grade ore.
- A "top-grade" approach may work better in this case.

---

trouble-free (adjective)

Without problems or difficulties.

- NASA reported a trouble-free launch.
- Students compared "trouble-free" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

air-to-surface (adjective)

Operating from or designed to be fired from aircraft at targets on the ground.

- Air-to-surface missiles.

- Students compared “air-to-surface” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

broken-field (adjective)

Varying in direction suddenly and frequently.

- Broken-field running.
- Would you call this situation “broken-field”? Explain why.

---

classic (adjective)

Of or relating to the most highly developed stage of an earlier civilisation and its culture.

- Classic Cinese pottery.
- It is useful to describe something as “classic” when it is of or relating to the most highly developed stage....

---

dark-brown (adjective)

Of a color similar to that of wood or earth.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “dark-brown.”
- Students compared “dark-brown” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

draw together (verb)

Bring together in a common cause or emotion.

- The death of their child had drawn them together.
- She tried to use “draw together” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fast-growing (adjective)

Tending to spread quickly.

- Students compared “fast-growing” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “fast-growing.”

---

harry (verb)

Annoy continually or chronically.

- He is known to harry his staff when he is overworked.
- The coach explained when to use “harry” and when to wait.

---

large-scale (adjective)

Constructed or drawn to a big scale.

- Large-scale maps.
- A large-scale attack on AIDS is needed.

---

love apple (noun)

Native to South America; widely cultivated in many varieties.

- He looked up “love apple” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “love apple.”

---

massive (adjective)

Imposing in scale or scope or degree or power.

- Massive retaliatory power.
- A massive increase in oil prices.

---

physical property (noun)

Any property used to characterize matter and energy and their interactions.

- In class, the teacher used “physical property” to mean any property used to characterize matter and energy....
- The article explained what “physical property” means with a simple example.

---

proper (adjective)

Marked by suitability or rightness or appropriateness.

- Proper medical treatment.
- Proper manners.

---

regional (adjective)

Related or limited to a particular region.

- A regional dialect.
- The speaker chose "regional" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

self-produced (adjective)

Originating from the self.

- A "self-produced" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "self-produced" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

set-apart (adjective)

Being or feeling set or kept apart from others; ; - Sherwood Anderson.

- Had a set-apart feeling.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "set-apart."

---

shape (noun)

The visual appearance of something or someone.

- He could barely make out their shapes.
- Geometry is the mathematical science of shape.

---

surface-to-air (adjective)

Operating from or designed to be launched from the ground against an airborne target.

- Surface-to-air missiles.
- Students compared "surface-to-air" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unit character (noun)

(genetics) a character inherited on an all-or-none basis and dependent on the presence of a single gene.

- They discussed "unit character" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "unit character" because he had never seen it before.

---

useful (adjective)

Being of use or service.

- The girl felt motherly and useful.
- A useful job.

---

well-ordered (adjective)

Ordered well.

- Well-ordered work habits.
- Students compared "well-ordered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

advanced (adjective)

Ahead in development; complex or intricate.

- Advanced technology.
- The child's skeletal age was classified as 'advanced'.

---

ever-changing (adjective)

Marked by continuous change or effective action.

- Would you call this situation "ever-changing"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "ever-changing" when it is marked by continuous change or effective action.

---

fantastic (adjective)

Existing in fancy only; - Nathaniel Hawthorne.

- Fantastic figures with bulbous heads the circumference of a bushel.
- Fantastic Halloween costumes.

---

fat chance (noun)

Little or no chance of success.

- The article explained what "fat chance" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fat chance."

---

feelings (noun)

Emotional or moral sensitivity (especially in relation to personal principles or dignity).

- The remark hurt his feelings.
- He had terrible feelings of guilt.

---

hundred (adjective)

Being ten more than ninety.

- Would you call this situation "hundred"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hundred."

---

ice-cold (adjective)

As cold as ice.

- It is useful to describe something as "ice-cold" when it is as cold as ice.
- A "ice-cold" approach may work better in this case.

---

mass energy (noun)

(physics) the mass of a body regarded relativistically as energy.

- Understanding "mass energy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mass energy" means with a simple example.

---

mental age (noun)

The level of intellectual development as measured by an intelligence test.

- Understanding "mental age" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mental age" because he had never seen it before.

---

red cent (noun)

Something of little value.

- Not worth one red cent.
- They discussed "red cent" during the group presentation.

---

rest mass (noun)

(physics) the mass of a body as measured when the body is at rest relative to an observer, an inherent property of the body.

- Understanding "rest mass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "rest mass" because he had never seen it before.

---

sense of purpose (noun)

The quality of having a definite purpose.

- They discussed "sense of purpose" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sense of purpose" because he had never seen it before.

---

terrible (adjective)

Extreme in degree or extent or amount or impact.

- A terrible curse.
- Terrible handwriting.

---

treated (adjective)

Made hard or flexible or resilient especially by heat treatment.

- The sludge of treated sewage can be used as fertilizer.
- Treated timbers resist rot.

---

warm (adjective)

Psychologically warm; friendly and responsive.

- A warm greeting.
- A warm personality.

warm to (verb)

Become excited about.

- He warmed to the idea of a trip to Antarctica.
- She tried to use “warm to” carefully so everyone would understand.

cold feet (noun)

Timidity that prevents the continuation of a course of action.

- I was going to tell him but I got cold feet.
- In class, the teacher used “cold feet” to mean timidity that prevents the continuation of a course....

color property (noun)

An attribute of color.

- In class, the teacher used “color property” to mean an attribute of color.
- The article explained what “color property” means with a simple example.

cross-section (adjective)

Representing a plane made by cutting across something at right angles to its length.

- Cross-section views of the neck.
- It is useful to describe something as “cross-section” when it is representing a plane made by cutting across....

fixed (adjective)

Fixed and unmoving; ; - Connor Cruise O’Brien.

- With eyes set in a fixed glassy stare.
- Living on fixed incomes.

full-length (adjective)

Representing or accommodating the entire length.

- A full-length portrait.
- The full-length play.

go to pieces (verb)

Lose one’s emotional or mental composure.

- The coach explained when to use “go to pieces” and when to wait.
- Can you use “go to pieces” in a sentence that fits this situation?

hundred and one (adjective)

Being one more than one hundred.

- A “hundred and one” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “hundred and one.”

intended (adjective)

Resulting from one’s intentions.

- Your intended trip abroad.
- An intended insult.

limit (noun)

The greatest possible degree of something.

- To the limit of his ability.
- There are limits on the amount you can bet.

low-budget (adjective)

Made on or suited to a limited budget.

- A low-budget movie.
- A low-budget menu.

low-rise (adjective)

Used of buildings of one or only a few stories and usually no elevator; low.

- Looking out over the roofs of low-rise apartment buildings.
- Would you call this situation "low-rise"? Explain why.

---

off guard (adjective)

Not prepared or vigilant.

- Caught in an off-guard moment.
- Found him off his guard.

---

off his guard (adjective)

Not prepared or vigilant.

- Caught in an off-guard moment.
- Found him off his guard.

---

off your guard (adjective)

Not prepared or vigilant.

- Caught in an off-guard moment.
- Found him off his guard.

---

off-guard (adjective)

Not prepared or vigilant.

- Caught in an off-guard moment.
- The speaker chose "off-guard" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

one hundred (adjective)

Being ten more than ninety.

- Would you call this situation "one hundred"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "one hundred" when it is being ten more than ninety.

---

one hundred one (adjective)

Being one more than one hundred.

- Would you call this situation "one hundred one"? Explain why.
- Students compared "one hundred one" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

open-and-shut (adjective)

So obvious as to be easily solved or decided.

- An open-and-shut case.
- A "open-and-shut" approach may work better in this case.

---

pro-choice (adjective)

Advocating a woman's right to control her own body (especially her right to an induced abortion).

- A "pro-choice" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "pro-choice" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rose-red (adjective)

Of a deep slightly bluish red color.

- The speaker chose "rose-red" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "rose-red" when it is of a deep slightly bluish red color.

---

song of songs (noun)

An Old Testament book consisting of a collection of love poems traditionally attributed to Solomon but actually written much later.

- He looked up "song of songs" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "song of songs."

---

street smart (adjective)

Having the shrewd resourcefulness needed to survive in an urban environment.

- Students compared "street smart" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

- A “street smart” approach may work better in this case.

---

suit (noun)

A man’s courting of a woman; seeking the affections of a woman (usually with the hope of marriage).

- They buried him in his best suit.
- The family brought suit against the landlord.

---

total heat (noun)

(thermodynamics) a thermodynamic quantity equal to the internal energy of a system plus the product of its volume and pressure.

- Understanding “total heat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “total heat” means with a simple example.

---

wide of the mark (adjective)

Not on target.

- The kick was wide.
- The arrow was wide of the mark.

---

double-quick (adjective)

(of a marching cadence) very quick.

- The speaker chose “double-quick” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “double-quick” when it is (of a marching cadence) very quick.

---

french-speaking (adjective)

Able to communicate in French.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “french-speaking.”
- Students compared “french-speaking” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

fresh-cut (adjective)

Cut recently.

- Fresh-cut flowers.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “fresh-cut.”

---

full-dress (adjective)

(of an occasion) requiring formal clothes.

- A full-dress ceremony.
- A full-dress uniform.

---

hundred-and-first (adjective)

The ordinal number of one hundred one in counting order.

- The speaker chose “hundred-and-first” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “hundred-and-first” approach may work better in this case.

---

length of service (noun)

Duration of service.

- He looked up “length of service” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “length of service” to mean duration of service.

---

low-grade (adjective)

Of inferior quality.

- Students compared “low-grade” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “low-grade.”

---

moon about (verb)

Be apathetic, gloomy, or dazed.

- The coach explained when to use “moon about” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “moon about” in real sentences.

---

multiple-choice (adjective)

Offering several alternative answers from which the correct one is to be chosen; or consisting of such questions.

- Multiple-choice questions.
- A multiple-choice test.

---

noted (adjective)

Widely known and esteemed.

- A noted increase in the crime rate.
- Students compared "noted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

off her guard (adjective)

Not prepared or vigilant.

- Caught in an off-guard moment.
- Found him off his guard.

---

planned (adjective)

Designed or carried out according to a plan.

- The planned outlays for new equipment.
- It is useful to describe something as "planned" when it is designed or carried out according to a plan.

---

solid-state (adjective)

Consisting of semiconductor materials and components and related devices.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "solid-state."
- A "solid-state" approach may work better in this case.

---

supreme (adjective)

Greatest in status or authority or power.

- A supreme tribunal.
- The supreme sacrifice.

---

two hundred (adjective)

Being ten more than one hundred ninety.

- Would you call this situation "two hundred"? Explain why.
- Students compared "two hundred" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

word-of-mouth (adjective)

Expressed orally.

- The film had good word-of-mouth publicity.
- Would you call this situation "word-of-mouth"? Explain why.

---

yellow (noun)

Yellow color or pigment; the chromatic color resembling the hue of sunflowers or ripe lemons.

- Understanding "yellow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "yellow" means with a simple example.

---

younger (adjective)

Used of the younger of two persons of the same name especially used to distinguish a son from his father.

- The speaker chose "younger" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "younger."

---

above-mentioned (adjective)

Mentioned or named earlier in the same text.

- The speaker chose "above-mentioned" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "above-mentioned"? Explain why.

---

background level (noun)

The amplitude level of the undesired background noise.

- He looked up "background level" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "background level" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bear off (verb)

Remove from a certain place, environment, or mental or emotional state; transport into a new location or state.

- The car carried us off to the meeting.
- Can you use "bear off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

combined (adjective)

Made or joined or united into one.

- A "combined" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "combined" when it is made or joined or united into one.

---

connected (adjective)

Being joined in close association.

- All the window alarms are connected.
- First check to see whether the appliance is connected.

---

evil-looking (adjective)

Having an evil appearance.

- Would you call this situation "evil-looking"? Explain why.
- A "evil-looking" approach may work better in this case.

---

formed (adjective)

Having or given a form or shape.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "formed."
- The speaker chose "formed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

freedom of the press (noun)

A right guaranteed by the First Amendment to the US Constitution.

- They discussed "freedom of the press" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "freedom of the press" means with a simple example.

---

heart-healthy (adjective)

Of foods that are low in fats and sodium and other ingredients that may foster heart disease.

- Would you call this situation "heart-healthy"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "heart-healthy" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

illegal (adjective)

Prohibited by law or by official or accepted rules.

- An illegal chess move.
- Students compared "illegal" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

increasing (adjective)

Becoming greater or larger.

- Increasing prices.
- The speaker chose "increasing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

joke (noun)

A humorous anecdote or remark intended to provoke laughter.

- He told a very funny joke.
- I regarded his campaign for mayor as a joke.

---

not surprised (adjective)

Not surprised or expressing surprise.

- It is useful to describe something as "not surprised" when it is not surprised or expressing surprise.
- Students compared "not surprised" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

relationships (noun)

A state of connectedness between people (especially an emotional connection).

- The article explained what "relationships" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "relationships" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

selected (adjective)

Chosen in preference to another.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "selected."
- Would you call this situation "selected"? Explain why.

self-acting (adjective)

Designed to activate or move or regulate itself.

- The speaker chose "self-acting" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-acting" when it is designed to activate or move or regulate itself.

shared (adjective)

Have in common; held or experienced in common.

- Two shared valence electrons forming a bond between adjacent nuclei.
- A shared interest in philately.

soft (adjective)

Produced with vibration of the vocal cords.

- He was soft on his children.
- Soft voices.

soft on (adjective)

Marked by foolish or unreasoning fondness.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "soft on."
- The speaker chose "soft on" because it captured the feeling precisely.

sound pressure level (noun)

The physical intensity of sound.

- Understanding "sound pressure level" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sound pressure level" during the group presentation.

stuck (adjective)

Caught or fixed.

- Stuck in the mud.
- Would you call this situation "stuck"? Explain why.

stuck with (adjective)

Burdened with.

- Stuck with the tab.
- Students compared "stuck with" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

supported (adjective)

Held up or having the weight borne especially from below.

- Supported joints in a railroad track have ties directly under the rail ends.
- A club entirely supported by membership dues.

transport (noun)

A state of being carried away by overwhelming emotion; - Charles Dickens.

- The article explained what "transport" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "transport" during the group presentation.

well-fixed (adjective)

In fortunate circumstances financially; moderately rich.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-fixed."
- A "well-fixed" approach may work better in this case.

---

accepted (adjective)

Generally approved or compelling recognition.

- Several accepted techniques for treating the condition.
- The speaker chose "accepted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

applied (adjective)

Concerned with concrete problems or data rather than with fundamental principles; ; ; - Sidney Hook.

- Applied physics.
- Applied psychology.

---

confirmed (adjective)

Having been established or made firm or received the rite of confirmation.

- Confirmed reservations.
- Received confirmed reports of casualties.

---

field strength (noun)

The vector sum of all the forces exerted by an electrical or magnetic field (on a unit mass or unit charge or unit magnetic pole) at a given point in the field.

- They discussed "field strength" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "field strength" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

golden (adjective)

Having the deep slightly brownish color of gold.

- Long aureate (or golden) hair.
- A golden era.

---

grown (adjective)

(of animals) fully developed.

- A grown woman.
- A "grown" approach may work better in this case.

---

hard-core (adjective)

Stubbornly resistant to change or improvement.

- Hard-core addicts.
- His hard-core supporters.

---

honest-to-god (adjective)

(used informally especially for emphasis).

- A real honest-to-god live cowboy.
- Students compared "honest-to-god" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

labour of love (noun)

Productive work performed voluntarily without material reward or compensation.

- He looked up "labour of love" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labour of love."

---

legs (noun)

Staying power.

- That old Broadway play really has legs.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legs."

---

long suit (noun)

An asset of special worth or utility.

- They discussed "long suit" during the group presentation.

- Understanding "long suit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

queen-size (adjective)

(used especially of beds) not as large as king-size.

- A queen-sized bed.
- Students compared "queen-size" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

royal blue (noun)

A shade of blue tinged with purple.

- They discussed "royal blue" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "royal blue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

saved (adjective)

Rescued; especially from the power and consequences of sin.

- A saved soul.
- The speaker chose "saved" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

shared out (adjective)

Distributed in portions (often equal) on the basis of a plan or purpose.

- A "shared out" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "shared out"? Explain why.

---

skin-deep (adjective)

Penetrating no deeper than the skin:.

- Her beauty is only skin-deep.
- Would you call this situation "skin-deep"? Explain why.

---

stuck-up (adjective)

(used colloquially) overly conceited or arrogant; -Laurent Le Sage.

- They're snobs–stuck-up and uppity and persnickety.
- It is useful to describe something as "stuck-up" when it is (used colloquially) overly conceited or arrogant;....

---

three hundred (adjective)

Being one hundred more than two hundred.

- It is useful to describe something as "three hundred" when it is being one hundred more than two hundred.
- The speaker chose "three hundred" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

values (noun)

Beliefs of a person or social group in which they have an emotional investment (either for or against something).

- He has very conservatives values.
- I establish the colors and principal values by organizing the painting into three values–dark, medium...and light.

---

agreed upon (adjective)

Constituted or contracted by stipulation or agreement.

- It is useful to describe something as "agreed upon" when it is constituted or contracted by stipulation or agreement.
- A "agreed upon" approach may work better in this case.

---

bear away (verb)

Remove from a certain place, environment, or mental or emotional state; transport into a new location or state.

- Their dreams carried the Romantics away into distant lands.
- I'll take you away on a holiday.

---

comfortable (adjective)

Providing or experiencing physical well-being or relief ('comfy' is informal).

- Comfortable clothes.
- Comfortable suburban houses.

---

concern (noun)

A feeling of sympathy for someone or something.

- She felt strong concern for those less fortunate.
- The safety of the ship is the captain's concern.

---

court-ordered (adjective)

Ordered by a court of law.

- A "court-ordered" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "court-ordered" when it is ordered by a court of law.

---

dead on target (adjective)

Accurately placed or thrown.

- He was dead on target.
- Students compared "dead on target" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

duty-free (adjective)

Exempt from duty.

- Duty-free liquor.
- A "duty-free" approach may work better in this case.

---

emotional (adjective)

Of more than usual emotion.

- His behavior was highly emotional.
- It was an emotional judgment.

---

facilities (noun)

A natural effortlessness; ; –Jane Austen.

- Catering facilities.
- Toilet facilities.

---

falling (adjective)

Becoming lower or less in degree or value.

- A falling market.
- Falling incomes.

---

flat-top (adjective)

Having a flat or flattened upper surface.

- The speaker chose "flat-top" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flat-top."

---

free-flying (adjective)

Able to fly through the air (as a bird).

- Three chicks were raised to the free-flying stage.
- Would you call this situation "free-flying"? Explain why.

---

internal (adjective)

Happening or arising or located within some limits or especially surface.

- Internal organs.
- Internal mechanism of a toy.

---

laugh (noun)

A facial expression characteristic of a person laughing.

- His face wrinkled in a silent laugh of derision.
- Thanks for the laugh.

---

laugh at (verb)

Subject to laughter or ridicule.

- Learners should practice how to use "laugh at" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "laugh at" when talking about this idea.

---

loves (noun)

A deep feeling of sexual desire and attraction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loves."
- He looked up "loves" because he had never seen it before.

---

moon around (verb)

Be apathetic, gloomy, or dazed.

- Learners should practice how to use "moon around" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "moon around" and when to wait.

---

never-ending (adjective)

Uninterrupted in time and indefinitely long continuing.

- The never-ending search for happiness.
- It is useful to describe something as "never-ending" when it is uninterrupted in time and indefinitely long continuing.

---

purpose-built (adjective)

Designed and constructed to serve a particular purpose.

- The speaker chose "purpose-built" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "purpose-built" when it is designed and constructed to serve a particular purpose.

---

recorded (adjective)

Set down or registered in a permanent form especially on film or tape for reproduction.

- Recorded music.
- It is useful to describe something as "recorded" when it is set down or registered in a permanent form....

---

right to an attorney (noun)

A civil right guaranteed by the 6th amendment to the US Constitution.

- Understanding "right to an attorney" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "right to an attorney" means with a simple example.

---

round-bottom (adjective)

Having a rounded bottom.

- Round-bottom flasks.
- Students compared "round-bottom" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

russian-speaking (adjective)

Able to communicate in Russian.

- It is useful to describe something as "russian-speaking" when it is able to communicate in russian.
- A "russian-speaking" approach may work better in this case.

---

sharing (adjective)

Unselfishly willing to share with others.

- A warm and sharing friend.
- Students compared "sharing" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

weak (adjective)

Deficient in intelligence or mental power.

- A weak mind.
- Weak tea.

---

well-connected (adjective)

Connected by blood or close acquaintance with people of wealth or social position.

- A well-connected Edinburgh family.
- It is useful to describe something as "well-connected" when it is connected by blood or close acquaintance with....

well-formed (adjective)

Conforming to the rules of grammar or usage accepted by native speakers.

- Would you call this situation "well-formed"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "well-formed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

air-dry (adjective)

Not giving off moisture on exposure to the air.

- It is useful to describe something as "air-dry" when it is not giving off moisture on exposure to the air.
- The speaker chose "air-dry" because it captured the feeling precisely.

committed (adjective)

Bound or obligated, as under a pledge to a particular cause, action, or attitude.

- Committed church members.
- A committed Marxist.

confidence (noun)

A feeling of trust (in someone or something).

- I have confidence in our team.
- Confidence is always borrowed, never owned.

cute (adjective)

Attractive especially by means of smallness or prettiness or quaintness.

- A cute kid with pigtails.
- A cute little apartment.

equal to (adjective)

Having the requisite qualities for.

- Equal to the task.
- The speaker chose "equal to" because it captured the feeling precisely.

focused (adjective)

Of an optical system (e.g. eye or opera glasses) adjusted to produce a clear image.

- Focused light rays can set something afire.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "focused."

happy-go-lucky (adjective)

Cheerfully irresponsible.

- Students compared "happy-go-lucky" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "happy-go-lucky" when it is cheerfully irresponsible.

high-tech (adjective)

Resembling or making use of highly advanced technology or devices.

- A "high-tech" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "high-tech" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

leads (noun)

An advantage held by a competitor in a race.

- It was a tangle of jumper cables and clip leads.
- They discussed "leads" during the group presentation.

military strength (noun)

Capability in terms of personnel and materiel that affect the capacity to fight a war.

- We faced an army of great strength.
- Politicians have neglected our military posture.

numerous (adjective)

Amounting to a large indefinite number.

- Numerous times.
- The family was numerous.

---

physical ability (noun)

The ability to perform some physical act; contrasting with mental ability.

- They discussed "physical ability" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "physical ability" to mean the ability to perform some physical act;....

---

presence of mind (noun)

Self-control in a crisis; ability to say or do the right thing in an emergency.

- In class, the teacher used "presence of mind" to mean self-control in a crisis; ability to say or do the....
- The article explained what "presence of mind" means with a simple example.

---

properties (noun)

A basic or essential attribute shared by all members of a class.

- A study of the physical properties of atomic particles.
- The article explained what "properties" means with a simple example.

---

quiet (noun)

A disposition free from stress or emotion.

- The street was quiet.
- In class, the teacher used "quiet" to mean a disposition free from stress or emotion.

---

right of entry (noun)

The legal right to take possession of real estate in a peaceable manner.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right of entry."
- Understanding "right of entry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

self-aware (adjective)

Aware of yourself as an individual or of your own being and actions and thoughts; ; - D.M.Potter.

- The speaker chose "self-aware" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-aware" when it is aware of yourself as an individual or of your own....

---

state-supported (adjective)

Supported and operated by the government of a state.

- Students compared "state-supported" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "state-supported."

---

stone-dead (adjective)

As lifeless as a stone.

- It is useful to describe something as "stone-dead" when it is as lifeless as a stone.
- The speaker chose "stone-dead" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

urban (adjective)

Located in or characteristic of a city or city life.

- Urban property owners.
- Urban affairs.

---

affected (adjective)

Being excited or provoked to the expression of an emotion.

- Would you call this situation "affected"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "affected" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

approved (adjective)

Established by authority; given authoritative approval.

- A list of approved candidates.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "approved."

---

at fault (adjective)

Deserving blame.

- Admitted to being at fault.
- A "at fault" approach may work better in this case.

---

determined (adjective)

Determined or decided upon as by an authority.

- Date and place are already determined.
- A struggle against a determined enemy.

---

distribution (noun)

The spatial or geographic property of being scattered about over a range, area, or volume.

- Worldwide in distribution.
- The distribution of nerve fibers.

---

extended (adjective)

Relatively long in duration; tediously protracted.

- An extended discussion.
- The extended airport runways can accommodate larger planes.

---

fault (noun)

The quality of being inadequate or falling short of perfection.

- He knew his own faults much better than she did.
- I could understand his English in spite of his grammatical faults.

---

friendly (adjective)

Of or belonging to your own country's forces or those of an ally.

- In friendly territory.
- He was accidentally killed by friendly fire.

---

laugh off (verb)

Deal with a problem by laughing or pretending to be amused by it.

- She laughs away all these problems.
- Learners should practice how to use "laugh off" in real sentences.

---

mixed (adjective)

Involving or composed of different races.

- A mixed neighborhood.
- A mixed program of baroque and contemporary music.

---

non-paying (adjective)

Paying nothing.

- Non-paying guests.
- Non-paying bidders on eBay.

---

pure (adjective)

(used of persons or behaviors) having no faults; sinless; - Sylvia Plath.

- I felt pure and sweet as a new baby.
- Pure as the driven snow.

---

reduced (adjective)

Made less in size or amount or degree.

- It is useful to describe something as "reduced" when it is made less in size or amount or degree.
- Students compared "reduced" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

silver-blue (adjective)

Of something having a color that is a light shiny blue.

- Would you call this situation "silver-blue"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "silver-blue" when it is of something having a color that is a light shiny blue.

---

silver-green (adjective)

Of something having a color that is a light shiny green.

- A "silver-green" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "silver-green" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

smile (noun)

A facial expression characterized by turning up the corners of the mouth; usually shows pleasure or amusement.

- He looked up "smile" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smile."

---

square-built (adjective)

Broad and solidly built.

- Students compared "square-built" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "square-built" approach may work better in this case.

---

strange (adjective)

Being definitely out of the ordinary and unexpected; slightly odd or even a bit weird.

- A strange exaltation that was indefinable.
- A strange fantastical mind.

---

twenty-first (adjective)

Coming next after the twentieth in position.

- Would you call this situation "twenty-first"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "twenty-first" when it is coming next after the twentieth in position.

---

upper hand (noun)

Position of advantage and control.

- The article explained what "upper hand" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "upper hand" to mean position of advantage and control.

---

upper-level (adjective)

At an elevated level in rank or importance.

- Upper-level management.
- The speaker chose "upper-level" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

willing and able (adjective)

Not reluctant.

- The speaker chose "willing and able" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "willing and able"? Explain why.

---

wine-red (adjective)

Of something having the dark red color of red wine.

- The speaker chose "wine-red" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "wine-red" approach may work better in this case.

---

common or garden (adjective)

The usual or familiar type.

- It is a common or garden sparrow.
- The speaker chose "common or garden" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

coverage (noun)

The extent to which something is covered.

- The dictionary's coverage of standard English is excellent.
- They accused the paper of biased coverage of race relations.

---

elected (adjective)

Subject to popular election.

- It is useful to describe something as "elected" when it is subject to popular election.
- The speaker chose "elected" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

emotional state (noun)

The state of a person's emotions (especially with regard to pleasure or dejection).

- His emotional state depended on her opinion.
- The article explained what "emotional state" means with a simple example.

---

experienced (adjective)

Having experience; having knowledge or skill from observation or participation.

- It is useful to describe something as "experienced" when it is having experience; having knowledge or skill from....
- The speaker chose "experienced" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

false (adjective)

Not in accordance with the fact or reality or actuality.

- Gave false testimony under oath.
- False tales of bravery.

---

fired (adjective)

Having lost your job.

- It is useful to describe something as "fired" when it is having lost your job.
- Students compared "fired" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

german-speaking (adjective)

Able to communicate in German.

- A "german-speaking" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "german-speaking."

---

hold dear (verb)

Be fond of; be attached to.

- In everyday English, people use "hold dear" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "hold dear" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

identified (adjective)

Having the identity known or established.

- The identified bodies were released for burial.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "identified."

---

incredible (adjective)

Beyond belief or understanding.

- At incredible speed.
- The book's plot is simply incredible.

---

inspired (adjective)

Being of such surpassing excellence as to suggest inspiration by the gods.

- An inspired performance.
- Students compared "inspired" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

last laugh (noun)

Ultimate success achieved after a near failure (inspired by the saying 'he laughs best who laughs last').

- We had the last laugh after the votes were counted.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "last laugh."

mixed-up (adjective)

Perplexed by many conflicting situations or statements; filled with bewilderment.

- Just a mixed-up kid.
- A "mixed-up" approach may work better in this case.

noticed (adjective)

Being perceived or observed.

- An easily noticed effect on the rate of growth.
- Students compared "noticed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

obvious (adjective)

Easily perceived by the senses or grasped by the mind.

- Obvious errors.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "obvious."

one hundred five (adjective)

Being five more than one hundred.

- Students compared "one hundred five" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one hundred five."

positions (noun)

The arrangement of the body and its limbs.

- He looked up "positions" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "positions."

remaining (adjective)

Not used up.

- Saved the remaining sandwiches for supper.
- It is useful to describe something as "remaining" when it is not used up.

slow-moving (adjective)

Moving slowly.

- Slow-moving cars.
- Would you call this situation "slow-moving"? Explain why.

smoke-free (adjective)

Free of smoke.

- Smoke-free offices and restaurants.
- Students compared "smoke-free" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

weak part (noun)

A place of especial vulnerability.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weak part."
- He looked up "weak part" because he had never seen it before.

yellow-white (adjective)

Of a white tinged with yellow.

- Students compared "yellow-white" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "yellow-white."

air-filled (adjective)

Full of air.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "air-filled."
- Students compared "air-filled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

all-fired (adjective)

Extreme; used as an intensifier.

- Why is he in such an all-fired hurry?
- Students compared "all-fired" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

charged (adjective)

Of a particle or body or system; having a net amount of positive or negative electric charge.

- Charged particles.
- A charged battery.

---

cut-and-dry (adjective)

According to ordinary expectations.

- Would you call this situation "cut-and-dry"? Explain why.
- Students compared "cut-and-dry" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

fall apart (verb)

Lose one's emotional or mental composure.

- She fell apart when her only child died.
- The old chair finally fell apart completely.

---

feel like a million dollars (verb)

Be in excellent health and spirits.

- He feels like a million after he got the promotion.
- He did not know how to use "feel like a million dollars" until he saw an example.

---

heat content (noun)

(thermodynamics) a thermodynamic quantity equal to the internal energy of a system plus the product of its volume and pressure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heat content."
- He looked up "heat content" because he had never seen it before.

---

highly-developed (adjective)

(used of societies) having high industrial development.

- Students compared "highly-developed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "highly-developed" when it is (used of societies) having high industrial development.

---

light-duty (adjective)

Not designed for heavy work.

- A light-duty detergent.
- The speaker chose "light-duty" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

rock-bottom (adjective)

Well below normal (especially in price).

- The speaker chose "rock-bottom" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rock-bottom."

---

up to his neck (adjective)

Deeply involved.

- Neck-deep in work.
- Up to their necks in debt.

---

up to my neck (adjective)

Deeply involved.

- Neck-deep in work.
- Up to their necks in debt.

---

up to your neck (adjective)

Deeply involved.

- Neck-deep in work.

- Up to their necks in debt.

---

usual (adjective)

Occurring or encountered or experienced or observed frequently or in accordance with regular practice or procedure.

- Grew the usual vegetables.
- The usual summer heat.

---

bright (adjective)

Emitting or reflecting light readily or in large amounts.

- The sun was bright and hot.
- A bright sunlit room.

---

capable (adjective)

(usually followed by 'of') having capacity or ability.

- Capable of winning.
- Capable of hard work.

---

desire (noun)

An inclination to want things.

- A man of many desires.
- In class, the teacher used "desire" to mean an inclination to want things.

---

destroyed (adjective)

Spoiled or ruined or demolished.

- War left many cities destroyed.
- Alzheimer's is responsible for her destroyed mind.

---

die-cast (adjective)

Formed by forcing molten metal into a die.

- A die-cast seal.
- Students compared "die-cast" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

drunk (adjective)

Stupefied or excited by a chemical substance (especially alcohol).

- Would you call this situation "drunk"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "drunk" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

fair-and-square (adjective)

Just and honest.

- Would you call this situation "fair-and-square"? Explain why.
- A "fair-and-square" approach may work better in this case.

---

fellow feeling (noun)

Sharing the feelings of others (especially feelings of sorrow or anguish).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fellow feeling."
- Understanding "fellow feeling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

full-grown (adjective)

(of animals) fully developed.

- A "full-grown" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "full-grown"? Explain why.

---

granted (adjective)

Acknowledged as a supposition.

- The speaker chose "granted" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "granted" when it is acknowledged as a supposition.

---

guilty (adjective)

Responsible for or chargeable with a reprehensible act.

- Guilty of murder.
- The guilty person.

---

high temperature (noun)

The presence of heat.

- Understanding "high temperature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high temperature."

---

improved (adjective)

Made more desirable or valuable or profitable; especially made ready for use or marketing.

- New houses are springing up on an improved tract of land near the river.
- An improved breed.

---

laugh away (verb)

Deal with a problem by laughing or pretending to be amused by it.

- She laughs away all these problems.
- He did not know how to use "laugh away" until he saw an example.

---

laughing (adjective)

Showing or feeling mirth or pleasure or happiness.

- Laughing children.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "laughing."

---

not guilty (adjective)

Declared not guilty of a specific offense or crime; legally blameless.

- The jury found him not guilty by reason of insanity.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "not guilty."

---

record-breaking (adjective)

Surpassing any previously established record.

- A record-breaking high jump.
- Record-breaking crowds.

---

relevant (adjective)

Having a bearing on or connection with the subject at issue.

- The scientist corresponds with colleagues in order to learn about matters relevant to her own research.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "relevant."

---

skin color (noun)

The coloring of a person's face.

- He looked up "skin color" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "skin color" to mean the coloring of a person's face.

---

throw-weight (noun)

The weight of the payload of a missile (not including the weight of the rocket).

- The article explained what "throw-weight" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "throw-weight."

---

top-hole (adjective)

Excellent; best possible.

- Students compared "top-hole" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "top-hole."

---

twenty-second (adjective)

Coming next after the twenty-first in position.

- Would you call this situation "twenty-second"? Explain why.
- Students compared "twenty-second" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unable (adjective)

(usually followed by 'to') not having the necessary means or skill or know-how.

- Unable to get to town without a car.
- Unable to obtain funds.

---

up to her neck (adjective)

Deeply involved.

- Neck-deep in work.
- Up to their necks in debt.

---

weak point (noun)

An attribute that is inadequate or deficient.

- Understanding "weak point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "weak point" to mean an attribute that is inadequate or deficient.

---

creative (adjective)

Having the ability or power to create.

- A creative imagination.
- A "creative" approach may work better in this case.

---

directed (adjective)

(often used in combination) having a specified direction.

- A positively directed vector.
- Goal-directed.

---

extreme (noun)

The furthest or highest degree of something.

- He carried it to extremes.
- In class, the teacher used "extreme" to mean the furthest or highest degree of something.

---

facility (noun)

A natural effortlessness; ; –Jane Austen.

- They conversed with great facility.
- The assembly plant is an enormous facility.

---

goods (noun)

That which is pleasing or valuable or useful.

- Among the highest goods of all are happiness and self-realization.
- In class, the teacher used "goods" to mean that which is pleasing or valuable or useful.

---

laugh line (noun)

A wrinkle in the skin at the outer corner of your eyes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laugh line."
- He looked up "laugh line" because he had never seen it before.

---

low-tech (adjective)

Not involving high technology.

- A "low-tech" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "low-tech" when it is not involving high technology.

---

maximum (adjective)

The greatest or most complete or best possible.

- Maximum pressure.
- Students compared "maximum" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

milk-white (adjective)

Of a white the color of fresh milk.

- A “milk-white” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “milk-white.”

scared (adjective)

Made afraid.

- Too shocked and scared to move.
- Would you call this situation “scared”? Explain why.

self-supporting (adjective)

Financially independent.

- Now that my children are self-supporting.
- Would you call this situation “self-supporting”? Explain why.

stone-cold (adjective)

Completely cold.

- By the time he got back to his coffee it was stone-cold.
- Would you call this situation “stone-cold”? Explain why.

tickets (noun)

The appropriate or desirable thing.

- The article explained what “tickets” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “tickets” to mean the appropriate or desirable thing.

voting right (noun)

The right to vote; especially the right of a common shareholder to vote in person or by proxy on the affairs of a company.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “voting right.”
- The article explained what “voting right” means with a simple example.

appointed (adjective)

Fixed or established especially by order or command;).

- At the time appointed (or the appointed time.
- The one appointed for guard duty.

armed (adjective)

Having arms or arms as specified; used especially in combination.

- The many-armed goddess Shiva.
- Armed robbery.

careful (adjective)

Exercising caution or showing care or attention.

- They were careful when crossing the busy street.
- Be careful to keep her shoes clean.

concerns (noun)

A feeling of sympathy for someone or something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “concerns.”
- They discussed “concerns” during the group presentation.

controlled (adjective)

Restrained or managed or kept within certain bounds.

- Controlled emotions.
- The controlled release of water from reservoirs.

cry (noun)

The characteristic utterance of an animal.

- A cry of rage.
- A cry to arms.

---

cry for (verb)

Need badly or desperately.

- This question cries out for an answer.
- In everyday English, people use "cry for" when talking about this idea.

---

enjoyed (verb)

Derive or receive pleasure from; get enjoyment from; take pleasure in.

- The industry enjoyed a boom.
- Learners should practice how to use "enjoyed" in real sentences.

---

faces (noun)

The feelings expressed on a person's face.

- He looked out at a roomful of faces.
- When he returned to work he met many new faces.

---

fast-breaking (adjective)

Occurring rapidly as a series of events in rapid succession.

- The broadcast was interrupted by a fast-breaking news story about the invasion.
- Would you call this situation "fast-breaking"? Explain why.

---

gender (noun)

The properties that distinguish organisms on the basis of their reproductive roles.

- They discussed "gender" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gender."

---

hang-up (noun)

An emotional preoccupation.

- He looked up "hang-up" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hang-up."

---

nick (noun)

An impression in a surface (as made by a blow).

- He's in the nick.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nick."

---

open-chain (adjective)

Having an open chain structure.

- Students compared "open-chain" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "open-chain"? Explain why.

---

primary color (noun)

Any of three colors from which all others can be obtained by mixing.

- The article explained what "primary color" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "primary color."

---

realized (adjective)

Successfully completed or brought to an end.

- The joy of a realized ambition overcame him.
- Would you call this situation "realized"? Explain why.

---

reasonable (adjective)

Showing reason or sound judgment.

- Would you call this situation "reasonable"? Explain why.

- A "reasonable" approach may work better in this case.

---

right-wing (adjective)

Believing in or supporting tenets of the political right.

- Students compared "right-wing" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "right-wing"? Explain why.

---

self-command (noun)

The trait of resolutely controlling your own behavior.

- In class, the teacher used "self-command" to mean the trait of resolutely controlling your own behavior.
- The article explained what "self-command" means with a simple example.

---

strong suit (noun)

An asset of special worth or utility.

- Understanding "strong suit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "strong suit" because he had never seen it before.

---

typical (adjective)

Of a feature that helps to distinguish a person or thing; - Curtis Wilkie.

- That is typical of you!
- The typical (or normal) American.

---

well-chosen (adjective)

Well expressed and to the point.

- A few well-chosen words.
- A "well-chosen" approach may work better in this case.

---

attitude (noun)

The arrangement of the body and its limbs.

- He assumed an attitude of surrender.
- He had the attitude that work was fun.

---

blue-sky (adjective)

Without immediate commercial value.

- The company cannot afford to do blue-sky research.
- Would you call this situation "blue-sky"? Explain why.

---

cry out (verb)

Utter aloud; often with surprise, horror, or joy.

- 'I'm here,' the mother shouted when she saw her child looking lost.
- She tried to use "cry out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cry out for (verb)

Need badly or desperately.

- This question cries out for an answer.
- Can you use "cry out for" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

dedicated (adjective)

Solemnly dedicated to or set apart for a high purpose.

- A chapel dedicated to the dead of World War II.
- A dedicated dancer.

---

favor (noun)

An advantage to the benefit of someone or something.

- The outcome was in his favor.
- That style is in favor this season.

---

fucked-up (adjective)

Snarled or stalled in complete confusion.

- Situation normal–all fucked-up.
- It is useful to describe something as "fucked-up" when it is snarled or stalled in complete confusion.

long-familiar (adjective)

Frequently experienced; known closely or intimately.

- A long-familiar face.
- It is useful to describe something as "long-familiar" when it is frequently experienced; known closely or intimately.

low-lying (adjective)

Having a small elevation above the ground or horizon or sea level.

- Low-lying clouds.
- A low-lying desert.

one-armed (adjective)

Having one arm.

- A one-armed veteran.
- It is useful to describe something as "one-armed" when it is having one arm.

random (adjective)

Lacking any definite plan or order or purpose; governed by or depending on chance.

- A random choice.
- Bombs fell at random.

sky-blue (adjective)

Of a deep somewhat purplish blue color similar to that of a clear October sky.

- Would you call this situation "sky-blue"? Explain why.
- A "sky-blue" approach may work better in this case.

surface-active (adjective)

Capable of lowering the surface tension of a liquid; used especially of detergents.

- Students compared "surface-active" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "surface-active" approach may work better in this case.

throw a fit (verb)

Get very angry and fly into a rage.

- The coach explained when to use "throw a fit" and when to wait.
- Can you use "throw a fit" in a sentence that fits this situation?

trained (adjective)

Shaped or conditioned or disciplined by training; often used as a combining form.

- A trained mind.
- Trained pigeons.

understood (adjective)

Fully apprehended as to purport or meaning or explanation.

- The understood conditions of troop withdrawal were clear.
- The speaker chose "understood" because it captured the feeling precisely.

accurate (adjective)

Conforming exactly or almost exactly to fact or to a standard or performing with total accuracy.

- An accurate reproduction.
- The accounting was accurate.

bob hope (noun)

United States comedian (born in England) who appeared in films with Bing Crosby (1903-2003).

- They discussed "bob hope" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bob hope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

competitive (adjective)

Involving competition or competitiveness.

- Competitive games.
- To improve one's competitive position.

---

fast-flying (adjective)

Moving swiftly.

- Fast-flying planes.
- Would you call this situation "fast-flying"? Explain why.

---

give a hang (verb)

Show no concern or interest; always used in the negative.

- I don't give a hoot.
- She doesn't give a damn about her job.

---

hate mail (noun)

Mail that expresses the writer's dislike or hatred (usually in offensive language).

- They discussed "hate mail" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hate mail."

---

left-wing (adjective)

Believing in or supporting tenets of the political left.

- The speaker chose "left-wing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "left-wing" when it is believing in or supporting tenets of the political left.

---

mass-produced (adjective)

Produced in quantity often by assembly-line techniques.

- The speaker chose "mass-produced" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "mass-produced" approach may work better in this case.

---

moon-round (adjective)

Resembling the moon in shape.

- It is useful to describe something as "moon-round" when it is resembling the moon in shape.
- A "moon-round" approach may work better in this case.

---

plant-eating (adjective)

(of animals) feeding on plants.

- Would you call this situation "plant-eating"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "plant-eating" when it is (of animals) feeding on plants.

---

pleasure (noun)

A fundamental feeling that is hard to define but that people desire to experience.

- He was tingling with pleasure.
- The pleasure of his company.

---

prefer (verb)

Like better; value more highly.

- Some people prefer camping to staying in hotels.
- We prefer sleeping outside.

---

primary sex character (noun)

The genetically determined sex characteristics bound up with reproduction (genitals and organs of reproduction).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "primary sex character."
- He looked up "primary sex character" because he had never seen it before.

re-formed (adjective)

Formed again or anew.

- The re-formed scout troop has been very active.
- The speaker chose "re-formed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

steel blue (noun)

A greyish blue color.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steel blue."
- The article explained what "steel blue" means with a simple example.

tight (adjective)

Of such close construction as to be impermeable.

- A tight roof.
- Warm in our tight little house.

too-careful (adjective)

Excessively or unduly careful.

- A "too-careful" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "too-careful" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

twenty-third (adjective)

Coming next after the twenty-second in position.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "twenty-third."
- The speaker chose "twenty-third" because it captured the feeling precisely.

unlike (adjective)

Marked by dissimilarity.

- For twins they are very unlike.
- They distributed unlike (or unequal) sums to the various charities.

well-appointed (adjective)

Having a full array of suitable equipment or furnishings.

- A well-appointed kitchen.
- A well-appointed apartment.

bright side (noun)

A consoling aspect of a difficult situation.

- Look on the bright side of it.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bright side."

commercial-grade (adjective)

Of the kind or quality used in commerce; average or inferior.

- Students compared "commercial-grade" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "commercial-grade" when it is of the kind or quality used in commerce; average or....

defined (adjective)

Showing clearly the outline or profile or boundary.

- Hills defined against the evening sky.
- A "defined" approach may work better in this case.

depending on (adjective)

Determined by conditions or circumstances that follow.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "depending on."
- Students compared "depending on" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

expert (adjective)

Of or relating to or requiring special knowledge to be understood.

- An expert job.
- Students compared "expert" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

grace (noun)

A disposition to kindness and compassion.

- The victor's grace in treating the vanquished.
- The conception of grace developed alongside the conception of sin.

---

high-resolution (adjective)

Producing images that are sharp and finely detailed.

- High-resolution photography.
- A high-resolution lens.

---

hopefully (adverb)

With hope; in a hopeful manner.

- We searched hopefully for a good position.
- Hopefully the weather will be fine on Sunday.

---

importance (noun)

The quality of being important and worthy of note.

- The importance of a well-balanced diet.
- A person of importance.

---

japanese-speaking (adjective)

Able to communicate in Japanese.

- It is useful to describe something as "japanese-speaking" when it is able to communicate in japanese.
- The speaker chose "japanese-speaking" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

laid (adjective)

Set down according to a plan:.

- A carefully laid table with places set for four people.
- Stones laid in a pattern.

---

long-armed (adjective)

Having relatively long arms.

- Would you call this situation "long-armed"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "long-armed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

low temperature (noun)

The absence of heat.

- Understanding "low temperature" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "low temperature" means with a simple example.

---

on the button (adjective)

Being precise with regard to a prescribed or specified criterion.

- His guess was on the nose.
- The prediction for snow was right on the button.

---

personal appeal (noun)

A personal attractiveness or interestingness that enables you to influence others.

- The article explained what "personal appeal" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "personal appeal."

---

pregnant (adjective)

Carrying developing offspring within the body or being about to produce new life.

- A "pregnant" approach may work better in this case.

- It is useful to describe something as "pregnant" when it is carrying developing offspring within the body or....

---

self-concern (noun)

Concern for your own interests and welfare.

- The article explained what "self-concern" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "self-concern" during the group presentation.

---

severe (adjective)

Causing fear or anxiety by threatening great harm.

- A severe case of pneumonia.
- Severe pain.

---

sex appeal (noun)

Attractiveness to the opposite sex.

- They discussed "sex appeal" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sex appeal" means with a simple example.

---

signal level (noun)

The amplitude level of the desired signal.

- In class, the teacher used "signal level" to mean the amplitude level of the desired signal.
- The article explained what "signal level" means with a simple example.

---

state-controlled (adjective)

Subscribing to the socialistic doctrine of ownership by the people collectively.

- It is useful to describe something as "state-controlled" when it is subscribing to the socialistic doctrine of....
- A "state-controlled" approach may work better in this case.

---

throw cold water on (verb)

Be discouraging or negative about.

- The coach explained when to use "throw cold water on" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "throw cold water on" until he saw an example.

---

true-false (adjective)

Offering a series of statements each of which is to be judged as true or false.

- A true-false test.
- Would you call this situation "true-false"? Explain why.

---

two-lane (adjective)

Having a lane for traffic in each direction.

- The speaker chose "two-lane" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "two-lane."

---

un-american (adjective)

Considered contrary to the best interests of the United States.

- It is useful to describe something as "un-american" when it is considered contrary to the best interests of the....
- The speaker chose "un-american" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

well-conducted (adjective)

Characterized by good organization and control.

- A well-conducted meeting.
- It is useful to describe something as "well-conducted" when it is characterized by good organization and control.

---

yellow green (noun)

A shade of green tinged with yellow.

- They discussed "yellow green" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow green."

---

yellow-green (adjective)

Of a color midway between yellow and green.

- It is useful to describe something as “yellow-green” when it is of a color midway between yellow and green.
- Students compared “yellow-green” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

brilliant (adjective)

Having or marked by unusual and impressive intelligence.

- A brilliant mind.
- A brilliant solution to the problem.

---

care a hang (verb)

Show no concern or interest; always used in the negative.

- She tried to use “care a hang” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use “care a hang” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

closed-ring (adjective)

Having atoms linked by bonds represented in circular or triangular form.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “closed-ring.”
- Would you call this situation “closed-ring”? Explain why.

---

critical mass (noun)

The minimum amount (of something) required to start or maintain a venture.

- The battle for the computer market has now reached critical mass.
- There is now a critical mass of successful women to take the lead.

---

declared (adjective)

Made known or openly avowed.

- Their declared and their covert objectives.
- A declared liberal.

---

depth (noun)

The extent downward or backward or inward.

- The depth of the water.
- Depth of a shelf.

---

dirty (adjective)

Soiled or likely to soil with dirt or grime.

- Dirty unswept sidewalks.
- A child in dirty overalls.

---

earned (adjective)

Gained or acquired; especially through merit or as a result of effort or action.

- A well-earned reputation for honesty.
- Earned income.

---

expression (noun)

The feelings expressed on a person’s face.

- A sad expression.
- Tears are an expression of grief.

---

freedom of speech (noun)

A civil right guaranteed by the First Amendment to the US Constitution.

- The article explained what “freedom of speech” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “freedom of speech.”

---

headed (adjective)

Of leafy vegetables; having formed into a head.

- Headed cabbages.
- Westward headed wagons.

---

joy (noun)

Something or someone that provides a source of happiness.

- A joy to behold.
- Understanding "joy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

laid up (adjective)

Ill and usually confined.

- Laid up with a bad cold.
- A "laid up" approach may work better in this case.

---

laid-back (adjective)

Unhurried and relaxed.

- Students compared "laid-back" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "laid-back" approach may work better in this case.

---

manner (noun)

A way of acting or behaving.

- Her dignified manner.
- His rapid manner of talking.

---

matt (noun)

The property of having little or no contrast; lacking highlights or gloss.

- In class, the teacher used "matt" to mean the property of having little or no contrast;....
- They discussed "matt" during the group presentation.

---

mental block (noun)

An inability to remember or think of something you normally can do; often caused by emotional tension.

- I knew his name perfectly well but I had a temporary block.
- Understanding "mental block" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

non-profit-making (adjective)

Not commercially motivated.

- Would you call this situation "non-profit-making"? Explain why.
- A "non-profit-making" approach may work better in this case.

---

over-the-counter (adjective)

Purchasable without a doctor's prescription.

- An over-the-counter cold remedy.
- The speaker chose "over-the-counter" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

personality (noun)

The complex of all the attributes–behavioral, temperamental, emotional and mental–that characterize a unique individual.

- She is a Hollywood personality.
- He looked up "personality" because he had never seen it before.

---

right of re-entry (noun)

The legal right to resume possession (a right that was reserved when a former possession was parted with).

- The article explained what "right of re-entry" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "right of re-entry" to mean the legal right to resume possession (a right that....

---

set-aside (adjective)

Reserved in advance.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "set-aside."
- Students compared "set-aside" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

stronger (adjective)

Of good quality and condition; solidly built.

- Would you call this situation "stronger"? Explain why.
- Students compared "stronger" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

un-get-at-able (adjective)

Difficult to reach or attain.

- The speaker chose "un-get-at-able" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "un-get-at-able" when it is difficult to reach or attain.

well-defined (adjective)

Having a clean and distinct outline as if precisely cut along the edges.

- Well-defined features.
- It is useful to describe something as "well-defined" when it is having a clean and distinct outline as if precisely....

button-down (adjective)

Of a shirt; having the ends of the collar fastened down by buttons.

- Brooks Brothers button-down shirts.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "button-down."

calm (verb)

Become quiet or calm, especially after a state of agitation.

- He did not know how to use "calm" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "calm" in real sentences.

checked (adjective)

Patterned with alternating squares of color.

- The speaker chose "checked" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "checked" when it is patterned with alternating squares of color.

driven (adjective)

Urged or forced to action through moral pressure.

- It is useful to describe something as "driven" when it is urged or forced to action through moral pressure.
- A "driven" approach may work better in this case.

dumb (adjective)

Slow to learn or understand; lacking intellectual acuity; ; ; - Thackeray.

- Dumb officials make some really dumb decisions.
- Struck dumb.

exciting (adjective)

Creating or arousing excitement.

- An exciting account of her trip.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "exciting."

exclusive right (noun)

A right reserved exclusively by a particular person or group (especially a hereditary or official right).

- He looked up "exclusive right" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exclusive right."

far cry (noun)

A disappointing disparity.

- It was a far cry from what he had expected.
- It's a far cry from here.

golden-green (adjective)

Of green tinged with gold.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "golden-green."
- The speaker chose "golden-green" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

head register (noun)

The higher ranges of the voice in speaking or singing; the vibrations of sung notes are felt in the head.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "head register."
- He looked up "head register" because he had never seen it before.

---

in sight (adjective)

At or within a reasonable distance for seeing.

- Not a policeman in sight.
- Students compared "in sight" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

laid-off (adjective)

Having lost your job.

- Would you call this situation "laid-off"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "laid-off" when it is having lost your job.

---

latter-day (adjective)

Belonging to the present or recent times.

- The latter-day problems of our society.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "latter-day."

---

linked (adjective)

Connected by a link, as railway cars or trailer trucks.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "linked."
- Would you call this situation "linked"? Explain why.

---

medium-large (adjective)

Of anything that is large but not the largest.

- The speaker chose "medium-large" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "medium-large" when it is of anything that is large but not the largest.

---

native-born (adjective)

Belonging to a place by birth.

- A native-born Scot.
- The speaker chose "native-born" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

non-zero (adjective)

Not involving zero.

- Would you call this situation "non-zero"? Explain why.
- Students compared "non-zero" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

one hundred ten (adjective)

Being ten more than one hundred.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one hundred ten."
- A "one hundred ten" approach may work better in this case.

---

orange red (noun)

A variable color that is vivid red but sometimes with an orange tinge.

- They discussed "orange red" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "orange red" to mean a variable color that is vivid red but sometimes....

---

orange-red (adjective)

Of red tinged with orange.

- It is useful to describe something as "orange-red" when it is of red tinged with orange.

- The speaker chose "orange-red" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

personal identity (noun)

The distinct personality of an individual regarded as a persisting entity.

- You can lose your identity when you join the army.
- He looked up "personal identity" because he had never seen it before.

---

pre-existing (adjective)

Existing previously or before something.

- A "pre-existing" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "pre-existing"? Explain why.

---

quit (verb)

Give up in the face of defeat of lacking hope; admit defeat.

- Quit teasing your little brother.
- Can you use "quit" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

red-orange (adjective)

Of orange tinged with red.

- It is useful to describe something as "red-orange" when it is of orange tinged with red.
- The speaker chose "red-orange" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

rent-free (adjective)

Complimentary; without payment of rent.

- With the job came a rent-free apartment.
- Students compared "rent-free" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

self-collected (adjective)

In full control of your faculties.

- Students compared "self-collected" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "self-collected"? Explain why.

---

three-lane (adjective)

Having a lane for traffic in each direction and a center lane for passing.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "three-lane."
- The speaker chose "three-lane" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

time of origin (noun)

The oldness of wines.

- In class, the teacher used "time of origin" to mean the oldness of wines.
- The article explained what "time of origin" means with a simple example.

---

tip-up (adjective)

Constructed so as to tip up or out of the way.

- The little tip-up seat of the taxi.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tip-up."

---

war cry (noun)

A slogan used to rally support for a cause.

- A cry to arms.
- In class, the teacher used "war cry" to mean a slogan used to rally support for a cause.

---

worldwide (adjective)

Of worldwide scope or applicability; ; - Christopher Morley.

- Worldwide distribution.
- A worldwide epidemic.

---

attractive (adjective)

Pleasing to the eye or mind especially through beauty or charm.

- A remarkably attractive young man.
- An attractive personality.

---

blow out of the water (verb)

Surprise greatly; knock someone's socks off.

- In everyday English, people use "blow out of the water" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "blow out of the water" in real sentences.

---

bright-red (adjective)

Of the red of fresh raspberries.

- Students compared "bright-red" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bright-red."

---

broad (adjective)

Having great (or a certain) extent from one side to the other.

- A river two miles broad.
- Broad shoulders.

---

deep-yellow (adjective)

Of something having the color of a pumpkin.

- A "deep-yellow" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "deep-yellow"? Explain why.

---

drawing power (noun)

The capacity for attracting people (customers or supporters).

- They discussed "drawing power" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "drawing power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drawn (adjective)

Having the curtains or draperies closed or pulled shut.

- The drawn draperies kept direct sunlight from fading the rug.
- Her face was drawn and haggard from sleeplessness.

---

face-saving (adjective)

Maintaining dignity or prestige.

- A face-saving compromise.
- It is useful to describe something as "face-saving" when it is maintaining dignity or prestige.

---

factory-made (adjective)

Produced in quantity at a factory.

- It is useful to describe something as "factory-made" when it is produced in quantity at a factory.
- Students compared "factory-made" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

four-lane (adjective)

Having two lanes for traffic in each direction.

- A "four-lane" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "four-lane" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

free grace (noun)

(Christian theology) the free and unmerited favor or beneficence of God.

- God's grace is manifested in the salvation of sinners.
- There but for the grace of God go I.

---

gas-filled (adjective)

Full of a gas.

- It is useful to describe something as "gas-filled" when it is full of a gas.
- The speaker chose "gas-filled" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

hidden (adjective)

Designed to elude detection.

- A hidden room or place of concealment such as a priest hole.
- Concealed (or hidden) damage.

---

in height (adjective)

Having a specified height.

- Five feet in height.
- Students compared "in height" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

in the raw (adjective)

(used informally) completely unclothed.

- It is useful to describe something as "in the raw" when it is (used informally) completely unclothed.
- Would you call this situation "in the raw"? Explain why.

---

long-headed (adjective)

Having a dolichocephalic head.

- It is useful to describe something as "long-headed" when it is having a dolichocephalic head.
- Would you call this situation "long-headed"? Explain why.

---

loud (adjective)

Used chiefly as a direction or description in music.

- A group of loud children.
- Loud thunder.

---

out of print (adjective)

(of books) no longer offered for sale by a publisher.

- That edition is out of print.
- Would you call this situation "out of print"? Explain why.

---

represented (adjective)

Represented accurately or precisely.

- The speaker chose "represented" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "represented" approach may work better in this case.

---

respond (verb)

Respond favorably or as hoped.

- The cancer responded to the aggressive therapy.
- Can you use "respond" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

self-serving (adjective)

Interested only in yourself.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "self-serving."
- The speaker chose "self-serving" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

taken for granted (adjective)

Evident without proof or argument.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "taken for granted."
- Students compared "taken for granted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ultimate (noun)

The finest or most superior quality of its kind.

- The ultimate in luxury.
- They discussed "ultimate" during the group presentation.

un-come-at-able (adjective)

Difficult to reach or attain.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "un-come-at-able."
- A "un-come-at-able" approach may work better in this case.

under-the-counter (adjective)

Done or sold illicitly and secretly.

- A "under-the-counter" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "under-the-counter" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

wondering (adjective)

Showing curiosity.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wondering."
- Students compared "wondering" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

angry walk (noun)

A stiff or threatening gait.

- In class, the teacher used "angry walk" to mean a stiff or threatening gait.
- They discussed "angry walk" during the group presentation.

attached (adjective)

Used of buildings joined by common sidewalls.

- A block of attached houses.
- Would you call this situation "attached"? Explain why.

attacked (verb)

Attack someone physically or emotionally.

- Hitler attacked Poland on September 1, 1939 and started World War II.
- The editors of the left-leaning paper attacked the new House Speaker.

calm down (verb)

Become quiet or calm, especially after a state of agitation.

- It took a while after the baby was born for things to settle down again.
- In everyday English, people use "calm down" when talking about this idea.

differences (noun)

The quality of being unlike or dissimilar.

- There are many differences between jazz and rock.
- There were irreconcilable differences.

drawn-out (adjective)

Relatively long in duration; tediously protracted.

- A drawn-out argument.
- A "drawn-out" approach may work better in this case.

engaged (adjective)

Having ones attention or mind or energy engaged.

- Deeply engaged in conversation.
- The desperately engaged ships continued the fight.

expressed (adjective)

Precisely and clearly expressed or readily observable; leaving nothing to implication.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "expressed."
- A "expressed" approach may work better in this case.

external (adjective)

Happening or arising or located outside or beyond some limits or especially surface.

- The external auditory canal.
- External pressures.

---

grace of god (noun)

(Christian theology) the free and unmerited favor or beneficence of God.

- God's grace is manifested in the salvation of sinners.
- There but for the grace of God go I.

---

heavy-duty (adjective)

Designed for heavy work.

- A heavy-duty detergent.
- Heavy-duty gloves.

---

hi-tech (adjective)

Resembling or making use of highly advanced technology or devices.

- Would you call this situation "hi-tech"? Explain why.
- Students compared "hi-tech" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

immediate (adjective)

Of the present time and place.

- The immediate revisions.
- Immediate contact.

---

light-armed (adjective)

Armed with light equipment and weapons.

- A light-armed brigade.
- Students compared "light-armed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

low-resolution (adjective)

Of computer output devices; producing images that are not sharply defined.

- The speaker chose "low-resolution" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "low-resolution" when it is of computer output devices; producing images that....

---

primary color for light (noun)

Any of three primary colors of light from which all colors can be obtained by additive mixing.

- The primary colors for light are red, blue, and green.
- In class, the teacher used "primary color for light" to mean any of three primary colors of light from which all....

---

recognized (adjective)

Generally approved or compelling recognition.

- His recognized superiority in this kind of work.
- A recognized authority.

---

registered (adjective)

(of animals) officially recorded with or certified by a recognized breed association; especially in a stud book.

- A registered Percheron.
- Record is made of 'registered mail' at each point on its route to assure safe delivery.

---

rising (adjective)

Advancing or becoming higher or greater in degree or value or status.

- A rising trend.
- A rising market.

---

stone-broke (adjective)

Lacking funds.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "stone-broke."

- A "stone-broke" approach may work better in this case.

---

tall (adjective)

Great in vertical dimension; high in stature.

- Tall people.
- Tall buildings.

---

yellow-brown (adjective)

Of a medium to dark brownish yellow color.

- A "yellow-brown" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "yellow-brown" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

adopted (adjective)

Acquired as your own by free choice.

- My adopted state.
- A "adopted" approach may work better in this case.

---

air-tight (adjective)

Not allowing air or gas to pass in or out.

- A "air-tight" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "air-tight" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

detailed (adjective)

Developed or executed with care and in minute detail; ; - John Buchan.

- A detailed plan.
- It is useful to describe something as "detailed" when it is developed or executed with care and in minute....

---

entitled (adjective)

Qualified for by right according to law.

- We are all entitled to equal protection under the law.
- A "entitled" approach may work better in this case.

---

exposed (adjective)

Not covered with clothing.

- Her exposed breast.
- The exposed northeast frontier.

---

flat-growing (adjective)

Of plants that grow relatively low to the ground.

- The speaker chose "flat-growing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "flat-growing"? Explain why.

---

golden-brown (adjective)

Of brown tinged with gold.

- It is useful to describe something as "golden-brown" when it is of brown tinged with gold.
- Would you call this situation "golden-brown"? Explain why.

---

long-suffering (noun)

Patient endurance of pain or unhappiness.

- In class, the teacher used "long-suffering" to mean patient endurance of pain or unhappiness.
- The article explained what "long-suffering" means with a simple example.

---

old-hat (adjective)

Repeated too often; overfamiliar through overuse.

- The speaker chose "old-hat" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "old-hat" when it is repeated too often; overfamiliar through overuse.

---

on the nose (adjective)

Being precise with regard to a prescribed or specified criterion.

- His guess was on the nose.
- The prediction for snow was right on the button.

---

opposed (adjective)

Being in opposition or having an opponent.

- Two bitterly opposed schools of thought.
- It is useful to describe something as "opposed" when it is being in opposition or having an opponent.

---

organized (adjective)

Methodical and efficient in arrangement or function.

- How well organized she is.
- His life was almost too organized.

---

protected (adjective)

Kept safe or defended from danger or injury or loss.

- The most protected spot I could find.
- Students compared "protected" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

self-directed (adjective)

(of persons) free from external control and constraint in e.g. action and judgment.

- A "self-directed" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "self-directed"? Explain why.

---

single-lane (adjective)

(of roads) having a single lane for traffic in both directions; when vehicles meet one must pull off the road to let the other pass.

- A "single-lane" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "single-lane" when it is (of roads) having a single lane for traffic in both....

---

spanish-speaking (adjective)

Able to communicate in Spanish.

- The speaker chose "spanish-speaking" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "spanish-speaking"? Explain why.

---

staying power (noun)

Enduring strength and energy.

- In class, the teacher used "staying power" to mean enduring strength and energy.
- The article explained what "staying power" means with a simple example.

---

strike a note (verb)

Refer to or be relevant or familiar to.

- In everyday English, people use "strike a note" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "strike a note" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

tie-on (adjective)

Fastened by tying on.

- Tie-on labels.
- It is useful to describe something as "tie-on" when it is fastened by tying on.

---

valuable (adjective)

Having great material or monetary value especially for use or exchange.

- A valuable diamond.
- Students compared "valuable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

wise (noun)

A way of doing or being.

- In no wise.
- In this wise.

---

wise to (adjective)

Evidencing the possession of inside information.

- The speaker chose "wise to" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "wise to" when it is evidencing the possession of inside information.

---

aged (adjective)

Of wines, fruit, cheeses; having reached a desired or final condition; ('aged' pronounced as one syllable).

- Mature well-aged cheeses.
- Aged members of the society.

---

aspects (noun)

The feelings expressed on a person's face.

- They discussed "aspects" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "aspects" means with a simple example.

---

behind-the-scenes (adjective)

Designed and carried out secretly or confidentially.

- Would you call this situation "behind-the-scenes"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "behind-the-scenes" when it is designed and carried out secretly or confidentially.

---

bright blue (adjective)

Of a deep somewhat purplish blue color similar to that of a clear October sky.

- October's bright blue weather.
- Students compared "bright blue" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

fed up (adjective)

Having a strong distaste from surfeit.

- Fed up with their complaints.
- It is useful to describe something as "fed up" when it is having a strong distaste from surfeit.

---

graduate (adjective)

Of or relating to studies beyond a bachelor's degree.

- Graduate courses.
- A "graduate" approach may work better in this case.

---

inner (adjective)

Located or occurring within or closer to a center.

- An inner room.
- It is useful to describe something as "inner" when it is located or occurring within or closer to a center.

---

laugh track (noun)

Prerecorded laughter added to the soundtrack of a radio or television show.

- Understanding "laugh track" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "laugh track" because he had never seen it before.

---

light-tight (adjective)

Not penetrable by light.

- The speaker chose "light-tight" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "light-tight" approach may work better in this case.

---

marked (adjective)

Having or as if having an identifying mark or a mark as specified; often used in combination.

- Played with marked cards.
- A scar-marked face.

medium-size (adjective)

Intermediate in size.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "medium-size."
- A "medium-size" approach may work better in this case.

most-valuable (adjective)

Designating the player judged to be the most important to the sport.

- The most-valuable player award.
- Would you call this situation "most-valuable"? Explain why.

oil-fired (adjective)

Fueled by burning oil.

- An oil-fired furnace.
- The speaker chose "oil-fired" because it captured the feeling precisely.

outstanding (adjective)

Of major significance or importance.

- Einstein was one of the outstanding figures of the 20th centurey.
- Did outstanding work in human relations.

power-driven (adjective)

Powered by a motor.

- A power-driven hand tool.
- Would you call this situation "power-driven"? Explain why.

self-appointed (adjective)

Designated or chosen by yourself.

- A self-appointed guardian of public morals.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "self-appointed."

self-seeking (noun)

Taking advantage of opportunities without regard for the consequences for others.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-seeking."
- He looked up "self-seeking" because he had never seen it before.

well-fed (adjective)

Properly nourished.

- Students compared "well-fed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "well-fed"? Explain why.

wheel (noun)

Forces that provide energy and direction.

- The wheels of government began to turn.
- They discussed "wheel" during the group presentation.

colour (noun)

An outward or token appearance or form that is deliberately misleading.

- In class, the teacher used "colour" to mean an outward or token appearance or form that is....
- Understanding "colour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

extensive (adjective)

Of agriculture; increasing productivity by using large areas with minimal outlay and labor.

- Producing wheat under extensive conditions.
- Agriculture of the extensive type.

faced (adjective)

Having a face or facing especially of a specified kind or number; often used in combination.

- A neatly faced terrace.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "faced."

---

freedom of religion (noun)

A civil right guaranteed by the First Amendment to the US Constitution.

- In class, the teacher used "freedom of religion" to mean a civil right guaranteed by the first amendment to....
- He looked up "freedom of religion" because he had never seen it before.

---

historic (adjective)

Belonging to the past; of what is important or famous in the past.

- Historic victories.
- Historical (or historic) times.

---

hit the roof (verb)

Get very angry and fly into a rage.

- The professor combusted when the student didn't know the answer to a very elementary question.
- She tried to use "hit the roof" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

laid low (adjective)

Put out of action (by illness).

- It is useful to describe something as "laid low" when it is put out of action (by illness).
- Would you call this situation "laid low"? Explain why.

---

large-headed (adjective)

Having a large head.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "large-headed."
- Would you call this situation "large-headed"? Explain why.

---

level-headed (adjective)

Exercising or showing good judgment.

- Would you call this situation "level-headed"? Explain why.
- Students compared "level-headed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lift up (verb)

Fill with high spirits; fill with optimism.

- Music can uplift your spirits.
- She tried to use "lift up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

marked-up (adjective)

(of a manuscript) defaced with changes.

- Would you call this situation "marked-up"? Explain why.
- A "marked-up" approach may work better in this case.

---

neck-deep (adjective)

Deeply involved.

- Neck-deep in work.
- It is useful to describe something as "neck-deep" when it is deeply involved.

---

noise level (noun)

The amplitude level of the undesired background noise.

- In class, the teacher used "noise level" to mean the amplitude level of the undesired background noise.
- Understanding "noise level" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pride (noun)

A feeling of self-respect and personal worth.

- He takes pride in his son's success.

- He looked up “pride” because he had never seen it before.

returning (adjective)

Tending to be turned back.

- It is useful to describe something as “returning” when it is tending to be turned back.
- Would you call this situation “returning”? Explain why.

studied (adjective)

Produced or marked by conscious design or premeditation; ; - V.L.Parrington.

- A studied smile.
- A note of biting irony and studied insult.

surrounding (adjective)

Closely encircling.

- The surrounding countryside.
- Students compared “surrounding” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

take chances (verb)

Take a risk in the hope of a favorable outcome.

- She tried to use “take chances” carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use “take chances” when talking about this idea.

turkey red (noun)

A bright orange-red color produced in cotton cloth with alizarine dye.

- The article explained what “turkey red” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “turkey red” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

vast (adjective)

Unusually great in size or amount or degree or especially extent or scope; ; ; ; ; ; ; ; ; - W.R.Inge.

- At vast (or immense) expense.
- The vast reaches of outer space.

wanting (adjective)

Inadequate in amount or degree.

- Tested and found wanting.
- Students compared “wanting” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

well-founded (adjective)

Based on sound reasoning or evidence.

- Well-founded suspicions.
- Students compared “well-founded” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

well-marked (adjective)

Clearly indicated.

- A well-marked route.
- A “well-marked” approach may work better in this case.

wheel-like (adjective)

Round like a wheel.

- The speaker chose “wheel-like” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “wheel-like” when it is round like a wheel.

combat-ready (adjective)

Engaged in or ready for military or naval operations.

- The platoon is combat-ready.
- Would you call this situation “combat-ready”? Explain why.

consistent (adjective)

The same throughout in structure or composition.

- Bituminous coal is often treated as a consistent and homogeneous product.
- It is useful to describe something as "consistent" when it is the same throughout in structure or composition.

---

continuing (adjective)

Remaining in force or being carried on without letup.

- The act provided a continuing annual appropriation.
- The continuing struggle to put food on the table.

---

grey (noun)

A neutral achromatic color midway between white and black.

- The Confederate army was a vast grey.
- He was dressed in grey.

---

heaven-sent (adjective)

Peculiarly fortunate or appropriate; as if by divine intervention.

- A heaven-sent rain saved the crops.
- Would you call this situation "heaven-sent"? Explain why.

---

light-headed (adjective)

Weak and likely to lose consciousness.

- Light-headed with wine.
- Light-headed from lack of sleep.

---

off-the-shoulder (adjective)

Not covering the shoulders (especially in the case of a blouse or dress).

- It is useful to describe something as "off-the-shoulder" when it is not covering the shoulders (especially in the case....
- The speaker chose "off-the-shoulder" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

practical (adjective)

Being actually such in almost every respect.

- A practical failure.
- Completely practical in his approach to business.

---

proved (adjective)

Established beyond doubt.

- Would you call this situation "proved"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "proved."

---

rush (noun)

The swift release of a store of affective force.

- He got a quick rush from injecting heroin.
- Come back after the rush.

---

self-importance (noun)

An exaggerated opinion of your own importance.

- The article explained what "self-importance" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "self-importance" during the group presentation.

---

short-headed (adjective)

Having a brachycephalic head.

- Would you call this situation "short-headed"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "short-headed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sought after (adjective)

Greatly desired.

- Students compared "sought after" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sought after."

---

sought-after (adjective)

Being searched for.

- The most sought-after item was the silver candelabrum.
- A "sought-after" approach may work better in this case.

---

tested (adjective)

Tested and proved useful or correct.

- A tested method.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tested."

---

two-faced (adjective)

Having two faces–one looking to the future and one to the past.

- Janus the two-faced god.
- Would you call this situation "two-faced"? Explain why.

---

white-pink (adjective)

Of pink tinged with white; a light tint of pink.

- Students compared "white-pink" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "white-pink"? Explain why.

---

attended (adjective)

Playing or singing with instrumental or vocal accompaniment.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "attended."
- Would you call this situation "attended"? Explain why.

---

bone (noun)

A shade of white the color of bleached bones.

- In class, the teacher used "bone" to mean a shade of white the color of bleached bones.
- Understanding "bone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

complicated (adjective)

Difficult to analyze or understand.

- A complicated problem.
- Complicated Middle East politics.

---

confused (adjective)

Mentally confused; unable to think with clarity or act intelligently.

- The flood of questions left her bewildered and confused.
- The speaker chose "confused" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

divided (adjective)

Having a median strip or island between lanes of traffic moving in opposite directions.

- A divided highway.
- The speaker chose "divided" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

divided up (adjective)

Distributed in portions (often equal) on the basis of a plan or purpose.

- It is useful to describe something as "divided up" when it is distributed in portions (often equal) on the basis....
- Would you call this situation "divided up"? Explain why.

---

equal opportunity (noun)

The right to equivalent opportunities for employment regardless of race or color or sex or national origin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "equal opportunity."
- He looked up "equal opportunity" because he had never seen it before.

everyday (adjective)

Appropriate for ordinary or routine occasions.

- Everyday clothes.
- A placid everyday scene.

flat-bottom (adjective)

Having a flat bottom.

- A flat-bottomed boat.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flat-bottom."

free burning (adjective)

(of an electric arc) continuous.

- Heat transfer to the anode in free burning arcs.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "free burning."

fully grown (adjective)

(of animals) fully developed.

- A grown woman.
- A "fully grown" approach may work better in this case.

goal-directed (adjective)

Having a purpose.

- Students compared "goal-directed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "goal-directed."

hope chest (noun)

Chest for storage of clothing (trousseau) and household goods in anticipation of marriage.

- They discussed "hope chest" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hope chest" means with a simple example.

impressive (adjective)

Making a strong or vivid impression.

- An impressive ceremony.
- The speaker chose "impressive" because it captured the feeling precisely.

italian-speaking (adjective)

Able to communicate in Italian.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "italian-speaking."
- Students compared "italian-speaking" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

limits (noun)

The greatest possible degree of something.

- There are limits on the amount you can bet.
- He looked up "limits" because he had never seen it before.

long-faced (adjective)

Having a face longer than the usual.

- Students compared "long-faced" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "long-faced" approach may work better in this case.

loving (adjective)

Feeling or showing love and affection.

- Loving parents.
- Loving glances.

off-colour (adjective)

In violation of good taste even verging on the indecent.

- It is useful to describe something as "off-colour" when it is in violation of good taste even verging on the indecent.
- Would you call this situation "off-colour"? Explain why.

---

orange-brown (adjective)

Of brown tinged with orange.

- The speaker chose "orange-brown" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "orange-brown"? Explain why.

---

out-of-pocket (adjective)

Calling for the spending of cash.

- His out-of-pocket costs were $10.
- The speaker chose "out-of-pocket" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

permanent-press (adjective)

Used of fabrics that do not require ironing.

- It is useful to describe something as "permanent-press" when it is used of fabrics that do not require ironing.
- Students compared "permanent-press" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

soft spot (noun)

A sentimental affection.

- She had a soft spot for her youngest son.
- In class, the teacher used "soft spot" to mean a sentimental affection.

---

take pride (verb)

Feel proud of.

- She took great pride in her sons.
- Can you use "take pride" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

technical grade (adjective)

Containing small amounts of other chemicals, hence slightly impure.

- Technical-grade sulfuric acid.
- Students compared "technical grade" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

technical-grade (adjective)

Containing small amounts of other chemicals, hence slightly impure.

- Technical-grade sulfuric acid.
- A "technical-grade" approach may work better in this case.

---

thin (adjective)

Of relatively small extent from one surface to the opposite or in cross section.

- Thin wire.
- A thin chiffon blouse.

---

tied (adjective)

Of the score in a contest.

- The score is tied.
- The guard was found trussed up with his arms and legs securely tied.

---

tied up (adjective)

Kept occupied or engaged.

- She's tied up at the moment and can't see you.
- The phone was tied up for almost an hour.

---

time-tested (adjective)

Tested and proved to be reliable.

- The speaker chose "time-tested" because it captured the feeling precisely.

- A "time-tested" approach may work better in this case.

---

weapons-grade (adjective)

Of a quality adequate for use in weapons (especially in weapons of mass destruction).

- Weapons-grade plutonium.
- Weapons-grade anthrax.

---

white-tie (adjective)

Requiring white ties and tailcoats for men.

- A white-tie occasion.
- It is useful to describe something as "white-tie" when it is requiring white ties and tailcoats for men.

---

adventure (verb)

Take a risk in the hope of a favorable outcome.

- She tried to use "adventure" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "adventure" and when to wait.

---

awful (adjective)

Offensive or even (of persons) malicious; ; ; ; ; - Ezra Pound.

- The speaker chose "awful" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "awful"? Explain why.

---

black-tie (adjective)

Moderately formal; requiring a dinner jacket.

- A black-tie dinner.
- It is useful to describe something as "black-tie" when it is moderately formal; requiring a dinner jacket.

---

bottle green (noun)

Dark to moderate or greyish green.

- They discussed "bottle green" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bottle green" because he had never seen it before.

---

bottle-green (adjective)

Of a dark to moderate greyish green color.

- It is useful to describe something as "bottle-green" when it is of a dark to moderate greyish green color.
- The speaker chose "bottle-green" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

bound (noun)

The greatest possible degree of something.

- What he did was beyond the bounds of acceptable behavior.
- Understanding "bound" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carefully (adverb)

As if with kid gloves; with caution or prudence or tact.

- They watched carefully.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "carefully" naturally.

---

cast-iron (adjective)

Extremely robust.

- It is useful to describe something as "cast-iron" when it is extremely robust.
- Students compared "cast-iron" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

chemical property (noun)

A property used to characterize materials in reactions that change their identity.

- The article explained what "chemical property" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chemical property" during the group presentation.

---

closed-chain (adjective)

Having atoms linked by bonds represented in circular or triangular form.

- It is useful to describe something as "closed-chain" when it is having atoms linked by bonds represented in....
- The speaker chose "closed-chain" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

extension (noun)

The ability to raise the working leg high in the air.

- The dancer was praised for her uncanny extension.
- Good extension comes from a combination of training and native ability.

---

fast lane (noun)

A hectic and pressured lifestyle often characterized by recklessness or dissipation.

- Life in fashion's fast lane has taught her a lot.
- Understanding "fast lane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hip to (adjective)

Informed about the latest trends.

- Students compared "hip to" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hip to."

---

in gear (adjective)

Having gears engaged.

- The car is in gear.
- Would you call this situation "in gear"? Explain why.

---

loose (adjective)

Not compact or dense in structure or arrangement.

- Loose gravel.
- Loose clothing.

---

navy blue (noun)

A dark shade of blue.

- Understanding "navy blue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "navy blue" during the group presentation.

---

offensive (adjective)

For the purpose of attack rather than defense.

- Offensive weapons.
- Offensive remarks.

---

on the loose (adjective)

Having escaped, especially from confinement.

- Dogs loose on the streets.
- Criminals on the loose in the neighborhood.

---

on the offensive (adjective)

Actively attacking.

- A "on the offensive" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "on the offensive" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

peace offering (noun)

Something offered to an adversary in the hope of obtaining peace.

- He looked up "peace offering" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peace offering."

---

personal manner (noun)

A way of acting or behaving.

- They discussed "personal manner" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "personal manner" because he had never seen it before.

---

pink-red (adjective)

Of red tinged with pink.

- Would you call this situation "pink-red"? Explain why.
- Students compared "pink-red" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

pointed (adjective)

Direct and obvious in meaning or reference; often unpleasant.

- A pointed critique.
- A pointed allusion to what was going on.

---

qualified (adjective)

Meeting the proper standards and requirements and training for an office or position or task.

- Many qualified applicants for the job.
- Gave only qualified approval.

---

red-blind (adjective)

Inability to see the color red or to distinguish red and bluish-green.

- A "red-blind" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "red-blind" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ridiculous (adjective)

Inspiring scornful pity; - Dashiell Hammett.

- Her conceited assumption of universal interest in her rather dull children was ridiculous.
- A "ridiculous" approach may work better in this case.

---

superior (adjective)

Of high or superior quality or performance.

- Superior wisdom derived from experience.
- Superior math students.

---

violent (adjective)

Acting with or marked by or resulting from great force or energy or emotional intensity.

- A violent attack.
- A violent person.

---

weak spot (noun)

A place of especial vulnerability.

- He looked up "weak spot" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weak spot."

---

black-marked (adjective)

Having black marks.

- It is useful to describe something as "black-marked" when it is having black marks.
- Students compared "black-marked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

bound up (adjective)

Closely or inseparably connected or associated with.

- His career is bound up with the fortunes of the enterprise.
- Bound up in her teaching.

---

charity (noun)

A kindly and lenient attitude toward people.

- In class, the teacher used "charity" to mean a kindly and lenient attitude toward people.
- The article explained what "charity" means with a simple example.

closely-held (adjective)

Owned by a relatively few shareholders.

- A closely-held corporation.
- The speaker chose "closely-held" because it captured the feeling precisely.

coal black (noun)

A very dark black.

- Understanding "coal black" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coal black."

coal-black (adjective)

Of the blackest black; similar to the color of jet or coal.

- The speaker chose "coal-black" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "coal-black" when it is of the blackest black; similar to the color of jet....

colour of law (noun)

A mere semblance of legal right; something done with the apparent authority of law but actually in contravention of law.

- The plaintiff claimed that under color of law the officer had deprived him of his civil rights.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "colour of law."

contained (adjective)

Gotten under control.

- The oil spill is contained.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "contained."

curious (adjective)

Eager to investigate and learn or learn more (sometimes about others' concerns).

- A curious child is a teacher's delight.
- A trap door that made me curious.

featuring (verb)

Wear or display in an ostentatious or proud manner.

- He did not know how to use "featuring" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "featuring" when talking about this idea.

fly off the handle (verb)

Get very angry and fly into a rage.

- The professor combusted when the student didn't know the answer to a very elementary question.
- In everyday English, people use "fly off the handle" when talking about this idea.

formal (adjective)

Being in accord with established forms and conventions and requirements (as e.g. of formal dress).

- Pay one's formal respects.
- Formal dress.

gray (noun)

A neutral achromatic color midway between white and black.

- The article explained what "gray" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gray" during the group presentation.

gross out (verb)

Lose one's nerve.

- When he saw the accident, he freaked out.
- The coach explained when to use "gross out" and when to wait.

hard-fought (adjective)

Requiring great effort.

- A hard-fought primary.
- The speaker chose “hard-fought” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

head tone (noun)

The higher ranges of the voice in speaking or singing; the vibrations of sung notes are felt in the head.

- Understanding “head tone” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “head tone” during the group presentation.

---

home-loving (adjective)

Devoted to home duties and pleasures.

- The speaker chose “home-loving” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “home-loving” approach may work better in this case.

---

industrial-strength (adjective)

Extremely strong or concentrated or durable.

- Industrial-strength detergent.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “industrial-strength.”

---

informed (adjective)

Having much knowledge or education.

- An informed public.
- Informed opinion.

---

kiss of peace (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) a greeting signifying Christian love for those assisting at the Eucharist.

- They discussed “kiss of peace” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “kiss of peace.”

---

near-blind (adjective)

Having greatly reduced vision.

- Students compared “near-blind” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “near-blind.”

---

off-limits (adjective)

Barred to a designated group.

- That area is off-limits.
- Students compared “off-limits” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

out of gear (adjective)

Not having gears engaged.

- Threw the machine’s pinion out of gear.
- Students compared “out of gear” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

penalty (noun)

The disadvantage or painful consequences of an action or condition.

- Neglected his health and paid the penalty.
- The article explained what “penalty” means with a simple example.

---

power of appointment (noun)

Authority given (in a will or deed) by a donor to a donee to appoint the beneficiaries of the donor’s property.

- They discussed “power of appointment” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “power of appointment” to mean authority given (in a will or deed) by a donor to a....

---

radio-controlled (adjective)

Operated and guided by radio.

- A radio-controlled airplane.

- It is useful to describe something as "radio-controlled" when it is operated and guided by radio.

---

scheduled (adjective)

Planned or scheduled for some certain time or times.

- The scheduled meeting.
- The scheduled flights had to be cancelled because of snow.

---

sharp-set (adjective)

Extremely hungry.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sharp-set."
- A "sharp-set" approach may work better in this case.

---

silent (adjective)

Implied by or inferred from actions or statements.

- Gave silent consent.
- A silent house.

---

spoken (adjective)

Uttered through the medium of speech or characterized by speech; sometimes used in combination.

- A spoken message.
- The spoken language.

---

unusual (adjective)

Being definitely out of the ordinary and unexpected; slightly odd or even a bit weird.

- A scene of unusual beauty.
- A man of unusual ability.

---

well-bound (adjective)

(of books) having a sturdy and attractive binding.

- The speaker chose "well-bound" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-bound."

---

well-qualified (adjective)

More than adequately qualified.

- A well-qualified officer.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-qualified."

---

assault (verb)

Attack someone physically or emotionally.

- The mugger assaulted the woman.
- In everyday English, people use "assault" when talking about this idea.

---

black-grey (adjective)

Of dark grey.

- The speaker chose "black-grey" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "black-grey"? Explain why.

---

deep-laid (adjective)

Secretly and carefully planned.

- Deep-laid plans.
- A "deep-laid" approach may work better in this case.

---

expectations (noun)

The feeling that something is about to happen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "expectations."
- He looked up "expectations" because he had never seen it before.

---

featured (adjective)

Made a feature or highlight; given prominence.

- A featured actor.
- A featured item at the sale.

---

gas-tight (adjective)

Not allowing air or gas to pass in or out.

- Students compared "gas-tight" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "gas-tight"? Explain why.

---

grey-black (adjective)

Of black tinged with grey.

- The speaker chose "grey-black" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "grey-black"? Explain why.

---

grey-white (adjective)

Of white tinged with grey.

- The speaker chose "grey-white" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "grey-white" when it is of white tinged with grey.

---

happiness (noun)

Emotions experienced when in a state of well-being.

- They discussed "happiness" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "happiness" because he had never seen it before.

---

heavy-armed (adjective)

Having massive arms.

- He was big-chested, big-shouldered and heavy-armed.
- The speaker chose "heavy-armed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

horrible (adjective)

Provoking horror; ; ; ; - Winston Churchill.

- War is beyond all words horrible.
- The speaker chose "horrible" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

hundred-and-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of one hundred five in counting order.

- Students compared "hundred-and-fifth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "hundred-and-fifth" when it is the ordinal number of one hundred five in counting....

---

ideal (noun)

The idea of something that is perfect; something that one hopes to attain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ideal."
- Understanding "ideal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mini (adjective)

Used of women's clothing; very short with hemline above the knee.

- A mini dress.
- Miniskirts.

---

mood (noun)

A characteristic (habitual or relatively temporary) state of feeling.

- The national mood had changed radically since the last election.
- They discussed "mood" during the group presentation.

---

pleased (adjective)

Feeling pleasurable satisfaction over something by which you measures your self-worth.

- Would you call this situation "pleased"? Explain why.
- Students compared "pleased" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

retired (adjective)

No longer active in your work or profession.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "retired."
- Would you call this situation "retired"? Explain why.

---

settled (adjective)

Established or decided beyond dispute or doubt.

- With details of the wedding settled she could now sleep at night.
- Nomads...absorbed among the settled people.

---

well-informed (adjective)

Possessing sound knowledge.

- Well-informed readers.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-informed."

---

well-spoken (adjective)

Speaking or spoken fittingly or pleasingly.

- A well-spoken gentleman.
- A few well-spoken words on civic pride.

---

battle cry (noun)

A slogan used to rally support for a cause.

- A cry to arms.
- In class, the teacher used "battle cry" to mean a slogan used to rally support for a cause.

---

commitment (noun)

The trait of sincere and steadfast fixity of purpose.

- A man of energy and commitment.
- His long commitment to public service.

---

confident (adjective)

Having or marked by confidence or assurance.

- A confident speaker.
- A confident reply.

---

god-awful (adjective)

Very unpleasant.

- Stop that god-awful racket.
- Would you call this situation "god-awful"? Explain why.

---

grade-appropriate (adjective)

The quality of ability and work that is appropriate for students in a specified grade.

- A "grade-appropriate" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "grade-appropriate" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

helpful (adjective)

Providing assistance or serving a useful function.

- Would you call this situation "helpful"? Explain why.
- A "helpful" approach may work better in this case.

---

in their right minds (adjective)

Behaving responsibly.

- It is useful to describe something as "in their right minds" when it is behaving responsibly.
- Students compared "in their right minds" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

naked (adjective)

Having no protecting or concealing cover; - Shakespeare.

- Naked to mine enemies.
- Naked from the waist up.

red-faced (adjective)

Having a red face from embarrassment or shame or agitation or emotional upset.

- Was red-faced with anger.
- Red-faced and violent.

strategic (adjective)

Highly important to or an integral part of a strategy or plan of action especially in war.

- A strategic chess move.
- Strategic withdrawal.

twenty-fourth (adjective)

Coming next after the twenty-third in position.

- It is useful to describe something as "twenty-fourth" when it is coming next after the twenty-third in position.
- Students compared "twenty-fourth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

water-loving (adjective)

(of plants) flourishing with lots of water.

- A "water-loving" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "water-loving"? Explain why.

anger (noun)

A strong emotion; a feeling that is oriented toward some real or supposed grievance.

- The article explained what "anger" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "anger" during the group presentation.

attempted (adjective)

Tried unsuccessfully.

- Attempted murder.
- Would you call this situation "attempted"? Explain why.

baby-faced (adjective)

Having a youthful-looking face.

- Students compared "baby-faced" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "baby-faced."

blue-blind (adjective)

Inability to see the color blue or to distinguish the colors blue and yellow.

- It is useful to describe something as "blue-blind" when it is inability to see the color blue or to distinguish....
- Would you call this situation "blue-blind"? Explain why.

disappointed (adjective)

Disappointingly unsuccessful.

- Disappointed expectations and thwarted ambitions.
- It is useful to describe something as "disappointed" when it is disappointingly unsuccessful.

dressed (adjective)

Dressed or clothed especially in fine attire; often used in combination.

- Neatly dressed workers.
- Would you call this situation "dressed"? Explain why.

ear-like (adjective)

Having a shape resembling an ear.

- Students compared "ear-like" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ear-like."

---

efficient (adjective)

Being effective without wasting time or effort or expense.

- An efficient production manager.
- Efficient engines save gas.

---

employed (adjective)

Having your services engaged for; or having a job especially one that pays wages or a salary.

- Most of our graduates are employed.
- A "employed" approach may work better in this case.

---

enjoying (verb)

Derive or receive pleasure from; get enjoyment from; take pleasure in.

- In everyday English, people use "enjoying" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "enjoying" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

five-pointed (adjective)

Having five points.

- Would you call this situation "five-pointed"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "five-pointed."

---

flash point (noun)

The lowest temperature at which the vapor of a combustible liquid can be ignited in air.

- Understanding "flash point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "flash point" during the group presentation.

---

free-spoken (adjective)

Characterized by directness in manner or speech; without subtlety or evasion.

- The speaker chose "free-spoken" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "free-spoken" when it is characterized by directness in manner or speech;...

---

green-blind (adjective)

Inability to see the color green or to distinguish green and purplish-red.

- The speaker chose "green-blind" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "green-blind" approach may work better in this case.

---

handed (adjective)

Having or involving the use of hands.

- A handed, tree-living animal.
- A four-handed card game.

---

hard-hitting (adjective)

Aggressively and persistently persuasive.

- A hard-hitting advertising campaign.
- A hard-hitting expose.

---

in your birthday suit (adjective)

As naked as at birth.

- It is useful to describe something as "in your birthday suit" when it is as naked as at birth.
- Students compared "in your birthday suit" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

machine-controlled (adjective)

Operated by automation.

- It is useful to describe something as "machine-controlled" when it is operated by automation.

- A "machine-controlled" approach may work better in this case.

---

middle-aged (adjective)

Being roughly between 45 and 65 years old.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "middle-aged."
- A "middle-aged" approach may work better in this case.

---

odd (adjective)

An indefinite quantity more than that specified.

- Invited 30-odd guests.
- It is odd that his name is never mentioned.

---

one-handed (adjective)

Having or using a single hand.

- One-handed golfers.
- A one-handed backetball shot.

---

red-grey (adjective)

Of grey tinged with red.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "red-grey."
- A "red-grey" approach may work better in this case.

---

rough-and-ready (adjective)

Crude but effective for the purpose at hand.

- The speaker chose "rough-and-ready" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "rough-and-ready" when it is crude but effective for the purpose at hand.

---

rough-cut (adjective)

Lacking refinement or cultivation or taste.

- Would you call this situation "rough-cut"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rough-cut."

---

self-pride (noun)

A feeling of pride in yourself.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-pride."
- He looked up "self-pride" because he had never seen it before.

---

sexy (adjective)

Marked by or tending to arouse sexual desire or interest.

- Feeling sexy.
- Sexy clothes.

---

stomach (noun)

An inclination or liking for things involving conflict or difficulty or unpleasantness.

- He had no stomach for a fight.
- Exercise gave him a good stomach for dinner.

---

struck (adjective)

(used in combination) affected by something overwhelming.

- Awe-struck.
- Would you call this situation "struck"? Explain why.

---

ugly (adjective)

Provoking horror; ; ; ; - Winston Churchill.

- An ugly wound.
- An ugly frame of mind.

---

amounts (noun)

The relative magnitude of something with reference to a criterion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amounts."
- He looked up "amounts" because he had never seen it before.

---

around-the-clock (adjective)

At all times.

- Around-the-clock nursing care.
- It is useful to describe something as "around-the-clock" when it is at all times.

---

aspect (noun)

The feelings expressed on a person's face.

- He looked up "aspect" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aspect."

---

banned (adjective)

Forbidden by law.

- Students compared "banned" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "banned" approach may work better in this case.

---

belt-like (adjective)

Resembling a belt around something.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "belt-like."
- A "belt-like" approach may work better in this case.

---

black-gray (adjective)

Of dark grey.

- A "black-gray" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "black-gray."

---

bone age (noun)

A person's age measured by matching their bone development (as shown by X rays) with bone development of an average person of known chronological age.

- The article explained what "bone age" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bone age" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

burn mark (noun)

A place or area that has been burned (especially on a person's body).

- He looked up "burn mark" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "burn mark."

---

chest voice (noun)

The lower ranges of the voice in speaking or singing.

- The article explained what "chest voice" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chest voice" to mean the lower ranges of the voice in speaking or singing.

---

crack (noun)

A blemish resulting from a break without complete separation of the parts.

- There was a crack in the mirror.
- He opened the window a crack.

---

deep-pink (adjective)

Of a deep shade of pink.

- A "deep-pink" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "deep-pink" when it is of a deep shade of pink.

---

dressed-up (adjective)

Dressed in fancy or formal clothing.

- It is useful to describe something as "dressed-up" when it is dressed in fancy or formal clothing.
- Would you call this situation "dressed-up"? Explain why.

---

freedom of assembly (noun)

The right to peaceably assemble and to petition the government for redress of grievances; guaranteed by the First Amendment to the US Constitution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freedom of assembly."
- They discussed "freedom of assembly" during the group presentation.

---

gray-black (adjective)

Of black tinged with grey.

- A "gray-black" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "gray-black."

---

gray-white (adjective)

Of white tinged with grey.

- A "gray-white" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "gray-white" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

green fingers (noun)

A special ability to make plants grow.

- The article explained what "green fingers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "green fingers" to mean a special ability to make plants grow.

---

half-bound (adjective)

(of books) having the back bound in one material and the sides in another.

- Would you call this situation "half-bound"? Explain why.
- A "half-bound" approach may work better in this case.

---

high pitch (noun)

A pitch that is perceived as above other pitches.

- In class, the teacher used "high pitch" to mean a pitch that is perceived as above other pitches.
- The article explained what "high pitch" means with a simple example.

---

hired (adjective)

Hired for the exclusive temporary use of a group of travelers.

- Would you call this situation "hired"? Explain why.
- Students compared "hired" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

minority (noun)

Being or relating to the smaller in number of two parts.

- When the vote was taken they were in the minority.
- He held a minority position.

---

mum (adjective)

Failing to speak or communicate etc when expected to.

- A "mum" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "mum" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

reply-paid (adjective)

With cost of reply prepaid by sender.

- Reply-paid postcard.
- Reply-paid envelope.

---

reporting weight (noun)

A person's body weight (as an athlete's) at the beginning of the season (when first reporting for practice).

- He looked up "reporting weight" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "reporting weight" during the group presentation.

right-handed (adjective)

Using or intended for the right hand.

- A right-handed batter.
- Right-handed scissors.

self-consistent (adjective)

Not self-contradictory.

- The speaker chose "self-consistent" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-consistent" when it is not self-contradictory.

skin-tight (adjective)

So tight as to cling to the skin.

- It is useful to describe something as "skin-tight" when it is so tight as to cling to the skin.
- The speaker chose "skin-tight" because it captured the feeling precisely.

twenty-fifth (adjective)

Coming next after the twenty-fourth in position.

- The speaker chose "twenty-fifth" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "twenty-fifth."

two-handed (adjective)

Requiring two hands or designed for two people.

- A two-handed sledgehammer.
- A two-handed crosscut saw.

visual range (noun)

Distance at which a given standard object can be seen with the unaided eye.

- They discussed "visual range" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "visual range" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

well-dressed (adjective)

Having tasteful clothing and being scrupulously neat.

- The speaker chose "well-dressed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-dressed."

abandoned (adjective)

Forsaken by owner or inhabitants.

- Weed-grown yard of an abandoned farmhouse.
- An abandoned sadness born of grief.

acquired (adjective)

Gotten through environmental forces.

- Acquired characteristics (such as a suntan or a broken nose) cannot be passed on.
- It is useful to describe something as "acquired" when it is gotten through environmental forces.

bell-bottom (adjective)

(of trousers) having legs that flare at the bottom.

- Bell-bottomed trousers.
- A "bell-bottom" approach may work better in this case.

buried (adjective)

Placed in a grave.

- The hastily buried corpses.
- A "buried" approach may work better in this case.

bush-league (adjective)

Not of the highest quality or sophistication.

- Would you call this situation "bush-league"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bush-league."

---

convinced (adjective)

Having a strong belief or conviction.

- A convinced and fanatical pacifist.
- A "convinced" approach may work better in this case.

---

crack up (verb)

Suffer a nervous breakdown.

- In everyday English, people use "crack up" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "crack up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

decent (adjective)

Conforming to conventions of sexual behavior; - George Santayana.

- Speech in this circle, if not always decent, never became lewd.
- The speaker chose "decent" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

fact mood (noun)

A mood (grammatically unmarked) that represents the act or state as an objective fact.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fact mood."
- The article explained what "fact mood" means with a simple example.

---

forgotten (adjective)

Not noticed inadvertently.

- Her aching muscles forgotten she danced all night.
- He was scolded for his forgotten chores.

---

free-swimming (adjective)

(of animals) able to swim about; not attached.

- It is useful to describe something as "free-swimming" when it is (of animals) able to swim about; not attached.
- A "free-swimming" approach may work better in this case.

---

handed-down (adjective)

Having been passed along from generation to generation.

- A "handed-down" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "handed-down"? Explain why.

---

high-handed (adjective)

Given to haughty disregard of others.

- A "high-handed" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "high-handed" when it is given to haughty disregard of others.

---

hole-and-corner (adjective)

Conducted with or marked by hidden aims or methods.

- Hole-and-corner intrigue.
- A hole-and-corner life in some obscure community.

---

hole-in-corner (adjective)

Relating to the peripheral and unimportant aspects of life; - H.G.Wells.

- Students compared "hole-in-corner" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hole-in-corner."

---

hopes (noun)

The general feeling that some desire will be fulfilled.

- The article explained what "hopes" means with a simple example.

- Understanding “hopes” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

insane (adjective)

Afflicted with or characteristic of mental derangement.

- Was declared insane.
- Insane laughter.

---

light-sensitive (adjective)

Sensitive to visible light.

- Photographic film is light-sensitive.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “light-sensitive.”

---

metal-cutting (adjective)

Hard and sharp enough to cut metal.

- Metal-cutting tools.
- Students compared “metal-cutting” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

poetry (noun)

Any communication resembling poetry in beauty or the evocation of feeling.

- The article explained what “poetry” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “poetry” during the group presentation.

---

round-faced (adjective)

Having a round face.

- Students compared “round-faced” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A “round-faced” approach may work better in this case.

---

sake (noun)

A reason for wanting something done.

- For your sake.
- Died for the sake of his country.

---

self-loving (adjective)

Characteristic of those having an inflated idea of their own importance.

- Students compared “self-loving” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A “self-loving” approach may work better in this case.

---

sexual desire (noun)

A desire for sexual intimacy.

- In class, the teacher used “sexual desire” to mean a desire for sexual intimacy.
- The article explained what “sexual desire” means with a simple example.

---

six-pointed (adjective)

Having six points.

- It is useful to describe something as “six-pointed” when it is having six points.
- Would you call this situation “six-pointed”? Explain why.

---

smooth (adjective)

Of motion that runs or flows or proceeds without jolts or turbulence.

- A smooth ride.
- Smooth skin.

---

status seeking (noun)

A drive to acquire power.

- He looked up “status seeking” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “status seeking.”

---

sudden (adjective)

Happening without warning or in a short space of time.

- A sudden storm.
- A sudden decision.

---

sure-handed (adjective)

Proficient and confident in performance.

- Promising playwrights...sure-handed enough to turn out top-drawer scripts.
- It is useful to describe something as “sure-handed” when it is proficient and confident in performance.

---

thrown (adjective)

Twisted together; as of filaments spun into a thread.

- Thrown silk is raw silk that has been twisted and doubled into yarn.
- The thrown rider got back on his horse.

---

visual property (noun)

An attribute of vision.

- The article explained what “visual property” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “visual property” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wood-fired (adjective)

Fueled by wood; "a wood-burning stove'.

- It is useful to describe something as “wood-fired” when it is fueled by wood; "a wood-burning stove'.
- A “wood-fired” approach may work better in this case.

---

assigned (adjective)

Appointed to a post or duty.

- Assigned personnel.
- Assigned duties.

---

assumed (adjective)

Adopted in order to deceive.

- An assumed name.
- An assumed cheerfulness.

---

blue-grey (adjective)

Of grey tinged with blue.

- Would you call this situation “blue-grey”? Explain why.
- The speaker chose “blue-grey” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

damaged (adjective)

Harmed or injured or spoiled.

- I won't buy damaged goods.
- The storm left a wake of badly damaged buildings.

---

equivalent weight (noun)

The atomic weight of an element that has the same combining capacity as a given weight of another element; the standard is 8 for oxygen.

- Understanding “equivalent weight” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “equivalent weight.”

---

express feelings (verb)

Give verbal or other expression to one's feelings.

- He did not know how to use “express feelings” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “express feelings” when talking about this idea.

---

fallen (adjective)

Having lost your chastity.

- A fallen woman.
- Fallen leaves covered the forest floor.

---

figured (adjective)

(of e.g. fabric design) adorned with patterns; - Amy Lowell.

- My dress is richly figured.
- Students compared "figured" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

first-string (adjective)

Being a regular member of a team.

- First-string players.
- It is useful to describe something as "first-string" when it is being a regular member of a team.

---

free-soil (adjective)

Where slavery was prohibited.

- A free-soil state.
- Would you call this situation "free-soil"? Explain why.

---

grey-blue (adjective)

Of blue tinged with grey.

- Would you call this situation "grey-blue"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "grey-blue" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

grey-green (adjective)

Of green tinged with grey.

- A "grey-green" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "grey-green" when it is of green tinged with grey.

---

hot-button issue (noun)

An issue that elicits strong emotional reactions.

- The article explained what "hot-button issue" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hot-button issue" to mean an issue that elicits strong emotional reactions.

---

in small stages (adjective)

One thing at a time.

- A "in small stages" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "in small stages" when it is one thing at a time.

---

intense (adjective)

Possessing or displaying a distinctive feature to a heightened degree.

- Intense heat.
- Intense anxiety.

---

left-handed (adjective)

Lacking physical movement skills, especially with the hands; ; ; ; - Mary H. Vorse.

- In Colonial America left-handed marriages between Frenchmen and Indians were frequent.
- A left-handed compliment.

---

mental attitude (noun)

A complex mental state involving beliefs and feelings and values and dispositions to act in certain ways.

- He had the attitude that work was fun.
- They discussed "mental attitude" during the group presentation.

---

multi-color (adjective)

Having sections or patches colored differently and usually brightly.

- The speaker chose "multi-color" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "multi-color"? Explain why.

nervous system (noun)

The sensory and control apparatus consisting of a network of nerve cells.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nervous system."
- He looked up "nervous system" because he had never seen it before.

observed (adjective)

Discovered or determined by scientific observation.

- No explanation for the observed phenomena.
- It is useful to describe something as "observed" when it is discovered or determined by scientific observation.

pitch black (noun)

A very dark black.

- The article explained what "pitch black" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pitch black."

pitch-black (adjective)

Extremely dark.

- Through the pitch-black woods.
- Students compared "pitch-black" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

pocket-size (adjective)

Small enough to be carried in a garment pocket.

- Pocket-size paperbacks.
- A pocket-size country.

red-gray (adjective)

Of grey tinged with red.

- The speaker chose "red-gray" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "red-gray" approach may work better in this case.

self-contained (adjective)

Constituting a complete and independent unit in and of itself.

- The university is like a self-contained city with shops and all amenities.
- More self-contained and more dependable than many of the early frontiersmen.

straight-from-the-shoulder (adjective)

Characterized by directness in manner or speech; without subtlety or evasion.

- Students compared "straight-from-the-shoulder" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "straight-from-the-shoulder" when it is characterized by directness in manner or speech;....

subsequent (adjective)

Following in time or order.

- Subsequent developments.
- A "subsequent" approach may work better in this case.

visible (adjective)

Capable of being seen; or open to easy view.

- A visible object.
- Visible stars.

golden-yellow (adjective)

Of yellow tinged with gold.

- Would you call this situation "golden-yellow"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "golden-yellow."

international pitch (noun)

The pitch used to tune instruments for concert performances; usually assigns 440 Hz to the A above middle C.

- In class, the teacher used "international pitch" to mean the pitch used to tune instruments for concert....
- They discussed "international pitch" during the group presentation.

---

lists (noun)

The property possessed by a line or surface that departs from the vertical.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lists."
- They discussed "lists" during the group presentation.

---

low pitch (noun)

A pitch that is perceived as below other pitches.

- In class, the teacher used "low pitch" to mean a pitch that is perceived as below other pitches.
- The article explained what "low pitch" means with a simple example.

---

machine-driven (adjective)

Operated by automation.

- Would you call this situation "machine-driven"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "machine-driven" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

maintained (adjective)

Continued in your keeping or use or memory.

- It is useful to describe something as "maintained" when it is continued in your keeping or use or memory.
- Would you call this situation "maintained"? Explain why.

---

manner of walking (noun)

Manner of walking.

- They discussed "manner of walking" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "manner of walking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pace (noun)

The relative speed of progress or change.

- He lived at a fast pace.
- The pace of events accelerated.

---

sexual pleasure (noun)

Pleasure derived from sexual activities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sexual pleasure."
- He looked up "sexual pleasure" because he had never seen it before.

---

shaped (adjective)

Shaped to fit by or as if by altering the contours of a pliable mass (as by work or effort).

- A shaped handgrip.
- A "shaped" approach may work better in this case.

---

single-handed (adjective)

Without help from others.

- A single-handed accomplishment.
- The speaker chose "single-handed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

smoke-filled (adjective)

Containing smoke.

- Smoke-filled rooms.
- It is useful to describe something as "smoke-filled" when it is containing smoke.

---

suitable (adjective)

Worthy of being chosen especially as a spouse.

- The parents found the girl suitable for their son.

- A tractor suitable (or fit) for heavy duty.

---

tall-growing (adjective)

(of plants) having tall spindly stems.

- The speaker chose "tall-growing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "tall-growing" when it is (of plants) having tall spindly stems.

---

tax assessment (noun)

The value set on taxable property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tax assessment."
- They discussed "tax assessment" during the group presentation.

---

thirty-one (adjective)

Being one more than thirty.

- A "thirty-one" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "thirty-one" when it is being one more than thirty.

---

trial-and-error (adjective)

Relating to solving problems by experience rather than theory.

- They adopted a trial-and-error procedure.
- He argued that all learning is a trial-and-error process that resembles biological evolution.

---

valid (adjective)

Well grounded in logic or truth or having legal force.

- A valid inference.
- A valid argument.

---

vital (adjective)

Performing an essential function in the living body.

- Vital organs.
- Blood and other vital fluids.

---

acid-fast (adjective)

Not easily decolorized by acid solutions; pertains to micro-organisms (especially the tubercle bacillus that causes tuberculosis).

- It is useful to describe something as "acid-fast" when it is not easily decolorized by acid solutions; pertains....
- The speaker chose "acid-fast" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

alleged (adjective)

Declared but not proved; - Wall Street Journal.

- Alleged abuses of housing benefits.
- Students compared "alleged" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

bands (noun)

A stripe or stripes of contrasting color.

- Chromosomes exhibit characteristic bands.
- He looked up "bands" because he had never seen it before.

---

blue-gray (adjective)

Of grey tinged with blue.

- Students compared "blue-gray" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "blue-gray"? Explain why.

---

brown-grey (adjective)

Of grey tinged with brown.

- Students compared "brown-grey" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "brown-grey" approach may work better in this case.

---

chocolate-brown (adjective)

Of a color similar to that of wood or earth.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "chocolate-brown."
- Students compared "chocolate-brown" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

clean-burning (adjective)

Leaving little contamination while consuming fuel.

- Natural gas is a clean-burning fuel.
- The speaker chose "clean-burning" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

color-blind (adjective)

Unable to distinguish one or more chromatic colors.

- A "color-blind" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "color-blind."

---

common mood (noun)

A mood (grammatically unmarked) that represents the act or state as an objective fact.

- Understanding "common mood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "common mood" during the group presentation.

---

cop out (verb)

Choose not to do something, as out of fear of failing.

- She copped out when she was supposed to get into the hang glider.
- She tried to use "cop out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cutting-edge (adjective)

In accord with the most fashionable ideas or style.

- Cutting-edge technology.
- Students compared "cutting-edge" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

dark-grey (adjective)

Of a dark shade of grey.

- Would you call this situation "dark-grey"? Explain why.
- A "dark-grey" approach may work better in this case.

---

dollar volume (noun)

The volume measured in dollars.

- The store's dollar volume continues to rise.
- Understanding "dollar volume" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

double-faced (adjective)

Marked by deliberate deceptiveness especially by pretending one set of feelings and acting under the influence of another; - Israel Zangwill; ; - W.M.Thackeray.

- A double-faced infernal traitor and schemer.
- Damask is a double-faced fabric.

---

emotions (noun)

Any strong feeling.

- Understanding "emotions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "emotions" means with a simple example.

---

genuine (adjective)

Not pretended; sincerely felt or expressed.

- Genuine emotion.
- A genuine dilemma.

---

gray-blue (adjective)

Of blue tinged with grey.

- Students compared "gray-blue" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "gray-blue"? Explain why.

---

gray-green (adjective)

Of green tinged with grey.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "gray-green."
- A "gray-green" approach may work better in this case.

---

grey-brown (adjective)

Of brown tinged with grey.

- Students compared "grey-brown" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "grey-brown" approach may work better in this case.

---

improving (adjective)

Getting higher or more vigorous.

- An improving economy.
- The speaker chose "improving" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

light-handed (adjective)

Having a metaphorically delicate touch; - New Yorker.

- The translation is...light-handed...and generally unobtrusive.
- A "light-handed" approach may work better in this case.

---

medium-dry (adjective)

Of a wine that is dry but not extremely dry.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "medium-dry."
- Would you call this situation "medium-dry"? Explain why.

---

mother-naked (adjective)

As naked as at birth.

- The speaker chose "mother-naked" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "mother-naked" approach may work better in this case.

---

on the hook (adjective)

Caught in a difficult or dangerous situation.

- There I was back on the hook.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "on the hook."

---

one hundred twenty (adjective)

Being ten more than one hundred ten.

- The speaker chose "one hundred twenty" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "one hundred twenty" approach may work better in this case.

---

one-seed (adjective)

Having a single seed.

- Students compared "one-seed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "one-seed"? Explain why.

---

paper thin (adjective)

Thin as paper.

- Her blouse was paper thin.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "paper thin."

---

regret (noun)

Sadness associated with some wrong done or some disappointment.

- He wrote a note expressing his regret.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "regret."

rejected (adjective)

Rebuffed (by a lover) without warning.

- Students compared "rejected" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rejected."

reverse (adjective)

Of the transmission gear causing backward movement in a motor vehicle.

- In reverse gear.
- Would you call this situation "reverse"? Explain why.

s-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of the letter S.

- The speaker chose "s-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "s-shaped" when it is shaped in the form of the letter s.

scary (adjective)

Provoking fear terror.

- A scary movie.
- It is useful to describe something as "scary" when it is provoking fear terror.

second-string (adjective)

Being a replacement or substitute for a regular member of a team.

- A second-string pitcher.
- It is useful to describe something as "second-string" when it is being a replacement or substitute for a regular....

self-confident (adjective)

Showing poise and confidence in your own worth.

- Hardly more than a boy but firm-knit and self-confident.
- The speaker chose "self-confident" because it captured the feeling precisely.

short-handed (adjective)

Inadequate in number of workers or assistants etc.

- They're rather short-handed at the moment.
- A "short-handed" approach may work better in this case.

soil-building (adjective)

(of crops) planted to improve the quality of the soil.

- Students compared "soil-building" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "soil-building."

thirty-first (adjective)

Coming next after the thirtieth in position.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "thirty-first."
- Students compared "thirty-first" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

thirty-two (adjective)

Being two more than thirty.

- A "thirty-two" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "thirty-two"? Explain why.

thrown-away (adjective)

Thrown away.

- Salvaged some thrown-away furniture.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "thrown-away."

anxiety attack (noun)

A sudden acute episode of intense anxiety and feelings of panic.

- In class, the teacher used "anxiety attack" to mean a sudden acute episode of intense anxiety and....
- The article explained what "anxiety attack" means with a simple example.

---

cost-efficient (adjective)

Productive relative to the cost.

- A "cost-efficient" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "cost-efficient"? Explain why.

---

extraordinary (adjective)

Beyond what is ordinary or usual; highly unusual or exceptional or remarkable.

- Extraordinary authority.
- An extraordinary achievement.

---

free-enterprise (adjective)

Subscribing to capitalistic competition.

- Students compared "free-enterprise" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "free-enterprise" when it is subscribing to capitalistic competition.

---

glory (noun)

An indication of radiant light drawn around the head of a saint.

- He valued glory above life itself.
- The glory of the sunrise.

---

love grass (noun)

Any of various grasses of the genus Eragrostis; specially useful for forage and for the prevention of erosion.

- In class, the teacher used "love grass" to mean any of various grasses of the genus eragrostis;....
- The article explained what "love grass" means with a simple example.

---

off the hook (adjective)

Freed from danger or blame or obligation.

- I let him off the hook with a mild reprimand.
- A "off the hook" approach may work better in this case.

---

peace-loving (adjective)

Inclined or disposed to peace.

- Peace-loving citizens.
- Students compared "peace-loving" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rock-loving (adjective)

Of plants that flourish in a rocky environment.

- The speaker chose "rock-loving" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "rock-loving" when it is of plants that flourish in a rocky environment.

---

searching (adjective)

Diligent and thorough in inquiry or investigation.

- A searching investigation of their past dealings.
- Searching insights.

---

secondary sex character (noun)

The genetically determined sex characteristics that are not functionally necessary for reproduction (pitch of the voice and body hair and musculature).

- They discussed "secondary sex character" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secondary sex character."

---

self-employed (adjective)

Working for yourself.

- Would you call this situation "self-employed"? Explain why.

- Students compared "self-employed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

shell-less (adjective)

Of animals or fruits that have no shell.

- It is useful to describe something as "shell-less" when it is of animals or fruits that have no shell.
- Would you call this situation "shell-less"? Explain why.

---

surrounded (adjective)

Confined on all sides.

- A camp surrounded by enemies.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "surrounded."

---

thirty-second (adjective)

The ordinal number of thirty-two in counting order.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "thirty-second."
- The speaker chose "thirty-second" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

thirty-three (adjective)

Being three more than thirty.

- The speaker chose "thirty-three" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "thirty-three."

---

threatened (adjective)

(of flora or fauna) likely in the near future to become endangered.

- The spotted owl is a threatened species, not yet an endangered one.
- Students compared "threatened" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

user-friendly (adjective)

Easy to use.

- The speaker chose "user-friendly" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "user-friendly"? Explain why.

---

concluded (adjective)

Having come or been brought to a conclusion.

- The speaker chose "concluded" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "concluded" approach may work better in this case.

---

corruption (noun)

Moral perversion; impairment of virtue and moral principles.

- The luxury and corruption among the upper classes.
- Corruption of a minor.

---

cotton up (verb)

Ingratiate oneself to; often with insincere behavior.

- Learners should practice how to use "cotton up" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "cotton up" when talking about this idea.

---

crossed (adjective)

(of a check) marked for deposit only as indicated by having two lines drawn across it.

- Spoken with a straight face but crossed fingers.
- Crossed forks.

---

dark-gray (adjective)

Of a dark shade of grey.

- Students compared "dark-gray" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dark-gray."

---

fancy (noun)

A predisposition to like something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fancy."
- They discussed "fancy" during the group presentation.

---

gorgeous (adjective)

Dazzlingly beautiful.

- A gorgeous Victorian gown.
- A "gorgeous" approach may work better in this case.

---

grateful (adjective)

Feeling or showing gratitude.

- A grateful heart.
- Grateful for the tree's shade.

---

knock out (verb)

Overwhelm with admiration.

- All the guys were knocked out by her charm.
- Knock out a target.

---

luxury (noun)

The quality possessed by something that is excessively expensive.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "luxury."
- The article explained what "luxury" means with a simple example.

---

orange yellow (noun)

A shade of yellow tinged with orange.

- He looked up "orange yellow" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "orange yellow" during the group presentation.

---

painted (adjective)

Lacking substance or vitality as if produced by painting.

- In public he wore a painted smile.
- The painted desert.

---

preferred (adjective)

Preferred above all others and treated with partiality.

- Danny's preferred name is 'Dan'.
- A "preferred" approach may work better in this case.

---

ranked (adjective)

Arranged in a sequence of grades or ranks.

- A "ranked" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ranked."

---

right of privacy (noun)

A legal right (not explicitly provided in the United States Constitution) to be left alone; the right to live life free from unwarranted publicity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right of privacy."
- He looked up "right of privacy" because he had never seen it before.

---

right to privacy (noun)

Right to be free of unsanctioned intrusion.

- The article explained what "right to privacy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "right to privacy" to mean right to be free of unsanctioned intrusion.

---

round-the-clock (adjective)

At all times.

- Around-the-clock nursing care.
- A “round-the-clock” approach may work better in this case.

---

sequence (noun)

A following of one thing after another in time.

- The doctor saw a sequence of patients.
- The sequence of names was alphabetical.

---

skin colour (noun)

The coloring of a person’s face.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “skin colour.”
- They discussed “skin colour” during the group presentation.

---

sweet-faced (adjective)

Having a pleasing face or one showing a sweet disposition.

- A sweet-faced child.
- Students compared “sweet-faced” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

thirty-four (adjective)

Being four more than thirty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “thirty-four.”
- Students compared “thirty-four” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

wage increase (noun)

The amount a salary is increased.

- He got a wage hike.
- He looked up “wage increase” because he had never seen it before.

---

yellow-orange (adjective)

Of orange tinged with yellow.

- A “yellow-orange” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “yellow-orange.”

---

brown-gray (adjective)

Of grey tinged with brown.

- It is useful to describe something as “brown-gray” when it is of grey tinged with brown.
- Students compared “brown-gray” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

crystal clear (adjective)

Transmitting light; able to be seen through with clarity.

- The cold crystalline water of melted snow.
- Crystal clear skies.

---

dramatic event (noun)

An episode that is turbulent or highly emotional.

- They discussed “dramatic event” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “dramatic event” means with a simple example.

---

dressed to kill (adjective)

Dressed in fancy or formal clothing.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “dressed to kill.”
- Students compared “dressed to kill” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

gray-brown (adjective)

Of brown tinged with grey.

- It is useful to describe something as “gray-brown” when it is of brown tinged with grey.
- Students compared “gray-brown” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

hair-raising (adjective)

Extremely alarming.

- Would you call this situation "hair-raising"? Explain why.
- Students compared "hair-raising" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

high frequency (noun)

A pitch that is perceived as above other pitches.

- He looked up "high frequency" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "high frequency" during the group presentation.

impressed (adjective)

Deeply or markedly affected or influenced.

- It is useful to describe something as "impressed" when it is deeply or markedly affected or influenced.
- Students compared "impressed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

knock-down (adjective)

Strong enough to knock down or overwhelm.

- A knock-down blow.
- A "knock-down" approach may work better in this case.

mirror image (noun)

A likeness in which left and right are reversed.

- Understanding "mirror image" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mirror image" because he had never seen it before.

one hundred twenty-five (adjective)

Being five more than one hundred twenty.

- It is useful to describe something as "one hundred twenty-five" when it is being five more than one hundred twenty.
- The speaker chose "one hundred twenty-five" because it captured the feeling precisely.

primary colour (noun)

Any of three colors from which all others can be obtained by mixing.

- In class, the teacher used "primary colour" to mean any of three colors from which all others can be....
- The article explained what "primary colour" means with a simple example.

raise the roof (verb)

Get very angry.

- He will raise the roof when he hears this.
- He did not know how to use "raise the roof" until he saw an example.

risk of exposure (noun)

The probability of being exposed to an infectious agent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "risk of exposure."
- They discussed "risk of exposure" during the group presentation.

stage-struck (adjective)

Infatuated with or enthralled by the theater especially the desire to act.

- The speaker chose "stage-struck" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "stage-struck" approach may work better in this case.

stone-blind (adjective)

Completely blind.

- The speaker chose "stone-blind" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "stone-blind" when it is completely blind.

t-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of the letter T.

- Students compared "t-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "t-shaped."

---

tax boost (noun)

The amount by which taxes are increased.

- A tax increase of 15 percent.
- He looked up "tax boost" because he had never seen it before.

---

thirty-five (adjective)

Being five more than thirty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "thirty-five."
- The speaker chose "thirty-five" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

upcoming (adjective)

Of the relatively near future.

- The upcoming spring fashions.
- Would you call this situation "upcoming"? Explain why.

---

below the belt (adjective)

Disregarding the rules (from the notion of an illegal low blow in boxing).

- Her accusations were below the belt.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "below the belt."

---

brave (adjective)

Possessing or displaying courage; able to face and deal with danger or fear without flinching; - Herman Melville; - William Wordsworth.

- Familiarity with danger makes a brave man braver but less daring.
- It is useful to describe something as "brave" when it is possessing or displaying courage; able to face and....

---

defending (adjective)

Attempting to or designed to prevent an opponent from winning or scoring.

- Would you call this situation "defending"? Explain why.
- A "defending" approach may work better in this case.

---

density (noun)

The spatial property of being crowded together.

- In class, the teacher used "density" to mean the spatial property of being crowded together.
- They discussed "density" during the group presentation.

---

dropping (adjective)

Coming down freely under the influence of gravity.

- The eerie whistle of dropping bombs.
- The speaker chose "dropping" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

drops (noun)

A sudden sharp decrease in some quantity.

- He studied the shapes of low-viscosity drops.
- In class, the teacher used "drops" to mean a sudden sharp decrease in some quantity.

---

fancy-free (adjective)

Having no commitments or responsibilities; carefree.

- A fancy-free bachelor.
- Would you call this situation "fancy-free"? Explain why.

---

foster (adjective)

Providing or receiving nurture or parental care though not related by blood or legal ties.

- Foster parent.

- Foster child.

---

heart-shaped (adjective)

(of a leaf) shaped like a heart.

- It is useful to describe something as "heart-shaped" when it is (of a leaf) shaped like a heart.
- The speaker chose "heart-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

infection (noun)

The communication of an attitude or emotional state among a number of people.

- The infection of his enthusiasm for poetry.
- Ambitious men are led astray by an infection that is almost unavoidable.

---

jokes (noun)

A humorous anecdote or remark intended to provoke laughter.

- In class, the teacher used "jokes" to mean a humorous anecdote or remark intended to provoke....
- Understanding "jokes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

naked as the day one was born (adjective)

As naked as at birth.

- Students compared "naked as the day one was born" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "naked as the day one was born"? Explain why.

---

naked as the day you were born (adjective)

As naked as at birth.

- The speaker chose "naked as the day you were born" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "naked as the day you were born" approach may work better in this case.

---

pitch-dark (adjective)

Extremely dark.

- It was pitch-dark in the cellar.
- The speaker chose "pitch-dark" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

precious (adjective)

Characterized by feeling or showing fond affection for.

- Children are precious.
- Diamonds, sapphires, rubies, and emeralds are precious stones.

---

prominent (adjective)

Having a quality that thrusts itself into attention.

- A new theory is the most prominent feature of the book.
- A prominent citizen.

---

proven (adjective)

Established beyond doubt.

- A proven liar.
- A Soviet leader of proven shrewdness.

---

right to liberty (noun)

The right to be free.

- In class, the teacher used "right to liberty" to mean the right to be free.
- The article explained what "right to liberty" means with a simple example.

---

sad-faced (adjective)

Having a face with a sad expression.

- The sad-faced clown.
- Students compared "sad-faced" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

semi-wild (adjective)

Partially wild.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "semi-wild."
- The speaker chose "semi-wild" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

shake up (verb)

Stir the feelings, emotions, or peace of.

- Georgia was shaken up in the Tech game.
- He did not know how to use "shake up" until he saw an example.

---

struggling (adjective)

Engaged in a struggle to overcome especially poverty or obscurity.

- A financially struggling theater.
- Struggling artists.

---

substantial (adjective)

Of good quality and condition; solidly built.

- Several substantial timber buildings.
- Won by a substantial margin.

---

temperatures (noun)

The degree of hotness or coldness of a body or environment (corresponding to its molecular activity).

- They discussed "temperatures" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "temperatures" to mean the degree of hotness or coldness of a body or....

---

thirty-six (adjective)

Being six more than thirty.

- A "thirty-six" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "thirty-six" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

thirty-third (adjective)

The ordinal number of thirty-three in counting order.

- It is useful to describe something as "thirty-third" when it is the ordinal number of thirty-three in counting order.
- Would you call this situation "thirty-third"? Explain why.

---

uniform (adjective)

The same throughout in structure or composition.

- At regular (or uniform) intervals.
- It is useful to describe something as "uniform" when it is the same throughout in structure or composition.

---

very high frequency (noun)

30 to 300 megahertz.

- He looked up "very high frequency" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "very high frequency" to mean 30 to 300 megahertz.

---

wooden (adjective)

Made or consisting of (entirely or in part) or employing wood.

- A wooden box.
- An ancient cart with wooden wheels.

---

aggressive (adjective)

Having or showing determination and energetic pursuit of your ends.

- An aggressive businessman.
- An aggressive basketball player.

---

apparent (adjective)

Appearing as such but not necessarily so.

- For all his apparent wealth he had no money to pay the rent.
- The committee investigated some apparent discrepancies.

---

bang (noun)

The swift release of a store of affective force.

- They got a great bang out of it.
- He got a bang on the head.

---

central nervous system (noun)

The portion of the vertebrate nervous system consisting of the brain and spinal cord.

- He looked up "central nervous system" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "central nervous system" to mean the portion of the vertebrate nervous system....

---

club-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a club that is larger at one end.

- Students compared "club-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "club-shaped" approach may work better in this case.

---

courage (noun)

A quality of spirit that enables you to face danger or pain without showing fear.

- He looked up "courage" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "courage" to mean a quality of spirit that enables you to face danger....

---

diversity (noun)

The condition or result of being changeable.

- A diversity of possibilities.
- They discussed "diversity" during the group presentation.

---

encouraged (adjective)

Inspired with confidence.

- The speaker chose "encouraged" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "encouraged"? Explain why.

---

frozen (adjective)

Turned into ice; affected by freezing or by long and severe cold.

- The frozen North.
- Frozen pipes.

---

gender identity (noun)

Your identity as it is experienced with regard to your individuality as male or female; awareness normally begin in infancy and is reinforced during adolescence.

- They discussed "gender identity" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gender identity" means with a simple example.

---

guards (noun)

A posture of defence in boxing or fencing.

- Guards must be good blockers.
- He looked up "guards" because he had never seen it before.

---

highly sensitive (adjective)

Readily affected by various agents.

- A highly sensitive explosive is easily exploded by a shock.
- A sensitive colloid is readily coagulated.

---

humanity (noun)

The quality of being human.

- The article explained what "humanity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "humanity" to mean the quality of being human.

junior-grade (adjective)

Inferior in rank or status.

- A "junior-grade" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "junior-grade" when it is inferior in rank or status.

l-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of the letter L.

- Would you call this situation "l-shaped"? Explain why.
- A "l-shaped" approach may work better in this case.

low frequency (noun)

A pitch that is perceived as below other pitches.

- He looked up "low frequency" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "low frequency."

middle atlantic (adjective)

Of a region of the United States generally including Delaware; Maryland; Virginia; and usually New York; Pennsylvania; New Jersey.

- Mid-Atlantic states.
- The speaker chose "middle atlantic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

murdered (adjective)

Killed unlawfully.

- The murdered woman.
- Lay a wreath on murdered Lincoln's bier.

occupied (adjective)

Seized and controlled as by military invasion.

- The occupied countries of Europe.
- She keeps her time well occupied.

ongoing (adjective)

Currently happening.

- An ongoing economic crisis.
- The speaker chose "ongoing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

painful (adjective)

Causing physical or psychological pain.

- Worked with painful slowness.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "painful."

private-enterprise (adjective)

Subscribing to capitalistic competition.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "private-enterprise."
- The speaker chose "private-enterprise" because it captured the feeling precisely.

purple (noun)

A purple color or pigment.

- He was born to the purple.
- He looked up "purple" because he had never seen it before.

raw beauty (noun)

Beauty that is stark and powerfully impressive.

- He looked up "raw beauty" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "raw beauty" to mean beauty that is stark and powerfully impressive.

self-possession (noun)

The trait of resolutely controlling your own behavior.

- The article explained what "self-possession" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "self-possession" to mean the trait of resolutely controlling your own behavior.

---

star-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a star.

- It is useful to describe something as "star-shaped" when it is shaped like a star.
- The speaker chose "star-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sufficient (adjective)

Of a quantity that can fulfill a need or requirement but without being abundant.

- Sufficient food.
- Students compared "sufficient" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

suspended (adjective)

(of undissolved particles in a fluid) supported or kept from sinking or falling by buoyancy and without apparent attachment.

- Suspended matter such as silt or mud...
- Dust particles suspended in the air.

---

trend-setting (adjective)

Initiating or popularizing a trend.

- Would you call this situation "trend-setting"? Explain why.
- A "trend-setting" approach may work better in this case.

---

virtual (adjective)

Being actually such in almost every respect.

- The once elegant temple lay in virtual ruin.
- A virtual dependence on charity.

---

w-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of the letter W.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "w-shaped."
- Students compared "w-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

wood-burning (adjective)

Fueled by wood; "a wood-burning stove'.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wood-burning."
- Students compared "wood-burning" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

wounded (adjective)

Suffering from physical injury especially that suffered in battle.

- Nursing his wounded arm.
- Would you call this situation "wounded"? Explain why.

---

arranged (adjective)

Disposed or placed in a particular kind of order.

- The carefully arranged chessmen.
- Haphazardly arranged interlobular septa.

---

biological (adjective)

Of parents and children; related by blood.

- Biological child.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "biological."

---

blocked (adjective)

Completely obstructed or closed off.

- The storm was responsible for many blocked roads and bridges.

- The repaving results in many blocked streets.

---

bone-covered (adjective)

(of animals) armored with bone.

- The speaker chose "bone-covered" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "bone-covered" when it is (of animals) armored with bone.

---

burned (adjective)

Treated by heating to a high temperature but below the melting or fusing point.

- A row of burned houses.
- A burned-over site in the forest.

---

burned-out (adjective)

Exhausted as a result of longtime stress.

- She was burned-out before she was 30.
- A burned-out picture tube.

---

clean-handed (adjective)

Free from evil or guilt.

- Would you call this situation "clean-handed"? Explain why.
- A "clean-handed" approach may work better in this case.

---

cold comfort (noun)

Very limited consolation or empathy.

- He told me that time heals all wounds but that was cold comfort to me.
- In class, the teacher used "cold comfort" to mean very limited consolation or empathy.

---

distributed (adjective)

Spread out or scattered about or divided up.

- A "distributed" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "distributed"? Explain why.

---

edited (adjective)

Improved or corrected by critical editing.

- A "edited" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "edited" when it is improved or corrected by critical editing.

---

equal protection of the laws (noun)

A right guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment to the US Constitution and by the due-process clause of the Fifth Amendment.

- Understanding "equal protection of the laws" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "equal protection of the laws" during the group presentation.

---

express joy (verb)

Produce laughter.

- She tried to use "express joy" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "express joy" when talking about this idea.

---

favour (noun)

An advantage to the benefit of someone or something.

- They discussed "favour" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "favour."

---

fewer (adjective)

(comparative of 'few' used with count nouns) quantifier meaning a smaller number of.

- Fewer birds came this year.
- The birds are fewer this year.

---

football-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a football.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "football-shaped."
- Students compared "football-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

freedom to bear arms (noun)

A right guaranteed by the 2nd amendment to the US Constitution.

- He looked up "freedom to bear arms" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "freedom to bear arms" during the group presentation.

---

half dozen (adjective)

Denoting a quantity consisting of six items or units.

- The speaker chose "half dozen" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "half dozen."

---

half-dozen (adjective)

Denoting a quantity consisting of six items or units.

- Students compared "half-dozen" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "half-dozen."

---

hand-operated (adjective)

Operated by hand.

- It is useful to describe something as "hand-operated" when it is operated by hand.
- A "hand-operated" approach may work better in this case.

---

heavy-handed (adjective)

Lacking physical movement skills, especially with the hands; ; ; ; - Mary H. Vorse.

- Incensed at the government's heavy-handed economic policies.
- Students compared "heavy-handed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

jump for joy (verb)

Feel extreme happiness or elation.

- In everyday English, people use "jump for joy" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "jump for joy" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

non-automatic (adjective)

Operated by hand.

- A "non-automatic" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "non-automatic" when it is operated by hand.

---

packed (adjective)

Pressed together or compressed.

- Packed snow.
- Stands jam-packed with fans.

---

self-regard (noun)

The quality of being worthy of esteem or respect.

- Understanding "self-regard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "self-regard" to mean the quality of being worthy of esteem or respect.

---

semi-dry (adjective)

Somewhat dry.

- Swabbing left the deck semi-dry but still slippery.
- It is useful to describe something as "semi-dry" when it is somewhat dry.

---

silver grey (noun)

A light shade of grey.

- He looked up “silver grey” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “silver grey” to mean a light shade of grey.

---

silver-grey (adjective)

Of grey resembling silver.

- A “silver-grey” approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose “silver-grey” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

stability (noun)

The quality of being enduring and free from change or variation.

- The article explained what “stability” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “stability” to mean the quality of being enduring and free from change....

---

stone-grey (adjective)

Of the color of slate or granite.

- A “stone-grey” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “stone-grey”? Explain why.

---

stones (noun)

A lack of feeling or expression or movement.

- She had jewels made of all the rarest stones.
- You should remove the stones from prunes before cooking.

---

u-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of the letter U.

- A “u-shaped” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “u-shaped” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unlikely (adjective)

Has little chance of being the case or coming about.

- An unlikely story.
- An unlikely candidate for reelection.

---

very low frequency (noun)

3 to 30 kilohertz.

- He looked up “very low frequency” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “very low frequency” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

burned-over (adjective)

Destroyed or badly damaged by fire.

- A burned-over site in the forest.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “burned-over.”

---

collective (adjective)

Done by or characteristic of individuals acting together.

- The collective mind.
- Collective farms.

---

deeper (adjective)

Of an obscure nature; ; ; ; - Rachel Carson.

- A “deeper” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “deeper.”

---

finishing (noun)

A decorative texture or appearance of a surface (or the substance that gives it that appearance).

- The speaker’s finishing was greeted with applause.
- They discussed “finishing” during the group presentation.

h-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of the letter H.

- Students compared "h-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "h-shaped."

intellectual (adjective)

Of or associated with or requiring the use of the mind.

- Intellectual problems.
- Would you call this situation "intellectual"? Explain why.

love bite (noun)

A temporary red mark on a person's skin resulting from kissing or sucking by their lover.

- Understanding "love bite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "love bite" to mean a temporary red mark on a person's skin resulting....

nuts (adjective)

Informal or slang terms for mentally irregular.

- Would you call this situation "nuts"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "nuts" because it captured the feeling precisely.

primary colour for light (noun)

Any of three primary colors of light from which all colors can be obtained by additive mixing.

- The primary colors for light are red, blue, and green.
- The article explained what "primary colour for light" means with a simple example.

protecting (adjective)

Shielding (or designed to shield) against harm or discomfort.

- The protecting blanket of snow.
- A protecting alibi.

ruled (adjective)

Subject to a ruling authority.

- The ruled mass.
- It is useful to describe something as "ruled" when it is subject to a ruling authority.

separated (adjective)

Being or feeling set or kept apart from others; ; - Sherwood Anderson.

- Thought of herself as alone and separated from the others.
- A separated shoulder.

steady-going (adjective)

Consistent in performance or behavior.

- A steady-going family man.
- The speaker chose "steady-going" because it captured the feeling precisely.

talented (adjective)

Endowed with talent or talents.

- The speaker chose "talented" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "talented" when it is endowed with talent or talents.

thirty-seven (adjective)

Being seven more than thirty.

- It is useful to describe something as "thirty-seven" when it is being seven more than thirty.
- The speaker chose "thirty-seven" because it captured the feeling precisely.

touched (adjective)

Being excited or provoked to the expression of an emotion.

- Very touched by the stranger's kindness.
- Students compared "touched" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

v-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of the letter V.

- It is useful to describe something as "v-shaped" when it is shaped in the form of the letter v.
- Students compared "v-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

wisdom (noun)

The quality of being prudent and sensible.

- They discussed "wisdom" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wisdom."

---

wonder-struck (adjective)

Affected by or overcome with wonder.

- It is useful to describe something as "wonder-struck" when it is affected by or overcome with wonder.
- A "wonder-struck" approach may work better in this case.

---

absolute temperature (noun)

Temperature measured on the absolute scale.

- They discussed "absolute temperature" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "absolute temperature" to mean temperature measured on the absolute scale.

---

attacking (adjective)

Disposed to attack.

- Would you call this situation "attacking"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "attacking" when it is disposed to attack.

---

awkward (adjective)

Lacking grace or skill in manner or movement or performance.

- An awkward dancer.
- An awkward gesture.

---

blow-by-blow (adjective)

Providing great detail.

- A blow-by-blow account of the movie.
- A "blow-by-blow" approach may work better in this case.

---

box-shaped (adjective)

Resembling a box in rectangularity.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "box-shaped."
- Students compared "box-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

candy-like (adjective)

Resembling candy.

- The speaker chose "candy-like" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "candy-like"? Explain why.

---

cross-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a cross.

- Students compared "cross-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cross-shaped."

---

dated (adjective)

Marked by features of the immediate and usually discounted past.

- Students compared "dated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

- Would you call this situation “dated”? Explain why.

---

derived (adjective)

Formed or developed from something else; not original; - John Dewey.

- The belief that classes and organizations are secondary and derived.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “derived.”

---

distinct (adjective)

Easy to perceive; especially clearly outlined.

- A distinct flavor.
- A distinct odor of turpentine.

---

educated (adjective)

Characterized by full comprehension of the problem involved.

- An educated guess.
- The speaker chose “educated” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

eligible (adjective)

Qualified for or allowed or worthy of being chosen.

- Eligible to run for office.
- Eligible for retirement benefits.

---

fast asleep (adjective)

Sleeping deeply.

- Lying fast asleep on the sofa.
- It would be cruel to wake him; he’s sound asleep.

---

fifty-one (adjective)

Being one more than fifty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “fifty-one.”
- Students compared “fifty-one” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

funded (adjective)

Furnished with funds.

- Well-funded research.
- It is useful to describe something as “funded” when it is furnished with funds.

---

integrated (adjective)

Not segregated; designated as available to all races or groups.

- Integrated schools.
- A more closely integrated economic and political system.

---

intelligent (adjective)

Having the capacity for thought and reason especially to a high degree.

- Is there intelligent life in the universe?
- An intelligent question.

---

iron-grey (noun)

The color of freshly broken cast iron.

- In class, the teacher used “iron-grey” to mean the color of freshly broken cast iron.
- The article explained what “iron-grey” means with a simple example.

---

lifestyle (noun)

A manner of living that reflects the person’s values and attitudes.

- They discussed “lifestyle” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “lifestyle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lighting-up (adjective)

Turning lights on.

- It's lighting-up time.
- It is useful to describe something as "lighting-up" when it is turning lights on.

---

love affair (noun)

A relationship between two lovers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "love affair."
- The article explained what "love affair" means with a simple example.

---

low density (noun)

A rarified quality.

- He looked up "low density" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "low density."

---

low-density (adjective)

Having low relative density or specific gravity.

- Low-density urban areas.
- A "low-density" approach may work better in this case.

---

purple-black (adjective)

Of black tinged with purple.

- It is useful to describe something as "purple-black" when it is of black tinged with purple.
- A "purple-black" approach may work better in this case.

---

purple-white (adjective)

Of white tinged with purple.

- It is useful to describe something as "purple-white" when it is of white tinged with purple.
- The speaker chose "purple-white" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

recommendations (noun)

Any quality or characteristic that gains a person a favorable reception or acceptance or admission.

- In class, the teacher used "recommendations" to mean any quality or characteristic that gains a person a....
- They discussed "recommendations" during the group presentation.

---

remarkable (adjective)

Worthy of notice.

- A remarkable achievement.
- A remarkable sight.

---

self-generated (adjective)

Happening or arising without apparent external cause.

- Students compared "self-generated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "self-generated"? Explain why.

---

silver gray (noun)

A light shade of grey.

- In class, the teacher used "silver gray" to mean a light shade of grey.
- They discussed "silver gray" during the group presentation.

---

silver-gray (adjective)

Of grey resembling silver.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "silver-gray."
- Would you call this situation "silver-gray"? Explain why.

---

sound asleep (adjective)

Sleeping deeply.

- Lying fast asleep on the sofa.
- It would be cruel to wake him; he's sound asleep.

---

stone-gray (adjective)

Of the color of slate or granite.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "stone-gray."
- Students compared "stone-gray" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

strike dumb (verb)

Render speechless, as by surprising or shocking.

- We were struck dumb by the candidate's announcement.
- The coach explained when to use "strike dumb" and when to wait.

---

thirty-eight (adjective)

Being eight more than thirty.

- Would you call this situation "thirty-eight"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "thirty-eight" when it is being eight more than thirty.

---

worship (noun)

A feeling of profound love and admiration.

- In class, the teacher used "worship" to mean a feeling of profound love and admiration.
- Understanding "worship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

y-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of the letter Y.

- The speaker chose "y-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "y-shaped" approach may work better in this case.

---

absolute zero (noun)

(cryogenics) the lowest temperature theoretically attainable (at which the kinetic energy of atoms and molecules is minimal); 0 Kelvin or -273.15 centigrade or -459.67 Fahrenheit.

- They discussed "absolute zero" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "absolute zero" to mean (cryogenics) the lowest temperature theoretically....

---

at odds (adjective)

In disagreement; ; - John Morley.

- The figures are at odds with our findings.
- A "at odds" approach may work better in this case.

---

bloody (adjective)

Having or covered with or accompanied by blood.

- A bloody nose.
- Your scarf is all bloody.

---

bone dry (adjective)

Without a trace of moisture; as dry as a weathered bone.

- Bone-dry leaves are a fire hazard.
- A drier to get the clothes bone dry.

---

bone-dry (adjective)

Without a trace of moisture; as dry as a weathered bone.

- Bone-dry leaves are a fire hazard.
- Would you call this situation "bone-dry"? Explain why.

---

crucial (adjective)

Of extreme importance; vital to the resolution of a crisis.

- A crucial moment in his career.
- A crucial election.

dependent on (adjective)

Determined by conditions or circumstances that follow.

- Students compared "dependent on" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "dependent on"? Explain why.

dual (adjective)

A grammatical number category referring to two items or units as opposed to one item (singular) or more than two items (plural).

- Ancient Greek had the dual form but it has merged with the plural form in modern Greek.
- Dual controls for pilot and copilot.

equipped (adjective)

Provided or fitted out with what is necessary or useful or appropriate.

- A well equipped playground.
- A ship equipped with every mechanical aid to navigation.

expanded (adjective)

Increased in extent or size or bulk or scope.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "expanded."
- Would you call this situation "expanded"? Explain why.

experimental (adjective)

Of the nature of or undergoing an experiment.

- An experimental drug.
- Experimental results that supported the hypothesis.

fifty-three (adjective)

Being three more than fifty.

- A "fifty-three" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "fifty-three"? Explain why.

fifty-two (adjective)

Being two more than fifty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fifty-two."
- The speaker chose "fifty-two" because it captured the feeling precisely.

frequency response (noun)

(electronics) a curve representing the output-to-input ratio of a transducer as a function of frequency.

- They discussed "frequency response" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frequency response."

gulf (noun)

An unbridgeable disparity (as from a failure of understanding).

- He felt a gulf between himself and his former friends.
- He looked up "gulf" because he had never seen it before.

ha-ha (noun)

A loud laugh that sounds like a horse neighing.

- The article explained what "ha-ha" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ha-ha."

hoped-for (adjective)

Expected hopefully.

- It is useful to describe something as "hoped-for" when it is expected hopefully.
- Would you call this situation "hoped-for"? Explain why.

long-dated (adjective)

Of a gilt-edged security; having more than 15 years to run before redemption.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "long-dated."
- Would you call this situation "long-dated"? Explain why.

---

moon-faced (adjective)

Having a round face.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "moon-faced."
- Students compared "moon-faced" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

no man's land (noun)

The ambiguous region between two categories or states or conditions (usually containing some features of both).

- In that no man's land between negotiation and aggression.
- In class, the teacher used "no man's land" to mean the ambiguous region between two categories or....

---

odds-on (adjective)

Having a better than even chance of success.

- The odds-on favorite.
- Would you call this situation "odds-on"? Explain why.

---

on tap (adjective)

Available for immediate use.

- Extra personnel on tap.
- Other sports and entertainment facilities are on tap.

---

peaceful (adjective)

Not disturbed by strife or turmoil or war.

- A peaceful nation.
- Peaceful times.

---

purple-red (adjective)

Of red tinged with purple.

- Students compared "purple-red" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "purple-red"? Explain why.

---

red-purple (adjective)

Of purple tinged with red.

- Students compared "red-purple" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "red-purple"? Explain why.

---

repeated (adjective)

Recurring again and again.

- Would you call this situation "repeated"? Explain why.
- A "repeated" approach may work better in this case.

---

satisfied (adjective)

Filled with satisfaction.

- A satisfied customer.
- Would you call this situation "satisfied"? Explain why.

---

surprising (adjective)

Causing surprise or wonder or amazement.

- The report shows a surprising lack of hard factual data.
- Leaped up with surprising agility.

---

two-timing (adjective)

Not faithful to a spouse or lover.

- A two-timing boyfriend.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “two-timing.”

well-educated (adjective)

Highly educated; having extensive information or understanding.

- Students compared “well-educated” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as “well-educated” when it is highly educated; having extensive information or....

yellow-marked (adjective)

Having yellow marks.

- The speaker chose “yellow-marked” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “yellow-marked” when it is having yellow marks.

acceptable (adjective)

Judged to be in conformity with approved usage.

- Acceptable English usage.
- The water was acceptable for drinking.

bar-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a rigid strip of metal or wood.

- A “bar-shaped” approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as “bar-shaped” when it is shaped like a rigid strip of metal or wood.

challenging (adjective)

Requiring full use of your abilities or resources.

- Performed the most challenging task without a mistake.
- A challenging hypothesis.

close-packed (adjective)

Packed especially tightly.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “close-packed.”
- Students compared “close-packed” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

composed (adjective)

Serenely self-possessed and free from agitation especially in times of stress.

- The performer seemed completely composed as she stepped onto the stage.
- I felt calm and more composed than I had in a long time.

concentration (noun)

The spatial property of being crowded together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “concentration.”
- They discussed “concentration” during the group presentation.

copper (noun)

A reddish-brown color resembling the color of polished copper.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “copper.”
- They discussed “copper” during the group presentation.

dawn (verb)

Become clear or enter one’s consciousness or emotions.

- It dawned on him that she had betrayed him.
- The age of computers had dawned.

devil-may-care (adjective)

Marked by a carefree unconventionality or disreputableness; - Crary Moore.

- Students compared “devil-may-care” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “devil-may-care.”

dust-covered (adjective)

Covered with a layer of dust.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dust-covered."
- The speaker chose "dust-covered" because it captured the feeling precisely.

duty-bound (adjective)

Under a moral obligation to do something.

- The speaker chose "duty-bound" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "duty-bound" approach may work better in this case.

empty-headed (adjective)

Lacking seriousness; given to frivolity.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "empty-headed."
- The speaker chose "empty-headed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

executed (adjective)

Put to death as punishment.

- Claimed the body of the executed traitor.
- The speaker chose "executed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

fan-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a fan.

- A "fan-shaped" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "fan-shaped" when it is shaped in the form of a fan.

hilarious (adjective)

Marked by or causing boisterous merriment or convulsive laughter.

- Hilarious broad comedy.
- Students compared "hilarious" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

ignored (adjective)

Disregarded.

- Her ignored advice.
- It is useful to describe something as "ignored" when it is disregarded.

investments (noun)

The commitment of something other than money (time, energy, or effort) to a project with the expectation of some worthwhile result.

- He looked up "investments" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "investments" during the group presentation.

iron-gray (noun)

The color of freshly broken cast iron.

- Understanding "iron-gray" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "iron-gray" to mean the color of freshly broken cast iron.

item-by-item (adjective)

Separate and distinct from others of the same kind.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "item-by-item."
- Would you call this situation "item-by-item"? Explain why.

non-discrimination (noun)

Fairness in treating people without prejudice.

- They discussed "non-discrimination" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "non-discrimination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

non-slave (adjective)

Where slavery was prohibited.

- The speaker chose “non-slave” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “non-slave” approach may work better in this case.

---

pink-orange (adjective)

Of orange tinged with pink.

- A “pink-orange” approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose “pink-orange” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

radio frequency (noun)

An electromagnetic wave frequency between audio and infrared.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “radio frequency.”
- The article explained what “radio frequency” means with a simple example.

---

saving grace (noun)

A redeeming quality or characteristic.

- Her love of music remains her one saving grace.
- Her sense of humor has to be a saving grace.

---

self-sufficient (adjective)

Able to provide for your own needs without help from others.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “self-sufficient.”
- Students compared “self-sufficient” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

shocked (adjective)

Struck with fear, dread, or consternation.

- A “shocked” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “shocked”? Explain why.

---

sized (adjective)

Having the surface treated or coated with sizing.

- The speaker chose “sized” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation “sized”? Explain why.

---

stretch mark (noun)

A narrow band resulting from tension on the skin (as on abdominal skin after pregnancy).

- In class, the teacher used “stretch mark” to mean a narrow band resulting from tension on the skin....
- The article explained what “stretch mark” means with a simple example.

---

stunning (adjective)

Causing great astonishment and consternation.

- The strike came as a stunning protest against management.
- A stunning defeat.

---

target-hunting (adjective)

Guided automatically toward the target.

- A “target-hunting” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “target-hunting”? Explain why.

---

yellow-grey (adjective)

Of grey tinged with yellow.

- It is useful to describe something as “yellow-grey” when it is of grey tinged with yellow.
- Students compared “yellow-grey” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

addressed (adjective)

(of mail) marked with a destination.

- I throw away all mail addressed to ‘resident’.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “addressed.”

backed (adjective)

Having a back or backing, usually of a specified type.

- Would you call this situation "backed"? Explain why.
- A "backed" approach may work better in this case.

blue-purple (adjective)

Of purple tinged with blue.

- A "blue-purple" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "blue-purple" when it is of purple tinged with blue.

camera angle (noun)

The point of view of a camera.

- He looked up "camera angle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "camera angle."

cape of good hope (noun)

A point of land in southwestern South Africa (south of Cape Town).

- They discussed "cape of good hope" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cape of good hope" because he had never seen it before.

egg-filled (adjective)

Full of eggs.

- Students compared "egg-filled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "egg-filled" approach may work better in this case.

fifty-five (adjective)

Being five more than fifty.

- The speaker chose "fifty-five" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fifty-five."

fifty-four (adjective)

Being four more than fifty.

- The speaker chose "fifty-four" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "fifty-four" approach may work better in this case.

foot-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a foot.

- Students compared "foot-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "foot-shaped"? Explain why.

jet black (noun)

A very dark black.

- In class, the teacher used "jet black" to mean a very dark black.
- The article explained what "jet black" means with a simple example.

jet-black (adjective)

Of the blackest black; similar to the color of jet or coal.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "jet-black."
- The speaker chose "jet-black" because it captured the feeling precisely.

knee-deep (adjective)

Coming only to the ankle or knee.

- Would you call this situation "knee-deep"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "knee-deep" because it captured the feeling precisely.

life-sized (adjective)

Being of the same size as an original.

- Would you call this situation "life-sized"? Explain why.
- Students compared "life-sized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

man-sized (adjective)

Very large; appropriate to the size of a man.

- A man-sized piece of cake.
- A man-sized job.

---

mounted (adjective)

Decorated with applied ornamentation; often used in combination; - F.V.W.Mason.

- The trim brass-mounted carbine of the ranger.
- Would you call this situation "mounted"? Explain why.

---

mutual (adjective)

Concerning each of two or more persons or things; especially given or done in return.

- Mutual respect.
- Students compared "mutual" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

offense (noun)

A feeling of anger caused by being offended.

- He looked up "offense" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "offense" to mean a feeling of anger caused by being offended.

---

panic (noun)

An overwhelming feeling of fear and anxiety.

- Panic in the stock market.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "panic."

---

purple-blue (adjective)

Of blue tinged with purple.

- A "purple-blue" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "purple-blue" when it is of blue tinged with purple.

---

purple-green (adjective)

Of green tinged with purple.

- Would you call this situation "purple-green"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "purple-green" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

responded (verb)

Respond favorably or as hoped.

- The cancer responded to the aggressive therapy.
- The coach explained when to use "responded" and when to wait.

---

ruined (adjective)

Destroyed physically or morally.

- The unsuccessful run for office left him ruined politically and economically.
- A "ruined" approach may work better in this case.

---

thirty-nine (adjective)

Being nine more than thirty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "thirty-nine."
- The speaker chose "thirty-nine" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

worn (adjective)

Showing the wearing effects of overwork or care or suffering; ; ; ; - Charles Dickens.

- Looking careworn as she bent over her mending.

- Shocked to see the worn look of his handsome young face.

---

worn out (adjective)

Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely exhausted.

- The trembling of his played out limbs.
- Felt completely washed-out.

---

worn-out (adjective)

Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely exhausted.

- Only worn-out horses and cattle.
- Worn-out shoes with flapping soles.

---

accompanied (adjective)

Having companions or an escort.

- There were lone gentlemen and gentlemen accompanied by their wives.
- It is useful to describe something as "accompanied" when it is having companions or an escort.

---

blue-chip (adjective)

Extremely valuable.

- Rembrandt is considered a blue-chip artist.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "blue-chip."

---

boundaries (noun)

The greatest possible degree of something.

- In class, the teacher used "boundaries" to mean the greatest possible degree of something.
- They discussed "boundaries" during the group presentation.

---

chest register (noun)

The lower ranges of the voice in speaking or singing.

- Understanding "chest register" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chest register."

---

coal-fired (adjective)

Fueled by burning coal.

- A coal-fired ship.
- Students compared "coal-fired" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

considerable (adjective)

Large or relatively large in number or amount or extent or degree.

- A considerable quantity.
- The economy was a considerable issue in the campaign.

---

conventional (adjective)

Following accepted customs and proprieties.

- Conventional wisdom.
- She had strayed from the path of conventional behavior.

---

enormous (adjective)

Extraordinarily large in size or extent or amount or power or degree; ; ; ; - Walter Lippman.

- An enormous boulder.
- Enormous expenses.

---

fifty-six (adjective)

Being six more than fifty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fifty-six."
- Would you call this situation "fifty-six"? Explain why.

---

gains (noun)

The advantageous quality of being beneficial.

- Understanding "gains" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "gains" to mean the advantageous quality of being beneficial.

---

grass-covered (adjective)

Covered with grass.

- Wide grass-covered plains as far as the eye could see.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "grass-covered."

---

grass-eating (adjective)

Feeding on grasses.

- The speaker chose "grass-eating" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "grass-eating" when it is feeding on grasses.

---

handled (adjective)

Having a usually specified type of handle.

- Pearl-handled revolver.
- It is useful to describe something as "handled" when it is having a usually specified type of handle.

---

high-backed (adjective)

Having a high back.

- A high-backed sofa.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "high-backed."

---

hot jazz (noun)

Jazz that is emotionally charged and intense and marked by strong rhythms and improvisation.

- In class, the teacher used "hot jazz" to mean jazz that is emotionally charged and intense and....
- Understanding "hot jazz" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jumped-up (adjective)

(British informal) upstart.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "jumped-up."
- A "jumped-up" approach may work better in this case.

---

loaded (adjective)

Having an abundant supply of money or possessions of value.

- Not merely rich but loaded.
- A tray loaded with dishes.

---

measured (adjective)

Carefully thought out in advance.

- With measured irony.
- Walking at the same measured pace.

---

mercy (noun)

A disposition to be kind and forgiving.

- He threw himself on the mercy of the court.
- It was a mercy we got out alive.

---

mid-atlantic (adjective)

Of a region of the United States generally including Delaware; Maryland; Virginia; and usually New York; Pennsylvania; New Jersey.

- Mid-Atlantic states.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "mid-atlantic."

---

outer (adjective)

Being on the outside or further from a center.

- Spent hours adorning the outer man.
- The outer suburbs.

---

pissed (adjective)

Aroused to impatience or anger.

- Felt really pissed at her snootiness.
- It is useful to describe something as “pissed” when it is aroused to impatience or anger.

---

powered (adjective)

(often used in combination) having or using or propelled by means of power or power of a specified kind.

- Powered flight.
- Kerosine-powered jet engines.

---

recovered (adjective)

Freed from illness or injury; ; ; ; - Normon Cameron.

- Appears to be entirely recovered.
- When the recovered patient tries to remember what occurred during his delirium.

---

risk of infection (noun)

The probability of becoming infected given that exposure to an infectious agent has occurred.

- The article explained what “risk of infection” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “risk of infection.”

---

rude (adjective)

Lacking civility or good manners; - Willa Cather.

- It is useful to describe something as “rude” when it is lacking civility or good manners; - willa cather.
- Students compared “rude” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

self-educated (adjective)

Educated by your own efforts rather than by formal instruction.

- It is useful to describe something as “self-educated” when it is educated by your own efforts rather than by formal....
- Students compared “self-educated” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

short-dated (adjective)

Of a gilt-edged security; having less than 5 years to run before redemption.

- The speaker chose “short-dated” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “short-dated” when it is of a gilt-edged security; having less than 5 years....

---

soft-spoken (adjective)

Having a speaking manner that is not loud or harsh.

- She was always soft-spoken.
- A “soft-spoken” approach may work better in this case.

---

square-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a square.

- A “square-shaped” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “square-shaped” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

suits (noun)

A man’s courting of a woman; seeking the affections of a woman (usually with the hope of marriage).

- All the suits care about is the bottom line.
- He looked up “suits” because he had never seen it before.

---

thirty-fourth (adjective)

The ordinal number of thirty-four in counting order.

- A “thirty-fourth” approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose “thirty-fourth” because it captured the feeling precisely.

well-worn (adjective)

Repeated too often; overfamiliar through overuse.

- A "well-worn" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "well-worn" because it captured the feeling precisely.

wheels (noun)

Forces that provide energy and direction.

- The wheels of government began to turn.
- In class, the teacher used "wheels" to mean forces that provide energy and direction.

yellow-gray (adjective)

Of grey tinged with yellow.

- Would you call this situation "yellow-gray"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "yellow-gray" because it captured the feeling precisely.

accuracy (noun)

The quality of being near to the true value.

- He was beginning to doubt the accuracy of his compass.
- The atomic clock enabled scientists to measure time with much greater accuracy.

artificial (adjective)

Contrived by art rather than nature.

- Artificial flowers.
- Artificial flavoring.

bag-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a bag.

- It is useful to describe something as "bag-shaped" when it is shaped like a bag.
- Students compared "bag-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

bottle-fed (adjective)

(of an infant) given milk from a bottle.

- Would you call this situation "bottle-fed"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "bottle-fed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

broad-headed (adjective)

Having a brachycephalic head.

- Students compared "broad-headed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "broad-headed."

brown-purple (adjective)

Of dark purple tinted with brown.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "brown-purple."
- Would you call this situation "brown-purple"? Explain why.

celebrated (adjective)

Widely known and esteemed.

- A celebrated musician.
- The speaker chose "celebrated" because it captured the feeling precisely.

diverse (adjective)

Distinctly dissimilar or unlike.

- Celebrities as diverse as Bob Hope and Bob Dylan.
- A person of diverse talents.

functional (adjective)

Involving or affecting function rather than physiology.

- Functional deafness.
- A style of writing in which every word is functional.

---

high-powered (adjective)

(used of microscopes) capable of a high degree of magnification.

- A high-powered microscope.
- High-powered executives.

---

human-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of a human being.

- The speaker chose "human-sized" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "human-sized" approach may work better in this case.

---

isolated (adjective)

Under forced isolation especially for health reasons.

- Isolated patients.
- Isolated instances of rebellion.

---

jealous (adjective)

Showing extreme cupidity; painfully desirous of another's advantages.

- Jealous of his success and covetous of his possessions.
- A jealous lover.

---

knife-edge (noun)

A narrow boundary.

- He lived on a knife-edge between genius and insanity.
- The article explained what "knife-edge" means with a simple example.

---

knocked out (adjective)

Knocked unconscious by a heavy blow.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "knocked out."
- Would you call this situation "knocked out"? Explain why.

---

landed (adjective)

Owning or consisting of land or real estate.

- The landed gentry.
- Landed property.

---

lazy (adjective)

Disinclined to work or exertion.

- Too lazy to wash the dishes.
- Up a lazy river.

---

loaded down (adjective)

Bearing a physically heavy weight or load.

- Loaded down with packages.
- Bowed down with troubles.

---

long-handled (adjective)

Having a long handle.

- The speaker chose "long-handled" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "long-handled."

---

modified (adjective)

Changed in form or character.

- Their modified stand made the issue more acceptable.

- The performance of the modified aircraft was much improved.

---

municipal (adjective)

Of or relating to the government of a municipality; - J.L.kuntz.

- International law...only authorizes a belligerent to punish a spy under its municipal law.
- Would you call this situation "municipal"? Explain why.

---

neutral (adjective)

Lacking distinguishing quality or characteristics.

- A neutral personality that made no impression whatever.
- A neutral observer.

---

night terror (noun)

An emotional episode (usually in young children) in which the person awakens in terror with feelings of anxiety and fear but is unable to remember any incident that might have provoked those feelings.

- He looked up "night terror" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "night terror."

---

noble (adjective)

Of or belonging to or constituting the hereditary aristocracy especially as derived from feudal times.

- Of noble birth.
- A noble spirit.

---

oldest (adjective)

Of long duration; not new.

- The speaker chose "oldest" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "oldest" when it is of long duration; not new.

---

physical composition (noun)

The way in which someone or something is composed.

- The article explained what "physical composition" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "physical composition."

---

pissed off (adjective)

Aroused to impatience or anger.

- Felt really pissed at her snootiness.
- A "pissed off" approach may work better in this case.

---

popularity (noun)

The quality of being widely admired or accepted or sought after.

- His charm soon won him affection and popularity.
- The universal popularity of American movies.

---

purple-brown (adjective)

Of brown tinged with purple.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "purple-brown."
- Would you call this situation "purple-brown"? Explain why.

---

ring-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a ring.

- Would you call this situation "ring-shaped"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ring-shaped."

---

sacred (adjective)

Concerned with religion or religious purposes.

- Sacred texts.
- Sacred rites.

self-satisfied (adjective)

Contented to a fault with oneself or one's actions.

- His self-satisfied dignity.
- A "self-satisfied" approach may work better in this case.

tape-recorded (adjective)

Recorded on tape.

- The speaker chose "tape-recorded" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "tape-recorded" when it is recorded on tape.

thirty-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of thirty-five in counting order.

- Would you call this situation "thirty-fifth"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "thirty-fifth" when it is the ordinal number of thirty-five in counting order.

toxic (adjective)

Of or relating to or caused by a toxin or poison.

- Suffering from exposure to toxic substances.
- A "toxic" approach may work better in this case.

wider (adjective)

Having great (or a certain) extent from one side to the other.

- A "wider" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wider."

wound (noun)

A figurative injury (to your feelings or pride); ; ; –Robert Frost.

- He feared that mentioning it might reopen the wound.
- Deep in her breast lives the silent wound.

wound up (adjective)

Brought to a state of great tension.

- All wound up for a fight.
- Would you call this situation "wound up"? Explain why.

african love grass (noun)

Perennial South African grass having densely clumped flimsy stems; introduced into United States especially for erosion control.

- In class, the teacher used "african love grass" to mean perennial south african grass having densely....
- Understanding "african love grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

apple-shaped (adjective)

Having the general shape of an apple.

- Students compared "apple-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "apple-shaped"? Explain why.

assuming (adjective)

Excessively forward.

- On a subject like this it would be too assuming for me to decide.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "assuming."

blessed (adjective)

Highly favored or fortunate (as e.g. by divine grace).

- Our blessed land.
- The blessed assurance of a steady income.

break someone's heart (verb)

Cause deep emotional pain and grief to somebody.

- The young man broke the girl's heart when he told her was going to marry her best friend.
- In everyday English, people use "break someone's heart" when talking about this idea.

---

casual (adjective)

Appropriate for ordinary or routine occasions.

- Casual clothes.
- An ability to interest casual students.

---

certified (adjective)

Endorsed authoritatively as having met certain requirements.

- A certified public accountant.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "certified."

---

civilian (adjective)

Associated with civil life or performed by persons who are not active members of the military.

- Civilian clothing.
- Civilian life.

---

constitutional union party (noun)

A former political party in the United States; formed in 1859 by former Whigs who hoped to preserve the Union.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "constitutional union party."
- He looked up "constitutional union party" because he had never seen it before.

---

controversial (adjective)

Marked by or capable of arousing controversy.

- The issue of the death penalty is highly controversial.
- Rushdie's controversial book.

---

disgusting (adjective)

Highly offensive; arousing aversion or disgust.

- A disgusting smell.
- The speaker chose "disgusting" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

down pat (adjective)

Understood perfectly.

- Had his algebra problems down.
- A "down pat" approach may work better in this case.

---

equality before the law (noun)

The right to equal protection of the laws.

- Understanding "equality before the law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "equality before the law."

---

fifty-seven (adjective)

Being seven more than fifty.

- Would you call this situation "fifty-seven"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fifty-seven."

---

hundred-and-twenty-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of one hundred twenty-five in counting order.

- It is useful to describe something as "hundred-and-twenty-fifth" when it is the ordinal number of one hundred twenty-five in....
- Would you call this situation "hundred-and-twenty-fifth"? Explain why.

---

implemented (adjective)

Forced or compelled or put in force.

- Would you call this situation "implemented"? Explain why.

- A "implemented" approach may work better in this case.

---

legendary (adjective)

So celebrated as to having taken on the nature of a legend.

- The legendary exploits of the arctic trailblazers.
- Legendary exploits of Jesse James.

---

low-backed (adjective)

Having a low back.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "low-backed."
- Students compared "low-backed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

outdoor (adjective)

Located, suited for, or taking place in the open air.

- Outdoor clothes.
- Badminton and other outdoor games.

---

paper tiger (noun)

The nature of a person or organization that appears powerful but is actually powerless and ineffectual.

- He reminded Mao that the paper tiger had nuclear teeth.
- The article explained what "paper tiger" means with a simple example.

---

quick-frozen (adjective)

(used of foods) preserved by freezing sufficiently rapidly to retain flavor and nutritional value.

- Students compared "quick-frozen" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "quick-frozen" approach may work better in this case.

---

regulatory (adjective)

Restricting according to rules or principles.

- A regulatory gene.
- Students compared "regulatory" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rock-steady (adjective)

Consistent in performance or behavior.

- Students compared "rock-steady" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "rock-steady" approach may work better in this case.

---

sound judgment (noun)

The capacity to assess situations or circumstances shrewdly and to draw sound conclusions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sound judgment."
- The article explained what "sound judgment" means with a simple example.

---

strict (adjective)

Severe and unremitting in making demands.

- Strict standards.
- A strict vegetarian.

---

ultra (adjective)

(used of opinions and actions) far beyond the norm.

- An ultra conservative.
- It is useful to describe something as "ultra" when it is (used of opinions and actions) far beyond the norm.

---

unexpected (adjective)

Not expected or anticipated.

- Unexpected guests.
- Unexpected news.

---

war-worn (adjective)

Laid waste by war.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "war-worn."
- A "war-worn" approach may work better in this case.

---

affordable (adjective)

That you have the financial means for.

- Students compared "affordable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "affordable."

---

bearing (noun)

Characteristic way of bearing one's body.

- Those issues have no bearing on our situation.
- Understanding "bearing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cancelled (adjective)

(of events) no longer planned or scheduled.

- A "cancelled" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "cancelled" when it is (of events) no longer planned or scheduled.

---

cheaper (adjective)

Relatively low in price or charging low prices.

- Would you call this situation "cheaper"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "cheaper" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

demonstrated (adjective)

Having been demonstrated or verified beyond doubt.

- It is useful to describe something as "demonstrated" when it is having been demonstrated or verified beyond doubt.
- Would you call this situation "demonstrated"? Explain why.

---

dependent upon (adjective)

Determined by conditions or circumstances that follow.

- A "dependent upon" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "dependent upon" when it is determined by conditions or circumstances that follow.

---

dirty-faced (adjective)

Having a dirty face.

- A crowd of dirty-faced ragamuffins surrounded him.
- Would you call this situation "dirty-faced"? Explain why.

---

handsome (adjective)

Pleasing in appearance especially by reason of conformity to ideals of form and proportion; ; ; ; - Thackeray; - Lillian Hellman.

- Very pretty but not so extraordinarily handsome.
- A handsome allowance.

---

king-sized (adjective)

Extra large.

- A "king-sized" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "king-sized" when it is extra large.

---

leaf-like (adjective)

Resembling a leaf.

- Students compared "leaf-like" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "leaf-like"? Explain why.

---

magical (adjective)

Possessing or using or characteristic of or appropriate to supernatural powers; ; ; ; - Shakespeare.

- A magical spell.
- Students compared "magical" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

nasty (adjective)

Offensive or even (of persons) malicious; ; ; ; ; - Ezra Pound.

- In a nasty mood.
- A nasty accident.

---

off one's guard (adjective)

Not prepared or vigilant.

- Caught in an off-guard moment.
- Found him off his guard.

---

pleasant (adjective)

Affording pleasure; being in harmony with your taste or likings.

- We had a pleasant evening together.
- A pleasant scene.

---

productive (adjective)

Having the ability to produce or originate.

- Productive farmland.
- His productive years.

---

self-addressed (adjective)

Addressed to yourself.

- Enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope with all submissions.
- Students compared "self-addressed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

shorter (adjective)

Of speech sounds or syllables of relatively short duration.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "shorter."
- Students compared "shorter" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

socialist (adjective)

Advocating or following the socialist principles.

- Socialistic government.
- A "socialist" approach may work better in this case.

---

trigger-happy (adjective)

Marked by extreme intensity of emotions or convictions; inclined to react violently; fervid.

- The speaker chose "trigger-happy" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "trigger-happy."

---

useless (adjective)

Having no beneficial use or incapable of functioning usefully.

- A kitchen full of useless gadgets.
- She is useless in an emergency.

---

white-shoe (adjective)

Denoting a company or law firm owned and run by members of the WASP elite who are generally conservative.

- The politician tried to hide his white-shoe background.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "white-shoe."

---

beaten-up (adjective)

Damaged by blows or hard usage.

- The beaten-up old Ford.
- The speaker chose "beaten-up" because it captured the feeling precisely.

bitter (noun)

The property of having a harsh unpleasant taste.

- Understanding "bitter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bitter" to mean the property of having a harsh unpleasant taste.

blown (adjective)

Being moved or acted upon by moving air or vapor.

- Blown clouds of dust choked the riders.
- Blown soil mounded on the window sill.

blown-up (adjective)

As of a photograph; made larger.

- Students compared "blown-up" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "blown-up."

boat-shaped (adjective)

Having a concave shape like a boat.

- Students compared "boat-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "boat-shaped" approach may work better in this case.

brick red (noun)

A bright reddish-brown color.

- In class, the teacher used "brick red" to mean a bright reddish-brown color.
- Understanding "brick red" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cape fear (noun)

A cape in southeastern North Carolina extending into the Atlantic Ocean.

- The article explained what "cape fear" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cape fear" during the group presentation.

clever (adjective)

Mentally quick and resourceful; ; -Bram Stoker.

- You are a clever man...you reason well and your wit is bold.
- Too clever to be sound.

continuous (adjective)

Continuing in time or space without interruption; - James Jeans.

- A continuous rearrangement of electrons in the solar atoms results in the emission of light.
- A continuous bout of illness lasting six months.

converted (adjective)

Spiritually reborn or converted.

- Students compared "converted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "converted."

dog-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of an average dog.

- Would you call this situation "dog-sized"? Explain why.
- A "dog-sized" approach may work better in this case.

double-bass (adjective)

Pitched an octave below normal bass instrumental or vocal range.

- Contrabass or double-bass clarinet.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "double-bass."

execution speed (noun)

(computer science) the speed with which a computational device can execute instructions; measured in MIPS.

- They discussed "execution speed" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "execution speed" because he had never seen it before.

---

extremely high frequency (noun)

30 to 300 gigahertz.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "extremely high frequency."
- They discussed "extremely high frequency" during the group presentation.

---

fifty-eight (adjective)

Being eight more than fifty.

- Students compared "fifty-eight" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fifty-eight."

---

grey-headed (adjective)

Showing characteristics of age, especially having grey or white hair; -Coleridge.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "grey-headed."
- The speaker chose "grey-headed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

high-tension (adjective)

Subjected to or capable of operating under relatively high voltage.

- High-tension wire.
- A "high-tension" approach may work better in this case.

---

identical (adjective)

(of twins) derived from a single egg or ovum.

- Identical twins are monovular.
- A "identical" approach may work better in this case.

---

low-powered (adjective)

Having little power to do work.

- A low-powered engine.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "low-powered."

---

moderate-size (adjective)

Intermediate in size.

- A "moderate-size" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "moderate-size"? Explain why.

---

multi-colour (adjective)

Having sections or patches colored differently and usually brightly.

- It is useful to describe something as "multi-colour" when it is having sections or patches colored differently and....
- Would you call this situation "multi-colour"? Explain why.

---

no-nonsense (adjective)

Not tolerating irrelevancies.

- The no-nonsense tones of a stern parent.
- A "no-nonsense" approach may work better in this case.

---

on the fence (adjective)

Characterized by indecision.

- Some who had been on the fence came out in favor of the plan.
- Too many voters still declare they are undecided.

---

one hundred thirty (adjective)

Being ten more than one hundred twenty.

- Would you call this situation "one hundred thirty"? Explain why.

- The speaker chose “one hundred thirty” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

red-brick (adjective)

Of or relating to British universities founded in the late 19th century or the 20th century.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “red-brick.”
- Students compared “red-brick” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rolled (adjective)

Especially of petals or leaves in bud; having margins rolled inward.

- His rolled umbrella hanging on his arm.
- It is useful to describe something as “rolled” when it is especially of petals or leaves in bud; having....

---

round-backed (adjective)

Having the back and shoulders rounded; not erect.

- A “round-backed” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “round-backed.”

---

royal purple (noun)

A shade of purple tinged with red.

- They discussed “royal purple” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “royal purple” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sink in (verb)

Become clear or enter one’s consciousness or emotions.

- Learners should practice how to use “sink in” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “sink in” when talking about this idea.

---

vulnerable (adjective)

Susceptible to criticism or persuasion or temptation.

- Vulnerable to bribery.
- An argument vulnerable to refutation.

---

wealthy (adjective)

Having an abundant supply of money or possessions of value.

- Wealthy corporations.
- Students compared “wealthy” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

caring (adjective)

Feeling and exhibiting concern and empathy for others.

- Caring friends.
- Students compared “caring” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

chest tone (noun)

The lower ranges of the voice in speaking or singing.

- The article explained what “chest tone” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “chest tone” during the group presentation.

---

classical style (noun)

The artistic style of ancient Greek art with its emphasis on proportion and harmony.

- In class, the teacher used “classical style” to mean the artistic style of ancient greek art with its....
- The article explained what “classical style” means with a simple example.

---

cleared (adjective)

Rid of objects or obstructions such as e.g. trees and brush.

- Cleared land.
- Cleared streets free of fallen trees and debris.

---

colour-blind (adjective)

Unable to distinguish one or more chromatic colors.

- Would you call this situation "colour-blind"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "colour-blind."

---

dealt out (adjective)

Given out in portions.

- Students compared "dealt out" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dealt out."

---

delayed (adjective)

Not as far along as normal in development.

- Would you call this situation "delayed"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "delayed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

dismissed (adjective)

Having lost your job.

- A "dismissed" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "dismissed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

distinguished (adjective)

Used of a person's appearance or behavior; befitting an eminent person.

- His distinguished bearing.
- Our distinguished professor.

---

empty-handed (adjective)

Having acquired or gained nothing.

- The returned from the negotiations empty-handed.
- Students compared "empty-handed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

flip out (verb)

React in an excited, delighted, or surprised way.

- He flipped when he heard that he was accepted into Princeton University.
- He flipped when he heard that he was being laid off.

---

forty-first (adjective)

The ordinal number of forty-one in counting order.

- The speaker chose "forty-first" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "forty-first" when it is the ordinal number of forty-one in counting order.

---

forty-one (adjective)

Being one more than forty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "forty-one."
- Would you call this situation "forty-one"? Explain why.

---

forty-two (adjective)

Being two more than forty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "forty-two."
- Students compared "forty-two" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

freedom from discrimination (noun)

Immunity from discrimination on the basis of race or sex or nationality or religion or age; guaranteed by federal laws of the United States.

- The article explained what "freedom from discrimination" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "freedom from discrimination" to mean immunity from discrimination on the basis of race....

---

gray-headed (adjective)

Showing characteristics of age, especially having grey or white hair; -Coleridge.

- The speaker chose "gray-headed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "gray-headed"? Explain why.

---

grey-pink (adjective)

Of pink tinged with grey.

- It is useful to describe something as "grey-pink" when it is of pink tinged with grey.
- A "grey-pink" approach may work better in this case.

---

hated (adjective)

Treated with contempt.

- Would you call this situation "hated"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "hated" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

in the flesh (adjective)

An appearance carried out personally in someone else's physical presence.

- He carried out the negotiations in person.
- A personal appearance is an appearance by a person in the flesh.

---

incorporated (adjective)

Organized and maintained as a legal corporation.

- An incorporated town.
- The ideas incorporated in his revised manuscript.

---

jerry-built (adjective)

Of inferior workmanship and materials.

- Mean little jerry-built houses.
- A "jerry-built" approach may work better in this case.

---

live-bearing (adjective)

Producing living young (not eggs).

- A "live-bearing" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "live-bearing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

loyal (adjective)

Unwavering in devotion to friend or vow or cause; ; ; - Campaign song for William Henry Harrison.

- Loyal supporters.
- A "loyal" approach may work better in this case.

---

magical power (noun)

An ability to perform magic.

- They discussed "magical power" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "magical power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mental disorder (noun)

(psychiatry) a psychological disorder of thought or emotion; a more neutral term than mental illness.

- The article explained what "mental disorder" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mental disorder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

owner-occupied (adjective)

Lived in by the owner.

- One owner-occupied and three rental apartments.
- Students compared "owner-occupied" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

panic attack (noun)

A sudden attack of fear.

- They discussed "panic attack" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "panic attack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

powder blue (noun)

A pale blue color with grey in it.

- The article explained what "powder blue" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "powder blue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

privilege (noun)

A right reserved exclusively by a particular person or group (especially a hereditary or official right).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "privilege."
- The article explained what "privilege" means with a simple example.

rolled into one (adjective)

Made up of several components combined into a single entity.

- It is useful to describe something as "rolled into one" when it is made up of several components combined into a....
- Would you call this situation "rolled into one"? Explain why.

rose-purple (adjective)

Of purple with a rose tinge.

- Students compared "rose-purple" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rose-purple."

shock-headed (adjective)

Having a shock (or untidy mass) of hair.

- Shock-headed teenagers.
- Would you call this situation "shock-headed"? Explain why.

trusted (adjective)

(of persons) worthy of trust or confidence.

- A sure (or trusted) friend.
- A "trusted" approach may work better in this case.

volumes (noun)

The property of something that is great in magnitude.

- Mix one volume of the solution with ten volumes of water.
- They discussed "volumes" during the group presentation.

bowl-shaped (adjective)

Having a concave shape with an open top like a bowl.

- It is useful to describe something as "bowl-shaped" when it is having a concave shape with an open top like a bowl.
- Would you call this situation "bowl-shaped"? Explain why.

bulk (noun)

The property of something that is great in magnitude.

- It is cheaper to buy it in bulk.
- The bulk of the work is finished.

coal-burning (adjective)

Fueled by burning coal.

- A "coal-burning" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "coal-burning"? Explain why.

distant (adjective)

Far apart in relevance or relationship or kinship.

- A distant cousin.
- A distant likeness.

emerging (adjective)

Coming into existence.

- It is useful to describe something as "emerging" when it is coming into existence.
- The speaker chose "emerging" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

emotion (noun)

Any strong feeling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emotion."
- He looked up "emotion" because he had never seen it before.

---

excitement (noun)

The state of being emotionally aroused and worked up.

- His face was flushed with excitement and his hands trembled.
- He could hardly conceal his excitement when she agreed.

---

extremely low frequency (noun)

Below 3 kilohertz.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "extremely low frequency."
- Understanding "extremely low frequency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fifty-nine (adjective)

Being nine more than fifty.

- The speaker chose "fifty-nine" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fifty-nine."

---

forty-three (adjective)

Being three more than forty.

- A "forty-three" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "forty-three" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

full-blown (adjective)

Having or displaying all the characteristics necessary for completeness.

- A full-blown financial crisis.
- A full-blown rose.

---

high-stepped (adjective)

Having or moving with a high step.

- His high-stepped stride.
- It is useful to describe something as "high-stepped" when it is having or moving with a high step.

---

humor (noun)

The trait of appreciating (and being able to express) the humorous.

- She didn't appreciate my humor.
- You can't survive in the army without a sense of humor.

---

low-tension (adjective)

Subjected to or capable of operating under relative low voltage.

- A "low-tension" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "low-tension" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

mar (noun)

A mark or flaw that spoils the appearance of something (especially on a person's body).

- Understanding "mar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mar" to mean a mark or flaw that spoils the appearance of....

---

margin of safety (noun)

The margin required in order to insure safety.

- In engineering the margin of safety is the strength of the material minus the anticipated stress.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "margin of safety."

---

nerve (noun)

The courage to carry on.

- He looked up "nerve" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "nerve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

one hundred thirty-five (adjective)

Being five more than one hundred thirty.

- A "one hundred thirty-five" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one hundred thirty-five."

---

participating (adjective)

Taking part in an activity.

- The participating organizations.
- A "participating" approach may work better in this case.

---

remote-controlled (adjective)

Lacking a crew.

- A "remote-controlled" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "remote-controlled" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

respective (adjective)

Considered individually.

- The respective club members.
- Would you call this situation "respective"? Explain why.

---

restricted (adjective)

Subject to restriction or subjected to restriction.

- Of restricted importance.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "restricted."

---

safety margin (noun)

The margin required in order to insure safety.

- In engineering the margin of safety is the strength of the material minus the anticipated stress.
- Understanding "safety margin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sandy (adjective)

Of hair color; pale yellowish to yellowish brown.

- The speaker chose "sandy" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "sandy"? Explain why.

---

situated (adjective)

Situated in a particular spot or position.

- Nicely situated on a quiet riverbank.
- The speaker chose "situated" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

spotted (adjective)

Having spots or patches (small areas of contrasting color or texture).

- A black-and-white spotted cow.
- The speaker chose "spotted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sustained (adjective)

Maintained at length without interruption or weakening.

- Sustained flight.
- Students compared "sustained" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

threatening (adjective)

Threatening or foreshadowing evil or tragic developments.

- His threatening behavior.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "threatening."

---

too-generous (adjective)

Very generous.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "too-generous."
- Students compared "too-generous" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

trapped (adjective)

Forced to turn and face attackers.

- Like a trapped animal.
- Would you call this situation "trapped"? Explain why.

---

twenty-sixth (adjective)

Coming next after the twenty-fifth in position.

- Students compared "twenty-sixth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "twenty-sixth."

---

uncomfortable (adjective)

Conducive to or feeling mental discomfort.

- This kind of life can prove disruptive and uncomfortable.
- The uncomfortable truth.

---

weakness (noun)

A penchant for something even though it might not be good for you.

- He has a weakness for chocolate.
- In spite of their weakness the group remains active.

---

widespread (adjective)

Widely circulated or diffused.

- A widespread doctrine.
- Widespread fear of nuclear war.

---

young-bearing (adjective)

Capable of producing eggs and bearing offspring.

- The speaker chose "young-bearing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "young-bearing" approach may work better in this case.

---

accepting (adjective)

Tolerating without protest.

- Always more accepting of coaching suggestion than her teammates.
- The atmosphere was judged to be more supporting and accepting.

---

accessible (adjective)

Capable of being read with comprehension.

- Readily accessible to the nonprofessional reader.
- Most students now have computers accessible.

---

advised (adjective)

Having the benefit of careful prior consideration or counsel.

- A well-advised delay in carrying out the plan.
- Students compared "advised" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

animation (noun)

The property of being able to survive and grow.

- In class, the teacher used “animation” to mean the property of being able to survive and grow.
- Understanding “animation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

balanced (adjective)

Being in a state of proper equilibrium.

- The carefully balanced seesaw.
- A properly balanced symphony orchestra.

---

bare (adjective)

Lacking its natural or customary covering.

- A bare hill.
- Bare feet.

---

cherry (noun)

A red the color of ripe cherries.

- They discussed “cherry” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “cherry” to mean a red the color of ripe cherries.

---

chill (noun)

An almost pleasurable sensation of fright.

- Understanding “chill” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “chill” because he had never seen it before.

---

chill out (verb)

Become quiet or calm, especially after a state of agitation.

- Learners should practice how to use “chill out” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “chill out” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

concert pitch (noun)

The pitch used to tune instruments for concert performances; usually assigns 440 Hz to the A above middle C.

- He looked up “concert pitch” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “concert pitch.”

---

conscious (adjective)

Knowing and perceiving; having awareness of surroundings and sensations and thoughts.

- Remained conscious during the operation.
- Conscious of his faults.

---

copper color (noun)

A reddish-brown color resembling the color of polished copper.

- In class, the teacher used “copper color” to mean a reddish-brown color resembling the color of....
- The article explained what “copper color” means with a simple example.

---

devoted (adjective)

(followed by ‘to’) dedicated exclusively to a purpose or use.

- Large sums devoted to the care of the poor.
- A life devoted to poetry.

---

dominated (adjective)

Controlled or ruled by superior authority or power.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “dominated.”
- A “dominated” approach may work better in this case.

---

endless (adjective)

Having no known beginning and presumably no end.

- Time is endless.
- Endless debates.

escaped (adjective)

Having escaped, especially from confinement.

- Searching for two escaped prisoners.
- A "escaped" approach may work better in this case.

forty-four (adjective)

Being four more than forty.

- The speaker chose "forty-four" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "forty-four"? Explain why.

forty-second (adjective)

The ordinal number of forty-two in counting order.

- The speaker chose "forty-second" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "forty-second" approach may work better in this case.

good humor (noun)

A cheerful and agreeable mood.

- He looked up "good humor" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "good humor" to mean a cheerful and agreeable mood.

gray-pink (adjective)

Of pink tinged with grey.

- Would you call this situation "gray-pink"? Explain why.
- Students compared "gray-pink" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

high-ranking (adjective)

At an elevated level in rank or importance.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "high-ranking."
- The speaker chose "high-ranking" because it captured the feeling precisely.

life-threatening (adjective)

Causing fear or anxiety by threatening great harm.

- A life-threatening disease.
- It is useful to describe something as "life-threatening" when it is causing fear or anxiety by threatening great harm.

loop gain (noun)

(telecommunication) the gain of a feedback amplifier or system as a function of how much output is fed back to the input.

- If the loop gain is too great the system may go into oscillation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loop gain."

nominated (adjective)

Appointed by nomination.

- A "nominated" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "nominated."

pot-trained (adjective)

(of children) trained to use the toilet.

- A "pot-trained" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "pot-trained"? Explain why.

reserved (adjective)

Marked by self-restraint and reticence; -Victoria Sackville-West.

- Was habitually reserved in speech, withholding her opinion.
- It is useful to describe something as "reserved" when it is marked by self-restraint and reticence; -victoria....

rs (noun)

The length of a line segment between the center and circumference of a circle or sphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rs."
- They discussed "rs" during the group presentation.

---

sand-blind (adjective)

Having greatly reduced vision.

- Students compared "sand-blind" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sand-blind."

---

semi-formal (adjective)

Moderately formal; requiring a dinner jacket.

- It is useful to describe something as "semi-formal" when it is moderately formal; requiring a dinner jacket.
- The speaker chose "semi-formal" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sizes (noun)

The physical magnitude of something (how big it is).

- In class, the teacher used "sizes" to mean the physical magnitude of something (how big it is).
- They discussed "sizes" during the group presentation.

---

stressed (adjective)

Suffering severe physical strain or distress.

- He dropped out of the race, clearly distressed and having difficulty breathing.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "stressed."

---

unnecessary (adjective)

Not necessary.

- It is useful to describe something as "unnecessary" when it is not necessary.
- Would you call this situation "unnecessary"? Explain why.

---

well-situated (adjective)

In fortunate circumstances financially; moderately rich.

- His family is well-situated financially.
- Students compared "well-situated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

wing-shaped (adjective)

Having or resembling wings.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wing-shaped."
- Would you call this situation "wing-shaped"? Explain why.

---

adapted (adjective)

Changed in order to improve or made more fit for a particular purpose.

- Seeds precisely adapted to the area.
- The speaker chose "adapted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

anonymous (adjective)

Having no known name or identity or known source.

- Anonymous authors.
- Anonymous donors.

---

approaching (noun)

The temporal property of becoming nearer in time.

- In class, the teacher used "approaching" to mean the temporal property of becoming nearer in time.
- The article explained what "approaching" means with a simple example.

---

bell-shaped (adjective)

Having a convex shape that resembles a bell.

- The speaker chose "bell-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.

- It is useful to describe something as "bell-shaped" when it is having a convex shape that resembles a bell.

---

broken-backed (adjective)

(of a ship) so weakened as to sag at each end.

- A broken-backed book.
- A broken-backed old horse.

---

bronze-red (adjective)

Of red tinged with bronze.

- Would you call this situation "bronze-red"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bronze-red."

---

controlling (adjective)

Able to control or determine policy.

- A controlling interest in the firm.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "controlling."

---

fears (noun)

A feeling of profound respect for someone or something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fears."
- They discussed "fears" during the group presentation.

---

fifty-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of fifty-five in counting order.

- Students compared "fifty-fifth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fifty-fifth."

---

forty-six (adjective)

Being six more than forty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "forty-six."
- A "forty-six" approach may work better in this case.

---

forty-third (adjective)

The ordinal number of forty-three in counting order.

- Would you call this situation "forty-third"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "forty-third" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

gentle (verb)

Cause to be more favorably inclined; gain the good will of.

- In everyday English, people use "gentle" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "gentle" in real sentences.

---

gold-bearing (adjective)

Containing gold.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "gold-bearing."
- Students compared "gold-bearing" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

grade-constructed (adjective)

Constructed at ground level.

- Grade-constructed accesses to the freeway.
- It is useful to describe something as "grade-constructed" when it is constructed at ground level.

---

licensed (adjective)

Given official approval to act.

- Licensed pharmacist.
- A "licensed" approach may work better in this case.

---

medium frequency (noun)

300 to 3000 kilohertz.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medium frequency."
- Understanding "medium frequency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mind-blowing (adjective)

Intensely affecting the mind or emotions.

- Spending a week in the jungle was a mind-blowing experience.
- A mind-blowing horror story.

mysterious (adjective)

Of an obscure nature; ; ; ; - Rachel Carson.

- The new insurance policy is written without cryptic or mysterious terms.
- In its mysterious past it encompasses all the dim origins of life.

oil-bearing (adjective)

Containing oil.

- Oil-bearing shale.
- A "oil-bearing" approach may work better in this case.

patent right (noun)

The right granted by a patent; especially the exclusive right to an invention.

- Understanding "patent right" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patent right."

queen-sized (adjective)

(used especially of beds) not as large as king-size.

- A queen-sized bed.
- Would you call this situation "queen-sized"? Explain why.

resolve (noun)

The trait of being resolute.

- In class, the teacher used "resolve" to mean the trait of being resolute.
- They discussed "resolve" during the group presentation.

rough-spoken (adjective)

Rude or uncouth in speech.

- Would you call this situation "rough-spoken"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "rough-spoken" when it is rude or uncouth in speech.

shine up (verb)

Ingratiate oneself to; often with insincere behavior.

- The coach explained when to use "shine up" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "shine up" until he saw an example.

underlying (adjective)

Being or involving basic facts or principles.

- Underlying principles.
- An underlying meaning.

unfair (adjective)

Not fair; marked by injustice or partiality or deception.

- Used unfair methods.
- It was an unfair trial.

well-advised (adjective)

Having the benefit of careful prior consideration or counsel.

- A well-advised delay in carrying out the plan.
- A "well-advised" approach may work better in this case.

---

well-balanced (adjective)

In an optimal state of balance or equilibrium.

- A well-balanced wheel.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-balanced."

---

worn spot (noun)

A spot that has been worn away by abrasion or erosion.

- He looked up "worn spot" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "worn spot."

---

acid-loving (adjective)

Thriving in a relatively acidic environment (especially of plants requiring a pH well below 7).

- The speaker chose "acid-loving" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "acid-loving" when it is thriving in a relatively acidic environment....

---

appreciated (adjective)

Fully understood or grasped.

- Dangers not yet appreciated.
- Would you call this situation "appreciated"? Explain why.

---

belt-fed (adjective)

Using belted ammunition.

- The speaker chose "belt-fed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "belt-fed" when it is using belted ammunition.

---

bottle-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a bottle.

- Students compared "bottle-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "bottle-shaped"? Explain why.

---

bubble over (verb)

Overflow with a certain feeling.

- The children bubbled over with joy.
- My boss was bubbling over with anger.

---

button-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a button.

- Button-shaped white flowers.
- Students compared "button-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

deadly (adjective)

Of an instrument of certain death.

- Deadly poisons.
- A deadly enemy.

---

der (adjective)

Denoting a quantity consisting of 500 items or units.

- The speaker chose "der" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "der" approach may work better in this case.

---

desired (adjective)

Wanted intensely.

- It produced the desired effect.
- Students compared "desired" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

egg-producing (adjective)

Capable of producing eggs and bearing offspring.

- The speaker chose "egg-producing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "egg-producing"? Explain why.

imposed (adjective)

Set forth authoritatively as obligatory.

- The imposed taxation.
- Rules imposed by society.

indigenous (adjective)

Originating where it is found.

- The Ainu are indigenous to the northernmost islands of Japan.
- The speaker chose "indigenous" because it captured the feeling precisely.

john hope franklin (noun)

United States historian noted for studies of Black American history (born in 1915).

- In class, the teacher used "john hope franklin" to mean united states historian noted for studies of black....
- The article explained what "john hope franklin" means with a simple example.

light-colored (adjective)

(used of color) having a relatively small amount of coloring agent.

- A light-colored powder.
- A "light-colored" approach may work better in this case.

marvel (noun)

Something that causes feelings of wonder.

- They discussed "marvel" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "marvel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

n-th (adjective)

Last or greatest in an indefinitely large series.

- The speaker chose "n-th" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "n-th" approach may work better in this case.

perceived (adjective)

Detected by instinct or inference rather than by recognized perceptual cues.

- A perceived threat.
- A perceived difference in temperature.

pipe dream (noun)

A fantastic but vain hope (from fantasies induced by the opium pipe).

- I have this pipe dream about being emperor of the universe.
- They discussed "pipe dream" during the group presentation.

rocky (adjective)

Causing or characterized by jolts and irregular movements.

- It is useful to describe something as "rocky" when it is causing or characterized by jolts and irregular....
- Students compared "rocky" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

satisfaction (noun)

The contentment one feels when one has fulfilled a desire, need, or expectation.

- The chef tasted the sauce with great satisfaction.
- We were unable to get satisfaction from the local store.

service ceiling (noun)

Altitude above which a plane cannot climb faster than a given rate.

- He looked up "service ceiling" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "service ceiling" during the group presentation.

---

sporting (adjective)

Involving risk or willingness to take a risk.

- A sporting chance.
- Sporting blood.

---

utility-grade (adjective)

Used of beef; usable but inferior.

- Students compared "utility-grade" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "utility-grade."

---

worries (noun)

A strong feeling of anxiety.

- They discussed "worries" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "worries."

---

accomplished (adjective)

Successfully completed or brought to an end.

- His mission accomplished he took a vacation.
- An accomplished pianist.

---

adventures (verb)

Take a risk in the hope of a favorable outcome.

- In everyday English, people use "adventures" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "adventures" in real sentences.

---

apple-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of an apple.

- Would you call this situation "apple-sized"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "apple-sized" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

base-forming (adjective)

Yielding a base in aqueous solution.

- Students compared "base-forming" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "base-forming."

---

cherry red (noun)

A red the color of ripe cherries.

- He looked up "cherry red" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cherry red."

---

cherry-red (adjective)

Of a color at the end of the color spectrum (next to orange); resembling the color of blood or cherries or tomatoes or rubies.

- A "cherry-red" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "cherry-red" when it is of a color at the end of the color spectrum (next....

---

chuck-full (adjective)

Packed full to capacity.

- Students compared "chuck-full" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "chuck-full" approach may work better in this case.

---

contrary to fact (adjective)

Going counter to the facts (usually as a hypothesis).

- The speaker chose "contrary to fact" because it captured the feeling precisely.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “contrary to fact.”

---

convenient (adjective)

Suited to your comfort or purpose or needs.

- A convenient excuse for not going.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “convenient.”

---

embarrassing (adjective)

Causing to feel shame or chagrin or vexation.

- The embarrassing moment when she found her petticoat down around her ankles.
- Awkward (or embarrassing or difficult) moments in the discussion.

---

emotional disorder (noun)

Any mental disorder not caused by detectable organic abnormalities of the brain and in which a major disturbance of emotions is predominant.

- In class, the teacher used “emotional disorder” to mean any mental disorder not caused by detectable....
- Understanding “emotional disorder” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

finest (adjective)

Of textures that are smooth to the touch or substances consisting of relatively small particles.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “finest.”
- A “finest” approach may work better in this case.

---

forty-seven (adjective)

Being seven more than forty.

- Would you call this situation “forty-seven”? Explain why.
- Students compared “forty-seven” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

gold-colored (adjective)

Having the color of gold.

- A “gold-colored” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “gold-colored” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

hates (verb)

Dislike intensely; feel antipathy or aversion towards.

- He did not know how to use “hates” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “hates” in real sentences.

---

high spirits (noun)

A feeling of joy and pride.

- In class, the teacher used “high spirits” to mean a feeling of joy and pride.
- Understanding “high spirits” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

high-yield (adjective)

Yielding a large amount of agricultural or industrial production.

- It is useful to describe something as “high-yield” when it is yielding a large amount of agricultural or....
- The speaker chose “high-yield” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

higher-ranking (adjective)

Having a higher rank.

- It is useful to describe something as “higher-ranking” when it is having a higher rank.
- Students compared “higher-ranking” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

hit the ceiling (verb)

Get very angry and fly into a rage.

- The professor combusted when the student didn’t know the answer to a very elementary question.
- Can you use “hit the ceiling” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

in high spirits (adjective)

Happy and excited and energetic.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "in high spirits."
- The speaker chose "in high spirits" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

lead-colored (adjective)

Having the color of lead.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "lead-colored."
- Students compared "lead-colored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lesbian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characterized by homosexual relations between woman.

- Would you call this situation "lesbian"? Explain why.
- Students compared "lesbian" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

like-minded (adjective)

Of the same turn of mind.

- A "like-minded" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "like-minded" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

magical ability (noun)

An ability to perform magic.

- In class, the teacher used "magical ability" to mean an ability to perform magic.
- Understanding "magical ability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mind-expanding (adjective)

(of hallucinogenic drugs) giving a sense of heightened or broader awareness.

- A "mind-expanding" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "mind-expanding"? Explain why.

---

minded (adjective)

(usually followed by 'to') naturally disposed toward.

- I am not minded to answer any questions.
- Civic-minded.

---

muscle-bound (adjective)

Having stiff muscles as the result of excessive exercise.

- He arrived accompanied by two muscle-bound body guards.
- It is useful to describe something as "muscle-bound" when it is having stiff muscles as the result of excessive....

---

one hundred fifty (adjective)

Being ten more than one hundred forty.

- Students compared "one hundred fifty" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one hundred fifty."

---

productivity (noun)

The quality of being productive or having the power to produce.

- Understanding "productivity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "productivity" because he had never seen it before.

---

red-carpet (adjective)

Special treatment or hospitality.

- The maitre d' gave them the red-carpet treatment.
- The speaker chose "red-carpet" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

self-colored (adjective)

Of the same color throughout.

- The speaker chose "self-colored" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "self-colored" approach may work better in this case.

---

self-sustained (adjective)

Needing no outside support.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "self-sustained."
- The speaker chose "self-sustained" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sense of humor (noun)

The trait of appreciating (and being able to express) the humorous.

- She didn't appreciate my humor.
- You can't survive in the army without a sense of humor.

---

specific gravity (noun)

The density of a substance relative to the density of water.

- In class, the teacher used "specific gravity" to mean the density of a substance relative to the density....
- The article explained what "specific gravity" means with a simple example.

---

suspected (adjective)

Believed likely.

- A suspected thief.
- A suspected infection.

---

urgent (adjective)

Compelling immediate action.

- The urgent words 'Hurry! Hurry!'.
- Bridges in urgent need of repair.

---

visual aspect (noun)

Outward or visible aspect of a person or thing.

- In class, the teacher used "visual aspect" to mean outward or visible aspect of a person or thing.
- He looked up "visual aspect" because he had never seen it before.

---

wrapped (adjective)

Enclosed securely in a covering of paper or the like.

- Gaily wrapped gifts.
- A "wrapped" approach may work better in this case.

---

wrapped up (adjective)

Deeply devoted to.

- Is wrapped up in his family.
- Would you call this situation "wrapped up"? Explain why.

---

awake (adjective)

Not in a state of sleep; completely conscious.

- Lay awake thinking about his new job.
- Still not fully awake.

---

bear-sized (adjective)

Large as a bear.

- Would you call this situation "bear-sized"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "bear-sized" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

depressed (adjective)

Filled with melancholy and despondency.

- Depressed by the loss of his job.
- The market is depressed.

deserved (adjective)

Properly deserved.

- Students compared "deserved" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "deserved."

desk-bound (adjective)

Restricted to working in an office rather than in an active physical capacity.

- Would you call this situation "desk-bound"? Explain why.
- Students compared "desk-bound" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

encouraging (adjective)

Giving courage or confidence or hope.

- Encouraging advances in medical research.
- It is useful to describe something as "encouraging" when it is giving courage or confidence or hope.

eye-catching (adjective)

Seizing the attention.

- Eye-catching posters.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "eye-catching."

forty-eight (adjective)

Being eight more than forty.

- Students compared "forty-eight" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "forty-eight."

genetic constitution (noun)

The particular alleles at specified loci present in an organism.

- He looked up "genetic constitution" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genetic constitution."

harsh (adjective)

Of textures that are rough to the touch or substances consisting of relatively large particles.

- It is useful to describe something as "harsh" when it is of textures that are rough to the touch or....
- The speaker chose "harsh" because it captured the feeling precisely.

head-in-the-clouds (adjective)

Guided by whim and fancy.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "head-in-the-clouds."
- Students compared "head-in-the-clouds" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

hero worship (noun)

Admiration for great men (or their memory).

- In class, the teacher used "hero worship" to mean admiration for great men (or their memory).
- He looked up "hero worship" because he had never seen it before.

hero-worship (verb)

Love unquestioningly and uncritically or to excess; venerate as an idol.

- Can you use "hero-worship" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "hero-worship" and when to wait.

high-minded (adjective)

Of high moral or intellectual value; elevated in nature or style; ; - Oliver Franks.

- It is useful to describe something as "high-minded" when it is of high moral or intellectual value; elevated in....
- The speaker chose "high-minded" because it captured the feeling precisely.

inner resource (noun)

A resource provided by the mind or one's personal capabilities.

- To have an inner resource against loneliness.
- He looked up "inner resource" because he had never seen it before.

---

intensity (noun)

The magnitude of sound (usually in a specified direction).

- He adjusted the intensity of the sound.
- The article explained what "intensity" means with a simple example.

---

logical (adjective)

Capable of or reflecting the capability for correct and valid reasoning.

- A logical mind.
- A "logical" approach may work better in this case.

---

lower-ranking (adjective)

Inferior in rank or status.

- It is useful to describe something as "lower-ranking" when it is inferior in rank or status.
- The speaker chose "lower-ranking" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

meaningful (adjective)

Having a meaning or purpose.

- A meaningful explanation.
- A meaningful discussion.

---

motivated (adjective)

Provided with a motive or given incentive for action.

- A highly motivated child can learn almost anything.
- A group of politically motivated men.

---

off the beaten track (adjective)

Remote from populous or much-traveled regions.

- They found a quiet out-of-the-way resort.
- Students compared "off the beaten track" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

punch-drunk (adjective)

Dazed from or as if from repeated blows.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "punch-drunk."
- Students compared "punch-drunk" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

releasing (adjective)

Emotionally purging (of e.g. art).

- It is useful to describe something as "releasing" when it is emotionally purging (of e.g. art).
- The speaker chose "releasing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

revised (adjective)

Altered or revised by rephrasing or by adding or deleting material.

- A revised edition.
- Students compared "revised" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

right-minded (adjective)

Disposed toward or having views based on what is right; - Bertrand Russell.

- Respect for law which every right-minded citizen ought to have.
- It is useful to describe something as "right-minded" when it is disposed toward or having views based on what is....

---

self-conscious (adjective)

Excessively and uncomfortably conscious of your appearance or behavior.

- Self-conscious teenagers.

- Wondered if she could ever be untidy without feeling self-conscious about it.

smooth-faced (adjective)

Lacking hair on the face.

- A smooth-faced boy of 14 years.
- Students compared "smooth-faced" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

staring (adjective)

(used of eyes) open and fixed as if in fear or wonder.

- Staring eyes.
- Stark staring mad.

teenage (adjective)

Being of the age 13 through 19.

- Teenage mothers.
- The speaker chose "teenage" because it captured the feeling precisely.

alike (adjective)

Having the same or similar characteristics.

- All politicians are alike.
- They looked utterly alike.

applicable (adjective)

Capable of being applied; having relevance.

- Gave applicable examples to support her argument.
- A "applicable" approach may work better in this case.

availability (noun)

The quality of being at hand when needed.

- The article explained what "availability" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "availability" during the group presentation.

boundary (noun)

The greatest possible degree of something.

- He looked up "boundary" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boundary."

cheers (noun)

The quality of being cheerful and dispelling gloom.

- He looked up "cheers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cheers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

corresponding (adjective)

Similar especially in position or purpose.

- A number of corresponding diagonal points.
- All rights carry with them corresponding responsibilities.

dark-colored (adjective)

Having a dark color.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dark-colored."
- The speaker chose "dark-colored" because it captured the feeling precisely.

dark-spotted (adjective)

Having dark spots.

- Students compared "dark-spotted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "dark-spotted"? Explain why.

demanding (adjective)

Requiring more than usually expected or thought due; especially great patience and effort and skill.

- Found the job very demanding.
- A baby can be so demanding.

---

eaten (verb)

Worry or cause anxiety in a persistent way.

- In everyday English, people use "eaten" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "eaten" until he saw an example.

---

engaging (adjective)

Attracting or delighting.

- An engaging frankness.
- Students compared "engaging" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

fascinating (adjective)

Capable of arousing and holding the attention.

- A fascinating story.
- A fascinating woman.

---

fitted out (adjective)

Furnished with essential equipment for a particular occupation or undertaking occupation.

- A well outfitted expedition to the South Pole.
- Would you call this situation "fitted out"? Explain why.

---

goodness (noun)

That which is pleasing or valuable or useful.

- Understanding "goodness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goodness."

---

guitar-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a guitar.

- It is useful to describe something as "guitar-shaped" when it is shaped in the form of a guitar.
- The speaker chose "guitar-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

infected (adjective)

Containing or resulting from disease-causing organisms.

- It is useful to describe something as "infected" when it is containing or resulting from disease-causing organisms.
- The speaker chose "infected" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

large-minded (adjective)

Showing or characterized by broad-mindedness.

- A "large-minded" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "large-minded" when it is showing or characterized by broad-mindedness.

---

lesser (adjective)

Of less size or importance.

- The lesser anteater.
- The lesser of two evils.

---

manufactured (adjective)

Produced in a large-scale industrial operation.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "manufactured."
- A "manufactured" approach may work better in this case.

---

nerve gas (noun)

A toxic gas that is inhaled or absorbed through the skin and has harmful effects on the nervous and respiratory system.

- The article explained what "nerve gas" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nerve gas" to mean a toxic gas that is inhaled or absorbed through the....

---

one hundred fifty-five (adjective)

Being five more than one hundred fifty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one hundred fifty-five."
- A "one hundred fifty-five" approach may work better in this case.

---

open-minded (adjective)

Ready to entertain new ideas.

- An open-minded curiosity.
- Open-minded impartiality.

---

oxford grey (noun)

A very dark grey color.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oxford grey."
- They discussed "oxford grey" during the group presentation.

---

oxford-grey (adjective)

Of a dark shade of grey.

- Would you call this situation "oxford-grey"? Explain why.
- A "oxford-grey" approach may work better in this case.

---

precise (adjective)

(of ideas, images, representations, expressions) characterized by perfect conformity to fact or truth ; strictly correct.

- A precise image.
- A precise measurement.

---

privilege of the floor (noun)

The right to be admitted onto the floor of a legislative assembly while it is in session.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "privilege of the floor."
- He looked up "privilege of the floor" because he had never seen it before.

---

protective (adjective)

Intended or adapted to afford protection of some kind.

- A protective covering.
- The use of protective masks and equipment.

---

self acceptance (noun)

An acceptance of yourself as you are, warts and all.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self acceptance."
- They discussed "self acceptance" during the group presentation.

---

self-imposed (adjective)

Voluntarily assumed or endured.

- Self-imposed exile.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-imposed" when it is voluntarily assumed or endured.

---

self-satisfaction (noun)

The feeling you have when you are satisfied with yourself.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-satisfaction."
- They discussed "self-satisfaction" during the group presentation.

---

skilled (adjective)

Having or showing or requiring special skill.

- Only the most skilled gymnasts make an Olympic team.
- A skilled surgeon has many years of training and experience.

small-minded (adjective)

Contemptibly narrow in outlook.

- Disgusted with their small-minded pettiness.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "small-minded."

sound reflection (noun)

The repetition of a sound resulting from reflection of the sound waves.

- Understanding "sound reflection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sound reflection" during the group presentation.

sporting chance (noun)

A reasonable probability of success.

- He looked up "sporting chance" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sporting chance."

adjacent (adjective)

Near or close to but not necessarily touching.

- Lands adjacent to the mountains.
- New York and adjacent cities.

around the bend (adjective)

Informal or slang terms for mentally irregular.

- The speaker chose "around the bend" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "around the bend"? Explain why.

artistic style (noun)

The style of a particular artist or school or movement.

- Understanding "artistic style" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "artistic style" to mean the style of a particular artist or school or movement.

authorized (adjective)

Sanctioned by established authority.

- The authorized biography.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "authorized."

bare-ass (adjective)

(used informally) completely unclothed.

- Would you call this situation "bare-ass"? Explain why.
- A "bare-ass" approach may work better in this case.

breast-fed (adjective)

(of an infant) fed milk from the mother's breast.

- A "breast-fed" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "breast-fed."

close-minded (adjective)

Not ready to receive to new ideas.

- Students compared "close-minded" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "close-minded"? Explain why.

complaining (adjective)

Expressing pain or dissatisfaction of resentment.

- A complaining boss.
- A "complaining" approach may work better in this case.

cruel (adjective)

(of persons or their actions) able or disposed to inflict pain or suffering.

- Cruel tortures.
- A "cruel" approach may work better in this case.

---

egg-shaped (adjective)

Rounded like an egg.

- The speaker chose "egg-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "egg-shaped" when it is rounded like an egg.

---

excessive (adjective)

Unrestrained, especially with regard to feelings.

- Excessive charges.
- The speaker chose "excessive" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

forty-nine (adjective)

Being nine more than forty.

- The speaker chose "forty-nine" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "forty-nine" approach may work better in this case.

---

half-intensity (noun)

Half the maximum intensity.

- The article explained what "half-intensity" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "half-intensity" during the group presentation.

---

horror-struck (adjective)

Stricken with horror.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "horror-struck."
- Would you call this situation "horror-struck"? Explain why.

---

intensity level (noun)

The amount of energy transmitted (as by acoustic or electromagnetic radiation).

- He adjusted the intensity of the sound.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intensity level."

---

light-minded (adjective)

Showing inappropriate levity.

- It is useful to describe something as "light-minded" when it is showing inappropriate levity.
- The speaker chose "light-minded" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

linear (adjective)

Of or in or along or relating to a line; involving a single dimension.

- A linear measurement.
- Linear amplifier.

---

multi-ethnic (adjective)

Involving several ethnic groups.

- A "multi-ethnic" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "multi-ethnic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

occasional (adjective)

Recurring or reappearing from time to time.

- Took an occasional glass of wine.
- Occasional headaches.

---

oriented (adjective)

Adjusted or located in relation to surroundings or circumstances; sometimes used in combination.

- The house had its large windows oriented toward the ocean view.

- Helping freshmen become oriented to college life.

---

point-blank (adjective)

Close enough to go straight to the target.

- Point-blank range.
- A point-blank shot.

---

pressed (adjective)

Compacted by ironing.

- Would you call this situation "pressed"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "pressed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

reflected (adjective)

(especially of incident sound or light) bent or sent back.

- Reflected light.
- Reflected heat.

---

sealed (adjective)

Closed or secured with or as if with a seal.

- My lips are sealed.
- The package is still sealed.

---

self-torture (noun)

Self-imposed distress.

- In class, the teacher used "self-torture" to mean self-imposed distress.
- Understanding "self-torture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

skip distance (noun)

The shortest distance that permits radio signals (of a given frequency) to travel from the transmitter to the receiver by reflection from the ionosphere.

- In class, the teacher used "skip distance" to mean the shortest distance that permits radio signals....
- The article explained what "skip distance" means with a simple example.

---

smooth-spoken (adjective)

Expressing yourself readily, clearly, effectively.

- A "smooth-spoken" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "smooth-spoken"? Explain why.

---

soap-rock (noun)

A soft heavy compact variety of talc having a soapy feel; used to make hearths and tabletops and ornaments.

- They discussed "soap-rock" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "soap-rock" because he had never seen it before.

---

strongest (adjective)

Of good quality and condition; solidly built.

- A "strongest" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "strongest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

toilet-trained (adjective)

(of children) trained to use the toilet.

- A "toilet-trained" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "toilet-trained" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

tongue-tied (adjective)

Unable to express yourself clearly or fluently.

- Felt tongue-tied with embarrassment.
- The speaker chose "tongue-tied" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

triple-crown (adjective)

Of a horse that has won the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont Stakes and the Preakness races.

- It is useful to describe something as “triple-crown” when it is of a horse that has won the kentucky derby and the....
- The speaker chose “triple-crown” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

unfortunate (adjective)

Not favored by fortune; marked or accompanied by or resulting in ill fortune.

- An unfortunate turn of events.
- An unfortunate decision.

---

wide-ranging (adjective)

Including much.

- The pianist’s wide-ranging repertoire.
- It is useful to describe something as “wide-ranging” when it is including much.

---

wooden-headed (adjective)

(used informally) stupid.

- Students compared “wooden-headed” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “wooden-headed.”

---

adjusted (adjective)

Altered to accommodate to certain requirements or bring into a proper relation.

- An adjusted insurance claim.
- The car runs more smoothly with the timing adjusted.

---

alcohol-dependent (adjective)

Addicted to alcohol; - Carl Van Doren.

- It is useful to describe something as “alcohol-dependent” when it is addicted to alcohol; - carl van doren.
- The speaker chose “alcohol-dependent” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

alternate (adjective)

Of leaves and branches etc; first on one side and then on the other in two ranks along an axis; not paired.

- Stems with alternate leaves.
- It is useful to describe something as “alternate” when it is of leaves and branches etc; first on one side and....

---

audio frequency (noun)

An audible acoustic wave frequency.

- He looked up “audio frequency” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “audio frequency.”

---

cared (verb)

Prefer or wish to do something.

- Can you use “cared” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “cared” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cared-for (adjective)

Having needed care and attention.

- Well-cared-for children.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “cared-for.”

---

competitors (noun)

The contestant you hope to defeat.

- The article explained what “competitors” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “competitors” to mean the contestant you hope to defeat.

---

cooked (adjective)

Having been prepared for eating by the application of heat.

- A “cooked” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “cooked.”

---

drum-like (adjective)

Shaped in a form resembling a drum.

- It is useful to describe something as “drum-like” when it is shaped in a form resembling a drum.
- The speaker chose “drum-like” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

energy-releasing (adjective)

(of a nuclear reaction) occurring with evolution or releasing of energy.

- A “energy-releasing” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “energy-releasing.”

---

entertaining (adjective)

Agreeably diverting.

- An entertaining puppet show.
- Films should be entertaining.

---

eternal (adjective)

Continuing forever or indefinitely.

- Eternal truths.
- The wait seemed eternal.

---

field intensity (noun)

The vector sum of all the forces exerted by an electrical or magnetic field (on a unit mass or unit charge or unit magnetic pole) at a given point in the field.

- They discussed “field intensity” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “field intensity” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flesh-eating (adjective)

(of animals) carnivorous.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “flesh-eating.”
- The speaker chose “flesh-eating” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

forty-fourth (adjective)

The ordinal number of forty-four in counting order.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “forty-fourth.”
- Students compared “forty-fourth” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

humble (adjective)

Of low birth or station (‘base’ is archaic in this sense).

- Of humble (or lowly) birth.
- A humble cottage.

---

hundred-and-thirty-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of one hundred thirty-five in counting order.

- A “hundred-and-thirty-fifth” approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as “hundred-and-thirty-fifth” when it is the ordinal number of one hundred thirty-five in....

---

in one’s birthday suit (adjective)

As naked as at birth.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “in one’s birthday suit.”
- Students compared “in one’s birthday suit” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lasting (adjective)

Continuing or enduring without marked change in status or condition or place.

- Students compared “lasting” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation “lasting”? Explain why.

light intensity (noun)

Luminous intensity measured in candelas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light intensity."
- The article explained what "light intensity" means with a simple example.

low-beam (adjective)

Used of headlights.

- Following with low-beam headlights.
- Would you call this situation "low-beam"? Explain why.

medium-sized (adjective)

Intermediate in size.

- A "medium-sized" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "medium-sized."

mild (adjective)

Moderate in type or degree or effect or force; far from extreme.

- A mild winter storm.
- A mild fever.

minimal (adjective)

The least possible.

- Needed to enforce minimal standards.
- Her grades were minimal.

orange-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of an orange.

- It is useful to describe something as "orange-sized" when it is having the approximate size of an orange.
- The speaker chose "orange-sized" because it captured the feeling precisely.

oxford gray (noun)

A very dark grey color.

- The article explained what "oxford gray" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "oxford gray" during the group presentation.

oxford-gray (adjective)

Of a dark shade of grey.

- Students compared "oxford-gray" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "oxford-gray."

pathetic (adjective)

Inspiring scornful pity; - Dashiell Hammett.

- The shabby room struck her as extraordinarily pathetic.
- Their efforts were pathetic.

pink-purple (adjective)

Of purple tinged with pink.

- The speaker chose "pink-purple" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "pink-purple"? Explain why.

promising (adjective)

Showing possibility of achievement or excellence.

- A promising young man.
- The scandal threatened an abrupt end to a promising political career.

respected (adjective)

Receiving deferential regard.

- A respected family.
- A "respected" approach may work better in this case.

---

selfish (adjective)

Concerned chiefly or only with yourself and your advantage to the exclusion of others; - Maria Weston Chapman.

- Selfish men were...trying to make capital for themselves out of the sacred cause of civil rights.
- It is useful to describe something as "selfish" when it is concerned chiefly or only with yourself and your....

---

spell-bound (adjective)

Having your attention fixated as though by a spell.

- The speaker chose "spell-bound" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "spell-bound" approach may work better in this case.

---

strong-minded (adjective)

Marked by vigorous independence of thought and judgment.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "strong-minded."
- A "strong-minded" approach may work better in this case.

---

widely distributed (adjective)

Growing or occurring in many parts of the world.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "widely distributed."
- Students compared "widely distributed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

advantages (noun)

The quality of having a superior or more favorable position.

- He looked up "advantages" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "advantages" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

assisted (adjective)

Having help; often used as a combining form.

- It is useful to describe something as "assisted" when it is having help; often used as a combining form.
- The speaker chose "assisted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

belly-up (adjective)

Financially ruined.

- The company went belly-up.
- It is useful to describe something as "belly-up" when it is financially ruined.

---

belt-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a belt.

- A "belt-shaped" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "belt-shaped"? Explain why.

---

brutal (adjective)

Resembling a beast; showing lack of human sensibility.

- Brutal beatings.
- The brutal summer sun.

---

buddy-buddy (adjective)

(used informally) associated on close terms.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "buddy-buddy."
- The speaker chose "buddy-buddy" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

calculated (adjective)

Carefully thought out in advance.

- A calculated insult.

- Students compared "calculated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

dual-lane (adjective)

Having a median strip or island between lanes of traffic moving in opposite directions.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dual-lane."
- Students compared "dual-lane" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ear-shaped (adjective)

Having a shape resembling an ear.

- Would you call this situation "ear-shaped"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ear-shaped."

---

fatal (adjective)

Controlled or decreed by fate; predetermined.

- A fatal series of events.
- The fatal day of the election finally arrived.

---

forty-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of forty-five in counting order.

- Students compared "forty-fifth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "forty-fifth."

---

hard-pressed (adjective)

Facing or experiencing financial trouble or difficulty.

- Financially hard-pressed Mexican hotels are lowering their prices.
- It is useful to describe something as "hard-pressed" when it is facing or experiencing financial trouble or difficulty.

---

honored (adjective)

Having an illustrious reputation; respected.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "honored."
- Would you call this situation "honored"? Explain why.

---

hunger (noun)

Strong desire for something (not food or drink).

- Hunger for affection.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hunger."

---

husband-wife privilege (noun)

Neither spouse can divulge confidential communications from the other while they were married.

- He looked up "husband-wife privilege" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "husband-wife privilege" to mean neither spouse can divulge confidential....

---

innovative (adjective)

Being or producing something like nothing done or experienced or created before.

- Stylistically innovative works.
- Innovative members of the artistic community.

---

lifted (adjective)

Held up in the air.

- Would you call this situation "lifted"? Explain why.
- A "lifted" approach may work better in this case.

---

long-lasting (adjective)

Existing for a long time.

- A long-lasting friendship.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "long-lasting."

---

machine-accessible (adjective)

Stored in, controlled by, or in direct communication with a central computer.

- Would you call this situation "machine-accessible"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "machine-accessible" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

matching (adjective)

Intentionally matched.

- The speaker chose "matching" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "matching"? Explain why.

---

metal-colored (adjective)

Having a metallic color.

- It is useful to describe something as "metal-colored" when it is having a metallic color.
- Would you call this situation "metal-colored"? Explain why.

---

nerve agent (noun)

A toxic gas that is inhaled or absorbed through the skin and has harmful effects on the nervous and respiratory system.

- They discussed "nerve agent" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "nerve agent" to mean a toxic gas that is inhaled or absorbed through the....

---

of import (adjective)

Of great significance or value.

- Important people.
- The important questions of the day.

---

pine (verb)

Have a desire for something or someone who is not present.

- She tried to use "pine" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "pine" when talking about this idea.

---

proud flesh (noun)

The swollen tissue around a healing wound or ulcer.

- In class, the teacher used "proud flesh" to mean the swollen tissue around a healing wound or ulcer.
- The article explained what "proud flesh" means with a simple example.

---

relative density (noun)

The ratio of the density of something to the density of a standard.

- He looked up "relative density" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "relative density."

---

resolved (adjective)

Explained or answered.

- Mysteries solved and unsolved; problems resolved and unresolved.
- Students compared "resolved" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rose-colored (adjective)

Reflecting optimism.

- Looked at the world through rose-colored glasses.
- It is useful to describe something as "rose-colored" when it is reflecting optimism.

---

self-consciousness (noun)

Embarrassment deriving from the feeling that others are critically aware of you.

- He looked up "self-consciousness" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "self-consciousness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

serious-minded (adjective)

Acting with or showing thought and good sense.

- Would you call this situation "serious-minded"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "serious-minded" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

shocking (adjective)

Glaringly vivid and graphic; marked by sensationalism.

- The most shocking book of its time.
- Would you call this situation "shocking"? Explain why.

---

silver-colored (adjective)

Having the color of polished silver.

- Students compared "silver-colored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "silver-colored."

---

simple-minded (adjective)

Lacking subtlety and insight.

- A simple-minded argument.
- It is useful to describe something as "simple-minded" when it is lacking subtlety and insight.

---

time-honored (adjective)

Acceptable for a long time.

- Time-honored customs.
- Time-honored institutions.

---

titled (adjective)

Belonging to the peerage.

- The titled classes.
- Students compared "titled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

twenty-seventh (adjective)

Coming next after the twenty-sixth in position.

- A "twenty-seventh" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "twenty-seventh" when it is coming next after the twenty-sixth in position.

---

unlimited (adjective)

Having no limits in range or scope; - Philip Rahv.

- To start with a theory of unlimited freedom is to end up with unlimited despotism.
- A "unlimited" approach may work better in this case.

---

washed (adjective)

Wet as from washing; sometimes used in combination.

- Rain-washed.
- It is useful to describe something as "washed" when it is wet as from washing; sometimes used in combination.

---

washed-out (adjective)

Having lost freshness or brilliance of color.

- A very pale washed-out blue.
- Felt completely washed-out.

---

washed-up (adjective)

Doomed to extinction.

- Students compared "washed-up" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "washed-up."

---

well-adjusted (adjective)

Free from psychological disorder.

- A well-adjusted personality.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-adjusted."

anxious (adjective)

Causing or fraught with or showing anxiety.

- Spent an anxious night waiting for the test results.
- Cast anxious glances behind her.

athletic type (noun)

Muscular and big-boned.

- Understanding "athletic type" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "athletic type" means with a simple example.

cold sweat (noun)

The physical condition of concurrent perspiration and chill; associated with fear.

- Understanding "cold sweat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cold sweat" means with a simple example.

delighted (adjective)

Filled with wonder and delight.

- Would you call this situation "delighted"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "delighted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

drill-like (adjective)

Resembling a drill.

- A "drill-like" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "drill-like" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

earliest (adjective)

(comparative and superlative of 'early') more early than; most early.

- Verdi's earliest and most raucous opera.
- A "earliest" approach may work better in this case.

edges (noun)

The attribute of urgency in tone of voice.

- He rounded the edges of the box.
- He looked up "edges" because he had never seen it before.

fair-minded (adjective)

Of a person; just and impartial; not prejudiced.

- Would you call this situation "fair-minded"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "fair-minded" because it captured the feeling precisely.

heated (adjective)

Made warm or hot ('het' is a dialectal variant of 'heated').

- A heated swimming pool.
- Wiped his heated-up face with a large bandana.

heated up (adjective)

Made warm or hot ('het' is a dialectal variant of 'heated').

- A heated swimming pool.
- Wiped his heated-up face with a large bandana.

high-and-mighty (adjective)

Offensively self-assured or given to exercising usually unwarranted power.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "high-and-mighty."
- Would you call this situation "high-and-mighty"? Explain why.

indoor (adjective)

Located, suited for, or taking place within a building.

- Indoor activities for a rainy day.
- An indoor pool.

---

influential (adjective)

Having or exercising influence or power.

- An influential newspaper.
- Influential leadership for peace.

---

invisible (adjective)

Impossible or nearly impossible to see; imperceptible by the eye.

- The invisible man.
- Invisible rays.

---

margin of error (noun)

The margin required in order to insure safety.

- In engineering the margin of safety is the strength of the material minus the anticipated stress.
- They discussed "margin of error" during the group presentation.

---

olive (noun)

A yellow-green color of low brightness and saturation.

- The article explained what "olive" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "olive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

olive-like (adjective)

Resembling an olive.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "olive-like."
- A "olive-like" approach may work better in this case.

---

passionate (adjective)

Having or expressing strong emotions.

- A "passionate" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "passionate."

---

recommendation (noun)

Any quality or characteristic that gains a person a favorable reception or acceptance or admission.

- Her pleasant personality is already a recommendation.
- They discussed "recommendation" during the group presentation.

---

round the bend (adjective)

Informal or slang terms for mentally irregular.

- Would you call this situation "round the bend"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "round the bend."

---

safer (adjective)

Having reached a base without being put out.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "safer."
- A "safer" approach may work better in this case.

---

self-governing (adjective)

(of political bodies) not controlled by outside forces.

- It is useful to describe something as "self-governing" when it is (of political bodies) not controlled by outside forces.
- The speaker chose "self-governing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

setup (noun)

The way something is organized or arranged.

- It takes time to learn the setup around here.

- The article explained what "setup" means with a simple example.

---

suspicious (adjective)

Openly distrustful and unwilling to confide.

- Suspicious behavior.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "suspicious."

---

treatments (noun)

A manner of dealing with something artistically.

- The article explained what "treatments" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "treatments" during the group presentation.

---

turkey-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of a turkey.

- Students compared "turkey-sized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "turkey-sized"? Explain why.

---

wont to (adjective)

In the habit; ; ; - Henry David Thoreau.

- ...was wont to complain that this is a cold world.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wont to."

---

acknowledged (adjective)

Recognized or made known or admitted.

- The acknowledged leader of the community.
- A woman of acknowledged accomplishments.

---

agrees (verb)

Achieve harmony of opinion, feeling, or purpose.

- Can you use "agrees" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "agrees" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

anticipated (adjective)

Expected hopefully.

- It is useful to describe something as "anticipated" when it is expected hopefully.
- A "anticipated" approach may work better in this case.

---

beneficial (adjective)

Promoting or enhancing well-being.

- An arms limitation agreement beneficial to all countries.
- The beneficial effects of a temperate climate.

---

breeding (noun)

The result of good upbringing (especially knowledge of correct social behavior).

- A woman of breeding and refinement.
- He looked up "breeding" because he had never seen it before.

---

close-fitting (adjective)

Fitting closely but comfortably.

- Students compared "close-fitting" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "close-fitting" approach may work better in this case.

---

closed-minded (adjective)

Not ready to receive to new ideas.

- Would you call this situation "closed-minded"? Explain why.
- Students compared "closed-minded" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

comparable (adjective)

Able to be compared or worthy of comparison.

- Would you call this situation "comparable"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "comparable."

---

comparable to (adjective)

Worthy of comparison; as good as.

- At that moment nothing in the world seemed comparable to sleep.
- The speaker chose "comparable to" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

comparable with (adjective)

Similar in some respect and so able to be compared in order to show differences and similarities.

- Pianists of comparable ability.
- Cars comparable with each other in terms of fuel consumption.

---

contributing (adjective)

Tending to bring about; being partly responsible for.

- The seaport was a contributing factor in the growth of the city.
- Would you call this situation "contributing"? Explain why.

---

diameter (noun)

The length of a straight line passing through the center of a circle and connecting two points on the circumference.

- The article explained what "diameter" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "diameter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

enhanced (adjective)

Increased or intensified in value or beauty or quality.

- Her enhanced beauty was the result of a good night's sleep rather than makeup.
- Careful cleaning was responsible for the enhanced value of the painting.

---

exhausted (adjective)

Drained of energy or effectiveness; extremely tired; completely exhausted.

- The day's shopping left her exhausted.
- The day's events left her completely exhausted–her strength drained.

---

fabulous (adjective)

Based on or told of in traditional stories; lacking factual basis or historical validity.

- The fabulous unicorn.
- A fabulous vacation.

---

flash-frozen (adjective)

(used of foods) preserved by freezing sufficiently rapidly to retain flavor and nutritional value.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flash-frozen."
- Would you call this situation "flash-frozen"? Explain why.

---

frustrated (adjective)

Disappointingly unsuccessful.

- Many frustrated poets end as pipe-smoking teachers.
- It is useful to describe something as "frustrated" when it is disappointingly unsuccessful.

---

glorious (adjective)

Having or deserving or conferring glory.

- A long and glorious career.
- Our glorious literature.

---

hook-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a hook.

- The speaker chose "hook-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hook-shaped."

---

lacking (adjective)

Inadequate in amount or degree.

- Lacking in stamina.
- Her appetite was lacking.

---

laughs (noun)

A facial expression characteristic of a person laughing.

- Understanding "laughs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "laughs" because he had never seen it before.

---

lined (adjective)

Having a lining or a liner; often used in combination.

- A lined skirt.
- A silk-lined jacket.

---

lung-power (noun)

The ability to speak loudly.

- Understanding "lung-power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lung-power" to mean the ability to speak loudly.

---

merit (noun)

The quality of being deserving (e.g., deserving assistance).

- Work of great merit.
- They discussed "merit" during the group presentation.

---

micro (adjective)

Extremely small in scale or scope or capability.

- Students compared "micro" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "micro."

---

obsessed (adjective)

Having or showing excessive or compulsive concern with something.

- Was absolutely obsessed with the girl.
- Students compared "obsessed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

one hundred forty (adjective)

Being ten more than one hundred thirty.

- Students compared "one hundred forty" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "one hundred forty" approach may work better in this case.

---

oral personality (noun)

(psychoanalysis) a personality characterized either by generous optimism or aggressive and ambitious selfishness; formed in early childhood by fixation during the oral stage of development.

- He looked up "oral personality" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "oral personality" to mean (psychoanalysis) a personality characterized either....

---

organised (adjective)

Being a member of or formed into a labor union.

- Would you call this situation "organised"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "organised."

---

overwhelming (adjective)

So strong as to be irresistible.

- The temptation to despair may become overwhelming.
- An overwhelming majority.

penalties (noun)

The disadvantage or painful consequences of an action or condition.

- They discussed "penalties" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "penalties" means with a simple example.

poison (noun)

Anything that harms or destroys.

- The poison of fascism.
- He looked up "poison" because he had never seen it before.

power hunger (noun)

A drive to acquire power.

- Understanding "power hunger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "power hunger" means with a simple example.

power-assisted (adjective)

Supplementing or replacing manual effort.

- Power-assisted steering.
- Would you call this situation "power-assisted"? Explain why.

raped (adjective)

Having been robbed and destroyed by force and violence.

- The raped countryside.
- Would you call this situation "raped"? Explain why.

ready-cooked (adjective)

Cooked in such a way as to be ready for sale.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ready-cooked."
- The speaker chose "ready-cooked" because it captured the feeling precisely.

realised (adjective)

Successfully completed or brought to an end.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "realised."
- Would you call this situation "realised"? Explain why.

rebel (noun)

A person who takes part in an armed rebellion against the constituted authority (especially in the hope of improving conditions).

- In class, the teacher used "rebel" to mean a person who takes part in an armed rebellion....
- He looked up "rebel" because he had never seen it before.

solid-colored (adjective)

Having the same color all over.

- Would you call this situation "solid-colored"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "solid-colored" because it captured the feeling precisely.

solved (adjective)

Explained or answered.

- Mysteries solved and unsolved; problems resolved and unresolved.
- A "solved" approach may work better in this case.

starring (adjective)

Indicating the most important performer or role.

- The starring role.
- Students compared "starring" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

subtle (adjective)

Difficult to detect or grasp by the mind or analyze.

- His whole attitude had undergone a subtle change.
- A subtle difference.

---

sword-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a sword blade.

- The speaker chose "sword-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "sword-shaped"? Explain why.

---

thirty-sixth (adjective)

The ordinal number of thirty-six in counting order.

- The speaker chose "thirty-sixth" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "thirty-sixth" when it is the ordinal number of thirty-six in counting order.

---

tongue-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a tongue.

- It is useful to describe something as "tongue-shaped" when it is shaped like a tongue.
- Students compared "tongue-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

torn (adjective)

Disrupted by the pull of contrary forces.

- Torn between love and hate.
- Torn by conflicting loyalties.

---

transformed (adjective)

Given a completely different form or appearance.

- Shocked to see the transformed landscape.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "transformed."

---

two-fold (adjective)

Having more than one decidedly dissimilar aspects or qualities; ; - R.W.Emerson; -Frederick Harrison.

- Would you call this situation "two-fold"? Explain why.
- A "two-fold" approach may work better in this case.

---

unbelievable (adjective)

Beyond belief or understanding.

- Would you call this situation "unbelievable"? Explain why.
- A "unbelievable" approach may work better in this case.

---

water-washed (adjective)

Clean by virtue of having been washed in water.

- Students compared "water-washed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "water-washed."

---

well-lined (adjective)

Full of money.

- A well-lined purse.
- The speaker chose "well-lined" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

wide-awake (adjective)

Fully alert and watchful.

- So excited she was wide-awake all night.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wide-awake."

---

wine-colored (noun)

A red as dark as red wine.

- In class, the teacher used "wine-colored" to mean a red as dark as red wine.

- The article explained what "wine-colored" means with a simple example.

---

wood grain (noun)

Texture produced by the fibers in wood.

- In class, the teacher used "wood grain" to mean texture produced by the fibers in wood.
- He looked up "wood grain" because he had never seen it before.

---

affecting (adjective)

Arousing affect.

- The homecoming of the released hostages was an affecting scene.
- A "affecting" approach may work better in this case.

---

animated (adjective)

Made to appear to move as living creatures do.

- An animated cartoon.
- Animated puppets.

---

assured (adjective)

Marked by assurance; exhibiting confidence.

- She paints with an assured hand.
- A tiny but assured income.

---

bullet-headed (adjective)

Having a small round head.

- It is useful to describe something as "bullet-headed" when it is having a small round head.
- The speaker chose "bullet-headed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

charming (adjective)

Possessing or using or characteristic of or appropriate to supernatural powers; ; ; ; - Shakespeare.

- Charming incantations.
- Endowed with charming manners.

---

express emotion (verb)

Give verbal or other expression to one's feelings.

- Can you use "express emotion" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "express emotion" and when to wait.

---

heat barrier (noun)

A limit to high speed flight imposed by aerodynamic heating.

- They discussed "heat barrier" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "heat barrier" to mean a limit to high speed flight imposed by aerodynamic....

---

horizon (noun)

The range of interest or activity that can be anticipated.

- It is beyond the horizon of present knowledge.
- The article explained what "horizon" means with a simple example.

---

in the altogether (adjective)

(used informally) completely unclothed.

- The speaker chose "in the altogether" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "in the altogether" when it is (used informally) completely unclothed.

---

la-di-da (adjective)

Affectedly genteel.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "la-di-da."
- The speaker chose "la-di-da" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

mental strain (noun)

(psychology) nervousness resulting from mental stress.

- His responsibilities were a constant strain.
- The mental strain of staying alert hour after hour was too much for him.

---

miserable (adjective)

Of the most contemptible kind.

- His miserable treatment of his family.
- You miserable skunk!

---

momentum (noun)

The product of a body's mass and its velocity.

- The momentum of the particles was deduced from meteoritic velocities.
- The car's momentum carried it off the road.

---

nationwide (adjective)

Occurring or extending throughout a country or nation.

- The event aroused nationwide interest.
- It is useful to describe something as "nationwide" when it is occurring or extending throughout a country or nation.

---

petty (adjective)

(informal) small and of little importance.

- Limited to petty enterprises.
- Petty officialdom.

---

preserved (adjective)

Kept intact or in a particular condition.

- Students compared "preserved" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "preserved" approach may work better in this case.

---

quantity (noun)

An adequate or large amount.

- He had a quantity of ammunition.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quantity."

---

rebels (noun)

A person who takes part in an armed rebellion against the constituted authority (especially in the hope of improving conditions).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rebels."
- The article explained what "rebels" means with a simple example.

---

recognised (adjective)

Generally approved or compelling recognition.

- The speaker chose "recognised" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "recognised" when it is generally approved or compelling recognition.

---

responding (verb)

Respond favorably or as hoped.

- Can you use "responding" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "responding" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

retained (adjective)

Continued in your keeping or use or memory.

- In...the retained pattern of dancers and guests remembered.
- Students compared "retained" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rises (noun)

The amount a salary is increased.

- He looked up "rises" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rises."

---

scare (noun)

Sudden mass fear and anxiety over anticipated events.

- A war scare.
- A bomb scare led them to evacuate the building.

---

self-loading (adjective)

(of firearms) capable of automatic loading and firing continuously.

- A "self-loading" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "self-loading" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

specialized (adjective)

Developed or designed for a special activity or function.

- A specialized tool.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "specialized."

---

sunny (adjective)

Bright and pleasant; promoting a feeling of cheer.

- A gay sunny room.
- A sunny smile.

---

three-fold (adjective)

Having more than one decidedly dissimilar aspects or qualities; ; - R.W.Emerson; -Frederick Harrison.

- It is useful to describe something as "three-fold" when it is having more than one decidedly dissimilar aspects....
- Students compared "three-fold" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

tops (adjective)

Of the highest quality.

- She is absolutely tops.
- Students compared "tops" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

tremendous (adjective)

Extreme in degree or extent or amount or impact.

- Tremendous sweeping plains.
- A tremendous fact in human experience; that a whole civilization should be dependent on technology.

---

tube-shaped (adjective)

Constituting a tube; having hollow tubes (as for the passage of fluids).

- Would you call this situation "tube-shaped"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tube-shaped."

---

twenty-eighth (adjective)

Coming next after the twenty-seventh in position.

- A "twenty-eighth" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "twenty-eighth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

valued (adjective)

(usually used in combination) having value of a specified kind.

- Triple-valued.
- A valued friend.

---

world-shaking (adjective)

Sufficiently significant to affect the whole world.

- The contest was no world-shaking affair.
- It is useful to describe something as "world-shaking" when it is sufficiently significant to affect the whole world.

wounds (noun)

A figurative injury (to your feelings or pride); ; ; –Robert Frost.

- In class, the teacher used "wounds" to mean a figurative injury (to your feelings or pride); ;....
- He looked up "wounds" because he had never seen it before.

yellow-spotted (adjective)

Having yellow spots.

- Would you call this situation "yellow-spotted"? Explain why.
- Students compared "yellow-spotted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

adorable (adjective)

Lovable especially in a childlike or naive way.

- Students compared "adorable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "adorable" approach may work better in this case.

ashamed (adjective)

Feeling shame or guilt or embarrassment or remorse.

- Are you ashamed for having lied?
- Felt ashamed of my torn coat.

cheer (noun)

The quality of being cheerful and dispelling gloom.

- Flowers added a note of cheerfulness to the drab room.
- The article explained what "cheer" means with a simple example.

completing (adjective)

Acting as or providing a complement (something that completes the whole).

- It is useful to describe something as "completing" when it is acting as or providing a complement (something that....
- The speaker chose "completing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

death toll (noun)

The number of deaths resulting from some particular cause such as an accident or a battle or a natural disaster.

- The article explained what "death toll" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "death toll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

detected (adjective)

Perceived or discerned.

- The detected micrometeoritic material.
- It is useful to describe something as "detected" when it is perceived or discerned.

dutch courage (noun)

Courage resulting from intoxication.

- Understanding "dutch courage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dutch courage" to mean courage resulting from intoxication.

fiber (noun)

The inherent complex of attributes that determines a persons moral and ethical actions and reactions; - Herbert Spencer.

- He looked up "fiber" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fiber."

filmed (adjective)

Recorded on film; made into a movie.

- A filmed documentary.
- The filmed version of the novel.

five-fold (adjective)

Having five units or components.

- Students compared "five-fold" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "five-fold" when it is having five units or components.

---

four-fold (adjective)

Four times as great or many.

- Students compared "four-fold" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "four-fold."

---

fried (adjective)

Cooked by frying in fat.

- It is useful to describe something as "fried" when it is cooked by frying in fat.
- Students compared "fried" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

guided (adjective)

Subject to guidance or control especially after launching.

- A guided missile.
- Would you call this situation "guided"? Explain why.

---

happier (adjective)

Enjoying or showing or marked by joy or pleasure.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "happier."
- Students compared "happier" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

heat-releasing (adjective)

(of a chemical reaction or compound) occurring or formed with the liberation of heat.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "heat-releasing."
- The speaker chose "heat-releasing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

hundred-and-fifty-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of one hundred fifty-five in counting order.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hundred-and-fifty-fifth."
- Students compared "hundred-and-fifty-fifth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

interactive (adjective)

Used especially of drugs or muscles that work together so the total effect is greater than the sum of the two (or more).

- It is useful to describe something as "interactive" when it is used especially of drugs or muscles that work....
- Students compared "interactive" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lighter-than-air (adjective)

Relating to a balloon or other aircraft that flies because it weighs less than the air it displaces.

- It is useful to describe something as "lighter-than-air" when it is relating to a balloon or other aircraft that flies....
- The speaker chose "lighter-than-air" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

load-bearing (adjective)

Capable of bearing a structural load.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "load-bearing."
- A "load-bearing" approach may work better in this case.

---

martial (adjective)

Of or relating to the armed forces.

- Martial law.
- Would you call this situation "martial"? Explain why.

---

molecular weight (noun)

(chemistry) the sum of the relative atomic masses of the constituent atoms of a molecule.

- In class, the teacher used "molecular weight" to mean (chemistry) the sum of the relative atomic masses....

- The article explained what "molecular weight" means with a simple example.

---

monetary value (noun)

The property of having material worth (often indicated by the amount of money something would bring if sold).

- The fluctuating monetary value of gold and silver.
- In class, the teacher used "monetary value" to mean the property of having material worth (often....

---

nervous disorder (noun)

A disorder of the nervous system.

- He looked up "nervous disorder" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nervous disorder."

---

nervous tissue (noun)

Tissue composed of neurons.

- They discussed "nervous tissue" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "nervous tissue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

one hundred forty-five (adjective)

Being five more than one hundred forty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one hundred forty-five."
- The speaker chose "one hundred forty-five" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

pocket-sized (adjective)

Small enough to be carried in a garment pocket.

- Students compared "pocket-sized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "pocket-sized"? Explain why.

---

pronounced (adjective)

Strongly marked; easily noticeable.

- A pronounced flavor of cinnamon.
- A "pronounced" approach may work better in this case.

---

qualities (noun)

A degree or grade of excellence or worth.

- They discussed "qualities" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "qualities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rational (adjective)

Of or associated with or requiring the use of the mind.

- The triumph of the rational over the animal side of man.
- A rational analysis.

---

scare away (verb)

Cause to lose courage.

- She tried to use "scare away" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "scare away" until he saw an example.

---

scare off (verb)

Cause to lose courage.

- In everyday English, people use "scare off" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "scare off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

specified (adjective)

Clearly and explicitly stated.

- Meals are at specified times.
- Students compared "specified" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

steam-powered (adjective)

Powered by a steam engine.

- A steam-powered locomotive.
- The speaker chose "steam-powered" because it captured the feeling precisely.

streak (noun)

A narrow marking of a different color or texture from the background.

- Had a streak of bad luck.
- He has a stubborn streak.

tail-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like the tail of an animal.

- Would you call this situation "tail-shaped"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "tail-shaped" when it is shaped like the tail of an animal.

tolerance (noun)

A disposition to allow freedom of choice and behavior.

- The article explained what "tolerance" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tolerance."

tough-minded (adjective)

Facing facts or difficulties realistically and with determination.

- The speaker chose "tough-minded" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "tough-minded" when it is facing facts or difficulties realistically and with....

traveled (adjective)

Traveled over or through; sometimes used as a combining term.

- The speaker chose "traveled" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "traveled" approach may work better in this case.

two-a-penny (adjective)

Of trifling worth.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "two-a-penny."
- The speaker chose "two-a-penny" because it captured the feeling precisely.

two-toe (adjective)

Having two toes.

- A "two-toe" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "two-toe."

unhappy (adjective)

Experiencing or marked by or causing sadness or sorrow or discontent.

- Unhappy over her departure.
- Unhappy with her raise.

war-torn (adjective)

Laid waste by war.

- Students compared "war-torn" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "war-torn" approach may work better in this case.

well-preserved (adjective)

Used of older persons who are healthy.

- A "well-preserved" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "well-preserved"? Explain why.

adequate (adjective)

Having the requisite qualities or resources to meet a task.

- She had adequate training.
- Her training was adequate.

---

adequate to (adjective)

Having the requisite qualities for.

- The speaker chose "adequate to" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "adequate to" when it is having the requisite qualities for.

---

belonging (noun)

Happiness felt in a secure relationship.

- With his classmates he felt a sense of belonging.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "belonging."

---

booked (adjective)

Reserved in advance.

- Students compared "booked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "booked."

---

cape of good hope province (noun)

A former province of southern South Africa that was settled by the Dutch in 1652 and ceded to Great Britain in 1814; in 1994 it was split into three new provinces of South Africa.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cape of good hope province."
- He looked up "cape of good hope province" because he had never seen it before.

---

chinese restaurant syndrome (noun)

Headache and tingling or burning feelings and sweating caused by eating food that contains monosodium glutamate.

- They discussed "chinese restaurant syndrome" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "chinese restaurant syndrome" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cream-colored (adjective)

Having the color of fresh cream.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cream-colored."
- A "cream-colored" approach may work better in this case.

---

dip (noun)

A sudden sharp decrease in some quantity.

- A dip in prices.
- There was a dip in the road.

---

disturbing (adjective)

Causing distress or worry or anxiety.

- Distressing (or disturbing) news.
- A disturbing amount of crime.

---

effectiveness (noun)

Capacity to produce strong physiological or chemical effects.

- In class, the teacher used "effectiveness" to mean capacity to produce strong physiological or....
- The article explained what "effectiveness" means with a simple example.

---

embarrassed (adjective)

Feeling or caused to feel uneasy and self-conscious.

- Was embarrassed by her child's tantrums.
- Too embarrassed to say hello to his drunken father on the street.

---

evil-minded (adjective)

Having evil thoughts or intentions.

- Students compared "evil-minded" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "evil-minded" when it is having evil thoughts or intentions.

exceptional (adjective)

Surpassing what is common or usual or expected.

- Exceptional kindness.
- An exceptional memory.

fine-tooth (adjective)

Having fine teeth set close together.

- A fine-toothed comb.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fine-tooth."

hatred (noun)

The emotion of intense dislike; a feeling of dislike so strong that it demands action.

- Understanding "hatred" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hatred" during the group presentation.

ignorant (adjective)

Uneducated in general; lacking knowledge or sophistication.

- An ignorant man.
- She is ignorant of quantum mechanics.

ink-black (adjective)

Of the color of black ink.

- It is useful to describe something as "ink-black" when it is of the color of black ink.
- The speaker chose "ink-black" because it captured the feeling precisely.

less-traveled (adjective)

Not visited by many travelers.

- The tourist's desire to visit less-traveled countries.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "less-traveled."

limitations (noun)

The quality of being limited or restricted.

- It is a good plan but it has serious limitations.
- Statute of limitations.

magnetic field strength (noun)

The amount of magnetic flux in a unit area perpendicular to the direction of magnetic flow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic field strength."
- They discussed "magnetic field strength" during the group presentation.

majesty (noun)

Impressiveness in scale or proportion.

- The article explained what "majesty" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "majesty" during the group presentation.

mobility (noun)

The quality of moving freely.

- The article explained what "mobility" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mobility" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

non-conducting (adjective)

Not able to conduct heat or electricity or sound.

- It is useful to describe something as "non-conducting" when it is not able to conduct heat or electricity or sound.
- The speaker chose "non-conducting" because it captured the feeling precisely.

olive green (noun)

A color that is lighter and greener than olive.

- In class, the teacher used "olive green" to mean a color that is lighter and greener than olive.
- The article explained what "olive green" means with a simple example.

---

olive-green (noun)

A color that is lighter and greener than olive.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "olive-green."
- The article explained what "olive-green" means with a simple example.

---

orange-colored (adjective)

Having the color of ripe oranges.

- The speaker chose "orange-colored" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "orange-colored" approach may work better in this case.

---

physical attraction (noun)

A desire for sexual intimacy.

- In class, the teacher used "physical attraction" to mean a desire for sexual intimacy.
- The article explained what "physical attraction" means with a simple example.

---

rabbit on (verb)

Talk in a noisy, excited, or declamatory manner.

- He did not know how to use "rabbit on" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "rabbit on" and when to wait.

---

red scare (noun)

A period of general fear of communists.

- The article explained what "red scare" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "red scare" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ruth (noun)

A feeling of sympathy and sorrow for the misfortunes of others.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ruth."
- Understanding "ruth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shout down (verb)

Silence or overwhelm by shouting.

- In everyday English, people use "shout down" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "shout down" until he saw an example.

---

six-fold (adjective)

Having six units or components.

- Would you call this situation "six-fold"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "six-fold."

---

slim (adjective)

Being of delicate or slender build; - Frank Norris.

- A slim girl with straight blonde hair.
- A slim chance of winning.

---

sophisticated (adjective)

Having or appealing to those having worldly knowledge and refinement and savoir-faire.

- Sophisticated young socialites.
- A sophisticated audience.

---

speeds (noun)

A rate (usually rapid) at which something happens.

- Understanding "speeds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “speeds” because he had never seen it before.

---

spread-eagle (adjective)

With arms and legs stretched out and apart.

- Lay spread-eagle on the floor.
- It is useful to describe something as “spread-eagle” when it is with arms and legs stretched out and apart.

---

sunny-side up (adjective)

(eggs) fried on only one side.

- Students compared “sunny-side up” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “sunny-side up.”

---

supportive (adjective)

Furnishing support or assistance.

- A supportive family network.
- His family was supportive of his attempts to be a writer.

---

youngest (adjective)

(used of living things especially persons) in an early period of life or development or growth.

- It is useful to describe something as “youngest” when it is (used of living things especially persons) in an....
- The speaker chose “youngest” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

authentic (adjective)

Conforming to fact and therefore worthy of belief.

- An authentic account by an eyewitness.
- An authentic signature.

---

blonde (adjective)

Being or having light colored skin and hair and usually blue or grey eyes.

- Students compared “blonde” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “blonde.”

---

bone-lazy (adjective)

Constitutionally lazy or idle.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “bone-lazy.”
- Students compared “bone-lazy” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

comic opera (noun)

Opera with a happy ending and in which some of the text is spoken.

- He looked up “comic opera” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “comic opera.”

---

creepy (adjective)

Causing a sensation as of things crawling on your skin.

- A creepy story.
- I had a creepy-crawly feeling.

---

divorced (adjective)

Of someone whose marriage has been legally dissolved.

- Would you call this situation “divorced”? Explain why.
- The speaker chose “divorced” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

dried (adjective)

Preserved by removing natural moisture.

- Dried beef.
- Dried fruit.

---

dried-out (adjective)

Thoroughly dried out.

- Dried-out boards beginning to split.
- The speaker chose "dried-out" because it captured the feeling precisely.

dried-up (adjective)

(used especially of vegetation) having lost all moisture.

- Dried-up grass.
- A dried-up water hole.

echo (noun)

A close parallel of a feeling, idea, style, etc.

- His contention contains more than an echo of Rousseau.
- Napoleon III was an echo of the mighty Emperor but an infinitely better man.

emotionally (adverb)

In an emotional manner.

- At the funeral he spoke emotionally.
- Emotionally secure.

floors (noun)

The parliamentary right to address an assembly.

- They needed rugs to cover the bare floors.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "floors."

freaking (verb)

Lose one's nerve.

- He did not know how to use "freaking" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "freaking" in a sentence that fits this situation?

freezing point (noun)

The temperature below which a liquid turns into a solid.

- He looked up "freezing point" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "freezing point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

induced (adjective)

Brought about or caused; not spontaneous.

- A case of steroid-induced weakness.
- It is useful to describe something as "induced" when it is brought about or caused; not spontaneous.

inspiring (adjective)

Stimulating or exalting to the spirit.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "inspiring."
- A "inspiring" approach may work better in this case.

joking (adjective)

Characterized by jokes and good humor.

- It is useful to describe something as "joking" when it is characterized by jokes and good humor.
- Students compared "joking" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

magnificent (adjective)

Characterized by grandeur.

- Magnificent cathedrals.
- A "magnificent" approach may work better in this case.

military capability (noun)

Capability in terms of personnel and materiel that affect the capacity to fight a war.

- Politicians have neglected our military posture.
- The article explained what "military capability" means with a simple example.

---

newest (adjective)

Not of long duration; having just (or relatively recently) come into being or been made or acquired or discovered.

- Would you call this situation "newest"? Explain why.
- A "newest" approach may work better in this case.

---

olive brown (noun)

A shade of brown tinged with green.

- They discussed "olive brown" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "olive brown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

olive-brown (adjective)

Of a brown color with a greenish tinge.

- It is useful to describe something as "olive-brown" when it is of a brown color with a greenish tinge.
- Would you call this situation "olive-brown"? Explain why.

---

opposing (adjective)

Characterized by active hostility.

- Opponent (or opposing) armies.
- The speaker chose "opposing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

pale blue (adjective)

Of a light shade of blue.

- Students compared "pale blue" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "pale blue"? Explain why.

---

performance capability (noun)

The capability of a technological system to perform as intended.

- He looked up "performance capability" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "performance capability."

---

placement (noun)

The spatial property of the way in which something is placed.

- The placement of the chairs.
- The agency provided placement services.

---

planted (adjective)

(used especially of ideas or principles) deeply rooted; firmly fixed or held.

- Implanted convictions.
- A deeply planted need.

---

pour cold water on (verb)

Be discouraging or negative about.

- She tried to use "pour cold water on" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "pour cold water on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

renewed (adjective)

Restored to a new condition.

- Felt renewed strength.
- Would you call this situation "renewed"? Explain why.

---

screw-loose (adjective)

Not behaving normally.

- A "screw-loose" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "screw-loose."

self-assured (adjective)

Showing poise and confidence in your own worth.

- It is useful to describe something as "self-assured" when it is showing poise and confidence in your own worth.
- Would you call this situation "self-assured"? Explain why.

seven-fold (adjective)

Having seven units or components.

- The speaker chose "seven-fold" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "seven-fold" when it is having seven units or components.

shallow (adjective)

Not deep or strong; not affecting one deeply.

- Shallow breathing.
- A night of shallow fretful sleep.

shield-shaped (adjective)

(of a leaf shape) round, with the stem attached near the center of the lower surface rather than the margin (as a nasturtium leaf for example).

- A "shield-shaped" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "shield-shaped"? Explain why.

spite (noun)

Malevolence by virtue of being malicious or spiteful or nasty.

- The article explained what "spite" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spite" to mean malevolence by virtue of being malicious or....

stick-in-the-mud (adjective)

(used pejoratively) out of fashion; old fashioned.

- The speaker chose "stick-in-the-mud" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "stick-in-the-mud" when it is (used pejoratively) out of fashion; old fashioned.

ten-fold (adjective)

Containing ten or ten parts.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ten-fold."
- Students compared "ten-fold" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

burnt (adjective)

Treated by heating to a high temperature but below the melting or fusing point.

- Burnt sienna.
- She served us underdone bacon and burnt biscuits.

burnt-out (adjective)

Exhausted as a result of longtime stress.

- Barricaded the street with burnt-out cars.
- Would you call this situation "burnt-out"? Explain why.

combat ceiling (noun)

Altitude above which a plane cannot climb faster than a given rate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "combat ceiling."
- He looked up "combat ceiling" because he had never seen it before.

crushed (adjective)

Subdued or brought low in condition or status.

- Crushed velvet.
- It is useful to describe something as "crushed" when it is subdued or brought low in condition or status.

dimensional (adjective)

Having dimension–the quality or character or stature proper to a person; - Norman Cousins.

- Never matures as a dimensional character; he is pasty, bland, faceless.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dimensional."

---

eight-fold (adjective)

Having eight units or components.

- A "eight-fold" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "eight-fold" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

elevated (adjective)

Of high moral or intellectual value; elevated in nature or style; ; - Oliver Franks.

- An elevated platform.
- Would you call this situation "elevated"? Explain why.

---

fork-like (adjective)

Resembling a fork; divided or separated into two branches.

- It is useful to describe something as "fork-like" when it is resembling a fork; divided or separated into two....
- Would you call this situation "fork-like"? Explain why.

---

green lead ore (noun)

A mineral consisting of lead chloride and phosphate; a minor source of lead.

- They discussed "green lead ore" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "green lead ore" means with a simple example.

---

guilt feelings (noun)

Remorse caused by feeling responsible for some offense.

- He looked up "guilt feelings" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "guilt feelings" during the group presentation.

---

heart rhythm (noun)

The rhythm of a beating heart.

- Understanding "heart rhythm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "heart rhythm" during the group presentation.

---

honest-to-goodness (adjective)

(used informally especially for emphasis).

- Students compared "honest-to-goodness" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "honest-to-goodness."

---

hype up (verb)

Get excited or stimulated.

- In everyday English, people use "hype up" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "hype up" in real sentences.

---

mineral (adjective)

Composed of matter other than plant or animal.

- The inorganic mineral world.
- It is useful to describe something as "mineral" when it is composed of matter other than plant or animal.

---

modest (adjective)

Marked by simplicity; having a humble opinion of yourself.

- A modest apartment.
- Too modest to wear his medals.

---

multi-colored (adjective)

Having sections or patches colored differently and usually brightly.

- It is useful to describe something as "multi-colored" when it is having sections or patches colored differently and....

- The speaker chose "multi-colored" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

narrow margin (noun)

A small margin.

- The president was not humbled by his narrow margin of victory.
- The landslide he had in the electoral college obscured the narrowness of a victory based on just 43% of the popular vote.

---

of the essence (adjective)

Of the greatest importance.

- The all-important subject of disarmament.
- In chess cool nerves are of the essence.

---

one hundred fifteen (adjective)

Being five more than one hundred ten.

- The speaker chose "one hundred fifteen" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "one hundred fifteen" when it is being five more than one hundred ten.

---

one-dimensional (adjective)

Of or in or along or relating to a line; involving a single dimension.

- A novel with one-dimensional characters.
- Would you call this situation "one-dimensional"? Explain why.

---

panic-struck (adjective)

Thrown into a state of intense fear or desperation.

- It is useful to describe something as "panic-struck" when it is thrown into a state of intense fear or desperation.
- The speaker chose "panic-struck" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

profitable (adjective)

Yielding material gain or profit.

- Profitable speculation on the stock market.
- Would you call this situation "profitable"? Explain why.

---

self-hatred (noun)

Shame resulting from strong dislike of yourself or your actions.

- They discussed "self-hatred" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "self-hatred" to mean shame resulting from strong dislike of yourself or....

---

sexual attraction (noun)

Attractiveness on the basis of sexual desire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sexual attraction."
- Understanding "sexual attraction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sexual urge (noun)

All of the feelings resulting from the urge to gratify sexual impulses.

- The article explained what "sexual urge" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sexual urge" during the group presentation.

---

slim chance (noun)

Little or no chance of success.

- They discussed "slim chance" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slim chance."

---

suited (adjective)

Outfitted or supplied with clothing.

- Recruits suited in green.
- It is useful to describe something as "suited" when it is outfitted or supplied with clothing.

---

surviving (adjective)

Still in existence.

- The Wollemi pine found in Australia is a surviving specimen of a conifer thought to have been long extinct and therefore known as a living fossil.
- The only surviving frontier blockhouse in Pennsylvania.

---

terror-struck (adjective)

Struck or filled with terror.

- The speaker chose "terror-struck" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "terror-struck"? Explain why.

---

transmission density (noun)

(physics) a measure of the extent to which a substance transmits light or other electromagnetic radiation.

- He looked up "transmission density" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "transmission density" to mean (physics) a measure of the extent to which a....

---

two-dimensional (adjective)

Lacking the expected range or depth; not designed to give an illusion or depth.

- A film with two-dimensional characters.
- A flat two-dimensional painting.

---

uncertainty (noun)

Being unsettled or in doubt or dependent on chance.

- The uncertainty of the outcome.
- In class, the teacher used "uncertainty" to mean being unsettled or in doubt or dependent on chance.

---

varied (adjective)

Broken away from sameness or identity or duplication.

- Her quickly varied answers indicated uncertainty.
- Varied motives prompt people to join a political party.

---

white-collar (adjective)

Of or designating salaried professional or clerical work or workers.

- The coal miner's son aspired to a white-collar occupation as a bookkeeper.
- The speaker chose "white-collar" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

abandon (noun)

A feeling of extreme emotional intensity.

- She danced with abandon.
- The article explained what "abandon" means with a simple example.

---

absolute ceiling (noun)

The maximum altitude at which an airplane can maintain horizontal flight.

- In class, the teacher used "absolute ceiling" to mean the maximum altitude at which an airplane can....
- The article explained what "absolute ceiling" means with a simple example.

---

air-dried (adjective)

Made dry by contact with unheated air.

- A "air-dried" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "air-dried" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

altered (adjective)

Changed in form or character without becoming something else; ; ; - Charles Dickens.

- The altered policy promised success.
- Following an altered course we soon found ourselves back in civilization.

---

bizarre (adjective)

Conspicuously or grossly unconventional or unusual.

- Restaurants of bizarre design–one like a hat, another like a rabbit.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bizarre."

---

bounce (noun)

The quality of a substance that is able to rebound.

- In class, the teacher used "bounce" to mean the quality of a substance that is able to rebound.
- The article explained what "bounce" means with a simple example.

---

complexity (noun)

The quality of being intricate and compounded.

- He enjoyed the complexity of modern computers.
- He looked up "complexity" because he had never seen it before.

---

confusing (adjective)

Lacking clarity of meaning; causing confusion or perplexity.

- Sent confusing signals to Iraq.
- A confusing jumble of road signs.

---

continent-wide (adjective)

Involving the entire continent.

- Would you call this situation "continent-wide"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "continent-wide" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

corn-fed (adjective)

Strong and healthy but not sophisticated.

- Corn-fed livestock.
- Would you call this situation "corn-fed"? Explain why.

---

deep-fried (adjective)

Cooked by frying in fat.

- The speaker chose "deep-fried" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "deep-fried" when it is cooked by frying in fat.

---

dignity (noun)

The quality of being worthy of esteem or respect.

- It was beneath his dignity to cheat.
- Showed his true dignity when under pressure.

---

disappointing (adjective)

Not up to expectations.

- A disappointing performance from one who had seemed so promising.
- The speaker chose "disappointing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

ego (noun)

An inflated feeling of pride in your superiority to others.

- The article explained what "ego" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ego" during the group presentation.

---

enthusiasm (noun)

Overflowing with eager enjoyment or approval.

- Enthusiasm for his program is growing.
- The article explained what "enthusiasm" means with a simple example.

---

flexibility (noun)

The quality of being adaptable or variable.

- He enjoyed the flexibility of his working arrangement.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flexibility."

four-dimensional (adjective)

Involving or relating to the fourth dimension or time.

- Students compared "four-dimensional" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "four-dimensional."

justified (adjective)

Having words so spaced that lines have straight even margins.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "justified."
- The speaker chose "justified" because it captured the feeling precisely.

mercury (noun)

Temperature measured by a mercury thermometer.

- The mercury was falling rapidly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mercury."

pending (adjective)

Awaiting conclusion or confirmation.

- Business still pending.
- The speaker chose "pending" because it captured the feeling precisely.

probability (noun)

The quality of being probable; a probable event or the most probable event.

- For a while mutiny seemed a probability.
- Going by past experience there was a high probability that the visitors were lost.

rap session (noun)

Conversation in a situation where feelings can be expressed and criticized or supported.

- They discussed "rap session" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rap session" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sticking (adjective)

Extending out above or beyond a surface or boundary.

- A pile of boards sticking over the end of his truck.
- Would you call this situation "sticking"? Explain why.

sticking out (adjective)

Extending out above or beyond a surface or boundary.

- A pile of boards sticking over the end of his truck.
- It is useful to describe something as "sticking out" when it is extending out above or beyond a surface or boundary.

sweet tooth (noun)

A strong appetite for sweet food.

- Understanding "sweet tooth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sweet tooth" during the group presentation.

three-dimensional (adjective)

Involving or relating to three dimensions or aspects; giving the illusion of depth.

- Lifelike three-dimensional characters.
- A three-dimensional account of conditions under the new government.

wage-earning (adjective)

Of those who work for wages especially manual or industrial laborers; - G.B.Shaw.

- A "wage-earning" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "wage-earning" because it captured the feeling precisely.

width (noun)

The extent of something from side to side.

- He looked up "width" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "width" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

acid-forming (adjective)

Yielding an acid in aqueous solution.

- It is useful to describe something as "acid-forming" when it is yielding an acid in aqueous solution.
- Would you call this situation "acid-forming"? Explain why.

---

activated (adjective)

(military) set up and placed on active assignment.

- A newly activated unit.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "activated."

---

attitudes (noun)

The arrangement of the body and its limbs.

- They discussed "attitudes" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "attitudes" to mean the arrangement of the body and its limbs.

---

brick-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a brick.

- The speaker chose "brick-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "brick-shaped."

---

broader (adjective)

Having great (or a certain) extent from one side to the other.

- The speaker chose "broader" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "broader" approach may work better in this case.

---

buck up (verb)

Gain courage.

- The coach explained when to use "buck up" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "buck up" in real sentences.

---

chocolate-colored (adjective)

Having the color of dark chocolate.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "chocolate-colored."
- Students compared "chocolate-colored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

cut-and-dried (adjective)

According to ordinary expectations.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cut-and-dried."
- A "cut-and-dried" approach may work better in this case.

---

delicate (adjective)

Of an instrument or device; capable of registering minute differences or changes precisely.

- Almost undetectable with even the most delicate instruments.
- A surgeon's delicate touch.

---

desires (noun)

An inclination to want things.

- A man of many desires.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "desires."

---

disappointment (noun)

A feeling of dissatisfaction that results when your expectations are not realized.

- His hopes were so high he was doomed to disappointment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disappointment."

---

harassment (noun)

A feeling of intense annoyance caused by being tormented.

- So great was his harassment that he wanted to destroy his tormentors.
- He looked up "harassment" because he had never seen it before.

---

high-voltage (adjective)

Operating on or powered by a high voltage.

- A high-voltage generator.
- A high-voltage theatrical entrepreneur.

---

knock-down-and-drag-out (adjective)

Extremely violent.

- A knock-down-and-drag-out fight.
- A "knock-down-and-drag-out" approach may work better in this case.

---

matched (adjective)

Provided with a worthy adversary or competitor.

- Matched teams.
- It is useful to describe something as "matched" when it is provided with a worthy adversary or competitor.

---

nine-fold (adjective)

Having nine units or components.

- Students compared "nine-fold" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "nine-fold" when it is having nine units or components.

---

off-the-shelf (adjective)

(especially of clothing) made in standard sizes and available from merchandise in stock.

- Would you call this situation "off-the-shelf"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "off-the-shelf."

---

precision (noun)

The quality of being reproducible in amount or performance.

- Note the meticulous precision of his measurements.
- In class, the teacher used "precision" to mean the quality of being reproducible in amount or....

---

re-echo (noun)

The echo of an echo.

- The article explained what "re-echo" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "re-echo" during the group presentation.

---

relaxed (adjective)

Without strain or anxiety.

- Gave the impression of being quite relaxed.
- A relaxed and informal discussion.

---

salmon (noun)

A pale pinkish orange color.

- Understanding "salmon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "salmon" to mean a pale pinkish orange color.

---

self-induced (adjective)

Brought about by yourself.

- Self-induced vomiting.
- The speaker chose "self-induced" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

smallest (adjective)

Limited or below average in number or quantity or magnitude or extent.

- A "smallest" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "smallest."

---

soul-destroying (adjective)

Destructive to the spirit or soul.

- Soul-destroying labor.
- Would you call this situation "soul-destroying"? Explain why.

---

spider-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a spider.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "spider-shaped."
- Would you call this situation "spider-shaped"? Explain why.

---

stark (adjective)

Devoid of any qualifications or disguise or adornment.

- Facing the stark reality of the deadline.
- A stark interior.

---

stream of consciousness (noun)

The continuous flow of ideas and feelings that constitute an individual's conscious experience.

- In class, the teacher used "stream of consciousness" to mean the continuous flow of ideas and feelings that....
- He looked up "stream of consciousness" because he had never seen it before.

---

theoretical (adjective)

Concerned with theories rather than their practical applications.

- Theoretical physics.
- Theoretical science.

---

third-dimensional (adjective)

Involving or relating to three dimensions or aspects; giving the illusion of depth.

- The speaker chose "third-dimensional" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "third-dimensional" approach may work better in this case.

---

thirty-seventh (adjective)

The ordinal number of thirty-seven in counting order.

- Students compared "thirty-seventh" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "thirty-seventh" approach may work better in this case.

---

threshold level (noun)

The intensity level that is just barely perceptible.

- They discussed "threshold level" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "threshold level" because he had never seen it before.

---

transparent (adjective)

Transmitting light; able to be seen through with clarity.

- Transparent crystal.
- Transparent chiffon.

---

voluntary (adjective)

Of your own free will or design; done by choice; not forced or compelled.

- Man is a voluntary agent.
- Participation was voluntary.

---

wheat (noun)

A variable yellow tint; dull yellow, often diluted with white.

- The article explained what "wheat" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wheat."

---

wolf-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of a wolf.

- Would you call this situation "wolf-sized"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "wolf-sized" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

abused (adjective)

Used improperly or excessively especially drugs.

- An abused substance.
- Students compared "abused" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

betting (adjective)

Preoccupied with the pursuit of pleasure and especially games of chance.

- A betting man.
- A "betting" approach may work better in this case.

---

blue-collar (adjective)

Of those who work for wages especially manual or industrial laborers; - G.B.Shaw.

- Would you call this situation "blue-collar"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "blue-collar."

---

broad-minded (adjective)

Inclined to respect views and beliefs that differ from your own.

- A judge who is broad-minded but even-handed.
- Would you call this situation "broad-minded"? Explain why.

---

decreased (adjective)

Made less in size or amount or degree.

- Students compared "decreased" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "decreased."

---

dirty-minded (adjective)

Having lewd thoughts.

- Would you call this situation "dirty-minded"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dirty-minded."

---

disposal (noun)

The power to use something or someone.

- Used all the resources at his disposal.
- They discussed "disposal" during the group presentation.

---

distinctive (adjective)

Of a feature that helps to distinguish a person or thing; - Curtis Wilkie.

- Jerusalem has a distinctive Middle East flavor.
- Would you call this situation "distinctive"? Explain why.

---

documented (adjective)

Furnished with or supported by documents.

- The first documented case of shark attack in those waters.
- Would you call this situation "documented"? Explain why.

---

hundred-and-forty-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of one hundred forty-five in counting order.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hundred-and-forty-fifth."
- Would you call this situation "hundred-and-forty-fifth"? Explain why.

indirect (adjective)

Descended from a common ancestor but through different lines.

- An indirect descendant of the Stuarts.
- Sometimes taking an indirect path saves time.

interviewed (verb)

Go for an interview in the hope of being hired.

- The job candidate interviewed everywhere.
- We interviewed the job candidates.

kindly (adjective)

Showing or motivated by sympathy and understanding and generosity.

- Kindly criticism.
- A kindly act.

kindness (noun)

The quality of being warmhearted and considerate and humane and sympathetic.

- They discussed "kindness" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "kindness" to mean the quality of being warmhearted and considerate....

lemon yellow (noun)

A strong yellow color.

- The article explained what "lemon yellow" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lemon yellow" to mean a strong yellow color.

low-voltage (adjective)

Subjected to or capable of operating under relative low voltage.

- The speaker chose "low-voltage" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "low-voltage."

magnitude (noun)

The property of relative size or extent (whether large or small).

- They tried to predict the magnitude of the explosion.
- About the magnitude of a small pea.

palm-shaped (adjective)

Of a leaf shape; having leaflets or lobes radiating from a common point.

- Would you call this situation "palm-shaped"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "palm-shaped" when it is of a leaf shape; having leaflets or lobes radiating....

passive source (noun)

An informant who is not assigned to obtain specific intelligence but who routinely passes on whatever information he or she has.

- In class, the teacher used "passive source" to mean an informant who is not assigned to obtain specific....
- He looked up "passive source" because he had never seen it before.

publicity (noun)

The quality of being open to public view.

- The publicity of the court room.
- The article explained what "publicity" means with a simple example.

punished (adjective)

Subjected to a penalty (as pain or shame or restraint or loss) for an offense or fault or in order to coerce some behavior (as a confession or obedience).

- It is useful to describe something as "punished" when it is subjected to a penalty (as pain or shame or....
- The speaker chose "punished" because it captured the feeling precisely.

reform-minded (adjective)

Favoring or promoting reform (often by government action).

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "reform-minded."
- Would you call this situation "reform-minded"? Explain why.

---

third dimension (noun)

The dimension whereby a solid object differs from a two-dimensional drawing of it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "third dimension."
- The article explained what "third dimension" means with a simple example.

---

upside-down (adjective)

Being in such a position that top and bottom are reversed.

- An upside-down cake.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "upside-down."

---

wished (verb)

Prefer or wish to do something.

- She tried to use "wished" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "wished" and when to wait.

---

wished-for (adjective)

Greatly desired.

- Would you call this situation "wished-for"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wished-for."

---

wonders (noun)

Something that causes feelings of wonder.

- The wonders of modern science.
- Understanding "wonders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ash grey (noun)

A light shade of grey.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ash grey."
- The article explained what "ash grey" means with a simple example.

---

ash-grey (adjective)

Of a light grey.

- Would you call this situation "ash-grey"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "ash-grey" when it is of a light grey.

---

belly laugh (noun)

A joke that seems extremely funny.

- They discussed "belly laugh" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "belly laugh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bent on (adjective)

Fixed in your purpose.

- Bent on going to the theater.
- It is useful to describe something as "bent on" when it is fixed in your purpose.

---

bits per inch (noun)

A measure of how densely information is packed on a storage medium.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bits per inch."
- He looked up "bits per inch" because he had never seen it before.

---

black-and-tan (adjective)

Having a pattern of black and tan.

- A "black-and-tan" approach may work better in this case.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “black-and-tan.”

---

bone ash (noun)

Ash left when bones burn; high in calcium phosphate; used as fertilizer and in bone china.

- In class, the teacher used “bone ash” to mean ash left when bones burn; high in calcium....
- They discussed “bone ash” during the group presentation.

---

centered (adjective)

Being or placed in the center.

- Would you call this situation “centered”? Explain why.
- A “centered” approach may work better in this case.

---

consistency (noun)

The property of holding together and retaining its shape.

- When the dough has enough consistency it is ready to bake.
- A rambling argument that lacked any consistency.

---

cracked (adjective)

Informal or slang terms for mentally irregular.

- The speaker chose “cracked” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “cracked.”

---

dish-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a dish or pan.

- It is useful to describe something as “dish-shaped” when it is shaped like a dish or pan.
- A “dish-shaped” approach may work better in this case.

---

evident (adjective)

Clearly revealed to the mind or the senses or judgment.

- Evident hostility.
- A clearly evident erasure in the manuscript.

---

expectation (noun)

The feeling that something is about to happen.

- In class, the teacher used “expectation” to mean the feeling that something is about to happen.
- They discussed “expectation” during the group presentation.

---

expedition (noun)

The property of being prompt and efficient.

- An expedition was sent to explore Mars.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “expedition.”

---

fifty-fifty (adjective)

Equal in degree or extent or amount; or equally matched or balanced.

- It was a fifty-fifty (or even) split.
- Had a fifty-fifty (or even) chance.

---

goddamn (adjective)

Expletives used informally as intensifiers.

- I’ll be damned (or blessed or darned or goddamned) if I’ll do any such thing.
- He’s a damn (or goddam or goddamned) fool.

---

gut issue (noun)

An issue that elicits strong emotional reactions.

- The article explained what “gut issue” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “gut issue” to mean an issue that elicits strong emotional reactions.

---

half-timber (adjective)

Having exposed wood framing with spaces filled with masonry, as in Tudor architecture.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "half-timber."
- A "half-timber" approach may work better in this case.

---

honesty (noun)

The quality of being honest.

- He looked up "honesty" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "honesty."

---

inappropriate (adjective)

Not suitable for a particular occasion etc.

- Noise seems inappropriate at a time of sadness.
- Inappropriate shoes for a walk on the beach.

---

interstate (adjective)

Involving and relating to the mutual relations of states especially of the United States.

- Interstate Highway Commission.
- Interstate highways.

---

liking (noun)

A feeling of pleasure and enjoyment.

- I've always had a liking for reading.
- She developed a liking for gin.

---

linear perspective (noun)

The appearance of things relative to one another as determined by their distance from the viewer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "linear perspective."
- Understanding "linear perspective" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

love-lies-bleeding (noun)

Young leaves widely used as leaf vegetables; seeds used as cereal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "love-lies-bleeding."
- He looked up "love-lies-bleeding" because he had never seen it before.

---

low-cal (adjective)

Having relatively few calories.

- A low-cal diet.
- The speaker chose "low-cal" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

mouse-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of a mouse.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "mouse-sized."
- Would you call this situation "mouse-sized"? Explain why.

---

neat (adjective)

Free from clumsiness; precisely or deftly executed.

- The neat exactness of the surgeon's knife.
- Her neat dress.

---

neo (adjective)

(used as a combining form) recent or new.

- 'neo' is a combining form in words like 'neocolonialism'.
- Students compared "neo" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

operating capability (noun)

The capability of a technological system to perform as intended.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "operating capability."
- They discussed "operating capability" during the group presentation.

---

order of magnitude (noun)

A degree in a continuum of size or quantity.

- It was on the order of a mile.
- An explosion of a low order of magnitude.

---

personal equation (noun)

Variability attributable to individual differences.

- In class, the teacher used "personal equation" to mean variability attributable to individual differences.
- Understanding "personal equation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prohibited (adjective)

Excluded from use or mention.

- Students compared "prohibited" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "prohibited" approach may work better in this case.

---

projected (adjective)

Extending out above or beyond a surface or boundary.

- Massive projected buttresses.
- It is useful to describe something as "projected" when it is extending out above or beyond a surface or boundary.

---

psychological disorder (noun)

(psychiatry) a psychological disorder of thought or emotion; a more neutral term than mental illness.

- They discussed "psychological disorder" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "psychological disorder" means with a simple example.

---

puppy love (noun)

Temporary love of an adolescent.

- In class, the teacher used "puppy love" to mean temporary love of an adolescent.
- The article explained what "puppy love" means with a simple example.

---

resistant (adjective)

Able to tolerate environmental conditions or physiological stress.

- The new hybrid is more resistant to drought.
- Resistant to the effects of heat.

---

right of offset (noun)

(banking) the legal right of a bank to seize deposited funds to cover a loan that is in default.

- Understanding "right of offset" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right of offset."

---

shapes (noun)

The visual appearance of something or someone.

- He could barely make out their shapes.
- Understanding "shapes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

troubles (noun)

A strong feeling of anxiety.

- He wanted to die and end his troubles.
- He looked up "troubles" because he had never seen it before.

---

uncertain (adjective)

Lacking or indicating lack of confidence or assurance.

- Uncertain of his convictions.
- Moving with uncertain (or unsure) steps.

weigh on (verb)

Be oppressive or disheartening to.

- He did not know how to use "weigh on" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "weigh on" when talking about this idea.

whatsoever (adjective)

One or some or every or all without specification.

- No milk whatsoever is left.
- Students compared "whatsoever" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

whip hand (noun)

Position of advantage and control.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whip hand."
- He looked up "whip hand" because he had never seen it before.

wicked (adjective)

Highly offensive; arousing aversion or disgust.

- A wicked stench.
- Under wicked fire from the enemy's guns.

absent (adjective)

Lost in thought; showing preoccupation.

- An absent stare.
- An absentminded professor.

ash gray (noun)

A light shade of grey.

- The article explained what "ash gray" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ash gray" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ash-gray (adjective)

Of a light grey.

- Students compared "ash-gray" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "ash-gray" approach may work better in this case.

compelling (adjective)

Tending to persuade by forcefulness of argument.

- New and compelling evidence.
- Compelling ambition.

crowded (adjective)

Overfilled or compacted or concentrated.

- A crowded theater.
- A crowded program.

dense (adjective)

Hard to pass through because of dense growth.

- Dense vegetation.
- Dense smoke.

forty-sixth (adjective)

The ordinal number of forty-six in counting order.

- A "forty-sixth" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "forty-sixth."

furious (adjective)

(of the elements) as if showing violent anger.

- Furious winds.
- A furious battle.

---

green thumb (noun)

A special ability to make plants grow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green thumb."
- He looked up "green thumb" because he had never seen it before.

---

intact (adjective)

(used of domestic animals) sexually competent.

- Fought to keep the union intact.
- She was intact, virginal.

---

irrelevant (adjective)

Having no bearing on or connection with the subject at issue.

- An irrelevant comment.
- Irrelevant allegations.

---

labor-intensive (adjective)

Requiring a large expenditure of labor but not much capital.

- It is useful to describe something as "labor-intensive" when it is requiring a large expenditure of labor but not much....
- The speaker chose "labor-intensive" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

mistaken (adjective)

Wrong in e.g. opinion or judgment.

- A mistaken belief.
- Mistaken identity.

---

off-centered (adjective)

Situated away from the center or axis.

- Would you call this situation "off-centered"? Explain why.
- A "off-centered" approach may work better in this case.

---

pale yellow (noun)

A variable yellow tint; dull yellow, often diluted with white.

- Understanding "pale yellow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pale yellow" means with a simple example.

---

pearl grey (adjective)

Of a grey with a pearly tinge.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pearl grey."
- Students compared "pearl grey" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

pity (noun)

A feeling of sympathy and sorrow for the misfortunes of others.

- The blind are too often objects of pity.
- It's a pity he couldn't do it.

---

prince charming (noun)

A suitor who fulfills the dreams of his beloved.

- Understanding "prince charming" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "prince charming" because he had never seen it before.

---

quantum field theory (noun)

The branch of quantum physics that is concerned with the theory of fields; it was motivated by the question of how an atom radiates light as its electrons jump from excited states.

- He looked up "quantum field theory" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "quantum field theory" during the group presentation.

---

regulated (adjective)

Controlled or governed according to rule or principle or law.

- Well regulated industries.
- Houses with regulated temperature.

---

rounded (adjective)

Curving and somewhat round in shape rather than jagged.

- Low rounded hills.
- Rounded shoulders.

---

rushed (adjective)

Done under pressure.

- The speaker chose "rushed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "rushed" when it is done under pressure.

---

sensible (adjective)

Aware intuitively or intellectually of something sensed; ; - Henry Hallam; - Edmund Burke.

- Made sensible of his mistakes.
- I am sensible that the mention of such a circumstance may appear trifling.

---

sexually attractive (adjective)

Capable of arousing desire.

- It is useful to describe something as "sexually attractive" when it is capable of arousing desire.
- A "sexually attractive" approach may work better in this case.

---

thirty-eighth (adjective)

The ordinal number of thirty-eight in counting order.

- Students compared "thirty-eighth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "thirty-eighth"? Explain why.

---

travelled (adjective)

Familiar with many parts of the world.

- The speaker chose "travelled" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "travelled"? Explain why.

---

twisted (adjective)

Having an intended meaning altered or misrepresented.

- Many of the facts seemed twisted out of any semblance to reality.
- Students compared "twisted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

voltage drop (noun)

A decrease in voltage along a conductor through which current is flowing.

- They discussed "voltage drop" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "voltage drop" to mean a decrease in voltage along a conductor through....

---

water-resistant (adjective)

Hindering the penetration of water.

- The speaker chose "water-resistant" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "water-resistant" when it is hindering the penetration of water.

---

acoustic power (noun)

The physical intensity of sound.

- Understanding "acoustic power" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "acoustic power" means with a simple example.

---

all-inclusive (adjective)

Broad in scope or content; ; ; ; ; - T.G.Winner.

- Students compared "all-inclusive" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "all-inclusive" approach may work better in this case.

---

boot-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a boot.

- It is useful to describe something as "boot-shaped" when it is shaped like a boot.
- Would you call this situation "boot-shaped"? Explain why.

---

brady (noun)

United States financier noted for his love of diamonds and his extravagant lifestyle (1856-1917).

- Understanding "brady" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "brady" to mean united states financier noted for his love of....

---

caution (noun)

The trait of being cautious; being attentive to possible danger.

- A man of caution.
- He exercised caution in opening the door.

---

child-centered (adjective)

Designed to promote a child's personal qualities rather than to provide training or information.

- A "child-centered" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "child-centered" when it is designed to promote a child's personal qualities....

---

compatible (adjective)

Able to exist and perform in harmonious or agreeable combination.

- A compatible married couple.
- Her deeds were compatible with her ideology.

---

convincing (adjective)

Causing one to believe the truth of something.

- A convincing story.
- A convincing manner.

---

coupled (adjective)

Joined together especially in a pair or pairs.

- Students compared "coupled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "coupled."

---

deaf as a post (adjective)

Totally deaf; unable to hear anything.

- A "deaf as a post" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "deaf as a post."

---

delight (noun)

A feeling of extreme pleasure or satisfaction.

- His delight to see her was obvious to all.
- The new car is a delight.

---

determining (adjective)

Having the power or quality of deciding.

- Students compared "determining" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "determining"? Explain why.

---

facial expression (noun)

The feelings expressed on a person's face.

- A sad expression.
- He looked up "facial expression" because he had never seen it before.

---

fire-resistant (adjective)

Difficult to burn.

- Students compared "fire-resistant" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "fire-resistant" approach may work better in this case.

---

fortunate (adjective)

Having unexpected good fortune.

- Other, less fortunate, children died.
- A fortunate choice.

---

frustrating (adjective)

Preventing realization or attainment of a desire.

- The speaker chose "frustrating" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "frustrating" when it is preventing realization or attainment of a desire.

---

frustration (noun)

A feeling of annoyance at being hindered or criticized.

- Her constant complaints were the main source of his frustration.
- They discussed "frustration" during the group presentation.

---

grasp (noun)

An intellectual hold or understanding.

- A terrible power had her in its grasp.
- He has a good grasp of accounting practices.

---

hardcore (adjective)

Intensely loyal.

- It is useful to describe something as "hardcore" when it is intensely loyal.
- Would you call this situation "hardcore"? Explain why.

---

harmful (adjective)

Causing or capable of causing harm.

- Too much sun is harmful to the skin.
- Harmful effects of smoking.

---

high-stepping (adjective)

Having or moving with a high step.

- A high-stepping horse.
- The speaker chose "high-stepping" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

honey-colored (adjective)

Having the color of honey.

- Students compared "honey-colored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "honey-colored" approach may work better in this case.

---

human-centered (adjective)

Marked by humanistic values and devotion to human welfare.

- Would you call this situation "human-centered"? Explain why.
- Students compared "human-centered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

inclusive (adjective)

Including much or everything; and especially including stated limits.

- An inclusive art form.
- An inclusive fee.

infections (noun)

The communication of an attitude or emotional state among a number of people.

- In class, the teacher used "infections" to mean the communication of an attitude or emotional state....
- The article explained what "infections" means with a simple example.

labour-intensive (adjective)

Requiring a large expenditure of labor but not much capital.

- The speaker chose "labour-intensive" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "labour-intensive" when it is requiring a large expenditure of labor but not much....

madness (noun)

A feeling of intense anger.

- Poetry is a sort of divine madness.
- The article explained what "madness" means with a simple example.

marriage of convenience (noun)

A marriage for expediency rather than love.

- Understanding "marriage of convenience" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "marriage of convenience" during the group presentation.

memorable (adjective)

Worth remembering.

- It is useful to describe something as "memorable" when it is worth remembering.
- A "memorable" approach may work better in this case.

minorities (noun)

Being or relating to the smaller in number of two parts.

- They discussed "minorities" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "minorities" because he had never seen it before.

moderate-sized (adjective)

Intermediate in size.

- The speaker chose "moderate-sized" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "moderate-sized."

olive branch (noun)

Something offered to an adversary in the hope of obtaining peace.

- The article explained what "olive branch" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "olive branch."

pearl gray (adjective)

Of a grey with a pearly tinge.

- The speaker chose "pearl gray" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "pearl gray" when it is of a grey with a pearly tinge.

portable (adjective)

Of a motor designed to be attached to the outside of a boat's hull.

- A portable outboard motor.
- A "portable" approach may work better in this case.

scattered (adjective)

Occurring or distributed over widely spaced and irregular intervals in time or space.

- Scattered showers.
- Scattered villages.

self-centered (adjective)

Limited to or caring only about yourself and your own needs.

- A "self-centered" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-centered" when it is limited to or caring only about yourself and your....

---

self-evident (adjective)

Evident without proof or argument.

- We hold these truths to be self-evident.
- Students compared "self-evident" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

semi-climbing (adjective)

Of plants that are semi-climbers.

- Students compared "semi-climbing" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "semi-climbing" when it is of plants that are semi-climbers.

---

sexuality (noun)

The properties that distinguish organisms on the basis of their reproductive roles.

- He looked up "sexuality" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sexuality."

---

succession (noun)

A following of one thing after another in time.

- A succession of stalls offering soft drinks.
- A succession of failures.

---

sweep off (verb)

Overwhelm emotionally.

- Can you use "sweep off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "sweep off" and when to wait.

---

sweep over (verb)

Overcome, as with emotions or perceptual stimuli.

- The coach explained when to use "sweep over" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "sweep over" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

thorough (adjective)

Performed comprehensively and completely.

- Made a thorough search.
- Thoroughgoing research.

---

tight fitting (adjective)

Fitting snugly.

- A tightly-fitting cover.
- Tight-fitting clothes.

---

tight-fitting (adjective)

Fitting snugly.

- Tight-fitting clothes.
- Would you call this situation "tight-fitting"? Explain why.

---

twenty-ninth (adjective)

Coming next after the twenty-eighth in position.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "twenty-ninth."
- Students compared "twenty-ninth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

varying (adjective)

Marked by diversity or difference.

- The varying angles of roof slope.

- It is useful to describe something as "varying" when it is marked by diversity or difference.

---

affiliated (adjective)

Being joined in close association.

- Affiliated clubs.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "affiliated."

---

barrel-shaped (adjective)

Having the general shape of a barrel.

- Students compared "barrel-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "barrel-shaped" approach may work better in this case.

---

bothered (adjective)

Caused to show discomposure.

- A "bothered" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "bothered" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

bright as a new penny (adjective)

(metaphor) shining brightly.

- A "bright as a new penny" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "bright as a new penny" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

clearance (noun)

The distance by which one thing clears another; the space between them.

- The plane was given clearance to land.
- Understanding "clearance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coincidence (noun)

The quality of occupying the same position or area in space.

- He waited for the coincidence of the target and the cross hairs.
- The interval determining the coincidence gate is adjustable.

---

commissioned (adjective)

(of military officers) holding by virtue of a commission a rank of second lieutenant or ensign or above.

- It is useful to describe something as "commissioned" when it is (of military officers) holding by virtue of a....
- Would you call this situation "commissioned"? Explain why.

---

concentrated (adjective)

Being the most concentrated solution possible at a given temperature; unable to dissolve still more of a substance.

- Their concentrated efforts.
- His concentrated attention.

---

conscience (noun)

A feeling of shame when you do something immoral.

- He has no conscience about his cruelty.
- A person of unflagging conscience.

---

countless (adjective)

Too numerous to be counted.

- Countless hours.
- Would you call this situation "countless"? Explain why.

---

explicit (adjective)

Precisely and clearly expressed or readily observable; leaving nothing to implication.

- Explicit instructions.
- She made her wishes explicit.

---

eyed (adjective)

Having an eye or eyes or eyelike feature especially as specified; often used in combination.

- A peacock's eyed feathers.
- Red-eyed.

---

flame-orange (adjective)

Of orange tinged with red.

- Students compared "flame-orange" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flame-orange."

---

forbidden (adjective)

Excluded from use or mention.

- Forbidden fruit.
- A "forbidden" approach may work better in this case.

---

hammer-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a hammer.

- It is useful to describe something as "hammer-shaped" when it is shaped in the form of a hammer.
- A "hammer-shaped" approach may work better in this case.

---

hell-bent (adjective)

Recklessly determined.

- Hell-bent on winning.
- The speaker chose "hell-bent" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

high-priced (adjective)

Having a high price.

- High-priced merchandise.
- It is useful to describe something as "high-priced" when it is having a high price.

---

man-portable (adjective)

Portable by one man.

- It is useful to describe something as "man-portable" when it is portable by one man.
- A "man-portable" approach may work better in this case.

---

motor-assisted (adjective)

Relying on an engine for propulsion in addition to muscle power.

- A motor-assisted bicycle.
- It is useful to describe something as "motor-assisted" when it is relying on an engine for propulsion in addition to....

---

nervous strain (noun)

(psychology) nervousness resulting from mental stress.

- His responsibilities were a constant strain.
- The mental strain of staying alert hour after hour was too much for him.

---

offence (noun)

A feeling of anger caused by being offended.

- He took offence at my question.
- In class, the teacher used "offence" to mean a feeling of anger caused by being offended.

---

one-eyed (adjective)

Having or showing only one eye.

- One-eyed Jacks are wild.
- The three one-eyed Cyclopes of Greek myth.

---

patriots (noun)

One who loves and defends his or her country.

- He looked up "patriots" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "patriots" during the group presentation.

---

poker face (noun)

A face without any interpretable expression (as that of a good poker player).

- He looked up "poker face" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "poker face" during the group presentation.

---

polar (adjective)

Of or existing at or near a geographical pole or within the Arctic or Antarctic Circles.

- Polar regions.
- Polar diameter.

---

processed (adjective)

Freed from impurities by processing; ; ; - Shakespeare.

- Processed ores.
- Would you call this situation "processed"? Explain why.

---

pursuing (adjective)

Following in order to overtake or capture or as accompaniment to such pursuit.

- The fox fled from the pursuing hounds.
- Listened for the hounds' pursuing bark.

---

renowned (adjective)

Widely known and esteemed.

- A renowned painter.
- Would you call this situation "renowned"? Explain why.

---

right-eyed (adjective)

Having only the right eye.

- Would you call this situation "right-eyed"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "right-eyed" when it is having only the right eye.

---

ruby-red (adjective)

Of a color at the end of the color spectrum (next to orange); resembling the color of blood or cherries or tomatoes or rubies.

- It is useful to describe something as "ruby-red" when it is of a color at the end of the color spectrum (next....
- Would you call this situation "ruby-red"? Explain why.

---

self-pity (noun)

A feeling of sorrow (often self-indulgent) over your own sufferings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-pity."
- He looked up "self-pity" because he had never seen it before.

---

stir up (verb)

Arouse or excite feelings and passions.

- The refugees' fate stirred up compassion around the world.
- In everyday English, people use "stir up" when talking about this idea.

---

stuffed (adjective)

Filled with something.

- A stuffed turkey.
- I feel stuffed.

---

superb (adjective)

Of surpassing excellence.

- A superb actor.
- A superb meal.

traits (noun)

A distinguishing feature of your personal nature.

- The article explained what "traits" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "traits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tricky (adjective)

Having concealed difficulty.

- A tricky recipe to follow.
- Tricky Dick.

viable (adjective)

Capable of life or normal growth and development.

- Viable seeds.
- A viable fetus.

wit (noun)

A message whose ingenuity or verbal skill or incongruity has the power to evoke laughter.

- He looked up "wit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wit."

ambitious (adjective)

Requiring full use of your abilities or resources.

- Ambitious schedule.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ambitious."

annoyed (adjective)

Troubled persistently especially with petty annoyances.

- It is useful to describe something as "annoyed" when it is troubled persistently especially with petty annoyances.
- Would you call this situation "annoyed"? Explain why.

appealing (adjective)

Able to attract interest or draw favorable attention; - Vincent Starrett.

- He added an appealing and memorable figure to popular American mythology.
- An appealing sense of humor.

attorney-client privilege (noun)

The right of a lawyer to refuse to divulge confidential information from his client.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "attorney-client privilege."
- They discussed "attorney-client privilege" during the group presentation.

cliff-hanging (adjective)

(of a situation) characterized by or causing suspense.

- The speaker chose "cliff-hanging" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "cliff-hanging"? Explain why.

compassion (noun)

A deep awareness of and sympathy for another's suffering.

- He looked up "compassion" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "compassion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

corrected (adjective)

Having something undesirable neutralized.

- With glasses her corrected vision was 20:20.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "corrected."

correction (noun)

A drop in stock market activity or stock prices following a period of increases.

- Market runups are invariably followed by a correction.
- The correction of his vision with eye glasses.

---

doubts (noun)

Uncertainty about the truth or factuality or existence of something.

- The article explained what "doubts" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "doubts."

---

elegant (adjective)

Refined and tasteful in appearance or behavior or style.

- Elegant handwriting.
- An elegant dark suit.

---

imported (adjective)

Used of especially merchandise brought from a foreign source.

- Imported wines.
- Students compared "imported" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ladder-proof (adjective)

(of hosiery) resistant to runs or (in Britain) ladders.

- The speaker chose "ladder-proof" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "ladder-proof" approach may work better in this case.

---

left-eyed (adjective)

Having only the left eye.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "left-eyed."
- Students compared "left-eyed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

low-priced (adjective)

That you have the financial means for.

- It is useful to describe something as "low-priced" when it is that you have the financial means for.
- The speaker chose "low-priced" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

narrow-minded (adjective)

Lacking tolerance or flexibility or breadth of view.

- A brilliant but narrow-minded judge.
- The speaker chose "narrow-minded" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

open-eyed (adjective)

Carefully observant or attentive; on the lookout for possible danger.

- A policy of open-eyed awareness.
- Would you call this situation "open-eyed"? Explain why.

---

purple-spotted (adjective)

Having purple spots.

- Students compared "purple-spotted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "purple-spotted."

---

relieved (adjective)

Extending out above or beyond a surface or boundary.

- Would you call this situation "relieved"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "relieved" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

right to the pursuit of happiness (noun)

The right to try to find happiness.

- Understanding "right to the pursuit of happiness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "right to the pursuit of happiness" to mean the right to try to find happiness.

---

rivals (noun)

The contestant you hope to defeat.

- He had respect for his rivals.
- The article explained what "rivals" means with a simple example.

---

secular (adjective)

Of or relating to clergy not bound by monastic vows.

- The secular clergy.
- Secular drama.

---

sensitivity (noun)

The ability to respond to physical stimuli or to register small physical amounts or differences.

- A galvanometer of extreme sensitivity.
- Sensitivity to pain.

---

sex characteristic (noun)

Those characteristics (both anatomical and psychological) that are strongly associated with one sex relative to the other.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sex characteristic."
- They discussed "sex characteristic" during the group presentation.

---

smart as a whip (adjective)

Having or marked by unusual and impressive intelligence.

- Students compared "smart as a whip" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "smart as a whip" approach may work better in this case.

---

smoke-dried (adjective)

(used especially of meats and fish) dried and cured by hanging in wood smoke.

- Students compared "smoke-dried" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "smoke-dried."

---

synthetic (adjective)

Of a proposition whose truth value is determined by observation or facts.

- 'all men are arrogant' is a synthetic proposition.
- Limnology is essentially a synthetic science composed of elements...that extend well beyond the limits of biology.

---

terrifying (adjective)

Causing extreme terror.

- A terrifying wail.
- A "terrifying" approach may work better in this case.

---

tracked (adjective)

Having tracks.

- New snow tracked by rabbits.
- Tracked vehicles.

---

amber-green (adjective)

Of green tinged with amber.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "amber-green."
- Students compared "amber-green" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ankle-deep (adjective)

Coming only to the ankle or knee.

- Students compared "ankle-deep" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "ankle-deep" when it is coming only to the ankle or knee.

---

arrow-shaped (adjective)

(of a leaf shape) like an arrow head without flaring base lobes.

- A "arrow-shaped" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "arrow-shaped."

---

atomic weight (noun)

(chemistry) the mass of an atom of a chemical element expressed in atomic mass units.

- The article explained what "atomic weight" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "atomic weight."

---

clear-eyed (adjective)

Mentally acute or penetratingly discerning.

- Too clear-eyed not to see what problems would follow.
- The speaker chose "clear-eyed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

decorated (adjective)

Provided with something intended to increase its beauty or distinction.

- The speaker chose "decorated" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "decorated" when it is provided with something intended to increase its....

---

disc-shaped (adjective)

Having a flat circular shape.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "disc-shaped."
- Students compared "disc-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

dry-cleaned (adjective)

Cleaned with chemical solvents.

- Students compared "dry-cleaned" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "dry-cleaned" approach may work better in this case.

---

fashioned (adjective)

Planned and made or fashioned artistically.

- Beautifully fashioned dresses.
- The speaker chose "fashioned" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

feared (verb)

Be afraid or scared of; be frightened of.

- In everyday English, people use "feared" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "feared" until he saw an example.

---

grind (noun)

The grade of particle fineness to which a substance is ground.

- A coarse grind of coffee.
- He looked up "grind" because he had never seen it before.

---

gum-like (adjective)

Resembling chewing gum.

- The speaker chose "gum-like" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "gum-like" approach may work better in this case.

---

half-tracked (adjective)

Having caterpillar treads on the rear and wheels in front.

- Would you call this situation "half-tracked"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "half-tracked" when it is having caterpillar treads on the rear and wheels in....

---

ham-handed (adjective)

Lacking physical movement skills, especially with the hands; ; ; ; - Mary H. Vorse.

- Ham-handed governmental interference.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ham-handed."

---

heavily traveled (adjective)

Subject to much traffic or travel.

- The region's most heavily traveled highways.
- The speaker chose "heavily traveled" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

horn-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a horn.

- The speaker chose "horn-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "horn-shaped"? Explain why.

---

incorrect (adjective)

Not correct; not in conformity with fact or truth.

- An incorrect calculation.
- The speaker chose "incorrect" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

joint probability (noun)

The probability of two events occurring together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joint probability."
- He looked up "joint probability" because he had never seen it before.

---

lily-white (adjective)

Restricted to whites only.

- A lily-white movement which would expel Negroes from the organization.
- It is useful to describe something as "lily-white" when it is restricted to whites only.

---

lip-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a lip.

- The speaker chose "lip-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "lip-shaped" when it is shaped in the form of a lip.

---

loose-fitting (adjective)

Not fitting closely; hanging loosely.

- A loose-fitting blouse is comfortable in hot weather.
- Students compared "loose-fitting" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

love feast (noun)

A religious meal shared as a sign of love and fellowship.

- They discussed "love feast" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "love feast" because he had never seen it before.

---

many-sided (adjective)

Full of variety or interest.

- A many-sided personality.
- A many-sided subject.

---

mouse-colored (adjective)

Of something having a drab pale brown color resembling a mouse.

- Mouse-colored hair.
- Students compared "mouse-colored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

multi-valued (adjective)

Having many values, meanings, or appeals.

- A "multi-valued" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "multi-valued" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

newer (adjective)

Not of long duration; having just (or relatively recently) come into being or been made or acquired or discovered.

- A "newer" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "newer" because it captured the feeling precisely.

north-polar (adjective)

Of or relating to the Arctic.

- Would you call this situation "north-polar"? Explain why.
- A "north-polar" approach may work better in this case.

olive-grey (adjective)

Of grey tinged with olive.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "olive-grey."
- The speaker chose "olive-grey" because it captured the feeling precisely.

one-sided (adjective)

Favoring one person or side over another.

- It is useful to describe something as "one-sided" when it is favoring one person or side over another.
- A "one-sided" approach may work better in this case.

optimal (adjective)

Most desirable possible under a restriction expressed or implied.

- Optimal concentration of a drug.
- Would you call this situation "optimal"? Explain why.

pale-faced (adjective)

Having a pale face.

- Would you call this situation "pale-faced"? Explain why.
- A "pale-faced" approach may work better in this case.

penny-wise (adjective)

Thrifty in small matters only.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "penny-wise."
- A "penny-wise" approach may work better in this case.

pillow talk (noun)

Intimate conversation between lovers (typically occurring in bed).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pillow talk."
- He looked up "pillow talk" because he had never seen it before.

pole-handled (adjective)

Having a long handle.

- The speaker chose "pole-handled" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pole-handled."

profound (adjective)

Showing intellectual penetration or emotional depth.

- The differences are profound.
- A profound insight.

rescued (adjective)

Delivered from danger.

- The speaker chose "rescued" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rescued."

risky (adjective)

Not financially safe or secure.

- Anything that promises to pay too much can't help being risky.
- Extremely risky going out in the tide and fog.

---

robust (adjective)

Sturdy and strong in form, constitution, or construction.

- A robust body.
- A robust perennial.

---

rod-shaped (adjective)

Formed like a bacillus.

- The speaker chose "rod-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "rod-shaped" when it is formed like a bacillus.

---

south-polar (adjective)

At or near the south pole.

- Students compared "south-polar" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "south-polar."

---

spice (noun)

The property of being seasoned with spice and so highly flavored.

- He looked up "spice" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spice" to mean the property of being seasoned with spice and so....

---

swept (adjective)

Possessing sweep.

- The sleek swept wings of the plane.
- A "swept" approach may work better in this case.

---

terrified (adjective)

Thrown into a state of intense fear or desperation.

- The terrified horse bolted.
- Students compared "terrified" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

thrilled (adjective)

Feeling intense pleasurable excitement.

- Students compared "thrilled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "thrilled" approach may work better in this case.

---

two-sided (adjective)

Capable of being reversed or used with either side out.

- It is useful to describe something as "two-sided" when it is capable of being reversed or used with either side out.
- Students compared "two-sided" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unconscious (adjective)

Not conscious; lacking awareness and the capacity for sensory perception as if asleep or dead.

- Lay unconscious on the floor.
- The speaker chose "unconscious" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

verified (adjective)

Proved to be true.

- A verified claim.
- It is useful to describe something as "verified" when it is proved to be true.

---

vibe (noun)

A distinctive emotional aura experienced instinctively.

- It gave me a nostalgic vibe.

- Understanding “vibe” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wishing (noun)

A specific feeling of desire.

- He was above all wishing and desire.
- They discussed “wishing” during the group presentation.

---

atomic mass (noun)

(chemistry) the mass of an atom of a chemical element expressed in atomic mass units.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “atomic mass.”
- He looked up “atomic mass” because he had never seen it before.

---

ballet position (noun)

Classical position of the body and especially the feet in ballet.

- The article explained what “ballet position” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “ballet position” during the group presentation.

---

cigarette burn (noun)

A burn mark left by a smoldering cigarette.

- A cigarette burn on the edge of the table.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cigarette burn.”

---

civic spirit (noun)

Pride in your city.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “civic spirit.”
- He looked up “civic spirit” because he had never seen it before.

---

composite order (noun)

A Roman order that combines the Corinthian acanthus leaves with the spiral scrolls of the Ionic order.

- The article explained what “composite order” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “composite order” to mean a roman order that combines the corinthian acanthus....

---

conjunction (noun)

The temporal property of two things happening at the same time.

- In class, the teacher used “conjunction” to mean the temporal property of two things happening at....
- The article explained what “conjunction” means with a simple example.

---

copper colored (adjective)

Of something having the color of copper.

- The speaker chose “copper colored” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “copper colored” approach may work better in this case.

---

costly (adjective)

Entailing great loss or sacrifice.

- Costly jewelry.
- Students compared “costly” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

darker (adjective)

Devoid of or deficient in light or brightness; shadowed or black.

- The speaker chose “darker” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation “darker”? Explain why.

---

deep-eyed (adjective)

Characteristic of the bony face of a cadaver.

- It is useful to describe something as “deep-eyed” when it is characteristic of the bony face of a cadaver.
- Students compared “deep-eyed” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

disk shape (noun)

The roundness of a 2-dimensional figure.

- He looked up "disk shape" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disk shape."

---

dull-white (adjective)

Of a dull shade of white.

- The speaker chose "dull-white" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "dull-white"? Explain why.

---

enjoys (verb)

Derive or receive pleasure from; get enjoyment from; take pleasure in.

- The coach explained when to use "enjoys" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "enjoys" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

five-sided (adjective)

Having five sides.

- Would you call this situation "five-sided"? Explain why.
- A "five-sided" approach may work better in this case.

---

four-sided (adjective)

Having four sides.

- Would you call this situation "four-sided"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "four-sided" when it is having four sides.

---

full-fashioned (adjective)

Knitted to fit the shape of the body.

- Full-fashioned hosiery.
- The speaker chose "full-fashioned" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

green-eyed (adjective)

Suspicious or unduly suspicious or fearful of being displaced by a rival.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "green-eyed."
- The speaker chose "green-eyed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

handle with kid gloves (verb)

Handle with great care and sensitivity.

- You have to handle the students with kid gloves.
- The coach explained when to use "handle with kid gloves" and when to wait.

---

hot and bothered (adjective)

Thrown into a state of agitated confusion; ('rattled' is an informal term).

- A "hot and bothered" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "hot and bothered"? Explain why.

---

incoming (adjective)

Entering upon a position of office vacated by another.

- The incoming president.
- Incoming class.

---

jam-packed (adjective)

Filled to capacity.

- Stands jam-packed with fans.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "jam-packed."

---

motive power (noun)

The power or ability to move.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "motive power."
- They discussed "motive power" during the group presentation.

---

nervous breakdown (noun)

A severe or incapacitating emotional disorder.

- They discussed "nervous breakdown" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "nervous breakdown" means with a simple example.

---

offended (adjective)

Hurt or upset.

- She looked offended.
- A "offended" approach may work better in this case.

---

old-fashioned (adjective)

Out of fashion.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "old-fashioned."
- A "old-fashioned" approach may work better in this case.

---

olive-gray (adjective)

Of grey tinged with olive.

- The speaker chose "olive-gray" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "olive-gray"? Explain why.

---

pierce (verb)

Move or affect (a person's emotions or bodily feelings) deeply or sharply.

- The cold pierced her bones.
- Her words pierced the students.

---

prone (adjective)

Having a tendency (to); often used in combination.

- A child prone to mischief.
- Failure-prone.

---

reflecting (adjective)

Causing reflection or having a device that reflects.

- A reflecting microscope.
- The speaker chose "reflecting" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

round-eyed (adjective)

Exhibiting childlike simplicity and credulity.

- Listened in round-eyed wonder.
- It is useful to describe something as "round-eyed" when it is exhibiting childlike simplicity and credulity.

---

satisfying (adjective)

Providing abundant nourishment.

- The speaker chose "satisfying" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "satisfying" when it is providing abundant nourishment.

---

self-denying (adjective)

Willing to deprive yourself.

- The speaker chose "self-denying" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-denying" when it is willing to deprive yourself.

---

sixty-one (adjective)

Being one more than sixty.

- Would you call this situation "sixty-one"? Explain why.
- Students compared "sixty-one" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

sixty-two (adjective)

Being two more than sixty.

- Would you call this situation "sixty-two"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "sixty-two" because it captured the feeling precisely.

sonic (adjective)

(of speed) having or caused by speed approximately equal to that of sound in air at sea level.

- A sonic boom.
- It is useful to describe something as "sonic" when it is (of speed) having or caused by speed approximately....

stone-deaf (adjective)

Totally deaf; unable to hear anything.

- Would you call this situation "stone-deaf"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "stone-deaf" because it captured the feeling precisely.

texture (noun)

The musical pattern created by parts being played or sung together.

- Then another melodic line is added to the texture.
- The wall had a smooth texture.

thankful (adjective)

Feeling or showing gratitude.

- A thankful smile.
- The speaker chose "thankful" because it captured the feeling precisely.

three-sided (adjective)

Having three sides.

- Students compared "three-sided" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "three-sided" when it is having three sides.

unclear (adjective)

Poorly stated or described.

- The law itself was unclear on that point.
- The reason for their actions is unclear to this day.

absorbed (adjective)

Giving or marked by complete attention to; ; ; - Walter de la Mare.

- The absorbed light intensity.
- It is useful to describe something as "absorbed" when it is giving or marked by complete attention to; ; ; -....

affection (noun)

A positive feeling of liking.

- He had trouble expressing the affection he felt.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "affection."

altitude (noun)

Elevation especially above sea level or above the earth's surface.

- The altitude gave her a headache.
- Understanding "altitude" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

baked (adjective)

Dried out by heat or excessive exposure to sunlight.

- Land lying baked in the heat.
- Sunbaked salt flats.

bargain rate (noun)

A price below the standard price.

- Understanding "bargain rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bargain rate" because he had never seen it before.

---

cherry-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of a cherry.

- A "cherry-sized" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "cherry-sized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

cold-eyed (adjective)

Unaffected by strong emotion or prejudice.

- Students compared "cold-eyed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "cold-eyed" approach may work better in this case.

---

coloured (adjective)

Having color or a certain color; sometimes used in combination.

- The speaker chose "coloured" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "coloured" when it is having color or a certain color; sometimes used in....

---

competent (adjective)

Properly or sufficiently qualified or capable or efficient.

- A competent typist.
- A competent court.

---

cross-eyed (adjective)

Having convergent strabismus.

- Would you call this situation "cross-eyed"? Explain why.
- A "cross-eyed" approach may work better in this case.

---

drum-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in a form resembling a drum.

- Students compared "drum-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "drum-shaped"? Explain why.

---

easiest (adjective)

Posing no difficulty; requiring little effort.

- It is useful to describe something as "easiest" when it is posing no difficulty; requiring little effort.
- Would you call this situation "easiest"? Explain why.

---

enabling (adjective)

Providing legal power or sanction.

- An enabling resolution.
- Enabling power.

---

expressions (noun)

The feelings expressed on a person's face.

- Expressions of good will.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "expressions."

---

fierce (adjective)

Violently agitated and turbulent; ; - Ezra Pound.

- The fierce thunders roar me their music.
- Fierce fighting.

---

fig-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a fig.

- It is useful to describe something as "fig-shaped" when it is shaped in the form of a fig.

- The speaker chose "fig-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

forty-seventh (adjective)

The ordinal number of forty-seven in counting order.

- It is useful to describe something as "forty-seventh" when it is the ordinal number of forty-seven in counting order.
- The speaker chose "forty-seventh" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

gratitude (noun)

A feeling of thankfulness and appreciation.

- He was overwhelmed with gratitude for their help.
- The article explained what "gratitude" means with a simple example.

---

habit-forming (adjective)

Causing or characterized by addiction.

- A "habit-forming" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "habit-forming."

---

hooked (adjective)

Having or resembling a hook (especially in the ability to grasp and hold).

- Students compared "hooked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "hooked"? Explain why.

---

inequality (noun)

Lack of equality.

- The growing inequality between rich and poor.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inequality."

---

interpreted (adjective)

Understood in a certain way; made sense of.

- An open door interpreted as an invitation.
- Would you call this situation "interpreted"? Explain why.

---

moral excellence (noun)

The quality of doing what is right and avoiding what is wrong.

- They discussed "moral excellence" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moral excellence."

---

pink-collar (adjective)

Of or relating to a class of jobs once traditionally filled by women.

- A pink-collar employee.
- It is useful to describe something as "pink-collar" when it is of or relating to a class of jobs once....

---

pointed-toe (adjective)

Having a pointed toe.

- It is useful to describe something as "pointed-toe" when it is having a pointed toe.
- A "pointed-toe" approach may work better in this case.

---

polite (adjective)

Not rude; marked by satisfactory (or especially minimal) adherence to social usages and sufficient but not noteworthy consideration for others; - W.S. Maugham.

- A "polite" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "polite" when it is not rude; marked by satisfactory (or especially....

---

randy (adjective)

Feeling great sexual desire.

- Would you call this situation "randy"? Explain why.
- A "randy" approach may work better in this case.

---

reliability (noun)

The quality of being dependable or reliable.

- Understanding "reliability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "reliability" means with a simple example.

---

silver cord (noun)

The emotional bond between a mother and her offspring.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silver cord."
- The article explained what "silver cord" means with a simple example.

---

six-sided (adjective)

Having six sides.

- It is useful to describe something as "six-sided" when it is having six sides.
- The speaker chose "six-sided" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sixty-five (adjective)

Being five more than sixty.

- Students compared "sixty-five" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sixty-five."

---

sixty-four (adjective)

Being four more than sixty.

- Students compared "sixty-four" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "sixty-four" approach may work better in this case.

---

sixty-three (adjective)

Being three more than sixty.

- It is useful to describe something as "sixty-three" when it is being three more than sixty.
- A "sixty-three" approach may work better in this case.

---

smoked (adjective)

(used especially of meats and fish) dried and cured by hanging in wood smoke.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "smoked."
- Students compared "smoked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

tax hike (noun)

The amount by which taxes are increased.

- A tax increase of 15 percent.
- Understanding "tax hike" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

topped (adjective)

Having a top of a specified character.

- Students compared "topped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "topped" when it is having a top of a specified character.

---

underwater (adjective)

Beneath the surface of the water.

- The speaker chose "underwater" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "underwater" when it is beneath the surface of the water.

---

wide-eyed (adjective)

Exhibiting childlike simplicity and credulity.

- A "wide-eyed" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "wide-eyed" when it is exhibiting childlike simplicity and credulity.

---

accountability (noun)

Responsibility to someone or for some activity.

- They discussed "accountability" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "accountability."

---

amazed (adjective)

Filled with the emotional impact of overwhelming surprise or shock.

- An amazed audience gave the magician a standing ovation.
- Would you call this situation "amazed"? Explain why.

---

ambition (noun)

A strong drive for success.

- His ambition is to own his own business.
- They discussed "ambition" during the group presentation.

---

automated (adjective)

Operated by automation.

- An automated stoker.
- Students compared "automated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

bloody-minded (adjective)

Stubbornly obstructive and unwilling to cooperate; - Spectator.

- Unions...have never been as bloody-minded about demarcation as the shipbuilders.
- Bloody-minded tyrants.

---

charitable (adjective)

Showing or motivated by sympathy and understanding and generosity.

- Was charitable in his opinions of others.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "charitable."

---

clicking (verb)

Become clear or enter one's consciousness or emotions.

- She tried to use "clicking" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "clicking" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cold sober (adjective)

Totally sober.

- A "cold sober" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cold sober."

---

damaging (adjective)

(sometimes followed by 'to') causing harm or injury.

- Damaging to career and reputation.
- Would you call this situation "damaging"? Explain why.

---

eight-sided (adjective)

Having eight sides.

- The speaker chose "eight-sided" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "eight-sided" approach may work better in this case.

---

enjoyable (adjective)

Affording satisfaction or pleasure.

- The company was enjoyable.
- A "enjoyable" approach may work better in this case.

---

exotic (adjective)

Being or from or characteristic of another place or part of the world.

- Exotic plants in a greenhouse.
- Exotic cuisine.

exterior (adjective)

Situated in or suitable for the outdoors or outside of a building.

- An exterior scene.
- Exterior grade plywood.

fare increase (noun)

Increase in the sum charged for riding in a public conveyance.

- He looked up "fare increase" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fare increase."

fury (noun)

A feeling of intense anger.

- Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned.
- He looked up "fury" because he had never seen it before.

glow (noun)

A feeling of considerable warmth.

- The glow of new love.
- A glow of regret.

half-baked (adjective)

Foolish; totally unsound.

- Half-baked ideas.
- A "half-baked" approach may work better in this case.

half-seas-over (adjective)

British informal for 'intoxicated'.

- A "half-seas-over" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "half-seas-over" when it is british informal for 'intoxicated'.

hard-baked (adjective)

Baked until hard.

- The speaker chose "hard-baked" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "hard-baked"? Explain why.

high-altitude (adjective)

Occurring at or from a relative high altitude.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "high-altitude."
- Would you call this situation "high-altitude"? Explain why.

high-topped (adjective)

(of shoes or boots) having relatively high uppers.

- The speaker chose "high-topped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "high-topped"? Explain why.

high-velocity (adjective)

Operating at high speed.

- A high-velocity shell.
- Would you call this situation "high-velocity"? Explain why.

home-baked (adjective)

Baked at home.

- Home-baked cakes and pies.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "home-baked."

inherited (adjective)

Occurring among members of a family usually by heredity.

- An inherited disease.
- Would you call this situation "inherited"? Explain why.

---

kitty-corner (adjective)

Slanted across a polygon on a diagonal line.

- A "kitty-corner" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "kitty-corner."

---

labeled (adjective)

Bearing or marked with a label or tag.

- Properly labeled luggage.
- A "labeled" approach may work better in this case.

---

likelihood (noun)

The probability of a specified outcome.

- He looked up "likelihood" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "likelihood."

---

lone (adjective)

Being the only one; single and isolated from others.

- The lone doctor in the entire county.
- A lonesome pine.

---

natural virtue (noun)

(scholasticism) one of the four virtues (prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance) derived from nature.

- He looked up "natural virtue" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "natural virtue" to mean (scholasticism) one of the four virtues (prudence,....

---

neutral-colored (adjective)

Having a color that does not attract attention.

- Students compared "neutral-colored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "neutral-colored" when it is having a color that does not attract attention.

---

offshore (adjective)

(of winds) coming from the land.

- Offshore winds.
- Would you call this situation "offshore"? Explain why.

---

optional (adjective)

Possible but not necessary; left to personal choice.

- It is useful to describe something as "optional" when it is possible but not necessary; left to personal choice.
- Would you call this situation "optional"? Explain why.

---

prescribed (adjective)

Conforming to set usage, procedure, or discipline.

- In prescribed order.
- The speaker chose "prescribed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

refuge (noun)

Something or someone turned to for assistance or security.

- Took refuge in lying.
- Understanding "refuge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

relative molecular mass (noun)

(chemistry) the sum of the relative atomic masses of the constituent atoms of a molecule.

- Understanding "relative molecular mass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up "relative molecular mass" because he had never seen it before.

---

seven-sided (adjective)

Having seven sides.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "seven-sided."
- Would you call this situation "seven-sided"? Explain why.

---

sexual characteristic (noun)

Those characteristics (both anatomical and psychological) that are strongly associated with one sex relative to the other.

- They discussed "sexual characteristic" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sexual characteristic" because he had never seen it before.

---

shortage (noun)

The property of being an amount by which something is less than expected or required.

- The article explained what "shortage" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shortage" to mean the property of being an amount by which something....

---

sixty-six (adjective)

Being six more than sixty.

- Would you call this situation "sixty-six"? Explain why.
- A "sixty-six" approach may work better in this case.

---

smarter (adjective)

Characterized by quickness and ease in learning.

- Students compared "smarter" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "smarter" approach may work better in this case.

---

smiles (noun)

A facial expression characterized by turning up the corners of the mouth; usually shows pleasure or amusement.

- They discussed "smiles" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "smiles" to mean a facial expression characterized by turning up the....

---

ten-sided (adjective)

Having ten sides.

- A "ten-sided" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "ten-sided" when it is having ten sides.

---

transgender (adjective)

Involving a partial or full reversal of gender.

- A "transgender" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "transgender" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

troubled (adjective)

Characterized by or indicative of distress or affliction or danger or need.

- Troubled areas.
- Fell into a troubled sleep.

---

violated (adjective)

Treated irreverently or sacrilegiously.

- Students compared "violated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "violated" approach may work better in this case.

---

accountable (adjective)

Liable to account for one's actions.

- Governments must be accountable to someone beside themselves.
- Fully accountable for what they did.

---

aggression (noun)

A feeling of hostility that arouses thoughts of attack.

- In class, the teacher used "aggression" to mean a feeling of hostility that arouses thoughts of attack.
- The article explained what "aggression" means with a simple example.

---

analyzed (adjective)

Examined carefully and methodically; broken down for consideration of constituent parts.

- The analyzed data indicated surprising trends.
- A carefully analyzed poem can be like a dead butterfly pinned to a board.

---

baking hot (adjective)

As hot as if in an oven.

- A "baking hot" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "baking hot" when it is as hot as if in an oven.

---

basket-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a basket.

- It is useful to describe something as "basket-shaped" when it is shaped like a basket.
- A "basket-shaped" approach may work better in this case.

---

blamed (adjective)

Expletives used informally as intensifiers.

- It's a blamed shame.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "blamed."

---

boss-eyed (adjective)

(British informal) cross-eyed.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "boss-eyed."
- The speaker chose "boss-eyed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

clarity (noun)

The quality of clear water.

- When she awoke the clarity was back in her eyes.
- He looked up "clarity" because he had never seen it before.

---

confidential (adjective)

(of information) given in confidence or in secret.

- This arrangement must be kept confidential.
- A confidential secretary.

---

cracks (noun)

A blemish resulting from a break without complete separation of the parts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cracks."
- Understanding "cracks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

directing (adjective)

Showing the way by conducting or leading; imposing direction on.

- Felt his mother's directing arm around him.
- A "directing" approach may work better in this case.

---

discretion (noun)

The trait of judging wisely and objectively.

- The servants showed great tact and discretion.
- Understanding "discretion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

forty-eighth (adjective)

The ordinal number of forty-eight in counting order.

- It is useful to describe something as "forty-eighth" when it is the ordinal number of forty-eight in counting order.
- Students compared "forty-eighth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

foul-spoken (adjective)

Using foul or obscene language.

- A "foul-spoken" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "foul-spoken."

---

framed (adjective)

Provided with a frame.

- There were framed snapshots of family and friends on her desk.
- A "framed" approach may work better in this case.

---

gold-coloured (adjective)

Having the color of gold.

- Would you call this situation "gold-coloured"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "gold-coloured" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

horizontal (adjective)

Parallel to or in the plane of the horizon or a base line.

- A horizontal surface.
- It is useful to describe something as "horizontal" when it is parallel to or in the plane of the horizon or a....

---

hottest (adjective)

Of a seeker; very near to the object sought.

- A "hottest" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hottest."

---

last-ditch (adjective)

Of something done as a final recourse (especially to prevent a crisis or disaster).

- A last-ditch attempt.
- The speaker chose "last-ditch" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

lead-coloured (adjective)

Having the color of lead.

- Students compared "lead-coloured" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "lead-coloured" when it is having the color of lead.

---

long-wool (adjective)

(of sheep) having relatively long wool.

- Would you call this situation "long-wool"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "long-wool."

---

low-altitude (adjective)

Occurring at a relatively low altitude.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "low-altitude."
- Students compared "low-altitude" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

misleading (adjective)

Designed to deceive or mislead either deliberately or inadvertently.

- A misleading similarity.
- Statistics can be presented in ways that are misleading.

---

off-the-rack (adjective)

(especially of clothing) made in standard sizes and available from merchandise in stock.

- The speaker chose "off-the-rack" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "off-the-rack"? Explain why.

opt out (verb)

Choose not to do something, as out of fear of failing.

- She copped out when she was supposed to get into the hang glider.
- Can you use "opt out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

peanut (adjective)

Of little importance or influence or power; of minor status.

- Peanut politicians.
- A "peanut" approach may work better in this case.

persistent (adjective)

Stubbornly unyielding; ; ; ; - T.S.Eliot.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "persistent."
- Students compared "persistent" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

personalities (noun)

The complex of all the attributes–behavioral, temperamental, emotional and mental–that characterize a unique individual.

- Their different reactions reflected their very different personalities.
- In class, the teacher used "personalities" to mean the complex of all the attributes–behavioral,....

pig-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of a pig.

- Would you call this situation "pig-sized"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "pig-sized" because it captured the feeling precisely.

primary sex characteristic (noun)

The genetically determined sex characteristics bound up with reproduction (genitals and organs of reproduction).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "primary sex characteristic."
- He looked up "primary sex characteristic" because he had never seen it before.

relaxing (adjective)

Affording physical or mental rest.

- It is useful to describe something as "relaxing" when it is affording physical or mental rest.
- A "relaxing" approach may work better in this case.

self-absorbed (adjective)

Absorbed in your own interests or thoughts etc.

- The speaker chose "self-absorbed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "self-absorbed" approach may work better in this case.

self-coloured (adjective)

Of the same color throughout.

- It is useful to describe something as "self-coloured" when it is of the same color throughout.
- Students compared "self-coloured" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

sixty-eight (adjective)

Being eight more than sixty.

- A "sixty-eight" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "sixty-eight" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

sixty-seven (adjective)

Being seven more than sixty.

- The speaker chose "sixty-seven" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sixty-seven."

slope (noun)

The property possessed by a line or surface that departs from the horizontal.

- He climbed the steep slope.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slope."

---

sounding (noun)

A measure of the depth of water taken with a sounding line.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sounding."
- Understanding "sounding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spark advance (noun)

The timing of ignition relative to the position of the piston in an internal-combustion engine.

- The article explained what "spark advance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spark advance" to mean the timing of ignition relative to the position of....

---

sworn (adjective)

Bound by or stated on oath; - Shakespeare.

- Now my sworn friend and then mine enemy.
- A "sworn" approach may work better in this case.

---

terrific (adjective)

Extraordinarily good or great ; used especially as intensifiers.

- A terrific noise.
- A terrific thunderstorm storm.

---

thirty-ninth (adjective)

The ordinal number of thirty-nine in counting order.

- It is useful to describe something as "thirty-ninth" when it is the ordinal number of thirty-nine in counting order.
- The speaker chose "thirty-ninth" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

transparency (noun)

The quality of being clear and transparent.

- He looked up "transparency" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "transparency" during the group presentation.

---

waist-length (adjective)

(of clothing) extending only to the waist.

- The speaker chose "waist-length" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "waist-length" when it is (of clothing) extending only to the waist.

---

wild-eyed (adjective)

Not sensible about practical matters; idealistic and unrealistic.

- A wild-eyed dream of a world state.
- Crowded the wild-eyed animals into a truck.

---

withdrawn (adjective)

Withdrawn from society; seeking solitude.

- It is useful to describe something as "withdrawn" when it is withdrawn from society; seeking solitude.
- The speaker chose "withdrawn" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

absolute magnitude (noun)

(astronomy) the magnitude that a star would have if it were viewed from a distance of 10 parsecs (32.62 light years) from the earth.

- They discussed "absolute magnitude" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "absolute magnitude" to mean (astronomy) the magnitude that a star would have if....

---

adverse (adjective)

Contrary to your interests or welfare.

- Adverse circumstances.

- Adverse currents.

cellular (adjective)

Characterized by or divided into or containing cells or compartments (the smallest organizational or structural unit of an organism or organization).

- The cellular construction of a beehive.
- Any effective opposition to a totalitarian regime must be secretive and cellular.

consuming (adjective)

Very intense.

- Politics is his consuming passion.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "consuming."

contracted (adjective)

Reduced in size or pulled together.

- The contracted pupils of her eyes.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "contracted."

dark-coloured (adjective)

Having a dark color.

- Students compared "dark-coloured" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "dark-coloured"? Explain why.

destructive (adjective)

Causing destruction or much damage.

- A policy that is destructive to the economy.
- Destructive criticism.

device characteristic (noun)

Any measurable property of a device measured under closely specified conditions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "device characteristic."
- The article explained what "device characteristic" means with a simple example.

dislike (noun)

A feeling of aversion or antipathy.

- My dislike of him was instinctive.
- The article explained what "dislike" means with a simple example.

doubled (adjective)

Twice as great or many.

- The dose is doubled.
- The speaker chose "doubled" because it captured the feeling precisely.

dry-eyed (adjective)

Free from tears.

- A "dry-eyed" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "dry-eyed" when it is free from tears.

embedded (adjective)

Inserted as an integral part of a surrounding whole.

- Confused by the embedded Latin quotations.
- An embedded subordinate clause.

flesh-colored (adjective)

Having a bright red or pinkish color.

- A "flesh-colored" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flesh-colored."

fond (adjective)

Having or displaying warmth or affection.

- A fond embrace.
- Fond of his nephew.

---

foolish (adjective)

Devoid of good sense or judgment.

- Foolish remarks.
- A foolish decision.

---

fully fashioned (adjective)

Knitted to fit the shape of the body.

- Full-fashioned hosiery.
- The speaker chose "fully fashioned" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

gifted (adjective)

Endowed with talent or talents.

- A gifted writer.
- The speaker chose "gifted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

high-sounding (adjective)

Pretentious (especially with regard to language or ideals).

- A high-sounding dissertation on the means to attain social revolution.
- It is useful to describe something as "high-sounding" when it is pretentious (especially with regard to language or....

---

iraqi national congress (noun)

A heterogeneous collection of groups united in their opposition to Saddam Hussein's government of Iraq; formed in 1992 it is comprised of Sunni and Shiite Arabs and Kurds who hope to build a new government.

- He looked up "iraqi national congress" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iraqi national congress."

---

leaning (noun)

The property possessed by a line or surface that departs from the vertical.

- He felt leanings toward frivolity.
- Understanding "leaning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

liable (adjective)

(often followed by 'to') likely to be affected with.

- Liable to diabetes.
- She is liable to forget.

---

nine-sided (adjective)

Having nine sides.

- Would you call this situation "nine-sided"? Explain why.
- A "nine-sided" approach may work better in this case.

---

noble-minded (adjective)

Of high moral or intellectual value; elevated in nature or style; ; - Oliver Franks.

- Students compared "noble-minded" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "noble-minded."

---

purse-proud (adjective)

Proud or arrogant because of your wealth (especially in the absence of other distinction).

- It is useful to describe something as "purse-proud" when it is proud or arrogant because of your wealth....
- A "purse-proud" approach may work better in this case.

---

salmon pink (noun)

A shade of pink tinged with yellow.

- In class, the teacher used “salmon pink” to mean a shade of pink tinged with yellow.
- The article explained what “salmon pink” means with a simple example.

---

seated (adjective)

(of persons) having the torso erect and legs bent with the body supported on the buttocks.

- The seated Madonna.
- The audience remained seated.

---

solidarity (noun)

A union of interests or purposes or sympathies among members of a group.

- In class, the teacher used “solidarity” to mean a union of interests or purposes or sympathies....
- He looked up “solidarity” because he had never seen it before.

---

surprises (noun)

The astonishment you feel when something totally unexpected happens to you.

- In class, the teacher used “surprises” to mean the astonishment you feel when something totally....
- They discussed “surprises” during the group presentation.

---

throw in the towel (verb)

Give up in the face of defeat of lacking hope; admit defeat.

- In the second round, the challenger gave up.
- He did not know how to use “throw in the towel” until he saw an example.

---

time-consuming (adjective)

Of a task that takes time and patience.

- The speaker chose “time-consuming” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “time-consuming” approach may work better in this case.

---

trademark (noun)

A distinctive characteristic or attribute.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “trademark.”
- He looked up “trademark” because he had never seen it before.

---

weaker (adjective)

Deficient in intelligence or mental power.

- The speaker chose “weaker” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “weaker” when it is deficient in intelligence or mental power.

---

carved (adjective)

Made for or formed by carving (‘carven’ is archaic or literary).

- The carved fretwork.
- An intricately carved door.

---

chrome red (noun)

A red pigment used in paints; basic lead chromate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chrome red.”
- He looked up “chrome red” because he had never seen it before.

---

civic pride (noun)

Pride in your city.

- He looked up “civic pride” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “civic pride.”

---

credited (adjective)

(usually followed by ‘to’) given credit for.

- An invention credited to Edison.
- Would you call this situation “credited”? Explain why.

deaf-and-dumb (adjective)

Lacking the sense of hearing and the ability to speak.

- The speaker chose "deaf-and-dumb" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "deaf-and-dumb" when it is lacking the sense of hearing and the ability to speak.

distracted (adjective)

Having the attention diverted especially because of anxiety.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "distracted."
- Students compared "distracted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

ex-directory (adjective)

(of telephone numbers) not listed in the telephone directory; (British usage).

- An ex-directory number.
- A "ex-directory" approach may work better in this case.

immense (adjective)

Unusually great in size or amount or degree or especially extent or scope; ; ; ; ; ; ; ; ; - W.R.Inge.

- The Los Angeles aqueduct winds like an immense snake along the base of the mountains.
- Immense numbers of birds.

liver-colored (adjective)

Having a reddish-brown color.

- The speaker chose "liver-colored" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "liver-colored" approach may work better in this case.

optical density (noun)

(physics) a measure of the extent to which a substance transmits light or other electromagnetic radiation.

- In class, the teacher used "optical density" to mean (physics) a measure of the extent to which a....
- They discussed "optical density" during the group presentation.

oven-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like an oven.

- Students compared "oven-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "oven-shaped"? Explain why.

pink-slipped (adjective)

Having lost your job.

- Would you call this situation "pink-slipped"? Explain why.
- A "pink-slipped" approach may work better in this case.

pointless (adjective)

Not having a point especially a sharp point.

- My pencils are all pointless.
- The speaker chose "pointless" because it captured the feeling precisely.

reversed (adjective)

Turned inside out and resewn.

- The reversed collar looked as good as new.
- It is useful to describe something as "reversed" when it is turned inside out and resewn.

sadness (noun)

The quality of excessive mournfulness and uncheerfulness.

- She tired of his perpetual sadness.
- The article explained what "sadness" means with a simple example.

selective (adjective)

Characterized by very careful or fastidious selection.

- The school was very selective in its admissions.
- An exceptionally quick and selective reader.

---

shiny (adjective)

Made smooth and bright by or as if by rubbing; reflecting a sheen or glow.

- Shiny black patents.
- Saw the moon like a shiny dime on a deep blue velvet carpet.

---

sixty-fourth (adjective)

The ordinal number of sixty-four in counting order.

- Would you call this situation "sixty-fourth"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sixty-fourth."

---

stone-sober (adjective)

Totally sober.

- The speaker chose "stone-sober" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "stone-sober."

---

stressful (adjective)

Extremely irritating to the nerves.

- The stressful days before a war.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "stressful."

---

stretched (adjective)

Extended or spread over a wide area or distance.

- Broad fields lay stretched on both sides of us.
- Well-stretched muscles are less susceptible to injury.

---

abusive (adjective)

Characterized by physical or psychological maltreatment.

- Abusive punishment.
- Argued...that foster homes are abusive.

---

appetite (noun)

A feeling of craving something; ; - Granville Hicks.

- An appetite for life.
- Understanding "appetite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

combining weight (noun)

The atomic weight of an element that has the same combining capacity as a given weight of another element; the standard is 8 for oxygen.

- He looked up "combining weight" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "combining weight."

---

dissolved (adjective)

(of solid matter) reduced to a liquid form.

- Add the dissolved gelatin.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dissolved."

---

fishing expedition (noun)

An investigation undertaken in the hope (but not the stated purpose) of discovering information.

- The article explained what "fishing expedition" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fishing expedition."

---

guilty conscience (noun)

Remorse caused by feeling responsible for some offense.

- In class, the teacher used "guilty conscience" to mean remorse caused by feeling responsible for some offense.

- He looked up "guilty conscience" because he had never seen it before.

---

haunted (adjective)

Showing emotional affliction or disquiet.

- Her expression became progressively more haunted.
- Became more and more haunted by the stupid riddle.

---

heather (noun)

Interwoven yarns of mixed colors producing muted greyish shades with flecks of color.

- They discussed "heather" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "heather" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inclined (adjective)

At an angle to the horizontal or vertical position.

- An inclined plane.
- Wasn't inclined to believe the excuse.

---

informal (adjective)

Having or fostering a warm or friendly and informal atmosphere.

- A relaxed informal manner.
- An informal agreement.

---

kidney-shaped (adjective)

(of a leaf or bean shape) resembling the shape of kidney.

- Students compared "kidney-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "kidney-shaped."

---

lightly-armed (adjective)

Armed with light weapons.

- A "lightly-armed" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "lightly-armed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

loving-kindness (noun)

Tender kindness motivated by a feeling of affection.

- The article explained what "loving-kindness" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "loving-kindness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

messy (adjective)

Dirty and disorderly.

- A child's messy eating habits.
- The speaker chose "messy" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

metal-coloured (adjective)

Having a metallic color.

- The speaker chose "metal-coloured" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "metal-coloured."

---

moss green (adjective)

Of a moderate somewhat dull yellow-green color.

- The speaker chose "moss green" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "moss green" when it is of a moderate somewhat dull yellow-green color.

---

neighboring (adjective)

Having a common boundary or edge; abutting; touching.

- Neighboring cities.
- It is useful to describe something as "neighboring" when it is having a common boundary or edge; abutting; touching.

---

olive-sized (adjective)

About the size of an olive.

- The speaker chose "olive-sized" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "olive-sized" when it is about the size of an olive.

---

optimistic (adjective)

Expecting the best in this best of all possible worlds.

- In an optimistic mood.
- Optimistic plans.

---

outlined (adjective)

Showing clearly the outline or profile or boundary.

- The setting sun showed the outlined figure of a man standing on the hill.
- Students compared "outlined" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

primary sexual characteristic (noun)

The genetically determined sex characteristics bound up with reproduction (genitals and organs of reproduction).

- They discussed "primary sexual characteristic" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "primary sexual characteristic" means with a simple example.

---

problematic (adjective)

Making great mental demands; hard to comprehend or solve or believe.

- A problematic situation at home.
- If you ever get married, which seems to be extremely problematic.

---

prospective (adjective)

Of or concerned with or related to the future.

- Prospective earnings.
- A prospective mother.

---

selective information (noun)

(communication theory) a numerical measure of the uncertainty of an outcome.

- The signal contained thousands of bits of information.
- Understanding "selective information" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

self-destructive (adjective)

Dangerous to yourself or your interests.

- A "self-destructive" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-destructive" when it is dangerous to yourself or your interests.

---

sixty-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of sixty-five in counting order.

- A "sixty-fifth" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "sixty-fifth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

sliding (adjective)

Being a smooth continuous motion.

- Would you call this situation "sliding"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sliding."

---

stark naked (adjective)

(used informally) completely unclothed.

- Students compared "stark naked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "stark naked" approach may work better in this case.

---

surplus (noun)

A quantity much larger than is needed.

- In class, the teacher used "surplus" to mean a quantity much larger than is needed.
- They discussed "surplus" during the group presentation.

---

tone-deaf (adjective)

Unable to appreciate music.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tone-deaf."
- Students compared "tone-deaf" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

transmitted (adjective)

Occurring among members of a family usually by heredity.

- Genetically transmitted features.
- A "transmitted" approach may work better in this case.

---

unacceptable (adjective)

Not acceptable; not welcome.

- A word unacceptable in polite society.
- An unacceptable violation of personal freedom.

---

unaware (adjective)

(often followed by 'of') not aware.

- Seemed unaware of the scrutiny.
- Unaware of the danger they were in.

---

uncommon (adjective)

Not common or ordinarily encountered; unusually great in amount or remarkable in character or kind.

- Uncommon birds.
- Frost and floods are uncommon during these months.

---

underway (adjective)

Currently in progress.

- Preparations for the trial are underway.
- The speaker chose "underway" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

unified (adjective)

Formed or united into a whole.

- A unified utility system.
- Would you call this situation "unified"? Explain why.

---

unstable (adjective)

Lacking stability or fixity or firmness.

- Unstable political conditions.
- The tower proved to be unstable in the high wind.

---

vague (adjective)

Not precisely limited, determined, or distinguished.

- Vague feelings of sadness.
- A vague uneasiness.

---

abundance (noun)

The property of a more than adequate quantity or supply.

- An age of abundance.
- They discussed "abundance" during the group presentation.

---

accident-prone (adjective)

Having more than the average number of accidents.

- Students compared "accident-prone" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "accident-prone."

advancing (adjective)

Moving forward.

- The speaker chose "advancing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "advancing" when it is moving forward.

browns (noun)

An orange of low brightness and saturation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "browns."
- The article explained what "browns" means with a simple example.

cookie-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of a cookie.

- Students compared "cookie-sized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "cookie-sized" when it is having the approximate size of a cookie.

deep-seated (adjective)

(used especially of ideas or principles) deeply rooted; firmly fixed or held.

- Deep-seated differences of opinion.
- The speaker chose "deep-seated" because it captured the feeling precisely.

disk-shaped (adjective)

Having a flat circular shape.

- The speaker chose "disk-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "disk-shaped" when it is having a flat circular shape.

envelope (noun)

The maximum operating capability of a system (especially an aircraft).

- Test pilots try to push the envelope.
- The spacecraft detected an envelope of gas around the comet.

flat-topped (adjective)

Having a flat or flattened upper surface.

- Students compared "flat-topped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flat-topped."

fragile (adjective)

Lacking substance or significance; ; ; ; a fragile claim to fame".

- Fragile porcelain plates.
- Fragile old bones.

granite (noun)

Something having the quality of granite (unyielding firmness).

- A man of granite.
- Understanding "granite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hail-fellow (adjective)

Heartily friendly and congenial.

- Students compared "hail-fellow" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hail-fellow."

hardy (adjective)

Able to survive under unfavorable weather conditions.

- Strawberries are hardy and easy to grow.
- Camels are tough and hardy creatures.

helmet-shaped (adjective)

Having the convex shape of a helmet.

- A "helmet-shaped" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "helmet-shaped" when it is having the convex shape of a helmet.

---

high renaissance (noun)

The artistic style of early 16th century painting in Florence and Rome; characterized by technical mastery and heroic composition and humanistic content.

- He looked up "high renaissance" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "high renaissance" to mean the artistic style of early 16th century painting....

---

inviting (adjective)

Attractive and tempting.

- An inviting offer.
- Would you call this situation "inviting"? Explain why.

---

lethal (adjective)

Of an instrument of certain death.

- Lethal weapon.
- A lethal injection.

---

lively (adjective)

Full of life and energy.

- A lively discussion.
- Lively and attractive parents.

---

lowered (adjective)

Below the surround or below the normal position.

- With lowered eyes.
- Students compared "lowered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

maple-like (adjective)

Resembling maple.

- The speaker chose "maple-like" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "maple-like"? Explain why.

---

mortal (adjective)

Involving loss of divine grace or spiritual death.

- Mortal enemy.
- Mortal combat.

---

one hundred sixty (adjective)

Being ten more than one hundred fifty.

- A "one hundred sixty" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one hundred sixty."

---

pickup (noun)

The attribute of being capable of rapid acceleration.

- His car has a lot of pickup.
- Put out a pickup on that man.

---

po-faced (adjective)

Humorless and disapproving.

- A "po-faced" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "po-faced"? Explain why.

---

poker-faced (adjective)

Deliberately impassive in manner.

- The speaker chose "poker-faced" because it captured the feeling precisely.

- It is useful to describe something as "poker-faced" when it is deliberately impassive in manner.

---

pouring (adjective)

Flowing profusely.

- Pouring flood waters.
- Students compared "pouring" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

prestigious (adjective)

Having an illustrious reputation; respected.

- A prestigious author.
- A prestigious professor at a prestigious university.

---

quantities (noun)

An adequate or large amount.

- The article explained what "quantities" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "quantities" during the group presentation.

---

risen (adjective)

(of e.g. celestial bodies) above the horizon.

- The risen sun.
- A "risen" approach may work better in this case.

---

sad sack (noun)

Someone who makes mistakes because of incompetence.

- In class, the teacher used "sad sack" to mean someone who makes mistakes because of incompetence.
- He looked up "sad sack" because he had never seen it before.

---

solid-coloured (adjective)

Having the same color all over.

- A "solid-coloured" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "solid-coloured" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

street credibility (noun)

Credibility among young fashionable urban individuals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "street credibility."
- The article explained what "street credibility" means with a simple example.

---

tempted (verb)

Give rise to a desire by being attractive or inviting.

- The window displays tempted the shoppers.
- We were tempted by the delicious-looking food.

---

weights (noun)

The relative importance granted to something.

- He placed two weights in the scale pan.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weights."

---

wine-coloured (noun)

A red as dark as red wine.

- The article explained what "wine-coloured" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wine-coloured" to mean a red as dark as red wine.

---

wiped out (adjective)

Destroyed financially.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wiped out."
- Students compared "wiped out" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

accompanying (adjective)

Following or accompanying as a consequence.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "accompanying."
- Students compared "accompanying" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

aired (adjective)

Open to or abounding in fresh air.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "aired."
- The speaker chose "aired" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

arbitrary (adjective)

Based on or subject to individual discretion or preference or sometimes impulse or caprice.

- An arbitrary decision.
- The arbitrary rule of a dictator.

---

autonomous (adjective)

(of political bodies) not controlled by outside forces.

- An autonomous judiciary.
- The partitioning of India created two separate and autonomous jute economies.

---

carriage (noun)

Characteristic way of bearing one's body.

- Understanding "carriage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "carriage" to mean characteristic way of bearing one's body.

---

coral-red (adjective)

Of red tinged with coral.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "coral-red."
- A "coral-red" approach may work better in this case.

---

desirable (adjective)

Worthy of being chosen especially as a spouse.

- The speaker chose "desirable" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "desirable" when it is worthy of being chosen especially as a spouse.

---

devastating (adjective)

Wreaking or capable of wreaking complete destruction.

- A devastating hurricane.
- A devastating portrait of human folly.

---

favorable (adjective)

(of winds or weather) tending to promote or facilitate.

- The days were fair and the winds were favorable.
- A favorable reply.

---

governmental (adjective)

Relating to or dealing with the affairs or structure of government or politics or the state.

- Governmental policy.
- Public confidence and governmental morale.

---

half-hardy (adjective)

(of plants) requiring protection from frost.

- Half-hardy annuals.
- Would you call this situation "half-hardy"? Explain why.

---

heavier (adjective)

Of comparatively great physical weight or density.

- Would you call this situation "heavier"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "heavier" when it is of comparatively great physical weight or density.

---

hundred-and-tenth (adjective)

The ordinal number of one hundred ten in counting order.

- Students compared "hundred-and-tenth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hundred-and-tenth."

---

incomplete (adjective)

Not complete or total; not completed.

- An incomplete account of his life.
- Political consequences of incomplete military success.

---

interrupted (adjective)

Intermittently stopping and starting.

- Fitful (or interrupted) sleep.
- We resumed the interrupted discussion.

---

ivory (noun)

A shade of white the color of bleached bones.

- They discussed "ivory" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ivory."

---

lengthy (adjective)

Relatively long in duration; tediously protracted.

- A lengthy visit from her mother-in-law.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "lengthy."

---

magnetic intensity (noun)

The amount of magnetic flux in a unit area perpendicular to the direction of magnetic flow.

- They discussed "magnetic intensity" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "magnetic intensity" because he had never seen it before.

---

naturally occurring (adjective)

Existing by nature and without artificial aid.

- One of the 93 naturally occurring chemical elements.
- It is useful to describe something as "naturally occurring" when it is existing by nature and without artificial aid.

---

one hundred sixty-five (adjective)

Being five more than one hundred sixty.

- Would you call this situation "one hundred sixty-five"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "one hundred sixty-five" when it is being five more than one hundred sixty.

---

portrayed (adjective)

Represented graphically by sketch or design or lines.

- Would you call this situation "portrayed"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "portrayed."

---

possessed (adjective)

Influenced or controlled by a powerful force such as a strong emotion.

- By love possessed.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "possessed."

---

rabbit-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of a rabbit.

- Students compared "rabbit-sized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "rabbit-sized" approach may work better in this case.

secondary sex characteristic (noun)

The genetically determined sex characteristics that are not functionally necessary for reproduction (pitch of the voice and body hair and musculature).

- They discussed "secondary sex characteristic" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secondary sex characteristic."

self-examining (adjective)

Given to examining own sensory and perceptual experiences.

- The speaker chose "self-examining" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-examining" when it is given to examining own sensory and perceptual....

semi-processed (adjective)

Having been subjected to partial processing.

- The speaker chose "semi-processed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "semi-processed"? Explain why.

sequences (noun)

A following of one thing after another in time.

- In class, the teacher used "sequences" to mean a following of one thing after another in time.
- He looked up "sequences" because he had never seen it before.

sharp-eyed (adjective)

Keenly perceptive or alert; - Leonard Bacon.

- Would you call this situation "sharp-eyed"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "sharp-eyed" when it is keenly perceptive or alert; - leonard bacon.

successive (adjective)

In regular succession without gaps.

- A "successive" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "successive" because it captured the feeling precisely.

timely (adjective)

Done or happening at the appropriate or proper time.

- A timely warning.
- With timely treatment the patient has a good chance of recovery.

anal personality (noun)

(psychoanalysis) a personality characterized by meticulous neatness and suspicion and reserve; said to be formed in early childhood by fixation during the anal stage of development (usually as a consequence of toilet training).

- He looked up "anal personality" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "anal personality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

branded (adjective)

(of goods and merchandise) marked or labeled by a distinctive word or symbol indicating exclusive rights.

- Branded merchandise is that bearing a standard brand name.
- It is useful to describe something as "branded" when it is (of goods and merchandise) marked or labeled by a....

commanding (adjective)

Used of a height or viewpoint.

- A commanding view of the ocean.
- The speaker chose "commanding" because it captured the feeling precisely.

crashing (adjective)

Informal intensifiers.

- A crashing bore.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "crashing."

enthusiastic (adjective)

Having or showing great excitement and interest.

- Enthusiastic crowds filled the streets.
- An enthusiastic response.

---

envy (noun)

A feeling of grudging admiration and desire to have something that is possessed by another.

- In class, the teacher used "envy" to mean a feeling of grudging admiration and desire to have....
- Understanding "envy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

error-prone (adjective)

Capable of making an error.

- All men are error-prone.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "error-prone."

---

hating (verb)

Dislike intensely; feel antipathy or aversion towards.

- He did not know how to use "hating" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "hating" when talking about this idea.

---

heavier-than-air (adjective)

Relating to an aircraft heavier than the air it displaces.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "heavier-than-air."
- Students compared "heavier-than-air" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

heroic (adjective)

Of behavior that is impressive and ambitious in scale or scope.

- Heroic undertakings.
- Of heroic proportions.

---

olive-colored (adjective)

Having the color of green olives.

- It is useful to describe something as "olive-colored" when it is having the color of green olives.
- Students compared "olive-colored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

orange-coloured (adjective)

Having the color of ripe oranges.

- It is useful to describe something as "orange-coloured" when it is having the color of ripe oranges.
- Students compared "orange-coloured" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

oxygen deficit (noun)

Temporary oxygen shortage in cells resulting from strenuous exercise.

- He looked up "oxygen deficit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "oxygen deficit" during the group presentation.

---

rains (noun)

Anything happening rapidly or in quick successive.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rains."
- Understanding "rains" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

recovering (adjective)

Returning to health after illness or debility.

- Would you call this situation "recovering"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "recovering."

---

sincere (adjective)

Characterized by a firm and humorless belief in the validity of your opinions.

- An entirely sincere and cruel tyrant.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “sincere.”

sound judgement (noun)

The capacity to assess situations or circumstances shrewdly and to draw sound conclusions.

- In class, the teacher used “sound judgement” to mean the capacity to assess situations or circumstances....
- They discussed “sound judgement” during the group presentation.

spill over (verb)

Overflow with a certain feeling.

- The children bubbled over with joy.
- My boss was bubbling over with anger.

stripped (adjective)

Having only essential or minimal features.

- A stripped new car.
- A stripped-down budget.

stripped-down (adjective)

Having only essential or minimal features.

- A stripped-down budget.
- Students compared “stripped-down” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

tasty (adjective)

Pleasing to the sense of taste.

- A tasty morsel.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “tasty.”

thrown and twisted (adjective)

Twisted together; as of filaments spun into a thread.

- Thrown silk is raw silk that has been twisted and doubled into yarn.
- A “thrown and twisted” approach may work better in this case.

violet (noun)

A variable color that lies beyond blue in the spectrum.

- They discussed “violet” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “violet.”

well-grounded (adjective)

Logically valid.

- A “well-grounded” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “well-grounded”? Explain why.

wishing cap (noun)

A magical cap that secures whatever one wishes for.

- The article explained what “wishing cap” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “wishing cap” to mean a magical cap that secures whatever one wishes for.

agreeing (verb)

Achieve harmony of opinion, feeling, or purpose.

- Learners should practice how to use “agreeing” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “agreeing” when talking about this idea.

bean-shaped (adjective)

Having a shape resembling a bean.

- It is useful to describe something as “bean-shaped” when it is having a shape resembling a bean.
- Would you call this situation “bean-shaped”? Explain why.

carved in stone (adjective)

No longer changeable.

- The agreement is not yet set in stone.
- The speaker chose "carved in stone" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

charities (noun)

A kindly and lenient attitude toward people.

- Understanding "charities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charities."

---

curved (adjective)

Having or marked by a curve or smoothly rounded bend.

- The curved tusks of a walrus.
- His curved lips suggested a smile but his eyes were hard.

---

depressing (adjective)

Causing sad feelings of gloom and inadequacy.

- The economic outlook is depressing.
- Would you call this situation "depressing"? Explain why.

---

differential (noun)

A quality that differentiates between similar things.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "differential."
- Understanding "differential" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dominance (noun)

The power or right to give orders or make decisions.

- Her apparent dominance of her husband was really her attempt to make him pay attention to her.
- In class, the teacher used "dominance" to mean the power or right to give orders or make decisions.

---

entertain (verb)

Maintain (a theory, thoughts, or feelings).

- Entertain interesting notions.
- He entertained the notion of moving to South America.

---

favorable position (noun)

The quality of being at a competitive advantage.

- The article explained what "favorable position" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "favorable position" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flown (verb)

Change quickly from one emotional state to another.

- The coach explained when to use "flown" and when to wait.
- Can you use "flown" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

forty-ninth (adjective)

The ordinal number of forty-nine in counting order.

- Would you call this situation "forty-ninth"? Explain why.
- Students compared "forty-ninth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

frost-bound (adjective)

(of the ground) made hard by frost.

- A "frost-bound" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "frost-bound."

---

good humour (noun)

A cheerful and agreeable mood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good humour."
- They discussed "good humour" during the group presentation.

---

good manners (noun)

A courteous manner.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "good manners."
- He looked up "good manners" because he had never seen it before.

---

government-in-exile (noun)

A temporary government moved to or formed in a foreign land by exiles who hope to rule when their country is liberated.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "government-in-exile."
- He looked up "government-in-exile" because he had never seen it before.

---

green-eyed monster (noun)

A feeling of jealous envy (especially of a rival).

- They discussed "green-eyed monster" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "green-eyed monster" means with a simple example.

---

hail-fellow-well-met (adjective)

Heartily friendly and congenial.

- Students compared "hail-fellow-well-met" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hail-fellow-well-met."

---

high-pitched (adjective)

Used of sounds and voices; high in pitch or frequency.

- Students compared "high-pitched" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "high-pitched."

---

humour (noun)

The trait of appreciating (and being able to express) the humorous.

- In class, the teacher used "humour" to mean the trait of appreciating (and being able to....
- He looked up "humour" because he had never seen it before.

---

inherent (adjective)

Existing as an essential constituent or characteristic.

- Shortcomings inherent in our approach.
- The speaker chose "inherent" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

iron fist (noun)

Rigorous or ruthless control.

- She rules the office with an iron fist.
- It takes an iron fist to contain the dissenting factions.

---

low-pitched (adjective)

Used of sounds and voices; low in pitch or frequency.

- Students compared "low-pitched" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "low-pitched."

---

manners (noun)

Social deportment.

- He has the manners of a pig.
- In class, the teacher used "manners" to mean social deportment.

---

merry (adjective)

Full of or showing high-spirited merriment; ; - Wordsworth.

- Have a merry Christmas.
- Peals of merry laughter.

multi-coloured (adjective)

Having sections or patches colored differently and usually brightly.

- The speaker chose "multi-coloured" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "multi-coloured" when it is having sections or patches colored differently and....

nationalism (noun)

Love of country and willingness to sacrifice for it.

- British nationalism was in the air and patriotic sentiments ran high.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nationalism."

naughty (adjective)

Suggestive of sexual impropriety.

- A naughty wink.
- Naughty words.

needle-shaped (adjective)

Narrow and long and pointed; as pine leaves.

- A "needle-shaped" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "needle-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.

notorious (adjective)

Known widely and usually unfavorably.

- A notorious gangster.
- The tenderloin district was notorious for vice.

oval-shaped (adjective)

Rounded like an egg.

- Students compared "oval-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "oval-shaped."

pale-colored (adjective)

Having a pale color.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pale-colored."
- The speaker chose "pale-colored" because it captured the feeling precisely.

red-violet (adjective)

Of violet tinged with red.

- A "red-violet" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "red-violet."

refined (adjective)

Freed from impurities by processing; ; ; - Shakespeare.

- Refined sugar.
- Refined oil.

refreshing (adjective)

Pleasantly new or different.

- Common sense of a most refreshing sort.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "refreshing."

reinforced (adjective)

(used of soaps or cleaning agents) having a substance (an abrasive or filler) added to increase effectiveness.

- Reinforced concrete contains steel bars or metal netting.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "reinforced."

self-possessed (adjective)

In full control of your faculties.

- Strong and self-possessed in the face of trouble.
- Students compared "self-possessed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

silver lining (noun)

A consoling aspect of a difficult situation.

- Every cloud has a silver lining.
- Understanding "silver lining" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

simpler (adjective)

Having few parts; not complex or complicated or involved.

- Would you call this situation "simpler"? Explain why.
- Students compared "simpler" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

sinking (noun)

A feeling caused by uneasiness or apprehension.

- With a sinking heart.
- A sinking feeling in the pit of my stomach.

---

sorted (adjective)

Arranged according to size.

- The speaker chose "sorted" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sorted."

---

staged (adjective)

Written for or performed on the stage.

- A staged version of the novel.
- Would you call this situation "staged"? Explain why.

---

straightforward (adjective)

Without concealment or deception; honest.

- Straightforward in all his business affairs.
- A straightforward set of instructions.

---

strengths (noun)

The property of being physically or mentally strong.

- He looked up "strengths" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "strengths" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thoughtful (adjective)

Exhibiting or characterized by careful thought.

- A thoughtful paper.
- It is useful to describe something as "thoughtful" when it is exhibiting or characterized by careful thought.

---

vicious (adjective)

Marked by deep ill will; deliberately harmful.

- Vicious gossip.
- Vicious kicks.

---

violet-black (adjective)

Of black tinged with violet.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "violet-black."
- Students compared "violet-black" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

wage hike (noun)

The amount a salary is increased.

- He got a wage hike.

- They discussed "wage hike" during the group presentation.

---

addicted (adjective)

Compulsively or physiologically dependent on something habit-forming.

- She is addicted to chocolate.
- Addicted to cocaine.

---

bad manners (noun)

Impoliteness resulting from ignorance.

- The article explained what "bad manners" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bad manners" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bats (adjective)

Informal or slang terms for mentally irregular.

- It is useful to describe something as "bats" when it is informal or slang terms for mentally irregular.
- The speaker chose "bats" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

blue-violet (adjective)

Of violet tinted with blue.

- It is useful to describe something as "blue-violet" when it is of violet tinted with blue.
- A "blue-violet" approach may work better in this case.

---

chocolate-coloured (adjective)

Having the color of dark chocolate.

- Students compared "chocolate-coloured" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "chocolate-coloured" when it is having the color of dark chocolate.

---

confined (adjective)

Not invading healthy tissue.

- Students compared "confined" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "confined."

---

consolidated (adjective)

Joined together into a whole.

- A consolidated school.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "consolidated."

---

despair (noun)

A state in which all hope is lost or absent.

- In the depths of despair.
- They were rescued from despair at the last minute.

---

dragging (adjective)

Marked by a painfully slow and effortful manner.

- It was a strange dragging approach.
- Years of dragging war.

---

extensions (noun)

The ability to raise the working leg high in the air.

- Most applications provide extensions for the files they create.
- In class, the teacher used "extensions" to mean the ability to raise the working leg high in the air.

---

fellows (noun)

A man who is the lover of a girl or young woman.

- Understanding "fellows" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fellows" because he had never seen it before.

---

flame-colored (adjective)

Having the brilliant orange-red color of flames.

- Students compared "flame-colored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "flame-colored" approach may work better in this case.

high-flown (adjective)

Of high moral or intellectual value; elevated in nature or style; ; - Oliver Franks.

- Argue in terms of high-flown ideals.
- High-flown talk of preserving the moral tone of the school.

inadequate (adjective)

Lacking the requisite qualities or resources to meet a task.

- Inadequate training.
- The staff was inadequate.

louder (adjective)

Used chiefly as a direction or description in music.

- The speaker chose "louder" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "louder" when it is used chiefly as a direction or description in music.

love-token (noun)

Keepsake given as a token of love.

- Understanding "love-token" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "love-token" means with a simple example.

moss-grown (adjective)

(used pejoratively) out of fashion; old fashioned.

- Moss-grown ideas about family life.
- Would you call this situation "moss-grown"? Explain why.

nut-bearing (adjective)

(of shrubs or trees) producing nuts.

- It is useful to describe something as "nut-bearing" when it is (of shrubs or trees) producing nuts.
- The speaker chose "nut-bearing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

overlooked (adjective)

Not taken into account.

- Would you call this situation "overlooked"? Explain why.
- A "overlooked" approach may work better in this case.

positively charged (adjective)

Having a positive charge.

- Would you call this situation "positively charged"? Explain why.
- A "positively charged" approach may work better in this case.

practiced (adjective)

Having or showing knowledge and skill and aptitude.

- A practiced marksman.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "practiced."

property-owning (adjective)

Owning land or securities as a principal source of revenue.

- Would you call this situation "property-owning"? Explain why.
- Students compared "property-owning" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

reckless (adjective)

Characterized by careless unconcern; - Edith Wharton.

- Reckless squandering of public funds.
- Became the fiercest and most reckless of partisans.

---

relative atomic mass (noun)

(chemistry) the mass of an atom of a chemical element expressed in atomic mass units.

- They discussed "relative atomic mass" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "relative atomic mass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rooted (adjective)

Absolutely still.

- They stood rooted in astonishment.
- A "rooted" approach may work better in this case.

---

rule-governed (adjective)

According to custom or rule or natural law.

- A "rule-governed" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "rule-governed" when it is according to custom or rule or natural law.

---

secondary sexual characteristic (noun)

The genetically determined sex characteristics that are not functionally necessary for reproduction (pitch of the voice and body hair and musculature).

- The article explained what "secondary sexual characteristic" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "secondary sexual characteristic" to mean the genetically determined sex characteristics that....

---

structured (adjective)

Having definite and highly organized structure.

- A structured environment.
- A "structured" approach may work better in this case.

---

sunrise (adjective)

Of an industry or technology; new and developing.

- High-technology sunrise industries.
- The speaker chose "sunrise" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

tagged (adjective)

Bearing or marked with a label or tag.

- Would you call this situation "tagged"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "tagged" when it is bearing or marked with a label or tag.

---

unprecedented (adjective)

Having no precedent; novel.

- An unprecedented expansion in population and industry.
- Would you call this situation "unprecedented"? Explain why.

---

violet-blue (adjective)

Of blue tinged with lavender.

- It is useful to describe something as "violet-blue" when it is of blue tinged with lavender.
- A "violet-blue" approach may work better in this case.

---

willingness (noun)

Cheerful compliance.

- He expressed his willingness to help.
- They discussed "willingness" during the group presentation.

---

woody (adjective)

Made of or containing or resembling wood.

- Woody plants.
- Perennial herbs with woody stems.

worthless (adjective)

Lacking in usefulness or value.

- A worthless idler.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "worthless."

beta-blocking agent (noun)

Any of various drugs used in treating hypertension or arrhythmia; decreases force and rate of heart contractions by blocking beta-adrenergic receptors of the autonomic nervous system.

- The article explained what "beta-blocking agent" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beta-blocking agent."

blow one's stack (verb)

Get very angry and fly into a rage.

- The coach explained when to use "blow one's stack" and when to wait.
- Can you use "blow one's stack" in a sentence that fits this situation?

competitor (noun)

The contestant you hope to defeat.

- Understanding "competitor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "competitor" because he had never seen it before.

differential cost (noun)

The increase or decrease in costs as a result of one more or one less unit of output.

- In class, the teacher used "differential cost" to mean the increase or decrease in costs as a result of....
- The article explained what "differential cost" means with a simple example.

drift away (verb)

Lose personal contact over time.

- The two women, who had been roommates in college, drifted apart after they got married.
- Can you use "drift away" in a sentence that fits this situation?

enjoyment (noun)

The pleasure felt when having a good time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "enjoyment."
- He looked up "enjoyment" because he had never seen it before.

expired (adjective)

Having come to an end or become void after passage of a period of time.

- An expired passport.
- Caught driving with an expired license.

fur-bearing (adjective)

Of animals having fur (especially of commercial quality).

- Would you call this situation "fur-bearing"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fur-bearing."

good temper (noun)

A cheerful and agreeable mood.

- In class, the teacher used "good temper" to mean a cheerful and agreeable mood.
- Understanding "good temper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

growing pains (noun)

Emotional distress arising during adolescence.

- He looked up "growing pains" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "growing pains" during the group presentation.

healthier (adjective)

Improved in health or physical condition.

- Would you call this situation "healthier"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "healthier" when it is improved in health or physical condition.

---

homemade (adjective)

Made or produced in the home or by yourself.

- Homemade bread.
- Students compared "homemade" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

honorable (adjective)

Worthy of being honored; entitled to honor and respect.

- An honorable man.
- Led an honorable life.

---

hundred-and-sixty-fifth (adjective)

The ordinal number of one hundred sixty-five in counting order.

- Would you call this situation "hundred-and-sixty-fifth"? Explain why.
- Students compared "hundred-and-sixty-fifth" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

injustice (noun)

The practice of being unjust or unfair.

- Understanding "injustice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "injustice" because he had never seen it before.

---

kindle (verb)

Call forth (emotions, feelings, and responses).

- The dried grass of the prairie kindled, spreading the flames for miles.
- The setting sun kindled the sky with oranges and reds.

---

lance-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a lance.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "lance-shaped."
- A "lance-shaped" approach may work better in this case.

---

lap-streak (adjective)

Having overlapping hull planks.

- Students compared "lap-streak" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "lap-streak" when it is having overlapping hull planks.

---

metallic-looking (adjective)

Resembling metal.

- A "metallic-looking" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "metallic-looking" when it is resembling metal.

---

missionary position (noun)

A position for sexual intercourse; a man and woman lie facing each other with the man on top; so-called because missionaries thought it the proper position for primitive peoples.

- The article explained what "missionary position" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "missionary position" to mean a position for sexual intercourse; a man and woman....

---

obesity (noun)

More than average fatness.

- They discussed "obesity" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "obesity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

privileged (adjective)

Blessed with privileges.

- The privileged few.

- A "privileged" approach may work better in this case.

---

prolonged (adjective)

Relatively long in duration; tediously protracted.

- A prolonged and bitter struggle.
- A prolonged black line across the page.

---

reluctant (adjective)

Unwillingness to do something contrary to your custom.

- A reluctant smile.
- They were usually reluctant to socialize.

---

rising slope (noun)

The property possessed by a slope or surface that rises.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rising slope."
- Understanding "rising slope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rotten (adjective)

Damaged by decay; hence unsound and useless.

- Rotten floor boards.
- Dead and rotten in his grave.

---

sage green (noun)

The color of sage leaves.

- They discussed "sage green" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sage green" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sage-green (adjective)

Of the grey-green color of sage leaves.

- It is useful to describe something as "sage-green" when it is of the grey-green color of sage leaves.
- Would you call this situation "sage-green"? Explain why.

---

sense of humour (noun)

The trait of appreciating (and being able to express) the humorous.

- You can't survive in the army without a sense of humor.
- The article explained what "sense of humour" means with a simple example.

---

sexual morality (noun)

Morality with respect to sexual relations.

- They discussed "sexual morality" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sexual morality" because he had never seen it before.

---

sinking feeling (noun)

A feeling caused by uneasiness or apprehension.

- With a sinking heart.
- A sinking feeling in the pit of my stomach.

---

slate-black (adjective)

Of a black tinged with slate-grey.

- A "slate-black" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "slate-black" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

spoiled (adjective)

(of foodstuffs) not in an edible or usable condition.

- A spoiled child.
- Would you call this situation "spoiled"? Explain why.

---

sympathetic (adjective)

Of or relating to the sympathetic nervous system.

- Sympathetic neurons.
- Sympathetic stimulation.

---

temper (noun)

A disposition to exhibit uncontrolled anger.

- His temper was well known to all his employees.
- His temper sparked like damp firewood.

---

weighed down (adjective)

Full of; bearing great weight.

- Vines weighed down with grapes.
- Bowed down with troubles.

---

aligned (adjective)

Brought into agreement or cooperation on the side of a faction, party, or cause.

- Students compared "aligned" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "aligned"? Explain why.

---

ash-blonde (adjective)

Of hair color; whitish.

- A "ash-blonde" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ash-blonde."

---

awe (noun)

An overwhelming feeling of wonder or admiration.

- He stared over the edge with a feeling of awe.
- They discussed "awe" during the group presentation.

---

bad temper (noun)

A persisting angry mood.

- Understanding "bad temper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bad temper" to mean a persisting angry mood.

---

butterfly-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a butterfly.

- A "butterfly-shaped" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "butterfly-shaped"? Explain why.

---

colorful (adjective)

Having color or a certain color; sometimes used in combination.

- Colorful autumn leaves.
- A colorful period of history.

---

decisive (adjective)

Determining or having the power to determine an outcome.

- Cast the decisive vote.
- Two factors had a decisive influence.

---

decorative (adjective)

Serving an esthetic rather than a useful purpose.

- The buildings were utilitarian rather than decorative.
- It is useful to describe something as "decorative" when it is serving an esthetic rather than a useful purpose.

---

deep-rooted (adjective)

(used especially of ideas or principles) deeply rooted; firmly fixed or held.

- Deep-rooted prejudice.
- Would you call this situation "deep-rooted"? Explain why.

---

definitive (adjective)

Of recognized authority or excellence.

- The definitive work on Greece.
- A definitive verdict.

---

disclosed (adjective)

Made known (especially something secret or concealed).

- The disclosed purpose of their wicked plan.
- It is useful to describe something as "disclosed" when it is made known (especially something secret or concealed).

---

disturbed (adjective)

Afflicted with or marked by anxious uneasiness or trouble or grief.

- Lapsed into disturbed sleep.
- The disturbed books and papers on her desk.

---

eye-popping (adjective)

Amazingly impressive; suggestive of the flashing of lightning; ; - Janet Flanner; - Idwal Jones.

- A "eye-popping" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "eye-popping" when it is amazingly impressive; suggestive of the flashing of....

---

fatty (adjective)

Containing or composed of fat.

- Fatty food.
- It is useful to describe something as "fatty" when it is containing or composed of fat.

---

feast one's eyes (verb)

Look at with great enjoyment.

- She feasted her eyes on the Tuscan landscape.
- In everyday English, people use "feast one's eyes" when talking about this idea.

---

filthy (adjective)

Disgustingly dirty; filled or smeared with offensive matter.

- As filthy as a pigsty.
- A filthy traitor.

---

flush (noun)

The swift release of a store of affective force.

- He heard the flush of a toilet.
- In class, the teacher used "flush" to mean the swift release of a store of affective force.

---

hairy (adjective)

Having or covered with hair.

- Jacob was a hairy man.
- A hairy caterpillar.

---

inheritance (noun)

Any attribute or immaterial possession that is inherited from ancestors.

- My only inheritance was my mother's blessing.
- He looked up "inheritance" because he had never seen it before.

---

ironic (adjective)

Characterized by often poignant difference or incongruity between what is expected and what actually is.

- Madness, an ironic fate for such a clear thinker.
- It was ironical that the well-planned scheme failed so completely.

purple-eyed (adjective)

(of flowers) having a purple eyelike marking.

- Students compared "purple-eyed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "purple-eyed" when it is (of flowers) having a purple eyelike marking.

reproductive (adjective)

Producing new life or offspring.

- The reproductive potential of a species is its relative capacity to reproduce itself under optimal conditions.
- The reproductive or generative organs.

responds (verb)

Respond favorably or as hoped.

- She tried to use "responds" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "responds" when talking about this idea.

retiring (adjective)

Of a person who has held and relinquished a position or office.

- A retiring member of the board.
- A shy retiring girl.

righteous (adjective)

Characterized by or proceeding from accepted standards of morality or justice; - James 5:16.

- The...prayer of a righteous man availeth much.
- Would you call this situation "righteous"? Explain why.

short temper (noun)

A feeling of resentful anger.

- The article explained what "short temper" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "short temper" during the group presentation.

sticky (adjective)

Hard to deal with; especially causing pain or embarrassment.

- A sticky question.
- Felt sticky and chilly at the same time.

trusts (noun)

The trait of believing in the honesty and reliability of others.

- The article explained what "trusts" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "trusts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

twelve-sided (adjective)

Having twelve sides.

- A "twelve-sided" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "twelve-sided."

unpleasant (adjective)

Disagreeable to the senses, to the mind, or feelings.

- An unpleasant personality.
- Unpleasant repercussions.

unrelated (adjective)

Lacking a logical or causal relation.

- Students compared "unrelated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "unrelated"? Explain why.

up-tick (noun)

A small increase.

- The up-tick in terrorist activity.
- They discussed "up-tick" during the group presentation.

---

vacant (adjective)

Void of thought or knowledge.

- A vacant mind.
- The throne is never vacant.

---

warmth (noun)

The quality of having a moderate degree of heat.

- An agreeable warmth in the house.
- They discussed "warmth" during the group presentation.

---

weaknesses (noun)

A penchant for something even though it might not be good for you.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weaknesses."
- Understanding "weaknesses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wired (adjective)

Equipped with wire or wires especially for electric or telephone service.

- A well-wired house.
- A "wired" approach may work better in this case.

---

blue-ribbon (adjective)

Selected or chosen for special qualifications.

- The blue-ribbon event of the season.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "blue-ribbon."

---

cautious (noun)

People who are fearful and cautious.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cautious."
- The article explained what "cautious" means with a simple example.

---

commitments (noun)

The trait of sincere and steadfast fixity of purpose.

- His business commitments took him to London.
- In class, the teacher used "commitments" to mean the trait of sincere and steadfast fixity of purpose.

---

coordinated (adjective)

Being dexterous in the use of more than one set of muscle movements; - Mary McCarthy.

- She was usually good with her hands and well coordinated.
- A coordinated program.

---

destined (adjective)

(usually followed by 'to') governed by fate.

- An old house destined to be demolished.
- He is destined to be famous.

---

detached (adjective)

Used of buildings; standing apart from others.

- Detached houses.
- A detached garage.

---

dull-purple (adjective)

Of a dull shade of purple.

- Would you call this situation "dull-purple"? Explain why.

- A "dull-purple" approach may work better in this case.

---

enforced (adjective)

Forced or compelled or put in force.

- A life of enforced inactivity.
- Enforced obedience.

---

feast of sacrifice (noun)

The 10th day of Dhu'l-Hijja; all Muslims attend a service in the mosques and those who are not pilgrims perform a ritual slaughter of a sheep (commemorating God's ransom of Abraham's son from sacrifice) and give at least a third of the meat to charity.

- They discussed "feast of sacrifice" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "feast of sacrifice" means with a simple example.

---

flooded (adjective)

Covered with water.

- A flooded bathroom.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flooded."

---

gamble (verb)

Take a risk in the hope of a favorable outcome.

- The coach explained when to use "gamble" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "gamble" until he saw an example.

---

harmless (adjective)

Not causing or capable of causing harm.

- Harmless bacteria.
- Rendered the bomb harmless.

---

honey-coloured (adjective)

Having the color of honey.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "honey-coloured."
- Students compared "honey-coloured" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

hopeful (noun)

An ambitious and aspiring young person.

- Two executive hopefuls joined the firm.
- They discussed "hopeful" during the group presentation.

---

horny (adjective)

Feeling great sexual desire.

- Feeling horny.
- Horny coral.

---

imaginary (adjective)

Not based on fact; unreal; - F.D.Roosevelt.

- A small child's imaginary friends.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "imaginary."

---

imprisoned (adjective)

Being in captivity.

- Would you call this situation "imprisoned"? Explain why.
- A "imprisoned" approach may work better in this case.

---

inconsistent (adjective)

Not capable of being made consistent or harmonious.

- Inconsistent accounts.
- A "inconsistent" approach may work better in this case.

ivy-covered (adjective)

Overgrown with ivy.

- A "ivy-covered" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "ivy-covered" when it is overgrown with ivy.

melting point (noun)

The temperature below which a liquid turns into a solid.

- In class, the teacher used "melting point" to mean the temperature below which a liquid turns into a solid.
- They discussed "melting point" during the group presentation.

northwestern (adjective)

Of a region of the United States generally including Washington; Oregon; Idaho; and sometimes Montana; Wyoming.

- A "northwestern" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "northwestern" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

patriotic (adjective)

Inspired by love for your country.

- The speaker chose "patriotic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "patriotic" approach may work better in this case.

pictured (adjective)

Seen in the mind as a mental image.

- The snow-covered Alps pictured in her imagination.
- It is useful to describe something as "pictured" when it is seen in the mind as a mental image.

populated (adjective)

Furnished with inhabitants.

- The area is well populated.
- Forests populated with all kinds of wild life.

probable (adjective)

Likely but not certain to be or become true or real.

- He foresaw a probable loss.
- A "probable" approach may work better in this case.

pumped (adjective)

Tense with excitement and enthusiasm as from a rush of adrenaline.

- We were really pumped up for the race.
- He was so pumped he couldn't sleep.

pumped up (adjective)

Tense with excitement and enthusiasm as from a rush of adrenaline.

- We were really pumped up for the race.
- He was so pumped he couldn't sleep.

pumped-up (adjective)

Tense with excitement and enthusiasm as from a rush of adrenaline.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pumped-up."
- Students compared "pumped-up" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

silk-lined (adjective)

Having a silk lining.

- Would you call this situation "silk-lined"? Explain why.
- Students compared "silk-lined" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

slopes (noun)

The property possessed by a line or surface that departs from the horizontal.

- Understanding "slopes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "slopes" during the group presentation.

---

song of solomon (noun)

An Old Testament book consisting of a collection of love poems traditionally attributed to Solomon but actually written much later.

- The article explained what "song of solomon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "song of solomon" to mean an old testament book consisting of a collection of....

---

stained (adjective)

Marked or dyed or discolored with foreign matter.

- A badly stained tablecloth.
- Tear-stained cheeks.

---

subjective (adjective)

Of a mental act performed entirely within the mind.

- A subjective judgment.
- Would you call this situation "subjective"? Explain why.

---

tearing (adjective)

Marked by extreme intensity of emotions or convictions; inclined to react violently; fervid.

- In a tearing rage.
- Would you call this situation "tearing"? Explain why.

---

thermal barrier (noun)

A limit to high speed flight imposed by aerodynamic heating.

- In class, the teacher used "thermal barrier" to mean a limit to high speed flight imposed by aerodynamic....
- The article explained what "thermal barrier" means with a simple example.

---

well-bred (adjective)

Of good upbringing.

- It is useful to describe something as "well-bred" when it is of good upbringing.
- The speaker chose "well-bred" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

allergic (adjective)

Having an allergy or peculiar or excessive susceptibility (especially to a specific factor).

- Allergic children.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "allergic."

---

amended (adjective)

Modified for the better.

- His amended ways.
- Students compared "amended" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

chopped (adjective)

Prepared by cutting.

- Chopped clams.
- Chopped meat.

---

city-bred (adjective)

Being or having the customs or manners or dress of a city person.

- A "city-bred" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "city-bred."

---

collaborative (adjective)

Accomplished by collaboration.

- Collaborative research.

- The speaker chose “collaborative” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

constructive (adjective)

Constructing or tending to construct or improve or promote development.

- Constructive criticism.
- A constructive attitude.

---

country-bred (adjective)

Rough and uncouth.

- Students compared “country-bred” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A “country-bred” approach may work better in this case.

---

definite (adjective)

Precise; explicit and clearly defined.

- I want a definite answer.
- A definite statement of the terms of the will.

---

depths (noun)

The extent downward or backward or inward.

- From the depths of darkest Africa.
- Signals received from the depths of space.

---

dome-shaped (adjective)

Having the shape of a dome.

- The speaker chose “dome-shaped” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “dome-shaped” approach may work better in this case.

---

drug-addicted (adjective)

Addicted to a drug.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “drug-addicted.”
- The speaker chose “drug-addicted” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

fertility (noun)

The property of producing abundantly and sustaining vigorous and luxuriant growth.

- He looked up “fertility” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fertility.”

---

foremost (adjective)

Preceding all others in spatial position.

- The foremost compartment of the ship.
- The foremost figure among marine artists.

---

half-bred (adjective)

(of animals) having only one purebred parent.

- A “half-bred” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “half-bred.”

---

ideals (noun)

The idea of something that is perfect; something that one hopes to attain.

- Understanding “ideals” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ideals.”

---

melted (adjective)

Changed from a solid to a liquid state.

- Rivers filled to overflowing by melted snow.
- A “melted” approach may work better in this case.

---

neglected (adjective)

Disregarded.

- Shaw's neglected one-act comedy, 'A Village Wooing'.
- A neglected child.

---

paired (adjective)

Of leaves etc; growing in pairs on either side of a stem.

- A "paired" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "paired."

---

parental (adjective)

Relating to or characteristic of or befitting a parent.

- Parental guidance.
- The speaker chose "parental" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

prevalent (adjective)

Most frequent or common.

- A "prevalent" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "prevalent"? Explain why.

---

questionable (adjective)

Subject to question.

- Questionable motives.
- A questionable reputation.

---

quick temper (noun)

A feeling of resentful anger.

- Understanding "quick temper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quick temper."

---

self-balancing (adjective)

Of someone or something that balances himself or itself.

- It is useful to describe something as "self-balancing" when it is of someone or something that balances himself or itself.
- A "self-balancing" approach may work better in this case.

---

self-righteous (adjective)

Excessively or hypocritically pious.

- A "self-righteous" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "self-righteous"? Explain why.

---

seventy-one (adjective)

Being one more than seventy.

- The speaker chose "seventy-one" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "seventy-one" when it is being one more than seventy.

---

seventy-three (adjective)

Being three more than seventy.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "seventy-three."
- Students compared "seventy-three" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

seventy-two (adjective)

Being two more than seventy.

- The speaker chose "seventy-two" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "seventy-two"? Explain why.

---

shouted (adjective)

In a vehement outcry.

- His shouted words of encouragement could be heard over the crowd noises.
- Would you call this situation "shouted"? Explain why.

---

sperm-filled (adjective)

Filled with sperm.

- Would you call this situation "sperm-filled"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "sperm-filled" when it is filled with sperm.

---

splitting (adjective)

Resembling a sound of violent tearing as of something ripped apart or lightning splitting a tree.

- It is useful to describe something as "splitting" when it is resembling a sound of violent tearing as of....
- Would you call this situation "splitting"? Explain why.

---

straw-colored (adjective)

Having the color of dry straw.

- It is useful to describe something as "straw-colored" when it is having the color of dry straw.
- Would you call this situation "straw-colored"? Explain why.

---

tortured (adjective)

Experiencing intense pain especially mental pain.

- A tortured witness to another's humiliation.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tortured."

---

turnover (noun)

The volume measured in dollars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "turnover."
- Understanding "turnover" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

unwanted (adjective)

Not wanted; not needed.

- Tried to give away unwanted kittens.
- Removed the unwanted vegetation.

---

visibility (noun)

Capability of providing a clear unobstructed view.

- A windshield with good visibility.
- Low visibility caused by fog.

---

abundant (adjective)

Present in great quantity.

- An abundant supply of water.
- A "abundant" approach may work better in this case.

---

acoustic radiation pressure (noun)

(acoustics) the pressure exerted on a surface normal to the direction of propagation of a sound wave.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acoustic radiation pressure."
- The article explained what "acoustic radiation pressure" means with a simple example.

---

antenna (noun)

Sensitivity similar to that of a receptor organ.

- He had a special antenna for public relations.
- The article explained what "antenna" means with a simple example.

---

biting (adjective)

Causing a sharply painful or stinging sensation; used especially of cold.

- A biting wind.
- A biting aphorism.

busted (adjective)

Out of working order ('busted' is an informal substitute for 'broken').

- The coke machine is busted.
- A "busted" approach may work better in this case.

continuity (noun)

The property of a continuous and connected period of time.

- In class, the teacher used "continuity" to mean the property of a continuous and connected period....
- Understanding "continuity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

credible (adjective)

(a common but incorrect usage where 'credulous' would be appropriate) credulous.

- She was not the...credible fool he expected.
- A credible witness.

cursed (adjective)

Deserving a curse; sometimes used as an intensifier.

- Villagers shun the area believing it to be cursed.
- Cursed with four daughter.

cursed with (adjective)

Burdened with.

- Stuck with the tab.
- It is useful to describe something as "cursed with" when it is burdened with.

deepest (adjective)

Of an obscure nature; ; ; ; - Rachel Carson.

- Would you call this situation "deepest"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "deepest."

defects (noun)

A mark or flaw that spoils the appearance of something (especially on a person's body).

- Visual defects.
- This device permits detection of defects in the lungs.

delightful (adjective)

Greatly pleasing or entertaining.

- A delightful surprise.
- The comedy was delightful.

depicted (adjective)

Represented graphically by sketch or design or lines.

- It is useful to describe something as "depicted" when it is represented graphically by sketch or design or lines.
- The speaker chose "depicted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

developmental age (noun)

A measure of a child's development (in body size or motor skill or psychological function) expressed in terms of age norms.

- The article explained what "developmental age" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "developmental age" during the group presentation.

diamond jim brady (noun)

United States financier noted for his love of diamonds and his extravagant lifestyle (1856-1917).

- Understanding "diamond jim brady" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diamond jim brady."

drift apart (verb)

Lose personal contact over time.

- The two women, who had been roommates in college, drifted apart after they got married.
- Can you use "drift apart" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

exploded (adjective)

Showing the parts of something separated but in positions that show their correct relation to one another.

- The manufacturer provided an exploded view of the apparatus.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "exploded."

---

fairness (noun)

The quality of being good looking and attractive.

- The judge recognized the fairness of my claim.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fairness."

---

favored (adjective)

Preferred above all others and treated with partiality.

- The favored child.
- A "favored" approach may work better in this case.

---

freeze-dried (adjective)

Preserved by freezing and drying in a vacuum.

- Freeze-dried coffee.
- It is useful to describe something as "freeze-dried" when it is preserved by freezing and drying in a vacuum.

---

fulfilled (adjective)

Completed to perfection.

- The speaker chose "fulfilled" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "fulfilled" when it is completed to perfection.

---

good-hearted (adjective)

Showing or motivated by sympathy and understanding and generosity.

- The speaker chose "good-hearted" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "good-hearted"? Explain why.

---

guts (noun)

Fortitude and determination.

- He didn't have the guts to try it.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guts."

Technology

charge (verb)

To put electricity into a battery so that a device can work.

- I need to charge my phone — the battery is almost empty.
- You can charge your laptop at the coffee shop.

---

download (verb)

To copy a file, app, or program from the internet onto your phone or computer.

- I downloaded a new game onto my phone last night.
- You can download the form from the school's website.

---

screen (noun)

The flat surface of a phone, computer, or television where words and pictures appear.

- My phone screen cracked when I dropped it.
- Please look at the screen while I show you the photos.

---

password (noun)

A secret word or set of characters that allows you to use a computer, phone, or account.

- Never share your password with strangers.
- I forgot my email password again.

---

keyboard (noun)

The set of keys that you press to type on a computer or similar device.

- She types very fast on the keyboard.
- This keyboard is wireless.

---

mouse (noun)

A small device that you move with your hand to control a computer.

- Click the mouse to open the file.
- My mouse stopped working, so I used the touchpad.

---

website (noun)

A set of pages on the internet that belong to a person or organization.

- You can find more information on our website.
- This website is easy to use.

---

app (noun)

A computer program designed for a phone or tablet.

- I installed a new weather app.
- This app helps me learn English.

---

battery (noun)

A device that stores electricity for use in phones, cars, and other machines.

- The battery is low — please charge it.
- I need to buy new batteries for the remote.

---

email (noun / verb)

A message sent electronically; to send such a message.

- I sent her an email this morning.
- Please email me the report.

---

click (verb)

To press a button on a mouse or screen to choose something.

- Click the blue button to continue.
- Double-click the icon to open the program.

---

wifi (noun)

A system that allows computers and phones to connect to the internet without wires.

- Is there free wifi in this cafe?
- The wifi password is on the wall.

---

get (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- Get your results the next day.
- Get permission to take a few days off from work.

---

get on (verb)

Develop in a positive way.

- My boss and I get along very well.
- It is getting on midnight–let's all go to bed!

---

make (verb)

Create or manufacture a man-made product.

- Make love, not war.
- Make an effort.

back (noun)

The side that goes last or is not normally seen.

- He wrote the date on the back of the photograph.
- His back was nicely tanned.

get up (verb)

Arrange by systematic planning and united effort.

- I get up at 7 A.M. every day.
- He did not know how to use "get up" until he saw an example.

make for (verb)

Cause to happen or to occur as a consequence.

- He did not know how to use "make for" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "make for" in real sentences.

go by (verb)

Be or act in accordance with.

- Go by this rule and you'll be safe.
- In everyday English, people use "go by" when talking about this idea.

still (noun)

A static photograph (especially one taken from a movie and used for advertising purposes).

- He wanted some stills for a magazine ad.
- The still of the night.

got (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- I got nothing but trouble for my good intentions.
- She got a lot of paintings from her uncle.

think up (verb)

Devise or invent.

- He did not know how to use "think up" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "think up" in real sentences.

take on (verb)

Take on a certain form, attribute, or aspect.

- She tried to use "take on" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "take on" and when to wait.

get over (verb)

To bring (a necessary but unpleasant task) to an end.

- Let's get this job over with.
- It's a question of getting over an unpleasant task.

way out (noun)

An opening that permits escape or release.

- He blocked the way out.
- They discussed "way out" during the group presentation.

get well (verb)

Improve in health.

- He got well fast.
- She tried to use "get well" carefully so everyone would understand.

make over (verb)

Use again in altered form.

- She tried to use “make over” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “make over” in real sentences.

---

find (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- These aspects of civilization do not find expression or receive an interpretation.
- We find this idea in Plato.

---

come on (verb)

Appear or become visible; make a showing.

- Can you use “come on” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “come on” and when to wait.

---

go back (verb)

Regain a former condition after a financial loss.

- This story dates back 200 years.
- He did not know how to use “go back” until he saw an example.

---

thing (noun)

An entity that is not named specifically.

- I couldn't tell what the thing was.
- This thing has got to end.

---

take after (verb)

Imitate in behavior; take as a model.

- She takes after her father!
- He did not know how to use “take after” until he saw an example.

---

come about (verb)

Come to pass.

- Can you use “come about” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “come about” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

come up (verb)

Bring forth, usually something desirable.

- Come with me to the Casbah.
- Come down here!

---

go through (verb)

Pursue to a conclusion or bring to a successful issue.

- Did he go through with the treatment?
- We had many trials to go through.

---

put on (verb)

Prepare and supply with the necessary equipment for execution or performance.

- He put on his best suit for the wedding.
- She put on a sun room.

---

second (noun)

The gear that has the second lowest forward gear ratio in the gear box of a motor vehicle.

- He had to shift down into second to make the hill.
- He came in a close second.

---

after part (noun)

The rear part of a ship.

- They discussed “after part” during the group presentation.

- He looked up “after part” because he had never seen it before.

---

doing (verb)

Create or design, often in a certain way.

- How is she doing in her new job?
- Can you use “doing” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

end up (verb)

Finally be or do something.

- He ended up marrying his high school sweetheart.
- She tried to use “end up” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

show up (verb)

Appear or become visible; make a showing.

- His good upbringing really shows.
- The dirty side will show.

---

still life (noun)

A painting of inanimate objects such as fruit or flowers.

- He looked up “still life” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “still life.”

---

take down (verb)

Tear down so as to make flat with the ground.

- Take down the vase from the shelf.
- She tends to put down younger women colleagues.

---

come off (verb)

Happen in a particular manner.

- He did not know how to use “come off” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “come off” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

let up (verb)

Reduce pressure or intensity.

- The rain let up after a few hours.
- The coach explained when to use “let up” and when to wait.

---

do away with (verb)

Terminate, end, or take out.

- Can you use “do away with” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “do away with” and when to wait.

---

give way (verb)

End resistance, as under pressure or force.

- The park gave way to a supermarket.
- The bus we travelled in broke down on the way to town.

---

set about (verb)

Take the first step or steps in carrying out an action.

- Go about a difficult problem.
- In everyday English, people use “set about” when talking about this idea.

---

set out (verb)

Take the first step or steps in carrying out an action.

- Lay out the clothes.
- Lay out the arguments.

---

including (verb)

Add as part of something else; put in as part of a set, group, or category.

- In everyday English, people use "including" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "including" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

real-time (adjective)

Of or relating to computer systems that update information at the same rate they receive information.

- Would you call this situation "real-time"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "real-time."

---

stop (noun)

A restraint that checks the motion of something.

- He used a book as a stop to hold the door open.
- It came to a stop at the bottom of the hill.

---

water (noun)

A facility that provides a source of water.

- The town debated the purification of the water supply.
- First you have to cut off the water.

---

start out (verb)

Take the first step or steps in carrying out an action.

- Who will start?
- The coach explained when to use "start out" and when to wait.

---

take place (verb)

Come to pass.

- The meeting took place off without an incidence.
- The coach explained when to use "take place" and when to wait.

---

try (verb)

Melt (fat or lard) in order to separate out impurities.

- Try the yak butter.
- Try these new crackers.

---

a-line (noun)

Women's clothing that has a fitted top and a flared skirt that is widest at the hemline.

- It is called the A-line because the effect resembles the capital letter A.
- Understanding "a-line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

go away (verb)

Get lost, as without warning or explanation.

- Go away before I start to cry.
- She tried to use "go away" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

put right (verb)

Settle or put right.

- Can you use "put right" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "put right" until he saw an example.

---

read-out (noun)

The output of a computer in readable form.

- The article explained what "read-out" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "read-out" to mean the output of a computer in readable form.

---

makes (verb)

Create or manufacture a man-made product.

- Heat makes you sweat.
- This makes a fine introduction.

---

set-back (noun)

Structure where a wall or building narrows abruptly.

- He looked up "set-back" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "set-back."

---

come into being (verb)

Be born or come into existence.

- All these flowers come to life when the rains come.
- In everyday English, people use "come into being" when talking about this idea.

---

put through (verb)

Pursue to a conclusion or bring to a successful issue.

- Did he go through with the treatment?
- The operator put a call through to Rio.

---

white-out (verb)

Lose daylight visibility in heavy fog, snow, or rain.

- The coach explained when to use "white-out" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "white-out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

working (noun)

A mine or quarry that is being or has been worked.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "working."
- They discussed "working" during the group presentation.

---

means (noun)

An instrumentality for accomplishing some end.

- A means of control.
- He is a man of means.

---

change over (verb)

Change from one system to another or to a new plan or policy.

- The coach explained when to use "change over" and when to wait.
- Can you use "change over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

make full (verb)

Make full, also in a metaphorical sense.

- He did not know how to use "make full" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "make full" and when to wait.

---

set off (verb)

Direct attention to, as if by means of contrast.

- I set off these words by brackets.
- The family took off for Florida.

---

well point (noun)

A perforated tube driven into the ground to collect water from the surrounding area.

- Understanding "well point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "well point" during the group presentation.

---

black out (verb)

Suppress by censorship as for political reasons.

- Parts of the newspaper article were blacked out.
- The dining room blackened out.

court (noun)

The residence of a sovereign or nobleman.

- The king will visit the duke's court.
- Television cameras were admitted in the courtroom.

go bad (verb)

Stop operating or functioning.

- Can you use "go bad" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "go bad" carefully so everyone would understand.

hand (noun)

A rotating pointer on the face of a timepiece.

- The big hand counts the minutes.
- He had the hands of a surgeon.

level (noun)

A flat surface at right angles to a plumb line.

- Park the car on the level.
- A high level of care is required.

top off (verb)

Fill to the point of almost overflowing.

- She topped off the cup.
- They topped off their dinner with a cognac.

become (verb)

Enter or assume a certain state or condition.

- What becomes has duration.
- Mourning becomes Electra.

control (noun)

A mechanism that controls the operation of a machine.

- The speed controller on his turntable was not working properly.
- I turned the controls over to her.

true (verb)

Make level, square, balanced, or concentric.

- True up the cylinder of an engine.
- The coach explained when to use "true" and when to wait.

two-by-four (noun)

A timber measuring (slightly under) 2 inches by 4 inches in cross section.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "two-by-four."
- They discussed "two-by-four" during the group presentation.

water back (noun)

Water heater consisting of a tank or pipes set at the back of a fireplace or in the firebox of a stove.

- Understanding "water back" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "water back" to mean water heater consisting of a tank or pipes set at....

life support (noun)

Equipment that makes life possible in otherwise deadly environmental conditions.

- The astronauts relied on their life-support systems.
- The patient is on life support.

take in water (verb)

Take in water at the bilge.

- He did not know how to use "take in water" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "take in water" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

call down (verb)

Summon into action or bring into existence, often as if by magic.

- Call down the spirits from the mountain.
- The customer dressed down the waiter for bringing cold soup.

---

put-put (noun)

A small gasoline engine (as on motor boat).

- The article explained what "put-put" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "put-put" during the group presentation.

---

true up (verb)

Make level, square, balanced, or concentric.

- True up the cylinder of an engine.
- Can you use "true up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

water down (verb)

Make less strong or intense.

- Water down the mixture.
- They watered down the moonshine.

---

change state (verb)

Undergo a transformation or a change of position or action.

- In everyday English, people use "change state" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "change state" in real sentences.

---

data (noun)

A collection of facts from which conclusions may be drawn.

- Statistical data.
- Understanding "data" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

get started (verb)

Start to be active.

- Get cracking, please!
- Can you use "get started" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

air out (verb)

Expose to cool or cold air so as to cool or freshen.

- Air the old winter clothes.
- Air out the smoke-filled rooms.

---

get along (verb)

Develop in a positive way.

- My plants are coming along.
- My boss and I get along very well.

---

ask for it (verb)

Persist with actions or an attitude despite the probability that it will cause trouble.

- He is asking for trouble with his behavior.
- Can you use "ask for it" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

third (noun)

The base that must be touched third by a base runner in baseball.

- He was cut down on a close play at third.

- It contains approximately a third of the minimum daily requirement.

---

turn (verb)

To break and turn over earth especially with a plow.

- Turn the earth in the Spring.
- Turn towards me.

---

turn to (verb)

Direct one's interest or attention towards; go into.

- The pedophile turned to boys for satisfaction.
- People turn to mysticism at the turn of a millennium.

---

man-of-war (noun)

A warship intended for combat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "man-of-war."
- They discussed "man-of-war" during the group presentation.

---

phone (verb)

Get or try to get into communication (with someone) by telephone.

- The coach explained when to use "phone" and when to wait.
- Can you use "phone" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

level off (verb)

Become level or even.

- The ground levelled off.
- Can you use "level off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

phone-in (noun)

A program in which the audience participates by telephone.

- In class, the teacher used "phone-in" to mean a program in which the audience participates by....
- They discussed "phone-in" during the group presentation.

---

turn up (verb)

Appear or become visible; make a showing.

- She turned up at the funeral.
- Turn up your collar.

---

works (noun)

Buildings for carrying on industrial labor.

- A hotdog with the works.
- The reward for good works.

---

air well (noun)

A shaft for ventilation.

- He looked up "air well" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "air well" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ready (verb)

Make ready or suitable or equip in advance for a particular purpose or for some use, event, etc.

- Get the children ready for school!
- He did not know how to use "ready" until he saw an example.

---

street (noun)

A thoroughfare (usually including sidewalks) that is lined with buildings.

- They walked the streets of the small town.
- He lives on Nassau Street.

---

bring (verb)

Cause to happen or to occur as a consequence.

- Bring comments.
- Bring me the box from the other room.

---

act out (verb)

Act out; represent or perform as if in a play.

- She reenacted what had happened earlier that day.
- She could act neurotic anxiety.

---

back saw (noun)

A handsaw that is stiffened by metal reinforcement along the upper edge.

- Understanding "back saw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "back saw" because he had never seen it before.

---

hand-me-down (noun)

Outgrown garment passed down from one person to another.

- They discussed "hand-me-down" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hand-me-down" because he had never seen it before.

---

see the light (verb)

Change for the better.

- The lazy student promised to reform.
- The habitual cheater finally saw the light.

---

come to hand (verb)

Be revealed or disclosed.

- Learners should practice how to use "come to hand" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "come to hand" and when to wait.

---

gets (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- His lying really gets me.
- Brahms's 'Requiem' gets me every time.

---

little hand (noun)

The shorter hand of a clock that points to the hours.

- They discussed "little hand" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "little hand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

night-line (noun)

A fishing line with baited hooks left in the water to catch fish over night.

- They discussed "night-line" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "night-line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

put together (verb)

Create by putting components or members together.

- He tacked together some verses.
- Can you use "put together" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

board (noun)

A flat piece of material designed for a special purpose.

- He nailed boards across the windows.
- The board has seven members.

---

come along (verb)

Come into being or existence, or appear on the scene.

- Then the computer came along and changed our lives.
- My plants are coming along.

---

cut in (verb)

Interrupt a dancing couple in order to take one of them as one's own partner.

- Jim always cuts in!
- In everyday English, people use "cut in" when talking about this idea.

---

power system (noun)

A system of high tension cables by which electrical power is distributed throughout a region.

- In class, the teacher used "power system" to mean a system of high tension cables by which electrical....
- The article explained what "power system" means with a simple example.

---

water system (noun)

A facility that provides a source of water.

- The town debated the purification of the water supply.
- First you have to cut off the water.

---

issue (noun)

An opening that permits escape or release.

- The canyon had only one issue.
- The issue could be settled by requiring public education for everyone.

---

power point (noun)

A wall socket.

- The article explained what "power point" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "power point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rest (noun)

A support on which things can be put.

- The gun was steadied on a special rest.
- He threw away the rest.

---

talk show (noun)

A program during which well-known people discuss a topic or answer questions telephoned in by the audience.

- In England they call a talk show a chat show.
- The article explained what "talk show" means with a simple example.

---

big hand (noun)

Points to the minutes.

- They discussed "big hand" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "big hand."

---

business line (noun)

A particular kind of product or merchandise.

- A nice line of shoes.
- In class, the teacher used "business line" to mean a particular kind of product or merchandise.

---

clear out (verb)

Clear out the chest and lungs.

- We cleaned out all the drawers.
- Can you use "clear out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

clear up (verb)

Free (the throat) by making a rasping sound.

- Clear the throat.
- The sky cleared after the storm.

killed (verb)

Destroy a vitally essential quality of or in.

- This man killed several people when he tried to rob a bank.
- The farmer killed a pig for the holidays.

shot (noun)

A solid missile discharged from a firearm.

- The shot buzzed past his ear.
- A good shot requires good balance and tempo.

top of the line (noun)

The best (most expensive) in a given line of merchandise.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "top of the line."
- He looked up "top of the line" because he had never seen it before.

back street (noun)

A narrow street with walls on both sides.

- He looked up "back street" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "back street" during the group presentation.

cut up (verb)

Separate into isolated compartments or categories.

- He did not know how to use "cut up" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "cut up" in real sentences.

include (verb)

Add as part of something else; put in as part of a set, group, or category.

- We must include this chemical element in the group.
- The list includes the names of many famous writers.

lost-and-found (noun)

Repository in a public building where lost articles can be kept until their owners reclaim them.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lost-and-found."
- The article explained what "lost-and-found" means with a simple example.

turn down (verb)

Take a downward direction.

- The economy finally turned down after a long boom.
- They turned away hundreds of fans.

club (noun)

A building that is occupied by a social club.

- The clubhouse needed a new roof.
- Each club played six home games with teams in its own division.

come to light (verb)

Be revealed or disclosed.

- The truth finally came to light.
- He did not know how to use "come to light" until he saw an example.

one shot (noun)

A charge of ammunition for a single shot.

- Understanding "one shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "one shot" to mean a charge of ammunition for a single shot.

power line (noun)

Cable used to distribute electricity.

- They discussed "power line" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "power line" to mean cable used to distribute electricity.

---

tv (noun)

An electronic device that receives television signals and displays them on a screen.

- The British call a tv set a telly.
- In class, the teacher used "tv" to mean an electronic device that receives television....

---

information system (noun)

System consisting of the network of all communication channels used within an organization.

- The article explained what "information system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "information system" to mean system consisting of the network of all....

---

issues (noun)

An opening that permits escape or release.

- Politicians never discuss the real issues.
- Understanding "issues" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

land up (verb)

Finally be or do something.

- The coach explained when to use "land up" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "land up" until he saw an example.

---

online (adjective)

On a regular route of a railroad or bus or airline system.

- The speaker chose "online" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "online" approach may work better in this case.

---

sex up (verb)

Give erotic character to or make more interesting.

- In everyday English, people use "sex up" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "sex up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

turn around (verb)

Improve significantly; go from bad to good.

- He turned around to face his opponent.
- My conscience told me to turn around before I made a mistake.

---

city university (noun)

An urban university in a large city.

- They discussed "city university" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "city university" means with a simple example.

---

go board (noun)

A board used for playing go.

- He looked up "go board" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "go board" during the group presentation.

---

hold on (verb)

Stop and wait, as if awaiting further instructions or developments.

- Hold on a moment!
- The coach explained when to use "hold on" and when to wait.

---

one-way street (noun)

A street on which vehicular traffic is allowed to move in only one direction.

- Cooperation cannot be a one-way street.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "one-way street."

---

clear off (verb)

Remove from sight.

- She tried to use "clear off" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "clear off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

control system (noun)

A system for controlling the operation of another system.

- Understanding "control system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "control system" means with a simple example.

---

design (noun)

A preliminary sketch indicating the plan for something.

- The design of a building.
- He contributed to the design of a new instrument.

---

lead up (verb)

Set in motion, start an event or prepare the way for.

- Can you use "lead up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "lead up" when talking about this idea.

---

local call (noun)

A telephone call made within a local calling area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "local call."
- The article explained what "local call" means with a simple example.

---

added (verb)

Make an addition (to); join or combine or unite with others; increase the quality, quantity, size or scope of.

- We added two students to that dorm room.
- She added a personal note to her letter.

---

brought (verb)

Cause to happen or to occur as a consequence.

- The rain brought relief to the drought-stricken area.
- Long hard years of on the job training had brought them to their competence.

---

four-in-hand (noun)

A carriage pulled by four horses with one driver.

- Understanding "four-in-hand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "four-in-hand" to mean a carriage pulled by four horses with one driver.

---

life-support system (noun)

Equipment that makes life possible in otherwise deadly environmental conditions.

- The astronauts relied on their life-support systems.
- They discussed "life-support system" during the group presentation.

---

order book (noun)

A book in which customers' orders are entered; usually makes multiple copies of the order.

- The article explained what "order book" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "order book" to mean a book in which customers' orders are entered;....

---

right field (noun)

The piece of ground in the outfield on the catcher's right.

- He looked up "right field" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right field."

---

two-man saw (noun)

A saw with handles at both ends; intended for use by two people.

- Understanding "two-man saw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "two-man saw" to mean a saw with handles at both ends; intended for use....

---

worked (verb)

Cause to happen or to occur as a consequence.

- She worked hard for better living conditions for the poor.
- My wife never worked.

---

became (verb)

Enter or assume a certain state or condition.

- He became annoyed when he heard the bad news.
- Her former friend became her worst enemy.

---

film-make (verb)

Make films; be a film maker.

- Can you use "film-make" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "film-make" and when to wait.

---

hand line (noun)

A fishing line managed principally by hand.

- The article explained what "hand line" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hand line."

---

high street (noun)

Street that serves as a principal thoroughfare for traffic in a town.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high street."
- Understanding "high street" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

saw set (noun)

A tool used to bend each alternate sawtooth at a slight angle outward.

- They discussed "saw set" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "saw set" means with a simple example.

---

two-way street (noun)

A street on which vehicular traffic can move in either of two directions.

- You have to look both ways crossing a two-way street.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "two-way street."

---

data system (noun)

System consisting of the network of all communication channels used within an organization.

- The article explained what "data system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "data system" to mean system consisting of the network of all....

---

hot up (verb)

Gain heat or get hot.

- The coach explained when to use "hot up" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "hot up" in real sentences.

---

stand (noun)

A support for displaying various articles.

- They cut down a stand of trees.
- A bedside stand.

---

court of law (noun)

A tribunal that is presided over by a magistrate or by one or more judges who administer justice according to the laws.

- In class, the teacher used "court of law" to mean a tribunal that is presided over by a magistrate or....
- They discussed "court of law" during the group presentation.

---

data point (noun)

An item of factual information derived from measurement or research.

- In class, the teacher used "data point" to mean an item of factual information derived from....
- The article explained what "data point" means with a simple example.

---

drive-in (noun)

Any installation designed to accommodate patrons in their automobiles.

- In class, the teacher used "drive-in" to mean any installation designed to accommodate patrons in....
- They discussed "drive-in" during the group presentation.

---

felt (noun)

A fabric made of compressed matted animal fibers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "felt."
- The article explained what "felt" means with a simple example.

---

phone number (noun)

The number is used in calling a particular telephone.

- He has an unlisted number.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phone number."

---

step-in (noun)

Short underpants for women or children (usually used in the plural).

- Understanding "step-in" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "step-in" because he had never seen it before.

---

central (noun)

A workplace that serves as a telecommunications facility where lines from telephones can be connected together to permit communication.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central."
- He looked up "central" because he had never seen it before.

---

data-based (adjective)

Relying on observation or experiment.

- It is useful to describe something as "data-based" when it is relying on observation or experiment.
- The speaker chose "data-based" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

follow out (verb)

Pursue to a conclusion or bring to a successful issue.

- She followed up his recommendations with a written proposal.
- In everyday English, people use "follow out" when talking about this idea.

---

follow up (verb)

Pursue to a conclusion or bring to a successful issue.

- She followed up his recommendations with a written proposal.
- The doctor followed up the surgery with radiation.

---

follow-up (noun)

A piece of work that exploits or builds on earlier work.

- His new software is a follow-up to the programs they started with.
- The article explained what "follow-up" means with a simple example.

---

key (noun)

A generic term for any device whose possession entitles the holder to a means of access.

- A safe-deposit box usually requires two keys to open it.
- The key to development is economic integration.

phone company (noun)

A public utility that provides telephone service.

- The article explained what "phone company" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "phone company" to mean a public utility that provides telephone service.

power saw (noun)

A power tool for cutting wood.

- Understanding "power saw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "power saw" to mean a power tool for cutting wood.

round out (verb)

Express as a round number.

- Round off the amount.
- These studies round out the results of many years of research.

save-all (noun)

A sail set to catch wind spilled from a larger sail.

- The article explained what "save-all" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "save-all" to mean a sail set to catch wind spilled from a larger sail.

stop watch (noun)

A timepiece that can be started or stopped for exact timing (as of a race).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stop watch."
- Understanding "stop watch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

break off (verb)

Interrupt before its natural or planned end.

- Break off the negotiations.
- Break a branch from a tree.

change form (verb)

Assume a different shape or form.

- She tried to use "change form" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "change form" until he saw an example.

cup (noun)

The hole (or metal container in the hole) on a golf green.

- He swore as the ball rimmed the cup and rolled away.
- Put the flag back in the cup.

felt up (verb)

Change texture so as to become matted and felt-like.

- The fabric felted up after several washes.
- The coach explained when to use "felt up" and when to wait.

football (noun)

The inflated oblong ball used in playing American football.

- They discussed "football" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "football" because he had never seen it before.

led (noun)

Diode such that light emitted at a p-n junction is proportional to the bias current; color depends on the material used.

- The article explained what "led" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "led" to mean diode such that light emitted at a p-n junction is....

phone system (noun)

A communication system that transmits sound between distant points.

- They discussed "phone system" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "phone system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

public works (noun)

Structures (such as highways or schools or bridges or docks) constructed at government expense for public use.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public works."
- The article explained what "public works" means with a simple example.

---

short-stop (noun)

An acid bath used to stop the action of a developer.

- The article explained what "short-stop" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "short-stop" to mean an acid bath used to stop the action of a developer.

---

step up (verb)

Increase in extent or intensity.

- Young people should step to the fore and help their peers.
- In everyday English, people use "step up" when talking about this idea.

---

big board (noun)

The large display board at the New York Stock Exchange that reports on stocks traded on the exchange.

- In class, the teacher used "big board" to mean the large display board at the new york stock....
- They discussed "big board" during the group presentation.

---

break through (verb)

Pass through (a barrier).

- Registrations cracked through the 30,000 mark in the county.
- The sun broke through the clouds.

---

clear away (verb)

Remove from sight.

- Can you use "clear away" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "clear away" and when to wait.

---

short line (noun)

A transportation system that operates over relatively short distances.

- Understanding "short line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "short line."

---

add to (verb)

Have an increased effect.

- This adds to my worries.
- The coach explained when to use "add to" and when to wait.

---

add-in (noun)

A printed circuit that can be inserted into expansion slots in a computer to increase the computer's capabilities.

- They discussed "add-in" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "add-in" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

left field (noun)

The piece of ground in the outfield on the catcher's left.

- The batter flied out to left.
- The article explained what "left field" means with a simple example.

---

phone call (noun)

A telephone connection.

- She reported several anonymous calls.

- He placed a phone call to London.

---

system program (noun)

A program (as an operating system or compiler or utility program) that controls some aspect of the operation of a computer.

- They discussed "system program" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "system program."

---

add on (verb)

Make an addition.

- Let's add on to this.
- The coach explained when to use "add on" and when to wait.

---

add-on (noun)

A component that is added to something to improve it.

- They discussed "add-on" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "add-on" to mean a component that is added to something to improve it.

---

be born (verb)

Come into existence through birth.

- She was born on a farm.
- The coach explained when to use "be born" and when to wait.

---

code (noun)

A set of rules or principles or laws (especially written ones).

- The article explained what "code" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "code" to mean a set of rules or principles or laws (especially....

---

phone line (noun)

A telephone connection.

- He looked up "phone line" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "phone line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

phone service (noun)

A public utility that provides telephone service.

- The article explained what "phone service" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "phone service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

round off (verb)

Bring to a highly developed, finished, or refined state.

- Round the edges.
- Round off the amount.

---

side street (noun)

A street intersecting a main street and terminating there.

- In class, the teacher used "side street" to mean a street intersecting a main street and terminating....
- The article explained what "side street" means with a simple example.

---

trade good (noun)

Articles of commerce.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trade good."
- He looked up "trade good" because he had never seen it before.

---

hand saw (noun)

A saw used with one hand for cutting wood.

- In class, the teacher used "hand saw" to mean a saw used with one hand for cutting wood.
- The article explained what "hand saw" means with a simple example.

---

round down (verb)

Express as a round number.

- Round off the amount.
- The coach explained when to use "round down" and when to wait.

---

safe (noun)

A ventilated or refrigerated cupboard for securing provisions from pests.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "safe."
- He looked up "safe" because he had never seen it before.

---

fall off (verb)

Fall heavily or suddenly; decline markedly.

- The real estate market fell off.
- This button had fallen off.

---

follow through (verb)

Pursue to a conclusion or bring to a successful issue.

- Did he go through with the treatment?
- She followed up his recommendations with a written proposal.

---

internet (noun)

A computer network consisting of a worldwide network of computer networks that use the TCP/IP network protocols to facilitate data transmission and exchange.

- The article explained what "internet" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "internet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

night club (noun)

A spot that is open late at night and that provides entertainment (as singers or dancers) as well as dancing and food and drink.

- The gossip columnist got his information by visiting nightclubs every night.
- He played the drums at a jazz club.

---

phone book (noun)

A directory containing an alphabetical list of telephone subscribers and their telephone numbers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phone book."
- The article explained what "phone book" means with a simple example.

---

program line (noun)

(computer science) a line of code written as part of a computer program.

- He looked up "program line" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "program line" during the group presentation.

---

re-start (verb)

Take up or begin anew.

- She tried to use "re-start" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "re-start" when talking about this idea.

---

service program (noun)

(computer science) a program designed for general support of the processes of a computer.

- A computer system provides utility programs to perform the tasks needed by most users.
- The article explained what "service program" means with a simple example.

---

step down (verb)

Reduce the level or intensity or size or scope of.

- The coach explained when to use "step down" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "step down" until he saw an example.

---

water main (noun)

Main (a pipe or conduit) for conveying water.

- He looked up “water main” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water main.”

---

ways (noun)

Structure consisting of a sloping way down to the water from the place where ships are built or repaired.

- We went our separate ways.
- He went a long ways.

---

access (noun)

A way of entering or leaving.

- He took a wrong turn on the access to the bridge.
- He gained access to the building.

---

base (noun)

A place that the runner must touch before scoring.

- The attack wiped out our forward bases.
- It was built on a base of solid rock.

---

call-board (noun)

A bulletin board backstage in a theater.

- They discussed “call-board” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “call-board” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

case shot (noun)

A metallic cylinder packed with shot and used as ammunition in a firearm.

- Understanding “case shot” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “case shot” to mean a metallic cylinder packed with shot and used as....

---

local street (noun)

A street that is primarily used to gain access to the property bordering it.

- In class, the teacher used “local street” to mean a street that is primarily used to gain access to....
- They discussed “local street” during the group presentation.

---

main line (noun)

The principal route of a transportation system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “main line.”
- The article explained what “main line” means with a simple example.

---

oil well (noun)

A well that yields or has yielded oil.

- In class, the teacher used “oil well” to mean a well that yields or has yielded oil.
- He looked up “oil well” because he had never seen it before.

---

pay-phone (noun)

A coin-operated telephone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pay-phone.”
- He looked up “pay-phone” because he had never seen it before.

---

rest stop (noun)

Designated paved area beside a main road where cars can stop temporarily.

- Understanding “rest stop” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “rest stop” during the group presentation.

---

schools (noun)

A building where young people receive education.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “schools.”
- He looked up “schools” because he had never seen it before.

service road (noun)

A local road that runs parallel to an expressway and allows local traffic to gain access to property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service road."
- The article explained what "service road" means with a simple example.

side road (noun)

A minor road branching off of a main road.

- They discussed "side road" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "side road" means with a simple example.

talking book (noun)

Sound recording of someone reading a book; frequently used by blind people.

- They discussed "talking book" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "talking book" means with a simple example.

tv set (noun)

An electronic device that receives television signals and displays them on a screen.

- The British call a tv set a telly.
- He looked up "tv set" because he had never seen it before.

build in (verb)

Make something an integral part of something else.

- We can build in a special clause to make the contract better for you.
- Can you use "build in" in a sentence that fits this situation?

pick-me-up (noun)

A tonic or restorative (especially a drink of liquor).

- He looked up "pick-me-up" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pick-me-up" to mean a tonic or restorative (especially a drink of liquor).

piece (noun)

An item that is an instance of some type.

- He designed a new piece of equipment.
- She bought a lovely piece of china.

security system (noun)

An electrical device that sets off an alarm when someone tries to break in.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "security system."
- The article explained what "security system" means with a simple example.

straight (noun)

A straight segment of a roadway or racecourse.

- In class, the teacher used "straight" to mean a straight segment of a roadway or racecourse.
- Understanding "straight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wall (noun)

A masonry fence (as around an estate or garden).

- The wall followed the road.
- He ducked behind the garden wall and waited.

wrote (verb)

Have (one's written work) issued for publication.

- He wrote four novels.
- He wrote that he would be coming soon.

access time (noun)

(computer science) the interval between the time data is requested by the system and the time the data is provided by the drive.

- Access time is the sum of seek time and rotational latency and command processing overhead.
- The article explained what "access time" means with a simple example.

---

club head (noun)

(golf) the head of the club which strikes the ball.

- He looked up "club head" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "club head" during the group presentation.

---

club-head (noun)

(golf) the head of the club which strikes the ball.

- They discussed "club-head" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "club-head."

---

die back (verb)

Suffer from a disease that kills shoots.

- The plants near the garage are dying back.
- Can you use "die back" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

land line (noun)

A telephone line that travels over terrestrial circuits.

- A land line can be wire or fiber optics or microwave.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "land line."

---

local road (noun)

A street that is primarily used to gain access to the property bordering it.

- They discussed "local road" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "local road" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mark out (verb)

Set boundaries to and delimit.

- Mark out the territory.
- He did not know how to use "mark out" until he saw an example.

---

post road (noun)

A road over which mail is carried.

- Understanding "post road" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "post road" means with a simple example.

---

rest area (noun)

Designated paved area beside a main road where cars can stop temporarily.

- They discussed "rest area" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rest area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

write (verb)

Have (one's written work) issued for publication.

- How many books did Georges Simenon write?
- Please write to me every week.

---

write of (verb)

Write about a particular topic.

- She tried to use "write of" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "write of" in real sentences.

---

write on (verb)

Write about a particular topic.

- The coach explained when to use "write on" and when to wait.

- Can you use “write on” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

album (noun)

A book of blank pages with pockets or envelopes; for organizing photographs or stamp collections etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “album.”
- They discussed “album” during the group presentation.

---

big blue (noun)

A reliable and deadly 15,000-pound fragmentation bomb that explodes just above ground with a large radius; the largest conventional bomb in existence; used in Afghanistan.

- In class, the teacher used “big blue” to mean a reliable and deadly 15,000-pound fragmentation....
- He looked up “big blue” because he had never seen it before.

---

call center (noun)

A center equipped to handle a large volume of telephone calls (especially for taking orders or serving customers).

- They discussed “call center” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “call center” means with a simple example.

---

lead line (noun)

(nautical) plumb line for determining depth.

- He looked up “lead line” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “lead line” to mean (nautical) plumb line for determining depth.

---

limited (noun)

Public transport consisting of a fast train or bus that makes only a few scheduled stops.

- In class, the teacher used “limited” to mean public transport consisting of a fast train or bus....
- The article explained what “limited” means with a simple example.

---

network (noun)

A system of intersecting lines or channels.

- A railroad network.
- A network of canals.

---

addition (noun)

A component that is added to something to improve it.

- The addition of a bathroom was a major improvement.
- The addition of cinnamon improved the flavor.

---

control board (noun)

Electrical device consisting of a flat insulated surface that contains switches and dials and meters for controlling other electrical devices.

- Suddenly the board lit up like a Christmas tree.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “control board.”

---

die down (verb)

Become progressively weaker.

- The laughter died down.
- The coach explained when to use “die down” and when to wait.

---

die off (verb)

Become extinct.

- Dinosaurs died out.
- He did not know how to use “die off” until he saw an example.

---

fall away (verb)

Diminish in size or intensity.

- He did not know how to use “fall away” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “fall away” and when to wait.

---

gas (noun)

A pedal that controls the throttle valve.

- He stepped on the gas.
- The article explained what “gas” means with a simple example.

---

leave behind (verb)

Leave unchanged or undisturbed or refrain from taking.

- Leave it as is.
- Leave the young fawn alone.

---

private line (noun)

A telephone line serving a single subscriber.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “private line.”
- They discussed “private line” during the group presentation.

---

radio (noun)

A communication system based on broadcasting electromagnetic waves.

- They discussed “radio” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “radio” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sound system (noun)

A system of electronic equipment for recording or reproducing sound.

- Understanding “sound system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “sound system” during the group presentation.

---

walk through (verb)

Perform in a perfunctory way, as for a first rehearsal.

- She tried to use “walk through” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “walk through” until he saw an example.

---

write about (verb)

Write about a particular topic.

- Snow wrote about China.
- The coach explained when to use “write about” and when to wait.

---

write out (verb)

Put into writing; write in complete form.

- Write out a contract.
- Write out a check.

---

break open (verb)

Come open suddenly and violently, as if from internal pressure.

- He broke open the picnic basket.
- He did not know how to use “break open” until he saw an example.

---

get moving (verb)

Start to be active.

- Get cracking, please!
- Learners should practice how to use “get moving” in real sentences.

---

mark off (verb)

Set boundaries to and delimit.

- Mark out the territory.
- Tick off the items.

---

military post (noun)

Military installation at which a body of troops is stationed.

- This military post provides an important source of income for the town nearby.
- There is an officer's club on the post.

---

two-piece (noun)

A business suit consisting of a matching jacket and skirt or trousers.

- The article explained what "two-piece" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "two-piece" to mean a business suit consisting of a matching jacket and....

---

day care center (noun)

A nursery for the supervision of preschool children while the parents work.

- In class, the teacher used "day care center" to mean a nursery for the supervision of preschool children....
- The article explained what "day care center" means with a simple example.

---

hot line (noun)

A direct telephone line between two officials.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hot line."
- The article explained what "hot line" means with a simple example.

---

link (noun)

A fastener that serves to join or connect.

- The walls are held together with metal links placed in the wet mortar during construction.
- He looked up "link" because he had never seen it before.

---

positive (noun)

A film showing a photographic image whose tones correspond to those of the original subject.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "positive."
- He looked up "positive" because he had never seen it before.

---

small stuff (noun)

Any light rope used on shipboard.

- They discussed "small stuff" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "small stuff" because he had never seen it before.

---

control center (noun)

The operational center for a group of related activities.

- The general in command never left the control center.
- Understanding "control center" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cut short (verb)

Interrupt before its natural or planned end.

- We had to cut short our vacation.
- The spontaneous applause cut the singer short.

---

great wall (noun)

A fortification 1,500 miles long built across northern China in the 3rd century BC; it averages 6 meters in width.

- They discussed "great wall" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "great wall" means with a simple example.

---

hard drive (noun)

Computer hardware that holds and spins a magnetic or optical disk and reads and writes information on it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hard drive."
- He looked up "hard drive" because he had never seen it before.

---

hour hand (noun)

The shorter hand of a clock that points to the hours.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hour hand."
- They discussed "hour hand" during the group presentation.

king post (noun)

Post connecting the crossbeam to the apex of a triangular truss.

- They discussed "king post" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "king post" because he had never seen it before.

open-source (adjective)

Of or relating to or being computer software for which the source code is freely available.

- Would you call this situation "open-source"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "open-source."

production line (noun)

Mechanical system in a factory whereby an article is conveyed through sites at which successive operations are performed on it.

- The article explained what "production line" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "production line" to mean mechanical system in a factory whereby an article....

research center (noun)

A center where research is done.

- In class, the teacher used "research center" to mean a center where research is done.
- They discussed "research center" during the group presentation.

running light (noun)

Light carried by a boat that indicates the boat's direction; vessels at night carry a red light on the port bow and a green light on the starboard bow.

- They discussed "running light" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "running light" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

speed up (verb)

Cause to move faster.

- The coach explained when to use "speed up" and when to wait.
- Can you use "speed up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

stage set (noun)

Representation consisting of the scenery and other properties used to identify the location of a dramatic production.

- The sets were meticulously authentic.
- Understanding "stage set" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

center bit (noun)

A bit with a sharp center point for guidance and two side cutters.

- Understanding "center bit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "center bit" during the group presentation.

computer (noun)

A machine for performing calculations automatically.

- The article explained what "computer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "computer" to mean a machine for performing calculations automatically.

construction (noun)

A thing constructed; a complex entity constructed of many parts.

- She wore her hair in an amazing construction of whirls and ribbons.
- During the construction we had to take a detour.

drive line (noun)

Mechanism that transmits power from the engine to the driving wheels of a motor vehicle.

- He looked up "drive line" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "drive line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gas well (noun)

A well that yields or has yielded natural gas.

- The article explained what “gas well” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “gas well” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

levels (noun)

A flat surface at right angles to a plumb line.

- A good actor communicates on several levels.
- The article explained what “levels” means with a simple example.

---

photo (noun)

A representation of a person or scene in the form of a print or transparent slide; recorded by a camera on light-sensitive material.

- Understanding “photo” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “photo” because he had never seen it before.

---

take effect (verb)

Go into effect or become effective or operative.

- The new law will take effect next month.
- Learners should practice how to use “take effect” in real sentences.

---

write down (verb)

Reduce the estimated value of something.

- For tax purposes you can write off the laser printer.
- Can you use “write down” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

big h (noun)

Street names for heroin.

- He looked up “big h” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “big h” to mean street names for heroin.

---

coach (noun)

A vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public transport.

- In class, the teacher used “coach” to mean a vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public....
- Understanding “coach” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

community center (noun)

A center where the members of a community can gather for social or cultural activities.

- Understanding “community center” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “community center” to mean a center where the members of a community can....

---

die away (verb)

Become less in amount or intensity.

- The coach explained when to use “die away” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “die away” in real sentences.

---

fine art (noun)

The products of human creativity; works of art collectively.

- An art exhibition.
- A fine collection of art.

---

ground control (noun)

A communication system for sending continuous radio messages to an airplane pilot who is making a ground-controlled approach to landing.

- He looked up “ground control” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “ground control” during the group presentation.

---

gun (noun)

A pedal that controls the throttle valve.

- Two runners started before the gun.

- A twenty gun salute.

---

includes (verb)

Add as part of something else; put in as part of a set, group, or category.

- The list includes the names of many famous writers.
- In everyday English, people use "includes" when talking about this idea.

---

break short (verb)

Interrupt before its natural or planned end.

- We had to cut short our vacation.
- He did not know how to use "break short" until he saw an example.

---

centre (noun)

A building dedicated to a particular activity.

- They discussed "centre" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "centre" because he had never seen it before.

---

model t (noun)

The first widely available automobile powered by a gasoline engine; mass-produced by Henry Ford from 1908 to 1927.

- They discussed "model t" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "model t" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pass away (verb)

Pass from physical life and lose all bodily attributes and functions necessary to sustain life.

- She hoped that the problem would eventually pass away.
- He did not know how to use "pass away" until he saw an example.

---

picture book (noun)

A book consisting chiefly of pictures.

- They discussed "picture book" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "picture book" to mean a book consisting chiefly of pictures.

---

second base (noun)

The base that must be touched second by a base runner in baseball.

- They discussed "second base" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "second base."

---

bar (noun)

A counter where you can obtain food or drink.

- He bought a hot dog and a coke at the bar.
- He drowned his sorrows in whiskey at the bar.

---

clear-cut (verb)

Remove all the trees at one time.

- Clear-cut an acre of forest.
- She tried to use "clear-cut" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

contract (verb)

Make or become more narrow or restricted.

- The spasm contracted the muscle.
- The heat contracted the woollen garment.

---

control key (noun)

(computer science) the key on a computer keyboard that is used (in combination with some other key) to type control characters.

- Understanding "control key" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "control key" to mean (computer science) the key on a computer keyboard....

---

image (noun)

A representation of a person (especially in the form of sculpture).

- The emperor's tomb had his image carved in stone.
- Her imagination forced images upon her too awful to contemplate.

---

leave alone (verb)

Leave unchanged or undisturbed or refrain from taking.

- Leave it as is.
- Leave the young fawn alone.

---

main road (noun)

A major road for any form of motor transport.

- They discussed "main road" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "main road" means with a simple example.

---

mother board (noun)

The main circuit board for a computer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother board."
- The article explained what "mother board" means with a simple example.

---

order code (noun)

The portion of a set of operation descriptions that specifies the operation to be performed; the set of operations in a computer.

- They discussed "order code" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "order code" to mean the portion of a set of operation descriptions that....

---

area code (noun)

A number usually of 3 digits assigned to a telephone area as in the United States and Canada.

- In class, the teacher used "area code" to mean a number usually of 3 digits assigned to a....
- He looked up "area code" because he had never seen it before.

---

call waiting (noun)

A way of letting you know that someone else is calling when you are using your telephone.

- They discussed "call waiting" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "call waiting."

---

data rate (noun)

The rate at which circuits or other devices operate when handling digital information.

- In class, the teacher used "data rate" to mean the rate at which circuits or other devices operate....
- Understanding "data rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fire control system (noun)

Naval weaponry consisting of a system for controlling the delivery of fire on a military target.

- In class, the teacher used "fire control system" to mean naval weaponry consisting of a system for....
- He looked up "fire control system" because he had never seen it before.

---

light source (noun)

Any device serving as a source of illumination.

- He stopped the car and turned off the lights.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light source."

---

set piece (noun)

A piece of scenery intended to stand alone as part of the stage setting.

- In class, the teacher used "set piece" to mean a piece of scenery intended to stand alone as part....
- He looked up "set piece" because he had never seen it before.

---

ship (noun)

A vessel that carries passengers or freight.

- He looked up “ship” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “ship” during the group presentation.

---

trump (noun)

A playing card in the suit that has been declared trumps.

- The ace of trumps is a sure winner.
- Clubs were declared trumps.

---

bank building (noun)

A building in which the business of banking transacted.

- The bank is on the corner of Nassau and Witherspoon.
- In class, the teacher used “bank building” to mean a building in which the business of banking transacted.

---

church building (noun)

A place for public (especially Christian) worship.

- The church was empty.
- The article explained what “church building” means with a simple example.

---

free weight (noun)

Sports equipment used in calisthenic exercises and weightlifting; it is not attached to anything and is raised and lowered by use of the hands and arms.

- In class, the teacher used “free weight” to mean sports equipment used in calisthenic exercises and....
- They discussed “free weight” during the group presentation.

---

imagine (verb)

Form a mental image of something that is not present or that is not the case.

- I imagine she earned a lot of money with her new novel.
- The coach explained when to use “imagine” and when to wait.

---

medical building (noun)

Building where medicine is practiced.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “medical building.”
- The article explained what “medical building” means with a simple example.

---

phone bill (noun)

Statement of charges for telephone service.

- They discussed “phone bill” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “phone bill.”

---

spring (noun)

A metal elastic device that returns to its shape or position when pushed or pulled or pressed.

- The spring was broken.
- The emerging buds were a sure sign of spring.

---

watch key (noun)

Winder consisting of a key with a square hole; used for winding some watches.

- Understanding “watch key” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “watch key.”

---

wear on (verb)

Pass slowly (of time).

- Learners should practice how to use “wear on” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “wear on” when talking about this idea.

---

call box (noun)

A numbered compartment in a post office where mail is put to be called for.

- They discussed “call box” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “call box” to mean a numbered compartment in a post office where mail....

center field (noun)

The piece of ground in the outfield directly ahead of the catcher.

- He hit the ball to deep center.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "center field."

color in (verb)

Add color to.

- The child colored the drawings.
- Fall colored the trees.

direct (verb)

Lead, as in the performance of a composition.

- He directed the children to do their homework.
- Criticism directed at her superior.

home computer (noun)

A computer intended for use in the home.

- He looked up "home computer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "home computer" during the group presentation.

line of products (noun)

A particular kind of product or merchandise.

- A nice line of shoes.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line of products."

party wall (noun)

A wall erected on the line between two properties and shared by both owners.

- He looked up "party wall" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "party wall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

radio set (noun)

An electronic receiver that detects and demodulates and amplifies transmitted signals.

- The article explained what "radio set" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "radio set" to mean an electronic receiver that detects and demodulates....

touch on (verb)

Restore by replacing a part or putting together what is torn or broken.

- She tried to use "touch on" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "touch on" in real sentences.

black box (noun)

Equipment that records information about the performance of an aircraft during flight.

- In class, the teacher used "black box" to mean equipment that records information about the....
- Understanding "black box" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

check character (noun)

A character that is added to the end of a block of transmitted data and used to check the accuracy of the transmission.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "check character."
- He looked up "check character" because he had never seen it before.

dream up (verb)

Devise or invent.

- She tried to use "dream up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "dream up" until he saw an example.

face card (noun)

One of the twelve cards in a deck bearing a picture of a face.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "face card."
- Understanding "face card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

finish up (verb)

Finally be or do something.

- She tried to use "finish up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "finish up" until he saw an example.

---

gas system (noun)

Facility (plant and equipment) for providing natural-gas service.

- He looked up "gas system" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gas system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oil future (noun)

Petroleum bought or sold at an agreed price for delivery at a specified future date.

- The article explained what "oil future" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "oil future" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

overall (noun)

A loose protective coverall or smock worn over ordinary clothing for dirty work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "overall."
- The article explained what "overall" means with a simple example.

---

record player (noun)

Machine in which rotating records cause a stylus to vibrate and the vibrations are amplified acoustically or electronically.

- He looked up "record player" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "record player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

touch up (verb)

Alter so as to produce a more desirable appearance.

- This photograph has been retouched!
- The coach explained when to use "touch up" and when to wait.

---

cars (noun)

A wheeled vehicle adapted to the rails of railroad.

- Three cars had jumped the rails.
- They discussed "cars" during the group presentation.

---

conference call (noun)

A telephone call in which more than two people participate.

- He looked up "conference call" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "conference call" to mean a telephone call in which more than two people....

---

court card (noun)

One of the twelve cards in a deck bearing a picture of a face.

- The article explained what "court card" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "court card" to mean one of the twelve cards in a deck bearing a picture....

---

gas line (noun)

A pipeline used to transport natural gas.

- The workmen broke through the gas line.
- The car wouldn't start because dirt clogged the gas line.

---

hand-build (verb)

Make without a potter's wheel.

- This famous potter hand-builds all of her vessels.

- Learners should practice how to use “hand-build” in real sentences.

---

plant (noun)

Buildings for carrying on industrial labor.

- They built a large plant to manufacture automobiles.
- The police used a plant to trick the thieves.

---

spot (noun)

A business establishment for entertainment.

- Night spot.
- A bright spot on a planet.

---

super c (noun)

Street names for ketamine.

- In class, the teacher used “super c” to mean street names for ketamine.
- Understanding “super c” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air base (noun)

A base for military aircraft.

- The article explained what “air base” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “air base” to mean a base for military aircraft.

---

block (noun)

A platform from which an auctioneer sells.

- They put their paintings on the block.
- The pyramids were built with large stone blocks.

---

carry out (verb)

Pursue to a conclusion or bring to a successful issue.

- Carry out a task.
- In everyday English, people use “carry out” when talking about this idea.

---

end product (noun)

Final product; the things produced.

- Understanding “end product” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “end product” during the group presentation.

---

equipment (noun)

An instrumentality needed for an undertaking or to perform a service.

- In class, the teacher used “equipment” to mean an instrumentality needed for an undertaking or to....
- The article explained what “equipment” means with a simple example.

---

fall-board (noun)

The hinged protective covering that protects the keyboard of a piano when it is not being played.

- Understanding “fall-board” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “fall-board” to mean the hinged protective covering that protects the....

---

fire code (noun)

Set of standards established and enforced by government for fire prevention and safety in case of fire as in fire escapes etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fire code.”
- He looked up “fire code” because he had never seen it before.

---

high bar (noun)

Gymnastic apparatus consisting of a bar supported in a horizontal position by uprights at both ends.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “high bar.”
- The article explained what “high bar” means with a simple example.

---

one-spot (noun)

A domino or die whose upward face shows one pip.

- They discussed "one-spot" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "one-spot" because he had never seen it before.

---

paper-back book (noun)

A book with paper covers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paper-back book."
- Understanding "paper-back book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

round shot (noun)

A solid projectile that in former times was fired from a cannon.

- He looked up "round shot" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "round shot."

---

t-network (noun)

A circuit formed by two equal series circuits with a shunt between them.

- The article explained what "t-network" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "t-network" to mean a circuit formed by two equal series circuits with....

---

time machine (noun)

A science fiction machine that is supposed to transport people or objects into the past or the future.

- In class, the teacher used "time machine" to mean a science fiction machine that is supposed to....
- They discussed "time machine" during the group presentation.

---

wear off (verb)

Deteriorate through use or stress.

- The coach explained when to use "wear off" and when to wait.
- Can you use "wear off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

baby oil (noun)

An ointment for babies.

- Understanding "baby oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "baby oil" to mean an ointment for babies.

---

building code (noun)

Set of standards established and enforced by local government for the structural safety of buildings.

- They discussed "building code" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "building code."

---

camera (noun)

Television equipment consisting of a lens system that focuses an image on a photosensitive mosaic that is scanned by an electron beam.

- They discussed "camera" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "camera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cell (noun)

A device that delivers an electric current as the result of a chemical reaction.

- The cells of a honeycomb.
- Understanding "cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

computer business (noun)

A business that manufactures and sells computers.

- They discussed "computer business" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "computer business" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

computer system (noun)

A system of one or more computers and associated software with common storage.

- He looked up “computer system” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “computer system.”

---

drive line system (noun)

Mechanism that transmits power from the engine to the driving wheels of a motor vehicle.

- They discussed “drive line system” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “drive line system” to mean mechanism that transmits power from the engine to....

---

drug (noun)

A substance that is used as a medicine or narcotic.

- Understanding “drug” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “drug” because he had never seen it before.

---

finish off (verb)

Finish a task completely.

- The coach explained when to use “finish off” and when to wait.
- Can you use “finish off” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

football field (noun)

The playing field on which football is played.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “football field.”
- They discussed “football field” during the group presentation.

---

get worse (verb)

Deteriorate in health.

- Learners should practice how to use “get worse” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “get worse” and when to wait.

---

grow over (verb)

Grow beyond or across.

- The ivy overgrew the patio.
- He did not know how to use “grow over” until he saw an example.

---

half track (noun)

A track that goes around only rear wheels.

- He looked up “half track” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “half track” during the group presentation.

---

high-level language (noun)

A problem-oriented language requiring little knowledge of the computer on which it will be run.

- They discussed “high-level language” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “high-level language” means with a simple example.

---

make grow (verb)

Cause to grow and differentiate in ways conforming to its natural development.

- He did not know how to use “make grow” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “make grow” in real sentences.

---

playing card (noun)

One of a pack of cards that are used to play card games.

- He looked up “playing card” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “playing card.”

---

produced (verb)

Create or manufacture a man-made product.

- The proud father produced many pictures of his baby.
- She tried to use “produced” carefully so everyone would understand.

rock bit (noun)

A drill bit that has hardened rotating rollers.

- Understanding "rock bit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "rock bit" during the group presentation.

set gun (noun)

A gun that is set to fire on any intruder that comes in contact with the wire that sets it off.

- He looked up "set gun" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "set gun" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sound film (noun)

Motion-picture film with sound effects and dialogue recorded on it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sound film."
- They discussed "sound film" during the group presentation.

sunday best (noun)

The best attire you have which is worn to church on Sunday.

- In class, the teacher used "sunday best" to mean the best attire you have which is worn to church on....
- He looked up "sunday best" because he had never seen it before.

three-way calling (noun)

A way of adding a third party to your conversation without the assistance of a telephone operator.

- In class, the teacher used "three-way calling" to mean a way of adding a third party to your conversation....
- Understanding "three-way calling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

touch off (verb)

Put in motion or move to act.

- Learners should practice how to use "touch off" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "touch off" when talking about this idea.

brown university (noun)

A university in Rhode Island.

- Understanding "brown university" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brown university."

coach-and-four (noun)

A carriage pulled by four horses with one driver.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coach-and-four."
- Understanding "coach-and-four" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cover song (noun)

A recording of a song that was first recorded or made popular by somebody else.

- They made a cover of a Beatles' song.
- In class, the teacher used "cover song" to mean a recording of a song that was first recorded or....

dead-end street (noun)

A street with only one way in or out.

- The article explained what "dead-end street" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dead-end street" to mean a street with only one way in or out.

google (verb)

Search the internet (for information) using the Google search engine.

- He googled the woman he had met at the party.
- Can you use "google" in a sentence that fits this situation?

gun case (noun)

A case for storing a gun.

- In class, the teacher used "gun case" to mean a case for storing a gun.
- The article explained what "gun case" means with a simple example.

---

pop out (verb)

Come out suddenly or forcefully.

- You stick a bill in the vending machine and the change pops out.
- Spring popped up everywhere in the valley.

---

seconds (noun)

The gear that has the second lowest forward gear ratio in the gear box of a motor vehicle.

- The treasure is 2 minutes and 45 seconds south of here.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seconds."

---

systems program (noun)

A program (as an operating system or compiler or utility program) that controls some aspect of the operation of a computer.

- In class, the teacher used "systems program" to mean a program (as an operating system or compiler or....
- The article explained what "systems program" means with a simple example.

---

third base (noun)

The base that must be touched third by a base runner in baseball.

- He was cut down on a close play at third.
- He is playing third.

---

appear (verb)

Come into being or existence, or appear on the scene.

- Homo sapiens appeared millions of years ago.
- This appears to be a very difficult problem.

---

carry through (verb)

Put in effect.

- Carry out a task.
- We pulled through most of the victims of the bomb attack.

---

coffee can (noun)

A can for storing ground coffee.

- In class, the teacher used "coffee can" to mean a can for storing ground coffee.
- The article explained what "coffee can" means with a simple example.

---

cross bit (noun)

A rock drill having cruciform cutting edges; used in mining.

- They discussed "cross bit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cross bit" means with a simple example.

---

data track (noun)

(computer science) one of the circular magnetic paths on a magnetic disk that serve as a guide for writing and reading data.

- The article explained what "data track" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "data track" during the group presentation.

---

glass (noun)

A mirror; usually a ladies' dressing mirror.

- She collected old glass.
- He looked up "glass" because he had never seen it before.

---

hair space (noun)

(printing) the narrowest of the spaces used to separate words or letters.

- He looked up "hair space" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "hair space" during the group presentation.

---

heat up (verb)

Gain heat or get hot.

- The room heated up quickly.
- The sun heats the oceans.

---

l-p (noun)

A long-playing phonograph record; designed to be played at 33.3 rpm.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "l-p."
- He looked up "l-p" because he had never seen it before.

---

letter case (noun)

Case for carrying letters.

- Understanding "letter case" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "letter case" to mean case for carrying letters.

---

phone card (noun)

A card that is used instead of cash to make telephone calls.

- Understanding "phone card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "phone card" to mean a card that is used instead of cash to make....

---

receive (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- These aspects of civilization do not find expression or receive an interpretation.
- His movie received a good review.

---

return key (noun)

The key on electric typewriters or computer keyboards that causes a carriage return and a line feed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "return key."
- He looked up "return key" because he had never seen it before.

---

test range (noun)

A range for conducting tests.

- The article explained what "test range" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "test range" during the group presentation.

---

water gun (noun)

Plaything consisting of a toy pistol that squirts water.

- The article explained what "water gun" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "water gun" to mean plaything consisting of a toy pistol that squirts water.

---

writing board (noun)

Work surface consisting of a wide lightweight board that can be placed across the lap and used for writing.

- He looked up "writing board" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "writing board" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

appears (verb)

Come into being or existence, or appear on the scene.

- This appears to be a very difficult problem.
- It appears that the weather in California is very bad.

---

call centre (noun)

A center equipped to handle a large volume of telephone calls (especially for taking orders or serving customers).

- They discussed "call centre" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "call centre" means with a simple example.

---

church key (noun)

Can opener that has a triangular pointed end that pierces the tops of cans.

- Understanding "church key" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "church key" means with a simple example.

defense system (noun)

The weaponry available for the defense of a region.

- They discussed "defense system" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defense system."

engine (noun)

An instrument or machine that is used in warfare, such as a battering ram, catapult, artillery piece, etc.

- Medieval engines of war.
- An engine of change.

minute hand (noun)

Points to the minutes.

- The article explained what "minute hand" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "minute hand" to mean points to the minutes.

product line (noun)

A particular kind of product or merchandise.

- A nice line of shoes.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "product line."

record cover (noun)

A sleeve for storing a phonograph record.

- Understanding "record cover" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "record cover" because he had never seen it before.

screen out (verb)

Examine in order to test suitability.

- Screen these samples.
- Screen the job applicants.

slow up (verb)

Cause to proceed more slowly.

- The illness slowed him down.
- Production slowed.

square (noun)

A hand tool consisting of two straight arms at right angles; used to construct or test right angles.

- The carpenter who built this room must have lost his square.
- You can compute the area of a square if you know the length of its sides.

wear away (verb)

Become ground down or deteriorate.

- Erosion wore away the surface.
- In everyday English, people use "wear away" when talking about this idea.

access road (noun)

A short road giving access to an expressway.

- In Britain they call an access road a slip road.
- In class, the teacher used "access road" to mean a short road giving access to an expressway.

appeared (verb)

Come into being or existence, or appear on the scene.

- Homo sapiens appeared millions of years ago.
- They appeared like people who had not eaten or slept for a long time.

---

becomes (verb)

Enter or assume a certain state or condition.

- What becomes has duration.
- Mourning becomes Electra.

---

court of justice (noun)

A tribunal that is presided over by a magistrate or by one or more judges who administer justice according to the laws.

- The article explained what "court of justice" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "court of justice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

data link (noun)

An interconnecting circuit between two or more locations for the purpose of transmitting and receiving data.

- Understanding "data link" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "data link" during the group presentation.

---

digital (adjective)

Of a circuit or device that represents magnitudes in digits.

- Digital computer.
- Digital clock.

---

glass over (verb)

Become glassy or take on a glass-like appearance.

- Her eyes glaze over when she is bored.
- Learners should practice how to use "glass over" in real sentences.

---

great hall (noun)

The principal hall in a castle or mansion; can be used for dining or entertainment.

- Understanding "great hall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "great hall" to mean the principal hall in a castle or mansion; can be....

---

internet site (noun)

A computer connected to the internet that maintains a series of web pages on the World Wide Web.

- The Israeli web site was damaged by hostile hackers.
- He looked up "internet site" because he had never seen it before.

---

photos (noun)

A representation of a person or scene in the form of a print or transparent slide; recorded by a camera on light-sensitive material.

- The article explained what "photos" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "photos" to mean a representation of a person or scene in the form....

---

pop off (verb)

Pass from physical life and lose all bodily attributes and functions necessary to sustain life.

- The coach explained when to use "pop off" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "pop off" in real sentences.

---

remain (verb)

Stay the same; remain in a certain state.

- The dress remained wet after repeated attempts to dry it.
- He remained unmoved by her tears.

---

small ship (noun)

A ship that is small.

- The article explained what "small ship" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "small ship" during the group presentation.

united states code (noun)

A consolidation and codification by subject matter of the general and permanent laws of the United States; is prepared and published by a unit of the United States House of Representatives.

- Understanding "united states code" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "united states code" because he had never seen it before.

air gun (noun)

A gun that propels a projectile by compressed air.

- In class, the teacher used "air gun" to mean a gun that propels a projectile by compressed air.
- They discussed "air gun" during the group presentation.

cross street (noun)

A street intersecting a main street (usually at right angles) and continuing on both sides of it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cross street."
- They discussed "cross street" during the group presentation.

fashion (verb)

Make out of components (often in an improvising manner).

- She fashioned a tent out of a sheet and a few sticks.
- Learners should practice how to use "fashion" in real sentences.

jack (noun)

A small ball at which players aim in lawn bowling.

- You don't know jack.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jack."

land mine (noun)

An explosive mine hidden underground; explodes when stepped on or driven over.

- Understanding "land mine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "land mine" during the group presentation.

period piece (noun)

Any work of art whose special value lies in its evocation of a historical period.

- They discussed "period piece" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "period piece" to mean any work of art whose special value lies in its....

phone message (noun)

A message transmitted by telephone.

- The article explained what "phone message" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "phone message" to mean a message transmitted by telephone.

pull-in (noun)

A roadside cafe especially for lorry drivers.

- The article explained what "pull-in" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pull-in" during the group presentation.

push (noun)

An electrical switch operated by pressing.

- The elevator was operated by push buttons.
- The push beside the bed operated a buzzer at the desk.

real-time operation (noun)

Data processing fast enough to keep up with an outside process.

- The article explained what "real-time operation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "real-time operation" during the group presentation.

scale up (verb)

Increase proportionally.

- Scale up the model.
- Can you use “scale up” in a sentence that fits this situation?

screen off (verb)

Partition by means of a divider, such as a screen.

- Screen off this part of the room.
- In everyday English, people use “screen off” when talking about this idea.

ship of the line (noun)

A warship intended for combat.

- Understanding “ship of the line” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “ship of the line” to mean a warship intended for combat.

t-bar (noun)

A surface lift where riders hold a bar and are pulled up the hill on their skis.

- Understanding “t-bar” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “t-bar” to mean a surface lift where riders hold a bar and are....

test paper (noun)

Paper impregnated with an indicator for use in chemical tests.

- Understanding “test paper” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “test paper.”

centre bit (noun)

A bit with a sharp center point for guidance and two side cutters.

- Understanding “centre bit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “centre bit” during the group presentation.

gas main (noun)

A main that distributes gas.

- In class, the teacher used “gas main” to mean a main that distributes gas.
- They discussed “gas main” during the group presentation.

jack up (verb)

Lift with a special device.

- Jack up the car so you can change the tire.
- The coach explained when to use “jack up” and when to wait.

pull-up (noun)

A roadside cafe especially for lorry drivers.

- They discussed “pull-up” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pull-up.”

sort program (noun)

A utility program that sorts data items.

- In class, the teacher used “sort program” to mean a utility program that sorts data items.
- They discussed “sort program” during the group presentation.

source code (noun)

Program instructions written as an ASCII text file; must be translated by a compiler or interpreter or assembler into the object code for a particular computer before execution.

- Understanding “source code” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “source code” to mean program instructions written as an ascii text file;....

water skin (noun)

A container of skin for holding water.

- Understanding “water skin” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water skin."

---

world trade center (noun)

Twin skyscrapers 110 stories high in New York City; built 1368 feet tall in 1970 to 1973; destroyed by a terrorist attack on September 11, 2001.

- The article explained what "world trade center" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "world trade center" during the group presentation.

---

bar bit (noun)

A bit for horses that is a solid bar of metal.

- In class, the teacher used "bar bit" to mean a bit for horses that is a solid bar of metal.
- Understanding "bar bit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

control operation (noun)

An operation that controls the recording or processing or transmission of interpretation of data.

- A control operation started the data processing.
- Understanding "control operation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

de-ice (verb)

Make or become free of frost or ice.

- He did not know how to use "de-ice" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "de-ice" and when to wait.

---

draw out (verb)

Lengthen in time; cause to be or last longer.

- The meeting was drawn out until midnight.
- Can you draw her out–she is always so quiet.

---

four-spot (noun)

A playing card or domino or die whose upward face shows four pips.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "four-spot."
- He looked up "four-spot" because he had never seen it before.

---

gold mine (noun)

A good source of something that is desired.

- The article explained what "gold mine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gold mine" to mean a good source of something that is desired.

---

hand wear (noun)

Clothing for the hands.

- He looked up "hand wear" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hand wear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

long distance (noun)

A telephone call made outside the local calling area.

- I talked to her by long distance.
- They discussed "long distance" during the group presentation.

---

long-distance (adjective)

Of or relating to or being a long-distance telephone call.

- A long-distance call.
- A long-distance transmission line.

---

mike (noun)

Device for converting sound waves into electrical energy.

- Understanding "mike" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mike" during the group presentation.

---

natural language (noun)

A human written or spoken language used by a community; opposed to e.g. a computer language.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "natural language."
- The article explained what "natural language" means with a simple example.

---

power plant (noun)

An electrical generating station.

- He looked up "power plant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "power plant" to mean an electrical generating station.

---

press box (noun)

Box reserved for reporters (as at a sports event).

- In class, the teacher used "press box" to mean box reserved for reporters (as at a sports event).
- They discussed "press box" during the group presentation.

---

record album (noun)

An album for holding phonograph records.

- In class, the teacher used "record album" to mean an album for holding phonograph records.
- Understanding "record album" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

separate off (verb)

Partition by means of a divider, such as a screen.

- Screen off this part of the room.
- Learners should practice how to use "separate off" in real sentences.

---

air spring (noun)

A mechanical device using confined air to absorb the shock of motion.

- They discussed "air spring" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "air spring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bad block (noun)

(computer science) a block (usually one sector) that cannot reliably hold data.

- He looked up "bad block" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bad block."

---

bag (noun)

A flexible container with a single opening.

- He stuffed his laundry into a large bag.
- His bag included two deer.

---

cast on (verb)

Make the first row of stitches when knitting.

- She tried to use "cast on" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "cast on" in real sentences.

---

click off (verb)

Perform or finish an action rapidly.

- The game was clicked off in 1:48.
- Can you use "click off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

computer program (noun)

(computer science) a sequence of instructions that a computer can interpret and execute.

- The program required several hundred lines of code.
- The article explained what "computer program" means with a simple example.

---

conference center (noun)

A center where conferences can be conducted.

- They discussed “conference center” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “conference center” because he had never seen it before.

---

eating place (noun)

A building where people go to eat.

- They discussed “eating place” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “eating place” because he had never seen it before.

---

hair oil (noun)

A toiletry for the hair.

- Understanding “hair oil” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hair oil.”

---

handle (noun)

The appendage to an object that is designed to be held in order to use or move it.

- He grabbed the hammer by the handle.
- Understanding “handle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

improve (verb)

To make better.

- The editor improved the manuscript with his changes.
- The weather improved toward evening.

---

long tom (noun)

A long swivel cannon formerly used by the navy.

- Understanding “long tom” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “long tom” to mean a long swivel cannon formerly used by the navy.

---

paper cup (noun)

A disposable cup made of paper; for holding drinks.

- Understanding “paper cup” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “paper cup.”

---

practice range (noun)

A place for practicing golf shots.

- Understanding “practice range” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “practice range” to mean a place for practicing golf shots.

---

pull-off (noun)

Designated paved area beside a main road where cars can stop temporarily.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pull-off.”
- He looked up “pull-off” because he had never seen it before.

---

scale down (verb)

Reduce proportionally.

- The model is scaled down.
- She tried to use “scale down” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

scene of action (noun)

A playing field where sports events take place.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scene of action.”
- Understanding “scene of action” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

six-gun (noun)

A pistol with a revolving cylinder (usually having six chambers for bullets).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “six-gun.”
- He looked up “six-gun” because he had never seen it before.

television (noun)

An electronic device that receives television signals and displays them on a screen.

- Television is a medium because it is neither rare nor well done.
- He looked up "television" because he had never seen it before.

till (verb)

Work land as by ploughing, harrowing, and manuring, in order to make it ready for cultivation.

- Till the soil.
- He did not know how to use "till" until he saw an example.

band saw (noun)

An endless saw consisting of a toothed metal band that is driven around two wheels.

- In class, the teacher used "band saw" to mean an endless saw consisting of a toothed metal band....
- They discussed "band saw" during the group presentation.

cat (noun)

The leaves of the shrub Catha edulis which are chewed like tobacco or used to make tea; has the effect of a euphoric stimulant.

- What a cat she is!
- British sailors feared the cat.

dead-air space (noun)

An unventilated area where no air circulates.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dead-air space."
- He looked up "dead-air space" because he had never seen it before.

drop dead (verb)

Pass from physical life and lose all bodily attributes and functions necessary to sustain life.

- In everyday English, people use "drop dead" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "drop dead" in a sentence that fits this situation?

field gun (noun)

Movable artillery (other than antiaircraft) used by armies in the field (especially for direct support of front-line troops).

- Understanding "field gun" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "field gun" means with a simple example.

fire ship (noun)

A weapon consisting of a ship carrying explosives that is set adrift to destroy enemy ships.

- Understanding "fire ship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fire ship" to mean a weapon consisting of a ship carrying explosives....

five-spot (noun)

A playing card or a domino or a die whose upward face shows five pips.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "five-spot."
- He looked up "five-spot" because he had never seen it before.

hard drug (noun)

A narcotic that is considered relatively strong and likely to cause addiction.

- They discussed "hard drug" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hard drug" because he had never seen it before.

legal code (noun)

A code of laws adopted by a state or nation.

- A code of laws.
- In class, the teacher used "legal code" to mean a code of laws adopted by a state or nation.

life ring (noun)

A life preserver in the form of a ring of buoyant material.

- He looked up "life ring" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "life ring."

---

line block (noun)

Engraving consisting of a block that has been etched or engraved.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "line block."
- They discussed "line block" during the group presentation.

---

local area network (noun)

A local computer network for communication between computers; especially a network connecting computers and word processors and other electronic office equipment to create a communication system between offices.

- He looked up "local area network" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "local area network" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

picture card (noun)

One of the twelve cards in a deck bearing a picture of a face.

- In class, the teacher used "picture card" to mean one of the twelve cards in a deck bearing a picture....
- The article explained what "picture card" means with a simple example.

---

produce (verb)

Create or manufacture a man-made product.

- We produce more cars than we can sell.
- The tree would not produce fruit.

---

pull down (verb)

Tear down so as to make flat with the ground.

- The policeman downed the heavily armed suspect.
- The mugger knocked down the old lady after she refused to hand over her wallet.

---

spirit up (verb)

Infuse with spirit.

- The company spirited him up.
- The coach explained when to use "spirit up" and when to wait.

---

wood (noun)

A golf club with a long shaft used to hit long shots; originally made with a wooden head.

- Metal woods are now standard.
- The article explained what "wood" means with a simple example.

---

commercial art (noun)

Art used for commercial purposes (as in advertising).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commercial art."
- Understanding "commercial art" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

copy (noun)

A thing made to be similar or identical to another thing.

- She made a copy of the designer dress.
- The clone was a copy of its ancestor.

---

cover version (noun)

A recording of a song that was first recorded or made popular by somebody else.

- They made a cover of a Beatles' song.
- They discussed "cover version" during the group presentation.

---

drop press (noun)

Device for making large forgings.

- In class, the teacher used "drop press" to mean device for making large forgings.

- The article explained what "drop press" means with a simple example.

---

drugs (noun)

A substance that is used as a medicine or narcotic.

- The article explained what "drugs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "drugs" to mean a substance that is used as a medicine or narcotic.

---

garden (noun)

A plot of ground where plants are cultivated.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "garden."
- He looked up "garden" because he had never seen it before.

---

gun rest (noun)

Wale at the top of the side of boat; topmost planking of a wooden vessel.

- He looked up "gun rest" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gun rest."

---

housing (noun)

A protective cover designed to contain or support a mechanical component.

- The article explained what "housing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "housing" during the group presentation.

---

information theory (noun)

(computer science) a statistical theory dealing with the limits and efficiency of information processing.

- They discussed "information theory" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "information theory."

---

length (noun)

A section of something that is long and narrow.

- A length of timber.
- A length of tubing.

---

looking glass (noun)

A mirror; usually a ladies' dressing mirror.

- They discussed "looking glass" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "looking glass" means with a simple example.

---

personal computer (noun)

A small digital computer based on a microprocessor and designed to be used by one person at a time.

- The article explained what "personal computer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "personal computer" to mean a small digital computer based on a microprocessor....

---

special k (noun)

Street names for ketamine.

- In class, the teacher used "special k" to mean street names for ketamine.
- The article explained what "special k" means with a simple example.

---

square away (verb)

Put (things or places) in order.

- Can you use "square away" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "square away" and when to wait.

---

university of texas (noun)

A university in Austin, Texas.

- He looked up "university of texas" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "university of texas."

---

video equipment (noun)

Electronic equipment that broadcasts or receives electromagnetic waves representing images and sound.

- The article explained what "video equipment" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "video equipment" to mean electronic equipment that broadcasts or receives....

---

access code (noun)

A code (a series of characters or digits) that must be entered in some way (typed or dialed or spoken) to get the use of something (a telephone line or a computer or a local area network etc.).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "access code."
- They discussed "access code" during the group presentation.

---

balance (noun)

A scale for weighing; depends on pull of gravity.

- In all perfectly beautiful objects there is found the opposition of one part to another and a reciprocal balance.
- He took what he wanted and I got the balance.

---

board rule (noun)

A measure used in computing board feet.

- Understanding "board rule" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "board rule" during the group presentation.

---

cast off (verb)

Make the last row of stitches when knitting.

- Learners should practice how to use "cast off" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "cast off" when talking about this idea.

---

co-author (verb)

Be a co-author on (a book, a paper).

- She tried to use "co-author" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "co-author" and when to wait.

---

computer industry (noun)

The manufacturers of computers considered collectively.

- The article explained what "computer industry" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "computer industry" to mean the manufacturers of computers considered collectively.

---

copy out (verb)

Copy very carefully and as accurately as possible.

- In everyday English, people use "copy out" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "copy out" in real sentences.

---

day camp (noun)

A camp providing care and activities for children during the daytime.

- They discussed "day camp" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "day camp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dress (verb)

Kill and prepare for market or consumption.

- Dress a turkey.
- We had to dress quickly.

---

gas range (noun)

A range with gas rings and an oven for cooking with gas.

- Understanding "gas range" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gas range" during the group presentation.

---

give rise (verb)

Cause to happen, occur or exist.

- The new law gave rise to many complaints.
- Learners should practice how to use "give rise" in real sentences.

---

horse (noun)

A framework for holding wood that is being sawed.

- 500 horse led the attack.
- They discussed "horse" during the group presentation.

---

net (noun)

A goal lined with netting (as in soccer or hockey).

- The article explained what "net" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "net."

---

poor box (noun)

Box for collecting alms, especially one in a church.

- They discussed "poor box" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poor box."

---

queen post (noun)

Vertical tie post in a roof truss.

- Understanding "queen post" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "queen post" means with a simple example.

---

space bar (noun)

The bar-shaped typewriter key that introduces spaces when used.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "space bar."
- He looked up "space bar" because he had never seen it before.

---

state prison (noun)

A prison maintained by a state of the U.S.

- Understanding "state prison" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "state prison" because he had never seen it before.

---

stick (noun)

An implement consisting of a length of wood.

- He collected dry sticks for a campfire.
- The kid had a candied apple on a stick.

---

turns (verb)

To break and turn over earth especially with a plow.

- She tried to use "turns" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "turns" until he saw an example.

---

army base (noun)

A large base of operations for an army.

- Understanding "army base" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "army base" because he had never seen it before.

---

baby grand (noun)

A small grand piano.

- He looked up "baby grand" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baby grand."

---

cells (noun)

A device that delivers an electric current as the result of a chemical reaction.

- The cells of a honeycomb.
- The article explained what "cells" means with a simple example.

change surface (verb)

Undergo or cause to undergo a change in the surface.

- He did not know how to use "change surface" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "change surface" and when to wait.

dress out (verb)

Kill and prepare for market or consumption.

- Dress a turkey.
- In everyday English, people use "dress out" when talking about this idea.

dress up (verb)

Make something appear superficially attractive.

- The researcher tried to dress up the uninteresting data.
- Don't try to dress up the unpleasant truth.

farm (noun)

Workplace consisting of farm buildings and cultivated land as a unit.

- It takes several people to work the farm.
- Understanding "farm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fly (verb)

Change quickly from one emotional state to another.

- Fly into a rage.
- Man cannot fly.

go to the dogs (verb)

Become ruined.

- In everyday English, people use "go to the dogs" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "go to the dogs" in a sentence that fits this situation?

images (noun)

A representation of a person (especially in the form of sculpture).

- Her imagination forced images upon her too awful to contemplate.
- A movie is a series of images projected so rapidly that the eye integrates them.

map out (verb)

Plan, delineate, or arrange in detail.

- Map one's future.
- The coach explained when to use "map out" and when to wait.

off-line equipment (noun)

Electronic equipment not in direct communication (or under the control of) the central processing unit.

- In class, the teacher used "off-line equipment" to mean electronic equipment not in direct communication....
- Understanding "off-line equipment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

post exchange (noun)

A commissary on a United States Army post.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "post exchange."
- Understanding "post exchange" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

public address system (noun)

An electronic amplification system used as a communication system in public areas.

- He looked up "public address system" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "public address system" to mean an electronic amplification system used as a....

roll in (verb)

Pour or flow in a steady stream.

- Mist rolled in from the sea.
- Tourists rolled in from the neighboring countryside.

---

roll-on (noun)

A woman's foundation garment rolled on to the hips.

- They discussed "roll-on" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "roll-on" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

try square (noun)

A square having a metal ruler set at right angles to another straight piece.

- Understanding "try square" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "try square" to mean a square having a metal ruler set at right angles....

---

write in code (verb)

Convert ordinary language into code.

- We should encode the message for security reasons.
- In everyday English, people use "write in code" when talking about this idea.

---

come apart (verb)

Become separated into pieces or fragments.

- The freshly baked loaf fell apart.
- The coach explained when to use "come apart" and when to wait.

---

computer science (noun)

The branch of engineering science that studies (with the aid of computers) computable processes and structures.

- The article explained what "computer science" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "computer science" to mean the branch of engineering science that studies....

---

cross hair (noun)

Either of two fine mutually perpendicular lines that cross in the focus plane of an optical instrument and are use for sighting or calibration.

- He had the target in his cross hairs.
- He looked up "cross hair" because he had never seen it before.

---

figure of eight (noun)

A knot having the shape of the numeral 8; tied in a rope that has been passed through a hole or pulley and that prevents the rope from coming loose.

- Understanding "figure of eight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "figure of eight" means with a simple example.

---

hand glass (noun)

A mirror intended to be held in the hand.

- The magnifying glass was invented by Roger Bacon in 1250.
- The article explained what "hand glass" means with a simple example.

---

ice pick (noun)

Pick consisting of a steel rod with a sharp point; used for breaking up blocks of ice.

- He looked up "ice pick" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice pick."

---

iron (noun)

A golf club that has a relatively narrow metal head.

- Understanding "iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "iron" to mean a golf club that has a relatively narrow metal head.

---

notice board (noun)

A board that hangs on a wall; displays announcements.

- In class, the teacher used "notice board" to mean a board that hangs on a wall; displays announcements.

- The article explained what "notice board" means with a simple example.

---

roll up (verb)

Show certain properties when being rolled.

- The carpet rolls unevenly.
- Dried-out tobacco rolls badly.

---

rose water (noun)

Perfume consisting of water scented with oil of roses.

- In class, the teacher used "rose water" to mean perfume consisting of water scented with oil of roses.
- Understanding "rose water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

six-spot (noun)

A playing card or domino or die whose upward face shows six pips.

- They discussed "six-spot" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "six-spot."

---

t-square (noun)

A square used by draftsmen to draw parallel lines.

- Understanding "t-square" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "t-square" means with a simple example.

---

throw together (verb)

Produce shoddily, without much attention to detail.

- The coach explained when to use "throw together" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "throw together" in real sentences.

---

training ship (noun)

A ship used to train students as sailors.

- Understanding "training ship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "training ship" means with a simple example.

---

bay (noun)

A compartment in an aircraft used for some specific purpose.

- He opened the bomb bay.
- They put him in the sick bay.

---

cell phone (verb)

Call up by using a cellular phone.

- If the train is late, I will cell phone you.
- She tried to use "cell phone" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

color tv (noun)

A television that transmits images in color.

- They discussed "color tv" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "color tv."

---

computer language (noun)

A programming language designed for use on a specific class of computers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer language."
- The article explained what "computer language" means with a simple example.

---

computer technology (noun)

The activity of designing and constructing and programming computers.

- The article explained what "computer technology" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "computer technology" during the group presentation.

---

control surface (noun)

A device that provides reactive force when in motion relative to the surrounding air; can lift or control a plane in flight.

- He looked up "control surface" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "control surface" during the group presentation.

---

draw a line (verb)

Reasonably object (to) or set a limit (on).

- I draw the line when it comes to lending money to friends!
- Can you use "draw a line" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

draw the line (verb)

Reasonably object (to) or set a limit (on).

- I draw the line when it comes to lending money to friends!
- In everyday English, people use "draw the line" when talking about this idea.

---

dry out (verb)

Remove the moisture from and make dry.

- Dry clothes.
- Dry hair.

---

dry up (verb)

Dry up and shrivel due to complete loss of moisture.

- She tried to use "dry up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "dry up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

great wall of china (noun)

A fortification 1,500 miles long built across northern China in the 3rd century BC; it averages 6 meters in width.

- They discussed "great wall of china" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "great wall of china" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

indian club (noun)

A bottle-shaped club used in exercises.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian club."
- Understanding "indian club" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

keep apart (verb)

Set apart from others.

- He did not know how to use "keep apart" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "keep apart" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

long-distance call (noun)

A telephone call made outside the local calling area.

- In class, the teacher used "long-distance call" to mean a telephone call made outside the local calling area.
- The article explained what "long-distance call" means with a simple example.

---

one iron (noun)

(golf) the long iron with the most nearly vertical face.

- Understanding "one iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "one iron" because he had never seen it before.

---

reduce (verb)

Be cooked until very little liquid is left.

- The sauce should reduce to one cup.
- Reduce your daily fat intake.

---

street drug (noun)

A drug that is taken for nonmedicinal reasons (usually for mind-altering effects); drug abuse can lead to physical and mental damage and (with some substances) dependence and addiction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "street drug."
- They discussed "street drug" during the group presentation.

---

take turns (verb)

Do something in turns.

- We take turns on the night shift.
- He did not know how to use "take turns" until he saw an example.

---

television set (noun)

An electronic device that receives television signals and displays them on a screen.

- The British call a tv set a telly.
- Understanding "television set" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

watch glass (noun)

A protective cover that protects the face of a watch.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "watch glass."
- He looked up "watch glass" because he had never seen it before.

---

water supply (noun)

A facility that provides a source of water.

- The town debated the purification of the water supply.
- First you have to cut off the water.

---

application program (noun)

A program that gives a computer instructions that provide the user with tools to accomplish a task.

- He has tried several different word processing applications.
- Understanding "application program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

building complex (noun)

A whole structure (as a building) made up of interconnected or related structures.

- In class, the teacher used "building complex" to mean a whole structure (as a building) made up of....
- They discussed "building complex" during the group presentation.

---

chinese wall (noun)

A fortification 1,500 miles long built across northern China in the 3rd century BC; it averages 6 meters in width.

- They discussed "chinese wall" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chinese wall."

---

clothes (noun)

Clothing in general.

- He always bought his clothes at the same store.
- He looked up "clothes" because he had never seen it before.

---

computer code (noun)

(computer science) the symbolic arrangement of data or instructions in a computer program or the set of such instructions.

- Understanding "computer code" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "computer code" during the group presentation.

---

computer paper (noun)

Paper folded to permit continuous printing controlled by a computer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer paper."
- The article explained what "computer paper" means with a simple example.

---

data structure (noun)

(computer science) the organization of data (and its storage allocations in a computer).

- They discussed "data structure" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "data structure" because he had never seen it before.

death seat (noun)

The car seat beside the driver of an automobile; believed to be the most dangerous place to sit in a car in case of an accident.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "death seat."
- They discussed "death seat" during the group presentation.

double standard (noun)

An ethical or moral code that applies more strictly to one group than to another.

- He looked up "double standard" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "double standard" during the group presentation.

fire screen (noun)

A metal screen before an open fire for protection (especially against flying sparks).

- Understanding "fire screen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fire screen" because he had never seen it before.

flat (noun)

A shallow box in which seedlings are started.

- The salt flats of Utah.
- The article explained what "flat" means with a simple example.

give birth (verb)

Create or produce an idea.

- Marx and Engels gave birth to communism.
- Learners should practice how to use "give birth" in real sentences.

introduced (verb)

Bring in or establish in a new place or environment.

- A new word processor was introduced.
- The new secretary introduced a nasty rumor.

links (noun)

A golf course that is built on sandy ground near a shore.

- The walls are held together with metal links placed in the wet mortar during construction.
- They discussed "links" during the group presentation.

long horse (noun)

A gymnastic horse without pommels and with one end elongated; used lengthwise for vaulting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long horse."
- They discussed "long horse" during the group presentation.

mobile phone (noun)

A hand-held mobile radiotelephone for use in an area divided into small sections, each with its own short-range transmitter/receiver.

- Understanding "mobile phone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mobile phone" during the group presentation.

paris university (noun)

A university in Paris; intellectual center of France.

- They discussed "paris university" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "paris university" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pieces (noun)

An item that is an instance of some type.

- The article explained what "pieces" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pieces" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

read-only memory (noun)

(computer science) memory whose contents can be accessed and read but cannot be changed.

- Understanding "read-only memory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "read-only memory" because he had never seen it before.

---

shoot up (verb)

Rise dramatically.

- She tried to use "shoot up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "shoot up" when talking about this idea.

---

television system (noun)

A telecommunication system that transmits images of objects (stationary or moving) between distant points.

- They discussed "television system" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "television system."

---

two iron (noun)

Long iron with a nearly vertical face.

- Understanding "two iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "two iron" means with a simple example.

---

university of chicago (noun)

A university in Chicago, Illinois.

- They discussed "university of chicago" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "university of chicago" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

university of paris (noun)

A university in Paris; intellectual center of France.

- He looked up "university of paris" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "university of paris" to mean a university in paris; intellectual center of france.

---

upper (noun)

Piece of leather or synthetic material that forms the part of a shoe or boot above the sole that encases the foot.

- Uppers come in many styles.
- He looked up "upper" because he had never seen it before.

---

boat (noun)

A dish (often boat-shaped) for serving gravy or sauce.

- Understanding "boat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "boat" during the group presentation.

---

digital watch (noun)

A watch with a digital display.

- They discussed "digital watch" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "digital watch" because he had never seen it before.

---

farm-place (noun)

A farm together with its buildings.

- In class, the teacher used "farm-place" to mean a farm together with its buildings.
- The article explained what "farm-place" means with a simple example.

---

fire engine (noun)

Any of various large trucks that carry firemen and equipment to the site of a fire.

- He looked up "fire engine" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fire engine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

governor (noun)

A control that maintains a steady speed in a machine (as by controlling the supply of fuel).

- In class, the teacher used "governor" to mean a control that maintains a steady speed in a....

- He looked up “governor” because he had never seen it before.

kick up (verb)

Evoke or provoke to appear or occur.

- Kick up dust.
- Can you use “kick up” in a sentence that fits this situation?

loss leader (noun)

A featured article of merchandise sold at a loss in order to draw customers.

- He looked up “loss leader” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “loss leader” to mean a featured article of merchandise sold at a loss in....

master key (noun)

Key that secures entrance everywhere.

- They discussed “master key” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “master key” to mean key that secures entrance everywhere.

metal saw (noun)

Saw used with one hand for cutting metal.

- In class, the teacher used “metal saw” to mean saw used with one hand for cutting metal.
- The article explained what “metal saw” means with a simple example.

mix in (verb)

Cause (something) to be mixed with (something else).

- Mix water into the drink.
- He did not know how to use “mix in” until he saw an example.

museum (noun)

A depository for collecting and displaying objects having scientific or historical or artistic value.

- Understanding “museum” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “museum” means with a simple example.

number one wood (noun)

A golf club (a wood) with a near vertical face that is used for hitting long shots from the tee.

- In class, the teacher used “number one wood” to mean a golf club (a wood) with a near vertical face that....
- The article explained what “number one wood” means with a simple example.

plants (noun)

Buildings for carrying on industrial labor.

- He looked up “plants” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “plants.”

roll around (verb)

Happen regularly.

- Christmas rolled around again.
- Learners should practice how to use “roll around” in real sentences.

shape up (verb)

Develop in a positive way.

- The coach explained when to use “shape up” and when to wait.
- Can you use “shape up” in a sentence that fits this situation?

software system (noun)

(computer science) written programs or procedures or rules and associated documentation pertaining to the operation of a computer system and that are stored in read/write memory.

- The market for software is expected to expand.
- In class, the teacher used “software system” to mean (computer science) written programs or procedures....

steel (noun)

A cutting or thrusting weapon that has a long metal blade and a hilt with a hand guard.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steel."
- Understanding "steel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stock-in-trade (noun)

Any equipment constantly used as part of a profession or occupation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stock-in-trade."
- Understanding "stock-in-trade" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

test equipment (noun)

Equipment required to perform a test.

- In class, the teacher used "test equipment" to mean equipment required to perform a test.
- The article explained what "test equipment" means with a simple example.

---

trade secret (noun)

A secret (method or device or formula) that gives a manufacturer an advantage over the competition.

- In class, the teacher used "trade secret" to mean a secret (method or device or formula) that gives a....
- The article explained what "trade secret" means with a simple example.

---

bar code (noun)

Code consisting of a series of vertical bars of variable width that are scanned by a laser; printed on consumer product packages to identify the item for a computer that provides the price and registers inventory information.

- Understanding "bar code" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bar code" during the group presentation.

---

book bag (noun)

A bag in which students carry their books.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book bag."
- The article explained what "book bag" means with a simple example.

---

border (noun)

A strip forming the outer edge of something.

- The rug had a wide blue border.
- Understanding "border" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

club drug (noun)

A controlled substance that is usually taken by young people at dance clubs and raves.

- In class, the teacher used "club drug" to mean a controlled substance that is usually taken by....
- They discussed "club drug" during the group presentation.

---

cut glass (noun)

Glass decorated by cutting or grinding facets.

- Understanding "cut glass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cut glass" during the group presentation.

---

driving range (noun)

A practice range for practicing golf shots.

- He looked up "driving range" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "driving range" to mean a practice range for practicing golf shots.

---

field glass (noun)

A small refracting telescope.

- In class, the teacher used "field glass" to mean a small refracting telescope.
- The article explained what "field glass" means with a simple example.

---

hard copy (noun)

(computer science) matter that is held in a computer and is typed or printed on paper.

- He ran off a hard copy of the report.
- Understanding "hard copy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

long iron (noun)

An iron with a long shaft and a steep face; for hitting long low shots.

- He looked up "long iron" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "long iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mix up (verb)

Assemble without order or sense.

- Can you use "mix up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "mix up" and when to wait.

---

phone jack (noun)

A jack for plugging in a telephone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phone jack."
- They discussed "phone jack" during the group presentation.

---

proof (noun)

A trial photographic print from a negative.

- If you have any proof for what you say, now is the time to produce it.
- He looked up "proof" because he had never seen it before.

---

radio link (noun)

A two-way radio communication system (usually microwave); part of a more extensive telecommunication network.

- They discussed "radio link" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radio link."

---

shot glass (noun)

A small glass adequate to hold a single swallow of whiskey.

- Understanding "shot glass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shot glass."

---

spirit level (noun)

Indicator that establishes the horizontal when a bubble is centered in a tube of liquid.

- They discussed "spirit level" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "spirit level" means with a simple example.

---

tv camera (noun)

Television equipment consisting of a lens system that focuses an image on a photosensitive mosaic that is scanned by an electron beam.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tv camera."
- He looked up "tv camera" because he had never seen it before.

---

air bag (noun)

A safety restraint in an automobile; the bag inflates on collision and prevents the driver or passenger from being thrown forward.

- He looked up "air bag" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "air bag" during the group presentation.

---

beer can (noun)

A can that holds beer.

- Understanding "beer can" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "beer can" during the group presentation.

---

color code (noun)

System using colors to designate classifications.

- Understanding "color code" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "color code."

computer network (noun)

(computer science) a network of computers.

- The article explained what "computer network" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "computer network" to mean (computer science) a network of computers.

computer store (noun)

A store that sells computers to the small businessperson or personal user.

- He looked up "computer store" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer store."

control function (noun)

An operation that controls the recording or processing or transmission of interpretation of data.

- A control operation started the data processing.
- The article explained what "control function" means with a simple example.

death camp (noun)

A concentration camp where prisoners are likely to die or be killed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "death camp."
- The article explained what "death camp" means with a simple example.

file name (noun)

(computer science) the name given to a computer file in order to distinguish it from other files; may contain an extension that indicates the type of file.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "file name."
- He looked up "file name" because he had never seen it before.

full dress (noun)

Formalwear consisting of full evening dress for men.

- He looked up "full dress" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "full dress" to mean formalwear consisting of full evening dress for men.

hand-held computer (noun)

A portable battery-powered computer small enough to be carried in your pocket.

- He looked up "hand-held computer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hand-held computer."

launch (noun)

A motorboat with an open deck or a half deck.

- They discussed "launch" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "launch" means with a simple example.

letter box (noun)

A numbered compartment in a post office where mail is put to be called for.

- The article explained what "letter box" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "letter box."

oil color (noun)

Oil paint containing pigment that is used by an artist.

- They discussed "oil color" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oil color."

operating system (noun)

(computer science) software that controls the execution of computer programs and may provide various services.

- He looked up "operating system" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "operating system."

operation code (noun)

The portion of a set of operation descriptions that specifies the operation to be performed; the set of operations in a computer.

- He looked up "operation code" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "operation code."

---

piece of material (noun)

A separate part consisting of fabric.

- He looked up "piece of material" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "piece of material" to mean a separate part consisting of fabric.

---

road surface (noun)

The paved surface of a paved roadway.

- They discussed "road surface" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "road surface."

---

safety island (noun)

A curbed area in a roadway from which traffic is excluded; provides safe area for pedestrians.

- They discussed "safety island" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "safety island."

---

saturday night special (noun)

A cheap handgun that is easily obtained.

- Understanding "saturday night special" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saturday night special."

---

screen test (noun)

A filmed audition of an actor or actress.

- He looked up "screen test" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "screen test."

---

second-hand speech (noun)

Overheard conversation (especially overheard cellphone conversation).

- He looked up "second-hand speech" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "second-hand speech" during the group presentation.

---

secret code (noun)

A secret method of writing.

- The article explained what "secret code" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "secret code" to mean a secret method of writing.

---

secret writing (noun)

A piece of writing in code or cipher.

- He looked up "secret writing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secret writing."

---

side horse (noun)

A gymnastic horse with a cylindrical body covered with leather and two upright handles (pommels) near the center; held upright by two steel supports, one at each end.

- Understanding "side horse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "side horse" means with a simple example.

---

sound camera (noun)

A movie camera that records sounds in synchrony with the visual images.

- Understanding "sound camera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sound camera" during the group presentation.

---

stage direct (verb)

Direct for the stage.

- He did not know how to use "stage direct" until he saw an example.

- Can you use “stage direct” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

target program (noun)

A fully compiled or assembled program ready to be loaded into the computer.

- They discussed “target program” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “target program.”

---

tv channel (noun)

A television station and its programs.

- A satellite TV channel.
- Surfing through the channels.

---

weapons system (noun)

Weapons considered collectively.

- He looked up “weapons system” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “weapons system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ask for trouble (verb)

Persist with actions or an attitude despite the probability that it will cause trouble.

- He is asking for trouble with his behavior.
- He did not know how to use “ask for trouble” until he saw an example.

---

dry point (noun)

A steel needle for engraving without acid on a bare copper plate.

- The article explained what “dry point” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “dry point” to mean a steel needle for engraving without acid on a bare....

---

gas gun (noun)

A gun that fires gas shells.

- They discussed “gas gun” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “gas gun” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

half-length (noun)

A portrait showing the body from only the waist up.

- In class, the teacher used “half-length” to mean a portrait showing the body from only the waist up.
- They discussed “half-length” during the group presentation.

---

machine code (noun)

A set of instructions coded so that the computer can use it directly without further translation.

- He looked up “machine code” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “machine code.”

---

performed (verb)

Carry out or perform an action.

- We performed a popular Gilbert and Sullivan opera.
- The coach explained when to use “performed” and when to wait.

---

restaurant (noun)

A building where people go to eat.

- They discussed “restaurant” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “restaurant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

simple machine (noun)

A device for overcoming resistance at one point by applying force at some other point.

- The article explained what “simple machine” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “simple machine.”

---

standing press (noun)

A large printing press that exerts pressure vertically.

- They discussed "standing press" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "standing press" means with a simple example.

---

taught (verb)

Accustom gradually to some action or attitude.

- The child is taught to obey her parents.
- I taught them French.

---

trump card (noun)

A playing card in the suit that has been declared trumps.

- The ace of trumps is a sure winner.
- Understanding "trump card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

adding (verb)

Make an addition (to); join or combine or unite with others; increase the quality, quantity, size or scope of.

- In everyday English, people use "adding" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "adding" until he saw an example.

---

box spring (noun)

A coiled bedspring in a frame that is covered with cloth.

- In class, the teacher used "box spring" to mean a coiled bedspring in a frame that is covered with....
- Understanding "box spring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital ship (noun)

A warship of the first rank in size and armament.

- Understanding "capital ship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "capital ship" during the group presentation.

---

coffee cup (noun)

A cup from which coffee is drunk.

- He looked up "coffee cup" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "coffee cup" during the group presentation.

---

control stick (noun)

A lever used by a pilot to control the ailerons and elevators of an airplane.

- They discussed "control stick" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "control stick" to mean a lever used by a pilot to control the ailerons and....

---

corner post (noun)

A square post supporting a structural member at the corner of a building.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corner post."
- He looked up "corner post" because he had never seen it before.

---

feed (verb)

Provide with fertilizers or add nutrients to.

- Feed the guests the nuts.
- Feed the starving children in India.

---

feed in (verb)

Introduce continuously.

- Feed carrots into a food processor.
- In everyday English, people use "feed in" when talking about this idea.

---

flow out (verb)

Flow or spill forth.

- Learners should practice how to use “flow out” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “flow out” when talking about this idea.

---

holy oil (noun)

A consecrated ointment consisting of a mixture of oil and balsam.

- Understanding “holy oil” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “holy oil” to mean a consecrated ointment consisting of a mixture of....

---

memory board (noun)

An electronic memory device.

- A memory and the CPU form the central part of a computer to which peripherals are attached.
- They discussed “memory board” during the group presentation.

---

minute gun (noun)

(military) gun that is discharged once every minute (usually as part of a military funeral).

- In class, the teacher used “minute gun” to mean (military) gun that is discharged once every minute....
- Understanding “minute gun” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

police van (noun)

Van used by police to transport prisoners.

- The article explained what “police van” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “police van” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

read-only file (noun)

(computer science) a file that you can read but cannot change.

- They discussed “read-only file” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “read-only file” means with a simple example.

---

ring road (noun)

A highway that encircles an urban area so that traffic does not have to pass through the center.

- He looked up “ring road” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “ring road” during the group presentation.

---

seven-spot (noun)

One of four playing cards in a deck with seven pips on the face.

- In class, the teacher used “seven-spot” to mean one of four playing cards in a deck with seven pips....
- The article explained what “seven-spot” means with a simple example.

---

speech sound (noun)

(phonetics) an individual sound unit of speech without concern as to whether or not it is a phoneme of some language.

- They discussed “speech sound” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “speech sound” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tea set (noun)

A set of china or silverware for serving tea.

- In class, the teacher used “tea set” to mean a set of china or silverware for serving tea.
- They discussed “tea set” during the group presentation.

---

teach (verb)

Accustom gradually to some action or attitude.

- Can you use “teach” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “teach” when talking about this idea.

---

change shape (verb)

Assume a different shape or form.

- He did not know how to use “change shape” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “change shape” when talking about this idea.

covered stand (noun)

A stand at a racecourse or stadium consisting of tiers with rows of individual seats that are under a protective roof.

- In class, the teacher used "covered stand" to mean a stand at a racecourse or stadium consisting of....
- The article explained what "covered stand" means with a simple example.

five iron (noun)

Middle-distance iron.

- He looked up "five iron" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "five iron."

flow off (verb)

Flow off or away gradually.

- The water flowed off from the pipe.
- Can you use "flow off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

fuel system (noun)

Equipment in a motor vehicle or aircraft that delivers fuel to the engine.

- The article explained what "fuel system" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fuel system."

guns (noun)

A pedal that controls the throttle valve.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guns."
- He looked up "guns" because he had never seen it before.

hot seat (noun)

An instrument of execution by electrocution; resembles an ordinary seat for one person.

- In class, the teacher used "hot seat" to mean an instrument of execution by electrocution;....
- He looked up "hot seat" because he had never seen it before.

kick start (noun)

A starter (as on a motorcycle) that is activated with the foot and the weight of the body.

- In class, the teacher used "kick start" to mean a starter (as on a motorcycle) that is activated....
- They discussed "kick start" during the group presentation.

max (noun)

Street names for gamma hydroxybutyrate.

- Understanding "max" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "max."

perform (verb)

Carry out or perform an action.

- Who will perform the wedding?
- Horowitz is performing at Carnegie Hall tonight.

side arm (noun)

A firearm that is held and fired with one hand.

- They discussed "side arm" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "side arm" to mean a firearm that is held and fired with one hand.

starting block (noun)

Block providing bracing for a runner's feet at start of a race.

- The article explained what "starting block" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "starting block" to mean block providing bracing for a runner's feet at....

streets (noun)

A thoroughfare (usually including sidewalks) that is lined with buildings.

- They walked the streets of the small town.
- He looked up "streets" because he had never seen it before.

---

studio (noun)

Workplace for the teaching or practice of an art.

- She ran a dance studio.
- The music department provided studios for their students.

---

sub (noun)

A submersible warship usually armed with torpedoes.

- In class, the teacher used "sub" to mean a submersible warship usually armed with torpedoes.
- Understanding "sub" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

summer camp (noun)

A site where care and activities are provided for children during the summer months.

- City kids get to see the country at a summer camp.
- He looked up "summer camp" because he had never seen it before.

---

tea service (noun)

A set of china or silverware for serving tea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tea service."
- They discussed "tea service" during the group presentation.

---

ten-spot (noun)

One of four playing cards in a deck with ten pips on the face.

- He looked up "ten-spot" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ten-spot" during the group presentation.

---

base of operations (noun)

Installation from which a military force initiates operations.

- The attack wiped out our forward bases.
- He looked up "base of operations" because he had never seen it before.

---

box camera (noun)

A simple camera shaped like a rectangular box.

- In class, the teacher used "box camera" to mean a simple camera shaped like a rectangular box.
- They discussed "box camera" during the group presentation.

---

chain (noun)

A necklace made by a stringing objects together.

- The chain of command.
- A chain of daisies.

---

cover glass (noun)

A small and very thin piece of glass used to cover the specimen on a microscope slide.

- The article explained what "cover glass" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cover glass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

data file (noun)

A set of related records (either written or electronic) kept together.

- In class, the teacher used "data file" to mean a set of related records (either written or....
- They discussed "data file" during the group presentation.

---

eight-spot (noun)

One of four playing cards in a deck with eight pips on the face.

- Understanding "eight-spot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "eight-spot" means with a simple example.

---

equal (verb)

Make equal, uniform, corresponding, or matching.

- Let's equalize the duties among all employees in this office.
- One dollar equals 1,000 rubles these days!

---

face guard (noun)

Face mask consisting of a strong wire mesh on the front of football helmets.

- Understanding "face guard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "face guard" during the group presentation.

---

fake (verb)

Make a copy of with the intent to deceive.

- He faked the signature.
- The politician was not well prepared for the debate and faked it.

---

forget me drug (noun)

Street names for flunitrazepan.

- They discussed "forget me drug" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "forget me drug" means with a simple example.

---

fuel line (noun)

A pipe that carries gasoline from a tank to a gasoline engine.

- The car wouldn't start because dirt clogged the gas line.
- Understanding "fuel line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ice machine (noun)

An electric refrigerator to supply ice cubes.

- In class, the teacher used "ice machine" to mean an electric refrigerator to supply ice cubes.
- He looked up "ice machine" because he had never seen it before.

---

milk can (noun)

Large can for transporting milk.

- They discussed "milk can" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "milk can" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

screen door (noun)

A door that consists of a frame holding metallic or plastic netting; used to allow ventilation and to keep insects from entering a building through the open door.

- He heard the screen slam as she left.
- He looked up "screen door" because he had never seen it before.

---

small boat (noun)

A boat that is small.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "small boat."
- Understanding "small boat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

software program (noun)

(computer science) written programs or procedures or rules and associated documentation pertaining to the operation of a computer system and that are stored in read/write memory.

- The market for software is expected to expand.
- They discussed "software program" during the group presentation.

---

strike out (verb)

Set out on a course of action.

- He struck out on his own.
- Oral struck out three batters to close the inning.

---

time sharing (noun)

(computer science) the use of a central computer by many users simultaneously.

- They discussed "time sharing" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "time sharing" because he had never seen it before.

---

truth drug (noun)

An intravenous anesthetic drug that has a hypnotic effect; induces relaxation and weakens inhibitions; is believed to induce people to talk freely.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "truth drug."
- He looked up "truth drug" because he had never seen it before.

---

aircraft (noun)

A vehicle that can fly.

- He looked up "aircraft" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "aircraft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

back pack (noun)

A bag carried by a strap on your back or shoulder.

- Understanding "back pack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "back pack" means with a simple example.

---

become flat (verb)

Lose sparkle or bouquet.

- Learners should practice how to use "become flat" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "become flat" when talking about this idea.

---

business suit (noun)

A suit of clothes traditionally worn by businessmen.

- They discussed "business suit" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "business suit" because he had never seen it before.

---

computer address (noun)

(computer science) the code that identifies where a piece of information is stored.

- The article explained what "computer address" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "computer address" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

computer operation (noun)

An elementary operation that a computer is designed and built to perform.

- He looked up "computer operation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer operation."

---

core bit (noun)

A hollow drilling bit that is the cutting part of a core drill; allows core samples to be taken.

- Understanding "core bit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "core bit."

---

farm building (noun)

A building on a farm.

- He looked up "farm building" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "farm building."

---

fast time scale (noun)

(simulation) the time scale used in data processing when the time-scale factor is less than one.

- They discussed "fast time scale" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fast time scale" means with a simple example.

---

fly front (noun)

An opening in a garment that is closed by a zipper or by buttons concealed under a fold of cloth.

- He looked up “fly front” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “fly front” during the group presentation.

---

key ring (noun)

A circular ring of metal for holding keys.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “key ring.”
- He looked up “key ring” because he had never seen it before.

---

lay-by (noun)

Designated paved area beside a main road where cars can stop temporarily.

- Understanding “lay-by” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “lay-by” to mean designated paved area beside a main road where cars....

---

links course (noun)

Course consisting of a large landscaped area for playing golf.

- He looked up “links course” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “links course” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

o ring (noun)

A gasket consisting of a flat ring of rubber or plastic; used to seal a joint against high pressure.

- They discussed “o ring” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “o ring” means with a simple example.

---

phase (verb)

Adjust so as to be in a synchronized condition.

- He phased the intake with the output of the machine.
- Phase a withdrawal.

---

phase in (verb)

Introduce gradually.

- She tried to use “phase in” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use “phase in” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sam (noun)

A guided missile fired from land or shipboard against an airborne target.

- The article explained what “sam” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “sam” to mean a guided missile fired from land or shipboard....

---

screen pass (noun)

A short forward pass in which the receiver is protected by a screen of blockers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “screen pass.”
- Understanding “screen pass” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

short iron (noun)

An iron with a short shaft and pitched face; for hitting short high shots.

- In class, the teacher used “short iron” to mean an iron with a short shaft and pitched face; for....
- He looked up “short iron” because he had never seen it before.

---

sister ship (noun)

A ship that is one of two or more similar ships built at the same time.

- In class, the teacher used “sister ship” to mean a ship that is one of two or more similar ships....
- The article explained what “sister ship” means with a simple example.

---

small beer (noun)

Something of small importance.

- They discussed “small beer” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “small beer” to mean something of small importance.

spring gun (noun)

A gun that is set to fire on any intruder that comes in contact with the wire that sets it off.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spring gun."
- Understanding "spring gun" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

standard cell (noun)

A primary cell used as a standard of electromotive force.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "standard cell."
- The article explained what "standard cell" means with a simple example.

street corner (noun)

The intersection of two streets.

- Standing on the corner watching all the girls go by.
- In class, the teacher used "street corner" to mean the intersection of two streets.

system command (noun)

A computer user's instruction (not part of a program) that calls for action by the computer's executive program.

- He looked up "system command" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "system command" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

target range (noun)

A practice range for target practice.

- He looked up "target range" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "target range" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wake board (noun)

A buoyant board (resembling a surfboard) that is used to ride over water while being pulled behind a motorboat.

- He looked up "wake board" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wake board" during the group presentation.

break apart (verb)

Break up or separate.

- Yugoslavia broke apart after 1989.
- He did not know how to use "break apart" until he saw an example.

command post (noun)

Military headquarters from which a military commander controls and organizes the forces.

- The article explained what "command post" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "command post" to mean military headquarters from which a military....

communication system (noun)

A system for communicating.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "communication system."
- The article explained what "communication system" means with a simple example.

fill up (verb)

Make full, also in a metaphorical sense.

- Fill a container.
- Fill the child with pride.

fire iron (noun)

Metal fireside implements.

- In class, the teacher used "fire iron" to mean metal fireside implements.
- The article explained what "fire iron" means with a simple example.

flow away (verb)

Flow off or away gradually.

- The water flowed off from the pipe.
- Learners should practice how to use "flow away" in real sentences.

---

gas heat (noun)

Heating system that burns natural gas.

- The article explained what "gas heat" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gas heat" during the group presentation.

---

glass eye (noun)

Prosthesis consisting of an artificial eye made of glass.

- They discussed "glass eye" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "glass eye" to mean prosthesis consisting of an artificial eye made of....

---

lay out (verb)

Get ready for a particular purpose or event.

- Lay out the tools for the surgery.
- Lay out the clothes.

---

lay up (verb)

Disable or confine, as with an illness.

- He did not know how to use "lay up" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "lay up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

light arm (noun)

A rifle or pistol.

- In class, the teacher used "light arm" to mean a rifle or pistol.
- They discussed "light arm" during the group presentation.

---

machine gun (noun)

A rapidly firing automatic gun (often mounted).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "machine gun."
- The article explained what "machine gun" means with a simple example.

---

main file (noun)

(computer science) a computer file that is used as the authority in a given job and that is relatively permanent.

- They discussed "main file" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "main file."

---

neck (noun)

A narrow part of an artifact that resembles a neck in position or form.

- The banjo had a long neck.
- The bottle had a wide neck.

---

novel (noun)

A printed and bound book that is an extended work of fiction.

- His bookcases were filled with nothing but novels.
- He burned all the novels.

---

phase out (verb)

Terminate gradually.

- He did not know how to use "phase out" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "phase out" when talking about this idea.

---

public transport (noun)

Conveyance for passengers or mail or freight.

- Understanding "public transport" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “public transport.”

---

shirt (noun)

A garment worn on the upper half of the body.

- Understanding “shirt” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “shirt” because he had never seen it before.

---

shots (noun)

A solid missile discharged from a firearm.

- My snapshots haven’t been developed yet.
- He tried to get unposed shots of his friends.

---

stadium (noun)

A large structure for open-air sports or entertainments.

- The article explained what “stadium” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “stadium” to mean a large structure for open-air sports or entertainments.

---

union jack (noun)

National flag of the United Kingdom.

- He looked up “union jack” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “union jack” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

watch guard (noun)

Short chain or ribbon attaching a pocket watch to a man’s vest.

- In class, the teacher used “watch guard” to mean short chain or ribbon attaching a pocket watch to a....
- They discussed “watch guard” during the group presentation.

---

water jump (noun)

A pool or stream in a steeplechase or similar contest.

- The article explained what “water jump” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “water jump” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

zero in (verb)

Adjust (as by firing under test conditions) the zero of (a gun).

- He zeroed in his rifle at 200 yards.
- He did not know how to use “zero in” until he saw an example.

---

department of computer science (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in computer science.

- In class, the teacher used “department of computer science” to mean the academic department responsible for teaching....
- The article explained what “department of computer science” means with a simple example.

---

electric fire (noun)

A small electric space heater.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “electric fire.”
- The article explained what “electric fire” means with a simple example.

---

electric light (noun)

Electric lamp consisting of a transparent or translucent glass housing containing a wire filament (usually tungsten) that emits light when heated by electricity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “electric light.”
- Understanding “electric light” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gas engine (noun)

An internal-combustion engine similar to a gasoline engine but using natural gas instead of gasoline vapor.

- They discussed “gas engine” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “gas engine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jail (noun)

A correctional institution used to detain persons who are in the lawful custody of the government (either accused persons awaiting trial or convicted persons serving a sentence).

- Understanding "jail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jail."

---

launch area (noun)

A platform from which rockets or space craft are launched.

- Understanding "launch area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "launch area."

---

make pure (verb)

Remove impurities from, increase the concentration of, and separate through the process of distillation.

- She tried to use "make pure" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "make pure" in real sentences.

---

police boat (noun)

A boat used by harbor police.

- He looked up "police boat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "police boat."

---

remained (verb)

Stay the same; remain in a certain state.

- The dress remained wet after repeated attempts to dry it.
- He remained unmoved by her tears.

---

roll film (noun)

Photographic film wound on a spool.

- The article explained what "roll film" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roll film."

---

safety catch (noun)

Guard consisting of a locking device that prevents a weapon from being fired.

- They discussed "safety catch" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "safety catch."

---

shooting range (noun)

An enclosed firing range with targets for rifle or handgun practice.

- He looked up "shooting range" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "shooting range" to mean an enclosed firing range with targets for rifle or....

---

signal (noun)

Any nonverbal action or gesture that encodes a message.

- Signals from the boat suddenly stopped.
- He awaited the signal to start.

---

traffic island (noun)

A curbed area in a roadway from which traffic is excluded; provides safe area for pedestrians.

- He looked up "traffic island" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "traffic island" to mean a curbed area in a roadway from which traffic is....

---

walls (noun)

A masonry fence (as around an estate or garden).

- The walls were covered with pictures.
- Stomach walls.

---

web site (noun)

A computer connected to the internet that maintains a series of web pages on the World Wide Web.

- The Israeli web site was damaged by hostile hackers.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "web site."

---

wide area network (noun)

A computer network that spans a wider area than does a local area network.

- Understanding "wide area network" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wide area network."

---

box seat (noun)

The driver's seat on a coach.

- An armed guard sat in the box with the driver.
- He looked up "box seat" because he had never seen it before.

---

brings (verb)

Cause to happen or to occur as a consequence.

- This brings me to the main point.
- She brings a special atmosphere to our meetings.

---

computer screen (noun)

A screen used to display the output of a computer to the user.

- The article explained what "computer screen" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "computer screen" to mean a screen used to display the output of a computer....

---

e-mail (verb)

Communicate electronically on the computer.

- She e-mailed me the good news.
- Can you use "e-mail" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

electric main (noun)

A main that distributes electricity.

- In class, the teacher used "electric main" to mean a main that distributes electricity.
- The article explained what "electric main" means with a simple example.

---

finds (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- The coach explained when to use "finds" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "finds" in real sentences.

---

jack-in-the-box (noun)

Plaything consisting of a toy clown that jumps out of a box when the lid is opened.

- They discussed "jack-in-the-box" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jack-in-the-box."

---

machine operation (noun)

An elementary operation that a computer is designed and built to perform.

- In class, the teacher used "machine operation" to mean an elementary operation that a computer is designed....
- The article explained what "machine operation" means with a simple example.

---

memory access (noun)

(computer science) the operation of reading or writing stored information.

- The article explained what "memory access" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "memory access" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

paper bag (noun)

A bag made of paper or plastic for holding customer's purchases.

- Understanding "paper bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paper bag."

recommend (verb)

Make attractive or acceptable.

- Honesty recommends any person.
- The travel agent recommended strongly that we not travel on Thanksgiving Day.

silver mine (noun)

A mine where silver ore is dug.

- Understanding "silver mine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "silver mine" means with a simple example.

size stick (noun)

A mechanical measuring stick used by shoe fitters to measure the length and width of your foot.

- The article explained what "size stick" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "size stick."

spoke (noun)

One of the crosspieces that form the steps of a ladder.

- In class, the teacher used "spoke" to mean one of the crosspieces that form the steps of a ladder.
- The article explained what "spoke" means with a simple example.

sports equipment (noun)

Equipment needed to participate in a particular sport.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sports equipment."
- They discussed "sports equipment" during the group presentation.

stands (noun)

A support for displaying various articles.

- They discussed "stands" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "stands" to mean a support for displaying various articles.

starting handle (noun)

Crank used to start an engine.

- He looked up "starting handle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "starting handle."

wing (noun)

A barrier that surrounds the wheels of a vehicle to block splashing water or mud.

- In Britain they call a fender a wing.
- They are the progressive wing of the Republican Party.

a-bomb (noun)

A nuclear weapon in which enormous energy is released by nuclear fission (splitting the nuclei of a heavy element like uranium 235 or plutonium 239).

- In class, the teacher used "a-bomb" to mean a nuclear weapon in which enormous energy is....
- They discussed "a-bomb" during the group presentation.

cancer drug (noun)

Any of several drugs that control or kill neoplastic cells; used in chemotherapy to kill cancer cells; all have unpleasant side effects that may include nausea and vomiting and hair loss and suppression of bone marrow function.

- In class, the teacher used "cancer drug" to mean any of several drugs that control or kill....
- The article explained what "cancer drug" means with a simple example.

child-proof (verb)

Make safe against children.

- Can you use "child-proof" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "child-proof" carefully so everyone would understand.

coffee bar (noun)

A small restaurant where drinks and snacks are sold.

- The article explained what "coffee bar" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coffee bar."

---

fill again (verb)

Fill something that had previously been emptied.

- Refill my glass, please.
- Can you use "fill again" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

flying field (noun)

A place where planes take off and land.

- The article explained what "flying field" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flying field."

---

foot rule (noun)

A ruler one foot long.

- In class, the teacher used "foot rule" to mean a ruler one foot long.
- He looked up "foot rule" because he had never seen it before.

---

gas ring (noun)

Gas burner consisting of a circular metal pipe with several small holes through which gas can escape to be burned.

- They discussed "gas ring" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas ring."

---

hang in (verb)

Be persistent, refuse to stop.

- Can you use "hang in" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "hang in" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

hang on (verb)

Be persistent, refuse to stop.

- Please hang on while I get your folder.
- Can you use "hang on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

major suit (noun)

(bridge) a suit of superior scoring value, either spades or hearts.

- Understanding "major suit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "major suit" during the group presentation.

---

power pack (noun)

A device for converting a power supply to a voltage required by particular equipment.

- Understanding "power pack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "power pack" because he had never seen it before.

---

round file (noun)

A file with a circular cross section; used to file the inside of holes.

- He looked up "round file" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "round file."

---

seek time (noun)

(computer science) the time it takes for a read/write head to move to a specific data track.

- They discussed "seek time" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "seek time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stage setting (noun)

Arrangement of scenery and properties to represent the place where a play or movie is enacted.

- He looked up "stage setting" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stage setting."

---

statistics (noun)

A branch of applied mathematics concerned with the collection and interpretation of quantitative data and the use of probability theory to estimate population parameters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "statistics."
- They discussed "statistics" during the group presentation.

---

stone wall (noun)

A fence built of rough stones; used to separate fields.

- The article explained what "stone wall" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stone wall."

---

wave off (verb)

Dismiss as insignificant.

- He waved off suggestions of impropriety.
- She tried to use "wave off" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

wide screen (noun)

A projection screen that is much wider than it is high.

- They discussed "wide screen" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "wide screen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wide-screen (adjective)

(motion pictures) projected on a screen with much greater width than height.

- It is useful to describe something as "wide-screen" when it is (motion pictures) projected on a screen with much....
- Would you call this situation "wide-screen"? Explain why.

---

wild card (noun)

A playing card whose value can be determined by the person who holds it.

- The weather was a wild card.
- He looked up "wild card" because he had never seen it before.

---

cat box (noun)

A receptacle for cat excrement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cat box."
- He looked up "cat box" because he had never seen it before.

---

data communication (noun)

Electronic transmission of information that has been encoded digitally (as for storage and processing by computers).

- He looked up "data communication" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "data communication."

---

devices (noun)

An inclination or desire; used in the plural in the phrase 'left to your own devices'.

- Eventually the family left the house to the devices of this malevolent force.
- The children were left to their own devices.

---

digital computer (noun)

A computer that represents information by numerical (binary) digits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "digital computer."
- He looked up "digital computer" because he had never seen it before.

---

dress code (noun)

A set of rules specifying the correct manner of dress while on the premises of the institution (or specifying what manner of dress is prohibited).

- He looked up "dress code" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dress code."

empty (noun)

A container that has been emptied.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "empty."
- They discussed "empty" during the group presentation.

post hole (noun)

A hole dug in the ground to hold a fence post.

- He looked up "post hole" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "post hole."

receiving (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- The lady is receiving Sunday morning.
- She tried to use "receiving" carefully so everyone would understand.

running suit (noun)

A matching jacket and pants worn by joggers and made of fabric that absorbs perspiration.

- In class, the teacher used "running suit" to mean a matching jacket and pants worn by joggers and....
- The article explained what "running suit" means with a simple example.

search engine (noun)

A computer program that retrieves documents or files or data from a database or from a computer network (especially from the internet).

- Understanding "search engine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "search engine" during the group presentation.

stick figure (noun)

Drawing of a human or animal that represents the head by a circle and the rest of the body by straight lines.

- He looked up "stick figure" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "stick figure" during the group presentation.

stock exchange (noun)

An exchange where security trading is conducted by professional stockbrokers.

- They discussed "stock exchange" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "stock exchange" means with a simple example.

switch over (verb)

Change over, change around, as to a new order or sequence.

- Learners should practice how to use "switch over" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "switch over" when talking about this idea.

systems software (noun)

A program (as an operating system or compiler or utility program) that controls some aspect of the operation of a computer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "systems software."
- They discussed "systems software" during the group presentation.

time-switch (noun)

A switch set to operate at a desired time.

- In class, the teacher used "time-switch" to mean a switch set to operate at a desired time.
- The article explained what "time-switch" means with a simple example.

truck stop (noun)

A roadside service station (and restaurant) that caters to truck drivers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "truck stop."
- They discussed "truck stop" during the group presentation.

web page (noun)

A document connected to the World Wide Web and viewable by anyone connected to the internet who has a web browser.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "web page."
- He looked up "web page" because he had never seen it before.

---

blow out (verb)

Melt, break, or become otherwise unusable.

- The lightbulbs blew out.
- Snuff out the candles.

---

blow over (verb)

Disappear gradually.

- Learners should practice how to use "blow over" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "blow over" and when to wait.

---

blow up (verb)

To swell or cause to enlarge,.

- Blow up an image.
- Can you use "blow up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

computer memory (noun)

An electronic memory device.

- A memory and the CPU form the central part of a computer to which peripherals are attached.
- He looked up "computer memory" because he had never seen it before.

---

conducted (verb)

Lead, as in the performance of a composition.

- Conduct an orchestra; Barenboim conducted the Chicago symphony for years.
- They conducted themselves well during these difficult times.

---

dog-iron (noun)

Metal supports for logs in a fireplace.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dog-iron."
- They discussed "dog-iron" during the group presentation.

---

fake book (noun)

A fake in the form of an imitation book; used to fill bookcases of people who wish to appear scholarly.

- Understanding "fake book" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fake book."

---

flag (noun)

A rectangular piece of fabric used as a signalling device.

- Understanding "flag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "flag" to mean a rectangular piece of fabric used as a signalling....

---

frame (noun)

A framework that supports and protects a picture or a mirror.

- The frame enhances but is not itself the subject of attention.
- The frame was much more valuable than the miror it held.

---

hot-water bag (noun)

A stoppered receptacle (usually made of rubber) that is to be filled with hot water and used for warming a bed or parts of the body.

- They discussed "hot-water bag" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "hot-water bag" to mean a stoppered receptacle (usually made of rubber)....

---

ice bag (noun)

A waterproof bag filled with ice: applied to the body (especially the head) to cool or reduce swelling.

- They discussed "ice bag" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what “ice bag” means with a simple example.

---

journal box (noun)

Metal housing for a journal bearing.

- Understanding “journal box” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “journal box” because he had never seen it before.

---

metal bar (noun)

Metal that is cast in the shape of a block for convenient handling.

- Understanding “metal bar” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “metal bar” during the group presentation.

---

nine-spot (noun)

One of four playing cards in a deck with nine pips on the face.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “nine-spot.”
- He looked up “nine-spot” because he had never seen it before.

---

on-off switch (noun)

A hinged switch that can assume either of two positions.

- They discussed “on-off switch” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “on-off switch” because he had never seen it before.

---

quarter round (noun)

A convex molding having a cross section in the form of a quarter of a circle or of an ellipse.

- In class, the teacher used “quarter round” to mean a convex molding having a cross section in the form....
- The article explained what “quarter round” means with a simple example.

---

rock garden (noun)

A garden featuring rocks; usually alpine plants.

- Understanding “rock garden” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “rock garden” means with a simple example.

---

seven iron (noun)

Iron with a lofted face for hitting high shots to the green.

- The article explained what “seven iron” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “seven iron.”

---

small stores (noun)

Personal items conforming to regulations that are sold aboard ship or at a naval base and charged to the person’s pay.

- They discussed “small stores” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “small stores” because he had never seen it before.

---

surface ship (noun)

A warship that operates on the surface of the water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “surface ship.”
- He looked up “surface ship” because he had never seen it before.

---

touch screen (noun)

A computer display that enables the user to interact with the computer by touching areas on the screen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “touch screen.”
- They discussed “touch screen” during the group presentation.

---

write copy (verb)

Write for commercial publications.

- She writes copy for Harper’s Bazaar.
- The coach explained when to use “write copy” and when to wait.

---

academy (noun)

A learned establishment for the advancement of knowledge.

- He looked up "academy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "academy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

adam (noun)

Street names for methylenedioxymethamphetamine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adam."
- He looked up "adam" because he had never seen it before.

assume (verb)

Take on a certain form, attribute, or aspect.

- She assumed strange manners.
- The gods assume human or animal form in these fables.

bear upon (verb)

Have an effect upon.

- The coach explained when to use "bear upon" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "bear upon" in real sentences.

bottle (noun)

A vessel fitted with a flexible teat and filled with milk or formula; used as a substitute for breast feeding infants and very young children.

- Understanding "bottle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bottle" to mean a vessel fitted with a flexible teat and filled....

branch out (verb)

Vary in order to spread risk or to expand.

- She tried to use "branch out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "branch out" when talking about this idea.

false face (noun)

A mask worn as part of a masquerade costume.

- In class, the teacher used "false face" to mean a mask worn as part of a masquerade costume.
- The article explained what "false face" means with a simple example.

frame up (verb)

Construct by fitting or uniting parts together.

- The coach explained when to use "frame up" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "frame up" carefully so everyone would understand.

hand truck (noun)

A handcart that has a frame with two low wheels and a ledge at the bottom and handles at the top; used to move crates or other heavy objects.

- In class, the teacher used "hand truck" to mean a handcart that has a frame with two low wheels and....
- The article explained what "hand truck" means with a simple example.

lane (noun)

A well-defined track or path; for e.g. swimmers or lines of traffic.

- Understanding "lane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lane."

magic eye (noun)

A transducer used to detect and measure light and other radiations.

- He looked up "magic eye" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magic eye."

primary cell (noun)

An electric cell that generates an electromotive force by an irreversible conversion of chemical to electrical energy; cannot be recharged.

- Understanding “primary cell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “primary cell” to mean an electric cell that generates an electromotive....

---

science museum (noun)

A museum that collects and displays objects having scientific interest.

- Understanding “science museum” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “science museum” to mean a museum that collects and displays objects having....

---

six pack (noun)

A carton containing six bottles or cans.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “six pack.”
- The article explained what “six pack” means with a simple example.

---

six-pack (noun)

A carton containing six bottles or cans.

- Understanding “six-pack” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “six-pack” to mean a carton containing six bottles or cans.

---

spring scale (noun)

A balance that measure weight by the tension on a helical spring.

- They discussed “spring scale” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “spring scale” because he had never seen it before.

---

storage (noun)

An electronic memory device.

- My car is in storage.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “storage.”

---

t-shirt (noun)

A close-fitting pullover shirt.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “t-shirt.”
- He looked up “t-shirt” because he had never seen it before.

---

tank (noun)

A freight car that transports liquids or gases in bulk.

- He looked up “tank” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tank.”

---

trading post (noun)

A retail store serving a sparsely populated region; usually stocked with a wide variety of merchandise.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “trading post.”
- Understanding “trading post” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

video display (noun)

An electronic device that represents information in visual form.

- They discussed “video display” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “video display” means with a simple example.

---

watch chain (noun)

Short chain or ribbon attaching a pocket watch to a man’s vest.

- Understanding “watch chain” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “watch chain” during the group presentation.

---

white pages (noun)

A telephone directory or section of a directory (usually printed on white paper) where the names of people are listed alphabetically along with their telephone numbers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “white pages.”
- He looked up “white pages” because he had never seen it before.

x ray (noun)

A radiogram made by exposing photographic film to X rays; used in medical diagnosis.

- He looked up "x ray" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "x ray" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

x-ray (noun)

A radiogram made by exposing photographic film to X rays; used in medical diagnosis.

- They discussed "x-ray" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "x-ray" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

assembly line (noun)

Mechanical system in a factory whereby an article is conveyed through sites at which successive operations are performed on it.

- In class, the teacher used "assembly line" to mean mechanical system in a factory whereby an article....
- Understanding "assembly line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

basketball (noun)

An inflated ball used in playing basketball.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basketball."
- He looked up "basketball" because he had never seen it before.

button (noun)

An electrical switch operated by pressing.

- The elevator was operated by push buttons.
- They passed out campaign buttons for their candidate.

command key (noun)

(computer science) the key on a computer keyboard that is used (in combination with some other key) to type control characters.

- He looked up "command key" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "command key" during the group presentation.

computer software (noun)

(computer science) written programs or procedures or rules and associated documentation pertaining to the operation of a computer system and that are stored in read/write memory.

- The market for software is expected to expand.
- He looked up "computer software" because he had never seen it before.

counter (noun)

A piece of leather forming the back of a shoe or boot.

- A counter may be used to stiffen the material around the heel and to give support to the foot.
- In class, the teacher used "counter" to mean a piece of leather forming the back of a shoe or boot.

dry wall (noun)

A stone wall made with stones fitted together without mortar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dry wall."
- They discussed "dry wall" during the group presentation.

dry-wall (verb)

Construct with drywall.

- Dry-wall the basement of the house.
- She tried to use "dry-wall" carefully so everyone would understand.

el (noun)

A railway that is powered by electricity and that runs on a track that is raised above the street level.

- They discussed "el" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "el."

engine block (noun)

A metal casting containing the cylinders and cooling ducts of an engine.

- The engine had to be replaced because the block was cracked.
- The article explained what "engine block" means with a simple example.

---

force feed (noun)

Mechanical system of lubricating internal combustion engines in which a pump forces oil into the engine bearings.

- The article explained what "force feed" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "force feed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

funny farm (noun)

Pejorative terms for an insane asylum.

- In class, the teacher used "funny farm" to mean pejorative terms for an insane asylum.
- The article explained what "funny farm" means with a simple example.

---

hand cream (noun)

Moisturizing cream for the hands.

- The article explained what "hand cream" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hand cream" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sea steps (noun)

(nautical) ladder to be lowered over a ship's side for coming aboard.

- He looked up "sea steps" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sea steps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shopping center (noun)

Mercantile establishment consisting of a carefully landscaped complex of shops representing leading merchandisers; usually includes restaurants and a convenient parking area; a modern version of the traditional marketplace.

- The article explained what "shopping center" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "shopping center" during the group presentation.

---

space platform (noun)

A manned artificial satellite in a fixed orbit designed for scientific research.

- The article explained what "space platform" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "space platform" during the group presentation.

---

square block (noun)

A block in the (approximate) shape of a cube.

- In class, the teacher used "square block" to mean a block in the (approximate) shape of a cube.
- He looked up "square block" because he had never seen it before.

---

supply ship (noun)

Ship that usually provides supplies to other ships.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supply ship."
- He looked up "supply ship" because he had never seen it before.

---

text file (noun)

(computer science) a computer file that contains text (and possibly formatting instructions) using seven-bit ASCII characters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "text file."
- Understanding "text file" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

three-way switch (noun)

An electric switch that has three terminals; used to control a circuit from two different locations.

- In class, the teacher used "three-way switch" to mean an electric switch that has three terminals; used....
- They discussed "three-way switch" during the group presentation.

---

u-boat (noun)

A submersible warship usually armed with torpedoes.

- Understanding "u-boat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up "u-boat" because he had never seen it before.

---

voice mail (noun)

A computerized system for answering and routing telephone calls; telephone messages can be recorded and stored and relayed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "voice mail."
- He looked up "voice mail" because he had never seen it before.

---

block of metal (noun)

Metal that is cast in the shape of a block for convenient handling.

- They discussed "block of metal" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "block of metal" because he had never seen it before.

---

color television (noun)

A television that transmits images in color.

- The article explained what "color television" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "color television" during the group presentation.

---

computer file (noun)

(computer science) a file maintained in computer-readable form.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer file."
- The article explained what "computer file" means with a simple example.

---

digital camera (noun)

A camera that encodes an image digitally and store it for later reproduction.

- The article explained what "digital camera" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "digital camera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

easy lay (noun)

Street names for gamma hydroxybutyrate.

- In class, the teacher used "easy lay" to mean street names for gamma hydroxybutyrate.
- He looked up "easy lay" because he had never seen it before.

---

electronic (adjective)

Of or relating to electronics; concerned with or using devices that operate on principles governing the behavior of electrons.

- Electronic devices.
- Electronic energy.

---

factory (noun)

A plant consisting of one or more buildings with facilities for manufacturing.

- He looked up "factory" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "factory."

---

fire escape (noun)

A stairway (often on the outside of a building) that permits exit in the case of fire or other emergency.

- They discussed "fire escape" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire escape."

---

fire truck (noun)

Any of various large trucks that carry firemen and equipment to the site of a fire.

- They discussed "fire truck" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fire truck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

heat engine (noun)

Any engine that makes use of heat to do work.

- In class, the teacher used "heat engine" to mean any engine that makes use of heat to do work.
- Understanding "heat engine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leading edge (noun)

Forward edge of an airfoil.

- The article explained what "leading edge" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "leading edge" to mean forward edge of an airfoil.

light machine gun (noun)

A submachine gun not greater than .30 millimeter.

- They discussed "light machine gun" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "light machine gun" means with a simple example.

prepare (verb)

To prepare verbally, either for written or spoken delivery.

- Prepare a report.
- Prepare a speech.

prepare for (verb)

Prepare mentally or emotionally for something unpleasant.

- Learners should practice how to use "prepare for" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "prepare for" carefully so everyone would understand.

receiving set (noun)

An electronic receiver that detects and demodulates and amplifies transmitted signals.

- In class, the teacher used "receiving set" to mean an electronic receiver that detects and demodulates....
- Understanding "receiving set" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

receiving system (noun)

Set that receives radio or tv signals.

- The article explained what "receiving system" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "receiving system" during the group presentation.

sea boat (noun)

A boat that is seaworthy; that is adapted to the open seas.

- They discussed "sea boat" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sea boat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ships (noun)

A vessel that carries passengers or freight.

- They discussed "ships" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ships" because he had never seen it before.

shot hole (noun)

Drill hole for a charge of an explosive.

- Understanding "shot hole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "shot hole" during the group presentation.

software product (noun)

Merchandise consisting of a computer program that is offered for sale.

- Understanding "software product" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "software product."

staying (verb)

Stay the same; remain in a certain state.

- We are staying in Detroit; we are not moving to Cincinnati.
- He did not know how to use "staying" until he saw an example.

union suit (noun)

An undergarment with shirt and drawers in one piece.

- In class, the teacher used “union suit” to mean an undergarment with shirt and drawers in one piece.
- They discussed “union suit” during the group presentation.

---

updated (verb)

Modernize or bring up to date.

- We updated the kitchen in the old house.
- He did not know how to use “updated” until he saw an example.

---

american stock exchange (noun)

A stock exchange in New York.

- They discussed “american stock exchange” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “american stock exchange.”

---

battle dress (noun)

A military uniform designed for field service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “battle dress.”
- He looked up “battle dress” because he had never seen it before.

---

cable (noun)

A television system that transmits over cables.

- They discussed “cable” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “cable” to mean a television system that transmits over cables.

---

chat show (noun)

A program during which well-known people discuss a topic or answer questions telephoned in by the audience.

- In England they call a talk show a chat show.
- The article explained what “chat show” means with a simple example.

---

code of behavior (noun)

A set of conventional principles and expectations that are considered binding on any person who is a member of a particular group.

- In class, the teacher used “code of behavior” to mean a set of conventional principles and expectations....
- The article explained what “code of behavior” means with a simple example.

---

contact arm (noun)

Contact consisting of a conducting arm that rotates over a series of fixed contacts and comes to rest on an outlet.

- Understanding “contact arm” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “contact arm” to mean contact consisting of a conducting arm that rotates....

---

death row (noun)

The cellblock in a prison where those condemned to death await execution.

- In class, the teacher used “death row” to mean the cellblock in a prison where those condemned to....
- The article explained what “death row” means with a simple example.

---

display board (noun)

A vertical surface on which information can be displayed to public view.

- Understanding “display board” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “display board” to mean a vertical surface on which information can be....

---

dress ship (verb)

Decorate a ship with flags.

- He did not know how to use “dress ship” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “dress ship” in real sentences.

---

electric eye (noun)

A transducer used to detect and measure light and other radiations.

- He looked up “electric eye” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “electric eye.”

film advance (noun)

A mechanism for advancing film in a camera or projector.

- Understanding "film advance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "film advance" means with a simple example.

live load (noun)

A variable load on a structure (e.g. a bridge) such as moving traffic.

- He looked up "live load" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "live load."

master copy (noun)

An original creation (i.e., an audio recording) from which copies can be made.

- They discussed "master copy" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "master copy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

matt-up (verb)

Change texture so as to become matted and felt-like.

- The coach explained when to use "matt-up" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "matt-up" in real sentences.

research facility (noun)

A center where research is done.

- Understanding "research facility" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "research facility" to mean a center where research is done.

security measure (noun)

An electrical device that sets off an alarm when someone tries to break in.

- In class, the teacher used "security measure" to mean an electrical device that sets off an alarm when....
- The article explained what "security measure" means with a simple example.

sound hole (noun)

A hole in a soundboard (as of a violin) designed to resonate with the tones.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sound hole."
- They discussed "sound hole" during the group presentation.

american flag (noun)

The national flag of the United States of America.

- Understanding "american flag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "american flag" because he had never seen it before.

band aid (noun)

Trade name for an adhesive bandage to cover small cuts or blisters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "band aid."
- They discussed "band aid" during the group presentation.

bike (noun)

A motor vehicle with two wheels and a strong frame.

- The article explained what "bike" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bike" to mean a motor vehicle with two wheels and a strong frame.

black flag (noun)

A flag usually bearing a white skull and crossbones on a black background; indicates a pirate ship.

- The article explained what "black flag" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "black flag" to mean a flag usually bearing a white skull and crossbones....

book matches (noun)

A paper match that strikes only on a specially prepared surface.

- In class, the teacher used "book matches" to mean a paper match that strikes only on a specially....
- Understanding "book matches" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

branch line (noun)

A railway line connected to a trunk line.

- He looked up "branch line" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "branch line."

---

cake (noun)

A block of solid substance (such as soap or wax).

- Understanding "cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cake" because he had never seen it before.

---

create by mental act (verb)

Create mentally and abstractly rather than with one's hands.

- Learners should practice how to use "create by mental act" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "create by mental act" when talking about this idea.

---

death bell (noun)

A bell rung to announce a death.

- They discussed "death bell" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "death bell" means with a simple example.

---

driven well (noun)

A well made by driving a tube into the earth to a stratum that bears water.

- In class, the teacher used "driven well" to mean a well made by driving a tube into the earth to a....
- The article explained what "driven well" means with a simple example.

---

editor program (noun)

(computer science) a program designed to perform such editorial functions as rearrangement or modification or deletion of data.

- They discussed "editor program" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "editor program."

---

flag stop (noun)

A small railway station between the principal stations or a station where the train stops only on a signal.

- Understanding "flag stop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flag stop."

---

ground-effect machine (noun)

A craft capable of moving over water or land on a cushion of air created by jet engines.

- Understanding "ground-effect machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ground-effect machine" means with a simple example.

---

internal drive (noun)

A drive mounted inside of a computer.

- The article explained what "internal drive" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "internal drive" to mean a drive mounted inside of a computer.

---

line drawing (noun)

A drawing of the outlines of forms or objects.

- He looked up "line drawing" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "line drawing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

master file (noun)

(computer science) a computer file that is used as the authority in a given job and that is relatively permanent.

- Understanding "master file" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "master file" to mean (computer science) a computer file that is used as....

---

paper feed (noun)

A device for inserting sheets of paper into a printer or typewriter.

- The job was delayed because the paper feed was clogged.
- In class, the teacher used "paper feed" to mean a device for inserting sheets of paper into a....

---

party favor (noun)

Souvenir consisting of a small gift given to a guest at a party.

- In class, the teacher used "party favor" to mean souvenir consisting of a small gift given to a....
- The article explained what "party favor" means with a simple example.

---

pc (noun)

A small digital computer based on a microprocessor and designed to be used by one person at a time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pc."
- Understanding "pc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pounds (noun)

A public enclosure for stray or unlicensed dogs.

- He got a hernia when he tried to lift 100 pounds.
- They discussed "pounds" during the group presentation.

---

print over (verb)

Print (additional text or colors) onto an already imprinted paper.

- Can you use "print over" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "print over" and when to wait.

---

real storage (noun)

The main memory in a virtual memory system.

- The article explained what "real storage" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "real storage" to mean the main memory in a virtual memory system.

---

safety zone (noun)

A curbed area in a roadway from which traffic is excluded; provides safe area for pedestrians.

- In class, the teacher used "safety zone" to mean a curbed area in a roadway from which traffic is....
- They discussed "safety zone" during the group presentation.

---

screen memory (noun)

An imagined memory of a childhood experience; hides another memory of distressing significance.

- They discussed "screen memory" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "screen memory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seats (noun)

An area that includes places where several people can sit.

- He booked their seats in advance.
- There were not enough seats for all the guests.

---

silver screen (noun)

A white or silvered surface where pictures can be projected for viewing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silver screen."
- He looked up "silver screen" because he had never seen it before.

---

slow time scale (noun)

(simulation) the time scale used in data processing when the time-scale factor is greater than one.

- He looked up "slow time scale" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slow time scale."

---

soft-cover (noun)

A book with paper covers.

- In class, the teacher used "soft-cover" to mean a book with paper covers.
- He looked up "soft-cover" because he had never seen it before.

---

spring balance (noun)

A balance that measure weight by the tension on a helical spring.

- The article explained what "spring balance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spring balance" to mean a balance that measure weight by the tension on a....

---

standing stone (noun)

A tall upright megalith; found primarily in England and northern France.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "standing stone."
- Understanding "standing stone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stayed (verb)

Stay the same; remain in a certain state.

- After graduation, she stayed on in Cambridge as a student adviser.
- The smell stayed in the room.

---

tank top (noun)

A tight-fitting sleeveless shirt with wide shoulder straps and low neck and no front opening; often worn over a shirt or blouse.

- The article explained what "tank top" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tank top" to mean a tight-fitting sleeveless shirt with wide shoulder....

---

television camera (noun)

Television equipment consisting of a lens system that focuses an image on a photosensitive mosaic that is scanned by an electron beam.

- They discussed "television camera" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "television camera."

---

television equipment (noun)

Electronic equipment that broadcasts or receives electromagnetic waves representing images and sound.

- In class, the teacher used "television equipment" to mean electronic equipment that broadcasts or receives....
- The article explained what "television equipment" means with a simple example.

---

three-point switch (noun)

An electric switch that has three terminals; used to control a circuit from two different locations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "three-point switch."
- He looked up "three-point switch" because he had never seen it before.

---

tom-tom (noun)

Any of various drums with small heads.

- The article explained what "tom-tom" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tom-tom."

---

transportation system (noun)

A facility consisting of the means and equipment necessary for the movement of passengers or goods.

- The article explained what "transportation system" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "transportation system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tries (verb)

Melt (fat or lard) in order to separate out impurities.

- He did not know how to use "tries" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "tries" and when to wait.

---

two-piece suit (noun)

A business suit consisting of a matching jacket and skirt or trousers.

- Understanding "two-piece suit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "two-piece suit" because he had never seen it before.

---

white flag (noun)

Flag consisting of a piece of white cloth that is hoisted to signal surrender or to ask for a truce.

- The article explained what "white flag" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white flag."

---

wine bar (noun)

A bar that serves only wine.

- Understanding "wine bar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wine bar."

---

wood block (noun)

Engraving consisting of a block of wood with a design cut into it; used to make prints.

- In class, the teacher used "wood block" to mean engraving consisting of a block of wood with a....
- The article explained what "wood block" means with a simple example.

---

a battery (noun)

The battery used to heat the filaments of a vacuum tube.

- He looked up "a battery" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "a battery" to mean the battery used to heat the filaments of a vacuum tube.

---

balls (noun)

A solid projectile that is shot by a musket.

- She kicked him in the balls and got away.
- He stood on the balls of his feet.

---

blind (noun)

A protective covering that keeps things out or hinders sight.

- They had just moved in and had not put up blinds yet.
- He spent hours reading to the blind.

---

burn out (verb)

Melt, break, or become otherwise unusable.

- The lightbulbs blew out.
- He did not know how to use "burn out" until he saw an example.

---

burn up (verb)

Burn completely; be consumed or destroyed by fire.

- The hut burned down.
- Burn off calories through vigorous exercise.

---

conduct (verb)

Lead, as in the performance of a composition.

- Conduct an orchestra; Barenboim conducted the Chicago symphony for years.
- You cannot conduct business like this.

---

destroy (verb)

Do away with, cause the destruction or undoing of.

- The fire destroyed the house.
- The customs agents destroyed the dog that was found to be rabid.

---

e-bomb (noun)

A bomb that explodes in midair and releases a massive burst of electromagnetic energy sufficient to disable computers and telecommunications without killing people or damaging buildings.

- He looked up "e-bomb" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "e-bomb" to mean a bomb that explodes in midair and releases a....

evening bag (noun)

A handbag used with evening wear.

- He looked up "evening bag" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "evening bag."

farm machine (noun)

A machine used in farming.

- The article explained what "farm machine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "farm machine" to mean a machine used in farming.

fish farm (noun)

A workplace (usually a pond) where fish are raised for food.

- He looked up "fish farm" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fish farm."

g suit (noun)

Worn by fliers and astronauts to counteract the forces of gravity and acceleration.

- In class, the teacher used "g suit" to mean worn by fliers and astronauts to counteract the....
- They discussed "g suit" during the group presentation.

guard ship (noun)

A warship (at anchor or under way) required to maintain a higher degree of readiness than others in its squadron.

- The article explained what "guard ship" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "guard ship" to mean a warship (at anchor or under way) required to....

high relief (noun)

A sculptural relief in which forms extend out from the background to at least half their depth.

- They discussed "high relief" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high relief."

mass-produce (verb)

Produce on a large scale.

- He did not know how to use "mass-produce" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "mass-produce" when talking about this idea.

ohio state university (noun)

A university in Columbus, Ohio.

- Understanding "ohio state university" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ohio state university" during the group presentation.

paint (noun)

A substance used as a coating to protect or decorate a surface (especially a mixture of pigment suspended in a liquid); dries to form a hard coating.

- Artists use 'paint' and 'pigment' interchangeably.
- He dominates play in the paint.

sound truck (noun)

A truck equipped with a loudspeaker and used for advertising.

- He looked up "sound truck" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sound truck."

steam (verb)

Cook something by letting steam pass over it.

- Just steam the vegetables.
- The ship steamed off into the Pacific.

storage area (noun)

The space in a ship or aircraft for storing cargo.

- He looked up "storage area" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "storage area."

---

television channel (noun)

A television station and its programs.

- A satellite TV channel.
- Surfing through the channels.

---

tool case (noun)

A box or chest or cabinet for holding hand tools.

- Understanding "tool case" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tool case" to mean a box or chest or cabinet for holding hand tools.

---

water bottle (noun)

A bottle for holding water.

- They discussed "water bottle" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water bottle."

---

water tank (noun)

A tank that holds the water used to flush a toilet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water tank."
- They discussed "water tank" during the group presentation.

---

window screen (noun)

Screen to keep insects from entering a building through the open window.

- He looked up "window screen" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "window screen" during the group presentation.

---

world wide web (noun)

Computer network consisting of a collection of internet sites that offer text and graphics and sound and animation resources through the hypertext transfer protocol.

- The article explained what "world wide web" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "world wide web" to mean computer network consisting of a collection of....

---

action painting (noun)

A New York school of painting characterized by freely created abstractions; the first important school of American painting to develop independently of European styles.

- He looked up "action painting" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "action painting."

---

arm band (noun)

A band worn around the arm for decoration.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arm band."
- The article explained what "arm band" means with a simple example.

---

attack aircraft (noun)

A high-speed military or naval airplane designed to destroy enemy aircraft in the air.

- Understanding "attack aircraft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "attack aircraft" means with a simple example.

---

beauty spot (noun)

A spot that is worn on a lady's face for adornment.

- Understanding "beauty spot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beauty spot."

---

brand-name drug (noun)

A drug that has a trade name and is protected by a patent (can be produced and sold only by the company holding the patent).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brand-name drug."

- The article explained what “brand-name drug” means with a simple example.

---

burn down (verb)

Burn completely; be consumed or destroyed by fire.

- The hut burned down.
- They burned the house and his diaries.

---

burn off (verb)

Clear land of its vegetation by burning it off.

- Burn off calories through vigorous exercise.
- Learners should practice how to use “burn off” in real sentences.

---

clubs (noun)

A building that is occupied by a social club.

- Clubs were trumps.
- The gossip columnist got his information by visiting nightclubs every night.

---

color television system (noun)

A television that transmits images in color.

- He looked up “color television system” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “color television system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

computer file name (noun)

(computer science) the name given to a computer file in order to distinguish it from other files; may contain an extension that indicates the type of file.

- In class, the teacher used “computer file name” to mean (computer science) the name given to a computer....
- The article explained what “computer file name” means with a simple example.

---

computer user (noun)

A person who uses computers for work or entertainment or communication or business.

- Understanding “computer user” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “computer user” means with a simple example.

---

driving iron (noun)

(golf) the long iron with the most nearly vertical face.

- The article explained what “driving iron” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “driving iron.”

---

electric fan (noun)

A fan run by an electric motor.

- Understanding “electric fan” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “electric fan” because he had never seen it before.

---

evening dress (noun)

Attire to wear on formal occasions in the evening.

- They discussed “evening dress” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “evening dress” means with a simple example.

---

fire bell (noun)

A bell rung to give a fire alarm.

- They discussed “fire bell” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fire bell.”

---

football stadium (noun)

A stadium where football games are held.

- He looked up “football stadium” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “football stadium” to mean a stadium where football games are held.

---

golf course (noun)

Course consisting of a large landscaped area for playing golf.

- The article explained what "golf course" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "golf course" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

head crash (noun)

(computer science) a crash of a read/write head in a hard disk drive (usually caused by contact of the head with the surface of the magnetic disk).

- The article explained what "head crash" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "head crash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

high hat (noun)

A man's hat with a tall crown; usually covered with silk or with beaver fur.

- The article explained what "high hat" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "high hat" during the group presentation.

---

lock (noun)

A mechanism that detonates the charge of a gun.

- They discussed "lock" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lock" means with a simple example.

---

new york stock exchange (noun)

A stock exchange in New York.

- In class, the teacher used "new york stock exchange" to mean a stock exchange in new york.
- He looked up "new york stock exchange" because he had never seen it before.

---

power tool (noun)

A tool driven by a motor.

- The article explained what "power tool" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "power tool" during the group presentation.

---

pressure feed (noun)

Mechanical system of lubricating internal combustion engines in which a pump forces oil into the engine bearings.

- They discussed "pressure feed" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pressure feed" means with a simple example.

---

read-only storage (noun)

(computer science) memory whose contents can be accessed and read but cannot be changed.

- He looked up "read-only storage" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "read-only storage" during the group presentation.

---

screen background (noun)

(computer science) the area of the screen in graphical user interfaces against which icons and windows appear.

- In class, the teacher used "screen background" to mean (computer science) the area of the screen in....
- They discussed "screen background" during the group presentation.

---

semi (noun)

A truck consisting of a tractor and trailer together.

- He looked up "semi" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "semi."

---

sunday clothes (noun)

The best attire you have which is worn to church on Sunday.

- In class, the teacher used "sunday clothes" to mean the best attire you have which is worn to church on....
- The article explained what "sunday clothes" means with a simple example.

---

three-piece suit (noun)

A business suit consisting of a jacket and vest and trousers.

- In class, the teacher used "three-piece suit" to mean a business suit consisting of a jacket and vest and....
- The article explained what "three-piece suit" means with a simple example.

---

tie (noun)

A fastener that serves to join or connect.

- He stood in front of the mirror tightening his necktie.
- He wore a vest and tie.

---

tie-in (noun)

A fastener that serves to join or connect.

- In class, the teacher used "tie-in" to mean a fastener that serves to join or connect.
- He looked up "tie-in" because he had never seen it before.

---

walking stick (noun)

A stick carried in the hand for support in walking.

- The article explained what "walking stick" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "walking stick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

basketball court (noun)

The court on which basketball is played.

- Understanding "basketball court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "basketball court" because he had never seen it before.

---

cable system (noun)

A television system that transmits over cables.

- In class, the teacher used "cable system" to mean a television system that transmits over cables.
- He looked up "cable system" because he had never seen it before.

---

covered bridge (noun)

A bridge whose passageway is protected by a roof and enclosing sides.

- They discussed "covered bridge" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "covered bridge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

entertainment center (noun)

A wall unit containing sound and television systems.

- The article explained what "entertainment center" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "entertainment center" to mean a wall unit containing sound and television systems.

---

facing (noun)

A protective covering that protects the outside of a building.

- He looked up "facing" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "facing" during the group presentation.

---

false hair (noun)

A covering or bunch of human or artificial hair used for disguise or adornment.

- The article explained what "false hair" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "false hair" during the group presentation.

---

fat farm (noun)

A health spa that specializes in helping people lose weight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fat farm."
- They discussed "fat farm" during the group presentation.

---

foundation stone (noun)

A stone laid at a ceremony to mark the founding of a new building.

- Understanding "foundation stone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "foundation stone" because he had never seen it before.

hand tool (noun)

A tool used with workers' hands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hand tool."
- They discussed "hand tool" during the group presentation.

ice pack (noun)

A waterproof bag filled with ice: applied to the body (especially the head) to cool or reduce swelling.

- Understanding "ice pack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ice pack" during the group presentation.

lay figure (noun)

Dummy in the form of an artist's jointed model of the human body.

- He looked up "lay figure" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lay figure."

little theatre (noun)

A small theater for experimental drama or collegiate or community groups.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little theatre."
- He looked up "little theatre" because he had never seen it before.

metal wood (noun)

Golf wood with a metal head instead of the traditional wooden head.

- Understanding "metal wood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "metal wood" because he had never seen it before.

nine iron (noun)

An iron with considerable loft.

- He looked up "nine iron" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nine iron."

power cable (noun)

Cable used to distribute electricity.

- In class, the teacher used "power cable" to mean cable used to distribute electricity.
- He looked up "power cable" because he had never seen it before.

recommended (verb)

Make attractive or acceptable.

- The travel agent recommended strongly that we not travel on Thanksgiving Day.
- In everyday English, people use "recommended" when talking about this idea.

self-taught art (noun)

A genre of art and outdoor constructions made by untrained artists who do not recognize themselves as artists.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-taught art."
- He looked up "self-taught art" because he had never seen it before.

shoulder (noun)

The part of a garment that covers or fits over the shoulder.

- An ornamental gold braid on the shoulder of his uniform.
- The car pulled off onto the shoulder.

shower (noun)

A plumbing fixture that sprays water over you.

- They installed a shower in the bathroom.
- He took a shower after the game.

sight-read (verb)

Perform music from a score without having seen the score before.

- The coach explained when to use "sight-read" and when to wait.
- Can you use "sight-read" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sleeping room (noun)

A room used primarily for sleeping.

- In class, the teacher used "sleeping room" to mean a room used primarily for sleeping.
- He looked up "sleeping room" because he had never seen it before.

---

solar house (noun)

A house designed to use solar radiation for heating; usually has large areas of glass in front of heat-absorbing materials.

- The article explained what "solar house" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "solar house" during the group presentation.

---

truck bed (noun)

The floor or bottom of a wagon or truck or trailer.

- Understanding "truck bed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "truck bed" because he had never seen it before.

---

weapon system (noun)

Any instrument or instrumentality used in fighting or hunting.

- He was licensed to carry a weapon.
- The article explained what "weapon system" means with a simple example.

---

art object (noun)

A work of art of some artistic value.

- This store sells only objets d'art.
- In class, the teacher used "art object" to mean a work of art of some artistic value.

---

beach chair (noun)

A folding chair for use outdoors; a wooden frame supports a length of canvas.

- In class, the teacher used "beach chair" to mean a folding chair for use outdoors; a wooden frame....
- Understanding "beach chair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cabinet (noun)

A storage compartment for clothes and valuables; usually it has a lock.

- In class, the teacher used "cabinet" to mean a storage compartment for clothes and valuables;....
- The article explained what "cabinet" means with a simple example.

---

cap off (verb)

Finish or complete, as with some decisive action.

- He capped off the meeting with a radical proposal.
- Can you use "cap off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

church bell (noun)

A bell in a church tower (usually sounded to summon people to church).

- Church bells were ringing all over town.
- He looked up "church bell" because he had never seen it before.

---

colour in (verb)

Add color to.

- Can you use "colour in" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "colour in" when talking about this idea.

---

control panel (noun)

Electrical device consisting of a flat insulated surface that contains switches and dials and meters for controlling other electrical devices.

- He checked the instrument panel.

- The article explained what “control panel” means with a simple example.

---

crown saw (noun)

A saw having teeth around the edge of a hollow cylinder.

- He looked up “crown saw” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “crown saw” during the group presentation.

---

data mining (noun)

Data processing using sophisticated data search capabilities and statistical algorithms to discover patterns and correlations in large preexisting databases; a way to discover new meaning in data.

- He looked up “data mining” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “data mining” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drawing board (noun)

A smooth board on which paper is placed for making drawings.

- He looked up “drawing board” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “drawing board.”

---

early warning system (noun)

A network of radar installations designed to detect enemy missiles or aircraft while there is still time to intercept them.

- In class, the teacher used “early warning system” to mean a network of radar installations designed to detect....
- Understanding “early warning system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electric cell (noun)

A device that delivers an electric current as the result of a chemical reaction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “electric cell.”
- Understanding “electric cell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fighting chair (noun)

A fixed chair from which a saltwater angler can fight a hooked fish.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fighting chair.”
- They discussed “fighting chair” during the group presentation.

---

fish joint (noun)

A butt joint formed by bolting fish plates to the sides of two rails or beams.

- He looked up “fish joint” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “fish joint” during the group presentation.

---

front yard (noun)

The yard in front of a house; between the house and the street.

- The article explained what “front yard” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “front yard.”

---

fuel cell (noun)

Cell that produces electricity by oxidation of fuel (hydrogen and oxygen or zinc and air); often used in electric cars.

- In class, the teacher used “fuel cell” to mean cell that produces electricity by oxidation of fuel....
- The article explained what “fuel cell” means with a simple example.

---

gallery (noun)

A horizontal (or nearly horizontal) passageway in a mine.

- Shooting gallery.
- Understanding “gallery” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

get rid of (verb)

Terminate, end, or take out.

- Get rid of these old shoes!
- The company got rid of all the dead wood.

---

half-relief (noun)

A sculptural relief between low relief and high relief.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half-relief."
- The article explained what "half-relief" means with a simple example.

---

highway (noun)

A major road for any form of motor transport.

- The article explained what "highway" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "highway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

house paint (noun)

Paint used to cover the exterior woodwork of a house.

- He looked up "house paint" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house paint."

---

industrial plant (noun)

Buildings for carrying on industrial labor.

- They built a large plant to manufacture automobiles.
- In class, the teacher used "industrial plant" to mean buildings for carrying on industrial labor.

---

kitchen island (noun)

An unattached counter in a kitchen that permits access from all sides.

- They discussed "kitchen island" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kitchen island."

---

main yard (noun)

Yard for a square mainsail.

- The article explained what "main yard" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "main yard" during the group presentation.

---

obtained (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- The coach explained when to use "obtained" and when to wait.
- Can you use "obtained" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

open sight (noun)

Rear gunsight having an open notch instead of a peephole or telescope.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "open sight."
- They discussed "open sight" during the group presentation.

---

prison camp (noun)

A camp for trustworthy prisoners employed in government projects.

- In class, the teacher used "prison camp" to mean a camp for trustworthy prisoners employed in....
- The article explained what "prison camp" means with a simple example.

---

putting iron (noun)

The iron normally used on the putting green.

- The article explained what "putting iron" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "putting iron" to mean the iron normally used on the putting green.

---

rose garden (noun)

A garden for growing roses.

- In class, the teacher used "rose garden" to mean a garden for growing roses.
- They discussed "rose garden" during the group presentation.

---

rough in (verb)

Prepare in preliminary or sketchy form.

- The coach explained when to use “rough in” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “rough in” until he saw an example.

---

safety device (noun)

A device designed to prevent injury or accidents.

- In class, the teacher used “safety device” to mean a device designed to prevent injury or accidents.
- They discussed “safety device” during the group presentation.

---

shopping centre (noun)

Mercantile establishment consisting of a carefully landscaped complex of shops representing leading merchandisers; usually includes restaurants and a convenient parking area; a modern version of the traditional marketplace.

- The article explained what “shopping centre” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “shopping centre” during the group presentation.

---

steel plant (noun)

A factory where steel is made.

- In class, the teacher used “steel plant” to mean a factory where steel is made.
- The article explained what “steel plant” means with a simple example.

---

throw stick (noun)

A curved piece of wood; when properly thrown will return to thrower.

- He looked up “throw stick” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “throw stick.”

---

top hat (noun)

A man’s hat with a tall crown; usually covered with silk or with beaver fur.

- He looked up “top hat” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “top hat.”

---

trading card (noun)

A card with a picture on it; collected and traded by children.

- They discussed “trading card” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “trading card” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

transport ship (noun)

A ship for carrying soldiers or military equipment.

- The article explained what “transport ship” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “transport ship” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

v neck (noun)

The neck of a garment has the shape in front of the letter V.

- The article explained what “v neck” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “v neck.”

---

wedding dress (noun)

A gown worn by the bride at a wedding.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wedding dress.”
- He looked up “wedding dress” because he had never seen it before.

---

auto (noun)

A motor vehicle with four wheels; usually propelled by an internal combustion engine.

- The article explained what “auto” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “auto” to mean a motor vehicle with four wheels; usually propelled....

---

beer hall (noun)

A hall or barroom featuring beer and (usually) entertainment.

- They discussed “beer hall” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “beer hall” to mean a hall or barroom featuring beer and (usually)....

dead load (noun)

A constant load on a structure (e.g. a bridge) due to the weight of the supported structure itself.

- In class, the teacher used "dead load" to mean a constant load on a structure (e.g. a bridge) due....
- The article explained what "dead load" means with a simple example.

evening clothes (noun)

Attire to wear on formal occasions in the evening.

- He looked up "evening clothes" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "evening clothes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

expansion bit (noun)

A bit with a cutting blade that can be adjusted to different sizes.

- In class, the teacher used "expansion bit" to mean a bit with a cutting blade that can be adjusted to....
- He looked up "expansion bit" because he had never seen it before.

fail-safe (noun)

A mechanism capable of returning to a safe state in case there is a failure or malfunction.

- Understanding "fail-safe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fail-safe" during the group presentation.

guitar (noun)

A stringed instrument usually having six strings; played by strumming or plucking.

- He looked up "guitar" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "guitar" to mean a stringed instrument usually having six strings;....

guy cable (noun)

A cable, wire, or rope that is used to brace something (especially a tent).

- In class, the teacher used "guy cable" to mean a cable, wire, or rope that is used to brace....
- The article explained what "guy cable" means with a simple example.

heading (noun)

A horizontal (or nearly horizontal) passageway in a mine.

- The heading seemed to have little to do with the text.
- In class, the teacher used "heading" to mean a horizontal (or nearly horizontal) passageway in a....

hearing aid (noun)

An electronic device that amplifies sound and is worn to compensate for poor hearing.

- In class, the teacher used "hearing aid" to mean an electronic device that amplifies sound and is....
- They discussed "hearing aid" during the group presentation.

involving (verb)

Make complex or intricate or complicated.

- The coach explained when to use "involving" and when to wait.
- Can you use "involving" in a sentence that fits this situation?

labor camp (noun)

A penal institution for political prisoners who are used as forced labor.

- They discussed "labor camp" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "labor camp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

low relief (noun)

A sculptural relief in which forms extend only slightly from the background; no figures are undercut.

- They discussed "low relief" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "low relief" because he had never seen it before.

milk bar (noun)

Snack bar that sells milk drinks and light refreshments (such as ice cream).

- Understanding "milk bar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "milk bar" to mean snack bar that sells milk drinks and light....

---

object program (noun)

A fully compiled or assembled program ready to be loaded into the computer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "object program."
- He looked up "object program" because he had never seen it before.

---

panel light (noun)

A light to illuminate an instrument panel.

- He looked up "panel light" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "panel light" during the group presentation.

---

pants (noun)

Underpants worn by women.

- He looked up "pants" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pants."

---

re-assume (verb)

Take on again, as after a time lapse.

- He re-assumed his old behavior.
- She tried to use "re-assume" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

reaction engine (noun)

A jet or rocket engine based on a form of aerodynamic propulsion in which the vehicle emits a high-speed stream.

- The article explained what "reaction engine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "reaction engine" during the group presentation.

---

rough out (verb)

Prepare in preliminary or sketchy form.

- Can you use "rough out" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "rough out" and when to wait.

---

sharp (noun)

A long thin sewing needle with a sharp point.

- Understanding "sharp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sharp" during the group presentation.

---

signal box (noun)

A building from which signals are sent to control the movements of railway trains.

- The article explained what "signal box" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "signal box" to mean a building from which signals are sent to control....

---

sing along (verb)

Sing with a choir or an orchestra.

- Every year the local orchestra and choir perform the 'Messiah' and the audience is invited to sing along.
- The coach explained when to use "sing along" and when to wait.

---

soft-cover book (noun)

A book with paper covers.

- The article explained what "soft-cover book" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "soft-cover book" to mean a book with paper covers.

---

stable (noun)

A farm building for housing horses or other livestock.

- They discussed "stable" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "stable" means with a simple example.

---

steam line (noun)

A pipe conducting steam.

- He looked up "steam line" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "steam line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

storage space (noun)

The area in any structure that provides space for storage.

- They discussed "storage space" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "storage space" to mean the area in any structure that provides space for....

---

university of michigan (noun)

A university in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

- They discussed "university of michigan" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "university of michigan" because he had never seen it before.

---

university of west virginia (noun)

A university in Morgantown, West Virginia.

- The article explained what "university of west virginia" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "university of west virginia" to mean a university in morgantown, west virginia.

---

window-dress (verb)

Make something appear superficially attractive.

- Learners should practice how to use "window-dress" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "window-dress" when talking about this idea.

---

x-ray film (noun)

Photographic film used to make X-ray pictures.

- They discussed "x-ray film" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "x-ray film" to mean photographic film used to make x-ray pictures.

---

adding machine (noun)

A calculator that performs simple arithmetic functions.

- He looked up "adding machine" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "adding machine" to mean a calculator that performs simple arithmetic functions.

---

african tea (noun)

The leaves of the shrub Catha edulis which are chewed like tobacco or used to make tea; has the effect of a euphoric stimulant.

- Understanding "african tea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "african tea" to mean the leaves of the shrub catha edulis which are....

---

air transportation system (noun)

A transportation system for moving passengers or goods by air.

- The article explained what "air transportation system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "air transportation system" to mean a transportation system for moving passengers or....

---

and circuit (noun)

A circuit in a computer that fires only when all of its inputs fire.

- Understanding "and circuit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "and circuit" because he had never seen it before.

---

and gate (noun)

A circuit in a computer that fires only when all of its inputs fire.

- In class, the teacher used "and gate" to mean a circuit in a computer that fires only when all of....
- The article explained what "and gate" means with a simple example.

---

beer glass (noun)

A relatively large glass for serving beer.

- In class, the teacher used "beer glass" to mean a relatively large glass for serving beer.
- The article explained what "beer glass" means with a simple example.

bottle bank (noun)

A place where bottles can be deposited for recycling.

- Understanding "bottle bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bottle bank" because he had never seen it before.

car battery (noun)

A lead-acid storage battery in a motor vehicle; usually a 12-volt battery of six cells; the heart of the car's electrical system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "car battery."
- He looked up "car battery" because he had never seen it before.

channel capacity (noun)

The maximum data rate that can be attained over a given channel.

- They discussed "channel capacity" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "channel capacity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chart (noun)

A map designed to assist navigation by air or sea.

- Understanding "chart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "chart" to mean a map designed to assist navigation by air or sea.

cheese press (noun)

A press for shaping cheese curd.

- He looked up "cheese press" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheese press."

clothing (noun)

A covering designed to be worn on a person's body.

- He looked up "clothing" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "clothing" during the group presentation.

cold cream (noun)

A cream used cosmetically (mostly by women) for softening and cleaning the skin.

- He looked up "cold cream" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cold cream."

communication equipment (noun)

Facility consisting of the physical plants and equipment for disseminating information.

- Understanding "communication equipment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "communication equipment" because he had never seen it before.

computer display (noun)

A screen used to display the output of a computer to the user.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer display."
- They discussed "computer display" during the group presentation.

core memory (noun)

(computer science) a computer memory consisting of an array of magnetic cores; now superseded by semiconductor memories.

- In class, the teacher used "core memory" to mean (computer science) a computer memory consisting of....
- He looked up "core memory" because he had never seen it before.

defence system (noun)

The weaponry available for the defense of a region.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defence system."
- He looked up "defence system" because he had never seen it before.

---

drinking glass (noun)

A container for holding liquids while drinking.

- Understanding "drinking glass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "drinking glass" because he had never seen it before.

---

format (verb)

Set (printed matter) into a specific format.

- Format this letter so it can be printed out.
- Please format this disk before entering data!

---

gate (noun)

A computer circuit with several inputs but only one output that can be activated by particular combinations of inputs.

- The article explained what "gate" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gate."

---

golf-club (noun)

Golf equipment used by a golfer to hit a golf ball.

- The article explained what "golf-club" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "golf-club" to mean golf equipment used by a golfer to hit a golf ball.

---

gotten (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- In everyday English, people use "gotten" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "gotten" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

h-bomb (noun)

A nuclear weapon that releases atomic energy by union of light (hydrogen) nuclei at high temperatures to form helium.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "h-bomb."
- He looked up "h-bomb" because he had never seen it before.

---

holding device (noun)

A device for holding something.

- They discussed "holding device" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "holding device" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mount (noun)

A mounting consisting of a piece of metal (as in a ring or other jewelry) that holds a gem in place.

- The diamond was in a plain gold mount.
- They discussed "mount" during the group presentation.

---

or circuit (noun)

A gate circuit in a computer that fires when any of its inputs fire.

- He looked up "or circuit" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "or circuit" to mean a gate circuit in a computer that fires when any of....

---

or gate (noun)

A gate circuit in a computer that fires when any of its inputs fire.

- Understanding "or gate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "or gate" because he had never seen it before.

---

permanent press (noun)

A fabric that has been chemically processed to resist wrinkles and hold its shape.

- They discussed "permanent press" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "permanent press."

picture frame (noun)

A framework in which a picture is mounted.

- They discussed "picture frame" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "picture frame."

piece goods (noun)

Merchandise in the form of fabrics sold by the yard.

- He looked up "piece goods" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "piece goods."

prison farm (noun)

A camp for trustworthy prisoners employed in government projects.

- They discussed "prison farm" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "prison farm" because he had never seen it before.

raw data (noun)

Unanalyzed data; data not yet subjected to analysis.

- He looked up "raw data" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "raw data" to mean unanalyzed data; data not yet subjected to analysis.

recording system (noun)

Audio system for recoding sound.

- He looked up "recording system" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "recording system" during the group presentation.

service cap (noun)

A cap with a flat circular top and a visor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service cap."
- He looked up "service cap" because he had never seen it before.

shipping room (noun)

A room where goods are packaged and shipped.

- They discussed "shipping room" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "shipping room" to mean a room where goods are packaged and shipped.

shooting stick (noun)

Device that resembles a spiked walking stick but the top opens into a seat.

- The article explained what "shooting stick" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shooting stick" to mean device that resembles a spiked walking stick but....

smoking room (noun)

Room in a hotel or club set apart for smokers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smoking room."
- The article explained what "smoking room" means with a simple example.

state highway (noun)

A broad highway designed for high-speed traffic.

- He looked up "state highway" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "state highway."

steam room (noun)

A room that can be filled with steam in which people bathe; 'vapour bath' is a British term.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steam room."
- He looked up "steam room" because he had never seen it before.

supporting structure (noun)

A structure that serves to support something.

- Understanding "supporting structure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supporting structure."

---

thin out (verb)

Lessen the strength or flavor of a solution or mixture.

- Thin out the young plants.
- Towards the end of town, the houses thinned out.

---

upper surface (noun)

The side that is uppermost.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "upper surface."
- He looked up "upper surface" because he had never seen it before.

---

wall painting (noun)

A painting that is applied to a wall surface.

- Understanding "wall painting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wall painting" during the group presentation.

---

war paint (noun)

Cosmetics applied to the face to improve or change your appearance.

- Understanding "war paint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "war paint" during the group presentation.

---

white tie (noun)

Formalwear consisting of full evening dress for men.

- They discussed "white tie" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white tie."

---

x-ray picture (noun)

A radiogram made by exposing photographic film to X rays; used in medical diagnosis.

- The article explained what "x-ray picture" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "x-ray picture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

auto part (noun)

A component of an automobile.

- His business is auto parts.
- In class, the teacher used "auto part" to mean a component of an automobile.

---

b battery (noun)

Battery for supplying a constant positive voltage to the plate of a vacuum tube.

- They discussed "b battery" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "b battery" to mean battery for supplying a constant positive voltage....

---

baseball field (noun)

The baseball playing field.

- Understanding "baseball field" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "baseball field" to mean the baseball playing field.

---

bay window (noun)

A window that sticks out from the outside wall of a house.

- He looked up "bay window" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bay window" to mean a window that sticks out from the outside wall of a....

---

bedroom (noun)

A room used primarily for sleeping.

- In class, the teacher used "bedroom" to mean a room used primarily for sleeping.

- The article explained what "bedroom" means with a simple example.

black tie (noun)

A black bow tie worn with a dinner jacket.

- They discussed "black tie" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "black tie" to mean a black bow tie worn with a dinner jacket.

c battery (noun)

Battery used to maintain the grid potential in a vacuum tube.

- In class, the teacher used "c battery" to mean battery used to maintain the grid potential in a....
- The article explained what "c battery" means with a simple example.

cats (noun)

The leaves of the shrub Catha edulis which are chewed like tobacco or used to make tea; has the effect of a euphoric stimulant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cats."
- The article explained what "cats" means with a simple example.

coal house (noun)

A shed for storing coal.

- They discussed "coal house" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "coal house" means with a simple example.

code flag (noun)

One of an international code of flag signals used between ships.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "code flag."
- He looked up "code flag" because he had never seen it before.

colors (noun)

A distinguishing emblem.

- His tie proclaimed his school colors.
- Each flavor of quarks comes in three colors.

courts (noun)

The residence of a sovereign or nobleman.

- In class, the teacher used "courts" to mean the residence of a sovereign or nobleman.
- He looked up "courts" because he had never seen it before.

fly bridge (noun)

The highest navigational bridge on a ship; a small (often open) deck above the pilot house.

- In class, the teacher used "fly bridge" to mean the highest navigational bridge on a ship; a small....
- The article explained what "fly bridge" means with a simple example.

gas bomb (noun)

A bomb laden with chemical agents that are released when the bomb explodes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas bomb."
- He looked up "gas bomb" because he had never seen it before.

gear (noun)

A mechanism for transmitting motion for some specific purpose (as the steering gear of a vehicle).

- The fool got his tie caught in the geartrain.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gear."

george washington bridge (noun)

A suspension bridge across the Hudson River between New York and New Jersey.

- Understanding "george washington bridge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "george washington bridge" means with a simple example.

get rolling (verb)

Start to be active.

- Get cracking, please!
- Can you use “get rolling” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

gold plate (noun)

A thin plating of gold on something.

- He looked up “gold plate” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gold plate.”

---

hard shoulder (noun)

A paved strip beside a motorway (for stopping in emergencies).

- The article explained what “hard shoulder” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hard shoulder.”

---

infrastructure (noun)

The stock of basic facilities and capital equipment needed for the functioning of a country or area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “infrastructure.”
- The article explained what “infrastructure” means with a simple example.

---

l-plate (noun)

A square plate bearing the letter L that is attached to both ends of a car to indicate that the driver is a learner.

- The article explained what “l-plate” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “l-plate.”

---

laughing gas (noun)

Inhalation anesthetic used as an anesthetic in dentistry and surgery.

- In class, the teacher used “laughing gas” to mean inhalation anesthetic used as an anesthetic in....
- The article explained what “laughing gas” means with a simple example.

---

long pants (noun)

Trousers reaching to the foot.

- In class, the teacher used “long pants” to mean trousers reaching to the foot.
- The article explained what “long pants” means with a simple example.

---

look sharp (verb)

Act or move at high speed.

- In everyday English, people use “look sharp” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “look sharp” in real sentences.

---

men’s (noun)

A public toilet for men.

- In class, the teacher used “men’s” to mean a public toilet for men.
- The article explained what “men’s” means with a simple example.

---

neck opening (noun)

An opening in a garment for the neck of the wearer; a part of the garment near the wearer’s neck.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “neck opening.”
- Understanding “neck opening” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pilot bit (noun)

A small bit that drills a first hole to guide a larger drill.

- The article explained what “pilot bit” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “pilot bit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pilot light (noun)

Small auxiliary gas burner that provides a flame to ignite a larger gas burner.

- He looked up “pilot light” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pilot light.”

---

railway (noun)

A line of track providing a runway for wheels.

- They discussed “railway” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “railway” because he had never seen it before.

---

ring mail (noun)

(Middle Ages) flexible armor made of interlinked metal rings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ring mail.”
- He looked up “ring mail” because he had never seen it before.

---

settlement house (noun)

A center in an underprivileged area that provides community services.

- They discussed “settlement house” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “settlement house” to mean a center in an underprivileged area that provides....

---

shift key (noun)

The key on the typewriter keyboard that shifts from lower-case letters to upper-case letters.

- The article explained what “shift key” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “shift key” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shooting iron (noun)

A firearm that is held and fired with one hand.

- The article explained what “shooting iron” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “shooting iron.”

---

soft drug (noun)

A drug of abuse that is considered relatively mild and not likely to cause addiction.

- He looked up “soft drug” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “soft drug.”

---

sports stadium (noun)

A large structure for open-air sports or entertainments.

- He looked up “sports stadium” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “sports stadium” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stick horse (noun)

A child’s plaything consisting on an imitation horse’s head on one end of a stick.

- The article explained what “stick horse” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “stick horse” to mean a child’s plaything consisting on an imitation....

---

top lift (noun)

The bottom layer of a heel.

- He looked up “top lift” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “top lift” to mean the bottom layer of a heel.

---

trading floor (noun)

A large room in a exchange where the trading is done.

- He is a floor trader.
- The article explained what “trading floor” means with a simple example.

---

transition (verb)

Cause to convert or undergo a transition.

- The company had to transition the old practices to modern technology.
- The airline transitioned to more fuel-efficient jets.

trouble-shoot (verb)

Solve problems.

- He is known to be good at trouble-shooting.
- He did not know how to use "trouble-shoot" until he saw an example.

union flag (noun)

National flag of the United Kingdom.

- They discussed "union flag" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "union flag" means with a simple example.

video recording (noun)

A recording of both the visual and audible components (especially one containing a recording of a movie or television program).

- In class, the teacher used "video recording" to mean a recording of both the visual and audible....
- The article explained what "video recording" means with a simple example.

water tower (noun)

A large reservoir for water.

- In class, the teacher used "water tower" to mean a large reservoir for water.
- Understanding "water tower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

water wheel (noun)

A wheel that rotates by direct action of water; a simple turbine.

- Understanding "water wheel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "water wheel" during the group presentation.

wood file (noun)

A coarse file with sharp pointed projections.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wood file."
- They discussed "wood file" during the group presentation.

acid (noun)

Street name for lysergic acid diethylamide.

- They discussed "acid" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "acid" because he had never seen it before.

air lock (noun)

A chamber that provides access to space where air is under pressure.

- They discussed "air lock" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "air lock" to mean a chamber that provides access to space where air....

army tank (noun)

An enclosed armored military vehicle; has a cannon and moves on caterpillar treads.

- The article explained what "army tank" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "army tank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bars (noun)

Gymnastic apparatus consisting of two parallel wooden rods supported on uprights.

- There were bars in the windows to prevent escape.
- The orchestra omitted the last twelve bars of the song.

castle (noun)

A large building formerly occupied by a ruler and fortified against attack.

- In class, the teacher used "castle" to mean a large building formerly occupied by a ruler and....
- The article explained what "castle" means with a simple example.

clean bomb (noun)

An atom bomb leaving little or no radioactive contamination.

- The article explained what "clean bomb" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "clean bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cold frame (noun)

Protective covering consisting of a wooden frame with a glass top in which small plants are protected from the cold.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cold frame."
- He looked up "cold frame" because he had never seen it before.

---

control tower (noun)

A tower with an elevated workspace enclosed in glass for the visual observation of aircraft around an airport.

- In class, the teacher used "control tower" to mean a tower with an elevated workspace enclosed in....
- He looked up "control tower" because he had never seen it before.

---

digital communication (noun)

Electronic transmission of information that has been encoded digitally (as for storage and processing by computers).

- He looked up "digital communication" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "digital communication" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drawing table (noun)

A worktable with adjustable top.

- He looked up "drawing table" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drawing table."

---

drug of abuse (noun)

A drug that is taken for nonmedicinal reasons (usually for mind-altering effects); drug abuse can lead to physical and mental damage and (with some substances) dependence and addiction.

- The article explained what "drug of abuse" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "drug of abuse" to mean a drug that is taken for nonmedicinal reasons....

---

electronic information service (noun)

(computer science) a database that can be accessed by computers.

- They discussed "electronic information service" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "electronic information service" because he had never seen it before.

---

empire state building (noun)

A skyscraper built in New York City in 1931; 1250 feet tall.

- The article explained what "empire state building" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "empire state building."

---

felt tip (noun)

A pen with a writing tip made of felt (trade name Magic Marker).

- In class, the teacher used "felt tip" to mean a pen with a writing tip made of felt (trade name....
- He looked up "felt tip" because he had never seen it before.

---

first gear (noun)

The lowest forward gear ratio in the gear box of a motor vehicle; used to start a car moving.

- The article explained what "first gear" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "first gear" to mean the lowest forward gear ratio in the gear box of a....

---

flash (noun)

A bright patch of color used for decoration or identification.

- Red flashes adorned the airplane.
- A flash sewn on his sleeve indicated the unit he belonged to.

---

fort (noun)

A fortified military post where troops are stationed.

- They discussed "fort" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "fort" to mean a fortified military post where troops are stationed.

---

gear up (verb)

Make ready or suitable or equip in advance for a particular purpose or for some use, event, etc.

- The coach explained when to use "gear up" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "gear up" until he saw an example.

---

give the gate (verb)

Terminate a relationship abruptly.

- Mary gave John the axe after she saw him with another woman.
- He did not know how to use "give the gate" until he saw an example.

---

golf range (noun)

A practice range for practicing golf shots.

- The article explained what "golf range" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "golf range" to mean a practice range for practicing golf shots.

---

grace cup (noun)

Cup to be passed around for the final toast after a meal.

- He looked up "grace cup" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "grace cup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

highway system (noun)

A transportation system consisting of roads for motor transport.

- He looked up "highway system" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "highway system" to mean a transportation system consisting of roads for....

---

horses (noun)

A framework for holding wood that is being sawed.

- In class, the teacher used "horses" to mean a framework for holding wood that is being sawed.
- Understanding "horses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hot plate (noun)

A portable electric appliance for heating or cooking or keeping food warm.

- The article explained what "hot plate" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hot plate."

---

iron horse (noun)

(c. 1840) an early term for a locomotive.

- The article explained what "iron horse" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iron horse."

---

jump seat (noun)

A folding seat in an automobile.

- They discussed "jump seat" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "jump seat" means with a simple example.

---

key pattern (noun)

An ornamental pattern consisting of repeated vertical and horizontal lines (often in relief).

- They discussed "key pattern" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "key pattern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mac (noun)

A waterproof raincoat made of rubberized fabric.

- They discussed "mac" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mac" means with a simple example.

---

navy base (noun)

Base of operations for a naval fleet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “navy base.”
- They discussed “navy base” during the group presentation.

---

networks (noun)

A system of intersecting lines or channels.

- The networks compete to broadcast important sports events.
- They discussed “networks” during the group presentation.

---

object code (noun)

The machine-language output of a compiler that is ready for execution on a particular computer.

- In class, the teacher used “object code” to mean the machine-language output of a compiler that is....
- The article explained what “object code” means with a simple example.

---

pc board (noun)

A removable circuit board for a personal computer; fits into a slot in the mother board.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pc board.”
- He looked up “pc board” because he had never seen it before.

---

phones (verb)

Get or try to get into communication (with someone) by telephone.

- He did not know how to use “phones” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “phones” in real sentences.

---

point-and-shoot camera (noun)

A lightweight photographic camera with an autofocus.

- The article explained what “point-and-shoot camera” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “point-and-shoot camera.”

---

producing (verb)

Create or manufacture a man-made product.

- He did not know how to use “producing” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “producing” and when to wait.

---

roman law (noun)

The legal code of ancient Rome; codified under Justinian; the basis for many modern systems of civil law.

- The article explained what “roman law” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “roman law.”

---

sea lane (noun)

A lane at sea that is a regularly used route for vessels.

- They discussed “sea lane” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “sea lane” because he had never seen it before.

---

self-destroy (verb)

Do away with oneself or itself.

- Can you use “self-destroy” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use “self-destroy” until he saw an example.

---

shower room (noun)

A room with several showers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “shower room.”
- Understanding “shower room” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

smoke screen (noun)

An action intended to conceal or confuse or obscure.

- Requesting new powers of surveillance is just a smokescreen to hide their failures.
- The article explained what "smoke screen" means with a simple example.

---

speaker system (noun)

Electro-acoustic transducer that converts electrical signals into sounds loud enough to be heard at a distance.

- He looked up "speaker system" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "speaker system" during the group presentation.

---

tea garden (noun)

A public garden where tea is served.

- They discussed "tea garden" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tea garden" because he had never seen it before.

---

victory garden (noun)

A kitchen garden planted during wartime to relieve food shortages.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "victory garden."
- Understanding "victory garden" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wash off (verb)

Remove by the application of water or other liquid and soap or some other cleaning agent.

- He washed the dirt from his coat.
- The nurse washed away the blood.

---

wash out (verb)

Lose color in the process of being washed.

- The expensive shirt washed out in the German washing machine.
- The storm had washed out the game.

---

watch cap (noun)

A knitted dark blue wool cap worn by seamen in cold or stormy weather.

- They discussed "watch cap" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "watch cap" means with a simple example.

---

yellow jack (noun)

Yellow flag hoist on a ship in quarantine.

- They discussed "yellow jack" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow jack."

---

audio system (noun)

A system of electronic equipment for recording or reproducing sound.

- The article explained what "audio system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "audio system" to mean a system of electronic equipment for recording or....

---

bath (noun)

A vessel containing liquid in which something is immersed (as to process it or to maintain it at a constant temperature or to lubricate it).

- She soaked the etching in an acid bath.
- He has a good bath every morning.

---

burn center (noun)

A center where patients with severe burns can be treated.

- Understanding "burn center" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "burn center" during the group presentation.

---

camp chair (noun)

A light folding chair.

- Understanding "camp chair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "camp chair" means with a simple example.

card index (noun)

An alphabetical listing of items (e.g., books in a library) with a separate card for each item.

- In class, the teacher used "card index" to mean an alphabetical listing of items (e.g., books in a....
- They discussed "card index" during the group presentation.

cat suit (noun)

A tight-fitting garment of stretchy material that covers the body from the shoulders to the thighs (and may have long sleeves or legs reaching down to the ankles); worn by ballet dancers and acrobats for practice or performance.

- They discussed "cat suit" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cat suit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

church hat (noun)

A fanciful hat of the kind worn by Black women for Sunday worship.

- Understanding "church hat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "church hat."

components (noun)

An artifact that is one of the individual parts of which a composite entity is made up; especially a part that can be separated from or attached to a system.

- Spare components for cars.
- Understanding "components" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cover plate (noun)

Covering consisting of a plate used to cover over or close in a chamber or receptacle.

- They discussed "cover plate" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cover plate."

dry fly (noun)

A fly (fisherman's lure) that skims the surface of the water.

- Understanding "dry fly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dry fly" means with a simple example.

fire tower (noun)

A watchtower where a lookout is posted to watch for fires.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire tower."
- He looked up "fire tower" because he had never seen it before.

flying bridge (noun)

The highest navigational bridge on a ship; a small (often open) deck above the pilot house.

- In class, the teacher used "flying bridge" to mean the highest navigational bridge on a ship; a small....
- He looked up "flying bridge" because he had never seen it before.

french roof (noun)

A mansard roof with sides that are nearly perpendicular.

- Understanding "french roof" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "french roof" to mean a mansard roof with sides that are nearly perpendicular.

gas tank (noun)

A tank for holding gasoline to supply a vehicle.

- The article explained what "gas tank" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas tank."

ground cable (noun)

A mooring cable; runs from a buoy to a mooring anchor.

- Understanding "ground cable" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ground cable" to mean a mooring cable; runs from a buoy to a mooring anchor.

high gear (noun)

A forward gear with a gear ratio that gives the greatest vehicle velocity for a given engine speed.

- They discussed "high gear" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "high gear" to mean a forward gear with a gear ratio that gives the....

---

interior door (noun)

A door that closes off rooms within a building.

- In class, the teacher used "interior door" to mean a door that closes off rooms within a building.
- The article explained what "interior door" means with a simple example.

---

labour camp (noun)

A penal institution for political prisoners who are used as forced labor.

- Understanding "labour camp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "labour camp" because he had never seen it before.

---

letter bomb (noun)

A thin explosive device inside an envelope or package and detonated when opened.

- In class, the teacher used "letter bomb" to mean a thin explosive device inside an envelope or....
- The article explained what "letter bomb" means with a simple example.

---

mouth hole (noun)

A hole (as in a ski mask) for the mouth.

- They discussed "mouth hole" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mouth hole" to mean a hole (as in a ski mask) for the mouth.

---

paper plate (noun)

A disposable plate made of cardboard.

- He looked up "paper plate" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "paper plate" to mean a disposable plate made of cardboard.

---

plastic art (noun)

The arts of shaping or modeling; carving and sculpture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plastic art."
- Understanding "plastic art" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

screen actor (noun)

An actor who plays a role in a film.

- The article explained what "screen actor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "screen actor" to mean an actor who plays a role in a film.

---

side pocket (noun)

A pocket on the side of a billiard table.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "side pocket."
- They discussed "side pocket" during the group presentation.

---

tape (noun)

A long thin piece of cloth or paper as used for binding or fastening.

- He used a piece of tape for a belt.
- He wrapped a tape around the package.

---

voting machine (noun)

A mechanical device for recording and counting votes mechanically.

- He looked up "voting machine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "voting machine."

---

aircraft engine (noun)

The engine that powers and aircraft.

- In class, the teacher used "aircraft engine" to mean the engine that powers and aircraft.

- The article explained what “aircraft engine” means with a simple example.

arm guard (noun)

A pad worn by football players and hockey goalkeepers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “arm guard.”
- He looked up “arm guard” because he had never seen it before.

art gallery (noun)

A room or series of rooms where works of art are exhibited.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “art gallery.”
- Understanding “art gallery” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

assembly plant (noun)

A factory where manufactured parts are assembled into a finished product.

- They discussed “assembly plant” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “assembly plant.”

avenue (noun)

A wide street or thoroughfare.

- They explored every avenue they could think of.
- It promises to open new avenues to understanding.

bags (noun)

A flexible container with a single opening.

- They discussed “bags” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “bags” to mean a flexible container with a single opening.

beer garden (noun)

Tavern with an outdoor area (usually resembling a garden) where beer and other alcoholic drinks are served.

- The article explained what “beer garden” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “beer garden” to mean tavern with an outdoor area (usually resembling a....

blocks (noun)

A platform from which an auctioneer sells.

- The pyramids were built with large stone blocks.
- Since blocks are often defined as a single sector, the terms ‘block’ and ‘sector’ are sometimes used interchangeably.

clock (verb)

Measure the time or duration of an event or action or the person who performs an action in a certain period of time.

- He clocked the runners.
- She tried to use “clock” carefully so everyone would understand.

computer memory unit (noun)

A unit for measuring computer memory.

- He looked up “computer memory unit” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “computer memory unit” during the group presentation.

copies (noun)

A thing made to be similar or identical to another thing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “copies.”
- He looked up “copies” because he had never seen it before.

desk (noun)

A piece of furniture with a writing surface and usually drawers or other compartments.

- The article explained what “desk” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “desk” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dress suit (noun)

Formalwear consisting of full evening dress for men.

- He looked up "dress suit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dress suit."

---

evening shirt (noun)

A man's white shirt (with a starch front) for evening wear (usually with a tuxedo).

- Understanding "evening shirt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "evening shirt" because he had never seen it before.

---

felt hat (noun)

A hat made of felt with a creased crown.

- Understanding "felt hat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "felt hat."

---

fishing line (noun)

A length of cord to which the leader and float and sinker and hook are attached.

- In class, the teacher used "fishing line" to mean a length of cord to which the leader and float and....
- Understanding "fishing line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flat file (noun)

A file with two flat surfaces.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flat file."
- Understanding "flat file" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

garden chair (noun)

Chair left outside for use on a lawn or in a garden.

- In class, the teacher used "garden chair" to mean chair left outside for use on a lawn or in a garden.
- The article explained what "garden chair" means with a simple example.

---

gear case (noun)

The shell (metal casing) in which a train of gears is sealed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gear case."
- They discussed "gear case" during the group presentation.

---

golf-club head (noun)

(golf) the head of the club which strikes the ball.

- They discussed "golf-club head" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "golf-club head" means with a simple example.

---

grounds (noun)

The enclosed land around a house or other building.

- It is a Middle Eastern custom to read your future in your coffee grounds.
- The grounds for their declaration.

---

gym (noun)

Athletic facility equipped for sports or physical training.

- The article explained what "gym" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "gym" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

head gate (noun)

A gate upstream from a lock or canal that is used to control the flow of water at the upper end.

- They discussed "head gate" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "head gate" because he had never seen it before.

---

horror (noun)

Something that inspires dislike; something horrible.

- The painting that others found so beautiful was a horror to him.
- Understanding "horror" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hot-water bottle (noun)

A stoppered receptacle (usually made of rubber) that is to be filled with hot water and used for warming a bed or parts of the body.

- The article explained what "hot-water bottle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hot-water bottle" during the group presentation.

---

hot-water tank (noun)

A heater and storage tank to supply heated water.

- They discussed "hot-water tank" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hot-water tank" means with a simple example.

---

jail cell (noun)

A room where a prisoner is kept.

- In class, the teacher used "jail cell" to mean a room where a prisoner is kept.
- The article explained what "jail cell" means with a simple example.

---

memory device (noun)

A device that preserves information for retrieval.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "memory device."
- Understanding "memory device" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

open circuit (noun)

An incomplete electrical circuit in which no current flows.

- The article explained what "open circuit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "open circuit" to mean an incomplete electrical circuit in which no....

---

output (verb)

To create or manufacture a specific amount.

- The computer is outputting the data from the job I'm running.
- He did not know how to use "output" until he saw an example.

---

pa system (noun)

An electronic amplification system used as a communication system in public areas.

- In class, the teacher used "pa system" to mean an electronic amplification system used as a....
- They discussed "pa system" during the group presentation.

---

picture hat (noun)

A woman's dressy hat with a wide brim.

- The article explained what "picture hat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "picture hat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

plastic film (noun)

A thin sheet of (usually plastic and usually transparent) material used to wrap or cover things.

- Understanding "plastic film" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "plastic film" means with a simple example.

---

pocket book (noun)

Pocket-sized paperback book.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pocket book."
- He looked up "pocket book" because he had never seen it before.

---

pull chain (noun)

A chain (usually with a handle at the end) that is pulled in order to operate some mechanism (e.g. to flush a toilet).

- Understanding "pull chain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pull chain" during the group presentation.

railway system (noun)

Line that is the commercial organization responsible for operating a system of transportation for trains that pull passengers or freight.

- In class, the teacher used "railway system" to mean line that is the commercial organization....
- Understanding "railway system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

riding light (noun)

A light in the rigging of a ship that is riding at anchor.

- They discussed "riding light" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "riding light" means with a simple example.

roll-on roll-off (noun)

A method of transport (as a ferry or train or plane) that vehicles roll onto at the beginning and roll off of at the destination.

- He looked up "roll-on roll-off" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roll-on roll-off."

roman building (noun)

A building constructed by the ancient Romans.

- The article explained what "roman building" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "roman building" to mean a building constructed by the ancient romans.

second gear (noun)

The gear that has the second lowest forward gear ratio in the gear box of a motor vehicle.

- He had to shift down into second to make the hill.
- The article explained what "second gear" means with a simple example.

shopping bag (noun)

A bag made of plastic or strong paper (often with handles); used to transport goods after shopping.

- Understanding "shopping bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "shopping bag" during the group presentation.

shoulder board (noun)

Epaulets that indicate rank.

- In class, the teacher used "shoulder board" to mean epaulets that indicate rank.
- He looked up "shoulder board" because he had never seen it before.

teaching aid (noun)

Materials and equipment used in teaching.

- They discussed "teaching aid" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teaching aid."

time exposure (noun)

A photograph produced with a relatively long exposure time.

- He looked up "time exposure" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "time exposure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tip table (noun)

A pedestal table whose top is hinged so that it can be tilted to a vertical position.

- The article explained what "tip table" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tip table" during the group presentation.

tower of london (noun)

A fortress in London on the Thames; used as a palace and a state prison and now as a museum containing the crown jewels.

- In class, the teacher used "tower of london" to mean a fortress in london on the thames; used as a....
- They discussed "tower of london" during the group presentation.

wall panel (noun)

Paneling that forms part of a wall.

- Understanding "wall panel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wall panel" during the group presentation.

---

wall plate (noun)

Plate (a timber along the top of a wall) to support the ends of joists, etc., and distribute the load.

- Understanding "wall plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wall plate" means with a simple example.

---

wash away (verb)

Remove by the application of water or other liquid and soap or some other cleaning agent.

- He washed the dirt from his coat.
- The nurse washed away the blood.

---

water gate (noun)

Regulator consisting of a valve or gate that controls the rate of water flow through a sluice.

- In class, the teacher used "water gate" to mean regulator consisting of a valve or gate that....
- The article explained what "water gate" means with a simple example.

---

wire (noun)

A metal conductor that carries electricity over a distance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wire."
- They discussed "wire" during the group presentation.

---

witness stand (noun)

A box enclosure for a witness when testifying.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "witness stand."
- Understanding "witness stand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

android (noun)

An automaton that resembles a human being.

- They discussed "android" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "android" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

assembly hall (noun)

A hall where many people can congregate.

- They discussed "assembly hall" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "assembly hall" to mean a hall where many people can congregate.

---

baseball card (noun)

A trading card with a picture of a baseball player and information about his playing record.

- He looked up "baseball card" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "baseball card" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

battle flag (noun)

A flag that leads troops into battle.

- He looked up "battle flag" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battle flag."

---

computer expert (noun)

An authority on computers and computing.

- The article explained what "computer expert" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "computer expert" during the group presentation.

---

computer programme (noun)

(computer science) a sequence of instructions that a computer can interpret and execute.

- The article explained what "computer programme" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "computer programme" to mean (computer science) a sequence of instructions that....

computer storage (noun)

An electronic memory device.

- A memory and the CPU form the central part of a computer to which peripherals are attached.
- In class, the teacher used "computer storage" to mean an electronic memory device.

control circuit (noun)

A feedback circuit that subtracts from the input.

- Understanding "control circuit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "control circuit."

covered stadium (noun)

A stadium that has a roof.

- They discussed "covered stadium" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "covered stadium" means with a simple example.

custom-made (noun)

An item made to the customer's specifications.

- The article explained what "custom-made" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "custom-made" to mean an item made to the customer's specifications.

custom-make (verb)

Make to specifications.

- The coach explained when to use "custom-make" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "custom-make" until he saw an example.

death chamber (noun)

Instrument of execution consisting of a sealed chamber into which poison gas is introduced; used to kill people or animals.

- In class, the teacher used "death chamber" to mean instrument of execution consisting of a sealed....
- He looked up "death chamber" because he had never seen it before.

depth charge (noun)

A bomb that explodes at a preset depth under water; antisubmarine device.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "depth charge."
- He looked up "depth charge" because he had never seen it before.

diamond (noun)

A playing card in the minor suit that has one or more red rhombuses on it.

- He led a small diamond.
- Diamonds were trumps.

digital display (noun)

A display that gives the information in the form of characters (numbers or letters).

- In class, the teacher used "digital display" to mean a display that gives the information in the form of....
- The article explained what "digital display" means with a simple example.

electronic network (noun)

(electronics) a system of interconnected electronic components or circuits.

- Understanding "electronic network" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "electronic network" because he had never seen it before.

electronic text (noun)

Text that is in a form that computer can store or display on a computer screen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electronic text."
- They discussed "electronic text" during the group presentation.

extended time scale (noun)

(simulation) the time scale used in data processing when the time-scale factor is greater than one.

- He looked up "extended time scale" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "extended time scale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

external drive (noun)

A drive with its own power supply and fan mounted outside the computer system enclosure and connected to the computer by a cable.

- The article explained what "external drive" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "external drive."

---

false bottom (noun)

A horizontal structure that partitions a ship or box (especially one built close to the actual bottom).

- He looked up "false bottom" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "false bottom" during the group presentation.

---

flat solid (noun)

A flat artifact that is thin relative to its length and width.

- He looked up "flat solid" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "flat solid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

guard boat (noun)

A boat that is on guard duty (as in a harbor) around a fleet of warships.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guard boat."
- He looked up "guard boat" because he had never seen it before.

---

hand mirror (noun)

A mirror intended to be held in the hand.

- In class, the teacher used "hand mirror" to mean a mirror intended to be held in the hand.
- Understanding "hand mirror" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lab (noun)

A workplace for the conduct of scientific research.

- The article explained what "lab" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oil paint (noun)

Paint in which a drying oil is the vehicle.

- Understanding "oil paint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oil paint."

---

pocket watch (noun)

A watch that is carried in a small watch pocket.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pocket watch."
- He looked up "pocket watch" because he had never seen it before.

---

railway line (noun)

The road consisting of railroad track and roadbed.

- They discussed "railway line" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "railway line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

real-time processing (noun)

Data processing fast enough to keep up with an outside process.

- The article explained what "real-time processing" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "real-time processing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

series circuit (noun)

A circuit having its parts connected serially.

- He looked up "series circuit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "series circuit."

---

short pants (noun)

Trousers that end at or above the knee.

- Understanding "short pants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "short pants" during the group presentation.

---

shot tower (noun)

Tower of a kind once used to make shot; molten lead was poured through a sieve and dropped into water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shot tower."
- They discussed "shot tower" during the group presentation.

---

soft copy (noun)

(computer science) matter that is in a form that a computer can store or display it on a computer screen.

- He sent them soft copy of the report.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soft copy."

---

sound recording (noun)

A recording of acoustic signals.

- In class, the teacher used "sound recording" to mean a recording of acoustic signals.
- He looked up "sound recording" because he had never seen it before.

---

starting motor (noun)

An electric motor for starting an engine.

- They discussed "starting motor" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "starting motor."

---

theatre stage (noun)

A stage in a theater on which actors can perform.

- They discussed "theatre stage" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "theatre stage" to mean a stage in a theater on which actors can perform.

---

time clock (noun)

Clock used to record the hours that people work.

- The article explained what "time clock" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "time clock."

---

trash (noun)

An amphetamine derivative (trade name Methedrine) used in the form of a crystalline hydrochloride; used as a stimulant to the nervous system and as an appetite suppressant.

- In class, the teacher used "trash" to mean an amphetamine derivative (trade name methedrine)....
- The article explained what "trash" means with a simple example.

---

trash can (noun)

A bin that holds rubbish until it is collected.

- Understanding "trash can" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "trash can" because he had never seen it before.

---

virus (noun)

A software program capable of reproducing itself and usually capable of causing great harm to files or other programs on the same computer.

- A true virus cannot spread to another computer without human assistance.
- Bigotry is a virus that must not be allowed to spread.

---

walker (noun)

An enclosing framework on casters or wheels; helps babies learn to walk.

- He looked up "walker" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "walker" during the group presentation.

watch pocket (noun)

A vest pocket to hold a pocket watch.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "watch pocket."
- He looked up "watch pocket" because he had never seen it before.

belt out (verb)

Sing loudly and forcefully.

- Can you use "belt out" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "belt out" until he saw an example.

church tower (noun)

The tower of a church.

- In class, the teacher used "church tower" to mean the tower of a church.
- Understanding "church tower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

code of conduct (noun)

A set of conventional principles and expectations that are considered binding on any person who is a member of a particular group.

- In class, the teacher used "code of conduct" to mean a set of conventional principles and expectations....
- Understanding "code of conduct" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

collection plate (noun)

A shallow receptacle for collection in church.

- Understanding "collection plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "collection plate" because he had never seen it before.

colour tv (noun)

A television that transmits images in color.

- Understanding "colour tv" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "colour tv."

combat ship (noun)

A government ship that is available for waging war.

- In class, the teacher used "combat ship" to mean a government ship that is available for waging war.
- They discussed "combat ship" during the group presentation.

computer error (noun)

(computer science) the occurrence of an incorrect result produced by a computer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer error."
- He looked up "computer error" because he had never seen it before.

contact print (noun)

A print made by exposing a photosensitive surface to direct contact with a photographic negative.

- They discussed "contact print" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "contact print" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

controls (noun)

A mechanism that controls the operation of a machine.

- I turned the controls over to her.
- They instituted controls over drinking on campus.

data format (noun)

The organization of information according to preset specifications (usually for computer processing).

- They discussed "data format" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "data format" because he had never seen it before.

data processing (noun)

(computer science) a series of operations on data by a computer in order to retrieve or transform or classify information.

- The article explained what "data processing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "data processing."

---

deck (noun)

A porch that resembles the deck on a ship.

- They discussed "deck" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "deck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

device driver (noun)

(computer science) a program that determines how a computer will communicate with a peripheral device.

- In class, the teacher used "device driver" to mean (computer science) a program that determines how a....
- They discussed "device driver" during the group presentation.

---

display window (noun)

A window of a store facing onto the street; used to display merchandise for sale in the store.

- Understanding "display window" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "display window" because he had never seen it before.

---

electronic computer (noun)

A machine for performing calculations automatically.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electronic computer."
- He looked up "electronic computer" because he had never seen it before.

---

flying boat (noun)

A large seaplane that floats with its fuselage in the water rather than on pontoons.

- They discussed "flying boat" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "flying boat" to mean a large seaplane that floats with its fuselage in....

---

greek key (noun)

An ornamental pattern consisting of repeated vertical and horizontal lines (often in relief).

- They discussed "greek key" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "greek key" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

head covering (noun)

A garment that covers the head and face.

- They discussed "head covering" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "head covering" means with a simple example.

---

high wire (noun)

A tightrope very high above the ground.

- They discussed "high wire" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "high wire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inspiration (noun)

A product of your creative thinking and work.

- He had little respect for the inspirations of other artists.
- In class, the teacher used "inspiration" to mean a product of your creative thinking and work.

---

lay waste to (verb)

Cause extensive destruction or ruin utterly.

- The enemy lay waste to the countryside after the invasion.
- Can you use "lay waste to" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

light circuit (noun)

Wiring that provides power to electric lights.

- The article explained what "light circuit" means with a simple example.

- Understanding “light circuit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mail boat (noun)

A boat for carrying mail.

- The article explained what “mail boat” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “mail boat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marine mine (noun)

An explosive mine designed to destroy ships that bump into it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “marine mine.”
- He looked up “marine mine” because he had never seen it before.

---

memorial (noun)

A structure erected to commemorate persons or events.

- Understanding “memorial” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “memorial” because he had never seen it before.

---

men’s room (noun)

A public toilet for men.

- The article explained what “men’s room” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “men’s room” to mean a public toilet for men.

---

pool stick (noun)

Sports implement consisting of a tapering rod used to strike a cue ball in pool or billiards.

- Understanding “pool stick” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pool stick.”

---

press gallery (noun)

An area (sometimes in a balcony) set aside for reporters (especially in a legislative hall).

- The article explained what “press gallery” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “press gallery” to mean an area (sometimes in a balcony) set aside for....

---

rail (noun)

A horizontal bar (usually of wood or metal).

- He traveled by rail.
- He was concerned with rail safety.

---

remote (noun)

A device that can be used to control a machine or apparatus from a distance.

- He lost the remote for his TV.
- He looked up “remote” because he had never seen it before.

---

sea chest (noun)

A sailor’s storage chest for personal property.

- He looked up “sea chest” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sea chest.”

---

short circuit (noun)

Accidental contact between two points in an electric circuit that have a potential difference.

- The article explained what “short circuit” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “short circuit.”

---

suit of clothes (noun)

A set of garments (usually including a jacket and trousers or skirt) for outerwear all of the same fabric and color.

- They buried him in his best suit.
- Understanding “suit of clothes” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tag end (noun)

A small piece of cloth or paper.

- They discussed "tag end" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tag end."

tank ship (noun)

A cargo ship designed to carry crude oil in bulk.

- He looked up "tank ship" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tank ship."

telephone (verb)

Get or try to get into communication (with someone) by telephone.

- The coach explained when to use "telephone" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "telephone" carefully so everyone would understand.

university of north carolina (noun)

A university in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "university of north carolina."
- The article explained what "university of north carolina" means with a simple example.

wash room (noun)

A toilet that is available to the public.

- In class, the teacher used "wash room" to mean a toilet that is available to the public.
- He looked up "wash room" because he had never seen it before.

weapons platform (noun)

Any military structure or vehicle bearing weapons.

- He looked up "weapons platform" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "weapons platform" during the group presentation.

web map service (noun)

A computer program that produces maps of spatially referenced data dynamically from geographic information.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "web map service."
- He looked up "web map service" because he had never seen it before.

anti-g suit (noun)

Worn by fliers and astronauts to counteract the forces of gravity and acceleration.

- They discussed "anti-g suit" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "anti-g suit" because he had never seen it before.

bell glass (noun)

A bell-shaped glass cover used to protect and display delicate objects or to cover scientific apparatus or to contain gases.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bell glass."
- He looked up "bell glass" because he had never seen it before.

campaign hat (noun)

A broad-brimmed felt hat with a high crown; formerly worn by the United States Army and Marine personnel.

- They discussed "campaign hat" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "campaign hat" because he had never seen it before.

chemical plant (noun)

An industrial plant where chemicals are produced.

- They discussed "chemical plant" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "chemical plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

circuit board (noun)

A printed circuit that can be inserted into expansion slots in a computer to increase the computer's capabilities.

- They discussed "circuit board" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "circuit board" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

contracts (verb)

Make or become more narrow or restricted.

- He did not know how to use "contracts" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "contracts" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

crack down (verb)

Repress or suppress (something regarded as undesirable).

- The police clamped down on illegal drugs.
- The coach explained when to use "crack down" and when to wait.

---

crystal (noun)

A protective cover that protects the face of a watch.

- Understanding "crystal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "crystal" to mean a protective cover that protects the face of a watch.

---

davis cup (noun)

Cup awarded for the annual international team tennis competition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "davis cup."
- He looked up "davis cup" because he had never seen it before.

---

duke university (noun)

A university in Durham, North Carolina.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "duke university."
- They discussed "duke university" during the group presentation.

---

electric chair (noun)

An instrument of execution by electrocution; resembles an ordinary seat for one person.

- The murderer was sentenced to die in the chair.
- Understanding "electric chair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electronic image (noun)

An image represented as a two dimensional array of brightness values for pixels.

- The article explained what "electronic image" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "electronic image" to mean an image represented as a two dimensional array of....

---

extension phone (noun)

An additional telephone set that is connected to the same telephone line.

- They discussed "extension phone" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "extension phone."

---

factory ship (noun)

A whaling ship equipped to process whale products at sea.

- He looked up "factory ship" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "factory ship."

---

fish tank (noun)

A tank or pool or bowl filled with water for keeping live fish and underwater animals.

- In class, the teacher used "fish tank" to mean a tank or pool or bowl filled with water for....
- They discussed "fish tank" during the group presentation.

---

gun-sight (noun)

A sight used for aiming a gun.

- In class, the teacher used "gun-sight" to mean a sight used for aiming a gun.
- They discussed "gun-sight" during the group presentation.

heavy weapon (noun)

Large but transportable armament.

- They discussed "heavy weapon" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "heavy weapon" to mean large but transportable armament.

holding yard (noun)

A pen where livestock is temporarily confined.

- They discussed "holding yard" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "holding yard" means with a simple example.

hop up (verb)

Make more powerful.

- Learners should practice how to use "hop up" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "hop up" until he saw an example.

house of prayer (noun)

Any building where congregations gather for prayer.

- Understanding "house of prayer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "house of prayer" because he had never seen it before.

ice chest (noun)

A refrigerator for cooling liquids.

- Understanding "ice chest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ice chest" during the group presentation.

independence hall (noun)

The building in Philadelphia where the Declaration of Independence was signed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "independence hall."
- They discussed "independence hall" during the group presentation.

kitchen garden (noun)

A small garden where vegetables are grown.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kitchen garden."
- They discussed "kitchen garden" during the group presentation.

life belt (noun)

A life preserver in the form of a ring of buoyant material.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "life belt."
- Understanding "life belt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

list processing (noun)

Processing data that is given in the form of chained lists.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "list processing."
- Understanding "list processing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

low gear (noun)

The lowest forward gear ratio in the gear box of a motor vehicle; used to start a car moving.

- They discussed "low gear" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "low gear" means with a simple example.

machine tool (noun)

A powered machine for cutting or shaping or finishing metals or other materials.

- The article explained what "machine tool" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "machine tool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

motion-picture film (noun)

Photographic film several hundred feet long and wound on a spool; to be used in a movie camera.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "motion-picture film."
- The article explained what "motion-picture film" means with a simple example.

---

musical box (noun)

Produces music by means of pins on a revolving cylinder that strike the tuned teeth of a comb-like metal plate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "musical box."
- Understanding "musical box" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

obtain (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- How did you obtain the visa?
- Can you use "obtain" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

outside mirror (noun)

Car mirror that reflects the view at side and behind car.

- In class, the teacher used "outside mirror" to mean car mirror that reflects the view at side and....
- The article explained what "outside mirror" means with a simple example.

---

pennsylvania (noun)

A university in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

- Understanding "pennsylvania" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pennsylvania" because he had never seen it before.

---

personal digital assistant (noun)

A lightweight consumer electronic device that looks like a hand-held computer but instead performs specific tasks; can serve as a diary or a personal database or a telephone or an alarm clock etc.

- In class, the teacher used "personal digital assistant" to mean a lightweight consumer electronic device that looks....
- He looked up "personal digital assistant" because he had never seen it before.

---

picture gallery (noun)

A room or series of rooms where works of art are exhibited.

- In class, the teacher used "picture gallery" to mean a room or series of rooms where works of art are....
- They discussed "picture gallery" during the group presentation.

---

pot (noun)

A container in which plants are cultivated.

- The article explained what "pot" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pot" to mean a container in which plants are cultivated.

---

printed (verb)

Write as if with print; not cursive.

- These news should not be printed.
- She tried to use "printed" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

root out (verb)

Destroy completely, as if down to the roots.

- The vestiges of political democracy were soon uprooted.
- Root out corruption.

---

safety bike (noun)

Bicycle that has two wheels of equal size; pedals are connected to the rear wheel by a multiplying gear.

- The article explained what "safety bike" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "safety bike" during the group presentation.

---

safety hat (noun)

A lightweight protective helmet (plastic or metal) worn by construction workers.

- They discussed "safety hat" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “safety hat” because he had never seen it before.

---

sit tight (verb)

Maintain the same position; wait it out.

- Let’s not make a decision–let’s sit tight.
- Learners should practice how to use “sit tight” in real sentences.

---

smart bomb (noun)

A bomb that can be guided (by a laser beam or radio) to its target.

- Smart bombs have revolutionized aerial bombardment.
- The article explained what “smart bomb” means with a simple example.

---

stop bath (noun)

An acid bath used to stop the action of a developer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stop bath.”
- Understanding “stop bath” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

string (noun)

A necklace made by a stringing objects together.

- A string of beads.
- The strings played superlatively well.

---

string up (verb)

Add as if on a string.

- String these ideas together.
- String up these songs and you’ll have a musical.

---

switch engine (noun)

A locomotive for switching rolling stock in a railroad yard.

- In class, the teacher used “switch engine” to mean a locomotive for switching rolling stock in a....
- Understanding “switch engine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

system clock (noun)

A time-of-day clock in a computer system.

- The article explained what “system clock” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “system clock” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

take root (verb)

Become settled or established and stable in one’s residence or life style.

- He did not know how to use “take root” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “take root” when talking about this idea.

---

third gear (noun)

The third from the lowest forward ratio gear in the gear box of a motor vehicle.

- You shouldn’t try to start in third gear.
- Understanding “third gear” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tip-top table (noun)

A pedestal table whose top is hinged so that it can be tilted to a vertical position.

- The article explained what “tip-top table” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “tip-top table” to mean a pedestal table whose top is hinged so that it can....

---

truck garden (noun)

A farm where vegetables are grown for market.

- He looked up “truck garden” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “truck garden.”

---

water clock (noun)

Clock that measures time by the escape of water.

- They discussed "water clock" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "water clock" to mean clock that measures time by the escape of water.

---

water wings (noun)

A life preserver consisting of a connected pair of inflatable bags that fit under a person's arms and provide buoyancy; used by children learning to swim.

- The article explained what "water wings" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "water wings" to mean a life preserver consisting of a connected pair of....

---

witness box (noun)

A box enclosure for a witness when testifying.

- Understanding "witness box" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "witness box" during the group presentation.

---

word processing (noun)

Rapid and efficient processing (storage and printing) of linguistic data for composition and editing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "word processing."
- Understanding "word processing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

x-ray machine (noun)

An apparatus that provides a source of X rays.

- In class, the teacher used "x-ray machine" to mean an apparatus that provides a source of x rays.
- The article explained what "x-ray machine" means with a simple example.

---

basketball equipment (noun)

Sports equipment used in playing basketball.

- The article explained what "basketball equipment" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "basketball equipment" to mean sports equipment used in playing basketball.

---

battle sight (noun)

An arrangement of sights that makes possible the rapid aiming of a firearm at short ranges.

- They discussed "battle sight" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "battle sight" because he had never seen it before.

---

bell push (noun)

A button that is pushed to ring a bell.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bell push."
- He looked up "bell push" because he had never seen it before.

---

bell seat (noun)

A seat that has a bell shape (on some 18th century chairs).

- In class, the teacher used "bell seat" to mean a seat that has a bell shape (on some 18th century....
- The article explained what "bell seat" means with a simple example.

---

business establishment (noun)

An establishment (a factory or an assembly plant or retail store or warehouse etc.) where business is conducted, goods are made or stored or processed or where services are rendered.

- They discussed "business establishment" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "business establishment" to mean an establishment (a factory or an assembly plant or....

---

chicken farm (noun)

Farm where chickens are raised for sale.

- The article explained what "chicken farm" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chicken farm" to mean farm where chickens are raised for sale.

---

china cabinet (noun)

A cabinet (usually with glass doors) for storing and displaying china.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “china cabinet.”
- He looked up “china cabinet” because he had never seen it before.

---

clock face (noun)

The face of a clock showing hours and minutes of the day.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “clock face.”
- He looked up “clock face” because he had never seen it before.

---

concert grand (noun)

A grand piano suitable for concert performances.

- He looked up “concert grand” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “concert grand” during the group presentation.

---

deck-house (noun)

A superstructure on the upper deck of a ship.

- He looked up “deck-house” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “deck-house.”

---

diamond point (noun)

A very hard small point made from a diamond.

- He looked up “diamond point” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “diamond point.”

---

dress shirt (noun)

A man’s white shirt (with a starch front) for evening wear (usually with a tuxedo).

- The article explained what “dress shirt” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “dress shirt” to mean a man’s white shirt (with a starch front) for....

---

electrical system (noun)

Equipment in a motor vehicle that provides electricity to start the engine and ignite the fuel and operate the lights and windshield wiper and heater and air conditioner and radio.

- They discussed “electrical system” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “electrical system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

entrance (noun)

Something that provides access (to get in or get out).

- They waited at the entrance to the garden.
- She made a grand entrance.

---

give-up the ghost (verb)

Pass from physical life and lose all bodily attributes and functions necessary to sustain life.

- The children perished in the fire.
- The patient went peacefully.

---

go to pot (verb)

Become ruined.

- His business went to pot when economy soured.
- The coach explained when to use “go to pot” and when to wait.

---

golf equipment (noun)

Sports equipment used in playing golf.

- In class, the teacher used “golf equipment” to mean sports equipment used in playing golf.
- Understanding “golf equipment” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

guy wire (noun)

A cable, wire, or rope that is used to brace something (especially a tent).

- Understanding “guy wire” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “guy wire” during the group presentation.

highway code (noun)

The code of rules governing the use of public roads.

- Understanding "highway code" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "highway code."

information processing system (noun)

A machine for performing calculations automatically.

- He looked up "information processing system" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "information processing system" during the group presentation.

jump suit (noun)

One-piece garment fashioned after a parachutist's uniform.

- They discussed "jump suit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jump suit."

keys (noun)

A generic term for any device whose possession entitles the holder to a means of access.

- A safe-deposit box usually requires two keys to open it.
- They were carrying two keys of heroin.

manufacturing plant (noun)

A plant consisting of one or more buildings with facilities for manufacturing.

- The article explained what "manufacturing plant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "manufacturing plant" to mean a plant consisting of one or more buildings with....

mess hall (noun)

A (large) military dining room where service personnel eat or relax.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mess hall."
- They discussed "mess hall" during the group presentation.

narrow (verb)

Make or become more narrow or restricted.

- The selection was narrowed.
- The road narrowed.

oil colour (noun)

Oil paint containing pigment that is used by an artist.

- Understanding "oil colour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oil colour."

pop bottle (noun)

A bottle for holding soft drinks.

- The article explained what "pop bottle" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pop bottle."

prize ring (noun)

A square ring where boxers fight.

- He looked up "prize ring" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prize ring."

shoulder mark (noun)

Epaulets that indicate rank.

- The article explained what "shoulder mark" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shoulder mark" to mean epaulets that indicate rank.

slow lane (noun)

The traffic lane for vehicles that are moving slowly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slow lane."
- Understanding "slow lane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

storage cell (noun)

A cell that can be recharged.

- They discussed "storage cell" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "storage cell" means with a simple example.

---

traffic lane (noun)

A lane of a main road that is defined by painted lines.

- That car is in the wrong traffic lane.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "traffic lane."

---

truck farm (noun)

A farm where vegetables are grown for market.

- They discussed "truck farm" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "truck farm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wall hanging (noun)

Decoration that is hung (as a tapestry) on a wall or over a window.

- The cold castle walls were covered with hangings.
- Understanding "wall hanging" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wet bar (noun)

A bar for mixing drinks that has a sink with running water.

- They discussed "wet bar" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "wet bar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

x-or circuit (noun)

Gate for exclusive OR; a circuit in a computer that fires only if only one of its inputs fire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "x-or circuit."
- The article explained what "x-or circuit" means with a simple example.

---

article of clothing (noun)

A covering designed to be worn on a person's body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "article of clothing."
- He looked up "article of clothing" because he had never seen it before.

---

back entrance (noun)

An entrance at the rear of a building.

- The article explained what "back entrance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "back entrance" to mean an entrance at the rear of a building.

---

baseball equipment (noun)

Equipment used in playing baseball.

- Understanding "baseball equipment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "baseball equipment" means with a simple example.

---

berlin (noun)

A limousine with a glass partition between the front and back seats.

- In class, the teacher used "berlin" to mean a limousine with a glass partition between the....
- The article explained what "berlin" means with a simple example.

---

bone china (noun)

Fine porcelain that contains bone ash.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bone china."

- The article explained what "bone china" means with a simple example.

---

break loose (verb)

Be unleashed; emerge with violence or noise.

- In everyday English, people use "break loose" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "break loose" until he saw an example.

---

business data processing (noun)

Data processing in accounting or business management.

- They discussed "business data processing" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "business data processing" means with a simple example.

---

case knife (noun)

A metal blade with a handle; used as cutlery.

- The article explained what "case knife" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "case knife" to mean a metal blade with a handle; used as cutlery.

---

chain mail (noun)

(Middle Ages) flexible armor made of interlinked metal rings.

- In class, the teacher used "chain mail" to mean (middle ages) flexible armor made of interlinked....
- The article explained what "chain mail" means with a simple example.

---

coal mine (noun)

A mine where coal is dug from the ground.

- Understanding "coal mine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "coal mine" during the group presentation.

---

concert hall (noun)

A hall where concerts are given.

- They discussed "concert hall" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "concert hall."

---

designs (noun)

A preliminary sketch indicating the plan for something.

- He made no secret of his designs.
- They discussed "designs" during the group presentation.

---

electronic equipment (noun)

Equipment that involves the controlled conduction of electrons (especially in a gas or vacuum or semiconductor).

- He looked up "electronic equipment" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electronic equipment."

---

forum (noun)

A public facility to meet for open discussion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forum."
- He looked up "forum" because he had never seen it before.

---

four-wheel drive (noun)

A motor vehicle with a four-wheel drive transmission system.

- Understanding "four-wheel drive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "four-wheel drive" during the group presentation.

---

general-purpose bomb (noun)

A large bomb (500 to 2,000 pounds that is 50% explosive) whose explosion creates a blast and whose metal casing creates some fragmentation effect.

- They discussed "general-purpose bomb" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general-purpose bomb."

---

grab bar (noun)

A bar attached parallel to a wall to provide a handgrip for steadying yourself.

- The article explained what "grab bar" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "grab bar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

greek cross (noun)

A cross with each of the four arms the same length.

- Understanding "greek cross" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "greek cross" during the group presentation.

---

guitar pick (noun)

A plectrum used to pluck a guitar.

- The article explained what "guitar pick" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guitar pick."

---

jury box (noun)

An enclosure within a courtroom for the jury.

- The article explained what "jury box" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jury box" to mean an enclosure within a courtroom for the jury.

---

landing place (noun)

Structure providing a place where boats can land people or goods.

- He looked up "landing place" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "landing place" to mean structure providing a place where boats can land....

---

loving cup (noun)

A large metal vessel with two handles that is awarded as a trophy to the winner of a competition.

- The school kept the cups is a special glass case.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loving cup."

---

mill (noun)

A plant consisting of one or more buildings with facilities for manufacturing.

- He looked up "mill" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mill."

---

narrow down (verb)

Become more focus on an area of activity or field of study.

- I cannot narrow down the rules for this game.
- In everyday English, people use "narrow down" when talking about this idea.

---

object glass (noun)

The lens or system of lenses in a telescope or microscope that is nearest the object being viewed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "object glass."
- Understanding "object glass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

over-the-counter drug (noun)

A drug that is sold without a prescription.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "over-the-counter drug."
- They discussed "over-the-counter drug" during the group presentation.

---

pen (noun)

A writing implement with a point from which ink flows.

- They discussed "pen" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pen" to mean a writing implement with a point from which ink flows.

---

picture element (noun)

(computer science) the smallest discrete component of an image or picture on a CRT screen (usually a colored dot).

- In class, the teacher used "picture element" to mean (computer science) the smallest discrete component....
- He looked up "picture element" because he had never seen it before.

---

random memory (noun)

The most common computer memory which can be used by programs to perform necessary tasks while the computer is on; an integrated circuit memory chip allows information to be stored or accessed in any order and all storage locations are equally accessible.

- In class, the teacher used "random memory" to mean the most common computer memory which can be used....
- They discussed "random memory" during the group presentation.

---

rear light (noun)

Lamp (usually red) mounted at the rear of a motor vehicle.

- He looked up "rear light" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rear light" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

research lab (noun)

A workplace for the conduct of scientific research.

- He looked up "research lab" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "research lab."

---

safety lock (noun)

A bolt that cannot be moved from outside the door or gate.

- They discussed "safety lock" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "safety lock."

---

second deck (noun)

The uppermost sheltered deck that runs the entire length of a large vessel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "second deck."
- He looked up "second deck" because he had never seen it before.

---

spin out (verb)

Prolong or extend.

- Spin out a visit.
- She tried to use "spin out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tank engine (noun)

A locomotive that carries its own fuel and water; no tender is needed.

- In class, the teacher used "tank engine" to mean a locomotive that carries its own fuel and water;....
- He looked up "tank engine" because he had never seen it before.

---

telephone call (noun)

A telephone connection.

- She reported several anonymous calls.
- He placed a phone call to London.

---

telephone company (noun)

A public utility that provides telephone service.

- The article explained what "telephone company" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "telephone company" during the group presentation.

---

telephone number (noun)

The number is used in calling a particular telephone.

- He has an unlisted number.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone number."

---

telephone set (noun)

Electronic equipment that converts sound into electrical signals that can be transmitted over distances and then converts received signals back into sounds.

- I talked to him on the telephone.
- Understanding "telephone set" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

telephone system (noun)

A communication system that transmits sound between distant points.

- They discussed "telephone system" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "telephone system" to mean a communication system that transmits sound between....

vacation home (noun)

A dwelling (a second home) where you live while you are on vacation.

- Understanding "vacation home" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "vacation home" to mean a dwelling (a second home) where you live while you....

wave guide (noun)

A hollow metal conductor that provides a path to guide microwaves; used in radar.

- The article explained what "wave guide" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wave guide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bed clothing (noun)

Coverings that are used on a bed.

- They discussed "bed clothing" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bed clothing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

birth control device (noun)

An agent or device intended to prevent conception.

- Understanding "birth control device" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "birth control device" because he had never seen it before.

blue angel (noun)

The sodium salt of amobarbital that is used as a barbiturate; used as a sedative and a hypnotic.

- The article explained what "blue angel" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "blue angel" during the group presentation.

call forth (verb)

Summon into action or bring into existence, often as if by magic.

- Call down the spirits from the mountain.
- Can you use "call forth" in a sentence that fits this situation?

circuit card (noun)

A printed circuit that can be inserted into expansion slots in a computer to increase the computer's capabilities.

- The article explained what "circuit card" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "circuit card."

council chamber (noun)

A room where a committee meets (such as the board of directors of a company).

- The article explained what "council chamber" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "council chamber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

crystal set (noun)

An early radio receiver using a crystal detector.

- In class, the teacher used "crystal set" to mean an early radio receiver using a crystal detector.
- The article explained what "crystal set" means with a simple example.

delay line (noun)

A circuit designed to introduce a calculated delay into the transmission of a signal.

- They discussed "delay line" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "delay line" to mean a circuit designed to introduce a calculated delay....

delivery van (noun)

A van suitable for delivering goods or services to customers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "delivery van."
- He looked up "delivery van" because he had never seen it before.

---

desk phone (noun)

A telephone set that sits on a desk or table.

- The article explained what "desk phone" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "desk phone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dry-stone wall (noun)

A stone wall made with stones fitted together without mortar.

- They discussed "dry-stone wall" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dry-stone wall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

egg cup (noun)

Dishware consisting of a small cup for serving a boiled egg.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "egg cup."
- The article explained what "egg cup" means with a simple example.

---

exercise device (noun)

A device designed to provide exercise for the user.

- In class, the teacher used "exercise device" to mean a device designed to provide exercise for the user.
- He looked up "exercise device" because he had never seen it before.

---

georgia home boy (noun)

Street names for gamma hydroxybutyrate.

- They discussed "georgia home boy" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "georgia home boy" to mean street names for gamma hydroxybutyrate.

---

hunting watch (noun)

A watch with a hinged metal lid to protect the crystal.

- In class, the teacher used "hunting watch" to mean a watch with a hinged metal lid to protect the crystal.
- He looked up "hunting watch" because he had never seen it before.

---

instructions (noun)

A manual usually accompanying a technical device and explaining how to install or operate it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instructions."
- He looked up "instructions" because he had never seen it before.

---

introduce (verb)

Bring in or establish in a new place or environment.

- Introduce a rule.
- Introduce exotic fruits.

---

latin cross (noun)

A cross with the lowest arm being longer than the others.

- In class, the teacher used "latin cross" to mean a cross with the lowest arm being longer than the....
- He looked up "latin cross" because he had never seen it before.

---

op art (noun)

A style of abstractionism popular in the 1960s; produces dramatic visual effects with colors and contrasts that are difficult for the eye to resolve.

- In class, the teacher used "op art" to mean a style of abstractionism popular in the 1960s;....
- He looked up "op art" because he had never seen it before.

---

output program (noun)

A utility program that organizes the output of a computer.

- They discussed "output program" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “output program” because he had never seen it before.

picture palace (noun)

A theater where films are shown.

- In class, the teacher used “picture palace” to mean a theater where films are shown.
- Understanding “picture palace” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

piece de resistance (noun)

The outstanding item (the prize piece or main exhibit) in a collection.

- Understanding “piece de resistance” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “piece de resistance.”

plate glass (noun)

Glass formed into large thin sheets.

- In class, the teacher used “plate glass” to mean glass formed into large thin sheets.
- The article explained what “plate glass” means with a simple example.

push button (noun)

An electrical switch operated by pressing.

- The elevator was operated by push buttons.
- The push beside the bed operated a buzzer at the desk.

rail line (noun)

The road consisting of railroad track and roadbed.

- He looked up “rail line” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rail line.”

remote control (noun)

A device that can be used to control a machine or apparatus from a distance.

- He lost the remote for his TV.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “remote control.”

secondary cell (noun)

A cell that can be recharged.

- In class, the teacher used “secondary cell” to mean a cell that can be recharged.
- The article explained what “secondary cell” means with a simple example.

settle (verb)

Take up residence and become established.

- The immigrants settled in the Midwest.
- Dust settled on the roofs.

settle on (verb)

Become fixed (on).

- The coach explained when to use “settle on” and when to wait.
- Can you use “settle on” in a sentence that fits this situation?

solar cell (noun)

A cell that converts solar energy into electrical energy.

- The article explained what “solar cell” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “solar cell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spin off (verb)

Produce as a consequence of something larger.

- In everyday English, people use “spin off” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “spin off” in real sentences.

spin-off (noun)

A product made during the manufacture of something else.

- He looked up "spin-off" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spin-off" to mean a product made during the manufacture of something else.

---

starting gate (noun)

A movable barrier on the starting line of a race course.

- They discussed "starting gate" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "starting gate" means with a simple example.

---

storage ring (noun)

Container consisting of a set of magnets set in a doughnut-shaped ring around which charged particles from an accelerator can be kept circulating until they are used.

- The article explained what "storage ring" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "storage ring" to mean container consisting of a set of magnets set in a....

---

sword (noun)

A cutting or thrusting weapon that has a long metal blade and a hilt with a hand guard.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sword."
- They discussed "sword" during the group presentation.

---

tape player (noun)

Electronic equipment for playing back magnetic tapes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tape player."
- Understanding "tape player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

telephone book (noun)

A directory containing an alphabetical list of telephone subscribers and their telephone numbers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone book."
- He looked up "telephone book" because he had never seen it before.

---

telephone line (noun)

The wire that carries telegraph and telephone signals.

- He looked up "telephone line" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone line."

---

telephone service (noun)

A public utility that provides telephone service.

- The article explained what "telephone service" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "telephone service" to mean a public utility that provides telephone service.

---

traffic circle (noun)

A road junction at which traffic streams circularly around a central island.

- The accident blocked all traffic at the rotary.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "traffic circle."

---

water-base paint (noun)

Paint in which water is used as the vehicle.

- The article explained what "water-base paint" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "water-base paint" during the group presentation.

---

wet cell (noun)

A primary voltaic cell having a liquid electrolyte.

- He looked up "wet cell" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wet cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

window frame (noun)

The framework that supports a window.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “window frame.”
- They discussed “window frame” during the group presentation.

---

automatic (noun)

A pistol that will keep firing until the ammunition is gone or the trigger is released.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “automatic.”
- The article explained what “automatic” means with a simple example.

---

baby-walker (noun)

An enclosing framework on casters or wheels; helps babies learn to walk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “baby-walker.”
- He looked up “baby-walker” because he had never seen it before.

---

bed covering (noun)

Decorative cover for a bed.

- He looked up “bed covering” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “bed covering” to mean decorative cover for a bed.

---

blow-dry (verb)

Dry hair with a hair dryer.

- Learners should practice how to use “blow-dry” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “blow-dry” when talking about this idea.

---

coat (noun)

A thin layer covering something.

- A second coat of paint.
- The article explained what “coat” means with a simple example.

---

columbia university (noun)

A university in New York City.

- In class, the teacher used “columbia university” to mean a university in new york city.
- They discussed “columbia university” during the group presentation.

---

crew neck (noun)

A plain straight neckline opening from shoulder to shoulder of sweaters.

- In class, the teacher used “crew neck” to mean a plain straight neckline opening from shoulder to....
- He looked up “crew neck” because he had never seen it before.

---

fashion plate (noun)

A plate illustrating the latest fashion in dress.

- Understanding “fashion plate” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “fashion plate” to mean a plate illustrating the latest fashion in dress.

---

fox hole (noun)

A small dugout with a pit for individual shelter against enemy fire.

- The article explained what “fox hole” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “fox hole” to mean a small dugout with a pit for individual shelter....

---

free throw lane (noun)

A lane on a basketball court extending from the end line to 15 feet in front of the backboard; players may not enter this lane during a free throw.

- He looked up “free throw lane” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “free throw lane” to mean a lane on a basketball court extending from the end....

---

gas chamber (noun)

Instrument of execution consisting of a sealed chamber into which poison gas is introduced; used to kill people or animals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gas chamber.”
- They discussed “gas chamber” during the group presentation.

gear box (noun)

The shell (metal casing) in which a train of gears is sealed.

- Understanding "gear box" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gear box."

golf bag (noun)

Golf equipment consisting of a bag for carrying golf clubs and balls.

- He looked up "golf bag" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "golf bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

headquarters (noun)

The military installation from which a commander performs the functions of command.

- The general's headquarters were a couple of large tents.
- Many companies have their headquarters in New York.

jean (noun)

A coarse durable twill-weave cotton fabric.

- In class, the teacher used "jean" to mean a coarse durable twill-weave cotton fabric.
- The article explained what "jean" means with a simple example.

juice up (verb)

Make more interesting or lively.

- Juice up a party.
- In everyday English, people use "juice up" when talking about this idea.

minor suit (noun)

(bridge) a suit of inferior scoring value, either diamonds or clubs.

- Understanding "minor suit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "minor suit" because he had never seen it before.

odd-even check (noun)

A system of checking for errors in computer functioning.

- Understanding "odd-even check" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "odd-even check" means with a simple example.

push-down storage (noun)

A storage device that handles data so that the next item to be retrieved is the item most recently stored (LIFO).

- In class, the teacher used "push-down storage" to mean a storage device that handles data so that the next....
- He looked up "push-down storage" because he had never seen it before.

recording equipment (noun)

Equipment for making records.

- They discussed "recording equipment" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "recording equipment" to mean equipment for making records.

recording machine (noun)

Equipment for making records.

- He looked up "recording machine" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "recording machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

residence (noun)

The official house or establishment of an important person (as a sovereign or president).

- He refused to live in the governor's residence.
- A person can have several residences.

savings bank (noun)

A container (usually with a slot in the top) for keeping money at home.

- The coin bank was empty.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "savings bank."

---

service entrance (noun)

An entrance intended for the use of servants or for delivery of goods and removal of refuse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service entrance."
- He looked up "service entrance" because he had never seen it before.

---

short-stop bath (noun)

An acid bath used to stop the action of a developer.

- In class, the teacher used "short-stop bath" to mean an acid bath used to stop the action of a developer.
- The article explained what "short-stop bath" means with a simple example.

---

side entrance (noun)

An exterior door at one side of a building.

- They discussed "side entrance" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "side entrance" because he had never seen it before.

---

silver plate (noun)

A thin layer of silver deposited on something.

- The article explained what "silver plate" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silver plate."

---

sleeping bag (noun)

Large padded bag designed to be slept in outdoors; usually rolls up like a bedroll.

- The article explained what "sleeping bag" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sleeping bag" during the group presentation.

---

smoke hole (noun)

A vent (as in a roof) for smoke to escape.

- The article explained what "smoke hole" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "smoke hole" to mean a vent (as in a roof) for smoke to escape.

---

speaker unit (noun)

Electro-acoustic transducer that converts electrical signals into sounds loud enough to be heard at a distance.

- The article explained what "speaker unit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "speaker unit."

---

steam heat (noun)

A heating system in which steam is generated in boilers and piped to radiators.

- He looked up "steam heat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steam heat."

---

super acid (noun)

Street names for ketamine.

- Understanding "super acid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "super acid" during the group presentation.

---

tape drive (noun)

A mechanism that transports magnetic tape across the read/write heads of a tape playback/recorder.

- In class, the teacher used "tape drive" to mean a mechanism that transports magnetic tape across....
- The article explained what "tape drive" means with a simple example.

---

third deck (noun)

The deck below the main deck.

- In class, the teacher used "third deck" to mean the deck below the main deck.

- They discussed "third deck" during the group presentation.

third rail (noun)

A rail through which electric current is supplied to an electric locomotive.

- They discussed "third rail" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "third rail" means with a simple example.

tool bag (noun)

A bag in which tools are carried.

- Understanding "tool bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tool bag."

tube (noun)

An electric railway operating below the surface of the ground (usually in a city).

- In Paris the subway system is called the 'metro' and in London it is called the 'tube' or the 'underground'.
- In class, the teacher used "tube" to mean an electric railway operating below the surface of....

two-handed saw (noun)

A saw with handles at both ends; intended for use by two people.

- He looked up "two-handed saw" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "two-handed saw" during the group presentation.

university of pennsylvania (noun)

A university in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

- The article explained what "university of pennsylvania" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "university of pennsylvania" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wing flat (noun)

A flat situated in the wings.

- He looked up "wing flat" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "wing flat" to mean a flat situated in the wings.

writes (verb)

Have (one's written work) issued for publication.

- She writes code faster than anybody else.
- The coach explained when to use "writes" and when to wait.

bath oil (noun)

A scented oil added to your bath water.

- The article explained what "bath oil" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bath oil" to mean a scented oil added to your bath water.

cable television (noun)

A television system that transmits over cables.

- They discussed "cable television" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cable television" means with a simple example.

cambridge university (noun)

A university in England.

- He looked up "cambridge university" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cambridge university."

chemical balance (noun)

A beam balance of great precision used in quantitative chemical analysis.

- He looked up "chemical balance" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chemical balance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chicken feed (noun)

An amphetamine derivative (trade name Methedrine) used in the form of a crystalline hydrochloride; used as a stimulant to the nervous system and as an appetite suppressant.

- The article explained what "chicken feed" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chicken feed" to mean an amphetamine derivative (trade name methedrine)....

---

computer circuit (noun)

A circuit that is part of a computer.

- He looked up "computer circuit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "computer circuit" during the group presentation.

---

detail file (noun)

(computer science) a computer file containing relatively transient data about a particular data processing task.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "detail file."
- He looked up "detail file" because he had never seen it before.

---

driving wheel (noun)

A wheel that drives a motor vehicle (transforms torque into a tractive force).

- In class, the teacher used "driving wheel" to mean a wheel that drives a motor vehicle (transforms....
- Understanding "driving wheel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electric bell (noun)

A bell activated by the magnetic effect of an electric current.

- In class, the teacher used "electric bell" to mean a bell activated by the magnetic effect of an....
- Understanding "electric bell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electric switch (noun)

Control consisting of a mechanical or electrical or electronic device for making or breaking or changing the connections in a circuit.

- The article explained what "electric switch" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "electric switch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

engines (noun)

An instrument or machine that is used in warfare, such as a battering ram, catapult, artillery piece, etc.

- Medieval engines of war.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "engines."

---

exit (noun)

An opening that permits escape or release.

- He looked up "exit" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "exit" to mean an opening that permits escape or release.

---

expand (verb)

Become larger in size or volume or quantity.

- His business expanded rapidly.
- The dough expands.

---

flying bomb (noun)

A small jet-propelled winged missile that carries a bomb.

- They discussed "flying bomb" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "flying bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

funeral home (noun)

A mortuary where those who knew the deceased can come to pay their last respects.

- In class, the teacher used "funeral home" to mean a mortuary where those who knew the deceased can....
- The article explained what "funeral home" means with a simple example.

---

garden tool (noun)

Used for working in gardens or yards.

- They discussed “garden tool” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “garden tool” to mean used for working in gardens or yards.

---

gun chamber (noun)

Chamber that is the part of a gun that receives the charge.

- He looked up “gun chamber” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “gun chamber” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

main deck (noun)

The uppermost sheltered deck that runs the entire length of a large vessel.

- Understanding “main deck” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “main deck” to mean the uppermost sheltered deck that runs the entire....

---

penalty box (noun)

(ice hockey) an enclosed bench to the side of an ice-hockey rink for players who are serving time penalties.

- He looked up “penalty box” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “penalty box” during the group presentation.

---

pilot engine (noun)

A locomotive that precedes a train to check the track.

- Understanding “pilot engine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “pilot engine” because he had never seen it before.

---

push-bike (noun)

A bicycle that must be pedaled.

- He looked up “push-bike” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “push-bike” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reading desk (noun)

Desk or stand with a slanted top used to hold a text at the proper height for a lecturer.

- The article explained what “reading desk” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “reading desk” during the group presentation.

---

rep (noun)

A fabric with prominent rounded crosswise ribs.

- The article explained what “rep” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rep.”

---

silver protein (noun)

A colloid preparation of protein (albumin or gelatin) and silver oxide; used in aqueous solution as an antibacterial agent.

- He looked up “silver protein” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “silver protein” to mean a colloid preparation of protein (albumin or....

---

single shell (noun)

A shell for a single oarsman.

- He looked up “single shell” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “single shell.”

---

steam engine (noun)

External-combustion engine in which heat is used to raise steam which either turns a turbine or forces a piston to move up and down in a cylinder.

- In class, the teacher used “steam engine” to mean external-combustion engine in which heat is used to....
- Understanding “steam engine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stick shift (noun)

A transmission that is operated manually with a gear lever and a clutch pedal.

- In class, the teacher used “stick shift” to mean a transmission that is operated manually with a....
- The article explained what “stick shift” means with a simple example.

studio apartment (noun)

An apartment with a living space and a bathroom and a small kitchen.

- In class, the teacher used "studio apartment" to mean an apartment with a living space and a bathroom and....
- They discussed "studio apartment" during the group presentation.

sugar bowl (noun)

A dish in which sugar is served.

- In class, the teacher used "sugar bowl" to mean a dish in which sugar is served.
- The article explained what "sugar bowl" means with a simple example.

tank iron (noun)

Plate iron that is thinner than boilerplate but thicker than sheet iron or stovepipe iron.

- Understanding "tank iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tank iron" during the group presentation.

ties (noun)

A fastener that serves to join or connect.

- He was sorry he had to sever his ties with other members of the team.
- They discussed "ties" during the group presentation.

tower block (noun)

Tower consisting of a multistoried building of offices or apartments.

- 'tower block' is the British term for 'high-rise'.
- In class, the teacher used "tower block" to mean tower consisting of a multistoried building of....

track-to-track seek time (noun)

(computer science) the time it takes for a read/write head to move to an adjacent data track.

- He looked up "track-to-track seek time" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "track-to-track seek time" to mean (computer science) the time it takes for a....

tube well (noun)

A well made by driving a tube into the earth to a stratum that bears water.

- In class, the teacher used "tube well" to mean a well made by driving a tube into the earth to a....
- Understanding "tube well" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

watch crystal (noun)

A protective cover that protects the face of a watch.

- They discussed "watch crystal" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "watch crystal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

water mill (noun)

A mill powered by a water wheel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water mill."
- They discussed "water mill" during the group presentation.

wedding chest (noun)

Chest for storage of clothing (trousseau) and household goods in anticipation of marriage.

- The article explained what "wedding chest" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wedding chest" during the group presentation.

wine bottle (noun)

A bottle for holding wine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wine bottle."
- The article explained what "wine bottle" means with a simple example.

wing chair (noun)

Easy chair having wings on each side of a high back.

- He looked up "wing chair" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wing chair."

---

bring forth (verb)

Bring into existence.

- The accused brought forth a letter in court that he claims exonerates him.
- He did not know how to use "bring forth" until he saw an example.

---

burn bag (noun)

A bag into which secret documents are placed before being burned.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "burn bag."
- They discussed "burn bag" during the group presentation.

---

cameras (noun)

Television equipment consisting of a lens system that focuses an image on a photosensitive mosaic that is scanned by an electron beam.

- In class, the teacher used "cameras" to mean television equipment consisting of a lens system....
- He looked up "cameras" because he had never seen it before.

---

carbon copy (noun)

A copy made with carbon paper.

- In class, the teacher used "carbon copy" to mean a copy made with carbon paper.
- The article explained what "carbon copy" means with a simple example.

---

collect call (noun)

A telephone call that the receiving party is asked to pay for.

- He looked up "collect call" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "collect call" during the group presentation.

---

custom-built (noun)

An item made to the customer's specifications.

- Understanding "custom-built" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "custom-built."

---

dress circle (noun)

A curved section or tier of seats in a hall or theater or opera house; usually the first tier above the orchestra.

- They had excellent seats in the dress circle.
- The article explained what "dress circle" means with a simple example.

---

edge tool (noun)

Any cutting tool with a sharp cutting edge (as a chisel or knife or plane or gouge).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edge tool."
- He looked up "edge tool" because he had never seen it before.

---

electronic balance (noun)

A balance that generates a current proportional to the displacement of the pan.

- In class, the teacher used "electronic balance" to mean a balance that generates a current proportional to....
- The article explained what "electronic balance" means with a simple example.

---

exhibition area (noun)

A large hall for holding exhibitions.

- He looked up "exhibition area" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "exhibition area" during the group presentation.

---

front bench (noun)

Any of the front seats in the House of Commons that are reserved for ministers or former ministers.

- They discussed "front bench" during the group presentation.

- Understanding “front bench” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

front entrance (noun)

Exterior door (at the entrance) at the front of a building.

- They discussed “front entrance” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “front entrance” to mean exterior door (at the entrance) at the front of a....

---

gaming house (noun)

A public building in which a variety of games of chance can be played (operated as a business).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gaming house.”
- The article explained what “gaming house” means with a simple example.

---

generated (verb)

Bring into existence.

- The new manager generated a lot of problems.
- The computer bug generated chaos in the office.

---

glasses (noun)

Optical instrument consisting of a frame that holds a pair of lenses for correcting defective vision.

- He looked up “glasses” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “glasses” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hop field (noun)

A garden where hops are grown.

- They discussed “hop field” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “hop field” means with a simple example.

---

involves (verb)

Make complex or intricate or complicated.

- This decision involves many changes.
- Dinner at Joe’s always involves at least six courses.

---

landing field (noun)

A place where planes take off and land.

- The article explained what “landing field” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “landing field” to mean a place where planes take off and land.

---

log line (noun)

A knotted cord that runs out from a reel to a piece of wood that is attached to it.

- He looked up “log line” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “log line.”

---

old glory (noun)

The national flag of the United States of America.

- Understanding “old glory” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “old glory” means with a simple example.

---

oxford university (noun)

A university in England.

- In class, the teacher used “oxford university” to mean a university in england.
- He looked up “oxford university” because he had never seen it before.

---

relief map (noun)

A map having contour lines through points of equal elevation.

- The article explained what “relief map” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “relief map” to mean a map having contour lines through points of equal....

---

restaurants (noun)

A building where people go to eat.

- In class, the teacher used "restaurants" to mean a building where people go to eat.
- He looked up "restaurants" because he had never seen it before.

---

rolling stock (noun)

Collection of wheeled vehicles owned by a railroad or motor carrier.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rolling stock."
- They discussed "rolling stock" during the group presentation.

---

roof garden (noun)

A garden on a flat roof of a building.

- The article explained what "roof garden" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "roof garden" during the group presentation.

---

science lab (noun)

A workplace for the conduct of scientific research.

- The article explained what "science lab" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "science lab" during the group presentation.

---

shadow box (noun)

A shallow rectangular box with a transparent front used to protect and display small items (jewelry, coins, etc.).

- They discussed "shadow box" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "shadow box" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sight setting (noun)

The adjustment of a gunsight for elevation and windage on a particular range under favorable light conditions.

- The article explained what "sight setting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sight setting" to mean the adjustment of a gunsight for elevation and....

---

soft goods (noun)

Textiles or clothing and related merchandise.

- Understanding "soft goods" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soft goods."

---

software error (noun)

Error resulting from bad code in some program involved in producing the erroneous result.

- The article explained what "software error" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "software error" to mean error resulting from bad code in some program....

---

tear down (verb)

Tear down so as to make flat with the ground.

- Learners should practice how to use "tear down" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "tear down" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tear off (verb)

Rip off violently and forcefully.

- The passing bus tore off her side mirror.
- Can you use "tear off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

telephone bill (noun)

Statement of charges for telephone service.

- They discussed "telephone bill" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "telephone bill" means with a simple example.

---

throwing board (noun)

A device resembling a sling that is used in various primitive societies to propel a dart or spear.

- In class, the teacher used “throwing board” to mean a device resembling a sling that is used in various....
- The article explained what “throwing board” means with a simple example.

---

wash-hand stand (noun)

Furniture consisting of a table or stand to hold a basin and pitcher of water for washing: ‘wash-hand stand’ is a British term.

- The article explained what “wash-hand stand” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “wash-hand stand” to mean furniture consisting of a table or stand to hold a....

---

wear thin (verb)

Deteriorate through use or stress.

- The coach explained when to use “wear thin” and when to wait.
- Can you use “wear thin” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

window blind (noun)

A blind for privacy or to keep out light.

- They discussed “window blind” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “window blind” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

writing desk (noun)

A desk for writing (usually with a sloping top).

- The article explained what “writing desk” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “writing desk.”

---

assault gun (noun)

An armored vehicle with the chassis of a tank (but no turret) and a large gun; used as an antitank weapon and to support infantry.

- They discussed “assault gun” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “assault gun” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beer bottle (noun)

A bottle that holds beer.

- He looked up “beer bottle” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “beer bottle” during the group presentation.

---

billy (noun)

A short stout club used primarily by policemen.

- In class, the teacher used “billy” to mean a short stout club used primarily by policemen.
- Understanding “billy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

book of instructions (noun)

A manual usually accompanying a technical device and explaining how to install or operate it.

- The article explained what “book of instructions” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “book of instructions.”

---

clock radio (noun)

A radio that includes a clock that can be set to turn it on automatically.

- The article explained what “clock radio” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “clock radio” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

closed circuit (noun)

A complete electrical circuit around which current flows or a signal circulates.

- They discussed “closed circuit” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “closed circuit” because he had never seen it before.

---

color wash (noun)

A wash of whitewash or other water-base paint tinted with a colored pigment.

- Understanding “color wash” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “color wash” to mean a wash of whitewash or other water-base paint....

computers (noun)

A machine for performing calculations automatically.

- He looked up "computers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "computers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

create from raw stuff (verb)

Make from scratch.

- She tried to use "create from raw stuff" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "create from raw stuff" until he saw an example.

cross wire (noun)

Either of two fine mutually perpendicular lines that cross in the focus plane of an optical instrument and are use for sighting or calibration.

- He had the target in his cross hairs.
- They discussed "cross wire" during the group presentation.

dress hat (noun)

A man's hat with a tall crown; usually covered with silk or with beaver fur.

- In class, the teacher used "dress hat" to mean a man's hat with a tall crown; usually covered with....
- The article explained what "dress hat" means with a simple example.

dust cover (noun)

A removable plastic protective covering for a piece of equipment.

- The article explained what "dust cover" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dust cover" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dutch door (noun)

An exterior door divided in two horizontally; either half can be closed or open independently.

- Understanding "dutch door" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dutch door" because he had never seen it before.

ease off (verb)

Reduce pressure or intensity.

- He eased off the gas pedal and the car slowed down.
- He did not know how to use "ease off" until he saw an example.

electronic mail (noun)

(computer science) a system of world-wide electronic communication in which a computer user can compose a message at one terminal that can be regenerated at the recipient's terminal when the recipient logs in.

- You cannot send packages by electronic mail.
- The article explained what "electronic mail" means with a simple example.

fixed storage (noun)

(computer science) memory whose contents can be accessed and read but cannot be changed.

- The article explained what "fixed storage" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fixed storage."

floor covering (noun)

A covering for a floor.

- They discussed "floor covering" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "floor covering."

french telephone (noun)

Telephone set with the mouthpiece and earpiece mounted on a single handle.

- In class, the teacher used "french telephone" to mean telephone set with the mouthpiece and earpiece....
- The article explained what "french telephone" means with a simple example.

general headquarters (noun)

Military headquarters from which a military commander controls and organizes the forces.

- The article explained what “general headquarters” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “general headquarters” during the group presentation.

---

golf links (noun)

A golf course that is built on sandy ground near a shore.

- They discussed “golf links” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “golf links” because he had never seen it before.

---

grab bag (noun)

A container from which a person draws a wrapped item at random without knowing the contents.

- He looked up “grab bag” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “grab bag” to mean a container from which a person draws a wrapped....

---

hell dust (noun)

Street names for heroin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hell dust.”
- Understanding “hell dust” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

home theater (noun)

Television and video equipment designed to reproduce in the home the experience of being in a movie theater.

- In class, the teacher used “home theater” to mean television and video equipment designed to....
- The article explained what “home theater” means with a simple example.

---

hospitals (noun)

A health facility where patients receive treatment.

- They discussed “hospitals” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “hospitals” to mean a health facility where patients receive treatment.

---

knee (noun)

The part of a trouser leg that provides the cloth covering for the knee.

- They discussed “knee” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “knee.”

---

light pen (noun)

(computer science) a pointer that when pointed at a computer display senses whether or not the spot is illuminated.

- The article explained what “light pen” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “light pen” to mean (computer science) a pointer that when pointed at a....

---

little theater (noun)

A small theater for experimental drama or collegiate or community groups.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “little theater.”
- He looked up “little theater” because he had never seen it before.

---

lock ring (noun)

Washer that prevents a nut from loosening.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lock ring.”
- They discussed “lock ring” during the group presentation.

---

lower deck (noun)

The deck below the main deck.

- Understanding “lower deck” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “lower deck” during the group presentation.

---

master bedroom (noun)

The principal bedroom in a house; usually occupied by the head of the household.

- In class, the teacher used “master bedroom” to mean the principal bedroom in a house; usually occupied....

- They discussed "master bedroom" during the group presentation.

mexican green (noun)

A particularly potent variety of marijuana.

- In class, the teacher used "mexican green" to mean a particularly potent variety of marijuana.
- He looked up "mexican green" because he had never seen it before.

motion-picture camera (noun)

A camera that takes a sequence of photographs that can give the illusion of motion when viewed in rapid succession.

- Understanding "motion-picture camera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "motion-picture camera" to mean a camera that takes a sequence of photographs that....

nose ring (noun)

A ring worn on the nose as an ornament or on the nose of an animal to control it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nose ring."
- Understanding "nose ring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

picture rail (noun)

Rail fixed to a wall for hanging pictures.

- Understanding "picture rail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "picture rail" to mean rail fixed to a wall for hanging pictures.

plastic bag (noun)

A bag made of thin plastic material.

- Understanding "plastic bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "plastic bag" during the group presentation.

plate iron (noun)

A plate of iron.

- He looked up "plate iron" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "plate iron" during the group presentation.

pleasure boat (noun)

A large motorboat that has a cabin and plumbing and other conveniences necessary for living on board.

- They discussed "pleasure boat" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pleasure boat."

preparing (verb)

To prepare verbally, either for written or spoken delivery.

- She tried to use "preparing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "preparing" when talking about this idea.

quarter plate (noun)

A photographic plate measuring 3.25 inches by 4.25 inches.

- In class, the teacher used "quarter plate" to mean a photographic plate measuring 3.25 inches by 4.25....
- They discussed "quarter plate" during the group presentation.

rescue equipment (noun)

Equipment used to rescue passengers in case of emergency.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rescue equipment."
- He looked up "rescue equipment" because he had never seen it before.

rings (noun)

Gymnastic apparatus consisting of a pair of heavy metal circles (usually covered with leather) suspended by ropes; used for gymnastic exercises.

- The rings require a strong upper body.
- She had rings on every finger.

smoke bomb (noun)

A bomb that gives off thick smoke when it explodes; used to make a smoke screen or to mark a position.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smoke bomb."
- Understanding "smoke bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sub-assembly (noun)

A unit assembled separately but designed to fit with other units in a manufactured product.

- The article explained what "sub-assembly" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sub-assembly" to mean a unit assembled separately but designed to fit....

---

surface lift (noun)

A ski tow that pulls skiers up a slope without lifting them off the ground.

- Understanding "surface lift" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "surface lift" means with a simple example.

---

t-bar lift (noun)

A surface lift where riders hold a bar and are pulled up the hill on their skis.

- The article explained what "t-bar lift" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "t-bar lift" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tank suit (noun)

A woman's one-piece bathing suit.

- The article explained what "tank suit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tank suit" during the group presentation.

---

tear away (verb)

Rip off violently and forcefully.

- Learners should practice how to use "tear away" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "tear away" when talking about this idea.

---

wall clock (noun)

A clock mounted on a wall.

- He looked up "wall clock" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wall clock."

---

warning device (noun)

A device that signals the occurrence of some undesirable event.

- He looked up "warning device" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "warning device" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wash-and-wear (noun)

A fabric treated to be easily washable and to require no ironing.

- The article explained what "wash-and-wear" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wash-and-wear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wet fly (noun)

Fisherman's fly that floats under the surface of the water.

- The article explained what "wet fly" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wet fly" to mean fisherman's fly that floats under the surface of....

---

window lock (noun)

A lock attached to the sashes of a double hung window that can fix both in the shut position.

- They discussed "window lock" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "window lock" because he had never seen it before.

---

bang out (verb)

Play loudly.

- They banged out 'The star-spangled banner'.
- The coach explained when to use "bang out" and when to wait.

---

bed sheet (noun)

Bed linen consisting of a large rectangular piece of cotton or linen cloth; used in pairs.

- He looked up "bed sheet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bed sheet."

---

bench press (noun)

A small punch press mounted on a workbench.

- The article explained what "bench press" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bench press" to mean a small punch press mounted on a workbench.

---

blind corner (noun)

A street corner that you cannot see around as you are driving.

- Understanding "blind corner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "blind corner" during the group presentation.

---

bones (noun)

A percussion instrument consisting of a pair of hollow pieces of wood or bone (usually held between the thumb and fingers) that are made to click together (as by Spanish dancers) in rhythm with the dance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bones."
- He looked up "bones" because he had never seen it before.

---

cable television service (noun)

A television system that transmits over cables.

- He looked up "cable television service" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cable television service."

---

cd-r (noun)

A compact disc on which you can write only once and thereafter is read-only memory.

- He looked up "cd-r" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cd-r."

---

church bench (noun)

Long bench with backs; used in church by the congregation.

- They discussed "church bench" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "church bench" because he had never seen it before.

---

component (noun)

An artifact that is one of the individual parts of which a composite entity is made up; especially a part that can be separated from or attached to a system.

- Spare components for cars.
- A component or constituent element of a system.

---

cure (verb)

Make (substances) hard and improve their usability.

- Cure resin.
- Cure cement.

---

cure-all (noun)

Hypothetical remedy for all ills or diseases; once sought by the alchemists.

- The article explained what "cure-all" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cure-all" to mean hypothetical remedy for all ills or diseases; once....

---

dry battery (noun)

A voltaic battery consisting of two or more dry cells.

- Understanding "dry battery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dry battery" to mean a voltaic battery consisting of two or more dry cells.

electrical contact (noun)

Contact that allows current to pass from one conductor to another.

- He looked up "electrical contact" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrical contact."

fifth wheel (noun)

An extra car wheel and tire for a four-wheel vehicle.

- Understanding "fifth wheel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fifth wheel" because he had never seen it before.

fighter (noun)

A high-speed military or naval airplane designed to destroy enemy aircraft in the air.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fighter."
- He looked up "fighter" because he had never seen it before.

fire hook (noun)

Fire iron consisting of a metal rod with a handle; used to stir a fire.

- They discussed "fire hook" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fire hook" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gold medal (noun)

A trophy made of gold (or having the appearance of gold) that is usually awarded for winning first place in a competition.

- The article explained what "gold medal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gold medal" to mean a trophy made of gold (or having the appearance of....

heart monitor (noun)

A piece of electronic equipment for continual observation of the function of the heart.

- Understanding "heart monitor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "heart monitor" to mean a piece of electronic equipment for continual....

indian trail (noun)

A trail through the wilderness worn by Amerindians.

- They discussed "indian trail" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian trail."

jacket (noun)

An outer wrapping or casing.

- Phonograph records were sold in cardboard jackets.
- Understanding "jacket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

landing stage (noun)

Platform from which passengers and cargo can be (un)loaded.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "landing stage."
- The article explained what "landing stage" means with a simple example.

listing (noun)

A database containing an ordered array of items (names or topics).

- In class, the teacher used "listing" to mean a database containing an ordered array of items....
- He looked up "listing" because he had never seen it before.

mechanical man (noun)

An automaton that resembles a human being.

- The article explained what "mechanical man" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mechanical man."

monitor program (noun)

A program that observes and regulates and controls or verifies the operations of a data-processing system.

- Understanding "monitor program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "monitor program" means with a simple example.

---

morning coat (noun)

A man's full-dress jacket with two long tapering tails at the back.

- They discussed "morning coat" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "morning coat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nor-q-d (noun)

Trade name for an oral contraceptive containing norethindrone.

- Understanding "nor-q-d" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "nor-q-d" means with a simple example.

---

nuclear weapon (noun)

A weapon of mass destruction whose explosive power derives from a nuclear reaction.

- In class, the teacher used "nuclear weapon" to mean a weapon of mass destruction whose explosive power....
- They discussed "nuclear weapon" during the group presentation.

---

operating theatre (noun)

A room in a hospital equipped for the performance of surgical operations.

- Great care is taken to keep the operating rooms aseptic.
- He looked up "operating theatre" because he had never seen it before.

---

paper knife (noun)

Dull knife used to cut open the envelopes in which letters are mailed or to slit uncut pages of books.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paper knife."
- He looked up "paper knife" because he had never seen it before.

---

park bench (noun)

A bench in a public park.

- Understanding "park bench" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "park bench" because he had never seen it before.

---

police headquarters (noun)

A station that serves as headquarters for police in a particular district; serves as a place from which policemen are dispatched and to which arrested persons are brought.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "police headquarters."
- The article explained what "police headquarters" means with a simple example.

---

pound (noun)

A public enclosure for stray or unlicensed dogs.

- Unlicensed dogs will be taken to the pound.
- He got a hernia when he tried to lift 100 pounds.

---

railroad (noun)

A line of track providing a runway for wheels.

- He walked along the railroad track.
- In class, the teacher used "railroad" to mean a line of track providing a runway for wheels.

---

shoulder bag (noun)

A large handbag that can be carried by a strap looped over the shoulder.

- In class, the teacher used "shoulder bag" to mean a large handbag that can be carried by a strap....
- Understanding "shoulder bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

steam iron (noun)

A pressing iron that can emit steam.

- Understanding "steam iron" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used “steam iron” to mean a pressing iron that can emit steam.

steel factory (noun)

A factory where steel is made.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “steel factory.”
- He looked up “steel factory” because he had never seen it before.

steel plate (noun)

A plate of steel.

- The article explained what “steel plate” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “steel plate.”

stone facing (noun)

A facing (usually masonry) that supports an embankment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stone facing.”
- Understanding “stone facing” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

storage device (noun)

A device that preserves information for retrieval.

- The article explained what “storage device” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “storage device” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

strike a blow (verb)

Affect adversely.

- The court ruling struck a blow at the old segregation laws.
- Can you use “strike a blow” in a sentence that fits this situation?

table knife (noun)

A knife used for eating at dining table.

- The article explained what “table knife” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “table knife.”

telephone box (noun)

Booth for using a telephone.

- They discussed “telephone box” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “telephone box” means with a simple example.

tissue (verb)

Create a piece of cloth by interlacing strands of fabric, such as wool or cotton.

- Tissue textiles.
- In everyday English, people use “tissue” when talking about this idea.

trailer (noun)

A large transport conveyance designed to be pulled by a truck or tractor.

- They discussed “trailer” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “trailer” means with a simple example.

underground (noun)

An electric railway operating below the surface of the ground (usually in a city).

- In Paris the subway system is called the ‘metro’ and in London it is called the ‘tube’ or the ‘underground’.
- The article explained what “underground” means with a simple example.

university of wisconsin (noun)

A university in Madison, Wisconsin.

- In class, the teacher used “university of wisconsin” to mean a university in madison, wisconsin.
- They discussed “university of wisconsin” during the group presentation.

arsenal (noun)

A military structure where arms and ammunition and other military equipment are stored and training is given in the use of arms.

- He looked up "arsenal" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "arsenal" to mean a military structure where arms and ammunition and....

---

balance wheel (noun)

A wheel that regulates the rate of movement in a machine; especially a wheel oscillating against the hairspring of a timepiece to regulate its beat.

- The article explained what "balance wheel" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "balance wheel" during the group presentation.

---

boards (noun)

The boarding that surrounds an ice hockey rink.

- Most actors love to stride the boards.
- He nailed boards across the windows.

---

button hole (noun)

A hole through which buttons are pushed.

- Understanding "button hole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "button hole" because he had never seen it before.

---

colour television (noun)

A television that transmits images in color.

- In class, the teacher used "colour television" to mean a television that transmits images in color.
- He looked up "colour television" because he had never seen it before.

---

computer architecture (noun)

(computer science) the structure and organization of a computer's hardware or system software.

- The architecture of a computer's system software.
- He looked up "computer architecture" because he had never seen it before.

---

computer virus (noun)

A software program capable of reproducing itself and usually capable of causing great harm to files or other programs on the same computer.

- A true virus cannot spread to another computer without human assistance.
- He looked up "computer virus" because he had never seen it before.

---

credit bureau (noun)

A private firm that maintains consumer credit data files and provides credit information to authorized users for a fee.

- The article explained what "credit bureau" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "credit bureau" to mean a private firm that maintains consumer credit data....

---

delivery truck (noun)

A van suitable for delivering goods or services to customers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "delivery truck."
- He looked up "delivery truck" because he had never seen it before.

---

digital communications technology (noun)

The design and construction of communications technology that transmits information in digital form.

- They discussed "digital communications technology" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "digital communications technology" means with a simple example.

---

electric battery (noun)

A device that produces electricity; may have several primary or secondary cells arranged in parallel or series.

- In class, the teacher used "electric battery" to mean a device that produces electricity; may have....
- They discussed "electric battery" during the group presentation.

---

electric motor (noun)

A motor that converts electricity to mechanical work.

- Understanding “electric motor” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “electric motor.”

---

electronic communication (noun)

Communication by computer.

- He looked up “electronic communication” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “electronic communication” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electronic device (noun)

A device that accomplishes its purpose electronically.

- He looked up “electronic device” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “electronic device.”

---

flash camera (noun)

A camera with a photoflash attachment.

- They discussed “flash camera” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “flash camera” means with a simple example.

---

fuel-air bomb (noun)

A bomb that uses a fuel-air explosive.

- A thermobaric bomb can create overpressures equal to an atomic bomb.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fuel-air bomb.”

---

funeral church (noun)

A mortuary where those who knew the deceased can come to pay their last respects.

- Understanding “funeral church” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “funeral church” means with a simple example.

---

glasses case (noun)

A case for carrying spectacles.

- He looked up “glasses case” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “glasses case.”

---

golf hole (noun)

One playing period (from tee to green) on a golf course.

- He played 18 holes.
- He looked up “golf hole” because he had never seen it before.

---

grave (noun)

A place for the burial of a corpse (especially beneath the ground and marked by a tombstone).

- He put flowers on his mother’s grave.
- He went to his grave without forgiving me.

---

guidance system (noun)

A system of equipment for automatically guiding the path of a vehicle (especially a missile).

- They discussed “guidance system” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “guidance system” because he had never seen it before.

---

input data (noun)

(computer science) a computer file that contains data that serve as input to a device or program.

- In class, the teacher used “input data” to mean (computer science) a computer file that contains....
- He looked up “input data” because he had never seen it before.

---

jazz up (verb)

Make more interesting or lively.

- Learners should practice how to use “jazz up” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “jazz up” until he saw an example.

knee-high (noun)

A sock or stocking that reaches up to just below the knees.

- He looked up "knee-high" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "knee-high."

life jacket (noun)

Life preserver consisting of a sleeveless jacket of buoyant or inflatable design.

- In class, the teacher used "life jacket" to mean life preserver consisting of a sleeveless jacket of....
- The article explained what "life jacket" means with a simple example.

lift bridge (noun)

A bridge that can be raised to block passage or to allow boats or ships to pass beneath it.

- He looked up "lift bridge" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lift bridge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

marine museum (noun)

A tank or pool or bowl filled with water for keeping live fish and underwater animals.

- He looked up "marine museum" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "marine museum" during the group presentation.

mechanical system (noun)

A system of elements that interact on mechanical principles.

- He looked up "mechanical system" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mechanical system."

nursing home (noun)

An institution where people are cared for.

- A home for the elderly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nursing home."

piano (noun)

A keyboard instrument that is played by depressing keys that cause hammers to strike tuned strings and produce sounds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "piano."
- He looked up "piano" because he had never seen it before.

pocket edition (noun)

Pocket-sized paperback book.

- He looked up "pocket edition" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pocket edition" during the group presentation.

rocket (noun)

A jet engine containing its own propellant and driven by reaction propulsion.

- In class, the teacher used "rocket" to mean a jet engine containing its own propellant and....
- They discussed "rocket" during the group presentation.

safety belt (noun)

Belt attaching you to some object as a restraint in order to prevent you from getting hurt.

- The article explained what "safety belt" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "safety belt."

safety rail (noun)

A railing placed alongside a stairway or road for safety.

- He looked up "safety rail" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "safety rail."

shooting gallery (noun)

An enclosed firing range with targets for rifle or handgun practice.

- The article explained what “shooting gallery” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “shooting gallery” to mean an enclosed firing range with targets for rifle or....

---

software engineer (noun)

A person who designs and writes and tests computer programs.

- In class, the teacher used “software engineer” to mean a person who designs and writes and tests computer....
- He looked up “software engineer” because he had never seen it before.

---

stars and bars (noun)

The first flag of the Confederate States of America.

- Understanding “stars and bars” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “stars and bars” during the group presentation.

---

supply chamber (noun)

A mechanical device for holding something and supplying it as needed.

- They discussed “supply chamber” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “supply chamber.”

---

tape machine (noun)

A magnetic recorder using magnetic tape.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tape machine.”
- He looked up “tape machine” because he had never seen it before.

---

tea chest (noun)

Chest for storing or transporting tea.

- They discussed “tea chest” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “tea chest” because he had never seen it before.

---

telephone message (noun)

A message transmitted by telephone.

- The article explained what “telephone message” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “telephone message.”

---

tennis court (noun)

The court on which tennis is played.

- He looked up “tennis court” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “tennis court” during the group presentation.

---

theater light (noun)

Any of various lights used in a theater.

- The article explained what “theater light” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “theater light.”

---

transmission system (noun)

The gears that transmit power from an automobile engine via the driveshaft to the live axle.

- The article explained what “transmission system” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “transmission system” to mean the gears that transmit power from an automobile....

---

tv monitor (noun)

Monitor used in a studio for monitoring the program being broadcast.

- He looked up “tv monitor” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “tv monitor” to mean monitor used in a studio for monitoring the program....

---

updates (verb)

Modernize or bring up to date.

- She tried to use “updates” carefully so everyone would understand.

- In everyday English, people use "updates" when talking about this idea.

---

wet suit (noun)

A close-fitting garment made of a permeable material; worn in cold water (as by skin divers) to retain body heat.

- They discussed "wet suit" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wet suit" because he had never seen it before.

---

yard measure (noun)

A ruler or tape that is three feet long.

- In class, the teacher used "yard measure" to mean a ruler or tape that is three feet long.
- They discussed "yard measure" during the group presentation.

---

applications programme (noun)

A program that gives a computer instructions that provide the user with tools to accomplish a task.

- He has tried several different word processing applications.
- The article explained what "applications programme" means with a simple example.

---

bat (noun)

The club used in playing cricket.

- A cricket bat has a narrow handle and a broad flat end for hitting.
- He was at bat when it happened.

---

cape (noun)

A sleeveless garment like a cloak but shorter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cape."
- They discussed "cape" during the group presentation.

---

cd player (noun)

A stand-alone piece of electronic equipment that either has its own display or attaches to a television set.

- Understanding "cd player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cd player" because he had never seen it before.

---

chicken yard (noun)

An enclosed yard for keeping poultry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chicken yard."
- They discussed "chicken yard" during the group presentation.

---

create from raw material (verb)

Make from scratch.

- In everyday English, people use "create from raw material" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "create from raw material" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cup hook (noun)

Hook (usually on the underside of a shelf) for hanging cups.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cup hook."
- He looked up "cup hook" because he had never seen it before.

---

digital photography (noun)

A photographic method that stores the image digitally for later reproduction.

- The article explained what "digital photography" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "digital photography" to mean a photographic method that stores the image....

---

dog hook (noun)

A stout lever with a sharp spike; used for handling logs.

- They discussed "dog hook" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dog hook."

---

driving belt (noun)

A belt that carries motion from a motor to the machinery.

- He looked up "driving belt" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "driving belt."

---

edit (verb)

Prepare for publication or presentation by correcting, revising, or adapting.

- Edit a book on lexical semantics.
- She edited the letters of the politician so as to omit the most personal passages.

---

edit out (verb)

Cut and assemble the components of.

- Edit film.
- Learners should practice how to use "edit out" in real sentences.

---

enable (verb)

Render capable or able for some task.

- This skill will enable you to find a job on Wall Street.
- The rope enables you to secure yourself when you climb the mountain.

---

false teeth (noun)

A removable denture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "false teeth."
- He looked up "false teeth" because he had never seen it before.

---

fan belt (noun)

A belt driven by the crankshaft that drives a fan that pulls air through the radiator.

- Understanding "fan belt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fan belt" because he had never seen it before.

---

file cabinet (noun)

Office furniture consisting of a container for keeping papers in order.

- He looked up "file cabinet" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "file cabinet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flat cap (noun)

A flat woolen cap with a stiff peak.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flat cap."
- He looked up "flat cap" because he had never seen it before.

---

fly gallery (noun)

A narrow raised platform at the side of a stage in a theater; stagehands can work the ropes controlling equipment in the flies.

- They discussed "fly gallery" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fly gallery" means with a simple example.

---

g-string (noun)

Minimal clothing worn by stripteasers; a narrow strip of fabric that covers the pubic area, passes between the thighs, and is supported by a waistband.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "g-string."
- Understanding "g-string" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gas shell (noun)

(military) bomb consisting of an explosive projectile filled with a toxic gas that is released when the bomb explodes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas shell."
- He looked up "gas shell" because he had never seen it before.

---

gun deck (noun)

Formerly any deck other than the weather deck having cannons from end to end.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gun deck.”
- They discussed “gun deck” during the group presentation.

---

hardware (noun)

Instrumentalities (tools or implements) made of metal.

- In class, the teacher used “hardware” to mean instrumentalities (tools or implements) made of metal.
- The article explained what “hardware” means with a simple example.

---

honey oil (noun)

Street names for ketamine.

- The article explained what “honey oil” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “honey oil” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

house trailer (noun)

A wheeled vehicle that can be pulled by a car or truck and is equipped for occupancy.

- The article explained what “house trailer” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “house trailer” during the group presentation.

---

idiot box (noun)

An electronic device that receives television signals and displays them on a screen.

- He looked up “idiot box” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “idiot box.”

---

input program (noun)

A utility program that organizes the input to a computer.

- Understanding “input program” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “input program” during the group presentation.

---

life mask (noun)

A cast taken from the face of a living person.

- In class, the teacher used “life mask” to mean a cast taken from the face of a living person.
- The article explained what “life mask” means with a simple example.

---

military headquarters (noun)

The military installation from which a commander performs the functions of command.

- The general’s headquarters were a couple of large tents.
- In class, the teacher used “military headquarters” to mean the military installation from which a commander....

---

paper mill (noun)

A mill where paper is manufactured.

- Understanding “paper mill” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “paper mill” means with a simple example.

---

pilot boat (noun)

A boat to carry pilots to and from large ships.

- He looked up “pilot boat” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “pilot boat” during the group presentation.

---

programming language (noun)

(computer science) a language designed for programming computers.

- The article explained what “programming language” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “programming language” during the group presentation.

---

rough-dry (verb)

Dry without smoothing or ironing.

- Rough-dry the laundry.
- He did not know how to use “rough-dry” until he saw an example.

sauce (verb)

Add zest or flavor to, make more interesting.

- Sauce the roast.
- Can you use “sauce” in a sentence that fits this situation?

shield (noun)

A protective covering or structure.

- The article explained what “shield” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “shield” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

signal flag (noun)

A rectangular piece of fabric used as a signalling device.

- In class, the teacher used “signal flag” to mean a rectangular piece of fabric used as a signalling....
- Understanding “signal flag” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

steady down (verb)

Become settled or established and stable in one’s residence or life style.

- He finally settled down.
- Learners should practice how to use “steady down” in real sentences.

support column (noun)

A column that supports a heavy weight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “support column.”
- He looked up “support column” because he had never seen it before.

telephone unit (noun)

A unit of measurement for telephone use.

- He looked up “telephone unit” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “telephone unit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

test tube (noun)

Glass tube closed at one end.

- In class, the teacher used “test tube” to mean glass tube closed at one end.
- He looked up “test tube” because he had never seen it before.

throat (noun)

A passage resembling a throat in shape or function.

- The throat of the vase.
- The throat of a chimney.

toy (noun)

A device regarded as providing amusement.

- Private airplanes are a rich man’s toy.
- A toy stove.

transmission line (noun)

A conductor for transmitting electrical or optical signals or electric power.

- Understanding “transmission line” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “transmission line” means with a simple example.

abandoned ship (noun)

A ship abandoned on the high seas.

- In class, the teacher used “abandoned ship” to mean a ship abandoned on the high seas.
- He looked up “abandoned ship” because he had never seen it before.

article of commerce (noun)

An article that is offered for sale.

- In class, the teacher used "article of commerce" to mean an article that is offered for sale.
- Understanding "article of commerce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

automatic drive (noun)

A transmission that automatically changes the gears according to the speed of the car.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "automatic drive."
- The article explained what "automatic drive" means with a simple example.

---

beef up (verb)

Make strong or stronger.

- In everyday English, people use "beef up" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "beef up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

blue jean (noun)

(usually plural) close-fitting trousers of heavy denim for manual work or casual wear.

- In class, the teacher used "blue jean" to mean (usually plural) close-fitting trousers of heavy....
- Understanding "blue jean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bridge circuit (noun)

A circuit consisting of two branches (4 arms arranged in a diamond configuration) across which a meter is connected.

- He looked up "bridge circuit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bridge circuit."

---

carrier (noun)

A self-propelled wheeled vehicle designed specifically to carry something.

- Refrigerated carriers have revolutionized the grocery business.
- The bonds were transmitted by carrier.

---

cd drive (noun)

A drive that reads a compact disc and that is connected to an audio system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cd drive."
- They discussed "cd drive" during the group presentation.

---

chip away (verb)

Remove or withdraw gradually:.

- These new customs are chipping away at the quality of life.
- The coach explained when to use "chip away" and when to wait.

---

chip away at (verb)

Remove or withdraw gradually:.

- These new customs are chipping away at the quality of life.
- In everyday English, people use "chip away at" when talking about this idea.

---

coat stand (noun)

An upright pole with pegs or hooks on which to hang clothing.

- The article explained what "coat stand" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "coat stand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

colour television system (noun)

A television that transmits images in color.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "colour television system."
- Understanding "colour television system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

corner pocket (noun)

A pocket at the corner of a billiard table.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corner pocket."

- The article explained what “corner pocket” means with a simple example.

designer drug (noun)

A psychoactive drug deliberately synthesized to avoid anti-drug laws; mimics the effects of a banned drug; law was revised in 1986 to ban designer drugs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “designer drug.”
- He looked up “designer drug” because he had never seen it before.

digital clock (noun)

A clock that displays the time of day digitally.

- In class, the teacher used “digital clock” to mean a clock that displays the time of day digitally.
- Understanding “digital clock” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

display panel (noun)

A vertical surface on which information can be displayed to public view.

- He looked up “display panel” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “display panel.”

domain name (noun)

Strings of letters and numbers (separated by periods) that are used to name organizations and computers and addresses on the internet.

- Domain names are organized hierarchically with the more generic parts to the right.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “domain name.”

drag on (verb)

Proceed for an extended period of time.

- The speech dragged on for two hours.
- Can you use “drag on” in a sentence that fits this situation?

drag out (verb)

Proceed for an extended period of time.

- The speech dragged on for two hours.
- The coach explained when to use “drag out” and when to wait.

electrical plant (noun)

Utility that provides electricity.

- The article explained what “electrical plant” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “electrical plant” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

field glasses (noun)

An optical instrument designed for simultaneous use by both eyes.

- In class, the teacher used “field glasses” to mean an optical instrument designed for simultaneous use....
- He looked up “field glasses” because he had never seen it before.

fish knife (noun)

A small table knife with a spatula blade used for eating fish.

- They discussed “fish knife” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “fish knife” to mean a small table knife with a spatula blade used for....

fishing net (noun)

A net that will enclose fish when it is pulled in.

- They discussed “fishing net” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “fishing net” to mean a net that will enclose fish when it is pulled in.

flash memory (noun)

Nonvolatile storage that can be electrically erased and programmed anew.

- They discussed “flash memory” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “flash memory” to mean nonvolatile storage that can be electrically erased....

great seal (noun)

The principal seal of a government, symbolizing authority or sovereignty.

- In class, the teacher used "great seal" to mean the principal seal of a government, symbolizing....
- The article explained what "great seal" means with a simple example.

---

jet (noun)

An airplane powered by one or more jet engines.

- They discussed "jet" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "jet" to mean an airplane powered by one or more jet engines.

---

level crossing (noun)

Intersection of a railway and a road on the same level; barriers close road when trains pass.

- In class, the teacher used "level crossing" to mean intersection of a railway and a road on the same....
- Understanding "level crossing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mall (noun)

A public area set aside as a pedestrian walk.

- They spent their weekends at the local malls.
- Understanding "mall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

monitoring program (noun)

A program that observes and regulates and controls or verifies the operations of a data-processing system.

- Understanding "monitoring program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monitoring program."

---

panel truck (noun)

A van suitable for delivering goods or services to customers.

- The article explained what "panel truck" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "panel truck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

picture tube (noun)

A cathode-ray tube in a television receiver; translates the received signal into a picture on a luminescent screen.

- He looked up "picture tube" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "picture tube."

---

polish up (verb)

Bring to a highly developed, finished, or refined state.

- Polish your social manners.
- The coach explained when to use "polish up" and when to wait.

---

public toilet (noun)

A toilet that is available to the public.

- Understanding "public toilet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "public toilet" means with a simple example.

---

racing boat (noun)

A boat propelled by oarsmen and designed for racing.

- Understanding "racing boat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "racing boat" during the group presentation.

---

railroad line (noun)

Line that is the commercial organization responsible for operating a system of transportation for trains that pull passengers or freight.

- In class, the teacher used "railroad line" to mean line that is the commercial organization....
- He looked up "railroad line" because he had never seen it before.

---

random access memory (noun)

The most common computer memory which can be used by programs to perform necessary tasks while the computer is on; an integrated circuit memory chip allows information to be stored or accessed in any order and all storage locations are equally accessible.

- He looked up “random access memory” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “random access memory” during the group presentation.

---

random-access memory (noun)

The most common computer memory which can be used by programs to perform necessary tasks while the computer is on; an integrated circuit memory chip allows information to be stored or accessed in any order and all storage locations are equally accessible.

- They discussed “random-access memory” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “random-access memory.”

---

shirt button (noun)

A button on a shirt.

- In class, the teacher used “shirt button” to mean a button on a shirt.
- The article explained what “shirt button” means with a simple example.

---

software package (noun)

(computer science) written programs or procedures or rules and associated documentation pertaining to the operation of a computer system and that are stored in read/write memory.

- The market for software is expected to expand.
- The article explained what “software package” means with a simple example.

---

sole (noun)

The underside of footwear or a golf club.

- The article explained what “sole” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “sole” during the group presentation.

---

supporting tower (noun)

A tower that serves to support something.

- He looked up “supporting tower” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “supporting tower.”

---

tables (noun)

A set of data arranged in rows and columns.

- They discussed “tables” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “tables” means with a simple example.

---

tip truck (noun)

Truck whose contents can be emptied without handling; the front end of the platform can be pneumatically raised so that the load is discharged by gravity.

- In class, the teacher used “tip truck” to mean truck whose contents can be emptied without....
- They discussed “tip truck” during the group presentation.

---

tone arm (noun)

Mechanical device consisting of a light balanced arm that carries the cartridge.

- He looked up “tone arm” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tone arm.”

---

universal joint (noun)

Coupling that connects two rotating shafts allowing freedom of movement in all directions.

- In motor vehicles a universal joint allows the driveshaft to move up and down as the vehicle passes over bumps.
- They discussed “universal joint” during the group presentation.

---

universal product code (noun)

Code consisting of a series of vertical bars of variable width that are scanned by a laser; printed on consumer product packages to identify the item for a computer that provides the price and registers inventory information.

- The article explained what “universal product code” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “universal product code” to mean code consisting of a series of vertical bars of....

---

warning bell (noun)

A bell used to sound an alarm.

- They discussed “warning bell” during the group presentation.

- The article explained what “warning bell” means with a simple example.

water jacket (noun)

A container filled with water that surrounds a machine to cool it; especially that surrounding the cylinder block of an engine.

- They discussed “water jacket” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “water jacket” means with a simple example.

air jacket (noun)

An inflatable life jacket.

- Understanding “air jacket” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “air jacket” because he had never seen it before.

alarm (noun)

A clock that wakes a sleeper at some preset time.

- The article explained what “alarm” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “alarm” during the group presentation.

box coat (noun)

A short coat that hangs loosely from the shoulders.

- He looked up “box coat” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “box coat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cant dog (noun)

A stout lever with a sharp spike; used for handling logs.

- In class, the teacher used “cant dog” to mean a stout lever with a sharp spike; used for handling....
- They discussed “cant dog” during the group presentation.

chair lift (noun)

A ski lift on which riders (skiers or sightseers) are seated and carried up or down a mountainside; seats are hung from an endless overhead cable.

- He looked up “chair lift” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “chair lift” to mean a ski lift on which riders (skiers or sightseers)....

chemical bomb (noun)

A bomb laden with chemical agents that are released when the bomb explodes.

- He looked up “chemical bomb” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chemical bomb.”

consumer goods (noun)

Goods (as food or clothing) intended for direct use or consumption.

- Understanding “consumer goods” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “consumer goods” means with a simple example.

cutting tool (noun)

A cutting implement; a tool for cutting.

- Understanding “cutting tool” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “cutting tool” because he had never seen it before.

death mask (noun)

A cast taken from the face of a dead person.

- In class, the teacher used “death mask” to mean a cast taken from the face of a dead person.
- They discussed “death mask” during the group presentation.

double tongue (verb)

Play fast notes on a wind instrument.

- He did not know how to use “double tongue” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “double tongue” when talking about this idea.

electric circuit (noun)

An electrical device that provides a path for electrical current to flow.

- He looked up "electric circuit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric circuit."

---

electric guitar (noun)

A guitar whose sound is amplified by electrical means.

- The article explained what "electric guitar" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric guitar."

---

face mask (noun)

Mask that provides a protective covering for the face in such sports as baseball or football or hockey.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "face mask."
- They discussed "face mask" during the group presentation.

---

file server (noun)

(computer science) a digital computer that provides workstations on a network with controlled access to shared resources.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "file server."
- Understanding "file server" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

formal garden (noun)

A garden laid out on regular lines with plants arranged in symmetrical locations or in geometrical designs.

- Understanding "formal garden" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "formal garden" means with a simple example.

---

gaming card (noun)

One of a set of cards used in gambling games.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gaming card."
- They discussed "gaming card" during the group presentation.

---

gaming table (noun)

A table used for gambling; may be equipped with a gameboard and slots for chips.

- The article explained what "gaming table" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gaming table" to mean a table used for gambling; may be equipped with a....

---

half mask (noun)

A mask covering the upper part of the face but with holes for the eyes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half mask."
- Understanding "half mask" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hook and eye (noun)

A kind of fastener used on clothing.

- They discussed "hook and eye" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "hook and eye" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

horse-trail (noun)

A trail for horses.

- Understanding "horse-trail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "horse-trail" to mean a trail for horses.

---

index register (noun)

(computer science) a register used to determine the address of an operand.

- The article explained what "index register" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "index register."

---

involve (verb)

Make complex or intricate or complicated.

- The situation was rather involved.
- Don't involve me in your family affairs!

---

knight (noun)

A chessman shaped to resemble the head of a horse; can move two squares horizontally and one vertically (or vice versa).

- The article explained what "knight" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "knight" during the group presentation.

---

logo (noun)

A company emblem or device.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "logo."
- He looked up "logo" because he had never seen it before.

---

on-line database (noun)

(computer science) a database that can be accessed by computers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "on-line database."
- He looked up "on-line database" because he had never seen it before.

---

party favour (noun)

Souvenir consisting of a small gift given to a guest at a party.

- The article explained what "party favour" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "party favour" to mean souvenir consisting of a small gift given to a....

---

planet wheel (noun)

An outer gear that revolves about a central sun gear of an epicyclic train.

- The article explained what "planet wheel" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "planet wheel" to mean an outer gear that revolves about a central sun....

---

presence chamber (noun)

Room in which a monarch or other great person receives guests, assemblies, etc.

- They discussed "presence chamber" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "presence chamber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

purple heart (noun)

A long-acting barbiturate used as a sedative.

- He looked up "purple heart" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purple heart."

---

push-button radio (noun)

A radio receiver that can be tuned by pressing buttons.

- He looked up "push-button radio" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "push-button radio."

---

rear window (noun)

Car window that allows vision out of the back of the car.

- In class, the teacher used "rear window" to mean car window that allows vision out of the back of....
- He looked up "rear window" because he had never seen it before.

---

recording studio (noun)

Studio where tapes and records are recorded.

- The article explained what "recording studio" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "recording studio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sand cast (verb)

Pour molten metal into a mold of sand.

- He did not know how to use "sand cast" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "sand cast" and when to wait.

shift register (noun)

(computer science) register in which all bits can be shifted one or more positions to the left or to the right.

- The article explained what "shift register" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "shift register" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

signals (noun)

Any nonverbal action or gesture that encodes a message.

- Signals from the boat suddenly stopped.
- The article explained what "signals" means with a simple example.

slip-on (noun)

An article of clothing (garment or shoe) that is easily slipped on or off.

- He looked up "slip-on" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "slip-on" during the group presentation.

steel guitar (noun)

Guitar whose steel strings are twanged while being pressed with a movable steel bar for a glissando effect.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steel guitar."
- He looked up "steel guitar" because he had never seen it before.

stocks (noun)

A frame that supports a boat while it is under construction.

- The value of his stocks doubled during the past year.
- The article explained what "stocks" means with a simple example.

strip mine (noun)

An open mine (usually for coal) where the seams run close to the surface.

- They discussed "strip mine" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strip mine."

tap (noun)

A faucet for drawing water from a pipe or cask.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tap."
- He looked up "tap" because he had never seen it before.

telephone exchange (noun)

A workplace that serves as a telecommunications facility where lines from telephones can be connected together to permit communication.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone exchange."
- Understanding "telephone exchange" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

telephone interview (noun)

An interview conducted over the telephone.

- They discussed "telephone interview" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "telephone interview" means with a simple example.

theater in the round (noun)

A theater arranged with seats around at least three sides of the stage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theater in the round."
- He looked up "theater in the round" because he had never seen it before.

theater stage (noun)

A stage in a theater on which actors can perform.

- They discussed "theater stage" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "theater stage" to mean a stage in a theater on which actors can perform.

toilet water (noun)

A perfumed liquid lighter than cologne.

- In class, the teacher used "toilet water" to mean a perfumed liquid lighter than cologne.
- The article explained what "toilet water" means with a simple example.

---

wing tip (noun)

A decorative toecap having a point extending toward the throat of the shoe.

- He looked up "wing tip" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "wing tip" to mean a decorative toecap having a point extending toward....

---

yard goods (noun)

Merchandise in the form of fabrics sold by the yard.

- Understanding "yard goods" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "yard goods" because he had never seen it before.

---

air terminal (noun)

A terminal that serves air travelers or air freight.

- Understanding "air terminal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "air terminal" means with a simple example.

---

anti-virus program (noun)

A computer program that checks a computer for viruses and prevents their spread.

- He looked up "anti-virus program" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "anti-virus program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

billy club (noun)

A short stout club used primarily by policemen.

- He looked up "billy club" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "billy club" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

central processing unit (noun)

(computer science) the part of a computer (a microprocessor chip) that does most of the data processing.

- The CPU and the memory form the central part of a computer to which the peripherals are attached.
- Understanding "central processing unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cleaning equipment (noun)

Any of a large class of implements used for cleaning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cleaning equipment."
- They discussed "cleaning equipment" during the group presentation.

---

computer monitor (noun)

A device that displays signals on a computer screen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer monitor."
- The article explained what "computer monitor" means with a simple example.

---

computer programming (noun)

Creating a sequence of instructions to enable the computer to do something.

- He looked up "computer programming" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer programming."

---

cricket equipment (noun)

Sports equipment used in playing cricket.

- They discussed "cricket equipment" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cricket equipment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

depth bomb (noun)

A bomb that explodes at a preset depth under water; antisubmarine device.

- The article explained what "depth bomb" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "depth bomb" to mean a bomb that explodes at a preset depth under water;....

dirty bomb (noun)

An atom bomb that leaves considerable radioactive contamination.

- Understanding "dirty bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dirty bomb" because he had never seen it before.

dumb bomb (noun)

A bomb that falls because of gravity and is not guided to a target.

- Understanding "dumb bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dumb bomb" during the group presentation.

fishing boat (noun)

A vessel for fishing; often has a well to keep the catch alive.

- He looked up "fishing boat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fishing boat."

flat wash (noun)

Ironing that can be done mechanically.

- Understanding "flat wash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "flat wash" to mean ironing that can be done mechanically.

fourth deck (noun)

The fourth or lowest deck.

- They discussed "fourth deck" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fourth deck" to mean the fourth or lowest deck.

gardens (noun)

A plot of ground where plants are cultivated.

- Understanding "gardens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "gardens" to mean a plot of ground where plants are cultivated.

genetic code (noun)

The ordering of nucleotides in DNA molecules that carries the genetic information in living cells.

- Understanding "genetic code" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "genetic code" means with a simple example.

house of worship (noun)

Any building where congregations gather for prayer.

- The article explained what "house of worship" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "house of worship" during the group presentation.

machine translation (noun)

The use of computers to translate from one language to another.

- In class, the teacher used "machine translation" to mean the use of computers to translate from one language....
- The article explained what "machine translation" means with a simple example.

mechanical press (noun)

Any machine that exerts pressure to form or shape or cut materials or extract liquids or compress solids.

- He looked up "mechanical press" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mechanical press."

mental institution (noun)

A hospital for mentally incompetent or unbalanced person.

- The article explained what "mental institution" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mental institution" to mean a hospital for mentally incompetent or unbalanced....

military uniform (noun)

Prescribed identifying uniform for soldiers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military uniform."
- He looked up "military uniform" because he had never seen it before.

---

million instructions per second (noun)

(computer science) a unit for measuring the execution speed of a computer's CPU (but not the whole system).

- 4 MIPS is 4,000,000 instructions per second.
- He looked up "million instructions per second" because he had never seen it before.

---

navy yard (noun)

A military shipyard.

- He looked up "navy yard" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "navy yard."

---

opera (noun)

A building where musical dramas are performed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "opera."
- He looked up "opera" because he had never seen it before.

---

pants suit (noun)

A pair of pants and a matching jacket worn by women.

- The article explained what "pants suit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pants suit" during the group presentation.

---

piece of leather (noun)

A separate part consisting of leather.

- In class, the teacher used "piece of leather" to mean a separate part consisting of leather.
- The article explained what "piece of leather" means with a simple example.

---

pit (noun)

A surface excavation for extracting stone or slate.

- A British term for 'quarry' is 'stone pit'.
- They dug a pit to bury the body.

---

place of worship (noun)

Any building where congregations gather for prayer.

- Understanding "place of worship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "place of worship" because he had never seen it before.

---

pump well (noun)

An enclosure in the middle of a ship's hold that protects the ship's pumps.

- In class, the teacher used "pump well" to mean an enclosure in the middle of a ship's hold that....
- They discussed "pump well" during the group presentation.

---

record jacket (noun)

The jacket for a phonograph record.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "record jacket."
- The article explained what "record jacket" means with a simple example.

---

research laboratory (noun)

A workplace for the conduct of scientific research.

- Understanding "research laboratory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "research laboratory" because he had never seen it before.

---

research rocket (noun)

A rocket fired for test purposes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "research rocket."
- He looked up "research rocket" because he had never seen it before.

---

satellite tv (noun)

A television system in which the signal is transmitted to an orbiting satellite that receives the signal and amplifies it and transmits it back to earth.

- The article explained what "satellite tv" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "satellite tv" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seat belt (noun)

A safety belt used in a car or plane to hold you in your seat in case of an accident.

- Understanding "seat belt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "seat belt" because he had never seen it before.

---

sheet glass (noun)

Glass formed into large thin sheets.

- The article explained what "sheet glass" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sheet glass."

---

spare part (noun)

An extra component of a machine or other apparatus.

- Understanding "spare part" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "spare part" to mean an extra component of a machine or other apparatus.

---

storage tank (noun)

A large (usually metallic) vessel for holding gases or liquids.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "storage tank."
- They discussed "storage tank" during the group presentation.

---

swing door (noun)

A door that swings on a double hinge; opens in either direction.

- In class, the teacher used "swing door" to mean a door that swings on a double hinge; opens in....
- Understanding "swing door" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tanks (noun)

A freight car that transports liquids or gases in bulk.

- They discussed "tanks" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tanks" means with a simple example.

---

telephone jack (noun)

A jack for plugging in a telephone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone jack."
- He looked up "telephone jack" because he had never seen it before.

---

tune up (verb)

Adjust the pitches of (musical instruments).

- My piano needs to be tuned.
- Tune the engine.

---

vessel (noun)

A craft designed for water transportation.

- He looked up "vessel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vessel."

---

weed (noun)

A black band worn by a man (on the arm or hat) as a sign of mourning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weed."
- Understanding "weed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

alarm system (noun)

A device that signals the occurrence of some undesirable event.

- He looked up "alarm system" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "alarm system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

automatic gun (noun)

A firearm that reloads itself and keeps firing until the trigger is released.

- The article explained what "automatic gun" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "automatic gun" to mean a firearm that reloads itself and keeps firing....

belt bag (noun)

A small pouch (usually with a zipper) that attaches to a belt and is worn around the waist.

- The article explained what "belt bag" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "belt bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

borders (noun)

A strip forming the outer edge of something.

- The article explained what "borders" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "borders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

butt end (noun)

Thick end of the handle.

- He looked up "butt end" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "butt end."

center punch (noun)

A tool with a conical point that is used to make indentations in metal (especially to mark points for drilling).

- The article explained what "center punch" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "center punch" during the group presentation.

clark cell (noun)

A form of voltaic cell once used as a standard for electromotive force.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clark cell."
- He looked up "clark cell" because he had never seen it before.

clip-on (noun)

A device (as an earring, sunglasses, microphone etc.) that is attached by clips.

- In class, the teacher used "clip-on" to mean a device (as an earring, sunglasses, microphone....
- Understanding "clip-on" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

coaches (noun)

A vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public transport.

- In class, the teacher used "coaches" to mean a vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public....
- The article explained what "coaches" means with a simple example.

coffee mill (noun)

A mill that grinds roasted coffee beans.

- He looked up "coffee mill" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coffee mill."

combination lock (noun)

Lock that can be opened only by turning dials in a special sequence.

- Understanding "combination lock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "combination lock" means with a simple example.

dark glasses (noun)

Spectacles that are darkened or polarized to protect the eyes from the glare of the sun.

- He looked up "dark glasses" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dark glasses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

disappeared (verb)

Get lost, as without warning or explanation.

- He disappeared without a trace.
- She tried to use "disappeared" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

double standard of sexual behavior (noun)

A code that permits greater sexual freedom for men than for women (associated with the subordination of women).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double standard of sexual behavior."
- Understanding "double standard of sexual behavior" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dust bag (noun)

A bag into which dirt is sucked by a vacuum cleaner.

- He looked up "dust bag" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dust bag."

---

entrance hall (noun)

A large entrance or reception room or area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "entrance hall."
- The article explained what "entrance hall" means with a simple example.

---

escape wheel (noun)

Gear that engages a rocking lever.

- Understanding "escape wheel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "escape wheel" to mean gear that engages a rocking lever.

---

file name extension (noun)

A string of characters beginning with a period and followed by one or more letters; the optional second part of a PC computer filename.

- Most applications provide extensions for the files they create.
- Most BASIC files use the filename extension .BAS.

---

finger hole (noun)

A hole for inserting a finger.

- They discussed "finger hole" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "finger hole" because he had never seen it before.

---

flow chart (noun)

A diagram of the sequence of operations in a computer program or an accounting system.

- In class, the teacher used "flow chart" to mean a diagram of the sequence of operations in a....
- He looked up "flow chart" because he had never seen it before.

---

half sole (noun)

Shoe sole extending from the shank to the toe.

- Understanding "half sole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "half sole" means with a simple example.

---

high-angle gun (noun)

A cannon that can be fired at a high elevation for relatively short ranges.

- He looked up "high-angle gun" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "high-angle gun" to mean a cannon that can be fired at a high elevation for....

---

hockey stick (noun)

Sports implement consisting of a stick used by hockey players to move the puck.

- They discussed "hockey stick" during the group presentation.

- Understanding “hockey stick” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

holding pen (noun)

A pen where livestock is temporarily confined.

- He looked up “holding pen” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “holding pen” during the group presentation.

kit bag (noun)

A knapsack (usually for a soldier).

- He looked up “kit bag” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “kit bag.”

loop-line (noun)

A railway branch line that branches from the trunk line and then rejoins it later on.

- They discussed “loop-line” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “loop-line” because he had never seen it before.

mary jane (noun)

Street names for marijuana.

- They discussed “mary jane” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “mary jane” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

opera house (noun)

A building where musical dramas are performed.

- They discussed “opera house” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “opera house” means with a simple example.

output file (noun)

(computer science) a computer file that contains data that are the output of a device or program.

- The article explained what “output file” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “output file.”

piano action (noun)

Action consisting of a system of levers that move a felt hammer to strike the strings when a key is depressed.

- They discussed “piano action” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “piano action” means with a simple example.

planet gear (noun)

An outer gear that revolves about a central sun gear of an epicyclic train.

- They discussed “planet gear” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “planet gear” because he had never seen it before.

player piano (noun)

A mechanically operated piano that uses a roll of perforated paper to activate the keys.

- Understanding “player piano” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “player piano” to mean a mechanically operated piano that uses a roll of....

pump house (noun)

A house where pumps (e.g. to irrigate) are installed and operated.

- He looked up “pump house” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pump house.”

punch press (noun)

A power driven press used to shape metal parts.

- The article explained what “punch press” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “punch press” to mean a power driven press used to shape metal parts.

red devil (noun)

Barbiturate that is a white odorless slightly bitter powder (trade name Seconal) used as a sodium salt for sedation and to treat convulsions.

- The article explained what "red devil" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "red devil" to mean barbiturate that is a white odorless slightly....

sheet metal (noun)

Sheet of metal formed into a thin plate.

- Understanding "sheet metal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sheet metal" to mean sheet of metal formed into a thin plate.

signal tower (noun)

A building from which signals are sent to control the movements of railway trains.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "signal tower."
- Understanding "signal tower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

space laboratory (noun)

A manned artificial satellite in a fixed orbit designed for scientific research.

- They discussed "space laboratory" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "space laboratory" to mean a manned artificial satellite in a fixed orbit....

space rocket (noun)

A rocket powerful enough to travel into outer space.

- He looked up "space rocket" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "space rocket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sports coat (noun)

Lightweight single-breasted jacket; often striped in the colors of a club or school.

- He looked up "sports coat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sports coat."

stays (noun)

A woman's close-fitting foundation garment.

- In class, the teacher used "stays" to mean a woman's close-fitting foundation garment.
- The article explained what "stays" means with a simple example.

tap house (noun)

A building with a bar that is licensed to sell alcoholic drinks.

- They discussed "tap house" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tap house" means with a simple example.

test rocket (noun)

A rocket fired for test purposes.

- In class, the teacher used "test rocket" to mean a rocket fired for test purposes.
- They discussed "test rocket" during the group presentation.

trailer park (noun)

A camp where space for house trailers can be rented; utilities are generally provided.

- They discussed "trailer park" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "trailer park" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

trap door (noun)

A hinged or sliding door in a floor or ceiling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trap door."
- The article explained what "trap door" means with a simple example.

twin bed (noun)

One of a pair of identical beds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “twin bed.”
- Understanding “twin bed” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

visible speech (noun)

A phonetic alphabet invented by Melville Bell in the 19th century.

- He looked up “visible speech” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “visible speech” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

water butt (noun)

A butt set on end to contain water especially to store rainwater.

- In class, the teacher used “water butt” to mean a butt set on end to contain water especially to....
- The article explained what “water butt” means with a simple example.

---

water filter (noun)

A filter to remove impurities from the water supply.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water filter.”
- He looked up “water filter” because he had never seen it before.

---

water pump (noun)

The pump in the cooling system of an automobile that cause the water to circulate.

- The article explained what “water pump” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “water pump” to mean the pump in the cooling system of an automobile....

---

water tap (noun)

A faucet for drawing water from a pipe or cask.

- He looked up “water tap” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “water tap” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

accounting data (noun)

All the data (ledgers and journals and spreadsheets) that support a financial statement; can be hard copy or machine readable.

- The article explained what “accounting data” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “accounting data” to mean all the data (ledgers and journals and....

---

air filter (noun)

A filter that removes dust from the air that passes through it.

- He looked up “air filter” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “air filter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air pump (noun)

A pump that moves air in or out of something.

- In class, the teacher used “air pump” to mean a pump that moves air in or out of something.
- They discussed “air pump” during the group presentation.

---

bath chair (noun)

A wheelchair usually pushed by an attendant, as at a spa.

- In class, the teacher used “bath chair” to mean a wheelchair usually pushed by an attendant, as at....
- The article explained what “bath chair” means with a simple example.

---

bed jacket (noun)

A lightweight jacket worn over bedclothes (as when sitting in bed).

- The article explained what “bed jacket” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bed jacket.”

---

boats (noun)

A dish (often boat-shaped) for serving gravy or sauce.

- The article explained what “boats” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “boats.”

boom box (noun)

A portable stereo.

- He looked up "boom box" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boom box."

break seal (noun)

A seal that must be broken when first used and cannot easily be resealed.

- It was stored in a tube with a break seal.
- He looked up "break seal" because he had never seen it before.

bridge deck (noun)

An upper deck where a ship is steered and the captain stands.

- He looked up "bridge deck" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bridge deck."

chemical weapon (noun)

Chemical substances that can be delivered using munitions and dispersal devices to cause death or severe harm to people and animals and plants.

- He looked up "chemical weapon" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chemical weapon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

color tube (noun)

A television tube that displays images in full color.

- They discussed "color tube" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "color tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

data-storage medium (noun)

A medium for storing information.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "data-storage medium."
- He looked up "data-storage medium" because he had never seen it before.

defensive structure (noun)

A structure used to defend against attack.

- Understanding "defensive structure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "defensive structure" because he had never seen it before.

dog pound (noun)

A public enclosure for stray or unlicensed dogs.

- Unlicensed dogs will be taken to the pound.
- Understanding "dog pound" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dvd (noun)

A digital recording (as of a movie) on an optical disk that can be played on a computer or a television set.

- In class, the teacher used "dvd" to mean a digital recording (as of a movie) on an optical....
- They discussed "dvd" during the group presentation.

electric clock (noun)

A clock using a small electric motor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric clock."
- They discussed "electric clock" during the group presentation.

exhibition hall (noun)

A large hall for holding exhibitions.

- In class, the teacher used "exhibition hall" to mean a large hall for holding exhibitions.
- The article explained what "exhibition hall" means with a simple example.

finger bowl (noun)

Small bowl for rinsing the fingers at table.

- They discussed "finger bowl" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "finger bowl" to mean small bowl for rinsing the fingers at table.

---

finish coat (noun)

The final coating of plaster applied to walls and ceilings.

- We can't paint until they put on the finishing coat.
- He looked up "finish coat" because he had never seen it before.

---

first-aid kit (noun)

Kit consisting of a set of bandages and medicines for giving first aid.

- They discussed "first-aid kit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first-aid kit."

---

garage (noun)

A repair shop where cars and trucks are serviced and repaired.

- The article explained what "garage" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "garage" during the group presentation.

---

half-slip (noun)

Undergarment worn under a skirt.

- Understanding "half-slip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half-slip."

---

hand pump (noun)

A pump worked by hand.

- They discussed "hand pump" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "hand pump" to mean a pump worked by hand.

---

hop garden (noun)

A garden where hops are grown.

- In class, the teacher used "hop garden" to mean a garden where hops are grown.
- The article explained what "hop garden" means with a simple example.

---

jumped (verb)

Pass abruptly from one state or topic to another.

- The muggers jumped the woman in the fur coat.
- Prices jumped overnight.

---

knee piece (noun)

Armor plate that protects the knee.

- The article explained what "knee piece" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "knee piece" to mean armor plate that protects the knee.

---

knee-hi (noun)

A sock or stocking that reaches up to just below the knees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "knee-hi."
- He looked up "knee-hi" because he had never seen it before.

---

pipe (noun)

A tube with a small bowl at one end; used for smoking tobacco.

- He looked up "pipe" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pipe."

---

plain clothes (noun)

Ordinary clothing as distinguished from uniforms, work clothes, clerical garb, etc.

- He looked up "plain clothes" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plain clothes."

---

plastic bomb (noun)

A bomb made of plastic explosive.

- In class, the teacher used "plastic bomb" to mean a bomb made of plastic explosive.
- Understanding "plastic bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

powder (verb)

Make into a powder by breaking up or cause to become dust.

- She powdered her nose.
- The King wears a powdered wig.

---

pump room (noun)

A pump house at a spa where medicinal waters are pumped and where patrons gather.

- The article explained what "pump room" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pump room."

---

railroad bed (noun)

A bed on which railroad track is laid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "railroad bed."
- The article explained what "railroad bed" means with a simple example.

---

rocket range (noun)

A firing range for rocket missiles.

- They discussed "rocket range" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rocket range" means with a simple example.

---

science laboratory (noun)

A workplace for the conduct of scientific research.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "science laboratory."
- They discussed "science laboratory" during the group presentation.

---

secondary storage (noun)

A data storage device that is not the main memory of a computer.

- They discussed "secondary storage" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "secondary storage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

silver medal (noun)

A trophy made of silver (or having the appearance of silver) that is usually awarded for winning second place in a competition.

- Understanding "silver medal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "silver medal" means with a simple example.

---

slide action (noun)

Action mechanism in a modern rifle or shotgun; a back and forward motion of a sliding lever ejects the empty shell case and cocks the firearm and loads a new round.

- They discussed "slide action" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slide action."

---

speaking tube (noun)

A tube for conveying the sound of a voice from one room to another.

- In class, the teacher used "speaking tube" to mean a tube for conveying the sound of a voice from one....
- The article explained what "speaking tube" means with a simple example.

---

spider (noun)

A computer program that prowls the internet looking for publicly accessible resources that can be added to a database; the database can then be searched with a search engine.

- They discussed "spider" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "spider" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

standard transmission (noun)

A transmission that is operated manually with a gear lever and a clutch pedal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "standard transmission."
- He looked up "standard transmission" because he had never seen it before.

---

step rocket (noun)

A rocket having two or more rocket engines (each with its own fuel) that are fired in succession and jettisoned when the fuel is exhausted.

- Understanding "step rocket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "step rocket" because he had never seen it before.

---

telephone conversation (noun)

A conversation over the telephone.

- They discussed "telephone conversation" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "telephone conversation" to mean a conversation over the telephone.

---

toys (noun)

A device regarded as providing amusement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toys."
- He looked up "toys" because he had never seen it before.

---

turn the tables (verb)

Cause a complete reversal of the circumstances.

- The tables are turned now that the Republicans are in power!
- Can you use "turn the tables" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

wheel spoke (noun)

Support consisting of a radial member of a wheel joining the hub to the rim.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wheel spoke."
- Understanding "wheel spoke" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air passage (noun)

A duct that provides ventilation (as in mines).

- Understanding "air passage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "air passage" means with a simple example.

---

bell tower (noun)

A tower that supports or shelters a bell.

- In class, the teacher used "bell tower" to mean a tower that supports or shelters a bell.
- They discussed "bell tower" during the group presentation.

---

emails (verb)

Communicate electronically on the computer.

- He did not know how to use "emails" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "emails" when talking about this idea.

---

external storage (noun)

A data storage device that is not the main memory of a computer.

- In class, the teacher used "external storage" to mean a data storage device that is not the main memory....
- The article explained what "external storage" means with a simple example.

---

finger-painting (noun)

A painting produced by spreading paint with the fingers.

- Understanding "finger-painting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "finger-painting" means with a simple example.

---

fire alarm (noun)

An alarm that is tripped off by fire or smoke.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fire alarm.”
- They discussed “fire alarm” during the group presentation.

---

fixed-combination drug (noun)

Drug containing fixed amounts of two or more ingredients.

- Understanding “fixed-combination drug” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “fixed-combination drug” to mean drug containing fixed amounts of two or more....

---

fly sheet (noun)

Flap consisting of a piece of canvas that can be drawn back to provide entrance to a tent.

- In class, the teacher used “fly sheet” to mean flap consisting of a piece of canvas that can be....
- Understanding “fly sheet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

great seal of the united states (noun)

The seal of the United States government.

- The article explained what “great seal of the united states” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “great seal of the united states” during the group presentation.

---

gym suit (noun)

Clothes prescribed for wear while participating in gymnastic exercise.

- Understanding “gym suit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “gym suit” means with a simple example.

---

hall of residence (noun)

A university dormitory.

- Understanding “hall of residence” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “hall of residence” to mean a university dormitory.

---

harvard (noun)

A university in Massachusetts.

- In class, the teacher used “harvard” to mean a university in massachusetts.
- The article explained what “harvard” means with a simple example.

---

knife edge (noun)

The sharp cutting side of the blade of a knife.

- Understanding “knife edge” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “knife edge” during the group presentation.

---

landing net (noun)

A bag-shaped fishnet on a long handle to take a captured fish from the water.

- In class, the teacher used “landing net” to mean a bag-shaped fishnet on a long handle to take a....
- He looked up “landing net” because he had never seen it before.

---

leg covering (noun)

A garment covering the leg (usually extending from the knee to the ankle).

- They discussed “leg covering” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “leg covering” means with a simple example.

---

liberty ship (noun)

A slow cargo ship built during World War II.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “liberty ship.”
- Understanding “liberty ship” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

light filter (noun)

A transparent filter that reduces the light (or some wavelengths of the light) passing through it.

- Understanding “light filter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “light filter” because he had never seen it before.

main drag (noun)

The main street of a town or city.

- The article explained what "main drag" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "main drag."

pot farm (noun)

A plot of ground where marijuana is grown and harvested (often hidden in a national forest).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pot farm."
- He looked up "pot farm" because he had never seen it before.

pump action (noun)

Action mechanism in a modern rifle or shotgun; a back and forward motion of a sliding lever ejects the empty shell case and cocks the firearm and loads a new round.

- He looked up "pump action" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pump action."

punch card (noun)

A card on which data can be recorded in the form of punched holes.

- In class, the teacher used "punch card" to mean a card on which data can be recorded in the form of....
- The article explained what "punch card" means with a simple example.

railroad track (noun)

A line of track providing a runway for wheels.

- He walked along the railroad track.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "railroad track."

religious residence (noun)

Residence that is a place of religious seclusion (such as a monastery).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "religious residence."
- The article explained what "religious residence" means with a simple example.

residence hall (noun)

A college or university building containing living quarters for students.

- The article explained what "residence hall" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "residence hall" during the group presentation.

robot (noun)

A mechanism that can move automatically.

- He looked up "robot" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robot."

rocket base (noun)

A military base for rocket missiles.

- They discussed "rocket base" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rocket base" because he had never seen it before.

roof peak (noun)

The highest point of a roof.

- They discussed "roof peak" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "roof peak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sheet iron (noun)

Plate iron thinner than tank iron.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sheet iron."
- They discussed "sheet iron" during the group presentation.

sheet web (noun)

An irregular spider web woven in a single plane and looking like flattened hammocks.

- They discussed "sheet web" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sheet web" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shoe (noun)

A restraint provided when the brake linings are moved hydraulically against the brake drum to retard the wheel's rotation.

- They discussed "shoe" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "shoe" because he had never seen it before.

---

sight-sing (verb)

Sing from a score without having seen it before.

- Can you use "sight-sing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "sight-sing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

slip road (noun)

A short road giving access to an expressway.

- In Britain they call an access road a slip road.
- In class, the teacher used "slip road" to mean a short road giving access to an expressway.

---

solar panel (noun)

Electrical device consisting of a large array of connected solar cells.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solar panel."
- He looked up "solar panel" because he had never seen it before.

---

sound bow (noun)

Contact (the part of a bell) against which the clapper strikes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sound bow."
- He looked up "sound bow" because he had never seen it before.

---

sports arena (noun)

A building for indoor sports.

- He looked up "sports arena" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sports arena" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

springs (noun)

A metal elastic device that returns to its shape or position when pushed or pulled or pressed.

- In class, the teacher used "springs" to mean a metal elastic device that returns to its shape or....
- The article explained what "springs" means with a simple example.

---

storage battery (noun)

A voltaic battery that stores electric charge.

- He looked up "storage battery" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "storage battery" to mean a voltaic battery that stores electric charge.

---

take a powder (verb)

Disappear without notifying anyone (idiom).

- In everyday English, people use "take a powder" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "take a powder" in real sentences.

---

tape transport (noun)

A mechanism that transports magnetic tape across the read/write heads of a tape playback/recorder.

- They discussed "tape transport" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tape transport" to mean a mechanism that transports magnetic tape across....

---

terminal figure (noun)

(architecture) a statue or a human bust or an animal carved out of the top of a square pillar; originally used as a boundary marker in ancient Rome.

- He looked up "terminal figure" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "terminal figure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

terry (noun)

A pile fabric (usually cotton) with uncut loops on both sides; used to make bath towels and bath robes.

- Understanding "terry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "terry."

---

throwing stick (noun)

A curved piece of wood; when properly thrown will return to thrower.

- He looked up "throwing stick" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "throwing stick" during the group presentation.

---

toilet table (noun)

Low table with mirror or mirrors where one sits while dressing or applying makeup.

- The article explained what "toilet table" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "toilet table" to mean low table with mirror or mirrors where one sits....

---

tool chest (noun)

A box or chest or cabinet for holding hand tools.

- They discussed "tool chest" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tool chest" to mean a box or chest or cabinet for holding hand tools.

---

trigger off (verb)

Put in motion or move to act.

- Trigger a reaction.
- He did not know how to use "trigger off" until he saw an example.

---

tunnel (noun)

A passageway through or under something, usually underground (especially one for trains or cars).

- The tunnel reduced congestion at that intersection.
- Understanding "tunnel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

upper deck (noun)

A higher deck.

- They discussed "upper deck" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "upper deck" means with a simple example.

---

war vessel (noun)

A government ship that is available for waging war.

- In class, the teacher used "war vessel" to mean a government ship that is available for waging war.
- Understanding "war vessel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

action mechanism (noun)

The operating part that transmits power to a mechanism.

- The piano had a very stiff action.
- They discussed "action mechanism" during the group presentation.

---

ai (noun)

The branch of computer science that deal with writing computer programs that can solve problems creatively.

- Workers in AI hope to imitate or duplicate intelligence in computers and robots.
- He looked up "ai" because he had never seen it before.

---

article of furniture (noun)

Furnishings that make a room or other area ready for occupancy.

- They had too much furniture for the small apartment.
- There was only one piece of furniture in the room.

---

boat deck (noun)

The upper deck on which lifeboats are stored.

- The article explained what "boat deck" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "boat deck" to mean the upper deck on which lifeboats are stored.

---

brush up (verb)

Bring to a highly developed, finished, or refined state.

- He did not know how to use "brush up" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "brush up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

coat of arms (noun)

The official symbols of a family, state, etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coat of arms."
- He looked up "coat of arms" because he had never seen it before.

---

computer database (noun)

(computer science) a database that can be accessed by computers.

- He looked up "computer database" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "computer database" to mean (computer science) a database that can be accessed....

---

computer mouse (noun)

A hand-operated electronic device that controls the coordinates of a cursor on your computer screen as you move it around on a pad; on the bottom of the device is a ball that rolls on the surface of the pad.

- A mouse takes much more room than a trackball.
- In class, the teacher used "computer mouse" to mean a hand-operated electronic device that controls the....

---

database management system (noun)

A software system that facilitates the creation and maintenance and use of an electronic database.

- They discussed "database management system" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "database management system" means with a simple example.

---

deck chair (noun)

A folding chair for use outdoors; a wooden frame supports a length of canvas.

- He looked up "deck chair" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deck chair."

---

ear hole (noun)

A hole (as in a helmet) for sound to reach the ears.

- In class, the teacher used "ear hole" to mean a hole (as in a helmet) for sound to reach the ears.
- They discussed "ear hole" during the group presentation.

---

electrical device (noun)

A device that produces or is powered by electricity.

- In class, the teacher used "electrical device" to mean a device that produces or is powered by electricity.
- The article explained what "electrical device" means with a simple example.

---

eye mask (noun)

A mask covering the upper part of the face but with holes for the eyes.

- The article explained what "eye mask" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "eye mask" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fine-tune (verb)

Improve or perfect by pruning or polishing.

- Fine-tune the engine.
- Can you use "fine-tune" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

force pump (noun)

Pump used to force a liquid up and expel it under pressure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "force pump."
- They discussed "force pump" during the group presentation.

---

french polish (noun)

A varnish for wood consisting of shellac dissolved in alcohol.

- The article explained what "french polish" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french polish."

---

golf cap (noun)

A cap with a bill.

- Understanding "golf cap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "golf cap" because he had never seen it before.

---

hair slide (noun)

A decorative hinged clip that girls and women put in their hair to hold it in place.

- The article explained what "hair slide" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hair slide" to mean a decorative hinged clip that girls and women put....

---

hall of fame (noun)

A building containing trophies honoring famous people.

- They discussed "hall of fame" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "hall of fame" to mean a building containing trophies honoring famous people.

---

healthcare facility (noun)

Building where medicine is practiced.

- In class, the teacher used "healthcare facility" to mean building where medicine is practiced.
- The article explained what "healthcare facility" means with a simple example.

---

laptop (noun)

A portable computer small enough to use in your lap.

- Understanding "laptop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laptop."

---

license plate (noun)

A plate mounted on the front and back of car and bearing the car's registration number.

- The article explained what "license plate" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "license plate" during the group presentation.

---

output device (noun)

Electronic or electromechanical equipment connected to a computer and used to transfer data out of the computer in the form of text, images, sounds, or other media.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "output device."
- He looked up "output device" because he had never seen it before.

---

printing press (noun)

A machine used for printing.

- In class, the teacher used "printing press" to mean a machine used for printing.
- The article explained what "printing press" means with a simple example.

---

pub (noun)

Tavern consisting of a building with a bar and public rooms; often provides light meals.

- The article explained what "pub" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pub."

---

quarters (noun)

Housing available for people to live in.

- He found quarters for his family.
- I visited his bachelor quarters.

radio-controlled aircraft (noun)

An aircraft without a pilot that is operated by remote control.

- In class, the teacher used "radio-controlled aircraft" to mean an aircraft without a pilot that is operated by....
- The article explained what "radio-controlled aircraft" means with a simple example.

rough drawing (noun)

A preliminary sketch of a design or picture.

- The article explained what "rough drawing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rough drawing" to mean a preliminary sketch of a design or picture.

rubber (noun)

A waterproof overshoe that protects shoes from water or snow.

- In class, the teacher used "rubber" to mean a waterproof overshoe that protects shoes from....
- He looked up "rubber" because he had never seen it before.

sports jacket (noun)

Lightweight single-breasted jacket; often striped in the colors of a club or school.

- The article explained what "sports jacket" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sports jacket" to mean lightweight single-breasted jacket; often striped....

swimming pool (noun)

Pool that provides a facility for swimming.

- 'swimming bath' is a British term.
- They discussed "swimming pool" during the group presentation.

t-scope (noun)

Scientific instrument used by psychologists; presents visual stimuli for brief exposures.

- The article explained what "t-scope" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "t-scope" to mean scientific instrument used by psychologists;....

tape measure (noun)

Measuring instrument consisting of a narrow strip (cloth or metal) marked in inches or centimeters and used for measuring lengths.

- The carpenter should have used his tape measure.
- In class, the teacher used "tape measure" to mean measuring instrument consisting of a narrow strip....

television monitor (noun)

Monitor used in a studio for monitoring the program being broadcast.

- Understanding "television monitor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "television monitor" means with a simple example.

toy box (noun)

Chest for storage of toys.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toy box."
- They discussed "toy box" during the group presentation.

utility program (noun)

(computer science) a program designed for general support of the processes of a computer.

- A computer system provides utility programs to perform the tasks needed by most users.
- Understanding "utility program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

water pipe (noun)

An oriental tobacco pipe with a long flexible tube connected to a container where the smoke is cooled by passing through water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water pipe."
- They discussed "water pipe" during the group presentation.

angle iron (noun)

An L-shaped metal bracket.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “angle iron.”
- Understanding “angle iron” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bar mask (noun)

A catcher’s mask with bars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bar mask.”
- They discussed “bar mask” during the group presentation.

---

baseball cap (noun)

A cap with a bill.

- He looked up “baseball cap” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “baseball cap” to mean a cap with a bill.

---

bin (noun)

An identification number consisting of a two-part code assigned to banks and savings associations; the first part shows the location and the second identifies the bank itself.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bin.”
- He looked up “bin” because he had never seen it before.

---

chicken wire (noun)

A galvanized wire network with a hexagonal mesh; used to build fences.

- Understanding “chicken wire” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chicken wire.”

---

clip art (noun)

Ready-made pieces of computerized graphic art that can be used to decorate a document.

- The article explained what “clip art” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “clip art” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

defense laboratory (noun)

A laboratory devoted to research and development for national defense.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “defense laboratory.”
- They discussed “defense laboratory” during the group presentation.

---

delete (verb)

Wipe out digitally or magnetically recorded information.

- Please delete my name from your list.
- In everyday English, people use “delete” when talking about this idea.

---

developers (noun)

Photographic equipment consisting of a chemical solution for developing film.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “developers.”
- Understanding “developers” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

face powder (noun)

Cosmetic powder for the face.

- Understanding “face powder” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “face powder” means with a simple example.

---

flat bench (noun)

A bench on which a weightlifter lies to do exercises.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “flat bench.”
- The article explained what “flat bench” means with a simple example.

---

flow sheet (noun)

A diagram of the sequence of operations in a computer program or an accounting system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “flow sheet.”

- They discussed “flow sheet” during the group presentation.

generate (verb)

Bring into existence.

- The new manager generated a lot of problems.
- The computer bug generated chaos in the office.

hotels (noun)

A building where travelers can pay for lodging and meals and other services.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hotels.”
- He looked up “hotels” because he had never seen it before.

legitimate (verb)

Make (an illegitimate child) legitimate; declare the legitimacy of (someone).

- He did not know how to use “legitimate” until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use “legitimate” and when to wait.

narrow boat (noun)

A long boat that carries freight and is narrow enough to be used in canals.

- The article explained what “narrow boat” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “narrow boat” to mean a long boat that carries freight and is narrow....

oil filter (noun)

A filter that removes impurities from the oil used to lubricate an internal-combustion engine.

- In class, the teacher used “oil filter” to mean a filter that removes impurities from the oil used....
- He looked up “oil filter” because he had never seen it before.

oil pump (noun)

A pump that keeps a supply of oil on moving parts.

- Understanding “oil pump” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “oil pump.”

operating instructions (noun)

A manual usually accompanying a technical device and explaining how to install or operate it.

- In class, the teacher used “operating instructions” to mean a manual usually accompanying a technical device....
- The article explained what “operating instructions” means with a simple example.

outfit (noun)

A set of clothing (with accessories).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “outfit.”
- The article explained what “outfit” means with a simple example.

package bomb (noun)

A thin explosive device inside an envelope or package and detonated when opened.

- In class, the teacher used “package bomb” to mean a thin explosive device inside an envelope or....
- The article explained what “package bomb” means with a simple example.

piece of furniture (noun)

Furnishings that make a room or other area ready for occupancy.

- They had too much furniture for the small apartment.
- There was only one piece of furniture in the room.

powder room (noun)

A woman’s restroom in a public (or semipublic) building.

- In class, the teacher used “powder room” to mean a woman’s restroom in a public (or semipublic) building.
- The article explained what “powder room” means with a simple example.

shirts (noun)

A garment worn on the upper half of the body.

- The article explained what “shirts” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “shirts” to mean a garment worn on the upper half of the body.

---

slave ship (noun)

A ship used to transport slaves from their homes to places of bondage.

- They discussed “slave ship” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “slave ship” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

solar battery (noun)

Electrical device consisting of a large array of connected solar cells.

- Understanding “solar battery” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “solar battery” to mean electrical device consisting of a large array of....

---

spin-dry (verb)

Dry (clothes) by spinning and making use of centrifugal forces.

- Learners should practice how to use “spin-dry” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “spin-dry” and when to wait.

---

steam chest (noun)

The chamber from which steam is distributed to a cylinder.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “steam chest.”
- He looked up “steam chest” because he had never seen it before.

---

suspension system (noun)

A mechanical system of springs or shock absorbers connecting the wheels and axles to the chassis of a wheeled vehicle.

- Understanding “suspension system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “suspension system” to mean a mechanical system of springs or shock absorbers....

---

sword stick (noun)

A cane concealing a sword or dagger.

- They discussed “sword stick” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “sword stick” to mean a cane concealing a sword or dagger.

---

television tube (noun)

A cathode-ray tube in a television receiver; translates the received signal into a picture on a luminescent screen.

- In class, the teacher used “television tube” to mean a cathode-ray tube in a television receiver;....
- The article explained what “television tube” means with a simple example.

---

tool cabinet (noun)

A box or chest or cabinet for holding hand tools.

- He looked up “tool cabinet” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “tool cabinet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

auto factory (noun)

A factory where automobiles are manufactured.

- The article explained what “auto factory” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “auto factory” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

baby powder (noun)

Powder used to prevent a baby’s diaper from chafing.

- They discussed “baby powder” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “baby powder” to mean powder used to prevent a baby’s diaper from chafing.

---

boat hook (noun)

Pole-handled hook used to pull or push boats.

- They discussed "boat hook" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "boat hook" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cleaning device (noun)

Any of a large class of implements used for cleaning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cleaning device."
- They discussed "cleaning device" during the group presentation.

---

clip lead (noun)

A short piece of wire with alligator clips on both ends.

- He looked up "clip lead" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "clip lead" to mean a short piece of wire with alligator clips on both ends.

---

color tv tube (noun)

A television tube that displays images in full color.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "color tv tube."
- He looked up "color tv tube" because he had never seen it before.

---

computer hardware (noun)

(computer science) the mechanical, magnetic, electronic, and electrical components making up a computer system.

- They discussed "computer hardware" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "computer hardware" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cover slip (noun)

A small and very thin piece of glass used to cover the specimen on a microscope slide.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cover slip."
- He looked up "cover slip" because he had never seen it before.

---

data conversion (noun)

Conversion from one way of encoding data to another way.

- In class, the teacher used "data conversion" to mean conversion from one way of encoding data to another way.
- The article explained what "data conversion" means with a simple example.

---

double bass (noun)

Largest and lowest member of the violin family.

- In class, the teacher used "double bass" to mean largest and lowest member of the violin family.
- He looked up "double bass" because he had never seen it before.

---

fancy dress (noun)

A costume worn as a disguise at a masquerade party.

- Understanding "fancy dress" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fancy dress."

---

fence (noun)

A barrier that serves to enclose an area.

- The article explained what "fence" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fighters (noun)

A high-speed military or naval airplane designed to destroy enemy aircraft in the air.

- Understanding "fighters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fighters" to mean a high-speed military or naval airplane designed to....

---

filter bed (noun)

Filter consisting of a layer of sand or gravel for filtering water.

- They discussed "filter bed" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "filter bed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

finger plate (noun)

A flat protective covering (on a door or wall etc) to prevent soiling by dirty fingers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "finger plate."
- Understanding "finger plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

firing range (noun)

A practice range for target practice.

- Understanding "firing range" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firing range."

forming (verb)

Make something, usually for a specific function.

- The coach explained when to use "forming" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "forming" carefully so everyone would understand.

gas jet (noun)

Burner such that combustible gas issues from a nozzle to form a steady flame.

- He looked up "gas jet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas jet."

gas pump (noun)

A pump in a service station that draws gasoline from underground storage tanks.

- They discussed "gas pump" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "gas pump" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grand piano (noun)

A piano with the strings on a horizontal harp-shaped frame; usually supported by three legs.

- They discussed "grand piano" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "grand piano" because he had never seen it before.

harvard university (noun)

A university in Massachusetts.

- Understanding "harvard university" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "harvard university" means with a simple example.

hung (verb)

Decorate or furnish with something suspended.

- The flag hung on the wall.
- She hung on his every word.

imperial (noun)

A piece of luggage carried on top of a coach.

- They discussed "imperial" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "imperial" because he had never seen it before.

medical instrument (noun)

Instrument used in the practice of medicine.

- He looked up "medical instrument" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "medical instrument" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pin table (noun)

Game equipment on which pinball is played.

- In Britain they call a pinball machine a pin table.
- The article explained what "pin table" means with a simple example.

powder and shot (noun)

Ammunition consisting of gunpowder and bullets for muskets.

- He looked up "powder and shot" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "powder and shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

railway yard (noun)

An area having a network of railway tracks and sidings for storage and maintenance of cars and engines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "railway yard."
- He looked up "railway yard" because he had never seen it before.

---

sand painting (noun)

A painting done by Amerindians (especially Navaho); made of fine colored sands on a neutral background.

- He looked up "sand painting" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sand painting" to mean a painting done by amerindians (especially navaho);....

---

slide rule (noun)

Analog computer consisting of a handheld instrument used for rapid calculations; have been replaced by pocket calculators.

- They discussed "slide rule" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "slide rule" because he had never seen it before.

---

slip of paper (noun)

A small sheet of paper.

- A receipt slip.
- They discussed "slip of paper" during the group presentation.

---

split rail (noun)

A rail that is split from a log.

- He looked up "split rail" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "split rail" to mean a rail that is split from a log.

---

steel mill (noun)

A factory where steel is made.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steel mill."
- He looked up "steel mill" because he had never seen it before.

---

stole (noun)

A wide scarf worn about their shoulders by women.

- They discussed "stole" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "stole" because he had never seen it before.

---

straight pin (noun)

Pin consisting of a short straight stiff piece of wire with a pointed end; used to fasten pieces of cloth or paper together.

- They discussed "straight pin" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "straight pin."

---

sugar shell (noun)

A spoon for serving sugar; often made in the shape of a seashell.

- He looked up "sugar shell" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sugar shell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tank circuit (noun)

An oscillatory circuit.

- They discussed "tank circuit" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tank circuit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tennis camp (noun)

A camp where tennis is taught.

- Understanding "tennis camp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tennis camp."

---

wash drawing (noun)

A watercolor made by applying a series of monochrome washes one over the other.

- The article explained what "wash drawing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wash drawing" during the group presentation.

---

air force research laboratory (noun)

A United States Air Force defense laboratory responsible for discovering and developing and integrating fighting technologies for aerospace forces.

- The article explained what "air force research laboratory" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "air force research laboratory" to mean a united states air force defense laboratory....

---

alpha test (noun)

(computer science) a first test of an experimental product (such as computer software) carried out by the developer.

- Understanding "alpha test" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "alpha test" means with a simple example.

---

anti-personnel bomb (noun)

A bomb with only 10 to 20 per cent explosive and the remainder consisting of casings designed to break into many small high-velocity fragments; most effective against troops and vehicles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anti-personnel bomb."
- He looked up "anti-personnel bomb" because he had never seen it before.

---

artificial heart (noun)

A pump that replaces the natural heart.

- He looked up "artificial heart" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "artificial heart" to mean a pump that replaces the natural heart.

---

baby shoe (noun)

A shoe designed to be worn by infants.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baby shoe."
- The article explained what "baby shoe" means with a simple example.

---

bronze (verb)

Give the color and appearance of bronze to something.

- Bronze baby shoes.
- She tried to use "bronze" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bug (noun)

A small hidden microphone; for listening secretly.

- In class, the teacher used "bug" to mean a small hidden microphone; for listening secretly.
- They discussed "bug" during the group presentation.

---

cable railway (noun)

A railway up the side of a mountain pulled by a moving cable and having counterbalancing ascending and descending cars.

- In class, the teacher used "cable railway" to mean a railway up the side of a mountain pulled by a....
- The article explained what "cable railway" means with a simple example.

---

change integrity (verb)

Change in physical make-up.

- He did not know how to use "change integrity" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "change integrity" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

closed loop (noun)

A control system with a feedback loop that is active.

- He looked up "closed loop" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "closed loop."

---

closed-circuit television (noun)

A television system that is not used for broadcasting but is connected by cables to designated monitors (as in a factory or theater).

- In class, the teacher used "closed-circuit television" to mean a television system that is not used for....
- The article explained what "closed-circuit television" means with a simple example.

---

coat of mail (noun)

Armor that protects the wearer's whole body.

- The article explained what "coat of mail" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "coat of mail" to mean armor that protects the wearer's whole body.

---

cooper union (noun)

University founded in 1859 by Peter Cooper to offer free courses in the arts and sciences.

- The article explained what "cooper union" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cooper union" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

copper mine (noun)

A mine where copper is dug from the ground.

- Understanding "copper mine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "copper mine."

---

developer (noun)

Photographic equipment consisting of a chemical solution for developing film.

- In class, the teacher used "developer" to mean photographic equipment consisting of a chemical....
- The article explained what "developer" means with a simple example.

---

dose (noun)

A measured portion of medicine taken at any one time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dose."
- The article explained what "dose" means with a simple example.

---

dress blues (noun)

A dress uniform for formal occasions.

- In class, the teacher used "dress blues" to mean a dress uniform for formal occasions.
- The article explained what "dress blues" means with a simple example.

---

electrical switch (noun)

Control consisting of a mechanical or electrical or electronic device for making or breaking or changing the connections in a circuit.

- He looked up "electrical switch" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrical switch."

---

emergency exit (noun)

A stairway (often on the outside of a building) that permits exit in the case of fire or other emergency.

- They discussed "emergency exit" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "emergency exit" to mean a stairway (often on the outside of a building)....

---

fan-jet (noun)

An airplane propelled by a fanjet engine.

- They discussed "fan-jet" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fan-jet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

finger paint (noun)

Paint that has the consistency of jelly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "finger paint."
- The article explained what "finger paint" means with a simple example.

---

finger-paint (verb)

Apply colors with one's fingers.

- She tried to use “finger-paint” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “finger-paint” in real sentences.

---

flat coat (noun)

The first or preliminary coat of paint or size applied to a surface.

- Understanding “flat coat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “flat coat” means with a simple example.

---

grade crossing (noun)

Intersection of a railway and a road on the same level; barriers close road when trains pass.

- The article explained what “grade crossing” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “grade crossing” to mean intersection of a railway and a road on the same....

---

high-pass filter (noun)

A filter that passes frequencies above a certain value and attenuates frequencies below that value.

- In class, the teacher used “high-pass filter” to mean a filter that passes frequencies above a certain....
- They discussed “high-pass filter” during the group presentation.

---

hip roof (noun)

A roof having sloping ends as well as sloping sides.

- They discussed “hip roof” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “hip roof” because he had never seen it before.

---

implement (verb)

Pursue to a conclusion or bring to a successful issue.

- He implemented a new economic plan.
- Implement a procedure.

---

input file (noun)

(computer science) a computer file that contains data that serve as input to a device or program.

- In class, the teacher used “input file” to mean (computer science) a computer file that contains....
- They discussed “input file” during the group presentation.

---

laser (noun)

An acronym for light amplification by stimulated emission of radiation; an optical device that produces an intense monochromatic beam of coherent light.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “laser.”
- He looked up “laser” because he had never seen it before.

---

living quarters (noun)

Housing available for people to live in.

- He found quarters for his family.
- I visited his bachelor quarters.

---

nail down (verb)

Make final; put the last touches on; put into final form.

- He nailed down a spot at Harvard.
- I cannot narrow down the rules for this game.

---

operating theater (noun)

A room in a hospital equipped for the performance of surgical operations.

- Great care is taken to keep the operating rooms aseptic.
- He looked up “operating theater” because he had never seen it before.

---

paper clip (noun)

A wire or plastic clip for holding sheets of paper together.

- The paper clip was invented in 1900.
- Understanding “paper clip” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

patch up (verb)

Mend by putting a patch on.

- Patch a hole.
- In everyday English, people use "patch up" when talking about this idea.

precious stone (noun)

A precious or semiprecious stone incorporated into a piece of jewelry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "precious stone."
- They discussed "precious stone" during the group presentation.

radar (noun)

Measuring instrument in which the echo of a pulse of microwave radiation is used to detect and locate distant objects.

- In class, the teacher used "radar" to mean measuring instrument in which the echo of a pulse....
- He looked up "radar" because he had never seen it before.

reception room (noun)

A room for receiving and entertaining visitors (as in a private house or hotel).

- In class, the teacher used "reception room" to mean a room for receiving and entertaining visitors (as....
- The article explained what "reception room" means with a simple example.

rocket engine (noun)

A jet engine containing its own propellant and driven by reaction propulsion.

- Understanding "rocket engine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rocket engine" to mean a jet engine containing its own propellant and....

running shoe (noun)

A light comfortable shoe designed for running.

- Understanding "running shoe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "running shoe" during the group presentation.

safety pin (noun)

A pin in the form of a clasp; has a guard so the point of the pin will not stick the user.

- The article explained what "safety pin" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "safety pin" to mean a pin in the form of a clasp; has a guard so the....

satellite television (noun)

A television system in which the signal is transmitted to an orbiting satellite that receives the signal and amplifies it and transmits it back to earth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "satellite television."
- They discussed "satellite television" during the group presentation.

screw key (noun)

A wrench for turning a screw.

- The article explained what "screw key" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "screw key" to mean a wrench for turning a screw.

shower cap (noun)

A tight cap worn to keep hair dry while showering.

- Understanding "shower cap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "shower cap" because he had never seen it before.

slip coach (noun)

A railway car at the end of the train; it can be detached without stopping the train.

- He looked up "slip coach" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "slip coach" to mean a railway car at the end of the train; it can be....

table-tennis table (noun)

A table used for playing table tennis.

- He looked up "table-tennis table" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "table-tennis table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trucks (noun)

An automotive vehicle suitable for hauling.

- Understanding "trucks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "trucks" means with a simple example.

---

vessels (noun)

A craft designed for water transportation.

- They discussed "vessels" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "vessels" to mean a craft designed for water transportation.

---

virtual memory (noun)

(computer science) memory created by using the hard disk to simulate additional random-access memory; the addressable storage space available to the user of a computer system in which virtual addresses are mapped into real addresses.

- Understanding "virtual memory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "virtual memory" during the group presentation.

---

websites (noun)

A computer connected to the internet that maintains a series of web pages on the World Wide Web.

- In class, the teacher used "websites" to mean a computer connected to the internet that maintains....
- Understanding "websites" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wheel lock (noun)

An obsolete gunlock using flint and a revolving wheel.

- In class, the teacher used "wheel lock" to mean an obsolete gunlock using flint and a revolving wheel.
- Understanding "wheel lock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wireless (noun)

A communication system based on broadcasting electromagnetic waves.

- Understanding "wireless" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wireless" means with a simple example.

---

adopt (verb)

Take on a certain form, attribute, or aspect.

- He adopted an air of superiority.
- They adopted two children from Nicaragua.

---

airlines (noun)

A commercial enterprise that provides scheduled flights for passengers.

- The article explained what "airlines" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "airlines" during the group presentation.

---

albums (noun)

A book of blank pages with pockets or envelopes; for organizing photographs or stamp collections etc.

- Understanding "albums" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "albums" because he had never seen it before.

---

audio recording (noun)

A recording of acoustic signals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "audio recording."
- They discussed "audio recording" during the group presentation.

---

backup system (noun)

A computer system for making backups.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "backup system."

- They discussed "backup system" during the group presentation.

bell deck (noun)

A floor under the bells of an open belfry.

- Understanding "bell deck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bell deck" because he had never seen it before.

blade (noun)

The part of the skate that slides on the ice.

- Gay young blades bragged of their amorous adventures.
- A blade of lint on his suit.

bottles (noun)

A vessel fitted with a flexible teat and filled with milk or formula; used as a substitute for breast feeding infants and very young children.

- The article explained what "bottles" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bottles" during the group presentation.

breathing machine (noun)

A device that facilitates breathing in cases of respiratory failure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breathing machine."
- He looked up "breathing machine" because he had never seen it before.

cargo (noun)

Goods carried by a large vehicle.

- Understanding "cargo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cargo" because he had never seen it before.

clark standard cell (noun)

A form of voltaic cell once used as a standard for electromotive force.

- In class, the teacher used "clark standard cell" to mean a form of voltaic cell once used as a standard for....
- The article explained what "clark standard cell" means with a simple example.

cruise control (noun)

Control mechanism for keeping an automobile at a set speed.

- In class, the teacher used "cruise control" to mean control mechanism for keeping an automobile at a....
- He looked up "cruise control" because he had never seen it before.

dress uniform (noun)

A military uniform worn on formal occasions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dress uniform."
- He looked up "dress uniform" because he had never seen it before.

efficiency apartment (noun)

A furnished apartment with a kitchenette and bathroom.

- The article explained what "efficiency apartment" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "efficiency apartment" to mean a furnished apartment with a kitchenette and bathroom.

electronics (noun)

The branch of physics that deals with the emission and effects of electrons and with the use of electronic devices.

- The article explained what "electronics" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "electronics" to mean the branch of physics that deals with the emission....

engagement ring (noun)

A ring given and worn as a sign of betrothal.

- The article explained what "engagement ring" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "engagement ring" during the group presentation.

graphic art (noun)

The arts of drawing or painting or printmaking.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "graphic art."
- He looked up "graphic art" because he had never seen it before.

---

graphics (noun)

The drawings and photographs in the layout of a book.

- The article explained what "graphics" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "graphics" to mean the drawings and photographs in the layout of a book.

---

hair trigger (noun)

A gun trigger that responds with little pressure.

- Understanding "hair trigger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "hair trigger" means with a simple example.

---

heat shield (noun)

A protective covering that protects a spacecraft from overheating on reentry.

- The article explained what "heat shield" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "heat shield" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lock chamber (noun)

Enclosure consisting of a section of canal that can be closed to control the water level; used to raise or lower vessels that pass through it.

- The article explained what "lock chamber" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lock chamber" to mean enclosure consisting of a section of canal that can....

---

lock-gate (noun)

A gate that can be locked.

- They discussed "lock-gate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lock-gate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

memory chip (noun)

A RAM microchip that can be plugged into a computer to provide additional memory.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "memory chip."
- The article explained what "memory chip" means with a simple example.

---

mess kit (noun)

Kit containing a metal dish and eating utensils; used by soldiers and campers.

- Understanding "mess kit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mess kit" to mean kit containing a metal dish and eating utensils;....

---

mouth bow (noun)

A small lyre-shaped musical instrument that is placed between the teeth and played by twanging a wire tongue while changing the shape of the mouth cavity.

- They discussed "mouth bow" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mouth bow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pilot chart (noun)

A chart for a navigator showing the prevailing meteorological and hydrographic and navigational conditions.

- He looked up "pilot chart" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pilot chart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

printing machine (noun)

A machine that prints.

- In class, the teacher used "printing machine" to mean a machine that prints.
- He looked up "printing machine" because he had never seen it before.

---

produces (verb)

Create or manufacture a man-made product.

- This procedure produces a curious effect.
- The Bordeaux region produces great red wines.

---

punch bag (noun)

An inflated ball or bag that is suspended and punched for training in boxing.

- Understanding "punch bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "punch bag" during the group presentation.

---

receives (verb)

Receive a specified treatment (abstract).

- She tried to use "receives" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "receives" and when to wait.

---

routes (noun)

An open way (generally public) for travel or transportation.

- Understanding "routes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "routes" because he had never seen it before.

---

snap line (noun)

A chalked string used in the building trades to make a straight line on a vertical surface.

- Understanding "snap line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "snap line" to mean a chalked string used in the building trades to....

---

telephone bell (noun)

Electric bell that rings to signal a call.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone bell."
- Understanding "telephone bell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

the boot (noun)

An instrument of torture that is used to heat or crush the foot and leg.

- The article explained what "the boot" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "the boot" to mean an instrument of torture that is used to heat or....

---

toilet seat (noun)

The hinged seat on a toilet.

- Understanding "toilet seat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "toilet seat" means with a simple example.

---

trail bike (noun)

A lightweight motorcycle equipped with rugged tires and suspension; an off-road motorcycle designed for riding cross country or over unpaved ground.

- They discussed "trail bike" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "trail bike" to mean a lightweight motorcycle equipped with rugged tires....

---

trailer camp (noun)

A camp where space for house trailers can be rented; utilities are generally provided.

- He looked up "trailer camp" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "trailer camp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

twist bit (noun)

A bit or drill having deep helical grooves.

- He looked up "twist bit" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "twist bit" to mean a bit or drill having deep helical grooves.

---

wooden horse (noun)

A large hollow wooden figure of a horse (filled with Greek soldiers) left by the Greeks outside Troy during the Trojan War.

- They discussed "wooden horse" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wooden horse."

arc light (noun)

A lamp that produces light when electric current flows across the gap between two electrodes.

- Understanding "arc light" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "arc light" means with a simple example.

assault and battery (noun)

An assault in which the assailant makes physical contact.

- The article explained what "assault and battery" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "assault and battery" to mean an assault in which the assailant makes physical....

auction block (noun)

A platform from which an auctioneer sells.

- They put their paintings on the block.
- Understanding "auction block" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

baby grand piano (noun)

A small grand piano.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baby grand piano."
- The article explained what "baby grand piano" means with a simple example.

baseball diamond (noun)

The area of a baseball field that is enclosed by 3 bases and home plate.

- Understanding "baseball diamond" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baseball diamond."

basement (noun)

The ground floor facade or interior in Renaissance architecture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basement."
- The article explained what "basement" means with a simple example.

bases (noun)

A place that the runner must touch before scoring.

- The attack wiped out our forward bases.
- Bases include oxides and hydroxides of metals and ammonia.

battery acid (noun)

Dilute sulfuric acid used in storage batteries.

- Understanding "battery acid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battery acid."

battery-acid (noun)

Street name for lysergic acid diethylamide.

- The article explained what "battery-acid" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "battery-acid" to mean street name for lysergic acid diethylamide.

bow window (noun)

A window that sticks out from the outside wall of a house.

- He looked up "bow window" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bow window" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cancel out (verb)

Wipe out the effect of something.

- The new tax effectively cancels out my raise.
- The 'A' will cancel out the 'C' on your record.

ceiling (noun)

The overhead upper surface of a covered space.

- He hated painting the ceiling.
- He put a ceiling on the number of women who worked for him.

---

closed-loop system (noun)

A control system with a feedback loop that is active.

- In class, the teacher used "closed-loop system" to mean a control system with a feedback loop that is active.
- Understanding "closed-loop system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

codes (verb)

Harass with persistent criticism or carping.

- The coach explained when to use "codes" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "codes" until he saw an example.

---

coffee filter (noun)

Filter (usually of paper) that passes the coffee and retains the coffee grounds.

- He looked up "coffee filter" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "coffee filter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

compound (verb)

Make more intense, stronger, or more marked; ,.

- Compound the ingredients.
- He did not know how to use "compound" until he saw an example.

---

computer menu (noun)

(computer science) a list of options available to a computer user.

- He looked up "computer menu" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer menu."

---

costume (noun)

The attire worn in a play or at a fancy dress ball.

- He won the prize for best costume.
- In spite of the heat he insisted on his woolen costume.

---

deleted (verb)

Wipe out digitally or magnetically recorded information.

- Can you use "deleted" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "deleted" when talking about this idea.

---

deposit box (noun)

A fireproof metal strongbox (usually in a bank) for storing valuables.

- They discussed "deposit box" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "deposit box" because he had never seen it before.

---

divided highway (noun)

A highway divided down the middle by a barrier that separates traffic going in different directions.

- In Britain they call a divided highway a dual carriageway.
- Understanding "divided highway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drawing string (noun)

A tie consisting of a cord that goes through a seam around an opening.

- He pulled the drawstring and closed the bag.
- The article explained what "drawing string" means with a simple example.

---

drop-down menu (noun)

A menu of options that appears below the item when the computer user clicks on it.

- They discussed "drop-down menu" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “drop-down menu” because he had never seen it before.

---

electrical cable (noun)

A cable that provides an electrical connection for telephone or television or power stations.

- They discussed “electrical cable” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “electrical cable” to mean a cable that provides an electrical connection for....

---

folk art (noun)

Genre of art of unknown origin that reflects traditional values of a society.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “folk art.”
- The article explained what “folk art” means with a simple example.

---

forty-five (noun)

A .45-caliber pistol.

- The article explained what “forty-five” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “forty-five” during the group presentation.

---

full metal jacket (noun)

A lead bullet that is covered with a jacket of a harder metal (usually copper).

- In class, the teacher used “full metal jacket” to mean a lead bullet that is covered with a jacket of a....
- The article explained what “full metal jacket” means with a simple example.

---

garbage (noun)

A receptacle where waste can be discarded.

- She tossed the moldy bread into the garbage.
- They discussed “garbage” during the group presentation.

---

garbage can (noun)

A bin that holds rubbish until it is collected.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “garbage can.”
- Understanding “garbage can” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gear wheel (noun)

A toothed wheel that engages another toothed mechanism in order to change the speed or direction of transmitted motion.

- Understanding “gear wheel” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “gear wheel” to mean a toothed wheel that engages another toothed....

---

glory hole (noun)

A small locker at the stern of a boat or between decks of a ship.

- They discussed “glory hole” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “glory hole” to mean a small locker at the stern of a boat or between....

---

heat pump (noun)

Apparatus that extracts heat from a liquid that is at a higher temperature than its surroundings; can be used to transfer heat from a reservoir outside in order to heat a building.

- In class, the teacher used “heat pump” to mean apparatus that extracts heat from a liquid that is....
- Understanding “heat pump” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

input device (noun)

A device that can be used to insert data into a computer or other computational device.

- He looked up “input device” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “input device” during the group presentation.

---

jet engine (noun)

A gas turbine produces a stream of hot gas that propels a jet plane by reaction propulsion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “jet engine.”
- He looked up “jet engine” because he had never seen it before.

---

knees (noun)

The part of a trouser leg that provides the cloth covering for the knee.

- In class, the teacher used "knees" to mean the part of a trouser leg that provides the cloth....
- The article explained what "knees" means with a simple example.

---

low-pass filter (noun)

A filter that passes frequencies below a certain value and attenuates frequencies above that value.

- In class, the teacher used "low-pass filter" to mean a filter that passes frequencies below a certain....
- Understanding "low-pass filter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

metro (noun)

An electric railway operating below the surface of the ground (usually in a city).

- In Paris the subway system is called the 'metro' and in London it is called the 'tube' or the 'underground'.
- They discussed "metro" during the group presentation.

---

military quarters (noun)

Living quarters for personnel on a military post.

- In class, the teacher used "military quarters" to mean living quarters for personnel on a military post.
- The article explained what "military quarters" means with a simple example.

---

outdoor stage (noun)

A platform where a (brass) band can play in the open air.

- In class, the teacher used "outdoor stage" to mean a platform where a (brass) band can play in the....
- The article explained what "outdoor stage" means with a simple example.

---

peace pipe (noun)

A highly decorated ceremonial pipe of Amerindians; smoked on ceremonial occasions (especially as a token of peace).

- In class, the teacher used "peace pipe" to mean a highly decorated ceremonial pipe of amerindians;....
- He looked up "peace pipe" because he had never seen it before.

---

pipe of peace (noun)

A highly decorated ceremonial pipe of Amerindians; smoked on ceremonial occasions (especially as a token of peace).

- They discussed "pipe of peace" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pipe of peace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pound net (noun)

Trap consisting of an arrangement of nets directing fish into an enclosure.

- The article explained what "pound net" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pound net" to mean trap consisting of an arrangement of nets directing....

---

public transit (noun)

A public transportation system for moving passengers.

- He looked up "public transit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "public transit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

racing circuit (noun)

A racetrack for automobile races.

- They discussed "racing circuit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "racing circuit" means with a simple example.

---

range pole (noun)

Surveying instrument consisting of a straight rod painted in bands of alternate red and white each one foot wide; used for sightings by surveyors.

- They discussed "range pole" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "range pole."

---

restore (verb)

Return to life; get or give new life or energy.

- The week at the spa restored me.
- Restore the forest to its original pristine condition.

---

rifle (noun)

A shoulder firearm with a long barrel and a rifled bore.

- He lifted the rifle to his shoulder and fired.
- Understanding "rifle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

safe-deposit (noun)

A fireproof metal strongbox (usually in a bank) for storing valuables.

- Understanding "safe-deposit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "safe-deposit" to mean a fireproof metal strongbox (usually in a bank) for....

---

screw eye (noun)

A woodscrew having its shank bent into a ring.

- The article explained what "screw eye" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "screw eye" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seal ring (noun)

A ring bearing a signet.

- The article explained what "seal ring" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "seal ring" during the group presentation.

---

self-portrait (noun)

A portrait of yourself created by yourself.

- In class, the teacher used "self-portrait" to mean a portrait of yourself created by yourself.
- The article explained what "self-portrait" means with a simple example.

---

shoulders (noun)

The part of a garment that covers or fits over the shoulder.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shoulders."
- He looked up "shoulders" because he had never seen it before.

---

soap (noun)

A cleansing agent made from the salts of vegetable or animal fats.

- The article explained what "soap" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "soap" during the group presentation.

---

spray can (noun)

A dispenser that holds a substance under pressure and that can release it as a fine spray (usually by means of a propellant gas).

- The article explained what "spray can" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spray can."

---

steam bath (noun)

A room that can be filled with steam in which people bathe; 'vapour bath' is a British term.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steam bath."
- He looked up "steam bath" because he had never seen it before.

---

toilet bag (noun)

A waterproof bag for holding bathrooms items (soap and toothpaste etc.) when you are travelling.

- The article explained what "toilet bag" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toilet bag."

---

tool kit (noun)

A set of carpenter's tools.

- Understanding "tool kit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tool kit."

transit line (noun)

A line providing public transit.

- They discussed "transit line" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transit line."

visual display unit (noun)

(British) British term for video display.

- He looked up "visual display unit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visual display unit."

barrel (noun)

A cylindrical container that holds liquids.

- A barrel of beer is 31 gallons and a barrel of oil is 42 gallons.
- Understanding "barrel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

beds (noun)

A plot of ground in which plants are growing.

- He worked in the coal beds.
- In class, the teacher used "beds" to mean a plot of ground in which plants are growing.

cargo area (noun)

The space in a ship or aircraft for storing cargo.

- They discussed "cargo area" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cargo area" means with a simple example.

carrier bag (noun)

A bag made of paper or plastic for holding customer's purchases.

- In class, the teacher used "carrier bag" to mean a bag made of paper or plastic for holding....
- The article explained what "carrier bag" means with a simple example.

colour wash (noun)

A wash of whitewash or other water-base paint tinted with a colored pigment.

- They discussed "colour wash" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "colour wash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

crush out (verb)

Extinguish by crushing.

- Stub out your cigar.
- Can you use "crush out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

crystal counter (noun)

A counter tube in which an ionizing event increases conductivity.

- He looked up "crystal counter" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crystal counter."

dirt track (noun)

A racetrack that is not paved.

- He looked up "dirt track" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dirt track."

duck shot (noun)

Small lead shot for shotgun shells.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "duck shot."
- Understanding "duck shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electronic data processing (noun)

Automatic data processing by electronic means without the use of tabulating cards or punched tapes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electronic data processing."
- He looked up "electronic data processing" because he had never seen it before.

---

expanding (verb)

Become larger in size or volume or quantity.

- The coach explained when to use "expanding" and when to wait.
- Can you use "expanding" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

fluid drive (noun)

An automotive power coupling.

- He looked up "fluid drive" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fluid drive" to mean an automotive power coupling.

---

four-poster (noun)

A bed with posts at the four corners that can be used to support a canopy or curtains.

- In class, the teacher used "four-poster" to mean a bed with posts at the four corners that can be....
- They discussed "four-poster" during the group presentation.

---

full-dress uniform (noun)

The naval or military uniform that is specified by regulations to be worn on ceremonial occasions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "full-dress uniform."
- He looked up "full-dress uniform" because he had never seen it before.

---

gold leaf (noun)

A very thin form of gold foil.

- He looked up "gold leaf" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "gold leaf" to mean a very thin form of gold foil.

---

guidance device (noun)

A system of equipment for automatically guiding the path of a vehicle (especially a missile).

- In class, the teacher used "guidance device" to mean a system of equipment for automatically guiding the....
- They discussed "guidance device" during the group presentation.

---

gun trigger (noun)

Lever that activates the firing mechanism of a gun.

- Understanding "gun trigger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "gun trigger" means with a simple example.

---

hip pocket (noun)

A pocket in rear of trousers.

- The article explained what "hip pocket" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hip pocket" to mean a pocket in rear of trousers.

---

illustrated (verb)

Supply with illustrations.

- In everyday English, people use "illustrated" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "illustrated" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

invented (verb)

Come up with (an idea, plan, explanation, theory, or principle) after a mental effort.

- In everyday English, people use "invented" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "invented" in real sentences.

---

make unnecessary (verb)

Make unnecessary an expenditure or effort.

- She tried to use "make unnecessary" carefully so everyone would understand.

- Can you use “make unnecessary” in a sentence that fits this situation?

mechanical device (noun)

Mechanism consisting of a device that works on mechanical principles.

- They discussed “mechanical device” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “mechanical device” means with a simple example.

monitoring device (noun)

Display produced by a device that takes signals and displays them on a television screen or a computer monitor.

- He looked up “monitoring device” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “monitoring device.”

nuclear rocket (noun)

A rocket engine in which a nuclear reactor is used to heat a propellant.

- He looked up “nuclear rocket” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “nuclear rocket” during the group presentation.

overnight case (noun)

A small traveling bag to carry clothing and accessories for staying overnight.

- He looked up “overnight case” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “overnight case” during the group presentation.

plate rail (noun)

Rail or narrow shelf fixed to a wall to display plates.

- In class, the teacher used “plate rail” to mean rail or narrow shelf fixed to a wall to display plates.
- Understanding “plate rail” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

railroad flat (noun)

An apartment whose rooms are all in a line with doors between them.

- They discussed “railroad flat” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “railroad flat” because he had never seen it before.

read-only memory chip (noun)

A memory chip providing read-only memory.

- He looked up “read-only memory chip” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “read-only memory chip” during the group presentation.

reflection (noun)

The image of something as reflected by a mirror (or other reflective material).

- He studied his reflection in the mirror.
- The pulse is a reflection of the heart’s condition.

remote-control bomb (noun)

A bomb that can be detonated by remote control.

- In class, the teacher used “remote-control bomb” to mean a bomb that can be detonated by remote control.
- The article explained what “remote-control bomb” means with a simple example.

safety-deposit (noun)

A fireproof metal strongbox (usually in a bank) for storing valuables.

- They discussed “safety-deposit” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “safety-deposit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

skip town (verb)

Disappear without notifying anyone (idiom).

- In everyday English, people use “skip town” when talking about this idea.
- Can you use “skip town” in a sentence that fits this situation?

slip ring (noun)

Connection consisting of a metal ring on a rotating part of a machine; provides a continuous electrical connection through brushes on stationary contacts.

- He looked up "slip ring" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "slip ring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stable gear (noun)

Gear for a horse.

- Understanding "stable gear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "stable gear" during the group presentation.

---

swimming cap (noun)

A tight-fitting cap that keeps hair dry while swimming.

- The article explained what "swimming cap" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "swimming cap" during the group presentation.

---

tank shell (noun)

A shell fired by the cannon on a tank.

- Understanding "tank shell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tank shell" means with a simple example.

---

tape recording (noun)

A recording made on magnetic tape.

- The several recordings were combined on a master tape.
- They discussed "tape recording" during the group presentation.

---

top boot (noun)

A boot reaching halfway up to the knee.

- The article explained what "top boot" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "top boot."

---

tourist court (noun)

A hotel for motorists; provides direct access from rooms to parking area.

- The article explained what "tourist court" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tourist court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

artificial skin (noun)

A synthetic covering with two layers used experimentally to treat burn victims.

- They discussed "artificial skin" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "artificial skin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ash can (noun)

Early 20th-century United States painting; portrays realistic and sordid scenes of city life.

- In class, the teacher used "ash can" to mean early 20th-century united states painting; portrays....
- The article explained what "ash can" means with a simple example.

---

bearing wall (noun)

Any wall supporting a floor or the roof of a building.

- He looked up "bearing wall" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bearing wall" to mean any wall supporting a floor or the roof of a building.

---

beta test (noun)

(computer science) a second test of an experimental product (such as computer software) carried out by an outside organization.

- He looked up "beta test" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "beta test" to mean (computer science) a second test of an experimental....

---

blade bit (noun)

A drilling bit with cutting edges usually hardened against wear.

- The article explained what “blade bit” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “blade bit” during the group presentation.

---

blow tube (noun)

A tube through which darts can be shot by blowing.

- In class, the teacher used “blow tube” to mean a tube through which darts can be shot by blowing.
- Understanding “blow tube” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

casino (noun)

A public building for gambling and entertainment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “casino.”
- The article explained what “casino” means with a simple example.

---

charts (noun)

A map designed to assist navigation by air or sea.

- The article explained what “charts” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “charts” during the group presentation.

---

clock tower (noun)

A tower with a large clock visible high up on an outside face.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “clock tower.”
- The article explained what “clock tower” means with a simple example.

---

computer graphic (noun)

An image that is generated by a computer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “computer graphic.”
- He looked up “computer graphic” because he had never seen it before.

---

congress shoe (noun)

An ankle high shoe with elastic gussets in the sides.

- They discussed “congress shoe” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “congress shoe” because he had never seen it before.

---

control grid (noun)

An electrode placed between the cathode and anode of a vacuum tube to control the flow of electrons through the tube.

- They discussed “control grid” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “control grid” to mean an electrode placed between the cathode and anode....

---

delayed action (noun)

A mechanism that automatically delays the release of a camera shutter for a fixed period of time so that the photographer can appear in the picture.

- In class, the teacher used “delayed action” to mean a mechanism that automatically delays the release....
- They discussed “delayed action” during the group presentation.

---

design criteria (noun)

Criteria that designers should meet in designing some system or device.

- The job specifications summarized the design criteria.
- They discussed “design criteria” during the group presentation.

---

face soap (noun)

Soap used as a toiletry.

- Understanding “face soap” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “face soap.”

---

fancy goods (noun)

Goods that are chiefly ornamental.

- The article explained what “fancy goods” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “fancy goods” to mean goods that are chiefly ornamental.

fishing gear (noun)

Gear used in fishing.

- The article explained what "fishing gear" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fishing gear" to mean gear used in fishing.

flew (verb)

Change quickly from one emotional state to another.

- He flew about the place.
- The pilot flew to Cuba.

half boot (noun)

A boot reaching halfway up to the knee.

- The article explained what "half boot" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "half boot" to mean a boot reaching halfway up to the knee.

heating system (noun)

Utility to warm a building.

- The heating system wasn't working.
- They have radiant heating.

high dam (noun)

One of the world's largest dams on the Nile River in southern Egypt.

- He looked up "high dam" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "high dam" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ice maker (noun)

An appliance included in some electric refrigerators for making ice cubes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice maker."
- He looked up "ice maker" because he had never seen it before.

icon (noun)

A visual representation (of an object or scene or person or abstraction) produced on a surface.

- They discussed "icon" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "icon" means with a simple example.

introducing (verb)

Bring in or establish in a new place or environment.

- She tried to use "introducing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "introducing" in real sentences.

jet bridge (noun)

An extendible bridge for loading passengers onto large commercial airplanes; provides protected access to the plane from the gate.

- He looked up "jet bridge" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "jet bridge" during the group presentation.

landscape painting (noun)

A genre of art dealing with the depiction of natural scenery.

- They discussed "landscape painting" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "landscape painting."

laptop computer (noun)

A portable computer small enough to use in your lap.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laptop computer."
- The article explained what "laptop computer" means with a simple example.

logic bomb (noun)

A set of instructions inserted into a program that are designed to execute (or 'explode') if a particular condition is satisfied; when exploded it may delete or corrupt data, or print a spurious message, or have other harmful effects.

- A disgruntled employee planted a logic bomb.
- Understanding "logic bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

machine screw (noun)

A screw used either with a nut or with a tapped hole; slotted head can be driven by a screwdriver.

- The article explained what "machine screw" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "machine screw" during the group presentation.

---

naval gun (noun)

Naval weaponry consisting of a large gun carried on a warship.

- He looked up "naval gun" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "naval gun" to mean naval weaponry consisting of a large gun carried on....

---

parts bin (noun)

A bin for holding spare parts.

- They discussed "parts bin" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parts bin."

---

photograph album (noun)

An album for photographs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "photograph album."
- He looked up "photograph album" because he had never seen it before.

---

planes (noun)

An aircraft that has a fixed wing and is powered by propellers or jets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "planes."
- He looked up "planes" because he had never seen it before.

---

positive pole (noun)

The terminal of a battery that is connected to the positive plate.

- The article explained what "positive pole" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "positive pole."

---

power grid (noun)

A system of high tension cables by which electrical power is distributed throughout a region.

- The article explained what "power grid" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "power grid" to mean a system of high tension cables by which electrical....

---

range hood (noun)

Exhaust hood over a kitchen range.

- They discussed "range hood" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "range hood" to mean exhaust hood over a kitchen range.

---

react (verb)

Undergo a chemical reaction; react with another substance under certain conditions.

- The hydrogen and the oxygen react.
- She reacts negatively to everything I say.

---

stone pit (noun)

A surface excavation for extracting stone or slate.

- A British term for 'quarry' is 'stone pit'.
- In class, the teacher used "stone pit" to mean a surface excavation for extracting stone or slate.

---

toilet articles (noun)

Artifacts used in making your toilet (washing and taking care of your body).

- Understanding "toilet articles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “toilet articles” because he had never seen it before.

---

traveling bag (noun)

A portable rectangular container for carrying clothes.

- He carried his small bag onto the plane with him.
- In class, the teacher used “traveling bag” to mean a portable rectangular container for carrying clothes.

---

treasure house (noun)

A storehouse for treasures.

- The article explained what “treasure house” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “treasure house” during the group presentation.

---

weapons carrier (noun)

Military vehicle that is a light truck designed to carry mortars or machine guns and their crews.

- They discussed “weapons carrier” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “weapons carrier” because he had never seen it before.

---

wooden leg (noun)

A prosthesis that replaces a missing leg.

- In class, the teacher used “wooden leg” to mean a prosthesis that replaces a missing leg.
- The article explained what “wooden leg” means with a simple example.

---

yellow jacket (noun)

A barbiturate (trade name Nembutal) used as a sedative and hypnotic and antispasmodic.

- In class, the teacher used “yellow jacket” to mean a barbiturate (trade name nembutal) used as a....
- The article explained what “yellow jacket” means with a simple example.

---

air rifle (noun)

A gun that propels a projectile by compressed air.

- Understanding “air rifle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “air rifle” means with a simple example.

---

arrival gate (noun)

Gate where passengers disembark.

- Understanding “arrival gate” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “arrival gate” during the group presentation.

---

barrier (noun)

A structure or object that impedes free movement.

- Intolerance is a barrier to understanding.
- They discussed “barrier” during the group presentation.

---

blacks (noun)

Black clothing (worn as a sign of mourning).

- In class, the teacher used “blacks” to mean black clothing (worn as a sign of mourning).
- The article explained what “blacks” means with a simple example.

---

burst out (verb)

Erupt or intensify suddenly.

- The crowd irrupted into a burst of patriotism.
- We burst out laughing.

---

cargo hold (noun)

The space in a ship or aircraft for storing cargo.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cargo hold.”
- They discussed “cargo hold” during the group presentation.

---

channel tunnel (noun)

The railroad tunnel between France and England under the English Channel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "channel tunnel."
- He looked up "channel tunnel" because he had never seen it before.

---

clothes pin (noun)

Wood or plastic fastener; for holding clothes on a clothesline.

- The article explained what "clothes pin" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "clothes pin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coat button (noun)

A button on a coat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coat button."
- He looked up "coat button" because he had never seen it before.

---

coin bank (noun)

A container (usually with a slot in the top) for keeping money at home.

- The coin bank was empty.
- They discussed "coin bank" during the group presentation.

---

colours (noun)

A distinguishing emblem.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "colours."
- He looked up "colours" because he had never seen it before.

---

counter tube (noun)

A measuring instrument for counting individual ionizing events.

- Understanding "counter tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "counter tube" during the group presentation.

---

crop out (verb)

Appear at the surface.

- She tried to use "crop out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "crop out" until he saw an example.

---

data input device (noun)

A device that can be used to insert data into a computer or other computational device.

- Understanding "data input device" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "data input device" means with a simple example.

---

dressing case (noun)

A small piece of luggage for carrying brushes and bottles and toilet articles while traveling.

- They discussed "dressing case" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dressing case" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dressing room (noun)

A room in which you can change clothes.

- Understanding "dressing room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dressing room" to mean a room in which you can change clothes.

---

drop-leaf (noun)

A hinged leaf on a table that can be raised and supported by a bracket.

- Understanding "drop-leaf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "drop-leaf" to mean a hinged leaf on a table that can be raised and....

---

eliminate (verb)

Terminate, end, or take out.

- Let's eliminate the course on Akkadian hieroglyphics.
- Eliminate my debts.

---

fighter aircraft (noun)

A high-speed military or naval airplane designed to destroy enemy aircraft in the air.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fighter aircraft."
- Understanding "fighter aircraft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flat panel display (noun)

A type of video display that is thin and flat; commonly used in laptop computers.

- The article explained what "flat panel display" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "flat panel display" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

four-stroke engine (noun)

An internal-combustion engine in which an explosive mixture is drawn into the cylinder on the first stroke and is compressed and ignited on the second stroke; work is done on the third stroke and the products of combustion are exhausted on the fourth stroke.

- The article explained what "four-stroke engine" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "four-stroke engine" during the group presentation.

---

fuel filter (noun)

A filter in the fuel line that screens out dirt and rust particles from the fuel.

- Understanding "fuel filter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fuel filter."

---

gas holder (noun)

A large gas-tight spherical or cylindrical tank for holding gas to be used as fuel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas holder."
- He looked up "gas holder" because he had never seen it before.

---

harbor (noun)

A place of refuge and comfort and security.

- Understanding "harbor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "harbor" means with a simple example.

---

hip bath (noun)

A bathtub in which your buttocks and hips are immersed as if you were sitting in a chair and you bathe in a sitting position.

- In class, the teacher used "hip bath" to mean a bathtub in which your buttocks and hips are....
- They discussed "hip bath" during the group presentation.

---

lens system (noun)

A transparent optical device used to converge or diverge transmitted light and to form images.

- The article explained what "lens system" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lens system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

liberty bell (noun)

The bell of Independence Hall; rung 8 July 1776 to announce the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

- He looked up "liberty bell" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liberty bell."

---

magnetic head (noun)

An electromagnet (as on a tape recorder) that converts electrical variations into magnetic variations that can be stored on a surface and later retrieved.

- Understanding "magnetic head" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "magnetic head" because he had never seen it before.

---

mercy seat (noun)

The golden covering of the ark of the covenant.

- The article explained what "mercy seat" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "mercy seat" during the group presentation.

metal screw (noun)

Screw made of metal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "metal screw."
- Understanding "metal screw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

naval equipment (noun)

Equipment for a navy.

- He looked up "naval equipment" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "naval equipment" during the group presentation.

podcast (verb)

Distribute (multimedia files) over the internet for playback on a mobile device or a personal computer.

- Learners should practice how to use "podcast" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "podcast" carefully so everyone would understand.

programming error (noun)

Error resulting from bad code in some program involved in producing the erroneous result.

- The article explained what "programming error" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "programming error" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

punch bowl (noun)

A large bowl for serving beverages; usually with a ladle.

- Understanding "punch bowl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "punch bowl" to mean a large bowl for serving beverages; usually with a....

red carpet (noun)

A strip of red carpeting laid down for dignitaries to walk on.

- Understanding "red carpet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red carpet."

rubber band (noun)

A narrow band of elastic rubber used to hold things (such as papers) together.

- They discussed "rubber band" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rubber band."

scratch off (verb)

Write quickly.

- She dashed off a note to her husband saying she would not be home for supper.
- He scratched off a thank-you note to the hostess.

screw jack (noun)

Screw-operated jack.

- They discussed "screw jack" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "screw jack."

sporting house (noun)

A building where prostitutes are available.

- Understanding "sporting house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sporting house."

string tie (noun)

A very narrow necktie usually tied in a bow.

- The article explained what "string tie" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "string tie."

surveillance system (noun)

A closed-circuit television system used to maintain close observation of a person or group.

- He looked up "surveillance system" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "surveillance system" to mean a closed-circuit television system used to maintain....

---

tail assembly (noun)

The rear part of an aircraft.

- Understanding "tail assembly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tail assembly" during the group presentation.

---

trailer truck (noun)

A truck consisting of a tractor and trailer together.

- Understanding "trailer truck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "trailer truck" to mean a truck consisting of a tractor and trailer together.

---

translated (verb)

Change from one form or medium into another.

- Braque translated collage into oil.
- Learners should practice how to use "translated" in real sentences.

---

trophy case (noun)

A case in which to display trophies.

- In class, the teacher used "trophy case" to mean a case in which to display trophies.
- He looked up "trophy case" because he had never seen it before.

---

vertical (noun)

A vertical structural member as a post or stake.

- In class, the teacher used "vertical" to mean a vertical structural member as a post or stake.
- They discussed "vertical" during the group presentation.

---

walking shoe (noun)

A light comfortable shoe designed for vigorous walking.

- In class, the teacher used "walking shoe" to mean a light comfortable shoe designed for vigorous walking.
- He looked up "walking shoe" because he had never seen it before.

---

web map server (noun)

A computer program that produces maps of spatially referenced data dynamically from geographic information.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "web map server."
- He looked up "web map server" because he had never seen it before.

---

writing implement (noun)

An implement that is used to write.

- They discussed "writing implement" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "writing implement" means with a simple example.

---

x-ray tube (noun)

A vacuum tube containing a metal target onto which a beam of electrons is directed at high energy for the generation of X rays.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "x-ray tube."
- Understanding "x-ray tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yo-yo (noun)

A toy consisting of a spool that is reeled up and down on a string by motions of the hand.

- They discussed "yo-yo" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yo-yo."

---

alpha software (noun)

A first release of a software product that is usually tested only by the developers.

- The article explained what "alpha software" means with a simple example.

- They discussed “alpha software” during the group presentation.

automatic weapon (noun)

A firearm that reloads itself and keeps firing until the trigger is released.

- They discussed “automatic weapon” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “automatic weapon.”

bacteria bed (noun)

Layer of sand or gravel used to expose sewage effluent to air and the action of microorganisms.

- In class, the teacher used “bacteria bed” to mean layer of sand or gravel used to expose sewage....
- They discussed “bacteria bed” during the group presentation.

beam (noun)

A gymnastic apparatus used by women gymnasts.

- They sighted land on the port beam.
- The article explained what “beam” means with a simple example.

binding (noun)

The protective covering on the front, back, and spine of a book.

- The book had a leather binding.
- They discussed “binding” during the group presentation.

bits per second (noun)

(computer science) the rate at which data is transferred (as by a modem).

- The article explained what “bits per second” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “bits per second” to mean (computer science) the rate at which data is....

blank out (verb)

Cut out, as for political reasons.

- Several line in the report were blanked out.
- I’m drawing a blank.

brooklyn bridge (noun)

A suspension bridge across the East River in New York City; opened in 1883.

- The article explained what “brooklyn bridge” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “brooklyn bridge” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

butt joint (noun)

A joint made by fastening ends together without overlapping.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “butt joint.”
- The article explained what “butt joint” means with a simple example.

cargo door (noun)

Door used to load or unload cargo.

- Understanding “cargo door” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “cargo door” during the group presentation.

coffee maker (noun)

A kitchen appliance for brewing coffee automatically.

- In class, the teacher used “coffee maker” to mean a kitchen appliance for brewing coffee automatically.
- The article explained what “coffee maker” means with a simple example.

color television tube (noun)

A television tube that displays images in full color.

- They discussed “color television tube” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “color television tube.”

communications satellite (noun)

An artificial satellite that relays signals back to earth; moves in a geostationary orbit.

- He looked up "communications satellite" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "communications satellite" to mean an artificial satellite that relays signals back to....

---

computer backup (noun)

(computer science) a copy of a file or directory on a separate storage device.

- He made a backup in case the original was accidentally damaged or erased.
- They discussed "computer backup" during the group presentation.

---

computer scientist (noun)

A scientist who specializes in the theory of computation and the design of computers.

- The article explained what "computer scientist" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "computer scientist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

connecting room (noun)

A hotel room that shares a wall with an adjoining room and is connected by a private door.

- They discussed "connecting room" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "connecting room" because he had never seen it before.

---

create mentally (verb)

Create mentally and abstractly rather than with one's hands.

- Learners should practice how to use "create mentally" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "create mentally" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cruise ship (noun)

A passenger ship used commercially for pleasure cruises.

- The article explained what "cruise ship" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cruise ship" to mean a passenger ship used commercially for pleasure cruises.

---

drinking vessel (noun)

A vessel intended for drinking.

- Understanding "drinking vessel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "drinking vessel" because he had never seen it before.

---

electrical circuit (noun)

An electrical device that provides a path for electrical current to flow.

- They discussed "electrical circuit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "electrical circuit" means with a simple example.

---

farms (noun)

Workplace consisting of farm buildings and cultivated land as a unit.

- The article explained what "farms" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "farms."

---

feeding chair (noun)

A chair for feeding a very young child; has four long legs and a footrest and a detachable tray.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "feeding chair."
- He looked up "feeding chair" because he had never seen it before.

---

fire control radar (noun)

Naval radar that controls the delivery of fire on a military target.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire control radar."
- The article explained what "fire control radar" means with a simple example.

---

golden gate bridge (noun)

A suspension bridge across the Golden Gate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “golden gate bridge.”
- He looked up “golden gate bridge” because he had never seen it before.

---

horn (noun)

A device having the shape of a horn.

- Horns at the ends of a new moon.
- The hornof an anvil.

---

i-beam (noun)

Girder having a cross section resembling the letter ‘I’.

- The article explained what “i-beam” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “i-beam” during the group presentation.

---

jerusalem cross (noun)

A cross with equal arms, each terminating in a small crossbar.

- In class, the teacher used “jerusalem cross” to mean a cross with equal arms, each terminating in a....
- The article explained what “jerusalem cross” means with a simple example.

---

lead-acid battery (noun)

A battery with lead electrodes with dilute sulphuric acid as the electrolyte; each cell generates about 2 volts.

- The article explained what “lead-acid battery” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lead-acid battery.”

---

leaf spring (noun)

Long narrow spring consisting of several layers of metal springs bracketed together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “leaf spring.”
- They discussed “leaf spring” during the group presentation.

---

lean-to (noun)

Rough shelter whose roof has only one slope.

- He looked up “lean-to” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lean-to.”

---

libraries (noun)

A room where books are kept.

- The article explained what “libraries” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “libraries.”

---

massachusetts institute of technology (noun)

An engineering university in Cambridge.

- In class, the teacher used “massachusetts institute of technology” to mean an engineering university in cambridge.
- Understanding “massachusetts institute of technology” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

missile (noun)

A weapon that is forcibly thrown or projected at a targets but is not self-propelled.

- Understanding “missile” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “missile” means with a simple example.

---

parallel port (noun)

An interface between a computer and a printer where the computer sends multiple bits of information to the printer simultaneously.

- He looked up “parallel port” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “parallel port.”

---

plug-in (noun)

A printed circuit that can be inserted into expansion slots in a computer to increase the computer’s capabilities.

- He looked up “plug-in” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “plug-in.”

pocket knife (noun)

A knife with a blade that folds into the handle; suitable for carrying in the pocket.

- The article explained what "pocket knife" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pocket knife" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

power hammer (noun)

A power tool for drilling rocks.

- They discussed "power hammer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "power hammer" to mean a power tool for drilling rocks.

racing shell (noun)

A very light narrow racing boat.

- Understanding "racing shell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "racing shell."

rod (noun)

A long thin implement made of metal or wood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rod."
- He looked up "rod" because he had never seen it before.

ship canal (noun)

A canal large enough for seagoing vessels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ship canal."
- They discussed "ship canal" during the group presentation.

shopping mall (noun)

Mercantile establishment consisting of a carefully landscaped complex of shops representing leading merchandisers; usually includes restaurants and a convenient parking area; a modern version of the traditional marketplace.

- They spent their weekends at the local malls.
- In class, the teacher used "shopping mall" to mean mercantile establishment consisting of a carefully....

soap film (noun)

A film left on objects after they have been washed in soap.

- The article explained what "soap film" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "soap film" to mean a film left on objects after they have been washed....

stairs (noun)

A flight of stairs or a flight of steps.

- Understanding "stairs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "stairs" during the group presentation.

sticks (noun)

An implement consisting of a length of wood.

- He collected dry sticks for a campfire.
- Fever left him weak on his sticks.

structural member (noun)

Support that is a constituent part of any structure or building.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "structural member."
- The article explained what "structural member" means with a simple example.

switched (verb)

Lay aside, abandon, or leave for another.

- She switched psychiatrists.
- First Joe led; then we switched.

target acquisition system (noun)

A shipboard system for the detection and identification and location of a target with enough detail to permit effective weapon employment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "target acquisition system."
- Understanding "target acquisition system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

telephone circuit (noun)

A telephone connection.

- They discussed "telephone circuit" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "telephone circuit" because he had never seen it before.

---

toilet bowl (noun)

The bowl of a toilet that can be flushed with water.

- The article explained what "toilet bowl" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "toilet bowl" during the group presentation.

---

waste pipe (noun)

A pipe through which liquid is carried away.

- Understanding "waste pipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "waste pipe" to mean a pipe through which liquid is carried away.

---

zoo (noun)

The facility where wild animals are housed for exhibition.

- Understanding "zoo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "zoo" because he had never seen it before.

---

acquire (verb)

Take on a certain form, attribute, or aspect.

- They acquired a new pet.
- I acquired a passing knowledge of Chinese.

---

administrative data processing (noun)

Data processing in accounting or business management.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "administrative data processing."
- The article explained what "administrative data processing" means with a simple example.

---

air hammer (noun)

A hammer driven by compressed air.

- He looked up "air hammer" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "air hammer" to mean a hammer driven by compressed air.

---

aircraft carrier (noun)

A large warship that carries planes and has a long flat deck for takeoffs and landings.

- In class, the teacher used "aircraft carrier" to mean a large warship that carries planes and has a long....
- Understanding "aircraft carrier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

angel dust (noun)

A drug used as an anesthetic by veterinarians; illicitly taken (originally in the form of powder or 'dust') for its effects as a hallucinogen.

- The article explained what "angel dust" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "angel dust" to mean a drug used as an anesthetic by veterinarians;....

---

breathing device (noun)

A device that facilitates breathing in cases of respiratory failure.

- Understanding "breathing device" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "breathing device" because he had never seen it before.

---

butt pack (noun)

A waist pack worn with the pouch in back.

- In class, the teacher used "butt pack" to mean a waist pack worn with the pouch in back.
- The article explained what "butt pack" means with a simple example.

---

cabin (noun)

A small house built of wood; usually in a wooded area.

- They discussed "cabin" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cabin."

---

cage (noun)

An enclosure made or wire or metal bars in which birds or animals can be kept.

- He looked up "cage" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cage."

---

central heating (noun)

A heating system in which air or water is heated at a central furnace and sent through the building via vents or pipes and radiators.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "central heating."
- He looked up "central heating" because he had never seen it before.

---

clip joint (noun)

A place of entertainment where high prices are charged for poor entertainment.

- Understanding "clip joint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "clip joint" because he had never seen it before.

---

coat of paint (noun)

A layer of paint covering something else.

- He looked up "coat of paint" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coat of paint."

---

coin box (noun)

The part of a slot machine that serves as a receptacle for the coins.

- In class, the teacher used "coin box" to mean the part of a slot machine that serves as a....
- The article explained what "coin box" means with a simple example.

---

controller (noun)

A mechanism that controls the operation of a machine.

- The speed controller on his turntable was not working properly.
- In class, the teacher used "controller" to mean a mechanism that controls the operation of a machine.

---

field lens (noun)

The lens that is farthest from the eye in an optical device with more than one lens.

- He looked up "field lens" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "field lens" to mean the lens that is farthest from the eye in an....

---

green soap (noun)

A soft (or liquid) soap made from vegetable oils; used in certain skin diseases.

- In class, the teacher used "green soap" to mean a soft (or liquid) soap made from vegetable oils;....
- The article explained what "green soap" means with a simple example.

---

hair spray (noun)

Toiletry consisting of a commercial preparation that is sprayed on the hair to hold it in place.

- The article explained what "hair spray" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hair spray" to mean toiletry consisting of a commercial preparation....

---

haven (noun)

A shelter serving as a place of safety or sanctuary.

- Understanding "haven" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "haven" to mean a shelter serving as a place of safety or sanctuary.

helicopter (noun)

An aircraft without wings that obtains its lift from the rotation of overhead blades.

- The article explained what "helicopter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "helicopter" to mean an aircraft without wings that obtains its lift....

jumping jack (noun)

Plaything consisting of a toy figure with movable joints that can be made to dance by pulling strings.

- The article explained what "jumping jack" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "jumping jack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

landing gear (noun)

An undercarriage that supports the weight of the plane when it is on the ground.

- He looked up "landing gear" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "landing gear."

medical dressing (noun)

A cloth covering for a wound or sore.

- In class, the teacher used "medical dressing" to mean a cloth covering for a wound or sore.
- The article explained what "medical dressing" means with a simple example.

mess jacket (noun)

Waist-length jacket tapering to a point at the back; worn by officers in the mess for formal dinners.

- In class, the teacher used "mess jacket" to mean waist-length jacket tapering to a point at the....
- They discussed "mess jacket" during the group presentation.

mill wheel (noun)

Water wheel that is used to drive machinery in a mill.

- They discussed "mill wheel" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mill wheel" means with a simple example.

nursing bottle (noun)

A vessel fitted with a flexible teat and filled with milk or formula; used as a substitute for breast feeding infants and very young children.

- He looked up "nursing bottle" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "nursing bottle" during the group presentation.

portrait camera (noun)

A camera with a portrait lens.

- He looked up "portrait camera" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "portrait camera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

powder magazine (noun)

A storehouse (as a compartment on a warship) where weapons and ammunition are stored.

- The article explained what "powder magazine" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "powder magazine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

printed circuit (noun)

Computer circuit consisting of an electronic sub-assembly; copper conductors are laminated on an insulating board or card and circuit components are inserted into holes and dip soldered.

- The article explained what "printed circuit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "printed circuit" during the group presentation.

priority processing (noun)

Data processing in which the operations performed are determined by a system of priorities.

- They discussed "priority processing" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "priority processing" means with a simple example.

ski (noun)

Narrow wood or metal or plastic runners used in pairs for gliding over snow.

- The article explained what "ski" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ski."

smoke alarm (noun)

An alarm that is tripped off by fire or smoke.

- Understanding "smoke alarm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "smoke alarm" to mean an alarm that is tripped off by fire or smoke.

spider web (noun)

A web resembling the webs spun by spiders.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spider web."
- The article explained what "spider web" means with a simple example.

sports implement (noun)

An implement used in a sport.

- In class, the teacher used "sports implement" to mean an implement used in a sport.
- The article explained what "sports implement" means with a simple example.

suspension bridge (noun)

A bridge that has a roadway supported by cables that are anchored at both ends.

- In class, the teacher used "suspension bridge" to mean a bridge that has a roadway supported by cables....
- The article explained what "suspension bridge" means with a simple example.

swimming bath (noun)

Pool that provides a facility for swimming.

- 'swimming bath' is a British term.
- Understanding "swimming bath" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

telephone extension (noun)

An additional telephone set that is connected to the same telephone line.

- They discussed "telephone extension" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "telephone extension" means with a simple example.

television-camera tube (noun)

A tube that rapidly scans an optical image and converts it into electronic signals.

- Understanding "television-camera tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "television-camera tube."

toilet facility (noun)

A toilet that is available to the public.

- In class, the teacher used "toilet facility" to mean a toilet that is available to the public.
- He looked up "toilet facility" because he had never seen it before.

virtual storage (noun)

(computer science) memory created by using the hard disk to simulate additional random-access memory; the addressable storage space available to the user of a computer system in which virtual addresses are mapped into real addresses.

- He looked up "virtual storage" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "virtual storage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

american organ (noun)

A free-reed instrument in which air is drawn in through reeds by suction bellows.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american organ."
- They discussed "american organ" during the group presentation.

bank identification number (noun)

An identification number consisting of a two-part code assigned to banks and savings associations; the first part shows the location and the second identifies the bank itself.

- The article explained what "bank identification number" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bank identification number."

---

book binding (noun)

The protective covering on the front, back, and spine of a book.

- The book had a leather binding.
- Understanding "book binding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brad (noun)

A small nail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brad."
- They discussed "brad" during the group presentation.

---

cargo ship (noun)

A ship designed to carry cargo.

- Understanding "cargo ship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cargo ship" during the group presentation.

---

civilian dress (noun)

Ordinary clothing as distinguished from uniforms, work clothes, clerical garb, etc.

- Understanding "civilian dress" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "civilian dress" because he had never seen it before.

---

colour tube (noun)

A television tube that displays images in full color.

- Understanding "colour tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "colour tube" because he had never seen it before.

---

computer dealer (noun)

A firm that sells and buys computers.

- Understanding "computer dealer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "computer dealer" during the group presentation.

---

computer graphics (noun)

The pictorial representation and manipulation of data by a computer.

- Understanding "computer graphics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "computer graphics" to mean the pictorial representation and manipulation of....

---

control rod (noun)

A steel or aluminum rod that can be moved up or down to control the rate of the nuclear reaction.

- He looked up "control rod" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "control rod" during the group presentation.

---

cooking pan (noun)

Cooking utensil consisting of a wide metal vessel.

- They discussed "cooking pan" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cooking pan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dining area (noun)

An area arranged for dining.

- They put up tents for the dining area.
- In class, the teacher used "dining area" to mean an area arranged for dining.

---

dining room (noun)

A room used for dining.

- In class, the teacher used "dining room" to mean a room used for dining.
- Understanding "dining room" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dining-room (noun)

A room used for dining.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dining-room."
- He looked up "dining-room" because he had never seen it before.

---

dressing table (noun)

Low table with mirror or mirrors where one sits while dressing or applying makeup.

- They discussed "dressing table" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dressing table" means with a simple example.

---

fan blade (noun)

Blade of a rotating fan.

- They discussed "fan blade" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fan blade" means with a simple example.

---

floating mine (noun)

An explosive mine designed to destroy ships that bump into it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "floating mine."
- They discussed "floating mine" during the group presentation.

---

half binding (noun)

Book binding in which the spine and part of the sides are bound in one material and the rest in another.

- He looked up "half binding" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "half binding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ham it up (verb)

Exaggerate one's acting.

- She tried to use "ham it up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "ham it up" and when to wait.

---

hand organ (noun)

A musical instrument that makes music by rotation of a cylinder studded with pegs.

- In class, the teacher used "hand organ" to mean a musical instrument that makes music by rotation....
- They discussed "hand organ" during the group presentation.

---

heat sink (noun)

A metal conductor specially designed to conduct (and radiate) heat.

- They discussed "heat sink" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "heat sink" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inner tube (noun)

An inflatable rubber tube that fits inside the casing of a pneumatic tire.

- Understanding "inner tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "inner tube" because he had never seen it before.

---

jacket crown (noun)

(dentistry) dental appliance consisting of an artificial crown for a broken or decayed tooth.

- Tomorrow my dentist will fit me for a crown.
- They discussed "jacket crown" during the group presentation.

---

jewelry (noun)

An adornment (as a bracelet or ring or necklace) made of precious metals and set with gems (or imitation gems).

- Understanding "jewelry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "jewelry" to mean an adornment (as a bracelet or ring or necklace)....

---

lecture room (noun)

Classroom where lectures are given.

- The article explained what “lecture room” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “lecture room” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lens cover (noun)

Cap used to keep lens free of dust when not in use.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lens cover.”
- They discussed “lens cover” during the group presentation.

---

liberty cap (noun)

Close-fitting conical cap worn as a symbol of liberty during the French Revolution and in the U.S. before 1800.

- They discussed “liberty cap” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “liberty cap” to mean close-fitting conical cap worn as a symbol of....

---

magic bullet (noun)

A remedy (drug or therapy or preventive) that cures or prevents a disease.

- There is no magic bullet against cancer.
- They discussed “magic bullet” during the group presentation.

---

manufactured home (noun)

A large house trailer that can be connected to utilities and can be parked in one place and used as permanent housing.

- Understanding “manufactured home” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “manufactured home.”

---

military installation (noun)

Any facility servicing military forces.

- The article explained what “military installation” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “military installation” during the group presentation.

---

mouse button (noun)

A push button on the mouse.

- They discussed “mouse button” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “mouse button” to mean a push button on the mouse.

---

negative pole (noun)

The terminal of a battery that is connected to the negative plate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “negative pole.”
- He looked up “negative pole” because he had never seen it before.

---

organ stop (noun)

A graduated set of organ pipes of like tone quality.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “organ stop.”
- Understanding “organ stop” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

post horn (noun)

Wind instrument used by postilions of the 18th and 19th centuries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “post horn.”
- He looked up “post horn” because he had never seen it before.

---

prince albert (noun)

A man’s double-breasted frock coat.

- They discussed “prince albert” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “prince albert” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reduction gear (noun)

Gearing that reduces an input speed to a slower output speed.

- He looked up “reduction gear” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “reduction gear.”

restored (verb)

Return to life; get or give new life or energy.

- The week at the spa restored me.
- She tried to use "restored" carefully so everyone would understand.

rev (verb)

Increase the number of rotations per minute.

- Rev up an engine.
- In everyday English, people use "rev" when talking about this idea.

rev up (verb)

Increase the number of rotations per minute.

- Rev up an engine.
- Let's rev up production.

rolling mill (noun)

Steel mill where metal is rolled into sheets and bars.

- The article explained what "rolling mill" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rolling mill" to mean steel mill where metal is rolled into sheets and bars.

safe-deposit box (noun)

A fireproof metal strongbox (usually in a bank) for storing valuables.

- The article explained what "safe-deposit box" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "safe-deposit box" to mean a fireproof metal strongbox (usually in a bank) for....

scientific instrument (noun)

An instrument used by scientists.

- In class, the teacher used "scientific instrument" to mean an instrument used by scientists.
- He looked up "scientific instrument" because he had never seen it before.

seal bomb (noun)

A small explosive device (resembling a firecracker) that is used underwater in order to frighten mammals away from fishing grounds.

- They discussed "seal bomb" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seal bomb."

skin patch (noun)

A medicated adhesive pad placed on the skin for absorption of a time released dose of medication into the bloodstream.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skin patch."
- The article explained what "skin patch" means with a simple example.

solar trap (noun)

A terrace or garden oriented to take advantage of the sun while protected from cold winds.

- Understanding "solar trap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solar trap."

sweat room (noun)

A Finnish steam bath; steam is produced by pouring water over heated rocks.

- They discussed "sweat room" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sweat room" means with a simple example.

tape deck (noun)

Electronic equipment for making or playing magnetic tapes (but without amplifiers or speakers); a component in an audio system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tape deck."
- He looked up "tape deck" because he had never seen it before.

telephone wire (noun)

The wire that carries telegraph and telephone signals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone wire."
- He looked up "telephone wire" because he had never seen it before.

---

abstract art (noun)

An abstract genre of art; artistic content depends on internal form rather than pictorial representation.

- They discussed "abstract art" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "abstract art" because he had never seen it before.

---

air horn (noun)

Air intake of a carburetor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "air horn."
- The article explained what "air horn" means with a simple example.

---

air search radar (noun)

A shipboard radar that searches for aircraft.

- Understanding "air search radar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "air search radar" during the group presentation.

---

artificial intelligence (noun)

The branch of computer science that deal with writing computer programs that can solve problems creatively.

- Workers in AI hope to imitate or duplicate intelligence in computers and robots.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "artificial intelligence."

---

artificial joint (noun)

A metal or plastic part that is surgically implanted to replace a natural joint (possibly elbow or wrist but usually hip or knee).

- Understanding "artificial joint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "artificial joint" means with a simple example.

---

audio cd (noun)

Compact discs used to reproduce sound (voice and music).

- They discussed "audio cd" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "audio cd" because he had never seen it before.

---

bar soap (noun)

Soap in the form of a bar.

- Understanding "bar soap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bar soap."

---

biological weapon (noun)

Any weapon usable in biological warfare.

- They feared use of the smallpox virus as a bioweapon.
- They discussed "biological weapon" during the group presentation.

---

bite plate (noun)

A removable dental appliance that is worn in the palate for diagnostic or therapeutic purposes.

- Understanding "bite plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bite plate."

---

breast pocket (noun)

A pocket inside of a man's coat.

- They discussed "breast pocket" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breast pocket."

---

chains (noun)

Metal shackles; for hands or legs.

- In class, the teacher used "chains" to mean metal shackles; for hands or legs.

- Understanding "chains" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

closure (noun)

An obstruction in a pipe or tube.

- He needed to grieve before he could achieve a sense of closure.
- They regretted the closure of the day care center.

---

coin machine (noun)

A machine that is operated by the insertion of a coin in a slot.

- In class, the teacher used "coin machine" to mean a machine that is operated by the insertion of a....
- He looked up "coin machine" because he had never seen it before.

---

concert piano (noun)

A grand piano suitable for concert performances.

- The article explained what "concert piano" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "concert piano."

---

congress boot (noun)

An ankle high shoe with elastic gussets in the sides.

- He looked up "congress boot" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "congress boot" during the group presentation.

---

contact lens (noun)

A thin curved glass or plastic lens designed to fit over the cornea in order to correct vision or to deliver medication.

- Understanding "contact lens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "contact lens" because he had never seen it before.

---

convert (verb)

Change the nature, purpose, or function of something.

- Convert lead into gold.
- Convert hotels into jails.

---

cups (noun)

The hole (or metal container in the hole) on a golf green.

- Bees filled the waxen cups with honey.
- The school kept the cups is a special glass case.

---

egg-and-tongue (noun)

A decorative molding; a series of egg-shaped figures alternating with another shape.

- In class, the teacher used "egg-and-tongue" to mean a decorative molding; a series of egg-shaped....
- He looked up "egg-and-tongue" because he had never seen it before.

---

electronic database (noun)

(computer science) a database that can be accessed by computers.

- The article explained what "electronic database" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electronic database."

---

enabled (verb)

Render capable or able for some task.

- Can you use "enabled" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "enabled" and when to wait.

---

felt-tip pen (noun)

A pen with a writing tip made of felt (trade name Magic Marker).

- Understanding "felt-tip pen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "felt-tip pen" to mean a pen with a writing tip made of felt (trade name....

---

freeze out (verb)

Change from a liquid to a solid when cold.

- Water freezes at 32 degrees Fahrenheit.
- In everyday English, people use "freeze out" when talking about this idea.

---

ground tackle (noun)

A mechanical device that prevents a vessel from moving.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground tackle."
- He looked up "ground tackle" because he had never seen it before.

---

hard disc (noun)

A rigid magnetic disk mounted permanently in a drive unit.

- Understanding "hard disc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hard disc."

---

hardware error (noun)

Error resulting from a malfunction of some physical component of the computer.

- He looked up "hardware error" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hardware error" to mean error resulting from a malfunction of some physical....

---

hunting knife (noun)

A large sharp knife with a handle shaped to fit the grip.

- Understanding "hunting knife" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hunting knife" during the group presentation.

---

journal bearing (noun)

The bearing of a journal.

- They discussed "journal bearing" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "journal bearing" to mean the bearing of a journal.

---

logic element (noun)

An electronic device that performs an elementary logic operation.

- Understanding "logic element" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "logic element" because he had never seen it before.

---

logic gate (noun)

A computer circuit with several inputs but only one output that can be activated by particular combinations of inputs.

- The article explained what "logic gate" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "logic gate" during the group presentation.

---

magnetic mine (noun)

(nautical) a marine mine that is detonated by a mechanism that responds to magnetic material (as the steel hull of a ship).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic mine."
- The article explained what "magnetic mine" means with a simple example.

---

nose drops (noun)

Street names for heroin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nose drops."
- Understanding "nose drops" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

phone plug (noun)

A plug for connecting a telephone.

- Understanding "phone plug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "phone plug" to mean a plug for connecting a telephone.

---

pleasure craft (noun)

A large motorboat that has a cabin and plumbing and other conveniences necessary for living on board.

- The article explained what "pleasure craft" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pleasure craft" during the group presentation.

---

poster color (noun)

Pigment mixed with water-soluble glutinous materials such as size and egg yolk.

- Understanding "poster color" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "poster color" because he had never seen it before.

---

reverse gear (noun)

The gears by which the motion of a machine can be reversed.

- They discussed "reverse gear" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "reverse gear" because he had never seen it before.

---

safety deposit box (noun)

A fireproof metal strongbox (usually in a bank) for storing valuables.

- They discussed "safety deposit box" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "safety deposit box" means with a simple example.

---

serial port (noun)

An interface (commonly used for modems and mice and some printers) that transmits data a bit at a time.

- The article explained what "serial port" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "serial port" during the group presentation.

---

silk (noun)

A fabric made from the fine threads produced by certain insect larvae.

- The article explained what "silk" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "silk" during the group presentation.

---

smoking jacket (noun)

A man's soft jacket usually with a tie belt; worn at home.

- Understanding "smoking jacket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "smoking jacket" means with a simple example.

---

snap ring (noun)

An oblong metal ring with a spring clip; used in mountaineering to attach a rope to a piton or to connect two ropes.

- He looked up "snap ring" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snap ring."

---

spray gun (noun)

An applicator resembling a gun for applying liquid substances (as paint) in the form of a spray.

- The article explained what "spray gun" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spray gun" to mean an applicator resembling a gun for applying liquid....

---

stamp out (verb)

End or extinguish by forceful means.

- Stamp out poverty!
- Can you use "stamp out" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

street organ (noun)

A musical instrument that makes music by rotation of a cylinder studded with pegs.

- In class, the teacher used "street organ" to mean a musical instrument that makes music by rotation....
- Understanding "street organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stretch pants (noun)

Trousers made of a stretchy fabric.

- The article explained what "stretch pants" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stretch pants."

tea maker (noun)

A covered spoon with perforations.

- He looked up "tea maker" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tea maker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

throne (noun)

The chair of state for a monarch, bishop, etc.

- The king sat on his throne.
- Understanding "throne" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

university of pittsburgh (noun)

A university in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

- The article explained what "university of pittsburgh" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "university of pittsburgh" to mean a university in pittsburgh, pennsylvania.

water closet (noun)

A toilet in Britain.

- They discussed "water closet" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water closet."

water ski (noun)

Broad ski for skimming over water towed by a speedboat.

- In class, the teacher used "water ski" to mean broad ski for skimming over water towed by a speedboat.
- The article explained what "water ski" means with a simple example.

wine maker (noun)

Distillery where wine is made.

- They discussed "wine maker" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "wine maker" means with a simple example.

backs (noun)

The side that goes last or is not normally seen.

- In class, the teacher used "backs" to mean the side that goes last or is not normally seen.
- The article explained what "backs" means with a simple example.

backup file (noun)

(computer science) a computer file dedicated to storing and updating computer backups.

- He looked up "backup file" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "backup file."

baseball bat (noun)

An implement used in baseball by the batter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baseball bat."
- He looked up "baseball bat" because he had never seen it before.

belly out (verb)

Swell out or bulge out.

- Learners should practice how to use "belly out" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "belly out" and when to wait.

beta software (noun)

Software that has not yet been released but has received an alpha test and still has more bugs than a regular release.

- Beta software is usually available only to particular users who will test it.
- They discussed "beta software" during the group presentation.

booth (noun)

A small shop at a fair; for selling goods or entertainment.

- In class, the teacher used "booth" to mean a small shop at a fair; for selling goods or....
- Understanding "booth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bush jacket (noun)

A loose fitting jacket; resembles a shirt with four patch pockets and a belt.

- In class, the teacher used "bush jacket" to mean a loose fitting jacket; resembles a shirt with four....
- He looked up "bush jacket" because he had never seen it before.

---

butter knife (noun)

A small knife with a dull blade; for cutting or spreading butter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "butter knife."
- They discussed "butter knife" during the group presentation.

---

cabin class (noun)

A class of accommodations on a ship or train or plane that are less expensive than first class accommodations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cabin class."
- He looked up "cabin class" because he had never seen it before.

---

cam (noun)

A rotating disk shaped to convert circular into linear motion.

- They discussed "cam" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cam" means with a simple example.

---

canal boat (noun)

A long boat that carries freight and is narrow enough to be used in canals.

- They discussed "canal boat" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "canal boat" means with a simple example.

---

centres (noun)

A building dedicated to a particular activity.

- In class, the teacher used "centres" to mean a building dedicated to a particular activity.
- The article explained what "centres" means with a simple example.

---

corn exchange (noun)

An exchange where grains are bought and sold.

- They discussed "corn exchange" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "corn exchange" because he had never seen it before.

---

dedicated file server (noun)

(computer science) a file server that can be used only as a file server.

- He looked up "dedicated file server" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dedicated file server" to mean (computer science) a file server that can be used....

---

derby (noun)

A felt hat that is round and hard with a narrow brim.

- In class, the teacher used "derby" to mean a felt hat that is round and hard with a narrow brim.
- The article explained what "derby" means with a simple example.

---

drawing pin (noun)

A tack for attaching papers to a bulletin board or drawing board.

- The article explained what "drawing pin" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drawing pin."

---

drop hammer (noun)

Device for making large forgings.

- They discussed "drop hammer" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used “drop hammer” to mean device for making large forgings.

drop-leaf table (noun)

A table that has a drop-leaf to enlarge its surface.

- Understanding “drop-leaf table” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “drop-leaf table” during the group presentation.

dust sheet (noun)

A large piece of cloth used to cover furniture that is not in use for a long period.

- The article explained what “dust sheet” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dust sheet.”

english horn (noun)

A double-reed woodwind instrument similar to an oboe but lower in pitch.

- They discussed “english horn” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “english horn” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

feeding bottle (noun)

A vessel fitted with a flexible teat and filled with milk or formula; used as a substitute for breast feeding infants and very young children.

- In class, the teacher used “feeding bottle” to mean a vessel fitted with a flexible teat and filled....
- The article explained what “feeding bottle” means with a simple example.

fitting (noun)

A small and often standardized accessory to a larger system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fitting.”
- The article explained what “fitting” means with a simple example.

freeze down (verb)

Change from a liquid to a solid when cold.

- Water freezes at 32 degrees Fahrenheit.
- In everyday English, people use “freeze down” when talking about this idea.

gun barrel (noun)

A tube through which a bullet travels when a gun is fired.

- He looked up “gun barrel” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “gun barrel” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

heating plant (noun)

Utility to warm a building.

- The heating system wasn't working.
- They have radiant heating.

hot rod (noun)

A car modified to increase its speed and acceleration.

- He looked up “hot rod” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hot rod.”

hot-rod (noun)

A car modified to increase its speed and acceleration.

- They discussed “hot-rod” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “hot-rod” because he had never seen it before.

knee pants (noun)

Trousers ending above the knee.

- They discussed “knee pants” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “knee pants” because he had never seen it before.

lab bench (noun)

A workbench in a laboratory.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lab bench."
- The article explained what "lab bench" means with a simple example.

---

landing deck (noun)

The upper deck of an aircraft carrier; used as a runway.

- Understanding "landing deck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "landing deck" during the group presentation.

---

machine rifle (noun)

Light machine gun.

- The article explained what "machine rifle" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "machine rifle."

---

man's clothing (noun)

Clothing that is designed for men to wear.

- Understanding "man's clothing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "man's clothing" means with a simple example.

---

novels (noun)

A printed and bound book that is an extended work of fiction.

- His bookcases were filled with nothing but novels.
- He burned all the novels.

---

output routine (noun)

A routine that controls an output device.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "output routine."
- He looked up "output routine" because he had never seen it before.

---

personnel carrier (noun)

A military vehicle (usually armored) for transporting military personnel and their equipment.

- In class, the teacher used "personnel carrier" to mean a military vehicle (usually armored) for....
- They discussed "personnel carrier" during the group presentation.

---

physics lab (noun)

A laboratory for research in physics.

- Understanding "physics lab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "physics lab."

---

pipe bowl (noun)

A small round container that is open at the top for holding tobacco.

- He looked up "pipe bowl" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pipe bowl."

---

publish (verb)

Have (one's written work) issued for publication.

- She published 25 books during her long career.
- The newspaper published the news of the royal couple's divorce.

---

railroad tie (noun)

One of the cross braces that support the rails on a railway track.

- The British call a railroad tie a sleeper.
- In class, the teacher used "railroad tie" to mean one of the cross braces that support the rails on a....

---

sandwich board (noun)

Signboard consisting of two hinged boards that hang front and back from the shoulders of a walker and are used to display advertisements.

- The article explained what “sandwich board” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “sandwich board” to mean signboard consisting of two hinged boards that hang....

---

stamp down (verb)

To put down by force or authority.

- Stamp down on littering.
- Can you use “stamp down” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

studios (noun)

Workplace for the teaching or practice of an art.

- The music department provided studios for their students.
- They discussed “studios” during the group presentation.

---

tail gate (noun)

A gate downstream from a lock or canal that is used to control the flow of water at the lower end.

- They discussed “tail gate” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “tail gate” means with a simple example.

---

tommy gun (noun)

A .45-caliber submachine gun.

- He looked up “tommy gun” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tommy gun.”

---

toy chest (noun)

Chest for storage of toys.

- The article explained what “toy chest” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “toy chest” during the group presentation.

---

transaction file (noun)

(computer science) a computer file containing relatively transient data about a particular data processing task.

- In class, the teacher used “transaction file” to mean (computer science) a computer file containing....
- They discussed “transaction file” during the group presentation.

---

treasure ship (noun)

A 16th-century ship loaded with treasure.

- They discussed “treasure ship” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “treasure ship” to mean a 16th-century ship loaded with treasure.

---

wireless local area network (noun)

A local area network that uses high frequency radio signals to transmit and receive data over distances of a few hundred feet; uses ethernet protocol.

- Understanding “wireless local area network” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “wireless local area network” because he had never seen it before.

---

air-to-air missile (noun)

A missile designed to be launched from one airplane at another.

- They discussed “air-to-air missile” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “air-to-air missile.”

---

bomb shelter (noun)

A chamber (often underground) reinforced against bombing and provided with food and living facilities; used during air raids.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bomb shelter.”
- The article explained what “bomb shelter” means with a simple example.

---

boot camp (noun)

Camp for training military recruits.

- The article explained what “boot camp” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “boot camp” during the group presentation.

bow tie (noun)

A man's tie that ties in a bow.

- He looked up "bow tie" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bow tie" to mean a man's tie that ties in a bow.

bow-tie (noun)

A man's tie that ties in a bow.

- They discussed "bow-tie" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bow-tie" means with a simple example.

box beam (noun)

A beam built up from boards; has a hollow rectangular cross section.

- He looked up "box beam" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "box beam" during the group presentation.

boxing equipment (noun)

Equipment used in boxing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boxing equipment."
- He looked up "boxing equipment" because he had never seen it before.

cafe (noun)

A small restaurant where drinks and snacks are sold.

- The article explained what "cafe" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cafe" to mean a small restaurant where drinks and snacks are sold.

camera lens (noun)

A lens that focuses the image in a camera.

- The article explained what "camera lens" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "camera lens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

china closet (noun)

A cabinet (usually with glass doors) for storing and displaying china.

- The article explained what "china closet" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "china closet."

cigarettes (noun)

Finely ground tobacco wrapped in paper; for smoking.

- They discussed "cigarettes" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cigarettes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dairy (noun)

A farm where dairy products are produced.

- The article explained what "dairy" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dairy."

destroying (verb)

Do away with, cause the destruction or undoing of.

- The coach explained when to use "destroying" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "destroying" until he saw an example.

diary (noun)

A personal journal (as a physical object).

- The article explained what "diary" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diary."

dining table (noun)

A table at which meals are served.

- He helped her clear the dining table.
- The article explained what "dining table" means with a simple example.

---

disappear (verb)

Get lost, as without warning or explanation.

- He disappeared without a trace.
- He did not know how to use "disappear" until he saw an example.

---

disc drive (noun)

Computer hardware that holds and spins a magnetic or optical disk and reads and writes information on it.

- They discussed "disc drive" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disc drive."

---

dna chip (noun)

A microchip that holds DNA probes that form half of the DNA double helix and can recognize DNA from samples being tested.

- The article explained what "dna chip" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dna chip" to mean a microchip that holds dna probes that form half of....

---

evolved (verb)

Undergo development or evolution.

- Modern man evolved a long time ago.
- Can you use "evolved" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

feedback circuit (noun)

A circuit that feeds back some of the output to the input of a system.

- Understanding "feedback circuit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "feedback circuit" during the group presentation.

---

filter tip (noun)

An air filter on the end of a cigarette; contains material that filters the smoke.

- The article explained what "filter tip" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "filter tip" to mean an air filter on the end of a cigarette; contains....

---

flags (noun)

A rectangular piece of fabric used as a signalling device.

- The article explained what "flags" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "flags" during the group presentation.

---

french horn (noun)

A brass musical instrument consisting of a conical tube that is coiled into a spiral and played by means of valves.

- The article explained what "french horn" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "french horn" to mean a brass musical instrument consisting of a conical....

---

jeans (noun)

A coarse durable twill-weave cotton fabric.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jeans."
- They discussed "jeans" during the group presentation.

---

jets (noun)

An airplane powered by one or more jet engines.

- In class, the teacher used "jets" to mean an airplane powered by one or more jet engines.
- They discussed "jets" during the group presentation.

---

lab coat (noun)

A light coat worn to protect clothing from substances used while working in a laboratory.

- Understanding "lab coat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what “lab coat” means with a simple example.

---

lighter (noun)

A device for lighting or igniting fuel or charges or fires.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lighter.”
- Understanding “lighter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lucas (noun)

United States screenwriter and filmmaker (born in 1944).

- Understanding “lucas” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lucas.”

---

matthew walker (noun)

A kind of stopper knot.

- In class, the teacher used “matthew walker” to mean a kind of stopper knot.
- Understanding “matthew walker” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mice (noun)

A hand-operated electronic device that controls the coordinates of a cursor on your computer screen as you move it around on a pad; on the bottom of the device is a ball that rolls on the surface of the pad.

- In class, the teacher used “mice” to mean a hand-operated electronic device that controls the....
- The article explained what “mice” means with a simple example.

---

nose candy (noun)

Street names for cocaine.

- In class, the teacher used “nose candy” to mean street names for cocaine.
- The article explained what “nose candy” means with a simple example.

---

overnight bag (noun)

A small traveling bag to carry clothing and accessories for staying overnight.

- He looked up “overnight bag” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “overnight bag” to mean a small traveling bag to carry clothing and....

---

overseas cap (noun)

A wedge-shaped wool or cotton cap; worn as part of a uniform.

- In class, the teacher used “overseas cap” to mean a wedge-shaped wool or cotton cap; worn as part of....
- He looked up “overseas cap” because he had never seen it before.

---

pepper box (noun)

A shaker with a perforated top for sprinkling ground pepper.

- They discussed “pepper box” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “pepper box” to mean a shaker with a perforated top for sprinkling....

---

pig bed (noun)

Mold consisting of a bed of sand in which pig iron is cast.

- The article explained what “pig bed” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “pig bed” to mean mold consisting of a bed of sand in which pig iron....

---

pine away (verb)

Lose vigor, health, or flesh, as through grief.

- After her husband died, she just pined away.
- Learners should practice how to use “pine away” in real sentences.

---

pipe bomb (noun)

A small homemade bomb usually contained in a metal pipe.

- Understanding “pipe bomb” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “pipe bomb” means with a simple example.

---

rear of tube (noun)

Opening in the rear of the barrel of a gun where bullets can be loaded.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rear of tube."
- He looked up "rear of tube" because he had never seen it before.

---

salad bar (noun)

A bar where diners can assemble a salad to their own taste.

- In class, the teacher used "salad bar" to mean a bar where diners can assemble a salad to their....
- They discussed "salad bar" during the group presentation.

---

side drum (noun)

A small drum with two heads and a snare stretched across the lower head.

- They discussed "side drum" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "side drum" to mean a small drum with two heads and a snare stretched....

---

slot (noun)

A slot machine that is used for gambling.

- They spend hours and hours just playing the slots.
- He developed a version of slot grammar.

---

statistical table (noun)

A table of statistical data.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "statistical table."
- Understanding "statistical table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

statue (noun)

A sculpture representing a human or animal.

- Understanding "statue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "statue" during the group presentation.

---

vertical section (noun)

A mechanical drawing showing the interior of an object as if made by a vertical plane passing through it.

- The article explained what "vertical section" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vertical section."

---

wall plug (noun)

Receptacle providing a place in a wiring system where current can be taken to run electrical devices.

- He looked up "wall plug" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wall plug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

william henry gates (noun)

United States computer entrepreneur whose software company made him the youngest multi-billionaire in the history of the United States (born in 1955).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "william henry gates."
- The article explained what "william henry gates" means with a simple example.

---

wing screw (noun)

A threaded nut with winglike projections for thumb and forefinger leverage in turning.

- The article explained what "wing screw" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wing screw."

---

air-to-ground missile (noun)

A missile designed to be launched from an airplane at a target on the ground.

- Understanding "air-to-ground missile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "air-to-ground missile" means with a simple example.

---

attack aircraft carrier (noun)

A large warship that carries planes and has a long flat deck for takeoffs and landings.

- He looked up “attack aircraft carrier” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “attack aircraft carrier” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

automatic data processing (noun)

Data processing by a computer.

- In class, the teacher used “automatic data processing” to mean data processing by a computer.
- The article explained what “automatic data processing” means with a simple example.

---

basin (noun)

A bowl-shaped vessel; usually used for holding food or liquids.

- She mixed the dough in a large basin.
- A basinful of water.

---

bee house (noun)

A shed containing a number of beehives.

- He looked up “bee house” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bee house.”

---

bench hook (noun)

Any of various stops on a workbench against which work can be pushed (as while chiseling or planing).

- They discussed “bench hook” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “bench hook” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

block and tackle (noun)

Pulley blocks with associated rope or cable.

- He looked up “block and tackle” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “block and tackle” to mean pulley blocks with associated rope or cable.

---

bottle screw (noun)

A bottle opener that pulls corks.

- In class, the teacher used “bottle screw” to mean a bottle opener that pulls corks.
- Understanding “bottle screw” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

boxing ring (noun)

A square ring where boxers fight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “boxing ring.”
- Understanding “boxing ring” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chemistry lab (noun)

A laboratory for research in chemistry.

- They discussed “chemistry lab” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chemistry lab.”

---

colour tv tube (noun)

A television tube that displays images in full color.

- He looked up “colour tv tube” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “colour tv tube.”

---

console (noun)

An ornamental scroll-shaped bracket (especially one used to support a wall fixture).

- The bust of Napoleon stood on a console.
- They discussed “console” during the group presentation.

---

covered couch (noun)

A litter with a cover for privacy.

- He looked up “covered couch” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “covered couch” during the group presentation.

diplomatic building (noun)

Government building in which diplomats live or work.

- Understanding "diplomatic building" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "diplomatic building" to mean government building in which diplomats live or work.

dust coat (noun)

A loose coverall (coat or frock) reaching down to the ankles.

- The article explained what "dust coat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dust coat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

earth-closet (noun)

A small outbuilding with a bench having holes through which a user can defecate.

- The article explained what "earth-closet" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earth-closet."

electronic instrument (noun)

A musical instrument that generates sounds electronically.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electronic instrument."
- They discussed "electronic instrument" during the group presentation.

fabric (noun)

Artifact made by weaving or felting or knitting or crocheting natural or synthetic fibers.

- The fabric in the curtains was light and semitransparent.
- It is part of the fabric of society.

floating bridge (noun)

A temporary bridge built over a series of pontoons.

- They discussed "floating bridge" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "floating bridge" means with a simple example.

instrument panel (noun)

Electrical device consisting of a flat insulated surface that contains switches and dials and meters for controlling other electrical devices.

- He checked the instrument panel.
- They discussed "instrument panel" during the group presentation.

iron boot (noun)

An instrument of torture that is used to heat or crush the foot and leg.

- Understanding "iron boot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "iron boot" means with a simple example.

kitchen sink (noun)

A sink in a kitchen.

- They discussed "kitchen sink" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "kitchen sink" because he had never seen it before.

landing strip (noun)

An airfield without normal airport facilities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "landing strip."
- The article explained what "landing strip" means with a simple example.

lift pump (noun)

Pump used to lift rather than force a liquid up.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lift pump."
- He looked up "lift pump" because he had never seen it before.

murphy bed (noun)

A bed that can be folded or swung into a cabinet when not being used.

- In class, the teacher used "murphy bed" to mean a bed that can be folded or swung into a cabinet....
- They discussed "murphy bed" during the group presentation.

---

nail hole (noun)

A hole left after a nail is removed.

- In class, the teacher used "nail hole" to mean a hole left after a nail is removed.
- The article explained what "nail hole" means with a simple example.

---

non-dedicated file server (noun)

(computer science) a file server that can be used simultaneously as a workstation.

- Understanding "non-dedicated file server" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "non-dedicated file server" means with a simple example.

---

opera hat (noun)

A man's hat with a tall crown; usually covered with silk or with beaver fur.

- Understanding "opera hat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "opera hat" because he had never seen it before.

---

pale (noun)

A wooden strip forming part of a fence.

- He looked up "pale" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pale."

---

panic button (noun)

A button to push in order to summon help in case of an emergency.

- The circuit is operated by a panic button.
- When he saw that I was angry he hit the panic button.

---

patrol ship (noun)

A vessel assigned to patrol an area.

- He looked up "patrol ship" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "patrol ship" during the group presentation.

---

power drill (noun)

A power tool for drilling holes into hard materials.

- Understanding "power drill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "power drill" because he had never seen it before.

---

power meter (noun)

A meter for measuring the amount of electric power used.

- Understanding "power meter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "power meter" to mean a meter for measuring the amount of electric power used.

---

pressure cabin (noun)

Cabin consisting of the pressurized section of an aircraft or spacecraft.

- Understanding "pressure cabin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pressure cabin" to mean cabin consisting of the pressurized section of an....

---

prisoner of war camp (noun)

A camp for prisoners of war.

- In class, the teacher used "prisoner of war camp" to mean a camp for prisoners of war.
- They discussed "prisoner of war camp" during the group presentation.

---

protective cover (noun)

A covering that is intend to protect from damage or injury.

- In class, the teacher used "protective cover" to mean a covering that is intend to protect from damage or....

- They discussed "protective cover" during the group presentation.

---

reference grid (noun)

A pattern of horizontal and vertical lines that provide coordinates for locating points on an image or a map.

- They discussed "reference grid" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "reference grid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

robot bomb (noun)

A small jet-propelled winged missile that carries a bomb.

- Understanding "robot bomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "robot bomb" means with a simple example.

---

roll of tobacco (noun)

Tobacco leaves that have been made into a cylinder.

- The article explained what "roll of tobacco" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "roll of tobacco" to mean tobacco leaves that have been made into a cylinder.

---

sand trap (noun)

A hazard on a golf course.

- They discussed "sand trap" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sand trap" to mean a hazard on a golf course.

---

shoe bomb (noun)

An explosive device concealed inside the heel and sole of a shoe.

- The article explained what "shoe bomb" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shoe bomb" to mean an explosive device concealed inside the heel and....

---

spray-dry (verb)

Dry by bringing into the form of a spray, through contact with a hot gas.

- In everyday English, people use "spray-dry" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "spray-dry" in real sentences.

---

trainer (noun)

Simulator consisting of a machine on the ground that simulates the conditions of flying a plane.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trainer."
- The article explained what "trainer" means with a simple example.

---

warehouse (noun)

A storehouse for goods and merchandise.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "warehouse."
- They discussed "warehouse" during the group presentation.

---

water meter (noun)

Meter for measuring the quantity of water passing through a particular outlet.

- He looked up "water meter" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water meter."

---

adjust (verb)

Adapt or conform oneself to new or different conditions.

- We must adjust to the bad economic situation.
- Adjust the clock, please.

---

automatic data processing system (noun)

A system of one or more computers and associated software with common storage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "automatic data processing system."
- He looked up "automatic data processing system" because he had never seen it before.

---

basket (noun)

A container that is usually woven and has handles.

- He looked up "basket" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "basket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bass guitar (noun)

The guitar with six strings that has the lowest pitch.

- They discussed "bass guitar" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bass guitar."

---

blanket (noun)

A layer of lead surrounding the highly reactive core of a nuclear reactor.

- There was a blanket of snow.
- They discussed "blanket" during the group presentation.

---

bucket (noun)

A roughly cylindrical vessel that is open at the top.

- Understanding "bucket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bucket" means with a simple example.

---

cognitive science (noun)

The field of science concerned with cognition; includes parts of cognitive psychology and linguistics and computer science and cognitive neuroscience and philosophy of mind.

- Understanding "cognitive science" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cognitive science" to mean the field of science concerned with cognition;....

---

controlled substance (noun)

A drug or chemical substance whose possession and use are controlled by law.

- Understanding "controlled substance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "controlled substance" means with a simple example.

---

dining-room table (noun)

Dining-room furniture consisting of a table on which meals can be served.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dining-room table."
- He looked up "dining-room table" because he had never seen it before.

---

drill bit (noun)

A bit used in drilling for oil.

- He looked up "drill bit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "drill bit" during the group presentation.

---

flying carpet (noun)

(Asian folktale) an imaginary carpet that will fly people anywhere they wish to go.

- In class, the teacher used "flying carpet" to mean (asian folktale) an imaginary carpet that will fly....
- Understanding "flying carpet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gambling house (noun)

A public building in which a variety of games of chance can be played (operated as a business).

- The article explained what "gambling house" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "gambling house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hand drill (noun)

A small portable drill held and operated by hand.

- In class, the teacher used "hand drill" to mean a small portable drill held and operated by hand.
- They discussed "hand drill" during the group presentation.

---

imagined (verb)

Form a mental image of something that is not present or that is not the case.

- She tried to use “imagined” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “imagined” in real sentences.

---

in-basket (noun)

A wood or metal receptacle placed on your desk to hold your incoming material.

- In class, the teacher used “in-basket” to mean a wood or metal receptacle placed on your desk to....
- The article explained what “in-basket” means with a simple example.

---

inn (noun)

A hotel providing overnight lodging for travelers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “inn.”
- He looked up “inn” because he had never seen it before.

---

integrated circuit (noun)

A microelectronic computer circuit incorporated into a chip or semiconductor; a whole system rather than a single component.

- Understanding “integrated circuit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “integrated circuit” to mean a microelectronic computer circuit incorporated....

---

ion engine (noun)

A type of reaction-propulsion engine to propel rockets in space; a stream of positive ions is accelerated to a high velocity by an electric field.

- He looked up “ion engine” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ion engine.”

---

lap joint (noun)

Joint made by overlapping two ends and joining them together.

- The article explained what “lap joint” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “lap joint.”

---

lighting circuit (noun)

Wiring that provides power to electric lights.

- The article explained what “lighting circuit” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “lighting circuit” to mean wiring that provides power to electric lights.

---

male plug (noun)

An electrical device with two or three pins that is inserted in a socket to make an electrical connection.

- They discussed “male plug” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “male plug” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

motorcycle (noun)

A motor vehicle with two wheels and a strong frame.

- The article explained what “motorcycle” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “motorcycle” to mean a motor vehicle with two wheels and a strong frame.

---

out-basket (noun)

A wood or metal receptacle placed on your desk to hold your outgoing material.

- The article explained what “out-basket” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “out-basket” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

phone booth (noun)

Booth for using a telephone.

- In class, the teacher used “phone booth” to mean booth for using a telephone.
- Understanding “phone booth” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reed (noun)

A vibrator consisting of a thin strip of stiff material that vibrates to produce a tone when air streams over it.

- The clarinetist fitted a new reed onto his mouthpiece.
- Understanding “reed” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

safety valve (noun)

A valve in a container in which pressure can build up (as a steam boiler); it opens automatically when the pressure reaches a dangerous level.

- Understanding "safety valve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "safety valve."

shorts (noun)

Trousers that end at or above the knee.

- The article explained what "shorts" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "shorts" during the group presentation.

statistical commission (noun)

The commission of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations that is concerned with statistical data from member nations.

- In class, the teacher used "statistical commission" to mean the commission of the economic and social council....
- Understanding "statistical commission" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

toe (noun)

The part of footwear that provides a covering for the toes.

- He looked up "toe" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toe."

toy soldier (noun)

A doll that resembles a soldier.

- In class, the teacher used "toy soldier" to mean a doll that resembles a soldier.
- The article explained what "toy soldier" means with a simple example.

travelling bag (noun)

A portable rectangular container for carrying clothes.

- He carried his small bag onto the plane with him.
- In class, the teacher used "travelling bag" to mean a portable rectangular container for carrying clothes.

vertical surface (noun)

A surface that is vertical.

- The article explained what "vertical surface" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "vertical surface" during the group presentation.

virginia fence (noun)

Rail fence consisting of a zigzag of interlocking rails.

- He looked up "virginia fence" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "virginia fence" to mean rail fence consisting of a zigzag of interlocking rails.

window shade (noun)

An opaque window blind that can cover or uncover a window.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "window shade."
- He looked up "window shade" because he had never seen it before.

wine barrel (noun)

A barrel that holds wine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wine barrel."
- They discussed "wine barrel" during the group presentation.

x-ray photograph (noun)

A radiogram made by exposing photographic film to X rays; used in medical diagnosis.

- They discussed "x-ray photograph" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "x-ray photograph" to mean a radiogram made by exposing photographic film to x....

ambulance (noun)

A vehicle that takes people to and from hospitals.

- In class, the teacher used "ambulance" to mean a vehicle that takes people to and from hospitals.
- The article explained what "ambulance" means with a simple example.

---

athletic wear (noun)

Attire worn for sport or for casual wear.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "athletic wear."
- They discussed "athletic wear" during the group presentation.

---

bailey (noun)

The outer defensive wall that surrounds the outer courtyard of a castle.

- In class, the teacher used "bailey" to mean the outer defensive wall that surrounds the outer....
- Understanding "bailey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

battery-powered (adjective)

Powered by one or more electric batteries.

- A battery-powered radio.
- It is useful to describe something as "battery-powered" when it is powered by one or more electric batteries.

---

beam scale (noun)

A portable balance consisting of a pivoted bar with arms of unequal length.

- The article explained what "beam scale" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beam scale."

---

bedroom furniture (noun)

Furniture intended for use in a bedroom.

- Understanding "bedroom furniture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bedroom furniture" during the group presentation.

---

beer barrel (noun)

A barrel that holds beer.

- He looked up "beer barrel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beer barrel."

---

cant hook (noun)

A peavey having a hook instead of a spike; used for handling logs.

- They discussed "cant hook" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cant hook" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cap screw (noun)

A threaded screw for machine parts; screws into a tapped hole.

- In class, the teacher used "cap screw" to mean a threaded screw for machine parts; screws into a....
- They discussed "cap screw" during the group presentation.

---

cigarette (noun)

Finely ground tobacco wrapped in paper; for smoking.

- He looked up "cigarette" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cigarette" to mean finely ground tobacco wrapped in paper; for smoking.

---

computing system (noun)

A system of one or more computers and associated software with common storage.

- They discussed "computing system" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "computing system" because he had never seen it before.

---

cooling (noun)

A mechanism for keeping something cool.

- The cooling was overhead fans.

- The article explained what "cooling" means with a simple example.

---

cotton mill (noun)

A textile mill for making cotton textiles.

- The article explained what "cotton mill" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cotton mill" during the group presentation.

---

cutting implement (noun)

A tool used for cutting or slicing.

- They discussed "cutting implement" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cutting implement."

---

deep freeze (verb)

Store in a deep-freeze, as for conservation.

- Deep-freeze the food.
- Can you use "deep freeze" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

deep-freeze (noun)

Electric refrigerator (trade name Deepfreeze) in which food is frozen and stored for long periods of time.

- Understanding "deep-freeze" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "deep-freeze" to mean electric refrigerator (trade name deepfreeze) in....

---

dining-hall (noun)

A large room at a college or university; used especially for dining.

- The article explained what "dining-hall" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dining-hall" during the group presentation.

---

dirt bike (noun)

A lightweight motorcycle equipped with rugged tires and suspension; an off-road motorcycle designed for riding cross country or over unpaved ground.

- Understanding "dirt bike" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dirt bike" means with a simple example.

---

doll (noun)

A small replica of a person; used as a toy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "doll."
- The article explained what "doll" means with a simple example.

---

double-hung window (noun)

A window having two sashes that slide up and down.

- He looked up "double-hung window" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double-hung window."

---

drill site (noun)

Workplace that is the site of a drill hole.

- Understanding "drill site" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "drill site" because he had never seen it before.

---

elaborate (verb)

Produce from basic elements or sources; change into a more developed product.

- The bee elaborates honey.
- She elaborated on the main ideas in her dissertation.

---

fairy light (noun)

A small colored light used for decoration (especially at Christmas).

- The article explained what "fairy light" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fairy light."

---

firing chamber (noun)

Chamber that is the part of a gun that receives the charge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firing chamber."
- He looked up "firing chamber" because he had never seen it before.

fishing vessel (noun)

A vessel for fishing; often has a well to keep the catch alive.

- In class, the teacher used "fishing vessel" to mean a vessel for fishing; often has a well to keep the....
- The article explained what "fishing vessel" means with a simple example.

free-reed (noun)

A reed that does not fit closely over the aperture.

- The article explained what "free-reed" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "free-reed" to mean a reed that does not fit closely over the aperture.

funeral-residence (noun)

A mortuary where those who knew the deceased can come to pay their last respects.

- In class, the teacher used "funeral-residence" to mean a mortuary where those who knew the deceased can....
- Understanding "funeral-residence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gravity bomb (noun)

A bomb that falls because of gravity and is not guided to a target.

- He looked up "gravity bomb" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "gravity bomb" to mean a bomb that falls because of gravity and is not....

grocery (noun)

A marketplace where groceries are sold.

- The grocery store included a meat market.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grocery."

heels (noun)

The bottom of a shoe or boot; the back part of a shoe or boot that touches the ground and provides elevation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heels."
- They discussed "heels" during the group presentation.

lifting (verb)

Rise upward, as from pressure or moisture.

- The floor is lifting slowly.
- He did not know how to use "lifting" until he saw an example.

light meter (noun)

Photographic equipment that measures the intensity of light.

- They discussed "light meter" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light meter."

lincoln memorial (noun)

Memorial building in Washington containing a large marble statue of Abraham Lincoln.

- They discussed "lincoln memorial" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lincoln memorial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

logic programming (noun)

A computer language designed in Europe to support natural language processing.

- They discussed "logic programming" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "logic programming" means with a simple example.

long-beard (noun)

A stoneware drinking jug with a long neck; decorated with a caricature of Cardinal Bellarmine (17th century).

- The article explained what "long-beard" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long-beard."

---

magnetic core (noun)

(computer science) a tiny ferrite toroid formerly used in a random access memory to store one bit of data; now superseded by semiconductor memories.

- Each core has three wires passing through it, providing the means to select and detect the contents of each bit.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic core."

---

measuring system (noun)

Instrument that shows the extent or amount or quantity or degree of something.

- In class, the teacher used "measuring system" to mean instrument that shows the extent or amount or....
- Understanding "measuring system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

missile defense system (noun)

Naval weaponry providing a defense system.

- The article explained what "missile defense system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "missile defense system" to mean naval weaponry providing a defense system.

---

mouth organ (noun)

A small rectangular free-reed instrument having a row of free reeds set back in air holes and played by blowing into the desired hole.

- Understanding "mouth organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mouth organ" because he had never seen it before.

---

musical instrument (noun)

Any of various devices or contrivances that can be used to produce musical tones or sounds.

- They discussed "musical instrument" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "musical instrument" means with a simple example.

---

nuclear-powered ship (noun)

Ship whose motive power comes from the energy of a nuclear reactor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nuclear-powered ship."
- The article explained what "nuclear-powered ship" means with a simple example.

---

parallel circuit (noun)

A closed circuit in which the current divides into two or more paths before recombining to complete the circuit.

- In class, the teacher used "parallel circuit" to mean a closed circuit in which the current divides into....
- He looked up "parallel circuit" because he had never seen it before.

---

piano wire (noun)

Thin steel wire of high tensile strength.

- He looked up "piano wire" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "piano wire" during the group presentation.

---

quick-freeze (verb)

Freeze rapidly so as to preserve the natural juices and flavors.

- Quick-freeze the shrimp.
- In everyday English, people use "quick-freeze" when talking about this idea.

---

remote terminal (noun)

A terminal connected to a computer by a data link.

- Understanding "remote terminal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "remote terminal" because he had never seen it before.

---

remote-access data processing (noun)

Data processing in which some of the functions are performed in different places and connected by transmission facilities.

- Understanding "remote-access data processing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "remote-access data processing" during the group presentation.

robot pilot (noun)

A navigational device that automatically keeps ships or planes or spacecraft on a steady course.

- In class, the teacher used "robot pilot" to mean a navigational device that automatically keeps....
- The article explained what "robot pilot" means with a simple example.

rolling pin (noun)

Utensil consisting of a cylinder (usually of wood) with a handle at each end; used to roll out dough.

- Understanding "rolling pin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "rolling pin" means with a simple example.

rope (noun)

Street names for flunitrazepan.

- In class, the teacher used "rope" to mean street names for flunitrazepan.
- They discussed "rope" during the group presentation.

soft soap (noun)

A soft (or liquid) soap made from vegetable oils; used in certain skin diseases.

- They discussed "soft soap" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "soft soap" because he had never seen it before.

stamp album (noun)

An album for stamps.

- In class, the teacher used "stamp album" to mean an album for stamps.
- Understanding "stamp album" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

star drill (noun)

A steel rock drill with a star-shaped point that is used for making holes in stones or masonry; it is operated by hitting the end with a hammer while rotating it between blows.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "star drill."
- They discussed "star drill" during the group presentation.

steam pipe (noun)

A pipe conducting steam.

- He looked up "steam pipe" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steam pipe."

system administrator (noun)

A person in charge of managing and maintaining a computer system of telecommunication system (as for a business or institution).

- In class, the teacher used "system administrator" to mean a person in charge of managing and maintaining a....
- They discussed "system administrator" during the group presentation.

telephone operator (noun)

Someone who helps callers get the person they are calling.

- In class, the teacher used "telephone operator" to mean someone who helps callers get the person they are....
- He looked up "telephone operator" because he had never seen it before.

tie clip (noun)

A piece of jewelry that holds a man's tie in place.

- He looked up "tie clip" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tie clip."

toilet kit (noun)

A kit for carrying toilet articles while traveling.

- The article explained what "toilet kit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toilet kit."

toll call (noun)

A long-distance telephone call at charges above a local rate.

- They discussed "toll call" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "toll call" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

toll line (noun)

A telephone line for long-distance calls.

- They discussed "toll line" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toll line."

---

washing machine (noun)

A home appliance for washing clothes and linens automatically.

- He looked up "washing machine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "washing machine."

---

weapon of mass destruction (noun)

A weapon that kills or injures civilian as well as military personnel (nuclear and chemical and biological weapons).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weapon of mass destruction."
- They discussed "weapon of mass destruction" during the group presentation.

---

wrestling ring (noun)

A square ring in which wrestlers compete.

- The article explained what "wrestling ring" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wrestling ring" during the group presentation.

---

alarm clock (noun)

A clock that wakes a sleeper at some preset time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alarm clock."
- Understanding "alarm clock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alter (verb)

Cause to change; make different; cause a transformation.

- The advent of the automobile may have altered the growth pattern of the city.
- This dress needs to be altered.

---

automatic transmission (noun)

A transmission that automatically changes the gears according to the speed of the car.

- They discussed "automatic transmission" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "automatic transmission" because he had never seen it before.

---

balance beam (noun)

A gymnastic apparatus used by women gymnasts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "balance beam."
- The article explained what "balance beam" means with a simple example.

---

beam balance (noun)

A balance consisting of a lever with two equal arms and a pan suspended from each arm.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beam balance."
- The article explained what "beam balance" means with a simple example.

---

bull tongue (noun)

A heavy plow with a single wide blade; used chiefly in cotton fields.

- They discussed "bull tongue" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bull tongue" because he had never seen it before.

---

carbon arc (noun)

Has carbon electrodes.

- They discussed "carbon arc" during the group presentation.

- He looked up “carbon arc” because he had never seen it before.

---

cattle boat (noun)

A cargo ship for the transport of livestock.

- They discussed “cattle boat” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “cattle boat” because he had never seen it before.

---

cattle farm (noun)

Farm consisting of a large tract of land along with facilities needed to raise livestock (especially cattle).

- They discussed “cattle farm” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “cattle farm” because he had never seen it before.

---

cattle guard (noun)

A bridge over a ditch consisting of parallel metal bars that allow pedestrians and vehicles to pass, but not cattle.

- In class, the teacher used “cattle guard” to mean a bridge over a ditch consisting of parallel metal....
- Understanding “cattle guard” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cigarette case (noun)

A small flat case for holding cigarettes; can be carried in a purse or a pocket.

- He looked up “cigarette case” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “cigarette case” during the group presentation.

---

computer keyboard (noun)

A keyboard that is a data input device for computers; arrangement of keys is modelled after the typewriter keyboard.

- Understanding “computer keyboard” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “computer keyboard” to mean a keyboard that is a data input device for....

---

cooling system (noun)

A mechanism for keeping something cool.

- The cooling was overhead fans.
- He looked up “cooling system” because he had never seen it before.

---

diesel (noun)

An internal-combustion engine that burns heavy oil.

- In class, the teacher used “diesel” to mean an internal-combustion engine that burns heavy oil.
- Understanding “diesel” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

distributed data processing (noun)

Data processing in which some of the functions are performed in different places and connected by transmission facilities.

- He looked up “distributed data processing” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “distributed data processing” during the group presentation.

---

dresses (verb)

Kill and prepare for market or consumption.

- She dresses in the latest Paris fashion.
- He did not know how to use “dresses” until he saw an example.

---

drill press (noun)

A machine tool with a separate, upright stand; an electric drill is pressed into the work automatically or with a hand lever.

- Understanding “drill press” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “drill press” because he had never seen it before.

---

electric hammer (noun)

A hammer driven by electric motor.

- The article explained what “electric hammer” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “electric hammer” to mean a hammer driven by electric motor.

---

eliminated (verb)

Terminate, end, or take out.

- This possibility can be eliminated from our consideration.
- The cyclist has eliminated all the competitors in the race.

fly rod (noun)

A long flexible fishing rod used in fly fishing.

- He looked up "fly rod" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fly rod."

garbage truck (noun)

A truck for collecting domestic refuse.

- In Britain a garbage truck is called a dustcart.
- Understanding "garbage truck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gas fitting (noun)

The fitting (pipes or valves or meters) that convey gas from the gas main to the gas fixtures of a building.

- In class, the teacher used "gas fitting" to mean the fitting (pipes or valves or meters) that convey....
- The article explained what "gas fitting" means with a simple example.

gear mechanism (noun)

A mechanism for transmitting motion for some specific purpose (as the steering gear of a vehicle).

- He looked up "gear mechanism" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "gear mechanism" during the group presentation.

george lucas (noun)

United States screenwriter and filmmaker (born in 1944).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "george lucas."
- Understanding "george lucas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

good luck charm (noun)

Something believed to bring good luck.

- The article explained what "good luck charm" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "good luck charm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grade separation (noun)

A crossing that uses an underpass or overpass.

- They discussed "grade separation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "grade separation" means with a simple example.

hack on (verb)

Fix a computer program piecemeal until it works.

- I'm not very good at hacking but I'll give it my best.
- Learners should practice how to use "hack on" in real sentences.

knights (noun)

A chessman shaped to resemble the head of a horse; can move two squares horizontally and one vertically (or vice versa).

- He looked up "knights" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "knights."

laboratory bench (noun)

A workbench in a laboratory.

- They discussed "laboratory bench" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "laboratory bench" because he had never seen it before.

lamp (noun)

An artificial source of visible illumination.

- In class, the teacher used "lamp" to mean an artificial source of visible illumination.
- The article explained what "lamp" means with a simple example.

---

landing craft (noun)

Naval craft designed for putting ashore troops and equipment.

- The article explained what "landing craft" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "landing craft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leather strip (noun)

Implement consisting of a strip of leather.

- The article explained what "leather strip" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "leather strip" during the group presentation.

---

link-attached terminal (noun)

A terminal connected to a computer by a data link.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "link-attached terminal."
- The article explained what "link-attached terminal" means with a simple example.

---

north-seeking pole (noun)

The pole of a magnet that points toward the north when the magnet is suspended freely.

- In class, the teacher used "north-seeking pole" to mean the pole of a magnet that points toward the north....
- The article explained what "north-seeking pole" means with a simple example.

---

packing case (noun)

A large crate in which goods are packed for shipment or storage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "packing case."
- The article explained what "packing case" means with a simple example.

---

parallel bars (noun)

Gymnastic apparatus consisting of two parallel wooden rods supported on uprights.

- They discussed "parallel bars" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "parallel bars" because he had never seen it before.

---

physics laboratory (noun)

A laboratory for research in physics.

- In class, the teacher used "physics laboratory" to mean a laboratory for research in physics.
- Understanding "physics laboratory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pig farm (noun)

A farm where pigs are raised or kept.

- In class, the teacher used "pig farm" to mean a farm where pigs are raised or kept.
- The article explained what "pig farm" means with a simple example.

---

pile driver (noun)

A machine that drives piling into the ground.

- In class, the teacher used "pile driver" to mean a machine that drives piling into the ground.
- Understanding "pile driver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pills (noun)

A dose of medicine in the form of a small pellet.

- Understanding "pills" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pills" means with a simple example.

---

ranges (noun)

A kitchen appliance used for cooking food.

- The valley was between two ranges of hills.
- He looked up "ranges" because he had never seen it before.

red-ink (verb)

Mark with red ink.

- Red-ink the area that is restricted.
- The coach explained when to use “red-ink” and when to wait.

reed stop (noun)

An organ stop with the tone of a reed instrument.

- Understanding “reed stop” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “reed stop” during the group presentation.

riding habit (noun)

Attire that is typically worn by a horseback rider (especially a woman’s attire).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “riding habit.”
- They discussed “riding habit” during the group presentation.

sales booth (noun)

A booth where articles are displayed for sale.

- He looked up “sales booth” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sales booth.”

sheep bell (noun)

A bell hung round the neck of a sheep so that the sheep can be easily located.

- Understanding “sheep bell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “sheep bell” to mean a bell hung round the neck of a sheep so that the....

shell jacket (noun)

Waist-length jacket tapering to a point at the back; worn by officers in the mess for formal dinners.

- In class, the teacher used “shell jacket” to mean waist-length jacket tapering to a point at the....
- The article explained what “shell jacket” means with a simple example.

shook (noun)

A disassembled barrel; the parts packed for storage or shipment.

- Understanding “shook” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “shook” means with a simple example.

south-seeking pole (noun)

The pole of a magnet that points toward the south when the magnet is suspended freely.

- Understanding “south-seeking pole” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “south-seeking pole” because he had never seen it before.

statistical method (noun)

A method of analyzing or representing statistical data; a procedure for calculating a statistic.

- Understanding “statistical method” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “statistical method” during the group presentation.

studio couch (noun)

Convertible consisting of an upholstered couch that can be converted into a double bed.

- Understanding “studio couch” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “studio couch.”

supply closet (noun)

A closet for storing supplies.

- They discussed “supply closet” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “supply closet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

surface search radar (noun)

A naval radar to search for surface targets.

- They discussed "surface search radar" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "surface search radar" because he had never seen it before.

---

sweat bag (noun)

A porous bag (usually of canvas) that holds water and cools it by evaporation.

- Understanding "sweat bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sweat bag" means with a simple example.

---

tablet (noun)

A small flat compressed cake of some substance.

- A tablet of soap.
- In class, the teacher used "tablet" to mean a small flat compressed cake of some substance.

---

tail coat (noun)

Formalwear consisting of full evening dress for men.

- They discussed "tail coat" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tail coat" because he had never seen it before.

---

tent (noun)

A portable shelter (usually of canvas stretched over supporting poles and fastened to the ground with ropes and pegs).

- He pitched his tent near the creek.
- They discussed "tent" during the group presentation.

---

text-matching (noun)

A computer program that looks for text that matches a given text.

- Google uses text-matching to find web pages containing a particular text.
- The article explained what "text-matching" means with a simple example.

---

toll road (noun)

An expressway on which tolls are collected.

- The article explained what "toll road" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toll road."

---

turkish bath (noun)

A steam room where facilities are available for a bath followed by a shower and massage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "turkish bath."
- He looked up "turkish bath" because he had never seen it before.

---

twenty-two rifle (noun)

A .22-caliber rifle.

- He looked up "twenty-two rifle" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "twenty-two rifle" during the group presentation.

---

vertical file (noun)

A file in which records are stored upright on one edge.

- He looked up "vertical file" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "vertical file" during the group presentation.

---

air-to-surface missile (noun)

A missile designed to be launched from an airplane at a target on the ground.

- Understanding "air-to-surface missile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "air-to-surface missile" means with a simple example.

---

airline (noun)

A commercial enterprise that provides scheduled flights for passengers.

- Understanding "airline" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "airline" to mean a commercial enterprise that provides scheduled....

arena theater (noun)

A theater arranged with seats around at least three sides of the stage.

- He looked up "arena theater" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arena theater."

blocking agent (noun)

A class of drugs that inhibit (block) some biological process.

- Understanding "blocking agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "blocking agent" to mean a class of drugs that inhibit (block) some....

bubble pack (noun)

Packaging in which a product is sealed between a cardboard backing and clear plastic cover.

- They discussed "bubble pack" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bubble pack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bugs (noun)

A small hidden microphone; for listening secretly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bugs."
- He looked up "bugs" because he had never seen it before.

cherry bomb (noun)

A red ball-shaped firecracker with high explosive power.

- The article explained what "cherry bomb" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cherry bomb" to mean a red ball-shaped firecracker with high explosive power.

combat boot (noun)

A boot reaching halfway up to the knee.

- In class, the teacher used "combat boot" to mean a boot reaching halfway up to the knee.
- They discussed "combat boot" during the group presentation.

console table (noun)

A small table fixed to a wall or designed to stand against a wall.

- They discussed "console table" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "console table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cope (noun)

A long cloak; worn by a priest or bishop on ceremonial occasions.

- The article explained what "cope" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cricket bat (noun)

The club used in playing cricket.

- A cricket bat has a narrow handle and a broad flat end for hitting.
- He looked up "cricket bat" because he had never seen it before.

electric organ (noun)

(music) an electronic simulation of a pipe organ.

- In class, the teacher used "electric organ" to mean (music) an electronic simulation of a pipe organ.
- Understanding "electric organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electric pig (noun)

A kitchen appliance for disposing of garbage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric pig."
- He looked up "electric pig" because he had never seen it before.

enhance (verb)

Make better or more attractive.

- This sauce will enhance the flavor of the meat.
- This will enhance your enjoyment.

---

gambling hell (noun)

A public building in which a variety of games of chance can be played (operated as a business).

- Understanding "gambling hell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gambling hell."

---

gas meter (noun)

A meter for measuring the amount of gas flowing through a particular pipe.

- In class, the teacher used "gas meter" to mean a meter for measuring the amount of gas flowing....
- They discussed "gas meter" during the group presentation.

---

generic drug (noun)

When the patent protection for a brand-name drug expires generic versions of the drug can be offered for sale if the FDA agrees.

- Generic drugs are usually cheaper than brand-name drugs.
- They discussed "generic drug" during the group presentation.

---

gloves (noun)

The handwear used by fielders in playing baseball.

- Understanding "gloves" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gloves."

---

greater new orleans bridge (noun)

Twin cantilever bridges across the Mississippi at New Orleans.

- They discussed "greater new orleans bridge" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greater new orleans bridge."

---

guy rope (noun)

A cable, wire, or rope that is used to brace something (especially a tent).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guy rope."
- Understanding "guy rope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

integrated data processing (noun)

Automatic data processing in which data acquisition and other stages or processing are integrated into a coherent system.

- In class, the teacher used "integrated data processing" to mean automatic data processing in which data acquisition....
- He looked up "integrated data processing" because he had never seen it before.

---

invention (noun)

A creation (a new device or process) resulting from study and experimentation.

- Understanding "invention" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "invention."

---

lamp house (noun)

Housing that holds a lamp (as in a movie projector).

- He looked up "lamp house" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lamp house" during the group presentation.

---

morris chair (noun)

An armchair with an adjustable back.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morris chair."
- They discussed "morris chair" during the group presentation.

---

national baseball hall of fame (noun)

A Hall of Fame and museum in Cooperstown, New York, honoring great baseball players.

- They discussed “national baseball hall of fame” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “national baseball hall of fame” to mean a hall of fame and museum in cooperstown, new york,....

---

naval chart (noun)

A chart for a navigator showing the prevailing meteorological and hydrographic and navigational conditions.

- In class, the teacher used “naval chart” to mean a chart for a navigator showing the prevailing....
- He looked up “naval chart” because he had never seen it before.

---

patrol boat (noun)

A vessel assigned to patrol an area.

- Understanding “patrol boat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “patrol boat” during the group presentation.

---

penny bank (noun)

A child’s coin bank (often shaped like a pig).

- Understanding “penny bank” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “penny bank” means with a simple example.

---

pipeline (noun)

A pipe used to transport liquids or gases.

- A pipeline runs from the wells to the seaport.
- Understanding “pipeline” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

radio receiver (noun)

An electronic receiver that detects and demodulates and amplifies transmitted signals.

- Understanding “radio receiver” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “radio receiver” during the group presentation.

---

rock drill (noun)

A drill for penetrating rock.

- Understanding “rock drill” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “rock drill” means with a simple example.

---

security blanket (noun)

A blanket (or toy) that a child carries around in order to reduce anxiety.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “security blanket.”
- The article explained what “security blanket” means with a simple example.

---

sketch (noun)

Preliminary drawing for later elaboration.

- In class, the teacher used “sketch” to mean preliminary drawing for later elaboration.
- He looked up “sketch” because he had never seen it before.

---

soda can (noun)

A can for holding soft drinks.

- They discussed “soda can” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “soda can” because he had never seen it before.

---

stomach pump (noun)

A suction pump used to remove the contents of the stomach.

- The article explained what “stomach pump” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “stomach pump” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

surface-to-air missile (noun)

A guided missile fired from land or shipboard against an airborne target.

- Understanding “surface-to-air missile” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “surface-to-air missile” means with a simple example.

transform (verb)

Change from one form or medium into another.

- This experience transformed her completely.
- She transformed the clay into a beautiful sculpture.

triple-tongue (verb)

Play fast notes on a wind instrument.

- In everyday English, people use "triple-tongue" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "triple-tongue" in real sentences.

two-man tent (noun)

A tent designed for occupancy by two persons.

- In class, the teacher used "two-man tent" to mean a tent designed for occupancy by two persons.
- He looked up "two-man tent" because he had never seen it before.

valve-in-head engine (noun)

Internal-combustion engine having both inlet and exhaust valves located in the cylinder head.

- The article explained what "valve-in-head engine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "valve-in-head engine" to mean internal-combustion engine having both inlet and....

workplace (noun)

A place where work is done.

- Understanding "workplace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "workplace" means with a simple example.

academic costume (noun)

A costume worn on formal occasions by the faculty or students of a university or college.

- They discussed "academic costume" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "academic costume" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

airline business (noun)

A commercial enterprise that provides scheduled flights for passengers.

- He looked up "airline business" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "airline business."

arctic (noun)

A waterproof overshoe that protects shoes from water or snow.

- In class, the teacher used "arctic" to mean a waterproof overshoe that protects shoes from....
- Understanding "arctic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bath powder (noun)

A fine powder for spreading on the body (as after bathing).

- In class, the teacher used "bath powder" to mean a fine powder for spreading on the body (as after....
- The article explained what "bath powder" means with a simple example.

buzz saw (noun)

A power saw that has a steel disk with cutting teeth on the periphery; rotates on a spindle.

- In class, the teacher used "buzz saw" to mean a power saw that has a steel disk with cutting....
- He looked up "buzz saw" because he had never seen it before.

cannabis (noun)

The most commonly used illicit drug; considered a soft drug, it consists of the dried leaves of the hemp plant; smoked or chewed for euphoric effect.

- The article explained what "cannabis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cannabis" to mean the most commonly used illicit drug; considered a....

cargo ships (noun)

Conveyance provided by the ships belonging to one country or industry.

- The article explained what "cargo ships" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cargo ships."

---

chemistry laboratory (noun)

A laboratory for research in chemistry.

- The article explained what "chemistry laboratory" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "chemistry laboratory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

civilian clothing (noun)

Ordinary clothing as distinguished from uniforms, work clothes, clerical garb, etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "civilian clothing."
- He looked up "civilian clothing" because he had never seen it before.

---

climbing iron (noun)

An iron spike attached to the shoe to prevent slipping on ice when walking or climbing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "climbing iron."
- They discussed "climbing iron" during the group presentation.

---

cloth (noun)

Artifact made by weaving or felting or knitting or crocheting natural or synthetic fibers.

- Woven cloth originated in Mesopotamia around 5000 BC.
- He looked up "cloth" because he had never seen it before.

---

clothes closet (noun)

A closet where clothes are stored.

- Understanding "clothes closet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clothes closet."

---

colour television tube (noun)

A television tube that displays images in full color.

- Understanding "colour television tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "colour television tube."

---

computer-oriented language (noun)

A programming language designed for use on a specific class of computers.

- He looked up "computer-oriented language" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer-oriented language."

---

container (noun)

Any object that can be used to hold things (especially a large metal boxlike object of standardized dimensions that can be loaded from one form of transport to another).

- The article explained what "container" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "container" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cut corners (verb)

Do something the cheapest or easiest way.

- Cut corners to make a cheaper product.
- Learners should practice how to use "cut corners" in real sentences.

---

departure gate (noun)

Gate where passengers embark.

- They discussed "departure gate" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "departure gate" because he had never seen it before.

---

early warning radar (noun)

A radar that is part of an early warning system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "early warning radar."

- He looked up “early warning radar” because he had never seen it before.

---

ethical code (noun)

A system of principles governing morality and acceptable conduct.

- The article explained what “ethical code” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “ethical code” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

finishing coat (noun)

The final coating of plaster applied to walls and ceilings.

- We can’t paint until they put on the finishing coat.
- He looked up “finishing coat” because he had never seen it before.

---

fishing pole (noun)

A rod of wood or steel or fiberglass that is used in fishing to extend the fishing line.

- Understanding “fishing pole” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “fishing pole” means with a simple example.

---

flexible joint (noun)

A joint that holds two parts together so that one can swing relative to the other.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “flexible joint.”
- He looked up “flexible joint” because he had never seen it before.

---

fur (noun)

A garment made of the dressed hairy coat of a mammal.

- The article explained what “fur” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “fur” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gene chip (noun)

A microchip that holds DNA probes that form half of the DNA double helix and can recognize DNA from samples being tested.

- The article explained what “gene chip” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gene chip.”

---

genre painting (noun)

A genre depicting everyday life.

- The article explained what “genre painting” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “genre painting” to mean a genre depicting everyday life.

---

gps (noun)

A navigational system involving satellites and computers that can determine the latitude and longitude of a receiver on Earth by computing the time difference for signals from different satellites to reach the receiver.

- In class, the teacher used “gps” to mean a navigational system involving satellites and....
- Understanding “gps” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grandfather clock (noun)

A pendulum clock enclosed in a tall narrow case.

- He looked up “grandfather clock” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “grandfather clock” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gym shoe (noun)

A canvas shoe with a pliable rubber sole.

- He looked up “gym shoe” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “gym shoe” during the group presentation.

---

hack saw (noun)

Saw used with one hand for cutting metal.

- Understanding “hack saw” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “hack saw” to mean saw used with one hand for cutting metal.

---

hug drug (noun)

Street names for methylenedioxymethamphetamine.

- He looked up "hug drug" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hug drug."

laboratory coat (noun)

A light coat worn to protect clothing from substances used while working in a laboratory.

- In class, the teacher used "laboratory coat" to mean a light coat worn to protect clothing from....
- He looked up "laboratory coat" because he had never seen it before.

ladder-back (noun)

The backrest of a chair that consists of two uprights with connecting slats.

- He looked up "ladder-back" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ladder-back" during the group presentation.

link trainer (noun)

An early form of flight simulator.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "link trainer."
- They discussed "link trainer" during the group presentation.

magnetic bottle (noun)

Container consisting of any configuration of magnetic fields used to contain a plasma during controlled thermonuclear reactions.

- He looked up "magnetic bottle" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "magnetic bottle" to mean container consisting of any configuration of....

measuring cup (noun)

Graduated cup used to measure liquid or granular ingredients.

- They discussed "measuring cup" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "measuring cup" because he had never seen it before.

metal drum (noun)

A cylindrical metal container used for shipping or storage of liquids.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "metal drum."
- He looked up "metal drum" because he had never seen it before.

nut house (noun)

Pejorative terms for an insane asylum.

- They discussed "nut house" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "nut house" to mean pejorative terms for an insane asylum.

panel heating (noun)

Heating system consisting of wall or floor or baseboard or ceiling panels containing electric conductors or heating pipes.

- In class, the teacher used "panel heating" to mean heating system consisting of wall or floor or....
- The article explained what "panel heating" means with a simple example.

paragraph (verb)

Write about in a paragraph.

- All her friends were paragraphed in last Monday's paper.
- This story is well paragraphed.

pill (noun)

A dose of medicine in the form of a small pellet.

- His competitor's success was a bitter pill to take.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pill."

pitch pipe (noun)

A small pipe sounding a tone of standard frequency; used to establish the starting pitch for unaccompanied singing.

- Understanding “pitch pipe” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “pitch pipe” means with a simple example.

---

plastic wrap (noun)

Wrapping consisting of a very thin transparent sheet of plastic.

- Understanding “plastic wrap” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “plastic wrap.”

---

poster paint (noun)

Pigment mixed with water-soluble glutinous materials such as size and egg yolk.

- They discussed “poster paint” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “poster paint” because he had never seen it before.

---

ranch (noun)

Farm consisting of a large tract of land along with facilities needed to raise livestock (especially cattle).

- Understanding “ranch” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “ranch” because he had never seen it before.

---

riot gun (noun)

A firearm designed to disperse rioters rather than to inflict serious injury or death.

- He looked up “riot gun” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “riot gun.”

---

salad bowl (noun)

A large bowl for mixing and serving a salad.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “salad bowl.”
- He looked up “salad bowl” because he had never seen it before.

---

screens (noun)

A covering that serves to conceal or shelter something.

- They put screens in the windows for protection against insects.
- They discussed “screens” during the group presentation.

---

screw thread (noun)

The raised helical rib going around a screw.

- In class, the teacher used “screw thread” to mean the raised helical rib going around a screw.
- He looked up “screw thread” because he had never seen it before.

---

shoulder patch (noun)

Patch worn on the shoulder of a military uniform to indicate rank.

- Understanding “shoulder patch” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “shoulder patch” to mean patch worn on the shoulder of a military uniform to....

---

six-shooter (noun)

A pistol with a revolving cylinder (usually having six chambers for bullets).

- They discussed “six-shooter” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “six-shooter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ski jump (noun)

A steep downward ramp from which skiers jump.

- They discussed “ski jump” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “ski jump” to mean a steep downward ramp from which skiers jump.

---

slot machine (noun)

A machine that is operated by the insertion of a coin in a slot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “slot machine.”
- The article explained what “slot machine” means with a simple example.

small computer system interface (noun)

Interface consisting of a standard port between a computer and its peripherals that is used in some computers.

- Understanding "small computer system interface" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "small computer system interface" because he had never seen it before.

soil pipe (noun)

Drain that conveys liquid waste from toilets, etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soil pipe."
- Understanding "soil pipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sporting goods (noun)

Sports equipment sold as a commodity.

- In class, the teacher used "sporting goods" to mean sports equipment sold as a commodity.
- They discussed "sporting goods" during the group presentation.

static line (noun)

A cord used instead of a ripcord to open a parachute; the cord is attached at one end to the aircraft and temporarily attached to the pack of a parachute at the other; it opens the parachute after the jumper is clear of the plane.

- In class, the teacher used "static line" to mean a cord used instead of a ripcord to open a....
- The article explained what "static line" means with a simple example.

street lamp (noun)

A lamp supported on a lamppost; for illuminating a street.

- They discussed "street lamp" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "street lamp" because he had never seen it before.

string bass (noun)

Largest and lowest member of the violin family.

- He looked up "string bass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "string bass."

surface-to-air missile system (noun)

The shipboard system that fires missiles at aircraft.

- The article explained what "surface-to-air missile system" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surface-to-air missile system."

sweat suit (noun)

Garment consisting of sweat pants and a sweatshirt.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweat suit."
- He looked up "sweat suit" because he had never seen it before.

three-quarter binding (noun)

The spine and much of the sides are a different material from the rest of the cover.

- He looked up "three-quarter binding" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "three-quarter binding" during the group presentation.

tin (noun)

A vessel (box, can, pan, etc.) made of tinplate and used mainly in baking.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tin."
- Understanding "tin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tin can (noun)

Airtight sealed metal container for food or drink or paint etc.

- The article explained what "tin can" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tin can" to mean airtight sealed metal container for food or drink....

toe box (noun)

The forward tip of the upper of a shoe or boot that provides space and protection for the toes.

- The toe box may be rounded or pointed.
- They discussed "toe box" during the group presentation.

---

turn the tide (verb)

Cause a complete reversal of the circumstances.

- The tables are turned now that the Republicans are in power!
- The coach explained when to use "turn the tide" and when to wait.

---

arch (noun)

A passageway under a curved masonry construction.

- They built a triumphal arch to memorialize their victory.
- In class, the teacher used "arch" to mean a passageway under a curved masonry construction.

---

ballot box (noun)

A box where voters deposit their ballots.

- The article explained what "ballot box" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ballot box" to mean a box where voters deposit their ballots.

---

bounce back (verb)

Improve in health.

- Can you use "bounce back" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "bounce back" until he saw an example.

---

buses (noun)

A vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public transport.

- In class, the teacher used "buses" to mean a vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public....
- The article explained what "buses" means with a simple example.

---

cannon (noun)

A large artillery gun that is usually on wheels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cannon."
- The article explained what "cannon" means with a simple example.

---

carriers (noun)

A self-propelled wheeled vehicle designed specifically to carry something.

- Refrigerated carriers have revolutionized the grocery business.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carriers."

---

chairs (noun)

A seat for one person, with a support for the back.

- He looked up "chairs" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chairs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

communications protocol (noun)

(computer science) rules determining the format and transmission of data.

- The article explained what "communications protocol" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "communications protocol."

---

crown lens (noun)

A lens made of optical crown glass.

- They discussed "crown lens" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crown lens."

---

diamonds (noun)

A playing card in the minor suit that has one or more red rhombuses on it.

- Diamonds were trumps.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diamonds."

---

disc pack (noun)

(computer science) a portable pack of magnetic disks used in a disk storage device.

- Understanding "disc pack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disc pack."

---

double reed (noun)

A woodwind that has a pair of joined reeds that vibrate together.

- The article explained what "double reed" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "double reed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ferry (noun)

A boat that transports people or vehicles across a body of water and operates on a regular schedule.

- In class, the teacher used "ferry" to mean a boat that transports people or vehicles across a....
- He looked up "ferry" because he had never seen it before.

---

field tent (noun)

A canvas tent for use in the field.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "field tent."
- Understanding "field tent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

freeze-dry (verb)

Preserve by rapid freezing and subsequently drying in a vacuum.

- Freeze-dry the strawberries.
- Can you use "freeze-dry" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

fridge (noun)

A refrigerator in which the coolant is pumped around by an electric motor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fridge."
- He looked up "fridge" because he had never seen it before.

---

gauge (verb)

Measure precisely and against a standard.

- The wire is gauged.
- Gauge bricks.

---

helmet (noun)

A protective headgear made of hard material to resist blows.

- The article explained what "helmet" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "helmet" to mean a protective headgear made of hard material to....

---

indian lodge (noun)

Any of various Native American dwellings.

- In class, the teacher used "indian lodge" to mean any of various native american dwellings.
- He looked up "indian lodge" because he had never seen it before.

---

machine-oriented language (noun)

A programming language designed for use on a specific class of computers.

- In class, the teacher used "machine-oriented language" to mean a programming language designed for use on a....
- The article explained what "machine-oriented language" means with a simple example.

---

mansion (noun)

A large and imposing house.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mansion."
- The article explained what "mansion" means with a simple example.

mechanical piano (noun)

A mechanically operated piano that uses a roll of perforated paper to activate the keys.

- In class, the teacher used "mechanical piano" to mean a mechanically operated piano that uses a roll of....
- The article explained what "mechanical piano" means with a simple example.

merchant ship (noun)

A cargo ship.

- He looked up "merchant ship" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "merchant ship."

object lens (noun)

The lens or system of lenses in a telescope or microscope that is nearest the object being viewed.

- They discussed "object lens" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "object lens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

packing box (noun)

A large crate in which goods are packed for shipment or storage.

- Understanding "packing box" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "packing box" because he had never seen it before.

paper doll (noun)

A piece of paper cut or folded into the shape of a human being.

- They discussed "paper doll" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "paper doll" means with a simple example.

patch pocket (noun)

A flat pocket sewn to the outside of a garment.

- In class, the teacher used "patch pocket" to mean a flat pocket sewn to the outside of a garment.
- The article explained what "patch pocket" means with a simple example.

ranch house (noun)

A one story house with a low pitched roof.

- In class, the teacher used "ranch house" to mean a one story house with a low pitched roof.
- The article explained what "ranch house" means with a simple example.

reading lamp (noun)

A lamp that provides light for reading.

- In class, the teacher used "reading lamp" to mean a lamp that provides light for reading.
- They discussed "reading lamp" during the group presentation.

reception desk (noun)

A counter (as in a hotel) where guests are received.

- Understanding "reception desk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "reception desk" because he had never seen it before.

recreation room (noun)

A room equipped for informal entertaining.

- The article explained what "recreation room" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "recreation room" during the group presentation.

shelter deck (noun)

Upper deck having no overhead protection from the weather, but sheltering the deck below.

- He looked up "shelter deck" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shelter deck."

side chapel (noun)

A small chapel off the side aisle of a church.

- In class, the teacher used "side chapel" to mean a small chapel off the side aisle of a church.
- The article explained what "side chapel" means with a simple example.

---

smoking mixture (noun)

A blend of tobaccos to be smoked in a pipe.

- Understanding "smoking mixture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "smoking mixture" because he had never seen it before.

---

spray paint (noun)

Paint applied with a spray gun.

- The article explained what "spray paint" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spray paint" to mean paint applied with a spray gun.

---

steam heating (noun)

A heating system in which steam is generated in boilers and piped to radiators.

- He looked up "steam heating" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "steam heating" during the group presentation.

---

strip lighting (noun)

Light consisting of long tubes (instead of bulbs) that provide the illumination.

- Understanding "strip lighting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "strip lighting" means with a simple example.

---

strip mall (noun)

A mercantile establishment consisting of a row of various stores and business and restaurants along a road or busy street; usually opening on a parking lot.

- Understanding "strip mall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strip mall."

---

trunk call (noun)

A telephone call made outside the local calling area.

- In class, the teacher used "trunk call" to mean a telephone call made outside the local calling area.
- They discussed "trunk call" during the group presentation.

---

trunk line (noun)

A telephone line connecting two exchanges directly.

- In class, the teacher used "trunk line" to mean a telephone line connecting two exchanges directly.
- Understanding "trunk line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

user interface (noun)

(computer science) a program that controls a display for the user (usually on a computer monitor) and that allows the user to interact with the system.

- Understanding "user interface" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "user interface" because he had never seen it before.

---

water pill (noun)

Any substance that tends to increase the flow of urine, which causes the body to get rid of excess water.

- He looked up "water pill" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "water pill" to mean any substance that tends to increase the flow of....

---

allen screw (noun)

A screw with a hexagonal hole in the head.

- In class, the teacher used "allen screw" to mean a screw with a hexagonal hole in the head.
- The article explained what "allen screw" means with a simple example.

---

answering machine (noun)

An electronic device that answers the telephone and records messages.

- The article explained what "answering machine" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "answering machine" to mean an electronic device that answers the telephone and....

---

apartments (noun)

A suite of rooms usually on one floor of an apartment house.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "apartments."
- The article explained what "apartments" means with a simple example.

---

arch support (noun)

A support for the arch of the foot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arch support."
- He looked up "arch support" because he had never seen it before.

---

bail out (verb)

Remove (water) from a boat by dipping and throwing over the side.

- The coach explained when to use "bail out" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "bail out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

barriers (noun)

A structure or object that impedes free movement.

- In class, the teacher used "barriers" to mean a structure or object that impedes free movement.
- They discussed "barriers" during the group presentation.

---

biology lab (noun)

A laboratory for biological research.

- In class, the teacher used "biology lab" to mean a laboratory for biological research.
- He looked up "biology lab" because he had never seen it before.

---

computing machine (noun)

A machine for performing calculations automatically.

- They discussed "computing machine" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computing machine."

---

escape valve (noun)

A valve in a container in which pressure can build up (as a steam boiler); it opens automatically when the pressure reaches a dangerous level.

- They discussed "escape valve" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "escape valve."

---

face cloth (noun)

Bath linen consisting of a piece of cloth used to wash the face and body.

- The article explained what "face cloth" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "face cloth" to mean bath linen consisting of a piece of cloth used to....

---

frames (noun)

A framework that supports and protects a picture or a mirror.

- Understanding "frames" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "frames" means with a simple example.

---

give the bounce (verb)

Terminate a relationship abruptly.

- Mary gave John the axe after she saw him with another woman.
- She tried to use "give the bounce" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

heart-lung machine (noun)

A pump to maintain circulation during heart surgery; diverts blood from the heart and oxygenates it and then pumps it through the body.

- Understanding "heart-lung machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "heart-lung machine" during the group presentation.

---

indoor garden (noun)

A greenhouse in which plants are arranged in a pleasing manner.

- In class, the teacher used "indoor garden" to mean a greenhouse in which plants are arranged in a....
- They discussed "indoor garden" during the group presentation.

---

insert (noun)

An artifact that is inserted or is to be inserted.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "insert."
- Understanding "insert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

iron lung (noun)

Respirator that produces alternations in air pressure in a chamber surrounding a patient's chest to force air into and out of the lungs thus providing artificial respiration.

- He looked up "iron lung" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iron lung."

---

lens cap (noun)

Cap used to keep lens free of dust when not in use.

- In class, the teacher used "lens cap" to mean cap used to keep lens free of dust when not in use.
- The article explained what "lens cap" means with a simple example.

---

mansion house (noun)

A large and imposing house.

- They discussed "mansion house" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mansion house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

messed (verb)

Make a mess of or create disorder in.

- He messed up his room.
- He did not know how to use "messed" until he saw an example.

---

navigation light (noun)

Light on an airplane that indicates the plane's position and orientation; red light on the left (port) wing tip and green light on the right (starboard) wing tip.

- Understanding "navigation light" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "navigation light" to mean light on an airplane that indicates the plane's....

---

negative feedback circuit (noun)

A feedback circuit that subtracts from the input.

- The article explained what "negative feedback circuit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "negative feedback circuit" during the group presentation.

---

oil lamp (noun)

A lamp that burns oil (as kerosine) for light.

- Understanding "oil lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "oil lamp" during the group presentation.

---

pepper-and-salt (noun)

A fabric woven with flecks of light and dark.

- The article explained what "pepper-and-salt" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pepper-and-salt" during the group presentation.

---

poster colour (noun)

Pigment mixed with water-soluble glutinous materials such as size and egg yolk.

- They discussed "poster colour" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "poster colour" because he had never seen it before.

---

public convenience (noun)

A toilet that is available to the public.

- In class, the teacher used "public convenience" to mean a toilet that is available to the public.
- The article explained what "public convenience" means with a simple example.

---

railroad terminal (noun)

Terminal where trains load or unload passengers or goods.

- He looked up "railroad terminal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "railroad terminal."

---

repair shed (noun)

A large structure at an airport where aircraft can be stored and maintained.

- The article explained what "repair shed" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "repair shed" during the group presentation.

---

riding boot (noun)

A boot without laces that is worn for riding horses; part of a riding habit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "riding boot."
- He looked up "riding boot" because he had never seen it before.

---

rubber-base paint (noun)

A water-base paint that has a latex binder.

- Understanding "rubber-base paint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rubber-base paint" to mean a water-base paint that has a latex binder.

---

steel drum (noun)

A concave percussion instrument made from the metal top of an oil drum; has an array of flattened areas that produce different tones when struck (of Caribbean origin).

- They discussed "steel drum" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "steel drum" to mean a concave percussion instrument made from the metal....

---

stone drill (noun)

A drill for penetrating rock.

- He looked up "stone drill" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stone drill."

---

sunshine-roof (noun)

An automobile roof having a sliding or raisable panel.

- 'sunshine-roof' is a British term for 'sunroof'.
- He looked up "sunshine-roof" because he had never seen it before.

---

table lamp (noun)

A lamp that sits on a table.

- In class, the teacher used "table lamp" to mean a lamp that sits on a table.
- They discussed "table lamp" during the group presentation.

---

telephone pole (noun)

Tall pole supporting telephone wires.

- In class, the teacher used "telephone pole" to mean tall pole supporting telephone wires.
- They discussed "telephone pole" during the group presentation.

---

television receiver (noun)

An electronic device that receives television signals and displays them on a screen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "television receiver."
- He looked up "television receiver" because he had never seen it before.

---

trash bin (noun)

A bin that holds rubbish until it is collected.

- The article explained what "trash bin" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trash bin" to mean a bin that holds rubbish until it is collected.

treasure chest (noun)

A chest filled with valuables.

- Understanding "treasure chest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "treasure chest" during the group presentation.

vacuum bag (noun)

A bag into which dirt is sucked by a vacuum cleaner.

- The article explained what "vacuum bag" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vacuum bag."

void (verb)

Take away the legal force of or render ineffective.

- Void a plea.
- The chemist voided the glass bottle.

wall tent (noun)

A canvas tent with four vertical walls.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wall tent."
- The article explained what "wall tent" means with a simple example.

water cannon (noun)

A hose (carried on a truck) that fires water under high pressure to disperse crowds (especially crowds of rioters).

- He looked up "water cannon" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "water cannon" during the group presentation.

water gauge (noun)

Gauge for indicating the level of water in e.g. a tank or boiler or reservoir.

- Understanding "water gauge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "water gauge" to mean gauge for indicating the level of water in e.g. a....

whip up (verb)

Prepare or cook quickly or hastily.

- He did not know how to use "whip up" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "whip up" and when to wait.

wipe out (verb)

Eliminate completely and without a trace.

- The old values have been wiped out.
- The plague wiped out an entire population.

addressing machine (noun)

A printer that automatically prints addresses on letters for mailing.

- They discussed "addressing machine" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "addressing machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

anchor light (noun)

A light in the rigging of a ship that is riding at anchor.

- The article explained what "anchor light" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "anchor light" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

arrange (verb)

Plan, organize, and carry out (an event).

- Arrange the books on the shelves in chronological order.
- Can you arrange a meeting with the President?

athletic facility (noun)

A facility for athletic events.

- The article explained what “athletic facility” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “athletic facility” to mean a facility for athletic events.

---

bucket seat (noun)

A low single seat as in cars or planes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bucket seat.”
- They discussed “bucket seat” during the group presentation.

---

capitol (noun)

A building occupied by a state legislature.

- He looked up “capitol” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “capitol.”

---

complex instruction set computer (noun)

(computer science) a kind of computer architecture that has a large number of instructions hard coded into the CPU chip.

- The article explained what “complex instruction set computer” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “complex instruction set computer” during the group presentation.

---

core drill (noun)

A drill that removes a cylindrical core from the drill hole.

- Understanding “core drill” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “core drill” during the group presentation.

---

cottage (noun)

A small house with a single story.

- They discussed “cottage” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “cottage” to mean a small house with a single story.

---

crash barrier (noun)

A strong protective barrier that is erected around a racetrack or in the middle of a dual-lane highway in order to reduce the likelihood of severe accidents.

- Understanding “crash barrier” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “crash barrier” because he had never seen it before.

---

dairy farm (noun)

A farm where dairy products are produced.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dairy farm.”
- Understanding “dairy farm” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

delta wing (noun)

An airplane with wings that give it the appearance of an isosceles triangle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “delta wing.”
- Understanding “delta wing” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dog collar (noun)

A stiff white collar with no opening in the front; a distinctive symbol of the clergy.

- They discussed “dog collar” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “dog collar” to mean a stiff white collar with no opening in the front;....

---

drone (noun)

An aircraft without a pilot that is operated by remote control.

- Understanding “drone” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “drone.”

---

electric drill (noun)

A rotating power drill powered by an electric motor.

- In class, the teacher used “electric drill” to mean a rotating power drill powered by an electric motor.

- Understanding "electric drill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electric meter (noun)

A meter for measuring the amount of electric power used.

- In class, the teacher used "electric meter" to mean a meter for measuring the amount of electric power used.
- The article explained what "electric meter" means with a simple example.

electronic organ (noun)

(music) an electronic simulation of a pipe organ.

- They discussed "electronic organ" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "electronic organ" because he had never seen it before.

ethical drug (noun)

A drug that is available only with written instructions from a doctor or dentist to a pharmacist.

- Understanding "ethical drug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ethical drug."

feedback loop (noun)

A circuit that feeds back some of the output to the input of a system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "feedback loop."
- They discussed "feedback loop" during the group presentation.

fence rail (noun)

A rail that is split from a log.

- The article explained what "fence rail" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fence rail" to mean a rail that is split from a log.

floor lamp (noun)

A lamp that stands on the floor.

- Understanding "floor lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "floor lamp" because he had never seen it before.

gas lamp (noun)

A lamp that burns illuminating gas.

- They discussed "gas lamp" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gas lamp" to mean a lamp that burns illuminating gas.

gas oven (noun)

A domestic oven fueled by gas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas oven."
- The article explained what "gas oven" means with a simple example.

ground cloth (noun)

A waterproofed piece of cloth spread on the ground (as under a tent) to protect from moisture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground cloth."
- He looked up "ground cloth" because he had never seen it before.

hard disk (noun)

A rigid magnetic disk mounted permanently in a drive unit.

- He looked up "hard disk" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hard disk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

heating element (noun)

The component of a heater or range that transforms fuel or electricity into heat.

- Understanding "heating element" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "heating element" because he had never seen it before.

hip boot (noun)

A very high boot; used especially for fishing.

- The article explained what "hip boot" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hip boot" to mean a very high boot; used especially for fishing.

---

hop pole (noun)

A tall pole to support the wires on which the hop plant is trained.

- They discussed "hop pole" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hop pole" because he had never seen it before.

---

horn button (noun)

A button that you press to activate the horn of an automobile.

- They discussed "horn button" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horn button."

---

instrument of punishment (noun)

An instrument designed and used to punish a condemned person.

- They discussed "instrument of punishment" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instrument of punishment."

---

leaked (verb)

Enter or escape as through a hole or crack or fissure.

- Water leaked out of the can into the backpack.
- Gas leaked into the basement.

---

locals (noun)

Public transport consisting of a bus or train that stops at all stations or stops.

- Understanding "locals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "locals" means with a simple example.

---

mail slot (noun)

A slot (usually in a door) through which mail can be delivered.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mail slot."
- Understanding "mail slot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mixing bowl (noun)

Bowl used with an electric mixer.

- He looked up "mixing bowl" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mixing bowl."

---

morning-after pill (noun)

A large dose of estrogen taken orally within 24 to 72 hours after intercourse; prevents implantation of a fertilized ovum and so acts as a contraceptive; commonly used after rape or incest.

- Understanding "morning-after pill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "morning-after pill" during the group presentation.

---

oil pipeline (noun)

A pipeline used to transport oil.

- He looked up "oil pipeline" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oil pipeline."

---

opera glasses (noun)

An optical instrument designed for simultaneous use by both eyes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "opera glasses."
- Understanding "opera glasses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

outlet (noun)

An opening that permits escape or release.

- She had no other outlet for her feelings.
- The article explained what "outlet" means with a simple example.

---

outlets (noun)

An opening that permits escape or release.

- He looked up "outlets" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "outlets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

packing plant (noun)

A plant where livestock are slaughtered and processed and packed as meat products.

- In class, the teacher used "packing plant" to mean a plant where livestock are slaughtered and....
- They discussed "packing plant" during the group presentation.

---

portal (noun)

A grand and imposing entrance (often extended metaphorically).

- The portals of the cathedral.
- The portals of heaven.

---

rail fence (noun)

A fence (usually made of split logs laid across each other at an angle).

- The article explained what "rail fence" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rail fence" to mean a fence (usually made of split logs laid across....

---

safety lamp (noun)

An oil lamp that will not ignite flammable gases (methane).

- In class, the teacher used "safety lamp" to mean an oil lamp that will not ignite flammable gases....
- Understanding "safety lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

salad plate (noun)

A plate or bowl for individual servings of salad.

- The article explained what "salad plate" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "salad plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

screw log (noun)

A cigar-shaped log with rotary fins that measure the ship's speed.

- Understanding "screw log" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "screw log" during the group presentation.

---

shades (noun)

Spectacles that are darkened or polarized to protect the eyes from the glare of the sun.

- He was wearing a pair of mirrored shades.
- They used umbrellas as shades.

---

shooting lodge (noun)

A small country house used by hunters during the shooting season.

- Understanding "shooting lodge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "shooting lodge" to mean a small country house used by hunters during the....

---

soup plate (noun)

A deep plate with a wide rim.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soup plate."
- Understanding "soup plate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

step ladder (noun)

A folding portable ladder hinged at the top.

- He looked up "step ladder" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "step ladder" during the group presentation.

student lamp (noun)

A reading lamp with a flexible neck; used on a desk.

- The article explained what "student lamp" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "student lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

telegraph (noun)

Apparatus used to communicate at a distance over a wire (usually in Morse code).

- Understanding "telegraph" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telegraph."

toll bridge (noun)

A bridge where toll is charged for crossing.

- He looked up "toll bridge" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "toll bridge" during the group presentation.

waste basket (noun)

A container with an open top; for discarded paper and other rubbish.

- Understanding "waste basket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "waste basket" because he had never seen it before.

whip top (noun)

A top that is spun by whipping.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whip top."
- Understanding "whip top" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

woman's hat (noun)

Hats for women; the wares sold by a milliner.

- They discussed "woman's hat" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "woman's hat."

assault rifle (noun)

Any of the automatic rifles or semiautomatic rifles with large magazines designed for military use.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assault rifle."
- The article explained what "assault rifle" means with a simple example.

asylum (noun)

A hospital for mentally incompetent or unbalanced person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "asylum."
- The article explained what "asylum" means with a simple example.

barn (noun)

An outlying farm building for storing grain or animal feed and housing farm animals.

- They discussed "barn" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barn."

basic point defense missile system (noun)

A shipboard missile system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basic point defense missile system."
- Understanding "basic point defense missile system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bath soap (noun)

Soap used as a toiletry.

- In class, the teacher used "bath soap" to mean soap used as a toiletry.
- He looked up "bath soap" because he had never seen it before.

blind curve (noun)

A curve or bend in the road that you cannot see around as you are driving.

- He looked up "blind curve" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "blind curve" to mean a curve or bend in the road that you cannot see....

---

bowling equipment (noun)

Equipment used in bowling.

- In class, the teacher used "bowling equipment" to mean equipment used in bowling.
- Understanding "bowling equipment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bubble chamber (noun)

An instrument that records the tracks of ionizing particles.

- In class, the teacher used "bubble chamber" to mean an instrument that records the tracks of ionizing....
- The article explained what "bubble chamber" means with a simple example.

---

butter dish (noun)

A small dish (often with a cover) for holding butter at the table.

- Understanding "butter dish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "butter dish" means with a simple example.

---

cat scan (noun)

An image produced by scanning.

- He analyzed the brain scan.
- You could see the tumor in the CAT scan.

---

cathedral (noun)

The principal Christian church building of a bishop's diocese.

- In class, the teacher used "cathedral" to mean the principal christian church building of a....
- The article explained what "cathedral" means with a simple example.

---

change magnitude (verb)

Change in size or magnitude.

- She tried to use "change magnitude" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "change magnitude" and when to wait.

---

climbing frame (noun)

A framework of bars or logs for children to climb on.

- In class, the teacher used "climbing frame" to mean a framework of bars or logs for children to climb on.
- He looked up "climbing frame" because he had never seen it before.

---

compounds (verb)

Make more intense, stronger, or more marked; ,.

- Learners should practice how to use "compounds" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "compounds" when talking about this idea.

---

core dump (noun)

(computer science) dump of the contents of the chief registers in the CPU; usually used for debugging.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "core dump."
- He looked up "core dump" because he had never seen it before.

---

cylinder (noun)

A cylindrical container for oxygen or compressed air.

- In class, the teacher used "cylinder" to mean a cylindrical container for oxygen or compressed air.
- They discussed "cylinder" during the group presentation.

---

dash off (verb)

Write quickly.

- She dashed off a note to her husband saying she would not be home for supper.

- He scratched off a thank-you note to the hostess.

---

dinner bucket (noun)

A pail in which a workman carries his lunch or dinner.

- Understanding "dinner bucket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dinner bucket" to mean a pail in which a workman carries his lunch or dinner.

---

diving board (noun)

A springboard from which swimmers can dive.

- They discussed "diving board" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "diving board" to mean a springboard from which swimmers can dive.

---

drill hole (noun)

A hole or passage made by a drill; usually made for exploratory purposes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drill hole."
- Understanding "drill hole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

facilitate (verb)

Increase the likelihood of (a response).

- The stimulus facilitates a delayed impulse.
- You could facilitate the process by sharing your knowledge.

---

football helmet (noun)

A padded helmet with a face mask to protect the head of football players.

- He looked up "football helmet" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "football helmet" to mean a padded helmet with a face mask to protect the....

---

fur-piece (noun)

A neckpiece made of fur.

- Understanding "fur-piece" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fur-piece."

---

generating (verb)

Bring into existence.

- The coach explained when to use "generating" and when to wait.
- Can you use "generating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

glass fiber (noun)

A very thin fiber made of glass that functions as a waveguide for light; used in bundles to transmit images.

- He looked up "glass fiber" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "glass fiber."

---

grocery bag (noun)

A sack for holding customer's groceries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grocery bag."
- He looked up "grocery bag" because he had never seen it before.

---

heat lamp (noun)

Electric heater consisting of a high-power incandescent lamp that emits infrared radiation.

- The bathroom could be warmed by an infrared lamp.
- In class, the teacher used "heat lamp" to mean electric heater consisting of a high-power....

---

horse blanket (noun)

Stable gear consisting of a blanket placed under the saddle.

- In class, the teacher used "horse blanket" to mean stable gear consisting of a blanket placed under....
- The article explained what "horse blanket" means with a simple example.

---

initiated (verb)

Set in motion, start an event or prepare the way for.

- He initiated a new program.
- African men are initiated when they reach puberty.

---

lap covering (noun)

The part of a piece of clothing that covers the thighs.

- His lap was covered with food stains.
- He looked up "lap covering" because he had never seen it before.

---

lower cannon (noun)

Cannon of plate armor protecting the forearm.

- He looked up "lower cannon" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lower cannon" to mean cannon of plate armor protecting the forearm.

---

magnetic core memory (noun)

(computer science) a computer memory consisting of an array of magnetic cores; now superseded by semiconductor memories.

- Understanding "magnetic core memory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "magnetic core memory" because he had never seen it before.

---

measuring stick (noun)

Measuring instrument having a sequence of marks at regular intervals; used as a reference in making measurements.

- The article explained what "measuring stick" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "measuring stick" during the group presentation.

---

monkey bridge (noun)

A high narrow platform above a deck or in an engine room or boiler room.

- He looked up "monkey bridge" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "monkey bridge" to mean a high narrow platform above a deck or in an engine....

---

motor horn (noun)

A device on an automobile for making a warning noise.

- In class, the teacher used "motor horn" to mean a device on an automobile for making a warning noise.
- He looked up "motor horn" because he had never seen it before.

---

piece of cloth (noun)

A separate part consisting of fabric.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "piece of cloth."
- He looked up "piece of cloth" because he had never seen it before.

---

plug hat (noun)

A felt hat that is round and hard with a narrow brim.

- The article explained what "plug hat" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "plug hat" to mean a felt hat that is round and hard with a narrow brim.

---

pop tent (noun)

A small tent that is easy to carry and quick to set up.

- In class, the teacher used "pop tent" to mean a small tent that is easy to carry and quick to set up.
- Understanding "pop tent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

recall dose (noun)

An additional dose that makes sure the first dose was effective.

- In class, the teacher used "recall dose" to mean an additional dose that makes sure the first dose....
- The article explained what "recall dose" means with a simple example.

---

relief valve (noun)

A valve in a container in which pressure can build up (as a steam boiler); it opens automatically when the pressure reaches a dangerous level.

- They discussed "relief valve" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "relief valve" means with a simple example.

---

riding crop (noun)

A short whip with a thong at the end and a handle for opening gates.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "riding crop."
- He looked up "riding crop" because he had never seen it before.

---

robots (noun)

A mechanism that can move automatically.

- They discussed "robots" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "robots" means with a simple example.

---

rockets (noun)

A jet engine containing its own propellant and driven by reaction propulsion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rockets."
- He looked up "rockets" because he had never seen it before.

---

roller (noun)

A mechanical device consisting of a cylindrical tube around which the hair is wound to curl it.

- Understanding "roller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roller."

---

round arch (noun)

An arch formed in a continuous curve; characteristic of Roman architecture.

- Understanding "round arch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "round arch" means with a simple example.

---

safety bolt (noun)

A bolt that cannot be moved from outside the door or gate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "safety bolt."
- The article explained what "safety bolt" means with a simple example.

---

safety nut (noun)

Supplementary nut that is screwed down on a primary nut to prevent it from loosening.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "safety nut."
- The article explained what "safety nut" means with a simple example.

---

sea ladder (noun)

(nautical) ladder to be lowered over a ship's side for coming aboard.

- They discussed "sea ladder" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sea ladder" means with a simple example.

---

slipped (verb)

Insert inconspicuously or quickly or quietly.

- He slipped some money into the waiter's hand.
- The ship slipped away in the darkness.

---

space helmet (noun)

A helmet worn by astronauts while in outer space.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "space helmet."
- He looked up "space helmet" because he had never seen it before.

---

steam organ (noun)

A musical instrument consisting of a series of steam whistles played from a keyboard.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steam organ."
- He looked up "steam organ" because he had never seen it before.

steep (verb)

Let sit in a liquid to extract a flavor or to cleanse.

- Steep the blossoms in oil.
- Steep the fruit in alcohol.

swimming costume (noun)

Tight fitting garment worn for swimming.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swimming costume."
- He looked up "swimming costume" because he had never seen it before.

telegraph line (noun)

The wire that carries telegraph and telephone signals.

- Understanding "telegraph line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "telegraph line" during the group presentation.

tennis shoe (noun)

A canvas shoe with a pliable rubber sole.

- He looked up "tennis shoe" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tennis shoe."

tie beam (noun)

A horizontal beam used to prevent two other structural members from spreading apart or separating.

- He nailed the rafters together with a tie beam.
- The article explained what "tie beam" means with a simple example.

tie rod (noun)

Either of two rods that link the steering gear to the front wheels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tie rod."
- They discussed "tie rod" during the group presentation.

triggered (verb)

Put in motion or move to act.

- In everyday English, people use "triggered" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "triggered" in a sentence that fits this situation?

voting booth (noun)

A booth in which a person can cast a private vote.

- They discussed "voting booth" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "voting booth" means with a simple example.

wheat future (noun)

Wheat bought or sold at an agreed price for delivery at a specified future date.

- In class, the teacher used "wheat future" to mean wheat bought or sold at an agreed price for....
- The article explained what "wheat future" means with a simple example.

wine bucket (noun)

A bucket of ice used to chill a bottle of wine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wine bucket."
- He looked up "wine bucket" because he had never seen it before.

wireless telephone (noun)

A telephone that communicates by radio waves rather than along cables.

- Understanding "wireless telephone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wireless telephone" because he had never seen it before.

woman's clothing (noun)

Clothing that is designed for women to wear.

- He looked up "woman's clothing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "woman's clothing."

---

wrist watch (noun)

A watch that is worn strapped to the wrist.

- Understanding "wrist watch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wrist watch."

---

adapt (verb)

Make fit for, or change to suit a new purpose.

- Adapt our native cuisine to the available food resources of the new country.
- Learners should practice how to use "adapt" in real sentences.

---

archive (noun)

A depository containing historical records and documents.

- In class, the teacher used "archive" to mean a depository containing historical records and....
- They discussed "archive" during the group presentation.

---

artificial satellite (noun)

Man-made equipment that orbits around the earth or the moon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "artificial satellite."
- The article explained what "artificial satellite" means with a simple example.

---

bailey bridge (noun)

A temporary bridge designed for rapid construction.

- They discussed "bailey bridge" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bailey bridge" to mean a temporary bridge designed for rapid construction.

---

bicycle (noun)

A wheeled vehicle that has two wheels and is moved by foot pedals.

- They discussed "bicycle" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bicycle" because he had never seen it before.

---

blind bend (noun)

A curve or bend in the road that you cannot see around as you are driving.

- Understanding "blind bend" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "blind bend" during the group presentation.

---

bronze medal (noun)

A trophy made of bronze (or having the appearance of bronze) that is usually awarded for winning third place in a competition.

- The article explained what "bronze medal" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bronze medal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bump up (verb)

Increase or raise.

- OPEC bumped up the price of oil.
- Can you use "bump up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

buttons (noun)

An electrical switch operated by pressing.

- The elevator was operated by push buttons.
- They passed out campaign buttons for their candidate.

---

capitol building (noun)

The government building in Washington where the United States Senate and the House of Representatives meet.

- In class, the teacher used "capitol building" to mean the government building in washington where the....

- The article explained what “capitol building” means with a simple example.

cargo deck (noun)

The space in a ship or aircraft for storing cargo.

- The article explained what “cargo deck” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “cargo deck” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cleaning implement (noun)

Any of a large class of implements used for cleaning.

- In class, the teacher used “cleaning implement” to mean any of a large class of implements used for cleaning.
- The article explained what “cleaning implement” means with a simple example.

clothes basket (noun)

A hamper that holds dirty clothes to be washed or wet clothes to be dried.

- He looked up “clothes basket” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “clothes basket.”

cocaine (noun)

A narcotic (alkaloid) extracted from coca leaves; used as a surface anesthetic or taken for pleasure; can become powerfully addictive.

- Understanding “cocaine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “cocaine” during the group presentation.

compiled (verb)

Put together out of existing material.

- He did not know how to use “compiled” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “compiled” when talking about this idea.

container ship (noun)

A cargo ship designed to hold containerized cargoes.

- The weight of the documentation of all the consignments on board a contemporary container ship can exceed 90 pounds.
- The article explained what “container ship” means with a simple example.

cord (noun)

A line made of twisted fibers or threads.

- The bundle was tied with a cord.
- He looked up “cord” because he had never seen it before.

cylinder head (noun)

A detachable plate that covers the closed end of a cylinder chamber in a reciprocating engine or pump.

- Understanding “cylinder head” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “cylinder head” during the group presentation.

dental plate (noun)

A dental appliance that artificially replaces missing teeth.

- He looked up “dental plate” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dental plate.”

desert boot (noun)

A boot reaching halfway up to the knee.

- They discussed “desert boot” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “desert boot” means with a simple example.

diesel engine (noun)

An internal-combustion engine that burns heavy oil.

- Understanding “diesel engine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “diesel engine” during the group presentation.

disk drive (noun)

Computer hardware that holds and spins a magnetic or optical disk and reads and writes information on it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disk drive."
- The article explained what "disk drive" means with a simple example.

---

dogs-tooth check (noun)

Textile with a pattern of small broken or jagged checks.

- Understanding "dogs-tooth check" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dogs-tooth check" because he had never seen it before.

---

dress whites (noun)

A dress uniform for formal occasions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dress whites."
- The article explained what "dress whites" means with a simple example.

---

drop arch (noun)

A blunt pointed arch drawn from two centers within the span.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drop arch."
- He looked up "drop arch" because he had never seen it before.

---

drop cloth (noun)

A large piece of cloth laid over the floor or furniture while a room is being painted.

- They discussed "drop cloth" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "drop cloth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electric blanket (noun)

A blanket containing and electric heating element that can be controlled to the desired temperature by a rheostat.

- He looked up "electric blanket" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "electric blanket" to mean a blanket containing and electric heating element....

---

engine cooling system (noun)

Equipment in a motor vehicle that cools the engine.

- In class, the teacher used "engine cooling system" to mean equipment in a motor vehicle that cools the engine.
- They discussed "engine cooling system" during the group presentation.

---

fishing tackle (noun)

Gear used in fishing.

- In class, the teacher used "fishing tackle" to mean gear used in fishing.
- The article explained what "fishing tackle" means with a simple example.

---

gas gauge (noun)

Gauge that indicates the amount of gasoline left in the gasoline tank of a vehicle.

- He looked up "gas gauge" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas gauge."

---

gas helmet (noun)

A protective mask with a filter; protects the face and lungs against poisonous gases.

- Understanding "gas helmet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas helmet."

---

gig (noun)

An implement with a shaft and barbed point used for catching fish.

- They played a gig in New Jersey.
- They discussed "gig" during the group presentation.

---

go-cart (noun)

An enclosing framework on casters or wheels; helps babies learn to walk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "go-cart."
- He looked up "go-cart" because he had never seen it before.

---

green goddess (noun)

Street names for marijuana.

- He looked up "green goddess" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "green goddess" during the group presentation.

---

guide rope (noun)

A rope used to guide the movement of the load of a crane.

- In class, the teacher used "guide rope" to mean a rope used to guide the movement of the load of a....
- The article explained what "guide rope" means with a simple example.

---

harbour (noun)

A place of refuge and comfort and security.

- They discussed "harbour" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "harbour" means with a simple example.

---

hot pad (noun)

A pad for use under a hot dish to protect a table.

- In class, the teacher used "hot pad" to mean a pad for use under a hot dish to protect a table.
- He looked up "hot pad" because he had never seen it before.

---

intake (noun)

An opening through which fluid is admitted to a tube or container.

- In class, the teacher used "intake" to mean an opening through which fluid is admitted to a....
- The article explained what "intake" means with a simple example.

---

kick the bucket (verb)

Pass from physical life and lose all bodily attributes and functions necessary to sustain life.

- The children perished in the fire.
- The patient went peacefully.

---

knife blade (noun)

The blade of a knife.

- They discussed "knife blade" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "knife blade" because he had never seen it before.

---

lady chapel (noun)

A small chapel in a church; dedicated to the Virgin Mary.

- They discussed "lady chapel" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lady chapel."

---

liquid crystal display (noun)

A digital display that uses liquid crystal cells that change reflectivity in an applied electric field; used for portable computer displays and watches etc.

- Understanding "liquid crystal display" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "liquid crystal display" to mean a digital display that uses liquid crystal cells....

---

machine bolt (noun)

A bolt with a square or hexagonal head on one end and a threaded shaft on the other end; tightened with a wrench; used to connect metal parts.

- Understanding "machine bolt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "machine bolt" to mean a bolt with a square or hexagonal head on one end....

---

magnetic tape (noun)

Memory device consisting of a long thin plastic strip coated with iron oxide; used to record audio or video signals or to store computer information.

- He took along a dozen tapes to record the interview.
- Understanding "magnetic tape" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

micro-cook (verb)

Cook or heat in a microwave oven.

- In everyday English, people use "micro-cook" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "micro-cook" in real sentences.

observation tower (noun)

A structure commanding a wide view of its surroundings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "observation tower."
- They discussed "observation tower" during the group presentation.

organize (verb)

Arrange by systematic planning and united effort.

- Organize a strike.
- Can you help me organize my files?

oxygen mask (noun)

A breathing device that is placed over the mouth and nose; supplies oxygen from an attached storage tank.

- He looked up "oxygen mask" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "oxygen mask" during the group presentation.

press of sail (noun)

The greatest amount of sail that a ship can carry safely.

- They discussed "press of sail" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "press of sail."

pressure gauge (noun)

Gauge for measuring and indicating fluid pressure.

- Understanding "pressure gauge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pressure gauge" during the group presentation.

railroad tunnel (noun)

A tunnel through which the railroad track runs.

- He looked up "railroad tunnel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "railroad tunnel."

rapid transit (noun)

An urban public transit system using underground or elevated trains.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rapid transit."
- He looked up "rapid transit" because he had never seen it before.

rear of barrel (noun)

Opening in the rear of the barrel of a gun where bullets can be loaded.

- The article explained what "rear of barrel" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rear of barrel" during the group presentation.

reduces (verb)

Be cooked until very little liquid is left.

- In everyday English, people use "reduces" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "reduces" in a sentence that fits this situation?

rope bridge (noun)

A bridge consisting of ropes.

- They discussed "rope bridge" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rope bridge" because he had never seen it before.

sanders (noun)

A power tool used for sanding wood; an endless loop of sandpaper is moved at high speed by an electric motor.

- Understanding “sanders” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “sanders” during the group presentation.

---

sea anchor (noun)

Restraint consisting of a canvas covered frame that floats behind a vessel; prevents drifting or maintains the heading into a wind.

- Understanding “sea anchor” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “sea anchor” to mean restraint consisting of a canvas covered frame that....

---

shifted (verb)

Lay aside, abandon, or leave for another.

- He shifted in his seat.
- His tone shifted.

---

sketch block (noun)

A book containing sheets of paper on which sketches can be drawn.

- The article explained what “sketch block” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sketch block.”

---

ski cap (noun)

A close-fitting woolen cap; often has a tapering tail with a tassel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ski cap.”
- The article explained what “ski cap” means with a simple example.

---

ski lift (noun)

A powered conveyance that carries skiers up a hill.

- He looked up “ski lift” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ski lift.”

---

spark off (verb)

Put in motion or move to act.

- The coach explained when to use “spark off” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “spark off” in real sentences.

---

spirit lamp (noun)

A lamp that burns a volatile liquid fuel such as alcohol.

- The article explained what “spirit lamp” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “spirit lamp” during the group presentation.

---

spy satellite (noun)

A satellite with sensors to detect nuclear explosions.

- The article explained what “spy satellite” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spy satellite.”

---

square nut (noun)

Nut with a square shape.

- In class, the teacher used “square nut” to mean nut with a square shape.
- He looked up “square nut” because he had never seen it before.

---

standard gauge (noun)

Railroad track having the standard width of 56.5 inches.

- He looked up “standard gauge” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “standard gauge” to mean railroad track having the standard width of 56.5 inches.

---

stanford (noun)

A university in California.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stanford.”

- He looked up “stanford” because he had never seen it before.

straight arch (noun)

An arch with mutually supporting voussoirs that has a straight horizontal extrados and intrados.

- Understanding “straight arch” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “straight arch.”

sweat pants (noun)

Loose-fitting trousers with elastic cuffs; worn by athletes.

- Understanding “sweat pants” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “sweat pants” to mean loose-fitting trousers with elastic cuffs; worn by....

table-tennis bat (noun)

Paddle used to play table tennis.

- They discussed “table-tennis bat” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “table-tennis bat” means with a simple example.

telegraph post (noun)

Tall pole supporting telephone wires.

- Understanding “telegraph post” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “telegraph post” during the group presentation.

toilet powder (noun)

A fine powder for spreading on the body (as after bathing).

- Understanding “toilet powder” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “toilet powder.”

torture chamber (noun)

A room in which torture is inflicted.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “torture chamber.”
- He looked up “torture chamber” because he had never seen it before.

trash barrel (noun)

A bin that holds rubbish until it is collected.

- He looked up “trash barrel” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “trash barrel.”

trouble shooter (noun)

A worker whose job is to locate and fix sources of trouble (especially in mechanical devices).

- The article explained what “trouble shooter” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “trouble shooter” to mean a worker whose job is to locate and fix sources of....

wooden shoe (noun)

A shoe carved from a single block of wood.

- They discussed “wooden shoe” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “wooden shoe” means with a simple example.

bed of roses (noun)

A flower bed in which roses are growing.

- He looked up “bed of roses” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “bed of roses” to mean a flower bed in which roses are growing.

cattle trail (noun)

A trail over which cattle were driven to market.

- The article explained what “cattle trail” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cattle trail” to mean a trail over which cattle were driven to market.

child's room (noun)

A bedroom for a child.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "child's room."
- The article explained what "child's room" means with a simple example.

---

chin rest (noun)

A rest on which a violinist can place the chin.

- Understanding "chin rest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chin rest."

---

civic center (noun)

A center where the members of a community can gather for social or cultural activities.

- They discussed "civic center" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "civic center."

---

clay pipe (noun)

A pipe made of clay.

- They discussed "clay pipe" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "clay pipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

computing device (noun)

A machine for performing calculations automatically.

- In class, the teacher used "computing device" to mean a machine for performing calculations automatically.
- They discussed "computing device" during the group presentation.

---

diesel-electric (noun)

A locomotive driven by the electric current generated by a diesel engine.

- In class, the teacher used "diesel-electric" to mean a locomotive driven by the electric current....
- They discussed "diesel-electric" during the group presentation.

---

disk access (noun)

Memory access to the computer disk on which information is stored.

- They discussed "disk access" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "disk access" means with a simple example.

---

dump truck (noun)

Truck whose contents can be emptied without handling; the front end of the platform can be pneumatically raised so that the load is discharged by gravity.

- The article explained what "dump truck" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dump truck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electric lamp (noun)

A lamp powered by electricity.

- They discussed "electric lamp" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "electric lamp" because he had never seen it before.

---

explosive (noun)

A chemical substance that undergoes a rapid chemical change (with the production of gas) on being heated or struck.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "explosive."
- Understanding "explosive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

firing mechanism (noun)

The action that ignites the charge in a firearm.

- In class, the teacher used "firing mechanism" to mean the action that ignites the charge in a firearm.
- Understanding "firing mechanism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

firing pin (noun)

Striker that ignites the charge by striking the primer.

- Understanding "firing pin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "firing pin" means with a simple example.

---

fish ladder (noun)

A series of ascending pools providing a passage for salmon to swim upstream past a dam.

- He looked up "fish ladder" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fish ladder."

---

fishing rod (noun)

A rod of wood or steel or fiberglass that is used in fishing to extend the fishing line.

- The article explained what "fishing rod" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fishing rod" to mean a rod of wood or steel or fiberglass that is used....

---

fly tent (noun)

A tent with a fly front.

- Understanding "fly tent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fly tent."

---

hub-and-spoke (noun)

A system of air transportation in which local airports offer air transportation to a central airport where long-distance flights are available.

- Understanding "hub-and-spoke" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hub-and-spoke" during the group presentation.

---

hurricane roof (noun)

A deck at the top of a passenger ship.

- The article explained what "hurricane roof" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hurricane roof" to mean a deck at the top of a passenger ship.

---

instrument of execution (noun)

An instrument designed and used to take the life of a condemned person.

- In class, the teacher used "instrument of execution" to mean an instrument designed and used to take the life of....
- Understanding "instrument of execution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lamp housing (noun)

Housing that holds a lamp (as in a movie projector).

- They discussed "lamp housing" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lamp housing" to mean housing that holds a lamp (as in a movie projector).

---

lanes (noun)

A well-defined track or path; for e.g. swimmers or lines of traffic.

- The article explained what "lanes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lanes" to mean a well-defined track or path; for e.g. swimmers or....

---

liquid soap (noun)

Soap in liquid form.

- They discussed "liquid soap" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "liquid soap" means with a simple example.

---

measuring device (noun)

Instrument that shows the extent or amount or quantity or degree of something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "measuring device."
- The article explained what "measuring device" means with a simple example.

---

missile defence system (noun)

Naval weaponry providing a defense system.

- They discussed "missile defence system" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "missile defence system" to mean naval weaponry providing a defense system.

off-licence (noun)

A store that sells alcoholic beverages for consumption elsewhere.

- The article explained what "off-licence" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "off-licence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

optical device (noun)

A device for producing or controlling light.

- In class, the teacher used "optical device" to mean a device for producing or controlling light.
- The article explained what "optical device" means with a simple example.

organizing (verb)

Arrange by systematic planning and united effort.

- Learners should practice how to use "organizing" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "organizing" carefully so everyone would understand.

performs (verb)

Carry out or perform an action.

- She tried to use "performs" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "performs" when talking about this idea.

poker (noun)

Fire iron consisting of a metal rod with a handle; used to stir a fire.

- They discussed "poker" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "poker" means with a simple example.

portal site (noun)

A site that the owner positions as an entrance to other sites on the internet.

- A portal typically has search engines and free email and chat rooms etc.
- They discussed "portal site" during the group presentation.

power cord (noun)

A cord to conduct power to an electrical appliance.

- They discussed "power cord" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "power cord" to mean a cord to conduct power to an electrical appliance.

proving ground (noun)

A workplace for testing new equipment or ideas.

- Understanding "proving ground" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "proving ground" to mean a workplace for testing new equipment or ideas.

road roller (noun)

Vehicle equipped with heavy wide smooth rollers for compacting roads and pavements.

- In class, the teacher used "road roller" to mean vehicle equipped with heavy wide smooth rollers for....
- Understanding "road roller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

roller bit (noun)

A drill bit that has hardened rotating rollers.

- They discussed "roller bit" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "roller bit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

safety arch (noun)

An undecorated arch that is included in order to strengthen or support a construction.

- In class, the teacher used "safety arch" to mean an undecorated arch that is included in order to....
- They discussed "safety arch" during the group presentation.

sheep pen (noun)

A pen for sheep.

- In class, the teacher used "sheep pen" to mean a pen for sheep.
- They discussed "sheep pen" during the group presentation.

---

shopping basket (noun)

A handbasket used to carry goods while shopping.

- Understanding "shopping basket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "shopping basket" means with a simple example.

---

silk hat (noun)

A man's hat with a tall crown; usually covered with silk or with beaver fur.

- He looked up "silk hat" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "silk hat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

space probe (noun)

A rocket-propelled guided missile that can escape the earth's atmosphere; makes observations of the solar system that cannot be made by terrestrial observation.

- In class, the teacher used "space probe" to mean a rocket-propelled guided missile that can escape....
- He looked up "space probe" because he had never seen it before.

---

spinning top (noun)

A conical child's plaything tapering to a steel point on which it can be made to spin.

- He got a bright red top and string for his birthday.
- They discussed "spinning top" during the group presentation.

---

stamp battery (noun)

A series of stamps operated in one mortar for crushing ores.

- In class, the teacher used "stamp battery" to mean a series of stamps operated in one mortar for....
- The article explained what "stamp battery" means with a simple example.

---

telegraph key (noun)

Key consisting of a lever that sends a telegraph signal when it is depressed and the circuit is closed.

- The article explained what "telegraph key" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telegraph key."

---

tent-fly (noun)

Flap consisting of a piece of canvas that can be drawn back to provide entrance to a tent.

- The article explained what "tent-fly" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tent-fly" to mean flap consisting of a piece of canvas that can be....

---

vacuum bomb (noun)

A bomb that uses a fuel-air explosive.

- A thermobaric bomb can create overpressures equal to an atomic bomb.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vacuum bomb."

---

vacuum bottle (noun)

Flask with double walls separated by vacuum; used to maintain substances at high or low temperatures.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vacuum bottle."
- They discussed "vacuum bottle" during the group presentation.

---

water cart (noun)

Cart with a tank for water (especially with fresh water for sale).

- The article explained what "water cart" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "water cart" during the group presentation.

---

water hazard (noun)

Hazard provided by ponds of water that the golfer must avoid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water hazard."

- He looked up “water hazard” because he had never seen it before.

---

ace of clubs (noun)

The ace in the club suit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ace of clubs.”
- Understanding “ace of clubs” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air-intake (noun)

A duct that admits air to be mixed with fuel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “air-intake.”
- The article explained what “air-intake” means with a simple example.

---

ash-pan (noun)

A receptacle fitted beneath the grate in which ashes collect and are removed.

- Understanding “ash-pan” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “ash-pan” to mean a receptacle fitted beneath the grate in which....

---

assembled (verb)

Create by putting components or members together.

- We assembled in the church basement.
- She tried to use “assembled” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

automatic rifle (noun)

Light machine gun.

- They discussed “automatic rifle” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “automatic rifle.”

---

barn door (noun)

The large sliding door of a barn.

- They discussed “barn door” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “barn door” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

biology laboratory (noun)

A laboratory for biological research.

- He looked up “biology laboratory” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “biology laboratory” during the group presentation.

---

bone-ash cup (noun)

A small porous bowl made of bone ash used in assaying to separate precious metals from e.g. lead.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bone-ash cup.”
- Understanding “bone-ash cup” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

broken arch (noun)

An arch with a gap at the apex; the gap is usually filled with some decoration.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “broken arch.”
- The article explained what “broken arch” means with a simple example.

---

burst forth (verb)

Be unleashed; emerge with violence or noise.

- He did not know how to use “burst forth” until he saw an example.
- Can you use “burst forth” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

catherine wheel (noun)

A circular firework that spins round and round emitting colored fire.

- In class, the teacher used “catherine wheel” to mean a circular firework that spins round and round....
- He looked up “catherine wheel” because he had never seen it before.

---

celtic cross (noun)

A Latin cross with a ring surrounding the intersection.

- Understanding "celtic cross" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "celtic cross" because he had never seen it before.

---

coin-operated (adjective)

Of devices that do not operate without the prior insertion of one or more coins.

- A coin-operated telephone.
- Would you call this situation "coin-operated"? Explain why.

---

cylinder press (noun)

A printing press where the type is carried on a flat bed under a cylinder that holds paper and rolls over the type.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cylinder press."
- The article explained what "cylinder press" means with a simple example.

---

derby hat (noun)

A felt hat that is round and hard with a narrow brim.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "derby hat."
- He looked up "derby hat" because he had never seen it before.

---

expansion slot (noun)

(computer) a socket in a microcomputer that will accept a plug-in circuit board.

- The PC had three slots for additional memory.
- They discussed "expansion slot" during the group presentation.

---

fraction (noun)

A small part or item forming a piece of a whole.

- Understanding "fraction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fraction" because he had never seen it before.

---

hub-and-spoke system (noun)

A system of air transportation in which local airports offer air transportation to a central airport where long-distance flights are available.

- The article explained what "hub-and-spoke system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hub-and-spoke system" to mean a system of air transportation in which local....

---

hug-me-tight (noun)

A woman's fitted jacket.

- He looked up "hug-me-tight" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hug-me-tight."

---

hunting crop (noun)

A short whip with a thong at the end and a handle for opening gates.

- The article explained what "hunting crop" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hunting crop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

iron collar (noun)

An instrument of execution for execution by strangulation.

- They discussed "iron collar" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iron collar."

---

jack ladder (noun)

(nautical) a hanging ladder of ropes or chains supporting wooden or metal rungs or steps.

- They discussed "jack ladder" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "jack ladder" because he had never seen it before.

---

laundry truck (noun)

Van that picks up and delivers laundry.

- A laundry truck stops by every week.
- Understanding "laundry truck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leather soap (noun)

A mild soap for cleansing and conditioning leather.

- Understanding "leather soap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "leather soap" means with a simple example.

---

lifting device (noun)

A device for lifting heavy loads.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lifting device."
- He looked up "lifting device" because he had never seen it before.

---

marble (noun)

A small ball of glass that is used in various games.

- The article explained what "marble" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marble."

---

mercury cell (noun)

A primary cell consisting of a zinc anode and a cathode of mercury oxide and an electrolyte of potassium hydroxide.

- They discussed "mercury cell" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mercury cell" to mean a primary cell consisting of a zinc anode and a....

---

naval research laboratory (noun)

The United States Navy's defense laboratory that conducts basic and applied research for the Navy in a variety of scientific and technical disciplines.

- In class, the teacher used "naval research laboratory" to mean the united states navy's defense laboratory that....
- The article explained what "naval research laboratory" means with a simple example.

---

outlet box (noun)

(electricity) receptacle consisting of the metal box designed for connections to a wiring system.

- He looked up "outlet box" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "outlet box."

---

oval office (noun)

The office of the President of the United States in the White House.

- In class, the teacher used "oval office" to mean the office of the president of the united states in....
- The article explained what "oval office" means with a simple example.

---

patent log (noun)

A cigar-shaped log with rotary fins that measure the ship's speed.

- He looked up "patent log" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "patent log" during the group presentation.

---

phone cord (noun)

The telephone wire that connects to the handset.

- He looked up "phone cord" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "phone cord" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

preview (noun)

A screening for a select audience in advance of release for the general public.

- Understanding "preview" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "preview" to mean a screening for a select audience in advance of....

---

protective covering (noun)

A covering that is intend to protect from damage or injury.

- In class, the teacher used "protective covering" to mean a covering that is intend to protect from damage or....
- The article explained what "protective covering" means with a simple example.

pt boat (noun)

A small fast unarmored and lightly armed torpedo boat; P(atrol) T(orpedo) boat.

- He looked up "pt boat" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pt boat" to mean a small fast unarmored and lightly armed torpedo....

rapper (noun)

A device (usually metal and ornamental) attached by a hinge to a door.

- Understanding "rapper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rapper" to mean a device (usually metal and ornamental) attached by....

reduced instruction set computer (noun)

(computer science) a kind of computer architecture that has a relatively small set of computer instructions that it can perform.

- They discussed "reduced instruction set computer" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "reduced instruction set computer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sales outlet (noun)

A place of business for retailing goods.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sales outlet."
- The article explained what "sales outlet" means with a simple example.

seven wonders of the world (noun)

Impressive monuments created in the ancient world that were regarded with awe.

- The article explained what "seven wonders of the world" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "seven wonders of the world" to mean impressive monuments created in the ancient world....

sketch map (noun)

A map drawn from observation (rather than from exact measurements) and representing the main features of an area.

- Understanding "sketch map" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sketch map" during the group presentation.

ski trail (noun)

Trail or slope prepared for skiing.

- They discussed "ski trail" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ski trail."

slap together (verb)

Make hastily and carelessly.

- The coach explained when to use "slap together" and when to wait.
- Can you use "slap together" in a sentence that fits this situation?

solar array (noun)

Electrical device consisting of a large array of connected solar cells.

- He looked up "solar array" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solar array."

spa (noun)

A fashionable hotel usually in a resort area.

- In class, the teacher used "spa" to mean a fashionable hotel usually in a resort area.
- The article explained what "spa" means with a simple example.

space needle (noun)

A tower 605 feet tall in Seattle; a tourist attraction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "space needle."
- The article explained what "space needle" means with a simple example.

spike out (verb)

Bring forth a spike or spikes.

- The coach explained when to use "spike out" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "spike out" until he saw an example.

---

stanford university (noun)

A university in California.

- The article explained what "stanford university" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stanford university" to mean a university in california.

---

statistical procedure (noun)

A method of analyzing or representing statistical data; a procedure for calculating a statistic.

- In class, the teacher used "statistical procedure" to mean a method of analyzing or representing statistical....
- Understanding "statistical procedure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

storage warehouse (noun)

A storehouse for goods and merchandise.

- He looked up "storage warehouse" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "storage warehouse."

---

surface gauge (noun)

Gauge consisting of a scriber mounted on an adjustable stand; used to test the accuracy of plane surfaces.

- Understanding "surface gauge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "surface gauge" means with a simple example.

---

sweep away (verb)

Eliminate completely and without a trace.

- Her swept her away.
- Learners should practice how to use "sweep away" in real sentences.

---

sweep-second (noun)

A second hand that is mounted on the same center as the hour and minute hand and is read on the minutes.

- They discussed "sweep-second" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweep-second."

---

tab (noun)

A short strip of material attached to or projecting from something in order to facilitate opening or identifying or handling it.

- Pull the tab to open the can.
- Files with a red tab will be stored separately.

---

toes (noun)

The part of footwear that provides a covering for the toes.

- They discussed "toes" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "toes" to mean the part of footwear that provides a covering for....

---

underwear (noun)

Undergarment worn next to the skin and under the outer garments.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "underwear."
- He looked up "underwear" because he had never seen it before.

---

university of nebraska (noun)

A university in Lincoln, Nebraska.

- In class, the teacher used "university of nebraska" to mean a university in lincoln, nebraska.
- They discussed "university of nebraska" during the group presentation.

---

waste-paper basket (noun)

A container with an open top; for discarded paper and other rubbish.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "waste-paper basket."

- He looked up “waste-paper basket” because he had never seen it before.

---

wholesale house (noun)

A sales outlet offering goods at a discounted price.

- Understanding “wholesale house” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “wholesale house” because he had never seen it before.

---

wrist band (noun)

A band or bracelet worn around the wrist.

- He looked up “wrist band” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “wrist band” during the group presentation.

---

accessories (noun)

A supplementary component that improves capability.

- Understanding “accessories” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “accessories” during the group presentation.

---

active matrix screen (noun)

A type of LCD screen used for some portable computers; there is a separate circuit for each pixel.

- The article explained what “active matrix screen” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “active matrix screen” to mean a type of lcd screen used for some portable....

---

blank shell (noun)

A cartridge containing an explosive charge but no bullet.

- Understanding “blank shell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “blank shell” means with a simple example.

---

blend in (verb)

Cause (something) to be mixed with (something else).

- At this stage of making the cake, blend in the nuts.
- This flavor will blend with those in your dish.

---

boarding house (noun)

A private house that provides accommodations and meals for paying guests.

- Understanding “boarding house” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “boarding house” means with a simple example.

---

bobby pin (noun)

A flat wire hairpin whose prongs press tightly together; used to hold bobbed hair in place.

- In Britain they call a bobby pin a grip.
- The article explained what “bobby pin” means with a simple example.

---

brake (noun)

Anything that slows or hinders a process.

- She wan not ready to put the brakes on her life with a marriage.
- New legislation will put the brakes on spending.

---

cab (noun)

A compartment at the front of a motor vehicle or locomotive where driver sits.

- In class, the teacher used “cab” to mean a compartment at the front of a motor vehicle or....
- The article explained what “cab” means with a simple example.

---

cattle pen (noun)

A pen for cattle.

- Understanding “cattle pen” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “cattle pen” during the group presentation.

---

deer trail (noun)

A trail worn by the passage of deer.

- He looked up "deer trail" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deer trail."

---

depot (noun)

A depository for goods.

- In class, the teacher used "depot" to mean a depository for goods.
- Understanding "depot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

detention home (noun)

An institution where juvenile offenders can be held temporarily (usually under the supervision of a juvenile court).

- They discussed "detention home" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "detention home" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

detention house (noun)

An institution where juvenile offenders can be held temporarily (usually under the supervision of a juvenile court).

- Understanding "detention house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "detention house" to mean an institution where juvenile offenders can be held....

---

disposal plant (noun)

A plant for disposing of sewage.

- He looked up "disposal plant" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disposal plant."

---

diving dress (noun)

A weighted and hermetically sealed garment supplied with air; worn by underwater divers.

- In class, the teacher used "diving dress" to mean a weighted and hermetically sealed garment supplied....
- They discussed "diving dress" during the group presentation.

---

elevator (noun)

The airfoil on the tailplane of an aircraft that makes it ascend or descend.

- Understanding "elevator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elevator."

---

factories (noun)

A plant consisting of one or more buildings with facilities for manufacturing.

- In class, the teacher used "factories" to mean a plant consisting of one or more buildings with....
- Understanding "factories" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fish slice (noun)

A food turner with a broad blade used for turning or serving fish or other food that is cooked in a frying pan.

- Understanding "fish slice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fish slice."

---

flash-freeze (verb)

Freeze rapidly so as to preserve the natural juices and flavors.

- Learners should practice how to use "flash-freeze" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "flash-freeze" and when to wait.

---

full skirt (noun)

A long skirt gathered at the waist.

- He looked up "full skirt" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "full skirt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

heat-seeking missile (noun)

A missile with a guidance system that directs it toward targets emitting infrared radiation (as the emissions of a jet engine).

- The article explained what "heat-seeking missile" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "heat-seeking missile" during the group presentation.

---

house of detention (noun)

An institution where juvenile offenders can be held temporarily (usually under the supervision of a juvenile court).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house of detention."
- He looked up "house of detention" because he had never seen it before.

---

ink bottle (noun)

A bottle of ink.

- Understanding "ink bottle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ink bottle" because he had never seen it before.

---

jungle gym (noun)

A structure of vertical and horizontal rods where children can climb and play.

- Understanding "jungle gym" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "jungle gym" to mean a structure of vertical and horizontal rods where....

---

lame (noun)

A fabric interwoven with threads of metal.

- She wore a gold lame dress.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lame."

---

locker (noun)

A storage compartment for clothes and valuables; usually it has a lock.

- He looked up "locker" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "locker."

---

long pillow (noun)

A pillow that is often put across a bed underneath the regular pillows.

- They discussed "long pillow" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "long pillow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

long underwear (noun)

An undergarment with shirt and drawers in one piece.

- The article explained what "long underwear" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long underwear."

---

melt down (verb)

Reduce or cause to be reduced from a solid to a liquid state, usually by heating.

- Melt butter.
- Melt down gold.

---

missiles (noun)

A weapon that is forcibly thrown or projected at a targets but is not self-propelled.

- The article explained what "missiles" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "missiles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

motor lodge (noun)

A hotel for motorists; provides direct access from rooms to parking area.

- In class, the teacher used "motor lodge" to mean a hotel for motorists; provides direct access from....
- The article explained what "motor lodge" means with a simple example.

---

nail polish (noun)

A cosmetic lacquer that dries quickly and that is applied to the nails to color them or make them shiny.

- The article explained what "nail polish" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nail polish."

objective lens (noun)

The lens or system of lenses in a telescope or microscope that is nearest the object being viewed.

- They discussed "objective lens" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "objective lens" because he had never seen it before.

pack tent (noun)

A tent that can be carried in a backpack.

- Understanding "pack tent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pack tent" to mean a tent that can be carried in a backpack.

pepper pot (noun)

A shaker with a perforated top for sprinkling ground pepper.

- The article explained what "pepper pot" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pepper pot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pipes (noun)

A tube with a small bowl at one end; used for smoking tobacco.

- They discussed "pipes" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pipes" means with a simple example.

portable saw (noun)

A circular saw that is portable and is operated with a hand grip.

- Understanding "portable saw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "portable saw" to mean a circular saw that is portable and is operated....

sheet pile (noun)

A pile in a row of piles driven side by side to retain earth or prevent seepage.

- They discussed "sheet pile" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sheet pile" means with a simple example.

slice bar (noun)

Iron bar used to loosen and rake clinkers out of furnaces.

- They discussed "slice bar" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slice bar."

square sail (noun)

A four-sided sail set beneath a horizontal yard suspended at the middle from a mast.

- He looked up "square sail" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "square sail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sweep hand (noun)

A second hand that is mounted on the same center as the hour and minute hand and is read on the minutes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweep hand."
- Understanding "sweep hand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tea cloth (noun)

A small tablecloth.

- Understanding "tea cloth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tea cloth" because he had never seen it before.

teaches (verb)

Accustom gradually to some action or attitude.

- Can you use "teaches" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "teaches" and when to wait.

telephone plug (noun)

A plug for connecting a telephone.

- Understanding "telephone plug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "telephone plug."

---

water cooler (noun)

A device for cooling and dispensing drinking water.

- They discussed "water cooler" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "water cooler" to mean a device for cooling and dispensing drinking water.

---

ace of hearts (noun)

The ace in the heart suit.

- The article explained what "ace of hearts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ace of hearts" to mean the ace in the heart suit.

---

alexander graham bell (noun)

United States inventor (born in Scotland) of the telephone (1847-1922).

- They discussed "alexander graham bell" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "alexander graham bell" because he had never seen it before.

---

architectural plan (noun)

Scale drawing of a structure.

- The plans for City Hall were on file.
- He looked up "architectural plan" because he had never seen it before.

---

automobile (noun)

A motor vehicle with four wheels; usually propelled by an internal combustion engine.

- They discussed "automobile" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "automobile" to mean a motor vehicle with four wheels; usually propelled....

---

barrier strip (noun)

A junction unit for connecting 2 cables without the need for plugs.

- They discussed "barrier strip" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "barrier strip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bell tent (noun)

A bell-shaped tent.

- Understanding "bell tent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bell tent" to mean a bell-shaped tent.

---

bicycle-built-for-two (noun)

A bicycle with two sets of pedals and two seats.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bicycle-built-for-two."
- He looked up "bicycle-built-for-two" because he had never seen it before.

---

birth control pill (noun)

A contraceptive in the form of a pill containing estrogen and progestin to inhibit ovulation and so prevent conception.

- The article explained what "birth control pill" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "birth control pill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brake system (noun)

A braking device consisting of a combination of interacting parts that work to slow a motor vehicle.

- Understanding "brake system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brake system."

---

buzz bomb (noun)

A small jet-propelled winged missile that carries a bomb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buzz bomb."

- The article explained what "buzz bomb" means with a simple example.

---

cart track (noun)

Any road or path affording passage especially a rough one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cart track."
- Understanding "cart track" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

circular saw (noun)

A power saw that has a steel disk with cutting teeth on the periphery; rotates on a spindle.

- He looked up "circular saw" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "circular saw" during the group presentation.

---

cow pen (noun)

A pen for cattle.

- In class, the teacher used "cow pen" to mean a pen for cattle.
- The article explained what "cow pen" means with a simple example.

---

cylinder block (noun)

A metal casting containing the cylinders and cooling ducts of an engine.

- The engine had to be replaced because the block was cracked.
- The article explained what "cylinder block" means with a simple example.

---

dip switch (noun)

(computer science) one of a set of small on-off switches mounted in computer hardware; used in place of jumpers to configure the machine for a user.

- They discussed "dip switch" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dip switch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

diving suit (noun)

A weighted and hermetically sealed garment supplied with air; worn by underwater divers.

- He looked up "diving suit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "diving suit" during the group presentation.

---

dull (verb)

Become dull or lusterless in appearance; lose shine or brightness.

- The varnished table top dulled with time.
- Age had dulled the surface.

---

electronic musical instrument (noun)

A musical instrument that generates sounds electronically.

- The article explained what "electronic musical instrument" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "electronic musical instrument" to mean a musical instrument that generates sounds....

---

enables (verb)

Render capable or able for some task.

- The rope enables you to secure yourself when you climb the mountain.
- The coach explained when to use "enables" and when to wait.

---

field artillery (noun)

Movable artillery (other than antiaircraft) used by armies in the field (especially for direct support of front-line troops).

- Understanding "field artillery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "field artillery" during the group presentation.

---

fitted sheet (noun)

A sheet (usually with elastic edges) tailored to fit a particular mattress.

- The article explained what "fitted sheet" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fitted sheet" to mean a sheet (usually with elastic edges) tailored to....

---

flat arch (noun)

An arch with mutually supporting voussoirs that has a straight horizontal extrados and intrados.

- They discussed "flat arch" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flat arch."

---

flat tire (noun)

A deflated pneumatic tire.

- The article explained what "flat tire" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "flat tire" to mean a deflated pneumatic tire.

---

food elevator (noun)

A small elevator used to convey food (or other goods) from one floor of a building to another.

- Understanding "food elevator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "food elevator" during the group presentation.

---

fuel gauge (noun)

An indicator of the amount of fuel remaining in a vehicle.

- The article explained what "fuel gauge" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fuel gauge" to mean an indicator of the amount of fuel remaining in a....

---

generator (noun)

An apparatus that produces a vapor or gas.

- He was the generator of several complaints.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "generator."

---

grind out (verb)

Produce in a routine or monotonous manner.

- We have to crank out publications in order to receive funding.
- She tried to use "grind out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

hand brake (noun)

A brake operated by hand; usually operates by mechanical linkage.

- In class, the teacher used "hand brake" to mean a brake operated by hand; usually operates by....
- Understanding "hand brake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

house of correction (noun)

(formerly) a jail or other place of detention for persons convicted of minor offences.

- The article explained what "house of correction" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "house of correction" during the group presentation.

---

idol (noun)

A material effigy that is worshipped.

- He looked up "idol" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "idol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

junction (noun)

The place where two or more things come together.

- He looked up "junction" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "junction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kick starter (noun)

A starter (as on a motorcycle) that is activated with the foot and the weight of the body.

- They discussed "kick starter" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "kick starter" to mean a starter (as on a motorcycle) that is activated....

---

ladder-back chair (noun)

A chair with a ladder-back.

- The article explained what "ladder-back chair" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ladder-back chair."

---

lazy susan (noun)

A revolving tray placed on a dining table.

- Understanding "lazy susan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lazy susan" because he had never seen it before.

---

locate (verb)

Take up residence and become established.

- Can you locate your cousins in the Midwest?
- Our sense of sight enables us to locate objects in space.

---

locks (noun)

A mechanism that detonates the charge of a gun.

- In class, the teacher used "locks" to mean a mechanism that detonates the charge of a gun.
- Understanding "locks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

master cylinder (noun)

A cylinder that contains brake fluid that is compressed by a piston.

- In class, the teacher used "master cylinder" to mean a cylinder that contains brake fluid that is....
- He looked up "master cylinder" because he had never seen it before.

---

motor inn (noun)

A hotel for motorists; provides direct access from rooms to parking area.

- In class, the teacher used "motor inn" to mean a hotel for motorists; provides direct access from....
- They discussed "motor inn" during the group presentation.

---

opera hood (noun)

A large cloak worn over evening clothes.

- The article explained what "opera hood" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "opera hood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

parking meter (noun)

A coin-operated timer located next to a parking space; depositing money into it entitles you to park your car there for a specified length of time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parking meter."
- Understanding "parking meter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pencil case (noun)

A box for holding pencils.

- They discussed "pencil case" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pencil case."

---

pepper mill (noun)

A mill for grinding pepper.

- He looked up "pepper mill" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pepper mill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pocket lighter (noun)

A lighter for cigars or cigarettes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pocket lighter."
- They discussed "pocket lighter" during the group presentation.

---

power brake (noun)

A brake on an automobile that magnifies a small force applied to the brake pedal into a proportionately larger force applied to slow or stop the vehicle.

- Understanding "power brake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "power brake."

prescription drug (noun)

A drug that is available only with written instructions from a doctor or dentist to a pharmacist.

- He told the doctor that he had been taking his prescription regularly.
- He looked up "prescription drug" because he had never seen it before.

pulse counter (noun)

An electronic counter that counts the number of electric pulses.

- The article explained what "pulse counter" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pulse counter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rope yard (noun)

Workplace consisting of a long narrow path or shed where rope is made.

- Understanding "rope yard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "rope yard" during the group presentation.

safety bicycle (noun)

Bicycle that has two wheels of equal size; pedals are connected to the rear wheel by a multiplying gear.

- They discussed "safety bicycle" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "safety bicycle" means with a simple example.

sailing ship (noun)

A vessel that is powered by the wind; often having several masts.

- They discussed "sailing ship" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sailing ship" because he had never seen it before.

service elevator (noun)

An elevator designed for carrying freight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "service elevator."
- Understanding "service elevator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sheet bend (noun)

A hitch used for temporarily tying a rope to the middle of another rope (or to an eye).

- In class, the teacher used "sheet bend" to mean a hitch used for temporarily tying a rope to the....
- They discussed "sheet bend" during the group presentation.

sleeping accommodation (noun)

A room used primarily for sleeping.

- They discussed "sleeping accommodation" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sleeping accommodation" because he had never seen it before.

Sports & Leisure

hobby (noun)

An activity that you do for pleasure in your free time.

- Painting is a relaxing hobby for many people.
- His hobbies include fishing, cooking, and playing the guitar.

team (noun)

A group of people who play a sport or work together against another group.

- Our team won the basketball game by five points.
- She plays for the school volleyball team.

win (verb)

To be the best or the first in a game, race, or competition.

- They worked hard all season and finally won the championship.
- Who do you think will win the match tonight?

game (noun)

An activity or sport with rules that people play for fun or competition.

- We played a board game after dinner.
- The football game starts at seven.

---

score (noun / verb)

The number of points in a game; to get points in a game.

- What is the score?
- She scored two goals in the first half.

---

swim (verb)

To move through water by moving your arms and legs.

- The children love to swim in the pool.
- I swim every morning before work.

---

run (verb)

To move quickly on foot.

- He runs in the park every evening.
- Can you run faster than your brother?

---

ball (noun)

A round object used in many sports and games.

- Kick the ball to me!
- She threw the ball over the fence.

---

park (noun)

A public area with grass and trees where people can walk, play, or relax.

- We had a picnic in the park.
- Children are playing soccer in the park.

---

movie (noun)

A story shown as moving pictures in a theater or on a screen.

- We watched a funny movie last night.
- Do you want to go to the movies this weekend?

---

music (noun)

Sounds arranged in a way that is pleasant to listen to, often with singing or instruments.

- She listens to music while she studies.
- What kind of music do you like?

---

dance (verb / noun)

To move your body to music; also, a set of such movements.

- They danced at the wedding party.
- He takes dance classes on Fridays.

---

time-out (noun)

A brief suspension of play.

- Each team has two time-outs left.
- He looked up "time-out" because he had never seen it before.

---

really (adverb)

In accordance with truth or fact or reality.

- They don't really listen to us.
- Really, you shouldn't have done it.

---

make out (verb)

Kiss, embrace, or fondle with sexual passion.

- The fleeing convicts were picked out of the darkness by the watchful prison guards.
- I can't make out the faces in this photograph.

---

get even (verb)

Take revenge or even out a score.

- I cannot accept the defeat–I want to get even.
- She tried to use "get even" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

part (noun)

An actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

- She played the part of Desdemona.
- He wanted to feel a part of something bigger than himself.

---

a-team (noun)

A group of elite soldiers or a leadership group of advisors or workers in an organization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "a-team."
- He looked up "a-team" because he had never seen it before.

---

give up (verb)

Allow the other (baseball) team to score.

- Give up a run.
- Both sides have to give up some claims in these negotiations.

---

play (noun)

A dramatic work intended for performance by actors on a stage.

- He wrote several plays but only one was produced on Broadway.
- The play lasted two hours.

---

team up (verb)

Form a team.

- We teamed up for this new project.
- Learners should practice how to use "team up" in real sentences.

---

go game (noun)

A board game for two players who place counters on a grid; the object is to surround and so capture the opponent's counters.

- Understanding "go game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "go game."

---

first team (noun)

A team representing a college or university.

- They discussed "first team" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "first team" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

out of play (adjective)

(of a ball).

- A ball that is out of play is dead.
- The speaker chose "out of play" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

play out (verb)

Become spent or exhausted.

- The champion's strength played out fast.
- We quickly played out our strength.

---

play up (verb)

Ingratiate oneself to; often with insincere behavior.

- She is playing up to the chairman.
- In everyday English, people use "play up" when talking about this idea.

give-and-go (noun)

A basketball maneuver; one offensive player passes the ball to another, then runs toward the basket to take a return pass.

- In class, the teacher used "give-and-go" to mean a basketball maneuver; one offensive player passes....
- They discussed "give-and-go" during the group presentation.

day game (noun)

A game played in daylight.

- He looked up "day game" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "day game."

change-up (noun)

A baseball thrown with little velocity when the batter is expecting a fastball.

- In class, the teacher used "change-up" to mean a baseball thrown with little velocity when the....
- They discussed "change-up" during the group presentation.

run for (verb)

Extend or continue for a certain period of time.

- The film runs 5 hours.
- The coach explained when to use "run for" and when to wait.

run-in (noun)

An angry dispute.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "run-in."
- Understanding "run-in" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

play back (verb)

Reproduce (a recording) on a recorder.

- The lawyers played back the conversation to show that their client was innocent.
- Can you use "play back" in a sentence that fits this situation?

run on (verb)

Continue uninterrupted.

- The disease will run on unchecked.
- Learners should practice how to use "run on" in real sentences.

run-on (adjective)

(verse) without a rhetorical pause between lines.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "run-on."
- The speaker chose "run-on" because it captured the feeling precisely.

home game (noun)

A game played at home.

- The article explained what "home game" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home game."

run by (verb)

Pass by while running.

- We watched children were running by.
- The coach explained when to use "run by" and when to wait.

games (noun)

A single play of a sport or other contest.

- They played word games.
- His life was all fun and games.

play off (verb)

Set into opposition or rivalry.

- Pit a chess player against the Russian champion.
- He plays his two children off against each other.

---

point after (noun)

In American football a point awarded for a successful place kick following a touchdown.

- In class, the teacher used "point after" to mean in american football a point awarded for a....
- The article explained what "point after" means with a simple example.

---

run out (verb)

Use up all one's strength and energy and stop working.

- At the end of the march, I pooped out.
- Our supplies finally ran out.

---

run up (verb)

Make by sewing together quickly.

- Run up a skirt.
- She tried to use "run up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

run-up (noun)

A substantial increase over a relatively short period of time.

- The article explained what "run-up" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "run-up" during the group presentation.

---

run-time (noun)

The time at which a (software or multimedia) program is run.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "run-time."
- The article explained what "run-time" means with a simple example.

---

new line (noun)

The operation that prepares for the next character to be printed or displayed as the first character on the next line.

- In class, the teacher used "new line" to mean the operation that prepares for the next character....
- The article explained what "new line" means with a simple example.

---

play down (verb)

Understate the importance or quality of.

- He played down his royal ancestry.
- The coach explained when to use "play down" and when to wait.

---

make believe (verb)

Represent fictitiously, as in a play, or pretend to be or act like.

- She makes like an actress.
- She tried to use "make believe" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

end game (noun)

The final stages of an extended process of negotiation.

- The diplomatic endgame.
- The article explained what "end game" means with a simple example.

---

game show (noun)

A television or radio program in which contestants compete for awards.

- The article explained what "game show" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "game show" to mean a television or radio program in which contestants....

---

long-play (adjective)

(used of records) playing at a slower speed and for a longer time than earlier records.

- The speaker chose "long-play" because it captured the feeling precisely.

- A “long-play” approach may work better in this case.

---

run into (verb)

Hit against; come into sudden contact with.

- The project ran into numerous financial difficulties.
- I ran into the telephone pole.

---

big game (noun)

Large animals that are hunted for sport.

- He looked up “big game” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “big game.”

---

name part (noun)

The role of the character after whom the play is named.

- In class, the teacher used “name part” to mean the role of the character after whom the play is named.
- They discussed “name part” during the group presentation.

---

run over (verb)

Injure or kill by running over, as with a vehicle.

- Can you use “run over” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “run over” when talking about this idea.

---

play around (verb)

Work with in an amateurish manner.

- He plays around with investments but he never makes any money.
- He plays around a lot.

---

away game (noun)

A game played away from home.

- In class, the teacher used “away game” to mean a game played away from home.
- The article explained what “away game” means with a simple example.

---

playing (noun)

The performance of a part or role in a drama.

- In class, the teacher used “playing” to mean the performance of a part or role in a drama.
- The article explained what “playing” means with a simple example.

---

single out (verb)

Treat differently on the basis of sex or race.

- She was singled out for her outstanding performance.
- The coach explained when to use “single out” and when to wait.

---

night game (noun)

A game played under artificial illumination at night.

- Understanding “night game” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “night game” to mean a game played under artificial illumination at night.

---

run off (verb)

Run away; usually includes taking something or somebody along.

- The thief made off with our silver.
- The coach explained when to use “run off” and when to wait.

---

no-win (adjective)

Certain to end in failure and disappointment.

- A no-win situation.
- It is useful to describe something as “no-win” when it is certain to end in failure and disappointment.

---

run down (verb)

Use up all one's strength and energy and stop working.

- We are running down a few tips.
- The water ran down.

---

run through (verb)

Apply thoroughly; think through.

- We worked through an example.
- They run through 20 bottles of wine a week.

---

run-down (adjective)

Having the spring unwound.

- A run-down watch.
- A run-down neighborhood.

---

run-through (noun)

An uninterrupted rehearsal.

- The article explained what "run-through" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "run-through" during the group presentation.

---

face off (verb)

Start a game by a face-off.

- She tried to use "face off" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "face off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

first half (noun)

The first of two halves of play.

- They discussed "first half" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "first half" means with a simple example.

---

part music (noun)

Vocal music for several voices in independent parts (usually performed without accompaniment).

- Understanding "part music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "part music."

---

home run (noun)

A base hit on which the batter scores a run.

- The president's speech was a home run.
- In class, the teacher used "home run" to mean a base hit on which the batter scores a run.

---

long run (noun)

A period of time sufficient for factors to work themselves out.

- In the long run we will win.
- In the long run we will all be dead.

---

long-run (adjective)

Relating to or extending over a relatively long time.

- The long-run significance of the elections.
- Would you call this situation "long-run"? Explain why.

---

in the long run (adverb)

After a very lengthy period of time.

- She will succeed in the long run.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "in the long run" naturally.

---

run around (verb)

Play boisterously.

- She tried to use “run around” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “run around” until he saw an example.

---

win over (verb)

Make (someone) agree, understand, or realize the truth or validity of something.

- Learners should practice how to use “win over” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “win over” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

head game (noun)

The act of deluding; deception by creating illusory ideas.

- He looked up “head game” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “head game” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

win back (verb)

Recover something or somebody that appeared to be lost.

- We got back the money after we threatened to sue the company.
- He got back his son from the kidnappers.

---

act on (verb)

Regulate one’s behavior in accordance with certain information, ideas, or advice.

- The Founding Fathers acted on certain moral principles.
- Can you act on this matter soon?

---

come together (verb)

Come together, as if in an embrace.

- The coach explained when to use “come together” and when to wait.
- Can you use “come together” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

party game (noun)

A game to amuse guests at a party.

- In class, the teacher used “party game” to mean a game to amuse guests at a party.
- He looked up “party game” because he had never seen it before.

---

play group (noun)

A small informal nursery group meeting for half-day sessions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “play group.”
- The article explained what “play group” means with a simple example.

---

last half (noun)

The second of two halves of play.

- The article explained what “last half” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “last half” to mean the second of two halves of play.

---

end run (noun)

(American football) an attempt to advance the ball by running around the end of the line.

- In class, the teacher used “end run” to mean (american football) an attempt to advance the ball....
- The article explained what “end run” means with a simple example.

---

game law (noun)

A regulation intended to manage or preserve game animals.

- He looked up “game law” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “game law” during the group presentation.

---

war game (noun)

A simulation of a military operation intended to train military commanders or to demonstrate a situation or to test a proposed strategy.

- He looked up “war game” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “war game” to mean a simulation of a military operation intended to....

power play (noun)

A play in which there is a concentration of players in one location on the field of play.

- They used a power play to return the kickoff.
- She laughed at this sexual power play and walked away.

run away (verb)

Escape from the control of.

- Industry is running away with us all.
- If you see this man, run!

set to music (verb)

Write (music) for (a text).

- The coach explained when to use "set to music" and when to wait.
- Can you use "set to music" in a sentence that fits this situation?

video game (noun)

A game played against a computer.

- They discussed "video game" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "video game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

words (noun)

The text of a popular song or musical-comedy number.

- He wrote both words and music.
- I listened to his words very closely.

court game (noun)

An athletic game played on a court.

- The article explained what "court game" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "court game" to mean an athletic game played on a court.

mind game (noun)

Deliberate actions of calculated psychological manipulation intended to intimidate or confuse (usually for competitive advantage).

- Football players try to play mind games with the opposition.
- The jeweler's mind game is to convince lovers that the size of a gemstone reflects the depth of their feelings.

world series (noun)

Series that constitutes the playoff for the baseball championship.

- We watched the World Series on TV.
- They discussed "world series" during the group presentation.

played (adjective)

(of games) engaged in.

- The loosely played game.
- The speaker chose "played" because it captured the feeling precisely.

head-to-head (adverb)

Even or close in a race or competition or comparison.

- The narrator describes the scene "head-to-head" in the final chapter.
- Place "head-to-head" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

record (noun)

The number of wins versus losses and ties a team has had.

- At 9-0 they have the best record in their league.
- The film provided a valuable record of stage techniques.

country music (noun)

A simple style of folk music heard mostly in the southern United States; usually played on stringed instruments.

- The article explained what "country music" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "country music" during the group presentation.

---

died (verb)

To be on base at the end of an inning, of a player.

- She died from cancer.
- We almost died laughing during the show.

---

force out (noun)

A putout of a base runner who is required to run; the putout is accomplished by holding the ball while touching the base to which the runner must advance before the runner reaches that base.

- The shortstop got the runner at second on a force.
- The article explained what "force out" means with a simple example.

---

force-out (noun)

A putout of a base runner who is required to run; the putout is accomplished by holding the ball while touching the base to which the runner must advance before the runner reaches that base.

- He looked up "force-out" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "force-out" during the group presentation.

---

second half (noun)

The second of two halves of play.

- They discussed "second half" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "second half."

---

black music (noun)

Music created by African-American musicians; early forms were songs that had a melodic line and a strong rhythmic beat with repeated choruses.

- In class, the teacher used "black music" to mean music created by african-american musicians; early....
- The article explained what "black music" means with a simple example.

---

running time (noun)

The length of time that a movie or tv show runs.

- Understanding "running time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "running time" during the group presentation.

---

face the music (verb)

Accept the unpleasant consequences of one's actions.

- In everyday English, people use "face the music" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "face the music" in real sentences.

---

no-hit game (noun)

A game in which a pitcher allows the opposing team no hits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "no-hit game."
- He looked up "no-hit game" because he had never seen it before.

---

play along (verb)

Perform an accompaniment to.

- He decided to play along with the burglars for the moment.
- In everyday English, people use "play along" when talking about this idea.

---

light show (noun)

A display of colored lights moving in shifting patterns.

- The article explained what "light show" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light show."

---

running back (noun)

(football) a back on the offensive team (a fullback or halfback) who tries to advance the ball by carrying it on plays from the line of scrimmage.

- Understanding "running back" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "running back" during the group presentation.

first period (noun)

The first division into which the play of a game is divided.

- The article explained what "first period" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first period."

role (noun)

An actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

- Play its role.
- What is your role on the team?

take the field (verb)

Go on the playing field, of a football team.

- She tried to use "take the field" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "take the field" until he saw an example.

game plan (noun)

(figurative) a carefully thought out strategy for achieving an objective in war or politics or business or personal affairs.

- Newscasters speculated about the President's game plan for an invasion.
- They discussed "game plan" during the group presentation.

round (noun)

The activity of playing 18 holes of golf.

- A round of golf takes about 4 hours.
- The doctor goes on his rounds first thing every morning.

follow-on (noun)

An immediate second innings forced on a cricket team scoring a prescribed number of runs fewer than its opponents in the first innings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "follow-on."
- He looked up "follow-on" because he had never seen it before.

game of chance (noun)

A game that involves gambling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "game of chance."
- The article explained what "game of chance" means with a simple example.

match (noun)

A pair of people who live together.

- He always carries matches to light his pipe.
- If you drop a match in there the whole place will explode.

run along (verb)

Be in line with; form a line along.

- She tried to use "run along" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "run along" until he saw an example.

step (noun)

A sequence of foot movements that make up a particular dance.

- He taught them the waltz step.
- The police took steps to reduce crime.

word game (noun)

Any game involving the formation or alteration or discovery of words.

- He looked up "word game" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "word game" during the group presentation.

board game (noun)

A game played on a specially designed board.

- Understanding "board game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "board game" during the group presentation.

---

break even (verb)

Attain a level at which there is neither gain nor loss, as in business, gambling, or a competitive sport.

- Can you use "break even" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "break even" until he saw an example.

---

field game (noun)

An outdoor game played on a field of specified dimensions.

- He looked up "field game" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "field game."

---

ground out (verb)

Make an out by hitting the ball on the ground.

- He did not know how to use "ground out" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "ground out" and when to wait.

---

hit-and-run (adjective)

Designed for or consisting of a brief attack followed by a quick escape.

- Hit-and-run units.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hit-and-run."

---

road game (noun)

A game played away from home.

- In class, the teacher used "road game" to mean a game played away from home.
- The article explained what "road game" means with a simple example.

---

time value (noun)

(music) the relative duration of a musical note.

- Understanding "time value" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "time value" because he had never seen it before.

---

character (noun)

An actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

- She is the main character in the novel.
- The radical character of our demands.

---

match-up (noun)

The pairing of people or things as for comparison or competition.

- It was a good match-up but the home team won.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "match-up."

---

one-step (noun)

An early ballroom dance; precursor to the fox-trot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "one-step."
- Understanding "one-step" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

play list (noun)

A list of musical selections for performance or for broadcast by radio.

- Understanding "play list" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "play list" because he had never seen it before.

---

running game (noun)

(American football) a play in which a player attempts to carry the ball through or past the opposing team.

- The coach put great emphasis on running.
- They discussed "running game" during the group presentation.

---

run low (verb)

To be spent or finished.

- Gas is running low at the gas stations in the Midwest.
- In everyday English, people use "run low" when talking about this idea.

---

run short (verb)

To be spent or finished.

- Gas is running low at the gas stations in the Midwest.
- In everyday English, people use "run short" when talking about this idea.

---

short-run (adjective)

Relating to or extending over a limited period.

- Short-run planning.
- Students compared "short-run" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

word play (noun)

Playing on words or speech sounds.

- Understanding "word play" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "word play" because he had never seen it before.

---

perfect game (noun)

A game in which a pitcher does not allow any opposing player to reach base.

- They discussed "perfect game" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "perfect game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shot put (noun)

An athletic competition in which a heavy metal ball is hurled as far as possible.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shot put."
- He looked up "shot put" because he had never seen it before.

---

two-step (noun)

A ballroom dance in duple meter; marked by sliding steps.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "two-step."
- He looked up "two-step" because he had never seen it before.

---

force play (noun)

A putout of a base runner who is required to run; the putout is accomplished by holding the ball while touching the base to which the runner must advance before the runner reaches that base.

- The shortstop got the runner at second on a force.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "force play."

---

fun run (noun)

A footrace run for fun (often including runners who are sponsored for a charity).

- In class, the teacher used "fun run" to mean a footrace run for fun (often including runners who....
- He looked up "fun run" because he had never seen it before.

---

program music (noun)

Musical compositions intended to evoke images or remind the listener of events.

- They discussed "program music" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "program music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

race (verb)

To work as fast as possible towards a goal, sometimes in competition with others.

- The cars raced down the street.
- Let's race and see who gets there first.

running play (noun)

(American football) a play in which a player attempts to carry the ball through or past the opposing team.

- The coach put great emphasis on running.
- The article explained what "running play" means with a simple example.

die (verb)

To be on base at the end of an inning, of a player.

- She died from cancer.
- Martyrs may die every day for their faith.

second period (noun)

The second division into which the play of a game is divided.

- The article explained what "second period" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "second period" to mean the second division into which the play of a game....

starting (noun)

A turn to be a starter (in a game at the beginning).

- His starting meant that the coach thought he was one of their best linemen.
- In class, the teacher used "starting" to mean a turn to be a starter (in a game at the beginning).

coming into court (noun)

Formal attendance (in court or at a hearing) of a party in an action.

- Understanding "coming into court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "coming into court" to mean formal attendance (in court or at a hearing) of a....

period of play (noun)

(in games or plays or other performances) the time during which play proceeds.

- Rain stopped play in the 4th inning.
- Understanding "period of play" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

set shot (noun)

A two-handed basketball shot from a stationary position.

- In class, the teacher used "set shot" to mean a two-handed basketball shot from a stationary position.
- Understanding "set shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

seven-up (noun)

A form of all fours in which a total of seven points is game.

- The article explained what "seven-up" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "seven-up" to mean a form of all fours in which a total of seven....

department of music (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching music and music appreciation.

- Understanding "department of music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "department of music" means with a simple example.

film company (noun)

A company that makes, advertises, and distributes movies.

- The article explained what "film company" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "film company" during the group presentation.

love match (noun)

A marriage for love's sake; not an arranged marriage.

- They discussed "love match" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "love match" means with a simple example.

mark (noun)

A symbol of disgrace or infamy; –Genesis.

- And the Lord set a mark upon Cain.
- She made good marks in algebra.

---

music department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching music and music appreciation.

- The article explained what "music department" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "music department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

r and b (noun)

A combination of blues and jazz that was developed in the United States by Black musicians; an important precursor of rock 'n' roll.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "r and b."
- He looked up "r and b" because he had never seen it before.

---

run across (verb)

Come together.

- The coach explained when to use "run across" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "run across" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

field general (noun)

(American football) the position of the football player in the backfield who directs the offensive play of his team.

- He looked up "field general" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "field general" to mean (american football) the position of the football....

---

film making (noun)

The production of movies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "film making."
- The article explained what "film making" means with a simple example.

---

little league (noun)

A commercially sponsored baseball league for players between 8 and 12 years of age.

- They discussed "little league" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "little league" to mean a commercially sponsored baseball league for....

---

show bill (noun)

A poster advertising a show or play.

- In class, the teacher used "show bill" to mean a poster advertising a show or play.
- Understanding "show bill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

world cup (noun)

A soccer tournament held every four years between national soccer teams to determine a world champion.

- In class, the teacher used "world cup" to mean a soccer tournament held every four years between....
- He looked up "world cup" because he had never seen it before.

---

allowed (verb)

Allow the other (baseball) team to score.

- Mandela was allowed few visitors in prison.
- The camera store owner allowed me $50 on my old camera.

---

be on the ball (verb)

Be well-informed.

- Learners should practice how to use "be on the ball" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "be on the ball" until he saw an example.

---

have a ball (verb)

Enjoy oneself greatly.

- We had a ball at the party and didn't come home until 2 AM.

- She tried to use “have a ball” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

match game (noun)

An international championship match.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “match game.”
- The article explained what “match game” means with a simple example.

---

military music (noun)

Brisk marching music suitable for troops marching in a military parade.

- In class, the teacher used “military music” to mean brisk marching music suitable for troops marching....
- He looked up “military music” because he had never seen it before.

---

whole rest (noun)

A musical rest equal in duration to four beats in common time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “whole rest.”
- Understanding “whole rest” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

write in (verb)

Cast a vote by inserting a name that does not appear on the ballot.

- The coach explained when to use “write in” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “write in” in real sentences.

---

write-in (noun)

A vote cast by writing in the name of a candidate who is not listed on the ballot.

- They discussed “write-in” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “write-in” means with a simple example.

---

ball up (verb)

Make a mess of, destroy or ruin.

- Learners should practice how to use “ball up” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “ball up” and when to wait.

---

big league (noun)

The most important league in any sport (especially baseball).

- They discussed “big league” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “big league” means with a simple example.

---

break water (verb)

Show the fins above the water while swimming.

- The coach explained when to use “break water” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “break water” until he saw an example.

---

no ball (noun)

Unlawfully delivered ball in cricket.

- The umpire called it a no ball.
- He looked up “no ball” because he had never seen it before.

---

pick-off (noun)

A baseball play in which a base runner is caught off base and tagged out.

- The article explained what “pick-off” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “pick-off” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

time-ball (noun)

A ball that slides down a staff to show a fixed time; especially at an observatory.

- They discussed “time-ball” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “time-ball” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

allow (verb)

Allow the other (baseball) team to score.

- This sealed door won't allow the water come into the basement.
- I cannot allow you to see your exam.

---

c major (noun)

(music) the major scale having no sharps or flats.

- Understanding "c major" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "c major" means with a simple example.

---

football game (noun)

Any of various games played with a ball (round or oval) in which two teams try to kick or carry or propel the ball into each other's goal.

- The article explained what "football game" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "football game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

half rest (noun)

A musical rest having the time value of half a whole rest or equal in duration to two beats in common time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half rest."
- They discussed "half rest" during the group presentation.

---

movie making (noun)

The production of movies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "movie making."
- The article explained what "movie making" means with a simple example.

---

play reading (noun)

Performance of a play by a group of readers.

- In class, the teacher used "play reading" to mean performance of a play by a group of readers.
- Understanding "play reading" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

service break (noun)

A tennis game won on the opponent's service.

- In class, the teacher used "service break" to mean a tennis game won on the opponent's service.
- He looked up "service break" because he had never seen it before.

---

ball over (verb)

Surprise greatly; knock someone's socks off.

- He did not know how to use "ball over" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "ball over" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

church music (noun)

Genre of music composed for performance as part of religious ceremonies.

- Understanding "church music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "church music" because he had never seen it before.

---

football team (noun)

A team that plays football.

- He looked up "football team" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "football team" during the group presentation.

---

match play (noun)

Golf scoring by holes won.

- They discussed "match play" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "match play" means with a simple example.

---

miles (noun)

A footrace extending one mile.

- He looked up “miles” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “miles.”

---

music director (noun)

The person who leads a musical group.

- The article explained what “music director” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “music director.”

---

bank run (noun)

The concerted action of depositors who try to withdraw their money from a bank because they think it will fail.

- They discussed “bank run” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “bank run” means with a simple example.

---

beat out (verb)

Come out better in a competition, race, or conflict.

- Agassi beat Becker in the tennis championship.
- We beat the competition.

---

football play (noun)

(American football) a play by the offensive team.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “football play.”
- Understanding “football play” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

match point (noun)

(tennis) the final point needed to win a match (especially in tennis).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “match point.”
- Understanding “match point” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

music stand (noun)

A light stand for holding sheets of printed music.

- They discussed “music stand” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “music stand” means with a simple example.

---

press run (noun)

The period that presses run to produce an issue of a newspaper.

- In class, the teacher used “press run” to mean the period that presses run to produce an issue of....
- Understanding “press run” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

own goal (noun)

(soccer) a goal that results when a player inadvertently knocks the ball into the goal he is defending.

- The own goal cost them the game.
- They discussed “own goal” during the group presentation.

---

playing period (noun)

(in games or plays or other performances) the time during which play proceeds.

- The article explained what “playing period” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “playing period” to mean (in games or plays or other performances) the time....

---

double back (verb)

Retrace one’s course.

- The hikers got into a storm and had to turn back.
- Learners should practice how to use “double back” in real sentences.

---

line drive (noun)

(baseball) a hit that flies straight out from the batter.

- The batter hit a liner to the shortstop.
- He looked up “line drive” because he had never seen it before.

practice game (noun)

A game whose outcome is not recorded in the season's standing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "practice game."
- He looked up "practice game" because he had never seen it before.

table game (noun)

A game that is played on a table.

- Understanding "table game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "table game" during the group presentation.

teams (noun)

A cooperative unit (especially in sports).

- He looked up "teams" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teams."

waiting game (noun)

A strategy of delay.

- The article explained what "waiting game" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "waiting game."

american football (noun)

A game played by two teams of 11 players on a rectangular field 100 yards long; teams try to get possession of the ball and advance it across the opponents goal line in a series of (running or passing) plays.

- They discussed "american football" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "american football" means with a simple example.

ball game (noun)

A field game played with a ball (especially baseball).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ball game."
- He looked up "ball game" because he had never seen it before.

c and w (noun)

A simple style of folk music heard mostly in the southern United States; usually played on stringed instruments.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "c and w."
- They discussed "c and w" during the group presentation.

card game (noun)

A game played with playing cards.

- In class, the teacher used "card game" to mean a game played with playing cards.
- He looked up "card game" because he had never seen it before.

extra time (noun)

Playing time beyond regulation, to break a tie.

- The article explained what "extra time" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "extra time" to mean playing time beyond regulation, to break a tie.

final cut (noun)

The final edited version of a movie as approved by the director and producer.

- He looked up "final cut" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "final cut" during the group presentation.

serious music (noun)

Traditional genre of music conforming to an established form and appealing to critical interest and developed musical taste.

- They discussed "serious music" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "serious music" means with a simple example.

whole step (noun)

A musical interval of two semitones.

- They discussed “whole step” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “whole step.”

---

drop back (verb)

Take position in the rear, as in a military formation or in the line of scrimmage in football.

- The defender dropped back behind his teammate.
- Learners should practice how to use “drop back” in real sentences.

---

half step (noun)

The musical interval between adjacent keys on a keyboard instrument.

- They discussed “half step” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “half step” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

little-league team (noun)

A team that plays in a little league.

- They discussed “little-league team” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “little-league team” because he had never seen it before.

---

show card (noun)

A poster advertising a show or play.

- The article explained what “show card” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “show card” to mean a poster advertising a show or play.

---

final period (noun)

The final division into which the play of a game is divided.

- The article explained what “final period” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “final period.”

---

music paper (noun)

Paper with lines appropriate for writing music.

- The article explained what “music paper” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “music paper” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

play-box (noun)

A box for a child’s toys and personal things (especially at a boarding school).

- Understanding “play-box” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “play-box” during the group presentation.

---

popular music (noun)

Any genre of music having wide appeal (but usually only for a short time).

- He looked up “popular music” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “popular music.”

---

white race (noun)

A light-skinned race.

- He looked up “white race” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “white race.”

---

ahead of the game (adverb)

In an advantageous position.

- She’s ahead of the game.
- Using “ahead of the game” can make your explanation more exact.

---

black race (noun)

A dark-skinned race.

- He looked up “black race” because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "black race" to mean a dark-skinned race.

---

car race (noun)

A race between (usually high-performance) automobiles.

- The article explained what "car race" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "car race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

half title (noun)

A first page of some books displaying only the title of the book.

- They discussed "half title" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half title."

---

race car (noun)

A fast car that competes in races.

- The article explained what "race car" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "race car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dead march (noun)

A slow march to be played for funeral processions.

- They discussed "dead march" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dead march" to mean a slow march to be played for funeral processions.

---

double-team (verb)

Cover with two defensive players.

- He did not know how to use "double-team" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "double-team" in real sentences.

---

fair game (noun)

A person who is the aim of an attack (especially a victim of ridicule or exploitation) by some hostile person or influence.

- Everyone was fair game.
- Understanding "fair game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

music box (noun)

Produces music by means of pins on a revolving cylinder that strike the tuned teeth of a comb-like metal plate.

- In class, the teacher used "music box" to mean produces music by means of pins on a revolving....
- The article explained what "music box" means with a simple example.

---

rock group (noun)

A band of musicians who play rock'n'roll music.

- In class, the teacher used "rock group" to mean a band of musicians who play rock'n'roll music.
- Understanding "rock group" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

double play (noun)

The act of getting two players out on one play.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double play."
- He looked up "double play" because he had never seen it before.

---

major league (noun)

The most important league in any sport (especially baseball).

- Understanding "major league" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "major league."

---

mine run (adjective)

Not special in any way.

- Run-of-the-mill boxing.
- Your run-of-the-mine college graduate.

---

numbers game (noun)

An illegal daily lottery.

- In class, the teacher used "numbers game" to mean an illegal daily lottery.
- The article explained what "numbers game" means with a simple example.

---

piece of music (noun)

A musical work that has been created.

- Understanding "piece of music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "piece of music" to mean a musical work that has been created.

---

race problem (noun)

A social and political problem caused by conflict between races occupying the same or adjacent regions.

- Understanding "race problem" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "race problem."

---

rock music (noun)

A genre of popular music originating in the 1950s; a blend of black rhythm-and-blues with white country-and-western.

- Rock is a generic term for the range of styles that evolved out of rock'n'roll.
- In class, the teacher used "rock music" to mean a genre of popular music originating in the 1950s;....

---

run a risk (verb)

Take a risk in the hope of a favorable outcome.

- Can you use "run a risk" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "run a risk" and when to wait.

---

run-of-the-mine (adjective)

Not special in any way.

- Your run-of-the-mine college graduate.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "run-of-the-mine."

---

starting post (noun)

A post marking the starting point of a race (especially a horse race).

- In class, the teacher used "starting post" to mean a post marking the starting point of a race....
- He looked up "starting post" because he had never seen it before.

---

choose up (verb)

Form sides, as for a game.

- She tried to use "choose up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "choose up" until he saw an example.

---

computer game (noun)

A game played against a computer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computer game."
- Understanding "computer game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

driving (noun)

Hitting a golf ball off of a tee with a driver.

- They discussed "driving" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "driving" means with a simple example.

---

no-win situation (noun)

A situation in which a favorable outcome is impossible; you are bound to lose whatever you do.

- He looked up "no-win situation" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "no-win situation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

records (noun)

The number of wins versus losses and ties a team has had.

- Coffee production last year broke all previous records.
- He looked up "records" because he had never seen it before.

---

shown (verb)

Finish third or better in a horse or dog race.

- Can you use "shown" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "shown" until he saw an example.

---

talking picture (noun)

A movie with synchronized speech and singing.

- In class, the teacher used "talking picture" to mean a movie with synchronized speech and singing.
- He looked up "talking picture" because he had never seen it before.

---

whole note (noun)

A musical note having the longest time value (equal to four beats in common time).

- They discussed "whole note" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "whole note" to mean a musical note having the longest time value (equal....

---

american football game (noun)

A game played by two teams of 11 players on a rectangular field 100 yards long; teams try to get possession of the ball and advance it across the opponents goal line in a series of (running or passing) plays.

- The article explained what "american football game" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american football game."

---

bank shot (noun)

A basketball shot that bounces off of the backboard before passing through the hoop.

- Understanding "bank shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bank shot" to mean a basketball shot that bounces off of the backboard....

---

cup final (noun)

The final match of any cup competition (such as the annual final of the English soccer competition at Wembley).

- In class, the teacher used "cup final" to mean the final match of any cup competition (such as the....
- He looked up "cup final" because he had never seen it before.

---

film industry (noun)

The entertainment industries involved in producing and distributing movies.

- He looked up "film industry" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "film industry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

half note (noun)

A musical note having the time value of half a whole note.

- They discussed "half note" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "half note" because he had never seen it before.

---

human race (noun)

All of the living human inhabitants of the earth.

- She always used 'humankind' because 'mankind' seemed to slight the women.
- Understanding "human race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

people of color (noun)

A race with skin pigmentation different from the white race (especially Blacks).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "people of color."
- He looked up "people of color" because he had never seen it before.

---

sit out (verb)

Not participate in (an activity, such as a dance or a sports event).

- He sat out the game.
- The coach explained when to use "sit out" and when to wait.

water gas (noun)

A mixture of hydrogen and carbon monoxide with small amounts of other gases; made by blowing steam over hot coke or coal.

- In class, the teacher used "water gas" to mean a mixture of hydrogen and carbon monoxide with....
- The article explained what "water gas" means with a simple example.

base hit (noun)

(baseball) the successful act of striking a baseball in such a way that the batter reaches base safely.

- In class, the teacher used "base hit" to mean (baseball) the successful act of striking a....
- They discussed "base hit" during the group presentation.

characters (noun)

An actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

- The Greek alphabet has 24 characters.
- In class, the teacher used "characters" to mean an actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

country and western (noun)

A simple style of folk music heard mostly in the southern United States; usually played on stringed instruments.

- The article explained what "country and western" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "country and western" during the group presentation.

cross country (noun)

A long race run over open country.

- In class, the teacher used "cross country" to mean a long race run over open country.
- The article explained what "cross country" means with a simple example.

movie film (noun)

Photographic film several hundred feet long and wound on a spool; to be used in a movie camera.

- He looked up "movie film" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "movie film."

stuff shot (noun)

A basketball shot in which the basketball is propelled downward into the basket.

- He looked up "stuff shot" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stuff shot."

extra point (noun)

In American football a point awarded for a successful place kick following a touchdown.

- In class, the teacher used "extra point" to mean in american football a point awarded for a....
- The article explained what "extra point" means with a simple example.

go fish (noun)

A card game for two players who try to assemble books of cards by asking the opponent for particular cards.

- In class, the teacher used "go fish" to mean a card game for two players who try to assemble....
- He looked up "go fish" because he had never seen it before.

movie industry (noun)

The entertainment industries involved in producing and distributing movies.

- He looked up "movie industry" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "movie industry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

movie star (noun)

A star who plays leading roles in the cinema.

- He looked up "movie star" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "movie star."

nine (noun)

A team of professional baseball players who play and travel together.

- In class, the teacher used "nine" to mean a team of professional baseball players who play....
- The article explained what "nine" means with a simple example.

---

on camera (adverb)

Within range of a movie or television camera.

- The senator didn't realize that he was speaking on camera.
- He answered "on camera," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

truly (adverb)

In accordance with truth or fact or reality.

- She was now truly American.
- We are truly sorry for the inconvenience.

---

carry over (verb)

Transport from one place or state to another.

- Adam would have been carried over into the life eternal.
- Can you use "carry over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

defense team (noun)

The defendant and his legal advisors collectively.

- The defense called for a mistrial.
- The article explained what "defense team" means with a simple example.

---

putting (noun)

Hitting a golf ball that is on the green using a putter.

- His putting let him down today; he didn't sink a single putt over three feet.
- They discussed "putting" during the group presentation.

---

showed (verb)

Finish third or better in a horse or dog race.

- The mathematician showed the validity of the conjecture.
- The blood test showed that he was the father.

---

test match (noun)

An international championship match.

- The article explained what "test match" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "test match" during the group presentation.

---

ball of fire (noun)

A highly energetic and indefatigable person.

- In class, the teacher used "ball of fire" to mean a highly energetic and indefatigable person.
- Understanding "ball of fire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

big band (noun)

A large dance or jazz band usually featuring improvised solos by lead musicians.

- They discussed "big band" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "big band" to mean a large dance or jazz band usually featuring....

---

fast break (noun)

(basketball) a rapid dash to get a shot as soon as possible after taking possession of the ball.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fast break."
- They discussed "fast break" during the group presentation.

---

football player (noun)

An athlete who plays American football.

- In class, the teacher used "football player" to mean an athlete who plays american football.

- The article explained what “football player” means with a simple example.

winning post (noun)

The post at the end of a racecourse.

- In class, the teacher used “winning post” to mean the post at the end of a racecourse.
- They discussed “winning post” during the group presentation.

art rock (noun)

A style of rock music that emerged in the 1970s; associated with attempts to combine rock with jazz and other forms; intended for listening and not dancing.

- He looked up “art rock” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “art rock.”

field goal (noun)

A score in basketball made by throwing the ball through the hoop.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “field goal.”
- The article explained what “field goal” means with a simple example.

game fish (noun)

Any fish providing sport for the angler.

- He looked up “game fish” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “game fish.”

major-league team (noun)

A team that plays in a major league.

- Understanding “major-league team” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “major-league team” because he had never seen it before.

ball field (noun)

The baseball playing field.

- They discussed “ball field” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ball field.”

bar line (noun)

A vertical line before the accented beat marking the boundary between musical bars.

- The article explained what “bar line” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “bar line” during the group presentation.

brand (noun)

A symbol of disgrace or infamy; –Genesis.

- There’s a new brand of hero in the movies now.
- The article explained what “brand” means with a simple example.

dance music (noun)

A genre of popular music composed for ballroom dancing.

- He looked up “dance music” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “dance music” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fourth (noun)

The musical interval between one note and another four notes away from it.

- He looked up “fourth” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “fourth” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

throw-in (noun)

(rugby) an act or instance of throwing a ball in to put it into play.

- Understanding “throw-in” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “throw-in” because he had never seen it before.

title role (noun)

The role of the character after whom the play is named.

- He looked up "title role" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "title role" to mean the role of the character after whom the play is named.

---

track meet (noun)

A track and field competition between two or more teams.

- Understanding "track meet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "track meet" during the group presentation.

---

country-dance (noun)

A type of folk dance in which couples are arranged in sets or face one another in a line.

- Understanding "country-dance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "country-dance" to mean a type of folk dance in which couples are arranged....

---

first-place finish (noun)

A finish in first place (as in a race).

- They discussed "first-place finish" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "first-place finish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

football league (noun)

A league of football teams.

- He looked up "football league" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "football league."

---

game equipment (noun)

Equipment or apparatus used in playing a game.

- He looked up "game equipment" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "game equipment" during the group presentation.

---

game theory (noun)

(economics) a theory of competition stated in terms of gains and losses among opposing players.

- They discussed "game theory" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "game theory."

---

high mass (noun)

A solemn and elaborate Mass with music.

- Understanding "high mass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "high mass" because he had never seen it before.

---

score out (verb)

Remove by or as if by rubbing or erasing.

- The coach explained when to use "score out" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "score out" until he saw an example.

---

war dance (noun)

A ceremonial dance performed before a battle or after a victory.

- They discussed "war dance" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "war dance."

---

ball club (noun)

A team of professional baseball players who play and travel together.

- Each club played six home games with teams in its own division.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ball club."

---

know the score (verb)

Be well-informed.

- The coach explained when to use "know the score" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "know the score" in real sentences.

---

soul (noun)

A secular form of gospel that was a major Black musical genre in the 1960s and 1970s.

- Soul was politically significant during the Civil Rights movement.
- The soul of honor.

---

title page (noun)

A page of a book displaying the title and author and publisher.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "title page."
- Understanding "title page" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

track and field (noun)

Participating in athletic sports performed on a running track or on the field associated with it.

- He looked up "track and field" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "track and field."

---

air-ship (verb)

Transport (cargo) by air.

- He did not know how to use "air-ship" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "air-ship" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

ball boy (noun)

A boy who retrieves balls for tennis players.

- They discussed "ball boy" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ball boy" to mean a boy who retrieves balls for tennis players.

---

dance of death (noun)

A medieval dance in which a skeleton representing death leads a procession of others to the grave.

- In class, the teacher used "dance of death" to mean a medieval dance in which a skeleton representing....
- He looked up "dance of death" because he had never seen it before.

---

free agency (noun)

(sports) the state of a professional athlete who is free to negotiate a contract to play for any team.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "free agency."
- Understanding "free agency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

review article (noun)

An essay or article that gives a critical evaluation (as of a book or play).

- Understanding "review article" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "review article" to mean an essay or article that gives a critical....

---

track record (noun)

The fastest time ever recorded for a specific distance at a particular racetrack.

- The track record for the mile and a half at Belmont is 2 minutes 24 seconds held by Secretariat since 1973.
- The lawyer has a good record.

---

drop shot (noun)

A soft return so that the tennis ball drops abruptly after crossing the net.

- The article explained what "drop shot" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "drop shot" during the group presentation.

---

ground ball (noun)

(baseball) a hit that travels along the ground.

- In class, the teacher used "ground ball" to mean (baseball) a hit that travels along the ground.
- They discussed "ground ball" during the group presentation.

movies (noun)

A form of entertainment that enacts a story by sound and a sequence of images giving the illusion of continuous movement.

- They discussed "movies" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "movies."

note value (noun)

(music) the relative duration of a musical note.

- The article explained what "note value" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "note value" to mean (music) the relative duration of a musical note.

pop group (noun)

A group that plays pop music.

- In class, the teacher used "pop group" to mean a group that plays pop music.
- The article explained what "pop group" means with a simple example.

music hall (noun)

A variety show with songs and comic acts etc.

- He looked up "music hall" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "music hall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pop music (noun)

Music of general appeal to teenagers; a bland watered-down version of rock'n'roll with more rhythm and harmony and an emphasis on romantic love.

- In class, the teacher used "pop music" to mean music of general appeal to teenagers; a bland....
- He looked up "pop music" because he had never seen it before.

professional football (noun)

Football played for pay.

- In class, the teacher used "professional football" to mean football played for pay.
- The article explained what "professional football" means with a simple example.

russian bank (noun)

Solitaire with two players using separate packs.

- They discussed "russian bank" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "russian bank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

second-place finish (noun)

A finish in second place (as in a race).

- They discussed "second-place finish" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "second-place finish" because he had never seen it before.

sound effect (noun)

An effect that imitates a sound called for in the script of a play.

- In class, the teacher used "sound effect" to mean an effect that imitates a sound called for in the....
- The article explained what "sound effect" means with a simple example.

trial run (noun)

Trying something to find out about it.

- A sample for ten days free trial.
- A trial of progesterone failed to relieve the pain.

won-lost record (noun)

(sports) a record of win versus losses.

- In class, the teacher used "won-lost record" to mean (sports) a record of win versus losses.
- The article explained what "won-lost record" means with a simple example.

free throw (noun)

An unhindered basketball shot from the foul line; given to penalize the other team for committing a foul.

- In class, the teacher used "free throw" to mean an unhindered basketball shot from the foul line;....
- The article explained what "free throw" means with a simple example.

---

religious music (noun)

Genre of music composed for performance as part of religious ceremonies.

- Understanding "religious music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "religious music."

---

theory of games (noun)

(economics) a theory of competition stated in terms of gains and losses among opposing players.

- They discussed "theory of games" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theory of games."

---

association football (noun)

A football game in which two teams of 11 players try to kick or head a ball into the opponents' goal.

- In class, the teacher used "association football" to mean a football game in which two teams of 11 players....
- The article explained what "association football" means with a simple example.

---

cards (noun)

A game played with playing cards.

- He collected cards and traded them with the other boys.
- The managers presented their cards to the umpire at home plate.

---

hair ball (noun)

A compact mass of hair that forms in the alimentary canal (especially in the stomach of animals as a result of licking fur).

- They discussed "hair ball" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "hair ball" to mean a compact mass of hair that forms in the alimentary....

---

song and dance (noun)

An interesting but highly implausible story; often told as an excuse.

- The article explained what "song and dance" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "song and dance."

---

approach shot (noun)

A relatively short golf shot intended to put the ball onto the putting green.

- He lost the hole when his approach rolled over the green.
- He looked up "approach shot" because he had never seen it before.

---

draw play (noun)

(American football) the quarterback moves back as if to pass and then hands the ball to the fullback who is running toward the line of scrimmage.

- In class, the teacher used "draw play" to mean (american football) the quarterback moves back as....
- Understanding "draw play" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

earth-ball (noun)

Any of various highly prized edible subterranean fungi of the genus Tuber; grow naturally in southwestern Europe.

- He looked up "earth-ball" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earth-ball."

---

send a message (verb)

Give or constitute a signal, not necessarily verbally.

- The lack of good teachers sends a strong message to all parents in the community.
- She tried to use "send a message" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

break dance (noun)

A form of solo dancing that involves rapid acrobatic moves in which different parts of the body touch the ground; normally performed to the rhythm of rap music.

- In class, the teacher used "break dance" to mean a form of solo dancing that involves rapid....

- The article explained what “break dance” means with a simple example.

---

break-dance (verb)

Do a break dance.

- Can you use “break-dance” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use “break-dance” until he saw an example.

---

daily double (noun)

A single bet on two horse races in the same day.

- He looked up “daily double” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “daily double.”

---

line score (noun)

A summary of the scoring in a game (usually in tabular form).

- In class, the teacher used “line score” to mean a summary of the scoring in a game (usually in....
- The article explained what “line score” means with a simple example.

---

low mass (noun)

A Mass recited without music.

- Understanding “low mass” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “low mass.”

---

military band (noun)

A group of musicians playing brass and woodwind and percussion instruments.

- He looked up “military band” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “military band” to mean a group of musicians playing brass and woodwind and....

---

place bet (noun)

A bet that a horse will finish a race no worse than second.

- In class, the teacher used “place bet” to mean a bet that a horse will finish a race no worse than....
- The article explained what “place bet” means with a simple example.

---

safety match (noun)

A paper match that strikes only on a specially prepared surface.

- The article explained what “safety match” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “safety match” to mean a paper match that strikes only on a specially....

---

team spirit (noun)

The spirit of a group that makes the members want the group to succeed.

- In class, the teacher used “team spirit” to mean the spirit of a group that makes the members want....
- He looked up “team spirit” because he had never seen it before.

---

eight ball (noun)

A black pool ball bearing the number 8; should be the last to go in certain pool games.

- In class, the teacher used “eight ball” to mean a black pool ball bearing the number 8; should be....
- He looked up “eight ball” because he had never seen it before.

---

ground rule (noun)

(baseball) a special rule (as in baseball) dealing with situations that arise due to the nature of the playing grounds.

- They discussed “ground rule” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “ground rule” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

major-league club (noun)

A team that plays in a major league.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “major-league club.”
- He looked up “major-league club” because he had never seen it before.

---

sport (noun)

A person known for the way she (or he) behaves when teased or defeated or subjected to trying circumstances.

- A good sport.
- A poor sport.

---

stress (noun)

The relative prominence of a syllable or musical note (especially with regard to stress or pitch).

- He put the stress on the wrong syllable.
- Stress is a vasoconstrictor.

---

dance step (noun)

A sequence of foot movements that make up a particular dance.

- He taught them the waltz step.
- They discussed "dance step" during the group presentation.

---

horse around (verb)

Indulge in horseplay.

- Enough horsing around–let's get back to work!
- She tried to use "horse around" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

round dance (noun)

A ballroom dance characterized by revolving movement.

- They discussed "round dance" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "round dance" because he had never seen it before.

---

sports page (noun)

Any page in the sports section of a newspaper.

- In class, the teacher used "sports page" to mean any page in the sports section of a newspaper.
- They discussed "sports page" during the group presentation.

---

third-place finish (noun)

A finish in third place (as in a race).

- He looked up "third-place finish" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "third-place finish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

big stick (noun)

A display of force or power.

- Speak softly but carry a big stick.
- He looked up "big stick" because he had never seen it before.

---

drop the ball (verb)

Commit a faux pas or a fault or make a serious mistake.

- I blundered during the job interview.
- In everyday English, people use "drop the ball" when talking about this idea.

---

fair ball (noun)

(baseball) a ball struck with the bat so that it stays between the lines (the foul lines) that define the width of the playing field.

- The article explained what "fair ball" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fair ball" to mean (baseball) a ball struck with the bat so that it....

---

religious song (noun)

Religious music for singing.

- He looked up "religious song" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "religious song."

---

stage direction (noun)

An instruction written as part of the script of a play.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stage direction."
- He looked up "stage direction" because he had never seen it before.

---

farm team (noun)

A minor-league team that is owned by a major-league team (especially in baseball).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "farm team."
- The article explained what "farm team" means with a simple example.

---

master race (noun)

A race that considers itself superior to all others and fitted to rule the others.

- The article explained what "master race" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "master race" during the group presentation.

---

touch football (noun)

A version of American football in which the ball carrier is touched rather than tackled.

- Understanding "touch football" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "touch football" to mean a version of american football in which the ball....

---

wins (noun)

A victory (as in a race or other competition).

- They discussed "wins" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wins."

---

dead heat (noun)

A tie in a race.

- Understanding "dead heat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dead heat" means with a simple example.

---

indian race (noun)

Sometimes included in the Caucasian race; native to the subcontinent of India.

- Understanding "indian race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "indian race" to mean sometimes included in the caucasian race; native to....

---

modern dance (noun)

A style of theatrical dancing that is not as restricted as classical ballet; movements are expressive of feelings.

- Understanding "modern dance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "modern dance" because he had never seen it before.

---

movie camera (noun)

A camera that takes a sequence of photographs that can give the illusion of motion when viewed in rapid succession.

- They discussed "movie camera" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "movie camera" to mean a camera that takes a sequence of photographs that....

---

wedding march (noun)

A march to be played for a wedding procession.

- The article explained what "wedding march" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wedding march" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

break of serve (noun)

(tennis) a score consisting of winning a game when your opponent was serving.

- He was up two breaks in the second set.
- They discussed "break of serve" during the group presentation.

---

bridge hand (noun)

The cards held in a game of bridge.

- Understanding "bridge hand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bridge hand" because he had never seen it before.

place kick (noun)

(sports) a kick in which the ball is placed on the ground before kicking.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "place kick."
- The article explained what "place kick" means with a simple example.

team sport (noun)

A sport that involves competition between teams of players.

- Baseball is a team sport by golf is not.
- The article explained what "team sport" means with a simple example.

african-american music (noun)

Music created by African-American musicians; early forms were songs that had a melodic line and a strong rhythmic beat with repeated choruses.

- In class, the teacher used "african-american music" to mean music created by african-american musicians; early....
- They discussed "african-american music" during the group presentation.

allows (verb)

Allow the other (baseball) team to score.

- The evidence allows only one conclusion.
- This short story allows of several different interpretations.

beach ball (noun)

Large and light ball; for play at the seaside.

- In class, the teacher used "beach ball" to mean large and light ball; for play at the seaside.
- He looked up "beach ball" because he had never seen it before.

black september movement (noun)

A former Palestinian terrorist organization (now merged with Fatah Revolutionary Council) that assassinated the Prime Minister of Jordan and during the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich killed 11 Israeli athletes.

- The article explained what "black september movement" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "black september movement" during the group presentation.

double bar (noun)

Notation marking the end of principal parts of a musical composition; two adjacent bar lines.

- He looked up "double bar" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "double bar" during the group presentation.

dry run (noun)

A practice session in preparation for a public performance (as of a play or speech or concert).

- In class, the teacher used "dry run" to mean a practice session in preparation for a public....
- They discussed "dry run" during the group presentation.

feature film (noun)

The principal (full-length) film in a program at a movie theater.

- The feature tonight is 'Casablanca'.
- He looked up "feature film" because he had never seen it before.

free kick (noun)

(soccer) a place kick that is allowed for a foul or infringement by the other team.

- He looked up "free kick" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "free kick."

high-low-jack (noun)

Card games in which points are won for taking the high or low or jack or game.

- They discussed "high-low-jack" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "high-low-jack" to mean card games in which points are won for taking the....

passed ball (noun)

A pitch that the catcher should have caught but did not; allows a base runner to advance a base.

- The article explained what "passed ball" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "passed ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rock band (noun)

A band of musicians who play rock'n'roll music.

- He looked up "rock band" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rock band."

---

run dry (verb)

Become empty of water.

- The river runs dry in the summer.
- Learners should practice how to use "run dry" in real sentences.

---

slow match (noun)

Match or fuse made to burn slowly and evenly.

- Understanding "slow match" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "slow match" to mean match or fuse made to burn slowly and evenly.

---

sports section (noun)

The section of a newspaper that reports on sports.

- Understanding "sports section" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sports section" during the group presentation.

---

squad (noun)

A cooperative unit (especially in sports).

- Understanding "squad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "squad" during the group presentation.

---

team teaching (noun)

A method of coordinated classroom teaching involving a team of teachers working together with a single group of students.

- In class, the teacher used "team teaching" to mean a method of coordinated classroom teaching....
- Understanding "team teaching" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fish ball (noun)

A fried ball or patty of flaked fish and mashed potatoes.

- They discussed "fish ball" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fish ball."

---

foot race (noun)

A race run on foot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foot race."
- He looked up "foot race" because he had never seen it before.

---

race murder (noun)

Systematic killing of a racial or cultural group.

- In class, the teacher used "race murder" to mean systematic killing of a racial or cultural group.
- They discussed "race murder" during the group presentation.

---

spot pass (noun)

A pass to a designated spot on the field; the receiver should arrive at that spot the same time the ball does.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spot pass."
- He looked up "spot pass" because he had never seen it before.

---

strike (noun)

A score in tenpins: knocking down all ten with the first ball.

- He finished with three strikes in the tenth frame.

- The strike lasted more than a month before it was settled.

---

water sport (noun)

Sports that involve bodies of water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water sport."
- The article explained what "water sport" means with a simple example.

---

critical review (noun)

An essay or article that gives a critical evaluation (as of a book or play).

- The article explained what "critical review" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "critical review" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

football score (noun)

The score in a football game.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "football score."
- He looked up "football score" because he had never seen it before.

---

hole out (verb)

Hit the ball into the hole.

- She tried to use "hole out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "hole out" in real sentences.

---

sport car (noun)

A small low car with a high-powered engine; usually seats two persons.

- He looked up "sport car" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sport car."

---

sun dance (noun)

A ceremonial dance performed by Amerindians at the summer solstice.

- They discussed "sun dance" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sun dance" because he had never seen it before.

---

insurance claim (noun)

Demand for payment in accordance with an insurance policy.

- In class, the teacher used "insurance claim" to mean demand for payment in accordance with an insurance....
- They discussed "insurance claim" during the group presentation.

---

photo finish (noun)

In general, any very close finish; in particular, a finish of a race in which the contestants are so close together that the winner must be determined from a photograph taken at the instant of finishing.

- The article explained what "photo finish" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "photo finish."

---

rose oil (noun)

A volatile fragrant oil obtained from fresh roses by steam distillation.

- They discussed "rose oil" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rose oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

air mail (noun)

Mail that is sent by air transport.

- They discussed "air mail" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "air mail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

arms race (noun)

A competition between nations to have the most powerful armaments.

- Understanding "arms race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "arms race" means with a simple example.

---

bowl (noun)

The act of rolling something (as the ball in bowling).

- He looked up "bowl" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bowl" during the group presentation.

---

dance master (noun)

A professional teacher of dancing.

- The article explained what "dance master" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dance master" to mean a professional teacher of dancing.

---

display (verb)

To show, make visible or apparent.

- National leaders will have to display the highest skills of statesmanship.
- She tried to use "display" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fair catch (noun)

(American football) a catch of a punt on the fly by a defensive player who has signalled that he will not run and so should not be tackled.

- They discussed "fair catch" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fair catch" means with a simple example.

---

lay-up (noun)

A basketball shot made with one hand from a position under or beside the basket (and usually banked off the backboard).

- In class, the teacher used "lay-up" to mean a basketball shot made with one hand from a....
- Understanding "lay-up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

play a joke on (verb)

Subject to a playful hoax or joke.

- He did not know how to use "play a joke on" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "play a joke on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

score paper (noun)

Paper with lines appropriate for writing music.

- He looked up "score paper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "score paper."

---

scored (verb)

Assign a grade or rank to, according to one's evaluation.

- The home team scored many times.
- She scored high on the SAT.

---

allowing (verb)

Allow the other (baseball) team to score.

- In everyday English, people use "allowing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "allowing" in real sentences.

---

dance band (noun)

A group of musicians playing popular music for dancing.

- Understanding "dance band" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dance band" because he had never seen it before.

---

fan dance (noun)

A solo dance in which large fans are manipulated to suggest or reveal nakedness.

- Understanding "fan dance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "fan dance" means with a simple example.

---

farm club (noun)

A minor-league team that is owned by a major-league team (especially in baseball).

- In class, the teacher used “farm club” to mean a minor-league team that is owned by a major-league....
- The article explained what “farm club” means with a simple example.

---

selling race (noun)

A horse race in which the winning horse must be put up for auction.

- They discussed “selling race” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “selling race” to mean a horse race in which the winning horse must be put....

---

senate race (noun)

A race for election to the senate.

- The article explained what “senate race” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “senate race” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

c major scale (noun)

(music) the major scale having no sharps or flats.

- Understanding “c major scale” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “c major scale” to mean (music) the major scale having no sharps or flats.

---

confidence game (noun)

A swindle in which you cheat at gambling or persuade a person to buy worthless property.

- He looked up “confidence game” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “confidence game.”

---

field sport (noun)

A sport that is played outdoors.

- In class, the teacher used “field sport” to mean a sport that is played outdoors.
- The article explained what “field sport” means with a simple example.

---

line feed (noun)

The operation that prepares for the next character to be printed or displayed on the next line.

- Understanding “line feed” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “line feed” to mean the operation that prepares for the next character....

---

play-actor (noun)

An actor who travels around the country presenting plays.

- In class, the teacher used “play-actor” to mean an actor who travels around the country presenting....
- Understanding “play-actor” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scale of c major (noun)

(music) the major scale having no sharps or flats.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scale of c major.”
- He looked up “scale of c major” because he had never seen it before.

---

supporting players (noun)

A cast other than the principals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “supporting players.”
- He looked up “supporting players” because he had never seen it before.

---

air transport (noun)

Transportation by air.

- The article explained what “air transport” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “air transport” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blame game (noun)

Accusations exchanged among people who refuse to accept sole responsibility for some undesirable event.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blame game.”
- He looked up “blame game” because he had never seen it before.

dance hall (noun)

Large room used mainly for dancing.

- Understanding "dance hall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dance hall."

death squad (noun)

A clandestine military or paramilitary team who murder political dissidents or petty criminals (usually with the government's tacit approval).

- In class, the teacher used "death squad" to mean a clandestine military or paramilitary team who....
- He looked up "death squad" because he had never seen it before.

double feature (noun)

Two games instead of one (especially in baseball when the same two teams play two games on the same day).

- They discussed "double feature" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "double feature" means with a simple example.

passing game (noun)

(American football) a play that involves one player throwing the ball to a teammate.

- The coach sent in a passing play on third and long.
- They discussed "passing game" during the group presentation.

quarter rest (noun)

A musical rest having one-fourth the time value of a whole rest.

- Understanding "quarter rest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "quarter rest" to mean a musical rest having one-fourth the time value of....

hit squad (noun)

A team of assassins.

- They discussed "hit squad" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hit squad."

horse race (noun)

A contest of speed between horses; usually held for the purpose of betting.

- He looked up "horse race" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse race."

horse-race (verb)

Compete in a horse race.

- He did not know how to use "horse-race" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "horse-race" and when to wait.

matches (noun)

A pair of people who live together.

- He always carries matches to light his pipe.
- The article explained what "matches" means with a simple example.

mile (noun)

A footrace extending one mile.

- He holds the record in the mile.
- He missed by a mile.

passing play (noun)

(American football) a play that involves one player throwing the ball to a teammate.

- The coach sent in a passing play on third and long.
- The article explained what "passing play" means with a simple example.

play false (verb)

Conceal one's true motives from especially by elaborately feigning good intentions so as to gain an end.

- In everyday English, people use "play false" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "play false" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

race horse (noun)

A horse bred for racing.

- He looked up "race horse" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "race horse."

---

senate campaign (noun)

A race for election to the senate.

- He looked up "senate campaign" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "senate campaign" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

singing (noun)

The act of singing vocal music.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "singing."
- Understanding "singing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

split run (noun)

A print run of a newspaper during which some articles or advertisements are changed to produce a different edition.

- They discussed "split run" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "split run."

---

blood sport (noun)

Sport that involves killing animals (especially hunting).

- In class, the teacher used "blood sport" to mean sport that involves killing animals (especially....
- They discussed "blood sport" during the group presentation.

---

jump shot (noun)

(basketball) a player releases the basketball at the high point of a jump.

- He looked up "jump shot" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "jump shot" to mean (basketball) a player releases the basketball at....

---

net ball (noun)

A serve that strikes the net before falling into the receiver's court; the ball must be served again.

- Understanding "net ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "net ball" to mean a serve that strikes the net before falling into....

---

race driver (noun)

Someone who drives racing cars at high speeds.

- The article explained what "race driver" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "race driver" during the group presentation.

---

square dance (noun)

American country dancing in which couples form squares.

- Understanding "square dance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "square dance."

---

chicken run (noun)

An enclosed yard for keeping poultry.

- In class, the teacher used "chicken run" to mean an enclosed yard for keeping poultry.
- They discussed "chicken run" during the group presentation.

---

fly ball (noun)

(baseball) a hit that flies up in the air.

- In class, the teacher used "fly ball" to mean (baseball) a hit that flies up in the air.

- The article explained what “fly ball” means with a simple example.

---

rock and roll (noun)

A genre of popular music originating in the 1950s; a blend of black rhythm-and-blues with white country-and-western.

- Rock is a generic term for the range of styles that evolved out of rock’n’roll.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rock and roll.”

---

rock-and-roll (noun)

A genre of popular music originating in the 1950s; a blend of black rhythm-and-blues with white country-and-western.

- The article explained what “rock-and-roll” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “rock-and-roll” to mean a genre of popular music originating in the 1950s;....

---

transportation (noun)

The act of expelling a person from their native land.

- The sentence was one of transportation for life.
- Understanding “transportation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

boat race (noun)

A race between people rowing or driving boats.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “boat race.”
- He looked up “boat race” because he had never seen it before.

---

boat-race (verb)

Participate in a boat race.

- She tried to use “boat-race” carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use “boat-race” when talking about this idea.

---

breaking ball (noun)

A pitch of a baseball that is thrown with spin so that its path curves as it approaches the batter.

- In class, the teacher used “breaking ball” to mean a pitch of a baseball that is thrown with spin so....
- They discussed “breaking ball” during the group presentation.

---

goal-kick (noun)

(association football) a kick by the defending side after the attacking side sends the ball over the goal-line.

- In class, the teacher used “goal-kick” to mean (association football) a kick by the defending side....
- He looked up “goal-kick” because he had never seen it before.

---

golf (noun)

A game played on a large open course with 9 or 18 holes; the object is use as few strokes as possible in playing all the holes.

- He looked up “golf” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “golf” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ring dance (noun)

A folk dance; dancers form a circle.

- They discussed “ring dance” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “ring dance” because he had never seen it before.

---

straight-arm (noun)

(American football) the act of warding off a tackler by holding the arm fully extended with the hand against the opponent.

- They discussed “straight-arm” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “straight-arm” means with a simple example.

---

tea ball (noun)

A kitchen utensil consisting of a perforated metal ball for making tea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tea ball.”
- The article explained what “tea ball” means with a simple example.

---

tour de france (noun)

A French bicycle race for professional cyclists that lasts three weeks and covers about 3,000 miles.

- Understanding "tour de france" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tour de france."

---

concert (noun)

A performance of music by players or singers not involving theatrical staging.

- In class, the teacher used "concert" to mean a performance of music by players or singers not....
- Understanding "concert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

contract bridge (noun)

A variety of bridge in which the bidder receives points toward game only for the number of tricks he bid.

- The article explained what "contract bridge" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "contract bridge" during the group presentation.

---

noise (noun)

The auditory experience of sound that lacks musical quality; sound that is a disagreeable auditory experience.

- Modern music is just noise to me.
- He enjoyed the street noises.

---

quarter note (noun)

A musical note having the time value of a quarter of a whole note.

- In class, the teacher used "quarter note" to mean a musical note having the time value of a quarter....
- He looked up "quarter note" because he had never seen it before.

---

tip in (noun)

A basketball shot made by tapping the rebounding ball back into the basket.

- He looked up "tip in" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tip in."

---

baseball (noun)

A ball game played with a bat and ball between two teams of nine players; teams take turns at bat trying to score runs.

- He played baseball in high school.
- There was a baseball game on every empty lot.

---

contact sport (noun)

A sport that necessarily involves body contact between opposing players.

- He looked up "contact sport" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "contact sport."

---

double flat (noun)

A musical notation of two flats in front of a note indicating that it is to be lowered by two semitones.

- He looked up "double flat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double flat."

---

heavy metal music (noun)

Loud and harsh sounding rock music with a strong beat; lyrics usually involve violent or fantastic imagery.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heavy metal music."
- Understanding "heavy metal music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

year of grace (noun)

Any year of the Christian era.

- In class, the teacher used "year of grace" to mean any year of the christian era.
- The article explained what "year of grace" means with a simple example.

---

yellow race (noun)

An Asian race.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow race."
- Understanding "yellow race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

basketball game (noun)

A game played on a court by two opposing teams of 5 players; points are scored by throwing the ball through an elevated horizontal hoop.

- They discussed "basketball game" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "basketball game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

basketball team (noun)

A team that plays basketball.

- In class, the teacher used "basketball team" to mean a team that plays basketball.
- Understanding "basketball team" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

campaign for governor (noun)

A race for election to the governorship.

- They discussed "campaign for governor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "campaign for governor" means with a simple example.

---

cast of characters (noun)

The actors in a play.

- Understanding "cast of characters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cast of characters" to mean the actors in a play.

---

golf game (noun)

A game played on a large open course with 9 or 18 holes; the object is use as few strokes as possible in playing all the holes.

- Understanding "golf game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golf game."

---

jump ball (noun)

(basketball) the way play begins or resumes when possession is disputed; an official tosses the ball up between two players who jump in an effort to tap it to a teammate.

- They discussed "jump ball" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "jump ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

movie actor (noun)

An actor who plays a role in a film.

- The article explained what "movie actor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "movie actor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

plot line (noun)

The plot of a book or play or film.

- The article explained what "plot line" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "plot line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

run-on sentence (noun)

An ungrammatical sentence in which two or more independent clauses are conjoined without a conjunction.

- He looked up "run-on sentence" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "run-on sentence" to mean an ungrammatical sentence in which two or more....

---

secondary (noun)

The defensive football players who line up behind the linemen.

- Understanding "secondary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "secondary" means with a simple example.

---

square-dance music (noun)

Music performed for square dancing.

- He looked up "square-dance music" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "square-dance music" during the group presentation.

theme song (noun)

A melody that recurs and comes to represent a musical play or movie.

- In class, the teacher used "theme song" to mean a melody that recurs and comes to represent a....
- He looked up "theme song" because he had never seen it before.

tip-off (noun)

The act of starting a basketball game with a jump ball.

- The article explained what "tip-off" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tip-off" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

transportation company (noun)

A company providing transportation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transportation company."
- He looked up "transportation company" because he had never seen it before.

basketball play (noun)

A play executed by a basketball team.

- The article explained what "basketball play" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "basketball play" during the group presentation.

pool ball (noun)

Ball used in playing pool.

- The article explained what "pool ball" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pool ball" during the group presentation.

programme music (noun)

Musical compositions intended to evoke images or remind the listener of events.

- They discussed "programme music" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "programme music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

air transportation (noun)

Transportation by air.

- Understanding "air transportation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "air transportation" during the group presentation.

balls-up (noun)

Something badly botched or muddled.

- Understanding "balls-up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "balls-up" to mean something badly botched or muddled.

baseball game (noun)

A ball game played with a bat and ball between two teams of nine players; teams take turns at bat trying to score runs.

- He played baseball in high school.
- There was a baseball game on every empty lot.

baseball play (noun)

(baseball) a play executed by a baseball team.

- Understanding "baseball play" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "baseball play" during the group presentation.

baseball team (noun)

A team that plays baseball.

- They discussed "baseball team" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "baseball team" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

musical (noun)

A play or film whose action and dialogue is interspersed with singing and dancing.

- In class, the teacher used "musical" to mean a play or film whose action and dialogue is....
- Understanding "musical" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pop fly (noun)

A short high fly ball.

- Understanding "pop fly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pop fly" means with a simple example.

---

pop-fly (noun)

A short high fly ball.

- The article explained what "pop-fly" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pop-fly" to mean a short high fly ball.

---

rain dance (noun)

A ritual dance intended to bring rain.

- They discussed "rain dance" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rain dance" means with a simple example.

---

sport fish (noun)

Any fish providing sport for the angler.

- In class, the teacher used "sport fish" to mean any fish providing sport for the angler.
- The article explained what "sport fish" means with a simple example.

---

ten-strike (noun)

A score in tenpins: knocking down all ten with the first ball.

- He looked up "ten-strike" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ten-strike."

---

ball and chain (noun)

Heavy iron ball attached to a prisoner by a chain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ball and chain."
- The article explained what "ball and chain" means with a simple example.

---

dancing (noun)

Taking a series of rhythmical steps (and movements) in time to music.

- He looked up "dancing" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

earned run (noun)

A run that was not scored as the result of an error by the other team.

- In class, the teacher used "earned run" to mean a run that was not scored as the result of an error....
- The article explained what "earned run" means with a simple example.

---

minor league (noun)

A league of teams that do not belong to a major league (especially baseball).

- Understanding "minor league" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "minor league" means with a simple example.

---

musical time (noun)

(music) the beat of musical rhythm.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "musical time."
- He looked up "musical time" because he had never seen it before.

---

racing (noun)

The sport of engaging in contests of speed.

- He looked up "racing" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "racing."

---

run-time error (noun)

An error in logic or arithmetic that must be detected at run time.

- They discussed "run-time error" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "run-time error" to mean an error in logic or arithmetic that must be....

---

steel band (noun)

A band that plays instruments made from the heads of oil drums (Caribbean Islands).

- In class, the teacher used "steel band" to mean a band that plays instruments made from the heads....
- They discussed "steel band" during the group presentation.

---

tip-and-run (adjective)

Designed for or consisting of a brief attack followed by a quick escape.

- Tip-and-run assaults.
- The speaker chose "tip-and-run" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

active transport (noun)

Transport of a substance (as a protein or drug) across a cell membrane against the concentration gradient; requires an expenditure of energy.

- They discussed "active transport" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "active transport" to mean transport of a substance (as a protein or drug)....

---

game license (noun)

A license authorizing the bearer to kill a certain type of animal during a specified period of time.

- They discussed "game license" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "game license" because he had never seen it before.

---

play therapy (noun)

Form of psychotherapy for children that uses play situations for diagnosis or treatment.

- They discussed "play therapy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "play therapy" means with a simple example.

---

print run (noun)

The period that presses run to produce an issue of a newspaper.

- In class, the teacher used "print run" to mean the period that presses run to produce an issue of....
- Understanding "print run" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

riding (noun)

The sport of siting on the back of a horse while controlling its movements.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "riding."
- The article explained what "riding" means with a simple example.

---

starting signal (noun)

A signal to begin (as in a race).

- The starting signal was a green light.
- He looked up "starting signal" because he had never seen it before.

---

tone (noun)

A notation representing the pitch and duration of a musical sound.

- He began in a conversational tone.
- He spoke in a nervous tone of voice.

---

department of transportation (noun)

The United States federal department that institutes and coordinates national transportation programs; created in 1966.

- They discussed "department of transportation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "department of transportation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

people of colour (noun)

A race with skin pigmentation different from the white race (especially Blacks).

- He looked up "people of colour" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "people of colour" to mean a race with skin pigmentation different from the....

---

soccer (noun)

A football game in which two teams of 11 players try to kick or head a ball into the opponents' goal.

- The article explained what "soccer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "soccer" to mean a football game in which two teams of 11 players....

---

us coast guard (noun)

An agency of the Department of Transportation responsible for patrolling shores and facilitating nautical commerce.

- The article explained what "us coast guard" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "us coast guard" during the group presentation.

---

basketball player (noun)

An athlete who plays basketball.

- Understanding "basketball player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "basketball player" to mean an athlete who plays basketball.

---

basketball shot (noun)

Throwing the basketball toward the hoop.

- His shot hit the rim and bounced out.
- They discussed "basketball shot" during the group presentation.

---

golf club (noun)

A club of people to play golf.

- Understanding "golf club" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "golf club" means with a simple example.

---

golf shot (noun)

The act of swinging a golf club at a golf ball and (usually) hitting it.

- Understanding "golf shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "golf shot" during the group presentation.

---

minor-league team (noun)

A team that plays in a minor league.

- Understanding "minor-league team" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "minor-league team."

---

musical group (noun)

An organization of musicians who perform together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "musical group."
- They discussed "musical group" during the group presentation.

---

singing voice (noun)

The musical quality of the voice while singing.

- The article explained what "singing voice" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "singing voice."

---

still hunt (noun)

A hunt for game carried on by following it stealthily or waiting in ambush.

- They discussed "still hunt" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "still hunt" because he had never seen it before.

---

basketball league (noun)

A league of basketball teams.

- In class, the teacher used "basketball league" to mean a league of basketball teams.
- The article explained what "basketball league" means with a simple example.

---

country dancing (noun)

A type of folk dance in which couples are arranged in sets or face one another in a line.

- Understanding "country dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "country dancing" because he had never seen it before.

---

racing start (noun)

The start of a race.

- In class, the teacher used "racing start" to mean the start of a race.
- They discussed "racing start" during the group presentation.

---

round of golf (noun)

The activity of playing 18 holes of golf.

- A round of golf takes about 4 hours.
- They discussed "round of golf" during the group presentation.

---

baseball club (noun)

A team of professional baseball players who play and travel together.

- Each club played six home games with teams in its own division.
- He looked up "baseball club" because he had never seen it before.

---

baseball player (noun)

An athlete who plays baseball.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baseball player."
- The article explained what "baseball player" means with a simple example.

---

fall from grace (verb)

Revert back to bad behavior after a period of good behavior.

- The children fell from grace when they asked for several helpings of dessert.
- Can you use "fall from grace" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

mixed marriage (noun)

Marriage of two people from different races or different religions or different cultures.

- The families of both partners in a mixed marriage often disapprove.
- The article explained what "mixed marriage" means with a simple example.

---

olympics (noun)

The modern revival of the ancient games held once every 4 years in a selected country.

- He looked up "olympics" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "olympics."

---

play a trick on (verb)

Deceive somebody.

- We tricked the teacher into thinking that class would be cancelled next week.
- Can you use "play a trick on" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

whole tone (noun)

A musical interval of two semitones.

- They discussed "whole tone" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "whole tone" to mean a musical interval of two semitones.

---

air force space command (noun)

A command of the United States Air Force that is responsible for defending the United States through its space and intercontinental ballistic missile operations.

- Understanding "air force space command" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "air force space command" means with a simple example.

baseball league (noun)

A league of baseball teams.

- They discussed "baseball league" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "baseball league" because he had never seen it before.

golf ball (noun)

A small hard ball used in playing golf; dimpled to reduce wind resistance.

- The article explained what "golf ball" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golf ball."

grace note (noun)

An embellishing note usually written in smaller size.

- In class, the teacher used "grace note" to mean an embellishing note usually written in smaller size.
- The article explained what "grace note" means with a simple example.

hearts (noun)

A form of whist in which players avoid winning tricks containing hearts or the queen of spades.

- He led the queen of hearts.
- Hearts were trumps.

object ball (noun)

The billiard ball that is intended to be the first ball struck by the cue ball.

- In class, the teacher used "object ball" to mean the billiard ball that is intended to be the first....
- The article explained what "object ball" means with a simple example.

olympic games (noun)

The modern revival of the ancient games held once every 4 years in a selected country.

- Understanding "olympic games" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "olympic games" during the group presentation.

professional basketball (noun)

Playing basketball for money.

- Understanding "professional basketball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "professional basketball" means with a simple example.

professional golf (noun)

Playing golf for money.

- They discussed "professional golf" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "professional golf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

roles (noun)

An actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

- The article explained what "roles" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "roles" to mean an actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

singles (noun)

Tennis played with one person on each side.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "singles."
- The article explained what "singles" means with a simple example.

chamber music (noun)

Serious music performed by a small group of musicians.

- The article explained what "chamber music" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chamber music" to mean serious music performed by a small group of musicians.

corner kick (noun)

A free kick from the corner awarded to the other side when a player has sent the ball behind his own goal line.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corner kick."
- They discussed "corner kick" during the group presentation.

---

face recognition (noun)

Biometric identification by scanning a person's face and matching it against a library of known faces.

- They used face recognition to spot known terrorists.
- Understanding "face recognition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

movie theatre (noun)

A theater where films are shown.

- They discussed "movie theatre" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "movie theatre" means with a simple example.

---

rock concert (noun)

A performance of rock music.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rock concert."
- He looked up "rock concert" because he had never seen it before.

---

scores (noun)

A large number or amount.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scores."
- He looked up "scores" because he had never seen it before.

---

swimming (noun)

The act of swimming; :.

- It was the swimming they enjoyed most.
- They discussed "swimming" during the group presentation.

---

break dancing (noun)

A form of solo dancing that involves rapid acrobatic moves in which different parts of the body touch the ground; normally performed to the rhythm of rap music.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "break dancing."
- He looked up "break dancing" because he had never seen it before.

---

earned run average (noun)

(baseball) a measure of a pitcher's effectiveness; calculated as the average number of earned runs allowed by the pitcher for every nine innings pitched.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earned run average."
- They discussed "earned run average" during the group presentation.

---

hockey (noun)

A game resembling ice hockey that is played on an open field; two opposing teams use curved sticks try to drive a ball into the opponents' net.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hockey."
- He looked up "hockey" because he had never seen it before.

---

hunting (noun)

The pursuit and killing or capture of wild animals regarded as a sport.

- The article explained what "hunting" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hunting" during the group presentation.

---

minor-league club (noun)

A team that plays in a minor league.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "minor-league club."
- He looked up "minor-league club" because he had never seen it before.

---

musical performance (noun)

The act of performing music.

- Understanding "musical performance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "musical performance" during the group presentation.

---

mystery play (noun)

A medieval play representing episodes from the life of Christ.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mystery play."
- The article explained what "mystery play" means with a simple example.

---

professional baseball (noun)

Playing baseball for money.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "professional baseball."
- He looked up "professional baseball" because he had never seen it before.

---

rough cut (noun)

The first print of a movie after preliminary editing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rough cut."
- He looked up "rough cut" because he had never seen it before.

---

secretary of transportation (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Transportation.

- The post of Transportation Secretary was created in 1966.
- Johnson appointed Alan S. Boyd as the first Transportation Secretary.

---

transportation secretary (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Transportation.

- The post of Transportation Secretary was created in 1966.
- Johnson appointed Alan S. Boyd as the first Transportation Secretary.

---

base on balls (noun)

(baseball) an advance to first base by a batter who receives four balls.

- He worked the pitcher for a base on balls.
- He looked up "base on balls" because he had never seen it before.

---

cup tie (noun)

An eliminating game between teams in a cup competition.

- He looked up "cup tie" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cup tie" to mean an eliminating game between teams in a cup competition.

---

dies (verb)

To be on base at the end of an inning, of a player.

- Can you use "dies" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "dies" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

hunt club (noun)

An association of huntsmen who hunt for sport.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hunt club."
- Understanding "hunt club" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

musical style (noun)

An expressive style of music.

- They discussed "musical style" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "musical style" to mean an expressive style of music.

---

mystery story (noun)

A story about a crime (usually murder) presented as a novel or play or movie.

- Understanding "mystery story" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mystery story."

---

passion play (noun)

A play representing the Passion of Christ.

- They discussed "passion play" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "passion play" means with a simple example.

round dancing (noun)

A ballroom dance characterized by revolving movement.

- In class, the teacher used "round dancing" to mean a ballroom dance characterized by revolving movement.
- They discussed "round dancing" during the group presentation.

shadow play (noun)

A drama executed by throwing shadows on a wall.

- In class, the teacher used "shadow play" to mean a drama executed by throwing shadows on a wall.
- The article explained what "shadow play" means with a simple example.

steal (noun)

A stolen base; an instance in which a base runner advances safely during the delivery of a pitch (without the help of a hit or walk or passed ball or wild pitch).

- The article explained what "steal" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steal."

united states coast guard (noun)

An agency of the Department of Transportation responsible for patrolling shores and facilitating nautical commerce.

- Understanding "united states coast guard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "united states coast guard" because he had never seen it before.

bush league (noun)

A league of teams that do not belong to a major league (especially baseball).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bush league."
- He looked up "bush league" because he had never seen it before.

concert band (noun)

A group of musicians playing brass and woodwind and percussion instruments.

- They discussed "concert band" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "concert band" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

concert dance (noun)

A theatrical representation of a story that is performed to music by trained dancers.

- They discussed "concert dance" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "concert dance."

dog racing (noun)

A race between dogs; usually an occasion for betting on the outcome.

- Understanding "dog racing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dog racing" because he had never seen it before.

hockey game (noun)

A game played on an ice rink by two opposing teams of six skaters each who try to knock a flat round puck into the opponents' goal with angled sticks.

- They discussed "hockey game" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hockey game" means with a simple example.

hockey team (noun)

A team that plays ice hockey.

- In class, the teacher used "hockey team" to mean a team that plays ice hockey.
- They discussed "hockey team" during the group presentation.

musical note (noun)

A notation representing the pitch and duration of a musical sound.

- The singer held the note too long.
- Understanding "musical note" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pack of cards (noun)

A pack of 52 playing cards.

- They discussed "pack of cards" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pack of cards" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

play it by ear (verb)

Decide on one's actions as one goes along, depending on the situation.

- She didn't know what to expect from her new job, so she played it by ear.
- She tried to use "play it by ear" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

rugby (noun)

A form of football played with an oval ball.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rugby."
- He looked up "rugby" because he had never seen it before.

---

slow motion (noun)

A movie that apparently takes place at a slower than normal speed; achieved by taking the film at a faster rate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slow motion."
- The article explained what "slow motion" means with a simple example.

---

special olympics (noun)

An athletic contest modeled after the Olympic Games but intended for mentally or physically handicapped persons.

- They discussed "special olympics" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "special olympics."

---

bench (noun)

The reserve players on a team.

- Our team has a strong bench.
- Understanding "bench" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bye (noun)

You advance to the next round in a tournament without playing an opponent.

- He had a bye in the first round.
- They said their good-byes.

---

cricket (noun)

A game played with a ball and bat by two teams of 11 players; teams take turns trying to score runs.

- The article explained what "cricket" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cricket" to mean a game played with a ball and bat by two teams of....

---

fitness (noun)

The quality of being suitable.

- They had to prove their fitness for the position.
- Understanding "fitness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

steam clean (verb)

Clean by means of steaming.

- Steam-clean the upholstered sofa.
- He did not know how to use "steam clean" until he saw an example.

---

wing shooting (noun)

Shooting game birds that are flying (on the wing).

- In class, the teacher used "wing shooting" to mean shooting game birds that are flying (on the wing).
- The article explained what "wing shooting" means with a simple example.

auto race (noun)

A race between (usually high-performance) automobiles.

- Understanding "auto race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "auto race" because he had never seen it before.

charity shot (noun)

An unhindered basketball shot from the foul line; given to penalize the other team for committing a foul.

- He looked up "charity shot" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "charity shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

crap game (noun)

Playing craps.

- In class, the teacher used "crap game" to mean playing craps.
- The article explained what "crap game" means with a simple example.

dramatic play (noun)

A dramatic work intended for performance by actors on a stage.

- He wrote several plays but only one was produced on Broadway.
- They discussed "dramatic play" during the group presentation.

hitting average (noun)

(baseball) a measure of a batter's performance; the number of base hits divided by the number of official times at bat.

- Ted Williams once had a batting average above .400.
- He looked up "hitting average" because he had never seen it before.

sixth (noun)

The musical interval between one note and another six notes away from it.

- Understanding "sixth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sixth" to mean the musical interval between one note and another....

sport shirt (noun)

A shirt with short sleeves designed for comfort and casual wear.

- Understanding "sport shirt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sport shirt" because he had never seen it before.

basketball score (noun)

The score in a basketball game.

- The article explained what "basketball score" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basketball score."

buddy system (noun)

A cooperative practice of pairing two or more people together for mutual assistance or safety (especially in recreational swimming).

- The article explained what "buddy system" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "buddy system" during the group presentation.

card trick (noun)

A trick performed with playing cards.

- They discussed "card trick" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "card trick" to mean a trick performed with playing cards.

double sharp (noun)

A musical notation of two sharps in front of a note indicating that it is to be raised by two semitones.

- The article explained what "double sharp" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "double sharp" to mean a musical notation of two sharps in front of a note....

leading tone (noun)

(music) the seventh note of the diatonic scale.

- In class, the teacher used "leading tone" to mean (music) the seventh note of the diatonic scale.
- The article explained what "leading tone" means with a simple example.

---

medal play (noun)

Golf scoring by total strokes taken.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medal play."
- He looked up "medal play" because he had never seen it before.

---

musical organization (noun)

An organization of musicians who perform together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "musical organization."
- He looked up "musical organization" because he had never seen it before.

---

regulation time (noun)

(sports) the normal prescribed duration of a game.

- The game was finished in regulation time.
- The article explained what "regulation time" means with a simple example.

---

second string (noun)

A squad of players that are available either individually or as a team to relieve or replace the players who started the game.

- They discussed "second string" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "second string" because he had never seen it before.

---

sheet music (noun)

A musical composition in printed or written form.

- She turned the pages of the music as he played.
- He looked up "sheet music" because he had never seen it before.

---

shell game (noun)

A swindling sleight-of-hand game; victim guesses which of three things a pellet is under.

- In class, the teacher used "shell game" to mean a swindling sleight-of-hand game; victim guesses....
- They discussed "shell game" during the group presentation.

---

silent movie (noun)

A movie without a soundtrack.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silent movie."
- Understanding "silent movie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

silent picture (noun)

A movie without a soundtrack.

- They discussed "silent picture" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "silent picture" because he had never seen it before.

---

soccer ball (noun)

An inflated ball used in playing soccer.

- Understanding "soccer ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "soccer ball" during the group presentation.

---

surface noise (noun)

Noise produced by the friction of the stylus of a record player moving over the rotating record.

- They discussed "surface noise" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surface noise."

---

swimming meet (noun)

A swimming competition between two or more teams.

- Understanding "swimming meet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up “swimming meet” because he had never seen it before.

---

tone-beginning (noun)

A decisive manner of beginning a musical tone or phrase.

- In class, the teacher used “tone-beginning” to mean a decisive manner of beginning a musical tone or phrase.
- They discussed “tone-beginning” during the group presentation.

---

baseball score (noun)

The score of a baseball game.

- Understanding “baseball score” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “baseball score” because he had never seen it before.

---

dramatic art (noun)

The art of writing and producing plays.

- Understanding “dramatic art” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dramatic art.”

---

field hockey (noun)

A game resembling ice hockey that is played on an open field; two opposing teams use curved sticks try to drive a ball into the opponents’ net.

- The article explained what “field hockey” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “field hockey” to mean a game resembling ice hockey that is played on an....

---

gaming (noun)

The act of playing for stakes in the hope of winning (including the payment of a price for a chance to win a prize).

- The article explained what “gaming” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gaming.”

---

scoring (noun)

Evaluation of performance by assigning a grade or score.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scoring.”
- The article explained what “scoring” means with a simple example.

---

sudden death (noun)

(sports) overtime in which play is stopped as soon as one contestant scores; e.g. football and golf.

- They discussed “sudden death” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “sudden death” to mean (sports) overtime in which play is stopped as soon....

---

swimming event (noun)

An athletic competition that involves swimming.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “swimming event.”
- He looked up “swimming event” because he had never seen it before.

---

acid rock (noun)

A musical style that emerged in the 1960s; rock music inspired by or related to drug-induced experience.

- In class, the teacher used “acid rock” to mean a musical style that emerged in the 1960s; rock....
- The article explained what “acid rock” means with a simple example.

---

change-of-pace (noun)

A baseball thrown with little velocity when the batter is expecting a fastball.

- In class, the teacher used “change-of-pace” to mean a baseball thrown with little velocity when the....
- The article explained what “change-of-pace” means with a simple example.

---

exhibition game (noun)

A game whose outcome is not recorded in the season’s standing.

- They discussed “exhibition game” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “exhibition game” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

give tongue to (verb)

Articulate; either verbally or with a cry, shout, or noise.

- She tried to use "give tongue to" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "give tongue to" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

knock on (noun)

(rugby) knocking the ball forward while trying to catch it (a foul).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "knock on."
- The article explained what "knock on" means with a simple example.

---

package tour (noun)

A tour arranged by a travel agent; transportation and food and lodging are all provided at an inclusive price.

- In class, the teacher used "package tour" to mean a tour arranged by a travel agent; transportation....
- The article explained what "package tour" means with a simple example.

---

paper chase (noun)

An outdoor game; one group of players (the hares) start off on a long run scattering bits of paper (the scent) and pursuers (the hounds) try to catch them before they reach a designated spot.

- He looked up "paper chase" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "paper chase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

run-of-the-mill (adjective)

Not special in any way.

- Run-of-the-mill boxing.
- It is useful to describe something as "run-of-the-mill" when it is not special in any way.

---

tennis (noun)

A game played with rackets by two or four players who hit a ball back and forth over a net that divides the court.

- The article explained what "tennis" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tennis."

---

color chart (noun)

A chart displaying colors.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "color chart."
- He looked up "color chart" because he had never seen it before.

---

contribution (noun)

The part played by a person in bringing about a result.

- I am proud of my contribution in advancing the project.
- He expected his contribution to be repaid with interest.

---

contributions (noun)

The part played by a person in bringing about a result.

- They discussed "contributions" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "contributions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hockey league (noun)

A league of hockey teams.

- In class, the teacher used "hockey league" to mean a league of hockey teams.
- He looked up "hockey league" because he had never seen it before.

---

musical scale (noun)

(music) a series of notes differing in pitch according to a specific scheme (usually within an octave).

- In class, the teacher used "musical scale" to mean (music) a series of notes differing in pitch....
- He looked up "musical scale" because he had never seen it before.

---

musical score (noun)

A written form of a musical composition; parts for different instruments appear on separate staves on large pages.

- He studied the score of the sonata.
- Understanding "musical score" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

record hop (noun)

An informal dance where popular music is played.

- Understanding "record hop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "record hop" means with a simple example.

---

strip show (noun)

A form of erotic entertainment in which a dancer gradually undresses to music.

- She did a strip right in front of everyone.
- They discussed "strip show" during the group presentation.

---

banking game (noun)

Any gambling game in which bets are laid against the gambling house or the dealer.

- Understanding "banking game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "banking game" during the group presentation.

---

dance palace (noun)

Large room used mainly for dancing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dance palace."
- He looked up "dance palace" because he had never seen it before.

---

guidance (noun)

The act of setting and holding a course.

- He looked up "guidance" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "guidance" to mean the act of setting and holding a course.

---

neck and neck (adverb)

Even or close in a race or competition or comparison.

- The horses ran neck and neck.
- He won nip and tuck.

---

real tennis (noun)

An ancient form of tennis played in a four-walled court.

- They discussed "real tennis" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "real tennis."

---

theater company (noun)

A company that produces plays.

- He looked up "theater company" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theater company."

---

brands (noun)

A symbol of disgrace or infamy; –Genesis.

- He looked up "brands" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "brands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cricket match (noun)

A match between two cricket teams.

- Understanding "cricket match" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cricket match" means with a simple example.

---

funeral march (noun)

A slow march to be played for funeral processions.

- Understanding "funeral march" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "funeral march" because he had never seen it before.

ice hockey (noun)

A game played on an ice rink by two opposing teams of six skaters each who try to knock a flat round puck into the opponents' goal with angled sticks.

- Understanding "ice hockey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ice hockey" to mean a game played on an ice rink by two opposing teams....

off-speed pitch (noun)

A baseball thrown with little velocity when the batter is expecting a fastball.

- They discussed "off-speed pitch" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "off-speed pitch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rugby football (noun)

A form of football played with an oval ball.

- Understanding "rugby football" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rugby football."

winter olympics (noun)

An Olympics for winter sports.

- They discussed "winter olympics" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "winter olympics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

black maria (noun)

A form of whist in which players avoid winning tricks containing hearts or the queen of spades.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black maria."
- He looked up "black maria" because he had never seen it before.

bull run (noun)

A creek in northeastern Virginia where two battles were fought in the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "bull run" to mean a creek in northeastern virginia where two battles....
- The article explained what "bull run" means with a simple example.

court tennis (noun)

An ancient form of tennis played in a four-walled court.

- He looked up "court tennis" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "court tennis" during the group presentation.

crystal ball (noun)

A glass or crystal globe used in crystal gazing by fortunetellers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crystal ball."
- He looked up "crystal ball" because he had never seen it before.

defending team (noun)

(sports) the team that is trying to prevent the other team from scoring.

- His teams are always good on defense.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defending team."

dirty pool (noun)

Conduct that is unfair or unethical or unsportsmanlike.

- He looked up "dirty pool" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dirty pool."

double dutch (noun)

The difficult version of jump rope in which players jump over two ropes that are swung in a crisscross manner by two turners.

- The article explained what "double dutch" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "double dutch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ethnic group (noun)

People of the same race or nationality who share a distinctive culture.

- In class, the teacher used "ethnic group" to mean people of the same race or nationality who share a....
- The article explained what "ethnic group" means with a simple example.

---

hook shot (noun)

A basketball shot made over the head with the hand that is farther from the basket.

- They discussed "hook shot" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hook shot" because he had never seen it before.

---

horse racing (noun)

The sport of racing horses.

- They discussed "horse racing" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "horse racing" means with a simple example.

---

presentation (noun)

A show or display; the act of presenting something to sight or view.

- The presentation of new data.
- She gave the trophy but he made the presentation.

---

rugby ball (noun)

Inflated oval ball used in playing rugby.

- In class, the teacher used "rugby ball" to mean inflated oval ball used in playing rugby.
- The article explained what "rugby ball" means with a simple example.

---

sports desk (noun)

The editorial department of a newspaper that edits the sports news.

- He looked up "sports desk" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sports desk."

---

steady (verb)

Support or hold steady and make steadfast, with or as if with a brace.

- Steady yourself.
- She tried to use "steady" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

swing music (noun)

A style of jazz played by big bands popular in the 1930s; flowing rhythms but less complex than later styles of jazz.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swing music."
- They discussed "swing music" during the group presentation.

---

trap play (noun)

(American football) a play in which a defensive player is allowed to cross the line of scrimmage and then blocked off as the runner goes through the place the lineman vacated.

- The article explained what "trap play" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trap play" to mean (american football) a play in which a defensive....

---

winter olympic games (noun)

An Olympics for winter sports.

- The article explained what "winter olympic games" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "winter olympic games" to mean an olympics for winter sports.

---

at-bat (noun)

(baseball) a turn trying to get a hit.

- He got four hits in four at-bats.
- They discussed "at-bat" during the group presentation.

---

charity throw (noun)

An unhindered basketball shot from the foul line; given to penalize the other team for committing a foul.

- Understanding "charity throw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "charity throw" during the group presentation.

---

cricket ball (noun)

The ball used in playing cricket.

- Understanding "cricket ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cricket ball" because he had never seen it before.

---

ethnic music (noun)

The traditional and typically anonymous music that is an expression of the life of people in a community.

- In class, the teacher used "ethnic music" to mean the traditional and typically anonymous music that....
- He looked up "ethnic music" because he had never seen it before.

---

ghost dance (noun)

A religious dance of Native Americans looking for communication with the dead.

- Understanding "ghost dance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ghost dance" means with a simple example.

---

rounds (noun)

The activity of playing 18 holes of golf.

- The doctor goes on his rounds first thing every morning.
- The postman's rounds.

---

string section (noun)

The section of an orchestra that plays stringed instruments.

- In class, the teacher used "string section" to mean the section of an orchestra that plays stringed....
- He looked up "string section" because he had never seen it before.

---

ball-shaped (adjective)

Having the shape of a sphere or ball; ; ; - Zane Grey.

- A "ball-shaped" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "ball-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

boat racing (noun)

The sport of racing boats.

- Understanding "boat racing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "boat racing" during the group presentation.

---

finger-roll (noun)

A basketball shot that rolls off the tips of the fingers into the basket.

- They discussed "finger-roll" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "finger-roll" because he had never seen it before.

---

jazz group (noun)

A small band of jazz musicians.

- He looked up "jazz group" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "jazz group" during the group presentation.

---

movie theater (noun)

A theater where films are shown.

- They discussed "movie theater" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "movie theater" means with a simple example.

---

performances (noun)

The act of presenting a play or a piece of music or other entertainment.

- They listened to ten different performances.
- The play ran for 100 performances.

---

public presentation (noun)

A dramatic or musical entertainment.

- They discussed "public presentation" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "public presentation."

---

stopping (noun)

The kind of playing that involves pressing the fingers on the strings of a stringed instrument to control the pitch.

- The violinist's stopping was excellent.
- Understanding "stopping" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tennis club (noun)

A club of people to play tennis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tennis club."
- Understanding "tennis club" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tennis shot (noun)

The act of hitting a tennis ball with a tennis racket.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tennis shot."
- He looked up "tennis shot" because he had never seen it before.

---

timing (noun)

The regulation of occurrence, pace, or coordination to achieve a desired effect (as in music, theater, athletics, mechanics).

- In class, the teacher used "timing" to mean the regulation of occurrence, pace, or coordination....
- They discussed "timing" during the group presentation.

---

trick or treat (noun)

A request by children on Halloween; they pass from door to door asking for goodies and threatening to play tricks on those who refuse.

- In class, the teacher used "trick or treat" to mean a request by children on halloween; they pass from....
- The article explained what "trick or treat" means with a simple example.

---

triple play (noun)

The act of getting three players out on one play.

- He looked up "triple play" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "triple play" during the group presentation.

---

double reverse (noun)

(American football) a running play in which a first reverse is followed by a second reverse.

- The article explained what "double reverse" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "double reverse" to mean (american football) a running play in which a first....

---

field hockey ball (noun)

Ball used in playing field hockey.

- Understanding "field hockey ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "field hockey ball" because he had never seen it before.

---

fool around (verb)

Indulge in horseplay.

- Enough horsing around–let's get back to work!
- The bored children were fooling about.

---

musical drama (noun)

Opera in which the musical and dramatic elements are equally important; the music is appropriate to the action.

- The article explained what "musical drama" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "musical drama" to mean opera in which the musical and dramatic elements....

---

penalty free throw (noun)

An unhindered basketball shot from the foul line; given to penalize the other team for committing a foul.

- They discussed “penalty free throw” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “penalty free throw” because he had never seen it before.

---

physical fitness (noun)

Good physical condition; being in shape or in condition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “physical fitness.”
- The article explained what “physical fitness” means with a simple example.

---

piano music (noun)

The sound of music produced by a piano.

- He thought he heard piano music next door.
- Understanding “piano music” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

replied (verb)

React verbally.

- In everyday English, people use “replied” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “replied” in real sentences.

---

tennis match (noun)

A match between tennis players.

- Understanding “tennis match” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “tennis match” because he had never seen it before.

---

twin bill (noun)

Two games instead of one (especially in baseball when the same two teams play two games on the same day).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “twin bill.”
- Understanding “twin bill” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

visual joke (noun)

A joke whose effect is achieved by visual means rather than by speech (as in a movie).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “visual joke.”
- The article explained what “visual joke” means with a simple example.

---

bass part (noun)

The lowest part in polyphonic music.

- Understanding “bass part” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bass part.”

---

change-of-pace ball (noun)

A baseball thrown with little velocity when the batter is expecting a fastball.

- They discussed “change-of-pace ball” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “change-of-pace ball.”

---

cotton ball (noun)

A fungus disease of cranberries.

- Understanding “cotton ball” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cotton ball.”

---

hide-and-seek (noun)

A game in which a child covers his eyes while the other players hide then tries to find them.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hide-and-seek.”
- Understanding “hide-and-seek” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

practical joke (noun)

A prank or trick played on a person (especially one intended to make the victim appear foolish).

- In class, the teacher used “practical joke” to mean a prank or trick played on a person (especially one....
- The article explained what “practical joke” means with a simple example.

professional tennis (noun)

Playing tennis for money.

- He looked up "professional tennis" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "professional tennis."

round robin (noun)

A tournament in which every contestant plays every other contestant.

- In class, the teacher used "round robin" to mean a tournament in which every contestant plays every....
- He looked up "round robin" because he had never seen it before.

table tennis (noun)

A game (trademark Ping-Pong) resembling tennis but played on a table with paddles and a light hollow ball.

- The article explained what "table tennis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "table tennis" to mean a game (trademark ping-pong) resembling tennis but....

tap-off (noun)

The act of starting a basketball game with a jump ball.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tap-off."
- He looked up "tap-off" because he had never seen it before.

tennis ball (noun)

Ball about the size of a fist used in playing tennis.

- Understanding "tennis ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tennis ball" to mean ball about the size of a fist used in playing tennis.

thirty-second note (noun)

A musical note having the time value of a thirty-second of a whole note.

- The article explained what "thirty-second note" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thirty-second note."

tone ending (noun)

(music) the act or manner of terminating a musical phrase or tone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tone ending."
- They discussed "tone ending" during the group presentation.

utility (noun)

The service (electric power or water or transportation) provided by a public utility.

- A computer system provides utility programs to perform the tasks needed by most users.
- Understanding "utility" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

claiming race (noun)

A horse race in which each owner declares before the race at what price his horse will be offered for sale after the race.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "claiming race."
- They discussed "claiming race" during the group presentation.

con game (noun)

A swindle in which you cheat at gambling or persuade a person to buy worthless property.

- In class, the teacher used "con game" to mean a swindle in which you cheat at gambling or....
- He looked up "con game" because he had never seen it before.

hide and go seek (noun)

A game in which a child covers his eyes while the other players hide then tries to find them.

- They discussed "hide and go seek" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hide and go seek" because he had never seen it before.

musical mode (noun)

Any of various fixed orders of the various diatonic notes within an octave.

- The article explained what "musical mode" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "musical mode" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

musical theme (noun)

(music) melodic subject of a musical composition.

- The theme is announced in the first measures.
- They discussed "musical theme" during the group presentation.

---

progressive rock (noun)

A style of rock music that emerged in the 1970s; associated with attempts to combine rock with jazz and other forms; intended for listening and not dancing.

- He looked up "progressive rock" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "progressive rock" to mean a style of rock music that emerged in the 1970s;....

---

ride the bench (verb)

Be out of the game.

- Miller was riding the bench in Saturday's game.
- In everyday English, people use "ride the bench" when talking about this idea.

---

sword dance (noun)

Any of various dances by men who step nimbly over swords or flourish them in the air.

- In class, the teacher used "sword dance" to mean any of various dances by men who step nimbly over....
- They discussed "sword dance" during the group presentation.

---

crap shooting (noun)

Playing craps.

- The article explained what "crap shooting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "crap shooting" to mean playing craps.

---

deck of cards (noun)

A pack of 52 playing cards.

- The article explained what "deck of cards" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "deck of cards" to mean a pack of 52 playing cards.

---

ministry of transportation test (noun)

A compulsory annual test of older motor vehicles for safety and exhaust fumes.

- He looked up "ministry of transportation test" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ministry of transportation test" during the group presentation.

---

package holiday (noun)

A tour arranged by a travel agent; transportation and food and lodging are all provided at an inclusive price.

- In class, the teacher used "package holiday" to mean a tour arranged by a travel agent; transportation....
- The article explained what "package holiday" means with a simple example.

---

pipe in (verb)

Transport to a destiny through pipes.

- We have to pipe in oil.
- Music was piped into the offices.

---

pipe up (verb)

Begin to play or sing.

- Can you use "pipe up" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "pipe up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pit run (noun)

Gravel as found in natural deposits.

- He looked up "pit run" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed “pit run” during the group presentation.

---

racism (noun)

The prejudice that members of one race are intrinsically superior to members of other races.

- The article explained what “racism” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “racism” to mean the prejudice that members of one race are....

---

seventh (noun)

The musical interval between one note and another seven notes away from it.

- The article explained what “seventh” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “seventh” during the group presentation.

---

slave trade (noun)

Traffic in slaves; especially in Black Africans transported to America in the 16th to 19th centuries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “slave trade.”
- They discussed “slave trade” during the group presentation.

---

strikes (noun)

A score in tenpins: knocking down all ten with the first ball.

- He finished with three strikes in the tenth frame.
- This pitcher throws more strikes than balls.

---

stroke play (noun)

Golf scoring by total strokes taken.

- In class, the teacher used “stroke play” to mean golf scoring by total strokes taken.
- The article explained what “stroke play” means with a simple example.

---

swimming kick (noun)

A movement of the legs in swimming.

- They discussed “swimming kick” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “swimming kick” means with a simple example.

---

vary (verb)

Be subject to change in accordance with a variable.

- Prices vary.
- His moods vary depending on the weather.

---

april fool (noun)

A practical joke or trick played on the first day of April.

- He looked up “april fool” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “april fool.”

---

bullet (noun)

(baseball) a pitch thrown with maximum velocity.

- In class, the teacher used “bullet” to mean (baseball) a pitch thrown with maximum velocity.
- They discussed “bullet” during the group presentation.

---

classical music (noun)

Traditional genre of music conforming to an established form and appealing to critical interest and developed musical taste.

- Understanding “classical music” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “classical music” to mean traditional genre of music conforming to an....

---

common carrier (noun)

A person or firm in the business of transporting people or goods or messages.

- The article explained what “common carrier” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “common carrier” during the group presentation.

---

music lover (noun)

Someone who attends concerts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "music lover."
- They discussed "music lover" during the group presentation.

---

charter (noun)

A contract to hire or lease transportation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charter."
- He looked up "charter" because he had never seen it before.

---

royal tennis (noun)

An ancient form of tennis played in a four-walled court.

- He looked up "royal tennis" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "royal tennis."

---

ball carrier (noun)

(football) the player who is carrying (and trying to advance) the ball on an offensive play.

- They discussed "ball carrier" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ball carrier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

battle of bull run (noun)

Either of two battles during the American Civil War (1861 and 1862); Confederate forces defeated the Federal army in both battles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battle of bull run."
- The article explained what "battle of bull run" means with a simple example.

---

completion (noun)

(American football) a successful forward pass in football.

- Understanding "completion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "completion" during the group presentation.

---

ground stroke (noun)

A tennis return made by hitting the ball after it has bounced once.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ground stroke."
- Understanding "ground stroke" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

outdoor game (noun)

An athletic game that is played outdoors.

- He looked up "outdoor game" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "outdoor game" to mean an athletic game that is played outdoors.

---

shooting script (noun)

The final detailed script for making a movie or TV program.

- Understanding "shooting script" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "shooting script" means with a simple example.

---

trap block (noun)

(American football) an illegal block.

- He looked up "trap block" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "trap block" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

warm the bench (verb)

Be out of the game.

- Miller was riding the bench in Saturday's game.
- The coach explained when to use "warm the bench" and when to wait.

---

jazz band (noun)

A small band of jazz musicians.

- Understanding "jazz band" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "jazz band" because he had never seen it before.

---

musical comedy (noun)

A play or film whose action and dialogue is interspersed with singing and dancing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "musical comedy."
- He looked up "musical comedy" because he had never seen it before.

---

parallel lives (noun)

A collection of biographies of famous pairs of Greeks and Romans written by Plutarch; used by Shakespeare in writing some of his plays.

- Understanding "parallel lives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "parallel lives" because he had never seen it before.

---

playoffs (noun)

Any final competition to determine a championship.

- He looked up "playoffs" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "playoffs."

---

serial music (noun)

20th century music that uses a definite order of notes as a thematic basis for a musical composition.

- They discussed "serial music" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "serial music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

souls (noun)

A secular form of gospel that was a major Black musical genre in the 1960s and 1970s.

- Understanding "souls" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "souls."

---

sport coat (noun)

Lightweight single-breasted jacket; often striped in the colors of a club or school.

- The article explained what "sport coat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sport coat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

folk music (noun)

The traditional and typically anonymous music that is an expression of the life of people in a community.

- The article explained what "folk music" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "folk music" during the group presentation.

---

hat trick (noun)

(sports) three consecutive scores by one player or three scores in one game (as in cricket or ice hockey etc.).

- Understanding "hat trick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hat trick" to mean (sports) three consecutive scores by one player or....

---

patience (noun)

A card game played by one person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patience."
- Understanding "patience" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rock opera (noun)

Albums of rock music that aspired to the status of art; first appeared in the 1960s.

- Understanding "rock opera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "rock opera" means with a simple example.

---

slave traffic (noun)

Traffic in slaves; especially in Black Africans transported to America in the 16th to 19th centuries.

- He looked up "slave traffic" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "slave traffic" during the group presentation.

auto racing (noun)

The sport of racing automobiles.

- The article explained what "auto racing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "auto racing" to mean the sport of racing automobiles.

drop one's serve (verb)

Lose a game in which one is serving.

- She tried to use "drop one's serve" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "drop one's serve" in a sentence that fits this situation?

emphasis (noun)

The relative prominence of a syllable or musical note (especially with regard to stress or pitch).

- The red light gave the central figure increased emphasis.
- His emphasis on civil rights.

printing operation (noun)

An operation that controls the printing or display of information.

- In class, the teacher used "printing operation" to mean an operation that controls the printing or display....
- The article explained what "printing operation" means with a simple example.

tap dance (noun)

A dance step tapped out audibly with the feet.

- In class, the teacher used "tap dance" to mean a dance step tapped out audibly with the feet.
- The article explained what "tap dance" means with a simple example.

trace (noun)

An indication that something has been present.

- There wasn't a trace of evidence for the claim.
- He speaks French with a trace of an accent.

cat and mouse (noun)

A game for children in which the players form a circle and join hands; they raise their hands to let a player inside the circle or lower their hands to bar a second player who is chasing the first.

- In class, the teacher used "cat and mouse" to mean a game for children in which the players form a....
- The article explained what "cat and mouse" means with a simple example.

command guidance (noun)

A method of controlling the flight of a missile by commands originating from the ground or from another missile.

- The article explained what "command guidance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "command guidance" to mean a method of controlling the flight of a missile by....

dirt ball (noun)

A person who has a nasty or unethical character undeserving of respect.

- Understanding "dirt ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dirt ball" means with a simple example.

displayed (verb)

To show, make visible or apparent.

- He did not know how to use "displayed" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "displayed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

movie maker (noun)

A producer of motion pictures.

- In class, the teacher used "movie maker" to mean a producer of motion pictures.
- The article explained what "movie maker" means with a simple example.

sport jacket (noun)

Lightweight single-breasted jacket; often striped in the colors of a club or school.

- Understanding "sport jacket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sport jacket."

---

attendance (noun)

The frequency with which a person is present.

- A student's attendance is an important factor in her grade.
- Attendance was up by 50 per cent.

---

recording label (noun)

Trade name of a company that produces musical recordings.

- The artists and repertoire department of a recording label is responsible for finding new talent.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "recording label."

---

scandal (noun)

Disgraceful gossip about the private lives of other people.

- In class, the teacher used "scandal" to mean disgraceful gossip about the private lives of other....
- The article explained what "scandal" means with a simple example.

---

swim meet (noun)

A swimming competition between two or more teams.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swim meet."
- The article explained what "swim meet" means with a simple example.

---

ball bearing (noun)

Bearings containing small metal balls.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ball bearing."
- Understanding "ball bearing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

do-si-do (noun)

A square-dance figure; two dancers approach each other and circle back to back before returning to their original places.

- In class, the teacher used "do-si-do" to mean a square-dance figure; two dancers approach each....
- He looked up "do-si-do" because he had never seen it before.

---

embrace (noun)

A close affectionate and protective acceptance.

- His willing embrace of new ideas.
- An island in the embrace of the sea.

---

halloween (noun)

The evening before All Saints' Day; often devoted to pranks played by young people.

- They discussed "halloween" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "halloween."

---

pass completion (noun)

(American football) a successful forward pass in football.

- They discussed "pass completion" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pass completion" to mean (american football) a successful forward pass in....

---

run bases (verb)

Run around the bases, in baseball.

- He did not know how to use "run bases" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "run bases" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sacrifice fly (noun)

A sacrifice made by hitting a long fly ball.

- He looked up "sacrifice fly" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sacrifice fly."

spin the bottle (noun)

A game in which a player spins a bottle and kisses the person that it points to when it stops spinning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spin the bottle."
- The article explained what "spin the bottle" means with a simple example.

spin the plate (noun)

A game in which something round (as a plate) is spun on edge and the name of a player is called; the named player must catch the spinning object before it falls or pay a forfeit.

- They discussed "spin the plate" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "spin the plate" because he had never seen it before.

trace program (noun)

A utility program that exhibits the sequence and results of executing the instructions in another program.

- They discussed "trace program" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trace program."

victory celebration (noun)

A celebration following a victory in a battle or sports competition.

- Understanding "victory celebration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "victory celebration."

vocal (noun)

A short musical composition with words.

- They discussed "vocal" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "vocal" to mean a short musical composition with words.

appearing (noun)

Formal attendance (in court or at a hearing) of a party in an action.

- The article explained what "appearing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "appearing" to mean formal attendance (in court or at a hearing) of a....

auction bridge (noun)

A variety of bridge in which tricks made in excess of the contract are scored toward game; now generally superseded by contract bridge.

- He looked up "auction bridge" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "auction bridge."

fancy-dress ball (noun)

A ball at which guests wear costumes and masks.

- Understanding "fancy-dress ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fancy-dress ball" during the group presentation.

music genre (noun)

An expressive style of music.

- Understanding "music genre" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "music genre."

place-kicking (noun)

(sports) a kick in which the ball is placed on the ground before kicking.

- Understanding "place-kicking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "place-kicking" means with a simple example.

snake dance (noun)

A group advancing in a single-file serpentine path.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snake dance."
- They discussed "snake dance" during the group presentation.

sporting life (noun)

Active interest in gambling on sports events.

- Understanding "sporting life" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sporting life" because he had never seen it before.

---

stake (noun)

A pole or stake set up to mark something (as the start or end of a race track).

- The corner of the lot was indicated by a stake.
- A stake in the company's future.

---

tackle (noun)

The person who plays that position on a football team.

- The right tackle is a straight A student.
- It takes a big man to play tackle.

---

timeline (noun)

A sequence of related events arranged in chronological order and displayed along a line (usually drawn left to right or top to bottom).

- The article explained what "timeline" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "timeline" during the group presentation.

---

zero-sum game (noun)

A game in which the total of all the gains and losses is zero.

- He looked up "zero-sum game" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "zero-sum game" during the group presentation.

---

beans (verb)

Hit on the head, especially with a pitched baseball.

- He did not know how to use "beans" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "beans" and when to wait.

---

curve (noun)

The trace of a point whose direction of motion changes.

- The article explained what "curve" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "curve" to mean the trace of a point whose direction of motion changes.

---

eighth note (noun)

A musical note having the time value of an eighth of a whole note.

- They discussed "eighth note" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "eighth note" to mean a musical note having the time value of an eighth....

---

folk dance (noun)

A style of dancing that originated among ordinary people (not in the royal courts).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "folk dance."
- The article explained what "folk dance" means with a simple example.

---

literary argument (noun)

A summary of the subject or plot of a literary work or play or movie.

- The editor added the argument to the poem.
- They discussed "literary argument" during the group presentation.

---

play tricks (verb)

Deceive somebody.

- The coach explained when to use "play tricks" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "play tricks" until he saw an example.

---

punk rock (noun)

Rock music with deliberately offensive lyrics expressing anger and social alienation; in part a reaction against progressive rock.

- The article explained what "punk rock" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "punk rock" to mean rock music with deliberately offensive lyrics....

---

sport utility (noun)

A high-performance four-wheel drive car built on a truck chassis.

- Understanding "sport utility" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sport utility" means with a simple example.

---

vocal music (noun)

Music that is vocalized (as contrasted with instrumental music).

- In class, the teacher used "vocal music" to mean music that is vocalized (as contrasted with....
- Understanding "vocal music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

water hammer (noun)

The banging sound of steam in pipes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water hammer."
- He looked up "water hammer" because he had never seen it before.

---

accordance (noun)

The act of granting rights.

- The accordance to Canada of rights of access.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "accordance."

---

baseball swing (noun)

In baseball; a batter's attempt to hit a pitched ball.

- Understanding "baseball swing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baseball swing."

---

beats per minute (noun)

The pace of music measured by the number of beats occurring in 60 seconds.

- He looked up "beats per minute" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "beats per minute" during the group presentation.

---

hip-hop (noun)

An urban youth culture associated with rap music and the fashions of African-American residents of the inner city.

- The article explained what "hip-hop" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hip-hop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

musical organisation (noun)

An organization of musicians who perform together.

- In class, the teacher used "musical organisation" to mean an organization of musicians who perform together.
- The article explained what "musical organisation" means with a simple example.

---

playoff (noun)

Any final competition to determine a championship.

- The article explained what "playoff" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "playoff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

race runner (noun)

Very swift lizard of eastern and central United States.

- They discussed "race runner" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "race runner."

---

sword dancing (noun)

Any of various dances by men who step nimbly over swords or flourish them in the air.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sword dancing."
- He looked up "sword dancing" because he had never seen it before.

athletic (adjective)

Relating to or befitting athletics or athletes.

- Athletic facilities.
- It is useful to describe something as "athletic" when it is relating to or befitting athletics or athletes.

base runner (noun)

A baseball player on the team at bat who is on base (or attempting to reach a base).

- They discussed "base runner" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "base runner."

boxing match (noun)

A match between boxers; usually held in a boxing ring.

- He looked up "boxing match" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "boxing match" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

corn dance (noun)

A rain dance of Amerindians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corn dance."
- He looked up "corn dance" because he had never seen it before.

dive (noun)

A steep nose-down descent by an aircraft.

- He looked up "dive" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

double-blind procedure (noun)

An experimental procedure in which neither the subjects of the experiment nor the persons administering the experiment know the critical aspects of the experiment.

- A double-blind procedure is used to guard against both experimenter bias and placebo effects.
- In class, the teacher used "double-blind procedure" to mean an experimental procedure in which neither the....

escape mechanism (noun)

A form of behavior that evades unpleasant realities.

- He looked up "escape mechanism" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "escape mechanism" during the group presentation.

exercises (noun)

The activity of exerting your muscles in various ways to keep fit.

- Academic exercises.
- They discussed "exercises" during the group presentation.

expanding upon (noun)

Adding information or detail.

- In class, the teacher used "expanding upon" to mean adding information or detail.
- Understanding "expanding upon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

governing (noun)

The act of governing; exercising authority.

- Regulations for the governing of state prisons.
- The article explained what "governing" means with a simple example.

inter-service support (noun)

Action by one military service to provide logistic (or administrative) support to another military service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inter-service support."
- He looked up "inter-service support" because he had never seen it before.

inventory control (noun)

Supervision of the supply and storage and accessibility of items in order to insure an adequate supply without excessive oversupply.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inventory control."
- The article explained what "inventory control" means with a simple example.

---

journalism (noun)

The profession of reporting or photographing or editing news stories for one of the media.

- In class, the teacher used "journalism" to mean the profession of reporting or photographing or....
- He looked up "journalism" because he had never seen it before.

---

laying on of hands (noun)

The application of a faith healer's hands to the patient's body.

- Understanding "laying on of hands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "laying on of hands" to mean the application of a faith healer's hands to the....

---

miracle play (noun)

A medieval play representing episodes from the life of a saint or martyr.

- The article explained what "miracle play" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "miracle play" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

musical theater (noun)

A play or film whose action and dialogue is interspersed with singing and dancing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "musical theater."
- Understanding "musical theater" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nuclear terrorism (noun)

The use of a nuclear device by a terrorist organization to cause massive devastation or the use (or threat of use) of fissionable radioactive materials.

- Assaults on nuclear power plants is one form of nuclear terrorism.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nuclear terrorism."

---

playoff game (noun)

One game in the series of games constituting a playoff.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "playoff game."
- He looked up "playoff game" because he had never seen it before.

---

prayers (noun)

The act of communicating with a deity (especially as a petition or in adoration or contrition or thanksgiving).

- In class, the teacher used "prayers" to mean the act of communicating with a deity (especially....
- The article explained what "prayers" means with a simple example.

---

professional boxing (noun)

Boxing for money.

- In class, the teacher used "professional boxing" to mean boxing for money.
- Understanding "professional boxing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pursuit (noun)

The act of pursuing in an effort to overtake or capture.

- The culprit started to run and the cop took off in pursuit.
- The pursuit of love.

---

rap (noun)

The act of hitting vigorously.

- It was a bum rap.
- They discussed "rap" during the group presentation.

---

rat race (noun)

An exhausting routine that leaves no time for relaxation.

- Understanding "rat race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used “rat race” to mean an exhausting routine that leaves no time for....

---

rifle ball (noun)

A bullet designed to be fired from a rifle; no longer made spherical in shape.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rifle ball.”
- He looked up “rifle ball” because he had never seen it before.

---

ted williams (noun)

United States baseball player noted as a hitter (1918-2002).

- The article explained what “ted williams” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “ted williams” during the group presentation.

---

worrying (noun)

The act of moving something by repeated tugs or pushes.

- Vigorous worrying finally loosened the saw.
- The article explained what “worrying” means with a simple example.

---

athlete (noun)

A person trained to compete in sports.

- They discussed “athlete” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “athlete” to mean a person trained to compete in sports.

---

athletic game (noun)

A game involving athletic activity.

- He looked up “athletic game” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “athletic game.”

---

cattle drive (noun)

Driving a bovine herd (as cows or bulls or steers).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cattle drive.”
- The article explained what “cattle drive” means with a simple example.

---

classroom project (noun)

A school task requiring considerable effort.

- In class, the teacher used “classroom project” to mean a school task requiring considerable effort.
- Understanding “classroom project” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cross dressing (noun)

The practice of adopting the clothes or the manner or the sexual role of the opposite sex.

- The article explained what “cross dressing” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cross dressing” to mean the practice of adopting the clothes or the manner....

---

depth psychology (noun)

A set of techniques for exploring underlying motives and a method of treating various mental disorders; based on the theories of Sigmund Freud.

- Understanding “depth psychology” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “depth psychology” to mean a set of techniques for exploring underlying....

---

domestic terrorism (noun)

Terrorism practiced in your own country against your own people.

- The 1995 bombing of a federal building in Oklahoma City was an instance of domestic terrorism.
- The article explained what “domestic terrorism” means with a simple example.

---

duke wayne (noun)

United States film actor who played tough heroes (1907-1979).

- The article explained what “duke wayne” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “duke wayne” during the group presentation.

---

electric healing (noun)

The therapeutic application of electricity to the body (as in the treatment of various forms of paralysis).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric healing."
- He looked up "electric healing" because he had never seen it before.

---

freeze (noun)

An interruption or temporary suspension of progress or movement.

- A nuclear freeze.
- A freeze on hiring.

---

gaining control (noun)

The act of forcibly dispossessing an owner of property.

- He looked up "gaining control" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gaining control" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

garbage collection (noun)

The collection and removal of garbage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "garbage collection."
- He looked up "garbage collection" because he had never seen it before.

---

giving medication (noun)

The act of administering medication.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "giving medication."
- They discussed "giving medication" during the group presentation.

---

grip (verb)

To grip or seize, as in a wrestling match.

- He gripped the steering wheel.
- She tried to use "grip" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

harmony (noun)

The structure of music with respect to the composition and progression of chords.

- He looked up "harmony" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "harmony" during the group presentation.

---

intentions (noun)

An act of intending; a volition that you intend to carry out.

- Good intentions are not enough.
- His intentions are entirely honorable.

---

investing (noun)

The act of investing; laying out money or capital in an enterprise with the expectation of profit.

- They discussed "investing" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "investing" to mean the act of investing; laying out money or capital....

---

john cage (noun)

United States composer of avant-garde music (1912-1992).

- They discussed "john cage" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "john cage" to mean united states composer of avant-garde music (1912-1992).

---

mixing (noun)

The act of mixing together.

- The mixing of sound channels in the recording studio.
- He looked up "mixing" because he had never seen it before.

---

musical composition (noun)

A musical work that has been created.

- The composition is written in four movements.
- In class, the teacher used "musical composition" to mean a musical work that has been created.

---

outdoor sport (noun)

A sport that is played outdoors.

- In class, the teacher used "outdoor sport" to mean a sport that is played outdoors.
- Understanding "outdoor sport" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

phase ii clinical trial (noun)

A clinical trial on more persons than in phase I; intended to evaluate the efficacy of a treatment for the condition it is intended to treat; possible side effects are monitored.

- He looked up "phase ii clinical trial" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "phase ii clinical trial" during the group presentation.

---

purchases (noun)

The acquisition of something for payment.

- Understanding "purchases" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "purchases" because he had never seen it before.

---

radar target (noun)

A radar echo displayed so as to show the position of a reflecting surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radar target."
- Understanding "radar target" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reverse stock split (noun)

A decrease in the number of outstanding shares of a corporation without changing the shareholders' equity.

- In class, the teacher used "reverse stock split" to mean a decrease in the number of outstanding shares of a....
- He looked up "reverse stock split" because he had never seen it before.

---

scratch race (noun)

A race in which all contestants start from scratch (on equal terms).

- They discussed "scratch race" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "scratch race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

secretary of veterans affairs (noun)

The position of the head of the Department of Veterans Affairs.

- The post of Secretary of Veterans Affairs was created in 1989.
- Bush appointed Edward J. Derwinski as the first Secretary of Veterans Affairs.

---

ski run (noun)

Trail or slope prepared for skiing.

- He looked up "ski run" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ski run."

---

temporary removal (noun)

A temporary debarment (from a privilege or position etc).

- The article explained what "temporary removal" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "temporary removal" during the group presentation.

---

vertical bank (noun)

A bank so steep that the plane's lateral axis approaches the vertical.

- In class, the teacher used "vertical bank" to mean a bank so steep that the plane's lateral axis....
- He looked up "vertical bank" because he had never seen it before.

---

warner (noun)

United States filmmaker who with his brothers founded the movie studio that produced the first talking picture (1881-1958).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "warner."
- He looked up "warner" because he had never seen it before.

bible-worship (noun)

The worship of the Bible.

- The article explained what "bible-worship" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bible-worship" during the group presentation.

biological defence (noun)

Procedures involved in taking defensive measures against attacks using biological agents.

- The article explained what "biological defence" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "biological defence" to mean procedures involved in taking defensive measures....

breakdown (noun)

The act of disrupting an established order so it fails to continue.

- His warning came after the breakdown of talks in London.
- There was a power breakdown.

burden of proof (noun)

The duty of proving a disputed charge.

- The article explained what "burden of proof" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "burden of proof."

casting vote (noun)

The deciding vote cast by the presiding officer to resolve a tie.

- They discussed "casting vote" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "casting vote" to mean the deciding vote cast by the presiding officer to....

crisis intervention (noun)

Psychotherapy that focuses on acute critical situations (depressive episodes or attempted suicides or drug overdoses) with the aim of restoring the person to the level of functioning before the crisis.

- He looked up "crisis intervention" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "crisis intervention" to mean psychotherapy that focuses on acute critical....

cycling (noun)

The sport of traveling on a bicycle or motorcycle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cycling."
- He looked up "cycling" because he had never seen it before.

gene kelly (noun)

United States dancer who performed in many musical films (1912-1996).

- Understanding "gene kelly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gene kelly" during the group presentation.

genuinely (adverb)

In accordance with truth or fact or reality.

- A genuinely open society.
- Place "genuinely" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

judicial review (noun)

Review by a court of law of actions of a government official or entity or of some other legally appointed person or body or the review by an appellate court of the decision of a trial court.

- The article explained what "judicial review" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "judicial review."

laughter (noun)

The activity of laughing; the manifestation of joy or mirth or scorn.

- He enjoyed the laughter of the crowd.
- Understanding "laughter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

loading (noun)

A quantity that can be processed or transported at one time.

- The loading took 2 hours.
- Understanding "loading" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

memory trace (noun)

A postulated biochemical change (presumably in neural tissue) that represents a memory.

- In class, the teacher used "memory trace" to mean a postulated biochemical change (presumably in....
- The article explained what "memory trace" means with a simple example.

---

popular music genre (noun)

Any genre of music having wide appeal (but usually only for a short time).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "popular music genre."
- They discussed "popular music genre" during the group presentation.

---

power dive (noun)

A dive of an airplane that is accelerated both by gravity and by the power of the engine.

- They discussed "power dive" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "power dive" to mean a dive of an airplane that is accelerated both by....

---

rap music (noun)

Genre of African-American music of the 1980s and 1990s in which rhyming lyrics are chanted to a musical accompaniment; several forms of rap have emerged.

- In class, the teacher used "rap music" to mean genre of african-american music of the 1980s and....
- Understanding "rap music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rental (noun)

The act of paying for the use of something (as an apartment or house or car).

- He looked up "rental" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "rental" during the group presentation.

---

runner-up finish (noun)

A finish in second place (as in a race).

- They discussed "runner-up finish" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "runner-up finish" to mean a finish in second place (as in a race).

---

safe harbor (noun)

The target company defends itself by acquiring a company so onerously regulated that it makes the target less attractive.

- The acquisition gave the company a safe harbor.
- They discussed "safe harbor" during the group presentation.

---

snap roll (noun)

A fast roll.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snap roll."
- The article explained what "snap roll" means with a simple example.

---

soft-shoe (noun)

Tap dancing wearing shoes that have soft soles.

- Understanding "soft-shoe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "soft-shoe" to mean tap dancing wearing shoes that have soft soles.

---

stake race (noun)

A horse race in which part of the prize is put up by the owners of the horses in the race.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stake race."
- They discussed "stake race" during the group presentation.

---

tennis lesson (noun)

A lesson in playing tennis.

- They discussed "tennis lesson" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tennis lesson."

---

twelve-tone music (noun)

A type of serial music introduced by Arnold Schoenberg; uses a tone row formed by the twelve semitones of the chromatic scale (and inverted or backward versions of the row).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twelve-tone music."
- He looked up "twelve-tone music" because he had never seen it before.

---

twelve-tone system (noun)

A type of serial music introduced by Arnold Schoenberg; uses a tone row formed by the twelve semitones of the chromatic scale (and inverted or backward versions of the row).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twelve-tone system."
- He looked up "twelve-tone system" because he had never seen it before.

---

wrestling hold (noun)

A hold used in the sport of wrestling.

- In class, the teacher used "wrestling hold" to mean a hold used in the sport of wrestling.
- The article explained what "wrestling hold" means with a simple example.

---

wrestling match (noun)

A match between wrestlers.

- In class, the teacher used "wrestling match" to mean a match between wrestlers.
- They discussed "wrestling match" during the group presentation.

---

accordance of rights (noun)

The act of granting rights.

- The accordance to Canada of rights of access.
- They discussed "accordance of rights" during the group presentation.

---

appearances (noun)

The act of appearing in public view.

- They try to keep up appearances.
- The article explained what "appearances" means with a simple example.

---

automatic face recognition (noun)

Biometric identification by scanning a person's face and matching it against a library of known faces.

- They used face recognition to spot known terrorists.
- They discussed "automatic face recognition" during the group presentation.

---

battle of marathon (noun)

A battle in 490 BC in which the Athenians and their allies defeated the Persians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battle of marathon."
- Understanding "battle of marathon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bombing (noun)

The use of bombs for sabotage; a tactic frequently used by terrorists.

- Understanding "bombing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bombing" because he had never seen it before.

---

breach of trust (noun)

Violation (either through fraud or negligence) by a trustee of a duty that equity requires of him.

- He looked up "breach of trust" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breach of trust."

---

bubble dance (noun)

A solo dance similar to a fan dance except large balloons are used instead of fans.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bubble dance."
- They discussed "bubble dance" during the group presentation.

curve ball (noun)

A pitch of a baseball that is thrown with spin so that its path curves as it approaches the batter.

- Understanding "curve ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "curve ball" during the group presentation.

dental care (noun)

Care for the teeth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dental care."
- He looked up "dental care" because he had never seen it before.

double-blind experiment (noun)

An experimental procedure in which neither the subjects of the experiment nor the persons administering the experiment know the critical aspects of the experiment.

- A double-blind procedure is used to guard against both experimenter bias and placebo effects.
- In class, the teacher used "double-blind experiment" to mean an experimental procedure in which neither the....

drill (noun)

Systematic training by multiple repetitions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drill."
- He looked up "drill" because he had never seen it before.

entries (noun)

The act of beginning something new.

- In class, the teacher used "entries" to mean the act of beginning something new.
- He looked up "entries" because he had never seen it before.

fixing (noun)

The sterilization of an animal.

- The article explained what "fixing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fixing" during the group presentation.

golf stroke (noun)

The act of swinging a golf club at a golf ball and (usually) hitting it.

- He looked up "golf stroke" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golf stroke."

governance (noun)

The act of governing; exercising authority.

- The governance of an association is responsible to its members.
- Understanding "governance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hug (noun)

A tight or amorous embrace.

- Come here and give me a big hug.
- In class, the teacher used "hug" to mean a tight or amorous embrace.

immune response (noun)

A bodily defense reaction that recognizes an invading substance (an antigen: such as a virus or fungus or bacteria or transplanted organ) and produces antibodies specific against that antigen.

- Understanding "immune response" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "immune response" during the group presentation.

judicial decision (noun)

(law) the determination by a court of competent jurisdiction on matters submitted to it.

- They discussed "judicial decision" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "judicial decision" means with a simple example.

lawsuit (noun)

A comprehensive term for any proceeding in a court of law whereby an individual seeks a legal remedy.

- The article explained what "lawsuit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lawsuit."

---

laying claim (noun)

The act of taking possession of or power over something.

- In class, the teacher used "laying claim" to mean the act of taking possession of or power over something.
- The article explained what "laying claim" means with a simple example.

---

long-distance runner (noun)

Someone who participates in long-distance races (especially in marathons).

- Understanding "long-distance runner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "long-distance runner" means with a simple example.

---

musical phrase (noun)

A short musical passage.

- The article explained what "musical phrase" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "musical phrase" during the group presentation.

---

musicians (noun)

Artist who composes or conducts music as a profession.

- In class, the teacher used "musicians" to mean artist who composes or conducts music as a profession.
- He looked up "musicians" because he had never seen it before.

---

professional wrestling (noun)

Wrestling for money.

- Understanding "professional wrestling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "professional wrestling" because he had never seen it before.

---

receiver (noun)

The tennis player who receives the serve.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "receiver."
- He looked up "receiver" because he had never seen it before.

---

riot (noun)

A public act of violence by an unruly mob.

- Understanding "riot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "riot."

---

sells (noun)

The activity of persuading someone to buy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sells."
- The article explained what "sells" means with a simple example.

---

smash (noun)

The act of colliding with something.

- The fullback's smash into the defensive line.
- That new Broadway show is a real smasher.

---

substance abuse (noun)

Excessive use of drugs.

- He looked up "substance abuse" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "substance abuse."

---

surrender (noun)

The act of surrendering (usually under agreed conditions).

- Understanding "surrender" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “surrender.”

variations (noun)

An activity that varies from a norm or standard.

- Who is responsible for these variations in taxation?
- Understanding “variations” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

arab-israeli war (noun)

Tension between Arabs and Israeli erupted into a brief war in June 1967; Israel emerged as a major power in the Middle East.

- He looked up “arab-israeli war” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “arab-israeli war.”

athletic training (noun)

The course of practice and exercise and diet undertaken by an athlete.

- He looked up “athletic training” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “athletic training.”

ball valve (noun)

Any valve that checks flow by the seating of a ball.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ball valve.”
- He looked up “ball valve” because he had never seen it before.

breach of the peace (noun)

Any act of molesting, interrupting, hindering, agitating, or arousing from a state of repose or otherwise depriving inhabitants of the peace and quiet to which they are entitled.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “breach of the peace.”
- He looked up “breach of the peace” because he had never seen it before.

careers (noun)

The general progression of your working or professional life.

- The article explained what “careers” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “careers” to mean the general progression of your working or....

casting lots (noun)

Making a chance decision by using lots (straws or pebbles etc.) that are thrown or drawn.

- The article explained what “casting lots” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “casting lots.”

cat and rat (noun)

A game for children in which the players form a circle and join hands; they raise their hands to let a player inside the circle or lower their hands to bar a second player who is chasing the first.

- Understanding “cat and rat” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “cat and rat” to mean a game for children in which the players form a....

contractor (noun)

The bridge player in contract bridge who wins the bidding and can declare which suit is to be trumps.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “contractor.”
- The article explained what “contractor” means with a simple example.

deck tennis (noun)

Game played mainly on board ocean liners; players toss a ring back and forth over a net that is stretched across a small court.

- He looked up “deck tennis” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “deck tennis” during the group presentation.

fairy (noun)

A small being, human in form, playful and having magical powers.

- They discussed “fairy” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fairy.”

gambling (noun)

The act of playing for stakes in the hope of winning (including the payment of a price for a chance to win a prize).

- His gambling cost him a fortune.
- They discussed "gambling" during the group presentation.

---

hammer throw (noun)

An athletic competition in which a heavy metal ball that is attached to a flexible wire is hurled as far as possible.

- In class, the teacher used "hammer throw" to mean an athletic competition in which a heavy metal ball....
- Understanding "hammer throw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

investigating (noun)

The work of inquiring into something thoroughly and systematically.

- In class, the teacher used "investigating" to mean the work of inquiring into something thoroughly and....
- The article explained what "investigating" means with a simple example.

---

morris dance (noun)

Any of various English folk dances performed by dancers in costume.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morris dance."
- The article explained what "morris dance" means with a simple example.

---

piano lesson (noun)

A lesson in playing the piano.

- The article explained what "piano lesson" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "piano lesson."

---

presidents (noun)

The office of the United States head of state.

- The article explained what "presidents" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "presidents" to mean the office of the united states head of state.

---

pressing (noun)

The act of pressing; the exertion of pressure.

- At the pressing of a button.
- They discussed "pressing" during the group presentation.

---

radiation therapy (noun)

(medicine) the treatment of disease (especially cancer) by exposure to a radioactive substance.

- In class, the teacher used "radiation therapy" to mean (medicine) the treatment of disease (especially....
- He looked up "radiation therapy" because he had never seen it before.

---

radio observation (noun)

An observation made with a radio telescope.

- The article explained what "radio observation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "radio observation" during the group presentation.

---

road rage (noun)

Violence exhibited by drivers in traffic.

- They discussed "road rage" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "road rage."

---

royal casino (noun)

A form of casino in which face cards have extra point values.

- Understanding "royal casino" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "royal casino" to mean a form of casino in which face cards have extra....

---

shaking (noun)

The act of causing something to move up and down (or back and forth) with quick movements.

- The shaking of his fingers as he lit his pipe.
- The article explained what "shaking" means with a simple example.

---

ski race (noun)

A race between people wearing skis.

- Understanding "ski race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ski race" to mean a race between people wearing skis.

---

stadium jumping (noun)

Riding horses in competitions over set courses to demonstrate skill in jumping over obstacles.

- They discussed "stadium jumping" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "stadium jumping" to mean riding horses in competitions over set courses to....

---

struggles (noun)

An energetic attempt to achieve something.

- Understanding "struggles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "struggles" during the group presentation.

---

tap dancing (noun)

A dance step tapped out audibly with the feet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tap dancing."
- Understanding "tap dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tastes (noun)

A kind of sensing; distinguishing substances by means of the taste buds.

- In class, the teacher used "tastes" to mean a kind of sensing; distinguishing substances by....
- Understanding "tastes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tennessee williams (noun)

United States playwright (1911-1983).

- Understanding "tennessee williams" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tennessee williams" means with a simple example.

---

tooth (noun)

A means of enforcement.

- In class, the teacher used "tooth" to mean a means of enforcement.
- They discussed "tooth" during the group presentation.

---

underground railway (noun)

Secret aid to escaping slaves that was provided by abolitionists in the years before the American Civil War.

- He looked up "underground railway" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "underground railway."

---

variation (noun)

An activity that varies from a norm or standard.

- Any variation in his routine was immediately reported.
- An emery wheel is the modern variation of a grindstone.

---

viewing (noun)

A vigil held over a corpse the night before burial.

- They discussed "viewing" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "viewing" because he had never seen it before.

---

violent disorder (noun)

Violently angry and destructive behavior.

- They discussed "violent disorder" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "violent disorder" because he had never seen it before.

wears (noun)

The act of having on your person as a covering or adornment.

- In class, the teacher used "wears" to mean the act of having on your person as a covering or....
- The article explained what "wears" means with a simple example.

weight gaining (noun)

Bodybuilding that increases muscle mass and body weight.

- The article explained what "weight gaining" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "weight gaining" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

area bombing (noun)

An extensive and systematic bombing intended to devastate a large target.

- They discussed "area bombing" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "area bombing" means with a simple example.

assumption (noun)

The act of assuming or taking for granted.

- Your assumption that I would agree was unwarranted.
- On the assumption that he has been injured we can infer that he will not to play.

barrel roll (noun)

A roll in which the plane follows a spiral course.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barrel roll."
- He looked up "barrel roll" because he had never seen it before.

bombing run (noun)

That part of the flight that begins with the approach to the target; includes target acquisition and ends with the release of the bombs.

- The article explained what "bombing run" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bombing run."

breach of contract (noun)

A breach of a legal duty; failure to do something that is required in a contract.

- In class, the teacher used "breach of contract" to mean a breach of a legal duty; failure to do something....
- He looked up "breach of contract" because he had never seen it before.

chemical terrorism (noun)

Terrorism using the chemical agents of chemical warfare; can undermine the personal security of citizens.

- A good agent for chemical terrorism should be colorless and odorless and inexpensive and readily available and not detectable until symptoms are experienced.
- They discussed "chemical terrorism" during the group presentation.

computing (noun)

The procedure of calculating; determining something by mathematical or logical methods.

- He looked up "computing" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "computing" to mean the procedure of calculating; determining something....

conducting (noun)

The direction of an orchestra or choir.

- He does not use a baton for conducting.
- Understanding "conducting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

displays (verb)

To show, make visible or apparent.

- In everyday English, people use "displays" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "displays" carefully so everyone would understand.

drain (noun)

A gradual depletion of energy or resources.

- A drain on resources.
- A drain of young talent by emigration.

---

dramatic composition (noun)

A play for performance on the stage or television or in a movie etc.

- The article explained what "dramatic composition" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dramatic composition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

duty assignment (noun)

A duty that you are assigned to perform (especially in the armed forces).

- Hazardous duty.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "duty assignment."

---

electronics intelligence (noun)

Intelligence derived from electromagnetic radiations from foreign sources (other than radioactive sources).

- In class, the teacher used "electronics intelligence" to mean intelligence derived from electromagnetic....
- They discussed "electronics intelligence" during the group presentation.

---

emissions (noun)

The act of emitting; causing to flow forth.

- Understanding "emissions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emissions."

---

gambling game (noun)

A game that involves gambling.

- The article explained what "gambling game" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gambling game" during the group presentation.

---

kicks (noun)

The act of delivering a blow with the foot.

- He does it for kicks.
- They discussed "kicks" during the group presentation.

---

laying waste (noun)

Destruction achieved by causing something to be wrecked or ruined.

- In class, the teacher used "laying waste" to mean destruction achieved by causing something to be....
- The article explained what "laying waste" means with a simple example.

---

material breach (noun)

A breach serious enough to destroy the value of the contract and to give a basis for an action for breach of contract.

- He looked up "material breach" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "material breach" to mean a breach serious enough to destroy the value of the....

---

measuring (noun)

The act or process of assigning numbers to phenomena according to a rule.

- His mental measurings proved remarkably accurate.
- They discussed "measuring" during the group presentation.

---

mixed farming (noun)

Growing crops and feed and livestock all on the same farm.

- They discussed "mixed farming" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mixed farming" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

musical passage (noun)

A short section of a musical composition.

- He looked up "musical passage" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used “musical passage” to mean a short section of a musical composition.

---

nomination (noun)

The act of officially naming a candidate.

- The Republican nomination for Governor.
- There was keen competition for the nomination.

---

publishers (noun)

A person engaged in publishing periodicals or books or music.

- The article explained what “publishers” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “publishers” to mean a person engaged in publishing periodicals or books....

---

pull someone’s leg (verb)

Subject to a playful hoax or joke.

- He did not know how to use “pull someone’s leg” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “pull someone’s leg” in real sentences.

---

riot control (noun)

The measures taken to control a riot.

- They discussed “riot control” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “riot control” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rock climbing (noun)

The sport or pastime of scaling rock masses on mountain sides (especially with the help of ropes and special equipment).

- He looked up “rock climbing” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rock climbing.”

---

scan (noun)

The act of scanning; systematic examination of a prescribed region.

- He made a thorough scan of the beach with his binoculars.
- He analyzed the brain scan.

---

smash hit (noun)

An unusually successful hit with widespread popularity and huge sales (especially a movie or play or recording or novel).

- The article explained what “smash hit” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “smash hit.”

---

soil conservation (noun)

Protection of soil against erosion or deterioration.

- Understanding “soil conservation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “soil conservation” means with a simple example.

---

supporter (noun)

A person who backs a politician or a team etc.

- All their supporters came out for the game.
- He looked up “supporter” because he had never seen it before.

---

te (noun)

The syllable naming the seventh (subtonic) note of any musical scale in solmization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “te.”
- The article explained what “te” means with a simple example.

---

toe-in (noun)

The alignment of the front wheels of a motor vehicle closer together at the front than at the back.

- In class, the teacher used “toe-in” to mean the alignment of the front wheels of a motor....
- They discussed “toe-in” during the group presentation.

---

truck farming (noun)

Growing vegetables for the market.

- They discussed "truck farming" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "truck farming" means with a simple example.

---

victory lap (noun)

A lap by the winning person or team run to celebrate the victory.

- They discussed "victory lap" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "victory lap" to mean a lap by the winning person or team run to....

---

achievements (noun)

The action of accomplishing something.

- He looked up "achievements" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "achievements" during the group presentation.

---

albert edward (noun)

King of England from 1901 to 1910; son of Victoria and Prince Albert; famous for his elegant sporting ways (1841-1910).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "albert edward."
- The article explained what "albert edward" means with a simple example.

---

ballot (noun)

A choice that is made by counting the number of people in favor of each alternative.

- Understanding "ballot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ballot" means with a simple example.

---

blessing (noun)

The formal act of approving.

- He gave the project his blessing.
- Enjoy the blessings of peace.

---

calendar method of birth control (noun)

Natural family planning in which ovulation is assumed to occur 14 days before the onset of a period (the fertile period would be assumed to extend from day 10 through day 18 of her cycle).

- In class, the teacher used "calendar method of birth control" to mean natural family planning in which ovulation is....
- The article explained what "calendar method of birth control" means with a simple example.

---

charm campaign (noun)

A campaign of flattery and friendliness (by a company, politician, etc.) to become more popular and gain support.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charm campaign."
- The article explained what "charm campaign" means with a simple example.

---

cheat (noun)

The act of swindling by some fraudulent scheme.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheat."
- The article explained what "cheat" means with a simple example.

---

common meter (noun)

The usual (iambic) meter of a ballad.

- He looked up "common meter" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "common meter" to mean the usual (iambic) meter of a ballad.

---

demonstration (noun)

A show of military force or preparedness.

- He confused the enemy with feints and demonstrations.
- He gave the customer a demonstration.

---

dental practice (noun)

The practice of dentistry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dental practice."
- The article explained what "dental practice" means with a simple example.

---

detection (noun)

A police investigation to determine the perpetrator.

- Detection is hard on the feet.
- Early detection can often lead to a cure.

---

eleven-plus (noun)

(formerly in Britain) an examination taken by 11 and 12 year old students to select suitable candidates for grammar school.

- Understanding "eleven-plus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eleven-plus."

---

encountered (verb)

Contend against an opponent in a sport, game, or battle.

- The coach explained when to use "encountered" and when to wait.
- Can you use "encountered" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

feminist movement (noun)

The movement aimed at equal rights for women.

- In class, the teacher used "feminist movement" to mean the movement aimed at equal rights for women.
- Understanding "feminist movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fire drill (noun)

An exercise intended to train people in duties and escape procedures to be followed in case of fire.

- They discussed "fire drill" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire drill."

---

grand theft (noun)

Larceny of property having a value greater than some amount (the amount varies by locale).

- The article explained what "grand theft" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "grand theft" during the group presentation.

---

half-breed (noun)

An offensive term for an offspring of parents of different races (especially of Caucasian and American Indian ancestry).

- He looked up "half-breed" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half-breed."

---

jam session (noun)

An impromptu jazz concert.

- In class, the teacher used "jam session" to mean an impromptu jazz concert.
- The article explained what "jam session" means with a simple example.

---

military drill (noun)

Training in marching and the use of weapons.

- Understanding "military drill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "military drill" during the group presentation.

---

monkey business (noun)

Mischievous or deceitful behavior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monkey business."
- The article explained what "monkey business" means with a simple example.

---

murder conviction (noun)

Conviction for murder.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "murder conviction."
- Understanding "murder conviction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

musical arrangement (noun)

A piece of music that has been adapted for performance by a particular set of voices or instruments.

- He looked up "musical arrangement" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "musical arrangement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

packing (noun)

Carrying something in a pack on the back.

- The backpacking of oxygen is essential for astronauts.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "packing."

popularity contest (noun)

Competition (real or figurative) for popular support.

- They discussed "popularity contest" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "popularity contest" to mean competition (real or figurative) for popular support.

potato race (noun)

A novelty race in which competitors move potatoes from one place to another one at a time.

- Understanding "potato race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "potato race."

pretending (noun)

The act of giving a false appearance.

- His conformity was only pretending.
- He looked up "pretending" because he had never seen it before.

prosecution (noun)

The continuance of something begun with a view to its completion.

- They discussed "prosecution" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "prosecution" because he had never seen it before.

purchasing (noun)

The act of buying.

- Shrewd purchasing requires considerable knowledge.
- Understanding "purchasing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

reforms (noun)

A campaign aimed to correct abuses or malpractices.

- The reforms he proposed were too radical for the politicians.
- He looked up "reforms" because he had never seen it before.

rides (noun)

A journey in a vehicle (usually an automobile).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rides."
- He looked up "rides" because he had never seen it before.

subscription (noun)

The act of signing your name; writing your signature (as on a document).

- The deed was attested by the subscription of his signature.
- The article explained what "subscription" means with a simple example.

switching (noun)

The act of changing one thing or position for another.

- He looked up "switching" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "switching" during the group presentation.

athletic competition (noun)

A contest between athletes.

- The article explained what "athletic competition" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "athletic competition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bout (noun)

An occasion for excessive eating or drinking.

- A bout of fever.
- A bout of depression.

---

bowling (noun)

The playing of a game of tenpins or duckpins etc.

- He looked up "bowling" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bowling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

buzz (noun)

A confusion of activity and gossip.

- The buzz of excitement was so great that a formal denial was issued.
- The buzz of a bumble bee.

---

card shark (noun)

A professional card player who makes a living by cheating at card games.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "card shark."
- They discussed "card shark" during the group presentation.

---

close-order drill (noun)

(military) military drill of troops in standard marching (shoulder-to-shoulder).

- In class, the teacher used "close-order drill" to mean (military) military drill of troops in standard....
- The article explained what "close-order drill" means with a simple example.

---

consulting service (noun)

Service provided by a professional advisor (e.g., a lawyer or doctor or CPA etc.).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "consulting service."
- They discussed "consulting service" during the group presentation.

---

experimental procedure (noun)

The specific techniques used in conducting a particular experiment.

- The article explained what "experimental procedure" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "experimental procedure" during the group presentation.

---

federal aviation agency (noun)

An agency in the Department of Transportation that is responsible for the safety of civilian aviation.

- The article explained what "federal aviation agency" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "federal aviation agency."

---

fly casting (noun)

Casting an artificial fly as a lure.

- He looked up "fly casting" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fly casting."

---

flying colours (noun)

Complete success.

- They passed inspection with flying colors.
- He looked up "flying colours" because he had never seen it before.

---

foul (noun)

An act that violates the rules of a sport.

- In class, the teacher used "foul" to mean an act that violates the rules of a sport.

- They discussed "foul" during the group presentation.

---

foul out (verb)

Baseball: hit a ball such that it is caught from an out in foul territory.

- The coach explained when to use "foul out" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "foul out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

foul-up (noun)

An embarrassing mistake.

- He looked up "foul-up" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "foul-up" to mean an embarrassing mistake.

---

hostile fire (noun)

Fire that injures or kills an enemy.

- Understanding "hostile fire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hostile fire" because he had never seen it before.

---

intensive care (noun)

Close monitoring and constant medical care of patients with life-threatening conditions.

- Understanding "intensive care" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "intensive care" because he had never seen it before.

---

joseph oliver (noun)

United States jazz musician who influenced the style of Louis Armstrong (1885-1938).

- In class, the teacher used "joseph oliver" to mean united states jazz musician who influenced the....
- They discussed "joseph oliver" during the group presentation.

---

learned profession (noun)

One of the three professions traditionally believed to require advanced learning and high principles.

- They discussed "learned profession" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "learned profession."

---

martial music (noun)

Brisk marching music suitable for troops marching in a military parade.

- The article explained what "martial music" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "martial music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

measurement (noun)

The act or process of assigning numbers to phenomena according to a rule.

- The measurements were carefully done.
- Understanding "measurement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

measurements (noun)

The act or process of assigning numbers to phenomena according to a rule.

- The measurements were carefully done.
- The article explained what "measurements" means with a simple example.

---

meter reading (noun)

The act of measuring with meters or similar instruments.

- He has a job meter reading for the gas company.
- He could not believe the meter reading.

---

pass receiver (noun)

A football player who catches (or is supposed to catch) a forward pass.

- He looked up "pass receiver" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pass receiver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

physical restoration (noun)

Providing help for disabled persons; the removal or reduction of disabilities.

- The article explained what "physical restoration" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "physical restoration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

race riot (noun)

A riot caused by hatred for one another of members of different races in the same community.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "race riot."
- They discussed "race riot" during the group presentation.

---

raises (noun)

The act of raising something.

- Fireman learn several different raises for getting ladders up.
- They discussed "raises" during the group presentation.

---

rhythm (noun)

The basic rhythmic unit in a piece of music.

- The piece has a fast rhythm.
- The rhythm of Frost's poetry.

---

skin-dive (verb)

Swim underwater with no breathing apparatus other than a snorkel.

- Learners should practice how to use "skin-dive" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "skin-dive" when talking about this idea.

---

skull practice (noun)

Teaching strategy to an athletic team.

- Understanding "skull practice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "skull practice" to mean teaching strategy to an athletic team.

---

spread eagle (noun)

A skating figure executed with the skates heel to heel in a straight line.

- They discussed "spread eagle" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "spread eagle" because he had never seen it before.

---

stamp collection (noun)

The collection and study of postage stamps.

- They discussed "stamp collection" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stamp collection."

---

stan the man (noun)

United States baseball player (born in 1920).

- They discussed "stan the man" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stan the man."

---

tank farming (noun)

A technique of growing plants (without soil) in water containing dissolved nutrients.

- Understanding "tank farming" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tank farming" during the group presentation.

---

technical analysis of stock trends (noun)

(stock exchange) analysis of past price changes in the hope of forecasting future price changes.

- He looked up "technical analysis of stock trends" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "technical analysis of stock trends" to mean (stock exchange) analysis of past price changes in....

---

travels (noun)

The act of going from one place to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "travels."
- They discussed "travels" during the group presentation.

---

vice-presidency (noun)

The office and function of a vice president.

- He looked up "vice-presidency" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "vice-presidency" during the group presentation.

---

warfare (noun)

The waging of armed conflict against an enemy.

- Diplomatic warfare.
- In class, the teacher used "warfare" to mean the waging of armed conflict against an enemy.

---

window-washing (noun)

The activity of washing windows.

- He looked up "window-washing" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "window-washing" to mean the activity of washing windows.

---

withdrawal (noun)

The act of withdrawing blood, tumors, etc.

- The nurse was expert at the withdrawal of blood.
- The withdrawal of French troops from Vietnam.

---

auction pitch (noun)

An all-fours game in which the first card led is a trump.

- The article explained what "auction pitch" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "auction pitch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

audit (noun)

A methodical examination or review of a condition or situation.

- He made an audit of all the plants on his property.
- An energy efficiency audit.

---

auto-suggestion (noun)

A system for self-improvement developed by Emile Coue which was popular in the 1920s and 1930s.

- He looked up "auto-suggestion" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "auto-suggestion" to mean a system for self-improvement developed by emile....

---

belly dance (noun)

A Middle Eastern dance in which the dancer makes sensuous movements of the hips and abdomen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "belly dance."
- He looked up "belly dance" because he had never seen it before.

---

blows (noun)

A powerful stroke with the fist or a weapon.

- They discussed "blows" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "blows" because he had never seen it before.

---

bolt (noun)

The act of moving with great haste.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bolt."
- He looked up "bolt" because he had never seen it before.

---

brass family (noun)

(music) the family of brass instruments.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brass family."
- He looked up "brass family" because he had never seen it before.

bust (noun)

An occasion for excessive eating or drinking.

- They went on a bust that lasted three days.
- Understanding "bust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

carl lewis (noun)

United States athlete who won gold medals at the Olympics for his skill in sprinting and jumping (born in 1961).

- Understanding "carl lewis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "carl lewis" means with a simple example.

clearing (noun)

The act of removing solid particles from a liquid.

- The article explained what "clearing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clearing."

collar (noun)

The act of apprehending (especially apprehending a criminal).

- The policeman on the beat got credit for the collar.
- The thief was forced to wear a heavy wooden collar.

comply (verb)

Act in accordance with someone's rules, commands, or wishes.

- You must comply or else!
- Learners should practice how to use "comply" in real sentences.

court-martial (noun)

A trial that is conducted by a military court.

- He looked up "court-martial" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "court-martial."

dog breeding (noun)

Breeding dogs.

- Understanding "dog breeding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dog breeding" means with a simple example.

drawings (noun)

The creation of artistic pictures or diagrams.

- Drawings of abstract forms.
- He did complicated pen-and-ink drawings like medieval miniatures.

elder hand (noun)

The card player on the dealer's left.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elder hand."
- The article explained what "elder hand" means with a simple example.

employee-owned enterprise (noun)

A commercial enterprise owned by the people who work for it.

- The article explained what "employee-owned enterprise" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "employee-owned enterprise" to mean a commercial enterprise owned by the people who....

face lifting (noun)

A renovation that improves the outward appearance (as of a building) but usually does not involve major changes.

- Give your home a facelift.
- More than a facelift, the new model marks a fundamental change of direction.

folk dancing (noun)

A style of dancing that originated among ordinary people (not in the royal courts).

- Understanding "folk dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "folk dancing" because he had never seen it before.

---

foul play (noun)

Unfair or dishonest behavior (especially involving violence).

- Understanding "foul play" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "foul play" means with a simple example.

---

gospel singing (noun)

Folk music consisting of a genre of a cappella music originating with Black slaves in the United States and featuring call and response; influential on the development of other genres of popular music (especially soul).

- They discussed "gospel singing" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gospel singing" to mean folk music consisting of a genre of a cappella....

---

harper (noun)

Someone who plays the harp.

- In class, the teacher used "harper" to mean someone who plays the harp.
- He looked up "harper" because he had never seen it before.

---

immune reaction (noun)

A bodily defense reaction that recognizes an invading substance (an antigen: such as a virus or fungus or bacteria or transplanted organ) and produces antibodies specific against that antigen.

- In class, the teacher used "immune reaction" to mean a bodily defense reaction that recognizes an....
- The article explained what "immune reaction" means with a simple example.

---

lineup (noun)

(baseball) a list of batters in the order in which they will bat.

- They discussed "lineup" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lineup" to mean (baseball) a list of batters in the order in which....

---

phase iii clinical trial (noun)

A large clinical trial of a treatment or drug that in phase I and phase II has been shown to be efficacious with tolerable side effects; after successful conclusion of these clinical trials it will receive formal approval from the FDA.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phase iii clinical trial."
- Understanding "phase iii clinical trial" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

recreation (noun)

An activity that diverts or amuses or stimulates.

- For recreation he wrote poetry and solved crossword puzzles.
- Drug abuse is often regarded as a form of recreation.

---

special weapons and tactics team (noun)

A squad of policemen who have been trained to deal with violent and dangerous situations.

- They discussed "special weapons and tactics team" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "special weapons and tactics team" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spray painting (noun)

Applying paint with a sprayer.

- The article explained what "spray painting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spray painting" to mean applying paint with a sprayer.

---

strings (noun)

The section of an orchestra that plays stringed instruments.

- The strings played superlatively well.
- He looked up "strings" because he had never seen it before.

---

survivors insurance (noun)

Insurance paid to surviving spouses.

- They discussed "survivors insurance" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "survivors insurance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

swimming stroke (noun)

A method of moving the arms and legs to push against the water and propel the swimmer forward.

- They discussed "swimming stroke" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "swimming stroke" because he had never seen it before.

---

trades (noun)

A particular instance of buying or selling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trades."
- He looked up "trades" because he had never seen it before.

---

assists (noun)

The activity of contributing to the fulfillment of a need or furtherance of an effort or purpose.

- He looked up "assists" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assists."

---

breach of duty (noun)

A breach of due care.

- In class, the teacher used "breach of duty" to mean a breach of due care.
- The article explained what "breach of duty" means with a simple example.

---

breach of promise (noun)

Failure to keep a promise (of marriage).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breach of promise."
- The article explained what "breach of promise" means with a simple example.

---

championships (noun)

The act of providing approval and support.

- In class, the teacher used "championships" to mean the act of providing approval and support.
- They discussed "championships" during the group presentation.

---

chapel (noun)

A service conducted in a place of worship that has its own altar.

- He was late for chapel.
- The article explained what "chapel" means with a simple example.

---

class warfare (noun)

Conflict between social or economic classes (especially between the capitalist and proletariat classes).

- Understanding "class warfare" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "class warfare" to mean conflict between social or economic classes....

---

dutch auction (noun)

A method of selling in which the price is reduced until a buyer is found.

- The article explained what "dutch auction" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dutch auction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

figured bass (noun)

A bass part written out in full and accompanied by numbers to indicate the chords to be played.

- They discussed "figured bass" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "figured bass."

---

harvest time (noun)

The season for gathering crops.

- He looked up "harvest time" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harvest time."

henry louis aaron (noun)

United States professional baseball player who hit more home runs than Babe Ruth (born in 1934).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henry louis aaron."
- They discussed "henry louis aaron" during the group presentation.

impacts (noun)

The violent interaction of individuals or groups entering into combat.

- The article explained what "impacts" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "impacts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

information warfare (noun)

The use of information or information technology during a time of crisis or conflict to achieve or promote specific objectives over a specific adversary or adversaries.

- Not everyone agrees that information warfare is limited to the realm of traditional warfare.
- He looked up "information warfare" because he had never seen it before.

instrument landing (noun)

An aircraft landing made entirely by means of instruments.

- In class, the teacher used "instrument landing" to mean an aircraft landing made entirely by means of....
- They discussed "instrument landing" during the group presentation.

knight of the square flag (noun)

A knight honored for valor; entitled to display a square banner and to hold higher command.

- He looked up "knight of the square flag" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "knight of the square flag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

martial art (noun)

Any of several Oriental arts of weaponless self-defense; usually practiced as a sport.

- He had a black belt in the martial arts.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "martial art."

mechanisms (noun)

The technical aspects of doing something.

- Mechanisms of communication.
- He determined unique mechanisms for the photochemical reactions.

navigation (noun)

The guidance of ships or airplanes from place to place.

- The channel will be open to navigation as soon as the ice melts.
- He looked up "navigation" because he had never seen it before.

orientation course (noun)

A course introducing a new situation or environment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orientation course."
- He looked up "orientation course" because he had never seen it before.

surgical process (noun)

A medical procedure involving an incision with instruments; performed to repair damage or arrest disease in a living body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surgical process."
- The article explained what "surgical process" means with a simple example.

arthur mitchell (noun)

United States dancer who formed the first Black classical ballet company (born in 1934).

- Understanding "arthur mitchell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "arthur mitchell" because he had never seen it before.

artistic creation (noun)

The creation of beautiful or significant things.

- In class, the teacher used "artistic creation" to mean the creation of beautiful or significant things.
- He looked up "artistic creation" because he had never seen it before.

---

associations (noun)

The act of consorting with or joining with others.

- Many close associations with England.
- In class, the teacher used "associations" to mean the act of consorting with or joining with others.

---

bank withdrawal (noun)

The withdrawal of money from your account at a bank.

- They discussed "bank withdrawal" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bank withdrawal" to mean the withdrawal of money from your account at a bank.

---

bounce out (verb)

Bounce a ball so that it becomes an out.

- The coach explained when to use "bounce out" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "bounce out" in real sentences.

---

bowling league (noun)

A league of bowling teams.

- The article explained what "bowling league" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bowling league" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brain drain (noun)

Depletion or loss of intellectual and technical personnel.

- Understanding "brain drain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "brain drain" during the group presentation.

---

bullets (noun)

(baseball) a pitch thrown with maximum velocity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bullets."
- He looked up "bullets" because he had never seen it before.

---

carol (noun)

A joyful song (usually celebrating the birth of Christ).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carol."
- They discussed "carol" during the group presentation.

---

chapel service (noun)

A service conducted in a place of worship that has its own altar.

- He was late for chapel.
- Understanding "chapel service" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

duncan (noun)

United States dancer and pioneer of modern dance (1878-1927).

- The article explained what "duncan" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "duncan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electronic surveillance (noun)

Surveillance by electronic means (e.g. television).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electronic surveillance."
- They discussed "electronic surveillance" during the group presentation.

---

foul shot (noun)

An unhindered basketball shot from the foul line; given to penalize the other team for committing a foul.

- He looked up "foul shot" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "foul shot" during the group presentation.

---

harvest home (noun)

The gathering of a ripened crop.

- He looked up "harvest home" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "harvest home" to mean the gathering of a ripened crop.

---

identity theft (noun)

The co-option of another person's personal information (e.g., name, Social Security number, credit card number, passport) without that person's knowledge and the fraudulent use of such knowledge.

- They discussed "identity theft" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "identity theft" means with a simple example.

---

initiatives (noun)

The first of a series of actions.

- They discussed "initiatives" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "initiatives" to mean the first of a series of actions.

---

innings (noun)

The batting turn of a cricket player or team.

- Understanding "innings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "innings" means with a simple example.

---

isolation (noun)

A country's withdrawal from international politics.

- He opposed a policy of American isolation.
- In class, the teacher used "isolation" to mean a country's withdrawal from international politics.

---

matrix addition (noun)

The addition of matrices.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matrix addition."
- The article explained what "matrix addition" means with a simple example.

---

ordering (noun)

The act of putting things in a sequential arrangement.

- There were mistakes in the ordering of items on the list.
- In class, the teacher used "ordering" to mean the act of putting things in a sequential arrangement.

---

personal foul (noun)

A foul that involves unnecessarily rough contact (as in basketball or football).

- In class, the teacher used "personal foul" to mean a foul that involves unnecessarily rough contact....
- They discussed "personal foul" during the group presentation.

---

reed section (noun)

The section of a band or orchestra that plays reed instruments.

- They discussed "reed section" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "reed section" means with a simple example.

---

starter (noun)

A culture containing yeast or bacteria that is used to start the process of fermentation or souring in making butter or cheese or dough.

- To make sourdough you need a starter.
- They discussed "starter" during the group presentation.

---

strip-jack-naked (noun)

A card game for two players in which the object is to win all of the other player's cards.

- He looked up "strip-jack-naked" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "strip-jack-naked" during the group presentation.

summary judgment (noun)

A judgment rendered by the court prior to a verdict because no material issue of fact exists and one party or the other is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.

- Understanding "summary judgment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "summary judgment."

transfers (noun)

The act of transfering something from one form to another.

- In class, the teacher used "transfers" to mean the act of transfering something from one form to....
- The article explained what "transfers" means with a simple example.

underground railroad (noun)

Secret aid to escaping slaves that was provided by abolitionists in the years before the American Civil War.

- They discussed "underground railroad" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "underground railroad" means with a simple example.

vertical combination (noun)

Absorption into a single firm of several firms involved in all aspects of a product's manufacture from raw materials to distribution.

- The article explained what "vertical combination" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vertical combination" to mean absorption into a single firm of several firms....

workout (noun)

The activity of exerting your muscles in various ways to keep fit.

- The article explained what "workout" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "workout" during the group presentation.

bowling ball (noun)

A large ball with finger holes used in the sport of bowling.

- The article explained what "bowling ball" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bowling ball."

breast feeding (noun)

Nourishing at the breast.

- The article explained what "breast feeding" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "breast feeding" during the group presentation.

contractors (noun)

The bridge player in contract bridge who wins the bidding and can declare which suit is to be trumps.

- Understanding "contractors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "contractors" during the group presentation.

electrical healing (noun)

The therapeutic application of electricity to the body (as in the treatment of various forms of paralysis).

- Understanding "electrical healing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "electrical healing" means with a simple example.

foul ball (noun)

(baseball) a ball struck with the bat so that it does not stay between the lines (the foul lines) that define the width of the playing field.

- They discussed "foul ball" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "foul ball" because he had never seen it before.

general verdict (noun)

An ordinary verdict declaring which party prevails without any special findings of fact.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general verdict."
- They discussed "general verdict" during the group presentation.

hats (noun)

An informal term for a person's role.

- In class, the teacher used "hats" to mean an informal term for a person's role.
- He looked up "hats" because he had never seen it before.

---

heavy lifting (noun)

Difficult work.

- The boss hoped the plan would succeed but he wasn't willing to do the heavy lifting.
- Understanding "heavy lifting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mathematical process (noun)

(mathematics) calculation by mathematical methods.

- The problems at the end of the chapter demonstrated the mathematical processes involved in the derivation.
- They discussed "mathematical process" during the group presentation.

---

matrix operation (noun)

A mathematical operation involving matrices.

- Understanding "matrix operation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "matrix operation" to mean a mathematical operation involving matrices.

---

musical genre (noun)

An expressive style of music.

- The article explained what "musical genre" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "musical genre" to mean an expressive style of music.

---

musical perception (noun)

The auditory perception of musical sounds.

- The article explained what "musical perception" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "musical perception" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

musician (noun)

Artist who composes or conducts music as a profession.

- They discussed "musician" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "musician" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pulls (noun)

The act of pulling; applying force to move something toward or with you.

- Understanding "pulls" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pulls" to mean the act of pulling; applying force to move....

---

qualifying (noun)

Success in satisfying a test or requirement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "qualifying."
- Understanding "qualifying" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

riot control operation (noun)

The measures taken to control a riot.

- In class, the teacher used "riot control operation" to mean the measures taken to control a riot.
- The article explained what "riot control operation" means with a simple example.

---

shifts (noun)

The act of moving from one place to another.

- The article explained what "shifts" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shifts."

---

special verdict (noun)

A verdict rendered on certain specific factual issues posed by the court without finding for one party or the other.

- He looked up "special verdict" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used “special verdict” to mean a verdict rendered on certain specific factual....

---

tennis stroke (noun)

The act of hitting a tennis ball with a tennis racket.

- The article explained what “tennis stroke” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “tennis stroke” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

toe dance (noun)

A dance performed on tiptoe.

- The article explained what “toe dance” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “toe dance.”

---

whip (noun)

A quick blow delivered with a whip or whiplike object.

- The whip raised a red welt.
- Understanding “whip” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wipe (noun)

The act of rubbing or wiping.

- They discussed “wipe” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “wipe” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bear hug (noun)

A wrestling hold with arms locked tightly around the opponent.

- He looked up “bear hug” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “bear hug” during the group presentation.

---

brass band (noun)

A group of musicians playing only brass and percussion instruments.

- He looked up “brass band” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “brass band” during the group presentation.

---

brass section (noun)

The section of a band or orchestra that plays brass instruments.

- Understanding “brass section” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “brass section” means with a simple example.

---

camping (noun)

The act of encamping and living in tents in a camp.

- The article explained what “camping” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “camping” during the group presentation.

---

cannon fire (noun)

Fire delivered by artillery.

- They discussed “cannon fire” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “cannon fire” because he had never seen it before.

---

chin-up (noun)

An arm exercise performed by pulling yourself up on a horizontal bar until your chin is level with the bar.

- Understanding “chin-up” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “chin-up” during the group presentation.

---

conclusions (noun)

The act of making up your mind about something.

- He drew his conclusions quickly.
- In class, the teacher used “conclusions” to mean the act of making up your mind about something.

---

coup (noun)

A sudden and decisive change of government illegally or by force.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coup."
- They discussed "coup" during the group presentation.

---

dash (noun)

A footrace run at top speed.

- He is preparing for the 100-yard dash.
- He wooed her with the confident dash of a cavalry officer.

---

dirty tricks (noun)

Underhand commercial or political behavior designed to discredit an opponent.

- Understanding "dirty tricks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dirty tricks" because he had never seen it before.

---

don juan (noun)

A legendary Spanish nobleman and philanderer who became the hero of many poems and plays and operas.

- The article explained what "don juan" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "don juan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

duck hunting (noun)

Hunting ducks.

- Understanding "duck hunting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "duck hunting" to mean hunting ducks.

---

financial audit (noun)

An attestation that the client's financial statement is accurate.

- In class, the teacher used "financial audit" to mean an attestation that the client's financial....
- Understanding "financial audit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

horse breeding (noun)

Breeding horses.

- They discussed "horse breeding" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse breeding."

---

matched game (noun)

An international championship match.

- He looked up "matched game" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matched game."

---

minus (noun)

An arithmetic operation in which the difference between two numbers is calculated.

- Four minus three equals one.
- He looked up "minus" because he had never seen it before.

---

racial discrimination (noun)

Discriminatory or abusive behavior towards members of another race.

- They discussed "racial discrimination" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "racial discrimination" to mean discriminatory or abusive behavior towards members....

---

recruitment (noun)

The act of getting recruits; enlisting people for the army (or for a job or a cause etc.).

- Understanding "recruitment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "recruitment" during the group presentation.

---

rhythm section (noun)

The section of a band or orchestra that plays percussion instruments.

- They discussed "rhythm section" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rhythm section" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

secret ballot (noun)

A vote in which each person's choice is secret but the totaled votes are public.

- Understanding "secret ballot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secret ballot."

---

semester hour (noun)

A unit of academic credit; one hour a week for an academic semester.

- In class, the teacher used "semester hour" to mean a unit of academic credit; one hour a week for an....
- Understanding "semester hour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

surgical operation (noun)

A medical procedure involving an incision with instruments; performed to repair damage or arrest disease in a living body.

- They will schedule the operation as soon as an operating room is available.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surgical operation."

---

surveys (noun)

The act of looking or seeing or observing.

- The article explained what "surveys" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "surveys" to mean the act of looking or seeing or observing.

---

symbol-worship (noun)

The worship of symbols.

- They discussed "symbol-worship" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "symbol-worship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

treasure hunt (noun)

A game in which players try to find hidden articles by using a series of clues.

- He looked up "treasure hunt" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "treasure hunt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

war of nerves (noun)

The use of psychological tactics to destroy the opponents' morale.

- In class, the teacher used "war of nerves" to mean the use of psychological tactics to destroy the....
- The article explained what "war of nerves" means with a simple example.

---

assisted suicide (noun)

Suicide of a terminally ill person that involves an assistant who serves to make dying as painless and dignified as possible.

- In class, the teacher used "assisted suicide" to mean suicide of a terminally ill person that involves an....
- They discussed "assisted suicide" during the group presentation.

---

burning at the stake (noun)

Execution by fire.

- The article explained what "burning at the stake" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "burning at the stake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

change of magnitude (noun)

The act of changing the amount or size of something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "change of magnitude."
- They discussed "change of magnitude" during the group presentation.

---

chin music (noun)

Idle or foolish and irrelevant talk.

- They discussed "chin music" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chin music" means with a simple example.

dancer (noun)

A person who participates in a social gathering arranged for dancing (as a ball).

- The article explained what "dancer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dancer" to mean a person who participates in a social gathering....

devil-worship (noun)

The acts or rites of worshiping devils.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "devil-worship."
- The article explained what "devil-worship" means with a simple example.

digging (noun)

The act of digging.

- The article explained what "digging" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "digging" to mean the act of digging.

digging up (noun)

The act of digging something out of the ground (especially a corpse) where it has been buried.

- In class, the teacher used "digging up" to mean the act of digging something out of the ground....
- Understanding "digging up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

drug withdrawal (noun)

The termination of drug taking.

- The article explained what "drug withdrawal" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "drug withdrawal" during the group presentation.

feat (noun)

A notable achievement.

- He performed a great feat.
- Understanding "feat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

founding (noun)

The act of starting something for the first time; introducing something new.

- In class, the teacher used "founding" to mean the act of starting something for the first time;....
- They discussed "founding" during the group presentation.

g-jo (noun)

Treatment of symptoms by applying pressure with the fingers to specific pressure points on the body.

- They discussed "g-jo" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "g-jo" means with a simple example.

heart massage (noun)

An emergency procedure that employs rhythmic compression of the heart (either through the chest wall or, during surgery, directly to the heart) in an attempt to maintain circulation during cardiac arrest.

- They discussed "heart massage" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "heart massage" because he had never seen it before.

hunger strike (noun)

A voluntary fast undertaken as a means of protest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hunger strike."
- They discussed "hunger strike" during the group presentation.

inflation therapy (noun)

Therapy in which water or oxygen or a drug is introduced into the respiratory tract with inhaled air.

- The article explained what "inflation therapy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "inflation therapy" to mean therapy in which water or oxygen or a drug is....

injection (noun)

The act of putting a liquid into the body by means of a syringe.

- The article explained what "injection" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "injection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

instrumental (adjective)

Relating to or designed for or performed on musical instruments.

- Instrumental compositions.
- An instrumental ensemble.

interference (noun)

The act of hindering or obstructing or impeding.

- He ran interference for the quarterback.
- Understanding "interference" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

invasion of privacy (noun)

The wrongful intrusion by individuals or the government into private affairs with which the public has no concern.

- In class, the teacher used "invasion of privacy" to mean the wrongful intrusion by individuals or the....
- The article explained what "invasion of privacy" means with a simple example.

launching (noun)

The act of beginning something new.

- They discussed "launching" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "launching" to mean the act of beginning something new.

light adaptation (noun)

The process of adjusting the eyes to relatively high levels of illumination; the pupil constricts and the cones system is operative.

- The article explained what "light adaptation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "light adaptation" to mean the process of adjusting the eyes to relatively....

loop-the-loop (noun)

A flight maneuver; aircraft flies a complete circle in the vertical plane.

- They discussed "loop-the-loop" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "loop-the-loop" means with a simple example.

mathematical operation (noun)

(mathematics) calculation by mathematical methods.

- The problems at the end of the chapter demonstrated the mathematical processes involved in the derivation.
- They were learning the basic operations of arithmetic.

morris dancing (noun)

Any of various English folk dances performed by dancers in costume.

- Understanding "morris dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "morris dancing" because he had never seen it before.

neil simon (noun)

United States playwright noted for light comedies (born in 1927).

- He looked up "neil simon" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "neil simon" during the group presentation.

rehabilitation (noun)

The restoration of someone to a useful place in society.

- They discussed "rehabilitation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rehabilitation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rocket firing (noun)

The launching of a rocket or missile under its own power.

- They discussed "rocket firing" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rocket firing."

---

sailing (noun)

The activity of flying a glider.

- They discussed "sailing" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sailing" to mean the activity of flying a glider.

---

self-preservation (noun)

Preservation of yourself from harm; a natural or instinctive tendency.

- The article explained what "self-preservation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "self-preservation" during the group presentation.

---

solving (noun)

Finding a solution to a problem.

- Understanding "solving" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "solving" to mean finding a solution to a problem.

---

spark (noun)

A small but noticeable trace of some quality that might become stronger.

- A spark of interest.
- A spark of decency.

---

threatened abortion (noun)

The appearance of symptoms that signal the impending loss of the products of conception.

- He looked up "threatened abortion" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "threatened abortion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

violations (noun)

An act that disregards an agreement or a right.

- He looked up "violations" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "violations" during the group presentation.

---

war of the roses (noun)

Struggle for the English throne (1455-1485) between the house of York (white rose) and the house of Lancaster (red rose) ending with the accession of the Tudor monarch Henry VII.

- He looked up "war of the roses" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "war of the roses" during the group presentation.

---

athletic contest (noun)

A contest between athletes.

- Understanding "athletic contest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "athletic contest."

---

bean (verb)

Hit on the head, especially with a pitched baseball.

- The coach explained when to use "bean" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "bean" until he saw an example.

---

bowling score (noun)

The score in a bowling match.

- In class, the teacher used "bowling score" to mean the score in a bowling match.
- The article explained what "bowling score" means with a simple example.

---

bubble bath (noun)

A bath in which you add something to foam and scent the bath water.

- They discussed "bubble bath" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bubble bath" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cannon ball (noun)

A solid projectile that in former times was fired from a cannon.

- In class, the teacher used "cannon ball" to mean a solid projectile that in former times was fired....
- Understanding "cannon ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

child's game (noun)

A game enjoyed by children.

- Understanding "child's game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "child's game" during the group presentation.

child's play (noun)

Activity by children that is guided more by imagination than by fixed rules.

- Freud believed in the utility of play to a small child.
- In class, the teacher used "child's play" to mean activity by children that is guided more by....

costume designer (noun)

Someone who designs or supplies costumes (as for a play or masquerade).

- They discussed "costume designer" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "costume designer."

crash dive (noun)

A rapid descent by a submarine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crash dive."
- He looked up "crash dive" because he had never seen it before.

criminal prosecution (noun)

The institution and conduct of legal proceedings against a defendant for criminal behavior.

- Understanding "criminal prosecution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "criminal prosecution" to mean the institution and conduct of legal proceedings....

default judgment (noun)

A judgment entered in favor of the plaintiff when the defendant defaults (fails to appear in court).

- The article explained what "default judgment" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "default judgment" during the group presentation.

den mother (noun)

Someone who plays the role of a den mother.

- He serves as den mother to all the freshmen in this dormitory.
- She's the den mother to new secretaries.

divine guidance (noun)

(theology) a special influence of a divinity on the minds of human beings.

- They believe that the books of Scripture were written under divine guidance.
- The article explained what "divine guidance" means with a simple example.

drug bust (noun)

Seizure of illegal drugs by the police.

- In class, the teacher used "drug bust" to mean seizure of illegal drugs by the police.
- He looked up "drug bust" because he had never seen it before.

gym rat (noun)

Someone who spends all leisure time playing sports or working out in a gymnasium or health spa.

- Understanding "gym rat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gym rat" during the group presentation.

indirect fire (noun)

Fire delivered on a target that is not itself used as the point of aim for the weapons.

- Understanding "indirect fire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "indirect fire" because he had never seen it before.

---

instrumental music (noun)

Music produced by playing a musical instrument.

- They discussed "instrumental music" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "instrumental music" means with a simple example.

---

judgment by default (noun)

A judgment entered in favor of the plaintiff when the defendant defaults (fails to appear in court).

- Understanding "judgment by default" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "judgment by default."

---

last straw (noun)

The final irritation that stretches your patience beyond the limit.

- The article explained what "last straw" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "last straw" to mean the final irritation that stretches your patience....

---

manufacture (noun)

The act of making something (a product) from raw materials.

- An improvement in the manufacture of explosives.
- The article explained what "manufacture" means with a simple example.

---

mental measurement (noun)

A generic term used to cover any application of measurement techniques to the quantification of mental functions.

- The article explained what "mental measurement" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mental measurement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

portions (noun)

The allotment of some amount by dividing something.

- In class, the teacher used "portions" to mean the allotment of some amount by dividing something.
- The article explained what "portions" means with a simple example.

---

rhythm method (noun)

Natural family planning in which ovulation is assumed to occur 14 days before the onset of a period (the fertile period would be assumed to extend from day 10 through day 18 of her cycle).

- The article explained what "rhythm method" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rhythm method" to mean natural family planning in which ovulation is....

---

run-resistant (adjective)

(of hosiery) resistant to runs or (in Britain) ladders.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "run-resistant."
- Students compared "run-resistant" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

sequel (noun)

A part added to a book or play that continues and extends it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sequel."
- He looked up "sequel" because he had never seen it before.

---

shifting (noun)

The act of moving from one place to another.

- His constant shifting disrupted the class.
- Understanding "shifting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shining (noun)

The work of making something smooth and shiny by rubbing or waxing it.

- The shining of shoes provided a meager living.

- Understanding “shining” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spinning (noun)

Creating thread.

- In class, the teacher used “spinning” to mean creating thread.
- Understanding “spinning” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

suicide bombing (noun)

A terrorist bombing carried out by someone who does not hope to survive it.

- Understanding “suicide bombing” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “suicide bombing” means with a simple example.

teammates (noun)

A fellow member of a team.

- It was his first start against his former teammates.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “teammates.”

withdrawal method (noun)

A method of birth control in which coitus is initiated but the penis is deliberately withdrawn before ejaculation.

- In class, the teacher used “withdrawal method” to mean a method of birth control in which coitus is....
- He looked up “withdrawal method” because he had never seen it before.

air-freight (verb)

Transport (cargo) by air.

- She tried to use “air-freight” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use “air-freight” in a sentence that fits this situation?

auto mechanics (noun)

The craft of building and repairing automobiles.

- Understanding “auto mechanics” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “auto mechanics” during the group presentation.

bachelor (noun)

A knight of the lowest order; could display only a pennon.

- He looked up “bachelor” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “bachelor” to mean a knight of the lowest order; could display only a....

biological terrorism (noun)

Terrorism using the weapons of biological warfare.

- In class, the teacher used “biological terrorism” to mean terrorism using the weapons of biological warfare.
- The article explained what “biological terrorism” means with a simple example.

bulls (noun)

A serious and ludicrous blunder.

- I put up with a lot of bullshit from that jerk.
- In class, the teacher used “bulls” to mean a serious and ludicrous blunder.

bullying (noun)

The act of intimidating a weaker person to make them do something.

- In class, the teacher used “bullying” to mean the act of intimidating a weaker person to make....
- Understanding “bullying” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

certification (noun)

The act of certifying or bestowing a franchise on.

- In class, the teacher used “certification” to mean the act of certifying or bestowing a franchise on.
- Understanding “certification” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

clear sailing (noun)

Easy unobstructed progress.

- After we solved that problem the rest was plain sailing.
- He looked up "clear sailing" because he had never seen it before.

---

concerts (noun)

A performance of music by players or singers not involving theatrical staging.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "concerts."
- He looked up "concerts" because he had never seen it before.

---

cottage industry (noun)

Small-scale industry that can be carried on at home by family members using their own equipment.

- They discussed "cottage industry" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cottage industry" to mean small-scale industry that can be carried on at home....

---

dark adaptation (noun)

The process of adjusting the eyes to low levels of illumination; cones adapt first; rods continue to adapt for up to four hours.

- They discussed "dark adaptation" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dark adaptation" because he had never seen it before.

---

deer hunt (noun)

Hunting deer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deer hunt."
- He looked up "deer hunt" because he had never seen it before.

---

deficit spending (noun)

Spending money raised by borrowing; used by governments to stimulate their economy.

- Understanding "deficit spending" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deficit spending."

---

drugs bust (noun)

Seizure of illegal drugs by the police.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drugs bust."
- The article explained what "drugs bust" means with a simple example.

---

extra innings (noun)

Overtime play until one team is ahead at the end of an inning; e.g. baseball.

- In class, the teacher used "extra innings" to mean overtime play until one team is ahead at the end of....
- They discussed "extra innings" during the group presentation.

---

flooding (noun)

A technique used in behavior therapy; client is flooded with experiences of a particular kind until becoming either averse to them or numbed to them.

- He looked up "flooding" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flooding."

---

handy (noun)

United States blues musician who transcribed and published traditional blues music (1873-1958).

- He looked up "handy" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "handy" to mean united states blues musician who transcribed and....

---

jump rope (noun)

A child's game or a cardiopulmonary exercise in which the player jumps over a swinging rope.

- Understanding "jump rope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "jump rope" because he had never seen it before.

---

kissing (noun)

Affectionate play (or foreplay without contact with the genital organs).

- He looked up "kissing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kissing."

---

lucky dip (noun)

A selection or decision purely at random.

- Their system of hiring people seemed to be a sort of lucky dip.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lucky dip."

---

nail pulling (noun)

A form of torture in which the fingernails or toenails are removed.

- The article explained what "nail pulling" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "nail pulling" during the group presentation.

---

nail removal (noun)

A form of torture in which the fingernails or toenails are removed.

- He looked up "nail removal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nail removal."

---

nose dive (noun)

A steep nose-down descent by an aircraft.

- They discussed "nose dive" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "nose dive" to mean a steep nose-down descent by an aircraft.

---

pace lap (noun)

The first lap of a car race that prepares the cars for a fast start.

- Understanding "pace lap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pace lap" means with a simple example.

---

ritual dance (noun)

A dance that is part of a religious ritual.

- Understanding "ritual dance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ritual dance."

---

robbery (noun)

Larceny by threat of violence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robbery."
- The article explained what "robbery" means with a simple example.

---

rub (noun)

The act of rubbing or wiping.

- He gave the hood a quick rub.
- They discussed "rub" during the group presentation.

---

rub up (noun)

A review that refreshes your memory.

- I need a rub up on my Latin.
- Understanding "rub up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sally (noun)

A venture off the beaten path.

- A sally into the wide world beyond his home.
- The article explained what "sally" means with a simple example.

---

self-denial (noun)

The act of denying yourself; controlling your impulses.

- In class, the teacher used "self-denial" to mean the act of denying yourself; controlling your impulses.
- He looked up "self-denial" because he had never seen it before.

shell collecting (noun)

The collection and study of mollusc shells.

- Understanding "shell collecting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "shell collecting" means with a simple example.

skin diving (noun)

Underwater swimming without any more breathing equipment than a snorkel.

- In class, the teacher used "skin diving" to mean underwater swimming without any more breathing....
- Understanding "skin diving" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

slam dance (noun)

A form of dancing in which dancers slam into one another; normally performed to punk rock.

- Understanding "slam dance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "slam dance" means with a simple example.

social dancer (noun)

A person who participates in a social gathering arranged for dancing (as a ball).

- He looked up "social dancer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "social dancer."

technical foul (noun)

(basketball) a foul that can be assessed on a player or a coach or a team for unsportsmanlike conduct; does not usually involve physical contact during play.

- They discussed "technical foul" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "technical foul."

unemployment compensation (noun)

Payment by a United States agency to unemployed people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "unemployment compensation."
- He looked up "unemployment compensation" because he had never seen it before.

white man's burden (noun)

The supposed responsibility of the white race to provide care for their non-white subjects.

- The article explained what "white man's burden" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "white man's burden" to mean the supposed responsibility of the white race to....

wholesale (noun)

The selling of goods to merchants; usually in large quantities for resale to consumers.

- He looked up "wholesale" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wholesale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bachelor of music (noun)

A bachelor's degree in music.

- He looked up "bachelor of music" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bachelor of music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

boarding (noun)

The act of passengers and crew getting aboard a ship or aircraft.

- He looked up "boarding" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boarding."

california personality inventory (noun)

A self-report personality inventory originally derived from the MMPI; consists of several hundred yes-no questions and yields scores on a number of scales including dominance and self acceptance and self control and socialization and achievement etc.

- He looked up "california personality inventory" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "california personality inventory."

clean and jerk (noun)

A weightlift in which the barbell is lifted to shoulder height and then jerked overhead.

- In class, the teacher used "clean and jerk" to mean a weightlift in which the barbell is lifted to....
- The article explained what "clean and jerk" means with a simple example.

---

dance orchestra (noun)

A group of musicians playing popular music for dancing.

- He looked up "dance orchestra" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dance orchestra."

---

dedication (noun)

The act of binding yourself (intellectually or emotionally) to a course of action.

- In class, the teacher used "dedication" to mean the act of binding yourself (intellectually or....
- The article explained what "dedication" means with a simple example.

---

drinking bout (noun)

A long period of drinking.

- Understanding "drinking bout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "drinking bout" means with a simple example.

---

fan tan (noun)

A Chinese gambling game; a random number of counters are placed under a bowl and you gamble on how many will be left (0, 1, 2, or 3 modulo 4).

- He looked up "fan tan" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fan tan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

glorious revolution (noun)

The revolution against James II; there was little armed resistance to William and Mary in England although battles were fought in Scotland and Ireland (1688-1689).

- They discussed "glorious revolution" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "glorious revolution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

golf widow (noun)

A wife who is left alone much of the time because her husband is playing golf.

- Understanding "golf widow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "golf widow" to mean a wife who is left alone much of the time because....

---

lap of honour (noun)

A lap by the winning person or team run to celebrate the victory.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lap of honour."
- Understanding "lap of honour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

meat packing (noun)

Wholesale packaging of meat for future sale (including slaughtering and processing and distribution to retailers).

- In class, the teacher used "meat packing" to mean wholesale packaging of meat for future sale....
- They discussed "meat packing" during the group presentation.

---

military expedition (noun)

A military campaign designed to achieve a specific objective in a foreign country.

- Understanding "military expedition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "military expedition" means with a simple example.

---

mine disposal (noun)

The disposal of explosive mines.

- In class, the teacher used "mine disposal" to mean the disposal of explosive mines.
- Understanding "mine disposal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mud bath (noun)

A bath in warm mud (as for treating rheumatism).

- They discussed "mud bath" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mud bath" to mean a bath in warm mud (as for treating rheumatism).

---

musical harmony (noun)

The structure of music with respect to the composition and progression of chords.

- In class, the teacher used "musical harmony" to mean the structure of music with respect to the....
- They discussed "musical harmony" during the group presentation.

---

passive air defense (noun)

Air defense by the use of deception or dispersion or protective construction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "passive air defense."
- He looked up "passive air defense" because he had never seen it before.

---

phase iv clinical trial (noun)

Sometimes the FDA approves a drug for general use but requires the manufacturer to continue to monitor its effects; during this phase the drug may be tried on slightly different patient populations than those studied in earlier trials.

- They discussed "phase iv clinical trial" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phase iv clinical trial."

---

poker game (noun)

Any of various card games in which players bet that they hold the highest-ranking hand.

- The article explained what "poker game" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poker game."

---

reconstruction (noun)

The activity of constructing something again.

- Understanding "reconstruction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "reconstruction" means with a simple example.

---

religious ritual (noun)

A ceremony having religious meaning.

- In class, the teacher used "religious ritual" to mean a ceremony having religious meaning.
- They discussed "religious ritual" during the group presentation.

---

ritual killing (noun)

The act of killing (an animal or person) in order to propitiate a deity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ritual killing."
- He looked up "ritual killing" because he had never seen it before.

---

rule of thumb (noun)

A rule or principle that provides guidance to appropriate behavior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rule of thumb."
- Understanding "rule of thumb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sailing-race (noun)

A race between crews of people in yachts.

- They discussed "sailing-race" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sailing-race."

---

scratch sheet (noun)

A racing publication giving information on horses and the outcomes of horse races.

- They discussed "scratch sheet" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "scratch sheet" to mean a racing publication giving information on horses....

---

shoots (noun)

The act of shooting at targets.

- In class, the teacher used "shoots" to mean the act of shooting at targets.
- He looked up "shoots" because he had never seen it before.

soft-shoe dancing (noun)

Tap dancing wearing shoes that have soft soles.

- Understanding "soft-shoe dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soft-shoe dancing."

steam fitting (noun)

Care (installation and maintenance) of equipment for ventilating or heating or refrigerating.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steam fitting."
- The article explained what "steam fitting" means with a simple example.

touchdown (noun)

A landing (as the wheels touch the landing field); especially of airplanes.

- The article explained what "touchdown" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "touchdown."

two-tier bid (noun)

A takeover bid where the acquirer offers to pay more for the shares needed to gain control than for the remaining shares.

- He looked up "two-tier bid" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "two-tier bid" to mean a takeover bid where the acquirer offers to pay....

witch-hunt (noun)

Searching out and harassing dissenters.

- The article explained what "witch-hunt" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "witch-hunt" during the group presentation.

appointments (noun)

The job to which you are (or hope to be) appointed.

- In class, the teacher used "appointments" to mean the job to which you are (or hope to be) appointed.
- The article explained what "appointments" means with a simple example.

assumptions (noun)

The act of assuming or taking for granted.

- Any society is built upon certain assumptions.
- He looked up "assumptions" because he had never seen it before.

ballet (noun)

A theatrical representation of a story that is performed to music by trained dancers.

- He looked up "ballet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ballet."

belly dancing (noun)

A Middle Eastern dance in which the dancer makes sensuous movements of the hips and abdomen.

- Understanding "belly dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "belly dancing" during the group presentation.

bicycle race (noun)

A race between people riding bicycles.

- He looked up "bicycle race" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bicycle race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

coup de main (noun)

An attack without warning.

- The article explained what "coup de main" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "coup de main" during the group presentation.

course of lectures (noun)

A series of lectures dealing with a subject.

- They discussed "course of lectures" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "course of lectures" means with a simple example.

---

deadly sin (noun)

An unpardonable sin entailing a total loss of grace.

- Theologians list seven mortal sins.
- They discussed "deadly sin" during the group presentation.

---

ellis (noun)

(Norse mythology) goddess of old age who defeated Thor in a wrestling match.

- The article explained what "ellis" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ellis."

---

exchanges (noun)

The act of changing one thing for another thing.

- Deductible losses on sales or exchanges of property are allowable.
- Understanding "exchanges" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

facial recognition (noun)

Biometric identification by scanning a person's face and matching it against a library of known faces.

- They used face recognition to spot known terrorists.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "facial recognition."

---

hike (noun)

A long walk usually for exercise or pleasure.

- She enjoys a hike in her spare time.
- He got a wage hike.

---

inspection and repair (noun)

Periodic maintenance on a car or machine.

- He looked up "inspection and repair" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inspection and repair."

---

marking (noun)

The act of making a visible mark on a surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marking."
- He looked up "marking" because he had never seen it before.

---

meat-packing business (noun)

Wholesale packaging of meat for future sale (including slaughtering and processing and distribution to retailers).

- The article explained what "meat-packing business" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "meat-packing business" to mean wholesale packaging of meat for future sale....

---

odds-maker (noun)

Someone who sets the betting odds based on calculations of the outcome of a contest (especially a horse race).

- The article explained what "odds-maker" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "odds-maker" to mean someone who sets the betting odds based on....

---

point after touchdown (noun)

In American football a point awarded for a successful place kick following a touchdown.

- They discussed "point after touchdown" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "point after touchdown" means with a simple example.

---

poker hand (noun)

The 5 cards held in a game of poker.

- He looked up "poker hand" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poker hand."

---

professional dancer (noun)

A performer who dances professionally.

- He looked up "professional dancer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "professional dancer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

quarterback (noun)

(American football) the position of the football player in the backfield who directs the offensive play of his team.

- Quarterback is the most important position on the team.
- The article explained what "quarterback" means with a simple example.

---

ref (noun)

(sports) the chief official (as in boxing or American football) who is expected to ensure fair play.

- They discussed "ref" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ref" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rushing (noun)

The act of moving hurriedly and in a careless manner.

- In class, the teacher used "rushing" to mean the act of moving hurriedly and in a careless manner.
- They discussed "rushing" during the group presentation.

---

salvation (noun)

A means of preserving from harm or unpleasantness.

- Tourism was their economic salvation.
- They turned to individualism as their salvation.

---

sanctions (noun)

The act of final authorization.

- In class, the teacher used "sanctions" to mean the act of final authorization.
- They discussed "sanctions" during the group presentation.

---

sexual harassment (noun)

Unwelcome sexual behavior by a supervisor toward an employee.

- He looked up "sexual harassment" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sexual harassment."

---

surgical strike (noun)

An attack (usually without prior warning) intended to deal only with a specific target.

- In class, the teacher used "surgical strike" to mean an attack (usually without prior warning) intended....
- They discussed "surgical strike" during the group presentation.

---

waking up (noun)

The act of waking.

- It was the waking up he hated most.
- Understanding "waking up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

artillery fire (noun)

Fire delivered by artillery.

- He looked up "artillery fire" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "artillery fire."

---

ballet company (noun)

A company that produces ballets.

- The article explained what "ballet company" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ballet company" to mean a company that produces ballets.

---

barn dance (noun)

A dance party featuring country dancing.

- He looked up "barn dance" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barn dance."

bearing false witness (noun)

Criminal offense of making false statements under oath.

- Understanding "bearing false witness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bearing false witness."

chemical warfare (noun)

Warfare using chemical agents to kill or injure or incapacitate the enemy.

- Understanding "chemical warfare" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "chemical warfare" means with a simple example.

chess (noun)

A board game for two players who move their 16 pieces according to specific rules; the object is to checkmate the opponent's king.

- In class, the teacher used "chess" to mean a board game for two players who move their 16....
- The article explained what "chess" means with a simple example.

concentrated fire (noun)

Fire from two or more weapons directed at a single target or area (as fire by batteries of two or more warships).

- In class, the teacher used "concentrated fire" to mean fire from two or more weapons directed at a single....
- They discussed "concentrated fire" during the group presentation.

deer hunting (noun)

Hunting deer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deer hunting."
- He looked up "deer hunting" because he had never seen it before.

dental procedure (noun)

A procedure employed by a dentist.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dental procedure."
- He looked up "dental procedure" because he had never seen it before.

medicare (noun)

Health care for the aged; a federally administered system of health insurance available to persons aged 65 and over.

- He looked up "medicare" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "medicare" during the group presentation.

modeling (noun)

The act of representing something (usually on a smaller scale).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "modeling."
- The article explained what "modeling" means with a simple example.

music critic (noun)

A critic of musical performances.

- The article explained what "music critic" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "music critic" during the group presentation.

over-the-shoulder bombing (noun)

A special case of loft bombing in which the bomb is released past the vertical so it is tossed back to the target.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "over-the-shoulder bombing."
- Understanding "over-the-shoulder bombing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

passive transport (noun)

Transport of a substance across a cell membrane by diffusion; expenditure of energy is not required.

- In class, the teacher used "passive transport" to mean transport of a substance across a cell membrane by....
- Understanding "passive transport" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

permits (noun)

The act of giving a formal (usually written) authorization.

- He looked up "permits" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "permits" to mean the act of giving a formal (usually written)....

---

physical rehabilitation (noun)

Providing help for disabled persons; the removal or reduction of disabilities.

- He looked up "physical rehabilitation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "physical rehabilitation."

---

pillow fight (noun)

A child's game of fighting with pillows.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pillow fight."
- He looked up "pillow fight" because he had never seen it before.

---

prep (noun)

Preparatory school work done outside school (especially at home).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prep."
- They discussed "prep" during the group presentation.

---

rebellion (noun)

Refusal to accept some authority or code or convention.

- Each generation must have its own rebellion.
- His body was in rebellion against fatigue.

---

refund (noun)

The act of returning money received previously.

- Understanding "refund" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "refund" because he had never seen it before.

---

regulatory offense (noun)

Crimes created by statutes and not by common law.

- He looked up "regulatory offense" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "regulatory offense" during the group presentation.

---

scam (noun)

A fraudulent business scheme.

- In class, the teacher used "scam" to mean a fraudulent business scheme.
- Understanding "scam" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

secular games (noun)

The centennial rites and games of ancient Rome that marked the commencement of a new generation (100 years representing the longest life in a generation); observances may have begun as early as the 5th century BC and lasted well into the Christian era.

- In class, the teacher used "secular games" to mean the centennial rites and games of ancient rome that....
- They discussed "secular games" during the group presentation.

---

simulation (noun)

The act of giving a false appearance.

- A simulation should imitate the internal processes and not merely the results of the thing being simulated.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "simulation."

---

supervision (noun)

Management by overseeing the performance or operation of a person or group.

- They discussed "supervision" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "supervision" to mean management by overseeing the performance or....

trio (noun)

A musical composition for three performers.

- Understanding "trio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trio."

varies (verb)

Be subject to change in accordance with a variable.

- The supermarket's selection of vegetables varies according to the season.
- She tried to use "varies" carefully so everyone would understand.

wage freeze (noun)

A freeze of wages at a given level.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wage freeze."
- He looked up "wage freeze" because he had never seen it before.

arm pad (noun)

A pad worn by football players and hockey goalkeepers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arm pad."
- Understanding "arm pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

catches (noun)

The act of catching an object with the hands.

- They discussed "catches" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "catches" because he had never seen it before.

chess game (noun)

A board game for two players who move their 16 pieces according to specific rules; the object is to checkmate the opponent's king.

- He looked up "chess game" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "chess game" during the group presentation.

chess set (noun)

Checkerboard and a set of 32 pieces used to play chess.

- He looked up "chess set" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chess set."

civic responsibility (noun)

The responsibilities of a citizen.

- In class, the teacher used "civic responsibility" to mean the responsibilities of a citizen.
- The article explained what "civic responsibility" means with a simple example.

directed verdict (noun)

A verdict entered by the court in a jury trial without consideration by the jury.

- There cannot be a directed verdict of guilty in a criminal trial.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "directed verdict."

drilling (noun)

The act of drilling a hole in the earth in the hope of producing petroleum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drilling."
- He looked up "drilling" because he had never seen it before.

electronic warfare (noun)

Military action involving the use of electromagnetic energy to determine or exploit or reduce or prevent hostile use of the electromagnetic spectrum.

- He looked up "electronic warfare" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electronic warfare."

false verdict (noun)

A manifestly unjust verdict; not true to the evidence.

- In class, the teacher used "false verdict" to mean a manifestly unjust verdict; not true to the evidence.
- They discussed "false verdict" during the group presentation.

---

genetic screening (noun)

Analyzing a group of people to determine genetic susceptibility to a particular disease.

- Genetic screening of infants for phenylketonuria.
- The article explained what "genetic screening" means with a simple example.

---

guessing game (noun)

A game in which participants compete to identify some obscurely indicated thing.

- The article explained what "guessing game" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "guessing game" to mean a game in which participants compete to identify....

---

litigation (noun)

A legal proceeding in a court; a judicial contest to determine and enforce legal rights.

- Understanding "litigation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "litigation."

---

lynch law (noun)

The practice of punishing people by hanging without due process of law.

- He looked up "lynch law" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lynch law."

---

revival (noun)

Bringing again into activity and prominence.

- The revival of trade.
- A revival of a neglected play by Moliere.

---

round-the-clock patrol (noun)

A continuous nonstop patrol.

- They discussed "round-the-clock patrol" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "round-the-clock patrol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

siege (noun)

The action of an armed force that surrounds a fortified place and isolates it while continuing to attack.

- The article explained what "siege" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "siege" during the group presentation.

---

square dancer (noun)

Someone who does square dancing.

- Understanding "square dancer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "square dancer" to mean someone who does square dancing.

---

squeeze play (noun)

An aggressive attempt to compel acquiescence by the concentration or manipulation of power.

- She laughed at this sexual power play and walked away.
- He looked up "squeeze play" because he had never seen it before.

---

state-sponsored terrorism (noun)

Terrorism practiced by a government against its own people or in support of international terrorism.

- In class, the teacher used "state-sponsored terrorism" to mean terrorism practiced by a government against its own....
- Understanding "state-sponsored terrorism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

steering (noun)

The act of setting and holding a course.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steering."

- He looked up “steering” because he had never seen it before.

---

straight poker (noun)

Poker in which each player gets 5 cards face down and bets are made without drawing any further cards.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “straight poker.”
- The article explained what “straight poker” means with a simple example.

---

suicide pill (noun)

A poison pill with potentially catastrophic implications for the company it is intended to protect.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “suicide pill.”
- The article explained what “suicide pill” means with a simple example.

---

tender loving care (noun)

Considerate and solicitous care.

- Understanding “tender loving care” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “tender loving care” during the group presentation.

---

toe dancing (noun)

A dance performed on tiptoe.

- He looked up “toe dancing” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “toe dancing” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

anal sex (noun)

Intercourse via the anus, committed by a man with a man or woman.

- In class, the teacher used “anal sex” to mean intercourse via the anus, committed by a man with a....
- Understanding “anal sex” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

at leisure (adverb)

In an unhurried way or at one’s convenience.

- Read the manual at your leisure.
- He traveled leisurely.

---

baking (noun)

Cooking by dry heat in an oven.

- Understanding “baking” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “baking” to mean cooking by dry heat in an oven.

---

banana boat (noun)

A ship designed to transport bananas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “banana boat.”
- He looked up “banana boat” because he had never seen it before.

---

biblical (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or contained in or in accordance with the Bible.

- Biblical names.
- Biblical Hebrew.

---

chess board (noun)

A checkerboard used to play chess.

- In class, the teacher used “chess board” to mean a checkerboard used to play chess.
- The article explained what “chess board” means with a simple example.

---

chess club (noun)

A club of people to play chess.

- He looked up “chess club” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chess club.”

---

chess move (noun)

The act of moving a chess piece.

- The article explained what "chess move" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chess move" during the group presentation.

---

chess player (noun)

Someone who plays the game of chess.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chess player."
- They discussed "chess player" during the group presentation.

---

civic duty (noun)

The responsibilities of a citizen.

- He looked up "civic duty" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "civic duty" to mean the responsibilities of a citizen.

---

knee bend (noun)

Exercising by repeatedly assuming a crouching position with the knees bent; strengthens the leg muscles.

- Understanding "knee bend" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "knee bend" to mean exercising by repeatedly assuming a crouching....

---

leisure (noun)

Freedom to choose a pastime or enjoyable activity.

- He lacked the leisure for golf.
- His job left him little leisure.

---

leisure time (noun)

Time available for ease and relaxation.

- His job left him little leisure.
- In class, the teacher used "leisure time" to mean time available for ease and relaxation.

---

modern ballet (noun)

A style of ballet that admits a wider variety of movements.

- The article explained what "modern ballet" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "modern ballet" during the group presentation.

---

moral obligation (noun)

An obligation arising out of considerations of right and wrong.

- He did it out of a feeling of moral obligation.
- The article explained what "moral obligation" means with a simple example.

---

musical rhythm (noun)

The basic rhythmic unit in a piece of music.

- The piece has a fast rhythm.
- He looked up "musical rhythm" because he had never seen it before.

---

overtime period (noun)

A period of overtime play to resolve a tie; e.g. basketball.

- Understanding "overtime period" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "overtime period" to mean a period of overtime play to resolve a tie; e.g.....

---

passive resistance (noun)

Peaceful resistance to a government by fasting or refusing to cooperate.

- Understanding "passive resistance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "passive resistance" means with a simple example.

---

productions (noun)

The act or process of producing something.

- He looked up “productions” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “productions.”

---

sympathy strike (noun)

A strike in support of other workers who are on strike; a strike not resulting from direct grievances against the workers’ employer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sympathy strike.”
- He looked up “sympathy strike” because he had never seen it before.

---

water pistol (noun)

Plaything consisting of a toy pistol that squirts water.

- He looked up “water pistol” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “water pistol” during the group presentation.

---

aerial (noun)

A pass to a receiver downfield from the passer.

- He looked up “aerial” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “aerial” to mean a pass to a receiver downfield from the passer.

---

automobile race (noun)

A race between (usually high-performance) automobiles.

- He looked up “automobile race” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “automobile race” during the group presentation.

---

bachelor-at-arms (noun)

A knight of the lowest order; could display only a pennon.

- He looked up “bachelor-at-arms” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bachelor-at-arms.”

---

ballet master (noun)

A man who directs and teaches and rehearses dancers for a ballet company.

- He looked up “ballet master” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “ballet master” to mean a man who directs and teaches and rehearses dancers....

---

buck-and-wing (noun)

A solo tap dance emphasizing sharp taps.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “buck-and-wing.”
- He looked up “buck-and-wing” because he had never seen it before.

---

chess match (noun)

A match between chess players.

- They discussed “chess match” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “chess match” because he had never seen it before.

---

chess piece (noun)

Any of 16 white and 16 black pieces used in playing the game of chess.

- He looked up “chess piece” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “chess piece” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deployment (noun)

The distribution of forces in preparation for battle or work.

- The article explained what “deployment” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “deployment” to mean the distribution of forces in preparation for....

---

draw poker (noun)

Poker in which a player can discard cards and receive substitutes from the dealer.

- He played only draw and stud.
- They discussed “draw poker” during the group presentation.

fare-stage (noun)

A section along the route of a bus for which the fare is the same.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fare-stage."
- Understanding "fare-stage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

genocide (noun)

Systematic killing of a racial or cultural group.

- Understanding "genocide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "genocide" to mean systematic killing of a racial or cultural group.

gum ball (noun)

A ball of chewing gum with a coating of colored sugar.

- He looked up "gum ball" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "gum ball" to mean a ball of chewing gum with a coating of colored sugar.

incentive option (noun)

An option granted to corporate executives if the company achieves certain financial goals.

- In class, the teacher used "incentive option" to mean an option granted to corporate executives if the....
- He looked up "incentive option" because he had never seen it before.

inventory accounting (noun)

Accounting that controls and evaluates inventory.

- They discussed "inventory accounting" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "inventory accounting" means with a simple example.

liberation (noun)

The attempt to achieve equal rights or status.

- She worked for women's liberation.
- The article explained what "liberation" means with a simple example.

preliminary exam (noun)

An examination taken by graduate students to determine their fitness to continue.

- They discussed "preliminary exam" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "preliminary exam" means with a simple example.

preliminary examination (noun)

An examination taken by graduate students to determine their fitness to continue.

- The article explained what "preliminary examination" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "preliminary examination" to mean an examination taken by graduate students to....

richardson (noun)

British stage and screen actor noted for playing classic roles (1902-1983).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "richardson."
- They discussed "richardson" during the group presentation.

sack (noun)

The plundering of a place by an army or mob; usually involves destruction and slaughter.

- The sack of Rome.
- He looked up "sack" because he had never seen it before.

settlements (noun)

The act of colonizing; the establishment of colonies.

- Understanding "settlements" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "settlements" means with a simple example.

squeeze box (noun)

A portable box-shaped free-reed instrument; the reeds are made to vibrate by air from the bellows controlled by the player.

- The article explained what “squeeze box” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “squeeze box” to mean a portable box-shaped free-reed instrument; the....

---

stare (noun)

A fixed look with eyes open wide.

- The article explained what “stare” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “stare” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thirds (noun)

The base that must be touched third by a base runner in baseball.

- A simple harmony written in major thirds.
- In class, the teacher used “thirds” to mean the base that must be touched third by a base....

---

three-ring circus (noun)

A circus with simultaneous performances in three rings.

- Understanding “three-ring circus” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “three-ring circus” because he had never seen it before.

---

thriller (noun)

A suspenseful adventure story or play or movie.

- In class, the teacher used “thriller” to mean a suspenseful adventure story or play or movie.
- Understanding “thriller” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vocals (noun)

A short musical composition with words.

- In class, the teacher used “vocals” to mean a short musical composition with words.
- They discussed “vocals” during the group presentation.

---

wars of the roses (noun)

Struggle for the English throne (1455-1485) between the house of York (white rose) and the house of Lancaster (red rose) ending with the accession of the Tudor monarch Henry VII.

- They discussed “wars of the roses” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “wars of the roses” because he had never seen it before.

---

wilderness campaign (noun)

American Civil War; a series of indecisive battles in Grant’s campaign (1864) against Lee in which both armies suffered terrible losses.

- Understanding “wilderness campaign” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “wilderness campaign” during the group presentation.

---

advocacy (noun)

Active support of an idea or cause etc.; especially the act of pleading or arguing for something.

- Understanding “advocacy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “advocacy” during the group presentation.

---

automotive technology (noun)

The activity of designing and constructing automobiles.

- The article explained what “automotive technology” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “automotive technology.”

---

balloon (verb)

Ride in a hot-air balloon.

- He tried to balloon around the earth but storms forced him to land in China.
- The sails ballooned.

---

battle of pittsburgh landing (noun)

The second great battle of the American Civil War (1862); the battle ended with the withdrawal of Confederate troops but it was not a Union victory.

- In class, the teacher used “battle of pittsburgh landing” to mean the second great battle of the american civil war....

- They discussed "battle of pittsburgh landing" during the group presentation.

---

beach towel (noun)

Very large towel to dry yourself after swimming.

- In class, the teacher used "beach towel" to mean very large towel to dry yourself after swimming.
- The article explained what "beach towel" means with a simple example.

---

chess master (noun)

A chess player of great skill.

- In class, the teacher used "chess master" to mean a chess player of great skill.
- They discussed "chess master" during the group presentation.

---

chess opening (noun)

A recognized sequence of moves at the beginning of a game of chess.

- He memorized all the important chess openings.
- He looked up "chess opening" because he had never seen it before.

---

combining (noun)

The act of combining things to form a new whole.

- Understanding "combining" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "combining" to mean the act of combining things to form a new whole.

---

dancers (noun)

A person who participates in a social gathering arranged for dancing (as a ball).

- He looked up "dancers" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dancers" during the group presentation.

---

fe (noun)

A heavy ductile magnetic metallic element; is silver-white in pure form but readily rusts; used in construction and tools and armament; plays a role in the transport of oxygen by the blood.

- They discussed "fe" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fe" to mean a heavy ductile magnetic metallic element; is....

---

judgment of conviction (noun)

(criminal law) a final judgment of guilty in a criminal case and the punishment that is imposed.

- The conviction came as no surprise.
- The article explained what "judgment of conviction" means with a simple example.

---

last respects (noun)

The act of expressing respect for someone who has died.

- He paid his last respects by standing quietly at the graveside.
- The article explained what "last respects" means with a simple example.

---

marriages (noun)

The act of marrying; the nuptial ceremony.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marriages."
- He looked up "marriages" because he had never seen it before.

---

miracle-worship (noun)

The worship of miracles.

- He looked up "miracle-worship" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "miracle-worship."

---

musical chairs (noun)

A rearrangement that has no practical effect or significance.

- The company is looking for stability after years of musical chairs with directors.
- Shareholders don't want the company playing musical chairs with their investment.

---

partial abortion (noun)

Termination of pregnancy without expulsion of all of the products of conception.

- They discussed "partial abortion" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "partial abortion" to mean termination of pregnancy without expulsion of all....

piano keyboard (noun)

A bank of keys on a musical instrument.

- In class, the teacher used "piano keyboard" to mean a bank of keys on a musical instrument.
- The article explained what "piano keyboard" means with a simple example.

recordings (noun)

The act of making a record (especially an audio record).

- He looked up "recordings" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "recordings" to mean the act of making a record (especially an audio record).

rejection (noun)

The act of rejecting something.

- His proposals were met with rejection.
- Rejection of the transplanted liver.

rhythm method of birth control (noun)

Natural family planning in which ovulation is assumed to occur 14 days before the onset of a period (the fertile period would be assumed to extend from day 10 through day 18 of her cycle).

- He looked up "rhythm method of birth control" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "rhythm method of birth control" during the group presentation.

ritual dancing (noun)

A dance that is part of a religious ritual.

- The article explained what "ritual dancing" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ritual dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

safety squeeze (noun)

The runner on third base waits to start home until the batter has bunted successfully.

- Understanding "safety squeeze" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "safety squeeze" because he had never seen it before.

scrap (noun)

The act of fighting; any contest or struggle.

- The unhappy couple got into a terrible scrap.
- She jotted it on a scrap of paper.

side-glance (noun)

A glance sideways.

- She shot him an impatient side-glance.
- He looked up "side-glance" because he had never seen it before.

slam dancing (noun)

A form of dancing in which dancers slam into one another; normally performed to punk rock.

- The article explained what "slam dancing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "slam dancing" during the group presentation.

surgical procedure (noun)

A medical procedure involving an incision with instruments; performed to repair damage or arrest disease in a living body.

- They discussed "surgical procedure" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surgical procedure."

tactical intelligence (noun)

Intelligence that is required for the planning and conduct of tactical operations.

- In class, the teacher used “tactical intelligence” to mean intelligence that is required for the planning and....
- The article explained what “tactical intelligence” means with a simple example.

---

use immunity (noun)

An exemption that displaces the privilege against self-incrimination; neither compelled testimony or any fruits of it can be used against the witness who therefore can no longer fear self-incrimination.

- The article explained what “use immunity” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “use immunity.”

---

bent hang (noun)

A hang performed with the elbows bent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bent hang.”
- Understanding “bent hang” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chorus girl (noun)

A woman who dances in a chorus line.

- In class, the teacher used “chorus girl” to mean a woman who dances in a chorus line.
- He looked up “chorus girl” because he had never seen it before.

---

costumes (noun)

The attire worn in a play or at a fancy dress ball.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “costumes.”
- He looked up “costumes” because he had never seen it before.

---

crap-shooter (noun)

A gambler who throws dice in the game of craps.

- The article explained what “crap-shooter” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “crap-shooter” to mean a gambler who throws dice in the game of craps.

---

criminal offence (noun)

(criminal law) an act punishable by law; usually considered an evil act.

- The article explained what “criminal offence” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “criminal offence” during the group presentation.

---

designing (noun)

The act of working out the form of something (as by making a sketch or outline or plan).

- He looked up “designing” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “designing” to mean the act of working out the form of something (as by....

---

doubles (noun)

Tennis played with two players on each side.

- In class, the teacher used “doubles” to mean tennis played with two players on each side.
- Understanding “doubles” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

economies (noun)

An act of economizing; reduction in cost.

- Understanding “economies” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “economies” during the group presentation.

---

farewell (noun)

The act of departing politely.

- He disliked long farewells.
- He looked up “farewell” because he had never seen it before.

---

holocaust (noun)

An act of mass destruction and loss of life (especially in war or by fire).

- A nuclear holocaust.
- In class, the teacher used “holocaust” to mean an act of mass destruction and loss of life....

homer (noun)

A base hit on which the batter scores a run.

- They discussed "homer" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "homer."

kentucky derby (noun)

An annual race for three-year-old horses; held at Churchill Downs in Louisville, Kentucky.

- He looked up "kentucky derby" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "kentucky derby" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

museums (noun)

A depository for collecting and displaying objects having scientific or historical or artistic value.

- The article explained what "museums" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "museums" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

music rack (noun)

A light stand for holding sheets of printed music.

- He looked up "music rack" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "music rack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mvp (noun)

The player judged to be the most important to the sport.

- The article explained what "mvp" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mvp" to mean the player judged to be the most important to the sport.

official immunity (noun)

Personal immunity accorded to a public official from liability to anyone injured by actions that are the consequence of exerting official authority.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "official immunity."
- He looked up "official immunity" because he had never seen it before.

raids (noun)

An attempt by speculators to defraud investors.

- The article explained what "raids" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "raids" to mean an attempt by speculators to defraud investors.

reserve clause (noun)

A clause that used to be part of the contract with a professional athlete extending the contract for a year beyond its expiration.

- The reserve clause was used to bind players to a particular ball club.
- They discussed "reserve clause" during the group presentation.

safety squeeze play (noun)

The runner on third base waits to start home until the batter has bunted successfully.

- He looked up "safety squeeze play" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "safety squeeze play" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

shoulder pad (noun)

Protective garment consisting of a hard rounded pad worn by football players to protect their shoulders.

- They discussed "shoulder pad" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "shoulder pad" because he had never seen it before.

specialty (noun)

The special line of work you have adopted as your career.

- Understanding "specialty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "specialty" because he had never seen it before.

speed indicator (noun)

A meter fixed to a vehicle that measures and displays its speed.

- In class, the teacher used "speed indicator" to mean a meter fixed to a vehicle that measures and....
- They discussed "speed indicator" during the group presentation.

---

talent scout (noun)

Someone employed to discover and recruit talented persons (especially in the worlds of entertainment or sports).

- Understanding "talent scout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "talent scout" means with a simple example.

---

terrain flight (noun)

Flight at very low altitudes.

- They discussed "terrain flight" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "terrain flight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

touring (verb)

Make a tour of a certain place.

- She tried to use "touring" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "touring" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

traces (noun)

An indication that something has been present.

- In class, the teacher used "traces" to mean an indication that something has been present.
- He looked up "traces" because he had never seen it before.

---

turn turtle (verb)

Overturn accidentally.

- In everyday English, people use "turn turtle" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "turn turtle" in real sentences.

---

umbrella (noun)

A formation of military planes maintained over ground operations or targets.

- An air umbrella over England.
- The Democratic Party is an umbrella for many liberal groups.

---

utilities (noun)

The service (electric power or water or transportation) provided by a public utility.

- The cost of utilities never decreases.
- All the utilities were lost after the hurricane.

---

virginia wade (noun)

English tennis player who won many women's singles titles (born in 1945).

- He looked up "virginia wade" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "virginia wade" during the group presentation.

---

voyage (verb)

Travel on water propelled by wind or by other means.

- In everyday English, people use "voyage" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "voyage" in real sentences.

---

war of the spanish succession (noun)

A general war in Europe (1701-1714) that broke out when Louis XIV installed his grandson on the throne of Spain; England and Holland hoped to limit Louis' power.

- They discussed "war of the spanish succession" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "war of the spanish succession" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

armed robbery (noun)

Robbery at gunpoint.

- Understanding "armed robbery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "armed robbery" to mean robbery at gunpoint.

---

assignments (noun)

The act of putting a person into a non-elective position.

- Understanding "assignments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assignments."

---

automotive engineering (noun)

The activity of designing and constructing automobiles.

- He looked up "automotive engineering" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "automotive engineering" during the group presentation.

---

chamber orchestra (noun)

Small orchestra; usually plays classical music.

- The article explained what "chamber orchestra" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chamber orchestra" during the group presentation.

---

coin collecting (noun)

The collection and study of money (and coins in particular).

- They discussed "coin collecting" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "coin collecting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

duck soup (noun)

Any undertaking that is easy to do.

- He looked up "duck soup" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "duck soup."

---

filters (verb)

Run or flow slowly, as in drops or in an unsteady stream.

- He did not know how to use "filters" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "filters" and when to wait.

---

fusion cooking (noun)

Cooking that combines ingredients and techniques and seasonings from different cuisines.

- He looked up "fusion cooking" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fusion cooking."

---

haul up (verb)

Come to a halt after driving somewhere.

- The chauffeur hauled up in front of us.
- In everyday English, people use "haul up" when talking about this idea.

---

highways (noun)

A major road for any form of motor transport.

- He looked up "highways" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "highways."

---

hip pad (noun)

Protective garment consisting of a pad worn by football and hockey players.

- Understanding "hip pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hip pad" during the group presentation.

---

keyboard instrument (noun)

A musical instrument that is played by means of a keyboard.

- Understanding "keyboard instrument" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "keyboard instrument" because he had never seen it before.

---

leisure wear (noun)

Informal clothing designed to be worn when you are relaxing.

- In class, the teacher used "leisure wear" to mean informal clothing designed to be worn when you are....
- The article explained what "leisure wear" means with a simple example.

---

lying under oath (noun)

Criminal offense of making false statements under oath.

- The article explained what "lying under oath" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lying under oath" to mean criminal offense of making false statements under oath.

---

mapping (noun)

(genetics) the process of locating genes on a chromosome.

- He looked up "mapping" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mapping."

---

masks (noun)

Activity that tries to conceal something.

- The article explained what "masks" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "masks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

naming (noun)

The act of putting a person into a non-elective position.

- The part he failed was the naming of state capitals.
- He looked up "naming" because he had never seen it before.

---

nude dancing (noun)

Erotic dancing with little or no clothing.

- Understanding "nude dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "nude dancing" because he had never seen it before.

---

performers (noun)

An entertainer who performs a dramatic or musical work for an audience.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "performers."
- He looked up "performers" because he had never seen it before.

---

police wagon (noun)

Van used by police to transport prisoners.

- Understanding "police wagon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "police wagon" means with a simple example.

---

sack race (noun)

A novelty race in which competitors jump ahead with their feet confined in a sack.

- The article explained what "sack race" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sack race" to mean a novelty race in which competitors jump ahead with....

---

sixty-nine (noun)

Oral sex practiced simultaneously by two people.

- He looked up "sixty-nine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sixty-nine."

---

ski jumping (noun)

The act of performing a jump on skis from a high ramp overhanging a snow covered slope.

- They discussed "ski jumping" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ski jumping" because he had never seen it before.

---

sucking (noun)

The act of sucking.

- In class, the teacher used "sucking" to mean the act of sucking.
- The article explained what "sucking" means with a simple example.

---

transported (verb)

Send from one person or place to another.

- Learners should practice how to use "transported" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "transported" when talking about this idea.

---

vertical integration (noun)

Absorption into a single firm of several firms involved in all aspects of a product's manufacture from raw materials to distribution.

- Understanding "vertical integration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "vertical integration" means with a simple example.

---

workshops (noun)

A brief intensive course for a small group; emphasizes problem solving.

- In class, the teacher used "workshops" to mean a brief intensive course for a small group;....
- They discussed "workshops" during the group presentation.

---

bids (noun)

An attempt to get something.

- He looked up "bids" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bids."

---

bully off (verb)

Start a game by a face-off.

- He did not know how to use "bully off" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "bully off" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

coup de grace (noun)

The blow that kills (usually mercifully).

- In class, the teacher used "coup de grace" to mean the blow that kills (usually mercifully).
- They discussed "coup de grace" during the group presentation.

---

festivals (noun)

An organized series of acts and performances (usually in one place).

- They discussed "festivals" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "festivals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

forgiveness (noun)

The act of excusing a mistake or offense.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forgiveness."
- He looked up "forgiveness" because he had never seen it before.

---

hiking (noun)

A long walk usually for exercise or pleasure.

- He looked up "hiking" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hiking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hiring freeze (noun)

A freeze on hiring.

- In class, the teacher used "hiring freeze" to mean a freeze on hiring.
- The article explained what "hiring freeze" means with a simple example.

---

incentive stock option (noun)

An option granted to corporate executives if the company achieves certain financial goals.

- He looked up "incentive stock option" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "incentive stock option" to mean an option granted to corporate executives if the....

lending (noun)

Disposing of money or property with the expectation that the same thing (or an equivalent) will be returned.

- They discussed "lending" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lending" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

marathon runner (noun)

Someone who participates in long-distance races (especially in marathons).

- Understanding "marathon runner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marathon runner."

proceeded (verb)

Move ahead; travel onward in time or space.

- We proceeded towards Washington.
- In everyday English, people use "proceeded" when talking about this idea.

pros (noun)

An athlete who plays for pay.

- Understanding "pros" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pros" during the group presentation.

repeal (noun)

The act of abrogating; an official or legal cancellation.

- The article explained what "repeal" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "repeal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rhythm and blues (noun)

A combination of blues and jazz that was developed in the United States by Black musicians; an important precursor of rock 'n' roll.

- In class, the teacher used "rhythm and blues" to mean a combination of blues and jazz that was developed....
- They discussed "rhythm and blues" during the group presentation.

riots (noun)

A public act of violence by an unruly mob.

- The article explained what "riots" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "riots" to mean a public act of violence by an unruly mob.

robertson (noun)

United States basketball guard (born in 1938).

- In class, the teacher used "robertson" to mean united states basketball guard (born in 1938).
- Understanding "robertson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

terrain intelligence (noun)

Tactical intelligence on the natural and man-made characteristics of an area.

- He looked up "terrain intelligence" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "terrain intelligence" during the group presentation.

tuned (verb)

Adjust the pitches of (musical instruments).

- My piano needs to be tuned.
- The coach explained when to use "tuned" and when to wait.

zip by (verb)

Move by very quickly.

- She tried to use "zip by" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "zip by" in real sentences.

bastard title (noun)

A first page of some books displaying only the title of the book.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bastard title."
- He looked up "bastard title" because he had never seen it before.

---

biological warfare (noun)

The use of bacteria or viruses or toxins to destroy men and animals or food.

- The article explained what "biological warfare" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "biological warfare" to mean the use of bacteria or viruses or toxins to destroy....

---

booking (noun)

The act of reserving (a place or passage) or engaging the services of (a person or group).

- Wondered who had made the booking.
- The play had bookings throughout the summer.

---

carnival (noun)

A frenetic disorganized (and often comic) disturbance suggestive of a large public entertainment.

- The whole occasion had a carnival atmosphere.
- Understanding "carnival" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

containers (noun)

Any object that can be used to hold things (especially a large metal boxlike object of standardized dimensions that can be loaded from one form of transport to another).

- He looked up "containers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "containers."

---

curtain off (verb)

Separate by means of a curtain.

- Can you use "curtain off" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "curtain off" and when to wait.

---

curves (noun)

The trace of a point whose direction of motion changes.

- He looked up "curves" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "curves" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

drug trafficking (noun)

Traffic in illegal drugs.

- In class, the teacher used "drug trafficking" to mean traffic in illegal drugs.
- The article explained what "drug trafficking" means with a simple example.

---

fade (noun)

A golf shot that curves to the right for a right-handed golfer.

- He looked up "fade" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fade."

---

highway robbery (noun)

Robbery of travellers on or near a public road.

- What they are asking for gas these days is highway robbery.
- In class, the teacher used "highway robbery" to mean robbery of travellers on or near a public road.

---

hot-air balloon (noun)

Balloon for travel through the air in a basket suspended below a large bag of heated air.

- The article explained what "hot-air balloon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hot-air balloon."

---

jumps (noun)

The act of jumping; propelling yourself off the ground.

- He advanced in a series of jumps.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jumps."

---

logistics (noun)

Handling an operation that involves providing labor and materials be supplied as needed.

- They discussed "logistics" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "logistics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nonprofit (noun)

An organization chartered for other than profit-making activities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nonprofit."
- Understanding "nonprofit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pac-man strategy (noun)

The target company defends itself by threatening to take over its acquirer.

- In class, the teacher used "pac-man strategy" to mean the target company defends itself by threatening to....
- The article explained what "pac-man strategy" means with a simple example.

---

plain sailing (noun)

Easy unobstructed progress.

- After we solved that problem the rest was plain sailing.
- They discussed "plain sailing" during the group presentation.

---

rabbit punch (noun)

A short chopping blow to the back of the neck.

- Understanding "rabbit punch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "rabbit punch" during the group presentation.

---

relay (noun)

The act of passing something along from one person or group to another.

- The relay was successful.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "relay."

---

rig (noun)

The act of swindling by some fraudulent scheme.

- He looked up "rig" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rig" to mean the act of swindling by some fraudulent scheme.

---

riley b king (noun)

United States guitar player and singer of the blues (born in 1925).

- Understanding "riley b king" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "riley b king."

---

string orchestra (noun)

An orchestra playing only stringed instruments.

- He looked up "string orchestra" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "string orchestra" during the group presentation.

---

stunt (noun)

A difficult or unusual or dangerous feat; usually done to gain attention.

- He looked up "stunt" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "stunt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stunt man (noun)

A stand-in for movie stars to perform dangerous stunts.

- He looked up "stunt man" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "stunt man" to mean a stand-in for movie stars to perform dangerous stunts.

---

sucked (verb)

Draw something in by or as if by a vacuum.

- The baby sucked on the mother's breast.
- The current boom in the economy sucked many workers in from abroad.

---

suicide squeeze (noun)

The runner on third base starts home as the pitcher delivers the ball.

- Understanding "suicide squeeze" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "suicide squeeze" because he had never seen it before.

---

surf (verb)

Ride the waves of the sea with a surfboard.

- Californians love to surf.
- Surf the internet or the world wide web.

---

thrust (noun)

A sharp hand gesture (resembling a blow).

- He made a thrusting motion with his fist.
- The thrust of the jet engines.

---

thrust out (verb)

Push to thrust outward.

- She tried to use "thrust out" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "thrust out" when talking about this idea.

---

trial balloon (noun)

A balloon sent up to test air currents.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trial balloon."
- He looked up "trial balloon" because he had never seen it before.

---

balloon seat (noun)

A seat that has a bell shape (on some 18th century chairs).

- He looked up "balloon seat" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "balloon seat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

barrel organ (noun)

A musical instrument that makes music by rotation of a cylinder studded with pegs.

- They discussed "barrel organ" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barrel organ."

---

catalog buying (noun)

Buying goods to be shipped through the mail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "catalog buying."
- The article explained what "catalog buying" means with a simple example.

---

celebrations (noun)

The public performance of a sacrament or solemn ceremony with all appropriate ritual.

- The article explained what "celebrations" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "celebrations" during the group presentation.

---

climbed (verb)

Go upward with gradual or continuous progress.

- The path climbed all the way to the top of the hill.
- Prices climbed steeply.

---

compilation (noun)

The act of compiling (as into a single book or file or list).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "compilation."
- He looked up "compilation" because he had never seen it before.

---

composer (noun)

Someone who composes music as a profession.

- Understanding "composer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "composer" during the group presentation.

---

curtain call (noun)

An appearance by actors or performers at the end of the concert or play in order to acknowledge the applause of the audience.

- Understanding "curtain call" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "curtain call" during the group presentation.

---

dairy farming (noun)

The business of a dairy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dairy farming."
- They discussed "dairy farming" during the group presentation.

---

electronic warfare-support measures (noun)

Electronic warfare undertaken under direct control of an operational commander to locate sources of radiated electromagnetic energy for the purpose of immediate threat recognition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electronic warfare-support measures."
- He looked up "electronic warfare-support measures" because he had never seen it before.

---

feminism (noun)

The movement aimed at equal rights for women.

- He looked up "feminism" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "feminism" during the group presentation.

---

games-mistress (noun)

The teacher in charge of games at a school.

- Understanding "games-mistress" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "games-mistress" to mean the teacher in charge of games at a school.

---

herbert (noun)

United States musician and composer and conductor noted for his comic operas (1859-1924).

- He looked up "herbert" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "herbert."

---

hunting expedition (noun)

An overland journey by hunters (especially in Africa).

- In class, the teacher used "hunting expedition" to mean an overland journey by hunters (especially in africa).
- They discussed "hunting expedition" during the group presentation.

---

levy (noun)

The act of drafting into military service.

- He looked up "levy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "levy."

---

lounge suit (noun)

A business suit consisting of a matching jacket and skirt or trousers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lounge suit."
- He looked up "lounge suit" because he had never seen it before.

---

lp (noun)

A long-playing phonograph record; designed to be played at 33.3 rpm.

- He looked up "lp" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lp."

manipulation (noun)

Exerting shrewd or devious influence especially for one's own advantage.

- His manipulation of his friends was scandalous.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manipulation."

mock (noun)

The act of mocking or ridiculing.

- They made a mock of him.
- In class, the teacher used "mock" to mean the act of mocking or ridiculing.

mock-up (noun)

Full-scale working model of something built for study or testing or display.

- He looked up "mock-up" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mock-up."

morality play (noun)

An allegorical play popular in the 15th and 16th centuries; characters personified virtues and vices.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morality play."
- Understanding "morality play" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

non pros (noun)

A judgment entered in favor of the defendant when the plaintiff has not continued his action (e.g., has not appeared in court).

- They discussed "non pros" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "non pros" means with a simple example.

old maid (noun)

A card game using a pack of cards from which one queen has been removed; players match cards and the player holding the unmatched queen at the end of the game is the loser (or 'old maid').

- In class, the teacher used "old maid" to mean a card game using a pack of cards from which one....
- He looked up "old maid" because he had never seen it before.

partial breach (noun)

A breach that does not destroy the value of the contract but can give rise to a claim for damages.

- Understanding "partial breach" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "partial breach" because he had never seen it before.

psychological warfare (noun)

The use of psychological tactics to destroy the opponents' morale.

- The article explained what "psychological warfare" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "psychological warfare" to mean the use of psychological tactics to destroy the....

reed instrument (noun)

A musical instrument that sounds by means of a vibrating reed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reed instrument."
- Understanding "reed instrument" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sixty-fourth note (noun)

A musical note having the time value of a sixty-fourth of a whole note.

- He looked up "sixty-fourth note" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sixty-fourth note" during the group presentation.

sliding board (noun)

Plaything consisting of a sloping chute down which children can slide.

- Understanding "sliding board" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sliding board" means with a simple example.

splash around (verb)

Play in or as if in water, as of small children.

- Learners should practice how to use "splash around" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "splash around" and when to wait.

---

stretching (noun)

Act of expanding by lengthening or widening.

- The article explained what "stretching" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "stretching" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stunt woman (noun)

A stand-in for movie stars to perform dangerous stunts.

- In class, the teacher used "stunt woman" to mean a stand-in for movie stars to perform dangerous stunts.
- He looked up "stunt woman" because he had never seen it before.

---

suicide squeeze play (noun)

The runner on third base starts home as the pitcher delivers the ball.

- He looked up "suicide squeeze play" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "suicide squeeze play" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

teddy boys (noun)

A British youth subculture that first appeared in the 1950s; mainly from unskilled backgrounds, they adopted a pseudo-Edwardian dress code and rock'n'roll music; proletarian and xenophobic, they were involved in race riots in the United Kingdom.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teddy boys."
- He looked up "teddy boys" because he had never seen it before.

---

ti (noun)

The syllable naming the seventh (subtonic) note of any musical scale in solmization.

- They discussed "ti" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ti" because he had never seen it before.

---

volleyball (noun)

An inflated ball used in playing volleyball.

- He looked up "volleyball" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "volleyball."

---

alcoholic abuse (noun)

Excessive use of alcohol and alcoholic drinks.

- Understanding "alcoholic abuse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "alcoholic abuse" during the group presentation.

---

batting (noun)

(baseball) the batter's attempt to get on base.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "batting."
- He looked up "batting" because he had never seen it before.

---

bell jar (noun)

A bell-shaped glass cover used to protect and display delicate objects or to cover scientific apparatus or to contain gases.

- Understanding "bell jar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bell jar" because he had never seen it before.

---

comedy ballet (noun)

A ballet that stresses the drama with features of comedy.

- They discussed "comedy ballet" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "comedy ballet" because he had never seen it before.

---

correspondence course (noun)

A course offered (by mail) by a correspondence school.

- The article explained what "correspondence course" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "correspondence course."

---

creep (noun)

A slow mode of locomotion on hands and knees or dragging the body.

- The traffic moved at a creep.
- They discussed "creep" during the group presentation.

---

creep up (verb)

Advance stealthily or unnoticed.

- Age creeps up on you.
- She tried to use "creep up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cuban revolution (noun)

The revolution led by Fidel Castro and a small band of guerrilla fighters against a corrupt dictatorship in Cuba; 1956-1959.

- Understanding "cuban revolution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cuban revolution" because he had never seen it before.

---

cut-and-thrust (noun)

Fighting with knives.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cut-and-thrust."
- Understanding "cut-and-thrust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

establishments (noun)

The act of forming or establishing something.

- He looked up "establishments" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "establishments."

---

exile (noun)

The act of expelling a person from their native land.

- Men in exile dream of hope.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exile."

---

exploitation (noun)

An act that exploits or victimizes someone (treats them unfairly).

- Capitalistic exploitation of the working class.
- The exploitation of copper deposits.

---

fictional character (noun)

An imaginary person represented in a work of fiction (play or film or story).

- She is the main character in the novel.
- In class, the teacher used "fictional character" to mean an imaginary person represented in a work of....

---

judicial torture (noun)

Torture that is sanctioned by the state and executed by duly accredited officials.

- The English renounced judicial torture in 1640.
- Understanding "judicial torture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

knee pad (noun)

Protective garment consisting of a pad worn by football or baseball or hockey players.

- He looked up "knee pad" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "knee pad."

---

magazine rack (noun)

A rack for displaying magazines.

- The article explained what "magazine rack" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "magazine rack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

milton (noun)

English poet; remembered primarily as the author of an epic poem describing humanity's fall from grace (1608-1674).

- They discussed "milton" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "milton."

---

national censorship (noun)

Censorship under civil authority of communications entering or leaving of crossing the borders of the United States or its territories or possessions.

- He looked up "national censorship" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "national censorship" to mean censorship under civil authority of communications....

---

object-oriented programming (noun)

Creating a program that can use and support objects.

- They discussed "object-oriented programming" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "object-oriented programming" to mean creating a program that can use and support objects.

---

pains (noun)

An effortful attempt to attain a goal.

- They discussed "pains" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pains."

---

paperwork (noun)

Work that involves handling papers: forms or letters or reports etc.

- The article explained what "paperwork" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paperwork."

---

personal judgement (noun)

A judgment rendered against an individual (or corporation) for the payment of money damages.

- The article explained what "personal judgement" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "personal judgement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

renewal (noun)

The conversion of wasteland into land suitable for use of habitation or cultivation.

- In class, the teacher used "renewal" to mean the conversion of wasteland into land suitable for....
- Understanding "renewal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

repeating (noun)

The act of doing or performing again.

- They discussed "repeating" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "repeating."

---

skating (noun)

The sport of gliding on skates.

- The article explained what "skating" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "skating" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

skiing (noun)

A sport in which participants must travel on skis.

- The article explained what "skiing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "skiing" during the group presentation.

---

spill (noun)

A sudden drop from an upright position.

- He had a nasty spill on the ice.
- Clean up the spills.

---

spill out (verb)

Be disgorged.

- The crowds spilled out into the streets.
- Learners should practice how to use "spill out" in real sentences.

---

stamp collecting (noun)

The collection and study of postage stamps.

- The article explained what "stamp collecting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stamp collecting" to mean the collection and study of postage stamps.

---

switches (noun)

The act of changing one thing or position for another.

- He looked up "switches" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "switches" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tattoos (noun)

The practice of making a design on the skin by pricking and staining.

- Understanding "tattoos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tattoos" during the group presentation.

---

teammate (noun)

A fellow member of a team.

- It was his first start against his former teammates.
- In class, the teacher used "teammate" to mean a fellow member of a team.

---

treason (noun)

A crime that undermines the offender's government.

- Understanding "treason" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "treason" because he had never seen it before.

---

value judgement (noun)

An assessment that reveals more about the values of the person making the assessment than about the reality of what is assessed.

- In class, the teacher used "value judgement" to mean an assessment that reveals more about the values of....
- The article explained what "value judgement" means with a simple example.

---

volleyball court (noun)

The court on which volleyball is played.

- They discussed "volleyball court" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "volleyball court" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

volleyball game (noun)

A game in which two teams hit an inflated ball over a high net using their hands.

- Understanding "volleyball game" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "volleyball game" to mean a game in which two teams hit an inflated ball over....

---

whistle-stop tour (noun)

A tour by a candidate as part of a political campaign in which a series of small towns are visited.

- In 1948 Truman crossed the country several times on his whistle-stop tours.
- They discussed "whistle-stop tour" during the group presentation.

---

activation (noun)

The activity of causing to have energy and be active.

- In class, the teacher used "activation" to mean the activity of causing to have energy and be active.
- The article explained what "activation" means with a simple example.

---

batting order (noun)

(baseball) a list of batters in the order in which they will bat.

- The article explained what "batting order" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "batting order."

breakthrough (noun)

A penetration of a barrier such as an enemy's defense.

- Understanding "breakthrough" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breakthrough."

carpet bombing (noun)

An extensive and systematic bombing intended to devastate a large target.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carpet bombing."
- He looked up "carpet bombing" because he had never seen it before.

carriage return (noun)

The operation that prepares for the next character to be printed or displayed as the first character on a line.

- He looked up "carriage return" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "carriage return" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

carriage trade (noun)

Trade from upper-class customers.

- He looked up "carriage trade" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carriage trade."

chance-half correlation (noun)

A correlation coefficient calculated between scores on two halves of a test; taken as an indication of the reliability of the test.

- He looked up "chance-half correlation" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chance-half correlation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

competitions (noun)

The act of competing as for profit or a prize.

- Understanding "competitions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "competitions" to mean the act of competing as for profit or a prize.

continuous receiver watch (noun)

A watch established for the reception of traffic of interest to the unit maintaining the watch.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "continuous receiver watch."
- He looked up "continuous receiver watch" because he had never seen it before.

correlation table (noun)

A two-way tabulation of the relations between correlates; row headings are the scores on one variable and column headings are the scores on the second variables and a cell shows how many times the score on that row was associated with the score in that column.

- He looked up "correlation table" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "correlation table."

crushing (noun)

Forceful prevention; putting down by power or authority.

- The article explained what "crushing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crushing."

destinations (noun)

The place designated as the end (as of a race or journey).

- They discussed "destinations" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "destinations" because he had never seen it before.

exploit (noun)

A notable achievement.

- They discussed "exploit" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "exploit" to mean a notable achievement.

frog kick (noun)

A swimming kick; knees are drawn upward and outward so the legs can be brought together when fully extended.

- He looked up "frog kick" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frog kick."

---

gay liberation movement (noun)

The movement aimed at liberating homosexuals from legal or social or economic oppression.

- The article explained what "gay liberation movement" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gay liberation movement" during the group presentation.

---

high treason (noun)

A crime that undermines the offender's government.

- In class, the teacher used "high treason" to mean a crime that undermines the offender's government.
- He looked up "high treason" because he had never seen it before.

---

induced abortion (noun)

A deliberate termination of pregnancy.

- In class, the teacher used "induced abortion" to mean a deliberate termination of pregnancy.
- The article explained what "induced abortion" means with a simple example.

---

inning (noun)

(baseball) one of nine divisions of play during which each team has a turn at bat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inning."
- He looked up "inning" because he had never seen it before.

---

jazz musician (noun)

A musician who plays or composes jazz music.

- He looked up "jazz musician" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "jazz musician" during the group presentation.

---

john milton (noun)

English poet; remembered primarily as the author of an epic poem describing humanity's fall from grace (1608-1674).

- In class, the teacher used "john milton" to mean english poet; remembered primarily as the author of....
- He looked up "john milton" because he had never seen it before.

---

justification (noun)

The act of defending or explaining or making excuses for by reasoning; - H.J.Muller.

- The justification of barbarous means by holy ends.
- He considered misrule a justification for revolution.

---

knee jerk (noun)

A reflex extension of the leg resulting from a sharp tap on the patellar tendon.

- The article explained what "knee jerk" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "knee jerk" to mean a reflex extension of the leg resulting from a....

---

lawn tennis (noun)

A game played with rackets by two or four players who hit a ball back and forth over a net that divides the court.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lawn tennis."
- He looked up "lawn tennis" because he had never seen it before.

---

licenses (noun)

The act of giving a formal (usually written) authorization.

- Understanding "licenses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "licenses" because he had never seen it before.

---

military censorship (noun)

All types of censorship conducted by personnel of the armed forces.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “military censorship.”
- He looked up “military censorship” because he had never seen it before.

---

missionary work (noun)

The organized work of a religious missionary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “missionary work.”
- He looked up “missionary work” because he had never seen it before.

---

relay race (noun)

A race between teams; each member runs or swims part of the distance.

- In class, the teacher used “relay race” to mean a race between teams; each member runs or swims....
- The article explained what “relay race” means with a simple example.

---

sally forth (verb)

Set out in a sudden, energetic or violent manner.

- Learners should practice how to use “sally forth” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “sally forth” until he saw an example.

---

startup (noun)

The act of starting a new operation or practice.

- The startup of the new factory was delayed by strikes.
- Repeated shutdowns and startups are expensive.

---

straight thrust (noun)

(fencing) an attacking thrust made with one foot forward and the back leg straight and with the sword arm outstretched forward.

- In class, the teacher used “straight thrust” to mean (fencing) an attacking thrust made with one foot....
- The article explained what “straight thrust” means with a simple example.

---

thrust ahead (verb)

Push one’s way.

- Can you use “thrust ahead” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “thrust ahead” and when to wait.

---

volleyball player (noun)

Someone who plays the game of volleyball.

- They discussed “volleyball player” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “volleyball player” to mean someone who plays the game of volleyball.

---

water-skiing (noun)

Skiing on water while being towed by a motorboat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water-skiing.”
- The article explained what “water-skiing” means with a simple example.

---

wendy house (noun)

Plaything consisting of a small model of a house that children can play inside of.

- The article explained what “wendy house” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “wendy house” to mean plaything consisting of a small model of a house....

---

zoom (noun)

The act of rising upward into the air.

- The article explained what “zoom” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “zoom” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

apollo (noun)

(Greek mythology) Greek god of light; god of prophecy and poetry and music and healing; son of Zeus and Leto; twin brother of Artemis.

- They discussed “apollo” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “apollo” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

athletics (noun)

An active diversion requiring physical exertion and competition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "athletics."
- Understanding "athletics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

balloon bomb (noun)

A bomb carried by a balloon.

- In World War II the Japanese launched balloon bombs against North America.
- The article explained what "balloon bomb" means with a simple example.

batting average (noun)

(an extension of the baseball term) the proportion of times some effort succeeds.

- The salesman's batting average was 7 out of 12.
- Ted Williams once had a batting average above .400.

biological warfare defense (noun)

Defense against biological warfare.

- The article explained what "biological warfare defense" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "biological warfare defense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

civil censorship (noun)

Military censorship of civilian communications (correspondence or printed matter of films) entering or leaving of circulating within territories controlled by armed forces.

- The article explained what "civil censorship" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "civil censorship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

close shave (noun)

Something achieved (or escaped) by a narrow margin.

- The article explained what "close shave" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "close shave" to mean something achieved (or escaped) by a narrow margin.

commissions (noun)

A special assignment that is given to a person or group.

- He looked up "commissions" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "commissions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

false imprisonment (noun)

(law) confinement without legal authority.

- In class, the teacher used "false imprisonment" to mean (law) confinement without legal authority.
- He looked up "false imprisonment" because he had never seen it before.

globally (adverb)

Throughout the world.

- This is globally significant.
- She spoke "globally," and the audience immediately understood her point.

goose step (noun)

A manner of marching with legs straight and swinging high.

- The article explained what "goose step" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goose step."

horizontal combination (noun)

Absorption into a single firm of several firms involved in the same level of production and sharing resources at that level.

- The article explained what "horizontal combination" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "horizontal combination" to mean absorption into a single firm of several firms....

indianapolis (noun)

The capital and largest city of Indiana; a major commercial center in the country's heartland; site of an annual 500-mile automobile race.

- The article explained what "indianapolis" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "indianapolis" during the group presentation.

---

maiden over (noun)

(cricket) an over in which no runs are scored.

- In class, the teacher used "maiden over" to mean (cricket) an over in which no runs are scored.
- They discussed "maiden over" during the group presentation.

---

manila bay (noun)

A naval battle in the Spanish-American War (1898); the American fleet under Admiral Dewey defeated the Spanish fleet.

- Understanding "manila bay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "manila bay" because he had never seen it before.

---

marching (noun)

The act of marching; walking with regular steps (especially in a procession of some kind).

- We heard the sound of marching.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marching."

---

marketplace (noun)

The world of commercial activity where goods and services are bought and sold.

- They were driven from the marketplace.
- The article explained what "marketplace" means with a simple example.

---

monopoly board (noun)

A board used for playing monopoly.

- They discussed "monopoly board" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "monopoly board" means with a simple example.

---

nominations (noun)

The act of officially naming a candidate.

- They discussed "nominations" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nominations."

---

nonprofit organization (noun)

An organization chartered for other than profit-making activities.

- Understanding "nonprofit organization" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "nonprofit organization" because he had never seen it before.

---

offerings (noun)

The act of contributing to the funds of a church or charity.

- Noteworthy new offerings for investors included several index funds.
- The article explained what "offerings" means with a simple example.

---

pardon (noun)

The act of excusing a mistake or offense.

- Understanding "pardon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pardon" because he had never seen it before.

---

redemption (noun)

The act of purchasing back something previously sold.

- They discussed "redemption" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "redemption."

---

replay (noun)

The immediate rebroadcast of some action (especially sports action) that has been recorded on videotape.

- They discussed "replay" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used “replay” to mean the immediate rebroadcast of some action....

---

revision (noun)

The act of revising or altering (involving reconsideration and modification).

- It would require a drastic revision of his opinion.
- The article explained what “revision” means with a simple example.

---

rocket launching (noun)

The launching of a rocket or missile under its own power.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rocket launching.”
- He looked up “rocket launching” because he had never seen it before.

---

self-renewal (noun)

The act of renewing yourself (or itself).

- The article explained what “self-renewal” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “self-renewal” to mean the act of renewing yourself (or itself).

---

skiing race (noun)

A race between people wearing skis.

- Understanding “skiing race” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “skiing race” means with a simple example.

---

strengthening (noun)

The act of increasing the strength of something.

- He looked up “strengthening” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “strengthening.”

---

strip poker (noun)

Poker in which a player’s losses are paid by removing an article of clothing.

- They discussed “strip poker” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “strip poker.”

---

surge (noun)

A sudden or abrupt strong increase.

- Stimulated a surge of speculation.
- An upsurge of emotion.

---

swan song (noun)

A final performance or effort (especially before retirement).

- In class, the teacher used “swan song” to mean a final performance or effort (especially before....
- He looked up “swan song” because he had never seen it before.

---

teddy bear (noun)

Plaything consisting of a child’s toy bear (usually plush and stuffed with soft materials).

- Understanding “teddy bear” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “teddy bear” to mean plaything consisting of a child’s toy bear (usually....

---

tee off (verb)

Strike a ball from the teeing ground at the start of a hole.

- He did not know how to use “tee off” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “tee off” when talking about this idea.

---

top of the inning (noun)

The first half of an inning; while the visiting team is at bat.

- A relief pitcher took over in the top of the fifth.
- He looked up “top of the inning” because he had never seen it before.

---

verbal creation (noun)

Creating something by the use of speech and language.

- The article explained what "verbal creation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "verbal creation" to mean creating something by the use of speech and language.

---

zoom along (verb)

Move along very quickly.

- Learners should practice how to use "zoom along" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "zoom along" when talking about this idea.

---

advancement (noun)

The act of moving forward (as toward a goal).

- Advancement of knowledge.
- In class, the teacher used "advancement" to mean the act of moving forward (as toward a goal).

---

batting coach (noun)

(baseball) someone who teaches batters how to bat better.

- The article explained what "batting coach" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "batting coach."

---

boycott (noun)

A group's refusal to have commercial dealings with some organization in protest against its policies.

- He looked up "boycott" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "boycott" to mean a group's refusal to have commercial dealings with....

---

cattle breeding (noun)

Breeding cattle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cattle breeding."
- Understanding "cattle breeding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coding (noun)

Act of writing in code or cipher.

- He looked up "coding" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coding."

---

field press censorship (noun)

Security review of news (including all information or material intended for dissemination to the public) subject to the jurisdiction of the armed forces.

- The article explained what "field press censorship" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "field press censorship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

figure skating (noun)

Ice skating where the skates trace outlines of selected figures.

- They discussed "figure skating" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "figure skating" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flee (verb)

Run away quickly.

- The coach explained when to use "flee" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "flee" in real sentences.

---

free pardon (noun)

The formal act of liberating someone.

- Understanding "free pardon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "free pardon" because he had never seen it before.

---

front-porch campaign (noun)

A campaign in which the candidate makes speeches but does not travel.

- William McKinley's dignified front-porch campaign won him the presidency in 1896.
- Her approach was the opposite of a passive front-porch campaign.

---

ice skating (noun)

Skating on ice.

- He looked up "ice skating" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ice skating."

---

infant feeding (noun)

Feeding an infant.

- Understanding "infant feeding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "infant feeding" because he had never seen it before.

---

intro (noun)

A brief introductory passage to a piece of popular music.

- He looked up "intro" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "intro" during the group presentation.

---

john calvin (noun)

Swiss theologian (born in France) whose tenets (predestination and the irresistibility of grace and justification by faith) defined Presbyterianism (1509-1564).

- Understanding "john calvin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "john calvin" to mean swiss theologian (born in france) whose tenets....

---

lace making (noun)

The act or art of making handmade lace.

- In class, the teacher used "lace making" to mean the act or art of making handmade lace.
- They discussed "lace making" during the group presentation.

---

lindsay (noun)

United States playwright who collaborated with Russel Crouse on several musicals (1889-1931).

- In class, the teacher used "lindsay" to mean united states playwright who collaborated with....
- The article explained what "lindsay" means with a simple example.

---

marching music (noun)

Genre of music written for marching.

- Understanding "marching music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "marching music" means with a simple example.

---

martha graham (noun)

United States dancer and choreographer whose work was noted for its austerity and technical rigor (1893-1991).

- The article explained what "martha graham" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "martha graham" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pilot balloon (noun)

Meteorological balloon used to observe air currents.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pilot balloon."
- The article explained what "pilot balloon" means with a simple example.

---

pitched battle (noun)

A fierce battle fought in close combat between troops in predetermined positions at a chosen time and place.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pitched battle."
- He looked up "pitched battle" because he had never seen it before.

---

possessions (noun)

The act of having and controlling property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "possessions."
- He looked up "possessions" because he had never seen it before.

primary censorship (noun)

Armed forces censorship performed by personnel of a military unit on the personal communications of persons assigned to that unit.

- In class, the teacher used "primary censorship" to mean armed forces censorship performed by personnel of a....
- Understanding "primary censorship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

prompt copy (noun)

The copy of the playscript used by the prompter.

- The article explained what "prompt copy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "prompt copy" to mean the copy of the playscript used by the prompter.

rodgers (noun)

United States composer of musical comedies (especially in collaboration with Oscar Hammerstein II and with Lorenz Hart) (1902-1979).

- Understanding "rodgers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "rodgers" means with a simple example.

set decoration (noun)

A decoration used as part of the set of a theatrical or movie production.

- In class, the teacher used "set decoration" to mean a decoration used as part of the set of a....
- They discussed "set decoration" during the group presentation.

shawn (noun)

United States dancer and choreographer who collaborated with Ruth Saint Denis (1891-1972).

- They discussed "shawn" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "shawn" means with a simple example.

solo homer (noun)

A home run with no runners on base.

- Understanding "solo homer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solo homer."

speed skating (noun)

Competitive skating on speed skates (usually around an oval course).

- In class, the teacher used "speed skating" to mean competitive skating on speed skates (usually around....
- The article explained what "speed skating" means with a simple example.

spoil (noun)

The act of spoiling something by causing damage to it.

- Her spoiling my dress was deliberate.
- To the victor belong the spoils of the enemy.

submarine (verb)

Move forward or under in a sliding motion.

- The child was injured when he submarined under the safety belt of the car.
- The Germans submarined the Allies.

tap dancer (noun)

A dancer who sounds out rhythms by using metal taps on the toes and heels of the shoes.

- In class, the teacher used "tap dancer" to mean a dancer who sounds out rhythms by using metal taps....
- They discussed "tap dancer" during the group presentation.

taxation (noun)

The imposition of taxes; the practice of the government in levying taxes on the subjects of a state.

- Understanding "taxation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "taxation" during the group presentation.

women's liberation movement (noun)

The movement aimed at equal rights for women.

- Understanding "women's liberation movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "women's liberation movement" means with a simple example.

---

acquiring (noun)

The act of acquiring something.

- I envied his talent for acquiring.
- The article explained what "acquiring" means with a simple example.

---

action replay (noun)

The immediate rebroadcast of some action (especially sports action) that has been recorded on videotape.

- The article explained what "action replay" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "action replay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

airplane landing (noun)

Landing an aircraft.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "airplane landing."
- They discussed "airplane landing" during the group presentation.

---

balancing (noun)

Getting two things to correspond.

- The article explained what "balancing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "balancing."

---

battle of the coral sea (noun)

A Japanese defeat in World War II (May 1942); the first naval battle fought entirely by planes based on aircraft carriers.

- He looked up "battle of the coral sea" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battle of the coral sea."

---

charity toss (noun)

An unhindered basketball shot from the foul line; given to penalize the other team for committing a foul.

- The article explained what "charity toss" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "charity toss" during the group presentation.

---

combo (noun)

A small band of jazz musicians.

- In class, the teacher used "combo" to mean a small band of jazz musicians.
- They discussed "combo" during the group presentation.

---

cross-country skiing (noun)

The sport of skiing across the countryside (rather than downhill).

- In class, the teacher used "cross-country skiing" to mean the sport of skiing across the countryside (rather....
- The article explained what "cross-country skiing" means with a simple example.

---

cruel and unusual punishment (noun)

Punishment prohibited by the 8th amendment to the U.S. Constitution; includes torture or degradation or punishment too severe for the crime committed.

- Understanding "cruel and unusual punishment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cruel and unusual punishment" during the group presentation.

---

desktop publishing (noun)

(computer science) the use of microcomputers with graphics capacity to produce printed materials.

- They discussed "desktop publishing" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "desktop publishing" because he had never seen it before.

---

dive-bombing (noun)

A bombing run in which the bomber releases the bomb while flying straight toward the target.

- The article explained what "dive-bombing" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "dive-bombing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

exhaust system (noun)

System consisting of the parts of an engine through which burned gases or steam are discharged.

- The article explained what "exhaust system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "exhaust system" to mean system consisting of the parts of an engine through....

---

extraction (noun)

The action of taking out something (especially using effort or force).

- The dentist gave her a local anesthetic prior to the extraction.
- The article explained what "extraction" means with a simple example.

---

fatigue duty (noun)

Labor of a nonmilitary kind done by soldiers (cleaning or digging or draining or so on).

- The soldiers were put on fatigue to teach them a lesson.
- They were assigned to kitchen fatigues.

---

football tee (noun)

Support holding a football on end and above the ground preparatory to the kickoff.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "football tee."
- Understanding "football tee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

freestyle (noun)

A race (as in swimming) in which each contestant has a free choice of the style to use.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freestyle."
- They discussed "freestyle" during the group presentation.

---

goose skin (noun)

Reflex erection of hairs of the skin in response to cold or emotional stress or skin irritation.

- Understanding "goose skin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "goose skin" to mean reflex erection of hairs of the skin in response to....

---

greek chorus (noun)

A company of actors who comment (by speaking or singing in unison) on the action in a classical Greek play.

- In class, the teacher used "greek chorus" to mean a company of actors who comment (by speaking or....
- They discussed "greek chorus" during the group presentation.

---

hebrew lesson (noun)

Instruction in the Hebrew language.

- The article explained what "hebrew lesson" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hebrew lesson" to mean instruction in the hebrew language.

---

homicide (noun)

The killing of a human being by another human being.

- In class, the teacher used "homicide" to mean the killing of a human being by another human being.
- The article explained what "homicide" means with a simple example.

---

interstate commerce commission (noun)

A former independent federal agency that supervised and set rates for carriers that transported goods and people between states; was terminated in 1995.

- The article explained what "interstate commerce commission" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "interstate commerce commission."

---

knight bachelor (noun)

A knight of the lowest order; could display only a pennon.

- The article explained what "knight bachelor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "knight bachelor" to mean a knight of the lowest order; could display only a....

---

lecture demonstration (noun)

Presentation of an example of what the lecturer is discoursing about.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lecture demonstration."
- He looked up "lecture demonstration" because he had never seen it before.

---

ops (noun)

(Roman mythology) goddess of abundance and fertility; wife of Saturn; counterpart of Greek Rhea and Cybele of ancient Asia Minor.

- Understanding "ops" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ops" means with a simple example.

---

performer (noun)

An entertainer who performs a dramatic or musical work for an audience.

- In class, the teacher used "performer" to mean an entertainer who performs a dramatic or musical....
- They discussed "performer" during the group presentation.

---

providence (noun)

The guardianship and control exercised by a deity.

- Divine providence.
- The article explained what "providence" means with a simple example.

---

quiz program (noun)

A game show in which contestants answer questions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quiz program."
- They discussed "quiz program" during the group presentation.

---

rivalry (noun)

The act of competing as for profit or a prize.

- The article explained what "rivalry" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rivalry."

---

sausage (noun)

A small nonrigid airship used for observation or as a barrage balloon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sausage."
- He looked up "sausage" because he had never seen it before.

---

stunt flying (noun)

The performance of stunts while in flight in an aircraft.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stunt flying."
- He looked up "stunt flying" because he had never seen it before.

---

swedish massage (noun)

Massage combined with a system of active and passive exercises for the muscles and joints.

- He looked up "swedish massage" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swedish massage."

---

theater of the absurd (noun)

Plays stressing the irrational or illogical aspects of life, usually to show that modern life is pointless.

- Samuel Beckett and Eugene Ionesco have written plays for the theater of the absurd.
- He looked up "theater of the absurd" because he had never seen it before.

---

thorough bass (noun)

A bass part written out in full and accompanied by numbers to indicate the chords to be played.

- They discussed "thorough bass" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "thorough bass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

traced (verb)

Follow, discover, or ascertain the course of development of something.

- We retraced the route we took last summer.
- The hunters traced the deer into the woods.

---

volleyball net (noun)

The high net that separates the two teams and over which the volleyball must pass.

- The article explained what "volleyball net" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "volleyball net."

---

wandering (noun)

Travelling about without any clear destination.

- She followed him in his wanderings and looked after him.
- They discussed "wandering" during the group presentation.

---

yacht race (noun)

A race between crews of people in yachts.

- Understanding "yacht race" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "yacht race" to mean a race between crews of people in yachts.

---

analyses (noun)

A set of techniques for exploring underlying motives and a method of treating various mental disorders; based on the theories of Sigmund Freud.

- In class, the teacher used "analyses" to mean a set of techniques for exploring underlying....
- The article explained what "analyses" means with a simple example.

---

assessments (noun)

The act of judging or assessing a person or situation or event.

- The article explained what "assessments" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "assessments" to mean the act of judging or assessing a person or....

---

ball hawk (noun)

A team athlete who is skilled at stealing or catching the ball.

- In class, the teacher used "ball hawk" to mean a team athlete who is skilled at stealing or....
- Understanding "ball hawk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bottom of the inning (noun)

The second half of an inning; while the home team is at bat.

- Understanding "bottom of the inning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bottom of the inning" because he had never seen it before.

---

client-centered therapy (noun)

A method of psychotherapy developed by Carl Rogers in which the client determines the focus and pace of each session.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "client-centered therapy."
- He looked up "client-centered therapy" because he had never seen it before.

---

compact disc (noun)

A digitally encoded recording on an optical disk that is smaller than a phonograph record; played back by a laser.

- In class, the teacher used "compact disc" to mean a digitally encoded recording on an optical disk....
- The article explained what "compact disc" means with a simple example.

---

comparisons (noun)

The act of examining resemblances.

- He looked up "comparisons" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "comparisons."

---

curb (noun)

The act of restraining power or action or limiting excess.

- Understanding "curb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "curb" means with a simple example.

cyber-terrorism (noun)

An assault on electronic communication networks.

- They discussed "cyber-terrorism" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cyber-terrorism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dances (noun)

An artistic form of nonverbal communication.

- He looked up "dances" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dances" to mean an artistic form of nonverbal communication.

deeds (noun)

Performance of moral or religious acts.

- Salvation by deeds.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deeds."

deliberate defense (noun)

A defense organized before contact is made with the enemy and while time for organization is available; usually includes a fortified zone (with pillboxes) and communication systems.

- The article explained what "deliberate defense" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "deliberate defense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dual scan display (noun)

A type of passive matrix display in which the top and bottom half of the screen are refreshed simultaneously.

- The article explained what "dual scan display" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dual scan display" during the group presentation.

encouragement (noun)

The act of giving hope or support to someone.

- The article explained what "encouragement" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "encouragement" to mean the act of giving hope or support to someone.

fixtures (noun)

The act of putting something in working order again.

- Understanding "fixtures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fixtures" to mean the act of putting something in working order again.

folk dancer (noun)

Someone who does folk dances.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "folk dancer."
- Understanding "folk dancer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

four flush (noun)

The act of bluffing in poker; deception by a false show of confidence in the strength of your cards.

- Understanding "four flush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "four flush" during the group presentation.

goalkeeper (noun)

The soccer or hockey player assigned to protect the goal.

- They discussed "goalkeeper" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "goalkeeper" means with a simple example.

image compression (noun)

The compression of graphics for storage or transmission.

- The article explained what "image compression" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "image compression" to mean the compression of graphics for storage or transmission.

marching band (noun)

A band that marches (as in a parade) and plays music at the same time.

- In class, the teacher used "marching band" to mean a band that marches (as in a parade) and plays....
- They discussed "marching band" during the group presentation.

---

partial verdict (noun)

(criminal law) a finding that the defendant is guilty of some charges but innocent of others.

- He looked up "partial verdict" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "partial verdict" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pitcher (noun)

The position on a baseball team of the player who throws the ball for a batter to try to hit.

- He has played every position except pitcher.
- Our pitcher has a sore arm.

---

playground (noun)

An area where many people go for recreation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "playground."
- He looked up "playground" because he had never seen it before.

---

puppet play (noun)

A show in which the actors are puppets.

- In class, the teacher used "puppet play" to mean a show in which the actors are puppets.
- Understanding "puppet play" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

purse-string operation (noun)

A surgical procedure in which a suture is used to close the cervix in a pregnant woman; is performed when the cervix has failed to retain previous pregnancies.

- Understanding "purse-string operation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purse-string operation."

---

reproduction (noun)

The sexual activity of conceiving and bearing offspring.

- Gutenberg's reproduction of holy texts was far more efficient.
- Understanding "reproduction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roller bearing (noun)

Bearings containing small metal balls.

- In class, the teacher used "roller bearing" to mean bearings containing small metal balls.
- The article explained what "roller bearing" means with a simple example.

---

roman candle (noun)

A cylindrical firework that projects a series of colored balls of fire.

- In class, the teacher used "roman candle" to mean a cylindrical firework that projects a series of....
- They discussed "roman candle" during the group presentation.

---

starving (noun)

The act of depriving of food or subjecting to famine.

- Understanding "starving" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "starving" means with a simple example.

---

steam whistle (noun)

A whistle in which the sound is produced by steam; usually attached to a steam boiler.

- In class, the teacher used "steam whistle" to mean a whistle in which the sound is produced by steam;....
- They discussed "steam whistle" during the group presentation.

---

submarine ball (noun)

A pitch thrown sidearm instead of overhead.

- They discussed "submarine ball" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "submarine ball."

---

sweeping (noun)

The act of cleaning with a broom.

- Understanding "sweeping" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweeping."

---

swinging (noun)

Changing location by moving back and forth.

- In class, the teacher used "swinging" to mean changing location by moving back and forth.
- Understanding "swinging" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tearing down (noun)

Complete destruction of a building.

- In class, the teacher used "tearing down" to mean complete destruction of a building.
- They discussed "tearing down" during the group presentation.

---

very loudly (adverb)

A direction in music; to be played very loudly.

- The narrator describes the scene "very loudly" in the final chapter.
- Place "very loudly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

yard marker (noun)

(football) a marker indicating the yard line.

- Understanding "yard marker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yard marker."

---

babe ruth (noun)

United States professional baseball player famous for hitting home runs (1895-1948).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "babe ruth."
- The article explained what "babe ruth" means with a simple example.

---

blind alley (noun)

(figurative) a course of action that is unproductive and offers no hope of improvement.

- All the clues led the police into blind alleys.
- So far every road that we've been down has turned out to be a blind alley.

---

child neglect (noun)

Failure of caretakers to provide adequate emotional and physical care for a child.

- Understanding "child neglect" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "child neglect."

---

classical ballet (noun)

A style of ballet based on precise conventional steps performed with graceful and flowing movements.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "classical ballet."
- He looked up "classical ballet" because he had never seen it before.

---

compromise verdict (noun)

A verdict resulting from improper compromises between jurors on material issues.

- They discussed "compromise verdict" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "compromise verdict" because he had never seen it before.

---

curb service (noun)

Service provided to customers who remain in their vehicles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "curb service."
- He looked up "curb service" because he had never seen it before.

---

curved shape (noun)

The trace of a point whose direction of motion changes.

- He looked up "curved shape" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "curved shape."

dead-man's float (noun)

A floating position with the face down and arms stretched forward.

- The article explained what "dead-man's float" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dead-man's float" to mean a floating position with the face down and arms....

demonstrations (noun)

A show of military force or preparedness.

- He confused the enemy with feints and demonstrations.
- There were violent demonstrations against the war.

disco (noun)

A public dance hall for dancing to recorded popular music.

- Understanding "disco" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "disco" to mean a public dance hall for dancing to recorded popular....

distraction (noun)

The act of distracting; drawing someone's attention away from something.

- He drives me to distraction.
- In class, the teacher used "distraction" to mean the act of distracting; drawing someone's attention....

dope sheet (noun)

A racing publication giving information on horses and the outcomes of horse races.

- The article explained what "dope sheet" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dope sheet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

idol worship (noun)

The worship of idols; the worship of images that are not God.

- In class, the teacher used "idol worship" to mean the worship of idols; the worship of images that....
- The article explained what "idol worship" means with a simple example.

installations (noun)

The act of installing something (as equipment).

- The article explained what "installations" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "installations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lowering (noun)

The act of causing something to move to a lower level.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lowering."
- Understanding "lowering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

maiden flight (noun)

The first flight of its kind.

- The Stealth bomber made its maiden flight in 1989.
- Understanding "maiden flight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

needle bearing (noun)

Bearings containing small metal balls.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "needle bearing."
- Understanding "needle bearing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

negotiated (verb)

Succeed in passing through, around, or over.

- They negotiated the sale of the house.
- The coach explained when to use "negotiated" and when to wait.

---

negotiating (verb)

Succeed in passing through, around, or over.

- Can you use "negotiating" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "negotiating" when talking about this idea.

---

participant (noun)

A person who participates in or is skilled at some game.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "participant."
- He looked up "participant" because he had never seen it before.

---

pitt (noun)

A British playwright who created the fictional character Sweeney Todd (1799-1855).

- They discussed "pitt" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pitt."

---

prom (noun)

A formal ball held for a school class toward the end of the academic year.

- Understanding "prom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prom."

---

queue (verb)

Form a queue, form a line, stand in line.

- In everyday English, people use "queue" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "queue" in real sentences.

---

queue up (verb)

Form a queue, form a line, stand in line.

- Learners should practice how to use "queue up" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "queue up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

slides (verb)

To pass or move unobtrusively or smoothly.

- She tried to use "slides" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "slides" and when to wait.

---

split-half correlation (noun)

A correlation coefficient calculated between scores on two halves of a test; taken as an indication of the reliability of the test.

- He looked up "split-half correlation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "split-half correlation."

---

stab (noun)

A strong blow with a knife or other sharp pointed instrument.

- One strong stab to the heart killed him.
- She felt a stab of excitement.

---

taxi dancer (noun)

A woman employed to dance with patrons who pay a fee for each dance.

- They discussed "taxi dancer" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "taxi dancer" because he had never seen it before.

---

tensions (noun)

The action of stretching something tight.

- The diplomats' first concern was to reduce international tensions.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tensions."

token economy (noun)

A form of behavior therapy that has been used in some mental institutions; patients are rewarded with tokens for appropriate behavior and the tokens may be cashed in for valued rewards.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "token economy."
- They discussed "token economy" during the group presentation.

trout (noun)

Flesh of any of several primarily freshwater game and food fishes.

- He looked up "trout" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "trout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

upgrades (noun)

The act of improving something (especially machinery) by raising it to a higher grade (as by adding or replacing components).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "upgrades."
- They discussed "upgrades" during the group presentation.

urban renewal (noun)

The clearing and rebuilding and redevelopment of urban slums.

- He looked up "urban renewal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "urban renewal."

worms (verb)

To move in a twisting or contorted motion, (especially when struggling).

- The coach explained when to use "worms" and when to wait.
- Can you use "worms" in a sentence that fits this situation?

biological warfare defence (noun)

Defense against biological warfare.

- They discussed "biological warfare defence" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "biological warfare defence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

branding (noun)

The act of stigmatizing.

- The article explained what "branding" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "branding."

bulletin board (noun)

A board that hangs on a wall; displays announcements.

- They discussed "bulletin board" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bulletin board" means with a simple example.

butterfly stroke (noun)

A swimming stroke in which the arms are thrown forward together out of the water while the feet kick up and down.

- The article explained what "butterfly stroke" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "butterfly stroke" to mean a swimming stroke in which the arms are thrown....

cole porter (noun)

United States composer and lyricist of musical comedies (1891-1946).

- The article explained what "cole porter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cole porter" to mean united states composer and lyricist of musical....

conquest (noun)

Success in mastering something difficult.

- The conquest of space.
- In class, the teacher used "conquest" to mean success in mastering something difficult.

crawl (noun)

A slow mode of locomotion on hands and knees or dragging the body.

- A crawl was all that the injured man could manage.
- The traffic advanced at a crawl.

---

disco music (noun)

Popular dance music (especially in the late 1970s); melodic with a regular bass beat; intended mainly for dancing at discotheques.

- The article explained what "disco music" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disco music."

---

drainage (noun)

Emptying something accomplished by allowing liquid to run out of it.

- They discussed "drainage" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "drainage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

felony (noun)

A serious crime (such as murder or arson).

- They discussed "felony" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "felony" to mean a serious crime (such as murder or arson).

---

geological dating (noun)

Use of chemical analysis to estimate the age of geological specimens.

- They discussed "geological dating" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geological dating."

---

grabbing (verb)

Make a grasping or snatching motion with the hand.

- Learners should practice how to use "grabbing" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "grabbing" until he saw an example.

---

handing over (noun)

The act of passing something to another person.

- They discussed "handing over" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "handing over" means with a simple example.

---

jackie robinson (noun)

United States baseball player; first Black to play in the major leagues (1919-1972).

- The article explained what "jackie robinson" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jackie robinson" to mean united states baseball player; first black to play....

---

kidnapping (noun)

(law) the unlawful act of capturing and carrying away a person against their will and holding them in false imprisonment.

- They discussed "kidnapping" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "kidnapping" because he had never seen it before.

---

ky (noun)

A state in east central United States; a border state during the American Civil War; famous for breeding race horses.

- In class, the teacher used "ky" to mean a state in east central united states; a border....
- They discussed "ky" during the group presentation.

---

medicines (noun)

The learned profession that is mastered by graduate training in a medical school and that is devoted to preventing or alleviating or curing diseases and injuries.

- The article explained what "medicines" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "medicines" during the group presentation.

---

napoleon (noun)

A card game similar to whist; usually played for stakes.

- Understanding "napoleon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "napoleon" to mean a card game similar to whist; usually played for stakes.

---

pads (verb)

Walk heavily and firmly, as when weary, or through mud.

- The coach explained when to use "pads" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "pads" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

physician-assisted suicide (noun)

Assisted suicide where the assistant is a physician.

- They discussed "physician-assisted suicide" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "physician-assisted suicide" because he had never seen it before.

---

playground ball (noun)

Ball used in playing softball.

- In class, the teacher used "playground ball" to mean ball used in playing softball.
- The article explained what "playground ball" means with a simple example.

---

polo (noun)

A game similar to field hockey but played on horseback using long-handled mallets and a wooden ball.

- He looked up "polo" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "polo" to mean a game similar to field hockey but played on....

---

regulatory offence (noun)

Crimes created by statutes and not by common law.

- In class, the teacher used "regulatory offence" to mean crimes created by statutes and not by common law.
- Understanding "regulatory offence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

repaired (verb)

Move, travel, or proceed toward some place.

- He repaired to his cabin in the woods.
- She repaired her TV set.

---

richard rodgers (noun)

United States composer of musical comedies (especially in collaboration with Oscar Hammerstein II and with Lorenz Hart) (1902-1979).

- They discussed "richard rodgers" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "richard rodgers" to mean united states composer of musical comedies....

---

risky venture (noun)

A wild and exciting undertaking (not necessarily lawful).

- The article explained what "risky venture" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "risky venture" to mean a wild and exciting undertaking (not necessarily....

---

secondary censorship (noun)

Armed forces censorship of the personal communications of officers or civilian employees or enlisted personnel not subject to primary censorship.

- He looked up "secondary censorship" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "secondary censorship" during the group presentation.

---

seminar (noun)

A course offered for a small group of advanced students.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seminar."
- Understanding "seminar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sound reproduction (noun)

The reproduction of sound.

- They discussed "sound reproduction" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sound reproduction" means with a simple example.

---

starting pitcher (noun)

(baseball) a pitcher who starts in a baseball game.

- The article explained what "starting pitcher" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "starting pitcher" to mean (baseball) a pitcher who starts in a baseball game.

---

starting stall (noun)

A movable barrier on the starting line of a race course.

- In class, the teacher used "starting stall" to mean a movable barrier on the starting line of a race course.
- He looked up "starting stall" because he had never seen it before.

---

sting operation (noun)

A complicated confidence game planned and executed with great care (especially an operation implemented by undercover agents to apprehend criminals).

- He looked up "sting operation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sting operation."

---

undercover work (noun)

The act of keeping a secret watch for intelligence purposes.

- Understanding "undercover work" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "undercover work" means with a simple example.

---

very softly (adverb)

A direction in music; to be played very softly.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "very softly" naturally.
- The narrator describes the scene "very softly" in the final chapter.

---

worm (verb)

To move in a twisting or contorted motion, (especially when struggling).

- In everyday English, people use "worm" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "worm" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

admissions (noun)

The act of admitting someone to enter.

- Understanding "admissions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "admissions" during the group presentation.

---

brass monkey (noun)

A metal stand that formerly held cannon balls on sailing ships.

- In class, the teacher used "brass monkey" to mean a metal stand that formerly held cannon balls on....
- Understanding "brass monkey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brewing (noun)

The production of malt beverages (as beer or ale) from malt and hops by grinding and boiling them and fermenting the result with yeast.

- In class, the teacher used "brewing" to mean the production of malt beverages (as beer or ale)....
- Understanding "brewing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cancellation (noun)

The act of cancelling; calling off some arrangement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cancellation."
- Understanding "cancellation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chop shot (noun)

A tennis return made with a downward motion that puts backspin on the ball.

- He looked up "chop shot" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chop shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cliff diving (noun)

Diving into the water from a steep overhanging cliff.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cliff diving."
- They discussed "cliff diving" during the group presentation.

---

closing curtain (noun)

The concluding part of any performance.

- They discussed "closing curtain" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "closing curtain" because he had never seen it before.

---

corps de ballet (noun)

The chorus of a ballet company.

- He looked up "corps de ballet" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "corps de ballet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crab (noun)

A stroke of the oar that either misses the water or digs too deeply.

- He caught a crab and lost the race.
- In class, the teacher used "crab" to mean a stroke of the oar that either misses the water or....

---

cruelty (noun)

A cruel act; a deliberate infliction of pain and suffering.

- Understanding "cruelty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cruelty."

---

designation (noun)

The act of putting a person into a non-elective position.

- The article explained what "designation" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "designation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

edward vii (noun)

King of England from 1901 to 1910; son of Victoria and Prince Albert; famous for his elegant sporting ways (1841-1910).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edward vii."
- Understanding "edward vii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

extinction (noun)

The act of extinguishing; causing to stop burning.

- The extinction of the lights.
- The extinction of the volcano.

---

front crawl (noun)

A swimming stroke; arms are moved alternately overhead accompanied by a flutter kick.

- In class, the teacher used "front crawl" to mean a swimming stroke; arms are moved alternately....
- He looked up "front crawl" because he had never seen it before.

---

genetic counseling (noun)

Guidance for prospective parents on the likelihood of genetic disorders in their future children.

- He looked up "genetic counseling" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "genetic counseling" during the group presentation.

---

george pitt (noun)

A British playwright who created the fictional character Sweeney Todd (1799-1855).

- He looked up "george pitt" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "george pitt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

issuing (noun)

The act of providing an item for general use or for official purposes (usually in quantity).

- Understanding "issuing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "issuing" to mean the act of providing an item for general use or for....

locking (noun)

The act of locking something up to protect it.

- They discussed "locking" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "locking" to mean the act of locking something up to protect it.

logging (noun)

The work of cutting down trees for timber.

- They discussed "logging" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "logging" to mean the work of cutting down trees for timber.

medications (noun)

The act of treating with medicines or remedies.

- He looked up "medications" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medications."

morris dancer (noun)

Someone who does a morris dance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morris dancer."
- Understanding "morris dancer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

naval tactical data system (noun)

A shipboard system for collecting and displaying tactical data.

- In class, the teacher used "naval tactical data system" to mean a shipboard system for collecting and displaying....
- Understanding "naval tactical data system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pinch (noun)

The act of apprehending (especially apprehending a criminal).

- The pinch of the recession.
- Understanding "pinch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

racial immunity (noun)

Natural immunity shared by all members of a particular race.

- Understanding "racial immunity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "racial immunity" because he had never seen it before.

rebounds (noun)

A reaction to a crisis or setback or frustration.

- Understanding "rebounds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rebounds."

recycling (noun)

The act of processing used or abandoned materials for use in creating new products.

- In class, the teacher used "recycling" to mean the act of processing used or abandoned materials....
- Understanding "recycling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

resurrection (noun)

A revival from inactivity and disuse.

- It produced a resurrection of hope.
- The article explained what "resurrection" means with a simple example.

screen font (noun)

The font that is displayed on a computer screen.

- When the screen font resembles a printed font a document may look approximately the same on the screen as it will when printed.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "screen font."

shipment (noun)

The act of sending off something.

- Understanding “shipment” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “shipment” during the group presentation.

---

side-wheeler (noun)

A paddle steamer having a paddle wheel on each side.

- Understanding “side-wheeler” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “side-wheeler” because he had never seen it before.

---

sparks (noun)

A small but noticeable trace of some quality that might become stronger.

- In class, the teacher used “sparks” to mean a small but noticeable trace of some quality that....
- Understanding “sparks” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

surf fishing (noun)

Casting (artificial) bait far out into the ocean (up to 200 yards) with the waves breaking around you.

- In class, the teacher used “surf fishing” to mean casting (artificial) bait far out into the ocean....
- The article explained what “surf fishing” means with a simple example.

---

t’ai chi (noun)

A Chinese system of slow meditative physical exercise designed for relaxation and balance and health.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “t’ai chi.”
- The article explained what “t’ai chi” means with a simple example.

---

tackles (noun)

The person who plays that position on a football team.

- They discussed “tackles” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “tackles” to mean the person who plays that position on a football team.

---

teachings (noun)

The activities of educating or instructing; activities that impart knowledge or skill.

- The teachings of religion.
- Understanding “teachings” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tones (noun)

A notation representing the pitch and duration of a musical sound.

- The Beijing dialect uses four tones.
- The muffled tones of the broken bell summoned them to meet.

---

transplant (noun)

An operation moving an organ from one organism (the donor) to another (the recipient).

- He had a kidney transplant.
- The long-term results of cardiac transplantation are now excellent.

---

twitch (verb)

Make an uncontrolled, short, jerky motion.

- His face is twitching.
- He did not know how to use “twitch” until he saw an example.

---

water polo (noun)

A game played in a swimming pool by two teams of swimmers who try to throw an inflated ball into the opponents’ goal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “water polo.”
- Understanding “water polo” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

weddings (noun)

The act of marrying; the nuptial ceremony.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “weddings.”

- He looked up "weddings" because he had never seen it before.

---

armed forces censorship (noun)

Military censorship of personal communications to or from persons in the armed forces.

- The article explained what "armed forces censorship" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "armed forces censorship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beating-reed instrument (noun)

A musical instrument that sounds by means of a vibrating reed.

- Understanding "beating-reed instrument" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beating-reed instrument."

---

blessings (noun)

The formal act of approving.

- Enjoy the blessings of peace.
- He looked up "blessings" because he had never seen it before.

---

borrowing (noun)

The appropriation (of ideas or words etc) from another source.

- The borrowing of ancient motifs was very apparent.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "borrowing."

---

bowls (noun)

A bowling game played on a level lawn with biased wooden balls that are rolled at a jack.

- They discussed "bowls" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bowls" because he had never seen it before.

---

dramatic irony (noun)

(theater) irony that occurs when the meaning of the situation is understood by the audience but not by the characters in the play.

- Understanding "dramatic irony" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dramatic irony" to mean (theater) irony that occurs when the meaning of the....

---

embraced (verb)

Squeeze (someone) tightly in your arms, usually with fondness.

- They embraced.
- She embraced Catholicism.

---

golf tee (noun)

A short peg put into the ground to hold a golf ball off the ground.

- In class, the teacher used "golf tee" to mean a short peg put into the ground to hold a golf ball....
- The article explained what "golf tee" means with a simple example.

---

gore (noun)

The shedding of blood resulting in murder.

- The article explained what "gore" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gore" to mean the shedding of blood resulting in murder.

---

interior decoration (noun)

The trade of planning the layout and furnishings of an architectural interior.

- He looked up "interior decoration" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "interior decoration" to mean the trade of planning the layout and furnishings of....

---

john webster (noun)

English playwright (1580-1625).

- The article explained what "john webster" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john webster."

---

knife thrust (noun)

A strong blow with a knife or other sharp pointed instrument.

- The article explained what "knife thrust" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "knife thrust" to mean a strong blow with a knife or other sharp pointed....

---

lateral (noun)

A pass to a receiver upfield from the passer.

- The article explained what "lateral" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lateral" to mean a pass to a receiver upfield from the passer.

---

majors (noun)

The most important league in any sport (especially baseball).

- He looked up "majors" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "majors" to mean the most important league in any sport (especially....

---

musical instrument digital interface (noun)

A standard protocol for communication between electronic musical instruments and computers.

- Understanding "musical instrument digital interface" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "musical instrument digital interface" means with a simple example.

---

noises (noun)

The auditory experience of sound that lacks musical quality; sound that is a disagreeable auditory experience.

- He enjoyed the street noises.
- They heard indistinct noises of people talking.

---

pitching (noun)

Abrupt up-and-down motion (as caused by a ship or other conveyance).

- The pitching and tossing was quite exciting.
- Understanding "pitching" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pleasing (noun)

The act of one who pleases.

- They discussed "pleasing" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pleasing" because he had never seen it before.

---

poison pill (noun)

The target company defends itself by making its stock less attractive to an acquirer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poison pill."
- They discussed "poison pill" during the group presentation.

---

polo ball (noun)

Wooden ball that is struck with mallets in playing polo.

- The article explained what "polo ball" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "polo ball" during the group presentation.

---

rank-order correlation (noun)

The most commonly used method of computing a correlation coefficient between the ranks of scores on two variables.

- They discussed "rank-order correlation" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rank-order correlation" because he had never seen it before.

---

resorts (verb)

Move, travel, or proceed toward some place.

- Learners should practice how to use "resorts" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "resorts" when talking about this idea.

---

robbery conviction (noun)

Conviction for robbery.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robbery conviction."
- He looked up "robbery conviction" because he had never seen it before.

---

sampling (noun)

(statistics) the selection of a suitable sample for study.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sampling."
- They discussed "sampling" during the group presentation.

---

sexual reproduction (noun)

Reproduction involving the union or fusion of a male and a female gamete.

- Understanding "sexual reproduction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sexual reproduction" to mean reproduction involving the union or fusion of a....

---

siege of orleans (noun)

A long siege of Orleans by the English was relieved by Joan of Arc in 1429.

- He looked up "siege of orleans" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "siege of orleans."

---

supplying (noun)

The activity of supplying or providing something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supplying."
- He looked up "supplying" because he had never seen it before.

---

sympathetic strike (noun)

A strike in support of other workers who are on strike; a strike not resulting from direct grievances against the workers' employer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sympathetic strike."
- He looked up "sympathetic strike" because he had never seen it before.

---

tossed (verb)

Lightly throw to see which side comes up.

- The coach explained when to use "tossed" and when to wait.
- Can you use "tossed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

trash pickup (noun)

The collection and removal of garbage.

- In class, the teacher used "trash pickup" to mean the collection and removal of garbage.
- Understanding "trash pickup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tray (noun)

An open receptacle for holding or displaying or serving articles or food.

- He looked up "tray" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tray."

---

turf war (noun)

A bitter struggle for territory or power or control or rights.

- A turf war erupted between street gangs.
- The president's resignation was the result of a turf war with the board of directors.

---

allocation (noun)

The act of distributing by allotting or apportioning; distribution according to a plan.

- In class, the teacher used "allocation" to mean the act of distributing by allotting or....
- He looked up "allocation" because he had never seen it before.

---

australian crawl (noun)

A swimming stroke; arms are moved alternately overhead accompanied by a flutter kick.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "australian crawl."
- He looked up "australian crawl" because he had never seen it before.

belly dancer (noun)

A woman who performs a solo belly dance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "belly dancer."
- They discussed "belly dancer" during the group presentation.

deliberate defence (noun)

A defense organized before contact is made with the enemy and while time for organization is available; usually includes a fortified zone (with pillboxes) and communication systems.

- They discussed "deliberate defence" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "deliberate defence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

descended (verb)

Move downward and lower, but not necessarily all the way.

- She was descended from an old Italian noble family.
- In everyday English, people use "descended" when talking about this idea.

diagnostic technique (noun)

A procedure followed in making a medical diagnosis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diagnostic technique."
- They discussed "diagnostic technique" during the group presentation.

disappearance (noun)

The act of leaving secretly or without explanation.

- He regretted the disappearance of Greek from school curricula.
- What was responsible for the disappearance of the rainforest?

equals (verb)

Make equal, uniform, corresponding, or matching.

- One dollar equals 1,000 rubles these days!
- In everyday English, people use "equals" when talking about this idea.

evacuation (noun)

The act of removing the contents of something.

- The article explained what "evacuation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "evacuation" to mean the act of removing the contents of something.

expenditure (noun)

The act of spending money for goods or services.

- The article explained what "expenditure" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "expenditure."

gambling den (noun)

A public building in which a variety of games of chance can be played (operated as a business).

- In class, the teacher used "gambling den" to mean a public building in which a variety of games of....
- The article explained what "gambling den" means with a simple example.

groove (noun)

A settled and monotonous routine that is hard to escape.

- He looked up "groove" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "groove."

gym mat (noun)

Sports equipment consisting of a piece of thick padding on the floor for gymnastic sports.

- The article explained what "gym mat" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gym mat."

homosexuality (noun)

A sexual attraction to (or sexual relations with) persons of the same sex.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "homosexuality."
- He looked up "homosexuality" because he had never seen it before.

---

ill-bred (adjective)

(of persons) lacking in refinement or grace.

- A "ill-bred" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ill-bred."

---

interventions (noun)

The act of intervening (as to mediate a dispute, etc.).

- He looked up "interventions" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "interventions" to mean the act of intervening (as to mediate a dispute, etc.).

---

invaded (verb)

To intrude upon, infringe, encroach on, violate.

- Hitler invaded Poland on September 1, 1939.
- The cancer had invaded her lungs.

---

jewellery (noun)

An adornment (as a bracelet or ring or necklace) made of precious metals and set with gems (or imitation gems).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jewellery."
- They discussed "jewellery" during the group presentation.

---

kisses (noun)

The act of caressing with the lips (or an instance thereof).

- He looked up "kisses" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kisses."

---

last supper (noun)

The traditional Passover supper of Jesus with his disciples on the eve of his crucifixion.

- They discussed "last supper" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "last supper."

---

medicaid (noun)

Health care for the needy; a federally and state-funded program.

- In class, the teacher used "medicaid" to mean health care for the needy; a federally and....
- The article explained what "medicaid" means with a simple example.

---

mortal sin (noun)

An unpardonable sin entailing a total loss of grace.

- Theologians list seven mortal sins.
- The article explained what "mortal sin" means with a simple example.

---

mortar fire (noun)

Artillery fire delivered by a mortar.

- They discussed "mortar fire" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mortar fire" means with a simple example.

---

neglect of duty (noun)

(law) breach of a duty.

- They discussed "neglect of duty" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neglect of duty."

---

nod off (verb)

Change from a waking to a sleeping state.

- She tried to use "nod off" carefully so everyone would understand.

- In everyday English, people use "nod off" when talking about this idea.

oscar robertson (noun)

United States basketball guard (born in 1938).

- He looked up "oscar robertson" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oscar robertson."

philippine sea (noun)

A naval battle in World War II (1944); a decisive naval victory for the United States fleet over the Japanese who were trying to block supplies from reaching American troops on Leyte.

- The article explained what "philippine sea" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "philippine sea" to mean a naval battle in world war ii (1944); a decisive....

pitching change (noun)

Replacing a pitcher in baseball.

- In class, the teacher used "pitching change" to mean replacing a pitcher in baseball.
- Understanding "pitching change" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

renovation (noun)

The act of improving by renewing and restoring.

- They are pursuing a general program of renovation to the entire property.
- The inn was a renovation of a Colonial house.

ride herd (verb)

Driving animals such as horses and cattle while riding along with them.

- Joe was riding herd during the day.
- Can you use "ride herd" in a sentence that fits this situation?

scrutiny (noun)

The act of examining something closely (as for mistakes).

- The article explained what "scrutiny" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scrutiny."

skate (noun)

Sports equipment that is worn on the feet to enable the wearer to glide along and to be propelled by the alternate actions of the legs.

- Understanding "skate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skate."

storyline (noun)

The plot of a book or play or film.

- They discussed "storyline" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "storyline" because he had never seen it before.

stray (verb)

Wander from a direct course or at random.

- The child strayed from the path and her parents lost sight of her.
- He did not know how to use "stray" until he saw an example.

summary judgement (noun)

A judgment rendered by the court prior to a verdict because no material issue of fact exists and one party or the other is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "summary judgement."
- The article explained what "summary judgement" means with a simple example.

traction engine (noun)

Steam-powered locomotive for drawing heavy loads along surfaces other than tracks.

- In class, the teacher used "traction engine" to mean steam-powered locomotive for drawing heavy loads....
- Understanding "traction engine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

undercover operation (noun)

An operation involving secret work within a community or institution.

- In class, the teacher used "undercover operation" to mean an operation involving secret work within a....
- The article explained what "undercover operation" means with a simple example.

---

uprising (noun)

Organized opposition to authority; a conflict in which one faction tries to wrest control from another.

- They discussed "uprising" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "uprising" because he had never seen it before.

---

violin (noun)

Bowed stringed instrument that is the highest member of the violin family; this instrument has four strings and a hollow body and an unfretted fingerboard and is played with a bow.

- The article explained what "violin" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "violin."

---

william christopher handy (noun)

United States blues musician who transcribed and published traditional blues music (1873-1958).

- He looked up "william christopher handy" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "william christopher handy" to mean united states blues musician who transcribed and....

---

auto-da-fe (noun)

The burning to death of heretics (as during the Spanish Inquisition).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "auto-da-fe."
- Understanding "auto-da-fe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ball gown (noun)

The most formal gown; worn to a ball.

- He looked up "ball gown" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ball gown" during the group presentation.

---

bidding contest (noun)

A series of competing bids.

- The article explained what "bidding contest" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bidding contest" to mean a series of competing bids.

---

blink (noun)

A reflex that closes and opens the eyes rapidly.

- In class, the teacher used "blink" to mean a reflex that closes and opens the eyes rapidly.
- They discussed "blink" during the group presentation.

---

compact disk (noun)

A digitally encoded recording on an optical disk that is smaller than a phonograph record; played back by a laser.

- Understanding "compact disk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "compact disk" during the group presentation.

---

confession of judgment (noun)

A judgment entered after a written confession by the debtor without the expense of ordinary legal proceedings.

- He looked up "confession of judgment" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "confession of judgment."

---

contempt of court (noun)

Disrespect for the rules of a court of law.

- He looked up "contempt of court" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "contempt of court."

---

contention (noun)

The act of competing as for profit or a prize.

- The teams were in fierce contention for first place.
- The article explained what "contention" means with a simple example.

---

crafts (noun)

The skilled practice of a practical occupation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crafts."
- He looked up "crafts" because he had never seen it before.

---

cue ball (noun)

The ball that the billiard player or pool player strikes with his cue.

- He looked up "cue ball" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cue ball."

---

devotion (noun)

(usually plural) religious observance or prayers (usually spoken silently).

- He returned to his devotions.
- Their devotion to each other was beautiful.

---

diagnostic procedure (noun)

A procedure followed in making a medical diagnosis.

- He looked up "diagnostic procedure" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "diagnostic procedure" to mean a procedure followed in making a medical diagnosis.

---

discoveries (noun)

The act of discovering something.

- Understanding "discoveries" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "discoveries" because he had never seen it before.

---

disgrace (verb)

Reduce in worth or character, usually verbally.

- Learners should practice how to use "disgrace" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "disgrace" when talking about this idea.

---

exercising (noun)

The activity of exerting your muscles in various ways to keep fit.

- He did some exercising.
- They discussed "exercising" during the group presentation.

---

george bernard shaw (noun)

British playwright (born in Ireland); founder of the Fabian Society (1856-1950).

- In class, the teacher used "george bernard shaw" to mean british playwright (born in ireland); founder of....
- The article explained what "george bernard shaw" means with a simple example.

---

glove (noun)

The handwear used by fielders in playing baseball.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "glove."
- Understanding "glove" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grabs (noun)

The act of catching an object with the hands.

- They discussed "grabs" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grabs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grand prix (noun)

One of several international races.

- They discussed "grand prix" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grand prix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

great revolt (noun)

A widespread rebellion in 1381 against poll taxes and other inequities that oppressed the poorer people of England; suppressed by Richard II.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great revolt."
- Understanding "great revolt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

greed (noun)

Reprehensible acquisitiveness; insatiable desire for wealth (personified as one of the deadly sins).

- The article explained what "greed" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "greed" to mean reprehensible acquisitiveness; insatiable desire....

grind organ (noun)

A musical instrument that makes music by rotation of a cylinder studded with pegs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grind organ."
- They discussed "grind organ" during the group presentation.

horizontal integration (noun)

Absorption into a single firm of several firms involved in the same level of production and sharing resources at that level.

- Understanding "horizontal integration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "horizontal integration" means with a simple example.

hostile expedition (noun)

A military campaign designed to achieve a specific objective in a foreign country.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hostile expedition."
- He looked up "hostile expedition" because he had never seen it before.

howard lindsay (noun)

United States playwright who collaborated with Russel Crouse on several musicals (1889-1931).

- They discussed "howard lindsay" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "howard lindsay" to mean united states playwright who collaborated with....

innovations (noun)

The act of starting something for the first time; introducing something new.

- Understanding "innovations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "innovations" means with a simple example.

ko (noun)

A blow that renders the opponent unconscious.

- Understanding "ko" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ko" means with a simple example.

lateral pass (noun)

A pass to a receiver upfield from the passer.

- In class, the teacher used "lateral pass" to mean a pass to a receiver upfield from the passer.
- He looked up "lateral pass" because he had never seen it before.

laugh loudly (verb)

Laugh boisterously.

- She tried to use "laugh loudly" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "laugh loudly" in a sentence that fits this situation?

lease-lend (noun)

The transfer of goods and services to an ally to aid in a common cause.

- Understanding "lease-lend" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lease-lend."

lend-lease (noun)

The transfer of goods and services to an ally to aid in a common cause.

- Lend-lease during World War II was extremely generous.
- Understanding "lend-lease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oriental (noun)

A member of an Oriental race; the term is regarded as offensive by Asians (especially by Asian Americans).

- He looked up "oriental" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "oriental" to mean a member of an oriental race; the term is regarded....

---

polo stick (noun)

A mallet used to strike the ball in polo.

- Understanding "polo stick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polo stick."

---

positioning (noun)

The act of putting something in a certain place.

- The article explained what "positioning" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "positioning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rank-difference correlation (noun)

The most commonly used method of computing a correlation coefficient between the ranks of scores on two variables.

- Understanding "rank-difference correlation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rank-difference correlation."

---

ruining (noun)

Destruction achieved by causing something to be wrecked or ruined.

- Understanding "ruining" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ruining" because he had never seen it before.

---

sexual conquest (noun)

A seduction culminating in sexual intercourse.

- In class, the teacher used "sexual conquest" to mean a seduction culminating in sexual intercourse.
- He looked up "sexual conquest" because he had never seen it before.

---

shrink back (verb)

Pull away from a source of disgust or fear.

- She tried to use "shrink back" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "shrink back" when talking about this idea.

---

starters (noun)

A culture containing yeast or bacteria that is used to start the process of fermentation or souring in making butter or cheese or dough.

- In class, the teacher used "starters" to mean a culture containing yeast or bacteria that is used....
- They discussed "starters" during the group presentation.

---

violin family (noun)

(music) the family of bowed stringed instruments.

- They discussed "violin family" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "violin family" because he had never seen it before.

---

apparel (verb)

Provide with clothes or put clothes on.

- In everyday English, people use "apparel" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "apparel" in real sentences.

---

arbitration (noun)

The act of deciding as an arbiter; giving authoritative judgment.

- They submitted their disagreement to arbitration.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “arbitration.”

---

awakening (noun)

The act of waking.

- It was an early awakening.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “awakening.”

---

back brace (noun)

A brace worn to support the back.

- In class, the teacher used “back brace” to mean a brace worn to support the back.
- He looked up “back brace” because he had never seen it before.

---

behavior modification (noun)

Psychotherapy that seeks to extinguish or inhibit abnormal or maladaptive behavior by reinforcing desired behavior and extinguishing undesired behavior.

- Understanding “behavior modification” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “behavior modification” to mean psychotherapy that seeks to extinguish or inhibit....

---

blink away (verb)

Force to go away by blinking.

- Blink away tears.
- The coach explained when to use “blink away” and when to wait.

---

brace (noun)

A support that steadies or strengthens something else.

- He wore a brace on his knee.
- They discussed “brace” during the group presentation.

---

brace up (verb)

Make secure underneath.

- She tried to use “brace up” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “brace up” in real sentences.

---

clicks (noun)

Depression of a button on a computer mouse.

- The article explained what “clicks” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “clicks” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

confrontation (noun)

The act of hostile groups opposing each other.

- The government was not ready for a confrontation with the unions.
- Understanding “confrontation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

default judgement (noun)

A judgment entered in favor of the plaintiff when the defendant defaults (fails to appear in court).

- Understanding “default judgement” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “default judgement.”

---

dismissal (noun)

A judgment disposing of the matter without a trial.

- The article explained what “dismissal” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “dismissal” to mean a judgment disposing of the matter without a trial.

---

ensemble (noun)

A group of musicians playing or singing together.

- A string ensemble.
- The article explained what “ensemble” means with a simple example.

---

gay lib (noun)

The movement aimed at liberating homosexuals from legal or social or economic oppression.

- He looked up "gay lib" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gay lib" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

insulin shock (noun)

The administration of sufficient insulin to induce convulsions and coma.

- In class, the teacher used "insulin shock" to mean the administration of sufficient insulin to induce....
- They discussed "insulin shock" during the group presentation.

---

judgement by default (noun)

A judgment entered in favor of the plaintiff when the defendant defaults (fails to appear in court).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "judgement by default."
- The article explained what "judgement by default" means with a simple example.

---

laugh softly (verb)

Laugh quietly or with restraint.

- The coach explained when to use "laugh softly" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "laugh softly" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

medical evacuation (noun)

The evacuation of persons (usually by air transportation) to a place where they can receive medical care.

- He looked up "medical evacuation" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "medical evacuation" to mean the evacuation of persons (usually by air....

---

oriental person (noun)

A member of an Oriental race; the term is regarded as offensive by Asians (especially by Asian Americans).

- The article explained what "oriental person" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oriental person."

---

persecution (noun)

The act of persecuting (especially on the basis of race or religion).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "persecution."
- Understanding "persecution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pitching coach (noun)

An assistant baseball coach in charge of pitchers.

- He looked up "pitching coach" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pitching coach" during the group presentation.

---

props (noun)

Proper respect.

- I have to give my props to the governor for the way he handled the problem.
- Before every scene he ran down his checklist of props.

---

prostitution (noun)

Offering sexual intercourse for pay.

- He looked up "prostitution" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prostitution."

---

proxy fight (noun)

A measure used by an acquirer to gain control of a takeover target; acquirer tries to persuade other shareholders that the management of the target should be replaced.

- In class, the teacher used "proxy fight" to mean a measure used by an acquirer to gain control of a....
- Understanding "proxy fight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reconciliation (noun)

Getting two things to correspond.

- The reconciliation of his checkbook and the bank statement.
- The article explained what "reconciliation" means with a simple example.

---

relief pitcher (noun)

A pitcher who does not start the game.

- He looked up "relief pitcher" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "relief pitcher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rocking (verb)

Cause to move back and forth.

- The ship was rocking.
- He did not know how to use "rocking" until he saw an example.

---

shaping (noun)

The act of fabricating something in a particular shape.

- Understanding "shaping" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shaping."

---

skinny-dip (noun)

A naked swim.

- He looked up "skinny-dip" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skinny-dip."

---

sponsorship (noun)

The act of sponsoring (either officially or financially).

- In class, the teacher used "sponsorship" to mean the act of sponsoring (either officially or....
- The article explained what "sponsorship" means with a simple example.

---

steals (noun)

A stolen base; an instance in which a base runner advances safely during the delivery of a pitch (without the help of a hit or walk or passed ball or wild pitch).

- He looked up "steals" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "steals" to mean a stolen base; an instance in which a base runner....

---

submarine pitch (noun)

A pitch thrown sidearm instead of overhead.

- He looked up "submarine pitch" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "submarine pitch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

surfing (noun)

The sport of riding a surfboard toward the shore on the crest of a wave.

- He looked up "surfing" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "surfing" during the group presentation.

---

temptation (noun)

The act of influencing by exciting hope or desire.

- He felt the temptation and his will power weakened.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "temptation."

---

torch race (noun)

(ancient Greece) in which a torch is passed from one runner to the next.

- The article explained what "torch race" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "torch race."

---

tow (noun)

The act of hauling something (as a vehicle) by means of a hitch or rope.

- The truck gave him a tow to the garage.
- He looked up "tow" because he had never seen it before.

translations (noun)

The act of changing in form or shape or appearance.

- In class, the teacher used "translations" to mean the act of changing in form or shape or appearance.
- The article explained what "translations" means with a simple example.

undertaking (noun)

Any piece of work that is undertaken or attempted.

- He prepared for great undertakings.
- He looked up "undertaking" because he had never seen it before.

violin section (noun)

The section of an orchestra that plays violins.

- In class, the teacher used "violin section" to mean the section of an orchestra that plays violins.
- The article explained what "violin section" means with a simple example.

airplane mechanics (noun)

The craft of building and repairing airplanes.

- The article explained what "airplane mechanics" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "airplane mechanics" during the group presentation.

analogy (noun)

Drawing a comparison in order to show a similarity in some respect.

- The operation of a computer presents and interesting analogy to the working of the brain.
- The models show by analogy how matter is built up.

audio compact disc (noun)

Compact discs used to reproduce sound (voice and music).

- He looked up "audio compact disc" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "audio compact disc" during the group presentation.

battle of the philippine sea (noun)

A naval battle in World War II (1944); a decisive naval victory for the United States fleet over the Japanese who were trying to block supplies from reaching American troops on Leyte.

- The article explained what "battle of the philippine sea" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "battle of the philippine sea" during the group presentation.

benefit of clergy (noun)

Sanction by a religious rite.

- They are living together without benefit of clergy.
- In class, the teacher used "benefit of clergy" to mean sanction by a religious rite.

bingo (noun)

A game in which numbered balls are drawn at random and players cover the corresponding numbers on their cards.

- They discussed "bingo" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bingo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

brace and bit (noun)

A drill consisting of a bit and a brace to hold and turn it.

- They discussed "brace and bit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brace and bit."

choke hold (noun)

A restraining hold; someone loops the arm around the neck of another person in a tight grip, usually from behind.

- He grabbed the woman in a chokehold, demanded her cash and jewelry, and then fled.
- They discussed "choke hold" during the group presentation.

civil contempt (noun)

A failure to follow a court order that benefits someone else.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "civil contempt."
- Understanding "civil contempt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

consolidation (noun)

The act of combining into an integral whole.

- A consolidation of two corporations.
- After their consolidation the two bills were passed unanimously.

---

contempt of congress (noun)

Deliberate obstruction of the operation of the federal legislative branch.

- The article explained what "contempt of congress" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "contempt of congress" to mean deliberate obstruction of the operation of the....

---

cue stick (noun)

Sports implement consisting of a tapering rod used to strike a cue ball in pool or billiards.

- The article explained what "cue stick" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cue stick" to mean sports implement consisting of a tapering rod used....

---

disruption (noun)

An act of delaying or interrupting the continuity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disruption."
- He looked up "disruption" because he had never seen it before.

---

energetic (adjective)

Possessing or exerting or displaying energy.

- An energetic fund raiser for the college.
- An energetic group of hikers.

---

exercising weight (noun)

Sports equipment used in calisthenic exercises and weightlifting; it is not attached to anything and is raised and lowered by use of the hands and arms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exercising weight."
- He looked up "exercising weight" because he had never seen it before.

---

eye blink (noun)

A reflex that closes and opens the eyes rapidly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eye blink."
- He looked up "eye blink" because he had never seen it before.

---

fee splitting (noun)

Payment (usually by doctors or lawyers) of part of the fee in return for the referral.

- In class, the teacher used "fee splitting" to mean payment (usually by doctors or lawyers) of part of....
- The article explained what "fee splitting" means with a simple example.

---

herb of grace (noun)

European strong-scented perennial herb with grey-green bitter-tasting leaves; an irritant similar to poison ivy.

- Understanding "herb of grace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "herb of grace" means with a simple example.

---

impressions (noun)

An impressionistic portrayal of a person.

- In class, the teacher used "impressions" to mean an impressionistic portrayal of a person.
- He looked up "impressions" because he had never seen it before.

---

insider trading (noun)

Buying or selling corporate stock by a corporate officer or other insider on the basis of information that has not been made public and is supposed to remain confidential.

- The article explained what "insider trading" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "insider trading."

---

installing (noun)

The act of installing something (as equipment).

- The article explained what "installing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "installing."

---

instant replay (noun)

The immediate rebroadcast of some action (especially sports action) that has been recorded on videotape.

- Understanding "instant replay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "instant replay" because he had never seen it before.

---

lawn bowling (noun)

A bowling game played on a level lawn with biased wooden balls that are rolled at a jack.

- Understanding "lawn bowling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lawn bowling" to mean a bowling game played on a level lawn with biased....

---

mouse mat (noun)

A small portable pad that provides traction for the ball of a computer mouse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mouse mat."
- The article explained what "mouse mat" means with a simple example.

---

negro race (noun)

A dark-skinned race.

- He looked up "negro race" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "negro race" to mean a dark-skinned race.

---

peach bell (noun)

Perennial European bellflower with racemose white or blue flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "peach bell" to mean perennial european bellflower with racemose white....
- Understanding "peach bell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

penetration (noun)

The act of entering into or through something.

- The penetration of upper management by women.
- The greater penetration of the new projectiles will result in greater injuries.

---

popcorn ball (noun)

Popcorn combined with a thick sugar or molasses or caramel syrup and formed into balls.

- In class, the teacher used "popcorn ball" to mean popcorn combined with a thick sugar or molasses or....
- He looked up "popcorn ball" because he had never seen it before.

---

posing (noun)

(photography) the act of assuming a certain position (as for a photograph or portrait).

- Understanding "posing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "posing."

---

rebuilding (noun)

Building again.

- They discussed "rebuilding" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rebuilding" because he had never seen it before.

---

russian vine (noun)

Twining perennial vine having racemes of fragrant greenish flowers; western China to Russia.

- The article explained what "russian vine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "russian vine" to mean twining perennial vine having racemes of fragrant....

---

sailed (verb)

Move with sweeping, effortless, gliding motions.

- Shreds of paper sailed through the air.
- We sailed the Atlantic.

---

self-realization (noun)

The fulfillment of your capacities.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-realization."
- The article explained what "self-realization" means with a simple example.

---

shutting (noun)

The act of closing something.

- He looked up "shutting" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "shutting" during the group presentation.

---

slick down (verb)

Give a smooth and glossy appearance.

- Slick one's hair.
- The coach explained when to use "slick down" and when to wait.

---

slick up (verb)

Dress and groom with particular care, as for a special occasion.

- In everyday English, people use "slick up" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "slick up" until he saw an example.

---

spinal tap (noun)

Removal by centesis of fluid from the subarachnoid space of the lumbar region of the spinal cord for diagnostic or therapeutic purposes.

- Understanding "spinal tap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "spinal tap" because he had never seen it before.

---

unfinished business (noun)

Work that is left incomplete.

- The article explained what "unfinished business" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "unfinished business."

---

wild-goose chase (noun)

The fruitless pursuit of something unattainable.

- In class, the teacher used "wild-goose chase" to mean the fruitless pursuit of something unattainable.
- The article explained what "wild-goose chase" means with a simple example.

---

winding (noun)

The act of winding or twisting.

- Understanding "winding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "winding" during the group presentation.

---

wrist pad (noun)

Protective garment consisting of a pad worn by football players.

- He looked up "wrist pad" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wrist pad."

---

bracelet (noun)

A band of cloth or leather or metal links attached to a wristwatch and wrapped around the wrist.

- In class, the teacher used "bracelet" to mean a band of cloth or leather or metal links attached....
- The article explained what "bracelet" means with a simple example.

---

contamination (noun)

The act of contaminating or polluting; including (either intentionally or accidentally) unwanted substances or factors.

- He looked up “contamination” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “contamination” during the group presentation.

---

criminal contempt (noun)

An act of disrespect that impedes the administration of justice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “criminal contempt.”
- He looked up “criminal contempt” because he had never seen it before.

---

fin (verb)

Show the fins above the water while swimming.

- The sharks were finning near the surface.
- He did not know how to use “fin” until he saw an example.

---

ginger rogers (noun)

United States dancer and film actress who partnered with Fred Astaire (1911-1995).

- In class, the teacher used “ginger rogers” to mean united states dancer and film actress who partnered....
- The article explained what “ginger rogers” means with a simple example.

---

haircut (noun)

The act of cutting the hair.

- Understanding “haircut” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “haircut” during the group presentation.

---

hugs (noun)

A tight or amorous embrace.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “hugs.”
- They discussed “hugs” during the group presentation.

---

hustle (verb)

Move or cause to move energetically or busily.

- The secret service agents hustled the speaker out of the amphitheater.
- She hustled a free lunch from the waiter.

---

incomplete abortion (noun)

Termination of pregnancy without expulsion of all of the products of conception.

- He looked up “incomplete abortion” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “incomplete abortion” during the group presentation.

---

insulin shock treatment (noun)

The administration of sufficient insulin to induce convulsions and coma.

- He looked up “insulin shock treatment” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “insulin shock treatment.”

---

jumper (noun)

An athlete who competes at jumping.

- He is one hell of a jumper.
- As the jumper neared the ground he lost control.

---

melting pot (noun)

An environment in which many ideas and races are socially assimilated.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “melting pot.”
- He looked up “melting pot” because he had never seen it before.

---

modelling (noun)

The act of representing something (usually on a smaller scale).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “modelling.”
- He looked up “modelling” because he had never seen it before.

musical interval (noun)

The difference in pitch between two notes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "musical interval."
- Understanding "musical interval" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

obstacle race (noun)

A race in which competitors must negotiate obstacles.

- He looked up "obstacle race" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "obstacle race."

oliver hardy (noun)

United States slapstick comedian who played the pompous and overbearing member of the Laurel and Hardy duo who made many films (1892-1957).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oliver hardy."
- He looked up "oliver hardy" because he had never seen it before.

patrol wagon (noun)

Van used by police to transport prisoners.

- In class, the teacher used "patrol wagon" to mean van used by police to transport prisoners.
- Understanding "patrol wagon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pool cue (noun)

Sports implement consisting of a tapering rod used to strike a cue ball in pool or billiards.

- They discussed "pool cue" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pool cue" because he had never seen it before.

pottery (noun)

The craft of making earthenware.

- They discussed "pottery" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pottery" because he had never seen it before.

prank (noun)

A ludicrous or grotesque act done for fun and amusement.

- In class, the teacher used "prank" to mean a ludicrous or grotesque act done for fun and amusement.
- Understanding "prank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

quantitative analysis (noun)

Chemical analysis to determine the amounts of each element in the substance.

- The article explained what "quantitative analysis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "quantitative analysis" to mean chemical analysis to determine the amounts of each....

recorder player (noun)

Someone who plays the recorder.

- The article explained what "recorder player" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "recorder player" to mean someone who plays the recorder.

residency (noun)

The position of physician who is receiving special training in a hospital (usually after completing an internship).

- In class, the teacher used "residency" to mean the position of physician who is receiving special....
- The article explained what "residency" means with a simple example.

resolutions (noun)

A decision to do something or to behave in a certain manner.

- He always wrote down his New Year's resolutions.
- They discussed "resolutions" during the group presentation.

right-handed pitcher (noun)

(baseball) a pitcher who throws with the right hand.

- Understanding "right-handed pitcher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "right-handed pitcher" during the group presentation.

---

sank (verb)

Pass into a specified state or condition.

- He sank into nirvana.
- He sank to his knees.

---

songwriter (noun)

A composer of words or music for popular songs.

- He looked up "songwriter" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "songwriter."

---

stain (noun)

A symbol of disgrace or infamy; –Genesis.

- The wine left a dark stain.
- The article explained what "stain" means with a simple example.

---

stimulation (noun)

The act of arousing an organism to action.

- The article explained what "stimulation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stimulation" to mean the act of arousing an organism to action.

---

stylish (adjective)

Being or in accordance with current social fashions.

- A little less posh but every bit as stylish as Lord Peter Wimsey.
- The stylish resort of Gstadd.

---

therapeutic abortion (noun)

A legally induced abortion for medical reasons (as when the mother's life is threatened).

- In class, the teacher used "therapeutic abortion" to mean a legally induced abortion for medical reasons (as....
- The article explained what "therapeutic abortion" means with a simple example.

---

varsity (noun)

A team representing a college or university.

- In class, the teacher used "varsity" to mean a team representing a college or university.
- The article explained what "varsity" means with a simple example.

---

whipped (verb)

Thrash about flexibly in the manner of a whiplash.

- The tall grass whipped in the wind.
- The curtain whipped her face.

---

women's lib (noun)

The movement aimed at equal rights for women.

- The article explained what "women's lib" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "women's lib."

---

allegiance (noun)

The act of binding yourself (intellectually or emotionally) to a course of action.

- The article explained what "allegiance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "allegiance" to mean the act of binding yourself (intellectually or....

---

arts and crafts (noun)

The arts of decorative design and handicraft.

- They sponsored arts and crafts in order to encourage craftsmanship in an age of mass production.

- He looked up “arts and crafts” because he had never seen it before.

bali (noun)

An island in Indonesia to the east of Java; striking volcanic scenery; culture is known for elaborate dances and rituals and for handicrafts.

- In class, the teacher used “bali” to mean an island in indonesia to the east of java;....
- They discussed “bali” during the group presentation.

blaze out (verb)

Move rapidly and as if blazing.

- The spaceship blazed out into space.
- She tried to use “blaze out” carefully so everyone would understand.

cornell (noun)

United States actress noted for her performances in Broadway plays (1893-1974).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cornell.”
- Understanding “cornell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

costing (noun)

Cost accounting.

- The article explained what “costing” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “costing” to mean cost accounting.

exodus (noun)

A journey by a large group to escape from a hostile environment.

- He looked up “exodus” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “exodus” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

explosions (noun)

The act of exploding or bursting.

- He looked up “explosions” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “explosions.”

footballer (noun)

An athlete who plays American football.

- He looked up “footballer” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “footballer” during the group presentation.

friction match (noun)

Lighter consisting of a thin piece of wood or cardboard tipped with combustible chemical; ignites with friction.

- He always carries matches to light his pipe.
- The article explained what “friction match” means with a simple example.

garbage pickup (noun)

The collection and removal of garbage.

- They discussed “garbage pickup” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “garbage pickup” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ipod (noun)

(trademark) a pocket-sized device used to play music files.

- Understanding “ipod” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “ipod” means with a simple example.

irrigation (noun)

Supplying dry land with water by means of ditches etc.

- In class, the teacher used “irrigation” to mean supplying dry land with water by means of ditches etc.
- Understanding “irrigation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jack roosevelt robinson (noun)

United States baseball player; first Black to play in the major leagues (1919-1972).

- Understanding "jack roosevelt robinson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "jack roosevelt robinson" during the group presentation.

---

killings (noun)

The act of terminating a life.

- The article explained what "killings" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "killings" to mean the act of terminating a life.

---

left-handed pitcher (noun)

A baseball pitcher who throws the ball with the left hand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "left-handed pitcher."
- The article explained what "left-handed pitcher" means with a simple example.

---

linguistic performance (noun)

(linguistics) a speaker's actual use of language in real situations; what the speaker actually says, including grammatical errors and other non-linguistic features such as hesitations and other disfluencies (contrasted with linguistic competence).

- They discussed "linguistic performance" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "linguistic performance" means with a simple example.

---

minors (noun)

A league of teams that do not belong to a major league (especially baseball).

- He looked up "minors" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "minors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

monte (noun)

A gambling card game of Spanish origin; 3 or 4 cards are dealt face up and players bet that one of them will be matched before the others as the cards are dealt from the pack one at a time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monte."
- The article explained what "monte" means with a simple example.

---

mourning (noun)

The passionate and demonstrative activity of expressing grief.

- The article explained what "mourning" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mourning" to mean the passionate and demonstrative activity of....

---

passive matrix display (noun)

A type of LCD display used for some portable computers; parallel wires run both vertically and horizontally and pixels are turned on when the wires intersecting at that pixel are both energized.

- Passive matrix displays are generally inferior to active matrix displays.
- Understanding "passive matrix display" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

persian gulf war (noun)

A war fought between Iraq and a coalition led by the United States that freed Kuwait from Iraqi invaders; 1990-1991.

- In class, the teacher used "persian gulf war" to mean a war fought between iraq and a coalition led by....
- They discussed "persian gulf war" during the group presentation.

---

persona (noun)

An actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

- He looked up "persona" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "persona."

---

prairie star (noun)

Plant with mostly basal leaves and slender open racemes of white or pale pink flowers; prairies and open forest of northwestern United States to British Columbia and Alberta.

- He looked up "prairie star" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "prairie star" to mean plant with mostly basal leaves and slender open....

---

ralph richardson (noun)

British stage and screen actor noted for playing classic roles (1902-1983).

- He looked up “ralph richardson” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “ralph richardson” during the group presentation.

---

random sampling (noun)

The selection of a random sample; each element of the population has an equal chance of been selected.

- Understanding “random sampling” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “random sampling” during the group presentation.

---

representative sampling (noun)

The population is divided into subpopulations (strata) and random samples are taken of each stratum.

- In class, the teacher used “representative sampling” to mean the population is divided into subpopulations....
- He looked up “representative sampling” because he had never seen it before.

---

royal brace (noun)

A brace to secure the royal mast.

- In class, the teacher used “royal brace” to mean a brace to secure the royal mast.
- He looked up “royal brace” because he had never seen it before.

---

scheduling (noun)

Setting an order and time for planned events.

- In class, the teacher used “scheduling” to mean setting an order and time for planned events.
- He looked up “scheduling” because he had never seen it before.

---

scrub up (verb)

Wash thoroughly.

- Surgeons must scrub prior to an operation.
- Learners should practice how to use “scrub up” in real sentences.

---

self-stimulation (noun)

Manual stimulation of your own genital organ for sexual pleasure.

- In class, the teacher used “self-stimulation” to mean manual stimulation of your own genital organ for....
- Understanding “self-stimulation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shootings (noun)

The act of firing a projectile.

- In class, the teacher used “shootings” to mean the act of firing a projectile.
- Understanding “shootings” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sol (noun)

The syllable naming the fifth (dominant) note of any musical scale in solmization.

- He looked up “sol” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “sol” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

space capsule (noun)

A spacecraft designed to transport people and support human life in outer space.

- The article explained what “space capsule” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “space capsule” during the group presentation.

---

stigma (noun)

A symbol of disgrace or infamy; –Genesis.

- The article explained what “stigma” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “stigma” during the group presentation.

---

takeover (noun)

A sudden and decisive change of government illegally or by force.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “takeover.”
- He looked up “takeover” because he had never seen it before.

toss bombing (noun)

A bombing run in which the bomber approaches the target at a low altitude and pulls up just before releasing the bomb.

- They discussed "toss bombing" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "toss bombing" to mean a bombing run in which the bomber approaches the....

updating (noun)

The act of changing something to bring it up to date (usually by adding something).

- Criminal records need regular updating.
- Understanding "updating" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

watch bracelet (noun)

A band of cloth or leather or metal links attached to a wristwatch and wrapped around the wrist.

- The article explained what "watch bracelet" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "watch bracelet" to mean a band of cloth or leather or metal links attached....

bathing (noun)

The act of washing yourself (or another person).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bathing."
- He looked up "bathing" because he had never seen it before.

battle of hastings (noun)

The decisive battle in which William the Conqueror (duke of Normandy) defeated the Saxons under Harold II (1066) and thus left England open for the Norman Conquest.

- Understanding "battle of hastings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "battle of hastings" means with a simple example.

bending (noun)

The act of bending something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bending."
- The article explained what "bending" means with a simple example.

betrayal (noun)

An act of deliberate betrayal.

- In class, the teacher used "betrayal" to mean an act of deliberate betrayal.
- He looked up "betrayal" because he had never seen it before.

chalk talk (noun)

A talk that uses a blackboard and chalk.

- The article explained what "chalk talk" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chalk talk" during the group presentation.

constructive fraud (noun)

Comprises all acts or omissions or concealments involving breach of equitable or legal duty or trust or confidence.

- They discussed "constructive fraud" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "constructive fraud" to mean comprises all acts or omissions or concealments....

constructive possession (noun)

(law) having the power and intention to have and control property but without direct control or actual presence upon it.

- The article explained what "constructive possession" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "constructive possession" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

copying (noun)

An act of copying.

- They discussed "copying" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "copying" because he had never seen it before.

countdown (noun)

Counting backward from an arbitrary number to indicate the time remaining before some event (such as launching a space vehicle).

- The article explained what "countdown" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "countdown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

danced (verb)

Skip, leap, or move up and down or sideways.

- The children danced with joy.
- The young girl danced into the room.

---

dangerous undertaking (noun)

A wild and exciting undertaking (not necessarily lawful).

- Understanding "dangerous undertaking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dangerous undertaking" to mean a wild and exciting undertaking (not necessarily....

---

differential diagnosis (noun)

A systematic method of diagnosing a disorder (e.g., headache) that lacks unique symptoms or signs.

- He looked up "differential diagnosis" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "differential diagnosis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

displaying (verb)

To show, make visible or apparent.

- She tried to use "displaying" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "displaying" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

drummer (noun)

Someone who plays a drum.

- Understanding "drummer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "drummer" because he had never seen it before.

---

eldest hand (noun)

The card player on the dealer's left.

- He looked up "eldest hand" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "eldest hand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

exclusion (noun)

The act of forcing out someone or something.

- Understanding "exclusion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exclusion."

---

exhibitions (noun)

A collection of things (goods or works of art etc.) for public display.

- Understanding "exhibitions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "exhibitions" to mean a collection of things (goods or works of art etc.)....

---

feather star (noun)

Free-swimming stalkless crinoid with ten feathery arms; found on muddy sea bottoms.

- The article explained what "feather star" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "feather star" to mean free-swimming stalkless crinoid with ten feathery....

---

geographic expedition (noun)

To travel for the purpose of discovery.

- Understanding "geographic expedition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "geographic expedition" during the group presentation.

---

human genome project (noun)

An international study of the entire human genetic material.

- The article explained what "human genome project" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "human genome project" during the group presentation.

---

iq test (noun)

A psychometric test of intelligence.

- They used to think that intelligence is what an intelligence test tests.
- Understanding "iq test" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

melody pipe (noun)

Reed pipe with finger holes on which the melody is played.

- Understanding "melody pipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "melody pipe" during the group presentation.

---

navigate (verb)

Travel on water propelled by wind or by other means.

- Is anyone volunteering to navigate during the trip?
- He navigated his way to the altar.

---

o'neill (noun)

United States playwright (1888-1953).

- He looked up "o'neill" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "o'neill" to mean united states playwright (1888-1953).

---

out of bounds (noun)

A line that marks the side boundary of a playing field.

- In class, the teacher used "out of bounds" to mean a line that marks the side boundary of a playing field.
- He looked up "out of bounds" because he had never seen it before.

---

outreach (noun)

The act of reaching out.

- The outreach toward truth of the human spirit.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "outreach."

---

petersburg campaign (noun)

The final campaign of the American Civil War (1864-65); Union forces under Grant besieged and finally defeated Confederate forces under Lee.

- They discussed "petersburg campaign" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "petersburg campaign" means with a simple example.

---

piper (noun)

Type genus of the Piperaceae: large genus of chiefly climbing tropical shrubs.

- He looked up "piper" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "piper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prisoner of war censorship (noun)

Military censorship of communication to and from prisoners of war and civilian internees held by the armed forces.

- The article explained what "prisoner of war censorship" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prisoner of war censorship."

---

procurement (noun)

The act of getting possession of something.

- He was responsible for the procurement of materials and supplies.
- He looked up "procurement" because he had never seen it before.

---

radioactive dating (noun)

Measurement of the amount of radioactive material (usually carbon 14) that an object contains; can be used to estimate the age of the object.

- Understanding "radioactive dating" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radioactive dating."

---

ransom (noun)

The act of freeing from captivity or punishment.

- Understanding "ransom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ransom."

---

reel (verb)

Walk as if unable to control one's movements.

- The coach explained when to use "reel" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "reel" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

refs (noun)

(sports) the chief official (as in boxing or American football) who is expected to ensure fair play.

- In class, the teacher used "refs" to mean (sports) the chief official (as in boxing or....
- He looked up "refs" because he had never seen it before.

---

relaxation method (noun)

A method of solving simultaneous equations by guessing a solution and then reducing the errors that result by successive approximations until all the errors are less than some specified amount.

- In class, the teacher used "relaxation method" to mean a method of solving simultaneous equations by....
- He looked up "relaxation method" because he had never seen it before.

---

rocking horse (noun)

A child's plaything consisting of an imitation horse mounted on rockers; the child straddles it and pretends to ride.

- In class, the teacher used "rocking horse" to mean a child's plaything consisting of an imitation....
- The article explained what "rocking horse" means with a simple example.

---

scoop shot (noun)

A basketball shot made with an underhand scooping motion.

- In class, the teacher used "scoop shot" to mean a basketball shot made with an underhand scooping....
- The article explained what "scoop shot" means with a simple example.

---

speeding (noun)

Changing location rapidly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "speeding."
- The article explained what "speeding" means with a simple example.

---

stirring (noun)

Agitating a liquid with an implement.

- Constant stirring prevents it from burning on the bottom of the pan.
- In class, the teacher used "stirring" to mean agitating a liquid with an implement.

---

storage allocation (noun)

(computer science) the assignment of particular areas of a magnetic disk to particular data or instructions.

- The article explained what "storage allocation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "storage allocation" to mean (computer science) the assignment of particular....

---

suppression (noun)

The act of withholding or withdrawing some book or writing from publication or circulation.

- A suppression of the newspaper.
- The suppression of heresy.

---

surf casting (noun)

Casting (artificial) bait far out into the ocean (up to 200 yards) with the waves breaking around you.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surf casting."
- He looked up "surf casting" because he had never seen it before.

---

swallow dive (noun)

A dive in which the diver arches the back with arms outstretched before entering the water.

- The article explained what "swallow dive" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "swallow dive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

swimming crab (noun)

Marine crab with some legs flattened and fringed for swimming.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swimming crab."
- He looked up "swimming crab" because he had never seen it before.

---

ted shawn (noun)

United States dancer and choreographer who collaborated with Ruth Saint Denis (1891-1972).

- In class, the teacher used "ted shawn" to mean united states dancer and choreographer who....
- The article explained what "ted shawn" means with a simple example.

---

tying (noun)

The act of tying or binding things together.

- The article explained what "tying" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tying" during the group presentation.

---

tying up (noun)

The act of securing an arriving vessel with ropes.

- In class, the teacher used "tying up" to mean the act of securing an arriving vessel with ropes.
- The article explained what "tying up" means with a simple example.

---

varsity letter (noun)

An award earned by participation in a school sport.

- He won letters in three sports.
- He looked up "varsity letter" because he had never seen it before.

---

vengeance (noun)

The act of taking revenge (harming someone in retaliation for something harmful that they have done) especially in the next life; –Romans 12:19; –James Garfield.

- Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.
- For vengeance I would do nothing. This nation is too great to look for mere revenge.

---

victor herbert (noun)

United States musician and composer and conductor noted for his comic operas (1859-1924).

- The article explained what "victor herbert" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "victor herbert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

video ipod (noun)

(trademark) an iPod that can also play video files.

- They discussed "video ipod" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "video ipod" means with a simple example.

---

waits (noun)

The act of waiting (remaining inactive in one place while expecting something).

- In class, the teacher used "waits" to mean the act of waiting (remaining inactive in one place....
- He looked up "waits" because he had never seen it before.

---

wakes (noun)

A vigil held over a corpse the night before burial.

- They discussed "wakes" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wakes."

---

bait casting (noun)

The single-handed rod casting of a relatively heavy (artificial) bait.

- They discussed "bait casting" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bait casting" to mean the single-handed rod casting of a relatively heavy....

ballet dancer (noun)

A trained dancer who is a member of a ballet company.

- The article explained what "ballet dancer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ballet dancer" to mean a trained dancer who is a member of a ballet company.

baseball glove (noun)

The handwear used by fielders in playing baseball.

- The article explained what "baseball glove" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "baseball glove" during the group presentation.

battle of midway (noun)

Naval battle of World War II (June 1942); American planes based on land and on carriers decisively defeated a Japanese fleet on its way to invade the Midway Islands.

- He looked up "battle of midway" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "battle of midway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bench warmer (noun)

(sports) a substitute who seldom plays.

- He looked up "bench warmer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bench warmer."

bracelet wood (noun)

Small West Indian shrub or tree with hard glossy seeds patterned yellow and brown that are used to make bracelets.

- They discussed "bracelet wood" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bracelet wood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bunny hug (noun)

A syncopated ballroom dance formerly popular in the US.

- In class, the teacher used "bunny hug" to mean a syncopated ballroom dance formerly popular in the us.
- He looked up "bunny hug" because he had never seen it before.

change ringing (noun)

Ringing tuned bells in a fixed order that is continually changing.

- He looked up "change ringing" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "change ringing" during the group presentation.

depart (verb)

Move away from a place into another direction.

- The train departs at noon.
- The coach explained when to use "depart" and when to wait.

dwight davis (noun)

United States tennis player who donated the Davis Cup for international team tennis competition (1879-1945).

- Understanding "dwight davis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dwight davis" because he had never seen it before.

embracing (noun)

The act of clasping another person in the arms (as in greeting or affection).

- In class, the teacher used "embracing" to mean the act of clasping another person in the arms (as....
- The article explained what "embracing" means with a simple example.

endurance contest (noun)

Any long and arduous undertaking.

- The article explained what "endurance contest" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "endurance contest" to mean any long and arduous undertaking.

endurance riding (noun)

Riding for long hours over long distances.

- He looked up "endurance riding" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "endurance riding."

---

feather ball (noun)

A low tuberculate cactus with white feathery spines; northeastern Mexico.

- Understanding "feather ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "feather ball" means with a simple example.

---

fixture (noun)

The act of putting something in working order again.

- A bum who is a Central Park fixture.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fixture."

---

frightening (noun)

The act of inspiring with fear.

- The article explained what "frightening" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "frightening" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fringe cups (noun)

Plant growing in clumps with mostly basal leaves and cream-colored or pale pink fringed flowers in several long racemes; Alaska to coastal central California and east to Idaho.

- In class, the teacher used "fringe cups" to mean plant growing in clumps with mostly basal leaves....
- Understanding "fringe cups" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gala (noun)

A gay festivity.

- The article explained what "gala" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gala" during the group presentation.

---

gardening (noun)

The cultivation of plants.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gardening."
- He looked up "gardening" because he had never seen it before.

---

inaugural (noun)

The ceremonial induction into a position.

- Understanding "inaugural" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "inaugural" means with a simple example.

---

induction of labor (noun)

(obstetrics) inducing the childbirth process artificially by administering oxytocin or by puncturing the amniotic sac.

- Understanding "induction of labor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "induction of labor" means with a simple example.

---

james watt (noun)

Scottish engineer and inventor whose improvements in the steam engine led to its wide use in industry (1736-1819).

- In class, the teacher used "james watt" to mean scottish engineer and inventor whose improvements....
- They discussed "james watt" during the group presentation.

---

lip sync (noun)

Combining audio and video recording in such a way that the sound is perfectly synchronized with the action that produced it; especially synchronizing the movements of a speaker's lips with the sound of his speech.

- He looked up "lip sync" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lip sync" to mean combining audio and video recording in such a way....

---

neck brace (noun)

A brace worn to steady the neck.

- He looked up "neck brace" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neck brace."

---

noisy (adjective)

Full of or characterized by loud and nonmusical sounds.

- A noisy cafeteria.
- A small noisy dog.

---

orgasm (noun)

The moment of most intense pleasure in sexual intercourse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orgasm."
- They discussed "orgasm" during the group presentation.

---

parcel (noun)

The allotment of some amount by dividing something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parcel."
- Understanding "parcel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

playground slide (noun)

Plaything consisting of a sloping chute down which children can slide.

- He looked up "playground slide" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "playground slide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

practical joker (noun)

Someone who plays practical jokes on others.

- In class, the teacher used "practical joker" to mean someone who plays practical jokes on others.
- They discussed "practical joker" during the group presentation.

---

prix de rome (noun)

An annual prize awarded by the French government in a competition of painters and artists and sculptors and musicians and architects; the winner in each category receives support for a period of study in Rome.

- They discussed "prix de rome" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "prix de rome" because he had never seen it before.

---

receivers (noun)

The tennis player who receives the serve.

- Understanding "receivers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "receivers" means with a simple example.

---

richard wagner (noun)

German composer of operas and inventor of the musical drama in which drama and spectacle and music are fused (1813-1883).

- They discussed "richard wagner" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "richard wagner."

---

rituals (noun)

The prescribed procedure for conducting religious ceremonies.

- He looked up "rituals" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rituals" to mean the prescribed procedure for conducting religious....

---

rope-a-dope (noun)

A boxing tactic: pretending to be trapped against the ropes while your opponent wears himself out throwing punches.

- They discussed "rope-a-dope" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rope-a-dope."

---

sip (noun)

A small drink.

- Understanding "sip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sip" during the group presentation.

---

slack suit (noun)

Casual dress consisting of slacks and matching jacket.

- The article explained what "slack suit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "slack suit" to mean casual dress consisting of slacks and matching jacket.

spun (verb)

Revolve quickly and repeatedly around one's own axis.

- The creek spun its course through the woods.
- The coach explained when to use "spun" and when to wait.

theatrical performance (noun)

A performance of a play.

- The article explained what "theatrical performance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "theatrical performance" to mean a performance of a play.

theatrical role (noun)

An actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

- They discussed "theatrical role" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "theatrical role" to mean an actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

theatrical season (noun)

The season when new plays are produced.

- He looked up "theatrical season" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theatrical season."

three-card monte (noun)

A gambling card game of Spanish origin; 3 or 4 cards are dealt face up and players bet that one of them will be matched before the others as the cards are dealt from the pack one at a time.

- He looked up "three-card monte" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "three-card monte."

toilets (noun)

The act of dressing and preparing yourself.

- He looked up "toilets" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "toilets" to mean the act of dressing and preparing yourself.

troop movement (noun)

Movement of military units to a new location.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "troop movement."
- Understanding "troop movement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tuning (noun)

(music) calibrating something (an instrument or electronic circuit) to a standard frequency.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tuning."
- Understanding "tuning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

violin lesson (noun)

A less in playing the violin.

- They discussed "violin lesson" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "violin lesson."

wander (verb)

To move or cause to move in a sinuous, spiral, or circular course.

- Sometimes, the gout wanders through the entire body.
- The wandering Jew.

backlash (noun)

An adverse reaction to some political or social occurrence.

- There was a backlash of intolerance.
- The article explained what "backlash" means with a simple example.

---

balloons (verb)

Ride in a hot-air balloon.

- Learners should practice how to use "balloons" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "balloons" until he saw an example.

---

batting cage (noun)

A movable screen placed behind home base to catch balls during batting practice.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "batting cage."
- The article explained what "batting cage" means with a simple example.

---

cosmetic surgery (noun)

Plastic surgery to remove wrinkles and other signs of aging from your face; an incision is made near the hair line and skin is pulled back and excess tissue is excised.

- He looked up "cosmetic surgery" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cosmetic surgery" to mean plastic surgery to remove wrinkles and other signs....

---

crossover (noun)

The appropriation of a new style (especially in popular music) by combining elements of different genres in order to appeal to a wider audience.

- A jazz-classical crossover album.
- Understanding "crossover" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deliveries (noun)

The act of delivering or distributing something (as goods or mail).

- In class, the teacher used "deliveries" to mean the act of delivering or distributing something (as....
- They discussed "deliveries" during the group presentation.

---

drafting (noun)

The creation of artistic pictures or diagrams.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drafting."
- The article explained what "drafting" means with a simple example.

---

echo sounding (noun)

Determining the location of something by measuring the time it takes for an echo to return from it.

- He looked up "echo sounding" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "echo sounding."

---

evacuated (verb)

Move out of an unsafe location into safety.

- After the earthquake, residents were evacuated.
- The coach explained when to use "evacuated" and when to wait.

---

four-card monte (noun)

A gambling card game of Spanish origin; 3 or 4 cards are dealt face up and players bet that one of them will be matched before the others as the cards are dealt from the pack one at a time.

- Understanding "four-card monte" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "four-card monte" means with a simple example.

---

game misconduct (noun)

(ice hockey) a penalty that suspends a player for the remainder of a game (but allows the team to send in a substitute for the suspended player).

- They discussed "game misconduct" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "game misconduct" to mean (ice hockey) a penalty that suspends a player for....

---

gay-feather (noun)

Any of various North American plants of the genus Liatris having racemes or panicles of small discoid flower heads.

- The article explained what "gay-feather" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gay-feather" to mean any of various north american plants of the genus....

hockey skate (noun)

An ice skate worn for playing hockey; has a short blade and a strong boot to protect the feet and ankles.

- They discussed "hockey skate" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hockey skate" because he had never seen it before.

hormone replacement therapy (noun)

Hormones (estrogen and progestin) are given to postmenopausal women; believed to protect them from heart disease and osteoporosis.

- The article explained what "hormone replacement therapy" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hormone replacement therapy."

hormone-replacement therapy (noun)

Hormones (estrogen and progestin) are given to postmenopausal women; believed to protect them from heart disease and osteoporosis.

- He looked up "hormone-replacement therapy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hormone-replacement therapy."

insulin shock therapy (noun)

The administration of sufficient insulin to induce convulsions and coma.

- They discussed "insulin shock therapy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "insulin shock therapy" means with a simple example.

miniature golf (noun)

A novelty version of golf played with golf balls and putters on a miniature course featuring many obstacles.

- Understanding "miniature golf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "miniature golf" to mean a novelty version of golf played with golf balls....

misconduct (noun)

Activity that transgresses moral or civil law.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "misconduct."
- Understanding "misconduct" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

moss hart (noun)

United States playwright who collaborated with George S. Kaufman (1904-1961).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moss hart."
- He looked up "moss hart" because he had never seen it before.

mountain grape (noun)

Ornamental evergreen shrub of Pacific coast of North America having dark green pinnate leaves and racemes of yellow flowers followed by blue-black berries.

- In class, the teacher used "mountain grape" to mean ornamental evergreen shrub of pacific coast of....
- The article explained what "mountain grape" means with a simple example.

mute (noun)

A device used to soften the tone of a musical instrument.

- They discussed "mute" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mute" to mean a device used to soften the tone of a musical....

notifications (noun)

An accusation of crime made by a grand jury on its own initiative.

- He looked up "notifications" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "notifications" to mean an accusation of crime made by a grand jury on its....

occupational therapy (noun)

Therapy based on engagement in meaningful activities of daily life, especially to enable or encourage participation in such activities in spite of impairments or limitations in physical or mental functions.

- The article explained what "occupational therapy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "occupational therapy" to mean therapy based on engagement in meaningful....

optimization (noun)

The act of rendering optimal.

- The simultaneous optimization of growth and profitability.
- In an optimization problem we seek values of the variables that lead to an optimal value of the function that is to be optimized.

---

pee-pee (verb)

Eliminate urine.

- Can you use "pee-pee" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "pee-pee" and when to wait.

---

poop out (verb)

Use up all one's strength and energy and stop working.

- At the end of the march, I pooped out.
- Learners should practice how to use "poop out" in real sentences.

---

pornography (noun)

Creative activity (writing or pictures or films etc.) of no literary or artistic value other than to stimulate sexual desire.

- The article explained what "pornography" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pornography" to mean creative activity (writing or pictures or films....

---

prepares (verb)

To prepare verbally, either for written or spoken delivery.

- She tried to use "prepares" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "prepares" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

proceeding (noun)

(law) the institution of a sequence of steps by which legal judgments are invoked.

- In class, the teacher used "proceeding" to mean (law) the institution of a sequence of steps by....
- The article explained what "proceeding" means with a simple example.

---

rouge (verb)

Redden by applying rouge to.

- She rouged her cheeks.
- Learners should practice how to use "rouge" in real sentences.

---

sea bathing (noun)

Bathing in the sea or ocean.

- He looked up "sea bathing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea bathing."

---

shove (noun)

The act of shoving (giving a push to someone or something).

- He gave the door a shove.
- The article explained what "shove" means with a simple example.

---

shove off (verb)

Leave; informal or rude.

- Shove off!
- The children shoved along.

---

sir ralph david richardson (noun)

British stage and screen actor noted for playing classic roles (1902-1983).

- He looked up "sir ralph david richardson" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sir ralph david richardson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

smashing (noun)

The act of breaking something into small pieces.

- In class, the teacher used "smashing" to mean the act of breaking something into small pieces.
- They discussed "smashing" during the group presentation.

snaps (noun)

The act of catching an object with the hands.

- My snapshots haven't been developed yet.
- Children can manage snaps better than buttons.

softball (noun)

A game closely resembling baseball that is played on a smaller diamond and with a ball that is larger and softer.

- The article explained what "softball" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "softball" during the group presentation.

softball game (noun)

A game closely resembling baseball that is played on a smaller diamond and with a ball that is larger and softer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "softball game."
- The article explained what "softball game" means with a simple example.

stumbled (verb)

Miss a step and fall or nearly fall.

- She stumbled over the tree root.
- The drunk man stumbled about.

sun bathing (noun)

Immersing the body in sunlight.

- The article explained what "sun bathing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sun bathing."

swan dive (noun)

A dive in which the diver arches the back with arms outstretched before entering the water.

- The article explained what "swan dive" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swan dive."

takeover attempt (noun)

An attempt to take control of a corporation.

- Understanding "takeover attempt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "takeover attempt" because he had never seen it before.

tilt (verb)

To incline or bend from a vertical position.

- The tower is tilting.
- Can you use "tilt" in a sentence that fits this situation?

upper crust (noun)

The class occupying the highest position in the social hierarchy.

- The article explained what "upper crust" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "upper crust" to mean the class occupying the highest position in the....

upper respiratory infection (noun)

Infection of the upper respiratory tract.

- The article explained what "upper respiratory infection" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "upper respiratory infection" to mean infection of the upper respiratory tract.

uranium ore (noun)

Any ore from which uranium can be extracted.

- They discussed "uranium ore" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "uranium ore" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

vanessa bell (noun)

English painter; sister of Virginia Woolf; prominent member of the Bloomsbury Group (1879-1961).

- In class, the teacher used "vanessa bell" to mean english painter; sister of virginia woolf;....
- Understanding "vanessa bell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

veil (verb)

To obscure, or conceal with or as if with a veil.

- Women in Afghanistan veil their faces.
- A veiled threat.

---

venture capitalist (noun)

A speculator who makes money available for innovative projects (especially in high technology).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "venture capitalist."
- They discussed "venture capitalist" during the group presentation.

---

versatile (adjective)

Competent in many areas and able to turn with ease from one thing to another.

- A versatile writer.
- His vast and versatile erudition.

---

vest pocket (noun)

A small pocket in a man's vest.

- In class, the teacher used "vest pocket" to mean a small pocket in a man's vest.
- They discussed "vest pocket" during the group presentation.

---

volatile storage (noun)

Computer storage that is erased when the power is turned off.

- The article explained what "volatile storage" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "volatile storage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wagon tire (noun)

A metal hoop forming the tread of a wheel.

- In class, the teacher used "wagon tire" to mean a metal hoop forming the tread of a wheel.
- They discussed "wagon tire" during the group presentation.

---

warsaw (noun)

The capital and largest city of Poland; located in central Poland.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "warsaw."
- Understanding "warsaw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wed (noun)

The fourth day of the week; the third working day.

- Understanding "wed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "wed" to mean the fourth day of the week; the third working day.

---

well-knit (adjective)

Strongly and firmly constructed; ; ; ; - Alexander Hamilton.

- A well-knit argument.
- A well-knit theatrical production.

---

white cinnamon tree (noun)

Large evergreen shrub or small tree having white aromatic bark and leathery leaves and small purple to red flowers in terminal cymes.

- Understanding "white cinnamon tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "white cinnamon tree" during the group presentation.

---

wild mustard (noun)

Weedy Eurasian plant often a pest in grain fields.

- Understanding "wild mustard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed “wild mustard” during the group presentation.

---

william patterson (noun)

American Revolutionary leader (born in Ireland) who was a member of the Constitutional Convention (1745-1806).

- They discussed “william patterson” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “william patterson” means with a simple example.

---

willow tree (noun)

Any of numerous deciduous trees and shrubs of the genus Salix.

- In class, the teacher used “willow tree” to mean any of numerous deciduous trees and shrubs of the....
- The article explained what “willow tree” means with a simple example.

---

windsor tie (noun)

A wide necktie worn in a loose bow.

- In class, the teacher used “windsor tie” to mean a wide necktie worn in a loose bow.
- They discussed “windsor tie” during the group presentation.

---

wrestling mat (noun)

A mat on which wrestling matches are conducted.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wrestling mat.”
- He looked up “wrestling mat” because he had never seen it before.

---

yi (noun)

A Loloish language.

- He looked up “yi” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “yi” during the group presentation.

---

yorkshire fog (noun)

Tall European perennial grass having a velvety stem; naturalized in United States and used for forage.

- Understanding “yorkshire fog” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “yorkshire fog” to mean tall european perennial grass having a velvety....

---

aaron montgomery ward (noun)

United States businessman who in 1872 established a successful mail-order business (1843-1913).

- He looked up “aaron montgomery ward” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “aaron montgomery ward.”

---

accord and satisfaction (noun)

The settlement of a debt by paying less than the amount demanded in exchange for extinguishing the debt.

- They discussed “accord and satisfaction” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “accord and satisfaction.”

---

acknowledging (verb)

Express obligation, thanks, or gratitude for.

- He did not know how to use “acknowledging” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “acknowledging” in real sentences.

---

advent sunday (noun)

The first of the four Sundays during Advent.

- Understanding “advent sunday” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “advent sunday” because he had never seen it before.

---

aide-de-camp (noun)

An officer who acts as military assistant to a more senior officer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “aide-de-camp.”
- Understanding “aide-de-camp” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alpha and omega (noun)

The first and last; signifies God's eternity.

- In class, the teacher used "alpha and omega" to mean the first and last; signifies god's eternity.
- Understanding "alpha and omega" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

amino acid (noun)

Organic compounds containing an amino group and a carboxylic acid group.

- Proteins are composed of various proportions of about 20 common amino acids.
- They discussed "amino acid" during the group presentation.

---

amy lyon (noun)

English beauty who was the mistress of Admiral Nelson (1765-1815).

- They discussed "amy lyon" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amy lyon."

---

analog clock (noun)

A clock that displays the time of day by the position of hands on a dial.

- In class, the teacher used "analog clock" to mean a clock that displays the time of day by the....
- He looked up "analog clock" because he had never seen it before.

---

anthropology (noun)

The social science that studies the origins and social relationships of human beings.

- He looked up "anthropology" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anthropology."

---

anti-takeover defense (noun)

Resistance to or defense against a hostile takeover.

- In class, the teacher used "anti-takeover defense" to mean resistance to or defense against a hostile takeover.
- Understanding "anti-takeover defense" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

arctic moss (noun)

An erect greyish branching lichen of Arctic and even some north temperate regions constituting the chief food for reindeer and caribou and sometimes being eaten by humans.

- Understanding "arctic moss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "arctic moss" during the group presentation.

---

artery (noun)

A major thoroughfare that bears important traffic.

- The article explained what "artery" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "artery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

baby's breath (noun)

Tall plant with small lance-shaped leaves and numerous tiny white or pink flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "baby's breath" to mean tall plant with small lance-shaped leaves and....
- Understanding "baby's breath" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bald eagle (noun)

A large eagle of North America that has a white head and dark wings and body.

- The article explained what "bald eagle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bald eagle" during the group presentation.

---

ballet skirt (noun)

Very short skirt worn by ballerinas.

- They discussed "ballet skirt" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ballet skirt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

balloon sail (noun)

Any light loose sail.

- In class, the teacher used "balloon sail" to mean any light loose sail.
- Understanding "balloon sail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bamboo (noun)

The hard woody stems of bamboo plants; used in construction and crafts and fishing poles.

- In class, the teacher used "bamboo" to mean the hard woody stems of bamboo plants; used in....
- The article explained what "bamboo" means with a simple example.

---

basil (noun)

Leaves of the common basil; used fresh or dried.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basil."
- He looked up "basil" because he had never seen it before.

---

basil the great (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) the bishop of Caesarea who defended the Roman Catholic Church against the heresies of the 4th century; a saint and Doctor of the Church (329-379).

- They discussed "basil the great" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basil the great."

---

bathing machine (noun)

A building containing dressing rooms for bathers.

- Understanding "bathing machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bathing machine" to mean a building containing dressing rooms for bathers.

---

bay willow (noun)

European willow tree with shining leathery leaves; widely naturalized in the eastern United States.

- He looked up "bay willow" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bay willow."

---

bengal rose (noun)

Shrubby Chinese rose; ancestor of many cultivated garden roses.

- He looked up "bengal rose" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bengal rose."

---

beta receptor (noun)

Receptors postulated to exist on nerve cell membranes of the sympathetic nervous system in order to explain the specificity of certain agents that affect only some sympathetic activities (such as vasodilation and increased heart beat).

- He looked up "beta receptor" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "beta receptor" to mean receptors postulated to exist on nerve cell....

---

birth defect (noun)

A defect that is present at birth.

- In class, the teacher used "birth defect" to mean a defect that is present at birth.
- They discussed "birth defect" during the group presentation.

---

blackberry (verb)

Pick or gather blackberries.

- The children went blackberrying.
- Can you use "blackberry" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

bodily fluid (noun)

The liquid parts of the body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bodily fluid."
- The article explained what "bodily fluid" means with a simple example.

---

boiled dinner (noun)

Corned beef simmered with onions and cabbage and usually other vegetables.

- They discussed "boiled dinner" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "boiled dinner" means with a simple example.

bombay (noun)

A city in western India just off the coast of the Arabian Sea; India's 2nd largest city (after Calcutta); has the only natural deep-water harbor in western India.

- He looked up "bombay" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bombay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

booze (noun)

An alcoholic beverage that is distilled rather than fermented.

- The article explained what "booze" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "booze" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

booze-up (noun)

Revelry in drinking; a merry drinking party.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "booze-up."
- The article explained what "booze-up" means with a simple example.

bottle cork (noun)

The plug in the mouth of a bottle (especially a wine bottle).

- The article explained what "bottle cork" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bottle cork" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bounty hunter (noun)

A hunter who kills predatory wild animals in order to collect a bounty.

- They discussed "bounty hunter" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bounty hunter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bowling alley (noun)

A building that contains several alleys for bowling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bowling alley."
- Understanding "bowling alley" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bronx (noun)

A borough of New York City.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bronx."
- He looked up "bronx" because he had never seen it before.

brown snail (noun)

Serious garden pest having a brown shell with paler zigzag markings; nearly cosmopolitan in distribution.

- The article explained what "brown snail" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "brown snail" to mean serious garden pest having a brown shell with paler....

bumper guard (noun)

Vertical bars attached to a bumper to prevent locking bumpers with another vehicle.

- Understanding "bumper guard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bumper guard" because he had never seen it before.

buzzing (adjective)

Noisy like the sound of a bee.

- The speaker chose "buzzing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "buzzing."

calcium ion (noun)

Ion of calcium; a factor in the clotting of blood.

- In class, the teacher used "calcium ion" to mean ion of calcium; a factor in the clotting of blood.
- He looked up "calcium ion" because he had never seen it before.

caliber (noun)

A degree or grade of excellence or worth.

- An executive of low caliber.
- Understanding "caliber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

canadian maritime provinces (noun)

The collective name for the Canadian provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

- Understanding "canadian maritime provinces" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "canadian maritime provinces" to mean the collective name for the canadian provinces of....

---

candy cane (noun)

A hard candy in the shape of a rod (usually with stripes).

- In class, the teacher used "candy cane" to mean a hard candy in the shape of a rod (usually with....
- The article explained what "candy cane" means with a simple example.

---

capital of somalia (noun)

The capital and largest city of Somalia; a port on the Indian Ocean.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of somalia."
- He looked up "capital of somalia" because he had never seen it before.

---

captive finance company (noun)

A finance company owned by a manufacturer to finance dealers' inventories or to make loans to consumers buying the company's products.

- The article explained what "captive finance company" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "captive finance company" during the group presentation.

---

cardiovascular disease (noun)

A disease of the heart or blood vessels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cardiovascular disease."
- The article explained what "cardiovascular disease" means with a simple example.

---

carl jung (noun)

Swiss psychologist (1875-1961).

- He looked up "carl jung" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "carl jung" during the group presentation.

---

cellphone (noun)

A hand-held mobile radiotelephone for use in an area divided into small sections, each with its own short-range transmitter/receiver.

- In class, the teacher used "cellphone" to mean a hand-held mobile radiotelephone for use in an....
- The article explained what "cellphone" means with a simple example.

---

cellular inclusion (noun)

Any small intracellular body found within another (characteristic of certain diseases).

- An inclusion in the cytoplasm of the cell.
- He looked up "cellular inclusion" because he had never seen it before.

---

cereal grass (noun)

Grass whose starchy grains are used as food: wheat; rice; rye; oats; maize; buckwheat; millet.

- Understanding "cereal grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cereal grass."

---

ch'ing (noun)

The last imperial dynasty of China (from 1644 to 1912) which was overthrown by revolutionaries; during the Qing dynasty China was ruled by the Manchu.

- Understanding "ch'ing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ch'ing" to mean the last imperial dynasty of china (from 1644 to....

---

cheese cutter (noun)

A kitchen utensil (board or handle) with a wire for cutting cheese.

- Understanding "cheese cutter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheese cutter."

child pornography (noun)

The illegal use of children in pornographic pictures or films.

- They discussed "child pornography" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "child pornography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chord (noun)

A straight line connecting two points on a curve.

- In class, the teacher used "chord" to mean a straight line connecting two points on a curve.
- They discussed "chord" during the group presentation.

close-knit (adjective)

Held together as by social or cultural ties.

- A close-knit family.
- Close-knit little villages.

concessions (noun)

A contract granting the right to operate a subsidiary business.

- They won all the concessions they asked for.
- The article explained what "concessions" means with a simple example.

confederate flag (noun)

The first flag of the Confederate States of America.

- He looked up "confederate flag" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "confederate flag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

contracting (noun)

Becoming infected.

- The contracting of a serious illness can be financially catastrophic.
- He looked up "contracting" because he had never seen it before.

cooks (verb)

Transform and make suitable for consumption by heating.

- In everyday English, people use "cooks" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "cooks" carefully so everyone would understand.

corporal (noun)

A noncommissioned officer in the Army or Air Force or Marines.

- Understanding "corporal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corporal."

correlation matrix (noun)

A matrix giving the correlations between all pairs of data sets.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "correlation matrix."
- They discussed "correlation matrix" during the group presentation.

courtyard (noun)

An area wholly or partly surrounded by walls or buildings.

- They discussed "courtyard" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "courtyard."

crafted (verb)

Make by hand and with much skill.

- The artisan crafted a complicated tool.
- In everyday English, people use "crafted" when talking about this idea.

crest (noun)

The top or extreme point of something (usually a mountain or hill).

- They discussed "crest" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "crest" means with a simple example.

---

crow corn (noun)

Any of several perennials of the genus Aletris having grasslike leaves and bitter roots reputed to cure colic.

- The article explained what "crow corn" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "crow corn" to mean any of several perennials of the genus aletris....

---

crowned (adjective)

Provided with or as if with a crown or a crown as specified; often used in combination.

- A high-crowned hat.
- An orange-crowned bird.

---

cubic yard (noun)

A unit of volume (as for sand or gravel).

- He looked up "cubic yard" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cubic yard" to mean a unit of volume (as for sand or gravel).

---

cynthia (noun)

(Greek mythology) the virgin goddess of the hunt and the Moon; daughter of Leto and twin sister of Apollo; identified with Roman Diana.

- Understanding "cynthia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cynthia" during the group presentation.

---

daisy print wheel (noun)

A wheel around which is a set of print characters that make a typing impression on paper.

- In class, the teacher used "daisy print wheel" to mean a wheel around which is a set of print characters....
- He looked up "daisy print wheel" because he had never seen it before.

---

dame rebecca west (noun)

British writer (born in Ireland) (1892-1983).

- They discussed "dame rebecca west" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dame rebecca west" because he had never seen it before.

---

deception (noun)

An illusory feat; considered magical by naive observers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deception."
- He looked up "deception" because he had never seen it before.

---

decor (noun)

Decoration consisting of the layout and furnishings of a livable interior.

- The article explained what "decor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "decor" during the group presentation.

---

deed poll (noun)

A deed made and executed by only one party.

- The article explained what "deed poll" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "deed poll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

defeating (verb)

Thwart the passage of.

- He did not know how to use "defeating" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "defeating" when talking about this idea.

---

defect of speech (noun)

A disorder of oral speech.

- He looked up "defect of speech" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defect of speech."

---

democratic republic of the congo (noun)

A republic in central Africa; achieved independence from Belgium in 1960.

- They discussed "democratic republic of the congo" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "democratic republic of the congo" because he had never seen it before.

---

derivative (noun)

(linguistics) a word that is derived from another word.

- 'electricity' is a derivative of 'electric'.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "derivative."

---

discomfort (noun)

The state of being tense and feeling pain.

- Understanding "discomfort" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "discomfort" during the group presentation.

---

distributor point (noun)

A contact in the distributor; as the rotor turns its projecting arm contacts them and current flows to the spark plugs.

- The article explained what "distributor point" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "distributor point."

---

dolphin oil (noun)

An unsaturated fatty oil obtained from dolphins and used as a fine lubricant.

- Understanding "dolphin oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dolphin oil."

---

dominican (adjective)

Of or relating to Saint Dominic or the Dominican order.

- Dominican monks.
- The Dominican population.

---

dorothy parker (noun)

United States writer noted for her sharp wit (1893-1967).

- Understanding "dorothy parker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dorothy parker" because he had never seen it before.

---

drafting board (noun)

A smooth board on which paper is placed for making drawings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drafting board."
- They discussed "drafting board" during the group presentation.

---

drastically (adverb)

In a drastic manner.

- Place "drastically" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "drastically" naturally.

---

dress rehearsal (noun)

A full uninterrupted rehearsal in costumes shortly before the first performance.

- He looked up "dress rehearsal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dress rehearsal."

---

driveway (noun)

A road leading up to a private house.

- They parked in the driveway.
- They discussed "driveway" during the group presentation.

drug addict (noun)

A narcotics addict.

- The article explained what "drug addict" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "drug addict" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dry mustard (noun)

A substance such that one to three tablespoons dissolved in a glass of warm water is a homemade emetic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dry mustard."
- He looked up "dry mustard" because he had never seen it before.

duel (verb)

Fight a duel, as over one's honor or a woman.

- In the 19th century, men often dueled over small matters.
- Learners should practice how to use "duel" in real sentences.

duke of windsor (noun)

King of England and Ireland in 1936; his marriage to Wallis Warfield Simpson created a constitutional crisis leading to his abdication (1894-1972).

- In class, the teacher used "duke of windsor" to mean king of england and ireland in 1936; his marriage....
- The article explained what "duke of windsor" means with a simple example.

ecological terrorism (noun)

Violence carried out to further the political or social objectives of the environmentalists.

- The article explained what "ecological terrorism" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ecological terrorism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

edgar lee masters (noun)

United States poet (1869-1950).

- In class, the teacher used "edgar lee masters" to mean united states poet (1869-1950).
- The article explained what "edgar lee masters" means with a simple example.

edwin (noun)

King of Northumbria who was converted to Christianity (585-633).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edwin."
- He looked up "edwin" because he had never seen it before.

electric-discharge lamp (noun)

An electric lamp in which the light comes from an electric discharge between two electrodes in a glass tube.

- He looked up "electric-discharge lamp" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "electric-discharge lamp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electron beam (noun)

A group of nearly parallel lines of electromagnetic radiation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electron beam."
- The article explained what "electron beam" means with a simple example.

elf (noun)

(folklore) fairies that are somewhat mischievous.

- They discussed "elf" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "elf" because he had never seen it before.

em quad (noun)

A quad with a square body.

- Since 'em quad' is hard to distinguish from 'en quad', printers sometimes called it a 'mutton quad'.
- The article explained what "em quad" means with a simple example.

emperor penguin (noun)

The largest penguin; an Antarctic penguin.

- He looked up "emperor penguin" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "emperor penguin" to mean the largest penguin; an antarctic penguin.

---

enabling clause (noun)

A provision in a law that confers on appropriate officials the power to implement or enforce the law.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "enabling clause."
- Understanding "enabling clause" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ev (noun)

A unit of energy equal to the work done by an electron accelerated through a potential difference of 1 volt.

- The article explained what "ev" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ev" to mean a unit of energy equal to the work done by an....

---

evenly (adverb)

In equal amounts or shares; in a balanced or impartial way.

- A class evenly divided between girls and boys.
- The narrator describes the scene "evenly" in the final chapter.

---

exemption (noun)

A deduction allowed to a taxpayer because of his status (having certain dependents or being blind or being over 65 etc.).

- Additional exemptions are allowed for each dependent.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exemption."

---

exotic dancer (noun)

A performer who provides erotic entertainment by undressing to music.

- The article explained what "exotic dancer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "exotic dancer" during the group presentation.

---

experimental extinction (noun)

A conditioning process in which the reinforcer is removed and a conditioned response becomes independent of the conditioned stimulus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "experimental extinction."
- They discussed "experimental extinction" during the group presentation.

---

face veil (noun)

A piece of more-or-less transparent material that covers the face.

- They discussed "face veil" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "face veil" to mean a piece of more-or-less transparent material that....

---

factor ix (noun)

Coagulation factor whose absence is associated with hemophilia B.

- Understanding "factor ix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "factor ix."

---

fashionable (adjective)

Being or in accordance with current social fashions.

- Fashionable clothing.
- The fashionable side of town.

---

fatty liver (noun)

Yellow discoloration as a result of the accumulation of certain fats (triglycerides) in the liver; can be caused by alcoholic cirrhosis or pregnancy or exposure to certain toxins.

- Understanding "fatty liver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fatty liver" to mean yellow discoloration as a result of the....

---

feast of dedication (noun)

(Judaism) an eight-day Jewish holiday commemorating the rededication of the Temple of Jerusalem in 165 BC.

- He looked up "feast of dedication" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "feast of dedication" to mean (judaism) an eight-day jewish holiday commemorating....

feast of the dedication (noun)

(Judaism) an eight-day Jewish holiday commemorating the rededication of the Temple of Jerusalem in 165 BC.

- The article explained what "feast of the dedication" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "feast of the dedication" during the group presentation.

fetch (verb)

Be sold for a certain price.

- The old print fetched a high price at the auction.
- The dog fetched the hat.

fetch up (verb)

Finally be or do something.

- In everyday English, people use "fetch up" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "fetch up" carefully so everyone would understand.

fighting joe hooker (noun)

United States general in the Union Army who was defeated at Chancellorsville by Robert E. Lee (1814-1879).

- In class, the teacher used "fighting joe hooker" to mean united states general in the union army who was....
- They discussed "fighting joe hooker" during the group presentation.

finger scanning (noun)

Biometric identification by automatically scanning a person's fingerprints electronically.

- He looked up "finger scanning" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "finger scanning" during the group presentation.

finnish capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Finland; located in southern Finland; a major port and commercial and cultural center.

- They discussed "finnish capital" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "finnish capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

finnish mark (noun)

Formerly the basic unit of money in Finland.

- He looked up "finnish mark" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "finnish mark."

first derivative (noun)

The result of mathematical differentiation; the instantaneous change of one quantity relative to another; df(x)/dx.

- The article explained what "first derivative" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "first derivative" to mean the result of mathematical differentiation; the....

fish lure (noun)

(angling) any bright artificial bait consisting of plastic or metal mounted with hooks and trimmed with feathers.

- He looked up "fish lure" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fish lure."

fishermen (noun)

Someone whose occupation is catching fish.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fishermen."
- Understanding "fishermen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flipped (verb)

Lightly throw to see which side comes up.

- He flipped when he heard that he was accepted into Princeton University.
- He flipped when he heard that he was being laid off.

floral arrangement (noun)

A decorative arrangement of flowers.

- Understanding "floral arrangement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "floral arrangement" because he had never seen it before.

---

flying squirrel (noun)

Nocturnal phalangers that move with gliding leaps using parachute-like folds of skin along the sides of the body.

- Understanding "flying squirrel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "flying squirrel" means with a simple example.

---

fo (noun)

An officer holding the rank of major or lieutenant colonel or colonel.

- The article explained what "fo" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

foam rubber (noun)

Spongy rubber; made by introducing air bubbles before vulcanization and used for cushioning or upholstery.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foam rubber."
- He looked up "foam rubber" because he had never seen it before.

---

formidable (adjective)

Extremely impressive in strength or excellence.

- A formidable opponent.
- The challenge was formidable.

---

fort myers (noun)

A town in southwest Florida.

- The article explained what "fort myers" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fort myers" during the group presentation.

---

fox squirrel (noun)

Exceptionally large arboreal squirrel of eastern United States.

- He looked up "fox squirrel" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fox squirrel" to mean exceptionally large arboreal squirrel of eastern....

---

furnished (adjective)

Provided with whatever is necessary for a purpose (as furniture or equipment or authority).

- A furnished apartment.
- A completely furnished toolbox.

---

fuzzy (adjective)

Confused and not coherent; not clearly thought out.

- A vague and fuzzy idea of the world of finance.
- Would you call this situation "fuzzy"? Explain why.

---

gas fixture (noun)

A device to convey illuminating gas from the pipe to the gas burner.

- In class, the teacher used "gas fixture" to mean a device to convey illuminating gas from the pipe....
- He looked up "gas fixture" because he had never seen it before.

---

geological phenomenon (noun)

A natural phenomenon involving the structure or composition of the earth.

- The article explained what "geological phenomenon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geological phenomenon."

---

george meredith (noun)

English novelist and poet (1828-1909).

- The article explained what "george meredith" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "george meredith" during the group presentation.

---

gibbs (noun)

United States chemist (1839-1903).

- The article explained what "gibbs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gibbs" to mean united states chemist (1839-1903).

---

gmt (noun)

The local time at the 0 meridian passing through Greenwich, England; it is the same everywhere.

- He looked up "gmt" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gmt."

---

golden willow (noun)

European willow having greyish leaves and yellow-orange twigs used in basketry.

- The article explained what "golden willow" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "golden willow" during the group presentation.

---

gothic (adjective)

Of or relating to the language of the ancient Goths.

- The Gothic Bible translation.
- Gothic migrations.

---

graffiti (noun)

A rude decoration inscribed on rocks or walls.

- He looked up "graffiti" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "graffiti" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

graham greene (noun)

English novelist and Catholic (1904-1991).

- Understanding "graham greene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "graham greene."

---

grenade (noun)

A small explosive bomb thrown by hand or fired from a missile.

- In class, the teacher used "grenade" to mean a small explosive bomb thrown by hand or fired from....
- The article explained what "grenade" means with a simple example.

---

guitars (noun)

A stringed instrument usually having six strings; played by strumming or plucking.

- They discussed "guitars" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "guitars" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

half-pint (noun)

Disparaging terms for small people.

- They discussed "half-pint" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "half-pint."

---

hamlet (noun)

A community of people smaller than a village.

- They discussed "hamlet" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hamlet" means with a simple example.

---

hampton (noun)

United States musician who was the first to use the vibraphone as a jazz instrument (1913-2002).

- The article explained what "hampton" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hampton" to mean united states musician who was the first to use the....

harness race (noun)

A horse race between people riding in sulkies behind horses that are trotting or pacing.

- They discussed "harness race" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harness race."

harry stack sullivan (noun)

United States psychiatrist (1892-1949).

- He looked up "harry stack sullivan" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "harry stack sullivan" during the group presentation.

hearing-impaired (adjective)

Having a hearing loss.

- Would you call this situation "hearing-impaired"? Explain why.
- A "hearing-impaired" approach may work better in this case.

helm (noun)

A position of leadership.

- The President is at the helm of the Ship of State.
- Understanding "helm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

herbert spencer (noun)

English philosopher and sociologist who applied the theory of natural selection to human societies (1820-1903).

- Understanding "herbert spencer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "herbert spencer" during the group presentation.

herbs (noun)

A plant lacking a permanent woody stem; many are flowering garden plants or potherbs; some having medicinal properties; some are pests.

- He looked up "herbs" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "herbs" to mean a plant lacking a permanent woody stem; many are....

herman (noun)

United States jazz musician and bandleader (1913-1987).

- They discussed "herman" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "herman" means with a simple example.

heroic meter (noun)

A verse form suited to the treatment of heroic or elevated themes; dactylic hexameter or iambic pentameter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heroic meter."
- The article explained what "heroic meter" means with a simple example.

high-crowned (adjective)

(of a hat) having a high crown.

- The speaker chose "high-crowned" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "high-crowned" approach may work better in this case.

highlands (noun)

A mountainous region of northern Scotland famous for its rugged beauty; known for the style of dress (the kilt and tartan) and the clan system (now in disuse).

- He looked up "highlands" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "highlands" during the group presentation.

hip tile (noun)

A tile shaped so as to cover the hip of a hip roof.

- The article explained what "hip tile" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hip tile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hollow-eyed (adjective)

Characteristic of the bony face of a cadaver.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hollow-eyed."
- A "hollow-eyed" approach may work better in this case.

---

holy roman emperor frederick ii (noun)

The Holy Roman Emperor who led the Sixth Crusade and crowned himself king of Jerusalem (1194-1250).

- He looked up "holy roman emperor frederick ii" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "holy roman emperor frederick ii."

---

honorary society (noun)

An institution for the advancement of art or science or literature.

- Understanding "honorary society" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "honorary society" during the group presentation.

---

honours (noun)

A university degree with honors.

- Understanding "honours" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "honours" during the group presentation.

---

hooks (noun)

Large strong hand (as of a fighter).

- Wait till I get my hooks on him.
- Understanding "hooks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hrs (noun)

A period of time equal to 1/24th of a day.

- The article explained what "hrs" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hrs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

html (noun)

A set of tags and rules (conforming to SGML) for using them in developing hypertext documents.

- They discussed "html" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "html" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

identity verification (noun)

The automatic identification of living individuals by using their physiological and behavioral characteristics.

- They discussed "identity verification" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "identity verification."

---

imagining (verb)

Form a mental image of something that is not present or that is not the case.

- He did not know how to use "imagining" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "imagining" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

imperative form (noun)

A mood that expresses an intention to influence the listener's behavior.

- He looked up "imperative form" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "imperative form" during the group presentation.

---

inaugural address (noun)

An address delivered at an inaugural ceremony (especially by a United States president).

- Understanding "inaugural address" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "inaugural address" during the group presentation.

---

inception (noun)

An event that is a beginning; a first part or stage of subsequent events.

- The article explained what "inception" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "inception" to mean an event that is a beginning; a first part or stage....

---

incompetent (noun)

Someone who is not competent to take effective action.

- Understanding "incompetent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "incompetent" to mean someone who is not competent to take effective action.

---

indefinitely (adverb)

To an indefinite extent; for an indefinite time.

- This could go on indefinitely.
- He answered "indefinitely," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

infrared therapy (noun)

The use of infrared radiation (as by infrared lamps or heating pads or hot water bottles) to relieve pain and increase circulation to a particular area of the body.

- Understanding "infrared therapy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "infrared therapy" to mean the use of infrared radiation (as by infrared lamps....

---

innocent viii (noun)

Italian pope from 1484 to 1492 who was known as a nepotist and was attacked by Savonarola for his worldliness (1432-1492).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "innocent viii."
- The article explained what "innocent viii" means with a simple example.

---

insect bite (noun)

A painful wound caused by the thrust of an insect's stinger into skin.

- In class, the teacher used "insect bite" to mean a painful wound caused by the thrust of an insect's....
- They discussed "insect bite" during the group presentation.

---

intervene (verb)

Occur between other event or between certain points of time.

- The war intervened between the birth of her two children.
- Why did the U.S. not intervene earlier in WW II?

---

james meredith (noun)

United States civil rights leader whose college registration caused riots in traditionally segregated Mississippi (born in 1933).

- In class, the teacher used "james meredith" to mean united states civil rights leader whose college....
- Understanding "james meredith" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

japanese umbrella pine (noun)

Tall evergreen having a symmetrical spreading crown and needles growing in whorls that resemble umbrellas at ends of twigs.

- They discussed "japanese umbrella pine" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "japanese umbrella pine" to mean tall evergreen having a symmetrical spreading crown....

---

jerseys (noun)

A breed of diary cattle developed on the island of Jersey.

- They discussed "jerseys" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "jerseys" to mean a breed of diary cattle developed on the island of....

---

joseph hooker (noun)

United States general in the Union Army who was defeated at Chancellorsville by Robert E. Lee (1814-1879).

- The article explained what "joseph hooker" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "joseph hooker" to mean united states general in the union army who was....

---

kin (noun)

A person having kinship with another or others.

- He's kin.
- He looked up "kin" because he had never seen it before.

---

klein bottle (noun)

A closed surface with only one side; formed by passing one end of a tube through the side of the tube and joining it with the other end.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "klein bottle."
- He looked up "klein bottle" because he had never seen it before.

---

kobe (noun)

A port city in Japan on Osaka Bay in southern Honshu; was damaged by an earthquake in 1995.

- The article explained what "kobe" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kobe."

---

kris (noun)

A Malayan dagger with a wavy blade.

- The article explained what "kris" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "kris" to mean a malayan dagger with a wavy blade.

---

legislators (noun)

Someone who makes or enacts laws.

- They discussed "legislators" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "legislators" to mean someone who makes or enacts laws.

---

light bulb (noun)

Electric lamp consisting of a transparent or translucent glass housing containing a wire filament (usually tungsten) that emits light when heated by electricity.

- They discussed "light bulb" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light bulb."

---

little corporal (noun)

French general who became emperor of the French (1769-1821).

- He looked up "little corporal" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "little corporal" to mean french general who became emperor of the french....

---

liver sausage (noun)

Sausage containing ground liver.

- The article explained what "liver sausage" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "liver sausage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lobster (noun)

Any of several edible marine crustaceans of the families Homaridae and Nephropsidae and Palinuridae.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lobster."
- He looked up "lobster" because he had never seen it before.

---

logged (verb)

Enter into a log, as on ships and planes.

- She tried to use "logged" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "logged" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

loneliness (noun)

The state of being alone in solitary isolation.

- He looked up "loneliness" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "loneliness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

loops (noun)

An inner circle of advisors (especially under President Reagan).

- They discussed "loops" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "loops" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

luxury liner (noun)

A liner equipped for sumptuous living.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "luxury liner."
- The article explained what "luxury liner" means with a simple example.

---

magic realism (noun)

A literary or artistic genre in which realistic narrative or meticulously realistic painting are combined with surreal elements of fantasy or dreams.

- He looked up "magic realism" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "magic realism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

make vibrant sounds (verb)

Indicate pleasure by purring; characteristic of cats.

- She tried to use "make vibrant sounds" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "make vibrant sounds" and when to wait.

---

malaria (noun)

An infective disease caused by sporozoan parasites that are transmitted through the bite of an infected Anopheles mosquito; marked by paroxysms of chills and fever.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "malaria."
- The article explained what "malaria" means with a simple example.

---

male bonding (noun)

The formation of a close personal relationship between men.

- The rituals known as male bonding do not necessarily involve drinking beer together.
- Understanding "male bonding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

manifesto (noun)

A public declaration of intentions (as issued by a political party or government).

- In class, the teacher used "manifesto" to mean a public declaration of intentions (as issued by a....
- The article explained what "manifesto" means with a simple example.

---

manuscripts (noun)

The form of a literary work submitted for publication.

- The article explained what "manuscripts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "manuscripts" to mean the form of a literary work submitted for publication.

---

marsh elder (noun)

Any of various coarse shrubby plants of the genus Iva with small greenish flowers; common in moist areas (as coastal salt marshes) of eastern and central North America.

- The article explained what "marsh elder" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "marsh elder" during the group presentation.

---

masked (adjective)

Having its true character concealed with the intent of misleading.

- Masked threat.
- The masked face of a raccoon.

---

mass defect (noun)

The amount by which the mass of an atomic nucleus is less than the sum of the masses of its constituent particles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mass defect."
- The article explained what "mass defect" means with a simple example.

---

mattress cover (noun)

Bedclothes that provide a cover for a mattress.

- In class, the teacher used "mattress cover" to mean bedclothes that provide a cover for a mattress.
- They discussed "mattress cover" during the group presentation.

---

maze (noun)

Something jumbled or confused.

- The article explained what "maze" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "maze" to mean something jumbled or confused.

methodist (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of the branch of Protestantism adhering to the views of Wesley.

- Methodist theology.
- A "methodist" approach may work better in this case.

microwave radar (noun)

Measuring instrument in which the echo of a pulse of microwave radiation is used to detect and locate distant objects.

- The article explained what "microwave radar" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "microwave radar."

molecular genetics (noun)

The branch of genetics concerned with the structure and activity of genetic material at the molecular level.

- He looked up "molecular genetics" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "molecular genetics" during the group presentation.

monaco (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in a tiny enclave on the French Riviera.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monaco."
- The article explained what "monaco" means with a simple example.

monastery (noun)

The residence of a religious community.

- He looked up "monastery" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "monastery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

morale building (noun)

Anything that serves to increase morale.

- The sight of flowers every morning was my morale builder.
- In class, the teacher used "morale building" to mean anything that serves to increase morale.

morals (noun)

Motivation based on ideas of right and wrong.

- In class, the teacher used "morals" to mean motivation based on ideas of right and wrong.
- The article explained what "morals" means with a simple example.

mount whitney (noun)

The highest peak in the Sierra Nevada range in California (14,494 feet high).

- The article explained what "mount whitney" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mount whitney" to mean the highest peak in the sierra nevada range in....

ms-dos (noun)

An operating system developed by Bill Gates for personal computers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ms-dos."
- He looked up "ms-dos" because he had never seen it before.

mutations (noun)

A change or alteration in form or qualities.

- In class, the teacher used "mutations" to mean a change or alteration in form or qualities.
- The article explained what "mutations" means with a simple example.

naomi (noun)

The mother-in-law of Ruth whose story is told in the Book of Ruth in the Old Testament.

- He looked up "naomi" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "naomi" to mean the mother-in-law of ruth whose story is told in....

narrowly (adverb)

In a narrow manner; not allowing for exceptions.

- He interprets the law narrowly.
- He answered "narrowly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

natural fibre (noun)

Fiber derived from plants or animals.

- The article explained what "natural fibre" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "natural fibre" to mean fiber derived from plants or animals.

---

negro spiritual (noun)

A kind of religious song originated by Blacks in the southern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "negro spiritual" to mean a kind of religious song originated by blacks in....
- Understanding "negro spiritual" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

next of kin (noun)

The person who is (or persons who are) most closely related to a given person.

- Understanding "next of kin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "next of kin."

---

nexus (noun)

The means of connection between things linked in series.

- They discussed "nexus" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "nexus" to mean the means of connection between things linked in series.

---

nicer (adjective)

Pleasant or pleasing or agreeable in nature or appearance; - George Meredith.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "nicer."
- A "nicer" approach may work better in this case.

---

nightclub (noun)

A spot that is open late at night and that provides entertainment (as singers or dancers) as well as dancing and food and drink.

- The gossip columnist got his information by visiting nightclubs every night.
- In class, the teacher used "nightclub" to mean a spot that is open late at night and that provides....

---

non-volatile storage (noun)

Computer storage that is not lost when the power is turned off.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "non-volatile storage."
- They discussed "non-volatile storage" during the group presentation.

---

northern pike (noun)

Voracious piscivorous pike of waters of northern hemisphere.

- They discussed "northern pike" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "northern pike" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nova style salmon (noun)

Brine-cured salmon that is less salty than most; sometimes sugar is also used in the curing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nova style salmon."
- Understanding "nova style salmon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

numerical (adjective)

Of or relating to or denoting numbers.

- Tests for rating numerical aptitude.
- It is useful to describe something as "numerical" when it is of or relating to or denoting numbers.

---

obsolete (adjective)

No longer in use.

- Obsolete words.

- The speaker chose "obsolete" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

offences (noun)

A feeling of anger caused by being offended.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "offences."
- Understanding "offences" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

old dominion state (noun)

A state in the eastern United States; one of the original 13 colonies; one of the Confederate States in the American Civil War.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old dominion state."
- They discussed "old dominion state" during the group presentation.

---

oliver hazard perry (noun)

United States commodore who led the fleet that defeated the British on Lake Erie during the War of 1812; brother of Matthew Calbraith Perry (1785-1819).

- The article explained what "oliver hazard perry" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oliver hazard perry."

---

on the spur of the moment (adverb)

On impulse; without premeditation.

- He decided to go to Chicago on the spur of the moment.
- Place "on the spur of the moment" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

optic (adjective)

Of or relating to or resembling the eye.

- The optic (or optical) axis of the eye.
- An optical illusion.

---

oregon cedar (noun)

Large timber tree of western North America with trunk diameter to 12 feet and height to 200 feet.

- They discussed "oregon cedar" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "oregon cedar" to mean large timber tree of western north america with....

---

panda (noun)

Reddish-brown Old World raccoon-like carnivore; in some classifications considered unrelated to the giant pandas.

- In class, the teacher used "panda" to mean reddish-brown old world raccoon-like carnivore; in....
- The article explained what "panda" means with a simple example.

---

panther (noun)

A large spotted feline of tropical America similar to the leopard; in some classifications considered a member of the genus Felis.

- He looked up "panther" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "panther" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

partial eclipse (noun)

An eclipse in which the eclipsed body is only partially obscured.

- He looked up "partial eclipse" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "partial eclipse" to mean an eclipse in which the eclipsed body is only....

---

patron saint (noun)

A saint who is considered to be a defender of some group or nation.

- They discussed "patron saint" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "patron saint" means with a simple example.

---

peach pit (noun)

The stone seed of a peach.

- Understanding "peach pit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "peach pit" means with a simple example.

---

peas (noun)

A leguminous plant of the genus Pisum with small white flowers and long green pods containing edible green seeds.

- They discussed "peas" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "peas" means with a simple example.

---

pint-size (adjective)

Well below average height.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pint-size."
- Would you call this situation "pint-size"? Explain why.

---

plantation walking horse (noun)

A horse marked by stamina and trained to move at a fast running walk.

- He looked up "plantation walking horse" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plantation walking horse."

---

plea bargain (noun)

(criminal law) a negotiation in which the defendant agrees to enter a plea of guilty to a lesser charge and the prosecutor agrees to drop a more serious charge.

- His admission was part of a plea bargain with the prosecutor.
- Plea bargaining helps to stop the courts becoming congested.

---

plea-bargain (verb)

Agree to plead guilty in return for a lesser charge.

- If he plea-bargains, he will be sent to a medium-security prison for 8 years.
- He did not know how to use "plea-bargain" until he saw an example.

---

posture (noun)

The arrangement of the body and its limbs.

- Stood with good posture.
- Politicians have neglected our military posture.

---

prague (noun)

The capital and largest city of the Czech Republic in the western part of the country; a cultural and commercial center since the 14th century.

- Understanding "prague" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "prague" because he had never seen it before.

---

prairie chicken (noun)

Brown mottled North American grouse of western prairies.

- They discussed "prairie chicken" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "prairie chicken" means with a simple example.

---

preseason (noun)

A period prior to the beginning of the regular season which is devoted to training and preparation.

- He looked up "preseason" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "preseason" during the group presentation.

---

presidential directive (noun)

A directive issued by the President of the United States; usually addressed to all heads of departments and agencies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "presidential directive."
- He looked up "presidential directive" because he had never seen it before.

---

prostate cancer (noun)

Cancer of the prostate gland.

- He looked up "prostate cancer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "prostate cancer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

punching ball (noun)

An inflated ball or bag that is suspended and punched for training in boxing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “punching ball.”
- He looked up “punching ball” because he had never seen it before.

---

qaeda (noun)

A terrorist network intensely opposed to the United States that dispenses money and logistical support and training to a wide variety of radical Islamic terrorist groups; has cells in more than 50 countries.

- He looked up “qaeda” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “qaeda.”

---

quantitative chemical analysis (noun)

Chemical analysis to determine the amounts of each element in the substance.

- They discussed “quantitative chemical analysis” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “quantitative chemical analysis” means with a simple example.

---

raging (adjective)

(of the elements) as if showing violent anger.

- The raging sea.
- A raging battle.

---

razor-sharp (adjective)

Very clearly delineated.

- Razor-sharp definition.
- A “razor-sharp” approach may work better in this case.

---

receptors (noun)

An organ having nerve endings (in the skin or viscera or eye or ear or nose or mouth) that respond to stimulation.

- They discussed “receptors” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “receptors” to mean an organ having nerve endings (in the skin or....

---

refresh (verb)

Become or make oneself fresh again.

- The cool water refreshed us.
- Can you use “refresh” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

releasing hormone (noun)

A substance produced by the hypothalamus that is capable of accelerating the secretion of a given hormone by the anterior pituitary gland.

- In class, the teacher used “releasing hormone” to mean a substance produced by the hypothalamus that is....
- The article explained what “releasing hormone” means with a simple example.

---

resonance (noun)

A relationship of mutual understanding or trust and agreement between people.

- He looked up “resonance” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “resonance.”

---

river dolphin (noun)

Any of several long-snouted usually freshwater dolphins of South America and southern Asia.

- Understanding “river dolphin” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “river dolphin” because he had never seen it before.

---

rock dove (noun)

Pale grey Eurasian pigeon having black-striped wings from which most domestic species are descended.

- They discussed “rock dove” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “rock dove” to mean pale grey eurasian pigeon having black-striped....

---

rocky-mountain maple (noun)

Small maple of northwestern North America.

- The article explained what “rocky-mountain maple” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “rocky-mountain maple” to mean small maple of northwestern north america.

rotating mechanism (noun)

A mechanism that rotates.

- They discussed "rotating mechanism" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rotating mechanism" to mean a mechanism that rotates.

ruthless (adjective)

Without mercy or pity.

- An act of ruthless ferocity.
- Would you call this situation "ruthless"? Explain why.

safety harness (noun)

Belt attaching you to some object as a restraint in order to prevent you from getting hurt.

- In class, the teacher used "safety harness" to mean belt attaching you to some object as a restraint in....
- Understanding "safety harness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

saint john's (noun)

A port and provincial capital of Newfoundland.

- Understanding "saint john's" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "saint john's" to mean a port and provincial capital of newfoundland.

salvage (noun)

The act of rescuing a ship or its crew or its cargo from a shipwreck or a fire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salvage."
- They discussed "salvage" during the group presentation.

samurai (noun)

A Japanese warrior who was a member of the feudal military aristocracy.

- He looked up "samurai" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "samurai" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

saul (noun)

(New Testament) a Christian missionary to the Gentiles; author of several Epistles in the New Testament; even though Paul was not present at the Last Supper he is considered an Apostle.

- Paul's name was Saul prior to his conversion to Christianity.
- They discussed "saul" during the group presentation.

scrub plane (noun)

A narrow woodworking plane used to cut away excess stock.

- They discussed "scrub plane" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "scrub plane" to mean a narrow woodworking plane used to cut away excess....

sea snail (noun)

Small tadpole-shaped cold-water fishes with pelvic fins forming a sucker; related to lumpfish.

- He looked up "sea snail" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea snail."

seafood (noun)

Edible fish (broadly including freshwater fish) or shellfish or roe etc.

- They discussed "seafood" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "seafood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

secondary winding (noun)

Coil such that current is induced in it by passing a current through the primary coil.

- In class, the teacher used "secondary winding" to mean coil such that current is induced in it by passing....
- He looked up "secondary winding" because he had never seen it before.

self-absorption (noun)

Preoccupation with yourself to the exclusion of everything else.

- In class, the teacher used "self-absorption" to mean preoccupation with yourself to the exclusion of....
- Understanding "self-absorption" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sensory activity (noun)

Activity intended to achieve a particular sensory result.

- He looked up "sensory activity" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sensory activity" during the group presentation.

---

sexually transmitted disease (noun)

A communicable infection transmitted by sexual intercourse or genital contact.

- He looked up "sexually transmitted disease" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sexually transmitted disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shakes (verb)

Shake or vibrate rapidly and intensively.

- In everyday English, people use "shakes" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "shakes" in real sentences.

---

sheep tick (noun)

Wingless fly that is an external parasite on sheep and cattle.

- Understanding "sheep tick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sheep tick" during the group presentation.

---

sheep-tick (noun)

Wingless fly that is an external parasite on sheep and cattle.

- The article explained what "sheep-tick" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sheep-tick" during the group presentation.

---

shin guard (noun)

A stiff protective garment worn by hockey players or a catcher in baseball to protect the shins.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shin guard."
- The article explained what "shin guard" means with a simple example.

---

shirley temple (noun)

Popular child actress of the 1930's (born in 1928).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shirley temple."
- The article explained what "shirley temple" means with a simple example.

---

shirley temple black (noun)

Popular child actress of the 1930's (born in 1928).

- Understanding "shirley temple black" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "shirley temple black" means with a simple example.

---

shove along (verb)

Leave; informal or rude.

- Shove off!
- The children shoved along.

---

signaling (noun)

Any nonverbal action or gesture that encodes a message.

- Understanding "signaling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "signaling."

---

simplest (adjective)

Having few parts; not complex or complicated or involved.

- A "simplest" approach may work better in this case.

- Students compared “simplest” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

sir richard francis burton (noun)

English explorer who with John Speke was the first European to explore Lake Tanganyika (1821-1890).

- The article explained what “sir richard francis burton” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “sir richard francis burton” to mean english explorer who with john speke was the first....

skin rash (noun)

Any red eruption of the skin.

- They discussed “skin rash” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “skin rash.”

slash (noun)

A strong sweeping cut made with a sharp instrument.

- They discussed “slash” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “slash.”

solar apex (noun)

The point on the celestial sphere toward which the sun and solar system appear to be moving relative to the fixed stars.

- They discussed “solar apex” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “solar apex” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

soul-stirring (adjective)

Exciting strong but not unpleasant emotions.

- Students compared “soul-stirring” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “soul-stirring.”

southeastern united states (noun)

The southeastern region of the United States.

- Understanding “southeastern united states” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “southeastern united states” to mean the southeastern region of the united states.

spaghetti (noun)

Pasta in the form of long strings.

- The article explained what “spaghetti” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “spaghetti” to mean pasta in the form of long strings.

spatial relation (noun)

The spatial property of a place where or way in which something is situated.

- He specified the spatial relations of every piece of furniture on the stage.
- In class, the teacher used “spatial relation” to mean the spatial property of a place where or way in....

speech defect (noun)

A disorder of oral speech.

- They discussed “speech defect” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “speech defect” to mean a disorder of oral speech.

speedy (adjective)

Characterized by speed; moving with or capable of moving with high speed.

- A speedy car.
- A speedy errand boy.

sports commentator (noun)

An announcer who reads sports news or describes sporting events.

- In class, the teacher used “sports commentator” to mean an announcer who reads sports news or describes....
- They discussed “sports commentator” during the group presentation.

spring mattress (noun)

A mattress containing springs in a rigid frame.

- Understanding "spring mattress" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "spring mattress" because he had never seen it before.

---

spur-of-the-moment (adjective)

In response to an unforeseen need.

- A spur-of-the-moment party.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "spur-of-the-moment."

---

spying (noun)

The act of keeping a secret watch for intelligence purposes.

- In class, the teacher used "spying" to mean the act of keeping a secret watch for intelligence....
- The article explained what "spying" means with a simple example.

---

staging (noun)

The production of a drama on the stage.

- They discussed "staging" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "staging."

---

standpoint (noun)

A mental position from which things are viewed.

- In class, the teacher used "standpoint" to mean a mental position from which things are viewed.
- He looked up "standpoint" because he had never seen it before.

---

statues (noun)

A sculpture representing a human or animal.

- The article explained what "statues" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "statues."

---

steam boiler (noun)

Sealed vessel where water is converted to steam.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steam boiler."
- The article explained what "steam boiler" means with a simple example.

---

stein (noun)

A mug intended for serving beer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stein."
- The article explained what "stein" means with a simple example.

---

straw-coloured (adjective)

Having the color of dry straw.

- The speaker chose "straw-coloured" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "straw-coloured."

---

strawberry bush (noun)

Hardy shrub of southeastern United States having clove-scented wood and fragrant red-brown flowers.

- The article explained what "strawberry bush" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "strawberry bush" during the group presentation.

---

strawberry ice cream (noun)

Ice cream flavored with fresh strawberries.

- In class, the teacher used "strawberry ice cream" to mean ice cream flavored with fresh strawberries.
- They discussed "strawberry ice cream" during the group presentation.

---

submarine earthquake (noun)

An earthquake at the sea bed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "submarine earthquake."
- He looked up "submarine earthquake" because he had never seen it before.

---

sugar-coated (adjective)

Encrusted with sugar or syrup.

- The speaker chose "sugar-coated" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "sugar-coated" approach may work better in this case.

---

swamp pine (noun)

Any of several pines that prefer or endure moist situations such as loblolly pine or longleaf pine.

- He looked up "swamp pine" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "swamp pine" to mean any of several pines that prefer or endure moist....

---

sway (verb)

Move or walk in a swinging or swaying manner.

- The tall building swayed.
- His speech did not sway the voters.

---

tasting (noun)

A kind of sensing; distinguishing substances by means of the taste buds.

- A wine tasting.
- In class, the teacher used "tasting" to mean a kind of sensing; distinguishing substances by....

---

tempting (adjective)

Highly attractive and able to arouse hope or desire.

- A tempting invitation.
- A tempting repast.

---

terminate (verb)

Be the end of; be the last or concluding part of.

- The attack on Poland terminated the relatively peaceful period after WW I.
- The bronchioles terminate in a capillary bed.

---

the hague (noun)

The site of the royal residence and the de facto capital in the western part of the Netherlands; seat of the International Court of Justice.

- They discussed "the hague" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "the hague" means with a simple example.

---

theatrical agent (noun)

A business agent for an actor.

- Understanding "theatrical agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theatrical agent."

---

tidal stream (noun)

A stream in which the effects of the tide extend far upstream.

- He looked up "tidal stream" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tidal stream."

---

tidal wave (noun)

An overwhelming manifestation of some emotion or phenomenon.

- A tidal wave of nausea.
- The flood of letters hit him with the force of a tidal wave.

---

timber-framed (adjective)

Framed by exposed timbers.

- The speaker chose "timber-framed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "timber-framed" when it is framed by exposed timbers.

tin opener (noun)

A device for cutting cans open.

- He looked up "tin opener" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tin opener" to mean a device for cutting cans open.

tin plague (noun)

The transformation of ordinary white tin into powdery grey tin at very cold temperatures.

- They discussed "tin plague" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tin plague" because he had never seen it before.

tin whistle (noun)

An inexpensive fipple flute.

- The article explained what "tin whistle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tin whistle" to mean an inexpensive fipple flute.

tomato concentrate (noun)

A concentrated form of tomatoes.

- In class, the teacher used "tomato concentrate" to mean a concentrated form of tomatoes.
- The article explained what "tomato concentrate" means with a simple example.

torque (noun)

A twisting force.

- In class, the teacher used "torque" to mean a twisting force.
- He looked up "torque" because he had never seen it before.

towels (noun)

A rectangular piece of absorbent cloth (or paper) for drying or wiping.

- He looked up "towels" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "towels."

trailers (noun)

A large transport conveyance designed to be pulled by a truck or tractor.

- In class, the teacher used "trailers" to mean a large transport conveyance designed to be pulled....
- Understanding "trailers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

transforming (verb)

Change from one form or medium into another.

- The coach explained when to use "transforming" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "transforming" until he saw an example.

trinidad (noun)

An island in West Indies just off the northeastern coast of Venezuela.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trinidad."
- The article explained what "trinidad" means with a simple example.

troop transport (noun)

Any land or sea or air vehicle designed to carry troops.

- They discussed "troop transport" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "troop transport" because he had never seen it before.

turn on a dime (verb)

Have a small turning radius.

- My little subcompact car turns on a dime!
- She tried to use "turn on a dime" carefully so everyone would understand.

unconstitutional (adjective)

Not consistent with or according to a constitution; contrary to the U.S. Constitution.

- A "unconstitutional" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "unconstitutional" when it is not consistent with or according to a constitution;....

---

undermine (verb)

Hollow out as if making a cave or opening.

- Can you use "undermine" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "undermine" when talking about this idea.

---

underwent (verb)

Pass through.

- The coach explained when to use "underwent" and when to wait.
- Can you use "underwent" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

unpaid worker (noun)

A person who performs voluntary work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "unpaid worker."
- They discussed "unpaid worker" during the group presentation.

---

vacancy (noun)

An empty area or space.

- The article explained what "vacancy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vacancy" to mean an empty area or space.

---

vanessa stephen (noun)

English painter; sister of Virginia Woolf; prominent member of the Bloomsbury Group (1879-1961).

- Understanding "vanessa stephen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "vanessa stephen" because he had never seen it before.

---

var (noun)

A unit of electrical power in an AC circuit equal to the power dissipated when 1 volt produces a current of 1 ampere.

- They discussed "var" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "var."

---

veto (verb)

Vote against; refuse to endorse; refuse to assent.

- The President vetoed the bill.
- Mother vetoed the trip to the chocolate store.

---

villains (noun)

The principal bad character in a film or work of fiction.

- Understanding "villains" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "villains."

---

vocational (adjective)

Of or relating to a vocation or occupation; especially providing or undergoing training in special skills.

- Vocational school.
- Vocational students learning to repair a motor.

---

vocational school (noun)

A secondary school teaching the skilled trades.

- In class, the teacher used "vocational school" to mean a secondary school teaching the skilled trades.
- He looked up "vocational school" because he had never seen it before.

---

wandering nerve (noun)

A mixed nerve that supplies the pharynx and larynx and lungs and heart and esophagus and stomach and most of the abdominal viscera.

- They discussed "wandering nerve" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what “wandering nerve” means with a simple example.

wax bean (noun)

A common bean plant grown for its edible golden pod.

- In class, the teacher used “wax bean” to mean a common bean plant grown for its edible golden pod.
- The article explained what “wax bean” means with a simple example.

welsh pony (noun)

Breed of small ponies originally from Wales.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “welsh pony.”
- He looked up “welsh pony” because he had never seen it before.

western ribbon snake (noun)

Yellow- or reddish-striped snake of temperate woodlands and grasslands to tropics.

- Understanding “western ribbon snake” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “western ribbon snake.”

whipped cream (noun)

Cream that has been beaten until light and fluffy.

- The article explained what “whipped cream” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “whipped cream” during the group presentation.

white backlash (noun)

Backlash by white racists against black civil rights advances.

- He looked up “white backlash” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “white backlash” to mean backlash by white racists against black civil....

wickets (noun)

A small arch used as croquet equipment.

- In class, the teacher used “wickets” to mean a small arch used as croquet equipment.
- He looked up “wickets” because he had never seen it before.

withstand (verb)

Resist or confront with resistance.

- The new material withstands even the greatest wear and tear.
- The coach explained when to use “withstand” and when to wait.

wood pulp (noun)

Wood that has been ground to a pulp; used in making cellulose products (as rayon or paper).

- He looked up “wood pulp” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “wood pulp” to mean wood that has been ground to a pulp; used in making....

woodland (noun)

Land that is covered with trees and shrubs.

- He looked up “woodland” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “woodland” during the group presentation.

zinc (noun)

A bluish-white lustrous metallic element; brittle at ordinary temperatures but malleable when heated; used in a wide variety of alloys and in galvanizing iron; it occurs naturally as zinc sulphide in zinc blende.

- He looked up “zinc” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “zinc” during the group presentation.

absence seizure (noun)

The occurrence of an abrupt, transient loss or impairment of consciousness (which is not subsequently remembered), sometimes with light twitching, fluttering eyelids, etc.; common in petit mal epilepsy.

- He looked up “absence seizure” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “absence seizure.”

absorption band (noun)

A dark band in the spectrum of white light that has been transmitted through a substance that exhibits absorption at selective wavelengths.

- Understanding "absorption band" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "absorption band."

absorption unit (noun)

A unit for measuring absorption.

- The article explained what "absorption unit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "absorption unit" to mean a unit for measuring absorption.

accustomed (adjective)

(often followed by 'to') in the habit of or adapted to.

- Accustomed to doing her own work.
- I've grown accustomed to her face.

adequately (adverb)

In an adequate manner or to an adequate degree.

- He was adequately prepared.
- Using "adequately" can make your explanation more exact.

al-qaeda (noun)

A terrorist network intensely opposed to the United States that dispenses money and logistical support and training to a wide variety of radical Islamic terrorist groups; has cells in more than 50 countries.

- Understanding "al-qaeda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "al-qaeda" means with a simple example.

alzheimer's disease (noun)

A progressive form of presenile dementia that is similar to senile dementia except that it usually starts in the 40s or 50s; first symptoms are impaired memory which is followed by impaired thought and speech and finally complete helplessness.

- The article explained what "alzheimer's disease" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "alzheimer's disease" to mean a progressive form of presenile dementia that is....

amazingly (adverb)

In an amazing manner; to everyone's surprise.

- Amazingly, he finished medical school in three years.
- He answered "amazingly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

ambitions (noun)

A strong drive for success.

- In class, the teacher used "ambitions" to mean a strong drive for success.
- The article explained what "ambitions" means with a simple example.

american flying squirrel (noun)

New World flying squirrels.

- Understanding "american flying squirrel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "american flying squirrel" during the group presentation.

american lobster (noun)

Flesh of cold-water lobsters having large tender claws; caught from Maine to the Carolinas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american lobster."
- The article explained what "american lobster" means with a simple example.

anglo-norman (noun)

The French (Norman) language used in medieval England.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anglo-norman."
- He looked up "anglo-norman" because he had never seen it before.

animal fibre (noun)

Fiber derived from animals.

- Understanding "animal fibre" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "animal fibre" means with a simple example.

anthropology department (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in anthropology.

- Understanding "anthropology department" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anthropology department."

applicant (noun)

A person who requests or seeks something such as assistance or employment or admission.

- Understanding "applicant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "applicant."

approximate (verb)

Judge tentatively or form an estimate of (quantities or time).

- Her results approximate my own.
- Learners should practice how to use "approximate" in real sentences.

assemble (verb)

Create by putting components or members together.

- We assembled in the church basement.
- Assemble your colleagues.

auto limitation (noun)

Social control achieved as a manifestation of self-will or general consent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "auto limitation."
- He looked up "auto limitation" because he had never seen it before.

averages (noun)

A statistic describing the location of a distribution.

- In class, the teacher used "averages" to mean a statistic describing the location of a distribution.
- The article explained what "averages" means with a simple example.

baby's tears (noun)

Prostrate or creeping Corsican herb with moss-like small round short-stemmed leaves.

- The article explained what "baby's tears" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "baby's tears" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bachelor of theology (noun)

A bachelor's degree in theology.

- He looked up "bachelor of theology" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bachelor of theology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

baghdad (noun)

Capital and largest city of Iraq; located on the Tigris River.

- Baghdad is one of the great cities of the Muslim world.
- The article explained what "baghdad" means with a simple example.

ballots (noun)

A choice that is made by counting the number of people in favor of each alternative.

- The article explained what "ballots" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ballots" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bam (noun)

An ancient city in southeastern Iran; destroyed by an earthquake in 2003.

- He looked up “bam” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “bam” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bargaining (noun)

The negotiation of the terms of a transaction or agreement.

- He looked up “bargaining” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “bargaining” to mean the negotiation of the terms of a transaction or....

---

bates (verb)

Moderate or restrain; lessen the force of.

- He did not know how to use “bates” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “bates” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bathing suit (noun)

Tight fitting garment worn for swimming.

- In class, the teacher used “bathing suit” to mean tight fitting garment worn for swimming.
- They discussed “bathing suit” during the group presentation.

---

baton (noun)

A short stout club used primarily by policemen.

- He looked up “baton” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “baton” to mean a short stout club used primarily by policemen.

---

bay of bengal (noun)

An arm of the Indian Ocean to the east of India.

- He looked up “bay of bengal” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bay of bengal.”

---

beginnings (noun)

The event consisting of the start of something.

- He looked up “beginnings” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “beginnings.”

---

bicycle rack (noun)

A rack for parking bicycles.

- He looked up “bicycle rack” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bicycle rack.”

---

births (noun)

The time when something begins (especially life).

- The overall rate of incidence of Down’s syndrome is one in every 800 births.
- He looked up “births” because he had never seen it before.

---

black bamboo (noun)

Small bamboo having thin green culms turning shining black.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “black bamboo.”
- He looked up “black bamboo” because he had never seen it before.

---

black panther (noun)

A member of the Black Panthers political party.

- They discussed “black panther” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “black panther” means with a simple example.

---

breakup (noun)

The termination or disintegration of a relationship (between persons or nations).

- Understanding “breakup” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “breakup.”

brew (verb)

Sit or let sit in boiling water so as to extract the flavor.

- The tea is brewing.
- People have been brewing beer for thousands of years.

bulldogs (noun)

A sturdy thickset short-haired breed with a large head and strong undershot lower jaw; developed originally in England for bull baiting.

- Understanding "bulldogs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bulldogs" to mean a sturdy thickset short-haired breed with a large....

bunker hill (noun)

The first important battle of the American War of Independence (1775) which was fought at Breed's Hill; the British defeated the colonial forces.

- In class, the teacher used "bunker hill" to mean the first important battle of the american war of....
- The article explained what "bunker hill" means with a simple example.

burnt lime (noun)

A white crystalline oxide used in the production of calcium hydroxide.

- Understanding "burnt lime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "burnt lime" to mean a white crystalline oxide used in the production of....

cab fare (noun)

The fare charged for riding in a taxicab.

- Understanding "cab fare" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cab fare" to mean the fare charged for riding in a taxicab.

caesar salad (noun)

Typically having fried croutons and dressing made with a raw egg.

- Understanding "caesar salad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "caesar salad" during the group presentation.

calf bone (noun)

The outer and thinner of the two bones of the human leg between the knee and ankle.

- In class, the teacher used "calf bone" to mean the outer and thinner of the two bones of the human....
- They discussed "calf bone" during the group presentation.

camel (noun)

Cud-chewing mammal used as a draft or saddle animal in desert regions.

- He looked up "camel" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "camel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

canberra (noun)

The capital of Australia; located in southeastern Australia.

- Understanding "canberra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "canberra" to mean the capital of australia; located in southeastern....

capital of kuwait (noun)

A seaport on the Persian Gulf and capital of Kuwait.

- He looked up "capital of kuwait" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of kuwait" to mean a seaport on the persian gulf and capital of kuwait.

catering (noun)

Providing food and services.

- They discussed "catering" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "catering" means with a simple example.

cd-rom drive (noun)

A drive that is connected to a computer and on which a CD-ROM can be 'played'.

- Understanding "cd-rom drive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cd-rom drive" means with a simple example.

---

chain pike (noun)

Common in quiet waters of eastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "chain pike" to mean common in quiet waters of eastern united states.
- He looked up "chain pike" because he had never seen it before.

---

change posture (verb)

Undergo a change in bodily posture.

- The coach explained when to use "change posture" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "change posture" in real sentences.

---

charger (noun)

A device for charging or recharging batteries.

- In class, the teacher used "charger" to mean a device for charging or recharging batteries.
- He looked up "charger" because he had never seen it before.

---

checkout (noun)

The latest time for vacating a hotel room.

- The checkout here is 12 noon.
- Understanding "checkout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

checkout time (noun)

The latest time for vacating a hotel room.

- The checkout here is 12 noon.
- The article explained what "checkout time" means with a simple example.

---

chefs (noun)

A professional cook.

- They discussed "chefs" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "chefs" because he had never seen it before.

---

chester alan arthur (noun)

Elected vice president and became 21st President of the United States when Garfield was assassinated (1830-1886).

- He looked up "chester alan arthur" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chester alan arthur."

---

chicken taco (noun)

A taco with a chicken filling.

- He looked up "chicken taco" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chicken taco."

---

chronicles (noun)

A record or narrative description of past events.

- He looked up "chronicles" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "chronicles" during the group presentation.

---

chuck short ribs (noun)

Between the chuck and the brisket.

- He looked up "chuck short ribs" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chuck short ribs" to mean between the chuck and the brisket.

---

chunk (noun)

A substantial amount.

- We won a chunk of money.

- The article explained what “chunk” means with a simple example.

cinnamon bread (noun)

Bread flavored with cinnamon often containing raisins.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cinnamon bread.”
- He looked up “cinnamon bread” because he had never seen it before.

classmates (noun)

An acquaintance that you go to school with.

- He looked up “classmates” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “classmates” to mean an acquaintance that you go to school with.

coca (noun)

A South American shrub whose leaves are chewed by natives of the Andes; a source of cocaine.

- He looked up “coca” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “coca” during the group presentation.

cocoa (noun)

A beverage made from cocoa powder and milk and sugar; usually drunk hot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cocoa.”
- The article explained what “cocoa” means with a simple example.

cole albert porter (noun)

United States composer and lyricist of musical comedies (1891-1946).

- The article explained what “cole albert porter” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “cole albert porter” during the group presentation.

collateral damage (noun)

(euphemism) inadvertent casualties and destruction inflicted on civilians in the course of military operations.

- In class, the teacher used “collateral damage” to mean (euphemism) inadvertent casualties and destruction....
- They discussed “collateral damage” during the group presentation.

comet (noun)

(astronomy) a relatively small extraterrestrial body consisting of a frozen mass that travels around the sun in a highly elliptical orbit.

- Understanding “comet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “comet.”

comet-like (adjective)

Resembling a comet.

- It is useful to describe something as “comet-like” when it is resembling a comet.
- Students compared “comet-like” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

common bamboo (noun)

Extremely vigorous bamboo having thin-walled culms striped green and yellow; so widely cultivated that native area is uncertain.

- The article explained what “common bamboo” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “common bamboo” during the group presentation.

common basil (noun)

Annual or perennial of tropical Asia having spikes of small white flowers and aromatic leaves; one of the most important culinary herbs; used in salads, casseroles, sauces and some liqueurs.

- He looked up “common basil” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “common basil” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

common chord (noun)

A three-note major or minor chord; a note and its third and fifth tones.

- The article explained what “common chord” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “common chord” to mean a three-note major or minor chord; a note and its....

compartment (noun)

A space into which an area is subdivided.

- In class, the teacher used "compartment" to mean a space into which an area is subdivided.
- The article explained what "compartment" means with a simple example.

---

compositions (noun)

An essay (especially one written as an assignment).

- They discussed "compositions" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "compositions."

---

computer peripheral (noun)

(computer science) electronic equipment connected by cable to the CPU of a computer.

- Disk drives and printers are important peripherals.
- They discussed "computer peripheral" during the group presentation.

---

conditioned (adjective)

Established by conditioning or learning.

- A conditioned response.
- Students compared "conditioned" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

contestants (noun)

A person who participates in competitions.

- In class, the teacher used "contestants" to mean a person who participates in competitions.
- The article explained what "contestants" means with a simple example.

---

continuity irish republican army (noun)

A terrorist organization formed in Ireland in 1994 as a clandestine armed wing of Sinn Fein.

- They discussed "continuity irish republican army" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "continuity irish republican army" because he had never seen it before.

---

cookie jar reserve (noun)

A hidden reserve that can be used to adjust quarterly earning reports.

- The article explained what "cookie jar reserve" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cookie jar reserve" to mean a hidden reserve that can be used to adjust....

---

cooking stove (noun)

A kitchen appliance used for cooking food.

- Dinner was already on the stove.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cooking stove."

---

corn whiskey (noun)

Whiskey distilled from a mash of not less than 80 percent corn.

- Understanding "corn whiskey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "corn whiskey" means with a simple example.

---

corpus (noun)

The main part of an organ or other bodily structure.

- He edited the Hemingway corpus.
- Understanding "corpus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coupons (noun)

A negotiable certificate that can be detached and redeemed as needed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coupons."
- He looked up "coupons" because he had never seen it before.

---

cove (noun)

Small or narrow cave in the side of a cliff or mountain.

- The article explained what "cove" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used “cove” to mean small or narrow cave in the side of a cliff or mountain.

---

cow pony (noun)

A light saddle horse trained for herding cattle.

- They discussed “cow pony” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “cow pony” means with a simple example.

---

cozy (noun)

A padded cloth covering to keep a teapot warm.

- The article explained what “cozy” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “cozy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cozy up (verb)

Ingratiate oneself to; often with insincere behavior.

- Learners should practice how to use “cozy up” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “cozy up” when talking about this idea.

---

cracked-wheat bread (noun)

Bread made with cracked wheat that has been ground fine.

- They discussed “cracked-wheat bread” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “cracked-wheat bread” because he had never seen it before.

---

credit crunch (noun)

A state in which there is a short supply of cash to lend to businesses and consumers and interest rates are high.

- Understanding “credit crunch” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “credit crunch” to mean a state in which there is a short supply of cash to....

---

crowned head (noun)

A nation’s ruler or head of state usually by hereditary right.

- In class, the teacher used “crowned head” to mean a nation’s ruler or head of state usually by....
- They discussed “crowned head” during the group presentation.

---

crystal microphone (noun)

A microphone in which sound waves vibrate a piezoelectric crystal that generates a varying voltage.

- In class, the teacher used “crystal microphone” to mean a microphone in which sound waves vibrate a....
- They discussed “crystal microphone” during the group presentation.

---

cubic inch (noun)

The volume equal to a cube one inch on each side.

- Understanding “cubic inch” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “cubic inch” means with a simple example.

---

culturally (adverb)

With regard to a culture.

- Culturally integrated.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “culturally” naturally.

---

currents (noun)

A flow of electricity through a conductor.

- He looked up “currents” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “currents” during the group presentation.

---

da gamma (noun)

Portuguese navigator who led an expedition around the Cape of Good Hope in 1497; he sighted and named Natal on Christmas Day before crossing the Indian Ocean (1469-1524).

- In class, the teacher used “da gamma” to mean portuguese navigator who led an expedition around....
- The article explained what “da gamma” means with a simple example.

---

deep freezer (noun)

Electric refrigerator (trade name Deepfreeze) in which food is frozen and stored for long periods of time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deep freezer."
- Understanding "deep freezer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

deficiency (noun)

The state of needing something that is absent or unavailable.

- Water is the critical deficiency in desert regions.
- They discussed "deficiency" during the group presentation.

department of anthropology (noun)

The academic department responsible for teaching and research in anthropology.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "department of anthropology."
- Understanding "department of anthropology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

deported (verb)

Hand over to the authorities of another country.

- In everyday English, people use "deported" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "deported" until he saw an example.

deposited (verb)

Put, fix, force, or implant.

- Can you use "deposited" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "deposited" carefully so everyone would understand.

derivatives (noun)

(linguistics) a word that is derived from another word.

- Understanding "derivatives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "derivatives" to mean (linguistics) a word that is derived from another word.

deserted (adjective)

Forsaken by owner or inhabitants.

- Would you call this situation "deserted"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "deserted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

deutsche mark (noun)

Formerly the basic unit of money in Germany.

- He looked up "deutsche mark" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "deutsche mark" to mean formerly the basic unit of money in germany.

dictatorship (noun)

A form of government in which the ruler is an absolute dictator (not restricted by a constitution or laws or opposition etc.).

- He looked up "dictatorship" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dictatorship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dish antenna (noun)

Directional antenna consisting of a parabolic reflector for microwave or radio frequency radiation.

- The article explained what "dish antenna" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dish antenna."

disk clutch (noun)

A friction clutch in which the frictional surfaces are disks.

- He looked up "disk clutch" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "disk clutch" to mean a friction clutch in which the frictional surfaces....

disrespectful (adjective)

Exhibiting lack of respect; rude and discourteous.

- Remarks disrespectful of the law.
- Disrespectful in the presence of his parents.

---

dominican order (noun)

A Roman Catholic order of mendicant preachers founded in the 13th century.

- In class, the teacher used "dominican order" to mean a roman catholic order of mendicant preachers....
- They discussed "dominican order" during the group presentation.

---

double knit (noun)

A knit fabric similar to jersey that is made with two sets of needles producing a double thickness joined by interlocking stitches.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double knit."
- He looked up "double knit" because he had never seen it before.

---

drafting table (noun)

A worktable with adjustable top.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drafting table."
- They discussed "drafting table" during the group presentation.

---

drawing chalk (noun)

Colored chalks used by artists.

- They discussed "drawing chalk" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "drawing chalk" means with a simple example.

---

dread (verb)

Be afraid or scared of; be frightened of.

- She tried to use "dread" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "dread" until he saw an example.

---

dub (verb)

Raise (someone) to knighthood.

- In everyday English, people use "dub" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "dub" until he saw an example.

---

dummy (noun)

A cartridge containing an explosive charge but no bullet.

- He looked up "dummy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dummy" during the group presentation.

---

dummy up (verb)

Refuse to talk or stop talking; fall silent.

- Dummy up the books that are to be published.
- Can you use "dummy up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

ecuador (noun)

A republic in northwestern South America; became independent from Spain in 1822; the landscape is dominated by the Andes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ecuador."
- They discussed "ecuador" during the group presentation.

---

edmonton (noun)

The capital of the province of Alberta.

- He looked up "edmonton" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edmonton."

---

eggs benedict (noun)

Toasted English muffin topped with ham and a poached egg (or an oyster) and hollandaise sauce.

- In class, the teacher used "eggs benedict" to mean toasted english muffin topped with ham and a....
- The article explained what "eggs benedict" means with a simple example.

electorate (noun)

The body of enfranchised citizens; those qualified to vote.

- Understanding "electorate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "electorate" because he had never seen it before.

elf cup (noun)

Apothecium of a fungus of the family Pezizaceae.

- They discussed "elf cup" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "elf cup" because he had never seen it before.

english-gothic (noun)

A Gothic style in 14th and 15th century England; characterized by vertical lines and a four-centered (Tudor) arch and fan vaulting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "english-gothic."
- They discussed "english-gothic" during the group presentation.

enhancing (verb)

Make better or more attractive.

- In everyday English, people use "enhancing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "enhancing" in real sentences.

entertained (adjective)

Pleasantly occupied; -Queen Victoria.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "entertained."
- Would you call this situation "entertained"? Explain why.

erosion (noun)

A gradual decline of something.

- After the accounting scandal there was an erosion of confidence in the auditors.
- They discussed "erosion" during the group presentation.

european hare (noun)

Large hare introduced in North America; does not turn white in winter.

- The article explained what "european hare" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "european hare" to mean large hare introduced in north america; does not....

exhaust valve (noun)

A valve through which burned gases from a cylinder escape into the exhaust manifold.

- In class, the teacher used "exhaust valve" to mean a valve through which burned gases from a cylinder....
- The article explained what "exhaust valve" means with a simple example.

explores (verb)

Travel to or penetrate into.

- Learners should practice how to use "explores" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "explores" and when to wait.

expo (noun)

A collection of things (goods or works of art etc.) for public display.

- In class, the teacher used "expo" to mean a collection of things (goods or works of art etc.)....
- The article explained what "expo" means with a simple example.

favourites (noun)

Something regarded with special favor or liking.

- He looked up "favourites" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "favourites" during the group presentation.

fibers (noun)

The inherent complex of attributes that determines a persons moral and ethical actions and reactions; - Herbert Spencer.

- They discussed "fibers" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fibers" means with a simple example.

---

fitzgerald (noun)

United States author whose novels characterized the Jazz Age in the United States (1896-1940).

- In class, the teacher used "fitzgerald" to mean united states author whose novels characterized the....
- They discussed "fitzgerald" during the group presentation.

---

flank (noun)

The side of military or naval formation.

- They attacked the enemy's right flank.
- Understanding "flank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flare (noun)

A sudden recurrence or worsening of symptoms.

- A colitis flare.
- Infection can cause a lupus flare.

---

flare out (verb)

Become flared and widen, usually at one end.

- The bellbottom pants flare out.
- The coach explained when to use "flare out" and when to wait.

---

flare up (verb)

Ignite quickly and suddenly, especially after having died down.

- The fire flared up and died down once again.
- Tempers flared at the meeting.

---

flare-up (noun)

A sudden intense happening.

- He looked up "flare-up" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "flare-up" during the group presentation.

---

fleeing (verb)

Run away quickly.

- The coach explained when to use "fleeing" and when to wait.
- Can you use "fleeing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

flirting (noun)

Playful behavior intended to arouse sexual interest.

- They discussed "flirting" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "flirting" to mean playful behavior intended to arouse sexual interest.

---

floral leaf (noun)

A modified leaf that is part of a flower.

- In class, the teacher used "floral leaf" to mean a modified leaf that is part of a flower.
- Understanding "floral leaf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

focal distance (noun)

The distance from a lens to its focus.

- In class, the teacher used "focal distance" to mean the distance from a lens to its focus.
- He looked up "focal distance" because he had never seen it before.

---

focal length (noun)

The distance from a lens to its focus.

- The article explained what "focal length" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used “focal length” to mean the distance from a lens to its focus.

friction tape (noun)

A water-resistant adhesive tape used to insulate exposed electrical conductors.

- In class, the teacher used “friction tape” to mean a water-resistant adhesive tape used to insulate....
- Understanding “friction tape” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

friendly takeover (noun)

A takeover that is welcomed by the management of the target company.

- In class, the teacher used “friendly takeover” to mean a takeover that is welcomed by the management of....
- They discussed “friendly takeover” during the group presentation.

funny remark (noun)

An account of an amusing incident (usually with a punch line).

- She told a funny story.
- She made a funny.

gallons (noun)

A British imperial capacity measure (liquid or dry) equal to 4 quarts or 4.545 liters.

- Understanding “gallons” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “gallons” during the group presentation.

garden snail (noun)

Any of several inedible snails of the genus Helix; often destructive pests.

- He looked up “garden snail” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “garden snail” to mean any of several inedible snails of the genus helix;....

generators (noun)

An apparatus that produces a vapor or gas.

- Understanding “generators” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “generators” during the group presentation.

genus arizona (noun)

Glossy snake.

- Understanding “genus arizona” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “genus arizona” because he had never seen it before.

genus pan (noun)

Chimpanzees; more closely related to Australopithecus than to other pongids.

- The article explained what “genus pan” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “genus pan.”

glass fibre (noun)

A very thin fiber made of glass that functions as a waveguide for light; used in bundles to transmit images.

- He looked up “glass fibre” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “glass fibre.”

glove leather (noun)

Leather suitable for making gloves.

- In class, the teacher used “glove leather” to mean leather suitable for making gloves.
- The article explained what “glove leather” means with a simple example.

greek alphabet (noun)

The alphabet used by ancient Greeks.

- They discussed “greek alphabet” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “greek alphabet” because he had never seen it before.

gus (noun)

The largest and southernmost island in the Marianas which is administered as a territory of the United States; it was ceded by Spain to the United States in 1898.

- They discussed "gus" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gus" means with a simple example.

---

hand grenade (noun)

A grenade designed to be thrown by hand.

- They discussed "hand grenade" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hand grenade."

---

hand-crafted (adjective)

Made by hand or a hand process.

- The speaker chose "hand-crafted" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "hand-crafted" approach may work better in this case.

---

handmade (adjective)

Made by hand or a hand process.

- Delicate handmade baby dresses.
- Would you call this situation "handmade"? Explain why.

---

harness horse (noun)

Horse used for pulling vehicles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harness horse."
- He looked up "harness horse" because he had never seen it before.

---

hartford (noun)

The state capital of Connecticut; located in central Connecticut on the Connecticut river; a center of the insurance business.

- In class, the teacher used "hartford" to mean the state capital of connecticut; located in....
- They discussed "hartford" during the group presentation.

---

hawkins (noun)

United States jazz saxophonist (1904-1969).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hawkins."
- The article explained what "hawkins" means with a simple example.

---

hazards (noun)

A source of danger; a possibility of incurring loss or misfortune.

- They discussed "hazards" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hazards."

---

healing herb (noun)

Leaves make a popular tisane; young leaves used in salads or cooked.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "healing herb."
- The article explained what "healing herb" means with a simple example.

---

heat rash (noun)

Obstruction of the sweat ducts during high heat and humidity.

- He looked up "heat rash" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heat rash."

---

helen porter mitchell (noun)

Australian operatic soprano (1861-1931).

- In class, the teacher used "helen porter mitchell" to mean australian operatic soprano (1861-1931).
- The article explained what "helen porter mitchell" means with a simple example.

---

herb christopher (noun)

A plant of the genus Actaea having acrid poisonous berries.

- In class, the teacher used "herb christopher" to mean a plant of the genus actaea having acrid poisonous....
- The article explained what "herb christopher" means with a simple example.

---

hold sway (verb)

Be master; reign or rule.

- Can you use "hold sway" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "hold sway" when talking about this idea.

---

home brew (noun)

An alcoholic beverage (especially beer) made at home.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "home brew."
- They discussed "home brew" during the group presentation.

---

honorary degree (noun)

A degree conferred to honor the recipient.

- He looked up "honorary degree" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "honorary degree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

honours list (noun)

A list issued by examiners that categorizes students according to the class of honours they achieved in their degree examinations.

- He looked up "honours list" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "honours list."

---

hostages (noun)

A prisoner who is held by one party to insure that another party will meet specified terms.

- He looked up "hostages" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hostages" to mean a prisoner who is held by one party to insure that....

---

hydrogen ion concentration (noun)

The number of moles of hydrogen ions per cubic decimeter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hydrogen ion concentration."
- He looked up "hydrogen ion concentration" because he had never seen it before.

---

i chronicles (noun)

The first of two Old Testament books telling the history of Judah and Israel until the return from the Babylonian Captivity in 536 BC.

- The article explained what "i chronicles" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "i chronicles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

icc (noun)

A former independent federal agency that supervised and set rates for carriers that transported goods and people between states; was terminated in 1995.

- The ICC was established in 1887 as the first federal agency.
- The article explained what "icc" means with a simple example.

---

idle wheel (noun)

A pulley on a shaft that presses against a guide belt to guide or tighten it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "idle wheel."
- They discussed "idle wheel" during the group presentation.

---

imaginary creature (noun)

A creature of the imagination; a person that exists only in legends or myths or fiction.

- He looked up "imaginary creature" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "imaginary creature" to mean a creature of the imagination; a person that exists....

---

incidence (noun)

The striking of a light beam on a surface.

- He measured the angle of incidence of the reflected light.
- In class, the teacher used "incidence" to mean the striking of a light beam on a surface.

incompetent person (noun)

Someone who is not competent to take effective action.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "incompetent person."
- He looked up "incompetent person" because he had never seen it before.

indian tick fever (noun)

A disease (common in India and around the Mediterranean area) caused by a rickettsia that is transmitted to humans by a reddish brown tick (ixodid) that lives on dogs and other mammals.

- He looked up "indian tick fever" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "indian tick fever" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

infant mortality (noun)

The death rate during the first year of life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "infant mortality."
- They discussed "infant mortality" during the group presentation.

insect powder (noun)

A chemical used to kill insects.

- The article explained what "insect powder" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "insect powder" during the group presentation.

instrumental conditioning (noun)

Operant conditioning that pairs a response with a reinforcement in discrete trials; reinforcement occurs only after the response is given.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instrumental conditioning."
- He looked up "instrumental conditioning" because he had never seen it before.

intimacy (noun)

A feeling of being intimate and belonging together.

- The absence of fences created a mysterious intimacy in which no one knew privacy.
- He looked up "intimacy" because he had never seen it before.

italians (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Italy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "italians."
- He looked up "italians" because he had never seen it before.

jumper cable (noun)

A jumper that consists of a short piece of wire.

- It was a tangle of jumper cables and clip leads.
- In class, the teacher used "jumper cable" to mean a jumper that consists of a short piece of wire.

kat (noun)

The leaves of the shrub Catha edulis which are chewed like tobacco or used to make tea; has the effect of a euphoric stimulant.

- In Yemen kat is used daily by 85% of adults.
- Understanding "kat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

kin group (noun)

Group of people related by blood or marriage.

- They discussed "kin group" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "kin group" because he had never seen it before.

kitten (verb)

Have kittens.

- Our cat kittened again this year.
- Can you use "kitten" in a sentence that fits this situation?

koch (noun)

German bacteriologist who isolated the anthrax bacillus and the tubercle bacillus and the cholera bacillus (1843-1910).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "koch."
- Understanding "koch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lagos (noun)

Chief port and economic center of Nigeria; located in southwestern Nigeria on the Gulf of Guinea; former capital of Nigeria.

- In class, the teacher used "lagos" to mean chief port and economic center of nigeria; located....
- The article explained what "lagos" means with a simple example.

---

lamb roast (noun)

A cut of lamb suitable for roasting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lamb roast."
- The article explained what "lamb roast" means with a simple example.

---

lan (noun)

A local computer network for communication between computers; especially a network connecting computers and word processors and other electronic office equipment to create a communication system between offices.

- The article explained what "lan" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lan" during the group presentation.

---

leaf mold (noun)

Soil composed mainly of decaying leaves.

- He looked up "leaf mold" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leaf mold."

---

legal proceeding (noun)

(law) the institution of a sequence of steps by which legal judgments are invoked.

- The article explained what "legal proceeding" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "legal proceeding" during the group presentation.

---

lender (noun)

Someone who lends money or gives credit in business matters.

- He looked up "lender" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lender" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leone (noun)

The basic unit of money in Sierra Leone; equal to 100 cents.

- The article explained what "leone" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "leone" to mean the basic unit of money in sierra leone; equal to....

---

lever (verb)

To move or force, especially in an effort to get something open; :.

- She tried to use "lever" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "lever" until he saw an example.

---

linguistic universal (noun)

(linguistics) a grammatical rule (or other linguistic feature) that is found in all languages.

- In class, the teacher used "linguistic universal" to mean (linguistics) a grammatical rule (or other....
- Understanding "linguistic universal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lisbon (noun)

Capital and largest city and economic and cultural center of Portugal; a major port in western Portugal on Tagus River where it broadens and empties into the Atlantic.

- They discussed "lisbon" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lisbon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

literal interpretation (noun)

An interpretation based on the exact wording.

- They discussed "literal interpretation" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "literal interpretation."

little chief hare (noun)

North American pika.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little chief hare."
- He looked up "little chief hare" because he had never seen it before.

lu (noun)

A trivalent metallic element of the rare earth group; usually occurs in association with yttrium.

- The article explained what "lu" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lu" during the group presentation.

mae west (noun)

An inflatable life jacket.

- He looked up "mae west" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mae west."

mag tape (noun)

Memory device consisting of a long thin plastic strip coated with iron oxide; used to record audio or video signals or to store computer information.

- He took along a dozen tapes to record the interview.
- They discussed "mag tape" during the group presentation.

male orgasm (noun)

An orgasm accompanied by the sensation of ejaculation of semen.

- He looked up "male orgasm" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "male orgasm" during the group presentation.

marketed (verb)

Engage in the commercial promotion, sale, or distribution of.

- He did not know how to use "marketed" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "marketed" when talking about this idea.

marx brothers (noun)

A family of United States comedians consisting of four brothers with an anarchic sense of humor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marx brothers."
- He looked up "marx brothers" because he had never seen it before.

maternity hospital (noun)

A hospital that provides care for women during pregnancy and childbirth and for newborn infants.

- They discussed "maternity hospital" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maternity hospital."

methodist church (noun)

A Protestant denomination founded on the principles of John Wesley and Charles Wesley.

- Understanding "methodist church" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "methodist church."

mileage (noun)

A travel allowance at a given rate per mile traveled.

- He looked up "mileage" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mileage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

military posture (noun)

Capability in terms of personnel and materiel that affect the capacity to fight a war.

- Politicians have neglected our military posture.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "military posture."

mohammed ali (noun)

Albanian soldier in the service of Turkey who was made viceroy of Egypt and took control away from the Ottoman Empire and established Egypt as a modern state (1769-1849).

- In class, the teacher used "mohammed ali" to mean albanian soldier in the service of turkey who was....
- He looked up "mohammed ali" because he had never seen it before.

---

mole plant (noun)

Showy poinsettia found from the southern United States to Peru.

- Understanding "mole plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mole plant" because he had never seen it before.

---

morton (noun)

United States jazz musician who moved from ragtime to New Orleans jazz (1885-1941).

- They discussed "morton" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "morton" because he had never seen it before.

---

municipalities (noun)

An urban district having corporate status and powers of self-government.

- He looked up "municipalities" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "municipalities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

muscular structure (noun)

The muscular system of an organism.

- The article explained what "muscular structure" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "muscular structure."

---

mutant (adjective)

Tending to undergo or resulting from mutation.

- A mutant gene.
- A "mutant" approach may work better in this case.

---

mutation (noun)

A change or alteration in form or qualities.

- They discussed "mutation" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mutation" because he had never seen it before.

---

mythology (noun)

Myths collectively; the body of stories associated with a culture or institution or person.

- Understanding "mythology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mythology" because he had never seen it before.

---

nail-biting (adjective)

(of a situation) characterized by or causing suspense.

- Students compared "nail-biting" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "nail-biting" when it is (of a situation) characterized by or causing suspense.

---

native hawaiian (noun)

A member or descendant of the indigenous Polynesian people who lived in the Hawaiian Islands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "native hawaiian."
- He looked up "native hawaiian" because he had never seen it before.

---

negatively charged (adjective)

Having a negative charge.

- It is useful to describe something as "negatively charged" when it is having a negative charge.
- Would you call this situation "negatively charged"? Explain why.

---

neon (noun)

A colorless odorless gaseous element that give a red glow in a vacuum tube; one of the six inert gasses; occurs in the air in small amounts.

- In class, the teacher used "neon" to mean a colorless odorless gaseous element that give a....
- He looked up "neon" because he had never seen it before.

---

nervous impulse (noun)

The electrical discharge that travels along a nerve fiber.

- They demonstrated the transmission of impulses from the cortex to the hypothalamus.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nervous impulse."

---

nile (noun)

The world's longest river (4150 miles); flows northward through eastern Africa into the Mediterranean; the Nile River valley in Egypt was the site of the world's first great civilization.

- He looked up "nile" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "nile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

noble cane (noun)

Sugarcanes representing the highest development of the species; characterized by large juicy stalks with soft rinds and high sugar content.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "noble cane."
- The article explained what "noble cane" means with a simple example.

---

northeastern (adjective)

Situated in or oriented toward the northeast.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "northeastern."
- A "northeastern" approach may work better in this case.

---

noticing (verb)

Discover or determine the existence, presence, or fact of.

- Can you use "noticing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "noticing" until he saw an example.

---

nuclear rna (noun)

Ribonucleic acid found in the nucleolus of the cell.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nuclear rna."
- They discussed "nuclear rna" during the group presentation.

---

nuclear-powered submarine (noun)

A submarine that is propelled by nuclear power.

- The article explained what "nuclear-powered submarine" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nuclear-powered submarine."

---

numerical value (noun)

A real number regardless of its sign.

- The article explained what "numerical value" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "numerical value" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nun (noun)

The 14th letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nun."
- The article explained what "nun" means with a simple example.

---

nutritional (adjective)

Of or relating to or providing nutrition.

- Nutritional information.
- The speaker chose "nutritional" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

oak leaf cluster (noun)

A United States military decoration consisting of bronze or silver oak leaves and acorns awarded to anyone who has won a given medal before.

- The article explained what "oak leaf cluster" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oak leaf cluster."

optic cup (noun)

(embryology) a two-walled cuplike depression that develops into the pigmented and sensory layers of the retina.

- The article explained what "optic cup" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "optic cup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pale violet (noun)

Leafy-stemmed violet of eastern North America having large white or creamy flowers faintly marked with purple.

- They discussed "pale violet" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pale violet."

palestine liberation front (noun)

A terrorist group formed in 1977 as the result of a split with the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine; became a satellite of al-Fatah; made terrorist attacks on Israel across the Lebanese border.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "palestine liberation front."
- The article explained what "palestine liberation front" means with a simple example.

panda car (noun)

A police cruiser.

- In class, the teacher used "panda car" to mean a police cruiser.
- They discussed "panda car" during the group presentation.

pathways (noun)

A bundle of myelinated nerve fibers following a path through the brain.

- They discussed "pathways" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pathways" because he had never seen it before.

pedal (adjective)

Of or relating to the feet.

- The word for a pedal extremity is 'foot'.
- Would you call this situation "pedal"? Explain why.

pentagon gang (noun)

A Filipino terrorist group that broke away from the Moro Islamic Liberation Front in 2001 in order to continue terrorism and kidnapping and extortion.

- The article explained what "pentagon gang" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pentagon gang" during the group presentation.

pest (noun)

Any unwanted and destructive insect or other animal that attacks food or crops or livestock etc.

- He sprayed the garden to get rid of pests.
- Many pests have developed resistance to the common pesticides.

pillar (noun)

A fundamental principle or practice.

- Science eroded the pillars of superstition.
- A thin pillar of smoke betrayed their campsite.

pitches (noun)

The action or manner of throwing something.

- He was employed to see that his paper's news pitches were not trespassed upon by rival vendors.
- Understanding "pitches" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

plant fibre (noun)

Fiber derived from plants.

- The article explained what "plant fibre" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "plant fibre" during the group presentation.

plausible (adjective)

Apparently reasonable and valid, and truthful.

- A plausible excuse.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "plausible."

---

pledged (adjective)

Bound by or as if by an oath.

- A "pledged" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "pledged" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

poison ivy (noun)

Dermatitis resulting from contact with the poison ivy plant.

- My poison ivy is drying up.
- Understanding "poison ivy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

polling booth (noun)

A temporary booth in a polling place which people enter to cast their votes.

- The article explained what "polling booth" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "polling booth" to mean a temporary booth in a polling place which people....

---

polymer (noun)

A naturally occurring or synthetic compound consisting of large molecules made up of a linked series of repeated simple monomers.

- Understanding "polymer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polymer."

---

pork roast (noun)

Cut of pork suitable for roasting.

- The article explained what "pork roast" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pork roast" to mean cut of pork suitable for roasting.

---

portal tomb (noun)

A prehistoric megalithic tomb typically having two large upright stones and a capstone.

- Understanding "portal tomb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "portal tomb" because he had never seen it before.

---

prayer rug (noun)

A small rug used by Muslims during their devotions.

- They discussed "prayer rug" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "prayer rug" means with a simple example.

---

precipitation (noun)

The quantity of water falling to earth at a specific place within a specified period of time.

- The storm brought several inches of precipitation.
- He is responsible for the precipitation of his own demise.

---

proprietary drug (noun)

A drug that has a trade name and is protected by a patent (can be produced and sold only by the company holding the patent).

- The article explained what "proprietary drug" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "proprietary drug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prosecutors (noun)

A government official who conducts criminal prosecutions on behalf of the state.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prosecutors."
- He looked up "prosecutors" because he had never seen it before.

---

protections (noun)

The activity of protecting someone or something.

- He looked up "protections" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “protections.”

---

protein folding (noun)

The process whereby a protein molecule assumes its intricate three-dimensional shape.

- Understanding protein folding is the next step in deciphering the genetic code.
- He looked up “protein folding” because he had never seen it before.

---

psychic trauma (noun)

An emotional wound or shock often having long-lasting effects.

- The article explained what “psychic trauma” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “psychic trauma.”

---

pub crawl (noun)

A tour of bars or public houses (usually taking one drink at each stop).

- Understanding “pub crawl” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pub crawl.”

---

pub-crawl (verb)

Go from one pub to the next and get progressively more drunk.

- He pub-crawled around Birmingham.
- In everyday English, people use “pub-crawl” when talking about this idea.

---

pulp magazine (noun)

An inexpensive magazine printed on poor quality paper.

- They discussed “pulp magazine” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “pulp magazine” means with a simple example.

---

punching bag (noun)

A person on whom another person vents their anger.

- He resigned because his boss used him as a punching bag.
- Understanding “punching bag” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pup (noun)

An inexperienced young person.

- They discussed “pup” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “pup” because he had never seen it before.

---

purple velvet plant (noun)

Javanese foliage plant grown for their handsome velvety leaves with violet-purple hairs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “purple velvet plant.”
- He looked up “purple velvet plant” because he had never seen it before.

---

quarantine (verb)

Place into enforced isolation, as for medical reasons.

- My dog was quarantined before he could live in England.
- Learners should practice how to use “quarantine” in real sentences.

---

quartz battery (noun)

A stamp mill for stamping quartz.

- He looked up “quartz battery” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “quartz battery” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

query (noun)

An instance of questioning.

- Understanding “query” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “query.”

---

radioactive dust (noun)

The radioactive particles that settle to the ground after a nuclear explosion.

- They discussed "radioactive dust" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "radioactive dust" to mean the radioactive particles that settle to the ground....

---

rallies (noun)

The feat of mustering strength for a renewed effort.

- He looked up "rallies" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rallies."

---

rapids (noun)

A part of a river where the current is very fast.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rapids."
- He looked up "rapids" because he had never seen it before.

---

reacted (verb)

Undergo a chemical reaction; react with another substance under certain conditions.

- She tried to use "reacted" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "reacted" when talking about this idea.

---

red panda (noun)

Reddish-brown Old World raccoon-like carnivore; in some classifications considered unrelated to the giant pandas.

- They discussed "red panda" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "red panda" to mean reddish-brown old world raccoon-like carnivore; in....

---

reproductive organ (noun)

Any organ involved in sexual reproduction.

- The article explained what "reproductive organ" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "reproductive organ" during the group presentation.

---

respiratory organ (noun)

Any organ involved in the process of respiration.

- They discussed "respiratory organ" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "respiratory organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

restraint (noun)

A device that retards something's motion.

- The car did not have proper restraints fitted.
- The unlawful restraint of trade.

---

rests (noun)

A support on which things can be put.

- People actually accomplish more when they take time for short rests.
- The article explained what "rests" means with a simple example.

---

retains (verb)

Secure and keep for possible future use or application.

- This soil retains water.
- The dam retains the water.

---

revived (adjective)

Restored to consciousness or life or vigor.

- Felt revived hope.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "revived."

---

rift (noun)

A personal or social separation (as between opposing factions).

- The sun shone through a rift in the clouds.
- They discussed "rift" during the group presentation.

---

roast lamb (noun)

A cut of lamb suitable for roasting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roast lamb."
- The article explained what "roast lamb" means with a simple example.

---

roast pork (noun)

Cut of pork suitable for roasting.

- The article explained what "roast pork" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "roast pork" to mean cut of pork suitable for roasting.

---

roman alphabet (noun)

The alphabet evolved by the ancient Romans which serves for writing most of the languages of western Europe.

- Understanding "roman alphabet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roman alphabet."

---

rouge plant (noun)

Bushy houseplant having white to pale pink flowers followed by racemes of scarlet berries; tropical Americas.

- They discussed "rouge plant" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rouge plant" because he had never seen it before.

---

running blackberry (noun)

Any of several trailing blackberry brambles especially of North America.

- He looked up "running blackberry" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "running blackberry."

---

russ (noun)

The medieval Russian state established by Scandinavian traders in the 9th century; the capital was first in Novgorod and then in Kiev.

- They discussed "russ" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "russ" because he had never seen it before.

---

sacred scripture (noun)

Any writing that is regarded as sacred by a religious group.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sacred scripture."
- Understanding "sacred scripture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

saddle oxford (noun)

An oxford with a saddle of contrasting color.

- The article explained what "saddle oxford" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "saddle oxford" to mean an oxford with a saddle of contrasting color.

---

saddle-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a horse's saddle.

- A "saddle-shaped" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "saddle-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

salesman (noun)

A man salesperson.

- In class, the teacher used "salesman" to mean a man salesperson.
- He looked up "salesman" because he had never seen it before.

---

scarf joint (noun)

A joint made by notching the ends of two pieces of timber or metal so that they will lock together end-to-end.

- The article explained what "scarf joint" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scarf joint."

scarlet (noun)

A variable color that is vivid red but sometimes with an orange tinge.

- In class, the teacher used "scarlet" to mean a variable color that is vivid red but sometimes....
- Understanding "scarlet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

scenic artist (noun)

An artist specializing in scenic subjects.

- He looked up "scenic artist" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "scenic artist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

scotch kiss (noun)

Butterscotch candy kiss.

- Understanding "scotch kiss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "scotch kiss" means with a simple example.

screws (verb)

Cause to penetrate, as with a circular motion.

- Drive in screws or bolts.
- In everyday English, people use "screws" when talking about this idea.

scrub bird (noun)

Small fast-running Australian bird resembling a wren and frequenting brush or scrub.

- Understanding "scrub bird" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "scrub bird" during the group presentation.

scrub-bird (noun)

Small fast-running Australian bird resembling a wren and frequenting brush or scrub.

- The article explained what "scrub-bird" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "scrub-bird" during the group presentation.

sea hare (noun)

Naked marine gastropod having a soft body with reduced internal shell and two pairs of ear-like tentacles.

- They discussed "sea hare" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sea hare" because he had never seen it before.

secondary emission (noun)

The emission of electrons from a surface that is bombarded by higher energy primary electrons.

- They discussed "secondary emission" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "secondary emission" because he had never seen it before.

self-deception (noun)

A misconception that is favorable to the person who holds it.

- He looked up "self-deception" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "self-deception" during the group presentation.

self-defeating (adjective)

Acting to defeat its own purpose.

- It is self-defeating...to ignore the progress of events.
- Would you call this situation "self-defeating"? Explain why.

sensing (noun)

The perception that something has occurred or some state exists.

- The article explained what "sensing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sensing" to mean the perception that something has occurred or some....

sewer (noun)

Misfortune resulting in lost effort or money.

- All that work went down the sewer.
- A sewer of fine gowns.

---

shipments (noun)

The act of sending off something.

- The article explained what "shipments" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shipments."

---

shits (noun)

A coarse term for defecation.

- The article explained what "shits" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "shits" during the group presentation.

---

sir anthony philip hopkins (noun)

Welsh film actor (born in 1937).

- They discussed "sir anthony philip hopkins" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir anthony philip hopkins."

---

sir bernard law montgomery (noun)

English general during World War II; won victories over Rommel in North Africa and led British ground forces in the invasion of Normandy (1887-1976).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir bernard law montgomery."
- He looked up "sir bernard law montgomery" because he had never seen it before.

---

sir joshua reynolds (noun)

English portrait painter and first president of the Royal Academy (1723-1792).

- Understanding "sir joshua reynolds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sir joshua reynolds" means with a simple example.

---

sleeping capsule (noun)

A soporific drug in the form of a pill (or tablet or capsule).

- He looked up "sleeping capsule" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sleeping capsule" during the group presentation.

---

smack (verb)

Have an element suggestive (of something).

- His speeches smacked of racism.
- The teacher smacked the student who had misbehaved.

---

social anthropology (noun)

The branch of anthropology that deals with human culture and society.

- They discussed "social anthropology" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "social anthropology" means with a simple example.

---

soda lime (noun)

A mixture of sodium and calcium hydroxides; absorbs liquids and gases.

- Understanding "soda lime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "soda lime" means with a simple example.

---

soft-boiled (adjective)

Easily moved to pity or sorrow.

- Would you call this situation "soft-boiled"? Explain why.
- A "soft-boiled" approach may work better in this case.

---

sonny (noun)

A male child (a familiar term of address to a boy).

- The article explained what "sonny" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sonny."

---

southwestern (noun)

A dialect of Middle English.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "southwestern."
- They discussed "southwestern" during the group presentation.

---

spared (verb)

Save or relieve from an experience or action.

- In everyday English, people use "spared" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "spared" in real sentences.

---

spatial arrangement (noun)

The property possessed by an array of things that have space between them.

- He looked up "spatial arrangement" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "spatial arrangement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spider crab (noun)

Any of numerous crabs with very long legs and small triangular bodies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spider crab."
- The article explained what "spider crab" means with a simple example.

---

spokesperson (noun)

An advocate who represents someone else's policy or purpose.

- The meeting was attended by spokespersons for all the major organs of government.
- He looked up "spokesperson" because he had never seen it before.

---

spur track (noun)

A railway line connected to a trunk line.

- The article explained what "spur track" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "spur track" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

staging area (noun)

An area where troops and equipment in transit are assembled before a military operation.

- Understanding "staging area" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "staging area" to mean an area where troops and equipment in transit are....

---

stalking (noun)

A hunt for game carried on by following it stealthily or waiting in ambush.

- The article explained what "stalking" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stalking" to mean a hunt for game carried on by following it....

---

standardized (adjective)

Capable of replacing or changing places with something else; permitting mutual substitution without loss of function or suitability.

- Standardized education.
- A "standardized" approach may work better in this case.

---

stanley baldwin (noun)

English statesman; member of the Conservative Party (1867-1947).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stanley baldwin."
- The article explained what "stanley baldwin" means with a simple example.

---

statutory offense (noun)

Crimes created by statutes and not by common law.

- The article explained what "statutory offense" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "statutory offense."

---

stitch (noun)

A sharp spasm of pain in the side resulting from running.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stitch."
- He looked up "stitch" because he had never seen it before.

---

submarine sandwich (noun)

A large sandwich made of a long crusty roll split lengthwise and filled with meats and cheese (and tomato and onion and lettuce and condiments); different names are used in different sections of the United States.

- They discussed "submarine sandwich" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "submarine sandwich" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

substrate (noun)

A surface on which an organism grows or is attached.

- The gardener talked about the proper substrate for acid-loving plants.
- The Celtic languages of Britain are a substrate for English.

---

sultan (noun)

The ruler of a Muslim country (especially of the former Ottoman Empire).

- The article explained what "sultan" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sultan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

supremacy (noun)

Power to dominate or defeat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supremacy."
- He looked up "supremacy" because he had never seen it before.

---

swallowed (verb)

Enclose or envelop completely, as if by swallowing.

- The huge waves swallowed the small boat and it sank shortly thereafter.
- The Nazis swallowed the Baltic countries.

---

swell (verb)

Become filled with pride, arrogance, or anger.

- The mother was swelling with importance when she spoke of her son.
- The music swelled to a crescendo.

---

swell up (verb)

Expand abnormally.

- The bellies of the starving children are swelling.
- She tried to use "swell up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tape recorder (noun)

A magnetic recorder using magnetic tape.

- He looked up "tape recorder" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tape recorder" to mean a magnetic recorder using magnetic tape.

---

thanked (verb)

Express gratitude or show appreciation to.

- In everyday English, people use "thanked" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "thanked" until he saw an example.

---

the shits (noun)

Obscene terms for diarrhea.

- Understanding "the shits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "the shits" means with a simple example.

---

theoretically (adverb)

In theory; according to the assumed facts.

- He worked the problem out theoretically.
- Using "theoretically" can make your explanation more exact.

---

thirst (noun)

Strong desire for something (not food or drink).

- A thirst for knowledge.
- He looked up "thirst" because he had never seen it before.

---

tilt-top table (noun)

A pedestal table whose top is hinged so that it can be tilted to a vertical position.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tilt-top table."
- Understanding "tilt-top table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tomato streak (noun)

Disease of a wide range of plants (tomatoes, potatoes, peas) resulting from a mixed infection of potato and tomato mosaic.

- He looked up "tomato streak" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tomato streak" to mean disease of a wide range of plants (tomatoes,....

---

tooth decay (noun)

Soft decayed area in a tooth; progressive decay can lead to the death of a tooth.

- He looked up "tooth decay" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tooth decay."

---

transitional (adjective)

Of or relating to or characterized by transition.

- Adolescence is a transitional stage between childhood and adulthood.
- Would you call this situation "transitional"? Explain why.

---

true blackberry (noun)

The true blackberry of Europe as well as any of numerous varieties having sweet edible black or dark purple berries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "true blackberry."
- The article explained what "true blackberry" means with a simple example.

---

true lobster (noun)

Large edible marine crustaceans having large pincers on the first pair of legs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "true lobster."
- He looked up "true lobster" because he had never seen it before.

---

tuna (noun)

Tropical American prickly pear of Jamaica.

- Understanding "tuna" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tuna" to mean tropical american prickly pear of jamaica.

---

turn a nice dime (verb)

Make a satisfactory profit.

- The company turned a nice dime after a short time.
- The coach explained when to use "turn a nice dime" and when to wait.

---

turtle bean (noun)

Black-seeded bean of South America; usually dried.

- In class, the teacher used "turtle bean" to mean black-seeded bean of south america; usually dried.
- Understanding "turtle bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

type iv allergic reaction (noun)

An allergic reaction that becomes apparent only hours after contact.

- The article explained what "type iv allergic reaction" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "type iv allergic reaction."

united arab emirates (noun)

A federation of seven Arab emirates on the eastern Arabian peninsula; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1971; rich in oil reserves.

- The article explained what "united arab emirates" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united arab emirates."

unused (adjective)

Not yet put into use.

- We bought an unused car for a change.
- An unused envelope.

upright piano (noun)

A piano with a vertical sounding board.

- In class, the teacher used "upright piano" to mean a piano with a vertical sounding board.
- They discussed "upright piano" during the group presentation.

vacancy rate (noun)

The percentage of all rental units (as in hotels) that are unoccupied or not rented at a given time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vacancy rate."
- Understanding "vacancy rate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

valleys (noun)

A long depression in the surface of the land that usually contains a river.

- In class, the teacher used "valleys" to mean a long depression in the surface of the land that....
- They discussed "valleys" during the group presentation.

velvet-leaf (noun)

Arborescent perennial shrub having palmately lobed furry leaves and showy red-purple flowers; southwestern United States.

- They discussed "velvet-leaf" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "velvet-leaf" means with a simple example.

viewpoint (noun)

A place from which something can be viewed.

- We should consider this problem from the viewpoint of the Russians.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "viewpoint."

vinegar (noun)

Sour-tasting liquid produced usually by oxidation of the alcohol in wine or cider and used as a condiment or food preservative.

- He looked up "vinegar" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vinegar."

vocational education (noun)

Training for a specific vocation in industry or agriculture or trade.

- Understanding "vocational education" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "vocational education" to mean training for a specific vocation in industry or....

vocational program (noun)

A program of vocational education.

- He looked up "vocational program" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "vocational program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

vocational training (noun)

Training for a specific vocation in industry or agriculture or trade.

- Understanding "vocational training" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "vocational training" because he had never seen it before.

wards (verb)

Watch over or shield from danger or harm; protect.

- He did not know how to use "wards" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "wards" when talking about this idea.

---

warrants (noun)

A type of security issued by a corporation (usually together with a bond or preferred stock) that gives the holder the right to purchase a certain amount of common stock at a stated price.

- As a sweetener they offered warrants along with the fixed-income securities.
- In class, the teacher used "warrants" to mean a type of security issued by a corporation (usually....

---

wig (noun)

Hairpiece covering the head and made of real or synthetic hair.

- The article explained what "wig" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wig."

---

willow bell (noun)

Perennial European bellflower with racemose white or blue flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "willow bell."
- The article explained what "willow bell" means with a simple example.

---

willow-pattern (noun)

Chinaware decorated with a blue Chinese design on a white background depicting a willow tree and often a river.

- They discussed "willow-pattern" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "willow-pattern" because he had never seen it before.

---

without a stitch (adjective)

Without any clothing at all.

- Would you call this situation "without a stitch"? Explain why.
- Students compared "without a stitch" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

woodland star (noun)

California perennial herb cultivated for its racemose white flowers with widely spreading petals; sometimes placed in genus Tellima.

- He looked up "woodland star" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "woodland star."

---

worm fence (noun)

Rail fence consisting of a zigzag of interlocking rails.

- Understanding "worm fence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "worm fence" means with a simple example.

---

worm snake (noun)

Small reddish wormlike snake of eastern United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "worm snake."
- He looked up "worm snake" because he had never seen it before.

---

zinc white (noun)

A white pigment used in house paints; consists of zinc oxide.

- They discussed "zinc white" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "zinc white" to mean a white pigment used in house paints; consists of....

---

accessory (noun)

A supplementary component that improves capability.

- In class, the teacher used "accessory" to mean a supplementary component that improves capability.
- He looked up "accessory" because he had never seen it before.

---

advisors (noun)

An expert who gives advice.

- The United States sent military advisors to Guatemala.

- They discussed “advisors” during the group presentation.

advocating (verb)

Speak, plead, or argue in favor of.

- Learners should practice how to use “advocating” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “advocating” when talking about this idea.

affiliation (noun)

The act of becoming formally connected or joined.

- Welcomed the affiliation of the research center with the university.
- A valuable financial affiliation.

aggressively (adverb)

In an aggressive manner.

- The narrator describes the scene “aggressively” in the final chapter.
- Place “aggressively” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

air-conditioned (adjective)

Cooled by air conditioning.

- A “air-conditioned” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “air-conditioned.”

air-cooled (adjective)

Cooled by a flow of air.

- An air-cooled engine.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “air-cooled.”

align (verb)

Place in a line or arrange so as to be parallel or straight.

- Align the car with the curb.
- Align the sheets of paper on the table.

allen tate (noun)

United States poet and critic (1899-1979).

- Understanding “allen tate” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “allen tate.”

allergies (noun)

Hypersensitivity reaction to a particular allergen; symptoms can vary greatly in intensity.

- He looked up “allergies” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “allergies” to mean hypersensitivity reaction to a particular allergen;....

amnesty (noun)

A warrant granting release from punishment for an offense.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “amnesty.”
- They discussed “amnesty” during the group presentation.

angus (noun)

Celtic god of love and beauty; patron deity of young men and women.

- Understanding “angus” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “angus” during the group presentation.

apologized (verb)

Acknowledge faults or shortcomings or failing.

- I apologized for being late.
- He apologized for the many typoes.

approximate range (noun)

Near to the scope or range of something.

- They discussed "approximate range" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "approximate range" because he had never seen it before.

---

assertion (noun)

The act of affirming or asserting or stating something.

- In class, the teacher used "assertion" to mean the act of affirming or asserting or stating something.
- The article explained what "assertion" means with a simple example.

---

astronomy (noun)

The branch of physics that studies celestial bodies and the universe as a whole.

- Understanding "astronomy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "astronomy" because he had never seen it before.

---

atmospheric static (noun)

A crackling or hissing noise caused by electrical interference.

- The article explained what "atmospheric static" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "atmospheric static" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

atomic cocktail (noun)

An oral dose of radioactive substance used in treatment and diagnosis of cancer.

- They discussed "atomic cocktail" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "atomic cocktail" because he had never seen it before.

---

atop (adverb)

On, to, or at the top.

- Place "atop" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene "atop" in the final chapter.

---

attic (adjective)

Of or relating to Attica or its inhabitants or to the dialect spoken in Athens in classical times.

- Attic Greek.
- A "attic" approach may work better in this case.

---

attracts (verb)

Exert a force on (a body) causing it to approach or prevent it from moving away.

- The gravitational pull of a planet attracts other bodies.
- Learners should practice how to use "attracts" in real sentences.

---

australians (noun)

The Austronesian languages spoken by Australian aborigines.

- The article explained what "australians" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "australians" to mean the austronesian languages spoken by australian....

---

autobiography (noun)

A biography of yourself.

- Understanding "autobiography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "autobiography."

---

automatic choke (noun)

A choke that automatically controls the flow of air to the carburetor.

- The article explained what "automatic choke" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "automatic choke" to mean a choke that automatically controls the flow of air....

---

auxiliary pump (noun)

A supplementary pump available if needed.

- Understanding “auxiliary pump” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “auxiliary pump.”

---

av (noun)

The eleventh month of the civil year; the fifth month of the ecclesiastical year in the Jewish calendar (in July and August).

- They discussed “av” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “av” means with a simple example.

---

await (verb)

Look forward to the probable occurrence of.

- Learners should practice how to use “await” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “await” when talking about this idea.

---

barn owl (noun)

Mottled buff and white owl often inhabiting barns and other structures; important in rodent control.

- The article explained what “barn owl” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “barn owl” to mean mottled buff and white owl often inhabiting barns....

---

barn swallow (noun)

Common swallow of North America and Europe that nests in barns etc.

- He looked up “barn swallow” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “barn swallow.”

---

bastards (noun)

The illegitimate offspring of unmarried parents.

- In class, the teacher used “bastards” to mean the illegitimate offspring of unmarried parents.
- He looked up “bastards” because he had never seen it before.

---

bell ringing (noun)

The sound of someone playing a set of bells.

- The article explained what “bell ringing” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bell ringing.”

---

bikini pants (noun)

Small and tight-fitting underpants; worn by women.

- In class, the teacher used “bikini pants” to mean small and tight-fitting underpants; worn by women.
- He looked up “bikini pants” because he had never seen it before.

---

blue nile (noun)

A headstream of the Nile; joins the White Nile at Khartoum to form the Nile.

- He looked up “blue nile” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blue nile.”

---

bone-headed dinosaur (noun)

Bipedal herbivorous dinosaurs with bony crowns.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bone-headed dinosaur.”
- They discussed “bone-headed dinosaur” during the group presentation.

---

bone-idle (adjective)

Constitutionally lazy or idle.

- The speaker chose “bone-idle” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “bone-idle” when it is constitutionally lazy or idle.

---

bothering (verb)

To cause inconvenience or discomfort to.

- She tried to use “bothering” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “bothering” until he saw an example.

broadcaster (noun)

A mechanical device for scattering something (seed or fertilizer or sand etc.) in all directions.

- He looked up "broadcaster" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "broadcaster" to mean a mechanical device for scattering something (seed....

buddhism (noun)

A religion represented by the many groups (especially in Asia) that profess various forms of the Buddhist doctrine and that venerate Buddha.

- Understanding "buddhism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "buddhism" means with a simple example.

buds (noun)

A swelling on a plant stem consisting of overlapping immature leaves or petals.

- He looked up "buds" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buds."

bush willow (noun)

Small deciduous tree of the Transvaal having spikes of yellow flowers.

- Understanding "bush willow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bush willow."

cache (noun)

A hidden storage space (for money or provisions or weapons).

- Understanding "cache" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cache" to mean a hidden storage space (for money or provisions or....

cardiac rhythm (noun)

The rhythm of a beating heart.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cardiac rhythm."
- Understanding "cardiac rhythm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

carpenter bee (noun)

Large solitary bee that lays eggs in tunnels bored into wood or plant stems.

- In class, the teacher used "carpenter bee" to mean large solitary bee that lays eggs in tunnels bored....
- The article explained what "carpenter bee" means with a simple example.

carriage bolt (noun)

A roundheaded bolt for timber; threaded along part of the shank; inserted into holes already drilled.

- They discussed "carriage bolt" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "carriage bolt" means with a simple example.

carrots (noun)

Orange root; important source of carotene.

- He looked up "carrots" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "carrots" during the group presentation.

cds (noun)

A debt instrument issued by a bank; usually pays interest.

- Understanding "cds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cds" because he had never seen it before.

certified public accountant (noun)

An accountant who has passed certain examinations and met all other statutory and licensing requirements of a United States state to be certified by that state.

- In class, the teacher used "certified public accountant" to mean an accountant who has passed certain examinations....
- They discussed "certified public accountant" during the group presentation.

checkout line (noun)

A queue of people waiting to pay for purchases.

- Understanding "checkout line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "checkout line" to mean a queue of people waiting to pay for purchases.

---

chew the fat (verb)

Talk socially without exchanging too much information.

- The men were sitting in the cafe and shooting the breeze.
- Can you use "chew the fat" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

chewing (noun)

Biting and grinding food in your mouth so it becomes soft enough to swallow.

- The article explained what "chewing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chewing" to mean biting and grinding food in your mouth so it....

---

chewing out (noun)

A severe scolding.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chewing out."
- The article explained what "chewing out" means with a simple example.

---

chili sauce (noun)

Tomatoes and onions and peppers (sweet or hot) simmered with vinegar and sugar and various seasonings.

- Understanding "chili sauce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "chili sauce" during the group presentation.

---

circle of willis (noun)

A ring of arteries at the base of the brain.

- The article explained what "circle of willis" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "circle of willis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coherent (adjective)

Marked by an orderly, logical, and aesthetically consistent relation of parts.

- A coherent argument.
- Students compared "coherent" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

colored audition (noun)

A form of chromesthesia in which experiences of color accompany auditory stimuli.

- They discussed "colored audition" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "colored audition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

comfy (adjective)

Providing or experiencing physical well-being or relief ('comfy' is informal).

- Feeling comfy now?
- Would you call this situation "comfy"? Explain why.

---

comrades (noun)

A friend who is frequently in the company of another.

- Comrades in arms.
- In class, the teacher used "comrades" to mean a friend who is frequently in the company of another.

---

conceded (verb)

Give over; surrender or relinquish to the physical control of another.

- The candidate conceded after enough votes had come in to show that he would lose.
- He did not know how to use "conceded" until he saw an example.

---

condo (noun)

One of the dwelling units in a condominium.

- The article explained what "condo" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "condo" to mean one of the dwelling units in a condominium.

---

confederate soldier (noun)

A soldier in the Army of the Confederacy during the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "confederate soldier" to mean a soldier in the army of the confederacy during the....
- They discussed "confederate soldier" during the group presentation.

---

conflicting (adjective)

In disagreement; ; - John Morley.

- Conflicting opinions.
- Students compared "conflicting" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

congo snake (noun)

Aquatic eel-shaped salamander having two pairs of very small feet; of still muddy waters in the southern United States.

- He looked up "congo snake" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "congo snake" during the group presentation.

---

conrad (noun)

English novelist (born in Poland) noted for sea stories and for his narrative technique (1857-1924).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conrad."
- Understanding "conrad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

consulted (verb)

Have a conference in order to talk something over.

- He did not know how to use "consulted" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "consulted" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cosmic background radiation (noun)

(cosmology) the cooled remnant of the hot big bang that fills the entire universe and can be observed today with an average temperature of about 2.725 kelvin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cosmic background radiation."
- He looked up "cosmic background radiation" because he had never seen it before.

---

criticize (verb)

Find fault with; express criticism of; point out real or perceived flaws.

- The paper criticized the new movie.
- Those who criticize others often are not perfect, either.

---

crooked (adjective)

Having or marked by bends or angles; not straight or aligned.

- Crooked country roads.
- Crooked teeth.

---

crown jewel (noun)

The most desirable assets of a corporation.

- Their crown jewels figured prominently in the takeover attempt.
- He looked up "crown jewel" because he had never seen it before.

---

crystal detector (noun)

A detector consisting of a fine wire in contact with a galena crystal; acts as a rectifier.

- He looked up "crystal detector" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crystal detector."

---

cultivation (noun)

The process of fostering the growth of something.

- The cultivation of bees for honey.
- Her cultivation was remarkable.

---

cyrus the elder (noun)

King of Persia and founder of the Persian Empire (circa 600-529 BC).

- They discussed "cyrus the elder" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cyrus the elder" means with a simple example.

---

dads (noun)

An informal term for a father; probably derived from baby talk.

- He looked up "dads" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dads" to mean an informal term for a father; probably derived....

---

decreases (noun)

A process of becoming smaller or shorter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "decreases."
- He looked up "decreases" because he had never seen it before.

---

deer tick (noun)

A northeastern tick now recognized as same species as Ixodes scapularis.

- They discussed "deer tick" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "deer tick" means with a simple example.

---

dicks (noun)

Someone who is a detective.

- He looked up "dicks" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dicks" during the group presentation.

---

dime bag (noun)

Street name for a packet of illegal drugs that is sold for ten dollars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dime bag."
- He looked up "dime bag" because he had never seen it before.

---

ding (noun)

An impression in a surface (as made by a blow).

- He looked up "ding" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ding."

---

disciples of christ (noun)

A Protestant church that accepts the Bible as the only source of true Christian faith and practices baptism by immersion.

- In class, the teacher used "disciples of christ" to mean a protestant church that accepts the bible as the....
- Understanding "disciples of christ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

discontinued (adjective)

Stopped permanently or temporarily.

- Discontinued models.
- A discontinued magazine.

---

displacement (noun)

To move something from its natural environment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "displacement."
- He looked up "displacement" because he had never seen it before.

---

disrespect (noun)

A manner that is generally disrespectful and contemptuous.

- He looked up "disrespect" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disrespect."

---

distorted (adjective)

So badly formed or out of shape as to be ugly.

- His poor distorted limbs.
- It is useful to describe something as "distorted" when it is so badly formed or out of shape as to be ugly.

distributor housing (noun)

The housing that supports the distributor cam.

- He looked up "distributor housing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "distributor housing."

divers (adjective)

Many and different.

- Tourist offices of divers nationalities.
- A person of diverse talents.

dividing (verb)

Force, take, or pull apart.

- Learners should practice how to use "dividing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "dividing" when talking about this idea.

dolphin kick (noun)

A swimming kick; an up and down kick of the feet together.

- In class, the teacher used "dolphin kick" to mean a swimming kick; an up and down kick of the feet....
- Understanding "dolphin kick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

downloads (verb)

Transfer a file or program from a central computer to a smaller computer or to a computer at a remote location.

- He did not know how to use "downloads" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "downloads" and when to wait.

drastic (adjective)

Forceful and extreme and rigorous.

- Drastic measures.
- Would you call this situation "drastic"? Explain why.

dry pint (noun)

A United States dry unit equal to 0.5 quart or 33.6 cubic inches.

- In class, the teacher used "dry pint" to mean a united states dry unit equal to 0.5 quart or 33.6....
- Understanding "dry pint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

durable goods (noun)

Consumer goods that are not destroyed by use.

- They discussed "durable goods" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "durable goods" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dutch east indies (noun)

A republic in southeastern Asia on an archipelago including more than 13,000 islands; achieved independence from the Netherlands in 1945; the principal oil producer in the Far East and Pacific regions.

- The article explained what "dutch east indies" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dutch east indies" during the group presentation.

edible (noun)

Any substance that can be used as food.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edible."
- He looked up "edible" because he had never seen it before.

edmund i (noun)

King of the English who succeeded Athelstan; he drove out the Danes and made peace with Scotland (921-946).

- In class, the teacher used "edmund i" to mean king of the english who succeeded athelstan; he....
- The article explained what "edmund i" means with a simple example.

emerson (noun)

United States writer and leading exponent of transcendentalism (1803-1882).

- They discussed "emerson" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "emerson" because he had never seen it before.

endorse (verb)

Give support or one's approval to.

- Endorse a new project.
- Endorse cheques.

enhancement (noun)

An improvement that makes something more agreeable.

- In class, the teacher used "enhancement" to mean an improvement that makes something more agreeable.
- They discussed "enhancement" during the group presentation.

european lobster (noun)

Similar to but smaller than American lobsters.

- Understanding "european lobster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "european lobster" means with a simple example.

evenings (noun)

The early part of night (from dinner until bedtime) spent in a special way.

- They discussed "evenings" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "evenings" to mean the early part of night (from dinner until bedtime)....

fax (verb)

Send something via a facsimile machine.

- Can you fax me the report right away?
- Can you use "fax" in a sentence that fits this situation?

fiat (noun)

A legally binding command or decision entered on the court record (as if issued by a court or judge).

- In class, the teacher used "fiat" to mean a legally binding command or decision entered on....
- Understanding "fiat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fiat money (noun)

Money that the government declares to be legal tender although it cannot be converted into standard specie.

- Understanding "fiat money" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fiat money" because he had never seen it before.

finger alphabet (noun)

An alphabet used by the deaf; letters are represented by finger positions.

- In class, the teacher used "finger alphabet" to mean an alphabet used by the deaf; letters are....
- Understanding "finger alphabet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

firefighters (noun)

A member of a fire department who tries to extinguish fires.

- He looked up "firefighters" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "firefighters" to mean a member of a fire department who tries to....

flare star (noun)

A red dwarf star in which luminosity can change several magnitudes in a few minutes.

- In class, the teacher used "flare star" to mean a red dwarf star in which luminosity can change....
- The article explained what "flare star" means with a simple example.

flick (noun)

A light sharp contact (usually with something flexible).

- He gave it a flick with his finger.
- He felt the flick of a whip.

---

flint corn (noun)

Corn having kernels with a hard outer layer enclosing the soft endosperm.

- They discussed "flint corn" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "flint corn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fowler (noun)

English lexicographer who wrote a well-known book on English usage (1858-1933).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fowler."
- He looked up "fowler" because he had never seen it before.

---

from pillar to post (adverb)

From one place or situation to another.

- We were driven from pillar to post.
- Using "from pillar to post" can make your explanation more exact.

---

frozen metaphor (noun)

A metaphor that has occurred so often that it has become a new meaning of the expression (e.g., 'he is a snake' may once have been a metaphor but after years of use it has died and become a new sense of the word 'snake').

- Understanding "frozen metaphor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frozen metaphor."

---

funky (adjective)

Stylish and modern in an unconventional way.

- She likes funky clothes.
- We did it all in black and white in a very funky sixties style.

---

gag (noun)

A humorous anecdote or remark intended to provoke laughter.

- He knows a million gags.
- The article explained what "gag" means with a simple example.

---

game warden (noun)

A person employed to take care of game and wildlife.

- The article explained what "game warden" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "game warden" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gamma acid (noun)

A crystalline acid used to make azo dyes.

- In class, the teacher used "gamma acid" to mean a crystalline acid used to make azo dyes.
- They discussed "gamma acid" during the group presentation.

---

gasoline gauge (noun)

Gauge that indicates the amount of gasoline left in the gasoline tank of a vehicle.

- They discussed "gasoline gauge" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gasoline gauge" to mean gauge that indicates the amount of gasoline left in....

---

gee (noun)

A unit of force equal to the force exerted by gravity; used to indicate the force to which a body is subjected when it is accelerated.

- They discussed "gee" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gee" means with a simple example.

---

geological horizon (noun)

A layer of rock with a particular composition (especially of fossils); for dating the stratum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geological horizon."

- He looked up “geological horizon” because he had never seen it before.

---

gigantic (adjective)

So exceedingly large or extensive as to suggest a giant or mammoth.

- A gigantic redwood.
- Gigantic disappointment.

---

gill (noun)

A United States liquid unit equal to 4 fluid ounces.

- He looked up “gill” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “gill” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

golden mole (noun)

Mole of southern Africa having iridescent guard hairs mixed with the underfur.

- Understanding “golden mole” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “golden mole” because he had never seen it before.

---

gray-haired (adjective)

Showing characteristics of age, especially having grey or white hair; -Coleridge.

- The speaker chose “gray-haired” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “gray-haired” when it is showing characteristics of age, especially having....

---

greater prairie chicken (noun)

The most common variety of prairie chicken.

- The article explained what “greater prairie chicken” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “greater prairie chicken” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grey-haired (adjective)

Showing characteristics of age, especially having grey or white hair; -Coleridge.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “grey-haired.”
- Students compared “grey-haired” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

grind to a halt (verb)

Be unable to move further.

- In everyday English, people use “grind to a halt” when talking about this idea.
- Can you use “grind to a halt” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

groom (noun)

A man participant in his own marriage ceremony.

- Understanding “groom” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “groom” means with a simple example.

---

groom-to-be (noun)

A man who is engaged to be married.

- Understanding “groom-to-be” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “groom-to-be” because he had never seen it before.

---

ground swell (noun)

An obvious change of public opinion or political sentiment that occurs without leadership or overt expression.

- There was a ground swell of antiwar sentiment.
- Understanding “ground swell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

guitarist (noun)

A musician who plays the guitar.

- He looked up “guitarist” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “guitarist.”

---

hairy finger grass (noun)

A European forage grass grown for hay; a naturalized weed in United States.

- Understanding "hairy finger grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hairy finger grass" because he had never seen it before.

---

halftime (noun)

An intermission between the first and second half of a game.

- Understanding "halftime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "halftime" during the group presentation.

---

hash (noun)

Chopped meat mixed with potatoes and browned.

- In class, the teacher used "hash" to mean chopped meat mixed with potatoes and browned.
- Understanding "hash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hash house (noun)

An inexpensive restaurant.

- He looked up "hash house" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hash house."

---

hash out (verb)

Speak with others about (something); talk (something) over in detail; have a discussion.

- The coach explained when to use "hash out" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "hash out" until he saw an example.

---

hash over (verb)

Go back over.

- She tried to use "hash over" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "hash over" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

head restraint (noun)

A cushion attached to the top of the back of an automobile's seat to prevent whiplash.

- In class, the teacher used "head restraint" to mean a cushion attached to the top of the back of an....
- He looked up "head restraint" because he had never seen it before.

---

helena (noun)

Capital of the state of Montana; located in western Montana.

- The article explained what "helena" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "helena" to mean capital of the state of montana; located in western....

---

hogan (noun)

A Navajo lodge covered with earth; traditionally built with the entrance facing east.

- The article explained what "hogan" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hogan" during the group presentation.

---

honours degree (noun)

A university degree with honors.

- In class, the teacher used "honours degree" to mean a university degree with honors.
- The article explained what "honours degree" means with a simple example.

---

ig (noun)

A class of proteins produced in lymph tissue in vertebrates and that function as antibodies in the immune response.

- He looked up "ig" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ig."

---

ignition switch (noun)

Switch that operates a solenoid that closes a circuit to operate the starter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ignition switch."
- He looked up "ignition switch" because he had never seen it before.

---

illustrates (verb)

Supply with illustrations.

- Learners should practice how to use "illustrates" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "illustrates" and when to wait.

---

inactive (adjective)

Lacking in energy or will; - George Meredith.

- An inactive mine.
- Inactive accounts.

---

infant mortality rate (noun)

The death rate during the first year of life.

- They discussed "infant mortality rate" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "infant mortality rate."

---

inputs (noun)

A statement that expresses a personal opinion or belief or adds information.

- The article explained what "inputs" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "inputs" during the group presentation.

---

inspect (verb)

Come to see in an official or professional capacity.

- Please inspect your father's will carefully.
- She tried to use "inspect" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

inspections (noun)

A formal or official examination.

- They discussed "inspections" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inspections."

---

inspectors (noun)

An investigator who observes carefully.

- In class, the teacher used "inspectors" to mean an investigator who observes carefully.
- They discussed "inspectors" during the group presentation.

---

instincts (noun)

Inborn pattern of behavior often responsive to specific stimuli.

- Altruistic instincts in social animals.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "instincts."

---

interpretations (noun)

An explanation that results from interpreting something.

- The edict was subject to many interpretations.
- They discussed "interpretations" during the group presentation.

---

irving berlin (noun)

United States songwriter (born in Russia) who wrote more than 1500 songs and several musical comedies (1888-1989).

- The article explained what "irving berlin" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "irving berlin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

isaac newton (noun)

English mathematician and physicist; remembered for developing the calculus and for his law of gravitation and his three laws of motion (1642-1727).

- In class, the teacher used "isaac newton" to mean english mathematician and physicist; remembered for....
- He looked up "isaac newton" because he had never seen it before.

ivory nut (noun)

Nutlike seed of a South American palm; the hard white shell takes a high polish and is used for e.g. buttons.

- Understanding "ivory nut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ivory nut" because he had never seen it before.

james henry leigh hunt (noun)

British writer who defended the Romanticism of Keats and Shelley (1784-1859).

- In class, the teacher used "james henry leigh hunt" to mean british writer who defended the romanticism of....
- He looked up "james henry leigh hunt" because he had never seen it before.

joseph stalin (noun)

Russian leader who succeeded Lenin as head of the Communist Party and created a totalitarian state by purging all opposition (1879-1953).

- In class, the teacher used "joseph stalin" to mean russian leader who succeeded lenin as head of the....
- He looked up "joseph stalin" because he had never seen it before.

junior varsity (noun)

A college or university team that competes at a level below the varsity team.

- They discussed "junior varsity" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "junior varsity" because he had never seen it before.

knots (noun)

A hard cross-grained round piece of wood in a board where a branch emerged.

- Their muscles stood out in knots.
- His stomach was in knots.

ko punch (noun)

A hard punch that renders the opponent unable to continue boxing.

- In class, the teacher used "ko punch" to mean a hard punch that renders the opponent unable to....
- He looked up "ko punch" because he had never seen it before.

latin alphabet (noun)

The alphabet evolved by the ancient Romans which serves for writing most of the languages of western Europe.

- The article explained what "latin alphabet" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "latin alphabet" to mean the alphabet evolved by the ancient romans which....

laurel (noun)

Any of various aromatic trees of the laurel family.

- The article explained what "laurel" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "laurel" during the group presentation.

laurel family (noun)

A family of Lauraceae.

- They discussed "laurel family" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laurel family."

law of averages (noun)

A law affirming that in the long run probabilities will determine performance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "law of averages."
- The article explained what "law of averages" means with a simple example.

law of multiple proportions (noun)

(chemistry) law stating that when two elements can combine to form more than one compound the amounts of one of them that combines with a fixed amount of the other will exhibit a simple multiple relation.

- He looked up "law of multiple proportions" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "law of multiple proportions."

lawsuits (noun)

A comprehensive term for any proceeding in a court of law whereby an individual seeks a legal remedy.

- He looked up "lawsuits" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lawsuits" to mean a comprehensive term for any proceeding in a court....

---

leaf insect (noun)

Tropical insect having a flattened leaflike body; common in southern Asia and the East Indies.

- In class, the teacher used "leaf insect" to mean tropical insect having a flattened leaflike body;....
- The article explained what "leaf insect" means with a simple example.

---

leftist (noun)

A person who belongs to the political left.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leftist."
- He looked up "leftist" because he had never seen it before.

---

legitimacy (noun)

Lawfulness by virtue of being authorized or in accordance with law.

- Understanding "legitimacy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "legitimacy" because he had never seen it before.

---

linguistic string (noun)

A linear sequence of words as spoken or written.

- Understanding "linguistic string" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "linguistic string" means with a simple example.

---

lizard (noun)

A man who idles about in the lounges of hotels and bars in search of women who would support him.

- He looked up "lizard" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lizard" during the group presentation.

---

lobster plant (noun)

Tropical American plant having poisonous milk and showy tapering usually scarlet petallike leaves surrounding small yellow flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "lobster plant" to mean tropical american plant having poisonous milk and....
- They discussed "lobster plant" during the group presentation.

---

love lyric (noun)

The lyric of a love song.

- The article explained what "love lyric" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "love lyric."

---

lyric (noun)

The text of a popular song or musical-comedy number.

- His compositions always started with the lyrics.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lyric."

---

malaysian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit is Malaysia.

- He looked up "malaysian monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "malaysian monetary unit."

---

manila bean (noun)

A tuberous twining annual vine bearing clusters of purplish flowers and pods with four jagged wings; Old World tropics.

- Understanding "manila bean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "manila bean" because he had never seen it before.

---

masked ball (noun)

A ball at which guests wear costumes and masks.

- He looked up "masked ball" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "masked ball" to mean a ball at which guests wear costumes and masks.

---

maximize (verb)

Make as big or large as possible.

- Maximize your profits!
- He maximized his role.

---

midway islands (noun)

An atoll in the Hawaiian Islands some 1300 miles to the northwest of Honolulu; site of an important United States naval base.

- They discussed "midway islands" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "midway islands" to mean an atoll in the hawaiian islands some 1300 miles to....

---

monroe doctrine (noun)

An American foreign policy opposing interference in the western hemisphere from outside powers.

- Understanding "monroe doctrine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "monroe doctrine" because he had never seen it before.

---

morally (adverb)

With respect to moral principles.

- Morally unjustified.
- He acted morally under the circumstances.

---

mushroom (noun)

A large cloud of rubble and dust shaped like a mushroom and rising into the sky after an explosion (especially of a nuclear bomb).

- Understanding "mushroom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mushroom" to mean a large cloud of rubble and dust shaped like a....

---

mutually exclusive (adjective)

Unable to be both true at the same time.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "mutually exclusive."
- A "mutually exclusive" approach may work better in this case.

---

naples (noun)

A port and tourist center in southwestern Italy; capital of the Campania region.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "naples."
- He looked up "naples" because he had never seen it before.

---

nerve pathway (noun)

A bundle of myelinated nerve fibers following a path through the brain.

- He looked up "nerve pathway" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "nerve pathway" to mean a bundle of myelinated nerve fibers following a....

---

new england boiled dinner (noun)

Corned beef simmered with onions and cabbage and usually other vegetables.

- In class, the teacher used "new england boiled dinner" to mean corned beef simmered with onions and cabbage and....
- They discussed "new england boiled dinner" during the group presentation.

---

night lizard (noun)

Small secretive nocturnal lizard of southwestern North America and Cuba; bear live young.

- He looked up "night lizard" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "night lizard" during the group presentation.

---

nitrogen-bearing (adjective)

Of or relating to or containing nitrogen.

- A "nitrogen-bearing" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "nitrogen-bearing" when it is of or relating to or containing nitrogen.

noel (noun)

Period extending from Dec. 24 to Jan. 6.

- He looked up "noel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "noel."

norfolk island pine (noun)

Evergreen of Australia and Norfolk Island in the South Pacific.

- In class, the teacher used "norfolk island pine" to mean evergreen of australia and norfolk island in the....
- Understanding "norfolk island pine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

northeastern united states (noun)

The northeastern region of the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "northeastern united states" to mean the northeastern region of the united states.
- He looked up "northeastern united states" because he had never seen it before.

novelty shop (noun)

A shop that sells miscellaneous articles appropriate as gifts.

- They discussed "novelty shop" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "novelty shop."

numerical analysis (noun)

(mathematics) the branch of mathematics that studies algorithms for approximating solutions to problems in the infinitesimal calculus.

- In class, the teacher used "numerical analysis" to mean (mathematics) the branch of mathematics that....
- Understanding "numerical analysis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

occupying (verb)

March aggressively into another's territory by military force for the purposes of conquest and occupation.

- He did not know how to use "occupying" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "occupying" carefully so everyone would understand.

organizers (noun)

A person who brings order and organization to an enterprise.

- In class, the teacher used "organizers" to mean a person who brings order and organization to an....
- He looked up "organizers" because he had never seen it before.

owens (noun)

United States athlete and Black American whose success in the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin outraged Hitler (1913-1980).

- He looked up "owens" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "owens" during the group presentation.

paradox (noun)

(logic) a statement that contradicts itself.

- 'I always lie' is a paradox because if it is true it must be false.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paradox."

peacefully (adverb)

In a peaceful manner.

- The hen settled herself on the nest most peacefully.
- Place "peacefully" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

peach-colored (adjective)

Having the color of a ripe peach.

- It is useful to describe something as "peach-colored" when it is having the color of a ripe peach.
- Students compared "peach-colored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

pedal point (noun)

A sustained bass note.

- In class, the teacher used "pedal point" to mean a sustained bass note.
- The article explained what "pedal point" means with a simple example.

---

penis envy (noun)

(psychoanalysis) a female's presumed envy of the male's penis; said to explain femininity.

- They discussed "penis envy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "penis envy" means with a simple example.

---

periodic (adjective)

Happening or recurring at regular intervals.

- The periodic appearance of the seventeen-year locust.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "periodic."

---

physical anthropology (noun)

The branch of anthropology dealing with the genesis and variation of human beings.

- The article explained what "physical anthropology" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "physical anthropology" to mean the branch of anthropology dealing with the genesis....

---

picnic ham (noun)

Shoulder of a hog usually smoked.

- In class, the teacher used "picnic ham" to mean shoulder of a hog usually smoked.
- He looked up "picnic ham" because he had never seen it before.

---

plead (verb)

Offer as an excuse or plea.

- She was pleading insanity.
- I pleaded with him to stop.

---

podium (noun)

A platform raised above the surrounding level to give prominence to the person on it.

- In class, the teacher used "podium" to mean a platform raised above the surrounding level to....
- The article explained what "podium" means with a simple example.

---

poetic license (noun)

License used by a writer or artist to heighten the effect of their work.

- They discussed "poetic license" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "poetic license" means with a simple example.

---

point mutation (noun)

(genetics) a mutation due to an intramolecular reorganization of a gene.

- The article explained what "point mutation" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "point mutation."

---

pointed-leaf maple (noun)

Small shrubby Japanese plant with leaves having 5 to 7 acuminate lobes; yellow in autumn.

- The article explained what "pointed-leaf maple" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pointed-leaf maple."

---

port-wine stain (noun)

A flat birthmark varying from pink to purple.

- Understanding "port-wine stain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "port-wine stain" means with a simple example.

---

portray (verb)

Represent abstractly, for example in a painting, drawing, or sculpture.

- The father is portrayed as a good-looking man in this painting.

- The book portrays the actor as a selfish person.

---

potato peel (noun)

Crisp fried potato peeling.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "potato peel."
- The article explained what "potato peel" means with a simple example.

---

practitioner (noun)

Someone who practices a learned profession.

- He looked up "practitioner" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "practitioner."

---

princess feather (noun)

Annual with broadly ovate leaves and slender drooping spikes of crimson flowers; southeastern Asia and Australia; naturalized in North America.

- In class, the teacher used "princess feather" to mean annual with broadly ovate leaves and slender....
- They discussed "princess feather" during the group presentation.

---

progressed (verb)

Move forward, also in the metaphorical sense.

- He progressed well in school.
- Learners should practice how to use "progressed" in real sentences.

---

prone float (noun)

A floating position with the face down and arms stretched forward.

- He looked up "prone float" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "prone float" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

psychic phenomenon (noun)

Phenomena that appear to contradict physical laws and suggest the possibility of causation by mental processes.

- In class, the teacher used "psychic phenomenon" to mean phenomena that appear to contradict physical laws....
- The article explained what "psychic phenomenon" means with a simple example.

---

puck (noun)

A mischievous sprite of English folklore.

- The article explained what "puck" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "puck" during the group presentation.

---

quantitative relation (noun)

A relation between magnitudes.

- The article explained what "quantitative relation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "quantitative relation" during the group presentation.

---

queer duck (noun)

Someone regarded as eccentric or crazy and standing out from a group.

- They discussed "queer duck" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "queer duck" because he had never seen it before.

---

query language (noun)

A source language consisting of procedural operators that invoke functions to be executed.

- In class, the teacher used "query language" to mean a source language consisting of procedural....
- The article explained what "query language" means with a simple example.

---

railroad vine (noun)

A prostrate perennial of coastal sand dunes Florida to Texas.

- He looked up "railroad vine" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "railroad vine" to mean a prostrate perennial of coastal sand dunes florida....

---

ratios (noun)

The relation between things (or parts of things) with respect to their comparative quantity, magnitude, or degree.

- He looked up “ratios” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ratios.”

---

reconsider (verb)

Consider again; give new consideration to; usually with a view to changing.

- Won’t you reconsider your decision?
- She tried to use “reconsider” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

recycling bin (noun)

A bin for depositing things to be recycled.

- The article explained what “recycling bin” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “recycling bin” during the group presentation.

---

redskins (noun)

(slang) offensive term for Native Americans.

- The article explained what “redskins” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “redskins.”

---

reductions (noun)

The act of decreasing or reducing something.

- Understanding “reductions” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “reductions” means with a simple example.

---

refrain (noun)

The part of a song where a soloist is joined by a group of singers.

- They discussed “refrain” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “refrain” to mean the part of a song where a soloist is joined by a....

---

replaces (verb)

Take the place or move into the position of.

- Can you use “replaces” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “replaces” when talking about this idea.

---

reproduce (verb)

Recreate a sound, image, idea, mood, atmosphere, etc.

- This DVD player reproduces the sound of the piano very well.
- He reproduced the feeling of sadness in the portrait.

---

researching (verb)

Attempt to find out in a systematically and scientific manner.

- He did not know how to use “researching” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “researching” in real sentences.

---

restraint of trade (noun)

Any act that tends to prevent free competition in business.

- They discussed “restraint of trade” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “restraint of trade” to mean any act that tends to prevent free competition in....

---

rhythm and blues musician (noun)

A performer (and sometimes composer) of rhythm and blues music.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rhythm and blues musician.”
- The article explained what “rhythm and blues musician” means with a simple example.

---

rigged (adjective)

Fitted or equipped with necessary rigging (sails and shrouds and stays etc).

- Would you call this situation "rigged"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rigged."

---

rite (noun)

An established ceremony prescribed by a religion.

- The rite of baptism.
- He looked up "rite" because he had never seen it before.

---

rock lobster (noun)

Large edible marine crustacean having a spiny carapace but lacking the large pincers of true lobsters.

- Understanding "rock lobster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rock lobster."

---

ronald reagan (noun)

40th President of the United States (1911-2004).

- He looked up "ronald reagan" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ronald reagan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rough-haired (adjective)

Having hair that feels rough.

- The speaker chose "rough-haired" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "rough-haired" approach may work better in this case.

---

rum (noun)

A card game based on collecting sets and sequences; the winner is the first to meld all their cards.

- He looked up "rum" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rum."

---

running stitch (noun)

Small, even, hand stitches run in and out.

- He looked up "running stitch" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "running stitch" during the group presentation.

---

safari (noun)

An overland journey by hunters (especially in Africa).

- In class, the teacher used "safari" to mean an overland journey by hunters (especially in africa).
- Understanding "safari" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

santa sophia (noun)

A 6th century masterpiece of Byzantine architecture in Istanbul; built as a Christian church, converted to a mosque in 1453, and made into a museum in the middle of the 20th century.

- They discussed "santa sophia" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "santa sophia" because he had never seen it before.

---

scaling (noun)

The act of arranging in a graduated series.

- They discussed "scaling" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "scaling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scarlet cup (noun)

A discomycete that is a harbinger of spring; the fruiting body is thin and tough and saucer-shaped (about the size of quarter to a half dollar) with a deep bright red upper surface and a whitish exterior.

- In class, the teacher used "scarlet cup" to mean a discomycete that is a harbinger of spring; the....
- Understanding "scarlet cup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scorer (noun)

A player who makes a score in a game or contest.

- In class, the teacher used "scorer" to mean a player who makes a score in a game or contest.
- The article explained what "scorer" means with a simple example.

scottish reel (noun)

A lively dance of Scottish Highlanders; marked by circular moves and gliding steps.

- They discussed "scottish reel" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "scottish reel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

seal limbs (noun)

An abnormality of development in which the upper part of an arm or leg is missing so the hands or feet are attached to the body like stumps; rare condition that results from taking thalidomide during pregnancy.

- He looked up "seal limbs" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seal limbs."

seasonal adjustment (noun)

A statistical adjustment made to accommodate predictable fluctuations as a function of the season of the year.

- Seasonal adjustments for housing starts must be made in mid-winter.
- They discussed "seasonal adjustment" during the group presentation.

seizure-alert dog (noun)

A dog that can alert or assist people with seizure disorders.

- He looked up "seizure-alert dog" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "seizure-alert dog" to mean a dog that can alert or assist people with seizure....

self-restraint (noun)

Exhibiting restraint imposed on the self.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "self-restraint."
- They discussed "self-restraint" during the group presentation.

sewer line (noun)

A main in a sewage system.

- He looked up "sewer line" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sewer line" during the group presentation.

sewer main (noun)

A main in a sewage system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sewer main."
- He looked up "sewer main" because he had never seen it before.

sewer system (noun)

Facility consisting of a system of sewers for carrying off liquid and solid sewage.

- They discussed "sewer system" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sewer system."

sewer water (noun)

Water mixed with waste matter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sewer water."
- They discussed "sewer water" during the group presentation.

sex kitten (noun)

A young woman who is thought to have sex appeal.

- The article explained what "sex kitten" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sex kitten" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

shareholder (noun)

Someone who holds shares of stock in a corporation.

- They discussed "shareholder" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shareholder."

single stitch (verb)

Make by single stitching.

- In everyday English, people use “single stitch” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “single stitch” in real sentences.

---

sis (noun)

A female person who has the same parents as another person.

- My sister married a musician.
- They discussed “sis” during the group presentation.

---

skeleton in the closet (noun)

A scandal that is kept secret.

- There must be a skeleton somewhere in that family's closet.
- The article explained what “skeleton in the closet” means with a simple example.

---

slams (noun)

An aggressive remark directed at a person like a missile and intended to have a telling effect.

- He looked up “slams” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “slams” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

slices (noun)

A serving that has been cut from a larger portion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “slices.”
- He looked up “slices” because he had never seen it before.

---

snail mail (noun)

Any mail that is physically delivered by the postal service.

- Email is much faster than snail mail.
- Understanding “snail mail” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sneak thief (noun)

A thief who steals without using violence.

- He looked up “sneak thief” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sneak thief.”

---

snow mist (noun)

Small crystals of ice.

- Understanding “snow mist” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “snow mist” during the group presentation.

---

snow-capped (adjective)

(of mountains) capped with a covering of snow.

- A “snow-capped” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “snow-capped” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

soft-shell crab (noun)

Freshly molted crab with new shell still tender and flexible.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “soft-shell crab.”
- He looked up “soft-shell crab” because he had never seen it before.

---

sonny boy (noun)

A male child (a familiar term of address to a boy).

- They discussed “sonny boy” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sonny boy.”

---

sour dock (noun)

European sorrel with large slightly acidic sagittate leaves grown throughout north temperate zone for salad and spring greens.

- In class, the teacher used “sour dock” to mean european sorrel with large slightly acidic....

- The article explained what "sour dock" means with a simple example.

---

southwestern united states (noun)

The southwestern region of the United States generally including New Mexico, Arizona, Texas, Nevada, California, and sometimes Utah and Colorado.

- In class, the teacher used "southwestern united states" to mean the southwestern region of the united states....
- He looked up "southwestern united states" because he had never seen it before.

---

sovereign immunity (noun)

An exemption that precludes bringing a suit against the sovereign government without the government's consent.

- The doctrine of sovereign immunity originated with the maxim that the king can do no wrong.
- In class, the teacher used "sovereign immunity" to mean an exemption that precludes bringing a suit against....

---

soy (noun)

A source of oil; used for forage and soil improvement and as food.

- They discussed "soy" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "soy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spaghetti western (noun)

A low-budget Western movie produced by a European (especially an Italian) film company.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spaghetti western."
- The article explained what "spaghetti western" means with a simple example.

---

speeding ticket (noun)

A ticket issued for driving above the speed limit.

- They discussed "speeding ticket" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "speeding ticket" to mean a ticket issued for driving above the speed limit.

---

spencer tracy (noun)

United States film actor who appeared in many films with Katharine Hepburn (1900-1967).

- They discussed "spencer tracy" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "spencer tracy" because he had never seen it before.

---

spilled (verb)

Cause or allow (a solid substance) to flow or run out or over.

- The milk spilled across the floor.
- The wine spilled onto the table.

---

spinal fusion (noun)

Correction of an unstable part of the spine by joining two or more vertebrae; usually done surgically but sometimes done by traction or immobilization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spinal fusion."
- They discussed "spinal fusion" during the group presentation.

---

spinning jenny (noun)

An early spinning machine with multiple spindles.

- He looked up "spinning jenny" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spinning jenny."

---

spun sugar (noun)

A candy made by spinning sugar that has been boiled to a high temperature.

- In class, the teacher used "spun sugar" to mean a candy made by spinning sugar that has been boiled....
- He looked up "spun sugar" because he had never seen it before.

---

squash (verb)

To compress with violence, out of natural shape or condition.

- Can you use "squash" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "squash" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

stacked (adjective)

(of a woman's body) having a large bosom and pleasing curves.

- The speaker chose "stacked" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "stacked" approach may work better in this case.

---

stalin peak (noun)

The highest mountain peak in the Pamir Mountains; near the Chinese border in northeastern Tajikistan (24,590 feet high).

- Understanding "stalin peak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "stalin peak" to mean the highest mountain peak in the pamir mountains;....

---

statewide (adjective)

Occurring or extending throughout a state.

- The statewide recycling program.
- Students compared "statewide" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

stationary (adjective)

Not capable of being moved.

- Stationary machinery.
- The car remained stationary with the engine running.

---

statute of limitations (noun)

A statute prescribing the time period during which legal action can be taken.

- Understanding "statute of limitations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "statute of limitations" during the group presentation.

---

structural sociology (noun)

A sociological theory based on the premise that society comes before individuals.

- They discussed "structural sociology" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "structural sociology."

---

styled (verb)

Make consistent with certain rules of style.

- They styled their nation 'The Confederate States'.
- Can you use "styled" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

subdivision (noun)

A division of some larger or more complex organization.

- They discussed "subdivision" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "subdivision."

---

succeeding (adjective)

(of elected officers) elected but not yet serving.

- It is useful to describe something as "succeeding" when it is (of elected officers) elected but not yet serving.
- Would you call this situation "succeeding"? Explain why.

---

sunderland (noun)

A port and industrial city in northeastern England.

- He looked up "sunderland" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sunderland" to mean a port and industrial city in northeastern england.

---

surrendered (verb)

Give up or agree to forgo to the power or possession of another.

- The last Taleban fighters finally surrendered.
- He did not know how to use "surrendered" until he saw an example.

---

swamp rabbit (noun)

A wood rabbit of southeastern United States swamps and lowlands.

- In class, the teacher used “swamp rabbit” to mean a wood rabbit of southeastern united states swamps....
- He looked up “swamp rabbit” because he had never seen it before.

---

sweet basil (noun)

Leaves of the common basil; used fresh or dried.

- The article explained what “sweet basil” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sweet basil.”

---

sword knot (noun)

An ornamental tassel on the hilt of a sword.

- The article explained what “sword knot” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “sword knot” during the group presentation.

---

synthetic heroin (noun)

Synthetic narcotic drug similar to morphine but less habit-forming; used in narcotic detoxification and maintenance of heroin addiction.

- Understanding “synthetic heroin” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “synthetic heroin” because he had never seen it before.

---

tar (noun)

A man who serves as a sailor.

- The article explained what “tar” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tar.”

---

tariffs (noun)

A government tax on imports or exports.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tariffs.”
- Understanding “tariffs” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

temporal (adjective)

Of or relating to the temples (the sides of the skull behind the orbit).

- Temporal bone.
- Temporal processing.

---

tenant farmer (noun)

A farmer who works land owned by someone else.

- They discussed “tenant farmer” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tenant farmer.”

---

thick-haired (adjective)

Having thick hair.

- The speaker chose “thick-haired” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “thick-haired.”

---

touch a chord (verb)

Evoke a reaction, response, or emotion.

- This writer strikes a chord with young women.
- The storyteller touched a chord.

---

tower mustard (noun)

Or genus Arabis: erect cress widely distributed throughout Europe.

- They discussed “tower mustard” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “tower mustard” because he had never seen it before.

---

tracker (noun)

Someone who tracks down game.

- He looked up “tracker” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tracker.”

trans fatty acid (noun)

A fatty acid that has been produced by hydrogenating an unsaturated fatty acid (and so changing its shape); found in processed foods such as margarine and fried foods and puddings and commercially baked goods and partially hydrogenated vegetable oils.

- The article explained what "trans fatty acid" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trans fatty acid" to mean a fatty acid that has been produced by....

transparent gem (noun)

A gemstone having the property of transmitting light without serious diffusion.

- They discussed "transparent gem" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "transparent gem" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tuna oil (noun)

An oil obtained from tuna.

- He looked up "tuna oil" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tuna oil" during the group presentation.

turbine (noun)

Rotary engine in which the kinetic energy of a moving fluid is converted into mechanical energy by causing a bladed rotor to rotate.

- They discussed "turbine" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "turbine" because he had never seen it before.

tyson (noun)

United States prizefighter who was world heavyweight champion (born in 1966).

- The article explained what "tyson" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tyson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

unavailable (adjective)

Not available or accessible or at hand.

- Fresh milk was unavailable during the emergency.
- His secretary said he was unavailable for comment.

united methodist church (noun)

Union of the Wesleyan Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

- They discussed "united methodist church" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "united methodist church" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

unlucky (adjective)

Marked by or promising bad fortune; ; ; ; - W.H.Prescott.

- The unlucky prisoner was again put in irons.
- A "unlucky" approach may work better in this case.

utilizing (verb)

Put into service; make work or employ for a particular purpose or for its inherent or natural purpose.

- Can you use "utilizing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "utilizing" carefully so everyone would understand.

uv (noun)

Radiation lying in the ultraviolet range; wave lengths shorter than light but longer than X rays.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "uv."
- He looked up "uv" because he had never seen it before.

vegetable wax (noun)

A waxy substance obtained from plants (especially from the trunks of certain palms).

- The article explained what "vegetable wax" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vegetable wax" to mean a waxy substance obtained from plants (especially....

vietnamese monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Vietnam.

- He looked up "vietnamese monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "vietnamese monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

violin bow (noun)

A bow used in playing the violin.

- The article explained what "violin bow" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "violin bow."

---

virginia reel (noun)

An American country dance which starts with the couples facing each other in two lines.

- They discussed "virginia reel" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "virginia reel" to mean an american country dance which starts with the....

---

vision defect (noun)

Impairment of the sense of sight.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vision defect."
- He looked up "vision defect" because he had never seen it before.

---

volunteered (verb)

Agree freely.

- She volunteered to drive the old lady home.
- He volunteered the information.

---

vomiting (noun)

The reflex act of ejecting the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vomiting."
- The article explained what "vomiting" means with a simple example.

---

warden (noun)

The chief official in charge of a prison.

- They discussed "warden" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "warden" because he had never seen it before.

---

warp (noun)

A shape distorted by twisting or folding.

- He looked up "warp" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "warp" to mean a shape distorted by twisting or folding.

---

water-cooled (adjective)

Kept cool or designed to be kept cool by means of water especially circulating water.

- A water-cooled engine.
- Students compared "water-cooled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

western blackberry (noun)

American blackberry with oblong black fruit.

- They discussed "western blackberry" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "western blackberry" means with a simple example.

---

westminster abbey (noun)

A famous Gothic church of St. Peter in Westminster, London on the site of a former Benedictine monastery.

- Westminster Abbey is the scene of the coronations of almost all English monarchs.
- Distinguished English subjects are buried in Westminster Abbey.

---

wheeler dealer (noun)

A shrewd or unscrupulous person who knows how to circumvent difficulties.

- The article explained what "wheeler dealer" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used “wheeler dealer” to mean a shrewd or unscrupulous person who knows how to....

whisky (noun)

A liquor made from fermented mash of grain.

- They discussed “whisky” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “whisky” because he had never seen it before.

white nile (noun)

A headstream of the Nile; joins the Blue Nile at Khartoum to form the Nile.

- They discussed “white nile” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “white nile” because he had never seen it before.

white supremacy (noun)

The prejudice that members of the white race are superior to members of other races.

- Understanding “white supremacy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “white supremacy” during the group presentation.

winding-sheet (noun)

Burial garment in which a corpse is wrapped.

- Understanding “winding-sheet” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “winding-sheet” because he had never seen it before.

winters (noun)

The coldest season of the year; in the northern hemisphere it extends from the winter solstice to the vernal equinox.

- In class, the teacher used “winters” to mean the coldest season of the year; in the northern....
- Understanding “winters” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wire cutter (noun)

An edge tool used in cutting wire.

- In class, the teacher used “wire cutter” to mean an edge tool used in cutting wire.
- The article explained what “wire cutter” means with a simple example.

wire recorder (noun)

An early type of magnetic recorder using iron wire.

- They discussed “wire recorder” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “wire recorder” means with a simple example.

wire-haired (adjective)

(especially of dogs) having stiff wiry hair.

- A wire-haired terrier.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “wire-haired.”

womb (noun)

A hollow muscular organ in the pelvic cavity of females; contains the developing fetus.

- They discussed “womb” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “womb” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

yellow-tipped (adjective)

Of a flower tipped with yellow.

- The speaker chose “yellow-tipped” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “yellow-tipped” when it is of a flower tipped with yellow.

yogurt (noun)

A custard-like food made from curdled milk.

- He looked up “yogurt” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “yogurt” to mean a custard-like food made from curdled milk.

abolished (verb)

Do away with.

- Slavery was abolished in the mid-19th century in America and in Russia.
- In everyday English, people use "abolished" when talking about this idea.

---

absorption factor (noun)

(physics) the property of a body that determines the fraction of the incident radiation or sound flux absorbed or absorbable by the body.

- Understanding "absorption factor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "absorption factor" to mean (physics) the property of a body that determines....

---

abusing (verb)

Use wrongly or improperly or excessively.

- Can you use "abusing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "abusing" and when to wait.

---

accessory after the fact (noun)

A person who gives assistance or comfort to someone known to be a felon or known to be sought in connection with the commission of a felony.

- They discussed "accessory after the fact" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "accessory after the fact" to mean a person who gives assistance or comfort to someone....

---

accessory before the fact (noun)

A person who procures or advises or commands the commission of a felony but who is not present at its perpetration.

- In class, the teacher used "accessory before the fact" to mean a person who procures or advises or commands the....
- Understanding "accessory before the fact" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

accessory during the fact (noun)

A person who witnesses a crime but does not try to prevent it.

- He looked up "accessory during the fact" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "accessory during the fact" to mean a person who witnesses a crime but does not try to....

---

aerial ladder truck (noun)

A fire engine carrying ladders.

- They discussed "aerial ladder truck" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aerial ladder truck."

---

afghan monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in the Islamic State of Afghanistan.

- In class, the teacher used "afghan monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in the islamic state of afghanistan.
- The article explained what "afghan monetary unit" means with a simple example.

---

alaska cedar (noun)

Tall evergreen of the Pacific coast of North America often cultivated for ornament.

- In class, the teacher used "alaska cedar" to mean tall evergreen of the pacific coast of north....
- The article explained what "alaska cedar" means with a simple example.

---

alaska crab (noun)

Meat of large cold-water crab; mainly leg meat.

- They discussed "alaska crab" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "alaska crab" because he had never seen it before.

---

albert einstein (noun)

Physicist born in Germany who formulated the special theory of relativity and the general theory of relativity; Einstein also proposed that light consists of discrete quantized bundles of energy (later called photons) (1879-1955).

- They discussed "albert einstein" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "albert einstein."

---

algeria (noun)

A republic in northwestern Africa on the Mediterranean Sea with a population that is predominantly Sunni Muslim; colonized by France in the 19th century but gained autonomy in the early 1960s.

- They discussed "algeria" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "algeria" means with a simple example.

---

alpine (adjective)

Relating to the Alps and their inhabitants.

- Alpine countries, Switzerland, Italy, France, and Germany.
- Alpine sports.

---

ambient (adjective)

Completely enveloping.

- The ambient air.
- Ambient sound.

---

american laurel (noun)

A North American evergreen shrub having glossy leaves and white or rose-colored flowers.

- The article explained what "american laurel" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american laurel" to mean a north american evergreen shrub having glossy....

---

aquatic (adjective)

Relating to or consisting of or being in water.

- An aquatic environment.
- Boats are aquatic vehicles.

---

argentine (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Argentina or its people.

- The speaker chose "argentine" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "argentine."

---

armored (adjective)

Used of animals; provided with protective covering.

- Would you call this situation "armored"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "armored."

---

as the crow flies (adverb)

By the shortest and most direct route.

- It's 10 miles as the crow flies.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "as the crow flies" naturally.

---

assert (verb)

To declare or affirm solemnly and formally as true.

- Women should assert themselves more!
- The letter asserts a free society.

---

atheist (adjective)

Related to or characterized by or given to atheism.

- Atheist leanings.
- Students compared "atheist" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

balances (noun)

A scale for weighing; depends on pull of gravity.

- The article explained what "balances" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "balances" during the group presentation.

---

barbecue (noun)

A rack to hold meat for cooking over hot charcoal usually out of doors.

- The article explained what "barbecue" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "barbecue" during the group presentation.

bathing cap (noun)

A tight-fitting cap that keeps hair dry while swimming.

- They discussed "bathing cap" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bathing cap" to mean a tight-fitting cap that keeps hair dry while swimming.

batting helmet (noun)

A helmet worn by the batter in baseball.

- In class, the teacher used "batting helmet" to mean a helmet worn by the batter in baseball.
- The article explained what "batting helmet" means with a simple example.

battle of bunker hill (noun)

The first important battle of the American War of Independence (1775) which was fought at Breed's Hill; the British defeated the colonial forces.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battle of bunker hill."
- The article explained what "battle of bunker hill" means with a simple example.

beach erosion (noun)

The erosion of beaches.

- Understanding "beach erosion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "beach erosion" means with a simple example.

bee sting (noun)

A sting inflicted by a bee.

- They discussed "bee sting" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bee sting" because he had never seen it before.

beforehand (adverb)

Ahead of time; in anticipation.

- Should have made reservations beforehand.
- He answered "beforehand," which changed the tone of the conversation.

bin laden (noun)

Arab terrorist who established al-Qaeda (born in 1957).

- The article explained what "bin laden" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bin laden" to mean arab terrorist who established al-qaeda (born in 1957).

bin liner (noun)

A plastic bag used to line a trash or garbage bin.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bin liner."
- He looked up "bin liner" because he had never seen it before.

bipolar (adjective)

Of or relating to manic depressive illness.

- The bipolar distribution of certain species.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bipolar."

black angus (noun)

Black hornless breed from Scotland.

- The article explained what "black angus" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "black angus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bladder (noun)

A distensible membranous sac (usually containing liquid or gas).

- He looked up "bladder" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bladder."

blossom (noun)

The period of greatest prosperity or productivity.

- They discussed "blossom" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "blossom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blossom out (verb)

Develop or come to a promising stage.

- Youth blossomed into maturity.
- In everyday English, people use "blossom out" when talking about this idea.

---

bolts (noun)

The act of moving with great haste.

- Understanding "bolts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bolts" means with a simple example.

---

bombed (verb)

Fail to get a passing grade.

- The Americans bombed Dresden.
- He did not know how to use "bombed" until he saw an example.

---

boo-boo (noun)

An embarrassing mistake.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boo-boo."
- He looked up "boo-boo" because he had never seen it before.

---

booking clerk (noun)

Someone who sells tickets (e.g., theater seats or travel accommodations).

- He looked up "booking clerk" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "booking clerk" during the group presentation.

---

bubble jet printer (noun)

A kind of ink-jet printer.

- The article explained what "bubble jet printer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bubble jet printer" to mean a kind of ink-jet printer.

---

bubble-jet printer (noun)

A kind of ink-jet printer.

- He looked up "bubble-jet printer" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bubble-jet printer" to mean a kind of ink-jet printer.

---

butterfly collector (noun)

An entomologist who specializes in the collection and study of butterflies and moths.

- In class, the teacher used "butterfly collector" to mean an entomologist who specializes in the collection....
- He looked up "butterfly collector" because he had never seen it before.

---

campaigning (noun)

The campaign of a candidate to be elected.

- He looked up "campaigning" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "campaigning."

---

canned (adjective)

Recorded for broadcast.

- Canned laughter.
- A "canned" approach may work better in this case.

---

cape cod canal (noun)

A canal connecting Cape Cod Bay with Buzzards Bay.

- He looked up "cape cod canal" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cape cod canal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of ecuador (noun)

The capital of Ecuador.

- He looked up "capital of ecuador" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of ecuador."

---

captains (noun)

The leader of a group of people.

- They discussed "captains" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "captains" because he had never seen it before.

---

caravan (noun)

A procession (of wagons or mules or camels) traveling together in single file.

- We were part of a caravan of almost a thousand camels.
- In class, the teacher used "caravan" to mean a procession (of wagons or mules or camels)....

---

cardiac massage (noun)

An emergency procedure that employs rhythmic compression of the heart (either through the chest wall or, during surgery, directly to the heart) in an attempt to maintain circulation during cardiac arrest.

- He looked up "cardiac massage" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cardiac massage."

---

cardinal virtue (noun)

One of the seven preeminent virtues.

- The article explained what "cardinal virtue" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cardinal virtue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cargo liner (noun)

A liner that carries cargo.

- Understanding "cargo liner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cargo liner" because he had never seen it before.

---

carrot (noun)

Orange root; important source of carotene.

- Carrot and stick.
- Used the carrot of subsidized housing for the workers to get their vote.

---

carrot family (noun)

Plants having flowers in umbels: parsley; carrot; anise; caraway; celery; dill.

- They discussed "carrot family" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "carrot family" means with a simple example.

---

chanting (noun)

The act of singing in a monotonous tone.

- He looked up "chanting" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chanting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cherry crab (noun)

Asian wild crab apple cultivated in many varieties for it small acid usually red fruit used for preserving.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cherry crab."
- He looked up "cherry crab" because he had never seen it before.

---

chest protector (noun)

Protective garment consisting of a pad worn in baseball by catchers and by football players.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chest protector."
- Understanding "chest protector" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

clive (noun)

British general and statesman whose victory at Plassey in 1757 strengthened British control of India (1725-1774).

- The article explained what "clive" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "clive" to mean british general and statesman whose victory at....

coca plant (noun)

A South American shrub whose leaves are chewed by natives of the Andes; a source of cocaine.

- The article explained what "coca plant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "coca plant" to mean a south american shrub whose leaves are chewed by....

compartment pressure (noun)

The air pressure maintained in an air-tight compartment (as in an aircraft).

- The article explained what "compartment pressure" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "compartment pressure" during the group presentation.

compressed (adjective)

Reduced in volume by pressure.

- Compressed air.
- With lips compressed.

comprise (verb)

Include or contain; have as a component.

- A totally new idea is comprised in this paper.
- The land he conquered comprised several provinces.

computational (adjective)

Of or involving computation or computers.

- Computational linguistics.
- Students compared "computational" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

conceptual (adjective)

Being or characterized by concepts or their formation.

- Conceptual discussions.
- The schizophrenic loses ability to abstract or do conceptual thinking.

conditioned response (noun)

An acquired response that is under the control of (conditional on the occurrence of) a stimulus.

- The article explained what "conditioned response" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "conditioned response" to mean an acquired response that is under the control of....

constructive breach (noun)

A breach of contract committed prior to the time of required performance.

- He looked up "constructive breach" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "constructive breach" during the group presentation.

coolest (adjective)

Neither warm nor very cold; giving relief from heat.

- A "coolest" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "coolest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

corn syrup (noun)

Syrup prepared from corn.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corn syrup."
- He looked up "corn syrup" because he had never seen it before.

crab-eating seal (noun)

Silvery grey Antarctic seal subsisting on crustaceans.

- Understanding "crab-eating seal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "crab-eating seal" means with a simple example.

---

criminal negligence (noun)

(law) recklessly acting without reasonable caution and putting another person at risk of injury or death (or failing to do something with the same consequences).

- In class, the teacher used "criminal negligence" to mean (law) recklessly acting without reasonable caution....
- Understanding "criminal negligence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cross-stitch (noun)

Embroidery done with pairs of stitches that cross each other.

- In class, the teacher used "cross-stitch" to mean embroidery done with pairs of stitches that cross....
- The article explained what "cross-stitch" means with a simple example.

---

cruise liner (noun)

A passenger ship used commercially for pleasure cruises.

- The article explained what "cruise liner" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cruise liner" to mean a passenger ship used commercially for pleasure cruises.

---

cultural anthropology (noun)

The branch of anthropology that deals with human culture and society.

- In class, the teacher used "cultural anthropology" to mean the branch of anthropology that deals with human....
- The article explained what "cultural anthropology" means with a simple example.

---

currencies (noun)

The property of belonging to the present time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "currencies."
- He looked up "currencies" because he had never seen it before.

---

damp (verb)

Make vague or obscure or make (an image) less visible.

- The sudden bad news damped the joyous atmosphere.
- The coach explained when to use "damp" and when to wait.

---

databases (noun)

An organized body of related information.

- In class, the teacher used "databases" to mean an organized body of related information.
- The article explained what "databases" means with a simple example.

---

david roland smith (noun)

United States sculptor (1906-1965).

- The article explained what "david roland smith" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "david roland smith" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

debit (noun)

An accounting entry acknowledging sums that are owing.

- He looked up "debit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "debit."

---

deficiency disease (noun)

Any disease caused by a lack of an essential nutrient (as a vitamin or mineral).

- The article explained what "deficiency disease" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "deficiency disease" to mean any disease caused by a lack of an essential....

---

demolition (noun)

An event (or the result of an event) that completely destroys something.

- Understanding "demolition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “demolition.”

detailing (noun)

An individualized description of a particular instance.

- The article explained what “detailing” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “detailing” during the group presentation.

differential threshold (noun)

The smallest change in stimulation that a person can detect.

- He looked up “differential threshold” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “differential threshold” during the group presentation.

differentiate (verb)

Be a distinctive feature, attribute, or trait; sometimes in a very positive sense.

- Cells differentiate.
- She tried to use “differentiate” carefully so everyone would understand.

dim (verb)

Become vague or indistinct.

- The lights dimmed and the curtain rose.
- Time had dimmed the silver.

dime novel (noun)

A melodramatic paperback novel.

- They discussed “dime novel” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “dime novel” means with a simple example.

discouraged (adjective)

Made less hopeful or enthusiastic.

- Felt discouraged by the magnitude of the problem.
- The accident left others discouraged about going there.

discovers (verb)

See for the first time; make a discovery.

- Learners should practice how to use “discovers” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “discovers” until he saw an example.

dividing line (noun)

A conceptual separation or distinction.

- There is a narrow line between sanity and insanity.
- In class, the teacher used “dividing line” to mean a conceptual separation or distinction.

dog laurel (noun)

Fast-growing evergreen shrub of southeastern United States having arching interlaced branches and racemes of white flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “dog laurel.”
- Understanding “dog laurel” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

donkey (noun)

The symbol of the Democratic Party; introduced in cartoons by Thomas Nast in 1874.

- Understanding “donkey” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “donkey” to mean the symbol of the democratic party; introduced in....

double stitch (noun)

A kind of crochet stitch.

- Understanding “double stitch” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “double stitch” during the group presentation.

downstream (adverb)

Away from the source or with the current.

- He answered "downstream," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Place "downstream" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

dust contamination (noun)

The act of contaminating with dust particles.

- He looked up "dust contamination" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dust contamination" during the group presentation.

---

earrings (noun)

Jewelry to ornament the ear; usually clipped to the earlobe or fastened through a hole in the lobe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earrings."
- They discussed "earrings" during the group presentation.

---

earthquakes (noun)

A disturbance that is extremely disruptive.

- In class, the teacher used "earthquakes" to mean a disturbance that is extremely disruptive.
- He looked up "earthquakes" because he had never seen it before.

---

easter daisy (noun)

Dwarf tufted nearly stemless herb having a rosette of woolly leaves and large white-rayed flower heads and bristly achenes; central Canada and United States west to Arizona.

- Understanding "easter daisy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "easter daisy" because he had never seen it before.

---

eastern highlands (noun)

A mountain range running along the eastern coast of Australia.

- He looked up "eastern highlands" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "eastern highlands" to mean a mountain range running along the eastern coast of....

---

ebola (noun)

A severe and often fatal disease in humans and nonhuman primates (monkeys and chimpanzees) caused by the Ebola virus; characterized by high fever and severe internal bleeding; can be spread from person to person; is largely limited to Africa.

- They discussed "ebola" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ebola" means with a simple example.

---

elbow pad (noun)

Protective garment consisting of a pad worn over the elbow by football and hockey players.

- Understanding "elbow pad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "elbow pad" means with a simple example.

---

elevator shaft (noun)

A vertical shaft in a building to permit the passage of an elevator from floor to floor.

- He looked up "elevator shaft" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "elevator shaft" to mean a vertical shaft in a building to permit the....

---

elites (noun)

A group or class of persons enjoying superior intellectual or social or economic status.

- He looked up "elites" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "elites" during the group presentation.

---

enlarged (adjective)

(of an organ or body part) excessively enlarged as a result of increased size in the constituent cells.

- It is useful to describe something as "enlarged" when it is (of an organ or body part) excessively enlarged as....
- The speaker chose "enlarged" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

enzymes (noun)

Any of several complex proteins that are produced by cells and act as catalysts in specific biochemical reactions.

- They discussed “enzymes” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “enzymes.”

---

esther (noun)

An Old Testament book telling of a beautiful Jewess who became queen of Persia and saved her people from massacre.

- The article explained what “esther” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “esther” to mean an old testament book telling of a beautiful jewess....

---

ethan allen (noun)

A soldier of the American Revolution whose troops helped capture Fort Ticonderoga from the British (1738-1789).

- He looked up “ethan allen” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “ethan allen” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

european spider crab (noun)

A large spider crab of Europe.

- Understanding “european spider crab” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “european spider crab” during the group presentation.

---

fantasies (noun)

Something many people believe that is false.

- She made a lot of money writing romantic fantasies.
- He looked up “fantasies” because he had never seen it before.

---

fast of av (noun)

(Judaism) a major fast day on the Jewish calendar commemorating the destruction of the temples in Jerusalem.

- He looked up “fast of av” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “fast of av” to mean (judaism) a major fast day on the jewish calendar....

---

faulty (adjective)

Characterized by errors; not agreeing with a model or not following established rules; ; ; the wrong side of the road".

- He submitted a faulty report.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “faulty.”

---

federal democratic republic of ethiopia (noun)

Ethiopia is a republic in northeastern Africa on the Red Sea; formerly called Abyssinia.

- He looked up “federal democratic republic of ethiopia” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “federal democratic republic of ethiopia.”

---

fertile (adjective)

Bearing in abundance especially offspring.

- Fertile farmland.
- The speaker chose “fertile” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

feud (noun)

A bitter quarrel between two parties.

- In class, the teacher used “feud” to mean a bitter quarrel between two parties.
- Understanding “feud” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

field mushroom (noun)

Common edible mushroom found naturally in moist open soil; the cultivated mushroom of commerce.

- He looked up “field mushroom” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “field mushroom.”

---

filmmaker (noun)

A producer of motion pictures.

- He looked up “filmmaker” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “filmmaker” to mean a producer of motion pictures.

fire warden (noun)

An official who is responsible for managing and protecting an area of forest.

- The article explained what "fire warden" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fire warden" during the group presentation.

first-class honours degree (noun)

An honours degree of the highest class.

- They discussed "first-class honours degree" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "first-class honours degree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flare pass (noun)

A short forward pass to a back who is running toward the sidelines.

- He threw a flare to the fullback who was tackled for a loss.
- The article explained what "flare pass" means with a simple example.

floyd bennett (noun)

United States aviator who (with Richard E. Byrd) piloted the first flight over the North Pole (1890-1928).

- In class, the teacher used "floyd bennett" to mean united states aviator who (with richard e. byrd)....
- The article explained what "floyd bennett" means with a simple example.

food cache (noun)

Food in a secure or hidden storage place.

- Understanding "food cache" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "food cache."

formations (noun)

The act of forming or establishing something.

- He looked up "formations" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "formations."

fortunes (noun)

An unknown and unpredictable phenomenon that leads to a favorable outcome.

- He looked up "fortunes" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fortunes" during the group presentation.

frankfurt (noun)

A German city; an industrial and commercial and financial center.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frankfurt."
- They discussed "frankfurt" during the group presentation.

freedoms (noun)

The condition of being free; the power to act or speak or think without externally imposed restraints.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freedoms."
- He looked up "freedoms" because he had never seen it before.

furnace (noun)

An enclosed chamber in which heat is produced to heat buildings, destroy refuse, smelt or refine ores, etc.

- Understanding "furnace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "furnace" to mean an enclosed chamber in which heat is produced to....

fuse (verb)

Become plastic or fluid or liquefied from heat.

- The substances fused at a very high temperature.
- The storm fused the electric mains.

fuss (noun)

An excited state of agitation.

- He didn't want to make a fuss.
- They discussed "fuss" during the group presentation.

---

gag law (noun)

A rule for limiting or ending debate in a deliberative body.

- They discussed "gag law" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gag law."

---

gag line (noun)

The point of a joke or humorous story.

- The article explained what "gag line" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gag line" to mean the point of a joke or humorous story.

---

gag order (noun)

A court order restricting information or comment by the participants involved in a lawsuit.

- Imposing a gag order on members of the press violates the First Amendment.
- They discussed "gag order" during the group presentation.

---

gale (noun)

A strong wind moving 45-90 knots; force 7 to 10 on Beaufort scale.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gale."
- They discussed "gale" during the group presentation.

---

gamer (adjective)

Disabled in the feet or legs.

- Would you call this situation "gamer"? Explain why.
- Students compared "gamer" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

gas mileage (noun)

The ratio of the number of miles traveled to the number of gallons of gasoline burned.

- The article explained what "gas mileage" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gas mileage" to mean the ratio of the number of miles traveled to the....

---

gas pedal (noun)

A pedal that controls the throttle valve.

- He stepped on the gas.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gas pedal."

---

general practitioner (noun)

A physician who is not a specialist but treats all illnesses.

- Understanding "general practitioner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general practitioner."

---

generosity (noun)

The trait of being willing to give your money or time.

- They discussed "generosity" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "generosity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gill-less (adjective)

Having no gills.

- Would you call this situation "gill-less"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "gill-less" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

gill-over-the-ground (noun)

Trailing European aromatic plant of the mint family having rounded leaves and small purplish flowers often grown in hanging baskets; naturalized in North America; sometimes placed in genus Nepeta.

- They discussed "gill-over-the-ground" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gill-over-the-ground."

---

gluten (noun)

A protein substance that remains when starch is removed from cereal grains; gives cohesiveness to dough.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gluten."
- He looked up "gluten" because he had never seen it before.

---

goodman (noun)

United States clarinetist who in 1934 formed a big band (including black as well as white musicians) and introduced a kind of jazz known as swing (1909-1986).

- The article explained what "goodman" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "goodman" to mean united states clarinetist who in 1934 formed a big....

---

gorilla (noun)

Largest anthropoid ape; terrestrial and vegetarian; of forests of central west Africa.

- Understanding "gorilla" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gorilla."

---

grace patricia kelly (noun)

United States film actress who retired when she married into the royal family of Monaco (1928-1982).

- In class, the teacher used "grace patricia kelly" to mean united states film actress who retired when she....
- They discussed "grace patricia kelly" during the group presentation.

---

grand rapids (noun)

A city in west central Michigan; noted for manufacturing furniture.

- They discussed "grand rapids" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grand rapids."

---

gray willow (noun)

Eurasian shrubby willow with whitish tomentose twigs.

- The article explained what "gray willow" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gray willow."

---

green lizard (noun)

A common Eurasian lizard about a foot long.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green lizard."
- The article explained what "green lizard" means with a simple example.

---

grey willow (noun)

Eurasian shrubby willow with whitish tomentose twigs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grey willow."
- Understanding "grey willow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

guatemala (noun)

A republic in Central America; achieved independence from Spain in 1821; noted for low per capita income and illiteracy; politically unstable.

- The article explained what "guatemala" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "guatemala" during the group presentation.

---

guatemala city (noun)

The capital and largest city of Guatemala.

- Understanding "guatemala city" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "guatemala city" means with a simple example.

---

hamburg (noun)

A port city in northern Germany on the Elbe River that was founded by Charlemagne in the 9th century and is today the largest port in Germany; in 1241 it formed an alliance with Lubeck that became the basis for the Hanseatic League.

- He looked up "hamburg" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hamburg" to mean a port city in northern germany on the elbe river....

hammond organ (noun)

(music) an electronic simulation of a pipe organ.

- They discussed "hammond organ" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "hammond organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

harvested (verb)

Remove from a culture or a living or dead body, as for the purposes of transplantation.

- Learners should practice how to use "harvested" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "harvested" when talking about this idea.

hash head (noun)

A user of hashish.

- Understanding "hash head" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hash head" because he had never seen it before.

hawaiian dancing (noun)

A Polynesian rain dance performed by a woman.

- In class, the teacher used "hawaiian dancing" to mean a polynesian rain dance performed by a woman.
- Understanding "hawaiian dancing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hawaiian guitar (noun)

Guitar whose steel strings are twanged while being pressed with a movable steel bar for a glissando effect.

- In class, the teacher used "hawaiian guitar" to mean guitar whose steel strings are twanged while being....
- They discussed "hawaiian guitar" during the group presentation.

hawaiian islands (noun)

A group of volcanic and coral islands in the central Pacific.

- Understanding "hawaiian islands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hawaiian islands."

heavy swell (noun)

A broad and deep undulation of the ocean.

- Understanding "heavy swell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "heavy swell" because he had never seen it before.

heavyweight (noun)

A wrestler who weighs more than 214 pounds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heavyweight."
- They discussed "heavyweight" during the group presentation.

henry graham greene (noun)

English novelist and Catholic (1904-1991).

- Understanding "henry graham greene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "henry graham greene" means with a simple example.

herb roberts (noun)

A sticky low herb with small reddish-purple flowers; widespread in the northern hemisphere.

- In class, the teacher used "herb roberts" to mean a sticky low herb with small reddish-purple....
- They discussed "herb roberts" during the group presentation.

herbs robert (noun)

A sticky low herb with small reddish-purple flowers; widespread in the northern hemisphere.

- In class, the teacher used "herbs robert" to mean a sticky low herb with small reddish-purple....
- They discussed "herbs robert" during the group presentation.

honey crisp (noun)

A crisp candy made with honey.

- Understanding "honey crisp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "honey crisp" because he had never seen it before.

---

humane (adjective)

Pertaining to or concerned with the humanities.

- A humane education.
- Would you call this situation "humane"? Explain why.

---

humanities (noun)

Studies intended to provide general knowledge and intellectual skills (rather than occupational or professional skills).

- They discussed "humanities" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "humanities."

---

hydraulic transmission (noun)

A transmission that depends on a hydraulic system.

- The article explained what "hydraulic transmission" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hydraulic transmission" to mean a transmission that depends on a hydraulic system.

---

hydraulic transmission system (noun)

A transmission that depends on a hydraulic system.

- He looked up "hydraulic transmission system" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hydraulic transmission system."

---

ideological barrier (noun)

A barrier to cooperation or interaction resulting from conflicting ideologies.

- The article explained what "ideological barrier" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ideological barrier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ignition lock (noun)

A restraint incorporated into the ignition switch to prevent the use of a vehicle by persons who do not have the key.

- Understanding "ignition lock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ignition lock" during the group presentation.

---

ii chronicles (noun)

The second of two Old Testament books telling the history of Judah and Israel until the return from the Babylonian Captivity in 536 BC.

- In class, the teacher used "ii chronicles" to mean the second of two old testament books telling the....
- They discussed "ii chronicles" during the group presentation.

---

imperial gallon (noun)

A British imperial capacity measure (liquid or dry) equal to 4 quarts or 4.545 liters.

- Understanding "imperial gallon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "imperial gallon" to mean a british imperial capacity measure (liquid or dry)....

---

indirect correlation (noun)

A correlation in which large values of one variable are associated with small values of the other; the correlation coefficient is between 0 and -1.

- He looked up "indirect correlation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indirect correlation."

---

inflicted (verb)

Impose something unpleasant.

- The coach explained when to use "inflicted" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "inflicted" until he saw an example.

---

infrared frequency (noun)

The infrared region of the electromagnetic spectrum; electromagnetic wave frequencies below the visible range.

- They could sense radiation in the infrared.

- They discussed "infrared frequency" during the group presentation.

interference fringe (noun)

One of the light or dark bands produced by the interference and diffraction of light.

- The article explained what "interference fringe" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "interference fringe" to mean one of the light or dark bands produced by the....

interviewing (verb)

Go for an interview in the hope of being hired.

- He did not know how to use "interviewing" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "interviewing" carefully so everyone would understand.

iowa crab apple (noun)

Wild crab apple of western United States with fragrant pink flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "iowa crab apple" to mean wild crab apple of western united states with....
- The article explained what "iowa crab apple" means with a simple example.

james jerome hill (noun)

United States railroad tycoon (1838-1916).

- The article explained what "james jerome hill" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "james jerome hill" to mean united states railroad tycoon (1838-1916).

joan crawford (noun)

United States film actress (1908-1977).

- He looked up "joan crawford" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "joan crawford" to mean united states film actress (1908-1977).

journeys (noun)

The act of traveling from one place to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "journeys."
- He looked up "journeys" because he had never seen it before.

knee brace (noun)

A brace worn to strengthen the knee.

- In class, the teacher used "knee brace" to mean a brace worn to strengthen the knee.
- Understanding "knee brace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

labelled (adjective)

Bearing or marked with a label or tag.

- A "labelled" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "labelled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

lawful (adjective)

Authorized, sanctioned by, or in accordance with law.

- The true and lawful king.
- The speaker chose "lawful" because it captured the feeling precisely.

lawmakers (noun)

A maker of laws; someone who gives a code of laws.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lawmakers."
- The article explained what "lawmakers" means with a simple example.

leased (adjective)

Hired for the exclusive temporary use of a group of travelers.

- Students compared "leased" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "leased" when it is hired for the exclusive temporary use of a group of....

lebanese pound (noun)

The basic unit of money in Lebanon; equal to 100 piasters.

- The article explained what "lebanese pound" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lebanese pound" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lemon peel (noun)

Strips of lemon peel cooked in sugar and coated with sugar.

- The article explained what "lemon peel" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lemon peel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lena (noun)

A Russian river in Siberia; flows northward into the Laptev Sea.

- Understanding "lena" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lena."

---

long-chain molecule (noun)

(chemistry) a relatively long chain of atoms in a molecule.

- In class, the teacher used "long-chain molecule" to mean (chemistry) a relatively long chain of atoms in a....
- They discussed "long-chain molecule" during the group presentation.

---

loop knot (noun)

Any of various knots used to make a fixed loop in a rope.

- In class, the teacher used "loop knot" to mean any of various knots used to make a fixed loop in a....
- They discussed "loop knot" during the group presentation.

---

loosely (adverb)

Without regard to specific details or exceptions.

- His hands lay loosely.
- A union of loosely federated states.

---

lord's day (noun)

First day of the week; observed as a day of rest and worship by most Christians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lord's day."
- The article explained what "lord's day" means with a simple example.

---

lotus (noun)

Native to eastern Asia; widely cultivated for its large pink or white flowers.

- The article explained what "lotus" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lotus."

---

lump sum (noun)

A complete payment consisting of a single sum of money.

- The article explained what "lump sum" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lump sum" to mean a complete payment consisting of a single sum of money.

---

luna (noun)

(Roman mythology) the goddess of the Moon; counterpart of Greek Selene.

- In class, the teacher used "luna" to mean (roman mythology) the goddess of the moon;....
- He looked up "luna" because he had never seen it before.

---

machine stitch (noun)

A sewing stitch made by a sewing machine, sometimes using more than one thread.

- Understanding "machine stitch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "machine stitch" during the group presentation.

---

mails (noun)

The system whereby messages are transmitted via the post office.

- In class, the teacher used "mails" to mean the system whereby messages are transmitted via the....
- The article explained what "mails" means with a simple example.

---

malik (noun)

The leader of a town or community in some parts of Asia Minor and the Indian subcontinent.

- Maliks rule the hinterland of Afghanistan under the protection of warlords.
- He looked up "malik" because he had never seen it before.

---

mantle (noun)

The cloak as a symbol of authority.

- Place the mantle of authority on younger shoulders.
- They discussed "mantle" during the group presentation.

---

mascot (noun)

A person or animal that is adopted by a team or other group as a symbolic figure.

- They discussed "mascot" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mascot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

medical practitioner (noun)

Someone who practices medicine.

- They discussed "medical practitioner" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "medical practitioner" because he had never seen it before.

---

mercury poisoning (noun)

A toxic condition caused by ingesting or inhaling mercury; acute mercury poisoning causes a metallic taste and vomiting and diarrhea and kidney problems that may lead to death.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mercury poisoning."
- They discussed "mercury poisoning" during the group presentation.

---

metabolic (adjective)

Of or relating to metabolism.

- Metabolic rate.
- Would you call this situation "metabolic"? Explain why.

---

meth (noun)

An amphetamine derivative (trade name Methedrine) used in the form of a crystalline hydrochloride; used as a stimulant to the nervous system and as an appetite suppressant.

- He looked up "meth" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "meth."

---

mf (noun)

300 to 3000 kilohertz.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mf."
- Understanding "mf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

microphone boom (noun)

A pole carrying an overhead microphone projected over a film or tv set.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "microphone boom."
- The article explained what "microphone boom" means with a simple example.

---

midfield (noun)

(sports) the middle part of a playing field (as in football or lacrosse).

- Understanding "midfield" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "midfield" to mean (sports) the middle part of a playing field (as in....

---

militant (adjective)

Disposed to warfare or hard-line policies.

- Militant nations.
- Militant in fighting for better wages for workers.

missionaries (noun)

Someone who attempts to convert others to a particular doctrine or program.

- In class, the teacher used "missionaries" to mean someone who attempts to convert others to a....
- He looked up "missionaries" because he had never seen it before.

mohammad (noun)

The Arab prophet who, according to Islam, was the last messenger of Allah (570-632).

- Understanding "mohammad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mohammad."

nat turner (noun)

United States slave and insurrectionist who in 1831 led a rebellion of slaves in Virginia; he was captured and executed (1800-1831).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nat turner."
- The article explained what "nat turner" means with a simple example.

nile river (noun)

The world's longest river (4150 miles); flows northward through eastern Africa into the Mediterranean; the Nile River valley in Egypt was the site of the world's first great civilization.

- In class, the teacher used "nile river" to mean the world's longest river (4150 miles); flows....
- They discussed "nile river" during the group presentation.

norman conquest (noun)

The invasion and settlement of England by the Normans following the battle of Hastings (1066).

- They discussed "norman conquest" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "norman conquest" means with a simple example.

northern flying squirrel (noun)

Large flying squirrel; chiefly of Canada.

- Understanding "northern flying squirrel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "northern flying squirrel" to mean large flying squirrel; chiefly of canada.

northern lobster (noun)

Flesh of cold-water lobsters having large tender claws; caught from Maine to the Carolinas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "northern lobster."
- He looked up "northern lobster" because he had never seen it before.

nostalgia (noun)

Longing for something past.

- Understanding "nostalgia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "nostalgia" during the group presentation.

order of saint benedict (noun)

A Roman Catholic monastic order founded in the 6th century; noted for liturgical worship and for scholarly activities.

- Understanding "order of saint benedict" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "order of saint benedict" during the group presentation.

oregon crab apple (noun)

Small tree or shrub of western United States having white blossoms and tiny yellow or red fruit.

- Understanding "oregon crab apple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "oregon crab apple" during the group presentation.

ottoman (noun)

A low seat or a stool to rest the feet of a seated person.

- Understanding "ottoman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ottoman" to mean a low seat or a stool to rest the feet of a seated....

paddy (noun)

An irrigated or flooded field where rice is grown.

- Understanding “paddy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “paddy” to mean an irrigated or flooded field where rice is grown.

---

panther cat (noun)

Nocturnal wildcat of Central America and South America having a dark-spotted buff-brown coat.

- In class, the teacher used “panther cat” to mean nocturnal wildcat of central america and south....
- They discussed “panther cat” during the group presentation.

---

paperback (noun)

A book with paper covers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “paperback.”
- The article explained what “paperback” means with a simple example.

---

parcel bomb (noun)

A thin explosive device inside an envelope or package and detonated when opened.

- They discussed “parcel bomb” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “parcel bomb.”

---

paved (adjective)

Covered with a firm surface.

- It is useful to describe something as “paved” when it is covered with a firm surface.
- A “paved” approach may work better in this case.

---

pavilion (noun)

Large and often sumptuous tent.

- Understanding “pavilion” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pavilion.”

---

peasant (noun)

A crude uncouth ill-bred person lacking culture or refinement.

- He looked up “peasant” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “peasant.”

---

pedestrian crossing (noun)

Street crossing where pedestrians have right of way; often marked in some way (especially with diagonal stripes).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pedestrian crossing.”
- He looked up “pedestrian crossing” because he had never seen it before.

---

periodic event (noun)

An event that recurs at intervals.

- The article explained what “periodic event” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “periodic event” during the group presentation.

---

periodic law (noun)

(chemistry) the principle that chemical properties of the elements are periodic functions of their atomic numbers.

- The article explained what “periodic law” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “periodic law” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

peripheral device (noun)

(computer science) electronic equipment connected by cable to the CPU of a computer.

- Disk drives and printers are important peripherals.
- Understanding “peripheral device” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

peripheral vision (noun)

Vision at the edges of the visual field using only the periphery of the retina.

- In class, the teacher used “peripheral vision” to mean vision at the edges of the visual field using only....

- The article explained what "peripheral vision" means with a simple example.

---

perks (noun)

An incidental benefit awarded for certain types of employment (especially if it is regarded as a right).

- The article explained what "perks" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "perks" to mean an incidental benefit awarded for certain types of....

---

persian gulf illness (noun)

A medical condition of uncertain origin that affected many veterans of the 1991 Gulf War; characterized by fatigue and headache and dizziness and nausea and rashes and joint pain and respiratory disorders.

- In class, the teacher used "persian gulf illness" to mean a medical condition of uncertain origin that....
- Understanding "persian gulf illness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

philosophers (noun)

A wise person who is calm and rational; someone who lives a life of reason with equanimity.

- He looked up "philosophers" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "philosophers" to mean a wise person who is calm and rational; someone who....

---

pillar box (noun)

A red pillar-shaped letter box.

- The article explained what "pillar box" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pillar box" during the group presentation.

---

pillars (noun)

A fundamental principle or practice.

- Science eroded the pillars of superstition.
- The article explained what "pillars" means with a simple example.

---

pointer (noun)

A mark to indicate a direction or relation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pointer."
- They discussed "pointer" during the group presentation.

---

policing (verb)

Maintain the security of by carrying out a patrol.

- Can you use "policing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "policing" and when to wait.

---

prairie grass (noun)

Handsome hardy North American grass with foliage turning pale bronze in autumn.

- He looked up "prairie grass" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "prairie grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prairie soil (noun)

A type of soil occurring under grasses in temperate climates.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prairie soil."
- They discussed "prairie soil" during the group presentation.

---

prayer beads (noun)

A string of beads used in counting prayers (especially by Catholics).

- Understanding "prayer beads" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "prayer beads" during the group presentation.

---

predicting (verb)

Make a prediction about; tell in advance.

- In everyday English, people use "predicting" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "predicting" until he saw an example.

presume (verb)

Take upon oneself; act presumptuously, without permission.

- A restaurant bill presumes the consumption of food.
- Can you use "presume" in a sentence that fits this situation?

presumed (verb)

Take upon oneself; act presumptuously, without permission.

- He did not know how to use "presumed" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "presumed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

printers (noun)

(computer science) an output device that prints the results of data processing.

- They discussed "printers" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "printers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

quartz crystal (noun)

A thin plate or small rod of quartz cut along certain lines and ground so that it can produce an electric signal at a constant frequency; used in crystal oscillators.

- They discussed "quartz crystal" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "quartz crystal" because he had never seen it before.

quartz mill (noun)

A stamp mill for stamping quartz.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quartz mill."
- Understanding "quartz mill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

queen's counsel (noun)

Counsel to the Crown when the British monarch is a queen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "queen's counsel."
- They discussed "queen's counsel" during the group presentation.

radius vector (noun)

A line connecting a point in space to the origin of a polar coordinate system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radius vector."
- They discussed "radius vector" during the group presentation.

reacting (verb)

Undergo a chemical reaction; react with another substance under certain conditions.

- He did not know how to use "reacting" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "reacting" when talking about this idea.

rebuilt (verb)

Build again.

- In everyday English, people use "rebuilt" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "rebuilt" in real sentences.

rectangular (adjective)

Having a set of mutually perpendicular axes; meeting at right angles.

- A rectangular Cartesian coordinate system.
- A rectangular figure twice as long as it is wide.

red saunders (noun)

Tree of India and East Indies yielding a hard fragrant timber prized for cabinetwork and dark red heartwood used as a dyewood.

- He looked up "red saunders" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "red saunders" during the group presentation.

regulator (noun)

A control that maintains a steady speed in a machine (as by controlling the supply of fuel).

- The article explained what "regulator" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "regulator" to mean a control that maintains a steady speed in a....

---

renting (noun)

The act of paying for the use of something (as an apartment or house or car).

- The article explained what "renting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "renting" to mean the act of paying for the use of something (as an....

---

restructuring (verb)

Construct or form anew or provide with a new structure.

- Can you use "restructuring" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "restructuring" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

retention basin (noun)

A storage site similar to a detention basin but the water in storage is permanently obstructed from flowing downstream.

- They discussed "retention basin" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "retention basin" because he had never seen it before.

---

richard the lion-hearted (noun)

Son of Henry II and King of England from 1189 to 1199; a leader of the Third Crusade; on his way home from the crusade he was captured and held prisoner in the Holy Roman Empire until England ransomed him in 1194 (1157-1199).

- Understanding "richard the lion-hearted" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "richard the lion-hearted" to mean son of henry ii and king of england from 1189 to....

---

ridden (verb)

Harass with persistent criticism or carping.

- Learners should practice how to use "ridden" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "ridden" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

ro (noun)

An artificial language for international use that rejects all existing words and is based instead on an abstract analysis of ideas.

- The article explained what "ro" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ro" during the group presentation.

---

romantic realism (noun)

The first coherent school of American art; active from 1825 to 1870; painted wilderness landscapes of the Hudson River valley and surrounding New England.

- He looked up "romantic realism" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "romantic realism" to mean the first coherent school of american art; active....

---

root rot (noun)

Disease characterized by root decay; caused by various fungi.

- The article explained what "root rot" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "root rot" during the group presentation.

---

sabotage (verb)

Destroy property or hinder normal operations.

- The Resistance sabotaged railroad operations during the war.
- The coach explained when to use "sabotage" and when to wait.

---

safari park (noun)

An area of parkland where wild animals are kept and can be viewed by visitors driving through.

- In class, the teacher used "safari park" to mean an area of parkland where wild animals are kept and....
- He looked up "safari park" because he had never seen it before.

---

saint benedict (noun)

Italian monk who founded the Benedictine order about 540 (480-547).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saint benedict."

- He looked up “saint benedict” because he had never seen it before.

saint petersburg (noun)

A city in western Florida on Tampa Bay; a popular winter resort.

- He looked up “saint petersburg” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “saint petersburg” during the group presentation.

sanctioned (adjective)

Established by authority; given authoritative approval.

- Would you call this situation “sanctioned”? Explain why.
- Students compared “sanctioned” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

sarcasm (noun)

Witty language used to convey insults or scorn; ; ; –Jonathan Swift.

- He used sarcasm to upset his opponent.
- Understanding “sarcasm” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

savannah (noun)

A flat grassland in tropical or subtropical regions.

- Understanding “savannah” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “savannah” means with a simple example.

scans (noun)

The act of scanning; systematic examination of a prescribed region.

- Understanding “scans” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scans.”

scarlet letter (noun)

The letter A in red; Puritans required adulterers to wear it.

- He looked up “scarlet letter” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “scarlet letter.”

scotch egg (noun)

Hard-cooked egg encased in sausage meat then breaded and deep-fried.

- They discussed “scotch egg” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “scotch egg” to mean hard-cooked egg encased in sausage meat then....

scotch tape (verb)

Fasten or attach with sellotape.

- The hotel manager scotch taped a note to the guest’s door.
- The coach explained when to use “scotch tape” and when to wait.

seekers (noun)

A missile equipped with a device that is attracted toward some kind of emission (heat or light or sound or radio waves).

- They are seekers after truth.
- He looked up “seekers” because he had never seen it before.

self-assertion (noun)

The act of asserting yourself in an aggressive manner.

- The article explained what “self-assertion” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “self-assertion” during the group presentation.

self-cultivation (noun)

The process of educating yourself.

- They discussed “self-cultivation” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “self-cultivation” to mean the process of educating yourself.

self-styled (adjective)

As claimed by and for yourself often without justification.

- The self-styled 'doctor' has no degree of any kind.
- Students compared "self-styled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

sentencing (verb)

Pronounce a sentence on (somebody) in a court of law.

- She tried to use "sentencing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "sentencing" in real sentences.

---

sewer gas (noun)

Foul-smelling gas that forms in sewers.

- The article explained what "sewer gas" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sewer gas."

---

sewing kit (noun)

A kit of articles used in sewing.

- They discussed "sewing kit" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sewing kit" to mean a kit of articles used in sewing.

---

sexist (noun)

A man with a chauvinistic belief in the inferiority of women.

- In class, the teacher used "sexist" to mean a man with a chauvinistic belief in the inferiority....
- He looked up "sexist" because he had never seen it before.

---

shaving (noun)

The act of brushing against while passing.

- Understanding "shaving" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "shaving" during the group presentation.

---

shelf bracket (noun)

A bracket to support a shelf.

- He looked up "shelf bracket" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "shelf bracket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shin bone (noun)

A cut of meat from the lower part of the leg.

- He looked up "shin bone" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "shin bone" during the group presentation.

---

shore boulder (noun)

A boulder found on a shore remote from its place of origin.

- In class, the teacher used "shore boulder" to mean a boulder found on a shore remote from its place of....
- The article explained what "shore boulder" means with a simple example.

---

shutdown (noun)

Termination of operations.

- He looked up "shutdown" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "shutdown" to mean termination of operations.

---

sic (verb)

Urge to attack someone.

- The owner sicked his dogs on the intruders.
- The shaman sics sorcerers on the evil spirits.

---

sir isaac newton (noun)

English mathematician and physicist; remembered for developing the calculus and for his law of gravitation and his three laws of motion (1642-1727).

- In class, the teacher used “sir isaac newton” to mean english mathematician and physicist; remembered for....
- They discussed “sir isaac newton” during the group presentation.

---

sir john hawkins (noun)

English privateer involved in the slave trade; later helped build the fleet that in 1588 defeated the Spanish Armada (1532-1595).

- Understanding “sir john hawkins” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sir john hawkins.”

---

slammed (verb)

Dance the slam dance.

- He slammed the door shut.
- He slammed the book on the table.

---

smooth-haired (adjective)

Having hair that feels smooth.

- It is useful to describe something as “smooth-haired” when it is having hair that feels smooth.
- Students compared “smooth-haired” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

southern flying squirrel (noun)

Small large-eyed nocturnal flying squirrel of eastern United States.

- He looked up “southern flying squirrel” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “southern flying squirrel.”

---

spice rack (noun)

A rack for displaying containers filled with spices.

- The article explained what “spice rack” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “spice rack” to mean a rack for displaying containers filled with spices.

---

spike moss (noun)

Any of numerous fern allies of the genus Selaginella.

- Understanding “spike moss” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “spike moss” during the group presentation.

---

spotted coral root (noun)

Common coral root having yellowish- or reddish- or purplish-brown leafless stems bearing loose racemes of similarly colored flowers with white purple-spotted lips; Guatemala to Canada.

- He looked up “spotted coral root” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “spotted coral root” during the group presentation.

---

spotted sea trout (noun)

Weakfish of southern Atlantic and Gulf Coasts of United States.

- In class, the teacher used “spotted sea trout” to mean weakfish of southern atlantic and gulf coasts of....
- He looked up “spotted sea trout” because he had never seen it before.

---

squash court (noun)

The indoor court in which squash is played.

- Understanding “squash court” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “squash court” to mean the indoor court in which squash is played.

---

st john’s eve (noun)

The night before Midsummer Day.

- In class, the teacher used “st john’s eve” to mean the night before midsummer day.
- Understanding “st john’s eve” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

steel-wool pad (noun)

Abrader consisting of a pad of steel wool used for polishing or smoothing.

- Understanding “steel-wool pad” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “steel-wool pad.”

stir fry (verb)

Fry very quickly over high heat.

- Stir-fry the vegetables in a wok.
- In everyday English, people use "stir fry" when talking about this idea.

stresses (noun)

The relative prominence of a syllable or musical note (especially with regard to stress or pitch).

- She endured the stresses and strains of life.
- He looked up "stresses" because he had never seen it before.

subway token (noun)

A token that is used to pay for entry to the subway system.

- Understanding "subway token" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "subway token" because he had never seen it before.

summer squash (noun)

Any of various usually bushy plants producing fruit that is eaten while immature and before the rind or seeds harden.

- Understanding "summer squash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "summer squash" means with a simple example.

surpassed (verb)

Be greater in scope or size than some standard.

- One line of soldiers surpassed the other.
- She tried to use "surpassed" carefully so everyone would understand.

swansea (noun)

A port city in southern Wales on an inlet of the Bristol Channel.

- He looked up "swansea" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "swansea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sweet sultan (noun)

Perennial of mountains of Iran and Iraq; cultivated for its fragrant rose-pink flowers.

- They discussed "sweet sultan" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sweet sultan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sweets (noun)

A dish served as the last course of a meal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweets."
- The article explained what "sweets" means with a simple example.

syracuse (noun)

The Athenian siege of Syracuse (415-413 BC) was eventually won by Syracuse.

- The article explained what "syracuse" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "syracuse" to mean the athenian siege of syracuse (415-413 bc) was....

tally (noun)

The act of counting; reciting numbers in ascending order.

- Their first tally came in the 3rd inning.
- He looked up "tally" because he had never seen it before.

tehran (noun)

The capital and largest city of Iran; located in northern Iran.

- In class, the teacher used "tehran" to mean the capital and largest city of iran; located in....
- He looked up "tehran" because he had never seen it before.

temporal order (noun)

Arrangement of events in time.

- In class, the teacher used "temporal order" to mean arrangement of events in time.
- Understanding "temporal order" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

temporal property (noun)

A property relating to time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "temporal property."
- Understanding "temporal property" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

temporal role (noun)

The semantic role of the noun phrase that designates the time of the state or action denoted by the verb.

- Understanding "temporal role" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "temporal role" because he had never seen it before.

---

termed (verb)

Name formally or designate with a term.

- He did not know how to use "termed" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "termed" and when to wait.

---

thermal reactor (noun)

A nuclear reactor in which nuclear fissions are caused by neutrons that are slowed down by a moderator.

- The article explained what "thermal reactor" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "thermal reactor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thirst for knowledge (noun)

Curiosity that motivates investigation and study.

- They discussed "thirst for knowledge" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "thirst for knowledge" because he had never seen it before.

---

thriving (adjective)

Very lively and profitable.

- A thriving tourist center.
- Did a thriving business in orchids.

---

time-fuse (noun)

A fuse made to burn for a given time (especially to explode a bomb).

- They discussed "time-fuse" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "time-fuse" because he had never seen it before.

---

timed (adjective)

Regularly spaced in time.

- Closely timed intervals.
- The speaker chose "timed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

tm (noun)

A soft silvery metallic element of the rare earth group; isotope 170 emits X-rays and is used in small portable X-ray machines; it occurs in monazite and apatite and xenotime.

- The article explained what "tm" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tm" during the group presentation.
